IS 'UFOLOGY' LOSING ITS WAY?

We might well ask, where are we going with 'UFOLOGY'? What was once the study of the UFO phenomena appears to be deteriorating into a stage where individuals with little interest in the subject can expound their theories on various issues with scant regard to the subject matter itself.

With the advent of the expensive 'Glossy' magazines now flooding into the newsagents, we are subjected to the same old repeated 'standards' of Barney and Betty Hill, Roswell, Adamski, Thomas Mantell etc. We also have a series of poorly made video's entering the market, at exorbitant prices, plus a range of new books inferior in quality and content. (A pleasant contrast to this, is the new book 'Left At East Gate', reviewed in this issue.)

It seems that many 'researchers' carry out very little investigation into the basic facts of an incident/report, preferring to accept second-hand information as verbatim. Over recent years we have seen such glaring errors as the 'Foo Fighter' photograph, showing a flight of fixed u/c aircraft, accompanied by a blob or two of light (depending on who prints the photograph). Various descriptions as 'Allied Aircraft Over Europe/ Over The Pacific, or 'A Flight Of Japanese Aircraft' photographed during WW2', (It is actually a flight of Japanese aircraft over Manchuria in 1936). Then we are told that during WW2, the Nazi SS had designed a 'Flying Saucer', (complete with crosses and an 88mm gun)....need I go on?

The recent 'Fife Landing Incident' (23rd September 96) is also a case that has raised many questions. Why for instance, was a case of such importance treated so flippantly by a number of 'seasoned' investigators? Questions have been asked as to why basic procedures, such as taking soil samples and checking the area for radiation were not carried out. Why were so few photographs of the area taken? Why was the landing site not minutely inspected for signs of alien interaction? Surely with a hundred-plus aliens wandering around, there must have been broken twigs, footprints or some trace residue? The lack of professionalism shown investigating what could well be an incident of major importance, is tragic. It is pretty obvious that we need to get our act together.

There are fortunately a number of dedicated researchers such as Timothy Good, still on the scene and showing how UFO research should really be carried out. Tim's eye for detail and inquiring mind is an excellent example on how the job should be done! We are presently being inundated with a wealth of mediocrity on the UFO scene and researchers should concentrate their minds on the task ahead. That is, to collect analyse and disseminate the information and not to treat witnesses flippantly and sightings as being of little consequence.

'EMUFORA' BOWS OUT IN STYLE

Tony James wound up his last EMUFORA meeting with a flourish, when the two American guest speakers, Larry Warren and Peter Robbins addressed the audience and gave an account of their new book 'LEFT AT EAST GATE'. The story of the Rendlesham Forest encounter in December 1980, when American Air Force police surrounded a landed UFO, complete with semi-transparent aliens.

The following account has been edited to conserve space, but is an accurate reflection of what was said.

Peter Robbins began with an account of how the book had taken 9 years to write. It all began in 1986 when Larry Warren wanted to set the record straight, after his 'account' of the incident had been presented in so many distorted ways in so many other books and articles. Another factor, was the statement by the Ministry of Defence, that the Rendlesham Forest incident was "of no defence significance" and yet it had happened next the base holding the largest stockpile of nuclear weapons in NATO! 'Officially' American nuclear weapons arrived here (in the U.K.) in 1982, yet this incident happened in 1980! Larry Warren commented that "not many Americans would have been very happy if the RAF had secretly housed weapons of mass destruction in their backyard."

Larry continued with an amazing revelation made by the (then) Deputy Base Commander, Lt. Col. Charles I. Halt USAF, in one of their three 'in depth' interviews. Col. Halt stated that on the night of December 29th/30th 1980, these UFO object came over and fired pencil thin beams of light down to the ground into the 'hardened' earth covered weapons storage facility and allegedly affected the nuclear ordnance in an adverse way. Larry commented "Wasn't that of some defence significance", he added that just one of these nuclear weapons could have wiped out most of Eastern England. He went on to say that as if the fact that these craft had neutralised a number of nuclear weapons was not enough, it was only part of the whole story.

The purpose of the book, was not to make money, Larry stated, he had been trying tell this story for the past fifteen years. The book was being well received commented Larry, it wasn't the best written book in the world and yet people seemed to like it.

Larry Warren then went on to explain his participation in the incident on the night of the 29th/30th December. The USAF was on 'high alert' at the RAF Woodbridge base, because of the Solidarity events occurring in Poland at that time. Larry had no idea of what had happened during the previous two nights at the base, he was only concerned with telling his story, other people could tell theirs.

He had decided to write a book because of the many inaccuracies that he had read about, concerning his own involvement. He wanted to put the record straight, mainly for himself and his family.

There was a difference between 'scepticism' and 'debunking', commented Larry, one showed disbelief, but the other involved character assassination. He had suffered many indignities as the result of his involvement in the Rendlesham incident. At one stage his passport was seized by the American authorities and it took high powered action by a prominent public figure, to retrieve it.

Larry went on to say that he and Peter had decided not to have such things as 'Flying Saucers' or 'Alien Head' on the cover or inside their book, which seemed to be the rage these days.

Even with computer graphics, the UFO's can never be created as they were seen, it was better to leave it to the imagination of the reader.

The 'living beings' that Larry saw, were translucent and there were three of them. Various books have shown like the 'E.T.' beings and a machine on the ground, but they were not like that. Larry commented "These things were translucent and they were above the ground. I will never forget it for the rest of my life, I wasn't frightened, but I was just numb. Things were not as they should have been in that field, this was a doorway into another dimension."

"People have come out with various stories, such as, we repaired the craft. No way, where would we get the parts from?" "There was no handshaking, no communication." "Any communication, if there was any, then it must have been telepathic. I don't know that, the only person who knows that for sure is Gordon Williams, our Wing Commander. We eventually went back to the base, some people made fun of us, it was too overwhelming, too many people saw it"

"Everything we saw was filmed and photographed, there is a paper trail on this." "I learned later that the film was taken to Bentwaters, where an F16 was waiting for it, it was handed to the pilot, the canopy closed and the aircraft left the base." "You can remove me, but you still have the story, it won't go away." "It was a very difficult time to start talking about this, when I did in 1983." "There was violent death as the result of this incident, one person committed suicide. I get very annoyed with so-called UFO investigators who have decided to do their own assessment of this incident, I have no interest in interacting with them at all."

"Shortly after the event, I wrote my Mom a letter, telling her about the UFO event and explaining that I would tell her all about it when I saw her, as the mail is read and censored. That was a stupid thing to do. But they didn't read it apparently, as she received it."

"Within two weeks of the event, after I wrote my letter, there was the (Col.) Halt document, but the dates are all wrong, it reads like science-fiction, but it is a watered-down version of that three day event and it is nowhere near what happened."

Larry Warren continued, "The events that happened at Bentwaters, surpassed 'Roswell', two fold, ten fold, they make Roswell look like a cup-cake." "I am always being told, 'Roswell', that's the American case!" "Roswell has given up, everything it is going to give up." "The biggest UFO event in our history happened in East Anglia, in YOUR COUNTRY." "We know that if this event (Rendlesham) was on trial, this event with all the evidence, not just me, I was only a small part of this, we would walk away with the verdict in our favour!" "Even for people who have never seen a UFO, even for people who don't believe in UFO's, because of the evidence, the fact that it happened, there can be no doubt!"

In 1983 Larry Warren became the first honourably discharged military witness to go public about the cover-up under his own name. He has lectured on the Bentwaters incidents extensively in the United States, England and Japan. Since leaving the service, Warren has worked in entertainment, public relations and broadcasting. He now lives in Vermont.

Peter Robbins was born in New York City. He holds a B.F.A. from New York's School of Visual Arts, where he also taught painting. He has worked as house manager for the city's Mirror Repertory Company and as executive assistant for the Intruders Foundation. Robbins has researched the subject of UFO's for more than twenty years and has lectured extensively on the topic. He lives in upstate New York.

The Evening Sky

June 1997

Choose a dark observation site where the sky is clear and the Moon is absent (June 1st to June 9th) and watch the band of the Milky Way ascending in the eastern sky. The Milky Way is the centre of our galaxy and contains, among other objects, a super-massive black hole believed to contain the same mass as 3 million Suns. One of the most mysterious objects, The Great Annihilator also resides in the Milky Way. It is a region where millions of tonnes of anti-matter annihilate ordinary matter, creating an energy jet 35 light years in length. One light year is 6 million million miles.

On a really clear, dark night the Milky Way is an awesome sight and one intuitively recognises the size and power of this immense cloud of stars and gas 30,000 light years distant.

Venus is visible in the evening twilight low in the north-western sky. Mars remains prominent, high in the south-western sky all evening.

The surface of Europa, a Moon of Jupiter consists of a water ice crust floating on top of a deep ocean. The ocean is warm due to heating (gravitational force) from Jupiter and is similar to the deep underground sea beds on Earth that are completely cut off from Sun light, yet vast microbial colonies thrive. Suddenly the Solar System seems to be teeming with life. However, 6 billion years hence, the Sun will swell, increasing its energy output, engulfing the Earth and triggering a super-atmospheric greenhouse that will eventually melt the terra firma.

Earth

The Summer solstice occurs on June 21st marking the Sun's highest point in the northern sky and heralding the start of summer.

The sky has always fascinated humanity. There are 88 constellations visible from Earth and our ancestors, Cro-Magnon, Aurignacian of Europe showed evidence of astronomical knowledge 30,000 years ago. Palaeolithic culture recognised the four cardinal points of the horizon and made Lunar calendars. They had elaborate burial rituals, body ornamentation, tool making methods, musical instruments and symbolic notation.. This is 25 thousand years prior to the building of the Great Pyramid and 15 thousand years before the end of the last Ice Age. Did, therefore, civilisation begin in Milton Keynes and not in ancient Babylon?

Due to professional and research commitments, I will not unfortunately be producing The Evening Sky. My colleague and friend Walter Berg, who is also an independent New Age scientist and author will replace me. It has been a great joy to produce The Evening Sky and I have made so many friends in the course of the past seven years. May I thank you all for your support and for your interest in Science and Astronomy.

Enjoy Your Evening Sky!

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

You may have deduced from our brief discussion that I am not a member of the Staffordshire group and whilst I do have a long and somewhat passionate interest in astronautics and astronomy, my interest in UFOs, as craft from other star systems, is somewhat sceptically viewed. I find that some 'ufologists' are more interested in drawing conclusions to suit their beliefs rather than applying correct investigatory principles to arrive at the truth. Don't misunderstand me, UFOs do exist, of that there is no doubt. The question we are all endeavouring to explain is what are they, where do they come from, what are they doing here and what do they want? The investigation to answer these imponderables must and should continue.

It appears to me that any group wishing to extend their understanding of this subject must, by the very nature of the topic, be well versed in their understanding of the cosmos and our position within it. The question of naivety you raise is well justified and, whilst some ufo groups are professional in their approach, others are not and almost render the topic of 'ufology' in a fashion reminiscent of 'flat earth societies'.

With regard to the flying triangle I observed, I cannot give too much detail, but what little I do have I recount to you now. It was during mid-October 1994, whilst relaxing at home that I observed, through my lounge window, a slowly moving light, moving east to west towards Longton/Stoke on Trent. The time would have been about 9.00 pm. I went outside so that I could see the light more clearly. Incidentally, living in the countryside enables good and clear observation. I was surprised to see that the object was not displaying a single light but several arranged in a triangular fashion with the apex uppermost. The lights were all red in colour and appeared to be pulsating up the left and right sides of an isosceles triangle. There were also red lights on the shorter (horizontal) side of the triangle but they were fixed and not pulsating.

I watched the spectacle for about 15 minutes. The triangle was at an elevation of approximately  $25^\circ$ , eventually disappearing in the direction of Longton at an elevation of approximately  $5^\circ$ . Since it was dark, it wasn't possible to gauge the size of the object but the speed was not excessive, probably in the order of 300-400 mph. Perhaps the best description of the object would be to liken it to the appearance of a flying Christmas tree with flashing red lights.

I hope the description assists. It certainly didn't conform to any of the usual light patterns associated with ariel craft and there was no aircraft noise or other audible sounds.

Best wishes

SPINNING LIGHTS OVER DERBY

Case 97/6

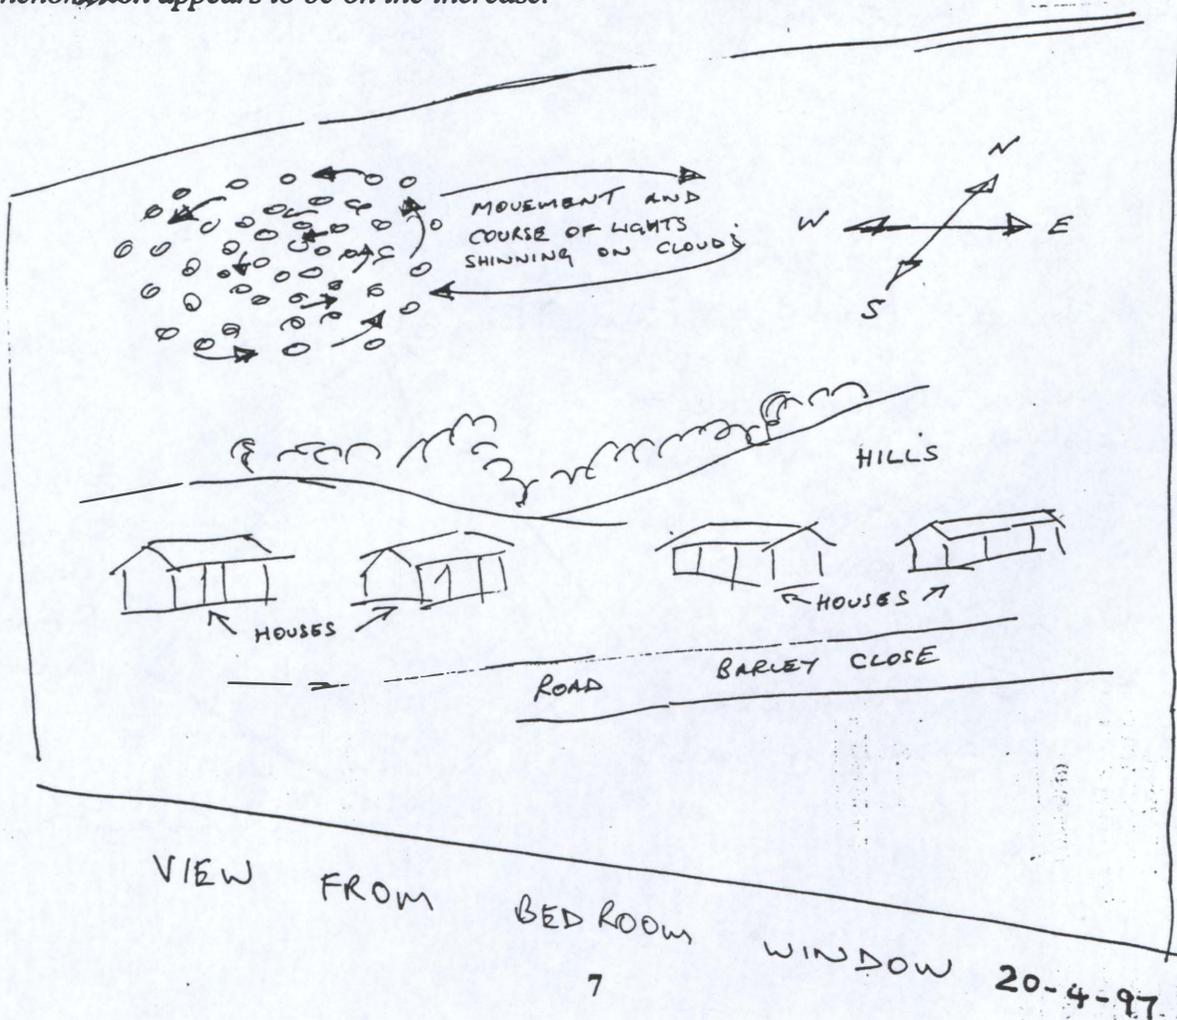

On Saturday the 20th April at 11.20pm, Mr C.P. (36), had just entered his bedroom at his home in Littleover Derby. He walked over to the widow to close the curtains and as he did so his attention was drawn to a "cluster of lights" shining through the clouds in a NW direction. "The bedroom was in darkness and the sky was cloudy" commented Mr C.P.

The white lights were spinning in an anti-clockwise direction, resembling a 'mirror ball' and they travelled in a spiralling motion across the sky. The lights were not very bright, but extensive "about tray size" as they moved across the sky from W to N and then back again.

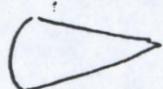

At this point the witness ran downstairs and out of the front door to get a better view, he was closely followed by his wife (who thought his car was being stolen!). Mr C.P.'s wife then watched the phenomenon with her husband, then she ran into the house to telephone her mother, who lived just around the corner. The mother also went into her garden and observed the lights.

The phenomenon was observed for about 25 minutes and came to an end, when the lights 'froze' in the sky. At this point, commented the witness, "it was still cloudy, but as a break in the clouds came over, the lights just went out."

Editors Note: Could this have been a 'laser lights show' from a local club? It was a Saturday night and the time sounds about right (11.20pm). The lights disappeared when a gap in the clouds came over. Could it have been that there was nothing to reflect the laser lights beamed from below? If anyone has any information on the lights, please let us know, as this phenomenon appears to be on the increase.

AN AMAZING ABDUCTION CASE FROM 'BRETBY' IN 1973

How many times have we heard the name 'Bretby' pop up in connection with unusual UFO sightings. This small village, just a mile or so, NE of Burton-on-Trent, has been the scene of several 'Flying Triangle' incidents over recent years. The following account, refers not to a 'FT', but a 'Pyramid' shaped UFO (see previous page) encountered in the winter of 1973.

During the period 1971-74 the witness and his wife experienced a number of UFO sightings and they were becoming concerned that they were 'being observed'. Over a period of years they have seen a series of white moving lights in the area and have had one 'high strangeness' encounter. (This is related first and is independent of the other incident....or was it?)

Mr JR relates what happened when he was out walking with his wife and his German Shepherd dog one winter's evening. They were in a country area with a few trees dotted around, when they saw "a man dressed in black clothing and with a trilby hat pulled down over his face". "He carried a black box under his right arm and tried repeatedly to point it at us". "We dodged behind some trees, our dog was bearing her teeth at him." "We fled and the man disappeared." "Other people were walking about at the time and seemed not to notice him."

(There have been many instances where there has been an encounter of some kind and people surrounding the witness have not appeared to notice anything?)

The UFO Experience: A True Account (By Witness 'JR')

More than twenty years ago, my home was in in the Bretby area. It was a winter's night (1993/4), not too cold and the sky was heavy with dark clouds, scudding before strong winds. I had retired to bed as usual and fallen to sleep shortly afterwards.

I then became aware of a clanging of metal, I slowly aroused from my slumber, (my wife was sleeping quietly next to me). The sound was coming from somewhere above the roof above my bedroom, obviously caused by the rough, gusting wind. I then realised that the sound was coming from the area of the chimney stack and I wondered what was going to happen, when suddenly, I realised that I was not alone!

I sensed that there was a woman positioned near to the back of my head, I recollect that she appeared to be about 30'ish and quite good looking, somehow this seemed to be put into my mind. I next found myself in a vertical position and rising up through the roof, with the woman being by my left side and a little to the back of me. I didn't feel afraid, somehow my mind seemed pleasantly controlled, as though to avoid being alarmed or even to question what was happening to me. I was now rising up by the chimney stack and could see directly ahead. I next realised that there was a pyramid or triangular shaped object, not large, perhaps it could have fitted into a 14ft. square room. It was of very simple design, with simple metal legs attached to each corner. It was one of these legs that was banging against the chimney stack and making the clanging noise as the craft gently rocked in the wind.

In a second or two, I was seated inside the thing, with the woman standing behind the chair, again I didn't see much of her as my eyes seemed only capable of looking straight ahead. The interior was lit by a green light, the source of which, I couldn't see. Then I saw a Chinese-looking man, he was wearing a top similar to that which dental surgeons wear entered. He was between 5'-6" to 5'-9" in height and had a slim build.

I know his face was pleasant and he had Chinese type eyes. He was speaking to the woman, but I have no memory of what they said.

Then he approached me and rolled an instrument across my upper and lower teeth, which was quite painless. I remember the green lit interior, but I saw nothing of instrument panels or whatever one might expect to see in a craft of this nature.

Suddenly my mind was blank and the next thing I recall was being in bed, wide awake. I did not awaken my wife, but lay there pondering on this unusual happening, until I fell asleep. I told my wife about the experience, in the morning.

In answer to a number of questions, the witness stated the following-

The craft appeared to be dark grey.

I do not remember seeing any lights on the craft.

Fear or excitement played no part of my experience and never has done since.

I do not remember finding any strange marks on my body.

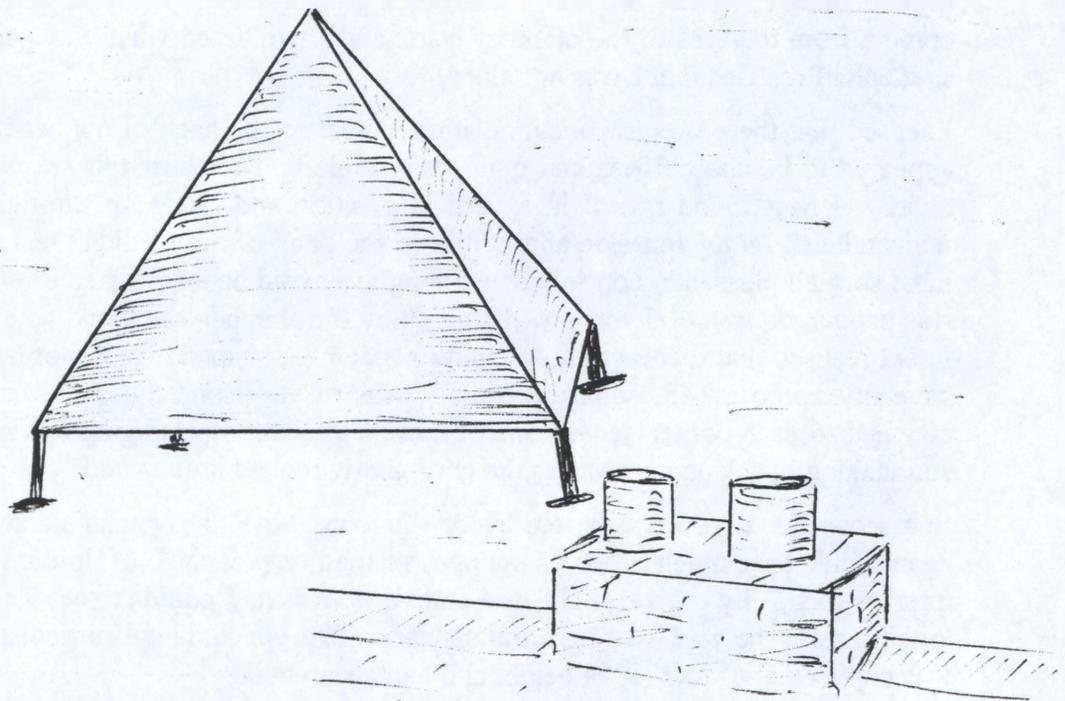

I remembered the events immediately I returned to my bed.

I feel that I only saw and heard what 'they' wanted me to.

I have not suffered any bad dreams or any 'visitations' as the result of my experience.

You may use my Bretby experience and any others in any of your publications, provided that you withhold my name and address.

'J.R.' 4/4/97

Sketch by the witness 'JR'

The Pensacola/Gulf Breeze MUFON monthly meeting was set back a week to May 18th because of Mother's Day. Our guest speaker this month will be Caryl Dennis from Clearwater, Florida. Caryl is an experiencer and a researcher of UFO-related phenomena. She has researched the science of colors and the "missing twin" syndrome. She has recently published her latest findings in a new book entitled "The Millenium Children: Tales of the Shift". In this work, she poses the question: "Are there connections among UFO phenomena, the vanishing twin syndrome and the current influx of children with extraordinary intuitive, intellectual and physical abilities?" These are the Millenium Children. Caryl's book details the stories of some of these children and their families and includes many unusual and interesting cases. Children are being born with extreme strength, such as the boy who upon being run over by a car, promptly lifted it off of himself and then entertained the hospital staff by throwing office desks around the room. Many other children are being born with memories of past lives not on this planet or with memories of being in other relationships with their current family members such as the child who asked his mother if she remembered "when he and Grandad were twins."

Here are two more reports of sightings from the Fairhope area. Jesse Hogan, a resident of Orange Street in Fairhope, AL was walking his dog on April 5th, 1997 between 2:00 and 2:30 p.m. when he saw a strange object flying over Mobile Bay near the Orange Street pier. Mr. Hogan stated that the vehicle resembled a truck tire on its side, was approximately 60 feet in diameter, and had ten square windows along the side and was completely smooth. He took his dog back into the house and when he came back out the vehicle was gone.

The second report comes from an attendee of the 5th Annual Project Awareness UFO Conference recently held in Gulf Breeze. Mac Morris returned home to Lillian, Alabama on the night of Sunday March 23rd, 1997 at the end of the Conference. She and her sister were called out of her home by their two sons and a friend who were observing a silent "green" light in the sky, which was immobile, but seemed to turn almost sideways as they watched. When the mothers got outside, they saw an orange disc, the size of the full moon in the sky. They were looking westward toward Soldiers Creek.

Two nights later, on March 25th, they went out to see Hale-Bopp, but their view of the comet was obscured by trees so they decided to drive over the Perdido Bay Bridge to look from the Florida side of the Bay. They observed what appeared to be a similar orange disc of comparable size to that which they had seen two nights ago, which was a little higher in the northwestern sky than the comet. It is unfortunate that this report has no details as to duration of these sightings, or the time that they occurred, or how the objects left or disappeared.

No more reports have been received from the investigators over in Alabama and I hope that, as is so often the case, an information "black out" has not been imposed by whatever other interested parties have become involved in this investigation. It is of the utmost importance to the research of the UFO phenomena that researchers and research groups remain open and share and spread their information concerning sightings and encounters. Secrecy among researchers and research groups and the failure to share information unfortunately has a large precedent and has done more damage to the progression of UFO research than anything else, including Government cover-ups. The least we can do is get the information regarding these events out there. I hope to receive more information soon and share it with those who are interested via this column.
