AND NOW IT'S CAPRI WHO IS WARNED TO STOP

Men In Black, The Silencers - - do they really exist? Maybe they do, maybe they don't - - but that is not the question at hand. For you to understand fully, the facts that I am going to present to you, I must go back to the beginning of when it ALL started ... for CAPRI, myself, and a local director of CAPRI in New Orleans, Louisiana.

On June 2, 1969 (P.M.), Gina Rando, Local Director-New Orleans, La. Branch, received her first strange phone call. Gina had just completed an investigation on the "DYKES" sighting that had taken place in her area. The persons (2) calling her asked such questions as how many observed the craft, did it make any sound, any lights observed, any photos taken and if so, who has them, who has the tapes of the interview that she made, etc. Gina refused to answer any of the questions because they did not identify themselves nor did they have any intention of doing so. THEY also wanted to get hold of the membership records in New Orleans. Again, Gina refused to comply.

Two days before Gina was scheduled to fly to CAPRI Headquarters in Chelsea, Mass. for special consultation, she received another STRANGE call. This time, however, it seemed to come from ANOTHER source.

The callers identified themselves as "International Organization, 1 Wall Street, Room 959, New York City." They said they knew of her planned trip to Chelsea on June 16 although the only people aware of it at the time were Miss Rando and myself. How these people learned of the trip is beyond my understanding at this particular point. Knowing of her trip, the caller related a warning to Miss Rando in the belief that she would carry the message directly to me. The warning was as follows: CAPRI should not in-investigate, conduct research, or publish anything that has reference to FREE ENERGY (i.e., You will note that in the last issue of Capri News, Vol. 2/No. 4 we published an article by Isaac Asimov entitled "Can anti-gravity really exist?" This is the specific subject these men are referring to). Continuing, they said that continued reference to the subject would disrupt the world and cause global panic. Then they stated that they wanted access to ALL the CAPRI files, that they were going to send one of their agents to Headquarters (#317) in Chelsea at an unspecified date and from that point on, CAPRI would be SHORT-LIVED(i.e., the man calling and doing all the talking identified himself as Agent #360).

At the final stage of the conversation, up until the time that Miss Rando hung up her receiver, electronic type noises and men talking in a broken-type foreign (alien) language were heard distinctly in the background (i.e., Miss Rando is well versed in the art of the languages. This particular language she heard being spoken in the background was completely unknown to her). Also, it is important to note that the caller was speaking very broken, almost mechanical, English.

At the time your editor received the message from Miss Rando, I had a personal friend of mine, a private investigator, check out the story. On conclusion of his investigation, the following facts were presented to me: (1) no such organization listed (2) no such address listed ANYMORE - 1 Wall Street is currently in the process of being torn down for redevelopment. Therefore, the callers are either obviously pranksters or if the men are who they SAY they are, they called from an UNTRACEABLE location.(?)

At the time of this printing, no visitations have thus far taken place. Also, you may note that the warning to CAPRI to cease all activities related to the Free Energy field acts, to me, as a strong possibility to the key to finding the answer to the Saucer Mystery. It is, in my opinion, of the utmost importance that we continue the study of this field now more than ever. Since that warning was issued, much advanced research into the FREE ENERGY field has transpired.

It has also been suggested to your editor that the M.I.B. and/or Silencers have infiltrated our organization either through some other organization or by direct membership. This is the way it is suspected to be, whereas, only members and associates of CAPRI receive our publication. Also, the director of UNAPRO has suggested that your editor's life may be in danger . . . to take appropriate steps to ward off this possibility. The same director pledged to your editor his COMPLETE support and cooperation. Numerous letters and detailed tape recordings of this account have been sent to various EXPERIENCED UFOlogists with special instructions, by myself, of what to do and who to contact in the eventuality of my sudden disappearance . . . or sudden lack of correspondence within a reasonable period of time. Although I am inclined to call this little episode one big farce, plans have already been put into action and are in current effect . . . regardless of the present circumstances.

These agents, or sorts, have been reported by many UFOlogists; they have been photographed; and frankly speaking, in the CAPRI files we have a documented, exclusive story of an alleged apprehension which was made at a military installation in Massachusetts. The reason I have made this verification was to assure you that these AGENTS are not UNTOUCHABLE.

It is the duty and obligation of your editor to publish any and all data (presuming it to be the truth) that could prove to be beneficial to the readers of CAPRI NEWS. This fine country that we live in has several laws: freedom of the press, freedom of speech, freedom to tell the truth, and that is exactly the policy your editor intends to follow. So my fellow UFOlogists, prepare for some shocking revelations in the months to follow.

17, Feb. 1969 . . . Upon returning from a quick investigation of an alleged UFO report submitted by a local resident, Sgt. Donald Prange and Patrolman Walter Orcutt suddenly observed an unidentified flying object come up over some high power lines about 1/2 mile down the road that they were travelling. It was a bright white light which came slowly towards them as it moved towards the west. As it passed overhead at an estimated altitude of about 500 feet, they saw that it was trailed by a "small red ball." The larger white object had a "transparent" edge that exhibited a frosty grey color. It was three times larger than the red ball and had an apparent size of a dime held at arms length. It emitted an unusual "whirring" type sound which could not be associated with that of any KNOWN type of aircraft. The objects disappeared within a matter of seconds by going straight up through the clouds.

Below is a drawing submitted by Moore illustrating the observations:

8, March, 1969-Illinois . . . Deputies Raymond Richards and Joseph Volenec, from Du Page County, Ill., said that they saw a cigar-shaped object, 100 feet long, with 4 small white lights, one red light, and two stubby wings. The sighting occurred at 3:25 a.m. during a routing patrol on "Illinois 53", near Thronedale Road, near Itasca. The object hovered above them at an altitude of about 1000 feet, they said, then flew away without a sound when they turned their spotlights on it.

4, March, 1969 - Missouri . . . William Overstreet, 51, of Elmer, Mo., said that on March 4, 1969 at 6:40 A.M. on Highway J, four miles west of Atlanta, Mo., he noticed a large red object about 1/2 mile to the right of him. He said that at the time he was travelling East, approaching East Fork Bottom and the object was travelling North. As the object came closer, Overstreet said that he could see that the UFO was about 100 feet in diameter and about 50 feet above the ground. He said the light was so bright that he pulled down the visor in his truck and shielded his eyes with his hands. He said he couldn't hear any sound as IT cruised along the road ahead of him at an estimated 40 M.P.H.

Overstreet said that it was below freezing when he left Elmer and that there was ice around the windshield of his truck. As he got closer to the object, a strong white light came down on the road in front of him and was so hot that it melted the ice on the windshield of his truck. Continuing, he said that when the white light came to the ground, the object changed colors. The center part of the object changed to a bright blue with a quivering sensation. Around the blue was a wide red band, then a small yellow band on the outside, which glowed like bubble lights and made the yellow band look like it was turning clockwise around the rest of it. No windows or doors were visible on the craft. As Overstreet approached the light, his truck went completely dead . . . including his citizens band radio. As soon as the object started to move away, power again was restored. He said the object followed the side of Highway J until it crossed Highway 62 then veered off to the Southeast and went out of sight. The duration of the sighting was about seven to eight minutes.

From: CAPRI International
Reported by: Gina Rando
Local Director: New Orleans, La.

31, Jan., 1969 - Amite, La. . . On the aforementioned date, at about 7:30 P.M., Emmett Dykes, his wife, his children, two of their relatives and a friend of the family observed an odd phenomena which scared them out of their wits. At the time of the alleged observation they were about seven miles out on their fifty acre farm on a clear, cloudless night. Suddenly, they all noticed a disc shaped object hovering over a set of power lines. The object was estimated to be about twenty feet in diameter, and was also estimated to be about fifty feet above the lines. From their position, 300 yards from the object, it seemed to be moving very slowly, following a course of west to east, then back to west again. They finally lost sight of the object when it manouvered behind some trees in the distance. As Dykes further explained, the description of the craft, he said that it had red and green revolving lights all about the craft. There was absolutely no sound heard. The duration of the sighting lasted for about twenty minutes (i.e., it is most unfortunate that, during the LONG duration of the sighting, none had a camera handy. I'm sure if someone DID take a few pictures, that we could have had some pretty conclusive evidence to the fact of "Flying Saucer Reality.") Your Editor asked Miss Rando to submit her own analysis of the situation. She commented, "Both Mr. & Mrs. Dykes were very sincere about what they saw. The children said that they were afraid that the THING would carry their Grandmother off. I believe that these people saw what they said they did. They waited almost four months before they reported it and if they hadn't seen the ad from CAPRI (Dykes' statement) "We would have never come forward . . . CAPRI is needed down here." (i.e., Miss Rando ran an ad in the local paper(s) verifying the fact that CAPRI was a UFO investigation and public information service . . . that it had several branch offices located throughout Louisiana . . . and that anyone having information or desiring information should contact one of the listed offices.

EYEWITNESS REPORTS: IT HAPPENED IN OHIO

by Bill Moore

THE MIND CONTROLLERS

Dale Spaur was a Portage County sheriff's deputy. In April of 1966, he chased a UFO 86 miles through Ohio into Pennsylvania to end up with a ruined life and a wrecked home.

This is an account of that bizarre chase:

Spaur was driving patrol car No. 13 that night and Barney Neff was with him. They noticed a red and white 1959 Ford Sedan beside the road and stopped to check it out. The car itself was very strange for on its side was a strange emblem with a bolt of lightning and the inscription "Seven Steps to Hell" written above it. The car was filled with walkie-talkies.

Suddenly, Spaur heard a humming sound from behind him. He turned and saw a huge saucer-shaped craft rising out of the woods. It was about 50 feet across and 15 to 20 feet high. It had a dome and antenna on the top. The entire underside gleamed with an intense purplish-white light.

Neither could move. Spaur knew he couldn't move, that his limbs would not work. The ship rose to about 150 feet and moved directly over the patrol car. Both Spaur and Neff felt warm, pleasing heat from the light blazing from the bottom of the craft. The light was so intense that tears streamed from their eyes. At one point Spaur thought of going to the patrol car, yet he didn't. Something told him that if he touched the car it would disappear.

Then the saucer moved from over the patrol car, both men - as if on command - dashed from the cruiser. Spaur radioed in, telling headquarters of the ship. Other reports had already flared over the radio. The command was "Shoot it!" Then the night sargent told him to chase it. The huge craft then moved away. Spaur followed, slowly at first, then increasing his speed to more than 100 miles an hour at times.

The craft seemed to let him follow it. It waited for him at intersections. Once, it seemed to double back when he was forced to turn away from its eastward path. Then his patrol car ran out of gas at Pittsburgh and the craft disappeared.

Once again, in June, he was on Interstate 80S and there it was. He pulled over, radioed in, and sat there staring at the floor of the car, not wanting to see Floyd (code given to the UFO-Spaur's middle name). After that he was interrogated, pushed around, got strange letters from places like Little Rock, Arkansas, and Australia, telling him what to do and other things.

He doesn't know what happened to the sedan with "Seven Steps to Hell" written on it, and he doesn't really care. His life was ruined by the saucer so why should he?

Other men were affected by the humming craft. Patrolman H. Wayne Huston formerly of East Palestine, Ohio saw the saucer. Several months later he resigned his job, changed his name and moved to Washington. Police Chief Gerald Buchert of Mantua saw the craft and photographed it. The shots were very poor. Now Buchert laughs nervously when he speaks of that night. Special Deputy W.L. Neff who rode with Spaur during the chase won't talk about it. Patrolman Frank Pansanella of Conway, Pa. is silent. He had his telephone removed shortly after that.

Thus ends the tale of Dale Spaur, or does it? Each night he is haunted by the saucer. Each night he relives that April morning. The craft found a place in his mind, and is there to stay, eating away at him bit by bit.

What would you do if it happened to YOU? What if a UFO controlled YOU for a time? Think it over!

HYBRED MAN AND THE PURPOSE OF FLYING SAUCERS

by Dennis Roguskie
(CAPRI Local Director - Shenandoah, Pa.)

A great deal of the information employed in this article is credited to "Flying Saucers are Watching Us" by Otto O. Binder.

The two key questions often raised among UFOlogists today are. (1) Why is man so different from all the other mammals? and (2) Why does he uniquely possess almost no bodily hair, an overweight brain, lack of tooth gaps and supersensitive skin? The only reasonable answer is that man is a crossbred hybrid by saucer-men.

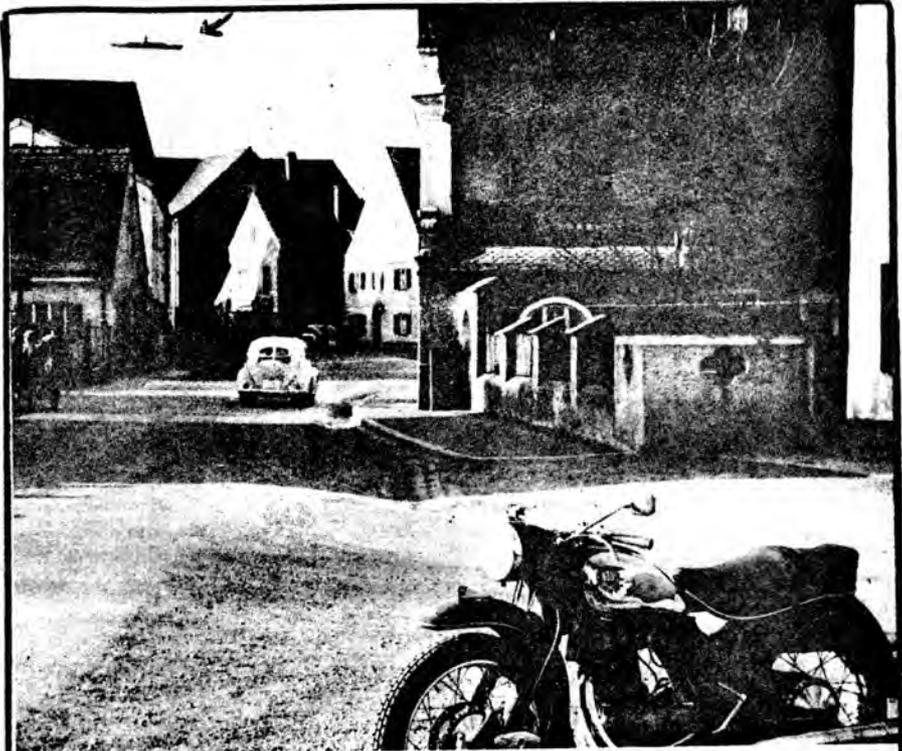

I will start off by examining the first unusual characteristic of man; POSSESSION OF ALMOST NO BODILY HAIR - All other mammals are almost entirely covered by hair but man possesses almost no hair. This may be a trait inherited by us from our saucer-men ancestors. They had hair only on certain parts of their body which either protected it (example; to protect body from the elements) or aided it (the body). A good example of this is the hair on the head. The presence of hair on the head keeps the brain warm so it can function properly. As a result, less blood is sent to the brain (because the blood keeps the brain warm also) and more blood is sent to other bodily organs. BRAIN OVERWEIGHT - Our saucer-men ancestors probably had a brain case capacity of about 3,000 cubic centimeters and our apemen ancestors had a brain case capacity of about 800 c.c. As a result of interbreeding, modern man has a brain case capacity of about 1,300 c.c. (medium size compared to saucer-men). All the other animals had just as many millions of years to develop and evolve their brainpower as man did and yet they didn't. If all the other animals couldn't do it alone then neither could man, so this proves he had to have outside help, namely the saucer-men. Through interbreeding, man's brain evolved to what it is today. LACK OF TOOTH GAPS - The other animals have spaces between their teeth but man does not. Early fossils of man show that he once had these gaps. The lack of these spaces between teeth can be attributable only to the saucer-men. They probably discovered that when food becomes trapped in the spaces between their teeth it caused decay and through some highly advanced means of dentistry closed these gaps thus stopping decay and improving their eating tools. Through interbreeding man has inherited this unique characteristic. SUPERSENSITIVE SKIN - None of the other animals have the extremely fine sense of touch that man possesses. A great deal more information is sent to man's brain by his skin's reaction to stimuli than that of any other animal. Through millions of years the saucer-men had plenty of time to transform their skin into a supersensitive organ. Thus we inherited this characteristic from the saucer-men.

The reason for flying saucers capturing men and machines and giving them thorough examinations is to check on man's physical and technological progress. This also holds true in cases where flying saucers hover over towns and houses and observe people. They wait and watch in their saucers for the day when man will become truly civilized and intelligent and they will then make themselves know to him.

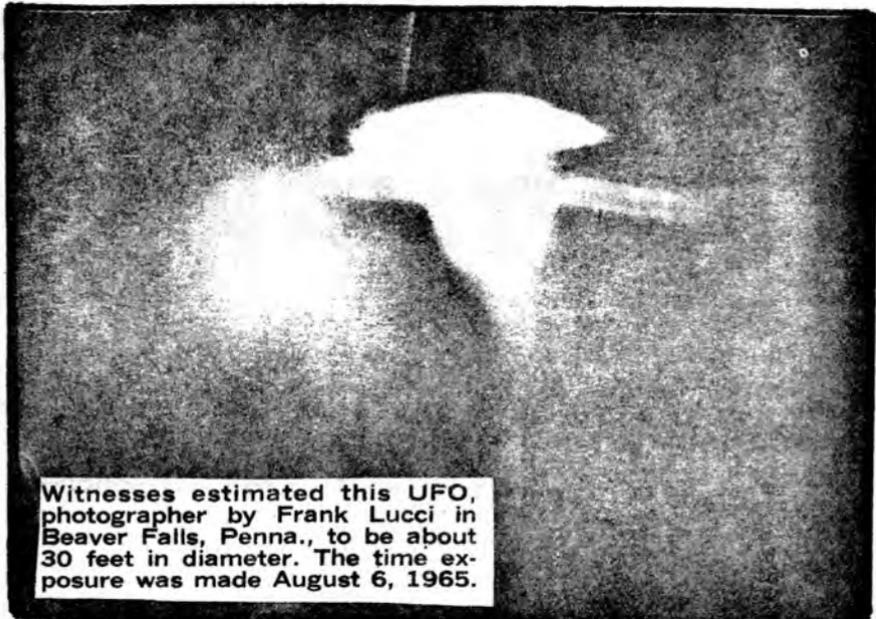

Saucers turn up in the strangest places! This one was found in a European "motorcycling" magazine, apparently unnoticed by its editors when they included the picture in their magazine. The magazine and town are unidentified.

Last year the Amherst, New York, BEE published this photo of a UFO made by three local high school students.

Witnesses estimated this UFO, photographer by Frank Lucci in Beaver Falls, Penna., to be about 30 feet in diameter. The time exposure was made August 6, 1965.

Emerging UFOs

by Kurt Glemser

The BSRA refers to the term of crossing space by the etherians as "emergence." A UFO "emerges" when its vibratory rate is changed. When this has been done UFOs, or any other object, appear to be made of solid material.

It is while UFOs haven't completely emerged that it has been reported planes flew through them.

There have been numerous sightings of UFOs mysteriously vanishing while in view. This happens because the UFOs changed their vibratory rate.

Francis Chichester, enroute from New South Wales to New Zealand, in 1931, observed several UFOs. They moved at amazing speeds. One of the UFOs flew in front of him and faded into nothingness.

In 1944 a U.S. Intelligence Officer, Lt. Ringwald, spotted eight to ten foo fighters near Strasbourg. The UFOs did not appear on radar. As Lt. Ringwald maneuvered his plane towards the UFOs they vanished into thin air. Moments later they reappeared and then flew off.

U.S. pilots saw a foo fighter over western Germany in 1944. It flew at amazing speed, did a wing-over and vanished into nothingness.

On Dec. 24, 1944, two U.S. pilots, of the 415th Night Fighter Squadron, flying near Hagenau, Germany, saw a red foo fighter shoot in front of them and disappear in full view.

In 1945, a B-29 was being followed by a ball of fire. After chasing the plane for some time it disappeared 60 miles from Tokyo.

A U.S. pilot in 1945 was being followed by a formation of foo fighters. The pilot turned the plane around and headed for the UFOs. They vanished! As he passed their last position the pilot said he could feel the propeller backwash of invisible planes.

Two saucers were seen over Copenhagen, Denmark on Feb. 18, 1950. One saucer flew over a farmhouse and the other landed in a farmyard. The latter disintegrated into a shower of sparks.

On Sept. 15, 1952, the famous Flatwoods Monster was seen. There is a strange angle to this case. Although the UFO had been seen to land nobody saw it leave. It is possible that the UFO emerged into another dimension.

A UFO was seen flying over New York on Dec. 20, 1955. It disappeared while the persons were viewing it.

Over Penquannock, N.J., two large red globes were seen in July, 1965. When they came to a certain spot in the sky they simply vanished.

In September, 1965, two objects were observed over Wayne, N.J. They both disappeared in the same spot.

A red cloud-like UFO was seen over Amherst, Ohio on Feb. 10 1966. The object disappeared in view of the observer.

A long, silver UFO disappeared over Walnutport, Pa. on August 23, 1966.

A silver UFO disappeared over Ann Arbor, Mich. on May 4, 1966.

On September 16, 1967, six other persons, beside myself, watched a UFO move slowly across the sky over Kitchener, Ontario. After some eight minutes the object disappeared in full view.

On Feb. 16, 1968, I and one other person observed a ball of yellow light. It was the size of a quarter held at arm's length. Like in the other sighting, the object simply disappeared. These objects were not meteorites that disintegrated - I know the difference. Both the objects, in my two sightings, were travelling away from the earth.

FLYING SAUCERS AND THE BIBLE (Part 2)

By G. Rando

Dear friends and members of CAPRI:

In the last issue of Capri News (Vol. 2/No. 4) we discussed flying saucers in the Bible. In this issue we are going to probe deeper into this mystery. I hope you will find this article of interest and maybe put your thoughts on an entire new plane.

If you study the Bible closely, you will find over 350 such references! This is not confined to our own Bible by any means. Other great records mention the coming of the visitors, which we will discuss in a later issue. To continue, it reads in Hebrews 1:2,
"(GOD)" hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son, whom He hath appointed heir of all things
by whom also made the WORLDS

God did not say world, He said "WORLDS". Right here it states that there is definitely MORE than our own earth. We read again in Hebrews 11:3,

"Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which appear."

There again reference to other worlds. People in the Bible were well aware that worlds were "made of things that do not appear." Why is it so difficult for people of today to have this kind of faith. Worlds came out of the invisible into the visible (from cause to effect).

In the Gospel of St. John 14:2 we read,

"In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

It is inconceivable to believe that Christ was the only one in His world. There must have been millions of happy people thought of as angels when they came to earth to visit.

FLYING SAUCERS AND THE BIBLE (Part 2) (cont'd)

No place does He mention that there is only ONE WORLD... We are of this world and born from it. Christ was born from this world, but is not from it.

Christ Himself told us he was NOT of this world in St. John 8:23, "And He said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: Ye are of this world; I am not of this world."

THE ALLENDE LETTERS - PART III

by Mike Dunphy - C.A.P.R.I.

CONCLUSION

When the office of Naval Research received an annotated copy of M.K. Jessup's "The case for the UFOs" they immediately sent for Mr. Jessup. The book had been addressed to Admiral N. Furth, Chief, O.N.R., it was postmarked Seminole, Texas, and a cheery "Happy Easter" was written across the face of the envelope. Was this some great practical joke someone was playing on the O.N.R. or was "someone" (Allende?) just letting them know that he knew just what they had been doing?

Nevertheless, Naval research was extremely interested in this mysterious Mr. Allende and where and how he had gotten this information.

An investigator checked out Allende's Pennsylvania address and found only a vacant farmhouse(?).

Some strange occurrences related to the Allende mystery are as follows:

One man claimed that a man purporting to be Allende warned him to discontinue research or "wind up a suicide like Jessup."

Here in his own words is what happened to Mr. Stephen Yankee; "After some rather persistent inquiries I managed to obtain a microfilm copy of "The Case for the UFOs" written by Dr. M.K. Jessup. In August of 1966 I was living in a small town in northern Michigan, working in a large pulp and paper plant. About three weeks after receipt of the film, on a lonely September night, while I was working the night shift in this industrial concern, I was paid an enigmatic visit by two men. The first thing to come into my mind was the odd hour of the visit - 3:00 a.m.! The two men were rather tall, both had dark, short hair and had what appeared to be good tans. Both were dressed in black shirts and pants and dark jackets. Their visit was short, only five minutes or less, but their message has stuck in my mind for over a year now. One addressed me as Mr. Yankee and asked me of my work on the Jessup-Allende case. I cautiously stated that I had indeed heard of the Allende case, had been studying them to some slight degree, but because of the difficulty in obtaining any meaningful information, I was returning to my original investigations and closing the file of the former. The two evidently seemed satisfied with my replies for they suddenly turned and walked out of the room. By this time, I had an inkling of who they were, or rather who they were not (my first impression was that they were from the government). I jumped up from the chair and hurried out after them - not more than twenty seconds behind. Upon reaching the doorway, I paused and looked down the corridor for them. They could have gone in but one direction, but they were not in sight. They had vanished into ---- where! I moved forward slowly. About ten feet from the door I experienced an odd feeling - a sense of dissipated energy or residual electrical current. I checked with fellow workers in and around the building I was working in and they reported seeing no one. Checks with the plant guard substantiated my belief - no one had signed in at the industrial complex that night."

These are only a few reports related to the Allende mystery.

In closing this report I would simply like to ask you, "Who is Carlos M. Allende (Carl Allen)??"

"It says 'made in Japan.'"

The following topics are designed especially for those readers who are THINKERS. We strongly suggest SERIOUS research into these OFF-LIMITS "suggestive" questions. We feel that DEEP study into these topics may reveal evidence that could very well shake the foundations of pre-established science, technology, and standards.

FREE ENERGY AND UFO MOTIVATION

Research and Article by

E.J. Minasian, President CAPRI

(Additional credits to Otto Binder's (What We Really Know About Flying Saucers"))

To understand this subject in generalities you must acquaint yourself first with the definition of the term "ENERGY."

"ENERGY is the capacity of a body to overcome resistance and do work".

The following are the forms of energy:

- 1) Kinetic energy - of a body in motion
- 2) Potential energy - possessed by a body by virtue of its position (i.e., coiled spring or body placed above the earth's surface)
- 3) Atomic energy, or Fission

Now in the term "Free Energy" which is a term used in Thermodynamics, can be defined as "HEAT and MECHANICAL ENERGY ... and the "CONVERSION OF ONE INTO THE OTHER."

A typical example of a "Free Energy" device would be an atomic (power) plant or, in another instance, a SOLAR (power) plant.

Getting down to the subject at hand; it is ALMOST internationally accepted that UFOs use some sort of anti-gravitational device utilizing a free energy product. Using an educated guess, I would so much as say that these UFOs are not DEFYING gravity, but are UTILIZING it! At this time, it is important to note that gravity (magnetism), electricity, and atomic energy are all linked in together, serving as a key to open the door to the riddle. Further, it is important to realize that these 3 KEYS all revolve around "THE UNIFIED FIELD THEORY," as explained by the late Dr. Albert Einstein.

Let us now look into many witnessed aspects of UFO flight patterns and apply all the above stated subjects accordingly:

FREE ENERGY AND UFO MOTIVATION (cont'd)

- 1) CHANGING IN COLOR: The general concept is that the energy field, be it magnetic or gravitational, influences and captures the air within its immediate vicinity and its effect diminishing by the square of the distance. The only result, in this case, would be an aureole-effect surrounding the craft. Also, this same energy field could also prohibit ultra-violet and cosmic radiations from penetrating the craft. A more detailed account of this can be learned by investigation and research into "THE G-FIELD" or "UNIFIED FIELD ENERGY" theories.
- 2) WOBBLING EFFECTS: A combination of fluctuations in earth's gravity and the use of an electro-magnetic type of propulsion system will cause this effect while a craft is in a hovering position.
(Further Reference: Anti-Magnetic Drive Theories)

DETAILED THEORY EXPLANATIONS ON (FREE) ENERGY PROPULSIONS

The following methods of propulsion seem quite feasible and practical to me. They also can account for many visualized erratic flight observations.

- 1) ANTI-MAGNETIC DRIVE: Cutting the lines of force of any magnet will produce enormous and endless power. This is a well-established fact! When a UFO is seen "wobbling" in mid-air, it is theorized to be caused mainly by the fluctuations in the earth's gravitational field. By reversing the magnets, or magnetic poles, it would enable a craft to assume direction. An explanation of a craft utilizing this method of motivation can be explained thusly; interactions with earth's magnetic field are skillfully manipulated, by the incorporation of the use of a sort of "magnetic sink" which would trap earth's magnetic field, producing enormous power when the "lines of force" are cut by the craft.
- 2) THE "G" FIELD(Unified Field Energy): Gravity itself can be manipulated through electromagnetic means, thusly, the inhabitants of a craft could be completely immune to the gravitational pull of earth. Then, by using gravity itself, the craft can manipulate itself through electromagnetic means. Further, the air around the craft is trapped in a "sink" and instead of following or hitting the craft it is dragged along. In turn, the craft will not heat up due to air friction. Due to the "electromagnetic vibrations" on and about the craft, each different movement would cause color changes on the exterior of the craft. This general theory can account for the utter silence often spoken of in UFO encounters. Also, by the use of this theory, a craft may hover, speed up, and make impossible turns at will without the inhabitants being effected by outside gravity.

- 3) PLANTIERS FORCE FIELD: Here, inter-galactic magnetic fields that generate cosmic rays are utilized as an intangible fuel. The basic theory is much the same as the "G" field theory, except that a craft can "tilt" its electromagnetic field at an angle to earths gravitational field, which would lessen the repulsion force between the two gravitational fields. The definition of this would be best described as "re-orientation" of one's own electromagnetic field while in flight. This explains the following observations: falling leaf decents, why "mother ships" hang at a constant angle and erratic sky manouvers.

In the issues to follow, we will discuss numerous examples and explanations of how the subject of "FREE ENERGY" is linked closely to UFOs.

SUNSPOTS - HOT OR COLD?

by Isaac Asimov

If the temperature of the sun's surface is white hot, how is it possible for sunspots to be black? They would have to be cold to be black and how can anything on the sun be cold?

The question, as stated, would seem to be a real stopper. In fact, in the early 1800s, a great astronomer, William Herschel, decided that the sunspots must be cold since they were black. The only way he could explain this was to suggest that the sun wasn't hot all the way through. It had a white hot atmosphere, yes, but underneath that was a cold solid body and we could see that solid body through the rifts in the solar atmosphere. Those rifts we call sunspots. Herschel even thought the cool inner body of the sun might be inhabited by living things.

But this is wrong. We are quite sure now that the sun is hot all the way through. In fact, the surface we see is the coldest part of the sun and even that is surely too hot for living things.

Radiation and temperature are intimately related. In 1894, a German physicist, Wilhelm Wien, studied the kind of light radiated at different temperatures. He concluded that, under ideal conditions, every object, regardless of its chemical composition, radiated a particular range of light for each particular temperature.

As the temperature goes up, the wavelength of the peak radiation gets shorter and shorter in the same way for all bodies. At about 600°C . enough radiation slips down into the visible range to give the object a dull red appearance. Then, as the temperature goes higher still, the object becomes bright red, orange, white and blue-white. (If the temperature were high enough, the radiation would be almost entirely in the ultra-violet and beyond, and the body would be virtually invisible.)

SUNSPOTS - HOT OR COLD? (cont'd)

By carefully measuring the wavelength of the sun's radiation peak (it is in the yellow-light region) we can calculate the temperature of the sun's surface and it comes to about 6000°C .

The sunspots are not at this temperature. They are some $2,000^{\circ}$ degrees cooler, and we can put the temperature at the center at 4000°C . It seems that a sunspot is a mighty tornado-like expansion of gases, and such expansion, on the sun as in your refrigerator, causes a considerable temperature drop. It takes a mighty heat-pump to keep an enormous sunspot cool for days and weeks at a time against the heat flowing in from the surrounding hotter areas of the sun, and astronomers have not yet worked out a completely satisfactory mechanism for sunspot formation.

Even at 4000°C ., the sunspots ought to be very bright. They should be considerable brighter than a carbon arc here on earth and a carbon arc is too bright to look at.

Well, the sunspot is brighter than a carbon arc and instruments check that out. The trouble is, though, that our eyes don't see light absolutely. We judge brightness by comparison with the environment. The hotter normal areas of the sun's surface are four to five times as bright as the cooler areas in the center of the sunspot, and by comparing the latter with the former the latter seems black to our eyes. That blackness is a kind of optical illusion.

That this is so can be sometimes demonstrated during an eclipse. The exlipping moon, with its dark side toward us is really black against the sun's bright globe. When the moon's edge enroaches over a large sunspot so that the spot's "darkness" can be seen right against the moon, it is possible to see that the spot is not really black.

NO EXCUSES, PLEASE by Ronnie Burke - Local Director
CAPRI, Girard, Ohio

In the midst of this highly technical civilization with daily advancements in various branches of knowledge, much confidence is placed in the matters of practical origin. But the truth is that too often we are encountered with the impractical.

These issues, mainly speaking of UFO's defy the set thoughts of science and are brushed aside by many "experts"(?) as improbable and by a majority of the general public as impossible.

As in all dealings with the mysterious and unknown, the average individual will compose a lengthy list of explanations although keep in his mind he may criticize his own answer. Whatever, excuses are the basic outcome.

Despite frauds and scandals in government, business, as well as science, an unmeasurable quantity of trust is given to such institutions. It is time we challenge these so-called experts who have at times succeeded in slightly brainwashing at least part of the world. In reality are the know-it-alls of the practical who say our senses have abandoned us currently capable or experienced to pass judgement on the UFO question?

In the Christian religion, obedience is transferred to a divine and supreme God whose power is infinite, yet many reject apparent UFO's which are mentioned in the Bible and often classified as meaningful religious symbols or angelic visitors.

What has happened to open-mindedness and especially American ingenuity? Let us remember the phrase "With God All Things Are Possible" and start deeply analyzing instead of creating excuses!
