Miracles are happening all around us, yet, for the most part, we are not made aware of them due to the fact that our TV and papers often neglect to carry news of these stunning events as they don't wish to "insult the intelligence," of their "sophisticated" readers.

As this is being written, visions of the "Holy Mother" have become an almost daily occurrence in the town of San Lorenzo where hundreds of believers and former skeptics have been witness to the apparition of a "beautiful lady" who has cured the sick and performed saintly deeds.

The apparition was first seen during the summer when a nine year old child, Migdalia Cintron, had an encounter at the highest point of Guavate, which has since become known as "the Holy Mountain," due to the amazing events which have transpired at this location in Puerto Rico.

As Migdalia played at the spot previously known as "The Three Crosses," her brother-in-law as well as others present, saw the little girl extend her arms as if they were being held by someone. Her hands trembled and she appeared to be in a trance. When she came around, the child said that a beautiful lady had materialized in front of her taking her hands and telling her not to be afraid. She identified herself as the mother of Jesus or the Virgin.

Since that day, Migdalia has returned to the site and claims to have seen the Virgin Mary many times. Her testimony is collaborated by other children her own age as well as grownups. According to Migdalia and her young friends, the lady asks them to pray, and to bring her flowers, and sing hymns "as we are at the final phase of the story," which seems to be a reference that we are living in the "last days," which the Bible speaks of. The children claim that Mother Mary wishes these visions to receive attention, and she has repeatedly requested that other children come, as they are her main concern.

Since the apparition first materialized, many people have come to the Holy Mountain, and though they have not had the gift of vision, they have reported hearing a choir of children singing hymns, and remain puzzled as they do not have any idea where these voices are coming from.

So far a good portion of those who have actually been able to see the Virgin have been children whose eyes, or so it seems, are not closed to that which adults have been told is "impossible."

The figure has often been reported having appeared at a small spring on the mountain where many miraculous healings have taken place.

At the end of August, many witnesses, including nine year old Jose Miguel Cotto Jr., were able to see Mother Mary through the branches of a tree. Jose described the figure as "beautiful." He said she was dressed in a "white tunic" and a "blue cape."

Little Jose tells this story of the Virgin: "I went with Migdalia and Aida Ivette Rivera (aged 10) and I was singing with the others. Suddenly, I saw something begin to form in the tree. It was the lady in the white dress. She slowly got closer and closer, until she was floating just above a small plant behind the three crosses.

"Then I felt a pain in my heart and a lot of emotion. And I told my mother what I had seen and immediately, I started crying. I could not control myself. Her face was the hardest thing for me to see because there was such a brilliant light coming from it."

When this story first broke, the local paper, El Interrogador, sent a reporter, Jorge J. Martin, to speak with those most directly involved. Many of the witnesses confirmed that the figure begins to appear in the form of a cloud or a vapor. However, they were not in total agreement as to what she wore. Some said she had on a blue cape, others maintain it was definitely maroon. They say that she had her hands extended with the palms turned upwards. Most have seen her holding a rosary.

On September 22, while the Virgin appeared and was giving a message to the local children, one of those present shined a flashlight on the figure at which time she turned into a whirl of colored lights and vanished.

Three days later, Migdalia and Aida Ivette were levitated into the air in full view of stunned observers, thus providing absolute proof that these were more than just shared hysterics among youngsters.

One of those at the scene who is more than willing to testify to this suspension of gravity is Felito Felix a very popular singer in Puerto Rico. Felito describes what he saw this way: "I went to the Holy Mountain with some friends who had told me that they had seen the apparition. We arrived at about midnight and there were about a dozen people congregated around the little girls. The children seemed to be speaking with someone who I was not able to see, but many of the others present did apparently possess the gift of clairvoyance. I knew it was not simply a matter of suggestion because a large number of people described what they saw to me later and all their descriptions were basically the same. After a while people began to move forward toward the area behind the three

"Suddenly, they shouted out that they were stuck to the Virgin's hands and were not able to pull away. Everyone got very nervous. The little girls started to scream that the Virgin wanted to take them away. And then - in front of our eyes - the children were levitated into the air. It was incredible. At that moment there was total confusion. Everyone, including myself, fell to their knees in the mud and began to pray and cry. I cannot explain what happened to me. The girls rose higher into the air to about the height of four feet, and began to move to where the tree was. A couple of us ran to the spot and someone tried to pull them loose and I joined him. Between the two of us, we were able to pull them free from the force."

Other skeptics who have visited Holy Mountain have gone home believers. Twenty-seven year old Jose Daniel Cruz went there recently with his wife and a couple of friends. A photographer by profession naturally, he would be interested in capturing the excitement of the crowds on film. But he got more than he had ever bargained for as the story he tells amply illustrates.

"I was on vacation. I was going to the mountain with two friends, one was a painter and the other an insurance agent. Our intention was to paint some pictures to sell. When we got to the area we tried to obtain information as to where we should proceed, but no one would give us proper directions. A lady that lives there told us that the ex-mayor of Guayama could give us the information which we were seeking." Jose Daniel Cruz recorded what he was told on a pocket tape machine. The next day he traveled to San Juan on business deciding that he would have more time to stop over at the mountain on the return trip when he would get to the bottom of the mystery.

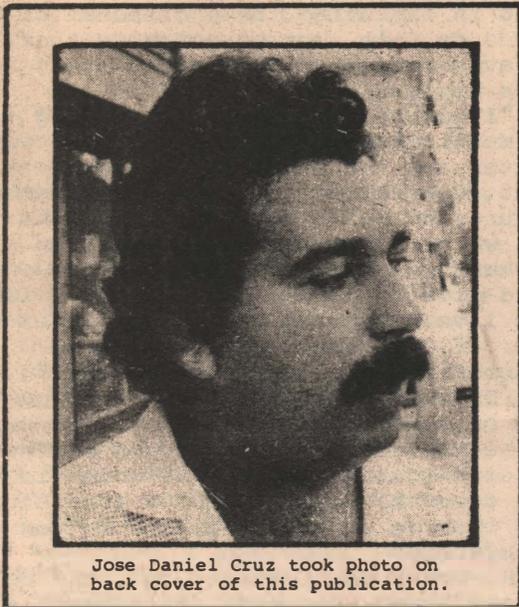

However, as it turned out, the dense fog and heavy rain made it impossible to venture out of his car. In addition, Jose's wife felt it might be dangerous to climb to the spot where the Virgin had most often been seen. Luckily, Jose felt he must go on. "I told my wife, if the Virgin lives here, let her make a miracle so that I will know that I didn't come all this way for nothing."

Popular singer, Felito Felix held onto girls.

crosses. The girls indicated that the Virgin was displeased that the people were not following her instructions -- they were not supposed to go past the three crosses in the ground.

"The girls asked that the young children be sent to the front of the crowd, as the Virgin wanted to bless them and kiss them. There was one child of about four who cried a lot. Upon touching the apparition, he said, 'but she doesn't hurt.' At this point, my friends said the Virgin was just behind the crosses. I looked very hard and suddenly I saw her. A brief while later there was a strong scent of roses and something happened that I will never be able to forget. According to the girls, the apparition began to ask them to go with her. I heard them say 'Yes, little Virgin, we will go with you, but give us more time. We would like to spend some more time here on earth. Please, little Virgin...'

"Suddenly, a blast of cold air blew away the fog and the weather cleared up completely. Our car was immediately bathed in a ray of sunlight. I zippered up my mouth at once."

The couple climbed up the mountain and knelt for the first time in many years. That same evening, Jose's daughter asked to listen to the tape he had made. Something very strange was noticed. The voice of the woman who was being interviewed suddenly ceased and instead the most exquisitely sublime music could be heard. A religious choir sang in Latin the phrase "Son of man..." Clerical scholars have established that the tape is authentic. No one appears to think it has been faked. Flutes can even be heard in the background, that's how convincing the tape is.

Since then, Jose has visited the mountain on the average of about once a week. He claims to have seen the Virgin over ten times. He says that she is usually in white, but he cannot distinguish her features. "That is the privilege of children. I saw her silhouette dressed in a white cape. She moves her cape in a marvelous way. She does not have any definite size nor dimensions. She may just as easily appear tall as short."

Not too long ago, Jose took photos of the location where the Virgin has been seen and sent the roll of film to the United States to be developed. When the pictures were returned, there was the Virgin on top of a large rock overlooking a rustic altar that had been built on her behalf. The figure stands just under a meter in height. Jose continues to visit Holy Mountain saying, "Only God or Jesus or the Virgin would be able to stop me from going there." Jose's photo was published for the first time in the November 10th, 1982 edition of El Vocero.

Many healings have come to be associated with Holy Mountain. For example, 37 year old Juana Reyes Moyet has not been able to speak for almost two years. Some doctors even thought she might have cancer. She had only been able to talk in guttural sounds and even members of her family had begun to give up hope. "One night I had a revelation in a dream that I should go to the the holy place. The evening I went I was given a candle in each hand. We stood under a tree in a heavy fog. I felt a current of air from my feet all the way to my head. Something unusual was happening. Later, I was to see the Virgin appear. We knelt and prayed until two in the morning." The very next day, Juana walked into the room and asked her husband when he planned to fix something. He looked at her in disbelief. "He said, 'Don't you realize you're speaking?' I told him, 'Yes, I was healed by the Mother of God.' In the neighborhood this has been treated as an experience right out of this world."

Asked why she thought she had been healed, the housewife explained: "I think this happened so that I could stand as an example to others to prove that they should have faith and that they should understand that what is happening at Holy Mountain is real. If you do it in their way they will compensate all those who truly have faith."

Exactly what message is the Lady trying to get across? Sixteen year old Ileana Diaz Albino is a ninth grader and comes from a family of 14 children. In mid November the Virgin descended in front of her in a ball of fire that was transformed into a delicate looking cloud. Of the two hundred people around some saw the Virgin, while others did not. Ileana went unconscious and fell into a trance. The following day, fully recovered she told what had happened.

"The Virgin was dressed in a white

SECRET PROPHECY OF FATIMA REVEALED!

THE VISIONS

Six visions are associated with the Miracle at Fatima. The first vision was on May 13, 1917 and involved three little children—Francisco, Jacinta and Lucy, who reported seeing lightning on a cloudless day and a globe of light which settled amidst the branches of an old oak tree. Little by little a light appeared to develop in the center of the globe and the figure of a beautiful young woman appeared surrounded in iridescent radiance. The woman spoke to the children. She said, "Do not be afraid, I will not harm you." The lady told them to return to the same spot on the same day of each month and that eventually she would perform miracles and make her presence known to the faithful.

The children suffered numerous persecutions. Their own parents called them liars. The church said the apparition was Satan's handy work, while the government actually threw them in jail and threatened to boil them alive in a vat of oil, if they didn't confess to making up the entire episode. The trio kept to their original story and the crowds grew in hopes of being blessed by Jesus' mother. They came on crutches or were carried in the arms of loved ones. Many miracles were subsequently performed and the spot has since become a shrine.

THE THREE PROPHECIES

During the course of her appearance, the "woman in white," gave the children three prophecies. One prediction involved the end of the first world war, the second concerned itself with World War II, and the rise of Russia as a global threat. A third prophecy was given but it was decided that it was too traumatic to be revealed and instead of being released, the prophecy was placed in a sealed envelope and handed over to the Bishop of Portugal for safekeeping until it was to be opened in 1960 in the presence of the Pope. 1960 came and went without any disclosure from the Vatican, but those who were present at the opening of the envelope say the Pope's face turned white and he felt sickly after reading the contents of the third prophecy of Fatima. To this day the church has never disclosed the final message of the Blessed Mother. Many feel the prophecy deals with Armageddon, but the truth may even be more shocking. What is not generally known is that Lucy (who later became a nun) has continued up to this day to have prophetic visions the contents of which are also utterly startling.

PHENOMENA OF THE FALLING SUN

As 70,000 stood in stunned silence on October 13, 1917 at Fatima, the sun seemed to leave its orbit and come crashing toward earth. It had been raining heavily before the Virgin's promised appearance at noon but suddenly, the rain stopped and many witnesses reported that the sun started to spin in much the same way that a firecracker Pin wheel spins. It gave off fiery fingers of light that extended across the sky. The earth itself changed colors. First it was cast in a sort of red shadow, then orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. As the sun plunged toward the ground it shimmered violently. The crowd screamed. Some thought it was the end of the world. Thousands fell to their knees in terror. Others went prone, pleading with God to have mercy. The weird display continued for 10 minutes. Finally, the sun halted its devastating approach and started to climb again to its normal position in the sky. The ground dried up immediately. This is generally thought to be the greatest miracle of modern times witnessed by thousands of believers and former skeptics alike. This miracle defies science and it has never been explained—IT NEVER WILL BE!

AN EERIE COINCIDENCE

The coincidence was startling. Just after 5 P.M. on May 13, 1981, Pope John Paul II was shot while riding in a white jeep through St. Peter's Square. It was just after 5 p.m. on May 13, 1917, that the three children while tending sheep saw the Virgin Mary for the first time.

The Pope was still in the hospital recovering from the Turkish radical's bullet when he decided to go to the Basilica of our Lady of Fatima to give thanks to the Blessed Mother for saving his life.

Pope John Paul II is convinced that his remarkable recovery from his bullet wounds was the result of the intervention of the Virgin. In December 1981 he told an audience, "I have seen the extraordinary maternal protection that showed itself to be more powerful than the homicidal bullets."

The Pope's devotion to Mary is unabashed and certainly no secret. His feelings for Mary have been fervent even when he was Bishop of Krakow, Poland. At that time he had an "M" for Mary embroidered on his robes. Now that he is the Pope, his blue-and-white shield bears the same letter and his personal motto is "Totus tuus sum Maria," which is Latin for "Mary, I am all yours."

PHOTOGRAPHIC PROOF

The Middle Ages is generally considered the golden age of the cult of Mary. However, there are many theologians, historians and sociologists who don't agree. One of them is a minister from Washington, N.J. who says: "We have wars, threats of war, cults, drugs, and a thousand other problems. People are looking frantically for help, and in Mary, they find it." The minister is convinced that the 20th Century is the age of Mary. Another who feels the same way is a specialist in the history of Christianity at a university in Pennsylvania. "This is the most active age of devotion to the Virgin...The interest has been building for the past 150 years with more and more reports of Mary in more and more places." This book discusses many of these apparitions in detail and actually published AUTHENTIC photos of the Virgin Mary as snapped by the eye of the camera in several locations over the last few years.

DARE YOU

No Earthly Explanation...

Hit by a car, my guardian angel saved my life.

Most theologians accept the fact that we all have at least one guardian angel who protects us against harm. Guardian angels have been known to watch over the sick, guide the helpless out of potentially harmful situations, and, in general, watch over us when danger is near.

There are many recorded instances where guardian angels have proven time after time, that they can be called upon to be "good samaritans," given the opportunity. The following TRUE story was submitted by Barbara Leeds, an artist and song writer who lives and works in New York City. Her account quite clearly illustrates the fact that we never have to walk alone.

Anyone whose ever been to Manhattan, can tell you that you'd better look both ways before stepping off the curb. If you don't keep an eye out for oncoming traffic, chances are, you are going to get "clobbered" as I did several years ago.

In the "Big Apple," cabs and cars don't come to an immediate halt like in most other cities. When a pedestrian decides to walk out into the street, it's every man, woman and child for themselves.

I had just been to see a music publisher on 57th Street about getting one or two of my songs recorded. The publisher liked my most recent tunes and offered words of encouragement. I guess, looking back now on what happened, that I must have felt a bit "light headed," as I dashed across Madison Avenue on my way to my next appointment.

No doubt, the driver of the station-wagon that plowed into me had other things on his mind, and wasn't about to slow down for anyone as he rounded the corner.

I didn't have time to think, everything happened so fast. I saw the vehicle coming, but couldn't back up onto the sidewalk in time. I should have been killed, he was driving so fast. Instead, at the last second, I felt a hand grab me by the seat of my pants and the next thing I knew, I was being lifted into the air and was let down lightly on the hood of the speeding station wagon. The vehicle was traveling so fast, that it took the driver a half a block to come to a complete stop. When he got out of the car to see if he had killed me, there I was, sitting cross legged on the hood without a scratch. There wasn't a black and blue mark anywhere on my body. And most important of all, there was no one around who could have been responsible for lifting me into the air and depositing me so carefully back down, and in a sitting position to boot.

The fact that I know I have an "invisible friend" around me at all times, doesn't worry me. The truth is, I'm happy to know that there's someone - somewhere "out there" - who is willing to give me a helping hand when I need it the most.

CALL UPON YOUR GUARDIAN ANGEL FOR GUIDANCE AND PROTECTION

Psalms 90:11-13 states: "The Lord hath given his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways."

Evangelist Billy Graham tells us: "When Christians die, an angel will be there to comfort us, to give us peace and joy even at that most critical hour, and to usher us into the presence of God, where we shall dwell with the Lord forever..."

Jesus himself revealed the wonderful truth that the faithful each have a guardian angel to attend to them throughout their life: "Behold! I will send my angel, who shall go forth before thee, and keep thee in thy journey, and bring thee into the place that I have prepared."

Now for the FIRST TIME, you can learn all there is to know about God's special helpers—why angels were created; what their purpose in the Lord's scheme of things really is; and most important of all, how you can call upon them directly for guidance and protection, in order to make your own life more peaceful and fruitful.

Here's a sample of what you can expect to read in an amazing new book just released titled ANGELS OF THE LORD:

ANGELS WALK AMONGST US!

It may come as a shock to many, but according to evidence, we are often confronted by angels, but do not know it. Yes, angels are visible quite often, only they don't always appear to us as spiritual beings with wings, but rather as men, and even as strangers. They come when they are most needed. You may even pass an angel on the street who is bent on doing some good for someone that can't be accomplished in his invisible state.

NINE SPECIFIC WAYS OUR PERSONAL ANGEL PROTECTS US

Biblical scholars insist that angels do more than follow us about. It is said that they have a special mission that they must carry out. Among other things they must protect our spirituality; defend us from the seduction of Satan; shield us from sudden dangers; help in the saving of our soul; pray for and with us; assist us in praising God and help when it is time for us to "cross over." Each of the nine ways is described in detail so you will know what to expect from your personal angel and what you must do in return.

HIERARCHY OF ANGELS

Generally, it is not known that there is an actual organization of angels. The divisions include: Archangels, Seraphim, Cherubim, Principalities, Authorities, Powers, Thrones, Might and Dominion. Find out how these various angels are ranked and what their individual duties consist of.

DOCUMENTED CASES OF PEOPLE HELPED BY THEIR GUARDIAN ANGEL

Many startling, modern day case histories are written about. For example: • The New York woman whose guardian angel led her to a job when she was totally destitute. • The "Angel of Mercy" who prevented the killing of Chinese citizens by the Japanese during World War II. • The battalion of angels who fought it out with the enemy in the skies over Europe as testified to by Lord Hugh Dowding. • The band of angels that prevented dozens of GI's from freezing in Korea.

ROLE OF ANGELS IN HISTORY

• George Washington had a vision in which an angel appeared to him and foretold the future history of the United States. • The famous flying ace, Charles Lindberg, claimed that his guardian angel was with him in the cockpit of the Spirit of St. Louis as he crossed the Atlantic. • Sainly Padre Pio, the stigmatic priest, frequently carried on conversations with not only his guardian angel, but the guardian angels of others. • St. Benedict claims that angels actually joined the holy monks in song. • St. Nicholas was permitted to hear his guardian angel and other angels for the last six months of his life. • St. Frances often read at night by the light given off by the glowing hair of her guardian angel. • There is even evidence that the writing of the Constitution was done with the help of an angel.

UFOs OR ANGELS?

Some experts now believe that the strange objects observed in the sky may actually be angels and not extraterrestrial craft. The fact that UFOs do not show up on radar screens is significant, since angels are not usually of flesh and blood, and therefore would not register on even our most advanced technical equipment. Scriptures tend to verify this theory.

LANGUAGE OF ANGELS AND HOW THEY TRAVEL

We are told that angels have a language all their own which we may possibly learn to speak. Also, angels can travel thousands of miles in the twinkling of an eye utilizing a method which science has only begun to dream of.

WAR WITH SATAN

Not all angels are good. The Bible tells us that Satan was once an angel and that he was thrown out of heaven. One third of all angels could be demons and we are warned that the devil is out to take over the world and capture our very souls. Learn of the tools which Satan uses to trick us, and how we can prevent being possessed. Discover why baptism is important in this age old war, and what it means to follow the "Great White Light."

LIBERACE

The day a mysterious nun brought me back from the brink of death

Though they may be rich and famous, celebrities are not that different than ordinary folks. They too have felt the divine hand of the Lord and are not ashamed to tell of their experiences.

Liberace would be the first to admit that his whole life - his fabulous, glittery career - has been transfused with the substance that true miracles are made of.

Not surprising is the fact that "Mr. Showmanship," as he is known, has a favorite song that best exemplifies his struggle to obtain the status of superstar. The song is titled, "The Impossible Dream." Appropriately, because Liberace has mastered the art of believing, has turned a dream into reality.

Relaxing in his home, Liberace says his life was saved by mysterious nun who appeared in his hospital room.

Growing up in difficult times, a child of immigrant parents, the virtuoso of the keyboard found himself molded by the shackles of the depression. Despite the odds, Liberace went on to become one of the most highly praised and wealthiest entertainers of all time. The reason: he held a belief, "that I could, and would, make it, no matter what obstacles might be blocking my path."

Yet, despite his lavish wealth, Liberace is the first to admit that if it were not for a miracle which took place two decades ago, the famous maestro might not be around to enjoy the fruits of his labor, which he has worked so hard to obtain.

In November, 1963, while performing in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Liberace was exposed to cleaning fumes (carbon tetrachloride). As a result, he was hospitalized, and the doctors diagnosed his condition as very serious. They informed him that he had contracted uremic poisoning, and that there was a good chance he might not recover.

"My doctor told me I should 'put my house in order.' That's the exact expression he used. You hear it all the time. It's the kind way of telling a man he should get ready to die." Liberace says that during his first day in the hospital a priest came into his private room and administered the last rites.

Liberace found it difficult to accept the fact that he might not be around to see many more sunrises.

"I was bewildered by what the doctor told me. I didn't know how to handle the situation," Liberace admits that it took a while for the bad news to sink in. "Suddenly, it began to hit me. . . the thought of all the people I love, I would see no more. It's strange," he reflects, "you mourn for your friends even before they get a chance to mourn for you."

Adhering to the doctor's advice, Liberace began to "put his house in order," by first taking care of his personal affairs. "I consulted my attorneys and accountants. I asked how much cash would be left after all the conditions of my will were fulfilled. I was told there would be about $750,000. Since all the charities were taken care of in my will, I decided to give out a few presents, to remember my dear friends, associates and relatives."

Leaving no one out, Liberace opened charge accounts at Cartiers, Tiffany's, Saks. "The nursing sisters at St. Francis, where I was hospitalized, each day would phone out what I wanted ordered and would ship the merchandise where I specified." Liberace said that the gifts ranged from a house in Beverly Hills for his sister, to a mink coat, pearls and jewels for his mother.

Right in the midst of this orgy of giving, the divine hand of the unseen was felt. This is the way Liberace describes the events that transpired:

"A nun I'd never seen before came into my room one evening, sat next to my bed and said softly, 'St. Anthony has performed many miracles. Pray to him.' Then she smiled warmly, gently touched my arm and quietly left the room. Her words had a tremendous impact on me and I began to pray.

"I don't know how to explain this - and I don't know if I ever want an explanation - but almost immediately, I began to feel better. The doctors assigned to my case began to smile, feeling that their medical labors on my behalf had finally begun to take effect. I'm willing to believe that, but I also have to believe what the Sister said, and what happened as a result of her visit."

For the next couple of days, Liberace tried to find the nun around the hospital. No one seemed to know who she was. "I described her to the other Sisters who were helping me. None of them recognized her from my description and none remembered seeing her enter or leave my room at any time."

Liberace was baffled, and not without good reason. After leaving the hospital

"in tip-top-shape," he began to read up on Saint Anthony. "I found out that he was the Saint who was thought of as 'The Doctor of the Church,' and credited with performing many miracles."

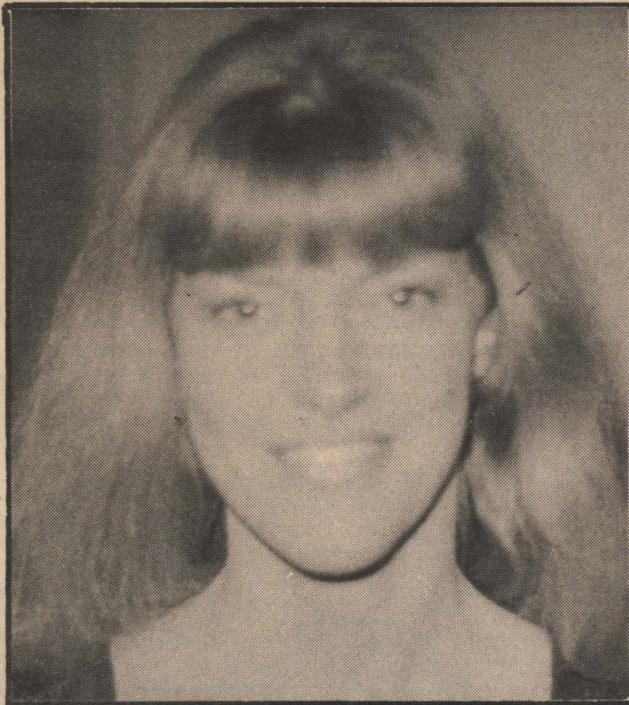

Convinced "no one will ever know, least of all me, exactly what happened," Liberace has weighed all the possibilities. "Maybe the doctors did do everything right. Perhaps it is just that the body has a way of healing itself. As for the Sister, maybe I was heavily sedated. Perhaps the explanation is that I was hallucinating in the fever of the crisis."

Whatever the explanation, Liberace says that the benevolent unnamed nun will always have a place in his heart. "To me she brought about the faith I needed when faith and hope were all but gone. As far as I'm concerned, she was the herald of what I choose to believe was another cherished miracle of Saint Anthony."

Needless to say, Christmas of 1963 was one of the brightest in Liberace's life. It greatly affected his way of thinking. "From that moment on, I knew I'd thank my lucky stars for the gift of life, and I'd appreciate that gift a little more."

ENTERING THE "PEARLY GATES" of HEAVEN

BY DIANE TESSMAN

Diane Tessman will soon have out a book on how to survive the coming earth changes.

The mystery of life after death is an intriguing subject which has haunted intelligent women and men since the beginning of time. The fear of dying and not knowing what happens next is enough to send shivers of utter panic up and down a person's spine. It's the stuff that horror movies and thriller novels are made of, but now even scientists and doctors are starting to research this area of high concern.

Dr. Michael Sabom, Assistant Professor of Medicine at Emory University, Atlanta, notes that because of recent advancements in medical technology, more people are returning from the threshold of death than ever before. Many of these individuals, says Dr. Sabom in his book RECOLLECTIONS OF DEATH - A MEDICAL INVESTIGATION, are recalling a series of extraordinary events that took place while they were unconscious and near death. Included are the reports of patients who became detached from their unconscious bodies and underwent privileged glimpses of another realm of existence.

My own research, though admittedly not as scholarly as the work of Dr. Sabom, nonetheless comes close to paralleling his findings.

I first met "Big Wally," and his wife Shirley several years ago while living in Florida. "Big Wally" gets his nickname because he's over six feet tall and because he's of stocky build. On meeting him for the first time you know right away that this is a "no nonsense" type of guy who isn't about to spend foolish moments making up a story about life after death. Wally doesn't speak a lot - he doesn't have to. But when he does talk you listen as what he's going to say has to be important or chances are he'd keep his mouth shut.

"Big Wally's" visit to the "other side" took place one afternoon in mid-July. "The summer heat was bothering me terribly," Wally begins. "I had been bending over my tools when I stood up and thought, 'Oh, no, I've gotten up too fast and I'm starting to feel dizzy.'" I was overcome by that head spinning sensation that happens to people once in a while. Well, next thing I know, this feeling of suffocating, this pressure of being drowned by a wall of blackness hit me and I must have fallen over because later they told me that my head just missed hitting some of my tools (Wally was a machinist who has since retired from his profession). I had had a major stroke. My journey to the other side didn't happen right away. In fact, I didn't remember anything until I was in the hospital," Wally explains, wringing his massive hands, as he recalls the initial pain and trauma he went through.

Recalling the experience is obvious: a traumatic undertaking for Wally. The stroke itself was too terrifying for words, but his face does brighten considerably as he relives his journey to another world.

"In the hospital, I just sort of opened my eyes and there was my wife. She had tears in her eyes and I knew I was dying. I was scared, so scared, and then I closed my eyes again and all of a sudden, there was this sharp buzzing in my ears and I wondered in the back of my mind if someone had turned on some electric tool, because I'm used to all these buzzings as part of my work. But, no this was different, and it seemed to be my whole body and soul was caught up in this buzzing. I was whisked along, sucked through this marvelous tunnel of white light. I was moving faster than a jet plane, I tell you."

Wally's voice trails off as he loses himself in this incredibly wonderful tale. "I wasn't scared anymore. You know, I've worked hard all my life for my wife and five kids, and I'm almost always tired, but this place and this feeling - total rest, total peace, total happiness!

"Soon I was slowing down, however,

SECRETS OF THE POPE

“Thou art Peter and on this rock will I build my church, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven.”

Christ gave this command to Peter and it was recorded by St. Matthew in Chapter 16, Verse 18 of his gospel. It marks the birth of the papacy and the inception of the prince of the Apostles as the first pope.

Today, millions of Catholics the world over view the Pope as the spiritual link between Jesus and ourselves. Other Christians generally think of the Pope as a wise and holy man who has his feet planted firmly on the ground, one who is aware of all things worldly and all things beyond the pale.

However, when it comes to the most mystical powers and supernatural expe-thorously modern manner, with the intention of enforcing currently accepted beliefs, but going beyond even what one has already been taught through regular channels.

In this startling new book you will read the following stories as well as many other astonishing—but all incredibly true—accounts not written of in ordinary religious works:

MYSTERY SURROUNDING THE DEATH OF THE FIRST POPE

St. Peter—the first pope—was said to have been crucified upside down. For centuries his exact burial place was unknown until a sixteenth century excavation of Rome uncovered an underground chamber, and removing some bricks, a worker uncovered a grizzly

WHICH POPE . . . TURNED WORTHLESS METAL INTO GOLD? SPOKE WITH JESUS?      COULD READ MINDS? ENVISIONED THE END OF THE WORLD?

This pope also canonized a saint who built the first robot—a man made of metal whom he later broke into pieces, “because the image would not cease talking to me.”

THE POPE PREDICTED WORLD WAR I

Over fifty years before the outbreak of immediate future. Careful analysis shows that St. Malachi’s forecasts strike an unrealistic similarity to those of the famed seer, Nostradamus.

LEVITATION AND TELEPORTATION

Unbeknown to most is the fact that there are many references of priests, nuns and saints being able to transport rences of the Popes, the church has remained overly secretive. Perhaps fearing this information would be used unwisely by the uninitiated. For historical reference shows that many Popes possessed powers that were awesome, or were involved in paranormal events so devastating that scribes were told to record them for the upper echelon of cardinals and bishops, but at the same time to go to their grave without breathing a word of what they knew to another living soul. Many of the manuscripts containing such information have either been burned or have been kept under heavy lock and key to prevent their release.

Now, thanks to the tireless efforts of religious historian Arthur Crockett, ancient texts as well as the sacred writings of the priests and saints have been dusted off and are presented in a site—a decomposed skeleton. Pope Clement VIII was summoned; with members of his papal court, he hurried to the dark cavity carrying a flaming torch. Clement VIII peered into the void and pulled back momentarily, a look of utter shock on his face. Initially, he was too stunned to speak. Later, he reported that he had had a dramatic vision inside the crypt which ties in with a prophetic warning and a subsequent death. The chamber—thought to be that of St. Peter—was sealed up at once and was only exhumed centuries later by another Pope (again under a veil of mystery and foreboding).

A POPE'S VISION OF JESUS

Though it is not generally acknowledged, one pope on his death bed had visions of Christ and the Virgin Mary, and later experienced another phenomenon often associated with the apparitions at Fatima—the falling of the sun toward the earth. This pope survived his crisis and eventually became a great healer, going as far as to enable a blind boy to see.

THE POPE WHO WAS AN ALCHEMIST AND THE SAINT WHO CREATED A MAN FROM METAL

Alchemy, the ability to turn base metals into gold, was the “chemistry” of the Middle Ages. One pope was known to possess this ability which many good churchgoers associated with the devil. He denied he had this ability, but when he died no one could explain his vast personal treasure including 18 million florins in gold, and 7 million in jewels. In his notes found after his death, he told how he accomplished this feat of magic.

the first World War, a pope wrote a letter to the Bishop of Vigevano in which he predicted a terrible outbreak of world tensions and bloodshed, like nothing that had ever engulfed the globe previously. This same pope also possessed the uncanny ability to foresee who was about to die and to heal the ailing.

REVEALED: PROPHECY OF THE POPES

Among the most startling prophecies to be found outside of the Bible were those made by St. Malachi in the 12th century. They concern each unborn pope starting with Celestine II and coming to a halt with the 111th pope (who remains unknown as yet) and the “end of the world.” This chapter reveals the untold story behind St. Malachi’s prophecies and the forebodings his yet unfulfilled predictions hold for our themselves from one place to another instantaneously or even to be in two places at the same time. SECRETS OF THE POPES tells of many such instances and even recounts how the house the Virgin Mary was born in, later teleported to a town many miles away from its original location (where it remains a shrine to this very day). Learn how this may tie in with the appearance of UFOs in our sky and current research being done by parapsychologists in various research facilities.

DEMONIC POSSESSION

Few can deny the power of the devil and his legion of demons whose ability to possess even the strongest believer is said to be truly awesome. Case histories are given where saints and bishops tackled demonic possession first hand.

and colors started swirling around me, pretty, pretty colors. And all along my wife has said I was color blind. Deep blue and purple began to become the main colors of this world and suddenly I could see figures...human figures...standing along the sides, almost as if there were walls...but this place had no walls. Gosh, this is hard to explain," Wally sighs and shakes his head as if he still finds it hard to accept what he experienced. "I was in the middle, you see, because it was me - my spirit - which was arriving and being honored. Yes, and I don't know how else to put it, I felt the whole beautiful land on the other side was celebrating my arrival.

One figure at the side of me got closer and I could see my Uncle Stan who had died when I was a boy. I had always liked my uncle and I felt really bad when he died. When you are a boy, you don't understand why someone you love has to pass on, and his death has always bothered me. But now, here was Uncle Stan looking just like I remembered him before he got so sick, and he was waving at me and laughing, just like he always did... just so jolly."

At this point, Wally actually reached into his pocket and pulled out a tissue to wipe away the tears that were forming in his eyes. "Eventually, I was moved along, away from Uncle Stan, and do you know who I saw approaching me? It was my dear mother and my sister, Gert. I was so overjoyed to see them. Gert had died before mama. She had pneumonia, but there she was looking so cute and healthy and waving at me and calling to me in Polish. And my mama...there she was touching me. She was so warm and soft. She took me in her arms. I had forgotten how plump they were and I had forgotten a birthmark she had on her right forearm, but there it was...every hair and vein on my mother's arms were just as they had been.

"Then mama whispered in my ear in Polish. She told me that I must not stay, that I must go back. I begged them all to let me remain, but my mother told me firmly that my wife and children needed me and that my time had not yet come. I must go back and finish my life, she said, but added that I would always know from now on that my loved ones would be waiting for me in this world of light. She assured me that this happiness would be mine again someday soon - for eternity!

"Then I was whisked away from mama. I tell you, I was still fighting to stay, fighting with all my might, but it wasn't my time to stay because suddenly, I opened my eyes and the doctors were bent over me back in the hospital. Now, I was in pain again. All pain had stopped while I was on the other side, and I knew inside that there is never any suffering there."

Later, Wally says they told him he had died holding his wife's hands and that she had called for the doctors to revive him. "Sometimes I wish she hadn't saved me," Wally says. "But I'm not angry because I know that there is life after death and that I will go to a better place when I die." Both Wally and his wife are sickly now, but they are not worried as they know that beauty awaits them in a life beyond death.

Perhaps one of the most unique life after death stories is related by Phillis Dalby, a retired New York City bank employee, who back in January, 1953 underwent a traumatic experience as her husband lay near death in a hospital bed just outside of London, suffering from a stroke that had paralyzed the entire left side of his body. Mrs. Dalby was told that he was not likely to live more than a few days. It was while she stood at the side of his bed on the verge of tears that the unexpected struck. But let her tell the story in her own words:

Suddenly, at around 3 A.M. on January 9, I heard a peculiar popping noise like a gas-filled balloon bursting somewhere in the room. Immediately, the surroundings seemed to change. I was no longer facing the nurses and doctors performing their duties in the ward. All that I could see was a beautiful color. It is difficult to describe, but the scene was stunning as though an artist had blended pink and gold together making a hue that expressed the highest form of love. It was like loving someone and having that person's arms around you. It enveloped everything and everything merged into it. Time and place no longer existed for me. I felt utter contentment. I knew that my husband's spirit was there with me. We were traveling out of the limited confinement of the hospital to another realm of existence. I have never felt such serenity.

It was like we were saying goodbye although I somehow knew that it was not a final farewell, that John was merely journeying to another realm. I believe God was trying to comfort me. To tell me that there was really nothing to worry about.

Then I "awoke." The time was now 3:30 A.M. I had been away from the hospital for 35 minutes.

One look at the pale body on the bed next to me told me my beloved husband was becoming worse with each passing minute. My vigil continued until 10:30 when his breathing stopped altogether. I called for a nurse and she tried to revive his heart but to no avail. He passed on very quietly.

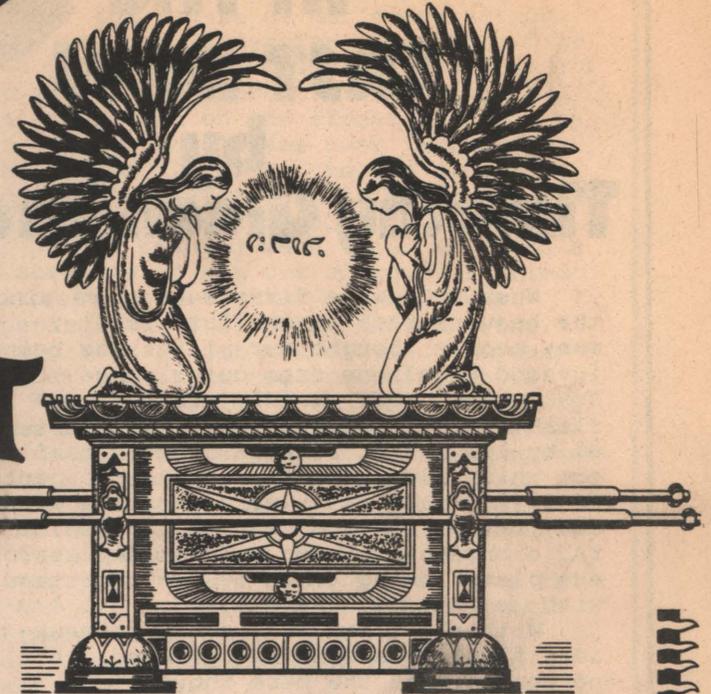

Looking back, I am convinced that my spirit traveled with the soul of my

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT EXISTS!

A POWERFUL NUCLEAR REACTOR?

A RADIO TRANSMITTER

TO TALK TO GOD?

CAN ITS POWER BE ACTIVATED EVEN TODAY?

FASCINATING READING

Though the phenomenal motion picture THE RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK helped popularize the topic, the mystery and power of the Ark of the Covenant has long been known—and respected!—by members of both the Christian and Jewish faiths. Its very existence plays a prominent role in the scriptures that make up the Old Testament.

Atop Mount Sinai Moses spoke directly to the Lord. The clay tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them were brought down and instructions were given to Moses to build a special "container" into which the tablets of stone were to be kept. A vessel or hollow receptacle used for conveyance was called an ark. The commandments were known as the covenant (thus the term "Ark of the Covenant" came into being).

The spellbinding subjects covered in this book include: • The Breastplate of Judgement. • The cloud that hovered above the tabernacle. • The mysterious death of Aaron on Mount Hor. • The crown of gold. • Electrical effects and fire from "upon high." • Leprosy and plagues caused by the Ark. • The sacrificial altar. • The Temple of the Sun.

This is the first time an entire volume has been devoted to the Ark of the Covenant. GOD'S SECRET WEAPON is fast paced, easy to follow and MUST reading. It is the most exciting Biblical story ever told... a story that every person who believes in the almighty power of God should read.

FIERCE SUPERNATURAL POWERS

The lid of the ark was called a mercy seat and was made of pure gold. At each end there was a cherub or angel, looking toward the other across the seat, with their wings spread high, so that they covered the mercy seat (see above illustration). According to the instructions given to Moses, God would speak to him from above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim. Moses was also given very specific directions on constructing a tabernacle which would be used to house the Ark. Only the priests were supposed to go near the ark and they had to wear special vestments consisting of twelve jewels when using it to communicate with the Lord. Moses was told that if these instructions were not followed the Ark would become activated and could possibly endanger the lives of those who came into contact with it. The Ark proved to be a powerful nuclear reactor. On one occasion 50,000 Philistines died when they came into contact with the Ark having captured it from the Israelites during a fierce battle. "And there went a fire out from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died."

It has been estimated that the power of the Ark is greater than any atomic bomb ever exploded on earth, and yet at the same time, its energies could be used to benefit all when—and IF!—God's words are obeyed. It even supplied a primitive form of electricity which helped the Israelites to escape their tormentors and provided manna for them to eat in the desert.

THE TRUTH BE KNOWN

Biblical student David Medina has thoroughly researched the story of the Ark. In GOD'S SECRET WEAPON he explores its varied uses, how it was constructed, what it was to be used for, and what made it so powerful. His conclusions are explosive and controversial. His work is sound and scientific. He theorizes that the Ark's current resting place will soon be discovered—AND THE ARK POSSIBLY USED!—within our lives.

FREE ARK OF THE COVENANT CHARM AS A GIFT TO YOU BELIEVE IN "CONTENTS" OF CHARM AND ALL YOUR PRAYERS WILL BE ANSWERED!

Experience the beneficial aspects of the original Ark when you wear this beautiful heavy metal charm that has been cast using Biblical texts as reference. Since the original Ark of the Covenant was used as a transmitter by which Moses could speak directly to the Lord, it is suggested that you keep this good luck medallion near you at all times, especially when you have a special prayer you wish to be answered. If your desire is strong enough this Ark could be the vessel that will fill your cup to overflowing with success, money, good health, new friends, and an altogether better life. # VISIONS OF UFOs IN THE LAST DAYS by Timothy Green Beckley

When UFOs were first seen canvassing the heavens back in the late 1940's, many people thought our planet was being invaded by aliens from outer space. Our concept of other-worldly visitors as flesh eating, slave masters, was fostered by low budget science fiction thrillers which always portrayed the occupants of flying saucers in very negative ways. Many remembered the "War of the Worlds" radio broadcast which had our depression era planet being taken over by Martians with devastating weapons.

With all these very scary impressions floating around in our mind, it's no wonder that the mere thought of ET's landing in our back yard was enough to send us running to the nearest fallout shelter.

Yet, in actuality, based upon an evaluation of all the evidence; it would seem that the majority of UFO-nauts mean us no harm. If anything, in a good percentage of cases they appear genuinely interested in our well-being, even going so far as to heal some of those they have communicated with -- including poor eye sight and paralysis. There is even one case I know of from South America where an elderly UFO witness grew in a third set of teeth following a close encounter. There are even a hundred or more cases in which actual communications have been established and the aliens warn that we should mend our ways, and give up our war-like behavior before we blow ourselves into ashes. Far from monsters, these beings are usually described as humanoid in appearance, with a super intelligence and a spirituality that far overshadows our puny acceptance of God's laws. Apparently, these beings have followed our Earthly religions since its inception and accept the concept of a universal creator and acknowledge Christ as our savior and protector. Yet despite the overwhelming evidence that many of these accounts are legitimate, there is an apparently organized attempt to keep the true nature of the UFO phenomena from the public. Those in authority and power refuse to acknowledge the existence of UFOs or the "Space Brothers" as these benevolent ET's have come to be identified.

In the months just past, several outspoken ministers have pronounced their belief in UFOs and things non-worldly. Famed evangelist Rev. Billy Graham, can be counted among those coming forth. In his book "Angels: God's Secret Agents" he makes the statement that UFOs "bear striking resemblance to angelic aircraft described thousands of years ago in the Old Testament." Graham further contends that the reason UFOs are able to defy the laws of aerodynamics, is because the beings who operate these "celestial wonders" are non flesh-and-blood mortals, but instead are of a "higher order." He added that the UFO pilots - or angels - are "so glorious and impressively beautiful as to stun and amaze men who witness their presence."

Dr. Joseph Jeffers, D.D., of St. James, Missouri, doesn't try to keep it a secret that he has seen UFOs several times, both in the waking state as well as part of a vision. "In my latest vision of UFOs, I described the object as looking like a gyroscope with windows that appeared as eyes. The windows were telescopic to give the viewers (inside) a better look. In the book of the Bible, Ezekiel 1:18 it says, 'The four wheels had rims and they had spokes; and their rims were full of eyes round about.' Verse 19 goes even further: 'And when the living creatures went, the wheels went with them; and when the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose.' This is taken from the Revised Standard version of the Bible. In the first and second chapters of Ezekiel, in my opinion, the great prophet was referring to a UFO and its occupants."

Dr. Frank E. Stranges, president International Evangelism Crusades (Van Nuys, Calif.) goes a giant step further in that he professes to have actually met and conversed with a space being inside the Pentagon in Washington while he was speaking in that city several years ago. Rev. Stranges noticed one peculiar thing about the extraterrestrial (who looked just as human as any one of us) HE HAD NO FINGERPRINTS. Asked why, the spaceman replied: "Fingerprints are a sign of fallen man. Fingerprints mark a man all through his life. On the planet where I come from there is no crime and so there is no need for such identification." The alien, who wore a business suit when Frank met with him, added his own belief in God: "A long time ago, God looked over onto this earth and saw that the wickedness of men was very great. God, being a God of love as well as a God of justice, took upon Himself the form of a man and was born of the virgin, Mary. He succeeded in bringing man a plan of redemption through His precious blood. Everywhere Jesus went, He was doing good. In the midst of all His goodness, kindness and love, He was falsely accused, mercilessly condemned, and nailed to a cross. Even though He healed the sick, cleansed the leper, and even raised the dead, none of this was taken into consideration. They crucified He that came into this world to save sinners. And you ask me what do I think of Jesus? I know that Jesus is the alpha and omega of yours and everyone's faith. He today has assumed His rightful position as the ruler of the universe and is preparing a place and a time for all who are called by His name to ascend far above the clouds to where His power and authority shall never again be disputed. I believe that Jesus is the wonder of wonders and changes not. No, not forever and forever." Clearly words of a divine prophet as spoken by a man from another planet (NOTE: For a list of tapes and books by Rev. Frank Stranges see ad elsewhere in this issue).

"but people do talk about them in private, but only with those who share their sense of knowledge."

Since coming to the United States, the young man began to have a series of odd dreams which he only told me about because of the nature of our conversation. "Funny you should mention about UFOs," he smiled. "About two months ago I woke up in a cold sweat. In my dream, I had heard all this noise down on the street and from my loft window I could see cars jamming the intersection as far as the eye could see. I took the elevator downstairs to see what was going on. The sidewalks were packed with people pushing each other as if in a mad scramble to get out of town. I tried to stop someone to find out what was happening, but I also got shoved aside." The man said he got the distinct impression that the dream had something to do with Russia or China and a war. "Suddenly, the sky got brighter and looking up I saw this diamond-shaped object approaching over the tall buildings until it got closer and closer, eventually hovering overhead."

At this point, the dream always ends, but the dreamer feels that the UFO has arrived just in the nick of time as a friend and not a foe. "Why am I having this nightmare?", he wants to know. If it weren't important it would not repeat itself so often.

Two different Canadians have recently written in with frightening nightmares they have repeatedly had. One of the ## Celestial beings are non flesh-and-blood mortals of a higher order.

Recently, we have begun to see a marked increase in the number of letters from those who have had dreams or visions regarding the times we live in. There is a "gut feeling" among many that we are already in the "Last Days" spoken of in the Bible. Many of these seemingly inspired revelations deal with UFOs and their part in the events of the immediate future. The feeling is that UFOs somehow tie in with the "Second Coming" and the rapture in which deserving souls will be taken off this planet.

Some of the accounts we have heard are admittedly "utterly startling" in their implications, and all we can say is that such experiences seem to be increasing in frequency to the point where it would be hard to deny their validity.

Take for example, the story told to me by a young man who had just arrived in New York from Africa. Just by accident I struck up a conversation with him at a party. I was interested in knowing just how popular UFOs might be where he came from. "There's very little about them printed in the papers," he acknowledged, readers (letter on file for verification) says that he was on the street in his dream when these missiles shot overhead directed at twenty "target cities." He also observed a fleet of thirty cigar-shaped space ships filling the sky. "I sensed that a high intelligence was in command and that they were sent by God." There was another episode in which "a large, heavy, dark cloud charged with bright round nuclear fireballs contaminates everything to ground level."

Mr. Lorne Johnson of Subury, Ontario says that he had a vision a long time ago that has stuck in his mind. "In the vision I saw these ships - UFOs - in the air and the world was at war. When these objects came down a 'fear' came into all the soldiers and they stopped their killing. They saw that the weapons they were fighting with were small to what 'they' had, and it made them think they would all die if they did not stop the battle. In short, man knew he was doing wrong and he feared for his inner soul."

One of the most sensational letters of this nature I've received came after an ad appeared in the National Enquirer. "Is there some way I can contact the author of Psychic & UFO Revelations in the Last Days," Donna S. of Sparks, Nevada wanted to know, "because some of the statements in the ad for this book closely parallel a segment of dreams that came to me late in 1971."

Donna gives this fascinating narrative which covers a period of nine years: "In the fall, near sundown I left my sister's house which sat only 300 yards or so from my own. I have no memory from that point on until I awoke in my own bed near daylight, terribly ill and with the strange sensation that I'd been spinning through cold air, hanging onto some sort of metal brace and feeling very scared.

"I kept a detailed diary of the dreams that were to follow, there were lists of things to do, a specific geographic diagram of a place I was to find and a special garden that I was to plant, harvest and preserve.

"It wasn't until seven years later that something else happened. This time it included my ten year old daughter who'd gone into town with me around ten in the morning. Neither one of us remember anything from the time I drove out of the driveway until nearly sundown that same night. We ended up in a town we'd never been to before, nearly 130 miles away.

"My husband thought I was going nuts not remembering what I'd done or where I'd gone, and that our daughter was helping to cover up something.

"As with the first experience, I became ill again and so did my daughter. She developed a rash on her hair line that slowly spread over her scalp and neck. I developed severe swelling in my right arm which had to be operated on in November, 1979, and she had to be operated on for several lumps that wouldn't go away in her throat that December.

"Several months after that we moved to another state where we came across an offer to buy ten acres of land. The moment I saw it I knew it was the place in my dreams, the latitude, altitude, direction from the nearest town - it all matched.

"Later, I took out some drawings I'd made. It was as though I'd stood on that very spot to draw them. It was then that I put my diary into manuscript form. Writing down every event as it had appeared to me and vividly described the very last week up to the very moment that the long silver ships with the thin red line on their sides, come down to collect the chosen.

"It was during the last week that the earth's crust began to crumble into itself and the air was thick with sulphur that rushed out of the ground, forming masses of greenish, yellowish clouds, that the sun wouldn't penetrate for hours at a time.

"As the oceans seeped over the land, hundreds of thousands were dying everywhere. They played the last rites over and over again all over the world on every radio and TV station. I lived these things as if it had already happened."

So ends Donna's vision of peril in which a certain number of people will be taken away by UFOs at the "last moment" just before the world destroys itself.

Far from the evil sorcerers of Satan, some have made the occupants of UFOs out to be, they are in reality, truly the "messengers of light," as the above clearly illustrates. Instead of being fearful of them we should seek their help and advice.

DO UFOS HERALD THE SECOND COMING?

"BEHOLD, HE COMETH WITH CLOUDS; AND EVERY EYE SHALL SEE HIM..." — (REV.1:7)

Jesus said (Luke 21: 25) that before his return THERE SHALL BE SIGNS IN THE SKY and that all of mankind will see the Son of God 'COMING IN A CLOUD.' Do these, as well as other, Biblical Passages, refer to Christ's reappearance in a giant space ship which will be visible from all parts of the world? And is, in fact, this holiest of books, a history of visitations by superior beings from another world who have chosen to assist in the spiritual development of earth? The author of FLYING SAUCERS IN THE BIBLE, a fully licensed minister, believes that this may be the case, and suggests we re-examine the Bible in light of our modern knowledge of space travel and UFO sightings.

BIBLICAL MYSTERIES EXPLORED

- Is Heaven in another solar system?
- Will we be taken there when we die in glittering space ships?
- Was the Star of Bethlehem a flying saucer?
- Were some of the wise men and prophets of the scriptures extraterrestrial beings?
- Did God once walk the Earth in physical form?
- Did the Angels possess an advanced technology including laser weapons which they used to protect Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden?
- Can man once again learn to live to be 969 like Methuselah?
- Was the Tower of Bable a space port presided over by Godless scientists?
- Is there a real 'Star Wars' going on in the universe between the forces of good and evil — the negative forces being directed by the mighty Lucifer?

FAITH RESTORED

Within the pages of FLYING SAUCERS IN THE SCRIPTURES there is, says the author, ample evidence to prove that God really loves us and that he sent his Son (or representative) down from the 'Heavens' to inspire us and guide our forefathers through difficult times. It is hoped that this book will restore the faith of many and provide proof that God is a living, breathing entity, and that Jesus will return to our world SOON. Recognizing the highly controversial nature of what has been written, the author requests that the reader of FLYING SAUCERS IN THE BIBLE, take out the family Bible and follow along as the scriptures are reviewed and then decide for themselves the validity of this theory. The author contends:

TEN COMMANDMENTS

A giant spaceship landed upon Mount Sinai and gave Moses the Ten Commandments.

FOOD OF THE ANGELS

That angels dropped food to the starving Israelites in history's first 'airlift' (find out what the food of the angels consists of).

STONE OF DESTINY

That Jacob was given a stone with magical properties which he used as a pillow and which now rests in Westminster Abbey; all the Kings and Queens of England have been crowned on it for centuries.

THE URIM AND THUMMIM

That God gave a strange device to the priests known as the Urim and Thummim through which they could communicate with him. The priests were given specific garments which they had to wear when the device was in use otherwise, they would have received a dangerous dose of radioactivity.

ROUND TRIP IN A FLYING SAUCER

At least one well known Biblical figure went for a ride in a UFO and returned hundreds of years after his departure looking exactly as he had when he disappeared.

FINAL DAY OF JUDGEMENT IS NEARING!

The author of FLYING SAUCERS IN THE BIBLE concludes that the final day of judgement is rapidly approaching and that Jesus will descend to earth out of the clouds within the very near future. Find out the precise event as described in the Bible which is proof that we are living in the END TIMES and that the prophecies in the Book of Revelations are about to be fulfilled.

SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE FOR THE NEW AGE

by Patrica Goff

KARMA— SOWING GOOD SEEDS

No matter what your spiritual background, you can comfortably take on New Age concepts once you realize they are not contrary to your beliefs. In fact, if anything, once you have come to understand all the different terms, you will begin to understand your own beliefs more thoroughly. The aim of this columnist is to enlighten and to show how the New Age approach can be compatible with your own religion.

As we update our technology, we must also update our minds. We must clean out the "closets" so that we may live a more harmonious life style. The more we understand New Age concepts the less of a chasm there will be between us and the world - the less alienated we will feel.

This issue we will discuss "Karma" which is simply another term to describe the law of cause and effect.

What exactly is Karma, you ask? Karma is something that touches us all regardless of our standing in life. Orthodox religions talk of sin and consequences, but rarely mention the term Karma. Karma, dear readers, is simply God's way of teaching us a lesson. Not with vindictiveness, but with a black and white, clear cut conclusion that for every act or action, there is a reaction, no matter how trivial it may be.

The future is comprised of both the present and the past. On this point, no one will debate. The Bible talks of sowing good seeds. So, too, our constructive actions and positive thinking reap us good results. Often, we see these results immediately, but sometimes we don't. Eventually, however, the results will be there for us to feel.

A simple example would be, say, a housewife who neglected to do the evening dishes. Well in the morning, there they are piled high in the sink. A more complex example would be if, say, you found a manuscript which contained an important writing. On this manuscript was the address of the author, but you decided not to return it, and discarded it instead.

The chain reaction of events could possibly affect thousands of people in the long run. What you have done has temporarily prevented an idea from being realized. This effect will be felt not only by you, but by others as well.

As a spiritual counselor I get considerable mail related to this subject as well as other topics. These are just a few of the questions related to Karma that have recently come to my attention.

QUESTION: Our son, age 29, lives with us. He doesn't work and he's a very heavy drinker. Most of the time he just stays in his room. We don't want to ask him to leave, but financially it is becoming difficult. Is it our responsibility - our Karma - to take care of him?

ANSWER: It sounds to me like your son has some pretty serious problems. Have you considered getting him some professional help? Perhaps you could check to see if there are any clinics nearby that could be of assistance in helping him break his drinking problem. As for Karma, it was probably your Karma to have this particular child, but I suggest his problem is his Karma. It may be painful for you, but you must put your foot down, talk to him and see he gets on a better path.

QUESTION: Has Karma ever been taught in the Christian faith?

ANSWER: Yes, as a matter of fact it was taught during the middle ages. A lot of text was edited because the church felt people were abusing this doctrine by committing adultery, thievery, etc., and putting the blame on Karma. Thus, the subject was stricken from the scriptures.

WILL YOU BE ALIVE BY THE END OF 1983?

THE "SPACE BROTHERS" WANT YOU TO ESCAPE THE COMING HOLOCAUST THAT THREATENS TO DESTROY OUR WORLD...

THE GREAT CONJUNCTION
The Alignment of the Planets

PSYCHICS PREDICT

Psychics from the late Edgar Cayce to the modern seer, Jeane Dixon all agree that our planet is slated for 'troubled times' in the next few years. With their 'gifts of prophecy,' these sensitives have been able to peer into the future and know that a rocky road lies ahead, that a great physical holocaust will leave terrible scars over the entire face of the earth. Land shifts will occur, whole continents will rise, while others will sink under the force of gigantic tidal waves.

SCIENCE AGREES

Seismographs on both the East and West Coasts have registered an unusually high number of earth tremors in the last few months. We are not far from total ruin. Time is running out. The cosmic clock is ticking away and we are approaching the midnight hour. Never before in history has such a large number of earthquakes been recorded around the globe. It's obvious that a widespread disaster that could spell THE E—N—D for millions is going to happen within our lifetime.

NO PLACE TO HIDE

Absolutely no area will be safe! There will be no place to hide! We are powerless to avoid this worldwide catastrophe! Water will cover a good portion of the earth. Wild life will die by the score. Our rich farm lands will turn to lakes. Mighty weather storms will unleash havoc with what is left of civilization. Man will turn to battling his brother in order to survive.

A WAY OUT

But a select few of us will continue on the race of homo sapiens. These individuals will be those who place their trust in a higher power. Those who survive will do so only because they heed these dire warnings and listen to an intelligence from afar.

SPACE PEOPLE PREDICT

The occupants of these technically advanced vehicles have made contact with many influential people in our own space program, claims a former astronaut. They are not here to play games. They are here to help us in this difficult crisis. Because they have developed their psychic abilities and because they are able to travel into the future, they know DOOMSDAY is just around the next bend.

FREE — FREE — FREE

If you order this book we will include at no extra charge as a bonus A GUIDELINE ON HOW TO CONTACT THE SPACE PEOPLE in your own home. Documentation shows that this guideline has worked for many, and it can work for you.

CHANGE YOUR LIFE

We guarantee that this book will have a positive effect on your life. The messages contained within its pages is an inspiring one. It is not for everyone, but it is definitely for YOU, the New Age thinker, UFO skywatcher and those who are psychically 'tuned in.' It's written in plain English (there are no secret codes to uncrack), and approaches the subject of UFOs and the philosophy of our Space Brothers on a level all can understand as well as apply to our everyday lives.

OFFER OF HELP

Since they are truly our 'Space Brothers,' and recognize the fact that we are the creator's children, (just like themselves), they want to offer aid and assistance in any way possible. The UFO-nauts say that if we will only listen and take their advice that many of us can survive and go on to live in a glorious Golden Age, an age that has not existed on Earth since the days of Atlantis.

HEALTH & ABUNDANCE

There will be no wars. Diseases such as cancer and heart trouble will be conquered, and there will be an abundance of natural resources. Those who are alive today can make it through the next few years and literally live forever in a society that is totally free of the problems that currently plague mankind.

SPACE PEOPLE'S PLAN

According to Tim Beckley who has written an encouraging new book,

FRIENDLY SPACE PEOPLE CAN GET US TO SAFETY...

PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS, your part in the Space Peoples' plan is very important. We must all work toward one goal—making the reality of UFOs as widely known as possible. Everyone reading these words are—the aliens realize—open minded enough to heed these dire warnings and work to change the course of history.

"UFO REVIEW"

UFO REVIEW is the world's only flying saucer newspaper. Each issue is full of authentic photos, face to-face contacts and explosive evidence of a government "cover-up." When you order PSYCHIC REVELATIONS we will send you a trial subscription free.

ASTRONAUT AMONG THOSE SEARCHING FOR NOAH'S ARK

Former astronaut James Irwin is among those who are convinced that the remains of Noah's Ark can be found near the top of Mt. Ararat in Turkey. Irwin, a member of a team of explorers who recently ventured to this frozen region in search of the famous Biblical vessel, bases his belief on eyewitness testimony. The most recent discovery was made by adventurer Dennis Burchett, who last August reportedly saw an object which parallels the description given in the Old Testament of the Ark.

Burchett, who a matter of weeks ago joined Irwin in the hunt for Noah's Ark, said he came across a form measuring about 450 feet long and rectangular in shape at an altitude of 13,000 feet on the north side of Mt. Ararat. The exact position of the object and the weather made it impossible to get very close to it, but the six man team consisting of astronaut Irwin and explorer Burchett say they will try again in their endeavor to prove that the Ark is a reality and not some myth.

Meanwhile, a group from Palestine, Texas, the Holy Ground Mission, says this is nothing new to them. Back several years ago, they claim to have climbed Mt. Ararat and found the ship lodged on a cliff shelf about 12,500 feet high in a huge canyon-like crevice. Because of the position they found the object in, they could only get so close, but did manage to collect several samples of wood chips scattered about in the soil which through testing have proven to be centuries old.

Also near the Ark, the Holy Ground Mission discovered the foundation of a village long abandoned, as well as symbols of ancient vintage carved onto stone which has yet to be deciphered because it is like nothing scientists have come across before.

Strange symbols found near resting place of Ark.

Asked why they are so anxious to recover the Ark, a spokesperson for the Mission stated: "Our members believe we have been 'called' to do this work. We want to show the Ark to this generation as one of the great signs of God that Jesus is coming again. 'As the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.' Noah was saved from the flood because he was righteous. Now in these last days, only those righteous men will be saved from the judgment of God to come."

The Mission maintains that the discovery of the Ark will be revealed before Christ's return. "But he isn't coming this year or next. There are still things that have to happen first."

dying husband to the gates of heaven where I was shown the beauty and contentment of this other place. I was comforted and reassured. This experience eased my grief and convinced me that those who have lived a good life go to a peaceful and beautiful place after they have died. There are, now thousands of life after death experiences on record. No additional proof is needed that we do survive this dimension and go on to an even greater place.

tunic. She was barefoot. She was white with a beautiful face and rosy cheeks. A rosary was hanging from her right arm and she had the heart of Jesus in her open palm. In a telepathic message she communicated to me that the end of the world is near, that everyone should pray, and that parents shouldn't be so harsh with young children." The Virgin requested that seven children be dressed in white and given red and white roses to be left on the foot of the mountain. Some of the children were found crying because they also had seen the Virgin and heard her message.

As of this writing the apparition is still taking place. (Material submitted by A. Rodriguez Jr. of Altamesa, Puerto Rico and translated by Carol Rodriguez).
