"I WAS SAVED BY THE HAND OF GOD ON THE BATTLEFIELD"

BY DIANE TESSMAN

In times of war, do miracles really happen? When life-threatening situations occur by the hour and by the minute, is there any evidence that Heaven is watching us down here on earth?

Does God really care what happens to his sons and daughters? Is He able to stop a bullet in its tracks, or prevent a mishap that could mean an individual's life?

The overwhelming evidence points to a positive answer - a definite YES!

Lt. Col. Ball is a "tough" Navy man, a career officer, who is the flight leader for an entire squadron of helicopters. Today, he is stationed in San Diego home of the mighty U.S. Seventh Fleet. A few years ago, Lt. Col. Ball was leading the fight in Viet Nam, a "police action" which he may not have necessarily approved of, but when his country ordered him to fight, he heeded his country's call and served Uncle Sam well.

Lt. Col. Ball is NOT the type of person you might expect to believe in miracles, or, for that matter, in God's guidance in everyday life. He doesn't seem one to accept that there are supernormal capabilities in the human race. So you can imagine my surprise when he requested that I offer him spiritual advice. Over the phone he said that he had to get something off his chest and immediately or he might have a breakdown. Because he sounded so serious, I agreed to let him come see me that very day despite the fact that I was booked up to give readings for several weeks ahead.

What I discovered, was that Lt. Col. Ball's beliefs are not based on blind faith, but rather in very real experience, for he was literally saved from death's grip twice during battle emergencies from which he could not possibly have been saved without Divine intervention!

"I was flying a bombing mission against the Viet Cong when my chopper was hit by ground fire. Incredibly, a bullet lodged in the control stick, so not only was the chopper reeling out of control due to being hit, but I had no hopes of regaining control, or any semblance of control, with that bullet jammed in the stick."

Lt. Col. Ball says he thought it was all over -- that death was only a few seconds away.

"My gunner and I both thought we are definite goners. We watched in what seemed like slow motion as the chopper went into a dive and headed down, down...into a canyon area of the Viet Nam countryside. The ground swirled closer and closer...it was like a crazy carnival ride, but we knew that at the end of it was death - bone-crunching, fire engulfing death."

Lt. Col. Ball was visibly shaken as he sat in my office and relived this split second of looking death directly in the eye. As he told his story, however, an inner smile engulfed his face. It was the smile of a man who has seen the face of God.

"We couldn't have been more than 50 feet from the bottom of the canyon when our chopper evened itself out. That's right, I said it leveled out for no logical reason whatsoever. The stick was still jammed, I should know because I had been yanking at it with all my might for those terrible moments and I couldn't budge it even a fraction of an inch. As far as I'm concerned, God leveled that chopper out and saved us at the last possible second."

In all my life, I'd never seen a man in a military uniform so bewildered. Lt. Col. Ball shook his head in utter thankfulness and affirmation of faith as he relived those incredible moments. After he had finished relating this miracle, he went on to tell me of yet another experience. To my way of thinking, this story seemed even more incredible, as it dealt with the skipping of time and space. Read on and you'll see what I mean.

"As we flew our reconnaissance mission," Lt. Col. Ball went on, "it was not uncommon to be fired upon from the ground. There were Viet Cong clusters, you know, and we never knew when we were right over a ground-to-air missile being manned by a group of angry North Vietnamese."

"One morning as I flew over some thick forested area, I realized with horrified clarity that I was being shot at. Two rockets were headed straight for my aircraft and there was no time to get out of the way of these blasts. I couldn't move to a higher altitude, or take a dive. There was no out...this was it!"

Lt. Col. Ball held his breath and waited for the rockets to smash into his chopper. As in his other experience, it was at this point that time seemed to slow down.

"Somehow, somehow...in a split second...my chopper was down field about 500 feet! I swear, my chopper skipped time and space, skipped the reality that was there and 'showed up' in a different reality, a different time and place which was at least 500 feet away. I mean, my chopper didn't fly to this new location, it simply jumped in time from one point to another. There is no logical explanation for this. Believe me, I have tried to give it a practical explanation, to explain it away, but I simply cannot. The more I think of it the stranger the entire incident becomes."

Lt. Col. Ball does not feel that it was his "time" to die. He believes that God was manipulating reality in order to protect him. He does not feel he is "special" because he has heard of many other war-time stories along the same incredible lines. He does admit, however, to having keen powers of mental telepathy and he has always believed very firmly in God and in the possibility of miracles. He is a conservative in his religion in that he does not vary in his beliefs or explore new ones; at the same time, he does not impose his beliefs on anyone else. He simply never falters in his belief in Divine Intervention and in God's power of protection.

Certainly the bloodshed and atrocities of war are abhorrant to God, however, mankind seems to make his own fate much of the time and in not heeding God's word, many die in the reality of wars waged against others. It does seem that God reaches out to save many individuals in the throes of battle. If one were to take a survey of military men who have fought in wars: one would find many, many "miracle" accounts which defy logical explanation. We can know beyond a shadow of a doubt that God does intervene to save the lives of individuals as much as is possible within the context of the horrors of war.

Lt. Col. Ball concludes: "It was God's will that I live longer. It was His will that my crew survive, that we not die so needlessly. I never fail to be astounded in a very beautiful way at the wonders of God's universe. And, you know, my life has been saved just recently and I'm still wringing my hands about that one! It happened so recently and so unexpectedly on a very routine flight."

He explains the incident as follows: "We were flying over central California when the instrument board showed that our oil had totally spilled out. No warning, it was just all gone. We had the option to land in a field, but there were power lines all around. I made the decision to head on for the base, though my crew literally howled that it would be impossible to go that far with no fuel onboard. Something deep inside of me -- I felt it was God talking - told me that I could make it to the base alright and that this was the only course of action to take."

As it turned out, Lt. Col. Ball made the correct decision. "Though there is no practical way that my machine could have stayed in the air, the aircraft made it to its final destination without incident. Apparently, even the base commander thought we were in serious trouble because he had all the fire engines out on the runway just waiting for us to crack up."

FAMED SINGER EARTHA KITT PROCLAIMS: BENEFICIAL SPIRITS GUIDE MY LIFE

Where do we go when we die?

This question has confronted philosophers and theologians for ages. Men of the cloth, our religious leaders, speak in terms of Heaven and Hell. Some contend that there is sufficient proof that human souls continue on their existence in some other dimension, and are capable of lending a helping hand to those who have not yet passed from the earthly plane. More and more we hear stories from those who have had "near death" experiences, and who say that they have met their loved ones on the other side of life. Many times they have been "turned back" because "their time" has not yet arrived to leave this world and venture on to the next. We do know that so-called "spirits" are capable of remarkable feats and are almost always anxious to assist the living, especially those who have been close to them throughout their own lives.

To those who have thrilled to the onstage performances of Eartha Kitt, there is only one way to describe her -- she has a personality that "gives off sparks." Coupled with this enormous vitality is a feline grace. It is as if she were the embodiment of all the physical and psychic forces which go to make up the complete woman. Because of this savage-sexy-sweet-charisma, Eartha has become a world-wide phenomenon.

Talk to this highly dedicated singer, as we did some time ago, and you meet a woman who has the courage to come right out and tell you that she believes in "unseen forces." Eartha says that her mind is really "tuned in," and that she can often tell who is at her door before she goes ahead and opens it. "It happened to me just yesterday. I was waiting for my daughter -- with whom I'm very close -- and I was thinking, 'Where is she?' And I called out her name, 'Annie!' In five minutes someone knocked and there she was."

From her experience, it's no wonder that Eartha has come to believe that she is surrounded by beneficial spirits. Eartha says she never likes to think in terms of bad spirits because, "I don't feel that I'm a bad person, and like attracts like. If you're a good person, then you will have good spirits around you, because something good only wants to deal with something that is related to its vibrations."

Among those whom Eartha cites as being "comfortingly near" are the spirits of her mother, her aunts, her mother-in-law, and a lady named Norma Folska, whom Eartha adopted. All of these women have long since died.

Even though Eartha misses them greatly, she sees no reason to try to contact them through seances, since she feels their presence all the time and contends she experiences no difficulty in communicating with them.

Perhaps the most dramatic manifestation of Eartha Kitt's bond with spirit helpers occurred while the famous personality was traveling in South America. On this occasion she had left her several-months-old daughter back home in Los Angeles.

"It was the first time I had ever been away from her for any length of time," Eartha notes. "I decided that I was exhausted and that I just had to get away. I was working one or two days a week -- the rest of the time I was supposed to be resting. In Colombia, I was doing a TV show, when suddenly, I felt my baby very strongly."

Eartha explains that she'd left her little girl with a certified nurse and the housekeeper. "This nurse was only supposed to take care of the baby -- she had nothing else to do, and the housekeeper had all the other chores to tend to. Also, my in-laws were there, so I was certain my daughter would be in capable hands.

"But the feeling I had this night told me something was wrong. I could almost hear the baby cry, and without thinking about it, I packed my suitcase, got on the next plane and

"Arriving home, I opened the door and picked up Annie and rocked her in my arms. It felt as if her body were on fire. The doctor said if I had been away from her for just one more day, she would have been deathly ill."

Of course, there was every reason why Eartha should have received such a warning. She loves her daughter dearly. "When I asked the nurse why she hadn't taken proper care of the baby, she said, 'The baby is fine. There doesn't seem to be anything wrong with her!' I said, 'How long has she been without food?' The nurse told me the baby hadn't eaten for two days. 'But that's the way babies are.' When I took her to the doctor, he found her mouth was filled with sores, and she hadn't eaten because she had been very, very ill.

"All you had to do was touch the child, and you knew she wasn't well. I don't see how the nurse could possibly have failed to recognize this. Anna is not the type of child to pretend she's ill; I have never really known her to say she's sick when she's not. My daughter doesn't complain. The only way you can tell she's not well is that she will just not behave like she generally behaves."

Having believed in this type of manifestation since she was herself a little girl growing up in the South, Eartha fully realizes that it is impossible to predict when another message will be beamed her way from the world of spirit.

"Another time a girl friend of mine was pregnant, and I hadn't heard from her in ages," Eartha recalls. "She'd been married for about two years. She had two children and I knew that she had been ill off and on.

"My girl friend had phlebitis, and the doctors warned her against having another baby. So I just naturally took it for granted that she would never have any more children.

"I had been away from America for about six or seven months, and when I came back, I immediately called my girl friend and told her I knew she was pregnant and sick, and that something was just not as it should be.

"She said, 'My God, Eartha, how did you know all that?' I went to visit her several days later, and found out that there were terrible complications. The baby was dead inside of her!"

Eartha shakes her head as she continues the strange account. "There was no way for me to have known about this trouble at all," she says. "But, I had had a dream that we were trying to take care of the baby that Virginia, my friend, had had. And we were trying to get the baby to the doctor. In getting to his office, there were all sorts of complications. There was, for instance, a dense forest we had to go through. It was weird, a kind of nightmare, but it gave me the clue that something was wrong."

There is no way, of course, to tell how much of what Eartha has "known about" in advance, is actually inspired by spirits, or through her own mental abilities. There is no doubt in her mind, however, but that there are "friends" around her, even when it seems she's all alone. Eartha is a humane person, and as she says, why would evil entities want to bother her? Those spirits that do visit her certainly do seem to have her best interests at heart.

STRANGER AND EVEN MORE POWERFUL THEN THE SHROUD OF TURIN ARE THE..

MIRACLE RELIGS OF JESUS

Probably the most famous relic associated with the life of Jesus is the Holy Shroud of Turin. The burial cloth of Christ, the Shroud has preserved for nearly two thousand years the image of Jesus as he lay crucified on the cross.

Not as well known are the stories and miracles associated with the coat He wore at the time of His death, His holy tunic, and the crown He wore on His head which brought Him so much suffering and pain.

Noted author and religious writer, Arthur Crockett recently uncovered the truth about these remarkable artifacts which actually survived Christ's ascent into Heaven, and which may still exist, just like the Holy Shroud, to this day. Crockett, who has written such profound works as ANGELS OF THE LORD, THE SECRET PROPHECY OF FATIMA and A MIRACLE A MINUTE, sets forth his most recent findings in a book that has just been released by Inner Light Publications called STRANGE AND UNKNOWN FACTS ABOUT THE LIFE OF JESUS.

THE HOLY TUNIC

A wonderful and most remarkable religious ceremony is carried out each year in a suburb of Paris. During the ceremony in the tiny village of Argenteuil, France, a casket containing the inner robe or tunic, worn by Our Lord at the time of His Crucifixion, is carried in a procession up and down the main aisles of the church. At the close of the ceremony, the parishioners are permitted to look at the tunic.

The tunic is actually the fragment of a shirt and is enclosed in a double shrine. It is removed from its casket only at rare intervals. The Bishop of the diocese of Versailles is the only one who is allowed - except for the Pope - to break the seals.

In the 1800s Pope Pius IX ordered the seal broken because he wanted a piece of the tunic. While the Bishop and other church dignitaries went about the business of clipping off a piece of the shirt for the Pope, they clipped off two more pieces and placed them in small shrines. These shrines are really miniature caskets. They are kept in the church and worshippers are occasionally permitted to hold the caskets in their hands.

The seals were affixed in 1854. They held in place until 1881, when they began to crumble. At that time the relic was removed and exhibited for thousands of pilgrims from France, Germany, Italy and Spain.

The Holy Tunic is made of camel's hair and looks much like the kind of material worn by Arabs today. When the casket was sealed in 1882, the garment had already been subjected to a microscopic examination by scientists. They were convinced that the stains found on the shirt had been made by blood.

As with all the relics so closely associated with the death of Jesus, the Holy Tunic has had many miracles attached to it. Blind people who held the tiny caskets were suddenly able to see. Cripples hobbling to the altar at Treves and at Argenteuil to pray were able to walk back to their pews unaided by crutches.

THE SEAMLESS HOLY COAT

An even more powerful relic is the seamless holy coat Jesus wore as He bled to death.

Pick up the Bible and turn to the New Testament according to John. There you will find this important passage:

"Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat. Now the coat was without seams, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be."

The coat John wrote about was woven by Mary, the mother of Jesus, from the wool of three lambs kept on the Mount of Olives. According to the ancient histories, the coat did not stay long with the Roman soldier who had won it, but soon after the crucifixion ended up in the possession of a Jew who tried to wash out the bloodstains, but failed. After many attempts he gave up and tossed the coat into the sea.

No one knows how long it remained in the water, but what we do know is that it was eventually swallowed by a whale. We know that because a fisherman speared the great animal and had it hauled ashore. And that was when the gray coat was discovered in the maw of the whale. The fisherman is said to have sold it to Orendal, who was the son of Eygel (the Christian King of Treves - now Germany) for thirty pieces of silver. For a brief while it was placed on exhibit in a cathedral and then the king had the coat sealed up in an old stone coffin and placed in a niche in a nave in the church.

The coat lay hidden for three centuries then, between the years 326 and 328, the mother of Emperor Constantine made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem and claimed the seamless coat. Returning to Europe with the treasure, St. Helena converted her palace into a cathedral and displayed the garment.

Historical records indicate that the coat eventually turned up in Treves, and in 1844, Archbishop Arnoldi announced the "Centennial Jubilee of the Holy Coat," about which one writer of the period stated: "This exhibition produced a wonderful effect, and Treves exhibited such scenes as would appear rather to belong to the fourteenth than the nineteenth century. Pilgrims came from all quarters, many in large bands, preceded by banners and marshaled by their village priests. It was impossible to lodge the great mass of footsore travelers, and they slept on the inn stairs, in outhouses, or even in the streets. By the early dawn they would take up their posts by the cathedral doors; and long before these were open, a line of many hundreds would form. Sometimes the line would be more than a mile in length, so that but few persons could reach the altar where the coat was placed in less than three hours. The heat, dust, and fatigue were too much for many, who fainted by the hour."

Finally, in 1891, after many miracles had been reported, the coat was examined by a commission appointed by Pope Leo XIII. Their report read in part: "The relic, which is preserved in a shrine of pure silver contained in the interior of the high altar, consists of a long Oriental robe, made of three layers of thickness of silken material, the texture and pattern of which enabled the experts to determine the date of its manufacture as being the sixth or seventh century. In between these two silken layers, and protected by them, is a sort of woven lined fabric of brownish hue, and manifestly of vastly greater antiquity than either of the silken coverings. It differs from the latter in its freedom from any stitch or seam, it being all woven in one piece. It was evident, therefore, to the members of the Commission of Inspection, that it was the linen and not the silken fabric which was the famous 'Tunica Inconsutilis.' In other words, it was the seamless garment, woven according to tradition by the Virgin Mary's own hands for her Divine Son."

The holy garment was exhibited for six weeks in 1891. It and its silken protections were then sealed up into a bag by two nuns who were chosen because of their piety, and returned to its jeweled silver shrine. The actual sealing was accomplished by bishops, deans, prelates, burgomasters and other officials.

The coat is still sealed. We can only hope to see a time shortly when it will again be exhibited - surely before the end of this century.

THE IRON CROWN OF LOMBARDY

Historians refer to this relic as "The Iron Crown," or "The Crown of the Crucifixion Nails." Actually, it is not a crown of iron at all, but one of gold. It looks much like a very large bracelet and the only iron in it is in the form of a circlet, a thin, narrow strip that runs around the inside of the gold band. This inside ring was made from the nails that were driven into the hands and feet of Christ on the cross.

Legend tells us that the iron circlet was made from a single nail, which was given to the Empress Helena, who then gave it to her son Constantine. It was said that he used it as a charm during his numerous wars - all of which he won!

The Iron Crown was first mentioned in history in 591 A.D. Princess Theudelinde had it made for her husband Agilulf, who was crowned King of the Lombards. It was used during the coronation, but did not remain in the coffers of the kingdom. The princess was a very devout woman, so she presented the crown to the church at Monza.

As reference, "Brewer's Dictionary of Phrases and Fable" has this to say: "The Iron Crown is so called from a barrow band of iron, said to be beaten out of one of the nails used at the crucifixion. The band is about three-eighths of an inch broad, and one-tenth of an inch in thickness. The outer circllet of the crown is of beaten gold set with precious stones. It is preserved with great care at Monza, near Milan."

The Crown is also set with large rubies, emeralds and sapphires, on a ground of blue and iridescent enamel.

Nothing else is recorded concerning the Crown until the year 768, when it was used in the ceremonies at the coronation of Charlemagne. It was then exhibited at all coronations of emperors whose sub-title was that of "King of Lombardy."

When Napoleon was crowned King of Italy on May 23, 1805, in Milan, he placed the Iron Crown on his own head and stated: "God has given it to me. Woe unto him who shall attempt to deprive me of it."

Later on in the nineteenth century, Milan was looted by the Austrians. The Crown was stolen and taken to Vienna. That was a serious mistake. The Pope and all the prelates in Europe condemned the action. The to-do was so terrible that the Austrians were forced to allow the Crown to be removed under special guard and returned to Monza.

On April 23, 1859, the Crown was taken from Monza and sent to Mantua. In 1866, it was presented to the King of Italy. It was on public display for some time and then taken from view. Supposedly, many miracles were reported by those who came near this relic. As with the other artifacts associated with the life and death of Jesus and is no longer available for the public to see.

Other relics also are said to exist. These are only a few that have been written about in the book STRANGE AND UNKNOWN FACTS ABOUT THE LIFE OF JESUS which can be ordered directly from this magazine. DAYS OF DARKNESS

THE THREE PHASES OF EARTH'S CLEANSING

This channeled message has been circulated among various groups and individuals and purports to be directly from The Christ. It was received through Anna, the prophetess who considers herself a messenger of God. We fully realize it is of a controversial nature and present it because so many have expressed interest in material regarding "THE END TIMES" specifically "THE DAYS OF DARKNESS" so many have predicted and which is discussed in the Bible.

This is thy Lord, Jesus Christ. I have spoken of three phases of Cleansing. The first is the three days of Darkness; the second is the Seven-Year Famine; and the third is the Battle of Armageddon, at which time the Children of God will not be on earth, but will have been evacuated.

There have been cleansings in which there were three days of darkness in the time of Noah; and in the time of the flight of the Children of Israel out of Egypt; and in the time of Enoch; and in the time of Abraham. When Abraham was, the earth had existed twenty-six hundred years, but there was no written history. The history of the earth is written in God's Book of Life, where those who can go to the Akashic Records can read it. Atlantis was at the time of Enoch. Lemuria was at the time of the flight of the Children of Israel out of Egypt.

When ye see this writing, the time will be short before the beginning of the first cleansing. When the three days of darkness begin, it is well to think only thoughts of love and kindness to all that cross your mind. This will alleviate the pressure of unforgiven feelings. Those who are not able to cope with the hearing of these events are not yet right in their love relationship with God. When a person knows God is in charge of all things at all times, they can cope with anything God plans for them or the earth. They may be somewhat frightened, but will receive comfort and guidance by looking to God.

When the first Cleansing begins, it will be on a clear day in the middle of the day. The sun will fade away and darkness will begin to come over the land. There will be several hours before total darkness will be on all sides. There will be time for all enlightened to bring home their family; put water and feed outside for their animals and birds; and obtain supplies of food which does not need to be prepared and clean drinking water where it can be reached in the dark. Have warm clothing and bedding to remain wrapped in for the duration of the darkness, which will last three days. By the third night stars will be seen in the heavens. The fourth day the sun will shine again. During these three days of utter darkness, it is necessary that those in the houses do not look outside. It is necessary that they cover their windows with heavy covers which keep out the cold and keep the warmth inside.

The light that can be used for a short period of time has to be a battery-operated light. No fires or open flame light is to be used in the first three days. This will use up oxygen, which is already low in the atmosphere of the earth. Those who have respiratory problems will have a difficult time surviving. It is well if the door not be opened to anyone or for any reason. After the first three days, candles may still not be used for two more days; then ye can use any light or heat ye wish. Electricity should be re-established in a matter of time after the sun shines again. You can use whatever light or heat ye wish after the first three days, but are required to stay inside your home another eleven days without opening the doors or looking out the windows. This is to know only that which is in thy house. The memory of the outside would not be easily removed.

The commodes should flush the entire time. The freezers will be off during the time the electricity is off. Food could be spoiled; test before eating. Not all those who are outside of God's care will leave the body. Some will live through it through sheer perseverance on their part--the will to live. This terrible thing must happen because the people have hardened their hearts. At the close of each age a cleansing is necessary. We are in the transitional period between the Piscean Age and the incoming Aquarian Age.

Those who will keep their animals inside to protect them will suffer the consequence of disobedience. God is not mocked. There is reason for what He asks of the people of the earth who have gone far astray from His laws. The animals are cared for by my beings, who are on earth for this reason. None will die. This cleansing is not for the animals or for little children. The little children who are left on earth without their parents are in God's care. The Angels will care for and comfort the little ones. There will very quickly be found loving homes for them to be raised in. The parents with little ones need not worry how they will be cared for. God's plan is complete.

After the three days of darkness are past, stay inside another eleven days. This is to re-establish the atmosphere on the earth and to give the Space Brothers sufficient time to take care of the debris the destruction has caused, and to remove the bodies of those who are no longer living. When the people come out of their houses on the fourteenth day, they will see no sign of the terrible things that happened. These will have been through a cleansing in their terrible experience, and will now accept God into their lives.

When the sun shines on the fourth day, those who are yet alive need to thank God. It is not better to be dead than alive when God is carrying out a cleansing plan on the earth. When they are yet alive, they have yet an opportunity to establish a closer walk with God which will assure them a safer place in God's kingdom. By safer, I mean an area where God's laws are yet obeyed. After the three days of darkness and before the Battle of Armageddon, is a time when the people will wish to learn how to obey that which God has said they can do as the Lord Jesus Christ is able to do. When the aftermath of this terrible destruction is past, the world will then be in a famine for seven years. During these seven years the church and the school will be established with the help of Angelic guidance. In the time given for this activity, these lessons will be learned sufficiently that those who come back to earth will bring back the knowledge and the talents which they took with them. After that will follow the Battle of Armageddon. Those who are in God's care are not on earth during this time. They will have been taken up with me into a beautiful and peaceful area where they will stay until the aftermath of the last battle on earth is cleared away. Then chosen ones will be returned to earth the same way they were taken. This will be done by our Space Brothers and their spaceships. One phase will go directly into the next. The Children of God will not be brought back until the debris of all the cleansing is cleared away and the earth is fresh and clean. The Children of God will have been in a state of heaven, and will have forgotten happenings on the earth. They will be taken with their bodies and brought back with their bodies. Nothing at all will be left on earth. Some things of this civilization will be found hundreds of years from now, or even thousands, and will be called "Artifacts of the Lost Civilization of Earth."

When the Children of God are returned again to earth, they will be beamed back asleep and will awaken on earth in an area close to where they were when they were taken up. They will not remember it but many will feel comfortable with their atmosphere, as if they had been there before. They will arrive in comfortable weather and will have nothing with them except some tools which the Space Brothers will leave with each adult. With these tools they will slowly begin to carve out a pattern for life. They will begin to plant seeds which will be left for them. They will carve dishes out of wood. They will build fires to keep warm and to cook food. They will find vegetables and fruit growing and seeds and nuts, and things which grew in the area when they were taken away. It will be much like the Garden of Eden.

The Children will have Angels and Space Brothers with them on earth to help them build homes; establish the various systems such as government, financial, educational, and the system in which people are made well when something affects them adversely. This will not be a medical system in which doctors use chemical and other harmful procedures for which they can charge an exorbitant price from the already impoverished patient or the patient's family. This healing system is called "The Well-Making by Mental Power." Each person will learn how to apply his own mental powers to all phases of his life. When a person is too ill to accomplish this, there will be practitioners who will help the patient heal himself by directing the patient's thoughts.

My thoughts will be picked up by all when I am giving them guidance or comfort. This they will have learned in the interim between the time they were taken and the time they are brought back.

When the Children of God come back they are no longer called by the name they had when they were taken. They will have forgotten. In time they will think of something to call each other. They cannot read or write now. The schools must teach this very soon. The Angels will teach the teachers and build places to learn in.

There will be animals of other kinds; some were on earth before. There will be no vicious animals. All animals will love each other as people do.

The only supplies people will have will be those they can find around them. They will soon learn to make clothes to cover them up and keep them warm on cold nights. They will come back with the clothes they had on when they were taken. The weather will not be cold for some time--that is, until the people have learned to make clothes and bedding for themselves to protect them against the elements. Their God would not bring bad things upon them without giving them a way to protect themselves.

The Angels will have similar flesh bodies as they did at the time the Sons of God were upon the earth and found the daughters of man very fair, and loved them and had children with them. There will be children born of these attractions, who will be normal children. The fathers will disappear, one after another, when their work is done. The mothers of the children will know their husband was a Son of God and would be leaving again. They will raise the children with love and loving memories of their fathers. The children will be the same in all ways as are children on earth.

To get to this beautiful Garden of Eden with God and the Angels, one must now give his or her heart to God to be forgiven and guided by God into a life of service to God.

Those returning will be much wiser and purer in mind and body. They are then given a piece of ground and tools to make their living and to learn to survive with the help of the Angels which God is sending with them to guide, guard, protect, comfort, and supply their needs.

The tools and other equipment are not of the earth kind. This is the age when God is ruling in the hearts and lives of those on earth. They will live closely with their Angels. The Angels will be protectors and companions to them. The people will have learned to communicate with God and with the Angels assigned to them by their Lord, Jesus Christ. The Angels are an ever-present help in all things.

Those who return to earth will have no recall of their families or homes. The healing work will have been done in them while they were in the area where they awaited return to earth. People of all ages will return.

Those who have family with them will stay with their kinfolk though they will not know they are kin. This will keep family love and ties between them. Those who are without family will be grouped in a way that they can soon become family. Their Angels will be a great help in this area. The Angels will express much love to them and create a feeling of togetherness by a bond.

Space Brothers are highly evolved Beings of great light who operate space vehicles to do the work which God requires in all areas of the Universe. They are involved with this very important work on earth. They live in their vehicles when they are not based doing clean-up work. They wear uniforms which resemble those of an army. The uniforms are not clothing; they are of a substance which is formed over the wearers. The Space Brothers do not have names except when they are assigned to a person or a group who can communicate with them. The name is relinquished when their work with that person or group is finished. The name is given to them by God and usually denotes a status. The spaceships also have names at that time.

The time is now when those who have the light of understanding need to heed this message and prepare the best they can. Where there is not enough money because of the economy to buy that which they need, and their heart is with God, they can count on their Angels providing that which they need. They will find they need less than they think. Their Angels have many ways to bring necessary things to them. In the wilderness the Children of Israel were given quail when the Children were tired of spiritual food and were complaining loudly to God. Spiritual food is fruits and vegetables, nuts, seeds, honey, and grains. There was plenty of that for them. Before they left Egypt they were eating meat, and they thought they needed meat to have strength to travel. They did not need meat, but God gave it to them because they thought they needed it.

STRANGERS WARNING

I would like to share an experience I had with a "Higher Being" in 1965. At about 9:30 A.M. one morning, there was a knock on my door, and there stood a stranger whom I'd never seen before. He introduced himself as "Lloyd Brown." He told me he had just come from Hope Troxell's apartment in Independence, Calif., which is 42 miles south of Bishop. Hope Troxell was a channel for the space people for 26 years before her death in 1978. I said to him something like, "A friend of Hope Troxell's is a friend of mine. Come on in." He seemed to have a peaceful and friendly countenance, so I wasn't afraid to let him into my home.

He sat in a chair and began talking to me about general things and how bad the world situation was getting to be. He seemed to be in a hurry, so he only stayed for about an hour. But before he left, he told me to get my Bible out. He referred me to the book of Jeremiah and told me to look up a certain scripture. After reading it I had a better understanding of it. He left shortly thereafter. I noticed he was driving what appeared to be a 1957 model car. After he left, I felt within myself that I was in the presence of a superior being. I've had some earlier contacts with space people while living in Southern California, but I couldn't ever be sure until now.

The following month on May 17th, he put in another appearance. This time he stayed for three hours. He came at 4 P.M. and left at 7. During the course of our conversation, HE SEEMED TO KNOW MORE ABOUT ME, THAN I KNEW ABOUT MYSELF! I began to wonder about this stranger. I felt for certain at this point that I was in the presence of one of the "Brothers" from space. At one point, he ordered me to get on my knees and praise the Lord. I got on my knees with my elbows on the sofa, and began praising the Lord. I must have repeated these praises about 500 times when he said to me, "That's enough, you may be seated."

Before he left, he gave me a rather personal message. He said in part that my children and I would be taken up soon. He also indicated that some disaster would occur where people would be "living in tents and under trees. Great multitudes. It is advisable to go at least 100 miles as quickly as possible to the North and through tactful efforts in all media, to CIRCULATE THE TRUTH OF PERILOUS CONDITIONS that are rapidly forthcoming upon the planet earth" He told me that as much food as can be purchased, should be stored to feed the multitudes of truth seekers, guided to this perfection center. "It will be impossible to store more food than will be needed," he said.

My eight year old daughter and my six year old son were present during this second visit as they both were home from school. The following year, a friend of mine came to visit. I recounted to him the story about the stranger who called himself, Lloyd Brown. My friend gave a chuckle and said, "Oh, I've heard of him, he's also been giving messages to other people." This remark was further proof to me, that I was indeed visited by a space friend who gave assurance to people that they would be removed from the earth in time of great trouble and stress. And for this we should be thankful.

JESUS TAUGHT ME NOT TO FEAR DEATH

During my pregnancy with my second child, I had spells of hemorrhaging for six weeks before being taken to the hospital in an ambulance. I had a fainting spell in the examining room and the doctor felt that it would be best to perform a Caesarean section. While lying on the operating table and having a conversation with the anesthetist, I felt as though I was going to faint. I told her this and she gave me some oxygen which didn't help. The last thing I remember was her yelling to the doctor to hurry, that my blood pressure was falling. I then found myself in this beautiful place. I know it was Heaven because it was so peaceful, so beautiful and in this place they played wonderful music.

Someone started to talk to me. I didn't see his face, but I felt it was Jesus. The voice said, "Dottie, I am leaving you here (on earth) for a purpose; no one will know what you are going through." He proceeded to make known to me ALL THINGS. He told me why he died on the cross, but I only remember that it was a bit different than what has been taught by the churches.

When He finished talking to me, I felt a floating sensation and I was moving away from that beautiful place to a dirty and ugly one, so great is the contrast between Heaven and earth. I did not want to return, although He said that I must. I then felt myself back in my body on the operating table. I could feel the doctors putting tape across my stomach, but I could not open my eyes. Someone was saying the Lord's Prayer, and when they said Amen, I opened my eyes as though I had just been taking a nap.

I was taken back to my room, and told my husband and mother that no one would know what I had gone through, that I had just talked to Jesus. I said I would never complain about anything ever again. Later, as proof that I had died on the operating table, my doctor indicated resuscitation measures had been required because of apnea and hypoxia, which translates as cessation of breathing and lack of oxygen in the brain.

That night as I lay on my bed, I tried to remember what He had revealed to me, but I was unable to, nor have I been able to do so since, but the experience remains as vivid and convincing as when it occurred. In the Bible, Paul seems to be describing the exact same thing happening to him in 2 Corinthians, Chapter 12, Verses 2 to 6.

Because of my experience, I now feel differently about a lot of things. It is a great frustration for me to see others running about with attitudes and activities that are such a waste of their lives, and being unable to help them understand. Since this happened, I have no fear of death, actually looking forward to going home when He calls, and yearn to be able to convince others of the reality of my story and of the beauty and joy of Heaven.

Several years ago I experienced a number of very strange and unusual things which might be placed in the category of revelations.

So many things had gone wrong for me that I just did not want to go on living any longer and I had asked God to either take my life or let me work for Him the rest of my natural days. It was night and I had just gone to bed when this happened. I was amazed the next morning when I awoke to experience a great deluge of knowledge flooding my mind to the point where I became numb with fear. Something kept urging me to write down the information that was coming to me and this I did do when I was able to finally move. The revelations came so speedily that I had not the time to write down all I received, but I even woke up at night and wrote down things that came as I slept. This happened about thirty years ago and the revelations are still coming, but not at such a rapid pace.

About four years ago I had another strange experience. It was late morning and I had dozed off while sitting in my rocking chair. I awoke a short time later to see a young man walking towards me. It was not like an apparition because I could take in every detail of his appearance. He was tall and stocky with light blond hair and he had on a red plaid shirt and beige colored pants. He was only a few feet away from where I sat and he was headed right towards me. Then suddenly, I was startled to realize that he had walked right into me and must have entered my body because there was no more sign of him. I realized it could have been a thought form, but I had never seen the young man before.

WASHINGTON'S VISION

Back in 1919, at the age of six, I was sitting on the steps with a little boy named Edward. We were looking into the star filled sky as we often did. I always thought there were beings on other planets, so this night I sent my thoughts out and I asked if this were true. Back in my mind came the answer, "Yes! There are other people on other planets." I then accepted this as an absolute fact and a reality from that moment on.

Beginning around 1953, I started to see all kinds of manifestations in the sky, and I have always known that I was here on earth on a mission that I must fulfill.

I believe that the "New Order of the Ages" as shown on the back of our dollar bill is of special significance. I believe that the whole world shall not prevail against our country. George Washington had a vision in which a beautiful being - an angel - showed him the birth, progress and destiny of America, which is God freedom and through America, God freedom for the world.

Two days after I received a copy of INNER LIGHT, I had a dream. All I can remember was some one holding up some pages of printed material for me to read. I tried, but it was not close enough for me to see too plainly. Then on top of this I saw something white that I should NOT read. When I woke up I thought it was a mailing label, but this morning, it came to my mind that it was a sealed envelope, and that it was Nostradamus' story with the sealed envelope inside.

Every seal on the one dollar bill, including the treasury seal, tells of our destiny including deliverance from the stars (outer space!). I call upon the ascended Host of Light to protect us.

The photo that you published in Inner Light No. 2, that was taken of the statue of our Lady of Fatima with the face of Jesus showing up after the picture was taken is true, but there is much more to this revelation. The statue also sheds tears; at the lower part of the gown the word MX missile showed up after the picture was studied, and the statue also moved by itself from a rear portion of the altar to a front position on every 13th of the month (EDITOR'S NOTE: See the complete story on this miracle elsewhere in this issue).

Now, I would like to tell you of some of the incredible things that have happened to me. The following revelation is, I feel, very spectacular. I am a security guard by profession and one night on my second patrol of the apartments I was in charge of watching, I noticed a black child around 14 months old standing against the window, his hands reaching out and crying. The drapes were drawn behind him, he was all alone, it was just him...there wasn't anyone else around. I told the child not to cry, and I felt a tremendous compassion for him, I even waved at him. I stayed there a while, then I left to finish my patrol. This child looked exactly like Martin Luther King.

That same night around 1 A.M. I had dozed off and fallen asleep in my car when someone knocked softly on the window. I apologized and said sometimes I do doze off and sleep a little. He then shook my hand one time and repeated this two more times before he went down the street. This man was around thirty years old, his voice was very soft and tender. My belief is that this man was either an angel or Jesus himself and that he shook my hands a total of three times meaning the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. I believe his connection with the child in the window who looked like Martin Luther King is obvious. Mr. King died a martyr and because of the work he did - telling us all that every man is created equal - he is now a saint in heaven and should be considered a candidate for Sainthood.

FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was on a beach walking with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene across the sky, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the way there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the lowest and saddest times of his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it: "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow You, You would walk with me all the way -- but I've noticed that during the worst troublesome times of my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, in the times I needed you the most, you would leave me to walk alone."

The Lord replied: "My son, I love you and would never leave you. You see, during your times of suffering when you see only one set of prints, those were not yours. They were Mine for that's when I carried you."

JESUS SAVED MY LIFE

My personal experience with Gods' powers happened years back. At that time I didn't care whether I lived or died. I had no work, a very bad marriage, drinking and drug problems. I didn't know where to place my children. My parents helped me but to me there was no reason to go on any longer. I was truly thinking of killing myself. Day by day this feeling got stronger. On February 20th, 1967, at about three in the morning, I awoke to see a bright light. It was almost blinding and it came before me. I saw a man's face within a golden light, blood was dripping from his temples and forehead and his eyes were shining. He also had a crown of thorns around his head, He had long, dark hair and olive skin. He looked like pictures of Jesus Christ. A loving, caring smile came on his face and then, as fast as he appeared he disappeared. From that moment on I knew that Jesus Christ had come to tell me that there is a reason to go on, to live and take life head on. He is the one who saved my life. My life has straightened out and I truly know that God answers prayer. Ask and you shall receive is true. God does look over and care for each and every one of us on earth. I now feel that God is warning us of His coming so we can repent and go straight. I truly hope people take heed before it is too late. God does understand our problems. I will never forget this experience and hope everyone who goes wrong could see what I did. Then they would know there is a God.

Just as we reached the top I awoke and had a very strong feeling. Then I knew that He had answered the nurses' prayer.

4- In February of 1981, two months after I came home from the hospital, I had this dream. I was out in a valley that ran North and South and was in among some trees and all leafed out and there was another man standing beside me. We were facing West. I looked down the valley to my left and saw clouds coming in and I said to this man, "Looks like we will have a storm", and he said that it appeared so. When the clouds got up to us, I saw what I thought was the Lord in the clouds. He was flying like a bird with arms outstretched and I heard these words: "This is the Lord", and at that moment I awoke.

Now I am not a real religious man, but I said to myself, "The Lord must be trying to give me a message! Then I thought the answer has to be in the Bible so I have read two different versions of the Bible from beginning to end. In the second and fourth dreams, the old lady and the serpent or dragon I see the persecution of the church. The last dream I read what is to take place just before the great revelation. It said, two men will be in a field, one shall be taken, one shall be left. Two women will be at the wine press, one shall be taken, one shall be left. So to me I have this feeling that the second coming of Jesus is near at hand. I have to conclude that I do believe in God and in Jesus Christ and hope that more people would do likewise.

SPIRITUAL DREAMS

Since 1952 I have had four more or less spiritual dreams.

1- In 1952 my dream was that I was out walking on the prairie some 1300 miles from where I lived at the time. I was walking Southwest and saw dark storm clouds moving in and also saw my wife walking towards me. When we met, I asked her where our daughter Mary was. She said, "I do not know, I thought she was with you". I then said, "We must find her", and I looked up to the sky and the clouds above were white, and there was an opening in the clouds and there I saw the head and shoulders of the Lord. At that instant, I awoke.

2- This dream occurred in 1979. I walked out of the house just at sunset and looked up to the sky and saw an old lady in a black robe with a black shawl on her head. She was crying. To my right I saw a serpent which looked like an alligator facing the old lady. I was facing the East and my brother walked out and stood ten feet to my right and I said to him, "Did you see that old lady and serpent in the sky"? He said, "No, I do not see anything". Then I awoke from my dream.

3- This dream occurred in December, 1980 while I was in the hospital for gall bladder surgery. Right before surgery a young nurse came in and took my temperature and put ointment on my back. Then she said a prayer asking that my surgery be a success.

Four nights after surgery I had this dream. I was walking in the desert with Jesus. We also walked in the mountains.

I had just finished reading Bill Cox's book THE UNSEEN KINGDOM and had been doing some meditation when I went outdoors with my camera and took a few pictures of the sky. When my film was developed I was surprised to see the image of some sort of being or perhaps even an angel with its hands stretched out over its head. Isn't this a fantastic sight?

EDITOR'S RESPONSE: It certainly is Debbie. We only hope that the printer is able to reproduce the photo so that our readers can make out all the details. Bill's book talks about such forces and it seems to us that you managed to capture an air elemental if not an angel on film.

Meat-eating is against God's laws for man. In the coming age, God will re-establish this battered law. There will be no eating of the flesh of any of His animal kingdom; neither will their skins be used for clothing for man. This was never the intent of God's animal kingdom. God has permitted it to be until this time because man learned to depend on animal flesh when Noah and his family came off the ark and found no food. Then God said, "Take an animal and kill it and stay alive." Since that time, man has enjoyed eating the flesh of God's animals, but the time is now when God will reclaim his animals as He is reclaiming His souls. God is staging a final campaign to give the souls who have free will, the choice to come. If the animals had a choice, they would choose not to be slaughtered and eaten by man. They also have intelligence and feelings, and emotions, as does man.

With this message which is given by me, thy Lord, Jesus Christ, THE PEOPLE HAVE BEEN WARNED. Those who have given their hearts and lives to God are in God's care and are surrounded by His Angels. Only those who are yet outside of God's care have a great worry.

MIRACLE OF THE WEEPING MADONNAS

From Calif. to Puerto Rico, Statues of the Virgin Mary are crying real tears and moving about as if to warn of impending danger.

The mystery surrounding the statue of Our Lady of Fatima which is said to move about and shed tears in Thornton, Calif., a rural community outside of Sacramento, has received its share of national publicity in recent months.

Some months ago an attendant in the church noticed that the statue - which weighs nearly sixty pounds and stands four feet high - had apparently moved down the aisle by itself over night.

Over a period of the next six months - always on the 13th - the statue would somehow find its way to the altar, although it had been in its usual resting place at the back of the Mater Ecclesiae Catholic Church when the doors of the church were locked tight the previous evening.

Many local residents saw the movement of the statue as a miracle and rightfully pointed out that the vision of the Virgin Mary at Fatima had always taken place on the 13th of the month, and perhaps this was in some way tied in with the famous apparition. To add fuel to the belief that this occurrence was something in the realm of the supernatural, the statue also began to shed tears. This, many believe, is Mary's way of warning people that some terrible event is going to take place very soon.

Of course, there are the skeptics who point out that church attendance has mushroomed since the story was published in local as well as national publications. Now it is not uncommon for a thousand of the faithful to flock to the church for services, especially around the time of the month when the statue is supposed to move.

By pure coincidence an INNER LIGHT reader, Joyce Davis of Knights Landing, Calif., also heard of the miracle at about the same time we started to work on a new book entitled MIRACLES AND PROPHECIES OF THE VIRGIN MARY. This book, by Arthur Crockett, details several dozen appearances of the Mother of Jesus in recent years and the dire prophecies She has repeatedly given in order to save as many people as possible should there be a global disaster. Apparently Joyce Davis was really emotionally touched by her visit to the church and as PROOF that this statue is no ordinary statue, Joyce came away with a fantastic photograph showing a fiery object which was not present when she took the picture. What she captured with the camera's eye is reproduced on the cover (unfortunately in black and white), but let us allow Joyce to tell her own story:

"On the date of December 19, 1982, I walked through the doors of the little Catholic Mission Church of Mater Ecclesiae with heavy heart and troubled countenance.

"I came not seeking signs and proof of what

I had heard, but with a prayer, and an urgent hope and desire that I might obtain Divine Intercession in matters that had become very difficult to cope with and burden which had become almost too heavy to bear.

"Being not of the Catholic persuasion, but having respect for all spiritual beliefs that are held sacred in the hearts of devotees the world around, I sought solace in the quiet Sanctuary where pilgrims of all faiths have come of late. I came, because I believe.

"While pondering the wonder of this place, I remembered the words of Jesus: 'Blessed are those who have not seen, and yet believe,' and hope replaced despair; peace replaced anxiety, and I stood there amidst the faithful who comprised a congregation which exhibited various religions, races, languages and economic backgrounds, a fair sampling of the inhabitants of this planetary globe.

"Understanding of Catholic ritual was not my strongest asset as I sat when I should have been standing, knelt when I should have been seated, and fumbled through the little booklet that had been handed me, unable to determine which page and which paragraph was being cited.

"Music, however, is a universal language, and when the strains of familiar Christmas carols rang forth all present seemed to share a common understanding and seemed to be united in a common bond of Brotherhood.

"Beloved Lady; how I long for the day when this kind of unity will be the prevailing factor upon this planet, replacing the divisions which now persist among the Children of earth. How I long to hear the earth resounding with songs of praise, instead of the constant tumult that presently exists.

"With reverence and humbleness of heart I approached the area in the corner of the little Mission Church where the statue representing the Divine Presence stands, surrounded by floral offerings of the faithful.

"Lovingly did I light a candle, with the hope that the flame which I offered would unite with the many thousands being lit and offered the world around, representing hearts aflame with praise and thanksgiving that we are allowed the privilege of assembling together for the purpose of showing our gratitude for the gift of life, and the opportunity presented to each of us through this Divine gift.

"I listened as the Rosary was recited, appreciating the sacred ritual, but having had very little experience concerning it, other than being familiar with 'Hail Mary.'

"Determined to capture this beautiful experience, lest it be lost in the demands, pressures and chaos that has monopolized my life for the past number of years, I approached the replica statue of the Virgin Mary and preserved that memorable occasion on film.

"After offering my own personal petition and prayer of thanksgiving I, very reluctantly, walked out of the little Mission Church, but with a heart much lighter than when I had entered a short time earlier.

"Upon receiving the processed film, I discovered a very brilliant globe of white light, surrounded by a fiery aura in the upper left side of one of the pictures. Nobody seems to be able to explain to me exactly what this manifestation is."

Though Joyce Davis remains puzzled, there is a possible explanation in that other, similar, manifestations have taken place on a global basis. In the new book MIRACLES AND PROPHECIES OF THE VIRGIN MARY, it is revealed that Mary has repeatedly told about in her visions a devastating wall have taken heed of Her urgent warnings, regardless of the taunts and ridicule of those who are presently at risk of being taken by surprise when that inevitable 'Three Days of Darkness' arrives due to their own disregard for useful instruction and the breaking of laws which demand justifiable restitution."

THE SORROWFUL VIRGIN OF AIBONITO

Nothing like this has ever happened in the 160 years since the town, which is at the highest point in Puerto Rico, was founded. According to witnesses, the image of the Virgin Mary has been seen to cry in the local parish, and even the priest who has been taught to be hardnosed and skeptical in such matters, admits that the entire episode has him puzzled.

The Virgin was seen for the first time to weep on May 31, 1983 during a mass at which of fire which will sweep down over the earth destroying the chaos that mankind has created out of God's beautiful creation. Known as the "Ball of Redemption," Mary has warned over and over again that God in Heaven is fed up with the conditions down here on earth and will cleanse the planet in the very near future.

In these amazing photos the statue's face is seen to change position. This is an intriguing matter which remains a mystery.

In fact, Joyce Davis says that she has now had a chance to meditate on what the manifestation in her picture indicates, "And the answer I have received is: 'For the judgment I AM come.' A statement which I feel is self explanatory, and which helps me to remain firm in my conviction that judgement will indeed come upon those who take so lightly the warnings that are being sounded to the uttermost parts of the earth and which are still falling upon deaf ears."

Concludes our subscriber: "I pray that the reason for the Virgin's weeping will soon be over. for there ARE those upon this earth who another, similar, statue was being crowned. The first person to notice the tears was a child who ran and told her mother what she had seen, even though she was not old enough to understand the significance of the event.

Daisy Santiago de Rivera, mother of the child who first witnessed the miracle, tells how the miracle unfolded: "We went to the mass and stayed in the back. Jessica and her older sister and some other little girls went to place some flowers beside the image of the Virgin which was being crowned.

"Then little Jessica asked if she could take some flowers to a second statue of the Virgin Mary and place some flowers around Her. I said she should do this because the second statue looked so sad that She was being left out of the proceedings. My daughter took the flowers, which were white lillies, and placed them by the statue. My sister was there praying. Suddenly, she noticed that there seemed to be tears on the face of the statue. Without saying anything to me, she walked to the front of the altar and waited for the mass to be over. Then on impulse, I went over to the Sorrowful Virgin and I also noticed the tears. I was not able to pray. I thought I must be going mad."

Daisy saw the tear fall down as far as the lips. Her sister, who is a school teacher, saw the tear fall even further. Daisy's husband, Pucho Rivera, a band director says, "Everyone who was there saw it. It was a miracle meant for us all!"

By the end of the service word had spread of the miracle and everyone clustered around the statue of the Madonna to catch a glimpse of the tears. Though there was a lot of emotion, tears and prayers, there was no hysteria. It seemed that most everyone was wondering what message the Sorrowful Virgin was trying to convey.

Teofilo Morales, a devout youth who was assisting at the church of San Jose that day, explained that many of the faithful went up to the statue and examined the face very closely.

"Many people said that they saw the Virgin crying. I and some other young people climbed over the partition to get a closer look and be certain. I can testify that the face was kind of shiny."

Margarita Gonzalez de Bonilla, president of the restoration committee and resident of the house next to the church also noticed an unusual phenomenon on that day. "I heard the commotion of the people leaving the church. Everyone was scared because they said the statue of the Virgin was crying. I tend to be a bit skeptical so I stayed here in my house. Early the next morning, I went to the church. I began to pray when I noticed, not that She was crying, but that one of the Virgin's eyelids was a little low. I went over to some friends, who were just entering the church, so that they could confirm what I saw. Everyone said it was true. Later, when I went back, I noticed that the eyes were a little more elevated."

The residents of Aibonito don't know what this all means, but they are certain that the Virgin Mary does not cry for no reason at all. They are looking deeply within themselves for answers, as are others who have witnessed the appearance and been effected by the miracles of the Heavenly Mother.

MOTHER MARY'S PROPHECY ABOUT AMERICA

Since November, 1949, Mrs. Mary Ann Van Hoff of Necedah, Wisconsin has undergone a series of repeated contacts with the Virgin Mary who has given a series of prophecies about the future of America and has performed many miracles for those who have come from a great distance away. Mrs. Van Hoff has, herself, experienced the miracle of stigmata and has gone into the state of rapture on numerous occasions upon hearing the voice of the Blessed Mother. Mary has spoken time after time and the evidence that this is not a hallucination can be seen all around the house where Marry Ann lives. There is the mystery of the bending trees and the statue of the Virgin Mary which actually lifted its head and was photographed by members of the woman's family. Rosaries have changed color in peoples hands and the critically sick have been cured after they have been touched by Rosaries used in prayer sessions at the site of a shrine that has now been built in honor of the Virgin at the spot where She usually appears.

Back on October 17, 1950 - just as the Virgin Mother had promised - a miracle of miracles took place in Wisconsin. Over 100,000 of the faithful gathered from all over America and witnessed the sun come spinning down toward the earth just like it had done in Fatima in 1917.

Mary Ann Van Hoff also claims she has been visited by St. Joseph, St. Theresa, St. Francis, St. Joan of Arc, and Tsar Alexander Romanov III of Russia.

During one of Her appearances, Mary warned about the "Quiet Bomb," which when it falls upon the earth, "whatever it touches will die." This prophecy sounds very similar to the Ball of Redemption, Mary has spoken about to others.

Every week there seems to be a new miracle associated with the appearance of the Virgin Mary. She has materialized in recent years in many nations including Cuba and the Soviet Union. Her appearance means something critical is about to happen.

Virgin Mary 'sightings' near Bethlehem

TEL AVIV, Israel — Hundreds of Palestinians have reported seeing the Virgin Mary near Bethlehem this week, and a man who was there said today he was "absolutely amazed" by the vision. Michael Bahbah, the administrative director of the Arabic-language Al-Fajr newspaper, told the Associated Press that he saw a vision "one foot tall, with the shape of robe the Virgin Mary usually wears." At least 300 people arrived at the church and others had called the newspaper to say the vision was continuing and had been joined by a vision of Joseph.

Arabs report a vision of Virgin Mary

TEL AVIV, Israel — Hundreds of Palestinian Arabs have reported seeing a vision of the Virgin Mary this week on a wall in a village near the Israeli-occupied West bank town of Bethlehem, which is believed to be the birthplace of Jesus. One villager in Beit Sahour told the Associated Press in a telephone interview that the vision he had seen Tuesday on a wall near the village marketplace was difficult to describe. He said the vision has been seen by many people in the last three days.

CAN YOU FIND THE FACE OF JESUS IN THIS PICTURE?

MODERN MIRACLES ARE TAKING PLACE ALL OVER THE WORLD—THE SON OF GOD IS RETURNING IN YOUR LIFETIME!

The above photo may seem at first like an ink-blot test, but if you study it carefully you will be able to see quite clearly the face of Jesus, his long hair, beard and white robe. This amazing photo was taken during the icy cold winter just before the outbreak of the Korean War by a missionary who was being forced to flee the country as his life was in grave danger. As he was about to close his mission, he received a mental impression to take a picture of a nearby snowbank. When he returned to the U.S. and developed his film this is what came out.

Miracles and signs are happening all around us. GOD IS NOT DEAD! He is very much alive and promises once again to send his son to earth. His power and glory is always present!

Order your copy of a special report called THE VISITATION and learn of the recent wonders that have been revealed for the benefit of all of us. Learn of the Blessed Mother's materialization in Puerto Rico where she was seen in a Fatima-like vision by hundreds.

PROPHECIES OF THE POPES

"Thou art Peter and on this rock will I build my church, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven."

Christ gave this command to Peter and it was recorded by St. Matthew in Chapter 16, Verse 18 of his gospel. It marks the birth of the papacy and the inception of the prince of the Apostles as the first pope.

Today, millions of Catholics the world over view the Pope as the spiritual link between Jesus and ourselves. Other Christians generally think of the Pope as a wise and holy man who has his feet planted firmly on the ground, one who is aware of all things worldly and all things beyond the pale.

However, when it comes to the most mystical powers and supernatural experiences of the Popes, the church has remained overly secretive. Perhaps fearing this information would be used unwisely by the initiated. For historical reference shows that many Popes possessed powers that were awesome, or were involved in paranormal events so devastating that scribes were told to record them for the upper echelon of cardinals and bishops, but at the same time to go to their grave without breathing a word of what they knew to another living soul. Many of the manuscripts containing such information have either been burned or have been kept under heavy lock and key to prevent their release.

Now, thanks to the tireless efforts of religious historian Arthur Crockett, ancient texts as well as the sacred writings of the priests and saints have been dusted off and are presented in a thoroughly modern manner, with the intention of enforcing currently accepted beliefs, but going beyond even what one has already been taught through regular channels.

In this startling new book you will read the following stories as well as many other astonishing—but all incredibly true—accounts not written in ordinary religious works:

MYSTERY SURROUNDING THE DEATH OF THE FIRST POPE

St. Peter—the first pope—was said to have been crucified upside down. For centuries his exact burial place was unknown until a sixteenth century excavation of Rome uncovered an underground chamber, and removing some bricks, a worker uncovered a grizzly site—a decomposed skeleton. Pope Clement VIII was summoned; with members of his papal court, he hurried to the dark cavity carrying a flaming torch. Clement VIII peered into the void and pulled back momentarily, a look of utter shock on his face. Initially, he was too stunned to speak. Later, he reported that he had had a dramatic vision inside the crypt which ties in with a prophetic warning and a subsequent death. The chamber—thought to be that of St. Peter—was sealed up at once and was only exhumed centuries later by another Pope (again under a veil of mystery and foreboding).

A POPE'S VISION OF JESUS

Though it is not generally acknowledged, one pope on his death bed had visions of Christ and the Virgin Mary, and later experienced another phenomenon often associated with the apparitions at Fatima—the falling of the sun toward the earth. This pope survived his crisis and eventually became a great healer, going as far as to enable a blind boy to see.

THE POPE WHO WAS AN ALCHEMIST AND THE SAINT WHO CREATED A MAN FROM METAL

Alchemy, the ability to turn base metals into gold, was the "chemistry" of the Middle Ages. One pope was known to possess this ability which many good churchgoers associated with the devil. He denied he had this ability, but when he died no one could explain his vast personal treasure including 18 million florins in gold, and 7 million in jewels. In his notes found after his death, he told how he accomplished this feat of magic.

WHICH POPE . . .

TURNED WORTHLESS METAL INTO GOLD?
SPOKE WITH JESUS? COULD READ MINDS?
ENVISIONED THE END OF THE WORLD?

This pope also canonized a saint who built the first robot—a man made of metal whom he later broke into pieces, "because the image would not cease talking to me."

THE POPE PREDICTED WORLD WAR I

Over fifty years before the outbreak of the first World War, a pope wrote a letter to the Bishop of Vigevano in which he predicted a terrible outbreak of world tensions and bloodshed, like nothing that had ever engulfed the globe previously. This same pope also possessed the uncanny ability to foresee who was about to die and to heal the ailing.

REVEALED: PROPHECY OF THE POPES

Among the most startling prophecies to be found outside of the Bible were those made by St. Malachi in the 12th century. They concern each unborn pope starting with Celestine II and coming to a halt with the 111th pope (who remains unknown as yet) and the "end of the world." This chapter reveals the untold story behind St. Malachi's prophecies and the forebodings his yet unfulfilled predictions hold for our

AN ASHTAR COMMAND BOOK

Spiritual Masters From Higher Realms Reveal The True Nature Of God & The Cosmos

SPACE GODS SPEAK

TRANSMISSIONS FROM THE SOLAR COUNCIL

Right now the vortex is space, mankind's fate is being deliberated by highly evolved beings who have watched over our Earth since the time antiquity when our world was but a gas-like ball. Totally unique, every word in "THE SPACE GODS SPEAK" has been transmitted from a high, spiritual source. Referred to often as Ascended Masters or the Spiritual Hierarchy, these ethereal beings have reached a state of pure bliss only experienced by the holiest of saints or avatars of our backward world. Far more advanced than even the "Space Brothers," these titles represent a cosmic council of majestic souls—the God or overseers of our solar system.

According to many of our modern-day UFO contactee and space channels, these beings, or "Gods," hold regular council meetings on one of the planets in this solar system where there, directives are handed down to members of the Ashtar Command for immediate action. Unlike the occupants of UFOs, these "superbeings" are composed of pure light and energy. Furthermore, they need not fly about in spaceships, as they are able to journey freely throughout the cosmos utilizing the forces in their ethereal forms.

"Each planet has a God who has created that planet," one transmission states. "You people of Earth have a wonderful God who created the planet. He loves all his creations just as we all do. It has been said, God is love, and that is true of all Gods. All the planets near Earth have Gods of love and the inhabitants of these planets in turn their Gods with all their hearts, minds and strength. It would be impossible for the people of these planets to deliberately injure any other being. They all live lives of love and joy, for true love is joy."

We are also told that there is an attempt to hold back the Earth's development into "cosmic realms," but that truth will soon win out, because truth is too great to be resisted. "More persons on your planet," it has been channeled, "will be seeing our space craft, because as your old human saying goes, 'Seeing is believing!'"

ASTOUNDING REVELATIONS

For the first time you will read about what the "Gods" have to say in relation to the following topics:

- Fall Angels & The Dark Forces
- International Bankers & Sons of Jared

CARRY A BEAUTIFUL SYMBOL OF THE NEW AGE SPREAD THE WORD— JOIN THE LEGIONS OF LIGHT

Ashtar and the Space Brothers have repeatedly said that it is time we New Agers show our behalf in the existence of more advanced life in space. As a special momento we are offering for a limited time only a beautiful medallion depicting the symbol of the NEW WORLD ORDER—a rainbow with a flying saucer hovering above it. This medallion can be worn, carried in your pocket, or used as a keychain. Other "believers" will be able to spot you at a distance and the Space Brothers may even be able to pick up telepathically the fact that you have this in your possession. This medallion is not available anywhere else and is offered as a keepsake to true believers. If you have not received your medallion with our previous book THE NEW WORLD ORDER, there is still time for you to order while the supply lasts.

According to these transmissions, "The Earth is the only planet in this solar system, which is not peaceful and happy..." Yet, the Earth is never without great teachers who have preached and prophesied urging their followers to love God as well as one another. Unfortunately, few have heeded these words of wisdom and our planet has suffered.

FREE
CHRISTIAN TALISMAN ENABLES YOU TO:

CALL UPON YOUR GUARDIAN ANGEL FOR GUIDANCE AND PROTECTION

Psalms 90:11-13 states: "The Lord hath given his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways."

Evangelist Billy Graham tells us: "When Christians die, an angel will be there to comfort us, to give us peace and joy even at that most critical hour, and to usher us into the presence of God, where we shall dwell with the Lord forever..."

Jesus himself revealed the wonderful truth that the faithful each have a guardian angel to attend to them throughout their life: "Behold! I will send my angel, who shall go forth before thee, and keep thee in thy journey, and bring thee into the place that I have prepared."

Now for the FIRST TIME, you can learn all there is to know about God's special helpers—why angels were created; what their purpose in the Lord's scheme of things really is; and most important of all, how you can call upon them directly for guidance and protection, in order to make your own life more peaceful and fruitful.

Here's a sample of what you can expect to read in an amazing new book just released titled ANGELS OF THE LORD:

ANGELS WALK AMONGST US!

It may come as a shock to many, but according to evidence, we are often confronted by angels, but do not know it. Yes, angels are visible quite often, only they don't always appear to us as spiritual beings with wings, but rather as men, and even as strangers. They come when they are most needed. You may even pass an angel on the street who is bent on doing some good for someone that can't be accomplished in his invisible state.

NINE SPECIFIC WAYS OUR PERSONAL ANGEL PROTECTS US

Biblical scholars insist that angels do more than follow us about. It is said that they have a special mission that they must carry out. Among other things they must protect our spirituality; defend us from the seduction of Satan; shield us from sudden dangers; help in the saving of our soul; pray for and with us; assist us in praising God and help when it is time for us to "cross over." Each of the nine ways is described in detail so you will know what to expect from your personal angel and what you must do in return.

HIERARCHY OF ANGELS

Generally, it is not known that there is an actual organization of angels. The divisions include: Archangels, Seraphim, Cherubim, Principalities, Authorities, Powers, Thrones, Might and Dominion. Find out how these various angels are ranked and what their individual duties consist of.

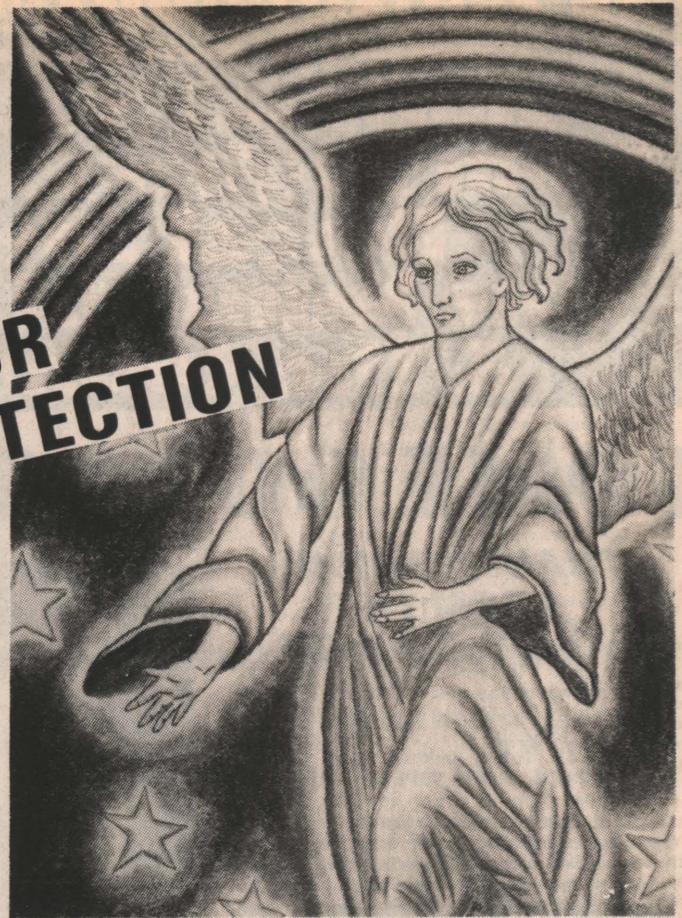

DOCUMENTED CASES OF PEOPLE HELPED BY THEIR GUARDIAN ANGEL

Many startling, modern day case histories are written about. For example: • The New York woman whose guardian angel led her to a job when she was totally destitute. • The "Angel of Mercy" who prevented the killing of Chinese citizens by the Japanese during World War II. • The battalion of angels who fought it out with the enemy in the skies over Europe as testified to by Lord Hugh Dowding. • The band of angels that prevented dozens of GI's from freezing in Korea.

ROLE OF ANGELS IN HISTORY

• George Washington had a vision in which an angel appeared to him and foretold the future history of the United States. • The famous flying ace, Charles Lindberg, claimed that his guardian angel was with him in the cockpit of the Spirit of St. Louis as he crossed the Atlantic. • Saintry Padre Pio, the stigmatic priest, frequently carried on conversations with not only his guardian angel, but the guardian angels of others. • St. Benedict claims that angels actually joined the holy monks in song. • St. Nicholas was permitted to hear his guardian angel and other angels for the last six months of his life. • St. Frances often read at night by the light given off by the glowing hair of her guardian angel. • There is even evidence that the writing of the Constitution was done with the help of an angel.

UFOs OR ANGELS?

Some experts now believe that the strange objects observed in the sky may actually be angels and not extraterrestrial craft. The fact that UFOs do not show up on radar screens is significant, since angels are not usually of flesh and blood, and therefore would not register on even our most advanced technical equipment. Scriptures tend to verify this theory.

LANGUAGE OF ANGELS AND HOW THEY TRAVEL

We are told that angels have a language all their own which we may possibly learn to speak. Also, angels can travel thousands of miles in the twinkling of an eye utilizing a method which science has only begun to dream of.

WAR WITH SATAN

Not all angels are good. The Bible tells us that Satan was once an angel and that he was thrown out of heaven. One third of all angels could be demons and we are warned that the devil is out to take over the world and capture our very souls. Learn of the tools which Satan uses to trick us, and how we can prevent being possessed. Discover why baptism is important in this age of war, and what it means to follow the "Great White Light."

DID YOU KNOW THAT JESUS CAME TO AMERICA TO PREACH TO THE INDIANS? THAT HE PRACTICED TALKING TO THE DEAD? THAT HE ONCE SUFFERED A MAN TO LIVE FOREVER

REVEALED: STRANGE & UNKNOWN FACTS ABOUT THE LIFE OF JESUS

Religious scholars and good Christians the world over agree that the Holy Bible is the most important book ever written. Its contents are of tremendous value to every man, woman and child alive today, while the code of morality and ethics it preaches has been the foundation by which all God fearing persons have patterned their lives for the last two thousand years.

Yet, in recent times, it has also become evident with the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls and other ancient writings, that, though the Bible was truly inspired by the hand of God, it is by no means complete.

Recently, noted inspirational writer Arthur Crockett began sifting through obscure volumes and what he managed to uncover represents a monumental breakthrough in modern theology. His just recently released book, STRANGE AND UNKNOWN FACTS ABOUT THE LIFE OF JESUS, fills in gaps in Christ's life not covered by the New Testament, and proves conclusively that Jesus was a total enigma unto Himself, little understood by his contemporaries and even less understood by modern society, which has often twisted His teachings or eliminated those which would prove him to have been an even greater soul.

SACRED TRUTHS DISCOVERED

In fact, various sacred artifacts exist to this very day which prove Jesus was the Saviour. In many ways they are as great as the Shroud of Turin, but they are almost completely unknown to most practicing Christians as they have never been publicized.

There is, as described in this wonderful book:

- THE SEAMLESS HOLY COAT. This was made from the garment worn by Jesus at the time of His crucifixion. Lots were cast among the Roman soldiers for the garment, but it did not stay long with the man who had won it, but ended up in the possession of a non-believer. The legend of the journey of the Seamless Holy Coat is fascinating reading.

- THE IRON CROWN OF LOMBARDY. Also known as "The Crown of the Crucifixion Nails," it was first mentioned in history in 591 A.D., but survived until recently and was said to have great supernatural powers. The authentic crown of nails worn by Jesus on the cross, it has disappeared and is believed to have been stolen.

- THE HOLY GRAIL. Many think they know the story of this great religious artifact, but there is much more to the origin and eventual destiny of the "Cup of the Blood of Christ," which resided with Mary until the day of the Last Supper and is believed to have turned up with the mythical King Arthur in England several centuries later. Now the complete story unfolds!

- THE HOLY TUNIC. Each year a remarkable religious ceremony is carried out in Argenteuil, France when in this little village a casket containing the inner robe, or tunic, worn by Our Lord at the time of His death, is carried in a procession up and down the main aisles of the church, learn the mystery surrounding the tunic and why the casket containing the garment is now sealed and can only be opened by the Pope.

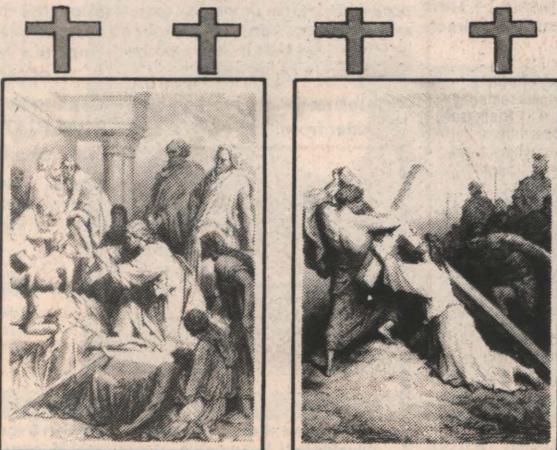

BIZARRE LEGENDS & PECULIAR MIRACLES

In many ways, Jesus was a very mysterious person, and apparently, He wanted it this way. For example:

- The Bible does not tell us much about his physical appearance. The best existing description was thought destroyed in one of the early Mohammedan book-fires, yet such a detailed description has been found, and is published here for the first time.

- It is normally assumed who claimed the body of Christ and the supernatural occurrences which transpired

- Also, it is not generally realized that Jesus may have actually returned to earth several times since His ascent into Heaven. His most recent "visit" having taken place in the last century to the American Indians who reported a mysterious "white man" with a beard who wandered among the tribes preaching enlightenment and healing the sick.

STRANGE SECRETS

There are also many "secrets" that have prevailed over the years which are not common knowledge regarding events in Christ's life.

- There is the incident involving the doorkeeper at the court of Pontius Pilate who spit at Jesus and yelled "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" Jesus looked at His tormentor and said, "I am going; but tarry thou until I come again!" The doorkeeper still wanders the earth after all these years seeking rest which he has not been allowed for nearly two thousand years.

- It is generally not realized that Jesus communicated with spirits and He had mediumistic gifts that were of the highest and purest.

that Christ left behind no written works, but again this is a wrong assumption, as correspondence penned by Jesus has been discovered stenciled on golden plates. Now you can read his actual message to the world.

In addition, many "sacred truths" are revealed for the first time, such as:

- The strange link between Jesus and Adam that is kept hush-hush.
- His exact words spoken upon being nailed to the cross.
- The fallacy that exists regarding the last supper.
- The "Secret Disciple"

WILL YOU BE ALIVE BY THE END OF 1984?

THE "SPACE BROTHERS" WANT YOU TO ESCAPE THE COMING HOLOCAUST THAT THREATENS TO DESTROY OUR WORLD...

THE GREAT CONJUNCTION
The Alignment of the Planets

PSYCHICS PREDICT

Psychics from the late Edgar Cayce to the modern seer, Jeane Dixon all agree that our planet is slated for 'troubled times' in the next few years. With their 'gifts of prophecy,' these sensitives have been able to peer into the future and know that a rocky road lies ahead, and that a great physical holocaust will leave terrible scars over the entire face of the earth. Land shifts will occur, whole continents will rise, while others will sink under the force of gigantic tidal waves.

CHANGE YOUR LIFE

We guarantee that this book will have a positive effect on your life. The messages contained within its pages is an inspiring one. It is not for everyone, but it is definitely for YOU, the New Age thinker, UFO skywatcher and those who are psychically 'tuned in.' It's written in plain English (there are no secret codes to uncrack), and approaches the subject of UFOs and the philosophy of our Space Brothers on a level all can understand as well as apply to our everyday lives.

FRIENDLY SPACE PEOPLE CAN GET US TO SAFETY...

SCIENCE AGREES

Seismographs on both the East and West Coasts have registered an unusually high number of earth tremors in the last few months. We are not far from total ruin. Time is running out. The cosmic clock is ticking away and we are approaching the midnight hour. Never before in history has such a large number of earthquakes been recorded around the globe. It's obvious that a widespread disaster that could spell THE E-N-D for millions is going to happen within our lifetime.

OFFER OF HELP

Since they are truly our 'Space Brothers,' and recognize the fact that we are the creator's children, (just like themselves), they want to offer aid and assistance in any way possible. The UFO-nauts say that if we will only listen and take their advice that many of us can survive and go on to live in a glorious Golden Age, an age that has not existed on Earth since the days of Atlantis.

NO PLACE TO HIDE

Absolutely no area will be safe! There will be no place to hide! We are powerless to avoid this worldwide catastrophe! Water will cover a good portion of the earth. Wild life will die by the score. Our rich farm lands will turn to lakes. Mighty weather storms will unleash havoc with what is left of civilization. Man will turn to battling his brother in order to survive.

HEALTH & ABUNDANCE

There will be no wars. Diseases such as cancer and heart trouble will be conquered, and there will be an abundance of natural resources. Those who are alive today can make it through the next few years and literally live forever in a society that is totally free of the problems that currently plague mankind.

A WAY OUT

But a select few of us will continue on the race of homo sapiens. These individuals will be those who place their trust in a higher power. Those who survive will do so only because they heed these dire warnings and listen to an intelligence from afar.

SPACE PEOPLE'S PLAN

According to Tim Beckley who has written an encouraging new book,

PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS, your part in the Space Peoples' plan is very important. We must all work toward one goal—making the reality of UFOs as widely known as possible. Everyone reading these words are—the aliens realize—open minded enough to heed these dire warnings and work to change the course of history.

"UFO REVIEW"

UFO REVIEW is the world's only flying saucer newspaper. Each issue is full of authentic photos, face-to-face contacts and explosive evidence of a government "cover-up." When you order PSYCHIC REVELATIONS we will send you a trial subscription free.

SPACE PEOPLE PREDICT

The occupants of these technically advanced vehicles have made contact with many influential people in our own space program, claims a former astronaut. They are not here to play games. They are here to help us in this difficult crisis. Because they have developed their psychic abilities and because they are able to travel into the future, they know DOOMSDAY is just around the next bend.

FREE — FREE — FREE

If you order this book we will include at no extra charge as a bonus A GUIDELINE ON HOW TO CONTACT THE SPACE PEOPLE in your own home. Documentation shows that this guideline has worked for many, and it can work for you.

MAJOR EVENTS OF THE FUTURE REVEALED!

NEW REVELATIONS OF NOSTRADAMUS

THE SECOND COMING · THE ANTI-CHRIST · UFOS & ARMAGEDDON

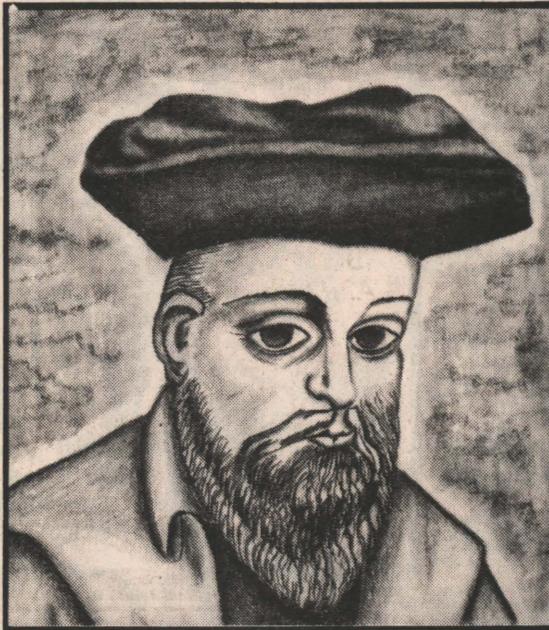

AN EXCLUSIVE HISTORICAL FIRST! HIS UNPUBLISHED PROPHECIES

Nostradamus is credited with being the greatest prophet of modern, non-Biblical, times. His uncanny, in-depth, forecasts are considered to be highly accurate. Nostradamus, in the 16th century, predicted both World Wars, aerial battles, submarine attacks, Hitler's aggressions, and escape, as well as the assassination of both Kennedys.

The seer warned the world of the coming of the atomic bomb. He wrote of space flights, and about the rise and fall of Russia. In one of his most amazing predictions he revealed how Iran would be taken over by a religious fanatic writing the following in rhymed quatrains: "Revolution, famine, war will not stop Persia (now Iran). Religious fanaticism will betray the monarch (the Shah). Of which the end will begin in Gaul (France)." Everybody knows that the Ayatollah Khomeini started his revolution while exiled in France.

For the future, Nostradamus predicts that there will be war in the Middle East in the next five years, during which the big powers will intervene. He even talks of the coming of the anti-Christ and how the U.S. and Russia will combine forces, if only for a brief period. He also speaks of a "religious war" and the Vatican's having to move the tomb of St. Peter to a safe place.

But, perhaps most astonishing of all, is the fact that Nostradamus saw his own death in time to help with the funeral arrangements!

WAS HE A WIZARD? A SERVANT OF GOD? A SUPER PSYCHIC? A DEVIL WORSHIPPER? OR A BEING FROM ANOTHER PLANET

THE MOST MYSTERIOUS MAN WHO EVER LIVED

Legend has it that celestial activity was extremely powerful for several nights before the birth of Nostradamus. Reports of bright, round objects in the sky over St. Remy de Provence are recorded in the archives at Salon.

Nostradamus' birth itself was rather remarkable because Blanche Nostradame (the family's real name), presented her husband with a perfect baby. In the 16th Century, perfect babies were almost unheard of. The mortality rate was very high.

He had an incredible intellect. He was very young when he mastered several languages and advanced math. He became a licensed physician at 23. He walked among plague victims for months without catching the dread disease. With a strange mixture of herbs and ingredients unknown to the world, he was able to cure many of the afflicted, thus becoming known throughout Europe as a miracle healer.

In his day, Nostradamus made friends with kings and queens who were impressed by his ability to see into the future. Royalty came far and wide to be in his presence, so anxious were they to know what the stars had in store for them. Many were disappointed as Nostradamus knew well in advance about beheadings, revolutions, and the unfaithfulness that abounded among society's most prominent figures.

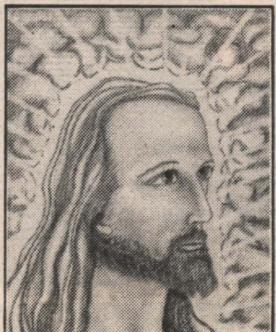

THE SECOND COMING & THE ANTICHRIST

Though Nostradamus considered himself an expert astrologer, he studied the stars in a totally unique way. He used a special device when soiling. The device was basically a magic wand which he used in conjunction with a tripod of flame and bowl of water. Nostradamus also considered himself a very religious person, and while he was born a Jew, he later converted to the Catholic faith, utilizing mystical elements from both practices in his work. Many of his predictions dealt with the Second Coming and the appearance of the antichrist.

There are some who maintain that Nostradamus was a direct messenger of God, and that his predictions were divinely inspired. To give credence to this claim, the French seer was once introduced to a young Franciscan friar, a poor village lad, and upon meeting the youth dropped to his knees. Asked why he had done so, Nostradamus declared: "Because, I must bow and kneel before his Holiness." Years later, this youth became the Pope, under the title of Sixtus the Fifth.

Others believe that Nostradamus was a time traveler from the future, or perhaps a being from another planet. All these theories are explored in detail.

NOSTRADAMUS' UNPUBLISHED QUATRAINS

A curious manuscript has been making the rounds of Europe where books on Nostradamus have been frequent best sellers in recent months. Up till now none of this material has been released in the U.S.

Shortly before his death, Nostradamus apparently penned a series of prophecies so startling that he never had them included in any of his published works. Supposedly because he was afraid of the effect they might have. These predictions were circulated only to royalty and were thought destroyed for many years until they were uncovered, hidden in the basement of the house where Nostradamus died.

The title page of this newly discovered manuscript reads: "Century XII, Number 63." The seer's last supposedly quatrain, published, was "Century XII, Number 62." The assumption is that Nostradamus wrote more than twelve centuries, but had not wanted these predictions to be widely read. As far as can best be determined, there are a total of 21 or more pages to his original prophecies that have only now been translated and interpreted.

These are just a few of the provocative subjects dealt with in this new material:

- The reappearance of Jesus to the world.
- Mysterious wonders in the sky turn out to be a friendly invasion of alien beings from other worlds in space.
- Rare knowledge which will lead to the elimination of disease and sickness.
- New inventions far superior to anything currently in use on this planet.
- A terrible war in space.
- The time when night becomes day.
- The destruction of the Catholic church and the last Pope.
- The great earthquake which will kill many.
- Riots in the streets of many great cities.
- Gold missing from Fort Knox.

Indeed, no prophet has ever lived who knew more about the future than did Nostradamus. With the world's current state of affairs, mountains, international tensions, and the realization that these are the "Last Days" the Bible speaks of, you cannot afford to miss reading NOSTRADAMUS' UNTOLD STORY: HIS UNPUBLISHED PREDICTIONS (not sold in bookstores, order using coupon below).

BLACK PROPHECIES

DARE YOU READ NOSTRADAMUS' "BLACK PROPHECIES"—SO DEVASTATING THEY WERE SUPPOSED TO BE SEALED FOR ALL TIME?

Because of the traumatic nature of certain of his predictions we are sealing them inside a special envelope which will be included with your copy of this amazing book. If you feel you cannot take these startling revelations we suggest that you put this envelope aside UNOPENED. These so-called "Black Prophecies" deal with the actual date that the world will come to an end, and the events leading up to this physical transformation of the earth.

THIS MAN WILL SHOW YOU HOW TO TURN YOUR DREAMS INTO REALITY

As we head into the 21st Century, it will become common to see humans demonstrate what we now believe to be supernatural powers such as extended sight (the ability to see lower into the spectrum into the infra-red, or higher into the ultra-violet range), or extended hearing (the ability to ascertain voices and sounds that one perceives from within, but little understood). Others will develop what has been termed "clairvoyance," which is the ability to feel something at a distance without touching it due to an electro-chemical change going on in the brain.

As these techniques become more common we will see an abrupt change in society. The human species will suddenly take a giant leap in its ability to control all things created around it. In effect, a utopia will exist on earth. Pain and suffering will be eliminated. By utilizing the 90% of the mind which now lays dormant, mankind will be in total control of its environment.

GOOD NEWS!!! You don't have to wait. Researcher Bill Cox has traveled the world learning secrets that have long been known by only a mighty few. His investigations has taken him to South America where he has penetrated the deepest jungles and deciphered the technology of civilizations which vanished centuries ago. In Egypt he has explored the hidden chambers of the high priests whose knowledge of universal laws was supreme.

Bill's relentless search for the truth has drawn him to some definite conclusions: the most far reaching being that our world is literally criss crossed by other dimensions, invisible realms and unseen kingdoms, each one interacting upon all others. Though our eyes may not see them, there are trillions of life forces around us at all times vibrating to high frequencies which put them beyond our spectrum of visibility. Bill Cox says that once we have educated ourselves to understand these things that the cosmos takes on new meaning and we realize that all of creation is UNDER OUR COMMAND.

creations, it is necessary to realize that God also created a host of other kingdoms. Right now—ALL AROUND US—there are uncountable tiny creatures which exist in what is called the "ether." They are just waiting for the instant in which they are called upon to do the work they perform so well. They do not look upon their task as a chore. In fact, they experience great ecstasy when they do what they are meant to do. Whether it is help in obtaining you money, fame, love or anything else your heart desires, they do what you want—as long as you know how to talk to them—without complaint or resistance. It is their nature to obey like we find in a colony of bees or ants. Besides, they would reject ecclesiastical swilling their call should they rebel. There is a hierarchy, an angelic government that exists above these life forms and it too can be put to our best advantage just as the Lord intended.

MIND POWER TO CREATE AND TO HEAL

Using mind energy it is possible to move or alter an object at a distance. There is even a practical experiment that everyone can do regardless of training and you will find this fully explained on page 9.

One person who has adapted the principles in this book has been seen by the author to turn ordinary table butter into money. Likewise, there are those now living on our planet who can cure the ailments of others simply by saying a few words, and thinking in the prescribed manner.

The universe, says Bill Cox, can be broken down into several planes, among which there is an order of invisible realms. Turn to page 11, and immediately you will find out the jobs performed by such invisible beings as Devas, Undines, Sylphs and Salamanders, and how these forces can be put to producing whatever we need to make our life more comfortable on the physical plane. After all why should we go without when God did not intend it that way? In this book you will find out how to create an archetypal form and thus bring into physical manifestation anything you desire no matter how impossible your dream seemed before.

THE ANCIENTS KNEW ABOUT IT

A long way from being uneducated, many ancient cultures existed that were far superior to ours when it came to knowledge of the universe. Time travel, bi-location and energy accumulation were common feats to the masters of the past. For example, they realized that the pyramid shape was of great significance. That is why pyramids can be found not only in Egypt, but in China, Africa, Mexico, Central America and even off the coast of the United States.

The ancients knew about healing the body and developing the mind. They were familiar with space travel, having established communication with advanced beings from the stars who assisted in their achievements. They knew how to read the aura, and how to project holographic structures in the sky. They were actually able to create "thoughtographs," and upper most they knew how to live in harmony with everything in nature.

Now you too can experience an incredible leap forward in time. No longer do you have to struggle through life. With the knowledge gained from this exciting new book you can now lead the pack and see your wildest dreams become a reality. Don't hold back any longer, become a SUPERBEING and achieve your destiny without delay!

JESUS' MOTHER HAS APPEARED OVER 200 TIMES THIS CENTURY TO ISSUE A TERRIFYING WARNING!

New MIRACLES & PROPHECIES OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

While Her appearance at Fatima is by far the best known, it is not common knowledge that since the beginning of this century, the Blessed Virgin Mary has appeared in visions worldwide. Eyewitnesses reveal that the Mother of Jesus has continued to warn people everywhere of potential global dangers if mankind does not come to grips with itself and return to a more spiritual existence.

The rash of apparitions began during the First World War, and as mankind has edged closer and closer to destruction, Mary has appeared more frequently, showing Herself to young and old alike, from many walks of life. Though stern in the message She delivers, Mary is also compassionate and loving, refusing to watch Her little children die needlessly on the world's bloody battle fields. Evidence published for the first time indicates that She comes both as a helper of humanity—performing great wonders—as well as conveying prophecies that MUST be heeded if we are to survive and go on to live in Christ's glorious Kingdom on Earth.

nuns prayed on their knees in the snow until finally the communists became fearful of them. Eventually, some officers at the compound renounced their Godless ways and were converted.

• In Yugoslavia, in 1981, on a hilltop, three peasant children spoke with an image of Her Holiness and were given five "secret messages" which Mary said they could only reveal to the pope. Since the first apparition, many miracles have been performed. The blind have gotten their eyesight back, and a paralyzed child walked home unaided. There is now a new spiritual awareness in this area.

• La Salette in the French Alps has become a Holytown due to Mary's materialization before two youngsters tending cattle who say She arrived in "a brilliant ball of light." The Virgin warned the children of famine and proclaimed that the people of the village would go hungry unless certain things were done. Church officials didn't believe the children until water

In 1950, Mary appeared to a mother of seven, a farm woman, in Necedah, Wisconsin. Since then, She has materialized repeatedly, as has St. Joseph, St. Theresa, St. Francis, Joan of Arc and the Archangel Michael, who proved His presence by bending four sturdy ash trees toward the ground (they have remained in this bent-over position for over 30 years). On one occasion, 100,000 of the faithful witnessed the "miracle of the spinning sun," in which a huge ball of fire came down out of the Heavens and approached the earth. Many who have traveled here to worship have experienced the incredible, including their Rosary beads changing color. One Rosary that was changed to gold was taken to a hospital and held to the lips of two people who were unconscious from accidents. Both opened their eyes and began to speak as soon as they were touched.

During Her many appearances in Wisconsin, the Holy Mother has given explicit predictions concerning the future of America, including

- Mary's magical appearances in Guadalupe.
- Her conversations with Catherine Labouré.
- Our Lady of Knock in Ireland.
- The incredible happenings at San Damiano, including photos of Mary atop the "falling sun."
- The amazing wonders at Garabandal, which have been captured on film and CANNOT be explained.

HAVE YOU READ OUR PREVIOUSLY PUBLISHED BOOK — "THE SECRET PROPHECY OF FATIMA REVEALED?"

Three prophecies were given by Mary at Fatima. The first two were prophecies about World War's I and II. The third, SECRET PROPHECY was to be opened by the pope in 1961, but because of its dramatic contents was never officially released. For the first time in THE SECRET PROPHECY OF FATIMA REVEALED, the seal has been broken off the mystery, and the puzzle unraveled. This book is now in its seventh printing and is still available to those who have previously missed it.

MIRACLES PERFORMED

During Her appearances, Mary usually causes major miracles. The following accounts are detailed in an amazing new book, MIRACLES AND PROPHECIES OF THE VIRGIN MARY:

• In 1949 three nuns were tortured by the communists in the Ukraine. Because they would not renounce their faith, they were forced to work outdoors making clay bricks in the bitter cold while wearing hardly any clothes. In addition, they ate very little and were made to stand in the rain and suffer other physical discomforts. Left to die by Russian officers, the Virgin Mary appeared to the nuns giving them strength. For days the started to gush forth from a rock where Mary had stood. The water was found to have supernatural qualities. Many of those who drink the water resumed a normal life though they had previously been extremely ill.

MARY'S PROPHECY ABOUT AMERICA

Besides Her great healing powers, the Holy Mother has continually given traumatic prophecies, particularly regarding the future of America, which She sees as being a nation inspired by God.

warnings about "the Quiet Bomb," which is capable of destroying us all!

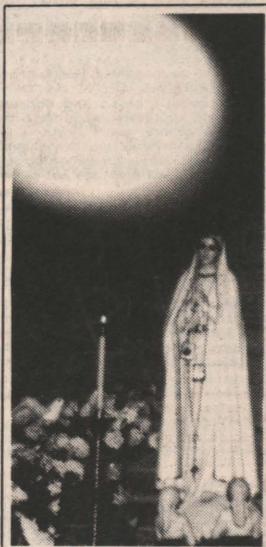

WHAT IS THE BALL OF REDEMPTION?

Mary warned at Fatima: "A great chastisement will come over all mankind; not today or tomorrow, but in the second half of the twentieth century. Humanity has not developed as God desired. Mankind has been sacrilegious and has trampled under foot the wondrous blessing of God...Satan will succeed in sowing confusion in the minds of scientists who design weapons that can destroy great portions of mankind in short periods."

Lucy, one of the little girls at Fatima who witnessed the appearance of the Virgin, is now a nun. Lucy has said that we must heed the Holy Mother's pleas, that time is exceptionally short. Mary has stated that She will soon appear all over the world for all to see, and that if mankind does not change, that the Heavenly Host will send a huge fireball out of the sky which will bring climatic changes upon earth. Many other mystical seers have been given prophecies about the "ball of redemption."

When will the fireball strike? Who, if anyone, will be spared? What does Mary say about the return of Her Son?

In addition to the above, when you order a copy of the just released MIRACLES AND PROPHECIES OF THE VIRGIN MARY, you will learn about:

In Thornton, Calif., a statue of the Virgin Mary has moved under its own power down the church aisle to the altar as if wanting to desperately pray for the world's salvation. A photo taken of the moving statue shows a mysterious ball of light which many speculate could represent the "Ball of Redemption." Mother Mary has warned about in Her prophecies and which She says could strike the earth in the near future.
