KC MUFON Meeting

September 11, 2017

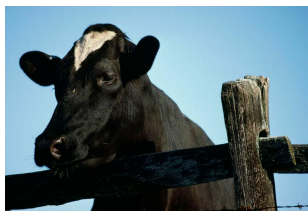

Stephanie Turbeville and Jan Henroux Schoeler with KC Paranormal will share some of their more extraordinary paranormal and UFO encounters, including the haunted birthplace of Ginger Rogers in Independence, MO, which is owned by ASD Margie Kay.

Stephanie Turbeville was born in Granite City, IL. As a child she remembers telling her mother about the pretty lights above their house. She has been seeing and speaking to spirits since she was 7 years old. Wherever her family moved, the UFO sightings would follow. Her father James being active duty in the Army as a sergeant who taught nuclear survival classes to soldiers as well as the public. Later in life Stephanie learned to tune in to her gift of being able to sense a spirit's emotions as an empath. Her two boys would wake up in a panic saying they had nightmares. Their nightmares included seeing bright lights through the shades of their rooms, and being passed through the ceiling of the house into the sky.

Jan Henroux Schoeler was born in Pretoria, South Africa on March 26th, 1987. Shortly after his family moved to Botswana and the African wilderness where they were successful cattle ranchers. When Jan was 8 he moved to the United States with his mother and step father. He lived in Manhattan, KS. His step father's work with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers had the small family moving all over the globe including Bahrain (Persian Gulf), Central and South America, as well as Europe. Before moving to the U.S. at the age of 8, Jan remembers a water elemental known locally as the "Tokoloshe" visiting him several times to terrify him. Shortly after moving to Manhattan, KS Jan had a run in with who he believes were men in black. Following the school bus to his bus stop and calling him by name as he exited the
