CONTACT! -- MENTAL OR OTHERWISE!

From Adamski's 'visitation' in the desert with a 'tall blonde-headed Venusian', to Travis Walton's 5 day forced trip on a 'spacecraft', CONTACT has been initiated by Someone or Something that definitely WANTED us to know about them. Or -- shall we say -- arranged FOR us just what THEY wanted us to know about them?

From the earliest 'physical' contacts -- to the latest 'psychic' contacts we have been deluged (and I do mean flooded) by such a great amount of 'contact' data that it would take two huge computers, working overtime, to try to come up with a 'norm' or a 'typical' contact! In fact, there IS no such 'critter'!

3 foot tall, 6 foot tall, 12 foot tall. Green, white, blue, 'covered with hair', 'bald', normal mouth, eyes, nose -- Unnormal features! You name it, at one time or another EarthMan has been contacted by any or all or a combination of -- all the descriptions above. And -- this is only the PHYSICAL contact cases! When you go delving into the MENTAL contact cases -- you come up with another mess of worms! Mental contact can take the form of a 'telepathic' message, or a direct physical contact with the 'voices' speaking to him within his head, instead of from the lips. Sometimes the followup of this type turns into physical distress, extreme pain, PLUS mental anguish. The most prevalent of the feelings aroused seem to be those of the personal LOSS of free will. The sensation of being a 'robot', controlled by 'something'. There also seem to be some GOOD side effects of Contact.

Hans Lauritzen relates how he feels that he was cured of a serious liver condition. But, in the healing process, he also relates the mental anguish, the physical pain, and his feelings of being controlled. The witnesses involved in one Florida case reported an INCREASE in their IQ's, and another witness, who had contact with a "bodiless entity" who "floated" said he was suddenly endowed with a huge amount of ESP, and he could describe buildings and room furnishings hundreds of miles away!

Seemingly, we have an enigma here. On the one hand, BAD effects. On the other -- GOOD effects. This raises the question of are we dealing with TWO types of Saucer-nauts, or -- are we dealing with ONE type, who are capricious in THEIR selection of what THEY want the witness to go through? NO MATTER HOW YOU SLICE IT -- the type of 'selection' of WHATEVER effects, are definitely NOT up to us! And, if it is NOT up to us to initiate contact, or to determine the kind of contact, then we will have to recognize the fact that thoughts not of our own volition are being foisted upon unsuspecting minds.

One answer could be the one proposed by Mr. Lauritzen, namely that telepathic messages can be induced through MECHANICAL means. In other words, not MIND to Mind, but MACHINE to mind. All quite scientifically -- just superTechnology! A strobe type of flashing light can pierce the optic nerve at usually just the EXACT frequency producing instant hypnosis... From then on it could be ANY story that you would remember and act upon! As researchers we must arm ourselves with the most powerful weapon in the world! -- KNOWLEDGE.

COSMIC SWITCHBOARD!

GREAT GALACTIC GHOUL STRIKES AGAIN! - Washington - The Great Galactic Ghoul has struck again, this time destroying one of the instruments that was to be used this summer by an unmanned Viking spacecraft to look for signs of life on Mars. Viking lost one of its three soil-sampling ovens late Friday as the spacecraft came close to the orbit of Mars, a spot in space about 35 million miles from Earth and 130 million miles from the sun that space scientists have called the abode of the Great Galactic Ghoul. "It's uncanny," said John Casani of Pasadena's Jet Propulsion Lab where Viking is being controlled and where the Ghoul was born when Mariner 7's battery exploded in 1969. "The Ghoul always seems to know when we're coming it's way." Of course, nobody knows that the Ghoul is anything but a myth but space scientists find it odd that almost all the accidents that have befallen Mars-bound spacecraft have occurred in the same place. There is no unusual amount of cosmic dust there and no increase in the solar wind, magnetic field or background radiation. By spacecraft count, the Ghoul has been blamed for three total failures and four near misses... (Source: St. Pete Times - 1/25/76)

X RAY EMISSIONS FROM SPACE PUZZLING SCIENTISTS - New York - Far out in the constellation Orion something catastrophic is occurring. While the nature of the phenomenon is unknown, it has generated X-ray emissions that in recent days have reached an intensity five times greater than any ever observed in the heavens. Observatories in many parts of the world have been alerted and are trying to locate the source optically or observe it at radio wavelengths. The original observation was made two weeks ago by the British satellite Ariel5, launched into earth orbit last October from the Italian space launching platform in the sea off Kenya. At the time the X ray emissions were weak. Their intensity, however, has since increased rapidly... (Source: Independant Press Telegram - 8/17/75) Long Beach, Ca.

SOVIETS AIM SUPER BEAM AT U.S. - Washington - Jack Anderson - From a remote lakeside near the Russian-Finnish border, the Soviet Union is aiming a mysterious microwave beam at the United States. American intelligence experts believe the strange beam keeps a round-the-clock watch on U.S. missile sites in the Dakotas. The rays are so powerful that most Russians in the vicinity reportedly have been moved out. They now monitor the beam, it is believed, by computer from afar. But just across the border, unlucky Finns have developed alarmingly high rates of cancer and heart diseases... (Source: The Tampa Tribune - 5/16/75)

SHIP SINKS SWIFTLY IN TRIANGLE - Cape Hatteras, N.C. - Rescuers searched Friday for eight missing crewmen from a Liberian freighter that sank so swiftly in the so-called Bermuda Triangle that it could not send an SOS. Sixteen crewmembers were saved... The Drosia, which was northbound with a cargo of sugar, sank Thursday morning in good weather, 90 miles east of Cape Hatteras... The sinking occurred in the northern part of the Bermuda Triangle... "The captain of the ship was among the survivors and stated that at approximately 4 AM the hatch ruptured, the ship broke up and sank in four minutes...

TALES OF AUTO-SIZE BIRD SOAR OVER SOUTH TEXAS - San Antonio - Rumors of Big Bird, a creature the size of an automobile gliding silently around South Texas in the dark, terrifying citizens -- began on a school playground in Robstown two months ago. Tongue-in-cheek spoofs about the bird by a Corpus Christie television station and newspaper were thought to have put the growing legend to rest. They didn't. Numerous sightings of Big Bird continue to come in from miles apart, especially in the Lower Rio Grande Valley along the Mexican border. Last week a Harligen TV station showed giant bird prints it photographed in a freshly plowed field in the area of Big Bird sightings. The prints showed a 3 toed impression nine inches wide and 12 inches long. The same day San Benito policemen Arturo Padilla and Homero Galvan, traveling in separate squad cars, reported seeing a huge bird with a 15 foot wing span gliding through the Valley city. "It more or less looked like a stork or pelican type of bird," Padilla said. "The wing span I guess was about like a pretty good sized car, about 15 feet or so. The color was white..."

San Benito police chief Ted Cortez said Big Bird first was reported to his department about six weeks ago by a man who rushed terrified into the police station. "He came down and told us, "I'm not drunk. I'm sober. But I saw it." Later two kids came over and said they saw it. They said it had kind of a bald head, like a monkey. At Rio Grande City, 75 miles west of San Benito, Sheriff Ray Alvarez did say that rumors circulated in Starr County for 45 days of people claiming to have seen a giant bird. "It's just rumors to me," Alvarez said. "They said it resembled a flying ostrich or a rhea. Late last Wednesday night, Alverico Guajardo, 35, told police he heard something sounding like a sand bag hit the corner of his mobile home near Brownsville. Guajardo said he left his wife and child in the house, grabbed a knife and drove his automobile to the back of the trailer for a better look. There, Guajardo said, he spent three terrifying minutes eye to eye with what he described as " a strange animal" four feet tall, eyes like silver dollars, wings like a bird and a face like a bat. REWARD OFFERED! A $1.000 reward was offered Tuesday for the capture of the mysterious "Big Bird" a reputed stork-like creature with gruesome features and massive wings, described by one observer as from another planet. Radio station KRIO of McAllen offered the reward. To collect it, "Big Bird" must be delivered to the station alive. Dr. Don Farst of the Gladys Porter Zoo at Brownsville said the only birds that could come close to matching "Big Bird" would be either a California or an Andean Condor. He said he could not explain what either of those birds would be doing in South Texas. A search for the creature has been under way since December in this Lower Rio Grande Valley area. Policemen and children have reported seeing the animal... (Source: St. Pete Times - 1/14/76) Credit for the Texas clip, and our thanks, go to Tom Adams or Paris, TX.

UFO UPDATE!

APRO PROBES ABDUCTIONS - Travis Walton, that 22 year old Arizona woodcutter who contends he was kidnapped by hairless alien beings and transported for five days aboard a UFO in the early part of November, has reportedly passed a series of psychological tests that indicate he is telling the truth about his UFO encounter. The tests, conducted by members of APRO, in Tucson, indicate that "Travis Walton was not deliberately hoaxing or lying." ... A Hoax - Walton's story of being kidnapped was labeled a hoax by Navajo County Sheriff Marlin Gillespie when Walton refused to show up for a scheduled polygraph test. The validity of Walton's story was also questioned by Ground Saucer Watch, a UFO group based in Phoenix, spokespersons for GSW told the Free Press that while they feel the UFO sighting itself was probably "quite valid", their investigation to date indicated that the abduction of Walton "smelled like a hoax." In sharp contrast to those opinions, APRO has issued a statement supporting Walton and his contentions... In addition, APRO notes that its investigators have been looking into nine other separate UFO abductions that are strikingly similar to Walton's account. (Source: L.A. Free Press - 11/28/75. In keeping with our Journal policy of presenting both sides of a controversial event, we urge you, the reader, to see all the data possible before you make up YOUR mind as to a 'hoax' or not!

UFO DISEASES - Pasadena, Ca. - The ad read "Anyone knowing any information or research about flying saucer disease, please contact Rev. Bailey. This disease is when someone has been close to a UFO and as a result becomes ill." The telephone rang repeatedly during a visit to Rev. Bailey's apartment. "My purpose is to get people who have had this experience together so we can share information," he explained. Rev. Bailey, Associated Minister of the New Salem Missionary Baptist Church, wants to get some kind of scientific evidence to prove there is this kind of illness which plagued him the past 24 years. He said, "Nobody wants to be the first to come forward. I think it is time it came out..." "I was walking on a road from Chicago to St. Louis," Rev. Bailey recalled. "It was about 8 in the morning. The sun was shining. I saw what at first looked like a balloon... It landed in a field behind me ... I turned around to look at it. It looked like a flying ship then... The door opened and there were several people with goggles on ... They asked me where I was going and what I was doing. I didn't answer. I just hurried along on the road and they didn't follow me. It was later I realized it must have been a flying saucer. He said an odd feeling as though his whole body had been shocked by static electricity came over him. He became ill two weeks later. Doctor after doctor has examined him and say his body is deteriorating rapidly. Even though Rev. Bailey does not drink; most diagnoses say he is a real heavy drinker... UPDATE: CATTLE MUTILATORS
Compiled by Joan O'Connell

NOTE: We thank Mrs. Betty Dickson, of St. Petersburg, for her thoughtfulness in sending us the following information which appeared in The Farm Journal, November, 1975, and December, 1975:

"Witches, wizards and magicians are joining in the hunt for cattle mutilators and protesting that they are not responsible. Frustrated lawmen have been unable to catch anyone in the act of mutilating livestock. Members of one group which has been investigating UFO's are convinced that extra-terrestrial beings in UFO's are to blame. To many it seems unreal and unbelievable, but ranchers who have lost livestock are convinced it all can't be the work for coyotes or other predators."

"Rewards now total $23,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of livestock mutilators in Colorado. The last $10,000 was posted by the Elbert & El Paso County Ranchers and Farmers Association for incidents in those two counties. More mutilations have been reported in New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Oregon, Wisconsin and Iowa. Shots have been fired at Army Helicopters. Accusations have been hurled at everyone from Patty Hearst to the Government. There also have been reported mutilations of dogs, hogs, donkeys, goats, sheep, horses, -- and a buffalo at the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo in Colorado Springs. But lawmen are still looking for their first solid clue."

NOTE: Our thanks for the next item to Tom Adams, of Paris, TX, who has really been right 'there' when we needed the news!

Killer Stalking Animals in Grand Prarie - (Source: Dallas Times Herald - 1/12/76)

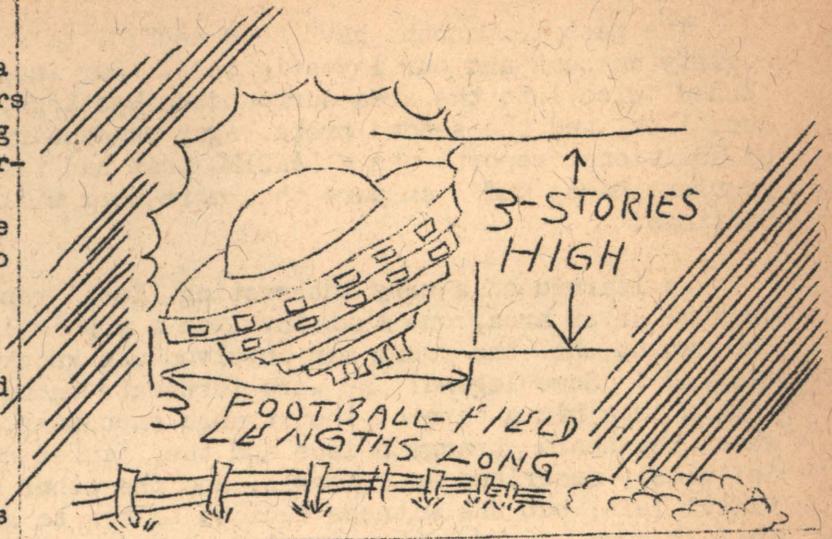

It's a large animal. It has four legs. And it's vicious. It's not Bigfoot, but whatever it is, chickens, ducks and rabbits living in the southeast portion of Grand Prarie aren't safe at night. Three weeks ago, Otis Mulkey awoke and looked in his backyard. He couldn't believe his eyes. Twenty large rabbits, averaging seven pounds each, lay dead in their pen -- their necks crushed. Sunday morning, Mrs. Ima Schmidt was awakened in her home before dawn. About 6 am she heard "an awful racket." She waited until the sun came up and looked into her backyard to see 14 rabbits, 15 ducks, and six chickens -- all lifeless. Fifteen more animals were missing. Less than a block away, Robert Rouke, found his 16 chickens dead... Whatever it is, it only kills. It doesn't eat the animals... In all the incidents, the predator made its way into pens by tearing a hole in chicken wire 12 inches in diameter. "Whatever it was chewed through the wire," said patrolwoman Deborah McRae who added that some heavy dark fur was found around the openings of the pens."

UFO CONNECTION: (Source: The Sequin Gazette - 11/26/75) Speculation that the cattle mutilators are performed by beings somehow connected to UFOs has appeared in wire service stories and newspapers throughout the country. And there was a rash of UFO sightings in south Texas last week, according to a local member of the Civil Air Patrol. To validate their claim that these cattle are killed by alien beings, theorists point out a number of unexplained phenomenon connected with the killings ... instruments superior to the finest surgical tools, never a trace of struggle or any sign such as footprints. And in each case, all the blood is removed from the animals body without a drop being spilled...

FANTASTIC FLORIDA!

HASTINGS - Three persons attending a backyard cookout at the Larry Masters home on Sunday night reported seeing a huge, giant, dome-shaped UFO hovering over nearby trees. Sheriff's deputies from three counties and the Florida Highway Patrol could find no other evidence of the object. This happened on December 14, 1975.

Mr. Masters and his guests described the object as being about 3 stories high and approx 3 football fields in length. It also had about 20 or 30 round, amber colored blinking lights and the entire object was glowing. It first appeared to the witnesses as "like a Mouse on fire" it was so bright!

The UFO hovered above the trees for about three minutes, then sank below the tree line, then rose again and descended again, appearing to land. However, no traces of the landing were found at that time...

A few weeks later the UFO reports started up again, and we sent our Investigators to the area, and they came up with more sightings that had happened on the SAME night as the original report, and found witnesses who had seen a scorched area, with also sprouted 'angel hair'! A full investigation report is now under way, and we plan to follow up on the new reports. Hastings is not far from the St. John's River area (near Palatka) -- which brings us to another facet of Fascinating Florida!

WHAT WAS IT? Does a pink river monster with horns and dark, slanted eyes live somewhere in the depths of the St. John River? According to five Jacksonville residents, such a creature raised its horny head three feet out of the water, eyed them very curiously as they sat in their fishing boat and then disappeared into the dark water.

"Had I not seen it I wouldn't have believed it," said Mrs. Dorothy Abram. "It looked like a dinosaur with its skin pulled back so all its bones were showing." "It was so ugly looking," said Mrs. Brenda Langley. "It looked like pictures you see of a dragon." Others who reported seeing the monster last Saturday during a fishing trip were Charles Abran, Ed St. John, and Wallace McLean. The head was bigger than a human head and had two snail-type horns. Little horns or fins protruded from the back of it's long neck and the mouth was turned down at the edges with gills or flaps on either side... (Source: St. Pete Times - 5/17/75)

FLORIDA RESEARCH REPORT

The past few months have been hectic, to say the very least, for both our Society members and our Investigators. Our investigative efforts had to be extended twice into the area surrounding Hastings, Florida. The first trip was on Dec. 15th, and the second probe began on January 25th. This was necessary because of additional reports and a LANDING that had taken place. Details were given on the previous page, and I am sure that more work will have to be done in connection with Hastings!

We learned of a very interesting 'Yeti' report that had taken place in the Crystal River area, one that involved a physical encounter with the creature, to the extent that the young man involved was knocked 15 feet by this mysterious 'legend'! Some legend? We were fortunate enough to track the witness down and obtain from him a tape of the strange encounter. He and some friends were camping when they heard strange noises and they looked up to see THREE creatures, one was definitely described as a female, and the other a male and a 'child' or smaller one. 'They' left, but the witness decided to try to get a photo of them, so he hid himself in some nearby bushes, hoping that 'they' would come back. They did, and he was so startled that he set the strobe attachment on his camera to working (which gives off a typical high frequency sound) and THIS seemed to annoy the creature so much that it just seemed to 'backhand' the witness, who by this time was about 2 or 3 feet from 'it'! The creature fled, leaving no prints on the rocky soil, but 'it' did leave a rather large mark on the witness, a bruise, and it certainly left him with a story that he will always tell!

Also, new 'yeti' reports were sent to us and these were in New Port Richey and in Hudson, Florida. A single creature each time. There have been no further reports from the Venice area which was so active last June and July. There have been many UFO reports coming in, mainly in the Northern Florida and Panhandle areas. Also, one on Dec. 21st. from Brooksville and the latest being a 'fly-over' type that was chased by police near Gainesville on Feb. 10th! Florida also played host to two 'rare' earthquakes in January! The "Triangle" opened up again and got another freighter, and 'The Two' came to town! Dull down here, isn't it!

Our New Atlantean meetings resumed for the new year in Feb., and we have started a series of monthly Pyramid Power classes! The first was in January, and it was 'sold out'! A new class to train Investigators will begin in April, and a new Handbook was devised by our Director of Investigations, Thomas Stone, to help our new ones! This includes instructions on how to do a complete field investigation, take photos, soil samples, check with radiation equipment, and interviewing techniques. We also put together an Investigator's Kit, which includes all the 'musts' for proper reports, and this along with the Handbook are sold for $5.00 -- the classroom instructions and the mock landing and field trip expenses are carried by the Society.

We are planning a fantastic SYMPOSIUM to be held on March 21st. at the VILLAGE SQUARE! This will sit 300 persons for each session, and we will have two of them on the same day! Equipment displays, lectures, slide shows, etc. will be featured. All of our Members will be on hand to staff the booths, the topics will be: UFOS OVER FLORIDA and THE BERMUDA TRIANGLE AND THE DEVILS SEA!

QUAKES, QUACKS, AND CULTS
by Joan O'Connell

HEADLINE: "Danish Cultists Are Ready For Cataclysm At Midnight". Date: December 24, 1967. "Borge Jensen bought a Christmas tree yesterday and planned to decorate it for his children "unless a 'Cosmic Being' called Orthon tells him the world is going to end. He said he was ready for something cataclymic at one second after midnight tonight... "We have no plans," Jensen said. "We just do as Orthon tells us, and that is one day at a time. We only know what orthon has said through universal links in England, that there will be an important event at one second after midnight today."

Well, obviously since YOU are reading this, and I am writing this, the world did NOT come to an end! Under ORDINARY circumstances, it would now be MY turn to blast ALL contactees, call them all fakes, frauds, quacks, cultists, and PROVE IT -- simply by BEING HERE, as their prediction did NOT come true. The newspapers did exactly that ... However...

It has always been my personal opinion that no one wants to be thought about as a 'freak' or a 'fraud' or a 'quack'. No one wants to be made a public fool in front of his children. Jensen released his 'information' only out of a love of mankind -- to warn them -- HE SINCERELY BELIEVED WHAT 'ORTHON' HAD TOLD HIM As did many others, which brings me to my point!

Information is pouring in daily to the 'contactees' via radio, TV, phone, and mental communication. The only trouble with the majority of this data is that it's source, instead of being a provable thing, is UNprovable. And -- the majority of the data is quite plainly - deceiving -.MIS-informing and MISleading. The two men who were 'murdered' on a mountain-top in South America were in direct 'communication' with some type of 'saucer' or 'occupant'. They too were given information - how to dress, how to approach, what to eat and drink, where to meet. They did not believe that their 'source' was false. They wound up dead.

But, not ALL so-called Mental Communications are false (or completely false) as sometimes they do have a shred of truth in them. That the world did NOT come completely to an end is quite clear -- but -- that "cataclysms" did NOT take place is also a false impression! Quite severe earthquakes were noted approximately at the time that Orthon was predicting. 7.25 on a scale of 10 is QUITE a cataclysm! Followed by other smaller quakes, islands that had never seen the light of day before are suddenly looking at the blue sky of the Western Pacific! Quakes were again hitting in Italy and California on the 29th. and are still proceeding. The real truth, obviously, is quite hidden! Why should some messages be true -- others stupid, and still others quite false? The answer is obvious again -- they do not all originate from the same SOURCE -- or -- with the same motive! SOME UFONAUTS must delight in Misleading! So now YOU say all this took place in 1967, so what? Let me bring you a little more up to date, but beware, the same 'Game' is still going on, and we are still the 'Booby-prize'!

HEADLINE: "Australis city's 'doomsday' passes with hardly a ripple"

ADELAIDE - Believers fled to the hills, skeptics drank champagne on the beach and Adelaide's predicted "doomsday" tidal wave passed with a six-inch ripple. John Nash, a house painter and self-styled clairvoyant, announced two months ago that God would destroy Adelaide with a giant tidal wave and earthquake at noon Monday, to punish sinners. But the surf rose only six inches. However, a severe cyclone did smash into a stretch of Australia's east coast about 1,000 miles northeast of Adelaide. Police and weather officials said cyclone winds of 105 miles per hour and waves 30 foot high battered a 620 mile stretch of the eastern coastline."
DATELINE: January 20, 1976.

First, the newspaper made a fool out of poor John Nash, who like Jensen, did BELIEVE in his predictions -- and then went on to print an actual 'cataclysm' that DID occur, although it was not at the same LOCATION that Mr. Nash predicted! So, What kind of a game is going on here? First of all we must discredit the home-grown 'prophet', and then all of you out there in Public-land will never, ever believe any other 'prophet'! But, what happened to the original prediction? It suffered the same fate as the Danish one -- a serious case of MISdirections.... Right prediction -- wrong location.

Many are the 'messages' received by UFO contactees, they range from personal events, to world-wide ones. They give specific details of quakes, cyclones, and other earth related disasters, and if you were to catalog them over the years as I have, you will notice one thing. In most cases, the predictions of the EVENTS, were right, but the WHERE is wrong, and the timing was way off!

Throughout all of our history there have been 'prophets of doom', predictors of the 'latter days' and not all of them have been wrong, then again not all of them have been entirely RIGHT! The problem seems either to be one of 'missed connections' or one of deliberately planting false information.

The Bible warns us to beware of 'false prophets' and 'false Messiahs' -- but how are we to judge who or what is 'false'? The Bible also says "by their fruits ye shall know them", and I believe this is the key to the whole situation. Time is the greatest factor involved. The length of time between the UFO contact and it's 'message', and what the contactee has done personally in that intervening time slot. It has been over 20 years for some well known contactees such as Dr. Daniel Fry. And what has he done personally to prove his 'messages'? He has spent all of his time and his money to promote -- NOT himself -- but UNDERSTANDING. He has not asked for splashy publicity, or tried to make a king of himself, or a public idol. He has worked long and hard to promote world wide understanding of the many problems that surround all of us. And he has done this in a quiet way. There have been many contactees who have NOT done this, but have gone in the opposite direction, and their 'fruits' have been nil. So, who is in the Right, or the Wrong? I don't know, but I am at least attempting to understand that there is a vaster reality OutThere than we have ever dreamed of, or hoped for!

DOES A 'LOST CITY' OF LIGHT LIE BENEATH PERTH?

NOTE: The following article was sent to us by a correspondent in Australia, and ever since we have been attempting to contact the group mentioned in the story, with no luck. However, we present it here for your information, and hope that we will be able to come up with more details on the fascinating 'lost city'. The date on the article is May 28, 1973, and is from an overseas publication for which we have no address. JOC

... Once through the fence, it was a pleasant stroll through a neglected orchard with Nick and Jacqui Parkhurst as our guides. The Parkhursts and some of their fellow members of their Omega Research Group had rediscovered the lost city which, their research and "vibrations" have told them, is buried beneath 300 feet of rock between Darlington and Glen Forrest, about 17 miles from Perth. The original discovery was made by a Perth doctor in the 1930's. The doctor, now dead, owned the hilly land on which he made the discovery. He claimed that he had clairvoyant contact with a spiritual guardian of the ancient site. Before he died the doctor erected a granite shrine over the spot where he claimed a healing temple stood eons ago.

The Parkhursts, who are in their early thirties, led me to that temple, set among huge granite rock outcrops -- the site of the lost city of Astroeth. ... Several of their fellow researchers and a number of clairvoyants have visited the site and all experienced similar "vibrations". Some heard mysterious voices. "I have heard voices up here myself," said Jacqui, "and I have been totally alone." The Parkhursts showed us the interior of the doctor's shrine, on the floor of which is engraved a six-pointed star.

... Sussex-born Nick and a local government officer, Stanley Spencer, a member of the research group, have produced a map of the area showing the location of the main city (which they reckon to be about one mile square), nearby towns and ancient temple sites. They claim the city existed about 10,000 BC -- about the time the Swan River began to form. "The sea came right up to the hills and Astroeth was built on the mountainside overlooking Atlanta Bay." "We believe it was built by Atlanteans, former residents of the lost continent of Atlantis which is supposed to have subsided into the ocean off the coast of Africa near the Canary Islands."

... Excerpts from the doctor's description of Astroeth: "The city was one of beauty... she arose amidst great splendour of shining domes and towering structures, picturesque gardens, statuary and sparkling fountains... The most imposing structure towering heavenward was the Great Temple, built by Astara 11." From the doctor's research, the group has made sketches of their impressions of Astroeth. And a few days after her first visit to the site of the lost city, Jacqui Parkhurst began using a strange language which "just came to me." Tapes of the language were made and were identified by a Perth language expert as being similar to that of the early Egyptians... Other than digging down three hundred feet beneath the Darlington-Glen Forrest site - an expensive proposition - there is little chance of proving whether Astroeth really does lie below ...

EARTHQUAKES AND UFOs by Henk Hinfelaar
(Reprinted from his now out of print bulletin from New Zealand)

... In the Journal "Interplanetary" (now defunct) of Jan., 1961, the Editor Bob Gribble shows a clear picture of the correlation between earthquakes and UFOs in cases selected from his files for the year 1960. The list covers the months Feb. to Dec. All cases involved strong earthquake activity along the American Pacific coast -Japan-Indian Ocean-New Zealand-Algiers-Alaska-Fiji etc., with spacecraft activity either occurring just BEFORE or AFTER the mentioned earthquakes.

Gribble rightly observes that the majority of severe earthquakes takes place under the oceans, and that it therefore would be impossible to correctly assess the amount of spacecraft activity that is bound to occur over this vast area. On the basis of this, he logically assumes that the number of cases that cannot be correlated must run to several hundreds per year.

Stan Seer, who works as a lab assistant in the Physics Dept. of the University of Queensland has done considerable research into earthquakes and its possible relationship to effects in the geo-magnetic field. He notes that activity in the Earth's magnetic field is usually associated with solar activity and as the President of the Queensland Flying Saucer Research Bureau he quite logically has pondered about the close interest of spacecraft in regard to earth. It did not take him long to consider the possibility that UFO activity might have a bearing upon changes in the Earth's field.

He has been working along these lines and feels, on the basis of his reearch, that only a cosmic event that involves our Solar System would make alien spacecraft come from such great distances to observe any anomalies that are taking place in our Earth's field. These anomalies are bound to affect our geophysical structure - hence the alien's concentration over earthquake zones. Stan suggests that their prior knowledge of seismic events is their ability to accurately measure the changes. In a way he feels that their technical knowledge is comparable to the sensitivity of animals which appear to have foreknowledge of coming seismic activity.

The research of Frenchman, F. Lagarde in the fields of earthquakes and UFOs has only recently come to my knowledge... Writing in "Lumieres dans la nuit", a bi-monthly on UFOs and related subjects, he presents a list of sightings reported by Aime Michel, where UFOs have been observed either on the ground or immediately above it. He shows clearly that of the 86 observations, 32 were situated over known faultlines. This figure represents 37 % of the total of the cases studied and he points out that this can hardly be ascribed to coincidence...

HOPIS GET PROPHECY SIGN FROM UFOS by Bill Hume (Journal State Editor)
(Reprinted - Source: Albuquerque, N.M. Journal, October 10, 1970)

A rash of UFO sightings in the vicinity of Prescott, Ariz. and the Hopi village of Hotevilla has been interpreted by traditionalist leaders of Hotevilla as signs that the ancient Hopi prophecy of "Purification Day" is near at hand.

And non-Indian Paul Solem, of Powell, Idaho, claims he called the saucers down -- a skill he says he has had since 1948. Solem said he came to Hopi land in 1969 on instructions from the inhabitants of the saucers. "They say the great work would commence with the Indians," Solem said.

"We have seen the flying saucers and have heard their message to us," said Chief Dan Katchongva of Hotevilla, who claims to be 109 years of age. "We know they are real, as their pictures were drawn upon stone for all to see near Old Oraibi, Arizona, in the very beginning. "Also Hopi Indians know that other planets and worlds have people, and they are watching us."

Chief Katchongva was interpreting a petroglyph showing a horizontal line, topped with a half-circle at its center, with the head and arm of a human protruding -- apparently an unmarried Hopi maid with the traditional butterfly hairdo. A delegation of Hopis went to the United Nations in 1959 to warn the assembled world leaders of the impending Day of Purification. They have also mailed copies of the prophecy over the world. Today, they said they are still spreading the message, especially among the pueblos of New Mexico...

According to Hopi legends, the first Hopis at Oraibi were guided to the site by a bright star -- a star Chief Katchongva and his followers now say was a flying saucer. They were guided by the great spirit Maasau. Maasau placed in the hands of the Hopi a set of stone tablets, "Tiponi, symbol of power and authority..." A second set will be brought at the Day of Purification.

Another indication of the approach of the time of the coming of "True White Brother" was that "your land will be forced to be divided and shall be cut four times, each cut smaller than the other," a prophecy the Hotevilla Hopi say was accomplished by highway construction to Oraibi... "These are the last warnings, these flying saucers coming over," Mrs. Tawangyawma said. She estimated that the Purification Day would come within the present generation.

The way to escape destruction on Purification Day is for the Hopi to "go back to their teachings"... Non indians face the same admonition. "Only through their original teachings will they receive their salvation," she said... The Arizona saucer sightings occurred primarily in August and September... The final indication of the approach of the Day of Purification will be a massive explosion of natural causes, perhaps a volcanic eruption, the Hopis said. This will be followed by a massive migration of all Indians to Oraibi... The Hopi say the saucers are piloted by Kachinas, the demigods of the Hopi religion. "We know the faithful are to be gathered to escape Purification Day". Therefore when the great fire and explosion takes place it will be seen all over North and South America and the earth will shake...

VIBRATIONS, POWER SITES AND QUARTZ CRYSTALS
by Arthur Shuttlewood

NOTE: The author, a British features editor and journalist, is the writer of three books on UFOs. This article was first published in SAUCER SCOOP.

First conceived in the human mind, the channel through which flows a minute proportion of the original vibrational WORD marking the good beginning of the Universe and all material things, from bricks to buildings, from highways to transport, from carpets to clothing, from runway to aircraft, from launching pads to satellites -- all have specific forms, lives and purposes. However, these can be transmuted by application of certain exterior forces of intensified sound, light and heat, or by align stimulation. Color can also be an external agent to produce subtle reaction and change in the physical or chemical content of manufactured articles. Yet nothing which is created is ever lost, as Nature emply demonstrates in simple illustrations of reproduction and rebirth, decayed leaves and scattered seedlings settling down eventually to the rythm of fresh life.

Formation of new patterns that emerge under the impact of outside influences equips a re-developed form for renewed life and purpose. This same applies to natural things on a wider scale. For example, once energy is initially set in motion it cannot be destroyed. It simply alters from one form to another when external forces are introduced in close proximity or when it is delibertly diverted from original objective. It applies, too, to a radioactive mineral that slowly breaks down and gives off harmful radiations in the process, although this coes into a different catagory. Which brings us a step nearer the puzzling heart of the UFO mystery.

For there is a theory relating to Stone Age monuments which could quite feasibly fit in with important aspects of spacecraft propulsion, especially in connection with boosting drives obviously needed by celestial craft, after an actual landing on terra firma. Solar ray storage or electromagnetic energy harnessing may be dissipated by earthing principles when landings are affected. From our experiences of airships at Cradle Hill, Warminster, we have noticed that hovering spacecraft rarely touch the ground, instead tilting oddly from side to side several feet above soil or treetop level. This indicates the desire of the occupants to avoid disconnection from power supplies once touchdown is achieved. Yet a craft landing near Stonehenge blacked-out entirely on an Autumn night in 1968, before becoming a ring of fire that evidently shot out from the STONES themselves, whereupon the UFO sped upward.

It is more than ever probable that these craft operate on a minor system comparable to that of a planet, generating their own electro-magnetic-gravitational fields and working on an IMBALANCE basis. At rest they do not rotate, but they rotate or spin under a controlled fashion with a central liquid core, so to generate their fields and thus move naturally within the magnetic fields of Earth and space generally. It appears that evidence collected over 18 years might alter present thinking on these mute and mysterious mounds and circles of stone, for it is now strongly suspected that they comprise a gigantic network of power potential when tapped at the right vibratory rate or pitch. UFO TERMINOLOGY by John A. Keel
(Reprinted from ANOMALY - No. 2 - September, 1969)

The medical and psychological effects of the UFO phenomena have been grossly neglected. In order that these effects may be isolated and interpreted it is necessary for a properly descriptive terminology to come into use. Each issue of ANOMALY will add to this new terminology.

actinic rays - Ultra-violet and infrared radiation.

actinism - Burns or changes in the skin after exposure to UFOs.

Aretalogy - The study of ancient writings, especially biographical literature describing encounters with non-terrestrial beings and their influence.

demonopathy - Same as demonomania.

demonomania - Possession, or belief that the body has been possessed by a supernatural entity. The contactee syndrome is a variation of this.

ephidrosis - Excessive perspiration. Frequently experienced by UFO percipients and low-level witnesses.

inductopyrexia - Fever or sensation of heat produced by exposure to electromagnetic induction.

klieg conjunctivitis - "Eyeburn". UFO symptoms are identical to those of actors exposed to klieg lights. Produces inflammation, itching and soreness of the eyes. A reaction to ultra-violet rays.

UFO akinesia - Immobility or temporary paralysis of the body while in the presence of a UFO or UFO-related entity, possibly caused by the sudden release of adenosine-tri-phosphate (ATP) into the system, or by electromagnetic influence upon the neurons. Since the mind seems to remain unaffected in most cases of UFO akinesia, forms of hypnosis can be ruled out as the cause.

Window, - A geographical location where UFO sightings have occurred repeatedly for several months or years. Windows are frequently situated on or near known magnetic faults. Paraphysical objects become temporarily visible when traversing such areas.

NOTE: For those of you who are interested in further research along these lines, and who would want to obtain their own copies of Mr. Keel's publication, contact him at: Box 351, Murray Hill Station, NY NY 10016.

All such monuments in Britain may be aligned in a single geometrical pattern. This is the belief of John Williams, a solicitor living at Abergavenny, in Monmouthshire, Wales, who has carefully compared the positions of more than 3,000 prehistoric stone circles and single standing stones on ordinance survey maps. He submits that every one is aligned to its neighbor's up to twenty miles away at an angle of twenty-three and a half degrees. Over the years since 1951, he has taken thousands of photographs of standing stones and thinks he has discovered a significant clue to their use at various stages in the history of Man.

A surprising number of photographs he took suffered from what seemed to be unfortunate fogging, and marring of negatives and prints. He thought nothing more of this filming set-back for years, putting it down to bad camera work. But in 1959 he and a friend photographed the same timeworn batch of ancient stones near Brecon. Both operated similar types of cameras and film, and the dismissed set-back of 1951 was recalled.

The developments were rather startling in effect. Both pictures came out with a fogged band across them in downright identical sections of stone. The pictures were taken in color and the fog-band was a distinctive dark blue.

Something in the composition or nature of the stone, some hidden quality, was spoiling the film. It was a kind of ultra-violet light. Since then, a friend told me, John has experienced more examples of the same peculiar phenomenon when employing color film, although cameras are free of fault. Patiently he sought to establish the cause -- and ascertained after exhausting investigation that all these prehistoric standing stones contain DARK QUARTZ, some being heavily impregnated. This is a crystal substance similar to that used in conjunction with the old-fashioned "cat's whisker" in early times of wireless receivers. He reasonably deduced that the stones therefore form a giant POWER NETWORK, although admitting he cannot guess for what purpose. He is not a Ufologist, yet his research efforts offer further clues to the earnest Ufologist who seeks no reward other than the satisfying of curiosity about people from other worlds...

EARTHCHANGES!

Compiled by Joan O'Connell

With special thanks to Mary and TAL Levesque and Barbara Lucas for their efforts in obtaining all this data.

OCTOBER, 1975

- Oct. 6 - Typhoon Hits Japan. Quake, New Hebrides, Mexico and Chile on the 7th.
- Oct. 8 - Crop Losses darken world grain picture, due to weather conditions.
- Oct.28 - Oroville gets new jolt, California/aftermath of previous quake.
- Oct.28 - Underground Nuclear Test Shakes 3 States.
- Oct.30 - Meteor flashed over state of California, may have crashed into sea.
- Oct.31 - Quake Jolts the Phillipines, described as major.

NOVEMBER, 1975

- Nov. 1 - Quake Rocks Guam.
- Nov. 3 - Bubonic Outbreak Gets Snowed Under in California.
- Nov. 5 - Quake Jars Oroville Anew. California.
- Nov. 9 - Stromboli Volcano constantly erupting, earth tremors in Sicily.
- Nov.11 - Quakes Rock Hawaii Volcano. Kilauea.
- Nov.14 - Quake Jolts Eureka, California.
- Nov.16 - Quake Hits Mexico, western and central zones.
- Nov.29 - 3 Tremors reported in Central Phillipines, warnings of tidal waves.
- Nov.20 - Worst Earthquake in Century Hits Hawaii. Plus a tidal wave.

DECEMBER, 1975

- Dec. 4 - Floodwaters in Northwest drowned dairy cattle and blocked highways.
- Dec. 4 - Soviet Harvest is worst in decade. Severe drought conditions blamed.
- Dec. 5 - Record High temperture for Chicago and 5 Iowa cities.
- Dec. 6 - Tornadoes Hit Tulsa, while Chicago went below freezing after record high.
- Dec. 9 - Hawaii has record Low - 56 degrees.
- Dec.14 - Chicago reached a 66 degree high, to smash a 94 year old record.
- Dec.15 - Quake Rocks Tokyo.
- Dec.15 - Quake Shakes Palm Springs, California.
- Dec.20 - Icelandic Peak Ripped Apart by Eruption.
- Dec.26 - Volcano observed, new quakes at Kileauae.
- Dec.26 - Severe quake shakes New Guinea.
- Dec.27 - 20 Tai Infants die in cold snap. (their description - JOC) 54 degrees.
- Dec.27 - Earthquakes Rocked the Tongo Islands in South Pacific, tidal wave warned.
- Dec.27 - Major quake recorded about 200 miles south of Samoan Islands.
- Dec.31 - Quake Kills in Greece. 110 miles NW of Athens.

JANUARY, 1976

- Jan. 3 - Storm Kills 35 in Europe. Hurrican force winds and floods.
- Jan 3 - Cold Wave Perils California Citrus, temps down in 20's for 4 nights.
- Jan. 7 - Lack of snow could harm Soviet Crops. "Snow completely disappeared..."
- Jan.14 - Quakes Shock South Pacific and Iceland. "Strongest quake world... 4 years."
- Jan.14 - Artic Blizzard disrupts rescue work in Iceland.
- Jan.15 - Quake Hits Kettleman City, California.
- Jan.15 - Quake Shakes Hawaii.
- Jan.18 - Fierce Cold Wave Grips East and South, record of many lows set.
- Jan.19 - Cold Wave Damages Citrus Crop in Florida, record lows set.
- Jan.20 - Quake in Tokyo, Japan.
- Jan.22 - "Tremor" in Daytona Beach, Fla.
- Jan.23 - Volcano erupts on Alaskan Island.
- Jan.25 - Drought conditions in farm belt, Iowa, Kansas, etc.
- Jan.27 - Quakes felt in Oroville, California.

EARTHCHANGES -- PART 11

NOTE: If the subject of earthquakes, and quake warnings, is not your 'thing' you can skip reading this page. The 'message' contained on this page is for those who have the eyes to see, and the inner feelings to understand. If you feel nothing -- then read nothing. Survival is entirely up to YOU.

EARTHQUAKES GIVE WARNING! San Francisco -- That "low rumbling sound" many people say they hear just before an earthquake strikes is no fluke, says a team of scientists -- it's a real warning. A team from the U.S. Geological Survey reported they placed a portable tape recorder in the ground at earthquake-prone Imperial Valley in California. Dr. David P. Hill, a member of the team, said Monday that moments before a tremor struck, the machine recorded vibrating sounds and was acting like "an enormous loudspeaker." He said the sound was "much like thunder" and was recorded by the tape machine before scientists felt it. "As far as we know," he said, "this is the first time that an audible noise has been recorded in a magnetic tape together with signals from seismic waves generated by a local earthquake. (Source: Daily Breeze, Ca. 12/10/75. Credit: Mary and TAL Levesque)

SATELLITE PHOTOS SHOW QUAKE ZONE Washington -- Deeply buried faults subtly revealed by satellite pictures suggest an old earthquake zone astride the Mississippi River that may jostle the area at any time. Two U.S. Geological survey scientists reporting this recently, said they drew their conclusion from a study of land and skylab pictures of the northern section of the Mississippi embayment.

This section of the Embayment covers a strip up to 300 miles wide straddling the Mississippi from north of Cairo, Ill., to south of Clarksdale, Miss. It includes extreme southern Illinois southeast Missouri, southwest Kentucky, northeast Arkansas, western Tennessee and northern Mississippi. The two geologists said that earthquakes, including major ones, could occur at any time in the area they studied. (Source: Daily Breeze - 10/k5/75)

FLORIDA REEF IS LINKED TO MIDWEST STRATA A huge sunken reef 225 miles east of St. Augustine, Fla. appears to be an extension of a limestone strata located as far away as Illinois. The reef was found 9,000 feet below the Atlantic's surface and once was a coral structure that existed near or above the surface... In a report on the third phase of the Deep Sea Drilling Project, Scripps Institute of Oceanography said the reef's age and physical structure resemble limestone deposits in the Midwest. NOTE: In case you don't recognize this for what it is -- get ready for MORE Florida quakes, in a state which doesn't have them!

EXPERT SAYS TIDAL TIMES KEY TO QUAKE Earthquakes and volcanoes are more likely to occur during strong tidal periods than during times of less pull on the earth by the sun and moon, a mechanical engineer said. Dr. John S. Rinehart, said he has developed a model which shows that earthquakes and volcanoes are most likely to be triggered during full and new moon, bi-annual solstices and multi-year cycles of strong tidal pull from the sun and Moon. NOTE: He should talk to some of the Astrologers that I have! Also, here's a tip for our Florida Spotter's -- Notice where all the UFO activity is NOW in the state! I think I can safely say that many things are going on, not the least of which is new earthquake activity... Think about it...

OUR NEW PYRAMID ANTENNA TECHNOLOGY WILL ALTER THE COURSE OF LIFE

There's a significant new development in Pyramid design that is destined to play a vital role in harnessing the REJUVENATION EFFECTS of the Pyramid shape for modern living. The PYRAMID MATRIX ANTENNA SYSTEM is the first totally new concept in Pyramid design in over 4,000 years. We have successfully incorporated Space Age technology in Metallurgy and the Principle of Antenna Radiation to create an EXPANDABLE PYRAMID GRID SYSTEM which will fit any modern living application.

HOW DOES IT WORK? The PYRAMID MATRIX ANTENNA SYSTEM has been under development by Nick Edwards and his research firm Pyramid Environmental Systems for five years. All our product applications have been specifically designed to meet the demanding requirements of Medical and Dental Research Programs, now under way. Our products work because our matrix technology utilized the stronger energy flows from the top of the pyramid shape and creates a focal point of concentrated energy below. The Pyramid antenna shapes are created by a special alloy of aluminum precision drawn into tubes. Our tubes are then pre-energized with a unique high frequency, high voltage process which activates its crystal structure to radiate the same energy of the Pyramid shape.

MODERN LIVING APPLICATIONS: Harnessing the rejuvenation and preservation effects of the pyramid shape are now possible for any environment. Our systems EXPAND in any direction. *SLEEPING * MEDITATION * PSYCHIC POWER * FOOD PRESERVATION * * CROP GROWING * GREEN HOUSES * HOSPITALS * PURIFICATION * HEALING * FLAVOR ENHANCEMENT *
