Letters to the Editor

Dear New Atlanteans,

ref. your question on ALTERNATIVE 3, Hermann Ilg, Reutlingen, sent me the following answer from the "spheres of light":

This socalled "Alternative 3" behind which a colony of earthlings is said to be on the Mars is completely pulled out of the thin air and is probably to be explained by the imagination of an "alternative life". There were in fact high cultures on Mars long times ago, and, in a not so far past, research and experimental stations of the Santines (UFOnauts, U.J.). On the reverse side of the Moon, there is a base of the Santines which has been installed under the surface and serves the maintenance routine for small space-ships. There is nothing that has to do with earthlings - despite earthen fantasy would like to see it.

(Please make a good English of it. It is a bit difficult to translate as already the German is unusual!)

And here some other answers from H. Ilg which may interest you:

Question: Urata/Turkey was the last localizable place of residence of the Hethites. What has become of them?

Answer: The Hethites belonged, like many othersplinter races of this earth, to an evacuated ethnic group of another mankind from beyond our solar system. They had the problem to solve, to conquer their lethargy with regard to their evolution by their own efforts and steeling of their willpower in order to catch up with the level of the way of living on their home planet. This has only partly been achieved, like with the other evacuated races, despite of continuous loving care by the "Gods", so that some sad remnants had to be left on their host planet being at the mercy of their lot, whereas the regenerated and willpowered group became transported to their home planet by their brothers and sisters. The remaining and retarded brothers and sisters could not summon up their strength in order to preserve their high culture; they degenerated more and more and became extinct.

Question: Greenland is said to consist only of the wreath of land left behind of a former continent. What has become of the continent? Did it belong to Atlantis?

Answer: No. The present-day "Greenland" has once been a green land and was inhabited by the Hyperboreans. It was a continent in itself and had no connection to Atlantis, which was situated between today's Kapverdic Isles and the Bermudas. The nordic tribe of the Hyperboreans had a high spiritual standard so that they even influenced the Atlantic cultures. After severe geographis changes and glaciation of the Arctic region they carried their knowledge also to other people in East and West.

THE ASCENT OF SPACESHIP "EARTH"
by Joan O'Connell

The point has now been reached beyond which there is NO return. Our own 'spaceship' Earth has now been propelled into the line-wave density that will take it -and us- into a new level of frequency, the 4th Density...

There are many levels on this 4th Density, and we are now traveling on the first sync. This means that our own personal frequency levels have been elevated in order to accommodate this upward movement. It will be no easy thing to acclimate ourselves to this level, and it will take all our CONSCIOUS and AWARE levels of mind in order to traverse into the 2nd sync.

2nd sync level means that we must not only adjust our own mind-levels - but our atomic cellular and molecular bodies must be synchronized, at the personal frequency level that we possess at this time. We have SEVEN levels of 'bodies', our outer wrappings around which we weave our soulbody. This 'seed' from our Creator comes clothed in a 'coat of many colors' --- our own auras. It is this 'coat' that will convey us to either freedom or slavery.

Why slavery? Because there are, shall we say, negative forces, who are now waiting in the wings to possess unto themselves the ones that 'fall away', that can't 'make' it to the upper levels. This means 'removal' to another density level below where we all were on the 3rd density. This also means that those who cannot be raised in level will have to go back the hard way to the Cosmic Cycles of Karma. To re-learn and to re-turn their lives around. This will not be a pleasant journey to take.

In order to 'die' unto the Old World, we must learn to be 're-born' into the New One. The Law of Sacrifice comes into our daily lives now - are we willing to give up the 'old' body? The lower frequency level one? In the lower frequencies life could be lived amid such levels as greed, non caring of Truth, non-loving of God, and the myriad and diverse denying of the Light. No more will this hold true, conscious decisions must be made by all. Do we go forward to accomplish the missions that we were sent to do - or - do we 'fall away' -never to rise? The responsibility, the choice, is our own personal decision. The 'Meshing, has now begun, can you not feel it? Can you not see it in those around you? It is in the actions of the multitudes of the people who cannot understand, and they riot, and they revolt and they steal and maim; not only the physical body but the very heart and soul of a being.

There is a normal progression and evolution in ALL things created. Stagnation takes place where there is NO progression, that is -- not to be allowed. There was placed upon ALL created 'worlds'. 'galaxies', star-systems, and Universes, a, shall we again say, a "Time Limit". There was a very particular 'Time' Lock set upon physical 'spaceships' such as our Earth.

There were very definite Cycles set into motion, and many Teachers and Masters were sent down into the lower levels to give to the Earthlings the teachings needed to accelerate their personal growth. From the begger on the steet corner (did YOU give to one less fortunate than you?), to the Glorious Ones who come in waves of Light and Color to illuminate many at once. All peoples', whether they be in cities or in jungles, in yellow, red, or black or white bodies, were and are given the opportunity to learn, to understand, to care about others, to share what they were given in life.

The Grand Progression of Earth, from a cipher, a zero, a nothing, to a fully evolutionized higher density planet, is just about over. The last of our 'Time' has approached. Do not think that we here on Earth are in any way special. No! This Time Phasing and Locking holds true to all which were created. Countless worlds beyond worlds have the same Cycles as we do.

We 'began' as Seed Souls, without the dense/physical body. As the Cycles progressed we had to become lower and heavier in nature, in order to live with and learn the Universal Laws. This is so on all other worlds as well. As we leave the 3rd level density, there are other worlds who can now enter our old level, so that they, too, can progress. But, we who WERE on that level have also to progress and leave this level, in order to make room for those shortly to come up the evolutionary ladder.

In the interim between dusk and dawn - between moon and sun - between sunshine and snow - so is the time/lock between peril and Sanctuary... Those who are to finally 'graduate' into 2nd sync - have to be protected. The ones who were especially 'seeded' and those who have had to work out their Karmic purposes, both types have to exist and endure the workings of the Creator. It is incumbent upon those who Know - to also endure... Throughout the Long Night of Darkness - until the Dawn of the New World. May it thus ever be so... Unto Us a new day is born and so be it.....

STRANGENEWS!

ANOTHER ANCIENT AMERICAN OBSERVATORY DISCOVERED - Credit: Dr. Ron Anjard- Ancient earthworks in Louisiana may be the world's largest astronomical calculator. The 3,800 year old earthworks in northeastern Louisiana are arranged in six great octagons, one inside the other, with passages radiating out of all eight corners. The whole monument, made of dirt ridges, measures about three quarters of a mile across. Each of the eight sides of the octagon is about 1,300 feet long.

The great monument, at what is called Poverty Point, was built by people who carried basketsful of dirt and heaped them up to form the ridges that make the side of the octagons. The scientists say half a million cubic yards of dirt must have been moved to make the octagons, making it the most massive of monuments in the ancient world. Archeologist William Haag, said that if an observer stands in the middle of the earthworks and looks down the aisles that radiate from the center, each aisle probably pointed to a special position of the sun, moon, or some bright star. The three left uneroded point westward. At the summer solstice, the longest day of the year, the sun sets directly in the center of one of the aisles. At the winter solstice, the shortest day of the year - the sun sets in the other still-intact aisle. A third aisle points at the north star. Haag also said that the probabilities of more than one arm of the monument coinciding exactly with key points in the solar year is very small.... ..

SAUDI MYSTERIES INTRIGUE DIGGERS - Clipping undated - Jidda, Saudi Arabia ... is opening its doors to foreign archeologists eager to solve the Kingdom's 'Mystery of the Rings'. Enigmatic circular stone formations, reminiscent of those found in Europe, are scattered throughout this arid and barren land, on hilltops and valleys that are remote from human habitation. The rings are formed by stone walls a foot or two tall and that do range in diameter from 15 to more than 300 feet. No legends cast light on their origins or purpose... When viewed from the air the rings bear a resemblance to huge circles etched into the Nazca Plain in western Peru.

IMMEASURABLY LARGE SOLAR FLAR RECORDED - June 8, 1982 - A solar flare - so huge that scientific instruments were useless to measure it, shot from the Sun's surface releasing more energy than the Earth uses in a year... Sunday's flare was the largest recorded since July, 1978... ..
NOTE: These type of eruptions are rare, and the theory exists that they do influence human behaviour patterns, by creating a disturbance within the electro-magnetic fields that surround all of us. What follows in the way of 'news' may be indicative of this

LOS ANGELES OFFICIALS CALL OFF WATTS FESTIVAL AFTER DISTURBANCES...3/23/82

L.A. park officials called off the last day of the 3 day Watts Summer festival because of gang-caused disturbances and looting. The festival, held in memory of the 1965 Watts riots, was shut down following gang activities including looting of concession stands... shots were fired as about 200 youths, most believed to be gang members, raced through the crowd of an estimated 2,000 people, throwing bottles and rocks, and reports of shooting between rival gang members... ..

CAR RUNS INTO CROWD, INJURING 19 - A man jumped his car over the curb of a Houston street (paper date Aug. 23, 1982) and plowed into a group of 20 to 30 bystanders who had gathered to watch another accident... Police are seeking the two occupants of the car, who left the scene and fled.....

GANG RAMPAGES THROUGH ENGLAND - August, 1982 - A convoy of toughs including one man in a minidress and girls with green painted faces, rampaged across southern England, leaving 14 policemen injured. Police said 13 persons, aged 13 to 25, were arrested along the 160 mile long route that crossed 9 counties... They were armed with an assortment of ax handles, machettes and knives... Up to 300 people led by a man in a crushed black top hat formed a convoy of 50 cars, motorcycles and vans... ..

100 JUST WATCH AS MUGGERS KILL VICTIM OVER $5 - Clipping sent in by Mr. Richard Boehm, Denver, Co. - With more than 100 people watching, Daniel Calvillo was gunned down in broad daylight by two pistol-packing punks and not a single witness bothered to come to his aid or talk to police about the brutal killing

MYSTERY BLASTS BAFFLE WASHINGTON STATE AREA - 6/17/82 - Port Angeles - Clallam County authorities are baffled by a rash of mysterious explosions - noises similar to those that shook the East Coast several years ago... Police say dozens of callers described the noises as sharp booms lasting several seconds and strong enough to rattle their houses. The mysterious blasts have been heard off and on for the past few weeks, but have increased in frequency during the past week. The reports have centered around Port Angeles and Sequim near the Washington state-Canadian border... ..

PIONEER SPACECRAFT TO PROBE MYSTERY OBJECT - June 18, 1982 - Mountain View, Ca - A pair of American spacecraft may soon discover what mystery object, a 10th planet, a black hole, or a visiting dark star, is throwing Uranus and Neptune 600 miles off course each year, NASA scientists said.

QUESTION: Within the Bermuda Triangle, a disintegration that happens to objects entering the area at certain times of the year, is there a buildup of crystals, so powerful, to destroy? Is it possible that they were transported to another area?

ANSWER: The disappearances that have occurred in the area known as the Bermuda Triangle are the result of powerful buildup of energy from the damaged Fire Crystals from Atlantis. When the forcefield becomes strong enough, anything entering that force field is disintegrated and turned into pure energy. The energy from the crystals is in force at all times. But, only at certain periods is the force powerful enough to effect this disintegration... Those individuals who have been caught in the force - field have just returned to spirit.

QUESTION: There was a room in Atlantis where the ceiling, floor and walls were all made of crystal. Can you tell me the purpose?

ANSWER: The crystal room was a room utilized for initiation. It was also a room that was utilized specifically for de-materialization and for travel to other areas. It was a concentration point powerful enough to effect this type of reaction. There were many who were transported from space into this room to serve in Atlantis, and others who left Atlantis by the same method. Many of the Elders, who were to be spared the destruction of Atlantis, departed in this manner.

QUESTION: I keep getting a visualization of a triangular shaped room in Atlantis that is constructed out of crystals. Could you elaborate?

ANSWER: The triangular shaped structure that you are referring to was not constructed out of crystals, it only appears to be due to the high concentration of energy present. In actuality, it is the ceiling of a building that has been erected in the form of a pyramid. The building was utilized as a room of purification for lower forms of life, such as animals, plants, etc...

QUESTION: There was a building in Atlantis that was pyramidal. The walls were light. The crystals used were a kaleidoscope of color and one note of a musical scale was played in this building. What was this used for?

ANSWER: The building was part of the great healing Temple of Atlantis, and it is on the left side of the complex. It was utilized as a regeneration chamber. The particular vibration stemming from the sound obtained a frequency that served in the regeneration of tissue and bone. The building was called, "Uranil". During the evolution of Atlantis - and of the souls incarnate there, the frequency of the note was altered, and in the end, was of a different vibration than it was when the room was original...

QUESTION: In the Hawaiian Islands there are some age old medicine men and women who are called Kahuna. Are they direct descendents of the Atlanteans?

ANSWER: Yes, there is a direct connection there. When Atlantis was destroyed, the majority of the Elders incarnated in Egypt to begin re-settlement and to form the Twelve Tribes of Israel. There were selected ones who incarnated in various areas of the world to bring the Father's work to these areas as well. The secrets of the Kahuna have not been revealed to society and mankind for many generations. Many do not understand this, for you are taught that knowledge is to be shared. While it is true, knowledge is to be shared when it can be appreciated and accepted and not before. So, the sharing must be at the discretion of the One who possesses this knowledge.

QUESTION: Were the Atlanteans peoples of one race, or many races? Did they originally come from another planet to populate this one, or were they created for Earth?

ANSWER: The majority of the souls incarnated in Atlantis were of many races and many levels of evolution. Those who came for, what we call the re-settlement of Atlantis, incarnated there from other worlds and levels of spiritual evolution. There existed in Atlantis, shall we say, a caste system, for as we have mentioned earlier, there was a race of mutants present... Those who became Elders and Leaders, came from very diverse backgrounds, each a specialist in clearly defined areas...

QUESTION: Could you tell me how many Temples there were in Atlantis and their purpose?

ANSWER: There were thirteen Temples constructed in Atlantis. The great Healing Temple was the central focus. All of the Temples were partially constructed as energy beacons, places for people to go to for spiritual peace and meditation. They were not built as monuments to worship, for you must understand that every individual was elevated enough to know that they had the abilities to communicate with their Father. They knew of their basic origin and of their function for being in Atlantis.

THE GOOD EARTH

We have received so many letters concerning the land we wrote about in the last issue that we have decided to expand upon what was said and to give you more details of what will be taking place on this special farm.

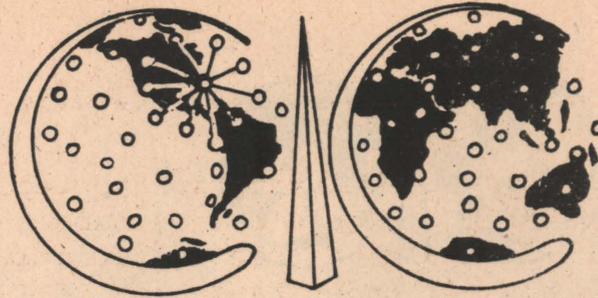

Within the borders of this Sanctuary you will be able to rest or work as your feelings will tell you, seminars on food and nutritional subjects, metaphysical avenues will be explored, how to live off the natural bounty of the land in a survival situation -- all this and more will be covered on a regular basis. We plan to be as self-sufficient as possible, growing our own food, supplying our own wells and water using wind generators, and we are looking for those special people who hold like views who have a love of the Land and nature in general.

You could be a resident of this Land and whenever you choose to camp on it - it will be there waiting for you! And, at the same time, you will be able to attend the seminars or to even give one yourself, (all proceeds of your own seminar will be yours).

There are several different ways you may obtain this property: You might want to work for us, or exchange something with us that has equal value. If you have a profession - other skills that are in demand, this could be worked out as well. If you prefer to buy it outright the cash price is: $5,000 (the lot size is 130' X 300'). OR, $100.00 per month, OR $25.00 per week for 60 months (a total of $6,000). If, after buying the land and paying in $5,000, and you want out of the contract, we will buy it back from you with 10% annual interest!

Just write to us for further details. We will supply you with exact location and other specifics. Let us know your needs and wants, your skills and your interests. Let us work with you to insure a more bountiful and secure future for you and your family... ..

On the following page you will read of the CIC's new Barter and Trade System and all this information is designed to help you in these hard economic times. Owning your own property in our Land of Sunshine, here in Florida, can be as easy as reading these two pages!

CIC is giving you the opportunity to be a part of its Barter System. Since the money market and, in fact, the worldwide financial system is in a bad way, more and more people cannot sell things that they have, either goods or services. How much easier it will be to barter or trade/exchange for the things we all want! The CIC knows that it is possible to do this - for WHATEVER you have (car, motorcycle, land, house, food, etc.)Or - you may want FREE the services of the many professionals in the fields that we cover in the magazine.

EXAMPLE: We have your name in our computer, with what it is you have to trade, and what you are expecting to receive. Another person is also on the computer, and he is asking for the item that you do have. If you are a plumber and looking for business, but the job market is bad, we are sure to have someone who is looking for your professional expertise, and they can offer you either food, lodging, car, etc. If you are a dentist, and you are on our computer, we can provide you with a mechanic, or a roofer, etc. for you expert care. Or, perhaps, you would be interested in exchanging your dental bill for meals, at a equal value, at refined and selected food establishments in your local area... The possibilities are UNlimited!

Distance is NO problem, we have people all over the world that have things to barter and exchange. By becoming a Member of the CIC you will receive a FREE subscription to NAJ, a pendant, and your own personal number to our System. You will be on our computer for one full year. Our Membership fee is $50.00, and if not satisfied with our operation we will refund your money in full. By introducing your friends to us, for each one who also becomes a Member of CIC we will give YOU a one year extension on your NAJ. Up to five years (or five people)...

Please fill out the coupon on the following page, so that we can set you up on our computer as fast as possible! Consider all the wonderful possibilities that could be in store for you. If you have any questions --- feel free to write for additional data. A list of all goods and services that are on our computer will be sent to you, on your request, up to 3 times in every 12 month period...

I ACCEPT... your invitation to become a Member of the CIC's Barter and Trade System. Please put my name and my goods or services on your computer and send me a free subscription to THE NEW ATLANTIAN JOURNAL and my pendant. I understand that if I am not satisfied with the System, that after one full year I will be refunded my $50.00.

We believe that as times financially get harder to cope with, this type of System will benefit all of us without the use of cash money. This is a very important part of Survival in the period of crisis that we are all going through, and will have to go through in the future.

We have to begin to help others so that we can help ourselves! Mutual cooperation will be the KEY word in the times to come.

If you are exchanging ONLY goods or services there is no extra charge, But, if you wish to list only a strictly business transaction, please add $5.00 more for each business entry. (such as selling or listing real estate, etc.) Just ask us what category your preference is in...

THE CONCEPT

THE DECISION IS YOURS

MONEY-MADNESS!

Inflation ever spiraling upwards..... Banks are closing.....
Forclousures all over the country, on homes, businesses, farms.....
Crops being destroyed by climatic conditions: drought, flood, pests..
Lines forming for the handout..... Civic organizations gearing up for soup kitchens..... Sounds familiar? This is what happened in the '30's..... Do you feel that it won't happen again? Or - take a look around you TODAY.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR FUTURE

As we continue on in this life, we will have to continue to adapt ----- both to our environmental and climatic changes, financial reverses and the bad job market. A choice must be made --- NOW! If we do not act, without hesitation, without question, all may be lost in a negative cash flow problem. Trade your job skills for food, clothing, housing (in your state or another one), always be flexible and willing to go that extra mile, and you will find others who will do the same because they are in the same situation.

THIS IS WHAT YOU WILL BE DOING

Maybe we cannot create a moneyless society in general, but we can create a moneyless style of living within ourselves and our friends and our new contacts that can be made within the organizational confines of the CIC.

Within the WAY we can provide you with the things you want and need ---- without the use of money, (which is practically useless anyway). Let us show you how our computer can put you in touch with those who are looking for the same things you are - ease of living, without going bankrupt in order to do it! The benefits and advantages of this system can be your way to keep your own finances floating.

In one 12 month period you can have limitless transactions with those who possibly have the goods or services that you would want. A list will be mailed to you to show you how many others are taking advantage of our computer's ability to place you where you want to be --- and without it costing you one red cent!

QUARTZ CRYSTAL AND HOW TO USE IT BY ODIN

The crystal shining before you is natural quartz, silicon dioxide, SiO_2 . It is here before you in the way in which it was created in the crust of the earth, uncut, unpolished. Quartz is the most common element in the crust of Earth, about 60%. As such it forms and serves unique and important functions in harmonizing and balancing the planetary body. When the elements come together in such a way as to manifest a large crystal such as the one now keeping you company, then there is a strong statement of power and purpose. Throughout time people have been attracted to these crystals for their beauty, their power, and their significance. Crystals have been called the "avatars of the mineral world."

The transparency, the translucency of the crystal, is a result of a perfect harmony in the vibration of atoms forming its structure. This perfection is expressed throughout the crystal and results in a subtle electronic current of energy. This energy is being used by humankind in many different ways; for transmitting and receiving radio waves, for powering small instruments such as watches, and for the exploration and transformation of consciousness. People all over the world, wherever these crystals are found, have been aware of their power and especially of their functions as magnetizers and transmitters. Among the native people of the Americas the quartz crystal has been used in various ways. The opaque, "milky" crystal has been called the "looks within" crystal and is used as a guide or mirror wherein the inner being may be more clearly seen and felt and understood. The subtle electromagnetic energy of the crystal is of such a nature that it can be consciously matched by an individual in the meditative state. This state may be called Samadhi or alpha, or other terms may be used but it is essentially a place of neutrality where there is receptivity and space.

Pick up your quartz crystal and hold it in your hand while you read this. Try to open your mind and your heart to the possibilities of the stone. Only so much can be said in words. The communication of energies from the stone is different than any verbal communication yet just as clear and very powerfull. What does the crystal feel like? Set it down for a moment, feel the change. Pick it up, feel the change. Set the stone in front of you in an uncluttered place. Let yourself be with the crystal as you would with another person. It's a lot like looking at someone you care about for a long time, looking, gazing directly into the eyes... Be silent. Create a space within yourself where a seed may be planted and grow.

As you look into the cyrstal you see networks of luminous webs, like the stars, like galaxies, like our own beings. Thoughts arise. Open the heart to what may come. Empty yourself and let its subtle energy touch you, move you, speak to you. Are you wondering if this is real? Let the experience exist on its own, assume its own life and character. It needs no other reference, no other reality. This experience is your relationship with the crystal. The energy received, in whatever form, comes with purity in a time outside of time, a word spoken without sound, a thought formed with value in itself.

Experiences with the crystals often involve sound, color, body sensations, communications. Regular work with the crystal may bring about openings of the various chakras or centers of the body. The crystal seems to be especially a strong influence on the 6th and 7th chakras, the third eye and the crown.

The quartz crystal has another function in the use for personal protection. After spending some time with the crystal and becoming aquainted with its energies you will find that, by focusing mental energy into and through the crystal, certain "programs" can be established. One of the things this can do is to project the crystalline structure around the body into the aura to ward off negativity. Some people approach this project in the scientific way I have spoken of as "programming" and others prefer to ask the crystal to do certain things in the way one might ask a friend or an (angel?). This is determined by the individual relation with the crystal and one is no more valuable than another. The technique, though, can be valuable in dispelling the effect of evil, hostile, or disruptive thoughts from outside. According to native American lore again, the clearer crystal, the clearer parts of the crystal, are better for this.

The use of crystals for healing is a subject that cannot really be covered in a few words since the whole subject of healing and its many methods is so vast. Basically the crystals are used as transmitters and magnetizers. The healer receives energy into the body and channels it through the crystal, using the crystal in the manner of an amplifier. Or the crystal may be moved through the aura as an aid in restoring and strengthening the balance of the body, Crystals may be placed on the centers, the chakras and used as either magnetizers or transmitters or both. Even with little or no mental energy projected through them, the crystals themselves will have a beneficial effect used in this way. The crystals may also be programmed to work specifically with certain chakras or parts of the body. Much of the information about healing in this manner is best left in the intuitive realm, learned as necessity arises. It is knowledge of little use to the intellect.

It is important to understand that the energy and vibrations of the crystal are subtle, however powerful they may be when applied with knowledge and sensitivity. Knowledge of this kind comes only in silence. The crystal can be an aid to the attainment and establishment of that silence. your inner experience will validate the power of the crystal and the crystal will help validate the power of your inner experience. This is developed greater and greater sensitivity to the whole psychic realm. At its most lucent, the crystal is a mirror of the Self... ..

ESSENCES OF HOPI PHILOSOPHY

BY

Dr. Ronald Anjard

THE BALANCE OF LIFE: As caretakers of life, each person affects the balance of nature. The resultant actions determine whether the great cycles of nature bring prosperity or disaster. This present world is the unfolding of a pattern man set in motion. Our variance from the natural balance is traced to a "point preceding our existence in our present physical form. Once we were able to appear and disappear at will, but through our arrogance", man took "our procreative powers for granted and neglected the plan of the Creator." As a result, "we became stuck in our physical form, dominated by a continual struggle" between our various aspects. This overall concept agrees with many Bibles and religious books of world religions.

THE CYCLE OF WORLDS: This split has governed the entire course of Man's history. As life resources diminished in accord with the cycles of nature, man tried to improve his situation by various inventions, hoping to correct any mistakes through further inventions. "In our cleverness", most "lose sight of our original purpose", become involved in a world of our own concepts and "ultimately oppose the order of the Universe itself". "In several previous worlds, the majority have advanced technology in this way - even beyond what we know today." "The consequent violations against fellow humans and nature has caused severe imbalances which were resolved in the form of war, social disintegration and natural catastrophe."

"As each world reached the brink of annihilation, there remained a small minority who had managed to live in nearly full accord with the Infinite Plan, as implied in the name HOPI" - the people of peace. "Toward the final stages, these people would find" both signs of disintegration as well as threats trying to force them to join the rest of the world.

OUR PRESENT WORLD: "Our common ancestors were among the small group who miraculously emerged from the Last World as it reached its destruction." "The seeds of today's crises were brought with us when we first set foot in this world." "Upon reaching our present world, our ancestors set out on a long migration to meet the Great Spirit in the form of Maasauu, the caretaker of this land and all that lives on it. They followed a special pattern, however a very serious omen make a separate journey necessary - in order to balance the extreme disorder anticipated for the latter days'

THE TRUE WHITE BROTHER: "A Hopi of light complexion, known as the "true white brother, left the group and travelled in the direction of the sun.

Taking with him a stone tablet which matches a similar tablet held by one of those who went on to meet Maasauu at a place called Oraibi, where the present Hopi villages were established according to his instructions." Oraibi, according to Hopi who are personal friends, is the oldest continuously settled community in North America. Oraibi is over 10,000 years old. The Hopi anticipated the arrival of a race of light-skinned people from the east, predicting many of their inventions, which would serve as signs indicating certain stages in the unfoldment of the pattern the Hopi had studied from antiquity. It was clearly foreseen that the visitors, in their cleverness, might lose sight of their original purpose, in which case they would be very dangerous. Still the Hopi were to watch for one who has not left the spiritual path, and carries the actual stone tablet."

THE SWASTIKA AND THE SUN: "Through countless centuries the Hopi have recalled in their ceremonies the previous worlds, our emergence to the present world, and our purpose of coming here. Periodically they have renewed their vow with Maasauu to live the simple, humble way of life he laid out for them, and to preserve the balance of nature for the sake of all living things. The knowledge of world events has been handed down in secret religious societies who keep watch as each stage unfolds." The leaders watched especially for a series of three world-shaking events, accompanied by the appearance of certain symbols that describe the primordial forces that govern all life, from the sprouting of a seed to global movements such as weather, earthquakes, migrations, and war." "The gourd rattle is a key symbol. A gourd signifies seed force. The shaking of the gourd rattle in ceremonies means the stirring of life forces. On the rattle are drawn the ancient symbols of the Swastika, showing the spirals of force sprouting fire, showing the encircling penetration of the Sun's warmth which causes the seed to sprout and grow."

The Swastika has been important in other ancient civilizations. In his books, J. Churchward described in detail swastikas found in ancient tablets from India. He shows swastikas turning in both directions and has related these to the direction of the earth's revolution affected by the earth's catastrophies. The swastika has been an important symbol to man.

According to Hopi, "the first two world-shaking events would involve the forces portrayed by the swastika and the sun. Out of the violence and destruction of the first, the strongest elements would emerge with still greater force to produce the second element. When the symbols actually appeared, it would be clear that this sage of the prophecy was being fulfilled."

THE GOURD FULL OF ASHES: "Eventually a "gourd full of ashes" would be invented, which if dropped from the sky would boil the oceans and burn the land, causing nothing to grow there for many years. This would be the signal for a certain Hopi to bring out his teachings in order to warn the world that the third and final event would happen soon, and that it could bring an end to all life unless people correct themselves and their leaders in time." "Hopi leaders now believe the first two events were the first and second world wars, and the "gourd full of ashes" is the atomic bomb. After the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, teachings formerly kept secret were compared and released to the world. The details presented here are part of those teachings."

THE DAY OF PURIFICATION: "The final stage, called the "great day of purification" has also been described as a "mystery egg" in which the forces of the swastika and the sun, plus a third force symbolized by the color red, culminate either in total rebirth, or total annihilation". "War and natural catastrophe may be involved. The degree of violence will be determined by the degree of inequity caused among the peoples of the world and in the balances of nature. In this crisis, rich and poor will be forced to struggle as equals to survive." "That it will be very violent is now almost taken for granted among traditional Hopi, but man may still lessen the violence by correcting his treatment of nature and fellow man. Ancient spiritually-based communities, such as the Hopi, must especially be preserved and not forced to abandon their wise way of life and the natural resources they have vowed to protect."

THE FATE OF MANKIND: "The Hopi play a key role in the survival of the human race, through their vital communion with the "universal forces" that hold nature in balance, as an example of a practical alternative to the suicidal man-made system, and as a fulcrum of world events. The pattern is simple. The whole world will shake and turn red and turn against those who are hindering the Hopi." "The man-made system now trying to destroy the Hopi is deeply involved in similar violations throughout the world. The devastating reversal predicted in the prophecies is past of the natural order. If those who thrive from that system can manage to stop it from destroying Hopi and others of peace, "Then many may be able to survive the day of purification and enter a new age of peace." But if no one is left to continue the "Hopi Way", then hope for such an age is in vain."... ..

CLASSIC CASE # 1

MYSTERY OF ALAMOSA

Horse Was Hollow

NOTE: We have received many questions about this case - and interest still comes in. So - with this issue we will begin to re-run the old classics.

DATELINE: ALAMOSA, COLORADO - October 5 - Snippy, a 3 year old Appaloosa horse, didn't return to the Harry King Ranch for her usual evening drink Sept. 7, and her owner is blaming a flying saucer or at least a radio - active surgeon. The bizarre event, just one of many which has been plaguing the sparsely populated San Luis Valley in the past six months, began Sept. 9, when Harry King began a search for the pony. He found Snippy just a quarter mile from the ranchhouse, he gives this account:

There were no tracks about the dead horse, but the animal had been completely skinned. All that remained of the neck and shoulders were bleached bones, but they were still intact and attached to the rest of the body. The cut around the neck was completely smooth, not a jagged edge. No blood remained in the horse's body and there was none on the ground. King returned to the site the next day with the horse's owners, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Lewis. Nothing had changed except a sickening sweet odor pervaded the area and the exposed bones were a bright pink.

After a search of the immediate area they found what appeared to be 15 circular exhaust marks. They covered an area about 100 by 50 yards. A hundred yards north of the carcass they found a three foot bush which had been squashed to within 10 inches of the ground. The area within a 10 foot radius of the bush had also been flattened to within 10 inches of the ground.

Near the area, Mrs. Lewis found a piece of the horse's flesh encased in a piece of skin. It was very sticky, she said, and she dropped it. Her hand began to burn and turned red and continued to burn until she washed her hands. On another check of the area they found more flattened bush but this time there were six indentations forming a circle three feet in diameter. Each indentation was two inches across and four inches deep.

By Sept. 23, the neck and head bones had turned black. Mrs. Lewis tried in vain to get the authorities to check the incident but most of them told her the horse had been struck by lightning. none of them had visited the area. C check of the area by a forestry official with a civil defense gieger counter found the radiation count to be high.

The exhaust marks were radioactive as were the areas where the brush had been flattened. The count lessened however as readings were made closer to the dead horse. Agnes King, 67, mother of Harry King, reported that she saw a large object pass over the ranch house on the day the horse was believed to have disappeared. She said she didn't have her glasses on at the time and was unable to tell just what it was. Many residents of the area have reported sighting UFOs. One man said his car was followed by a top-shaped object and a student at nearby Adams State College said both his rear tires blew out as he approached an object as it sat in a field.

DATELINE: ALAMOSA, COLORADO - October 9 - An autopsy on a horse, believed by its owner to have been killed by inhabitants of a flying saucer, revealed last night that its abdominal, brain and spinal cavities were empty. The pathologist, a Denver specialist who wished to remain anonymous, said the absence of organs in the abdominal cavity was unexplainable. Witnessing the autopsy were four members of the Denver team of the NICAP. and Capt. Dick Cable of the North American Air Defense Command Center in Colorado Springs.

When the pathologist sawed into the horse's brain cavity he found it empty. "There definitely should have been a good bit of fluid in the brain cavity. "This horse was definitely not killed by lightning," the pathologist said ...

The investigating committee yesterday measured markings on the ground and found the largest to be a circle 75 feet in diameter. Several smaller areas where the Chico brush had been flattened were 15 feet in diameter... The committee returned to Denver with several samples taken from the horse and an object, presumed to be a tool, Mrs. Lewis said she found Sept. 16. ... She said she found the object on her second visit to the site and it was covered with horse hair and she said when she tried to wipe the hair off her hand turned red and began to burn... The Denver pathologist remained at the King Ranch last night. While there, the group stood on the ranch house porch and watched two UFOS pass over the house... ..

THE SINGING CRYSTAL OF CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO?
OR - LOST ATLANTEAN STAR-FIRE CRYSTAL?

by Patrick O'Connell

CREDIT: Bruce Walton's "INNER EARTH ENTRANCES"

The Summer 1930 issue of "SHAVERTRON", published by Richard Toronto, carried the following account of a mysterious ritual which researchers have felt may be Atlantean in origin. Tradition has it that in the early years of this century, two traders who dealt in animal skins and small amounts of different types of minerals, stumbled one day into a remote trading post located north and west of Carlsbad, New Mexico.

At the trading post, they excitedly recounted the events of the previous day's exploration of the desolate Guadalupe Mountain range. The traders explained that they had been looking for mineral deposits when they came upon a large cavern.

They soon discovered, upon going a few hundred feet into the cavern, that they could faintly hear chanting voices. Overcome by fear, they doused their torches, and crept forward -- ever deeper into the earth. At last they came upon a light shining from a large room ahead. They slowly crawled toward the light until they were astonished to see, in the center of the room, robed figures, in a circle around a great altar stone. Upon the altar rested the largest and most magnificent crystal they had ever seen.

The traders stated that the large crystal was the source of a flickering 'light' which emitted a white light which pulsed with the rising and the falling of the chanting voices! Suddenly the chanting stopped, and the crystal reportedly began to speak in a tongue more musical than vocal. The traders stated that it was more like a xylophone sounding tone - very eerie! A similar phenomena allegedly took place centuries before as explained in the Spring 1931 issue of THE NEW ATLANTEAN JOURNAL. In the article, the crystal was reportedly located in the Sun Temple of old Cusco, Peru. The 'white stone' (crystal?) was called by the Incan as "IURA-CRUNU", and was said to function as both an oracle and as a crystal because it depicted pictures or visions of the future and of the past!

At the instant the chanting stopped, the traders were horrified to see the crystal start to slowly ascent to the top of the cavern, until it reached the ceiling of the great room. While it was suspended among the long, sharp hanging rocks of the ceiling, it began to dim, and the robed figures again started to chant.

Then, in a single line, slowly descended into the depths of the cave. The traders, badly frightened, quickly departed the desolate area. To this day, no one knows who the robed figures were, or what the purpose was of their chanting.

Ancient manuscripts tell of crystals that speak or pulsate, and even levitate! Because of the great powers attributed to the Sun Temple crystal, the Spanish, on a predetermined day, burned the crystal to discourage the Indians interest in it and to "increase the belief in Christianity".

While it burned, however, ancient manuscripts record that those present heard loud and anguished screams coming from the stone itself. In the light of 20th Century technology, which we take for granted, lasers, TV, computers and satellites - this account is really not so very far fetched!

RETURN TO ATLANTIS

This book is a story in epic proportions incomparable in the literature of Atlantis and unique in itself! It is a biographical history of the rise and fall of Atlantis based upon information received "mentally" from the Greek historian, Herodotus.

RETURN TO ATLANTIS takes you on a magnificent guided tour of the Atlantean cities, homes and countryside. Read the vivid descriptions of the Atlanteans' scientific and cultural development, taught to them by their teachers, the LIGHTED ONES from the higher Spiritual Worlds. Man's progression and retrogression is narrated in a running commentary by Herodotus, concluding with a prognosis for the future.

Volume 2 of RETURN TO ATLANTIS provides a detailed biographical history of POSEID, THE SPIRITUAL FOUNDER AND LEADER OF ATLANTIS, RUTH E. NORMAN, now incarnated, who had come to reeducate and rebuild the damaged psychics of the aboriginal Atlanteans. Poseid incarnated 25 lifetimes to help bring to man his forgotten spiritual heritage. Still Atlantis fell to negative forces in 12,000 B.C.

Volume 3 of RETURN TO ATLANTIS tells of recalls by Unariun students of their negative life experiences associated with the destruction of the continent of Atlantis. These pointed recalls can help the reader tune to his own past in Atlantis and so be healed by the recollection.

the Crystal Skull

TWO VIEWS OF THE FAMED CRYSTAL SKULL . . . completely hand-formed, possibly centuries in its making from a single block of hard quartz crystal. It was recovered from beneath the altar ruins, within the jungle-covered, 7½ acre citadel of the ancient Mayan city of Lubaantu'n by explorer, F. A. Mitchell-Hedges in 1927. A several-stories-high pyramid was also found within the citadel complex. The skull, possibly of Atlantean, and/or Babylonian origin may have been brought to the Americas by the Phoenicians around 1,000 B.C. Frank Dorland, says historical records suggest the skull may have been held in the London, inner-sanctum of the Knights Templar prior to the holy wars. The high priests probably executed ceremonial magic with the skull; a ribbon-like prism in the cranium acts as a magnifier. Hollow light pipes projecting upward from the base permit light reflections from the eye-sockets. The moveable jaw easily coordinates motion with speech. Lesser quality crystal skulls exhibited in the British and Paris museums, and miniature versions lack the Mitchell-Hedges skull's brilliant craftsmanship.

Maitreya The World Teacher

The word Maitreya has always been associated with the MESSIAH who will come to unify the world and SYNTHESIZE all religions under one banner.

This expectation is NOW FULFILLED!

Known to Christians and Jews as the Messiah (Yahshua), Buddhists and Hindus as the Compassionate (Maitreya) Buddha or Buddhissattva, and Moslems as Mahdi (Mohammed), Maitreya is called by ALL THESE NAMES!

He also has a NEW TEACHING. Maitreya explains how the great religions of the world are all a part of a path (ETERNAL DIVINE PATH) and are complementary. This ETERNAL PATH which had been established in eternity (even before creation) leads to DIVINITY. These teachings are CRYSTALIZED in a SIGN.

The Sign contains the teachings of at least five great religions of the world (Far East (Hinduism, Buddhism, etc.), Judaism, Christianity, Islam and Baha'ism), and explains how they are complementary and each of them has only a part of the truth. Therefore the Sign will be a point of unification for all these religions.

This Sign (Mandala, Yantra, Banner, etc.) is called the GREAT SIGN, and Maitreya's teachings evolve around what this sign represents, which is the unifying force for all of humanity. A TEMPLE in the shape of this Great Sign will be built as another symbol to unify ALL.

Maitreya also reveals a new MANTRA which has been HIDDEN from humanity for TWO THOUSAND YEARS. It is the mantra which was used intensively around two thousand years ago, but was forgotten soon after. It is called "THE WORD".

He also explains in his teachings how humanity has been guided in the last six thousand years of history until now, what is the source of their sufferings, how they can be cured individually and collectively, AND MUCH, MUCH MORE.

Maitreya has written His messages in EIGHTEEN books plus a Glossary with the terminology used in these books. They have been printed separately and the cost to buy all of them was $145. But we put all these books together as one book and it will cost only $25 to receive His eighteen books plus the Glossary.

After you order the book, examine it for ten days. If not satisfied, return it and your money back is guaranteed.

Since the purpose is to send His message as wide and deep as possible, even if you do not have this, send what you honestly can. Please be fair.

Send money now, or if preferred, we will bill you later. For orders out of the U.S., please send a bank draft or money order in U.S. currency.

CENTRE FOR THE RAY OF THE PYRAMID

ATZLAN, ATH-LANT, HY-BRASSIL, KAER-IS, LYYON-ESSES, ATLANTIS, there are many names for the ancient civilization that once existed on Earth where the Atlantic Ocean now flows. The Oceans flow - rivers flow - LIFE flows. The flow of evolution, we are all involved in this. All living form is an expression of a Universal Life Force - Vril-Odylic or Telluric current - Prana - Cosmic Energy -Orgone Energy - the Tao; again there are many names. In Christian terms it is known as God, and Eastern Traditions call it Chi or Ki. In ancient Egypt it was called Ka. In Ancient Atlantis it was called INKAL. All things possess their own cell of the Universal Life Field, again this has many names: Aura, Biofield, Aetheric Envelope.

This Centre is founded as a point in the network of light to promote information and energies directed towards re-establishing the ancient knowledge of Atlantis and Egypt. At this point in Time the Life Principle is shifting to a new level of consciousness and new focuses are emerging - and this will affect us all. This Centre emanates from the One Faith which is unto ALL faiths. This is the faith of Atlantis and the Science and Art of the ONE RAY. True knowledge is within us all and all must come to it through their own Ray. The Scientific and Spiritual Faith of Atlantis were NOT separate disciplines as they are on the Earth today.

That our civilization has taken the wrong path is painfully evident; we may be on the brink of catastrophe and there has to be a change of direction, and this can only come about through the realization that we are all part of a greater whole. All of Creation is enshrined within the Temple of Immutable Laws. These Laws govern our minds, our bodies, our environment, the world in which we choose to live. We are all free to do as we choose, we can either align ourselves with the Principles of Life or act in a way which is to our detriment.

The RAY OF THE PYRAMID is a function of its mathematical form. Its construction is based upon scientific principles of Form and Vibration, to produce a harmonious Lifefield focus. Recent research in many countries has shown that the biological activity of micro-organisms is affected in such a way by the Pyramid that foods are preserved, meditation is enhanced and the biofield is harmonized. The Pyramid form is actually a type of lens which focuses the Lifefield of the Earth.

It is no coincidence that Pyramid monuments have been located to the West and East of the Atlantic - these monuments hold many secrets and in time will be discovered beneath the Atlantic itself. The Megalithic complexes of the Ancient World form another aspect of the One Science, utilizing the power of the Earth Energy. New discoveries concerning their uses are coming to Light at this time.

All instruments and energies are UNIMORAL. It is the intention behind them which is important. The agricultural, atmospheric and physiological benefits of the Ancient Knowledge will slowly again be realized in a new way as we move forward in harmony with the Earth and ourselves. Now the emphasis must be upon the QUALITY of Life - not its material quantity. Great changes are upon us. This Centre is founded to promote a true understanding of the Pyramid and of the RAY OF ATZLAN. Information and knowledge may be obtained in care of the Centre. Address on other page...

SYSTEMS ENGINEERING: ELF ANTI-GRAVITY THEORY

by Richard L. Clark, PH.D

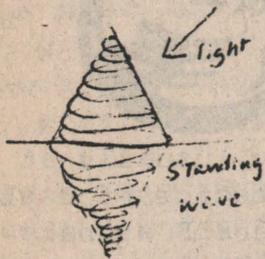

It is a known fact that nearly all substances radiate energy, usually at extremely low frequencies (ELF). The various tuners and detectors for ELF operate by receiving and amplifying these substance radiated ELF signals to locate minerals, water, etc. From my previous papers it is known that anti-gravity is merely the orientation of the disoriented energy called mass or matter. As soon as order, or orientation, is introduced into an object, or mass, anti-gravity or weight loss results. Therefore, combining ELF and anti-gravity should produce predictable and amazing results as an anti-gravity device.

A substance's exact natural radiated frequency is determined with the ELF tuner. Then, two radiating signal generators are set at those frequencies at which their difference is exactly the ELF frequency of the substance sample. Place the sample on a scale and weigh it. Leave the substance sample on the scale and radiate it with the output of the two signal generators. The natural substance ELF radiated resonant frequency and the imputed same difference frequency should cause atomic orientation with in the substance and thus anti-gravity. The scale indicator will move toward zero as anti-gravity orientation decreases the weight of the object relative to Earth. This is how Coral Castle, in Florida, was built.

Once you have a portable set of low frequency generators and an ELF tuner, you can levitate objects like cars or even buildings with very low power signal generators. The orienting signal power requirements are for less than 0.1% of the orienting mass/matter atoms. The system of mass atoms will avalanche cascade into oriented synchronization on small control signals. Once the atoms are oriented, anti-gravity results.

Interestingly, the Earth Energy Grids or Ley Lines operate on this same principle. The Earth is a natural generator system as a giant crystalline structure. By proper tuning and construction the UFOS are propelled and navigate on the Earth Grid. This orientation theory also extends to all of the so-called nuclear weapons, as cited by Cathie. Once you have oriented enough of the atoms in the substance to cross zero weight, the Earth will push the mass away -- anti-gravity drive. Your ELF tuner and two signal generators can lift a small UFO should you wish to try it. Piesoelectric crystal signal generators much have been Atlantean levitation, based on this same principle... ..

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT:
THE SECRET PASSAGE
by Mary Hardy

Much has been written about this lost piece of equipment, the Ark. It's origin dates back to the time period of Atlantis and is written about in many of the chapters of the Bible. There is much mystery associated with this Ark, however, many people written about in the Bible knew of the wisdom associated with the Ark. If our modern day scientists could examine the Ark today, they would discover that it was a communication device capable of transmitting and receiving messages from a higher dimension...

The lost technology of Atlantis was based on the use of the Standing Columnar waves, SCW's, Most modern technology is based on the Hertzian wave, very little is understood about SCW's. A wind funnel, which we refer to as a tornado, is an example of a SCW. These waves exist in electrical storms the same as they exist in our weather patterns. In fact, most of our violent storm patterns: hurricanes, cyclons, and tornados, are generated by a SCW energy pattern. Much of the electrical phenomena of the human body, brain waves and nerce impulses, are really a form of SCW energy. That is why this form of energy can alter human brain waves. SCWs do not follow the laws of the physical sciences. SCWs can change the structure of matter... n

The Atlanteans knew of this energy and built huge pyramids with the use of mind power. These pyramids were not just built in Egypt. The pyramid itself is a SCW generator. A pyramid generator was built to house the Ark - and the pyramid was an antenna for the Ark, as this system was used to send messages...In the time of Atlantis the planet was part of an inter-planetary/intergalactic community. We communicated with the Father's Angels and knew of the Law of the Brotherhood. We were a peaceful planet, whose main purpose was the development of the consciousness of LIGHT, the Land of Milk and Honey.

The Ark was unique because it altered mankind's' brain waves. It activated the pineal and pituitary glands in the humans. When these two glands are activated the human enters the Land of Milk and Honey. The brain waves are changed in such a fashion that the human can operate on a higher plane of creation. The Land of Milk and Honey refers to the conscious level - when these two glands secret a honey and milk-like substance and in this conscious level the human can function without a physical body....

This technology is not beyond our reach today. Jesus demonstrated the ability of mind over matter. He taught that mankind should develop themselves in such a way that humanity could learn to use the eye that is single, and Jesus tried to teach us to function in our light bodies, and our light bodies deal with the energy of SCWs... The technology of the Ark dealt with energy fields - and in the time of Atlantis the human race was trained in the wisdom of overcoming matter. The Ark was marked with a Star of David. Our technology will prove that the Star of David when used as a printed electrical circuit creates a SCW. In the time of David, the Vrill rod and caduceus coil were two other examples of the SCW technology.

"Yea, though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." ... The Staff of David is the Hermetic Staff used by the medical profession toady. This staff states that when the SCW energy pattern is used to balance the electrical field of the human body, freedom from disease is achieved. King David's dream was to build a temple to house the Ark so that humanity could communicate... The leaders that knew of the Ark were then trained in the development of the mind so that these instruments, the rod and the staff, could be used. When Moses threw the rod down it became a serpent (SCW). He spent the next 40 years learning how to use this energy. He then returned to Egypt, took the Ark out of the pyramid and carried it to Mt. Sinai to teach the people of the Land of Milk and Honey. It is time that those interested people come now together to learn of SCW technology, rebuild the pyramids and return the planet to the knowledge. So that the communication with the higher planes can now be achieved. The Ark is the secret passageway... ..

KNOW THE SECRETS OF THE PYRAMID

The pyramids are electromagnetic condensers that generate a subatomic energy field called a Standing Columnar wave. The electromagnetic fields of our planet could be balanced by the interaction of the flow of energy between the pyramid and the obelisk. The engineers of Atlantean times could control the weather by controlling the energy fields of the planet with a special box called the Ark of the Covenant. The pyramids are antennas for this system and can be rebuilt in this time period.

THE ANCIENT TEMPLES AS LIVING ENTITIES
REPRINTED FROM: PART ONE -
ANCIENT MYSTERIES RESEARCH INSTITUTE
POB 12124, Ft. Wayne, Ind. 46862

One of the most important keys to understanding the mysteries of ancient Egypt is an awareness that all the great structures built along the Nile are ALIVE. They are alive in the sense that they contain A - Vibrational energy, B - conscious energy, and C - the energy of guardian intelligence.

The ancient Egyptians well understood, first of all, that certain materials give off certain specific energies. For example, they utilized Aswan granite in many key locations within their Temples and Pyramids, because of its high crystalline content, which under pressure can create a piezo-electric field. The King's Chamber in the Great Pyramid is made entirely of Aswan granite, and with nearly three hundred feet of limestone pressing down on it from above, the Chamber generates a field that is detectable with a magnetometer and other electrical sensing equipment. Other materials often employed, which act either as energy accumulators or an energy dampners, are limestone, basalt, schist, red garnate, lapis lazuli and crystalline gem stones, as well as copper, silver and gold. Different combinations of these gave different results, depending on their ultimate use -- whether to aid in meditation, Initiation ceremonies, or healing, harmonizing terrestrial/atmospheric forces, or to promote fertility in surrounding agricultural areas. The ancient architects were masters at utilizing these materials to balance and control the powers of the earth, the body, the mind, life and the Cosmos.

Just as important as material energies are the energies of shape and of form. The most familiar shape in Egypt, about which much has been written concerning its energy properties, is the Pyramid. Experts in the field of Pyramid power have spent lifetimes studying and confirming that the Pyramid form is indeed an accumulator of cosmic forces, and concentrates these forces at specific locations within its structure, where they influence both inanimate objects and living individuals, triggering unusual phenomena. The ancient Egyptians, however, also recognized that every shape, not just pyramids, creates its own unique and functional vibrational pattern. A column, for example, produces spirals of energy up and down its exterior, and the shape of its capital mounting can significantly alter the characteristics of its frequency pattern or charge potential. A "forest of columns" in a temple, called a hypostyle, served as the "battery" for the temple, where energy was accumulated from both the earth and the atmosphere, and stored for use at specific times of the year when cosmic forces were harmonized.

Similarly, obelisks served as "antennae", for receiving and transmitting energy broadcast from pyramid structures, completing a magnetic circuit that was used for controlling the flooding of the Nile. Obelisks and single columns were also employed for directing and deflecting earth's energies along ley lines, and balancing the weather -- in much the same fashion as megalithic menhirs, or standing stones, once erected all over Europe, Asia, and many parts of the rest of the world. Other energy forms the Egyptians often utilized, wither separately or in energyenhancing combinations were the Sphere, Arch, Cone, Triangle, half-cylinder, rectangle and rhomboid. The most complex energy/form of all is the human body - which, in statue form, the Egyptians excelled at perfectly proportioning and attuning.

The Egyptian architects were well aware, too, that enclosed spaces create vibrational patterns. Just as the wooden box-frame of a violin is designed to amplify and add to the sound of its vibrating strings, so the chambers, rooms, walled gardens and sanctuaries of the Egyptian Temples were built to both create and enhance a wide range of vibratory frequencies. Often the design of a temple or structure depended upon its location, aiding in accentuating the earth energies of the ley line or subterranean "power center" over which it was constructed. In healing Temples, the architecture of the enclosed spaces vibrated to the auric field of a well balanced human body and its organs: An ill person entering into the precincts of such a Temple immediately was surrounded by an energy field that helped re-align his own field back to its proper and healthy configuration, later manifesting itself as a physical recovery. In temples utilized for meditation and Initiation, chambers and isolation cells produced wavelengths attuned to the mind in the alpha and theta states, aiding in the entering of higher levels of consciousness, and triggering of out of body experiences. To the Egyptians, energy/form architecture was a most exact science -- simply by adding a niche here, an open doorway there, a recess in a wall, a column, a border, or a ceiling block, they knew how to change the frequency pattern of any space, to produce or amplify any desired effect...

Every culture that is intimately aware of the subtle forces of nature, recognizes the existence of discarnate spirits or "devas", who inhabit, rule, or energize or help in shaping various aspects of the earth's environment. The Egyptians were most keenly cognizant of such entities, and offered homage to and actively worked with many of these, giving them names, such as the Hapi or Nile river spirits, and others. The more important nature spirits possess their own specific energy patterns and the Egyptian architects, in constructing temples dedicated to these 'gods', created the appropriate harmonic vibrational frequency within the designs...

THE COLD ONES

In the 1960's a phenomenon took place within the reports of UFOs - namely abductions/kidnappings/medical and physical examinations upon the contactees, and a spate of alledged 'spacechildren' were born to Earth Mothers.

We here at NAJ have been aware of this through personal followup of several of these cases, from the abduction all the way through the birth. It was hard for us at first to become use to the ramifications of what was happening. We could not at that point in time, figure out the vast implications that were going to arise. Nor did we at that time figure out that we were going to become teachers for these new children! They are now becoming aware of who and what they are - that they are different than other children- that they were the result of a deliberate process and that they were 'born' here to do deliberate things.

They are the 'Seeders of the Soil' - frontrunners of the new cycle of man who will inhabit the 4th density level. Their mutated genes will supply the 'Seed' for future generations to come. Yet, they are half Earthian. They look like us, talk like us, dress like us - but - their thought processes are quite different from us. Emotionally they are quite cold... The cold, impersonal outreaches of the interstellar and dimensional fields are within them.

Their minds are quite superior to ours in the sense that they can accomplish much that we can't - simply because they are not fettered with the cause and effect of Karma. The Law was followed by them, but it was with a special dispensation that they came in with no heavy Karmic ties to overcome. The 'Seeds' have to be sown in a calculated way. However, it was discovered that the Earthly feelings such as love, sharing, consideration for others, was lacking in the dimensional make up. So, places are being prepared all over the world for teachers to become available to teach them these 'vices' of Earthian life!

Let us never lose sight of the Fact that there IS ONE CREATOR. He created us, and he also created the Ones that created the Mutants. In the new vibrational fields in which we all find ourselves, they are totally adaptable. We have to really work at it, and they feel more at home. They are here to help us, and us to help them. A blending of the Cosmic Forces, as it once was in the Ancient of Days. The First Beginning. The First Seeding..... New Life for the New World!

It is done - so be it.

YE ARE GODS!

Substance and matter: Reality and Illusion: Energy/Space/Time: ALL of these are 'created'. As are good health, sickness, sorrow, happiness. These are ALL conditions of MIND. MIND is ALL/All is MIND.

The level of being aware of these facts in YOUR mind decrees WHAT and WHO and WHEN you will BE.

Yesterday is GONE - Tomorrow is not yet here - all you really have is the NOW. The present moment. HERE. Design your NOW properly, with deliberate before thought, and you CREATE your own personal tomorrow.

There is around each and every one of us a substance which IS, and has Reality, but which we cannot physically see. For lack of a better word let us call this ENERGY. And, this ENERGY is UNmanifested. This means that it is UNformed, it is NO-THING. UnManipulated. Free Flowing. Still. But it is there, for you to use, to form, to CREATE. Whatever your MIND wants to create.

God created all. Man, Mind, and Energy. He gave us, the mortal ones, the ability to CREATE also. Because - YOU are as a God, YOU can create. God is within YOU. Therefore, you and HE are partners in this creation we call LIFE!

As ye think--so shall ye be. YOUR MIND also puts out this very same energy, and when this energy meets the other type of energy something very mysterious happens -- whatever YOU THINK -- happens! A healer can pull in some very good God-Energy and heal your body - but - if your MIND will not accept this healing, if for some personal reason you have a NEED for this illness (be it sympathy, or financial) you will not be healed... Why?... Because you have to heal the MIND before you can heal the BODY.

The first step in actually creating the situation you want - is just that- you must WANT it. You must have a deep DESIRE for that which you WANT.... And, you must then use yourWILL. You can then manifest any condition..... This must be clearly directed. No wishy-wasy, half-way, or maybe attitude will get you what you WANT. Only WANTING hard enough will suffice!

In a spiritual sense God is within you, as you are within the realm of God. So? Who can fail? Does God fail? Never! Neither can you if you apply the principles outlines here. THINK - and YE SHALL BE!

ELF WAVES: CONTROL OF THE BRAIN
by Mary Hardy

PYRAMID ENERGY CAN CANCEL OUT ELF WAVES!

There are those in high positions who have learned that they can control the brains of innocent people. They can do this by the use of ELF waves, so I am writing this paper to show you how you can take countermeasures to prevent the control of your own brain waves. We learned of ELF waves by studying the energies of the Pyramid, and we have also learned that the Pyramid will help you to learn to overcome the effects of these waves.

For those of you who do not understand the ELF system, the Russians and the Americans have achieved the ability to send large amounts of extremely low frequency (ELF) magnetic signals around the surface of the earth. The strength of the signals range up to forty million watts. These signals usually range in a pulse rate that goes from 3.3 hertz to 16 hertz (as determined by the Communications Canada monitoring stations). The purpose of these signals is experimental, trying to control the brain waves of human beings.

If humanity is to understand the present day situation of warfare it must look at the fact that mankind is actually fighting three world wars..... The first is the physical war. This started on a world wide basis in 1914 and has continued on up to the present day scrimages. The second world war is being fought on the mental plane and was started with the Great Depression in the '30's. It's purpose is to force mankind into economic serfdom and starvation. The third world war is being fought on the spiritual plane. This war will be fought electronically for the control over men's minds. The reasons for these wars are to stop humanity from advancing into a higher plane of consciousness. You must understand that the whole of humanity is at a turning point in Evolution. We as a race have the wisdom to escape the electrical frequencies of the physical plane of consciousness. We now have the knowledge to begin to raise the electrical frequency of our auras and enter a different Time Continuum... We trap ourselves in our own fear...

According to Hermetic Law there are three Great Planes of Consciousness... They are the Physical, Mental, and Spiritual. Hermes was the designer of the pyramid. In the Great Pyramid of Giza there are three chambers.

The chamber with the physical frequency is the subterranean. The mental frequency is manifested in the Queen's Chamber. And - in the King's Chamber the electrical frequency is related to the spiritual plane. The Great Pyramid is a tool - given to Humanity by the Heavenly Father's Angels... The Order of Melchi-Zedek. The Pyramid acts as a capacitor, building a standing columnar wave similar to the ELF waves the Russians are sending around the world. The pyramid's purpose is to help those interested individuals raise their consciousness to a higher electrical frequency so that they may enter the mental plane. The Russian purpose is to imbalance our brain waves so that we cannot control our own minds.

The first step in stopping these waves is to use some kind of prayer of protection... Since ELF waves are extremely low frequency, they will not influence me as we cannot let one negative thought enter... By sending Love we will not be affected by ELF waves, either. The ELF effect on the mind is extreme depression, to the point of suicide, the trick to overcome this influence is to overcome all types of fear and control - which affects our minds and bodies... By spending time in a pyramid we can recharge our energy fields... THIS is the secret gift of the pyramid. It's energy will help us to understand and control our own mind energy. UNDERWATER ARCHEOLOGY IN THE BAHAMAS by Dr. J. Manson Valentine first appeared in the December, 1976 issue)

A certain proposition, that is hard to beat for sheer, unassailable logic, has been going the academic rounds for some time. It has to do with archeology and geology, and states: IF THE GREAT, SUBMERGED PLATEAUS OF THE BAHAMAS WERE DRY LAND IN THE RELATIVELY RECENT PAST, AS SEEMS CERTAIN, THEN THEIR SHALLOW WATERS MIGHT WELL YEILD SIGNS OF OCCUPANCY BY ANCIENT MAN. With this theory in mind, the author, who over a period of nearly twenty years, undertook a series of expeditions into the Banks in an effort to test it out. What follows here is a preliminary report on his observations and those of others as recorded from the air and under the sea.

Various photographic survey flights (begun in 1958) along the western chain of Bahama keys bordering the Gulf Stream from Bimini south to Orange Kay, a distance of some sixty miles, revealed dozens of bottom patterns that strongly suggest human fabrication because of their geometric symmetry. For example: Paralleling the drop-off into deep water, and on the adjacent flats to the east, there are long, straight lines, double-margined tracks, angular or trapezoidal configurations, circular areas and many other enigmatic figures on the bottom. All are potentially of artifactual origin and therefore worthy of closer investigation, though the overburden of sediment may make total revealment a difficult task.

Close to the northwestern shore of North Bimini, a sequence of sandy, rectangular embayments, separated like small city blocks by darker partitions, was photographed in 1958, and was subsequently buried by the shifting sands. But the most exciting piece of evidence that archeology might indeed exist under the seas of our hemisphere came on the second day of September, 1968, when, diving in three fathoms off the northwest coast of North Bimini, I was amazed to discern an extensive pavement of rectangular and occasionally polygonal, flat stones of varying size and thickness, obviously arranged and accurately aligned to form convincingly engineered courses. (fig. 1)

These stones had evidently lain submerged over a long span of time, for the edges of the biggest ones had become rounded, giving the blocks the domed appearance of giant loaves of bread or pillows (fig. 2). Some were absolutely rectangular, sometimes approaching perfect squares. The larger slabs, at least ten to fifteen feet in either dimension, often ran the full width of parallel-sided avenues and were separated by interstitial pieces on the bias, giving the effect very reminiscent of the megalithic work of the Pre-Incas. The smaller stones of only one or two square feet were confined to the top of a long causeway where they formed a mosaic-like pavement.

My two diving companions on this eventful day were Jacques Mayol (MNR 1975), world champion breath-hold diver, and Harold Climo, another veteran amphibian of the briny. After a day of free-diving on a sixty foot deep ledge far from land, we had requested our native guide, "Bonefish Sam", to find us a shallower in-shore reef for a little "relaxation."

Did Atlantis exist?

What we discovered there, understandably, has had quite the opposite effect on the conservative archeological community for whom such unorthodox news must have been rather upsetting. This was published in my article in the Muse News, June 1969, the publication of the Miami Museum of Science, under the title "Archeoligal Enigmas of Florida and the Western Bahamas.

Since that time, many others have studied the phenomenal complex west of Bimini. It has been explored both by diving on it and flying over it. The famed oceanographer, Dimitri Rebikoff, whose marine photographic techniques are superb, recorded it from his underwater vehicle, the "Pegasus", and composed a most revealing mosaic illustrating hundreds of feet of stone work (fig. 4). He determined the exposed length of the main causeway to be at least three hundred meters and correctly established its orientation as fourteen degrees out of parallel with the line of natural beach rock closer inshore. This and a number of other important observations made by him tend to confirm the artifactual character of the site.

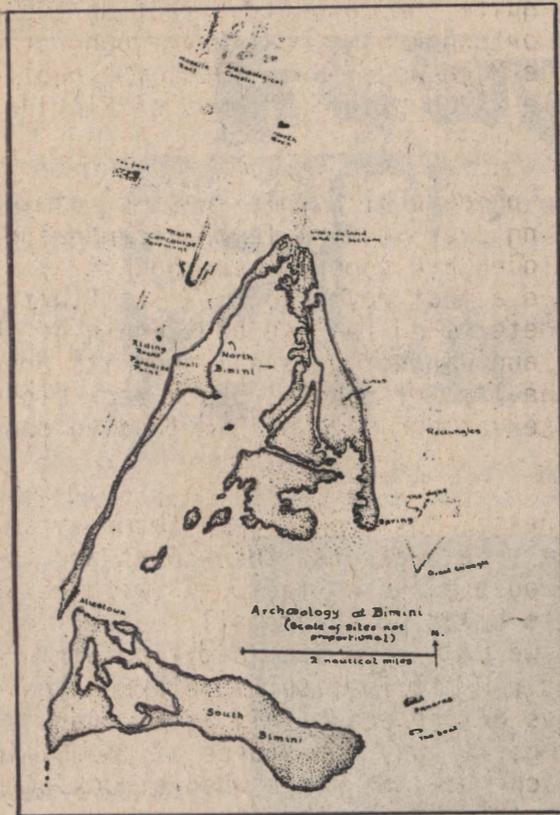

The negative approach, however, has been expressed in no uncertain terms by investigating marine geologists who have visited the site, measured the stones and their road-like arrangements, taken core-borings, compared the "so-called work" with naturally fracturing beach rock (which has a tendency to break up into small squares) and generally came to the expert conclusion that what we have here are just king-sized slabs of the same thing arranged by nature in neat rows to fool gullible archeologists who are not supposed to be conversant with the ways of the sea. This is all very simple and beautiful; but it falls short of explaining: 1) why the stones of the Bimini Complex are of flint-hard micrite (unlike soft beach rock, it rings when struck with a sledge and will NOT cleave under the same treatment); 2) why the three, short courses of closely fitted stone are so straight-sided, mutually parallel and terminate in corner stones (figs. 2 and 5); 3) why the long avenue lies at a slight angle to the others and is composed of a double series of small blocks interrupted by two expansions containing very large, flat stones, propped up at their corners by vertical members (like the dolmens of western Europe); 4) why the southern end of this great, wide track swings into a beautifully curved corner before penetrating the bottom; and, finally, 5) how to account for all the rectangular shapes, right angles, and rectilinear configurations associated with this complicated site as seen from the air (fig. 5)...

Indeed, it is hard to imagine how the phenomenon of the site northwest of Bimini could have come into being in an unpurposeful manner. Surely, unaided nature cannot be held totally responsible for such organization. But, if man-made, what could possibly have been its function? No part of it resembles any structure with which we are familiar... My personal feeling is that this whole fantastic complex represents the intelligent utilization, by ancient man, of materials provided by nature and appropriate for the creation of some sort of ceremonial center. In this connection, it should be remembered that ancient sacred sites, such as the endless geometric designs in pre-historic England, or on the Nazca Desert in Peru, and megalithic work the world over involving pyramids, menhirs, dolmens, etc. have virtually no point of reference with our form of cultural evolution.

Underwater Archeology In the Bahamas

By J. Manson Valentine

J. Manson Valentine, FNR 1962; Yale Ph.D. 1928 in zoology, paleontology and geology; is a writer, lecturer, illustrator, photographer and researcher in the natural sciences. Expeditionary travels have taken him to Central and South America, the Caribbean, North Africa, the Canaries and the South Pacific.

His discovery in Yucatan caves of gigantic water-worn statues led to his research into antediluvian relics and his Bahamian expeditions.

He is currently on the Board of the Miami Museum of Science, and a Research Fellow in Entomology at the Bishop Museum, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Shadowy Giant Cruising River

FLORIDA CLASSIC CASE # 1 -
source; Stuart News
dated: May 8, 1975.....

... Sightings of an unidentified 30 foot aquatic "creature" in the North Fork St. Lucie River has stirred imaginations running the gamut from a Loch Ness Monster, to a lonely lost whale.

Mrs. D. Stoyanoff spotted the spotted mammoth-sized creature April 9 - while fishing, on the dock near her home. Mrs. JoAnne Heyer were talking when all of a sudden they heard a blowing-gurgling sound --- "We turned around and saw between two pilings, which are about 30 feet apart, a brownish-grey object surface," said Mrs. Stoyanoff... She said the creature sank back down into the water and swam south toward Bessey Creek.

..."It's definitely not a manatee because I've seen them many times before," said Mrs. Heyer. "It came partially out of the water between the two pilings and then sank back down into the water." Another eyewitness to the strange sighting was Mrs. R. J. Haas, also a resident along Murphy Road.

"I saw it from about 40 feet away and at first it looked like it was like a boat coming out of the water," Said Mrs. Haas. She said it surfaced and fish leaped into the air and there was a lot of water turbulence surrounding the creature...

AWESOME FORCE

I have just finished reading the most amazing and critically needed book of the twentieth century. The book is Awesome Force, by Joseph H. Cater. The book unifies standard science--like current flow, transformer action, etc.--with advanced nuclear physics/cosmology and then adds Tesla, Reich, and others in one framework of a theoretical/experimental system.

The exact theoretical support for my Reich Thermal System and Clark Modified Faraday Generator System leaps out of the pages of this book. The functioning of a Reich Cloudbuster to deactivate nuclear reactors and weapons is clearly and easily understood based on the concept of "soft Particles."

Additionally, the theoretical propulsion and weapons of flying saucers is outlined as comprehensible science. The theory and basic design of the super "saucer" particle beam weapons to stop electrical flow in vehicles or power lines or to blast immense craters in a planet is detailed. In fact, Reich's Cloudbuster is a passive (receptor or sink) particle beam weapon, and its power and utility can be vastly improved via this theory.

Gravity is a frequency section of the standard electromagnetic spectrum and can be easily engineered into devices. It is in the frequency area between the top of our highest radar systems and the bottom of visible infrared in the electromagnetic spectrum.

The ultra-secret "Stealth" or radar invisibility for the B-1 bomber is easily seen as an elementary use of the physical laws as they really exist in this universe. And, the visual invisibility of the disappearing Tesla car or Philadelphia ship experiments of the 1940s are now comprehensible.

Cater explains the bases of "free energy" systems, complete with construction pointers.

The commonality of functions in the Reich Orgone Accumulators and Pyramids is explained. Also, the processes of element transmutation are covered. The Physics theory for all psychical phenomena is included in this extraordinary book--including my designed Bio-Computer and Talking to the Past.

I personally, highly recommend this book to anyone interested in reality. I have no financial interest in this book.

Dear Joan:

I understand from Thelma Terrell that you may review my book, "1982 Cosmic Countdown" in the next issue of "The New Atlantean Journal." I think it always helps a reviewer to know something more about the book than what may appear between the covers. With that in mind, here's my 2¢ worth.

The title is deceptive: At first glance one might feel the book to be dated; all events mentioned in the book would have happened in 1982 exclusively, and, if they did not happen within 1982 then the book would be defective. This is not the case at all. There are many references in the book to the fact that 1982 is just the beginning. The "countdown" begins in 1982 (as all of us are excruciatingly aware already!), and will extend through a period of years.

We have witnessed the high tides of last winter, plus a severe winter. The Pacific Coast (or plate) is most definitely in activity -- witness the very recent 7.9 earthquake in the Santa Cruz Islands off Australia, while closer to home Mono Lake and its swarms of earthquakes lead the scientists to believe a new volcano is about to be born. Dates may be off in the book, but not the sequence of events. To wit: One innocent passage set off a whole chain of events still active to this date... "In April the ley line will become active again" (or something to that effect. I do not have my book in front of me.) Look what happened. First Mt. St. Helens exploded again, as was predicted elsewhere in the book. Then the volcano in Mexico, and then the troubles in Argentina and the Falkland Islands. Since this particular ley line about which they were referring runs from the Falklands up through the Plains of Nasca, Central America, Mexico and then up the West Coast to Mt. Shasta, I would say that that little statement packed a great deal of punch! Look at the political turmoil in Cent. Amer!

From many individual readings (I am a very active, busy psychic counselor) the information has been that the Light Workers have staved off much that could have happened. By their increase in light, their courage, dedication, they have held the line. But even that in time will not stay the Hand of God, and the cleansing must proceed. It has given all of us a breathing spell, time to rededicate our efforts to the Light and to the Father. Therefore, I believe that "1982 Cosmic Countdown" is a handbook for the '80's.

THE LAST CALL!

On November 3, 1982, The New Atlanteans will, by ritual and song, somberly commemorate the Last Day of the Last Destruction of our Land: Atlantis...

As the waters strangled our cities, our Temples, our mountains, we went down into the depths. There was much heroism and evil on That Day, each had to make his or her own choice as to their personal salvation - or - the salvation of the multitudes. Our own number of craft were small, but the Tribunal had sent ships from the Outer Dimensions to be a rescue corp^s. Our fault lay not in the availability of the ships - but - in our choice and selection of the Survivors. The Law, that Last Day, was broken into uncountable smithereens. Shattered by our Greed for Life, or Lust for the Sexual Impulses, or just plain panic. Many chose self above Others... . . . Our guilt far outweighs our goodness.

This has caused great Karmic and Cyclic upheaval through the many years inbetween then and the now - the Closing of the Doors to the 3rd Density. The tunnel system that was ours is still in existence, in fragments, all over the world. Can we reopen that system of escape for use in the future? Can we raise our vibrational level enough so that we can pass through the outer Court?

Those of us who were there - KNOW. It is innate Knowledge within our Souls. It is imperative that those of us who remember, never let our greed for the Non Sacred overrule our Knowledge of the Truth. Gratification of Self, Not service to the One, the Creator, the Lord of Lords, the Universal One. Forgiveness can be - only if we acknowledge this guilt, and not try to hide it - either from ourselves or others.

The coming together of the original Remnants will take place soon. Again we will meet face to face with those with whom we shared the Last Days. Let us meet in the Light of the One God, wither we be friend or foe... Both will appear together on the Mount on this, the Last Day of the Last Cycle. The Mission to Unite, to Join, to Purify, is now under way, under the Law. The Grand Cycle of Evolution is no more, we have no more time... We have only each other, and our memories, can we overcome THIS time? If you feel you belong to this Last Gathering, write us, Come - be ONE. Remember the Past with Love and Forgiveness...
