Fund Raising

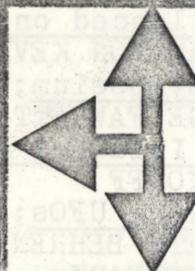

THERE IS A BETTER WAY

We are not like other UFO organizations, who repeatedly ask their memberships for monthly contributions of anywhere from $1.00 to $25.00. INSTEAD, the SBI shall ask its members to help us locate sources, from either corporate or foundation persons, who are able & willing to donate sizeable contributions in order we may carry out proposed projects & research. Our funding is critical & limited and this is the reason we ask everyone to look & ask around. These persons or firms shall receive a tax exemption and is a great idea for them to aid us while receiving a tax shelter from the IRS. THERE IS PLENTY OF MONEY OUT THERE, FROM COMPANIES LOOKING TO GIVE IT AWAY AND WE DESPERATELY NEED SOME. WE URGE YOU TO HELP US LOCATE IT AND INFORM US. Thank you for your co-operation.

REMINDER ★ THE CHOICE IS YOURS

We ask everyone seeing an article in a newspaper or magazine in reference to the UFO phenomena or a related subject, to PLEASE MAIL US A COPY OF THE ARTICLE or THE ORIGINAL. Full copyright credit shall go to the donator. Do your share--participate by helping us inform our readers. Thank you...

For the first time since the creation of the SBI REPORT, we are limited for space and because of it we deleted two regular departments, READER FEEDBACK and UFO OVERSEAS.

Both shall return in our next issue as usual. However, we are ascertained our readers will enjoy the material which has been substituted instead by new allies of the SBI.

THE PROPOSED 1982 "UFO SUMMIT" is receiving alot of support from UFO organizations and many independent UFO researchers alike. Unfortunately, as foretold in our last issue, the list of UFO organizations and individuals who have thus far responded by their "informal invitations" is not yet complete. Thanks to the U.S. Postal Service many invitations have just arrived at their destination, or in some places around the globe not received due to strikes of postal employees in those countries. Therefore, we shall await all other replies from these parties prior to issuing a list of responding participants along with their selections and/or suggestions. To be perfectly honest we have not (as of this writing) received response from the International Directors of APRO, CUFOSS, MUFON, NICAP, or GSW. I am positive (optimistic) all but one or two of these organizations will respond. In fact, I feel they will be in favor of such a SUMMIT.

When we wrote these organizations a "special letter" was enclosed along with the SBI article appearing in last issue. This letter proclaimed to all these illustrious leaders of well-known UFO organizations that the SBI wishes absolutely no spotlight due to this proposal. As a matter of fact, we even suggested the entire UFO SUMMIT be hosted by attorney Peter Gersten, who is surely known throughout UFOlogy and perhaps the most liked and respected person within this industry. The SBI wants no medals, recognition or even thanks for our proposal, we merely wish to be part of these talks that will lead to a better understanding of UFOlogy and persons involved in research of this enigma.

Without taking-up too much space, we can inform you that the comments from all the responses received at the moment are in favor of the SUMMIT, many will attend while others reserve their decision to see if they have the time or finances to attend, and of all the suggestions (and everyone has suggestions) we cannot take in full account since we have not heard from everyone invited. Yet, they range from holding the SUMMIT in New York, in the Mid-West, in a major city within the USA, at a convention hall, in a large hotel/motel facility, to everything else imaginable. Let it also be known that many respondees have included other names to be invited and we have included all these persons whom we unintentionally forgot to invite. Many of the suggestions submitted are excellent, while at the same time others are either far fetched or poor. However, suggestions are just that suggestions, and this will eventually enable us to produce a format for the criteria of the 1982 UFO SUMMIT. We have the makings of a tremendous UFO SUMMIT: middle or minor UFO organizational support, independent researcher support, writers/publishers/media support, and the support from our own

SBI membership. All that remains is the support of the "BIG GUYS" (the leaders of major, well-known UFO organizations). LET'S ALL PRAY THAT THEY ARE ALL AS OPEN-MINDED AS THEY CLAIM TO THE PUBLIC AND THEY VISUALIZE THE URGENCY AND NESCESSITY FOR SUCH A "UFO SUMMIT." Our next issue will have that up-to-date list we spoke of and then we shall see who is who and who says what or nothing at all!

Jim and I recently visited two states in order to lend support to our investigative staff, consultants and witnesses currently documenting the best UFO "high strangeness" cases ever. These cases will be made aware to our readers in our next issue, the National Enquirer, and several TV shows. In order to curtail lengthy speeches we thank the following persons for their hospitality, services, and friendship: BONITA ROMAN (Ohio State Dir.) PATRICIA MISCHELL and CYNTHIA ZANG (Ohio Consultants), Dr. ROBERT SCHNEIDER (Ohio Consultant), MAX PETRIE (Ohio Staff Writer), BARBARA WARMOTH (witness), RICHARD CLARK (witness), the Ohio News Media (channel 9-TV), JIM BENSON (SBI pilot), PEOPLE'S EXPRESS AIRLINES, AVIS RENT-A-CAR, and anyone else we've forgotten who actually made our journey terrific...thank you all!

A Special Thanks to ELAINE KAISER (Dir. of Public Rel.) for aiding in the promotion of the Ohio abduction case and to all our friends at the NATIONAL ENQUIRER, as well as PETE SPANGLER, TOM DAWICZKOWSKI (Reg.Dirs.) and DAN LOWENSKI (NY State Dir.) for holding down the fort during our absence...

Being Dorothy Soutanokis(SBI Office Mgr.) is quite busy, I shall tell you of some behind the scenes news. The unpublished book I wrote in 1978, "UFOs:The Beginning of the End" is being revamped and eventually try again for publication. The manuscript currently being prepared, "Abduction at Indian Lake" is near completion and it is optimistic it will have little problem being published. On the drawing board is yet another book, "UFOs: Meant to Be!" that will comprise my personal opinions of the UFO enigma, personal sightings of UFOs, strange events that have occurred since the conception of the SBI to myself and others associated with me, and last but not least, the meaning behind all the events that have transpired or about to take place because it is all meant to be. As to the re-editing of our current SBI Investigating Manual, it is still on the drawing board and surely will be revised in the coming months. In so much as future lectures, TV or radio appearances, we will begin a new trend to keep all members of a state inwhich Jim & I will be, well-informed in advance; the usage of a one page letter to all members within a state of appearance will commence.

Until next month, I wish to personally thank and welcome all new SBI members to the organization. THE EMOTIONAL PLAGUE Versus ORGONOMIC UFOLOGY

By JEROME EDEN

After nearly four decades of the Modern Era of UFOlogy, certain facts are clearly evident: First--All major Governments are deliberately censoring and suppressing the reality & urgency of the UFO problem;

Second--Those who have sought to bring the truth to the public have been hounded & even killed;

Third-- The American scientist Wilhelm Reich, whose factual discoveries hold the key to a new scientific approach to the UFO problem was imprisoned, his books banned & burned.

THE EMOTIONAL PLAGUE VERSUS ORGONOMIC UFOLOGY is the first work to deal with the deceptive and obstructive tactics used in UFOlogy to destroy the factual evidence & research of Dr. Reich.

Jerome Eden takes off the kid gloves-- he names names and provides the factual details of those who prefer to slander and smear what they cannot tolerate.

This is a scorching indictment designed to open the eyes of every serious researcher & student of the UFO enigma.

UFOs AND THE ENERGY CONTINUUM

by Jerome Eden

(S.B.I. Consultant on Orgone Energy)

THE INCREASING APPEARANCE OF UFOs in Earth's atmosphere has succeeded in prodding many scientists out of their complacency and forced them to consider the fact that our present knowledge suffers from vast gaps of ignorance.

We are now witnessing a new technology that appears magical to us, just as the advent of the airplane appeared mystical to primitive peoples. We see spinning craft zooming through our skies at unbelievable speeds and performing maneuvers impossible to duplicate. Even with crashed UFOs in man's possession, we cannot fathom the perplexing problem of precisely how they propel themselves through the atmosphere, stop and hover silently, as if "floating in a sea", then zooming away and disappearing right before our eyes. Furthermore, it is no longer any secret that all major governments are frantically attempting to crack the puzzle of the UFO-propulsion system, believing that whoever does so will, in fact, "rule the skies."

Picture, if you will, a primitive desert civilization which has absolutely no knowledge of what an ocean looks like. We take this primitive society and transport the people to the shores of the Ocean, something totally unknown to them. Everything appears magical, miraculous. They are startled by great fish, whales sporting in the ocean. Ships float by the gawking observers. A submarine breaks the surface, then submerges. Now we return these people to their arid desert where water trickles from hand-dug wells, and even a few drops spell the difference between life and death. Imagine the reaction of the "scientists" and wise men of such a desert orientation, when they hear stories of an incredible body of unlimited water--a vast ocean of liquid, stretching as far as the eye can see, in which great creatures swim and play and metallic vessels cruise so swiftly. Such desert scientists and wise men simply cannot comprehend such possibilities.

We of Planet Earth now confront a similar problem with regard to UFOs and our atmosphere. Until now, our scientists have been schooled upon scientific knowledge which has totally excluded and "overlooked" an "Ocean of Energy" in which our Universe is immersed! For all intents and purposes, space is virtually "empty"--with the exception of stray and random "particles" of energy which occasionally come into our atmosphere. The 19th century concept of an all-pervasive "Ether" has, so we are told, been totally disputed, and scientifically disproven.

Yet, here we have alien spacecraft, crossing incredible distances (impossible to navigate without carrying an equally incredible amount of "fuel"), and conducting space-travel voyages impossible to imagine with our technology!

Today, physicists are being forced to reexamine the basic assumptions of their sciences. They are once again considering the possibility of an all-pervasive "ether", a tenuous, primordial physical substance that does not obey any of the known laws of classical physics. There is much talk now of the "neutrino sea." But so far, orthodox measures have not established this postulate to anyone's satisfaction. In addition, the reality of such an Ocean of Energy--a vast energy continuum--poses a threat to all pet theories and comfortable chairs of learning; and so, few researchers are willing or able to pursue this line of inquiry. Thus, civilization today is faced with a crucial challenge posed by our alien intruders from outer space. And unless we learn the technology underlying their advanced society, we are totally helpless. And this knowledge of total impotence poses a further problem: Of what use are our "sophisticated" weapons, missiles, and aircraft in the face of the Spacemen's technology which makes absolutely obsolete anything we now have or might develop with our science? Why, in the name of common sense, are we squaring off to "fight each other", when the possibility of a far-superior enemy invader looms in our immediate future? Why do we spend billions of dollars, straining world economy to the breaking point, when everyone knows there is absolutely nothing we have that can match the technical and military equipment of these Spacemen? Why, with millions hungry and jobless in the Soviet Union, are the Soviets breaking the backs of their people with staggering taxation so they may build ever larger, more powerful nuclear-missile systems? Why does the same military mentality grip and burden the economy in the United States of America? The same holds true in Israel, the Arab states, in South America--everywhere. Are we so desperately sick with this international madness of divisiveness and hatred that we cannot distinguish our own petty differences from a global "forest fire" that threatens our entire species unless we pause long enough to wake up and admit the reality of these outer-space invaders?

To begin to comprehend the technological basis of UFOs and their advanced species will require, at the least, a total revision of our entire attitudes: social, moral, emotional and technological. There is a functional relationship between what a society is and what tools such a society chooses to build and use. Knowledge of the existence of this "Ocean of Energy" was uncovered, verified and published in more than thirty years of scientific work by the late Dr. Wilhelm Reich. This may sound like an incredible claim, but it is nonetheless true to anyone who has taken the pains to study Reich's work and duplicate that work. There is a primordial, mass-free Ocean of Energy, an energy continuum in which these UFOs fly, and from which they draw unlimited power. Space is not "empty"--it teems with a constantly moving, primordial, mass-free energy that Reich named "orgone energy." This same universally present energy operates within the living organism as the Life Energy, or biological energy itself! This hitherto unknown energy does not obey the classical mechanistic laws, laws which are derived from secondary energy, no more than study of icebergs can reveal the laws of ocean currents.

There is more at stake in the discovery and implications of a primordial, mass-free, pre-atomic energy that fills our Universe: Nuclear explosions occurring anywhere in our biosphere interact with this primordial-energy ocean, causing irreparable damage to all Life itself. (Cf. my book, Orgone Energy--the Answer to Atomic Suicide.)

Today, all mankind is on a collision course with disaster, deadlocked in planetary divisiveness, greed and hate. Knowledge and use of the orgone energy (our Planetary Life Energy) might yet reverse that course. It is our only rational hope for survival on a planet threatened to become another desert wasteland, unless we wake up.

" Men in high places ever so often instruct their hirelings to keep secret, the very knowledge which belongs to the people and is the heritage of all nations." (CONFUCIUS 551-479 B.C. Chin. Philos.)

Major Ret. Colman S. VonKeviczky, MMSE
Director of ICUFON Inc.

IS PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN S I L E N C E D ON ICUFON'S MEMORANDUM?

For over three decades the solution of the crucial security and scientific problem created by the UFOs has been a compulsory inevitability for all the nations' governments and their military forces.

The globally admitted TOP SECRET MILITARY CLAMP DOWN on classic UFO cases and their investigations, has resulted over the past thirty years in the accumulation of private and often non-reliable UFO research to discuss and debate endlessly on the UFOs theoretical existence,- instead of constraining the governments to lift up the military secrecy on the verified facts, and act toward the problem's international solution. This negligence up to this time has turned the UFO problem to such a POTENTIAL THREAT SITUATION which on account of the military and space exploring powers covertly set up offensive - defense confrontation to the Galactic Powers' earthbound operation already jeopardize the existence of our civilization.

This fact has been rationally documented by the United States's highest military (Joint Chiefs of Staff), and national security (National Security (Council) authorities in their hastily and surprisingly declassified thousands of UFO documented evidences to the public.

But the sinister look of the hidden side of this token fearfully reflects a suppressed and critical internal inconsistency within the Joint Chiefs of Staff!

This could be only the result by their verified total lack of insufficiency of the sophisticated strategical and electronic weapon systems to overcome the extraterrestrial forces' far superior strategy, tactics, sciences and technology. It indicates a serious warning that no military leaders or generals like to be indicted and condemned for a crime against the peace and humanity, even to taking part in the planning of any warfare against Galactic Forces!

This problem is evident, as it can be also confirmed from the response of the member nations of the United Nations Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space to ICUFON's Presidential Memorandum, when they unanimously stated "forwarded for consideration to the governmental authorities".

Besides, a reasonable number of non-governmental UFO organizations, individuals are also requesting President Ronald Reagan opening move on the problem's solution. Former NATO AF Major (Ret.) Hans C. PETERSEN's letter to the President for instance hardly underscored the fact that the U.S. policy on the UFO matter had perverted the rational truth, and at the same time evolving into a "tragic sample for how an otherwise great nation can keep the world in Middle Age darkness."

As an opponent of this policy, U.S. Senator William Proxmire, of the Senate Appropriations Committee sarcastically granted the GOLDEN FLEECE AWARD in 1978, to the NASA's Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence (SETI) Group for stretching the truth and wasting millions of taxpayers' dollars poured into the vast Universe, producing only deluge of books instead of a single piece of proof the existence of intelligent and animate space beings.

In support of Sen. Proxmire, on April 14, 1981 ICUFON submitted to him the Resolution of the UNESCO Conference, held on November 1979, in Paris, France, where the top scientists in Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence (SETI) declared the following facts:

1/ Dr. Jill TARTER of NASA-AMES RESEARCH CENTER at the University of California: "WE CERTAINLY HAVEN'T DETECTED ANY EXTRATERRESTRIAL INTELLIGENCE SIGNALS..."

2/ Dr. Frank DRAKE, of the National Astronomy and Ionosphere Center of Cornell University: "THE SIGNALS (known as coded pictures) WAS DIRECTED TO A CLUSTER OF STARS...WILL ARRIVE THERE ONLY 25,000 YEARS FROM NOW."

Now, it is logical to understand why so many prestigious scientists are persistently denying the Pentagon overwhelming evidences of the UFOs global operation - and have fanfared about alleged extraterrestrial signals seeking contact with our Planet Earth?

It is true enough that speaking on the "University Cathedra" is more sinecure, than risk one life at a project to pursue contact and communication with the exploring UFO forces, which seems to be NOT A "LIFE INSURANCE". E.g. from 1974, a trembling scientific community alerted the nations that the Arecibo's interstellar space communications and the VOYAGERS "murmurs of the Earth" (1977) will dash an extraterrestrial invasion upon our Earth.

These are the real reasons WHY PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN IS S I L E N T correctly S I L E N C E D in one respect by THE SCIENTIFIC COMMUNITY, and on the other hand HE IS FACING TO HIS GENERAL STAFF'S DANGEROUSLY OPPOSITE CONCEPTION AND INCONSISTENCY BETWEEN THE "PRESTIGEUS BUT INSANE" ARMED DEFENSE CONFRONTATION TO GALACTIC POWERS, AND THE PEACEFUL COMMUNICATION WITH THEIR EXPLORING FORCES.

Weighting these hampering considerations, ICUFON recently demanded an impartial hearing before the Senate Committee on Armed Services furnishing massive evidences by factual UFO researchers and military scientists.

This Memorandum made unmistakably clear that the hearing MUST DISBAR all those "selfcreated UFO scientists" who are crawling on the paranormal and and psychophysiological waters, conjuring "invisible species from beyond the grave".

The authentic UFO research need honest and courageous fighters on the INTERNATIONAL UFO BATTLEFIELD - Generals we have enough!

5th UFO SYMPOSIUM ATTENDED BY 100 INVESTIGATORS IN WINSTON SALEM

Over 100 investigators and researchers attended the 5th Annual UFO symposium sponsored by the Mutual UFO Network, Inc. (MUFON) and the Tar Heel UFO Study Group in Winston Salem recently.

A dozen speakers came from near and far to study UFO sightings and the new scientific instrumentation, which is now being used to evaluate the continuing reports throughout North Carolina and overseas.

Henry Morton of Wadesboro, the current MUFON of NC unit director demonstrated the use of microcomputers by UFO investigators and also spoke on "Diamagnetism: A Clue to UFO Propulsion Systems."

George D. Fawcett of Lincolnton gave a presentation on new findings about UFOs in Russia, Canada, France and China and mentioned that over 65,000 sightings on computers now have been reported from over 133 world nations.

Dr. Willy Smith of Chicago, an Associate for the Center for UFO Studies (CUFOS), told of personal investigations of a UFO, which was also photographed over five South American nations last summer.

Wayne Laporte, an engineer from Matthews related the theory of seismic activities that generate UFO sightings as he spoke on "The Anatomy of a UFO Window." He pointed out why many UFO are concentrated around quartz deposits in North Carolina and how they generate large electric fields.

Ben Haugen of Oxford, who has made a study of over 300 pilot UFO reports showed eyewitness drawings, which indicated that many UFOs are aircraft-like objects that demonstrate aerodynamic characteristics making UFOs capable of being aerospace-like objects.

Dr. Rupert Von Fox of Clemmons told of a personal encounter of a UFO, red in color and Saturn-shaped that he observed for twenty minutes near a diesel powered machine he was operating. The UFO caused the diesel engine to malfunction.

Dr. Sam Jacobson, a certified hypnotist from Winston Salem told of the use of hypnosis "Beyond The Point of Documentation" in investigating UFO encounters. A master plan appears to be at work and Jacobson said he felt it would continue to do so in the years ahead.

Dick Hall, former Associate Director of the National Investigations Committee On Aerial Phenomena(NICAP) in Washington, D.C. spoke on "UFO Documentation." Hall told how the CIA is stonewalling on their UFO investigations and emphasized the importance of "getting the facts straight" by thorough investigations of UFO reports. Landings of UFOs and abductions of UFO witnesses are on the increase worldwide, Hall stated.

Paul Norman, a UFO investigator from Melbourne, Australia gave an up-dated report on the investigation of a missing pilot and his plane, after a UFO encounter several years ago. The missing pilot, Fredrick Valentich, reported his plane was being orbited by a cigar-shaped UFO with green lights prior to its mysterious disappearance.

Libby Cocchiarella of Winston Salem spoke on her chosen topic "How Far Is It From Possible to Probable?", where she detailed the metaphysics of UFO experiences being reported by eyewitnesses everywhere.

The final speaker of the two-day conference was Tom Deuley, a Navy Officer from Fort Meade, Maryland detailed the work of the newly organized Fund For UFO Research at Mount Rainier in their support of law suits against the CIA and NSA through the Freedom of Information Laws. Deuley also spoke on the topic "Radiation and UFOs" where he cautioned UFO investigators not to be too quick to assume a UFO-radiation link. Deuley did however give details on a recent Texas UFO encounter, where three witnesses there suffered some type of ionizing radiation burns and after-effects and are currently being kept under close observation there by medical doctors.

The conference was held at the Science Theatre at the Nature Science Museum in Winston Salem. Ray Rhein of Pffeftown was the master-of-ceremonies, while Mrs. Gayle C. McBride of Winston Salem served as the conference chairman.

Nerve-gas bombs arrive

Dugway Proving Ground, Utah (AP)—A 10th planeload of Weteye nerve-gas bombs arrived safely yesterday at Utah's Dugway Proving Ground after an automatic-alert system gave a false alarm of a leak aboard the giant Air Force C-141 cargo jet.

Officials said that the plane's crew immediately donned gas masks and the bombs were checked, but no leaks were found. The Army said that a second convoy will leave Dugway later this week to move the bombs along a 57-mile route to a permanent storage site at Tooele Army Depot.

THE MYSTERIOUS "SKY STONE"

On July 28, 1952, the Washington control tower got a fix on a UFO and tracked it as it followed an airliner en route from Martinsburg, WV, to the capitol.

Senior traffic controller, Harry G. Barnes, didn't know it, but at the same time a Navy fighter picked up the same object and got a radar lock on it.

The pilot shot a machine gun burst at it and the gunfire dislodged a portion of the object which fell to earth in a fiery descent.

Back at the tower, Barnes saw the UFO suddenly drop off the scope over North Fairfax County, in the general area of Herndon, VA, a village of about 1500.

Early the next morning, a caretaker on the estate of Commander Alvin E. Moore near Herndon noticed something very peculiar; branches of trees had been damaged. And then he spied a gaping hole directly beneath the damaged limbs, which exuded a sulphurous odor.

The caretaker and Cmdr. Moore carefully exhumed a still warm and obviously manufactured object. The old-line Naval officer whistled as he realized the thing could not be a meteorite; it had three machined sides and a fourth that appeared to have broken off.

As he carried the object back to his house, his brow pinched in puzzlement, for his years of technical experience in aeronautics told him this was not from an aircraft (satellites were not yet developed).

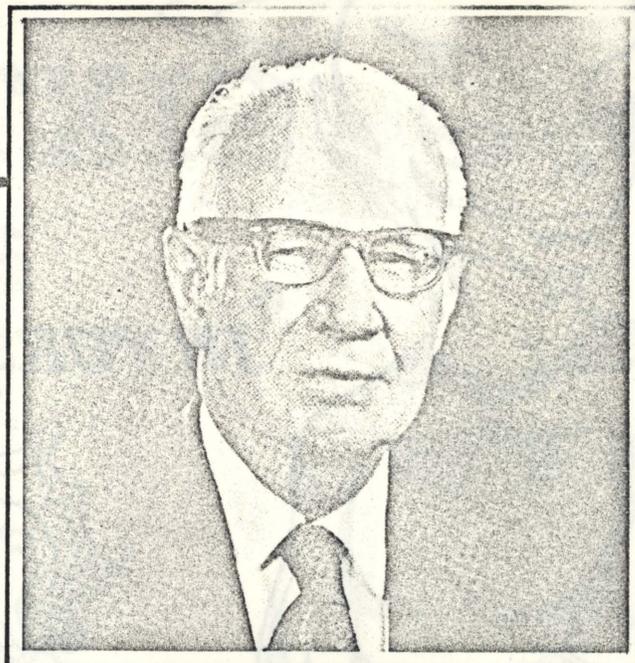

Indeed, he had the impression that the thing was from out of this world!

IT WAS GONE!

At the time of the Skystone's crash, Commander Moore was not with the CIA, but in 1953 he returned to that intelligence agency where he became an operative in the Scientific Intelligence Department. He was surprised when the CIA's director of Scientific Intelligence asked him if he could have the cylinder analyzed.

The official returned it a week later without comment. Moore returned the Skystone to his office safe.

Two weeks later he opened the safe and found the cylinder was gone! Shocked and dismayed, he lamented the

THE MEIER INCIDENT - THE MOST INFAMOUS HOAX IN UFOLOGY!

By

ABSTRACT

This paper presents in full the conclusions reached by the author after conducting a $1400.00/nine month investigation into the highly controversial Eduard "Billy" Meier case—the subject of an equally controversial book entitled: UFO...Contact From The Pleiades.

INTRODUCTION

According to the book UFO...Contact From The Pleiades, a Swiss citizen named Eduard "Billy" Meier has had over 130 contacts with aliens, recording over 3,000 pages of quotes from them, and has taken hundreds of clear pictures of their craft. He has also been given rock and metal samples which, according to his story, defy conventional explanation. The book goes on to state that an investigation conducted by Wendelle Stevens, Thomas Welch, Britt-Nilsson-Elders, and Lee Elders, has shown all of Meier's claims to be genuine.

If the events described above were truly factual, it would certainly be one of the most remarkable occurrences the world has ever seen. Unfortunately, as we shall discover, none of the purported events appears able to withstand careful scientific scrutiny.

THE EXPERIENCES — THE CLAIMS

According to the book, Meier's first experiences with extraterrestrials began on January 28, 1975. However, according to articles written by Wendelle Stevens and published in the now defunct Argosy UFO, dated March 1977 and May 1977, Meier's first sighting of a UFO occurred on June 2, 1942 while he was only five years of age.¹ Subsequently, Meier has also claimed that during that same year, he was invited to take a ride on a pear-shaped UFO by a "very old man."²

According to press releases designed to help promote the book's sale, Jim Lorenzen, Director of the Aerial Phenomena Research Organization, supposedly endorsed the book as being a genuine representation of the facts. According to Mr. Lorenzen, this is not so. Lorenzen went on to describe the statement as a "partial quote, taken out of context," and went on to say that he considered the Meier photographs to be "art," not science.³

Wendelle C. Stevens, a one-fourth partner in Genesis III Productions which published the book, says Meier sought no publicity from anyone concerning his alleged experiences. Yet it is documented that Meier informed Mr. Wilfried Falk of Mannheim, West Germany, that he planned to write a book about his experiences as early as 1977.⁴ Also, according to Jim Lorenzen,

Stevens once described Meier to him as "a sort of person who gets great satisfaction out of fooling authorities."⁵

The book alleges that some of Meier's pictures were analyzed by computer and shown to be authentic, and implies that De Anza Systems of San Jose, California, did some of the analyses of the Meier photographs.

A check with Mr. Wayne Heppler, the manager for De Anza Systems, produced a categorical denial that an analysis was ever done.

"There was no analysis performed - what we did was some enhancing to make certain parts of the picture stand out." exclaimed Heppler.

"So your firm did not do an analysis?"

"No." replied Heppler.

"But the book implies that you did, and furthermore it claims that via computer analysis the Meier photographs were shown to be authentic." I stated.

"That is garbage!" replied Heppler. "Look, what these guys did, was come on down to De Anza Systems claiming that they wanted to buy a computer from us. So we took one of their pictures, one showing the UFO, and enhanced it to make certain parts of the picture stand out. Then they took pictures of it, left, and stated that they would get back in touch with us. And we haven't heard from them since." exclaimed Heppler.

5. Lorenzen, Jim. APRO Bulletin. Volume 28, No. 10, June 1980, Page 2.

I then asked Heppler if De Anza Systems had the technical capabilities to do such an analysis, and he replied: "No. We are in no position to do an analysis."

Finally, I asked Heppler who the men were who had visited De Anza Systems. He informed me that it was Jim Dilettoso and Thomas Welch. Heppler also said he knew of Wendelle Stevens.⁶

In an as yet unpublished paper, Wendelle Stevens states that a thorough analysis of several of the Meier photos was conducted by Neil Davis of Design Technology in Poway, California. A further check with Design Technology brought the information that their analysis had by no means been conclusive, and that it certainly did not prove the validity of the Meier photographs.⁷

Another claim made in the book UFO...Contact From The Pleiades is that Meier once photographed a Swiss fighter attacking a UFO. Yet within the photograph itself, there is no visible evidence of this event taking place. After this was brought to their attention, Genesis III claimed that the pilot did not see the UFO, but that it had merely been tracked on radar. If this were the case, one wonders how the pilot could possibly have attacked something that he was unable to see? Also, if one relies on a strictly cursory examination of the photograph in question, it will be noted that the UFO appears to be flying too low to have been picked up on radar!

6. Heppler, Wayne. De Anza Systems, San Jose, California. Interview May 1980.

7. Lab Technician. Design Technology, Poway, California. Interview May 1980.

The book goes on to say that there were many witnesses to the events described by Meier. Yet the book fails to give any statements by the witnesses, the names of the alleged witnesses, or descriptions of what the witnesses allegedly saw. Instead, what one is left with are pictures of Meier sitting in a room full of unidentified people, which in itself proves nothing.

Another of Meier's interesting claims is that the aliens informed him that they originated from the star system of "the Pleiades." This on its surface is illogical, since the term "Pleiades," is an Earth-term for that particular cluster of stars. It would be a tremendous coincidence indeed if the "aliens" also called their home star system by the same name. Even more damning however is that the Pleiades are only some tens of millions of years old, and thus still relatively unformed stars. According to astronomers, they are neither old enough nor stable enough to have formed planets capable of supporting life. In fact, their generally gaseous state can be easily viewed in the photo of these stars that appears in the book!⁸

It is alleged that over 3,000 pages of notes were taken by Meier during his encounters, and that the aliens gave Meier the most sought after prize of all — wisdom. If this were the case, it appears to have been very basic wisdom indeed, since all of the supposed quotes are of a pseudo-religious nature, while advocating a belief in reincarnation and pantheism.

Dr. James Hurtak, a language specialist who has read most of Meier's writings in the original German, had this to say about them:

"As an aside, I have had the opportunity to read large portions of the Semjase correspondance (some eleven volumes of German material via Meier). From the standpoint of 'higher criticism'-- the linguistic use of Egyptian-Aramaic and Egyptian-Hebrew names (of divinities) and stylistic affinities -- is 'latter day patchwork.'

"All this shifting play of correspondances by which everything, as it were, is cheated of its individual logic creates a mood of pensive jesting, spirited allusions, and even sublime travesty. By all standards of genuine 'ancient knowledge' (e.g., Egyptology, Semitics, etc.) -- this civilization which lays claim to being 5,000 years into the future -- has not offered much in the way of a quantum jump over what our ancestors had five thousand years ago, (in the way of intellectual transformation)."⁹

In addition, the "Talmud Immanuel," claimed by Meier to be the true New Testament hidden until recently, proved to be nothing more than Luther's version of the New Testament with added passages exhibiting the same style as the Semjase manuscript

(Meier's alleged space "source") and contained exactly the same stylistic errors characteristic of Mr. Meier's German!¹⁰

The book claims that Meier's camera has been jammed at infinity for several years, which hampered the focus on some of the photographs. Since this appears to have been the case, and if Meier did experience over 130 contacts with aliens as claimed, then one wonders why Meier never bothered to get his camera repaired, so that he could have taken clear sharp pictures of these "remarkable" events. Even more curious however is the apparent total ignorance of Stevens, Elders, Welch, et. al (who, mind you, are supposedly "highly competent" investigators) as to even the most basic principles of camera operation. Even presuming that the focus of Meier's camera is "jammed just short of infinity"; virtually any camera clerk in the country knows that because of the depth of field characteristics inherent in all camera optics, (regardless of the make or model of the camera involved) a photograph of any object located between five or six feet from the camera and infinity (which in camera terminology means anything over fifty feet away) will still be in perfect focus in any normal daylight exposure. Only objects closer than the five or six feet depth of field limit will appear fuzzy and out-of-focus, with the "fuzziness" increasing the nearer the object is to the camera!

This fact alone would seem to be a very serious flaw in the Genesis III research, and casts serious doubt on the possible authenticity of the Meier photos.

Concerning physical evidence, the book goes on to say that the Pleiadean "cosmonauts" gave Meier some crystals which were unique, and not generally known to Earth technology. In addition to these, Meier was also given four metal samples, and one biological sample.

I spoke with Dr. Marcel Vogel, a scientist who conducted a series of tests on the Meier samples and whose opinion of them totally contradicts what the book claims. Marcel informed me that only the first sample was unique. It consisted of aluminum, silver, and thalium, with each of the three elements having a high degree of purity. The other samples were found to be ordinary crystals consisting of quartz, citrine, amethyst and silver solder, none of which proved to be of extraterrestrial origin, and they do not substantiate the claims made in the book.¹¹

Furthermore, Marcel also informed me that the two photos that appear in UFO...Contact From The Pleiades that purport to show the Meier samples under extreme magnification, in fact do not show them at all. According to Marcel, the photographs were part of an analysis project at IBM (where Marcel is employed as a Chemist) and that Wendelle Stevens acquired the photos by stealing them from his home!¹² Stevens, of course, has denied this, but he has also refused to comment as to where the photos came from.¹³

11. Vogel, Dr. Marcel. San Jose, California. Interview June 1980.

12. Ibid.

13. Stevens, Wendelle. Oakland, California. Interview August 1980.

In addition to the study of the Meier samples conducted by Dr. Vogel, another independent analysis was performed by Dr. Robert E. Olgilvie, a professor of metallurgy at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge. Olgilvie's findings paralleled those of Vogel's, establishing the samples to be terrestrial in origin, and hence not unique.

The last seven pages of the book gives the reader a lesson in pseudo-religious archaeology, in which the authors connect the Pyramid of Cheops, the Temple of Hathor, and the Parthenon of Greece to the Pleiades. Also included is the Devil's Tower in Wyoming, which played a prominent role in the movie "Close Encounters of the Third Kind". While it makes for interesting reading, it has little to do with Meier and his alleged experiences.

COMPUTER ANALYSIS OF MEIER'S PHOTOGRAPHS

First generation copies of ten of Meier's more popularly-known photographs, three of which appear in the book, were forwarded to Ground Saucer Watch Inc., in Phoenix, Arizona, for computer analysis.

The following modes of computer enhancement were utilized:

- Edge Enhancement
- Color Contouring
- Pixel (picture cell) Distortion Test
- Digitizing

14. Lebelson, Harry. New York City, New York. Interview October 1980.

It is the opinion of the entire GSW photographic staff, that "All of the pictures are hoaxes and should not be considered evidence of an extraordinary flying craft.

1) Most of the analyzed photographs are extremely light (insufficient density) above the UFO image. This tends to mask any supportive structures above the UFO.

2) The UFO images are out-of-focus when compared to other features of comparable distances from the camera. This is indicative of the UFO being close to the camera.

3) Utilizing the camera lens size (42mm) and the focal length of the camera, all calculations place the UFO images at distances between four and six feet (1.2 to 1.8 meters) from the camera.

4) Atmospheric effects on distance features in the pictures is not noticeable on any of the UFO images. This indicates that the UFOs are positioned at a close point to the camera.

5) Shadows on the UFOs and the foreground/background features do not correlate.

6) The three types of hoax photography utilized were:

- a) A suspended model with a string.
- b) The double exposure technique.
- c) The double print method.

For specific criticisms of Meier's photographs, let us carefully examine each one of the pictures individually.

Meier reported that the large tree in the foreground of one picture is 156 feet (46.6 meters) from the camera. Computer analysis reveals that the UFO is in front of the tree. The branches have been interpreted to be behind the UFO. The density (grey value) of the shadow (bottom) portion of the UFO varies appreciably from features in the tree. Measuring the angle of the sun as it strikes the trees and comparing it to the UFO, it is easy to observe the difference.

There is photographic evidence to suggest usage of the double print technique. The double print technique consists of two negatives, one of the UFO model and the other of an outdoors scene. Then you place both negatives in the enlarger and print the picture. The UFO model is close to the camera.

Computer digitizing scan of the edges of the UFO and foreground features in another picture reveals that the UFO is in the same plane. Pixel (picture cell) displacement reveals a smooth edge on the UFO with a uniform density, which is indicative of closeness to the camera. There is evidence above the UFO of a linear structure, representing a supportive device (i.e., string or wire).

In the photograph shown with this article, one can note the obvious supportive string or wire above the UFO as revealed under edge enhancement processing. Sizing of known features indicates a model with dimensions of less than eight inches (203 mm) in diameter. Also, there are discrepancies with regard to the shadows on the UFO.

Photographic analysis of six additional pictures has revealed similar serious discrepancies and evidence of fakery.

GENERAL COMPUTER EVALUATION NOTES

1) There is evidence of total misrepresentation in Genesis's own computer analysis, especially when the terms "thermogram" and "z-scale contour" are used. They are simply color contouring with pseudo-density slicing and do not represent any type of light distortion properties.*

2) Color contouring analysis reveals shadow discrepancies in many of the photographs.

3) Three similar, yet different sized models were used in the thirty different frames that were interpreted.

4) The size of the UFO models ranged from eight to twelve inches in diameter.

5) Supportive structures were found in three of the photographs.

6) In all cases the model of the UFO was extremely sharp in the pixel (picture cell) analysis indicating extreme closeness to the camera. Conversely, other mid and far background images were fuzzy in the picture cell analysis due to atmospheric effects affecting the images, indicating true distance from the camera.

7) Computer enhancement reveals copying technique flaws, i.e., placement (location) mistakes, therefore, the UFO "appears" to be in front of the tree instead of behind the tree, (secondary flares that would not be apparent in a "normal" exposed photograph).

* Pseudo-density slicing operates by taking a false or synthetic color, of which the GSW system has over 64, and electronically applying it to the grey value of the photograph. It subsequently produces a black matrix on the photograph so that a definite slicing can take place to study the individual area densities of the photographs.

Ground Saucer Watch finally concluded that: "It is our opinion that all of the analyzed photographs are hoaxes, both crude and grandiose, and that they should not be considered evidence of an extraordinary flying craft. All of the evaluated frames can be duplicated with a basic camera and dark-room equipment....the incidents are an updated, 1980 version of the George Adamski claims of detailed photographs and contacteeism with space people."

It appears that much of the scientific verbiage in the Meier book came from a symposium conducted by the Society of Photo-Instrument Engineers of which Jim Dilettoso attended. Dilettoso later contacted many of the individuals who presented papers on image processing.

Dilettoso also attended the last four GSW public lectures held in Phoenix. His purpose was to inquire about computer photographic analysis. After he learned that GSW had rejected the Meier photographs in 1978, (six to eight months after their initial investigation), Dilettoso modified his approach and started to inquire on computer enhancement laboratories. Dilettoso contacted four laboratories under the guise of purchasing equipment and/or their services.¹⁵

GENERAL COMMENTS ON OTHER MEIER PHOTOGRAPHS

One thing that immediately becomes noticeable is the fact that the bottom portions of the "UFOs" in Meier's photographs are always dark, as would be the case if the objects in question were small models at a fairly close distance from the camera. If the objects were of an appreciable size; say 20-30 feet in diameter, the bottoms of the craft would not be as dark as they are. This is an obvious point, visible to the naked eye. Another point that the book doesn't mention, is the fact that most of the photographs have been retouched and made to look "better" by a laboratory in Switzerland!¹⁶

15. Spaulding, William H. Ground Saucer Watch Inc., Phoenix, AZ. Personal correspondence August 1977 to date.

Also, the photograph which shows the UFO in front of the two log piles is a cropped down version of the original. Curiously, when the original uncropped photograph is examined, there is a distinct lack of a ground shadow on the hill below the object where, under normal circumstances, one would readily expect to find one! Hence it appears that the photograph was faked by superimposing the UFO onto another picture showing the two log piles in the background. This photograph can be seen on the cover as well as inside the book UFO...Contact From The Pleiades.

In one particular sequence of Meier's photographs, a UFO appears to be circling a tree. Although Genesis III claims that the entire sequence was taken in a period of a few seconds, a close examination of the changing cloud patterns in the background actually indicates that the pictures must have been taken over a much longer period of time — certainly far longer than the "few seconds" ascribed to the incident by both Meier and Genesis III.

16. Stevens, Wendelle. Oakland, California. Interview August 1980.

Genesis III's counter explanation that "clouds change quickly in that area" falls flat when one checks the weather report of the day in question and discovers that the winds were only blowing at fifteen miles an hour!¹⁷

Further examination of this sequence turns up evidence that the UFO penetrates the limbs of the tree, as if the UFO were resting on its branches. Even more startling, however, is that when the original site was visited, there was no sign of a tree ever having been there! Based on these findings, it must be concluded that both the tree and the UFO were cleverly superimposed onto photographs showing nothing but a normal cloudy overcast day.

SUBSEQUENT CLAIMS

Not only are Meier's experiences said to be continuing to this very day, but to bring the reader up-to-date on his latest adventures, Genesis III is planning the release of UFO...Contact From The Pleiades Volume II. Exactly when it will be released however is still unknown.

In addition to the claims already mentioned, Meier has also stated that he has travelled back into time and met with Jesus Christ. Jesus, as the story goes, was so pleased with Meier, that he appointed him as one of his disciples. Meier however, claims that he returned back to this day and age to avoid being crucified!

17. Employee. Schweiz Meteorologische Zentralanstalt. Interview May 1980.

Meier also claims to have visited other planets, to have travelled in time to both the past and the future, and to have taken close range photographs of the Apollo-Soyuz space capsule link-up in 1975, prehistoric pterodactyls, San Francisco sinking into the Bay after a major earthquake, and even one of God's Eyes. (Curiously, when asked why he didn't photograph both of God's eyes, Meier replied that it wasn't possible since the other eye was winking at his Pleiadean companion — Semjase!)

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

After a careful review of all of the major purported events as stated by Genesis III and those individuals involved with the Meier case, it can be conclusively shown that none of the events as claimed, contain the slightest shred of evidence to support their authenticity. Therefore it must be stated that the Meier case gives every appearance of being nothing more than a grandiose and elaborate hoax. It is certainly perhaps, the most extravagant of all the known contactee cases contained within the records of UFOlogy.

Perhaps Wendelle Stevens in a letter to Jim Lorenzen put it best: "As you well know, Jim, the book was never designed to present any hard facts..."

Chinese report sighting UFO

PEKING — China Wednesday reported that an unidentified flying object surrounded by Saturn-like rings recently raced across the sky above Tibet.

The incident, which took place July 24 in northeastern Tibet, has been confirmed by other sightings, the official Xinhua news agency said.

It quoted a meteorological official in Lhasa, capital of Tibet, as saying the bright object was surrounded by a ring of blue-white light and moved at an estimated speed of more than 70 mph for seven minutes before disappearing.

"As it moved, the center of the object brightened and began rotating opposite to the movements of its surrounding rings, which began to dim and widen at the same time," it said.

Earthquaking UFCs

by Kenneth W. Behrendt, Director of PRCTEUS and Associate Editor for The Sixth Quark Journal....

Throughout history man has feared a single natural phenomenon over all others...the earthquake! Its death toll is on a par with that which would be expected from a small scale nuclear war. In 1556 an earthquake in Shensi, China killed a million people inside of a few minutes. The 1737 Calcutta earthquake wiped out three hundred thousand lives. If these calamities seem remote to you, consider that the 1976 quake in China took close to seven hundred and fifty thousand lives and it has been estimated that the twentieth century death toll is, so far, in the millions of lives and billions of dollars.

Earthquakes disrupt the course of individual lives, economies, and the history of nations. Since about 1955 there has been an increase in seismic activity worldwide and experts in geophysics are now making desperate attempts to extend their science to the point where they can accurately predict the future occurrence of a quake. Once seismically unstable areas are identified, attempts can be made to modify buildings in those areas so they can withstand any violent shaking of the ground that they are erected on. Predicting a quake days in advance would allow entire cities to be evacuated. For example, in 1975, Chinese seismologists successfully used the changes in wellwater levels to predict several small quakes. They evacuated some towns and many lives were saved.

It has been discovered that there are many physical changes that take place in the earth's crust at the fault lines which release the energy of the quake and are its epicenter. Basically, it is now known that the earth's crust is not one uniform mass, but consists of dozens of plates which act as huge massive rafts that are tens of miles thick and are literally floating on the earth's inner molten mantle. Through some as yet unknown process, these plates are in slow motion with respect to each other. Occasionally two plates may bump head on with one overriding the other to form a mountain range or series of volcanoes. If one plate underrides another, a deep volcanic trench may form as are found on the ocean floors of our world. More often, however, two plates will move past each other and rub their edges together which then form a fault line. Unfortunately for humanity, this rubbing is not a continuous process, rather the rock surfaces moving past each other catch and snag. Tremendous strain builds up in the rocks involved until they disintegrate and the stored potential energy in the surrounding earth is turned into kinetic energy or energy of motion. The surrounding land surface then behaves somewhat like a fluid and shock waves travel outward from the slipping rocks in the fault line. These shock waves are the tremors that collapse buildings and kill people.

There are several ways that can be employed to prevent massive earthquakes. These rely on providing the fault zone with energy to overcome the tension in the locked rock surfaces or reducing this tension so that any energy beginning to build up in the rocks can be released as a series of small, harmless quakes instead of a single large killer quake. To accomplish this, powerful explosives can be detonated in the fault line or an inert oil can be pumped down into the rocks.

In the cases where the existing strain is too great, all that can be done is to use geophysical changes that precede a quake to predict its location and time of occurrence and then try to evacuate as many people as possible. These changes are due primarily to the enormous strain in the fault line rocks prior to the quake. Dilatancy in strained rocks forms cavities that can absorb water and significantly lower the water table as occurred in the previously mentioned Chinese quakes. Additionally there may be rapid crustal swelling and tilting that sensitive inclinometers can detect, small quantities of radioactive radon gas may be released, and there will be measurable changes in the local magnetic and electric fields as well as temperature changes in the rocks. All of these changes are small and, hopefully, will someday avert much disaster.

It is at this point that the connection between earthquakes and UFOs becomes important. For a long time many ufological researchers have suspected a causal relationship between some quakes and UFOs, for there are numerous cases on record in which large glowing UFOs are spotted either immediately before or after a quake and usually in the vicinity of the quake's epicenter. Recently some writers have suggested that the changes in geoelectric fields due to the build up of stress in the locked rock surfaces of the fault line prior to a quake somehow generated the UFOs that were then sighted in connection with the quake! These electric fields are generated via the piezoelectric separation of electrical charges in the rocks under strain; that is, electrons are literally squeezed from the rocks' atoms by pressure.

This writer feels that the above introduces a dangerous and erroneous concept into the field of ufology: that UFOs are just a form of self-contained, ball lightning-type plasma that are a natural phenomenon associated with geological processes. If carried to its extreme, the above concept can then be used to rationalize away the entire Modern Era of UFO sightings by implying that they are all due to the increased seismic activity of the earth's crust starting from about the middle of this century! Hopefully, the reader will realize that this is just a thinly disguised version of Phillip Klass's electrical plasma explanation for UFOs. Only instead of artificial high voltage power lines, we now must shift the scene to the earth's sprawling crust in a further effort to deny the material reality of UFOs. It is this denial which has been the major hinderance to concrete progress in our field.

Our refutation of the "earthquakes as a cause for UFO sightings" concept begins by noting that the electric fields produced by geological processes are far too weak to cause the extensive ionization of the atmosphere that would be needed to produce self-contained plasmas. To do this we would need external electrical fields with an intensity of tens to hundreds of millions of volts per centimeter. This field would have to be maintained between the ground's surface and some layer in the atmosphere long enough to ionize a layer of air and allow it to break up into floating plasma clouds that would then move over the fault area releasing their stored electrical energy as a powerful de-excitation glow that would be mistaken for maneuvering UFOs by ground observers. However, the conditions necessary to produce the hypothesized plasmas can never naturally occur, for the breakdown voltage for air is only about thirty thousand volts per centimeter. At this voltage the air loses its insulative properties and conducts electricity, thus the powerful electrical field necessary to generate the plasmas can never get a chance to accumulate...the air over the fault zone will always short circuit and prevent plasma formation. At best, the ground could only emit thin lightning bolts that would arc up into the sky. Even this is quite impossible because the electric fields created by geophysical processes are just too weak and always confined to the rocks that generate them; little, if any, of the field will extend out into the atmosphere surrounding the stressed rocks in the fault line.

Clearly then, from the above we may say that earthquakes can not account for the glowing UFOs sometimes associated with them. What then does account for the slight correlation between quakes and UFOs? The answer is really quite simple: under certain conditions a UFO's propulsion system can cause an earthquake! All that is necessary to explain this is to provide some way that the craft's propulsion system can lower the activation energy needed to produce rock slippage and release the potential energy stored in the plates that make up the earth's crust. As we saw previously, one way to do this is to inject oil into the fault to make the rocks more slippery, but UFOs create slippage in a more subtle way as a side effect of their propulsion. Before any readers begin inferring any purpose or motive in the quakes caused by UFOs, let it be stated right now that this effect is not intentional on the part of a UFO's pilots, but is purely an accidental side effect.

To understand the above, we must now delve briefly into the mysteries of UFO propulsion. Since this is not primarily a propulsion article, I will not burden the reader with the many technicalities involved with understanding alien propulsion systems, but will present a simplified picture of their methods that, although qualitative, is accurate and will give the reader a firm understanding of how UFOs trigger earthquakes (and, for that matter, moonquakes and quakes in the seismologically unstable surfaces of any planet).

After studying many UFO reports over a long period, their method of propulsion finally became apparent to me. UFOs are capable of their fantastic aerial maneuvers because their builders' technology has advanced to the point where they can do the opposite of what our nuclear physicists do on a very small scale for a few moments: our extraterrestrial visitors can reduce the mass of their craft's structures and its crew members' bodies until they are massless. Inside of each UFO, regardless of its size, there is a device we may call an "anti-mass field generator". This device is generally toroidal or ring shaped and contains magnetic and electric fields arranged at right angles to each other with the magnetic field moving along its field lines. The result of this is to generate a new type of field effect at right angles to the plane defined by the electric and magnetic fields. This new field is the "anti-mass field" and, because of the anti-mass field generator's construction, radiates out into the region surrounding the generator's torus. As this anti-mass field surrounds and penetrates the structures of the UFO and its crew, it literally absorbs their masses and stores them as field energy in the anti-mass field.

The UFO and its crew are now massless, but this does not affect their physical and chemical properties. The state of masslessness immediately makes weightless a UFO's landed unabsorbed mass that might be in the tens of tons. The ship then floats due to Archimede's principle and behaves much like an earthly airship or hot air balloon. That is, it now weighs less than the weight of the volume of air it displaces and is buoyed up by a force equal to this weight difference. This allows an apparently heavy, metallic, closed surface craft to hover without any visible means of support.

The loss of mass also means that the UFO and its crew will feel no inertial forces regardless of how rapidly they accelerate, decelerate, or erratically maneuver. In fact, even during a right angle turn at several thousands of miles per hour, crew members can easily walk about the interior of a UFO as long as some means is provided to keep their feet in contact with its flooring.

In other recent articles, I have shown that there are at least two types of anti-mass field generator. The "gaseous type" utilizes ionized gas flowing through hollow tubular windings to generate the necessary moving magnetic field, while the "rotating type" requires that a large conventional toroidal electromagnet be rotated to produce a magnetic field moving along its field lines. This latter type of anti-mass field generator can be used to rationalize the existence of UFOs with outer rotating rims or surfaces.

If force is applied to the hull of a massless UFO, then it can move at tremendous velocity through even the densest parts of a planet's atmosphere, especially if a way is provided to greatly reduce aerodynamic drag on the vehicle. Some UFOs clearly employ gas and rocket thrusters for motion, but the majority utilize a unique plasmadynamic propulsion system to generate atmospheric pressure differentials on their hulls in order to drive their massless forms through the atmosphere at tens to hundreds of thousands of miles per hour!

The combined effects of the anti-mass field and any magnetic fields near the UFO's hull result in an increase in the orbital velocities of the electrons in the surrounding air molecules. These electrons then generate magnetic fields that interact with the magnetic fields from the hull and are ejected from the air molecules to create a rich, ambient temperature plasma around the UFO. Incidentally, it is this same process that is responsible for the failure of automobile engines when near functioning UFOs; the UFO's weak anti-mass field combines with the magnetic field near the car's high voltage coil and it is quickly surrounded in an electrically conductive plasma. This causes arcing and short circuiting of the ignition system's high voltage components and no sparks occur at the sparkplug gaps...the engine immediately stalls.

All UFOs using the plasmadynamic mode of propulsion for thrust have electromagnets and capacitor plates built into their hulls which can produce magnetic and electric fields that extend out beyond their hulls into the surrounding plasma. If these magnetic and electric fields are crossed (i.e., perpendicular to each other) then they will force the plasma to flow perpendicular to the plane they define. By carefully arranging the position of the electromagnets and capacitors inside the hull and adjusting the directions of the electric fields produced, the pilot of the UFO can cause the surrounding ionized air or plasma to flow rapidly over the surface of the UFO. Unlike the motion of air over the surfaces of conventional earthly aircraft, the flow over a UFO is a laminar flow process; that is, there is virtually no turbulence or drag involved. As air flows from one side of the craft to the other (or from top to bottom) there is a pressure drop on one side and a pressure increase on the other. This produces a force that rapidly moves the UFO along. As the plasma surrounding a UFO moves through the crossed magnetic and electric fields near the hull, its charged particles undergo an odd cycloidal motion and emit what is known as "cyclotron radiation". Because the charged particles near the UFO's hull are virtually massless, the radiation they emit can be in the visible portion of the spectrum and this accounts for the many plasmadynamically driven UFOs that glow with bright spectral colors. Occasionally, much of a UFO's cyclotron radiation output can be in the infrared or ultraviolet parts of the spectrum. This explains the various heating effects and eye injuries due to conjunctivitis that witnesses sometimes report.

In space, a massless UFO or its mothership carrier can easily exceed the speed of light and not be subject to the various limitations that Einsteinian relativity imposes on massive material objects attempting to achieve these speeds. At hyperlight velocities that are tens, hundreds, and thousands of times that of light, interstellar and intergalactic voyages can be reduced to a matter of months, weeks, and even days!

UFOs and their mothership carriers do not depend on dangerous nuclear reactors for power. They carry tanks of gaseous hydrogen and oxygen which can be reacted inside of fuel cells to produce electrical power and liquid water which is then also stored in tanks. When an outside source of energy such as solar power is available for "recharging", the water is again passed through the fuel cells and electricity is applied. The fuel cells are now run in reverse and the water is electrolyzed back into its component gases and stored.

Now that the reader is conversant with some of the elementary aspects of UFO propulsion, it will be easier to understand how a UFO can trigger an earthquake as a side effect of its propulsion system. The key factor in triggering an earthquake shortly before it would normally occur is provided by the UFO's anti-mass field. Being a new field effect, this field probably is inversely proportional to the square of its distance from the anti-mass field generating it. For larger UFOs and motherships the anti-mass field can extend for some distance from the ship's hull even though its mass reducing ability drops off rapidly.

It is this which accounts for the gravitic effects motorists and stationary observers often report. Indeed, the combined action of this new field effect and muscular tension in a driver not wearing a seat belt can cause a motorist to literally float out of his or her seat when a large UFO is overhead.

Now imagine a large UFO that has entered our atmosphere and is generating a strong anti-mass field. As the craft hovers near a fault line, its anti-mass field penetrates the earth's crust and slightly reduces its mass and weight in a localized region. Because, as we previously saw, large expanses of the crust have fluid properties, the surrounding crust sinks slightly while the weight reduced crust under the UFO rises slightly. The effect is similar to if we had a large slab of clay in a reinforced sandbox and had its surface covered with concrete blocks. If we were to suddenly remove a block from the center, the other blocks would sink slightly and push the clay up in the hole we had created. As the crust rises slightly under the UFO, the interlocking rocks in the fault also rise and partially separate. This directly lowers the activation energy needed to produce slippage and the potential energy already stored in the crust may then be able to supply this activation energy at which point an earthquake will be triggered ahead of its natural schedule. And this basically is how a UFO can cause a quake.

As seismologists become better able to predict when and where an earthquake will occur, we can be sure that they will discover a new effect. This will be a UAE or "unidentified anomalistic earthquake" which will be a quake that either shouldn't occur or is occurring ahead of schedule. In almost every case we can expect large UFOs to be spotted along a fault line near the earthquake's epicenter.

Also from this article, the reader will realize how important it is that we humans duplicate the anti-mass field generators that are employed in UFOs. Besides revolutionizing earthly transportation and space exploration, these generators could be located along seismically active fault lines to release the powerful energies in the earth's crust before they can cause such needless destruction of life and property.

Killjoys from NASA shoot down UFO scare

By ACE ELLIOTT
Daily News Staff Writer

Miami Valley police radios and telephones began crackling and jangling this morning shortly after 5 a.m. with reports of colorful UFOs in the eastern sky.

Elsewhere in Ohio, radio stations, news wire services and the National Weather Service also were flooded with calls from people who had sighted colored clouds.

Springboro Police Ptl. Jim Beavers said he saw the phenomenon.

"IT WAS JUST red and blue lights," Beavers said. "I was just patrolling in the village about 5 a.m. You could see it in the southeast . . . When it started to getting light, it just faded away."

Another officer described the sighting as "two red glows with a blue ball in the center."

What everyone was seeing today came from another research rocket launched by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

NASA said clouds released from the rocket launched at 4:48 a.m. EST from its Wallops Island, Va. station were seen as far north as New York City and as far south as Huntsville, Ala., based on calls from citizens asking what was going on.

LITHIUM RELEASED by the rocket at 113 miles on both the ascent and descent created red clouds and barium released at the peak of the rocket flight.

138 miles, produced the blue-green cloud.

Another cloud produced by strontium released with the barium could not be seen without special instruments, NASA said.

The experiment was conducted by scientists studying winds and electric fields in the upper atmosphere. NASA said the clouds were harmless and should have negligible effect on the environment.

Another test was scheduled for Friday.

UFO WARNING

By JOHN STUART

UFO WARNING By John Stuart

First published in 1963, the first edition of UFO WARNING sold out quickly. Because of its shocking and terrifying nature, the publisher did not reprint this book. Things have changed, however, and students of the UFO mystery are more knowledgeable and mature. Also, a wave of strange happenings, similar to those described in UFO WARNING has recently developed, and sincere researchers should and must have this information.

So the publisher has decided to make a limited re-printing of what is probably THE MOST FRIGHTENING AND HORRIFYING BOOK ever published on the subject of UFOs. It tells the strange story of John Stuart, head of an Australian group, "Flying Saucer Investigators". He and his pretty co-director, Barbara, discovered what they felt was the secret of the discs, after which they were beset by strange occult forces and terrible warnings. Their failure to stop their work resulted in the appearance of a vile, lecherous monster. "UFO WARNING" will tell you what NOT to do in UFO research and what subjects to avoid, lest you too, be given the WARNING.

This sketch reconstructs the unidentified flying object the Thew family of Temuka claim they saw near Temuka this month. It was estimated to be around 32ft in diameter, with a height of 15ft, and with windows around the multi-coloured object.

UFO paced us, Temuka family says

Staff Reporter
An hour-long late night encounter on a South Canterbury back road has convinced the Thew family of Temuka that unidentified flying objects do exist.
Mr and Mrs Ken Thew yesterday described how a multi-coloured flying object paced them along the Waitohi Road in the early hours of the morning of July 12, approaching to within 120 yards of their car and changing colours as it went.

Mr Thew, a motor mechanic, said they had always had an open mind on UFOs before their encounter, but were now convinced such phenomena existed.
Mrs Thew said they knew by the hour of the night, the manoeuvres and closeness of the object that it was not an aeroplane.

While Mrs Thew was frightened by the encounter and wanted to drive faster, her husband wanted her to pull over to the roadside to get a better view of the object.

They were returning to Temuka from Pleasant Point with their three daughters.

Mrs Thew, who was driving, said she thought the lights were a reflection on the wet windows. But after winding down the window, the couple could still clearly see the object.

They said it seemed to be approaching the car, then abruptly stopped about 200 to 300 metres away, then changed direction and began to pace the car.

"The sight itself didn't frighten me, but the car's speedo told the story of how my wife felt," Mr Thew said.

"When we opened the car window and the object came closer to the car, it was something we had never seen before.

There was no noise and it was quite apparent this was a controllable flying object."

Both Mrs Thew and her eldest daughter were intrigued by what seemed like the shape of a "... a figure eight" which seemed to be outside the object.

In movement, a fan-like tail of golden-red colour appeared to follow it, but the "tail" was not visible when it was stationary.

The object finally "shot away" towards the east.

It did not seem to move between two points, according to Mr and Mrs Thew — "suddenly it was just somewhere else."

Mr Thew said that as soon as he got home he wrote down all he could recall while the incident was still fresh in his memory.

The Thews said that after reaching Temuka they followed the UFO, which was still changing colours to the east of the town, towards the sea.

Giving up the chase, they returned home, and the couple said when they looked up, the object was hovering above them at an altitude of about 1000ft.

Mr Thew said yesterday that although their sighting had been a fortnight ago, his wife had seen another strange light in the sky only three nights ago.

The Thews were unaware until yesterday that the shape and colours of the object they claimed to have seen were almost identical with a detailed UFO sighting in Illinois, America, in 1952.

In that sighting a nurse, Mrs Ann Sohn, described a similar shaped craft, complete with windows along the side and the same reddish colour to the object.

UFO reports cause a stir

STRANGE lights lit up the Christmas night for some Peterborough sky-watchers.

The UFO-like shapes — which shone brightly in the clear Christmas evening — were also seen right across Northampton and reports of sightings have been flooding into police stations.

British UFO Research Association Officer Tony Pace, said: "This was almost certainly a meteor. After all, we in this country are long overdue for one to break-up above us."

Lights in the sky not UFOs

STRANGE lights lit up the Christmas night for some Peterborough sky-watchers.

The UFO-like shapes — which shone brightly in the clear Christmas evening — were also seen right across Northampton, and reports of sightings flooded into police stations.

One of those who saw the 'things' from outer space — shaped like cigars or rockets — was photographer Mr David Lowndes of Eastrea Road, Whittlesey.

Mr Lowndes (27), said: "I saw it about 7.50 pm. It looked like one very long streak of light moving through the sky."

However he was convinced the object was nothing more than an ordinary shooting star.

Nevertheless, dozens of people in the Fenland area, and around Wellingborough, called their local police to report sightings.

Chatham Families Report

Sighting Orange-Red UFO

By SHIRLEY LAZARUS
Staff Writer

CHATHAM — Until Monday night, the families on Chatham Street considered themselves "non-believers" when it came to unidentified flying objects.

Now they are not so sure, they say.

As a case in point, take Charles "Chuck" Mastin, a 48-year-old engineer, and his wife, Monica.

They are one of 15 families that reported to police at 9:45 p.m. that a huge, orange-red object was hovering in the sky over their homes.

One Madison police officer, Lt. Frank Wulff, who was in a patrol car, said he thought it looked like a lightning bolt.

Another officer,

Sgt. Joseph Markovich, who was off duty, described it as a large aircraft coming into Morristown Airport.

But homeowners Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kollich and Lester and Jayne Lewy, who had gathered in front of their homes with the Mastins to observe the phenomenon, said they are not "buying those explanations."

Mrs. Lewy described it as a red, stretched-out ball. "It was most unusual," she said.

"It was up thousands of feet," said Mastin, "shaped more like an ice cream cone, elongated at one end and remaining absolutely stationary."

Mastin said that after watching it for five minutes, it took about 15 seconds from when it started to fade until it became all white and disappeared.

The object did not have a tail, characteristic of something entering the atmosphere, Mastin said. "Because of the size of it, I don't believe it could have been the reflection of a man-made satellite — it was much larger than that."

Mastin said he believed reports of the UFO sighting were widespread, because "a few minutes after it disappeared, Newark and LaGuardia airports seem to change their patterns."

Planes overhead are usually inbound, Mastin said, but he spotted several planes flying in the opposite direction shortly after the object disappeared. "I believe they may have heard about the UFO and were flying by to get a good look."

A check with Morristown Airport revealed there was no large aircraft logged in for 9:45 p.m. Monday.

And meteorologist Steve Pelletiere of Atmos Inc. for Jersey Weather at the airport said, "There is no evidence of what people call heat lightning at that time."

UFO?

Was it a meteorite or the Oly artesian?
Or simply an unidentified flying object?

No one knows for sure, but two Oregon State Police troopers this morning sighted a light blue object moving through the sky. Troopers Jesse Van Meter and Glenn Kelley reported the object had a long white or light yellow tail.

Kingsley Field Tower personnel also sighted the object, which seemed to fall to earth near the east crest of Hogsback Mountain.

The troopers searched the area, but found nothing.

Kingsley Tower personnel say the object probably was a meteorite, but the troopers have their own theory: They think the Oly artesian may have been responsible for the occurrence.

Of course, they can't prove their theory, so the sighting officially has been classed in police records as a "UFO sighting."

Four Report Seeing UFO

SAN JOSE (UPI) — Two Cupertino pilots said they had a close encounter with an unidentified flying object in the skies over San Jose Municipal Airport.

The object was about 10 feet in diameter, they said, and emitted a bright, red, pulsating light.

The strange object was also seen by two controllers in the airport tower but could not be detected on the radar.

Gary Rounds, 21, who was piloting the rented Cessna 150, and his passenger, Charles Shackelford, 20, also a pilot, said the object appeared to head straight for their plane Monday night as they were practicing landings and takeoffs.

Air controller Rich Gutterud said the object "was coming right at him. He had to extend upward (climb above) from whatever it was."

"It was really wild," Shackelford said. "First it was in front of us. The next thing we knew it was right behind us."

Gutterud and air controller Randy Blount, both of whom saw the UFO, said the light followed the plane briefly, hovered, "then it just took off at an extremely high rate of speed."

Down-to-Earth explanation for UFO

NEWARK — To a police patrolman peering into the southwestern sky early Saturday, a missile fired from Vandenberg Air Force Base near Santa Maria was a strange sight.

The officer didn't know that the phenomenon was actually a missile in flight, glinting in the early morning sunlight, so he reported it as a UFO.

The UFO had a "bright searchlight emanating from it," the unidentified officer said, while the object whirled around in the morning sky for a few seconds after 6 a.m.

An official at the Federal Aviation Administration's Air Traffic Control Center in Fremont said he knew nothing about the reported incident, but officials at Moffett Field in Mountain View knew what it was — a test missile launched from Vandenberg.

Course on UFO's at West Valley

A mysterious pulsating red light was sighted in the skies above San Jose Municipal Airport by two pilots and an air traffic controller recently.

Unexplained UFO's such as this one, which reportedly buzzed a small aircraft before taking off at an extremely high rate of speed, will be the topic of a new course offered through the West Valley College District.

"UFO's — Forward, Backward and Inside Out" is a non-credit short course offered through the district on Friday nights for six weeks, beginning Feb. 20.

Instructor Thomas Gates will provide an in-depth look at the UFO phenomena, its history, past history (ancient astronauts), effects on society and scientific investigations.

The course fee is $15 and the class will meet on the West Valley campus.

For registration or more information, contact the district's office of community services, 867-0446. The office is located in the Giurlani House on the campus, 14000 Fruitvale Ave., Saratoga.

As SBI Office Manager I can tell you that all incorporation paperwork and accounting records have been submitted to the Internal Revenue Service in the organization's final phase in receiving a letter of determination. The SBI is NOT REQUIRED to file income tax at the end of the fiscal year, however, we submitted proper forms for the years 1979 & 1980 voluntarily. It seems the US government owes us over $9,000 in the two year period according to our Certified Public Accountant. Of course, our IRS is not liberal for this money unless it alters our status from non-profit to that of a profitable business, which is surely not going to be done by them. Regardless of whatever rumors may be spread in your state against the SBI, it is suggested you contact us either by mail or phone and we can gladly give you the name & telephone number of the IRS agent in-charge of non-profit organizations (NY-district office). By the same manner, if you ever hear anything against the SBI or its directors, please inform us so we may clear the air of any confusion anyone may have. It must be realized that these persons or organizations are threatened by competition or feel their egos being invaded. The SBI's policy is not to spread rumors against anyone, not to hate anyone or any organization, rather to do the task it is meant to do---investigate and document cases of UFO activity. The people saying things against our organization are filled with jealousy since they can only dream of journeying to new and strange places to research this phenomenon. Instead, they compile rumors, lies and hatred in order to state something which allows them to remain in UFOlogy. Unfortunately, UFOlogists allow this to continue and only a few dare open their mouths and tell it like it is. KEEP THOSE DUES COMING IN...

In late 1979, an association of investors known as Genesis III Productions, Ltd. released to the general public an elaborately illustrated privately published book entitled UFO...Contact From the Pleiades, Volume I. The book concerns a Swiss citizen named Eduard "Billy" Meier who claims not only to have taken hundreds of clear photographs of UFOs, but to have actually travelled to other planets aboard a flying saucer, travelled back into time, and personally experienced hundreds of "contacts" with beings from the star cluster known as the Pleiades. Genesis III has gone on to state that personal interviews with Mr. Meier, a "scientific analysis" of various metal and crystal samples, and a series of computer evaluations of the Meier photographs have all testified to the substance of Meier's claims.

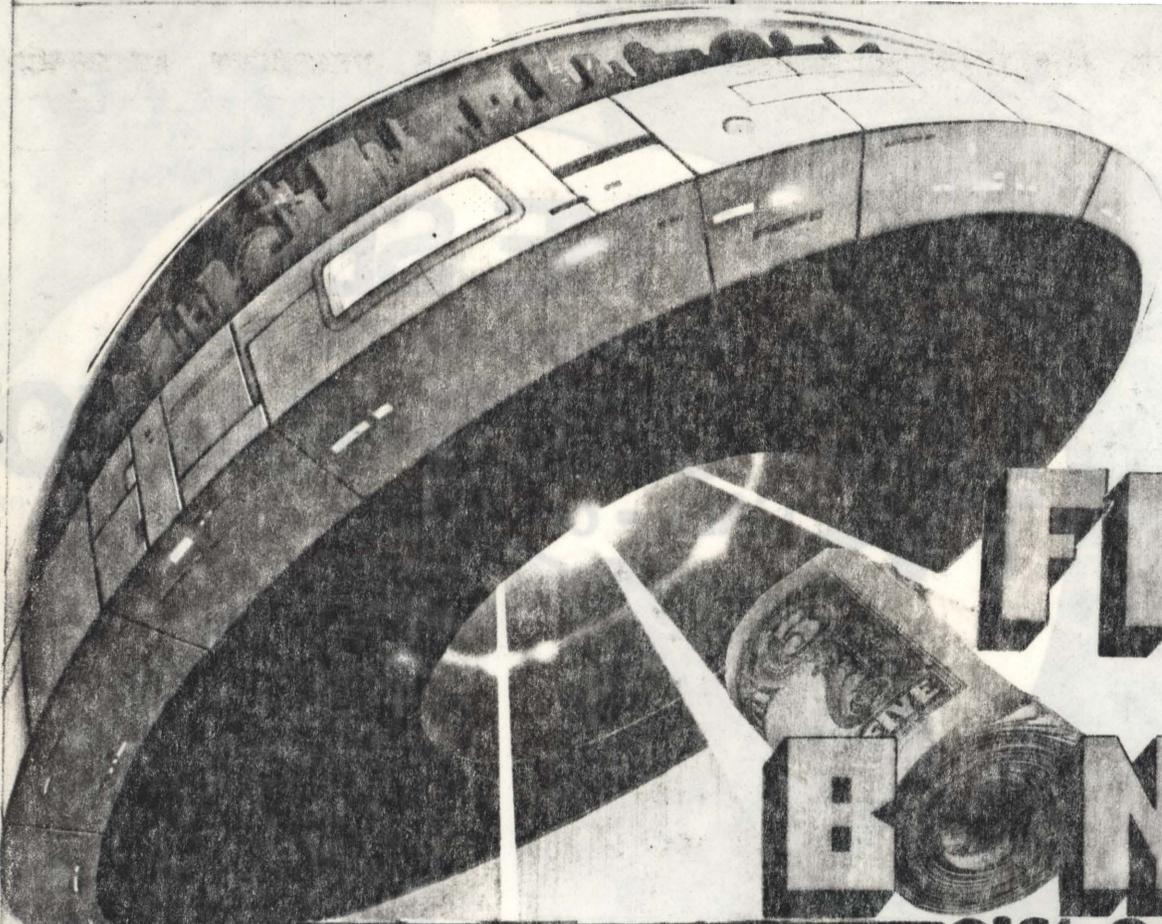

Extensive investigations conducted by author Kal Korff with the aid of numerous other UFOlogists, strongly suggest that Meier's claims, and subsequently those made by Genesis III on Meier's behalf, may well be fraudulent in nature. The results of these investigations and the subsequent conclusions drawn therefrom have now been made available in this new book by Korff, written with the editorial assistance of well-known author William L. Moore.

It is the hope of the author that this new volume, through its exposé of previously unpublished and little known facts about this alleged hoax, will help set the record straight.
