

Childhood Vaccine Controversy Arthur Allen

Arthur Allen will speak about recent controversies regarding the safety of childhood vaccines. He will touch on scientific issues as well as the motivation, ideology and historical role of anti-vaccine activists in America. Allen is a freelance writer who regularly contributes health, science and other articles to The Washington Post, Salon.com and other publications. [This program is rescheduled from March 2001.]

Saturday, November 10, 10:30am-12:30pm
Twinbrook Library, 202 Meadow Hall Drive, Rockville

Note: Because of reconstruction at our usual meeting place, programs this season are scheduled at different locations and sometimes at different times than in the past. Please be careful that you check the correct location AND time for each meeting.

The Twinbrook Library (intersection of Veirs Mill and Twinbrook) is 3/4 mile from the Twinbrook Metro on the Red Line, or take Metro Bus Q2 or Ride On bus 45 (www.rideonbus.com)

Shadow of a Doubt

THE MONTHLY CALENDAR OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL AREA SKEPTICS

NOVEMBER 2001

MEDIUM CROSSES THE LINE

For several days recently, Studios USA's 'Crossing Over with John Edward' on the Sci-Fi channel was planning a special where John Edward would communicate with those killed by the September 11 attack on the World Trade Center. There was such a negative response from the press, TV executives, and the public, that even the low standards for schlock TV were breached and the special was postponed. (Don't be surprised when it resurfaces in several months when the emotional response to September 11 starts to fade and it becomes more of an historical event.)

NESSIE FOUND

Longtime NCAS investigator spent 2 weeks in Scotland in August searching for Nessie. Here he is looking for the monster at Loch Ness (left) and his find (right).
