UNKNOWN RADIO TRANSMISSIONS

I am writing about something that has happened to get me very excited. My husband, who has a Siltronic 1011C (short wave radio) was monitoring 27.915 frequencies on Nov. 10, 1979 when, at 5:02 PM (PST) we started picking up a conversation from someone reporting to be in the approximate orbit of our moon on the dark side of our planet. According to what I heard, they are beings of pure energy and reproduce like the amoeba here on our planet. The voice said there would be further communications. We weren't the only ones to hear the voice. When it faded out people from Texas, Oklahoma and California asked others on the air if they had heard "that nut out there."

We monitored that same frequency and on Feb. 2, 1980 at 3:30 PM (PST) there was a transmission of unknown origin from a being who claims to be from the fourth planet in this solar system. The first words broadcast were: "People of Earth, People of Earth, we are standing by."

We asked the entity a series of questions. The voice said there was 11 planets in our solar system, two of which are yet to be discovered by our astronomers. On their planet the Sun is known simply as "The Light." As to why they don't land and openly show themselves, the voice said they did not intend to come down and "contribute to the hostilities." Apparently, from what was said, they are well aware of our inhumanity toward our fellow human beings and don't wish to be a part of this.

The voice said that they have, upon occasion, taken on "forms which are pleasing and acceptable," and "we have walked among you." In their natural state, supposedly they would remain invisible to our eyes.

After a five minute break in the transmission, the voice came back on. At this point I was told that I was not really speaking to a person but to a "mechanical transmitter," and that they themselves communicate my mental telepathy. When I informed the voice that we know of such things here on Earth, they replied thusly: "There are such things most usually known on your planet. The capability lies within your inner space. The only problem is that the inner spirit has not developed."

Toward the end of the transmission there was a garbled sentence having to do with their relocating in our solar system. Their parting phrase was, "Carol of Oregon, peace be with you."

I would like to know what your opinion of this entire incident is.

EDITORS NOTE: Similar transmissions have been received over the years. It's interesting to note that the first time the voice came through it was a general message which other radio operators heard, while the second broadcast seems to have been directed toward you in particular. A number of contactees have said that such messages will get more frequent as time goes on, and that eventually even TV news and radio broadcasts will be taken over by the aliens in an attempt to get an important message across to us. It's already happened in England.

UFO BEINGS BESTOW AMAZING PSYCHIC POWERS ON TEXAS CONTACTEE

BY LEE WALSH

"All my instincts of fear came into play. My skin crawled, cold chills raced up and down my spine and my hair stood on end! I froze in my tracks, trembling in fear and my heart pounded wildly! I had come face to face with these para-anthropoid type creatures, now blocking the roadway, who had emerged from that arcing, dome-shaped purple-black cloud and I didn't know what to do!"

P.R. Gailey of Kingsville, TX has never forgotten his terrifying "night on the road" while hitch-hiking from St. Louis, MO to Kingsville, TX.

P.R. Gailey sits in his Kingsville, Texas home and talks with our UFO REVIEW correspondent about his astounding UFO encounter and the psychic abilities it apparently brought him.

Bigfoot, or similar para-anthropoid type creatures, has long been associated with UFO sightings but often in a secondary way. Mr. Gailey's encounter was of long duration, leaving a vivid picture of events implanted in his mind. Also, this particular encounter brings into play many aspects of a culmination of usual UFO sightings and encounters of this kind.

"My encounter took place on Highway 281, south of Pleasanton, Tx. The mid-November night was getting cold and a dry northern wind was blowing in. I had stood for some time at the south end of Pleasanton, not able to get a ride, so I decided to walk over to a nearby service station. Glancing at the clock on the wall I noted that it was 7:20 P.M.: I bought a pack of cigarettes and a coke, left the station and continued walking. The wind was unreasonably cold now. The sky was partly cloudy with a full moon coming up in the east. Few cars were on the road and none stopped to give me a lift.

"I estimate walking about 5 miles when, despite the cold, I decided to rest. Leaning against the fence alongside the road I lit a cigarette. Would I ever get a ride on this stretch of road? I knew I had to keep walking toward my destination or turn back toward Pleasanton.

"Something caught my eye in the western sky. I saw three large spheres, the middle one larger than the other two. That particular one was also positioned higher in the sky; they were a brilliant red. Mentally I noted that they shouldn't be there. All the TV and radio towers are on the north side of Pleasanton.

"As I watched, at this time fascinated by the sight, the three spheres began to rise and move in toward me. They hovered just above the treetops in a northwesterly direction from where I stood on the southbound shoulder of the highway. I judged them to be about 400 yards from me at this time.

"Thoughts were racing through my mind. There was nowhere to hide, nowhere to run; the road was deserted. Rooted to the spot, my fear mounting, I remained fascinated at the sight of these glowing spheres of light.

"As I continued to watch, now and then I was jolted back to the reality of my situation. I tried to think rationally and started taking deep, controlled breaths, slowly backing toward the safety of Pleasanton. I prayed for a car to pass by. None came.

"I continued to back cautiously down the road and as I turned to look toward the safety of Pleasanton, I was filled with another kind of terror! All my instincts of fear came into play. My skin crawled, cold chills raced up and down my spine and my hair stood on end! I froze in my tracks, trembling in fear and my heart pounded wildly! Not more than 100 feet from me, stretched across the roadway, from fencepost to fencepost, was an arcing dome-shaped, purple-black cloud; behind me were the glowing red spheres! Along the arcing crest of this cloudlike object were hairy, para-anthropoid type creatures with eyes like glowing coals. (Fig. 1) They were only partly visible at this time.

"I basked away far enough so I could view it all without my making a move; my position allowed me to watch by just moving my eyes. Why did I think this would make any difference, making no quick movements? It was about as useless as the fact that I had carefully withdrawn my pocket knife from my pocket and was now holding it in my hand. Both actions were a desperate attempt to feel some sort of security, though I knew I had none.

"As I watched, the cloud began to 'boil' (I can think of no other term to describe it) and a dense mist rose from it, completely covering the creatures. Each time the clouds rose and boiled, both the clouds and the creatures divided. Whatever this action was, when it was finished there remained completely formed para-anthropoid creatures except for small circular areas of purple light in the wrist-hand, ankle-feet area. (Fig 2) In their movements they never touched the pavement; they could move in any direction without turning; they could disappear and reappear instantly with only their red, glowing eyes visible.

They darted silently in, out and around the trees and dense cloudlike material in the area. They obviously were busy doing something they felt to be important or necessary.

"The three red spheres were now pulsating and had moved to a considerable distance away. At this point, since nothing had really happened to me, I settled into a somewhat reluctant state of waiting and watching. At no time did these para-anthropoids make a move against me other than to block my way back to Pleasanton.

"It was sometime later when I noticed lines forming in the middle red sphere (Fig 3) either black or dark blue in color. They formed an odd pattern of criss-crossing lines that connected each other around the edges of the sphere. The lines began to rotate clockwise. I could not take my eyes away and the longer I looked the faster the lines seemed to rotate.

"I remember thinking I was with the rotating lines. I heard a southbound vehicle approaching. Thank God! I got in the middle of the highway; the car didn't stop, it didn't even slow down! The car's headlights looked amber in color and I knew the purple taillights were really red! I slowly turned to look at the red spheres; they were, indeed, red."

I questioned Mr. Gailey further about the car that had passed. He believes, and it is the only explanation he can give, that after he became enveloped in that frostlike substance he could not be seen. He also noted that he couldn't feel any "wind" of the kind a passing vehicle, going by quickly, would produce.

The fact remains that the car did not slow down and the question remains as to why. Did the driver of that car see Mr. Gailey, the 3 red spheres and the para-anthropoid type creatures and hasten on for that reason or were all concerned invisible to felt as though my whole being was frozen, including my eyes. I kept trying to keep my gaze away from the glowing sphere with the rotating lines but could not. Perhaps it is like death; ultimately you give in to your fate.

"Memories plagued me. I remembered my Dad talking about an anthropoid he had with a para-anthropoid creature, though seemingly of another variety.

"That was very long ago. We were living in an old house out on Five Mile Lake near Cory, Mississippi and I was about 5 years old at the time.

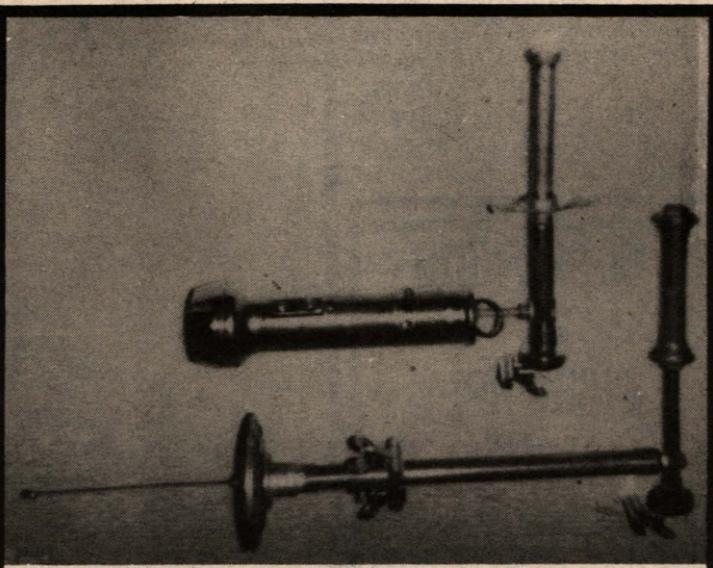

"One evening my Dad was standing outside the old house when he saw a large, dark figure approaching from the cotton field in the back. He started to call out thinking it was one of the men who worked with him. However, he kept his silence as he watched this large figure lumbering toward the wooden picket fence that surrounded the house. This was not a man! It stood a good 3 feet above the 6 ft. high picket fence! As Dad silently watched, it walked right through the fence, over a large woodpile and through the fence in front of the house. It then disappeared into the dark waters of Five Mile Lake!

"This particular kind of para-anthropoid did not make a single sound nor did it leave a footprint in the damp ground. The creature was black, covered with thick hair and had a dome-shaped head. It had three-fingered hands and three-toed feet.

"Could my Dad's encounter have been a forerunner of mine so many years later? Perhaps there is no connection at all.

"The center sphere was now coming toward me, growing larger and coming closer to the ground with its approach. It gathered great speed and I quickly realized that it was going to hit me or, perhaps, envelop me if I didn't move! With all the mental and physical effort I could expend I made a dive for the ground near the fence by the side of the road.

"I never remember making contact with the ground." In questioning Mr. Gailey being hypnotized as I felt a gentle force pressing against the center of my forehead. My head, face and hands felt as if they were covered with frost. My eyeglasses fogged over and I took them off, trying to wipe the lenses clean. To my surprise I could not! As I put the glasses in my shirt pocket I was amazed to find I could see just as well without them! I am near-sighted.

"At this point, I cannot explain why events happened as they did. With difficulty I forced my eyes away from the sphere the driver?

"Once again the para-anthropoid type creatures were evenly spaced across the highway. I wondered what time it was for I didn't have a watch.

"I tried to concentrate and evaluate my present situation though I knew I had no control over it.

"Again, I tried to wipe away the frostlike substance that enveloped me and could not. The gentle, pressing force was still against my forehead and I

PSYCHIC POWERS

Three spheres approached and the witness felt as if he were being hypnotized and placed under their control.

glasses, but the headlights were of normal color. I was overcome with weakness and extremely thirsty. I prayed my ordeal was over.

"A young Mexican-American pulled up in his car. As he leaned over to roll the window down he asked me where I was going. 'Kingsville,' I replied.

"As I climbed into the car I asked him to look out the window in the direction I was pointing. I had to know if he saw anything in the sky above the treetops.

"He saw them. 'O Mother of God, let's get out of here!' We sped away. The red spheres had moved in closer and were coming up behind us on the highway. They passed over the car and as they did every gauge on the panel rocked back and forth, the car lights dimmed and then brightened; the engine missed and started.

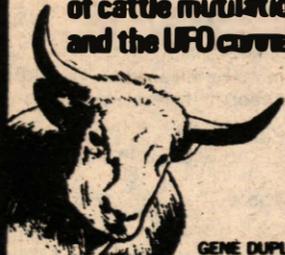

"The spheres moved ahead of us, made a steep climb reaching an estimate of 3000 feet. Suddenly, there were 3 brilliant flashes of light followed by a long green streak, turning to gold. The objects headed due south toward old Mexico.

"We drove in silence. I tried to clear my head, sort things out in my mind and come to some sort of rational conclusion. Although I had made my frantic dive to the ground approximately 8 miles south of Pleasanton, I was picked up about 4 miles from Campbelton. What happened to me during that time? I don't know.

"I returned home shortly after 12 noon on November 16th. All was in order at home; I don't know what I expected to find but nothing was amiss. When my mother remarked about the wild look in my eyes I mentioned that I had seen "something out of this world" and fell into a very deep sleep further, he explained that he later realized he had a time lapse during this period. He cannot account for, perhaps, 2½ to 3 hours of time. He feels that during his encounter he left the physical three dimensional time continuum and entered theirs.

"The next thing I can remember is getting up off the ground and brushing the dirt and dried leaves from my clothes. I was disoriented for I realized I was not standing in the same place I had fallen!

"Looking around I lit a cigarette and put on my glasses. The lenses were clean now. I was not cold. In the western sky I saw the three glowing red spheres in the distance, as I had first seen them. Nothing was on the highway, but the headlights of an approaching vehicle caught my eye. My vision seemed a bit blurry as I looked through my that lasted about 16 hours."

This encounter was not the end for Mr. Gailey, only a beginning.

Since that time Mr. Gailey experienced many types of UFO sightings and a greater psychic awareness. Like some others, he did not want these things happening to him but could not stop them. He now accepts them.

It is his opinion that some people are being contacted and conditioned, like it or not, for a purpose to be revealed in the future; perhaps for the Jupiter Effect which is closing in upon us.

Mr. Gailey says that his UFO experiences have something to do with 20 minutes after the hour, 20 minutes before the hour and deal with specific hours of the day and night. Perhaps this is when he is "tuned in." He has also experienced other time lapses, usually of two hours. In July, 1979, he was driving home from one of his usual fishing trips when he "lost" two hours. It is only 28 miles from the fishing pier to his apartment in Kingsville.

"That particular evening in July, a squall line had passed through the area leaving only myself and two other men on the pier. The two men soon left, leaving me alone on the pier as I continued fishing.

"I thought I heard voices and yet I was sure all the others had left. Was it the wind playing tricks with my hearing? I listened intently. It was not the wind. I could not understand what the voices were saying; they were soft voices that sounded like a record playing with disconnected speakers.

"The source of the voices seemed to be coming from behind and to the right of me. I had the feeling that I was being watched but I saw nothing. I checked to see if there were any wading fishermen or some in boats. There were none.

"It was during the drive home that the two hour time lapse occurred.

"I have been fishing on that pier many times before and have seen various types of craft with definite shapes; one triangular, one pyramid-shaped. Others have seen strange cavorting lights over the water also."

Mr. Gailey has acquired a sort of "dual" or "psychic" vision which enables him to "see" what he feels are psychic symbols. They are seen as tiny flickering particles of cosmic energy and move in all directions, except upward. Included are various shapes, the numbers 139, 44, and 66. They are of various colors but mostly black, blue and gray. Some are a beautiful shade of gold. He feels that all this, in some way is UFO related.

Mr. Gailey was "told" to make an ultra-dowsing instrument between June 26-July 4, 1976. This he completed, following the mental instructions given to him.

I decided to conduct an experiment with Mr. Gailey myself and the following results were obtained:

The first week of Nov. 1977, I wrote Mr. Gailey asking if he would agree to a long distance experiment. I would place a picture postcard on my coffee table in Fabens, TX. and he, from Kingsville TX., would describe the card. This is an experiment similar to one conducted by FRNM (Foundation for Research on the Nature of Man), Durham, N.C.

November 10, 1977, I received a reply saying he would be happy to oblige and closed his letter with the number 139.

November 12, 1977, I received another letter closed with the number 139.

During this time I chose two old picture postcards and placed them on my coffee table. They were the Cantilever Bridge 215 Feet High on White Pass and Yukon R.R., Alaska, and the old Davenport Hotel in Spokane, Wash.

As is usually the case I was expecting Mr. Gailey to describe something of the scenery, colors, etc.

He told me nothing! In fact, in a letter to me dated November 19, 1977, he stated flatly, "I cannot visualize the two picture postcards on your coffee table and I make no excuses for my failure to do so."

So, that was that I thought. It was really quite a simple test for those with insight.

Nothing more was said about the test and shortly after that we lost contact with each other. I must inject here a fact that is frustrating and well-known to most UFO writers and researchers. Our mail is tampered with and, at times, contacts are cut off.

It wasn't until early August, 1978 that I resumed contact with Mr. Gailey. His letter to me dated August 5-6, 1978 states: "I am beginning to understand some of these ultra-psi lines, waves, images and numbers. It is my belief that these are a form, or source, of ultra-psychic energy. 'Psionics-Ultra Physics,' in other words, I can see telepathy, or mind-to-mind contacts and messages. Just like the number 139 belonged to one of the picture postcards you placed on your coffee table that time! Unknowingly, your mind was sending this number out into the atmosphere and I was "seeing" the same number in the atmosphere here at Kingsville."

A mystery still remains. On checking dates, I found that Mr. Gailey signed 2 letters with the number 139 before I chose the cards and put them on my coffee table!

I did not notice (consciously, at least) that either picture postcard had a number on it. My only expectation was a description of the picture. On checking the 2 cards, nearly 1 year later, I found that one of them had a number on it. In small print, upper lefthand corner was No. C139!

Since then we have shared other similar experiences of mind-to-mind contact.

Mr. Gailey and I, like so many others, have both had vivid "dreams" of meeting craft from outer space and those on board. He said that he was startled when he first saw my picture because he already knew me!

Brad Steiger, in his book "Alien Meetings," says he believes that many of these vivid "dreams" are, in fact, realities. Perhaps we are all much closer to our destiny than we think. ●

PHYSICAL EVIDENCE OF ALIEN CONTACT!

A closely knit group of 13 men and women, led by Elgar Brom, the author of SAGASHA - MYSTERIOUS DUST FROM SPACE, had undergone for six years, a series of mind expanding contacts with superior beings from a faraway planet known as Etraa. Believed to exist in another dimension, these beings put before those involved, actual physical evidence that these contacts were taking place, and were not the work of over-active imaginations. The evidence came in the form of mysterious blue dust from space called "Sagasha" and a 21-inch-long scroll with writing on it in seven ancient Earth languages which no one person could possibly be responsible for writing or transcribing. Though there have been many reported contacts with the occupants of UFOs, this is the first time that actual physical evidence has been offered for scientific analysis, and is thus considered to be a major scientific breakthrough in the rapidly expanding field of UFOlogy.

UNUSUAL PHENOMENA EXPERIENCED

Elgar Brom and her group experienced directly, and were given possible explanations for such unusual phenomena as:

- * Teleportation
- * Astral Projection
- * Past Life Recall
- * Interdimensional Communication
- * Miracle Surgery
- * Biblical Prophecy
- * Mind & Light Bodies
- * ESP & Mental Telepathy

NATURAL CATASTROPHES

She was also told by these "all knowing" beings that our planet is slated to undergo a global holocaust that could transpire during our life. Civilization may be destroyed, but some of us will be "saved" in order to be "educated" and taught a better way of life, so that the Earth can eventually be repopulated in a golden "New Age" of light and understanding.

Elgar's "cosmic adventure" began with the sighting of a peculiar "cloud" formation out of which emerged three disc-shaped craft. Later that same evening, a friend of her son appeared shaken at her front door. He had heard a voice in mid-air call him by name. "We will do you no harm," it said. Moments later, he saw a UFO rise from a clump of trees with symbols on its underside.

Elgar Brom's encounter is unparalleled in history, but totally documented. She saw a being dressed in a diver's suit materialize at the side of the road. Strange blue dust appeared on a tree branch that the UFO touched, as well as time and time again where the ships and alien beings stood. The occupants of these craft utilized her vocal cords for many years to pass on vital information that is just now being released.

FORCES OF GOOD VS. EVIL

In her book, SAGASHA MYSTERIOUS DUST FROM SPACE (titled in honor of the peculiar blue particles which she keeps in an urn), Elgar also tells of a battle which is going on between the forces of good and the forces of evil. As you turn the pages, you'll follow step by step, Elgar's incredible encounters with friendly UFOnuts, as well as the various attempts that were made on her life by a "sinister group" of aliens, which are generally known as "Men in Black."

- These things all happened:
- * Possessed friends tried to kill the author;
  - * A house containing "secret clues" was made to vanish in front of her very eyes;
  - * A pet dog was "taken away" as a direct warning that she should watch her step;
  - * "Doubles" - or clones - of those involved in these experiences were placed on Earth;
  - * And a psychic vision showed her laying inside a coffin.

KNOWLEDGE TO BE SHARED

Elgar Brom has been told that the time is "right" to share the knowledge she has been given with those who genuinely seek it out. A special volume containing all the facts and details you must know to properly prepare you for the future has just been released. The book is fully illustrated and can only be purchased through the mail from our company. With your book as an added bonus, you will receive a subscription to UFO REVIEW, the world's only flying saucer newspaper, which includes the fantastic psychic supplement, "Would You Believe."

THE MOST AMAZING UFO STORY EVER PUBLISHED.

Unlike other sensitives who have predicted global changes, Elgar Brom was presented with physical evidence so that her claims can be scientifically verified. Shown here is a small portion of a sacred scroll given to Elgar's group. The scroll contains writing in seven unknown languages, the key to which is given in the book SAGASHA and which could possibly bring you psychic powers and influence over others. Learn all about this artifact and get a copy of your very own which could better your life in a matter of days.

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH BETTY HILL

QUESTION: Betty, probably of all those who have had a UFO experience, you're perhaps the best-known UFO abductee. Looking back over your experience, has it changed your life, and are you glad it happened?

BETTY HILL: No, I really can't say that I'm glad that it happened, because it was a very upsetting experience for a long period of time. Over the years I've learned to live with it. For many years it didn't effect my life in any way, but it has had more of an effect in the last few years, because I'm a retired supervisor of the Welfare Department, and I have more time to devote to UFOs.

QUESTION: Do you feel that you have a mission to tell people about this?

BETTY HILL: No. No mission.

QUESTION: You're just doing it because of something that happened to you?

BETTY HILL: Yes, because of something that happened to me, and also UFOs do come in at certain areas that I have under observation, and I go out to observe, record and film. I do give lectures. I use the information that I obtain first hand in my talks.

QUESTION: So you've become a researcher!

BETTY HILL: Right. You see, other people go out and collect reports from witnesses. I go out and I directly observe UFOs. I don't know of anyone else who is doing this. I'm trying to develop an interest in other people to do that. But it does take a great deal of dedication and patience.

QUESTION: How many sightings have you had of UFOs?

BETTY HILL: Thousands!

QUESTION: Thousands? And you're certain that what you're seeing are UFOs?

BETTY HILL: I would say that what I am filming is different from anything that

UFO REVIEW editor and publisher, Timothy Green Beckley, talks to Betty Hill about her famous abduction which took place in Sept. 1961, while she and her husband, Barney, were driving back from a vacation in Canada. On their way down U.S. Highway 3 through the White Mountains, they had their first sighting, and were later taken onboard a flying saucer and examined by its humanoid crew members. In her hands, Betty holds a bust of one of the aliens she and her late husband encountered. The Hill's story has been the subject of a best selling book (Interrupted Journey by John Fuller), and a dramatic, made-for-television, motion picture. In an exclusive interview, Betty reveals the fascinating details concerning her most recent "contacts" with extraterrestrial intelligence, as well as her own views on the subject of UFOs. * (PHOTO BY: JEFF GOODMAN) anybody on this planet has available to date.

QUESTION: What do these objects look like - what have you been filming?

BETTY HILL: Well, there are a huge variety. I've seen a wide variety of sizes, shapes, different kinds of domes, and that's only one kind of UFO. I'm also filming different types of cylinders, round balls, mushroom-shaped ones. I have one I call a jelly fish, another I've termed a big apple.

QUESTION: I understand you won't give away the exact location of this area. But would you tell us what the locale is like and approximately where it is?

BETTY HILL: I have been going out there for many, many years. I know the area in all seasons, in all kinds of weather. My area of observation is about 7 square miles. It's a rural area, narrowed country roads of gravel, market farms, corn fields, dude ranches, cows. It's an area of clear fields and a lot of woods. Lakes, ponds, brooks, railroad tracks. It has a magnetic deviation. It has a geological fault and it has a huge bedrock of quartz. There are no streetlights, except on the very outskirts.

QUESTION: How did you first come to find this area?

BETTY HILL: Through the cooperation of the public. You see, after the public became aware of Barney's and my abduction people started calling up to tell us of their sightings, and I began to pick out of these certain areas where people were having UFO sightings, repeatedly. For example, Rosemary would call and say she saw a UFO on Tuesday night. The following Tuesday night at the same time she saw another UFO. The third Tuesday night, I was out there with Rosemary when the UFO came in. She and I observed this for a good 45 minutes.

QUESTION: Obviously, from all the different shapes and sizes you've seen these vehicles must be piloted by more than just one type of being. If it were just one civilization why would they have such a vast variety of vehicles?

BETTY HILL: I have no actual evidence of this, but, in my opinion, the UFOs are all working together. And I think different types are performing different functions. They come back to this area repeatedly because it may be a safe haven for them flying in over the mountains.

QUESTION: Do you believe or have you found out from your own research that there are other areas around the country or the world where there are a lot of concentration of sightings, on a regular basis?

BETTY HILL: There's a place in Nova Scotia. There's another place in Massachusetts - actually there may be two different places in Massachusetts, I'm not sure right now, but if in this small area we have that many there must be hundreds throughout the world.

QUESTION: I suppose you're familiar with some of the thinking of researchers such as John Keel, that these things may be interdimensional, and that there are certain areas known as "windows" where these things are able to come through. Do you give any credence at all to this line of reasoning?

BETTY HILL: I look at it this way: I don't know anything about any other dimension. All I know is that we have space. And UFOs flying around in space are coming back night after night. They're solid objects. They're not disappearing.

QUESTION: But if they were coming here from some other solar system, do you think that they would send so many vehicles? Couldn't they do the same job with a half-dozen ships, instead of hundreds, perhaps thousands?

BETTY HILL: Oh, thousands. The point is, they're here and they're not leaving. They're not hopping back and forth from some other solar system.

QUESTION: Well then, they must be landing here, using a base somewhere.

BETTY HILL: Daylight sightings are increasing. I'm getting feedback from investigators from all over the country, who are asking how many daylight sightings I'm getting, because they're getting many too.

QUESTION: These ships that you're monitoring their activity, do you think they know you're watching them?

BETTY HILL: Yes.
QUESTION: How do you know that?

BETTY HILL: Because I go out, I sit approximately at the same places each time I go out. And they generally go by. I wave.

QUESTION: Have they ever waved back?

BETTY HILL: No. But they do blink their lights.

QUESTION: Do you think there's a psychic rapport between you and them?

BETTY HILL: No. I don't.
QUESTION: So then you don't feel there are any psychic overtones to the UFO phenomenon?

BETTY HILL: You mean getting messages telling us why they are here? If that's what you mean ... nothing like that.

QUESTION: Do you think they're capable of communicating by telepathy?

BETTY HILL: Perhaps, but they spoke to me in English at the beginning, why shouldn't they speak to me in English now if they have anything to say?

ON HER MOST RECENT UFO EXPERIENCES

QUESTION: Do you feel that you being selected was at random, or did they have you in mind for any particular reason?

BETTY HILL: I don't think I was selected I just think I was convenient to them.

QUESTION: You were in the right place at the right time?

BETTY HILL: Or, the wrong place at the wrong time!

QUESTION: What do you think of the other abduction stories? You talked with Charles Hickson —

BETTY HILL: There's no doubt in my mind that Charlie Hickson was captured; Travis Walton was captured; the three women from Kentucky; quite a few people, some were captured who are not known publicly.

QUESTION: What are some of the stories that have been told to you that might be of interest — stories that are not generally known?

BETTY HILL: A woman in New Hampshire who — I bet my life — she was captured. She suspects she has been although she's never directly said that.

QUESTION: What leads you to believe that she underwent such an experience?

BETTY HILL: Well, she was driving home, having left work at 2:30 in the morning. At first she saw this unusual star. She felt it was following her. She began to panic. She wanted to stop off at the police station to report it, but she continued to drive along because she felt they'd think she was crazy. Eventually this "star" came down, and she looked out of the window and — it was a craft, which came right down and stopped in front of her, and the alien looked right through the window at her, and she found she was immobilized. And the last thing she heard was, "don't be afraid, you're going to be alright."

QUESTION: She actually heard this?

BETTY HILL: Yes.
QUESTION: So that was a mental message of some kind..

BETTY HILL: Well, it could have been... and then, everything blacked out. And when she came to, she was about two or three miles away, and she saw the UFO coming up from the ground. She felt she was going to be captured. She drove to the front of a house, got out, banged on the door of the house, the people got up and let her in, she panicked. And it was 4:30 in the morning. And it had taken her from 2:30 to 4:30 to go these 14 miles.

QUESTION: Has she ever been hypnotized?

BETTY HILL: An attempt was made to do this, but they can not get her under hypnosis.

QUESTION: Has it ever been explained to you how the aliens are able to block out people's memory?

BETTY HILL: No. I assume it could have been done similar to the way it was done to Barney and I. While having us under their control, they just told us "you're going to forget the whole thing," and we did.

QUESTION: Have you formulated any opinions as to where these beings might originate from?

BETTY HILL: They are all together. I don't ridicule anyone.

tried to do this with the aliens. He's still working on it. There's a good possibility that they are about 35,000 years ahead of us. He gives a mental capacity of 7.2 and a brain capacity of 9.5.

QUESTION: Recently, we've heard of the possibility that the government might have fragments of a UFO that landed or even the bodies of some alien beings. Have you been presented with evidence that would indicate this to be the case?

BETTY HILL: You say evidence, I know Leonard Stringfield. I've known him for a long time. He's the one whose been doing the most research on this. I've talked to people who shot down the UFO and shot the aliens.

QUESTION: They shot the aliens?

BETTY HILL: They shot the aliens with something. I don't think it was with bullets. They shot the aliens with something. And one alien was blown apart, right in front of his eyes. And this man had a terrible, terrible time. Involvement with the military.

QUESTION: Was he in the service at the time?

BETTY HILL: No, he wasn't. He was a civilian.

QUESTION: Where did this confrontation supposedly take place?

I believe that UFOs do malfunction, do crash, and I would assume that the military recovers crashed UFOs.

QUESTION: Do you think it will ever get to where the public will be informed that these things have really been taking place, that we are being visited, or do you think that the government will continue to cover up this information?

BETTY HILL: Well, it's hard to speak for the government.

QUESTION: I guess you're familiar with the stories that have turned up in the UFO press over the years about the so-called MIB, or, men in black. Do you think there is something sinister involved with your husband's passing?

BETTY HILL: No, I don't, because he died of a stroke. Not with Barney.

QUESTION: What about this Dr. Hopkins who our mutual friend, Lee Spiegel has talked to. Do you think he had a visitation by one of these men in black?

BETTY HILL: Oh, yes. In fact, I'm the one who told Lee about that experience. (See the book STRANGE ENCOUNTERS by Timothy Beckley)

QUESTION: Who are these men in black then?

BETTY HILL: Well, with the Doctor, it was an alien. Very definitely, because he is a medical doctor, he is a top doctor. This being's anatomy was quite a bit different from ours. It was such (his anatomy) that it could not have been a human being. But I think that some of the so-called MIB stories, could be some guy down the street who doesn't believe in UFOs, who has a psychological problem, that just thinking a UFO could be here could be so terrifying that he's saying to someone who's had a UFO experience "keep your mouth shut."

QUESTION: Why are the aliens trying to prevent this information from being generally known?

BETTY HILL: That's a good question. It's a matter of speculation. This doctor had a man under hypnosis whom we believe was captured. He'd done the hypnosis and for some reason the UFOs apparently did UFOs continue to plague the life of Betty Hill. During the course of the last several years she has monitored the strange activity of peculiar objects in a wooded area not far from where she lives. With an everready camera at hand, Betty has taken some sensational photos which cannot be explained. This UFO was shot with a time exposure directly over her home at 9:15 P.M. on May 12, 1979.

QUESTION: What do you think of their intelligence level as compared to us? Do you think they're super intelligent?

BETTY HILL: Compared to Earth, they're advanced over us. I was provided information from a man who is an expert in paleobiology. He wanted information on the aliens. They try to figure out the brain capacity based on other characteristics, of dinosaurs. He have called me. There's a man now being investigated out in California who believes that he was present when the military

BETTY HILL: In California.
QUESTION: How long ago, do you know?
BETTY HILL: 1960, I think.

not want this man's story told.

QUESTION: Why then do they seem to be coming over on a regular basis, and on the other hand trying to prevent people from talking about it? It just doesn't add up.

BETTY HILL: I don't know what was involved in this man's capture which they felt was a danger or a threat to them. I think they were being self-protective. As far as being seen, I think they are making efforts to make direct contact with citizens of the world.

QUESTION: Are you saying, they want to be known and seen, but on their own basis?

BETTY HILL: Right. They're contacting directly the people of the world. They're preparing us for the fact that they are here.

QUESTION: Have you ever been warned, told to be quiet, not to talk about this?

BETTY HILL: Not at all.

QUESTION: Have you ever met with anyone from the government on an official basis?

BETTY HILL: When you say "government," you're covering an awful lot of territory. I've met with all kinds of governments. I've met with members of congress, talked with ambassadors to the United Nations.

QUESTION: Do they seem to take your story seriously?

BETTY HILL: Oh, yes.

QUESTION: Betty, where is this going to lead, do you think?

BETTY HILL: Well, I'm going to continue to observe, and pick up samples of the things they leave behind.

QUESTION: They've left samples?

BETTY HILL: I have enough of the things UFOs have left to fill a box.

QUESTION: Isn't this a good answer to the skeptics who keep saying there is no physical evidence that UFOs ever leave behind anything?

BETTY HILL: But they do have — things that UFOs leave behind — physical evidence.

QUESTION: What kind of things?

BETTY HILL: Up in New Hampshire, a rocket shaped UFO took off, fire shot out of the back, a piece of white hot metal fell out, which melted the snow, burned the ground, burned a large area which had to be repaired. Complete analysis, a tremendous amount of research — unidentified. One of the top oil companies in the United States examined the material.

QUESTION: Do you think they're deliberately leaving these things behind?

BETTY HILL: No, I think this had to do with fire coming out of the back of the craft. We found a piece of metal which had been heated and it was flat, and it landed on a rock. This was analyzed by a man who analyzes metals for the United States government. Some of the metals were calcium, silicon, cadmium, lithium, and there's one other. I forgot what it was. I was subjected to radium and intense heat. The proportions of the elements were unknown to us. It was a very heavy metal.

QUESTION: One final question: What do you think the next step is as far as the UFOs go. Are they going to make some step in the near future that will make themselves known to us?

BETTY HILL: Yes. I speculate on how they will do it. At one time I thought they would go through governments. Then they contacted directly with people. I think that when they get ready to make themselves known, perhaps they will take one of our satellites and broadcast to the people of the world directly. When they get ready they will say, PEOPLE OF THE EARTH, WE ARE HERE!

VARUSKA

was engulfed in a radiant light. I felt the car being followed by something travelling in the sky. My ex-husband was with me at the time, and we were not frightened, but remained calm. Finally, after what seemed to be about 10 minutes, we took a sharp curve and the highway changed direction, and the light just disappeared into the star-filled sky." Varuska says they were traveling near high tension lines as well as being close to a marshy area, where a lot of UFO sightings seem to take place.

During the summer of 1976, the Hollywood-based entertainer was laying outdoors on a large rock looking up into the heavens. "The night was warm and crystal clear. Suddenly, somewhere around midnight, far above this fast moving object caught my attention. I was certain the object was not a meteorite because it stayed in view for five or six minutes and traced a strange pattern across the sky. After performing a celestial dance it shot out of sight and was gone within seconds." Varuska was not alone at the time. "A close friend of mine was there and we witnessed the phenomena together. Later, we commented on how we felt as if whoever was on board the craft was trying to communicate a feeling of peace to us."

In 1977 Varuska had her first out of the body experience. Apparently, she traveled to a strange, other-worldly, city. "I was at the state where I was almost sleeping, but not quite," she recalls. "All of a sudden, I found myself above a city looking down at a bubble-like structure which covered this metropolis. Within seconds, I found myself down in the center of a very modern culture. There was green all around, and it was very sunny. I got an impression of intense peace, which has happened during all of my UFO-related experiences. I saw people, but apparently they could not see me. The beings here had very large heads, especially in the area of the forehead and brain. I stayed long enough to study the whole atmosphere of their place." Varuska says that as fast as she had made the trip, she was back in her bed. "I was wide awake, but now very tired and ready for sleep."

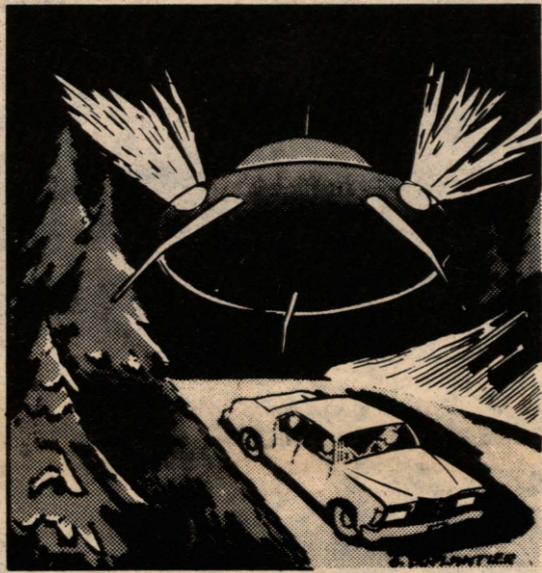

Varuska says her best, and most recent, UFO experience, happened on December 30, 1979 en route to the Detroit Metro Airport from Lansing, Michigan, on an airport commuter bus.

"It was the time of day when light slowly turns to dusk. We were on the outskirts of Ann Arbor headed down the highway when I noticed two orange-yellow balls in the sky. They were far up and nobody else seemed to be paying any attention to them. From my angle, through the bus window, I

DOCUMENTED EVIDENCE PROVES THE "SPACE BROTHERS" HAVE ASSISTED EARTHLINGS IN MANY WAYS. . . THEY HAVE LOCATED VAST TREASURES FOR DESERVING INDIVIDUALS - SOLVED PERSONAL PROBLEMS NO ONE ELSE COULD - CURED PHYSICAL AILMENTS - BEEN RESPONSIBLE FOR HEIGHTENING ESP ABILITIES IN HUMANS THEY HAVE CONTACTED - ANSWERED PRAYERS WHEN ALL SEEMED HOPELESS. IT'S POSSIBLE THEY MIGHT HELP YOU! READ ON AND SEE HOW.

Timothy Green Beckley, widely known as "Mr. UFO" has personally investigated hundreds of authentic UFO landings and contacts, and is keenly interested in the many beneficial aspects of communicating with the occupants of these technologically advanced craft that continue to come into our atmosphere on a daily basis.

DON'T BELIEVE THE LIES YOU ARE BEING TOLD

There has not been a decrease in the number of reports. Sightings continue to be made somewhere in the world every 24-hours. But there is an attempt being made to keep this vital information out of your hands!

His 15 years of researching the UFO phenomenon has convinced Tim Beckley that a lot can be learned by carefully studying the seemingly strange behavior patterns of these glowing objects that can out pace our fastest military jets and "disappear" in the twinkling of an eye.

Many of the best UFO related incidents have been kept from the public because the "powers that be" realize drastic changes will take place in society once we've "linked up" with the cosmos. Once open contact has been established, civilization as we know it will collapse and there will be a "New Age" on earth. All the contacts made by the "Space Brothers" with earthlings point to this startling conclusion.

Yes! The aliens have arrived, but before we can meet with them face-to-face certain changes will have to take place. Now, "Mr. UFO" invites you to help in the investigation of the greatest mystery of all time.

When you become a member of the UFO INVESTIGATORS LEAGUE for the next year you receive the following benefits:

- 1) A six-issue subscription to UFO REVIEW, the world's only flying saucer newspaper. Each issue is jammed with photos of extraterrestrial vehicles; stories about ordinary people who have established contact with UFOs; reports of strange creatures from time and space; weird encounters with the sinister Men in Black, and proof of an international cover-up.
- 2) Handsome membership card with your own personal ID number which gives you authority to officially investigate UFO cases in your area, and report your findings to our headquarters.
- 3) Beautiful UFO Investigators Certificate which you may hang with pride in your home.
- 4) UFO Investigators Field Manual which tells you how best to interrogate witnesses. Gives you the "important" questions to ask. And, what to look for to prove beyond a doubt, landing, or contact has taken place.

- 5) A subscription to the highly confidential, "UFO SPOTTERS NEWSLETTER," which will contain "top-secret" information on previously unpublished incidents too "hot to handle" in our regular publication. Also, there will be a pen pal section, free "swap it" ads, photos of members, and MUCH MORE.
- 6) Three authentic photographs depicting spacecraft from another world.
- 7) The right to purchase all your UFO books and merchandise from our offices at a 10% discount below what the public pays.
- 8) Full authority to use membership credentials when applying for interviews on radio, TV, or with newspapers in your area.
- 9) The authority to set up, if you so desire, an affiliate or club, with permission to hold meetings in your home and report on your club's gatherings in our newsletter.
- 10) The right to renew your membership after the first year at a 25% discount.

Yes! The aliens have landed. Now we must get ready to meet with them openly. You must do your part and be ready for the experience of your lifetime! Join today and become part of a team that has its eyes on the sky and is looking toward tomorrow.

SCIENTISTS ATTEMPT TO RECOVER CRASHED SAUCER IN SOUTH AMERICA

By Antonio Huneus

Rumors about one or more flying saucers from outer space which crashed on Earth, and whose remnants were rapidly secured and withheld from the public by the United States military were first popularized in the early fifties by Frank Scully, a writer from Variety magazine. Scully was one of the very first to punch hard against the Air Force line of debunking and minimizing UFO reports. Back in 1950, and after revealing fantastic stories of crashed saucers in New Mexico with dozens of dead tiny humanoid bodies in the hands of the U.S. Government, Scully advised his readers to "throw in the fire, unread all the Pentagon denials from this day forward."

Thirty years have lapsed and, literary effects aside the Scully story still remains a mystery. Despite all denials to the contrary, an increasing number of personal accounts and bits of information appears to confirm the fact that, yes indeed UFOs have crashed and the Pentagon and the CIA are precisely not too ignorant about it. On top of this, saucers are reported to crash here and there to this day such as the promptly hushed-up incident in the hills of El Taire in Bolivia's Tarija province. On May 6, 1978, a cylindrical, metallic-looking object with a white trail of smoke behind was seen by hundreds of witnesses around the border between Argentina and Bolivia. The shock wave produced by the object's crash in the hills of El Taire was heard and felt for many miles. The object was then rapidly recovered by the Bolivian Army and taken to an Air Force base. The South American press was still asking whether the crashed object was a meteorite or a satellite re-entering Earth's atmosphere — as had happened recently in Canada with a nuclear-powered Soviet COSMOS satellite — when American officials presumably from NASA reportedly took the space object. Where to? NASA headquarters? CIA headquarters in Langley, Virginia? The mythical military warehouse filled with extraterrestrial junk? No one knows and no one is talking either. My queries to the Bolivian Air Attache in Washington, D.C. were never responded to and the whole case seems to have entered by now the annals of the "twilight zone," or what Charles Fort would've called the "damned" records.

These include Diario El Tiempo and Revista Alternative in Bogota, Columbia, and Revista Que Pasa in Santiago, Chile. For the past two years, he has published stories regularly in High Times Magazine and contributed feature stories for the last six issues to Ideal's UFO Magazine. He has written about 50 articles on UFOs, space affairs and related phenomena in many of these and other publications. He also contributed work for The Complete Flying Saucer Book by Mike Luckman and Harold Harris, to be published this summer by Simon & Shuster.

Paxton, who also happened to be in the area, and one of the most fascinating investigations on record began.

Well-equipped, the team of geologists set on foot to unravel the mysteries of the Carcarana object. Convinced it was a stone that had fallen from the sky the explorers decided that a perforation was necessary. Two local workers, Jesus Villegas and Pedro Cerro, were hired to cut through the object's rough surface. The first chemical analysis revealed that portions of the object were composed of coal in a graphite state, sulphur of magnetized iron, magnesium and iron, as well as silicon, calcium and other minerals. But it wasn't until six days of hard labor had passed that the object's real secrets began to be unraveled. The hole in the "stone" conducted to a small chamber in which the explorers found an object of white metal — silver and zinc — decorated with strange drawings which looked like an amfor. The explorers then found that they were standing over a plate of oxidized metal. After working for about an hour and a half, they were finally able to break the floor and descend into a larger chamber where astounded, they saw the body of "a planetary inhabitant" lying over what they believed to be a rectangle-shaped tomb.

It looks like a good story, but where is the hard evidence, you may ask. After all, the "Carcarana Stone" was discovered in 1877, it was big enough to produce some sensation in the scientific journals of the time and besides, there wasn't then a CIA-type of agency to get quickly into the scene, hush-up all the facts and cover the story as long as possible. Perhaps. The case, however, is more than just another one from the hundreds of unconfirmed stories which routinely rumble in and out of saucer lore. It was thoroughly investigated by a respected Argentinian Ufologist, Antonio Las Heras, whose research has been published in several Spanish, Mexican and Argentinian journals. It would seem unlikely for him to put his reputation at stake on a known dubious case.

Las Heras has produced original 1877 news clippings from La Capital describing the discovery under the headline of "EUREKA! EUREKA! AMAZING DISCOVERY IN CARCARANA. THE WORLD'S LARGEST KNOWN METEORITE." After preliminary explanations, the article continues with the sub-headline of "A Planetary Inhabitant." Las Heras was also able to locate some old inhabitants of the region, whose families had lived there for several generations. One of them remembered having heard his grandfather telling his father stories of "a celestial marvel consisting of a ball of fire that was nailed to the ground not far from the village." Other farmers saucers, however, are not only exclusive to the heyday of saucer hysteria during the Cold War nor to the more recent wave of UFO activity. Stories go deep into the past, possibly veiled in legends, myths and fables of "clouds of fire" and angelic astronauts from the Bible. Although possibly true, these stories are nevertheless very hard to prove. There is another case a bit over a hundred years old, in which a gigantic "stone" was discovered by a geologist near the Carcarana river, only a few miles from the town with the same name in Argentina's Santa Fe province. A regular stone, or irregular for that matter, it was not. The geologist and two of his friends who were also geologists, were able to penetrate into the stone's hollow interior.

A series of articles and letters to the editor appeared in La Capital, at that time Santa Fe's leading newspaper, calling the discovery "un aerolito" (aerolite, meteorite) for lack of a better name. Yet, the geologists found several objects inside, including something like an amfor that looked definitely man-made, or at least, intelligently conceived. Even more, the geologists discovered some silver plates with some kind of planetary charts and a platform with a dead humanoid lying on it. When they tried to remove the alien cadaver, parts of it were pulverized, yet they were able to take the head almost intact. "It has no hair," reported one of the geologists in La Capital; "the skin must have been very smooth and without beard, but now it's wrinkled, looking like rugged leather; the brain is triangular, the face flattened. Instead of a nose, it has a trunk (like of an elephant — ed.) emerging from the front; its mouth is small and has only 14 teeth..."

The being with a trunk instead of a nose described before was not very tall. The orbits of his eyes were empty and he had two long arms ending in hands with five fingers each. Near his body the investigators found a gigantic meteorite from outer space, Sevarg next called two colleagues, the American geologists Davies and John

What may turn out to be the most sensational photographs ever released in the United States endeavors to show the charred remains of a humanoid being that was found among the remains of a UFO that crashed near the Mexican border more than three decades ago. Kept secret for all these years, the details surrounding the alleged crash were recently leaked out by a retired military man to the Mid-West editor of this publication.

Charles Wilhelm of Fairfield, Ohio, along with fellow researchers Dennis Pilichis of the UFO Information Network in Rome, Ohio, and William McIntyre, of Baltimore, Maryland, say the photographic documents came into their hands a little more than a year ago, and that for the past twelve months they have been checking out the authenticity of the pictures in their possession.

"We were given these two photos by a retired U.S. Navy photographer who took them during the summer of 1948," states Charles Wilhelm in an exclusive interview. "According to what he has told us, an object was tracked on radar moving across the Southwestern United States on July 7th. The craft was said to be moving at higher speeds than any known aircraft of the day. Supposedly, the object ran into trouble and crashed to the Earth, impacting in Mexico, 30 miles south of Laredo, Texas."

Military personnel from the U.S. were supposedly invited into the area to go through the wreckage of the downed saucer. Among those flown to the site of the impact was the navy photographer who asks to remain anonymous at this time, though he has talked to UFO researcher Wilhelm numerous times, and has indicated that he may allow his true identity to become known in the near future. "Along with the remains of the crashed interstellar vehicle representatives are said to have found several beings who were burned beyond recognition." Wilhelm says that one of the small-in-stature aliens was pulled from the river bank where he had been thrown upon impact, and was laid on his back. "The naval photographer took many pictures and though he was supposed to turn all the negatives over to the military, he managed to hold onto a roll of film." Wilhelm says that while he has only been given two of the pictures to release now, he hopes to obtain the rest of the photographic evidence shortly.

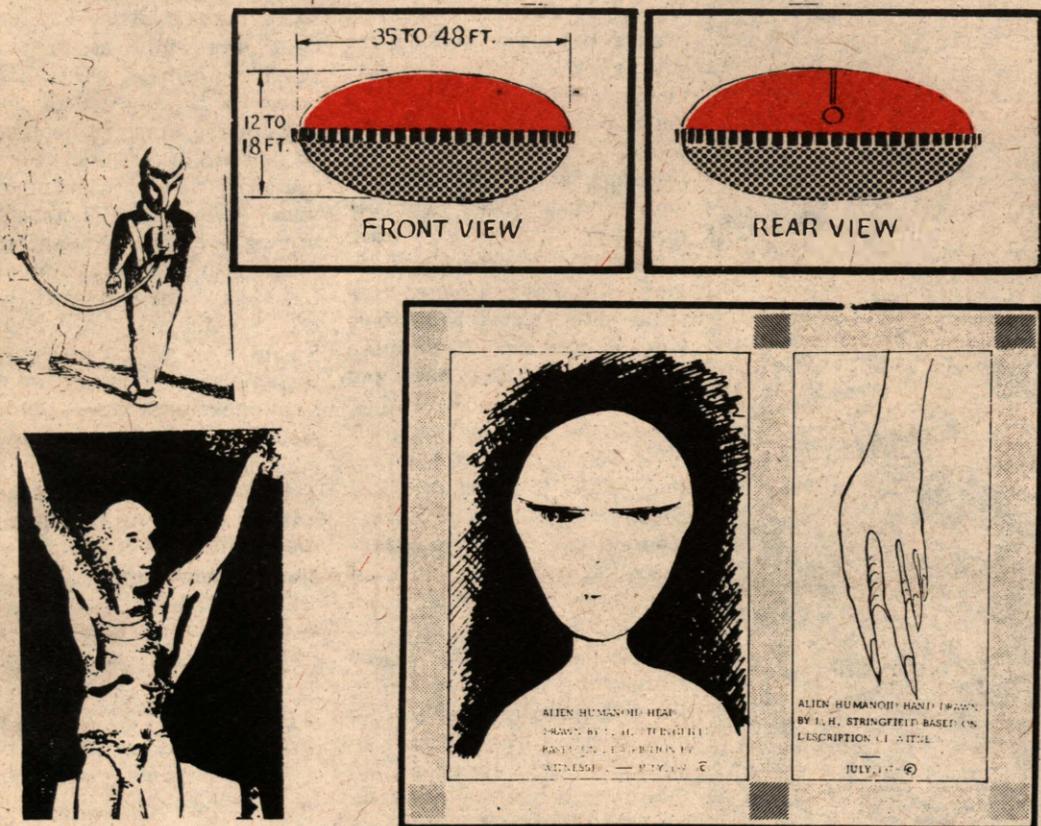

"The wreckage of the craft was divided between the Mexican and American military, but I have been told that the

A case study of alleged UFOs and occupants in military custody

This book (offered for the first time anywhere) contains first hand testimony of those individuals who actually witnessed the military involvement in the removal of crashed UFOs and their deceased alien pilots. Author Leonard Stringfield made headlines last year when he released his partial findings to the press. Now find out the complete story and see letters, illustrations and other proof that this is all true. remains of the aliens were all taken to the Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio."

The initial release of the photographs and the backup story were first released at a meeting of a newly formed organization, The Coalition of Concerned UFOlogists in America, made up of Wilhelm, Pilichis and McIntyre, as well as other investigators who are trying to check into the validity of the various stories that have recently come to the attention of the media, concerning crashed UFOs and the remains of their unearthly occupants, supposedly kept under wraps by the U.S. government.

Dennis Pilichis has told UFO REVIEW that the original negatives have been subjected to scrutiny by photographic experts who insist that they are at least 30 years old. In addition, computer enhancement tests confirm the validity of the negatives, and minute examination by microdensitometer techniques prove the bodies have not been superimposed on the background. How do the Coalition members know for sure their informant is not lying? "We checked this out for more than a year before we released our findings," Charles Wilhelm points out. "We weren't about to jump into this without getting as much backup evidence as possible. We checked out the photographer's credentials with the Pentagon and we discovered that he was stationed exactly where he says he was during the time of this particular incident. We don't have any reason to suspect that he's fabricating."

Readers who have followed the UFO saga for any length of time, are doubtlessly familiar with the many stories involving crashed saucers and dead little men said to have been found in various parts of the country during the late 1940's. Up until lately, most of these stories could easily be placed in the category of wild speculation since no one would come forward to document these interesting, but highly suspicious tales. Noted journalist Frank Scully first shocked the nation when his book, "BEHIND THE FLYING SAUCERS," hit the best seller list in 1950. Scully had been told of the crashed saucers by a "highly informed" source who had inspected the wreckage first-hand before it was confiscated by the military and carted away to an undisclosed location (later that undisclosed location was said to be Hanger 18 at Wright-Patterson where even Senator Barry Goldwater couldn't gain admission). Scully's story over the years has generally been discredited because of his dubious sources, mainly two self-confessed con men in a land and oil fraud deal. However, because of the fact that such rumors have persisted, many UFO researchers have felt there might actually be a germ of truth in these far fetched accounts.

In the last few years,

Cincinnati UFOlogist Leonard Stringfield has collected some thirty stories told to him by retired military personnel who were either involved in removing the aliens from the wreckage of UFOs, or talked with fellow officers who swear that such crashes have occurred, and that the U.S. government has the remains of both interplanetary craft and alien crew members tucked away somewhere, hidden from the eyes of the public.

Even more recently, noted writer Charles Berlitz and researcher William Moore co-authored The Roswell Incident, a book in which they explore in depth the circumstances surrounding a disc that went down in New Mexico in early July, 1947. A press release was even issued by Walter G. Haut, the Public Information Officer at Roswell Army Air Force Base, to the effect that a strange vehicle was found on the property of a nearby rancher who informed the military of his findings. The release states that the wreckage was placed into the hands of the "509th Bomb Group of the Eighth Air Force," and "loaned by Major Marcel to higher headquarters."

And while both military personnel and civilians who remember details of the crash swear that the object was no conventional craft nor one they had ever seen before, the object in question was apparently "switched" shortly after its recovery, and a balloon

Pilichis states. "We have an interesting document in our possession which relates to a possible overflight and crash of a mysterious object in 1949." Pilichis and his group obtained the document through the Freedom of Information Act. "The letter is from the Kirkland Air Force Base in New Mexico, and is addressed to the Chief of Staff, USAF Director of Special Investigations. It is dated January 31, 1949, and reveals details of an overflight of an object seen by at least 30 different people. The object was seen and reported from El Paso, Albuquerque, Alamogordo, Roswell, Socorro, and other locations. All reports appeared to be of the same object at different points in its trajectory."

The document which is reproduced along with this article, states that unless they were instructed to the contrary, the base commander would make an all-out investigation with a view to locating the actual impact point.

Like most serious investigators, UFO REVIEW is anxious to get to the bottom of this mystery. We'd like to know the truth regarding these many stories. We have already published several interviews pertaining to this puzzle. Columnist Gray Barker has spent many hours talking with Professor Robert Carr who has a great deal of information, and we have published statements published by Dr. Sevarg in a letter to the editor of La Capital, in which he invited any interested reader to visit him to see the remains of the spaceship and its pilot. After a few mentions in the newspaper, the excitement generated by the celestial marvel faded away. The last reference Las Heras was able to uncover was a festive invitation in La Capital to "see the details of the famous discovery" in some kind of exhibit where "wine from the Rhine would be served in the same amphor founded by the planetary geologists."

The trail ends there entering next into the annals of the "damned," that "Super Sargasso Sea" of weird phenomena that haunted throughout the 19th century's rationalism and positivism. Las Heras, however, confirmed the existence of Dr. Sevarg and the recorded visit of his American peers, Davies and Paxton. The final whereabouts of the three geologists are indeed quite hard to trace over 102 years after the original incident.

recalled having heard accounts of "a rain of fire" that had fallen near the river.

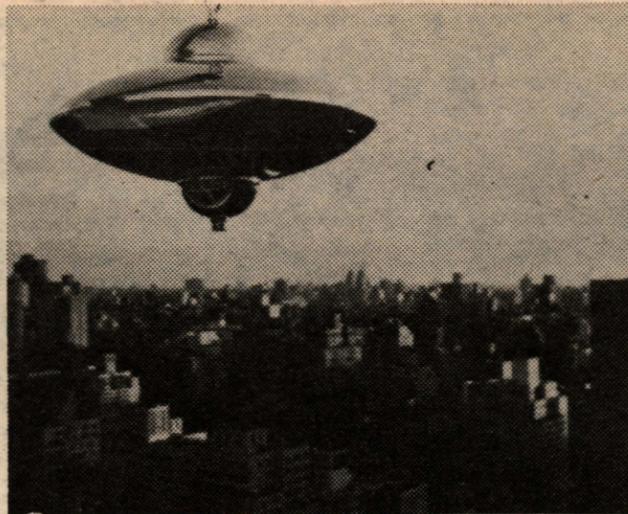

The "Carcarana" case certainly merits to be narrated in full detail, at least as much as it is known. Perhaps the "celestial marvel" is still hidden somewhere in the Carcarana countryside covered by vegetation and waiting to enter the era of modern-day UFOlogy, and perhaps revolutionize it. If nothing else the bizarre reports about the discovery of the "world's largest known meteorite" deserve their full place in the history of Fortean phenomena.

The Argentinian province of Santa Fe in the 1870s probably fits our modern stereotypes of the American Far West. Rugged 'gauchos' (cowboys) would sit all night over the fire telling stories of courage in the wild while sipping a cup of 'mate,' the mildly exhilarating and energizing popular South American herb tea. For some there was a story far more stranger than all the knife fights under the moonlight, the day they raided an Indian settlement or heard that a new 'caudillo'

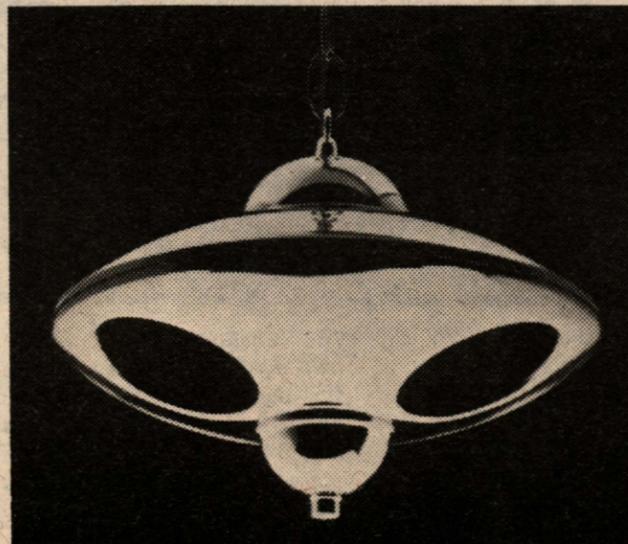

(military leader) had taken things back in Buenos Aires. In October, 1877, the 100 or so inhabitants of Carcarana, a village founded only seven years earlier, heard about a wondrous "aerolite" discovered near the river. Luck or destiny would have it that a trained geologist, a certain Dr. A. Sevarg was in the area to recover his health. One day in October, while walking along the river not far from the town, Sevarg noticed what he first termed "a black stone." Its huge size, ovoid form and vitrified surface, immediately drew Sevarg's attention, who instantly concluded that he had found a silver plate with some kind of stellar map. According to Sevarg's interpretation, "we have approximately found the orbits which separate Mercury Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter and Neptune. Of these, only the planet Mars is depicted larger; isn't this particular distinction pointing out to the love of its inhabitants? According to our view, it seems reasonable to assume that the meteorite is an infinitesimal part of that planet, which arrived on Earth by God's will to teach us that there are rational beings in other worlds."

EXPLORING UNEXPLAINED MYSTERIES OF EARTH, SPACE & TIME

NO ONE CAN EXPLAIN ...

THE BRISTOL HUM

By Jon Douglas Singer, M.A.

Last May 12, a report of a rare phenomenon suddenly appeared on national television, on the CBS Evening News, with Walter Cronkite. Peculiar humming noises were heard by residents of Bristol, a sea port city in the west of England. This humming noise was presented to American TV viewers as a bizarre enigma, a problem without a solution.

What was the Bristol hum? A CBS broadcast offered a few theories suggested by Bristol residents. One theory said that the Russians were causing the buzzing, humming noises, perhaps as a test of an environmental weapon. The second, more fanciful theory, was that witches were causing the strange sounds. Witches were suspected because the sounds occurred mainly at night, when it is said witches' covens meet. The oddest theory was that space people were responsible because the humming noises resembled the humming noises made by flying saucers. Apparently, people thought that UFOs were zooming overhead.

The British Department of Investigating the Enigma, since it was thought that noise pollution from local factories as the most likely cause, as far as government officials were concerned. Interestingly enough, reporter Cronkite even played a tape recording of the eerie sounds during his broadcast. This report fascinated me since similar sonic phenomena reported in the past were rarely tape-recorded. The CBS report ended in puzzlement. It appeared that this was one of the few occasions in which a tough news team was really baffled by an extraordinary phenomenon.

Another report on the Bristol Hum was printed by The New York Times on Sunday, May 18, 1980. Reporter Richard Haight wrote that the noise was low and droning in sound, "...shredding nerves." It occurred usually in still weather. The fact that the humming noises occurred in "still weather" inspired a new theory, one supported by the Bristol city environmental department. The new theory suggested that the sounds were caused by weather during "anticyclonic conditions." These were periods of very still weather.

Indeed, Ewen Robeson, assistant chief environmental officer of Bristol said, "We think it might well be industrial noise accentuated by climatic phenomena." In fact, in only a short time since the beginning of the phenomenon, over 100 telephone calls registering complaints had been lodged with the environmental office. There were many who could not sleep because the noise was so loud.

The environmental department of Bristol set up eight monitoring devices at locations around the city. One of the more baffling aspects of this mystery is that not everyone hears the Bristol Hum. Environmental health officer Paul Cooper said, "I've never heard it myself actually. Some do, some don't."

A follow-up report appeared in the New York Times on June 29. The mystery persisted. It seems that the very staid newspaper was obviously nonplussed by the Bristol Hum. Writer Haight described it as, "...a low, droning noise that gnawed nerves and kept the keen of hearing awake at night."

This time, however, the occult explanations of the CBS report were forgotten and now noise pollution was the main theory. Environmental officers led by Chief Environmental Health Officer Donald Barnett traced the source of the humming to an area of large industrial plants. Barnett said that the Bristol Hum "is clearly emanating from the area at Avonmouth and Severnside," in the northwestern part of Bristol. There were three chemical factories there and Barnett added, "We've got a hunch as to which one it is but we need to prove that scientifically."

The British environmentalists hoped to conduct more tests "in the next couple of weeks." Then the government would hold talks with the offending factory's owners. Barnett was convinced that the riddle would be solved soon, "Possibly within two or three months it should be bottled up," he said.

A fourth account of the Summer 1980 edition of The Atlantic Journal. John Day, a Bristol TV reporter commented, "You can't imagine how annoying it is. It's like a low droning noise, like a hiss."

Environmental officer Donald Barnett was interviewed again and he said, "People wake up in the middle of the night, hear the noise, and then find it difficult to get back to sleep. We've found that it's pitched at a particular frequency which can be irritating." It appeared that this time, the team of British investigators were getting close to a solution. Barnett revealed that the time when the sounds most often took place was from midnight to about 6:00 A.M. Furthermore, it was possible that the noises were caused by port facilities or by chemical and aerospace factory machinery. A Rolls Royce auto factory might also be one of the causes. I assume that as factories often have night shifts then that is why there would be machine noises in the middle of the night.

I would have almost accepted the noise pollution theory as the source of the Bristol Hum until I remembered that England, and indeed, other countries, experienced similar occurrences earlier. A few years ago a famous British ufologist, Brinsley LePoer Trench wrote a book entitled, The Secret of the Ages. This book discusses lost civilizations and theories about the origins of UFOs. Specifically, Trench thought that some UFOs were flown by descendants of Atlanteans who escaped the destruction of Atlantis and who now lived in secret underground cities! What do underground cities have to do with the Bristol Hum? I will endeavor to show the relationship.

First, by coincidence it should be known that bizarre humming noises identical to the Bristol Hum were reported as early as the 1950's, even earlier. One case occurred in September, 1953, in the towns of Leigh-on-Sea and Chalfont St. Giles in the English county of Buckinghamshire. The sounds resembled a loud vibration that kept people awake at night. British ufologist Harold Wilkins investigated and found that the noises were not caused by construction or factories.

Trench reported a more recent case that happened in South fields near London on December 5, 1963. Once again, machinery such as generators was blamed but the mystery deepened because residents in the next town, Putney, also heard the humming sounds. Putney is a mile from South fields.

A third case occurred in Kent County, England, in the mid 1960's. Mrs. Aylett Hyams, a resident of the town, reported that the humming was so loud and persistent that many residents moved away.

The most recent British case, prior to the Bristol Hum, took place in 1972 in Bournemouth. It was almost identical in nature to the one in Bristol. Trench quoted the newspaper, The Sunday Express of June 18, 1972, "A mysterious high-pitched hum is plaguing people who live near Bournemouth. They say it is wearing down their nerves. And it alarms them even more because usually other members of their families cannot hear it."

Sound familiar? This is identical to the current descriptions of the Bristol Hum! A witness, one Mr. Paul Wallace, said, "Everyone who hears the noise agrees that it is like having a dynamo in the head. It's a ringing hum...which is very painful."

Once again, residents were kept awake at night. Wallace was so bothered by the humming that he paid an expert 2000 pounds to determine the cause. The expert was stumped. Author Brinsley LePoer Trench suggested a theory about the odd vibrations. He thought that it was possible that Atlanteans living underground were reactivating ancient machines with which they were drilling new tunnels or re-excavating old ones that have caved in.

The idea of underground cities is not as far-fetched as it might seem at first glance because archaeologists have actually entered some and excavated a few of the tunnels! These are in Turkey, according to Dr. Ron Anjard, who is an expert on subterranean cities for Pursuit magazine, the journal of the Society for the Investigation of the Unexplained, issue of Summer, 1978.

One is at Derinkuyu, Turkey, and nearby are no less than 30 of the vast tunnel complexes. They had bedrooms, storage chambers, wine cellars, toilets, and kitchens. There were ventilation ducts and some cities even had tunnels connecting them to other, nearby underground cities in a sort of precursor of the Manhattan subway system! One of the cities had as many as 100,000 people.

Artifacts found in the city at Derinkuyu village dated the site to 2000 B.C. The floor plan of the cities couldn't be mapped in their entirety because a cataclysm had caused cave-ins and flooding in the lowest levels. The name of the people who built the underground cities is unknown, and the names of the individual cities are lost. It appears that the unknown civilization was destroyed by the invading Hittites, an Indo-European people whose horse-drawn war chariots and bronze battle-axes were superior to the weapons of the subterranean people. Later, the caves were briefly reinhabited by Christian Byzantine Greeks who were fleeing from Arab and Turkish invaders.

Anjard added that there were buried cities in France, his source being Erich Von Daniken. No details were given. He also stated that there were 44 ancient underground cities in North America, six being on the West Coast. No details were given, and Anjard's sources were anonymous American Indians.

We might therefore take Trench's theory about underground Atlanteans more seriously but we need more evidence before we can conclude that this fascinating theory is fact, not science fiction.

While there is scant evidence for underground cities other than the ones in Turkey, there is abundant evidence that the humming noises have been heard across the world, even in America.

Mysterious humming sounds have been noted in Scotland, in 1895. One C. Tomlinson wrote in Nature, issue of November 28, 1895, and reprinted in William Corliss' sourcebook, "Strange Phenomena," that country people heard what they called, "humming in the air." He heard them in the fields near his house. The humming was like that of, "...a large swarm of bees."

The sound began at noon and was heard until 2:00 P.M., on calm days in July. The sounds usually occurred in open areas. The humming began as a faint murmuring that then grew louder. The sound grew fainter when Tomlinson and his companions moved away from the source. The sound was supposedly caused by bees but nobody ever found any insects at the spots where the hums occurred, Tomlinson said.

Tomlinson added that one researcher had objected to the insect theory because the noises occurred in only one or two fields, not everywhere which would be the case if insects had caused it. Tomlinson noted that a similar case had taken place in the hills of Cheshire, England (the exact range of hills isn't named). He said that when the wind is easterly, and calm on the lowlands, a hollow, moaning sound is heard. Local folklore calls it, "the coughing of the wind." This phenomenon was even known to Sir Walter Scott. That particular moaning noise was supposedly caused by the wind blowing through valleys which acted as loud-speakers that magnified the sound and broadcast it over long distances.

America has had its share of weird noise phenomena. I have recently written a detailed account of bizarre, unexplained rumbling or explosive noises in the air, which are called "Skyquakes" (see Pursuit magazine, Spring, 1978). These occurred along the East Coast, from Connecticut to New Jersey, in 1978. Some scientists tried to explain them as sonic booms from the supersonic jet, the Concorde. A recent report from the Mitre corporation disagreed, and pointed out that many skyquakes took place at times when no jets were in the air (see Science magazine, January 19, 1979, p. 256). Science magazine reported that maybe unusual conditions had caused the sonic phenomena.

Jets are probably not the cause of peculiar booming or rumbling noises that are heard in my own state of Connecticut. The sounds are heard near the towns of East Haddam and Moodus, which is why local residents refer to them as "Moodus Noises." The very name, Moodus, means, "Land of Strange Noises" in the old Indian language. I first heard of the Moodus Noises while reading the books of Charles Fort, such as The Book of the Damned,

Lo!, and New Lands. These accounts of odd phenomena were written in the 1920's, so I didn't think that the Moodus Noises were still known about or heard today.

However, a New York Times article (Aug. 9, 1975, p. 46) reported that Prof. Edward E. Chiburis of the University of Connecticut was studying the Moodus Noises for the Nuclear Regulatory Commission because it was thought that they might be caused by earthquakes. There is a famous nuclear power plant in the Haddam region, so there is danger that earthquakes (which occasionally occur along the East Coast at points near the Ramapo Fault and its neighboring faults or branches) might cause a leak of radioactivity.

The Times article described the sounds as resembling "rumbling, moaning noises coming from the hills." Today, machinery or TV's and radios blare out the noises so that few report them. Chiburis found that they had been reported for 300 years. Interestingly enough, he was unable to find out the cause of the Moodus Noises, despite seven months of detailed study. The Times said that local people had a legend of two groups of witches fighting in the area. That, according to folklore, was the cause of the sounds.

Another account of the Moodus Noises was written by Harrison V. Brooke in Fate magazine (October, 1975). Brooke said that several theories had attempted, without success, to explain the noises. These were earthquakes (which occur occasionally in New England), gas exploding underground, rocks slipping underground, or weather phenomena. The earthquake theory doesn't explain the noises because no matter how loud they are, buildings do not tremble. Also, I don't think that supersonic jets can explain this one, for no supersonic jets were in Connecticut in the 1800's!

Brooke mentioned the witchcraft theory, which dates back to Colonial and Indian times. Remember that witches were one of the hypotheses suggested by people in Bristol, as a means of explaining the bizarre humming sounds there. There are caves on "Cave Hill" outside Moodus where Indians once lived and where the witches once congregated, according to legend.

Hobamacko, the Indians' version of Satan, resided on Mt. Tom near Moodus and the Indians made pilgrimages there. The god Mackimoodus is reputed to live under the earth, where he sits on a great sapphire throne in a huge cavern. There he presides over a battle between the good witches of East Haddam and the evil witches of Haddam. This reminds me of Shaver's wild tales about deros and teros fighting battles in cave cities beneath the earth, except that Shaver wrote his yarns in the 1940's!

Other parts of America have their share of weird sonic phenomena.

Lucille Hieber, a resident of Arlington, Virginia, wrote to Fate magazine that she had heard humming noises similar to those in East Kent, England. She wrote, "For about a year and a half I have been hearing a low humming of this same nature. While there is a low humming sound connected with it, there also seems to be a more pronounced overtone in the middle range."

She added that it was continuous, sometimes loud and sometimes faint. Oddly enough, it was stronger indoors than outdoors. At first she thought that it was electrical or from her own blood pressure, according to Fate magazine.

Similar humming noises were reported in Bellmore, New York. C.W. Floyd wrote to Fate magazine that he, too, had heard mysterious sonic phenomena. He heard humming noises for several years and oddly enough, these could also be heard more clearly indoors than outdoors. Sometimes it seemed to come down from the sky and had the sound of a motor and on other occasions it resembled bees buzzing or escaping gas. He added, "...the hum can linger for hours, at a very low pitch, as if in the distance."

At other times it becomes very clear. At still other times it has a high pitch like the sound of thousands of bees. It even produces a sensation of vibration at times and stops or starts abruptly. Sometimes Floyd was bothered by heat sensations that even caused red marks on his skin if he scratched, so I wonder if some form of microwave radiation was to blame. Sickening odors like those of rotting plants occurred, but were even smelled in winter when no plants were around!

It appears that earthquakes or sonic booms from jets cannot explain the humming noises, and even modern science has failed to solve the mystery of the uncanny sounds in the air. If you hear strange hums in the middle of the night, don't scream. Switch on a tape recorder if you have one, and call a scientist in the morning.

LAST BATTLE FOR EARTH

In this 425-page book the author (Walter Wiers) reveals that Earth is experiencing a change of gods, that the mid-east arms buildup is now out of control. It is his contention that the "Last Days" of Man are almost upon us. He sees the disturbances caused by UFOs as a radical Omen, a warning that we must heed. But fear not, some of us will survive. You too can contact UFOs by telepathy. He also informs us that there is an "invisible world" concentric with ours, that people, planes and ships CAN be made to vanish. UFO REVIEW
303 Fifth Ave. (Suite 1306)
New York, N.Y. 10016

James W. Moseley former publisher of SAUCER NEWS promoted this year's highly successful National UFO Conference held in Manhattan.

By Gray Barker

By most any standard, even the harshest critics of James W. Moseley will have to credit his sponsorship of this year's National UFO Conference a resounding success.

Held at the Hotel Doral Inn on June 20-21, the Conference incorporated both private and public sessions with a well-balanced program that featured a wide ideological range of speakers, from the freewheeling Charles Berlitz to arch-skeptic Robert Schaeffer. Moseley opened his ample pocketbook wide to finance the affair, engaging a huge meeting room, setting up fascinating displays, and picking up the airline and hotel tabs from speakers separated by such wide distances as Stanton Friedman from California, Betty Hill from New England and Berlitz from Florida. In addition he treated the speakers and other guests to a $50.00 a plate dinner at the world famous restaurant atop the World Trade Center.

Although in a pre-convention conversation Moseley admitted to me that he didn't expect to recoupt even half of his costs, and I agreed privately with his prediction, the bottom line of his balance sheet may not display as much red ink as anticipated, due to huge crowds that showed up at both public sessions (though probably under the 1,000 figure estimated and reported by the New York media) — and despite the modest freight of $10 — $15 for tickets to one or both sessions. Even though he may have wound up in the black, credit is due Moseley for both risking the dough, and for his public relations skills in promoting intense interest and coverage from the electronic and print media.

Ever since the rumored but undisclosed losses from the sponsors of the Fate Magazine UFO Conference, and the modest attendances at the annual MUFON meetings have further discouraged promoters of saucerian symposia. Moseley's success may represent a turning point in these doldrums and a model for future sponsors to emulate. Although I'm sure you'd rather read about the Conference and the speakers, I have taken this space to laud Moseley and to give balance to the ideological and personal feud with him which has periodically flared into print over the years.

While it would be impossible to adequately cover the conference in space allotted here, certain highlights do stand out in my mind.

MOTHMEN & MEN IN BLACK

As John Keel's national (and possibly world-wide) No. 1 fan I had looked forward to renewing an acquaintance made in 1967 when we jointly investigated the "Mothmania" in Point Pleasant, and both wrote books about it. I knew he had suffered an illness and was gratified to note that he was looking great (though now sans the famous beard).

We began reviewing the "old times," and although Keel said he had no plans to return to West Virginia, he remembered the Point Pleasant days with warmth and nostalgia.

"You know," Keel told me, "I was never much for the 'nuts and bolts' approach to Ufology, and this had come up in my early writings. Point Pleasant merely reinforced my views. While I really went down there expecting to identify an unfamiliar bird, I rapidly found myself enmeshed in the same old mind-blowing pattern.

"I found, as usual, that a much bigger pattern was involved. UFO sightings abounded, homes of witnesses were plagued with poltergeist-like phenomena. Telephones were acting crazy and TV sets were burning out at an alarming rate. Yes, even those hardy perennials, the MIB, were also mixed up in it, patrolling the dusky back roads in their huge limousines.

"And, as usual, the prime object, in that case Mothman, was being shoved into the background, though admittedly getting all the press and UFOlogical attention. Again I noted that some UFOs were directly related to the human consciousnesses, just as ghosts are often products of the percipient's mind. I'm not saying they're all in the mind, but I am certain that appearances by UFOs do trigger and release human energies that stimulates seemingly supernatural events."

"This fits into your theory that the Ufonauts often put on a public show to divert attention from what they're really up to," I commented.

"Exactly! While you, I, and dozens of other people were concentrating on the fascinating Mothman sightings, you can be pretty sure the Ufonauts were engaged in some dirty tricks elsewhere. The Point Pleasant area abounded in animal mutilations, and you, yourself, reported on the snatching of a German Shepherd into thin air!"

Although disappointed to learn he was not working on another book, I was glad to hear he was busy writing a series of UFO related articles for the "slick" general magazines, including a treatment on Charles Fort, in HIGH TIMES, which was changing its image with its new title (Logo) and articles of wide appeal.

The Saturday morning "closed to the general public" session introduced speakers who, while not nationally colorful or successful authors, presented little publicized areas of the "saucer" subject and were not hampered by the task of entertaining a large audience.

After the late hours of socializing the previous evening, I wanted to skip the early session, but realized I just couldn't miss the presentation by Dr. Leon C. Davidson, a scientist usually scored by Ufologists because of his "Earth-origin" UFO theories.

Davidson had been one of the few "real" scientists who had risked his reputation in the early days to present his idea that the CIA was responsible for the nationwide UFO flap. Writing in early issues of Moseley's SAUCER NEWS, Davidson said he believed George Adamski, though with a qualification: the CIA, he believed, had staged Adamski's meeting with a "Venusian" in the California desert and also simulated a "ride" in a saucer through a mixture of mock-up gadgetry and hypnotism. Later, the CIA had created a rash of sightings to divert the public's mind from Russian satellite successes, and possibly to confuse the Soviets as well.

I had always been interested in his theories and had even published one edition of PROJECT BLUE BOOK No. 14 which Davidson had edited and annotated. While his CIA theories sounded outlandish on the surface, I felt that they were worth considering — though I did not believe they could be responsible for all sightings, as the scientist would have us believe.

Dr. Davidson's doctorate had been in chemical engineering, and he certainly was not a crackpot. He held down an important industrial position and had played a part in the vast Manhattan Project, helping to develop the atomic bomb at Los Alamos.

MORE CRASHED SAUCERS

"Dr. Davidson never did sound like a crackpot to me," I told Timothy Green Beckley, editor of UFO REVIEW, in a later conference, "and his theories sound a little better as each year passes."

"The documents they're getting from the CIA through the Freedom of Information Act certainly makes one think," Beckley said. "At least we NOW know that the CIA was involved deeply with the UFO mystery, including domestic investigations which they always denied. I hear that the CAUS people who sued for information obtained about a hundred pages of files devoted to Davidson alone!

"But like you say," he continued, "I can't see how Davidson can explain the entire UFO phenomenon as a product of the CIA, even with some FBI thrown in. For instance there are those rumors of crashed saucers and their occupants that I understand may be blown wide open by the new book by Berlitz and Moore."

But Davidson had an answer for this one, too, I informed Beckley: The rumors of these retrievals had an actual basis, he explained in his lecture. Mockup saucers and dummies had been placed in the Southwestern desert during the early '40's, then were scooped up and hauled away to various air force bases. Even had the hardware and bodies actually been from outer space, secrecy could have hardly been greater, for the CIA, according to Davidson, didn't want the ruse, itself, to leak out. Instead, they wanted the Russians, and the U.S. Public, to believe the objects had been real. They also knew that there would be just enough security leaks to sustain and perpetuate the myth.

I doubted Davidson's CIA explanation of the alleged retrievals of the "Fourth Kind," although I couldn't tell Beckley why. Just before coming to New York I had read the galley proof of the new book by Berlitz and William Moore, THE ROSWELL INCIDENT (Grosset & Dunlap, $10.00 hardcover), but was bound by journalistic ethics not to reveal its contents until after its September publication date.

The new book presented documented, eye-witness accounts of the wreckage of an out-of-this-world device, including strange pieces of an un-tearable plastic-like material on which hieroglyphic-type writing appeared. The crash had

GRAY BARKER AT GIANT ROCK By Gray Barker

In the fall of 1970, Jim Moseley, Barbara Hudson and Gray Barker flew to Los Angeles and attended George Van Tassel's Flying Saucer Convention at Giant Rock. Barker gives you a run down on famous "contactees" he met such as Van Tassel, Trevor James, Orfeo Angelucci, etc.

He describes them and their stories of meeting people from outer space. You almost feel you are right there with Barker under the hot sun on the desert. Ten UFO personalities are interviewed and their favorite sighting is described with a dramatic full page treatment by the noted UFO artist, Hal Crawford.

Also lavishly illustrated with photographs and other artwork throughout. A six-page section is devoted to strange writing, objects and faces that turn up in NASA photos of the moon and Mars, including an incredible map of the U.S. on the face of the moon. This book is Barker at his best! He has preserved the atmosphere of this and past conventions he has attended there so that UFO fans of the future can vicariously experience these fabulous meetings as if they were there themselves.

UFO WARNING By John Stuart

First published in 1963, the first edition of UFO WARNING sold out quickly. Because of its shocking and terrifying nature, the publisher did not reprint this book. Things have changed, however, and students of the UFO mystery are more knowledgeable and mature. Also, a wave of strange happenings, similar to those described in UFO WARNING has recently developed, and sincere researchers should and must have this information.

So the publisher has decided to make a limited re-printing of what is probably THE MOST FRIGHTENING AND HORRIFYING BOOK ever published on the subject of UFOs. It tells the strange story of John Stuart, head of an Australian group, "Flying Saucer Investigators". He and his pretty co-director, Barbara, discovered what they felt was the secret of the discs, after which they were beset by strange occult forces and terrible warnings. Their failure to stop their work resulted in the appearance of a vile, lecherous monster. "UFO WARNING" will tell you what NOT to do in UFO research and what subjects to avoid, lest you too, be given the WARNING.

taken place near Roswell, New Mexico, during July, 1947, and had been followed by a sudden vast cover-up. Air Force authorities had silenced the press by showing them wreckage of a weather balloon, after going over the crash site with a fine tooth comb and spiriting the real artifacts away by secret storage.

The Moore-Berlitz investigation, done with the same thoroughness evident in their earlier book, THE PHILADELPHIA EXPERIMENT, tended to confirm claims made by Frank Scully in his 1952 book, BEHIND THE FLYING SAUCERS, though acknowledging that Scully was incorrect as to location and details and had done sloppy research. It also reinforced my interview with communications expert Dr. Robert Carr, which appeared in a previous issue of UFO REVIEW and caused much controversy among readers.

PILOT'S PROOF

The Conference's afternoon and evening public sessions were also jam-packed by fascinating speakers, such as Stanton Friedman, Charles Berlitz, and Betty Hill, once again recounting her and her late husband's abduction by beings from the Zeta Reticula star system.

But although I had already heard and seen it, several times during previous conferences, Rick R. Hilberg's illustrated lecture on The History of Ufology, from Biblical to modern times, again stood out as my favorite.

Hilberg, one of the representatives of the Northern Ohio UFO Group attending the Conference, had also given me the details of a fascinating UFO sighting when he had met at dinner the previous evening.

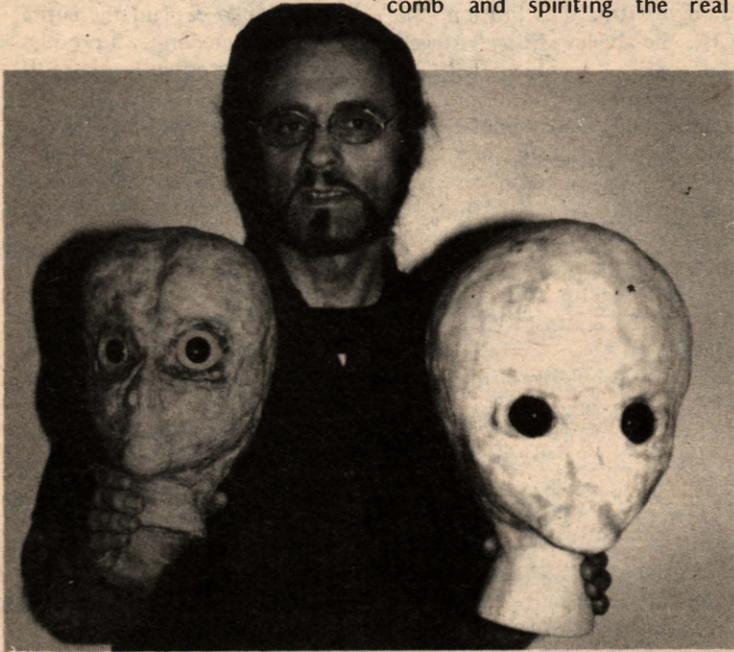

In August, 1976, Boris Jungvist, the Group's Swedish representative was contacted by telephone by a lieutenant-colonel of the Swedish Air Force. Though wishing to remain anonymous in any public release of the information, he agreed to meet with Jungvist personally, not wishing to give details by telephone. During their meeting the officer related the following account:

"During a routine flight in my J-35 'Dragon' fighter, I spotted what I first took to be six other J-35's flying in a flank formation at a distance of about 7,000 meters. It was 1017 hours and I was over Lake Bolmen (province of Smaland), cruising at an altitude of 12,000 meters. The formation approached quickly on a contra-course from the left, and at an altitude of some 11,500 meters. I estimated their speed as maybe Mach 2 (twice the speed of sound). Immediately, I realized that these objects were no J-35's!

"All of a sudden the formation's speed was reduced to about 500 km/hour. As they passed my field of vision - at a distance of some 2,000 meters - the whole formation made a seconds-fast 90 degree turn. Simultaneously, there was a regrouping of the objects into a circular formation.

"As the formation's speed reduced, I was able, for a few seconds, from my higher flight altitude, to have a close study of their exteriors. They were delta-shaped with a fin-like structure at the tail. They were silver-colored. In the next moment the six objects made a banking maneuver and

UFOS AND THE SPACE BROTHERS WANT YOU TO SURVIVE DOOMSDAY

Psychics, spiritual leaders, scientists and UFO contactees all agree that we are living in what has been called the END TIMES.

- The foundation of our civilization is about to crumble.
- The Physical world as we know it is going to be destroyed.
- Psychic, spiritual and "other-worldly" forces are about to take over!

THE TRUTH CAN NOW BE TOLD

An in depth study recently conducted by a highly qualified UFO researcher indicates drastic changes in our daily life, as well as in the shape and construction of our very planet, are imminent. This information has been channeled to at least 20 of the most highly respected contactees from more advanced beings who reside on other planets and in other dimensions. Unanimously, they agree that a global catastrophe will soon sweep over our nation as well as the rest of the world.

According to the SPACE BROTHERS whom they are in contact with time is running out. We are being told the Earth is rapidly entering the twelfth - AND FINAL! - hour for humankind. All indications are that a "time bomb of destruction" is about to go off ridding the planet of civilization as we have come to accept it. The Book of Revelations will be tomorrow's headlines as Armageddon engulfs the globe.

There are those who say a THIRD WORLD WAR is on the immediate horizon, that an ecological imbalance is now taking place, and a shifting of the North and South Poles is due, which could tip the earth out of its present orbit and send it hurtling toward the sun.

YOU CAN BE SAVED!

While utter chaos will take place all around us, all of those who have received this highly advanced, truly prophetic warning have said that the "Chosen Ones" who "are ready" will be saved and taken off this planet just in the nick of time.

Our special, fully illustrated report, a 50,000 word book titled PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS IN THE LAST DAYS, is the most comprehensive volume ever put together on the subject. There is no other work like it as this book has been inspired from above. These are some of the important things you will learn - things you will NEED to know in order to make the transition from this physical dimension into a higher realm.

- Specific data on land changes. Find out which States will be geographically altered and the "safe" places to go to be out of immediate danger.
- A time table indicating when these events will begin to take place and the order in which they will occur.
- Exact "signs" and "wonders" to watch for which will indicate that only months are left.
- What material objects - "valuables" - you will need in order to survive, and where to obtain them.
- The day you will vanish from this planet - a mass evacuation by space ship will take place in which hundreds of flying saucers will come down out of the sky and "lift off" the worthy. What are your chances of being saved, and what can you do to make certain you are the "Chosen Ones."

Some of those who have contributed to this valuable reference include New Agers Brad and Francie Steiger; Space Channel Robert Short; the spiritual group Mark Age; UFO communicator Jane Allyson; Parapsychologist Warren Freiberg; researcher John White, and the space being known as Ashtar.

If you have even a slight interest in UFOs you will want to order this book. This is not just another title filled with wild stories, but this volume actually presents useful data which could change your life and help you to survive DOOMSDAY!

PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS IN THE LAST DAYS is available by ordering now. Send payment in the amount of $8.95 plus $1.00 for postage & handling and we will include a subscription to our sensational UFO REVIEW newspaper, as well as a special meditation you can use in order to establish contact for yourself with these highly advanced alien beings - the space brothers - who are watching over Earth.

"The formation had only passed when I called up traffic control via my radio. The nearby radar station had not indicated the presence of these objects on their scopes. (Due to laws of military secrecy I cannot disclose the exact position or capacity of this radar station.) Traffic control reported no civilian or military units in the sector at that moment. The whole sighting had lasted for only about seven or eight seconds.

"I have thousands of flight hours, in prop as well as jet driven aircraft. I have never before experienced anything like this. I have seen notes in the press about so-called flying saucers, without taking much notice of them. Often I have smiled at such stories, believing them to be a myth.

"Now, having observed these objects I have restated my position. I think that UFOs really exist as physical objects. In my judgement I put emphasis especially on the aerodynamic design of the objects. What caught me was the fast, sharp turn connected to a simultaneous regrouping from flank to circle formation, and then the sudden acceleration. This was a completely unique experience in my many years of service with the Air Force. Due to my lack of experience in this field I refrain from stating any general conclusions."

Under questioning he noted he couldn't bring himself to call traffic control, his being so excited by the sighting. He could not give the exact date of the sighting, nor their origin, nor the Air Force base where he served. Nor could he divulge whether he filed a report with the Research Institute of National Defense or other authorities, "for military reasons." The weather had been fair, with excellent visibility and only a few cirrus clouds were visible on the western horizon.

CRASHED UFO

Yet, if true the detailed report leaves behind an unmistakable record of extraterrestrial visitation.

The stone's dimension was 25 x 37 meters, and its ovoid form was too perfect to be a meteorite. The chamber or "cave" discovered inside the object looked artificially cut, and the geologists asserted its floor was made of oxidized iron. But it was the presence of the humanoid that should dispel any remaining doubts of whether it was a natural object. Las Heras pointed out that the being's description with a trunk brings to memory "the legends of the 'kappas' which circulate throughout the Orient." He speculated also that more than a tomb, the platform found by the geologists could have actually been a hibernation chamber for long space journeys, which ceased to function when the spacecraft hit the Earth. A final point is that the object, whatever it was, apparently landed on the ground in a controlled and smooth way, without either forming a crater on the surface nor burying itself while crossing the upper layers of our atmosphere.

All points combined seem to clearly indicate that an actual spacecraft with one pilot landed in the province of Santa Fe, Argentina, back in the 1870s. The questions then are: Was it the first landing and the first daring explorer from outer space to die on Earth? Are modern UFOs connected to the Cartarana celestial marvel, and have more of these ships crashed on our planet with their remnants retrieved by earthlings? And so on... One just hopes that Las Heras' next expedition will discover once again what remains of the mysterious craft.

It is also interesting to notice that Argentina is one of the nations where modern UFO activity has reached more intensity. Since the early sixties, flying saucers have been repeatedly sighted throughout Argentinian territory. Some of these sightings are very well documented, and were impeccably investigated by Argentinian Naval Intelligence. One incident on May 22, 1962, had dozens of reliable military personnel in a Naval Air Station as eye-witnesses. On that date, a

Can YOU cope with The COMING CATAclysm ?

Prophets and scientists alike agree that our planet is destined for cataclysmic changes...now, new evidence indicates the change from the Piscean to the Aquarian Age will be far more cataclysmic than expected--and hastened by the power-madness and greed of Man's own actions. This frightening and hopeful book tells why the years 1979-2000 are the critical ones in the social, economic, political and geological changes that herald the end of this cosmic cycle as predicted by the Bible, Cayce, and many others...changes necessary for clearing away the degeneracy and evil pervading our planet and for opening the way to Man's higher evolution. These changes are ALREADY underway--the signs are all around us, in the Dow-Jones averages, in UFO's, in the observations of scientists and mystics. Read this startling book...learn to recognize the traps of fear and negativism, find out what YOU can do to attune yourself with forthcoming positive changes and protect your loved ones.

Rushed into print as result of new evidence that indicates terminal phase already underway

PRINTED MATTER

BOOKS
THE ENEMY IS VIOLENCE! by Brenton Van Court. My first novel, which is written in the air form known as Expressionism, is a flying saucer novel entitled The Enemy is Violence! It is only partly finished, and covers a wide variety of subjects ranging from the adventures of Jane Fonda to the mismanagement of America's police forces. The treachery of the villain of my novel, Louis Violence, will come as quite a shock to many people who have regarded him as their friend. He appears in my novel, expressionistically, and it is clearly seen that what the police really need is not brutality but brainpower: "Shock's high-level police ineptitude is so widespread that it constitutes what would have to be called a 'nationwide crisis.' From the fascinating book about our former police commissioner Patrick J. Murphy "Commissioner: A View From the Top of American Law Enforcement." The book, just published by Simon and Shuster, has Murphy letting his readers in on the kind of stationhouse secrets they'd never learn from Colombo or Kojak. Call for Louis Peace, Detective! # BLACK BOX

Everyone Can Afford!

You've probably read about psychic generators and 'the little black box'...and are also familiar with names like Drown Reich, Hieronymus and De La Warr. These researchers are known to thousands who've read the fascinating 'Black Box' articles seen in Saga, Analog, Beyond Reality, Astounding Sci-Fi and even several full length books. Articles that tell of the fantastic, almost unbelievable achievements of this tiny device. How Hieronymus used it to detect and analyze precious metals - how Drown treated the ill and infirm and brought them back to good health - of the amazing photos taken of the past AND future by De La Warr in his lab in England. They tell almost magical stories of how virtually thousands of people all over the world have tried this device for themselves and could hardly believe their senses. Mind control (ESP) over many hundreds of miles..interception of 'stellar' messages.. affecting the genes of plants, even the molecules of matter, with their mind power alone!

Stories that prove that ordinary folks like you and me do have-CAN USE that mysterious psychic power we're used to seeing in 'pro's' like Kreskin and Uri Geller. All done thru a mystifying little black box.

The trouble with the stories was that they claimed the box cost thousands of dollars..then never told you where you could get one even if you could afford it. Well reader, I'm here to tell you not only how you can get one right now, but what's more, that it won't cost you an arm and a leg. Only $30! That's right. THIRTY BUCKS!

Now, I've got to admit that the big outfits gave me a lot of static when they learned I was about to 'go public' with their little money making wonder. They tried to stop me from publishing this, but they have failed-so far. And, while I can I'm going to tell the world about the 'magic' of the ages.

About that unbelievable little box that changed my life so completely. I know a lot of you are saying, "Baloney. There ain't no such thing". But your wrong. There is - and I know because I've got one! And tho' I can't prove the claims of all those others, I can tell you of what it's done for me.

Since I 'discovered' the box my whole life has changed. I've acquired psychic abilities I never knew I had. I can even demonstrate them at home or at parties. Nothing earth shattering, but when you've never had ANY such abilities it's a wonderfully POWERFUL feeling. I was never sure about God or heaven before either, but now, I KNOW! I've been in contact with a wonderful person who has 'passed on', and who taught me more about our material universe and the 'great beyond' than I've ever dreamed existed. I know WHY we are here, WHAT I can look forward to after death, HOW 'heaven' works and best of all, I've learned that we aren't expected to live like saints in order to enjoy it all. I can't explain the gigantic feeling of relief and joy that knowledge brings. I've seen where mankind has been and where he is going, and the former 'mysteries' of the universe are even more intriguing and fascinating when you know the how and why.

Materially, I've got a lot more money now, and the wonderfully free feeling that can bring. I can do what I want, when I want, and 'just know' that all of life's problems will work themselves out smoothly and easily. For you see, I've had more 'good luck' than I ever thought was possible. And it's because I've learned that you make your own luck, and by so doing, you control your own destiny. There's more prestige and respect. More love and goodwill, more of all the things each of us wants and needs. And WE CONTROL IT. We MAKE IT HAPPEN! It's Fantastic.

Yes, my life has changed, and I love it. And I really do believe that yours can be changed and enriched too. But it won't just come to you-you've got to reach out for it and 'help yourself'. Sound just too good to be true? Reach out and find out for yourself.

You can order a ready made custom built unit, a simple assembly kit, or I can show you how to put one together yourself, very easily, by following my simple directions. And if you think it takes an electronic genius to do it, think again. I've had kids put the box together and it worked just fine. Heck, you don't even have to use screws, bolts or solder...just glue and scotch tape will get the darn thing perking if your really in a hurry. And, instead of some mind boggling price few of us can afford, it'll only cost you about $30 in parts, which you can pick up almost anywhere! Want to give it a try?

Here's what to do. Sit down and write to me right now. I'll send you complete step by step directions on exactly how to put together your black box. I'll also give you the plans for the Drown, Hieronymus and De La Warr machines. Along with all of that you'll get a big 112 page magazine sized book of information on how scientists and researchers have used these devices to do all manner of things you've probably never thought possible. But, and this is important - you MUST act now! There are many out there who've read the recent articles and aren't hesitating. They're swamping me with orders and I don't know if I can handle them all. You could be left out in the cold. So for your own sake, don't put it off. You've really nothing to lose, for if your not convinced the box will do all they say it will, return it within 10 days and I'll immediately refund your money, no questions asked. So get started NOW. Send $19.95 for the book and plans to T&A Publications, Box 195 C Hancock Wi. 54943. And please allow 4-6 weeks for delivery. Finished units and parts kit order blanks are in the book.

 could see them perfectly, and I could tell that they weren't conventional aircraft. After keeping pace with the bus for fifteen or twenty minutes, they went straight up leaving a trail like a jet might leave. However, these objects were moving in unison and traveling very slowly. As it turned dark I lost sight of the objects altogether, but they did leave an impression on me I will never forget." ● formation of Navy airplanes from station 5 Commandante Espore "sighted unidentified objects for a duration of thirty-five minutes," says a declassified Argentinian UFO document. The UFOs were also observed on the ground in the base, and "one disc or a luminous and round object orange in color" was reported flying in the direction of the city Bahia Blanca. The object was even observed by the base's top brass, including its Commander-in-Chief and second-in-Command who "saw the unidentified flying craft" while "waiting in Espora for a United States military mission."

This and several other sightings over military installations, particularly in the Southernmost part of the country, led the Argentinian military to establish a secret Commission to collect and evaluate UFO sightings. By the mid-sixties, the Department of the Navy issued a famous statement in a press conference. In the words of spokesman, Captain-Engineer Omar R. Pagani, "The unidentified flying objects exist. Their presence and intelligent displacement in Argentinian airspace has been proven. Their nature and origin is unknown and no judgment is made about them." Hardly the sort of language utilized by the Pentagon in their countless press conferences, public statements and form letters debunking flying saucers. Probably even Frank Scully would smile with such a different style from the "pentagonic denials" he recommended to "throw in the fire unread." Are these UFOs moving freely over Argentinian territory in any way connected to the celestial aerolite investigated by Dr. Sevarg and his friends? Was it an earlier scout sent by an alien civilization to conduct a preliminary inquiry on the conditions of planet Earth? Perhaps. Only time will tell... hopefully. ●

PRAISE FOR BRAD STEIGER

I bought a copy of UFO REVIEW No. 8 at a bookstore and took it home and started looking through it. I was thrilled when I saw the article written by Brad Steiger. I think he is one of the best authors that there are, and I'm sure I have every book he has written. What I like about him is that he is so sincere, and his writings are scientific too. He actually searches and knows what he is writing about.

I have been studying different ways of life, religions and mind powers for 19 years. I have over 500 paperbacks and hard cover books. I wonder if UFOs aren't a form of energy that materialized. I believe that some are good and also that some are bad, just like everything else in life. There is good and bad in all things. For example, nature can be so beautiful, and yet it can also be quite violent. I could never understand why the churches are so dead set against spiritualism or psychic phenomena, since the Bible is full of all of these things. I am also very interested in mind power. There is so much to learn and I think in some ways that UFOs will help the world in a time when they are really needed. I have seen two UFOs in my lifetime, but have never been contacted by them.

Enclosed is my check for a subscription. I really enjoy your paper and want to receive them all.

IRANIANS FIRE ON UFOS OVER U.S. EMBASSY

According to widely circulated reports being gathered from Iran, as well as other oil-producing countries along the Persian Gulf, a recent rash of UFO sightings is causing great concern among government officials as well as the military.

News concerning these reported sightings is slow in making its way to the Western nations, but credible sources have stated that a flap is developing which might add to the already boiling international situation between Iran and the United States.

Many Iranian leaders, it seems, are apparently convinced that the United States military is responsible for the invasion of its air space in a "deliberate provocation to frighten the Iranian public." In an interview given to the Islamic Revolution, the official newspaper of the Ayatollah Khomeini, an army "political-military expert" is quoted as saying that these reports "are true" and represent "part of a psychological warfare operation that the United States has started." The military spokesman adds that, "The nature of these objects is top secret and only a few people in the U.S. know about it." In several instances, the Iranian Air Force has engaged in cat and mouse maneuvers with the UFOs. "In this way," states the story in Islamic Revolution, "the power of our air defense is lessened."

In a recent wire service story flashed worldwide by the highly respected Reuters News Bureau, it was disclosed that "reports of UFOs have been broadcast (over Iranian radio) almost every day since the U.S. raid which ended in disaster in the Central Iranian Desert." The report adds that the "militant students occupying the U.S. Embassy said they had fired on a suspicious, unmarked helicopter which flew over the American compound." It should be noted, that similar unidentified "mystery" helicopters with no markings, have repeatedly appeared in association with UFO sightings in the U.S., particularly in instances of animal mutilations which have been attributed to aerial intruders, and various UFO investigators are convinced of a direct link.

In the past few months, UFOs have also appeared quite frequently over the gateway to the Persian Gulf. A UFO landed in an oil field in Kuwait and stopped drilling operations for 15 minutes. The incident was witnessed by seven oil company employees, including an American. The object was larger than an airliner and when the witnesses approached it, the UFO took off and then the drilling pumps started to work right away.

In a recent letter to UFO REVIEW, reader Haitham Ameen who lives in Manama, the capitol of the Kingdom of Bahrain, says his country has undergone an intensive UFO wave. Ameen points out that the object that eventually landed in Kuwait was first seen passing over his nation which is made up of 34 islands in the Arabian Sea.

According to Ameen, the second UFO ever sighted over Bahrain was on Friday, August 24, 1979. "At 11:40 P.M. Bahrain's Harbor Master and his Manager of Customers, each saw a strange object in the sky. They both claim that the object exploded into four segments, spewing out red balls of flame. Their sighting was made at the same time pilots from 29,000 to 35,000 feet reported seeing a UFO. The object was reportedly elongated, with pulsating green and white lights in front, and left behind a trail of sparks in the sky. Officials of British Airways, Kuwait Airways, Scandinavian Airlines and Qantas all logged the sighting, and some of the pilots said they saw not one, but a total of four different UFOs. At the same time the object(s) was being observed from the air, residents on the beach saw several metallic fragments fall into the area between Bahrain and Qatar."

It is our fondest hope and dream that the hostage situation will be settled by the time this issue is printed or shortly thereafter, and we can welcome our citizens back home.

Disturbed over the similarity of the sightings, the government of Bahrain quickly called for an official investigation to find out more about the UFO. "They estimated the UFO to have traveled at 6,500 mph, and a Senior Air Force Traffic Control Officer said that the UFO followed a ragged course when it was sighted. He also said it moved in its own tangent and therefore it could not have been a meteor or a shooting star, as they follow the Earth's movement, which the UFO did not."

A check of the Bahrain Airport control tower log gives the following details (all times are GMT).

20.40: Kuwait Airways Flight 370, reports light 80 nautical miles away, breaking up into three or four sections (later confirmed by Doha Central Tower).

20.45: Possible UFO sighting in Eastern Sector, near Dubai, heading South. Four UFOs, orange with orange tail, reported by Scandinavian Airlines, Qantas Flight 1 and British Airways Flight 601.

Interestingly enough, this is not the first time UFOs have been observed in militarily "tense" countries engaged either in armed conflict or responsible for a potentially explosive situation which could have widespread global consequences. UFOs were sighted regularly over Vietnam during the crises there. U.S. observers and U.S. military personnel engaged in the Korean conflict regularly saw UFOs near the front lines. And both the Allied and Axis forces encountered "foo fighters" and "ghost rockets" during World War II. UFOs, it would appear, are keeping close tabs on our hostile military activities. ●

SINGER UNDERGOES INCREDIBLE UFO EXPERIENCES

Since 1966, model, poet, and singer Varuska Kalwa has felt as though an alien intelligence has been keeping a watchful eye on her activities. The charming and attractive former lead singer of the rock band Teknoboys has always felt she possessed heightened extrasensory abilities, and that "other forces" in the universe were aware of her sensitivity, thus making it easy to "get through" to her, where they might have difficulty with other individuals who are not as psychically advanced.

Her first experience took place in late summer of 1966 as she was driving to her mother's house in Lansing, Michigan. "I was driving late at night around 1 A.M. in the vicinity of Ann Arbor when suddenly the car

Ursula Varuska Kalwa maintains that she has been made aware of UFOs since 1966 when she had her first sighting in the state of Michigan. The talented singer and model feels extraterrestrials have a deep meaning in her life.
