journey which I personally directed. Four days later we were again enroute to the state of Huanaco loaded down with gear.

Our first stop was at the home of Senor Fernando Fernandez, who proved to have a wealth of knowledge and very well versed on UFOs in the region. He said that his research had indicated that most of the strange activity seemed to be centered around the town of Cayran which is located in a valley and inhabited only by country folk. In Cayran, Senor Fernandes explained, life is devoid of social problems, politics, and crime. The residents live in sort of a communal fashion and are closed to outsiders who interfere in their daily activities.

RESIDENTS DRAW BACK

Upon our arrival in town we were immediately surrounded by many curious people who, when they found why we had come, drew back and refused to answer any of our questions. To them the subject of our trip was "taboo." From what we could gather, they were upset thinking that we would alter the tranquility of the place. To them, our investigation of the "Lady in White" was a sin, and we were, in their eyes at least, being very diabolical. Initially, it looked like we had traveled in vain, that our investigation would not be successful. Luckily, the course of events were changed when two of our team of investigators, George Zarich, and myself, came across two young boys playing alongside the banks of a stream. The boys were playing with a peculiar looking doll -- a wooden figure of a virgin perfectly shaped. This doll fit perfectly the description we had been given of the "Lady in White." Naturally, we were curious and asked the boys a lot of questions.

The boys said the name of the virgin was "La Purisima" (the "purest of Holiest") and told us that she lived in a cave outside of their town. They were not very helpful in giving us directions, and would say only that she lived on top of a mountain accompanied by small "angels," and that she called the faithful with the aid of a bell which could be heard throughout the valley.

Naturally, we felt as if we were on to something very important, and with the help of a few small gifts, we eventually got the two boys, (age 8 and 10) to co-operate.

After walking over a mile and a half we reached the side of a very steep mountain with two rocks on the summit, one atop the other, at whose base there was an opening that an adult could only enter on their hands and knees.

For the next two hours we looked for a possible way up to the summit. Being somewhat of a more experienced climber than the rest of our group I went on ahead inching my way up the mountain. Slowly, but surely, I forged a path by hanging on

THEY KNEW TOO MUCH ABOUT FLYING SAUCERS

A telephone call interrupted our busy day at the office, but when we lifted the receiver we had no idea that we were about to learn of a meeting by a West Virginia man and what may well have been a counterpart from outer space!

After we identified ourselves following a "Hello," a firm but pleasant voice asked us if we were the person who investigated UFOs.

group. The family is well thought of in the area.

In mid-March, 1982, Shallcross was put on furlough by his employer, suffering the effects of a "soft" construction industry. But like many night shift workers, he found it difficult to adjust to a different schedule. And so, in the or a vehicle had run off the road. Finding it difficult to awaken his wife quickly, he asked his daughter to call the State Police and report a possible plane crash, and to put the Rescue Squad on alert.

THE WATCHGUARD

By this time the light appeared as a white, blinking source in the darkness. He advanced, shining his flashlight in that direction until it revealed a figure standing by a power line/telephone pole. The person held a rod about the size of a baseball bat, diagonally with both hands, in a "present arms" position.

"ARE YOU ALL RIGHT?" Shallcross shouted.

The figure did not move or reply, and by that time Shallcross was quickly realizing there was something very unusual about the Shallcross asked.

"NOT FROM HERE," was the simple, but portentous reply.

Initially, the witness didn't realize the visitor wasn't speaking vocally. Then, noticing absolutely no movement in the head or helmet when he (we'll arbitrarily ascribe a sexual identification) spoke, Shallcross knew that he was communicating without audible sound - though he believed it was a kind of "projection" rather than telepathy.

He did not remember all of what he

NEWSFLASH— W.VA. MAN'S CONTACT WITH UFONAUT

Donn Shallcross, 37, first explained he had got our name through a friend of his who worked for the Ted Turner satellite television news service. He had called us because he "had to tell somebody about it somebody who won't laugh at me!"

We assured him we took UFO reports seriously, and asked, "Did you see one close up?" because we weren't greatly interested in just "lights-in-the-sky" reports.

"I was within a few feet of one, and I talked to whoever got out of it! Now if you won't think I'm crazy, I'll tell you about it!"

AMAZING ENCOUNTERS

Shallcross is a construction worker who commutes to Washington, D.C. and operates his part-time sheet metal shop when at his home near Romney, in West Virginia's eastern panhandle. His wife and three children help run the small farm where they raise chickens, rabbits and Guinea pigs. Both he and his wife, a former Navy nurse, are members of the local rescue squad a non-paid, volunteer early morning hours of Monday, March 22, he was still half-watching a television movie and intermittently dozing, when a commotion among the dog and cats snapped him wide awake.

The dog, usually a very docile animal, had her bristles up and was snarling at the door. The two cats were twisting their tails, growling and "spitting." But when Shallcross opened the door the animals retreated toward another room, as if they really didn't want to challenge whatever was outside!

As he glanced out the door he saw lights in a field across the highway to his left.

As he grabbed his coat and a flashlight, he first thought a small plane had crashed

From the doorway he could still see a light just above the highway, and he theorized that a truck could have left the road and wrecked, with one of its lights pointing upward.

He jumped into his car and headed for an access road which would bring him nearer the suspected accident. But as he negotiated the narrow, bumpy strip, the motor cut out and the lights went off. He coasted to the bottom of the incline and got out.

figure. It was dressed in a one-piece suit of dull aluminum-colored material, capped by a helmet with a visor which didn't disclose the face. It wore no shoes nor boots.

"The feet reminded me of my kids wearing their pajamas with the legs ending in socks," Shallcross told us.

Then the visitor suddenly broke the silence.

"I AM A WATCHGUARD," he said laconically.

He added that atomic wastes could be made harmless by a process involving the power inherent in pyramids (Shallcross does not remember or know the specific process).

UFO THE "SIZE OF MOON" SIGHTED BY FAMED MOUNTAINEER

Reinhold Messner of Italy is regarded as being among the world's foremost mountaineers who has climbed some of the tallest and most difficult mountains around the globe.

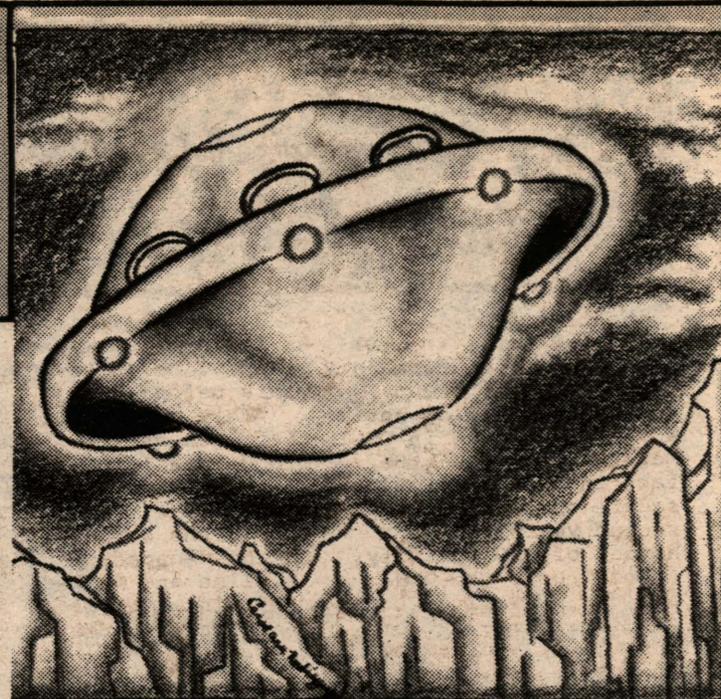

Last September Messner was scaling the 24,000 foot tall Mount Chamblang in the Himalayas when he and members of his mountain climbing team observed a UFO the size of a full moon. The object stayed in view for nearly three hours and was drifting slowly in a southerly direction into Nepal from Tibet over the snowcapped mountains.

"It was moving very slowly," Messner stated. "It moved eastward and then went again south-west and drifted finally north into Tibet." Other witnesses included a British schoolteacher, Doug Scott, as well as a joint Polish-British expedition, but at different times. "It could not have been a satellite because they move in an elliptical manner," Messner said. "The movements of this object were irregular."

Messner has in the past climbed Mount Everest and is considered a credible witness to a very strange occurrence.

LUMINOUS BALL TRANSFORMS INTO SPACE ALIEN

Three children who live in the small town of Mendoza, Argentina, have undergone an experience that is truly "out of this world." According to a story in a Buenos Aires magazine, Daniel Nunez, age 9, his sister Susana, age 11, and a friend, were returning home from the office of a local physician where Daniel had been to get treated for a sore throat, when they observed a small luminous object descending out of the sky. They were passing a vacant house that stands next to a large empty lot when they saw something zip across the heavens nearly missing a passing plane. "It was something like a ball that gave off sparks and light, and kept coming down," Daniel later reported. Daniel's sister added that the object continued to descend until it stopped very close to us, hovering a few yards from the ground." Within a few seconds the object actually began to change shape until suddenly "the luminous ball began to form a body, something like a man, but from the waist up," the little girl added.

At this point, the young girl ran home, but her brother stood his ground. "I wanted to see more," Daniel Nunez stated - and he did.

"When my sister was a distance of about 20 meters away (65 feet), the entire body of a man about two meters (6'-7") tall had been formed from between the lights of the object. His eyes were turning around and he had little antennas of some kind that gave off sparks. I saw it clearly. Suddenly everything disappeared. Man, lights, sparks. .."

The parents of both children testified that when Daniel and Susana returned home they were extremely upset.

"Daniel's heart was racing real fast, and he had a vision problem that he has still not recovered from," his mother, Martha Elena Salinas de Nunez said.

The case was eventually reported to the authorities and was investigated by Professor Vittorio Carradi of the Institute of Extra-Human Phenomena Studies. He told the press that he was absolutely convinced that the youths had "observed a process of materialization and dematerialization of a being which cannot be identified as being human." The case is one of the most exciting in recent times in Argentina and received considerable coverage in the local media.

BLACKOUT IN FLORIDA

UFO abductions, haunted hotels, blackouts and a town run by mediums. That's what we found when we recently visited Florida. Timothy Green Beckley arrived in St. Petersburg in May to do a series of talk shows which included the popular noon "Pulse" show on WTSP-TV; the Cheryl Ballard public affairs program on WSUN; Drew Heyes' "call-in" show on WPLP; and the Marshall Clever afternoon show on WNSI. Beckley also got written up by Ron Boyd of the St. Petersburg Times, and spoke to a gathering of the local Star Trek club.

In the middle of all this activity a blackout knocked out over 800,000 homes clear across the state (which the space people later claimed responsibility for). While in Florida, we learned of a great deal of recent activity thanks to our new Gulf States representative, Diane Tessman. Apparently, a man and his wife driving near Tampa were zapped by a blue beam of light and ended up at their destination long before it would have taken them to drive the required distance. We also learned that the landmark hotel, the Vinoy is supposedly haunted (Beckley and

Youth Taken On Board Under Water UFO

Nestled away in up state New York, the rural community of Pine Bush had never drawn national attention until a recent article in OMNI magazine revealed the fact that this normally sedate town has in recent years become a hotbed of UFO activity. According to the OMNI article as well as a follow up done by the nationally syndicated TV show "PM MAGAZINE," dozens of sightings have been made here though local residents tend to play down the importance of these events.

For the most part, however, the largest percentage of reports have been of unexplainable lights seen in the evening sky. Yet an investigation by UFO REVIEW staff member Jane Allyson, shows that even more significant events have transpired here, events which have not previously gotten into the hands of the mass media.

"I had been to Pine Bush several times having had a number of sightings of my own," the talented psychic healer reports. "After an evening of sky watching we decided to have a bit to eat at the local diner. We were in a particularly excited frame of mind since we had just observed a flashing white and red object and followed it for nearly a mile before it disappeared over a field." Talking about what she had seen to her companion, Jane's conversation was overheard by a customer in the diner who volunteered some information on an incident that had taken place in Pine Bush years before.

"This person told me that when he was 15 years old he was fishing with five other friends at a nearby lake. Suddenly, one of the boys stood up and dropped his fishing line and walked right into the water and disappeared beneath the surface of the lake. At first they thought their friend was playing a practical joke, but when he did not resubmerge in a number of minutes they sent a couple of his companions to get the sheriff."

Jane says that when the sheriff arrived he wasn't able to make heads or tails out of the situation, but as he stood by the lake trying to straighten out the mess, the youth who had vanished beneath the water walked out of the lake as if nothing unusual had happened.

"He appeared to be dazed but none the worse for wear," Jane notes. "The really strange thing about him was that he was dry as can be though he should have been absolutely soaked. His friends all wanted to know what had happened to him. All he would say was that he'd been for a ride in a space ship."

The State Troopers took him away to be examined and eventually he was committed to the local state hospital. Jane was able to track the man down and after all these years interview him.

"At first he didn't want to talk to me," she explained. "He told me that he had since gotten married and had never talked about the incident to anyone, not even his wife. However, he agreed to speak to me if I would not reveal his identity." Jane says he couldn't add a great deal to the story she had already been given. "He couldn't recall an awful lot. The only thing he remembered was seeing a light and being pulled under the water as if he were in a hypnotic trance. He apparently lost consciousness and when he came to briefly, he was in a room with lights and no windows. The next thing he recalls is being taken into custody by the police.

Later, he started having strange dreams but was too scared to go back to the scene and investigate further. He felt as if it were better to forget the entire episode and go on and live a normal life."

Anxious to investigate the matter further, Jane Allyson visited the lake in question and made a startling discovery. "It was a very secluded lake in back of some houses with a high wire fence around it. It was dark and raining but I went down to the lake and immediately noticed what appeared to be seven perfect circles in the soft mud. I tried to photograph these markings but the pictures did not come out." Along with a friend Jane decided to spend the evening parked alongside the road in the hopes of looking into the markings first thing in the morning. "It was a frightening night, one I won't soon forget as four men came out of a van and proceeded to try and break into the back of the vehicle where we were sleeping." Jane put up a fight and eventually the intruders disappeared into the pitch blackness of night. "Somehow I can't help but believe they knew what we were doing there and wanted to prevent us from finding out more."

UFO REVIEW hopes to investigate further the mystery surrounding the many strange goings on in Pine Bush, New York.

Does Unexplained Footprint In Solid Rock Prove Aliens Seeded Life On Earth?

found on a steep hill where a bulldozer recently made a road. According to Saylor when this track was originally made the earth in this area was completely flat.

"No animal on earth then or now had such features," concludes Saylor, who points out that humans probably were not even crawling out of the sea at this stage of the game.

The strange print is embedded six inches into the rock and is over ten inches long. Not only can you clearly see the imprint of a human foot, but it looks more like a shoe than anything else!

Saylor suggests that the imprint might have been left behind by an alien. "This should prove that man did not originate here on earth." He offers the theory that giant UFOs "thousands of miles long and hundreds of miles wide," -- sort of an interplanetary Noah's Ark -- spawned life on this planet.

Food for thought. ■

Someone -- or "something" -- was walking around on the earth millions of years before man is supposed to have evolved. At least that's the theory of B.W. Saylor from Licking, Mo. who sent us a most unusual photograph which shows something he says he can't explain.

Not too far from where Saylor lives is a rock which is believed to be three to five hundred million years old. The peculiar thing about the rock is a human-like footprint smack dab in it's middle. "This is a left footed print," says Saylor "and a right heel print on the edge of the rock. It was

"WE WOULD LIKE TO GET TWO ALIENS TO COME AND TALK TO PARLIAMENT"

UFOS IN THE HOUSE OF LORDS

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH THE EARL OF CLANCARTY

QUESTION: How did you start to get the ball rolling on the question of UFOs in the House of Lords?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I took my seat in June 1976 and a month after I made my maiden speech which wasn't on UFOs, but had to do with the state of our nation. Then I started sounding a few of the other Lords out and found that quite a number were interested in the topic. In our country if you want to find out something from one of our leaders you can put it in writing or ask a question in the chamber. If you do both you must get a double answer. My questions led me to believe that there was a cover-up here in this country. I asked Her Majesty several questions which dealt with a statement made on French radio to the effect that the French Ministry of Defense was reviewing a large number of UFO cases and the better ones were being passed down to the Center for Space Studies, which is loosely the equivalent of your NASA. In light of this fact, I wanted to know what our government was doing about the situation.

QUESTION: Did you get a response?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I got a reply from Lord Winterbottom of the Labor Party who was speaking on behalf of the Ministry of Defense. Lord Winterbottom said he had "never heard of the broadcast." He added that "we would only be interested if there was a threat to the United Kingdom." Next I questioned Her Majesty's government about what role our police were playing in the matter since in France law enforcement officials are known to play a key part in interviewing witnesses. This time I got a reply from Lord Harris who was then a Minister of State for the Home Office who, of course, look after the police in England. He said he also hadn't heard of the French radio broadcast where this was discussed and said that the police are not investigating anything, but if they were called upon to do so, they would do so with their customary vigor.

As it so happened I was invited by Scotland Yard to give a talk on UFOs some years later and I happened to mention my letter from Lord Harris. Hands went up all over the place. Our law enforcement officials wanted to know why Lord Harris wasn't familiar with the fact that prior to 1977 the police had investigated thousands of cases and thousands since. Not only have our police investigated cases, but they have been involved many times as witnesses.

I was determined to find out all I could and set the record straight. I followed up with additional correspondence. I pointed out that in France there is a group whose initials are GPEN which is actually funded by the government, and didn't Her Majesty know that there was a book written by the head of the group detailing a number of unexplainable incidents involving UFOs? Again I got a response from Lord Winterbottom who said that he would look into the matter further and get back to me. A while later a reply came that they had found the original transcript and that the broadcast had taken place.

QUESTION: They were giving you the old run around as we would say in America.

EARL OF CLANCARTY: This set me off but good. The next thing I did was to introduce a debate in the chamber of the House of Lords. This debate went very well. In total 14 speakers took part. The Earl of Kimberly, who is a member of our group now was my main supporter. True, some people were talking against UFOs and some in favor of the subject, but there was no ridicule. It was treated with respect. As the result of a suggestion that I made during the debate we now have gotten a House of Lords UFO study group. It has over thirty members.

QUESTION: Can you name some of the members for us?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Some of the members who were here this afternoon to listen to your talk included Lord Oakchester, the honorary secretary of our group; the retired Admiral of the Fleet, Lord Hill Norton, who was the Chief of Defense; Lord Gainsford; Lord Grey; Lord Rennick, and Lord Rudgeby.

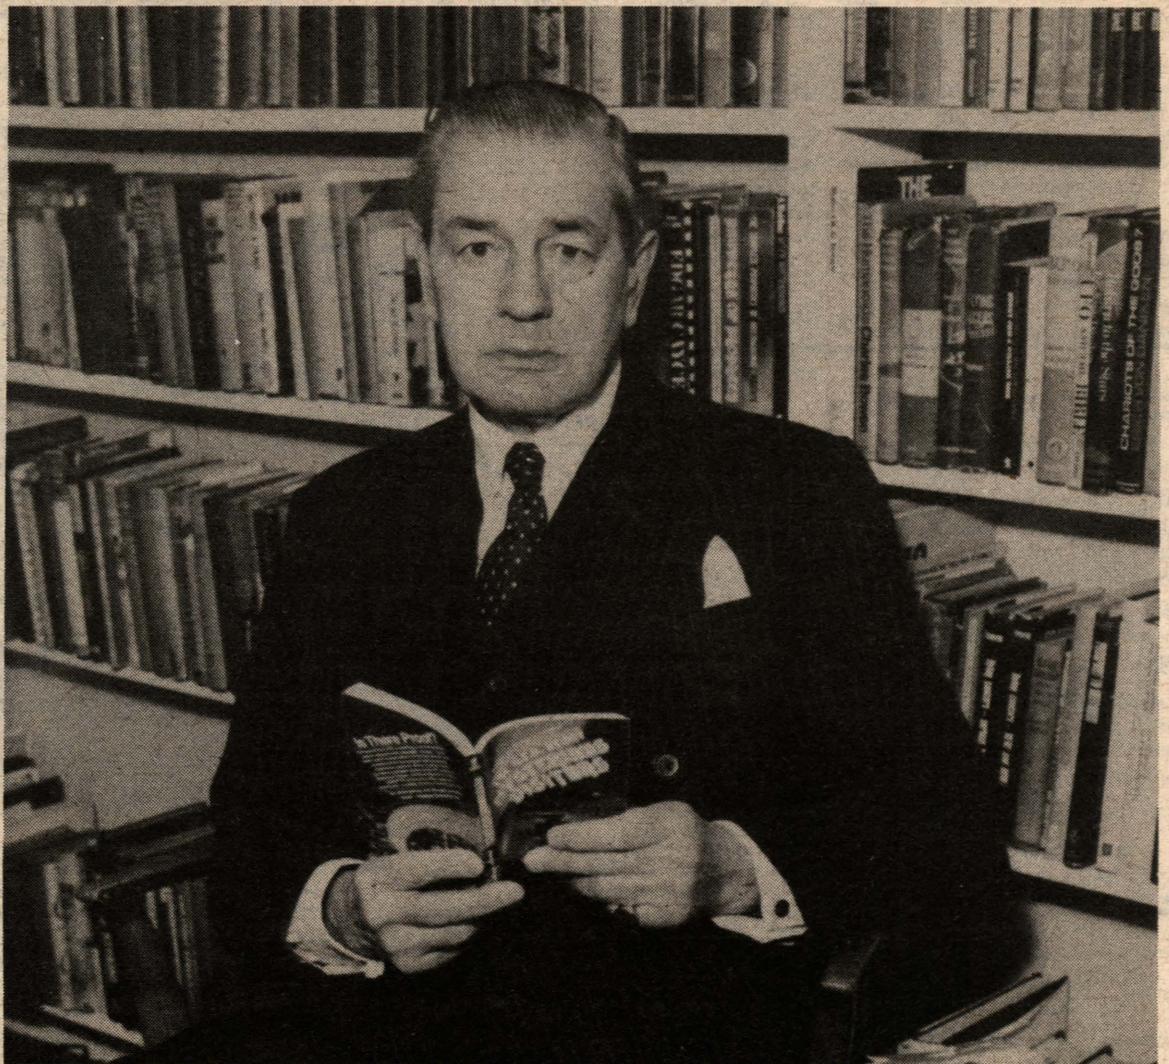

QUESTION: At this point in time what is the group seeking to do, will there be a proposal made to Her Majesty?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Up to now, including yourself, Timothy, we have had 19 guest speakers. Some have come from the U.S., one from Canada. We had three from Europe, one from Spain, Italy, Denmark and the rest from England, including the well known astronomer Fred Hael. Some of our members know a great deal about the subject while others are less informed. For that reason we felt it would be a good idea to have guest speakers give their points of view. The other day we had a closed meeting which gave members of the group the opportunity to discuss the matter amongst themselves. We discussed quite frankly the coverup in various countries, but we didn't put it like that on our notice boards. Instead, we said we had discuss "the attitudes of governments" to the UFO phenomenon. Lord Kimberly took part and told us about a remarkable telephone conversation with our Minister of Defense. Lord Hill Norton spoke about 20 minutes about how something had to be done. Afterwards some of us got together and thought we ought to take the matter further into the chamber where the business of the country is conducted and to ask more questions and perhaps to engage in another debate. This time we want the authorities to come clean and tell us the truth about UFOs.

QUESTION: What do you think the British government knows? What are they keeping a secret?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I'm sure they've got records of reports going back any number of years. What we want to do is to get material released. The whole thing is, we haven't got what you have in the U.S., a Freedom of Information Act. So we can't sue the intelligence department or the military or whoever it is. What we can do is get the government to come clean. I'm sure they've got plenty of reports. There are reasons for a coverup. The original one, I think, has to do with panic but also a number of countries might be trying to get hold of an alien spacecraft in operational condition, or in good order, not a crashed, smashed one.

The Earl of Clancarty, Brinsley Le Poer Trench, thumbs through a book in his extensive library located in his London home. The Earl is author of several UFO-related volumes including THE SKY PEOPLE, MEN AMONG MANKIND, FORGOTTEN HERITAGE and SECRET OF AGES.

QUESTION: Do you think that the British government has a crashed UFO?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: It's possible, but I wouldn't know. I couldn't give you a good answer to that one. But I think that if one country were to get hold of one and were actually able to make more of them, that particular country would rule the world. That of course, is the reason that a particular government would have a coverup.

Another possible reason for a coverup is that if they are using a free electromagnetic method of propulsion this would be a blow for a lot of industries, the nuclear industry, electrical, oil, coal. It would be a good thing, because a lot of these industries are causing pollution. Another possible reason for the coverup, is that I think the government is aware of, is that aliens have bases on the earth from which they operate and look at; for instance, the Russian nuclear bases in Siberia and the same way, look at nuclear power stations in North America. This is information that was released, as you know, to "Ground Saucer Watch", because they sued the C.I.A. under the Freedom of Information Act and the Pentagon had to release the documents.

QUESTION: Do you think that there is an international coverup? Do you think the various governments have exchanged information amongst themselves?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I think it's highly possible. At one time, they were working together, exchanging information about gravity in space, the Russians and the Americans. Whether they still do I don't know. What I think is important is that we make contact with the aliens. One reason why I think the aliens are watching all these bases, nuclear bases and whatever in different countries, is because they are so concerned about us. They think that we may have a catastrophe ahead of us, a nuclear war or something and destroy our civilization. I go along with Morris Chattalane and his book "Our Ancestors Came From Out of Space". They started coming sixty thousand years ago and have been coming ever since.

QUESTION: You were the first to write about extraterrestrials in ancient history. You found a lot of references in the bible in Genesis.

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Yes, indeed, because Elijah was taken up in what they called a whirlwind. They used to call these UFOs whirlwinds and sometimes clouds. Yes there are a lot of biblical references.

QUESTION: In fact, haven't you theorized in one of your books "The Sky People", that civilization, as we know it, actually began on another planet and Adam and Eve came to earth on a spaceship.

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Yes, I think that Adam and Eve were meant as the plural; in other words as the male and the female. I think when they came here, they were put here in different ways. Sometimes they mutated with an earlier race here and brought about a more advanced one. That was supposed to have happened when the aliens mutated with Neanderthal man and the result was Cro Magnon man. All of the countries have their traditions of what we now call UFOs, for thousands of years. The Chinese and Japanese, South Americans and Hobi Indians, the Scandinavians and the Celts and the Irish, all have them in their traditions. They are concerned about us because they put us here probably not just this one race. There are thousands and thousands of advanced civilizations in this galaxy that are communicating with each other. That would help to explain the different races that we have here on this planet including the yellow, the red, white and the black. I think that many of them have come here from different civilizations and helped to colonize this planet. I think that they are basically friendly. I know there may be a few strange sorts of UFOs that have been seen and perhaps are not as friendly. On a whole I think they are open-minded and the best thing for us to do is establish contact with them from out there.

QUESTION: How can we do that?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: We would like to get two aliens or more to come and talk to our group.

QUESTION: Is that an open invitation?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Yes, and I'm sure that some of them speak our language and many other languages. You are bound to get some people who will say that they are just earth people pretending. But the point is that if you get them to do their materialization and dematerialization, paranormal abilities, which are normal to them, that should be proof.

QUESTION: Have you ever met anybody that you thought was an extraterrestrial?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Yes, I have on several occasions, but I was probably completely wrong. I had this idea in my head because of certain things. Of course, I shouldn't really say this but I always thought that there was lots of life elsewhere; even when I was very young I can remember some really strange things about my birth. For instance, the figure 9 kept coming in. I was born on the 18th of September (1 + 8 = 9) September is the 9th month. I've had a thing about the figure 9. I've become very interested in this.

QUESTION: You mentioned the possibility of aliens being here amongst us. When you began your research on UFOs, what was your attitude on close encounters? There weren't that many of them that were coming out in the open at that time.

EARL OF CLANCARTY: There weren't very many then, but of course there were encounters like Adamski's and Dan Fry and people like that. But, I think that the stories you hear now are quite different, about people being taken up and given medical exams and so on.

QUESTION: What did you think of Adamski and Van Tassel? And these other people, did you believe them?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: At first, I thought that Adamski was taking us for a ride. But then I read his second book called "Inside The Space Ships", and sometime afterwards Col. Glen orbited the earth for the first time. When he later on, talked to the press, he said that space was dark and he said that underneath his craft there appeared to be thousands of fireflies that he could see. This rang bells in my head and I suddenly looked up in "Inside The Space Ships", which I read 8 years before. There was the same account, space was dark and there were thousands of fireflies. How would Adamski have known about this unless he had been taken up? I thought it was quite remarkable. I'm inclined to believe some of Dan Fry's material. Then Van Tassel of course was interesting. Then there was someone who went a bit bunkers, do you remember who that was? I think a lot of the stories of people being taken up into space really did happen. They are a lot like the cases that are happening today that we call close encounters. I think it has been happening all through history.

QUESTION: Would you say that the pilots of these ships are well disposed towards us?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I definitely think so. I tend to go along with Maurice Chattalane who wrote the book "Our Ancestors Came from Outer Space", and said that they started coming sixty-five thousand years ago and have been coming ever since. And I think that if they put us here, they would naturally be interested in coming back from time to time to see how we have been getting along. I don't know what their life span is, if they are immortal or what. As you said in your talk, since the end of World War II they have been coming here in increasing numbers. We haven't been invaded, taken over or destroyed. In fact, they seem to be basically friendly. Also, they seem to want to make contact with us. I think it would be to our great advantage for earth people to get together with them. We would probably find that a lot of our troubles would disappear through the advanced knowledge that they have. It would be to our benefit, and it would be very nice to meet people like that.

On a recent trip to Warminster, England (see UFO REVIEW No.12), publisher Timothy Green Beckley ventured to a remote hillside just out of town from where many sightings and encounters have taken place. He was accompanied by Arthur Shuttlewood, retired RAfer Bob Strong, and subscriber Eva Alcock. During their hour long watch on Cradle Hill they did witness strange phenomena, but more amazingly, when a photo of Bob Strong and Eva Alcock was developed, Beckley discovered a strange fleeting object behind them in the dark of night. "There were no lights out there in the field - it was pitch black," he notes. "Yet there appears to be a bright form moving around in the background that comes down straight out of the sky." Beckley notes that several times the camera has managed to pick up what the human eye did not see.

QUESTION: Let's have them in for a little bit of tea, do you think?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Yes, it would make life interesting, wouldn't it?

QUESTION: What would you say is the best evidence that you have seen to date that UFO's are real?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I think basically, I believe in people elsewhere. When you think about it, there are millions of galaxies and in our galaxy there are millions of planets. It would make a mockery of creation if there were no people on any of those planets. I think it is obvious that they must be inhabited or else they wouldn't be there.

QUESTION: Do you think that within our lifetime, we will see an open exchange of information with these beings?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I hope so, because if it doesn't happen soon we are in great danger of destroying ourselves through a nuclear war or pollution or so forth. And I think they realize this and that is why they have been watching us so much, the Russian bases, and our own and yours.

QUESTION: If you had the opportunity to talk to the President of the United States or the Queen, what would you say to them as far as UFOs go.

EARL OF CLANCARTY: To our Queen I would say I understand that your husband is very interested in the subject, because he is. Prince Philip is very interested in the subject.

QUESTION: I have a note from Prince Philip's secretary. When he was in New York a couple of years ago we sent him a few articles and we received a note saying the Prince thanks you very much for extending the courtesy of sending the magazines over, and that he would study them carefully.

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I think it is very interesting that quite a lot of the royal family have been known to be interested. Apart from Prince Philip, Lord Mountbatten who was assassinated by the I.R.A., you might remember, was very interested. He bought a lot of UFO books from Susan Stebbing I think they would be very interested. Of course I don't know much about President Regan's views to talk about UFOs. We know that President Carter had seen one. I think that as you said at the meeting quite a lot of respected people, scientists, clergymen, people who are well thought of have seen them. I think that the sooner we make contact, the better. I'm hoping that we will be given a chance to do something towards that end with our House of Lords group, giving another debate in the Chamber and bring something about.

QUESTION: Is that likely to happen this year?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Not this year, because this year is practically over. It might happen next year, 1982 with any luck. I'll have to discuss it more with the people in our group in the Lords.

QUESTION: Do you think the time is right for another debate?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: Yes, there has been some time since the last one.

QUESTION: Do you think that you have more people on your side of the ring at the moment?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: I think we've got more now. They don't all come to the meetings for various reasons.

QUESTION: What kind of resolutions could be put before the House of Lords?

EARL OF CLANCARTY: That is what we want to discuss and think about amongst ourselves, we have a lot of ideas, and we must decide which is the best.

QUESTION: Do you think it possible that Great Britain may be the first of the great powers to acknowledge the existence of outer space beings?

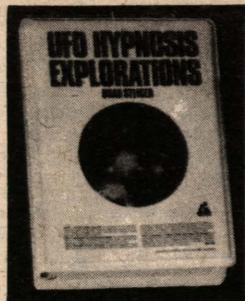

EARL OF CLANCARTY: As long as open contact is made eventually we hope that we can do our part. We don't think it should be made just with the United Kingdom or with your country only, or the Russians. It would be much better if we all got together and resolved all our problems by meeting them and working all together. I think it would do a great movement in bringing peace among the warring nations.

QUESTION: It might finally bring peace to the planet earth. I want to thank you for taking the time to tell us a little about the House of Lords UFO Committee.

NIKOLA TESLA

MANY HAVE CALLED HIM A GENIUS BORN AHEAD OF HIS TIME. WAS HE:

- WIZARD OR ALCHEMIST?
- SUPER PSYCHIC?
- EXTRATERRESTRIAL BEING?

Though chosen to share the 1912 Nobel Prize in Physics with Edison, Nikola Tesla refused the award and during his life tore up royalty contracts which would have earned him millions of dollars. Tesla held more than 1200 patents and yet he is one of the most mysterious men who ever lived. Though he is not mentioned in most text books and is virtually unknown to most Americans, Tesla actually discovered Alternating Current, produced the first electric motor, the radio (he preceded Marconi by several years), the arc light, broadcasted the first television waves, and even created an earthquake that virtually rocked Manhattan in 1896. The device which shook buildings and shattered windows for miles was an apparatus so small it could be placed in a person's pocket. Later, before his passing, Tesla stated that this device was so powerful it could prevent a Third World War.

Not very much is known about this "strange loner," as Tesla spent most of his life in total seclusion. However, those who did know him even slightly say he was not a normal human, but a real SUPERMAN, either a reincarnated master—or a spaceman with superior mental powers placed here to assist in earth's technological development. The following books are hard to come by, have been privately published, and are meant only for the sincere truth seeker.

RETURN OF THE DOVE by Margaret Storm

A personal, non technical view of Tesla written by a close friend with whom he dared to share his great metaphysical knowledge. Discusses in passionate detail where Tesla thought this "time bomb" called earth was headed, and how we can still prevent our planet from exploding. Revealed: Cosmic link with UFOs and Alien Intelligence. Seven Rays of Light. Christ Forces. Spiritual Hierarchy. Masters of Ageless Wisdom. Tesla's Anti-War Machine. The Elemental Kingdom. Venusian Space Brothers. 294 5x7 pages, spiral binding; $16.95.

THE WALL OF LIGHT — NIKOLA TESLA AND THE VENUSIAN SPACE SHIP by A.H. Matthews

Today, the author of this book carries on Tesla's work near his home in Quebec, Canada. Before passing, the great genius gave Matthews a personally written account of his own life which began on a distant planet. Tesla's early life reads like a fairy tale. He was no common mortal. He led a charmed life—given up by doctors at least three times as dead, he was a young man at seventy with a brain that was super keen. Tesla said that he believed he came from Venus, and during the landing of a UFO on the author's property, the members of the ship said Tesla was a child from Venus. As hard as it may be to believe, Matthews also says he was taken on a trip to Mars and given gold rocks by his alien friends. 138 8½x11 pages, stiff binding; $11.95.

ENIGMA FANTASTIQUE by W. Gordon Allen

Why was only a small portion of Dr. Tesla's work permitted to be used by world industry? What were the incredible secrets of mind control he demonstrated? Do mystics of science and religion use some of the same secrets of mental development? Can you train yourself and your children to use them also? Who are the world "groups in control" who have fettered the mind of man for many hundreds of years? Is their control in jeopardy today? Is the space race the key to the opening of man's minds? 197 8½x11 pages, spiral binding; $12.95.

OVERLORDS AND OLYMPIANS by W. Gordon Allen

The wife of the president of Mexico, First Lady Carmen Romand de Lopez Portillo, recently visited New York and purchased a video tape version of this book which has been aired widely on television as "Overlords of the UFO". This book ties in Tesla's work with many of the author's "New Age" discoveries. Sections included on: The Super People, Psychic Detectives, Uri Geller, Invisibles and Alien Intelligences, Demonic Possession, The Stendek Encounters, Four Bodies of Man, Rudolph Steiner, Nutrition, Organ Energy, Tesla's Spheroid - a Levitation Device, Gravitic Anomalies, Secret Brotherhoods. This volume is a bit more technical and far reaching than the others, and must be studied for hours for a full grasp. It is suggested you purchase this book after reading all the others. 184 8½x11 pages, spiral binding; $12.95.

The above photo may seem at first like an ink-blot test, but if you study it carefully you will be able to see quite clearly the face of Jesus, his long hair, beard and white robe. This amazing photo was taken during the icy cold winter just before the outbreak of the Korean War by a missionary who was being forced to flee the country as his life was in grave danger. As he was about to close his mission, he received a mental impression to take a picture of a nearby snowbank. When he returned to the U.S. and developed his film this is what came out.

Miracles and signs are happening all around us. GOD IS NOT DEAD! He is very much alive and promises once again to send his son to earth. His power and glory is always present!

THE FUTURE OF HUMANKIND
FROM THE SPACE BROTHERS

Across the vastness of space, a superior intelligence speaks out—offering a practical solution to earthly problems and warning that humans MUST “mend their ways, or suffer the consequences.” possible destruction of our planet.

Two years ago, a New York businessman went into a light trance. His facial expressions became more intense and his voice changed substantially. Suddenly, an entity identifying himself as “Ashtar— Commander in Chief of the Free Federation of Planets,” started to speak. During the course of the next few minutes this alien being spoke about a wonderful NEW AGE he said earth should ready itself for. This highly advanced spiritual entity expressed concern for our way of life and said that there were thousands of extraterrestrials just like him, who are willing to show us that a better way can be found to co-exist with one another and eventually come to live in total peace and harmony. 1982 PLANETARY ALIGNMENT FACT VS. FICTION

ASHTAR, CAN YOU EXPLAIN TO ME WHY THE PEOPLE OF EARTH ARE SO WORRIED ABOUT A THING LIKE THE ALIGNMENT OF THE PLANETS, WHEN THEY SEEM SO INTENT ON DESTROYING THEMSELVES WITH NUCLEAR WEAPONS?

For the last few years there has been a great deal of interest in the so-called "Jupiter Effect" which called for all the planets in the solar system to "line up" in space. For the most part the scientific community ridiculed the very idea that such a conjunction could have a noticeable effect on Earth. On the other hand a number of psychics and a community of "New Agers" who in general tend to accept the belief that the planets do play a part in our lives, strongly stated that this alignment would cause many negative influences including earthquakes, bad weather and volcanic eruptions.

As the media is prone to do, newspapers and TV picked up on this story and produced wild speculation in a very sensationalistic manner in order to grab headlines. Without having access to all the facts, the press picked up on the date March 10th and broadcast the message that everyone who believed in the occult thought the world was going to end sometime around high noon. Never once did they bother to interview anyone who might have an inkling of the real situation -- they expected that their blanket statements would cause a good laugh among members of their audience who obviously are not aware of the true facts on this matter.

The truth is that not one psychic ever predicted DOOMSDAY was coming on March 10th. In fact, on March 10th only five planets were in the same approximate portion of the heavens, the other planets left to join them later in the year.

"We've always talked about an overall -- a prolonged -- affect," notes Thelma Terrell of Deming, New Mexico, channel for the material presented in the best selling book, WORLD MESSAGES FOR THE COMING DECADE.

"Anyone who knows anything about astrology will be familiar with the fact that the planets in our solar system will be in a close proximity to each other right along until February of 1983." Renowned author Jeffrey Goodman who penned the popular "We Are The Earthquake Generation," sees greater significance in what will happen later this year (late November and well into December) when the planets close up the gap and spin around the sun jointly. Other sensitives have also pointed to this forthcoming conjunction as being much more important than the one that took place this past March.

"And remember," Thelma Terrell points out, "a lot of the changes that have been predicted will be on a spiritual level and not so much on the physical plane."

However, this is not to say that "NOTHING" did happen around the March 10th deadline for the end of the world.

As predicted, we had the worst winter recorded in this century. This included 45-foot deep snow drifts in California, floods in the central portions of the U.S., a tidal wave which pounded the South Sea Island kingdom of Tonga (drowning at least two children as 172 mile per hour winds from a cyclone injured hundreds more and tossed homes the length of a football field), and a blizzard that rocked the mid-west and east coast the week of Easter, postponing Spring till well into April. In addition, several earthquakes shock the floor of Mount St. Helen in Oregon sending lava and volcanic dust into the atmosphere. Residents of Mexico were hit even harder when a volcano believed to be inactive exploded killing ten people who tried to seek refuge inside a church.

But perhaps the most important aspect of the March conjunction, was the appearance of a "mysterious cloud" that circled the Northern Hemisphere as far south as Costa Rica and as far north as Wyoming. Scientists had to admit that they could not come up with a quick explanation for the 10 mile high "cloud" which made for some colorful twilights wherever it was seen.

"This cloud is most definitely a mother ship," insists UFO REVIEW subscriber Victoria

Christmas time 1982
Planetary alignment

Some experts such as Jeffrey Goodman in WE ARE THE EARTHQUAKE GENERATION insist the full impact of the conjunction will not be felt until later this year or early next.

John Hart has spent many hours in the air. In addition to being a pilot he is also an explorer who enjoys new challenges and looks forward to the next adventure. But when he first flew over the jungle in the state of Oaxaca (pronounced Wah-ha-ca) he couldn't believe his eyes. The ruins on the high mountain crest extend for 24 miles and are considered to be an archaeological wonder. Exquisite gold works and intricate pieces of jewelry have been dug up in recent years, and, in addition, here can be found strange rock carvings which indicate that the early colonizers of this area knew a great deal about the rest of the world. There are, for example, drawings which depict giant apes to be found in Africa, and men with slanted eyes, indicating that a link had been made with China.

But what pilot John Hart saw from the air is even more astonishing, for, according to a clipping from the Port Chester, New York Item, Hart observed what he feels may be a UFO base located in the dense jungle near these ruins. "On one occasion, I saw a brightly-lit spherical object hovering a few feet from the ground at the far edge of a small clearing. When it disappeared, it flew away at great speed." He added that UFOs have often been seen by natives who take the appearance of these flying saucers pretty much for granted.

As we climbed the pyramid at Uxmal, it was easy for us to visualize how this area must have originally looked at the height of the Mayan civilization. Here, all around us, stood towering monuments built in honor to the Gods of antiquity who, according to local legend, descended from the clouds in glittering space ships.

The night was warm and full of sounds as we listened to the stories of how the peaceful dwellers of this majestic site were taught much by those we believe to have been the ancient astronauts. Folklore has it that the grand Pyramid of the Magician was actually constructed in one night by the god Chac who disguised himself as a dwarf. Chac had asked for the hand of the king's daughter and was told that she would be his, but only if he could put up a towering temple in the span of one night. Using occult powers of transmutation, levitation and laser beam technology he accomplished this task with no difficulty.

Back in New York before we began our trip, we had been told that we would not be alone, that our guide -- though invisible to the eye under normal circumstances -- would be the space being Ashtar who, for many years, has regularly beamed messages down to earth for the sake of all of mankind. Naturally since we couldn't see him, we felt it would be impossible to say for certain if he had come along for the ride. According to the various channeled communications we had been receiving, the space people are very fond of the Yucatan, having landed there over the centuries.

CHAUFFEUR CONVERSES WITH ALIENS

UFO contacts in Mexico are pretty common. In fact, in the first issue of UFO REVIEW we detailed the rather astounding experience of a Mexican doctor who insists that he actually gave a physical examination to an extraterrestrial who entered his office one afternoon. (Copies of Vol. I, No. I are still available at $1.25.)

Back in the summer of 1953, UFOs were just starting to receive wide attention when a Mexican chauffeur came forward with a tale that was out of this world.

Salvador Villanueva Medina had been hired by an American couple to drive them from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas. Salvador had picked up the couple outside their hotel early in the day and proceeded on the journey which was to take them over some pretty rough roads.

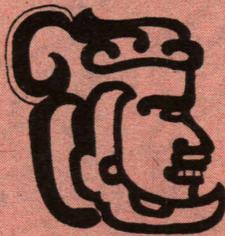

Beyond the town of Valles, the chauffeur began to experience problems with his auto, a 1952 Buick. It appeared as if the gears would not hold.

Realizing that he would not be able to go any further, Salvador pulled off the road and started to jack up the car. Sensing they would be of no help, the couple decided to hitch a ride to the nearest town.

Though it was getting darker by the minute, Salvador continued to tinker with the car. He believed that he would eventually locate the problem and be able to fix it. He was working under the Buick when he heard footsteps coming closer. Initially, he thought help had arrived, but upon crawling out from under the car he realized his problems were definitely not over.

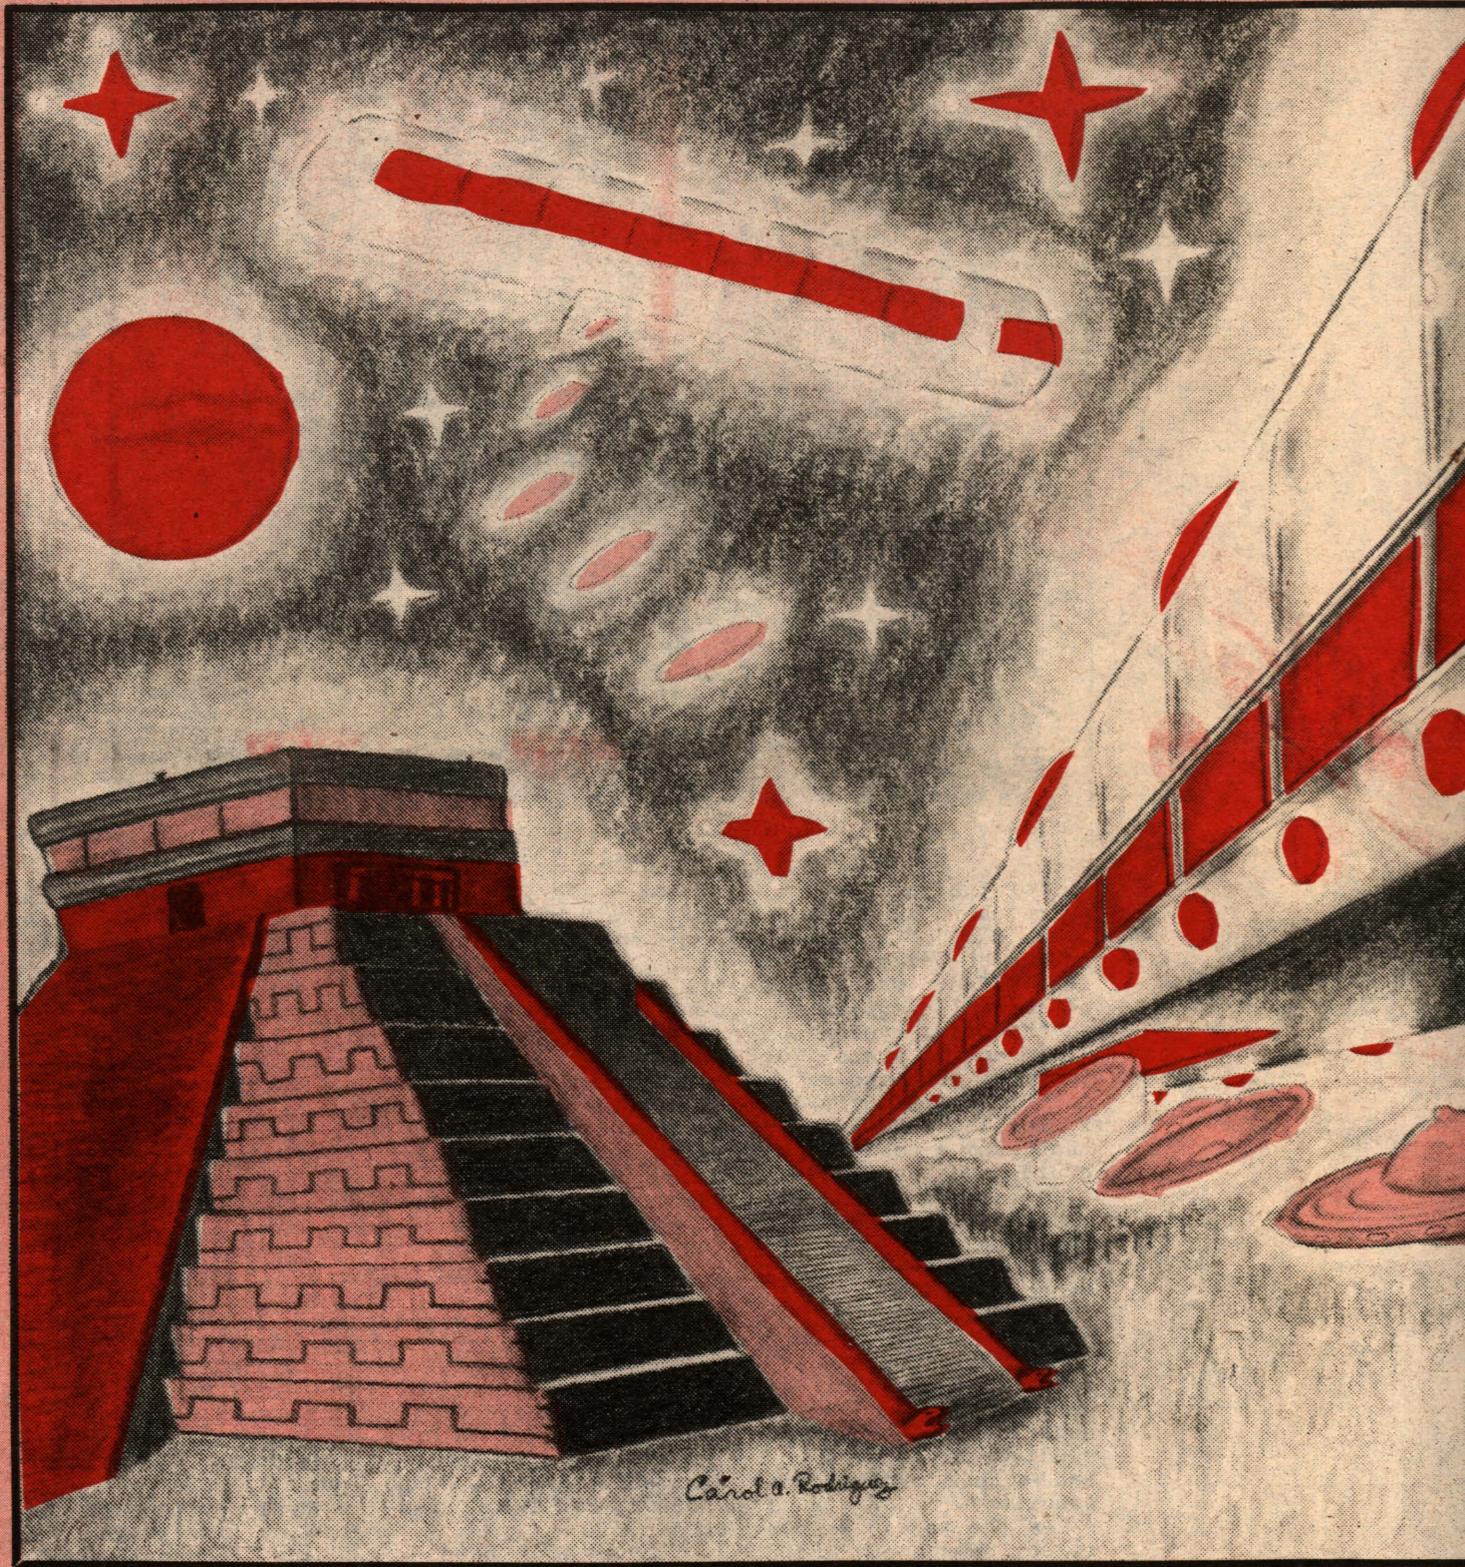

"A man with a very white face was standing before me. He was dressed in a one piece garment of a corduroy-like material which covered even his feet. It was tight at the ankles, cuffs and neck, but was loose elsewhere giving the appearance of being elastic. Around his waist he wore a thick belt about three inches wide of a bluish color. The strange thing about the belt was that it had holes in it, and the holes would light up little by little as if they had electric lights inside. Under his arm was a helmet like those used by football players, but from the ear pieces ran fine wires. He had fine features and a penetrating look. He had no beard and his hair was fine, wavy, grey and reached his shoulders. He seemed to stand about four feet tall and to weigh approximately 110 pounds."

Salvador said later that it was at this point that he really became nervous. "I was trembling. He asked me twice in correct Spanish what was wrong with the car. I could not answer because I was frightened and was watching him closely."

Finally, Salvador got hold of himself and asked if the man were some kind of aviator. "Yes, I am," the man stated pointing off in the direction of a nearby field where a strange machine stood.

"But you are obviously not from Mexico," the puzzled chauffeur noted. "Yes, that is correct," he was told, "I come from a place at much space," which is a literal translation of what the "aviator" said.

Salvador saw that the dor saw that the man was friendly and so he invited him into his car since it was almost pitch black outside. "But just then his belt began to send out luminous flashes and I noticed a buzzing sound coming from it. He put on his helmet, raised his arm in a parting gesture and walked away toward a hill. At about 200 meters I could see his belt twinkling like fireflies."

As time passed, Salvador began to get tired and so he decided to take a nap inside the car until morning when he would go off to seek the services of a mechanic. "Later on I was aroused by knocks on the car window. I saw two people standing near the car and thought they were the American couple who had hired me. My surprise was great when I saw it was my aviator friend, but this time he was accompanied by a taller person but dressed in the same sort of uniform."

His curiosity aroused, Salvador invited the two men inside the parked Buick.

"I was very interested in learning where it was they came from and so I asked the gentlemen if they were Europeans." Salvador was told that they came from a place a great distance further away than Europe. "The smaller of the men told me that in his place the towns cover everything. There were no uninhabited areas, and the streets were continuous. The people did not walk on the streets because they were metal and from them their vehicles took their power."

Continuing the conversation, Salvador then asked about what kind of food was eaten in the land where the men came from. "I was told that all the houses had little patios in the center where there is a garden and a well. They are able to produce all the food that is needed. He added that they did not have tall buildings and that in a street block they had continuous buildings."

Salvador was told that on their world there were oceans and that their chief source of power was the rays of the sun, this, years before we earthlings considered solar energy to be of any value. They also talked about government and said that poverty had long ago been wiped out, and that children were educated in a "certain zone" and were taught according to their physical and mental qualities." They added that their planet passed through the stage of development we are currently in, thousands of years ago.

They added that their world had also suffered many wars and destructive retrogressions and that finally an agreement was reached between the different governments, so that what we call nations and countries disappeared "and we all became sons of the same world." Supposedly, a council of "wise men" were formed all of whom had exceptional minds.

At dawn, their conversation completed, the two men excused themselves and started off down the road. Salvador followed them until they came to a ship which was 10 meters in diameter and about half as high. "At a signal a section of the ship opened and I could see certain things in the interior. My visitors invited me inside. At this I became panic stricken and turned and ran back to the car. A few minutes later, I saw their ship rise slowly above the trees. It was oscillating and luminous with bluish rays around it. Then it took off and quickly disappeared in the direction of the rising sun."

Shortly after dawn the American couple returned with a mechanic and the car was repaired. For a long while, Salvador kept his experience bottled up inside until eventually he broke down and told his wife. Months later, his account was the talk of Mexico and pioneer researchers, Bryant and Helen Reeve, thought so highly of Salvador's story that they devoted an entire chapter on it in their classic UFO book, "Flying Saucer Pilgrimage."

PSYCHIC APPARITION AT UXMAL

As we sat on the ledge of one of the buildings that makes up the great complex of ancient structures that is known as Uxmal, we expected almost anything to happen. Though the night was pitch black the various ruins were basked in colored lights that gave off strange luminations. One could very easily imagine the long dead priests as they went about their magical rituals which probably included communicating with beings from outer space. Indeed, it was in the seven chambers of the Temple of the Sun God that the worthy were initiated into long forgotten supernatural arts.

As we looked around us for any signs of a "visitor," we nearly jumped out of our skin when a bat flew by. We had been told Ashtar might appear and so we had half come to expect the materialization of a space being and not the appearance of good olé Count Dracular.

Suddenly, I felt a presence off to one side. "Do you see anyone standing over there?" I asked Carol, pointing in the direction beyond where any of the tourists were standing. I can't say for certain whether or not I was seeing this in a strict physical sense, or whether my consciousness was now operating on a higher level, but I was able to perceive the vague form of a purple or violet hue a few feet off the ground. Many times Ashtar or other space beings seem to materialize in such a fashion. For example, Carolyn Valentine an employee with the Naval Research Laboratory, Flight Support Detachment (Patuxent River, Maryland), reported a similar experience to me after having tried an experiment for contacting UFO-nauts as described in my BOOK OF SPACE CONTACTS. "Within seconds of concentrating on the Indigo triangle and the name ASHTAR, I felt as if I were being pulled upward. I was shown a being, and there seemed to be some vibration, rotating diamonds bright green in color and in the center was an out-of-focus head and shoulders view of a being."

The apparition at Uxmal -- if that indeed is what the form represented -- lasted only a few seconds and then my mind focused back on our surroundings. There is no way that I can positively state that this was Ashtar putting in an appearance, but later, back in New York, we were given a message received through telepathy that the Commander-in-Chief of the Free Federation of Planets had been with us on what had certainly been an inspiring occasion. I must say in all sincerity that a totally tranquil feeling overcame both of us and it felt like we had briefly been lifted from this dimension and deposited on another planet. Of course, skeptics will say that we were merely over excited by the fact that we were so far from home in a land of mystery that we truly believe to be enchanted.

UFOS & THE APOCALYPSE

If you should ask Samael Aun Weor about such things as the space brothers or traces of ancient astronauts on Mexican soil, he will more than likely nod his head in agreement. For Samael has been very active in both UFOlogy and archaeology, operating a group ("Asociacion Gnostica de Estudios Antropologicos y Culturales") which holds weekly meetings in Merida on topics related to this field.

"Scores of UFOs criss-cross in space. Some are gigantic like a large ocean liner. These are called the mother ships and within them they can carry up to 20 smaller craft. These mother ships can travel not only within our galaxy, but also to distant galaxies. They are equipped to traverse across the infinite reaches of space." Or so says Samael Aun Weor, who asks that the scientific community start to expand their awareness of the universe and not limit themselves to shallow thinking. After all, he explains, "Extraterrestrials are people who have opened their inner mind and become supermen in the true sense of the word."

And if you think Samael is talking out of his hat, basing his opinions strictly on what other parties have told him, you're wrong. Not afraid to stand up and "bear witness before the public," Samael is not ashamed to admit that he has made contact with alien beings in Mexico.

"I was in the Federal District when a UFO descended over a forest. Motivated by curiosity, I walked over to the area where the ship had landed and found the craft resting on steel tripods. I went up close to the ship, hoping that the extraterrestrials would take me into their ship. Suddenly, a hatchway opened up and an extraordinary man descended down a metal ladder. Behind him there were two other males and two women of unknown age.

"I said 'good morning' to the man who appeared to be the leader or captain of the crew and he answered me back in perfect Spanish. These people had copper colored skin, blue eyes, a high forehead, straight nose, fine, delicate lips, small ears and were of average height and on the slim side.

"They were moving towards some crates which were on the ground and this is when I told them I wanted to go with them to Mars." Samael says a puzzled look came over the leader of the UFO crew when Mars was brought up. "But that's right over there," the space ship captain indicated, as if it shouldn't be any trouble to make such a voyage. During the course of their conversation, one of the space women remarked that she was perplexed by how strange Earth was with all the hate and war that goes on here all the time.

Before they left, the Mexican UFOlogist asked once more if it wouldn't be possible for him to go for a ride to their home planet. "The leader seemed moved when I told him the request wasn't being made for myself, but for humanity who needs to be informed that such a higher technology exists. Raising his index finger he said, 'Keep to the path and we shall see.' The path I believe is the path to wisdom, the path to perfection."

Moving away to a safe distance, the UFO shot off into space, leaving Samael behind. "The extraterrestrials are from a culture which would never kill anyone, not even a bird, yet we terrestrials fear them and our governments try to shoot their craft from the sky.

As with many contactees in the United States the UFOnuts who have landed in Mexico warn of the destruction of our planet if we don't keep our war-like behavior in check. They also tell of a major disaster which will come about when the earth collides with another solid body traveling through space. "When this body reaches us," Samael claims, "it will set off magnetic disturbances which will trigger volcano's, earthquakes and tidal waves. The entire surface of the earth will be destroyed." Samael even warns of a polar shift, in keeping with the claims of other UFO contactees. Samael says that some of us will survive and go on to become a near perfect race. According to him, a number of humans have already "escaped," having been taken to other planets at their request. Like Adamski, he says there are 12 planets in the solar system and that there is intelligent life on these worlds in space. It would seem difficult to believe that Samael would have access to English published books on the subject, and yet the information he has supposedly received from extraterrestrial sources is amazingly similar to other contacts of this nature.

RETURNING HOME

As we passed through customs we couldn't help but wonder what would be the overall outcome of our travels south of the border. We had heard firsthand some very amazing stories involving our Space Brothers. In a sense we felt as if we had undergone a spiritual uplifting. In subsequent telepathic communications with the Ashtar Command, we had been informed that a "space port" is to be

NIGHT SIEGE

THE NORTHERN OHIO UFO-CREATURE INVASION

by Dennis Pilichus

The result of four months of investigation, this special report deals with the strange happenings of an Ohio farm family involving the appearance of "black forms with glowing, red eyes," snorting and growling sounds at night, creatures who can survive being shot as if nothing had happened, brilliant spheres of light "not of this world," bizarre "three-toed" footprints, mysterious swirling effect found in grass, apparitions that can change shape at will, and an assortment of other "boarderland oddities" that makes the late Charles Fort's work look like child's play. Includes photos, illustrations and an introduction by Berthold Schwarz, MD. -- $5.50.

HOW TO CONTACT SPACE PEOPLE

UFO contactee, Ted Owens, is about the strangest person ever to become involved in this field. He is perhaps best known for his accurate predictions involving massive blackouts, UFO sightings, freak weather conditions, as well as the outcome of international situations. Owens claims he is a messenger for the "SI's" better known as the "Saucer Intelligences" whom he can contact at will. In this tabloid-sized publication he reveals the method that he uses as well as the broadbased plan of the aliens he is in contact with. -- $3.95.

REPORTS SO BIZARRE THEY STAGGER THE IMAGINATION

Harold Trudel says he is in almost constant touch with aliens. To back his claims up he has taken an amazing series of photos that are so clear they show portholes and landing gear.

There are even those who swear that aliens walk amongst us. A Pittsburgh musician tried to save the life of a man in a club where he was working only to find that the man was built differently than anyone born here on earth. The man always dressed in black and was very thin and liked to talk about outer space all the time.

A physician in New England had never seriously considered the possibility that UFOs might be real. That is until the night a mysterious visitor showed up at his home and scared him half to death. When his family came home they found the doctor at the table holding a loaded revolver for protection!

Did you know that there is a UFO base 40 miles from the White House? That UFOs have had strange effects on the lives of humans the world over? That they can change your hair and skin different colors? Probably not, but you will after reading STRANGE ENCOUNTERS. $7.95

Bloom of St. Charles, Missouri. "It is an old and well established fact that 'They' comest in a cloud," apparently referring to Biblical texts. "It's a wonder the scientists don't say it is swamp gas," Victoria jokes, but adds in a serious tone, "We will be hearing more about this thru our UFO channels."

Because of wide spread interest in End Times predictions, we have included a list of the events forecast by some of the most outstanding sensitives of our time. We have only to keep an open mind and watch the heavens in the coming months for "Signs and Wonders" which proclaim that a "Golden Age" is coming.

IRENE HUGHES

Irene Hughes is perhaps the top psychic and medium operating out of the mid-west. She is a professional astrologer and a journalist with 15 awards to her credit. Irene's syndicated radio program is aired over 40 stations each week, and has written several books on parapsychology including one with Brad Steiger titled PSYCHIC SUFARRY. In addition to her lectures and classes which she teaches, Irene is often called upon by police departments in criminal matters. (Irene F. Hughes Ltd., 500 North Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 60611).

I began talking about the turbulent 1980s as far back as 1959. I had predicted that there would be terrible earthquakes beginning in 1979 throughout the year 2046, with some of the worst ones happening in California in 1986.

Incredible earth changes will occur, such as volcanoes erupting in Hawaii, and some of the Hawaiian Islands disappearing. There will be tremendous flooding and tidal waves in that area.

There will be tremendous earth changes connected with New York City, as I do feel that because of perhaps atomic war, that it will totally disappear and because of tremendous earthquakes, that are going to happen in the state of New York.

California won't sink into the Pacific, but I do feel that it will split in two and that an earthquake will rip it asunder, probably between 1986 and 1996.

Atomic war will break out or nuclear war between 1983-1986 with China as the great aggressor towards us. We are going to be shocked by her actions, even this year. Of course, the two Anti-Christ's, one born in France and the other in China, will begin to make themselves known within these next three years.

Organized religion will totally fall -- that is the organizational and orthodoxy part of it. The fact that there is a presence that we call God will be more evident than ever and man will discover as it was told him originally, but which has been denied him, the fact that God is within.

UFOs will be no longer a mystery and we will find that a number of nations have been involved in creating such space ships that can actually fly. We will also discover that indeed, ships of this nature were discovered in the Valley of the Moon and that we will find that ancient civilizations did use such ships in their travel. We will find that they were made billions of years ago and didn't deteriorate in the interplanetary space just as our space ships will not for billions of years, and some other civilization in the future will find them floating down. We will have space stations going extremely well in the late 1990s and in the year 2001 or 2003. The first child will probably be born in a space station near Mars.

There will, indeed, be great droughts and shortages of food all over the world, so that our diets will change and the preservation through dehydration of foods and the new methods of combining vitamins and nutrients for our bodies will come about.

New planets will be discovered near the Constellation Taurus, and asteroids will be closer to the earth than ever before. We will find that in 1986, when Haley's Comet returns, that the indications are its extreme closeness to our planet, and that tremendous meteorites will fall before its trip is over.

The aging process will find tremendous breakthroughs so that man will look younger and find that cells can be rebuilt within the brain and in other areas of the body to prevent us from growing older.

Kindness towards one another will be enhanced and a great love for one another will come about, but in a different way. There will not be any one world government nor any one world religion.

Incredible weather will continue, so, as I predicted in 1959, that by 1983 we would see the beginnings of an ice age in various areas of the U.S. We will have horrendous electrical storms in this area and in the Northwest and Southwest in 1982, and we will have some unbelievable storms in the coming years as they become more electrical due, I feel, to the approaching of Haley's Comet. When this comet appears, it is possible that we may have to wear gas masks because of the incredible output of the gaseous matter in its tail.

WARREN & LIBBY FREIBERG

A Chicago based husband and wife psychic team, Warren hosts a daily call-in phone show on WLNR radio, while Libby is a practicing trance medium and astrologer. They have forecast many changes for the next few years.

We're going to see an awful lot of changes in the geographical landscape of the earth between now and the turn of the century. Our spirit guides have repeatedly warned us that many large cities will be unsafe for habitation. They also warn that our drinking water may become contaminated due to pollution caused by the earthshaking events that are going to transpire.

Those members of the invisible kingdom whom we are in touch with say that our planet is actually rebelling because of the way man has treated her. Insects may grow to gigantic proportions and previously unknown life forms will begin to appear on the land. Some of them will be as gigantic as the dinosaurs of eons ago, while others will breathe fire and fly through the air kidnapping humans similar as to what has been predicted in the Book of Revelations.

If things get really bad, small clusters of humans will have to hide out in caves in order to survive. Hopefully, the "good people" will apparently be lifted off this "Hell Hole" before the worst happens.

BILL COX

UFO REVIEW columnist Bill Cox got out his dowsing equipment when he heard we wanted a reading as to what effect the planetary alignment was likely to have on our globe. Here are his findings and impressions on this important subject.

I've done some dowsing on this and I've found that the moon has a tremendous effect on our planet -- a great pulling and releasing power. There is definitely a pushing that comes from the other planets in space, and I think the conjunction of the planets on one side of the earth will be felt in years to come.

Actually, I became interested in this years ago because of the predictions that California would one day sink into the sea due to a major earthquake. There is no question that we do have the St. Andreas fault which is 100 million years or more old. However, I don't see the state splitting in two like some psychics have forecast. If the St. Andreas fault were going to crack it has had an awful long time to do so.

WORLD MESSAGES FOR THE COMING DECADE

A Cosmic Symposium of 27 Extra-Terrestrial Communiques, including nine noted Space Commanders, and representatives of the Solar Tribunal and Spiritual Hierarchy.

Four divisions within the text cover: World Chaos, World Changes, World Guardians and World Deliverance. World Teacher Lord Kuthumi is the Hierarchical Sponsor of the book, under the authority of the Great White Brotherhood. The contents were telepathically received through the spiritual messenger "Tuella", in an unprecedented schedule of prearranged heavenly appointments during a seven-day vigil in the mountains of New Mexico. Some of the many topics discussed are:

- What you should do when the earth changes begin.
- Significance of the planetary alignment.
- Real meaning behind UFO phenomena.
- The broad scope of the Guardian Action and why they are here.
- The challenge of the Ashtar Command.

- Prerequisites for interplanetary fellowship and rescue.
- The Saturnian Council and the invisible statesmen.
- The three phases of evacuation.
- The impersonal frequencies of lift-off and how they will affect you.

However, there is a great deal of documented information to support the idea that the earth is about to undergo a transformation through a series of devastating upheavals, perhaps brought about because of certain planetary influences. Some of this evidence goes back to the discovery of the planet Uranus in 1781. The best investigation on this was done by a geo-physicist from the University of Munich. He wrote a paper in 1953 which told of his findings showing that there were a number of earthquakes that coincided with planetary movements, particularly in relation to Uranus. Apparently; there were some 134 earthquakes when this planet was in a certain position in the heavens.

I believe that the earth probably shows its reaction to planetary bodies over prolonged periods, maybe even coinciding with an increase in sunspots as well.

We know that the moon

has pronounced effects on bodies of water, but so do earth tides. My mentor and teacher, the late Verne L. Cameron, found that in some places the earth was actually pulled out of its curve from two to three feet by tides of the moon in places where the earth was unstable.

Though I have been warned to leave Calif. I am still here. I tend to believe it may be through a series of upheavals that the state will lose some of its land to the ocean. But the positive thoughts sent out by people could have an effect on this. It is believed by some of the UFO contactees that the space people are continually working to relieve the stress on the earth's crust.

FRANK STRANGES

President of the International Evangelism Crusades, Frank Stranges is perhaps the only minister who actually claims to have met a being from another planet. Rev.Stranges' cloak-and-dagger meeting with Val Thor a supposed Venusian, is the subject of a popular book titled "Stranger at the Pentagon." The following are a few of the predictions he has made for the near future with the effects of the conjunction in mind.

During 1982, there is an excellent chance for UFOs to land openly and identify themselves. But this will not occur until certain individuals have been contacted and prepared for such a confrontation. The contacts will include either the military or those of a political persuasion. This will be the beginning of a new era on this planet.

In the area of the weather we should look out for an increase in sunspot activity as a result of the tear in the fabric of the Van Allen belt as a result of a missile launched during the Kennedy administration.

As far as science is concerned, information will be leaked that the U.S. has had a cure for cancer, but the big business of "fund raising" has fought its release. Also, a laser has been constructed that will carry sound to the moon.

In religion, the dark error of night will continue to attempt to keep back the light of God's revelation to mankind. False religions will be exposed by the daylight of advanced spiritual forces. Decayed superstitions will again surface in an attempt to confuse the masses.

I also believe that the battle of Jerusalem is beginning to take shape. Foreign military forces as well as U.N. delegates have studied my book "Outwitting Tomorrow" by my extraterrestrial friend, Val Thor, and found it not only amazing but also alarming.

estial realms," as well as "our brothers and sisters from beyond the stars." Beings from the planets Mars, Saturn and Jupiter communicate on a regular basis. "It is my understanding that these cosmic communicators live in the sixth, seventh, eighth, and upwards dimensions; therefore they are visible to us only by choice." Lu.Ah.Mah is the head of the Church of Universal Love located at 8034 Lowd, El Paso, 79907.

"In their communiques, the Cosmic and Space Masters continuously stress the primary importance of the spiritual changes which are an integral part of the stepped-up vibrations now in effect upon our earth. 'Pressure' will be the key word for the planetary conjunction which will reach a crescendo later this year. These pressures will be distinguishable on all levels, physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual, affecting first the inhabitants of our planet and then spilling over into the environment.

"Briefly, the severity of physical plane earthquakes will depend upon the disposition of each individual's own

EDITOR'S NOTE: As always, Bill Cox is on the move. While we were in England to deliver a series of lectures, we ran into one of the world's leading authorities on the subject of "Star People." Days later, Bill took off for Egypt, and after spending several weeks there he headed for Brazil where he filed this report which is the first of a regular series of columns based upon his global adventures.

Just about everywhere in Brazil you go you run into a mystery. Take for example the mysterious "fireballs" of Belo Horizonte which come up out of the ground.

Residents of this community have seen these strange objects for many years. According to the stories they tell, the fireballs are most often seen coming out of the base of a particularly large tree. When I was in Belo Horizonte on my last trip a man had actually gone to the trouble and expense of excavating the inside of the tree and had excavated enough room to put three or four railroad cars inside of it trying to find how far down in the earth these fireballs are coming from. No matter how deep they dug into the earth these fireballs still kept shooting up into the sky. They were not able to find the source of this strange activity. The fireballs seemed to come from very far within the earth, coming up into the sky, moving in an intelligent geometrical pattern, touching, doing dances with each other, as well as other impossible turns. They even changed color and size. Up until recently, these fireballs used to come out every night, but now they only come out occasionally.

As luck had it, I was able to do my own research into the matter. Supposedly, there was a haunted house nearby that was three or four hundred years old which has been reconstructed. Many residents believe there may have been spirits in that house which are responsible for all the fireball activity, but nobody can say for sure what is behind this phenomena. I did some dowsing at the house and was able to pick up an energy field and an entity which I could feel, but could not see. However, through psychic means, I was able to sense that the entity was a young girl who had lived in a neighboring house and had come to this house for comfort from her uncle. Before he died, he was able to communicate with her which was a definite comfort because she was earthbound for so long, and is still earthbound, I believe. From what I could sense, she maintains her "pad" in this haunted house, in a small attic apartment. The fireballs come up out of the ground no more than 50 yards from this so-called haunted dwelling.

REVERSAL OF GRAVITY

Not far from the area where the mysterious fireballs have been seen is a region that is just as strange -- if not more so.

On the outskirts of Belo Horizonte is a place that is called Peanut Hill -- a bizarre locale indeed. If you pour a bucket of water on the pavement it will roll uphill. A bus takes tourists up there and the bus puts on its brakes and proceeds to roll uphill. If a person is walking or running downhill they have to accelerate in order to keep from coming to a stop.

Naturally, there is considerable speculation as to what causes this phenomena. I feel strongly that at this point there are many magnetic anomalies that are responsible for the reversal of gravity. There is an abundance of precious stones in this region, in particular quartz crystal which changes the frequency of the vibrations of the brain waves of the people that live in this area, giving them certain powers that we call occult. This also might explain why there are so many UFO contactees living near Belo Horizonte.

THE CAVE OF UFOS IN LAPA PINTADA

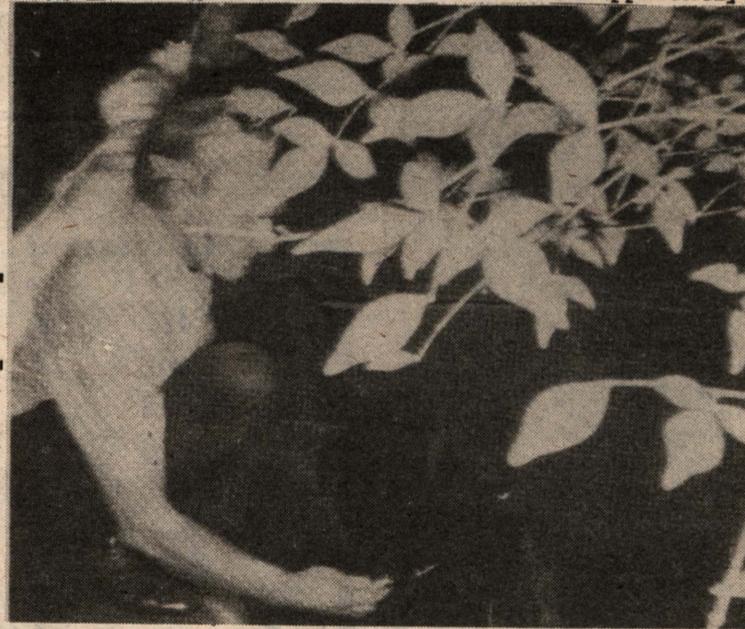

The area known as the "Painted Grotto" has to be among the most beautiful and breathtaking sights to be found anywhere on the face of this planet. Located at an elevation of 2,500 feet in the southeastern portion of the country, this grotto is responsible for much of the mining of precious and semi precious stones done in Brazil. In the grotto is a cave with carvings on the walls that resemble UFOs.

I have been to this region several times, but the bulk of the researching going on here must be credited to Hernani Ebecken De Araujo who claims to have seen UFOs on four occasions, including the sighting of a cigar-shaped vehicle.

Hernani believes that the markings found inside the cave in the Painted Grotto were probably done by the local Indians recalling the visitation of ancient astronauts. Some time ago he went up to this cave along with several college professors whom he wanted to have verify his findings. To Hernani's way of thinking the drawings on the cavern walls were what we would call flying saucers. He says there is evidence of more than 50 saucers everywhere on the walls. From what he observed he also came to the conclusion that the Indians had a good notion of time and used a kind of clock or calendar which further indicated that they were very aware of the cosmos. Hernani says that there are other caves with similar drawings in which have been found many bones. He theorizes that the Indians went to these caves when they knew that they were about to die. Apparently,

TREE, SOURCE OF TWILIGHT FIREBALLS...

Strange lights, seemingly directed by intelligence, issue nightly from the base of this large tree in Belo Horizonte, Minas Gerais, Brazil. The fireballs change in color, from red, through the spectrum into violet hues. They often move in vertical and horizontal lines, quickly changing direction and sometimes hovering above or near, but never touching onlookers. Efforts to find the firelight orbs' source by excavations at the base of the tree haven't solved the riddle: "They just keep on materializing from the lowest point in the ground," say witnesses. The gleaming spheres frequently ascend high into the sky, coming together in a kind of touch and kiss activity, often merging two fireballs into one. Dowsing the site at mid-day reveals a strong lifting motion with the Aurameter. Energy lines streaming upward from around the base cavity of the tree appear to move in a constant flow. B.C.

they had the capability to make dyes that lasted for hundreds of years. These people, he concluded, definitely were NOT savages.

Hernani tells this story of his initial visit to the Painted Grotto: "On the 18th of August, 1963, I visited the cave with the best drawings. It was the first time that any white man had ever been there. I found a message drawn by someone on a wall way back in the cave. The drawing had lasted about 11,500 years. In the drawing is a sun made from red paint. The sun is composed of ten circles and is surrounded by rays. Nearby, are what appear to be two moons. One moon is in its first quarter. The other moon appears to be a 'hollowed out' object of some sort. Located on the roof of the grotto directly overhead is a large cigar over one meter long. There is even a small saucer in the shape of a hat and a larger disc around 50 centimeters in size. The cave walls are covered with a strange form of language almost like hieroglyphics. This ancient language has survived all this time and is remarkable in what it discloses. The message was to know the sun and the moon and the cigar and the saucer. There is another design which represents the key of time which appears in the form of a coiled serpent."

Hernani spent a lot of time trying to figure out what the second moon was. He researched two years in six different libraries before arriving at the conclusion that there must have existed an object in the sky that was hollow, and that this object came toward the earth provoking an explosion caused by a supersonic impact. It devastated the axis of the earth and created the four seasons. This explosion supposedly also sank Atlantis as it created tidal waves. Hernani says that flying saucers come to earth from a space-time warp and that they may have put man on earth as well as the various species of animals and vegetables.

There is so much to see and do in Brazil as far as UFOs and other New Age subjects are concerned. It is a wonderful place to visit and I have had many fine adventures here.

Thousands of years ago, UFOs paid a visit to the area known as the "Painted Grotto," where disc-shaped devices have been found on cavern walls.

PYRAMID GUIDE Editor,

CASSETTE TAPES BY BILL COX

ANCIENT EGYPTIAN TECHNOLOGY (Psychotronic Rediscoveries)... This paper reveals little known information about the ancient power technology of early Egyptian, Sumerian and Babylonian races. Subjects include comparisons between current physical (objectiva) and the venerable prephysical (subjective) sciences, modern day psychotronics being the re-emergence of ancient intuitional physics (figuratively mind over matter; mind ntrolling the behavior, movement, disintegration and reintegration of matter and form). Subjects cover: CO-EXISTING TECHNOLOGIES COMING TOGETHER, SOPHISTICATED INSTRUMENTATION, ACCORD BETWEEN OBJECTIVE AND SUBJECTIVE PHYSICS, (SACRED) SCIENCES, THE SACRED SCIENTIST'S METHOD, A MASTER'S INSIGHTS: UNIFYING ART, PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION & SCIENCE: THE "TET" OF INITIATION, A MODERN PSYCHOTRONIC GENERATOR, "TET" BODY ALIGNMENT: EGYPTIAN-HIEROGLYPHS AND ANCIENT PICTOGRAPHS, A LOCAL BATTERY TELEPHONE SET DIAGRAM MADE UP OF HIEROGLYPHIC SYMBOLS. (Illustrated).

RESONANCE IN THE KINGS CHAMBER... (In the Great Pyramid) The Master Frequency, Paper by Rocky McCollum and Bill Cox. The resonant musical pitch of the Great Pyramid's main vaults & passages, the astonishing tonal quality and accurately tuned chambers found in the Egyptian pyramids & tombs is thoroughly explored by Pyramidologist McCollum and writer - former professional musician, Cox.

FORM ENERGY, Rediscovering an Ancient Science... This paper by Bill Cox, was first given at a St. Petersburg, Florida, Parascience Conference in 1976, later expanded and updated for presentation at the U.S. Psychotronics Ass'n Conference August 19, 1977. It is based upon more than 20 years of research and experimentation by the late and internationally known Dowsing Master and Psychic, Verne L. Cameron, including six years of research and compilation by the author, and a thorough investigation of the source, behavior and potential uses of pyramid, cone and other geometric shapes, such as cylinders, cubes, spheres, hemispheres, tetrahedrons etc.

SENSING: TOUCHING AT A DISTANCE

(Mind Energies and their Remote Control)... The subjects of this paper, will be of particular interest to Dowzers, Psychometrists and other questers of information beyond the limitations of one's so-called 5 senses (there are more than 30). Highlights include: Higher Sense Perceptions, Science Ignoring the Unknown: Two-dimensional Apprehension in a 3-dimensional World: Awareness, a function of Consciousness, ESP, a Misnomer: Various Modes of Cognition 1. Clairvoyance (extended sight); 2. Clairaudience (extended hearing); 3. Claircension (extended sense of smell); 4. Clairgustation (extended sense of taste) and 5. Clairsentience (feeling or touching at a distance).

EGYPTIAN & FORM ENERGY HEAD-DRESS OF THE ANCIENTS... This fully illustrated paper shows the seven major basic styles of head coverings worn by early Egyptian royalty, high priests and Initiates. Numerous combinations and variations of the "original seven" are also described and shown; their energy and initiatic principles revealed. Functional head wrappings of other civilizations and tribes are also presented in illustrated form.

All Papers @ $2.00 each P.pd. in the U.S.A. (foreign, add 50¢ for each Paper). A $2.00 discount is offered, when ALL 5 Papers are purchased at one time, that is, $8.00 full price for all five.

INTUITION VS. INTELLECT - An exploration of how the Subjective (Intuitional) and Objective (Intellectual/Sensate) mind functions can coordinate, to produce heightened awareness, clairvoyance, and other Extended Sense Perceptions. The various aspects of Human Thinking (Conscious, Subconscious, Collective Unconsciousness and Super conscious levels of mind are pursued, along with insights given on Subliminal and Supraliminal states, enabling one to safely coordinate and express between the Higher (Knowing) and Lower (Thinking) mind.

ANCIENT ENERGY INITIATIONS AND MAGIC (two tapes)... The subject of early Egyptian initiatic ceremonies and their purpose is presented here: A new look at wall paintings, petroglyphs, monuments and historic hieroglyphs, beyond ordinary religious, ceremonial and symbolic definitions given by Egyptologists.

FORM ENERGY (side 1) and WORLD PYRAMIDS IN ANCIENT AND MODERN TIMES (side 2)... For Form Energy cassette review, see description of the paper given by B.C. in this brochure. WORLD PYRAMIDS... a comprehensive analysis is presented suggesting that pyramid belts around the earth (30 degrees north and south latitude) are part of a possible ancient pyramid grid system networking our planet.

FORM ENERGY-A NEW SCALE OF VIBRATIONS... One of several lectures given by B.C. expanding upon written information presented in the paper of the title described elsewhere in this brochure.

SECRETS OF EGYPTIAN PYRAMIDS... Just what the title implies. Little known mysteries rediscovered as a result of Cox's scholarly Egyptian investigations with Mark Singer's regular expeditionary treks to the Great Pyramids, Sphinx and ancient sites in North Africa. Several new finds, re-interpretations of data and rediscoveries are presented in this "recorded live" tape session.

SHAMBALLA... The mystical, magical, mysterious legendary city of Avatars, Adepts and Ascending Masters is revealed in great detail in this tape lecture. Shamballa, its purpose, possible location in the Gobi Desert; meaning, past, present, and future implications are carefully examined.

PYRAMID FORM PRODUCES SUPERPLANTS... (2 cassette tapes) Bill Cox interviews Gilbert "Gib" Milne, Toronto, Canada, amateur horticulturist who has produced abundant and convincing evidence of his outstanding, innovative and successful pyramid-form energized, plant experiments. Nature lovers, greenhouse farmers, florists and green-thumb gardeners will be inspired by the enthusiastic explanations of Gib Milne, responding to questions asked by B.C. Proof of Pyramid Power is most evident in fern and plant tests; moreover, Gib's added Electroculture and Acupuncture techniques bring new dimensions to this area of study and experimentation.

pressions of two kinds of pyramids, smooth-sided such as Egyptian structures, and step pyramids found in Mexico and in other Hispanic countries. He also recalled a comment, "Stripped of knowledge," in reference to Egyptian-type pyramids, and being told to "Seek Itsamma." He was puzzled by this strange request, as well as the other little-understood information on the pyramids. What little he previously knew about pyramids and UFOs came from reading CHARIOTS OF THE GODS by Eric Von Daniken, and some movies seen on television. Timothy Green Beckley, editor of UFO REVIEW, had sent him a large package of publications and he was going through them frantically, trying to find clues that would help him understand his experience.

TAKE OFF

Throughout the encounter and strange "conversation" Shallcross did not experience fear. After it was over he felt "a kind of elation," yet minor apprehension may have been expressed in one of his questions. Being a devout Catholic, he may have felt religious conflicts during the meeting, for he asked the visitor about the reality of God and Jesus Christ.

"THESE ARE UNIVERSAL TRUTHS," was the simple reply, and this positive statement reassured the witness of the visitor's good intentions.

During the meeting Shallcross had stood beside the pole, shining his flashlight onto the body of the visitor. The pulsating light appeared to be hovering about 25 feet away, up a slope. Then he found himself suddenly moved from the spot and standing near a huge "flying saucer" which had now partly lighted up. It hovered about 5 feet off the ground and appeared to be about 25 feet in diameter at its midsection, a circle of red, orange and yellow lights. Above and below the midsection (see witness's drawing) appeared two sections "like soup plates joined at their rims." The top section was illuminated by a hazy purple light (He had no idea how he had moved the considerable distance instantly, as if teleported. Of course a temporary lapse in memory could account for walking normally to the craft).

A moment after the strange displacement a door opened downward from the bottom of the craft and Shallcross felt a wave of heat. At that very moment the visitor "was no longer standing there, as if he had vanished."

The lighted rim of the craft then began to revolve slowly; then it picked up speed. As the lights became a blur due to the speed of revolving, the machine slowly lifted from its hovering position and emitted a humming sound. The humming grew louder as the machine reached an estimated tree-top level. Then it suddenly shot off at an upward angle and steady climb, gathering speed as it moved. In a few seconds it disappeared over the distant hills, growing even brighter as it departed.

Partly stunned at what he had heard and witnessed, Shallcross stumbled out of the field and to his car, surprised to note the headlights were on again (He had forgotten to turn them off when they went out). The car started normally. When he returned to the house his wife had awakened and he was telling her of the experience when a state policeman arrived to investigate.

The officer told Shallcross that since the complaint initially reported a possible plane crash, he would leave it at that and enter negative results in the Duty Log at headquarters.

Late that day Shallcross began to suffer painful sunburn-like symptoms. He went to the state police headquarters to talk again with the officer, who noted the burned condition.

"It might make you feel a little better," the officer told him, "to know that a couple of other people in your general area reported possible plane crashes this morning."

Then he confided further information: Two years previously, before Shallcross had moved to the farm, the location where his trailer sat had been a pine thicket. The officer told him about reports of lights landing and rising in the thicket.

(A telephone check with the police officer confirmed Shallcross's claims. His office had received two similar reports but they were from anonymous sources. The incident had been recorded in the log as a possible plane crash. Yes, Shallcross did exhibit symptoms like sunburn. And informal inquiries in the community drew favorable remarks about his character.)

SEARCHING FOR A UFO BASE

Since this column has been written under pressure of a deadline and in available space much to limited report more fully, We apologize to readers, both on behalf of ourself and Mr. Beckley, for such brief handling of a CE-3 incident which may develop as one of the most important of the decade.

Other investigators, including Beckley, Harold Salkin and James W. Moseley have shared our opinion of the apparent honesty of the witness.

And as we proof-read the foregoing, we have just returned from a personal visit to Shallcross with a sheaf of notes and extensive tape recordings which will be impossible to process during this writing.

We can only touch upon some of this additional information we uncovered:

Based on the material Beckley sent the witness, he has employed his engineering knowledge to track a large number of sightings in the eastern U.S. and reach startling conclusions about flight paths. He has consulted geodetic surveys that indicate the high incidence of sightings may be correlated with an earthquake fault line which roughly follows the borders of Virginia and West Virginia.

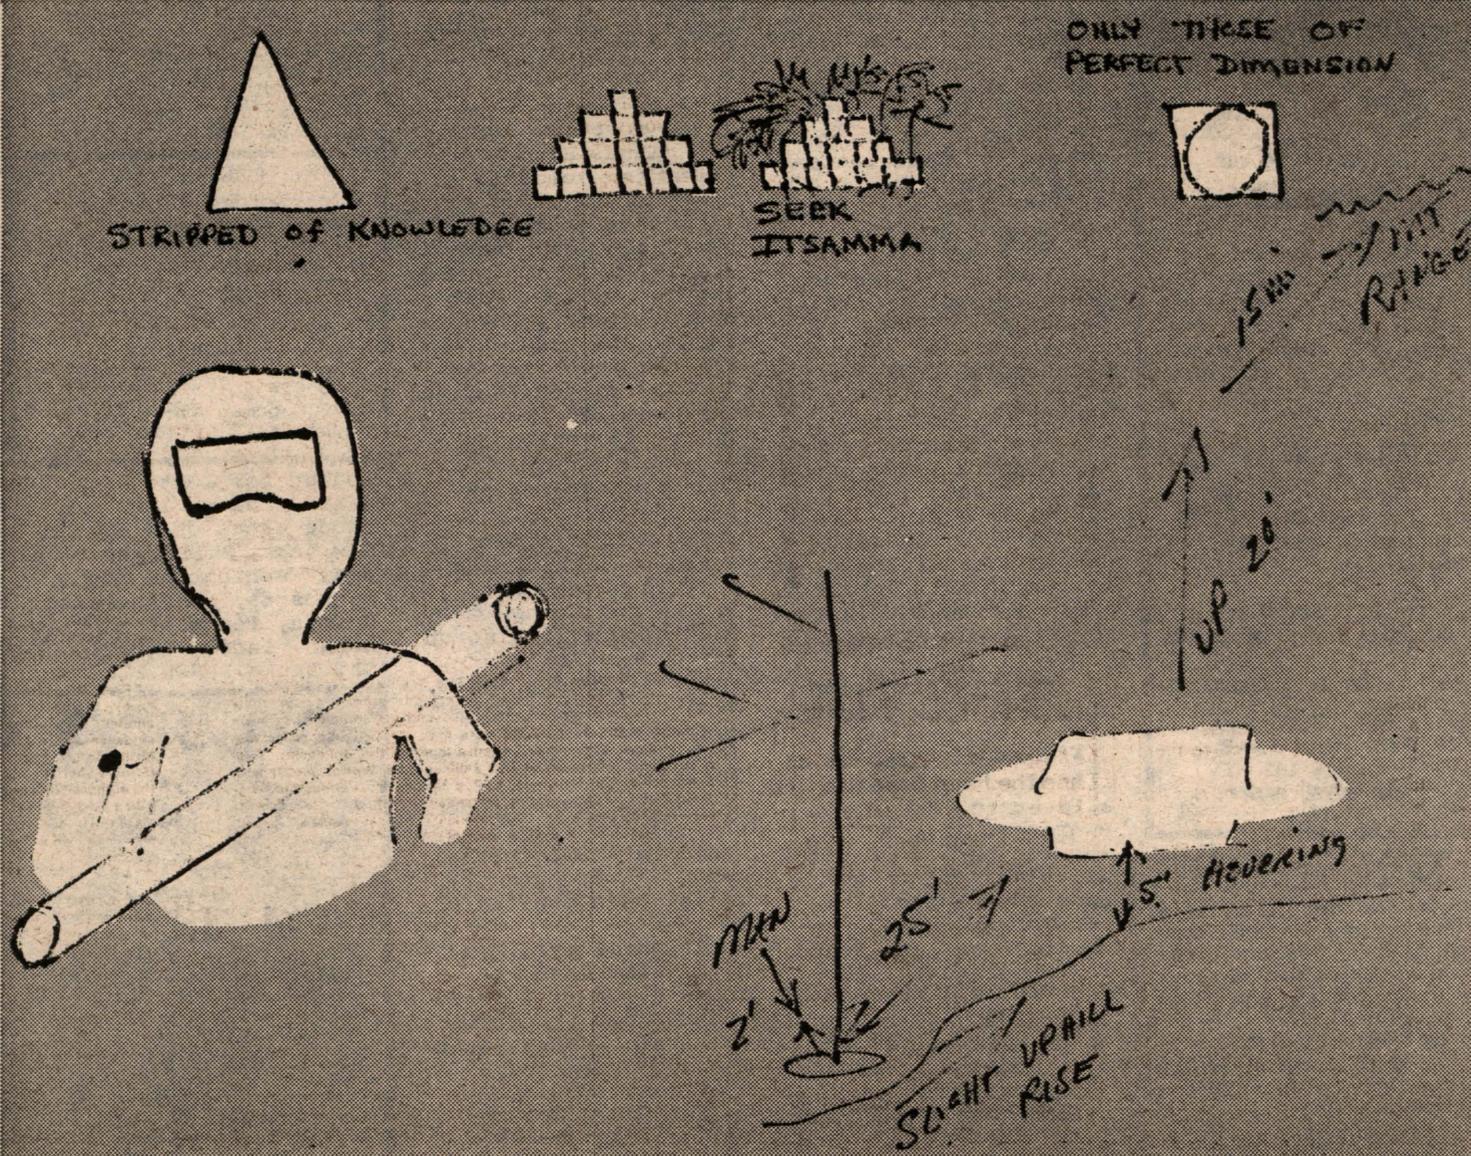

We plan to make a more complete report on both the incident and Shallcross's research.

Any reader who sincerely desires to evaluate these findings may receive this report without charge by sending a No. 10 or larger self-addressed envelope with 37 cents in stamps attached to: Gray Barker, Box D, Jane Lew, WV 26378. Please allow ample time for this report to be prepared and mailed.

A tape recording of interviews with the witness may also be obtained, but there must be a charge for this. Send $7.95 to Mr. Beckley at UFO REVIEW, 303 Fifth Ave., Suite 1306, New York, NY 10016, including $1.00 additional for postage and handling.

Finally, we include the following at the risk of attracting those who may be more interested in thrills and adventure than in serious UFO research. Shallcross believes he has determined, through his mathematical projections and calculations, a 50-square-mile area which may contain the actual UFO base operations for the eastern U.S. He has not revealed the actual location to us, the other investigators, or to anybody else, except for loosely identifying its location as in the "central eastern" area. He plans to go to this area and use further calculations to pin-personal 'earthquakes.' The fall will be a time for the resurrecting of problems which have not been met head on and handled by my people and nations. The fallout of these pressures will encompass problems involving relationships with people, groups of people, economics, and health on both the personal and national-international levels. Nationally and worldwide, relationships with people, other nations, religion, and military matters will not be put off any longer.

While undergoing his hair-raising encounter, Donn Shallcross was shown a number of mental images which he later drew upon returning to his house. The large drawing is of the actual "figure" he saw while standing in the field.

"The law of probability is now printing out some definite warning signs as far as earthquakes in our western coastal states are concerned. Yet with the help of our Space Friends and the Light Workers upon this planet, that which is predicted for the Nov.-Dec. time frame would appear to be minor -- unless there is a significant buildup of world negativity beginning in Sept. All earth changes forecast for this alignment will serve as a herald or harbinger for that which is to come, a "sneak preview," if you will for the remainder of the century.

"Severe and unseasonable weather will continue to be in the news.

Some infringement of seawater upon coastal areas is seen this year, but these are mild compared to that which will occur later in the decade. Tuning into the vibrations of both San Francisco and San Diego, a great massing of higher vibrations seems to have formed protective cones of light which will hold true this 1982 period. But there does seem to be some newsworthy activity in the Sacramento area.

"Continuing small quakes in unusual areas such as the south and midwest also are being reflected upon the screen of the future for the 1982 planetary alignment period and indeed all this year. Food shortages will become more critical in some parts of the world with the likelihood that some items may become temporarily unavailable on U.S. market shelves. Land rising in Bimini should become more apparent. Possibility of topographical and civil upheavals are a strong bet in Turkey/Italy or the Middle East.

"This testing time should be viewed as a time of opportunity, for pressure can also be utilized as an impetus and a lever to increase awareness in a much shorter period of time. All times of stress have the tendency to accelerate wisdom, understanding, and truth for those who are receptive. The bridegroom of the New Age beckons; it is time for us to work together trimming our wicks with love and filling our lamps with the Higher Light. THERE IS NO ALTERNATIVE built in the Yucatan, and that when, and if, the "End Times" should arrive, this spot will be one of the "lift off" points from which "the chosen" shall be taken up. Ashtar's prediction that we might find a lost artifact did NOT come to pass, though later on we did read an article in a New York paper to the effect that recent archaeological findings had been made by a leading Mexican university. Whether or not this is confirmation of what Ashtar had said is not for us to decide.

But perhaps most amazing of all is the recent contact experience of a West Virginia man (see Gray Barker's article in this issue) who claims that the alien he telepathically communicated with told him to "Seek Itzamna" which, according to Peter Tompkins book "Secrets of the Mexican Pyramids," refers to the first leader of the Yucatan who was said to be the head of the "Chanes" or "People of the Serpent." This relationship seems to be beyond coincidence and is added fuel to the fire, which suggests that Mexico will play an important role in what is about to transpire on earth. ■

THE LADY APPEARS

Suddenly, about half the way up the side of the mountain, I saw a beautiful woman less than two feet tall. She was dressed in a white tunic, just like all the drawings of the virgin. The woman's skin was a strong pink. She had very large, blue eyes and her hair was golden blonde. In one hand she held a red belt, and to me it seemed as if she were capable of reading my mind.

After a few seconds of indecision on my part, I decided to try and communicate with her. "Lady, I know you are not a spirit but a representative of another world, whose mission is to do good and look for love between the inhabitants of this planet and yours. I only wish to speak with you, so as to receive your message and teach it to those who want to grow spiritually."

Before I had finished speaking with the "Lady" she started to move away, up the mountainside. To me it did not look as if she were walking as I did not see her feet touch the ground (her tunic was covering her feet). Within minutes she reached the cave at the summit of the mountain and vanished inside.

Not one to give up so easily in my quest, I tried to follow her. Eventually, I reached the cave at whose entrance there was a small platform about thirty square feet. The platform was covered with flowers and vegetables obviously placed there by the faithful in gratitude for miraculous cures received by the local inhabitants.

As the others in our party reached the top, I suggested that we search for the bell the "Lady" used in order to summon the Mountain Folk. I figured that it would have to be rather large in order to be heard throughout the entire valley. Because of its size it would be pretty hard to hide in the cave.

Taking matters into my own hands, I asked the youngest of the two boys who had led us to the cave to go inside the small opening and see if the "Lady" was there. A few minutes later he crawled back out on his hands and knees and told us, "Yes, she is there, but she is not alone -- she is accompanied by two angels."

"Two angels?" we asked wanting a better description.

"Yes mister," answered the boy. "She is with two little men, dressed in gold."

Once again I asked the boy to enter the cave and request permission to make contact with the "Lady in White" and the little men. I told the boy what to say, that we were learned men and wished to tighten fraternal bonds with our space brothers. Upon his return the youth stated that the "Lady in White" was willing to come out at midnight. I said that was not practical, since at this altitude we would surely become sick or perhaps even freeze to death. All our geiger counters, telescopes and other measuring devices would do us no good since we didn't have the proper garments to sleep at this high altitude.

It was obvious that she did not wish a physical contact with members of our group, and so we went away disappointed. But, perhaps we shall return some day soon to this region and discover even more about the "Lady in White" and the "angels" who accompany her in the cave. ■

THE MYSTERIOUS LADY IN WHITE OF THE ANDES

Over the years, Peru has seen its share of UFO related happenings. Many citizens have reported seeing far distant lights in the sky that behave "improperly," and encounters with aliens happen here as frequently as anywhere else in South America, or the rest of the world for that matter. But there is an area in the state of Huanaco that deserves special attention for among the strange phenomenon reportedly occurring here includes:

- Diabolical lights;
- Unknown flying machines;
- Odd creatures that materialize in the surrounding hills, emitting magical sounding hums,
- And most amazing of all, the appearance of a female figure dressed in white that has become known as the "White Lady of the Andes."

Our first inkling of anything unusual taking place in this particular region occurred when three local inhabitants, or Hill People as we call them, arrived in Lima after a long exhausting journey from their territory which is located between the central and eastern ranges of the Andes, not far from the edge of the jungle on the banks of the Haullaga, a tributary of the Amazon.

STRANGE FIGURE

The state of Huanaco is in itself somewhat of a mystery even to the rest of Peru. Tradition holds that the first inhabitants of the area came from the heavens, and some years back archaeologists uncovered the now famous "Temple of the Crossed Hands," believed to be the oldest archaeological artifact anywhere in the Americas. Made of mud this figure dates back 4200 years, and studies have shown that the formation of its fingers, wrist and forearm is totally of a different nature from that of the people who now inhabit this region. It is generally believed that a different race must have arrived in Peru in the remote past from another continent. What cannot be explained is the fact that since the statue was made out of mud how it has been able to survive the passing of time and the forces of nature. This would indicate that an unknown ingredient was used in its composition.

AN INVESTIGATION IS ORGANIZED

Quickly, the Peruvian Society for Interplanetary Relations organized a fact finding mission to the region. Many interesting stories had long been reaching us from this area and we decided it was time to investigate.

The first group was headed by Cesar Vasques Salasi a scientist from Ecuador. He was accompanied on the journey by two capable researchers, Senor Alessandri and Alvarez. Together they traveled to the scene and interviewed several witnesses. They were even told about a case involving a man who was caught in quick sand and was saved when he was pulled out of the sink hole by two little men with greenish tinted skin.
