DIANE TESSMAN INTERVIEWED ON "LAST DAYS"
& WORLD EVACUATION BY UFOS

THE ARTIST AND THE ETs

Lisa Egan considers herself to be an "inspired" painter. Up until several years ago the talented artist had never given much thought to UFOs. Then one night she had an experience that changed her life.

"I was sleep outdoors at my father's house in Pennsylvania. Shortly after dark, I had taken my sleeping bag and placed it on top of a picnic table in the yard so that I could look at the stars." Lisa crawled into the sleeping bag and began training her gaze on the sky. "It's so amazing, because in the city you can see only a handful of the stars while in the country, the entire universe appears before your eyes."

Lisa doesn't remember dozing off, but apparently she fell asleep. Sometime during the middle of the night she awoke and found herself surrounded by intense light. Behind the light she could feel someone watching her or monitoring her movements. Next thing Lisa remembers is that it was morning.

"I don't know what happened to me that night," she confessed to Tim Beckley, "but since then I have had an intense interest in UFOs. I've read a lot on the subject and shortly after this experience I began adding space ships into almost all my paintings."

Lisa does not rule out the possibility that she was taken on board a flying saucer and perhaps subjected to a physical examination. "I can't say for certain what happened, but this night remains fixed in my mind and it is a big mystery to me. It is a mystery I would like to solve, but I can't help but be convinced that somehow it ties in with visitors from space."

STRANGE ENCOUNTERS

BY DIANE TESSMAN

MYSTERY OF THE DISAPPEARING CAR

After an appearance on a radio talk show, I received a fascinating phone call from a former military man. He explained that he simply had to call after listening to my talk on UFOs because his entire life had been changed by an utterly bizarre encounter with forces from outside our reality.

Since Richard is still harassed by unknown agencies and individuals, he requests that I not use his last name, but he is anxious to have his encounter printed in case there are others out there who have undergone a similar experience.

At this time of his strange encounter, Richard was an officer in the Air Force with a top security clearance. He was returning from a two week vacation in Maine, where he had fished and relaxed with friends. He remembers that he was under no undue strain and in fact was rested up after his long vacation from the regular tensions of his position in the military.

As he was driving around 10:00 p.m. in New Hampshire, heading back to his base in Connecticut, a brilliant light suddenly descended on and around him. That is the last thing he remembers for two weeks!

Fourteen days later, Richard was found wandering naked down a side road he had never, to his best recollection, been on before in his life. He had no idea of what had happened to him for two entire weeks and the military's use of a lie detector (polygraph machine) shed no light on where he had been. He was disoriented, confused and remembered only driving along, content from his vacation, and then the light. The next fourteen days and nights remain a total blank!

The Air Force proceeded to give him doses of sodium pentothol (truth serum). Shockingly, even this measure did not jog his memory as to what had happened to his missing time.

Still, more bizarre is the fact that his missing car was finally spotted on top of a high New Hampshire peak which had absolutely no road leading up to it. Even if Richard had gone berserk, lost his memory for two weeks, taken off his clothes and strolled down the road, he could not have gotten his car on top of a mountain with no road or path on it! This offers proof positive that something totally unknown happened to him. This "thing", also managed to block his conscious memory so perfectly that even truth serum could not pry loose the reality of what happened in his life.

And how was the Air Force to get the car off the mountain which had no road or path? They lifted it off with a heavy duty Chinook helicopter. This was the only way to remove it.

Once the car was examined, it was found that the CB radio was fused together—the circuits had been totally melted together! And significantly, Richard's encounter with the unknown occurred very near Betty and Barney Hill's famous UFO encounter and abduction.

Tragically, Richard does not know what else was found by the Air Force because they stopped keeping him posted on the results of the tests on the car: they began giving Richard exhaustive psychological tests, confined him to the mental ward of a military hospital, and he lost his top secret clearance.

This was only the start of his downfall, as the top brass continued to harass him, test him, confine him. Eventually, they dishonorably discharged him. Still, the nightmare did not end. As soon as Richard secured a decent employment he was mysteriously fired from that job. Consequently, he has "bummed" around the whole country trying to find peace and a steady income. He feels that his phone is bugged and that great danger awaits him outside his door. His once secure and elitest world is shattered by an event he still does not begin to understand.

Perhaps the most surprising aspect of all is, that Richard does not feel fear toward the force or beings which "kidnapped" him for two weeks. Even though he cannot remember what happened to him, even though he was set free naked along a deserted road, even though his car was placed atop an unreachable mountain and his career and life were ruined, he feels only curiosity and a vague warmth toward whoever it was that abducted him.

On the other hand, he feels great bitterness and anger toward the military which obviously railroaded him out of its ranks without considering the evidence that there was indeed an outside factor involved. Or did they realize that he had been kidnapped by someone or some-

"BENEFICIAL UFO BEINGS HELP GUIDE MY LIFE"

by Alexandra von Arnheim

The following is a brief narration of Alexandra's experiences taken from a taped interview conducted by Tim Beckley during a recent conference sponsored by the UFO Contact Center in Safford, Arizona. It was done around midnight, on a back stretch of road, quite a few miles from town, on the hood of the car, as Beckley and von Arnheim conducted a skywatch and tried to make telepathic contact with the occupants of UFOs which have been widely seen over this area of desert in the southwest.

When I was five, I saw a huge bright light coming in through the bay window of my room. It was whizzing and spinning, as it came in through my window. I jumped as it came at me and then it was gone. It had come in right through the glass. My parents were in the house, but in different rooms. The light, which was the size of a basketball, was in the room for just a few minutes. My parents didn't believe me when I told them about it.

I never thought about the incident until years later, when I was reading a book about UFOs. It mentioned the case of a man who had an experience when he was five, with a whizzing ball of light. It was the whooshing noise, which he described that triggered the memory of my own experience.

After that, I started having dreams of walking down a road and then being chased by a big searchlight. It was a white light, which would zig zag after me, while I would run and hide in the bushes. I was about six or seven at the time. It was the same kind of light as the one that had come through the window.

Later, I had an intense reaction when I saw Close Encounters. I broke into a sweat and remembered my dreams, as I saw the same zig zagging lights in the movie. I had the dreams continuously, during a three year period.

I also used to dream about things that would happen the next day. It was confusing. For a long time I didn't know what was reality and what was the dream. Of course, once you tell your parents and they say, "That doesn't happen," you quit doing it. I could always find anything that anyone lost.

After I saw Close Encounters, a friend and I used to go out looking for UFOs. We also did a lot of automatic writing. We contacted a being named Hermes who talked about the Space Brothers. He communicated with my friend telepathically. One day, when I was at work, I had a strong impression to call my friend. When I called her, she started laughing and said that Hermes had told her that he was going to prove he could control things, by making me telephone her.

Hermes told us he was from Orion. My friend and I always had a special feeling about Orion. We used to look at the sky and say, "Oh, where is Orion?"

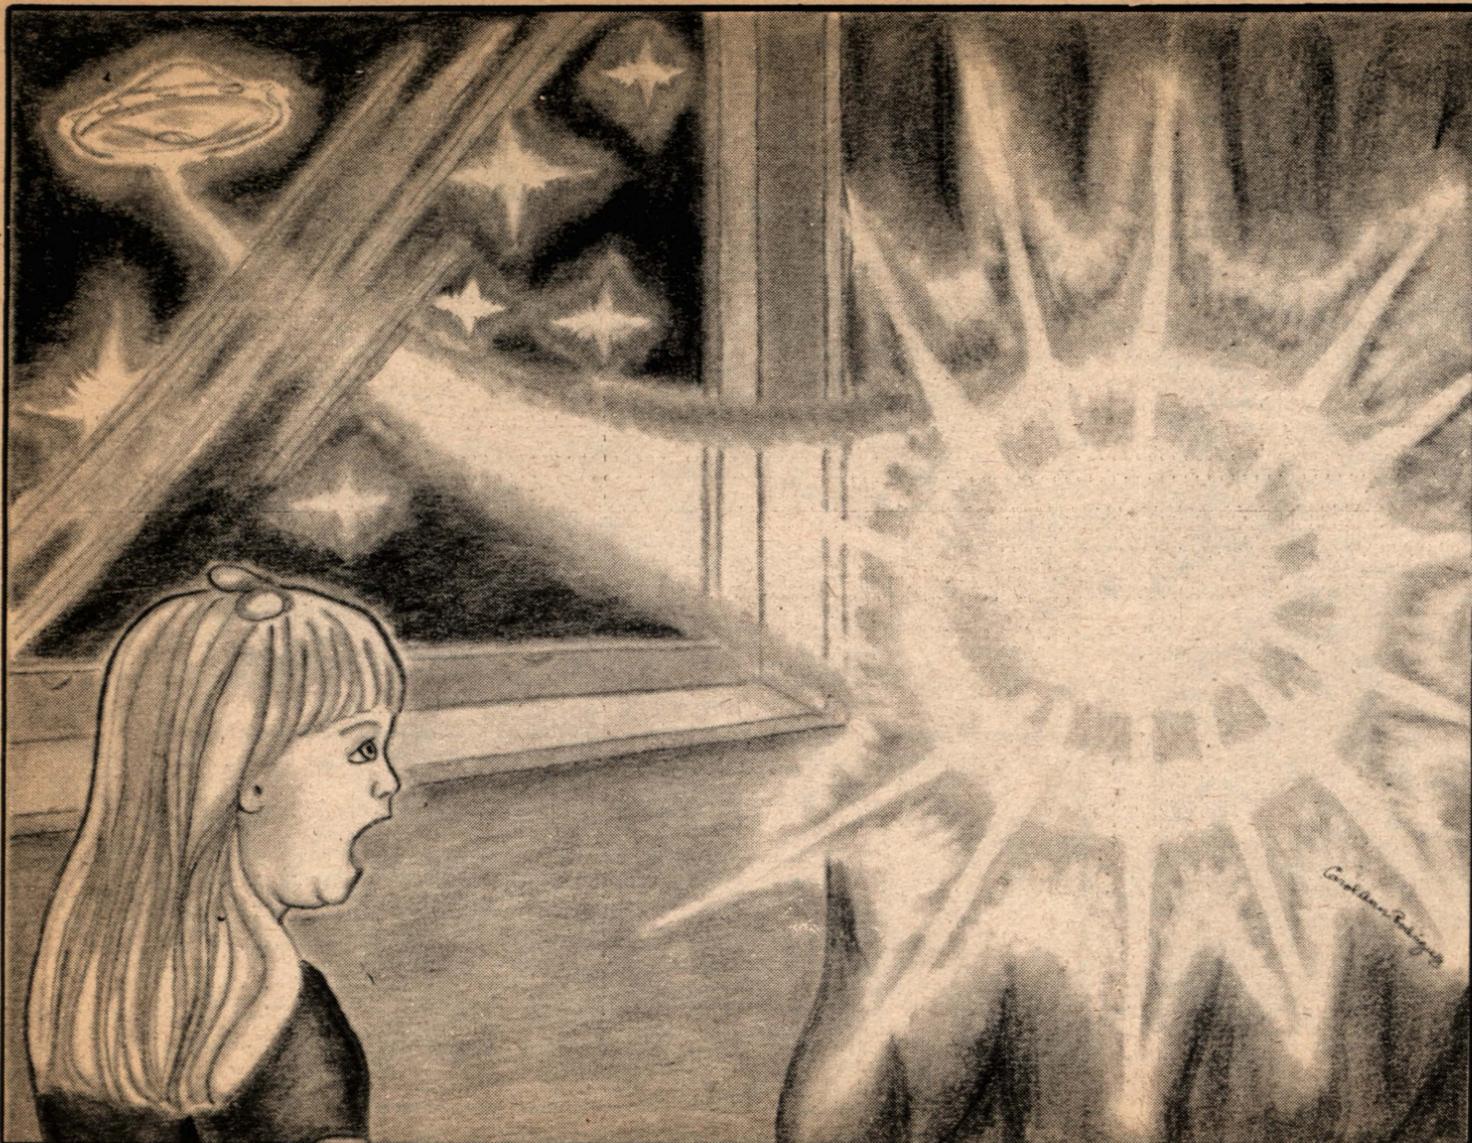

Once, when I took a military jump from California to New Jersey when we got to Kansas, I had the feeling that I should take another plane. So I boarded another plane, even though it was inconvenient because it was going to New York. It turned out that the original plane I was on had crashed and everyone on board was killed. I also had an experience when I was in Dublin. I was crossing the street and I heard a voice which told me to take my foot out of the street. The person who was crossing with me kept going and was run down by a car which came out of nowhere, racing at a speed of about eighty miles an hour. There was another incident in which a person crashed into the back of my car. I thought that I was going to die but a voice told me that I was going to walk away from it. I've had several occasions when voices had told me things.

The one thing I am sure of, is that there are other people out there. When we were doing the automatic writing, we got a lot of material about other planets. Hermes told us that they were all our brothers and sisters and that we would know, when we looked upon their faces. This was years before I had even heard of the Space Brothers. The contact with Hermes ended when my friend moved away.

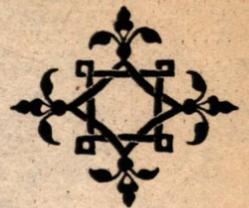

Years later, I went to a psychic, who told me that my vibratory rate was speeding up. I had no idea as to what that meant. But, it seemed as though, after that time, whenever I wanted to know something, I would find a book or someone would tell me something. It was as though I was being given the pieces to a puzzle. When I wanted to find out what vibratory rate meant, I went into a bookstore and found Brad and Francie Stiegers' books about the star people.

The star peoples' profile interested me because I have a lot of these characteristics. I have an extra vertebra. Then I went looking for more information. I discovered UFO REVIEW and started going to conferences.

 I have the feeling that a lot of things are happening to me at night. It feels like someone is telling me things in my sleep. Once, while I was working with one of the Stiegers' sleep hypnosis tapes, I had a clear image of myself standing in front of my green Fiat and there was a big ship with bright lights. It was such a vivid image that I came right out of the hypnosis. Another night, when I was sleeping, I heard a pulsating noise in the back of my head. I remember opening my eyes while the pulsating noise was very loud, and seeing a flashing light outside my window. I was frightened and I said, "No, don't come down." So it went away.

 In 1976, my friend and I used to go driving up in the hills and we used to see a lot of lights. They would just sort of come up and then blink out. I once went to a reincarnation seminar given by Dick Stuphen. At one point, we were all under hypnosis and they played different sounds, to see what our reactions would be. I had a violent reaction to one particular sound. I cried and kept saying, "Make the sound go away." Afterwards I asked him what the sound had been. He told me it was a sound made by a flying saucer.

I remember thinking to myself, "What am I doing here? Why am I stuck here? When are these people going to come and get me? Here I am stuck with two people I don't know." At this particular instance everything was so foreign to me, that I suddenly didn't know the two people I was with, who were supposed to be my parents. I remember that I looked up at the sky as I thought that. I remember, once I woke up in the middle of the night and there was this form standing over me. All I saw was the face, a shadowy outline.

thing totally "out of this world" and therefore he was shoved out of the respectable rank and position he held? In this way, no one would really listen to him, a drifter who can't hold a job. In other words, the military is well aware of beings from other worlds who visit earth. Some of these beings may be cold scientists who did not think it wrong to turn loose their human specimen without his clothes two weeks after they kidnapped him. Or, perhaps Richard's feeling of warmth toward the aliens is justified. Perhaps they did not realize that clothes are a tradition in many societies on earth, nor did they attach significance to the fact that they kept him away for two weeks. Perhaps they did not anticipate that Richard's military employers would treat him so harshly after his encounter. Did they catch his car in their tractor beam, keep it aboard the ship, then absent-mindedly set it back down on top of a mountain? Did they consider it a mild joke, or were they innocent of how the vehicle worked and the fact that it needed a road to get down off the mountain?

The entire sequence of events would be comical if it weren't for the tragedy of the human being caught in the middle of it all.

There is another ex-soldier who has many hours to wonder exactly what happened to him in Viet Nam. His name is Terry Flynn, a devoted UFO REVIEW reader. He is handicapped from a bizarre accident in Viet Nam; the military has given him four outlandish explanations of what happened to him. He remembers nothing. However, the idea of UFOs in Viet Nam (an area which has recently received some publicity) haunts him. He feels within himself that his accident had to do with either encountering a UFO or in being stopped by the military from remembering a peaceful encounter with a UFO. Did the UFO beings cause such harm to him? Or did our own military? These questions haunt him as he struggles years later to recover from his injuries.

Once thing seems certain—the military knows a lot more than it is telling. Just as with the crashed saucer retrievals, the individual military personnel who encounters saucers close-up are railroaded out of the military, often disappearing entirely. The tragedy is the lost lives of these innocent individuals who did not choose either their experiences nor the tragedy which follows.

ETs HAVE LANDED: PREPARE FOR CONTACT!

WELCOME TO EARTH, VISITORS FROM OTHER PLANETS!

Systematically, we are being prepared for contact with our extraterrestrial brothers and sisters of the cosmos.

As part of a vast planetary program, ETs have landed: literally through worldwide sightings for decades; and symbolically through a far-reaching educational plan to raise man's consciousness for the New Age. Mankind is ready for the next giant step; now is the time to prepare for contact!

To secure this contact, we must incorporate in ourselves the reality of life in our solar system. For life exists in other realms that are beyond our physical definitions and comprehension of life. Unseen to our physical space probes, spiritual life is not limited to third dimensional forms.

Therefore, all misunderstandings and misconceptions about life beyond Earth, including many cherished close-minded scientific and religious dogmas, must be rooted out if we are to free ourselves to take our next step in cosmic citizenship.

The reality is this: the spiritual government of our solar system has attempted for thousands of years to unite Earth with the interplanetary council known as the Federation of Planets.

A significant part of this plan involves a spiritual space program to show man that life exists beyond Earth on other planets and dimensions, and to bring him into spiritual awareness. This plan is an integral facet of a divine program to manifest love, peace and brotherhood on Earth in the New Age of Aquarius, to begin around 2000 AD.

Via interplanetary visitations as well as interdimensional psychic communications, the ETs have shown that the key to cooperation and coordination with the Federation is through love in action.

All planets other than Earth exchange freely their expressions and ideals with one another, much in the same way we have free interchange among the states of our United States of America. But the Earth is lagging behind the other planets of this solar system.

This same type of interchange—in the respect of commerce, culture, and rights of citizenship—must be established physically with Earth during the present Latter Day of Mark Age period, a transition period of marks and signs in the skies alerting us to a new age.

This exchange and joining are being fostered now, but will not manifest fully until after the Second Coming in both its meanings: the second coming of all on Earth into spiritual or I Am awareness; and the return of the spiritual Prince of Earth, Sananda, who in his last Earth incarnation was Jesus the Christ.

OPERATION LANDING LIGHT

Operation Landing Light is the Federation's code name for the current phase of space operations to prepare man of Earth for mass landings of space-craft. Mass landings refer to many people seeing or knowing about them, not necessarily many spacecraft.

The purpose of Operation Landing Light goes beyond promoting physical landings, contacts and exchanges. Also involved is the anchoring of light, or spiritual energies, to uplift mankind into fourth dimensional or cosmic consciousness.

Yet, our extraterrestrial visitors, as citizens of the cosmos, are bound by certain spiritual principles they must follow in preparing for landings and contacts. Much of their action and planning are determined by, and dependent upon, our spiritual receptivity and manifest desire for contact. That is why it is so important for us to help create in man of Earth a loving desire for interchange with visitors from other planets.

That love and desire for exchange and communion have been firmly established in the past twenty-three years of this Mark Age period (1960-2000).

ETs have landed! Close encounters with space beings have occurred in millions of lives, in every country of the world, through numerous films, television and radio shows, magazine articles and books. Subliminally and vicariously—also, safely—man of Earth has been prepared to make contact with the ETs.

Positive feelings and attitudes about extraterrestrials have been stimulated within literally millions of people. More than ever before, the people of Earth desire to welcome visitors from other planets.

These and many other events now have set the stage for an even greater educational push forward. You can join this new effort to promote space landings. Listen to the still, small voice within: ET is ready to phone you!

BE A BROADCASTING UNIT OF LIGHT

As we open ourselves spiritually to our space brothers, we become broadcasting units of light. This means we can be receivers and transmitters of spiritual energies poured through us from the higher realms to all mankind. These energies work to enlighten, to heal and to transform all souls of Earth.

Our planet is in the throes of dire transmutation. We are cleansing ourselves of all that does not foster our demonstration of cosmic citizenship. Our purification begins in thought, under the direction of our I Am Self. As we unite with our I Am Self, we unite also with the divine light within all mankind of the cosmos.

As light workers, we help anchor or implant the higher vibratory frequency of the New Age. Those coming to us in their spacecraft aid in the cleansing and spiritual changes for Earth. But to help amplify and disseminate their energy projections, they need physical grounding rods. We, who choose the light, are chosen to be those grounding rods, those beacons, those broadcasting units of light.

PSYCHIC AND DREAM CONTACTS WITH SPACE VISITORS

The space brothers make contact with us only through permission of our I Am Selves. They must coordinate their efforts with all aspects of our consciousness—mind, body

Phillet (Philip J. Jacobs) has been with the Mark-Age spiritual-educational organization for over nine years, and currently serves as Production Manager and Advertising Director for MAIN magazine, published bimonthly.

His special area of research and expertise is extraterrestrial visitations, especially spiritual or psychic contacts with the space brothers.

Phillet brings an original approach to this topic because of his close work and training for many years with one of today's foremost spiritual contactees of the space visitors, Yanda-Yolanda. Her first-person account of her contacts, Visitors From Other Planets (see book coupon this issue), is a treasured book among those seeking new understanding of life beyond Earth.

In addition to his first-hand knowledge of Yolanda's contacts, Phillet has many interdimensional space contacts of his own, and is used as a channel for special space-beam energies to uplift mankind. These experiences enable him to help others learn proper discernment in spiritual and psychic exchanges with our space brothers.

The following article is reprinted from the September-October 1983 issue of MAIN. Here Phillet introduces some of the vast range of topics on which he offers lectures, workshops and seminars to both laymen and scientists exploring this field. For a sample of his presentations, available for $7 from: Mark-Age, P.O. Box 290368, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33329, USA.

and soul—in order to facilitate our consciousness—expansion and healing. We thus may have contact experiences on many levels other than just physical.

There are a number of ways we can experience psychic or spiritual contact with space visitors; such may occur even at the same time we are having physical contact. To name just a few, these contacts include: clairvoyant visions; materializations; clairaudient information; telepathic impressions or actual messages, called channelings; out-of-body experiences, or pickup, in which our consciousness is transported into spacecraft or to other planets and/or dimensions of existence; space beams, or electromagnetic force fields, which we may feel in various parts of the body for healing or transmutation.

Although such contacts may occur when we are in meditation—because we are in an especially receptive state of awareness—they also may occur in the dream state.

One prime factor to remember in interpreting such dreams is to take note of your mental and emotional reactions. They can represent how you respond subconsciously to close encounters. Your dreams may give you valuable clues to your spiritual progress in welcoming visitors from other planets.

HELP ETs CONTACT YOU!

With a consciousness of peace and brotherhood, our space brothers and sisters come to contact us. As equal partners with us in cosmic evolution, they feel a personal responsibility to help bring the spiritual plan to completion, so that our solar system, as one unit of Christ-aware beings, may move into the Golden Age.

We are experiencing on Earth the labor pains of spiritual rebirth. We have much to learn, to apply, to accomplish. But we can do so only if we unite in spiritual purpose with our fellow beings of many planes, planets and dimensions. No longer can we shut ourselves off from life in our universe.

We are co-participants in the spiritual space program. By our active participation, not passivity, we will help bring about the completion of space contacts and landings on Earth.

Our desire for contact will build up a force field of spiritual receptivity that automatically will attract a response from the space visitors. This is a demonstration of the spiritual principle: like attracts like. In attunement with our Christ consciousness, we magnetically attract to us those complementary energy forces of like consciousness, desire and pure motive who will help us through the Latter Day changes and into the birthing of the New Age.

We not only need to tap this spiritual desire within ourselves, but we also asked to stimulate a burning desire within mankind for contact with our brothers and sisters of space. We do this by broadcasting our feelings of love and brotherhood to our fellowmen, and by informing them of the reality of universal brotherhood amongst all sons of God in this solar system and beyond.

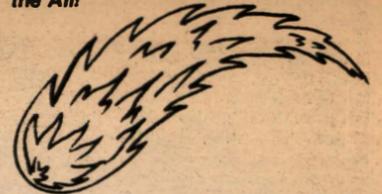

Thus, we stimulate desire in man by our prayers and through projections, and by our many means of educating him and bringing this information to the forefront of his consciousness. But especially are we effective through our personal demonstrations of Christlike attitudes in our lives.

VISUALIZATION

If every citizen of Earth took only one minute each day to visualize the following, we truly would band together as one planetary body of light to welcome our visitors from other planets.

We are united solar system, brothers and sisters joined eternally by our love for God and one another. We see the entire solar system operating as one harmonious expression of Spirit in motion, ever spiraling upward to greater demonstrations of peace and brotherhood, and united in common cause with all fellow beings and creations in multitudinous solar systems and galaxies beyond ours.

Our limitless bond is love, for we are the Son of God, one Christ body of mankind. From this expansion, we turn our love now to the Earth planet, that it be raised. We see all citizens of Earth desiring new encounters with our fellow citizens of the universe. Let it begin! Reach out touch one, touch all, through the All!

DRAMATIC FIRST PERSON EXPERIENCE

"I WAS NEAR DEATH WHEN ALIENS RIPPED MY BODY OF CANCER"

BY HELEN X.

At this moment, we cannot reveal her true identity as to do so might compromise some very important work she is involved in, but "Helen X." has indicated that eventually she will give permission for the full facts in this case to be released to the public.

Tim Beckley spent the better part of an entire weekend with the participant in this case while attending and speaking at a conference in Safford, Arizona, sponsored by the UFO Contact Center. He quickly became convinced of Helen's absolute sincerity and feels quite strongly that her testimony will go a long way to add weight to the growing belief that alien beings are visiting our planet and can perform miracles and wonders that are beyond our comprehension.

With tape recorder at hand, Beckley proceeded to obtain a startling narrative that makes for exciting reading. The tape was then transcribed and put into "polished" form by Carol Rodriguez of the UFO REVIEW staff.

In May, 1974, the doctors discovered that I had cancer. They removed a growth from my hipbone, but it became active again. I had a lot of discomfort and problems with my digestive system. After they discovered the growth on my pancreas, they opened in an attempt to remove it. They were not able to remove all of it, so they just closed me up. A year and a half later they went in again, knowing that it would have spread. They removed most of the growth, which had spread to the bowels. That didn't work and it grew twice as fast.

By October of 1975 all of my secretions were orange. I was on chemotherapy. They tried to shrink the tumor with extra therapy. But it didn't seem to budge. By then I had lost a tremendous amount of weight. I normally weigh about 145 and I was down to 116. By January, 1975, I was down to 108, and I looked like a walking corpse.

The doctor told me that if I felt up to it, I should go see my family to say my goodbyes. So I went to see them in British Columbia. They were astounded that I came there looking the way I did.

I came back in May, still losing weight. By then my weight was down to 98 pounds. They expected me to die around July or August.

One afternoon, I came home very exhausted from the shop. I parked the car at the bottom of the steps, as I was too exhausted to walk from the garage. I went in, took a shower and went to bed. My son came back from work at about 6:30 and asked me if I wanted something to eat. I told him I wasn't hungry. I was just tired.

At 1:00 A.M. I was awakened. I heard someone call my name, "Helen." I got up and went to see if it was my son calling me and he was sound asleep. I went to see if it was my technician, who was living with us at the time, but he was sound asleep. So I figured that I had a dream and I went back to bed. Then the voice came again, "Helen, get into your car and meet us on the way to Lund. We'll meet you there." Lund was a small town, 17 miles from the town I was living in.

I put on my housecoat and slippers and got into the car and I drove through town and saw people on the streets that I recognized.

I was seven miles west of town, when I saw a large white globe in the sky. When I first saw it, I had no idea what it was. I was compelled to react to the voice as if I had no will of my own. As I came over a hill there was a large clearing of about 1000 feet, which was supposed to have been for a condominium. I saw the object coming down. It was circular and huge, about fifty feet in diameter. There was an off road, and my car turned towards it, and the engines stopped. The car kept going and it stopped in a gully. The first thing that came into my mind was, "How am I going to get out of here, without any power?"

I opened the door. By then the craft was hovering. It hadn't come down to the ground. I didn't see any legs. It just seemed to be suspended there at about 10 or 15 feet. It was very large. It had a dome on the surface with a side that came down to a flap underneath. A cylinder of light came out from the center of the craft. The light was very bright. As I got out of the car and walked towards it, I felt like a zombie.

Two beings came through the cylinder of light and floated to the ground. They put their hand in what seemed like a sign of friendship. They were small, maybe four feet tall. They looked like ten year old kids. They were wearing tight-fitting metallic looking suits. They had a large buckle, with an insignia on it. It looked like a triangle within a triangle almost like a star of David. There was a design in the middle.

The same thing was on their uniforms. The suits came tight to their hands. They had five digits. They had on boots, which seemed to be part of the same suit. There was a tight-fitting hood over their heads. I could see the indentation of very small ears. Their eyes were large and came almost to the side of their skulls at a point. But their eyes were very loving. It was a human eye. I was apprehensive, but not afraid of them because they didn't give me that feeling of being afraid. They had small noses and a slit for their mouths.

They said, "Do not be afraid, we are here to help you. Your friend John from Florida asked us to help you." I do have a friend in Florida named John, who years back had told me he was in communication with extraterrestrials. I had just said, "That's great," but had not really believed him. They came on each side of me, as if to help me. I felt as if my feet weren't touching the ground. I had a feeling of elation at the same time that I was apprehensive.

They took me to the cylinder of light and we went up into it until I realized I was in the ship. The hole that we had come through suddenly closed off, and I realized that I was standing on something solid. I had a hard time talking. I seemed to have a lump in my throat. It might have been fear.

As soon as they got into the ship, the beings who took me on board went to the left and another being came out. To my right, there were control panels on a slant, with two chairs in front. The chairs looked padded and were on a pedestal. I remembered that when I was outside looking in, I saw portholes above and towards the mound. But now looking past the control panel, I could see outside. I could see the trees and my car. It was just like a large window of about 24 or 30 inches wide, all the way around, from inside the ship. To the left of that panel there was a large plate glass panel, which came quite high. None of the partitions seemed to reach the ceiling. When I came through the cylinder, there was a smell like an ozone. Once inside the ship, it seemed like a metallic smell.

There was an alcove and then there was a large table. It was about 24 inches wide but about seven feet long. When I stood on it, it came just a little above my knees. The being that came from behind the partition, came towards me and said, "Do not be frightened, we are here merely to help you." I had the impression that the being was a woman, not because she was dressed any differently, they were all dressed alike. There was a gentler look about this being. Her voice was different, even though she didn't speak with her mouth.

She put her hand on my arm and said, "We are not going to hurt you, we are here to help you. Would you disrobe and lay on this table?"

I didn't seem to have a will of my own. I did exactly as she asked. It was like a large glass or plexi-glass table, about 3½ inches thick. There was an oscillation inside the table.

There was a blue hue to it. I laid down on my back and she told me to put my hands open at my sides. She was on my right. She kept looking at a panel of lights which was above a base that had drawers. The panel made a funny sort of noise almost like a video machine. She kept reassuring me not to be frightened, that they were just going to help me.

I asked them why they were helping me and they said, "We may need you later on and besides we were asked."

She went around the table to where the drawers were and opened one of them. She took out a large apparatus, which looked like an upside-down mushroom. It was about six inches in diameter and amber in color. She took it by the handle and passed it over my body, beginning with my head. Every time she went over my body, she said, "Did you know you had cancer?" She did say cancer in the left breast. She spoke telepathically because her lips didn't move. I spoke in the usual way. As she went over my body she said, "It's in your liver, in your right kidney, in your pancreas,

Then she opened another drawer and took out a tube about twelve inches high. She held it by a handle. I didn't see any needles. There was a purplish colored liquid in the tube. She came over and pressed the instrument on my belly button and I felt a lot of pressure. As I looked down, I saw the liquid come out of the tube and enter my body. Then she lifted the tube and placed her hand on my abdomen, massaging the area in a circular motion. Then she again applied the tube to my navel, this time with quite a bit of pressure. This very, very dark blood entered the tube filling it to three quarters full. She took it very gently and deposited it in the same drawer from which she had removed it, and came back with a smaller, round cylinder, tube. This one was about ten inches and was grass green. She applied it to my left side, just below the last rib. She also applied it above the navel and on the right side. Then she asked me to turn on my side and I felt the pressure on three spots on my back.

Then something happened because I was conscious of being on take two magnets with the negative poles together they repel each other. We have control of this."

She said, "You must go now." And the two beings came from behind the partition and stood on either side of me. We stood on this platform and began descending very slowly.

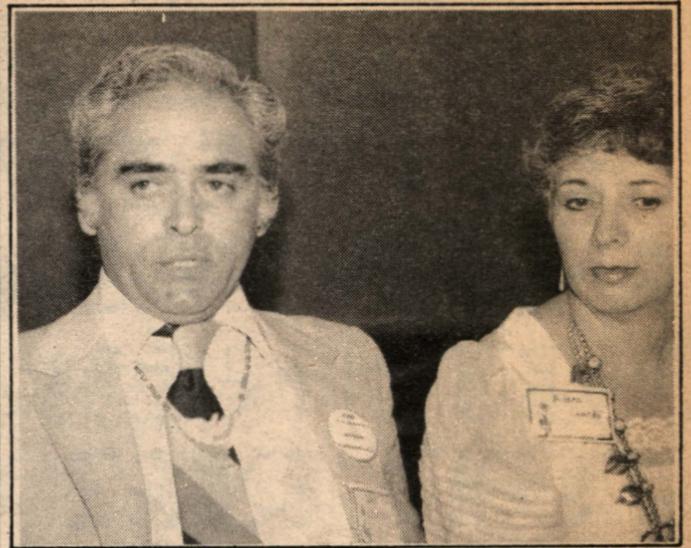

They said, "We will see you again," and stayed just outside of the cylinder, until I was almost back to my car. Then I saw them go back into the cylinder.

I got into my car and the craft lifted off very slowly. All of a sudden, it was gone. My car started again and I pulled out of the hole I was in, drove home and went to bed.

I don't know how long I was in the craft. I never felt it move. I felt that I was just there the whole time.

The next morning, I said to my son, "Boy did I ever have a dream last night." I told him about it and he said that I should write it down while it was fresh in my mind. So, I wrote it down for him. He went to the back porch window and said, "When did you move your car?"

I said, "It hasn't been moved. Did you move it?"

in the spleen." She kept looking up at the panel of lights as she did this. All of the time I kept feeling this reassuring hand, as she touched my arm. She went all the way down to my feet, while studying the lights which were in different colors. Then she went around the table and returned the instrument to the drawer.

Then she turned around towards me and said, "Do not be afraid. I will not hurt you." Next, she opened another drawer which contained large gloves, that came almost up to the elbow. Then she went into a third drawer and came out with an instrument which looked like a metallic tray with a handle on either side of it. There was nothing attached to it. She seemed to make sure that it didn't go close to her body. She started going over my body starting at the head. When she came to the breast, which she had said had cancer, it burned real bad, so much that my eyes watered from the pain. She kept reassuring me and saying, "Please keep still, don't move. This won't take long." She must have repeated this at least ten times. When she came to the abdomen, where the cancer had been, the pain was excruciating. But after what the doctors had done to me, one pain is just the same as another. Eventually, she went all the way down to my toes.

Next she went around the table and returned the tray to the drawer, closing the drawer. She also removed her gloves and put them away.

my abdomen with my arms under my forehead. I had a very bad headache. She said, "Turn around now." I turned around now on my back. She put her hand on my forehead and said, "Your headache will not last very long. It will be over in a few minutes."

She reassured me and said, "Lie very still. I don't want you to take any of your medication. I don't want you to take any kind of medication, whether it's an injection or by mouth. Take nothing except saline water and glucose." She spoke to me in what I thought was perfect English.

Then she told me I could get up and put my robe on which I did. Before leaving, I asked her what the large panel in front of us was. She said it was the way they would be able to find their way back home. It was like a map with dots on it and funny kind of insignia. I said, "Well, does it show where I live?" And she said, "Yes, right here." She showed me the lower right hand corner of the plate-glass. I recognized our sun and our planetary system. I asked her, "Where is your world, according to this?"

She put her hand half in the middle and said, "This is Orion and this is where we are, beyond." The system which she indicated had a lot more planets than our solar system.

Then I asked her, "May I ask you how you propel the craft?"

The being who had just stood watching all of this time said, "We use negative reverse polarity. If you

"No, I could hardly get in the house last night because it was in front of the steps." He ran over to the car and found that even though I had filled the tank before I came home, a quarter of the tank was missing.

My son and I went to that exact spot. The grass, which was very high was flattened, as if something very heavy had been on it. I had never seen the craft on the ground at any time. We walked down the road and we saw the tire marks, where my car went off the road.

My son said, "You know mom, I think it wasn't just a dream."

I said, "It was just a dream. It had to be."

I didn't realize that I had these marks on my body. That afternoon I began to feel ill. I would have nausea and starting throwing up this black stuff which just smelled horrible. They took me to the hospital and the doctors called the children-in-thinking it was the end. The being had said that I was going to feel ill for a few days, when she told me not to take any medication. I kept going unconscious and then coming to again.

The doctor said, "You're suffering too much. Let me give you something."

I said "No, I don't want anything." Why, I resisted them, I don't know. But I didn't take anything.

After the morning of the third day, it was just like I had never been sick.

YOU MAY BE A CONTACTEE AND NOT KNOW IT

Recently, UFO Contact Center International (Box 873, Mesa, Arizona 85201) held a three day conference outdoors in Safford, Arizona. Though attendance at the meeting was small, most of those who participated had undergone some sort of UFO related experience, abduction or contact. Several articles in this issue of the UFO REVIEW are based upon information gathered at this meeting.

According to the founders of the group, Dan and Aileen Edwards, many people may be UFO contactees and not know it. A survey of those individuals they have had communication with over the years, has lead Dan and Aileen to formulate the following check list which should, they say, indicate to you if you have had some sort of encounter with other-worldly beings. Some of this information, they claim, could still be locked up in your subconscious.

- YOU HAVE HAD A CLOSE APPROACH BY A UFO,
- MISSING TIME
- LIGHTS IN BEDROOM, WHITE OR OTHERWISE
- YOU CRY FOR NO REASON
- LOSS OF WEIGHT FOR NO REASON IN CONJUNCTION TO ABOVE SYMPTOM
- HEAR VOICES
- SEE VISIONS
- HEAR BUZZ OR BEEP IN EAR
- YOUR BED SHAKES
- YOU HAVE SHOULDER PAIN
- YOU HAVE LOWER BACK PAIN
- YOU HAVE KNEE PAIN
- YOU ARE A MAN & YOU HAVE DIARRHEA
- YOU ARE A WOMAN & YOU HAVE CONSTIPATION
- HAVE YOU HAD A "LAST BREATH" FEELING
- YOU HAVE UNEXPLAINED LUMPS, LESIONS OR SCARS
- & YOU HAVE TELEKINESIS
- SUDDEN DEVELOPMENT OF ESP
- YOU ARE PARTIALLY OR FULL INDIAN
- YOU HAD CONNECTION WITH INDIANS
- YOU HAVE A JEWISH HERITAGE
- YOU FEEL ALONE ON EARTH
- YOU FEEL ADOPTED EVEN THOUGH YOU'RE NOT

AN EXCLUSIVE
BY MAJOR WAYNE AHO, (U.S. ARMY RETIRED)

MY PROBING CONVERSATION WITH NEW AGE FUTURIST - THE AMAZING WILBERT SMITH

The late scientist Wilbert Smith.

It was my good fortune to have met the late Wilbert Smith, Canadian scientist and inventor dating from the days of World War II. We met at a conference on space and science at which he informed me that he had worked on the secret "AVRO CAR" project, in which the U.S. and Canada jointly shared knowledge derived from the experimentation of a hover craft. The existence of this project was officially made in 1969 at the same time the U.S. Air Force was denying there was any advance knowledge or technology to be derived from studying UFOs. Yet we know for a fact, that the AVRO saucer was clearly a copy of the unknown craft known as UFOs which have been seen all over the earth.

Canada claimed they ran out of money and the project was scrapped. However, those who have followed the progression of events understand that out of this venture came the "cushion of air" gunship used by the United States in Vietnam. Also to follow were the cushion of air ferries, the new hydro-foils now introduced as high speed missile ships, and closer to home, even the new "bubble of air" fireboat used here in Tacoma, Washington.

The question is: How much of this UFO technology is being used to prepare for future wars? Of course, only those with "top secret" and "eyes only" security ratings know. I had a "top secret" clearance in intelligence in World War II and understand the term quite well.

Wilbert Smith, a very personable individual, and a dedicated scientist, was well informed on the UFO front. He had experienced some very unusual events in his life and had lectured and even written about them. Wilbert told me that he had developed an intense interest in extraterrestrial contact and had found a communication system that worked for him. This system involved a tape recorder placed in his apple orchard where "They" would transcribe for him the most advanced science he had ever heard of which was totally foreign to earth.

Wilbert went on to say that in his communications, he was informed that the Space Brothers had cleansed our skies of radiation unknown to most of the inhabitants of earth. The aliens told him that if he would go to a volcano near Ottawa which he knew of at a specified day and time, they would demonstrate their powers to him.

According to what he told me, Smith did go to the area where he had been directed and while there witnessed a grayish colored craft dump waste material into the volcano. The Space Brothers said later on "If we had not cleansed your skies of radioactivity, millions on earth would now be dead!" Perhaps we should take this opportunity to say "Thank You," for their help as our world leaders have publicly failed to do so, still denying that there is any great meaning or any intelligence behind the sightings of these craft.

REACH OUT TO OTHER DIMENSIONS WHEN YOU WEAR YOUR AMAZING "TELECRYSTAL"

Mystics have long believed that crystals could be used as "healing stones." UFO contactees have always worn crystals because they said it enhanced their telepathic ability and enabled them to operate as a more receptive and open channel with the Space Brotherhood. Ashtar, Commander-in-Chief of the Free Federation of Planets has said: "Wear the crystal at all times." Now you can find out for yourself what the crystal can do. In the book PROJECT WORLD EVACUATION by Tuella we are told that all light workers will be given a specially attuned crystal once aboard the evacuation mothership, and that crystals will power all forms of surface and air vehicles in the New Age. The "TELECRYSTAL" is the most powerful of crystals. We have imported a limited supply from Austria and now you can own your own. Comes complete with sturdy silver chain as well as a beautifully channeled message from "Crystal Love" who dwells in another solar system in a place called "Mirrored City."

Crystal, chain and special channeling sent by first class mail for extra protection. Total price $15.00. Send now to: UFO REVIEW, 316 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001

DATA BEAMED DOWN INTO TINY CRYSTAL
NEW YORK - RCA Corp. said its researchers have developed a method of storing photographs, drawings, maps, statistics and computer data in a tiny crystal smaller than a sugar cube. The system, which is still in the research stage, uses lasers to permanently implant images inside a new specially developed crystal, RCA said. The images are then read out by slowly rotating the crystal in a laser beam. The company said the system theoretically could store a trillion bits of information in a cubic centimetre of the crystal.

SPACE GODS SPEAK

TRANSMISSIONS FROM THE SOLAR COUNCIL AND THE ASHTAR COMMAND

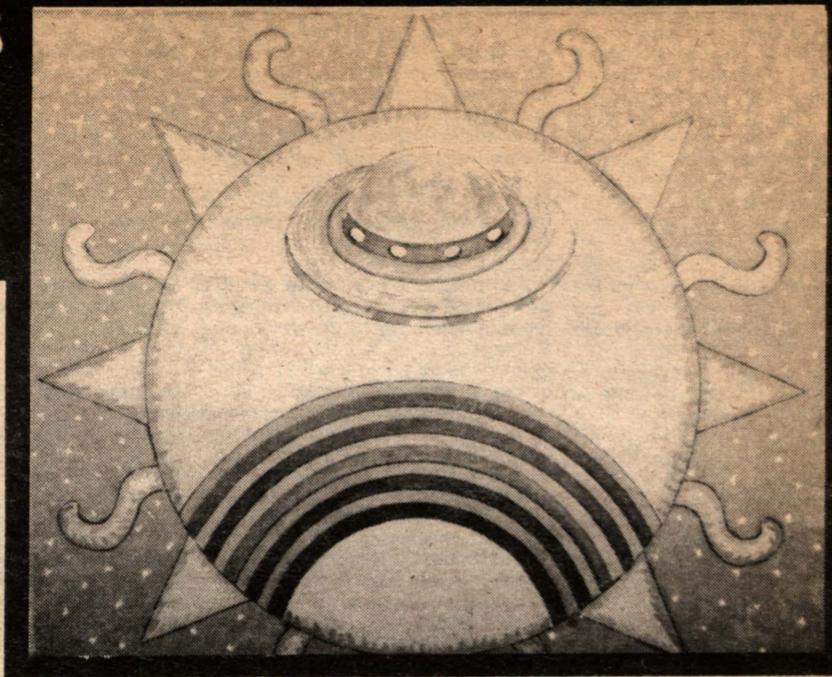

Information in the following books has been beamed to earth by highly evolved beings via an advanced form of mental telepathy or through communications devices unknown to scientists on earth at this time. Much of the material has to do with mankind spiritual development and his relationship to God and the universe, as well as to survival in the "Last Days," which it has been predicted for our planet by many sources.

PSYCHIC & UFO REVELATIONS IN THE LAST DAYS by Timothy Green Beckley

The End Times are upon us, mankind must look to the stars for salvation. As the earth trembles a great cosmic force will arrive and evacuate those who live their lives in peace and brotherhood. The countdown has begun. There are now those living among us who have "blended" with earthly souls to help assist in the trying times ahead. The ultimate disaster could come at any time, but will probably occur by the turn of the century. $2.95.

SPACE BEINGS GIVE SCIENTIST KEY TO UNLOCKING COSMIC MYSTERIES

Among the questions most often posed by skeptics is: If space beings really exist, why haven't they landed and established contact with our world leaders and with members of the scientific community?

The truth is that contact with high officials in the government has long ago taken place, but such other-worldly communications has been kept a closely guarded secret by the military, by political and economic forces determined to maintain the status quo, and by the academic college which sees any alien intervention in our affairs as a threat to their rigid formulas and equations.

Several years ago an important breakthrough took place when a courageous astronaut admitted off the record that officials of the U.S. space program—NASA—have met with space beings; not on the moon or on some other planet, but right here on earth! We also know that Jimmy Carter had a UFO sighting while governor of Georgia, and that in the early 1950's President Eisenhower saw, close-up, several disc-shaped vehicles of unknown origin hovering just above the ground, outside a heavily guarded aircraft hangar, at Edwards Air Force Base. Furthermore, those present attest to the fact that Eisenhower actually held a conversation with the occupants of the space ships whose crew were humanoid in appearance, as well as being highly evolved, technologically, scientifically, but most important of all spiritually.

MAN OF MYSTERY

Wilbert Smith was born in Lethbridge, in the province of Alberta, Canada, on the 17th of February, 1910. Early in life he displayed an eager interest in the nature of things and at the age of 15 wrote a treatise on the concept of perpetual motion. He was also the author of many scientific papers and obtained his B.Sc. and M.Sc. degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of British Columbia. Later in life he joined the Department of Transport of Canada, where he established himself in the field of broadcasting, and received credit in advancing the technical aspects of Frequency Modulation and television transmission between the United States and Canada. In the early 1950's, Wilbert was authorized and permission granted to make use of government funds to fully equip a laboratory and field facilities to study unidentified flying objects that were being seen on a regular basis over most of North America.

Although a skeptic by nature, scientist Wilbert Smith became a confirmed believer when a UFO actually hovered over the headquarters of "Project Magnet," the top-secret "code name" given to his research facilities. Unable to find a satisfactory solution within the realm of science, Smith quickly started to study the concept of extraterrestrial visitations and eventually ended up establishing telepathic contact with the "super beings" who inhabit other worlds and who have been coming to our planet since the days of the Bible. Before passing away, Smith formulated an entirely new—and radically different—theory which would encompass the various fields of physics, philosophy and religion.

THE "MESSAGE" OF THE SPACE BROTHERS

One of the things which Wilbert Smith quickly concluded, is that far from being grotesque monsters as often portrayed in science fiction movies or novels, the occupants of most UFOs are human in appearance and have developed mental

- DID HE DISCOVER THE SECRET TO...
- EVOLUTION ON EARTH?
 - THE STRUCTURE OF THE UNIVERSE?
 - THE UNKNOWN NATURE OF GRAVITY?
 - SURPASSING THE SPEED OF LIGHT?
 - PERPETUAL MOTION?

capabilities that are far beyond those of even the Einsteins' of Earth. Furthermore, he came to accept as reality the idea that these beings are coming to our planet on an important mission that these "Space Brothers" are truly concerned with the welfare of our planet, and as part of a great plan to enlighten mankind they are prepared to widen our horizon and lead us into a glorious Golden Age—but only after certain conditions have been met.

As ironic as it may seem, Smith's profound study of the UFO mystery led him inevitably to the Science of Metaphysics, at which having an open mind eager to learn all truths, he became an advanced adept and it was by this means that he secured invaluable scientific and philosophic data from the Space Brothers, always using the scientific method of independent confirmation of information received.

These messages were received through direct telepathic communication and in regard to the scientific data Wilbert obtained from his UFO friends whom he called "The Boys from Topside," he was able to test their genuineness and practical workability by protracted tests and experiments in the laboratory. Much of the data conveyed to him proved to be highly accurate and several unique inventions resulted, though some of these devices have regrettably remained unacceptable to earth scientists because of their unorthodox origin, but the day may yet dawn when they will be used for the benefit of humanity.

OTHER DIMENSIONS

One of the things, says Smith, that has been holding us back in the area of scientific advancements, "is the fact that we do not recognize a sufficient number of dimensions and make use of them. Furthermore, we do not recognize the true nature of dimensions or their place in the universe. Our concepts are most inadequate and restrictive, and so long as we persist in them we can never transcend the world of mechanical processes which we have conjured up."

The highly acclaimed scientist strongly believed that when all the information received through flying saucer contactees and psychic channels was assembled and analyzed, that it added up to a complete and elegant philosophy "which makes our efforts in the area of science and technology sound like the beating of jungle drums. These beings," he quickly added, "have told us of a magnificent cosmic plan of which we are a part, which transcends the lifetime of a single person or a nation, or a civilization, or even a planet or solar system. We are not merely told that there is something beyond our immediate experience; we are told what it is, why it is, and our relation thereto. Suddenly, many of our most vexing problems can be solved with a few words if we have the understanding and fortitude to apply what we have been told."

THE BATTLE FOR MAN'S MIND

According to what Smith learned, there are two—opposing—forces in the universe, trying desperately to influence our thinking. "There is," stated Wilbert, "the positive which encompasses the concept of a love of God and the brotherhood of man, and the negative, which, through the anti-Christ is trying to gain control for the purpose of power, and advocates greed and disharmony. This battle," added the scientist, is being waged on two fronts, "the physical and the metaphysical: the object of which is to bring about either the spiritual salvation or destruction of homo sapiens."

The Russians, said Smith, are already experts at mind control and have developed techniques which bear close investigation, "as the Soviets evidently realize the potentialities of the power of thought far better than we do, and we must remember that power of any kind can be used for either good or evil."

WARFARE ON THE SPIRITUAL PLANE

"Messages received through esoteric sources, warn us that an even greater conflict is being fought on the metaphysical plane where intelligent beings of both a higher and lower spiritual order than ourselves, are waging a fierce battle for man's mind. The lower, or negative forces, damned themselves by wrong thinking, are projecting strong thoughts earthward in an attempt to bring about our spiritual downfall, while the spiritual guardians of this planet are concentrating equally hard on sending out positive thoughts of goodwill and brotherly love."

WHERE DO "YOU" FIT INTO THE PLAN?

Is there hope for mankind? Will earth survive the constant bombardment of negativity being beamed on a daily basis to our planet? How will we as individuals persevere in the coming New Age?

This book, published with the cooperation of the Ottawa New Sciences Club which Smith founded, contains the far reaching philosophy of a man whose greatness is only being fully realized today as his attitudes are finally starting to be accepted by a growing number of persons who realize, at last, the significance of the space visitors in our sky. "There will come a time," prophesies Smith, "when certain events have transpired, and we are so oriented that we can accept these people from elsewhere, that is when they will meet us freely on the common ground of mutual understanding and trust, and we will be able to learn from them and bring about the Golden Age men everywhere desire deep within their hearts."

THE BOYS FROM TOPSIDE is a book that will make your spirits soar, it is also a book that will break through the barriers of silence that have been imposed on the greatest secret of all time. You will discover how the governments have conspired to keep confidential a bonified scientific finding surrounding a mysterious chunk of extraterrestrial hardware that was found floating in the St. Lawrence River of Quebec and which scientific analysis shows was not manufactured on this planet. This is the physical proof that will dispel all doubt that we are not alone in the universe and that aliens have frequently traveled to our world. You will also read about the amazing experiments being conducted on a device which has successfully permitted verbal communication with ETs.

FREE "UFO DETECTOR" KIT

In his experiments, Smith was able to detect the presence of UFOs using a device that monitored electrical fluctuations in the atmosphere. A simplified device constructed of material which can be purchased at any hardware store for less than ten dollars is now in wide use with which to detect UFOs. If you order a copy of THE BOYS FROM TOPSIDE now we will include FREE OF CHARGE, a special "UFO Detector" Kit which includes the blueprints for such an economical device which everyone can build regardless of their non technical background.

(OF HYDE PARK, N.Y.)

On the first Sunday of November in 1957, my cousin and I, ages 11 and 9 were playing in his back yard in Rhinebeck, N.Y. It was some time after 1:00 in the afternoon; it was a cold, grey day; we had just eaten Sunday dinner. While playing, I happened to look up at the overcast sky and saw something that looked like a dark, thin line sweep across the sky from southeast to northwest. I asked my cousin if he had seen this. He said he had not. We continued playing but a few minutes later my cousin told me to look to the south over some tall trees. There we saw high up a small round looking object drifting northward and once clearing the trees, drifting downward. As you can imagine, we were very excited and thought we were seeing the recently launched Sputnik. We cheered and waved at it saying that we wished it would come down near us and to our amazement, it drifted down, as light as a balloon over a gulley nearby to a point that was not more than 15 or 20 feet from where we were standing. (This was in a very isolated area, and due to its location over the gulley, no one could have seen it except us). The object came to a complete stop in mid-air directly in front of us (15 or 20 feet), and slightly higher than our line of vision.

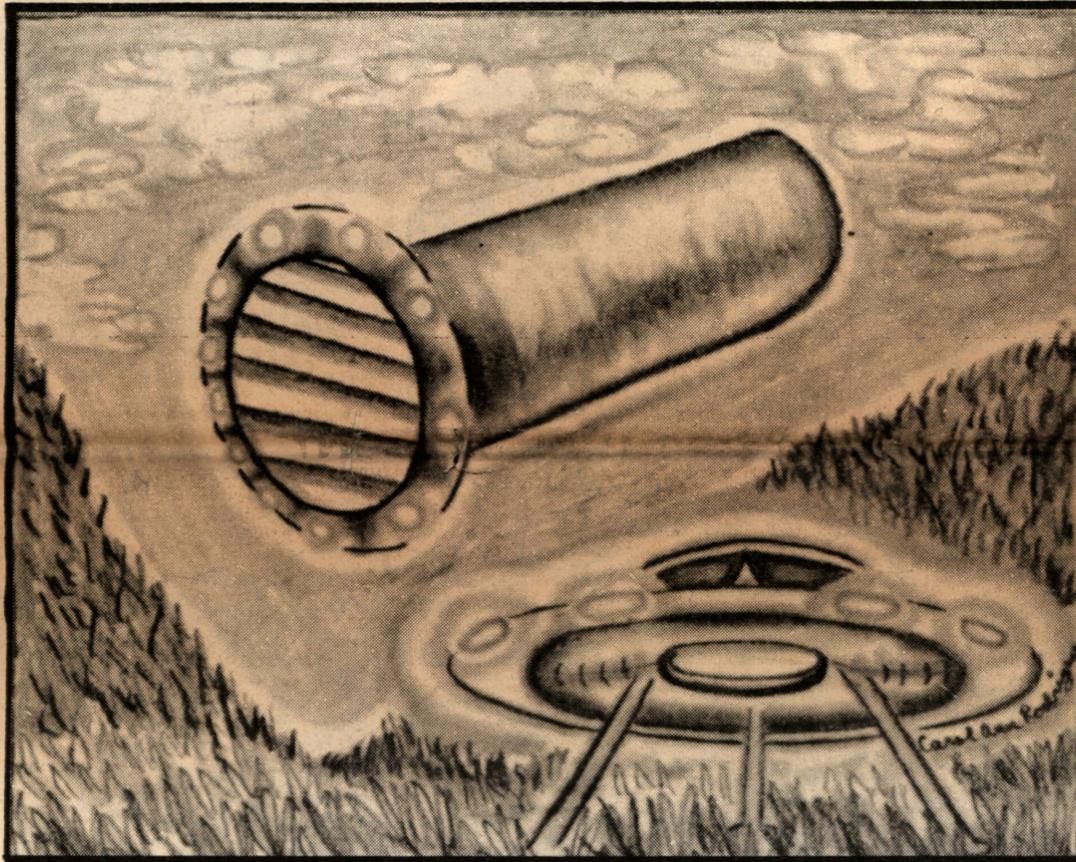

The object was a small grey, dull metallic cylinder. It seemed that it was about 2 feet long. The center part of the cylinder was thicker, making it look like a barrel. On one end of the cylinder were 3 or 4 small bent legs joined together with strips of metal. I did not see any writing on this object, for I carefully looked to see if there was any.

This object was noiseless—in an upright position. Then it made a small noise—like a motor running and tipped on its side exposing the end which contained what looked like a very black lens from which there was no reflection of light.

My cousin and I were, of course, very excited—jumping up and down, waving and begging it to come down to earth. We looked at this object and the more we looked at it (at least I did, anyway), the more we became drawn to the black lens. I remember there seemed to be something in my head that said "Look at the camera," over and over. At any rate, we became very still. The object stayed in this position for a few moments, as if taking our picture. Then it made its small motor noise again, tipped upward, and started floating up and away toward the north as light as a balloon.

There is a nagging feeling in her mind that the incident involves more than she can consciously recall, but the memory of that childhood experience still haunts her and makes her wonder what really did take place.

"A MYSTERIOUS OBJECT PHOTOGRAPHED ME!"

I must say that this sighting definitely happened and was as real as any everyday experience. However, what I will also relate to you next seems more like a remembered fantasy or the memory of a dream, but since I have recently read stories of other UFO abductees, I have come to accept this memory and think that it did actually happen.

In brief, what I remember, or think I remember is that while my cousin and I were standing, looking at the cylinder we were hypnotized by the black lens. In a few moments, three short, very white looking people came out from between two sheds in the back. They made us follow them to the space between the sheds where was parked on the ground a saucer shaped object. We went into the saucer (which seemed to have much more room inside of it than appeared on the outside). Here we were forced to lay down on tables side by side and were given some type of very frightening medical examination and (or) procedure by these white beings and by one other individual who was a bronze color and who had a very powerful type of forcefield around him. After the examination (through part of which I became unconscious), we were dressed.

I remember my cousin and I asking one of the aliens if he would take us for a ride in his space ship. He said "No, not now but there will be a time in the future" (he named a year, but I cannot remember it), "when we will come and take you to a place very far away." I remember asking him if my mother could come too, and he said "We will see."

After this the same three aliens led us back to the spot near the cylinder object and after they went back to their ship, we awoke and saw the cylinder take off.

What seemed to me the most frightening and amazing about this experience were two things: One, that these aliens had great power over humans. They could levitate people, hold them down, physically, and control their actions and even their thoughts. We had no power to resist what these aliens wanted to do. Secondly, I wish, for the life of me, I could remember the year that the aliens said they would come back to take us "very far away." I would like very much if you could run an article in your magazine about anyone else who has been given similar information.

Because of this experience, I have mixed feelings of dread and expectation about the future and I hardly know what to do about them. My cousin, who had this experience with me says he does not remember it and will not talk about anything of this nature since he is very conventionally religious. In any case, since this happened in 1957, my family and I have had numerous UFO sightings and strange experiences, as have many people in our town of Hyde Park. (A NICAP office was established about a mile from our home in the 1960's).

Diane Tessman — Transformation

INTERVIEW CONDUCTED BY TIMOTHY GREEN BECKLEY

Since the release of her book, THE TRANSFORMATION, Diane Tessman has become the focal point of a great deal of controversy. Though skeptics are quick to scoff at her story, her experience has been verified by none other than Dr. R. Leo Sprinkle of the University of Wyoming, who three years ago, placed Diane into a deep hypnotic trance and had her relive her UFO-related encounters which began while she was a youngster living in Iowa. Dr. Sprinkle has gone on record as being convinced that Diane is NOT lying; that her story fits a definite pattern established by other flying saucer contactees.

Prompted by the publisher of the UFO REVIEW, Diane has told her story to an attentive audience at the National UFO Conference held earlier this year in Tucson, Arizona, as well as to thousands more who have heard her over radio and television. Starting a short while ago with a small group of "true believers," Diane has now gathered about her several hundred individuals who are convinced they are "Star Children," due to the bizarre, unearthly, things that have happened to them throughout their lives. To accommodate what is rapidly becoming a popular concept, Diane has just formed the Starlight Mystic Church. She is also publishing a monthly newsletter, the Star Network Heartline, aimed directly at those who adhere to her belief that we are not alone in the universe, and that some extraterrestrial minds might actually be walking around inside of earthly bodies, needing to emerge at this time because of the critical period earth and its environment is going through.

The following interview was conducted in September in San Diego, by Timothy Green Beckley while he was on a west coast lecture tour.

SHE'S THE UNDISPUTED LEADER OF THE "STAR CHILD" MOVEMENT BRINGING PEOPLE TOGETHER IN A FEW SHORT MONTHS. SHE'S AN ENLIGHTENED HUMAN WHO HAS BEEN CONVINCED THEY HAVE BEEN BORN ON EARTH TO FULFILL A MISSION OF "STAR CHILDREN DAYS," LEADING TO THE EVIL DAYS OF THE UNDESIRING SOULS OFF THIS PLANET.

UFO REVIEW: Diane, several months ago, we published your book, The Transformation, which has become a very popular seller. Since then, you have started a newsletter, devoted to experiences of star children, The Star Network Heartline. In a short period of time, you've become the most vocal person in the UFO field to espouse a belief in the Space Brothers. What direction have you been taking since you wrote the book?

DIANE TESSMAN: Response to the book has been phenomenal. The direction I have been going in is to try and bring star people together. It seems they have been checking in with me. That is why we call it a network. There have been so many experiences and messages, a reaching out from one star person to another, that the whole thing has grown far beyond what I could have imagined. It certainly has been guided by the Space Brothers.

My Special One, that I mention in The Transformation, Tiebus (J.T.K. in The Transformation) has begun channeling for the star people on a monthly basis in the newsletter, and in private readings and channelings, that I do through the mail.

UFO REVIEW: When a person writes to you, how can you tell if they are a real star child?

DIANE TESSMAN: It's very hard to put into mundane or verbal terms. Tiebus comes into this. I can feel the energies. It's a lot like psychometry. Sometimes I receive a piece of paper with just their name on it, as in some cases they don't write much. In other cases, they write pages and pages, telling me of their experiences. In either case, it's psychometry. This is when you pick up a piece of paper or an object that someone has handled and feel whether they are: (1) In search of just typical psychic advice; (2) A very enlightened person, or, (3) A star child. It just comes through. It's a very psychic kind of thing.

UFO REVIEW: Well, countries and I'm interested in the UFO REVIEW over the years from other people planets. What shows which may lead them? Also, explain to us...

DIANE TESSMAN: pick up the UFO REVIEW neighbors don't. They have kept hidden in itself indicates...

There are really when there has been activated them. The essentially Space Brothers a lifetime passing, different, and so a mundane level of them to read the UFO REVIEW. Just the other factor is a big criteria star children who consciously and some time incidents. The enlightened human be a human who is ourselves as a globe as a planet. These people directly interested...

an el. They may be more religiously inclined. But they are ready to go into the future, into the New Age. In the broad sense these also are star people, although the proper term would be enlightened humans.

UFO REVIEW: Have you found that many of these people have had experiences as children, as well?

DIANE TESSMAN: In terms of my definition, if they have had experiences, they are probably within the first group, the UFO contacts. They may have had paranormal experiences, such as precognition. Perhaps they have glimpsed a guardian angel in their bedroom, or felt that their grandmother, who passed on years ago, is always with them. They are spiritually oriented but not necessarily space oriented. Many will write me and say, "I'm all for your space contacts and I know someone is out there, but I myself have always been involved in eastern metaphysics" or "I'm very religious in a pure sense, I was born into the Roman Catholic faith." These persons tend to be more religious in the true classic sense.

The star people are religious, but they tend to reject organized religions as just giving lip service and supporting men high up in the church, rather than truly serving God.

UFO REVIEW: Several years ago, Brad and Francis Steiger published a list of traits to look for in identifying star children. We have, of course, published a list of these traits in our book, UFO and Psychic Revelations In The Last Days, as well as in an interview we did with Francie quite some time ago in the Review. Is there anything of your own which you would like to add to that list from corresponding and talking with people?

DIANE TESSMAN: My own guidance is that the physical characteristics which Francie outlined, are right for many people but do not encompass everyone. I feel that you can be very much of a star person and not have a strange blood type, low blood pressure, etc. Many people do have these traits; I just feel it's a broader thing than that. I feel it's more spiritual. It's a feeling of always being different. As a child you may have wondered what was wrong with it. Then eventually you realize that something is right with it. You became sick of the materialistic, shallow, stupid ways, not of Mother Earth, but of the mundane society we live in.

I have not really asked my star people in a survey form, what their blood type is, or what their blood pressure is, or if they have a low body temperature, because Tiebus has told me that this isn't really the basic criteria. You can certainly be evacuated, or fulfill your space mission, and have blood which is a common type. I don't think it's entirely relevant.

I think Francie's basic information was that there is a genetic tie for star people, with ancient astronauts, or with space beings. There may be in many cases. But again, the soul is what I feel has volunteered for the mission on earth. We may not be provable aliens, as far as genetically analysing us. I don't think it's important whether we are provable aliens or not. It is the spirit, the soul, and even the personality, that counts.

UFO REVIEW: I've noticed that there is one thing which most star children have in common, that is a love for nature and animals. Most star children have dogs and cats or a garden that they watch over. Is this true in your case as well?

DIANE TESSMAN: Yes, and next month in my newsletter, I'm going to do a survey of this. If they do not have pets, they are in the minority. But they do love them. They simply can't have pets where they are. I have several cats currently, a sheep dog, a snake, five guinea pigs, one rabbit, and seven gerbils.

Right across the board, the star people feel that they are one with nature. They go out and meditate very easily with nature. They feel hurt when a tree is cut down. They feed the birds. They feel very bad about the contamination and pollution of earth. This is absolutely a basic trait...you're right.

UFO REVIEW: One of the questions which keeps cropping up, when people write to me, is whether animals will be taken off the planet in the event of a global evacuation.

DIANE TESSMAN: Tiebus has given me the information that they very definitely will be taken. As a matter of fact, they have been taken in a planned scientific manner. There has been a Noah's Ark kind of thing going on for many years. Not only two of everything has been taken, but as many as possible to be seeded on new planets. These are planets which are hospitable as far as environment, but whose ecology would not be ruined by the introduction of earth life-forms.

There are also huge space cities or even space countries orbiting outside our atmosphere, that are artificially created environments for life-forms from planets whose evacuation is imperative. This would include not just cows and horses, but also smallest insects and plants. Everything has been taken many times aboard the small shuttles, which people have been calling saucers, since 1947.

People who will be evacuated will be allowed to take pets, because it is considered necessary to their adjustment. They will also take family members, since they will take as many regular humans as possible. And if the family is with the star child, why wouldn't they be taken. The family is right there and the star child functions better with them. So there will be family members taken who are not star children, as well as pets, if this is something that the star child needs to function for the very important mission ahead.

UFO REVIEW: Another important question which keeps coming up is as to the number of people that will be taken. There seems to be a discrepancy among the various space channels on this, to the exact number of people that will be taken along, in case of an evacuation. Has Tiebus ever given you any specific numbers?

DIANE TESSMAN: He has assured me that as many will be taken as possible. As I have said, they have huge space cities, space countries, and even rural areas, small planets that are spaceships. He has also assured me that each star person and their family will have an abode area to live in, which will be much bigger than a cabin. It will be essentially a house, only within the mothership quarters.

UFO REVIEW: How long will be required to stay in those quarters?

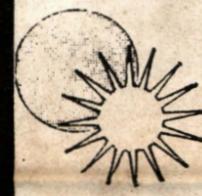

DIANE TESSMAN: Different star children have different missions. Some people will stay on board at their own choosing and become crew members, as Dr. Sprinkle says, "Us-folk will become U-folk." Other people will herald the New Age on earth after earth has been cleansed of the radiation by the Space Brothers' advanced technology. Other star children will, by their own choice, seed new planets. This is the Adam and Eve syndrome.

UFO REVIEW: One of the things that has been told to us by the Space Brothers, is that the star children and walk-ins will be developing,

WHO IS DIANE TESSMAN: Diane's book THE TRANSFORMATION has been published by UFO REVIEW with an introduction by Dr. Sprinkle of the University of Wyoming. She is a former MUFON State Section Director, Managing Editor of INNER LIGHT and a correspondent to New Age publications worldwide. Tim Beckley says: There isn't a more knowledgeable person anywhere when it comes to New Age & UFO subjects.

specific extraordinary abilities, which may not yet be known. DIANE TESSMAN: Among my star people, from the Network, I have some who are very dynamic healers and they feel that their energies are getting greater. Tiebus has told me that there will be virtual "mash" units, which will require the star person healers' attention on any number of people with radiation burns and other injuries. I have also been given the information that there are many star people who are emotional healers. This is more than comforting ability. This is an actual healing ability but of the mind. There will be many regular people who will be totally traumatized from seeing the destruction of the planet. They will have lost loved ones. They will have been injured, or have radiation burns, and suddenly they'll find themselves aboard a spaceship, and aliens—as they call the Space Brothers—will be attempting to heal them. The Space

Brothers have both advanced scientific and medical techniques, and also great healing abilities. The star person healers will be the bridge between the aliens and the regular humans. The ones who have this emotional healing ability will be able to soothe them. This will save people from going into shock and help them accept what has happened.

I have also been told that the star people are the adapters. They adapt energy. They operate on a higher level of energy and adapt it to the mundane level. They can also explain what is happening to the Space Brothers, who may have trouble understanding some human behavior. The Space Brothers can learn this psychically. But the star people are just invaluable interpreters and bridges between the two levels of consciousness.

There are other abilities which can be found within our star peoples' Network, besides healing. We have teachers, who often feel that they are to be the teachers of other teachers. They would work to expand the awareness of groups that are not quite as aware, once the New Age begins. They would acquaint people with the terms and the concepts which are needed to live in the New Age. We have other star people who have great artistic ability, who can channel as they paint or compose. We have quite a few musicians and composers. We have people who are experts in crystals. I have one gentleman who was given the idea, by the Space Brothers, that if crystals are cut in triangular shapes to the exact dimension of the great pyramids, they will give off more power. He was also given the Federations' flag in his channeling.

We also have people among us who are animal experts. They can heal animals and would like to work with the animals who are beamed up. So, we have those people who will be spending a lifetime as forest rangers, park rangers, and zoologists.

Our Star Network includes people with many different talents, from all walks of life. We have Muslims, we have those who believe in nature worship, we have many Christians. I feel, we are all striving towards Christ consciousness, though not all of us are within the realm of organized religion. I have not found one star person who does not believe in God, as the creative energy, as the life force in all of us, and as the universal cosmic force. That seems to be another common denominator.

UFO REVIEW: Where are you going to be taking all this, now as we head into the New Age and the end times get closer and closer? What are you going to be doing to get the word out?

DIANE TESSMAN: My path, at this point, is very much preplanned. Through remarkable circumstances, I am starting a church. I prefer to call it a center, a star peoples' center in San Diego. It will be a sanctuary and a retreat for star people. It will also be a means of spreading the word to people whose minds are open, and of finding more star people. It will be international, as we are international. We have members in Denmark and Australia. It's called The Starlight Mystical Church and we are now looking for a location. When the energy feels right to me at a certain location, that is where the church will be. This has all been very much guided and planned.

I am just amazed so far at my star path, my mission. It has come about so overwhelmingly, and successfully, and quickly. The energies are so good that I think that the stars are the limit.

UFO REVIEW: We have had a tremendous response to the space scroll. Several thousand people have signed up and asked that their name be given to the Space Brothers. Do you see any time in the foreseeable future, when these names will be handed over?

DIANE TESSMAN: They will be handed over when they are asked for. It is very difficult to pin down time. Time comes in eddies and currents, much like a river. Time is also nonexistent in very strict metaphysical terms.

ANGELIC, GOD-LOVING, BEINGS FROM ANOTHER DIMENSION HAVE INSTRUCTED ME TO HELP EARTH BOUND SOULS RECEIVE ALL THEY DESIRE BY DRAWING UPON THE SPIRITUAL AND HEALING POWERS OF THE POWERFUL...

Cross enlarged to show detail

'CROSS OF CRYSTAL'

Dear Reader:
My name is Diane Tesson. You might have seen me on TV or heard me on the radio telling my incredible story. I am an ordained minister and pastor of San Diego's Starlight Mystic Church. Up until just recently my life was pretty much a shambles. Because of the poor economy, I had lost my job as a teacher and found it impossible to get work. Things rapidly turned real sour — my car payments were overdue, my rent was behind, and I even had to get food stamps to feed my daughter.

But now — THANK GOD! — conditions have vastly improved. My luck has turned from bad to good. Suddenly my cup has runneth over and all because of a strange artifact I came across in my garden, which, I believe, was put there by beneficial beings who have helped guide my life and who have only positive thoughts for every peace loving person on this planet.

But let me start at the beginning... All my life, I have felt a closeness with God's universe. My experience is no lie! It has been verified by a University Professor who subjected me to a grueling two hour hypnotic session. He wanted to see if I was telling the truth. He is convinced I am, for I relived events that happened many years ago as if they had only transpired recently.

CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES
It was a warm summer's night and I was playing with my dog outside. It was after dark and a certain stillness filled the air that I shall never forget. As I fooled around with my pet, I noticed a bizarre light a short distance away from where we were.

Without warning, my familiar surroundings were gone and I was in a completely different environment. All around me were these strange beings, some of them human-like, others radically different than any life form I was familiar with.

But there was one particular being who I found myself more attracted to than the others. I especially was not scared of him. The one I conversed with was human and I loved him. I could feel that there was something — a certain bond — between us and to me he has always been my "Special One." Due to the nature of subsequent contacts with these angelic, God-loving beings from another dimension, I feel almost certain that I am only half human, and the other part of me is extraterrestrial. Somehow — and I can't begin to explain this in scientific terms — I believe that the soul of the "Special One" was implanted into me or duplicated into me electronically, and that the "Special One" has been a part of my consciousness ever since I was seven.

SHOCKING REVELATIONS
In recent times my contact with THEM has increased to the point where I have become an accomplished psychic, able to forecast major events before they happen. I have also helped many individuals who feel that they are "different," and that they do not "belong" on this planet. My mission to assist these "Star children" walking amongst us has been a huge success. In addition, I have been doing my best to alert all those who will listen to the coming changes that are slated to take place here on earth culminating in a collapse of civilization and the end of the world as we know it. Nostradamus, Edgar Cayce and other attuned minds have told of catastrophic events which are to take place during our lives, and my friends from another dimension have added to our knowledge of such a monumental transition that is said to be only years away.

Since that night back in Iowa, I have experienced many things that cannot possibly be explained. I have seen and heard what others cannot see or hear. I have had "flashbacks," of previous incarnations. I have heard strange beeps inside and outside my home which emanate from toasters, radios and stereos. Mysterious voices have come over my CB set. I've encountered ghosts, and had a variety of invisible playmates. One of my most frightening experiences has to do with the time I was levitated off my bed and some invisible entities actually tried to pull me through the wall.

HOW THE CRYSTAL CROSS CAME TO ME

Several months ago, I had a series of very frightening prophetic dreams about the "Last Days," which the Bible refers to as "Armageddon." In these nighttime visions, I witnessed entire cities being destroyed and people looking for places to hide. Mother Nature had turned against humankind. There were floods everywhere, and tidal waves swept across the West Coast, while thunder and lightning the likes of which we have never witnessed flashed everywhere. Wars had broken out in many lands, and from my dreams it looked like there was no way out. That is, until fleets of glittering spaceships filled the sky and started taking deserving souls off this planet in a mass evacuation which was being directed by the mighty hands of Jesus Himself.

These "dreams" were so vivid that I would wake up in a cold sweat. And while these prophetic visions always differed slightly, the one element they all contained was the materialization of a huge crystal cross over the heads of the suffering multitudes.

Upon rising one morning, a voice inside my head directed me to walk outside to my garden. There glittering in the early rays of sunlight was a beautiful cross made of crystal, and though it was much smaller, it was very similar in design to the one I had repeatedly seen in my dreams.

Later that day, my "Special One," who often speaks to me, told me that there was great significance in the cross that I had found in my yard. He reminded me that crystals have always been known for their healing and spiritual powers and that eons ago, on the continent of Atlantis, scientists had harnessed the forces of the crystal and a great technology existed because of the positive use of these crystals.

My "Special One," recommended to me that everyone should own a cross for themselves and promised that those who carry such a crystal will experience many positive benefits throughout their life.

ARE YOU IN NEED?

Does your spirit cry out for relief from worldly tensions? If so I believe I can promise you...

- Financial security.
- A loved one to comfort you.
- A decent job.
- A means to lift all curses that have been placed on your soul, thus improving your karma.
- A way to own a new home.
- A means to win the lottery.
- To drive around in a beautiful new car.
- To have plenty of money in the bank.

And, above all else, would you eventually like to be taken from this planet to either some Heavenly realm, or a more peaceful dimension in space populated by advanced beings like the ones I've met? According to what I have learned, this is also no problem for those who respond to my unusual request.

My contacts with angelic entities from another dimension have indicated all this — and more — is within the realm of possibility, but that your chances of succeeding at WHATEVER you wish to achieve will be tenfold if you carry this powerful crystal cross with you at all times.

NOT FOR SALE

In another dream, I was warned that I must never sell the cross, but that it should be given to those who seek eternal comfort and spiritual awakening. Since the crosses are costly, there is no way that I can send them to the tens of thousands of individuals who are likely to ask for one through this article. Therefore, I believe I have come upon a very fair and just manner in which to put these crosses into circulation as was intended and cover at least part of my expense.

Therefore, anyone who orders a copy of my book THE TRANSFORMATION will receive both a copy of my autobiography (which I think you will agree makes for fascinating reading and will tell you a great deal more about the coming tribulations to strike this planet and how to personally avoid them as much as possible), and a FREE crystal cross.

TAKE PART IN AN EXPERIMENT

I am very anxious to know what effect wearing the cross will have on you, so after carrying it on your person for thirty days won't you please drop me a line and let me know how your life has changed for the better?

I realize in distributing these crystal crosses that I am entering upon a totally new threshold in human understanding. I definitely KNOW from personal experience, that there are advanced beings out there who, with God's help, wish to assist those who will open their hearts and their minds to other realms and realities.

ADDITIONAL FREE GIFT

If you write to me without delay, I will put you on my mailing list to receive a free trial subscription to INNER LIGHT of which I am managing editor. This publication deals with prophecy, miracles, apparitions of the Virgin Mary and Jesus, experiences in unknown realms, and much, much, more.

SCIENTISTS AND SEERS ALIKE PREDICT POLAR FLIP

HOW DOES THE INNER EARTH MYSTERY TIE IN WITH THE LAST DAYS AND THE COMING WORLD EVACUATION PREDICTED BY UFO CONTACTEES?

HOLLOW EARTH AT THE END TIMES

- Benjamin Franklin sets the date for the end of the age near the close of this century.
- Alice Bailey speaks of a "planetary crisis" at the dawn of the Aquarian Age.
- Mme. Helen Blavatsky, the founder of Theosophy, mentions a symbolic Hollow Earth and Earth being in a transitory state.
- Jeane Dixon's "guides" predict an axis shift before too long.
- Nostradamus foresaw a planetary calamity to occur at the end of this century when the moon will take a different position and the sun be "tired of its place" for 7000 years.
- Edgar Cayce predicts the year 2000 will see "a shifting of the poles" and a "new cycle" begin.

These are only some of the references Benton reviews in detail, offering actual quotations from other sources including: George Van Tassel, Howard Menger, Riley Crabb, George Adamski, Michael X, Paul Twitchell, Raymond Bernard and contactees Helen and Betty Mitchell.

In this final wrap-up of her trilogy (which includes HOLLOW EARTH MYSTERIES & THE POLAR SHIFT and SERPENTS OF FIRE), Floria Benton continues her own observations and warnings, and then turns to well known authorities in many walks of life to help prove her arguments.

The following previous published works by Floria Benton are also available:

HOLLOW EARTH MYSTERIES & THE POLAR SHIFT

Her first work, Floria Benton speculates that the earth is really hollow and that advanced beings reside inside our world and come to the surface in the craft we have come to call flying saucers. Often, the author says, these super humans come in the disguise of space beings not wishing to give their true identity away. $9.95.

SERPENTS OF FIRE & THE HITLER HOLLOW EARTH CONNECTION

Did the Nazi leader escape death in Germany, and if so was he able to make it out of Europe and eventually go to the South Pole where it is claimed he set up a secret base?

The author believes that some flying saucers may actually be made on earth and that Hitler had developed disc-shaped devices based perhaps on knowledge that he tapped when actual UFOs crashed shortly before World War II.

The contents of this book may shock you, but SERPENTS OF FIRE will have you thinking for a long time to come. $9.95 plus $1.00 postage & handling.

JESUS' MOTHER HAS APPEARED OVER 200 TIMES THIS CENTURY TO ISSUE A TERRIFYING WARNING!

New MIRACLES & PROPHECIES OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

While Her appearance at Fatima is by far the best known, it is not common knowledge that since the beginning of this century, the Blessed Virgin Mary has appeared in visions worldwide. Eyewitnesses reveal that the Mother of Jesus has continued to woe people everywhere of potential global dangers if mankind does not come to grips with itself and return to a more spiritual existence. The rash of apparitions began during the First World War, and as mankind has edged closer and closer to destruction, Mary has appeared more frequently, showing herself to young and old alike, from many walks of life. Though stern in the message she delivers, Mary is also compassionate and loving, refusing to watch Her little children die needlessly on the world's bloody battle fields. Evidence published for the first time indicates that She comes both as a helper of humanity—performing great wonders—as well as conveying prophecies that MUST be heeded if we are to survive and go on to live in Christ's glorious Kingdom on Earth.

In 1950, Mary appeared to a mother of seven, a farm woman, in Necedah, Wisconsin. Since then, She has materialized repeatedly, as has St. Joseph, St. Theresa, St. Francis, Joan of Arc and the Archangel Michael, who proved His presence by bending four sturdy ash trees toward the ground (they have remained in this bent-over position for over 30 years). On one occasion, 100,000 of the faithful witnessed the "miracle of the spinning sun," in which a huge ball of fire came down out of the Heavens and approached the earth. Many who have traveled here to worship have experienced the incredible, including their Rosary beads changing color. One Rosary that was changed to gold was taken to a hospital and held to the lips of two people who were unconscious from accidents. Both opened their eyes and began to speak as soon as they were touched. During Her many appearances in Wisconsin, the Holy Mother has given explicit predictions concerning the future of America, including

- Mary's magical appearances in Guadalupe.
- Her conversations with Catherine Labouré.
- Our Lady of Knock in Ireland.
- The incredible happenings at San Damiano, including photos of Mary atop the "falling sun."
- The amazing wonders at Garabandal, which have been captured on film and CANNOT be explained.

Have you read our previously published book — "THE SECRET PROPHECY OF FATIMA REVEALED?"

Three prophecies were given by Mary at Fatima. The first two were prophecies about World War I and II. The third, SECRET PROPHECY, was to be opened by the pope in 1961, but because of its dramatic contents was never officially released. For the first time in THE SECRET PROPHECY OF FATIMA REVEALED, the seal has been broken off the mystery, and the puzzle unraveled. This book is now in its seventh printing and is still available to those who have previously missed it.

DO THEY FORTELL OF WORLD WAR III? THE END OF THE WORLD? THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST?

MIRACLES PERFORMED
During Her appearances, Mary usually causes major miracles. The following accounts are detailed in an amazing new book, MIRACLES AND PROPHECIES OF THE VIRGIN MARY:
• In 1949 three nuns were tortured by the communists in the Ukraine. Because they would not renounce their faith, they were forced to work outdoors making clay bricks in the bitter cold while wearing hardly any clothes. In addition, they ate very little and were made to stand in the rain and suffer other physical discomforts. Left to die by Russian officers, the Virgin Mary appeared to the nuns giving them strength. For days the started to gush forth from a rock where Mary had stood. The water was found to have supernatural qualities. Many of those who drank the water resumed a normal life though they had previously been extremely ill.

MARY'S PROPHECY ABOUT AMERICA
Besides Her great healing powers, the Holy Mother has continually given traumatic prophecies, particularly regarding the future of America, which She sees as being a nation inspired by God.

warnings about "the Quibel Bomb," which is capable of destroying us all!

WHAT IS THE BALL OF REDEMPTION?

Mary warned at Fatima: "A great chastisement will come over all mankind; not today or tomorrow, but in the second half of the twentieth century. Humanity has not developed as desired. Mankind has been sacrilegious and has trampled under foot the wondrous blessing of God... Satan will succeed in sowing confusion in the minds of scientists who design weapons that can destroy great portions of mankind in short periods."

Lucy, one of the little girls at Fatima who witnessed the appearance of the Virgin, is now a nun. Lucy has said that we must heed the Holy Mother's plea, that time is exceptionally short. Mary has stated that She will soon appear all over the world for all to see, and that if mankind does not change, that the Heavenly Host will send a huge fireball out of the sky which will bring climatic changes upon earth. Many other mystical seers have been given prophecies about the "Ball of Redemption."

When will the fireball strike? Who, if anyone, will be spared? What does Mary say about the return of Her Son?
In addition to the above, when you order a copy of the just released MIRACLES AND PROPHECIES OF THE VIRGIN MARY, you will learn about:

PROBING THE WORLD'S MYSTERY ZONES

We have scientific evidence—though limited in scope—of certain planetary regions and zones which are mysterious and defy rational explanation. I'm referring here to time warps, animal and mineral anomalies and distortion in vegetation.

Documented information is difficult to acquire in many cases, because scientists are generally reluctant to publish, or make publically known, things outside the range of their ability to explain them. Reactionary scorn from scientific colleagues, regarding any attempt by credible investigators to rationalize hitherto unexplained events, is sufficient in itself to continue the ever-present addition of new links in the time-worn chain of scientific coverups.

At the present time, I'm working on the manuscript of a new book on Geomancy (GEO = Earth and MANCY = Divination of same, or Divining Earth — Sky Energies). In this study, I've collected a wealth of valuable research dealing with certain places on earth, which seem to at least temporarily suspend our accepted laws of physics.

Verified reports coming from responsible officials, bring to light the fact that humans are also affected by energy anomalies previously unrecognized or not understood in their nature.

In the early 1960's the Schumann Resonance (ELF, extra low frequency waves) were discovered circulating in an envelope of energy close to, and surrounding, the surface of our planet. Because ELF frequencies as measured in cycles, closely match those of human beings, it became known that one's brainwaves could be entrained and even manipulated by a machine designed for this purpose. The Russians were discovered doing this to personnel in the American Embassy in Moscow. Russian covert activity manipulating ELF waves on an international scale has been exposed in the world press on a number of occasions.

Thus, if we are to believe reputable scientists who claim that energies, through nature or device, can somehow lock into brainwave patterns of humans, then the following series of seemingly unexplainable events may be explained as a function of, or aberration in the Schumann Resonance.

Within a straight stretch of Arizona desert highway, totally devoid of dips, curves, or other road hazards, a driver suddenly loses control of his vehicle and crashes on the roadside. Later, another car goes uncontrollably off the highway (in the same place) causing a fatal accident. Police investigation and reports by witnesses confirm that no other vehicle, pedestrian or creature was involved. The car veered off the highway at high speed. No logical explanation could be given for the crash in the police reports.

These ominous crossings apparently exist in other world locations, with essentially the same results. They function as earth energy bands (negative in their effect upon the awareness of humans) measuring from a few feet wide, up to widths calculated to reach a quarter of a mile or so across.

As far as I know, these "energy vectors," or "bands," can only be detected in three ways. 1. Through the acute sensitivity of one entering and passing its portal (which is energizing both earth and atmosphere directly below and above). 2. By Dowsing the site with a pendulum, rods or other Dowsing instrument, and, 3. By monitoring the changes in the brainwave activity of a human brought into these nefarious precincts. Other bio-feedback equipment may or may not show change, so the Electroencephalograph (EEG) is perhaps the most reliable instrument available to date.

The cause of the aforementioned accidents may be described as a condition where the driver momentarily loses conscious awareness, similar to an operator who falls asleep at the wheel.

Approximately 300 kilometers southeast of Chihuahua City, and still further south of Jimenez City, in Mexico, (near the northeastern border of the state of Durango) a region of strange proportions exists. Investigators have labeled the locale as "The Zone of Silence."

Intense night lights of unexplained origin, interrupted hertzian wave transmissions and strange plant mutations have been noted within the so-called "Silent Zone." On July 11th 1970, an Athena rocket launched from the White Sands, New Mexico missile range, seemingly selected a course of its own choosing, and was later discovered inside of a volcanic crater near the town of Ceboillas, Durango, Mexico.

Shortly afterward, H. Augustus De la Pena, a metallurgic and chemical engineer studying the zone for possible oil deposits, found to his dismay that his radio receiver began to operate erratically. By changing location within the area, the radio would resume operation, or cease to function entirely causing interruption of any attempted transmission or reception.

A later scientific expedition to this mysterious domain, proved to others that De la Pena, wasn't exaggerating. Moreover, the investigative team reaffirmed De la Pena's earlier discovery that animal and plant life in the region displayed very different and peculiar markings, pigmentation and size in comparison with those seen in surrounding areas.

Black rocks with shiny surfaces labeled Gujolas, which were inevitably found on the ground—never buried within—containing various metallic substances, were presumed to be from outer space. Yet, there was never any sign that they had impacted into the ground, if they indeed fell from the sky. Numerous meteorites have been discovered in the Silent Zone.

One meteorite that fell on the Mexican town of Allende, February 8th, 1960, surprisingly contained some of the oldest known matter ever to exist in our Galaxy. Another meteorite entering earth's atmosphere on a collision course with our Mariner Space Explorer, eventually went into orbit around our planet before falling to earth in the vicinity of the Zone of Silence. Another meteorite retrieved from this enigmatic tract, showed what appeared to be intelligently inscribed markings over its surface.

Scientific theories abound, but none really satisfy all components of the investigation. Some include the assumption that these zones contain unusually large deposits of iron, causing magnetic anomalies such as those found at Gold Hill, Oregon, Santa Cruz, California, and other so affected world sites. Here photography shows that one can easily defy gravity, be seen to appear larger or smaller according to the position assumed by the person being photographed.

Regardless of the explanations offered none of this satisfactorily explains the source of blinding lights observed in the night sky over the Silent Zone; lights that move both horizontally and vertically above the plain. Nor do other ideas offered by scientists yet satisfy the multiplicity of inquiries aroused by the world's numerous bands and zones of mystery.

During the winter of 1981 an unusual fiery aerial display occurred over Reelsville, Indiana. Whether it had been a meteor shower or an appearance of UFOs, Enid M. Irwin didn't know. For by the time she became interested in the event the newspaper accounts had been thrown away.

She found the unusual artifact in a cornfield during spring plowing and threw it into a large bucket, along with other stones she wished to examine. For she was a "rockhound" especially interested in the stone age arrowheads and spear points she occasionally found on the farm she and her husband, Andrew, operated.

But this stone was much different. It measured about eight inches across and five inches high, its thickness varying from two to three inches. Its unusual markings intrigued her, for she had sometimes found pictographs on the arrowheads. At first she thought the curving lines were just worm channels. Not being able to make much of it, she put it away for later reference.

Whether or not the stone was responsible, Irwin immediately began having unusual experiences, including unusual dreams, populated by UFOs and residents of the ancient land of Atlantis. She seemed to be drawn to the public library where she found Ignatius Donnelly's Atlantis the Antediluvian World, along with James Churchward's MU books, and devoured the contents hungrily. Progressively she experienced a compelling urge to study Atlantis and other ancient civilizations.

Due either to a coincidence or her possession of the mysterious stone, UFOs began to visit the area regularly. In one instance the craft seemed to be taking on otherworldly passengers!

The UFO itself was only faintly visible due to the brilliance of lights illuminating a stairway leading to the craft, about 200 ft. from where she was parked. What she next saw defied logic: shadows of legs going up and down the stairs, but never the complete persons or beings they belonged to! After the strange loading operation the brilliant side lights were extinguished, other lights came on and the thing took off at great speed.

While preparing dinner one evening Irwin suddenly felt a vibration so strong that she fancied she might "disintegrate" if its intensity increased. Fortunately the effect diminished suddenly, though leaving her quite limp. When she asked a psychic if such an experience could be harmful, he told her that although she may have been "near translation," she was able to "translate" out of the situation because he felt she was needed for some mission on Earth. He sensed that UFOs were involved and that some object in her possession was responsible for UFO sightings. When he asked her if she could tell him what it was, she replied in the negative, never thinking of the Mu Rock.

When the Irwins moved to Oregon, they had to discard much of their rock collection accumulated in Indiana, and she began throwing away all but their most treasured finds. Then for the first time in many months she remembered the strange rock with the "worm markings," and carried this to Andrew who was sitting with a helper.

"I know you two will make fun of me and say that this rock has old worm holes in it, but I've just got to take it with us!" she exclaimed.

Andrew looked at it, remarking, "Worms can't work a rock over like that, especially one that hard!"

The friend agreed: "I don't know what it is, but I'd say you'd better take it with you!"

A Message From Atlantis

Enid could hardly wait to get settled in her new home at Grants Pass to further study the stone, once having looked it over briefly while moving. She credited to imagination the tingling sensation she felt as she held it and feelings of well being persisting for hours after she packed it away.

A thorough cleaning revealed a remarkable discovery. The channels she had credited to worms now formed outlines of easily-discernible pictures! These images included an Indian and an unfeathered serpent monster. Although her connecting the artifact with ancient Mu was subjective, her re-reading of the works of Churchward confirmed this opinion and helped her to interpret the pictures. Suddenly she realized that it was indeed no ordinary stone, but a deliberate attempt to communicate over thousands of years! She could picture an ancient sage fashioning the stone before the last remaining land mass of Mu sank. The rock depicted three mountains, which she believed represented the three parts of the continent which successively sank. The last one had been referred to as The Isle of Mu, later shortened to

"Le-Mu-ria," the "ia" denoting the tiny portion that was left.

But Mu had lain in what is now the Pacific Ocean. If indeed an artifact of that ancient land, how did it turn up in an Indiana cornfield?

Noted seer Edgar Cayce believed that Atlantis, more modern than Mu and probably in existence 10,000 to 20,000 years ago, reached from the Atlantic into Indiana, which was its seashore. This idea was strengthened by the proliferation of marine fossils in the area of the rock's discovery. Survivors from the Mu catastrophe may have brought the artifact with them when they escaped to Atlantis, which would not sink until eons later.

Irwin claims that the stone contains strange powers in addition to its pictographic "message." While meditating with the stone near her head, she experienced a vision of remarkable "3-D" clarity. In her words:

I was taken to our Indiana woods near where I found the stone. A heavy-set man, whom I judged to be in his 60's, was approaching me. I was surprised at his general appearance. His face was quite square, his skin fair and smooth. His hair was light blonde and very fine, and he wore a short, white toga type of tunic with a girdle around the waist, and tan-colored sandals. He pushed aside young saplings with his bare arms and came into a clearing. I got the impression he had been disturbed from his work deeper within the woods.

The being seemed to be shouting words, inaudible to the witness, but his demeanor expressed disappointment and displeasure. Irwin did not wish to bother him further and "willed" that the experience should end, at which point the entire scene dissolved.

Stone Tested at Lab

Although archeologists who saw pictures of the Mu Rock claimed they detected no images on it and disparaged Irwin's interpretations, I believed it should be analyzed and tested for carbon dating, needing such information in deciding whether to publish Irwin's book, Message From Atlantis, which outlined her theories. But the author would not allow it out of her possession, fearing that it might be deliberately lost or portions removed from it.

Knowing that a testing lab in England did unique work using only photographs of

MYSTERIOUS "MU ROCK" MAY INCREASE YOUR PSYCHIC POWERS, READ THIS UNUSUAL BOOK AND RECEIVE A "MESSAGE FROM ATLANTIS!"

Did a super race of beings once inhabit the earth, and did they leave behind evidence of their culture? Enid M. Irwin says — and offers proof! — that they did. In her new book, "MESSAGE FROM ATLANTIS," the author explores the many mysteries that have confronted her after finding a strange artifact that is said to possess supernatural powers. The artifact led her to research the subject of reincarnation, and it also started her on a hunt to find out certain secrets contained within the Bible, mainly the comparison between the I Ching, an oriental form of fortunetelling, and the use of the Urim and Thummin, as practiced by the wise men of the Old Testament.

In perhaps the most fascinating title, "UFOS OVER OREGON AND MT. SHASTA," the author tells about a "mysterious stranger" who came to her house looking for someone to dig "a grave." She also describes her various encounters with strange objects and how she is convinced that UFOs helped put out three forest fires in the vicinity of Grants Pass, Oregon. Also included, is a detailed description of a huge "cloud-like" UFO that hovered above the peaks of California's mystical Mt. Shasta.

This is your golden opportunity to order Enid Irwin's incredible story at the special price to UFO REVIEW readers of $7.95 plus $1.00 postage and handling. Her illustrated account is MUST reading for those who are intrigued by the strange planet we live on. Send payment to:

objects, a system developed by George de la Warr, I submitted a photograph which had accompanied the manuscript. The results were as puzzling to the lab as they were to me:

Ordinarily, dating of photographs of modern manufactured objects can be accomplished with an accuracy of three or four years, and prehistoric artifacts within a couple of hundred. "Dating of the artifact pictured was inconclusive," read the brief report. "Our instruments fluctuated between extreme antiquity and puzzling readings which indicated recent times and even the future (emphasis ours)." A test for conventional background radiation also puzzled the examiners, for the readings indicated none at all - not even the background radiation count present throughout the environment!

Computations from further tests showed that the object displayed a NEGATIVE radiation of several roentgens! Believing their equipment to be faulty, they checked it with control targets and found it to be functioning normally!

A publisher seeking to check claims that the Mu Rock contained a "message" from Atlantis has few authorities, indeed, from which to seek help. I was in that quandary until I happened to think of a remarkable acquaintance. While participating in Timothy Green Beckley's New York UFO/New Age Conference in 1981 I had the opportunity to visit the Sungma Tenzing Lama Dikapa, the only high lama of a Tibetan order residing in this country. Robert E. Dickhoff Ph.D. (the holy man's legal name) had been trained in Tibetan lamaseries and unofficially represented the Dalai Lama in this country. In fact he had helped negotiate for the exile domicile of Tibet's spiritual ruler prior to the latter's escape from his country in 1959 before the Chinese takeover. During my visit I was impressed by Dickhoff's headquarters, so filled with Buddhas, prayer wheels, manuscripts and other sacred objects that I fancied his quarters to be a kind of "time machine" which had transported me out of the everyday world!

Since I knew the lama was also an expert on Western antiquities I sent him a photo of the Mu Rock. His acknowledging telephone call astounded me. While deigning not interpret the inscriptions he told me he was sending a copy of his book, Agharta - Saucers of Pre-History, with a page marked by paper clip.

It depicted a map of the continent of MU. The outline of the MU borders were similar to the shape of the Mu Rock to an astounding degree! (See illustration) to aid us during some impending natural catastrophe akin to the disaster that sunk the ancient continent?

Why had the stone so fascinated Irwin, even before she cleaned it and noticed the inscriptions? Why had its discovery been associated with her developing "psychic powers," seeing UFOs and desiring to study ancient civilizations? Was her vision of the man of the forest just a dream or a "real" "fourth-dimensional" experience induced by the Mu Rock?

Readers of her book no doubt will be able to question her interpretations and possibly add their own. Indeed they may even be able to test the strange powers the stone allegedly possesses. I am told by the British lab that photographs retain their "Magnetic Envelopes," even after being copied, or even reduced to photo-mechanical images (pictures broken down into dot patterns on printing plates) even though there is some falling off of "detail", as with magnetic audio or TV tapes through successive "generations" of reproduction. Possibly the accompanying picture may have so suffered, being reproduced directly from the halftone in the book (the original is no longer in my possession), but readers who feel they have "psychic" insights will lose nothing by testing it. May I suggest that you keep this issue, with the photo folded out and visible, while meditating upon the origin of the Mu Rock. Although dreams can often be interpreted more expertly by recalling what "junk food" was consumed while watching the Late Show, no harm can be done by sleeping with this issue under your pillow!

The Case of the Mu Rock is certainly still open, and Strange rock with unknown markings discovered by Enid Irwin, author of MESSAGE FROM ATLANTIS. Does it offer proof that an ancient civilization once existed on earth?

Readers Can Help

Instead of being resolved, the mystery of the artifact had become even more puzzling, and strengthened my resolve to publish the book.

Why had the lab been unable to obtain either a dating or a radiation reading from the photograph? The readings had not only been unsuccessful, but had suggested a fantastic possibility. It was as if the artifact had originated not only in the past, but even in the future as well! Its reverse radiation, while certainly not indicating conventional "anti-matter" (which would violently interact with conventional matter) might even suggest origination in some other dimension of time and space!

It had been found following an unusual display of aerial lights. Did UFOs "plant" the artifact for the author to find, and if so, what connection do "space" visitors have with Atlantis or Mu? Do they represent the offspring of the ancient inhabitants who escaped to found colonies on other planets, and return now

I went to sleep at about two o'clock and by 7:30 that morning, I felt fine. I felt better than I had ever felt. I was very weak, but I removed the IV, at which point the nurse came into the room and said, "What are you doing?"

I said, "I'm going home. I feel better and I don't want to stay here. I want to go home."

I had an argument with the doctor but I did go home. Two or three weeks after this, I felt great. The yellow coloring of my skin went away within six weeks, and returned to normal.

At the end of August, the doctor from Vancouver came to see my son. He knew I ran business and I guess he came to find out when I had died. No one had talked to him about it. When my son told him that I hadn't died, he came to see me where I worked because he couldn't believe it.

When he saw me, he said, "What did you do? What happened to you? You don't even look like the same person." I had put on three pounds. I said, "I really don't know. I got better, that's all."

The doctors response was predictable: "Well, maybe some of the medicine we gave you worked after all. It's surprising, but I'd like you to come so we could give you a check up."

So I went in the following week and he said, "This is amazing. I can't even find any signs of the cancer in you. You don't have a cancer cell left. What happened?"

By September or October, I became very anxious, crying for no reason at all. The doctors said I was disappointed about not dying. I said, "For Gods sake I want to live. I don't want to die." He said that I had a psychological problem and took me to see a psychiatrist, who was with the hospital. He was used to seeing patients who were dying.

He started talking to me and it always seemed to go back to after I was sick for those three days. He said, "I think there is something more to this, that you are not telling me. If you let me, I'll put you into hypnosis and we'll go back to that time."

So he took me back to when I went to see my family and everything went fine. Then I started to unravel the story of my encounter. When I came out of it, there were three psychiatrists there. I have the transcript of the tape. It took three sessions of almost two hours each session to get all the information.

He said that it certainly wasn't the medication that they gave me. He felt that I did have an encounter of some kind. He wanted to put me in touch with Dr. J. Allen Hynek of the Center of UFO Studies, but we weren't able to get in touch with him.

Shortly after this, I sold my business. I was looking for a place. It had to be the right place. Somehow, I knew it had to be in Arizona, even though I hadn't been there before. I first came to Arizona in January of 1977 and visited places like Flagstaff and Tucson. When I got to Stafford I knew I was meant to be here.

When I returned to Canada to take care of some business, I had terrible headaches at the back of the head. The doctor suggested a scan in case there had been cancer left there. They did a scanning of my brain and head. At the base of my skull, they found a metallic bead. They talked about removing it because it might be causing the ringing sounds in my ears. But I wouldn't let them touch it. I had a feeling that if they did, they would kill me.

Now I know why it is there. And I know why I am here. I feel confidence in myself, that I'm not on the wrong track or anything. I feel that this is an important area. It's important to these beings, who gave me back my life. Regardless of what their motive was, I feel that I owe my life to them.

Since this has happened to me, I have left the field that I was familiar with, to go into something entirely different. I've gone from electronic engineering to being able to identify minerals and knowing what to do with them. Obviously, there must be a reason for it. So far I haven't found it. It has given me a living. I am able to design equipment that is used for mining. I believe this ability was given to me by these beings.

I feel that I will have another contact with these people, though I don't know when or where. I feel this

MAJOR EVENTS OF THE FUTURE REVEALED!

NEW REVELATIONS OF NOSTRADAMUS

THE SECOND COMING • THE ANTI-CHRIST • UFOS & ARMAGEDDON

AN EXCLUSIVE HISTORICAL FIRST! HIS UNPUBLISHED PROPHECIES

Nostradamus is credited with being the greatest prophet of modern, non-Biblical, times. His uncanny, indepth, forecasts are considered to be highly accurate. Nostradamus, in the 16th century, predicted both World Wars, aerial battles, submarine attacks, Hitler's aggressions, and escape, as well as the assassination of both Kennedys.

The seer warned the world of the coming of the atomic bomb. He wrote of space flights, and about the rise and fall of Russia. In one of his most amazing predictions he revealed how Iran would be taken over by a religious fanatic writing the following in rhymed quatrains: "Revolution, famine, war will not stop Persia (now Iran). Religious fanaticism will betray the monarch (the Shah). Of which the end will begin in Gaul (France)." Everybody knows that the Ayatollah Khomeini started his revolution while exiled in France.

For the future, Nostradamus predicts that there will be war in the Middle East in the next five years, during which the big powers will intervene. He even talks of the coming of the anti-Christ and how the U.S. and Russia will combine forces, if only for a brief period. He also speaks of a "religious war" and the Vatican's having to move the tomb of St. Peter to a safe place.

But, perhaps most astonishing of all, is the fact that Nostradamus saw his own death in time to help with the funeral arrangements!

NOSTRADAMUS' UNPUBLISHED QUATRAINS

A curious manuscript has been making the rounds of Europe where books on Nostradamus have been frequent best sellers in recent months. Up till now none of this material has been released in the U.S. Shortly before his death, Nostradamus apparently penned a series of prophecies so startling that he never had them included in any of his published works. Supposedly because he was afraid of the effect they might have. These predictions were circulated only to royalty and were thought destroyed for many years until they were uncovered, hidden in the basement of the house where Nostradamus died.

The title page of this newly discovered manuscript reads: "Century XII, Number 63." The seer's last supposedly quatrain, published, was "Century XII, Number 62." The assumption is that Nostradamus wrote more than twelve centuries, but had not wanted these predictions to be widely read. As far as can best be determined, there are a total of 21 or more pages to his original prophecies that have only now been translated and interpreted.

These are just a few of the provocative subjects dealt with in this new material:

- The reappearance of Jesus to the world.
- Mysterious wonders in the sky turn out to be a friendly invasion of alien beings from other worlds in space.
- Rare knowledge which will lead to the elimination of disease and sickness.
- New inventions far superior to anything currently in use on this planet.
- A terrible war in space.
- The time when night becomes day.
- The destruction of the Catholic church and the last Pope.
- The great earthquake which will kill many.
- Riots in the streets of many great cities.
- Gold missing from Fort Knox.

Indeed, no prophet has ever lived who knew more about the future than did Nostradamus. With the world's current state of affairs, mountains, international tensions, and the realization that these are the "Last Days" the Bible speaks of, you cannot afford to miss reading NOSTRADAMUS' UNPUBLISHED PROPHECIES (not sold in bookstores, order using coupon below).

WAS HE A WIZARD? A SERVANT OF GOD? A SUPER PSYCHIC? A DEVIL WORSHIPPER? OR A BEING FROM ANOTHER PLANET

THE MOST MYSTERIOUS MAN WHO EVER LIVED

Legend has it that celestial activity was extremely powerful for several nights before the birth of Nostradamus. Reports of bright, round objects in the sky over St. Remy de Provence are recorded in the archives at Salon.

Nostradamus' birth itself was rather remarkable because Blanche Nostradame (the family's real name), presented her husband with a perfect baby. In the 16th Century, perfect babies were almost unheard of. The mortality rate was very high.

He had an incredible intellect. He was very young when he mastered several languages and advanced math. He became a licensed physician at 23. He walked among plague victims for months without catching the dread disease. With a strange mixture of herbs and ingredients unknown to the world, he was able to cure many of the afflicted, thus becoming known throughout Europe as a miracle healer.

In his day, Nostradamus made friends with kings and queens who were impressed by his ability to see into the future. Royalty came far and wide to be in his presence, so anxious were they to know what the stars had in store for them. Many were disappointed as Nostradamus knew well in advance about beheadings, revolutions, and the unfaithfulness that abounded among society's most prominent figures.

THE SECOND COMING & THE ANTICHRIST

Though Nostradamus considered himself an expert astrologer, he studied the stars in a totally unique way. He used a special device when scribbling. The device was basically a magic wand which he used in conjunction with a tripod of flame and bowl of water. Nostradamus also considered himself a very religious person, and while he was born a Jew, he later converted to the Catholic faith, utilizing mystical elements from both practices in his work. Many of his predictions dealt with the Second Coming and the appearance of the anChrist.

There are some who maintain that Nostradamus was a direct messenger of God, and that his predictions were divinely inspired. To give credence to this claim, the French seer was once introduced to a young Franciscan friar, a poor village lad, and upon meeting the youth dropped to his knees. Asked why he had done so, Nostradamus declared: "Because, I must bow and kneel before his Holiness." Years later, this youth became the Pope, under the title of Sixtus the Fifth.

Others believe that Nostradamus was a time traveler from the future, or perhaps a being from another planet. All these theories are explored in detail.

BLACK PROPHECIES

DARE YOU READ NOSTRADAMUS' "BLACK PROPHECIES" - SO DEVASTATING THEY WERE SUPPOSED TO BE SEALED FOR ALL TIME?

Archaeological & Biblical Proof of "GOD'S SECRET WEAPON"

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT EXISTS!

A POWERFUL NUCLEAR REACTOR? A RADIO TRANSMITTER

TO TALK TO GOD?

Though the phenomenal motion picture THE RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK helped popularize the topic, the mystery and power of the Ark of the Covenant has long been known—and respected!—by members of both the Christian and Jewish faiths. Its very existence plays a prominent role in the scriptures that make up the Old Testament.

Atop Mount Sinai Moses spoke directly to the Lord. The clay tablets with the Ten Commandments written on them were brought down and instructions were given to Moses to build a special "container" into which the tablets of stone were to be kept. A vessel or hollow receptacle used for conveyance was called an ark. The commandments were known as the covenant (thus the term "Ark of the Covenant" came into being).

FIERCE SUPERNATURAL POWERS

The lid of the ark was called a mercy seat and was made of pure gold. At each end there was a cherub or angel, looking toward the other across the seat, with their wings spread high, so that they covered the mercy seat (see above illustration). According to the instructions given to Moses, God would speak to him from above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim. Moses was also given very specific directions on constructing a tabernacle which would be used to house the Ark. Only the priests were supposed to go near the ark and they had to wear special vestments consisting of twelve jewels when using it to communicate with the Lord. Moses was told that if these instructions were not followed the Ark would become activated and could possibly endanger the lives of those who came into contact with it. The Ark proved to be a powerful nuclear reactor. On one occasion 50,000 Philistines died when they came into contact with the Ark having captured it from the Israelites during a fierce battle. "And there went a fire out from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died."

It has been estimated that the power of the Ark is greater than any atomic bomb ever exploded on earth, and yet at the same time, its energies could be used to benefit all when—and IF!—God's words are obeyed. It even supplied a primitive form of electricity which helped the Israelites to escape their tormentors and provided manna for them to eat in the desert.

THE TRUTH BE KNOWN

Biblical student David Medina has thoroughly researched the story of the Ark. In GOD'S SECRET WEAPON he explores its varied uses, how it was constructed, what it was to be used for, and what made it so powerful. His conclusions are explosive and controversial. His work is sound and scientific. He theorizes that the Ark's current resting place will soon be discovered—AND THE ARK POSSIBLY USED!—within our lives.

CAN ITS POWER BE ACTIVATED EVEN TODAY?

CANCER CURED BY ALIENS

is the area of Arizona where it will take place. I feel that they are coming here to help us help ourselves. The earth is going through a change. There will be more of a traumatic change yet to come. We have done everything to destroy what we have—our very own life support.

There isn't a night, when the sky is clear and the moon is out, that you don't see something, or have the vibration that they are out there. There are certain areas in Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah, which are designated as "safe" areas. We will be able to take refuge in these areas. I'm not saying that it will be the end of the earth, but our planet will be going through a change.

CONVERSATION WITH WILBERT SMITH

Several years after our meetings, I had the opportunity to personally think about what Wilbert Smith had described to me. I was in Finland, the birthplace of my parents, when I witnessed a very bright object we call a "Star Ship" over Helsinki. During the period of my sighting, I saw several smaller craft fly toward this great ship, where they would pick up a charge of brightness and then proceed out in all directions erasing a dark "veil" that hung over the city.

Researchers into such matters theorized that even a country or a city has an "aura," just like we know that every living person — indeed, every living thing — radiates this field of energy. The aura of a city records the events, wars, jealousies, greeds, angers and crimes which have occurred there, becoming trapped in an etheric arc. Such a negative aura could eventually bring destruction to that place as has been recorded throughout history. Only a few ancient cities are still in existence and somehow Helsinki qualified for some "outside" help, I believe, I witnessed a "house-cleaning" or "cleansing" similar to what Wilbert Smith had earlier described.

Like Wilbert, I know from over thirty years of UFO research that truly WE ARE NOT ALONE! The Space Brothers visiting our planet offer us hope, and I believe through our daily thoughts and prayers, and with their help, we may see the time when we learn to live in harmony with the universe.

Wise teachers of the past have postulated that there is a "Host of Heaven," who was known to the prophets of old and who gave mankind inspiration and direction when it needed it the most. As ancient Israel turned their head away from the prophets to listen to the kings, their wisdom began to decline. Indeed, where is there a record that this Host of Heaven ceased to exist or died off? There is, I believe, a definite connection between UFOs and his Host. Is it just coincidence that Kenneth Arnold made his world famous UFO sighting near Mt. Rainier, Washington just months following the leveling of Nagasaki and Hiroshima?

At the time of the bombing of Japan, I was a Captain in U.S. Army Combat Intelligence and I recall the headlines well. I must say that even with my military background, I was terrified. My immediate thought that went through my consciousness was, "Oh, no, not again," as if I remembered at such an event from the distant past.

Experience has taught me that nations might declare war, but people themselves are not enemies. My contact with UFOs has convinced me that with the assistance of those who travel the heavenly highways, we can turn things around. We need to turn the hearts of men back to the pursuits which create and maintain good health, life, hope, purpose and joy. Wilbert Smith understood these things and even though he has passed into a higher dimension, our planet is a better place because of his futuristic way of thinking.

PUERTO RICAN MYSTERIES

Holy Mother gave me," said little Migdalia Cintron, "Twelve children will be chosen to go and preach to all, until mankind changes his way of life.

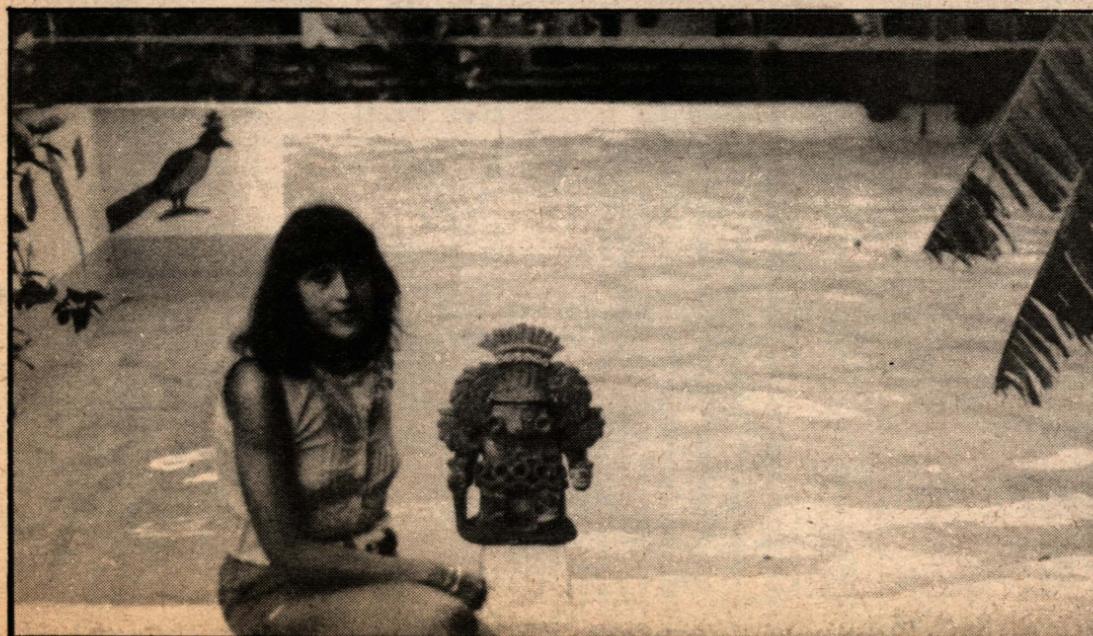

"The world is coming to a final crisis and soon it will be time for the Son Of God to return," said a housewife at Rio Piedra.

These messages have a familiar ring to anyone who has examined material channelled from space intelligences. There was one message from Ashtar which particularly fits in with these other communications:

"Jesus came to your planet for a reason. He did not come just to visit. He came to tell you much. Jesus was one of us. He came as a teacher. He came as our messenger to the earth. He came to tell you about love. He came to tell you about peace. He came to tell you about harmony. But yet, in the end you crucified Him. We cry for mankind. We are sad that you act in such a barbaric manner. You are supposed to be progressing towards the Light of Universal Harmony."

All of the diverse psychic, or UFO, or miraculous events, depending on your perspective, that are taking place in Puerto Rico, as well as in the rest of the world, can only be covered by a very general conclusion. We are not alone! There is somebody (or somebodies?) up there, who is concerned about what is going on down here, and they are trying their best to get noticed by different people in different ways.

EYE IN THE SKY

Long time UFO REVIEW subscriber Lorrie Roberts sent us this fascinating photograph of a mysterious "something" in the sky. "It was taken by a close friend," she tells us, "but the really strange thing about the picture is that nothing unusual was visible when she snapped the shutter. And that includes the head of the person who seems to have also turned up in the photo, but was not there when it was taken!" Perhaps the camera buff managed to take a photo of another dimension.

GOD SAITH: "BEHOLD,

... the selfishness of man hath made the world a place of wretchedness. The people are in misery and want. Go then, quickly to them, and provide a remedy." See Oahspe, verses 12 and 13, page 773.

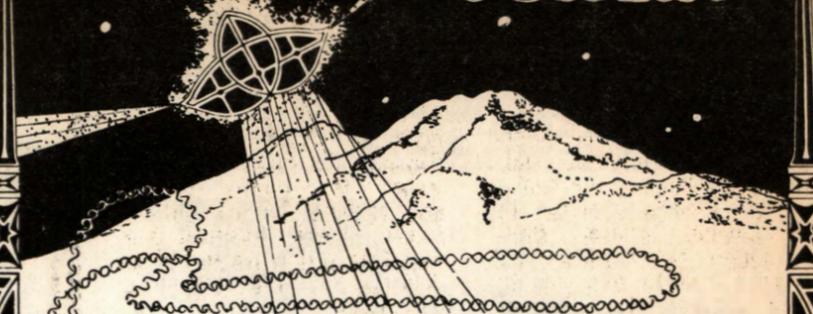

Let us "Go then, quickly to them, and provide a remedy." Let us fill the earth "with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea."

For the Oahspe bible can so do. The Oahspe bible is a thousand times more able and available than the atom bomb. It can redeem the world from its "place of wretchedness" into Eternity. The All Perfect.

Let us then promote the Oahspe bible to speak; and redeem the world from its "place of wretchedness" into knowledge and good dominion; and from poverty into Life Eternal!

To the average tourist, Puerto Rico is a lovely Caribbean paradise, an ideal place for a peaceful vacation in the sun.

But, is it really that peaceful? Certainly not when it comes to paranormal phenomenon. There are constant reports of apparitions of the Holy Mother, miraculous healings, strange disappearances, UFOs, and even close encounters with alien beings. Furthermore, what is going on there may hold important clues to unlocking the many seemingly interconnecting mysteries that confront and intrigue us all.

Just about everyone in Puerto Rico has heard of the apparitions of the Virgin Mary in San Lorenzo, at the place called "Holy Mountain". Large crowds gather there, even during rainstorms, kneeling in the mud, in an attempt to catch a glimpse of the Mother of Christ.

Many of the faithful flock to the site, a sort of local Fatima, in hopes of finding a miracle cure. Felix Claudio, according to Ruben Rodriguez of El Vocero, had a cancerous growth in his throat, which the medical authorities thought was incurable. So he visited the "Holy Mountain". When he returned to the doctor, "the tumor had disappeared". The parents of Carlos Hiram Morales, age three, also went to "Holy Mountain" hoping for a cure for Carlos had not yet ever spoken a single word. He began speaking a few days as after their pilgrimage.

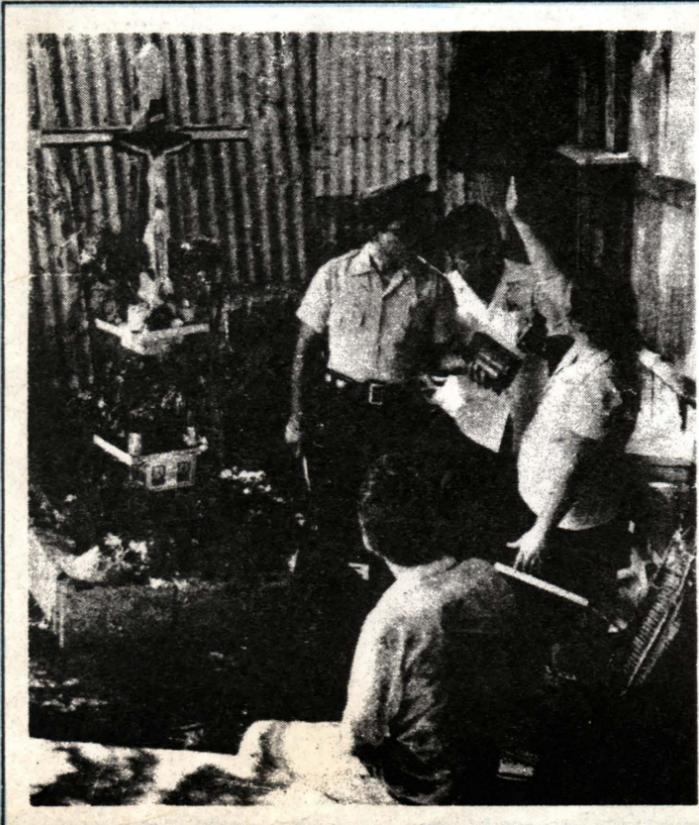

Children seem to be of special concern to Mother Mary. The first witnesses at "Holy Mountain" and at Rio Piedra (another site of apparitions) were children. Ten year old Migdalia Cintron and the other children, who were in communication with the "Virgin," would occasionally ask that the children in the crowd come forward because "The Virgin" wanted to bless them and kiss them. A woman received the communication that the Blessed Mother was worried that there would be war "and what about the children?" A sixteen year old girl went into a trance after "The Virgin" descended in front of her in a ball of fire and received the telepathic communication that "the end of the world is near, that everyone should pray, and that parents shouldn't be so harsh with young children."

The latter incident brings to mind another type of unusual phenomena which has been going on in Puerto Rico parallel to the apparitions. UFO related incidents have been increasing to such an extent that at the end of his article for El Interrogador, on the events at Canal de la Mona, Jorge J. Martin, invites readers to write in about their own experiences.

On January 19, 1976 several luminous objects were seen soaring across the sky along the west coast of Puerto Rico and then submerging and disappearing into Canal de la Mona (in between the west coast of Puerto Rico and the east coast of the Dominican Republic).

On August 18, 1968, Tom Carulli

Witness describes to police and reporters how the apparition of the Virgin Mary came in a ball of light to her backyard. The woman has put up a shrine at the spot where she saw the vision.

Strange Places Puerto Rico: Land Of Miraculous Events

and fifteen other security police, observed a UFO over the Borinquen Beach of the Ramey military enclave. According to the witnesses, "The craft seemed to have risen from the ocean. As it gained altitude, it inclined towards its side, emitting a brilliant almost fluorescent light. The light seemed to emanate from inside the object." The witnesses were able to make out six sections or small vertical windows. Suddenly, a ball of light shot out from the craft. Then, after swaying a bit, the second object shot up into space and disappeared, followed by the first object.

In April of 1977, a number of witnesses, including Luis Munoz Arjona, a local politician, sighted a UFO while on flight to Isla de Mona. The witnesses saw a bright light coming from the depth of the ocean, which turned to an intense white color. Then a large circular metallic object could be seen following the plane along the surface of the water. They could tell that the light had been coming from the object, which continued to follow them until just before they reached the island. At that point, it vanished at great speed into the ocean.

Being one of the points of the Bermuda Triangle, Puerto Rico has also had its share of strange disappearances:

- On February 22, 1975, Hector Rodriguez, a 34 year-old engineer and his friend, Raymond Vazquez Rivera, age 31, left La Parguera on an 18 foot motor boat to go fishing. When they failed to return, a search ensued both on the sea and from the air. The boat was discovered on Thursday the 27th. Everything was in order, except that the passengers were missing. This incident occurred during a wave of UFO sightings on the island.

- On June 28, 1980, a small plane piloted by two Puerto Rican youths disappeared after leaving the Dominican Republic to return home. Before vanishing, they had enough time to communicate the message that "a large luminous object has moved into our path, not permitting escape." The pilots, Jose Pagan de Manati and Luis Maldonado Torres de Morovis, were never heard from again.

The UFO-nauts are certainly not keeping a low profile on the island either. On September 14, 1977, two UFOs caused havoc in the town of Mayaguez. In front of hundreds of witnesses, including police, the objects, which had an "orange glow" around them, began moving in and out of the ocean at one kilometer from the coast at the bay.

There are some striking similarities between the two types of wondrous events that are going on in Puerto Rico. Luminous, bright, white light, and glowing orange fireball are some descriptions that keep re-occurring time and time again.

Mother Mary is often described as a being of light. Nine year old Jose Miguel Cotto, one of the children from the Holy Mountain incident described Her like this: "She looked like a lady in a white dress. I could not see Her face because there was such a bright white light coming from it." Jose Daniel Cruz, the witness who took the photograph which appears on the back cover of issue No. 1 of Inner Light, said, "I have seen The Virgin over ten times, but I could not distinguish any features." He saw Her silhouette dressed in a white cape.

These descriptions made me recall a personal experience from many years back. I was unemployed, thirty pounds overweight, and severely depressed and shaken by the suicide of one of my closest friends. As I was waking up one morning, suddenly found myself in my neighborhood Catholic church, which I had not attended in several years. I was kneeling in front of a statue of the Virgin Mary. I was looking at Her face, when it suddenly turned into a luminous white light, so bright that the features were indistinguishable. I woke up thinking, "what an odd dream for someone who no longer had any faith," but I felt somehow comforted. Over the next few weeks and months, I found work, made new friends, and in general began feeling better about my life. Years later, I found out that during that same period, my mother, who happens to be from Puerto Rico, had also experienced a vision. She had been very worried about me because I was so depressed. One night she had gone to bed after praying very intently. All of a sudden, on the wall opposite her bed she saw an image of Jesus. She said, "He looked the way He does in the small painting that I have, only much larger. He was surrounded by bright lights of different colors. I knew that things would get better."

Often, UFO occupants are described as dressed in white or luminous clothing. On the night of November 30, 1979 a luminous object hovered over the ocean about 300 yards away from Nydia Del Valle, a teacher from Cabo Rojo, and Radames and Tita Torres, also from Cabo Rojo. A little man dressed in a tight fitting white garment and wearing a helmet with visor came out of the craft. The alien came close to shore on a small luminous platform. When the witnesses began screaming, he quickly turned back and returned to his ship, disappearing into the sea.

Perhaps, the contrast between the participants' reaction to encountering a space being and that of witnesses to a religious miracle is a clue as to what is happening in Puerto Rico. For Puerto Rico is predominantly Roman Catholic and the faith is very strong there.

"Everyone will come here and this shall be the second Jerusalem. This was in the third message that the
