MISSOURI INVESTIGATORS GROUP

MIG was founded in 2000 to provide a reporting venue for witnesses of unusual events. Many unusual events occur in Missouri each year, which are not reported and subsequently are not investigated. A goal of MIG is to have representatives in each of the 115 Missouri counties. This would create a reporting network of spotters who will be aware of what is happening in their areas and report current activity to the group. Director Barbara Becker.

If you are interested in participating in this effort, please email ufomig@yahoo.com

I represent MIG, the Missouri Investigators Group based in Columbia, Mo. <http://ufomig.yolasite.com>. We investigate UFO, Animal Mutilation, Bigfoot, Crop Circle and Abduction reports in Missouri and surrounding states. If anyone in Oregon County has experienced anything unusual, please contact me by email at UFOMIG@yahoo.com or go to our website and make a report.

GEORGIA ABDUCTION RESEARCH

Alien Abduction

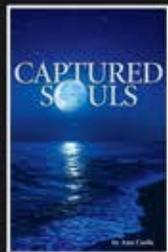

The term of abduction phenomenon describes "memories of being taken against one's will by apparently nonhuman entities, and subjected to complex physical and psychological procedures." People claiming to have been abducted are usually called "abductees" or "experiencers." Typical claims involve being subjected to a forced medical examination that emphasizes their reproductive system. Abductees sometimes claim to have been warned against environmental abuse and the dangers of nuclear weapons. Consequently, while many of these purported encounters are described as terrifying, some have been viewed as pleasurable or transformative.

NEWS FROM THE INSTITUTE OF FRONTIER SCIENCE

The Institute Of Frontier Science gives a great opportunity for those who are writing or making reports in the field of Ufology, as well as seasoned researchers. Its founder and leader is Steven S. Bass, who in addition to being the Founder and Director of the Institute is also well known and respected by everyone involved in the Ufology community.

"The Institute of Frontier Science is an elite fellowship of highly experienced and knowledgeable specialists in the scientific field of Ufology."

The Institute of Frontier Science offers people the chance to embark on the truths that lie within the UFO genre. IFS will also educate the uneducated on a subject that has been kept behind closed doors for much too long. The institute will take time to build, but already has the "Big Guns" in place. IFS is for the truth and nothing but. People are encouraged to join this great undertaking, for what I am sure will be a rewarding and educational venture into the science of Ufology.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGENDS BLOODY MARY

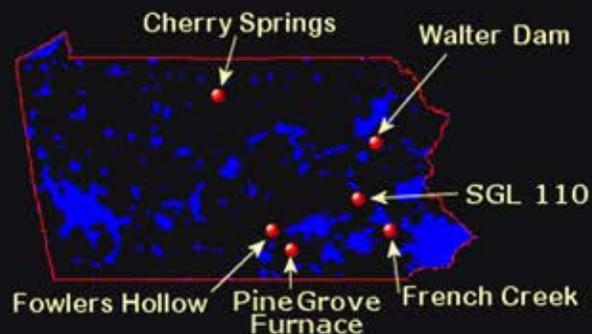

(Harrisburg, Dauphin County) Retold by S.E. Schlosser

This particular version's setting is mid-state, but it's lore that has its' roots everywhere. Bloody Mary was an old crone that lived deep in the woods making her living selling herbal cures to the locals. None dared cross her, as she was supposed to be adept at dealing out curses also. The townspeople thought she was a witch. Then the village's young girls began to disappear, one at a time. The folk searched the woods, the buildings, streams and everywhere they could think of with no luck. They even screwed up the courage to see if Bloody Mary knew what happened to children. She denied any knowledge of the missing girls, but the villagers were suspicious. Bloody Mary looked younger to them. One night, the miller's daughter got up from bed and left the house. Her mother and father tried to stop her, but she tore out of their grasp and headed into the woods. Their struggle awoke the town, and the people all followed the girl. She made a beeline towards a light in the forest. At the end of the light was Bloody Mary, pointing a bright wand towards the girl to draw her to the spot. The townsfolk set on her, and one farmer had a gun loaded with silver bullets. (Farmers were ready for anything back in the day.) He fired one into the witch and they carried her back to town, where they put up a stake and burned her. As she sizzled, she spat out a curse. If anyone mentioned her name while looking in a mirror, she would come back and claim their soul. Wouldn't you know that some people actually tried that? And true to her word, Bloody Mary sprang from the mirror, tore their bodies apart and laid claim to their souls - forever. They are trapped in the mirror for the rest of eternity with her.
