UFOS IN SURREY 1967

This is a video made in the 1990s about UFO sightings in Surrey in 1967; it has recently been put on to the YouTube site. It can be found (along with my other films) from the link-list page at www.jimgoddard.myfreeola.uk/spacevoice/videos/ Please note that this URL address for the link-list is different from the one given in previous issues - it has had to be transferred to a different domain.

The skywatchers at Pewley Down in 1967—the one on the left is me

1967 was a year of a Europe-wide flap and begins with a Panorama programme reporting on a skywatch at Pewley Down, Guildford in June that year, organised by SIGAP and BUFORA. It was recorded in sound only (there was no home video in 1967) and only one of the accompanying pictures was from the programme - four seated skywatchers, one with binoculars—photographed from the TV screen.

After a brief introduction by David Dimbleby, reporter Andrew Mulligan says the Ministry of Defence and the UFO clubs have been bombarded with reports, and astronomers and scientists have seen them, and skywatchers are getting organised with "watch-ins". Edgar Hatvany then says that they are watching from Pewley Down, Guildford and explains the use of the astrocompass for determining height, size and speed of an object. Asked how he came to be interested, he says that as an aircraft engineer at London Airport he takes an interest in things seen in the sky. He had seen three inexplicable objects during skywatches. Andrew Mulligan then says skywatchers had made four hundred reports judged unidentifiable, and mentioned the American Project Bluebook.

Colin McCarthy, an Australian electronics specialist, then radioed for reports from other skywatching sites. A report of a cigar-shaped object was made. He said that for years he did not believe in UFOs, but after working for NASA and seeing a file of reports "you couldn't jump over" had changed his mind. Asked to what extent scientific fact has been clouded by the occult and mysticism, he said this was unfortunately so, and he included contactees in this. His detector, made to register magnetic flux, was then described. After this several others of the watchers were interviewed.

Colin was finally asked where he thought all this will lead. He said it was a matter of conjecture, but said he thought we were being watched by an interstellar civilisation which seems at present to have no desire to contact us. We are very adolescent with our wars and internal strife and they may want just to watch us as a civilisation on the verge of either destroying ourselves or growing up. He thinks they could have conquered the apparent speed of light barrier, but their purpose may be merely to watch us.

The Panorama programme is followed by a report of the watch by Robert Couttie. Just before midnight there was a cry of "Cigar over the moon!" as a linear object was seen, then a fast-moving flickering light, and an orange light seen by the watchers and also by myself from the Hog's Back at the same time and same direction. This report is followed by reports from local papers, including one by Woking News and Mail chief reporter Tony Miller.

The video is culminated by the sighting on the Tuesday following the watch by Squadron-Leader Shipwright and his wife of a near-grounded white object from Newlands Corner hill near Guildford. Looking down from the hill into a field near Albury, they saw what at first they thought was a white horse galloping. They soon saw it was not a horse, but a spherical or nearly egg-shaped object moving rapidly backwards and forwards. After a while it stopped and began to move slowly at right angles to its original course until it reached a hedge, at which point it slowly rose over the hedge and continued the other side. It was still in view when they left the hill.

A few days after the sighting Denis Shipwright, my father and I went to the field and found a scatter of stones

where the object had been moving fast. One was larger than the rest and seemed to have some kind of design on it that was similar to one of the pictures sent back from Mars by

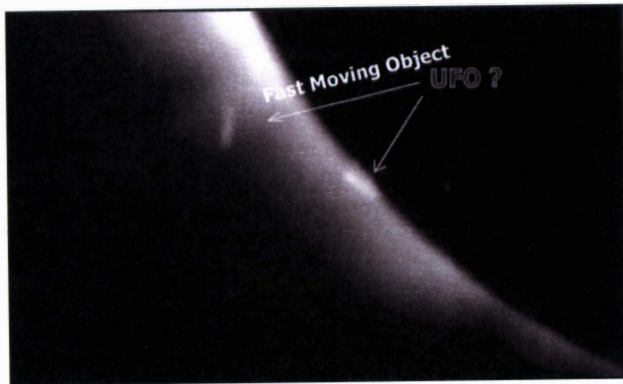

The Mariner 4 picture and the alignments

the space probe Mariner 4 two years earlier.

This was from an area known as Atlantis, and I had noticed a number of “bright spots” on the picture. Aligning them with other features on the picture seemed to reveal an isosceles triangle with a perpendicular, something often found in leys on Earth.

Eclipse UFOS

As with thousands of others in the UK, I saw the recent solar eclipse on March 20th, which reached 86% coverage where we are in Somerset. The eclipse was total in the Faroe Islands, to the north of Scotland. The following day this picture of an apparent cigar-shaped UFO possibly leaving the Moon appeared on the internet, though with no details of who took it or where. It looks as if it was taken with a fairly powerful telescope. Report below:

UFO takes OFF on the Moon? (Solar Eclipse) (Video)

Saturday, March 21, 2015 0:19

A fast-moving cigar-shaped object is spotted during the solar eclipse from yesterday. It is always the question whether the object is just a natural phenomenon, like a streak of light or a meteorite burning up in the atmosphere or indeed it is a UFO leaving the Moon or coming from behind the Moon.

The objects look similar to the ones the Cassini spacecraft took crossing Saturn’s rings, published in a previous Amskaya. This was a video clip on a Sky at Night Magazine CD-ROM, illustrating a moonlet within the rings making a wave in them as it proceeded. But in another part of the clip this object appeared, only visible on two frames. Presumably the pictures were taken at a relatively slow speed (not as video) so when played as video would appear much faster than the original speed of the happenings.

Also in a previous issue, it was shown that eclipses through the ages have often had their UFOs, some seen by such well-known observers as William Herschel. An erratically moving object was captured in the five pictures I took of the totally eclipsed sun in Turkey in 2006. Here are some other more recent ones:

UFO Appears During Live Broadcast of Partial Solar Eclipse, October 23, 2014

The Black Vault site reports: On October 23, 2014, there was a partial solar eclipse. At this time, a young astronomer posted a video on the YouTube Channel Astronomy Live with more than an hour of footage on the eclipse. At about 24 minutes into his recording, multiple mysterious objects appears to be flying above the sun — which shocked even him. Well versed in astronomy, he could not quite pin point what these objects were.

This is the transcript of his description as it was happening: “The Moon should start appearing on this edge of the Sun in just a few minutes from now. In the meantime, let's keep watching that sunspot region - you never know, you might see a white light flare. Who-ho, what is that? Something - you see that? Okay, honest to God I don't know what that is. It looks like balloons or something. What the heck - try zooming in. That is weird! Okay - honestly I don't know what that is... It could be balloons - I'm looking out over Borough Bay, the other side of that area island. There's people on that island, and it's possible they might have let off some balloons... It's a UFO - I can't identify it positively! Crazy - ah - I've not seen that before. New one by me - I've seen weather balloons before, but it's not quite what that looked like. Regular balloons perhaps, but why there were two layers of them I don't know. Something floating around over there. Maybe something in front of the Sun - who knows? Anyway, there should be a lot of people observing the Sun, so if you see another bunch of Youtubers posting videos of something going in front of the Sun just before this solar eclipse gets under way...well, you could say you saw it here too. Of course, the timing of the eclipse depends on your location on Earth - this is here in Florida, so if you're somewhere else in the States the timing's going to be different. We're just about reaching the point where the eclipse should start happening.”

Blood Moon UFO Caught On Camera During Eclipse

By: Pandora Spocks @NeonNettle on 17th April 2014 @ 6.32pm

The term Blood Moon has been adopted to describe a lunar tetrad which will be happening throughout this year.

A UFO has been captured on video during the Blood Moon eclipse. According to The Independent, the space phenomenon is “Called a ‘Blood Moon’ for its red hue caused by sunlight scattering off of the Earth’s atmosphere” and the lunar eclipse was the last of this year. This followed a previous one also. The UFO footage was captured by an amateur astronomer, you can clearly see the UFO fly up and then around the back of the moon. This is an eerie sight to say the least. Do you think this is irrefutable evidence that we are not alone? Or just an easily, of a yet unexplained object in space? The term Blood Moon has been adopted to describe a lunar tetrad which will be happening throughout this year. That means four successive total lunar eclipses, with no partial lunar eclipses in between, each of which is separated from the other by six lunar months. The origin of the term Blood Moon is religious and connected to biblical prophesy.

Another Blood Moon UFO on video

Thursday, April 17, 2014 5:34

Our friend Crrow777 has done it again, by catching a UFO during the Blood Moon eclipse! This footage is just absolutely amazing! Crrow777 & DSW74 may have made history by witnessing and confirming 2 UFO'S and 1 satellite transiting the eclipsing moon. This was done in real time – from California and Arizona.

From Crrow777: The first upgrade will be a Canon camera body converted to shoot in IR (infrared) for stand alone and telescope use.

This will be followed by a Canon camera body converted to shoot in UV (ultraviolet) and also usable coupled to the telescope.

April 19, 2014 by Joe Martino.

On April 15th 2014, during the night of the Lunar Eclipse, footage of a UFO (no current explanation) was taken by Miriam Delicado in Tucson, Arizona. As you can see in the video below, what starts out as what might seem like lights from a plane, completely changes over time and becomes a fascinating mixture of colors in various spots and directions. Miriam has reached out to find out if anyone else saw this that night, or if they have an explanation as to what it might have been. According to Miriam, based on her experience in observing objects in the night sky, this did not look like or carry the characteristics of lanterns in the sky like she has seen in the past. An explanation is still not yet available.

Check out the video below. Personally this reminds me a bit of the footage seen over Florida in 2013. The CE team has also had various UFO sightings, individually and together. There has also been officially documented footage from various sources.

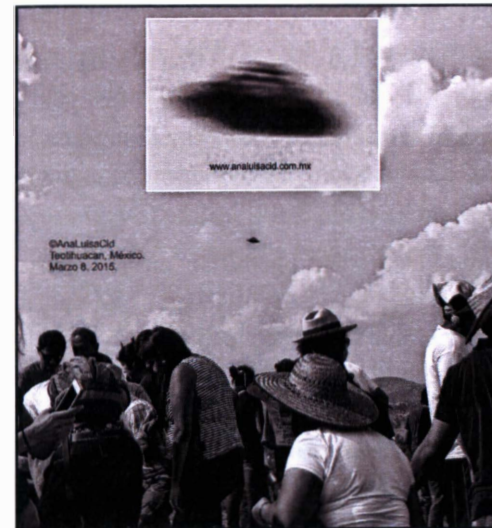

UFOs are a very real phenomenon that have investigated by governments for years. For example, the Canadian government recently acknowledged the fact that various federal agencies, including Transport Canada, the RCMP and the Department of National Defence used to track and investigate UFO sightings. You can view the UK governments latest batch of UFO files here. You can view an example of how intelligence agencies track UFOs on radar, and you can read more about what military agencies do when they track a UFO on radar on this site. Military agencies aren't the only ones seeing UFOs, sightings are becoming more common by the day.

UFO over Sun Pyramid In Mexico could be an Adamski type

Professor Ana Luisa Cid states:

On March 8, 2015 I went to the archaeological site of Teotihuacan, State of Mexico. I took many photos, especially when I got to the top of the Pyramid of the Sun, where people are "energy charged" touching a stone, which is considered the powerhouse of the basement.

Some researchers say that non-human entities "feed" off mental energy and we produce humans in altered states of consciousness, for example, meditations, excitement, extreme emotion, fasting, etc. Such energy is called "Psi".

It is a possible explanation for the appearance of UFOs in mass concentrations.

Moreover, the photos of random UFOs may be because the object passed so fast that was imperceptible to the eye, or perhaps because vibrate in another range of light that our eye does not capture, as the infrared spectrum, for example.

The Madeline Rodeffer picture and theorised contact with President Kennedy

Lionel Beer recently sent me an article on Adamski and his claims, which included an apparently damning piece of evidence about the film shot by Adamski at Madeline Rodeffer's house, of an Adamski scoutship. It was said that although the trees behind the object were moving at the beginning of the sequence, they became still when it came into view as it would be more difficult to superimpose over moving film.

This evaluation has been refuted by others, as in Michael Salla's article on http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/ciencia/ciencia_flyingobjects71.htm

"One of the most powerful pieces of evidence confirming Adamski's claims of regular meetings with extraterrestrials occurred at the Silver Spring, Maryland home of Madeline Rodeffer on February 26, 1965. Rodeffer worked as a secretary for the US

Air Force and was physically present when Adamski sighted a bell shaped flying saucer at her home. She saw it for approximately 10 minutes and at times could see human looking figures through the portholes.

"Adamski filmed the saucer using her camera when she was unable to film it herself due to difficulties from a recovering broken leg. Prior to the sighting, she saw three young men arriving in an Oldsmobile who told Adamski to get ready to film the flying saucer. Adamski told Rodeffer that they were part of a human looking contingent of extraterrestrials living among humanity.

"The film was subsequently analyzed by three independent photo/film image experts. One was William Sherwood, who at the time worked at Eastman Kodak as an optical physicist. He traveled to Rodeffer's home and was able to determine that the flying saucer in the film was not a model but approximately 27 feet in size. Sherwood subsequently concluded that the film was genuine. Another visual imagery expert was Colonel Colman Von Kevieszky who worked at the time with the United Nations audiovisual department. He also traveled to Rodeffer's home to investigate the video and confirmed that it was genuine. Finally, Bob Oechsler, who worked as a physicist and NASA mission specialist, also independently concluded that the film was genuine and depicted a flying saucer."

This article also contains evidence that President Kennedy may have met extraterrestrials:

Did President Kennedy Meet Extraterrestrials?

According to claims in a rare video, George Adamski met with President Kennedy at the White House in late 1961 and passed on a letter to him from human looking extraterrestrials. In addition to giving advice on the Cuban missile crisis, the alleged letter also contained an invitation for Kennedy to meet with the extraterrestrials.

If Kennedy did attend such a meeting, it may explain why he was certain about human looking extraterrestrial life, made undisclosed trips to Air Force bases to deal with the UFO issue, and why he instructed NASA to cooperate with the USSR on joint space and lunar missions, and to release classified UFO files.

Lou Zinstaag, Carl Jung's niece, describes what she was told by Adamski concerning Kennedy's alleged meeting with extraterrestrials:

"I still remember his [Adamski's] White House story. He told me that he had been entrusted with a written invitation for President Kennedy to visit one of the space people's huge mother ships at a secret airbase in Desert Hot Springs, California, for few days. In order to keep this visit absolutely secret, Adamski was to take the invitation directly to the White House through a side door. Still glowing with excitement and smiling happily, he explained how the row of cars in which his taxi was traveling had to stop because of a red light just in front of this particular door where a man he knew - a spaceman, he said - was standing ready to let him in.

"Adamski later learned that Kennedy had spent several hours at the airbase after having cancelled an important trip to New York, and that he had a long talk with the ships crew, but that he had not been invited for a flight." The quality of witness testimonies, photos and film evidence presented in the rare video (see part one above, of this investigative series), all lead to the conclusion that George Adamski was largely telling the truth about his flying saucer sightings and contacts with human looking extraterrestrials.

THE HIDDEN UNITY and BEGINNINGS

The Hidden Unity looks at the strange phenomenon of subconscious siting of ley points, and notes that places of worship, of all religions and all ages, tend to predominate on leys. The environmental and philosophical implications of this are discussed, and the apparent necessity of worship but irrelevance of doctrine. Two ley centres are given as examples, and investigated in depth - the Shah Jehan Mosque in Woking and the Guru Nanak Sikh Temple, Scunthorpe. There is an appendix by Eileen Grimshaw on the significance of the Pagan religion to this study. Illustrated with photographs, maps and line drawings. £2 plus 30p p&p from the Amskaya address. Please make cheques payable to J. Goddard.

Beginnings is about a series of potentially useful discoveries, mainly made by Jimmy Goddard over a period of about twenty years, but having some overlap with discoveries made by others. For various reasons, the investigations are all in their early stages, and some have not been continued. They include earth energy detection, natural antigravity, subconscious siting, ley width, and the solar transition effect. There is also a chapter on cognitive dissonance - a psychological factor which seems to have been at the root of all bigotry - scientific, religious and other - down the ages. The booklet is concluded with an account of the discovery of leys by Alfred Watkins. £2 plus 30p p&p from the Amskaya address. Please make cheques payable to J. Goddard.

EARTH PEOPLE, SPACE PEOPLE

In 1961, Tony Wedd produced a manuscript Earth Men, Space Men, detailing many claims of extraterrestrial contact. It was never published, and I had thought it was lost, though it has recently been located - Tony had given it to Timothy Good. To try to make up for the loss in a much more modest size, this booklet was prepared. As well as giving details of some of the more prominent contact claims, there are articles on the history of the STAR Fellowship and some of its personalities, evidence for life in the Solar System and investigation into extraterrestrial language.

£2 plus 30p p&p from the Amskaya address. Please make cheques payable to J. Goddard.

THE LEGACY OF TONY WEDD

This CD-ROM is an electronic form of the travelling exhibition Tony planned, using his voice, writing, photographs and drawings to illustrate his research and findings in the fields of flying saucers, landscape energies and lost technology.
