(Helping people become aware)

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the New Age of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully-trained channels. The information contained herein was received from deep super-conscious trance levels and 'interpreted' by an entity affiliated with C.A.C. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel, what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only indicate and suggest. Neither C.A.C., the Aquarian Church of Universal Service, or the Interpreter, Paul Shockley is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness may state in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or Paul Shockley necessarily believe or agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. Paul interprets the energies as he sees them in trance levels and is not personally responsible for what is said. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication.

Rechanneling the Riverbed....

AN OVERVIEW OF THE AWARENESS MOVEMENT

(Opening Message, April 21, 1983)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it has been almost twenty years since this Awareness began speaking through Dr. Ralph Duby. This Awareness indicates that during this period of time, this Awareness has given much information to those who have followed the Awareness Movement. This Awareness indicates that in following the messages as given by this Awareness, entities have in many cases moved far in terms of changing their perspective and viewpoints of life, of society, of tradition and of values.

This Awareness indicates that it is important, in any type of adventure or movement into uncharted lands, it is important that entities occasionally stop and take stock of their location, relative to that of the civilization from which they departed. This Awareness indicates that there is seen that which is likened unto a great river; this being likened unto the flow of humanity, the river of consciousness.

This Awareness indicates there is that which is the mainstream of consciousness, that which is the traditional channel through which human consciousness has flowed for many centuries. This Awareness indicates that the traditions, in terms of cultures and religions have worn this channel deep, and these energies, moving through this channel are of great magnitude. This Awareness indicates the Awareness Movement is seen in comparison as likened unto a small tributary that has branched off in one small area, which is hardly noticeable to the mainstream of consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that in looking at this mainstream of consciousness, and realizing from whence entities have come, it is important to remember and to respect those energies which follow the traditions, for these energies are powerful, and if not fully understood, entities, in moving away from the traditions, can be caught and can experience great difficulties when seen by those traditional energies as being heretic in nature.

This Awareness indicates essentially, the Awareness Movement, when viewed by those traditional energies, would be considered heretic. This Awareness indicates that in reality, the Awareness energies, the energies of the Awareness Movement, are those which are rechanneling the true and the ancient riverbed, from which the traditional movement has departed. This Awareness indicates that the energies being opened by this Awareness Movement as that which is also being perceived by some of the most enlightened scientists; that within another hundred years, this energy movement will be again opened and understood as the pattern by which the Universal Forces may be understood.

This Awareness indicates that before looking closely at the Awareness Movement and its intended purposes, this Awareness wishes entities to look again at the traditions. This Awareness indicates that often entities believe that because they are so totally familiar with their own path that they are on the mainstream, and that others are off course, this Awareness wishes you to look at the traditions and to become very aware of the potent power in those traditions. This Awareness reminds you that in your many travels and in looking at these new areas, that there are those who have not changed, and have not moved from those positions which were held by tradition, twenty, forty, or one hundred or more years ago.

This Awareness indicates the fundamental Christian traditions have not only failed to move and adjust to scientific discoveries, in many cases they have in many ways hardened and polarized themselves into traditions which were held some 300 years ago, these being similar to those which brought about the witch hunts. This Awareness indicates that in terms of those traditions of the Middle East, there are also cultures, behavioral patterns, demands upon the people by their traditions, which are unchanged from thousands of years back.

This Awareness indicates that freedom in many of these countries is denied not only by the government, but also by tradition. That in many of these countries, the tradition is even more repressive than their own totalitarian governments. This Awareness indicates that in many of these Middle Eastern countries, the place of woman is that which is so degraded and so subservient to man that she is little more than a possession to him. That the traditional ownership by man of woman as that which is unbroken and unchanged over several thousand years.

This Awareness indicates that in many cases, the men in these countries are also bound by the tradition, and even though they might wish to treat their women differently, they are under pressure from their peers, from their culture, to keep their women as little more than possessions and as servants. This Awareness indicates that this is passed on from family to family, from generation to generation with little change. That this has been incorporated into religious dogma, and therefore these entities not only are bound by the repressive government, by economic repression, but also by traditions which are repressive in nature, by social codes which are repressive in nature.

This Awareness indicates that Japan, being under the influence of the Western or Americanized values, is undergoing great changes in terms of its traditions. This Awareness indicates that there are also certain changes which are occurring in China, and in the Orient in general. That the Middle East as that which in some areas is undergoing change, this being quite gradual in most areas. This Awareness indicates that in India, the changes are very subtle and slow in coming. That in Africa the changes are occurring quickly. The changes in South America have been slow in coming, but are now in transition.

This Awareness indicates that there is a byproduct of colonialism and the importation of Western values and economics on these traditional cultures which can be seen to have a favorable outcome. This Awareness indicates that although much tragedy and suffering comes about from the exploitation from the colonialism of these Western countries and their values upon the oppressed people, there also is the breaking up of certain traditions of the past, and the input of new values and energies into the system.

This Awareness indicates that many times these new values and energies are a detriment to the people, but in other ways, these new values and energies serve to commingle with old traditions and to modify and to bring about subtle changes, changes of a gradual nature to the traditions, but changes which in a relative sense are very rapid, in comparison to the evolution process in such countries.

This Awareness indicates that it has been said that the great teachers, the great messiahs, lived in places where there was a cross-current of cultural input. These entities either traveled greatly into other lands, meeting with other cultures, or lived where other cultures traveled through their area, and whereby they could meet with those of other cultures and have the input of the fresh ideas.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, wherein countries, nations of opposing or different ideas and cultures are brought together, whether through war or peace or through trade, there is the byproduct of that meeting which eventually leads to a synthesis and a deeper understanding by the commingling of ideas and customs, whereby these energies commingled bring about greater understanding or new inventions or new techniques and systems.

This Awareness indicates that in this manner, traditions become broken, traditions are modified. This Awareness indicates that It is not opposed to traditions, but It does recognize that traditions are static in nature; they crystallize energies, whereby a culture does not change from generation to generation, whereby that culture in a state of frozen crystallization may continue in holding and maintaining power so that these energies and the entities involved in that culture do not progress, do not grow, do not change.

This Awareness indicates that such a static lifestyle is much like a stagnating culture; that change, while painful, does bring about opportunities for growth and development. This Awareness indicates it can also bring about destruction and decadence. That it does, however, bring the opportunity for growth and development, and it is during such transition that it is most important for entities to look for those opportunities which lead to greater growth, greater development, greater benefits for all; but when entities fail to look for opportunities, they surely will fall into the trap of decadence during such transitional change periods.

The Relation of Affluence to Change

This Awareness indicates that the question may be asked: "Why do entities cling so desperately to tradition, when they could in fact alter their lifestyles so that all could benefit more?"

This Awareness indicates that the question may also be asked: "Why is it that in this United States and in the Western cultures wherein there is greater affluence; why is it that the traditional values are being torn down and broken?"

This Awareness indicates that these two questions are closely related to the same answer. This Awareness indicates that when entities do not have much affluence in their lives, when the physical gratifications are meager, when there is little to work for, few opportunities, there is, in such cases, a shortage of values,—goals cannot be set which can be met. Thus, entities having few goals and few opportunities, put their values in their traditions, in their families, in their personal pride, in the names of their friends and relatives, and in the family names.

Those things which are intangible, but which can be held sacred and valuable: their religious beliefs, their dogmas, their homes; whatever they can hold onto in terms of tradition, or of value as personal worth,—these become their most sacred treasures. Thus, they possess their wives, they possess their children, they possess whatever is possible to hold onto in order to have a sense of purpose and meaning.

This Awareness indicates that rather than pouring their energies into the pursuit of some future happiness, they hold to the old traditions, and thus these old traditions remain intact, and entities can become very fanatical in terms of protecting these traditions. This Awareness indicates on the other hand, in the more affluent nations, entities looking at the old traditions, seeing certain values which have held them back, which prevent them from pursuing opportunities such as maintaining the family's place of residence because it has been in the family for many years, or remaining with the parents because they are part of the family and need attention and help, or remaining with the wife and children, or remaining with the corporation for whom the entity has worked for many years; these traditional loyalties can often be thrown aside, because an opportunity knocks which promises much more. Thus, the entity may throw away those things which others would value in hopes of grabbing something that will be of greater value. This Awareness indicates therefore, in Western affluent nations, traditions are often cast aside in order that a new thing may be tried; a new opportunity, a new experience. This Awareness indicates this is in the opposite extreme of the countries and cultures wherein there is a lack of affluence.

This Awareness indicates therefore, entities in these affluent nations find their traditions breaking down, find their values being destroyed, deteriorating, while new values are placed before them. These entities often will cast aside those traditions and those values which have been held sacred for hundreds of years by their forefathers,—these entities being in the Realm of Temptation, seeking opportunities for something new, something greater.

This Awareness indicates that this breaking away from tradition is that which leads to new ideas, new expressions, new cultural and moral lifestyles. This also leads to new belief systems, new religions, new philosophies; thus, not only does the economic affluence have its place in breaking tradition, it also creates more opportunities in the social and mental realms, whereby a greater affluence is presented in these areas also.

In those countries where traditions are held sacred, entities are not allowed to think along the lines of new philosophical or religious concepts, and if thinking along such lines, are not allowed to express these. Likewise, entities are not allowed to express themselves in social ways which are nontraditional. This Awareness indicates that therefore, the great changes which are occurring in the affluent nations are in many respects the direct result of the affluence, of the economic wealth of those nations; that the freedoms which allow that economic wealth is perhaps the real cause of such change.

Depressed Economy Occurs When Freedom is Curbed

This Awareness indicates that while change is occurring and is imminent in the movement of such freedoms, it is often threatened and seen as a threat to those who claim and hold onto traditions. This Awareness indicates that when entities hold too closely to traditions they also tend to curb freedoms, and the curbing of freedoms will have its effect on the economy of the nation or culture. That as freedoms are curbed, the economy is diminished, and entities find a depressed economy. This Awareness indicates that as the freedoms are allowed, the economy also is made more free, and the affluence begins again.

This Awareness indicates that for some time, entities have experienced much affluence, then in recent years, this has been diminished and a conservative nature in the society has emerged. This Awareness indicates that this shall continue for some time, this particularly in the Western nations. This Awareness indicates that there will again be the release and growth of affluence in terms of ideas, in terms of economics, in terms of philosophy, whereby greater freedom will be allowed, but this is not seen as being in the near future; that this is seen as coming near the end of this decade.

This Awareness indicates that meanwhile, those entities in the Awareness Movement should recognize that they have departed greatly from the mainstream of consciousness and tradition. That there are, of course, many others who have also departed greatly from this mainstream, and this departing from the mainstream has widened the channel through which entities may move, may develop and may express themselves. The expressions may be varied so that all types, all kinds of actions may be seen and experienced in that movement.

This Awareness indicates that those countries wherein there is greater traditional holding and rigidity, are likened unto a channel which is narrow and gives little room for its members to spread or to deviate from the mainstream. This Awareness indicates that wherein these cultures are narrow in their expression, they are also intolerant of others who are unlike them, and this intolerance as that which can lead to great conflict, particularly when cultures intermingle or come in contact with each other, and the values are at cross-purposes. Thus wars and conflicts appear to be inevitable, wherein communication between these cultures occur in an ever-shrinking world, for as the expressions and communications of one culture spill over into another, particularly wherein these cultures are narrow and rigid in their belief systems, or wherein one of these cultures is narrow and rigid; wherein the cultures are intolerant of others who are unlike themselves, and yet their energies are intermingling, it is likened unto two persons: one who is extremely rigid and fearful of change or influence from others, one who is intolerant of others, in what is seen as their weaknesses; and the other, who is an influence and who may be equally opposed and intolerant to the first, or who may be quite open and accepting of the first.

In either case, conflict is sure to follow, yet, wherein one is more open, this allows less conflict and greater opportunity for some form of reconciliation to occur. Wherein both cultures are rigid and intolerant of each other, then it is almost inevitable that conflict will follow. The degree of conflict will depend on how intense the communication is, how brief the time for action and communication between these cultures. Whether this time is of such short duration and the intention so great by each party to persuade the other to yield, or whether the parties, though intensely opposed to each other, are patient and willing to wait for many years for the other to yield, this will determine the degree of conflict in its expression.

An Important Message to the Ministers: Be Aware of the Values of Others

This Awareness indicates that entities in the Awareness Movement should never be unaware of their abnormality in relation to the traditional values, for if you are unaware of being abnormal in comparison to traditional values of a society, you may very easily incur the wrath of that traditional entity, or those of the society, simply because you exist, and because you reflect to them a threat to their traditional values.

This Awareness indicates that it is important to be aware of the thinking of others, of their values, and not to flaunt your values carelessly, or in an unaware fashion. Whereby you flaunt your ideas regardless of how sure you are, and how aware you may be of the truth of your values; wherein you flaunt these upon those who have a stake, a security, a need, a closed mind, and a clinging to their own value system; it is likened unto a psychic slap in the face to those entities. Your very presence to them can be seen as a threat to their way of life.

It is important that you understand this so that you will not only treat those entities with proper respect, so as not to appear to be a threat, but also so that you do not become threatened by them, for many entities holding their traditional values sacred, can see you as a deep enemy to those values, one who must be stopped from expressing a value system that is so greatly different from their own.

This Awareness indicates that It does not wish to stifle the expression of those who are of the Awareness Movement, but It does wish you to become aware of those expressions so that they are not thrown out there for others to experience simply as a jest, or as a kind of flippant attitude. This Awareness indicates that It wishes Its ministers and Its followers to express themselves with a kind of self-awareness, wherein they are also observant and aware of the environment, of the feelings of others, and wherein they take into account the values of others nearby.

■ Tax season is a good time to think about civil liberties, and their lack. In Oregon a man named Freeman has a lot to think about. He is under a 14-count indictment for inciting tax evasion. Not evading them himself, or helping to prepare false returns, but just speaking out against taxes and calling the taxation of salaries and wages "illegal." A federal district court has ruled that his advocacy, which took the form of public speeches before audiences, was not protected by the First Amendment. The court cited a decision in an earlier case in which the defendants "explained how to avoid withholding." They too were found not to be entitled to First Amendment protection. That ruling would have caused the Founders to toss a lot of tea into a lot of harbors.

This Awareness indicates that this not only in terms of communications of a personal and private nature, but also in public places. That many entities involved in the Awareness Movement express themselves openly and freely in areas whereby there are others who are very closed to such expression, who feel threatened, and who can feel hostile toward such expressions. This Awareness indicates that it may be that you desire to wake up and shock such entities. If this is your desire, then this Awareness suggests that you do so, if you are willing to face the consequences and any karma which may occur from such expression.

This Awareness indicates that if it is your desire to work in silence, to do your part with those who are open and ready to be served through you, then this Awareness suggests that you maintain a kind of quietness in terms of your values when in public, around strangers who might be opposed to your expression.

This Awareness indicates that what It is attempting to give in this message is the suggestion that you be aware of your expressions when in public, or in private, and know full well what effect you are having on those around you, when you engage in such expressions. This Awareness indicates that too many entities in public places speak as though they were at home in their own kitchen, speaking with their friends, and are not cognizant of the effects they may be having on others nearby. This Awareness indicates that in some instances a spoken word from a neighboring party, a total stranger, spoken aloud, may have such an effect upon an entity as to cause that entity a sense of deep insecurity, or in some cases, may even push the entity over the brink, into an expression of tragedy.

This Awareness indicates there are many entities in the world who are bordering on insanity, or on mental breakdown. Certain types of statements which threaten the final fabric of their traditional values, which they may cling to as their only hope, can, in some cases be shattered when overhearing a conversation, and the entity may express a kind of beserk insanity or emotional discharge that leads to a situation which is uncomfortable for one or more of the parties present.

This Awareness indicates many fights may be started by such expressions. This Awareness indicates that these are not commonplace, but are occasioned. This Awareness indicates that It wishes entities to be aware of their communications in public, for that is part of your own progress and soul growth, part of being aware: self-awareness and social awareness, awareness of others' values.

This Awareness indicates it has been said, that entities who speak too loudly in public places, who speak about personal things, about their personal lives, or give their personal expressions without regard to the others in the public place are treating those others as nonentities, see them as not having any importance, see them as being without any purpose or value, other than decorations in the public place. That such entities are basically unaware and disrespectful to the rights of others to enjoy themselves in such a public place.

This Awareness indicates that this as that which must be recognized as in error, and this Awareness wishes that entities, in recognizing this, also become aware of the traditional values which other may hold, and recognize their own values in relation to those traditional values so as to minimize the conflict. This Awareness indicates that It does not ask you to keep your values secret, nor does It ask you not to talk in public about those values. It asks you only that if you are to talk in public about those values, that you are aware of what you are doing, and that you recognize the values of others nearby who may listen to what you say, and if indulging in such expression, that you do so with a deliberateness, rather than from an unconscious, unaware level of expression.

This Awareness indicates that this also may apply in terms of your personal communications with others to a lesser degree. That all communications given, whether public or private, should be given from a level of self-awareness, rather than from unconscious expression or reaction. That such conscious expression implies an awareness of the feelings of the other party or other persons overhearing the expression. This Awareness indicates that wherein you do not consider the feelings of others who overhear your expressions; this is indicative of a lack of self, social and public awareness.

This Awareness indicates that wherein entities wish to express themselves publically and are aware that the expression is nontraditional; this Awareness suggests that you may also wish to consider writing or speaking, and in such expressions, that you may help your listeners to understand what message you are intending to give, so that they can select or reject your book, your writing, or your speech, according to their own inclination.

This Awareness indicates that if you prefer to not telegraph the nature of your message, and rather to surprise the entities with a stirring and controversial speech or writing, this can also be done with an awareness level wherein you recognize that the effects of your expression may create controversy and disturbance, and wherein you are willing to accept such controversy and disturbance.

This Awareness indicates that again, it is a matter of being aware and conscious, and acting deliberately, rather than unconsciously.

THOSE WHO ASK THE RIGHT QUESTIONS ARE THE GREATEST OF TEACHERS

QUESTION:

Isn't the best way to relate in public or when giving lectures on New Age type of information, to allow the listeners a question and answer session, or in the case you're listening to somebody spouting off maybe on some traditional basis, the thing to do is to ask the entity questions?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as being appropriate in that it opens up areas whereby questions may be answered. This Awareness indicates that an entity who is very adept at asking questions can lead another into taking a position exactly opposite of that which the entity started out, simply by asking the right questions. This Awareness indicates you can lead an entity into looking at his or her premise from an entirely different viewpoint by asking the right questions.

This Awareness indicates that this has the effect of leading the entity into accepting your viewpoint, even though you have never given your viewpoint. That the entity, in answering your questions, believes that he or she has discovered something that he or she did not know before, and thus, being self-discovered, the entity will accept this much more readily than if you had supplied the statement in opposition to the entity's presentation.

This Awareness indicates that entities who are skilled at asking the right questions are the greatest teachers. This Awareness indicates therefore, to ask questions properly, while appearing to be ignorant, may in reality, be of the greatest service to others in teaching them to discover that which you already understand.

HOW TO ASK THE RIGHT QUESTIONS

QUESTION:

How does one learn the art of such questioning?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that generally, if an entity has a particular position which he is expressing, and if you see that position and understand that position clearly, and have, at some time or another held that position yourself, and you, through experience and study have moved from that position to a totally different position, you already know how to move from that position to your own position, and to your new knowledge. This Awareness indicates that rather than opposing this entity in his stated position, and throwing your knowledge out to this entity, you simply ask questions which the entity must answer, the questions being those which you already know the answers to, which you yourself have asked yourself, and which have led you to your new position, so that the entity, in answering your questions, begins to travel the path which you yourself have traveled, and thus arrives at the conclusion which you yourself arrived at before, but which you have not stated to this entity.

IS THE AWARENESS MOVEMENT GOING TO SURVIVE ?

QUESTION:

In relation to the Awareness Movement, it does seem like there's too few entities involved in it. That even from the base here of C.A.C. which only puts out the concepts, there doesn't seem to be but a handful of the old Organization of Awareness entities still participating, and we do know that threats are given through various areas. We get threats for example, and implied threats through religious tracts and stuff like that, from people who have their own interpretation of particular Bible passages; and then there's always the threat of the Beast forces, and the government clamping down on all these people.

My question is, I guess, can Awareness look ahead and see whether the Awareness Movement is going to survive, or not?

Truth Cannot be Stopped

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that to stop the Spirit by using that which is traditional means, is likened unto attempting to stop heat with material objects such as wood or metal, whereby that heat is ever increasing. This Awareness indicates it can be slowed down, but it will go around those shields which attempt to stop the heat. It can be pushed back, but it will seep around, under and above those shields. The heat, ever-increasing, will eventually melt through those crystalline walls.

This Awareness indicates likewise, the truth cannot be hidden permanently, although it can be held down temporarily. That wherein one bearer of truth is stopped, the truth will flow out from another bearer. There are always those who will bear the truth in spite of all efforts to quash and stop that truth from being expressed. This Awareness indicates that so long as truth is anywhere present, and is being expressed, which it always will be, the Awareness Movement will continue. How Cosmic Awareness Expresses Itself

This Awareness indicates that It expresses Itself not only through metaphysical groups, churches such as this; It expresses Itself through individual writers, through individual speakers, through individual thinkers. It expresses Itself through professionals, through healers, through those who are of a scientific mind, It expresses Itself through mathematicians, and through artists, and entertainers. This Awareness indicates that the movement toward Awareness as that which is inevitable due to the cycle through which energies are now moving. During the Aquarian Age and the Age of Capricorn, these energies will melt the crystalline structure of consciousness to allow greater insight so that the minds of entities can perceive truth, even if there were no teachers to teach the truth.

This Awareness indicates that so far as the Cosmic Awareness Communications operation is concerned, this appears to be stable, healthy, and that It does not see any threat on the horizon to this organization from the Negative Forces. This Awareness indicates that the energies associated with this organization appear to be capable of great endurance and growth. This Awareness indicates that likewise, the energies associated with the Aquarian Church as that which appear to have become free, whereby new growth can be experienced in that organization also.

WOULD WE STILL BE IN A DEPRESSION IF WORLD WAR II HAD NOT OCCURRED?

QUESTION:

A question from J.M., of Calgary, Alberta. She writes:

"Just to give a bit of background: I'm a Libra, peace-oriented. My husband is a Capricorn, very down-to-earth, logical, practical,—the whole bit. Anyway, the topic of peace marches, anti-nuclear demonstrations etc., often comes up. The bottom line is that he feels: "Demonstrations are a waste of time. No one pays any attention," and although it's a helluva thing to say, "if it wasn't for World War Two, the country would still be in a Depression, as it was because of the war that jobs were created, and if all defense-related jobs were scrapped it would be a worse situation, except the chaos would be in your own environment, as people would be without work, etc. etc."

I countered with: "People could do different type of work" His response was: "There are only certain people with the ability for science, farming etc., and farm goods are rotting on the docks now, etc."

I hate to admit it, but he does put up a strong point, thus two questions arise; One: What would have happened to people job-wise during the Depression years of the 1930's had the war not started?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Awareness Recaps the International Bankers' Plot

This Awareness indicates that first of all, the Depression should be understood as having been started by the International Bankers, who also were behind the war, the conditions which led to World War Two. This Awareness indicates that secondly, the nine-tenths of all personal property confiscated in the Depression by the banks should never have occurred, except for the manipulations of the monetary conditions through the Federal Reserve Bank and the International Bankers who plotted and set up this condition which led to the Depression. Thirdly, the setting up of Adolf Hitler by the bankers to attack Russia, which also had been set up by the bankers; this Awareness indicates that this has been given previously: that the Bolshevik revolution was financed from New York; the revolutionaries trained in lower East Side New York by Trotsky, financed by Jacob Schiff, through a Chase-Manhattan Bank check for $50,000, then sent to St. Petersburg on a British ship and released, to start the Bolshevik revolution for Communism.

This Awareness indicates that Stalin, following Lenin, refusing to cooperate with the bankers, became their enemy, thus the bankers then set up Hitler, financed this entity to go after Stalin. Hitler, meeting with Stalin, discussing with Stalin, formed a pact with Stalin, and decided instead to go after the bankers. This Awareness indicates that the pact broke down and the Germans eventually did flow into Russia. This Awareness indicates that then the bankers arranged for the United States to come into the war by setting up the situation in Pearl Harbor whereby the Japanese would attack, thus enraging the American people to enter the war against Japan and their allies,—the Germans of the Axis Forces. 7

This Awareness indicates the entire scenario as being controlled and contrived by these International Banking interests. This Awareness indicates that the Depression also as being controlled and created by these interests. This Awareness indicates that this is likened unto a doctor giving a patient a poison, then rescuing the patient at the last minute from such deep depression, by giving the entity an antidote,—in this case, war. This making the entity feel that war is a wonderful thing in that it can bring people out of the Depression.

This Awareness indicates that in understanding this, an entity can become somewhat more able to evaluate the scenario as it occurred, and recognize tradition as it may have not been fully understood before. This Awareness indicates besides this scenario, however, It wishes to remark on how the alleged benefits from World War Two, whereby entities believe that they benefited from such, and that only through World War Two was it possible to come out of the Depression.

This Awareness indicates first of all, this is the basic argument of Communism against Capitalism, that Capitalism cannot survive without war; that Capitalism creates products and oversurplus that leads to depression or recession, and that following such depression or recession, the only way out is through war, and thus, more production and expense and factories and work. This Awareness indicates that this argument of Communism is the greatest argument which they have in condemning Capitalism as a system.

This Awareness indicates that this entity is espousing the same argument. This Awareness indicates that such argument serves the Communists well. This Awareness indicates that apart from this, the Capitalistic system could function without a war. The energies which are put into destructive machines, the war machines, the factories and so forth, could just as easily be put into productive, creative activities such as were started during the Roosevelt administration through the construction of highways, dams, buildings and other projects,—national parks and so forth.

This Awareness indicates that John Kennedy started the Space Program, which in turn spent vast amounts of money in order to reach the moon, and in the process created many jobs for many entities. That these programs cost great amounts of money. That the war costs great amounts of money and lives. The shortage of manpower, due to their being overseas, and the great amount of production necessary to support the war created many jobs for entities who remained here, and many of these entities expressed regrets that the war was soon to end, for their good times and good jobs and high living might also come to an end.

This Awareness indicates that entities often think of war as profitable. This Awareness indicates that those who profit from the deaths of others, from the violence that occurs to others, from the suffering of others, and who enjoy such profiting, will, in time, experience the other side of the coin. This Awareness indicates that in the sense of the alleged profit from war and from the expression of violence and from the production of armaments and threats of war, the expenses in this far surpass anything that ever was built to serve humanity.

This Awareness indicates that the purpose of war as a form of creating jobs is a very poor means for doing so, for the expenses in creating such a destructive machine and all of the destruction that follows, while creating many jobs and destroying many people, and causing more jobs to be necessary for the rebuilding of the society, sets the human civilization back much further than were this money to be put into production of machines, technologies, constructions, hospitals, roads, research that could be beneficial to the masses.

This Awareness indicates were it not for war, many of the inventions may not have occurred, thus entities often think of war as creating byproducts of a beneficial nature. This Awareness indicates however, that all of these inventions, and more, could have occurred were there to be a crash program of constructive expression rather than destructive expression. There is no need for war in order to create space flights. There is no need for war in order to have research that allows a study of the ocean depths, or research into medical fields, or research into the origins of human existence or research into a thousand other areas; and all of these research programs, if put into effect with the same fervor as is put into a war machine, could create just as many jobs, and the country could go just as deeply in debt in terms of the National Debt, and the people could prosper just as much in terms of their inflationary dollars as if there were an actual war occurring.

This Awareness indicates that entities who think they profited from war are sorely mistaken, for the debts involved are still there to be paid off. This concept of profit from the war, generally is accompanied by an attitude of hostility toward Welfare Programs. This Awareness indicates however, the war program is a welfare program for munition makers and for those who are the bankers and lenders of those moneys which go into the war programs.

This Awareness indicates that anytime government spends money for war machines which will be destroyed, it is nothing more than a Welfare Program to assist those who wish to play war games and to use others to be their servants and soldiers and cannon-fodder so that they may play their games, reap their monies from their sales, and thus claim a great importance in the society.

This Awareness indicates the money, when given to a needy Welfare mother, is often seen as something useless, and entities who tend to align themselves with the war machine game feel that such useless entities as a Welfare mother and her children are of such insignificance that it would be better to totally ignore them and let them starve than to give hard-earned tax dollars to these entities for Welfare. This Awareness indicates they would much rather give their tax dollars to the machine that would chew up such entities in war.

IF THE PEACE MOVEMENT SUCCEEDS WILL UNEMPLOYMENT GO UP?

QUESTION:

Her final question: "Should the Peace Movement be successful, the arms race called off, etc., what will all those who are employed in those areas be able to do? Would it not be another chaos, depression and so forth, as not everyone is adaptable to retraining, and there are not enough mundane jobs to go around now even if they were retrained?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are literally millions of people on earth who are in need: who are in need of food, clothing, housing, and the simple luxuries and furnishings which most Westerners take for granted. This Awareness indicates that if a nation has the capacity to spend half of its income received through taxation of the people, for armaments and war buildup, that nation could also have the capacity to divert that income to assisting those nations and the millions of persons on earth, so that they could have the simple life which most Westerners of the affluent nations take for granted.

This Awareness indicates that rather than bombs, which are used for destructive purposes,—aircraft carriers, planes, rockets, missiles, trained manpower for purposes of war and destruction,—rather than putting this money into these things, the money could be put into plows, tractors, shoes, clothing, homes and food, or programs to train entities to make the land fertile so that they could raise their own food. This Awareness asks: What is wrong with doing something constructive with your excess income, rather than promoting war and violence and destruction for others?

QUESTION:

Well, won't their logical retort to that be: "That would be fine, except these undeveloped countries have no money to pay for these goods?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates they also have no money to pay for the bombs which land on them.

This Awareness indicates this does not appear to matter to those who promote the concept of war. Who pays for the bombs? Who pays for the aircraft carrier, the ships and planes? This comes from the pockets of the people who support those warmongering nations. This comes from the taxation. This Awareness indicates that this kind of manufacturing, and the taxes which go into creating the war machine, create jobs for entities so that they can receive their monthly pay and pay their taxes from this work.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, were this money to be spent on clothing, on housing, on other things than those destructive weapons, the jobs also could be made available. This Awareness indicates the thinking is rather strange. That if you are working for a war machine, it creates jobs, therefore it is acceptable. If you are working to give to others who are in need, it creates jobs, yet this is not acceptable. If you are destroying others, it is acceptable to work for some military welfare program. If you are working to help others, it is unacceptable to work for such a welfare program that serves others.

This Awareness indicates that as far as creating jobs is concerned, does it matter whether these jobs are made to serve or to destroy? This Awareness indicates that the jobs can pay the same. That the purpose is that which matters. This Awareness indicates that this as likened unto one entity having a building, the building being able to either create explosive weapons whereby the townspeople may destroy each other, or capable of... This Awareness wishes to start over on this story.

This Awareness suggests you visualize a town. In this town there are persons who are starving and in need. There are others who have wealth and abundance. There is a large building in the town. There is a question as to whether to use this building and the extra money of the affluent ones, whether to use this to build weapons in order to destroy others in the village, so that they can have their jobs in the munitions factory, and so that they can have their power and so-called dignity of being rulers over the town, or whether this building should be used for manufacturing clothing, food, and other items to help those who are poor and needy in the town.

This Awareness indicates that in either case, there are jobs available in the building, whether it is used for munitions or whether it is used for making clothing. This Awareness indicates that the affluent ones, feeling themselves to be superior in every way, feeling a hostility toward those who are in need, decide that they do not want to waste their energy on such poor needy persons, and "We worked hard to get where we are, and we do not want to give away to some welfare program. Rather, as times are not quite as good as they were before, we would rather see this building used as a war manufacturing plant so that we can earn more money and build up our wealth as once before. Thus we may destroy our enemies and others in the town, and become great and powerful again." This Awareness indicates that this is the general thinking.

This Awareness indicates that it is not logical, it is not practical, it is not ethical; yet it is the way some entities think, and its only purpose is to promote self-egotism, a claim to superiority, and a desire to fulfill a lust for power. This Awareness indicates that it has no spiritual value, no redeeming value whatsoever, and in fact is a violation to those who are in need.

This Awareness indicates that all entities who support such a system, who support the warmongering system, shall in time experience the other side of the coin, shall be the recipient of those bombs and rockets. This Awareness indicates that this is the Law of Karma. The only outcome, and the only way to be free from such is through the grace of the Divine.

This Awareness indicates that you do not receive such grace simply by being more warmongering.

ED's Note: Readers who would like to know what it would be like to live in a world without wars, and how entities with little or no income would be living; where crime would no longer exist etc., should refer to that series of readings we call "The Akashic Record--The Unified States of Awareness" --the New Age government presented by Awareness in 1977. ($4.00 from CAC). Its all coming, so you might as well start energizing it, for this new world government shall replace the Beast 666 plan which is starting to come down upon us.

DID JEWISH BANKERS FINANCE HITLER?
"HITLER'S SECRET BACKERS" ...
IS THIS BOOK REALLY TRUE?

(March 18, 1983)

QUESTION:

There's a number of conservative newsletters, as well as the Liberty Lobby people who are promoting a book called, Hitler's Secret Backers. * They claim this book was suppressed for 50 years, and they're urging entities to get a copy right now, at $14.95, because it could be suppressed again. I'd like to read a little of the blurb on this and ask Awareness to comment, if this information is basically true, or if it's some right-wing propaganda?

They claim this book is written by Sidney Warburg, the self-confessed, "cowardly errand boy", who actually met with Hitler and hand-delivered the American banker's money to him. It says, "This book, first published in Holland in 1933 by the prestigious publishing house of Van Holdkema & Warendorf, and endorsed by prominent Nazi, Fran Von Papen as "the most documented account of the National Socialists' sudden acquisition of funds"... this book was mysteriously withdrawn from book-stores mere days after publication.

Later that year, author Sidney Warburg died mysteriously and both the translator and publisher were ruthlessly murdered. The manuscript disappeared. Then in 1982, two researchers found a forgotten copy hidden in the archives of the Schweizerischen Landesbibliothek. (whatever that is...a library?) The Droemer Knauer Publishers of West Germany immediately announced plans to republish this volume, but mysteriously changed their minds and withdrew the book in December of 1982 without a single copy being printed.

Now, for the first time in a half-century, Research Publications of Phoenix, Arizona, P.O. Box 39850, is making this volume available for $14.95...complete with the translator's affidavit, and a history of the many attempts to publish this blockbusting book." And some of the things they claim that are in this... "This shocking book gives you the facts that the powerful elitists don't want you to know. Proof that the International Bankers manipulated the stock exchange of the U.S. and European countries to generate millions of dollars in illegal profits...Proof of the bankers' conspiracy to rob thousands of American savers and small investors, proof of Rockefellers' and John Ridgely Carter's scheme to vault the unknown Hitler into the top spot in Germany's government, even after they had learned of his plans to 'neutralize' the Catholic church and confine all dissenting citizens in concentration camps...

"Proof of the media's complicity in depicting Hitler as the Saviour of Germany, a campaign that began in the U.S. within 3 weeks of the bankers' first payment to the obscure revolutionary...Proof of Hitler's plan to take Germany by force in a bloody revolution, a plan that was abandoned in 1933 when the International Bankers tightened the purse strings...

"And they claim that the players in this drama were John D. Rockefeller; (a Jew), founder of the vast Rockefeller oil and banking fortunes, and mastermind of a plan to overthrow the German government, using a puppet he repeatedly referred to as "Heitler"... John Ridgely Carter (a Jew), married to Alice Morgan, head of Morgan Guaranty Trust Bank in Paris. With Rockefeller, he was proclaimed to be "one of the two uncrowned Kings of the World."

"Sidney Warburg (a Jew), the author and member of the influential Warburg banking family, and self-confessed "cowardly errand boy" for the International Bankers who hand-delivered $32 million to the aspiring dictator from 1929 to 1933...and ensured Hitler's rise from beer hall conspirator to commander of the world's most powerful military machine.

"Henry Ford, prominent Nazi supporter as early as 1929, Mr. Ford "donated" more than 1.4 millions Marks to Hitler's war chest, was personally decorated by Hitler himself...and, according to captured documents, continued to produce military materials for the Third Reich, 'before and during the war, and up to 1944."

"Adolph Hitler, the 'nobody' Rockefeller and other leading bankers and industrialists believed could overthrow the German government and create a stable economic environment for the International Bankers to pad their pocket-books. Plus, detailed accounts of meetings with Goebbels, Goering, Hitler, Rockefeller, Carter, Streicher and others.. a word for word replay of the events that led up to the Nazi take-over of the German state."

I'd like to ask Awareness to comment on that book called, Hitler's Secret Backers.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as being accurate. That also the Rothschilds were involved in some of this action. This Awareness indicates that the entity Warburg as being closely associated with the Rothschilds. This Awareness suggests that the efforts of these bankers to set Hitler into power as that which was intended to create a force which would bring down Stalin. This Awareness indicates that the entity Hitler, after receiving such power, then himself turned against those who had backed him, realizing that they were the cause of much of the violence and troubles in the world, and therefore, turned his energies, in part, against these forces.

This Awareness indicates the entity Hitler as being somewhat naive, and that this entity believed that these bankers and persons, being largely Jewish, the entity identified the bankers as being Jewish, and therefore felt that the Jews in general were the cause of the problems in the world. This Awareness indicates therefore, this entity launched a campaign against the Jews from this distorted view of the world.

This Awareness indicates the campaign against Russia, also having been launched, but this being launched with the sincere belief that he could dominate the world by destroying these various countries of significant power. This Awareness indicates that in general, the book as that which reveals much of the true story which will not be found available in other sources. That it does not appear that this book will be available for very long.

This Awareness suggests that entities interested in this book should order as soon as convenient. This Awareness suggests that along with this book, entities may wish to read the book, Pawns in the Game, by Commander Carr, as this will allow much dove-tailing of information. This Awareness indicates there is also a book by Henry Ford, The International Jew; this Awareness indicates however, this book as extremely hard to find; that it has been taken out of the Ford library.

*ED's Note: C.A.C. does stock 'Pawns in the Game' (see book catalog price sheet), but does not stock the book 'Hitler's Secret Backers'. We did however, order a copy for our library and feel badly ripped-off for paying $14.95 for it. It is a slim little book, perfect-bound, with 82 pages and a soft cover, with typewritten copy. The book could have been printed in Seattle for less than a dollar a copy. As a historical document, it may be worth $14.95, but as far as I am concerned it didn't reveal anything most of us didn't already know anyway. It confirmed that Henry Ford, billed as the 'world's richest man' back in the '20's was also the world's biggest anti-Semite and that Ford and American capital in general was really War criminal Number 1 and should have been tried at Nuremberg along with the rest of the criminals. It also confirmed that Jewish International Bankers financed Hitler and were basically responsible therefore for bringing down the holocaust on their own people. Save your money and read it in Liberty Lobby's Spotlight newspaper, which will probably reprint it anyway. And if you are Jewish, go out and buy a Toyota instead of a Ford. (Avaton)

IS PEELU REALLY THE ANSWER TO ALL TOOTH AND GUM PROBLEMS?

QUESTION:

The Healthview Newsletter has come out with a booklet on Peelu, which they claim is an amazing tooth whitener from a tree. That the Peelu powder can whiten dingy stained teeth in just four or five days. It's been used for centuries as a tooth whitener in Pakistan, India and Afghanistan, and this explains the main reason why so many people in Pakistan have gleaming white teeth, and the "Peelu is an implement for the cleansing of teeth, and a pleasure to God," the prophet Mohammed said about it. Peelu means Tree for Tooth Care, or "Toothbrust Tree", and they go on and on about this, that how they're going to present Peelu as a gift to the Americans from the people of Pakistan, and it's a stick from this tree, and a powder, that they hope will be successful on the market, and it should end tooth decay and all various gum diseases, plus keep the teeth white, and probably eliminate entities from having to go to the dentist.

Would Awareness comment on the validity of this stick called Peelu?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as effective in all Claims. It appears there are a number of benefits from this: that it has an effect of acting with the acids in the mouth, and countering bacteria in the mouth, while also having a kind of buffering action that cleans the teeth. This Awareness indicates that there appears also to be some type of catalyst within this substance that strengthens the tissue of the teeth, that provides nutrients to the teeth and gums, whereby they can repair themselves.

This Awareness indicates that in the event of major tooth disease, this is not seen as the only solution necessary; that there may be benefits from this without it being the entire cure for tooth problems. This Awareness suggests however, that it does appear that this will be a major benefit to those who use this, and that it can also serve to help the people of Pakistan as a new industry that benefits others in this and other countries, while providing a flow of money to that country.

QUESTION:

Yes, it also says: "In the areas of Pakistan where the Peelu is used, that dentists are starving. There is no work for them, and the Pakistani Embassy, Mrs. Asa Durani says: "Gum disease is virtually unheard of in Pakistan. Almost everyone uses the Peelu." And they also recommend that you start your children early on the Peelu stick, and they may never get cavities."

Does Awareness see that as valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that this appears to have a high content of calcium flouride and other minerals, as well as certain catalysts that affect the bacteria of the mouth, and interact with acids in the mouth, to cleanse the teeth and to strengthen the surface of the teeth. This Awareness indicates this substance also appears to be beneficial to the bones of an entity using this; strengthening the bones.

ED's Note: Healthview Newsletter, 612 Rio Road West, Box 6670, Charlottesville, Va., 22906 (1 year $18) is a newsletter CAC continues to recommend to the membership. There is much new health info in this publication you won't find anywhere else. They particularly stress information on how to stop the aging process.

In reference to Peelu, the CAC staff was so excited about this substance when this reading was given, that we ordered a few of the sticks and several jars of the powder. It really does work. After a few weeks the teeth do whiten up. (I smoked a pipe for almost 20 years before I finally quit and thought that Amphora cavendish pipe tobacco stains could never be removed. The dentist couldn't do it, but the Peelu has. We like the powder over the stick because the powder is easy to use; just dip your toothbrush into it and lightly brush the teeth. They have sweetened it up a bit with natural spearmint and peppermint. Knowing what Awareness has said about the fluoride toothpastes on the market these days, and what they really do to the teeth, we suggest the membership try Peelu as an alternative. Prices are as follows:

Peelu stick: $3.80 each (Plain only); 3 for $10.95.
Peelu powder: (Peppermint or Spearmint): $4.64 each or 3 for $11.95. Add $1.50 postage and handling per order. U.S. Distributor:

...More on Age Rejuvenation:
HOW GH3 SLOWS THE AGING PROCESS
...(More on MAO and PABA etc.)

QUESTION:

A question from D.S. of Miami, Florida. "According to the Food and Drug Administration, GH3, Gerivital with procaine, is mainly a dose of novacaine. In the opinion of Awareness, can a dosage of novacaine be effective in promoting longevity? Aside from excessive costs of GHS, one wonders if it is worth the expenditure."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is not, as described, a simple dose of novocaine. This Awareness indicates that the procaine, as a cousin of novocaine, carries certain elements,--the PABA, and other vitamin qualities into the cell, which in turn being responsive to those vitamins, rejuvenates. This Awareness indicates that without the procaine, the PABA does not easily penetrate into the cell. This Awareness indicates that most PABA is discarded from the body. The body is not capable of absorbing this substance in the same degree as when accompanied by the procaine.

This Awareness indicates that the action of the GH3 as that which inhibits the MAO factor which is an aging factor within the cell. That this cannot be completely stopped, or it will result in death to the individual. That it begins to increase as an entity passes the mid-thirties. It begins to increase at ever increasing speeds, so that the aging factor speeds up as time progresses.

...Is it a cancer preventative, etc.?

QUESTION:

This Awareness indicates by hindering or inhibiting the MAO, this retards that aging factor, keeps it slowly reproducing itself, so that a speed-up of aging is not occurring, and in many instances, will reverse the aging process by inhibiting that MAO enzyme so that the cells can have the time to rebuild themselves.

This Awareness indicates this resulting in rejuvenation in some aspect. This Awareness indicates that wherein this MAO enzyme is left without inhibition, it begins to run rampant and to bring about the quickening of the aging process. This Awareness indicates that antioxidants such as Selenium and other substances, such as SuperOxide Dismutase (DOS), Vitamin E, certain herbs such as ginseng and gota-cola; these and other vitamins and minerals and substances also serving as antioxidants, can help to inhibit the MAO and other similar enzymes which contribute to the aging process.

This Awareness indicates the purpose of the procaine is not to simply anesthetize the cells, but rather, is to relax the cells so that the PABA can be absorbed by these cells, and have its effect on the MAO enzyme.

OTHER WAYS TO SLOW THE AGING PROCESS

...(Heavy metals as a cause of aging)

I think Awareness just answered his follow-up question, but I'll read it to make sure. "Could Awareness suggest any way in which a comparable antidote for aging could be obtained at a reasonable cost that would make it possible for those who need it most and might be least able to pay the high cost to get something that would serve as well. Since some of the herbal products sold by the Goodship as feeding the nerve-ends and providing other health aids, it seems to me that some product could be made available that would serve approximately the same ends as GH3."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the use of SuperOxide Dismutase and Selenium and nucleic acid as being best suitable for this action as a substitute, wherein one does not wish to partake of the GH3. This Awareness indicates that also, complete vitamin supplements including Vitamin E, Vitamin C, calcium, and the essential minerals as that which should be included in one's diet in order to assure that one receives sufficient antioxidants and enzymes, vitamins and minerals to keep one's metabolism balanced.

This Awareness indicates that there are of course other factors also associated with aging. Particularly dangerous is that wherein heavy metals such as lead, cadmium, magnesium or aluminum or other metals are excessive in one's system; this can lead to very rapid deterioration of health, and what may appear to be rapid aging. This Awareness indicates that these can often be ascertained through hair analysis or blood tests, and often can be corrected through the appropriate use of vitamins and mineral supplements, or through chelation, which is an action of reaming out the veins with a liquid that bonds these metals to it, and draws these metals from the veins, from the cells, into the kidneys, and then discharge these. This Awareness indicates that this as an elaborate process requiring skilled technicians.

This Awareness indicates however, that the proper use of certain minerals to remove heavy metals is possible through those who have been trained in this direction. This Awareness refers entities wishing further information on this to Dr. Paul Eck of Arizona.*

* Dr. Paul Eck, C/o Analytical Research Labs, PO Box 39587, Phoenix, Arizona, 85021.

While we're on this subject of GH3, Dr. Carl Gaul, doctor of philosophy, homeopathy and naturopathy, in West Germany, who has been providing GH3 and ginseng to some of our members, sent out a printed notice the other day about this, and I'd like to read some of it and ask Awareness if the information is valid:

"Please pay attention to my new GH3 plus Eleutherococcus. To my new ginseng, plus H3 I added Eleutherococcus. This is a Russian taiga root. German professors found out that the taiga root is able to produce interferon in our system. This will be a prevention that a person gets no cancer. In a few cases, cancers came to a standstill.

"In Russia, people with cancer are getting taiga root extract before a cancer operation. This will hinder building new metastasis. Our organism is producing interferon itself in very small quantities. If our system does not build up enough interferon, ailments or infections start; perhaps cancer. Interferon is a very important substance to strengthen our body and keep it healthy.

"Further more, my GH3 contains echinacea. This sovereign remedy must never be overlooked. In cancer and all kinds of infections it can be given internally, externally, and so forth. It is a vegetable antitoxin. It is useful in just about all ailments because the blood is vitiated from faulty elimination."

And he adds a P.S., that his GH3 is available in powder form and also in liquid form, and he wanted his customers to know that he has added the eleutherococcus and the echinacea to create interferon, and I'd like to ask Awareness if that information is basically valid, and should we still recommend his GH3 formula to the membership?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this information as basically correct. This Awareness indicates the addition of echinacea as that which can be beneficial for many entities. This Awareness indicates that it appears the interferon from the root as that which is not of great amount to supply what one might need in an emergency situation, but as indicated, is sufficient as a kind of preventative.

This Awareness indicates that the interferon as that which helps to enhance, strengthen and promote the immunity system, which allows an entity to overcome diseases and allergies and viruses. This Awareness indicates that the strengthening of the immunity system as one of the greater factors in prolonging youth and vitality, and retarding the aging process.

This Awareness indicates that this formula does appear to have merits in this regard, with the root mentioned being a valuable contribution. This Awareness indicates that there is some question as to mixing these substances together. This Awareness indicates that it does appear that some of the strength of the GH3 as an MAO inhibitor is somewhat diminished by the mixing process, but that the other activities promoting the immunity system, strengthening the immunity system; this appears to be sufficient so that the overall value of this product appears to be beneficial to a considerable degree.

use this product along with pure GH3 without additives, or that which is the Zell-H3. That if using these together, this Awareness suggests that the amounts be cut in half so that you are not taking too much of either.

ED's Note: for more information on GH3 please refer to 'Revelations of Awareness' No. 82-16. Addresses of Dr. Gaul and two other suppliers of GH3 will also be found in that newsletter.

Do you have a friend who needs to stop smoking, stop drinking, stop using drugs etc.? Here's what to do:

THE AKA-CORD HEALING METHOD ... MORE ON HOW TO VISUALIZE EFFECTIVELY

QUESTION:

A question from J.K. of Chicago: "Could Awareness please give a method to so charge up oneself with energy that one could then travel along the Aka-cord to a loved friend, and use such energy to lift psychological difficulties, guilts, mental barriers, fears, and of course physical ailments from the loved friend, and so "burn up" in the cosmic energy, the problem, so as to dissolve it, presuming that such help is given only with the cooperation of the friend who is seeking help?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that wherein you seek to assist another, the assistance being presented in a manner whereby it is in harmony with the Divine, and whereby you would not, under any conditions, seek to bring harm to that entity, or force your will on that entity for some personal reason, but wherein you are actually concerned only for the welfare of that entity, you need not have the entity's permission or cooperation to send healing energies.

This Awareness indicates that wherein you feel that this is energy being given to this entity, and you desire something in return for the energy given, and you recognize that the entity may not benefit entirely from the energy being given, then it is appropriate that you have the communication with that entity and cooperation before such activities occur. This Awareness indicates that it is important that you not violate another, but it is not important that you have the cooperation of another who is already being violated, or is violating oneself, and does not recognize it as being any of your affair, or any of your concern. This Awareness indicates wherein the entity is violating oneself, and does not wish to have this violation interfered with, it is inappropriate that you would be required to have permission to interfere with that violation. This Awareness indicates therefore, an entity, for example, who obviously is destroying his own health through self-violation such as smoking, drinking, the use of drugs, or other damaging behavior; necessary that you ask the entity if you can heal, and healing energies to that entity.

This Awareness indicates it is only necessary that you visualize the entity being in good health, the entity's problems placed aside, and that the Higher Self be given life experience. This Awareness indicates that the keys to clear communication on the Aka-cord to healing another, to bringing about the contact between your own visualization and the resulting effects in the other; the keys to this are visualizing, conceptualizing, and actualizing.

THE VISUALIZING

The visualizing requires that you visualize the entity, visualize the problem briefly, visualize energies being sent to remove the problem,--visualize these energies to be sent as coming into you from the universe around you or from some particular source,--the energies then being sent to that entity for the purpose of healing. This Awareness suggests this as the visualizing.

THE CONCEPTUALIZING

This Awareness suggests that the conceptualizing is that wherein you conceive a framework whereby these images can function and transpire in a manner that is believable to you. This Awareness suggests for example, you conceive or visualize a concept whereby wires are sent through time and space to touch that entity, to connect up with that entity. You may actually visualize yourself tying these Aka-cords to yourself while you meditate, hurling one of these cords, or more, out to that entity, tying this to the entity so that there is conceived a connection, a wire.

This Awareness indicates you may even visualize this as electrical wire with copper tubes or copper wires running through. This may be insulated; this may be any type of wire as is necessary for you to have a strong image for your concept. This Awareness indicates you may become as elaborate as you desire. You may visualize a great dynamo behind you in the process of building up great Aka-cord energy,--resonating electromagnetic energy--energy of the White Light, which then permeates, moves through your body into this wire, over to that entity and lights the entity up like a light-bulb, and the entity throws away his bottle, his cigarettes, his drug habits, etcetera.

This Awareness indicates that the concept as that which becomes the skeleton over which your image may be moved, and the concept being built to whatever degree is desired by you, and you build this concept through imaging as a kind of symbol, over which your imaging can occur.

THE ACTUALIZING

This Awareness indicates the actualizing occurs as an act, whereby the energies are sent through your visualization over these concepts which you have created to carry your energy, and the actualizing is that which occurs as the dynamo lights up your body, sends the current through the wire, and lights up the other entity, who then throws away his habits. This Awareness indicates that this as the actualizing part of the principle. Thus, these three,--the visualizing, the conceptualizing and the actualizing,--as that which can bring about a strong healing action for you to assist others and to bring about results through your meditation.

This Awareness indicates this may also be used for other activities, and that this is not necessarily the only concept which should be used. This Awareness indicates for example, you may use the concept of a shuttle craft carrying your energy to this entity, and one hundred parcel post carriers coming off the shuttle craft, carrying boxes full of resonating electromagnetic energy to the door of your friend, delivering them filling the entity's house and

This Awareness indicates that there are many ways you may conceive for this energy to arrive at your friend's doorstep, and that this as depending on which approach you prefer, and which is more acceptable to you, but the stronger the image and the greater amount of White Light carried, which carries the message you wish to send, the greater amount of energy you can carry, the stronger will be the results.

This Awareness suggests for example, you may wish to have this energy carried in a semi truck, if you can conceive of that amount of resonating electromagnetic energy, or you may prefer to see this carried on the head of a pin, so small it is almost impossible to see, being presented to your friend, and then visualizing this energy from this pin spreading out, larger and larger, larger and larger, filling the room with this resonating electromagnetic energy, so that the entity's entire life is completely enraptured with White Light.

This Awareness indicates that there are many ways whereby you may conceptualize. That the action of sending these energies and the conceptualizing, are all part of visualizing. This Awareness indicates that the realizing as that which occurs when the results have their actual effect on the entity in real life.

A sodden spring for Europe

United Press International

It rained in London yesterday for the 30th straight day and Switzerland got a month's rainfall in one night as gray skies brought a sodden spring to Europe.

"The outlook is for rain followed by rain," moaned the London Times, which jokingly blamed the soggy weather on the communists.

"Moscow, it was officially confirmed yesterday, can be blamed for our rotten spring," the newspaper said in a tongue-in-cheek article.

"While Britain has been deluged in rain, the Russians have been enjoying weeks of dry-weather with temperatures in the 70s . . . If Moscow had not hogged all the good weather we might have had some of it."
