

Revelations

Awareness

No. 85--1 The New-Age Cosmic Newsletter

$3.00

ISSUE No. 264

Cosmic Awareness Communications

P. O. Box 115, Olympia, Washington 98507

Helping People Become Aware

The Forbidden Mysteries of Enoch

Published by Cosmic Awareness Communications, P.O. Box 115, Olympia, Washington, 98507. Reproduction is permitted.

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully-trained channels. The information contained herein was received from deep super-conscious 'trance' levels and 'interpreted' by an entity affiliated with C.A.C. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

Paul Shockley, Interpreter

THE BOOK OF ENOCH: THE COSMIC SPACE OPERA

(The Fall of the Angels...Celestial Lust...Enter the Dark Force)

QUESTION:

There's a very long and very interesting article in the current Heart Magazine, that's called "Origen's Angelology." "Why was this beloved church father of the second century denounced as a heretic?" And then it goes into the forbidden mysteries of Enoch, and it appears that this Book of Enoch contains a lot of the keys that explain the story of Creation, and a lot of the problems we face today, and the origin of the Dark Force and so forth, a lot of which correlates with what Awareness has previously given. I'd like to read a little bit of this and ask Awareness to comment on it.

"The book of Enoch, once cherished by Jews and Christians alike; this book later fell into disfavor with powerful theologians precisely because of its controversial statements on the nature and deeds of the fallen angels. Its theme so infuriated the later church fathers, that one of them, Filastrius, actually condemned it as heresy. Nor did the Rabbis deign to give credence to the book's teaching about angels.

"Rabbi Simeon Ben Jochai in the Second Century A.D., pronounced a curse upon those who believed it, so the book was denounced, banned, cursed, no doubt burned and shredded, and last but not least, lost, and conveniently forgotten for a thousand years. But with an uncanny persistence, the 'Book of Enoch' found its way back into circulation two centuries ago. In 1773 rumors of a surviving copy drew Scottish explorer James Bruce to distant Ethiopia.

"True to hearsay, the 'Book of Enoch' had been preserved by the Ethiopic Church, which put it right alongside the other books of the Bible. Bruce secured not one, but 3 copies of the precious book, and brought them back to Europe and Britain. Fifty years later, when the book's first English translation was produced, the modern world gained its first glimpse of the forbidden mysteries of Enoch.

"The Book of Enoch speaks from the obscure realm where history and mythology overlap. Privy to those unfathomable founts of ancient lore, its author draws for the reader a brimming cup of secret wisdom. A primordial drama of good and evil, light and dark unfolds. The book tracks Enoch's footsteps back to antiquity's timelessness; back to the first hint of corruption upon a pristine world,—earth.

"The trouble, according to the 'Book of Enoch', began when the heavenly angels and their leader named Samyaza developed an insatiable lust for the daughters of men upon earth, and an irrepensible desire to beget children by these women. Samyaza feared to descend alone to the daughters of men, and so he convinced 200 angels, the Two Hundred Club, called 'Watchers', to accompany him on his mission of pleasure. Then the angels took oath, and bound themselves to the undertaking by 'mutual execrations'—curses. Once such a pact was sealed, betrayal was punishable by unnamed horrors.

"In their gang-inspired bravado, the angels descended and took wives from among the daughters of men. They taught the women sorcery, incantations, and divinations, twisted versions of the secrets of heaven. The plot thickens, like that of any good science-fiction thriller. The women conceived giant children from these angels, evil giants. The giants devour all the food that the men of earth can produce. Nothing satiates their hunger. They kill and eat birds, beasts, reptiles and fish. To their gargantuan appetite, nothing is sacrosanct; soon even man becomes a delicacy.

"As the story goes, one spiteful angel named Azazyel creates unnatural accouterments, like eye makeup and fancy bracelets, to enhance their sex appeal. As for the men, Azazyel teaches them 'every species of iniquity,' including the means for making swords, knives, shields, breastplates, all the instruments of war. There, millennia ago, someone had explained war, not as a man-invented or god-sent plague, but as a vengeful act of a fallen angel cast out of the glorious spheres of heaven.

"The implication is that man, either through lack of discrimination or sheer blindness, eventually latched on to a game of death that is not his own device, but that of the fallen angels. But there is more to Enoch's account of the Watchers. When the men of earth cry out in their destruction, heaven hears them. The mighty archangels, Michael, Gabriel, Raphael, Suryal and Uriel appeal on behalf of earth's people before the Most High, the King of Kings..."

It goes on and on, but there's an awfully lot of very interesting information in this. I'd like Awareness to comment on that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this Book of Enoch as that which is accurate, but a somewhat confusing portrayal or description of what this Awareness refers to as the Forces of Ahriman; that these likened unto the fallen angels, the Brothers of the Shadow, the Dark Forces, the Forces of Ignorance: those forces which this Awareness has referred to as having come from the Unholy 6,—that this is in reference to the Unholy 6 planets of Orion, the star systems of Orion which had been quarantined from the rest of the universe.*

This Awareness indicates that these fallen angels, in mingling with and interfering with the evolution of entities in various parts or places in the universe; that these so-called fallen angels having fallen from their particular vibratory plane, the frequency on which they were placed, having fallen into the frequency of this physical plane, in which man had been placed, as an action of an experiment,(this in reference to the creation of the so-called garden of Eden); the creation of beings on a particular frequency; the dimension which is known to entities on this particular frequency as Terrestria, or the physical plane....That the so-called angels referred to in the Book of Enoch, these fallen angels who traverse between dimensions of frequencies, between the different planes and meddle in the affairs of others :this as being an account of this original history of the Dark Forces coming upon this earth, and upon this naive and new being called man. This as a new genetic creation.

This Awareness indicates there were of course earlier people, from the descendants of those who have lived prior. This Awareness indicates the particular story as handed down as part of the history of the creation of the group experiment of that entity known as Jehovah; the entity who, having his garden of clones, referred to as Adam and Eve in the myths; this represents the origin of the history of this Semitic race.

This Awareness indicates that this Book of Enoch refers in part to the works of this entity, and how his works were corrupted by these forces from the other dimensions, the dark fallen angels. That many of these stories, while not being totally accurate in conveying the complete picture, are fragments of forgotten legends, are fragments of truth of a forgotten history; that they are often told in allegory, they are often told in drama, they are often told in ways which appear to convey a supernatural story which may seem to be fantasy.

Angels With and Without Wings

This Awareness indicates that the basic reality is that there are and were space people, persons who travel interdimensionally and through space, who move in and out of this dimension, or on and off of this planet, from the surface and into the inner parts; and these activities are often the basis for various legends and stories which seem to have some form of supernatural, or almost mythical and unbelievable qualities.

This Awareness indicates the angels being depicted as having wings in some instances refers to those beings who are capable of flying, yet the entities may not in fact have wings; that in other instances these beings do in fact have wings: they are interdimensional beings whose genetic heredity is different and along different lines from those of the physical body. That the alleged angels with the wings which are often spoken of or depicted in ancient myths, are in fact representatives from certain other frequencies and may actually appear in physical form as beings with wings. However, in many instances, these are simply symbolic in nature and are symbolic representations of entities who have the ability to fly, by use of crafts or flying machines.

Ahriman Forces Suppress the Book of Enoch

This Awareness indicates that the Book of Enoch as that which serves as a threat to those fallen angels who are in physical form upon this earth, who prefer to keep such information from being given out to the masses. That the Ahriman Forces prefer that entities think that the UFOs are but a hoax, or that they do not exist, or that if entities do believe they exist, that they come from other planets, that the earth's surface is the only place wherein life exists, and that all of these concepts and stories of interdimensional beings or of angels and fallen angels,—that all of these are false and unreal; for if entities were to suddenly grasp that the Ahriman Forces are interdimensional beings and are popping in and out of this plane and its dimension at will, and have the ability to influence entities' minds and behavior if they are willing to follow such influence; if these Ahriman forces were to allow such information to be presented, it would destroy a great part of the deception which they weave and use in order to control and direct and entrap the masses on this plane.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, they prefer to keep entities thinking in what is called "practical levels," whereby they create a practical statement that makes no sense, but boggles the mind and serves as a religion to answer those questions which cannot be answered, answering these with an enigma, and then, having set that enigma as the answer to all questions, discourage any further exploration into those areas such as the discernment of frequencies, vibrations, interdimensional realities, myths of the past, histories handed down, stories of unusual beings; all of these things which are termed the occult, or the secrets, or the hidden.

This Awareness indicates it is the Dark Forces of Ahriman who are the ones who most want the mysteries to remain hidden, to suppress the occult, to keep the occult or those secret teachings away from the masses, and these Dark Forces of Ahriman use the churches for this purpose and will rewrite scripture as it suits their needs in order to keep these churches from allowing these mysteries to be revealed.

This Awareness indicates that entities today are living at a time wherein they can refer to the newly written Bibles and check back on those Bibles which were being used one or two decades ago, and can see how the text have been changed to condemn those who believe or study psychic phenomena, or astrology, wherein the earlier text did not have that same condemnation. That this as an example of how the scriptures are rewritten to serve the purposes of those who would hide truth and use the religious writings to bring about a change, in order to destroy further learning or research into areas which might reveal some of the hidden mysteries.

This Awareness indicates that it is also the Ahriman Forces who seek to prevent entities from discovering the true nature and origins of the flying saucers and of interdimensional realities, and of life after death, and of those various mysteries which are, in spite of the Forces of Ahriman and their efforts, which are in fact coming out and being revealed more and more, each day, each week, each month, each year, each decade.

This Awareness indicates that in looking back 30 years, one can ask: "Where was this information 30 years ago, which now is everywhere?" This Awareness indicates that more and more people are asking questions because the answers they have been given do not answer, they simply stop thinking. More and more, entities do not want their thinking stopped, they want answers which will satisfy their questions.

The Fallen Angels Get More Wicked Every Day

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness, this article on the Book of Enoch, the authors concludes that the book was removed by the church, mainly because they couldn't accept the idea of fornicating angels, or that the angels fell from grace through lust rather than through pride, and their theory is that the genetic code, so to speak, of these fallen angels, that they have propagated themselves and propped themselves up on the social and success ladder throughout the centuries in every race, religion and nation.

From the original prototype, they have cloned and carven an oppressive and godless power elite; and because they fell, God condemned them because of this, and they have since just got more wicked and wicked down through the ages, and they in fact are the Alien Force that is present today, and is ingrained in the churches and so forth. Is that information basically correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this essentially is correct; this being not necessarily in absolute detail, but in a general sense, the information is correct. This Awareness indicates that when you attach words to anything, there will always be some error; that however, in this instance, the concept is that which is correct.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Well, their theory is that because these entities have been condemned, and can see no way out, or no way back to the source, the main pleasure they get is just being as wicked and evil as they can. Awareness has indicated these forces are on the way back to the Godhead, because Lucifer has returned, so eventually all of these forces will be transmuted and will be returned to the source. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these entities are not condemned to remain in their present state in a lack of grace, or in a state wherein they cannot be redeemed. Rather, these entities have chosen a particular path which they have yet to leave, for they have as yet not finished the karma which they began, and they cannot leave that path until it has gone full circle, whereby they reap the whirlwind for their deeds, and then, after experiencing the total repercussions of their actions, then they will be ready to leave the path which they have chosen.

This Awareness indicates it is not a condemnation placed upon these entities by this Awareness, it is rather a matter of fixed law, Universal Law, and a matter of their own personal choice in obeying and following those laws. This Awareness indicates there are higher laws which they may appeal to: the Law of Grace, for example, whereby they may ask for forgiveness and for the expression of penance, and repentance, may give up their intended path to take another path, and to become angels of service and good will.

These entities have not applied for, nor requested grace nor any other Cosmic Law in order to overcome the Law of Karma which is part of their present path. This Awareness indicates that in the end, if this path is pursued, these entities will become servants to the masses, whom they hoped to enslave. This Awareness indicates that grace is always available as a higher law which can be used to overcome the Laws of Karma. The Laws of Karma are the laws which are effected and maintained by those Forces of Darkness, which, through their very presence creates the Laws of Karma; as part of the reaction to their polarization, the Laws of Karma come into being.

HOW ACCURATE IS THE BOOK OF ENOCH ?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

On a scale of 1 to 10, how authentic would Awareness say the Book of Enoch is?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this may be considered as in itself, not referring to the authors' comments or interpretation, that is, not referring to the article's author and his comments and interpretation, but in the sense of the Book of Enoch itself: on a scale of 1 to 10, the accuracy would be 10. This Awareness indicates however, this may be misleading, for the accuracy of the story in the sense of the concept or principle is that which is on a scale of 1 to 10 accurate at the level of 10.

This Awareness indicates however, in reference to the details and actuality of the details, rather than in terms of the concepts involved, this would be more closely on a scale of 1 to 10 equal to that of approximately 5. This

Awareness indicates that this is likened unto telling a parable, such as: "The man sows a seed on rocky soil, and another seed on fertile soil grows and develops and is healthy, whereas the seed on rocky soil atrophies, dries up and ceases to exist."

This Awareness indicates that on a scale of 1 to 10, is this parable true? This Awareness indicates that the concept is true; whether there actually was a man who did this may be questionable. The probability that there was such a man somewhere in history, this also is true; but whether the story being told by the teller was based on truth so far as the teller knew; did the teller actually know this man, or was this story made up? This Awareness indicates that on a scale of 1 to 10, the story would be that of approximately 2 or 5 or 1, or whatever, for the evaluation becomes impossible as the entity, having known many men may have known one who threw a seed on a rock while also throwing a seed on the fertile ground.

This Awareness indicates there are some things which cannot be measured in terms of scales, but can only be understood in terms of meaning: the meaning of the message is that which is clear and accurate. The details, such as the names of these entities, their shapes, their historical realities, their places in the past, their effects on individual's lives at the time, the number of children, or the number of times they fornicated with the daughters of man....all of these things can very easily be seen as myth, and yet the actuality of the meaning remains clear and accurate.

This Awareness indicates that the entity Enoch was one who perceived realities based on visions. This entity was not simply standing there watching this fornication occur, with his pad and pencil, nor with a television camera; the entity perceived, in terms of visions, the concept. Thus, the concept is that which is accurate, but the exact details as that which may be purely symbolic.

* Please refer to 'Revelations of Awareness' No. 79-18 (The Web of Conspiracy, Part 1); $3.00; also 79-25, (Part 2: The Secret of the UFOs); $4.00 from CAC.

ED's Note: The Book of Enoch is very hard to find these days. The Health Research Publishers in Mokelumne Hill, California had one old version a few years back. We have also located a translation by R. Laurence: "The Book of Enoch". Please refer to CAC book catalog price sheet.

Additional info on man's origin can be found in No. 83-4, (Where Did Man Come From?); $3.00 from CAC.

For more information on the Dark Force, please refer to 'Revelations of Awareness' No. 82-24 (The Forces of Ahriman--A Special Report); $4.00; also 83-3 (The Brothers of the Shadow); $3.00 from CAC.

ROBOTOIDS, SYNTHETICS, DOUBLES: AN UPDATE BY COSMIC AWARENESS

(Opening Message, Oct. 7, 1983)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is seen some concern in regard to the concept of robotoids, synthetics, doubles and humans in government. This Awareness indicates that this in relation to readings which were released at previous times through this channel and also in relation to information released by Dr. Peter David Beter in his tapes. This Awareness indicates that the present situation in regard to these entities is such that specific individuals shall not through this channel be singled out and defined in terms of their type. This Awareness indicates that other questions in regard to this can be asked.

This Awareness indicates that the reason for this is for your own protection, for in singling out an individual and calling that individual a robotoid or synthetic, or saying the person is a double, one could open oneself up to suits or to other harassment. This Awareness indicates that enough was presented previously to explain the nature of events that are occurring behind the scenes and this Awareness does not intend to be used to point fingers at individuals, tattling on the individual for being a robotoid, synthetic or double, for that is not the purpose of this Awareness coming to this plane at this time.

This Awareness indicates that the purpose is to awaken consciousness to allow entities to have a greater expansion of concepts that allow the mind to move into areas which were previously unthinkable, to expand consciousness into thinking about unthinkable things, to explore the unknown and to discover new things regarding the universe in which they live. This Awareness indicates that the purpose is also to eliminate sorrow, suffering and tragedy from this plane, through such enlightenment.

This Awareness indicates that for It to present messages of pointing out this or that statesman, labelling this or that entity in order for people to hold certain judgments of that particular entity; this is not the function of this channel. This Awareness indicates that for the record, this Awareness indicates there are approximately 700,000 aliens on this earth at this time; this besides the Wanderers who were born of earthly parents. This Awareness indicates these entities have been since the time of the Eisenhower administration, the early 50's, have been moving slowly and carefully into positions in government whereby they can have influence.

This Awareness indicates that some of these aliens represent the Ahrimanic Forces, the Forces of Ahriman; some of these represent the Galactic Command Forces, these beings of the Light Force who are assisting in countering the efforts of the Dark Ahriman Forces. This Awareness indicates the intrusion by these entities of the Galactic Force is to help assure the continuance of this planet, for without their assistance and the assistance of those who are the Wanderers, this planet would be lost and would be destined for destruction.

This Awareness indicates that many of these aliens of both the Ahriman Forces and of the Galactic Forces do participate in actions whereby they enter into the bodies of those who are presently here, either as robotoids or synthetics, or whereby they enter in duplicate form, replacing entities who pass on, or they may enter as Walk-ins, whereby the owner of the body steps out and allows the body to be taken over by an alien being.

This Awareness indicates that this message as that which may be released or may be held back from your readership at your discretion; that It does not consider this to be an important factor to the current needs of your membership, but that it does have some degree of interest to some entities. This Awareness indicates it also may lead some of your readership to consider it as being too bizarre and unbelievable for public consumption.

This Awareness is not concerned about whether or not this message is released; that it is your choice. This Awareness suggests that if there are other questions in regard to this, that these may be asked, so long as individual names are not included in asking questions about public figures.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Well, about the main question that members write is: they read the information released back in '79, five years ago, about these various public figures which the communications, and Dr. Beter explicitly showed were eliminated and made into substitute entities...the question most often asked is that they want us to explain, as publishers of the information, how come these same people five years later are still in the news, still running for offices, still talking the same old line, look like they always did, sound like they always did and so forth, and we simply don't know what to tell them because Dr. Beter hasn't published any more information on it.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this information was given at the time; it was explained in those readings and in that information at the time that these entities were replaced by those which were called robotoids in some instances, or by those which were called synthetics. This Awareness indicates it takes little stretch of the imagination to realize that if they were replaced once, they can be replaced by still another duplicate.

This Awareness indicates that these synthetics and these robotoids may have been replaced by human doubles. This Awareness reminds you that there are quite often look-alike contests, that many of the movie stars have look-alike doubles; that many of the tabloids on occasion will have contests, searching for entities who look like the new president, and this Awareness suggests that these contests are often sponsored and used by those forces seeking to find doubles to play the parts for these public figures.

This Awareness indicates that down through the ages kings have often had their doubles; that this is no secret. It may be unknown to many of your members, but it is no secret; that there are many who are aware of this; there are many historians who recognize that this has been part of the formula for protecting the monarchies. This Awareness indicates that there are a number of ways whereby entities who are seen at one time may be replaced by another who looks similar.

This Awareness indicates that it is not until you go to a contest or to a convention of twins that you can fully understand this. This Awareness indicates that there are indeed many entities in the world who may look just like you, or enough like you to fool someone if, especially they are told this IS you, and if you do not have the opportunity to go up and discuss intimate things with the entity. This Awareness indicates that wherein an entity goes out to speak to the public whereby the speeches are already written according to a format used by that entity, and whereby the person is protected by the secret service, or other forms of protection, and the entity does not sit and mingle with old friends to talk about old things, the entity may look just like the one you saw elected, but may be an entirely different person altogether, having learned to mimic, having been able to duplicate in appearance the same expressions and features as the first.

This Awareness indicates that It is surprised that entities cannot think these things through for themselves. This Awareness indicates that It is suggesting that entities use some of their brain matter for exploring these areas in a way that allows for a certain clarity to come through their own channel; that it is not the responsibility of Cosmic Awareness Communications to keep track of all of the activities of doubles in the government and to inform the public of the activities of these affairs.

This Awareness indicates that enough has been said in this regard.

IN THE CASE OF "WALK-INS"---

WHAT HAPPENS TO THE ENTITY?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

In reference to Walk-ins, there was a question sent in, (I can't put my finger on it), but the question essentially was: when a Walk-in takes over a living body, what happens to the entity who walks out? Where does he go?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this entity simply departs and moves into another realm, likened unto the passing over. The entity moving toward the Clear Light may continue in that direction, or may seek to avoid the Clear Light, depending on his or her level of evolution. This Awareness indicates essentially, a Walk-in enters at the death of the other departing soul, and creates a continuance in the appearance of the body, keeping the memory of the individual, therefore being able to recall old friends, keeping the habits and characteristics that have been imbedded in the subconscious and in the mental characteristics of the entity.

This Awareness indicates that there will be some change, however, in terms of the attitudes and of the purpose which the entity feels in terms of commitments. This Awareness suggests however, that all of these systems or characteristics of a Walk-in can occur in individuals without necessarily having been replaced by a Walk-in spirit. This Awareness indicates therefore, It is not attempting to give entities guidelines whereby to judge their mate to see if their mate has become a Walk-in, for this could lead to many marital problems as well as possible insanity.

This Awareness indicates that you not concern yourself with your mate being replaced by a Walk-in, particularly if you and your mate are not holding extremely high positions in government, are not holding high positions of influence and importance in levels of decision-making, in relation to the nations and policies. This Awareness indicates that there are rare cases wherein Walk-ins enter into the lives of individuals who are of less than highly qualified in terms of political or social influence. This Awareness suggests however, that this is so rare that most entities should not concern themselves with this.

Some C.A.C. Members are Fixated on Walk-Ins

This Awareness has noticed a problem in regard to many of the Cosmic Awareness Communications membership; this in reference to the trend or tendency of some of these entities to latch on to some concept such as this and begin to fixate, and from that fixation, such entities may begin to assume or wonder if perhaps they have been taken over by a Walk-in for example, or one of their friends has been taken over by a Walk-in, and such entities begin attempting to apply much of the information which this Awareness has given to their own personal lives where it does not belong at all.

This Awareness indicates that many entities are so personalized that they are not discerning clearly, and when this Awareness speaks of possession, some of these entities begin immediately becoming possessed. This Awareness indicates that it is a matter of identification and appears to be a desire to participate in the concept. This Awareness suggests that a concept or idea which is discussed by this Awareness does not necessarily mean that it must apply to you and to your personal life.

This Awareness indicates that many entities ask questions which are of concern to them, either through curiosity or through personal experience; that wherein an entity asks questions about a particular haunting or ghost, or about some Bigfoot monster seen in their area, and this Awareness gives information regarding such events, It does not intend that every entity in the organization should immediately start looking for ghosts and monsters in their back yard.

This Awareness indicates that the information is simply intended to help clear up mysteries in regard to your lives and is not intended to be used by you to personalize your experiences in such a manner as to claim some self-significance by the bizarrism associates with the concept. This Awareness indicates that there is in any organization such as this a tendency for some entities who are somewhat less than stable in terms of being rational and realistic in their thinking, a tendency for many entities who are unstable to be drawn to these organizations simply because they appear 'far out', or fantastic or weird, and they are drawn by the weirdness and the unusual phenomena rather than by the desire to seek information that may be of value.

This Awareness indicates that when entities are drawn into an organization solely for the purpose of getting some bizarre information, it often tends to draw in the entity who is already somewhat unstable, unrealistic, and to influence the entity to become even more unrealistic. This Awareness indicates that It wishes that entities not fixate on all of the information that is particularly unusual, but to recognize the main theme which this Awareness wishes to stress: the main theme being that which is concerned with diminishing the sorrow, suffering and tragedy on this plane.

This Awareness indicates if it were not for this main theme, this Awareness would not even bother to communicate on this plane, for It has no interest in filling in gaps of bizarre information. This Awareness indicates It does this only to relieve the curiosity so that entities can focus on the main purposes of the messages, so that entities can focus on the main concerns of their own lifestyle and living conditions.

This Awareness indicates that wherein entities can be wallowing in pain and agony and still look at these areas that are unusual, unexplainable, and fixate on these areas and ask questions regarding these areas while avoiding the issues at hand—such as the suffering of someone near, the pains and failures of those about, but can focus on: “Why does Bigfoot not come out and meet the press?”, or other questions, this Awareness will attempt to answer these questions in order to alleviate the curiosity so that entities can then look back at other things more meaningful.

This Awareness wishes to keep the focus on the concept and purposes of Its message; to deliver a message which assists entities in diminishing the sorrow, suffering and tragedy on this plane.

ED's Note: for more information on what synthetics eat, and how they operate in the corporate structure etc., please refer to 'Revelations of Awareness' No. 83-18; (What's Really Happening in Central America); $3.00 from CAC.

If you ever wonder about someone you see on TV, and consider that maybe that person might be a synthetic or a double, look at the ears. It is pretty hard to fake a similar pair of ears. During the recent presidential campaign I swear I noticed at least 3 different pair of ears on one candidate who really seemed to get around the country very rapidly. If you refer to 'Revelations of Awareness' No. 79-18 (The Web of Conspiracy); $3.00; you will note the Newsweek article on Pres. Carter, called “A Man of Parts.” This article focused on the president's hair and how it mysteriously changed its part in one day from the right to the left. They did not notice evidently that the new Jimmie Carter on the right looked entirely different from the old Jimmie Carter on the left. Not only the ears were different, but the entire shape of the face. The cleft or scar at the bridge of his nose makes a right angle on the ‘old’ Carter, but is not nearly so severe on the ‘new’ one. (The article was in the May 7, 1979 issue of Newsweek. This was shortly after Dr. Beter released the information president Carter had been shot by the Skoptsis behind the scenes and replaced with a robotoid).

(All together, now.... “Horse manure!”)

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF COMPETITION

...Is there any alternative?

QUESTION:

We have a question from J.L. of Jacksonville, Fla. “I have one question I would like to have answered in one of the general sessions, if it has not been covered previously. Cosmic Awareness has repeatedly referred to elimination of forces that separate individuals from that which is unified. Competition has been referred to repeatedly as a dividing force which separates individuals. Would Awareness please speak on the subject of eliminating competition. So much of society is based on competition and many wondrous accomplishments of our world have been brought about through a need to create better with more refinement. Some things which come to mind are in the field of athletic achievements, art, science, medicine etc. So much of this is also competition within the self. Competition has been such a motivating factor that I am having difficulty imagining a world that has eliminated this element of our society.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are activities whereby one can measure one's capabilities through the mirroring action of another; that this may be termed competition. This Awareness indicates that there is the possibility of an entity competing over thoughts—whether “to be, or not to be.” This Awareness indicates that these may be termed competition. This Awareness indicates that there are potential activities where one may compete against what one has achieved in an effort to achieve something more, something better.

This Awareness indicates that there are possibilities whereby one may seek to beat a record set by another. That these kinds of competition, based on efforts to better oneself, and using something else to measure one's achievements by, that this kind of competition is not that which is harmful either in one's efforts to succeed and to better oneself, nor in one's relationship with another.

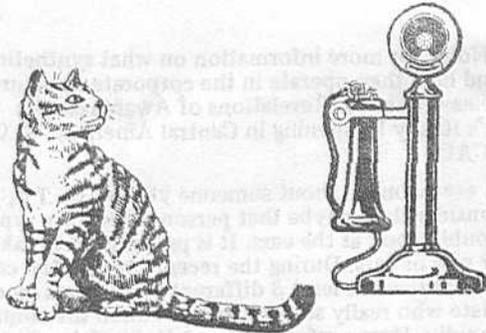

This Awareness indicates that wherein one competes at the expense of another, harming another in order to win, in order to come out on top, chopping off the head of an enemy in order to be greater and to take over the enemy's goods; this kind of competition is that which is not harmonious nor beneficial for entities involved. This Awareness indicates that competition has moved into extremes; that competition has been over-estimated in its value, and that the arenas of Rome, the battlefields of the world, the battles within homes, the wars between entities; all of these competitions, which many entities prize, have left wounded and suffering many entities whose crime was only that they were not armed properly or were weaker than the other. This Awareness indicates that competition is praised by those who win over others; the merits of competition are promoted by those who gain from such competition; that those who are losers are not seen cheering for competition.

This Awareness indicates that the area which this Awareness wishes to stress, wishes entities to look upon, is that area known as cooperation; for ten people cooperating to build a home can accomplish more good in less time than ten people competing to outdo each other and destroy each other's creations. This Awareness indicates two nations at war with one another do not bring nearly the joy and the good and the satisfaction of two nations cooperating and trading with one another while their citizens work to build homes and to build a harmonious society within those nations. This Awareness indicates this as obvious and needs no further discussion.

All truth passes through three stages. First it is ridiculed. Second it is violently opposed. Third it is accepted as being self-evident.

By Schopenhauer

From beyond the grave....

A TELEPHONE CALL FROM "SOOR PUSS"

WHERE DO THE PSYCHIC

AND THE "REAL" MERGE ?

QUESTION:

A question from N.J. that came in about 4 years ago. "You may be interested in the following that happened to me about two years ago after the death of my cat. I expect it is unusual and I am hesitant event to tell anybody about it. I would like to know what Awareness would have to say about it.

"My husband had gone out to a meeting for the evening, leaving me alone in our isolated house, except for our two Belgium Shepherds. As they do not speak, (or at least in human language), they cannot testify for me. My husband had left about 2 hours, when the phone rang. I ran to answer it, thinking it would be him. Imagine my surprise when I picked it up!

"First, there was just an eerie silence, no sound at all, so I asked, "Who is there?", then I could hardly believe my ears when I heard several drawn-out purring meows. They were loud and clear and sounded exactly like Flossie, our grey striped cat whom we had found dead, just over a week before, after she had been hit by a car on the road in front of our house.

"I felt shaken and upset, and put the phone down quickly. I wished later that I had held on longer. I felt very strange, and I think my pulse was racing at about 200 per minutes. When I told my husband about it, he said he believed me but that somebody must had done it as a joke. As far as I know, I don't think we had mentioned her death to anyone outside. We don't see many people out here.

"My husband had one man working for him whom he might have mentioned it to. Flossie had a very distinct and different kind of meow. If somebody had not heard it, it would be difficult to simulate. Another theory my husband put forward was that somebody's cat may have knocked their phone off the hook, and then dialed haphazardly, getting our number, using its paw.

"Flossie was the first cat I had ever owned myself. We took her in at about 2 days old when we found her in our grounds abandoned by her mother. I fed her with a tiny doll's bottle and we had her about two years. I was very fond of her though we used to call her 'Sour Puss' sometimes because of her expression and quick temper. The day before she was run over, I noticed that my step-daughter's little beagle we had staying here had started chasing and worrying her.

"I picked Flossie up and told her it was her home, and that she belonged there. I had decided to put the beagle in the kennels the next day because of this, but alas, I was too late. For weeks after she was killed, we would hear this noise on the front door, like she used to make in the evenings if she wanted to come in that way. It was as though she was throwing herself at it. Perhaps she was trying to let me know she still survived on another plane, or perhaps she thought she was still alive."

Would Awareness please explain what happend in this rather bizarre incident?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is seen an energy whereby this...This Awareness indicates that this requires that this Awareness explain briefly the nature of the being which was the cat. This Awareness indicates that this as being a portion of an entity wherein this portion was experiencing as a cat, and upon death...This Awareness wishes entities who are interested in this type of phenomena to study the works of Percival in regard to animals and these energies of the passing over.* That essentially, that the entity who owned the energies which were in the cat was ready to return to this plane and called forth the energies of the cat, yet the cat as also being closely attached to this entity (the woman), and wishing to have some kind of response of appreciation, did make arrangements with the entity who was preparing to move back into physical form, to allow this communication, this whereby an entity on a phone dialed a number without knowing why or what the number was, essentially dialed the wrong number, receiving the answer, realized it was the wrong number and then hung up; but before hanging up, the entity had opened a connection or line to you which allowed for the spirit to convey a sound to you which was familiar to you as that of the cat.

This Awareness indicates that this as being of natural phenomena, but manipulated from spirit influence; the influence from your cat upon the spirit of the one who was to soon reincarnate in physical form. This Awareness indicates that this as a bizarre area which is difficult to convey to the rational mind which does not have preparation or ground to work for the basis.

This Awareness suggests that wherein entities wish to better understand these things, that you read the works of Percival and of spirit mediums and of poltergeists, and similar types of spirit knockings. This Awareness indicates that it was simply an effort of your cat to convey to you its own survival.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Was that also true of the sounds she heard, like the cat hitting against the front door?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that a more objective researcher, objective in the sense of disbelieving, would conclude that these were sounds and events which this entity heard within her own head or which she heard psychically and mistook to be reality. This Awareness indicates however, that: Who exactly knows where the psychic and the real merge?, where one leaves off and the other begins?

*ED's Note: Everytime we question into this area, Awareness hedges and never quite gets into it, always referring to the book by Percival, "Thinking and Destiny" (available from CAC in the Book Catalog). Awareness has indicated previously that entities raised in a Christian civilization simply can't handle the concept that certain aspects of a person can inhabit animals for purposes that ultimately result in soul advancement. Awareness thinks that CAC would lose a lot of its membership if we published much on this subject (and several others). This editor disagrees. If our members can stick with us through robotoids, synthetics, deros, UFOs, life on Mars etc. etc., it is my belief that they can handle these other concepts. After all, our job in publishing these messages is to help make entities 'aware' in many many different areas. They also have the choice to believe or disbelieve, but should at least have the choice to study the messages and make their own decisions. If they can't handle this or any other subject we publish from the Awareness communications, then in my opinion they simply are not yet ready for Cosmic Awareness in the first place and should drop out. Come on, Awareness, loosen up!

"I sure wish I had one,
big daddy."

CHEAP, MAN-MADE DIAMONDS HAVE ARRIVED!

What will this do to the diamond market?

(Other exciting possibilities)

QUESTION:

It has recently been reported in the Weekly World News, (a supermarket tabloid), that the British government laboratories near Oxford, England, have developed a technique that could devastate the South African diamond monopoly. They have developed a way to "grow" diamonds. These diamonds are indistinguishable from the real diamonds produced by Mother Nature, and the process, which was invented by the British Atomic Energy Authority, also makes it possible to turn inferior flawed stones into perfect ones, repair damaged ones, and increase the size of the stone.

A development like this seems like it would put the diamond mines, the diamond dealers, and especially Israeli diamond markets in New York City, which is the largest in the world, out of business. If the Israeli Zionists are working hand in hand with the British Rothschilds, why then did Britain develop this technique, when it could only ruin one of the major sources of their's and Israel's wealth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that Boeing and Lockheed are working hand-in-hand with the U.S. government, yet they may also be in competition to each other; that this diamond growing activity has no particular loyalty to South Africa or to Israel in a business sense in relation to their diamond market. This Awareness indicates that if two entities are friendly to each other, one having a supermarket on one side of the street, the other being for example, a bank which finances the supermarket, and if the bank invests in an action other than the supermarket in which a new form of food is created which might put the supermarket out of business, or if the bank for example invests in still another supermarket on the other side of town, this does not necessarily mean that they are enemies with the first supermarket.

This Awareness indicates that the economy and the desire for profit at the expense of loyalty to friends is not something new. This Awareness indicates that if the British have discovered, (as it appears this is accurate), that they can manufacture flawless diamonds, that are indistinguishable from the natural diamonds, they may decide, as has been considered recently, that they do not have great need for protecting South Africa much further.

This Awareness indicates that insofar as loyalty to the New York diamond brokers, the British have no particular need to protect their vested interests over their own. That it is simply a matter of shifting loyalties from friendship in which one has been dependent for diamonds in one area, to a loyalty toward one's own inventiveness and ability to profit from a discovery. That the British may work hand-in-hand with a partner so long as the partner is useful, but in a particular area wherein the partner is no longer useful, because the British have discovered a way of manufacturing something which is easier to acquire than going through the partner, they then may dispense with that area of relationship. This does not put the partner out of business, at least not immediately; it simply makes diamonds more available to more entities; that the price in the long run may drop considerably because of the overabundance of diamonds. This Awareness indicates that there are so many entities in the world who will enjoy purchasing diamonds at low cost that there will be much wealth accumulated from this before it ever begins to harm the natural diamond market.

This Awareness indicates that once entities catch on that there is an artificial diamond being created, they will not wish to pay as much for diamonds, and if indistinguishable from the real diamond, then the real diamond will also lose value, but entities will be more willing to buy greater number of diamonds at lower cost, thus entities may have in the future diamond beads hanging 'round their necks, even as entities today wear plastic beads hanging 'round their necks.*

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Awareness, for centuries, the Debeer's diamond monopoly in South Africa has kept the market for diamonds unconscionably high, just to keep the profits of their company high, and they regulate the price by supply and demand, by withdrawing diamonds or putting more on the market, depending on the demand. I have read that the Rothschilds control over 80% of the Debeers' company. How does that fit into the plan?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if these diamonds of the Debeers company were to be all released at one time, the market would drop in the selling of these gems, and in short time the diamond mines would be depleted, therefore, these entities let the diamonds be released slowly and at high prices, in order to prolong the industry. However, when artificial diamonds of equal value or equal quality are created, there is no limitation on the supply and there can be a continual release of these without depleting the amount available. It is only a matter of the cost involved in creating these diamonds.

This Awareness indicates that It foresees a period of approximately 20 years in which diamonds will very slowly drop in value in proportion to the inflation. This Awareness indicates that they may in actuality rise in value in proportion to the monetary cost, but in proportion to other gems, or in proportion to their relative value in the past per unit of cost,--this in reference to the value of the dollar or pound for example,--as compared to the value of the dollar or pound in the future when placed next to a diamond's cost; the cost of the diamond will decrease slightly over the next 20 years, even though its measurable value may increase in terms of its cost.

For example, it may cost more dollars in 1990 than it does today, but then the dollar won't be worth as much; therefore, in actual monetary value it would have dropped. This Awareness indicates that in comparison to a more stable standard, for example the gold Krugerrand, the cost of a diamond of equal value to a gold Krugerrand will drop in the next 20 years in comparison to the value of the Krugerrand.

This Awareness indicates that this drop will not be of extreme significance, but that it appears thereafter that the value of diamonds may begin to drop much more rapidly, so that by the middle of the next century, it appears that diamonds will be relatively common, quite common among the entities of the middle class and even in the lower economic status. That they would compare for example to topaz in value today.

This Awareness indicates that when anything can be mass-produced and is mass-produced at a relatively cheap price, particularly if it has been highly expensive in the past and in high demand, you can expect it to be mass-produced and that the price upon mass-production will diminish in time.

This Awareness does not recommend diamonds as a sound investment for future savings although it is better to invest in something of this nature than to fritter your savings away on other things that are not even this sound, such as gambling or spending for things which you cannot use.

Ed's Note:

After this reading on diamonds, I shuffled through my pile of papers, looking for an ad I received through the mail, and had set aside for possible use later. It was from an outfit called VanPler Tissany, a London Jewelry firm with offices in Beverly Hills, California. They stated that a new process of making diamonds had been invented in England, and they were offering these for the first time in the U.S. at prices that would make you laugh. (A 1 carat diamond for $15, 2 carat for $30, 3 carat for $45, 4 carat for $60.) The ad offered a lifetime warranty and challenged the buyer to take it to any jeweler and have it tested. (Over 75% of the jewelers testing the fake, could not tell the difference from a real diamond, the ad stated). In addition, it is faceted in the same manner as the real thing, and the final kicker was that it would cut glass as easily as a real diamond. Since diamonds are supposed to be the girl's best friend, and the price of these Van Pler diamonds were more along my style, I sent them a check for $60 for their largest 4 carat diamond). There was a $2.00 postage charge added. When the diamond arrived, I checked it out, and it looked like the real thing to me. It sparkled and twinkled in regular light, and outside in the sunshine it really did a number. I touched it to a glass window and it immediately cut a deep streak into the glass. The diamond comes unmounted; you will have to take it to a jewelry store for the mounting, or you can get one from the Van Pler Tissany company. I presented it to one of my ladies one romantic night amidst candlelight and wine and poached salmon, and that simple event created one of the most interesting and memorable evenings I have ever experienced. (My but that lady was grateful for that little of diamond. She just couldn't thank me enough). She was still extremely grateful weeks later when I saw her again, --there does appear to be something about diamonds that makes their greedy little eyes twinkle and their hearts jump with affection. Although I told her it was a fake diamond, she either thought I was joking, or she had it checked out at her jewelry store, her lavish appreciation for this little gift has continued to this very day. This editor heartily recommends to all you fellows out there who wish to make your wife or girlfriend happy, --filled with gratitude and heartfelt thanks and trying to think of ways she could make it all up to you,-- to write to this company and get their prices and information. (They may have gone up slightly since I bought mine), or enclose the amount shown above and tell them to bill you for any difference. The address:

Van Pler & Tissany,
256 S. Robertson, Suite 8352
Beverly Hills, California, 90211

Good hunting!
(Avaton)

WILL CHANGING ITS CALENDAR PREVENT ISRAEL'S DESTRUCTION?

(MORE ON HOW ENERGIZING WORKS)

QUESTION:

There was an article in the paper recently regarding the Jewish calendar, and I'd like to read a little of this and ask a question. It says:

"From Tel Aviv, Israel, Education Minister Zevulun Hammer has formerly proposed that the letters of the acronym for the coming Hebrew year be rearranged because it has the meaning of destruction.

"By the Hebrew calendar, the year beginning next fall will be the 5,744th since Creation. Hebrew years are known by the alphabetic equivalent of their digits, so that 5744 will produce the acronym TASHMAD, whose grammatical root means "destruction." Hammer would replace that with SHADMAT, connoting fields or birds.

"It illustrates the remaining influence of Jewish mysticism in modern Israel, and the palpable sense of danger that hangs over the very word "destruction." Every Israeli learns in school how his nation was destroyed twice in bible times, how 6 million Jews were destroyed by the Nazis, and how the Arabs continue to plot the destruction of the Jewish state.

"A communique from Hammer's office said the minister was proposing to the Ministerial Committee on Symbols and Ceremonies that the letters be rearranged. Hammer's communique said that the ministerial committee would deal with the proposal speedily, and that if it was accepted, all public institutions would be urged to use SHADMAT instead of TASHMAD.

"The relationship between letters and numbers has deep significance for religious Jews. It has produced the ancient practice of gematria, in which the numerical value of biblical words or phrases were added up in search of hidden meanings. Some Israelis make a hobby of gematria, patiently computing phrases in the news in a quest for numerical coincidences, which supposedly point to secret messages. Many publish their findings in the letter columns of newspapers."

My question is: In light of what the state of Israel has been doing in the world situation, and in light of biblical prophecy, this seems to be more than coincidence, this word, this acronym 'Destruction.' Would Awareness indicate whether this is just a coincidence, or is this part of a prophecy that may or may not come true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that first one must remember that the entire universe is made up of consciousness, which often takes the form of material objects, or which takes the form of thoughts, or which takes the form of numbers or writings. This consciousness, as that which in taking form, carries with it certain energy, and that energy has what may be termed a peculiarity or personality; therefore, letters and numbers, having in themselves some peculiarity or personality, other than just the surface meaning.

This Awareness indicates that wherein the energies are enhanced by thought, by awareness, by the conscious movement or manipulation of thoughts, energies, words, letters, traditions and such, those energies take on even greater significance because they are charged with those added thoughts, thus, when entities charge the name of Jesus, for example, with reverence and respect, the name takes on greater power than it would have if entities had not so focused on that name.

How Tarot Cards Work

When entities use that name in a kind of sacriligious or profane manner, it creates a discharge of the energies attributed to the name. Likewise, in the creation of a system, a system of numbering, or a system of numbering with letters and a coding or decoding program associated with that, whenever this system is charged and energized by masses, over long periods of time, the system takes on a kind of vitality that it would not have if entities had not charged that system.

This Awareness indicates it is for this reason that the Tarot cards have certain potential value, because so many entities over such a long period of time have energized this system; thus the system, in following the energy, in carrying the energy, in doing what it is supposed to do, flows through the universe of energies, flows through the Universal Consciousness, in a manner whereby it acts in a prescribed way, even though it may look haphazard when watching one shuffle the cards and throw these cards.

This Awareness indicates in the use of the Kaballa and numerology, and whereby this system of the Jewish number and letter evaluation is enhanced and promoted down through the ages of time; wherein entities alter the system at a particular time, to avoid that which they, by their system have created, this alteration is but a makeshift action which can only slightly alter the energies. The alteration is however, effective to some degree; to the degree that all of the people of Israel see this in the new meaning, they will cease to energize the old meaning, and will enhance the new image, thus bringing a greater likelihood of survival and peace during this time period, than if all of the entities were seeing that which represented destruction.

This Awareness indicates that even though the masses may recognize all of these new energies, and energize the new energies of that new arrangement of words, still those who are familiar with the method or system, will be aware of the great danger of the system, even though it has been altered. This Awareness indicates that this is likened unto attempting to change the horoscope of a child by changing the time of birth on the birth certificate. This Awareness indicates that it can only have an effect on the belief system of those who observe the birth certificate, and in so affecting their consciousness, may have some alteration of events slightly because of the environmental expectations, while the actual universal energies and true horoscope remains intact.

This Awareness indicates that likewise in this system, the energies shall continue to move, even though they were disrupted by a conscious alteration of numbers, and there is some significant threat to Israel, as a threat of destruction, during its year, yet the alteration of the numbers as also defused this threat somewhat. This Awareness indicates that likewise, the numbers and the system are not compelling, even if they had been left intact. They do not compel that this nation would be destroyed at this time.

COSMIC AWARENESS: WHAT IT CAN AND WHAT IT CANNOT DO FOR ENTITIES ON THIS PLANE

(Why doesn't Awareness just interfere...?)

QUESTION:

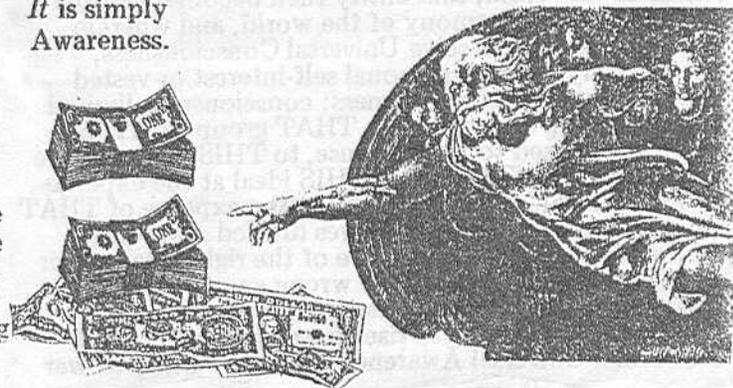

Awareness has answered this question more or less in the past, or facets of it, but it does keep cropping up, and maybe It would give a little more clarification. This is from D.D. in the Philippine Islands. He writes:

"I am puzzled and I want to ask a question. God is described as an etheric principle. Awareness says It is etheric too, hence, Awareness is God, right? Awareness is all-powerful, all-loving, all-good, with Its goodness extending throughout the universe, so, Awareness was unable to stop the destruction of the planet Maldek, the destruction of Atlantis...As nothing is impossible for my beloved Awareness, can It not stop the destruction of this world by nuclear war? Can It not stop the President from his plans to reevaluate the American currency? Cannot Awareness stop this Ahriman advance throughout the universe? It must be remembered that Awareness is all-powerful and all-loving. Please! There must be some answer!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that again, by the very nature of the question, this entity has confused the name Awareness with a personified being. This Awareness indicates that entities too often are looking for someone 'Out There', some individual, some person or some deity in the shape of a person, or having a personality, looking for the person to solve the problem.

This Awareness indicates that this Awareness IS Awareness, and if you do not understand the meaning of the name or word Awareness, that you look this up in the dictionary. That being Cosmic Awareness does not give It weapons, or great armies, or some kind of machines, or some type of mystical power to interfere in the lives of entities who are unaware; It is simply Awareness.

When an energy is Cosmically Aware, or is experiencing the Universal Mind, is that Universal Mind capable of interfering with the mind that is without a concept of interfering; is the Universal Mind capable of forcing, of forcing the ignorant separative consciousness to become Universal? Is the Universal Mind capable of causing that which is polarized to suddenly become unpolarized because it is not acting right in its nature of polarity?

This Awareness indicates that all this Awareness can do is to help make others aware, by giving others the opportunity to become aware if they so desire. This Awareness cannot even force entities to become aware. It can only give opportunities whereby entities desire to become aware, and in those opportunities It can give information to help entities who seek the information. That there are so many entities on the earth plane who would prefer to let the Divine Force attack and destroy the Forces of Evil, and would lament and criticize and condemn the Divine Force for not doing so and for allowing suffering from the Forces of Evil without actually realizing that the Force of Evil is nothing more than ignorance, lack of Awareness, lack of understanding, and therefore, the Force of Evil is that sense of separateness which causes an entity to attack another, feeling that there are oppositions which must be destroyed in order for the one to survive at the expense of the other.

This Awareness indicates that from the viewpoint of this Awareness It can only look at these hostilities of one part of Itself being expressed as separateness, attacking another part which sees Itself as separateness, and attempting to wipe each other out; It can only look at this as a process of activity occurring in consciousness that is creating tragedy and suffering within the body of this Awareness. This Awareness indicates that the fall of Lucifer essentially is the concept of separateness, wherein one aspect of consciousness saw itself as separate from the rest and sought significance in that separateness and thus, in its separateness, began to attack the other aspects of consciousness, creating conflict within consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that those entities who are seeing this Awareness as an extension of their own father in the sense of the family provider, being used to having a family provider whereby the father goes out and gets that which is necessary to supply the sustenance for the family; those entities who then, growing into adulthood desire to perpetuate this type of security very often extend the concept of their family father to that of the Heavenly Father and imagine that the Deity, or Universal Consciousness is an individual who is sitting up there dispensing goodies or withholding goodies for purposes of punishment or reward.

This Awareness indicates that when It communicates to entities on this plane, Its purpose is not to dispense goodies or to withhold goodies for the purpose of punishment or reward; Its purpose is to convey Awareness, to convey concepts of Awareness that are universal in scope, and if an entity can perceive a Universal Awareness and apply that perception to the affairs of the world, that entity then becomes capable of adding to the harmony of the world, and wherein an entity cannot perceive Universal Consciousness, but can only perceive personal self-interest or vested interests-types of consciousness: consciousness limited to THIS group as opposed to THAT group, to THIS cause as opposed to THAT cause, to THIS action at the expense of THAT action, to THIS ideal at the expense of THAT ideal, to THIS culture at the expense of THAT culture; the entity who perceives divided Awareness, conflicting Awareness, is aware of the right weapon for the right time to destroy the wrong enemy, to destroy the other aspect that is threatening his position; the entity who is not able to rise above this conflict and see from a Universal Awareness that the futility of war and violence, of hostility and greed and suffering and power over others; that this futility is ever-present in such conflict; the entity who sees this limited Awareness, is the entity that is bringing about the chaos and sorrow, suffering and tragedy on this plane.

This Awareness indicates that It only has the power to inform and to make others aware, if others desire to become aware, to understand the Universal Awareness concepts. This Awareness indicates that It does not have the power to intervene. It does not use the power to intervene directly in the affairs of man. It can only intervene through Its influence in consciousness upon those who are open to receive and to experience Universal Awareness.

This Awareness indicates that It has long ago given that: you are the eyes and ears, the arms and legs of this Awareness; you are the hands and feet of this Awareness; it is through you that this Awareness acts, for this Awareness is nothing other than Consciousness, Universal Consciousness.

RUSSIAN BASES IN THE ARCTIC

COSMIC AWARENESS:

D.A. has a question: "Intelligence experts have been trying to figure out what they see appearing on some weather satellite photographs that were taken between February and April of 1982 on a remote Soviet island above the Arctic Circle, off Siberia. They are still not sure today what is happening there. They described the event as "explosive", and in the satellite photograph there are some plumes of smoke that are unexplainable. One of the plumes rose almost 4 miles in the air, (see photo enclosed). And he enclosed a satellite photo showing a straight plume, cylindrical in shape, of smoke going way way up in the air. "These plumes are much too large to be from any type of industrial activity, and any type of activity that is carried on in the Arctic Circle, away from prying eyes, is probably military." Could Awareness comment on this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is seen a deep shaft; that this appears to be the creation of a base under the island; that it appears there is some activity hollowing out with the use of certain types of chemical energies used in hollowing out a large area. This Awareness indicates that it appears to be a military base in the making. This Awareness indicates that the plume moves straight up in a column due to a lack of wind currents in that area at the time.

THE LAW OF MERCY

(Symbol: the blue pearl)

The Law of Mercy is that Law which allows one to forgive all error, to forgive equally those who err against you as you err against them. This is to be merciful. To be merciful is akin to the Law of Love, and if one obeys the Law of Mercy, there can be no error in the world.

Cosmic Awareness

REVELATIONS OF AWARENESS is a cosmic newsletter, published by Cosmic Awareness Communications, PO Box 115, Olympia, Washington, 98507. (A not-for-profit org.) (Free information on request)

Stalin's daughter returns to Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — Josef Stalin's daughter, Svetlana, has returned to Moscow and her Soviet citizenship has been restored, the official news agency Tass said today. She defected 17 years ago. The presidium of the U.S.S.R. Supreme Soviet, in accordance with articles 19 and 21 of U.S.S.R. law on citizenship, has considered and complied with a request made by S.I. Alliluyeva, who has returned to Moscow, for restoring her to the citizenship of the U.S.S.R. as well as for granting Soviet citizenship to Alliluyeva's daughter Olga," the Tass announcement said.

The brief dispatch did not say when Stalin's 55-year-old daughter returned to the Soviet Union nor where she planned to live. Olga is her daughter by her third husband, an American, William Peters.

Alliluyeva was Svetlana's mother's last name. Although she later used other names, she was once known as Svetlana Alliluyeva.

Svetlana defected in 1967 during a trip to New Delhi, India, and went to live in the United States. There, she married Peters, but they were divorced in 1973. Last year she moved from Princeton, N.J., to Cambridge, England.

John Woods, headmaster of her daughter Olga's school in Britain, said Thursday night that Svetlana told him in October she was taking her 13-year-old daughter...

A Western diplomat in Moscow said earlier today that Svetlana and her daughter were U.S. citizens. Svetlana left a son and daughter in Moscow when she defected.

Kissinger protest dispersed by police

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Police used riot clubs yesterday to disperse a crowd of 300 demonstrators hurling rocks and marbles outside a hotel where former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger was speaking.

About 150 people were arrested, police said.

Hundreds of riot police cleared the streets surrounding the Hilton Hotel when demonstrators chanted "CIA out of Nicaragua" and "CIA orders to disperse." Helmeted police and mounted officers waded into the crowd to push the demonstrators off the streets.

Some demonstrators carried signs reading "Kissinger is a Killer" and "Imperialism." Kissinger...

Svetlana Alliluyeva, Stalin's daughter returns led a television program in her life for the British Broadcasting Corp. In 1962, Svetlana said: "I had an idea she'd go back. I think she is fed up with America and fed up with...

added: "She has two children in Russia and two grandchildren she has never seen. I know when she stayed with me on a record of a Christian Russian Orthodox when I looked at her I saw weeping."

Oregon demonstrators protest militarization of children's toys

EUGENE, Ore.

About 30 people protested the sale of military toys at the entrance to Toys "R" Us, Eugene's newest and largest toy store.

The demonstration was organized by Families for Survival, a group of about 120 Eugene-area families formed three years ago to work for peace.

"We're concerned about what we see as the increasing militarization of children's toys," said group spokeswoman Nancy Bray on Friday.

The store's manager in Eugene referred questions to corporate headquarters in New Jersey, where Michael Goldstein, vice president in charge of finance and administration, said the store wouldn't stock the toys if they didn't sell.

Protesters try to foil N-base radio

MUTLANGEN, West Germany (UPI) — Police plucked two peace demonstrators from a radio tower at a U.S. Pershing II missile base yesterday and said they arrested nine other people in violence that capped an anti-American march during the weekend in Frankfurt.

A representative of the West German peace movement, which has a permanent encampment outside the U.S. Army's Mutlangen Pershing nuclear missile base near Stuttgart, said two demonstrators scaled the army radio tower to disrupt its signal with aluminum foil.

World Court foils U.S. motion

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — The World Court ruled today that it does have jurisdiction over Nicaragua's complaint that the United States was "waging armed attacks" aimed at toppling the Sandinista government.

The ruling foiled a U.S. motion to dismiss the complaint, which was filed April 9. The United States claimed that Nicaragua never recognized the authority of the World Court and thus the court had no authority in the case.

In a 15-1 vote asserting jurisdiction, the court said Nicaragua "had unconditionally declared that it recognized the jurisdiction of the court by signing and ratifying the charter of the United Nations" under which the court is constituted.

Kissinger, Nixon still in limelight

I should like to add to the comment in Marylin Gregory's Oct. 8 letter regarding former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's quote: "God may punish me, but I rather like Gromyko."

If Kissinger believes in God's punishment he must believe that God is all merciful and that he can sin, and sin, and sin again and again, and be forgiven. His and former President Richard Nixon's part in the Vietnam war should never be forgotten. And what they did in Cambodia is even worse. The secret bombing engineered by the unholy two resulted in the destruction of that beautiful country, and the reign of Pol Pot who is responsible for the massacre of millions of people, but Pol Pot is still recognized by the U.S.

Methinks the U.S. speaks with forked tongue. Kissinger and Nixon have no shame. They continue to be in the limelight and are consulted by our so-called leaders and give advice on foreign affairs. That's like getting advice from Hitler.

It is painful to realize that our country which "so proudly we halled" is looked on with disbelief by other countries for actions taken in recent years — interfering in a civil war in Southeast Asia, invading Grenada and trying to force our will on the countries of Central America.

The deposed Nixon, the man who disgraced our country receives a pension, Secret Service protection, etc. These benefits should be paid only to presidents who serve their country well. Anyone who will do what he did to bring shame on his country, and divide the people as he did is a traitor.

President John F. Kennedy's advice was: "Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country." Nixon and Kissinger have reversed that advice. Of course, they are not the only ones who continue to add to the huge deficit, now $1.6 trillion.

Now it is rumored that if Reagan is re-elected Nixon will be rewarded with a roaming ambassadorship, the chairmanship of some commission on foreign affairs, or a similar position (Parade, Oct. 14).

Who says crime doesn't pay?

MARY O'NEILL HAYES

Red Cross drops ban on book

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — The International Committee of the Red Cross on Wednesday dropped its legal case against a book written by one of its former delegates who served in El Salvador.

Almost two years after obtaining a lower court injunction banning "Kupferstunde," the all-Swiss organization said it would no longer seek enforcement of the order that had caused a nationwide controversy.

A Red Cross communique stressed, however, that it continued to object to the book and reaffirmed its argument that Balmer had violated the confidentiality pledge signed by all delegates...

feelings and maintain strict impartiality despite his sympathies for anti-government forces in El Salvador.

The book, whose title refers to a "copper hour" before nightfall, came out first in 1982 but was quickly withdrawn from bookshelves after the Red Cross obtained an injunction against its Swiss publisher.

However, Balmer ignored the court injunction and published the book himself last December. It has been on Swiss bestseller lists for the past three months.

Red Cross director Jacques Moreillon told reporters the agency had decided to call off its legal fight because it felt its initial action against the book had...

dre Hay, in a letter addressed to all Red...

"The...

...to victim...

ten of could...

"copper...

cause the vic...

Force is planning an underground...

willstand nuclear attack, the New...

York Times reported yesterday.

from I. The Times quoted Defense De... partment officials as saying the plan...

Cross) for the underground base had been...

tors, see with the are seek...

letter as...

...to them...

...to them...

...to them...

36 arrested at Fort Lewis for Grenada invasion protest

FORT LEWIS (AP) — A demonstration outside the main gate of this Army base on the first anniversary of the U.S. invasion of Grenada has resulted in charges against 36 people.

Those arrested were among some 200 demonstrators who carried signs and banners, chanted anti-Reagan slogans and sang protest songs Thursday, military officials said.

Fort Lewis, 15 miles north of Olympia, is the home of the 2nd Battalion, 7th Infantry Division Rangers, who participated in the invasion.

The non-violent but noisy demonstration was organized by Northwest Direct Action Network, a coalition of activist groups. Base officials said civilian demonstrators were arrested...

Files to expand

WASHINGTON — An FBI advisory group has approved testing of a computer file that could enable investigative agencies across the nation to exchange names of white-collar crime suspects and their associates, an agency spokesman confirmed early today.

Information about suspects available from the file would include names, addresses, aliases, and material about associates, as well as their Social Security and Selective Service numbers plus the numbers of their passports, driver's licenses and automobile licenses.

Dogs rate over wife

PARKLAND (AP) — A man seized his estranged wife at gunpoint, released her in exchange for his two dogs and surrendered to Pierce County sheriff's deputies four hours later, authorities said.

Glen Stayton, 28, was being held in the county jail in Tacoma Saturday for investigation of kidnapping and first- and second-degree assault, deputies said.

Ball set at the time of booking was $25,000, according to corrections officer Richard Mallimore. Stayton was expected to face arraignment Monday afternoon in Pierce County Superior Court.

His estranged wife Yvonne, 24, was treated for two broken fingers, the only injury in the episode. No shots were fired.

Africans starving

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — Africa's prolonged drought has left 35 million people desperately hungry and caused "the worst human disaster in the recent history" of the continent, according to a United Nations report released today.

Underground missile base in planning stage

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Air Force is planning an underground nuclear missile base that could withstand nuclear attack, the New York Times reported yesterday. The Times quoted Defense Department officials as saying the plan for the underground base had been under study for two years. Officials said the Air Force sent a top secret report to Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger in July saying that basing missiles underground is militarily and technically feasible.

Officials said the cost would be...

Protesters arrested

WASHINGTON — Twenty-one men and women, including the Rev. Daniel Berrigan, were arrested today after they blocked the Northwest gate of the White House, kneeling in prayer and shouting slogans denouncing President Reagan's policies and his invasion of Grenada one year ago. Organizers for the Community for Creative Nonviolence said today's arrests bring the number of demonstrators taken into custody outside the White House during almost daily protests this month to 101.

What's the secret?

WASHINGTON (AP) — A gift shop at NASA's Johnson Space Center in Houston is selling souvenir envelopes that provide detailed drawings and the official code name of a top secret Navy space project, according to Aviation Week and Space Technology magazine.

The aerospace industry publication said the souvenir postal covers, which sell for $1 apiece, show a detailed drawing of the Whitecloud satellite — a mother spacecraft and three smaller craft that can be separated in orbit to fan out over a large area and scan the oceans.

The magazine quoted officials at the Naval Research Laboratory as saying that the ocean research satellite program is so secret that its code name — Project Whitecloud — is not even supposed to be used...

Newsletter seizing is defended

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Securities and Exchange Commission will continue to ask courts to close down financial newsletters that violate its rules but the agency is "not attempting to regulate journalists," the SEC's director of the division of enforcement said yesterday.

Soviets step up missile output

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has deployed at least 387 SS-20 medium-range nuclear missiles and at least 10 new bases are under construction, the State Department said yesterday.

The total more than doubled the number of mobile, triple-warhead missiles that the Soviets had deployed in 1979 when NATO decided to counter them with new U.S. Pershing 2 and cruise missiles.

So far, 91 Pershing II and cruise missiles have been deployed in West Europe, targeted at the Soviet...

Justice assaults citizens' rights

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department has mounted a quiet assault on the individual's right to sue state and local governments for violating due process of law.

As justification, department officials have cited the lack of old-fashioned discipline that has supposedly turned the nation's schools into blackboard jungles.

Using this bogeyman, the officials hope to scare Congress into amending a 113-year-old law that guarantees the right of an injured citizen to sue local authorities who misbehave.

How the Justice Department got from fractious school kids to a legal shield for highland officials is a weird and frightening story. My associate Indy Badwar has pieced it together from various sources, including a telltale memo the Justice Department refused to release under the Freedom of Information Act.

In 1871, Congress passed 42 USC 1983, known as the Anti-Ku Klux Klan Act, to protect individuals from the excesses of state and local governments. Since then it has been the principal legal vehicle for citizens to claim in federal court that their constitutional rights have been violated by local authorities. It was under the anti-Klan law, for example, that Brown vs. Board of Education was brought, leading to the Supreme Court-ordered desegregation of the nation's public schools.

Written by Byron White

For more than a century, ultra-conservatives have fought the anti-Klan law and the "judicial activism" they claim it encouraged. The Brown decision was a bitter defeat. Then in 1975 another school-based Supreme Court case brought under the 1871 law galvanized the conservatives anew. In Goss vs. Lopez, the high court ruled that a student facing arbitrary suspension or expulsion from school was entitled to due process.

The decision, written by moderately conservative Justice Byron White, simply gave students facing disciplinary action the right to tell

Senate bypassed

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Bypassing the Senate, President Reagan appointed 11 people to the Legal Services Corp.'s board of directors Friday, including a man whose nomination a Senate committee had refused to approve.

Reagan had asked the Senate earlier this year to confirm the nominations of former congressional aide Michael B. Wallace and 10 others to the board, but the Senate did not act on the request.

In the past four years, the Senate has not approved any of Reagan's nominees to the board of the corporation he has repeatedly tried to abolish. The board oversees legal assistance to the poor.

Hammer urges U.S.: No first use

MOSCOW (AP) — The United States should match the Soviet Union's pledge not to be the first to use nuclear weapons so "we'll all be able to sleep easy," American industrialist Armand Hammer said today after meeting with Soviet President Konstantin U. Chernenko.

Hammer, 86, head of the Los Angeles-based Occidental Petroleum Corp., has had ties with Soviet officials dating back to a 1921 meeting with Vladimir I. Lenin, founder of the world's first Communist nation.

their side of the story. But states' rights activists reacted with horror, claiming that the decision disarmed teachers and school administrators in their uphill struggle to maintain discipline.

A Gallup Poll last year showed that fewer than one teacher in five nationwide thought lack of discipline was a major school problem. But President Reagan, in a pre-campaign sop to his conservative support base, launched a publicity campaign for more "good old-fashioned discipline in school."

It was about this time that the Justice Department quietly got into the act. Exactly why is not clear.

Whatever the motivation, a 10-page memo written by Roger Clegg, director of the department's Office of Legal Policy, suggested using the hue and cry over school discipline as a tool to dismantle the 1871 anti-Klan law.

Sources who have seen the memo say it includes proposals to make state and local officials immune from lawsuits that arise from their "discretionary" actions; to require that citizens filing suit demonstrate that violations of the constitutional rights by local officials were "knowing and willful," and to increase the burden of proof on plaintiffs who try to take government officials to court.

The 1871 law has served the nation well. It is often the only remedy available to protect an individual's constitutional rights. Yet the Justice Department is trying to eviscerate the law by drumming up hysteria over the issue of school discipline.

The $16 billion bank bail-out

Most Americans may have missed an extraordinarily important bit of information that was buried deep in the pages of most newspapers: the bail-out of the Continental Illinois Bank may cost the public more than $16 billion.

That estimate comes from House Banking Committee Chairman Ferdinand St. Germain, who called the Continental collapse "the granddaddy of bank failures."

St. Germain said that the costs of the bail-out include $4.5 billion from the Federal Deposit Insurance Company to buy the bank's bad loans, along with an additional $1 billion from the FDIC in new capital, $7.2 billion from the Federal Reserve, and $4 billion in funds that the Federal Reserve asked commercial banks to move to Continental Illinois.

Yet there has been little outcry by the Reaganites and

Marines kick off war games in the California desert

TWENTYNINE PALMS, Ca (UPI) — Bombs, tanks, screams, jets and helicopters shattered the desert calm yesterday as 4,100 Marines from around the state began three days of war games.

The 832-square-mile Mar Corps Air Ground Combat Center Twentynine Palms is the only place where Marines are allowed to use live ammunition when ceiling in strikes and artillery fire for mock battles, center spokesman Sgt. El Carlson said.

The exercises, which will cost $ million to $5 million, have been planned since May and have nothing to do with the situation in Nicaragua, Carlson said. "This is the desert and Nicaragua is a lunatic."

Peacenik arrested

MOSCOW (AP) — Authorities arrested a member of Moscow's only known unofficial peace group, members of the organization told Western reporters.

The group members said the arrest Wednesday was the third time Nikolai Khramov, 21, has been arrested since he joined the unsanctioned group six months ago. He was held for 15 days each of the two previous times, they said.

The earlier arrests were in connection with Khramov's refusal to be drafted into the Soviet military, the group said.

Khramov was arrested in a public square by a militia member and a plainclothesman and taken away in a car, the group members said.

The group to Establish Trust Between the U.S.S.R. and the U.S.A. was set up in 1982 to disarmament.

Plutonium missing at Hanford

RICHLAND, Wash. (AP) — Between 10 and 12 kilograms of plutonium are unaccounted for at

Man died holding Bible

DALLAS (AP) — Wesley Whalon was a loner who frequently left town without telling anyone. So when he disappeared 10 months ago, his sister thought he had reverted to his sinful ways after being "saved" by the Lord.

What Dorothy Williams didn't know was that her brother had died alone sometime around last Christmas. Earlier this month his decomposed body was found in his home in a kneeling position, his hands clutching a Bible, authorities said.

Mrs. Williams said she often went to her brother's house during the 10 months that he was missing. She said she peered through the windows, but could see nothing, and didn't want to break in.

"I think it was very strange they found him in the house I had been to 80 or 90 times," Mrs. Williams said Sunday, one day after her brother's funeral. "I just didn't want to break the law" by breaking into the home, she said.

"Nobody seemed to know where he was."

Bacteria sprayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army simulated a germ warfare attack two decades ago by spraying bacteria on bus and airplane passengers in the District of Columbia, according to declassified Pentagon documents released through a Freedom of Information Act request.

The documents, released Monday by the Church of Scientology, show the tests were intended to see how a disease would spread if it were introduced in a place where travelers congregated. The papers did not say how many passengers had actually been sprayed.

The District of Columbia tests used Bacillus Subtilis, according to the documents. The documents indicate the Army wanted to test the ability of using smallpox as a

Plutonium missing at Hanford

PUREX was shut down for a month in October so that an inventory could be conducted, said Michael Lawrence.

than our operational limits had set," Lawrence acknowledged.

the press about the Continental bail-out, especially compared to the controversy created by the $1.5 billion in loan guarantees that the Chrysler Corporation sought in 1979.

In the case of Chrysler, conservatives demanded severe wage concessions from Chrysler workers as a condition for the loan guarantees to the corporation, thereby setting a precedent for wage concessions which has spread widely since then.

But in the case of Continental Illinois, which involves more than 10 times the public money at risk in the Chrysler bail-out, conservatives have been strangely silent about calling for painful sacrifices. Unlike Chrysler, where workers made the sacrifice of several thousand dollars apiece, the Continental Illinois bail-out offered full protection to the bank's wealthy bondholders and depositors who potentially faced huge losses.

As the distinguished economist Robert Lekashman observed, "The losses of private corporation are coerced by the public. Losses are socialized, profits remain private. Larger enterprises remain sheltered. Small ones must fend for themselves."

Fraud Is Charged in West Virginia 2 men charged in deadly germs deal

A vote fraud scandal of monumental proportions is brewing in West Virginia, where Republican senatorial candidate John Raese is going public in a big way by calling in the FBI to look into "over 100 instances of documented voter fraud" in the November 6 contest won by Democrat Jay Rockefeller by a slim 5-percent margin.

He said he had a most interesting meeting," Hammer said. leader two questions — whether Among the methods of voter fraud cited by Raese in a November 13 Ch. "soon meeting he had requested with assistant U.S. Attorney Jack Keister were vote buying, machine manipulation, computer "failure" and even old-fashioned ballot box stuffing in counties using paper ballots.

Raese is reportedly "getting a lot of heat not to pursue the vote fraud investigation," according to Braden Shultz, manager of the Raese campaign, on loan from the Republican Senatorial BUFFALO, N.Y. — Two Canadians were arraigned yesterday in connection with an alleged attempt to acquire potentially deadly microorganisms and smuggle the germs to Canada.

Bail for the two men, Kevin T. Arch, 36, of Toronto, and James B. Cahoon, 35, of Mississauga, Ontario, was set at $25,000 each.

An ID disc attached to a tooth.

A real mouthful

A Pekin, Ill., dentist is actually encouraging parents to put black spots on their children's teeth. The spots aren't tooth decay, they're tooth display — tiny, microfilm identification discs cemented to teeth. The purpose: to help identify a child in case of a mishap. The disc would also be useful for the elderly, amnesia victims and the mentally ill, says Dr. Jeffrey Maxwell. It takes only a few minutes to be bonded to a tooth, and drilling is not required. The disc can be removed, and the information on it viewed through a magnifying glass.

U.S. Army gears up for 'Thrust'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Preparations for a major Army exercise "Thrust," named "Quick Country" yesterday that the United States might be gearing up for military action in Nicaragua.

Pentagon spokesmen said the long-planned maneuvers have nothing to do with the suspected Soviet shipments of MiG-21 fighters.

Callers to UPI from New Jersey to California asked whether the cancellation of leaves and other preparations were connected to deto cancel us for an id. Dec. 7 Army Div. the 8th Air spokes-not going to quit until all the facts made public," Raese said. "We're slightly concerned if the Rockefeller people want to label us as 'poor.' When this kind of fraud happens everybody is a loser and hot Raese camp is convinced the of leaked media Election Day polling" techniques, which I Raese was leading Rockefeller lim margin statewide in the early were responsible for the panicky vote tactics by the Rockefeller to buy votes and manipulate the ing process.

e closeness of the election came as a surprise to them," Raese said. "It appears they chose an so method of winning."

FBI spokesman John Thurston said orders were placed for botulism