COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speak again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully-trained channels. The information contained herein was received from deep super-conscious 'trance' levels and 'interpreted' by an entity affiliated with C.A.C. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. WHY DO SOME MEN WITH LOYAL, DEVOTED WIVES CHASE AFTER OTHER WOMEN ?

QUESTION:

A question from Mrs. S.W. in Pennsylvania. There's actually more than one question, but I think the basic question concerns guilt.

"I would like Awareness to comment on things that are happening too often to men lately. My husband was in a truck stop, as far as I understand it, and seemed lonely, when a waitress started a conversation with him. Later, after she was off work, she went to his room and satisfied his immediate needs for which now the guilt has been building. He does not know that I know. I would like to help him get it out of his system so he will not feel guilty anymore.

"I love him very much. We have been married for about 29 years, and it has not happened before that I know of, but things have been getting worse between the two of us. He has been rejecting me, does not want to have anything to do with me, and he has not communicated well for the past two and a half to three years. I would like to know why he lets this happen; why he could not trust me enough to tell me about it. Also, this summer, I know he went on the East coast--Delaware, New Jersey, Atlantic City, and so forth. What was he searching for?

"Maybe people would like to know why men do these strange things while their wives stay clean and keep their marriage vows? Thanks for hearing me out, but I needed to confide in someone. I had suspected something for a long time, and so forth..."

I think basically what she's asking is that she feels the problem is mainly guilt and what can she do to help her husband rid himself of guilty feelings about this situation.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there appear to be two concerns in this question. That the concern in regard to why men stray from their wives as that which is of legitimate concern, particularly wherein the wife herself is so devoted and loyal to the marriage, and marriage vows; that this can best be understood in regard to the individual male, rather than in thinking in terms of the relationship, for even though the male may love his wife dearly, and may have great respect for the marriage itself, there are certain factors the male as an individual may be experiencing which are not exclusive to the marriage partner, or relationship.

The Male Menopause

This Awareness indicates that as men begin to age, they also go through that period known as menopause; this as male menopause, whereby they begin to recognize that they are losing their youth rather quickly, and looking back on their life, feel much of their masculinity slipping away at a rather quick pace, and looking forward see themselves growing more and more impotent as time goes on. That often such an entity, if this masculinity is an important factor in his self-image, may have the psychological need to assert himself, reestablish his masculinity in his own mind.

That even when the wife is assuring to the entity, devoted to the entity, giving of her love and affection, even when she may be an ideal wife, the male may still have certain doubts about his masculinity, based upon the realization that he is not what he once was. That also, he may begin to feel that perhaps his wife's judgment of him is just not actually as clear as it could be, and that she is prejudiced in his favor, The entity may, in that respect, begin to not only doubt his own masculinity, but doubt his wife's acceptance of him as a man, and feel that she is not a proper judge of his masculinity.

This Awareness indicates that wherein a temptation occurs from another female, the entity, looking at the factors, assuming this will not lead to any exposing of his inappropriate action, may yield to the temptation of being with another, in order to see how he stands from the viewpoint of another female, other than his own wife. This is an attempt, as an effort on his part to reassess his masculinity which has been slipping away, to reaffirm his self-image which has been eroded by the realization of his own growing inadequacy.

In this respect, it must be understood by the wife, that it is not intended as a violation to her, as a slap in her face, or as an affront to the marriage, but rather it is a desperate, insecure and somewhat immature approach to problem-solving. Rather than accepting the aging process gracefully, the entity is attempting to grab something from the past, reaffirm his virility, and is attempting to reestablish his masculinity. In many instances, this actually leads to separation, whereby the male seeks younger women, or a younger mate, and the entity gives up his life-long love to start another life which he feels can reaffirm his self-image of himself as a virile and potent entity.

This Awareness indicates it is not an attempt to do something sneaky or to violate, but it is, rather, a personal problem which is being dealt with in a manner that is not always appropriate. The wife, under such conditions, should not see herself as a failure, but should see this situation for what it is.

The Positive and the Negative Aspects of Guilt

This Awareness indicates that the second part of the question, referring to the entity's guilt, the guilt involved; this in part relates to the realization that this has violated a sacred trust, this has broken a loyalty, and also to the realization that this could lead to serious problems. That there is also more than guilt here; there is also the feeling of, "What have I done? This could destroy my marriage! This could start a totally different lifestyle for me!", and create within the entity the confusion as to what future directions he may find himself moving toward.

This Awareness indicates that there are two important realizations in connection with guilt which entities must understand: that there is the positive aspect of guilt as well as the negative aspect of guilt. The purpose and positive aspect of guilt which entities may recognize, is that feeling guilty about some action can help an entity to learn from the experience for future reference. In the event that such might ever occur again, the entity having learned from the past experience, may then be better prepared to make the right decision in the future experience. This as being a positive aspect of guilt, whereby an entity being forewarned, and feeling guilty of having done something previously, now may avoid that experience in future times.

However, the negative aspect of guilt is that wherein an entity, looking back on some action, allows that guilt to erode and destroy the entity's future, relationships, activities, or self-image. That the negative aspect of guilt is that which generally tends to dominate, and the positive aspect of guilt generally tends not to be recognized as it should be. That entities in wallowing in the energies of negative guilt often find great personal significance to their otherwise empty life, can, for some entities, become an overwhelming energy that dominates the entity's thinking and approach to all areas of his life.

As there are positive qualities which can dominate an entity's life, there are also those negative qualities which can dominate an entity's life, and either of these can be used as an excuse for behavior. That wherein an entity latches onto a negative energy, such as guilt, it can serve as a cop-out, as a kind of excuse to avoid responsibility for other areas of one's life, for one's relationship, for one's responsibilities toward others, or toward oneself, or toward one's career.

This Awareness indicates that negative guilt as that which is extremely destructive, or can be extremely destructive, depending on how strong, and how chronic it is. This Awareness suggests that the entity experiencing this sense of guilt essentially recognizes that he has violated his own principles, as well as the trust which was given to him in the relationship and marriage vows, and the entity also realizes that he could somehow be caught, and the entity feels somewhat ashamed and unworthy of being with his wife, and the entity also feels somewhat torn in relation to what he has done, in such a manner that it obsesses and fascinates his thinking part of the time.

What the Understanding Wife can Do.

The entity also could very likely return to this life, to these kinds of behavior, and continue in this manner, if the entity does not get this clear in the relationship with his wife, and reestablish the ties and loyalties and the connections. This Awareness suggests that this can best be accomplished by the wife, who already understands and knows about the action. Wherein she, being an understanding person, can open the subject and talk to him, this may be approached by use of a letter, or in conversation; that it should be on a level whereby she expresses deep love and affection and understanding to the situation, understanding what motivated him in that direction, asking what she can do to help him get through the guilt which he feels, and assisting him in seeing that negative guilt is not the answer, and that positive guilt, or learning from the situation, can be very beneficial.

That wherein she can assist him in seeing the full ramifications of what this kind of behavior could do to his life, to the relationships he has with his friends and family, the entity assisting in helping him to look at this, without using any forms of threat, without threatening him by use of the knowledge of what has occurred, expressing to him that: "Yes, it does hurt that this occurred, but yes, I understand what happened, and I do not identify with this as being so much my problem as I see this being your problem."

This Awareness suggests that the wife, keeping her self-respect throughout, is more capable of assisting in this action of helping the entity to sort out the confusion, the emotions and the feelings; and in this manner, the wife may remain strong and steadfast, even as the man goes through those emotional storms, confusion and the sorting out of his feelings. That the wife also must make it clear that she has certain expectations that this will not happen again. That such expectations expressed will serve as a kind of barrier, preventing the man from easily moving back into that type of activity, and those barriers are necessary, particularly when an entity is not clear, is confused, or is not trusting of his own behavior, and wherein the relationship and trust which is mutually shared, is being threatened.

This Awareness indicates that jealousy, and restrictions in regard to stable and sacred relationships should not be seen as hindrance to individual's rights, but should rather be seen as protective barriers to the relationship which both share and want to preserve, and wherein one breaks down these restrictions, or barriers, the other party in the relationship should bring to attention the realization that he or she recognizes that breaking down of the barrier, and should discuss this sufficiently so as to understand mutually, whether this means the relationship is no longer to be considered sacred and worthy of preservation by these restrictions, rules and barriers, or whether the entity is simply being disloyal, hoping to preserve the relationship, while also straying into other pastures in order to have the best of several situations.

That when this is brought into levels of communication, the recognition of values will then be brought into conscious levels for discussion, re-evaluation and clarification, so that mutual agreements can be either reestablished, or revised, according to the wishes of the parties. That it is important that the wife, in this situation, not lose self-respect, not blame herself, and not condemn her husband, but rather that she communicates openly, clearly and lovingly in regard to what has occurred, and that together, clarifying the feelings of each, sharing these feelings, that they then consider future plans and activities together.

After the Affair--Take a Vacation Together

This Awareness suggests that it would be of great value for these two entities, after such communication, to embark on an adventure together, such as a vacation, traveling, or doing some activity with a common goal whereby they may re-establish a connection with each other in a somewhat different setting, to add a new dimension of activity and memory to their lives. This Awareness suggests that wherein these entities can have mutual goals and activities shared together, but of such variety as to break away from boredom and tedious and continuous similarities, wherein these entities can move into activities that stimulate excitement, joy and interest in other areas so that both share in these activities and interests; this can stimulate new beginnings, and a new romance to the marriage.

This Awareness suggests for example, that these entities could benefit from simply going out somewhere, to a different city, and staying in a motel, or hotel, for a day or two, sight-seeing and visiting certain areas of interest which are mutually agreeable to them. This Awareness suggests also that they reacquaint themselves with each other during these times, pretending that they are just meeting or just getting acquainted all over again. Many entities living with each other for long periods of time not only begin to become so familiar with each other as to take each other's behavior and feelings for granted, but also these entities often begin to develop patterns of relationship, response and communication with each other in such a manner as to indicate that familiarity, and often that familiarity leads to a kind of contemptuous expression which entities level toward each other.

This Awareness suggests that wherein the familiarity can be broken, reestablished in other areas, along other ways of communication, so that a new relationship becomes established,--a new way of communicating, a new way of relating,--then entities may discover things in each other which are not familiar, which are new and fresh, and which lead to a new kind of romantic recognition of each other's finer qualities. That when this occurs, entities may also learn to nourish these finer romantic qualities and bring these out, so that they reestablish a new value, a new sense of affection for each other, based on the recognition of those qualities which have not been fully nourished in each other.

Coaxing Out the Beauty in a Person

This Awareness indicates that it has long been said that beauty is in the eye of the beholder; that beauty can be brought forth from entities, according to the activities of the beholder, wherein the beholder recognizes beauty, or draws out the beauty from another. That wherein an entity demands another be beautiful, demands another be loving and lovable, this simply causes any beauty that is present to diminish and hide in fear of failure. That wherein beauty is encouraged and coaxed out, wherein it is stroked and recognized, this brings forth that beauty within each entity which can then be shared by both.

This Awareness indicates that this wife may find herself capable of coaxing out the beauty in her husband, and allowing him to see that he is indeed a beautiful person, one worthy of her love, one who is capable of many great things yet, and one who needs not concern himself greatly with mistakes from the past. In so coaxing out his beauty, and rebuilding his self-image, the wife then can assist this entity in finding his new set of principles and values based not upon his sexual virility, but upon his virility as a man, as one of strong character, as one of strong purpose, direction, devotion and responsibility; as one who is of a caring nature, which provides her with the energies, affection, devotion, and love that she needs for her happiness.

This Awareness indicates that wherein he understands he is providing these things in his mind, he can remain a man, a potent force in her life, and needs not doubt his manhood, even though he may not be as sexually active as in the earlier stages of his life.

WHAT TO DO WHEN THE HUSBAND REFUSES TO TALK ABOUT HIS PHILANDERING

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Awareness, in a case like this, where the husband evidently will not broach the subject of his philandering, it therefore falls upon the wife to sit him down and explain she knows about it, and "let's talk about it"; is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that wherein she senses that he would not be willing to discuss the thing even if she brought this up, it would be better that she wrote her entire feelings out on paper, and delivered this to him. That it is important that she have an opportunity to say everything she wishes to say in regard to this. That to simply state a few lines, and have him stop the conversation could be very damaging, in that he may never understand that she has such a clear view of the circumstances, and that she understands his actions, and still cares for him. That she needs to be able to express all of her feelings to him, and if he is feeling strongly that she would become greatly upset and threatening to him, he may wish to cut off the communication before she can fully express her clarity of the situation.

However, if she feels close enough to the entity, and feels that he would be open to talking about this, this can be worked out through communication on a verbal level. It does not appear that this will require a heavy kind of showdown, but in some instances, it might occur that a wife and husband would need to have a kind of emotional showdown whereby the husband would be put on the spot to have to account for himself, and the wife then being allowed to express herself during that conversation.

In some instances, the husband might use the philosophy that the best defense is the offense, and thus attempt to overwhelm the wife with accusations or verbal abuse when the subject is approached; that such type of action from a husband in a similar situation might require that the wife become very firm and confronting to him, until she is able to communicate more through forcing him to become receptive to that communication.

This Awareness indicates this discussion does not of course relate to or approach the subject of infidelity on the part of the wife. This is something which may occur in other circumstances, and many of the emotions involved are the same as in this situation, yet there can also be other circumstances and other emotions regarding the situation of infidelity on the part of a wife.

What to do When the Husband Turns his Rejection Toward his Wife

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

It seems to me it would be pretty hard for a wife in this situation not to see herself as a failure when her husband like she says, has been "rejecting me, does not want anything to do with me, and he does not even communicate for the past two and a half years."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it can sometimes reach such a state of blockage in the relationship. This entity's sense of guilt and his feelings can be of such a level that the entity, rather than rejecting himself, turns that rejection toward his wife, having confused the issues in order to preserve his own self-dignity, blames the wife unconsciously; rather than stating to himself that he made a mistake, he will perhaps look at the wife and say to himself: "She is not attractive to me."

That if this aspect of the relationship becomes so strong that communication is not possible, and if the wife in her efforts to communicate to this entity, opens the topic for discussion and is not given the space to do so, or if she senses that it would be fruitless to communicate with him on this topic, because he would be so rejecting of her that he would not give her any self-respect anyway; in such an event, or under such circumstances where the wife does not feel he respects her as an individual, then it becomes necessary that the wife take an action that preserves her own self-respect; and in such preservation, causes him to look again at her with greater respect.

This Awareness indicates anytime the wife feels that she is groveling, or wherein she feels that her husband sees her as groveling before him, she should immediately cease, and take her leave in one way or another. This is not always necessarily a physical separation, but in some cases an emotional separation will suffice. That there is a saying among women that "Men should treat a woman like a cat, giving them much affection, and they will stay. That a woman should treat a man like a dog, giving him much abuse, and he will stay."

As strange as this sounds, it has a certain semblance of truth to it.

This Awareness indicates that wherein the woman is treated, or allows herself to be treated like a dog, the man quickly loses respect and the woman finds herself being more and more abused, and any woman who accepts that will not have the relationship which she desires, and it is better that she leave, as a cat would leave if it is abused. That on the other hand, if a man is given too much affection, as a cat might enjoy, the man often begins to feel overwhelmed by that affection, smothered by that affection, and may seek to escape.

That whereas if the man is treated more as one would treat a dog, more as one would order a dog about, the man feels much more useful, which is his desire, and will often become more dependent on the master of the house, and will be more inclined to stay around. That of course, if this is taken to extreme, it can lead to all kinds of fights, likened unto dogs and cats yowling and fighting each other for domination of territorial rights.

Self-Respect Must Always be Maintained

This Awareness suggests however, that it does convey a certain message and understanding which is often not easily grasped in the usual relationships between male and females, for they are two distinct species, and not only distinct as species, but also as individuals, so that no general rule will always be valid in every instance.

This Awareness indicates that it is absolutely essential that entities in a relationship be allowed by each other to keep their own self-respect, and as an individual it is absolutely essential that whether another allows you to have self-respect or not, that you do so, irregardless of the other party. If you do not respect yourself, even where love exists between entities, the relationship will fall apart, will deteriorate, and the love will be as meaningless as memories.

Pride and Vanity is Defined

This Awareness is not of course seeking to promote pride and vanity as self-respect. Vanity is that quality which is associated with self-respect, but which is taken to extreme, whereby an entity over-inflates self-worth, based not on reality, but on hopes that others will see them as something special, even though they do not see themselves as something special, and even though they themselves do not do anything special. That pride is that which is somewhat less extensive than vanity, whereby one feels proud of one's accomplishments and work; this can be somewhat healthy, but wherein one feels proud of oneself simply to be compared to others, this kind of pride is not healthy.

How Handwriting Reflects Vanity

This Awareness indicates that wherein one can feel proud enough of oneself and one's work to enjoy being oneself, this amount of pride equates to self-respect. That pride and self respect are very close, but wherein one does not respect others, and uses one's self-respect as a measurement of supremacy over others, this is the kind of pride which is damaging.

This Awareness indicates that vanity as slightly different; wherein one's pride is so great and one's self-respect is great, but depends and requires constant feedback from others to reassure the entity of his or her self-worth. That in handwriting analysis, pride, vanity and self-respect, or dignity, is revealed in the length of one's "d" stem, the stem on the small letter "d". Wherein this is excessively tall, this indicates vanity. Wherein it is excessively short, likened unto the letter "a", this indicates a lack of pride, a lack of dignity. Wherein it is in the middle, it indicates a healthy degree of personal dignity, self-respect and pride.

This Awareness indicates that this is important that the dignity, self-dignity, self-respect, is balanced properly and is given as much weight in a relationship as the concept of love in that relationship, for love cannot survive where dignity and self-respect are missing.

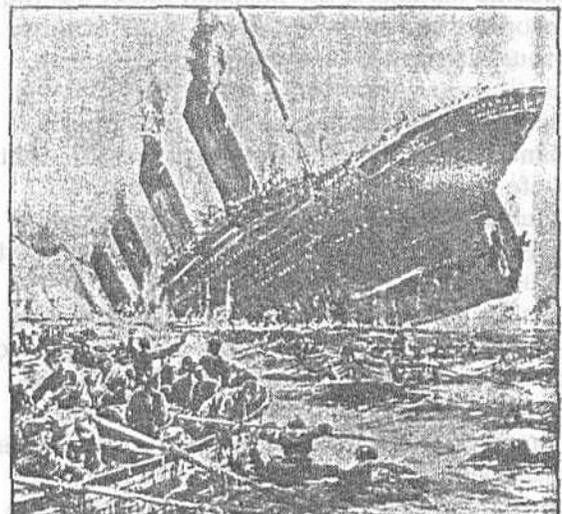

THE SINKING OF THE "TITANIC"

—WHAT WAS IT ALL ABOUT ?

QUESTION:

Would Awareness explain the significance of the Cunard liner, the Titanic, sinking in the North Atlantic in the early 1900's on its maiden voyage. This ship was billed as 'unsinkable', and it struck an iceberg and sank in an hour on its maiden voyage from England to New York. It was packed with many wealthy and famous people. Many were immensely wealthy Jews, some of whom managed to survive.

I have always felt when reading about the Titanic tragedy, that there was more to this than the unlucky fact that it struck an iceberg. It was certainly a shock in consciousness. I'm asking the question because there's a lot of information coming out now about the Titanic. There's a company that is building a replica of it for millions and millions of dollars, and they're going to let entities sail on it. Also there's been a couple of movies about it, and there's a millionaire industrialist who's mounted an expedition to try to raise it. For the past several summers they have tried to locate it; this summer they think they will find it and be able to send divers down, even though it lies in water 10 miles deep. Could Awareness give a little more information on this tragedy of the Titanic?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is seen very little that can be given which has not already been given; that in terms of significance, this has been given about as much significance as anything of this nature could be given. That had it occurred on a second, third, or fourth voyage, the significance would have been much diminished; but being as it was its maiden voyage, and filled with wealthy individuals, entities seek to find some form of explanation, such as Divine Wrath, or some other mysterious explanation to describe the symbolic meaning behind its sinking.

This Awareness indicates that it would be somewhat of a shock to humanity and to the legend, were this Awareness to simply state that "it was an act of carelessness, stupidity, or ignorance, in that the entities piloting the ship could have an accident of such magnitude without it having some mythical overtones." This Awareness indicates however, it was a large ship which struck an iceberg and sank; and entities can make whatever they wish from this; for there were many stories, and many energies associated with the passengers, and with the significance of its essence, its voyage, its publicity, and its shock to consciousness.

This Awareness wishes, for purposes of drama, that It could find some greater mystery or secret in regard to this event, but It sees nothing more than that of an unprecedented accident. There was no wrath of God; there was that which was a circumstance that showed entities a different frame of reference, so that those who said it was unsinkable might recognize that it was not. This Awareness indicates that this can be a powerful lesson, if entities can read the lesson; and entities can make this a kind of religious legend, implying the "hand of God" teaching ignorant mankind a violent lesson. This Awareness indicates however, all of that is but part of the circumstance which occurred. Fate took a hand in the events, but this was not an action of punitive or malicious revenge by a jealous God; this was merely a circumstance based upon events in a period of time, and energies on a course. That this may be considered a karmic voyage of destiny, or may be considered merely a startling, enlightening coincidence.

WAS GROUP KARMA BEING WORKED OUT?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

The information Awareness gave sometime back on the "big event" of the 747 airliner crash that killed so many people; the same would probably apply to this disaster, in that the entities, on a certain level, knew beforehand that this tragedy was going to occur. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that there are often those actions which may be termed as a kind of group karma, whereby entities group together in a particular time and space, and experience a certain situation. That this as a very difficult concept to explain in human terms; having much to do with the frequency/vibratory rates, the frequencies of the individuals' vibrations involved. This Awareness indicates that this as extremely difficult to put into words at this time; that there may be an analogy or metaphor which could be used, but this Awareness indicates the energy at present as not sufficient to find proper words for such.

(Closing Message)

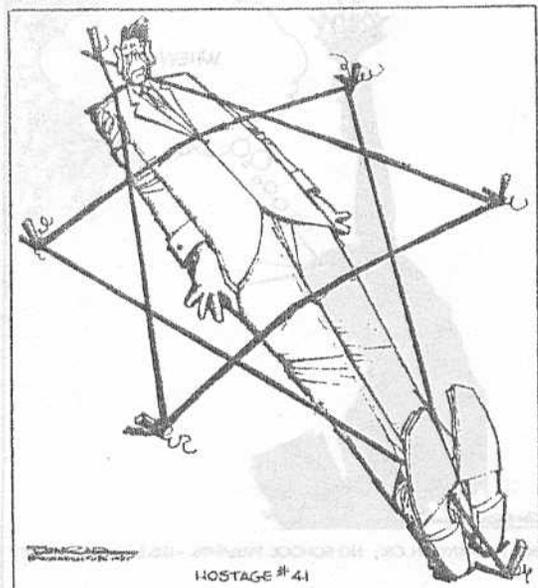

This Awareness indicates that there is seen a bathtub with water pouring in, the bathtub filling; there is seen that which is soap being added, and bubbles forming; that some of these bubbles cluster together in certain areas. In other areas there are no bubbles. That likewise, on the sea in certain areas foam forms, and the bubbles of the foam cluster together; whereas in other areas, the foam is missing. That this foam may be seen as a kind of group karma of the bubbles, and whatever happens to the foam in terms of situation or circumstances, affects the entire group, although certain bubbles may escape to tell the story.

This Awareness indicates that this magnetism that holds these bubbles together for a short period of time as that which may be considered as a metaphor or analogy, or allegory, for the hand of fate which directs these individual bubbles.

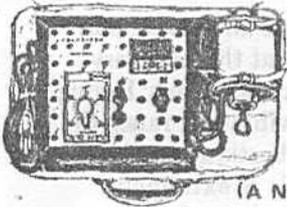

ED's Note: Although the energy during this closing message was weak (you could hardly hear the voice of the Interpreter), the questioner (and later the transcriber) both got the impression that Awareness meant to drive home the point that despite the formulation of bubbles and foam, and their destiny on the surface of the sea, they are still, in essence, a piece of the sea in that they are composed wholly of water; thus they return to the source, despite various vicissitudes of unknown nature.

For more info on 'big event' tragedies, please refer to 'Revelations of Awareness', No. 78-5 (The 747 Collision and Big Disasters in General); $1.00 from CAC.

Personally, I still think there was more to the Titanic tragedy than Awareness admits. For one thing, in 1898-14 years before the disaster--a book titled "The Wreck of the Titan" told a fictional story about the world's greatest ocean liner which sank on its maiden voyage after striking an iceberg in the North Atlantic. Strange, isn't it?

HOSTAGE #41

WILL THE POLARIZER HELP GLAUCOMA ?

(A NEW EXERCISE FOR EYE STRAIN)

QUESTION:

Recently Awareness gave considerable information on the problem of glaucoma, and there's one thing I wanted to ask about that which we didn't get around to. It appeared in Dr. Ralph Sierra's book, Power in a Magnet: that by applying the North pole energy field to the outer edge of each eye, for 15 minutes, twice a day, they have noted there was a reduction of pain and pressure in cases of glaucoma. He says: "We strongly feel that this indicator may well show us still additional uses for control effects as presented by the North pole of the biomagnet."

I'd like to ask Awareness if the magnet, or specifically the Polarizer invented by Sam Millar, would have any effect in getting rid of glaucoma?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this over a period of time, used in this manner, can be quite effective; this time depending on the condition of the glaucoma, its level or degree of progression. This Awareness indicates that "palming" the eyes, wherein the palms of the hands are placed over the eyes for 5 or 10 minutes daily as that which also can be beneficial in healing tired or strained eyes, and to a small degree, in helping the condition of the glaucoma. However, the magnet as that which is more effective for this.

ED's Note: For more information on the numerous uses of the Polarizer, please refer to the Back Issues catalogs published by CAC. Members wishing more information on the Polarizer can write to CAC, as Sam Millar is still making these devices for the membership.

YOUR NAME IS SURE TO BE IN ONE OF THESE COMPUTERS
The United States government knows you by a number. And federal agencies are turning to computers . . . which, at the touch of a button . . . can produce instant information on millions of Americans. Here are some major examples:
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION
Your Social Security number will soon become a universal number.
INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE
Computer tapes store details from tax returns of over 75 million citizens. These tapes are made available to the 50 States.
U.S. SECRET SERVICE
About 50,000 persons are on computer who might tend to harm or embarrass the President or other high Government officials.
F.B.I.
Fingerprint files of over 86 million people now on computer.
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
Keeps data on over 850,000 people.
DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
Almost 2.7 million citizens who have been denied driver's licenses are on computer.
PENTAGON
Maintains files on some 7 million military personnel and civilians who have been subjected to "security, loyalty, criminal and other type investigations."
VETERANS ADMINISTRATION
Keeps files on 13.5 million veterans and dependents.
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
Has on computer files on 2 million persons in federally financed work . . . all coded by their social security number.
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
Computer bank has names of more than 14,000 individuals who have been involved in riots and civil disorders since mid-1968.
DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING and URBAN DEVELOPMENT
Maintains records on 4.5 million who have bought F.H.A. homes.
With this federal computer network, there is virtually no limit to the volume of information that can be made available at a moment's notice on just about every American.

GROUPS THAT EXPOSE "CULTS"

--WHAT ARE THEY REALLY UP TO?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Awareness, two organizations: The Spiritual Counterfeits Project, and The Citizen's Freedom Foundation exist to expose and dismantle what they term "cults". Are these two groups really fronts for some other group or groups that really aim to discredit and destroy any type of organized religion, particularly, Christianity. What are their connection with the World Council of Churches, or the Pacific Institute of Asian Studies?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be associated with certain forces which do in fact seek to destroy the freedom of religion in the United States, and to create a great breaking down of the Constitution as a viable document. That once the freedom of religion is broken, the rest of the Constitution as that which would crumble, as this freedom of religion and freedom of speech are two of the more important cornerstones of this document, and that this document as being the base for the judicial and legislative qualities of the nation, and were this to be disrupted, this nation's future could be altered by design, according to whoever has the power and control over its economy, administration and communication systems.

That these organizations as being used by those forces which have previously been mentioned as seeking to create a different system in the United States; to set up a dictatorial type of government.

ED's Note: the recent court judgment against the Church of Scientology is probably a good example of how these groups are attacking the churches through the courts. A woman who claimed she was not healed by the church, was awarded 42 million dollars in damages, which, if paid, would destroy the church.

A TALE OF TWO CITIES

QUESTION:

There was an article in a tabloid that I'd like to read to Awareness, and then ask some questions about. It's called "Dead Ringers":

"Two undertakers with the same name, but not related, -Mike Feeney of Indianapolis, and Mike Feeney of Reading, Pennsylvania, are living proof of the old saying that everybody has a double. Not only do the two look alike, but they're both morticians, and even though they're completely unrelated and have never seen each other face to face, their similarities are amazing.

"They're both married, both Roman Catholics, and both active in the Democratic party, and both served in Vietnam in the same capacity. The two have almost identical hairstyles, penetrating eyes, mustaches, and about the same height and weight, and in fact, the two men even sound alike.

"The similarities in our appearances are absolutely astounding, right down to our mustaches, the length of our hair, how we part it, and the shape of our faces," said the Pennsylvania Feeney, 34, who has exchanged photos with his double.

"Both of their fathers were in the mortuary business before they were, and passed the business onto them, said the Indianapolis Feeney, age 32; "I spent my service time in Vietnam in the army Quartermaster corps, just like the other Mike did." Both Feeneys have run successfully for the Democratic nominations for political offices in their state. The other Feeney ran for the Indiana state legislature but lost, and the Feeney from Pennsylvania said, "I just won a primary race for coroner in Burke's County, Pennsylvania, and I will be up for election in November." Up until February the two Mike Feeneys had no clue each other existed, and so forth.

Now the question is: Sometimes there is a person found to be remarkably similar to another person, even when the two don't have the same birth dates. Is this really just coincidence? Are they what Seth would call "probable selves"? Is someone, or some group in another dimension of reality secretly motivating these two men for instance, to do certain things at certain times? Are they back-ups for each other, in that some soul wished to experience a certain lifestyle, and if one didn't carry out his mission, the soul could gain the vicarious experience through the other? Is this part of an experiment originating in another dimension, and if so, what is the nature of the experiment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these entities as essentially what may be termed 'soul twins'; that the concept of entities having multiple personalities or what may be termed 'multi-dimensional personalities' is that which is also involved, whereby in this particular instance, two of these multidimensional personalities of an individual ended up in the same dimension near the same location and time. This Awareness indicates that whereas each entity has counterparts in other dimensions, it is rare and unusual that these counterparts appear in the same dimension, near the same time.

MORE ON THE SYNTHETICS

QUESTION:

One of the SPIRAL 'eyes' has a question: "Although Awareness says we can only distinguish synthetics by their auras, I think I may be starting to identify them through photos. If accurate, this would help us all. Enclosed is a photo of two men who appear to me to be synthetics. Would you please ask Awareness if they are?" And enclosed was a photograph that was printed in some kind of trade or technical magazine, a tool and die magazine I believe, showing two entities who DO look rather strange, evidently weighing huge chunks of gold, which look like they may be out of the mint, with treasury marks and so forth on them. I'm holding this photo now in my hand. The gold appears to be bullion.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be as this entity perceives it to be.

CHANTING...WILL IT BRING PEACE AND ENLIGHTENMENT AND RICHES?

(MORE ON THE BELIEF STRUCTURE)

QUESTION:

This question from J.F. of Temperance, Michigan, has been sent in a number of times by different entities, and it's never been asked, so I'll ask it now. "I have a friend who is a Buddhist. He believes that to chant "NAM MEYOHO RENGE KYO" and other chants, is the answer to all your problems. I feel that if your subconscious (lower self) believes this is true, and you chant, this will work for you. Or perhaps this works the same way people pray.

"However, on the other hand, I could be wrong and would like to know how much power these chants have on the the changing of our everyday environment to a more positive state of mind. In other words, is the chant so powerful that it could be another substitute for getting to know your subconscious?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the chant as that which is more meaningful to the Buddhist; that it does have its greatest effect on the subconscious when it is believed in. That this as similar to the entity who might go to the Orient and tell Orientals that their prayers will be answered if they chant the Lord's Prayer; that it is beneficial for the entities who believe it will be beneficial.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

By the same token, then, if an entity believe he could sit down at a specific hour every day and chant "peanut butter, peanut butter," over and over, the effect would be the same.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this in the affirmative, except that if the entity has an image of what peanut butter means, then the entity will simply hypnotize himself and his subconscious into wanting or becoming identified with peanut butter. That if the entity has no understanding of what peanut butter is, and has been told that the words "peanut butter" will bring forth jewels and riches, or some other benefits, such as health and wisdom, then the entity inchanting this word, may, in time, convince his subconscious that he is worthy of such; and when the subconscious is convinced, it will take steps to assist in bringing about opportunities for health and wisdom, or jewels and riches.

(Closing Message)

This Awareness indicates that the beliefs which entities hold or identify with, are those which do not always create reality, but which create causes which may result in reality,--the effects that become reality. That if you believe in a certain concept, the concept may be false, but your belief that the concept is true will create a cause within you which has its effect outside of you, and leads to manifestations which may be made into a reality; that the ideal, or idea, never quite fits the actualization of that which is manifested. An entity may have an idea of a perfect home; yet when building that home, it never comes out exactly as perfect as the idea; yet, the idea remains,--even when the paint cracks, and shingles rot, and the windows are broken; the idea of the perfect home remains.

That similarly, a belief may be pure in nature, but the result never quite matches that which entities believe. Therefore, it is important that entities recognize the discrepancy, and allow the discrepancy to be, and adjust themselves to function in an actual world wherein things are what they are, and never quite reach the ideal, or that which is believed; the belief as a pattern or blueprint for that which may manifest, if entities have the tools and opportunity, and the capability of bringing that belief into actuality.

This Awareness indicates that entities, having the opportunity to bring a belief into actuality, must also have the cooperation, or opening, away from interference, so that the opportunity can be allowed.

ED's Note: through the channel of Ralph Duby, Awareness once remarked, that the power of suggestion was the strongest force on this plane.

MORE INFO ON THAT COMPUTER PLACED INSIDE THE EARTH BY THE ELS

(MORE ON THE ELOHIM AND PARALLEL UNIVERSE)

QUESTION:

Some years back, Awareness discussed briefly the computer placed deep inside the earth eons ago by the ELS. Would Awareness please give more information on this and indicate whether this computer is still operating today, and if so, what function it is doing?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are quite a number of computers placed in various places within the earth in subterranean areas, that many of these have been destroyed between the years of 1947 and present time; this particularly from 1960 up to approximately 1975; that the large computer as that which still has its functioning powers yet is not operating with complete efficiency as when it was operated by the ELS. That these computers do not have moving parts but rather relate to crystals which emanate energies, which affect certain areas of consciousness and which read and receive impressions from consciousness. This may be understood better by a parallel whereby one considers the concept of music, where a note is struck and many vibrations come forth from that note. This Awareness suggests that wherein this could be registered on a screen entities would see the initial note and see the overtones or vibrations coming from that note and see also further vibrations coming from each of those secondary vibrations, and so forth.

This Awareness indicates that the computer works in a similar manner whereby certain energy is emanated which has its effect on certain stress points in the earth's structure, which then emanates certain energies out into certain other points. These relate to leys,--this spelled l-e-y-s, or lines,--these as magnetic lines and their cross-points with other magnetic lines and the forces then emanate from these leys and cross-points out into consciousness into the atmosphere, and from there reflect in the culture of the people of that particular areas and in further reflections affects individuals.

This Awareness indicates this also has its effect on weather patterns and on temperatures and aircrafts. That this is monitored by forces outside of this planet as well as outside this vibratory rate; that the monitoring can be screened, can be read even from the other dimensions and also can be programmed from other dimensions; that the ELS were capable of moving out of time and space.

This Awareness indicates the "L" shape is one of 90 degree angle, that this is symbolic of an energy which is moving through time and space, but which suddenly takes a turn and moves out of time and space, the movement being that which enters into pure consciousness away from the third dimensional world of matter and into the world of mind or imagination or that which can be equated to vibrations; that the electromagnetic spectrum is such that it eventually leads into a biosphere or biospectrum, whereby life itself is permeating all levels of vibration, reaching down into the electromagnetic spectrum but not compelled by that electromagnetic spectrum.

This Awareness indicates the ELS moved into this biosphere and are not compelled by the electromagnetic spectrum which is the cause of form and matter. That the term "El", or the Elohim or that which is the term used in the original versions of the Book of Genesis, wherein it said, "In the beginning Elohim created the heavens and earth." These Elohim or ELS came from the biospectrum, that which this Awareness has referred to as the realm of Celestria, and brought forth the electromagnetic fields of energy which in turn creates the material world or realm known as Terrestria. That these entities or these energies of the Elohim moved into matter then returned from matter into that which was anti-matter or spirit.

This Awareness indicates they do however, exist in a parallel type of universe which permeates this universe, occupying what may be termed the same time and space, but in a totally different realm of existence. This may be more easily understood by the analogy of light and heat and sound occupying the same space in a room yet not interfering with each other, or not causing each other to be forced out of that space or time segment. That essentially, light, heat and sound are of different vibratory rates, therefore can inhabit the same spaces, same time zones.

Likewise, matter and antimatter are of different vibratory rates and can inhabit the same time and space, yet not be inhibited by the other. That antimatter is that which essentially is a reflective opposite of matter, that this is extremely difficult for human comprehension as it reflects in a manner similar to the lens of a camera wherein everything is reversed in its polarizations and its time and space expressions. That for this reason, antimatter has the special effect of creating that which is never ending, whereas matter has the special effect of creating that which is finite; that the antimatter creates the infinite space and matter creates the finite point such as the atom, the grain of dust or the particle.

Likewise, the matter creates concepts of time and the movement,--this essentially is relative duration of matter, relative to other material movements or forms or durations, whereas antimatter creates concepts of the eternal now, the eternal present, the everlasting experience. These coming together form that which is the body and spirit or the physical and the life of an entity.

This Awareness indicates that consciousness is anti-matter, and the body is matter. That It does not wish at this time to give further information on the location of these computers, nor the major computer of the ELS; that there is still some conflict occurring upon this plane in regards to these, to the location and to the uses and purposes of these computers, that these things will unfold and be unveiled in their proper time.

HOW TO DEAL WITH ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

QUESTION:

A question from R.M., Honolulu, Hawaii: "Alzheimer's disease, a form of senile dementia, appears to be getting more prevalent today. Little is known about the cause and cure of this pathetic disease. Would Awareness please give us information on this? Senile dementia appears to be occurring at rather early ages for some reason."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is contagious and can be spread and can be carried in the body for many years before it begins to become pronounced and noticeable. This Awareness suggests that there are new substances coming on the market which can be helpful in treating this. That the use of D-Cell water as that which is beneficial in treating this. The use of super oxide dismutase, (this as SOD), as beneficial. The use of RNA, GH3; that there are several other substances, the names not coming through at this time; that many of these are recent discoveries and will be released within the next year.

This Awareness indicates that diet can be beneficial in helping to relieve these symptoms, particularly the use of wholesome food, food not highly refined and food which contains its natural vitamins and mineral contents.

ED's Note: Alzheimer's disease is contagious?

HOW TO DEAL WITH ABSCESSSES AND PYORRHEA IN THE TEETH

(HOW TO BRUSH AND SAVE THE CHOPPERS)

QUESTION:

A question from J.H., of Richland, Washington. "Do you have such remedies as what is good to stop abscesses that form on the roots of people's teeth when brushing, scaling, flossing doesn't seem to remedy the situation, and there is no decay. It's an odd thing to happen to teeth. Please reply."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that golden seal, approximately one-half teaspoon daily, as that which can be of great benefit; that this may also be placed in a poultice on the abscess, but that this as having a very dissatisfying taste. This Awareness suggests that comfrey powder being placed on the abscess is much more satisfying to the taste and can also be just about as satisfying in terms of healing effects. This Awareness suggests that the homeopathic cell salt silicea, appears to have some satisfying effect on this also; that this use of comfrey as being the most, (this in terms of comfrey powder), this as being the most effective in terms of all things considered.

Occasionally entities may get pyorrhea wherein food becomes stuck between the teeth and the gums and creates abscesses and irritations. This Awareness suggests that the best method for dealing with this is to have a dentist or dentist's assistant to clean out these areas and/or to brush the teeth, these areas with great vigor, even though they tend to bleed somewhat, brushing them quite often each day, and this assists in helping to remove the particles which cause the pyorrhea, and also to strengthen the gums and their contact with the teeth.

This Awareness suggests that when brushing these teeth in this manner, that you use a brush that has dual bristles,--soft and hard,--and that you use plenty of toothpaste for maximum sudsing, with attempts to brush into the cracks between the teeth and gums,--this in order to remove the particles or substance from between these gums and the teeth. That if the pyorrhea is not cleared, that the gums will gradually deteriorate and entities can lose their teeth, even though the teeth themselves are still good. This Awareness suggests in cases of this type, it is best to see a dentist if this does not clear up quickly from the brushing.

The Law of Description

The Law of Description is that Law which serves as a tool for creative purposes; this as likened unto the paint brush of the artist, the chisel of the sculptor.

Description as that which carves out images, creates boundaries, creates shapes and forms, creates limitations, creates confinements, and creates also those concepts which expand those boundaries to release from confinement.

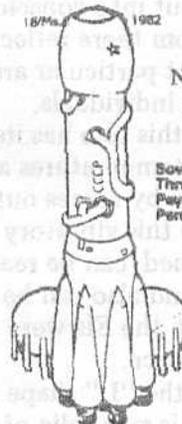

The Law of Description knows no morality. The Law of Description is capable of creating anything for any entity.

This relates unto the Law of Magic in that anything described is on its course toward creating a manifestation to the degree of impact on its description.

The nature of that manifestation depends upon the intensity of the collective or disruptive energies involved.
