ISSUE NO. 303

Rudolph Hess and the 'Secret of Secrets'

Published by Cosmic Awareness Communications and the Universal Church of Awareness, P.O. Box 115, Olympia, Washington, 98507, U.S.A. Reproduction of this material is permitted and encouraged.

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully-trained channels. The information contained herein was received from deep super-conscious 'trance' levels and 'interpreted' by an entity affiliated with C.A.C. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor, Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter. WHAT DOES RUDOLPH HESS KNOW THAT THE AUTHORITIES DON'T WANT

THE PUBLIC TO KNOW ABOUT ?

(DOES NORMA COX KNOW THE SECRET?)

QUESTION:

There is a series of manuscripts put out by an entity named Norma Cox, from Marshall, Arkansas, called Secrets. There's some pretty far-out information in these writings. She writes that she wasn't able to advertise this information, even in magazines or newspapers like Liberty Lobby's Spotlight, because of the nature of the material. It's a long series of mimeographed channelings that cover the Illuminati, the entities in the middle earth, and an awfully lot of what Awareness has given in bits and pieces. This entity has sort of put it all together in a condensed version, and I'd like to read one excerpt here in reference to the entity Rudolph Hess, the right-hand man of Adolf Hitler, and ask Awareness to comment on this.

"Rudolph Hess, his thoughts engrossed on the literature on space travel which he pursues; the walls of his cell are covered with charts of the moon. An occultist of the first water, Rudolph Hess, who was a member of the Thule cult, was as much in the know regarding the underground world, as Hitler himself. In all probability, his impetuous and mysterious flight to Scotland in 1941 was connected with this greatest of all secrets. After 40 years of solitary confinement in an old fortress prison in Germany, in which he has been the only inmate absolved of war crimes by the Nuremberg trials, and now frail and old, it would seem senseless and needlessly cruel to force him to spend the little remaining of his life virtually incommunicado; that is, unless knowing the secrets, you have an inkling of the real reasons why he continues to be heavily and constantly guarded, ever forbidden to give any interviews. Illogical reasons which would explain his impenetrable isolation, except for occasional short visits granted selected members of his family.*

"Could the reason for his interminable incarceration be because of fear that the one-time top deputy of Adolf Hitler, might leak the secrets of the subterranean world, and of the interplanetary travellers who came to earth to participate in the creation of life within earth, celestials as involved now in the affairs of this planet as they were at the time of creation. Perhaps the weight of the secrets of secret societies is too heavy for the sensitive soul of the aged Nazi to bear. Perhaps he feels an irrepressible need to avenge the senseless bombing, the savage killing of the civilians of demilitarized Dresden, and the despicable terms imposed upon a surrendered Germany: her people helpless, homeless and starving, and the unspeakable inhumane treatment of Germany's defeated, but unexcelled warriors. In short, the sadistic treatment of a conquered people, by hypocritical visitors who falsely drenched themselves in the light of humanitarianism.

"Were such a supposition be fact, should what Hess has to tell reach the public, the people of the nations would be stunned by the revelation; there would be chaos, panic, and clamor. From all over, shrill voices would demand more of the truth. The secret of secret societies would be exposed, and the nations would be in turmoil. Coming from Hess, the truth could not be ridiculed into silence, nor could it be locked away in a dark closet, in the hope that a flurry of concocted events would so divert the thoughts of the people that the matter of the secrets would fade away, hopefully into oblivion."

Would Awareness please comment on this lady's remarks?

* Today, Rudolph Hess, now 92 years old, is the sole occupant of Spandau Prison in Germany. He is guarded daily by no less than 90 military guards, represented by the United States, Russia, France and England. Over the years major efforts by humanitarian organizations and others to release this ancient entity to live out his last few years with his family has been denied. At the Nuremberg Tribunal Hess was found completely innocent of any war crimes. The big question is why hasn't the media during all this time ever demanded the reason as to why this entity has been confined in prison for the rest of his natural life.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as being in the affirmative insofar as accuracy is concerned; that the entity does have a deep awareness of the forces behind the Nazi movement in relation to the connection with those of the underground. That the entity as one who, still having such information, could be seen as a threat to the established programs and the concepts which the establishment wishes entities to accept. That indeed, the 'secret of secrets' being that of the hollow earth and the inhabitants within; this being a very difficult secret to keep during these modern times wherein so many possibilities of exposure occur; that more and more entities are beginning to find evidence of this, and the secret of secrets will eventually be unveiled.

This Awareness indicates however, that it is the policy of the nations to keep this quiet as long as is possible, so that the great change and events which are planned may occur without entities understanding how or what has happened.

This Awareness indicates that there are plans to bring forth forces from within the center of the earth to appear upon the surface as that which would bring a new millennium and new civilization to the surface people; this however, not to occur until a great catastrophe has struck the surface people. This Awareness indicates these plans are still in effect, and that if the entity Rudolph Hess were released, to talk of what he knew, many feel this entity's expressions and influence could be detrimental to keeping these plans alive. There are others also who know of these things and, if taken seriously, have the potential of being eliminated. That wherein the communications are limited and the organizations appear to be of a lunatic fringe type; these are not considered as threatening to the overall establishment.

The Bulwer Lytton--Hitler Connection

This Awareness indicates that the entity Adolf Hitler and Rudolph Hess, through Bulwer Lytton, made contact with the subterranean forces, entities of the subterranean areas; the entity Bulwer Lytton as an associate of the Golden Dawn Society, which was also connected to the Rothschild family; that your members can, from these connections, fill in the gaps and understand the basic connections.

WHY DID AWARENESS HAVE RALPH DUBY USE RITUALS OF THE GOLDEN DAWN?

(THE ORIGINAL PURPOSE OF THE DEVELOPMENT CLASSES)

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Awareness, if the Golden Dawn Society was channeling the Dark Forces and part of this conspiracy, why was it that Awareness channeled through the entity Ralph Duby, rituals for entities to partake in which came directly from the Golden Dawn?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the rituals from the Golden Dawn were taken from earlier rituals that date back to Atlantis. The information channeled through Ralph Duby in terms of the Development Classes were associated with these Atlantean rituals, rather than the Golden Dawn rituals. However, in many cases, the rituals were in correlation to each other; the major difference being that the rituals channeled by this Awareness through the entity Ralph Duby were for purposes of lifting consciousness to higher levels in order to serve one another and to bring forth that which is love upon this plane. That the rituals in the Golden Dawn Society were designed to raise levels of awareness for purposes of creating powers and controls to be used according to the society's purposes.

This Awareness indicates this society was not necessarily intended as a Dark Force; it was simply working to explore the occult and hidden forces regardless of what they were, and this society also was seeking to gain power through these activities. That in order for this Awareness to bring about a Light Force upon this plane which could counter the misuse of these energies by Dark Forces in secret and occult schools, this Awareness needed to bring these energies in through rituals which were used for purposes of bringing higher states of consciousness to entities, along with the suggestions and purposes of giving service and doing good for others.

This Awareness indicates that the pursuit of power is never stressed in the Awareness Development Classes,--in fact, is listed as one of the areas to avoid. This Awareness indicates however, in the earlier classes of organizations such as the Golden Dawn, there were many who stressed the use of these forces for the pursuit of power.

DID THE GOLDEN DAWN SOCIETY SERVE THE ALIEN FORCE ?

QUESTION:

Did the more famous entities of the Golden Dawn like Dion Fortune and Israel Regardie, for example, know and understand that what they were doing was being used by the Alien Force?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these entities were not encouraging the use of these forces for the Alien Force; also, it has not been indicated by this Awareness that these forces were being used by the Alien Force; that these were forces which were being researched, and some entities involved were using these forces for power, while others were not. This Awareness indicates that the entity Aleister Crowley as one who pursued a fascination of seeking personal gain and power from an exploration of these forces; this entity also sharing what he learned from the efforts. That the entities Butler, Israel Regardie and others of that type, had high motives and intentions of doing good in their pursuit of understanding these forces; that even the Rothschild connection as that which was not intended as a negative association,--this being but another fascination in the area of secrets and hidden forces and powers which the Rothschilds wished to explore.

This Awareness indicates that force and influence in themselves are not in error, that having power is not so much in error, depending on whether it is used for good or ill. This Awareness asks that if entities have greater strength, does this make them less good than the entity who is weak? If entities have greater psychic strength, does this make them any less good than those who have little psychic strength? The rituals involved in these areas increased the psychic strength and power; that its use determines whether it is for good or for ill. The stronger entity in attacking the weaker entity is showing a misuse of the physical strength. Similarly, a stronger entity, having greater psychic powers, using this power to subordinate and to create harm or to cause difficulties for others, is misusing the psychic energies.

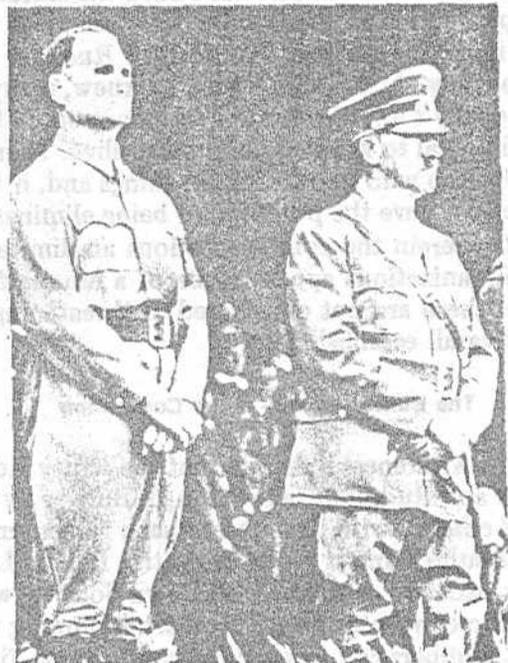

In the case of many of the entities in the Golden Dawn, these energies were used to help others; in some instances these energies were misused. This Awareness indicates that It is not implying that the Golden Dawn was an Alien Force organization, nor that it was created to serve the Alien Force; that this would be in error. This Awareness indicates that the subterranean forces which the entities Rudolph Hess and Adolf Hitler contacted were not necessarily serving the Alien Force, although there were certain aspects of the events which followed that contact which did serve the Alien Forces.

This Awareness indicates that there also may be understood that some of the activities which appear to be serving the Alien Force, in another framework, through another window,--a different frame of reference, may be seen as serving Higher Forces. The knife which cuts into the body may be seen as an Alien Force to the body; yet if it is necessary to remove or to fix an organ that has been damaged, then it may be seen as that which is beneficial to the body.

Zionists Set Up Nazi Germany

This Awareness indicates that the actions of Nazi Germany were such as to have been set up by Zionists for a particular purpose; and whereby the Nazi Germany turned against the Zionists and whereby this led to greater conflict than had been anticipated by the Zionists, and the activities, while at certain points were reflecting the Alien Force, at other areas were believed to be an attack upon the Alien Force. That both sides held some concepts of self-righteousness and some concepts whereby they could identify themselves as being associated with the Alien Force; that both the Nazis and the Allies were in part serving the Alien Force and in part serving the Light Forces. The total activity of that war,--the violence, serving the Alien Force, and the by-products as that which served the Light Forces; this in terms of, increasing technology and programs after the war, as well as that of learning lessons from the mistakes of that war. That every dark side has its light side; and the dark side may serve the Alien Force, but the lighter side serves the Light Forces.

Rudolph Hess (Left) had been an old and trusted friend of Hitler, seen in this 1938 photograph. It was Hess to whom Hitler dictated most of 'Mein Kampf' after they were both sent to prison in 1924. In May of 1941, Hess flew a plane to Scotland and parachuted to within 12 miles of his destination. The plane crashed in a farmer's field and Hess was captured shortly thereafter.

THE TRUE

MISSION

OF RUDOLPH HESS

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Awareness, the powers that be have never explained to the entities in this world, the truth, (if indeed they knew the truth), about Rudolph Hess's flight over Scotland, when he parachuted. Stories came out that he was insane, others that he came to negotiate a peace, but nobody really seemed to know, and they wouldn't let anybody go to him and find out. Would Awareness explain what the true mission of Rudolph Hess flying over Scotland and parachuting during the early stage of the war actually was?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity was attempting to negotiate a peace along certain lines, and also to make contact with certain entities in Scotland whom he had previously known, in an effort to find a way of communicating with the subterranean forces; that the entity could have been termed insane to some degree, but was not acting alone in his efforts. That the intention basically was to make contact with certain entities in that area, to help negotiate some kind of settlement or peace; and also,--if this failed,--to see what could be done in bringing about an alliance with Scotland and Ireland to get these countries to turn against England.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

The entity, then, did not expect to be captured when he parachuted down?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this as negative; the entity intended to land closer to an area which he felt would be safe enough whereby he could contact associates.

Rudolf Hess, former deputy of Adolph Hitler, passes the time in Spandau Prison watching "Dallas," "Dynasty" and reading "War and Peace."

The Bild newspaper published a four-page report yesterday on Hess, 92, the sole inmate at the West Berlin prison for Nazi war criminals.

Bild said that in his nearly 40 years in Spandau, Hess has read almost every book in the prison library and returns to his favorite, Tolstoy's "War and Peace."

"He is allowed to keep a diary, but historians never will see it," Bild said. "As soon as he has filled three volumes, they are taken from him and burned."

The Hollow Earth

Congress once voted on a bill to send an expedition to the center of the earth. Although the bill was defeated, it did receive 25 favorable votes.

It was in 1823 that Kentucky Congressman Richard Johnson (later Vice President under Martin Van Buren) tried to get funding for the expedition into the earth's interior. Johnson was one of thousands of Americans who believed in the popular "hollow earth theory" advocated by Capt. John Cleves Symmes.

A respected veteran of the War of 1812, Symmes described the earth as a group of hollow, concentric spheres, with an opening at the North Pole 4000 miles in diameter and an opening at the South Pole of 6000 miles. It seemed reasonable to him that this inner earth was inhabited. An expedition would prove his theory, and instead of dropping over the polar hole's edge, explorers would sail over a curved rim and down the inner side of the planet. There, they would find a "warm and rich land, stocked with thrifty vegetables and animals, if not men..." In 1818 Symmes mailed a brochure to American and European scientists, requesting support. He included a medical report that confirmed his sanity. No response came, so Symmes contacted his Congressman, Richard Johnson. When Symmes died in 1829, he had not seen his theory proved or disproved.

Congress voted against it, but in the movies there is "A Journey to the Center of the Earth"

By the 1920s, many aerial expeditions had flown over the poles without sighting Symmes' openings to the world within. Geologists have since learned that beneath the earth's 37-mile granite crust there are indeed concentric spheres—of solid rock and iron. And at the very center is a hot core of molten iron and nickel.

THE LIGHT AND THE DARK ILLUMINATI HOW THEY GOT STARTED

QUESTION:

There's a book published recently called Life Forces: A Contemporary Guide to the Cult and Occult, by Lewis Stuart, and there's a rather brief section on the order of the Illuminati, and I'd like to read this to Awareness and ask if It verifies this information, or if It would give further comments.

"Thousands of years ago, when human life was beginning to take its present form, in the days of Lemuria the flame of intelligence, such as we know it now, was set burning in the human brain. The space gods planned this experiment carefully. They implanted the flame only in the minds of those who were biologically-genetically programmed to receive it properly. They thus developed a separate race, as it were, within the human race. These super-humans were able to communicate readily with the space gods and receive their instructions. Compared to the ordinary run of humanity, the super-humans were gods and heroes, and so they are remembered today. The ancient Greeks preserved tales of heroes who had wings, or who mounted on winged steeds to fly off over the highest mountains. These myths developed because of the human inability to comprehend what was happening when large flaming machines descended from the sky.

"The super-humans of Lemuria were the founders of the order of the Illuminati. It was recognized by the space gods that day-to-day monitoring of the activities on earth could best be done on the planet itself. They therefore set up monitoring stations, at which their officials, the priests and kings, could regularly report to them and receive instructions. This incidently, was how the custom of crowning the kings and queens originated. The first human rulers wore elaborate head-sets through which they received their instructions from above. This also was the origin of the custom of having an inner chamber within the temples into which only the high priest could enter. It was inside the holies of holies that the transmitting and receiving equipment must have been kept.

"Moses was in communication with the space gods as his forefather, Abraham, had been. Jesus too was in communication with them, having contacted them in the wilderness, and been taken to Egypt among the hermetic priests. The hermetic priests of Egypt were long the guardians of the sacred truths and relics of the order of the Illuminati. They understood the mysteries of the pyramids and of the stars in the heavens. Those in the inner circles of initiation were regularly received up in the space ships and flown to other planets and space stations, and given some acquaintance with the physical realities of the wider cosmos.

The article goes on, but the last paragraph reads:

"Could it be that the fate that befell Atlantis and Lemuria is also about to befall us? If the warnings of the prophets of coming doom are true, as they were true in the ancient cases, then perhaps we should consider leaving the earth on space ships to start life elsewhere. The civilization of Lemuria was preserved by those who fled before the cataclysms, and the civilization of Atlantis also was preserved only by those who left before the deluge and went to Egypt. Might not our civilization be preserved only by those who have left before the final inferno?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this article or section of this book as referring to that which this Awareness has called the Light Illuminati. The Dark Illuminati as that which began approximately 60,000 years ago in Atlantis, and more recently, approximately 6,000 years ago; that the more recent expression of this Dark Illuminati as that which began with Adam Weishaupt and his Bavarian Illuminati, this as being in May of 1776. That the Light Illuminati as that which may be equated to the original religious expressions upon this planet.

This Awareness indicates this not original so much as an earlier universal religious expression; this coming from approximately 250,000 years ago. That even before that time, there were civilizations within the earth's center and upon its surfaces, and there were wars and conflicts among these civilizations and there were entities who came and left this planet in spacecraft,—this dating back to over a million years ago.

This Awareness indicates that there were the Atlans, and the Titans, and there were the Cyclops and others who predated the Lemurian epoch. That the Els, or Elder Race, were some of the earliest of these, and their records and their remains as passed down from civilization to civilization, have contributed to the following civilizations that embraced and modified these teachings of the Els or Elder Race.

This Awareness indicates that the Illuminati referred to by this book as that which embraced many of the teachings of the Els, and which were used predominately in the Lemurian civilization after approximately 250,000 BC; that these writings and laws and principles were spread throughout the earth as an early framework or foundation from which many of the more recent civilizations received their foundation. That basically and in general, the article as being accurate; the distinction must be recognized between that which is the Dark Illuminati,—those forces which began to misuse the power; and the Light Illuminati,—the forces which were intending to enlighten the masses.

HOW THE ILLUMINATI INHABITS HUMANS

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In this book there was a part where it said that the Illuminati can inhabit certain humans at will, and they select certain human forms in which to manifest themselves, such as Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and so forth. Would Awareness comment on this part?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as in the affirmative; that this may be also likened unto an entity who reaches a state of consciousness which may be called an initiate; whereby the entity, in becoming an initiate opens himself to be used by Higher Forces. That these Light Forces which this entity refers to as the Illuminati, can often inhabit an entity's consciousness, to use the entity, just as the Dark Forces can often inhabit an entity's consciousness and use that entity. It depends upon whether an entity is open to being used by Forces of Light or to be used by Forces of Darkness.

ARE ALL MASONS ILLUMINATI ?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There is also a section in the book where the comment is made: "Not all Masons are Illuminati, not even all 33rd degree Masons are Illuminati; but all Illuminati are 33 degree Masons." Would Awareness please comment on that statement.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be based on an interpretation of this entity, rather than on what this Awareness would consider as reality. That the entity is interpreting Illuminati to be that which is enlightened and which as a particular way of ordering its expression. That this use of the term Mason and Illuminati, creates the appearance of a club, wherein one is a member of both of these clubs. This is not the case: that one may be a Mason without being in the club or ever having taken an oath as a card-carrying member; one may simply be a Mason of a higher order due to one's level of consciousness and development.

There are many entities who are greater Masons than are those in the organization as card-carrying members; there are also entities who are more illumined than those who carry cards indicating they are in the Illuminati, or whose name is listed on the record book; that this area as that which creates an illusion in terms of the interpretation of these concepts. That in terms of the Dark Force, this may also be so. That there are, however, areas wherein card-carrying Masons and card-carrying Illuminati may be one and the same. (This Awareness uses the term 'card-carrying' not in a literal sense, but rather in a symbolic sense. The names may be listed on record books rather than on cards which entities carry).

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

During the last 100 years or so, would Awareness indicate whether the Masonic Order has been working for the Light Forces on this plane, or more for the Dark Forces?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this more for the Light Forces.

DO ATLANS AND CYCLOPS

EXIST ON THE ISLAND OF MALTA?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

In reference to the Atlans and the Cyclops Awareness mentioned; I recall reading something by Madame Blavatsky some time ago,--perhaps in her book The Secret Doctrine,--where she mentioned that she personally, during this century sometime, had visited the island of Malta (I believe it was), and gone into caves there and seen on numerous occasions giant entities,--huge, very tall, moving around, often having to stoop to keep from hitting the top of the cave. She says they later sealed up these caves on Malta as tourists were getting into them and disappearing. Is there any truth to that story, and were these entities part of the Atlantis and Lemurian civilizations?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as in the affirmative. That these entities associated with the foundation of the Knights of Malta, and that which is the present Illuminati, the Sovereign Saint John of Jerusalem organizations; that this associated with the Rothschild organizations and that these entities of the subterranean level are in fact alive and well in those areas; that there are others of other types also in the Middle Earth and subterranean areas; some of these entities being much smaller,--legends referring to these as elves and dwarfs and as trolls and gnomes; that many of these are antagonistic to humans.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Is the Knights of Malta organization today still in contact with these entities?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this as in the affirmative, though not necessarily in that area; that there are other openings whereby, through certain entities of the Knights of Malta, there can be communication with these.

ED' Note:

More information on the Cyclops of Malta can be found in the book, "Isis Unveiled" (see CAC book catalog). Also, "Enigma Fantastique" by W. Gordon Allen, has some interesting info on this as well as Tesla, the Illuminati, etc. This published by Health Research Publishers, Mokelumne Hill, Calif., 95245. CAC stocks this book when it is in print and will notify you if we can find it again. Highly recommended.

Awareness has indicated that there are many tunnels throughout the earth that lead to the Middle Earth. One of these is on the island of Malta and at the time Madame Blavatsky saw these Atlans and Cyclops, she was a tourist being guided through one of these tunnels which ran the entire length of the island.

According to the National Geographic Magazine, August, 1940, all entrances were sealed by the government because of a tragedy. On a sightseeing tour, comparable to a nature study tour in our own schools, a number of elementary children and their teachers descended into the tunneled maze and did not return. For weeks mothers declared they could hear wailing and screaming from the underground, but numerous excavations and searching parties brought no trace of the lost souls. After three weeks they were finally given up for dead. Were they the victims of Dero's (detrimental robots) which Awareness claims inhabit such places and why it warns entities not to venture into tunnels under any circumstances?

Hitler's interest in Astrology and other aspects of the occult is evident, as expressed in the following excerpt of an article on National Socialism, originally published in the magazine, "Man, Myth & Magic"—An Illustrated Encyclopedia of the Supernatural", published by BPC Publishing Ltd. and Marshall Cavendish Corp, New York, N.Y.

Astrology's Nordic Origins

Rival claims to represent the astrological movement led to an immediate and unseemly quarrel. The principal contenders were the Astrological Society in Germany, whose headquarters were at Leipzig, and the Central Astrological Office at Düsseldorf. The Leipzig group was controlled, more or less, by Hugo Vollrath, a bogus commercial occultist who owned the Theosophical Publishing House. Vollrath had been making a living out of occult literature since about 1908 and had a vested interest in astrological books. He quickly joined the Party and with the help of a few members who were Nazis reconstituted the Society on approved National Socialist lines. Dr Hubert Korsch, the President of the Central Astrological Office at Düsseldorf, hastily joined the Party as a protective measure. During the summer of 1933 both groups were busy lobbying Party offices such as the League for Protection of German Culture in order to obtain official Nazi patronage, but without success.

In the meantime Vollrath's monthly Astrologische Rundschau began to publish articles that refuted astrology's Babylonian and hence Semitic origins and asserted that it was an ancient Nordic science. Furthermore, Mensch im All (Man in the Universe), an independent astrological monthly, as a matter of political expedience effected a temporary merger with Professor Ernst Isberner-Haldane's Die Chiromantie (Chiromancy). Isberner-Haldane (1886-1966) was a well-known Berlin palmist. He was, too, a pathological antisemite and a prominent member of Jörg Lanz von Liebenfels' racialist and occult Ariosophical movement and his highly esoteric Order of New Templars (see NEW TEMPLARS).

In the autumn of 1933 the police presidents at Berlin, Hanover and Cologne instructed the local newspapers to refuse all advertisements from professional astrologers and during the spring of 1934 the Berlin police president banned all forms of professional fortune telling. Even the most cautious professional was now equated with any vulgar charlatan.

At Berlin and elsewhere the police began to confiscate booksellers' stocks of occult and astrological literature, although on an uninformed and haphazard basis. These measures affected the economic well-being of a number of specialist publishers and it was they, rather than the disorganized astrologers, who persuaded the Reich Chamber for Authors and Publishers to appoint an official censor for astrological books. Serious textbooks could still be published but the trash disappeared.

At the end of 1938 Zenit and Astrologische Rundschau, the two leading serious astrological monthlies, ceased publication. No explanation was offered to their readers. Furthermore the Theosophical Society, with which the Astrologische Rundschau was linked, was banned. After the annexation of Austria in 1938 Jörg Lanz von Liebenfels, the racial occultist and founder of the Ariosophical movement, was forbidden to write for publication. Lanz considered himself to be one of National Socialism's spiritual fathers. When the Second World War began on 1 September 1939 the German occultist movement had already been driven more or less underground.

Assassination Predicted

During the autumn of 1939 Dr Goebbels' Propaganda Ministry was keeping a close watch on the two surviving astrological periodicals, Stern und Mensch and Mensch im All, since it was suspected that they might be the source of undesirable rumours. On 10 November Dr Goebbels ordered that the few surviving astrological almanacs be carefully scrutinized for anything that could be construed as a prediction of the mysterious attempt to assassinate Hitler at the Munich Bürgerbräu beer cellar on 8 November.

An astonishing prophecy in this connection made by Karl Ernst Krafft, a Swiss astrologer who was living in south Germany, had aroused considerable interest in exalted circles in Berlin. Krafft had written on 2 November to his friend Dr Heinrich Fesel, who was employed in Himmler's department, to suggest that Hitler's life would be in danger between 7-10 November. Dr Fesel, unwilling to become personally involved, filed the letter and kept quiet. When on 9 November the newspapers and radio reported the assassination attempt, Krafft despatched a telegram to Rudolf Hess at the Reich Chancellery in Berlin and drew attention to his prediction. Fesel was now obliged to produce the letter. Krafft was immediately arrested at Urberg, a remote Black Forest village, and brought to Berlin for cross-examination. He was released a few days later. In the meantime the credulous Heinrich Himmler was unsuccessfully trying to establish the identity of the

Norma Cox, who publishes her channelings in a monthly newsletter called "Secrets", puts out some pretty fascinating and incredible information. Much of this relates to interpretations of the Bible, prophecies etc., but she also presents another frame of reference of the Illuminati or Zionist conspiracy and relating all of that to the UFO phenomena and the Hollow Earth and its inhabitants. She puts out some very unusual information on Hitler and his association with magicians and other forces, etc., and although rather biased in her perception of Zionists (she mistakenly believes all Jews are Zionists), she does offer a different frame of reference and much of her channeling coincides with what Awareness has revealed in previous readings. Those interested in receiving her newsletters or various booklets she publishes which are based on these newsletters, should write to her at the address below. Particularly recommended is her booklet: "Secret of the Caves", also the booklet "Babylon 3", $5.00 each. Write to:

would-be assassin by consulting a Viennese trance medium, who had been summoned to his Berlin headquarters.

Krafft's involuntary visit to Berlin coincided with Goebbels' new interest in the 16th century prophetic verse quatrains of Nostradamus (see NOSTRADAMUS) as a source for psychological warfare purposes. It was necessary to find a Nostradamus expert who could supply the Propaganda Ministry with appropriate material for processing. Krafft's name was first mentioned in this connection early in December 1939 and this led to an invitation to move to Berlin. He began work there during the first week of January 1940.

Prophecy as Propaganda

Although Krafft ostensibly worked for the Propaganda Ministry, his pay came from Hitler's department. Dr Goebbels and his people were completely cynical as far as Nostradamus was concerned. Not so Krafft, who sincerely believed that prophecies concerning Germany's victory over all enemies, present and future, could be decoded from Nostradamus's obscure quatrains. Tens of thousands of pamphlets based upon Krafft's 'discoveries' were circulated in French, Dutch, Italian, Serbo-Croat, Rumanian, Swedish and English by the middle of 1940.

A letter of Krafft's, written and mailed at Berlin in February 1940, was sent by order of Himmler's department to M. Virgil Tilea, the Rumanian Minister in London. Rumania was still neutral but M. Tilea's anti-German sentiments were well known in Berlin. The letter itself was nothing less than a crass exercise in psychological warfare. In that respect it failed to influence M. Tilea, but it nevertheless had one unexpected result. M. Tilea, who already had a slight acquaintance with Krafft and somewhat grudgingly respected his prophetic abilities, concluded that since Krafft now, unexpectedly, wrote from Berlin, he must be advising Hitler or other highly placed Nazis.

M. Tilea showed Krafft's letter to a number of eminent gentlemen in London and suggested that since Hitler was undoubtedly employing Krafft, it would be reasonable to engage a highly skilled astrologer whose task would be to deduce, from astrological evidence, the nature of the advice that Krafft was presumably giving to the Fuehrer. Various departments of British Intelligence became involved and this led to the appointment, around September 1940, of Louis de Wohl as the British "Secret Service astrologer. In London it was soon realized that this was a waste of time and de Wuhl was quietly dropped. He was, however, later employed on a casual basis in London and the United States on psychological warfare projects that involved faked astrological predictions and bogus Nostradamus prophecies.

Krafft's own employment in Berlin did not last much beyond the spring of 1940, although he subsequently wrote on a freelance basis a Nostradamus book that was published in French, Portuguese and Danish. Its purpose was to demonstrate that Nostradamus had predicted an inevitable victory for Germany and the consolidation of Hitler's 'New Order' in Europe.

Rudolf Hess's sudden flight to Scotland on 10 May 1941 had disastrous results for hundreds of Germans who were known to be identified with one or other department of occultism, and with astrology in particular. Hess's disappearance greatly embarrassed the Nazi bosses, the more so since it had somehow to be explained to the German general public. A solution was quickly found. It was proclaimed that Hess had been in poor health for many years and had latterly had increasing recourse to hypnotists and astrologers. The decision to involve the occultists and astrologers was undoubtedly made by Martin Bormann and it was warmly supported by Reinhard Heydrich, who was Himmler's deputy. Their reason was that these people could never be regarded as ideologically sound.

'Aktion Hess'

Time was required to plan the 'Aktion Hess', which led to the arrest on 9 June 1941 of hundreds of occultists, with the astrologers at the top of the list. There were reasons for suspecting that the date of Hess's flight had been fixed on the basis of astrological considerations. Ernst Schulte-Strathaus, who was a member of Hess's personal staff at Munich, was an enthusiastic amateur astrologer and was his local expert on occult subjects. Schulte-Strathaus was arrested immediately but denied that he was aware of Hess's plans or that he had given Hess any advice, astrological or otherwise.

The 'Aktion Hess' was organized on a nation-wide basis and practically all the arrests were made early on 9 June 1941. The victims included many Party members. Apart from the astrologers the Gestapo arrested a wide range of occultists: alleged clairvoyants, radiesthetic (pendulum) practitioners, faith healers and Nature cure pundits, Ariosophists of the Lanz von Liebenfels school, members of the Christian Community (an Anthroposophical sect), antisemite Ariosophical Cabalists, and so on. The Gestapo's main attention was focused upon the astrologers, to identify whoever might have been in touch with Hess. It is unlikely that the 'missing astrologer' was ever found, if only because he or she probably never existed.

In the majority of cases those arrested were released within a few days or weeks, although there were a few important exceptions. Before being set free all were required to sign a declaration that they would neither practise astrology or any other occult science, nor discuss the subject with anyone. All publishers' and booksellers' stocks of astrological and occult literature were seized and many private collections were confiscated. Any public identification with the occult now became extremely dangerous.

Among those arrested and never released were Dr Hubert Korsch and Karl Krafft. Although the two men were acquainted there was no connection between their respective cases. The Gestapo suspected Dr Korsch on account of some anonymous articles that he had published about Hitler's horoscope long before the latter came to power, and their main concern was to discover who had written them. The author's identity was never revealed and Dr Korsch was probably murdered at the Oranienberg concentration camp near Berlin on 24 April 1942.

Tracking Convoys by Pendulum

However, even after the 'Aktion Hess', the Nazis were apt to use astrology and other occult procedures when it suited them. There was, for instance, the organization of the 'Pendulum Institute' at Berlin during the spring of 1942. It was directed by Captain Hans Roeder, of the German navy. The British had begun to destroy an increasing number of U-boats, and it was supposed that they must be using a completely new detection technique. Roeder had proposed that the British were identifying the positions of U-boats by employing pendulum experts. The pendulum operator, it was suggested, sat with a chart of the Atlantic ocean in front of him. He would then 'search' the map with his pendulum. When the position of a German submarine had been located the pendulum would begin to swing in the prescribed manner.

Captain Roeder hoped to counter this by employing German naval personnel in the same way. The purpose of the Institute was to discover the correct techniques so that naval pendulum swingers could be trained to locate British convoys. A number of German radiesthetic practitioners and some alleged 'sensitives' with no previous pendulum experience were recruited under conditions of the strictest secrecy. For days on end they untiringly swung their pendulums but apparently to no very useful purpose. With few exceptions they had previously been arrested in the course of the 'Aktion Hess' and had been released. Some had nervous breakdowns and others managed to make their escape upon one pretext or another. The experiment was a complete failure.

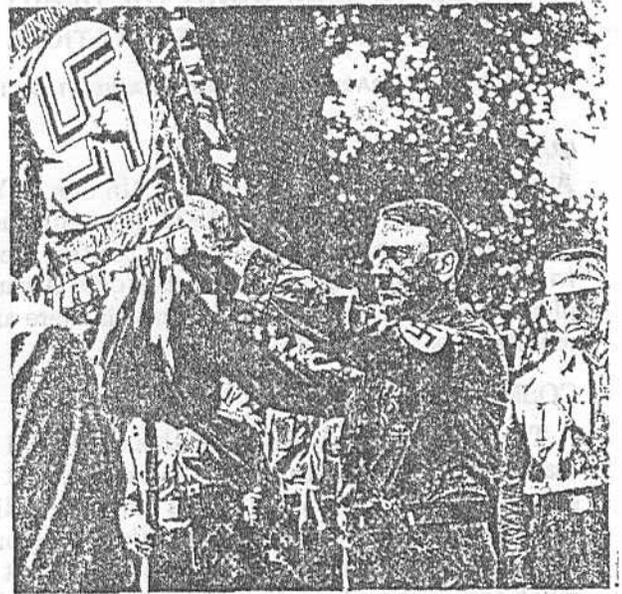

The assistance of the occultists was again recruited after Mussolini was arrested by the Badoglio government on 25 July 1943. Hitler had peremptorily demanded that the Duce should be found and brought back to Germany. The problem was, however, that the Germans did not know where Mussolini was and when their military intelligence service failed to produce any useful information the occultists were again called in to help — not by the military but by Himmler personally.

Once again previous victims of the 'Aktion Hess' were assembled; their number included Herr Wilhelm Wulff, a Hamburg astrologer, who had spent a brief and disagreeable period at the 'Pendulum Institute'. According to Walter Schellenberg, the sceptical head of Himmler's foreign intelligence department, a pendulum expert correctly suggested that Mussolini would be found on an island to the west of Naples. The Duce had, in fact, first been taken to one of the small Ponza islands that he indicated. A little later he was transferred to the mainland and a small airborne force eventually abducted him from a mountain eyrie.

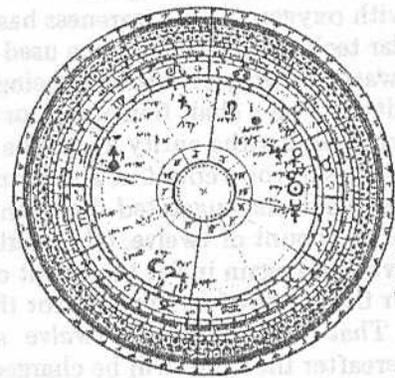

Himmler's major personal involvement with astrology began in 1943 when the renowned Felix Kersten, who gave him remedial massage for stomach cramps and other ailments, steered Wilhelm Wulff in his direction. Herr Wulff, who had enjoyed an extensive private astrological practice at Hamburg in the old days, had already suffered at the hands of the Gestapo and had no desire to become involved with Himmler. But during 1944-5 Herr Wulff had frequent meetings with the Reichsfuehrer and was still being consulted by him when the Third Reich was on the verge of defeat in April 1945. Herr Wulff's reminiscences of this period will be found in his book Zodiac and Swastika.

After 1945 the German astrological movement slowly revived and many of the pre-war occult groups were in evidence again. However, with the new feeling of security engendered by the German 'economic miracle' after 1948, there has been a considerable diminution of interest in the stars and other occult territories.

HOW TO SLOW DOWN THE HEART FOR HEALTH AND RELAXATION

(THE APPROACH TO SUSPENDED ANIMATION)

QUESTION:

A question from K.G. in Chicago. "In one of Yogananda's first publications in 1924, he mentions that a key to rejuvenation is to learn to control the heart, to allow it to slow down and rest. Would Awareness please comment on this and indicate if there are any meditations to do this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that this entity did in his teachings give meditations for this action; that the slowing down of the heart, under certain conditions, is that which can be beneficial to allow a restoration of the cells. That essentially, however, it is not so much the action of slowing down the heart as it is an action of filling the body with prana through the meditative techniques given, so that the entire bloodstream is filled with prana.

This Awareness suggests the meditation given by this entity for this purpose is that known as Hong-Sa meditation; that briefly, this meditation followed a basic breathing technique. This Awareness suggests that It does not intend to give this breathing technique exactly as given in the Self-Realization Fellowship founded by this entity, but rather suggests that the breathing technique as being such that the body is filled with oxygen. This Awareness has given previously a similar technique which can be used for this purpose. This Awareness suggests that this being one wherein the entity sits on a chair flatfooted, or sits in lotus position, whereby the entity keeps the spine straight and breathes in for a count of a particular number. This Awareness has suggested the count of twelve, hold for the count of twelve, (then out for the count of twelve), and again in for the count of twelve; hold for the count of twelve, out for the count of twelve. That this continue for twelve such breaths, that thereafter the body will be charged enough with oxygen and prana that the bloodstream will be capable of relaxed breathing.

This Awareness suggests that this then can be followed by that technique, whereby the entity engages in that which the entity Yogananda referred to as the Hong-Sa meditation; that this being one wherein the entity breathes in and the entity breathes out in a relaxed and normal fashion. This Awareness does not wish to give this meditation exactly as indicated in the Self-Realization Fellowship material as this material of this organization is their own. This Awareness suggests however, that breathing in the following manner will accomplish the same effects.

This Awareness suggests that this be very relaxed wherein the space between the incoming breath and outgoing breath is that which receives the significance, the pause between breaths being that which is of uppermost importance. This Awareness suggests that this be accomplished in a manner whereby the breathing is relaxed, but the attention is focused on the space between the incoming and outgoing breaths, that this concentration and significance of these spaces is that which will gradually increase in terms of the length of time and the breaths will become fewer and shallower as these spaces increase. That as these spaces between breaths increase, the heart slows down and the required breathing diminishes so that you need not breathe so deeply or so often. That this allows the heart to slow even further as the oxygen needs not be pumped, for the body is not using the energies. That entities may in fact eventually cause their heart to come to rest or nearly stop. This as approaching that which is known as suspended animation. This Awareness indicates that the entities may then begin observing a kind of peace and extremely deep relaxation which is unlike anything experienced from any other levels.

This Awareness indicates that the entity may at any time then return to the normal breathing pattern and the heart will begin beating normally again. This Awareness suggests that entities who wish to explore this in greater detail, may wish to enroll in the Yoganda Self-Realization Fellowship to receive first-hand the teachings. This particular meditation technique will not be given to new members until they have participated and read much of the preliminary material; this may require some time, approximately one year, or slightly less than one year. This Awareness suggests that entities may inquire from the Self-Realization Fellowship for further information regarding this if desired.

This Awareness suggests that those wishing to participate in this meditation may practice this daily as given and will experience certain relaxation and interesting results from the meditation; that this will be beneficial in assisting to relieve certain stress factors and can benefit the general health of entities.

This Awareness indicates that there also are other techniques and other information which can be beneficial in assisting entities in living longer lives; that much of this information can be assembled for members in the various publications by CAC, or this may eventually be put into a packet or booklet relating to the rejuvenation and general health material.

ED's Note: Over the years CAC has published quite a bit of material on rejuvenation and on slowing down the aging process. Back in 1963, through the channel of Ralph Duby, Awareness announced a project,--"The Aging Project"--would commence, and many readings on this subject would be given. Later, through the channel of David Worcester, Awareness announced the name of the Aging Project would henceforth be called "The Rejuvenation Project". CAC does still have much of this material to publish, and does intend to make it available in booklet form as soon as we obtain a computer that can handle all the Awareness material, and when we can afford to hire entities to program all that material into that computer. When that occurs, there will be many booklets on many subjects given by Awareness through all its various channels.

Yogananda's book, Autobiography of a Yogi, is available at most bookstores, and is permanently stocked by CAC in both a paperback and hardbound edition. (Please consult the CAC Book Catalog)

The address of the Self-Realization Fellowship is 3880 San Rafael Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., 90065.

HOW IMPORTANT IS YOUR HOROSCOPE IN WINNING SWEEPSTAKES AND LOTTERIES?

QUESTION:

J.G. of Niles, Ohio, would like Awareness to explain how come some people win lotteries or sweepstakes and others do not? Some entities appear to be consistent winners in various games of chance and others can play for years and never win a cent. Is there something preplanned or is it just chance?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in the majority of cases, this is simply chance. However, that in some cases there are spiritual guides who are assisting certain entities and can have some effect in helping those entities to have a chance at winning. When this occurs, this generally is after long consideration has been given and there is generally a definite purpose in this action. This Awareness indicates that either the entity has not collected his due rewards previously, or the entity is being tested as to how much energy will be handled; that this is rather rare however, and in most cases the so-called spiritual guides of entities or guardian angels, do not interfere in the gambling process.

This Awareness indicates however, that there also are certain astrological factors which can be of some value in understanding; that wherein an entity's influences are such that they have the beneficial effects of Jupiter, and whereby Saturn is in favorable aspect, and this is in relation to the fifth or eleventh houses, and whose other planets are also properly aspected, entities tend to be more fortunate. That some entities have these in their natal horoscope and therefore are simply more lucky in life in general. That for others, this occurs through the transiting planets at particular time in their life, and Lady Luck smiles on them.

This Awareness indicates that for others, the horoscopes are such that when a planet moves into favorable position to another at one particular time, it may also have moved into unfavorable position to still another planet; therefore, the energies favorable are neutralized by the unfavorable energies and the entity is simply destined, as far as the astrological energies go, destined not to have great benefit from the transiting planets, because his or her horoscope does not allow any particular times when these energies are greatly valuable to them.

This Awareness indicates that still, on another level, entities may program their own subconscious, or program themselves to have certain manifesting qualities. That some entities have the ability through proper programming and through the belief in their ability to walk into a book store and move to a shelf and take out the book which they have need of, even without knowing ahead of time that the book was there or that they even needed to read the book, or without even knowing there was such a book. Still others have themselves programmed because they accept this programming through faith to be at the right place at the right time, and these entities may simply be travelling and suddenly find themselves in a small town where a particular person shows up who is just the right entity for their needs to supply them with the information they have sought, or to give them information which shall be of great benefit to them.

Still other entities may have themselves so programmed by their faith that even though they are not what could be termed "good looking", are not wealthy, are not particularly healthy, and have very little going for them in terms of personality,--such entities may find that because they have a particular faith in their ability that they can be quite well liked by others and receive many benefits from others, and simply expect this kind of attitude from others, even though they cannot explain why this occurs.

That likewise, some entities are capable of moving into areas of chance, and because they expect to win, have faith in themselves, and have trained their subconscious, have trained themselves to win, they believe themselves capable of picking the right answer; such entities, for some reason, do pick the right answer or the proper winning ticket and win. This Awareness indicates that generally such entities can tell you that they felt they would win, but cannot tell you why they felt they would win.

This Awareness indicates that this as an energy from a subconscious programming. This Awareness indicates that many persons, however, in recognizing chance, question whether they will win, and doubt they will win, and do not have the complete cooperation with their subconscious, and therefore their subconscious may be mischievously working against them to assure that they only win once in a great while, or never win at all, or may let them win just often enough to keep them gambling, but never enough to let them get ahead. That this generally is because of the conflict between the conscious and subconscious minds of the entity, and this can relate into many areas such as one's self-esteem, one's feeling of guilt or feeling that one deserves to win, their feeling that one has failed in some obligation; or often is caused by a feeling that one seeks to take shortcuts to life, and though the entity would like to win and avoid the normal course of being productive, the subconscious may be such that it does not approve of this attitude and may simply rebel against the conscious desire to win.

This Awareness indicates there are many factors involved in the various situations and circumstances that involve entities winning in games of chance. This Awareness does not particularly condemn or discourage gambling, but does not condone or encourage this kind of foolishness.

IS IT A VIOLATION TO USE
PSYCHIC ABILITIES TO WIN AT GAMBLING?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Awareness, there are some people who claim, or do use, certain types of psychic abilities to win at certain types of gambling, like punchboards and perhaps horse racing; that they use things like Tarot cards and crystal balls and pendulums; and I'd like to ask Awareness, is this some form of violation when using these powers; and if they should win, do they rightfully have that winning coming to them?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are a great number of entities who use Tarot cards, pendulums, intuition, guesses, astrology, numbers, hunches, advice, statistics, mathematics, comparisons and logic, who still lose. There are also a number who use these systems and win. This Awareness indicates that there are still a greater number of entities who use these systems and win occasionally and lose more often, but simply may speak of the winning times and forget the times when they lost, or make excuses for the times when they lost.

This Awareness indicates that it is no particular violation for an entity to use a hunch based on the direction in which a worm crawls, as evidence of how a race may turn out, nor is it a particular violation for one to use a pendulum to determine as evidence on how a race may turn out. This Awareness indicates that none of these efforts are necessarily violations, even if they are successful.

THAT PREGNANT WOMAN IN 'REVELATIONS' WHO WAS
'PROTECTED FROM THE BEAST'

QUESTION:

A question from G.M. from Remington, Indiana. "In the 12th chapter of the Book of Revelation, a woman about to give birth, is protected from the Beast by God. Is this a spiritual birth?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this as symbolic; the woman as being that which is the subconscious, the Beast being that which is the rational conscious mind; and the child born of such rational conscious and subconscious energies as that which may be referred to as the dragon.

This Awareness indicates that the Christ-like child as that which comes not from the rational aspect of consciousness, but from the intuitive or holistic aspect of consciousness: this as the Holy Child; this coming from the subconscious and the right side of the brain, this coming from aligning oneself with spiritual forces as opposed to the mere rational material forces.

WHO IS THE HIDDEN MAN OF THE HEART ?

QUESTION:

A question from J.M. of Ventura, California. It's a rather strange question: "Who is the hidden man of the heart, does he live inside the heart? Why is he so terrible?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not recognize any hidden man of the heart who is terrible. This Awareness suggests this may be a figment of someone's imagination.
