COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

SKIN HEADS AND NEO-NAZI GROUPS

--IS THIS TO BE THE TREND IN THE 90'S?

QUESTION:

A question from J.H. of Garwin, Texas. She says: "We keep hearing more and more about Neo-Nazi groups in the United States. It's like the fundamentalists have been the crazies of the 1980's. Some say to be on the lookout for the Neo-Nazis in the 1990's. Has Awareness ever given any information about this? I feel there was a lot more weirdness going on there than many people are aware of."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is indeed a growing threat in this society; that this as coming about in the sense of a backlash to some of the energies and forces that have been in control in this nation, or growing more powerful in this nation over the past several decades. This Awareness indicates that when any one group, whether it be Jewish, or blacks, or whites, or Asian, or whether it be of a particular religious group or even business group begins to assume a lead, or leadership, and in so doing causes other to feel subjugated, they immediately become the target for those who would be ambitious enough to attempt to gain an advantage over that leader. This happens not only in terms of religion, politics and business, and culture or race, it happens in all levels. In business it is even seen in the electronics field, wherein IBM for some time has been the standard or leader of the computer industry, but has, because of its role as leader, become the target of other computer companies in which they attempt to outdo or better the IBM standard and in fact have been successful in many ways.

This Awareness indicates that wherein during the past several decades the Anti-Defamation League, and other Jewish organizations have, out of fear, been driving to keep anti-Semitism down and have gained extraordinary power in doing so, the very action has created a kind of reverse fear of the Anti-Defamation League and of Jews in general, among certain entities within the society. These entities then begin to take on hostility and see various aspects of the Jewish activity as though it were some kind of violation to them, and so begin to organize together to counter that activity.

This Awareness indicates it is in part this, and it is in part the fact that Nazis have been notorious in their denunciation and their treatment of the Jews, and therefore, these entities align themselves with the Nazi of the past and feel themselves in opposition to the Jewish people in general. This Awareness indicates that they can become extremely dangerous in terms of their motives, intentions and purposes. It is a threat which may surface during the coming decade to become something of greater concern than the radical extremism of the fundamentalists.

Satanists the Major Threat in the 90's

This Awareness indicates however, that it is not the major threat of the 1990's in terms of group activities. The major threat will be that which comes through the Satanists, for these entities have grown ever stronger than anyone would imagine. Their motives are most devious. Their intention and expression and activities are of great cruelty to many entities. Their capacity to do harm is even greater than that of the Neo-Nazis. There is a kind of pride in their desire and ability to harm others.

Three Types of Entities on Earth Plane Today

This Awareness indicates that this will be the greater concern of the masses during the 1990's; that this indeed can eventually lead to a new type of Armageddon between these forces of misguided beings who seek power and who enjoy the action of cruelty and sadism. This Awareness indicates essentially there are three types of entities on the earth plane: those who are associated with the attitude exemplified by the Christ, of loving one another, and of clarity in relationship; there are those who are exemplified by the attitude presented as Luciferian, who will deceive and who will manipulate and misrepresent information in order to gain power and advantage over others and who basically see themselves as separate and important, more important than others; and there are those who are represented and symbolized by that which has been termed Satanic; whose interest and joy lies in watching the suffering of others. They seek power not simply to be in control, but to be able to harm others. These are the Sadists of society. They enjoy inflicting pain in whatever way they can.

This Awareness indicates that these entities are yet to have their full expression. The Luciferian type have essentially rejoined to some degree with the entities of the Christ Consciousness level. They are willing to relate more and find a closer kinship with the Christian consciousness than with the Satanic types. This Awareness indicates the Satanic types are attuned to those demonic forces that reside on other planes, whose sole purpose is to weed out the weak, the low or undeveloped souls, to take them into the depths, much as the wolves go after the weak caribous to leave the strong to survive. These demonic forces are likened unto the wolves attacking those who have a weak and unethical or sadistic character, so that they can capture these darker souls and remove them from humanity's greater mass; these darker souls being pulled out through their involvement in the Satanic movement as the entities who will be left behind. These will be the laggards; these will be the entities who may be removed from this plane and set back in time, in evolution, to relive many many lifetimes in order to some day again reach the level whereby they may move into that New Being, the state of Higher Consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that the demonic forces are actually as scavengers, digging out of humanity those dead and dying and dark souls that do not evolve toward the Light. This Awareness indicates that more and more in the 1990's entities will hear of the atrocities by these entities who fall for the demonic path; that these atrocities are no less than those which have been witnessed in Nazi Germany. This Awareness indicates however, the Neo-Nazis are not yet part of this demonic, satanic group, though they are in some ways candidates for such similar actions, unless they are able to stay more in line with humanity in its higher purposes.

In other words, these Neo-Nazis are flirting closely with the same energies that are associated with the Satanic groups. This Awareness does not in any way imply that just because an organization is of a metaphysical nature and is not of a standard Christian church that it is a Satanic organization; this is often the teaching of many of the fundamental Christian churches, that anyone who is other than they are representatives of Satan. This Awareness indicates this is truly not so. This Awareness indicates that those who align themselves with Satan generally follow that negative teaching of the Christian church which has described Satan for them, in fact has created the Satan which these entities follow.

Satan was Created in the Same Manner
as "Conjuring Up Phillip"

This Awareness indicates that in reality, there is no such being as Satan. It is simply a creation of man, and the energies associated with this are being created as the movement grows and the creation of such energies as a personification of such energies is likened unto that experiment known as 'conjuring up Phillip,' wherein everyone in a group wrote out a particular characteristic of Phillip without knowing who Phillip was, creating even the name Phillip, then each entity wrote out a characteristic and threw that into the pot, wherein then entities began to read the various characteristics for Phillip and created a personality based on those characteristics, then began to attempt to contact, through mediumship and conjuring, to get a communication going with this mythical character which they had created, and after several weeks of such effort, began getting a response through the Ouija board, and through other forms of mediumship, whereby this character, with all of its qualities, then began to speak to them even with all of the mistaken information which they had attributed to him, in which he had history out of order, just as they had given, and characters in his life, just as had been given by different entities in the group.

This Awareness indicates this is an example of information processing, wherein just as if you were to put the information into a computer or story, the information begins to process itself and come out with certain qualities and other additional growth and evolution expressing the character that has been artificially created as though it were evolving from some being that appears real.

How the Term 'Satan' Originated

This Awareness indicates it is the same thing with the creation of Satan. Originally, Satan was nothing other than the planet Saturn in an astrological quality. It was the Egyptian Set, the Egyptian God known as Set, which represented Satan or Saturn; the Persians, instead of calling it Saturn or Set, called this planet Satan, and personified the planet as though it were a person. This Awareness indicates that the Persians were the first to invent the personification of that which was called Satan. Later, the time being in approximately the mid part of the Christian Age, Western mystics, in studying various religions, latched on to the Persian teaching of Satan and brought this into the Christian religion. Prior to that there was no Satan.

This Awareness indicates that it then led to modification in the biblical texts, and led to various types of changes in the scriptures and attitudes and terminologies used in the teachings, so that instead of Saturn or Set, the terms for Satan became as though the entity were a person; that in this manner, a force was personified. This Awareness indicates that the personification of this force in modern times is such that entities are treating this personification, this creation, as though it were a real being, and are worshipping this force.

This Awareness indicates all that is necessary is to deny the existence of this entity and the entity has no power over you. If one believes in Phillip, or Satan, as a real living being, then of course this entity Phillip can have some effect on you. The same in regard to Satan, and whatever qualities you attribute to the entity, those qualities will be exhibited in the effect on you. This Awareness reminds you of Saint Twinkle, which was artificially created in a reading some years ago; that Saint Twinkle has blessed many entities, but it is nothing more than a mythical creation.

Entities can take a stone found in their driveway and attribute great power to that stone and by repeating such attributions and by keeping that stone in a special place for a long period of time, and by telling others how magnificent and how great and how magical that stone is, and getting them to agree and to feel the power of that stone, the stone then begins to take on those attributions which consciousness puts upon it. Whatever descriptions are fed in describing that stone become part of the mystique and power of the stone.

This Awareness indicates however, as powerful as the stone may be, wherein entities may even go so far as to form a great religion focused on that stone, even though it could be a world-wide religion focused upon that stone, it is still nothing but a stone, and the energies associated are that which carries the power, not the stone. A child could come along, pick up the stone and toss it in the river, destroying the entire religion. That child would have more power in fact, than the stone, but the focus and power of the belief as that which carries the strength of the religion, not the stone.

The Binding of Satan

This Awareness indicates that it is the same with Satan. Satan is nothing but an illusion, but those who believe in the illusion have power in their mass and in their cooperation and coordination of their forces and their intentions, and their actions. This Awareness suggests entities put White Light around those entities involved in Satanism. Do this even if you do not know who the entity is. Visualize all of these Satanic followers. Visualize the image of Satan itself being wrapped in White Light, the Divine Light of God, the Divine Light of the universe, the creative force that is filled with love. Visualize this White Light being wrapped around this illusion known as Satan. This Awareness indicates this is the action of chaining Satan, as mentioned in the Book of Revelation, binding this entity with White Light, 3 times over, coming up from the front and down back, 3 times around, putting White Light horizontally around the entity moving clockwise, 3 times around, 3 full circles, coming from the left side up over the top and down, the right side, under the feet, up; the left side, over the top, down, around the right side, under the feet, up the left side, over the top, down around the right side and under the feet and up again to the top. Three times around.

Now, spin these hoops so that the entity is filled, all space is filled, and the entity is enclosed in White Light. This Awareness suggests this be done with all of this entity's followers. This Awareness indicates that these followers of that force, that illusion known as Satan, be wrapped in White Light so that they can no longer perform their mischief; that any effort to perform such mischief will only come back upon them, the negative and dark forces being put out will hit the inside shell of that White Light and bounce back upon themselves. This Awareness indicates that this energy as that which now is to be set and fixed in permanence.

This Awareness indicates that the binding of Satan as that which has been accomplished; that the power of these entities as that which shall be defused; that the glory of the universe, the White Light of pure Christian consciousness as that which shall come upon these entities and awaken them from their dark slumber, that they might rise again to become part of humanity, and experience that which is the New Being of the New Age.

(Long pause)

This Awareness suggests the Interpreter be brought from trance.

(The Law of Gratitude is recited)

ED's Note: This was one of the most intense sessions I can recall. All during the binding, Awareness was emphasizing the words, Paul's voice rising and falling with intensity. (The words of Awareness are normally delivered in a very calm, deliberate, non intense very low modulated voice). Paul's arms swung forcibly, with great firmness and emphasis as the ritual binding continued. After the Law of Gratitude was recited, a stunned silence hung over the room of the little cottage. Vikki stared wide-eyed at me, an expression of utter amazement, then she broke into a broad smile. Paul sat up, looked around him in disbelief, then said, "Wow!" For about 5 minutes nobody said anything, but sat rigidly in their places. We all knew something very very important, something very heavy had just occurred. Time will reveal exactly what it was, we all agreed later as we discussed the event.

It appeared to me that as Awareness kept looking at this subject of Satanism, the more disgusted and exasperated it became. The actual 'binding' appeared to be the result of this disgust, it appeared to be very spontaneous and not planned beforehand. I had the strong feeling that as Awareness got further into the reading, looked deeper and deeper, it was seeing a problem that seemingly had no end, but was going to continue year after year, century after century as it has in the past, going from bad to worse. It was almost like a person being pestered continually by a lone mosquito and, trying to ignore the mosquito, finally got exasperated and simply snuffed it out.

A NEW SEED HAS BEEN PLANTED IN CONSCIOUSNESS

(Excerpt from C.A.C. General Reading)
March 30, 1989

QUESTION:

A week or so ago, when Awareness did the binding of the Satan energy; can It expound a bit on what people can expect in the years to come because of this action?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is an action that will gradually move from etheric levels into that which has the effect in the physical plane; that this is likened unto a trance healing on a different kind of wave-length. This Awareness indicates that the binding of this energy as that which, as it becomes more of a manifestation, can have an effect on the consciousness of entities to recognize that it is all a matter of illusion in regard to that which has been termed the satanic energies.

This Awareness indicates these satanic energies exist only in that humans feed that energy, and in feeding that energy attribute their own misbehavior or the misbehavior of others to that illusion of Satan. This Awareness indicates that in the action of binding that energy which this Awareness has done, the effect as that which is likened unto planting a seed in consciousness which will gradually begin to grow and to have a profound effect in terms of the view of reality that entities share.

This Awareness indicates that those who seek to have some scapegoat to attribute their misdeeds to, to put the blame on, to avoid responsibility in regard to their own actions, will find that fewer and fewer people are buying the concept of Satan as being responsible. This Awareness indicates that it is not that It is trying to preserve Satan's reputation, it is more that Satan does not exist and is simply a personification of the misdeeds which entities often conduct.

This Awareness indicates that many have heard the story of Everyman, and Everyman is a symbol of any man, or any person. That likewise, Satan is symbolic of any type of negative energy that is expressed through humankind and by personifying this energy, it makes it seem that there is someone who is to blame other than the one committing the action. This Awareness indicates that this has reached such a proportion that many entities are beginning to worship this mythical being, even as though it were some kind of deity, an all-powerful deity.

This Awareness indicates that crimes of extreme proportions are attributed to the urging of this mythical being, and many entities in believing in the mythical being allow themselves to be used and to be agents of this mythical being. This Awareness indicates it is much as the experiment of conjuring up Phillip, wherein a group of entities, each writes a personality trait on a piece of paper, and perhaps an event or other quality which they then throw together into a pile and call the pile of traits and qualities Phillip. They then read all of the information for which they have put in the energy, labels and qualities and traits, and form a composite from this which they call Phillip; the entity as having been created out of various concepts from different sources or different individuals and not having a previous existence.

They then take this information, compile it into one visualized or imaginary character and then set forth to conjure up this entity through some kind of seance. This Awareness indicates this as having been an actual experiment which, after several weeks, brought forth the responses from an entity who called himself Phillip and who had all of the qualities and traits which had been artificially created for him, though he himself did not seem to know where these traits or qualities came from, and though he himself had all of the misinformation that had been attributed to him which he was supposed to have, such as the wrong dates of events, and certain relationships that were supposed to have been part of his past experience.

This entity took on his own artificially created personality and began communicating with the group. This Awareness suggests that gradually, other qualities of expression began to emerge through this artificial creation called Phillip, even things that had not been fully attributed to him. This Awareness indicates this is the process of adding to an information system, the information system being nothing more than the seed thought produced by a group of entities into the bio-computer of the cosmic mind or that fractured portion of cosmic mind, in which Phillip was projected from the consciousness of the entities involved.

This Awareness asks you: supposing these entities or similar entities at some time in the past had created such a being, attributed all of their negativity to that being, all of the concepts associated with negative behavior to that being, and labelled that being Satan. Is it not then seen as feasible that that conjured up creation called Satan might begin to take on his own appearance of a true real being, just as did Phillip, in this recent experiment?

How Astrology Helped to Create Satan Myth

This Awareness indicates that as this Satan, artificially created being, took on certain qualities, others hearing of it, others being informed of it, might in fact come in contact with evidence of Satan's existence and repeat the observations to others so that the story of Satan begins to spread more and more, and entities begin to believe in some supernatural unseen entity whose effects, whose expression appears to be that of a being. This Awareness indicates that as previously stated, Satan as created by the ancients, is nothing other than a personification of Saturn, having those qualities associated with the planet Saturn, in astrological terms, just as the sun has the qualities of the Christ, the sun of God, in astrological terms, just as the Greek god Zeus was nothing but a personification of Jupiter.

This Awareness indicates that Venus and Mars in Greek theology kept their names. Pluto and Neptune, also were personifications of the planets. This Awareness indicates that these qualities from this ancient theology or science or mother of science known as astrology, spawned many gods for many cultures, and many of these cultures changed the names of those gods taken from other cultures, thus the Egyptian Set, and Saturn and Satan, of the hand-me-down religious and philosophical messages or teachings from various cultures take on different types of titles and in some cases, even qualities as they are adopted from one culture to another.

The Horned God Pan Evolved into Satan Myth

This Awareness indicates the concept of the horned and tailed Satan is but the adaptation of the Middle Ages, the church during its Middle Ages, in which the Greed god Pan was superimposed over the concept of Satan or Saturn, so that this horned man with a tail, drawn to represent Satan never existed in that form prior to the Middle Ages. This Awareness indicates that throughout history, one religion spawns another. One cultural group of deities and mythologies are taken and adapted by another so that there is an evolution taking place in terms of religion, philosophy and mythology, which for some strange reason is always accepted as absolute fact rather than the symbology which it truly is.

Satan Bound will Become Boring

This Awareness indicates that in the action of binding Satan, which has been mentioned in the Book of Revelation, this movement of wrapping this entity in White Light thrice around in 3 directions, then spinning those energies so that the entity is completely enclosed in a three-layered ball of White Light, and solidifying that ball so that it cannot be pierced by the minds of man, has put this entity or concept in its proper place. It is only a matter of time that others, that entities throughout consciousness begin to see this illusion, this image, this concept of Satan as a gleaming ball of Light unable to affect anything in terms of mischief.

This Awareness indicates it is simply to sit there, to be recalled, and to bore entities who imagine or visualize this creation of the mind, for it is now simply a solidified ball of Light sitting in abstract reality with nothing to do. This Awareness indicates that as more and more entities observe this, they can no longer find the motivation based on some belief that Satan is out there trying to use them for mischief, they can no longer blame their own mischief on some abstract creation, and they must take consequences for their action, and others will begin to give less credence to the entity who claims: "The devil made me do it!"

No Deity Created Satan or Lucifer

This Awareness indicates that the devil is but a figment of their imagination, which, if they wish to encompass in their imagination, is simply a fractured aspect of themselves. This Awareness indicates that you are your own devil; that there is no other devil. There are those who commit mischief, some mischief being of extreme types, but this is not the result of some abstract being who has existed outside of the creation of human mind. Neither this Awareness nor any other deity created that which has been termed Satan.

This Awareness indicates that the concept of Lucifer is likewise but a symbol of the first separateness. This Awareness indicates that separateness is but an illusion of the mind, but the mind can perceive of the possibility of separateness if it ignores the reality that all things exist in a whole or total reality, and nothing can be truly separated from everything else. That concept of illusion of separateness allows certain expressions of the mind, which in turn can cause mischief, in which an entity feels that he or she can harm another without some kind of reaction or repercussion, because the entity believes he or she is separate.

This Awareness indicates that any time an entity harms another, the entity is in fact harming self, for the energies are all interconnected in time and space, and especially in consciousness. This Awareness indicates that as this concept is passed, this concept of the binding of Satan, is spread from group to group, through channel to channel, through student to student, through teacher to teacher, from person to person, the idea of Satan as an entity is that which begins diminishing, first, in terms of the image, then in terms of the alleged power of the image.

A Meditation to Reinforce the Binding of Satan

This Awareness would add to this binding in order that it may be processed more quickly. This Awareness suggests you visualize this ball of solid light which entraps this image of Satan, you move up very closely to this ball of light with a paint brush in your hand, with paints available in your other hand, a palette of paints. This Awareness suggests you dip into this palette with that paint brush and upon this ball of light you paint little smiley faces. Circle them,--each one a different color. This Awareness suggest you continue painting little smiley faces all over that ball of light which entraps that image, that concept of Satan

This Awareness indicates that by this action you participate in the binding of Satan, and add the strength of your strokes, and add to the alleviation of any alleged power that this image may have had over you. When you have finished painting one side of the ball, spin it around to a blank side and again paint those little smiley faces, with different colors, until the ball is totally covered with little smiley faces. Upon completion of this action, this Awareness suggests you take this ball and throw it out, smiling its way through the universe, through the far reaches of space. In this manner you free yourself of any power or alleged power which this concept of Satan may have had on you. You free yourself and you also free others. You participate in the binding action. This Awareness suggests this meditation be done once with good concentration and imagery, or it may be done up to three times. If done up to three times, let the tossing of the ball of energy be completed on the third time, but not on the first two times.

This Awareness suggests that it is better if you paint all of the little faces, the little smiley faces, the first time around, on all sides of this ball, and hurl the ball out into space with its little smiley faces spinning around as it disappears into the infinity. It is better to do this once. If you do not feel you have enough smiley faces on the ball the first time around, you may continue to spin it and do two more such meditations, until it is covered to your satisfaction, but only throw the ball into space once.

This Awareness indicates that this as a way whereby your participation in the binding adds to the power of the binding. You may do this more often, but it will only require the one time. Anything extra is redundant and unnecessary.

WILL THE BINDING OF SATAN
LAST 1000 YEARS?

(Follow-Up Question):

Awareness has indicated this binding would last one thousand years as indicated in the Book of Revelation.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is an arbitrary figure that was simply used in the Book of Revelation as a kind of symbol; one thousand years simply meaning a long long time; that it can last forever, if entities wish it to. This will depend entirely on whether or not entities wish to bring back the personification, reinforce it and start playing the game again. This Awareness indicates however, that if entities have learned anything from this, they will pass this off into time of antiquity, not to be drawn back.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto the child who, being taught to not go outside because of monsters or bogeymen, becomes afraid of the dark until the entity becomes old enough to realize the bogeyman doesn't really exist, not as has been suggested, and then the child, once having discarded the mythology of the bogeyman, has the option and ability to bring that back, but also has the knowledge to know it is simply a myth created by momma to keep the child from going out at night.

This Awareness indicates that it becomes difficult for the child to reinforce that same kind of belief in the bogeyman, or in Santa Claus after such myths have been dismissed.

WILL THE BINDING OF SATAN
LESSEN THE POWER OF THE ILLUMINATI?

(Follow-Up Question):

Awareness, some 8 or 9 years ago, there was this entity whose name escapes me, [John Todd], who was traveling underground, and speaking at various churches and putting out tapes in regard to certain satanic practices that were being used by the Illuminati, or at least certain high members of the Illuminati in the banking business, and it was indicated that this force, the satanic force that they were invoking helped them perpetuate their scheming and conspiracy. I'd like to ask specifically, will this binding interfere with these entities in conjuring up these energies to perpetuate their scheme, or will this too die out?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this kind of action will eventually also die out, as entities become more and more aware that Santa Claus, Satan, and these concepts and energies are but figments of the imagination. This Awareness indicates that there is power in Santa Claus at Christmas time, and children often have the power over their parents in extracting benefits by calling on Santa's name. This Awareness asks: What parent wants to break the illusion of Santa Claus, by denying the child that which the child believes is due from Santa Claus?

This Awareness indicates that likewise, there is certain power that can be extracted from entities who call upon Satan's name when dealing with another, if that other believes in Satan, and therefore, if these entities believe in Satan together and call upon and use the name in their dealings with each other, they have some kind of mutual pact which neither wants to break simply because they don't really want to participate in that particular deal; therefore, they go ahead and participate, even though they might not do so were it not for their mutual pact, and mutual belief in this mythical power.

How Conspiracy Groups Maintain Power Over Others

This Awareness indicates that these myths help to bind entities together and to extract energies from each other for the sake of the myth. This Awareness indicates that even more binding however, is that action that comes about in some of such organizations or groupings, in which an entity is coerced into committing a crime, the likes of which could be used as blackmail if the entity ever attempted to get out of line with the rest of the group, and this is where much of the power of those negative occult groups lie, in that many of those who are involved are either perpetuators or accomplices to crimes that could implicate them if they were to break rank with the rest of the group.

This Awareness indicates that there are, in fact, many who look for something in another that could be used against that person before they will even have any dealings with that person, so they can have a lever to control the person. This is the nature of many conspiracy types in which the organizations exist largely based on coercion and force and control of its members, and this is essentially what was being addressed in these speeches of this entity you referred to in your question. This Awareness indicates that this may have some effect, this binding of Satan, or the mythology of Satan, on such groups but some of these groups still will be held together because of other coercive means and because of their ambitions to be powerful, and because of the cooperation and camaraderie which they have developed together and the fear of going against that camaraderie.

ED's Note: CAC will again make available one of these tapes of John Todd, the entity Awareness is talking about, to interested members. Some years back, Awareness suggested we make this tape available at that time and it appears that today this information is still pertinent. Please refer to end of this newsletter for more info.

Part 3. THE INFILTRATION:

THE SEDUCTION OF THE YOUNG: PERVERSIONS, BESTIALITY, RITUAL HUMAN SACRIFICE: MORE COMMON TODAY THAN ENTITIES WANT TO BELIEVE.

5/2/89

QUESTION:

A question from D.W., San Diego, Calif. "A question for Awareness concerning the media exposure of the satanic groups. Is this exposure a prelude to using the occult groups as scapegoats for future problems? You know, like Hitler used the Jews as a focal point to give the people something to blame for their troubles and to hate? I can't help wondering why now they are exposing a group that has been around for a very long time. Are the major religions planning on going after free religion groups of the New Age movement and this is the first step of their plan, for they won't stop with the satanist groups which does need looking into, but they will also pursue the good guys? Have you heard anything about this?", and she wonders if Awareness could give information on this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is considerable reason for looking deeply at the satanic movement, and it is true that these entities have been around for thousands of years. This Awareness indicates however, that in the past, their activities have not been so noxious as in the recent years and months, whereby they have begun to spread their teachings among young people, and, coupling this with drug use, these young people become extremely vulnerable to their teachings and ritual sacrifices in such a manner as to bring these things into extreme polarity on a larger scale, so that society must become aware of what is occurring.

This Awareness indicates it is one thing for people from such a group to consider such thoughts and concepts as are expounded in the philosophies of Satan and Bael churches or groups, but it is quite something else when they begin to activate rites of human sacrifice. It is enough to tolerate the ritualistic slaughtering of the animals in their rites, but it has in recent times become more and more predominant in these groups to indulge in immoralities, perversions and bestiality, including also murder in these rites.

This Awareness indicates that this does not therefore imply that all of the negativities that might occur in society which have heretofore been attributed to Satan shall cease to exist. It implies rather that there will be fewer and fewer people who can use Satan as a scapegoat for their misdeeds, or who can call upon Satan for strength and energy to do misdeeds, for the power of the name as that which will begin to diminish; the power of the myth, the power of the image will weaken as this binding is repeated and repeated throughout the mass of consciousness.

This Awareness suggests that entities may have group meditations in which this binding is effected, in which these smiley faces are painted on the ball of light containing this myth. This Awareness reminds entities to refer always to Satan as the myth of Satan, so that others begin to think also in this way, for it detracts greatly from the power of that myth to have it called a myth. This is an example of truth making entities free.

This Awareness indicates the problem is much more widespread than anyone would care to believe; that there are also situations in which children not only are victims of some of these rites, there are also situations in which the members of such groups, Satanists movements, are involving their own children in witnessing these ritualistic sacrifices of others, including other children, and in fact, in some instances, use the children as the instruments of sacrificing other children. This Awareness indicates this being forced upon the children with threats that if they do not participate and also, if they speak of this to anyone, they too will be sacrificed in a similar ritual, or they too will witness the sacrifice of other loved ones in the family.

This Awareness indicates that this sounds unbelievable to the average and reasonable mind, yet there is a philosophy propounded by these entities who see this as a reasonable normal part of their own view of their lives, and do not wince or feel any conscience in regard to the type of behavior and actions of such rituals. This Awareness indicates that the history of Bael as that which reaches back into times of Atlantis; that Bael as that creation in terms of a concept which you might call a demonic god, which was created by man, just as Satan was created by the mind of man, and certain attributes were given to Bael, and Bael was that god of Atlanteans who was responsible for all that is normally perceived as evil and cruelty.

ED's Note: In a reading some years back, Awareness indicated that Adolph Hitler was the reincarnation of Bael.

This Awareness indicates that Bael had a great following in the latter millennium of Atlantis and much of this was carried over into early times in the Egyptian civilization. The Babylonians and Canaanites also embraced and endorsed Bael, and the concept of Satan, which came from Persia, under the name of Zamae (sp?) which incorporated the Egyptian astrological god Set, or Saturn, and resulted in the term of Satan, a mixture of the various qualities of these deities, symbolizing that which is the destroyer, much as in the Hindu philosophy as presented by Kali or Kal, the destroyer.*

*Kali as female personification of Shiva, the Destroyer.

Bael, down through the ages, as having been the antithesis of the people of Shem; the Shemites as those who professed and worked toward that which was a more refined god or deity, not representing the cruelty of Bael, but representing a kind of group unity; this conflict between the Canaanite god of Bael and the Shemites and their worship of god as that which has taken many forms down through the ages and has eventually resulted in different gods appearing here and there so that Bael became Satan and the gods of the Shemites became the Christian gods, and these teachings of Christianity and the teachings of Bael or Satanism became the antithesis of each other.

This Awareness indicates that it is a total error to link the philosophy of Wicca, the witchcraft with Satanism, in terms of their roots, although in some instances today, some of the witchcraft groups are embracing some of the satanist values. This Awareness indicates that the witchcraft groups are more closely aligned to the concepts of Lucifer than of Satan; Lucifer being the angel, this in terms of the mythology, the angel associated with God, who fell because of pride. Luciferian qualities are also associated with deception, but not with the cruelty of those gods of Bael and Satan.

This Awareness indicates that these are also symbolized in the work of Rudolf Steiner as Ahriman; the Satanists and the Ahrimanic force as being one and the same. This Awareness indicates they dwell on sadism or the pleasure of cruelty. They receive a sense of power and the illusion of godhood in the taking of lives, or harming of others. This Awareness indicates that the Luciferian forces as those which have weakened in terms of any power on this plane, in that the deception on this plane is coming to light and the Luciferian energies as being dissipated and brought back to the Godhead as a return to the Light, this occurring on a very gradual basis. It is not complete by any means.

Fundamentalists are Slandering New Age Groups

This Awareness indicates that to attribute satanic qualities to everything that is not fundamentalist Christian in nature is but a way of promoting one's own belief and saying everything else is of the devil. This Awareness indicates that this too is in great error. There are many efforts by certain fundamentalists to argue that anything that relates to New Age is satanic, anything that relates to metaphysics is satanic. This is totally in error. This Awareness indicates that there are fundamentalist churches that are in effect slandering other spiritual groups that are equally spiritual to themselves, perhaps with even deeper understanding, but because they are not accepting the same dogma as literally as they like, they label them satanic.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto earlier times, some twenty, thirty years ago, when even the Protestant churches would privately tell their parishioners: "Don't go to the Baptist church. They aren't truly Christian. The devil directs them. Stay with the Nazarene church!", or if you were in the Baptist church, you would hear similar statements regarding other churches. The Catholics believed the Protestant churches were of the devil, and the Protestant churches often remarked that the Catholics were of the devil. It is just a way whereby they influenced their membership to remain loyal. Now there is a wider selection of spiritual groups which can be labelled as being of the devil, even if they do not understand what these other groups are or what they stand for; if they have any of the paraphernalia of New Age teaching or qualities, they label them as being of the devil.

What Satanists Believe

This Awareness indicates it has very little to do with the devil of the Christian religion. It is rather that many of these organizations study some of the things that are different or are different interpretations of biblical teachings from those that the fundamentalists embrace. This Awareness indicates however, the satanists do not make any bones about being a variation of the Christian religion, they do not claim to have a different interpretation. They claim to be in total opposition to anything that is merciful, to anything that is good, to anything that smacks of Christian behavior; this in terms of the exemplary behavior of Christ and the teachings that have been handed down. They embrace the commandments of opposing concepts to those that have been given to humanity down through the ages for guidance, such as the Ten Commandments and the teachings of Christ in terms of the Golden Rule. For them, love is power; they want no other kind of love.

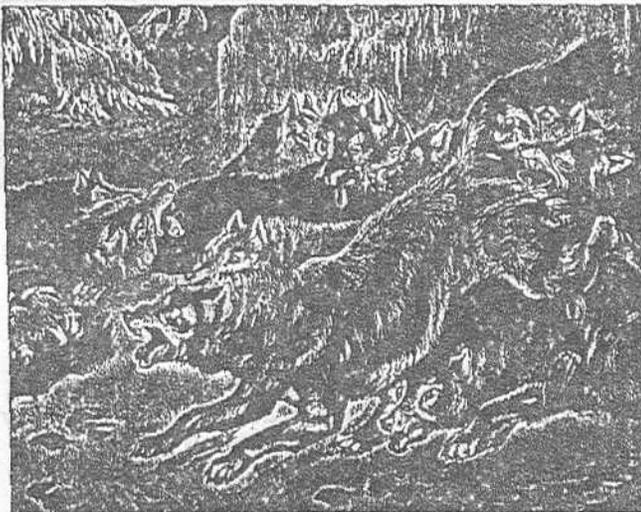

For them, their idea is that to kill, to harm, to hurt, gives them superiority. Their great concern is that they might become more complete in terms of power and claim godhood if they have no rules or inhibitions in terms of mercy, justice, fairness or any of the normal social values that are required for decent living. They seek to have no restrictions whatsoever and see the masses as being but sheep, and they as being likened unto wolves, whose right is to devour the sheep, and they see themselves in this way as being superior to the masses, solely because they have the daring to do what the masses would not do.

Satanists Could End Up in Sumeria

This Awareness indicates they have no room for mercy, concern for the welfare of others; they would never put the welfare of others above self. They would always put the welfare of self above others. This Awareness indicates that they take pride in their ability to harm, to destroy, to be without mercy, and in so doing, they identify with Bael, with Satan. This Awareness indicates theirs' is a sick world in terms of any socially redeeming values, and in fact, they, in many cases, are moving toward that which this Awareness has mentioned previously as entities who in rare, in very rare cases, become irredeemable, and spend eternity in that seething subconscious lake called Sumeria. This Awareness indicates that this Sumeria as being but a place where the souls of some entities who are totally irredeemable never escape and never have complete remembrance of self, but are a confusion and a mixture of each other, as their souls dissolve partially, mingling and commingling with the souls of others like themselves to the point where they are but seething energies of confused subconscious feelings and memories; these of their own agonizing emotions, from activities in which they have indulged.

This Awareness indicates that this is the hell that awaits some entities who move into these irredeemable states; that the majority of entities and souls never reach such levels of being irredeemable, even entities of great cruelty, if they can find within themselves remorse for their harming of others, can be redeemed, but this philosophy, this satanic philosophy and the philosophy associated with Bael from whence the satanic philosophy is derived, is that which in itself can carry entities into those levels that make them irredeemable. This Awareness indicates it is the only philosophy that can do so; that the other philosophies, other religions, other beliefs, even the Luciferian philosophies do not lead to this irredeemable situation.

This Awareness indicates that the great danger that could cause tragedy for the Christian philosophy is in attempting to become too broad in labelling everything outside their own narrow belief as being satanic, and in so doing, create a backlash from those who are not satanic in such a manner that it causes the Christian religions to become ineffective and appear to be without proper restraint and discernment. This Awareness indicates that it could lead to violence between various Light groups and religious groups in a manner that would be most pleasing to the Satanists themselves.

This Awareness indicates that there are in fact, Satanists who infiltrate groups and will do what they can to stir up these conflicts between Light groups and religious groups. This Awareness reminds you that the Satanist groups have been around for thousands of years and are not easily exposed. This Awareness suggests however, that the times are changing, and if entities don't start pointing toward each other and labelling each other as Satanists just because they look somewhat different in terms of philosophy, the chances are that these Satanic groups will be brought into the Light, exposed before consciousness, so that they become ineffective in their work and can no longer carry on in their mischief.

This Awareness indicates that to be a Satanist, one has to be separated from Universal Consciousness, from other entities, so that in the final reckoning, the entity is alone; even fellow Satanists would betray each other, for their own purposes, for they have no conscience to tell them to feel merciful or to love each other, therefore, they look out for number one, and in the process of being separate, they in fact separate themselves from all else, and separating themselves, they become isolated in the universe, and they may perceive this as being personal power, for separateness gives a sense of identity, individuality and power, but in fact, it also leaves the entity totally alone, without support, and having absolutely no power whatsoever in reality, other than the illusion, which the entity may perceive for a short duration.

For New Age Groups--Discernment Needed

This Awareness indicates that entities who seek power through separateness, through the rejection and hostility, cruelty or slaughter of others, are only isolating and separating themselves from any support that Universal Consciousness and the consciousness of others might offer. The only way these entities can redeem themselves is to come back, to rejoin, to seek forgiveness, to seek to belong to others and to Universal Consciousness; without this they are irredeemable. This Awareness indicates that there are many highly spiritual New Age groups. There are very few Christian groups that understand what it means to be a New Age group. The term is so loosely used, without much definition in terms of an official agreed-upon clarity of meaning, and so anyone who has anything to do with spiritual groups that are not mainstream Christianity are called New Age and they tend to associate any New Age group with Satanism, when there is in fact no connection, but because they have heard about Satanism as being organized as some kind of group and cult, and they are also in competition with New Age groups, they lump them all together as a common enemy to Christianity.

This Awareness indicates that many of these New Age groups are Christian groups themselves, having perhaps, even greater spiritual contact than many of the groups who class them as satanic. It is important that entities begin to distinguish between those groups that have the Highest and Best motives, even if they do not have the answers to everything, even if they are confused in regard to what is the true spiritual path, and those groups which are clearly and without reservation accepting the path of darkness.

In Defense of Astrology etc.

This Awareness indicates those Christian groups cannot distinguish simply by certain symbols, images, terminologies which draws from occult symbology is necessarily promoting that which is the Dark Path. There are certain symbologies that can be used as tools for good or for evil, and when entities begin to class the tools as evil, and indicators of evil, just because those tools are not used in their own religious dogma, they do an injustice, for it is not the tools that determine whether an entity is misusing the tool.

This Awareness indicates that there are many entities who have an understanding of astrology, that are classed as satanic because they have studied astrology or the Tarot, or the I Ching, or some other fringe tool, such as crystals or prisms, in such a manner as to experiment to see if there is a way of discovering things to add to one's knowledge. Is it evil that entities should seek to discover more, to test something to see if there is any validity, and if they find validity, in spite of common sense that says it can't be so, in spite of tradition that argues it is not so, if they find there is some truth to something; is not truth that which shall make entities free? Have they not the right to pursue and seek truth?, and who is to be the one who says their truth is false?

What "New Age" Really is About

This Awareness indicates that there are entities who have spent lifetimes objectively working with such tools as palmistry, astrology, the Tarot, handwriting analysis, and there are many who are extremely good in the use of these tools, and because most entities cannot take the time, do not have the interest, or haven't the skill to do as well, or they do not understand how these things can be, they either class them as superstition or as fraud or as evil. This Awareness indicates that in reference to the New Age, it has nothing to do with the trinkets, it has nothing to do with the crystals that are so commonly sold in New Age shops. All those crystals are just tools that entities can focus on during meditations or they may serve as symbolism for healing purposes, just as Christians may use crosses, or other religious icons, but the crystals do not make the Aquarian Age, nor does channeling make the Aquarian Age, nor does the kind of metaphysical grouping and flowering and discussions of New Age mean that these entities are creating the New Age, nor does even the meditations or group meditations create the New Age. They contribute energies to it.

This Awareness indicates that it is the universal vibrations and the movement of planets, the movement of

11. the sun in its sojourn through its orbit, through its orbit around Sirius in the Orion constellation, and the variation that it meets in its movement that determines the earth ages of approximately 2200 years each, and it is this movement into these new vibrations that trigger certain frequency reactions among the planets of the solar system so that vibrations are altered on earth and on the other planets in such a manner that it changes the consciousness of individuals on earth. It is this that is causing and bringing about the New Age.

Christian Religion Must Change or Perish

This Awareness indicates that this mapping of frequencies as the sun moves through its twenty six thousand year orbit is that which has been mapped in terms of astrological movements and they have been labeled as ages, and the movements today are those associated with the Age of Aquarius. It is dawning. It is but beginning. It began early in this century, early in the 20th Century. This Awareness indicates that the Christian religion will undergo great changes in the coming century. It must make adjustments. It must change in order to survive. It must adopt beliefs, understanding which science is discovering. It cannot survive on the old concepts of 2000 years ago. The scientific view of the universe as being multidimensional, parallel universes, black holes; all of these new discoveries must become part of the Christian religion. It can no longer be thought of as simply a place in the universe in which the son of the Universal Creator came and was crucified, and for being crucified, created the option for masses to be redeemed, and that there is no other option available anywhere, for if that is the scenario of the Universal Creator's plan, it would need to be carried out on all of the other inhabited planets in the universe, in the same way, so that Jesus would be traveling all over the universe being born of virgins, being crucified on crosses, in order to redeem those planets by setting up religions that compete with other religions on those planets in hopes that some of those would be redeemed, while all the others would be sent to everlasting flames of hell.

Is this the plan of a Universal Creator, or does it sound more like the plan of a madman? This Awareness indicates the Christian religion must look at the story symbolically and understand its esoteric meaning rather than its superficial literal meaning; it is this esoteric interest, this esoteric interpretation, this esoteric value of the Christian religion that is so important to the New Age groups. This Awareness indicates that such things as UFOs, conspiracies, the meditations, the interest in Far East teachings, the openness to exploring of crystals and healing techniques, the concern about the environment, the work in terms of human potential movements; all of these things are but reflections of these New Age vibrations, and these reflections themselves are being mistaken for New Age fads or behavior, and the reality that is pushing and bringing about this new consciousness which promotes and explores these things is unseen by Christian groups. They see only that which is the result of this new energy, and they see these things and they see the chaos that is also being pushed into the spotlight of consciousness wherein all things are being revealed, even the ugliness of the satanic groups, and because these ugly images are surfacing along with this other paraphernalia, they lump it all together, labeling everything other than their own narrow philosophy as being satanic in nature.

Their thinking is polarized: 'You're either with us or against us!', 'there is no in between,' this like saying: 'It's either a good day or a bad day. There's no such thing as a ho-hum day.' This Awareness indicates that there are degrees, there are shades; things are not dualistic, they are multiple, multiple-istic. People are not simply good or bad, they are good and bad. They have their weaknesses and their strengths, their greatness and their weakness. Entities need to learn to accept without so much judgment and discern clearly so that they are tolerant of those things that are essentially harmless and very strict in recognizing those things that are dangerous to the welfare of themselves or others, so that they do not tolerate the extreme error, but that they tolerate differences which, in themselves, are harmless.

This Awareness indicates that many entities will kill each other because of a difference in belief, of something that matters not one whit. They can become so violent and so insistent in being right that they would slay their brother or sister for opposing them on their belief. It is when things do matter, wherein someone is creating a situation that is an extreme threat to the welfare of another, that entities need to know and express and act so that they do not tolerate violence, they do not tolerate these violations, but in so doing, it is important not to become that which you yourself oppose, for it is not the will of this Awareness that entities should take on the qualities that they are seeking to prevent in others.

This Awareness indicates that it is very easy for entities to become fearful, wherein one begins to point the finger and say: "You are a New Age person! You are of the devil!" It is easy to become fearful at being classed in such a manner. It is important that entities clarify, that they make friends, that they explain, that they communicate, so that these misconceptions can be reconciled and clarified. It is better that this communication occur between opposing entities than that they simply flee away without speaking or become angry at being accused, or hurl back similar accusations. This Awareness indicates it is also important that entities carefully distance themselves from any appearance of Satanism, for these entities are drawing to themselves the wrath of the people, and that wrath can very easily spill over onto others who may be nearby, or of similar appearance.

A Time of Great Turbulence is Coming

This Awareness indicates there is coming a time of great turbulence in regard to this issue of Satanism and its effect on entities in this nation and in other nations where it is so prevalent. It is not limited by any means to this United States. It is very commonly associated with the drug scene. This Awareness indicates that it is important that entities begin to distance themselves from this, for these Satanists themselves can be not only dangerous to be around, they can also be dangerous as associates. This Awareness indicates that the editor of Revelations of Awareness has received in the mail letters on occasion and information relating to Satanism. This Awareness indicates it is disturbing to understand the extent and realism of this concept and its teachings, but it is also important that entities realize the reality of it.

It is important to realize also that this Awareness has one month ago, put forth a binding on the myth of Satan, to defuse this energy, that this binding action as that which has grown considerably in the last month. There have been numerous exposes in regard to satanic situation, people involved in Satanism, and information being expressed regarding Satanism, and gradually, it is coming to the light of consciousness for humans to witness and defuse. This Awareness has put a binding on this concept and myth of Satan, for it is not a reality in terms of a personality; it is a creation of thought with an abstract essence that operates as a kind of mythical being which stimulates entities when they seek stimulation from their imagined god, and they can perpetuate this imagined being as a form of stimulation for as long as they desire, but this Awareness has put a binding on this myth, this mythical being, and has confined this being to that of a golden ball, wrapped the entity, the imaginary entity, and restrained the entity so that it cannot have further expansion or power to serve those who feed the energy of this myth.

This Awareness indicates that It has provided that this energy be removed from the earth plane and that it is in the process of being so removed. This Awareness indicates that there will be further exposing of these groups and entities during the coming months and coming years. This Awareness suggests that by the year 1995, entities will have a great understanding of things which they have not heretofore imagined, and the place will then become much safer for everyone. This Awareness indicates there is much that will be exposed during the coming year alone, not only in regard to Satanism but also in regard to much of the power that has been misused by officials and authorities in governments and this too is part of the spin-off of satanic rituals that have affected entities in high places.

A PROFILE OF A TYPICAL CANDIDATE FOR SATANISM

(Follow-Up Question):

Awareness, could you give a profile of a typical candidate for getting involved in a satanic cult? Is there any particular characteristic that would make this sort of universal among entities who are attracted to this sort of thing?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that generally the type of person who would be drawn to this kind of action is a person who is basically rebelling toward either parents or society, and the values which have been thus presented to them, and particularly religious values. The entities also tend to gravitate toward the heavy rock, heavy metal rock music wherein the images of masculinity and cruelty are expressed in the music. They also tend to have a poor social image whereby they are not that well liked by others, although this is not always a criteria. They tend to have little respect for themselves or for others, and they seek to fit in with those who appear to be even more rebellious than themselves, as though seeking company or guidance in antisocial values and behavior, and they want to shock others.

They tend to enjoy the idea of taking the opposite approach of anything that others value as sacred. They enjoy speaking out against normally acceptable issues. They might, for example, believe that or argue that you should kill all the whales, or destroy all the forests, or nuke the Russians or anyone else, just for the sake of setting up opposition to the popular attitude of others, to the attitude that others express. They may argue that it is stupid to care about other people; that other people are stupid or that they are so weak and so compromising or so obedient that they are of little use to themselves or anyone else.

They may argue that other people have no real value and might as well be destroyed, and they generally seek to find ways of giving themselves greater power. They seek power because they feel powerless in their world, and it is this seeking of power that, along with the rebellious attitude that draws them toward the satanic philosophy in hopes that it will give them the sense of power they want. This Awareness indicates that once within, they are fed their propaganda of the satanic teaching: that mercy is a sign of weakness; that love is but utilitarian and has no value other than in however it can serve you; that others are useful only in the manner that they can benefit you; that to be merciful is to be weak and victimized; that justice is only a concept for the weak; that victory and power are their own ends; that Christianity is for sissies and that entities receive power when they slay another or are cruel to others, and that to be free, they must have no inhibitions or fear of striking out and slaying or doing whatever they want.

This Awareness indicates that with repetition of such attitudes, they gradually begin to accept these attitudes as being normal, especially when they are in the company of others who believe likewise. This Awareness indicates they then witness the slaughtering of some chicken or animal. They may even drink the blood, and with the peer pressure of others, they must act as though it is great fun, and as they pretend or act with the others, they see each other as enjoying the ritual, and feel there is great power from this, and from their unity they have a secret which tends to bind them together so that they have something in common and this gives them a feeling of great power, and by the time they have graduated to human sacrifice, their secret is so important and they are so entrapped that their power seems omnipotent in that no one dares speak of it, and they have each other entrapped so that each is entrapped by the other and all the others are trapped by them, and therefore, they are a group, and the group power belongs to each of them, and this gives them a sense of power that they did not have when they were individuals alone in a world that frightened them.

This Awareness indicates however, it does not hold together and eventually the circle breaks and an entity breaking out may either become the next victim, or may turn on those others in order to save himself. This Awareness indicates that these groupings also bring in women who may then be coerced as has been indicated on certain exposes, coerced into providing a baby for sacrifice. This Awareness indicates the sickening expressions for the sacrifice and subsequent sense of power by these entities is that which is such an oppression to human dignity that few can remain loyal to the procedure, and therefore, many of these find themselves becoming victims in future sacrifices and rituals, for the group does not allow entities to simply leave.

This Awareness does not imply or wish to imply that all Satanists are involved in slaughter of human beings. There are some who simply dabble in the concepts and play with the ideas; however, these entities, though playing tongue-in-cheek games with their philosophy can have influence on others who take their teachings literally. This Awareness indicates that the daughter of Anton LaVey, the high priest of the Satanic Church, the self-proclaimed high priest, has said that such sacrifices do not occur, yet the Satanic Bible, written by this entity, promotes these sacrifices: "Thou shalt kill. Thou shalt commit adultery"...all of those things which were given in the Old Testament Ten Commandments are reversed in this entity's teachings and the argument that they were just tongue-in-cheek is given, yet as one young person stated: "I took them literally, and I know others who do, who take them as admonitions to go out and kill," this young man having killed his father for Satan.

This Awareness indicates that it is extremely tragic that the human mind is as yet not clear enough to discern the values necessary for healthy and peaceful living on this beautiful planet which has been given, and which could provide everything that is needed, were it not for such greed, lust for power and disrespect for life.

The energizing of the Satan myth has been going on a long time. Making a pact with the devil meant selling him one's soul in exchange for certain benefits as shown in this 17th Century engraving.

Part 4.

BRINGING IT ALL BACK HOME: SATANISM IN OUR OWN BACK YARD

HOW WIDESPREAD IS SATANISM IN THE UNITED STATES?

HOW ACCURATE WAS GERALDO'S TV DOCUMENTARY?

SHOULD ANTI-SATANISM LAWS BE PASSED?

QUESTION:

There's a couple of questions left over from that subject of last night regarding the Satanism. Lately, the Lyndon LaRouche people have been setting up their table outside the Olympia post office, with signs saying, "Make Satanism Illegal," or to that effect, and to sign a petition to pass a law to that effect. Just what do these people know that the average person evidently doesn't know, and would such a law be effective if it was passed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that such a law would no doubt be challenged on the grounds of freedom of religion; that there would be those who, representing certain facets of the church of Satanism would deny any misdeeds in the sense of such sacrificial rituals and it would be most difficult for the courts to outlaw this without showing it is an integral part of the church. This Awareness indicates that the law against murder even under the context of ritual for religious purposes is sufficient to create laws to protect individuals. The problem lies in finding how to root out and expose these ritual sacrifices.

This Awareness indicates that it is even illegal to sacrifice animals in some areas through ritual and religious churches. The question would however, bring out considerable attention in public media for this to be presented regardless of which the verdict on the bill would go, and regardless of whether it were appealed and seen as being unconstitutional, it would still bring out considerable attention of the public to the problems associated with this Satanism. It could also have some backlash in that in so doing, there would be laws passed which would infringe upon other Constitutional rights in terms of religion in general. It is a question and a situation that could cut two ways.

The LaRouche Versions of Satanism

This Awareness indicages that in the part of the question asking: What do these entities know about Satanism?; these entities have a considerably broad network of informants and investigative reporters who look into many different things for information. Their approach is not always middle ground, but generally as being biased to the philosophy which the Lyndon LaRouche people espouse and expound. This then gives them certain information that is often unavailable to others, but their presentation or interpretation of the information can sometimes be somewhat distorted in terms of its implications or in terms of the collection of data.

For example, these entities tend to feel that any metaphysical or New Age organization is lumped into that area which is classed as Satanism; they are not very objective in terms of their clarity in regard to such things. They classify The Aquarian Conspiracy book in regards to this conspiracy of forces to create an evil world; that they see all of these things as being part of this; that their approach is that everyone is basically in error, and part of an evil conspiracy except the Lyndon LaRouche factions and those whom they particularly identify with. This Awareness indicates that they fail to be completely objective, but the depth of their research and information is such as to far surpass what you receive in other publications. They do pry deeply behind the scenes to know who is whose representative, who works with who, what businesses and contacts they have, what their philosophies or their programs are, and this kind of information can be beneficial for those who can see through the lack of objectivity in some of their other opinion expressions, the expressions of their opinions.

This Awareness indicates that for some people, the material would be nothing but confusion to them, because of the excessive amount of detailed information mixed in with opinions, yet for others, there can be considerable value in reading the material from the LaRouche groups, because there is so much detailed information and if one can perceive where the propaganda leaves off and the factual information begins, one can receive considerable value from the material. It is not always easy, nor is it easy for those who are not already familiar with much of the information. This Awareness does not recommend that everyone rely on this material, or that anyone would rely on this material except as supplemental information to other more objective material, and that along with the objective material, wherein entities can have a clearer understanding, then the LaRouche material can be seen as valuable in supplementing or adding to other information that is available.

This Awareness suggests the same may be said for the Spotlight and for other extremist publications; that there can be value in reading these extremist publications, but one must look beyond the propaganda values which are being expressed in the publications and simply seek the factual data and accept that only in light of other confirming indicators of similar factual data from other sources.

ARE EIGHT MILLION AMERICANS INVOLVED IN SATANIC RITUALS?

(Follow-Up Question):

In reference to these Satanism news stories suddenly starting to pop up everywhere; on the Geraldo Ravera Show yesterday, a retired FBI man made the statement that right here in our own area in Mason county, next door, Shelton in particular,* there was so much of this Satanism going on, and ritual sacrifices, that he had an informant who had told him of at least seven different graves of these victims, one of which probably held as many as 25 bodies. Now, the Shelton police have denied knowing anything at all about this, but they did say the man did come in and got permission to investigate around there, and they're not taking it lightly because this ex-FBI man, on this same show about three or four months ago said that he know of a Satanic cult in Mexico where all these bodies were buried and he named the town, and since that time they have discovered this was true; the man who was involved with this dug up the bodies. So, he also said that he estimates there could be as many as 8 million people in the United States who actually practice Satanism, which seems like an awfully high figure.

My question is: How many people are actually involved in this thing, how wide-spread actually is this, and is the information about Mason county essentially true?

*ED's Note: The town of Shelton, in Mason County is the birthplace of both Ralph Duby and Vikki T. (So far I have not been able to connect any of this together).

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is generally, in reference to the county, as being correct; that it is not alone; that this is much more wide-spread than entities have ever or could ever imagine. This Awareness indicates that the figure of 8 million is on the high side in reference to the United States, but it must be understood that this is a worldwide phenomena, especially throughout Europe, Africa and the Western hemisphere. This Awareness indicates that it is not prevalent in the Communist countries or in the orient or IndoChina area, or India.

This Awareness indicates that it is not such that it is a single religion of Satanism, but has many facets or different faces, different organizations, and as such, there are different expressions within its many faces so that there is human sacrifice in some, but not in other aspects of this religion. This Awareness indicates that it is also in some respect, or in some factions linked in with some of the other secret organizations and embraces in some areas those things associated with witchcraft, or perhaps it should be reversed, saying that some of the witchcraft organizations embrace aspect of Satanism.

The Witchcraft Connection

This Awareness indicates the witchcraft, generally in its more common form, is more of a nature religion and is not involved in Satanism, but that there are certain aspects of Satanism and witchcraft which intermingle in some organizations; this means that certain organizations may embrace or incorporate aspects from both demonology as well as nature forces. This Awareness indicates that in reference to the various organizations that are involved in metaphysics, the general field of metaphysics has nothing to do with Satanism, but is more closely aligned to Christianity in an esoteric sense, whereby they see the values of a positive approach to life through Christian type morality and behavior, and at the same time, they see the unity in all things that are good, in the sense that their attempts generally are for the good of humanity. They do however, embrace concepts associated with the use of magic in the sense of prayer, meditation or energizing through imagery and focusing.

This Awareness indicates that many entities cannot seem to distinguish that metaphysical groups and witchcraft groups and satanic groups are totally different because in some instances, some of the teachings tend to overlap, and it is also even difficult for a student, not having an instructor to discern what is metaphysical and what is in the area of witchcraft and what is in the area of Satanism or demonology. The problem lies in that much of this information is all classified under the broad title of 'occult', even though it is in many cases not an accurate description of the material. There is nothing occult, for example, in regard to astrology or in regard to most metaphysical teachings, for occult means secret, and these things are in no way secretive.

This Awareness indicates that there are of course, those secret orders and secret schools and there is much carried on in secrecy which is not of the highest, which can be very degrading to human values and these things are indeed considered as occult. It becomes quite unfair to label things that are not secret as being occult, just because some organization wants them to remain secret from their own membership. This Awareness indicates that much in regard to metaphysical teaching has been deliberately misaligned as being a part of Satanism or witchcraft by entities who know nothing of what they speak and simply class everything that is not part of their own accepted dogma as being satanic.

This Awareness indicates that the LaRouche groups in their approach to Satanism is also of such inclination as to class all of these Light groups of New Age alignment to satanic labeling, which is unfair, and inaccurate.

SHOULD C.A.C. PUT OUT ANTI-SATAN ADS DIRECTED AT AMERICAN YOUTH ?

(Follow-Up Question): Vikki:

I believe many young people, especially, get curious about satanic areas without any real idea there are other areas of study out there, when they choose to look beyond their Christian restrictions. Would it be helpful to put ads out, totally separate from CAC, like: "Curious about Satanism? Write box 24, Olympia," and then have the particular information to mail them that hopefully would head them off from dangerous area, and if so, what would be best to send them?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this could be beneficial, for some entities. It could also bring considerable problems unless the information provided is very strict and clear that you are in no way promoting Satanism. It can also bring down the wrath of Satanists on your publication and whatever you would be sending forth. This Awareness indicates that in response to the part of the question: What would be good to send them?, you could send the general information relating to the various actions which could lead them through to spiritual understanding so that they see an outline for a path that would give them what they want, such as in the passage: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things will be given unto you," as well as the passage that: "The Kingdom of heaven is within." This Awareness indicates that these can then indicate to the entities that through proper understanding of the metaphysical life and the higher esoteric teachings of Christ, the entity can have the best of both worlds, have the spiritual life as well as the good things in life, and that can be accompanied also with warnings of the difficulties that people have experienced through Satanism and what it actually entails in terms of the sacrifices that entities may be required to give to Satan, and how it can wreck havoc on their psyche and peace of mind, if for example, they were to be required to sacrifice their own child as occurs in many cases, or participate in the sacrifice of some young child, or even live with the belief that they are giving up all of their future in terms of personal integrity and love and mercy and the qualities that are generally held dear, for some temporary sense of power, wherein they are asked to sacrifice to the group their innocence and become a conspirator to misdeeds so that they are then entrapped by the group and organization, unable to become free again without dire consequences or without themselves being destroyed by their group.

This Awareness indicates that by showing the dangers of the entrapment as opposed to the promises of something much more beneficial on all levels, the entities would be more able to make educated discernment. Likewise, in looking at the demonic aspects showing that this is not something glamorous; it is not even a kind of rebellion that brings forth benefits but is a rebellion based on the belief in some force that has never yet kept its promises, has never yet been truthful, does not even portray or claim to be honest and truthful in its dealings, does not show mercy, even to its own followers. When this is better understood, entities would tend most likely to look in different directions and toward alternate paths leading to higher lifestyles and benefits.

This Awareness suggests that it could be written in such a way as to show these hazards, and then to steer entities into the other directions; that it may also be beneficial to suggest to entities the Christian approach through a more tolerant type of Christianity, that which was intended by the teacher. This Awareness indicates that too many of these young people have only heard the Christian story as is presented in dogma of threats and of the punishment of hell, and of the emotionally charged evangelistic type of Christianity and they are both frightened, attracted and repelled by these energies. Some entities turn away, or become involved in Satanism simply because it seems daring or because it seems rebellious and they are in the age bracket which is desirous of rebelling against the principles that are being pushed upon them by parents and by traditional religion.

This Awareness indicates that if they are at such a stage where they feel there is only the black and white and there are no shades of gray or no paths in a more reasonable middle ground or liberal type of Christianity, and if they feel they have to be at one extreme or the other, they may find themselves shifting in rebellion to the extreme opposite and going into Satanism, but if they realize there are shades of gray, or even higher forms of Christianity than the rigid form they have been fed, wherein these higher forms allow for increased freedom of expression as well as greater understanding, they may opt for that and rebel in a way that is even more liberating and less harmful.

This Awareness indicates that one must consider very carefully what one is doing when promoting something of this nature, for one cannot blindly or haphazardly offer help unless one knows for sure, with reasonable certainty that one can fulfill the promise and give the information, for such entities as might respond to this can be quite disturbed emotionally and spiritually, and the response might bring forth most volatile and vulnerable energies from these entities. It would be better not to attempt something of this nature, than to attempt and not be prepared for what kind of energies might come from or result from your offer to supply information. This Awareness indicates with a very well thought out plan, it could be of benefit.

This Awareness suggests that you might work with experts in various fields. This Awareness suggests for example, presenting them with something on the order of a voting pamphlet, whereby, for example, the fundamentalist Christian doctrine is presented on one page, the more liberal Christian philosophy presented on another page, such as that which is expressed in the Unity church, a Catholic presentation on one page, Hindu and Buddhist or other teachings presented on one page, metaphysical approaches and theories of other metaphysical types of material which expound on the nature of life and the universe and certain values that are of benefit, along with courses for more information and perhaps information on the secret orders or semi-secret orders such as the Rosicrucians or some of the other less noxious mystery schools, and then explain the basic hazards and dangers that entities might need forewarning of in regard to the extremes of some of these organizations, and how the approach to Satanism as that which becomes more and more binding on the entity's personal freedom and any sense of value, for promises that are never kept, for power that is never delivered.

This Awareness indicates that something of this nature being presented as a cocreative effort by various religious and metaphysical groups to give the inquiring person a kind of menu, could be beneficial; that each of these particular views on life could also present their concern with Satanism. This Awareness suggests that there also would need to be the legal implications indicated within a page or two as to the legal hazards that might become threatening in the involvement with Satanism.

Satanic Seduction May Begin at Your Local Video Store
( The Worst Form of Pornography )

This Awareness wishes to call attention to another aspect that is closely related to Satanism in terms of its effect on the psyche of entities, but which in itself is not promoted as Satanism. This Awareness indicates that this is in reference to certain videotapes being made available through video stores; that the horror films, the slasher films are creating a certain attraction in the minds of many for a tolerance of killing, an infatuation with killing. This Awareness indicates that these are doing great harm to the psyches of entities; that even worse is at least one film that is being rented in many of the video stores called The Many Faces of Death. There are others of similar nature. It is much likened unto the earlier movie Mondo Kane, except it is far more explicit, beginning with accidents, leading in through the killing of animals and the killing or executions and finally, murder and ritual killing, and it is promoted in these video stores, right along side of movies that are being rented out for young people.

This Awareness indicates that this as not fictionalized images of death, but as the real thing, and it has the effect of hardening the entity who views such so that death is less abhorrent and appears to be more exciting; since they can participate in viewing death without any personal threat it is a step away from viewing ritual deaths or other forms of murder without being shocked or without feeling excessive concern. This Awareness suggests that such films should be banned as the worst form of pornography, as being the most obscene of films, yet these are being promoted in video shops that do not even carry pornography in many instances,--this in reference to sexual pornography.

This Awareness indicates that while the people will not tolerate the sexual pornography, they tolerate films of this type, which actually show the deaths and suffering of entities and present it as a kind of entertainment.

SATANISM AND THE ILLUMINATI

CAN WE TRUST THE WORD OF 'BORN AGAIN' CHRISTIANS?

QUESTION:

On this Geraldo Show last night, they interviewed an entity who claimed to be involved in Satanism for 20 years, I believe it was, and they asked him where, and he mentioned the Illuminati. He also mentioned he was a Born-Again Christian, and like his predecessor, John Todd, who also exposed Satanism some years back, that statement 'born again Christian' lessens the credibility in the eyes of an awful lot of people. I'd like to ask Awareness specifically if this sudden flux of information surfacing about Satanism is going to expose that Satanism has long been going on in the actual Illuminati for many many years?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the term 'Illuminati' as that which is quite broad; that there are many private groups or individual groups that have taken and used that term, and that there is a certain Satanist group which uses that term; that it does have roots that go back to the Bavarian Illuminati, but that it is in fact not a linear extension of that organization which dates back to the 18th Century or before.

This Awareness indicates that in reference to the entity's statement of being a Born-Again Christian, that it does not, for most entities, lessen his credibility. It tends more to explain why he changed his allegiance and extracted himself from the action, and the majority of viewers would consider this as being a satisfactory answer, whereas other groups of entities might see this as meaning that he was attempting to promote some Christian belief without being truthful in what he was saying. This Awareness indicates in this instance, the entity was being truthful.

This Awareness suggests that the entity as having been involved in the Satanist group, a different Satanist group, and that the group which this entity was involved in did not participate, at least this entity is not seen as one who participated in ritual murders, although these were being done. This Awareness indicates the entity's reference to the various branches of Satanism as that which was a new enlightenment in terms of what the public understood about this issue, for the public generally tends to think of the Satanic church as simply being one body, such as the Catholic church, without realizing that it is more likened unto the other churches, in which there may be a great number of variation.

The Greatest Weapon Against Satanic Churches

This Awareness indicates that of course, anyone can start a church if they go through the required procedure and that likewise, anyone could start a Satanic church, if they went through the right procedure; that in so doing, however, they may start off as a innocuous or non-threatening church with certain beliefs, but because of the influence of other Satanic churches, they may also find themselves becoming more entrapped and put under pressure to merge or to work along other lines. This Awareness indicates because there are different types of, or denominations of Satanic churches and teachings, it is impossible for law enforcement agencies to simply outlaw all forms of Satanic churches, and to accuse them all of ritualistic murder.

This Awareness indicates that the greatest weapon against these Satanic churches is public opinion and public awareness, and also it appears that as the drug scene begins to diminish so will the lure of these Satanic churches, for much of that drug level of consciousness parallels the consciousness of the Satanic churches and draws those entities into these levels. This Awareness indicates however, that it is still to be a serious and drawn-out ordeal before these extremes of human expression can be brought into pacification and reconciliation with the spiritual aspects of the universe and human decency.

HOW AND WHY DOES SATANISM ATTRACT THE EDUCATED PERSON?

QUESTION:

Awareness has mentioned the attraction of Satanism to young people, but according to this FBI agent, in addition to a lot of young people, that this exposure that will occur in Mason county, he mentioned that there were very high officials, business people, clergymen, I believe he even mentioned judges were involved in these satanic rituals. Could Awareness give us some idea of what Satanism has to offer that would attract educated professional people?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that many of these were drawn in during their younger days when they were ambitious and seeking to get ahead; these entities being observed for some time, gradually moved into an inner circle type of situation which eventually, for promotion they were required to do something that would be suitable for using blackmail against them in order to have the benefits of some reward; that the kind of blackmail which some might be offered would be likened unto participating in a human sacrifice; this in the more advanced stages of their being brought in. This Awareness indicates in the earlier stages they might simply be asked to do something that could get them into trouble, which allowed the others in their company to have something over them; this such as being involved in some homosexual act, or something of a nature that would be publically embarrassing for them, if exposed.

This Awareness indicates that as these became more of a binding factor over the individual, the individual would then be given greater public responsibility to the point where the entity could handle more of the groups' general corruption and receive greater rewards, with the group knowing and the individual knowing that if he did not cooperate, he could be exposed and his career ruined. That over time, the entity would then be introduced to such things as human sacrifice and as the entity participated in such things at greater times, would be given even higher positions or higher responsibility and greater money.

This Awareness indicates that in this manner, the entities would be promoting each other and growing and keeping secret so that no one within the inner circle would ever spill the beans or tell what was going on, and even if telling, would not be believed, and no one was immune to becoming the next human sacrifice if he or she got out of line. This Awareness indicates that it is in this manner that these entities were able to perpetuate and grow over years, centuries of time. This Awareness indicates that many of those young people who seek to become involved in Satanism may well become the next victims, for they do not simply accept

18. people who ask to become involved; they watch an entity for long periods of time.

How Satanic Cults Get their Victims (Where Many 'Missing' Children Went)

Generally, entities who become involved are introduced through their own families or through close friends when friends take a particular liking to someone. This Awareness indicates that the entity inquiring, such as the young girl who wrote your organization asking for information on how to become involved in Satanism, a person of this type could very easily become a victim. She might be taken to the place of the meeting after being told to come alone and not to inform anyone as to where she was going, and this entity might never leave alive.*

This Awareness indicates they also get victims not only through their own first-born children, but from snatching victims out of cars, off the street, from the playground, or from their bicycles, or out of the woods, when they are alone, or they may lure someone, but generally, it is from some kind of kidnapping that is quick, efficient and most often involves an innocent person such as a child. This Awareness indicates the victims chosen in the Mexican ranch were victims generally older and stronger because the worshippers wanted the strength of their victims in order to ward off any danger from the police, so they chose men who appeared to be strong and healthy; those rituals seeking to have the young innocent child are offering symbolically the death of Christ, for children symbolize Christ Consciousness, and these being the offers of innocence to Satan.

This Awareness indicates those who participate in the offers of young girls are giving to Satan symbols of the Virgin Mary.

*CAC occasionally does get inquiries from young people, asking how one goes about selling one's soul to Satan. (If space permits, some of these will be reproduced at the end of this newsletter.)

WHY SATANISTS LAUGH PUBLICLY AS THEY DESCRIBE THEIR ATROCITIES

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

One of the law enforcement officers present at the excavation of these bodies said that it was really terrible, he said that some of these people, while still alive, their hearts were removed and eaten by some of these Satanists. Is that an exaggeration, or does that sort of stuff actually happen?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is not an exaggeration; that it was a show of these entities to show that they have no inhibitions in terms of morality, justice, mercy or any of the redeeming qualities. They do not wish to have any socially redeeming qualities. They wish only to show that they are totally free of all religious values or inhibitions, that they are not subject to the law of Divine Order; that they are gods themselves, made god by Satan. If one sees oneself as subject to spiritual laws, then how can they see themselves as all-powerful? But if they have absolutely no inhibitions in terms of being inhibited by some spiritual law, such as laws of mercy, laws of love, then if they are not inhibited by these laws, they see themselves as being equal to God, rejecting the god of mercy and being at one with the god they have created, known as Satan or Bael.

This Awareness indicates their attempt is to become totally devoid of any imposition of spiritual law acting upon them, therefore, if they can do something that is totally abhorrent to Universal Law and decency, such as an extreme cruelty of this kind, torture; all of these things lead them to believe themselves above the law, beyond the reach of the law. It is for this reason that these entities could laugh with the police about what they had done, laughing at the police, or with them present, telling what they had done without any show of remorse, describing these instances of eating the entity's heart while it was still beating.

This Awareness indicates that these entities are devoid of respect for any law whatsoever in an effort to present themselves as being above God's law, or man's law, or any laws of decency, mercy, love or karma. It is this illusion they create by their actions that they perceive to be the devil's power, and it is that devil's power that they seek.

HOW ABOUT A RATING SYSTEM ON ROCK ALBUMS SIMILAR TO THAT USED IN THE MOVIES?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Awareness mentioned rock music as being one of the means this type of information is communicated to the youngsters, and over the years of course, there's been a lot of rock bands that have been accused of this type of thing, particularly with corrupting the youth with sexual innuendos and stuff, but there are blatant bands like Black Sabbath, AC/DC, Ozzy Osborne and so on, who according to some of the articles, actually include this type of suggestions and so on in their music, in fact....

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these are the bands which this Awareness referred to; that there are many rock groups whose music is quite inspiring and beneficial. There are some whose music is of little redeeming value and there are these which are great danger to the youth of the world. This Awareness suggests you continue with your question.

(Questioner); ...Yeah, I was gonna say that Ozzy Osborne in fact is being sued by a family whose son committed suicide allegedly because of his lyrics, but my major question was that as a result of this type of thing, there was a hearing in Washington, produced by the wife of some senator I believe, who wants to see the music industry put a rating system on their tapes and records, similar to the system they use on movies, and this was fought tooth and nail by the record industry and by people like Frank Zappa, in particular, claiming that it is unconstitutional; now whether this actually became law or not, I don't know, but I don't think it did, but wouldn't this type of system be fair, rather than outlawing music etc.? It seems to me this would be a system that would be beneficial.

19. COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is no more unconstitutional to label a record that is filled with suggestions of murder or suicide, that it is of certain class of music, than it is to label a cigarette package as having a certain hazard to one's health. It is no more limiting to one's constitutional rights to label records according to their content than it is to label foods and their content; the packaging of foods lists the ingredients so that entities can make a meaningful judgment as to whether they wish to put that into their body. The labeling of records as to their content, the nature of their content, allows an entity to decide whether they wish to put that kind of music and lyrics into the minds of their children, or their own head.

This Awareness indicates the argument is invalid in regard to its effect on constitutional freedom of expression. This Awareness indicates that one must ask oneself if one is protected by the Constitution to express oneself by sticking a horn in another person's ear and blowing so hard it breaks the eardrum, or if that entity doesn't have the right to be informed or object to having the horn pushed into one's ear and having one's eardrum broken. Likewise, doesn't one have the right to have information to allow the entity to know what else is going into one's ear before it happens?

This Awareness indicates that entities who are being violated by someone else's expression or whose children are being violated by someone else's expression, also have constitutional rights. They have the right to know what this expression contains. If an entity has the constitutional right to express themselves by feeding someone poison and it harms the other, does the other have no right prior to being poisoned to be told what was in the substance? This Awareness indicates entities need to be forewarned as to what they are ingesting.

ED's Note: extolling the virtues of sex in most rock music in the past was nothing to get very excited about, but with the advent of punk rock and its clones, hate rock, Anti-Life Rock, Death Rock, Suicide Rock, and Satan Rock, the message they are delivering to the kids is not only sick, but very scary. If you just look at the names of the bands you get a pretty good idea of what they sing about. To name but a few: The Living Dead, Lost Cause, Death Row, Death SS, Bad Brains, Alien, Stupids, Nasty Savage, Anthrax (whose title song is: "Spreading the Disease"), Megadeath (who sings songs about Satanism, torture, hatred of Christianity, and dark magic), The Dead Kennedys, with their song: "I kill children," The Devoids, Vermin, Boomtown Rats, The Mutants, The Damned, The Lurkers, The Cannibals, The Imbeciles, The Derelicts, etc. etc. Individual songs, such as "Belsen was a Gas," by the Sex Pistols, "Born to Kill," by the Damned; "Mommy, Can I Go Out and Kill Tonight?" by the Misfits; this nihilistic, negative, anti-life message, which stresses cruelty to others, no sensitivity, suicide, murder, etc. is the fertilizer (or I should say, the manure) that festers and grows that seed in many young minds that make them ripe for participation in Satanic cults and their devious rituals. Unfortunately, the musical groups promoting such messages are not merely some lesser known little bands, playing in dank taverns in the sleazy parts of small town America--this sort of stuff is what makes the "Top 20", and often are accompanied by similar dark visual images on such networks as MTV. Often the messages are submerged by electronic keyboards, drums or other instruments, but the kids get the message, subliminally or otherwise. Maybe we should all write the networks about this stuff, as well as write our lawmakers to force the industry to at least label the stuff they are selling to our kids. They are at the age where their minds are ripe for ideas; to allow these seeds of Satanism to be sowed into these minds is a sin, if there ever was such a thing.

ED'S NOTE: within days after the Binding of Satan by Awareness, stories about alleged Satanism popped up all over the country. I spotted the June LIFE magazine at the office of an audiologist (Vikki had demanded I go and get my ears checked out as I evidently had not been responding as rapidly to her commands. The ears checked out okay). Anyway, the June LIFE was all about brassieres—a subject that always quickens the old heart,—the 100th Anniversary of these architectural wonder it turns out. As eye-popping and fascinating this long article was, there was a 5 page story on Satanism that was even more interesting!

Stories of Satanism popped up in other places too: particularly on TV, where the tabloid-type programs delved into the subject. About that time, Geraldo Rivera put on a special 2 hour TV special on Satanism, which was later hailed by skeptical critics as the "very depths of trash TV." On this show was an ex-FBI man, Ted Gunderson, who was instrumental in alerting the police to a Satanic cult in Mexico, and led them to the exact spot where the bodies of 15 victims of Satanism met their deaths. Alvaro Valdez, cult leader, ordered an associate to kill him, because if he didn't, "It will go very badly for me in hell."

Valdez, it turns out, directed human sacrifices, mutilations and the boiling of brains and other organs in rituals to bring occult protection, wealth and power to their ring. Cult members laughed and described how they would rip the heart from living victims and eat it in front of their eyes. Anyway, it was on this program of Geraldo's that Mr. Gunderson announced that this grisly scene along the Mexican U.S. border was but the tip of the iceberg, that in Mason County, Washington, near the town of Shelton, he personally knew of 7 burial sites, one containing the bodies of at least 20 victims of a Satanic cult.

Outraged authorities in Shelton denied the story; they admitted reports over the years came in about strange Satanic goings-on in the woods, but investigations turned up only a stone altar or two and the corpses of mutilated animals. Gunderson was reluctant to release the information to local authorities. He said: "If I turn this over to the wrong law enforcement officials, I could blow the whole thing." He explained there are members of Satanic cults throughout society, including police agencies.

"This element has infiltrated every level of society," he said, including doctors, lawyers, prosecutors, even judges, as well as police, airline pilots...every walk of life has been infiltrated." This story made headlines locally, helicopters flew over the woods, looking for the sites, a few expeditions manned by radio and TV personalities tried to find the graves, but so far nothing has turned up. Suddenly there was nothing more in the media about the event. (Gunderson still claims it is all true, but can't trust the authorities and will reveal the sites later on.)

Gunderson pointed to what has happened here in Thurston County, where authorities are investigating satanic type rituals and have charged three men, including a former deputy sheriff, and a former head of the local Republican party, with satanism, sex abuse, child rape etc. For six months, the media had a ball with this story, as more and more sordid details were revealed. Stories of ritual sacrifice were heard, of aborted fetuses being used in Satanic rituals; of young girls being forced to copulate with animals, where live cats were cut open, their heart removed, in return for sexual favors. It goes on and on. One of the 3 men confessed to all of these accusations in exchange for certain concessions of the court. Later, a 'specialist' was called up from California to talk to the women who brought all of these charges, and suddenly they were not allowed to give anymore testimony. As a result, the judge dismissed the charges of the other two and released them from jail.

There was much talk that the whole thing was one big hoax, that charges may be later instituted against the other two men, if they can get the women to again press charges. (Yet, one man has already confessed). It is the feeling of many around here that a massive cover-up is occurring. That there are some in very high places of law enforcement and in the judicial area who are involved in these Satanic cults and practices, and it be very interesting to see what happens when the media confessed to all of this, goes to trial later on this year).

This entire subject gives me the creeps. When Awareness started releasing this information, both Vikki and I got the shivers. The longer it went on, the worse we felt. Rather than drag this information out over a long period in the newsletter, I have opted to put it all together in the enclosed special report. Hopefully, this will be the end of it. However, I have a very strong feeling that this is wishful thinking. But as Awareness has indicated, public awareness and public knowledge is the way to end this strange and bizarre practice that so many seemingly are indulging,—invoking the force and the power of that mythical character, (now bound and powerless once people find out), known as Satan.

The following publications are recommended for those of you who wish to further pursue information on this subject.

A 22 page booklet: "Is Satan In Your Schoolyard?". Send $1.00 to: The New Federalist, PO Box 889, Leesburg, Va., 22075. (This is the new Lyndon LaRouche publication).

"Satanic Worship Reaches New Heights"—special feature of World Intelligence Review, PO Box 507, Chalmette, La. 70044. Price: $5.00. (In depth info on Satanism worldwide).

Critique, A Journal Questioning Consensus Reality. A Special Issue on EVIL (Issue No. 28). $5.00. Write: Critique: PO Box 11368, Santa Rosa, Ca. 95406. (CAC recommends this publication very highly. This particular issue on evil contains 96 pages of extremely interesting and insightful reading.

Also, don't forget to review your "Revelations of Awareness" on this subject: Particularly No. 82-17 (Introducing that Wicked Character Known as Satan); $3.00; and issue No. 82-24 (a 25 page Special Report: "What You Need to Know About the Forces of Ahriman!") $4.00 plus $1.00 postage from C.A.C. This one is particularly recommended for those of you who wish to understand why all the craziness and violence is going on all over the place, what you can do about it, and why Awareness says you 'must stay alive!' Older members should review this issue, newer members should order it and read it now!

Satanic ritual claim baffles Mason cops

By Brad Sevotson
The Olympian

SHELTON — Law enforcement officials reacted with confusion and frustration Tuesday to a private investigator's nationally televised claim that numerous victims of satanic ritual sacrifices are buried in Mason County.

Ted Gunderson, 60, a retired FBI agent who visited the county of 36,000 about six weeks ago, made the claim Tuesday morning on the "Gerald" show.

Mason County authorities acknowledged that Gunderson visited the sheriff's office to apply for a private investigator's license, but said his claims came as news to them.

"We're in the dark," said Lt. Howard Armfield, who serves as a sheriff's office spokesman. "It would be nice to get ahold of him and find out what's going on. We're getting frustrated."

Armfield would not comment on whether the sheriff's office has investigated satanic activities recently. According to Dick Thurston, spokesman for the state FBI headquarters in Seattle, the FBI is unaware of any allegations of satanic sacrifices in Mason County, and Mason County authorities have

Weird stuff? It does happen in South Sound

The Olympian

Although a retired FBI agent's allegations of widespread Satanic cult activities in Mason County remain unsubstantiated, odd events have suggested cult activity in South Sound from time to time.

Olympian files included these incidents:

□ May 1, 1989: A man walking his dog was warned not to turn down a dirt road because there were rituals going on, according to a Thurston County sheriff's report. When police searched the site later, they heard a high-pitched scream. The source of the noise, a 31-year-old man, gave no reason for the scream.

□ Jan. 3, 1989: A mare was found dead with its genitals excised, in the 11900 block of Case Road Extension, according to a Thurston County sheriff's report.

□ February 1988: The skinned skull of a cow was found on The Evergreen State College campus. The skull had a 1-inch diameter hole in the forehead, and the animal's brain had been removed, according to an Evergreen security officer.

□ November 1987: The body of a goat, gutted and mutilated, was found by a construction worker at 1515 Black Lake Blvd., according to an Olympia police report. The top of the head, including the horns, was missing.

□ November 1986: While riding his motorcycle, a Rainier High School student encountered the remains of several mutilated goats tied to trees. The animals' throats were slit and their reproductive organs were cut off.

□ January 1986: Two horses were killed in the Yelm area, while a third was slashed in the genital area. Both of the killed horses were shot and their throats were slashed; the genitals of one horse were removed.

never asked the FBI for assistance in such an investigation.

Rumors of satanic activity have plagued the rural, heavily-wooded county before, particularly in connection with the unsolved disappearance last October of 17-year-old Shelton High School senior Tracy West and the December 1987 killing of 11-year-old Marjorie "Monique" Burnett. Mason County borders Thurston County to the northwest.

In a telephone interview from Los Angeles later Tuesday, Gunderson elaborated on his statements:

□ He said he has knowledge, through an informant, of seven Mason County burial grounds for victims of satanic sacrifices.

"I've been told that one of the burial grounds has as many as 20 bodies in it, and there's probably more," he said in a telephone interview from Los Angeles.

□ He described Mason County as a hotbed of both drug trafficking and the occult.

"There's extensive satanic cult activity," he said. "It's very serious."

□ Gunderson linked the unsolved 1987 murder of Olympia resident Larry A. Gearon to cult activity, saying that Gearon was murdered for his role as an undercover informant.

Gunderson, 60, said he headed the FBI's Los Angeles office before his retirement 10 years ago.

He describes satanic activity as a nationwide problem, with anywhere from 200,000 to 12 million Americans worshipping Satan, carrying out human and animal sacrifices, and trafficking in sex and drugs.

"We're in the dark. It would be nice to get ahold of him and find out what's going on. We're getting frustrated."

Lt. Howard Armfield, Mason County sheriff's office spokesman

Although Gunderson credits Mason County authorities with an awareness of local drug trafficking problems, he says police remain ignorant of occult activities in the rural county.

Gunderson said he discussed satanic activities in an extensive meeting with Mason County Sheriff Bob Holter during his visit in March, but the sheriff's office flatly denies that version of the encounter.

"Most of us were here when he came in. He was here a short period of time, and then out," said Armfield, who was answering all questions for the sheriff's office.

FBI spokesman Thurston confirmed that Gunderson is a retired employee of the FBI.

According to Gunderson, he has been proven right in the past. He said that in a "Gerald" appearance last March, he predicted the discovery of burial sites in the vicinity of Matamoros, Mexico.

Police later discovered at least 13 people had been killed by a ritual satanic cult near Matamoros.

Gunderson, who declined to say where the Mason County burial sites are located, said he has not yet decided whether to turn his information over to local or state authorities.

In linking the murder of Gearon to occult activity, Gunderson said the 38-year-old Olympia man served as a part of a network of informers about the activities of satanic cults. Gearon's body was found wrapped in plastic just off Highway 12 in Grays Harbor County on March 12, 1987.

Gearon died of multiple gunshot wounds to the head in what police described as an "execution-style" slaying. Police have never solved the case, said Grays Harbor County Undersheriff Harold Smith.

Although he refused to identify Gearon's alleged killer, Gunderson said the man operated out of Mason County and drove a vehicle licensed in Oregon.

The man was arrested in October 1988 by Los Angeles County police, Gunderson said, and now faces two charges of murder.

Gunderson made no link between the Mason County burial sites and testimony of satanic activity in the current Thurston County case involving former chief civil deputy Paul Ingram and two other men.

But the Ingram case was typical, he said, in that it involved a high-profile member of the community.

Because worshippers of Satan frequently have wealth, power and the ability to threaten their victims with death, he said, the subject remains shrouded in mystery.

Gunderson said he believes the FBI and most law enforcement agencies have failed to take the problem seriously.

"What motivates me is that nobody's doing it," he said. "Nobody pays attention to me, so I just keep plugging along."

times, Gray said. Then one pointed it at her and it went off.

The three boys fled after the shooting.

Gray said the case will be turned over to the prosecutor's office to determine if charges should be filed.

Gray said detectives found a pentagram drawn on a chalkboard in the girl's home, but it related to rock music and not a Satanic cult.

Boy is arrested in shotgun death of girl

GOLD BAR — A 12-year-old boy was arrested here yesterday morning as a suspect in the shooting death of a 17-year-old girl in South Seattle, police reported.

Jennifer Louise Schroers was shot once in the face with a 12-gauge shotgun about 3 p.m. Sunday at her home in the 5000 block of 51st Avenue South. A ruling on whether the death was accidental or intentional was withheld pending further investigation by police.

The boy, who passes himself off as 16, was the girl's boyfriend. He is being held in King County Youth Service Center, police said.

Homicide Lt. John Gray said Schroers was with three boys playing with an old shotgun. They knew the gun was loaded but didn't think it would fire because it had failed to go off several

Doubts cast on satanic cult rumors

Senate panel hears testimony, but few facts to back it all up

By James Wallace
P-I Reporter

OLYMPIA -- It was made-for-television kind of stuff.

And when yesterday's Senate Law and Justice Committee hearing was over, nothing had been said to substantiate all those recent rumors of Satanic activity in Washington state, including reports of ritualistic human sacrifices in Mason County.

About a half-dozen people testified before the legislative committee headed by Kent Pullen, a Kent Republican running for the King County Council.

As the television cameras rolled, a nervous, gum-chewing, hooded woman wearing sunglasses and a wig warned legislators that satanic cults had "plants" everywhere, perhaps even among their own ranks.

The woman, who would identify herself only as Mrs. Parks, told how her 22-year-old daughter was being held captive by a satanic cult in King County.

"She will be a willing sacrifice within a year if we don't get her out," Mrs. Parks said.

She said she would provide details to legislators away from the cameras, but not publicly. She said law enforcement agencies had refused to help because they have been infiltrated by the cults.

Another woman claimed to have witnessed the ritualistic murders of three pregnant women whose babies were cut from their bodies by devil worshippers. She described wild sexual orgies and cannibalism by the satanic cult her father belonged to. The woman, who identified herself only as Janet, said the murders occurred when she was a child and was forced to accompany her father to cult activities.

As a result of those traumatic childhood experiences, Janet said, she is now being treated by a therapist for multiple personalities. At one time, she said, she had 44 separate personalities. That's now down to six.

"I'm wondering which one is testifying," asked Sen. Bob McCaslin, R-Spokane.

The committee also heard from Sal Dena, a private detective from King County who said he is convinced that satanic activities are taking place in this state. He urged legislators to look in the Bible for answers to what is happening.

Several committee members, including Democrats Phil Talmadge, Nita Rinehart, and Janice Niemi, all of Seattle, did not attend the hearing.

"What'll it be next week, a hearing on two-headed dogs?" Talmadge told a reporter for The Associated Press.

In addition to Pullen and McCaslin, committee members who did show up for the hearing included A.L. "Slim" Rasmussen, D-Tacoma; Gary Nelson, R-Edmonds; and Leo Thorsness, R-Seattle.

Last month, former FBI agent Ted Gunderson, claimed on national television that there are numerous satanic burial sites in Mason County. But he has not provided any evidence.

Law enforcement officials in Mason County have said there is no evidence to support any of those claims.

And there is no evidence of any connection with an investigation of satanic-type rituals in neighboring Thurston County.

After the hearing, Pullen told reporters: "I'm convinced from testimony that there is some sort of ritualistic activity that goes on that involves victims, particularly child victims, victims of child sexual abuse, animal mutilations and similar type crimes."

But he said he is not so sure about the allegations of human sacrifice.

He said law enforcement agencies need to take the reports of satanic activities seriously.

Rasmussen suggested the state patrol or attorney general's office investigate.

Rasmussen and Pullen said they found one witness at yesterday's hearing very believable.

Didi Prentice, a chaplain at the state-run Echo Glen Children's Center in North Bend, told the committee she has interviewed a number of youngsters over the past couple of years who claimed to have been involved in satanic cults.

Most of them, she said, are "dabblers" who have only a passing interest in satanism, mostly in the form of heavy metal music or satanic symbols.

But a handful take it more seriously, she said.

They have told her about satanic rituals that included murder, she said.

"I'm convinced of satanic cults," she said. "I don't think all these children, who don't know each other, are lying."

Cult 'godmother' confesses

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The woman called the "godmother" of a drug-smuggling cult that killed 15 people along the U.S. border has confessed to taking part in ritual slayings. U.S. and Mexican authorities say.

Sara Aldrete Villarreal, 24, and two other alleged cult members were charged Wednesday in the weekend deaths of their leader and his right-hand man, authorities said. Police say the two had ordered their own deaths.

A source in the Mexico City attorney general's office said Aldrete has a split personality, and U.S. Customs Agent Oran Neck told a news conference that she "confessed to conspiracy and involvement" in ritual killings.

The source in the attorney general's office, speaking on condition of anonymity, said that when Aldrete talks to police about cult rituals she loses that "charming aspect" she exhibits when she faces television cameras.

One personality comes out when she faces the cameras and denies any involvement in the human slayings, another emerges when she talks to police and "the third one comes out when she talks to herself," the source said.

Neck told reporters, "Sara has kind of lost touch with reality. No question about it. Her dual personality is coming up pretty strong right now. When you talk to her without the TV cameras there, she's pretty truthful."

Teen-agers may dabble in satanic cults, drugs

A few years ago a young woman was admitted to an adolescent chemical dependency unit where I worked. Toward the end of her treatment she told a story of involvement in a satanic cult, of ritual sexual abuse and of a ritualistic death in which she had been involved.

The staff, no strangers to the painful, shocking histories these young people often brought with them to drug and alcohol treatment, nevertheless were appalled. They felt overwhelmed by this story, so full of ghastly detail, alternating with vague, dreamlike memories.

We, like other adolescent treatment facilities, were familiar with what are often referred to as "dabblers." These are adolescents who dabble in the occult. Not satanic cult members, they are nevertheless fascinated by the subject.

Some may say they pray to Satan and are directed by him; they are absorbed by images of violence and blood, draw occult symbols on themselves and their belongings, are inspired by music with scenes of Satan, talk of the power to hex and control others.

Most are troubled, and often defiant youth, motivated by powerlessness, the need to belong, to feel unique and special, to get attention. And most are significantly drug involved.

But the experiences of the young woman above were of a far different magnitude than those of the dabblers: different in elaborateness, organization, extent of secrecy, level of commitment by practitioners — and horror.

Seeking information in response to this young woman's story I found that other adolescent treatment programs were occasionally hearing similar stories from their young patients. They were asking the same questions as we: Were these drug induced hallucinations the symptoms of mental illness, or did these events really happen?

I began a nationwide search by phone for objective, professional sources who could provide direction and information. After weeding out dramatic sensationalists, I found two helpful individuals: One is a psychologist from the University of California and one a psychologist from a prestigious hospital in Chicago. Both have quietly worked with satanic cult victims for several years. From these interactions and subsequent workshops I learned the following:

1. In general, we are a population at a "threshold of belief" regarding satanic cults. What they do, how numerous they are, how ordinary their members can appear in the community so frightens and overwhelms most of us that we take refuge in disbelief.

2. Satanic cults rest on a value system that negates usual societal values and mores. Most of us value the protection of children and the lives of other people; we object to exploitation of ourselves and others; we struggle with what seems to be fair.

Not so, satanic cult members. They murder children, adults and animals; they torture and terrorize. They engage in elaborate rituals that often involve designer drugs to induce trance-like states. These states lower inhibitions and may, for victims, disrupt memory.

3. Satanic cults are sometimes involved in drug traffic as a means of supporting the cult and its activities. It is suspected that some of the criminal, non-satanic groups with whom they are involved also supply them with victims.

4. Adolescent "dabblers," particularly those away from home and living on the street, sometimes are exploited by satanic cults. Cult members supply them with drugs, a place to stay and a sense of belonging, seducing the adolescent who doesn't realize the trap until it is too late.

5. The memories of the satanic cult victim may be vague, fragmented and nightmarish. The repetitive ritual, the shock, pain and threats directed at victims and the use of drugs during the rituals cause emotional dissociation from the event and distort memory. Sometimes the youth suppresses the memory altogether until something triggers it.

Children may be programmed not to remember, taught they will die immediately if they even think about what happened or told their parents will die. Some are made to believe that members of the satanic cult can reach and destroy them no matter where they are or no matter who is trying to protect them. They may be programmed to have certain frightening physiological symptoms if they start to talk about what happened.

6. Some people are raised in satanic cults, in fact, some members of satanic cults are the third or fourth generation. Some women have babies specifically for sacrifice and satanic rituals.

We are vulnerable to satanic cults, in part because we know so little about them. Our children and young people are particularly vulnerable. The danger satanic cults bring to communities overlaps with the danger brought by groups involved in the sale of drugs.

Our best protection begins with acknowledging the existence and dangerousness of both and that sometimes they interact and overlap. It is also important, as we approach this subject, that we lean about these groups to avoid the extremes of both disbelief and hysteria.

Question: Do all adolescents who become satanic cult victims also abuse drugs?

Answer: Adolescent victims of satanic cults need not have had prior drug abuse history. However, adolescents who are satanic "dabblers" usually also abuse drugs and alcohol; these adolescents are more vulnerable, in general, than other adolescents to exploitation by satanic cults. But anyone might be vulnerable: children of careful families, adolescents too frightened to tell.

Woman describes bizarre satanic rites and sexual abuse

By George Foster
P-I Reporter

OLYMPIA — A mother of five testified yesterday that a former sheriff's deputy and a State Patrol mechanic sexually abused her on several occasions and, in a separate incident, staged a satanic rite the backyard of her Olympia area home.

She described another woman participant in the 1978 satanic ritual and said the woman "picked up a sword and held it to the sky and said 'I pledge allegiance to Satan.'"

The witness, named as a victim in three rape counts against former Thurston County Deputy Sheriff James Rabie and State Patrol mechanic Raymond Risch, was called to testify during a pre-trial hearing in Thurston County Superior Court.

Attorneys for Rabie and Risch attempted to discredit her testimony, saying her allegations went unreported for some 15 years.

Visiting Pierce County Superior Court Judge Robert Peterson set this week's hearing to determine whether some 30 "bad acts" allegations, not part of the charges against Rabie and Risch, but filed with the cases, can be admitted as evidence in their May 1 trial.

Rabie, 45, is charged with a four counts of second-degree rape, one count of second-degree statutory rape and one count of indecent liberties.

Risch, 42, is charged with three counts of second-degree rape and one count of second-degree statutory rape.

The charges date back to 1981. The victims are identified as the woman who testified and her two daughters, now 18 and 22.

A third defendant is the former chief civil deputy sheriff for Thurston County, Paul Ross Ingram Sr., 43, who will be tried separately. He is charged with four counts of second-degree rape and two counts of second-degree statutory rape involving the two younger women.

Ingram, the immediate past Republican Party chairman of Thurston County, is being held in the county jail on $200,000 bail. Rabie and Risch each have posted $50,000 bail, but are confined to their homes.

Ingram is expected to testify against Rabie and Risch.

Most of the allegations of forced sex, physical violence and satanic rites that the prosecutor wants to admit as evidence into Rabie and Risch's trial date back to the 1970s.

The woman testifying yesterday was distraught, her lips quivering and her head sometimes bowed. She told of three incidents in which she was sexually assaulted by Risch and Rabie, who behaved bizarrely.

She cited another 1974 incident in which she claimed Ingram held her down on the floor while Rabie and Risch sexually abused her. The woman said that there was another woman named "Dana" present, who wore a black robe "like a choir robe with a snake (pictured) on the front."

"Dana told them what to do," the witness, 44, said.

The woman said, during cross-examination by Rick Cordes, Risch's attorney, that during the ritual involving the sword, Ingram and Dana brought out a large red book "and it had blood coming out of it."

"Then Jim (Rabie) touched the book and the blood ran up his arm and all over him."

Cordes said he questioned the woman about the pledge of allegiance to Satan "because it is not believable."

Defense attorneys continually asked whether the witness reported any of these incidents, and she replied, "No."

The woman said her memory had failed her until recently and, "I am still trying to work out the details."

Texas grand jury indicts 11 satanic cult suspects on drug charges

MATAMOROS, Mexico (AP) — Descriptions of dimemberment and a skull being split open were read in court from statements of accused members of an occult group of drug smugglers that authorities said killed 15 people.

Separately, the "godfather" of the group and his girlfriend were among 11 people indicted Tuesday by a grand jury in McAllen, Texas.

Alfonso de Jesus Constanzo, Sara Aldrete and the others were charged with conspiracy to import marijuana, importing marijuana, conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute, and possession with intent to distribute, authorities said.

Constanzo, Aldrete and four others remained at large.

With Judge Francisco Salvador Perez of the Fourth Federal Court presiding late Tuesday, court officials here read aloud from the statements given by the five men arrested in connection with the killings. The victims included Mark Kilroy, a Texas student abducted during a spring-break outing to Matamoros in March.

The accused said those ceremonies were part of a ritualistic cult.

Four of the men refused to corroborate or deny the written statements, arguing their attorney was not present. They declined a court-appointed counsel's help.

Defendant Elio Hernandez told reporters near him the statement read to him

"did not agree entirely with what I declared."

The judge said the accused can submit additional statements or have their own attorney later. He now has three days to consider the evidence and decide whether to continue to hold them without bail.

The accused have identified Constanzo as the group's leader who offered them "back and protection" in exchange for the human sacrifices.

Besides Hernandez, those under arrest are his brother, Serafin Hernandez, Sergio Martinez, David Serna and ranch caretaker Domingo Reyes.

Reyes was the only person who ratified his original statement that led police to the ranch and the discovery of the bodies.

"The godfather asked us for a gringo for a sacrifice," read the statement by Serafin Hernandez.

"He said the brains had to be placed in a pot."

Serafin Hernandez described how they picked up Kilroy by offering him a ride. The student later tried to escape, but was caught and taken to the ranch blindfolded.

Also described was how Kilroy was killed with a machete blow to the back of the head:

"We called the godfather at the hotel and told him what he wanted was ready. He came in the next day... the godfather and Elio and others were inside (the shack). We heard a noise like a coconut being cut open and... they took out his brains... and part of the spine, and they cut his legs."

Serna's statement described how the group once raided another ranch, stealing nearly 600 pounds of marijuana and abducting three people.

They were brought back to the ranch tied and blindfolded.

"We dug a hole and the godfather threw them in still alive and machine-gunned them."

Suspects give details of Mexican cult killings

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Surrounded by police, the leader of a drug-smuggling cult accused of the ritual mutilation-slayings of 15 people along the U.S. border ordered a subordinate to kill him or suffer in the afterlife.

"He said to kill him because if I didn't it was going to go very badly for me in hell," Alvaro de Leon Valdez, 22, told a news conference Sunday.

De Leon killed cult leader Adolfo de Jesus Constanzo and the ringleader's right-hand man with a machine gun as police closed in on the Mexico City apartment where the gang was hiding, the Attorney General's office said.

"He went crazy, crazy," de Leon Valdez said.

De Leon Valdez, along with four other people including 24-year-old Sara Maria Aldrete Villarreal, described by authorities as the "witch" of the cult, were arrested after Saturday's shootout.

Sara Maria Aldrete

Cult's alleged 'witch'

The Attorney General's office presented the five to reporters on Sunday. They stood behind a table covered with cult items found in the apartment, including two swords, black candles, a skull apparently made of white wax and a blindfolded doll holding another doll.

Authorities have said they believe Constanzo, 26, and Aldrete directed human sacrifices, mutilations and the boiling of brains and other organs in rituals to bring occult protection to their ring, which dealt mostly in marijuana.

The bodies of the victims, including University of Texas student Mark Kilroy, were found buried on a ranch in Matamoros near the U.S. border starting April 11.

Aldrete, who referred to Constanzo as el Padrino, or Godfather, said she had nothing to do with the slayings and learned about them in television reports.

"I couldn't believe it. It was amazing," said the former honor student at Texas Southmost College in Brownsville, Texas.

Asked who killed Kilroy, Aldrete said: "Adolfo."

De Leon Valdez said he was present when the young American was killed with a machete chop to the head. Kilroy's spinal column was removed for a necklace, he said.

"I feel sorry because when he disappeared I was trying to help the (Kilroy) family," Aldrete said in response to reporters' questions. She did not elaborate.

Memo to the Membership:

July 1989

Hi Gang! Just a few little items this time:

(1) Please consider this mailing as two,--it's actually a double reading, that special report on Satanism I warned you was coming. It's a creepy subject, but it must be dealt with. Public awareness of this subject is what will bring about its demise. For obvious reasons I did not want to drag this information out over a long period of time, giving you bits and pieces here and there, so all of the information on the subject given to date has been put together in this special report. (Actually, it's not as bad as it sounds, particularly once you understand how Awareness has dealt with it, and how you can reinforce the binding with a special meditation It is offering you.)

In the past several years, CAC usually cut the mailings down to one a month during June, July and August. This gives the staff a chance to take a break, some time to overhaul the equipment and maybe even get outside to the mountains or the ocean for a few days. I do have to overhaul the presses and the IBM composer has to be farmed out again for repairs; even though IBM refuses to service the machine (it's too old and they no longer have parts for it), I have found a man who thinks he can repair it, but it may take some time as he must go to Seattle and Portland to scrounge for used parts).

Also, there is another reason there will be delay in getting out the next mailing: C.A.C. is experiencing a rather severe financial crunch at the moment and we have had to postpone our factory order for the flat of printing paper needed for the next mailing. This happens every now and then. One reason for this crunch is that the Interpreter is coming up to Olympia much more often now to give general readings for CAC, so we are getting a good stockpile of these for many future newsletters. However, he must be paid for each and every one of these readings, for he too is in need of funds for the various projects he is now involved in, --this in relation to some personal business ventures that require immediate funding. So, this is our priority at the moment, keeping expenses way down so we can keep the readings building up and keeping the bills current.

As a matter of fact, Awareness, in an opening message a week or so ago, delivered a message to the CAC membership about this situation, pointing out certain things that have been going on around here for years that we personally, have been reluctant to discuss. Because of the nature of the enclosed mailing on Satanism, we did not deem it appropriate to try to include that particular reading, which essentially was an appeal for donations. However, we did print it up and mailed about 30 of them out to certain members. I am not sure when we will be able to get this particular reading out to all of you, but we do have copies and will be happy to mail one upon request. (But be careful! Walk, don't run to your mailbox; we don't want any stampede now!) No, nobody, including Awareness is asking you to give til it hurts,--only til it almost hurts, if you like the messages and wish them to continue. At that point we all want you to STOP! (Smile)

This situation has one redeeming aspect,--it has got the creative juices of the CAC staff to flowing, and Vikki T. is all excited about a little surprise she is cooking up for all of you. (Don't flinch, you'll like it!). More on this probably in the next mailing.

(2) We have no more DS-Cells and it looks like we are not going to get any for some time, if ever. So please do NOT send any orders for DS-Cells until we make an announcement to do so. Those of you who have already placed an order, we are holding the order and hopefully can fill it later on. If not, we will send you a refund of your money or you can apply it to books or dues or whatever. (Right now we can not refund as the money has been spent and at the time we did not know that our order for these could not be filled.). It appears that Joe Dun Sloan has disappeared into Mexico. He does not answer his phone nor our letters to him, and as far as we know he is the only person in the world who can make these cells. He is in his 70's and has had health problems and some bad accidents in the past. Whether there is any connection, we do not know. So please remember, do not order any DS-Cells or D-Cells or S-Cells or whatever you want to call them because we can not fill your order at this time. Thanks!

(3) We have a brave entity who has informed us she will take on the Pen Pal Club. As you probably remember, this service has been offered by C.A.C. in the past, but for the last few years we have not found anyone who wished to coordinate it. How it works is that anyone interested in Awareness philosophy or anything New Age for that matter, pens a letter and sends it to the head of the Pen Pal Club, and she in turn forwards it to someone who has asked for letters to read and answer, etc. There are even Round Robin' letters that go from entity to entity, and each new response added to it as it makes the rounds. This is a nice service for shut-ins and people who do not have others around to discuss the readings with, or for lonely entities who like to make friends by mail and who like to receive letters from others. If you are interested, drop a line to our new Pen Pal director:

Elyse Bishop Boone, PO Box 714, Berkeley, Calif. 94701

(4) For you Siegfried fans out there, I regretfully have to report that this faithful hound, companion to the staff and guardian of the office for almost 14 years has gone to that great doggy condo in the sky. (An official eulogy and report will be forthcoming in a later mailing).

(5) In closing, a MUST movie we highly recommend, called Field of Dreams, starring Kevin Costner. It's not really about baseball at all, but about the power of love that can make dreams come true, and, as Awareness has indicated so many times, how we can create and direct reality by the sheer force of our own belief. This is a very important film for these times. It has no violence, no auto chases, guns or sleaze, but its theme and message is universal: we must all listen for and act upon the promptings of our inner voice, our Higher Self, our Spirit or intuition. The critics are divided, probably because they do not understand what is occurring in the story. Please catch this one and you will see what I mean!

Also, I wish to personally thank all of you who sent in suggestions on possible places we can buy that computer ribbon. We are following up on these leads. Well, that's it for now. Have an interesting summer!

For the C.A.C. staff, yours in the service,
