Helping People Become Aware

SPECIAL WORLD EVENTS UPDATE: (The Middle East Affair)

POSSIBLE SCENARIOS

This Awareness indicates that the generally is what entities may wish to look for to watch for the reaction of the general masses, for if the masses react in a way that supports those from leadership in their in- vision of Kuwait and thrust against others in the war it will suggest that the masses want justification under a central leader to be able to have power that will... work.

... entities are more at- tention to religious war as a holy war against those in the Western countries whom they see to be lacking in spiritual values that they themselves respect. This Awareness indicates that these entities in a large degree will welcome a holy war with the West. The leadership of many of these countries being more practical and more well educated, understand a need for balanced relationships with the West that can be negotiated so that both the West and the Arab coun- tries benefit from the alliance, but these leaders and the people can be easily misled if the emotions and the religious zeal of the people become too strong as may be witnessed in reacting to the bowls of the CIA and its replacement by the

This Awareness suggests however, that even in such a case as this, considering the danger is not without but greatly critical for you to be alert and watch for the event of further escalation so that you could leave there is a possibility for you could... A Total Control of the Middle East.

This Awareness indicates that in regard to the events occurring at this time in the Middle East, the Awareness does not wish so much to get in to matter, but will dis- cuss the overall or general effects that may result from what is occurring. The involvement of the players in this scenario is that which is creating a total charge for the area which will leave the masses under anything it has been before. The same situation.

It is so through the the form which can have an effect of intensifying or of releasing, and either through the intensification or through the release, whichever the case may be, the region will no longer be the same as before. This Awareness indicates that the two alternative outcomes will be either that the region become fragmented and the tra- ditional community of nations will result, so that each nation becomes more independent with less unity, which is that which the Western powers or the other that these nations decide to become more united, more in harmony with each other and to move away from the influence of the Western powers.

THE MIDDLE EAST POWDER KEG: IS THE PROPHECY OF NOSTRADAMUS COMING TRUE ?

(C.A.C. General Reading No. 2)
August 9, 1990

QUESTION:

A question that came in several months ago from L.P., who's an American teacher in Saudi Arabia. It was in a letter to Vikki, and she says: "At any rate, perhaps you would be interested in asking Awareness if the Middle East is going to self-destruct, and on the side, throw in the question as to when people should get out of the area. I'm not afraid to die, and in fact am quite willing to do so if I can be of better service on the other side. However, if I can be of service on earth at this time, I am ready and willing. Just tell me what to do."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in regard to this consideration in which the entity asked this question some time back and in light of the events occurring this week in the Middle East, the question takes on a new significance; that this being a time wherein there is a flare-up of tension in this area. This Awareness indicates that it would appear that the area as being in the midst of a crisis in which the entity might wish to consider with more seriousness the option of leaving.

This Awareness suggests however, that even in a time such as this, considering where you are and the nature of the present situation, the danger is not seen as being greatly critical for yourself without further escalation. In the event of further escalation it would be important to be alert and aware of any changes so that you could leave. There is seen no value in your passing over at this time for you could have greater influence elsewhere.

A Total Change is Occurring in the Middle East

This Awareness indicates that in regard to the events occurring at this time in the Middle East, this Awareness does not wish so much to get in to motives, but will discuss the overall or general effects that may result from what is occurring. That essentially, the involvement of the players in this scenario is that which is creating a total change for the area which will leave the area quite unlike anything it has been before, so that there will no longer be this same situation.

It is as though the situation is being brought into a kind of critical form which can have an effect of intensifying or of releasing, and either through the intensification or through the release, whichever the case may be, the region will no longer be the same as before. This Awareness indicates that the two alternative outcomes will be either that the region becomes fragmented and the Moslem community or Arab community of nations will become more dissolved, or greater disunity will result, so that each nation becomes more individualistic with less unity, which is that which would be most favored by the Western powers, or the other option would be that these nations decide to become more unified, work more in harmony with each other and to move away from the influence of the Western powers.

At this time, the likelihood of the former is greater, wherein the nations will become more disunified, however this can change from mass movements of the people in the area whose interests are not the same as those of the leaders of these countries. Were the people to begin taking on a greater voice, making more demands in the spontaneous effort to gain greater unity and support for the unification of all Arab states or nations, their voice and power could become greater than that of their leaders and the Western nations could find themselves facing a unified Arab world which could set the stage for the 1992 situation, in which the Arab world, as suggested by predictions attributed to Nostradamus, could then become an opposing force for the Western nations.

What to Watch for in the Middle East

This Awareness indicates that much of what is occurring in the event the masses of these nations do not rally and demand unification of all Arab nations, the events that are now occurring could well disunify the Arab world so that such a powerful and unified Arab nation or world would not emerge as prophesied by the Nostradamus papers and others; that this would be to the interest of the Western nations.

It would also be, in a sense, to the interest of peace in this decade. The cost would be in the continuation of present balances and relationships with minimal changes. This Awareness indicates that one could say a continuation of the status quo in the area could result with individual nations still having control of their own domain but not being unified to where they have great power to become a united front against the Western superpowers capable of making war that would threaten global extinction.

This Awareness indicates that this generally is what entities may wish to look for, to watch for: the reaction of the general masses, for if the masses react in a way that supports those from Iraq leadership in their invasion of Kuwait and threat against others in the area, it will suggest that the masses want unification under a central leader, to be able to have power that will threaten outsiders of the Western world.

You must realize that these entities are more attuned to religious wars and see this as a holy war against those in the Western countries, whom they see to be lacking in spiritual values that they themselves accept. This Awareness indicates that these entities in a large degree would welcome a holy war with the West. The leadership of many of these countries being more practical and more well educated, understand a need for balanced relationship with the West that can be negotiated so that both the West and the Arab countries benefit from the alliance, but these leaders and their control over their people can be easily shaken if the emotions and the religious zeal of the people become too strong, as may be witnessed in recalling the downfall of the Shah and his replacement by the Ayatollah in Iran.

This Awareness indicates that for the moment, the leaders are still in control. What entities may wish to watch is whether they maintain that control; that if those of the Western nations become too threatening to the Arab world in the sense of their presence there, it can spark resentment from the masses, which could then begin the grass-roots rebellion which could then lead to the mass-movement of the people to unify around a central leader who was opposed to the Western presence.*

It is a very delicate situation. This Awareness indicates that in the event a long-term Western presence is permitted or allowed in the area, it can be a great benefit to the people, for there can be much learning that transpires from the mingling or commingling of cultures. This appears to be a likelihood, though the situation could change and bring about this scenario in which the Western nations, in a multinational force, remain in these Arab lands for some time to preserve a kind of peace.

This will all depend on the reactions of the leaders of Iraq during the next week or so. The crisis could blow over very quickly, or the crisis could deepen, creating a long-term standoff or the crisis could at some point be triggered into further conflict. In the event it begins a kind of long-term standoff, there is the possibility of a grass-roots movement of the people rebelling against the presence of Western nations in the Arab world and this could also create greater problems and a unification of these Arab nations which could help set the scene for a future war as prophesied by Nostradamus.

American Presence a Two-Edged Sword

This Awareness indicates that it is likened unto a two-edged sword, the United States moving in to protect Saudi Arabian interests may be appreciated by the Saudi Arabian leaders. Some of the people of Saudi Arabia may resent the concept of Americans on their soil and forget the reason for their being there, or distort the reason, thinking that they are there simply to look out for the American oil interests, and they see this as a separate and selfish move by American interests, and if this becomes the common attitude of the people or of those in neighboring countries and such motives are attributed to the Americans for their presence in the area, or for a multinational force of other nations also, then this can help trigger the resentment toward Western presence; but if these entities see the presence of Americans as only temporary, as being helpful to the Saudi Arabians, wherein they will pull out when asked by the Saudi Arabians to leave, this then would be seen as acceptable by most entities.

The only problem with this is that when the American presence is removed from the area, if it is removed before the threat by the Iraqi troops has been completely neutralized, then the Saudi Arabians would be back in the same position as before. Therefore, the movement of troops from the soil becomes more difficult. This Awareness indicates that this implies a long term stay, until the area has been secured by treaties or other means or whereby the Saudi Arabian interests has been secured by sufficient military strengths to counter or to stave off any further threat from Iraq.

This Awareness indicates that Kuwait served as a kind of buffer between Iraq and Saudi Arabia. That buffer has been removed. It is in part this consideration of Kuwait being a buffer that is no longer a protection for Saudi Arabian's interest that has triggered the Saudi Arabians to seek outside help; that this is in part the reason for the invitation. It is also seen as a strong likelihood that the Kuwait buffer will be restored before the Western forces are removed.

*ED's Note: When this particular reading was given on August 9th, Bush had just ordered the blockade a few days before and was supposed to 'wait and see' if it would work. On the day of the reading, he ordered troops and the whole ball of worms to the Middle East. Since then, it appears the scenario of a united Arab front is not manifesting, which reduces the threat of global war.

WHAT PRECEDENT FOR 'ANNEXING' KUWAIT?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Iraq now claims that it has 'annexed' Kuwait. Is there any historic backing for such an action?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are always precedents that entities can point to to excuse themselves or to offer as a reason for an action. If nothing else, it can be said that cities annex other cities when they grow so close that their influences run in to each other. This Awareness indicates there is not seen sufficient reason to excuse an invasion into the area, except for the reason of seeking to gain greater power.

The entity Hussein needing or desiring to control the price of oil, in producing 'x' number of barrels daily, fewer than that produced in Kuwait, could foresee that by annexing Kuwait, the percentage of daily oil production would be greater, more than doubled in his control, and by taking still another small country he could control the greater percentage of oil in the OPEC cartel and thus influence the price of oil and the sale of oil, restricting the sales so that the price of oil remained high, thus gaining greater value for the oil controlled.

This Awareness indicates that this entity was very disturbed because Kuwait was selling more than was allotted in the agreements and also because Kuwait, a much smaller nation, approximately the size of a large county in a U.S. state, produces more oil than all of Iraq. This Awareness indicates that it is much like a small county in the state of Washington producing more oil than the rest of the state, and the state simply wishing to annex the county.

This would be permissible except that the county referred to in this case is a sovereign nation. It is simply small and county-sized. This Awareness indicates that the other aspect that created some resentment and creates resentment among many of the Arabs, is that because Kuwait had a large market selling most of its oil to the United States, it had huge revenue from the sales and the Kuwaitee people received large amounts of money, were in fact wealthy.

Kuwait People are Wealthiest in the World

This Awareness indicates that this country of Kuwait allotted approximately the value of sixty thousand dollars for each individual within its borders, each citizen, whether man, woman or child; these were basically the wealthiest people in the world in terms of a group; that as a group of citizens in a country, these entities' average income would be sufficient to class them as probably the wealthiest persons on earth.

This Awareness indicates that they were still living in primitive homes, but this was because they do not know how to spend all the money they receive, and they simply were putting their money into banks; that this money, of course, along with the country, would be annexed by the Iraqians wherein possible. This Awareness indicates that many of the other impoverished Arabs resented the Kuwait people, seeing them as looking down their noses at them, and therefore, many of the grass-roots populace in the area do not feel sympathy for Kuwait and feel gratitude toward the Hussein/Iraqian invaders of Kuwait. This then is another factor.

That particular resentment can also be transferred as the resentment towards the United States for interfering and coming to the rescue of Kuwait, or blocking the efforts of Hussein and the Iraqian forces.

SHOULD BUSH HAVE WAITED TO SEE IF BLOCKADE AND SANCTIONS WORKED?

(DR. BETER'S SCENARIO MAY BE WORKING OUT)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

It seems like the economic sanctions that America, the Bush government and others put out, was given sanction by the rest of the world and certain Arab nations. Was it really necessary for Mr. Bush to send carriers over there along with thousands of American troops without waiting to see if these sanctions would work?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these sanctions were such as to include blockading the shipments of oil or cutting off the pipelines. Even as this was occurring, the Iraqians were massing troops on the border of Saudi Arabia and the apparent intention being to enter into that nation, destroying the Saudi Arabian oil fields as was once described by Dr. Beter in his earlier Audio tapes, so as to create a greater world shortage of oil as part of a scenario to bring about certain conditions.

Where the Bolsheviks now Stand

This being a kind of Bolshevik plot, to bring about certain conditions that would allow for a period of control whereby the forces in the areas could then create much disruption in the oil flow, which then would affect the economies of the world, which in turn would be such as to disrupt the balance of power in the present struggle between certain factions. The factions being those of the Rockefeller empire, the Rockefeller/Skoptsis alliance and the Zionist factions and Rothschild/Zionist factions and the Bolshevik faction.

The Bolshevik faction being such as to now be somewhat in competition with the Zionist factions. This Awareness indicates the Bolsheviks having first left Russia, moving to the United States, not finding the opportunity for gaining control in that country, left and went from Western United States toward the Southeastern part of the United States, and then left there to England. Not having any particular luck there, or in Eastern Europe, these entities are struggling to find a place where they can regain a semblance of power, for they do not accept being powerless after having ruled and held power in Soviet Russia for so long.

4. The Skoptsis of Soviet Russia, now generally aligned with the Rockefeller factions and those who are representative of this in the Bush administration, these entities are gaining greater influence on world affairs. The Bolshevik forces are not even welcome in Jerusalem. There is some effort to move into areas of Central and South America, but there also is much resistance to their presence.

This Awareness indicates that the influence of this faction is that which is working through Iraq and seeking to gain a kind of power in the Middle East through the manipulation and control of the Arab nations. The Rockefeller/Bush factions, of which Bush is a reflection or representative as realizing the importance of blocking this effort to unify the Arab world under a Bolshevik power.

The Bolsheviks would use the Arab religion and fanaticism to unify them in order to use them for furthering war for the destruction of Israel and for further actions against Europe. This Awareness indicates that it is in part because of this flux of the balance of power that these standoff activities are being presented and given with such dramatic and sudden response.

The Alien Influence in the Middle East

This Awareness indicates that the alien influence stands behind the Bolshevik efforts; this because much of the Rockefeller/Skoptsis influence has turned against the alien influence.

(Follow-Up Question):

How does Russia fit into this scenario?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as a representative of the Skoptsis influence; that essentially, the Skoptsis have control of Russia at this time.

ED's Note: Readers of this newsletter who have been with C.A.C. many years, will readily understand what Awareness is talking about, when referring to all these various factions manipulating behind the scenes. There is no way this editor can explain all this at this time, but new members wishing information on this should consult your Back-Issues catalogs for further information. You should begin with issue 79-1 (The Gathering Storm) and continue from there.

Although, like many of you, I still smell a rat, even though it looks like Bush is going to get away with forcing America's youth into the burning deserts of the Middle East and into harm's way. C.A.C. will try to keep you updated on this scenario as time goes by.

MEMO TO THE MEMBERSHIP:

October 15, 1990

Hi gang! It's me again, but this one will be short and sweet; serious business, "no foolery around," as the sign says on a local magazine stand run by an Oriental lady who does not like anyone, particularly teenage boys to hang out and peruse the magazines, like 'Playboy,' for instance.

We have some good news and some bad news to report to you. This will come later in this report. First, the URGENT news.

Enclosed in this mailing, you will find 'Revelations of Awareness' Newsletter No. 90-18 (issue No. 371). We believe this particular newsletter is the most important issue we have ever published in the 18-1/2 years C.A.C. has been in business. We urge each and every one of you to read and DIGEST this information, read it again and again until you thoroughly understand what Awareness is saying. Then, do everything you can possibly think of to spread this information around. Explain it to your friends, this scenario, which Awareness now indicates could come down upon us as early as next year. It is vitally important that as many entities as is humanly possible be informed of this scenario, whether they believe it or not, because when it all does come down, at least they will understand who is holding the cards and what kind of deck is being played. If enough have been informed of this grand deception, it is possible that the official announcement could be different, perhaps more in line of the truth. However, this is highly unlikely.

What can you do about the situation? You can tell others. Even if you can not convince them that UFOs exist, that aliens are behind the One World Government scheme, you can tell them to be alert, to watch for what they may think is the biblical "rapture" and those things leading up to it. You can also duplicate the information, but we suggest you rewrite it in your own words, leaving out the references to Awareness, which would only confuse many readers or be dismissed by them as being some sort of New Age culty channeling, etc. Tack these to local bulletin boards in the form of notices. Look around your area and you will be surprised how many bulletin boards there are. Try to contact the clergy. They can relate to biblical prophecy. Turn them on to books like the Sitchin series, 'The Gods of Eden,' etc. for verification. (These books should be in most libraries). You can also write letters to your editor, to your TV news stations, stating you have read the famous Secret Government reports ("Operation Majority") by William Cooper, which has appeared in numerous magazines, in audio and video tapes, and which Cooper is revealing in his many lectures around the country. Tell them you have read about the alien presence in the works of John Lear, a respectable military officer and scion to a billion dollar defense company, the Lear Jet manufacturer, etc. Another important way to get the message out is in the form of a chain letter. You can get the necessary information condensed down to less than a page, along with a list of sources for further research. Stress the urgency, that timing is most important. Tell them to make copies and mail them to 50 others, who in turn will make copies and mail to still others, on and on. You do not need to use your name or address. Just distill the basic information and get it out. Your life, and certainly your way of life, most probably does depend on how many can be informed in such a short time. We know you can do it, gang, and you can start today! If we can believe Awareness, once it all comes down, all information about the scenario from C.A.C. and all other sources will be instantly shut down. There will be but one version of the scenario and it will be ALL LIES, and it will be a case of 'every man for himself' as far as escaping the so-called 'authorities'.

Now that I have effectively laid that on you, let's delve into some other related factors. For instance, how much is all this information from Awareness, distasteful as the recent info may be, worth to you? Have you had enough? Or do you wish to remain informed in the days, months and years ahead?

Okay, in looking back before all the alien stuff, how important to you and yours has been the messages from Awareness?

Vikki and I were discussing this very thing the other night and some of the things we felt were rather important was all that health information Awareness has given over the years. We talked about how our diets and certain lifestyle had been altered by information Awareness presented. We both feel healthier from the various herbs and vitamins and minerals Awareness has suggested, the chelation treatments, the return to a basic and natural approach to diet and health and the prevention of disease by building up a healthy immune system. We both felt the wealth of information in this field given by Awareness was important. We hope the health information has been of help to you too.

We talked about all the information Awareness has given on relationships over the years and how we know from the many letters received that such information was of real assistance to many. We decided that was important, too.

We feel the spiritual information is extremely important, the basic philosophy expressed through almost every message from Awareness. As a result, we understand why we are here, why we have no fear of death, why life is full of many joys in spite of all the negatives. We feel we are beginning to understand what Awareness means when it refers to "What Is" and the "isness", why the universe can be seen in a grain of sand, as the poet discovered, and how that 4 quadrillionth of a second is like a rebirth from moment to moment, a birth into a heaven or a hell or whatever. We hope our loyal readers who, over the years have studied the Cosmic Awareness philosophy, believe it is important, that because of this their lives have been changed for the better.

We also felt the information from Awareness on what was going on behind the scenes was important. We felt the information on how to protect our freedoms was important. When we became aware of what the bankers were up to, the so-called Illuminati, those behind the concept of the One World Government and their scheme to eventually enslave humanity, mark them with numbers, monitor and control their every move, we felt this was important information and we did what we could to inform others. We know many of you did the same.

For many years we have felt that the "Gathering Storm" information was probably the most important information C.A.C. ever put out, but now we know important as that was, it was only a layer of the onion. We thought we had the "bad guys" fingered, but as it turns out they are only the dupes and lackeys of an even more sinister force. Once we thought of frustrating plans for nuclear war, the 'first strike', saving New York City from cobalt bombs planted in the Hudson and East rivers; all of those schemes of the Bolsheviks, as Dr. Beter called them, concerned certain countries being wiped out, greed trips and power grabs and wars confined to certain areas. But all of this pales in comparison when one considers the Reptoid aliens and their sinister plans: the entire earth is at stake!

So, how important to you are these messages from Cosmic Awareness sent to your mailbox on a reliable basis by the working stiffs here at C.A.C.? Before answering, please consider the following "fringe benefits" which you may or may not understand, but benefits Awareness has given to you anyway:

Healings and healing energies, periodically gathered and sent directly to you to use as you will, for health, for finances, for understanding, etc, the latest being the opening of the Pipeline and a source of healing and protective energies you can draw upon forever! Healing energies and various rituals and meditations on how you can draw upon these (and more to come in future mailings).

Energies to calm your anxieties about the aliens; energy to help you do your daily thing as you go through life; plus a written guarantee from Awareness that you will NEVER become a hamburger (raw at that) or lunch for any Reptoid, ---NEVER!

Okay, you can reflect on all of this later, if you care to. But why bring all this stuff up, anyway? Well, Vikki instigated the whole thing. She followed me around the office the other day muttering about "support." She said simply that we are not getting enough support from the membership. She said it was our own fault because we do not reveal often enough to the membership what is involved in getting the newsletter out to you issue after issue, on a seemingly uninterrupted basis; this in terms of time, energy and the finances involved. I sat her down and became serious as I noticed she was nearly in tears. The printing press had 'died' the day before and I had been on my knees trying to figure out various parts of it lying on the floor, having disemboweled the beast in a futile effort to find the cause of its demise. I had not been paying attention to what she was trying to say until I became aware she was choking up. At that point we had a talk.

It seems that once again the problem is financial. Paul had just left after a week of giving readings, and she had to pay him with three checks, two which were post-dated, and there was a strong possibility they would bounce, particularly, she sighed "if the paper bill should come in this week." (The paper bill I discovered was about $1500). That was part of the bad news I mentioned earlier. The good news was that we were able to score a shipment of paper and this mailing, at least, was guaranteed to go out on schedule. Other good news Vikki informed me is that she no longer has to paint over the mailing envelopes with blue ink, a job necessitated by a post office ruling that the notice of forwarding had to be changed to the top of the envelope from its former position at the bottom. The bad news, she added, was now we had to reorder our envelopes because we only had enough for about two more mailings. (The envelopes, she sighed would cost another $1500 plus freight from California). This up front. She ran on and on about bills and making ends meet and the trials and tribulations of having to be the "guardian of the treasury," (a term given by Awareness who appointed her to that office many years ago). She muttered how the typewriters were about to give up the ghost again, and seeing the innards of the printing press spread out upon the floor, demanded that it be finally replaced, that it was obvious it had finally expired and I could not make it run ever again. She was right, but that was our backup press that printed side 2 of the newsletter. I printed this issue on the other ancient press, both sides, and it took twice as long, but by god we got it printed!

That's when she got into all that business about "support." I winced, knowing what was coming. "Avaton, I'm sick and tired of having to nickle and dime everything. You simply must send out a letter and tell them I'm going to go on strike if we don't get more support in this area." I told her okay, "but you know the type of letters we are going to get." Yeah, those that begin: "Why can't you people manage your money better? Look, if you can't make it, just raise your dues rate."

We discussed this and decided we just had not informed the membership over the years; it was our fault they did not understand our situation. For what it's worth, why it always seems we are short of money is not because we pay ourselves a lavish salary or work in fancy offices; the fact is that nobody gets a salary at all, not a dime, never has, and only this summer, after some 18 years did we finally get legitimate toilet facilities, with running water, installed! It's a little discouraging, Vikki sighed, that after all these years of working, 6 and 1/2 days a week, working till 2: AM, getting the newsletters out, to get letters suggesting we are "incompetent" with money. "I guess," she said, we just didn't get the message across. Our members just do not understand our situation. We should have raised our rates years ago, but because so many of our members are in financial binds themselves, many on welfare, many on Social Security, etc. we did not do this. We both felt those who did have the means would simply upgrade their membership and help subsidize those who could only afford the minimum membership. We have discussed this hundreds of times. We were not going to provide the readings only to those who were rich and could afford it, keep the material "secret" and really stick it to those who could afford it, like our neighbors in nearby Yelm, where the teachings are restricted to those who have the big bucks. We know many of our members are really "well-heeled," professional people, have a business of their own, yet year after year they come in as bottom-line members at $30 and surely, they must know, being business people themselves, that CAC could not possibly send them all that material they get in a year for that $30 contribution. Only a few, a very sensitive few that can be counted on the fingers of one hand, are aware, really aware of our situation, and have understood the urgency and responded with donations; it is only because of them, along with personal subsidies that unfortunately, have now ran out, have we been able to keep the organization going all these years. I guess we were being very naive to think "the honor system" would work without us having to explain it to the readers. Well, now that it has been explained, maybe it will work. Thanksgiving is coming up fast, and although we don't usually pat ourselves on the back, we have the feeling that most of you may be thankful for the fact that we are still in business at all, appreciative of all the information you have been given in the past as well as what you will be receiving in the future. Your letters are great! We love them. Keep them coming! But keep in mind that letters alone will not pay the bills. There is a problem, and in addition to the stress and burn-out from the latest overload of material needing to get out, as Vikki stated, that's bad enough, but trying to continue to function and not having to worry about every nickle and dime, "I can live with that!" she exclaimed, through her tears. In February, the postoffice is raising their rates 20% across the board. When that occurs we MUST raise our rates, unless that miracle happens we have been energizing. Awareness says that on the higher spiritual level, when you ask for something from your Higher Self, that you thank It in advance for what It is going to do. In that respect we wish to thank you in advance, all those Higher Selves out there, for responding to this particular urgency! Or, as that old Quaker dictum so aptly states: "The way will open." (It does not say "perhaps" or "maybe" but will open, and it always does!)

In effect, the gentle carpenter from Nazareth summed it all up rather simply: "If ye love me, feed my sheep!"

Thank you for your understanding, and a profound thanks to those of you who have carried the major load for so long.

We do not intend to nag you any further on this issue. We are not Jim and Tammy Bakker and we refuse to whine and cajole and use their kind of tactics. Effective as they appear to be, I don't think you guys would bite anyway. The bottom line is: if we can't make it, we can't make it, and the publication simply stops. Personally, I do not think that is going to happen, at least not for awhile. Our past negligence in conveying to you our true situation has now been corrected, and as a working team, united in the cause, all of us will prevail.

For the CAC staff, yours in the service,
Avaton

PS: If you're getting tired of alien questions, send me some other good questions on other topics. We really need them at this time to help balance out the vast amount of material we have on this subject still to come! Thanks again!

Also, enclosed with this mailing is some info on books we now have in stock. If we sell out, we can get more!
