A Civilized Way to End the Slaughter

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

WORLD PEACE BY THE YEAR 2000: THE END TO THE WHIP AND THE GUN

(HOW PEACE WILL EVOLVE TO A HIGHER LEVEL IN OUR TIME!)

(Opening Message, C.A.C. General Reading)
June 21, 1989

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to remind entities in regard to the concept of a universe in which information is being processed in every part of the universe, and the information within each part of that universe is what gives the characterization to that part, is that which gives the qualities and description to that part, and whereby the information in any part of the universe becomes altered, the alteration of information then being processed creates a change in the characterization of that part, a change in the nature, appearance and description of that part.

This Awareness indicates that in regard to this concept of information being processed, and accounting for the nature of any part of the universe, this Awareness wishes you now to look at the changes that have been occurring on your plane in terms of political, economic, national loyalties and trends in terms of the various systems of government, of social structuring. This Awareness indicates that in the near time of a few short years, that system known as Communism, which but a decade or so back appeared to be a threat to democracy around the world, has moved to a condition in which it is appearing to be out of step, out of favor, and of little value in terms of the modern needs of any society.

This Awareness indicates that it is quickly moving out of favor to the point where there are few who would advocate a communist system. This Awareness indicates that the two strongest allies of Communism, Russia and China, are both in new situations in which, for example, China has attempted to embrace capitalistic qualities into its communistic society in an effort to give some further life to the communist system by infusing it with capitalistic energies. Russia has attempted to add democratic qualities to its communistic system in order to give some kind of new life, to extend the life of the communistic system, but in so doing, both systems are changing, and yet neither system is quite as functional as the Western systems of the United States and Europe and other democratic countries, wherein both the political democratic system, as well as the free enterprise or capitalistic system are working hand in hand.

This Awareness indicates that as these communistic systems of China and Russia begin to balance their needs in such a way that the democratic system as well as the free enterprise system are both incorporated, both of these nations will then begin to emerge as more workable systems, regardless of whether it is still called communism or whatever. That until this occurs, these two nations will suffer turmoil within. The same can be said for any other country, whether it be communistic or some form of fascist nation.

This Awareness indicates that the movement is such that democracy and free enterprise are spreading across the face of the earth to all nations; in some cases, nations are reluctant to allow the changes, but the people are demanding and expecting and awaiting these changes. That as these changes occur, a new global consciousness will begin to emerge. This Awareness indicates that these energies in motion are such that will not be stopped, regardless of who is in charge of any nation, and this movement is not something that can be controlled by but a few, for it is the result of global communications systems, and the shrinking of the earth in terms of the awareness of mass mind, wherein entities from one side of the planet can be made aware of what is occurring on the other side almost instantaneously, or within hours of the occurrence.

This Awareness indicates that the new forms of communication which allow for rapid transmission of information from one country, culture, region, to another, is such that entities around the globe begin to exchange ideas, information, culture and begin to relate to one another in a new way that has historically been impossible in earlier times; that this new relationship between cultures is that which can bring about a merging of concepts and ideas which in turn allow for creativity, new ideas, new relationships, new systems, and new conditions for humans to work together in cocreative fashion.

This Awareness reminds you that in the past, great religions were born in those areas wherein cultures crossed, wherein entities travelling along roads, or crossing into each other's regions, wherein entities coming together in cities, wherein these cultures merged, wherein differing ideas came together through travellers from various cultures; great ideas sprang up, leading to new religions, new ideas, new concepts. It is that merging of information that allows new things to spring forth.

This Awareness indicates that when a system is isolated, it continues to function as is, until some new information affects it and makes a change. In other words, each isolated system functions on the Law of Inertia, continuing in its own particular movement until some outside force creates an alteration to its movement. That when considering that all things are information being processed and when you consider that every situation of information can be static and continue without interruption, or can be affected by outside information, it becomes obvious that the information processing which is affected by outside information is that which is most dynamic and which will undergo change.

This Awareness indicates it is from these dynamic changing scenarios that new ideas, new systems, new religions, new philosophies, new cultures spring forth. What is occurring today, just like in the old days when roads crossed and brought people from differing cultures together; what is occurring today is much the same, but rather than roads alone coming and bringing people together, it is now the media: television, newspapers, telephones, fax machines; all of these interweaving activities, bringing information from one place to another, computers linking together, sending and receiving electronic mail; all of this activity as that which creates a network of highways of information in which a totally new world is in the making.

21st Century to be Astonishing

You are moving into the 21st Century which will be so different from anything prior to this century that it would be almost unimaginable to a person born in the early part of the 20th Century. That as you witness this change that is occurring, be aware, observe every little new thing that is added to the increasing information that is circumventing, circulating, weaving in, out, around various systems, altering systems, avoiding systems, linking systems; all of this activity is creating the New World.

This Awareness indicates there are many of these isolated areas of the world which will be left behind, which will be laggards. This Awareness indicates that there is coming a time in which nations that are linked together with democratic concepts and free enterprise systems will become likened unto favored nations, a unity of nations, and there will be others who want to cling to the old ways and hold back and isolate, and these nations may become outlawed, or unfavored, and will suffer from the quarantine because they refuse to fail to come to terms with new principles and behavior that is necessary to belong to those of the favored nations.

This Awareness indicates that there will be many nations that do not receive the benefits that are available to those which are favored nations and those which are isolated, refusing to live up to the standards set by those new emerging nations, such as the events which were witnessed recently in China, wherein these rulers turned back the clock in China in order to preserve their totalitarian power; such nation will fall from favor to the point wherein they find it extremely costly to them, and become more less quarantined to some degree.

It is much likened unto a nation being arrested and put in jail for improper behavior, for antisocial behavior toward its citizens, but rather than being taken to a jail, it becomes its own jail by those countries which refused to deal with it. It becomes isolated, just as a mischievous child can be ostracized from a group for mischievous behavior. This Awareness indicates this becomes the new way of dealing with nations so that war is not necessary; so that the gun and the whip are no longer needed, and economics and law become the keys to establishing and keeping order in a new world.

This Awareness indicates that in the future, there will be a world court, having greater enforcement powers, not by the gun and the whip, but by economic sanctions, whereby the world court will rule on these issues of conflict between the nations, or of nations in their treatment of their citizens, so that when a nation is seen as incapacitated, unable to properly deal with its own citizens, or when a nation attacks another, it may be taken into court for its behavior, judged by arguments presented by its own counsels before judges that are impartially selected from non-involved nations, a ruling handed down and the ruling being respected by all those who are part of the favored nation's group, so that if the ruling declares that certain sanctions should be taken toward that nation, until it cleans up its act, or makes reparations, then this occurs; that other nations follow the recommendations of the court, either dealing with the nation on a limited scale, or not at all in terms of economics, according to the ruling of the court, and that all these nations favored in unity respecting the world court's rulings, work to carry out the economic sanctions given by the court against the nation, until it is resolved, or those nations violating the court's rulings themselves come under the court's dominion and must make reparations.

This Awareness indicates it is only when the court has sufficient power attributed by the nations to have teeth, which the nations respect and agree to, it is only then that the guns, the whips can be placed aside and law put into rule. This Awareness indicates that rule by law took some time to occur in the early days of the United States, even in the last century, much of the West was controlled by the gun. The cowboys, the soldiers, settled their disputes with guns, and that was sufficient for many; that this was historically acceptable for many centuries.

A World Court: The End of the Gun and the Whip

The knights of old would settle disputes by jousting, and whoever won was considered right. Even tribunals would allow something to be settled by physical battle between challengers, and the court's decree would rest on whoever won. This Awareness indicates that is the old way. Might makes right is not logical. Might wins in many cases, but it does not necessarily correct a wrong. In fact, might, in many cases creates great error, but law, which is equally applied to all, which is based on justice, which is based on principles of justice for all; this is a way of creating balance and harmony and a standard that can endure and serve equally to all people.

This Awareness indicates in the old days of the West in the United States or in those earlier times, when the knights would joust, the principle of the gun, the power, the whip, may have determined the winner; it did not determine right or wrong. Eventually, these things must be placed aside and law which is fairly applied to all must enter and be put in place, so that the guns and whips and jousting tools can be placed aside, so that entities can have recourse through trial, through the court system, through that which is properly just.

This Awareness indicates, of course, there is much corruption in today's courts and justice is no more guaranteed in courts than was justice guaranteed on the battlefield, but there is a greater potential for eventual justice in a court and the outcome is not generally so final as in the battlefield. Therefore, in the future, the principles for solving disputes in the courts which has helped to disarm contenders so that they need not kill each other over a fence line or property line or over a debt, but can resolve the problem in a court of law; this same principle can be applied to nations.

If it can work for individuals in a society, it can also work for nations in a world, whereby the nations can be brought to court, can be tried for their behavior, wherein issues between nations can be brought to court and wherein nations can be fined for improper violations, for misrepresentations, for frauds, for violations, wherein nations can be penalized for acting outside the law; the law being that which is equally applied to all nations, wherein all nations agree upon and make the laws, wherein there can be that system of international law formulated by a kind of international legislature, such as could occur in the United Nations.

A World Government of and by the People

This Awareness indicates this is much likened unto the concept of a One World Government; but wherein the One World Government is that which has a jurisdiction over nations, using democratic principles and a separation of powers, much as is recognizable in the United States system of government, wherein the judicial branch becomes likened unto the world court, the United Nations becomes likened unto the legislative body, and certain planners can be elected by the nations as a kind of administrative body so that a president can emerge under certain types of guidelines set up by the

4. legislative body, the United Nations, and this legislative body, creating an administration drawn from nations around the world, elected into position and out of position on a periodic basis, along with the legislative body creating international laws, laws that affect the nations, not so much the individuals, but the nations, in such a manner as to mirror the system started by the founding fathers of the United States; this very action can create a world government for the people, by the people, of the people, represented by nations, just as in the United States they are represented by states.

This Awareness indicates that this, indeed, can bring about a world peace, a world system, wherein entities, whether they be individuals, groups or nations, can be represented fairly, justly, in a balanced and harmonious manner, politically, economically; that this is the fate that awaits this planet in the next century. It is this movement that will bring about the great awakening of humanity, wherein the energies shall move away from violence and war and competition, toward law, order, and justice through cooperation and co-creative activities between individuals, between groups, between businesses and between nations.

This Awareness suggests that reflecting back, considering the use of such a system as has been described; reflect, for example, on the Falkland Islands, the war between Britain and Argentina, in which there was a dispute as to who owned the islands, and this could have been brought before the World Court for a settlement based on documentation and records and transactions, and the legal ramifications in regard to claims of ownership, so that the war need not have taken place on the battlefield, but could have been solved in the courts, in the World Court, using impartial judges from nations that were not themselves involved in any vested interest, so that every opportunity for challenge could be given by both parties, both countries, every opportunity for presenting the evidence could be given by both countries, and so that the final decision or judgment in regard to the ownership or if the dispute was not clear, a reasonable settlement to both parties of split ownership, or whatever seemed appropriate, so that whatever that settlement of the court might be, the two parties were bound to accept that decision, or otherwise be signed or penalized by the group of nations, so that if a nation refused to accept the World Court's order, that nation in violation of the court might be ostracized, penalized or fined, and all participating nations, respecting the courts decision, would assist in penalizing that nation, such as by refusing to trade with that nation for a limited period of time, set by the court, or refusing to buy goods from that nation until the court was satisfied, or other economic sanctions, decided by the court, as proper penalty.

The Non-Violent Way to Deal with an Outlaw Nation

In other words, the nation that violates the court's ruling, in such violation is an outlaw, until it creates the proper settlement to satisfy the court. The arresting action, wherein the word 'arrest' simply means to stop, the stopping action of that outlawed nation is to stop economically, rather than to stop with military force; stopping the nation from functioning economically on a world scale, in terms of trade, in terms of exchange, import/export, so that the nation finds itself in a difficult position because of its refusal to honor the court.

How to Deal with an Outlaw Nation

This Awareness indicates in this manner, the World Court has teeth through its relationship with favored nations which respect the World Court by mutual agreement to do so. Witness any war under such a system, and it becomes obvious that the war would not need to occur were the battle to be taken out of the military domain and put into the domain of a court which has jurisdiction over nations, just as laws have jurisdiction over individuals. Think of these nations as individuals wanting to shoot each other, then think of these nations as individuals under law, wherein their disputes can be settled by law, and if they are not settled by law, and the individuals or nations resort to the whip and the gun, the law can step in and arrest or stop all trade, quarantine the nation or individual, so that the individual, in essence, is imprisoned in his own making, so that the nation in essence is imprisoned, unable to import or export, unable to allow citizens to travel in or out, except under permission from the courts.

Time to Send this Information to Congress

Such action would cause a nation or an individual to think twice about picking up the gun, the whip, the rocket, the bomb, against a neighbor. This Awareness indicates in this manner, world peace becomes a possibility. In this manner, world peace becomes inevitable. It is only a matter of time. The sooner entities recognize this, understand this principle, the sooner it will evolve. This Awareness indicates that entities can help this process to evolve more quickly by sending copies of this information to those entities who are in positions in which they can promote these ideas. This Awareness suggests that entities may send this information to their Congress people, or to others who have some clout or influence, or who would be open to furthering these concepts and ideas.

This Awareness suggests that as these ideas are spread, and as entities begin to grasp the recognition that the simple action of removing the power of the gun as a way of settling disputes and replacing it with law that has teeth, peace evolves to a higher level, not over the corpse of another, but over the decision of the court, so that justice has a greater chance, whether it be between individuals or nations.

This Awareness sees peace by the year 2000 as a possibility if these concepts are embraced; that this peace as that which can be guaranteed by these concepts. This Awareness indicates otherwise, there are still great dangers from nations that are not yet ready, are not yet evolved to the degree in which they are responsible enough to have the opportunities of destruction, of technology, because they have not yet learned to respect human life and others, and want only power for themselves. This Awareness indicates that such nations, which are not ready to abide by a mutually

5. agreeable set of laws, by favored nations, should be held back in terms of the benefits, the technologies, the economics, until they are ready to join the higher standards of life, and then receive those benefits, those technologies, those higher economics.

Don't Sell Guns to an Irresponsible Child

You do not place guns in the hands of those who are unevolved and incapable and irresponsible without being irresponsible yourself. Those nations that are unevolved in terms of social principles, in terms of a world society, should not be given the technologies, should not be given the economic advantages, should not be given the opportunities to create mischief for others. It is important that nations of higher evolution not simply look at an unevolved nation as but a marketplace to sell guns and weapons, but rather to look at the unevolved nation as that which is likened unto an irresponsible child, who should not have such weapons, until the nation shows itself to be responsible enough to abide by higher principles, agreeable to all of the world favored nations, to those who have joined in a society of favored nations, which agree to work together in higher principles, higher laws, following certain standards of behavior.

When any nation is ready to accept those laws and to accept the consequences for violating such laws, then the nation is ready to join, and then the nation would be given the benefits of membership, including technologies, including the economic support, including the investments of the nations, including the involvement in the world courts, and the legislative body, the United Nations. This Awareness suggests that the details of such as that which will need much work, but the principles are so simple and so far reaching, and the benefits are so great that it is next to criminal to delay any longer, for it perpetuates through negligence the conditions that foster violence and crime.

ED's Note:

At the time this reading was given, the Berlin wall had not come down, the U.S. aggression in Panama had not yet occurred, with its thousands of civilian casualties, and Pres. Bush had not yet invaded the Middle East, with its vast potential for mass slaughter yet to be determined.

EYEBALL-TO-EYE SOCKET™

WOULD A WORLD COURT BE FOUGHT
BY THOSE MONEY-CHANGERS WHO PROFIT BY SELLING ARMS TO BOTH SIDES?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness, won't this concept of a world court be fought tooth and nail by these international bankers who for decades have maintained power and extreme wealth by creating and financing wars on both sides, or will these entities change their point of view and perhaps see that they can make just as much money in a peaceful world through some other device than promoting wars?

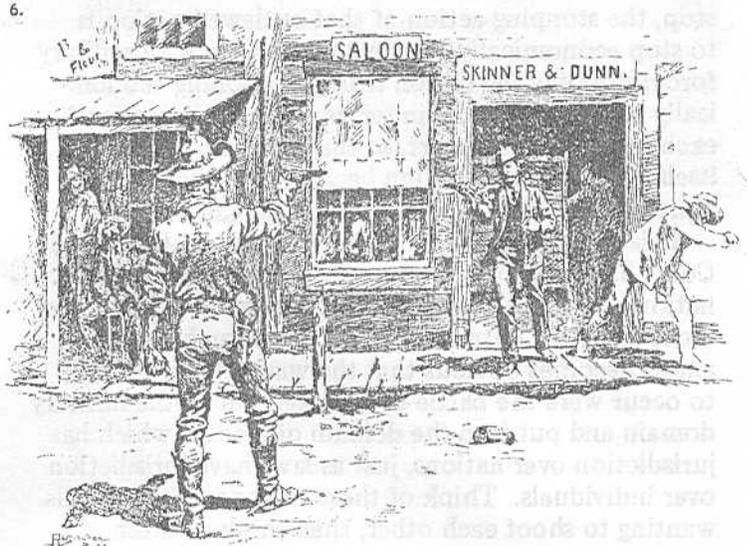

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the economic system, the banks in the United States for example, were not hindered when the cowboys surrendered their guns or their right to shoot each other, and the courts of law intervened to settle disputes. In fact, the bankers in the United States benefitted more after law entered into an area because the investments were more stable, were more solid; the economies in the frontier towns became more stabilized and more viable and thriving. More people moved in because the town presented a peaceful environment and people were willing to spend more money, more work, more time, building up that peaceful environment, whereas before they spent much of their time worrying and defending against potential attackers.

This Awareness indicates that the production of a society requires cooperation. The destruction of a society requires competition. If you take a world society in which production becomes a major action and competition moves to a back burner, the production creates extreme opportunities for investments by those money-lenders that can equal or surpass the money spent on destructive activities. This Awareness indicates that the concept of world cooperation, wherein the entire world is busy being productive instead of destructive, as that which has not yet been tried. It is possible that new and unusual and massive projects, heretofore unimagined, could be put into production in which, rather than seeing things blown apart, billions of dollars worth of weapons, trillions of dollars worth of weapons being built and then being either blow apart or outdated; instead of such waste, the productivity of massive unimaginable projects such as highways that traverse continents, bridges that cross oceans, whatever an entity can imagine that would cost no more than, for example, the Star Wars program; whatever entities can dream up to put money into in a productive outcome; that these things are still beneficial to the money lenders. They can make money in peace or war. They need not have war to make their money.

Coming Soon: Skyscrapers Linked Together

This Awareness indicates that It foresees a time in the next century, in which great cities will have skyscrapers, whereby between buildings every 20 floors, there will be walkways and parks 20 floors high, vegetation growing, wherein entities can walk out on the 20th floor and go over to another building on the 40th floor, on the 80th floor, or they can stop between buildings and sit in a park. This Awareness indicates that these buildings with these walkways stabilize each other, allowing skyscrapers to go higher than ever because they are linked together over a much wider area and give stability to each other by these walkways.

This Awareness indicates that there is much that can be done of a constructive nature, but what's the value of constructive activities when war and destruction is always there as a threat? This Awareness indicates that one terrorist bomb carried in a suitcase could blow up any large city, or a good portion of it. This Awareness indicates that these things need to be changed so that entities perceive the new world, whereby they do not need to carry around hostilities for their loved ones who have been massacred in some corporate battle, in some country in which a corporation started a war in order to gain some kind of financial advantage, creating terrorist enemies which in turn, with all their hatred will do anything for revenge; all of this stuff is so unnecessary, and does not add to the wealth of the world. It only detracts.

This Awareness indicates that those holding the wealth can grow even more wealthy in peace if they understand the value of productivity, cocreative action, and the need to provide a stable society for all individuals so that vengeance has less appeal to the masses, so that all societies, all cultures have some stake in society, or have some opportunity to be involved in the productivity. This Awareness indicates that It does not suggest that these favored nations must immediately disarm, while other outlaw nations remain heavily armed. It is an action which must gradually occur, whereby the law takes over in terms of power; the law which is just to all gradually takes the place of the whip and the gun. It is an evolutionary process evolving. It is not a sudden disarmament.

Faith and trust is not required. Knowing who you are dealing with, the nature of your partners, the importance of the agreements, the laws involved, how they can be made to have teeth; these are the things which will make the projects workable. It is a thing of cooperation among those who are willing to embrace a higher standard of living on the earth, wherein any nation which is willing to embrace that higher standard of living is invited to join with the other favored nations and no one is excluded, except by his or its refusal to abide by the agreed upon standards and laws of those favored nations.

This Awareness suggests that these nations only cast out those who refuse to rise to those proper standards, and only to the degree that they refuse to rise to proper standards, thus, the nation which has in some way created some violation must be judged by the degree of the violation wherein the punishment fits the crime and not exceeds the crime.

World Reaction to China: the Power of Co-Creative Action

(Closing Message)

This Awareness indicates that in many ways entities looking at the situation in China will see that even without organization, much of what this Awareness has described in terms of a world government of favored nations, much of this influence is naturally occurring, wherein many companies, many nations are curtailing their involvement, even without a world court ruling, curtailing their involvement with China because of the way it treated its citizens. This is a natural reaction by any highly evolved individual or group of individuals, and therefore, these nations feel an obligation for the underdog, the underprivileged, the victims, and feel a need to deny benefits to the oppressors.

If this is the natural reaction in a situation like this, conceive how it might be were this favored nations' world court given teeth to rule, and were these favored nations bound by their mutual agreement to quarantine China until the rulers step down. This Awareness indicates you can see the power of cocreative action as an influence and how a standard of behavior by cocreative activity between nations can put a demand on other outlaw nations whose standards are less than worthy, so that they must raise their standards to be socially involved with others, so that antisocial behavior such as was portrayed by the Chinese government reaps no reward for them.

This Awareness suggests that entities can speed up this concept of a one world democracy by presenting this information to those who might have influence, who might be able to promote and work with these ideas in any country, to those individuals in any country who might be able to use these ideas. This Awareness suggests it will require a dialogue between nations that are living in a level of social responsibility, willing to work together, join together to bring about a social responsibility of favored nations, working together, under higher principles of behavior.

"THE WELLNESS FORMULA"—ARE THESE PILLS REALLY AS GOOD AS WE THINK THEY ARE ?

QUESTION: (Vikki):

We came across a product called "The Wellness Formula" that was highly recommended by a local health food store owner. It contains, among other things, echinacea, garlic, pau d'arco, cayenne, Siberian ginseng, elecampane, yarrow, boneset, horehound, goldenseal, Oregon grape root, cayenne, plus Vitamin C, bioflavinoids and zinc. She said, "We've been taking it whenever we get a scratchy throat, and have not had a cold since starting the procedure." Also, cases where people were already sick with the flu, and with possible pneumonia, this was our transcriber in Seattle and our friend Tom. As soon as they started taking "The Wellness Formula," they immediately felt improvement and promptly got over the illness. Both Avaton and I got so excited about this product, I made arrangements to get it wholesale if needbe. Does Awareness see this as a product CAC should alert the membership to and possibly handle and promote?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this can be quite beneficial for many entities in regard to the use for purposes of general well-being, particularly in areas such as overcoming stress and fatigue and the cold symptoms.

This Awareness indicates that echinacea as that which can be quite beneficial as a general healer, that cayenne as beneficial in helping to balance the circulatory system, and as having other benefits; that the other ingredients have their own particular benefits, zinc being helpful in combating colds, along with Vitamin C.

This Awareness indicates that each of these ingredients does tend to have certain benefits which, when given in common, has a kind of shotgun effect on the various minor illnesses that entities might come across; that it can be quite helpful, particularly in the beginning stages of a fatigue-like illness or disease or cold. This Awareness indicates that it can also be helpful even in the more advanced stages of colds and flu symptoms.

This Awareness suggests that it is seen as appropriate to have this on hand to use in the event of such incidences as fevers, colds, or other tiresome and weakening symptoms, in relation to the run-down feelings that entities often get when coming down with something.

This Awareness indicates that even in the more advanced stages, it can be helpful in improving the way one feels, so that the situation is not quite so unpleasant.

This Awareness suggests, however, that entities should not rely solely on this substance as a cure; that in some instances, for example, one having Strep throat, or some other more serious illness needing special attention, might be tempted to rely on "The Wellness Formula" when they actually need other treatment for the problem.

(Follow-Up Question): Vikki

I overlooked the major ingredient. They claim, and I quote: "The Wellness Formula begins with propolis. For forty million years, bees have been coating the cells in their hives with propolis for protection. People use this natural bee byproduct for its many amazing properties. The most effective propolis is harvested in cold climates. Sources Natural Co. found the purest and most potent propolis available for The Wellness Formula in a cold, unpolluted environment near the border." This was one other item that I forgot to read in the ingredients.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as appropriate and is helpful in strengthening the immunity system of individuals. This Awareness indicates that this formula can be used even when an entity is feeling well, to help maintain good feeling and energy levels.

ED's Note: For over a year Vikki has been telling some of her penpal ladies about this herbal formula, a number of them writing back they couldn't find it locally. Vikki would trot down to the local healthfood store and buy some bottles and then mail them to these people. I told her if the stuff really worked, she ought to contact the company and try to buy it in wholesale quantities. Later, I found out it really did work. Being a Gemini, my lungs are my weak spot, and I can always tell, almost immediately, when my energies drain away and I get that scratch in my throat, that a cold or flu bug has attacked my system. My great concern is to somehow keep it from getting into my lungs, for when it does, this really lays me out for a number of days, makes breathing next to impossible and the general debilitation drags on for weeks, low energy, tired all the time etc. Really bad news. Well, to make a long story short, I have been exposed to the flu bug 4 times in the last 14 months, and every time Vikki made me take two Wellness Pills at the first symptom, then two more every 4 hours and two at bedtime, and in all cases, that scratch in the throat that always heralds an impending bout with a cold or flu, was gone the next morning and my energy returned and I was able to do business as usual. We have also given these to Paul when he comes up to give the readings and is fighting off a cold. It always worked! I am sold on these pills, they're all natural, easy to swallow and with no bad taste or aftertaste. CAC intends to handle these and make them available to members who do not have access to a healthfood store that carries these. (This as the agreement with the manufacturer). In the near future these will be listed in our Price List catalog, along with the books and other items.

At the moment the price is $17.95 for a bottle of 90 tablets. These should last you through the winter and probably longer. Trust me, they really work, or we would not be talking about them. (Add $2 postage if you order some). Vikki's first shipment came in just last week!
