A Definition of 'True Peace'

This Awareness indicates it is important that entities recognize that a new way of solving problems needs to be implemented if this nation is to lead the world in terms of a guidance and lasting process toward peace; that of course, the use of force over long periods of time to selectively isolate and destroy enemies could bring about some maintenance of power that would create the illusion of peace, but true peace does not come from the oppression to the masses, or to select individuals and groups at their expense. True peace comes from reconciliations that are worked out between entities, groups, nations and cultures, so that where there was once conflict, there is now a process of resolving these differences so that the entities can relate in a way that avoids the conflict.

This Awareness indicates that this kind of peaceful resolution between entities, groups and nations as that which will help to truly implement a New World Order. There is little that is new about war and killing of enemies; that is but a reflection of Old World Order. That there is, of course, the need to protect the innocent from aggression, and in some instances the innocent can only be protected by forces that equal or overpower the bully.

If there is a way to disarm the bully without resorting to violence, that would be the preferred method of dealing with the bully. Unfortunately, most bullies only respect power and strength, and are not easily disarmed, except by a greater power and greater strength than they have at their disposal. That there is the need for education, conditioning and for the consistent use of sanctions that are strong enough to discourage even the bully from misusing power, if entities are to expect a peaceful world to emerge from these nations around the world which are too often run by psychotics and people having a lack of compassion for the masses, and who have a strong ambition for attaining power.

This Awareness indicates that it is the pursuit of power that is the most corrupting force in the management of nations; to lead them toward a violence expression, and if entities can be somehow educated to realize that there is no absolute power allowed any one nation and that the corrupt use of such power will not bring them the absolute power they desire, then also it is possible that such education being spread world-wide, could have an effect of diffusing the glamor of power, so that dictators see the handwriting on the wall, that no dictator can survive the excesses from the use of power.

This Awareness indicates that it will take more than the use of power to teach this lesson. It will also take considerable amount of information being passed and spread throughout the world over a period of time.

THE ECOLOGICAL EFFECT OF OIL WELL FIRES

QUESTION:

What about the ecological effects of those oil fires? Out of over 600 oil wells on fire, to date, one has been capped, and it's discharging 100,000 tons of smoke daily. These experts are saying that oil weighing roughly a million tons is going up in smoke every day. Science Magazine reports that is four times Kuwait's prewar output, and almost 10% of the entire world's daily ration of oil. What does Awareness see is going to happen to our world as a result of this?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. BEWARE OF THE ADDICTION TO KILLING (The Dangers in Getting High)

OPENING MESSAGE: (C.A.C. General Reading, April 1, 1991)

This Awareness indicates the euphoria relating to the conquest in the Middle East is that which is beginning to lose its luster and a more realistic assessment of what has occurred and the realities of what remains is beginning to come into focus; that the situation with regard to the tragedies in Iraq with the Kurdish people as that which is one aftermath of the war. There were, of course, similar atrocities to the Kurds after the Iranian/Iraqi war.

This Awareness indicates that the realities of the situation that now emerges will take away more of the euphoria of the war as time passes and in order to deal with new realities, it may lead to entities seeking to re-experience the high that came from the violence of war, for entities can easily become addicted to killing for the purpose of improving the situations along the lines they wish to see.

This Awareness indicates that there is a danger at this time in the United States especially, for entities to look upon institutionalized killing as a way of solving the world's problems. There is a considerable number of entities who already are conditioned in this direction; that if they see a problem that could be solved by killing of individuals, they would favor that movement and course of action.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that this, if it continues at the present rate with such little effectiveness in stopping the problem, it appears that this will have a very alarming consequence, especially in areas of the Middle East, India, and parts of Russia, over a period of time. This can be quite negative in its effect, especially to the people in these regions who will be breathing over long periods of time the smoke.

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that it will be carried throughout most of the rest of the world to such a degree as to cause great harm. The smoke being relatively heavy, will fall to the earth in the general region rather than being carried up high into the atmosphere to pollute the entire world. However, it can cause great havoc in an environmental sense, to that region, including the oceans and causing harm to animals, fish and wildlife, and to humans who reside in the general area. This can be seen as being potentially more dangerous and damaging than the Chernobyl incident.

DANGERS OF OIL FLOWING INTO PERSIAN GULF

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

There's still a million gallons a day of oil flowing into the Persian Gulf. Does Awareness see that as creating any more severe consequences than the government is saying, that this will all be cleaned up eventually?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is extremely damaging to the wildlife and to the sealife in the Gulf area. The sea could eventually become so polluted as to be unable to sustain life, if this is not stopped. That the environmental damage caused by this may in the long run prove to be a greater infliction of damage than the war itself and all its casualties.

HOW COME THE U.S. OVERRATED IRAQ'S STRENGTH?

(How Hegel's Thesis is Bringing About the New World Order)

QUESTION:

B.B. sent in an article of a syndicated columnist shortly after the end of the war, and I'd like to read a little of this and ask Awareness if it can answer the question he raises. It's written by syndicated columnist Mike Royko.

There has to be an explanation. In only a few days, we've almost totally destroyed what one expert after another had told us was the fourth most powerful fighting force in the world.

And expert after expert told us that, yes, we would surely win a ground war, but it could take weeks, maybe months of desert warfare, and at a great cost in American lives.

Maybe I dozed off and missed it, but of all the retired generals and military analysts on the tube, did even one of them say that in four days the world's fourth most powerful fighting force would be looking and acting like haggard recruits on their first day in boot camp? And the loss of American lives would be fewer than we suffered in a routine World War II skirmish?

As a matter of fact someone DID predict it. No, not me. I'm no military expert, and I believed all those retired generals and think-tankers who said it was going to be long, hard and bloody.

But on Jan. 15, long before the ground war began, an article appeared on the op-ed page of the Chicago Tribune, where I work. It was written by Professor John J. Mearsheimer, chair of the political science department at the University of Chicago, and a military scholar.

When I read it that day, I shook my head and thought: "I hope he's right, but..."

3. Here are portions of the professor's remarkably prophetic article:

"Many Americans fear that throwing Saddam Hussein's army out of Kuwait would be a very tough job for the American military, with U.S. casualties ranging into the tens of thousands.

"...This pessimistic view is incorrect. In fact, the U.S. military is poised to clobber Hussein's forces and score a stunning victory in Kuwait.

"...The campaign should be over in a week or less and probably fewer than 1,000 Americans will die in combat, a very low number for a large army fighting in a major armored war."

Why would it be that quick and decisive? Mearsheimer pointed out that our forces are better equipped, better trained in armored warfare and that we controlled the skies.

In contrast: "The Iraqi army...is a Third World military that is incapable of fighting mobile armored battles. This crucial Iraqi shortcoming in tank warfare was demonstrated often in the recent Iran-Iraq war, a conflict in which the manifest deficiencies of the Iraqi military were laid bare.

"In fact, even by Third World standards, the Iraqi army is a below-average fighting force. It is certainly not in the same league as the North Vietnamese army, and it does not even measure up well to the Egyptian and Syrian armies. If the Israelis can consistently score impressive victories over the Egyptians and Syrians, even after being completely surprised in 1973, why should we not expect the U.S. military to route the Iraqis?"

The professor called it, and that's impressive. But it also raises some questions.

If a University of Chicago professor knew with such confidence that the supposedly ferocious Iraqi army was "even by Third World standards a below-average fighting force," didn't our vast intelligence establishment know it?

And if they knew it, why were we told, over and over again, that Iraq was not merely a menace to Kuwait and Saudi Arabia, but the entire Arab region? It would be understandable if some Americans thought Saddam would be storming the beaches of Florida.

If the Iraqi army was as overrated as the professor says, and as the past few days have proved, then what might have happened if our ambassador to Iraq hadn't told Saddam that we weren't interested in Arab border disputes. What would his reaction have been if he had been told: "Don't mess with Kuwait, or you'll be up to your ears in American bombs."

Maybe down the line, when the euphoria has passed, some military and political historians will pore over all the decisions and events that led to the war. Until then, I'm glad we won and that the price in our blood wasn't steep. But I'm going to wait a while before being convinced that the entire adventure couldn't have been avoided.

That's the end of the article. Can Awareness answer the major question of why the government did not know that this was a Third World very inept military and why we had to go in there with such overkill, basically?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears this war was wanted from the beginning to establish a new kind of nationalism and the euphoria that has come out of it, so that the prestige of the administration and its own agenda could be used to influence and bring about the New World Order. It appears that there was little real concern from the beginning that the Iraqis would inflict great casualties. It was seen as a war that would have a certain outcome for a certain purpose.

This Awareness indicates that it was kind of like the staging of an event in order to bring about a certain psychological result, that the books by Anthony Sutton concern the background of George Bush and others in the Skull and Bones Society; this entity as explaining the use of Hegel and his philosophy which is often employed whereby a thesis and antithesis are created to bring about a desire synthesis.

The thesis and antithesis in this case were Saddam Hussein's aggression and the backlash to it, and the synthesis coming from this would be that of the New World Order. This Awareness indicates that these three parts being artificially created in order to reach that outcome known as the synthesis, to bring on the New World Order, which is the reason for the war in the first place.

A Frightening Possible Scenario Now Going Around
(SWAT Teams Murdering Patriots at Night)

This Awareness indicates that the New World Order as that which could help to bring about the change in the way problems are solved, or it could simply bring about a change in who is in charge and how they exercise the charge over the nations of the world. There have been a number of speakers travelling the U.S. in the past several months giving talks on the New World Order, which create images of a frightening scenario. K. C. De Pas (sp?) for example, whose claims are that he speaks from the insight of an insider in the groups of Trilateralists and others within the elite and who claims that he finally was sickened by what he'd seen, and now wishes to expose the plans of those elite, tells of how the New World Order will be implemented and warns that many entities who consider themselves as patriots and who protest or would protect the Constitution and the American way of life, will be seen as detrimental to the New World Order and may be dragged from their homes and incarcerated in concentration camps, later to be disposed of.

This Awareness indicates that William Cooper also speaks of similar scenarios, seeing entities being dragged from their homes on special holidays, when officials expect them to be there, such as on Thanksgiving night, to be arrested and incarcerated. There is another who even goes further in stating that patriots will be dragged from their homes at two o'clock in the morning and shot in their yards or on the streets, and the SWAT teams that are trained to do this will be gone within an hour, and the rumors will be spread that these entities were involved in drugs.

The passage of certain drug laws will be seen as giving this scenario credit and will be seen as being useful for the incarceration of political prisoners without trial for up to five years. That these and similar stories about how the New World Order will be forced upon Americans are being promoted by entities who have had backgrounds in agencies of the government and who sincerely express concern at what they have learned.

This Awareness indicates that it appears, however, that while these entities are expressing genuine concern, and while the plans have been made for such scenarios, and are on the books, capable of being activated according to the scenario expressed, it appears that these are contingency plans rather than actual plans that would be used. It appears that they will be used if other means for establishing the New World Order are not effective, and especially if there is a great threat or backlash from the patriots, then the contingency plans may be pulled out and activated.

What appears to be the more likely path in the future is the gradual conditioning of the masses to accept the concept of a New World Order along with certain of the masses presenting concepts and ideas that alter slightly some of the more repressive aspects of the New World Order, whereby many of the present rights, such as found in the Bill of Rights, and whereby many of the present values, as indicated in the Constitution, may be carried into that New World Order, so that it is not the same as the elite had originally intended, but becomes a kind of compromise and the Order may be implemented piece by piece or bit by bit, without great clash and conflict, and without total loss of freedoms and rights.

New World Order Comes Down in 1992

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be the more likelihood of the nature of such implementation of a New World Order, if indeed it is pursued, and it appears that this will be, there will be a major effort in 1992 to implement this concept of the New World Order, beginning first with abstract ideas relating to nations, but gradually the implementation would come down to laws within the nations, and gradually upon individuals in the nations. That these laws and structures will essentially have to do with the wishes of those who control, at present, the economies of the world, the international bankers and their various agencies that work under them, and these agencies will be given certain powers. In some cases, many of the rights that entities have long held, such as the right to own property, these and other rights such as the right to privacy, etcetera, may be threatened as these entities begin to chip away at the rights and freedoms granted by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

This Awareness indicates that it is during such times that there may be conflicts from those patriots, and if these conflicts become significant enough, then these scenarios that have been spoken of by different individuals may indeed come to be activated.

THE KURDISH TRAGEDY: WHY DID BUSH BETRAY THEM? 5.

(The Real Reason Saddam Hussein was Left in Power)

Anthony Lewis, who writes for the New York Times, wrote a little editorial. It came out about 3 days ago. It sounds a lot like one I wrote a month ago, but there's new information in here, and I'd like to ask Awareness about it. I'll read his article. He says:

This was the war to bring about a new world order. It ended a month ago in almost bloodless triumph for the United States and its allies. So we were told.

But it was not bloodless. It was not a triumph. And it did not end. For the Iraqis desperately trying to escape the vengeance of Saddam Hussein, the war and its consequences go on. BBC reports say there are now 3 million refugees, a numbing figure even in this century of horrors.

Roads are jammed with families trying to cross the snowy mountains into Turkey. Children are dying by the roadside. And Iraqi government forces are firing into this stream of helpless humanity. One of the few reporters who left Iraq with the Kurdish refugees, Jonathan Randal of the Washington Post, described helicopter gunships rocketing the cars and carts.

The scenes are hard to bear. And the victims believe they were betrayed by the American president.

George Bush appealed to Iraqis to overthrow Saddam. We do not yet know whether the CIA directly counseled opposition groups to rebel. Probably it did. But in any case there is no doubt that Iraqi Shiites and Kurds were encouraged to arms by the war and Bush's words.

And then, when the rebellion came, Bush did nothing. Or rather, worse than nothing. His aides put the word out that the revolts threatened Iraq's territorial integrity, which we wanted to preserve, so a government victory was desirable. It was a clear signal to Saddam that he could move against the rebels without worrying about us.

President Bush or his officials could at least have supported Iraqi opposition demands for human rights and free elections. They said nothing.

They could at least have met opposition leaders—which they did not do until the 12th hour.

They could have supplied food to the areas in revolt, where people were starving. They did nothing.

They could have announced that Iraqi officials would be accountable for inhumanities. They said nothing.

They could at least have raised at the United Nations the question of civilian massacres. They did nothing, until finally France and Britain moved.

It is a shameful record: a great power encouraging people to revolt against a tyrant and then letting them be crushed without a word, a sign.

The United States went into this war in the hope and belief that it could be neat and clean. Henry Kissinger put it most memorably last August when he wrote that, if sanctions were too uncertain and diplomacy unavailing, we would need to consider "a surgical and progressive destruction of Iraq's military assets."

What happened was butchery, not surgery. Estimates are that 100,000 Iraqi soldiers were killed, perhaps many more. No one can guess at the number of civilian casualties; indeed, more will die in a country where water, sewage and power lines were destroyed by bombing.

The war did force Iraq out of Kuwait and so damage Iraqi forces that for a time they cannot be an external threat. But Saddam Hussein remains in power, and every day he kills off more of his opponents. There is no stable new order in the region, much less in the world.

When the war supposedly ended a month ago, American influence was at a peak. Israel and the Arabs, it was said, would now have confidence in American promises. That looks less true every day.

"What we have now is worse than what we had when Iraq was in Kuwait," Christine Moss Helms, an Iraq expert who advised the Bush administration, told the New York Times.

"We still don't have Saddam out of power, and now we have this deteriorating situation on the frontier between the Persians and the Arabs and the Turks."

That was the end of the editorial. The question of why Bush did not support the insurgents is one that a lot of people are now asking. Can Awareness answer that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the policy was based on a belief or concern that if Iraq were destroyed even more in terms of military might, or if other forces ousted Saddam, the country would be unable to serve as a counterforce to other countries in the region such as Syria and Iran, and the policy was such to want a greatly weakened Iraq, but one that was still strong enough to keep Iran from becoming the next big bully.

This Awareness indicates that the plan was to follow that which has been established by Britain by its conquest of countries in different areas, wherein each country that is part of a feuding region has never enough power to totally overcome the power of another, and therefore, by a kind of mediocre might in each country, they remain stabilized. The plan was to stabilize the Middle East by taking away the greater power, and leaving a balance of power between the various nations, except for Israel which would have a dominant power in the region.

It is for this reason that Saddam Hussein was left in power and his opponents within Iraq were not supported, because it was believed that they would not be able to retain the kind of power that Hussein could retain and which would be needed in order to balance the powers in the region.

IS "GLOBAL 2000" BEING IMPLEMENTED IN IRAQ?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

What about the millions of these Kurdish entities, women and children who on the TV news are shown dying as they try to get through the snowy mountains; this is all a result of Bush's little war against Iraq. Does the reason why Bush doesn't care about this and has made statements that we're not going to do anything about it basically, is because he's aware of the Global 2000 scheme, and this is just part of reaching that end, and is allowing these wretched entities to die?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this does not appear to be much as part of his thinking. His thinking appears to be more that of concern for keeping a semblance of power in Iraq, and there is the belief that Saddam Hussein would be the only force in Iraq capable of holding power sufficient to counter Syria or Iran in the event either decided to become aggressive in the region.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

With that in mind, why did Bush bother to call for the ousting of Saddam by his own people?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it was believed that certain entities within the military would arise and establish or take on the already established structure and simply oust Saddam Hussein while keeping the structure intact. It is seen that the Kurds and Shiites would seek to destroy the ruling structure and this would greatly weaken the power in Iraq to survive in the region as a unified force. It could in fact lead to much in-fighting between the various religious factions in much the same way as has happened in Lebanon, and this was seen as undesirable.

This Awareness indicates however, that the entity did not foresee Saddam Hussein being so aggressive toward the Kurds and Shiites in his own country to the point of creating the international concern that has developed, and because of this concern, he is not able to totally ignore the activities of Saddam Hussein in this regard. It has created a dilemma for him which he seeks to deal with through humanitarian aid.

Had the Turkish border remained open for these Kurds to enter into Turkey, this crisis would not have become such a major concern for him. This Awareness indicates that it appears the crisis will become even more focused and intense, especially if the news media continues to keep these stories coming from the region, and this may lead to some further or future effort by outside forces to rid Iraq of Saddam Hussein.

It does not appear that Bush will attempt to send troops into the area for any reason. There is seen a possibility of clashes in the air to protect the Kurds and refugees from the Iraq helicopters.

U.S. TROOPS PROTECT BUSH'S OIL WELLS IN BAHRAIN

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Bush has announced there's going to be a permanent American force left in the Middle East on that little island country of Bahrain, which Awareness has indicated before contains oil wells owned by Bush and his son. If that information was of general knowledge, wouldn't more people start asking questions about this whole Middle East story and why Bush pushed it so far?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is probably correct; that there is likely to be many inquiries about this, depending on who is leading the inquiries and how far it goes will determine whether it becomes widespread knowledge or just incidental information that a few know. This Awareness indicates the Spotlight newspaper as having released information about the oil holdings of the Bush family in Bahrain, and there is a likelihood that more will follow from this. Your commercial press and media are not likely to bring these things to the attention of the public unless the public becomes aware through other sources and means; that it is possible that some newspaper may publish a story which could then be picked up by other newspapers through the wires and be reprinted and that the story could eventually become publicized, but it is seen that the information is not likely to become common knowledge.

WILL NUCLEAR WAR SYNDROME RETURN IN JUNE?
(U.S. WEAPONS FROM ALIENS 100 YEARS AHEAD)

QUESTION:

I received a note today from L.B., up in Maine. He writes: "Avaton, as you might suspect, I have other sources of conspiracy information. I have it from a very good source that the nuclear war syndrome is to be activated in June of this year, plus, unbelievably, an ungodly new Star Wars weapon. Anything in your pipeline to verify this?"

Does Awareness see anything such as he suggests coming at us this summer?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not see the nuclear war syndrome being reactivated, but this Awareness suggests that it could be created as an artificial situation in order to raise more money for military research and armaments.

It does appear that there are vast Star Wars type technological weapons available to the United States, much of which comes from alien technology; that there are such weapons that no country on earth could even begin to hope to defeat the United States, if it were to use such weapons. That these weapons are already available; that these are weapons that are approximately 50 to 100 years in advance of other technologies of today.

This Awareness indicates that the information this entity has appears to be based on correct factual material from sources that are reliable. It does not appear that the nuclear war scenario is actually a true threat, but that it is an artificially created threat to extract more money for military purposes, for research into weapons and military purposes.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

This is technology given to the government by the Greys?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is technology developed by the government based in part on technology received from the Orion Empire and from the Greys.

WILL IT BE USED AGAINST THE REPTILIAN DEATH STAR?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Could this technology be used effectively against that satellite, that Death Star?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as that which is part of the purpose of the technology. This Awareness indicates that the recent satellite which was launched to detect gamma rays as that which is also designed to follow and track the planetoid in its movement; that because of the super-cold near absolute zero temperature, it is difficult to track this, except through the gamma rays that are released when it moves.

This recent satellite as that which cost approximately three times the usual price of a military satellite, being so expensive because of its special purpose and capability of reading these high waves, the gamma rays and others. It will be capable of detecting the movement of the planetoid if and when it begins to move through the solar system.

DOES U.S. HAVE ANTI-GRAVITY DEVICES?

(Back to the Future Time Travel Being Perfected)

QUESTION:

There's an article in New Visions Journal about the recent UFO conference held in March in San Diego. One of the things that was said by UFO investigator William Hamilton, was that the government is working on secret super-advanced technology and have duplicated and replicated alien spacecraft. He personally says he has seen UFOs being flight-tested above the Nevada test site near the Groom Mountains. He further claimed the government has secret underground facilities near Edwards Air Force Base in California, where recovered discs from crashed UFOs are being studied and stored. It says: "Formerly in the Security service of the U.S. Air Force, Hamilton now is a software engineer and author. He hypothesizes the government now has the technology to create antigravitational fields and other advanced methods to enable humans to teleport objects great distances and travel through time to parallel universes." Does Awareness see that last information as being valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this appears to be valid, that these experiments relate loosely to the Montauk experiments in the area of New York. They also relate to alien technology, which allows the ships to travel many light years in a matter of moments or minutes. It appears that the teleportation techniques use similar type of technology as the technology that allows for movement into parallel universes.

It has to do with the bending of light and the alteration of frequencies to allow them to travel on light or through the bends of light, in order to move faster than light.

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

So right now, in other words, the Back to the Future type scenario as shown in the movies is actually a variation of this. It is possible, but is it actually being done?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There have been experiments in which these things have been done; that it is not an action commonly accomplished. This Awareness indicates that it is also very similar to the actions of the Pleiadians talked about which allows them to move into a parallel universe, the neighboring universe known as Dal, from which they received some of their ships.

This Awareness indicates that the exchange between the Pleiadians and the entities in the universe Dal, as that which occurred in the 60s and 70s.

COOPER SAYS BUSH IS "MOST HEINOUS CRIMINAL IN THE WORLD" AND WE ELECTED HIM!

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

This article goes on to devote most of it to things brought out by Bill Cooper who also gave a seminar there, and one of the things it says here is: "While George Bush was head of the CIA, Manuel Noriega laundered drug money to finance secret CIA operations. Cooper said: 'We have elected one of the most heinous criminals in the history of the world to the presidency.'"

Does Awareness see, as time goes on and looks back at the Bush administration, that Cooper's statement here will be verified, or will it be covered up still by that time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that this information into the entity's past will be accepted by the masses, until the entity has long left office. In historical retrospect it may be recognized. This Awareness indicates that there are now many things being released regarding the Reagan administration. The release of information after a president has left office do not appear to interest the masses to a great degree. Most people see it as passee because the entity no longer holds any power.

This Awareness indicates that to some degree there is interest, such as has been demonstrated recently in the book relating to Nancy Reagan. However, it is not seen as earth-shaking information, but more as that which entities who enjoy gossip will find themselves being drawn to.*

This Awareness indicates that in the future, entities may search out information relating to the Bush/Noriega connection, much as one would look for gossip do so as it makes them feel better to see the sins of others. As far as it being of great significance to the country, it does not appear that this information will surface in that light to the great masses of this nation, while this entity is in his presidency.

If, on the other hand, the entity begins to do things that the public disapproves of, then indeed the information may be spread even while he is still in office, and entities would enjoy finding out about these things, and it could lead to a scandal while the entity is still in office. This Awareness indicates that this is a possibility, but does not appear to be likely unless the entity makes enemies of many in the country prior to leaving office. It appears that much truth about this entity and much that is hidden will be brought out in approximately 12 to 15 years. Much which is not commonly known will be brought out in these future times; that between now and then, some of this information will work its way into popular awareness levels, but not to a great degree.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that within approximately two years, some scandals surrounding this entity will be brought into focus, but it appears that these will not be such as to convey the full exposure that some would like exposed.

ED's Note: the book Awareness referred to is called "Nancy Reagan, the Unauthorized Biography," by Washington state writer Kitty Kelley. Among some of the allegations alleged in this book: Beyond the adoring gaze, Nancy Reagan, or "Mrs. President," as her staffers called her, ruled the White House with an iron fist. When former President Ronald Reagan was given his agenda for his first meeting with Gorbachev, he asked his aides, "Have you shown this to Nancy?" When they replied in the negative, Reagan snapped: "Well, get back to me after she's passed on it." The book also claims that both she and Ronald practiced a morality very different from what they preached. They both smoked dope on occasion, both had continual extra-marital affairs and that Nancy had a long-term affair with Frank Sinatra. She alleges also that Reagan loved anti-gay and racist humor, even jokes about AIDS, that Nancy had a "secret but romantic" relationship with a lesbian in college, and later took a series of gay men as lovers. That Nancy was a lousy actress who slept her way into grade B pictures, becoming the mistress of MGM's casting chief when she was 28 and he was 51. She finally tricked Reagan into marrying her by telling him she was carrying his out-of-wedlock child. While Nancy and Sinatra were in their love nest at the White House playing old Sinatra records with candlelight and wine, etc. the doors were locked and Nancy would tell the servants and staff they were not to be disturbed, not even by the president himself, these sessions often lasting for many hours. Her daughter Patti Davis is said to have told the author that her mother beat her regularly, smashing her in the face with a hairbrush. Once, Patti fled to neighbors, her face bruised and bleeding, crying for help after an assault. When Reagan was nominated for the Presidency, Nancy argued against taking George Bush as Vice President, saying he was "whiny and just didn't have what it takes." The book is full of juicy stuff like this and most Reagan haters will relish it. It's the sort of stuff you read while killing time sitting on the john. It rings true for the most part, but what the hell! The damage done by Reagan and his ilk can't, unfortunately, be undone by the disclosure that Nancy was a viperous bitch and shrew and her husband was a senile tooth-flashing concoction who was pussy-whipped, ordered about and who never made a decision on his own. Essentially, who gives a damn about these geriatric sexual adventures and gossipy intrigues by two characters whom history will reflect upon in even a more unkindly light.

THE ARTIFICIAL ALIEN THREAT TO UNITE THE WORLD

QUESTION:

This article I was quoting continues,--this about Cooper. "Perhaps the most disturbing, but also what could be the most credible was a presentation by William Cooper, former US Navy Security and intelligence officer. While on a cruise from Portland, Seattle, to Pearl Harbor, Cooper said he saw a UFO the size of an aircraft carrier come out of the ocean and fly off overhead. After he called the captain of the ship to the bridge, the phenomenon repeated itself. Upon arrival at Pearl Harbor, Cooper claimed he was debriefed by the Chief of Naval Intelligence and signed a security oath never to discuss what had happened. Later, in his naval career, Cooper became a petty officer on the intelligence briefing team for the Pacific Fleet Intelligence Center. With access to top secret messages, he claimed he saw references to plans to create an artificial threat from outer space to unite the world."

Now my question basically is that the government we know now knows of the alien threat and is making all sorts of preparations for Star Wars etc. to help counter it, but at the time Cooper also saw information stating that there wasn't any threat, but that there was a plan to create an 'artificial threat' to unite the world.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this plan to create the artificial threat has been discussed previously as one scenario or one, what may be termed "contingency plan" to energize the One World Government or New World Order, which could be implemented as early as 1992. This Awareness indicates that It has previously suggested that if the alleged invasion of the alien forces does not occur in '92 or '93, but occurs in or around '97, that it is probably genuine, for it appears that the genuine invasion would take place after 1995, and that a phony invasion may occur as early as 1992 in order to create a world government uniting the nations so that they could deal with the true invasion which may occur later.

This Awareness indicates that much of this information has been given previously, that the plan for a false invasion to unite the world is also discussed in the book The Cosmic Conspiracy by Stan Deyo; that there are others who have also given similar suggestions and this Awareness discussed this to some degree. It appears that such a plan would be likely to occur in 1992, when so many other things are occurring, such as the European community uniting as one nation.

8. This Awareness indicates that it is possible that the plan would be delayed or that it might not even be implemented. It is seen as quite likely that it will be implemented at some point, and that the more likely time would be in the year 1992, but it is a contingency plan, and not necessarily a hard fast plan of intention, at least not yet so. By creating an alleged threat, the government could then have an excuse to create and set up any form of laws and policies that it deemed necessary for its purposes on the grounds of national security.

ED's Note: for a detailed explanation of this scenario, please refer to 'Revelations of Awareness' No. 90-18 (The Fake Invasion and Fake Rapture); $2.00 from CAC.

AIDS VIRUS CREATED TO WIPE OUT MINORITIES

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

This article also says that Cooper said AIDS was created by the government to decrease the birth rate and increase the death rate among undesirable populations, namely blacks, Hispanics, and homosexuals. In the mid-70s, gays that responded to advertisements soliciting promiscuous males for hepatitis B research studies, were inoculated with the virus and are all dead. Cooper said the virus was developed at a Maryland army base in the early 70's. Is that information correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the first part is seen as being accurate. It appears that the latter part as being partially correct, with other research occurring in other places, such as in Germany and also in Africa.

MANY CHILD KILLINGS STAGED IN ATTEMPT TO GET GUNS OUT OF THE PUBLIC'S HANDS

QUESTION

The article also says Cooper said: "Gunmen who shot schoolchildren and slaughtered others with automatic weapons all had traces of the drug Prozac in their systems and were mental patients." Cooper suggests these types of crimes along with the drug problem, were created so that most Americans would be willing to give up some of their rights to get drugs and crime off the streets.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

And guns out of the public's hands. This Awareness indicates there is a major effort in some of these actions to convince the public that guns should be taken from the public and allowed only for the police. That once this occurs, any president, any leader of the country who wants to become a dictator could have total control over the public through the police forces and the structural order of the government, and there would be no option or opportunity for rebellion from the masses.

This Awareness indicates that when the founding fathers argued that all Americans should have the right to bear arms, their intention was to create a civilian militia rather than a standing army, because the nature of standing armies is that they go into battle elsewhere, they go into foreign countries and do battle and create war. This Awareness indicates that it was the intention of Jefferson and Adams and others that the militia be a defensive army of civilians; that everyone have the right to keep and bear arms so as to protect the nation from outside intruders and to avoid having to develop an army that would invade other countries.

The purpose was to keep this country out of war; that by creating a standing army and giving them guns, it is then possible to export war from this country. It is also possible to control that standing army so as to imprison the citizens of this country if the citizens are disarmed.

This Awareness indicates that the disarming of the citizens as that which would be a high priority of anyone who wanted to become a dictator of a country. This Awareness suggests that having citizens who are armed is one of the ways whereby dictatorial control would become nearly impossible; that the majority of Americans, approximately 60% have guns in their homes and it would be quite a concern of any president or individual who sought to take over the country by dictatorial means to have to deal with a population that is 60% armed.

This Awareness indicates that many of the shootings that have occurred such as those mentioned in the question have been deliberately staged for the purpose of creating an atmosphere that would allow the masses of the country to be willing to disarm.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Right now there's a pretty heavy campaign being launched for gun control. A lot of it is led by this Secret Service man who was injured when they tried to kill Reagan back at the beginning of his term in office, but at the same time, there's a lot of stories coming out now that we here in the United States are celebrating the 200th year of our Bill of Rights and miraculously, the Bill of Rights is being reprinted in a lot of newspapers. At the same time, Carolyn Kennedy has come out with a best-selling book called The Bill of Rights which is based on factual stories of entities who have used the Bill of Rights in their favor to show how it really works. My question is: While these two forces are gathering, and both opposed to each other, does Awareness see this 200th anniversary of our Bill of Rights as going to overpower these forces that are trying to remove all the guns from American homes?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that those forces which would attempt to remove guns from American homes, generally they do not work with the intention of disarming the masses for purpose of conquest, but rather of disarming the masses to make this a more peaceful nation. This Awareness indicates however noble their motives are, they would also be creating a dangerous situation, if there were those who would seek to control the masses for dictatorial purposes.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that their efforts will not be successful as far as disarming the masses but that there may be some levels of compromise such as restrictions or waiting periods whereby an entity cannot purchase a gun without a certain length of time for waiting, during which an investigation of the entity would take place. This appears to be something that is likely to occur soon. Even the American Rifle Association is favorable toward having entities checked before they are sold a gun, and if the American Rifle Association agrees with this, it is likely that very soon this will become a requirement.

This Awareness indicates that a record check on an individual can be conducted by the police within a matter of minutes and it could easily become mandatory before an entity is allowed to sell a gun to an individual, that the entity be checked to determine whether or not he is a risk, a felon, or has a criminal record which might deny him the right to use a gun. This Awareness reminds you that the Constitution does not protect felons or criminals, in certain of these rights guaranteed by the Bill of Rights.

IS THE SPIRIT OF ABE LINCOLN ADVISING BUSH?

(How an Astral Shell Can Keep Up with the Times)

QUESTION:

Washington state has had that law for years. I think it's a 10 day waiting period. I was surprised other states did not have the same law, they're making such a big to-do about it.

In regard to George Bush, the Weekly World News had a little article here, I'd like to read and ask Awareness if there's any validity to this because there has been other stories in the past documented. It says:

Abe Lincoln's ghost has been spotted in the White House four times in the past six months. On two occasions the haggard, heavy-lidded spirit actually spoke to George Bush.

That's the claim of Secret Service agents and other political insiders that Lincoln's spirit still has a hand in guiding our nation 126 years after John Wilkes Booth shot him dead in 1865. "We've seen him hobbling down the hall on the White House's second floor and conferring with President Bush in the Oval Office," said one veteran Secret Service agent who requested anonymity to protect his job.

"He looks tired, a little sad even, but there's no doubt that it's Lincoln. I know for a fact that the spirit has visited the White House four times since August.

"It's been also rumored that the spirit has counseled President Bush at least twice while discussing America's role in the New World Order. I, for one, don't doubt it at all."

White House spokesmen will neither confirm nor deny the report but it's a known fact that Lincoln's ghost has visited the White House many times.

Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Teddy Roosevelt both encountered the spirit when they were President. And British Prime Minister Winston Churchill saw Lincoln's ghost during a visit to the White House.

That's the end of the article. Is there any truth to this story, that Lincoln is advising Bush about the New World Order as the article implies?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be an astral shell, rather than the essence or soul of the entity. The astral shell having been left from the time of Lincoln's presidency. It appears that the astral shell has managed to keep abreast of changes that have occurred over the years. It is likened unto a continuation of Lincoln's presidency up to the present time with certain limitations in the fact that he is not representative of the masses.

He is not completely there as a person. His soul is absent of this astral shell, but the astral shell carries his emotions, and is capable of some rudimentary thinking and learning. Therefore, if it is involved in advising, the advice would be more of an ethical nature than of a highly intellectual nature.

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be the case. It is not something that entities should necessarily be concerned about nor expect great things from, because it is limited in terms of intellect and the advice it might give could be quite limited, even faulty. It appears the entity was not giving advice so much as encouragement in regard to some of the president's personal torment and concerns in regard to the war, being that Lincoln also went through similar feelings during the Civil War.

The astral shell was empathetic to those feelings experienced by the current president.

TALK-SHOW HOSTS BEING FIRED AFTER COOPER ON

QUESTION:

One final question in this article regarding Bill Cooper. It says, "Cooper says he has received several death threats and also claims seven talk-show hosts on radio and TV have been fired after having him on their show." Is this indicative that the window Awareness mentioned is being closed by the government?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is indicative that Cooper's messages have been met with hostility from sources or agencies or individuals who have the power to threaten or to have individuals fired for presenting such information. It is not seen that the window ever provided openings for all of the types of information that Cooper was giving. This entity has released much information and even in the event UFOs were an open topic, the entity might still receive death threats.

This Awareness indicates that this entity in his talks goes beyond the discussions of UFOs and makes accusations in regard to drugs and the involvement of individuals such as the president and also discusses conspiracy matters in great detail so as to become dangerous to persons in power. It is for this reason that the entity's speeches and discussions can lead to him being threatened or to entities being fired for letting him speak.

SEEK MORE FREEDOMS TO KEEP PLANNERS OFF-GUARD

(CLOSING MESSAGE):

This Awareness indicates that the more things change, the more they seem to be the same; that many of these topics are different and yet if you strip away the names and faces, the situations are much the same as they were ten or twenty years ago. This Awareness indicates that ambition, power, greed and the conspiring of individuals to accomplish some purpose of their own at the expense of others continues much as it was years ago, but the characters are different.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that this will be much the same ten years from now or twenty years from now. This Awareness suggests that you not be surprised to discover in twenty years that another person of prominence is involved in some kind of activity that would strip more freedoms from individuals, enslave the masses further. This Awareness indicates that you must recognize also there are others working to help keep those freedoms, alert the masses and protect individuals from those forces that would deny them rights and freedoms.

There are always counterbalancing forces in almost every situation that are either developed or developing in such a way as to help remove those threats to one's freedom, but even as these work, those forces that would deny the freedoms are also working, developing and recruiting new entities for their purposes. It is a constant struggle and freedom does not come without vigilance and the watchful eye of each individual to protect the freedoms that are already attained, while seeking even more freedom.

This Awareness indicates that often the best way to protect your freedoms is to ask for further freedoms, and keep those who would deny your freedom busy, trying to take away or trying to deny your further freedoms. In such actions you at least keep the ones you have by keeping them occupied with their effort to avoid keeping from giving you more freedom.

This Awareness suggests that entities not simply sit back and protect defensively the freedoms they have, but that entities should seek further freedoms, and this will help to keep those who deny freedoms off guard.

THE NATURE OF AHRIMAN, LUCIFER, CHRIST AND OTHER ARCHETYPES AND THEIR RELATIONSHIP TO THE GREYS AND REPTOID ALIENS

QUESTION:

Awareness has given this information before, but there's still some confusion in regard to the information given in the past about the Ahriman Force, the Dark Force, the Satanic Force, and I wonder if Awareness will give a brief synopsis of how these various forces It has discussed over the years, tie in with the current Alien Force, the current alien information?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the concept of Ahriman and the concept of Lucifer as well as that of Christ are archetypes. This may be the best way to explain this, just as the concept of an Antichrist is an archetype; it is like the concept of father and mother. There can be the human representative of father or mother, but there is also the archetype of father and mother. This Awareness indicates that the concept of Ahriman is a term generally that was derived from the Persian and revitalized by some of the more recent metaphysicians.

The concept of Lucifer as much the same, and over the years these concepts have somewhat changed in accordance with the descriptions given to them. Lucifer was not an actual entity in a cosmic sense, though there may have been entities who were named by their parents or by some guardian: Lucifer. It was simply a concept, an archetypal concept named Lucifer to reflect or to indicate a reflected light, the light reflected from the absolute Divine Light.

This Awareness indicates that it is much like Isis and Ra of the Egyptian philosophies; that these were not actual pharaohs or rulers that walked the earth, even though there were temples of Isis and there were worshippers of Ra. These were archetypal concepts or deities of an archetypal nature; that in describing these archetypal beings there were certain philosophical attributes to them. Isis was of a certain type of person/personification of the archetypal energy. Ra was a certain personification of an archetypal type of energy and were described as personified. It is much like Mickey Mouse. This may come as a severe shock: there never was a real mouse named Mickey Mouse, as indicated in the cartoons; that this was a creation, a fabrication. It is simply that which became an archetypal mouse with human qualities based upon creative imaginative artificial and humanistic creativity.

It is the same with Ra and Isis, with Ahriman, with Lucifer and with Christ. Does this mean that entities can't name their mouse Mickey? No. Entities can call their mouse Mickey and have a true Mickey Mouse, but it is not the same as the archetypal Mickey Mouse. Likewise, there is the possibility of an entity portraying the Antichrist, and there have been entities who have portrayed or become a reflection or witness of the Christ. That Buddha may be called a Christ. That Krishna was seen as a Christed One. That Jesus was a Christed One.

This Awareness indicates that there have, down through the history and down through the cultures been a great number of God realized Christed entities. It was a title, a title indicating one who had reached a state of spiritual attunement to God, in which the Christed One was One with the Heavenly Father. That likewise, there can be an Antichrist. There can be many who fit themselves into the archetypal mode of the Antichrist, and there can be those who fit themselves into the archetypal mode of the Luciferian, and of the Ahriman.

This Awareness indicates that Ahriman is simply a Persian word that refers to a certain type of archetypal negative being or energy, one that is described as having certain sadistic qualities. There are certain of the Greys that would classify more under the Ahriman classification than under the Luciferian classification. The Luciferians would be more the type of deceptive beings, deceptive in the sense that Lucifer is described as the Father of Lies. It is a reflection of truth rather than truth. It is like the moon. The moon emanates no real light. It emanates only reflected light. The sun emanates the light, and the moon reflects it, but many would say "The moon is giving off gorgeous light," thus, the Luciferian basks in the glory of its light and appears and pretends to be glorious and the term 'Lucifer' and 'light' and 'lumens,' these are terms related to the word 'light,' but this is a false light. It is reflected.

Thus, in the creation of the universe, there was the original creator, the Light, the force that moves forth, and there is that which reacts or reflects that force of movement, and that would be referred to as the reflected light, and it would serve as an archetype for the Lucifer. It is not the Creator. It is the reflector of the Creator, and it is, if it claims to be as great as the Creator, living a lie.

Lucifer then, in regard to spirit/matter relationship would equate to matter. It is a reflection of the spirit. If you equate the spirit as consciousness and material as that which is matter, then the material or earth would equate to the Lucifer energies and the consciousness to the creative energies. It is, in other words, the negative, as opposed to the positive. The positive being the First Cause, the negative being the reaction or the reflection of the First Cause.

This Awareness indicates that in so far as Ahriman is concerned, it has to do with the qualities of good and evil, and Ahriman; rather than speaking of light and darkness, you would speak of good and evil, and equate good to the light force or the good force, the God Force, and Ahriman to the negative force, or 'bad' force, and if you were to put this into terms relating good and evil in terms of human qualities, good would be that which is benevolent to you, and bad would be that which is harmful or malevolent to you, and therefore, the good, or God, as that which helps you and loves and serves you, and the bad Ahriman energies as that which harms and hurts you; therefore, Ahriman has been equated to sadism as opposed to healing and blessing and love and those things which equate to the Christ.

If entities ask: What does the Christ look like? It is possible to draw a picture that would satisfy their personification of the Christ. Likewise, if entities want to know: What does Ahriman look like? You can draw a personification picture to satisfy their desire to personalize Ahriman, but Ahriman can appear within anyone, and the Christ can appear within anyone. It can shine forth anywhere, through anyone who is open to that Christ Force, just as the sadistic Ahriman can shine forth its cruelty through anyone who is open to channeling that cruelty.

Expressing the Ahriman Energies

Thus, when you speak of the Greys as representing this force or that force, it is possible that some of them may shine forth Christ Light. Others may shine forth Ahriman light or Ahriman hostility and darkness, or that sometimes they are cruel like Ahriman and at other times they appear benevolent and Christ-like. Even the same entity can do so, just as can occur with a human. That is the nature of archetypes. They are not the individual. They are the concept of certain qualities, and individuals can portray those qualities and channel those influences.

This Awareness indicates there are of course certain tendencies that occur. During war, the tendencies, even of those who might have 6 months before been sitting in a church, their hearts filled with compassion and love for everyone, now in war on the battlefield, these same entities may be ready to slaughter, to kill to destroy, with no remorse whatsoever, because this is where they have moved in their thinking, in their feeling, in their purpose. That likewise, those who are at one point involved in viciousness in the slaughter and torture of humans, in their jobs as torturer of humans, of children or whatever, may at the end of the war slip away, hide, change identities and surface some time later in another country, hiding their previous identity and become very loving teachers to children, working with them, very gently, very sweet, creating much love and being loved by the children they work with, and appear almost Christ-like. This is possible.

Expressing the Lucifer Energies

This Awareness indicates that therefore, the label of good and evil is very fickle. It can be shifted, it can change. Even on the same person, given different times. One who is quite loving at one time can be murderous at another time. It only takes a moment in one's life to become extremely cruel, to express Ahriman. This Awareness indicates that most entities remain good and loving. Some entities let themselves be influenced by circumstances, situations or negativities in such a way that they attune to the Antichrist, to be negative, to the archetype of Ahriman and express that sadistic archetype energy. Others may express the archetype energy of Lucifer at some point in their life, deceiving others, cheating others, lying, fooling, glorying and basking in one's glory, pretending to be greater than one really is. Even knowing that one is playing games with the minds of others, one may lie, cheat, steal and pretend to be greater than one is in order to make oneself feel more important, to play the god, to play the great one. That is the Lucifer archetype.

This Awareness indicates that there are also those who at another time perhaps, or throughout the entire life perhaps, attune themselves to the archetype of the Christ, give themselves for the benefit of others, serve others, help others, do what they can to serve, to assist, to teach, to share.

This Awareness indicates this is what Ahriman, Lucifer, and Christ represent; that entities can personify these alternately or consistently, choosing one over the other, or entities can carry certain degrees of each within their personalities so that an entity can be somewhat loving, somewhat cruel, somewhat deceitful, somewhat quite truthful; a complex of energies, a complex of archetypes.

Mother Mary and Other Archetypes

The same that can be said for individuals may also be said for groups, classes, races, tribes, nations, cultures, species, thus you have the human species which plays all of these three archetypes, these roles. There are other archetypes also: the Mother Mary, Hecade, Medea... all of these can be archetypes. There can be any number of archetypes. Some are more popularized than others. Usually those that are of the extreme nature such as the Ahriman or Satanic or Luciferian or the Christ or Buddhist or Krishna types...all of these can be played as archetype models for the human psyche to emulate.

The Archetypes of Computers

If you stop and look at the programming used in a computer, you will see that this too follows a similar pattern. The computer emulates a certain archetype programming. It may emulate the Hewlett-Packard printer. It may emulate the IBM computer. It may emulate a software program. There are those who are set up as standards for others to emulate or imitate, and these patterns that are created for these programs as standards, set the standards, and there are many followers established, and sometimes, something new comes along that is totally unique unto itself, and it becomes a new energy that is emulated and imitated. That this is common in computer programming and what is done in the computer programming and in the various hardware systems parallels that same action that has been used in religions and cultures down through the ages to program, to direct, to categorize and to move the masses who are governed by those programs of religion and culture, and the hardware for religion and culture is like the political system and structure of the church or the state, and the software is the morality, the ideology that flows through that hardware and political structure, and in your computer your hardware is your material that you can touch: the chips, the boards, the mechanics, the coverings, all those things that can be touched: the keyboard, the printer; and the software is the information that flows through your hardware.

It is a parallel. They both parallel each other. One serves as a computerized society following the application of religious programming, philosophical programming, moralities, cultural programming; the other follows word-processing programming, numerical programs, data-base spreadsheets, utilities: all of those things associated with your computer hardware and software programming, -- it is very much the same. You have Lotus here, you have Lucifer there, you have Lucid as a spreadsheet in your computer, you have Lucifer as an archetype in your philosophy, your cultural philosophy.

You have D Base here, you have the Double here; you have Word Perfect here, you have Christ here. Not that these have any connection whatsoever to do with each other, but as it is above, so it is below. As it is in your programming of your society and structure of your cultures, so it is in a slightly different way in your computer technologies. They are called 'Application Programs' in your computer technology. They are called religions, philosophies, in your cultural programming and technologies or systems.

This Awareness indicates that the species that use the computers may vary. You may have the human species using computers. You may have alien species using computers. You may have humans having different languages and the computers have to be arranged to accommodate these different languages, thus, you may have computers that read and write Chinese or English or Russian, or they may have a different computer program language. Over here you have Buddhism, Christianity, Confucious Hindu, Mormon, Indian and hundreds of other religious and philosophical ideologies. Who is to say which is right, ultimately right?

Who is to say that Pascal computer language is ultimately better than Basic?, or that Hindu philosophy is ultimately better than the Sufi philosophy, or that the Mormons are better than the Jehovah's Witnesses or Baptists? Who is to say? In religion, each one is much more fanatic and sure; in the computer, you can have entities who study both Pascal and Basic and many others: Cobol or other computer systems without a guilty conscience, or by being threatened by eternal damnation.

This Awareness indicates that archetypes are types from which energy arcs. They are not necessarily sacred. They are there to serve, to be useful, to help entities gain greater understanding, to be used as role models for entities who want their use, or who want to understand a concept more clearly. This Awareness indicates that this may clarify sufficiently the nature of Ahriman, Lucifer, Christ and other archetypes so that entities need not wrestle with these concepts in the dark.

THE ALIEN FORCE, THE "DARK FORCE" EMANATE FROM THE ALIEN PRESENCE

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Then the information Awareness has given over the last 10 years or so in relation to these various forces that were creating mischief; is it safe to say then that those references to the Dark Force, and to the Alien Force, for example, are actually the forces emanating from the alien presence utilizing the Ahriman Force?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative, that the Dero are particularly excellent models of the Ahriman Force; that they enjoy the torturing of humans; that the Greys of the Reticuli do not particularly enjoy the torturing. They simply can't feel any emotion and do it in the same way that a scientist might experiment with rats and mice in order to discover some solution to a problem without caring about the suffering that was being inflicted in the process.

WHY ARE THE GREY ALIENS SUBSERVIENT TO THE REPTILIANS? IS IT THEIR HIGH IQ?

QUESTION:

It's been indicated that the IQ of the Greys is somewhere like 200, but yet the Greys are subservient to the Reptilians. Are they subservient to the Reptilians because the Reptilians have a higher IQ than them, or what is the reason for this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Reptilians have a psychic power that overwhelms the Greys. They have an energy that emanates from their consciousness that controls the psyche of the Greys. They have a power much akin to that which has been reported, wherein serpents charm birds or chickens, moving closer, hypnotizing them until they get close enough to catch them and eat them. The serpent, the snake for example, which has this ability though many scientists say there is no such ability, generally do this in part through the slow moving hypnotic weaving back and forth and the steady and constant stare of the eyes.

The Reptilians do it with a very powerful kundalini energy that emanates from the third eye. This Awareness indicates that it is the same as the Ki energy or Chi energy that entities in oriental martial arts attempt to develop in order to have greater than normal power in their movements and in their psyche. That humans have this to some degree; that the Greys have this to a lesser degree, but do have a different kind of psychic power that is stronger than humans, and their particular psychic power as that which sucks the astral or psychic power out of humans, particularly when they are staring in the eyes of humans.

Aliens Can Not Understand the Human Individuality

The Reptoids have this power to an even greater degree. This Awareness indicates the Reptoids have emotional power. The humans have emotional power coupled with a degree of intelligence that can be increased quickly. The humans are capable of learning faster than the Greys or the Reptilians, but the Reptilians and Greys have been exposed to higher technology for much longer than humans and the Reptilians therefore are advanced, and the Greys are advanced over the humans in terms of technology, but the humans also have individuality that is a mystery to the Greys. They cannot understand the individuality because they tend to think almost entirely as a unit. They operate totally in conjunction with group programming whereas humans can be individual and can be quite individually rebellious, and unpredictable.

This mystifies them. They cannot understand this quality. It is as though humans think for themselves, whereas Greys follow the program, and the Reptilians are much the same. Though the Reptilians tend to set the program for the Greys, they too operate from a mutual programming based not so much on leadership among them as on a subconscious type programming that humans might call instinct. It has been in motion for countless years. They move according to an ancient programming for their race as though they cannot stop, as though they have no choice but to obey the instincts that are directing them. It is as though this were in their very genes as a group, to act in unison, to carry out the program which they are following, and when they conquer another group, such as the Greys, they force the Greys to follow that program also, and they will attempt the same with humans.

DO SOME GREYS OPERATE OUTSIDE THE GROUP MIND?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Surely, in their construction of their various devices, their ray guns, their space ships, the research done in these various levels; it seems to me this couldn't be done without individual Greys doing certain things out of the group mind. How is this accomplished?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that they have the ability to carry out a purpose, and each has certain skills that have been developed or can be developed to carry out that purpose, but the tendency is for them to work as a team unit, just as if they were programmed by some force to act in a certain way and never question authority. It is as though they were hypnotized robots being told what to do, having their own individual jobs or being able to figure out how to implement the job necessary, but not being able to deviate from the orders given to them.

They may be able to improvise somewhat in order to carry out the directive but they have much difficulty in breaking away from the directive. This Awareness indicates the humans tend to cultivate a degree of rebellion in order to experience a feeling of freedom, and this is that which has fascinated the Greys since their arrival and intermixing with humans, and it is something that is having a slight effect on the programming of the Greys, especially those of the Orange group, to help break their programming. It tends to make them like humans. They have begun to enjoy the idea of being somewhat unpredictable and rebellious themselves. It may be a quality that can help to free them from the domination of the Reptilians.

This Awareness suggests that those who are in touch with these entities should help to cultivate this fascination in them even more so, helping to create a greater sense of individuality among the Greys, if possible.

ALIENS USED TO COME IN METEOR SHOWERS

—NOW THEY MAINLY COME IN SPACESHIPS

QUESTION:

In the past readings some years back, Awareness referred to aliens coming to this planet via meteor showers at certain times of the year in order to escape being seen by the Galactic Federation. Information lately tends to indicate that these entities are coming in from space ships in larger quantity now and that the Space Confederation is no longer doing anything to prevent them from coming. Is that true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is so. The greater number as first moving to Mars, then to the moon, and from the moon, at the time of the full moon, to earth. That essentially the Space Confederation as having a kind of hands-off policy because they have not been invited to interfere. They do not interfere when not invited or requested, and also because they do not now have sufficient power alone to do anything anyway. This action of the Greys as that which has multiplied greatly.

This Awareness indicates that it is as though humans have made their bed and now must lie in it with their alien friends, even though they suddenly discover that their alien

14. friends are not as warm and cuddly as they may have liked or may have perceived them to be. That this does not imply that all is lost, that there can be no outside help in the future. It is simply that at present, the Galactic Command is all talk and no action, and the aliens who have arrived on earth have talked in one way, and their actions indicate something totally different and they are increasing in numbers.

This Awareness indicates that it may be necessary to work out an arrangement like that of a bad marriage, whereby entities learn to get along with a spouse that is anything but that which one has dreamed of. However, things can change. There is still some potential that aliens can learn from humans, for humans also have qualities different from that of the aliens; as the one entity says: "They need humans. Humans don't need them!"

HOW LONG HAVE REPTOIDS SUBJUGATED THE GREYS?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION): (Vikki):

So if the Greys have been the servants of the Reptoids since they were put into servitude, has this been for a long period of time, and under what circumstances did this arise?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

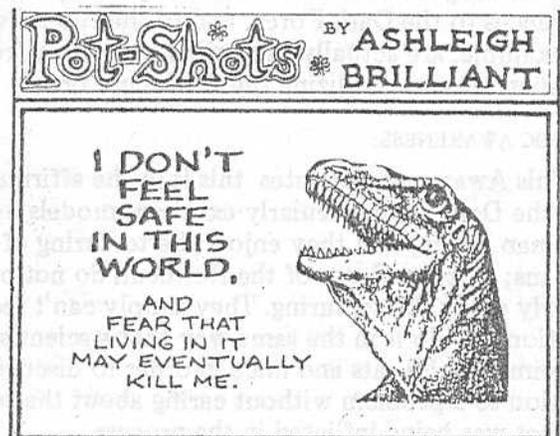

This Awareness indicates that it appears this has been an ongoing thing for approximately 50,000 years; that it also occurred off and on prior to that, wherein there have been other wars before and after, between the Orion and Draco constellation beings. That it appears there have been a number of clashes throughout the galaxy at various times in history. This as far too complex to tap into all of this history at this time.

QUESTION:

A rather strange question from J.D. of Cleveland. He writes: "A Frenchman named Rael was given radio airtime on a Christian talk-show hosted by your typical TV evangelist, a man named Bob Larson. Rael claimed he was half-human, half-alien, and also the brother of Jesus who is on his way here to set up an embassy near Jerusalem. He stated that when Jesus was placed in the tomb, certain beings took a cell from his body and recreated him from this. If any of this is true, would Awareness please elaborate."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a fabrication. It appears that this is simply an entity with a good imagination and a good hustle for getting attention and money from others.

THE ZETA RITICULI AND THE REPTILIANS --SOME PAST HISTORY AND TRIVIA

QUESTION:

A question from R.C., Snelling California. "Would you ask Cosmic Awareness to discuss the aliens', Greys' and so forth and Reptilians' social order, social structure, political and ideological systems and their concept of self and their psychological sciences? What is their basic core concepts found in their culture? Perhaps an evolutionary rundown of the historical part of their culture? Perhaps a discussion of the governmental systems they had set up on conquered planets might also be in order? What are the aliens' weaknesses? Can they be killed, and if so, how? What language do they speak, and what is this linguistic relationship to their culture and world views, should be explored?"

There's a lot of questions in there and Awareness has covered some of these.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the Zeta Riticuli in their ancient past were originally very much like humans until they, in their social development reached a stage in which through war-like activities, they experienced great radiations from nuclear-type weapons and planetary or environmental injuries to the planet so that they began to become mutants because of the radiation. At this time, the Draconian Reptoids offered their assistance to the Zeta Riticuli to help them overcome the effects of the heavy radiation which was destroying them, which caused them to lose their ability to reproduce, and caused great deformity in their appearance.

The Zeta Riticuli accepted the assistance from the Draconian Reptoids and the Draconian Reptoids, through their genetic engineers began work on helping to create a new form for the Zeta Riticuli through genetic engineering. The present form gradually evolved from this. It is created in part approximately 80% from insect genes and 20% from Reptilian genes, being added to the previous Zeta Riticuli genes. In other words, the Zeta Riticuli retained some of their own genetics, and some new genes, 80% of which were insect and 20% of which were Reptoid.

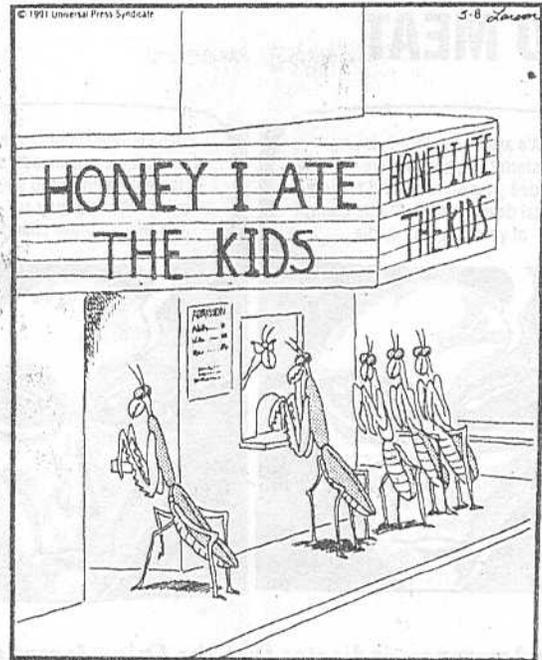

This Awareness indicates that for this favor from the Reptoids, the Zeta Riticuli were altered to a new race, which could continue to survive, but not without cost, for they were then indebted to the Reptoids and essentially became servants to them, used particularly as mercenaries to do much of their work in conquering other planets. This was not foreign to them, because they already were warlike, and it was not something that they particularly disliked doing.

There were some who were less warlike and who preferred to act politically than to act in warlike manners, and these entities find the violence as distasteful to them.

Mothmen (Winged Creatures of Draco) Rule Reptoids

In terms of the Reptoids, they were generally ruled by those which have been termed as the Mothmen or Batmen. These were the winged creatures of Draco. These entities having strong control over the Reptoid types, the Reptoids being very large in stature and very strong in comparison to humans.

F A R S I D E

The general Reptoids have a mental strength that uses psychic and telepathic powers. They are capable of hypnotizing humans with their minds without even speaking verbally in the process. This Awareness indicates that the Reptilians are obedient to their leaders and commanders in a kind of hierarchy fashion, but they also have some degree of individuality as opposed to that of the Zeta Riticuli who see themselves as a group, much like the hive mind of insects, who operate as colonies or hives or cultures working together.

The Zeta Riticuli, for example, if captured, does not use an individual name. If asked who he is, the entity would reply with the number or name of his group or base from which he originates. Since they are born in large groups through genetic engineering tanks and artificial bags or wombs, they never have the experience of being individual in the manner of a human child, and they have a kind of telepathic communication much like that which is characteristic of identical twins being born at the same time, but more evolved than this.

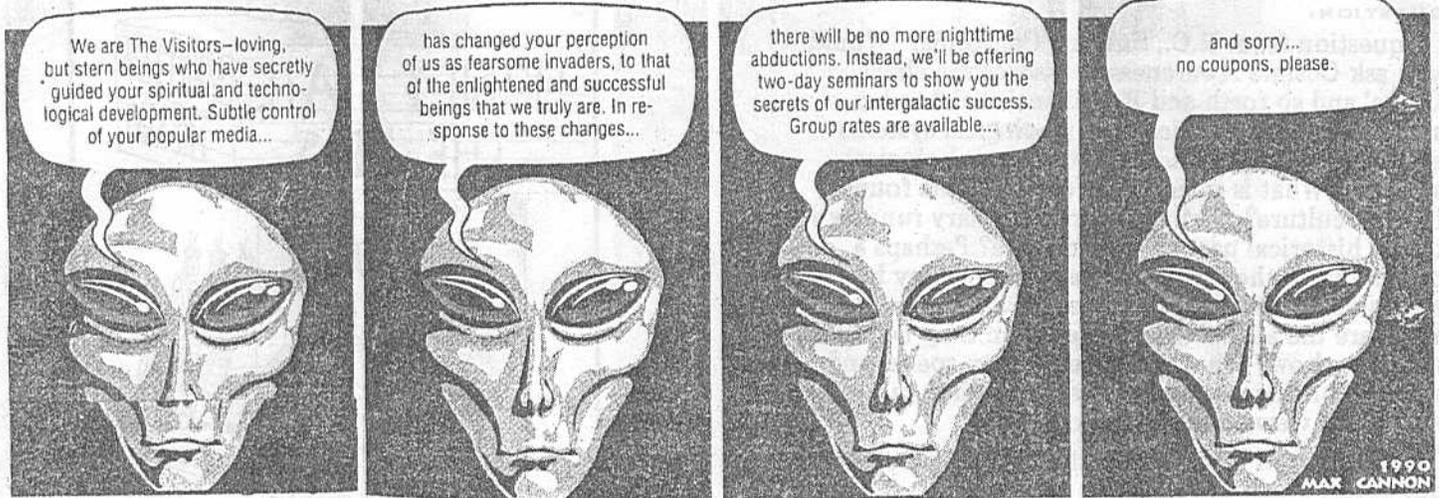

This Awareness indicates that in this sense they communicate not so much with any particular language, for they can use various languages according to the communication with the brain with whom they are in contact. They simply attune their frequency, the frequency of their own brain to that of the one they wish to contact and then broadcast their intention, and the intention is interpreted by the contactee's brain into his or her own language.

The Large-Nosed Greys Have Real Control

This Awareness indicates that the other group, those associated with the large-nosed tall Greys which come from Orion, these are the entities who tend to have the real control, even over the Draco forces; this is through the Orion empire and its control which is based mostly on political control throughout much of the galaxy; that these entities can express themselves in a more calm and civil manner, much the way diplomats on your plane express themselves, even though they have control and power and ability to launch wars or to destroy others, if they are so instructed.

RED MEAT

by Max Cannon

This Awareness indicates that the Orion forces generally have control of that which is the seat of power in governments of various planets, by controlling the money system, which they generally initiate and set up as part of the agenda for control. The money system often being based on commodities and valuables for exchange on a planet, will be usurped by the Orion structure that is placed upon the planet, and enforced by the Reptoids or Zeta Reticuli or others native to the planet.

This Awareness indicates that this is sufficient at this time; that there is sufficient energy for this information, but to go further would be reaching and attempting to extract from energy that is not strong, and would result in potential for greater error than to wait for more information at another time.

IS THE PICTURE ON COVER OF BOOK: "PRISM OF LYRA" AN ACCURATE DEPICTION OF GREYS?

(Looking Behind those Big Wide Eyes)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

The illustration of a Zeta Reticuli on the cover of the book Prism of Lyra by Lyssa Royal, is this an accurate rendering of what those entities looked like at a much earlier time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears relatively accurate. It must be understood that the large black eyes which make these entities seem to appear somewhat adorable to many, are in fact artificial coverings much like goggles worn by pilots during the early days of aviation, except that these, when opened, can reveal eyes behind these glass-like lids; that the eyes behind these large oval eyes are those that appear more like Reptilian eyes, or cat-like eyes. The dark covering of the lens over the eye is designed in part to shield them from excessive light and also to hide their true appearance.

This Awareness indicates that this lens which covers their two eyes is seldom opened, but can be opened; is occasionally opened such as when they are sleeping.

It is a protective lens that is created through the genetic engineering serving as a kind of mask, but it gives the appearance that is commonly associated with these Zeta Reticuli Greys. It also tends to create an aura of mystery, when entities find themselves being looked at by such large eyes.

This Awareness indicates the psychological effect large eyes have upon an entity who looks at them tends to cause an entity to feel that the large eyed entity is very open and receptive, because for humans, entities who are open and receptive often have a kind of wide-eyed appearance and this gives an entity a feeling of being welcomed and accepted. In the case of the Greys, it creates a false illusion or impression that they are wide-eyed, innocent, open and receptive to humans, when in fact they may very well be in control of the human, as though the human were their own prey.
