COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speak again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. WHERE THINGS STAND AT THE MOMENT: AN UPDATE ON THE ALIENS AND THE NEW WORLD ORDER

CAC General Reading, October, 19, 1991

One Million Greys Nuked in Nevada

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness wishes at this time to give some tidbit information that updates some of the current events in regard to UFOs and related matters. This Awareness indicates that there has been a recent rumor regarding late August nuclear tests in the area of Tonopah, Nevada; that these so-called nuclear tests are alleged by this rumor to be the actual bombing of underground bases of the Greys, the alien bases, in which approximately a million of these entities were destroyed. It appears this rumor is accurate.

This Awareness indicates it appears the Greys were reproducing themselves through cloning too quickly and had become a national security threat; that this appears to be an indication that there is indeed a backlash and conflict between the government and the Greys in regard to the agreement which had been broken by these entities, the alien Greys.

This Awareness indicates that there is also seen a government concern regarding the release of UFO information; there being approximately 25 thousand people in the United States who are giving out UFO information to approximately 250 million citizens; that the effort appears to be to find a way to curtail this information, except that which is approved by the government version.

The Assassination of William Cooper

This Awareness indicates that the entity William Cooper is one who especially is being focused on because the entity is quite outspoken and quite prolific in his release of information. It appears the attempt will be to use the entity's own psychological profile to self-destruct his own credibility. The entity, having certain amount of paranoia and having certain contacts in which he is presently being given misinformation designed to eventually lead the entity to destroy his credibility, and in so doing, bring down the credibility of all others who follow his line of reasoning or who see the aliens as a negative force and who see the information this entity gives as being valid.

This Awareness indicates the intent is to bring down all who consider this entity credible by making the entity to appear incredible; that this is a new kind of character assassination in which you do not actually assassinate the entity or the character of the entity, but you assassinate the reasoning and conclusions of the entity. It is a much milder way of destroying the message the entity might carry.

This Awareness indicates that you may expect this kind of destruction to become more common in the future wherein the message of the entity is made incredible and thus, the entity's credibility then suffers. This Awareness reminds you of the entity Pat Robertson prior to the previous Presidential elections in which this entity spoke of a build-up of arms in Cuba and Russian troops in the area; that the entity claimed this his sources had evidence of this. This Awareness indicates that his sources were actually misinformation agents giving him false information in order to destroy his credibility.

This Awareness indicates that the entity fell for this and indeed, his credibility was destroyed when further information was released to show the entity was totally in error.

Pat Robertson and the New World Order

This Awareness indicates that speaking of Pat Robinson, the entity now is strongly focused on the New World Order and in his television broadcasts, frequently, while praising President Bush on the one hand, he is very detracting of the New World Order, and those who promote it. It is almost as though he appears ignorant of the fact that President Bush is the main spokesman for the New World Order.

This Awareness indicates that the entity is playing a balancing act, trying to praise the President for his activities in the Gulf War, while at the same time attempting to warn entities regarding the New World Order as he sees this to be. The entity has, in fact, written a book titled The New World Order which goes into great detail of this New World Order,—who is promoting it, the history of its concepts and the probable outcome and means of bringing it to fruition. This Awareness indicates that this book appears to be very precise and clear and accurate in regard to the New World Order. This Awareness suggests that entities who have a curiosity about this should find it most informative in this regard, particularly since there is very little other information about the New World Order and what it is; the entity has written objectively in this regard, with extreme details from very much indepth research by himself and others who have contributed to him.

New World Order Sneaking in Like a Thief in the Night

It appears that much of the contribution came from inside sources who knew what they were speaking of. This Awareness indicates that It wishes at this time to inform entities that this so-called New World Order is likely to come about in a manner that is unobtrusive and without a great clarity or understanding as to what it is, in such a manner that it is upon you before you realize it's there, so that there is very little disturbance to society.

When the society realizes that the sovereign nation is no longer sovereign but is subservient to the United Nations and that the United Nations is the center for the New World Order and that national laws are subject to united national laws and the laws of the New World Order, it will be too late.

This Awareness indicates that for the first decades of this New World Order being in place, it is not likely that entities will feel the yoke of oppression that is possible under the new laws, but as time progresses, the new laws of the New World Order, being put in place, will be activated slowly and tightened slowly, until the future generations discover themselves under laws that may have total disregard for the rights that entities presently enjoy, especially those in the United States under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

This Awareness indicates that before any of this takes place, the handguns and rifles will be confiscated from the public and the people, being disarmed, will have no recourse but to surrender to whatever tyranny raises to replace the democracies that entities presently enjoy. This Awareness indicates that it is possible to have the framework of democracy without actually having the freedom that accompanies true democracy. Even the Soviet Union in its past history pretended to be democratic by allowing the people to vote, and rule, while in fact the votes were limited by the party and often by only one candidate to vote for.

This Awareness indicates that democracy as a term is not necessarily freedom, or you could say that there is a false democracy and there is true democracy and only true democracy which is accompanied by freedoms and rights is to be considered valuable to the masses. This Awareness indicates that entities who wish to explore this New World Order should find the book of Pat Robertson quite revealing. It is approximately $17 and something per book from most bookstores. B. Dalton carries this. By the time this message is printed and released, Cosmic Awareness Communications may also have copies available at this price or perhaps a better price.*

³ * ED's Note: Not yet. As a rule, CAC does not plug or stock a book until the staff or editor has read a copy first. To date we have not obtained a copy for this purpose. Also, Pat Robertson's credibility around here is practically zilch, because he is a dedicated fanatic fundamentalist Christian who cannot think for himself, believes every word in the Bible is true, and is totally hung up on the 'Book of Revelation' and its prophecies. (Unless he has some good writers or new sources, it is hard to believe his new book has the credibility and worthiness Awareness appears to indicate it has. If any of you happen to read it, drop me a line with your evaluation. Thanks.)

New World Order is Also an Economic Machine

This Awareness indicates that the New World Order is that which is more than a political machine; it is also an economic machine which is capable of determining the lifestyle of your children and your children's children, and once it is in place, whatever form it is capable of providing may be difficult to alter; that already it is more or less in effect but is not fully implemented. It is like having a power system in a building that still needs the switch thrown, though most of the wiring has been placed and is in some cases operational, and in some cases in operation.

Once the switch is thrown, many of the mechanisms of the New World Order may be seen to have long been in place and the bureaucracy of the New World Order will then be able to deal with society as it chooses, as its leaders choose. This Awareness indicates the likelihood is that there will be a leveling out of income and lifestyles in which the middle class and upper middle class will be reduced to a common lower class, and the ultra wealthy who are in charge of the New World Order.

This may not take place immediately, but gradually, moving in that direction by manipulation of the economies of nations. This Awareness indicates that the tightening of medical controls, controls on business, controls on individuals, controls that prevent entities from being able to sue or claim rights and privileges that have been available for entities as recourses for needs and broken promises or violations, are gradually being eroded. Individuals who can no longer get the support needed to confront the amalgamations of powerful organizations and government agencies, are finding it more and more difficult to claim their rights.

It is even questionable whether some of the guaranteed rights are worth trying to enforce or trying to claim because the cost is prohibitive and can destroy an entity's entire financial base in the pursuit of a right. This Awareness indicates that this is becoming more and more common in your society and will become even more pronounced as time passes. There may come the time when you can not even discuss health matters with each other or possible alleviation of health problems without being arrested, if overheard, for practicing medicine without a license.

This is already the case in some states, such as Ohio; that it is being promoted in other states, and in some of these states, may also be passed through laws whereby entities lose the right to even suggest to a person that they go home, take a glass of water and go to bed, for this could be construed as practicing medicine without a license.

This Awareness indicates that this is but one area whereby the conglomerate of the medical profession is gaining absolute control over the masses. There are many other areas in which powerful groups are seeking to control the masses, and these will increase as part of the New World Order, whereby these entities give these groups their support in controlling society on all levels. That this includes insurance levels, tax and work, occupations in the corporate levels, educational controls can be easily tightened, etcetera, etcetera, etcetera.

This Awareness indicates that entities need to be aware that these attempts at whittling and chewing away at the rights that entities have enjoyed under the Constitution are gradually eroding even as the Constitution of the United States is being eroded. You must understand that your nation IS the Constitution. Without it, the nation becomes something totally different.

Pyramid of Giza Party to Celebrate New World Order

This Awareness indicates that there appears to be a great likelihood that the Constitution will be set aside before this decade concludes. There is already planned a New Year's Eve party on December 31st, 1999, at the pyramid of Giza, to celebrate the New World Order, to finalize its presence and arrival on this plane; that dignitaries from all over the world have received invitations to this party; that this may be seen as an official beginning of the New World Order, but before this occurs, there will be more of its structure implemented and superimposed over your society.

This Awareness indicates that this New World Order is one of the reasons Margaret Thatcher resigned when she did; that this entity did not wish to see the sovereignty of Britain, or England being surrendered to this New World Order. She did not want to be part of it.

This Awareness indicates that entities must be somewhat careful in regard to protesting or speaking out about the New World Order, for those who plan this also have provisions to prevent opposition to the New World Order, even to the point of eradicating the opposition. Therefore, those who are too vocal may become victims of the powers promoting the New World Order and this must be looked at with great discernment. There is only the time between the present and the end of the decade for entities to prevent this New World Order from coming into being, yet such an effort is also seen as a dangerous period for those who would seek to prevent it.

This Awareness indicates that It does not advise entities to seek to prevent this from happening but to communicate, to ask questions, to learn about it, to share what they learn so that entities can begin to grasp what the New World Order means and decide for themselves how they feel about it. Also, that they seek to modify any major changes that are being planned to help assure human rights are preserved in any transition toward this so-called New World Order.

The Nazi Origin of Bush's 'Skull & Bones' Society

This Awareness reminds you that one of the first entities to strongly promote the idea of a New World Order in the 1930s was the entity Adolf Hitler, who declared that it was time to start and create a New World Order. This entity spoke of this many times. This Awareness indicates that entities should also realize that the Skull and Bones organization, the secret society that George Bush is alleged to have been a member of at Yale University was an American extension of the Skull and Bones Society that was formed in Nazi Germany.

This Awareness indicates that this may have some bearing on or influence on the strong feelings of promoting this New World Order, for it appears that this is on the agenda of the Skull and Bones Society. This Awareness indicates that this is also another reason for the great concern that many of the Israeli and Jewish people have in regard to the recent behavior of George Bush, fearing that this entity is not truly impartial toward their causes and needs.

This Awareness is not stating that the entity George Bush is Neo-Nazi, It is simply suggesting that there is a skeleton in the closet of the President that many have seen and are concerned about. The entity's father helped to finance Hitler; that this was part of the historical background and the entity himself as being head of MJ-12, has his connection with the alien agenda, and the alien contact of Adolf Hitler and the present agenda of the aliens to create a One World Government that will allow the world or earth to become a part of a Galactic Federation under the Orion and Draco controls as that which must be looked at if entities are to be aware of current affairs in the more broad view of things.

You will recall that Adolf Hitler made a statement: "I have seen the superman, and his eyes were terrible, and I was frightened!" The entity was referring to aliens or extraterrestrial beings on this planet whom he had met.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Were those Reptoids?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears this was of the Reptoid or Draco type.

"BEING PREPARED" SEMINARS —WILL THESE BE STOPPED ? (The Silent Scream at Being Set Up)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

We recently attended a seminar on "Being Prepared", for getting ready for the times ahead, how one can preserve his life, liberty and assets and so on, by a bunch of entities who are going around the country discussing these things. This included Colonel Bo Gritz, who's supposed to be the most decorated soldier in Vietnam and who is now speaking out against the government, its dope connections and so on. Also Lindsey Williams was there, who talks about what's happening to the farmers, and that there's only a 58 day supply of grain in the entire world at any time which can be used to control people. William Cooper was there as well as some famous financial newsletter writers like Donald McAlvany, plus representatives of various patriot groups etc. This group is going across the country now attracting lots of people. All lectured, hawked books and tapes and videos etc. My question is: With the information given just now about the government clamping down on people talking against the New World Order, and all of these entities were, in their lectures, talking against the New World Order from their own particular frame of reference; I was wondering, what's going to happen to groups like this? Are they going to be stopped or will the government try to put out disinformation to ridicule these people too?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the information is being spread quite rapidly, which is a concern to those who do not want this information out; that there are of course many in government who have a legitimate wish to see the information released and are concerned about the way things are progressing, and it appears that there are so many people becoming aware from this kind of grass-roots movement that it may indeed become impossible to prevent the information from spreading.

It is likened unto the UFO information itself, wherein the government has always denied the existence and yet half the people in the United States now believe in UFOs, even though the government has never admitted their existence and continues to deny their existence. It is as though the people cease to believe the government and the government loses credibility by denying the existence of UFOs.

This Awareness indicates that it is a case where the denial gradually becomes associated with falsehood and likewise. As more and more entities become aware of details, information from speakers who have the nerve to stand up and speak out, it becomes more and more impossible to stop the movement and these entities then become likened unto the heroes of the age, whereby in the future, people look back at these entities as the ones who showed the courage to speak out and stop the movement toward enslavement.

This Awareness indicates that it becomes a kind of gradually growing mass-movement that gets momentum as it progresses, and even while there is the belief and effort that by letting entities speak their words and giving them misinformation to destroy their credibility, that it does not always work out that way. The release of misinformation in the UFO field has been designed to make UFO investigations and claims appear incredible, and yet it has almost worked in reverse, creating a greater fascination and more curiosity as to what is really going on, so it appears that this may in fact not work to the advantage that many hope will come from providing misinformation to these entities.

In fact, many of these entities may determine who are the informants that provide misinformation and may find themselves simply shunning their information in the future and searching for truth along other lines and directions. This Awareness indicates the UFO field is full of entities who have been planted to give disinformation, and yet the truth gradually surfaces in spite of the disinformation that seeks to accompany these truths.

This Awareness indicates that the seminars are there; much information is given. Entities come away with a sense of something significant as occurring in the near future. They don't recall all the details that were given out, nor do they necessarily recall the disinformation that was given, but they know that something is amiss and that they are being set up and it doesn't matter to them if some of the information they were given is false or true. They know that they are being set up for a blow to their lifestyle and to their values by what is coming.

Therefore, these seminars, even if there is a sprinkling of misinformation, have an effect of waking up entities and causing them to be concerned about their freedoms. This Awareness indicates between these seminars and the work of Pat Robertson and people who have the courage to speak out...this Awareness indicates that It does not actually see if Pat Robertson is courageous or simply naive enough to speak out, but the effect is the same. He is not afraid to speak out, and therefore, the message is being given to the masses.

In the seminars and the information being released by the Pat Robertson television broadcasts, the masses are getting a message: "Be wary of the New World Order," and this may have a profound effect. It will need to wait until enough of the masses have been alerted before entities can see any meaningful effect from this, if it is to come at all, but it is indeed a beginning, and if it continues, as it appears it will, this beginning can grow into quite a voice. It is likened unto the silent scream that grows into an audible scream.

This Awareness indicates that entities may wish to prepare for the right timing to add their voice to the ever-growing voices of this scream.

This Awareness indicates that while the approach seems to be, by those who would promote the New World Order, to speak of it in glowing terms of general nature, leaving out any details as to what it actually is, the effect may be less of a benefit, for if they do not describe what the New World Order is, someone else may describe it to the masses, much as the Pat Robertson book and others, and these others may not describe it in such glowing terms, and the details that come forth may be quite disturbing to those who read it, even to those who promote it, and if the entities can get a clear and legal definition of the New World Order in its detailed sense, they are going to believe the descriptions that are presented by others, such as Pat Robertson, and not care for the New World Order, and not support the concept of a New World Order, or any entities who would promote it.

This Awareness indicates that each entity who reads the book of Pat Robertson is likely to become an entity who would vote against George Bush for President in the next election. Such entities also are likely to become more aware of the reasons for the Gulf War and other events that occur; the activity behind occurrences in Russia, so that they are not simply fans or audiences observing without understanding the changes that occur in the world events.

This Awareness indicates that for example, the entity asks certain questions about the coup in Russia, whether it was really a sincere coup, or whether it was staged, and if it was staged, was the staging simply part of a larger scheme for manipulating the masses? This Awareness indicates the entity asks the question: Why weren't the phone lines cut, when the coup occurred? Why weren't the international communications system, including television, cut, so that the coup could take place without the world watching and forming opinions? Why weren't certain key leaders arrested immediately?

This Awareness indicates that these are the ways that a normal coup would consolidate its power more quickly, and the entity also asks: Why was the coup performed by entities that had originally put Gorbachev in power, and promoted him, and entities whom Gorbachev had helped to lift in their positions of power? Why wasn't the coup prompted by younger men as are most coups?

This Awareness indicates that there does appear to be some potential in this for the conclusions made by this entity that this coup was staged. This Awareness has indicated that this was a Skoptsis effort to draw out Bolsheviks and to get them to expose themselves; that this is a scenario which was not available or understood by Pat Robertson, and therefore, not something that would be of logical consideration to him.

This Awareness indicates that there are areas in the book which present alternative views to those given by this Awareness, but which nevertheless are worth considering, are worth reading. This entity implies by these questions that the whole coup thing was simply an effort by the Russians to impress on the West that they were now democratic and therefore deserving of funds and monies from the West, and that this money coming from the West may actually, in future times, be used to help arm the Soviet Union further against the West, and that as George Bush shortly thereafter unilaterally announced further reduction in arms, it served as a way of letting the Soviets become the stronger of the two nations.

This Awareness indicates that this is indeed one possibility, one scenario of what may be occurring; that there are many who do not trust Gorbachev and the Russians at this time, and feel that George Bush may be playing into their hands, deliberately disarming the United States in order that the Soviet Union could be used to put down any powers in the United States that might object to the

One World Order if such occurred, or if there was a revolution in the United States due to the opposition to a One World Order.

International Bankers Invading Russia

This Awareness indicates that these are things to consider. There is not seen any real evidence or energy to lock this in as a reality, but it is a potential. This Awareness indicates that there is also seen the Western banking system moving into Russia, taking over much of its economic control by offering loans in exchange for gold and other valuable commodities available from Russia; that the Russians themselves do not really need the International Monetary Fund or banking system to help them. All they really need is to offer some kind of script on the gold and resources that they have available in their country for sale to the West, but by bringing in the International Monetary Fund and Western banking, they are allowing themselves to be controlled by these institutions and the individuals behind them.

Thus, the Russian people may in fact be subverting themselves or allowing themselves to be subjected to the rule of the Western banking powers. It all depends on whether these things transpire in one way or in another, but it does appear that Russia is subjugating itself to the international bankers. This will become clear in the next few months or year.

BUSH'S NEW WORLD ORDER AND THE RUSSIAN "THREAT"

QUESTION:

The William Cooper Foundation puts out a newsletter called Citizen's Agency for Joint Intelligence and in the October, 1991, issue he writes: "In an astounding announcement, George Bush ordered the stand-down of all U.S. alert forces, and proposed a disarmament of all short-range and tactical atomic weapons, including those deployed on ships and with artillery units. The move will be unilateral, regardless of Soviet participation.

"The press reflected the same approval that was manifested during the Iraq war. No dissenting opinions were to be found in the newspapers or on network television. Needless to say, those Soviet generals interviewed just after Bush's speech were ecstatic. I have long warned of an eventual disarmament of the American people and a merger between the U.S. and Russia. Those who think that all danger has passed had better think again, and then again.

"The goal of the Illuminati of which George Bush is a member, is to facilitate a totalitarian socialist New World Order. This is just another giant step along that road. Someday, in the near future, we will be presented with the choice of merging with Russia, or of being destroyed. Since we will be so weak at that moment the choice will be to merge. Mother Russia, despite all problems, is still the strongest military power on earth. Russia was created for this purpose. Wake up!" he says.

Is that information about Russia basically true, that Cooper says here?

CAJIC/O William Cooper, PO Box 3299, Camp Verde, AZ 86322

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a strong scenario among several other potential scenarios; that if you will recall, back in the 70's in the Dr. Beter tapes, he spoke of certain efforts by individuals to disarm the United States at that time, this during the period of detente and that there were efforts to bring nuclear weapons as atomic land mines into the waterways of the United States and along the shorelines, especially where there

6. were large cities that would serve as a kind of coercive blackmail to cause the United States to be forced to surrender in order to implement the plans of the Rockefellers to set up the New States Constitution.

The New States Constitution being essentially a totalitarian socialist system; that this was derailed by the entity General Brown, who discovered these plans and began pinpointing and locating the atomic landmines in various areas and this plan was then held in check or later abandoned. This Awareness indicates that essentially, the statement of Cooper is an updated version of a similar, or of the same scenario, but for more modern times, for the current times, considering the political and economic and military scenario of the moment.

It is still viable as a plan, and could be implemented in this decade if entities allow it to occur. This Awareness indicates the Russians do not actually want to have war with the United States. They would simply be working in conjunction with certain leaders of the United States to implement the charade or program that would force the people of the United States into the One World Government.

ANY SKOPTSIS IN THE U.S. GOVERNMENT?

QUESTION:

Awareness has indicated the Skoptsis are still at work in Russia, regarding the recent coup, and at one time It and Dr. Beter stated that there were Skoptsis here in the United States in our own government, eliminating people that were causing trouble. Can Awareness tell us if there are still any Skoptsis at work in the government here in the United States behind the scenes?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that to a small degree there is still some influence from these entities, but this is not seen as being a strong force as when mentioned by Dr. Beter. It is not seen as being significant in the affairs of this country. Not at this time.

SEEING DOUBLES? THE ALIEN-SYNTHETIC CONNECTION

QUESTION:

A number of our members write that they are seeing what appears to be doubles of many types of people, particularly in the government and in the media, and I was wondering if these are legitimate doubles, as Presidents for example, often have, or is there something else that is creating more permanent doubles?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that you may recall that Dr. Beter spoke of corporations, in many of the major corporations the heads of the corporations being duplicated and substituted with the synthetics, taking the place of the individual in charge. He could not understand why this was occurring while these entities were allowing the robotoid substitutes to take control of the White House; this back during the Carter Administration. This Awareness wishes entities to understand that the synthetics, taking control of certain large corporation was an alien, an extra-terrestrial alien program. That many of these corporations were working to help, or had worked to help create the basis for the aliens and the aliens repaid these entities by duplicating the leaders and taking control of the corporations so that they could further filter off money from the corporations for their bases and other projects.

This Awareness indicates that they were not concerned with the robotoids taking the place of senators and staff at the time, for they could, at some other time, substitute their synthetics for these robotoids. This Awareness indicates that it appears that working in conjunction with some officials in the government who have, in many places, already been replaced; these entities are able to create substitutes, identical in appearance, in a matter of hours, to take the place of individuals.

This Awareness indicates that It does not wish to go into details or labeling of individuals, but suggests that many of the entities who are seeing doubles are correct; that there are quite a number of facsimiles, not the real entity, but a facsimile of the entity. The details or other information around this issue of creating doubles has been given in previous readings and this Awareness does not wish to repeat this information at this time.

MORE TV ABOUT ALIENS: WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

QUESTION:

Last night on the FOX network, there was a one hour documentary program on UFOs. It was rather well put together, and showed the sequence from the beginning of the Roswell incident down to the reported sightings and abductions, animal mutilations, and they tied all this together rather well, and they were advertising before the show in the TV Guide and on the television itself that if you don't believe in UFOs, you will after watching this program.

My question is: Was this program put on with government approval, and if so, is this a sign that they are starting to tell the truth to the American people?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that there was some support from entities in MJ-12 who seek to have the information told truthfully. There are those in MJ-12 who want the information out and there are others who want it kept quiet and this dispute leads to some of the entities supporting those who are releasing information and some entities trying to keep the information from being released.

This particular show appears to have been with the support of those who want the information out. It of course cannot go into extreme detail, or exposure of the UFO phenomena, but in a general and somewhat detached way it did manage to cover most of the UFO phenomena with considerable accuracy.

This Awareness indicates that the information paralleled information that this Awareness has given, but was in a more general expression without such detail, and gave an entity who knows nothing about UFOs a lot to think about. It appears that in general, the information was accurate, even if quite general.

HOW TV IS SLOWLY CONDITIONING PEOPLE TO ACCEPT THE REPTOIDS

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

15 million or so people supposedly watched that show. Will this change the consciousness enough that something dramatic might occur one way or the other?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the effort is to get to the point where entities can be told about the alien presence without it creating a crisis in mass-consciousness, so that the entities' shock will be minimal; that the effort is to get information out piecemeal and gradually so that when an announcement of the alien presence is presented, the people will not become panicked and society can continue as usual.

The main concern of the government is to keep from creating panic or shock in society, for it could disrupt religion, economics and even the work-force. If entities are too shaken by information they may not show up for work the next day and society would suffer from too many people staying home, plus telephone lines could be tied up in cities around the country, creating disturbances and problems that need emergency attention or special concern.

This Awareness indicates that even lives could be lost if entities were too panicked by information, thus, the intent is to minimize the shock to the masses, to gradually condition entities to accept the presence of aliens. This Awareness indicates that this is also a reason why some of the recent emphasis on reptilian creatures has been presented on television. The Dinosaur show, in which these humanoid dinosaurs have their situation comedy to condition the masses so that once they discover the presence of Reptoids on earth, if they do, they have something they can associate it with so as to prevent them from becoming panicked.

This Awareness indicates they associated this with the dinosaurs on television and their situation comedy and rather than being fearful, they simply may smile and say: "Oh, like the dinosaurs on television!"; that they may find it humorous and exciting that there are Reptoids. That with this approach, the logic is that you can always turn them to hating the Reptoids if you want to, but you do not want them to start out being panicked or frightened by the presence of Reptoids, and if they become aware of the Reptoid presence, and you want them to become prepared to do battle with such entities, then you can start the conditioning to battle the Reptoids without having to deal with great fear that might have otherwise been in the psyche of entities.

That also, they see that there is always the potential that some kind of coexistence might be possible, such as portrayed in the movie Enemy Mine, in which the "Drac," which is short for Draco, entity becomes a friend of the human after they shoot each other down. This Awareness indicates that these types of movie are helping to condition the masses by giving them something they can link the facts to in their psyche, somewhere in the back of their mind so that they do not feel a sense of shock and panic upon hearing of the presence of these entities.

TV SHOWED PEOPLE MORE AFRAID OF U.S. GOVERNMENT THAN REPTOIDS
(The Anderson Story is Confirmed on TV)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

One thing interesting brought out in this UFO documentary last night was that they interviewed various entities who talked about the intimidation and threats and implied threats of being killed by government agents if they didn't remain quiet and so forth, and it was brought out; one entity says that it isn't the fear of the aliens that most people in American have, it's the fear of their own government. Does Awareness see that as being a basic fact?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative in many ways, especially in regard to the particular concern being expressed by that entity; that the concern he was expressing had to do with threats that were made by entities in regard to keeping the information secret, for entities were indeed terrified by those threats.

This Awareness indicates that in reference to a portion of that particular show, the entity Anderson who had been 5 years old at the time the craft crashed, who told his story after 40 some years, was thereafter ridiculed and efforts were made to discredit his story of being there.

Efforts were made to prove or to claim he had inconsistencies or had lied in his story, or that the inconsistencies were in his story indicating he was fabricating the story, and when this occurred, this in recent months, a young woman came forth to support his story, stating that her father had been one of the persons in the military who also investigated this, and that her father, though told not to talk about anything, shared everything with his family throughout his military career, letting them know what was occurring in this incident.

This entity has recently come forth to add further support to Anderson's story in regard to the Roswell incident; this being the crash of an alien ship wherein he and his father and uncle came upon three dead aliens and one alive, prior to the military units arriving and intimidating them and forcing them to leave with threats that they not speak of the event. The entity as a 5 year old boy at the time.

Correction: Not All Greys are Emotionless

This Awareness wishes to clarify another tidbit of information that may have been mistated or misunderstood previously. It has, in previous messages, indicated the Greys as not having emotions and being fascinated by human emotions. This Awareness indicates however, that this is, in part, erroneous. The Greys do understand fear and terror and rage. They sometimes experience rage themselves and sometimes experience fear or terror in a milder sense.

The entire control pattern of the Greys is based on fear, whereby they have their hierarchy system of control and must obey or be destroyed and therefore, fear is part of their thinking. Fear is part of the regimen that controls the entities in their pattern of relationships to each other. This Awareness indicates that in part, it is because of this fear that some incidences have occurred that have led the Greys to leave someone alone.

They are not normally afraid of humans, because they have technology to deal with almost any situation, but if it is possible to frighten them, they generally back off, thus, for example, when the entity yelled at the aliens to "Release my son!, or my God will destroy your ship!", these entities did not understand what the entity meant by "his God".

They did not know who his god was, and therefore, has to take the threat seriously and became frightened enough by the threat to release the son. "What difference does it matter anyway? They can simply go get someone else!"

This Awareness indicates that the fact that these entities have fear does not mean that they have strong desire emotions, other than biological needs, or are obedient to seek a goal because they are ordered to do so. They do not have strong feelings of love or strong feelings of worship and are fascinated by humans who tend to worship and love. They like being worshiped. They like to pretend they are gods and to receive the devotion that worshipers often bestow on them, but they do not understand this kind of devotion; they do not feel devotion or compassion for others in the way humans feel these emotions. This is in reference to the Zeta Reticuli Greys as well as Orion types and the Reptoids.

MORE ALIEN INFO TO BE RELEASED
YOU MUST SPOONFEED WHAT YOU KNOW

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that the likelihood of further releases of information regarding aliens increases and that as this likelihood increases, entities will find themselves not so much isolated in this information. There will be more people talking about it. It will not become such a laughing matter and entities will gradually find it to be a common and interesting topic for discussion among groups, even on casual levels.

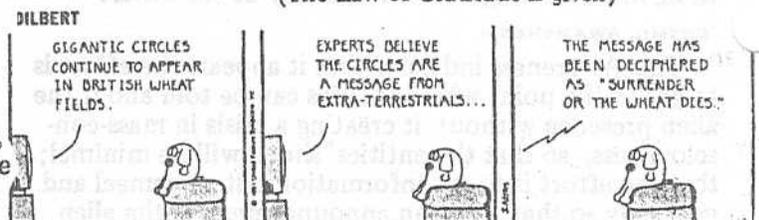

This may not occur for several months or years, but in time, this will become a major topic of discussion in households around the land. This Awareness indicates that many of you will already be experts in describing these details of this topic to those who are just beginning to understand. This Awareness suggests that you spoonfeed entities carefully, not giving them more than they can handle, for fear it might make them sick at being given too much at once.

Recall how some of the information disturbed you in your first encounters with it, and have respect for the needs of those who for the first time begin to hear of this kind of topic and information. This Awareness suggests also that as time passes there will be more questions emerging and more information released to add further to the accumulation of knowledge that you are blessed with or cursed with, depending on how you judge it.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that the information will begin to have some value after you begin hearing more on the topic during the coming years. After 1992, events transpire, including the unification of Europe, and these topics will become more pronounced and meaningful to you, as this world takes on its new face and change in its movement toward the next century. There are many things yet to come in this decade, and many entities may be shocked.

Most entities who have received this information will not feel the shock that others experience. They will be prepared, and in that sense, can be calm, while others are agitated. This Awareness indicates that this even in spite of efforts by the government to keep entities calm and poised through changes.

(The Law of Gratitude is given)

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that it appears there will be growing improvement and slow recovery to the economy for a period of several months, leading up to the election in '92; this will of course help the Bush administration in its effort to retake the White House.

This Awareness indicates that in regard to the situation with the alien scenario, it still appears that the stronger energy suggests a release of information, an official disclosure of the alien presence, but there is also some force working to keep this information from being disclosed. It does not appear to be a strong force, not so strong as the forces which would disclose the information.

This Awareness indicates that there is also a plan that does not yet have much support to keep the information of the alien presence hidden for years to come, while releasing information of the half-breeds and letting the half-breeds serve as mediators for the conditioning of the human race to the presence of aliens, because the half-breeds are more closely associated in appearance to humans, and therefore, would be more acceptable.

This Awareness indicates that this plan has some support from the aliens who would, in the event of such a plan, remain out of sight, while letting the half-breeds move into society with humans and become accepted in society, whereby humans would be more able to accept half-breeds among them than the aliens themselves. It does appear, however, that this plan, at this time, is not given a strong energy. It is a relatively new plan. That the plan would call for several decades to pass before the admission of the true alien beings on the planet, but in those decades, the half-breeds would be exposed to public attention and would intermingle with humans in society.

Europe Begins the Road to Superpowerdom

This Awareness indicates that it appears the European community will begin developing a kind of unity and networking shortly after the beginning of 1992, and this will grow more and more into a strong unity within the European community. The alliance will also reach out to include associations with countries outside of Europe, including the Soviet Union and some of the Middle East countries and Africal countries. These will gradually strengthen the economy of the European community and it will become necessary for the rest of the world to either form alliances with that community or to form alliances with each other in order to become financially stable, for the European community will become a powerful force, much like a third superpower, but it may also become the strongest of the superpowers as it grows and develops in its alliance between the nations of Europe.

This Awareness indicates that there are certain forces within Great Britain that may attempt to retard or hinder this European community development, feeling that it will swallow up the independence of Great Britain into a European conglomerate in which Great Britain has little power and little influence. The same may occur in other countries so that it is not necessarily a smooth cooperative action on all levels; that it appears that in a general sense, the union of these European nations will occur and the European community will become likened unto a supernation. U.S. Economy to Improve

This Awareness indicates that in the United States, it appears there will be an increase in the polarization of issues, political differences will become more pronounced and economic problems will be focused on during the coming year in such a way as to bring about increased changes in medical concerns, insurance concerns, banking concerns, and in areas of the treatment of homeless people,

All of these things will become of increased concern among the masses, along with the usual political footballs that are brought into play during election years. This Awareness indicates that for the majority of individuals, the economy will remain adequate, and in some instances, entities will find it improving. Others may find some downturns in their own particular area, depending on the kind of economic base their community is attuned to.

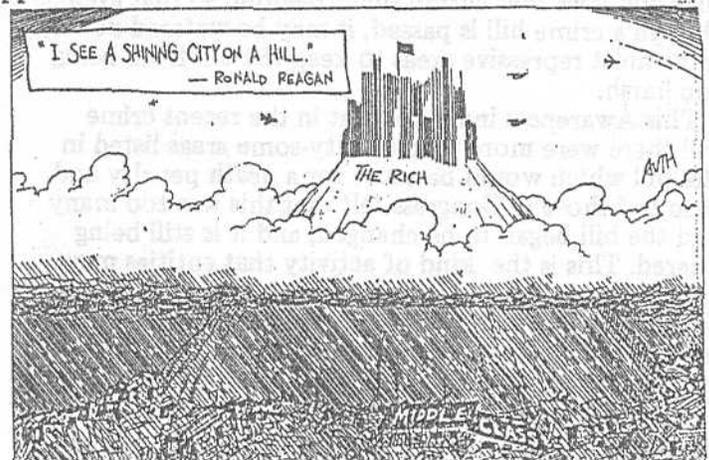

This Awareness indicates that all in all, the year 1992 is quite likely to bring about some slight surprises. Nothing major. Perhaps a more official recognition of the alien presence and UFO reality, and is likely to bring about more talk of a New World Order. The foreign countries, particularly China and a few of the other countries, may begin to soften to the human rights issue, in order to be included in the economic benefits that come from favored nation status.

It appears that Russia and the various nations that made up the Soviet Union will have a difficult time, but will struggle through the winter and will begin to emerge in the spring with greater hope, and gradually, by aligning with other nations of the world, begin to come into better economic situations. This Awareness indicates that crime in these countries will continue to increase until the nations become better organized in terms of their bureaucratic and governmental levels, at which time, the governments of these various nations may then be able to curtail much of the criminal activities.

This Awareness indicates it is seen that there will be some criminal elements within these nations that gain so much power as to be able to control the politics of the nations and some of these nations will suffer in future years for the crime that is developing and organizing

This Awareness sees that real estate and automobile industries will improve during the coming year, particularly in the spring and summer. It appears also that there will be more durable goods shipped overseas and that many of the manufacturing plants that have closed may reopen or new manufacturing of goods may increase for shipments for foreign countries. The export side of the economy is seen as being promising and improving during this coming year and for several years to follow.

This Awareness indicates that while it appears the democrats have very little going for them in the 1992 election, in terms of individuals to run for office, that this will change and the democratic party will find a candidate which will give Mr. Bush a good run for his money. There is not seen a clear winning by the democrats in the election, but it is a possibility. It is not as remote as it presently appears.

ECONOMY TO WORSEN AFTER ELECTION

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

The disappearing middle class and the growing unemployed; is this going to continue in 1992, or is that going to get better?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears it will get better in 1992. It does not appear that this will be a trend, but until election is over, it appears there will be an improvement. After the election of '92, it appears the economy will again worsen and the situation of more unemployed will return and an economic crisis may become an issue in '93.

This Awareness indicates that it is still somewhat unclear in regard to '93, and how the economy will unfold at that time, but it does appear that '92 will see an improvement, mainly because it is an election year and the influence of the administrating party always manages to improve the economy just before election time so that it is not an issue that would defeat the ruling administration; that the majority of downturns in an economic situation occur after and not before elections, and this year of 1992 appears to be no exception.

"WAR ON DRUGS" TO CONTINUE SO CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS CAN BE CURTAILED (U.S. Government Still Bringing in the Dope)

QUESTION:

How about the so-called war on drugs in '92?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to continue, promoting or allowing the drugs to enter the country; that the war on drugs essentially is but a sham, and the use of bringing drugs into the country is designed mostly to allow laws to be passed which would take away the rights of individuals under the name of 'drug laws'.

It is not that these laws are needed to enforce the curtailment of drugs, but rather, the drugs are needed to excuse the use and creation of laws that are oppressive or can be stretched to become oppressive to the masses. This Awareness indicates that the masses are willing to accept oppressive laws if it will get rid of the drug problem, but the fact being that the drugs since the Vietnam war have been brought into the country by elements of the government in order to create a situation so that laws can be imposed upon the people in the name of 'drug war' laws.

This Awareness indicates however, It wishes entities, while being aware of these oppressive laws and the artificial excuses for creating such laws, It wishes entities to realize that there are many in Congress who are still committed to freedom and rights as guaranteed by the Constitution and who will be most cautious about these bills and laws that curtail such freedom, so that even though a crime bill is passed, it may be watered down in its most repressive areas to keep the bill from being too harsh.

This Awareness indicates that in the recent crime bill there were more than twenty-some areas listed in the bill which would be cause for a death penalty and many of those in Congress felt that this was too many and the bill began to be changed, and it is still being altered. This is the kind of activity that entities may expect if others become too harsh in trying to create excessively repressive bills, and though many see these repressive bills as necessary to halt crime, others see the bills as being a threat to things that may be even greater than the problem of crime,--a threat to the very essence of liberty and freedom.

10. Therefore, many of these more repressive areas will be weakened before the bill is passed. That still, all entities need to be very watchful that bills being passed are not excessive, making the law excessively repressive when the crime is simply not being dealt with, for many of the crimes already have laws that would deal with them if these laws would only be enforced and the crimes do not need harsher laws, but need enforcement of the laws already on the books.

This Awareness indicates that the majority of people tend to think that force can deal with the problem of drugs, when actually, those powers of government are too often working hand in hand with those drug barons, and this information has begun to come out into the public and as more of this released through various groups, agencies, churches and researchers, it can have an effect on the forces involved in promoting the drugs in this country. Shadow Government Could be Exposed in '92

There may yet be a strong surprise in store for those who have been involved in helping to bring drugs into this country and this may come out prior to election time. This Awareness indicates there are entities, speakers traveling around the country, to colleges, to groups, to churches, telling what has been released from various documents regarding the drug smuggling into this country by elements within the CIA, by elements associated with the White House itself.

This Awareness indicates that the shadow government is up to its neck in scandal, which has yet to be brought out through the media, and yet, there are many who are aware of this and who may in time become a major force for bringing out these facts. The Christic Institute brought a lawsuit approximately two years ago, to cover much of this information. The suit was thrown out of court as being absurd, yet today, the Costa Rican government has banned certain entities from traveling to Costa Rica, because of their drug involvements and most of these entities are those that were listed in the Christic Institute complaint; the Costa Rican government having evidence of their involvement.

Likewise, the Costa Rican government, having convicted John Hall, one of these entities named in the Christic Institute lawsuit, of being involved in the drugs, having a ranch where CIA agents worked in conjunction with drug shipments, and there are also other situations which may bring out much of this information, including the trial of manuel Noriega, wherein much of this may yet come out into the public, if the trial is allowed to proceed on course.

This Awareness indicates that it will be an interesting year for disclosures. The chances of major disclosure by the special prosecutor Walsh is very likely to occur within two weeks of this date, around mid-November, in the entity's further prosecution of the Iran/Contra affair. It is not yet over. This Awareness indicates that things relating to scandals may become a major focus in 1992*

*Didn't happen. The Kennedy rape case eclipsed this story.

NO WAR BEFORE ELECTION IS NOW SEEN

QUESTION:

Awareness has indicated the possibility of another war before the election. How does that look at this time, as a possibility?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the likelihood of this has diminished considerably; that there is, of course, a very good possibility that it could again be triggered for some politically motivated purpose, either for the New World Order, or for other political purposes. If the excuse is needed, there is always a way to create an excuse for war.

This Awareness indicates the energies which prompted this Awareness to suggest it as a strong possibility have subsided considerably at this time, and therefore, it is not seen as the same strong probability as when previously mentioned; however, it can always be rekindled if there is the motive for such an event. This Awareness would not rule it out, though it does not appear to have any meaningful energy at this particular time.

WEATHER PREDICTION FOR '92--DRAUGHT TO END

Does Awareness have any additional information in regard to the weather, world-wide, and earth changes for 1992?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the weather patterns are not as unusual as many entities think. It is more that the weather patterns are changing in terms of locations, though the general weather patterns on average around the globe are very much similar. The average temperatures world-over are not that greatly changed, though individual places may experience changes in weather patterns, partly because of the jetstream variations that have occurred in recent years.

This Awareness indicates there is some strong indication of this particular winter and the next two winters being quite cold, but of course, this will depend on where entities live. The cold winters may only affect the average world temperature very slightly, but some areas of the country will experience severe cold in comparison to normal years. This is in part astrological, with Saturn influencing Aquarius; this indicating coldness for areas that are affected by the potential of cold weather.

This Awareness indicates in other words, if an area is likely to be cold normally, with the Saturn in Aquarian aspect, it is likely to be even more cold; that it appears much of the draught that has been prevalent for several years will diminish in 1992 and many of those areas will receive abundant rain.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

A month ago an article came out stating that the El Nino was being reborn, with all the disrupting weather that we experienced some years back in '82 and '83. Does Awareness see this as being a problem in the coming year?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be an element of influence on the weather; that also the volcano in the Philippines as having an effect on the weather; that also the oil-field fires in Kuwait as having an effect on the weather, but that the overall effect of all this will not be severe. There may be some noticeable effects in certain areas in which the weather patterns may be altered considerably, but in terms of the general or average world-wide temperatures, It does not see this as a major effect world-wide. It will be relatively mild in the world-wide sense.

INFLUENZA AND AIDS UPDATE

QUESTION:

In regards to AIDS and other diseases; the health authorities for example, are predicting a very lethal, well, not lethal, but a very potent form of flu coming in this winter. Does Awareness see any major changes in the disease situation in the year 1992?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does appear there will be many who suffer from this flu, and especially younger and older people will be most vulnerable to it. The younger people, because it spreads through the schools; the older people because they are without sufficient immunity to combat the flu. They are more vulnerable to its extreme hardship. This Awareness indicates that It sees there will be many who die from the flu unless vaccinations are used to prevent it from spreading. This Awareness suggests that many entities should give serious thought to vaccinating against this flu prior to its spreading through the schools and work-places.

This Awareness indicates that the AIDS epidemic gradually increases over the years. Many who have been carrying HIV virus for some time will discover they have the virus or may contract AIDS, and it will become more apparent that the AIDS problem is growing and is not diminishing in its march toward wiping out masses of people. Each year is seen as growing in its effect on the masses.

This Awareness indicates that most of those who have the HIV virus do not know they have it, and thus, they help to spread it even further.

IS AIDS SPREADING RAPIDLY TO HETEROSEXUALS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Isn't it true, even though contrary to a lot of information being put out, that the majority of people with AIDS and HIV virus and who will get it, are still involved with the homosexual lifestyle or involved in drugs where they use needles?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is true in that most of the entities who have AIDS are involved in those lifestyles; however, six percent of those having AIDS are involved in heterosexual lifestyles, and these entities can spread the disease into the heterosexual community, among those who are promiscuous in these areas.

This Awareness indicates that the problem is that the statistics do not remain static. They are constantly changing. What was two percent a year ago in terms of heterosexual AIDS is six percent this year. Next year it may be even higher. This Awareness indicates there are many in the heterosexual community carrying the HIV virus who are not even aware of it, and many of these 5 years from now, 3 years from or 10 years from now may have full blown cases of AIDS, but at present they do not know they have it.

The question is: How many of these entities who have the HIV virus in the heterosexual community are there who are not aware they have it, and how many of these entities will spread it to still others?, and how many will they spread it to? Entities do indeed need to become more aware of the extreme dangers of this disease, and entities need to be aware that not all condoms create safe sex, when it comes to AIDS, for the AIDS virus is so small it can pass through the pores in the condoms, in most of the condoms on the market.

This Awareness indicates that entities may think they are having "safe sex" by using a condom, while in fact, the condom they use may not be a guarantee in regard to AIDS. This Awareness suggests that entities learn more about the disease and its spread, if they are going to become involved in sexual relations with partners whom they are not certain of.

ED's Note: Recently they stopped the presses, interrupted the TV shows and movies because a well known basketball hero called "Magic Johnson" announced he had contracted the HIV virus and was quitting the sport immediately. One would assume that the martyrdom of Christ was being replayed with all the hallowed words of praise being spewed out by brown-nosing media for this multi-millionaire "role model" for the youth of America, particularly Black youth. Magic would not say how he came to have the virus but did admit to a very promiscuous bachelor lifestyle for the past 12 years, wherein 'thousands' of groupies were serviced. What happened to moral accountability? Wilt Chamberlain, another star of the sport, brags of having slept with about 20,000 different females. "Magic was my role model" he states in his book. Role model? As Patrick Buchanan later wrote about Magic Johnson: "His dedicated team play on the court, his unflinching support of good causes, was admirable. But a private life of sleeping around in every city the team visited is not a 'role model' for black youth; it is the road to hell. Thanks to 'lifestyles' pursued by millions who emulate Wilt and Magic, two of three black children in our inner cities are born to unwed mothers, raised without a father's care. And test scores fall, kids drop out, drugs are everywhere, and one in four young black males is in prison or on probation or parole."

Magic Johnson may have been one of that small percentage of heterosexuals who contact the virus. Some tabloids do not believe that and have launched a massive search of the gay bars across America to see if evidence exists this 'role model' is not telling all the story. Many are crying for the 'government' to stop the spread of AIDS, the myth of heterosexual AIDS as a major risk spreads like wildfire, fueled by the "gay" organizations who figure, rightly, that if enough people swallow this line of bull, more money will be released to find a cure. Right wing fundamentalists and tightass teachers use this heterosexual AIDS risk as an excuse to lay their own morality upon the school kids, many who know the condom will not prevent the virus, but devoids the sexual act of much of its pleasure, the logic being, the kids won't try to mess around. It won't work; our kids may not be able to read and write when they get their diploma, but they are not so stupid they will buy that propaganda. Wilt Chamberlain's 20,000 conquests (when did he ever find time to play basketball?) is a testament to the fact that the odds of getting AIDS from heterosexual activity is so staggering, why should one wear a condom in the first place? No, contrary to the massive propaganda now being put out, one just about has to be a "bugger" as they call them in England, those entities who continue to practice anal intercourse with one another. The fact remains that most couples in America are heterosexual, monogamous and do not shoot drugs with needles, and unlike a few widely publicized stars in the music, TV and movie business, are not so jaded they must experiment with bisexuality as some are promoting; these people do not need to use condoms ('like washing your feet with your socks on, 'as my old man once remarked), and they should not allow themselves to be stampeded into using them, for these people, according to the odds at this time, will never be exposed to the HIV virus or the AIDS that follows. But as Awareness has suggested, if you are going to be involved in sexual relations with partners you are not certain of, you cannot be included in this safe category. Like Russian roulette, you must take your chances. In short, there are plenty of things coming down the tube, gang, that need our attention, but at this time, the fear of HIV and AIDS is not one of them in this editor's opinion. It is simply another diversion designed to keep one from completing his appointed task. Of course, this disease is a tragedy and we must be merciful and supportive of those who contract it, and the best way to do this is to demand that those who created this monster, be exposed, and the vaccine, which already exists, be given to these entities immediately before more deaths occur.

HOW SAFE IS THE FLU VACCINE? HOW DOES IT WORK?

QUESTION:

In regard to the flu vaccine that doctors are promoting for this year's onslaught of, I believe it's Type A flu; does this vaccine actually prevent an entity from getting the flu, or does it set him up so if he gets it, it would be a lighter case than if he didn't have the vaccine?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are no side-effects to this; that it does not create the flu for the entity who is given the shot. The shot does not cause the entity to come down with a lighter case of flu; it is simply the antibodies ¹² that are introduced in the body of the individual, ready to combat the flu virus.

This Awareness indicates that essentially, the flu vaccine is tailored for approximately 30 different flu strains, one of which is the more hazardous flu that is coming in from the orient, and not only does the vaccine deal with this particular type of flu, but other flus that may have developed from other countries which may also circulate through the winter.

This Awareness indicates that each type of flu known must have its own vaccine, and each year when the vaccine is put together, it is made so that it encompasses all the known flu types that are likely to be visited on a population. Of course, there is always the possibility of a new strain developing that is not yet made part of the vaccination, however, it does not appear that such a strain has yet been injected in society this year, and that the flu shot available today will cover the known types of flu that may be circulating this winter.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is flu, these various flu strains each year, are they a product of natural evolution, or are these genetically engineered or man-made and released?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that they develop from individuals who may suffer from a combination of different types of viruses; that it may be best understood as likened unto an individual being a breeding pot for various types of viruses to come together to create a new virus. It can happen when an individual has two or more types of flu at once, and this creates a new strain of flu that is developed from the merging of several old types of flu. The new strain then will have greater power than either of the older types of flu individually. This Awareness indicates that this entity then may pass that new strain of flu to another entity who may in turn pass it on to others and it becomes a continuing spread of the new strain of flu. The vaccine to prevent that flu will need to come from the antibodies of the entity who overcame the flu and then it can be used to produce more vaccine from the strain of flu.

WHAT'S AHEAD FOR CANADA IN 1992?

QUESTION:

In regard to 1992, does Awareness have any information about Canada?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the economy of Canada will reap benefits from the increasing developments in Europe and Canada's tie with Great Britain. There will be increased trade between Canada and Europe as well as benefit from the increased trade with the United States. The United States now needing more than ever to form trade alliances with its own neighbors in this hemisphere.

It appears that this will benefit Canada greatly in terms of its economics during the coming year. It will be a good year for Canada. Many of the problems that have existed between the United States and Canada will diminish as a closer alliance occurs.

This Awareness suggests the Interpreter be brought from trance.

COSMIC AWARENESS SUGGESTS CAC NEEDS BROADER BASE

OPENING MESSAGE:

C.A.C. General Reading, November 10, 1991

This Awareness indicates that since 1963, approximately 28 years ago, this Awareness has been giving messages and information in response to questions entities present; that over these years there have been many different topics touched upon, discussed, thoroughly digested, explored and questioned. There has been much repetition in some of the questions and answers as new entities come into view and ask questions which have previously been discussed and answered.

This Awareness indicates that all of this material from these 28 years is printed; most of it printed and is available to entities, and does need to be dealt with in the coming years in a manner to make it more accessible to the public. This Awareness indicates therefore, the future interests of Cosmic Awareness Communications, and also of the Aquarian Church, lies in being able to print and distribute information, making it available to the masses, and in general, dealing with a larger base of membership or subscribers.

This Awareness indicates that in order for this to occur, there will need to be an enormous increase on the financial level for the operations to continue and to be prepared for this kind of action. This Awareness has been working to assist in the movement of energies for this purpose; that it will continue working in this direction until these energies produce the necessary funding for these things to occur.

This Awareness indicates that those who wish to assist this Awareness in helping to increase the financial stability of Cosmic Awareness Communications and the Aquarian Church are invited to do so, and that the time of need is present, wherein this help which entities may offer can be most effectively used and can be used in a manner that in working with this Awareness can help this Awareness to bring in even greater funding.

This Awareness indicates that there are some very powerful energies in motion at this time. The potential is great, but the need is also great at this time to make the potential develop and manifest. This Awareness indicates that for those who feel the urge to be generous toward C.A.C. at this time, the generosity will be most appreciated and helpful. The effectiveness of that generosity will be greater at this time than at any time in the past.

This Awareness suggests the questions now be asked.

QUESTION: THAT HABITAT IN ORACLE, ARIZONA

A question from L.H., in New York. "There is a science project underway in a place called Oracle, Arizona, where about 7 single men and women scientists are going to live for two years in an enclosed habitat to conduct experiments involving growing plants and raising animals in a simulated atmosphere. This experiment appears to be an attempt to simulate what life may be like on another planet, using an enclosed dome structure to recreate life conditions on earth. As far as I know, this experiment is being funded by private sources and is not being subsidized by the United States government. Is this a part of a government test to safely establish here on earth a simulated environment that might be used on another planet? Is the government directly or indirectly involved or is it indeed a private project?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this appears to be a privately funded project. The government, however, is most interested in watching the results and gaining access to any information that may come from the research, and it appears that the individuals conducting this project are compatible with sharing the research information with those government agencies in regard to such research.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

It has nothing to do with the Alternative 003 program?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that not directly; that the application of information and data derived from the research may later be applied to various government projects of a similar nature on other planets or on plans for such. It will need to undergo evaluation before any of the government agencies can determine whether the data is suitable for their use or whether it is of little value to them, but they do have an interest in the general outcome and data that is being collected.

"THE DOORS" AND THEIR MUSIC:

QUESTION: WHAT EFFECT ON CONSCIOUSNESS?

A question from D.C., in Bayview, New York. Awareness has answered one of the questions before, but I'll read his statement because there's a larger question here. "Oliver Stone's movie, The Doors, about the rock and roll group The Doors, came out recently and it was interesting because it showed and reminded people what life was like in the 1960s, a time when young people were adventurous and rebellious and thought deeply about things. Awareness has stated that some famous rock stars died as a result of foul play. Did the entity Jim Morrison, the singer for The Doors, die as a result of foul play? [This has been given before]. Also, what was Jim Morrison and The Doors' effect on consciousness?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the effect of The Doors as that which was portrayed in the movie, and which has been made obvious through their music. It was an additional energy being expressed in those years of trauma and change which influenced many to reexamine their own values. This Awareness indicates that this was another of the powerful groups influencing consciousness.

To be specific as to what it, as a group, did to consciousness is very difficult because consciousness does not respond specifically to one group, but to the collective influences of the times, and consciousness responded to the cacaphony of many groups, tuning in, tuning up and expressing themselves in a time of great discord,

This Awareness indicates that while much discord occurred on the one hand, many of these groups were coming into harmony toward a common theme, a common harmony, and these groups, through different forms of music, through different expressions, brought a kind of cohesiveness to the antiwar movement and the movement to find something of a spiritual quality in life.

Many entities failed to recognize or grasp the spiritual qualities that were available. Others gained enlightenment and found spiritual qualities and began to cling to these, even after the era passed, and these entities may still hold sacred those spiritual qualities that were grasped during this period.

This Awareness indicates that the movie itself being a kind of eulogy and focal point for the Doors, says through its imagery and story the importance that the Doors contributed to their time and to the experience of that time. There is not much more that should be added by this Awareness in this regard other than to also remind entities of the tragedies that came about during these times through excesses, particularly the excessive use of drugs and through wildness that sometimes exhibited itself in the very kind of violence and self-destruction that entities protested against.

THE KARMA INVOLVED IN PREVENTING EARTHQUAKES

QUESTION:

In a letter to Vikki, member H.R., of Paradise, California, wrote: "I feel that it is unwise for any group to interfere with the coming cataclysms because these may be karmic and it would only draw bad karma to those involved." I believe she was referring to a memo regarding various groups using meditations to heal the earth and possibly prevent earth changes. Would Awareness comment on her statement that this could be karmic?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if there are karmic energies involved, the meditation is in fact dealing with these karmic energies and would be modifying or neutralizing the karma that was to be expressed. This Awareness indicates that

(Cosmic Awareness Responds to an Irate Ex-Member)

IS THE NEW WORLD ORDER SETTING UP C.A.C.?

(More on 'The Evil Empire', Earthquakes & Satan!)

QUESTION:

I received a letter from R.M., in Hawaii, which I'm going to read because he's been a member since the beginning of CAC. My first response when I read this letter was: what has he been doing with our material?, certainly not studying it, but on second thought, I'm going to read this and ask Awareness to comment. He writes:

"Avaton. The recent Soviet coup was a hoax. Any knowledgeable sources should have known about the true situation in Russia, unless intentionally to mislead the world. The communist threat is not over by any means; it has just taken another name, with the same plans as before to conquer the whole world. The McAlvany report enclosed lays the plot out in great detail, showing that this coup was planned years ago. This information is verified by other reliable sources also. Striking evidences of this hoax are given.

Of interest to note also is the use of the term "democracy", which may connote freedom to many but actually means otherwise. So pushing this term to the world under the guise of freedom presents many questions about your source of information. Ignorance is no excuse from what is considered a highly knowledgeable source who should know better.

It appears that you people are being set up for the takeover by the New World Order. Your readers are not being warned that our Constitution is just about lost already, or that the adoption of gun control by the government may be the only thing that held back the elite from this takeover earlier. Or that the Elite is ready to trigger the great earthquake from the San Andreas fault in order to create a major crisis and declare martial law and the closing of the banks. This is now planned by the end of October!

[The letter was dated Oct. 28, 1991, just 3 days from then] Ed.

The computer center for all the banks are located in California. This location is not accidental, for it was thus planned for the time when the banks will all be closed and their assets confiscated.

The U.S. economy is in shambles and has been bankrupt for some time already. It had been falsely held up with doctored reports and statistics, but no longer can survive further than the through meditation, through prayer, karma can be sometimes altered or changed. The only law that is greater than The Law of Karma in this regard is The Law of Grace, and grace can be sought through prayer and meditation, and in seeking of the grace, it is not so much the entity who is praying or meditating, it is the spiritual energies that have been contacted which are capable of dispensing grace to override the karma involved.

Therefore, the individuals who are involved in meditation or prayer are not subject to karmic repercussions; they are simply agents for prayer and meditation as a kind of mediator between the victims and the higher spiritual essences as requesting, much in the way that a priest might pray for a parishioner for God to intercede in his parishioner's behalf. The priest will not accumulate negative karma for such action, for if the higher forces does intercede, the karma that would have caused the problem is eradicated anyway.

This Awareness indicates that basically, all efforts to interfere with future fate are efforts to deal with karma and when these efforts are of a nature appealing through prayer or meditation with the intent of saving others from suffering, it is the higher spiritual forces that may respond, or refuse to respond, and it is their choice, thus the prayer or meditation is but a request and does not put the petitioner in jeopardy.

This Awareness indicates that to do so would be likened unto punishing someone for asking an authority to intercede in behalf of someone who is suffering and this just does not happen in the spiritual realm. Entities are not punished for asking the Higher Spiritual Deities for help.

end of this month. The passage of the bill to extend the unemployment benefits would have revealed the true extent of the unemployed, which Bush's administration could not withstand.

There were small earthquakes in Oregon and Washington State recently, also several in California, which were a prelude to this great one by loosening up the snags to the plates along the fault. The umbrella displays by Christos in California marked the critical faultline to initiate this quake. The same in Japan, where the devastating volcano eruptions have been caused by the Soviet CosmoSpheres.

Japan and Russia are now going through negotiations for economic loans and perhaps the return of some islands that Russia took at the close of WW II, and these threats could be a form of blackmail by Russia: to get what they want. The Soviets had already shown their capabilities earlier by causing a small earthquake in Japan at the exact time announced, and thus made the Japanese firm believers in their powers.

In all this immediate crisis your readers have been distracted by threats of aliens who are preparing to take over this planet. If you believe in a just and good God, would you think that He will allow humans, created in His own image, to be destroyed or eaten by soulless reptoids from another planet? Don't you believe that God controls the entire universe and therefore has the power to control such transgressions on our planet?

Our enemies and source of danger are of and on this planet. They are the followers of Satan who are programmed to attack and eliminate the followers of the Righteous God. This is the great battle between Good and Evil as foretold in Revelations, which is to separate the good from the bad as wheat from the chaff.

I cannot continue to support the CAC and wish to have my subscription canceled. I find now that I will have to re-evaluate everything that I have read from this source. Of course, there were much material coming through that were true and of some value. But this is how the dark forces operate--by deceit in mixing the false with the truth. The facts obviously may make your readers believers, but which information did not deviate from the aims of the One Worlders.

If the CAC was a threat to the Elite and bank cartels in their plans for the New World Order, the CAC would be under constant attack to stop its publications. I may be mistaken, but I have seen little if any criticism about the Zionists and Israel, who are controlled by the dark forces. Their "bibles" of evil outlaying their plans for world conquest and the subjugation of the masses have been revealed. Their devilish aims have been announced by braggarts among them; so confident are they of their powers. I believe that I had sent this information to you previously. 15.

The New World Order is rule by Satan and will lead to suffering and the loss of all freedom for the masses. The extermination of millions of Christians, as took place in Russia, will be the order of the day.

The TEST is to see how the "Social Democrats" in Russia turn out and if the satellite Balkan nations retain their freedom. Or in the more immediate future, if the great earthquake in California takes place, or any other created event will introduce emergency measure for martial law to be enacted--the express desire of the Elite.

I hope you will examine this information objectively and do what is right for your readers. But it may be too late already.

Truth is truth, no matter from what source; we must be able to discern the truth from the false humbly and very carefully. Sincerely, R.M. "

That's his letter, and he included a copy of the McAlvany Intelligence Advisor, which they were also giving out at the Puyallup gathering the Interpreter and myself went to recently, which is concerned with the rebirth of an empire and what is really happening in the Soviet Union, by this man McAlvany who puts out this expensive newsletter and hammers and hammers over this thing he imagines, that the Soviet "threat" is still real and is on schedule and so forth. Would Awareness please comment on this entity's letter?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity makes strong confident statements which give the appearance of one who is knowledgeable and who has facts from which he speaks; that the entity relies heavily on the McAlvany material. This Awareness indicates that this information is available for entities who wish to have the "bejeever" scared out of them.

This Awareness indicates the entity as one who is terribly frightened of communists and who sees that this is but another communist trick. This Awareness indicates that there always is going to be people who cling to the belief that things cannot change and who assume that once an entity is an enemy, the enemy will always be the enemy and is controlled and run by Satan.

This Awareness indicates that the practical outcome of communism is its own demise. It cannot exist forever because it is built on false assumptions, and what has happened in Russia is that communism simply ran out of gas. It has been propped up and operating on fumes for the last 30 years. It does not take a genius to realize that communism cannot continue functioning as pure communism in a totalitarian sense, and while the rest of the world turns its back on communism, the core communism, trying to maintain itself, finally had its own melt-down, and to say that it is all a "trick" is indeed strange, for it is in a state of self-destruct and why would it self-destruct in order to trick others into thinking it is now turning into a "good guy"?

This Awareness indicates that it will be so difficult for communism to rebuild and restore its old ways after this melt-down, that it becomes likened unto a destroyed country trying to rebuild after a war. It is indeed a foolish move, if it is a military trick. It is similar in the belief that the coup was but a trick to gain sympathy for Russia and for the communist nation.

This Awareness sees that this was a trick, but not in the way that others would see it. It sees this more as a trick to smoke out certain elements within the government who would be dangerous to the perestroika and openness that is being attempted. This Awareness indicates that indeed there is a possibility of the effort of some to put the Humpty-Dumpty Soviet Union back together again. It is a possibility, but it is unlikely that it can be successful, for the devastation of this country and the release of the populace will make it almost impossible to restart the totalitarian system.

Do We Really Want a "Republic" in the U.S.?

In fact, it is devastating to totalitarian countries world-wide to have this example occurring. This Awareness indicates that indeed, the entity points to democracy as being less than the highest idea. This Awareness would point out that most of these entities see a republic as being the highest ideal and point to the United States as a republic before it became a democracy, and assume that the Constitution originally was that of a republic and that it has lost its power upon becoming a democracy.

This Awareness indicates that those who yearn for the old days of the republic of the United States should be aware that under the republic, only white landowners could vote, only white male landowners could vote. Women could not vote. Non-Caucasians could not vote. The Indian, the oriental, the blacks, were not allowed to vote. This Awareness indicates that perhaps this is an ideal for some entities, if they happen to fit into the category of the white male landowner, but it is hardly fair to all entities in the country.

This Awareness indicates that It is aware of the many arguments made by those who call themselves patriots, and their concern about zip-codes and the Social Security numbers and so forth; It is aware that these zip-codes are part of an agreement based on martial law, stemming from the Civil War which Lincoln called and which was never yet retracted. It understands these things. It understands the argument these entities make that we are not free because we are under martial law and therefore, the Constitution does not truly protect us. It is aware of these arguments.

This Awareness indicates that there are many who write to tell the editor of CAC not to use their zip-codes, not to do certain things and to do certain things, and they become indignant if things are not done the way they see them, and therefore, they are quick to criticize and to label this Awareness and this organization as being duped by the forces of Satan. This Awareness has an obligation to the lives of Its members. It has an obligation to inform the membership, but It also has the obligation to give them that which helps them and to be careful about giving them advice which could lead them into dire difficulties and trouble.*

The Patriots Will be the First to get Executed

This Awareness knows also that the patriots who have given up their zip-codes, who have pronounced themselves outside the democracy, who have renounced their citizenship, who believe that they are now free citizens or free persons, It is aware that these are the number one targets when the New World Order will be imposed, and though they may be legally correct, they may also find themselves being dragged from their homes at night and shot in their yards or on the street and labeled drug czars or drug people, people involved in drugs, for that is the plan, to get rid of the patriots first in order to impose the One World Government.

This Awareness indicates that it is a frightening scenario and the more certain these entities are about their righteousness and that they are doing what is going to save them from the New World Order, believing that they can escape the wrath to come, they are simply putting themselves in harm's way. This Awareness indicates It does not wish to advise Its readers to take this path. If there are those who wish to take this path knowingly, who wish to take the path in order to promote an idealism or to secure some heroism and think that they are great patriots for doing so, that is their choice, it is not the business of this Awareness to advise entities to stand in front of tanks in Tiananmen Square or to put themselves in front of hit-squads or delta squads in order to prove that they are free persons. 16.

This Awareness indicates that to tell the truth in this regard with the idea that the truth will make these entities free may simply be telling them to pick up arms and go against your government, and this Awareness does not wish to do this. It does not wish to promote the patriot movement when It sees these entities as being targeted as the number one enemies of the state; It sees instead a different path for seeking freedom in spite of efforts to move entities into a New World Order that courts totalitarianism.

How Cosmic Awareness Would Deal with the New World Order

This Awareness indicates that if you understand your history and have studied the history of Russia in the last century, you may remember that the Tartars invaded Russia and the Russian people, knowing they could not fight them, because they were too powerful, simply opened their arms to them and invited them into their homes as guests, fed them, became friends with them, and let them enter in and live in their cities. There was little bloodshed in the conquest by these entities, these Mongolians, and as they moved into and mingled with the people, the two types of people began to blend together over years, and Russia was conquered, but it was conquered in a way that no one realized, for it did not lose a war, it simply merged with those conquerors and the entities survived and moved on as another phase of Russian history.

This Awareness indicates that sometimes, this action of resisting not, but altering the plans of the conquerors, is a more effective way of dealing with the forces of evil, if that is the proper term. This Awareness indicates that It feels great compassion and concern for those patriots who speak out and It admires their courage. If it were possible to enlarge sufficiently the number of patriots who would speak out and return the country to its true freedoms as given in the Constitution, this Awareness would do so, but this Awareness is very practical.

The membership of this organization is quite small. Its members would not have any effect on changing or altering the New World Order. It would only add more sacrifice to Tiananmen Square for the forces of oppression to get the membership out in the front lines to do battle with the Beast. This Awareness would rather tame the Beast than fight the Beast, and It sees ways whereby this can be done.

This Awareness indicates there is something deep within the genetic structuring of humans that does not tolerate slavery and yet there is also something within the genes of some humans who constantly want to dominate others with their beliefs, their absoluteness, their certainties and their control, even if it means enslaving them. This Awareness indicates the struggle between these two types has always been with humanity and will continue.

This Awareness has discussed the alien factor. It is an historical reality. It is not discussing the alien factor to get peoples' minds off of other problems. This Awareness has given information on conspiracies, has given sources where entities can further study and look for these conspiracies if they wish to delve into these areas.

It is easy for entities to sit back and say: "Well, you haven't studied as deeply into the conspiracy factors as have I, and therefore, I denounce you!" This Awareness indicates it is easy for people to find areas to criticize. This Awareness suggests rather than sitting back and criticizing, that you get out and promote your ideas; that you get out and teach the masses and perhaps, before it is too late, you will have reached a number of people who accept you seriously.

This Awareness also suggests however, that when you get out and start trying to promote your ideas to the public, you are very likely to find that the public is not receptive to ideas that are too extreme. The public is not ready to believe that the only way they can survive is to give up their zip-codes, Social Security numbers and jobs, and cease to write checks and work on cash only, and never have any paper documents.

The Price for Playing the Freedom Game

This Awareness indicates that there are many who drive without licenses and some get caught, and some go to jail. Others know the legal tricks whereby they manage to stay out of jail, based on their status as a person or whatever, and this is all well and good if that is the game they wish to play in order to keep their freedoms, but in playing that game to keep their freedoms, they have to give up other freedoms: the freedom to own a credit card, the freedom to have credit, the freedom to buy with a mortgage, the freedom to write checks for bills, the freedom to drive freely in a car without the threat of being stopped so that you have to go to court and go through all kinds of legal arguments to prove that you are the kind of citizen that does not need a driver's license.

This Awareness indicates if you want to play a certain type of freedom game and have the time to do so, and are willing to give up many of your freedoms to do this, that is your choice, but many people do not wish to drop out of society, to drop away from their friends, to give up many of their freedoms and rights and privileges just to prove that they are a citizen of the United States and have the rights that others only can talk about.

This Awareness indicates that there is much that this entity raves about in his questions. It is his right to express himself. He has studied deeply and feels strongly in his opinion that he is right. This Awareness wishes it were as simple as this entity perceives it to be. If it were so simple, why does the entity not have more effect on the masses? Why does the entity think that this organization could have any better luck in arguing his case than he himself could have?

This Awareness indicates that this entity is not aware of the nature of mass consciousness; that you may be right that people don't understand or accept your righteousness, and by jumping on others for not espousing your views as you see them, does not mean that the other is wrong because he views it slightly different and is more cautious in expressing to the masses. The question is: If you are so right, why don't people flock to you and nod their heads to you in total agreement?

This Awareness indicates that you can't get that kind of response from people with that kind of message which demands they turn their lives upside-down in order to be in step with you. Therefore, by saying that others are wrong because they are not walking upside-down with you, does not necessarily mean you are right, nor does it necessarily mean you are wrong, but it does show there is something wrong with the way you expect others to comply, and when others won't walk with you, isn't there something wrong with your expectations of them?

Are you doing something that might be a little too extreme for them? Would it not be better to pull them in inch by inch rather than jerking at them with a noose around their necks?

Russia Could Have Destroyed the U.S. But Didn't

This Awareness did discuss in a previous reading the nature of the coup in Russia being but a plot to bring in Western money to the Russian and Soviet people; It does not see a need to repeat that message. It did not see this as having much validity, nor does It yet see this theory as being valid. This Awareness indicates that it is based mostly on past history under different Russian leaders, where there were efforts by United States leaders and Russian leaders to reach some kind of accord, and in the process of negotiations, there were those moments of glasnost or openness, even the term was used in some of the discussions and negotiations, and because of these efforts in the past and their failure, many think that this present event is but another trick and is intended not to work, but to fail, to allow Western money to enter¹⁷ into Russia which will then be turned into arms in order to conquer the West.

This Awareness indicates that there have been many times when Russia had greater armament than did the United States, and if they really sought to destroy the United States, this could have occurred. There were times in the '70s wherein the United States was ringed with nuclear weapons that could have been used to paralyze or blackmail the United States, but this did not occur. There were times when Russia, having cosmo-spheres, had a distinct advantage over the United States in its weaponry and could have sustained a winning victory through nuclear war, but this did not occur.

Now, when Russia is breaking apart in its nations, each separating, wherein there are countries within the borders of Russia threatening civil war, to worry that it is a trick, is out of place and out of touch with the reality that many in those countries feel when their own neighborhoods are being threatened by civil war.

This Awareness indicates that if it is a trick, the Soviet Union will have to first join back together and undo all the thinking and reprogram the minds of the soviet people to get them to think again like "good commies," being obedient to the central government. Otherwise, if they are planning some kind of aggressive action, they are more likely to develop a massive civil war from within, for the Soviet people are tired of totalitarian leadership.

This Awareness indicates that the starvation that threatens this country is battle enough, and these entities do not have the means for carrying out global warfare against the Western powers. This Awareness indicates that the questioner apparently wrote his letter some time back. It appears to be more than weeks, more likely months back, or is based on information that has been received more than a month ago, and the entity has not the same advantage in terms of time that is now available to this Awareness, for he was looking forward and this Awareness can look back at what has transpired and see the errors in the entity's predictions and in the way things are developing, and therefore this Awareness, in this sense, has the advantage over this entity, and therefore, it does need to express a recognition toward the entity for his depth of thought, even if it proved to be in error, and to acknowledge the correctness of much of his tirade and lecture, for it did have much merit.

The concern this Awareness has is not so much to simply preserve the status quo or to recapture the freedoms that entities have forsaken or given up, but to look to the future and assist entities in surviving, in keeping together whatever freedoms are possible to save, and altering the course of events as much as is possible, considering the force, the strength of the force that is moving to take away those freedoms.

U.S. Could Again Have Civil War

It is deeply concerned about those in the patriotic movement. There are a few giants: the entity Bo Gritz, William Cooper, and others who speak out with great courage to warn the masses, but the speaking out and warning is not likely to be enough unless the number of people contacted increases in an accelerated manner. It is more likely that the changes that will come, will come from other entities in positions of higher power within your government, within your Congress, within your military; those entities who do not accept totalitarianism and who want to preserve the Constitution and the rights of people as provided by the Constitution.

These will be the more powerful forces. If the freedoms are saved, these entities will need the support of all the masses. This Awareness indicates it does look as though the time will come when entities will need to make a choice, and the time may come when civil war breaks out in this country, much as it did in 1917 in Russia, and in that time, freedoms will be gained or lost, along with many lives.

This Awareness indicates that it is not likely to matter whether those who fight for freedom or fight for the New World Order have a zip-code at the end of their address or not.

*ED's Note: What Awareness said about some CAC members demanding no zip-codes on their newsletters addressed to them, is correct. CAC will do this for them, but first they are notified that under the present postal regulations, CAC can not put unzip-coded letters with our regular mailings, which would violate the postal rules regarding bulk mail. Vikki simply informs them that she will comply with their request, but their letters will have to go by First Class mail, and they will have to pay additional to cover this added cost.

EARTHQUAKES AND CHRISTOS' UMBRELLAS

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

There isn't any validity to this entity's suggestion is there, that this umbrella art display by Christos in California and in Japan is deliberately placed to mark the fault-lines, to initiate earthquakes?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is negative. There is no validity to this. It is but conjecture and paranoia.

WHY RIGHT-WING CONSERVATIVES HATE RUSSIA (Why Christianity is a Sick Religion as Promoted)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

I have noted a very curious thing about a number of these newsletters that for years have hammered away at the so-called "communist threat"; Donald McAlvany being one of many, that....

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in most cases, these are Christian oriented, and are promoting the Book of Revelation which is central to the fundamentalist Christian viewpoint and techniques for gaining converts. It is absolutely essential to these Christian doctrines that the Book of Revelation must come about as indicated, and that the threat of the antichrist, the actuality of hell and Satan and all the key players and stagings are in place in order to reach converts, for if these are not seen and if they are not available to the potential convert, the convert can't be easily persuaded that the fundamentalist Christian view of the world is accurate.

This Awareness indicates that Christianity as promoted by these entities would have a most difficult time surviving if there were no further threats, if there was no threat of an antichrist, or of a world takeover by some demonic being. Christianity has to have enemies in order to function, in order to scare the potential convert into the fold. It is likened unto herding sheep. You must tell the sheep about the wolf that is out there or the sheep will simply wander away and go to greener pastures.

This Awareness indicates that Christianity gains its adherents through fear and promises, by promising the most glorious reward of all and by threatening the most horrible pains and threats imaginable, and by describing the scenarios leading up to these two alternative extremes, and if you do not have these steps in between, the extremes become ludicrous. Therefore, they must convince people of the antichrist, of the Armageddon and of the imposition of a totalitarian government derived from a Beast who will mark entities and who will make them slaves unless they are eternally vigilant for Christ.

This Awareness indicates that many of those who promote economic newsletters of this type, many of those who have the rabid fear of communism, even while it is in its death throes, are actually trying to revive communism in order to have a human face for the demonic Satan, which must exist in order to give them the power to frighten their potential converts.

This Awareness indicates that there are enough enemies for mankind to fear without exaggerating or reviving the dead. This Awareness indicates that communism essentially, is dead; only a few flapping remnants remain here or there and they are in the process of dying. China is still ruled by a group of communists, mostly in their dying years. They try to pass on their ideologies to younger men, but these entities, when no longer controlled by the older order, are likely to bend and become less communistic.

Fascism Now a Greater Threat Than Communism

Cuba is undergoing changes that allow certain capitalistic expressions to enter into the culture. It will not be long before it too undergoes great change. There are but a few other communist countries and they are generally staying quiet at this time, trying not to be noticed, and they too will undergo change. Before the century is out, there will be greater freedom throughout the world, except perhaps from the effect of extreme right-wing organizations and those who lean toward the fascist element. These fascist elements are now a greater threat than communism. In fact, the New World Order, promoted in the 1930s by Adolf Hitler, was a fascist concept. This Awareness indicates that the New World Order has many of the same markings and elements. The question is: Will it be fascist in nature, or will there be some democratic potential wherein the majority of people have a strong influence in the affairs of government?

WHY ECONOMIC NEWSLETTERS APPEAL TO SOME QUESTIONER:

I wonder if there isn't economics involved too in most of these newsletters that have harangued against Russia all these years and who are refusing to accept its disintegration. Some of these like McAlvany's which is $95 for twelve issues; if he didn't have Russia to be against, there would be little use for his newsletter, from what I can see!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the economic newsletters appeal to people who have large amounts of money and investments, and people who have large amounts of money and investments generally tend to be more of the right-wing or fascist oriented, the conservative type. When you have no money, there is no need to be conservative. You can be radical. You can be leftist. When you have money, you want to be conservative, to hold on to your wealth, to hold on to your gains.

This Awareness indicates that in other words, the conservative person operates more out of fear than out of greed. The greed may be there, but the fear of losing what has been gained is even greater than the desire for more gain. Therefore, the right-winger generally tends to be more into saving money, and holding onto money and the fear of communism or socialism or anything that allows the government to take away from you that which you have gained.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, the newsletter that appeals to this conservative mentality is the newsletter that will get the subscription from the conservative mentality, and the conservative mentality has the money to pay for such newsletters. The radical leftist usually has no money, can't afford economic newsletters, and therefore, doesn't even bother to subscribe. The radical leftist wants the wealth shared evenly with him. Because he has nothing to share he would stand to gain.

The one who has something to share, doesn't want to share. He wants to hold on to it and to fight off those who would take it from him. Thus, the radical and the conservative, at odds with each other, become the pawns of those who would manipulate by fear or by greed.

QUESTIONER:

There's a classic story that the entity John D. Rockefeller in his heyday, during a speech was accosted by one of these left-wing radicals demanding that he share his wealth with the rest of the world. Rockefeller looked at the heckler for a moment, reached into his pocket, withdrew a dime and handed it to this entity and said: "Here, you sonofabitch is your share. Now get the hell out of here and quit heckling me!" I thought that was a pretty good example because he explained that if he divided his fortune equally among everybody in the world, everybody would get approximately ten cents.

Does Awareness have a closing message?

THE IMPORTANCE OF CHOOSING THE RIGHT DIRECTION COSMIC AWARENESS:

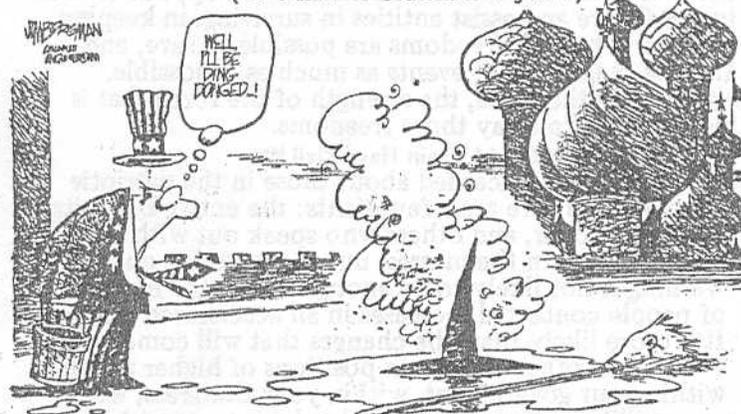

This Awareness indicates that there are many diverse types of consciousness on this plane. Each of them seems to be relatively comfortable and pleased in most cases with their state of consciousness, and this is good, so long as that state of consciousness does not harm others. There are some entities whose state of consciousness does not please them. They cannot stand their thoughts. They cannot stand their emotions. They are distraught about who they are, about what they are, and they wish to escape and be someone else, and this is not so good, for they could harm themselves or others.

This Awareness indicates that the entity who is confused about who he or she is may not be as bad off as are some entities who are smug in their self-esteem, but whose consciousness is polarized against others, for at least the entity who is confused is capable of change, is capable of choosing different sides, of evaluating and going either here or there, while the entity who is absolutely sure of himself, if wrong, is totally wrong and is unable to change from that wrong point of view.

This Awareness indicates that P.D. Ouspensky once spoke of how a person can develop a state of consciousness to become an expert at something. He gave the example of the entity who in choosing to be a robber, might discipline himself to sit along beside a trail for hours on end, waiting for someone to come by whom he can rob. This Awareness indicates the entity pointed out that for this robber to change from what he is, he must undo all that discipline and put it into some other direction, some other behavior, and this is most difficult.

The entity who is confused and does not have a sense of direction has potential of choosing a direction, and if the entity is also able to discern a meaningful and valuable direction, the entity can then begin disciplining self to move in that valuable direction which is discerned to be proper, and thus, the entity is far ahead of the one whose direction has been wrong, for the entity whose direction is wrong must first go into the state of confusion before discerning the right direction.
