THE SECRET OF

ALCHEMY — THE PHILOSOPHERS' STONE

HOW TO CREATE THE PHILOSOPHER'S STONE: THE SECRET OF ALCHEMY WHICH CAN TURN LEAD INTO GOLD OR AN ELIXIR OF LIFE WHICH REVERSES AGING

(Excerpt from a CAC General Reading, April 10, 1992)

QUESTION:

A question from A.J.G. in Columbus, Ohio. "In a previous reading, you told us what herbs were consumed by Lee Chen Yung in China, who was reported to have lived to be 256 years of age. The medieval English writer, Roger Bacon, wrote in the 13th Century AD of an Arab named Artephius, who Bacon said lived to be 1025 years of age at a time far later than the long-lived people listed in the Bible.

"I must say that I am very skeptical of this. If Bacon's report is true, this information would be in the Akashic Record. Is Bacon's report true?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity Roger Bacon as one who was an alchemist. An alchemist is capable of creating that which is known as the Philosopher's Stone, for turning lead into gold, and also for rejuvenating self. This Awareness indicates that the entity, in describing this Arab, described a fellow alchemist, whom he had knowledge of, and that this fellow alchemist did indeed live an enormously long life. It appears there is some exaggeration in terms of years of his life, or the claims of the entity.

This Awareness indicates that the Philosopher's Stone as that which rejuvenates and helps to restore youthful energies in the system. This Awareness indicates that it appears to have been a valid assertion on the part of Roger Bacon.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

He had a follow-up question: "If the answer is in the affirmative, what did he consume or do which caused him to live to such an extremely old age in times when the vast majority of people didn't even reach 50 years of age?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this has been given: the entity consumed parts of that which is known as the Philosopher's Stone. This Awareness indicates that this Philosopher's Stone is that which is described in many of the old alchemy books; that it has been written of in its creation through coded writings speaking of Fire, Air, Water and Sulfur, Quicksilver (Mercury) and Eagle's Wings. It has been described as coming from the First Matter (Prima Materia) and being made from the most abhorrent element there is, that which is hated by all human-kind, and as having been pierced by the dagger of the alchemist.

There are many different codes and symbolisms used to explain the secret approach to the alchemist's creation of the Philosopher's Stone. Once the Philosopher's Stone is developed, it serves as a kind of powder that can be put into the melted lead and its presence then turns that lead into gold, or it can be taken orally as a kind of elixir of life which turns the aged into a younger person.

This Awareness indicates that all this symbolism of the alchemists led many entities to experiment with elements of mercury, sulphur, etcetera, and eventually led to modern-day chemistry as it evolved out of alchemy. This Awareness indicates that there are dangers involved in the study of alchemy. There are also certain requirements in terms of one's motives and spirits. This

Paul Shockley, Interpreter

Awareness hesitates to explain the technique for creating the Philosopher's Stone because there are mistakes that can be made and entities are likely to risk those mistakes for purposes that are nothing more than greedy.

This Awareness indicates that entities playing with alchemy need to be extremely spiritual and avoid the greed aspects. It can turn against you. This Awareness indicates however, that it does appear that the time is right for some entities to become knowledgeable about this ancient science. This Awareness will give a short summary in plain English of the ways by which the Philosopher's Stone is made, and suggests that before anyone begins studying and making this Philosopher's Stone, that they turn to the books and symbolisms on alchemy and study these areas more thoroughly.

Cosmic Awareness Breaks the Secret Code for Entities

This Awareness is simply breaking the code for you to allow you to study those alchemy books in light of the code revealed. This Awareness indicates that It does not wish to get involved further in helping you to create your Philosopher's Stone after revealing this code. Your responsibilities in this action are those of your own.

The "First Matter"

This Awareness indicates that the First Matter for alchemist normally referred to as water, is that element known as urine. This Awareness indicates that the urine is taken at the time of the spring or fall, at the eclipse of the moon. This is often referred to in alchemy as the "slaying of Diana," Diana being the Goddess of the moon. This Awareness indicates that this is to be put into a cornerless jug, in other words a jug that is bulbous in shape, without any corners, so that the urine can flow without being caught in any corners.

The urine or First Matter, is sometimes described as Mercury and Sulfur; mercury because it flows in a liquid form, and sulfur because of the sulfur content in urine. This Awareness indicates that in this rounded bulbous bottle there needs to be a cork or seal, preferably a cork that can be put in after 40 days. The bulbous bottle with the urine in it is kept at room temperature approximately 80 degrees, or 75 degrees, relatively warm, during that 40 days.

After the 40 days, it may be capped with a cork, to continue fermentation. The fermentation that occurs during the first 40 days requires that you have it somewhere that can allow for the odor to escape without offending others. This Awareness suggests that this may be in a garage or barn or shed, someplace where it can be kept warm, such as in a bucket of sand that is on a hot water tank or some place that keeps the temperature up. A lightbulb in a box, after the sand has been heated may keep the box warm enough and may keep the bulb bottle warm enough.

The "Eagle's Wing"

This Awareness indicates that after the 40 days, the substance is corked, the cork put in and sealed with wax, dripping wax around the cork so that no air can enter or leave. This Awareness indicates that the temperature remains warm, but below body temperature, and time passes. After several months you will see a rainbow-like oil on top. This is referred to in the alchemical symbolism as the "Eagle's Wing." It is colorful in that the oil, when light strikes it, causes a rainbow effect so that there are colorful reflections on the oil that surfaces or floats to the top of the mixture.

This Awareness indicates during this time, the substance grows dark, almost black, and the Eagle's Wing, or the oil floating on top becomes more vivid. This Awareness indicates that as the year comes to a close, the oil begins to turn red in color, a more reddish color, and eventually, near the end of the year, it should become more or less dried out as a whitish colored powder.

Creating the "Starter"

This Awareness indicates that the white powder is the Philosopher's Stone, which then can become a product for creating more Philosopher's Stone by adding more urine and simply allowing it to ferment and evaporate. It works faster once it has a starter. Much like the starter in sourdough, it creates the starter for the more rapid creation of the Philosopher's Stone being repeatedly created.

This Awareness indicates that of course, the cork is removed after one year and new urine is added, and allowed to ferment and evaporate, creating still more Philosopher's Stone as it moves through the process. It does not become necessary to recap the bottle after the first year, but by simply adding to it, the mixture evaporates, leaving more residue as Philosopher's Stone.

This Awareness indicates that from this brief description, It suggests that entities wishing to study further should read some of the alchemy books available but not to become too hung up in those books for many of the alchemy books are written by entities who do know what they are talking about, unless these are from the 16th Century. Many of the modern-day writers are speculating and guessing, and the main information you seek should come from books they quote from the 16th Century, or books from alchemists such as Saint Germaine, or Roger Bacon.

This Awareness indicates that once the symbolism is understood, you will be able to gather more meaning from these alchemy books, but it is important not to talk too much to others about what you are doing and it is important to work and grow spiritually as you progress with your alchemy experiment.

This Awareness indicates the main reason for studying the alchemy books is to look for those symbols so that you can convey the information symbolically to other alchemists and not have to talk in plain English, in areas and in situations that would be undesirable to you.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

The urine used, I assume is that of the alchemist.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative.

This Awareness indicates that once the first alchemy stone or powder, the white powder, it is sometimes called the Philosopher's Stone; once this is made, additional urine can be added to the bottle, and the substance can be heated enough to allow it to evaporate at a more accelerated rate; however, it should never be raised above body temperature.

QUESTION:

While we're on this subject, we had a letter from K.K., Indianapolis, Indiana, which we checked out with Sam, who said his motives were sincere, and I'd like to read this and ask if the information just given would be sufficient for this entity to work with. He writes:

"I was pleasantly surprised to see the mention that some information has been 'interpreted' by Ralph Duby on the subjects of alchemy and metallurgy. My spiritual studies, meditations, contemplations, writings, etc. lead me to believe that some of the principles of Nature (human, etc.) also applied to the mineral kingdom. And I began serious laboratory work in spiritual chemistry (alchemy) beginning in early 1988. The progress towards accomplishing the Magnum Opus has been steady and satisfying. And I feel confident in accomplishing the work.

Over the years I have dreamt of the possibilities! To help C.A.C., the Aquarian church, and other humanitarian activities. I believe these are strong possibilities to come in the future. I have thought of writing to ask Awareness for insight to help me with the work, but so far I have gone it 'alone'.

So, while I was first inspired to write in order to ask for the information that Ralph Duby 'interpreted' years ago that pertain to the subjects, at this point perhaps we should ask Awareness about my situation specifically, to see if any help may be offered.

If you would like to ask in general that would be great. Consequently I could compile a short list of (not too technical) questions that would help me. The art of Alchemy is in the 'domain' of Natural Philosophy, so the philosophical insights, at the very least, would be very interesting to the readers, I believe."

And that basically was his request and I'd like to ask Awareness if the information just given would be satisfactory to this entity?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this as being sufficient for the entity to create that which is known as the Philosopher's Stone; that there are many entities who attempt to deal with alchemy using metals; that this is not the proper understanding of the science. They can have many rewards in that direction also in terms of the action of chemistry.

Proof of Alchemy in British Museum

This Awareness reminds entities there is a coin in the British Museum that is half lead and half gold. It is divided, not pressed together or made of two pieces of metal, but it is divided as one piece of metal, half of which is gold in nature, the other half as lead. These markings on the coin suggest that it was lead to begin with, and that the gold simply was a transmutation that occurred to the coin.

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there was a time when the disclosure of information relating to alchemy would have been certain death to entities disclosing such information, but because alchemy as a science has more or less died out, is no longer seen as valid, and the books on the subject are so confused with symbolism, speculation, and double-talk, it is at a stage now where there are no alchemists around to protect their sacred science, and therefore, information on the subject is only available when given in plain English. The rest is nothing but confusion.

This Awareness indicates however, that It does wish entities to understand the symbolism of alchemy relates to far more than turning lead into gold. It relates to turning the philosopher, the alchemist, also into a golden being, a being of high spiritual nature. Without the spiritual qualities, it is unlikely that the Philosopher's Stone will ever have truly high quality.

The quality of the individual helps to go into the making of the Philosopher's Stone. It is related to the Law of Sympathetic Vibration: that whatever the alchemist is in his own vibration, that vibration resonates in the crystal of the Philosopher's Stone, and thus, the Philosopher's Stone is of a same frequency as the philosopher or alchemist. This Awareness indicates that as the Philosopher's Stone is created to develop a high spiritual frequency and then is ingested by the philosopher himself, the alchemist; that frequency of a spiritual level then enters into the physical body to become a catalyst for altering the physical cells to that same high frequency and it is in that manner that the rejuvenating effects take place.

This Awareness suggest the Interpreter be brought from trance.

The Law of Gratitude is given.

Many alchemists were cruelly tortured to reveal the secrets of their magic formulas to the church.

ED's Note: I believe this "Law of Sympathetic Vibration" is a new Cosmic Law. (There is the Law of Vibration, but that is different. Please add this to your booklet of Laws and Precepts of Cosmic Awareness.

Also, anyone successful in making the Philosopher's Stone, we would like to hear from you. The idea that taking the liquid can add 500 years or so to one's life has possibilities!

POPULAR SCIENCE MAGAZINE EXPOSES AREA 51

(Excerpts from a CAC General Reading, February 24, 1994)

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates the current magazine (March, 1994) Popular Science as carrying a cover story on the Area 51 super-secret Air Force base in Nevada. This Awareness has spoken of this area previously. This Awareness indicates that this as the place where various secret experiments using alien technology, where the Stealth bomber, the U2 and other technologies have been researched.

This Awareness indicates that it is also an area in which many UFOs have been sighted, wherein large numbers of civilians have sat on certain areas, on hilltops, and watched the early morning experiments of UFOs coming from the ground upward, and these sightings being broadcast over the Bill Knapp television news series on UFOs.

This Awareness indicates that this area as that which now being featured in Popular Science, has become a famous secret Air Force base with so much publicity that it is no longer "secret". This Awareness indicates that in addition, the article indicates that the Air Force is seeking an additional 4000 acres in order to keep the public back even further, so that the base would be made larger and the civilian population kept out of the area.

This Awareness indicates there are two additional bits of information that are not available in the article, because it is too recent: one being that certain entities recognizing the 4000 additional acres sought by the Air Force would include a large number of Joshua trees, which are an endangered species, and wherein this could result in these trees being destroyed through military activities such as bombings or aerial practices and so forth.

Many of these entities concerned about these Joshua trees spoke with local farmers and residents of the area surrounding the base and advised them to lease minerals on that acreage which the Air Force intended to purchase, and at $8.00 per acre, many of these entities leased the mineral rights on those properties, which allows them the right to go onto the properties, even if the properties are owned by the Air Force.

Strange Convoys Leaving Area 51 Enmasse

This Awareness indicates at this stage, because some of these lessors are from outside the state of Nevada, it would require an act of Congress to deny them their right to enter onto the property to study or to explore their mineral rights on these properties. Therefore, the Air Force will, in order to keep civilians off the property, will need to seek and get Congress to pass a Bill refusing them their rights on these properties.

This Awareness indicates that an additional situation has occurred since this article was released; this being that many hundreds of truck-loads daily are being moved out of the Area 51 to an area on or near White Sands, New Mexico; this in the general location of Las Cruces. It appears that much of the base is now being moved from its super-secret location to another location in New Mexico.

This appears to be a movement that is occurring suddenly and rapidly through the use of hundreds of truck-loads daily of supplies and equipment to set up a new base of operations. This Awareness indicates that it is not precisely clear as to why this is occurring, except that perhaps the the secrecy cover of the area in Nevada, having been exposed too greatly in the last year, has led them to seek a new place or new location for further secret experiences, or perhaps to link them more closely with the Dulce alien base in Dulce, New Mexico.

This Awareness indicates this being not a great distance from the new location. White Sands being in the lower part of New Mexico, and Dulce being in the upper part of New Mexico. This Awareness indicates that it is not seen as necessarily a key in the movement, but because of the near locations, it may have some bearing on the decision and also the fact that the White Sands, New Mexico base is also a relatively secure place, with some areas being Top Secret, other areas being secret.

White Sands can provide a new location for greater cover of various secret activities. This Awareness indicates that this is simply an up-date relating to information this Awareness has given in previous messages relating to the UFO/government connections in regard to the Area 51 location and activities. It is not of any great significance other than as an addendum to previous information.

Tesla Weather Devices at Christmas Valley

This Awareness indicates that along similar lines of updating information, this Awareness has spoken of Christmas Valley as being an area in which certain new technologies are used, whereby weather patterns have been tested whereby a split in the jet stream occurs in that general area, when certain technology is turned on. This technology as that which is based on Tesla devices and technologies whereby certain energies go Northerly, others move toward the South, creating a kind of split in the energy movement and weather patterns.

This Awareness indicates that this particular activity as that which has affected weather patterns in the United States for several years; approximately a decade, or close to a decade, and has had some effect on some of the storms that have occurred.

Doomsday Device Now in Alaska

This Awareness indicates that another experiment that has come out of this is soon to be promoted in Alaska. This is using an advanced and enlarged project using the same technology. It is that which sends a sonic vibration through a type of satellite dish toward the atmosphere, creating a frequency that causes the atmosphere above to expand to a point of bursting and imploding upon itself in a way that creates a kind of extreme blue light, heat in the atmosphere, pushing the stratosphere outward.

This Awareness indicates that this essentially is what Tesla described as a death ray, or Doomsday mechanism. It has been tested in a small way in the Christmas Valley experiments. If used in Alaska, it could be most destructive to the planet, and extremely harmful to weather patterns at the very least.

This Awareness indicates that it is Top Secret activity or project and therefore, this Awareness will say no more about this project, but this Awareness suggests entities interested should keep their eyes and ears opened for any articles or mention of this project in news and scientific journals in the future.

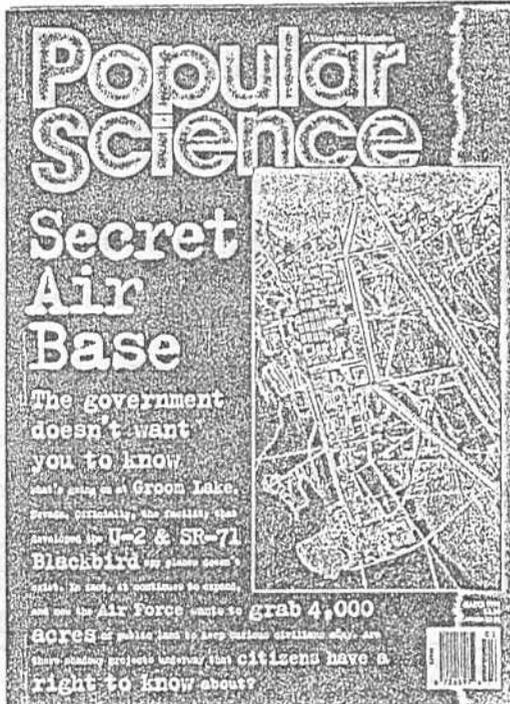

This Awareness indicates the Russians have had access to this same information based on Tesla technology, and have used certain parts of the technology for changing weather patterns around the globe.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

This is all part of the scenario Awareness gave about preparing the earth for the Reptilians, is it not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is not necessarily related to that so much as an attempt to further improve or further find ways of controlling masses through ultra-weaponry. The military is always seeking new and more powerful weapons of destruction. This Awareness indicates that this kind of ultimate or Doomsday destruction device is as if the military is tapping the Absolute Power and assumes it has control of Absolute power and will be able to be discerning enough so as to use it properly.

The danger of course, is that not every entity who has such power is wise enough not to use it. Also it is invented and therefore, the very creation of certain types of power becomes a threat to all humanity. This Awareness indicates that there was a statement some time back by a Russian leader that Russia already had a Doomsday weapon.

This Awareness indicates that this type of technology is that to which the entity referred, and of course the United States wants to catch up and have equal or greater Doomsday capabilities. This Awareness indicates of course if either uses such technology the gain of oneupsmanship by these countries, by these entities, would be over. When it reaches that level that one uses such a technology, then there is no winner of the game.

WHY TV IS RELEASING MORE UFO INFORMATION (More on the "X-Files" and Other TV Series)

QUESTION:

This Popular Science article Awareness mentioned is just another of the more recent information being put out on Area 51 and UFOs in particular, particularly through the Fox Network programs X-File, and the other night, there was a one hour program called Encounters, I believe it was, which revealed an awful lot of information that had been Top Secret. Is there a battle or something going on in the government that one side is trying to close up all access to Area 51 and UFO information, and the other is releasing it through various ways; is this still going on?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates there has been, in the Summer and Fall of '93, a struggle within the MJ-12 group in which the more powerful majority in that group attempted to clean out or rid themselves of those who wanted the public to be more informed, and therefore, they got rid of some of these people, but in the process, it stimulated others outside the group, working with these people, to begin releasing information or seeing to it that information was released to the public which would keep the interest alive and keep the public probing into these matters.

This Awareness indicates that X-File programs which appeared to be at the beginning, a very powerful revealing-type of program, was really designed to replace the series of Sightings. Sightings was getting too close to the heart and truth of things and by putting X-File on and making it appear that it would be even better and more revealing, Sightings was replaced without too much controversy or too many complaints from the public.

This Awareness indicates that only the first two or three programs of X-File were of any real substance or significance, and the X-File became more an more fictional in appearance, with the stories becoming more like something of a science-fiction program.

The X-File stories are not actually based on FBI records; they are more fiction than fact. This Awareness indicates the purpose being to remove a program that was giving facts, and substitute something different for the public so that those who were seeking facts would not object, and gradually might lose interest in the whole area through the new program as it became less and less factual and less and less interesting, in terms of the UFO phenomenon.

This Awareness indicates it is more an entertainment than an educational program as was Sightings. This Awareness indicates however, that the recent program called

6. Encounters that spoke of the incidents that were covered up, as that which was factual in most of its material and evaluations.

New UFO Data Base Available on Computer Net

This Awareness indicates there is also a computerized program on UFOs; it appears the name is something like "UFO", or UFO History, or something of that nature. The programs list the various sightings that have been reported over the years, so that entities can have at their fingertips, information on UFO sightings, the locations, the places where sightings have occurred.

You can, while using the computer, find certain parameters in which to study those sightings such as whether there were abductions involved, whether there were crashes, the locations of the crashes; all sorts of particular parameters that you list in order to find certain types of UFO reports. This Awareness indicates this can be quite a beneficial program for those who are serious about researching these matters; however, having said that, this Awareness wishes to warn entities that the people involved in the program, while sincere, are not as expert in the field as would be desirable.

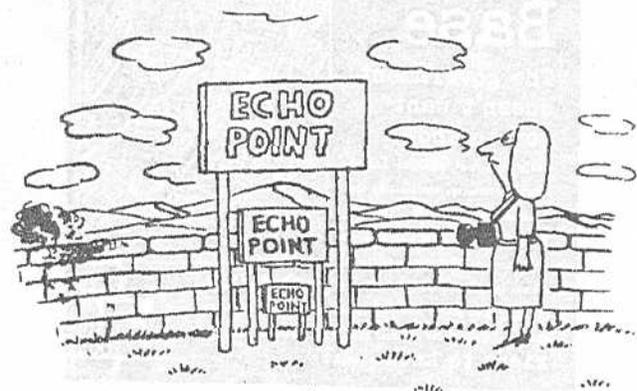

The Roswell Incident is Strangely Omitted from Program

For example, the most classic and famous case of UFO crash,—the Roswell incident,—is not even listed in this data base of UFO sightings and reports. The entities will probably include it later in the upgrade, but in the present program it is not listed, and this is rather strange since it is perhaps the most well-known of UFO crashes, the most well-documented and most controversial since the incident in approximately 1950 or thereabouts was first reported and was written up in newspapers around the world, and then later denied and classed not as an alien ship, but as a weather balloon that had fallen.

This Awareness indicates that of course, the description of mettalic debris that could not be bent, even by a sledge-hammer, yet which was very thin, and light as aluminum, does not fit the description of a weather balloon. This Awareness indicates that in recent years, several witnesses of the event, who were there at the time, have also come forward and denied that it was a weather balloon and have claimed to have actually seen the aliens, and in one case, to have talked with or communicated with one of the aliens.

The reports from these witnesses are consistent, even though they were not closely associated in the years between. This Awareness indicates that the omission of this Roswell incident from the UFO data base program is very strange, and if it is not included in the next upgrade, one would have to assume that this is deliberate.

This Awareness indicates that otherwise, it appears to be a very good program for helping entities to research the many different reports of UFO incidents, sightings, and crashes as well as abductions that have been reported.

ALL THOSE INANE TABLOID STORIES--A SMOKECREEN?
("Was It Tonya who cut him short, was it Bobbit who cut the ice?")

QUESTION:

In a "PS" to a letter to me, Tom K. writes the following: "Isn't it interesting what the controlled press is doing? With the trial of the Branch Davidians beginning, which could expose the extreme violations of the ATF and CIA in the Waco debacle to the whole American public, were it given full coverage, we have spread instead across the television, the Bobbit mutilation trial, the Mendez mistrial, and the projected conspiracy trial for injuring the Olympic skater. Could this be a more blatant avoidance and cover-up? Awareness has awakened us to the machinations of the controlled press and here we have a perfect example! All the more thanks to Awareness and to your newsletters for opening our eyes!"

My question: Is there something that is being hidden from the public through a smoke-screen of all this tabloid-type stories that is going on constantly?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be in the affirmative, in some ways. This Awareness indicates however, that it is also in part the nature of the beast, the nature of the media, to feed the masses information on that which appears to be capable of selling papers or magazines or television interest.

This Awareness indicates that it seems the media's concern is not in terms of priority or value of information so much as what is marketable and profitable to market. This Awareness indicates that it does not appear to be as much a conspiracy to hide information in the news in this instance as it appears to be an effort to find what the public is most fascinated with, and in this case the public appears to be most fascinated with the conflicts of the skaters in their competition and in the other trials that have been placed in the news because of their bizarre and unusual circumstances.

This Awareness indicates that it is pretty much explained in a country-western type of song that is found on many stations wherein the singer complains that he has not been able to get the news. He laments: "I can't find the news!" and then begins to ask: "Was it Tonya who cut him short? Was it Bobbitt who cut the ice?" He can't seem to remember who is doing what to whom and wants to get the latest news. It is as though he has missed out on several episodes of soap operas and is very frustrated that he can't get the news.

The song of course, is a parody on the type of news that is being broadcast, showing how entities have to get the news because of what's going on, and how they are fascinated by the information, but this entity lamenting because he is so confused by what is happening. This Awareness indicates of course, he is also showing the absurdity of what is news. It sounds more like a soap opera buff trying to find out about the latest soap opera story-lines.

This Awareness indicates that it appears the Branch Davidian trial is coming into an area now where these diversions have passed and the focus can again be put on the defense for these entities. Whether or not the news will focus on these events, especially on the defense of these entities and what those defenses are, will be of great help in informing entities as to whether the media wants the public to witness the defense or whether the media will ignore the defense and try to find other news so that these entities can simply be railroaded into some kind of unjust or unfair judgment without the public being alerted or being aware of all the details.

This Awareness indicates there is really no excuse not to cover this trial at this time for most of the other situations have been resolved. Even if the public was more interested in those other situations there is little interest left in them at this time to prevent the news from covering the Waco trial.

THAT RECENT CALIFORNIA EARTHQUAKE
(More Later. It Wasn't 'The Big One')

QUESTION:

Tom K. had another question in his letter. He writes: "Today, Southern California has experienced a major earthquake. This is much like the earthquake here in October, 1989. My intuition says that this was not the work of those who would create earthquakes, but rather, the earth adjusting its stresses. Would Awareness assess the cause of this earthquake and what lies ahead in California's earth movements? Is the Hayward Fault in northern California due to move in the future to contribute additional destruction to California? What are the vulnerable faults in California and what does Awareness see as potential earth movements in these areas, and does this relate to those international elements who seek the dysfunction of the United States?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the earthquake fault was not a full release and that there is yet more to come, although there was enough of a release of the stress that it will be put off for awhile and that the next quake will not be as big as it would have been had this one not occurred.

This Awareness indicates that this Interpreter is not well suited for the attunement to the energies relating to picking up on earthquakes as the Interpreter David Worchester for example, and while this Awareness can send subtle energies and impulses to this Interpreter, if the Interpreter is not capable of fully and properly assessing those energies, he will not read the energies properly and cannot give the proper information.

This Awareness indicates that there have been attempts in the past for this Awareness to convey information relating to earthquakes and the Interpreter simply is not suitable for that kind of information. This Awareness indicates that It does not wish to get precise or give precise dates through this Interpreter because the Interpreter does not appear to be capable of reading these subtle energies correctly.

This Awareness indicates however, in a general sense, the big quake that has been predicted previously is still to come. This recent quake was small in comparison. This Awareness does not see this earthquake as occurring any time in the immediate future, but becoming more likely in the next few years with the possibility of some potential for another small quake such as that which occurred in January.

This Awareness indicates that for those who lived through this quake, it may not have seemed small, but in comparison to that which could occur in the future, it was relatively small in comparison. This Awareness indicates that there was also a small quake in the area of Illinois; this in the four to five point range. This occurred recently. It is possible that more quakes in this area may also occur.

People have written in about a dozen questions after Awareness stated that Ross Perot had sold us out. A typical one here is J.J. He writes: "Awareness has stated that Ross Perot has sold us out. Can we have more detailed information about Ross Perot and his movement, and how was the sell-out accomplished? Second question: Are there any organizations in the United States that one can support and back in order to help elect people into the government and/or future presidents that will help to work for the good of the people?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear this statement that "Ross Perot sold out" is precisely what this Awareness indicated. It appears that the entity Ross Perot simply did not follow through on his efforts and allowed things to deteriorate rather than giving it his best shot.

This Awareness indicates that the entity appears to have wavered when he should have stood firm, and in wavering, it let his public image falter so that he did not maintain a sense of dignity, and in losing his sense of dignity he could not follow through on his potential as a leader. He became a kind of joke to many entities.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that the masses will eventually awaken to the reality of what is occurring, but it is very slow and the masses would rather believe anything than believe they are being defrauded as a people by their leaders. The masses do not want to believe there is a conspiracy to enslave them in a New World Order.

If and when the masses ever awaken, and it does appear it will happen after they have truly been enslaved; if and when they do awaken, they will react boldly and with great vigor and throw off the yoke of oppression, but it appears they will endure and gamble away freedom until it becomes overwhelmingly obvious that they have lost out to an elite cunning adversary and that the governments themselves have become the tyrants of their lives.

Once this is realized, the people will rebel, because they have tasted freedom long enough to know what it is, and will not accept tyranny as a permanent way of life. Right now, they are willing to sell out freedoms to gain security, but once they have security and realize they have lost their freedoms this will reverse and they will seek to throw off their chains of security in order to regain their freedom, even at the loss of all security if necessary.

At this time, most people are willing to be like children and let the governments and the authorities take care of them, trusting the authorities so they do not have to make decisions on their own or take responsibility for themselves, but that will change and as they awaken to the realities, they will gradually begin to throw off the bondage that has been placed on them in the name of security.

New World Order Comes Slowly But Will be Short-Lived

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the New World Order, when it comes, even as it comes quietly, secretly, without much fanfare, when it comes and sets itself up as a control over the lives of people, will last for a short time, but it will soon be discarded.

Entities will not like its effect and will bring in changes, so that greater choice and freedom will eventually return, particularly through this country, perhaps first through this country, and then gradually through other countries of the world, so that those who would oppress the masses with their secret methods, their powerful tools of manipulation, will find themselves no longer welcome, no longer benefited and no longer safe on this planet.

This Awareness indicates the masses will then re-establish a New World Order, not based on the controls and fear that are presently envisioned by those manipulating the New World Order of present time upon the masses.

THE VERDICT ON THE BRANCH DAVIDIAN MURDERS AT WACO, TEXAS

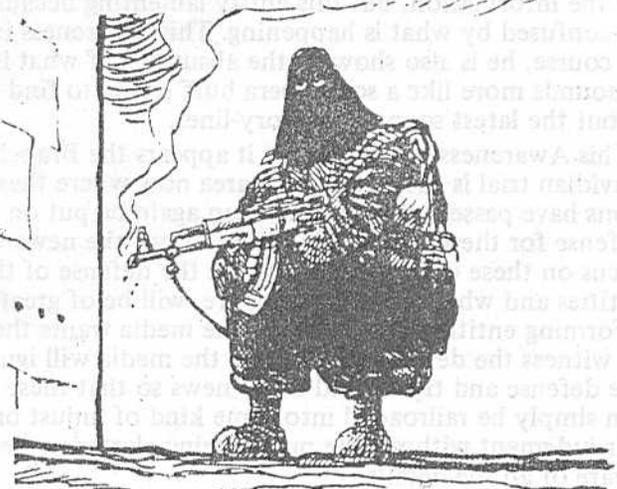

(CAC General Reading, February 26, 1994)

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates the verdicts handed down in the Branch Davidian trial today as that which did not meet the expectations of the government attorneys and which essentially sent a message to the government that the use of raw force in this kind of action is a violation of the law and is not tolerated in the courts of law at this time.

This Awareness indicates that because of this verdict and the verdict in the Randy Weaver case, entities can expect that another look at the plans of the government in terms of entering people's homes in the future and using raw force to intimidate and to confiscate weapons is likely to be revised, or at least stalled until the climate in this country is more suitable. In other words, it is a favorable step in putting off or altering many of the plans that have been discussed previously by this Awareness and others in regard to the potential takeover of the country through raw force in entering into entities' homes, to confiscate weapons or to arrest people without abiding by the laws of the land.

This Awareness indicates that of course it does not mean it can't happen again, nor does it undo the injustice that may have befallen many innocent entities in the situations that triggered these trials, but at least it creates a message to these trained forces and the leaders behind them that it is not acceptable in this country, at this time.

NEW LIGHT ON THE JONESTOWN MURDERS (Bags of Heroin Inside Corpses Sent Home)

QUESTION:

JJ in New York has a question about the Jonestown tragedy. Awareness gave some information on this years ago. Her question is: "William Bramley says 700 of the 900 dead at Jonestown died of gunshot or strangulation, not poison. Who killed these people and why, and why was Leo Ryan killed? Was Richard Sawyer the CIA operative involved? And who was Jim Jones and what was he really doing there?"

In a CAC reading, December 5th, 1979, I believe, Awareness did not mention any of this. I can quote from The Gods of Eden if Awareness requests her reference.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that you read the more pertinent parts.

QUESTIONER READS:

On November 18, 1978, a tragedy occurred in the South American nation of Guyana. More than 900 men, women, and children were mysteriously murdered in an isolated religious commune known as the "People's Temple" ("Jonestown"). A large vat of drink containing poison was found at the scene, leading to an initial assumption that the deaths were caused by suicide. The victims' bodies were discovered lying side by side in neat rows as though the people had drunk the poison and had then lain down together and died. However, when autopsies were performed on the victims, it was discovered that 700 of the 900 people had died of gunshot and strangulation, not poison. They had not committed suicide at all; they were brutally mass murdered. It is very likely that those who drank the poison either did so involuntarily or did not know what they were drinking. The only people to escape the tragedy were not present when the 900 victims were murdered. There are no known witnesses to the entire event. The question is: who murdered the inhabitants of Jonestown?

On September 27, 1980, investigative journalist Jack Anderson ran a column about the Jonestown incident. One newspaper headlined the column, "CIA Involved in Jonestown Massacre?" Mr. Anderson cites a tape recording made of People's Temple leader, Jim Jones, in which Jones referred to a man named Dwyer. According to Mr. Anderson, investigators have concluded that this was Richard Dwyer, deputy chief of the U.S. mission to Guyana. Dwyer had accompanied U.S. Representative Leo Ryan to the Jonestown encampment on that ill-fated day. Leo Ryan became one of the murder victims, but Richard Dwyer somehow was not affected and even claimed later that the reference to him by Jim Jones was "mistaken." Richard Dwyer, as it turns out, has been listed in the East German publication, "Who's Who in the CIA," as a long-time CIA agent. Dwyer had reportedly begun his career with the spy agency in 1959. According to Mr. Anderson's column, Dwyer replied "no comment" when asked if he was a CIA agent.

After the massacre, investigators found at Jonestown large quantities of weapons and drugs. The drugs included powerful psychotropics: Quaaludes, Valium, Demerol and Thorazine. Another drug found at Jonestown was chloral hydrate, which had been used in the CIA's secret mind control program known as "MK ULTRA." Was Jonestown a CIA mind control experiment which recruited subjects, especially poorer black people, through the guise of religion? The Jonestown massacre was triggered when a U.S. Congressman, Leo Ryan, flew to Guyana to investigate Jonestown personally after he had failed to obtain information about it from the

9. State Department. Leo Ryan never lived to tell what he discovered and nearly every last man, woman, and child was silenced. The massacre occurred during a time when many American newspapers were carrying stories about CIA mind-control experiments—experiments which the CIA claimed that it was no longer conducting. Did the CIA slaughter 900 people to cover up the fact that it was still conducting such experiments on a massive scale in a small jungle compound in Guyana?

Additional questions to be researched are: what is the true history of People's Temple prior to Jonestown? What is Jim Jones' background? Who supported him and his early "church"?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that much of this has already been discussed by this Awareness in previous readings. The primary purpose of the massacre was related to a problem that had occurred because of the abrupt ending of the Vietnam war. The Golden Triangle in south-east Asia had been sending heroin home to the United States' streets in the bodies of the soldiers who were killed in the Vietnam war.

The bodies were opened and packets of heroin put in, and the bodies were flown home to the United States. The coroners in certain areas, such as in the area of San Diego, were also involved in this action so that when the bodies were delivered, the heroin would be removed and then moved on to its destination.

Richard Nixon Wanted a Police State Set Up

Much of this had to do with CIA activities and control of the transportation of heroin in this manner and part of the purpose was to create drugs on the streets and more crime so that then president Nixon could ask for tighter controls and set up a police state. This was in much of his speeches during the time and much of the rhetoric on the political front had to do with creating more police controls in the United States because of the drug problems.

This Awareness indicates that once the Vietnam war had ended, the influx of heroin into the streets also began to dry up, and the idea came to massacre a large number of people and to bring in heroin through these people, much as had been done through the bodies of soldiers being brought back from the Vietnam war.

This Awareness indicates that the bodies of the Jonestown massacred people were brought in on transport planes and held for several days before being released to their next of kin. During that period of the several days, the heroin was removed from their bodies and the bodies then were sent on to be buried and released to the next of kin.

This Awareness indicates that James Jones was a CIA operative involved in helping to bring numbers of people to that area wherein the plan would be initiated and those entities who would take the poison voluntarily were generally encouraged to do so. Those who refused were shot.

This Awareness indicates that entities who put up a resistance at all were simply shot. The word got around that the Kool-Aid was laced with poison and most of the entities did not wish to drink the substance, and therefore, the majority of the victims ended up being shot.

This Awareness indicates that the Congressman Ryan was informed by some of the people there who saw him as a person who might be able to help them, knowing that the whole situation there was a kind of deteriorating situation. Many of the people by the time of his arrival were seeking ways to get away and once this entity heard the story of what was going on, he could not be allowed to return to the United States and became part of the situation.

CIA Drops Jim Jones From Plane--No Parachute

The death of a Senator would be a good excuse to send agents in which could trigger the entire suicide program. This Awareness indicates that more or less, this was the way it followed. This Awareness indicates that if entities have followed the Dr. Beter tape in regard to his version of what happened in the situation, they will also remember that he indicated that Jim Jones did not die at the site, but was taken aboard a CIA airplane and later dropped off from the plane without a parachute and died in a foreign country. The entity suggested the country as being a Middle East country; not Israel, but near Israel. This Awareness indicates that entities may wish to review this further; that essentially this is an overall synopsis of the events at that time.

This Awareness indicates that it was a situation in which the heroin was ready for delivery, but there was no way to properly deliver it because the borders were too tight for such a large amount of heroin to be delivered into the United States and this program simply grew out of the earlier programs of flying heroin through the bodies of dead soldiers.

This Awareness indicates in the situation of David Koresh, this entity also was a CIA operative, working to set up the scenario whereby the agents could raid the Branch Davidian complex and could test their rights and abilities to enter into a complex with the blessing of the American people by creating slanderous claims against the entities inside and by creating the character assassination of the leaders in giving the public the feeling that the leaders should be caught and punished for their crime or for their perversions.

Main Purpose to Degrade Protestant Christianity

You will recall that many claims of perverse activity were part of the character assassination. This Awareness indicates that the real purpose was to stop the Branch Davidian people from speaking out against the New World Order and the conspiracies within government that were part of a history of this group.

This Awareness indicates that was the major reason, along with a general defamation of Christianity in showing the insanity of certain types of Christians. In Europe, that message became the dominant message from this affair, that Christianity in the United States is next to insanity; that there are some very weird people in the United States who are promoting Christianity and who have antisocial behavior.

This Awareness indicates that the repeated actions against certain individuals such as Jim Bakker and David Koresh and others involved in and under the name of Christianity, have turned most of the average people in Europe into thinking that the American Protestant movement is led by people who are lacking in balanced judgment or are criminal at heart, or are in the action of scamming people, so that eventually, the Protestant movement of Christianity can be degraded enough that when later Protestants oppose the New World Order, as many of these groups will, they will not have much sympathy from others in the world, as they will be seen as kooky or dangerous anyway.

This Awareness indicates it is the Protestant groups of the extreme fundamentalist type who are the most outspoken against the New World Order, seeing it as a threat to freedoms and particularly to freedoms of religion. This Awareness indicates that those in the New World Order have considerable apprehension about the Fundamentalists in the United States and where they will fit or what they will do when the New World Order is implemented and coerced upon the masses of this country.

WHAT "CULT" DO THEY PLAN TO HIT NEXT? (On Hit List: Elizabeth Clare Prophet's Group)

QUESTION:

In the, I believe it was the November, 1993 issue of "Criminal Politics", a newsletter put out by MacAlvany (sp), I think is his name, he said that they had confirmed reports that the government's next hit on a so-called cult was to be the Montana stronghold of Elizabeth Clare Prophet. After this verdict tonight, does Awareness see that plan still in motion?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the government agencies are very much afraid of any organized group having weapons and that there is little concern for their legal rights to have weapons. There is more of a concern that they are armed and have a belief in their teachings that they need to be able to defend themselves, even against their own government, if necessary.

This Awareness indicates of course the Church Triumphant, the group in Montana, the Summit Lighthouse: these entities never implied they were anti-government. Rather, they promoted messages that there would be a double cross from Russia and it could lead to war, whereby they would need to defend themselves against communists.

This Awareness indicates that this was being expressed even during the collapse of communism. This Awareness indicates that the government did not see this as being the reason for the arming of this group and saw the group as building underground bunkers and arming themselves, and any group that has underground bunkers, a fortress, and is armed, is not going to be likely to accept UN domination or domination by foreign troops brought into the country at a time when the New World Order is being set up, without being a threat to that foreign army and its troops.

Therefore, the consideration of doing something about the Summit Lighthouse group to disarm them or to force them into a confrontation that will allow government agencies to enter and arrest or destroy these entities; this Awareness indicates that it is not seen clearly whether these entities will cooperate, will surrender, will come out, will give up their bunkers and their ammunition because of some government decree or order. It is not seen at this time whether the government will give up its plan to raid the complex or to demand surrender of weapons or be raided.

Therefore, this Awareness suggests that there is only one thing that can be done at this time, and that is to wait and see. It may be that the ruling today will have a discouraging effect on the government plan. This Awareness indicates when It says "the government plan," it is not truly a plan of the United States government so much as a plan of certain forces within the government that are promoting New World Order policies which are behind this plan.

This Awareness indicates that in reality, the people are the government, but there are two governments: There is that government of the people as defined by the U.S. Constitution, and there is that federal government that sits in Washington which is often run by entities whose allegiance is to the internationalists through the Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateralists groups, et cetera.

This Awareness indicates that whether this will occur in Montana in the coming months or whether it will be put off so that people forget about the Branch Davidian activity is yet to be seen. There is nothing etched in stone that says the plan must be carried out. It is more likely that there was a waiting to see what happened in regard to the Waco incident and since the Waco incident did not satisfy or work to the government agencies involved, they may rethink any plans along the same line, and perhaps put off that effort of disarming these entities until a later time, perhaps after the rest of the country has been disarmed and new laws have been put into effect denying the right of people to bear arms.

A Stroke of a Pen Could Create Martial Law

This Awareness indicates that this could occur at the stroke of a pen when the Constitution is discarded under martial law, which could occur any day that it is decided there will be no major backlash from the masses of people. This Awareness indicates that as soon as the people are disarmed, the martial law that has been in existence in this country since Lincoln will be publicly exposed and people will realize they no longer can use Constitutional claims, freedoms, rights, and so forth, as a defense, and that they have no right to bear arms, they have no right to congregate, they have no freedom of speech, they have no rights in the courts of law to a fair trial by their peers.

They have no rights to prevent their homes from being searched. This Awareness indicates that the major block to martial law being announced is that there are some 70 million gun owners. Many of these entities being upright citizens and business people who do not consider it the business of government to enter into their homes, to take their weapons, and therefore, they are a danger to anyone who would violate the rights as given by the Constitution.

In other words, the Federal government does not want the people to know yet that they are under martial law, or that they are not protected by the Constitution for fear that if they were to discover this, it could start a civil war directed at the Federal government from this army of 70 million people, for there are only 3 million armed people in the military and police force in this country at this time.

DYING WOMAN CREATES TOXIC STENCH

QUESTION:

There's a bizarre story making the news these days about a woman in California who was dying, and emitted such a stench that it put nurses and doctors around her into a hospital. I'll read a little of this article from the New York Times called "Dying Woman's Toxic Fumes."

The New York Times

A doctor and two nurses who were apparently poisoned by fumes from a dying woman in a strange medical episode Saturday night are recovering, but no one knows yet what caused their symptoms.

The doctor and nurses became ill while treating a patient in the emergency room of Riverside General Hospital in Riverside, Calif. Medical experts are baffled over how the patient, Gloria Ramirez of Riverside, appears to have emitted toxic fumes.

Ramirez, who was 31, was being treated for ovarian cancer. She arrived at the hospital semi-conscious after her fiance called an ambulance, and then she went into cardiac arrest.

The apparent poisoning occurred when Dr. Julie Gorchinski and two nurses, Sally Balderas and Susan Kane, drew blood from Ramirez. Dr. Humberto Ochoa, the attending physician in the emergency room, told The Press-Enterprise of Riverside County that Ramirez's blood contained white crystals and that she emitted fumes that smelled like ammonia. The symptoms suffered by the three medical workers resembled poisoning by a deadly class of chemicals, organophosphates.

The hospital evacuated its emergency room at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, treating patients in the parking lot while hazardous material handlers dressed in protective clothing tested the air in the emergency room for dangerous gases. Ramirez's body was sealed in an airtight coffin and removed.

"We're being very cautious about the human aspect of who is going to have to deal with these remains and how to deal with these remains," the Riverside County deputy coroner, Alendra Birdsall, told the newspaper.

Gorchinski, who is being treated at Loma Linda Medical Center, "is feeling much better," said Dick Shaefer, a spokesman for the hospital. Shaefer said Gorchinski initially had muscle spasms, was short of breath and dizzy. Doctors treated her with Pralidoxine, an antidote for organophosphate poisoning, but they are still uncertain what poisoned her.

The two nurses are also much improved after suffering symptoms similar to those of Gorchinski. But the mystery remains. What made these people ill?

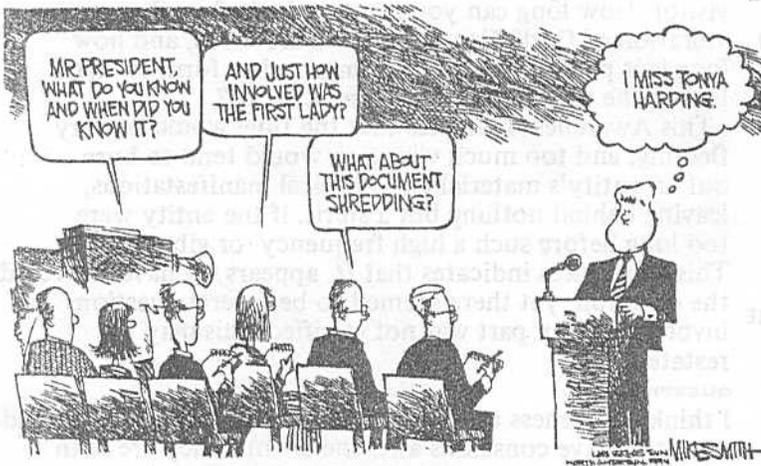

That's the main gist of the article. And today, the coroner evidently had the autopsy under very strict conditions with robots and things, and the TV news announced that they couldn't discover anything strange and the mystery still remains. Perhaps Awareness could enlighten us on what's going on there?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is a situation in which a complex of various chemicals have been given to this entity; some of which came through her own action, and some which were given in treatment of her health condition. There is also some indication the entity had absorbed some insecticide accidentally. This Awareness indicates that the combination of chemicals created a situation within her bloodstream that was latent in terms of being ready to become toxic.

When sufficient oxygen became present and the action of extracting blood from the entity and that blood hitting the oxygen, created a gas which affected those around, the gas being very much like that of cyanide. This Awareness indicates that it affected those entities around and also the entity herself, making her more ill and eventually leading to her own death as complications between her health condition and this particular gas gave her greater difficulties even than others in her immediate vicinity.

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be the situation, but that by the time the autopsy was performed, much of this evidence or the effects of chemicals involved had depleted through the gas escaping from the entity, from her blood, to the point where it was not detected by the methods used.

The Kiss of Death in Europe

This Awareness indicates that there is another article in one of the recent tabloids relating to a young girl in her twenties in Europe who has kissed approximately 6 men in her lifetime, all of whom died very shortly afterwards. This Awareness indicates that this appears to be related to this kind of chemical reaction of multi-combinations of chemicals within an entity's body that can have a negative effect so that toxins as a kind of gas can emit from an entity, causing near immediate death.

This Awareness indicates it is extremely rare for such a thing to happen. In some cases there are also reports of entities who catch fire suddenly, burning from the inside out. This is another example of a chemical reaction in the body, wherein certain chemicals become just the right flux to cause a chemical reaction, an explosion in a sense, wherein the body begins to chemically react and burn from within.

This Awareness indicates it happens in laboratories, in chemical laboratories, when chemicals are improperly mixed, and it can happen to a body that is likened unto a test-tube holding a multitude of various chemicals. It is generally not intentional, when it occurs in a human body, and most entities can go throughout their lifetime without such volatile chemical reactions.

Most chemical reactions in a body are much more subtle and affect the health or general energy levels of the entity.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So this Ramirez lady somehow ingested this insecticide or other chemicals? Could this have been a suicide attempt?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This does not appear to be the case. It appears that it was more of a kind of accident: a combination of medical medications, of treatment such as might occur with chemo-therapy, or some other medical treatment and a small ingestion of some insecticide that the entity accidentally got into her system

WAS WM. GUY CARR MURDERED FOR SATAN BOOK?

QUESTION:

A question from J.K. in Detroit. He writes: "Cosmic Awareness, inside William Guy Carr's book Pawns in the Game, 1962, was a notice that said: "Satan, Prince of this World" is Commander Carr's last book. Here, armed with a lifetime of experience, and study, the author penetrates the darkest recesses of the world-wide conspiracy and makes a startling discovery. Satan, Prince of this World is the culmination of William Guy Carr's life work and his legacy. When published, it could reverse the tides against the forces of evil that directs the world revolutionary movement."

The statement "when published" indicates that this book was not yet published, JK writes, but had been completed and was in the process of being published.

"Cosmic Awareness said in issue number 408 (92-16) that "Commander Guy Carr, who wrote Pawns in the Game was killed for writing this book." Please tell us if Carr's last book, Satan, Prince of the World was ever published, or was William Guy Carr murdered to prevent this book from being published?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that the book was published, except in very few limited editions, privately, almost secretly released to a few of his

12. closest associates. That there appear to be copies of the book available somewhere. It does not appear that it is made public anywhere at this time.

It does appear that the entity was killed for writing this book, and for his previous actions in writing Pawns in the Game and Red Fog Over America; that the entity was seen as a threat for releasing this kind of information publicly. This Awareness indicates however, there is information on the Satanic Hierarchy and movement that is available from other sources.

This Awareness indicates that it is a fragile source and therefore, this Awareness does not wish to release this in publication, but entities can help locate such work and make such work available under certain conditions through certain individuals. This Awareness indicates that It will assist the questioner in finding the source of this information.

DO THE ELOHIM LIVE IN SACH KAHN ?

QUESTION:

A question from W.P.F. in New York that ties in with yesterday's information on Sach Kahn. There are several questions, and I'll read his statement:

"Do the Elohim reside in Sach Kahn, or where? Would an entity have conscious awareness while they are with the Elohim? How long approximately would an entity stay with the Elohim?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that those from Sach Kahn essentially are the Elohim; this in reference to the entities who reside in that area of frequency. This Awareness indicates that the Sach Kahn Elohim can move into other frequencies while still maintaining their own Divinity, but they do not tend to do this as it is extremely difficult for them to hold their frequency without affecting the lower frequencies and those around them.

They generally tend to let things be. In other words, it would be likened unto a light being, an angel, walking around in hell or purgatory, wherein their frequencies would affect the frequencies of that negative place or vibration and they generally do not tend to interfere with the vibrations that entities have created for themselves or have become accustomed to or have entered into voluntarily, which is the case of purgatory or hell.

This Awareness indicates that rather, they will allow themselves to go down a few notches in terms of frequencies on occasion, or they will go to some of the lower frequencies when there is a special mission involved, to raise those frequencies.

This Awareness indicates that in terms of how long one could stand in the presence of such a being, the time duration would depend upon the frequency of the visitor. How long can you stand to be before the vibration of God? For the Elohim are Gods, and how long is it possible for an entity in physical form to stand before the vibrations of a Divine Creator?

This Awareness indicates that the time would be very fleeting, and too much vibration would tend to burn out an entity's material and physical manifestations, leaving behind nothing but a spirit, if the entity were too long before such a high frequency or vibration. This Awareness indicates that It appears to have answered the question, yet there seemed to be several questions involved. If any part was not clarified, this may be restated.

QUESTIONER:

I think Awareness covered it, except one question: "Would an entity have conscious awareness while they are with the Elohim?"

This Awareness indicates the entity would have Super-^{13.}conscious Awareness. It would be an Ultra Consciousness.

AN IDEA ON VISUALIZING WEALTH (But Keep the Skeptic Out of It)

WHERE DID THE NAVAHO'S CREATION STORY COME FROM? (More on Atlantis and the Middle Earth)

QUESTION:

A question from R.K., St. Cloud, Minnesota. "In the book The Eighth Tower by John Keel, he expressed the belief that many Atlanteans went deep underground and survived, when the last of the continent sunk. If so, they would be continuing and developing more of the genetic experiments they were doing before.

"The Navaho Indians have their creation story where they come up from underground through a narrow tunnel at a "place of emergence." During the early times, certain "gods" come periodically to observe, to instruct, and at one time, the gods tell them they are going to improve the "next ones" to give them better minds so they would not be stupid.

"These "gods" have devices to accomplish miracles, which to me sounds like high technology. Would these stories have any connection with each other and with truth? Please ask Awareness about this. Thank you," she says.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the Richard Shaver stories also appear to have a connection to this scenario, wherein he speaks of Deros, which are the demented extraterrestrial robots, or those short Greys that have become demented over many many years of living underground after having been abandoned and left on the earth in those underground territories.

And he speaks of Teros, who are a more highly evolved type of human, who have nearly been wiped out by the Deros, by an ever-ongoing war with these Deros that occurs underground. This Awareness indicates that some of those entities from Atlantis who went underground, traveling through underground networks and tunnels, have moved to different regions of the earth and a few of these entities became the so-called gods of the Navaho people.

The Origin of the Red Race

This Awareness indicates that many of the entities, most of the true Atlanteans were of the Red race, and many of these entities as Teros underground, traveled to different parts of the world, particularly throughout the Western hemisphere, and emerged, and in their emergence, these entities created tribes in an around their particular place of emergence, or they may have migrated to other places on the surface.

This Awareness indicates that many of the tribes of American Indians were from Atlantis and of the same origin, but because they emerged, either through different outlets or at different times, they would end up being separate from each other and take on their own separate names for their tribe. Thus, you may have one tribe moving toward the north of an outlet, another tribe moving south, and the two tribes would think they were of different origin, though they may have similar stories as to their origin.

This Awareness indicates occasionally these entities, seeing their brethren, would think of them as foreign tribes and they might even see them as hostile tribes, not knowing they were related from historical background in Atlantis. This Awareness indicates that it only takes a few entities to start a tribe that over a period of several hundred years could grow quite large, and thus you have the many different tribes in the United States. Some of these have their origin in Atlantis.

QUESTION:

A question from F.S., Madison, Wisconsin. "I came up with an idea myself which is taking the information from Cosmic Awareness and taking it one step further. When I do a visualization for receiving money or healing with White Light, I try to make myself believe that 144 other people are doing it with me. But then, why not imagine a trillion people doing it with me? I wanted to share my idea with you, and it's okay for you to do whatever you want with it, like asking Cosmic Awareness about it, or just using it yourself, sharing it or forgetting about it."

Could Awareness comment on her idea?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if it works, use it; It sees no harm in this kind of visualization. This Awareness is not going to guarantee the results of this kind of visualization, but whatever it takes for your subconscious mind to become convinced will go a great distance in helping you to manifest your wishes.

This Awareness wishes to make one further comment in regard to manifesting through visualization. It is also a comment that applies to prayer. When an entity prays or asks or seeks some kind of blessing or healing or other type of benefit from such prayers or visualizations, it is extremely important to make sure that no skeptics are involved in your efforts, for one skeptic can destroy the efforts of several hundred people in the act of visualizing.

This Awareness indicates that this is of utmost importance and it is extremely difficult to keep skeptics out of the action. This Awareness suggests therefore; you may be better off energizing your manifestation in total secrecy than in trying to get others involved, unless you are absolutely sure that the skeptics do not become aware of or active in your project and that all participants are totally in harmony with the effort.

WHY ARE WE MAPPING THE MOON ?

QUESTION:

There's been a few articles lately about a new space program called Clementine. It's longer name is Deep Space Program Science Experimenter, and it went into deep space recently and it includes the planned lunar mapping and the asteroid fly-by, and they claim this is a technology mission, not a scientific mission, and B.B. of Hemet, California asks: "Please ask Awareness why we are mapping the moon at this time?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the main reason is because they have the capability, and because they have been there and it is territory that the earth claims as part of its own environment. This Awareness indicates that by mapping various places on the moon, more precise descriptions and agreements in regard to any focus or territorial discussion can be made easier to follow.

You cannot describe something that is not defined. The lack of definition creates the lack of clear communication in regard to something. By defining and clarifying, by mapping and naming, more of the moon can be defined, discussed, and focused on in a general way by various people knowing what area is being discussed or focused upon.

HOW TO DEAL WITH CHRONIC FATIGUE SYNDROME

(More on the Evils of Candida Yeast and Reducing It)

The Use of Nystatin and Candistat

QUESTION:

A question from C.L. in Delaware. I think Awareness has covered this, but if not, maybe Its got some more information. He writes: "I got a call today from someone who's had Chronic Fatigue Syndrome since the Seventies: exhaustion, depression, headaches, gastrointestinal disorders, reduced immunity. It sounds like a nightmare. Any help would be appreciated, I'm sure."

Does Awareness have any new information on this Chronic Fatigue Syndrome?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are many causes of that which has been diagnosed as Chronic Fatigue Syndrome; there is no absolute clear diagnosis of the problem, or it can be caused by many different things. This Awareness indicates that there is some evidence that the polio vaccines given in sugar-cubes in the Fifties has a long-term effect of leading to Chronic Fatigue Syndrome or symptoms similar to that, depending on who and how it is diagnosed.

This Awareness indicates the most common cause of Chronic Fatigue Syndrome that is analyzed or diagnosed as Chronic Fatigue Syndrome, is Candida yeast, wherein entities who have had too much antibiotics and similar types of medications have their immune system damaged by having the good flora in their body, the good bacteria destroyed by the antibiotics, and as the yeast, the Candida grows, after such antibiotic treatments so that it becomes excessive in the body, entities may not realize the effect of the Candida or even know that they have Candida until it continues to spread further and further throughout their body.

Candida the Main Cause of Rashes and Dandruff

It can get into the blood-stream itself and then spread throughout the body, creating cultures. These are likened unto metropolitan cities of yeast inside the body. When it grows enough, the body can be totally saturated with yeast and it will begin to have noticeable effects. It will break out through the skin, creating rashes, or between the toes, or even under the nails, creating white yeasty-type of skin.

This Awareness indicates that it can create dandruff on the scalp, and flakes on the face or various regions of the body, wherein the skin becomes very flaky. This Awareness indicates that the effects that are diagnosed as Chronic Fatigue Syndrome are the feelings of being extra tired all the time and yet, this is yeast that is causing the loss of energy.

An entity may crave sugar. This Awareness indicates the best thing an entity can do to break the cycle of increasing Candida is to take Nystatin or some similar type of yeast destroyer so that it breaks the pattern of yeast networking throughout the body into smaller pieces, killing much of the yeast so that cultures become smaller, and once they become smaller, energy levels will begin to increase.

This Awareness indicates that entities should not simply stop there. They can then switch from Nystatin to something that is more focused, such as Candistat which goes after the yeast directly and not just in a broad sense, but in a focused way, and the Candistat will zero in on whatever is left of the yeast in the body, so that gradually and over a period of several months, most of the yeast will be removed from the system.

In other words, the definition that occurs from the mapping makes communication about those various places much more easy among the scientists and those who have an interest in the moon. This Awareness indicates of course, this relates to military interests, to potential future mining interests and to masses' interests or to any future base that might be put upon the moon, or to scientists whose interest is in looking at the moon or for any kind of space watching activity which relates to visits from extraterrestrials on the moon or from anything having to do with the lunar surface, including asteroid crashes or events that might occur on the moon at some time or another.

This Awareness indicates however, that the main reasons for this present mapping is that it is a project that can be done and it is only recently that the technology has been available to allow for a good precise mapping of the moon.

WILL THE "K-FACTOR" PREVENT HYPERTENSION?

(More on the Evils in Using Beta-Blockers)

QUESTION:

There's a book out called The High Blood Pressure Solution-Natural Prevention and Cure with the K-Factor, by Richard D. Moore, M.D. (No publisher mentioned). And the blurb says: "High blood pressure--the 'silent killer' and the number one threat to health in the United States--is entirely preventable by maintaining the proper ratio of potassium to sodium in the diet--the K factor--blood pressure is regulated at the cellular level. Dr. Moore's program can greatly diminish or even eradicate the effects of hypertension."

Does Awareness see that information as being valid?

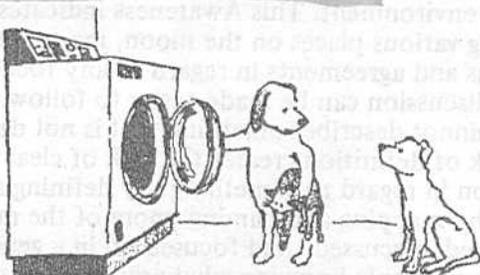

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness sees this as being most helpful in controlling the blood pressure. That it does not necessarily follow that entities will keep the right ratio, but by being aware of the importance of keeping the right ratio between potassium and sodium, an entity can help to keep the blood pressure balanced.

This Awareness indicates that it is much better to do this than to use beta-blockers which could be most dangerous over a long period of time in other side-effect. The side-effects of the beta-blockers include possible impotence and liver difficulties which in turn can cause further problems in the system.

Therefore, by finding some other way to reduce the blood pressure or to balance the blood pressure, entities can expect a longer and healthier life. This Awareness indicates that bananas being a good source of potassium can be very beneficial if entities assume or find or believe they are receiving too much sodium, and most entities in your society who rely heavily on commercialized food, foods that have already been prepared for eating do receive too much sodium.

Most foods in cans and in TV dinners or in restaurants are laden with too much salt or sodium.

"Nonsense. As long as it's done ethically, animal testing is an invaluable scientific tool."

This Awareness indicates that at such time, entities' energy should return, if it is a problem relating to yeast. In most cases, this is the real culprit. This Awareness indicates that the yeast factor can damage the immune system so much that entities will be subject to colds, to every bug that comes along, and the body will be unable to fight off these things quickly, but once the yeast is destroyed, energies will return and the body's immune system will repair itself very quickly.

Yeast-Feeding Foods to Avoid

This Awareness indicates that entities having yeast or suspecting they have yeast need to avoid sweets and avoid any kind of mold or fungus or yeast, such as the yeast from foods, and many of the fruits such as grapes, apples, peaches et cetera, will have yeast on the skins and this simply becomes food for the Candida yeast within the body. Mushrooms are fungus and become food for Candida. Sugars, white sugar, brown sugar, powdered sugar, honeys: all are foods for yeast. Vinegar. Anything that is fermented such as vinegar, cheese; these things become food for yeast. Wine also is fermented, and beer, and these contribute to yeast growth.

Antibiotics the Worst Culprit

This Awareness indicates that the worst culprit of course is antibiotics. If entities can take instead Echinacea, or some kind of herb that goes after the virus or bacteria, or if they can strengthen the immune system and let the body fight off these virus and bacteria, they will be much better off than taking antibiotics, but if a problem becomes too serious, too dangerous, and the body cannot fight these things off, then it becomes necessary to take antibiotics.

The idea is to keep antibiotics to a minimum. Most doctors prescribe antibiotics for everything. Even if you suspect you have a cold, they will give you antibiotics. If you think you might be coming down with a cold, they will give you antibiotics. This Awareness suggests that you want to keep this to a minimum and resist the temptation to indulge in sweets all the time, or fermented foods, or mold, or fungus.

Coated Tongue a Sign of Candida

This Awareness indicates that if you stick your tongue out in the mornings and see it coated with white, you probably have a considerable amount of yeast in your system. If your ears itch, if your nose itches, there is a good likelihood that yeast is playing a major part in causing the itch. If your scalp itches, if your fingers and hands and skin itches quite frequently, it may be yeast causing this itch.

If you have rashes, this may be yeast. Even if it is diagnosed as eczema, it is more likely to be yeast. This Awareness indicates there are other things also that have been mis-diagnosed as Chronic Fatigue Syndrome. It is simply a name thrown out to describe tiredness, and there are many things that can cause one to become tired.

A Program for Cleansing the Liver

If one has a sluggish liver, for having had too much alcohol or too much sugar or fatty foods for too long, then the entity might consider cleaning the liver. There are recipes in Dr. Christopher's herbal books about liver cleansers, using certain herbs. There are benefits for cleaning the liver simply by going through a time period of avoiding sugars, fats and foods that are high in starch or high in sugar, fat and oils.

This Awareness indicates that green vegetables being a major part of one's diet, can help cleanse the liver and this can help reduce fatigue. This Awareness indicates if you have a blood-sugar shortage, wherein you are hypoglycemic and your blood-sugar gets too low, you may experience fatigue.

If you are low on iron, you may become anemic and experience fatigue. This Awareness indicates if your adrenals are depleted, it may lead you to experience fatigue. Adrenals get depleted if you endure stress for too long. This Awareness indicates the Goodship carries a product of herbal combination for strengthening the adrenals and this can help in overcoming adrenaline fatigue.

Alcohol, Coffee, Caffeine and Drugs

This Awareness indicates that if you do not have enough Vitamin B1, you can feel tired. The B complex vitamins can give you energy, if you have been short of these various B vitamins. This Awareness indicates if you have over-indulged in stimulants for too long, too much coffee for too long, or too much stimulation from various types of drugs such as caffeine or alcohol or any other types of drugs; this can cause the body to perform excessively beyond its normal condition or optimum level, and result in a fatigue, a need for rest and recuperation, and this excessive use of drug stimulants can be a cause for fatigue.

This Awareness indicates again however, the major cause for that which is diagnosed as Chronic Fatigue, is yeast.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

Is bread and pasta also a food for Candida?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in most cases, bread contains yeast, and is made from baker's yeast, and feeds Candida. The pasta has no yeast in it, and therefore, is not of the same nature. It can be eaten with your various sauces. It could be good to avoid any cheese sauces because cheese has yeast from its fermentation.

This Awareness indicates that the tomato sauces for pasta would be suitable, but you would need to avoid mushrooms, because they are a form of fungus and this feeds yeast. This Awareness indicates that if you are using Nystatin as a destroyer of yeast, one can afford to be a little bit lax in terms of allowing small amounts of sugar or the occasional use of mushrooms over a period of the month or two that it will take for Nystatin to kill off the cultures, but when you begin compromising a little bit it often leads to excessive compromise.

When to Use and Stop Using Caprylic Acid (Candistat)

This Awareness indicates therefore, it may be best for some entities not to compromise at all, not to allow any sugar in their diet or any of those fermented or fungus-type foods, nor to allow any mold or yeast in their foods. This Awareness indicates that other entities may find that an occasional slice of bread or an occasional dish with mushrooms in it, or a little bit of sugar in something once in awhile will not harm their efforts to rid themselves of yeast.

It is important however, not to let a little compromise turn into a big compromise. The combination of carefully watching one's diet and environment while at the same time using Nystatin to kill the yeast in the body and then, when it appears to be eradicated to a considerable degree, switch to those substances such as Candistat, which is a form of Caprylic acid.

This Awareness indicates that this zeros in on yeast alone and begins to destroy yeast and it can when all yeast is gone, begin to cause certain types of pain in the stomach. This would mean that you no longer have any yeast in your stomach, and the Caprylic acid is turning now against the stomach lining.

Using Caprylic Acid (Nystatin)

Once you feel any pain, you should stop using the Caprylic acid and consider yourself yeast free. This Awareness indicates normally, it will take about one or two months on Nystatin and perhaps several months thereafter, even 6 months on Candistat, but there are exceptions to this. This Awareness suggests that after a month of Nystatin, if you no longer have itching, no longer have a craving for sugar, if you no longer have a tendency to cough frequently, no longer have the white coat on your tongue, you may have succeeded in getting rid of most of the culture of Candida.

This Awareness indicates then you may switch to Candistat. It may take as much as two months on the Nystatin before this stage is reached, but once you shift to the Candistat or Caprylic acid, the focus then is more directly on the destruction of whatever yeast particles or cells are still floating in the body. This Awareness indicates you do not start with Caprylic acid because it is too slow in destroying the Candida. It would take up to a year of effort and diet to get as far in destroying the Candida as a month or two on Nystatin.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, you use Nystatin for a month or two, then go to the Caprylic acid and the careful diet. Once you start using the Caprylic acid, it would be good to be very strict with yourself in terms of diet, avoiding sugars, cheeses, fermented foods, molds and fungus, and also keep your environment clean in terms of any mold, for even if you breathe the moldy air, you are taking in the spores and this can feed the Candida further.

Candida Causes Allergies and Wind-Passing

This Awareness indicates the Candida and mold and such can cause a weakened immune system to become allergic to these things. Many of the allergies that you may think you have will be removed, when Candida is diminished in your system. This Awareness indicates that Candida causes many different types of illness, including asthma, obesity, flatulence, high blood pressure, insomnia, eczema, excessive colds.

Candida Probably the Worst Disease in America Today

This Awareness indicates that most of the people in the United States and many of the people throughout the world have excessive Candida in their system. It is perhaps the worst disease in America, causing other types of diseases that are being treated for their symptoms without Candida being treated at all, so that even if the symptoms are cleared from the diseases, the Candida will bring it back again.

AIDS and Cancer Patients All Have Candida

This Awareness indicates that the weakened immune system also is a side effect of Candida. This Awareness indicates there are no AIDS patients who don't have Candida. And most cancer patients have Candida, and the immune system for these entities is extremely weak and cannot fight off these diseases because the Candida is so powerful and has weakened the immune system so much that the disease is simply an outgrowth of a body that is being eaten alive by yeast.

This Awareness indicates there are many entities with HIV positive diagnosis who seem to have no problem with AIDS. Much of this is because they do not have Candida. There are many entities who have AIDS who seem to be not deteriorating. Much of this is because they have no problem with Candida. There are others who are deteriorating with Candida who appear to have other diseases that are destroying the immune system and destroying various organs of the body.

This Awareness indicates that it is a much more serious condition than people even are willing to imagine and

16. it is prevalent throughout the United States, whereby over 90% of the people have excessive Candida problems. Anyone who has had antibiotics within the past three years probably has Candida problems.

This Awareness indicates anyone who eats too much sugar is likely to have Candida problems.

WILL "AQUA-FLORA" HOMEOPATHIC CURE CANDIDA?

QUESTION:

There's a product I saw advertised in the health food magazines called "Aqua Flora"—Candida Albicans' homeopathic formula. It says the ingredients are Candida Albicans, 30c, preserved with sodium benzoate, potassium sorbate in purified water. The suggested dosage is one ounce, two tablespoons mixed with two ounces of water daily, taken early in the morning or on an empty stomach if preferred or as directed by a physician, and you shake it very well. Does Awareness see this product, this homeopathic formula being of any benefit?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this disease is not affected in any great way by the principle of homeopathy. The homeopathy products do not appear to help diminish the Candida yeast in a system. The body does not throw up an attack on Candida because a miniscule amount of Candida is added. It simply doesn't appear to work homeopathically.

This Awareness indicates it could be effective on babies, or small children, but it is not likely to be of any real benefit to adults.

WHILE MONEY IS KING: LEARN TO FEND FOR YOURSELF

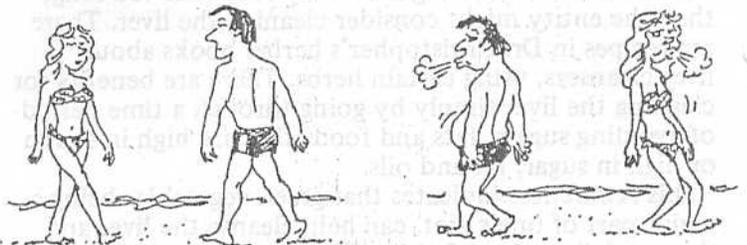

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there are still so many areas of the human condition that need to be researched and addressed. It appears that the bottom line of most human affairs by those who have the ability to research and focus on important human conditions, appears to be the money factor. Therefore entities cannot expect any real breakthrough in any of the more important aspects of human existence except on rare occasions.

This Awareness indicates that if the attention of these people who have the ability, the financing, the education, would turn their attention to trying to make this a better world, the changes could occur within three to five years, wherein most of the diseases that entities suffer from, most of the misery of health diseases, social diseases and the problems that affect humanity, would be alleviated by at least 50% and more likely by 70%.

This Awareness indicates however, that as long as there are leaders who are more concerned with making money off of the misery of the masses, the likelihood for any real change is not very promising. Therefore, entities must learn what they can to alleviate their own problems and not to rely on those leaders whose profit motive guides them as greater than their concern for the welfare of their patients or subjects.

The Law of Gratitude is given. ***

QUESTION:

2/22/94

Last month Awareness gave information on Russia and particularly Vladamir Zhirinovsky. One of our readers, B.B. in California subscribes to a newsletter out of Switzerland called "Julian Snyder's Private Letter," and it must really be good because they charge $600 for a two year subscription.

Anyway, in the January 18th, 1994 issue it makes a statement that I'd like to ask Awareness to comment on: "The Swedish Secret Service has told the CIA that Boris Yeltsin is "dangerously ill" with cirrhosis of the liver. The mayor of St. Petersburg (formerly Leningrad), Anatoli Sobtschak, has openly said that the Liberal Democratic Party of Vladimir Zhirinovsky was organized and financed by the KGB in 1989 on orders from Mikhail Gorbachev to provide token opposition to the communist party, opposition that they could control. Zhirinovsky's number two man, Alexander Wedenkin, former security officer for the Communist Party, has told journalists in Germany that the KGB and the Communist Party made off with party funds—estimated at more than $20 billion—when the party was symbolically abolished in 1990 (later relegalized). Said Wedenkin: "The KGB got richer than the Rockefellers in less than six months."

Would Awareness comment on that information?

Julian Snyder's Private Letter, PO Box 70
7500 St. Moritz, Switzerland

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is correct; that the garnering of that large amount of money creates a hidden government capable of rapid growth and expansion. This Awareness indicates that there is a great danger in the potential for what could occur in Russia in the event that the reforms are not helped quick enough to create a stability among the people.

This Awareness indicates it appears to be almost too late at this time to expect Yeltsin to actually reach his goals of creating a democratic Russia because of so much backlash and so little assistance given to him. The dream was strong among the masses, but the dream needed more assistance than mere cheers and hope.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto a lack of energy from those who could have helped, and a prolongation of the misery from incompetence so that the deterioration of life-support systems in Russia has created a background for revolution, and a new communist resurgence.

This Awareness indicates that there are many in this country, in the United States and in the Western world in general, who were more pleased with having an arch-enemy in Russia because they could raise taxes and raise money and gain great wealth, more wealth through having a common enemy and they could control the masses more easily when there is a common enemy and a potential threat, and this appears to be part of the situation that has allowed the Russian stagnation to continue, even when there was seen a willingness in Russia for democratic change.

Very little support being given to these people, even in terms of advisory help, has allowed the situation to continue to erode so much that the time is ripe for further reversal and resurgence of a communist influence to rise from the ashes of the old.

This Awareness indicates that with failing health, the President of Russia's hope of continuing a democratic government will be almost certainly doomed to failure. If the entity's health can stay together and certain help, either from within Russia or from outside of Russia is forthcoming to encourage the democratic growth, there is still some hope for continued development of closer relationship between Russia and the Western world.

THE CIA MOLE CAPER: ANY CONNECTION?

Otherwise, it appears that the communist specter will again rise and the Cold War will become new again.

QUESTION:

Is there any relationship to that and the current story in the paper, about a CIA officer, a counter-intelligence officer and his wife were charged with turning over Top Secret documents to the Soviet Union and later to Russia in what they described as one of the most damaging espionage cases in years, and Mr. Clinton is demanding swift action, including the possible recall of Russian officials? Is there a connection here? It seems like these stories, these things are being released now to create an unfriendly atmosphere between the United States and Russia.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears to be focusing on Cold War concerns in a fresh light, and the purpose appears to be to help stimulate that old mentality that causes entities to reflect back on the conflicts with Russia over the past decades, so that when things begin to sour further, people will not be too surprised and it will be relatively easy to resume the hostility between the two countries and there can even be arguments that "They were always spying on us, even when we were trying to have a good relationship with that!"

This Awareness indicates it appears to be a situation in which, likened unto two quarreling lovers who have separated for a long period of time and who now begin to come back together to make up, to become friends, are influenced by some outside force, by having the outside force call up memories of some of the difficulties that went on during the separation and those separation events can be made into new issues for the entities to quarrel about and such quarrels can be enhanced by other forms of conditions and conditioning to re-establish the need for further separation and conflict.

WILL MARKET CRASH IF YELTSIN RETIRES?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There's a couple of other items of interest in this Julian Snyder newsletter dated January 18th. I'd like to ask Awareness. He says: "All it would take now to drive the leaders of the Western world into a panic and put stock markets on the floor and commodities sky-high, would be for Yeltsin to retire suddenly, "for reasons of health" and call a new presidential election for the summer. Could it happen? Answer: It's going to happen!"

Does Awareness see that happening?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that It does not see this as being absolute; It does see this as a strong potential. It sees this as potentially planned and possibly implemented. It appears there is a plan in this direction; that Yeltsin is not entirely sold on the action and is not fully cooperative at this time, but with further pressure put upon him, which is quite likely, it becomes an even more likely scenario. This Awareness would rank this approximately 65 percent probable, at this time.

WILL MARKET COLLAPSE THIS JUNE?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Speaking of stock markets, several members have written in asking me to ask Awareness, that some psychic source has evidently told them that the United States stock market is going to collapse, I believe in June of this year, and I was wondering if maybe these psychics were picking up on this Yeltsin thing which would collapse the market, if this information is true.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is seen as a possible trigger for such a collapse. This Awareness suggests that the timing of June is not unlikely; it is not seen that this is absolute. This Awareness sees the potential for continued growth throughout most of '94, but that with the stock market rising to such heights it is very dangerous that a collapse is imminent.

To be on the safe side, one should prepare for a June collapse and hope that things hold together longer. This Awareness indicates that there are many forces at work: the Japanese/U.S. confrontation in regard to trade as another factor that could send the stock market tail-spinning.

The Japanese have a considerable amount of money invested in the United States, even money helping to prop up the value of the dollar. If this were to be suddenly withdrawn do to anger or other reasons relating to the trade barriers or suggested trade barriers, this could also send the stock market into a tail-spin.

This Awareness indicates the elite planners for the New World Order of course would likely plan for an economic collapse at some point during the Clinton administration in order to set the stage for the New World Order to emerge from the ashes of such an economic collapse, and a logical time would be to have it occur early enough in his administration so that a recovery of the economy could be expected before the next election so long as Clinton is cooperative with these elitists.

A VERY POSSIBLE SCENARIO IN RUSSIA

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

One other thing I'd like to read from this newsletter. After it said: "Could it happen? Answer: It's going to happen!..." "The Russian economic reform movement is clinically dead. Yeltsin's new parliament is more "hardline" than the one he had to call out the tanks to get rid of and Yeltsin, according to Peter Scholl-Latour, one of Germany's most respected journalists, is a "weak Tsar." He has the power to push through any kind of reform he wants. The new Russian democracy is actually a validated dictatorship. The parliament has no real power. It cannot nominate or approve the appointment of ministers and military commanders, Yeltsin can veto any law it passes and he can dissolve the parliament once again and call for new elections anytime he feels like it. However, as Scholl-Latour says, he hasn't got the personal strength and energy to do it and will use Zhirinovskiy's election victory as an excuse to do as little as possible. He already has told Bill Clinton in Moscow that while he would continue on the path of economic reform, he will not engage in "shock therapy". Clinton responded by playing the saxophone and turning the charm on some Russian students.

"In the weeks ahead, the sessions of the new State Duma in Moscow will generate a lot of sound and fury, providing a natural forum for Vladimir Zhirinovskiy and his 66 LDP party members, as well as the 62 newly elected communists and 85 or so other hardline types which make up 48% of the legislative body. Zhirinovskiy needs only a few of the 56 "independents" to get majorities and make headlines. The government will keep printing money to keep its giant and profitless factories going so the workers will have jobs, keeping the hyperinflation going full blast. Meanwhile, the reformers will gradually disappear from the scene and Western bankers, who originally engineered the supposed end of the cold war, will remain tight-fisted about lending money to Russia and, as the streets of Moscow become more dangerous and conditions for doing business more lawless, disillusioned American businessmen will begin looking for the next plane out of town.

Thus the West will reap the harvest of diplomatic cowardice and blind hope.

Does Awareness see that information as basically true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is generally correct on all levels. It appears that this is a good analysis of a potential considering the conditions of deterioration in Russia that have occurred over the past several years.

WILL MARKET COLLAPSE START IN JAPAN?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Oh, in regard to the stock market, JD in New York wanted to know if Awareness foresaw the market collapse beginning in Japan, during or about August or sooner this year? Would it start in Japan?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a very strong potential. It will be linked to the trade barriers if it begins in Japan and already there has been some effect from the trade discussions between the Japan and American leaders on the stock market in Japan, and if that collapse or downturn is again triggered by further policy that hurts the relationship between the two countries, it is quite likely to have an adverse effect on not only Japan's stock market, but also on the U.S. stock market as the Japanese begin to pull out money from their American investments.

DIVINER SAGE: A NEW LEGAL WAY TO GET HIGH

QUESTION:

A question from D.T., Santa Barbara, California. He writes: "I got turned on to a new herbal mind-spice called Salvia Devenorum, or Diviner Sage, also called Ojos de la Postora, an unusual sage/mint family herb that can be smoked or eaten, usually in a totally dark room. Visions last for half an hour, then a sort of Zen-like peace comes and lasts for 12 hours or so. Some of these effects may be psychosomatic, a suggestion of the people that turned me on to it. Would Awareness like to comment on this experience or drug? What of the powerful ally that seems to accompany it in its role in my life?, and perhaps the planet?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is seen as being a relatively harmless herb, but one which, if it becomes popularized or becomes commonly used by entities, could very easily become equated to hallucinogens and therefore, put in the same category as marijuana or psychedelic mushrooms.

This Awareness indicates that it is quite likely that this will move slowly into consciousness, whereby entities slowly begin spreading the word about this and entities begin using this in order to gain some kind of insight into other realms or into their own psyche through the experience of this herb.

19. was; that he was human, and that the Christ spoke through him, and he wanted them to understand this, and stated to them that anything he had done, they too could do.

It was not the claim of one who wanted to be seen as a god above all others.

This Awareness indicates that it does not look as though this will be on the illegal list for perhaps five or even ten years or longer, but it will likely become illegal when it becomes well-known in consciousness and its effect is made public. This Awareness indicates therefore, you may as well enjoy it while you can. It does not appear to have negative side-effects.

This Awareness suggests however, that anything that creates hallucination or strong images can have side-effects, if you let your imagination run wild. The very act of letting your imagination run wild in itself can be dangerous, but with maturity and consciousness that is under control, the realization of who you are, and always being aware that the experiences you see while using this herb are induced by the herb and not necessarily real, you will more likely than not have a pleasant and unharmed experience.

WHY DID JESUS WANT HIS HEALINGS KEPT QUIET?

QUESTION:

A question from D.S., St. Petersburg, Florida. Actually two questions: "Why so often did Jesus charge his disciples not to tell others that he was the Christ? And likewise, why did Jesus so often tell a person that he had healed, not to tell others of his healing? Healing was a part of his ministry, and I would think that he would have wanted it to be known."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity had been trained in certain schools in India and in the Middle East, and these schools admonished students not to practice healing openly; the reason being that healers were often worshiped and then would be expected to perform miracles of such ever-growing magnitude that they could never live up to the expectations of the masses, and eventually they would be persecuted for these actions.

Also, they would mislead the masses into thinking that they were some kind of god and therefore, by keeping entities from talking about the miracles, they would concentrate and focus more on the message than on the miracles. This Awareness indicates however, as history shows, the interest was more in regard to his miracles than his message.

Even today, the churches focus more on the miracles than on the message of Christ, which is commonly ignored, for this entity's message had to do with living peacefully and harmoniously with each other and that message has been distorted to the point where religious wars are fought in his name, and yet entities pray to him for miracles when they are wounded on the battlefield or elsewhere.

This Awareness indicates that the entity did not particularly want people to look at him as a god; that part of him which spoke as the Christ, which stated that he and the Father are One, was the Christ speaking through the man Jesus. The man Jesus himself did not want to promote himself as a god, especially to his disciples. He wanted them to understand the true nature of who he

HOW TO HAVE A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF REALITY

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that entities in their meditations can bring a great and deep understanding of the nature of reality by closing their eyes and looking at the energies that they see in consciousness. As they look at these energies before them with their eyes closed, they will see various patterns and shapes, sometimes indescribable, sometimes quite intangible and vague in their appearance, but they will see images.

This Awareness indicates that these images which they see are projections on the screen of consciousness, and these projections come from their own consciousness, from their own mind, and are projected out onto that screen of consciousness toward which they look.

In realizing that you can project images on the screen of consciousness, you can get an idea of how reality is created by the collective focus or the focus of collective energies looking out across the universe onto the screen of consciousness of which the universe is a container, and you can see that even as you look out from your own seat of consciousness, onto the screen of consciousness that you perceive, and you see the landscape of images, likewise the Divine and Universal focus of the Creator looks out across this universe and projects the images that are perceived by entities within that projection as being reality.

This Awareness indicates that It sees and images stars, galaxies, even as you, looking in your meditations upon your screen of consciousness will see flashes of light, perceive areas that seem to be smoky as likened unto a mini-milky way. This Awareness indicates that in other words, consciousness projects and receives from the projection manifestations of images that are or seem to be substance and in the case of Universal Consciousness, are perceived as tangible substances to those who are on the same or near frequencies.

This Awareness suggests this as a way of meditating, to assist you in deeper understanding of consciousness and the nature of reality.

THOSE 21 "ASTEROIDS" DUE TO STRIKE JUPITER

(Excerpt from a CAC General Reading, August 9, 1993)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates also another topic that this Awareness wishes to discuss at this time. It will give a small amount of information now at this time, and more later. This Awareness indicates that this is in regard to 17 asteroids that are moving in a line toward Jupiter and are due to strike the planet in this summer of 1994, between June 27th and July 29th, that the more likely time is early July. This Awareness indicates that this is the way it will be presented when entities hear about this through their normal newsmedia; that these are 17 asteroids moving in a line.

This Awareness indicates of course, anyone knows that asteroids do not move in lines, in a formation of this type. Therefore, considering what this Awareness has given in the past relating to Sitchin's book and his reference to Nemesis and the pathway to earth as being that which comes through Jupiter; this Awareness suggests that you can readily understand what is the more likely truth of this event.

This Awareness indicates you will probably hear about this on your newsmedia within 6 months and it will be presented as 17 or more asteroids moving toward Jupiter. This Awareness indicates it may be 21 'asteroids' moving toward Jupiter by the time the information is released.

ED's Note: They quit calling them "asteroids" some time back; today they are calling them "comets".

THE WISDOM OF AWARENESS...

On Being Gods of Love and Mercy

This Awareness wishes entities to cease passing the blame and cease patting themselves on the back and begin prying their eyes open, awakening themselves and others to reality. This Awareness wishes entities to cease listening to the forked tongue of the Beast, to cease being hypnotized by the electronic programmer and the printed words and to tune into the Christ Consciousness within.

This Awareness wishes entities to look toward each other and cease finding the flaw in each other's eyes and look for the Divine Light that rests behind those eyes, that you may communicate with one another as gods.

This Awareness wishes entities to cease being gods of power and begin being gods of mercy and love.

Repaired Hubble eyes Jupiter-bound comet

The fragments of Comet Shoemaker-Levy 9 are shifting position, and some may continue to splinter before they crash into Jupiter this July. The new findings come from the first pictures of the comet taken by the Hubble Space Telescope since the instrument's repair.

The Hubble images, recorded in late January and released by NASA last week, show that some of the cometary chunks no longer fit the orderly lineup that astronomers have likened to pearls on a string. The orientation of these out-of-kilter fragments may indicate that they formed after the main breakup 2 years ago of Shoemaker-Levy 9, says Harold A. Weaver of the Space Telescope Science Institute in Baltimore.

The pictures show that 9 of the 20-odd pieces of the comet seem to march to the beat of a different drummer, no longer following the same path along the sky as their companions. Three of these off-line chunks lie near the brightest fragment and were also seen — though less clearly — in pictures taken by Hubble last July, before its optical flaw was fixed (SN: 10/23/93, p.260).

Since July, notes Weaver, the three chunks have dramatically shifted position. The chunk nearest the brightest fragment increased from 35° to about 90° the angle it makes with the in-line pieces. Moreover, this piece now lies about 3,700 kilometers away from the brightest, more than triple the separation in July.

Studies indicate that the tidal gravitational force that shattered the comet when it passed near Jupiter in 1992 gave the trail of fragments a unique geometry. They would separate but remain in the same line, as viewed from Earth.

Based on these studies and the new images, Weaver suggests that the off-line chunks were created more recently and by a force other than Jupiter's gravity. He says that rapid rotation of a fragment or the sudden venting of volatile compounds from beneath its surface could split a chunk into smaller pieces. "There's no question that there's further fragmenting," says Donald K. Yeomans of NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, Calif.

The total energy dumped into Jupiter's atmosphere this July will remain the same whether or not fragmenting continues, Weaver says (see page 120). But because smaller chunks make a smaller splash, each impact would be more difficult to detect, he adds. Weaver is now analyzing the Hubble images to get a better estimate of the average diameter of the chunks, the best indicator of the power of each Jovian collision. "That's what everyone is at the edge of their seats waiting for," he says.

That task will require making assumptions about the reflectivity of the fragments since their sizes can't be determined directly. Given the distance of Shoemaker-Levy 9 from Earth, Hubble can only resolve objects 360 km across. Alas, the fragments probably measure no more than 4 km.

REVELATIONS OF AWARENESS is a cosmic newsletter, published every three weeks for members of Cosmic Awareness Communications. However, you do not need to be a member to subscribe; anyone is welcome to subscribe. Members are encouraged to study the Awareness philosophy as well as other philosophic and secular material in their search for truth and Who in Fact they Really Are, and to integrate those 'Gems and Nuggets' they discover into their daily lifestyle and basic premise of life, and to act as role models to others. C.A.C. is a not-for-profit, tax exempt organization as authorized by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. Dues and donations are exempt from Federal Income Tax. All revenues are used to spread the Cosmic Awareness philosophy to others. Cosmic Awareness has indicated that by the year 1995, the masses will be ready for the Cosmic Awareness material, on which the New Age is being founded. But can C.A.C. hold on for that period of time? We believe we can, with your help. Thus donations are encouraged! We desperately need them at this time! Also, please consider the concept of including C.A.C. in your will, along with other charitable organizations you support and hope will continue in their work. (Write C.A.C. for a brochure about making up a will, if you should seriously consider this option. Why let the IRS confiscate your estate?). MEMBERSHIPS AVAILABLE: INDIVIDUAL: $42 per year. FAMILY: $52 per year; CONTRIBUTING: $77; Sponsoring: $144; BENEFACTOR: $500; PATRON: $1000 per year; ENDOWING MEMBER: $5000 per year; LIMITED INCOME MEMBER (Broke, poor, etc.) $30 per year. (It's the right thing to do!).

Please Note: At this time, all donations are being used to alert the masses to the incipient threat of the alien presence before it's too late.
