The Photon Belt

■ Cat out of the bag:

UPDATES ON PHOTON BELT, HILDEBRAND LAWSUIT AND THE "GALACTIC HUMAN" BOOK

OPENING MESSAGE:

(Excerpts from a CAC General Reading, January 23, 1995)

This Awareness indicates that the vibrations or frequencies associated with the photon belt have already begun having an influence on this earth plane. It is still very subtle and considerably weak in comparison to that which will come. The movement into the increased vibration will grow very gradually. The energy increasing, or the frequency increasing more and more by springtime and throughout the year.

This Awareness indicates that entities who are extremely sensitive and who focus and meditate may find themselves capable of experiencing these frequencies more quickly than if they do not put their attention to this. This Awareness indicates that by putting your attention on these frequencies, your chances of becoming aware of them and experiencing them more fully will increase.

This Awareness indicates that in reference to the Hildebrand claims; the affidavits that entities will be required to sign before receiving their claims have begun being sent as of mid-January. This Awareness indicates this of course to the first persons who have signed up; that these will be the first to receive these affidavits. The affidavit being required for entities to receive the claims they have submitted, attesting that they will ask for no further claim in this regard.

This Awareness indicates that there are certain attempts to hinder this project, but it appears to be still on course at this time.

This Awareness suggests that the entities who have not yet read the book, You Are Becoming a Galactic Human, should consider purchasing this book and reading it, for there is much information in there, even if you do not fully accept the total scenario, that is of considerable value to entities.

This Awareness suggests that if indeed the photon belt is entered and events transpire according to the projected patterns, entities who have read the book will be better prepared for the enormous changes that will follow. This Awareness indicates that there are also messages available on computer networks regarding this situation and also in some scientific journals which entities may wish to further research about this photon belt.

This Awareness indicates that for the average person who is not seeking to become excessively involved in research, the book will be quite sufficient.

This Awareness indicates that the questions for the reading may now be asked.

ED's Note: For more on the book, "You Are Becoming a Galactic Human," please refer to issue 95-1 (What's Ahead): $3.00 from CAC.

SOME ADVICE FOR CLAIM-HOLDERS ABOUT THE PAY-OFFS

QUESTION:

In regard to the Hildebrand pay-offs, M.M. of Orlando, Florida, sent in a sheet of information that he says "I channeled, and would Awareness care to verify?" so I'll read what he's got here. It's an advice for claim-holders. He felt that this information should go out for those who filed a claim. The nine points he makes are as follows:

January 10, 1994 ADVICE FOR CLAIMHOLDERS

1. The opposition (international bankers, etc.) will launch a counterattack, probably in June.

a. they will cause a large diversion, perhaps a nuclear detonation in a US city, to give a pretext for national takeover
b. their real purpose will be to divert the attention of the US public while they confiscate the bank accounts of all claimholders.

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

Paul Shockley, Interpreter

2. It is suggested that you move as much of your claim assets as is possible out of the banks prior to June 1. Places where you may wish to go with your money are:

- real estate (land and/or commercial properties)
- gold or silver
- overseas bank accounts; recommends Luxembourg, Belize, Liechtenstein, London, Bahamas. Does not recommend Switzerland.

3. It is suggested also that you spread your money around, place it in a number of properties, accounts, etc. Then if you make a mistake in one area you will affect only a small percentage of your money.

4. In June or later there may also be a currency devaluation.

5. A few claims have been paid now, but the majority will be paid after January 15, when a new currency will be issued. Then most of the remaining claims will be sent out almost all at once.

6. New claims submitted after March 15 may not ever get paid due to the June events. After June there will be no money left in the claim pot; the US government and bankers will have confiscated it during the June melee.

7. You may wish to be somewhere else other than your regular residence during the uprising. Do not be travelling the highways, leaving the country, etc. Keep a low profile.

8. The June government takeover will fail after a week or two. The militia will play an important part. The leaders of the US military who are true patriots will also be a key factor in our victory. This victory will be a complete victory for us; the backbone of the One World Order will be broken.

9. Darryl Frech is a good man who means well, but he has been conned by a Janet Reno faction for the purpose of getting him to unwittingly spread disinformation and cause confusion. They feed him misleading information which he passes out to those of us who are hungry for information about the status of the claims, etc.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the information appears to be valid for the most part; however, it does appear also that it is not absolutely fixed. The situation is still very fluid and has potential for change. The influences at present appear to be moving in this direction, including plans and intentions of entities, but these things can be altered.

This Awareness indicates, however, as a general suggestion, this Awareness suggests that the entity's evaluation is approximately 80% probable at this time, with the realization that change is possible, or modification is possible.

NUKING A U.S. CITY? WHAT WILL THEY THINK OF NEXT?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

His comment that "Perhaps a nuclear detonation in a U.S. city to give a pretext for national take-over" is rather extreme, is it not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is seen as an extreme action, which is not impossible, although it is unheard of. It is seen as a potential, as one way of doing it. There can be, of course, other possibilities. It does see that this is an extreme action, but this Awareness wishes you to understand, these people have created wars that have killed millions of entities, simply to enhance their coffers, to make money, to rob the wealth of individuals, and to expect anything less from them than this kind of takeover and money confiscation would be naive.

Do not underestimate the power of their diabolical means. This Awareness indicates, however, there are also very strong Forces of Light operating on this plane which may have some effect on modifying the power of these entities between now and June.

IS THE KOBE EARTHQUAKE JUST THE BEGINNING?

QUESTION:

C.R., of Tucson, Arizona, asks: "I just heard on the news of the earthquake in Japan. I wonder if it is the start of some major earth changes?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this potential around what is termed the 'Pacific Rim' has been discussed and considered for quite some time. There is a considerable amount of seismological disturbance all around the Pacific Rim and it is not unusual for earthquakes of this magnitude to occur. It is rare, but not unusual, and it is unusual when it occurs in the midst of a major city, a highly populated city.

This Awareness indicates that the area of the earthquake being on a ground that is subject to being loosened heavily from the shaking, because of the ground water is that which has led to the excessive destruction in that earthquake. If entities ever put their feet in sandy soil that has water mixed in and moved their feet around, they will notice that their feet begin to sink and water begins to rise.

This Awareness indicates that this particular area of Japan has a similar type soil in which the sub-soil is not based on founded rock, but on soil that is somewhat loose and subject to liquid saturation, so that buildings on this level, when shaken by an earthquake, are much less solid than if built on a more solid ground.

This Awareness indicates that in reference to the entity's question, It does not see major earth changes occurring in the sense of predictions such as those by the entity Scallion, wherein entire land masses disappear or wherein the poles shift. It does see potential earthquakes of considerable magnitude creating occasional destruction. Most of such earthquakes will range between 6 or 7 or perhaps 8 on the Richter scale. These being not only in the Pacific Rim area, but also in other continents in South America and in other continents from time to time, much like that which has happened over the past thirty years, but perhaps somewhat more frequently during the next twenty years.

This Awareness indicates it would be likened unto compressing earthquakes from the past 30 or 40 years into a period of time of up to twenty years in terms of frequency. This Awareness indicates there is also a faultline that runs across the United States from the Pacific to the Atlantic ocean which has recently been discovered which could create earthquakes in the mid-part of the nation.

This fault-line being not unlike the San Andreas fault, and having a potential for considerable earthquakes in the midpart of the United States, running from the Pacific to the Atlantic. This Awareness suggests that indeed, there is reason for concern when an earthquake of such magnitude hits because there is little that entities can do to avoid such; however, this Awareness suggests that if entities spend too much of their lives being concerned about the potential of an earthquake, they may end up wasting precious time from excessive worry, or may fail to put their energies into more important actions for fear of a potential earthquake which may in fact never strike them where they live, or which may be minor in terms of their own experiences.

There is no way to be absolutely secure in your life, but there is a way whereby entities can integrate with the universe, with life, to the point where potential hazards are not a major drain of energy to entities. This Awareness indicates your chance of being killed in an earthquake is pretty remote and hardly worth spending your life worrying about, particularly since there is little that can be done about it.

If you are excessively worried about earthquakes, it would be better to move to an area that is generally or relatively free of any danger, but then perhaps there is some other concern. Perhaps extreme cold or storms or something else to worry about. This Awareness suggests you may wish to consider all of the natural disasters or difficulties and seek an area that is quite safe in comparison to other areas and which has mild and predictable weather patterns and move to that area.

It is better to move than to spend your life being paranoid or worrying about some natural disaster or crisis, for such worry can hinder your ability to live the life you wish. This Awareness indicates this message was not meant to be a message strictly for the questioner, it was intended as a message for people in general, and It was not indicating that the questioner worries excessively about earthquakes. It simply intended to address people in general. The questioner simply having triggered the message that this Awareness gave in general.

HOW CONSCIOUSNESS AFFECTS EARTHQUAKES (C.A. Won't Tell Us About Kobe)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In the past, Awareness has indicated that earthquakes are often created or influenced by the consciousness of the area; that the consciousness, particularly negative consciousness can create earthquakes, and changing the consciousness can prevent them or ease them out into the ocean a little at a time so there's no big eruption. In the case of this Kobe, Japan, quake that just occurred, how much of that quake was due to the consciousness of entities in that area, as opposed to the watery sand base that the city is built on?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not wish to imply that there was a negativity in the culture of the entities in that area; they are already suffering enough. This Awareness indicates that in the effect of consciousness on earth strata and the soils, it is somewhat similar to a magnetic field, and when entities collectively create a field of consciousness that becomes rigid and fixed into certain patterns, and particularly self-centeredness, wherein entities turn inward on their own needs and desires excessively, and it becomes an expanded action in a culture, it has an effect of creating a large crystalline-type field of energy that may be similar to a field of electromagnetic energy which is a vibrating field, and which is not limited to the surface, at atmospheric areas, but also which is grounded and goes down into the earth strata.

This Awareness indicates that this can affect the seismological or geographical fields of energy, and much like static electricity, create a kind of energy pattern that is similar to a disturbance in the field. If this were in the sky, it would equate to lightning in a storm, but the energy is deep underground and in breaking these patterns, it registers as a kind of jerking of the ground, deep within the earth, and this can trigger a movement of earth to the point where an earthquake may follow.

This Awareness indicates that generally this movement is seen on a physical level as a breaking loose of plates or energies of material that slips or moves after having been caught in a way that allows for a pressure to build, whereby the friction between two plates moving in different directions may begin to build and build, but what tends to break these plates is not only the pressure but also the consciousness, or energy field from consciousness that is permeating the earth in these areas.

This Awareness indicates that this geophysical material varies in different areas, and some areas are more subject to movement than others, so that the fields of consciousness are more likely to have a major effect on those areas that are geophysically weaker or more pliable than others that are more solid, particularly where there are cracks or where there is unstable earth in an area, and thus leaving certain areas more susceptible to earthquakes than other areas. Even when the consciousness patterns in other areas may be emanating similar forces, it may not have the same kind of seismological effects.

That Mysterious Attraction of Fault-lines To Entities

This Awareness indicates there is also another factor: this being that entities tend to gather in those areas where the earth energies and fault-lines come together. There is a tendency for entities to be drawn psychologically or magnetically to those areas. If you examine fault-lines, you will find there are many particular points along these fault-lines where people tend to conglomerate. It is particularly noted that institutions tend to be built along fault-lines moreso than other areas.

It appears that the fault-lines emanate an energy that draws humans in the same way that light draws moths. This Awareness indicates there is a certain benefit entities feel from the energies that come off of fault-lines, and thus entities are attracted to this kind of location.

COULD THE CREMATORIUMS BE FOR THE DISPOSAL OF MANY DISEASED BODIES?

QUESTION:

A question from P.F. in England. In a letter she wrote to me, she writes the following: "With regard to the Are You Aware? and You May Not Have A Country After 1995 pamphlets (which we mailed out) put out by the American Freedom Network quite recently, bearing in mind all the predicted catastrophes mentioned by Sun Bear, Edgar Cayce and others, to say nothing of Dr. Chet Snow's previews of the year 2000, my attention was drawn to an article about Edgar Cayce's predictions for the period of 1995 through 1999, which was published in a Canadian Weekly last year. It is feasible that the hidden government is not unaware of the large-scale upheavals to come, and that provision has been made to destroy millions of dead bodies by cremation in order to avoid spreading disease. It has been foretold that millions will perish and obviously the planet has to be cleansed before long."

Does Awareness have a comment for that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a kind of speculation based on potential catastrophic events of the future which are uncertain, however it appears that the entity's assessment of government responsibility to be prepared for any contingency is of reasonable validity. This Awareness indicates that governments tend to prepare themselves, not so much to speculative potentials, but tend to prepare themselves for any general potential disaster, as such as is reasonably possible, considering their ability to be prepared, the cost, and the evaluation of a potential crises.

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that a government would spend enormous amounts of money building crematoriums or other areas to rid the earth of dead bodies in the millions, based on psychics' predictions for a period of time. This Awareness indicates that the implication of such is reaching quite heavily to presume the creation of crematoriums or other forms of disposal based on potentials that are quite remote. If these things begin to happen, then a government might scramble to create crematoriums and other methods of disposal when it becomes more imminent or more likely to become imminent.

HOW ABOUT BIOLOGICAL DISASTERS?

QUESTION:

B.L. of Bryan, Ohio, has a similar question I'll read that might bear on this. She writes: "We presently appear to have a viral crisis. Since present antibiotics would not be able to prevent the spread of certain contagious diseases, might the crematoriums, said to be already built and ready, be part of dealing with great numbers of victims, should epidemics occur or even be planned?"

This Awareness indicates that this is the more likely scenario, wherein the intense research or study of the effects of antibiotics as their effectiveness diminishes and the spread of viruses that are almost inevitably to come, and to be incurable. It is quite a likely possibility that such biological disaster could make use of crematoriums to dispose of these bodies to help prevent the spread of disease.

This Awareness indicates that this is far more likely than concern about earth changes causing millions of people to die, or environmental catastrophes.

THAT HELICOPTER SHOT DOWN OVER KOREA

QUESTION:

A question from A.E., in New York City. She writes: "I have a question; timely, but is it pertinent? Regarding the Americans who strayed into North Korea airspace and whose helicopter was brought down. Sadly one died, the other was captured, and though called a spy was released last night to the United States authorities. It's hard to believe they "lost their way" and yet it's even harder to believe they would engage in spying. It seems stupid either way. Do you have the dope on this? It reminds me of the Korean flight shot down over Russian territory!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the entities simply did not realize fully what they were doing. It appears the entities were what you might call horsing around and being very careless. They did not expect their craft to be shot down. It appears they were playfully flying across the area, with some understanding that they were in North Korea, but did not think they would be shot down.

It does not appear they were involved in spying. It was more as if they were doing it on a dare, in a thrill-seeking playful way, similar to that of the entity who flew his small plane into Moscow and landed in the square some years ago.

THE BOOK: "THE COMING WAR WITH JAPAN"

QUESTION:

The For the People magazine has a full-page ad for a book called The Coming War With Japan by George Friedman and Meredith Lebard, and it says on the book: "The Number One Best Seller in Japan!" and the copy on this says, "Tight logic, superb research, clear writing. This book demonstrates the underlying analysis of why Japan and America will change from their current partnership to more and more open rivalry. A persuasive case for the startling proposition that the U.S. and Japan are on a collision course leading to war within a generation." Does Awareness agree with that statement?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is highly unlikely. There is always the potential for problems to occur between any competing nations. The nations are involved in business competition. This Awareness indicates that the business competition appears to be relatively friendly. There are some conflicts in regard to business between these countries.

It is seen also that this was a cause of the conflict in World War II between these countries, but it appears that there are also now too many business ties and relationships have developed that make these countries essentially friendly to each other, and the reason or need for war is lacking.

This Awareness indicates however, who knows? By putting out a book of this nature and it becoming a best-seller in Japan, as thousands of entities read this book in Japan and begin to worry about a war with the United States, they may begin to prepare, in order to win, if the war occurs, and become more touchy in regard to their relationship with the United States, so that this helps as a kind of self-fulfilling prophecy to bring about the war prophesied.

This Awareness indicates again, it is unlikely.

WILL HAWAII BECOME A SOVEREIGN NATION?

(10th Amendment Resolution Gaining Momentum)

QUESTION:

A question from H.H. in Hawaii: "Will the native Hawaiians, seeking to re-establish the sovereignty of the Hawaiian kingdom that was overthrown illegally, succeed?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is a good chance of this happening. This Awareness indicates that there are ten states in the continental U.S. that have declared sovereignty. There are likely to be quite a number of the states in the continental U.S.; by springtime it is expected to be close to 40 such states claiming sovereignty. Whether this occurs is not certain but there is a movement occurring rapidly in this direction.

It therefore is seen as a time when Hawaii could also make a move in that direction. Whether or not it will be the Hawaiian people or some other influences in government in Hawaii will depend on how quickly and how strongly the native Hawaiians move.

This Awareness indicates that there has been some discussion among certain entities in Hawaii about seceding from the United States and becoming a sovereign state or nation due to health concerns, wherein certain forces in Hawaii want the freedom to be in charge of their own health matters without FDA infringement, or other government infringement in their lives.

This may be influential or may lead to a joining of forces with those natives who seek the independent sovereignty of Hawaii so that they regain their total independence from the United States, or so that they declare themselves a state, sovereign in their own right, remaining part of the states without being aligned to the Federal government.

This Awareness indicates that originally, the 48 states were independent states, but they individually grew to embrace or accept the domination and control of the District of Columbia as a Federal Government, whereby the states had originally had their own sovereignty and gave away their sovereignty when they accepted the District of Columbia as a Federal leadership over them.

This is now apparently in a reverse mode wherein more and more states are separating from government controls and becoming independently sovereign. Of course, they lose Federal grants and Federal assistance, but they gain their own individual sovereignty. This Awareness indicates that this may have some bearing on the entity's question.

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates there are many things happening behind the scenes that you do not find in your news-media, because the newsmedia is still controlled by the Council on Foreign Relations, and the Trilateralists, which work for the international bankers and those entities in charge or behind the government of these Federal nations that seek to create a New World Order, that seek to control the world through the political programs and economic programs that operate through the New World Order, the UN and the various nations that already are controlled by the conspirators of this effort.

A COSMIC AWARENESS HEALING TO PROTECT ALL CAC READERS FROM THIS WINTER'S FLU

(Closing Message, CAC General Reading, January 27, 1995)

This Awareness wishes to send healing energies to many of the members who have experienced the winter flu, and to help protect these entities from such if they have not yet been hit by the flu. This Awareness wishes to gather energy at this time. This Awareness indicates that this energy is being directed to the mailing, which carries today's message and to the mailing that is ready to be sent now, because these contain the names or will contain the names of the members of CAC and It is sending these energies to these mailings with the intent of letting the energy move from the mailings into the aura of each individual who reads or receives these mailings in order that this energy can fill the aura of entities, protecting them from flus, colds, and other negative energies that might discomfort them.

This Awareness indicates again, it is not to say that all entities will escape every discomfort, but that the energy will protect them to the degree possible for the amount of energy each receives and for the intensity of that which attacks them, if it should.

This Awareness indicates that if you receive this energy from this Awareness and still catch a cold, or flu, this does not mean the energy has not worked. It may simply be that the energy has reduced the difficulty and did not sufficiently protect you totally. Entities need to understand the nature of degrees, but this Awareness wishes at this time, and does intend at this time, to send you total protection from any further flu or severe disturbances from this winter's viruses and colds.

This Awareness indicates the energy has been sent. This Awareness suggests that you take your reading, hold it, and feel the energies leaving your reading and entering your aura until you feel it has been totally absorbed.

The Law of Gratitude is given.

ED's Note: The closing message and healing took approximately 30 minutes. In all such cases when Awareness gathers energy, the Interpreter's arms extend into the air, his hands cup inward and the arms circle in a manner that creates the symbol of the Law of Love. There are long pauses in the message and the room vibrates with energy. This message was given 3 days before CAC mailed out issue 95-2 (number 445) and that is the issue you should hold in your hands and allow the healing energies to transfer to your aura. (The issue you are now reading will also contain this healing energy).

After the reading I asked the Interpreter what he saw in the trance state and how the healing would work and he said he saw images of the CAC staff preparing the mailings and the various stages where the paper is physically touched and handled. For example, each printed page is handled by the editor, who prints all the newsletters. Each ream of paper is fanned several times, printed 2 sides, joggled to square, the stacks then hauled by hand to a long table where Vikki fans each stack several times, places the sheets into her collator, collates and staples the newsletter. She then handles them again when they are folded, again when stuffed into envelopes. They are handled again by the editor, who runs each envelope through an automatic sealer, which seals each individual envelope the newsletter is mailed in. Each envelope is handled several more times by Vikki who secures each mailing label to an envelope, stacks the piles of labeled envelopes in zip-coded stacks. The editor handles them several more times as it is his job to secure each bundle with two rubber bands or

- strings, place them into large post office mailing sacks, haul these to his car and deliver them on the dock at the local post office. (This particular mailing was also handled by the Interpreter between sessions as he helped Vikki in her folding machine operation, wherein he scooped the folded newsletters from the folder to keep them from piling up after leaving the folder). All in all, the newsletter is handled many times and as Awareness indicated, all those present during the healing, also helped to transfer the healing energies to the newsletters, which will keep all of you from contacting the flu this year!

SAM MILLAR -- IN MEMORIUM

(A Personal Note From the Editor)

Sam Miller passed over February 2nd, 1995. He was 64. Sam was a loyal and trusted friend and associate of the CAC staff. It was Sam, in fact, who told us we were supposed to start a non-profit philosophical organization back in 1972, information he channeled in a Tarot reading. At the time there was no Cosmic Awareness channel. I remember reading off a list of names Vikki and I dreamed up to name the organization, such as "Friends of the New Age" etc. As we rattled off a list of about 30 names, Sam would turn the cards, shake his head. Having been an officer in the now-defunct "Servants of Awareness" organization, I finally asked: "Should part of the name be 'Awareness?'" Sam nodded--the cards showed an emphatic "Yes". Sam studied the cards and added: "It must also convey that you 'communicate'. I flashed on a name and said: "How about "Cosmic Awareness Communications"? The Tarot's response was an emphatic "Yes!"

From that simple beginning, Sam Millar (whom Awareness said later "channels this Awareness thru the Tarot") quietly guided CAC up to present time with his annual Tarot layouts. He watched over our every need. He was a natural born psychic. Many times he would call or walk thru the door unannounced and inform us that he "felt something was up" and that we should have a Tarot reading. Always, we would drop everything and Sam would lay out the cards on the large table in the shop. It was always something important. From the statement he would make from the layout, we could ask more questions, which we inevitably would do. He let us know when alien forces were lurking or preparing for attack. He gave us advice on many things such as our health, and who we should or should not allow into our inner working space and circle. He would often warn us of potential hazards: "Take an alternate route when you go to the ocean this weekend". And twice: "Check your electrical outlets; one is about to cause a fire." And we would check, and sure enough, we found a wire arcing in one of the outlets. "You are being watched!" And we would take precautions. The list of important information Sam provided us over the years is endless.

As many of you know, Sam served the membership for many years, giving Tarot readings to thousands, many free of charge. (Sam would buy any hard luck story). During all the years we knew him, Sam tithed 20% of his income to CAC. When Paul Shockley entered the picture and became the Awareness channel for CAC, Sam Millar was the man that Paul always went to for answers. A woman who tested "psychics", who tracked them down all over the world, once wrote CAC that Sam Millar "was the best Tarot reader in the world." We knew that. He was also a great inventor, with a truly original mind. He invented the famous "Polarizer" which carries his name, a magnetic device that has helped to heal hundreds of people with various problems, aches and pains; he invented authentic psychic tools that really worked at a time that charletons were flooding the market with phoney New Age stuff that didn't work. Some of these authentic tools developed by Sam were the 'Wheel of Destiny'-a psychic reading board that prevented low spirits from communicating, unlike the Ouija Board, which is often deadly in that area. He invented "The Mystic Pentagram" fortune-telling system that really worked. He invented the "Wizard Wand" pendulum. At the time of his death, Sam had two books he was writing on quantum physics in his computer. He was also developing a new Polarizer that was half the size and would be half the price of his larger one. But Sam was sick, he was in constant pain, and all these many projects could not stop the hurt.

He had been sick for the past five years when he almost died of congestive heart failure. He had high blood pressure and his doctor gave him pills to stabilize it. He was careless about pills. When he felt dizzy from high blood pressure, he would double the amount of pills. The dizziness would go away but the pills were killing him. Sam mistakenly and foolishly believed that more pills would correct the problem. They didn't. They destroyed his kidneys and for the next five years Sam would get up at 4 AM every other day and drive to the hospital where they hooked him up to a fiendish device called a "Dialysis Machine" which removed his blood, rinsed it and ran it back into his body. It was a painful and debilitating process, but it kept Sam alive for 5 more years, when in fact he should be dead a long time ago.

But even during those last 5 years, as Sam slowly wasted away, he never lost his ability to read the Tarot. Dutifully he would continue to guide CAC, and up to the end he was still doing readings for the membership. But most of all, Sam Millar was our friend. He was always there when we called. We miss him terribly already, and as I write this, his thin body is frozen, awaiting word from relatives before cremation. But Sam has no relatives that anyone knows of. He only has thousands of friends. So far there is no published obituary. I wrote one up for the local paper but it is being held up by some of Sam's friends pending any word from any relatives, if any. Sam was so thin at the end that I could easily pick him up and carry him around, a feat he detested. He had lost over 100 pounds in the past 5 years and weighed a scant 87 pounds at his demise.

Sam had a dark sense of humor. He would often mention in a reading to members that the entity "was lucky to be getting any response at all. I am scheduled to die next week." The trouble was, Sam really did believe he was going to die next week. He has believed that every week for the past 5 years. The week before he died, he told us and several friends that "I am ready to go. I know that this time my time is up." Every time he had made that statement over the years, I had commanded him quite firmly: "Sam, you will stay alive! There are too many people who depend on you. I will tell you when it is time for you to depart!" I said it jokingly, but he knew I was serious. Last week Vikki and I had to leave town for 3 days and when Sam called to see if there were any readings he should pick up, I told him there weren't, and that we would be gone for 3 days, that we would see him in 3 days. He muttered "Don't count on it." Then he asked me if I needed any thing, and I said, "Just one thing, Sam. Please try to stay alive!" We found out later that he died the next night. He was delirious, a friend told us later. He got up at midnight, thinking he had to go to dialysis. It was neither the right day nor the right time. At the hospital, they realized something was haywire and put him to bed. He died an hour later.

My last directive to him to "Just try to stay alive" was the first time he ever failed to come through with a request.

Sam Millar was a true mystic. As a child, he lived with his father who ran the Furnace Creek Inn and golf course at Death Valley. Sam remembers when famous stars and other Hollywood celebrities, such as Walt Disney, would come to the inn. Sam told us the story many times that when he was about 7 years old, he and an Indian boy he knew would ride horses together around that area, and one day Sam was thrown off his pony and rolled down a huge sand dune about 3 miles from the resort. As he tried to scamper back up the dune, he spotted a small opening in the sand, a small cave, that was obscured by the falling sand. He scraped away for about 10 minutes until the opening was fully revealed. He walked into the cave and saw something shining in the back. It was a golden door, with ornate carvings. It was a heavy and sturdy door, very ancient. Sam had the feeling that behind that door there was a fabulous "treasure". It was starting to get dark and the Indian boy was looking for Sam. When the boy eventually heard Sam calling, he too was taken to see the golden door, then they returned to the Inn. Sam did not speak of that door until he met the CAC staff years later as an adult. He said he had tried to find the place several times as a child, but the sand had again covered the entrance. However, he told us he "psychically" knew where it was, even drew a map for us one time, and promised to organize an expedition some day to explore what lies behind that golden door. He never did get the expedition going, the main excuse being that there were only about 2 weeks of the year that it was cool enough to explore that desert without dying from the heat.

We check Sam's story with Cosmic Awareness. The story was valid, Awareness stated, it was not a psychic experience. According to Awareness, behind that door lay a great treasure, probably Montezuma's legendary trove placed there by the Spaniards centuries ago after plundering it. Awareness said the treasure would eventually be recovered and used to bring in a true new age of peace and plenty on this planet, but the time to do this was not now. It must wait, for if the treasure was recovered now, the Dark Force would take it from those who found it, destroy them all and use the treasure for its evil agenda. Hence, the secret of the golden door died with Sam Millar and CAC can now write off this long-awaited project as something that could have been if certain forces were no longer present. (The last time we asked Awareness about this can be found in "Revelations of Awareness" issue No.91-9).

When we contacted the Absent Healer and told her about Sam's death, she sent in $10 as a donation to CAC in Sam's memory and she suggested that others who have somehow been touched by Sam these past 20 years might do the same. (Sam would have liked that idea).

She also sent in the following poem, which she felt was appropriate:

*God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
He looked down upon the earth and saw
Sam's tired face.
He put His arms around him and he lifted him to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.*

Sam Millar's real home, we are told, is in a star system near the edge of the Milky Way called "Altair". He was part of a cadre of entities associated with the Awareness Movement who came to this planet to assist in its transition from a dark planet to a planet of light. I feel there are a lot of friends up there, a welcoming committee, and they are saying: "Well done, Sam. Welcome home!"

Even though there has been no "memorial", no wake or that sort of thing, I told Vikki T: "Hey, the first chance we get, let's have a martini, and let's drink to Sam!" She said okay, even though Sam was a teetotaler. As a toast, I'd probably say the same thing: "Well done, ancient friend and companion. But check in once in awhile on your Wheel of Destiny to let us know what you're up to these days!"--but I'll be wondering what his next assignment will be.

THE OMINOUS "NULL ZONE" OF THE PHOTON BELT --AS WE ARE ABOUT TO ENTER IT, WHAT CAN WE EXPECT?

C.A.C. General Reading, December 6, 1993

QUESTION:

A question from Y.M., San Mateo, California, on a subject Awareness has given some information on, but there's other aspects here. It's a rather long dissertation. He writes:

"We know of a young scientist and metaphysician by the name of Sheldon Nidle in Half Moon Bay, California, who is channeling information from the Galactic Federation. According to his sources, our solar system is headed toward a belt discovered in the 60's in the vicinity of the Pleiades by satellite instrumentation. It's called "The Photon Belt" and is approximately 2000 years thick; our planet and solar system are poised to enter the belt before the end of this century and as early as the Spring of 1995 to Winter of 1996.

At the edge of the belt is a "null zone", where all particles of matter and anti-matter are annihilated. We (planet earth and this solar system) are now in the position of near entry into the null zone and it's going to cancel all our magnetic fields; it's also going to alter our states of consciousness with space/time distortion that will hurl us into the next higher dimension.

The first noticeable event will be the alteration of the type of body that we inhabit presently. We're going to become less corporeal, with an altered mass structure that will allow us to do unusual things, such as walking through a three-dimensional wall, with ease.

Since we are entering into an area of space where all existing electromagnetic grids will collapse, it means that all our electric and electromagnetic equipments will cease to function, and we are also going to face a brief period of darkness, roughly 36 to 75 hours, that will gradually give way to a period of extreme light. The Bible refers to this time as a period when one will be changed to immortality in the twinkling of an eye.

As our atmosphere is compressed at the approach of the photon belt, then rapidly expanded and excited when we all enter the null zone, it's technically possible for our atmosphere to suddenly explode if it is exposed to large amounts of nuclear radiation, a natural and daily by-product of our nuclear powered plants, nuclear weapons and the like. A firestorm in the atmosphere could very well doom our planet and prevent us from achieving our glorious destiny.

Another aspect of passing into the null zone is the cooling of the sun's atmosphere and lesser amounts of radiant energy sent to us on planet earth. It could mean a temporary freezing effect throughout the globe, aggravated by the period of darkness mentioned above. For up to 5 days, this planet will return to an ice age. When we leave the null zone and enter the two thousand year long photon belt, photonic energy will not only give us light, but also a subtle radiation that will allow our new body to function without solid food or the need to sleep.

This new energy source will also enable our world to easily abandon the present fossil fueled industrial age. Sheldon's newsletter "Beyond Wisdom," Vol. 1, No. 2 (Oct./Nov. '92) goes on to explain how our earth is now part of the Galactic Federation, and why it is necessary to form what he calls "advocate groups" or groups of people that are willing to discuss what is now fast approaching, and how the Sirians, Vegans, Arcturians, and Pleiadians and still other members of the Galactic Federation are willing to help us go through this enormous but exciting transformation.

The people from Sirius will lead a massive landing on this planet very soon, from one to six months prior to our entry into the "Null Zone" of the Photon Belt. In view of the potential mass hysteria and devastation of economies, disruption of lifestyles, etc., it has been decided by the members of the Galactic Federation that this time, a direct intervention is absolutely necessary. It had been avoided before, to honor a cosmic decree of non-interference in the affairs of others but this time, we're talking about an event of such a magnitude that humanity must be warned and prepared to survive it. Our Sirian parents, brothers and sisters love us so much, it is said, that they will do everything in their power to give us a chance to survive this "shift." To them, we humans are collectively like a little baby whose needs are to be met if the parents don't want to see him or her die in the crib in front of their very eyes! Any parenting involves intervention from time to time, for the good of the child.

We're talking about tens of thousands of ships here, uncloaking themselves in all known public and heavily populated places around the earth, in order to prepare people to accept the impending events that will change their lives forever.

The Sirians have worked on this plan for many years. First, they are going to broadcast a soothing sound around the entire planet, a little bit like the whales are doing when travelling under water. It will mainly calm people down and make them more ready to accept the fantastic display of ships, and what is to come.

It is planned that all necessary information about the impending changes will be broadcast day and night over the air waves, radio and television stations of all the countries of this planet. In addition, groups of ambassadors and counselors will teleport to key locations and groups of people, among which will be the "advocate groups" already in place. The idea is to inform, calm down, soothe the fears, in order to avoid mass hysteria and an enormous destruction of lives and property right before the entry of our solar system into the "Null Zone."

My questions to Cosmic Awareness in this respect are: "From your position and overview, can you give more information about this so-called "Null Zone" followed by the "Photon Belt," and the effects it's going to have on us when we enter it? Please do not refer us to what you've already said about the Photon Belt in the past, if at all possible, but give us complementary information about it, fresh data that may have developed since you gave the information.

Secondly, can we take the Sirian intervention (and the Galactic Confederation intervention) seriously? Is it likely to happen, in view of the magnitude of the coming changes and the coming "Shift"?

Lastly, is it a good idea to start forming discussion groups or "advocate groups" in order to start preparing people and ourselves by means of information, discussion, and a more detached attitude toward our lives in this third dimension, our possessions, our jobs (for those of us who still have one), family ties, etc.?

What is channeled through Sheldon Nidle appears to be of major importance, and if his information is correct, we've very little time left to get ready. Informing people through the CAC newsletter would be an important step in the right direction, don't you think? Many thanks."

There's a number of questions in there.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the information as being extremely compact, to the point of presentation beyond the comprehension of most entities, and therefore it is suggested that entities not become overwhelmed by this material; that the changes that will occur are those that will be at a pace which entities can keep up with and there is no need for great anxiety.

This Awareness indicates that in the movement toward this direction, there is a gradual adjustment in the frequencies and vibrations that entities will experience, and these frequencies and vibrations will help to bring about the balance and adjustment that the entities will need in order to pass through these energy fields, and adjust to the changes that are to come. This Awareness indicates that much of what the entity has given is speculation, or may be termed based on extrapolation or conjecture as to what the various events or energies might bring.

Do not consider this as an absolute and proper description of what will happen; it is partly conjecture. This Awareness indicates the changes that will occur will mostly be on the psychic levels. There will, in time, become sufficient change to allow entities to move through solid matter, but at the time this happens, entities will not know whether the matter is solid or not.

It will be more likened unto entities moving into a different state of consciousness which is more dream-like. This Awareness indicates that this in fact may be equated to that of the Aboriginal Dream Time in their culture. This Awareness indicates that it is a time when matter begins to dissolve and become less solid, and in that experience, entities become aware of the reality of consciousness as the creator of all matter, and the consciousness that they experience will be that of a higher frequency, closer to that of the Divine Consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that those entities who are incapable of moving into these higher frequencies because of their own lower density will find it extremely difficult to maintain a sense of individuality, and if they can and do choose to keep their individualities based on lower frequencies, they will eventually have an experience of being outcast from these energy fields and movements into lower densities, into a lower dimension in fact.

This Awareness has discussed the coming dimensional shift; It has not gone in to the details of how the dimensional shift will be triggered. It has, in the past, discussed the photon belt and some of these things that were projected for the year 1992, and indicated that this was not to be taken too seriously. This Awareness indicates that at that time, there was no need for such concern. This Awareness indicates that it is still in the future. The information was correct, but the timing was off in regard to the movement through the photon belt.

The Null Zone and The Darkness Like An Acid Trip

This Awareness indicates that the entity's information relating to the so-called null zone and the darkness as that which is correct and that it will affect the magnetic fields, and therefore, much of that which is taken for granted as part of today's high-tech society, wherein entities rely on electricity and travel and communication through electronics, will be lost, will be disrupted, and entities will find that they can no longer communicate in these manners, but will also find that new ways of communication become possible.

They begin to recognize a kind of emergence from the chaos into a realization that they can communicate telepathically with one another in these higher frequencies and higher vibrations. This Awareness indicates that these energies become likened unto a new reality in which entities are in a state of dramatic change, but rather than being fearful, they will be in awe, in a sense of wonderment: "What is happening? What is going on?"

They will be likened unto a group of entities who for the first time in the 1960s dropped acid, or LSD, and begin to talk to each other about their experience, but this will be a natural occurrence and they will be asking: "What is that? Do you see what I see?" et cetera. They will be wondering what is happening to their sense of reality, and in this photon belt, the information and the energies that begin to shift and change will put them in a kind of dream-like state where nothing seems solid or real.

New rules will be formulated, new rules of physics, new rules of reality, and new rules of behavior will have to be found in order to allow each entity to have an understanding of what is, and what is proper, and what is being described. This Awareness indicates it is as though all the old rules, the Newtonian rules especially, will be thrown out, and the quantum physics will be the new thing, but the quantum physics will be so far advanced of anything known now that new types of descriptions and rules and principles will need to be found to explain the experiences that entities are sharing with each other in this new dimension of the photon belt.

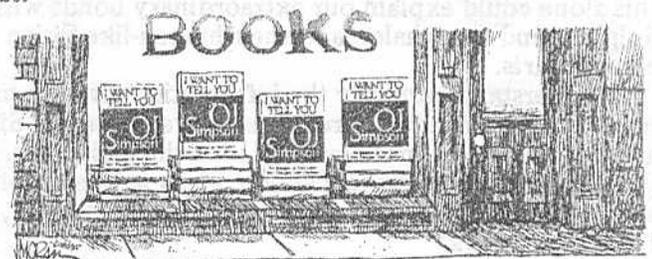

This Awareness indicates that when things move back into light and lose their substance or solidity, the stability of matter, entities will no longer have the ability to think in terms of solid absolute unchangeable maintenance. They will no longer be able to maintain reality, they will simply attempt to keep up with reality and to change with it as it changes around them.

This Awareness indicates that there is a question also in the timing. To project when the events will begin is somewhat difficult. It will be more likely that it is a growing thing rather than a sudden change that occurs, and the growing thing may begin in the mid-Nineties, but may take considerable amount of time before it reaches a point of completion.

This Awareness indicates that by "completion", It does not refer to the end of the experience, but rather to the complete transition into the experience, into the total experience, and this Awareness has projected the time to be approximately 2012 to 2013, when this experience will be entered into fully. Thereafter, the energies of the new dimension will be that of quite a totally different nature than is present for entities at this time.

This Awareness indicates it will not be unlike the dream state. If you can imagine your reality being made up of a dream state, or dream-like state of existence in which all people share in that dream, and all people help to create that dream, but in the dream it is possible to change solid things simply by thought, or by imaging in an instant; this will be the nature of that new reality.

The earth itself will be available for entities to walk upon, but it will also simply be more likened unto the bottom of the dream, the landscape on which the dream moves, and entities will know, as in a dream, that it is not a solid substance but that it is a mental substance in which they exist.

THE INFORMATION ON THE SIRIANS IS CORRECT
(A Private Nightmare For Those Left on Earth)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So, essentially, this information about the people from Sirius...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This information is correct. This Awareness indicates that this is one reason why these entities do not become excessively alarmed at the plight which humans are moving toward. They do not become excessively concerned at the efforts of the Greys and the Reptoids to enslave humanity, for they recognize that there is a greater change following soon that will put all of this to nothing, and that the controls that the Reptoids and Greys so dearly seek on the earth will be meaningless.

This Awareness indicates that those who cooperate with the Reptoids, with the Greys on these efforts to enslave humanity, will be moving also into this photon zone, and will be caught in a kind of mental warp that puts them into their own private hell or private prison within that mind-scape or consciousness-scape that replaces the landscape of earth, for as these entities move into their dream world, or dream state, it becomes likened unto their own private nightmare.

It is also a dream-state for them that they have captured, but it is more likened for them unto a nightmare than a pleasant dream. This Awareness indicates the entities who cling to the higher spirit and vibration of Light and that which is more wholesome, will move into this dream-state in a way that allows them to enjoy a blissful existence from the co-creative actions of others like themselves.

It is in this manner that the dimensional shift occurs, wherein one group of dark negative forces begins to move away from the other. This Awareness indicates that when these forces eventually pass out of this photon belt, it will be as though there are two different worlds that have been born: one will be of a very negative nature, having to star over on the spiritual evolutionary scale; the other will be highly evolved spiritually and able to enjoy the higher relationships with others of similar kind.

DID SIRIANS SAVE THE EARTH FROM BEING FRIED?
(Is Earth a Giant Soap Opera on Galactic TV?)

QUESTION:

One last question from this entity. It's another long one, but not as long as the first one. He writes:

"Humanity has a special relationship with the star system Sirius, and Sirius B in particular, as explained in Robert Temple's fascinating book, The Sirius Connection. Our sun and Sirius are hurling into the vastness of intergalactic space in a corkscrew RND-DNA fashion, eternally linked like brother and sister; they're cosmically inseparable and this alone could explain our extraordinary bonds with the dolphins and the whales, and their human-like Sirian counterparts.

If I understand correctly the information given to me recently, the Arcturians are more evolved than the Sirians, and the Sirians are more evolved than the Pleiadians. All three species are extremely good friends with each other, and humanity has great love and support from them, in all kinds of ways.

In August of 1972, something extraordinary happened to our sun, and by extension to our solar system. If it was not for the Sirian intervention, all sentient beings on this planet would have been fried to a crisp and our third dimensional world would look something like Venus at the present time, a boiling inferno in which nothing of a third dimensional nature can possibly survive.

10. The event is of such a magnitude that it ought to be known by all humanity for if it is true, we've an enormous debt of gratitude toward the Sirians, who stuck with us humans through thick and thin, even after many extra-terrestrial races of the Galactic Federation had concluded that nothing more could be done for planet Earth, and humans were doomed; these races actually left us to die and only the Sirians and a few of their friends stuck with humanity and concocted a solution that has proven to be very successful not only for us, but by extension for the whole galaxy and universe, and it may not even stop at that level either.

Would Cosmic Awareness care to comment on all the above, and bring more light on the subject. Thank you, thank you, thank you!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative; that this was changed by the interference of these entities and the doctoring of the energies of the sun in regard to its grid and its magnetic fields. This Awareness indicates that also the activities of these three groups and that of the Vegans is very much oriented to the recognition that humans on earth are part of their family.

This Awareness indicates the Sirians, those from Sirius, the so-called Dog Star, have long been recognized by certain tribes in Africa (the Dogons of Mali) as a sacred place and origin for their being, and these entities are in accordance with the work and research of Sitchin, related to the actions of Enki, in helping to change the Adam and Eve prototypes from mere robot-like biological creations to those that could think for themselves.

This Awareness indicates that this link between Sirius and Earth is extremely strong in the regard for human evolution and development. Over the thousands of years, the programming that was injected or instilled in the human prototypes has gradually evolved according to the plans of those from Sirius who worked on the creation of the mammal qualities in humans to outgrow and overcome the Reptilian qualities in humans that were created in the first Adam and Eve prototypes by Enlil and those from Draco.

This Awareness suggests the information continue.

THE BOND BETWEEN EARTH BEINGS AND THE SIRIANS
(Why Humanity Is Evolving Spiritually So Rapidly)

QUESTIONER:

Yes. Awareness interrupted at an appropriate point. His next paragraph was: "Does Cosmic Awareness have information that It wants to share about what happened exactly in 1972? I am informed that due to the Sirian intervention, humanity has started to evolve faster and faster after 1972 and it has now reached such a pace, that what would normally take a few thousand years to take place within humanity, started happening by the year and accelerated to happening by the month and now, it is happening by the day and even by the hour!"

Humanity's transformation is going so fast, at the very moment I write these words, that it has attracted the attention of the whole galaxy, and the next two dimensions above the third (where we currently live and have our being) are literally filled with parked spaceships and their crews watching Earth on television day in and day out. Our extraterrestrial friends, brothers and sisters, parents and sympathizers alike, are very much aware that if this transformation is affecting us so much, do deeply and so fast, after the Sirian intervention, it's bound to affect the whole galaxy and possibly, to be extended to the whole universe.

This thing is so enormously positive and transforming that it seems it was in the Mind of God since the very beginning of Creation and now, God has decided to activate it through Sirius.

My source of information tells me that before August 1972, seers like Cayce and Michel de Notre Dame (Nostadamus) were more than 90% accurate, but after the event of 1972 their predictions became less and less accurate and in fact, most predictions from anyone are now inaccurate and will never happen or let us put it another way, the chances for it not happening the way it's presented are much greater than the chances for it to happen.

The event is of such a magnitude that it ought to be known by all humanity, for if it is true, we've an enormous debt of gratitude toward the Sirians, who stuck with us humans through thick and thin, even after many extra-terrestrial races of the Galactic Federation had concluded that nothing more could be done for planet Earth, and humans were doomed; these races actually left us to die and only the Sirians and a few of their friends stuck with humanity and concocted a solution that has proven to be very successful not only for us, but by extension for the whole galaxy and universe, and it may not even stop at that level either.

Would Cosmic Awareness care to comment on all the above, and bring more light on the subject? Thank you, thank you, thank you!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is a kind of bond between Sirius and Earth or the solar system that make them likened unto twin beacons, wherein each moves in a kind of counterbalance to the other, and their energies at this time are such that there is an alignment on the structural pattern on which they move that gives them special connection on a spiritual and psychic sense.

This Awareness indicates it is very difficult to explain, but it is likened unto a kind of pattern in space similar to that of a molecule, similar to that of a DNA/RNA chain of energies and wherein the two are a part of a pattern moving on this chain.

This Awareness indicates that it is likened unto a particular organization of forces on a molecular pattern of energies in the body of the universe which, when coming together in certain alignments will release within each of the individuals on that respective planet or on the respective planets of the systems, a kind of vibratory harmonization so that each individual on the respective system experiences an opening in their DNA and molecular chains so that they become more awakened to the Divinity within.

This Awareness indicates this is somewhat difficult to put into the proper words through this Interpreter who does not fully comprehend the meanings of the terms being used.

Sirian Influence In The Creation of Man

This Awareness indicates that the molecular structure and the DNA shapes were tampered with by Enki, the Sirian god in the Garden of Eden, after the human robot had been created to serve the Draconian Reptoids who saw themselves as the creator of the humans, and the work of Enki was designed to slowly change over a period of time to free the robot creature from its isolation as a non-thinking, non-deciding being, by the gift of Enki who created for that entity the ability to make decisions.

This Awareness has touched upon these things before and does not wish to go into elaborate discussion again. The entity did this through the introduction of the mammalian genes at the top of the reptilian brain and in this fashion, changed the creation of Enlil into that which was able to make decisions, had a choice. These choices and its decision-making ability has that which allowed humanity to gradually, over generation after generation, become more intelligent and more independent.

This Awareness indicates this infuriated the Draconian creators in their genetic creation known as man, because they could not control the entity if the entity could make decisions on his own. This Awareness indicates that in the process, the change also created shorter and shorter lifespans for the humans because the reptilian aspects were being diminished. The genetic reptilian qualities being diminished resulted in shorter lifespans, while the mammalian qualities became more prominent, resulting in more sensitive and emotional and compassionate qualities as well as better thinking abilities.

This Awareness indicates thus the human has the new mammalian brain evolving out of and above the reptilian brain, and over centuries, over many generations, the human has evolved at an extremely high rate, and this Awareness suggests that the action of the alignment in regard to Sirius and the Earth has triggered this to evolve even more quickly through the vibrations that are emanating between these two areas of the galaxy.

Cosmic Sex Is Occurring In Entities

This Awareness indicates it is as though these areas are emanating energies back and forth in a kind of cosmic sexual union, which heightens the sensitivity of all of the cells or individuals that might be within that field. This Awareness indicates that likewise, the work of the Arcturians in regard to the changing of the solar patterns, has created a balance in the sun that allows it to emanate rays that are in harmony, rather than in dissonance, and this harmony is that which also is creating a resonance among Earth people that causes them to become more harmonically balanced.

This is the way by which they are finding their spiritual aspects evolving at such a fine pace. This Awareness indicates that as long as this energy from the sun remains balanced it helps to counteract many of the negative forces that would attempt to distort energies on Earth. It helps to counteract, for example, forces that would bring about earthquakes, war and various types of conflicts.

It also helps to force entities to evolve more spiritually, even in spite of their basic programming and training so that when opportunities for some choice of negative or positive actions arise or are presented to an entity, even though that entity in the past may have opted for the negative choice, the entity seeing the positive and seeing that this would be more acceptable to humanity, may feel drawn towards that opinion over the negative, even though he or she might think it would not be quite as possible.

This Awareness indicates that when this happens it is the result of the positive harmonious energies that are emanating from the sun at this time and it is thus influencing humanity to evolve more quickly in spite of many of the efforts, desperate and dramatic efforts of negative forces who have introduced drugs and all kinds of programming onto the earth plane to cause a chaotic condition in preparation for a Satanic unified world government to emerge.

"Speaking of posterity, weren't you supposed to be laying eggs today?"

ARE CAYCE'S AND NOSTRADAMUS' PREDICTIONS
NO LONGER ACCURATE AFTER 1972 ?

(Another Reason Not To Take Scallion Seriously)

QUESTION:

Is this information correct about Cayce and Nostradamus whose predictions were 90% accurate before 1972, but after that event of '72 their predictions became less and less accurate?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. These predictions were made based on energy fluxes that existed prior to the inpouring of these new energies and the inpouring of these new energies on Earth as of such powerful quality that it disrupts all of the earlier influences by which these entities made their predictions.

This Awareness indicates that essentially, what is happening, is that entities are already beginning to enter into a world in which there is very little validity. Everything is in flux, in a state of change, and even though entities look for something solid, it is not nearly as solid as it once was, and therefore what you think you have as a solid aspect of your life may only be solid for a brief time and you may find that your anchor to something stable is jerked away at any time, leaving you floundering for something to hold onto.

Entities Are Looking for Something Eternal To Cling To

This Awareness indicates that many entities experience this, and not only once, but many times in their lives. Even young people have already gone through many of these experiences in which they feel they have nothing solid in their lives to hold on to. Many try to hold on to the solidity of their parents' union, only to find their parents divorced, and there is no union. Others find solidity and stability in their rooms or their home, or in a relationship with someone who has always seemed to have it together, but these things only last for so long, and the entity feels adrift, floating, with nothing solid to cling to.

Others cling to religion or philosophy, but these too, entities tend to outgrow after awhile, for the philosophy or religion tends to become not as true as they thought they were, and there is feelings of betrayal or disappointment, and the entity looks about for something more. This Awareness reminds entities in such a situation that the one thing that never changes and never betrays them is the consciousness of the universe, the divinity of that consciousness, and the emanation of love from the Universal Consciousness. If entities can look at it and find it and cling to it as a permanent unchanging aspect of life.

This Awareness indicates that the world may fall away, the ground may fall from you, but the consciousness is everywhere present and you may cling to it, knowing that wherever you are, it is there also. The Divine Consciousness of the universe is ever and always with you. That is God. This Awareness indicates that entities who can cling to God in this manner, recognizing that the Light, the love is there next to you, touching you, filling you, everywhere present, and you are never separate from it, then you have something eternal to cling to that never is lost or taken from you.

This Awareness indicates that the efforts of the Arcturians in altering certain of the disservices of the sun, have helped to stabilize that energy so that entities can indeed find greater harmony to tune in to that Divine Consciousness of the universe. This is that which helps entities to find greater peace and greater spiritual evolvment.

ROBERT TEMPLE'S BOOK: "THE SIRIUS CONNECTION"

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

This book reference the questioner recommends, Robert Temple's The Sirius Connection; does Awareness see that as being basically valid information?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates in general this is a very beneficial book for entities who wish to explore this concept further. This Awareness suggests that those who wish further understanding of the Sitchin material and the nature of man's origins in regard to his early creation could also benefit, keeping in mind that the tie-in with Sitchin, and the analysis of Enki and Enlil in their creation of man in that area of ancient Sumer and Akadia, which has been a prototype or allegory for the Garden of Eden. It is the place where the space people landed and created the modern version of man in its original state.

This Awareness indicates that of course the creation has evolved considerably since that time; it was originally shaped more like those Reptoid types from Draco, until Enki entered and changed the creation.

For more information on Enki and Enlil and their role in creating humans, please refer to the following 'Revelations of Awareness' newsletters: 91-4, 91-16, 91-17, 93-4; $3.00 each from CAC.

WHAT ABOUT OUR MATERIAL POSSESSIONS ON EARTH
WHEN THE 2012/2013 DENSITY CHANGE FINALIZES ?

(Can You Take It All With You? Would You Want to?)

QUESTION:

A question from V.B., Lantana, Florida, while we're in this area of the 2012 change. She writes: "In regard to the astral earth Awareness has talked about, if one owns a piece of land in the present earth as we know it now, will they also own that same land coordinates in the astral earth? If one has a retirement savings here, will it translate to the astral earth or is there no point of investing in, for example, an IRA (Individual Retirement Accounts)? If one owns a business of this earth, will it translate to the astral earth or will there not be any necessity for physical shelter, clothing, food, water, et cetera? In other words, is the astral earth non-material and non-physical? Is there a point to gaining material possessions such as land and housing and financial security if we transmute from this earth to the new astral earth?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that you need to know the answer to this in order for you to know what to do with your property; this appears to be the reason for the question. This Awareness indicates that it is best for you to continue as you are, that the changes which will occur will occur gradually enough that if there is a need to sell your property, to get rid of your property, or when you feel it is comfortable and proper to do so, it will be easy.

It will not be something you have to study and dwell on; you will simply know that you no longer need this. You can discard it, like an old sock, an old coat. This Awareness indicates that It does not wish entities to start discarding their properties at this time, based on some reading about the future. This Awareness indicates that when the time comes that the future begins to reveal itself as time in which you no longer need to hold on to material possessions, then you will feel that recognition that it is no longer necessary to hold on to those material possessions.

SHOULD WE STILL WORK TO SAVE ENVIRONMENT? (What If The Plan of the Aliens Doesn't Work Out?)

QUESTION:

Another question from V.B. "In the same light, if we work toward a better environment here and now, will it help toward creating the astral earth?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if the entities begin to work toward a better environment here and now, they are contributing to the creation of a better mentality for humanity, and a better mentality of humanity will come to create the better reality of tomorrow. This Awareness indicates that as entities become more responsible and more caring and more loving for their environment and for each other, they help to add to that evolution of humanity and of the earth itself so that as they move into these new energies they become co-creators of the world into which they fit.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

She also asks: "If, however, the aliens are defeated and fail to make their desired changes of the earth, ie. make it into a desert, et cetera, will we stay on this present earth as we know it and will we still eventually evolve into another transmuted state as described by Awareness when talking of the astral or New Earth?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears that changes will occur regardless of what the aliens do or don't do. When this Awareness speaks of aliens in this context It is referring to the Reptoids and Greys who are already present on earth, not to those of the Galactic Command. This Awareness indicates that it appears that these entities will make their efforts to control the earth. They will use humans in that effort, but regardless of what they do, the earth's orbit moving into this photon belt is going to undergo dramatic change, and even if entities do not fully comprehend the changes as they occur, humans will have changed along with the earth, and the realities that follow will be subject more to human consciousness than at present time.

This Awareness does not quite recognize that the change will be to that of an astral world; it is questionable as to whether the word "astral" is proper or accurate in describing the new creation, but it is a different dimensional experience. It is a consciousness experience wherein the new world will be filled with greater levels or densities of consciousness that will permeate and penetrate the matter of the creation of the world, and that consciousness that is in the material world of that dimension will be in tune and responsive to the minds of entities who live there.

Thus, if you want to affect something in the world, you think of the effect you want and the material images simply follow, much like that which occurs in a dream. If you want a chair in a dream, you can simply dream up a chair. This Awareness indicates that in these other dimensions, in these higher dimensions where spirit and consciousness are enhanced and in greater amounts, the material substances of the dream are more filled with consciousness and more responsive to the consciousness of entities than as presently understood on the earth material plane.

The closest allegory or analogy to this for humans would be the concept of a dream-state, but it will not actually be a dream-state, for there will be greater continuity in your consciousness in this new reality and your time, your days, your movements and energies will flow one to the other in a continuity.

This Awareness indicates this will give a greater sense of reality than what you experience in dreams.

This Awareness indicates if, however, you should decide you want to carry your material possessions with you into these new realms, say an astral realm or a dream-state reality, keep in mind that your deeds and your documents will also be of a dream-state reality and you may be handing this paper around to show others that you own the land they are walking on, and they will simply smile and say: "How nice!" and it will also be pleasant for you, and you will enjoy sharing your land with them.

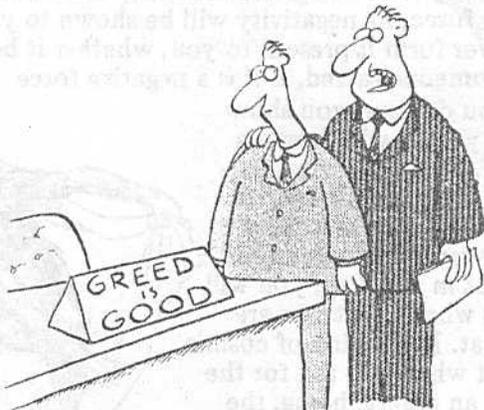

It is of little consequence at that time whether you own the land or not. This Awareness indicates, depending upon your vibration, you will either enjoy the people and enjoy the life or you will feel cheated, and if you feel negative feelings about the situation you may find yourself moving along the other direction toward those who are more greedy and who break off and move into more materialistic directions, toward the darker realm.

But this Awareness does not see this as any remote likelihood for you; It sees that whether or not is strictly a matter of personal choice and that choice does not have to be made now. It can be made at any time. It does not even have to be made. You can simply forget it, and if all of a sudden someday you have an urge to sell your property and the urge is overwhelming, then you may do so.

If, on the other hand, you have a strong urge to keep your property, then that too is quite acceptable. This Awareness indicates that when the earth becomes likened unto a dream, it doesn't matter how much of it you own. The dream is still going to have something there to offer. If it should disappear, you can simply dream up another ground for your feet to stand on.

This Awareness indicates that if you are frightened of being left exposed in a dream, as has occurred for many entities, you may wish to dream up a place of privacy where you can go and you may want to take something else of that kind of privacy with you, in which case you may wish to hold on to the deeds of your home, and take it into this new dimension when you go in order to help reinforce your dream and your feeling of being able to find privacy.

This Awareness indicates perhaps the dream analogy is not perfect, but there is very little type of description that this Awareness can find to describe the movement into these new dimensional energies and the dream analysis is perhaps the closest conveying it.

WAISGLASS/COULTHART

"Don't expect warm and fuzzy platitudes around here, Fishbeck."

QUESTION:

She has one more question in this area: "If the polarities of good and evil, so to speak, become less pronounced rather than stronger, or if they draw closer together and neutralize each other, will this earth eventually become the astral earth, or will they still be two separate planets?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity is asking a hypothetical question. In the event that polarities cease to exist, would there actually be a merging of the negative and positive forces to allow the cruder planet to continue without a shift in the dimension, creating two planets, one which moves lower and one which moves into a higher dimension?

This Awareness indicates if indeed, the polarities between negative and positive or good and evil were to merge into a single reconciliation, matter would cease to be and the energies would move toward higher etheric energies and the more absolute the reconciliation, the less substance would be in the etheric level.

The earth could totally dissolve, if indeed the reconciliation of positive and negative energies became absolute, but the likelihood of this occurring in reality is not seen. This Awareness indicates It does not see the potential for possibility of absolute reconciliation of polarities in regard to the creation of the earth, and therefore, the negative and positive may be resolved considerably, so that the energies of the earth could perhaps move into an etheric level that maintained a kind of stability without being totally material or totally spirit, but somewhere in between, in which case it would be possible for these energies to continue being unified.

This Awareness indicates that it would not require a duality planet, a splitting off of two energies. This Awareness indicates that of course, the hypothesis is that which is based on the question of whether something could occur under certain conditions, not a matter of what is seen, and therefore this Awareness suggests that even though it could occur, it is not seen as being very plausible at this time.

This Awareness suggests, with proper energization, one could help to bring about a reality in which that potential would become more probable. This Awareness indicates that as entities' consciousness begins to grow stronger, and their ability to manifest enhances in the approach to these times, they might perhaps be able to visualize a reconciliation between the positive and negative forces so that the splitting need not occur.

This Awareness indicates that this could well be something worth considering as entities approach these energy fields of the future. At present time entities could not, with their present consciousness, effect such a reconciliation between positive and negative to be able to move the earth from its polarity state, but as entities get closer to this, or into the photon belt, this could well be energized, where their consciousness becomes more solid and more capable of having an effect over matter, and matter becomes weakened in its polarities by natural adjustment to these energies.

Polarity Change Could Create "Etheric Demons"

Therefore, it would be possible for humanity to change the nature of the polarities into that which is more reconciled. In such case, even those entities who are very negative in nature could be influenced toward a more balanced and etheric quality. This does not necessarily mean however, that simply because they become more etheric they are

14. forced to become spiritually wholesome. They may simply become etheric demons.

This Awareness indicates that it is something to consider, for these entities will not only need to become more etheric as they move into these energy fields, but they need also to become more spiritual and more attuned to the Divine energies rather than holding on to those negative energies which they have become accustomed to.

Their comfort zone may bind them to those negative energies, in which case they might not be able to adjust to the higher more Divine frequencies, even when moving in to etheric bodies.

SHE SEES AN "EWOK" IN HER MEDITATION

(The One Question You Should Always Ask a Spirit)

QUESTION:

B.S., York, Pennsylvania, writes: "If I had any doubt about going fourth dimensional, it is clear now. About two weeks ago, in meditation, I saw a little creature in a hood and long robe. He looked like a little Ewok. He said: "Fourth communication," and I knew he meant 'fourth dimension.' Two other friends of mine saw him in their meditation also. I hope Awareness talks about this some time."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a visitor from another dimension that you have opened the door to in your meditations. This Awareness suggests that the entity does not appear to be dangerous. This Awareness indicates that the only thing It can suggest is that you ask the entity if it has a message for you or if it has something to impart to you, if you see it again.

This Awareness indicates that it was an experience of your own. It was not an experience that this Awareness can elaborate on further than what you already experienced, because it was your experience. This Awareness suggests that if you have further experience with this entity, communicate with the entity, enlarge the experience, determine what the entity would like to convey to you. If you have any apprehension about communicating with the entity, ask the entity to show you his or her true self. This Awareness indicates this is for anyone who is confronted with an entity during meditation. If you have any apprehension as to whom you are seeing or witnessing, simply ask, "Now who are you really?", and if this entity is of a negative creation, if the entity is a negative force, its negativity will be shown to you.

Whatever form it present to you, whether it be beautiful or someone sacred, if it is a negative force in disguise, when you demand you show itself to you, it will show its true self. This Awareness indicates it may be demonic, or it may be exactly as it is, or it may be very angelic in its real form, but in this way, you will find out who in fact you are looking at. It is a kind of cosmic law, that when you ask for the truth of an etheric being, the being must reveal its true self to you.

This Awareness suggests you not ask why, but recognize that they do this.

THE CAT IS OUT OF THE BAG!

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there are many questions that are likely to come out of this discussion in future weeks. This Awareness indicates that entities who do not have a clear understanding of what has been given or who wish to find more detailed information may still ask questions on this and find more satisfaction to their curiosity.

This Awareness indicates, however, that it indeed does appear as a very bizarre topic, and there will be many who find it difficult to understand or accept, and this Awareness intended to release information very slowly over a period of many months or even years in this regard, rather than letting entities have the whole thing all at once.

However, someone opened the door, and the cat is out of the bag and the information is there, and therefore, entities can question, can doubt, can go through all of the agonies of trying to understand and may think of all kinds of criticism or doubts or emotional concerns about what to do in the future with this or that.

This Awareness indicates that it is there for you to fit somewhere into your head, on a shelf, or in the path of everything else which you must deal with in your life. This Awareness suggests that if it is troublesome to you, that you put it on a shelf behind the UFO material or behind the conspiracy material, or wherever you wish. You do not need to put it in the path, to obstruct your activities in regard to life and your normal affairs.

This Awareness suggests that you think of it as being information in a bag that can be tossed over into a corner if it is a problem, or, if you enjoy the information or are curious in regard to the information, you may pull the bag out into the light and examine it from time to time, to see how much sense it makes, if there are areas that don't make sense, or areas that need further examination.

This Awareness indicates that it is for you to decide what to do with the information that has been given in this reading. You do not have to deal with it, but if you wish to deal with it, feel free to do what you wish.

The Law of Gratitude is given.

ED's Note: This reading was given December 6, 1993 and was based on questions relating to Sheldon Nidle's newsletter. Much of this information later appeared in his book, "You Are Becoming a Galactic Being"--a book Cosmic Awareness has been recommending for those who wish to understand more about the Photon Belt. This book is now available in most New Age bookstores and also from CAC. Please refer to Book Price List for current prices.

WHY WOMEN ARE ATTRACTED TO VIOLENT MEN

QUESTION:

A question from J.S. in Seattle. He writes: "A lot of young women I know have a difficult time with love and sex because they are attracted to men who abuse them, or who cause them to suffer. They are intuitively attracted to these men for a reason. They seem cold, cruel, ruthless and deadly. Recently, a girl asked me why this was, and I was moved by spirit to say that women have a different energy than men. It is a more gentle, living and loving energy and has a respect for life, but men have death energy in them. We are scrambling for survival and are used to getting knocked around or knocking out the opposition first. We deaden ourselves inside to the violence that we perpetuate and interface with on a daily basis. Women are attracted to the death energy because they want to learn from it, and unfortunately for them, they get hurt by it, and they learn that a lot of men who are like this are selfish and pig-headed and don't care about anyone but themselves, and in fact, we don't know how to care about ourselves that much.

"Am I right about this? And, if so, does the popular American myth of the rugged individual who lives free of all authority, guided only by an interior and oftentimes violent code, help to alienate us all from knowing ourselves? Why are we so afraid of simply loving and honoring one another? Are we so strange that we have to kill everything that moves?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this entity has analyzed the situation very well. This Awareness indicates, however, there is also another aspect that was left out of the equation; this being that many women are attracted not only to love and the nurturing aspect, but they are attracted to the power, wherever it might be found, which they believe they can harness and use, thus, they are attracted to the man who emits an aura of power.

In this sense, this can include those who are violent. Of course, the first act in a relationship with such a man generally is to tame and gain control over that violence so that the woman can be safe herself, while having that power and violence at her disposal.

This Awareness indicates that generally, this does not work in the way the women intends and she finds herself being at the brunt of the abuse and violence which first attracted her. This then of course leads to her need, her desire to be free of this entity, and in many cases, the entity does not want to free her, and feels a need to keep her because he is attracted to her nurturing qualities and wants that nurturing, for she can nurture his gentle aspects, his loving aspects, and he wants that from her, even if he does not admit it.

But, he is also willing to violate her in order to keep her, in order to have that nurturing quality, that gentle quality that she offers. This Awareness indicates that he may not be willing to deal with her in a gentle manner, but he can demand she stay with him and he can threaten her if she doesn't, or if she appears to seek a distance from him.

This Awareness indicates that man's gentle qualities need nurturing, but man must learn to allow and to bring out the nurturing of these qualities from himself, or to allow others to bring them out. He cannot be violent and also gentle at the same time. But for some reason, man seems to think he can be violent, and then once his violence has control of the other, he can then be gentle.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto the entity who beats up his spouse and then says: "Now that you have submitted to my power, I will be very nice to you. I will show you how nice I can be." This Awareness indicates that this is a kind of sickness that has resulted from this syndrome described by the questioner, and by the cooperation of those women who bite into or buy into this sickness, in their search for power, excitement, or drama in a relationship.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is he correct in that part of the question about "the popular American myth of the rugged individual who lives free of all authority, guided only by an interior and often times violent code; does this help to alienate us all from knowing ourselves?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative; that it is almost impossible to have close relationships with others while still holding oneself out and away from others, to preserve one's own self-interest and self-importance. One must learn to give in order to relate, and if you cannot give, you cannot relate well.

This Awareness indicates that it is to be considered that perhaps you cannot give in certain areas, perhaps there are lines over which you cannot cross. Perhaps you have principles or rules or values that you will not compromise on, but this does not prevent you from compromising on other areas, other values, other issues that are not that important to you.

Therefore, you can give in some areas, if not on all. You can give in, you can surrender in some areas of your relationships, and allow the other to have certain victories in your conflicts with that entity, while still maintaining those principles or issues or values that to you are not compromisable.

This Awareness indicates that this may be a way to start. You may find that the more deeply grows your relationship, the more you are able to give in on certain other values that you once thought were uncompromisable. This Awareness indicates that It is not advocating that you should give in on all of your precious values but that you examine them to find out why you cling to them.

If it is a matter of personal ego, or if it is a matter of principles that are based on sound understanding of life, and a need to keep those principles intact for some greater reason than your own personal ego, and if it is something that goes beyond self, if it is a principle by which you feel your life is bound, then don't compromise.

This Awareness indicates if it is simply personal ego, such as the entity who might say: "I'm the kind of person who likes my beer cold, and any woman who brings me a beer that is not cold to my suiting is in deep trouble!"; this is simply an ego value. It is not a matter or principle in terms of lifetime values.

This Awareness indicates that these things of ego-value can be compromised. They are not really important. In fact, the entity might find it possible to get up and find his own beer, if that is the situation. This Awareness indicates It has watched so many men who have refused to compromise over some issue that is totally juvenile, worthy

16. of a two-year old, and yet, these demands can tear relationships apart, can ruin the lives of family members, simply because the man's ego and personal pride is so frail that he must have his way in order to prove himself the master of the house.

This is sickness. These men may call it "rugged individualism" or "maschoism," but it is simply a childish juvenile attitude that they use to control others. It is not manly. It is not mature. It is not worthy of an adult. This Awareness does not wish to speak of this further. It is basically disgusting.

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there are so many beautiful things in this life of each individual, if each individual simply opens his or her eyes and recognizes the beauty available. There are so many beautiful things on this earth. You do not have to walk more than a few feet to find something fascinating and beautiful.

Entities tend to become tired of those things with which they are familiar: Your spouses face, the picture of your home, the insides of your home. These may be so familiar to you that you have long lost your ability to appreciate these things, yet, if a similar home were in a painting that would for $4000 or more, you think: "My, I would like that if someone gave it to me. I would really appreciate that painting!"

And of course, if someone were to give you that painting with the picture of a similar home in its frame and you took it home and hung it on the wall, you might be so proud for several days and you would probably show this to your friends with great pride. "It's worth $4000, and I got it for nothing! They gave it to me!" You would be so pleased at your cleverness of getting something so valuable for nothing.

But as weeks pass, as months pass, as time passes, the picture hangs there, $4000 worth of art, and you find yourself seeing it now as part of the room, no more exciting than the chair at the table, and you no longer see the beauty of the artwork. You no longer think of it as a great achievement that you received it. The thrill is gone. What do you do?

This Awareness indicates that you may think of selling it in order to get $4000 in cash by which to alter something else in your life, to make your life appear more exciting for a few brief moments. This Awareness indicates this is the nature of entities in regard to those things of value. You begin taking things of value for granted and then they lose their value.

This Awareness indicates it is important for entities to stop once in awhile and appreciate what they have in their lives and re-evaluate all the good things available to them, as though viewing these things for the first time. You will be surprised how much more valuable your life becomes and how precious your things may be when reviewed with this new appreciation.

WHAT MUST ONE DO TO ACHIEVE A CONTINUOUS SENSE OF SAMADHI OR LOVE AND BE ABLE TO FLOW INTO THE HIGHER REALMS OF CONSCIOUSNESS?

QUESTION:

A question from K.G. in Chicago. He writes: "I find it a little hard to put into words, but I believe that the following might be worth asking about. There was a psychic in the early 1970s named Olaf Johnson, who was reputed to have used his mind-concentrated energy to make others do his will. For example, making a bus driver make a U-turn or drive around the block; and further, that he could move objects with his mind, even to the point of levitating another person. He said that this power is all latent within each of us and that to do these things that he would first momentarily think of the universe outside of earth, outside of this perceived reality, and then, when he felt himself in the "now", (my word, not his), when he felt a blissful peacefulness within himself, that he could then focus upon our perceived reality, and seeing it as an illusion, he could manipulate it at will, as if his world was his own dream that he could alter with his own mind.

Awareness mentioned the 'Meditation of the Now'. Is this meditation the key to achieving a higher consciousness, and if so, are we to put ourselves in the blissful feeling that the meditation brings and to "remember" throughout the day the vibration associated with this kind of meditation? If this is not exactly correct, please advise us of what we must do to achieve a continual sense of Samadhi, i.e., love, and to be able to flow into the higher realms of consciousness that Awareness says is now available to us."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is indeed a way of attuning to the Divine Energies of the universe. This Awareness does not suggest that entities can stay totally in tune and still continue doing mundane activities, for the action of attuning to the Divine Energies of the universe requires that entities give their attention to the higher frequencies, recognize the vast domain of these higher frequencies and surrender to these Universal Energies.

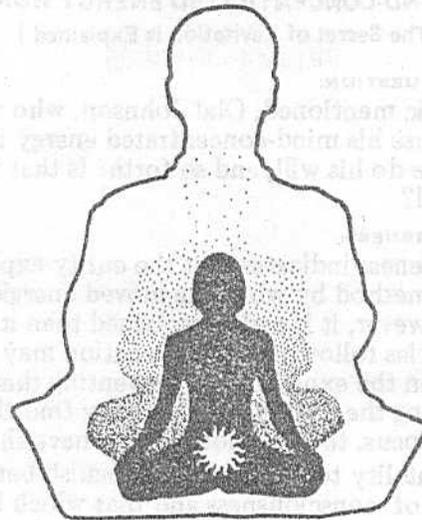

This Awareness indicates in doing so you would not be able to conduct certain mundane activities that require focus and thought. In order to enter into the higher energies of the Eternal Now and attune to the Universal Consciousness, you have to set aside that which is mind, emotion, and feeling.

Mind, Emotion & Feeling Are Defined

Mind being that which equates to thought; emotions being that which equates to things you are attached to; and feeling being that which is aware of and attentive to those things about you, whether it be texture or touch or simply the awareness of things occurring nearby. This Awareness indicates any of these actions: mind, emotion and feeling, if given attention, will tend to bring you out of the Samadhi, or the attunement to Universal Consciousness.

This Awareness indicates, however, the more you meditate in that which is called the Eternal Now, the easier it becomes to enter that as your domain and think of the world in which you reside as being an excursion from your home or domain into a different reality of the third dimension.

In this third dimensional reality, which you are already familiar with, things require a different mind-set, a different way of relating, and therefore, you move into the third dimensional reality, you may need to let go of, for the most part, the 4th and 5th dimensional reality, at least temporarily.

This Awareness indicates that gradually you will find you are spending much of your time in the higher levels of consciousness, moving into third dimensional reality when required. This Awareness indicates that one must be very discerning about this, for you don't want to be travelling in heavy traffic while shifting from higher reality into third dimension without being able to complete your entry into third dimension, or you don't want to be shifting into higher frequencies at a time when third dimensional attention is essential to safety.

This Awareness indicates that in other words, there are times for third dimensional experience in the world, and there are times for 4th or 5th dimensional experiences, being in the realm of the spiritual. This Awareness indicates that one must discern the proper timing and proper placement of your experiential levels, according to the proper environment in which you are required to operate.

This Awareness indicates that moving into spiritual levels requires a certain amount of preparation. It is not something you would do while climbing a mountain, for example, in which you might find yourself in a precarious position. In other words, you do not want to attune to a Samadhi state deliberately, while climbing a cliff, for you might forget the urgency of the reality demands on you from the cliff-climbing activities, if you are attuned excessively to the spiritual energies amounting to a Samadhi experience.

This Awareness indicates that when you seek to move into a higher spiritual experience, make sure your setting is secure and safe, giving you correct time, and a necessary environment for such a movement and effort. In other words, you may wish to unplug the phones or lock your doors so there will not be any sudden uninvited interruptions, and set the setting or stage for your journey into higher states of consciousness as you meditate in the Eternal Now or the Ever-Present Now, going into higher levels of consciousness, focusing on the expansion of the here and now.

ED's Note: For information on how to enter into the "Eternal Now", please refer to "Revelations of Awareness" issue No. 94-7 (How to Experience the Eternal Moment of Now and Begin to Stop the Aging Process Immediately); $3.00 from CAC. Also, a tape recording of the actual trance session is available wherein Cosmic Awareness itself guides you through the steps. Please refer to issue 94-9 for further information on this tape.

HOW MIND-CONCENTRATED ENERGY WORKS (The Secret of Levitation is Explained)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

This psychic mentioned, Olaf Johnson, who was reputed to use his mind-concentrated energy to make other people do his will, and so forth: Is that information valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity explained quite clearly the method by which he moved energies in this manner; however, it is easier explained than it is accomplished. Entities following his explanation may find the distraction in the experience is preventing them from accomplishing the results, or they may find that even if they do focus, they do not seem to have the sufficient kind of mentality to discern or distinguish between a higher level of consciousness and that which is being moved or to be manipulated in the reality level.

Moving Into a God's-Eye View of The World

Their higher levels of consciousness may simply shift down into third-dimensional reality when they try to focus on levitating a particular object. This Awareness suggests it appears that to do such an action, one needs to keep their consciousness in a higher reality and look at the object to be levitated as though it was in this new world, new realm down below that is controlled by the higher levels of consciousness, the higher frequencies of the Eternal Now, the infinite present, the energies of Divinity.

This Awareness indicates that if you can hold your God's eye view and look at the world as a small dot in this cosmic universe from which you observe the dot of the world, and if you can look more closely into that dot and magnify a portion in which the object you wish to levitate rests, it is possible from your God's-eye view to see that object as a kind of image likened unto a screen, and see the whole picture as being something created in your mind as part of your mind, because you are attuned to cosmic consciousness, and your attunement and surrender into cosmic consciousness allows you to have access to that Universal Consciousness, and you can, in looking at an image in Universal Consciousness, you can, as Universal Consciousness, move the object that is in the image which is itself a part of Universal Consciousness.

This Awareness indicates, of course, when you do this, you must remain attuned to the Divine Mind, and in so doing, it is an act of surrender of self to the Divine Mind. Therefore, while it is an intended willful action of yours, by the time you enter into the Divine Mind, your personal identity must be set aside, so that you become part of the mind of Divinity Itself, and from the action of that Divine Mind, the movement of the object can occur, but you cannot at the same time think of it as yourself, the human being doing it.

You must think of it solely as the Divine Mind which you have attuned to as doing this, levitating this object. This Awareness indicates that it is not something that can simply be done by following rules or words; it is something that must be experienced by an entity, and the experience must reach into the experience of unity with the Divine Consciousness or Divine Mind, and from there, you must experience attunement with the object of your focus which you wish to levitate, and you must, while remaining in Divine Mind, look at the object as though it was almost an insignificant image in your Divine Mind that can be moved by your Divine Mind, just as you can move an image in a dream, in your personal mind.

¹⁸ This Awareness indicates it is something that will take practice on an experiential level, and thinking about it will not do it. Experiencing it will do it.

This Awareness indicates there are not many people who can operate their minds outside the realm of thought in experiential observation. Therefore, not too many people will be successful in this action. This Awareness indicates, however, the practice and the effort will be of benefit to every entity, but the results may not be astounding or noteworthy.

A DOUBLE CONSPIRACY IN THE TOBACCO INDUSTRY?

QUESTION:

A question from T.M., in North Carolina. He writes: "Being from North Carolina, the nation's number one tobacco growing state, there is much speculation about the future of this cash crop, in light of the snowballing anti-tobacco public sentiment and government actions.

Although I don't smoke, I have been shocked by the recent momentum of the anti-tobacco movement. Just a generation ago it was suave to smoke, and now it's repulsive. There is no doubt in my mind that within a few years it will be outlawed.

Setting aside the emotional feelings many anti-smoking people have about the issue, is it possible that there could be a hidden agenda here? Maybe an experiment by the government in determining how easy it will be to take away an individual's freedom to decide about smoking? Or, could it be a double conspiracy by the tobacco industry which wants the government to ban tobacco and give the companies an easy way out of future liability suits? After all, the tobacco companies are vastly diversified now. Then they could export it to naive Third World smokers and avoid legal entanglements here and push their other products in the USA."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the world-wide consumption in other countries of tobacco products is on the increase, very rapid increase, even as it is diminishing in this country. This Awareness indicates that your questions in regard to the hidden agenda are those that tend to have some credibility in light of the situations that are developing in this country.

This Awareness indicates that it will not be long before tobacco will be made illegal except by prescription or will have some kind of new regimentation involved. This Awareness indicates that it may also develop that entities wishing to smoke will need to have approval, particularly if a health program is initiated that is funded by government or insurance companies, so that the government nor the insurance companies funding the health care program will have a liability from entities who indulge in smoking because of their illnesses resulting from that smoke.
