The Secret of the Grand Canyon

...After 85 Years Another Government Coverup is Exposed

Paul Shockley, Interpreter

If one is aware of the extraterrestrial background. I refer to the unsuccessful Bay of Pigs invasion in Cuba.

(This is written by Salvador Freixedo, translated from the Spanish): "Inexplicably, at the Bay of Pigs, after everything had been planned by the Pentagon and the CIA, right down to the smallest detail, Kennedy, at the very last moment, changed his mind. All that now took place behind the scenes is immensely interesting, but as I say, far too lengthy to be detailed here.

HOW TO DEAL WITH RIGHT-WING "POLITICAL CORRECTNESS"?

QUESTION:

A question from Robert S., Vancouver, British Columbia. He writes: "Hypersensitive, hypocritical, white-male-hating Leftists are shoving their "politically correct" nonsense down everyone's throats these days. What can we do about it? What is the best way to oppose the other extreme: "Right-wing Political Correctness", which rigidly and hypocritically supports tradition, militarism, greed, bigotry, and Fundamental Christianity?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that you need not feel it is necessary to be pushed around by other people's opinions, whether from the one side or the other. You may listen to what entities have to say, and either walk away, showing your disinterest, or engage in conversation and express yourself according to your own convictions.

This Awareness indicates if you do decide to express yourself according to your own convictions, be sure that you acknowledge your respect for them and their right to their convictions and explain that you have your own ideas and you are willing to discuss these ideas with them, if it can be done in a harmonious way, and you may then proceed to discuss and ask them if they wish to sit down and share ideas, or if they simply want to impose their ideas upon you.

If it turns out that they want to impose their ideas upon you without listening to your ideas, tell them you are not interested and walk away. This Awareness indicates if they are willing to give and take ideas, then you may wish to continue engaging in conversation with them. It will depend largely on what you yourself are willing to accept from them and what you feel is your right in relating to them.

You do not have to accept other people's ideas if you are not interested in listening. This Awareness indicates however, if you wish to express your ideas, you must also be willing to listen to their opinions and ideas, even if you do not fully agree with them. It is a matter of fairness, being fair.

WAS ROBERT KENNEDY KIDNAPED BY ALIENS TO STOP CUBAN INVASION?

QUESTION:

Another question from Robert. He sent in a copy of an article that appeared in a British UFO magazine, which I'm not going to read because it's too long, but there's an excerpt here that he asks the questions about. I'll read his question after I read this.

"The Extraterrestrials Versus Kennedy. But as it appears, the Greys did not confine themselves to sending written reports and threats. They also took direct action. There is one very strange episode in the life of President Kennedy which is explicable only

"I will sum it up by saying simply that there were two things that forced Kennedy to so drastic a decision; namely: (one), the abduction of his brother Robert by the Greys, and (two), the sudden visit that he, President Kennedy, presently received from two little beings who, making a mockery of all the guards and controls, (the easiest thing for beings that can make themselves invisible whenever they wished) appeared in his Oval Office in the White House and threatened to kill his brother, if he, the President, did not instantly halt the American intervention in the Bay of Pigs; all this being on account of the very great danger that it would entail: an escalation of the atomic struggle with the USSR"

Now, Robert asks, and writes: "Enclosed is an article from the Spring 1995 issue of the British magazine Flying Saucer Review. Does Cosmic Awareness acknowledge that this article: "Contacts Between US Presidents and Aliens, part II, by Salvador Freixedo is true? Was Robert Kennedy really kidnaped and held hostage by the Greys? Was JFK visited in the Oval Office by two "repugnant yellow colored beings"? Were these beings Greys or some other kind of small ugly alien?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to have substance to it. This Awareness indicates that it appears that the extraterrestrial aliens perceived the invasion of Cuba as sufficient to cause a strong reaction from Russia, which they perceived would lead to nuclear war between the United States and Russia, and that they felt drastic measures were necessary and the minimum action would be of the nature of a personal intrusion into the President's life in order to cause him to re-think his plan.

They also spent much time explaining how this invasion would affect the Soviet Union in its relationship with the United States. This Awareness indicates that this is in contrast to the later US/ Soviet Union eyeball to eyeball confrontation of missiles being brought into Cuba through Russian ships, wherein the ETs did not, at that particular point interfere in a blatant way.

This Awareness indicates that it is seen that these entities were prepared to help stop the conflict if it had developed any further at that time, when the shipments of missiles to Cuba brought about the Cuban Missile Crisis. This Awareness indicates the action of hindering Kennedy's will to continue with the Bay of Pigs did not totally stop the invasion, but hindered it enough that the invasion was but a half-hearted effort.

By stopping the air power, it defused the success of the invasion. This Awareness indicates that following this fiasco, Kennedy did consult with Eisenhower and shared this information with him in such a way that a strong bond developed between them, and Eisenhower did convey and show a respect for Kennedy which helped to restore his credibility to the public.

This Awareness indicates that the later event of the Cuban Missile Crisis brought about a new respect for the man as President, wherein he showed himself being able to handle a crisis of such magnitude and still come out with a sense of victory. This Awareness indicates you will not likely find any proof of this in any public records, that the President was visited by extraterrestrials.

This Awareness indicates that there are some records of this in certain places in England, among certain entities connected with the Rothschild organization, but it is very unlikely that this will ever be made public during this century or into much of the next century, if ever.

This Awareness indicates that entities who try to persuade others of this event are likely to be seen as foolish.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Does Awareness see the abduction of Robert Kennedy for three days as hostage by the aliens as being valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct. This Awareness does not see it as a full three days however.

WHO WERE THE 'REPUGNANT YELLOW-COLORED BEINGS'?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

The "repugnant yellow-colored beings"---
(There's a little more in here. I'd better read):
"Christina Onasis stated that when aboard the yacht of her father, Aristotle Onasis, she heard Jacqueline Kennedy, then already married to Aristotle Onasis, telling him that "One day when Jack Kennedy was alone in his office, he received an unexpected visit by two repugnant beings, resembling dwarves of a deep yellow color."

And then Francis, the editor says: "This fits perfectly with what Ted Sorenson, one of people closest to the President wrote, referring to that very same day. He wrote: "We heard the President shouting in his study when we knew that there was nobody with him, and then we saw him come out, his face looking drawn and walking slowly as though borne down by an infinite weight. And without speaking a word to anyone he went off to his house, where his wife instantly had the family doctor sent for."

"To these beings," Jacqueline went on telling Onasis: "the foreign relations of the United States were of no importance whatsoever, but they were afraid that if we openly aided the enemies of Castro, it would cause the Russians to use their own nuclear weaponry to defend him."

Could Awareness explain which type of aliens were these, that were described as "two repugnant yellow-colored beings"?

HEY! WE NEED MORE GOOD QUESTIONS!
Send them by FAX, letter or web to CAC!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this does not appear to be connected to the Zeta Reticuli group, nor to the Orion group, but appears to be an ally of the Orion group, a group of entities whose specialty is in liaison types of negotiations between various cultures.

This Awareness indicates it is seen that the Orions are more or less specialists in economics and these entities are likened unto emissaries that were associated with the Orion types; the tall Grey long-nosed Orions, but that these entities followed a different stock or race. These yellow beings appear to have been associated with the Betelgeuse star system, in the area of Betelgeuse.

Doing Negative Research Becomes a Downer: What to do About it?

QUESTION:

A question from Weus M., of Philadelphia. It's a personal question but it might have some general interest. He writes: "I have a very serious question for Awareness, and I have refused to ask this question for the last two months, because I felt as an individual that I could look within and thus, through meditation, this can be handled.

"I have been doing the Care Mission Research For Compassion for 6 years now, and now I am writing a slough of books, but there is an absence there. For the last few months I have been distant within myself on life due to finding research that has been negative, as in research of the negative aliens, research of the New World Order, research of the harshness of life.

"What happened is that these researches have made me distant. Because of the depressive states of this research, I have found life better at a distance than close up. I have noticed this in my meditations and when I am walking down the street that I am not really there. People are starting to notice it and I have not found a way to end this distant state.

"The question is this: Can Awareness please instruct me on some meditative states that can bring the individual back to the moment of living, regardless of the negativity of it? Thank you Awareness", he writes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is a concern on your part for the large picture of life and you have seen and glimpsed the dangers involved in the large picture. You can look in the future and see that there is the potential for great difficulty and danger to humanity.

This Awareness indicates that this view of the future creates a depression, and creates within you a concern for and a need to do something about the future, about the threat to the future. This causes you to feel you do not have time for gardening, for making friends, for associating with entities in light frivolous ways; there is something very serious that needs attention.

This creates the feeling of distance from entities. How can you stop and be friendly? How can you spend time with a close associate in a light frivolous manner when you have this threat hanging over your head and you see these threats to your friends and loved ones looming in the future?

This Awareness indicates before you are qualified to deal with world threats, or threats to the future; before you are qualified to concern yourself with the problems of the future world, you must have a personal faith in Divine Guidance that can preserve the good in life. If you do not have that faith of some kind of Divine Guidance you should not even be involved in these concerns. You are not ready. You are not qualified, and you should drop all research into these things.

This Awareness indicates that if you have a sense of Divine Guidance, that there is some Divine Force guiding the world, guiding mankind, then you have the proper attitude which will allow you to research the negative, research the potential dangers to humanity and still feel deep within yourself that it will all turn out all right somehow; that something will work to help make this threat less dangerous or to help bring about an end to the threat.

This Awareness indicates that at present, it would be very important for you to simply cease any further research in the negative areas for the time-being. Let it be a temporary interruption while you begin focusing on the Divine Energies that guide the universe, that guide humanity, and look back on history and realize that there have often been grave threats to humanity, but somehow, something guides humanity through these threatening troubled waters so that things work out.

As you begin to see this repeatedly in past history, it will give you a sense of stability and faith that there is a guiding force to help humanity overcome whatever dangers may be lurking on the horizon. The faith that develops will also give you the ability to spend some time with loved ones without feeling that you cannot take the time to stop and smell the roses or befriend a needy person.

This Awareness indicates that if you can be close to even one person, a friend, a child, a relative; just being close, helping the nephew, the cousin, a relative, or a friend through some troubled experience; this kind of action can help to rebalance your energy so that you can have a greater sense of attachment and will not feel so aloof or apart from everything.

This Awareness indicates it is very important if you are to be involved in researching these frightful areas, these negative areas, that you have close ties with others. This Awareness indicates that the Interpreter and entities here at C.A.C. do not become obsessed with negatives that often come up for long periods of time, even though they work closely with these energies in preparing newsletters.

They work as needed, then take a break and do things with others, do things that are pleasant in order to enjoy what cracks in life are positive. (sic) There is this afternoon wherein something pleasant can be done. Grab the moment, enjoy the afternoon. Then there is the next day wherein something serious must be attended. Put yourself into it, work, do the job necessary. Keep your focus.

When that focus becomes too heavy, too serious, begins disturbing your nerves, your attitudes, your feelings; when you feel there is a dark cloud over your head that follows you around, creating dark moods, you need a break. You need to stop, enjoy yourself, go to the beach, go to some pleasant outing, a place where you can enjoy nature, and just love life.

Be with someone you care for. Enjoy yourself. This Awareness indicates that this is essential for entities who are dealing with negative energies from time to time. You must learn how to balance your life so that where there is negative for a certain duration, there is also positive to counteract that negative in your life.

This Awareness indicates by balancing positive and joyous experiences to counteract the negative experiences, you will function more effectively in your work. If you become too connected, too attached to the negative, your effectiveness will suffer in your work.

HOW ABOUT MIXING GENES TO CREATE A PERFECT RACE?

(More on Atlantis, "the Things", Temple of Beauty)

QUESTION:

A question from Lawrence F., (Miami, Fla.) He writes: "In a recent issue of Revelations of Awareness, Awareness went on for 6 pages about the stupidity of racism, however there was no information on the possible benefits to the human gene pool overall if intentional genetic union was encouraged between people of diverse genetic backgrounds.

"In plant and animal breeding this leads to "hybrid vigor" which refers to superior qualities in the offspring not manifest in the parents. Since the laws of genetics applies to all species, it seems that profound benefits would be brought forth by intentionally "stirring up" the human gene pool from proving superior physical bodies for the incarnation of more highly developed spirits to the eradication of race-based diseases such as sickle-cell anemia.

"Could Awareness comment on the benefits of human transperma?*

*Could not locate this word. Ed.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in approximately 10,000 B.C., the Egyptians, using certain Atlantean science, developed a program wherein there was created the Temple of Beauty, which was designed to glorify beauty and to help individuals develop greater beauty in themselves, and many entities had, through the use of vibration and other technologies of the time, had certain qualities of imbalance burned off by vibration, or in some cases, augmented to enhance the beauty of their being.

The so-called "things" from Atlantis, which were grotesque creatures, were altered to become more harmonious looking, and much of this was done through a kind of genetic manipulation through the use of frequencies and vibrations in the Temple Of Beauty, and the Temple of Healing.

This Awareness indicates while this had some effect in the general appearance of a number of entities, it was in itself essentially negligible in terms of the entire population, but out of this focus and the attention that went into it, something else came about.

Whereas the Atlanteans had prided themselves on creating grotesque forms, the subsequent Egyptian focus on beauty began to have an effect within society so that the society, the Egyptian society itself, began to admire harmony, beauty and grace as qualities in the selection of mates, and by nature, the appreciation of grace and beauty and symmetry led to the selection of beautiful mates.

This Awareness indicates in this manner, these entities began to pick the most gracious, beautiful, harmonious, intelligent and pleasant looking mates, and the offspring from these entities began to reflect a greater beauty in the general population.

This Awareness indicates that this is seen as being the more natural and appropriate way of enhancing the beauty of a people, or of a race of people, wherein they are taught to appreciate certain types of beauty, and where the beauty is defined so that it is not simply sensuality alone, but also includes grace and spiritual beauty; the beauty of character, the beauty of intelligence, the beauty of harmonious relationships, the beauty of physical poise, the beauty of generosity and other appealing qualities.

This Awareness indicates that as these things are given greater pride and greater appreciation in a society, that can have the greater effect of molding a society toward more healthy, more beautiful, more evolved entities in the future.

This Awareness indicates that if science can find a way to use genetics to help heal those difficulties and problems that cause entities pain, suffering and physical impairment, this can be of great benefit. This Awareness suggests that you do not need to destroy or hinder in order to enhance another. You can make all races beautiful within themselves. You can enhance the harmony of all entities so that gradually they all become their own harmonious and healthy selves, regardless of race.

UNDERGROUND CITY DISCOVERED IN GRAND CANYON: IS THIS STORY TRUE?

QUESTION:

Marc T. found some information on the Internet. I don't know where he got it, but he forwarded it to us. It's a story printed a long time ago. It's very interesting. Even if it turns out it isn't true, it's worth sharing, I believe. I've never seen or read anything about this before, or was never taught anything in school about this, which doesn't mean the story isn't true.

I'd like to read it to Awareness. There's a couple of questions in it. It's from the front page of the Phoenix Gazette, dated April 5th, 1909. The headline is: "Explorations in Grand Canyon. Mysteries of immense rich caverns being brought to light. Remarkable find indicates ancient people migrated from Orient."

THE PHOENIX GAZETTE of April 5th, 1909

EXPLORATIONS IN GRAND CANYON

Mysteries of Immense Rich Cavern Being Brought to Light

Jordan is Enthused

Remarkable Finds Indicate Ancient People Migrated From Orient

The latest news of the progress of the explorations of what is now regarded by scientists as not only the oldest archeological discovery in the United States, but one of the most valuable in the world, which was mentioned some time ago in the Gazette, was brought to the city yesterday by G.E. Kinkaid, the explorer who found the great underground citadel of the Grand Canyon during a trip from Green River, Wyoming, down the Colorado, in a wooden boat, to Yuma, several months ago.

According to the story related to the Gazette by Mr. Kinkaid, the archaeologists of the Smithsonian Institute, which is financing the expeditions, have made discoveries which almost conclusively prove that the race which inhabited this mysterious cavern, hewn in solid rock by human hands, was of oriental origin, possibly from Egypt, tracing back to Ramses.

If their theories are borne out by the translation of the tablets engraved with hieroglyphics, the mystery of the prehistoric peoples of North America, their ancient arts, who they were and whence they came, will be solved. Egypt and the Nile, and Arizona and the Colorado will be linked by a historical chain running back to ages which staggers the wildest fancy of the fictionist.

A Thorough Examination

Under the direction of Prof. S. A. Jordan, the Smithsonian Institute is now prosecuting the most thorough explorations, which will be continued until the last link in the chain is forged. Nearly a mile underground, about 1480 feet below the surface, the long main passage has been delved into, to find another mammoth chamber from which radiates scores of passageways, like the spokes of a wheel. Several hundred rooms have been discovered, reached by passageways running from the main passage, one of them having been explored for 854 feet and another 634 feet. The recent finds include articles which have never been known as native to this country, and doubtless they had their origin in the orient. War weapons, copper instruments, sharp-edged and hard as steel, indicate the high state of civilization reached by these strange people. So interested have the scientists become that preparations are being made to equip the camp for extensive studies, and the force will be increased to thirty or forty persons.

Mr. Kinkaid's Report

Mr. Kinkaid was the first white child born in Idaho and has been an explorer and hunter all his life, thirty years having been in the service of the Smithsonian Institute. Even briefly recounted, his history sounds fabulous, almost grotesque.

"First, I would impress that the cavern is nearly inaccessible. The entrance is 1,486 feet down the sheer canyon wall. It is located on government land and no visitor will be allowed there under penalty of trespass. The scientists wish to work unmolested, without fear of archeological discoveries being disturbed by curio or relic hunters.

A trip there would be fruitless, and the visitor would be sent on his way. The story of how I found the cavern has been related, but in a paragraph: I was journeying down the Colorado river in a boat, alone, looking for mineral. Some forty-two miles up the river from the El Tovar Crystal canyon, I saw on the east wall, stains in the sedimentary formation about 2,000 feet above the river bed. There was no trail to this point, but I finally reached it with great difficulty.

Above a shelf which hid it from view from the river, was the mouth of the cave. There are steps leading from this entrance some thirty yards to what was, at the time the cavern was inhabited, the level of the river. When I saw the chisel marks on the wall inside the entrance, I became interested, securing my gun and went in.

During that trip I went back several hundred feet along the main passageway till I came to the crypt in which I discovered the mummies. One of these I stood up and photographed by flashlight. I gathered a number of relics, which I carried down the Colorado to Yuma, from whence I shipped them to Washington with details of the discovery. Following this, the explorations were undertaken.

The Passages

"The main passageway is about 12 feet wide, narrowing to nine feet toward the farther end. About 57 feet from the entrance, the first side-passages branch off to the right and left, along which, on both sides, are a number of rooms about the size of ordinary living rooms of today, though some are 30 by 40 feet square. These are entered by oval-shaped doors and are ventilated by round air spaces through the walls into the passages. The walls are about three feet six inches in thickness.

The passages are chiseled or hewn as straight as could be laid out by an engineer. The ceilings of many of the rooms converge to a center. The side-passages near the entrance run at a sharp angle from the main hall, but toward the rear they gradually reach a right angle in direction.

The Shrine

"Over a hundred feet from the entrance is the cross-hall, several hundred feet long, in which are found the idol, or image, of the people's god, sitting cross-legged, with a lotus flower or lily in each hand. The cast of the face is oriental, and the carving this cavern. The idol almost resembles Buddha, though the scientists are not certain as to what religious worship it represents. Taking into consideration everything found thus far, it is possible that this worship most resembles the ancient people of Tibet.

Surrounding this idol are smaller images, some very beautiful in form; others crooked-necked and distorted shapes, symbolical, probably, of good and evil. There are two large cactus with protruding arms, one on each side of the dais on which the god squats. All this is carved out of hard rock resembling marble. In the opposite corner of this cross-hall were found tools of all descriptions, made of copper. These people undoubtedly knew the lost art of hardening this metal, which has been sought by chemicals for centuries without result. On a bench running around the workroom was some charcoal and other material probably used in the process. There is also slag and stuff similar to matte, showing that these ancients smelted ores, but so far no trace of where or how this was done has been discovered, nor the origin of the ore.

"Among the other finds are vases or urns and cups of copper and gold, made very artistic in design. The pottery work includes enameled ware and glazed vessels. Another passageway leads to granaries such as are found in the oriental temples. They contain seeds of various kinds. One very large storehouse has not yet been entered, as it is twelve feet high and can be reached only from above. Two copper hooks extend on the edge, which indicates that some sort of ladder was attached. These granaries are rounded, as the materials of which they are constructed, I think, is a very hard cement. A gray metal is also found in this cavern, which puzzles the scientists, for its identity has not been established. It resembles platinum. Strewn promiscuously over the floor everywhere are what people call "cats eyes", a yellow stone of no great value. Each one is engraved with the head of the Malay type.

The Hieroglyphics"

On all the urns, or walls over doorways, and tablets of stone which were found by the image are the mysterious hieroglyphics, the key to which the Smithsonian Institute hopes yet to discover. The engraving on the tablets probably has something to do with the religion of the people. Similar hieroglyphics have been found in southern Arizona. Among the pictorial writings, only two animals are found. One is of prehistoric type.

The Crypt

"The tomb or crypt in which the mummies were found is one of the largest of the chambers, the walls slanting back at an angle of about 35 degrees. On these are tiers of mummies, each one occupying a separate hewn shelf. At the head of each is a small bench, on which is found copper cups and pieces of broken swords. Some of the mummies are covered with clay, and all are wrapped in a bark fabric.

The urns or cups on the lower tiers are crude, while as the higher shelves are reached, the urns are finer in design, showing a later stage of civilization. It is worthy of note that all the mummies examined so far have proved to be male, no children or females being buried here. This leads to the belief that this exterior section was the warriors' barracks.

"Among the discoveries no bones of animals have been found, no skins, no clothing, no bedding. Many of the rooms are bare but for water vessels. One room, about 40 by 700 feet, was probably the main dining hall, for cooking utensils are found here. What these people lived on is a problem, though it is presumed that they came south in the winter and farmed in the valleys, going back north in the summer.

Upwards of 50,000 people could have lived in the caverns comfortably. One theory is that the present Indian tribes found in Arizona are descendants of the serfs or slaves of the people which inhabited the cave. Undoubtedly a good many thousands of years before the Christian era, a people lived here which reached a high stage of civilization. The chronology of human history is full of gaps. Professor Jordan is much enthused over the discoveries and believes that the find will prove of incalculable value in archeological work.

"One thing I have not spoken of, may be of interest. There is one chamber of the passageway to which is not ventilated, and when we approached it a deadly, snaky smell struck us. Our light would not penetrate the gloom, and until stronger ones are available we will not know what the chamber contains. Some say snakes, but other boo-hoo this idea and think it may contain a deadly gas or chemicals used by the ancients. No sounds are heard, but it smells snaky just the same. The whole underground installation gives one of shaky nerves the creeps. The gloom is like a weight on one's shoulders, and our flashlights and candles only make the darkness blacker. Imagination can revel in conjectures and ungodly daydreams back through the ages that have elapsed till the mind reels dizzily in space."

An Indian Legend

In connection with this story, it is notable that among the Hopi Indians the tradition is told that their ancestors once lived in an underworld in the Grand Canyon till dissension arose between the good and the bad, the people of one heart and the people of two hearts. Machetto, who was their chief, counseled them to leave the underworld, but there was no way out. The chief then caused a tree to grow up and pierce the roof of the underworld, and then the people of one heart climbed out. They tarried by Paxisvai (Red River), which is the Colorado, and grew grain and corn.

They sent out a message to the Temple of the Sun, asking the blessing of peace, good will and rain for people of one heart. That messenger never returned, but today at the Hopi villages at sundown can be seen the old men of the tribe out on the housetops gazing toward the sun, looking for the messenger. When he returns, their lands and ancient dwelling place will be restored to them. That is the tradition.

Among the engravings of animals in the cave is seen the image of a heart over the spot where it is located. The legend was learned by W.E. Rollins, the artist, during a year spent with the Hopi Indians.

There are two theories of the origin of the Egyptians. One is that they came from Asia; another that the racial cradle was in the upper Nile region. Heeren, an Egyptologist, believed in the Indian origin of the Egyptians. The discoveries in the Grand Canyon may throw further light on human evolution and prehistoric ages.

* Steve Wingate / CITIZEN'S INTELLIGENCE ACCESS BBS / 415.927.2435 / MindNet

That is the story that appeared in the Phoenix Gazette, April 5, 1909. Would Awareness comment on that and whether basically the information is true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the information is correct. This Awareness has previously discussed underground caverns that run throughout the earth. This Awareness indicates that this civilization was a remnant of that which has been termed Lemurian civilization: The Lemurian civilization being essentially in the Pacific as its own origin, and it had some spreading in the direction of the present area referred to as the Oriental world.

There is also an opening in these underground caverns in Egypt; that Atlantis contained an opening into these underground caverns and that they do connect into Tibet and that which is called Shamballah. This Awareness indicates that many of these underground caverns or what may be termed "underground highways" have been blocked although many areas are open.

This Awareness indicates that some of these also go down into South America. This Awareness indicates that the entities, the American Indians, particularly the Hopi, are descendants of entities who once lived in these underground caverns. This Awareness indicates it has been theorized that the American Indians have an origin in the China or Asian continent. This Awareness suggests that the theory is that they came across the area of Alaska.

This Awareness wishes to suggest, however, that some of these entities came through tunnels that went beneath the Pacific to Lemuria, of which the Hawaiian islands are a part, and on to the North American continent. This Awareness indicates that these underground caverns were once part of a great world civilization that included high technology from extraterrestrial civilizations.

How the Great Flood Was Created

The Titans, the Atlans, the Lemurians and many others of the time did travel underground through these subterranean fields or caverns and also had space travel. Much of this was destroyed after the conflicts that occurred in what may be termed a kind of space war or extraterrestrial war, when the firmament was likewise destroyed and that great flood was created. The flood was created from the melting of the polar caps through the use of certain extraterrestrial technologies.

Earth Changes Split Huge Cavern In Two

This Awareness indicates that the Grand Canyon was a schism that occurred from the result of enormous earth shifts and broke apart a cavern that went through this area. If one could examine the opposite side of the canyon, downstream, one could find the continuance of this cavern, except that the canyon has been sealed from the shifts of the rocks and the movement of the plates so that it is not directly opposite the wall of the canyon. This Awareness indicates that it does carry on from the shearing-off action of the Grand Canyon, where the walls were the result of a shift and break in the rock that formed the two sides of the Grand Canyon.

This Awareness indicates that it appears the government found the area to be of great significance, too significant to let people know about it, seeing that there were many potentials for great treasure and great knowledge and information in keeping the area secret from the masses, and thus the report in the newspaper was one of the few reports ever made public.

Teros and Deros Now Inhabit the City

This Awareness indicates that the whole incident was quieted so that it was soon forgotten. This Awareness indicates that much was learned from government exploration of the area. This Awareness reminds you also that much of Richard Shaver's life was devoted to his research into underground caverns and people who continue up to the time of his writings to live in these underground caverns.

The Deros are Demented Zeta Reticuli

This Awareness has indicated also that those entities who were known as Deros and Teros in the Richard Shaver books on the topic; the Deros were essentially the remnants of Zeta Reticuli extraterrestrial that had been left on earth who lived underground and who became very demented over eons of time, waiting for their Zeta Reticuli associates and friends to come back for them.

This Awareness indicates the term "Dero" refers to demented types of robots. They are referred to as robots, though they are not actually mechanical robots. They are genetically engineered creatures, but they have learned to reproduce themselves without the use of genetic engineering.

Why Zeta Reticuli are on Earth Today and Abducting Humans

The remainder of the native Zeta Reticuli from the Zeta Reticuli star system used genetic reproductive purposes and these entities, who constitute a majority of UFOs seen on earth since the early Sixties who abduct humans, are on a kind of mission to find a way to help their race to become capable of reproductive activity without the use of genetic engineering.

They are seeking to rebuild the sexual functions of reproduction in their civilization by learning what they can from humanity and its method of reproduction and using the genetic field and experiments on humans to bring about a change in their own stock so that they can again reproduce sexually.

Richard Shaver's "Teros" Descended from Lemuria

This Awareness indicates that the "Teros" described by Richard Shaver were more human in form, were from a race of people that descended from these early Lemurian and Tibetan and oriental types that were natives of these underground caverns. This Awareness indicates that the underground caverns were here on earth long before the Teros or Deros.

They were the result of that ancient civilizations of Titans, Lemurians, Atlans and others who were prevalent on earth 500,000 years ago and beyond.

The Titans, Lemurians and Atlans Came from Outer Space

These entities had equipment capable of creating these underground caverns and civilization followed their work underground. It was a time when the sun and its rays were quite harmful on the surface levels and the underground regions were much safer for these entities. These entities traveled from various other planetary systems or star systems in the galaxy to earth, and hollowed it out in many ways with the use of certain technology that was capable of vaporizing matter.

Tunnels and Caverns Were Made by Vaporizing Matter

It was not the action of grinding out rocks or boring through matter, but an action that vaporized matter, turned matter into energy which could then be vented into the atmosphere, leaving a great opening underground. This Awareness indicates that all matter is energy and these entities understood how to turn the matter into energy which could be used for their purposes or which could be vented and freed into the atmosphere.

Half a Million Years Ago this Area was their Civilization

Thus, the underground network of tunnels throughout the world became their civilization and their world underground. This dates back well over a half a million years into the past. This Awareness indicates that this also includes the race known as the Els; these entities being great builders and having the ability to create even planets in galaxies around certain star systems.

The Els Created the Planet Saturn and Other Planets

This Awareness indicates these Els were responsible for the creation of the planet Saturn from which they operated, and from Saturn, they helped to create other planets in the solar systems.

ARE ANY OF THESE ARTIFACTS IN THE SMITHSONIAN TODAY ?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Are any of these mummies or artifacts today in the Smithsonian or elsewhere that they retrieved from this place?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears that there are some of these artifacts available, but not to the public. It appears that the mummies have been secluded so as to not raise curiosity from publicity. This Awareness indicates it is a situation in which these things are not intended to be made public because of the many questions that could be raised.

This Story Probably Removed From Internet by Now

This Awareness indicates that the fact of this being put on the Internet and made available to the public is rather amazing, and it is rather amazing that it has not been removed once the government becomes aware of its presence on the Internet.

QUESTION:

This was 85 years ago!. Who would have the right to clamp down on all that information at that time and keep it from anthropologists and historians and scientists?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Admiral Byrd's Journey to Middle Earth was Also Covered Up

This Awareness indicates the United States government would feel they have the right, just as they also clamped down on the expedition to the North Pole in which Admiral Byrd went into that center of the earth, the opening at the North Pole, wherein the curvature of the earth brought him around to an inner lip of the opening.

When Admiral Byrd tried to tell others about his findings on return to civilization, he was only able to get one brief statement out and from then on was censored and the information was covered up.

What is the Status of this Underground City Today?

QUESTION:

Is this vast underground city being used by the government today?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears it is part of the underground network, but is being used by the Zeta Reticuli and the Orion Greys; that the government does have some connections with some of the underground caverns, and this has much to do with their relationship with the extraterrestrials. This Awareness indicates that the government does still have some control over this particular area, but It does not see government troops or forces in the area.

Government has Monitoring Devices to Prevent Intruders

It is seen that the opening is in such a place that they consider it inaccessible, but if entities were to be seen attempting to enter, the government would be alerted through certain monitoring devices and would appear on the scene to remove those intruders.

QUESTION:

The entity mentions that the openings at the time appear to be about level with the river, which would indicate it wasn't entirely underground at that time, and the river has since worn itself down a mile or so. Is that valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the opening at the time was high above the river; that the river is even further down at present time.

Why No Animals or Females Were Present?

QUESTION:

He says all these mummies they examined so far proved to be male; no children or females being there. Also no sign of any animals. Why was that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Animals did not wander into the cave on the side of the cliff. Animals were not brought into the area. The natives were fed grain and other nutrients. This Awareness indicates that he described it as a kind of military or male barracks. This Awareness sees that this was likened unto a place where men assembled for purposes of carrying on duties.

It appears to have been a kind of work place or gathering place from which duties were launched. This Awareness indicates that it did not appear to be a setting that would appeal to women and that women would have been, by their agenda, too burdensome to care for in such a setting.

This Awareness indicates that this does not mean that there had never been women in the caverns, or in that particular area, but that all trace of such women had been removed before the latter days of use, and that no remnants were found when the entity entered. No remnants or evidence of women's presence was found at the time of this entity's entrance and discovery of the particular caverns he described.

What Was the Idol Resembling Buddha?

QUESTION:

This idol or image of the god they found sitting cross-legged with a lotus-flower or lily in each hand; the cast of the face was Oriental and it was resembling the Buddha. This obviously was thousands of years before the Buddha.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that this was an ancient symbol that was used in Lemuria and also in Tibet. This Awareness indicates that the Tibetan language of Sanskrit is closely tied with Lemurian language, because there is a connection between these two great ancient civilizations.

Were the Hieroglyphics Ever Deciphered?

QUESTION:

He stated that on all the urns, and walls over doorways and tablets of stone which were found by the image, are mysterious hieroglyphics, the key to which the Smithsonian Institute hopes yet to discover. Did anyone ever discover the key to deciphering those hieroglyphics?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that these hieroglyphics were really deciphered, although there were some efforts by entities who came close with a few of the symbols, but the attempts were mostly focused on trying to read them through the concept of Egyptian hieroglyphics. It appears they could have been better deciphered from ancient Tibetan writings and pictographs; that these would have been better suited to helping decipher the hieroglyphics.

This Awareness suggests the term "pictographs" may not be quite applicable, but neither is the term "hieroglyphics" quite applicable to these symbols.

That Chamber with the "Snakey Smell"

QUESTION:

The one chamber the entity mentioned which was not ventilated, and when he approached there was a deadly "snaky smell", and the light would not penetrate the gloom, and it was a very spooky atmosphere there, no sounds, and it gave him the creeps. Does Awareness see what was in that area?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to this Awareness to be a kind of garbage dump being used at the time by underground terrestrials, the Deros, where they dumped bodies and body parts and other forms of garbage. It was simply a place for disposal.

There are Other Underground Civilizations

QUESTION:

Does Awareness have any other comments It would like to make on this story of this underground civilization?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is not the only groups of caverns located underground; that these are found in many places. That the so-called Shamballah as being likened unto an entire city underground in the area near Tibet.

Certain Death Awaits Entities Who Would Explore

This Awareness indicates that it is important for entities to realize that these underground civilizations do not welcome surface entities and that almost certain death would follow those who attempt to enter into these subterranean caverns if they are seen or found, and there is great potential for being seen or found by those subterranean entities, the Deros.

This Awareness indicates that the Teros, which are more human-like and are much more compassionate and much like the surface entities, would be decent to entities who wandered into a subterranean cavern, but these entities have suffered so many losses that they are not likely to be found. The Deros have more or less taken over the underground caverns.

This Awareness wishes to warn entities to stay out. Even if you found an opening it would not be of any value. You cannot tell the world of your discovery without jeopardizing your life from your own government, nor would those underground beings allow you to leave knowing of them, or to remain there as a free person.

Therefore, This Awareness suggests you forget any ideas of being a heroic discoverer in attempting to locate such an underground or subterranean cavern, other than those which are already known and reasonably accessible, such as the Carlsbad Caverns, Oregon Caves, or similar public caverns that have been explored and where entities are often entering. Such areas are not dangerous in this regard.

Subterranean cultures would not use those areas which are accessible as public or tourist spots.

WHY DID "ALTERNATIVE 003" PLANNERS EXPECT TO BE SAFE ON THE MOON?

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. "If solar radiation in 1972 was expected to destroy life on earth, why then did the "Alternative 003" planners expect to be safe on the moon?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there was no belief that they would find safety on the moon. These entities saw the moon only as a station from which to launch further excursions to Mars. They saw the opportunity to set up certain bases on the moon which could be used at some later time or future project for moving on to Mars.

Videos Exist of Entities Landing on Mars

This Awareness indicates that this Alternative 003 project led to the landing on Mars in 1962. That there have been recordings; there are video type images or pictures of the craft landing on Mars with entities inside the craft being very excited about their Martian landing.

This Awareness indicates that this was never made public. In fact, it occurred even before the moon-landing was announced to the public, but there were people on the moon long before the so-called moon landing, and these entities were helping on the project to help send entities to Mars.

Nuclear Explosions by 003 has Damaged our Atmosphere

This Awareness indicates that the present concern in regard to Alternative 003 is that which took a turn in a different direction. Whereas entities thought for some time of getting off the earth and creating a new life on Mars, even Venus was once considered; the plan was eventually dropped with a new plan for blowing holes in the atmosphere to release the gases in earth's atmosphere, the high concentration of carbon dioxide and the pollution, and the method of blowing holes was to use atmospheric nuclear explosions.

This Awareness indicates that this did not work as planned, and in fact created a kind of layer of radiation high in the atmosphere from the nuclear explosions which as time passed began to cause an effect of further endangerment, further damage to the earth's atmosphere. The pollution was not released and radiation was floating in the higher regions.

Deadly Radiation Pollution now Threatens Our Airliners Routes

This Awareness indicates that the radiation has begun to come down around the earth to the point where it now approaches the level at which airliners fly. Within a few years it will be dangerous to fly in airliners because the radiation on those levels will penetrate the airliner and affect the passengers.

This Awareness indicates that it is for this reason that the project in Alaska known as HARP, which has much to do with weather modification and the changing of certain jet streams, has been created. It is an attempt to move certain energies in the atmosphere, to prevent these energies from falling any lower over cities and land masses, and to send these energies up through the manipulation of jet streams and air currents.

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear to be a great success so far, but the falling of these energies has not yet come down enough to where the jet streams are actually moving these radiation energies. Perhaps when they do come lower to the surface there will be some effect from the movement of the jet stream, to move those energies away from the continental United States and Canada.

This Awareness indicates that there is much that needs to be changed before the earth becomes a truly safe place in regard to the damage that has been done since the unleashing of atomic energies and the pollution that has been created on the earth.

WHAT WILL CAUSE THE PHOTON BELT TO OCCUR ON SCHEDULE

QUESTION:

A question from Verna K., Castle Rock, Washington. "In the issue #452, Awareness said "Many volatile potentials are likely to occur during the remainder of this year and the year 1996, but if the energies relating to the Photon Belt do occur as scheduled, much of this potential hazard will not occur at all."

Her question: "Please explain what will cause the Photon Belt energies to either occur or not occur on schedule. Are you saying that the movement of these energies is determined by the critical mass of human consciousness? Has not the critical mass already spoken? And has it not said "yes" to the intervention?, and to our global dilemma by the higher beings?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the critical mass is that which is in constant formation, and consciousness can change, just as an individual can change his or her consciousness, much like an entity can change its mind, even though one may meet the entity and perceive the mind has been made up and appears to be unchangeable.

This Awareness indicates entities always have the option of changing their own mind. Likewise, the mass consciousness has an option of being able to change, according to influences that may affect the way entities look at reality.

This Awareness indicates that the very act of something being promoted on a large mass-scale can have an effect on the mass-mind. This Awareness indicates there does appear to be a strong potential for US involvement in the war in the Yugoslavian area, and this could have a profound effect upon consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that there does appear to be potential problems related to China which could have not only profound effect, but long-term effect on consciousness, possibly even creating a new kind of cold war, much as what occurred with Russia over the past forty-some years.

This Awareness indicates it is also possible that the Chinese/American relationship will not develop into increased hostility, but there is the potential for such. This Awareness indicates there is even potential for US/Japanese difficulties, but much of this has been reconciled by recent agreements.

This Awareness indicates of course the continued conflict between the New World Order agents and promoters and those who seek to return to the US Constitution and freedoms for individuals is a continued struggle, and could develop along various lines of conflict or could develop into actions of different divisions. This Awareness indicates that these divisions could eventually reconcile or could continue to widen in terms of the gulf between the two or more factions or ideologies.

This Awareness indicates there are times when entities would like this Awareness to tell them how everything is going to turn out. This Awareness indicates that when things are in flux, that is what is, and many times things are in flux and the outcome is not absolute. There are things that can be altered, particularly when there is a kind of balance among those energies that are in conflict with one another.

Something new may be added, or something may be added to change that balance and the energies may move in a certain direction because of that added energy. This Awareness indicates that for this Awareness to comment on energies that are imbalanced and state that something will develop in a certain way is not appropriate in that It does not read What Is but would be predicting based on Its own perception of what It might cause to occur at some future time.

This Awareness indicates that It does not always interfere in human affairs to cause an outcome of certain events. Often It allows those energies started by humans to move on their own, to their own outcome. It is preferred that this occur as a natural result of human cause and effect so that humans can learn from these energies.

Thus, if this Awareness were to predict an outcome when energies are in an incomplete balance or are not yet determined into which direction they will move, It would have to influence the outcome to make a prediction come true. This Awareness prefers in most situations not to influence human events, or actions, but to let them take their course and let humans learn from their own mistakes and successes.

If people become too dependent on Higher Divinity to block their activities when the activities are erroneous, then they do not learn, they do not discern, they do not take great steps and great care in decision-making. This Awareness indicates in fact, the main reason that entities would like to have an absolute picture of the future is so that they do not have to take responsibility in forming the future.

They can simply say "Well, this is going to happen!", and this Awareness indicates that entities have done this with the Book of Revelation for hundreds of years, presuming that everything mentioned is going to take place. Up to this time it has not taken place, but there have been efforts by some to make the prophecies of the Book of Revelation self-fulfilling, by helping along those prophecies, creating the Mark of the Beast for example, creating certain power and alignments or paradigms for analogy to the Beast of Revelation.

This Awareness indicates that the Book of Revelation and the Beast described in part are taken from older writings, as in the Book of Daniel, and in part taken from astrological symbolism and in part taken from certain forces that were active at the time the Book of Revelation was originally written, and this book was intended to be prophecy of the time, of that generation, which is why it says: "This generation will not pass before these things come to be."

This Awareness indicates that of course those who read it in this modern generation, some nearly 2000 years later, presume it is inferring this present generation as being that which will not pass before the prophecies come true, as have every generation in the past since the time the Book of Revelation was put into the New Testament.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION

In regard to this question of Verna; is Awareness saying that the Photon Belt may or may not show up on schedule due to the consciousness of entities on this planet? Is that what It's saying?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if consciousness changes sufficiently to assure a movement toward greater spiritual influence on the mass of humanity, then the efforts of those extraterrestrial entities to help guide the earth into this Photon Belt and to the region of Sirius will not become as imperative or urgent in order to save humanity, to save the earth from self-destruction.

This Awareness indicates that these entities are, however, continuing to work toward this movement without assuming that earth can save itself, and therefore, unless there is a major change in human consciousness, the movement into the Photon Belt will continue; if not directly on course in the prescribed timing, at least it will continue in the direction, with possible hesitation if the human consciousness appears to be growing at a high spiritual rate in which humanity can undergo enough spiritual change so as to not require the interference from the Sirius forces.

At present this seems unlikely. This Awareness indicates that in fact there have already been some energies from the Photon Belt that have spilled into earth's atmosphere to such degree as to have some influence on earth in a very subtle degree. This has had some influence in helping to enhance or increase the individual awareness of entities on earth which is in part helping to allow entities to see more of the truth of what is occurring on earth.

It is akin to having energies that increase entities' levels of awareness. One could say having IQ enhancement, except that it is not so much the rational brain that is being enhanced; it is more the intuitive brain that is having a higher intellect enhancement. This Awareness indicates that if the movement into the Photon region increases further, the intuitive aspects of consciousness will also begin to increase to greater levels, and people will become even more aware of things that are occurring behind the scenes, politically, religiously in all those levels that are generally manipulated and kept secret from the mass mind.

DO THE PHOTON BELT ENERGIES AFFECT OUR ENVIRONMENT, WEATHER, ETC.?

QUESTION:

A question from Kate R., in Chino Valley, Arizona. She writes: "Dear Vicki. Spring is passing into Summer, and what a lovely time it is! Mild weather, some rain, very mellow for Arizona, and the Chino grass, which Chino Valley is named after is making a big comeback. There hasn't been much of it around due to overgrazing and other environmental assaults, but this Spring it has sprung out all over.

"Could it be the weather, or is it the times?, our new movement into the Photon belt perhaps? Maybe that is a question for Awareness. How does, or do the energies of the Photon Belt affect the environment, weather and other species besides our own?"

COSMIC AWARENESS

United States, wherein entities affected are aware of the HARP program or project as being responsible for negative weather patterns in their country. This Awareness indicates of course there are some countries affected by this that are not aware of the cause of these weather patterns. This Awareness indicates if entities wish to read more in regard to the HAARP program, the Leading Edge publication in late Winter or early Spring of '95 has information in which various scientists discuss this project and its ramifications in regard to the weather.

This Awareness indicates that this publication contains a number of discussions of new technologies that are being used and have been developed for use in ways that affect the masses of people or can have an effect on the masses. Some of these technologies are frightful, when it is realized that they are already and usable and some being already used.

Eds Note: The issue is actually issue No. 78, January 1995 and is available from The Leading Edge Research Group, PO Box 7530, Ste 58, Yelm, Washington 98597.

Price $10.00. We highly recommend this particular issue because it a conversation among research scientists who reveal much about the technology the secret government is now using on unwitting citizens.

IS THE 4TH DIMENSION NEAR WHAT WE CALL 'DEATH'?

QUESTION:

A couple of questions from Charles R., Tuscon, Arizona. I'll read his letter. "Dear Vicki, I have a few questions for Awareness about the dimensional shift that I wish you would ask. When I was very young, I had a vision of myself very much older, telling stories to the children. The stories were of the old world as it was when I was younger.

"The children sometimes had trouble comprehending, or would laugh at the way people related because things are so very different in their world. I now understand this vision a little better in the light of the dimensional shift about to occur.

"Two years ago my 15 year old son was killed. We were good friends as well as had much admiration for each other. My questions are: One) Is the higher vibration of the new dimension closer to that of the realm one enters after death?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates in fact, it is quite likely that you will revisit your son in this lifetime after the dimensional shift; that you will have the ability to communicate with each other in close proximity.

Communication Between Dimensions

QUESTION:

Two) "Will there be better communication between this new dimension and the dimension one enters after death, or are they the same?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates they are not precisely the same, but there is a spill-over so that communication becomes much easier. At present, the second dimension, or the dimension beyond this is a kind of buffer between the present realm and the realm which entities pass into after death. Thus, you'll be one dimension closer and will not have to pass through a dimension to communicate with those in the dimension beyond.

This Awareness suggests you think of it as a three-layer cake, in which the bottom dimension is this which you refer to as third dimensional reality. The next dimension being that which is fourth dimensional reality, and the higher level of the cakes or layer of the cake as being likened unto that which is the 5th dimension, or the dimension beyond life in physical form, wherein these entities are of a higher frequency and to which entities pass when dropping the carcass.

This Awareness indicates in other words, when you pass into the dimension between the two other dimensions described; this present one and the 5th dimension, your body will take on a slightly different vibration, where it is not as dense, and yet it is not purely etheric either. It will be somewhere in between, but able to reach into the higher etheric levels and simultaneously able to, with great concentration, rematerialize into physical form if it so desires and has the ability to concentrate into such densities.

Will the Departed Reincarnate Into the 4th Dimension?

QUESTION:

The questioner's son was killed in an auto wreck. He was a passenger thrown from the car, and Charles asks: "Will my son need to reincarnate into this new dimension after the shift? Or has he already stepped into the new Light Body at the time of his death?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity went into a higher dimension and if reincarnating, would not choose to reincarnate into the third dimensional reality you now experience, but would choose to reincarnate into that higher dimension into which entities are likely to shift in the years 2012 and 2013 or thereabouts.

More On Meeting Loved Ones

QUESTION:

I believe Awareness has answered his last question, which is: "Could Awareness please expand a little more on the effects the new dimension will have on meeting our loved ones who have passed over before this shift has occurred?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that some of these entities will have the appearance of their earthly selves except that their bodies will be more highly refined. The looks will be more purified. They will have a greater angelic appearance, and others who have moved into a higher dimension, or what is termed the "other side" for longer periods of time may change their appearance somewhat so they are not as easily recognizable.

This Awareness indicates this is in reference to entities who have died some 20, 30, 40 or 50 years previously. This Awareness indicates that these entities will have undergone considerable change so that their personal appearance may not be as easily recognizable. In fact, some of these entities may have even passed into other identities in either this realm, or other realms, so that there is what may be termed a "lifetime" in between, from the time you last saw them to their present appearance, and thus the changes might be considered in terms of how they appear, how they look, how they act in terms of personality.

This Awareness indicates that while this is in reference to the physical appearance, it should be noted however, that your own psychological make-up will become more sensitive so that you will have a greater ability to recognize the entity from their soul vibration. Thus, the entity's soul vibration may be more recognizable than their physical appearance.

What Role Will Awareness Movement Entities Play in the 4th Dimension?

(They Will Recognize One Another by Their Vibration)

QUESTION:

A question from Peter K., San Diego, California. He writes: "What does Awareness see as a future regarding the readership in the next dimension? Together we have worked on transmitting personal and planetary energies, largely anonymous to each other except for the gatherings, (now defunct). What roles will we collectively play in the evolution of the new world that is coming into being?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that you will be able to recognize each other not only from names, but moreso from vibrations. You will be able to recognize the connection to this Awareness as a vibratory energy that each has developed through the entity's connection with these readings and with this material from this Awareness, and you can be drawn together through this recognition so that you have the opportunity to discuss and discover your connections.

It is not something that will necessarily be recognizable unless you have met at conventions or in some other way, but the vibration of reading this material over long periods of time creates a certain frequency that reader develops which is recognizable by others, and this becomes likened unto a magnet in which entities come together more easily and become friends or become acquainted as a result of these common vibrations.

This Awareness indicates essentially, everything is connected through vibrations or frequencies. You live in a universe that is composed of frequencies. Everything vibrates. Some things vibrate at certain frequencies which do not have a great connection to other frequencies, but those things that are harmonic in frequencies tend to come together, to recognize each other and to have certain harmony with each other, and these things help entities to draw together.

Vibrating Together is Part of Karmic Law

It is part of what makes up karmic law, that entities who have been together, who have vibrated in similar experiences together are likely to come back together in futures times because of those harmonious vibrations that they have experienced together and which each carries within. Every experience carries its own vibration and the experience becomes part of the mosaic that makes up an individual.

Thus you carry the vibrations of all experiences of the past and these experiences which you carry with you in your mosaic totality often draw you to others who have similar or the same vibratory experiences. This helps entities to come together from past harmonic experiences so that they can reunite. If there is karma between them that needs to be resolved, this coming together gives them the opportunity to resolve their karma.

THE COLLECTIVE VIBRATION OF AWARENESS READERS

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So essentially there isn't any particular collective role to be played as there was on earth, trying to expose or to make people aware of conspiracies and raising the vibrations and so forth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the collective vibration between these entities in the next dimension will likely bring them together in a kind of joyous bond wherein the entities become bonded to one another as a group, perhaps not for the purpose of fighting against negative forces so much as joining together as a light force.

This Awareness indicates that the joining together as a force of light in the next dimension will help to bring that energy of the next dimension into still higher frequencies so that they can eventually move into yet another higher dimension.

This Awareness indicates that there are many many dimensions in this universe of vibrations, just as there are many octaves in the realm of sound. Sound is not simply a basis of vibration and two or three other octaves higher, but is almost unlimited in terms of how many octaves the sound can go.

How Far Does Sound Go?

Entities may not have thought of it, but it is much like the question of "How far does space go?" If you can have 100 octaves of sound, why not have 101? Or why not have 200? Is there any reason that frequencies of sound cannot double from any place?

Thus, if you have 200 octaves of sound, is it not theoretically possible to double those frequencies and create 400 octaves of sound? Of course when sound becomes high enough, it turns into light and light becomes higher and higher in frequencies and turns into certain kinds of rays or vibrations that may not be visible to the naked eye as light, but may still be frequencies of higher than light energies.

Light Frequencies and Love Frequencies

For example, the gamma rays, the X-rays and solar rays or cosmic rays. This Awareness indicates that when rays become extremely high, beyond light, beyond most radiation, then they move into what may be termed life frequencies and love frequencies, and this gets into the Creative Force, the Divine Frequencies.

The Divine Mind as Part of the Frequency Scale

This Awareness indicates that these Divine Frequencies are also higher levels of consciousness; that the Divine Mind then becomes part of the frequency scale. If you begin with the Divine Mind and come down the scale through the various levels of consciousness and on down through the solar and cosmic rays and gamma rays and X-rays and down into light frequencies and infra-red heat frequencies, and into radio waves and down into sound waves, and on down to infra-sound and base material which is vibrating at an extremely low frequency, then you have a general idea of how the various frequencies create all that is in this universe and how the Creator developed all the material and all those things between material and Divinity.

The Role of Entities in Material Form

This Awareness indicates that the role of entities in material form is to continue the movement through the evolutionary patterns and frequencies to get back to the Divine Frequency from which they came. This Awareness indicates the higher the frequency, the easier the life, the greater the health, the more permanent the existence and the greater the intelligence and awareness of such entities, and the greater the joy, the greater the love, and greater the understanding of entities.

This Awareness indicates the stone has a degree of understanding or awareness, but it is so dense that from the human point of view it is dead in comparison, yet the stone is living. All things live in the universe in which there are vibrations, but the life form is so diminished that to a human full of life, the stone is seen to be dead in comparison.

The Meaning of the Tibetan Book of the Dead

Likewise, people living in higher frequencies look upon humans as being dead. Thus, the Tibetan Book of the Dead was a reference to people living on earth in human bodies. They are seen as being dead, when embodied in physical form by the entities who inspired the writing of this Tibetan Book of the Dead.

This Awareness indicates therefore, as you move into higher and higher frequencies, you approach more and more that which is termed "everlasting life" and Divine Experiences of the Godhead or that which you may call Divinity. It does not mean that you can simply say "I am God!" and have Divinity; there is the movement of vibration that is necessary to allow you the evolution toward Divinity.

This Awareness indicates as you attune to the Divine Frequency more and more, you move more and more toward Divinity yourself. This attunement to Divinity comes from surrendering self to the Divine, giving self to the Divine.

If you give yourself totally to the Divine, you have surrendered to the Divine and as everything is a matter of degree, the greater the gift of self to the Divine, the greater the degree you merge with Divinity.

HAVE INSECTS ACTUALLY EVOLVED TO BECOME ONE WITH THE DIVINE?

QUESTION:

In reference to that, Awareness has given information on how insects, animals, birds and so forth, evolve, each moving into a species more highly evolved each time, and that after perhaps eons of lifetimes, it's possible that these lifeforms could eventually evolve into humans and then eventually into oneness with the Divine Source.

Has this actually occurred? Insects, starting out from the very lowest life-form?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative. That insects have at times moved into higher creations, into eventually becoming for example, a bird, and the bird eventually becoming some other creature, and so forth. This Awareness indicates that this passage into the human form is a way of moving out of physical creation into the spiritual.

It is like a vortex in which things must move to get beyond the physical realm, by going through human form. This Awareness indicates that as they move through the form with the 8 chakras of the human, they become capable of merging into Light Bodies and going beyond physical form into other higher frequencies.

This Awareness indicates that one thing should be clear in this message however, that insects do not simply progress from one insect to a higher developed insect automatically. They may live many lifetimes as an ant or a spider without necessarily moving beyond the ant or spider species.

Don't Go Out and Try to "Liberate" an Ant!

There is necessarily a change in the consciousness of sufficient degree that allows them to become something higher than the species they already are. Thus, simply by killing an ant and saying "I liberate you from your lowly experience, so that you can go on to a higher experience as a butterfly", for example, does not necessarily free the ant from its experience as an ant.

It may simply reincarnate as an ant and continue many lifetimes as an ant, if it does not at some point develop some kind of consciousness that overcomes the ant consciousness. If an ant lives long enough and experiences enough, it may overcome the ant consciousness and go on to become something else, perhaps a beetle, or perhaps a butterfly, but This Awareness indicates just killing an ant to free it from its ant experience does not necessarily mean that it will come back as a more highly developed creature.

Humans Can "Devolve" as Well as Evolve

This Awareness indicates that of course likewise humans are not automatically evolved into higher beings simply because they have lived in a human body. They can devolve. A human that becomes more likened unto an animal than a human, the human that loses all traces of humanity and becomes bestial in behavior may actually return as a beast and live as some kind of beast with the need for developing higher qualities such as compassion and perhaps generosity and affection before being able to reincarnate as human.

This Awareness indicates of course this does not necessarily mean that the entire human has reincarnated as a beast. Perhaps only certain emotional and bestial energies reincarnate in the beast, while a portion of the human soul sits in limbo waiting for that portion of the human soul that is bestial to develop and evolve into a more highly spiritual entity, whereby the two, the portion of the soul in limbo and the portion of the soul that has lived as a beast may then rejoin each other and reincarnate as a human, and the entity has another chance to evolve in a spiritual direction as a human being.

This Awareness indicates that there are many in limbo who are waiting for the more bestial part of their soul to reincarnate and develop spiritually, to be worthy of human experience.

WHEN AN INSECT MAKES IT TO THE GODHEAD IS GOD IMPRESSED?QUESTION:

Awareness has indicated before, I believe, that most entities in human form eventually make it to the Godhead and One with the Divine Source through many lifetimes of reincarnating. In the case of these insects that start at the very bottom, and work their way up through all of these various life-forms and then into human and eventually, through reincarnating as humans, back to the Source; would not the Divine Creator be more impressed, if for nothing else, the persistence of these entities that began at the very bottom, than it would the normal entity who made it through reincarnation from the human level?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is an aspect of what has been described that is yet missing. This Awareness indicates that if you take a musical tone and you play it where there are strings that vibrate at different octaves, that musical tone vibrates every octave on the piano, or whatever this stringed instrument is, at different octaves but it only vibrates certain portions of those strings.

This Awareness indicates that if you think of the universal tone as a vibrating instrument, and you have a human soul that is vibrating at a certain frequency, it is creating on other frequencies in the universal instrument. It is creating other creations. Thus, on one creation, just as described previously, an entity is waiting in limbo and part of his vibration is in the bestial creature, there are also other parts that are vibrating in the insect realm, or in other levels of animal and fowl and reptile creations.

How the Mosquito Might Evolve

Thus, the mosquito is but a blip or an overtone of a certain vibration that comes from something higher in the Universal Frequency instrument, the instrument of the universe casting off all of its vibrations and frequencies, will create little sound on some octave, somewhere, that vibrates just slightly and is covered by all the other sounds, so that only a very delicate and sensitive ear could hear such a frequency.

This Awareness indicates that frequency may be an animal, or may be a mosquito, depending on how far into the abstract vibrations the frequency is. However, once that mosquito overtone or vibration passes away or dies, there is the opportunity for that vibration to move in contact with something above it. If it merges with a higher frequency, attunes to it, just as when humans seek to attune to the Divine; if this frequency seeks to attune to a higher frequency on another level or another octave, then that mosquito becomes part of something that is still larger and stronger in terms of its frequency and vibration, and it may become a bumblebee for example, or perhaps some inch-worm, or caterpillar, or something of this nature.

It may only be a part of the frequency that makes up the caterpillar, but it has joined in with something that to it is likened unto a god or higher being, and then that caterpillar is a vibration of some frequency that is still spilling off of this individual in limbo, for example, and between the caterpillar and the person in limbo, there is still the bestial entity that sits somewhere in physical form, and this caterpillar is an offshoot or outcast from the vibration of that bestial energy.

This Awareness indicates that gradually, through many lifetimes, or many experiences, (it is not so much the lifetimes as the experiences that make the spiritual evolution occur); as this caterpillar experiences the various things that cause it to become higher in its own frequency and vibration, it may move up into still another creature.

Eventually it may come in contact with the beast that is still an offshoot of the human who sits in limbo, waiting for the return of his parts so that he can get on with his own spiritual evolution.

This Awareness indicates in other words, it is a situation in which there is the Central Creator, who has sub-parts that are beings who, as angelic beings, or higher spiritual beings, have sub-parts that are humans, for example, or other aliens from different dimensions or planets in the universe, and these, as vibrating energies or entities, have sub-parts which are part of their own being, and some of these sub-parts may be cast off into animals or into trees or other creations, and these have their own vibrations that are casting off sparks or vibratory shoots which may result in other creatures.

There may be the firefly which receives its life force from a creature that is more highly evolved than it, and so forth on down to the most minute creation. Perhaps the virus or bacteria is but an offshoot of some pretreated entity somewhere, some creature that is vibrating and casts off vibrations that gives life to bacteria or virus.

This Awareness indicates that the physical realm in other words is a mirror reflection of the vibratory realm which is commonly thought of as the spiritual realm. The physical realm encompasses spiritual energies, but the spiritual energies grow weaker as they move toward the more gross physical realm, and as these physical bodies become less dense and more spiritual, the energy of the vibration becomes stronger and more overpowering of the physical.

This Awareness indicates there are many entities who do not appear to be connected to an individual, but who may be feeding off of the emotional, astral, etheric or spiritual energies of that individual. By feeding off of this energy this Awareness means getting their life force from the individual's energies of the various bodies of the individual.

This Awareness indicates if this is not yet clear, that it be indicated, and that the area which is not clear be suggested so that this Awareness can give further clarification.

"BESTIAL ENERGIES" DEFINED

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

When It refers to the "bestial energies", is this what is prevalent in the life food-chain of everything from insects on up to fish in that they devour a smaller life form in order to survive?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in some cases the smaller life form devours the larger life form. For example the bacteria may eat of the cells of the human body to create problems that could even lead to the death of the human, but these are bacteria, and for their life force they feed on emotional energies cast off by the human or by some other human, or by groups of humans.

If groups of humans cast off certain vibrations they may actually create bacteria. Bacteria can also come when certain energies are putrefying, and the putrefying may start developing out of certain shutdowns of the life force. When the life force shuts down in an area, whether it is one individual or whether it is a group of entities, where a shutdown begins to occur, bacteria often show up to move things along, so that the shutdown becomes more and more the way, and thus bacteria can cause epidemics that wipe out large numbers of population, or the bacteria themselves can be shut down.

In the past antibiotics have been used, but it is now being discovered that there are not sufficient antibiotics to destroy all of the bacteria that have mutated into human forms so that bacteria have now become a greater threat to those who are subject to their attacks.

How Music Can Help You Understand All This

This Awareness indicates that it is extremely difficult to explain this, but it helps if entities have some understanding of music. This Awareness indicates that if a violin string is plucked or a piano note is struck, the piano string vibrates not only in half, from the middle where it was struck, but each half also vibrates, and each quarter vibrates when the piano string is struck so that it vibrates at the vibration of the note.

If the note is C then the halves of that string also vibrate at a C note, but they vibrate at an octave higher; each half will vibrate at C, one octave higher than the original striking. And therefore, you have not only C, but you have higher C on an other octave above.

Likewise, each of those halves vibrate in quarters so that the quarter parts of the string, four parts of the string are vibrating at C in a second higher octave, and each of those quarters will vibrate in half, at still one eighth of the string, so that it is a higher octave yet, and so on and so on, a sixteenth of the string, a thirty-second of the string, a sixtyfourth of the string, et cetera, but each of these divisions produces a note that is less noticeable, much harder to hear.

The first vibration of the string is the easiest to hear. If one's ears are sensitive, they can hear the higher note of C in the two halves of the string. It is unlikely that most entities can hear the four parts of the string vibrating, but it is a fact that four parts of the string will vibrate at a third octave higher, and each of those parts of the string will vibrate in half so that it creates a 5th octave, a 6th , a 7th , et cetera.

See Yourself as a Note--A Vibration

If you understand this, and you see yourself as a note, a vibration which casts off not only a reflection of yourself in sound, but also half a note vibrating at a higher frequency; that there are two parts vibrating at a frequency, an octave above your own, and each of those creating frequencies still above, and below, for the notes below also vibrate when the C string is struck, and so forth.

The entire gamut of the vibrational realm is moved when the middle C note is struck. Thus, the frequencies below activate those energies that for example, help to give life to a mosquito, or help to give life to some lowly creature as well as to the higher creatures, the angels. The entities above you, can feed off of your energy, your vibration, just as you find it possible to feed off of the energy of the Divine, the highest frequency there is, for when It vibrates and you attune to it, you gain a vibration of Divinity, which is Life Force and love and awareness.

How You Feed the Angels

Thus, these energies become part of you as you absorb them from the Divine. This Awareness indicates that therefore, whatever action you vibrate to, whatever experience you have, these energies above you and below you, it can feed the flies, the insects, the mosquitoes, the bugs; it can feed plants, it can feed the angels, and your experience as a human being is not limited to yourself. It expands ever into the realm of reality and vibration, into all things.

In other words, cutting a blade of grass changes the entire universe if you understand what this means in terms of vibration. If you do anything, it affects everything.

Cosmic Awareness Asks You a Question

If you disappear it affects everything. Just being there affects everything. This Awareness has been asked many questions. This Awareness asks you now: Is this understood?

God, Not the Interpreter, Knows When a Sparrow Falls

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Yes. This also explains the Biblical line about God being aware of the sparrow that falls.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative; God being the Cosmic Mind, the Universal Mind, is aware of everything that happens. It does not necessarily mean that the Interpreter for these messages is aware of every sparrow that falls, for this Interpreter is only aware of that which this Awareness provides to you when in trance.

This Awareness indicates there are many entities who seem to perceive that the messages as spoken through the Interpreter are the whole of the information available to this Awareness. This is not so. The messages given through this Interpreter are the whole of information provided to the Interpreter through this Awareness.

THOSE ENTITIES LOCKED IN LIMBO AWAITING THE RETURN OF THOSE 'BESTIAL' ENERGIES

QUESTION:

Can Awareness elaborate a bit more on that reference to the entity waiting in limbo for the return of these bestial energies that have become more spiritual? Didn't Awareness talk about the entities in limbo some years back having to live with these surging negative energies locked up in limbo?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative. Essentially, the entities locked in limbo are unable to express themselves, unable to do anything except feel those bestial energies out there in the far off regions of the vibrational universe, and experience those energies emotionally and physically and spiritually while waiting and unable to act on such energies.

Thus, they are somewhat tortured because they can do nothing except feel those vibrations of themselves that are out there acting in the bestial creature that carries their negative energies. In other words, if they have been bestial in human form, their energies or emotions may be cast into some beast, such as a lion or bear or some other creature, but they themselves cannot express those bestial energies any more because they are stuck in limbo, yet they can feel those energies that are operating through the lion or through the bear or other creature, and it is not pleasant for them.

Sympathetic Vibrations Convey the Beast Energies

The feeling of the energies results through what is termed sympathetic vibration. Sympathetic vibration has been described as that which occurs for example, when an entity sings a high note and breaks a glass across the room. The glass is vibrating to that note which the entity sang, and shatters because the vibrations are in sympathy or harmony to one another.

In this case, the beast energies are in touch with the vibrations of the entity in limbo and the entity in limbo feels those energies in the beast, and therefore, the entity in limbo is stuck, unable to move or express those beast energies, but must experience them.

At some point the beast may either pass on, die and give up the energies, or the beast may lose, perhaps through aging, his or her sense of appetite or sense of taste or sense of smell so that it is no longer driven by hunger and appetite, and the energies of the beast become modified or pacified somewhat and the entity in limbo then begins to mellow in terms of his feelings to the point where he is not so driven by these appetites of lust as found in the bestial aspects of himself which reside in the animal or creature out there.

This Awareness indicates at some point, when this energy mellows enough and the entity is no longer a slave to those lusting appetites that made him bestial as a human, then the entity may be ready to leave limbo. Many entities reside in limbo for hundreds of years, some even for thousands of years.

For Many Locked in a Tree Limbo is a Jail

This Awareness indicates that limbo, for many entities, is a way of being locked up and jailed, but they do not necessarily find themselves locked behind bars. They may find themselves locked in the trunk of a tree, and as a tree, they sit and grow and grow and grow, unable to do anything but sit and grow and grow and grow.

Thus, they cannot go out and feed their appetites, their lusts, their greed. They can simply sit in the tree and grow, while other appetites of their body find their way to some beast that will satisfy those appetites, yet the entity who is locked in the tree in limbo still feels a oneness with those appetites that are running around in the animal that are seeking satisfaction through lust, through appetite, through pursuit of power over others.

Is Wilber Carrying an Aspect of Sam Millar?

QUESTION (VIKKI):

On a slightly lighter related area, I had the feeling that Wilber, the cat that adopted us, has inherited part of Sam's emotions, with the direction of being around us to get more used to a closer contact with humans instead of being such a loner. Is there any correctness in this assessment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is absolutely correct. That this entity has cast off certain of his feelings into this animal; that part of the entity's feelings for you and for the editor are strong in this animal. This Awareness indicates that this animal is carrying certain strong feelings of Sam Millar while he, his essence, is off into the other regions, learning more about life on that particular side of the vale.

This Awareness indicates it is not that he is locked up in the cat so much, but that certain of his feelings for you are locked into the cat. When this cat perishes, those feelings will go back to the entity Sam Millar, wherever he is, and you can take it as an indication that he is preparing to reincarnate into another human body.

This Awareness indicates when an entity recalls all of those parts of himself that have been cast off, then the entity is generally ready to reincarnate. In the case of an entity who experiences an extremely negative lifetime, the entity might not be permitted to reincarnate into another human body until much of his negativities have been worked off.

In such a case, the entity might go to that state of being which is known as limbo and some of his experience might go into an animal, some might go into a plant, and some might be stuck in that which is limbo. Usually the stronger emotions go to plants and the plants thrive on those emotions. Usually the feelings go to animals and the animals thrive on those feelings.

The essence or soul of the entity, if placed in limbo, meaning the entity cannot regain those various parts of the self to reincarnate; this may mean that the entity himself would need to experience a place of being locked up. The lockup can be in the form of a tree, or can be in the form of some other type of long-growing creature.

Most Limbo Entities Are in Rocks and Trees

In other words, one might enter into the body of a whale or some animal that lives a long life, but where the entity experiences this without having all of the parts of himself in the creature. This Awareness indicates usually those in limbo are found either in rocks or in trees. Entities can even exist in rocks, but it is more common that they exist in trees, if they have a certain type of limbo experience requiring lockup of the time a tree grows, to the time of its death.

Entities who require longer term limbo experiences might exist in a rock, living in that rock until it is dissolved by erosion of air, wind, rain or other environmental influences. These are for those entities whose behavior was so extremely negative that they are not allowed to reincarnate for thousands of years perhaps.

That Vibratory Level Known as Cimmeria

This Awareness indicates that it is the type of person who is almost totally forgotten who is locked into rocks, for they will not remember, even on a subconscious level, their previous lifetime when they come back from the rock to reincarnate into a new creature. This Awareness indicates that this is what has been described as Cimmeria, a place where entities live in a kind of seething unconsciousness.

They are put into rocks. They lose all memory of self. This Awareness indicates that most people are in limbo for long periods of time, say five years to 150 years of age. Some trees of course grow older for longer periods, but entities living in a tree as a limbo experience can exist there for enormous numbers of years, and while they become used to the life of a tree, time begins to lose meaning to them, so that what really means anything to them is when there is some kind of stimulation, such as a storm.

Seasons in Limbo are Like Day and Night to Us

The seasons are witnessed to these entities as humans witness day and night. They witness a season as cold and warm, and it goes quickly for them. When there are great storms it is a great stimulation to these entities locked in limbo, inside a tree trunk. This Awareness indicates that some of these trees, such as the great giant Redwoods are thousands of years old, and the entities locked inside do not feel bored. They are simply experiencing their life, and they would not appreciate having their tree cut off from the life force any more than you would appreciate having your life terminated.

This Awareness indicates that they gradually grow used to doing nothing, except being, and when they have experienced all of this that is necessary for their cast-off parts to evolve sufficiently, the tree will, on its own, die, and these entities then will be able to resume their life in the form of some other creature, normally in the form of a human.

Entities Who Serve a Short Stretch in Limbo

In this way limbo serves the purpose of creating a situation in which an entity can, over time, forget his or her error and take on a new understanding and be ready with a clean slate to reincarnate as a human. This Awareness indicates there are some entities who do not go into states of limbo, or will go into states of limbo for a very short time.

Perhaps they will experience a lifetime as a bush that is later trimmed away or cut away. Or perhaps they will simply experience a brief amount of time as some plant such as in a garden, and then when the season ends, they leave that plant and move more quickly in other directions, preparing for reincarnation.

It is possible for entities to reincarnate within a very brief time such as under 5 years. It is more common for them to wait for as long as 50 years to reincarnate. It is also possible for entities to wait for hundreds or thousands of years before having the opportunity to reincarnate.

It is important for entities to reincarnate because in physical form they have greater opportunity for learning. In limbo they are being purged of their negative emotions and energies so that they become more fitting as beings of choice when they have been through a limbo experience.

Entities in Limbo Choose to be There

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness wishes to caution entities not to mistake this message as being something to call for the destruction of trees and plants in order to free entities from limbo. These entities in limbo choose the kind of tree, the length of life that is necessary for them. In some cases, the entities who choose those trees that live for thousands of years need all of that time to develop the kind of essence that they desire.

These entities are not condemned or sentenced by a cosmic court of law. They choose their own destiny and do so with the awareness of what they truly need. Therefore, this Awareness suggests you not run out and cut your redwood trees as a kind of do-gooder, trying to free entities from their imprisonment in trees. They do not consider it as an imprisonment. They are gaining great wisdom and patience and other qualities from their experiences.

(THE LAW OF GRATITUDE IS GIVEN)

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. Subject: USA! 1776 - The Price They Paid
SOURCE - American Agricultural Movement Newsletter - August

The Price They Paid

"Have you ever wondered what happened to those men who signed the Declaration of Independence?

"Five signers were captured by the British as traitors and tortured before they died. Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned. Two lost their sons in the Revolutionary Army, another had two sons captured. Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or the hardships of the Revolutionary War. "What kind of men were they? Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists. Eleven were merchants, nine were farmers and large plantation owners, men of means, well educated. But they signed the Declaration of Independence knowing full well that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

"They signed and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor. "Carter Braxton of Virginia, a wealthy planter and trader, saw his ships swept from the seas by the British navy. He sold his home and properties to pay his debts, and died in rags.

"Thomas McKeam was so hounded by the British that he was forced to move his family almost constantly. He served in the Congress without pay, and his family was kept in hiding. His possessions were taken from him, and poverty was his reward.

"Vandals or soldiers or both, looted the properties of Ellery, Clymer, Hall, Walton, Gwinnett, Heyward, Rutledge, and Middleton.

"At the Battle of Yorktown, Thomas Nelson Jr., noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the Nelson home for his headquarters. The owner quietly urged General George Washington to open fire, which was done. The home was destroyed, and Nelson died bankrupt.

"Francis Lewis had his home and properties destroyed. The enemy jailed his wife, and she died within a few months.

"John Hart was driven from his wife's bedside as she was dying. Their 13 children fled for their lives. His fields and his grist mill were laid waste. For more than a year he lived in forests and caves, returning home after the war to find his wife dead, his children vanished. A few weeks later he died from exhaustion and a broken heart.

Norris and Livingston suffered similar fates.

"Such were the stories and sacrifices of the American Revolution. These were not wild-eyed, rabble-rousing ruffians. They were soft-spoken men of means and education. They had security, but they valued liberty more. Standing tall, straight, and unwavering they pledged: "For the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of the Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor." Unknown to most Americans there exists within the United States two distinctly separate forms of government:

The government that was created by We The People (the Constitutional government), is by law, a Republic. Under this Constitutional Republic the People are sovereign. This is the system of government, declared by our forefathers on July 4, 1776. It was costly.

Today, the New Deal government, created by FDR in 1933, places the people in bondage to the government. Under this system the people and their property are used to secure the government bonds and to redeem the Federal Reserve Notes. I . . . the same revolutionary beliefs for which our forefathers fought are still at issue around the globe -- the belief that the rights of man come not from the generosity of the state but from the hand of God. We dare not forget that we are the heirs of the first revolution." -- John F. Kennedy
