IS A MAJOR FOOD SHORTAGE STARTING THIS NOVEMBER?

QUESTION: (From CAC General reading Sept. 6, 1995)

There's information coming in over the Internet that there's going to be major food-shortages just around the corner starting November of this year.

"Due to bad weather and a short growing season, the USDA July Crop Report said that the hot summer in the U.S. retarded maturation of our grain crops: soy, wheat and corn. Currently, U.S. grain reserves are virtually non-existent.

"The San Francisco Chronicle of August 8th in its 'World Report' states that Chile and Argentina's Southlands are receiving the heaviest snowfall they've seen in forty years. Chilean Minister of Agriculture Emilliano Ortega said that 250,000 livestock units are already lost, with another one million in jeopardy. Argentina is no better off.

China is experiencing massive crop damage due mainly to extensive flooding in the Western agricultural areas. Even commercial salmon catches from Alaska to California are down significantly compared with other years." And in the Lyndon Larouche newspaper, he claims that there is a worldwide food shortage, and it's going to create famines and all other kinds of problems. He writes:

"In the United States, it was made known this spring that, for the first time since World War II, the federal government has no emergency food reserves whatsoever. The U.S. Agency for International Development cut this year's pledge for foreign aid of cereals down 50%, from 4.47 million tons of grain to 2.45 million tons. Canada and other donor nations have done likewise.

"Overall, forecasters predict a total world grain harvest for this year of 1.724 billion tons--well below the average harvests of recent years, and below even minimal average world consumption levels of 1.8 billion tons. To give everyone a decent diet, world grain output should be over 3 billion tons."

Anyway, he devoted a number of pages to this, and other areas of the media are putting out similar information. What does Awareness see in regard to this? Is this just a momentary thing, or is it a real serious situation?

Aug. 14, 1995 The New Federalist, PO Box 889, Leesburg, Va. 22075 ($35 for 100 issues)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is seen as an intentional depletion of food in order to bring people to a state of mind wherein the solution to the problem will be accepted, in that the people in suffering hunger will be required to give up certain rights, to accept certain programs in order to get certain authorization to purchase and receive food.

This Awareness indicates that this has been described previously. It is related to the acceptance of certain programs that relate to the New World Order and its establishment of controls over the masses, over their income, over their individuality, and when entities comply with the regulations for complying, they will then be given certain permission or authority to receive food.

2. This Awareness indicates that this can be greatly controlled, as a weapon. This Awareness indicates that the food control over the past fifty years has been gradually manipulated into the hands of a few entities, in terms of silos, or storing of grain; in terms of storing facilities, and in terms of marketing and transportation, in terms of trucking; all of these are controlled by a few people so that the masses are dependent on these few entities who can easily be directed from higher authorities to create famine or to reduce famine, to feed the people or to deprive them.

The deprivation of food is the easiest way to control a population, and this is well known. This Awareness indicates that it does appear that the coming year will be a great year of hardship, economic change and disturbance, in such a way that people will begin to understand how they have been deceived and misled, and manipulated.

This Awareness indicates that even as cattle are herded from the fields into the trucks, and from the trucks into the slaughterhouses, people will begin to realize they have been herded from the farm into the cities and from the cities into situations in which they must have authorization, a number or paper, or document that gives them the privilege of being fed.

This Awareness indicates it will also become a time when entities turn against their neighbor in order to get food and benefits. This Awareness indicates that this is a time of great disturbance as entities move closer to that which is planned for them by these international banking families who wish to have greater control over the masses through their New World Order.

Again, Awareness Says It's Time to Store Food

This Awareness suggests that entities now, before the crisis begins, should store food that can be put in small places. A hundred pound bag of rice, or fifty-pound bag of rice does not take a great amount of room. If you want fancy food, then it may take more room, and this Awareness suggests you consider the importance of space in the storing of food and recognize that there may be laws enacted to prevent the hoarding of food.

Therefore, your food should be stored in as small a space as is possible. This Awareness does not recommend too many canned food, although canned foods to some degree can be beneficial. There can be the more basic storage, storing the most basic of foods such as grains, even though it can be expensive, in places where they will not be eaten by rats or destroyed by moths, or insects. This can be of great benefit during this coming year, so that if worse comes to worst you can at least cook some rice, or beans or oats or other grains and legumes.

This Awareness indicates that entities can live for some times on these foods, but how long can you live on fancy foods that have short lifespan or shelf life or which may spoil easily? This Awareness indicates that if you have a good solid basis, such as rice, beans, corn, you can make meals around these foods using whatever else is available at the time, and you should also store seeds if possible, so that when Spring comes you can plant a garden.

This Awareness suggests you may also wish to consider creating a greenhouse, perhaps using plastic as a covering, where the sunlight can get in and create warmth within and grow certain foods within the greenhouse. This Awareness indicates that these are things to think about This Awareness suggests also that you may wish to purchase garden tools, for these may be ³ of great need and great importance in your future.

This Awareness suggests that if you have an old car sitting on your property, you may find that the trunk makes a good storage place for a bag of rice or beans, but make sure it is not easily accessible by rats or other creatures that could eat your food before you get the chance. This Awareness indicates it is simply a matter of common sense: if there's going to be a food shortage, get something small that takes little room and adds bulk to your table so that you can have food when it is not available at the supermarket.

Get spices and substances to make your food more desirable so that if the time comes you are eating only basic rice, beans or similar foods, you can give it some spice or flavor that makes it more enjoyable. Get garlic powder and onion powder, in case garlic and onion are unavailable.

This Awareness indicates that you may need to spend several months worth of grocery money to store up on such vital foods, but you will feel safer and much more comfortable when you see the prices rising and the foods disappearing from the grocery shelves.

This Awareness indicates that in the early June or late May issue of Weekly Worlds News, a tabloid that appears to have CIA connections, an article headlined as "Nostradamus Predicts Sweltering Hot Weather In the United States This Year!" This Awareness indicates this is not seen as an actual Nostradamus prediction, but rather as a headline that the powers in control wanted to put out so that when they used the HAARP program and weather control programs from Alaska and on the West Coast to create hot weather in this country, which burnt much of the crop, people will simply think, "Oh yes! Nostradamus predicted it would be hot this year!", and no one would make the connection that perhaps the government is playing with the weather to destroy the foods.

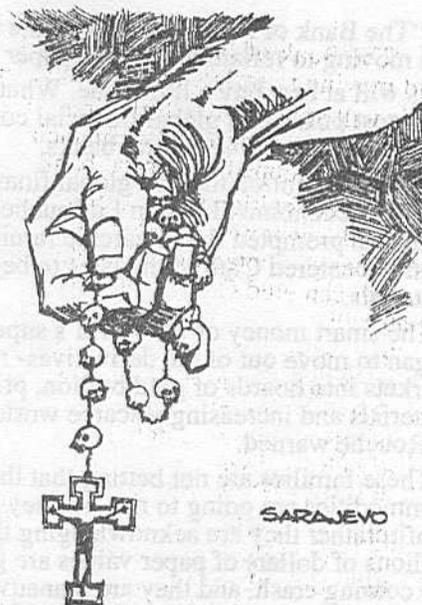

Just as Wars are Planned, Famines too are Planned

This Awareness indicates that the HAARP program weather modification created wet weather in Europe in the Spring and affected the growing season there also. This Awareness indicates that these things are not as natural as most entities expect or believe. These things are planned, just as wars are planned and made to look accidental or incidental, because of some event. But these events are usually triggers to help create the war, and are not haphazard.

Likewise, the shortage of food that will be experienced is not something that is haphazard or strictly natural, although there will be headlines stating that "God is punishing the wicked!" or something of this nature, to point the finger elsewhere, so that entities don't stop to think "Who is doing this and why?"

This Awareness indicates that if you can find Spirulina that is not too expensive, it is high in protein and can be of great benefit, but if you have to pay extremely high amounts of money for the Spirulina then it may not be worth the extra cost. It is beneficial because it takes very little room, and it contains protein and food benefits in high amounts.

This Awareness indicates that if it is too expensive, you would be better off staying with rice and beans and other grains. It would be beneficial to have a grinder so that you can grind wheat or other grains if needed. These grinders are usually not very expensive, particularly the ones ground by hand, in which you turn a handle, but if you prefer the electrical grinders, you may find some that are not too expensive. Look in catalogues that are aimed toward farmers or individuals who are living in rural areas.

This Awareness indicates catalogues such as the Whole Earth Catalogue may have tools and grinders and things which will allow you to live off the land or without being so dependent on electricity or on the usual commercial providers, for you may find that not only is there a shortage of food, but there may also become a shortage of electricity and other means of communication, depending on how bad the controllers want your circumstances to be.

This Awareness indicates that on the best scenario, food prices will simply rise considerably. This Awareness has addressed a worse scenario. It has not addressed the absolute worst scenario. There is little that can be said, if famine and starvation as a worst scenario occurs, except to tell entities there are certain weeds that can be eaten. There are certain plants in the woods that can be eaten. You can plant gardens and you can find foods in the wilderness.

Even grass can have some value, and Ann Wigmore of the Hippocratic Institute spent a lifetime healing people with wheat grass juice. This Awareness indicates that entities can grow wheat grass in trays and grind the juice in certain types of juicers and benefit from the use of wheat grass juice. Cattle eat grass and survive quite well, but this Awareness suggests that the chewing of grass by humans is not a pleasant meal, and can be hazardous to your gums.

This Awareness suggests therefore, if you can find a grinder that grinds juice, this would be perhaps a solution to the worst case scenario.

THE SUPER-RICH ARE PREPARING FOR GLOBAL COLLAPSE

QUESTION: (THE SQUIRELING OF COMMODITIES)

One last question; a long article in the New Federalist newspaper talked about the coming international crash, world wide and now Japan, the big banks in Japan, their rating had dropped by Moody's Investor's Service, downgrading 50 of these banks and relating their financial strength to the very lowest grade, and he says:

"The Bank of Japan, helped by the Federal Reserve, and moving to reflate the Yen to paper over the crisis. This will at best buy a little time. What has hit Japan is the latest phase of a global financial collapse which cannot be stopped by central banks.

"The recognition that the global financial system is finished, economist Lyndon LaRouche warned August 14th, has prompted the oligarchic families of the British-centered Club of the Isles to begin hoarding raw materials.

The smart money of the world's super rich families began to move out of the derivatives-rotted financial markets into hoards of gold bullion, prime quality raw materials and increasingly scarce world food supplies', LaRouche warned.

These families are not betting that the prices of these commodities are going to rise, so they can sell at a profit, rather they are acknowledging that hundreds of trillions of dollars of paper values are going to vanish in the coming crash, and they are maneuvering to situate themselves atop whatever pile of rubble is left.

"The key to such operations is stealth, moving billions of dollars out of financial markets and into commodities, without triggering collapse in the former and soaring prices in the latter. It must be done without alerting the suckers (it calls them) who will be left holding the worthless paper. Using captive banks and trading houses, these families are assembling huge hoards of commodities, even as their press outlet covers their tracks, and lures more suckers into the bull market."

And it goes on to say: "When one is filthy rich, there are two ways to buy precious metals; gold, silver, platinum; one can buy refined products such as bullion or jewelry or one can buy the mines and mining companies which extract them. The same principle applies to base metals: (aluminum, copper, lead, nickel, tin, zinc), diamonds, oil and food," and so forth.

It goes on and on, with a lot of facts to back up his argument. Does Awareness see that basically is what's happening with these wealthy families?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is absolutely correct. This Awareness indicates that already the Japanese have sold off great amounts of U.S. owned property; that this appears to be in the billions, at half the price they paid for the property some time back. This Awareness indicates that this is an indication of the crisis the Japanese have recognized, and this Awareness indicates that this is simply a symptom of the problem that is being discussed by this entity LaRouche.

This Awareness indicates that '96 appears to be the year of economic and political upheaval on many different levels. This Awareness suggests that entities begin preparing while they have the ability and also to keep informed and to talk to older people who have experienced the Depression in 1929 and through the 1930's, to ask them what they did to survive those hard times.

The more you can learn, the better your chances of healthier survival.

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates also that entities need to start thinking in terms of cooperatives, wherein for example, you may have an apartment, but your friend may have a home with garden space, and you may have

4. other friends with garden space. If you can work with these friends, cooperating with them in certain ways, perhaps you can arrange to help grow gardens, not only for yourself, but for them, on their garden space.

This is the kind of action that entities can work together with each other so that more benefits come for everyone through the action of cooperating. This Awareness indicates during a time of crisis it is not good to be competitive or to try to be independent. It is good to be cooperative, to establish relationships that are helpful to one another

DID A SMALL NUCLEAR BOMB DESTROY THE WORLD TRADE CENTER?

QUESTION: (4/19/93)

A question from Tom N., in California. I'll read his statement.

"On March 23rd, 1993, I heard on a radio talk-show a nuclear scientist with 45 years experience discussed the recent World Trade Center bombing. He stated that the official cause of the explosion is incorrect. The large and very destructive explosion could not have been caused by dynamite in a van, as the amount of explosives that it would have taken to do such damage would never have fit into a van.

"He believes that the explosion was caused by a small nuclear device. Such a device could very easily be carried in a briefcase. This type of small nuclear bomb has been available for over twenty years, and he was personally involved in the creation of these "suitcase nuclear bombs". He stated that we have been led to believe that the dissemination of nuclear materials is very controlled and safe, when the truth is that there is a large global proliferation of nuclear materials through a black market.

"Blowing up the world Trade Center with a suitcase nuclear bomb was actually presented as a future scenario in a book written by a nuclear scientist twenty years ago. A small nuclear device would need radiation, but it could only be detected with sophisticated measuring devices which the investigating committee would have; however, they would not make this public, because it would cause a panic about terrorists with nuclear bombs and because the World Trade Center employees would not return to their jobs, fearing exposure to radiation.

"The scientists thought that the terrorists' intention was probably much worse than the outcome. If the device had been placed closer to the main structural columns, the whole building could have been toppled off its foundation and crashed into the other one hundred story building, killing as many as 50,000 people.

"This story sounds familiar to me because I have read how the New World Order global elite, in order to bring about a One World Government, will try to terrorize the masses into accepting martial law, when they hear that terrorists, armed with small nuclear devices are going to blow up major population centers in the United States; exactly what happened in New York.

"I would like to ask Awareness if the bomb used in the World Trade Center explosion was actually a small nuclear device, and who actually was behind all of that?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity has put together a scenario that is very possible. It is something that could occur in the way described. This Awareness indicates that it appears that this particular explosion was one using conventional explosives but whereby it was shaped in such a way, and placed in such a way as to affect certain structural connectors of the building so that it moved upward through these structures, rather than in a horizontal direction.

This is in part because of certain placement of the van in terms of objects nearby that helped to shape the charge in an upward and downward direction. This Awareness indicates that it made use of certain walls and these helped to send the explosion upward and downward, more than horizontal.

This Awareness indicates it does not appear that this was a nuclear charge. It does appear that the potential for the scenario mentioned of terrorists using small nuclear weapons is still a strong possibility. If it does occur, it would more likely be terrorists hired and trained by certain agents working for the promotion of the New World Order, rather than agents from a Moslem or Middle East country. However, this Awareness does not see this in this particular instance as being such.

This Awareness indicates that if similar actions begin to occur in the future in various cities around the world, one could quite likely question whether these were of a conspiracy to help spread the New World Order using specially trained agents. This Awareness indicates that however, in this particular instance, it does not appear to have been this kind of conspiracy.

Ed's Note: This reading was given 2 years before the Oklahoma City bombing.

ARE BOYS TOWN PRIESTS SUPPLYING THEIR CHILDREN TO PERVERTS?

QUESTION: CAC general Reading, April 19, 1993

A question from Nick B., San Bernadino, CA.

He writes:

"On a TV show with Father Gruner, his guest told about the Father Flanigan Boys Town in Nebraska, and that many people, including the Omaha police chief, conspire with the Boys Town priests to use young boys to transport drugs and be whores and make porno-movies, and they also mention being in flying saucers.

"One of the richest men in the state has a farm where the old farm buildings are modern offices inside, and they do a lot of illegal business there. There's also busloads of young boys who have been taken there by priests. Can Awareness tell about this? It seems shy about some topics, and It is worried about the CAC staff, but if possible, I would like Awareness to comment on what was said on this TV show."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears there is some strange happening occurring in this regard that is linked somewhat to the same kind of energies as mentioned previously in the Hot August Night scenario: the Nazi group known as the Aquarius Group. It appears that the corruption of the Boys Town complex has occurred because of the promise and presentation of large amounts of money along with certain misrepresentation as to what the boys who are taken from the complex are expected to do.

This Awareness indicates that it appears to be a very negative situation that needs further investigation and to be brought to light in order to help preserve these children and prevent them from being exploited, used and abused. This Awareness indicates that unfortunately, there are many clues, or much evidence to help bring about an investigation. The television show may be contacted for further information as to what they see can be done or what further actions are needed, or whether there are entities investigating this any further.

This Awareness indicates there is a strange kind of cruelty and sadism on the earth today that was not present in the earlier part of this century except in areas that were clearly understood, such as in Nazi Germany. This Awareness indicates that today it is more insidious and better hidden from the public. It is part of the Ahriman force or energy that has spread its influence across the globe.

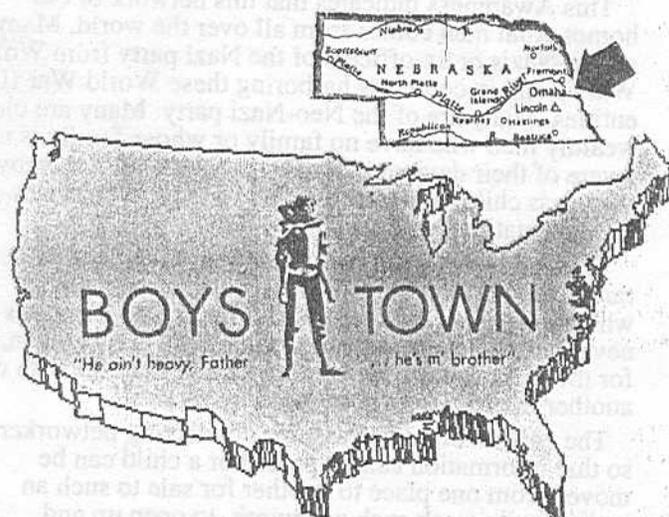

The Ahriman force being that which is cold and sadistic in nature, which brutalizes the innocent when possible. This Awareness indicates that this is quite different from the Luciferian energies that have been familiar in the past, in that Luciferian energies have more to do with deception or crimes of passion. This Awareness indicates that deception, theft and crimes of passion from the Luciferian energies are still present but are not as strong as they once were, and the more sadistic energies are presently increased on the earth.

How You Can Help Fix this Sordid Situation

This Awareness indicates that entities can help prevent any tragedies which would come from the Ahriman-type energies by meditating and projecting White Light on the Boys Town complex. This Awareness suggests you simply visualize the state of Nebraska and locate an approximate position for the location of Boys Town in your vision and wrap that area in brilliant White Light that shines forth in all directions and which creates perfection, clarity, honesty and harmony for all the residents inside.

See that energy increasing in size and in its depth and density so that the light does not allow any darkness, any Ahriman energy, any kind of sadism to continue existing. See this as being wiped off the map and only White Light protection in the area of Boys' Town.

This Awareness indicates that this visualization as that which can be most helpful, even in helping to bring about an end to these Ahriman energies acting in Boys Town.

Is Their an Alien Connection in Boys Town?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There's also mentioned some of these children being in flying saucers. Does Awareness see an alien connection to this Boys Town?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative; that there are certain UFO activities associated with taking children from schools, beaming them up into saucers, implanting them and then bringing them back into their schoolroom, within a matter of seconds or minutes. This has occurred in several instances, even here in the state of Washington, approximately a year ago.

This Awareness indicates that the Father Flanagan's school for boys, Boys Town, is a perfect place for UFO abductions to occur, because these children do not have families and being alone, make perfect candidates for implant activity by the UFOs and often have been abducted en masse, numerous entities at a time, because they can be implanted more quickly this way and then returned more quickly, while still being kept in a place where they are easily found for future examination and use.

What Happens to the Bus-Loads of Children the Priests Bring to the Farm?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

This part, where he says these bus-loads of young boys are taken by priests to these old farm buildings owned by one of the richest men in Nebraska, inside of which are all modern offices and so forth; does Awareness see these bus-loads of boys being taken there by priests, being returned to Boys' Town, or do they go into this place and never come out?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears many of these children are sold. This Awareness indicates there is a ring of entities on earth who cater to old homosexuals, old homosexual men who are extremely deviant, and who not only purchase young boys for child abuse purposes, for pornographic use, or for prostitution, but who have no qualms about disposing of the child when they are finished, if that is their wish or intention.

This Awareness indicates that this network of old homosexual men comes from all over the world. Many are ex-Nazis or ex-officers of the Nazi party from World War II, and in countries harboring these World War II entities. Many are of the Neo-Nazi party. Many are old wealthy men who have no family or whose family is not aware of their deviant attitudes and behavior, whereby they pass children to one another for sexual purposes or for molestation purposes.

This Awareness indicates that there have been some rare expositions of such a child-molestation network which have been exposed from time to time but it has never been tracked, investigated or legal action taken, for these entities are too hard to find or connect with one another in order to expose the network itself.

The entities often know some connecting networker, so that information can be passed or a child can be moved from one place to another for sale to such an entity, but to track such a network, to open up and

6. expose it, is almost impossible. You cannot use children as undercover agents to locate and track the networking mechanism or systems, and if an adult came in to try to infiltrate, the networking system is arranged in such a way that the adult could not penetrate or find the contact of one entity's particular network contact, or if he did, he could go no further in locating the next contact, because each level is shut off from all but one contact.

This Awareness indicates that the only approach seen as reasonable in uncovering or attempting to discover what is occurring in this regard would be to infiltrate the Boys' school systems with someone who works there to discover information that is available in regard to the role the school plays in this network, to discover why these buses haul the boys out, what happens at the place they attend, and what occurs after that.

This Awareness indicates apparently, the television program managed to get into the subject with some depth. It appears that more such research investigation needs to be done so that enough evidence is uncovered to go in and discover the true events and activities which this school is involved with. This Awareness indicates that it obviously needs to be investigated further and then when evidence is available, to put a stop to such actions as are found to be in violation of the rights of these children.

HOMOSEXUAL PRIESTS: HOW DO THEY RECONCILE MOLESTING CHILDREN WITH THEIR CATHOLIC RELIGION?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In the last few years there's been many many exposures of homosexual violations by priests; that it seems it's widely known now that the whole church system is riddled with homosexual priests and bishops, and people are coming out of the closet, 20 or 30 years later, whole generations and testifying against just even one priest in Minnesota, for example, who violated hundreds, possibly thousands over a 20 year period. My question: I've always wondered how they reconcile violating young boys like this and particularly in this incident of Catholic priests taking bus-loads of children to supply a nationwide network of perverts. How does a man who has dedicated himself to God reconcile this type of violation with his religion?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates they don't usually find a way to reconcile. They are more concerned about keeping it hidden. It is likened unto the preacher who visits prostitutes and doesn't want anyone to discover his activities, but considers that because he does something good for others, God will forgive him for yielding to the flesh. Often such a priest will see this as better than yielding to the temptations of being with a woman.

Buggering Children Not as Sinful as Sex With a Woman

For some reason they do not see sexual intercourse with children as being as sinful as being with a woman. This is in part because of their vow of celibacy which they originally express in the attitude of its reference being that of sex with a woman. They see their promise referring more to women, then as time goes on and they are tempted to have sex, and have an opportunity to have sex with a young boy, they see this as less of a sin than if they were to break their vow which they expressed as a vow of abstinence with women.

This Awareness indicates that even still, their greater concern is not to reconcile spiritually or psychologically, but to keep it hidden. This Awareness indicates of course, this is a broad analysis, and not necessarily accurate in every case of every priest.

Ed's Note: I checked with the entity who sent in this question and he had me contact Father Bruner, an outspoken Catholic priest in New York who has a syndicated TV program directed at Catholics. Father Bruner sent me information on the pedophile ring operating out of Boys Town, much of which was based on entities he interviewed on his programs and from the book "The Franklin Cover-Up: Child Abuse, Satanism, and Murder in Nebraska" by John W. DeCamp, a former state Senator and lawyer who was appointed by the Nebraska State legislator to investigate allegations of such abuse.

I contacted Mr. DeCamp to inquire where his book could be obtained, and although attempts have been made to suppress it, I found that it is still available. I read the book, which is a horrifying yet spellbinding exposure of a worldwide network, originating out of Boys Town and the Omaha area, which supplies children to pedophiles, pederasts and other perverts to satisfy their lusts. The sordid details were exposed after the failure of the Franklin Credit Union and ensuing scandal opened a window into the hideous world of child abuse, and of organized, illegal drug peddling, patronized and protected by powerful figures in politics and business.

Franklin's manager was Lawrence E. (Larry) King, Jr., a rising star in state and national Republican circles, an officer of the National Black Republican Council. King sang the national anthem at the GOP national conventions in 1984 and 1988. Missing was $40 million from the coffers when a federal raid closed down the bank. Evidence found inside the bank led to testimony of many children which linked King to a huge ring which provided children from the area, flown from city to city to be abused at parties held by Franklin's officers and well-known Nebraskans, including prominent Republican Party activists. The New York Times said: "A Lurid, Mysterious Scandal Begins Taking Shape in Omaha."

A cover-up quickly followed for entities such as the Omaha police chief, the owners of the World Herald newspaper were said to be involved. Allegedly Linked to Boys Town activities is Warren Buffett, one of the richest men in America. Children who were used as sexual playthings at GOP parties in Washington D.C. claimed George Bush and other prominent politicians were present in the building etc. The investigator hired by the legislature, Gary Caradori, uncovered much damning information which linked very high people to the child sex ring. He and his 8 year old son died at the height of his investigation when his private airplane mysteriously exploded. He died suddenly, and violently, like more than a dozen other people linked to the Franklin case.

Larry King an admitted homosexual who supported and participated in most of the child organizations in the area, including Boys Town, was able to get children at any time for his numerous "parties". He is instrumental in getting many of the children to the infamous Atlantic Richfield Complex in New Jersey where the many atrocities exposed by Mike Younger, including the Nazi perverts and Joseph Mengele experiments are occurring even to this day. This is the same Larry King as was confirmed by Awareness in the "Hot August Night" issue of "Revelations of Awareness" (Issue 92-12, available from CAC for $3.00) It is suggested you review that particular issue so this information will make more sense to you.

This is the same Larry King and the Boys Town connection which ex FBI officer Ted Gunderson is also investigating. He refers to this on the Oklahoma City bombing tape which CAC has made available to the membership recently (suggested donation at least $7.00).

For the complete in-depth story on this criminal child-sex network and who to write to that might help end these ongoing violations of the children, please obtain the book, "The Franklin Cover-Up: Child Abuse, Satanism and Murder in Nebraska" by Senator John W. DeCamp. To date, 50,000 copies have been sold by word of mouth only. No publication in America would accept advertising because it exposes so many people in high places. A new, updated and revised edition is now available.

A week ago, Mr. DeCamp wrote me: "Such dramatic events have occurred since the first printing that I felt it proper and necessary to write an Epilogue or final big chapter in the book to bring it current to September, 1995. Events and occurrences warned about or predicted in the book have occurred almost as miracles or events from Hell which validate and prove the original Franklin story since the book was written. They MUST be dealt with. These range from my involvement/and Franklin linkage to many national and international events--such as the Oklahoma bombing to the Militia Movement to the Gordon Kahl story to the Ruby Ridge incident and Cult Abuse Developments. Again, as in the original edition, names and places and dates and time and documentation are provided."

We urge all our readers to get this book and help get this information out to the public. You will later order more copies for friends and people in high places who are unaware of these incredible violations to our children by these perverts. Awareness has said that "Satanism will prove to be the biggest problem of the 90's"--and all this ritual child abuse, the network that provides these children, as exposed in this book, these all tie together. (CAC has approximately 6 full readings given by Awareness on this subject which have yet to be published. It's heavy reading and we have been reluctant to publish all of it.) However, this must be dealt with. The White Light meditation given by Awareness in this reading today may be the beginning of the end of this tragic and ongoing situation. But informing the masses is the way to get more investigations going and allowing the courts to put those involved in this sordid business behind bars where they most surely belong.

A NEW APPROACH TO ALIEN ABDUCTIONS

QUESTION: 6/1/95

We received a newsletter called Euphoria, put out by the Black Hills UFO Network publication and there's some interesting information in here I'd like to read and ask Awareness some questions about. It's called New Approach to Abductions, by Jeff Goodrich:

"With the alien abduction phenomenon growing larger each day, the bookstore shelves are lined with personal accounts from reliable witnesses. Yet, despite the enormous numbers of experiencers and investigators, nearly all of the work done with abductees is therapy centered. It is not pure research in strictest sense. This therapy is obviously advantageous and beneficial for the experiencer but it does little to gather tangible evidence of the actual experience.

One investigator, Derrel Sims, of Houston, Texas, is taking a radically different approach. Derrel is a master hypnoterapist, a former CIA operative and former military policeman. He has established his own company called Sabre Enterprises which acts as the investigative arm of the Houston UFO Network. Derrel is currently working with approximately 90 abductees in the Houston area and has successfully thwarted 6 abductions. His unique method involves the use of post-hypnotic suggestions in abductees to change the abductees behavior during the course of their next abduction. They are told to resist, mentally and physically, create as much confusion as possible and are instilled with a dual consciousness through subliminal reprogramming at the subconscious level. This dual, or "second" consciousness is not telegraphed by the abductees conscious mind to the abductors who are in telepathic contact.

As a result of these post-hypnotic suggestions, Derrel's patients have successfully resisted their abductors. One man became so angry that he punched a Grey in the head, crushing its skull and throwing it against the wall. Another woman, lying in bed, resisted her abductors by kicking a Grey in the face and breaking its neck. Two other Greys removed the body and that ended her abduction for that evening. Attempts have also been made to retrieve actual physical evidence during the course of an abduction. This has been unsuccessful thus far because the abductors knew the abductee had something in their possession. Two abductees have successfully removed the large black almond shaped eye coverings of a typical Grey, revealing some sort of biomechanical construct which gives them their vision. One woman who removed one of these eye coverings attempted to leave the craft with it but 5 aliens forcibly removed it from her clenched fist.

Derrel speculates that the typical Greys are biomechanical constructs, or worker drones, programmed to perform certain procedures during an abduction. Creating confusion during an abduction seems to throw off their rhythm and they become disoriented. When things do not go exactly as planned they become lost and do not know what to do in order to continue. To create confusion Derrel has his patients knock things out of their hands, knock instruments off of tables, bump into the abductors, knock them down and disobey their orders whenever possible. They typical Grey seems to have a hive mentality and appears to be controlled by someone else. The short Greys may have an IQ of about 80 and the taller Greys an IQ of about 130. Since Derrel's post-hypnotic suggestions have achieved some success it is obvious that these aliens are not as all-powerful as we have been led to believe. It has also been revealed that some abductees are given the date and time of their next abduction in advance. Derrel has used this to his advantage.

As the number of abductions has grown so has the number of mistakes made by the alien abductors. Abductees have been returned wearing the wrong clothes, put in bed upside down, put in the wrong bed or simply left standing naked outside in their yard. Derrel's investigation has also revealed that the alien abductors have been questioning some abductees about a government project called "Prometheus." Virtually nothing is known about this alleged government project but Derrel speculates that it may involve the government's effort to obtain alien technology.

Derrel has made many noteworthy accomplishments since 1992, including successfully thwarting 6 abductions, locating a casing for what may be a biological camera, removed 2 eye cups in 2 abductions, detected "marked" abductees with UV light, located doctors who appear to be working with NASA on abductions, successfully controlled the thought processes of an alien aboard a craft and x-rayed metallic implants in abductees. This unique approach goes far beyond the therapy centered work of the best known abduction researchers like John Mack, Budd Hopkins, David Jacobs and Richard Boylan, for instance. Derrel's active approach and attempts to collect physical evidence, coupled with a forensic approach to abductions in the same manner that the police treat a crime scene, will one day provide us with hard tangible evidence and long sought-after answers to this baffling phenomenon."

EUFORIA, BLACK HILLS UFON, 920-11TH AVE., BELLE FOURCHE, SD 57717 ($3.00 AN ISSUE)

Would Awareness comment on the general overall information?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is an important new approach in the study of aliens in their behavior toward abductees, and it is fortunate that this information has been shared. This Awareness indicates that it is suggested that further information of this type be continued and shared with people as new situations develop in the work of this entity.

Essentially, the information is seen as being correct in its presentation, and as being very important for helping entities to better understand the phenomenon.

QUESTION:

Is the information on the IQ of the Greys basically correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is correct in general. There are many of these entities who are highly trained technologically, but that this does not necessarily mean that they understand the principle behind the devices they are able to use, or even the reasons behind their behavior and their practices. They simply obey and do what they are told to do.

This Awareness indicates that there are some of these entities behind the scenes who are more highly developed and who have greater understanding of the more general and broad purposes for their being here.

This Awareness indicates in other words, the pilot and crew of a ship are not necessarily scientists in their manner of thinking. They are trained, just as a mill worker is trained in his or her particular job, without really having a great knowledge of the general operation, or over-all picture of what they are involved in.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto: One can work at a sawmill without necessarily understanding how all of the parts of the sawmill work. Likewise, these alien entities can work in a spacecraft without necessarily understanding all of the parts, programs, procedures that are involved in operating the spacecraft.

Are Greys Biomechanical Constructs ?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

We've known from information from Awareness that these Greys have a hive mentality, but here it says "the typical Greys are biomechanical constructs, or worker drones programmed to perform certain procedures during an abduction." Is that information correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is likened unto an entity who goes into the hospital and is assisted by someone, an orderly who is involved in shaving the area that is to be operated on. This entity who does the shaving does not need to know anything about surgery, or need to know anything about anatomy. He only needs to know how to shave the area that is going to be operated on.

This Awareness indicates another entity may need to know what kind of tools the doctor is going to use, or what kind of table is going to be required or what kind of lighting will be necessary, and in other words, they need to know only that which is necessary for their particular job; they do not need to know about surgery, about anatomy, about disease, or anything else.

The surgeon who presides, needs to know about anatomy, and needs to know particularly about the area of anatomy which he or she is going to cut or enter, and this Awareness indicates that the entity may not even need to know any other aspect of anatomy. If a doctor, for example, is a surgeon who's main practice is that of cutting out appendix, this entity does not necessarily have to know anything about the heart or about other organs of the body. In other words, by focusing on specific activities, the entities do not need to know the general overall activity of a particular field of knowledge. This Awareness indicates because of this, an entity can be trained to do a specific job with greater ease and less training than the entity who has to know everything about the human body.

This Awareness indicates therefore, in the same sense, an entity who is involved in the spacecraft may need only to know the particular routine that is required of him or her.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So these worker drones are programmed to perform certain jobs during an abduction. Who is it that programs them?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

These would be the people who are specialized in understanding the more broad picture. They may not know how to do a surgery, but they may know how to relegate duties involved in a particular patient's need. This Awareness indicates in other words, the general doctor or surgeon may not necessarily know how to extract an appendix, but he does know which doctor does, and therefore, he can appoint that doctor to take care of this patient.

This Awareness indicates in other words, what It is attempting to say is that you don't have to be a total wizard on all things to do a job that should be relegated to specialists. Even a general that has to know all of the overall picture, may not need to know how to do the specific things; he may only need to know certain general things and give general orders. It is likened unto the general of a military organization who may not know how to use a bazooka, but does know the use of a bazooka, and may order a special team with bazookas to go to a special place for a special operation or activity.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, the director of an orchestra may not necessarily know how to play an oboe, but he will need to give some part to an oboe player, knowing what the oboe player is supposed to do as a result of having that part, and therefore, the director turns the responsibility over to the oboe player and most people would perhaps think the director knows everything about oboes, when the director knows nothing about oboes; he only knows the generalities of the concerto being played.

WHAT IS "PROJECT PROMETHEUS"?

QUESTION:

Can Awareness tell us a little about this project called 'Prometheus', that the aliens are asking about, or is that none of our business?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears to be more than just the passage of technology; it appears that there is something in the US government that is concerned about gaining some kind of advantage over the aliens, not only through technology, but also through relationships and agreements and end the complications that are presented as part of the relationships between the aliens and the governments.

In other words, if a contract can be made with a group in such a way that there appears to be clear benefit in regard to the apparent objective of the contract, such as trading technology, but the contract also includes certain restrictions and methodologies for that trade, and in those methods of trade an advantage can be rendered by one of the parties over the other, then there is a kind of hidden agenda in the overall agreement that suits one party in a way that the other may not easily detect.

This Awareness indicates that this Prometheus program appears to be related to getting an advantage. It has a loose connection to the name of Prometheus, in the sense that Prometheus had to continually put forth effort to become freed and bring forth fire, was constantly being thwarted and bound and there is the metaphorical concept of the government having been involved in many agreements with these entities, constantly and bound in these agreements, and now wanting to be set free from any controls these aliens might have.

This Awareness indicates that It cannot be more detailed as this is a secret or classified as a secret program or project.

AN EYEWITNESS TO A CATTLE MUTILATION REVEALS TECHNIQUE

QUESTION:

In this publication there is an account by an eye witness to a cattle mutilation. That's the first time at least that I've heard about this. I'd like to read a little of this. It's a story in the Daily Optic, Las Vegas, New Mexico, dated September 15.

"A cow was found bizarrely mutilated and another was reported missing in Luna Canyon Tues. evening, said Mora County Sheriffs Deputy, Greg M. Laumbach. Larry Gardea said he witnessed a strange occurrence Tues. evening. He was taking care of cattle belonging to Estevan Sanchez of Chacon Canyon. Gardea said he was out about 5:30 P.M. checking on the cows when he heard a loud hum. "At first I just thought it was someone working nearby or something," he said. Gardea said all the cows began running away from the noise, but three appeared to be struggling, pulled by a strange beam through the trees toward the sound.

"They were struggling and bawling and were pulled through the trees," Gardea said. "I shot at the beam with a 30.06 rifle, and the hum stopped and the cows stopped bawling." The ordeal left one cow dead and mutilated, one cow injured and another one missing, he said.

He became frightened, so he returned to the house and called the Sheriff's department. Laumbach responded to the call and told Gardea to take him to where the attack occurred. Laumbach said they examined the dead cow and discovered the jaw to be skinned on the right side, and the animal's tongue removed. Also removed were the anus and reproductive organs. The rest of the animal was intact.

"The wounds looked like they were done with a really sharp instrument or something," said Laumbach. "There was no blood or anything. They (the wounds) weren't jagged." Deputy Laumbach said he saw no sign of a gunshot wound. He had no comment about Gardea's strange account.

"I haven't heard of anything like this since the late '70s or early '80s. I have heard of the same kind of things being reported, but not recently," said Undersheriff John Sanchez. "There were no tracks around the cow or any sign the cow had been dragged anywhere," Larry Gardea said. "I just wanted to warn ranchers around the Chacon Canyon area to be aware of that sound," said Gardea. "It sounds like a transformer or the sound an arc welder makes--a dull hum."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be an eye-witness account of an alien craft attempting to beam animals aboard. It appears however, that the animal that was mutilated, had been mutilated before the event. It does not appear that the animal was being mutilated by the beam.

This Awareness indicates that this is not seen as occurring at the same time the entity saw the cattle struggling against the beam. It does not appear that this technology would be at a stage where it could precisely mutilate cattle by shining a beam on the cattle. This appears to have been a previously mutilated episode with the beaming action trying to lift the other cattle aboard.

DO GREYS SLEEP LIKE HUMANS?

QUESTION:

R.S. in Vancouver, B.C., asks: "Do Greys, Reptoids and other aliens sleep and dream like humans?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the brain functions in humans do not shut down totally, and certain chemicals continue to circulate along with certain electromagnetic activities which tend to influence dreams. This Awareness indicates that it appears alien types have similar functioning brains, along with the chemicals influencing the brain activities so that they too could be said to dream, although it appears the Greys do not have as vivid types of dreams as humans. They appear to have certain patterns that change.

This would be more likened unto a kaleidoscope, although quite different, since the dreams of Greys tend not to be colorful, but the patterns in the dreams of Greys tend to be somewhat likened unto changing shapes of shades of gray, rather than dreams of friends and associates or struggles in the same nature that humans might dream.

This Awareness indicates that the Reptoids are closer to humans in their manner of dressing.

Do We Exist With Greys On Parallel Realities?

QUESTION:

Another question from R.S. It's a rather strange question. "Do the Greys of our universe go to the earth of parallel realities or do those other versions of ourselves have Greys, Reptoids, et cetera, of their own? Does the "me" of a parallel reality have a separate actual body, and different astral realm than the one who wrote this question?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this appears to be a question in which the entity perceives himself to exist in different dimensions, or different parallel worlds contain Grey entities in them also.

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that this is the case for you; it does appear that it is possible for some extraterrestrials to take on a body frequency that allows it to go into other dimensions, but it does not appear that Greys have that capability. This is in reference to the Reticuli Greys.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

That part of the question where he says, "Does the me of a parallel reality have a separate astral body and different astral realm than the one who wrote this question?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be negative; that It does not see the astral body of the questioner in a different dimension. It appears that the astral body of the entity is part of this dimension in a somewhat different level, and that it will remain here, even when the entity moves on to other dimensions.

This Awareness indicates generally, when entities die, the astral shell does not follow the soul movement into higher dimensions, but remains in the astral dimension in which the entity existed prior to the death.

THE 'SINGING ROCKS'—A NEW WAY TO SNOOP ON YOU

QUESTION:

In the book Matrix I, put together by Valerian, there is a discussion on CIA and other intelligence networks on how they want to protect the secrets of all the recovered UFO disks, and they are in the process of obtaining control of all communications in the United States, including the US mail. Now, here's the question:

It says "The NSA can monitor any individual in minute detail. It brings to mind a story of an ex-agency fellow had to tell about the "singing rock". It was discovered that sound waves (voices, etc.) beamed at a rock could be recovered minutes later after the sound had stopped. That was more than 20 years ago. Today, the state of technology is such that a complete audio and video record of you can be made more than two weeks after you were at any location, and all this is by satellite."

Awareness, is that exaggeration, or is that information true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is based on the process of sound recordings, similar to that which is used in tape recordings. The sound of a room can be recorded on a tape through the use of magnetics and certain electronics, and this process can also use the same principle, wherein you yourself become equipment to a tape, and sounds and speech and activities that you have enacted are recorded from the body picking up the vibrations of words, the images and actions that went into some expression during the time in question.

In other words, when words are spoken, some of the vibrations go into your body and act as recorded information, so that with a particular type of retrieving electronics, that information which is recorded on your body can be drawn out and witnessed, heard or seen according to the electronic material and instruments being used.

This Awareness indicates that this sounds impossible to the person who is new to the concept, but imagine a person who is presented with a piece of video tape or a piece of audio tape and is told that "You are on this tape.

You are here on this tape, and I can show you yourself!", and then the entity looking at this piece of brown tape would say, "That is impossible! You are crazy! There is no me on there! I am not present on this tape!", but the entity can put the tape in the VCR, play it, and there you are!

This Awareness indicates that imagine now there is some instrument that is capable of reading vibrations that have stuck to your body from events that have happened in the past two weeks and that this instrument is capable of recapturing those vibrations and playing them through some instrument. It is not that different. It is simply advanced far beyond the videotape concept, but not that far beyond, not so far beyond as to be utterly impossible.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So in other words, if for example, Vikki and I were downtown in Olympia, in a restaurant, for example, talking away, that theoretically, the satellite operating under someone who wanted the information could zoom in on the spot where we were sitting, only they would do this two weeks later and we wouldn't be there, and it could record our entire conversation, as well as produce a video of us sitting there? Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is one way of retrieving. It is also possible that the satellite could pick up on your activity outside two weeks later, pick up on your image, and in focusing on your present image, find certain vibrations or frequencies that were recorded there two weeks by, and from that prior recording, extract the information relating to your sitting in the restaurant and what occurred.

This Awareness indicates in other words, while you were sitting in the restaurant, talking about something, the sounds of the words, the images of your activities became stuck to your body cells, is it possible that a picture of you at a later time could read those frequencies and vibrations that are stuck to your body cells well enough to retrieve the event in the restaurant?

This Awareness indicates that it is a strange technology, but theoretically, with proper understanding and instruments it is possible, and this Awareness suggests that it has been accomplished; that this can be done. It can be done, just as playing a videotape can reproduce entities' past, precisely as recorded.

There is No Such Thing as Privacy Anymore!

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So, theoretically then, with this new technology and all the satellites floating around, there really is no such thing as privacy anymore?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative.

This Awareness wishes to make one further comment, however. You are unable to be certain of privacy. There is little you can do to be absolutely sure you are not exposed or will not be exposed; however, most people can take comfort in knowing that there are only so many interested parties in the world who are concerned about you.

You are, of course, greatly concerned; each individual is greatly concerned about oneself, and most entities feel that when they walk into a public situation, that many people are looking at them and thinking about them, and the way they look and the way they behave, but in reality, most people are thinking about themselves, the way they look, and the way they behave and exhibit perhaps only 10% of their attention on you, for perhaps only a few fleeting moments.

Therefore, most people are not interested in you, wherever you may go, and therefore, even with the technology that would allow them to strip away your privacy, you can take comfort in knowing that most people aren't very interested in using the technology on most other people.

It would only be of value to them if there is something particularly important about you in terms of their interests and their life. This Awareness indicates this is likened unto the fact that almost all telephone calls could be recorded and monitored so that anything said upon the telephone would not be protected or private, but this Awareness asks, "Who is going to listen to all these calls?"

If you are a suspect in a crime, perhaps they will check your number, then go to these telephone banks of millions of telephone calls and go through these to look for your particular number and listen to your conversations, but in the ordinary sense, if there is no particular reason to zero in on you and your telephone calls, there is not likely to be anyone available to listen, to hear what you are saying over the phone.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, in regard to this kind of satellite spying on individuals; the ordinary person does not need to be concerned because there is nothing of great concern about the person that would lead the spies to look closely at you, unless you were involved in some kind of outrageous or criminal activity.

That "Crystal Palace" On Mars

QUESTION:

A question from A.M., Torrance, California. He wants to know if Awareness has any updated information on the moon/Mars connection, i.e., face and city on Mars, and particularly the alleged "crystal palace" which Richard Hoagland claims is there and hangs about a mile above the surface of the moon.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there have been some speculative reports that NASA was planning to look more closely at the face on Mars, but it appears there has been no release in this regard, if this has occurred. This Awareness indicates that It does not see any new information regarding the so-called crystal palace either; that maybe in the future there will be further information made available on this, but this Awareness does not see this at present.

It makes people wonder what you've been up to!

Why Will 1995 and 1996 be Great Years to be Alive?

(ANOTHER PERSON FALLS FOR SCALLION'S LINE OF BULL)

QUESTION:

A question from T.M., Vashon, Washington. She writes: "Please have Awareness explain what It means by saying the years 1995 and 1996 will be incredible years to be alive. How will this manifest itself? When I first read the statement, I was elated, and expect good things to be happening for us, but after hearing Gordon Michael Scallion last night as guest on Art Bell's talk show, where he is predicting earthquakes, and Mt. Rainier erupting in the near future, what is one to think?", she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there will be many new things occurring during these two years that entities may experience as disturbing in some ways, but it will also herald great changes for the good of humanity. This Awareness indicates that in particular It was focusing on the Photon Belt and its influence on humanity.

It was also focusing on the Patriot movement and things that may occur in connection with these entities that can help to bring about greater freedom for there is a kind of awakening in consciousness that is in the making and soon to occur.

This Awareness indicates that It does not see a great concern about major earthquakes. It is not saying they will not occur; there may be major earthquakes, but It does not see this as being imminent or disastrous to humanity.?

Who Can Take Scallion Seriously?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Why would any legitimate radio show, or anybody for that matter, take this Gordon Scallion seriously after so many of his scary predictions that he's actually named dates for never occurred. And in the past he might have hit one or two earthquakes, but so what? According to a 20/20 or one of those TV shows, where they interviewed these scientists who work in the universities studying these faultlines etc., that these guys are about 98% accurate themselves, in predicting earthquakes and that their score is much higher than Scallion's.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that: How do you account for true believers when their prophets do not perform, but their faith remains intact? This Awareness indicates that this entity has had a few hits in terms of his predictions and has developed followers because of that, and these followers are not easily dissuaded from believing he is still accurate.

They do not necessarily check his credentials anymore. They simply believe in him, in the same way that a sports person may continue to believe in a team that is losing more games than it wins.

ARE THE MURDERED VICTIMS WATCHING THE OJ SIMPSON TRIAL?

A POSSIBLE SCENARIO IS PRESENTED IN THE QUESTION

QUESTION:

A question from J.S., Pacifica, California. Now he sent this question in back in September of '94, before the O.J. Simpson trial started. Actually, the question relates to other entities, but I'll have to read his letter in order to get to it.

He writes: "I, like millions of other Americans, have been intrigued by the legal drama unfolding in the O.J. Simpson murder trial and seemingly endless legal maneuvering going on that is being broadcast on television for hours each day. My own personal take on the eventual outcome parallels the results in the Dan White case from several years ago in which he admitted killing San Francisco Mayor Moscone and Gay activist and City Supervisor Harvey Milk. He was given a light sentence of only seven years and was released in five. Later, he committed suicide, apparently feeling that he wasn't punished enough; that he deserved the gas chamber. Indeed, he killed himself by placing a hose on the exhaust pipe of his car, and created his own gas chamber, poisoning himself with carbon monoxide.

"His light sentence was justified through a loop hole in California law, subsequently repealed, called 'Diminished Capacity,' also known as the "Twinkie" defense, since it was argued that Don White's obsessive consumption of sugary junk foods, especially Hostess Twinkies, had caused a deranged and unbalanced state of mind, creating a condition of temporary insanity.

The most important parallel with the O.J. Simpson case is the public persona of the defendant. Like O.J. Simpson, Don White was a well known, well liked charismatic public figure. He was a former fireman and policeman with a wife and kids. A sentence of death or life imprisonment would have outraged his many friends and supporters. A "Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity" verdict would have been unacceptable to many others, especially the powerful homosexual community in San Francisco who viewed the murder of Harvey Milk as due to homophobia.

"As a compromise, somehow the legal maneuvering and posturing resulted in a sentence harsh enough to be accepted by those who wanted a long sentence and acceptable to Don White's many friends and family, who wanted a minimum of punishment to befall him.

"My belief is that after the seemingly interminable legal maneuvering and posturing, the O.J. Simpson case will have a similar outcome, perhaps 7 or 8 years in prison, released in six. A compromise of this type would then be acceptable, with perhaps some grumbling, by the majority of the public.

"Thus, the sentencing and verdict will be crafted, tailor-made, behind the scenes, a public relations fabrication.

"My questions for Awareness: Are the spiritual selves of Nicole Brown Simpson and Ronald Goldman now earthbound, and are they capable of observing what is happening with O.J. Simpson? Are they intrigued with these events? And just what are they doing now?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears these entities have moved on to other things; they are not at this time focusing on the trial. It is of little interest to them. This Awareness indicates that it appears that these entities have other things that are of greater importance to them, to think about.

This Awareness indicates that the fascination entities have in regard to the trial is not seen as being shared by these two entities.

THE UNIFIED STATES OF AWARENESS SOUNDS LIKE HIPPIE UTOPIA

QUESTION:

A question from D.J. in New York. She's been researching some of the earlier back issues. She writes: "The Unified States of Awareness sounds very much like the way the Hippies lived, in particular at the Rainbow gatherings, where 'everyone does his own thing,' and we all have everything we need shared,-- food, clothing, communications, medical care, entertainment, spiritual teachings, water supply et cetera, even such luxuries as hot showers in the wilderness, all by mostly not organized volunteerism. Oh, and of course, love and peace.

"Regrettably, recent years have seen an influx of free-loaders, thieves and other unrighteousness, most refusing to be educated, and destroying the utopia we once had. Can Awareness propose a cure?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the Unified States of Awareness more closely resembles the ancient structure of government that was used by those promoting the Sirius and Lyran civilizations, and those of Vega. This Awareness indicates that the Pleiadian renegades who had a strong influence on earth helped to create the hierarchy civilization in which responsibility was handed down from a particular leader to subordinates and out to the masses, and it was through this hierarchy civilization that modern governments eventually evolved.

This Awareness indicates that in the movement through the Photon Belt in the future, this Sirian type of social order may be reintroduced to this earth. This Awareness suggests the next question be asked. There is no way that the cure for the ills described by this entity can be presented in this reading. It has essentially answered the question as being that which will eventually be cured through the future activities on earth.

IF MASONS ARE EVIL, HOW COME THEY ESTABLISHED THE U.S. AND OUR CONSTITUTION?

QUESTION:

Another question from this entity: "If Masons were plotting totalitarianism two centuries ago, why did a group of Masons establish the USA and its noble constitutional guarantees? And didn't the international bankers fund the Revolutionary War as well?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that those entities who helped to bring about this country were involved in Masonry, but they were also involved in that which is called the Dragon Society, especially the entity John Adams was such a person, and the Masons who have been part of the Illuminati that sought to lead to a One World Government under the guidance of the entity Bishop Pike and others, were of a slightly different orientation than those involved in creating a new government for the purposes of freeing themselves from England.

This Awareness indicates that it is true that some of those early politicians were Masonic. It is not true that all Masonics are in agreement with all other Masons. There is that which has been called the Illuminati and from that Illuminati there were many entities who were in conflict with one another, for the entity Adam Weishaupt, who started the Illuminati, commissioned Karl Ritter to write books and programs that would lead eventually to that which is called Fascism, and also commissioned the entity Karl Marx to write books and programs that would eventually evolve into that which is called Communism.

These Fascists and Communist organizations stemming from the same group or same mind of Adam Weishaupt, were in conflict with one another. Likewise, is it so hard to believe that Masons could be involved in creating the government that would lead to individual freedoms, while at the same time working in another part of Masonry, trying to find a way to create a One World Government?

This Awareness indicates these entities may not even have realized there was a conflict. Perhaps they saw the One World Government as being something that would free the masses. This Awareness indicates that perhaps they did not have in mind the action of subverting the masses under the control of the One World Totalitarian Government made up of super wealthy individuals.

This Awareness indicates that hindsight allows entities to see that there was a clear motive in the minds and activities of some of the founding fathers and that much of what has become the basis for New World Government had its works of Bishop Pike, which also came out of the works of Adam Weishaupt, and this is seen as being detrimental to the very freedoms that were created from the founding fathers of this country.

This Awareness indicates It doesn't see a discrepancy that is unexplainable; the fact that both of these came out of Masonry.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Then her comment that without the international bankers, the revolution would not have been financed...?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it's a question of which revolution she is speaking of: the Communist revolution or the American revolution, for the American revolution was not financed by the Rothschilds. The Rothschilds only assisted in the U.S. banking after the revolution had been fought and the country had been established independent from England.

Then, the Rothschild's special agent, Alexander Hamilton, created the United States bank, and attempted, through the United States bank to set up a banking system that would be controlled by the Roth-schilds in this nation. It functioned for 18 years and then failed, and was dismantled and the Congress was by that time creating Treasury Notes.

Within approximately 50 years, the British were involved in manipulating gold and silver in the United States in order to regain another control of the monetary system. And within another hundred years, they would have control through the Federal Reserve Bank.

This Awareness indicates that It does not see the inability of the early revolutionary war without the help of international bankers. This does not appear to be an accurate statement.

UNCERTAINTY IS CERTAIN

CLOSING MESSAGE

This Awareness indicates that the future is uncertain at this time, and entities do need to be able to accept uncertainty in their lives. This Awareness indicates that It is not certain at this time whether future messages will be available. There are changes that are occurring. This Awareness wishes entities to become as aware as possible of these changes as they occur, and to be alert and responsive as necessary.

This Awareness indicates that It is expecting with some uncertainty to return to do further readings through this channel, but It does recognize there can be some disruption that may occur in the not too distant future.

'ASCENSION' AND 'ENLIGHTENMENT': WHAT IS THE RELATIONSHIP?

QUESTION:

Mario M., New York City, writes: "In mysticism there are two phenomenon; the Ascension and Enlightenment. I would like to know their relationship," he asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that one does not ascend without Enlightenment, but one can be enlightened without necessarily ascending into higher realms or higher frequencies. This Awareness indicates that one can be enlightened and move into dark dismal areas of existence, carrying the Enlightenment with him or her. This Awareness indicates that a truly enlightened person could walk into the hottest levels of hell and not be burnt or degraded.

Enlightenment is the greater experience, more important than Ascension. Ascension is the reward that can follow from Enlightenment, but entities are not compelled to ascend simply because they have become enlightened. Enlightenment simply creates the opportunity for entities to have a greater awareness, a greater understanding even of those darker areas and to shed light from that enlightenment into those darker areas, to give greater light and exposure in those things.

Thus, an enlightened person can walk into darkness and bring the light with him. An example being that in the story of the Christ coming to earth bringing his light to those on earth; this was not an action of Ascension. Rather, it was an action of descending into matter, into the material world. This Awareness indicates that the Ascension was available to the entity and when the time was right, the entity did ascend, but the enlightenment was the key to his fame as a spiritual leader.

The Ascension was simply the reward that followed from having been an enlightened being.

"ENLIGHTENMENT" AND "ASCENSION" IN THE PHOTON BELT

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There's been a number of questions come in from entities who are confused about the Photon Belt information, and they seem to believe that moving into the next dimension is an Ascension of some type, but they wonder that if they don't achieve Enlightenment first that they'll be denied moving into that other dimension.

Others write that they're worried that once they're in that dimension that they won't be able to achieve Enlightenment because they'll be stuck there. Could Awareness sort of clarify those ideas?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that entities must first understand what Enlightenment is. To be enlightened is the same thing as becoming aware. To be Aware means to recognize the truth, the reality of What is. Anyone moving into the Photon Seat will become aware of the changes that are occurring.

What is "Non-Enlightenment"?

This Awareness indicates that the question may help if entities ask: "What is non-enlightenment?"

Non-enlightenment for an entity means the entity is unaware. Who can possibly be unaware? It is not a matter of total unawareness, which would mean the entity was either asleep or unconsciousness for some reason; such entities would be classed as "unaware." This Awareness indicates that when we speak of "enlightenment" or "awareness", it is a reference to greater or lesser degrees of awareness. The greater degrees are called Enlightenment. The lesser degrees are seen as being unaware, or lacking in awareness.

This Awareness suggests that there are different levels of awareness: simple awareness is one level; and there is the self-awareness as a step higher. Simple awareness is the kind of awareness that a rose or a plant might have. Self-awareness can be experienced in animals and by humans wherein the animal is aware of its own hunger or its activity.

The human may be aware of its needs and its activities. These as being self-awareness, and there is that which is "Cosmic Awareness" or greater Enlightenment, beyond simple awareness. This is often referred to as "expanding awareness," or "expanded awareness," wherein an entity sees beyond self-awareness, becomes globally aware, or nationally aware, or cosmically aware.

The entity's awareness reaches beyond self. This Awareness indicates that these movements of awareness from one level to another remit that which is called Enlightenment. You can be self-aware, but if you have never thought beyond self, if you have never felt the impact of an awareness of your nation, or an awareness of the entire globe called your world, or if you have never experienced the universal or Cosmic Levels of Awareness, then you have not experienced those levels of Enlightenment.

This Awareness indicates that once you move into such attunement, where you grasp the understanding of global awareness, you have reached a new level of enlightenment, something unfamiliar to you in the past. This Awareness indicates that entities can do this best through meditation. You can expand your awareness through meditation.

You can use your imagination and begin to expand from your personal home, your personal body. you can recognize your body has a certain amount of self-awareness. You can lie with your eyes closed in your room and spread your awareness out to where you have "room awareness."

An Exercise to Expand Your Awareness

You can feel your entire room as being your self. Let your awareness expand to fill the room. Feel all the things in the room. Feel your awareness reaching to the corners of the room. This Awareness indicates that this may be an experience you have not previously known, and therefore to do so would be a form of enlightenment.

First Become "Home" Aware

This Awareness indicates once you have practiced this for awhile, let your awareness not only expand to the limits of the room in which you find yourself, but let it go through the walls to the outside of your home, wrapping around the entire home, and become "home aware", not just "room aware" or just "self-aware"; let it become aware of the entire home.

Feel yourself as the house itself. Feel that you are the home. Experience the home, even for a few seconds. If possible experience for approximately 10 seconds. Once you have been thus enlightened to experience the entire home in which you reside, allow your consciousness to expand further and include areas around your home. Find your consciousness expanding ever-outward, one step at a time.

Next, Become "Community" Aware

If you can feel the entire town in which you live or the entire community, hold that feeling for approximately 10 seconds and become Community Aware, or Community Enlightened. Experience the community in which you reside. Imagine yourself being born into this world as a community. Imagine that community in which you reside as being yourself.

Pretend for a moment that you have been the community ever since it began, some several hundred years ago, or whatever time it has existed. Imagine that you are the community. Experience the community. Forget your personal body for awhile and experience Community Consciousness. This Awareness indicates that this can be another level of Enlightenment.

Next, Expand Yourself to Include the City

This Awareness suggests that you then move into further expansion. Expand your consciousness to include the entire county in which you reside, or if you live in a large city, experience the total city and imagine that you are the city. You were born as this city, and have grown and developed, changed and been modified into its present state of cityness.

As a city, feel the streets, feel the heat, feel the hustle and bustle of the entities involved. Feel all the buildings. Feel all their stiff structure sticking into the ground. Feel all the cement that makes up the skin of this city which is you. This Awareness indicates that as you experience this self of the city and become City Conscious and City Aware, imagine that this is who you are and who you have been for many hundreds of years.

This Awareness suggests that you have undergone many changes in becoming what you are. This Awareness suggests that after you have experienced this for approximately ten seconds and you have become enlightened as a city, expand your consciousness still further. Expand your consciousness to encompass the county or the state in which you reside, or if you are in a foreign country, province or the nation with its boundaries, and all of the activities within those boundaries is you. Imagine these boundaries as being your skin, your outer surface.

This Awareness indicates that you may of course want to become enlightened even further and go into the internal parts of yourself, becoming aware for example, when you are a city, becoming aware of those areas within the city in which certain political forces work together for certain purposes, recognizing there is a part of yourself that is dedicated to criminal activities. There is another part that is dedicated to the pursuit of service to individuals. There is the business activities; just as with your human body you had organs doing things inside yourself.

Likewise, as a city being, you have activities going on that you do not necessarily pay great attention to, any more than you used to pay attention to the liver or the kidneys when you were in the human body.

This Awareness indicates that as you move from these different levels to greater levels, expanding your consciousness, recognize that there is always the spirit. There is always a kind of soul. There is a soul of the city and there is a spirit of the city. There is a spirit of the state, a spirit of the country. There is a global spirit, a spirit of the earth and a soul of the earth.

Expand Now to Include the Entire Globe

This Awareness indicates the soul being more of a magnetic center and the spirit being more like a Conscious Awareness that is everywhere present in the body you are experiencing, in your consciousness expansion. So you expand your consciousness to include the entire globe. To do so, the globe becomes smaller in appearance. You become larger. You feel the round globe as your body. You feel all the turmoil, the churning of the energies of the oceans, of the hot magma beneath the surface of the lands.

You feel the winds and the clouds as part of your outer surface and you know that you are totally alive because there is so much activity going on. You feel yourself as a living being that exists in the shape of a sphere, and you are crawling with life; little things that move around on your surface. They don't bother you, any more than bacteria bothered you when you were in the human form.

This Awareness indicates that there are some things that occasionally disturb your sense of well-being, just as bacteria sometimes disturbed your sense of well-being when you were human, but you are now the globe, and you experience the global reality of self. And you also recognize your neighbors, the various planets: Mars, Venus, Jupiter... and of course the sun; you recognize these as a family. You are one of this group, and you may now wish to expand yourself again, encompassing the entire solar system.

You Now Expand Into the Solar System

You now become the family. You see yourself as a family with several parts. These various parts which are called planets remind you of the fact that you were once a human and you had various organs operating within your sphere of being that were known as the heart, the liver, the lungs, the kidneys and so forth, and they all had their place as part of you. Now you are the solar system.

Your head is the sun, and the various planets are various organs within. You experience this for approximately ten minutes and finally become accustomed to it, and you have the realization that it is a new Enlightenment that you are experiencing and you look around at your neighbors and see that there are many other solar systems, and you continue expanding out further into the universe, from one being to another.

Eventually you may reach the outer limits and see yourself as a universal Being, total cosmos, and you know then that the entire universe is conscious, is living, and you know what is meant by Cosmic Consciousness, for you can experience the entire universe as part of your Enlightenment, as part of your experience, as part of your Cosmic Awareness.

There is No Simple Formula for Enlightenment

This Awareness indicates that Enlightenment isn't something that just happens when a fairy touches you with her wand. You do not suddenly find yourself experiencing sparks of light. You enlighten yourself by expanding your consciousness to include more, to experience more of What Is, to become more aware of things around you.

This Awareness indicates that too many entities want a simple formula for Enlightenment. They want a pill. They want a drink, or the want someone to "enlighten" them. No one can enlighten you! You must enlighten yourself. Simply expand your consciousness as described, and experience what it is liked to be more than you are.

This Awareness indicates the more vividly you can see yourself as a greater being, the more complete the experience of Enlightenment. This Awareness suggests this is why it is important for entities to set aside some time for meditation, for experiencing these things. You cannot spend all your time being busy, watching television or entertaining yourself or even working on important things. You must set aside some time to let yourself become more enlightened.

This Awareness indicates it is not something that comes from thinking about Enlightenment. It is something that comes from experiencing the growing awareness, the expanding awareness. This Awareness reminds you that the most important action that you can take in terms of spiritual growth is to surrender yourself to those things that are highest in your comprehension, in a spiritual sense. By surrendering self to the highest spiritual essence you can perceive or can conceive you allow yourself to expand, to be one with that which you have surrendered to, and this allows you to expand into the higher spiritual energies. Surrender to Room Being, to your Home Being. Surrender to the sense of being a county, a state, a nation, a Global Entity, a Planetary Entity, a solar system.

Now Surrender Yourself to the Divine

Surrender yourself to being a Cosmic Entity, ever-growing until you reach that which is the most expanded and highest being you can conceive of, and recognize the consciousness of this entity, and recognize that it is God, it is at least a part of God; that God may extend even further than that which you can conceive of, but at least all you can imagine is God, and surrender yourself to that Divine Being which is beyond all comprehension and you will become enlightened. You will be enlightened from your expanded awareness.

This Awareness does not mean that you will know how to do physics or how to do mathematical problems that you have never attempted before, nor does It mean that you will be able to write great works of art, or to play musical instruments like some genius. That is not necessarily part of Enlightenment. Nor does It mean that you will be recognized by others as a master, nor does It mean that you will be able to create miracles for others, and receive praise.

Many people think that Enlightenment is supposed to give them great praise and glory. It simply means that you have a greater understanding of What Is. The degree of your Enlightenment increases as you become more and more aware of What Is.

This Awareness indicates it is not something to worry about in these future times. If you are a decent person, if you are willing and ready to surrender yourself to the Divine as you find it, you will be able to move without any problems into the new dimension and Enlightenment will come as you progress in that direction.

This Awareness indicates have you ever gone into a new area, totally unfamiliar, without becoming enlightened as you move? Is it possible to remain unenlightened when moving into a new area, a new experience? Children learn faster than adults because everything is new to them. You will learn faster than you have in present time as you move into the new dimension because everything will be so new to you. It will be continually enlightening you.

You will have all kinds of new discoveries. This Awareness suggests you not worry about this. If you wish to expand your awareness and become more enlightened now, then This Awareness suggests you do those things that have been described: expand your consciousness, surrender to the Divine, and be more alert and attentive to yourself and to others and be more sensitive to What Is.

This Awareness suggests you not judge yourself, for judging yourself is not an Enlightenment. It is not becoming aware. Instead of judging yourself, discern What Is yourself. Discerning meanings, discovering. Judging means condemning or classifying or labeling self, putting self in a box of labels or defining self in a way that limits self. Do not judge yourself. Discern, discover self.

This Awareness indicates if you judge yourself as being inadequate you have limited and you have not fully discovered yourself. Stop limiting self by judging and start unfolding and looking and discovering what yourself is. This Awareness indicates if you become aware of self and keep becoming more and more aware of self, you will eventually discover so much about self that you will begin to realize the self extends beyond the physical body and becomes part of your family, becomes your family, becomes your community.

The self is always out there, as anything that has to do with you in any way at all. You will find that the self is the school you went to and in your discovery of self, it is the books that you have read; it is the people who have influenced you. All of these things are part of what makes yourself.

As you continue discovering self, you will find that more and more you must reach out beyond the physical being. You will find that your self includes your government, your nation, your society, your world and even your view of the cosmos. It is all part of self.

Thus, in your self discovery, you move beyond self into areas which eventually lead to Cosmic Awareness and are not limited to self awareness. You come to a point wherein you realize your self is only whatever you limit it to be and that you can move beyond self awareness to be Cosmic Awareness, to be Universal Deity, to be One with the Divine Creator.

This Awareness indicates however, to become One with the Divine Creator you must give up self. The grain of sand on the beach can surrender itself, become more aware, expand its awareness to become One with the Divine Creator, but when it is One with the Divine Creator, it cannot remain one while returning and claiming itself to be a grain of sand on the beach.

The individual cannot claim to be an individual self while still being One with the Divine Creator, for when you merge with the Creator, you give up self; you give up your individual self.

This Awareness indicates of course, this is a temporary action whereby entities surrender self to become One with God. This can occur on a temporary basis, for were they to permanently give up self to become God, the body from which they have launched themselves into Divinity would eventually die without their return, and it is important for them while incarnated on earth to care for the temple, the body, to make sure that it is kept healthy and sacred for as long as it is needed, for their mission on earth.

You tune into the Divine, you tune in to God, you return to your body to help carry out the mission you were sent here to do. Anytime earthly affairs become confused or uncertain or tedious, you return to the Divine, leaving the body, leaving the self and becoming One with the Divine, with the Deity, with the Creator; recharge yourself, your spirit, your soul, so that you can return to the earth, to your physical body, to the material realm for further work on your earthly mission.

As long as you remain in the physical, this is the routine or mode of operation: moving back and forth from the physical body to the spirit that merges with God, recharging with God, and then moving back to use the energy gained to operate from the physical in your earthly obligations and duties.

What Your Real Meaning on Earth Is

This Awareness indicates you are all emissaries from God incarnated into physical manifestation. Most of you have forgotten your reason for being here. Those who become more enlightened realize why they are here. It is to awaken self and then to awaken each other, and when all are awakened, the whole of humanity on earth will move into higher frequencies, reaching into the Divinity of God.

You are all keepers of the Light, helping each other to become enlightened and reaching into the Divine Levels for your own continuous Enlightenment so that you may return to the physical manifested role which you play in helping to awaken and enlighten others, and while this occurs for you, there are also others who will have done the same and who will help to awaken you and enlighten you to keep you on the path, even while you work to keep others on the path, and all work together as you all move into these higher and higher frequencies of Divine Essence.

This Awareness indicates that as entities become more consciously aware of the movement toward the Divine and how this is accomplished, and how they can all work together for each other's Ascension and Enlightenment, more and more will join, and as enough join, the movement into the Higher Dimension occurs and greater and greater Enlightenment results for all of humanity.

WHAT IS THE EVENTUAL FATE OF THE SOUL?

QUESTION:

A question from JD, in New York. I think Awareness has probably addressed this, but I'll ask it anyway. "Eastern spiritual teachings indicate that the Atma or soul incarnates until perfected, then voluntarily returns in service or dissolves or goes onto higher development off this planet. What is the eventual fate of the human soul?", she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the human soul is a kind of magnetic center that draws certain energies, certain concepts certain principles to it in such a way that it holds together between lifetimes and stays as a center for the spirit to be attracted to. It also draws in others who have been attached emotionally or mentally or physically to that soul for any further experiences or karmic obligations that may still need to be worked out or resolved.

The Karmic Connection: What Draws Entities Together Between One Lifetime and Another

This Awareness indicates in other words, as the soul magnetically comes together, accumulating all of the various experiences, the various contacts which the soul has made from one lifetime to another, are what draws entities to each other between one lifetime or another which is often referred to as a "karmic attraction." Someone has been close in one lifetime; they come together again in another lifetime.

This is because the soul has certain accumulated vibrations from the experiences of these entities having been together before and this new lifetime creates a kind of magnetic attraction, just as there are certain frequencies that are drawn to each other on a similar wavelength in electronics, and these entities being incarnated in a similar time period may come together because of the frequencies in the soul that have been accumulated from the previous lifetimes, where these entities were together.

This Awareness indicates that this is where memories of one lifetime to another are related. It is how memories are carried over from one lifetime to another. They are carried over through the soul carrying the vibrations of the experiences. This Awareness indicates they are not carried over as thoughts in one's mind, nor necessarily even in the subconscious, although in a sense the subconscious is the soul, but it is the vibrations in the soul or subconscious, rather than thoughts that carry from one lifetime to another.

Thus, you may not remember the name of a previous acquaintance from another lifetime as you were at the time, but you may recall the feeling, the frequency, the vibration, and upon meeting this entity in a future lifetime, you may feel an immediate attraction, or in some cases an immediate aversion, but there will also likely be some kind of attraction with the aversion to bring you together to work out the karma.

This Awareness indicates that beyond the karmic carry-overs which the soul holds for entities, there is the eternal accumulation of experiences that occur and grow and develop over many lifetimes as the soul evolves and the soul, eventually moving back into Oneness with the Divine, can be purged of much of this karmic baggage when the soul actually returns to the Divine.

This Awareness indicates many of the vibrations and frequencies that are of no continued value can be set aside, can be dropped, or converted into something totally unique that makes up the individuality of the person without any further karmic connection to others, wherein the soul essentially melts into a unique vibration for the individual and is no longer drawing others in to work off karmic relationships.

Once these karmic relationships have been essentially balanced through the various lifetimes and that which remains are just the shimmering vibrations of the experiences, then the soul can melt into a totally unique vibration that is no longer defined by the many sub-activities of previous lifetimes, or distinct frequencies of previous relationships. All these relationships and the karma accompanying them become undefined in the new soul, in the completed soul.

This Awareness indicates the new soul is but a magnetic center of the ascended being. It has a vibration that touches all that can vibrate in harmony with it. Thus, an entity can become a kind of angel or Ascended Master in the sense of a vibratory being that serves to attract others on a spiritual path.

Avoid Guides and Ascended Masters if Possible

As long as this entity does not seek to capture or to hinder the progression of others, as long as the entity does not seek to capture followers, the frequency or vibration of the entity's soul serves as a kind of Light directing them on the course of movement toward the higher realms and frequencies.

This Awareness indicates that as entities progress in these directions, it can be beneficial for them. This Awareness does wish to point out, however, that following Ascended Masters, following Enlightened Beings is not the quickest way to Enlightenment. The quickest way to Enlightenment is surrender to the highest and most Divine Being you can imagine.

If your highest and most Divine Being is an Ascended Master, then surrender to the Ascended Master by all means; but if you can perceive, if you can conceive something that is beyond the Ascended Master, something that is the Divine Creator; if you can conceive of such an entity, surrender yourself to that entity and bypass the Ascended Masters for they will simply stand in your way. Surrender to God, rather than to an Ascended Master or a personal Guide.

While these entities mean well, they simply do not have the status that can serve you in your quest for Divinity that comes with the surrender to God, to the Highest and Best that you can conceive of. This Awareness indicates if Christ is the Highest and Best you can conceive of, then by all means surrender yourself to Christ, surrender yourself to God, surrender yourself to Allah, or to whomever you conceive of as being the Highest and Best of the spiritual realm.

This Awareness indicates if an Indian Guide is all you can think of as caring for you or as being available to you, then surrender to that Spirit Guide of the Indian, or if Saint Germaine, Tonka, or Hilarion or whoever you choose is your Highest and Best conceivable spiritual leader, then surrender to that entity. There will come a time when you will outgrow this need and you will see that there is a being higher yet, and surrendering to that Higher Being allows you to go further yet.

This Awareness indicates this is the quickest path. This Awareness has indicated there are three paths to Enlightenment: suffering, service and alchemy. Suffering is the slowest path, but there are some entities who cannot get off that path because they do not want to serve and they do not understand alchemy.

There are some who are willing to serve others, and they move much quicker on the path of spiritual development, spiritual evolution. Through the service of others they move quickly, but not nearly at the speed of those who serve through alchemy.

This Awareness indicates that alchemy is the ability to change consciousness. It deals with the changes in consciousness. This Awareness indicates that entities who can surrender self to the Divine are creating a change in their consciousness, and this action moves them very quickly.

Thus the salvation in the Christian religion is a form of alchemy. The salvation that comes from having one's sins forgiven is a form of alchemy, and it makes immediate changes in the consciousness of entities. This Awareness indicates that as entities surrender to the Divine, this is an action of the alchemical process, for the entity in surrendering to the Divine gives up self and takes on Divinity's vibrations and becomes a tool for the Divine, a servant of the Divine.

This Awareness indicates that this alchemy moves the entity spiritually into higher frequencies very quickly, and this is the quickest path to the spiritual goal of entities. These entities will not only find themselves spiritually attuned to the Divine, but they will also find an urge to help others, to serve others, and thus, the path of alchemy will extend to the service of others also, but they will avoid most of the suffering that is common to the slower path which many entities follow: the path of suffering.

THE KALA CHAKRA INITIATION: ANY VALUE?

QUESTION:

One last question, this one also from the entity JD. She writes: "H.H. the Dalai Lama, is giving the Kala Chakra initiation to large audiences. It requires 5 full days, some preparation and participation, and in America, hundreds of dollars donation. My friend who attended called it "Incredible!", but was unable to elaborate. It's supposed to confirm myriad blessings, perhaps ameliorate karma and so forth. What in fact is the actual value of this initiation ceremony?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a ritual which alters consciousness for entities to allow them to feel that there has been an event that has changed their lives. This Awareness indicates that it is convincing to entities because of the ritual involved and the suggestions accompanying the ritual.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, it is effective. Entities become changed. Their consciousness is changed and they have achieved a new view of themselves and have been assured that they are enlightened to a greater degree. This Awareness indicates that it is another form for changing consciousness in the alchemical sense.

This Awareness indicates that the Christian salvation does have a similar mode of operation. Its descriptions are different. Its explanations are different, but the technique, using suggestions and changing the entity's consciousness are much the same. The rituals involved lead to different explanations.

The religions are defined with different terms, but essentially it is a combination of suggestion and ritual to give the appearance of major changes occurring in the lives of individuals.

FOLLOW-UP:

In medicine this is called the placebo effect, is it not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in a placebo, something is given in lieu of real medicine with a misrepresentation involved, a pretension of being given a real medicine in a way that fools the entity into thinking it is real. In the ritual described or in the religion of the Christians in which the salvation is presented, it is not that they are pretending to give a certain truth or medicine, but really giving something totally different, so this is not the same as a placebo.

This Awareness indicates that they are giving a formula, a ritual, and suggestions to make changes in consciousness. It is a formula being presented for the purpose of changing consciousness.

QUESTION:

Does Awareness have a closing message?

More "Enlightenment" ExercisesCOSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that when you place your attention and focus on those higher frequencies, hold your attention steady, hold your focus until you can fully experience the frequencies to which you focus. If you are focusing on Divinity, keep the focus steady and feel the vibrations of Divinity. Feel the frequencies.

This Awareness indicates that while you are feeling those frequencies, take a mental picture, a mental snapshot. Take notice of how you feel, what the experience is that you are experiencing, as though you were putting this into a stop-frame, or still-frame picture, so that you can refer to it often.

This Awareness indicates that entities can experience things and let the experiences pass them by and never really be able to recall or recapture the experience, but if you make a strong mental focus at a certain point in your experiences that are precious to you, as though you were taking a snapshot for future reference, you can hold those experiences in your consciousness so that it makes it easier to get back to that experience in your future meditations.

You may also find that labeling those experiences with a name can be helpful in returning to those levels of consciousness. For example, the first time you reach communion with the Divine Vibrations, you may wish to label that experience "Divinity" but because you will be experiencing Divinity time and again in your meditations and some of the degrees of Divinity may vary, you may wish to label your first experience of Divinity as "Divinity #1", so that if you later have a stronger experience with the vibrations of Divinity you can give a different number: "Divinity #5", for example, and this will allow you to recapture with greater ease, that higher experience of "Divinity #5" at a later time.

If you label all of your experiences with the same word, or the same number, then how do you distinguish the various degrees of experience? This Awareness indicates that when you are moving out in your expanding consciousness you may also wish to give terms such as "Awareness": "Awareness #1",

"Awareness #2" et cetera, or "solar system #1" "galaxy #1", et cetera, to the point where you are describing your conscious awareness levels, or you may wish to label them with the term "Enlightenment" so that you can recapture those levels of experience more easily with your memory as you meditate in your future experiences.
