Patriots can still save our Constitution!

'THE ANGEL OF DEATH' --- "24 Hours!"

C.A.C. General Reading, March 6, 1996

WHY THE POLITICIANS ARE "RESIGNING"

Question: Awareness, we're here to continue the CAC general readings. Does Awareness have an opening message?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates a recent article was distributed through a magazine called Media Bypass which gives alternative information relating to political and government situations. This article discusses, among other things, the unusual number of Senators and Congresspersons who have suddenly resigned their positions, their offices, sometimes during the most unexpected times.

For example, some of these entities would be in the process of launching their new campaigns for re-election, but would suddenly call a press conference and announce that they had decided to resign their position for one or another reason, often simply citing that they needed to spend more time with their family, or something of this nature. This Awareness indicates that almost 50 entities in the last few months have resigned their positions, their offices, with such unexpected announcements and the resignations would take place quite suddenly and quite unexpectedly.

This Awareness indicates that many entities would ask "Why is this happening?" This Awareness indicates that there are certain things that have occurred, which in turn tie in with other events that have occurred in the past several years. This Awareness indicates It wishes to touch on this momentarily, because it is of significance to entities in this country.

This Awareness indicates there is a software program that was developed in this country for use by certain government agencies in tracking the money in foreign bank accounts, and this software program was given to many foreign governments to enable those governments to keep track of money investments and bank accounts of their own citizens so that they could follow these money trails, not only within their own countries, but within the foreign banks, as their entities invested in such.

This Awareness indicates that this program had secretly imbedded within it a certain way whereby the program could not only help foreign countries and governments keep track of the money trails of their own people in their own government and within their country, but it had also a secret programming that allowed the United States government to also follow and track the software program in other countries to whom it was given.

Therefore, for example, if Thailand or some other nation had the program and was using it to track the money investments and accounts of wealthy financiers in those countries, the United States could also have access to the information that the various countries had at their disposal. Thus, it was likened unto a Big Brother software for these countries which could also be monitored within this country to allow entities in this country to follow the deposits and withdrawals of foreign investors in countries.

This Awareness indicates that the entity Vincent Foster was involved in helping to pass this software program to other countries, and the entity also was a victim of the software program in its use by certain agents within this country, whereby his secret Swiss bank account was not only uncovered and disclosed to agents within this country, but was also looted.

This Awareness indicates that there is some indication that the MOSSAD was involved in some of this activity, but this is not seen clearly by this Awareness. It is seen as a rumor, or as information being spread which may or may not have substance. This Awareness indicates that what does appear to be clear is that the entity's secret bank account in Switzerland was looted just prior to his body being discovered and ruled as a suicide. This Awareness indicates that this appears to have occurred approximate two weeks before his alleged suicide.

This Awareness indicates that this software program known under the code name of 'Promise' did not simply end there. It appears that there were a group of CIA agents who knew what was occurring who may be considered as 'computer hackers' who represented the country in a way that might be considered patriotic; whereby these entities, upon leaving the CIA, or working outside the agency, were able to crack the bank accounts of many entities in their foreign banks, and discover their secret accounts and how they had hidden away monies from ill-gotten gains.

This Awareness indicates that these entities working as a group were then able to track many of the Congressional and Senatorial entities and discover their deposits in foreign accounts, which allowed them to embezzle or otherwise gain huge amounts of money to be deposited in these accounts through corruption and unethical means.

These entities, in their computer hacking, using the program known as 'Promise' then began to notify those Congressional and Senatorial and government representatives of the discovery of their unethical activities, and many of these entities began to receive brown manila-type envelopes that warned them if they did not resign within 48 hours, they would make public the status of their criminal activities, and one by one these entities would announce their retirement, based on the threat and the recognition that someone knew and someone was out to get them for their criminal behavior.

This Awareness indicates that this continues even to the present, and many of these entities have retired, assuming that they will be able to keep their ill-gotten gains by retiring from public life, although there was no promise or condition made that such would be the case if they did retire within the 48 hours given. This Awareness indicates that there is still the opportunity of possibility of this information coming out in public, disclosing these entities' fraudulent and corrupt behavior at some time in the future.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, entities who have been puzzled by the sudden retirement of Congressional and Senatorial officers or representatives and other government agents may have reason to suspect that the retirement was not all voluntary, but was in part coerced, and that a scandal of unparalleled magnitude may erupt in the next few years relating to these entities.

This Awareness indicates that it appears the agents involved in this program do have much of the money that has been taken from these accounts, transferred into a trust fund account to be given to the CIA at a time when the CIA has proven itself to be free from the rogue behavior of certain agents and corruption within the CIA itself, but until that agency has cleared itself up, the money will not be turned over to it.

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a kind of situation that is creating some of the unusual concerns within government circles at present time. This Awareness indicates that it even affects many of the entities who are considering public office, causing them to drop their plans and retreat back into private life scenarios.

This Awareness indicates It does not wish to imply that everyone in public life in the political sense who decides to retreat to private life is necessarily corrupt or has been notified by such agents as to corruption. This Awareness indicates there has, for example, been some suggestion that Colin Powell suddenly withdrew from the Presidential plans because of such corruption. This Awareness does not see this as being the reason for this withdrawal from public service in the political sense.

James Norman Publishing Facts on This Story

FOLLOW-UP STATEMENT:

According to James Norman, who's got the inside on this story and has been publishing it for a number of months, these people whom they transfer the money out of these secret accounts don't have the option of getting it back. It's going into an escrow account that is now about three billion dollars, and their alternative, when they present the envelope with all the evidence, is that they resign within 24 hours, or if they want to fight it in court, all this evidence will be made public and they'll have to deal with IRS, and if they're found guilty, they will lose their Federal Pensions and all that.

There's so much more to this that on the Internet they're saying this government may be on the threshold of upheaval unprecedented since the Civil War, and this is a cryptic message coming from multiple well-connected sources close to the intelligence community who say big things are quietly afoot that could fundamentally shuffle this country's political deck, and so forth. So according to this information this is totally unprecedented.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative.

QUESTIONER:

And it's going to have repercussions for a long time, and I read that there's five or six real patriots involved, no more than that, and this Cray supercomputer that they bought used from a military sale, they put into a mobile unit, an air-conditioned truck so they can't track it and they go around the country and various places because other people are trying to locate them, and that they expect that by continuing to do this that the people who are for the New World Order, against our Constitution and so forth, are going to be weeded out, and that this is what is going to turn this country around as far as the Patriots are concerned. What's going to save our Constitution isn't these petitions that the Patriots have been mailing in for years, which Congress throws in the waste basket and ignores, like the Petition of Grievances; it's going to be when they're confronted with this evidence that they've been pillaging, basically that they've been crooks and lining their own nests for years and they are now exposed and that they don't have an alternative. It's that hand-delivered brown envelope that finally gets their attention. Does Awareness see these Patriots, who are called the Angel of Death, the Avenging Angel, and the 5th Column; does Awareness see down the road that this is going to alter this consciousness in Washington that's basically One World Government and bringing in the New World Order?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates you must understand there is an enormous amount of energy on both sides of the issue. The Patriotic Movement has much going for it. Many of these entities are supported by military personnel who have high positions, who want to make sure this country remains safe for the future generations whereby the freedoms assured and guaranteed by the Constitution are still available to the grandchildren and future generations.

However, there are likewise, the 13 families of the New World Order who have siphoned off the trillions of dollars from the taxes and interest taken from the people in this country through illegal or unconstitutional means, who have almost within their grasp attained world control, and these entities do not want to lose that final control because of some group of Patriots who are doing what they can to wrestle the control away from them.

Therefore, there is a struggle of unparalleled conflict that is occurring behind the scenes in this nation, which the public in general knows nothing about, and therefore, the political debates that occur seem to be over this issue, or that, or who has the most interesting personality or platform, while in fact, some of these terms that are used have much deeper meaning than the public can imagine.

This Awareness indicates that much of the discussions by Pat Buchanan, for example, have to do with the U.S. Constitution and the right of law based on U.S. Constitution as opposed to the Globalist view of what is desirable, and this entity has the support of many in the Patriotic or Constitutional Movement, while those who work for the New World Order and the Globalists and their desire for World Control, see this entity as an absolute threat to their agenda if he were to be successful; therefore, by labeling him a Nazi, or a racist, or extremist, and so forth, they hope to prevent him from gaining any kind of influence in the governing of this nation.

This Awareness indicates that his intention is to continue to press and to stay the course in hoping to bring back the country toward its Constitutional roots, for the Constitution is that document which guarantees the freedoms of individuals, and without it, this country can become but another Third World country with a totalitarian rule over it.

This Awareness indicates that the likelihood of Buchanan gaining any significant position diminishes considerably because of the techniques of labeling him as an extremist, but his influence has already helped to create some degree of public awareness about the issues that he feels are of great importance to this nation.

This Awareness indicates that many of the extremist groups in this country, those groups that are in fact racist, tend to support the entity Buchanan, and their support may be more damaging than helpful because of the nature of alliances and who is allied with whom, for sometimes entities who are your friends are also an embarrassment or hindrance to your goals and purposes.

This Awareness indicates that the guilt-by-association concept is one that is extremely valid in political areas. This Awareness indicates that nevertheless, his impact has been of some benefit in helping to support those entities who are pro-Constitutionalists and pro-American in their allegiance, and has given many of these entities greater courage to speak out and to make their positions known.

This Awareness indicates that the actions of that group known as the 5th Column are of course having greater effect, even though their activities are hardly known or recognized publicly at this time. This Awareness indicates that of course there are some references in the Internet and such publications as the Media Bypass magazine, but these few references do not reach the public in general, and it is mostly those who are insiders of the Internet and the Patriot Movement who find out about this kind of publication and information.

This Awareness indicates however, the 5th Column may soon also begin to work in exposing certain members of the traditional media, because the media itself is also involved in corruption and the work of helping the Globalists take over the world for world control. When the media itself comes under a similar attack and these entities find themselves resigning to avoid being brought into public court, this may begin having an even greater effect than the effect of the government representatives has had.

The Battle of Armageddon: An Information War

This Awareness indicates that it is true that the efforts to create the different petitions in Congress such as the Petition of Grievances are of less effect in general than that work of the 5th Column. This Awareness indicates that entities need to understand that all of this is likened unto a great secret war. This may be considered the Battle of Armageddon. It is a gigantic war, without the usual weapons of war.

The weapons of this war have to do with information and public disclosure, the awakening and informing of the masses, or keeping the information covered, can become far more important or far more effective than exploding bombs of terrorists in that kind of archaic warfare. This Awareness indicates that the high-tech war of information is in its heyday at present time, and will determine whether your children and grandchild live in a world of democratic and guaranteed freedoms and rights of guaranteed human dignity, or whether they live as slaves in a society that makes them feel that they are free, when indeed the actions are those of a servant/master society.

This Awareness indicates even if the Globalists win and entities become servants who work for these Globalist masters, they will be programmed to believe they are free individuals and that they are blessed to have such a wonderful situation in which to raise their children under the control of society. This Awareness indicates it will be done under the guise of 'safety,' 'security,' and at the expense of the old freedoms that were never beneficial in the old days, so that the entities may still have the freedom to choose who their leaders will be, but they will not be informed that the choice is not theirs. The choice is presented from On High to select between these two persons, whom the Established Control Tyrants have chosen to give the public as a pair between whom the public can choose.

In other words, if you are given a choice of 'Tweedle-Dee' and 'Tweedle-Dum' and the establishment has decided that either 'Tweedle-Dee' or 'Tweedle-Dum' is fine with them, and you choose 'Tweedle-Dum,'-- have you really made a choice at all?, or have you simply fooled yourself into thinking you are really free to choose?

This Awareness indicates that any parent who works with children can give a child the choice: "Do you want to go to bed with red socks on, or with blue socks on?" "Do you want to go to bed with your pink pajamas or your white pajamas?" If the child chooses one or the other, the parent has won and is satisfied, because the parent simply wanted the child to get into bed, but by giving the child the choice of 'pink pajamas' or 'white pajamas' the parent has fooled the child into thinking that he or she has made a choice as to his or her life and his or her personal expression and rights.

This Awareness indicates that when this is done to individuals by their government, are they free? Or have they simply been deluded into thinking they have some kind of freedom? This Awareness indicates that the Globalists will give this kind of freedom to future generations, even to the point where if they decide that 50 years is long enough for any individual to live, they give them the choice: "Do you want to end your life by firing squad or by gas ingestion, or by toxic drug injection?"

This Awareness indicates the entities who choose toxic drug injection can proudly say, "I made my choice! I know what I want to do! I am a free person to the end!" This Awareness indicates that do not think this is beyond the scope of the Global Planners, for in the future, if these entities have their way, you will have all kinds of choices of this nature to make during your lifetime, whereby you think you are free in making choices. It is just that the choices you make will be chosen for you and presented to you for your choice.

In other words, if someone decides which choices you have, are you really choosing anything? And anyone can control the masses by creating choices for them if the masses are satisfied with this kind of control over themselves.

A Potential for Great Change During Next Four Years

This Awareness indicates that entities do need to be aware of the potential for great changes in the coming four years. It is going to be a time of secret wars that occasionally erupt, likened unto an entity who is being fed with toxins from the one doctor, and healing energies from the other, whereby the patient may erupt in boils and have been healed, only to erupt again in further boils or agonies, and this society will experience the agonies of one detriment followed by the benefits from the other side, throughout the coming several years.

Entities who can sustain their lives during this time to be of benefit to others who know not what is occurring; to help your children, to help your loved ones, to help the general society; for entities are dearly needed during this coming several years to guide through this transition into the new era of potential freedom for all, or slavery for all, whichever the case may be.

This Awareness indicates that those who can appreciate freedom owe it to themselves and others to stay alive and to do what they can to help spread and assure freedom in the coming generations. Survival of freedom is the key concern for the coming decade.

This Awareness indicates It does not wish for entities to become radical freedom fighters in the sense of taking up arms to fight and thereby jeopardizing their own or their loved one's lives, or the lives of others, but this Awareness suggests there are ways to fight for freedom through the information war that is occurring, and that the pen is mightier than the sword, or in today's jargon, the 'typed word' or 'copy machines' are the tools by which the war can be won or lost, depending on whether it is used or left vacant.

Communication is the way by which this war will be won. This Awareness indicates the Globalists will use deception, misinformation, and in emergency will rely on coercion and violence if it deems this is necessary and beneficial to its purposes, but the Globalists have also seen that such force as used in Waco can have negative repercussions to its goals and purposes, and therefore, there is some reluctance to use this kind of force on the masses, until they are well-assured that the amount of force they have will be sufficient to totally overpower the masses.

This Awareness indicates the masses being well-armed, cause them some hesitation about using force against the masses, and therefore, they will work on the information level, trying to persuade the masses to disarm themselves for 'security' reasons; that the government will 'take care' of their security, if only they will give up their arms.

This Awareness indicates that of course, this would be great if entities could totally trust their government to be the 'protector' of freedoms that it would like them to accept as part of the new paradigm. This Awareness indicates that as long as the government seeks to override the Constitution, which has written in certain protection against corrupt governments, how can entities trust the government to assure their freedoms, when the Constitution is probably the best assurance entities have or could hope for?

This Awareness indicates that therefore, the majority of Patriots do not trust the government when it suggests they disarm and suggest Constitutional Changes to allow for disarmament and other ways of weakening the freedoms of individuals as protected by the Constitution. This Awareness indicates there is also a Bill introduced into legislation at this time to prevent Patriots and publications from expressing conspiracy ideas or concepts, saying that these expressions are dangerous and need to be considered as crimes.

This Awareness indicates that this Bill does need to be stopped before all communication of citizens on the Internet, or in magazines and publications are stifled, so that you cannot criticize your government or any groups that would take away your freedoms. This Awareness indicates that it is important for entities to write their Congressional Representatives warning them against this Bill so that it does not inadvertently sneak through and become law, otherwise, Freedom of Speech will be gone and entities can be arrested, even executed for criticizing their government or those agencies that would deny rights and freedoms of individuals.

How Did The Delta Force Get all That Gold?

QUESTION:

A question from Ted H. in Wisconsin. He writes: "In past readings, Awareness spoke of the story going around that the US Army's Delta Force took position of the gold reserves of this country that had previously been stolen by the International Bankers and taken to some site out of this country. I find this difficult to believe for several reasons.

"First of all, how was the Delta Force able to even plan such an operation without the International Bankers learning about it? We have been told that over the years, these bankers and their cohorts have infiltrated every area of government, business and the military. Even if the plans could be kept secret, how were they able to get the gold out of the European banks or wherever it was held? Surely there must have been some heavy-duty security guarding it!

"There would have been a big battle, but I don't remember hearing anything like that in any of the media, not even the alternative media. Even if they won the battle, they would then be faced with the rather large problem of having to transport thousands of tons of gold from a foreign country to the U.S. If they somehow successfully got the gold to this country, how do they maintain control of it, with the bankers having control of presidents, Congress, and high-ranking members of the military?"

"All they would have to do is contrive some reason to send the Delta Force out of the country. They could also come up with another 'Tail Hook' scandal and force high-ranking Patriot Commanders into retirement and replace them with their own cronies, which would then give them control of the gold again. Would Awareness please comment on this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this Awareness finds the information as that which has been presented with no substantiation and this Awareness does not wish to substantiate the information in a manner that could jeopardize the work of individuals, and this Awareness suggests that entities have every reason to question the credibility of this information and this Awareness wishes to leave it at that.

If and when the information is further substantiated or is made clear, then entities can have greater reliance on its credibility. This is not seen as being available at this time. This Awareness suggests you are quite right in having doubts and disbelief.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So is Awareness saying that this story does have some basis in fact, and it's not just a rumor?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not wish to comment further on this story. It is that which appears to have some credibility, but this Awareness does not wish to give any credibility to substantiate the information, nor does It wish to suggest that the Delta Force has secured this gold in a permanent and safe place.

This Awareness indicates that It simply reported that at a time, the Delta Force had control of this gold, and that the control of the gold allowed them to redeem the wealth of this country from the international bankers which was launched in the year 1933, after the bankruptcy of the United States, because there was a clause in the commercial code at that time that allowed the redemption of the nation's economy, if and when a particular amount was repaid.

This Awareness indicates that there may be other sources which entities can find to further explore this. This Awareness has mentioned some of these previously, but this Awareness does not wish to suggest anything further at this time. Essentially, there is a war going on, an information war, and certain information is not released because it is of great importance in that information war that some things be withheld from the public and the enemies of the public.

Are the New World Order Planners Setting Us Up for the Alien Invaders?

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. "The many executive orders, such as the one providing for the seizure of all food resources and farms; do these 'emergency measures' have to do with the alien invasion, or with the New World order? For that matter, are the New World Order planners engaged primarily in setting us up for the alien invaders?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the so-called 'alien invaders' is part of the scenario for the New World Order; that this would be called into play if it becomes viewed as a way of manipulating the masses to enter into a New World order for survival purposes. This Awareness indicates that of course there is also that force in the alien concept whereby the aliens interested in control of this earth are tracking the entities who see domination over the masses and the New World Order to help bring the earth into alien control, and this Awareness has discussed this previously.

This Awareness suggests that they are tied together as ways of manipulating the masses for the purpose of bringing the earth into a galactic order for the control of the people of earth. This Awareness indicates there are also both positive and negative alien influences, and there are those who would seek to keep the earth free from those negative controls.

This Awareness suggests that it begins where you are, but extends into the Galactic Confederation and into the various alliances between certain elements on earth and those from extraterrestrial civilizations. Much of this has already been given.

WHAT IS THE MOST LIKELY SCENARIO ON THIS PLANET FOR THE NEXT 25 YEARS?

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. "What does Cosmic Awareness consider the most likely scenario for the next 25 years on this planet?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests there is likely to be great social and political upheaval between now and the year 2000. There is likely to be considerably difficulty for the Globalists during this time to the point where these entities feel they are being backed into a corner, and there is likely to be a reaction that leads to an outbreak of violent warfare in some manner as a last-ditch effort to gain global control, and that much of this will start in the United States, having to do with foreign troops within the United States taking control of the people.

This Awareness indicates that it is possible this will not happen if sufficient preparation and actions can alert the public beforehand and if enough of the Globalists are weeded out of their positions of control in this country. This Awareness indicates that if the efforts to control the United States are successful, the next will be Canada and other countries in this hemisphere and in Europe.

The last of the countries to fall to the Globalists would be those in Africa and Asia. This Awareness indicates that if this were to occur, once this happens, then there will be many executions that follow each of these takeovers and the promises and pandering to the remaining masses by the New World Order government and the relocation of entities into various work camps, work groups, and the propaganda and reprogramming of the masses to give the appearance that they are now free from the terrorists of the old order.

The Heads of the Globalist Families May Fall

This Awareness indicates that this, however, is not seen as a probable outcome. The more likely outcome is that when the Globalists attempt to control the masses, a civil war, or a war between the masses and the Globalist armies may lead to great destruction in this country, and gradual changes that begin to focus on the families who are behind the Globalist activities so that these families become the target of the masses, much as that which occurred in the French Revolution, wherein the royalty became the victims of the revolution.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that this is a more likely outcome, and at a certain time, the majority of individuals seeking freedom will have gained control and will be able to set up a new form of government that guarantees the freedoms as given in the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, for all the entities in all countries of the world. This is seen to be the more likely outcome, but there is seen considerable struggle between these times of new freedoms and the current agenda of the Globalists.

This Awareness indicates it is seen that by the year 2012 and 2014 a new view of the world will emerge and entities will have greater awareness and greater understanding of what has occurred in the past, and new histories will be written explaining the role of the Dark Force down through the past several hundred years as the Dark Forces attempted to set up their One World Empire.

The Photon Belt Energies are Like Batteries

Meanwhile, entities will have begun to recognize the Light Energies that will be flooding consciousness with the new levels of Awareness as brought about by the Photon Belt, which entities will have recognized as a new reality. This Awareness indicates that the new vibrations associated with the approach of the Photon Belt are already being felt. In some instances there are difficulties for entities in physical adjustments to these higher frequencies and vibrations. It is causing some entities to experience certain physical infirmities as these energies affect their physical bodies.

You must recognize it is likened unto an entity who has a body that is used to certain vibrations as a battery charger. If you compare the physical body to a battery that is being charged by certain vibratory frequencies, and the entity's body is used to a certain vibratory frequency, and suddenly being zapped with higher frequencies, it is very much likened unto giving a 12 volt battery a charge from a 24 volt charger, and the battery, not having proper time to adjust to the high voltages can have experience certain effects that are not fully at ease with its structure.

This Awareness indicates that 12 volt batteries charging a 6 volt battery is possible, but if the battery charging the 6 volt battery is much higher than 12 or 24 volts, it can be very disturbing to the 6 volt battery, while it receives its charge, and likewise, if entities are being given a charge from the Photon Belt of ten times greater charge than they are used to, it can create certain disturbances that force the body to adjust more quickly than it is used to in receiving those higher vibrations and frequencies.

Most Could Not Handle More Photon Energies at This Time

This Awareness indicates therefore, entities should be pleased that the Photon Belt is not having its effect any faster than is occurring, or they would be experiencing even greater discomfort at present. This Awareness indicates that as entities begin to adjust and become more comfortable with these energies of the Photon Belt, they can then receive more voltage or juice from the Light Force energies with greater ease than would otherwise occur.

This Awareness indicates that these energies will continue to intensify over the coming years, reaching a kind of culmination in or around the year 2012 or 2014, when the Light energies will be at their full strength.

Will Unsolved Crimes be Solved in Photon Belt?

QUESTION:

A question from Robert S., of Vancouver, British Columbia, about the Photon Belt. He asks: "I would like to know if our planet nearing or entering the Photon Belt will aid the cause of justice in any way? Will all unsolved cases of murder, rape and abduction, for example, finally be solved? Will the police stop pretending to have solved cases they haven't really solved?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this will be a very gradual movement wherein the truth shall eventually reveal as entities become more and more aware. It is the increasing awareness that will eventually lead to the full disclosure of truth on this plane. It is not so much the approach to the Photon belt, but the effect of the Photon belt helping entities to become more aware. That increased awareness from the frequencies and vibrations of higher levels will allow entities to grasp greater awareness of What Is.

What Effect Will Photon Belt Have on Underground Aliens?

QUESTION:

A question from John S., in Pacifica, California. He writes: "I presume the aliens: Reptoids and Greys, that live in underground bases with interconnecting tunnels for rapid transportation would know about earth's imminent entry into the Null Zone of the Photon Belt. What effect will the Photon Belt have on these aliens?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it will have its effect in causing certain of the more dark, more dull vibration creatures to suffer some difficulties. It will have an effect on the more highly evolved creatures to evolve even further if they can adjust to the higher frequencies. This would be especially in regard to the mutants: the half-human/half-alien mutants. These entities can benefit somewhat from the Photon Belt energies.

The more gross types of entities, those whose vibrations are less evolved, may have considerable difficulty in dealing with the higher frequencies of the Photon Belt. For some it may be fatal because of an inability to adjust.

Did the Aliens Plan their Agenda to Coincide with Photon Belt?

QUESTION:

Another question from John. "If the aliens in their long-range planning for a covert takeover of earth, had known about the Photon Belt and calculated the time of earth's entry into the Photon belt, how in their planning did they intend to deal with the Photon energies, and did they have the intention of somehow using this energy to further their agenda?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these entities recognize that there are certain forces within the universe that can be hazardous, but these entities have for so long lived in a situation that has given them a sense or feeling of their own invulnerability that they did not consider fully the potential for a world or circumstances that would be inhospitable to their livelihood. They did not, and do not yet recognize the potential of the Photon belt in its effect on them.

It is not as though they came from a civilization so highly evolved as to be all-knowing, and they have not yet heretofore experienced the nature of the Photon belt to such a degree as to have researched it or to have records relating to its effect on their personal bodies.

What Major Events are Likely This Year?

(Big Events Could Occur After the Fall Elections)

QUESTION:

A question from Michael C., in Seattle, WA. He writes: "What major trigger events in the next year are likely to happen? By 'trigger event,' I mean major public events that have obvious public, social, economic, and/or spiritual significance in the transition period we are in."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is a potential for earthquakes to occur in the United States, particularly in California during the Springtime. There is a potential for some social disturbances relating to politics; that this is not seen as clearly defined, but that entities need to watch the political situations for possible disturbances that may erupt from unforeseen reactions of individuals or masses.

This Awareness indicates that this is not clear. It is just an energy that lies there in the political arena which may gel at some time between the present and the election in the Fall. This Awareness indicates that depending on the political tendencies; there can be some social or political disclosures that can have considerable effect on the election.

This Awareness indicates that in terms of economics, there is a strong energy pressing for a collapse of the stock market, but there is also strong forces trying to keep the stock market together, at least until after the election. It appears that everything is far beyond where it should be in terms of the value of stocks and that a collapse is long overdue, but that there are entities still trying to keep it from happening until after the election. This Awareness indicates that the probability of an economic downturn or collapse is seen as most-likely to occur after the election, possibly after the year's end in the early months of '97.

This Awareness indicates that when or if this occurs, the Globalists will be highly visible at the time, attempting to gain control of all of the affairs of people in this country so that their new controls during the reign of confusion will come out with new structures to fit the New World Order and its agenda. This Awareness indicates that Patriots will also be active in their attempt to hold on to the structure of the Constitution and in their attempts to prevent the Globalists from having free reign.

Information War Could Erupt Into Violence in 1997

This Awareness indicates that it appears that '97 can be a year of active disturbance, wherein the Information War may erupt into physical conflicts, at least in certain areas. This Awareness indicates there are other things happening behind the scenes that can have a potential for decreasing or increasing this possible conflict, for turning it into a physical conflict or reducing it into an informational conflict in which information is revealed that disturbs power points rather than destruction to masses of individuals, but this Awareness suggests it does appear that it will be a conflict of considerable magnitude following the election and in the early parts of 1997.

The conflict could even remain hidden from the public, but is more likely to erupt in either some information expression or physical violence. This Awareness indicates it is seen that '98 will result in either an intensification of whatever violence has started or as an intensification of what has been released in '96 and '97 and that this intensification will make the determination as to what follows in the several years thereafter, so that by the year 2005, the clarification of what has occurred will be settled for the main part, and entities will have a greater stability and understanding of what has transpired.

It appears the more likely outcome will be the recognition of the Globalists in their attempt to grab total domination over the masses and their plans, will have been thwarted and a kind of five year clean-up thereafter, whereby greater stability will follow the year 2005.

Biological Warfare Another Possible Scenario

This Awareness indicates there is another possible and probable scenario having to do with biological warfare in which diseases become rampant and many entities in various countries begin to suffer from known and unknown diseases that spread like wildfire through populated areas. This Awareness indicates the Ebola disease for example, is quite likely to be one of those used to help wipe out a great portion of the population of many countries. It is seen that this is part of the New World Order and its agenda of bringing down world population to approximately one third of its present level.

Entities need to be alert to this potential, and when it begins to occur, they may wish to avoid crowded areas, avoiding travel to cities and crowded areas, even taking their children out of school, and home-schooling their children in order to avoid those areas where the Ebola disease could spread. This Awareness indicates it is seen that there are also other diseases, some of which are still unknown that may be introduced during the next 10 years.

Continuing Assault on the Internet Will End in Failure

This Awareness indicates there is seen also further attempts to disrupt or to control the Internet, but it appears that this will not be effective, even though it may hinder the Internet somewhat. The Internet, being without a head to control it, is simply a conglomeration of computers that network together with no leadership, and therefore, it is likened unto a body without a head, and without a head, it cannot be stopped or controlled or decapitated, and therefore, will continue, so that even if the major computers involved are somehow shut off, there will still be the possibility of computers communicating with each other that do not need or rely on the major computers from various universities or large networking facilities.

This Awareness indicates in this manner, the Internet becomes a new way of communicating among individuals, which makes it almost impossible for the Globalists to control, and information that is spread through the Internet causes a release in information that surpasses or bypasses the controlled media, and therefore, it is information that the Globalists cannot censor or control. It is part of the situation that will help to thwart the plans of the Globalists.

Be Prepared: Anything Could Happen

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that this will be a very important decade between this year and the year 2005 or 2006. It will be of such importance that entities will become aware of the role of the last four centuries and will help to set the agenda for the next four centuries in the future. Whatever occurs during this ten years is likely to have its effect up to the year of 2400 or even beyond.

Very Important to Stay Alive--And Have Gardening Tools on Hand

This Awareness indicates that it is an extremely important time to be alive, and this Awareness does urge entities who are alive now to do whatever they can to enhance their life force and their circumstances so as to be able to survive during these coming years. It is important for entities to have gardening tools and a plot of land somewhere to make a garden in the event that becomes critical for raising food.

Squirrel Away a Stock of Rice and Beans

This Awareness suggests that entities should also have at least 50 pounds of rice in their home so as to be able to have food in the event the food chain is disrupted. Rice and beans can allow an entity to survive in the event of an emergency.

Acquire Blankets, Sleeping Bags & Flashlights etc.

This Awareness indicates that if entities live in an area that is potentially hazardous to earthquake activities or other forms of disaster, they should have flashlights, batteries and a means for storing water as may be necessary. This Awareness suggests also entities should have on hand good blankets or a sleeping bag in the event of cold weather or being somehow ousted from their homes by one disaster or another.

This Awareness indicates that these are simply precautions. It is not suggesting that you will necessarily need these things, but that if you can afford them it would be beneficial to have them on hand in case of an emergency.

ED's Note: In regard to the lead story in this issue: How the Fifth Column is "coaxing" the bigwig crooked politicians to "resign"--according to James Norman, who has been releasing this story in Media Bypass magazine, the total member of Congress "retirees" as of March, 1996 is 60 plus, with more being forecast to make announcements in the next few weeks. An equal amount have "retired" from various state governments. He feels the Fifth Column has expanded into other countries, that there is a reason, for example, that Japan's prime minister Murayama suddenly resigned, and why half the Italian government is in prison. A record number of "retirements" is also occurring in the English Parliament.

Included in the unprecedented number of politicians who have "retired" in the past few months, are Rep. Charles Wilson (D-Texas) who had already begun booking air time and newspaper ads for his re-election campaign when he suddenly announced his retirement. Rep. Jack Fields (R-Texas), chairman of the House Telecommunications and Finance Committee, held a press conference to say he wants to spend more time with his kids.

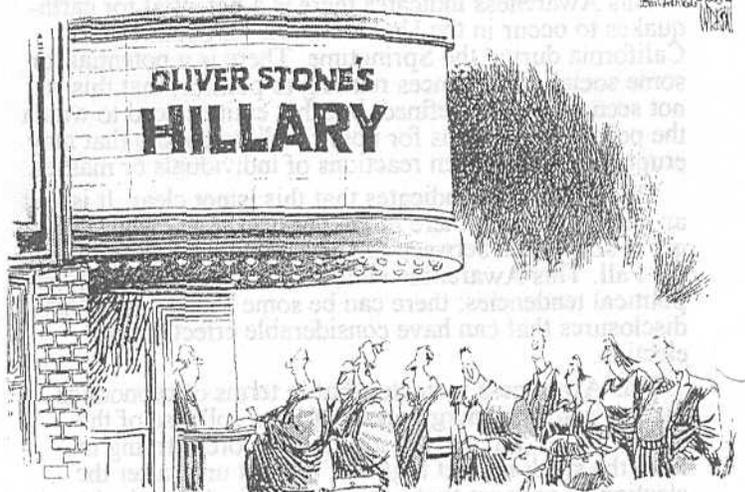

Numerous Senators have also announced early "retirement". These include Sen. Bill Bradley, New York; Patricia Schroeder, Colorado; Paul Simon, Illinois; Mark Hatfield, Oregon; Nancy Kassebaum, Kansas; David Pryor, Arkansas; Sam Nunn, Georgia; Claiborne Pell, Rhode Island; James Exon, Nebraska; etc.

According to the reports, secret offshore bank accounts have been emptied by the Fifth Column and ownership traced to bigwigs such as Hilary Clinton, Caspar Weinberger, former Sec. of Defense, who was relieved of 2.3 million dollars (he is chairman of Forbes magazine and co-chairman of Steve Forbes' presidential campaign); Vince Foster over 3 million dollars at the time of his execution. He and Hillary Clinton are being investigated for treason for allegedly selling government secrets to the Israeli Mossad. Contrary to Awareness, Norman says there is "no way" Colin Powell will be running for office.

Senator Bob Dole's wife allegedly has a secret Swiss bank account, and the list goes on and on.

Essentially, what is occurring is a bloodless coup d'etat behind the scenes, unknown to the general public and totally ignored by the controlled media, and it appears it is reshaping our government in a positive manner.

We urge you all to subscribe to this daring new magazine, Media Bypass, for it contains the real news the controlled press is afraid to print. To subscribe: Send $20 to Media Bypass, P.O. How Will Photon Belt Affect Animals?

QUESTION:

A question from Cathy W. In Ohio. She writes: "I was wondering how the Photon Belt will change our pets? Since everything will be changed, how does that affect all the animals?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in all probability, in most situations, the animals will become more sensitive and more spiritually evolved. This does not necessarily mean they will be able to talk or show great signs of high intelligence, but it may suggest that they are not only more sensitive, but more psychic, and able to sense what others are thinking or suggesting to them.

This Awareness indicates that It does not see this as anything that would be harmful to the animals, unless they have some detrimental problems, such as being psychologically deranged to begin with. The higher vibrations could have an adverse effect on animals that are psychologically deranged.

QUESTIONER:

What kind of animals are psychologically deranged?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates a vicious killer dog, or tiger, or other creature that is not attuned to the more domesticated qualities that entities want in their pets.

Why are People Putting their Dogs on Prozac?

QUESTION:

Cathy W. had one other question. "Why are people putting their dogs on Prozac? And is it causing some dogs to attack people?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is becoming a Prozac epidemic in this country. In fact, it is a world-wide Prozac epidemic, wherein approximately 25% of the people in the United States have been given Prozac. It is of great value to the pharmaceutical company producing this substance, but there have been enormous numbers of entities who have been harmed by the use of Prozac, or who have done things to others while under the influence of Prozac.

Prozac is supposed to be a drug that is harmless, and helps entities to become more tranquil and less depressed, but its effect on different entities varies from that which is supposedly intended. It is perhaps that entities want their dog to feel better, or perhaps veterinarians want to get in on the revenue from the Prozac epidemic, so that they are now prescribing Prozac to animals.

This Awareness indicates it is seen as a very dangerous thing to let such a drug loose on society and there are already many entities who have suffered from this, and many who will suffer from the use of this drug. It may be years before entities fully understand the problems caused by Prozac.

Prozac a Possible Method to Control the Masses

This Awareness indicates it may also be the beginning of an effort to control the masses through the use of prescription drugs. The next drug following Prozac may be more hazardous, possibly even more addictive than Prozac. It may be that within 15 or 20 years, all of society will be expected to take their Prozac, or whatever drug is then in vogue, to keep society under control, and obedient.

Prozac Causing Impotency in Some Entities!

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

We know a man who's had a lot of emotional ups and downs that is on Prozac, and he says he really loves being on Prozac, except its made him impotent. Does Awareness see that as being an exception, or is this a common side-effect?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is not unusual; that Prozac affects entities in different ways. Some entities may not experience impotence, others may. Some entities experience unusual, even violent behavior from the Prozac. Other entities experience great relaxation and feeling of good will.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Did Awareness answer that part of Cathy W.'s question where she asked if Prozac was making some dogs attack entities?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is quite possible. It is quite likely, because Prozac does have unusual effects on some different entities, and it is likely to have similar effects on some animals, if given Prozac.

THE MEDITATION OF NEGATION

(An Exercise in Expanding the Consciousness)

OPENING MESSAGE: CAC General Reading, 8/1 /89

This Awareness suggests the following meditation as that which can be of considerable benefit in expanding the mind or expanding the consciousness of entities. This Awareness indicates this being a kind of exercise for the consciousness that can have a profound effect on the expansion of consciousness, while also being somewhat enjoyable to the mind. This Awareness indicates it is not an action of logic so much as an exercise of consciousness itself. It is an exercise in which the focus is put through a shift, so that there is an inverse or reverse shift in consciousness.

This Awareness suggests that this may be referred to as a meditation of negation. This Awareness suggests that the mind tends to focus on things, and when one focuses on a thing, if it is within the realm of one's vision, the eyes tend to look at the thing and focus on the thing that the mind is thinking of and focusing on. This Awareness indicates that the same could be said for the other senses; that the mind may focus on something having a certain flavor and the mouth may also focus on the flavor when tasting that thing. This Awareness indicates likewise with things that are heard.

The tendency for entities is to focus only on one thing at a time. The mind tends to focus on one thing at a time, or if focusing on several things, to focus on them as a group, thus, creating one thing for the group to focus on. It is utterly impossible for the mind to focus on several things at once, without equating those things to some kind of group. This Awareness indicates that this exercise is not designed to alter that aspect of the mind, which is natural, but to create such a sudden and quick shift that the mind becomes active in the opposite or reverse or negated focus, so that, for example, you are staring at something on the counter. Supposing you are staring at a cup.

Stare at a Cup and Focus on Everything but the Cup

This Awareness suggests that when you catch yourself staring at this cup, focused on this cup, in order to effect this meditation, you are to immediately, while continuing to look at the cup, focus the mind on everything in the universe at once that is not the cup you are staring at. In other words, perceive everything mentally except the cup. Think about or perceive in your mind: the counter, the environment around you, the city around you, the countryside around you, the state, the nation, the planet. Expand outward, seeing the earth, the solar system, the galaxies, all while staring at the cup.

Let this occur in a flash, in a moment. It is nothing but an exercise of the mind. This Awareness indicates that your attention may then turn to something else, and you may then find yourself focusing on something totally different. When this occurs, as an exercise, simply flip again and expand your consciousness to everything else that is not the thing you are focusing on.

Do This Exercise Three Times Daily for Three Weeks

This Awareness suggests that this be done a few times daily, for a period of approximately two to three weeks; that it is not intended to be done at times when you are driving or in any situation around machinery or where you might create a hazard in your job, occupation or for yourself in any physical situation that might cause distraction or danger to yourself or another.

In a national emergency ALL Constitutional Rights, and all law that previously existed, are to be suspended.

It is simply a game, but the action will allow you to very gradually, very slowly, become more aware of the power of the mind to change focus, the ability of the mind to be aware of more than what one becomes obsessed with, so that while something may be of interest to you in terms of a kind of fixation, you can suddenly gain a new perspective from a higher point of view, from a Cosmic level, even while staring at that one thing which you felt a fixation for.

This Exercise Enables You to Detach at Will

This Awareness indicates that it is not something to lead you to expect miracles, but it is something that will teach you many things about the mind, about attachments, about fixations, about obsessions, and these things can often create problems that require the miracle of being able to shift your consciousness in order to escape from such fixations and obsessions, so in this sense, it is training you to learn how to detach when you wish to detach, when it is appropriate to detach.

This Awareness indicates it is but an exercise which entities can enjoy and which can open up new realizations for an entity. This Awareness suggests you may wish to compare this to looking at a picture and recalling the negative of that picture; that it has the effect of reversing or inverting the focus; that the action is that which allows one to attach by focusing and then at will, to detach. This Awareness indicates it is not that this should be done in any circumstance, but one does need to be aware that one can have this mental faculty of being able to detach at will.

MUST WE GIVE 51% IN SERVICE TO MANKIND OR WE STOP EVOLVING?

QUESTION:

A question from Jimmy K, San Francisco. He writes: "According to the Book of RA, we must give at least 51 percent of our energies to the service of mankind, or we will evolve in a different direction and lose our identities. Could you please ask Awareness if this is true and perhaps expand upon this subjects

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a generality which bears some significance in terms of value and meaning. The figure 51% as that which is more of a quantitative statement than is actually intended by the principle involved. This Awareness indicates that essentially, It is attempting to express that one should give more of self for the service of others than take from others for self. This Awareness indicates that considering that there are different times in one's life when this 51% or this more-or-less percentage will vary, and it is difficult to know when and how one's life will progress to allow this giving or taking, the rule is not one which can be applied as a rule of law, but is rather a principle and suggestion.

How a Child Might Give Its 51%

This Awareness indicates for example, a small child cannot give in terms of certain physical energies 51% to the welfare of others, for in the physical sense it takes and requires the energies of others in order to survive. If one wishes to look at this in a different way, the child, just by being a child, may be giving on another level, a psychic level, a level of promise, hope or joy for the future, more than 51% but it is not giving in the physical sense. It is giving an emotional joy to another. It may be giving the other a sense of purpose; the purpose being to serve the child, and perhaps the other needs that sense of purpose in order to survive what would otherwise be a very boring or meaningless life.

Many mothers are such that their lives would be drab, even boring, maybe depressive without the child or someone to care for, without their ability to give themselves to someone or something; thus, the child presents to the mother the opportunity to serve it. The question is: Is the child fulfilling 51% or is the mother fulfilling 51%, or are both giving to each other something the other needs? This Awareness indicates that generally speaking however, the rule has merit in that as a principle, one who believes oneself to be giving service to others greater than what one takes, will be on a path that is higher and more fulfilling to the entity and to the entity's soul development than the one who believes himself or herself to be taking more than giving.

Something Very Special About Giving More than you Take

This Awareness indicates that this is what is meant by this statement in its more essential level of meaning. Are you giving more or taking more from life?, for the one takes or thinks he or she is taking more from others, will not have the same healthy attitude toward self as the one who feels he or she is giving more to others. This Awareness indicates there is something very special about the feeling of giving more than you are taking, which allows an entity to feel that he or she has a value and is giving of self in such a way as to be valuable to others, whereas the entity who looks out only for self or offers very little for others will have a feeling of not being worth as much, and the self-image declines and suffers much moreso than the one who believes oneself to be of value to others.

All of Life Is Expressed by Giving and Taking

This Awareness indicates it is this that causes one entity to experience a more healthy soul growth than the other who is more inclined toward taking rather than giving in life. This Awareness suggests however, that you must understand: All of life is expressed by giving and taking. The one who gives more of self to others takes a certain credit which makes the one feel better. The one who takes from others gives self the feeling of being less valuable to others and therefore, feels inferior, which in some regard might make others feel superior in comparison, so even there, there is a certain degree of benefit to society, although the benefit is not necessarily healthy, for it is not healthy that entities should look down on someone for being inferior, for being cruel, for being selfish, and therefore feel themselves to be better.

This Awareness indicates however, if that is all entities can get from the one who selects the path of selfishness, then entities will take that in return for the losses which they give to the selfish one and they will feel better themselves for not being as selfish as the other. This Awareness indicates that even in this kind of relationship there is the giving and receiving, even though the giving and receiving may not be harmonious and healthy for the entities involved. It is better that each entity feel satisfied in giving something of value to another, and when one is too weak to give of a physical nature, one can give in an emotional level or in some other way to brighten or lift the burdens of others around.

This Awareness indicates therefore, the small child, taking from those who care for it, gives in return a psychological worthiness to its guardians. The older person who is ill, unable to care for self, can give certain love, affection, holdings of a material nature, gifts or expressions of gratitude to those who take their time to assist. There are always ways entities can give something for the energies they receive from others.

Giving More Than You Receive in a Relationship

(The Law of Love: Putting Concern for Others Above Self)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

Awareness, a long time ago I adopted the rule of thumb that in each relationship I felt most comfortable if I gave more than I received in it, but it felt more like a wish to keep your records up, not leaving loose ends, and being more in balance with the ledger sheet or something.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative; this as being a healthy attitude in regard to relationships. This Awareness indicates this is why the Law of Love speaks of putting the welfare, concern and feeling for others above self. This Awareness indicates that it is not that others are any better than self, but that if you put the welfare and concern for others above self and if others also did so, there would be more of an effort to treat each other with greater respect. As it generally turns out with most entities who do not put the welfare, concern and feelings for others above self, or who are not willing to go the extra mile, or put forth something more than they intend to receive back, they generally end up taking back more than they put out, or being so picky about how much they give, whether or not they are getting back what they gave or whether the other got something slightly more than they intended, or whether the other got something they didn't deserve; but if you have the general rule that you are willing to give more than you get back, you don't have to worry so much about what is fair and what isn't fair, and you don't have to bicker with another who is also debating on whether you got the bigger piece or they got the bigger piece.

This Awareness indicates that it is better to offer the larger piece to the other and have the other say: "Oh no! You take it!", and bicker over who's going to get the benefit rather than bicker over someone getting the short end. This Awareness indicates that in this way it makes each entity feel special in the eyes of the other, but if you bicker about who's getting more than you, whether they deserve it, whether you deserve it: all of this only makes each of the parties feel diminished in the eyes of the other, and each party then, is lesser for the situation and relationship.

This Awareness indicates therefore, indeed, the approach, the general rule of thumb of giving more than you receive, of going the extra mile, of putting the welfare and concern and feeling for others above self, in the long run pays off with greater dividends for all parties involved, and especially for the one who is willing to go the extra mile.

Others will have more respect, others will be more friendlier, others will tend to trust you, others will be more willing to take a loss here or there if they know that your general nature is to be fair or overly generous in your dealing with them.

WHY IS GREED AND CORRUPTION SO PREVALENT WHEN LOVE IS SO STRONG IN THE SOUL-STUFF OF ENTITIES?

QUESTION:

Awareness has explained how the Rhyee energies and the programming down through eons of time has affected those people primarily in the banking industries of the world and so on, who seek a One World Government and total power and control over entities. My question is: Why is greed, corruption and power-seeking so prevalent today among the masses, particularly in business and in government. Almost every day there is a new exposure of graft and corruption, et cetera, I'd like to know why this is so prevalent among the common people when love is supposed to be so strong in the soulstuff of entities?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

How Vanity Is Being Promoted

This Awareness indicates that there is a kind of attitude prevalent on this plane at this time that promotes vanity; vanity being the misconception that one is superior to others, and therefore, if one is superior, the entity deserves more. This Awareness indicates that this vanity as that which is promoted by various types of experiences, from vanity based on one's heritage, one's particular race, one's status in life, one's education, one's profession, or one's acceptance by peers, parents, authority figures, and so forth, and the vanity that entities feel, wherein they perceive themselves to be elite and special is often the result of childhood raising and environmental effects, or status and position.

Many of those who are most vain had vain parents for their examples and role models. This Awareness indicates that others see this kind of vanity on television with those who are seen as having a kind of superior attitude over others, willing to shaft others, willing to short-change others, willing to manipulate others, willing to destroy others in order to gain some higher position; this has been repeatedly shown in theme after theme on your television and in your movies, particularly in many of those soaps or soap operas which entities have watched for several generations, and especially the last two generations, and because of this, entities see these as models to follow in order to gain the benefits of wealth through the manipulation, trickery, conniving, scheming and abuses of power.

It becomes like a game to them. They do not have the principles and ethics of seeing the value of justice and fairness in their relationships with others, and many of these entities do not have a sense of deep respect for others, because they have not developed deep meaningful relationships. Instead, they see others as someone or something to be used for personal promotion. Much of this comes from the environment that promotes these movies.

Many of those involved in movie-making, many of those who are caught up in the rat-race, in the competition, in the cut-throat business of making movies, are of this nature, whereby they would stomp on the toes of others in order to get their script on the air, and because of this personal involvement and view of life, these scripts are the ones that others see and many entities then begin to think this is a representation of life when it may only be a representation of entities in a particular field or stressful environment of competitive career conflicts.

Two Generations of Entities Have Become TV Types

This Awareness indicates that when entities are fed on a day to day basis, stories of this nature, a diet of manipulation, coercion, scheming, treachery, competition, under the name of drama, implying that this is the way the world is: these are the examples which entities then practice and learn from. This Awareness indicates that it is for this reason that the last two generations have become more likened unto those entities on television and less likened unto those parents who raised them.

There Was Once a Time When a Handshake Would Close a Deal

This Awareness indicates that there was a time when entities could sell properties, make loans, establish credit, arrange deals with a few words and a handshake. Partnerships could be formed without contracts, just with the handshake and agreement. The contracts could be a few words scribbled on a napkin without an attorney being involved.

There was a time when agreements were formed based on the words of the partners. Now agreements of the simplest kind must be put into writing, must be taken to attorneys, and the attorneys compete with each other to outsmart each other with clever hidden dialogue or wording or convoluted references that make it difficult for each other to understand all of the ramifications of the contract, so that the attorneys can even fool each other and totally fool those who are to sign the contract so that eventually perhaps a judge or a court of law will need to comb through the contract carefully, to determine the wording, the double meanings of words and all of these things in order to determine whether or not the contract says this or that, because someone tricked the other or their attorneys working for them tricked the other into signing something they did not really intend.

Deception, Trickery, Cheating, Coercion are Rife in Our Society

This Awareness indicates that there are so many efforts to trick, deceive, cheat, coerce, influence, manipulate, in order to gain at the expense of others. There are those rationalizations that: "Well, if I can trick him, he deserves it. Well, if I can cheat him, then he's so stupid he should be cheated." There are many who think this way. It is a way of rationalizing and avoiding the truth about their own deception. This Awareness indicates that this has come about in the last two generations wherein entities in general have less regard for ethics and more regard for winning. The emphasis has been on winning at any cost. They do not even teach ethics anymore in some schools.

"There is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it."-Woodrow Wilson. (Ex President of the United States).

Many Colleges Teach Courses on How to Cheat Others

The humanities, in which ethics was once a part of the philosophy courses, has been dropped by many colleges and technical sciences have taken over. It is as though ethics is no longer prized in your society. Even in your business courses, there are more methods being taught as to how entities can cheat their customers or others rather than what is fair and honest and ethical.

This Awareness indicates in many of your colleges teaching business courses for example, the various technical or business courses such as mechanics, electronics, etc., when being taught, the mechanic or the repairman is told: "This is how you could put used parts in the car and not be caught, and charge for new parts. We do not recommend this, but there are people who do this."

This Awareness indicates that this is essentially teaching these soon-to-be-technicians and mechanics how to cheat the customers. This Awareness suggests that instead of such teachings they should be taught: "It is important to put new parts in if you are going to charge for new parts, and if you put in used parts, make sure that your customer knows they are used and charge used part prices, so that you develop a good reputation for honesty."

This Awareness indicates that this is not the way that most schools teach today. Your society has changed its values to winning, to gaining, to getting the advantage, and your teachers in various courses, in various trainings teach these tricks of the trade to the students, knowing full well that the students will use these tricks if they are so inclined, to cheat others.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE ENTITY'S CONSCIENCE?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Well, what then has happened to an entity's conscience, or that Higher Self, or that little voice that speaks and tells them the difference between right and wrong. Has this totally disappeared in today's society?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates essentially, the conscience is that which is learned by the training or teaching that one receives. This Awareness indicates that one can be taught that right is wrong, or wrong is right. One can be taught that cheating is right, and the entity's conscience would bother him if he did not cheat. It is important to realize that what one learns forms one conscience. It is not something that is a God-given condition, that all entities have a built-in conscience that knows right from wrong. Most entities are taught right from wrong, but many entities are taught wrong things as being right.

How Small Children are Taught to be Criminals

This Awareness indicates in many areas in this nation, as you well know, small children are learning from those who are involved in criminal activities, and because these small children are learning from those involved in criminal activities as to what is right, the right way to do it, and the wrong way to do it, these small children will develop a conscience that follows the gang members and their particular code which could lead them to feel guilty and fear punishment if they were to break the code, just as surely as one who is raised in a religious family might feel fear and guilt in breaking the code of one's religion.

Right and Wrong Deliberately Being Altered to Create Chaos

This Awareness indicates that it is not a phenomenon that is occurring because of nature, it is not a phenomenon that is occurring because of the New Age vibrations, it is a phenomenon that is being brought onto this plane by entities who are deliberately altering the concept of right and wrong in order to create certain chaotic conditions in society so that stability in society based on common decency will be broken down and so that the masses can be manipulated through other means, toward actions that are destructive to the sane and strong society. It is, in other words, a way of tearing down society by destroying its values, its basic and adhesive values which have held the society together and kept family and social ties strong.

WHERE IS ONE'S "GUARDIAN ANGEL" AT SUCH TIMES?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Well, I've always believed that people are basically good and decent at heart and it makes me wonder where is the so-called "guardian angel", that "still small voice", the High Self? Has communication stopped from these to the entities who are out here indulging and perpetrating these various outrages and violations on society and against other people?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that a guardian angel can only be in communication with an entity when the entity is open to hear, to receive, to feel the influence of the guardian angel; that when an entity is open to receive and hear and accept the influence of a demonic energy, the entity's guardian angel is that of a demonic type, because that is what the entity listens for, seeks and responds to, and when an entity is trained to be violent, vicious, conniving; the entity then develops this guardian type of energy and appeals to this energy for strength. The entity may develop a sense of: "No one pushes me around! I get what I want!, and the entity calls upon higher forces of a dark nature for strength to follow through, to do that which feeds his image of himself,

The True Guardian Angel Is Cut Off

This Awareness indicates the guardian angel may be up there somewhere overseeing the whole life of the entity but may have no ability or no way or no channel through which to communicate to the entity and is effectively cut off. There is no way that a guardian angel can interfere with an entity's desire to be negative in his or her expression, other than to create for that entity situations that hinder the entity's expression in those negative directions.

It cannot simply talk to the entity and persuade the entity: "Oh, this isn't good! You should be nice! You should be courteous and respectful of others!", for the entity does not hear such urgings. The entity does not listen to such urgings. The urgings may be heard at first, but once the entity takes the turn and accepts the path of greed and selfishness, following toward that which would violate others and promote the self at the expense of others; once the entity chooses to take that path, every step becomes easier and every effort to return toward the more spiritual becomes less attractive and more difficult.

One Can Return to the Spiritual by Denouncing the Dark Path

It is only when the higher spiritual energies interfere so much in that entity's life, creating such a chaotic condition that the entity can no longer stand it that the entity might eventually turn back and say: "Enough! I have followed you all these years. I have taken your promises, I have heard your promises. You have delivered me nothing but pain! Therefore, I denounce you forever!", and when this occurs, then the entity may turn back toward the spiritual, toward the light, toward the Divine.

This Awareness indicates that all these Higher Forces can do is to speed up that time when this awakening or reawakening might occur, by creating greater and greater blocks and difficulties for the entity in following the Dark Path. This Awareness indicates that unfortunately, though these Light Forces, these guardian angels may attempt to speed up that time when the entity reaches the point of despair, there are many other entities who, thinking they are helping that entity, may enable the entity to go further.

Getting by With A Little Help From my Friends—Not Always Good

This Awareness indicates this is a principle in alcoholism, wherein an entity picks up after the alcoholic; when the alcoholic falls down, then the alcoholic cannot afford alcohol; when the alcoholic can't make it to work, the entity calls and says: "He's sick today", or the entity goes to the store for another bottle for the alcoholic, or the entity pays the bill that the alcoholic couldn't pay because he spent his money on alcohol.

Likewise, those who follow the Dark Path often find their friends trying to help them out. They get into trouble. They run into some force that says: "You have gone far enough in this direction. This is going to be a real problem for you now!", but the entity calls his or her friends: "Help me! Help me! I am in great jeopardy!", and the friends come running and bail him out. The friends come running and smooth the way so that the entity can go further in this same direction, regardless of the efforts of the guardian angel to help block the entity's path.

The Principle of "Enabling" Because You Love the Entity

This Awareness indicates this is the principle of enabling, wherein an entity enables another to continue making mistakes; because the entity loves that person enough, they don't want to see the entity suffer, even though the entity has brought on his or her own suffering, and thus, the friend attempting to rescue the entity from himself, believing that the rescue will help, is actually enabling the entity to continue on the path of many mistakes.

DOES ONE ACT OF LOVE BALANCE OUT A THOUSAND VIOLATIONS TO OTHERS?

QUESTION:

Another question from Jimmie K.: "Does one act of love balance out a thousand acts of a lower nature, as indicated by the book Living With Joy, by S. Roman? If true, would Awareness please explain further?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it all depends on the degree or amount of love involved as compared to the amount of viciousness or harm one has done. It depends on how one feels in regard to this. This Awareness indicates that if one has violated many many people, but one loves his own children as in the case of some of your world's greatest villains, historical villains; is that entity balanced out because he loved his own child, even though the entity may have sent thousand of other children into torture and death?

This Awareness indicates that if one loves his wife so much that he is willing to kill hundreds of other people to get their fortunes for her, is that not an act of love? And would that act of love balance out all of the other violations to others? This Awareness indicates that the concept does not in itself hold up to close scrutiny. This Awareness suggests however, that assuming one has done many things to harm many entities and then one does something in an act of love which is totally new to the entity, it can become a very significant event because the entity at that point may have reached a level of realization, may have turned his or her life around to that of promoting acts of love instead of furthering acts of violence.

This Awareness indicates if this is the case, then that one act of love, being the seed for further acts of love, can be of great value and great significance in that life; but if an entity believes that ten, twenty or a hundred acts of violence can be balanced out by one act of love and then the entity can go back and repeat those acts or similar acts of violence and have then balanced out by some future act of love; this is not the way karma works.

Only Genuine Remorse Can Bring Grace and Forgiveness

This Awareness indicates in regard to grace and forgiveness for acts of violence, grace works through remorse; the remorse must be of such significance as to cause the entity significant suffering for the error of the crimes and cause such suffering to be expressed in remorse to such a degree that the entity would never again repeat the crimes.

In such a case, it is possible for grace to be brought into and modify the karmic situation. This is generally the way in which the Christ Light works, wherein the grace of the Christ Light forgives the entity of the error, but this occurs because of the entity's remorse, genuine true remorse, and because of the forgiving nature of the Christ Light.

CAN GRACE BE GIVEN AFTER THE PASSING OVER?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

If this remorse is never expressed in the entity's physical lifetime, but after the passing over and his whole life passes in review, as I understand it does; if he feels extreme remorse at that point, can the grace still be given to the entity?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates at that point, when the entity sees this experience in the passing of one's life, it is too late, more or less; the Christ Light is informing the entity: "This is what happened. Now you see your error!"; at that point the entity may feel remorse, but it is no longer in the physical form and it is no longer possible to escape the need for the karmic return to work out and balance the books. Therefore, the entity must return to the physical form and repay the karmic debt.

This Awareness indicates it is as though the entity refused to look at the debt until the Christ Light forces presents the image to the entity after death, and when this occurs it is too late for the entity to properly express the remorse for the error to such a degree as would be needed to balance the karma, but the entity will feel the remorse at the time after passing over, to such a degree as to be willing to return to work out the balancing of the karma, and the entity's willingness as that which is the first step toward that rebalancing.

Once the entity has passed over and sees the need for rebalancing, the entity could not conceive of leaving the debt unrepaid. This Awareness indicates that while one is still in physical incarnation, one can have sufficient remorse without repaying the debt directly, but desiring to and being willing to, even if unable to, and the Christ Light can then lift the guilt and burden from that entity's soul to allow the entity freedom from that guilt. Even so, the entity may still elect to live a future life of great devotion to bringing some kind of happiness to others to make up for the errors of the past.

HOW DOES A SERIAL KILLER BALANCE THE KARMA OF SO MANY VICTIMS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

How about...more and more, for example, they have these entities they call serial killers who violate and generally kill young girls, sometimes as many as 50, some as many as 100, and some of these entities will go to the death chamber, the electric chair, without ever showing any remorse or any act of contrition or being sorry for their actions. I was wondering if Awareness could discuss briefly how an entity such as this could balance this out in another lifetime, or would this take many many lifetimes; for example, a lifetime in relation to each one of these entities that he had violated?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it could take many lifetimes of extreme devotion or service to these entities or to certain energies involved. This Awareness indicates that it could also result in extreme suffering for the entity who has violated others in levels between lifetimes, wherein the entity experiences the extreme suffering of realizing the error of the action, but having very limited ability to overcome or undo the damage. It can result in the entity suffering in a kind of elongated purgatory of waiting for another chance to be reborn in a world in which there are contacts with others. It could result in the entity being isolated in between lives or put into situations or places in which there are others like himself, who can only sit around and think about and relive their experiences and talk about their experiences and have no experiences other than those which they remember.

This Awareness indicates it can result in them being eventually returned to the earth plane unable to have relationships with members of the opposite sex, or of the type whom they violated, being totally cut off from them in such a way as to be psychologically alienated, shy or avoided, rejected by that type. This Awareness indicates that it would result in many lifetimes of loneliness, especially from those of the type who were violated.

In addition, it could result in their owing a life to those whose lives were taken, to each of those whose lives were taken. The entity may forfeit his or her own life, or may be required or find it necessary to give birth to and raise as a child the entity whose life was taken, or in some other way serve that entity's life in such a manner as to provide the livelihood that was previously denied.

This Awareness indicates that the action of serial killers, those who kill without allowing themselves to feel the full reality of their actions, is such that they will not be allowed to return with such continued attitude, but will rather remain blocked or imprisoned by death or will be isolated psychologically in such a manner as to be unable to have such opportunities for violence to repeat itself; and such entities will need to go through all of the necessary karma that would be required by an entity whose life had been taken in such a manner.

If that entity (the victim) could consciously say: "You stole this from me! All of this!", the entity will need to repay all of that before the debt is settled, even if the victim no longer remembers the event on a conscious level, or even if the violator no longer remembers the event on a conscious level.

All that was stolen will need to be totally repaid in greater amount because it was a violation. This Awareness indicates that it is not enough to think that a serial killer might spend a lifetime making up to one of the persons killed in an act of impassioned mental disorder, for that entire lifetime is cut short and all that would have been available to that entity: all the wealth, all the joys, all the happiness that should have been is denied; but with the serial killer, it is magnified by the number of entities thus destroyed, so that the entity may suffer a greater number of lifetimes, greater quality of suffering until the entity has fully, to his own karmic needs, fully paid the debt.

MUST KARMA BE PAID FOR THOSE INDIRECTLY AFFECTED?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Would that also apply to those indirectly affected by the tragedy, such as the family of the entity who was violated and killed, possibly children that were left behind; all the grieving and suffering the family goes through; this too would have to be balanced in some way, wouldn't it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that there are many times when these entities owe so many and have such great debts, that they must take on great karmic burdens for masses of entities, and in so taking on these great karmic burdens, they may become statesmen or persons of significance in a society, and at some time they may then become martyred or may then suffer great indignities in order for society to gain from their having been put in such a position, and this can become a kind of karmic position that allows them to work off large amounts of karma in a lifetime that benefits the many whom they have violated previously .

This Awareness indicates however, that generally, these entities will be reincarnated in such a manner as to repay directly those whom they have violated, or in some manner be servants to those whom they have violated. This Awareness indicates there is no hard fast rule of punishment in regard to karmic crimes; each situation brings about a karmic repercussion that fits according to the individuals needs and according to the needs of the parties involved.

You cannot simply write rules saying that this entity who does this receives this punishment, for it is governed by consciousness, and the consciousness being aware of the violence or the act involved that requires a karmic repercussion, the consciousness that weighs and balances this is in contact with the consciousness that was violated, and these two have the offspring that is known as karma, and the karma of the action can be as unique as children born from two entities in marriage, each karmic action being unique to those parents.

TAROT REVEALS KARMA

(But Was it All Accurate?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

Sam did a layout for me with reference to a person who has been nasty to me for no rational reason, and the layout indicated that this person had a karmic debt to me; however, instead of behaving in a more friendly manner, in a nicer manner, he behaved worse because it was similar to seeing somebody on the street that you owe money to, so it had a negative reaction. He went ahead to say that after he died he would feel remorse for the way he treated me, but if he reincarnated later and met me in another life, he'd probably treat me just as badly, when he was back in physical form, even though when he was out of physical form he was aware of what was really going on. Would Awareness comment on that?

COSMIC AWARENESS

This Awareness indicates that the entity might eventually recall from the experience in the Clear Light enough to determine at that point to repay the karmic debt in the next sojourn in physical form with a more decent attitude. This Awareness indicates that the opportunities for realization during the passing over occur when entities move into that White Light. Some entities, who do not particularly have a spiritual inclination, do not linger in the Christ Light long enough to really get a good look at themselves and make commitments for their next lifetime, and because of this, they may return to make the same mistakes.

Why It's Important to Stay in the White Light

This Awareness indicates the entity Ouspensky, the student of Gurdjieff, wrote a book in which the hero of the story repeated the same story in each lifetime without change, without alteration. It can occur in such cases that some entities do this. The key point is at the time of merging with the White Light; if the entities do not fully recognize the White Light, the Christ Light and do not stay there long enough to reflect on their lifetime, long enough to make commitments to the Christ Light to balance the karma, to balance the debts owed in a future reincarnation, then the entity may simply move on quickly through the Christ Light and begin searching through the projections of lesser gods and lesser lights until the entity reincarnates and repeats much the same situation, the same mistakes.

This Awareness indicates that most entities linger in the Christ Light long enough to make certain commitments to discover things regarding themselves and to be willing to repay karma and alter situations in their future incarnations. This Awareness indicates there are some who seek to avoid future incarnations by clinging desperately to the Clear Light long enough to move on into higher realms without returning.

This Awareness indicates in the case of this particular reading by Sam Millar, the entity appears to have been semi-kidding or joking when saying that even if this entity returned in a future life he would still be rude to you. This Awareness indicates that this is not something that can be determined by the Tarot cards or by anyone, but only at the time of the entity's passing over wherein the entity chooses either to be aware or to ignore the influence of the Christ Light, and the commitments that might follow if the entity were properly focused.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. AN UPDATE ON THE ALIEN SITUATION

3/8/95 QUESTION:

A question from J.D. in New York. She writes: "Please give us an update on the alien situation here on this planet, now. Also, how many people are actually dealing with the aliens, and how do they communicate?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness requests the clarification of the word that was underlined. This Awareness suggests that this be spelled out.

QUESTIONER:

D-E-A-L-I-N-G

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this word has many meanings. It presumes this is in reference to some type of contractual arrangements with aliens between government agencies and the alien network. If this is not what the entity means, then it should be further clarified. This term is commonly used in terms of drug-dealings, or the entity may be referring to some type of metaphysical dealings that entities may have with aliens, such as channelings, or exchange of information or such.

This Awareness indicates that presumably she is referring to agencies that have some type of transaction and contracts in exchange for technologies and security bases, which this Awareness has spoken of previously. This Awareness indicates from this presumption of her meaning, this Awareness will respond.

This Awareness indicates that if the question is: How many individuals are involved in dealings with these entities? That this is seen as a great number over a long period of time, for there have been entities involved in tunneling and construction and in various activities related to these bases and to underground bases that have been established for these aliens.

This Awareness indicates that many of these entities involved did not necessarily know they were involved because of an alien presence. They were simply involved in creating tunnels and underground bases. This Awareness indicates that in terms of the people who were directly involved with aliens in which there was physical contact, the number is quite small. That at present time, the number is even smaller.

This Awareness indicates that there needs not be a great amount of physical contact to keep an established program functioning in which these entities correspond and relate to the agencies that are connected with their activities; this in reference to government agencies.

This Awareness indicates that the policy makers do not even need to be in direct contact with their leaders of the alien groups for the programs to continue functioning. Therefore, the contacts need not be ongoing, and can be established through a certain liaison, mediators between the two cultures.

This Awareness indicates the question of the current status or update on the situation was also part of the question. This Awareness indicates that the Zeta Reticuli Greys still have a large number of entities involved in their underground bases. Much of the Dulce, New Mexico, activity has been moved to that area of Ada, Oklahoma; an underground base in that area is seen as having been increased, but the Dulce base is still seen as having some activity.

The movement from some of the more well-known bases into lesser known bases was a precautionary move. This Awareness indicates that in regard to the Reptoids, most of these entities have settled down in the South American continent in underground bases. There are still a few in the Northern hemisphere in the United States, but the majority have settled in South America.

There are also some Reptoids in Northern Europe and the British Isles, but these entities have lost any hope of being reinforced with large numbers of their own kind, and are more concerned with staying alive, and keeping a low profile at the present time.

This Awareness indicates that there are also changes in the government's attitude wherein there is some anticipation of an alliance to be formed with the Galactic Confederation, namely Lyra, Vega, Sirius and Arcturians and the Pleiadians, at some near time in the future.

This Awareness indicates that most of these entities are essentially human in form, as opposed to the different species of Reptoids and Greys that have been a major part of the extraterrestrial scene in the past. This Awareness indicates that this is basically sufficient at this time. There is little threat of alien endangerment to earthlings at this time. There is greater potential for hope and assistance from the human extraterrestrials in the coming years.

This Awareness does not see the great potential for alien invasion from Reptoid or Grey cultures that threatened some several years ago. This is because of the Jovian event that this Awareness described previously.

An Underground "Snake Race" Now Emerging and Eating Humans for Lunch?

QUESTION:

Wendy L., in Grant's Valley, California, in a letter to Vikki mentioned, "A youngish man who lives near Olympia in the town of Mckenna (that's about 20 miles from here) who is one of my Web of Light members, wrote me last week about a report of a serpent or snake race that lives underground near where he lives.

"He said they are coming out. They are coming up and capturing people for food. He swears it is true. I do know that one of the species of the serpent race, the one that has the power to change height or size, is impossible to kill; that they have a diabolical immortality, and they only they can kill themselves, a suicidal race.

"They are the ones the Bible refers to as Lucifer, the Serpent, Dragon, Cockatrice, that walk upright, the cause of the Fall of Man."

Can Awareness comment on her statement?, particularly about the serpent or snake race out here in Mckenna, that live underground and is coming out and eating people?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to have a substance of truth. It appears that these entities are not located exclusively in this area; that there are other areas on earth where these entities also have been observed down through the ages. This Awareness indicates that these are not the same entities as defined or described by Sitchin or other metaphysical writers, or referenced by the symbol of the serpent.

There were many highly evolved races and cultures using the serpent as a symbol; the serpent representing the Kundalini energies for some of these races, and also for representing the intellectual wisdom for some of the cultures whose priests would wear a serpent over their headdress. This Awareness indicates that the serpent for these entities was symbolic and represented the consciousness of the spinal energy as it rose to the cortex of the brain as a symbol of higher consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that these entities, which this questioner speaks of are essentially subterranean by nature and genetically related to the snake, to the serpent. It is likened unto a genetic crossbreed between human-like entities and serpents. This Awareness indicates that these are more closely related to the Reptoid creatures or aliens.

They are seen rarely. They prefer staying underground and out of sight, coming up occasionally. They are very careful not to be seen, as a general rule. This Awareness indicates they are very much like the Reptoids in terms of motives, purposes and their attitude towards humans. They see humans as inferior, and like the Reptoids, they see humans as a kind of delicacy and do indeed eat humans when they have such opportunities.

This Awareness indicates that fortunately, their activities on the surface of the earth are very limited, or have been in the past. They may become more brazen as a result of less game in the animal kingdom, partly due to the spread of human population into the more remote forests and rural areas, or wilderness areas.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Do these entities have a name?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates in UFO literature, they are generally referred to as Dinoids. They are related to the dinosaurs, they look more like snakes or serpents than like the Reptoid types which look more like lizards.

This Awareness indicates there is a reference to the Dinoids in the book, You are Becoming a Galactic Human. Entities can find considerable information on these entities in that book. Continue.

WERE THESE SERPENTS RESPONSIBLE FOR MAN'S FALL?

QUESTION:

Is there anything to Wendy's statement regarding these entities, when she says, "they are the ones the Bible refers to as Lucifer, the serpent, dragon, Cockatrice, that walk upright, the cause of the Fall of Man?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to have some substance to it. Her statements appear to have some substance but also the Reptoids were part of that activity, both of course being Reptilian based in their genetics. They were both allies at the time when man was genetically created, and helped to lead to certain inadequacies in the species known as man.

This Awareness indicates that there are various confusions in the Biblical record as it was handed down from early writings. The entities from Sirius were also accused of being the cause of man's fall from grace. These being accused by the Dinoids and Reptoids, and others who read the early writing from which Genesis was taken would see the Dinoids and Reptoids as being the real Luciferian types, though it is a question of whose version one wishes to accept, when each accuse the other as being the bad guy.

Were the Biblical "Angels" Really Reptoids?

QUESTION:

Are the so-called angels mentioned in the Bible and in folklore and so forth; are these entities also Reptoids?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the references to Biblical angels are speaking of human types that are from higher dimensions. There are of course some who would see a winged reptilian as an angel, if they were themselves reptilian or Reptoids, and there are many who see negative angels or demonic types as Reptoids.

The Mothman, for example, of John Keel's book would be considered a negative type angel. It is capable of flying, according to his information, and yet is a negative or nefarious being in relation to humans. It would be considered as an evil being by most humans.

This Awareness indicates that the so-called angels as described in Biblical terms as "God's Angels" are the more spiritually evolved beings having certain human-like beauty and loving behavior, are not presented as having Reptoid or reptilian based genetic essences.

This Awareness indicates there is another event that has recently occurred, which gives some potential hope for the human races throughout the galaxy. This is in reference to certain Reptoid requests. These entities have hinted at and given some expression of interest in joining the Galactic Confederation, which would require that they would have to live up to certain standards to be part of such, and if this is the case, it could mean there is a willingness on the part of some of these entities to become more civilized in a spiritual sense, in order to live with the galactic beings of the galaxy, in order to relate with them, to trade with them, to receive the benefits of such involvement.

This Awareness indicates that if this occurs, it could be of great news throughout the galaxy. So far, however, it is simply likened unto feelers being sent out, and it would be unwise to trust such overtures without further actions to back up the words.

Do Humans, Cat-People and Snakes All Come From Sirius?

QUESTION:

A question from Chris L. in regard to the Sirian ETs. He asks: "Do the three Sirius types,--humans, cat-people and snakes, all come from Sirius? In his "Galactic Humans" book, Nidle only mentions the first two, but Awareness has said that the Enki group was from Sirius and serpent-like."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these entities were the more highly evolved Sirians in that time period of approximately 10,000 B.C. This Awareness indicates that these entities were more human than serpent in their genetic make-up and are not to be confused with those described in an earlier question in this reading.

This Awareness indicates that even you as humans have what is termed by science a "reptilian" brain. It is seen as the old brain or reptilian brain. It is the brain that extends around the spine and sits atop the spine, over which was created the mammalian brain and the cortex for humans.

This Awareness indicates that in the Hebrew language, the alphabet contains the first letter known as YOD. It is drawn as appearing to look somewhat like a comma; it is likened unto a tail with a head, similar to that of a snake. This Awareness indicates that it is representative of that reptilian brain and is often referred to as the First Cause and thus, the name YOD, which is closely reflective of the name God.

This Awareness indicates that this First Cause as essentially the first or the first brains of the creatures as they were created, and the Sirian Serpent people were highly evolved from this reptilian brain without having the mammalian brain added to it at that time. This Awareness indicates that the mammalian brain had not evolved in the same way for the Serpent People of Sirius as it evolved for humans after the genetic creation of the Adam and Eve prototype.

This Awareness indicates, however, these entities recognized the importance of the addition of the mammalian brain on top of the serpent's brain and did gradually alter their own species to become more human in quality and nature, but they still reserved the title or what you might term nick-name of Serpent People even though they were more than serpent in their genetic make-up.

This Awareness indicates that these entities are now considered by most galactic humans as being human, even though they still retain certain serpent appearance when visualized or viewed. They have the eyes that resemble serpent's and they have the wide cheeks and small lips.

This Awareness indicates that these entities do have more human qualities than a serpent, in the sense of a snake face. They do not look like a snake, more likened unto a person, a human face that has been given certain serpent features. They look more human than serpent in their appearance.

This Awareness indicates that those described earlier in this reading, by the entity in Mckenna; those entities look more snake-like than human.

Why Are Greys Still Abducting Humans?

QUESTION:

Another question from Chris L. "Nidle has indicated that the Greys have been "cut off from experimenting on humans at the end of 1993." If so, why are there still reports of abductions?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that some of these entities either haven't gotten the message, or don't respect the message.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Does that response mean that Nidle is accurate, or not accurate?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that another option is that the reports are not accurate, and the first two options,--that either they have not received the message that they are cut off from further experiments or the report that they have received the message but are ignoring this, would suggest that Nidle is perhaps misinformed or was unaware at the time of his statement, that some entities of the Grey group would not obey the statements.

It does not mean the entity is inaccurate. It may be that he simply reported his knowledge or a message he received, that they had been cut off from further experiments, and perhaps his meaning was that they are no longer authorized or allowed the right to such experiments. They may simply be reacting in a sense of rebellion to the direct order.

This Awareness indicates that in which case, Nidle wouldn't be responsible for having made a mistake in his message. He would simply have been reporting what he knew. He would simply be telling it like it is, and other would be ignoring. It is likened unto someone saying, "The war is over!", and yet killing goes on somewhere. Was the entity who said the war is over incorrect, just because someone didn't get the message and the killing continued?

This Awareness indicates you cannot assume that Nidle is incorrect because some entities continue to abduct humans.

WHO GIVES DIRECTIVES THE GREYS WILL TAKE SERIOUSLY?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Well, if that's true, who could give the aliens a directive like that, which they would take seriously?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is a good question. This Awareness indicates that it may be that the Sirians provided Nidle with the information that the aliens had stopped abductions or that the aliens were no longer permitted to experiment, and Nidle, without having an investigative team of detectives or researchers, would simply take the word of the Sirian who have that information, as he had for the rest of his book, and printed it in his material.

One would have to ask the Sirian who gave the information: "Where did you get this information? Who is it that can verify the aliens are no longer experimenting with humans? Did it come as an order for them to stop experimenting or is it an observation that they have stopped experimenting? How do you know it will not start again? How long has it stopped? Has it stopped indefinitely? Is there a time limit on the stopping of experiments with humans?"

This Awareness indicates there are many questions that entities could ask in this regard, but one can simply assume that Nidle is an honest entity and presented the information from a presumption of honesty or one can, if one prefers, presume that Nidle is misleading the masses, and gave information he knew was false, or which in all likelihood would be false, or information that he didn't know anything about it at all, or was simply speculating or talking from lack of substance.

This Awareness indicates if entities know that there are still human experiments going on by the Greys in spite of Nidle's statement, then that is the fact. If entities do not know whether Nidle was correct or not, and the stories are that humans are still being experimented on, then one can question: "Are they really?", and if so, "Why didn't Nidle know?"

"Is it really of great significance that we label Nidle as a liar? Or is it of significance that we label the stories of further human experiments as being false in order to make Nidle appear to be correct?, or do we simply recognize there is a conflict between what Nidle said and what is purported to be further human experiments by the Greys?"

"If we recognize this conflict, do we have to know what caused the conflict in these two stories? Which is correct? Or can they both be correct? Is it possible that humans are being abducted but not being experimented on?" If so, then Nidle's statement would be correct. If not, then Nidle's statement would be in error.

Is it possible that the stories of further human abductions are false? This Awareness indicates that sometimes entities just have to live without knowing all of the details of everything.

ED's Note: this reading was given a year ago, March 8, 1995, and there continue to be stories of abductions by aliens in various magazines and on TV tabloid and talk shows to present time, and most do seem to recall some sort of examination and experiments dealing with implants and sexual organs. It seems it is getting harder to get a straight answer from Awareness these days, particularly when the subject happens to be Sheldon Nidle's credibility and those many inconsistencies and vagaries one can find in his book, You Are Becoming a Galactic Human.

Personally, I have always felt we were all becoming galactic humans, if we weren't already, and we can reason these things out by ourselves if we are curious. If we want to play "word games" with Awareness, as exemplified in the "answer" just given to my question, perhaps we could ask: Are all Sirians "all knowing" and "all loving" entities who provide accurate information to human channels, or is it possible that "Harold" or Washta might once in a while exaggerate, pull our leg, or miss the mark in some areas of his information? Sometimes my "polarized" mind would be happy with a simple "yes" or "no" because somehow I feel uneasy about some of the stuff Nidle puts out as dogma. And there seems to be too many "Sirians and Pleadians" channeling these days through too many entities. But as Dennis Miller would say, "I could be wrong, that's just my opinion!"

Did Cairo Earthquake Open Up Secret Chambers of the Pyramid?

QUESTION: (12/6/92)

In regard to that earthquake on October 12th, 1992, that hit Cairo City in Egypt, which Awareness gave some information on last month; a tabloid says the quake opened up the hidden chamber where mummies and other things exist, and this is being covered up by the media. Is there any truth to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has previously indicated that there were a number of mummies underneath one of the three great pyramids, and that these mummies underneath that pyramid were members of the royal family and people who work for and with the royal family. This Awareness indicates that there are also certain secret writings and artifacts in these underground rooms which reflect the science of ancient extraterrestrials and their influence in Egypt.

This Awareness indicates there are also in deeper levels, the remaining chambers and rooms used by the Giza intelligences. This Awareness indicates that it appears there was some effect of the earthquake in dislodging a set of stones to allow an opening into one of these underground rooms. It does not appear that it has allowed an opening into more than one such room.

It appears that the information about a cover-up is correct, but that slowly, the information will become more public over the next ten years.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Was that which was opened up, was this the famous or legendary Hall of Records which Edgar Cayce talked about?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This appears to be negative, but it appears that it adjoins the Hall of Records and this may lead to its discovery. This appears to be more of a burial chamber. It does not appear to be under the great Pyramid, the Cheops pyramid.

ARE DRAGONS COMING TO EARTH AS CROP CIRCLE PREDICTS?

QUESTION:

A question from Jay S., Columbus, Ohio. He writes: "In the New Age Journal, December 1991, up front page article about crop circles, John Backjord the curator of the Crypto-Phenomenon Museum in Malibu, contends that one crop formation outside of Hanover, Germany, is actually a message written in the ancient Viking language of Tifinag. The translation: Dragons from Pegasus are coming to judge the earth globe.

And he asks if Awareness would comment on the above quotation.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct. This appears to be a language that has been used in this crop circle. It appears that the alien involved in creating the crop circle have access to many different languages from many different sources, not only earth sources, but extra-terrestrial sources as well.

Sometimes these entities in leaving messages, leave them for each other, for their comrades, and not for earth people at all. In most cases, the message are messages to other extraterrestrials. There is a kind of game in which they leave messages in various languages from other times, other planets, other places, for the next extraterrestrial encountering the message to figure out, so that they do not always expect the next extraterrestrial to know what the message says, but they expect them to study over it and try to decipher it.

This Awareness indicates of course their computers can be used in deciphering these messages through the various ancient and archaic languages and also from languages used on other planets through the galaxy. In this particular case it was a kind of unusual coincidence that they chose a language so close to the placement of the crop circle.

The time of course being quite different but the location being relatively close in terms of the origin of the language and the placement and the use of the language in a crop circle.

This Awareness indicates in reference to the message itself, it appears to have been a warning of Reptoid invasion, but one in which most extraterrestrials would already have known. It is likened unto troops entering into Europe during World War II, after the invasion of Normandy, who might leave a sign, saying to the back-up troops who would be following behind: "Kilroy was here! Beware of Kilroy!"

This Awareness indicates that these signs are done as much in jest as in conveying of messages. The aliens in leaving such a sign are leaving messages that to them they are form of humor, a hailing signal to those aliens who follow and see the message. It is their form of communication and also a form of humor to them in many cases.

This Awareness indicates it would be likened onto entities who live across a valley wherein the entity in one home mows his lawn so as to convey a message to the entity across the valley on the other side, which says: "Hello!" and the entity on the other side may then mow his or her lawn to respond, or perhaps they cut and trim their bushes to create animal shapes or cartoon shapes or something as a kind of hailing action to the person across the valley, and each understanding this, that the other is sending them messages through the trimming of their hedges and bushes and the mowing of the lawn, each of these parties gets some kind of enjoyment, feels the messages are humorous and also gets information from the other person.

This Awareness indicates that essentially is how the aliens greet each other, through messages of crop circle design. There are seldom any sinister messages involved. There is rarely, if ever, any reason to fear the crop circle message other than to recognize that they are made by aliens and to wonder, "What kind of civilization does this?"
