The Psychology of Homosexuality (Part 2):

QUESTION:

A letter with questions from James W., in California, came in a couple years back. He has a rather interesting story and quandary. He writes:

"Dear Awareness, when I was approximately 5 years old I was the center of an event that has been the primary generator of energy within me and confused me profoundly and I do not know how to deal with it still. I was fond of dressing up like a girl at this time, and my mother encouraged this, as she would take me to the grocery store with her dressed up, and they nick-named me Sally-Anne.

"I cannot say that I remember that exactly, but I do remember this incident. My mother's younger sister and husband had just moved to town and were moving in to their new house about a block down the street from where we lived in Irvine, Texas. My father was working and my mother and older sister were down at my aunt's and uncle's so I decided to go there too. I came in, and then, much to my shock, my uncle began to have a fit about my being dressed up like a girl, and took me into the bathroom, and took off the dress-up clothes, and held me over the lavatory and washed my face clean of the lipstick and such.

"My mother sat back and let him do this, even though, up to that time, she had encouraged such behavior. I was completely humiliated and profoundly confused. Later, I told her I hated her, expressing my great disappointment for her not defending me. She told me that it was a terrible thing for me to hate anything, and I must not ever do it again, so I had to again bottle up the whole incident within myself, where it remains safely isolated for the next 25 years, at which time I discovered the Seth books, and began to grow again, and uncovered this as being the main ingredient of my personality.

"Back when puberty came and I began to consider sex, I had an incredible infatuation with a girl in the 7th grade named Judy Jones. She was rich and I was poor. She was popular and I was a shy face in the crowd. I then found myself studying J.J.'s boyfriend, wondering what he had that I didn't, and the more I studied him, the more I felt attracted to him, and little by little I learned myself to be homosexual.

"Whenever I got into an intimate situation with a woman I felt as though I was smothering and couldn't breathe. It was only with the other men that I could relax and be 'all man' the way the programming called for. I became very shy later and withdrawn, and very, very confused sexually. I felt like a girl inside, but became terrified of that showing and tried everything to appear to be the macho boy that I never really was.

"Oh but I tried so to please my uncle. I was called 'Sissy' all the time while growing up, which I never could understand since I was working so hard not to be a sissy, so a vicious circle began. I felt completely deceived by my mother. Any time I would get very close to a girl or a woman, I would panic because I would feel I was about to be humiliated and deceived again. This whole complex has made me homosexual or seemingly so, but if homosexuality is not conditioned behavior then maybe not, but this incident has mystified me and tied me in knots of energy for years.

"I thought that when I finally saw it, using Seth techniques, that the great release it gave me would be enough to heal it and make me whole again, but I still feel the same insecurity as before. I need some help understanding what I have taken on here. This has led to a real humility, but it has also led to a certain kind of self-abuse, of using myself for a whipping post. In Revelations of Awareness 85-17, there is a discussion of what to expect from the Neptunian energies, and in reading it, it would appear that this whole scenario is what Neptune produces, as I was born with Neptune conjunct Mars and Venus, sextile Saturn, Mercury and Pluto.

"I currently feel a great deal of anxiety about my sexuality as I always have, but it seems the harder I try to figure out what to do, indeed, what can be done, I get caught in a maze that I can't find my way out of. How does one compensate for the Neptunian influence? Oh, to see clearly now! What is the positive aspect to all this? I can certainly say I have learned a lot, but I can also say that I have become acutely aware of how much I have to learn. There must be others out there feeling similar pressures and frustrations that can be helped by whatever the answers are to these questions. I hope so.

"I used to tend to blame my mother, because she should have known better, but then I realized that if I am really taking charge of my own reality, then I must take responsibility for this event. If there are no accidents and all happens for the purposeful good, then the higher part of me planned and executed this event through the other people involved and I chose this as a challenge. At times I know that this is true and it is only in times of confusion that I try to ask for help in sorting out the sense behind all of this.

"I know I chose this for a reason and I do not know if that reason has been fulfilled, therefore, I am hesitant to try to change my lifestyle too much else I find myself bogged down further in confused frustration, trying to please society instead of my own inner need. What is my Higher Self up to?" he asks in conclusion.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is important that you put this entire scenario into perspective, for it has been blown out of proportion and put into a perspective that is essentially damaging to relationships and to your own self-image. This Awareness indicates that it is not so strange or unusual for children to play games and to play dress-up or to play characters, such as to pretend to be a monkey or an animal. Why then should it be so abhorrent to play the role of someone of the opposite sex?

There is no Harm in Children Playing "Dress-Up"

This Awareness indicates that on Halloween, such things can be done without offending others. This Awareness suggests that this, for a child, an innocent child, to the innocent child, is just a form of play and expression with no sexual overtones or perversion intended. This Awareness indicates it is simply an innocent action of a child trying on different roles in life, playing games. There was at the time no problem with your sexuality, your identity as an individual. You had a good relationship with your mother. Your mother did not discourage you, in fact your mother enjoyed the game with you, even to the point of taking you out in public dressed as a girl.

This Awareness indicates while this is unusual, it simply reveals that you had a mother who was quite daring and had a sense of humor about life. This Awareness indicates that it was not that she did something wrong in letting you do this, in helping you to dress up, like a girl. It is, however, that society has certain attitudes which may or may not be appropriate or understanding in a situation such as this, and society, represented by the uncle, has an offense against certain people who try to play the role of someone other than who they are, especially in the trading of sexual roles, and they have a kind of condemnation for transvestites, and therefore, society in general would disapprove of this game-playing.

In Movie "Tootsie" Dustin Hoffman Dressed as a Woman

In essence, your mother was somewhat naive also for letting you do this in public, and you were totally innocent and naive, as you had not come across such prejudices in your life up to this point. This Awareness reminds you of the recent movie with Dustin Hoffman, in which he plays a woman, and how this entity, for this role received an academy award, thus, he was able to get by with this and be accepted for the framework in which it occurred; but whereby you, as a child, attempting to play this role, were rejected hostilely for your portrayal of a female.

This Awareness indicates the question must be asked: Why should one entity receive acclaim, and the other, the small child playing such a role, receive condemnation? This Awareness indicates it is simply that the society, represented by the uncle, was not ready for your act. Perhaps, had you been older and in a different scenario, in which you were asked to play a female, as was often the case in Shakespearean times in which young boys would play feminine roles in the plays he wrote, you might have received acclaim also.

This Awareness suggests therefore, you put this in perspective; that it was not you who was to blame for the scenario being distorted. You have no guidance or training or way of knowing that the uncle had certain prejudices, nor is it necessarily the problem of the uncle, for this entity has been educated by television and society to disapprove of men wearing women's clothing, and therefore, he had his concern that you might grow up to be a transvestite, and felt he must step in and do something.

The mother, being somewhat naive, suddenly realized what the uncle was seeing and therefore, from that perspective, realized herself to have made a mistake so she let him go ahead and clean you up. This Awareness indicates the mother did not exactly betray you, but she could have been more understanding and explained things to you, letting you know that the uncle had certain concepts or feelings about men dressing in women's clothes that she hadn't realized and understood, and that it was okay for him to take your clothes off and remove the makeup, and not to worry about this.

What the Mother Should Have Said

Instead, she focused on your response towards her in stating that you hated her. She then chastised you for saying such. Had she been more understanding, she would have said: "Well, I understand what you are feeling, and it was my fault that you went through this ordeal, and I'm sorry. I wish I had understood how your uncle felt," then you would have had a totally different outcome from the experience. Your personal image and identity would not have been so humiliated and polarized. You would not need to feel that you were grappling for identity or that you have committed some grave sin, and you probably would not have become so shy and so self-limiting.

Why Young Boys "Love" the Girl They Can't Have

This Awareness indicates that it is not unusual, however, for young boys to be in love with someone they cannot have. In fact, that's part of the reason why young boys choose the girl that they cannot have. For one thing, they wouldn't know what to do if they got her. This Awareness indicates that therefore, they choose the one they cannot have so they are not bothered with the responsibility for their love, and in this manner, they manage to have their love and still have their private life unaffected. This Awareness indicates that this was a form of defense against the possibility of having a close relationship with that entity.

This Awareness suggests that the fascination with the boy was also part of that defense mechanism. If you cannot have the relationship with the girl, and you study the boyfriend whom you were not interested in, other than to see what it was he had that you didn't have, then there was no problem of having this close relationship with some girl whom you could not attain. This Awareness indicates that the transference of your affection or obsession to this male boyfriend of the girl was nothing more than a form of defense mechanism and of becoming obsessed with basic human charm and seeing qualities that you admired in someone. It had nothing to do with homosexuality, not anymore than having an attraction toward the girl had to do with your intention to have sexual relations with her.

A heart often reaches out before the entire being is ready for the responsibility of an intimate relationship. You cannot help but love entities if you are open and caring and attentive, but often, an entity in love cannot accept the commitment and responsibility to form intimate relationships based on that love. Thus, your interest and energies began to move in different directions. It is not too unusual for young boys to be attracted to men, partly because of their fear of close relationships with women. It serves as a defense against getting someone pregnant before you are able to do anything for the person, to take care of the pregnancy; yet, at the same time, entities often perceive their interest in men, companionship, as having some kind of sexual overtones, partly because during that time of life, the sexual juices are flowing.

This Awareness indicates that it wouldn't matter that much if you were simply around trees or bushes, you still might have sexual energies involved at that age. This doesn't mean that you are in love with trees and bushes. This Awareness indicates that it is simply a condition of the age, and if you are around men more at the time, you may find yourself being attracted to men and exuding some kind of sexual energy that is flowing through your system, and you may think there is a connection between the two. This is what causes many entities to wonder if they are homosexual, largely because it gets so much publicity in today's communications, media and society.

In earlier times, there was little talk about homosexuality, and entities didn't make the connection between sexual feelings and the people with whom they traveled. This Awareness indicates that most young boys in earlier times, before homosexuality was so wide spread and such a common concept, most young boys just felt themselves to be going through some kind of sexual drives and interests and the energies going through them, and knew that there was nothing they could do about it, except run harder, play harder and work off the energies.

This Awareness indicates that because nowadays people speak so much about homosexuality, a young boy having that kind of energy when playing with other boys might think himself to be homosexual and being attracted to the boys. This Awareness indicates that the confusion that has come about from this scenario described as that which has been overrated in terms of its being made into a mountain of an event, when in fact it was just a molehill that should have been easily dismissed, had the mother and the uncle been more in balance in regard to these things; but because they were not, all of the emotions of their prejudism and fears; in the case of your mother, fear of offending the uncle, came down on you, and it is the emotional aspects of the event that have troubled you, not the event and activities themselves, but the condemnation that accompanied these events.

Re-Experiencing the Event Will Help Make Things Clear

This Awareness suggests that you re-experience in your memory these events, reenact the event, but have in your memory, have the mother explaining to the uncle in your behalf, that it was her doing, and that she encouraged you to dress up in this manner because she thought it was funny and that it was fun, and that it was fun for her to pretend she had a little girl, because she also liked little girls, and would have enjoyed having a little girl as well as a little boy; that she was simply playing, letting her fantasy have some room to express itself; and imagine the uncle responding to her and saying: "Well, I don't like it, because it reminds me of some of those perverts out on the streets" and imagine her responding to that by saying: "Well, we won't do this anymore at your house, and please don't let him feel that you don't like him. He was just playing along with me, and be sure to see the Dustin Hoffman movie when it comes out."

This Awareness suggests you go through this, putting it all into a different perspective without all of the heavy emotion. Do anything you want with the scenario to relieve the emotion. Rewrite the script the way you would like it to have been so that all of the parties involved are reconciled at the end of your script, so that all of them understand the situation and are harmonious about the resolution. In this manner, you defuse the emotions that accompanied the script as it was played.

There is Nothing Wrong With a Man Being Sensitive

Accept your natural feelings and expressions. There is nothing wrong with a man being very sensitive. Was Jesus less for being sensitive?, for not being as macho as Clint Eastwood, or Rambo? This Awareness suggests you not worry about that aspect. Be who you are.

This Awareness indicates that in the meantime, remember who you are. You are not entirely a man. You are not entirely a female. You are a combination as is every other man, both male and female, with the overriding accent on the masculine qualities. They are predominantly stronger than the feminine qualities, even as with females; they carry some masculine qualities, and just be what you are naturally; do not feel it is necessary to be macho, more macho than you are. Be sensitive, if you are sensitive, and be assertive, if you are assertive, in the manner that is most natural to you.

Do We All Live Homosexual Lives as Claimed?

( More on the Book: "Messages from Michael" )

QUESTION:

He sent in other questions. I'll read another one, as long as we're on this subject. He writes:

"In issue 78-43, through Interpreter Ralph Duby, Awareness said that homosexuality was caused by the karma for pointing the fingers at those who have been of this nature, and goes on to say that homosexuality is not a conditioned attitude, but relates to certain hurdles people make in psycho-sexual development. There is a genital stage, and often there is a homosexual phase, and often this homosexual phase is so deep in nature and is so important to this individual that even though there are later heterosexual lives, the strong effect of this middle phase of developing sexuality remains with an individual and is a positive and basic fact of one's homosexuality."

Michael, in the book Messages From Michael by Chelsea Quinn Yarborough, says that we will all live homosexual lives. If this is so, and in light of the above information, why is there not greater understanding on society's part of homosexuality being a natural part of soul development and growth. Also, if it is not conditioned, as is widely believed, that understanding alone would do wonders to end homophobia. Could Awareness please give us more information regarding the mentioned psycho-sexual hurdles to help us better understand this aspect of our growth that apparently we all must experience and deal with one way or the other. Also, anything that Awareness would give to help us to deal with the schizoid way that society tends to look at the above.

Isn't it time society came of age and realize that these things rise from an inner order, and should not feel threatened in the least by the 10% of entities working out their homosexuality at any given time. Please help to clear the air.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the message from Michael as that which is not seen as being an accurate statement. It is seen rather as an inaccurate statement, in reference to all entities needing or eventually developing as homosexuals in reference to men. This Awareness indicates that this is not seen as the natural order of nature or natural flow of evolution. It is rather an aberration. The reason being, that the masculine energy develops prior to birth, and the feminine energy, in terms of its emphasis in the sexuality of a person, also develops prior to birth, so that when one is born male, or when one is born female, they are naturally suited for the opposite sex.

Like Having Sex with a Bottle It's Not Part of the Overall Scheme

This Awareness indicates that this does not preclude the need for friendship and companionship with members of the same sex. There is a camaraderie that is of great value in having people of your own sex as friends, but as far as the natural order of things, men having sex with each other serves no purpose other than some physical expression and need that does not enhance the species, nor does it benefit the species in continuing the growth of population for women to have sex with each other. It is not part of the overall scheme of things. It is no more nor no less of value than having sex with a bottle, or some other apparatus.

This Awareness indicates that this idea of simply having sex for the sake of sex, without the bonding of a relationship for the purpose of bringing forth and raising a family is of little value in terms of argument. This Awareness suggests however, that in reference to the discussion relating to Ralph Duby's channeling of the message, that the sexual movement in development of a young person through an area of homosexuality; this has been addressed in the previous question and is simply an aberration that occurs because the entity is not yet ready for producing a family.

Why Teenagers Often Bond with the Same Sex

Many cultures allow young people to mate in their early teens, when they first begin feeling sexual urges, and these cultures do not have this problem because they can accept the responsibility in which a child is born to a young teenager; the entire tribe helps to raise the child, but because of longer life-spans and civilized structure, children today in their early teens are discouraged from having families. They are encouraged rather, to get out, get an education, first raise money, be able to take care of your family on your own, and therefore, the childbearing stage is delayed by as much as 5, 10, 15 or even 20 years, and this creates situations where sex becomes a taboo, if a child could result from that sexual encounter; so some young people opt for companionship with members of their own sex rather than relating to those of the opposite sex, because the great temptation might overcome them and put them into jeopardy at too early an age, and they do not want a family at the age of 14 or 15 years.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, the young boys stay away from girls and play with each other, run with each other, have companionship together, but during this time, their sexual energies are also crying out to be expressed, and since they are staying away from girls deliberately, for fear of creating a family too soon, they sometimes get involved with each other. This is not to say that it is natural. Indeed, it is the unnatural, artificially created society which delays the mating process that brings this on.

Making an Incident too Significant Leads to Fixation

This Awareness indicates that the effect of this, as indicated in the Doby interpretation, may lead the entity to have long-term disturbances or subconscious fixations regarding those homosexual experiences which last perhaps throughout his lifetime, or it may not. It will depend entirely on whether the entity feels guilt, is fixated, or becomes compulsive in regard to those experiences. If the entity has a healthy outlook on life, he will simply pass on through those experiences, forget them, and go on to other things. If the entity feels there is something very significant about having had sex, or dabbled in sex with another of the same gender, the entity may never get over the significance, and may become highly fixated, to the point where even though later marrying and having a family, he may think: "There must have been something wrong with me. I must be somehow homosexual underneath it all. I don't dare speak of this," and the entity may develop a kind of split personality or split loyalty, or feel something so significant that he can't quit dwelling on the fact.

This Awareness indicates that it is this fixation that is the problem. It is the thought about the experience that creates the error. This Awareness indicates that it is the misunderstanding and the feeling that something highly important or significant occurred that is either greatly wrong, or is demanding that he again return and do the same. This Awareness indicates it is because too much significance is placed on these things, too much thought is placed on these things. Thought is what creates the problem, and the condemnation or the significance attributed to the thing creates the problem.

This Awareness suggests that entities make too much to-do in regard to little situations in their lives that can be and should be looked at, evaluated and tossed aside in the pool of memories from the past that need not be energized further.

Are 10% of all People Really Homosexual?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

He says 10 % of the people in the world are homosexuals. I've read that the figure, according to some homosexuals is as high as 50%.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is very common for entities of a group to claim a high percentage; that the figures are both far too high. This Awareness indicates that it is more accurately approximately 3%. There is very little homosexuality in most other highly populated countries; that even 3% is high.

How to Explain Certain Physical Traits?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Now this question by James is pretty clear, that this was a conditioned type thing, but how does one explain so many of the homosexuals have certain traits, and characteristics, like a sort of a falsetto voice, and when some walk they sort of mince in a feminine type of way. Is this also acquired, or is this something they were born with?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it depends on the individual. There are individuals who have certain qualities which they develop that in many instances are feminine in their expression, and when they classify themselves as being homosexual and want to play the feminine role of the homosexual relationship, they cultivate those feminine aspects. It is not to say that homosexuals are always feminine in appearance, for there are also those homosexual men who are quite macho or quite masculine in their appearance whom no one would ever believe except by their own lips or those who know that they are homosexual.

Rock Hudson an Example of a Masculine Homosexual

This Awareness indicates that a classic example being that entity Rock Hudson. This entity did not walk swaying his hips or speak in a feminine voice. This Awareness indicates the entity wasn't playing the female homosexual. The entity was playing the masculine homosexual. This Awareness indicates that this is cultivated, although there are some entities who are not homosexual who also have feminine qualities: this in reference to men.

Feminine Aspects in Relation to the Zodiac

There are many times when men are simply more feminine than they are masculine. They have been treated gently. They are sensitively endowed, they are expressive of feminine qualities, perhaps because they were born in a feminine sector of the zodiac, and because of their chart and the relation to planets to each other. They may be more feminine in some ways than are others whose charts create more masculine qualities, but generally speaking, a homosexual develops as such because Uranus is in certain aspect to other planets, and creates a kind of obsession and rebellion against society, which manifests itself through the sexual expression of the individual.

Another entity may have Uranus in a different sector of their chart or in different aspects to planets, so that the rebellion becomes more of violence or perhaps law-breaking or protesting, or as one who challenges authority in some other manner, and may not necessarily have anything to do with sexual perversion. This Awareness indicates it is this kind of thing that triggers homosexuality in the chart of an individual, in the environmental aspects of an individual's life, in circumstances in regard to his growing up. It has nothing to do with genetics, though one who is highly feminine in his genetics may think there is something wrong with him and may think that he is homosexual, and once accepting that suggestion may then move into expressions of homosexuality.

Sexual Orientation not Genetic--But is Chosen

This Awareness indicates entities can be what they want to be, or they can be influenced into being something, but they choose; they are not forced. This Awareness indicates there are very large numbers of feminine men in the world who are not homosexual. It has nothing to do with genetics or being born feminine. Likewise, there are a great number of masculine women who are not lesbian. It has nothing to do with their sexual orientation. The sexual orientation is chosen or is accepted when it is presented to them, either as a condition that someone attempts to put on them through suggestion, or as an option which they accept.

Homosexuals in Error to Claim "Privileges"

Sexual orientation is not something inherent. It is a chosen behavioral pattern, an accepted behavioral pattern, wherein the entity accepts a certain sexual orientation. This Awareness indicates for this reason, it is inaccurate for homosexuals to attempt to claim some kind of privilege which they equate to privileges given to other minority groups, such as handicapped or racial minorities, because these entities who are handicapped and those who have certain racial qualities in minority population to society have not chosen to have those handicaps or to be a minority.

A Minority by Choice Cannot be Treated as a Minority by Fact

This Awareness indicates that in the case of religion, this is a kind of chosen orientation, but it is chosen often by the parents, so that the child grows up being of a certain religious orientation and may find himself a minority. It is more difficult for such an entity to drop the religion or to have a choice, but even religious choices and orientation can be altered if the entity does not like the heat of prejudice by the society, and these claims of special privilege because someone wants special treatment for being a minority of choice, cannot be treated the same as those who are a minority by fact, thus the racial minority, in which race is imposed choicelessly upon an entity, should have greater weight than the minority whose views are opposite or opposed to the majority, in terms of political or religious or of social orientation, for these are not imposed upon the entity.

The entity who is handicapped, through birth defect, has no choice in the matter. These other actions, religion, political, sexual; these are from the individual's personal selection and choice, and if these receive special minority privileges, surely they are not on the same level as those of the handicapped person or the racial minority person. The protection for those entities needs to be much greater because there is nothing they can do to overcome their racial and handicapped condition, while the others have choice. It is a matter of behavior or selection.

What About Vegetarians? They're in the Minority!

The sexual orientation especially is a matter of behavior. It is likened unto realizing that if one grants sexual favors or privileges because one is homosexual, then what about the vegetarians? They're in the minority. Should they not also have special privileges? What about the fat people? The obese people; should they not have special privileges? What about the skinny people; the ultra-thins; should they not have special privileges? What about the excessively tall people? or the excessively short people? What about the lazy people, the ones who choose not to get up in the morning? What about that person whose occupational orientation is different from the majority?"

This Awareness indicates that these areas in which entities have choice cannot be treated with the same kind of favoritism that is accorded to those who are physically in the minority, or who cannot control or have dominion over their physical condition, or their skin color, height, or age. This Awareness indicates that there are many areas in society in which entities feel themselves to be victimized by society, but the laws of society can only protect certain rights and certain degrees and those minorities who genuinely need protection for things outside their own control should have the society's protection, but if one is prejudiced against a behavior, if one is prejudiced against a pattern of action which can be modified, does not that entity have some rights to be selective as to who he or she will work with?

This Awareness indicates that certain jobs require certain types and if entities begin objecting to every prejudice, it will not be long before the receptionist at the dentist's office will be a fat man puffing on a cigar. This Awareness indicates that the idea behind a receptionist is to create a pleasant atmosphere with a pleasant person who attracts you and makes you feel comfortable, therefore, the receptionist is of a certain type of person. It is the same for other jobs. The truck drivers generally are strong enough, big enough to lift the loads necessary and to handle the physical action necessary in driving the truck, therefore, certain types are selected for the occupation.

To start regulating that every job, and every individual and every action needs to be equal for everyone to participate in, creates all types of problems. What about the child who wants to drive the truck? Do children not have some rights just because they're in the minority, just because they're small? This Awareness indicates there are all kinds of ways that entities can argue, but it must be balanced, so that justice is logical in its application.

This Awareness indicates that homosexuality is that choice of an individual, and does not need to have special privilege. It is enough that entities are protected and allowed to have their orientation. The same with religion, wherein special privilege for different minority religions should not be provided, so long as the religions and the followers of the religion are protected, allowed to exist and function.

This Awareness remarks on these things because there is presently under way in certain states, efforts to provide special privileges for homosexuals, and this is out of line with justice, this being argued that these entities are minorities and need special assistance from the government to protect and to give them that special privilege which would allow their further expression. This Awareness understands this in regard to handicapped people and people who are racial minorities; that they need the kind of protection and in some cases, special privileges to balance out against the prejudism, but this is not the same.

Early Programming and Shock and Free Will

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

He had one other question. I think Awareness has answered this, but I'll read it. He writes: "In view of the main body of my first question regarding my sexuality and how it seemed to be the result of early programming and shock, I would love Awareness to address the human mind's acceptance of programming, directly after a shock, and how does a soul or the entity have free will or choice in these circumstances?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that entities do not necessarily have free will under any circumstances other than the will to select their attitude toward the circumstances. Any individual can reflect on his or her attitude and in so doing, may select a different attitude in regard to an event, and it is through that altering of attitudes that entities can undo programs, can change the programming. This Awareness indicates that it may require a repetition of re-examining the attitude repeatedly for some time to make sure the programming sticks, the reprogramming sticks.

The Principle Behind Reprogramming

This Awareness indicates that an entity can reprogram the mind by changing the attitude toward an event, but unless it is permanently accepted, this new attitude, the entity may slip back into the old attitude and the old programming then reasserts itself, therefore, entities must learn to repeatedly assert the new attitude toward an event in order to make sure the new programming sticks.

This Awareness indicates there is much more involved in reprogramming than can be answered in a simple statement, but basically, that is the principle behind reprogramming; that when reprogramming it is also beneficial to have a physical action to accompany the change in attitude. It is also beneficial to have words spoken that express that change in attitude.

Rolling the Eyes to Impress the Suggestions

This Awareness suggests that when one speaks the words, one may move in some way or roll the eyes in circular motion, one way, then the other, while the statement or affirmation is being spoken, and this helps set the new programming into the unconscious mind or subconscious mind. This Awareness indicates there are other techniques, but physical actions of some nature, along with verbal affirmation, and the change in attitude are the keys to reprogramming.

Homosexual Appetite: 1500 Partners a Year! (Does the Lust Carry Over From a Past Lifetime?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness, some time back I read some right-wing publications that were putting out information that the average homosexual had anywhere from 600 to as high as 1500 partners a year, and this seemed to me to be a physical impossibility and I discussed that question with an acquaintance of mine who is an admitted homosexual, and he said those figures are low, and I asked him: "How do you explain that? It's physically impossible!", and he said: In places like San Francisco where they have these bathhouses, he says through oral sex you could go through one partner every 5 minutes, and it occurred to me at that time the possible reasons why anybody would have an appetite like that, a lust like that, and the only way I could figure it out, was that it had to do with a past lifetime.

They carried this over from a lifetime where they were denied, possibly denied the sexual experience entirely, like living in a nunnery or as a priest, and they had these drives and they denied them, and when they passed over, the soul-stuff carried this memory because it was so intense, and in programming their next lifetime, they asked themselves if they would want to get into a situation where they could really vent these energies out in an unbridled way; and the only way, it seems to me, that this could occur would be through a homosexual type of entity who could go to places like these bathhouses. Is there any truth at all to that theory of mine?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in some cases this may have merit in regard to certain of the individuals; that in other cases it is simply the individuals getting caught into a pattern of behavior, peer group pressure and the acceptance of such activity as normal within their group, and therefore, they participate the way others are participating. This Awareness indicates it is not something that is psychologically understandable in terms of past-life causes. Many entities behave in ways that are not at all related to past-life causes, not only in this respect, but in other respects also.

What About Being "Trapped" Inside a Body?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness has indicated previously that many homosexuals are trapped in the body between life experiences, where they either came from being feminine or they were going to have the next experience in a female body.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is so in regard to many of these individuals, which creates a leaning toward or an affinity toward the same sex for some of these individuals.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So in a case like that one could not say that this was a conditioned response then, that this was more of a programmed response.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that an entity may have a leaning toward something which is still an aberration from what would be normal for the entity, and may follow that leaning even though the natural flow of the energy might without that environmental or conditioned episode, might let the entity move on past, even in spite of the leaning toward something.

Most Lesbians Were Raped by Father or Otherwise Violated

This Awareness indicates in other words, though one may move from male to a female body, from one life to another, that female body, in the next life, may have a leaning or attraction toward females, which is carried over from the masculine life previously, but the entity, being in a female body, will, if left naturally alone, gravitate toward the male; but if an event, such as being raped by one's father, or some other violation from a man, were to occur to this entity, the entity might totally revert toward affection to women.

This Awareness indicates that often those who become lesbian have been violated by men and cannot tolerate, cannot stand the masculine energy; likewise, many of those who are homosexual have a deep-seated hostility or fear of women and do not trust them, and these little incidences push the entity over into the leaning direction or into a direction that leads them toward homosexuality. It is often conditioned by certain episodes when the entity is not well-balanced sexually anyway.

The Role and Influence of Mother

QUESTION:

So many males it seems develop these characteristics while they're young, even before their early teens, according to my son, who ran into some when he was in school, and if one of the causes is a deep-seated hatred of women, as Awareness indicated, then about the only woman in their life would be their mother. Is it pretty common that because of the mother the male goes into this direction for some reason, or is this a karmic thing he has with her from a previous life!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this can be quite an influence; that every case cannot be summed up in some simplified rule-of-thumb or classed under certain types of behavioral patterns: there are different events. There is also that fact of the sexual energy asserting itself at a time when your only playmate is a male, when your only friend happens to be male. This Awareness indicates that can, in itself, lead to promiscuity and problems in this regard. This Awareness indicates that for some entities, this might not occur. For others, it might, depending on the depth of one's lust and the strength of one's self-discipline in regard to sexual energies, and depending on one's values and the conditioning which they have been instilled with.

Many Factors Involved That Influence Trend

There are no direct cause/effect relationships of such a simplified nature as to explain every case of homosexual behavior or even the major causes. There are many factors involved that can influence an individual simply because the entity is an individual, having individual urges, values, concepts, leanings and rebellion. Each individual has certain areas to which he or she rebels, for some it is in the sexual or social convention areas. For others it may be different entirely, and this can also have an effect.

If one is rebellious sexually, toward mother's values, the entity may rebel by becoming homosexual to shock the mother. There are many different ways; or the entity may do so to shock the father, or to shock the girlfriend, to get back at society, at someone. This Awareness indicates that it is not always that the entity was subjected to some traumatic experience. It can also be lust, revenge, or other types of motivation.

"I Was Born This Way. I Can't Help it!"

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

One of the most frequently heard statements from homosexuals on TV and in magazines and so on is: "I was born this way. There's nothing I can do about it. You must accept me for what I am." Is this a rationalization more or less. It just seems that if they want to change that lifestyle, that they can, if they want to make the effort. This statement is just a rationalization more or less, is it not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it would be about as addictive or difficult to change as for an entity to quit smoking or for an alcoholic to quit drinking. This Awareness indicates that it is not something that you are born with. The child born is not homosexual. The child born is a child born with no sexual drive whatsoever. The sexual orientation is that which comes about later.

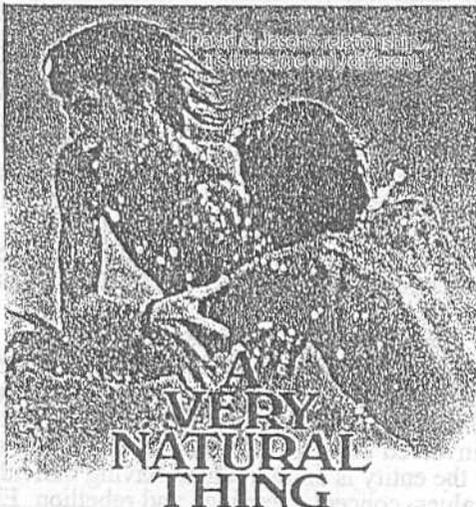

This Awareness indicates that it is not a genetic condition.

ED's Note: After this reading was transcribed, I sent a copy to James. A week later he canceled his membership with a note that stated that Cosmic Awareness was just too "homophobic."

Since 1989 when this reading was given, Awareness has indicated other things and other possibilities which contribute to homosexuality, such as certain hormones and additives in foods, the use of plastics which convert to estrogen, that diet can change genes, etc. In the reading that follows the true origin, the cosmic origin of homosexuality is given.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

THE RECONCILIATION OF YES AND NO

(Neutralizing Polarities to Avoid Conflicts)

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that It has suggested to entities that they practice the reconciliation of yes and no. This Awareness indicates this of course relates to the neutralizing of polarities. This Awareness indicates that It would suggest to entities that by neutralizing polarities, it will diminish the tendency to violence. The greater the differences, the greater the differences in attitudes of opposites and opposition, the greater the tendency to violence.

This Awareness indicates, however, that entities should also understand that the movement of polarities is an essential ingredient in the creation of matter. The Cayce readings pointed this out in the discussion of the entities prior to entering into physical form, playing with polarities and getting the polarities too exaggerated to the point where material realms came into existence.

This Awareness indicates that the need for polarity in material realms is obvious. You cannot have matter without the polarization of matter. The solidity, the stability of the various material elements that make up your material world depend on positive and negative forces and polarizations. This Awareness indicates that therefore, an entity needs to understand the place wherein polarity must be acknowledged and allowed and the place in which polarity may be diminished and neutralized.

Neutralizing a Polarity Can Often Avoid Conflict

This Awareness indicates that the neutralization of polarity in certain areas that have to do with emotional attachment as that which can defuse emotions that are dangerous or hazardous to the welfare of oneself or others, and in defusing these emotional opposites, an entity can neutralize a potential conflict.

This Awareness indicates that even here, there are exceptions, for it is occasionally necessary to recognize when an emotional energy has built a polarity that is destructive and whereby to deal with that emotional polarity that is of a destructive nature, one may need to create or to allow an opposition to build so that from that opposition, a reconciliation can gradually occur.

This Awareness indicates, for example, if a powerful force builds and there is no opposition and there is no equally powerful force to oppose that first force and if that first force begins to become oppressive to the weak, then the weak may be seen as the opposite of the powerful, and the extremes may be great in terms of the polarities, but to allow these forces to exist in such a manner can create tragedy for those who are of the weak force.

The Weak Can Polarize with Power to Create an Equal Force

This Awareness indicates that this, in accordance with those of a powerful force is a fine situation. This Awareness suggests, however, that those experiencing the weak force will not see this as something desirable. This Awareness indicates therefore, in such a situation, those of the weak force may find it necessary to polarize with power to create an equal power in opposition to the powerful force, so that there are two powerful forces opposed to one another, rather than a powerful force and a weak force.

This Awareness indicates that this being of course the way by which the weak might survive by becoming more powerful themselves if it is critical and necessary for their survival. This Awareness indicates in other words, a kind of powerful/weak reconciliation may actually take place, not by allowing the powerful to devour the weak, but by creating a greater power for the weak and defusing the power of the great.

This Awareness indicates that if one can take power from the aggressive force, one does not have to build so much power in the weaker force to neutralize or balance out that polarity, but if one cannot defuse the power of the greater force, then one must consider strengthening the power of the weaker force and thus, the balancing action can occur.

This Awareness indicates that once these two powers are more balanced, the potential for reconciliation is more highly motivated on each side. If that weaker force is not simply trying to grow stronger in order to dominate the originally powerful force, then the weaker force can help to strengthen itself, become equal in power to the dominant force and then negotiate for a disarmament or a reconciliation that allows both parties to let down their guard simultaneously so they do not have to remain in constant power alert.

This Awareness indicates when this occurs, there becomes a chance for negotiation, communication and reconciliation between these equally powerful forces. This Awareness indicates of course there is always the danger that these two powerful forces might lose control and move into conflict and wipe each other out with all of their power, but this Awareness indicates with reasonable attention, the forces can also defuse and negotiate and come to some kind of reconciliation so that peaceful energies can follow.

This Awareness indicates that there are many ways by which the concept of reconciliation of yes and no can be achieved and it is not necessarily achieved by one aspect of a conflict disarming itself or sacrificing itself to the other powerful aspect. In fact, it could simply serve to feed the greater power and make it even more powerfully dominant over so many other weak forces, and it might never lead to a reconciliation of the powerful and weak forces.

This Awareness indicates that this discussion as that which can be understood and applied to all aspects of conflict, not necessarily to any specific situation. This Awareness indicates that each specific situation may have its own unique nature and call forth for a solution that either uses principles discussed in this concept or may require some other aspect for the reconciliation of oppositions in that unique or specific situation.

Ed's Note: At the time this reading was given the CAC staff had two friends visiting from abroad and we invited them to sit in on the sessions and ask questions if they felt like doing so. These entities were Chris Lock, an Englishman teaching English in Japan and also the force behind SPIRAL Japan, and Will Burlinghof, an old friend from Canada who has been living in Germany and England for the last few years.

HOW TO GIVE IN ON A POINT WITHOUT SHOWING WEAKNESS

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (WILL):

Awareness, in conflict resolution, often one side has to give in on a point, which is considered a weakness and it is one reason why the major parties, for example, would not confer with one another. Is there a way to see that it is not a weakness, but rather a strength to give in on certain point?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it has been erroneously believed by many entities that when you have a strength you don't let your guard down, you don't give in, you hold out and parade your strength. This Awareness indicates that it should be more and more expressed and taught that a person that is strong, who is truly strong, is also one who can accept a degree of vulnerability.

A Strong Person can Absorb an Attack Without Using Force

This Awareness indicates that indeed, if you are truly strong, you do not have to have so much intensity in your guard against others who are weaker than yourself. This Awareness indicates that indeed, one should be able to be more vulnerable, to absorb an attack without having to rush to arms, to smash and conquer the weak attacker.

Indeed, a truly strong person, much like a father, who allows his children to jump on him, does not have to smash them in the face for doing so. He can simply go through the motions of playing with them. He is strong enough that their attacks do not really hurt him, and therefore, he can relate with them, or he can explain to them that they should not do this, they should not attack him, it is a poor policy; but he can do so gently, without hitting them with baseball bats or other weapons he may carry.

Excessive Force a Sign of a Bully

This Awareness indicates that a person who relies on power to answer his interpersonal relationships with weaker forces is indeed a bully, and bullies are actually cowards. They are not truly strong. They are very weak in character, if not in force. This Awareness indicates that the same may be said for nations or groups; that if an entity uses excessive force, force that is unnecessary, that entity shows cowardice and qualities that are reflective of weak character.

This Awareness indicates the entity who can deal with a powerful force by using very little energy to do so indicates an entity with great strength of character. Thus, for example, the being in the Tiananmen Square who stood before the tank and stopped the column of tanks from proceeding; in that instance displayed great strength of character, and showed himself to have more power than those who were in the column of tanks.

Tiananmen Square Will Forever be a Blight on China's History

This Awareness indicates that in the subsequent actions, wherein the tanks attacked unarmed people, ran over them, and squashed them underneath their tracks, these shows of force did not reveal strength of character, although it did reveal the power of the tank, the power of the machines held by weak leaders of poor character.

This Awareness indicates this will always be a blight on China's history, in reference to that regime.

QUESTION:(WILL):

Awareness, there seems to be a fine line of restraint, where often a weak party, in attempting to become more powerful, goes over that fine line and becomes the aggressor themselves.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is true.

How Can the Weak Become More Balanced?

QUESTION (WILL):

Is there a way that the weak can learn to be more balanced in their approach to power?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is a way for entities to learn, regardless of what their station in life may be, regardless of whether they are frustrated or not, but any entities must be willing to learn, and many times entities who are in a position in life are not really seeking to learn, they are seeking to carve a niche for themselves, to progress, even if at the expense of others.

Therefore, entities will no doubt always face this kind of situation wherein someone is trying to climb the ladder of success over the bodies and feelings and rights of others. This Awareness indicates that all this Awareness can suggest is that when entities become aware, they respect the rights and feelings and bodies of each other to the point where they are more concerned about the welfare of those than they are about their own greed and ambition.

This Awareness indicates that humanity's slow and relentless evolution toward the Divine Being that awaits their arrival is that which will eventually allow these entities to become aware enough to be satisfied without such great high conquests, without gaining at the expense of others, and without trampling on the rights of others for that gain.

This Awareness indicates there is no magic that teaches entities other than what they themselves are willing and ready to learn in regards to their respect and compassion for others. This Awareness indicates, however, when entities suffer, they may learn from their own suffering the nature of the suffering that others feel, and from that suffering and recognition that others also suffer, they may learn compassion, and from the understanding of compassion, they may be much more careful not to cause pain and suffering to others because they feel the compassion for those others, and do not wish to be the cause of that suffering.

This Awareness indicates, of course, there are some who enjoy seeing others suffer, and these entities have a long journey themselves before they evolve into the New Being of greater spiritual depth and sensitivity.

THE STATUS TODAY OF MASCULINE AND FEMINE IN CONSCIOUSNESS

( More on the Roots of Homosexuality )

QUESTION:

A question of Chris L. in Delaware. He asks: "What are the dynamics of masculine and feminine in collective consciousness at this point in time? Someone suggested to us that the masculine element has gone too far, and so must give way to the feminine now, but the masculine resents it and is reacting, creating more violence just now. Does Awareness see any validity to this?"

(The Story of Rhyee—the First Separateness)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this reflects back to that ancient concept of the Rhyee, the First Separateness. This First Separateness separated Itself and claimed importance because It became separate from the rest of consciousness. Anything separate is significant, and this separation saw Itself as being significant.

This has been referred to as the Lucifer or as the Rhyee, but think of It simply as the concept of Separateness personified. This Awareness indicates when the Rhyee or Separateness set forth, separating itself from the rest of consciousness, that may be equated to a male factor or male quality, the masculine quality.

When this occurred, the female or feminine aspect and quality was left behind to wait for the return of Rhyee. The Separateness went forth, did not return, and eventually the feminine quality, in other words, the rest of consciousness, chose to go forth and find that Separateness, the Rhyee, to bring It back into the collective consciousness.

The Separateness Experienced Intense Loneliness

This Awareness indicates that this Lucifer, or Rhyee, or masculine energy of separateness became more highly polarized and more separated than was appropriate. It also experienced intense loneliness, and yet it protected itself, because when one separates, one also needs some kind of protection that is lost when one separates from the rest, for the entity also needs to protect the separateness, the significance of self, the ego of self.

The Concept of Lucifer the False Ego—Vanity

This Awareness indicates that this separateness created the great false ego, which has been attributed to the concept of Lucifer, as vanity, wherein the Lucifer glorifies himself, sees himself as equal to the Divine or greater than the Divine Creator, and sees his own brightness and glowing light as being proof of his real significance.

This Awareness indicates that when one parades, basking in their own personal glory of separateness, one also experiences isolation and loneliness, and even though one can focus on their importance, they cannot ever really eradicate the feeling of loneliness, and they want to be with someone else, for what fun is it to be so wonderful in your own right, if there is no audience and no one to share in your glory.

This Awareness indicates therefore, the Rhyee gradually began to welcome the approach of the feminine or collective consciousness and in so doing, brought back a relationship. The collective consciousness, attempting to merge with and re-connect with the Rhyee, found the Rhyee trying to incorporate with the collective consciousness while still holding on to concepts of self-glory and separateness.

The Feminine Consciousness Repelled by the Vanity of Rhyee

In so doing, she was horrified, and felt obnoxiously repelled by this being. She could not find it in herself to embrace this vain and egotistical creation that had returned to her for comfort, because It wanted to be totally in charge, to rule and own her completely. This Awareness indicates therefore, the collective consciousness, the feminine consciousness, and the masculine consciousness, coming together, were incompatible.

Eventually the feminine consciousness said to her aspects: "We don't need this. We need love. We need compassion. We don't need domination!", and the Rhyee said "You are out of line! You have no rights other than those which are given to you by this, your true master!", and the feminine aspects united in such a way that it was questioned whether they even wanted Rhyee back in the fold, or whether he should go out again in his self-glory and isolation, to bask in his own light, in his own love for himself.

This Awareness indicates this is where many moved, and many yet remain. There are still others however, who have not moved so far from the collective consciousness, and who have chosen to return closer to the collective consciousness, expressing certain amounts of compassion, understanding, who want to learn what she has to teach.

This Awareness indicates there are many of those in the collective consciousness who want to teach and share their compassion with the red knights who have gone out in battle to conquer, to conquer themselves or to conquer each other, but who now no longer want to fight, to assert themselves so intensely, who want instead to embrace someone, and who are willing to give a little here, give of themselves, give of their energy to support, to care for and to express affection to someone they feel close to.

This Awareness indicates that these masculine forces are few in comparison to the number of masculine forces that are out there, and the feminine forces often feel isolated or left out of the banquet of love, and therefore, in some cases, they, in their feeling of isolation, take on similar qualities as the Rhyee, for they feel separate, they feel the separateness has been forced on them, has been pronounced as a curse upon them.

Seeking the Camaraderie of Rhyee: Men Trying to Mate with Men

In some cases they turn to one another. "If I can't have the man I dreamed of, I'll dream of the woman whom I understand and with whom I suffer!", and these men often feeling their self-importance is not recognized, seek not to return to the feminine force, but seek to mate with another of their own kind in a kind of camaraderie of Rhyees, seeking self-importance and power by merging with other men, and in so doing, they comfort each other in their quest for importance, in their quest for separateness, and in their conflict with the collective consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that these men, not necessarily willingly doing so, but by the nature of the situation, ease their loneliness caused by the separateness, by merging with each other. It is likened unto groups of Lucifer beings coming together to comfort each other, and these men seek companionship while still seeking to maintain their separateness and their sense of personal power.

This Awareness indicates that it is for this reason that many object to the unions of men, saying that they are not flowing with the natural energies of consciousness. This Awareness indicates that this may be true, and yet, in their own journey, in their own way, they are going out and coming back round-about through each other, and in the process they are often very creative, because in their separateness, and in their loneliness, they find motivation that drives them to seek to communicate to all of consciousness and their creative art often is the only avenue by which they can or do communicate with the rest of consciousness.

Through Creativity the Separateness Begins to Break Down

This Awareness indicates that this creativity is allowing them to have a sense of communication, a breakthrough from their walls of isolation so that gradually and slowly, they are coming back into collective consciousness from the aspects of separateness. This Awareness indicates that these separateness qualities or vibrations, which indeed are of extreme loneliness, the self-importance that comes with separateness is accompanied by loneliness, and as they learn to relate to each other, it begins to break down that separateness, even if it is not seen as the perfect rejoining with the collective consciousness.

In other words, a thousand masculine forces, each vying for separateness and self-importance in that separateness, carrying with them the qualities of loneliness that accompany the importance of separateness, lead these entities to unite and to rejoin and the separateness begins to break down and the power becomes less important and they begin to learn again how to relate to one another, and in time, they may find it possible to re-unite with the feminine energies of consciousness.

This Awareness indicates it will all occur in its own way, at its own pace, and entities need not condemn or attempt to force a speed-up of the process.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

It sounds like that separateness could be the roots of what they refer to as homosexuality. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is what was being discussed.

Is Man Now Moving into Balanced Energies?

(The New Being Will Appear When Energies are Balanced)

QUESTION (WILL):

Awareness, is this also why the New Age man, or the sensitive man of the Nineties seems to be moving toward a more balanced approach in his feminine and masculine energies?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This is the movement necessary for the masculine entities to reach that which has been termed the New Being. As they move into these balanced energies, the balance between the masculine and the feminine energies, the New Being begins to grow within each entity. This is the new spiritual being. This Awareness is not necessarily speaking of that new biological being which can refer to those half-breeds of the alien/ human hybrid types.

The Definition of the Masculine New Being

This Awareness has spoken before of the New Being in reference to a spiritual being that would emerge on this plane, and this New Being is the balance, the harmony that results from the masculine aspects re-uniting with the feminine aspects so that an entity can be a man or woman and yet have the qualities necessary for a balanced life in all other levels.

This Awareness indicates that essentially, the masculine qualities allow the entity to be aggressive and assertive enough to do things that are necessary for his functioning in the role that is chosen, particularly in terms of being a productive person, but who is also compassionate enough so as not to run rough-shod over others, so as not to violate others in his effort to accomplish his dreams.

The Definition of the Feminine New Being

For the feminine New Being, the role is to support and nurture those qualities or elements in her life that are important to her, whether it be a family, or some creative effort on her part, but her role is to nurture those things that she dedicates herself toward, and to do so with enough masculine assertiveness so as not to feel she has to wait for someone else to do it for her, and in so nurturing, she creates perhaps a family or creates something in this world that she can value and feel satisfied about.

Thus, she can assert a degree of masculine ambition and still be nurturing toward it and toward others around her. She is sensitive and caring. Above all, she is nurturing. The masculine energies, above all, are involved in doing something, and if in the expression of the New Being, the doing will not be of a destructive nature to others, but will construct and create something to benefit the rest of consciousness or others in the entity's society, whether that society is limited to oneself, one's family, or one's country, or the world, depends on what the entity is dedicated to.

This Awareness indicates some entities only have the ambition to help another person or an animal, another creature. Others may have the ambition to help a group, a culture, a nation, a city, or the entire world, or an entire species of beings. But whatever the New Being in a masculine body does, it will be something that is beneficial and compassionate for someone or some group, or some nation or species.

The feminine New Being will assert herself in a nurturing way to do things to nurture and help create the environment whereby those things she loves can grow and develop, to become the best they can be. This Awareness indicates essentially, it is the same thing, whether male or female, except that the female tends to work more through nurturing, and the male tends more to work through doing and directing.

The two of them when expressing as New Beings will have compassion and love for that which they work. The old ways allowed entities to manipulate or coerce. The old ways of the female was to manipulate and of the male was to coerce, to force, but these ways are those which begin to fade and die as the New Being asserts itself.

CAN THE CREATIVE SPARK BE ACTIVATED WITHOUT PAIN?

( More on How the Visionary Force Works )

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

In regard to frustration and suffering as in the creative drive, it seems the more content and comfortable you are, the less creative impetus or inspiration there is.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so.

QUESTION (CONTINUED):

Is there another inspiration that activates the creative spark that can kick in despite not being in pain?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is that which is the visionary force, whereby an entity sees what he or she would like to have brought into manifestation. In a way it is still a pain, because the entity is lacking something that the entity wants, and therefore, there is some pain involved, because you do not have what you want.

This Awareness indicates however, it is less painful than to be in a situation where things are truly unpleasant in your present situation, but it is true that the unpleasantness entities may experience, or the displeasure that entities may experience causes them or motivates them to do something about the displeasure.

If they are sitting on a peach seed in a ball-park, for example, in the bleachers, the obvious effort to change the displeasure would be to rise and move the peach seed or go sit somewhere else. Thus, the entity is motivated by the pain to do something about it. If an entity's pain is caused by a relationship that is constantly disrupting all enjoyment of life, the motivation is often too much to bear and the entity may seek to escape the relationship altogether, particularly if efforts to change the problems in the relationship are fruitless.

This Awareness indicates that entities can sometimes become ingenious about trying to overcome a difficulty or displeasure, or some need, and because entities have needs, they seek to find a way to cure the need, and many inventions are created because someone had a need and found a way to cure the need. The electric can-opener helped many entities who could not stand using the old fashioned can-opener. It was just too hard to turn, too hard to keep on the can.

The Importance of Chaos

This Awareness indicates that it is said that chaos is the mother of invention*. This is because chaos is usually quite painful. It is usually quite disturbing, and does not fulfill the needs of entities. This Awareness indicates therefore, entities, seeking to escape from a problem, seek a solution, and the solution often is a new invention, a new creation, or a new way of doing something.

*I always heard that "necessity" is the mother of invention. Ed.

This Awareness suggests that if you do not want your motivation to come from pain, the only other motivating factor is desire. These are the two factors of an emotional nature that motivate entities. If you want something, then it motivates you to do something about it. If you don't want something, it motivates you to do something about it. Thus, your motivation is either pain or desire.

Desire Requires a Vision of What You Want

This Awareness suggests therefore, in order to have desire, you must have some kind of vision of what you want. If you have a vision or desire, clarify it, see it and more toward it, and find a way by which you can contain it, step by step, if you can see all the steps in between your self and your goal, or desire, then you'll have that route by which you fulfill your desire and your motivation can carry you on that route and you can achieve what you want.

If you cannot see the steps between what you seek and what you presently experience, you will never reach that desire. Often entities see many steps, but see there are missing steps that they will need to bridge in order to complete the steps to their desire, and often work requires that all their focus and all their effort be pinpointed and worked in finding this solution, the key to that particular need in the steps that lead to their desire.

Edison's Desire to Create a Light Bulb

In the invention of the light-bulb, for example, it all came down to finding the right metal to infuse with the electric current; the metal that would not burn up too quickly, but would light enough to give off a glow throughout a room. If it was too heavy and too resistant, it would simply turn red and put out heat. If it was too thin or too easily conducting of the electricity, it would be too bright for too short a time and simply burn up.

After some nearly one thousand trial and error efforts, it was found that tungsten burnt just right. It would burn for months, or weeks or many, many hours, and give off just enough light to light a room. This Awareness indicates that you can see, the entity had most of the steps conquered in this invention, but one required an enormous amount of effort and research.

This Awareness indicates that this entity was driven by motivation of desire, and a goal. All desires of course are focused on a goal. Therefore, when you have a goal, you develop a desire and you must develop each step that will allow you to reach that desire or goal, and if there is a step that cannot be reached or bridged, then all of your focus will need to go on that particular step.

You cannot simply wish to be able to teleport. You must figure out all the steps necessary to teleport in order to develop a teleporting method or machine. This Awareness indicates that there are many entities who have desires that are pointless and can never be fulfilled. It does not wish to fool entities into thinking that all they have to do is focus on their desire and it will come true. This simply does not occur.

Some Efforts Appear Wasted but Create Something New

This Awareness indicates, however, there are always those things that happen for entities in what is an apparent haphazard manner, but the thing is, these are not necessarily without effort. They do not necessarily just happen by accident. An entity may work very hard for something, seeking to achieve something, and find it lost or unachievable.

All that energy that went in to this effort may appear to be wasted, but it may also go into this apparently wasted effort and come back around, and end up somewhere else, in such a way that it makes something entirely new occur, which the entity did not even work on, but all of a sudden it falls in his lap, and now there is a new situation that is equal or better than the first.

The entity will ask: "How did I get so lucky? How is it that I worked so hard on the other thing and nothing came, and suddenly I am handed this by some kind of cosmic luck?" This Awareness indicates that the energy that went into the first project which appeared futile in the end had no place to go, and went from there into that which appears to be luck.

This Awareness indicates this often happens to entities, and others may look at the entity and say "What a lucky person he was! He acquired that without even trying! It was just handed to him on a platter." This Awareness indicates that they do not know how hard he worked for that. They may never know, and he himself may never know how hard he worked for that.

COMFORT COMES FROM WORK

"Art is an Armchair in Which I Sit and Relax"

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (WILL):

It seems then Awareness, that comfort comes through work; that in a sense we can never experience comfort except through our own work, or the work of others. I'm reminded of a quotation by the artist Matisse, who said that "Art is an armchair in which I sit and relax." It seems like this is a statement of what he was working towards; that his art would enable him to do this and enable others also to achieve this comfort through his work.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a very keen insight, and extremely keen insight on your part in your statement: "Comfort comes from work." If you have noticed, entities who are afraid to work always live in great lack of comfort. This Awareness indicates that those who work feel the discomfort of the work quite frequently, and yet, they have comfort in other areas of their lives, and if they can work with an attitude of enjoyment, they have the best of both worlds, for they can work and enjoy it or accept it without resistance and still receive the comfort that comes from the work.

Too Many Entities Work Hard to Avoid Work

This Awareness indicates that there have been too many entities during the past few decades who view work as a curse, and will do whatever they can to avoid work, and they will work hard to avoid work. They will probably put out as much energy or more than they would if they would simply work, and many of these entities get into criminal activity thinking they can get something for nothing, and they get something for something, and the something they get is not what they wanted, and the something they gave, was not something others wanted.

Cosmic Awareness Discusses the Work Ethic

This Awareness indicates that the work ethic has not been discussed greatly by this Awareness in these past years. It has been taken for granted that work is a valuable commodity that entities should recognize and understand, but this Awareness recognizes also that there is a large segment of society that spends most of its effort seeking to avoid work or to capitalize on the work of others without expending of their own.

This Awareness indicates that it just doesn't work this way. Entities have to put out energy to acquire anything and most often, if you try to avoid working, you end up working hard in your effort to avoid work; and instead of being rewarded, you may be punished, for as you take something that doesn't belong to you, you get punished, one way or another.

Street Gangs, Drug Dealers etc. Will Pay a High Price

This Awareness indicates that's the way it works, and those who do not understand this yet, will sooner or later find out. This Awareness indicates the street gangs, those entities dealing in drugs, entities involved in fraudulent activities all have the wish to get something for nothing, or for very little, but in the end, they will get very little and may pay a very high price.

This Awareness indicates it does not matter that they might for a short time receive vast amounts of money, that an extremely large amount of money may take them out of their momentary poverty, but it does not bring them the contentment and happiness they seek, and in the end will be taken from them, perhaps along with their life, or happiness, or both.

Not Sad so No Songs Come to Vikki

QUESTION (VIKKI):

I find song-writing to be very satisfying, but there seem to be emotional crises before song inspirations come to me, and now I feel sort of sad that there may not be further songs coming.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wonders what is the question. Are you seeking more emotional sadness in order to be inspired?

QUESTIONER:

I'm wondering if there will be more creative inspirations without such emotional ups and downs?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that when sadness motivates one to write songs, those songs reflect the sadness the entity felt. When an entity is happy, when an entity finds inner peace and joy, why not use that happiness to motivate you to write a song expressing your inner peace and joy?

You can use any kind of emotion as stimulus for song-writing or for poetry or for other artistic expression. It does not have to come from sorrow though sorrow often seeks release through artistic expression.

Are Homosexuals Less Active and More Nurturing by Nature?

QUESTION: (CHRIS)

Awareness, going back to male/female aspects, I have a question in regard to homosexuals, of either sex. The question is in two parts. The first part is: In the case of homosexuals, are they biologically predisposed to be less active and more nurturing by nature, or is their homosexuality purely to habit of thought and action?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests you repeat the last sentence.

CHRIS:

Or is their homosexuality due purely to habit of thought and action? In other words, is it just a pattern of thought and action which is responsible for their homosexuality rather than a biological predisposition?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Genetic Code Can Change if Attitudes Change

This Awareness indicates that there is a link between entities' thoughts and their genes, or genetic codes, whereby an entity can actually alter the genetic code in their chromosomes over a period of time, when an entity's attitude changes from one that has been fixed toward another fixed attitude.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, even the lines on one's hands have been found to change after an operation; this in reference to a physical operation in a hospital has occurred, and entities' marks on the hand for example, suggesting death at a certain age, might alter because an operation assisted the entity to overcome a heart defect or whatever the operation corrected.

Homosexual Lifestyle Causes Chromosome Changes

This Awareness indicates that as it occurs on the palm of the hand, likewise, there can be changes in the genetic coding in the chromosomes, and entities who embrace a homosexual lifestyle may cause chromosome changes that reflect the embracing of that lifestyle, so an examination of the chromosomes may find similarities between homosexuals and it may be interpreted as a marker in the genes that show the entity is homosexual, or has a tendency toward homosexuality.

This Awareness indicates that the tendencies also can work in other directions whereby an entity may inherit some homosexual genetic markers, but the entity is not destined to become homosexual just because of those markers. This Awareness indicates that environment in this regard and experience in terms of how the entity faced those things in his or her environment and dealt with those things in his or her environment play a major role.

Environment is 75% Cause of Homosexual Lifestyle

It is seen as being approximately 75% of the cause and influence contributing to homosexual lifestyles; that heredity and genetics may play approximately 25%. This is in reference to an average, not necessarily to every individual. This Awareness indicates there are of course certain individuals whose karmic energies may influence them toward a homosexual lifestyle.

Those Who Feel Trapped in Their Bodies

For example, the entity may be in transition from several male bodies, or lifetimes, whereby he begins between lives to switch toward being a female and is born a female with masculine qualities, and the entity finds it difficult to be attracted to men, because he has been a man, "she" has been a man, for several lifetimes, and still feels attraction toward women.

If the entity finds herself locked in a feminine body, but still having the emotions of man, she may continue naturally feeling attracted to women throughout childhood and adulthood. This Awareness indicates it is likewise similar for some men who have been feminine in previous lifetimes, but suddenly find themselves in a masculine body.

This Awareness indicates that there are also factors involved relating to broken families, wherein a young body, for example, may have no father influence, and having no father influence, may be too attached to his mother, and as he gets older, he may seek male companionship as a substitute for not having had a father and may become unconsciously attracted to men, while at the same time feeling having grown from childhood with only a mother may feel a kind of attraction to her that causes him subconsciously to feel uncomfortable.

The Influence of Mother in Creating Homosexuals

This Awareness indicates that this may instill, for example, in his consciousness, an equating of all women to his mother, and make him feel that it is improper to have sexual relationships with women. This Awareness indicates that if he personalizes and internalizes certain feelings, it can effect an attitude that might develop into homosexual tendencies.

This is not to say that this is a common motivator, but it is simply an example of how certain circumstances in an entity's life can affect their attitude and lead to a different lifestyle from the norm.

CHRIS:

I think the second part of the question was answered.

(AVATON)

Will, did you have a question.

(WILL):

No. Not on this subject.

(AVATON):

It's time to bring him up. (Thank you) Does Awareness have a closing message?

Learn to Identify Polarized Energies

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that entities need to become more attentive to energies that are polarized, not that they should polarize, but that they should spend some time paying more attention to polarized energies, learning to spot them, learning to define where they are in various situations, learning who is polarized, about what, including of course themselves, and not make any judgment or necessarily trying to do anything about the polarity, and especially not of accusing someone of being polarized, but simply observing, so that they may learn and become more aware of how polarities influence and affect situations around them.

Most entities do not pay much attention to polarizations. If they were to pay more attention to these emotional polarizations, they would be surprised at how powerful this concept is in terms of its influence on situations. This Awareness indicates of course, there is the physical polarization which is also necessary for good health. When one's polarized energies in the physical body get disrupted and the polarities break down, often the body becomes weakened. This is a different matter which can be researched in terms of Oriental health systems and this Awareness does not intend to go into this, other than to make a note that physical polarity is not the same as emotional polarity, and that this Awareness speaks of emotional polarity and mental polarity in regard to reconciling the yes and no, in order to diminish these extremes of polarity that can be hazardous to one's well-being.

This Awareness indicates of course, as stated before, there are times when it becomes beneficial to polarize something emotionally, in order to bring focus upon something that has developed a polarization in a wrong direction. Thus, if you see something that has been excessively polarized in a wrong direction, wherein there is a chronic problem based on some polarized attitude or opinion or behavior and you can polarize yourself in a position to stand in opposition to that and perhaps break down that polarized opinion, it can be helpful in the healing process.

A Concrete Example of Creating a Polarity

This Awareness indicates a concrete example as that wherein an entity may label another person as being such and such, for example, to say someone is a "paranoid schizophrenic" and to label that person with no one arguing against that position, creates a polarity. This Awareness indicates if that position remains and the person repeats that statement and label over and over, it is not long until everyone begins to think "It must be true because no one says it isn't true, and this person seems to know what he or she is speaking of, so this person must be a paranoid schizophrenic!", and that label can become very devastating to the entity in terms of his or her relationships.

This Awareness indicates how do you reconcile a yes and no when there is only a yes? There is the "Yes! This person is a paranoid schizophrenic!" Perhaps it is time for someone to create a "no." "No! This person is not schizophrenic, exhibits no signs of schizophrenia. And no! I do not see the person as being paranoid!", and putting that statement out may be just enough opposition or polarity from an opposite side, to help start a reconciliation.

This Awareness indicates that this may be very helpful to that person who has thus been falsely labeled or at least it could start a dialogue so that entities could change or examine their opinions. This Awareness indicates that indeed, this occurred, and the entity when told: "I do not see this person as being schizophrenic. He has never appeared to have two personalities in all the time I have seen him!" The person who had labeled the entity said: "Well, he's been paranoid, and I just threw in schizophrenia, because they tend to go together. When people speak of paranoia, they always throw in the word "schizophrenia."

This Awareness indicates obviously, the entity did not even understand the term "paranoid schizophrenia" and was simply using the label because that is the way it had been heard previously. She perhaps saw paranoia, and threw in the word schizophrenia, because they go together, like husband and wife. This Awareness indicates that the entity then focused on the words paranoia, and defined it as unfounded fear, and asked the entity: "How do you know his fear was unfounded?" The entity responded: "well, I don't know, but it was very obvious that he was always afraid of something!"

The entity then replied: "well, I've always been afraid of something too!" The response was: "Yes, but you're not always fixated on it!" The question then was: "How do you know that he was not fixated on it because it was a true and valid fear?" "Well, I really don't know because I don't know him that well, but he seemed like a paranoid schizophrenic to me!" This Awareness indicates that eventually the entity admitted that she did not really know whether he was a paranoid schizophrenic, but what difference does it make?

Why Putting a Label on Someone is an Error

Well, it does make a difference, because when you label someone and others hear that label, they may not have the energy to think about it. Most people listen to each other's words without thinking about them, and there could be many people then who go around with the same opinion. They heard it somewhere and they repeat it, and before long, this entity is labeled as insane, and it can become even worse. They can refer to them as paranoid schizophrenia, and someone can say "He's real psychotic!" Now, who knows what "psychotic" means among these entities who banter words about without knowing their meanings?

Before long someone says "He's dangerous!", and perhaps later people make up stories about what he's done, or what they think he's done. And all of this begins simply because someone noticed that the entity had a fear that she didn't think was valid. This Awareness indicates that you can see when it might be necessary in some situations to set up a polarity to counter something that is improper, a force that is improper. The yes and no are not always found together.

How to Create a Yes and No That can be Reconciled

Sometimes there is a yes, or sometimes there is a no. The no may say: "No! You can't have anything to eat, because you ate just last week!" well, don't you think it's about time someone said: "Yes! You should eat something if you haven't eaten since last week!?" This Awareness indicates you then create a yes and no that can be reconciled. Otherwise, you simply have a dictatorship that says "No!"

This Awareness indicates that It hopes this clarifies the exception to the rule of reconciling yes and no. The exception being that sometimes you have to polarize in order to find yes and no to reconcile.

(The Law of Gratitude is given.)

"Whatever man soweth, that shall he reap. If he soweth trouble, trouble shall be his harvest. If a man sows poison, he cannot expect ambrosia."

(Excerpt from CAC General Reading # 9-6-95)

Claims Against the Federal Reserve: An Update

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates the claims issue is still not seen as having been completed or resolved, though things have been moving forward. This Awareness indicates there are some reports that a solution or settlement was reached in the Colorado courts, however this Awareness does not see this as official or confirmable.

This Awareness indicates that there have been some rulings that have been favorable, and there have been directives for entities who have mild claims that these may be processed. This Awareness indicates that this as you may recall; these claims were cut off in late December with the instruction that no more claims would be taken until the court had settled the issues involved.

This Awareness indicates however, there have been directives given that the claims can be processed, and there have been claims that have been processed. This Awareness indicates that this does not mean that the claims have been paid as yet. This Awareness indicates that these claims will not be paid until directed or ordered from the officials and when the courts have settled all of the issues involved.

This Awareness indicates of course there are still efforts on the parts of the international bankers to prevent this from happening, however things have been going favorably for these entities. There are also some high officials in the US government that are participating in helping the movement of these claims and the court proceedings.

This Awareness indicates that there has been some blackout of information, particularly for those in the state of Michigan, and these entities are being kept from receiving information, partly because of the Attorney General there and the court proceedings in that area. This Awareness indicates that it does appear to be nearing a legal conclusion. This Awareness does not see this as being within any immediate near future, but within months it should have concluded, providing things continue on course.

This Awareness indicates that at this time no more claims are being taken, nor will they be taken until the legal issues are resolved. This Awareness indicates thereafter, another opportunity for entities will be provided to make claims against the Federal Reserve Bank.

This Awareness indicates that the Petition of Grievances which has been presented to Congress has continued to be pushed for Congressional review. This Awareness indicates there are attempts to distort and alter the issues so as to defuse the potency of this effort.

Patriots' Petition Behind Gingrich's "Contract with America"

This Awareness indicates that until Congress is back into full review of this, there is little to report in this regard either. This Awareness indicates that many of the issues in the so-called "Contract With America" being presented by certain Republicans have been taken from these Patriot efforts to restore the country to its Constitutional claims.

This Awareness indicates that much of this has been distorted to the point where it tends to defuse the Patriot efforts. This Awareness indicates there is also a concern regarding an attempt in early October to have a Constitutional Amendment. This Awareness indicates that it is something for entities to watch if it does occur.

Beware of "Constitutional Amendments"

A Constitutional Amendment can be very dangerous to freedoms, depending on who is behind it, what they are attempting to do, how they may manipulate the changes or amendments to the Constitution, and therefore, entities do need to be aware of these efforts to change the Constitution and what kind of changes are being proposed.

It is likened unto when an entity forms a contract with a corporation and then the corporation talks about changing the contract after it has been agreed upon and the entity has accepted the contract. The corporation now seeks to alter the contract. It is something for entities to be very attentive to. You do not simply say, "Oh! You're going to change the contract! Okay!" You watch to see what changes are being proposed and object to anything that does not appear to be to your benefit.

This Awareness indicates likewise, the American people who have a contract known as the Constitution must protect themselves and their contract unless that contract infringes on their rights and is being changed to better their freedoms. This Awareness indicates in all likelihood, any change to the contract or Constitution will not be initiated from the attitude of giving people more freedoms and rights, but of taking away freedoms and rights, and therefore entities must be very watchful when anyone speaks of tampering with their contract known as the Constitution.

It We Let it Happen, We are Guilty of Great Crime

This Awareness indicates that freedom requires that entities constantly be vigilant, very watchful of what is being done by those who would deny entities freedom. Remember that freedom and liberty did not come cheap and that many entities gave their lives for your present freedom and liberty and to let these concepts and their results slip away is not only a crime to yourself and to the future generations, it is also a crime to those who have given their lives for your freedom and liberties.

This Awareness indicates that it can happen if you are lulled into sleep or complacency. Too many people trust officials. It is quite possible for entities to have an official capacity and to go for years being trustworthy, and then suddenly do something that betrays what they have been entrusted to do.

This happens continuously in businesses, where a trusted employee is put in a position of responsibility in which certain assets of the company are entrusted to this entity's care and suddenly the entity is embezzling or otherwise absconding with the assets of a company.

This Awareness indicates as it happens in businesses, it also happens in governments wherein government officials can be trustworthy until they feel they have the power to do whatever they want, at which time corruption often begins to surface.

The Randy Weaver Hearings in Congress

This Awareness indicates there is now occurring the Randy Weaver hearings relating to the FBI and its violations of his homestead and the killing of his wife and child. The entities involved in that action never imagined that they would be held accountable before the nation for their violation to this entity's home. They were only concerned about getting his weapons out of his home and the approach in doing this job was secondary to the results they sought.

This Awareness indicates it is much the same with many of the projects or efforts of those who have nearly unlimited power. When they have a goal, they pursue the goal without necessarily giving as much attention to the propriety of the action. Is it truly proper? Does it matter? 'Just do it!' That becomes the approach for those who hold power that is unchecked.

It's Up to the People to Police the POLICE

This Awareness indicates that it is important for a people of a country to be the police for the misuse of power. If the police representatives who are hired to protect the people misuse their power, then the people must police the police. This Awareness indicates that freedoms and rights cannot be entrusted to your representatives without some possible repercussions to those representatives if they fail to act properly in their duties to the people.

This Awareness reminds you that theoretically, it is a government by the people and for the people. It can only be factual as opposed to theoretical if the people take their proper place in directing the government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

This Awareness indicates this is enough said on this topic; that the questions may be asked.

Phony Money Orders in the Patriot Movement?

QUESTION:

Back in May and June there was a flurry of stories in the newspaper about how the militia was tied to money-order scams and the use of bogus money-orders. I'll read a little bit of one of these from the Arizona Republic dated May 25, 1995.

"Citizen militia and government protesters around the country are attempting to cash millions of dollars worth of hand-crafted money-orders. They contend that the money orders are backed by funds the U.S. government was forced to deposit in a Montana bank, but bank officials and law enforcement authorities say that claim is as bogus as the money-orders.

"An Arizona militia activist Stephen Gehring, of Payson was arrested Tuesday and accused of trying to use one of the money orders to post $250,000.00 bail for a man charged with a sex crime. He also is accused of offering two bogus drafts totaling $18,240.00 to pay his past-due property taxes in Gila County in March.

Also, on Tuesday, in Western Montana, tax-protester, Paul Kuball of Borup, Minn, submitted a "Banker's Check" for $85,674.00 to pay $37,863.00 in back taxes. Kuball demanded that the Clay County treasurer give him $47,811.00 change. The Treasurer refused.

Similar money orders and bankers checks have appeared in California, Texas, Washington, Wyoming, Colorado, Indiana, Washington, D.C.

The FBI is investigating the scheme and banks in the Rocky Mountain region have been alerted to watch for the "attempted negotiations of worthless instruments."

One person tried to buy several million dollars worth of U.S. Treasury Bonds with a bogus check and a California man attempted to pay off a $200,000.00 Farmer's Home Administration loan with one.

"Authorities said that in March, the mayor of Cascade, Montana, Tom Klock, tried to deposit $20 million in bogus money orders in his bank account, saying it was part of his effort to proclaim the town a haven for "free men." Klock was charged with criminal syndicalism and has been suspended from office pending the outcome of his trial.

Each home-made bank draft uses dollar signs for borders, contains references to the Coinage Act of 1792 and Uniform Commercial Code, and lists an account number at the Northwest Bank in Butte, Montana. They also bear one or more signatures of long-time government protesters LeRoy Schweitzer, Rodney Skurdal, William Stanton and Daniel Peterson, all of Montana. Authorities say Schweitzer is the ringleader.

Northwest Bank President Bruce Parker said that the number printed on the money orders is for a closed account and that none of those men ever had signatory authority when it was open.

Here's the legal theory under which the protesters are operating:

Nearly three years ago, Schweitzer, Skurdal, Stanton and Peterson filed commercial liens totaling $1.8 billion against three Montana Counties, the state of Montana and the U.S. government, saying the money was owed for various offenses against their personal sovereignty.

The courts, they said, would not provide relief because they are run by Freemasons and the Sisters of Satan.

By failing to respond to the liens, the governmental bodies were in default. That, in turn, obligated the U.S. Postal Service to pay the liens because the Postal Service under the War Powers Act, is also the Comptroller of the Currency.

The men, all of whom have various criminal charges pending against them, instructed the government to deposit the funds in the Butte bank, and they began issuing money orders for various uses by their followers in the patriot movement."

Anyway, it's a long article, and about that time, there were numerous accounts, even in the local and Seattle papers of people using these money-orders, and some actually getting them cashed. My question: Is this a scam as the paper would imply, or could this be one of the payoffs of the long-awaited payoff from the suit against the Federal Reserve? That they indeed have deposited that money, or part of it, in this Montana bank and these money orders maybe are actually being accepted, but it's being kept quiet in public? Is there anything to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this does not appear to be related to the claims issues related to the Federal Reserve Bank as tried in the Colorado courts. This Awareness indicates, however, that this activity is based on some legal reasoning that has a certain soundness, a certain logical basis, much in the same way that the Federal Reserve Bank and all of the banks that operate under the Federal Reserve Bank have their certain form of reasoning and logic for their operation.

The Federal Reserve—the Mother of All Money Scams

This Awareness indicates that much of the Patriot movement studies what has occurred with the Federal Reserve Bank and some of these entities who are well-versed in studying the money situation come up with schemes that are the mirror-image of the banking scam which operates in this country and around the world. It is the mother of all money scams.

This Awareness indicates that they do not refer to themselves as scamming, but essentially it is the same thing, and when someone else mirrors their activity, they are presented as "scam artists."

This Awareness indicates essentially, the Federal Reserve Bank was given permission illegally through the Federal Reserve Act, which itself was illegal to begin with, to print bank notes that represented, for the Federal Reserve Bank, a kind of I. O. U., much the same way that in the Twenties and Thirties, very small banks in different towns were able to create bank notes on their own bank or whereby a company could create its own credit note to allow entities who worked for the company to buy from the company store.

Federal Reserve Notes are NOT U.S. Currency

These are much the same kind of notes, or based on the same principle as the Federal Reserve Notes. The Federal Reserve Notes are not U.S. currency. U.S. currency, by the Constitution, is the U.S. dollar, and the U.S. dollar is by Constitutional definition, backed by precious metal. This Awareness indicates the U.S. Treasury Note is representative of the United States government and it was backed by precious metal, but the Federal Reserve Note is backed only by faith in the U.S. government and it is backed by faith alone.

There is no monetary backing for a Federal Reserve Note, it is simply a bank note equal to an I.O.U. note that someone might write to someone else. The thinking of the Patriot groups, this in reference to individuals who think about these things and come up with certain ideas, is that if the Federal Reserve Bank can create notes out of thin air based only on their partnership with the Treasury Department who have these notes printed for them, why can't you and I do the same thing?

Why are these bankers any more privileged as citizens than are we, when in fact they are indeed foreigners rather than American citizens? The Federal Reserve Bank owners are almost exclusively foreign entities who have an agreement with the Treasury Department to print up Federal Reserve Notes which they in turn loan to the U.S. government and the U.S. government in turn is obligated to pay back to them, along with any interest being charged, but the Federal Reserve Bank, when asking the Treasury Department to print up notes for it, pays nothing to the Treasury Department, nor does it pay interest to the Treasury Department for money that is being given to the Federal Reserve Bank.

It should be the other way around. The Treasury Department should loan the Federal Reserve Bank the trillions of dollars it printed over the last 70 or 80 years at interest. The Federal Reserve Bank should have to pay interest on money that has been loaned to it from the U.S. Treasury, but this illegal Federal Reserve Act permitted the Federal Reserve Bank to receive these notes free of charge and to be used in lieu of U.S. Treasury Notes. U.S. Treasury Notes are not even in use, because the Federal Reserve provides so much of a quantity of Treasury Notes that this has become accepted as United States money. This is socially accepted, even if not Constitutionally acceptable.

A World-Wide Monetary Scam Run by 13 Foreign Families

This Awareness indicates that this is the mother of all monetary scams, and it has grown to become a world-wide scam involving 13 families* who own the Federal Reserve Bank in the United States and its many different banks around the world. This Awareness indicates the Patriots see this as a criminal scam that everyone accepts, and which the police and the Justice Department enforces in behalf of these bankers, and they see it as totally unfair. They have taken away the rights and the money and earnings of the American citizens.

*Families who own the Federal Reserve Banks: Rothschilds of France and England; Kuhn, Loeb, Lehman, Sachs, Warburg, Lazard brothers, Israel Moses Seaf, Goldman, Jacob Schiff, J.P. Morgan, J. Henry Schroder and the Rockefellers. (Most are Europeans, all are Jews. This is why the Patriots are labeled by the media as "anti-Semitic" because they speak of a "Jewish Conspiracy" in the international banking business.) Awareness, of course, has explained these entities are Zionists, Khazars out of Russia who are not really Jews, but hide beneath the name of Jews. These entities originally out of Orion where the money system was created to conquer planets for the "Unholy Six" and ours is next. Ed.

This Awareness indicates that these entities also look at this and see certain aspects of how they, the Federal Reserve Bank have cheated even further within their own way of doing things. For example, a bank can have one million dollars in assets, but with that one million dollars it can write loans of ten million or more. And when the loans are paid back, it may have ten million dollars in assets, with which it can write a hundred million in loans.

Thus, a ten percent or whatever the fractional amount is at the time, is the fraction of what the bank has to have in order to loan enormously greater amounts of money so the patriots' reason: "If I put a million dollars into my bank, why can't I write money orders against my one million or notes against my one million dollars in an amount of ten million, in the same way that the banks do? Why should they have more rights than I? Isn't everyone equal under the law?"

Therefore, some of these entities will write money orders after having placed a large amount of money in their bank, they will create money orders that are redeemable against their assets in such a way that when they present the money orders as something that can be used by farmers or others to redeem their farms from the bank mortgages, they see themselves as using the same principle as the banking system, but as using them to help people, rather than to rob them of their life savings. Therefore, they will offer someone a money order for three thousand dollars to pay a debt and they may charge three hundred dollars for the three thousand dollar money order which they put into their bank account, which boosts the amount which they can then write new money orders from. This Awareness indicates using the same principle as the bankers, they are in effect creating a mini-bank based on money they have in their own banks.

This Awareness indicates that these entities have for some time been able to do this, but eventually someone gets one of the money orders and questions it, calls the bank that backs the money order and finds it belongs to a certain entity, and becomes suspicious that perhaps the entity will not pay the money order and eventually, with enough investigation and questioning, entities begin to catch on that this is a kind of one-person scam in which an entity only has a million dollars, but may have more than a million dollars worth of money orders based on his organization, business or name of his company.

Therefore it must be fraudulent and entities do not accept the money order and force the one who gave the money order to take back their fraudulent money order and produce real money, and it usually makes the news at that point, that someone is trying to scam people with money orders that are worthless.

This Awareness indicates this of course is something that the Federal Reserve Bank encourages, when the stories are made available through print it discourages entities from working with these people and labels them as con-artists, and therefore, it restores the strength of the Federal Reserve Banking system and its monetary policies and programs and discourages anyone else from trying to do the same.

This Awareness indicates that in fact there may even be people arrested and jailed for such activities, which is even further support for the Federal Reserve Bank and its Mother of All Scams. This Awareness indicates that essentially this is a very rough definition of what has occurred among these Patriot groups and these activities, but essentially this is the basic reasoning behind these so-called phony money order programs and scams.

This Awareness indicates they do take on different characteristics, according to who is behind each individual type of scam, if that is the word. The word "scam" usually means it is bogus and phony, but it is usually aimed at the small organization or individual and is seldom placed as a label on the likes of the Federal Reserve Bank, which is the originator of the scam and the group that has taken it to its ultimate expression, and which has the enforcement power that the small entities and organizations lack.

The Illegal Federal Reserve Controls all the Enforcement Power.

Keep in mind, that whoever has the enforcement power determines whether something is legal or not. This Awareness indicates in other words, if the Federal Reserve Bank has a big enough army, who is going to say it is operating illegally? And with that kind of monetary control and power, it can have as big an army as it wants and who can compete? It also can have the justice that it is able to buy, and who can compete in terms of justice controls?

This Awareness indicates essentially, the Patriot groups are simply small organizations of people who are becoming aware of the scams being perpetrated by the 13 foreign families that own the monetary system of the world, who took control illegally, and these small organizations of Patriots are chipping away at this giant Trojan Horse that was planted in your midst to take over your country, your freedoms, your monetary systems and your very lives.

It Must Start Somewhere. It's a Dirty Job but Someone has to do it

This Awareness indicates the Patriot groups recognize that they are fighting a Goliath and have little chance of winning, but that someone has to do it, and they have to become more intelligent in order to compete with less than is available to them, for they have far less to work with and therefore must be more clever, more intelligent than their adversary who has great power, unlimited-power, unlimited wealth, unlimited control of law behind them.

This Awareness indicates essentially the Patriot movement leans heavily toward God and Constitution. They lean to the Constitution because it is the law of the land, even though it is not recognized by the powers of the international banking system which controls so much of the country. They lean to God because they need enormous amounts of faith and they see God as being even more powerful than the monetary control, the control of armies and the control of legislative and lobbying power, the ability to make laws.

These they see as being inferior to the Laws of God and the Laws of Righteousness. Therefore, they lean to God and Constitution for their source of power and strength.

ED's Note: The entities mentioned in this readings are the same ones under siege in Montana by the same government agencies that slaughtered the women and children at Waco and at Ruby Ridge. Even though the government admits the "crimes" committed by these Patriots in creating their own money are considered "White Collar crimes." it still sends armies of heavily armed sycophantic cretins to arrest them, to wait them out, and to slaughter them all if necessary. Allegations of torture have been made by relatives of Leroy Schweitzer who was captured when he went to assist an FBI agent who said his car was stuck in the snow. His daughter, Brandie Schweitzer posted an impassioned plea for help in an affidavit over the Internet: "My Dad Has Been Tortured!" after she was finally allowed to see him in prison. (The international bankers must be shouting with glee, Indeed).

HOW TO GET RELIEF FROM SHINGLES

QUESTION:

A question from K.P. in New England.. He writes: "I'm in an urgent need of a cure for my shingles, Herpes Zoster virus. Have been taking Vitamin A, 5 to 10 grams; Vitamin C, extracts of Echinacea, goldenseal and thistle, and have begun taking tea in capsules of Thyme herb, but no effects noticed yet."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is benefit from using powdered aspirin mixed with Vaseline as a topical application; this as a treatment for the symptoms. This Awareness indicates also that internal use of lemon appears to be beneficial, using lemon in all ways: as lemonade as a drink, or lemon pie; anything wherein lemon is absorbed can be helpful.

This Awareness suggests also that Beta-Carotene, particularly in liquid drops in high amounts, not the fish oil Vitamin A, but Beta Carotene type of Vitamin A in extremely large amounts is seen as being beneficial. This Awareness indicates that there is also seen a benefit in the use of...the name of the substance is not becoming clear; that this Awareness asks for a pause, while It focuses and looks for the name of this substance. [brief pause]

This Awareness indicates this as lecithin. The use of lecithin as that which can be helpful, as it can help to coat the nerves close to the skin. This Awareness indicates also honey and aloe vera mixture as a topical application can be beneficial in helping to treat the symptoms. This Awareness indicates that viruses cannot live in a high oxygen environment and therefore, antioxidants can be beneficial.

This Awareness suggests that pycnogenol as that which can be of great benefit. This Awareness indicates the pycnogenol made from the grape seed, which is available through the Goodship; the value of this being also that it benefits the skin. It is beneficial in regard to the elasticity of the skin and to collagen in the skin which can help to coat the nerves.

This pycnogenol is also extremely high in Vitamin C and Vitamin E. This Awareness suggests also the use of homeopathic cell salts as related to the skin and to the purification of the blood. This Awareness sees benefits from Calcarea Phos., a homeopathic cell salt. This Awareness indicates there are booklets on homeopathic cell salts. The book by Dr. Schuessler* is seen as containing information that would suggest a thickening of the skin through certain cell salts and anything that strengthens or thickens the skin is seen as being helpful for this condition.

*Available from CAC. Refer to Book Catalog Sheet.

This Awareness indicates that it is a very difficult disease and requires much attention to help stop its influence. This Awareness indicates that the aspirin and Vaseline mixture appears to be that which can give considerable relief quickly, reducing the pain and helping to keep it under control, although this is not seen as an absolute cure.

This Awareness indicates that as long as the virus is in the body, there is danger. This Awareness suggests that getting rid of the virus should be your goal. There is a substance similar in effects to the H<sub>2</sub>O<sub>2</sub>, but less dangerous. This is EQ02. The EQ02 is made from table salts rather than from hydrogen peroxide and it is less hazardous as something that can be taken internally, but the effect is much the same as taking hydrogen peroxide internally, without the danger of hydrogen peroxide.

The action of hydrogen peroxide is that it creates bubbles of oxygen when it touches germs or viruses and in the process it kills the viruses. The danger is that when taken internally it could create bubbles in the bloodstream that could kill the person.

This Awareness suggests that EQ02 is similar in that it puts oxygen into the bloodstream when taken internally, but it does not create such a problem that would lead to excessive amounts of oxygen in the bloodstream so as to cause injury or death. This Awareness indicates that the EQ02 should be taken beginning with one drop in a 6 to 8 ounce glass of water, followed by two drops, perhaps several hours later, followed by three drops, several hours or the next day later; with an increase in the drops several hours apart, with a full glass of water, so that as days pass, more drops are taken daily.

This Awareness suggests that when you reach approximately 20 or thirty drops in a glass of water, level off at that amount for approximately one week, then begin diminishing the drops with each further glass. This Awareness indicates that if instructions for use are included with your EQ02, follow those instructions, rather than that which this Awareness has just given. It has given this information in case you do not receive clear instructions in the use of this substance.

There does appear that there will be instructions provided with the bottle of EQ02. This Awareness indicates that this also is available through the Goodship. There is also another source for the same substance under the name of Bio-2 which may be found in some health stores. Otherwise, you may contact the Goodship for this substance.

This should help to destroy the virus and many other viruses also that may be loose in your system. The destruction of the virus by saturating it with oxygen may require repeated use over 6 months or longer if necessary to diminish and end this problem.

This Awareness suggests that this is something you should present to your doctor for his consideration and evaluation for this is simply an answer to your question and not intended as a prescription. This Awareness indicates how you use the information provided or if you use the information provided is a matter of your own choice, and the problem of shingles is extremely serious.

This Awareness indicates that it can be and quite often is fatal, unless some unusual action is taken. At present it appears that the medical profession does not have a standard cure for this situation and that alternate approaches may be worth considering. This Awareness indicates if your doctor is open to considering such information as given by this Awareness, you may find further suggestions from your doctor to be helpful also.

Did the Interpreter Finish the Book?

QUESTION:

One last question, this from Lillian B., Clarkdale, Arizona. she writes: "While reading through back issues that I had ordered, 89-5, Issue 342, to be exact, I read the question asked of Awareness: If the Interpreter would write a book about Christianity in the New Age, would it be effective? Awareness said "Very." Did that book ever get written? And if so, are they available? And if not, what stopped the effort supported by this Awareness?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this has not been accomplished. This Awareness indicates that the time the Interpreter has is that which he needs to regulate in order to do this and there are many different interferences in his time. This Awareness has again mentioned this in a reading during these current sessions, and this Awareness will continue to push the Interpreter for this writing.

This Awareness indicates that the Interpreter needs to set priorities. At the present time the priorities are focused on assisting members in his family, but the Interpreter may find he is able to squeeze some on the efforts to get a different arrangement of priorities.

Stay Focused on the Father's Business

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there are many actions, many situations, many experiences, many considerations; all manner of options open to entities in life, and the focus of attention on any of these tends to limit or exclude the others to the degree that one becomes obsessed or over-focused on any of these potential experiences. But at the same time, one can never accomplish anything without focusing on something.

This Awareness suggests that entities occasionally stop and re-scan their life to determine whether their focus has been that which they truly wish to maintain as their life's focus. There will be many areas of focus, but entities should check to see if all of those areas are proper and necessary, or if they should drop some of the areas in which they focus and turn their attention to some which they have neglected.

Are You Truly Following the Plan of Your Creator?

This Awareness indicates that one question you may ask yourself is, "How much time do I have in life to do what I came here for, and what am I doing that justifies my living? Is there anything more important in life than doing something for the Divine Creator? And am I doing that which the Divine Creator put me here for?"

This Awareness indicates that when you look at this and ask yourself if you are truly following the plan or purpose for which the Divine Creator gave you this life, you may then begin to find it easier to sort out your true priorities, the ones which you need to focus on.

This Awareness indicates otherwise, you can go through life as a person walking through a circus, where the carnival barkers of life are yelling to you: "Look here! Look here! Come over here! See this!" You can spend your life running from one thing to another, and never accomplish anything of significance in terms of your true purpose.

This Awareness indicates that not only are there the carnival barkers, but there are the needy: "Come help me! Help me! Come over here! Help me I can't get my shoes tied." This Awareness indicates there are many things that are not critical for your efforts. You need not help everyone who seeks your help. You must learn to find priorities that fit into your purpose in life.

This Awareness wishes to suggest that this message is as much for the Interpreter as for anyone else.
