A Message of Urgency from Cosmic Awareness

Opening Message: (CAC General Reading, Sept. 24, 1996)

This Awareness indicates It wishes to speak to the membership or subscribers of this newsletter about an issue that may be of great concern to them. This Awareness indicates that all churches exist basically on the basis of donations. This Awareness indicates that without donations, there are very few churches that could survive, unless some owner of a business contributed a great portion of his or her income to the perpetuation of the church, in which case it would again be a donation from that individual.

There are not many ways by which churches can 'earn' money legally, and stay within the guidelines required to be a church. This Awareness indicates it is a fact that churches must receive a certain percentage of donations in order to be considered a church, and that wherein income is derived from non-religious activities, it may be taxed if it exceeds a certain amount.

This Awareness indicates that this organization, Cosmic Awareness Communications, essentially is a church. It is registered as a church, a 501-C-3 religious organization, and therefore it does need to receive a certain amount of donations in order to maintain its existence as a religious organization.

This Awareness indicates that there are mailings that go out with a reasonable charge that pays for the cost of the mailings and much of this is paid by the subscriber in an amount that does not even pay for the cost of printing and mailing, and others pay a little more which pays for their subscription, and it is the ones who pay extra that help to pay for those who pay the minimum amount.

The minimum amount does not necessarily fulfill the full payment of the mailing: the material and the cost of mailing and printing of the material. In other words, what allows the organization to thrive comes from those who contribute more than the mere cost of the minimum amount of their subscription, and it is only fortunate for the organization to have existed this long because of those few entities who have contributed more than their minimum share in receiving their mailing.

This Awareness indicates that there are many who could do more than they are doing to help keep this organization alive and active, and this Awareness indicates of course, most entities have no way of knowing when bills cannot be met without it being stated, and many entities do not like to hear of money that is needed in order to keep the publications going, but this Awareness indicates it is simply a hard fact of life, and occasionally it is necessary for entities to promote some kind of fund-raising activity to help keep the organization from going under simply because there is not enough money to support it.

This Awareness indicates the publication for the Aquarian Church had to stop because there was not enough money to support that publication, and this Awareness is concerned about this C.A.C. organization because it is reaching a time in which the messages may become far more critical than at any time in the past. You are moving into a time when difficulties could become a major part of the experience of entities in this country, due to what is happening in this critical time, between now and the next four or five years.

This Awareness indicates It does not have to elaborate so much on this at this time, because if you have been reading the messages you surely understand the nature of the changes that are about to take place. This Awareness suggests that you are likely to have good economic times between now and the election, but that there are things that may go awry the following time period, after the election and into the next couple of years, and these are times in which entities need to know as much as possible, and much of this information that this Awareness will be giving during that time will be of great importance to entities, if there is an outlet for this information; if this organization is still able to continue publishing during that time.

This Awareness indicates that as readers of these messages, many of you could help by sending some donation, by sending some little extra; the price of a meal, the price of a night out, or something that is possible. This Awareness indicates that for most entities, when pay-day comes, they can best afford to part with a twenty dollar bill, or more, or a five dollar bill, without really noticing its loss.

Of course, later in the month, or at a time when money is short, this is not a good time for entities to donate, because they may need everything they have just to get through to the next pay-day. This Awareness suggests you think about what you can do next pay-day in terms of helping to keep this organization going, for you may indeed need it in the near future. You may need information, and when this information is gone, when this organization folds, you will then indeed realize what a loss, what a difficulty it is to operate, to fly blindly through these difficult times without a beacon or without a guide.

This Awareness indicates of course, you can look elsewhere, and perhaps you can find something that will give you the guidance you desire. If this is what you expect or want, then you may decide not to contribute, but if you want continued guidance from this Awareness, it may be worth your consideration to think about sending some donations on a regular basis, or at least once in awhile to help this organization continue to thrive.

This Awareness suggests that it may be of interest to you to send donations occasionally without having to be asked. This is something which is embarrassing to the secretary and the editor. It is difficult for them to ask for help when it is needed. It is difficult to inform the membership that there is needed help, and this Awareness indicates that It cannot always be present at the time there is a financial need.

This Awareness indicates that with the readings occurring every 6 weeks, there are sometimes financial needs that occur between those periods, and the entities do need to have a willingness and a regularity from the readership that helps during those times of crisis, and in between the periods in which the Interpreter is present.

This Awareness indicates that usually there is a greater need, approximately once yearly; this is especially one of those times. The entities assume and hope that around Christmas time there will be an upswing in donations. This Awareness indicates occasionally this works, but if it fails to occur, it could very well be such a serious loss that continuing the organization might be quite difficult.

This Awareness therefore, wished to address this issue before it becomes extreme, and if entities can assist in sending donations it will help to stave off the worry and concern of the staff here at CAC.

Black Seed Herbal Combination for Arthritis

This Awareness indicates on a totally different subject, This Awareness indicates that the Interpreter has been receiving many requests for information on what to do about arthritis, and the entity has been working to put together information on this, but there has been some continuous delay because of other urgencies that have occurred, and the entity is also waiting for further information from a source in regard to the Black Seed and a formula using Black Seed for arthritis. This information has been delayed so that he has not been able to get this information out, and some of the inquiries have waited for some time.

Knox Gelatin and Chicken Cartilage for Arthritis

This Awareness does wish to help those entities who have inquired by suggesting that in the 1950's scientists did much research into arthritis and came out with a statement that chicken cartilage helped to cure and alleviate the pain of arthritis.

This Awareness indicates that entities chewing on the cartilage on chicken bones reported that the pains they had been suffering from arthritis were eased considerably. This Awareness wishes to suggest also that entities can benefit from the use of Knox gelatin, and this can be put into capsules or taken by mixing this with a fruit juice. Do not use citrus fruits. Do not use citrus fruits in your diet or for mixing the Knox gelatin, for citrus fruits, especially orange and grapefruit juices, tend to aggravate arthritis.

Two Main Types of Arthritis: Cold and Inflammatory

This Awareness indicates that the Knox gelatin can ease the pain for many entities with the problem of arthritis. The formula that is being prepared in Canada for the arthritis treatment has to do more with the cold type of arthritis rather than the inflammation type. There are two main types of arthritis: One is called the hot, and the other is the cold type of arthritis.

Hot arthritis essentially is the arthritis that comes with an inflammation of the joints. Cold arthritis comes from poor circulation, where the joints and fingers and toes and extremities are cold and cause the joints then to feel a cold numbness that is associated with arthritis. This formula, which is being prepared in Canada, is called 'Warm-up' and will be eventually available to entities.

The formula was available earlier, but in very small quantities, and it is only now that these entities have begun to realize that there is a great need by many entities for this formula, and therefore, it has been delayed while it is being prepared for release in larger quantities.

This Awareness suggests that the questions may now begin for this reading.

Silver Wain Water for Arthritis?

QUESTION:

In relation to arthritis, several members, Helen Milton being one, I believe, have written in stating that the Silver Wain Water has given them relief. Does Awareness see that as being a general trend with this problem, or is this an exception?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is possible that this can be of benefit. Much of course will depend on what the cause of their arthritis might be. This Awareness indicates that the silver colloidal water is known traditionally to have been beneficial to approximately 600 diseases, and therefore, it may be that whatever effect it has on the body is also curing a problem that was causing the arthritis.

This Awareness indicates that sometimes entities will have too much uric acid in their body which causes the joints to ache which may be interpreted as arthritis, and entities may find that this Wain Water, or the silver colloidal water can be beneficial and therefore, entities may wish to give it a try. This Awareness does suggest however, it may not be beneficial in every case, for there are many different causes for the symptoms that are often called "arthritis," the inflammation of joints or the pain in the various joints.

Pycnogenol Also Helps Relieve Arthritis Pain

This Awareness indicates also that the proanthocyanidins or that which is also called pycnogenol, from grape seeds, has a beneficial effect on the joints as well as on the skin in that it adds a kind of elastin or collagen-like substance to help make the joints more flexible, and also, in the case of the skin, to make the skin more pliable and help rid the skin of wrinkles. This Awareness indicates that this is marketed as Pro-C from the Goodship.*

This Awareness indicates there is also seen benefits from the substance known as Cell Sentry. It is a product made from genetically enhanced wheat grass that helps to strengthen the production of superoxide dismutase in the body. This can also be of considerable benefit in regard to the treatment of arthritis.

GH3 as a Treatment for Arthritis

This Awareness indicates that some entities will benefit from the use of GH3, while others may find it to be detrimental to the treatment arthritis, or to the effects of pain in the joints. There have been some entities who have felt that it helped the arthritis, while others felt that the GH3 caused them to have pain in their joints after too much use without a reasonable break in the usage.

This Awareness has suggested that entities, in using GH3, should take off one week per month and not use it for one week each month to allow the system to rebalance itself in terms of preventing it from becoming immune to the use of the GH3 and its ingredients.

This Awareness suggests that entities please remember in treatment of arthritis to be very careful about the use of citrus fruits and such similar citric acid, because it can irritate arthritis. This Awareness indicates if you have an arthritic condition and use citrus juices or citric acid, please watch carefully to see if it is having an adverse effect on your condition.

This Awareness indicates that lemon or lime juice do not appear to be quite as harmful in this regard, but this Awareness suggests that you watch these if you use them to be sure they are not affecting you adversely.

A Warning from the Maharishi About Genetic Engineering of Foods

QUESTION:

We got a letter from Laurel Z., Hershey, Pennsylvania. She writes: "I would like to pass on some information which I learned from friends in the TM movement in Austin. I do not know the validity of this information, but if it is true, it would have some substantial effect on your readers.

"The TM movement has sponsored a university at Fairfield, Iowa, called Maharishi International University. A Dr. Fagan, at MIU, received federal grants in genetic engineering and has declined them stating that this work is "immoral and wrong". The TM movement took out an ad insert in USA Today, August 28, 1996, advertising their party for the election and talking about genetically engineered foods and the danger therein.

"Apparently Maharishi Mahesh Yogi states that these foods could wipe out the world's population. They are splicing viruses into the DNA of plant foods which could have an effect on the human genome. Apparently, industry and the military have mapped out the human genome in "The Human Genome Project".

"Monsanto Chemical is behind this, and they are harvesting soybeans that have been genetically engineered right now. They plan to mix them in with natural soybeans. They plan not to label food products as genetically engineered, but as "organically grown". There is supposed to be a bill in Congress now passing this, and the media is saying nothing.

"This could contaminate the food supply on a mass level, leading to death, food-hoarding and shortages. If this is true, or even if it weren't true, it would be helpful to have your membership lobby Congress to repeal this or prevent such food from ever making it to market. We do not have medications effective against viruses, especially those that could mutate.

"Incidentally, the same source stated that Damien Brinkley of "Saved By The Light" stated that this could be true and would be the beginning of "Hell on Earth" and he is not connected with the TM movement." Would Awareness comment on this subject?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is seen a possibility of genetic engineering being misused. This Awareness indicates that the genetically engineered wheat grass that has been sold over the past 20 years, through the Food Doctor and through the Biotech and Agrigenics organizations, as that which was engineered in India and is quite beneficial. It helps to produce oxygen in the body, which would counter any viruses. This Awareness indicates that viruses do not thrive, do not live in a high oxygen environment.

A Virus Is Around that Causes Rejuvenation

This Awareness indicates there is also another situation that has recently come to light, that there is a virus which is causing entities to rejuvenate. The virus attacks negative viruses and helps to rid the body of negative viruses and entities who are quite high in years are finding themselves rejuvenating and are expressing that they feel quite young.

A 74 year-old man, for example, said he felt like he was 17 again. This Awareness indicates there are cases of 60 year-old women having babies again. This Awareness indicates that it is this situation that has caused many scientists and many people to want to wipe out that rejuvenating virus. They are fearful that it will cause humanity to live to immortal ages, and these entities do not want this.

It is true that there are efforts to reduce the population of the earth, and therefore, it is quite probable that someone would genetically engineer something that would cause viruses to inhabit the food stuff so that illnesses can be transmitted through food. This Awareness indicates therefore, it could be a problem in the near future in this regard, but that per se, genetically engineered food is not in itself the problem. It is how it is being genetically engineered and for what purposes and this can become the issue and the concern.

This Awareness indicates that entities need to express their concern to whomever will do something. To lobby in Congress may be of benefit. To write letters may be of benefit. It depends on whether those who receive these messages actually will do something. This Awareness indicates that first, entities need to do some research to find out exactly what is happening in regard to this activity in Iowa, whether it is as feared, or whether it is something different entirely.

This Awareness sees it as being questionable in its purpose and motive, but does not see it as being a devastating problem, although it could easily be proper in the beginning with the intention of creating difficulties or diabolical purposes, once it is accepted and the activity may then be turned to create hazardous foods.

This Awareness indicates does not see this as being so at this time, but that it could very easily be changed to cause serious problems in the diet. Therefore, entities need to ask for strict guidelines in any genetically engineered foods so that the public can be protected and made aware of genetically engineered foods.

Anthrax and Viral Diseases Tested in Gulf War (George Bush Funded Secret Project to Use on U.S. Troops)

QUESTION

Laurel has one other statement here. She writes: "I have also heard from a source in California that Dr. Nancy Richardson, formerly of the Immunology Research Division at University of Texas, at Austin, was performing research upon Gulf War veterans who were purposely exposed to biological warfare by our own government, so that they could observe a cohort in their own country for the consequences of the agents.

"I had read many years ago in the Dallas Morning News of young healthy servicemen who came home developing a cardiomyopathy which was probable viral within 24 months of the Gulf War; strange viral illnesses affecting their spouse and their babies born with birth defects. I thought it was biological warfare at the time, and I thought it was viral, and I believe awareness of this was present in Texas before the media picked it up elsewhere.

"Dr. Richardson and her husband's, (also a Ph.D.) lab was closed down by their boss who was receiving funding from private sources (George Bush and family), who secretly fund projects at the University of Texas, because they did not want this information given out. She stated that there were two types of warfare: anthrax-like, which kills very quickly, and a slow growing agent, probably viral, and that the medical records of those veterans with the slow growing agent were sequestered in the building bombed in Oklahoma City.

"She said her work was part of the Human Genome Project." Would Awareness comment on that?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness indicates it is seen that the information given by this entity is correct and has been properly evaluated and analyzed according to the questioner's information, and therefore, this Awareness suggests that it is seen as having been an unauthorized biological warfare test, and that entities have been used as guinea pigs.

This Awareness indicates it is another example of how the government uses entities illegally, much as they were illegally used in the early testing of nuclear weapons in the deserts of Nevada, and this Awareness indicates there have also been similar tests in other areas of the country. This Awareness indicates that another similar type test occurred in the early Fifties or mid-Fifties in Maryland, wherein soldiers were used for testing certain drugs and chemicals: this as related to the later development of drug use in mind control activities of the MK-Ultra program.

This Awareness indicates that this is another reason for entities to not trust the Federal government. There are repeated violations to entities who trust their government, and it is repeatedly found that the Federal government is not trustworthy.

Prof. Yull Brown's Technology to Neutralize Radioactive Waste

QUESTION:

We received over the Internet a message from, I believe, Dennis Lee. It's from the United Community Services of America, in Newfoundland, New Jersey. He writes: "Dear friends, something incredible has happened to us. It is beyond my expectations at this point and is worth everyone of us dropping everything else to concentrate on.

"Professor Yull Brown has a technology to neutralize radioactive waste. Right now there is a location in the United States where if there were a nuclear mishap, every living thing in all of the United States, Canada and Mexico would be totally wiped out. This is very serious. The government of this country has put everyone in this country at great risk.

"Professor Brown has proof of what I'm saying, and he's prepared to present it to the people of this country. As you know, Better World Technology has been promoting Professor Brown's technology on the national tour. We do have the exclusive rights to sell brown's gas machine in the United States.

"We were shocked when Professor Brown showed up at our show in Los Vegas, sitting in the front row. We had over a thousand people in the audience that night. After I explained why I believed Professor Brown to be the most important man in the world, I asked him to come up on stage. The entire audience spontaneously rose to their feet in a standing ovation.

"I have never been more proud of the American people. It deeply touched Professor brown, and I saw tears in his eyes. I had tried to get him to not give up on the American people. He was so touched by that gesture that he did something I could never had expected. He announced that he too would come to the last meeting on our tour to Philadelphia and that he intended to work with UCSA to neutralize all the nuclear waste in this country.

"Professor Yull Brown is willing to be at our Declaration of Energy Independence on the 23rd of September in Philadelphia and has magnanimously offered to demonstrate his ability to neutralize radioactive waste at our show. He will also bring a car engine that has already been modified to run on Brown's gas and will demonstrate how to pump water without any mechanical device, or pump at all. I believe that he was so touched by the hearts of the crowd that he had decided that even at the risk of his own life, he will do this.

"The government is currently planning a four hundred billion dollar rip-off of the American people, working with the private sector to find a way to safely store the nuclear waste in dump sites. They may get a little upset that we, with Brown, could eliminate the need for storage of waste. We have to get a lot of the American people to attend this last show, to protect our friend if he is going to do this, along with the other things we have planned to demonstrate.

"This is the biggest news to hit this country over the last century." Then he goes on, about this, but I'd like to ask Awareness if this information is basically correct, that there is a location in the United States where if there were a nuclear mishap, everything in all the United States, Canada and Mexico would be totally wiped out, and would this technique of Professor Brown's actually neutralize atomic waste as claimed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does appear that there are not only one, but several places in the United States in which there is the storage of nuclear waste that could, theoretically, cause such a disaster. It is not what would be termed a 'likelihood' under present conditions that such would occur, but theoretically, it is within the realm of improbable possibilities.

This Awareness indicates that even in the 1980's there were means by which nuclear radiation could be neutralized. This Awareness indicates that this was available in Russia, based on information that they had acquired through the United States Patent Office. This Awareness indicates that it was not publicized at that time, nor was it fully developed or put into practice, but it was even that early a technology that was available.

One Pound of Plutonium Could Wipe Out All Life In World

This Awareness indicates that the work of this professor has taken it further and made it more practical in a grander scale. This Awareness indicates that it should be recognized that one pound of plutonium could wipe out all life on earth if distributed haphazardly, but also that there are thousands of pounds of plutonium waste from the nuclear power plants around the world, and from the production of nuclear weapons, and therefore, the thousands of pounds of plutonium do create a nuclear hazard that could wipe out this world, and many more if they were close enough to be contaminated.

This Awareness indicates therefore, this technology being released to the public can have a profound effect in influencing the government to do something. If enough people know it is available, then the government may be forced to accept this rather than simply find ways of expensive storage of plutonium in some kind of storage project.

Encasing plutonium in plastics or metals or concrete and putting it deep in the ground is only a temporary form of storage, for these areas could very easily, a thousand years from now, become the site of drilling or underground exploration. People could wonder, "What is this? Let's drill and find out!", and again, wipe out all life on earth from not knowing what is buried in that particular apparatus or placement.

This Awareness indicates in other words, the very grave in which the plutonium is buried might become a curiosity for future generations who want to find what's buried in that tomb which required such an elaborate effort. It is much like people having a curiosity about the Oak Island burial or shaft in which many think treasures are buried. Whereby entities see something that has been hidden deep in the ground, the inclination is to think it must have some value, to be buried so deeply, and since you do not know what the mind-set of entities will be a thousand years from now, you do not know if they will have intelligence to be concerned about nuclear weapons or if nuclear weapons will have been totally forgotten, and history itself may be eradicated so that entities do not even know about modern concerns with nuclear storage.

This Awareness indicates it is important to be able to neutralize nuclear waste, and it does appear that the Brown method is capable of doing such.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Wasn't at one time technology given to the government by aliens that would also do this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative.

PLEASE SEND US QUESTIONS!

We really need good questions! Put on your thinking cap and send them in! Send by mail, FAX, or E-Mail to C.A.C. Many thanks!

Accepting the Mark of the Beast Will Endanger the Human Soul

QUESTION:

In relation to the information Awareness gave in the prior reading, that the plan is that by 1998, a microchip is to be implanted in all entities on earth...

COSMIC AWARENESS (INTERRUPTING):

This Awareness indicates the word "all" is an exaggeration. It is seen as being approximately 80% of the people on earth.

QUESTIONER:

Okay. The question is: Around 1979, when Awareness presented the Gathering Storm information, It indicated that if these implants were made, which essentially is the Biblical "Mark of the Beast," that entities would find that their very soul was in great danger; would that apply also in 1998 to entities who accept these chips?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that much of this has to do with the willingness of the individual to participate. The more they know in regard to the implications, the more karma is involved. If an entity is coerced against his or her will, or is threatened into accepting this chip, or if the entity is unknowingly given the chip, it will diminish the consequences. It is likened unto karma, and it is also likened unto a kind of agreement.

If you enter into a contract or agreement with someone without knowing the full implications or meaning of what you are doing, when indeed you should, or could know the full implications, then it is to your detriment that you did not find out the full implications, but at the same time it will diminish the chances of the contract being voided, because you did not fully understand the nature of the contract.

This Awareness indicates in law, it takes a certain understanding to be able to compete and to enter into a contract. If an entity is incompetent to enter into contracts, then the contract can be voided by law. It is much the same in terms of Cosmic Law. If an entity enters into a contract without understanding the nature of the contract, or if they are coerced into entering into the contract and have no choice of avoiding the coercion, then it can, at a future time, be voided.

This Awareness indicates, however, if an entity willingly, knowingly enters into a contract for greed purposes, and they are not forced into such a contract, then these entities are willingly, knowingly making a contract that is binding to them, and when you bind yourself in a contract to alien forces, you are likely to be bound for quite some time, not just for that short lifetime, but for many lifetimes.

Those Abducted by Aliens had Made a Previous Contract

This Awareness indicates It has spoken before about entities who are abducted by aliens as having formed an agreement in past lives with aliens, who are now still carrying out part of their agreement in being abducted, and thus, the aliens abduct entities who have an agreement with them from previous lifetimes. It is likened unto selling your soul.

This Awareness indicates that the Dark Forces behind the New World Order are actually alien beings who are helping to perpetrate a galactic takeover of this planet for the Draconian Federation and Orion Empire. This Awareness indicates that if they can get entities to participate willingly and agree to take the Mark, then they become likened unto citizens of the Draconian Federation or Orion Empire and may serve many lifetimes thereafter in the capacity of such citizenship.

This Awareness indicates those who refuse to accept this will find themselves able to move on into other experiences within the Galactic Confederation and into higher realms of Celestria or elsewhere, according to their own less tainted karma. This Awareness indicates that the good karma from avoiding this will be of great significance in helping entities to have a much more highly beneficial life in the future.

This Awareness indicates that this may be understood as a way of separating the wheat from the chaff, the Light beings from the Dark Forces, or as this Awareness described previously, allowing entities into higher dimensions or into lower dimensions, according to their own choice.

This Awareness indicates of course, children entering into such situations, will only experience the karma of their understanding of the short period of their lifetime on earth in most cases. The more aware an entity is of the consequences, the more the entity will suffer karma if choosing to go with the Mark, or the greater the reward if the entity avoids the Mark; this in terms of spiritual reward and future lifetime experiences.

This Awareness indicates in other words, a child who is pushed into accepting the Mark without full understanding of what is happening receives only the karma that the New World Order puts the child into under its subjugation. If a mother is coerced into the Mark because of her love for her children and does not wish to suffer death and leave them without her, the mother herself will receive much less negative karma, because of her deep concern for the protection of her children. It is a form of coercion.

This Awareness indicates therefore, this entity would not receive a future lifetime karma for having accepted the Mark, but she will receive the karma of this lifetime, as related to the subjugation from the New World Order. This Awareness indicates this depends considerably on the individual case; the thinking, the understanding, the full implication, and the motives of an individual as to how much karma, negative or positive, an entity will receive.

This Awareness indicates of course, such a situation does not give an entity the benefit of a doubt, such as an entity who is no longer living with her children, no longer responsible for her children, but who is using them as an excuse: "I do not wish to leave my 40 year old daughter without me! She needs me!"; such an excuse or argument for taking the Mark would be of little value in terms of this entity's karmic concerns.

In other words, each situation has its own particular weight of evidence in terms of measuring the karma of the situation. This Awareness indicates that It also wishes to suggest that even though this has been prophesied, that entities would be forced to choose, this Awareness does not see this as imminent. It does not see this as being the absolute final fatality for humanity.

It sees this as being but a potential, and that there is an equal potential that this entire scenario will be defused before it is effected, and It also sees that there is a possibility that entities will be given the choice of taking the chip or being left out of the economic system, and this Awareness suggests there is also the potential for an alternative economic system to be presented for those who do not take the chip.

This Awareness indicates the programming of the use of money itself is not a necessity for entities in order to survive. Many entities believe money is the bottom line of life, and therefore, will willingly take the chip in order to receive the monetary rewards offered. Others will refuse and still survive without extreme suffering.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In regard to these entities that are abducted by aliens because they had made a prior agreement with these entities in a previous lifetime, what possibly could the aliens have offered them during that lifetime that would talk them in to such a contract?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates they could have offered them a chip that would allow them to purchase food or have the benefits of a comfortable life. This Awareness indicates that this could have happened on another planet that went through similar changes in being conquered by the aliens as is occurring on planet earth at this time.

What's the Priority If Death is Imminent?

(What Having Sex is Like in the Higher Realms)

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. She asks: "If one learned or felt that one hadn't much longer to live; months or years perhaps, which activities and concerns would Awareness suggest be prioritized?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Focusing on the Divine vibrations in each moment, and attuning yourself to the Divine so that when you move into a different dimensional experience, passing through the door, you are already prepared and capable of attuning to the higher vibrations of the White Light, the pure Divine Light, so that in entering this, you are detached from earthly things, so that you are not caught in looking for the lesser lights.

In looking for the lesser lights, you will be drawn back into earth forms, into material realms, and again cast into karmic experiences, to go through more difficulties, more physical pains and problems and lifetimes that may be better or worse than the one you now experience, but which will still be a kind of purgatory, even as this lifetime is a kind of purgatory with pleasure and pain intertwined.

This Awareness indicates that the pleasure and pain experienced in your physical form is that which is indeed a kind of purgatory which you will better understand when you have left the physical body. It is not the lowest form of existence, nor is it in any way the highest, even in the levels of greatest pleasure.

Imagine an Orgasm that Lasts for Years!

This Awareness indicates in the Higher Realms, in the Higher Dimensions, entities' pleasures are far beyond anything imagined on this level. This Awareness indicates that for example, in the Higher Levels, the Higher Vibrations, entities in having sex, which is considered one of the most pleasant experiences to humans, will have a sexual climax or orgasm that lasts for many, many years.

It is a form of vibration that stays with the entity for months, years, and does not end in a matter of seconds as it does on earth. The vibrations from the Higher Sex is a form of blissful existence that comes about from entities getting close to each other, and this Higher Bliss remains with them. It is more like an entity who falls in love on earth, wherein the love does not simply die within minutes, but continues throughout a lifetime, wherein entities love each other deeply and love to be near each other for long periods of time.

This Awareness indicates this kind of bliss is far more valuable and meaningful than the momentary experience of a short-lived flirtation of 'puppy love'. Likewise, in the Higher Levels of Sex, it is a longer lasting and much more sensitive and pleasant experience during the episode of an entity's lifetime in those Higher Regions than anything imagined on earth.

This Awareness indicates if you watch an animal having sex; a dog for example, you will see that it is over and done with and the animals simply walk away and forget what happened, and yet, humans, when viewed from these Higher Regions, Higher Levels, will also appear to be more likened unto the dog having sex. It is over and done with quickly, and the entities then forget about each other and perhaps never even see each other again in some cases.

This Awareness indicates in these Higher Regions, Higher Levels, it is a totally different kind of experience that lasts and allows a blissful glow for each entity for long periods of time. This Awareness indicates that this is the kind of pleasure experienced in these Higher Regions.

This Awareness indicates that of course, in the lower regions, that which is below the purgatory of human existence, it is even less pleasurable, and more painful. This is in reference to that which may be called Hades. This Awareness indicates in the Higher Regions there is also greater enjoyment of the vibrations of Light, the vibrations of sound, the vibrations that come from simply being in a place, or in a setting wherein entities thoroughly enjoy a particular setting.

It is likened unto what entities may imagine in going to some exotic land, sitting in the sun enjoying the sea breeze, except that rather than this kind of pleasure, it will be far more vibratory and the pleasures will be even greater than anything that entities could imagine on the physical plane of earth.

This Awareness indicates that on these Higher Planes, the vibration is what makes the difference and the sensitivity that an entity feels in those vibratory realms. It is difficult to explain because most entities try to project with their senses what they see, and cannot understand how a nice setting in a Higher Realm could be any different than the same setting on the physical plane, but this Awareness is speaking of vibrations.

"In my Father's House there are Many Mansions"

This Awareness indicates if you understand the vibration of love in its highest sense, that which has been the most loving experience you have had, and compare that to one of your more difficult days or times in your life, you will know the difference between the love vibration and the difficult vibrations, and if you can project this even further and imagine a dimension that has a greater quality of that love vibration than anything found on earth, then you will begin to comprehend the meaning of "In my Father's House are many mansions."

These 'mansions' may be thought of as dimensions or levels of vibration; different frequencies in the universe, wherein entities can visit and can have higher enjoyment from the higher vibrations of greater love, than anything imagined.

HOW DID JOSE WIN THE LOTTERY?

QUESTION:

A question from Nicholas L., of Oak Park, Illinois. He writes, taken from a newspaper article: "Jose Diaz, who lives in Mexico, suffers from poor vision, walks with a limp, but manages to have an income of $12.00 per week. He is a pious person who attends church regularly and makes annual pilgrimages to pay homage to the Virgin of Guadalupe.

"The pay-off came one summer night, as he stated in a tax court, in which the "Virgin told him to buy Mexican National Lottery ticket number 37281." Inspired, Diaz scraped up $300.00 and asked his nephew, who lived in Texas and worked for a bank, to buy the tickets. Alphonso, the nephew, bought the entire sheet of 75 tickets for number 37281. Guess what happened?

"Well, under the Cosmic Law of Gratitude, we can say that Jose had it coming, but the vision of the Virgin puzzles me. Can we state that Jose, on a subliminal level, created the image and projected the vision so it seemed to appear before him? In other words, in a spontaneous inspiration he was able to grasp, out of the future, a real prize?"

"Would Awareness agree that the entire matter was self-generated? Upon reflection, I looked up Awareness' answer to gambling in Revelations of Awareness # 86-17, and it appears to be "right on". Awareness stated: "This Awareness indicates that this as an energy from a subconscious programming. Many persons in recognizing chance, question they will win, and do not have the complete cooperation with their subconscious."

"Awareness also indicated that: "In some cases, there are spiritual guides for assisting certain entities, helping those entities to have a chance at winning." In the Jose case, he probably had a spiritual guide. Would Awareness agree? Incidentally, the three million dollars Jose won was placed by Alphonso in a bank account under both their names. This got the IRS to try to cut themselves in for over a million and a half tax revenue. A court case accepted Jose's story that the money was obtained outside of American jurisdiction, therefore, it was not taxable."

So I guess his question on this: "Would Awareness agree that the entire matter was self-generated?" (#1) and "In the case of Jose, he probably had a spiritual guide. Would Awareness agree?" Would Awareness comment on this story just in general?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is possible for entities to project visions from their own subconscious to the point where they actually hallucinate in seeing forms or images. This Awareness indicates it happens with entities who have had too much to drink, or who have altered their mind with drugs. It can also happen to entities who have been under stress, or who have had years of difficulties wherein suddenly they seem to crack.

Some entities might have a nervous breakdown, others might have an enlightenment experience, such as this entity, wherein he sees the projection of the Virgin Mary giving help or guidance. This Awareness indicates that this could very well have been a spirit guide helping the entity, or it could have been the vibrations of the blessed Virgin Mary. These goddesses or gods do have vibrations.

In an entity's worship of a deity there are certain vibrations involved, and it is found that, in the Western world, many entities upon the near-death experience will witness that they saw Jesus, whereas the same kind of experience in India, the entities might state that upon the near-death experience they saw Buddha greeting them or Krishna or some other deity of their own religion.

This Awareness indicates these are projections from their own vibratory data bank of their deity. This entity's deity was the Virgin Mary, most likely because that would be whom he prays to or seeks help from. Therefore, finding this vibration would be simple for him because when he seeks help he goes to the vibration of the Virgin Mary, and therefore, under extreme stress or after greater difficulty, the projection of this entity into visual form could be a relatively common experience, when the entity reaches that state of consciousness. It could happen more than once.

This Awareness indicates that the finding of the correct number has to do with the entity's extreme faith and the vibrations that come with the entity's extreme faith and his desire to win a lottery, and many entities could attune to the correct lottery ticket if they simply had the faith and were somehow projected into a state of altered consciousness in which the vibrations allowed the entity the opportunity or chance of recognizing a distant reality or future reality. It is not something that entities can will.

An entity can't simply say, "I am going to have a vision and ask Mary to give me the lottery number!", nor is it something that entities can convey in terms of "How do you do it? How can I do it?", in which they get a clear prescription or formula for doing it. It is something that can happen occasionally to an entity, a once in a lifetime experience, or in some rare cases, an entity can have many different psychic experiences in which something is given to them without any logical explanation.

There are very seldom any situations in which an entity has repeated psychic experiences that allow them to pick numbers for the lottery. It is, if repeated, usually based on some kind of mathematical system that has been developed that can assist an entity to win smaller amounts repeatedly on occasion.

This Awareness indicates that in other words, this entity had lived his life with such difficulty that he was ready for help from Higher Frequency levels and the vision of Mary represented that Higher Frequency and it also allowed him to lift his consciousness into higher frequencies that gave him that which may be termed the ability to read the distant future, and a different place, a different time, and get the proper number through his subconscious and his Higher Self.

It was essentially a Divine Experience, and not something that can be discussed in a rational sense to be of any benefit or help in winning the lottery. This Awareness indicates entities who want that kind of help are wasting their time. It is likened unto an entity saying "How can I have a dream in which I am the hero, and catch the ball and make the winning touchdown? Would Awareness please tell me how to have that dream?"

This Awareness indicates there is no way that altered states can be manipulated from this state of consciousness, nor understood rationally from this state of consciousness so that one can rationally experience and control an altered state to suit one's purposes. This Awareness indicates that under hypnosis, with someone being rational, while you are in an altered state, there might be some possibility of the altered state serving your purpose, but even that would be difficult.

Is It Unfair to Others to Use Psychic Means?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

I've read of entities who supposedly were under hypnosis or self-hypnosis, and could project themselves into tomorrow, or at least they could read tomorrow morning's paper and see the winning lottery number, in which case they would run out the day before and buy the ticket. My question is: If indeed such things are possible, wouldn't this be a violation, sort of like cheating, for all the other entities who buy tickets without doing anything like that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates in other words, wanting all of the playing field to be equal.

QUESTIONER:

Yes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates is Michael Jordan cheating in basketball because he is more skilled than others? Wouldn't it be more equal if everyone had to have the same skill in order to play in the same game? This Awareness indicates that if someone has a psychic skill or uses some extra ingenuity to win in a game, is that cheating? This Awareness indicates it is also a question of what is meant by cheating. Has this entity deprived anyone else from trying to use hypnotics to view the future? If the entity reserves that right for himself, but denies others from having that right, then indeed, perhaps it is cheating.

But if the entity does not deprive others of the same opportunity, but others simply fail to do so, or fail to try or cannot do it, then isn't the playing field equal, even though others do not wish to take advantage of opportunities that they may have available to them?

This Awareness indicates It does not see that this is cheating; It sees that it is a way of assisting one's ability or skills to help the entity win. This Awareness indicates if a referee was present and is to have exactly the same starting rights and opportunities, then of course it could be seen as cheating, but since there are no rules about how entities guess the proper numbers, and entities are free to guess the numbers as they choose, so long as they do not have an inside track, this is not really cheating.

If an entity were able to peek inside or get inside information from someone as to what number to bet on, then it would be cheating.

Pycnogenol for Enlarged Prostate Gland?*QUESTION:

One last question, this also from Nicholas. "I'll read his statement, because there's several questions here. He writes: "Some time ago, my primary physician (I belong to an HMO) made an appointment for me to see an Urologist. Subsequent examination and a biopsy on my prostate revealed no cancer but a very enlarged prostate gland.

"Frequent nightly urination is the result of enlarged prostate glands. I did some research and came up with deciding to take Saw Palmetto and Pygeum for relief, but it was only when I started taking Pycnogenol in combination that I noticed a distinct improvement.

"A 20 milligram tablet of Pycnogenol for every 20 pounds of weight is standard procedure for me now. Initially I took too many pills of Pycnogenol, but after the body became saturated with the substance, the 20 milligrams per 20 pounds per day is optimum.

"My question to Awareness is: Is there a more efficient non-surgical way to reduce enlarged prostate glands? Some medical newsletters state that by taking Saw Palmetto and Pygeum from, say, the age of 50, that the prostate gland will remain normal size. Would Awareness concur?

"Pycnogenol is one of the most powerful antioxidant agent available. Information I have acquired claims it improves skin smoothness and elasticity, strengthens capillaries, arteries, veins, improves circulation and enhances cell vitality, improves visual acuity, improves joint flexibility and fights inflammation in arthritis and sports injuries, helps improve sluggish memory and so on.

"Does Awareness see any negative aspects to taking Pycnogenol on a daily basis?" That was his third question.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is negative. That this can be of great benefit and is seen as being as described by this entity. This Awareness indicates that it also is seen as helping the circulation, as warding off colds, and viruses. The effect of reducing the free radicals in the body also helps to prevent many other illnesses that are caused by the free radicals.

This Awareness indicates essentially, free radicals are oxygen molecules that have lost their attachments and are free of connections to the normal oxygen. It is likened unto thinking in terms of stale oxygen in the body as compared to fresh oxygen. If you have fresh oxygen in the body, which deprives viruses and helps to give energy to the cells, this can be of great benefit, but if you have free radical oxygen atoms it is likened unto stale or putrefied oxygen that can help to lead to various diseases and break down the immune system.

Pycnogenol helps to rid the body of these free radical oxygen atoms.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Does Awareness agree that taking this substance reduced the enlarged prostate gland?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. Taking this as the entity did for long enough to saturate the body, and then going on a maintenance amount; although 20 milligrams per 20 pounds appears to be more than is necessary; This Awareness indicates it depends on the type of Pycnogenol the entity is using.

The pine tree source is not as potent or effective as the grape seed source of Pycnogenol, but normally 20 milligrams per 50 pounds; this Awareness indicates that 20 milligrams per 30 pounds would be a good dose for a system that needs improvement; 20 milligrams for 50 pounds would be a good maintenance amount for a healthy person.

The Mind is the Greatest Healer*CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there are many different things that entities can do to help enhance their general well-being. None is more powerful than the mind itself: the attitude an entity holds can be of great benefit. If an entity feels good about himself or herself, it generally helps the body to be healthier, and if this becomes a common attitude of self worth and feeling good about oneself and one's life, the body generally begins to have a common health that reflects the attitude of an entity.

This Awareness indicates, however, sometimes an entity's mind tends to get hindered by life's experiences, by the attitudes of others toward one, or by difficulties that an entity faces, or simply by depleted adrenaline or energy levels. When an entity's energy levels drop, the entity sometimes begins to feel depressed. Depression tends to lead entities into negative attitude toward themselves, and such can be hindrances to an entity's health and well-being.

This Awareness indicates these are times when certain use of medications, foods or supplements can be beneficial in helping to get the entity's mind back on track as well as helping the body to feel better, and healing can then begin to occur, for the immune system does tend to follow the dictates of the mind, and when the mind is depressed, the immune system begins to shut down.

This Awareness indicates it is good to be open-minded enough to recognize the need for ingesting health products. It is also good to be open-minded enough to recognize the power of one's mind when it comes to needing a healing. You can heal yourself. And by using both the supplements for health, as well as the mind, it becomes a double weapon for gaining greater vitality and health.

This Awareness indicates also, it is important to pamper yourself with something enjoyable, such as a rest or an experience that lifts the spirit once in awhile. To keep your mind involved in pleasant thoughts and experiences can also be beneficial to your physical health.

The Law of Gratitude is given)

Closing Message (CAC General Reading, Sept. 28, 1996)

Be Calm and Don't Deny What is Happening

This Awareness indicates that there will be many changes in the next several months and entities need to be calm and not get too overly concerned. Be very attentive. The attention itself will help you to get through the period without excessive stress.

Entities who try to avoid the realization of what is happening or who try to deny what is happening will find it in the long run more detrimental to their peace of mind than if they give full attention to what is happening in the world.

This Awareness indicates that this is not intended to frighten entities. This Awareness does not see this as a time in which entities need to be frightened, nor is it necessarily a time of catastrophic events, but it is a time when very unusual things may happen, beginning of course with the election and energies that lead up to that time.

Q) thank you)

Rudeness, Hostility, Lack of Respect....*WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO AMERICA'S VALUES?*QUESTION:

We received a letter from Barbara B., in Pismo Beach, California, and she brings up several questions. I'll read her letter. She writes: "Hi gang! Another Fall and soon the election. It looks like Clinton has the public by whatever glamour they listen to. Awareness says maybe a miracle and surprise. I hope so. However, not the New World Order monsters!

"I truly pray for a second chance for us mortals and not slavery. However, maybe we've behaved so badly, and as you look at the messy city streets, the attitude of the drivers on our highways, the anger we see in our little RV park here, unkindness and jealousy when there once was peace and caring; no more. It seems human-kind have lost it. People are afraid of people.

"Children are so afraid and rightly so. Look how the children are being treated! Dreadful! By the ones they trust the most! Ask Awareness when we humans will stop doing these dreadful things to our young. Animals don't treat their young this way; at least not the majority. I really feel that we've lost social graces, like saying "Thank you," and "Please". Also being clean and looking good out in places to eat or shop.

"People don't honor themselves. They are in dirty clothing, hair uncombed, and dirty. These are not homeless. Many are our school teachers. They don't seem to care for themselves. This becomes group consciousness. It really bothers me, as we also see the TV, people looking the same messy way. I feel the messy streets and people's yards reflect the way they are dressed, or is it the other way around?

"I don't expect anyone to be super-neat, with shirt and ties. Just clean, combed as they go to work. This is at least in California, and increasing. It affects how humans do. Anyhow, it's really bad here. Am I being silly? I feel all this affects how we can be controlled by the New World Order and we do not want that ever.

"Please ask Awareness for Its thoughts on this."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is simply a matter of respect, whether entities have self-respect or whether entities respect others, and it comes down to a major change that has occurred during the past four decades, wherein entities have stopped paying attention to the values that this country was originally founded on: the values of certain freedoms and rights of individuals.

When Parents Work the Children Are Left Without Guidance

Much of this has come about as the corporations took over more and more of the wealth of the country and people began to feel more and more the need to get out and scratch harder to make a better living. When the mother had to go to work, leaving the children at home without her care, wherein both parents worked outside the household, and no one really was there to care for and maintain the base from which the family operated, this left children without much guidance or support in terms of their home life, for many hours during the day.

Gradually, over a period of time, the children developed different values based on their own peer pressure and on the lack of continued and steady guidance. The mother, who had in previous generations been home when the children arrived home from school, would have them some snack, would make sure they got their homework done, perhaps give them some chores to do and make sure that they were clean and neat in their rooms, and so forth.

This Awareness indicates without this kind of guidance and assurance from a loving mother who was present in the home, the children then became more confused about what to do or how to behave, and when the parents did come home from work, the double-working family household; they were often too tired to really spend much quality time with the children.

Thus a generation of children grew up with very little guidance, and it was not so much the fault of the mother, because she too was working hard and spending much time on the job, nor was it really the fault of the father because he had his job to do, and did not have the time or the energy to spend very much time with the children.

What is happening to humanity is based largely on the fact that for the last half-century, the social trend was to make housekeeping simpler. Washing machines take away all the hard work of scrubbing clothes. Cooking became simpler in that entities could make quick meals without really knowing how to cook.

They could pop a TV dinner in the oven, and later in the microwave, so that foods were cooked without any tender loving care, and entities could be fed in the same way that you feed a dog; a quick meal,-- toss the dog a biscuit or a bone and be done with it! This Awareness indicates in this case: have a TV dinner ready for the kids when they are ready to put it in the oven or the microwave and not really have to sit down and have a meal.

Children Get Social Orientation Rather Than Family Orientation

This Awareness indicates that the quality time of families eroded and the work on keeping the house up also eroded, and the corporations and the businesses that hired the parents took more and more of the family with them, and the family time became less and less important. Thus a generation of children grows up with little family orientation and more of a social orientation based on what the other kids do, what happens out on the street on the way home from school or at school.

This Awareness indicates without much guidance from the family, the children are then in school with a lack of personal respect, a lack of personal guidance and the teachers find the children harder to manage, and the teachers do not really enjoy their job, and lose respect for the children and for themselves, and for the role of teaching.

Drugs and Birth Control Contribute to Society's Breakdown

This Awareness indicates society begins to break down with more and more people having less and less respect for themselves or for others. Bring along the drug situation into this scene and more entities become affected by the use of drugs. Then add the new situation in which birth control takes the place of character guidance, and entities taking birth control feel they are free to have sex at a young age, but the birth control does not always get taken or does not always provide the protection, or other younger people yet see their older sister and brother having sex and think that it is okay when you're thirteen to start having sex, and may not even know about birth control.

Thus, these young babies begin having babies, though they are barely able to read, and cannot possibly hold a job or take on any responsibility for they have not been trained to be responsible. They are still children in their early teens. This Awareness indicates that these birth events begin happening to younger and younger girls, who think that having a baby will be the way whereby they can grow up quicker and become free and get out of the home, and have their own life and their own freedom.

Young Girls Think Having a Baby Will Solve Love Problems

They expect that by getting pregnant they will suddenly have a husband to help raise their child, and they think that having a child will give them someone they can love, "Since Mommy is not home and is out working, I want someone close, like a baby of my own that I can love!", and thus they have this strange belief that they will find the love they didn't get from their mother by having their own baby, and thus, they become young mothers, thinking that motherhood is simply hugging a little doll that coos and loves the mother.

This Awareness indicates when the baby is born, the baby cries and screams and is uncomfortable and the mother is haggard and tired and wants to rest, but the baby wants her to constantly pay attention and to do things for her, and the mother is not mature enough to handle the responsibility, nor is the father older enough, mature enough to handle the responsibility or supporting such a child or of tying up his life into supporting the family, and thus, the father eventually, maybe a month or two after the baby is born, wants to get away, or maybe the father doesn't even want to play family provider at all.

The Working Parents or Grandparents Now Must Help

Thus, the family never really comes together, and another child, another generation of children grows up without a family, and the entire society by this time has begun to break down. The working parents or grandparents of this family are now reaching an age wherein they are tired. They are trying to save enough so that they can retire, and yet they have to help their child who is now married or now with family and not married, and if married, the husband is not educated or mature enough to hold a solid meaningful job.

The money does not come, and the grandparents begin to share their earnings and retirements monies with the children or grandchildren, and thus the whole family begins to deteriorate so that it becomes a more and more degraded society. Who has time to teach people to be mannerly?

Dirty Language was Liberated by Lenny Bruce in the 60's

The language that entities use when speaking to each other is often designed to shock. In the Sixties, Lenny Bruce made an issue of the difference between fighting and killing in a war across the other side of the world, and the fact that he was being arrested for using a language that was considered 'obscene,' and everyone agreed that the use of foul words is not nearly so disgusting as the killing and slaughter of other people in the name of a war for the big gas companies or the oil companies trying to exploit foreign people.

Thus, the acceptability of foul language became a trend, and the movies and the writings in books and on the street and even in the homes began to use words that were totally foreign to the household of the 1950's and before.

The young boys and girls from the age of 6 and up, using words that even the sailors of World War II did not use, and it became permissible because the parents weren't there to correct them, and the only one who heard these words were people of their own age, and it made them sound like they were knowledgeable in the world because they used foul language or smoked or drank or used drugs.

They associated these vices with 'growing up' and entities who saw them saw them as being really suave or sophisticated. "He smokes, he drinks, and he's only 9! He's really cute!" they might say. And thus, these children become popular among their peers because they look like they know what they're doing in the world. They are not naive. They are not innocent. They are knowledgeable. They know what to do on the streets. They know how to talk in the crowd, and they imitate each other, and other children the same age begin to use the same words or learn how to smoke or drink or use drugs.

Thus, another generation becomes more corrupted than the one before. This Awareness indicates it all begins with the efforts of society to get more people working so that more taxes can be collected, so that government can become stronger and create more bureaucracies to pass out the monies to those who are deemed as needy or worthy of such government programs.

Much "Welfare" Money Goes to Corporate Welfare

This is not an indictment of Welfare necessarily, because much of this money does not go to Welfare. Much of it goes to corporate welfare or to research into war machinery or war equipment or war technologies. Much of the research goes into learning how to make things function better for corporations, such as: "How do you make food last longer on the shelves?" or, "How do you create certain things that help the production and marketing of products so that they do not spoil and so that the corporations can rake in more money without the danger of spoilage?"

This Awareness indicates that there are so many ways in which the government has helped corporations that it far overshadows the Welfare programs that are often the subject of conversation in the political circles. It is not so much the Welfare programs that are the problem. It is the corporate Welfare and the money that is spent on researching for the benefit of corporations and military and medical programs that allow the medical field to have more and more control over the lives of entities at greater and greater cost.

Each Decade Corporate Greed Increases

This Awareness indicates that the problem has worsened because throughout these past four generations each decade has become a decade of greater and greater greed wherein money becomes more and more the object and meaning of life. In the Forties entities fought a war for freedom. In the Fifties they were still concerned about freedom.

In the Sixties there was a kind of schism in the land because some entities saw the war as but a corporation war against a foreign country wherein the oil companies wanted to capture the oil off the coast of Vietnam and the country claimed it was a battle over Communism, that if that Vietnam peninsula fell, Communism would take over all of Southeast Asia, and there were many who saw this as nothing more than a violation based on the oil needs of certain companies, particular Mobil Oil and the British interests in the area.

This Awareness indicates that there are many aspects that occurred during that time of what became more or less a civil war. The little people looking out for freedom to be, to express, to do things against the big government and the corporations who were working together, and a movement between generations began to create a separation and there was that which was called the 'Hippie' culture that clashed with the authority culture or traditional culture of the United States.

Both Hippie Culture and Authority Culture Were Manipulated

The Hippie culture saw itself as fighting for freedom, and the traditional culture saw itself as trying to preserve that country that had given freedoms through its Constitution. Both sides were being manipulated. The Hippie movement being manipulated to break down the structure of the society so that values could eventually totally be usurped and destroyed, and over a period of time these values did in many ways get diluted.

This Awareness indicates during that time the breakup of families began. The breakup of value began. The breakup of families began. Also there was the breakdown in many of the walls of prejudice that existed in the society and entities began to acknowledge the rights of minorities and gradually more conflict occurred from this, but also more tolerance began to develop in society.

It was not seen as a time when intolerance was popular, although there was much intolerance too.

This Awareness indicates many entities began to acknowledge the rights of minority groups, and this Awareness indicates that at the same time, families were beginning to break down and children were turning to these minority groups or to the Hippie movement to find some kind of companionship and a sense of belonging, and this led them to seek some philosophy or meaning in life that may not have been traditional with their family, but nevertheless was important to themselves.

Thus the religions began to lose their controls. Gradually, the people in the United States became likened unto different cultures commingled together, different belief systems, different religions and different values all thrown together, which led to the conflicts of the Seventies, Eighties and in the Nineties, and to the structures that began to form anew, along different lines, as is occurring in present time.

Government Agencies Flooding Country with Drugs

This Awareness indicates it is the influx of drugs, particularly by governments and shadow government agencies coming into the United States, being sponsored by the shadow government of the United States, wherein these drugs are being brought into this country for dissemination on the streets and in the cities, with the anti-drug programs being talked about by the media while nothing much is done in the actual stopping of the flow of drugs into the country.

This Awareness indicates wherein the entities in the highest echelon of government become key players in bringing these drugs into the country, this is why these current situations and problems are so prevalent today, why people are rude to each other, why people do not respect each other, why there is so much hostility and crime and disrespect among young people, and why the values have been so easily and completely deteriorated in this country.

A Long-Range Plan to Break Down all Meaningful Structures

It all was a long-range plan to break down all the structures that were meaningful in this country. Even in the educational process, the structures have changed. History today does not teach of the heroes of yesterday. It does not give much on the founding fathers for this country. It talks more about the 'movements' that occurred; the human rights movement, wherein the women got the vote, wherein Indians were pushed off their lands, wherein the people changed the society through the mass-movements in consciousness; these social changes are the focus of attention in today's history.

Education Speaks of "Mass Movements" Not Individualism

In yesterday's history, the history taught in the Forties, you learned about the events that shaped the nation as they were perpetrated through individuals. Present education does not promote individualism, it promotes mass-movements. It does not speak of who is controlling the mass-movements. It does not tell you about the individuals or groups that are controlling these mass-movements. It gives you the impression that mass-movements 'just happen' and that you are part of a mass-movement to make change for the New World Order.

This Awareness indicates that this is the 'education' of the present, and this Awareness suggests that this is designed to make people accept the changes that are being perpetrated by those who want to alter society so that individuality is of no further significance and that the individual, as in Communist Russia in the past 40 years, was only part of the state, and that the state is what is important, and the movement is what is important, and the individual must be sacrificed for the good of the all.

In the early Republic of the United States, the individual was king. The individual was important, and the state was not important, and by focusing on the individual and creating a state based on individuals' wishes, the state became a servant of the individual citizens, and the citizens made the country or the state what it was.

This Awareness indicates it is now being reversed so that individuality is lost, is sacrificed for the good of the whole. This Awareness indicates this essentially is the Communist doctrine and the Communist approach, and it will be the way by which the totalitarian government of the world will control the masses. No individual will have rights. The state and society will have rights taken from the individual for the good of the state, for the good of society, and if entities cannot follow those dictates, they will have no place in the society.

This Awareness indicates that is the general plan of the New World Order. It is essentially being created for the good of corporations rather than for the good of individuals. This Awareness indicates that more and more corporations are asking for the protection of the Bill of Rights, but denying those Bill of Rights protections from individuals who work within the corporations. The corporation wants to have the freedom to express itself, but it does not allow such freedoms to its own employees.

Corporations are Never Punished. The Workers Often Are

The corporation does not allow the whistle-blower to continue or to exist, and there are many times a whistle-blower in a corporation, someone who tells of the misdeeds of a corporation, will simply be murdered. They will simply disappear, or be killed and in some way the corporation never is held responsible. This Awareness indicates if anyone in the corporation is caught, that person will be sacrificed for the good of the corporation, but the corporation is never punished. Individuals are punished.

This Awareness indicates seldom do the leaders of a corporation get punished for deeds of the corporation. It is usually the workers and the people who oppose a corporation who get punished. This Awareness indicates that this appears to be the trend that will become ever-stronger in the future: governments protecting the corporations because the corporations give jobs to people, keep people in the country busy and keep them working, giving them jobs so that the people can pay taxes, the corporations pay taxes, and the government gets some benefit; the bottom line being money.

The bottom line of a corporation being money, the bottom line of an individual being to go along in order to get paid. This Awareness indicates every decade money becomes more powerful and with every generation freedom becomes lost more and more, and the values are changing from generation to generation.

When Will People Begin to Respect Themselves?

This Awareness indicates when will entities begin to respect themselves? To say to themselves: "I don't really deserve this! I want my freedoms back! How can we work together to get our freedoms back?" This Awareness indicates there was a march on Washington on September 1st of this year for the purpose of reinstating the Constitution. Originally it was planned to have one million people go to Washington to demand the return of the Constitution, for the Constitution is being ignored, and executive orders are being passed. Statues are being passed as law by the Federal government, but these statutes are often in violation to the Constitution, which is the Law of the Land.

The Law of the Land is being ignored and the statutes are being enforced. There was a statement by a judge in regard to the argument of the militia in Montana, pointing out that these entities were correct in their legal evaluation of a situation, and he agreed "Yes, this is all legally correct. The only question is: How are you going to enforce your view of the law?" The law enforcement is an element of importance, not just the argument of law.

The Constitution is only as meaningful as it is possible to be enforced, and when you have a government and a people who are not willing to demand the enforcement of the law of the land, then whoever rewrites the law, who can enforce it, becomes the power, becomes the new law.

Public Doesn't Care Government Not Following Constitution

This Awareness indicates that it is seen at this time that this New World Order is coming in because the public does not care enough to demand the government follow the Constitution, which is, by law, the law of the land, and they are violating that law and creating new laws that will eventually attempt to destroy the Constitution, and if they get by with the doing so, the police force of the corporations and of the government that is succumbing to the corporate laws or corporate rules will also be part of the oppression over the people.

Wherein the people were the government, and it was a government of the people, for the people, by the people, it will be a government over the people and for the corporations and the super-wealthy, and it will put the people into the plantations of the corporate rules. The plantation of slavery in the deep South is now expressed as international corporations, and entities will belong to one or another of these corporations and will be ruled and controlled by these corporations, will be owned by the corporations and will be servants and slaves to these corporations within the next generation or two at most, if this trend continues.

This Awareness indicates it does appear as though it will continue if entities do not awaken. However, this Awareness does also wish to suggest that many people are beginning to awaken. Ten years ago, it was safer; not as much was happening to threaten the individuality of the masses. But ten years ago, people were not yet fully awakened, and the corporations and the world planners, the global elite, had more freedom to pull off their world government.

Next Three Years Will Determine Freedom or Slavery

Gradually, after ten years have passed, they are closer to completion of their goal, but more people have awakened between that ten year period and present day, so that this is becoming increasingly more difficult for them to oppress the masses. It is this last little bit; the next three years, that will be so crucial to their plans, and it is during this time that their plans may either go awry completely and they will lose their control, or they will overpower the people completely and gain complete control to set up their New World Order and the totalitarian world government.

This Awareness indicates the trailer parks and the rude individuals in these trailer parks may become even more obnoxious as the pressures continue to build on humanity, making people more afraid and more difficult to work with or harder to find self-respect or respect for each other, but entities who recognize this do not have to play into the hostilities. They can still be polite, they can still respect each other, and can work to find some degree of decency, even in a society that has gone mad.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Her statement, after listing those concerns that "This becomes group consciousness." This is true is it not? And if so, how much has this affected the group consciousness?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates It just discussed this for approximately 15 minutes as a situation relating to generations. These generations were groups. This Awareness does not clearly understand if you are referring to a small group, or groups of generations, masses of people, or just what is meant by the term 'group consciousness,' as presented.

QUESTIONER:

I think, in her context, that she was seeing this happen in the trailer park, and she said that all of this affects group consciousness, the rudeness and so forth. Group consciousness is all consciousness, is it not? Like around the world. Is this type of thing going to increase dramatically, or does It see it lessening.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that is exactly what this Awareness was discussing for the past 15 or 20 minutes in reference to the changes in consciousness over the past 40 years and how it came about from family problems and breakdown into general society as various events came about, and how the group consciousness is being affected by the corporations and New World Order elite, and how the entities need to manage to respect each other, even in times of what appears to be a mass-madness on the earth plane.

This Awareness indicates that if there is a misunderstanding about the term 'group consciousness' or if you are asking about a limited group, or particular group, this Awareness suggests that this be defined clearly. Does this refer to the group in the trailer park? The group in the trailer park and its behavior in terms of respect for each other? This Awareness indicates that in the way the question was presented, it appeared that this group was symbolic of what is happening in the world. This Awareness indicates that if the question was focused more on the group of people in the trailer park, limited to her own local concerns, this Awareness misread the meaning of her question.

This Awareness indicates it appears that the families in the trailer court are going through much the same kind of experiences that are occurring elsewhere in the world, and that this can be understood by looking at the changes in society in general; that generations in the trailer park have similar problems to those in society at large.

There are many entities in the trailer park whose parents are working, and whereby the mother must also go to work so that the children are left alone more than is healthy for them. This Awareness indicates it appears that these children do not have sufficient guidance to give them a good solid feeling of family support, and that they have not been well-trained in terms of manners and respect for others, and thus, are more rude to others than others have been used to, particularly people who have lived in the Fifties and Forties, to have witnessed the change that has occurred in the behavior of young people.

Under New World Order Values Will Deteriorate Further

This Awareness indicates It does not see that much is going to reverse this trend; that it is likely to become further eroded as the New World Order puts more and more pressure on the masses; that individuality will become less and less significant as the New World Order encroaches more into the lives of the masses, and that the mass-consciousness or social consciousness is all that really matters to the elite global planners and that individuality is of little concern.

They see the willingness to sacrifice the individual for the good of the whole of society, and therefore, entities do not have a great sense of personal worthiness or importance in society, and when entities have a low self-esteem of this nature, they do not aspire to be particularly good citizens in a society. They simply want to get by and have an easy comfortable life, if possible, and they may be rebellious in some ways to each other.

They may be rude to each other as a way of fighting that feeling of unimportance in a society or in a family. This Awareness indicates It does not see that this group consciousness of the trailer park people is much different from that of society in general, or that it will change or become better, unless there are major change in the whole of society.

"Democracy" in the New World Order by 1997?

QUESTION:

A Question from Jan Van T., in Holland. His English is rather hard to decipher here, but basically he's asking: "In your issue #380, Awareness stated the following: "If the New World Order isn't democratized by 1997, rule by the Draco Reptilians and the Orion empire is virtually assured."

"We are now not too far from 1997, and many things happened between this statement in February, 1991, and now, July, 1996, and many things are going to happen before the turn of the century. Can Awareness comment on Its previously given statement and tell us how our chances actually are, in percentages expressed, as we are approaching 1997?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates It cannot give this in terms of percentages. This Awareness indicates that the way it stands at present, there is talk about democracy, as if democracy was to be a part of the New World Order. There is much argument among those global elite that they are spreading democracy through the New World Order; that because Communism collapsed in Russia and Russia is now being brought into the New World Order, the implication is that there is a spread of democracy into Russia and these other places.

Most Voting is Manipulated and Controlled

There is a vote in Russia, and the implication is that this is democracy in action. There are votings going on in various countries and many entities think that voting means democracy, but in general, votings have been manipulated so that they are not really there. They are controlled and manipulated so that the truth of what the people want is not always represented by the voting. These machines that count the votes are controlled by the same companies that set up the gambling booths in Las Vegas, so that the house always wins.

This Awareness indicates that these voting booths are arranged in a similar way, so that they can count the votes, and for every ten votes every one person gets, they can shift two votes over to the other side, or they can change it to be even more lopsided if necessary, so that for every ten votes one person gets, four votes are shifted to the other party, and the machines that count these votes, do not count the way people count. They count so that they can determine a winner. They can 'make' a winner out of a loser.

This Awareness indicates in other words, the voting is not fair because the machines are being manipulated in the same way a computer can be manipulated to bring about a different answer from what would be considered correct by any other form of math.

Democracy Not Always the Best Form of Government

This Awareness indicates democracy itself may not be the absolute best form of government. Democracy goes through stages of change. This Awareness indicates that the first stage of democracy is to find a way of throwing off oppression, getting rid of the oppressor, and developing a kind of self-rule, whereby the masses make the rules for themselves. Then gradually, the develop of a form of security comes about through the laws and through the rules that the democracy develops from the freedom of individuals that make up the citizenry of that democracy.

The sense of security is that which gives way to prosperity, and the prosperity begins to develop in a democracy, and entities begin to become more and more comfortable. Then after a certain degree of prosperity and comfort, entities start to become complacent, and after a time of complacency, they seek to have more security, more rules imposed. They want more support to get them more prosperity and more comfort, and the government that is developed from the democracy attempts to give them what they ask for, and they ask for that which is greater and greater comfort, greater and greater prosperity, and gradually, the government becomes bigger and more important to them.

The next step is that the people become dependent on the government. They depend on the government to provide for them. They depend on the government that they have created, to give them that which they need. The next step is that they move into bondage again, from whence they originally formed a democracy, moving from bondage into freedom; they now return to bondage. How long the bondage lasts is up to the people. But the democracy essentially has come to an end, because the people no longer have a vote, no longer have a say in self-government.

Historically It's Past Due for the U.S. to Become Slave State

They are bound under that government they created, which they became dependent on, and they lose their freedoms at that time, and they are again bound into slavery. The process takes approximately 200 years. In this case it has lasted for 230 years, and by historical pattern, it is time for entities to go back into slavery. Whether they can recognize this pattern and throw off the bondage before it controls them completely and breaks the pattern to allow democracy to last longer is not yet clear, is not yet determined. It is up to the people.

America a Republic Not a Democracy

Some say that a Republic is a better way for people to live. A Republic is that which is not based on popular rule, or majority rule, as a democracy, but on the rights of individuals. Originally it was the 'Republic' of the United States. In the Pledge of Allegiance it still says

"And to the Republic for which it stands" in reference to the flag. It still is read as a "Republic" when saluting the flag, but it became a democracy later, when the Federal government was incorporated, and the people, the states, allowed themselves to become part of and subjugated to that Federal government which was a corporation and which presented itself as a democracy.

This Awareness indicates that many of the Patriot groups and organizations recognize the Republic of the United States, but do not recognize the democracy of the United States. This Awareness indicates in reference to what has happened in regard to the change that has taken place, the United States democracy is still approximately 30% viable, but there is approximately a 70% totalitarian government in charge. It is totalitarian in the sense that it controls in part through deception that does not appear to be highly coercive, but still in control.

U.S. Presently Under a "Benevolent Dictatorship"

It is likened unto a benevolent dictatorship in this country; the President not necessarily being the dictator, but the government as seen as being a benevolent dictatorship of approximately 70% control over the states, while the states still have approximately 30% of the influence as giving by the United States Constitution.

Draconian Federation and Orion Empire Behind New World Order

This Awareness indicates that this 70% is not static. It is a growing amount. Within the next year the amount could be closer to 75% or 80% control if entities do not see a change in the direction, and the freedoms that remain as part of the Constitutional United States government may be down to approximately 20% by next year. This Awareness indicates of course, in speaking of these changes, of the shift toward the New World Order, It is also referring to that control from the Orion Empire and Draconian Federation, which is behind this movement toward a New World Order.

This Awareness indicates even though the greater controls are held by the 70% dictatorial factor and only 30% of the original United States as entities have known it in the past, it does not necessarily mean that this is irreversible. There is always the possibility of something happening suddenly that can turn everything around.

Something Could Happen Soon to Turn Everything Around

This Awareness indicates there appears to be something that will happen in regard to the election itself that may reverse the entire attitude of this country.

Whether or not sufficient energies can be brought out at that time to awaken the masses as to what is really happening, or whether it will simply be spun by the spin doctors of the media to give a twist, to make it appear that this is a minor incident, is yet to be determined. This Awareness suggests that it is an opportunity for the Patriots of the country to slip in during the cracks of this major event that will happen during the next month or two, and perhaps get information out that will turn the country around completely, possibly even putting an end to the hopes and plans of the New World Order; for as this country goes, so goes the rest of the world.

This Awareness indicates if this country could turn back to the Bill of Rights and U.S. Constitution there could be many countries in the world that begin to emulate and pattern their rule after the rule of this country, and the Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the United States. This Awareness indicates that in other words, just because things look grim at the moment does not mean it is over. As they say, "It is not over until the fat lady sings." In this case, there is no fat lady on stage yet, and there is still time for a change in directions to occur on this plane.

There have been many setbacks in the past year or two for the new World Order agenda. It was not expected that nationalism in the United States would become so strong. It was not expected that Russia would develop a strong nationalism. But these things have happened, and this is a major disappointment and setback for the global elite.

Crash of Draconian Spacecraft Into Jupiter a Big Setback

This Awareness indicates likewise, it was not expected that the Draconian spacecraft would crash into Jupiter, but this occurred, and the reinforcements were not brought into the earth for their further mischief. This Awareness indicates these are two major set-backs for the New World Order. This Awareness indicates that there are continued potential for further disruption of the New World Order agenda, even if entities do nothing but pay attention.

The paying of attention is a powerful action in helping to bring about the spiritual evolution of things, whereby the Light Forces can do much with the energy that is generated, simply by entities paying great attention to these misdeeds. It is likened unto shining Light on the Dark Forces. You do not really have to do much of anything but shine the Light of your attention on the Dark Forces. It brings them out of hiding so that they cannot operate in the darkness, in the shadows. They can only be exposed, because your attention is a Light in consciousness.

How Can We Awaken the Sleeping Masses?

( This is "Crunch" Time! )

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

Considering the attention span of the people who are still asleep, and a possible opening for Patriots, sort of comparable to, if they had like 5 minutes of actual attention for a short time, because this is such a massive thing to explain to anybody; what could they give in a short span that would catch the sleepers' attention?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the sleepers are not really that critical because they are not giving much energy in any direction; but when entities are aware, awake and attentive, those energies are powerful and in some cases, if they cannot awaken the masses to become aware, it may be better to let them continue sleeping, as long as their sleep does not work against you.

In other words, if you wake up the sleeping masses, disturbing them, you must be cautious that they do not awaken as your enemies and working for the New World Order because they are hypnotized by commands from the New World Order. There are such things as a hypnotic post-suggestion, whereby an entity awakens from a hypnotic trance and acts out the commands of those who hypnotized him while he was asleep.

This Awareness indicates to awaken such a person is not necessarily the best approach. If you can break the hypnotic controls, and make sure that the entity, upon awakening, does not carry out the post-hypnotic suggestions of those who hypnotized the entity, then of course it would be beneficial.

This Awareness indicates all the Patriots can do is get information out to those who are willing to listen. They cannot easily take over from an enemy hypnotist and take control of the subject without first getting rid of the enemy hypnotist or stealing some of the lines of the hypnotist and taking control of the hypnotized subject through suggestions of their own.

This cannot easily be done when the hypnotist has informed the subject that the militia is ugly, mean, cruel, terroristic and generally bad. Then to have the militia come out and say: "Listen to my voice. I will tell you what the truth is!"; this kind of statement for such a hypnotized person is not going to be of much influence, because the entity has already been hypnotized into thinking the militia or the Patriots are fools or worse.

Therefore, it is not so important for the militia or the Patriots to try to steal away those who have been hypnotized. They might simply make things worse. What is important is for them to become open and active in terms of statements that educate and awaken the minds of people in crucial moments when there is a need for entities to know "what's going on here," and this Awareness indicates that is what will happen sometime in the next month or so.

Soon the Masses Will Ask: "What's Going On Here?"

People will be wondering: "What's going on here?" It is during that time that the Patriots need to be ready to give answers, before the spin doctors of the media know what's going on, or have a chance to prepare their presentation. The spin doctors of the media are not going to have advance warning either, and they will be caught off guard also, but the Patriots should be aware, and probably will be aware that there is something likely to occur in the next month or so, and they should, if they are on top of things, be ready to give information, to answer that question that people will be asking: "What's going on here, anyway?"

This Awareness indicates there will be many people who wake up alarmed at the events that begin to unfold, probably during the latter part of October, prior to the election.

Lake Drowning Tragedy Repeats Itself

(Did Susan Smith Murders Jinx the Lake?)

QUESTION:

There was an incident recently that several have written to us about, about a tragedy that repeated itself. I'll read a little bit of the article that was sent in from Union, South Carolina. "The saddest place in the little mill town of Union has a new tragedy now. Seven people, including four children died in John D. Long Lake on Saturday night. They had come to see the spot where Susan Smith drowned her two young sons in the Fall of 1994 in a murder that drew worldwide attention to the usually quite town and lured thousands to the shore.

"The seven victims, including a family of 5 from nearby Buffalo, South Carolina, who were looking at two memorials for the two boys who died after Smith, a mill secretary, let her car role down a boat ramp into the water. She then misled police and the nation, 9 days in October, 1994, by tearfully begging a fictional car-jacker to bring home Michael, 3, and Alex, 14 months.

"Saturday's tragedy, which police says was an accident, was a byproduct of the curiosity that has drawn countless visitors to the lake to place flowers, say prayers or pose for pictures. A group of ten people had driven out to the lake late Saturday night in a Chevrolet Suburban and parked next to the ramp, shining the headlights of the vehicle on granite memorials to the two Smith boys.

"Five of the people had gotten out of the car when it started to roll down the embankment with 4 children and one adult still inside. The vehicle plunged into 15 feet of water, drowning all those inside. Two people outside the vehicle, including the wife and mother of four of the victims, went into the water to try to save them, and they also drowned."

Anyway, the story goes on, but one of the questions

Charlotte K., of Columbus, Georgia writes: "Recently there was a second accident at the lake in Union City where Susan Smith's two young children were drowned. Is this accident of 7 people who lost their lives seemingly under innocent though puzzling circumstances...is there something strange? Is anything jinxed about that particular lake?" she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this was simply a coincidence, a fluke. With so many thousands of people going to that area to look, it is not even coincidental that one vehicle might be carelessly left in such a way as to allow it to roll into the water. This Awareness indicates it is amazing in a sense, that only one vehicle out of thousands was left improperly attended.

This Awareness indicates it is a sign of carelessness or stupidity on the part of the driver, or it is a sign of some malfunction in the vehicle, but not of a jinx in regard to the area. The obsession of entities in seeing a place where children died may have created some kind of subconscious influence whereby the entity did not have the vehicle properly in gear or the brake properly set.

The entity could have parked the vehicle elsewhere or have been able to foresee and have everyone get out of the car, but these are not seen as intentional or expected actions of a driver. It is more likely that he or she simply did not have the gearshift properly set, or that someone in the car may have managed to get the gearshift out of place, which allowed the vehicle to role.

It is very dangerous for entities to park a vehicle on a hill with children in the car, for children do not understand driving and the way by which vehicles can be parked and set. They could easily pull the emergency brake loose, or turn on the key for the radio, then bump the gearshift so that it goes out of gear on any hill. This is a very dangerous thing for entities to do: allow children to remain in a parked car on a hill.

This Awareness indicates that if a car can move forward, you should not have children left in the car with the car unattended, or an adult not present. In this case an adult was present, but was the adult able to reach the steering wheel, or was the adult sitting somewhere else, or was the adult even aware of how to drive a car or stop a car if it began to role?

This Awareness indicates It does not see this as some kind of mystical jinx. It sees it as negligence at best, stupidity at worst.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness, when that story happened, the whole country focused on that area and that particular lake because of that tragedy. Now, in a case like that when so many millions of people focus on such tragedy and send energy out, is it possible that somehow the consciousness of that lake area could be changed in some way that such a tragedy could be repeated, or something of that nature?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates if this is a question whether millions of people witnessing that area of a lake could create a jinx, this Awareness indicates this is negative. If it is a question of whether millions of people focusing on that spot could create a thought-form of some significance, the answer would be, "Yes." But the thought-form would not include the action of causing others to go through the same experience, and therefore, because these entities were focusing on what had happened, the action would not be considered as a jinx of the area itself because the thought-form did not include further families being drowned. It was simply an incident that occurred because some one of the thousands of cars parked in the area was negligent, or somehow left the car gearshift out of place or unsettled the brake.

With several children in the car, it is not actually even weird for such a thing to happen. Children are thoughtless. They do not think about what they are doing. Children sitting behind the wheel of a car love to pretend they are driving. They will mess with the keys, they will mess with the gearshift, the steering wheel, the brakes, the gas, and they might even pull the emergency brake so that it is no longer set. This is not a jinx, it is simply a typical action of a young thoughtless child, and it could happen, particularly considering that there have been so many visitors to the site.

It could happen again; however, the next time, when people have heard of this second family, most entities visiting that site will be more careful about how they park their cars.

(The Law of Gratitude is given)

OPENING MESSAGE: (8/8/96)

WHEN THINGS GET HEAVY REMEMBER THE "LAW OF CHANGE"

This Awareness indicates that life has its ups and downs, has its problems and its enjoyments, and entities may not be able to regulate life so that there is more enjoyment than difficulty, but as a general rule, it balances out fairly well, and entities can accent the positive and diminish the negative by using their own mind and the way they look at things.

This Awareness suggests that entities consider this in times of difficulty, and in times of difficulty remember the Law of Change which states that, "This too will pass." This Awareness indicates during times when things are very enjoyable, forget the Law of Change, but during times of difficulty, don't forget it. Recall it, and tell yourself "This too will pass."

This Awareness indicates likewise, when you are in a situation wherein there is some difficulty, and you realize it will pass, keep your eye on the goals or the hopes and dreams that you may have in life so that you remain optimistic, so that even though things may not be what you would desire them to be, you remain optimistic, because a pessimistic person will only have unhappiness and will see the good things as only temporary, and that is perhaps seen as realistic, but it doesn't make your life as pleasant or as enjoyable as when you are optimistic.

This Awareness indicates you can accent the positive, or you can accent the negative in life and many people will focus on the negative and they can be sure to find plenty of things to be negative about. This Awareness indicates it is almost as though you have a Yin and Yang, and every time you look at one, you feel blue and discouraged, and every time you look at the other you feel happy or elated or encouraged, and therefore, if the entity wishes to have a life of happiness, then it would be best to look at the one that brings the encouragement, and not focus too much on the one that is discouraging.

It is a matter of choice whether your life is good or bad, and it occurs at every moment. Step by step, moment to moment, pay attention to the positive and look at the negative only long enough to deal with it as may be necessary, to improve it so that you can get on with the positive.

This Awareness indicates the entity David Worcester once stated: "I like to get negative really fast and get it over with so I can get back to being positive." This Awareness indicates this is a rather unique way of looking at the situations of life, and may be of benefit to some entities.

This is extremely important in the future when things may seem to be crashing all around, that entities have a way of dealing mentally and emotionally with things that cannot be altered, and have to be experienced.

IS THERE REALLY A "DIVINE PLAN?"

(If So, Why Bother To Do Anything at All?)

QUESTION:

A question from Michael H., Grimsby, Ontario. He asks: "If there is a Divine Plan, therefore there are no mistakes, then why bother doing anything? If everything is already planned out, then isn't exercising my free will an exercise in futility?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates if there is a Divine Plan, it will include certain mistakes that can be made by entities in their choices. If they have choices which lead to mistakes, there can well be consequences for those mistakes, and this may be part of a training or learning program for entities, whereby they learn from their mistakes, and this may be part of the Divine Plan, whereby entities make mistakes and learn from those mistakes, and if they wish to indulge in making mistakes and refuse to learn from those mistakes, then that too may be part of the Divine Plan; to let them see how far they can go in wallowing in continuous mistakes without learning anything from it.

The consequences of mistakes are not something that can be simply ignored by putting it all on God for not having a Divine Perfect Plan, because the perfect plan may include letting entities make mistakes and being forced to learn from those mistakes.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness said "if there is a Divine Plan". There is a Divine plan, is there not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates you can call it what you want. It is the pattern of the universe, the way things work. It can be called a plan, or it can be called the Laws of the Universe, or Universal Laws, or rules; it simply is the way things are.

People like to think that there is some kind of Divine Plan working out their fate, but the Divine Plan or Way Things Are is likened unto someone creating a situation, and others entering that situation, not fully understanding the total repercussions of all things that are in the situation, and having to learn how to cope.

The clockwork of the universe runs according to the mechanisms and entities may think it is a Divine Plan with a purpose and end in sight that allows them to forget about trying to adjust or cope or deal with the problems of life, and just let the Divine Plan work itself out, but it is likened unto saying "Automobiles run down the freeway, and why should I bother learning how to drive when there is a Divine Plan behind the automobile. It works on its own, in a certain way. Why should I learn how to drive? Why can't I just get behind a wheel and go? What is there for me to do? The automobile has its own design! I don't have to worry about its design! It is already taken care of by the Great Engineer!"

This Awareness indicates the automobile does have its own grand design or planned workability, but it still requires the entity be able to adjust to that plan, to that design, in order to maneuver properly through the traffic, and use the design as it is given. It is the same with life. Entities can't just say: "Well, God has the design of simply 'Do what I want to do, and let God's Plan work out for me!'"

This Awareness indicates if you totally surrender yourself to a Divine plan, you may find that it is requiring you to learn how to behave properly, and that may be part of your duties or responsibilities. Even though the Divine Plan is still there, perhaps there is a learning thing that is part of the Divine Plan; a learning requirement.

Perhaps the Divine Plan requires entities to become responsible and mature: spiritually, mentally, physically and in social ways, so that they can fit into and function well in the Divine plan.

A Thumbnail Sketch of Humanity?

QUESTION:

Someone named Bob sent us a question over the Internet. He forgot to give his last name and address, but it's an interesting question. He writes: "One theory put forward to explain the predicament of the entities who currently see themselves as defined by the term "human race" is as follows.

"At the beginning of time, as we know time, advanced souls of high density and evolution chose to experiment by projecting themselves into physical reality, initially into inanimate objects, and then into animal forms of lower vibration/ density. As this "experiment" progressed, it became harder and harder to reverse the course of the experiment, until ultimately a hybrid was formed: highly evolved souls trapped inside animalistic bodies.

"Thus began life, as our race knows it. Over time, eons, the peculiar creatures so formed, next attracted the unwarranted attention of other races from other planets and dimensions, who, for reasons of their own, elected to intervene with and generally tamper with these "lost" creatures, making it harder and harder for the creatures' true nature to come forward. The end result is man as we know him."

And he asks if Awareness will comment.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is an interesting evaluation. It is a kind of statement that could 'generally' be considered as true. The simplicity of the view is that which could not be criticized because essentially, it is not only something that is obvious, it is also something that is so general that it does not really explain anything.

This Awareness indicates basically the entity is saying that spirit went into matter and others noticed the spirit in the matter, and came around and messed with it. This Awareness indicates that is correct. Anything can be messed with, anything that is unusual, but it doesn't really get into anything of value to people today who are in physical form. It simply explains how they got into their physical form.

This Awareness indicates this is not to put the entity's evaluation down. It is simply that when you evaluate in this manner, it is a question of "What are you doing it for?" Is the entity seeking to explain the beginning of humanity? Or is the entity seeking to find some kind of explanation for why we are in bodies? This Awareness indicates these are not totally fulfilling answers. There is much more to the situation than a mere generality that spirit went into form, and other spirits messed with the form and hindered the effort of the spirits in form in their natural evolving process.

This Awareness indicates there are always environmental and external influences on anything, regardless of whether it is spirit in form, or whether it is simply a being in which the wind, weather and elements of nature are affecting it. This Awareness wonders what the point of the argument is. This Awareness indicates it is all right. There is nothing wrong with the argument, but what can this Awareness say that would add to or clarify the argument?

QUESTIONER:

I think he intends it as a thumbnail explanation to the predicament of the entities who call themselves the human race.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This would be a thumbnail description, and as it is, it stands on its own description by that definition. Someone else might describe it differently in a thumbnail sketch. The Cayce Material described it in a different way, although basically similar, as entities in spirit playing with polarities, finding themselves throwing the polarities out of balance, and creating matter in which the spirit moved, and found itself locked in matter, and thus, within physical form.

Essentially, it is the same, with a different slant on its description.

"God's Chosen People"—The Europeans?

QUESTION:

A question from Eva M., in Honolulu. She writes: "Please ask Awareness the following question: Is it true that Western Europeans and not the Jews are in fact "God's chosen people?" This claim is made by the Christian Identity Movement. According to their beliefs, "Those who occupy Palestine and call themselves Jews today do not have a drop of Hebrew blood in them."

"They also teach that modern Europeans and their American descendants originated from the Biblical house of Israel. They had migrated North and West from Palestine over the Caucasus Mountains and into Europe. Once Americans realize they are the true Israelites, then they have to realize they have a responsibility as God's covenant people." That responsibility entails, Eve says, apparently opposing the Federal Government and returning to a common law system.

"The Freemen of Montana and the Weavers of Ruby Ridge were mentioned as Christian Identity members. Again, my question is: Are the Europeans and their American descendants God's Chosen People?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there were 12 tribes, so-called 12 tribes of Israel. These were the various houses or offspring of Abraham, and the offspring of Abraham went in various directions. This Awareness indicates that the concept of 'God's Chosen People' is simply another propaganda term to give one's self-identity a boost. If you can convince yourself that you are God's Chosen Person, or God's Disciple or God's Agent, it gives you a sense of significance and a good self-image. Who can have a poor self-image thinking that they are God's Agent?

This Awareness indicates therefore, the use of the term "God's Chosen Person" or "God's Chosen People" is one which can be claimed by anyone, if they want their self-image to be highlighted and to bask in a sense of importance. This Awareness indicates It is not going to tell you who God's Chosen People are, because that would simply create something to argue about.

If It were to say that the Eastern Europeans are God's Chosen People, what does this do for the Chinese, the Japanese, the Blacks, the Hindu, the Spanish, the American Indians or others? This Awareness indicates it simply puts them into situations in which they have to find where they belong. They have no identity of significance to compete with God's Chosen People.

Therefore, It will not suggest that any one group or another is God's Chosen People; It prefers to suggest that all entities are God's Chosen People, and if any one group is annoyed by that, that is their problem in regard to self-identity. This Awareness indicates they can become frustrated or angered, or ignore this Awareness. It doesn't matter, but It will not engage in saying who are God's Chosen People.

Those Who Call Themselves "Jews"

This Awareness does wish to comment on something relating to many entities who are calling themselves the Jews. The entities from Finland, in the mid-part of this millennium went exploring down the Volga River, and these Finnish people, down through what is now Russia and down toward Greece, on the Volga River, found that they could set up certain points along the river and loot and rob and steal from river traffic, and they would more or less play the role of river pirates, and they robbed entities who were sailing down the river with their goods, and they also set up check-points where they would charge money from people who were traveling down or up river, and thus, take money from these entities as a kind of river tax.

These entities were known as Khazars. This Awareness indicates that they called themselves Khazars, and the Byzantine Church, the Greek Orthodox Church, and the Catholic Church, both considered them as a kind of scourge. They were very displeased with having these entities take money from merchants who were traveling up and down the river, and some of the kings in Europe were also very disturbed by these actions, and thus, they put out an edict that the Khazars had to choose whether they were Christian, Catholic Christians or Orthodox Christians; whether they were the Byzantine type Christian or the Roman Catholic Christian, and either way they would have to abide by the church rules.

The Khazars pondered over this for some time, and after considerable time, stalling and studying, they realized they had to make some choice, and they announced that they were neither the Greek Orthodox Christian, nor the Roman Catholic Christian; they were Jews, and they embraced the Hebrew religion or philosophy, which included the Talmud and the Kabalah as their books of importance.

These were blond-haired, blue-eyed Nordic types claiming to be Jews, and these entities continued their activities up and down the river, collecting taxes, et cetera. This Awareness indicates that in this manner, they got around the church edicts and formed their own religion, based on Judaism or the Hebrew philosophy, and these are the entities who, in the current society or world, have moved into positions of great power and great wealth, that so many are hostile to, and these are the entities who are labeled as Jews today, but are confused with the average Jewish person and the Middle East type of Palestinian Jew.

Khazar Jews Not the Average Jew

These entities are the ones who control much of the wealth of the world through the methods and development of wealth manipulation that so many entities are hostile to, and yet, entities lump them in with the average Jew who is simply another person trying to get through life in the same way that anyone else would, so that the average Jew gets blamed for much that occurs by the actions of the Khazars.

The Khazars are not Jews. They are simply Khazars of Finnish descent who call themselves Jews, and the average Jew is blamed for their shenanigans or their money controls and so forth, and this is where much of the prejudice against Jews comes from. Adolf Hitler went after the Jews without any understanding of what a Jew really is, and yet it was the Khazars who set Adolf Hitler up in Germany and gave him the power.

This Awareness indicates that this is an irony in today's world that few people understand, and it is important to get this into perspective. If you are going to be hostile, don't be hostile toward the average Jew. They are simply entities trying to get along from day to day like you or your friends, or anyone else. They do not have the power, they do not hold the great wealth of the world.

It is generally the Khazars masquerading as Jews who hold this great wealth, and in some cases even, the Khazars will bring other Anglo-Saxons into their fold and they will hold great wealth and work hand in glove with the Khazars and manipulate the masses with their wealth in the same way.

It is very unfortunate that entities label things or label people with a name and then begin to have hostility toward the innocent people who also share that label.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is Awareness saying that those 13 families who control and manipulate the finances of the world, or those Illuminati basically comprised of Jews, as we know them: Rothschild, Rockefeller, Warburg, Kuhn, Loeb et cetera, are in fact not of Jewish descent, but Khazars?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates for the most part, these are Nordic descendants, for the most part. In some cases these entities are Germanic. There are very few who have any pure Jewish or Hebrew blood in them.
