THE NAZI 4TH REICH IN AMERICA

(Political Correctness and "Goals 2000")

Opening Message: (CAC General Reading, 1/14/97)

This Awareness wishes to cover a few items that need attention. This Awareness wishes to begin with a brief story of two different small children. This Awareness indicates the first child, a young boy during recess at school, was accosted by an older child who wanted to pick a fight, and told the young boy, "You're dumb!" The young boy felt defensive and said "I am not!"

The older boy said "Yes you are! You're dumb!" The young boy repeated his disclaimer and the older boy again repeated that he was dumb, and the young boy said "I am not dumb!" and thought about the most important authority to his mind to verify that he was not dumb, and said "I know I'm not dumb, because my momma said I wasn't!"

The older boy began to laugh: "His momma says he isn't dumb!" and began to laugh and laugh. The young boy felt somewhat embarrassed in front of the other children and later that evening he went home and asked his mother, "Am I dumb?" She reassured him that he is not dumb.

This Awareness indicates the second child was a young black girl who started her first day at school and one of the white students in her class called her a "Negro" and said "Look! She's a Negro!" and she denied it, and others in the class agreed with the first: "Yes she is! She's a Negro!" She said "No, I am not!", and it was repeated by all the class that she was a Negro.

The young girl that evening came home crying to her mother. Her mother asked her: "What's wrong? Didn't you like school?" She said "No! Everybody said I was a Negro. They called me a Negro!" (Incidentally, this was back in the Fifties, before the term 'Black' was used in place of the term 'Negro').

The mother replied: "Well, you are a Negro. So am I, so is Grandma, so is your Grandpa, so is your Dad. We're all Negroes!" The little girl began to cry louder: "But I don't want to be a Negro!" She began to cry about it, and her mother assured her "It's all right to be a Negro. There are lots of Negroes! We are all Negroes!" The little girl continued to cry: "But I don't want to be one!"

This Awareness tells these stories to indicate the openness and naiveté of children. Their minds are totally open. It is easy for them to be programmed or described by others in a way that affects them. This Awareness suggests to entities reading this, that if you do not define yourself in a way that is relatively realistic and believable, then others will define you according to their terms, and this may not always be to your liking.

This Awareness indicates in this emerging world in which political correctness is playing a major part, entities need to understand the importance of the definitions that are being given, for the schools are no longer teaching right or wrong, they are simply teaching political correctness.

Learn to Understand the Definitions of "Political Correctness"

For example, one of the tenets of the new "Goals 2000" educational system is to convince children that there is no such thing as right or wrong; there is only opinion; there is only attitude, and there is that which is politically correct, and that which is politically incorrect. This Awareness suggests that you begin to understand the definitions being used.

What is the term 'political' in reference to behavior between entities as is being taught in the schools of today? This Awareness indicates 'poly' in its Greek and Latin terminology means "many." "Polygamy" means "many wives". 'Politics' is referring to "many people" and it is particularly strong in the concept of a democracy, where the majority rules.

The Tyranny of the Majority (or Mob Rule)

This Awareness reminds you of Detouqueville (sp), the French writer who came to America in the early days of its history to discover exactly what Democracy was like in the United States and returned to write a book called... This Awareness indicates this appears to be The Tyranny of the Majority. This Awareness indicates this tyranny of the majority, which was the subject of his book, had to do with more or less 'mob rule;' --the greater the majority, the more "right" they appeared to be.

In other words: 'political correctness'. It was a form of "Might makes Right," except rather than fighting on a battle field, such as in the days of the knights or in war, it was simply a matter of the might of the majority over the rights of the minority. This Awareness indicates that the greater the politics, the more power over those who do not share that view.

This Awareness suggests that this is apparently the aspect of the new "Goals 2000" educational system, in which political correctness becomes a power that will determine right or wrong, without using the terms 'right' or 'wrong'. This Awareness indicates in other words, if you look at it from a rather objective view, the entities who said in the 14th and 15th Century that the earth was flat, being politically correct, because they all agreed with each other, except for that renegade Columbus and a few others, would never have allowed Columbus to make his famous voyage.

Facts Are Not Important: The Majority Opinion Will Decide

This Awareness indicates that facts are not of importance in a political reality. The politics, or opinions of the many will rule. This Awareness indicates that it then becomes a matter of winning by winning opinions, rather than by establishing facts, or determining facts based on evidence. In other words: "Science be damned!" The majority opinion will be the deciding factor.

This Awareness indicates likewise, in the effort to establish the concept of 'political correctness,' the entities who are concerned with right and wrong, in terms of law, in terms of human endeavors, can be manipulated by the politics rather than by the facts. If enough people are opposed to their so-called "facts," then the facts may be damned also. The facts are not important to those who are promoting 'political correctness.'

This Awareness indicates perhaps this will lead to a world without violence as some claim, but perhaps it will result in greater violence of the tyranny of the majority, in which the majority is allowed to terrorize the minority. This Awareness indicates that this is something to be aware of in this emerging new, what Huxley called "Brave New World," this New World Order.

George Bush Heads Nazi 4th Reich in U.S.

This Awareness indicates essentially, it is the 4th Reich; that the Nazis did not lose the war. They simply lost a battle in the 1940's and moved their territory to the United States and the entity George Bush being one of the more powerful new rulers of the 4th Reich in promoting the New World Order has his background and his roots deeply sunk into the old Nazi movement in which his father and grandfather assisted in the funding of Adolf Hitler and his 3rd Reich, and whereby George Bush was schooled in the Skull and Crossbones Society that was founded in Nazi Germany in the early Thirties.

Goals 2000 Mind Control Could Make Slaves Like Cathy O'Brien

This Awareness indicates that this New World Order is working very carefully to reprogram the mass-minds, and entities who wish to see what is coming can very well get an idea from the work by Cathy O'Brien and her friend Mark Phillips in the book Trance Formation of America. This Awareness indicates that this may be likened unto a sliding scale, whereby the Goals 2000 program which is much milder than the heavy mind-control that this entity experienced, is on one end of the scale, and Cathy O'Brien's experience in her mind control programming for the government agencies is on the other end of the sliding scale, but you can see that as time passes, those children being programmed from Goals 2000 can be gradually moved into greater and greater mind control and become slaves of this 4th Reich known as the New World Order.

Events to Expect in the Year 1997

This Awareness indicates that is one element this Awareness wished to mention. This Awareness indicates another is in reference to 1997 events and changes that are seen as being part of the coming landscape for this time. This Awareness indicates that the year is seen as bringing approximately 2 to 3 episodes that will lead to changes in consciousness, and a kind of erosion that will occur in those foundations that entities have taken for granted as being external structures.

Erosions In Church, Government and Society

This Awareness indicates there will be erosions in the church, there will be erosion in governments, and there will be erosion in society in general. The structures of outside controls which entities have often come to rely upon are likely to erode considerably in the 1997 year. This Awareness indicates that erosion will weaken the faith and the ability of entities to depend on those outside of themselves, but in exact response and in the same proportion as the erosion occurs on the outside, of the outside controls, inner controls within the individual will strengthen.

You No Longer Can Depend on Outside Sources

Entities will become stronger within, and will begin to take back their own individuality, their own inner strength and their own empowerment. This Awareness indicates in the long run, this will be to the benefit of entities, but it will be quite disturbing to many who have come to rely so heavily on external controls and government through church, society and nations.

This Awareness indicates that these dependents on outside gods or demi-gods will become less and less worthwhile to the entity, and the dependents on self, and one's own inner strength and one's own inner spirituality will become more and more important to the survival of entities, to the welfare of entities.

Values will have to come from within, because values from external sources will be shifting through scandals, through the falling of institutional values and controls; those things which entities have valued from an external factor, including money, including religion; all of these things will become less and less capable of giving security.

The mountain of debt from credit cards, from the institutions of government have grown so great that the world can no longer endure such a mountain of debt without some kind of re-adjustment occurring. Therefore, entities will need to learn how to rely on themselves, not on their credit card, not on the banks, and not on external forces.

A New Dimensional Reality Appears as the Old 3rd Dimension Crumbles

This Awareness indicates as entities begin to rely more on themselves, with the faith they need and the faith they internally possess, they will even discover that the world, as it collapses in this third dimension, is reaching out into the next dimension, and this Awareness indicates it will be likened unto an image, a screen image, a picture on a movie screen, where the image begins to fade or fall apart, yielding still another image behind, so that one layer dissolves and another layer comes forth, and as entities perceive this, they find that the next layer is introducing a new dimensional reality as their own three-dimensional reality begins to crumble.

This Awareness indicates people will cling to shattered parts of the old reality, only to find that those shattered parts fall apart further, likened unto paper that has been burnt and breaks into ashes so that the holder begins to realize he is only holding a handful of ashes, not the deed to his property. This Awareness indicates that as entities find this old three-dimensional reality crumbling from any kind of handling or pressure, they also find that the property, the reality of being, is still there, is still strong, even without that crumbled paper that gave possession of the property of the old dimension.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto moving from one dimension into another as ice melts on a pond, wherein you discover that the water has also receded and you are standing on a mud-sloped ledge and yet, you are not sinking, and you are not drowning, and that the mud-sloped ledge leads to higher and dryer ground in the future.

Your Mind Will Manifest Everything You Need Out of Thin Air!

This Awareness indicates as the third dimension melts and the fourth dimension materializes or emerges, you also discover that the mind which you possess has the capability of manifesting in this new reality. You can manifest food. Even though the old three dimensional world may have left starving entities, you now have the ability to manifest the food you need right out of thin air, just as the yogi's of Tibet and India have been known to do for many, many ages.

This Awareness indicates that as entities reach within themselves, find the essence of their own God-like being within, they can manifest in this new reality, this new creation, to satisfy the needs of each moment. This Awareness indicates that it is important for entities to keep in mind those things that this Awareness has told you: The universe appears and disappears every four quadrillionths of a second, and because each four quadrillionths of a second is a totally new universe, you can create in that next moment, those things that are necessary for your new universe to sustain life, to sustain those things you need.

Your Divine Creator Intended You to be God-Like

This will be the great security that entities seek: You become the rainbow's end. You become the pot of gold, rather than pursuing the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. You become the one who manifests the reality you seek. This Awareness indicates that as you learn to create your world with each step, as you learn to move from moment to moment creating your new reality, you will then realize you are indeed a multidimensional being with God-like abilities.

This Awareness indicates that many will think this is a sacrilegious statement: that humans cannot, should not, and would not rightfully ever consider themselves as God-like, but this Awareness suggests that the Ultimate Divinity, the Ultimate Creator intended for His or Hers or Its creation to become likened unto Itself, to have similar powers of creation.

This Awareness indicates you cannot, as a third dimensional lesser being equate yourself with the Divine Being, but as you move into such Divinity yourself, then you become One with the Creator, One with the Divine Father, and thus have similar abilities, similar empowerment.

First You Must Start Taking Responsibility For Your Actions

This Awareness indicates the first thing entities must do is to start taking responsibility for their own actions, for their own behavior and for their own welfare, so that they are not dependent on someone else out there to save them from themselves or from their plight of difficulties in existing.

This Awareness indicates that this will begin with greater impetus in the year 1997, and by the year 2000 it will be well on its way to freeing entities from their third dimensional entrapment, but entities can speed the process by avoiding mind control and taking charge of their own thoughts, of their own thinking, of their own reality.

Your Thoughts Make Your World—Avoid Negative Thoughts

This Awareness indicates it is important that entities recognize their thoughts make their world, and that they not pollute the world with negative thinking, or with thinking that is belittling to themselves or others. Do not put others down. Do not belittle others, for it reflects on yourself equally strong. It is like the entity Willy Mento (sp) teaches in his seminars: Any time you call someone else a negative name or say something bad about them, you give them the copy and keep the original yourself.

If you tell someone "You are dumb!" they only get the copy of your statement. The original thought is within yourself, and it takes seed and grows within your own fertile mind, and eventually you begin to recognize and visualize and see yourself as being dumb.

This Awareness indicates likewise, calling others, as has been termed for example, "Calling a spade a spade" or calling the little black girl a "Negro" may be true. It may well be that she is black and is Negro, but it is the attitude that accompanies the name-calling that hurts and causes pain and suffering.

This Awareness indicates if the young girl had not been hurt, she would have come home elated to tell her mother: "I am a Negro! I didn't know I was Negro! I am a really true Negro!" and she could have been proud of herself. This Awareness indicates that what is is, and there is little reason for entities to be made to feel inferior because of it.

This Awareness indicates that it is important for entities to feel good about themselves, but not at the expense of someone else. To make yourself feel good for being white or for being black, because someone else is different, is not a healthy way to lift yourself up. As the entity Yogananda stated: "Some people can only be big by cutting off the heads of others." This Awareness indicates that this does not make them big. It makes them very much demented and small in moral and spiritual stature.

This Awareness suggests that entities think about these things. It is not simply a matter of political correctness that is being promoted in these messages. It is a matter of accuracy, or rightness and wrongness. There is that which is right, and there is that which is wrong, and it has nothing to do with opinion. This Awareness indicates if you have an opinion, think it through completely. Do not simply parrot it, or hold it, or look for political advocates to side with you on some opinion that has not been well-thought through.

The Lawsuit Against the Federal Reserve

This Awareness indicates that another topic this Awareness wishes to discuss which has not been kept up with well is in regard to the Federal Reserve claims case that has been promoted some times in the past. The entity Roy Schwasinger having begun actions that led to this, has been acting in defense of Scott Hildebrand, his wife, and several other persons who were involved in accepting claims from entities in regard to the Federal Reserve banking class action suit.

This Awareness indicates that Scott Hildebrand was arrested, and his wife also arrested along with these several others, one of whom was the person who took the checks, in whose name the checks were written, who served as the treasurer for the activity, and these entities did go to court. The court hearing the arguments, began to question the prosecutor as to what evidence he had to back up his accusation that these entities had defrauded the public.

This Awareness indicates before this trial got far into the arguments, Hildebrand's lawyer had a heart attack and Hildebrand was dismissed from the case, temporarily, while they continued to try the remaining defendants. As the case progressed, the judge kept asking the prosecutor: "Where is your evidence of fraud?" The prosecutor, being unable to produce any evidence, rested his case, and asked that the defendants then put forth their case: the purpose being to get the defendants with approximately several thousand witnesses, to get up on the stand and to present their case.

It was the plan of the prosecutor to fish for information from the defendants and their witnesses so that he could use this as his evidence and thus create a situation wherein the defendants appeared guilty. However, the attorney for defense, after the prosecutor was unable to present any evidence, simply rose and said: "The defense rests also."

This Awareness indicates the entities were then dismissed from the case. Whether this will lead to a similar dismissal for Scott Hildebrand, or whether it will lead to his being called back for a further case, is not yet clear.

This Awareness indicates however, It does suggest that entities who have put forth their claims in this may not yet want to give up totally on any potential coming from it. It is still up in the air. There is great effort, of course, by those powers to prevent this from going forward, but this Awareness indicates it was a relatively important victory for the entities in the claims against the Federal Reserve Bank.

The Recent Predictions of Sheldon Nidle

This Awareness indicates in regard to the assertions and predictions of Nidle, referring to the Sirian invasion of earth to rapture the earth people, some of you may have noticed it did not occur as scheduled. This Awareness indicates the entities at Headquarters at Cosmic Awareness Communications did have three days of darkness because of a winter storm, wherein the storm cut off the power, but even they were not totally fooled by the surrogate rapture or alternative experience, and discerned that it was related to the ice storm and wind that toppled trees, and neither they nor the Interpreter noticed any UFOs that day.

This Awareness indicates that there were efforts by some of the followers of the Nidle messages to explain away what happened. One message on the Internet suggested that the Greys and others got in a spaceship dogfight and led the Sirians to return to rethink their program. This Awareness indicates this of course was simply far-fetched. If there have been one and a half million spaceships coming to earth, they would not be deterred by a few Grey alien spaceships.

This Awareness indicates in other words, there was a discrepancy in the predictions, and that which actually occurred, which was essentially very little. There were of course many reports of UFO in different places around that time, but such reports occur on a daily basis anyway.

The Hale/Bopp Comet and Its Companion: A Cover-Up

This Awareness indicates that the Hale-Bopp comet or whatever, was also in the news around that time, along with a companion body that had an appearance similar to that of Saturn. It was calculated that Hale-Bopp is approximately three times the size of the earth and that the companion was approximately four times the size of Hale-Bopp.

This Awareness indicates there were Internet messages and other information suggesting that the companion was actually a fake on a photograph and that it was the astronomer from the Art Bell show who had faked or had taken this fake photograph illegally and published it. This Awareness indicates that there appears to have been some kind of cover-up of some of the information relating to these bodies, and it is suggested that there is more to it than mere fake and fraud.

Hale/Bopp Really is Carrying Frozen Reptoid Soldiers

This Awareness indicates that the Vatican appears to believe it is "Wormwood" as predicted in the Book of Revelation. This Awareness suggests that this Interpreter interprets from indications Awareness provides to him, that Hale-Bopp is a hollowed out body that is being used as a spacecraft to transport what appear to be Reptoids in a cryogenic or frozen state toward the solar system.

This Awareness indicates there have been questions as to whether this is the 12th planet that Sitchin speaks of, which is due back at almost any time in a relative sense. This Awareness indicates that it could be described or called by that term, the 12th planet, but it could well also be that it is Wormwood in the description or meaning of the Bible in the Book of Revelation. There are many ways that entities can interpret this.

This Awareness simply suggests that it is hollow and has a great massive sleeping army of Reptoids inside. This Awareness indicates there are also other suggestions that the companion star is helping to guide the comet. This Awareness indicates to the Interpreter, according to the interpretation of the Interpreter, that the so-called 'companion star,' if it indeed is real, is not helping to guide Hale-Bopp, but rather is watching it, to assure it does not create havoc in the solar system.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that if indeed this is filled with Reptoids, that this companion star, if indeed it does exist, will prevent those Reptoids from gaining control over the earth. This Interpreter, from what it reads from the Awareness, sees the companion star as being pro-human and the Hale-Bopp hollowed out spaceship as being pro-Reptoid, on a mission into the solar system.

This Awareness indicates the intent being, of course, that ships would unload from Hale-Bopp and come to earth to help in the establishment of the New World Order and of the Orion Empire and Draconian Federation. This Awareness indicates of course it is the Interpreter looking at information given by the Awareness that is questionable.

The Interpreter has not had any great experience in having to interpret information that is of this nature and has no clear words or symbols that fully represent from the Awareness, what is in these bodies. Therefore there can be greater than average room for error in the interpretations in regard to this. It does appear however, that gradually, this will clear up further, and allow for a more meaningful interpretation to emerge within the next few months.

Those Clinton Scandals That Were to Occur

This Awareness indicates the final discussion This Awareness wishes to bring up has to do with the scandals that were to have occurred prior to the election, but which were derailed with the arrest of the entity Chuck Hayes, also known as the "Angel of Death," and one of the main spokespersons for the so-called "5th Column".

Chuck Hayes Jailed, Clinton Trial on Hold

This entity was providing enormous amounts of information to the special prosecutor Starr. This entity Starr having the information and having put in indictments against Hillary Clinton for the Grand Jury and preparing for others, put everything on hold because without further information from the entity Chuck Hayes or his other 5th Column allies, some of the evidence needed would be lacking.

Meanwhile, Starr also decided it would be best to wait until after the election in order to make sure that the masses did not perceive it as a political attempt to derail Clinton's election. This Awareness indicates that after the election, the intent was to bring it on again full force in the month of February.

This Awareness indicates that it has become clear from the election that many of the voters are so used to government corruption that they either do not vote or they do not care, and therefore, whether the entity brings this to the courts or to Congress for further investigation becomes a question of "Who cares?"

This Awareness indicates meanwhile, the associates of Clinton and those who work with him have essentially made a kind of hidden agreement with the entity Starr to get Starr to back off somewhat and also to back off any pressure on him and the 5th Column, if these entities can somehow allow the President more freedom to continue in his office.

New World Order Wants Jay Rockefeller as President

This Awareness indicates of course, there is still the intent of the New World Order to get rid of the President from his office because he has not moved fast enough for them, and they want to see him out, and also to see Jay Rockefeller put in his place. This Awareness indicates that these efforts appear to be such that they will continue and the scandal against Clinton is still likely to occur sometime in the year of 1997, though it may not be through the efforts of Starr and his White-water investigations. It may come through other scandals that are fresh and new.

Hillary Clinton's Chinese Insurance Policy

This Awareness indicates that the visit of the Clintons' to China created a kind of insurance policy for them personally, in that if indeed Hillary Clinton were to be indicted, she could simply leave and live in China without being brought back to the United States. This Awareness indicates that this appears to be an arrangement that occurred at the time, while there.

This Awareness indicates that essentially, many of the suggestions this Awareness has previously given in regard to the demise of the President, of his office, is questionable at this stage, but there are still forces of the New World Order that are pressing for his removal. If however, this entity began to make a greater effort to please the New World Order faction, which includes the entity George Bush of course, then indeed, he might be able to last out his entire four year term as president, in spite of the Paula Jones scandal and many others that are not yet so widely publicized.

This Awareness indicates that essentially, this covers most of the loose ends that this Awareness has indicated needed to be tied up for this reading; that other questions may be asked.

IS THE FARSIGHT INSTITUTE LYING AND WORKING FOR THE CIA?

(The Roman Catholic Church Controls the CIA)

QUESTION:

In regard to the Hale-Bopp 'comet' and this supposed object alongside of it, the Art Bell show made a lot of people interested in this, because on the night this occurred, he contacted this entity from the Farsight Institute, who trains these so-called 'Remote Viewers' and he asked 5 or 6 of these entities who are in various places around the country to zoom in on this object.

He did not name the object. He says he gives them a number to meditate on, and then, through that number, they discover what it is that they're supposed to be observing, and in all cases, these entities observed that it was some kind of spaceship that came from a long way back in time, it was benevolent, and it had ancient and modern technology and stuff like that.

There's also new information on the Internet coming from an outfit called Zeta-Talk regarding the Farsight Institute; they claim it is among the many supposedly 'private arms' of the government's disinformation campaigns. "Formed from the remnants of the CIA Remote Viewing project, the Farsight Institute is hardly a private enterprise. The CIA has their slimy tentacles all over the group that runs the Farsight Institute, from instructors to funding, to those on the staff as supposedly psychic seers. Thus, any message emerging as a consensus from the supposed psychics on staffs can hardly be considered truthful."

And I'd like to ask Awareness: Is that information the Farsight Institute is putting out over the Art Bell show, disinformation?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates It must go further into this before responding to that. This Awareness indicates that the oldest and most experienced and most well-developed intelligence agency in the world is not the CIA nor the NSA nor any other group such as KGB: It is the Catholic Church. They have their own secret intelligence organizations that reach into all countries, and essentially control the intelligence agencies of most of these other countries.

MOSSAD Also Under Influence of Catholic Church

This Awareness indicates that the MOSSAD is not totally free of influence from the Catholic Church. The CIA essentially is a reflection of this Catholic Church intelligence agency. The Catholic Church seeks to become the church of the New World Order, and seeks to use any means possible.

Catholic Church to Become Church of the New World Order

This Awareness wishes to modify what It just said. There is an element in the intelligence agency of the Catholic Church that seeks to make the Catholic Church the exclusive church for the New World Order, whereby all other churches would be subservient or subjected to the Catholic Church.

This Awareness indicates that the CIA essentially reflects that which comes down from the Catholic Church. The Catholic Church has a document or secret document in its agency which was released by a priest involved in the church intelligence agency, in which Wormwood is the name given to Hale-Bopp, but the word 'Wormwood' is followed by a question mark, as though there is some kind of uncertainty in regard to this.

This Awareness indicates that it does appear that the Farsight Institute, in which the seers were created by the CIA, still answers to the CIA. It is said there is a saying in the intelligence branches: "Once in the CIA, always in the CIA." This Awareness indicates therefore, it may well be and probably is a CIA organization. The release of the information that the Farsight Institute gave in regard to Hale-Bopp may well be disinformation, or simply information that is useful to the promotion of the New World Order.

In other words, at some time in the near future, this may become a very important part of some global episode or situation that can lead entities, or be used to influence entities toward accepting the New World Order for some "cosmic" reason. This Awareness indicates it is simply a matter of waiting to find out more as to how this will be utilized to influence the masses.

This Awareness indicates as suggested, the Interpreter interprets energies from the Awareness which are not really strong on this issue as being an indication that the Hale-Bopp comet is hollowed out and contains not benevolent beings, but beings negative to humanity, and that the alleged companion has benevolent beings within it, although there is seen some uncertainty in the interpretation as to whether the companion even exists.

This Awareness indicates that this may be because of the strong denials of its existence and it may be having an effect on the Interpreter's ability to see clearly. This Awareness suggests the Interpreter tends to accept the companion as being a reality rather than a hoax, but this may be in error.

THAT E-MAIL MESSAGE FROM A VATICAN PRIEST: IS IT ON THE LEVEL?

QUESTION:

We received through the Internet from Kurt Wright the following information. I think this is probably what Awareness was referring to earlier. He writes: "Attached is copy of an E-Mail message received by Art Bell Wednesday and discussed in great detail by him on his Wednesday night and Thursday morning radio show. (This is dated December 12, 1996)

"If you heard it as I did, you no doubt felt the profound impact as I did. If not, I can assure you that the validity of this material was checked out at the highest sources, and disturbingly confirmed by Vatican insiders. Art's guest was Dr. Richard Boyland, an ex-priest and consulting psychologist who shed a great deal of light on the subject of the E-Mail message as well as anticipated contact with extraterrestrials.

"The E-Mail message was anonymous, and it came in on December 11th to Art Bell, and it goes as follows.

"Dear Mr. Bell, I have listened to your program off and on for around two years now, whenever I get "down-time". I have some disturbing information and I felt that your program would be the perfect vehicle with which to distribute what I have.

"I have been under the employ of the Vatican for over 5 years. I have done what could best be described as counterintelligence work for the church. I am a man of God, and please believe me when I tell you that information I have is genuine and very serious. Without going into too much detail about my former employers, I will briefly tell you that I have had a top-level security clearance in the Vatican for quite some time. Most of the work I have done, regrettably, falls into the realm of "black-ops"...

COSMIC AWARENESS (INTERRUPTING):

This Awareness wishes to comment that the term "ops" is their code or brief terminology for "black operations."

QUESTIONER:

Okay. That clarifies it. His story continues:

"So I will not go into detail about that now. Around 6 months ago I was working at a data terminal in a highly restricted area, following a case that I had just completed, when I stumbled onto something that nearly made my heart stop! Please pay attention here. This is where it gets strange!

"I uncovered a heavily encrypted subsystem that was surprisingly well-hidden. I found that it was only accessible through the terminal I was at, and one other terminal. I must point out that the area I was in was not an area that I routinely used. After two minutes of trying to get into the system, the whole lab shut itself down, and I was booted off the terminal.

"Not wanting to raise any eyebrows, I decided to leave and come back later that night. The strange thing was, when I came back, there were armed guards standing sentry outside of the lab. I must say that it is not unusual to see guards roaming the Vatican, but it is very unusual for them to stand sentry at a lab, much less, while armed.

"Over the next month I managed to slip in unnoticed only once, and after I had found what I came for, I understood the security. It took me a good deal of time to break into the system, and when I did, I wished I hadn't. When I entered the system, I came across a file titled "Wormwood?" Yes. With a question mark. Thinking it to be a tech file, I brought up the file with the intent of copying it so I could read it later.

"What happened next was truly remarkable. The file sort of "deteriorated" into a series of command lines that lasted approximately two minutes. Once it was done running, there it was. I had found a direct link-up to the Hubble space telescope. Not only that, but it was pointed at the comet Hale-Bopp. The program was running some kind of analysis: taking directional notes, projecting paths of travel, et cetera.

"After realizing what I had discovered, I started searching and came across an E-Mail data trail that led directly to the office of the Pope himself. What was discussed I cannot know. Over the next two weeks, I began to uncover evidence that the Vatican is very aware of the existence of the companion, and is very worried about it.

"I began to copy files and pictures that were present at the terminal, when I found a report from the United Nations to the Vatican, as well as a report from NASA regarding their concerns. It is very obvious to me that a great many people and entities know of the companion and are doing their best to keep quiet, very quiet, as the next part of my story illustrates.

"I had found another file that I wanted to look at, but it was independently encrypted. At the time that I discovered it, I had already been on line at the terminal for some time, so I decided to copy the file encrypted and decode it in my leisure. As I was leaving the lab, I was approached by two of the Pope's top aides and was asked to meet them later in the evening.

"I didn't feel comfortable about the situation, so I agreed and told them that I needed to shower and would join them later. I haven't been back to the Vatican since. I found out, about a week later, through some old friends and contacts that a contract had been placed on my life. Two days later, my mother and father were killed in a car crash in France. Three days after that, my brother and sister were killed when their single-engine plane went down on the East Coast of the United States.

"I've been on the run for a very long time now, and am still trying to decode the file that I have in my possession. Approximately 10 copies have been distributed to friends in the field, in the event that I should disappear. I do not fear for my life, as I am very adept at not being found, however, I believe that the world needs to know of the information that I have. I would be willing to share all that I have with you Mr. Bell, but you need to understand that your lives could be in danger if you were to go public with what I give you.

"I apologize for being so vague, but I feel it necessary at this point in time. If you would like the information, say so over the air when you get this letter. If I am not listening, someone will get the information to me, as there is no safe way for you to contact me at this point in time. I await your response." And it's signed simply, "Priest."

So, first I'd like to ask Awareness, is that information valid? Or is this more disinformation?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be valid. It appears that this entity's life is indeed in danger because of the information he has released and has discovered. It was in danger when he discovered the information, even moreso, having released it.

QUESTIONER:

Well, that says a lot.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the encrypted message he is trying to decode has much to do with the Reptoid approach and how it will be used in bringing about the New World Order, and this is information the church did not want released under any circumstances.

Catholic church Intends to Work with the Reptoids?

QUESTIONER:

So the church essentially then, is not afraid of this ship loaded with Reptoids, but did not want the world to know that it intends to work with the Reptoids to establish the New World Order. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This appears to be correct. This Awareness indicates you must understand it is not necessarily the church per se, but certain factions working within the church who are attempting to promote the church as the exclusive church of the New World Order that are behind this action. It appears that the Pope has somehow been brought into this, either through misinformation or through some kind of influence on him.

This Awareness indicates it appears also that this is closely linked and tied with the CIA and connections in higher political circles, particularly the Nazi-type movements within the United States.

QUESTIONER:

So the reason the file was named "Wormwood?" was because the Vatican isn't sure that this object is indeed Wormwood. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Vatican is not sure that this object is indeed that which is referred to as Wormwood in the Book of Revelation. The object can be named anything, but the question is: Is the Book of Revelation, when it speaks of "Wormwood" talking about this object?

Who Else Has a Direct Link to Hubble?

QUESTIONER:

Are there other places in the world that also have a direct link to the Hubble telescope like the Pope does?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is some link in Great Britain, and in Russia, and in the country of Israel. The MOSSAD also has such connection in Israel. This Awareness indicates that it appears that the Japanese have some connection through a roundabout way. It is simply a matter of their interest in a financial sense. They are not particularly political in a global sense, but they have strong financial interests in everything that occurs, and therefore, through indirect means, have some connection to this information.

China is working to develop such technological surveillance activity also.

The State of the Economy: When the Stock Market Collapses

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York, which essentially has been sent in by three or four others, including Victor Cicero. She writes: "Regarding the post-election collapse of the stock market, which incidentally has been predicted by Maitreya for many years now: Is this to be national or global?" she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be that which begins nationally, but will have global effects. This Awareness indicates that it appears that it will be very gradual. It will not likely occur in a single collapse. It appears that it will occur only when the scandals against President Clinton begin to affect the attitudes of the people in the United States, and when this entity can be made to be the scapegoat for economic collapse.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that this will occur in phases, such as the recent sudden drop that appeared to correct itself, and that there will be more of these blips that cause sudden drops and which then may repair or move upward for a short time, and then again fall, et cetera. This Awareness indicates it does not appear that it will be one gigantic drop. It appears that the discouragement about government strength or confidence will be seen as a reason for entities to pull out of the stock market.

The Super Wealthy Are Still Making Money in the Market

This Awareness indicates that at present, the super wealthy are still making money from the stock market and they can continue to make money by bringing it down in gradual step by step increments, whereas people drop out and it goes back up again. Those who know what is happening will make money from this kind of process and this then will be used to gradually milk more and more money from the public as it slowly, gradually goes down, step by step.

These entities will buy when it drops and this will cause it to rise again. More money will be put into it, and then it drops again and the entities buy when they feel it has dropped enough, which will inspire more purchases from more of the public, and therefore, continually dropping and controlling the stock market as they bring it down to an economic collapse.

QUESTIONER:

But isn't there other economic forces at work that should bring the stock market eventually down, like it did in 1929, other than just the release of the information about the President's scandals?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The President's scandal is not what will bring it down. It simply creates an attitude among people that leads to a gradual diminishing of faith in the economy, and this is what creates the general movement downward, but the specific events that cause the collapse, usually, as in the 1929 collapse, has to do with manipulation of money in one way or another in such a way that causes the market to fall suddenly.

The entities who are well educated in these things can manipulate the market to the most minute degree and know exactly when to buy and when to sell in order to make the greatest profit. Of course, the media plays an important role in this also, as the media presents information that focuses on the President's scandalous behavior, they can make it seem worse than it is, or make it seem better than it is. The media, thus far, has attempted to avoid any great publicity of scandal relating to the President. The Paula Jones thing has been given some publicity in the last week or two, but had it been equated to other Congress people who have had scandals, it could have been ten times more publicized than it was.

The press more or less ignored Paula Jones until just in the last week or two. This Awareness indicates this is an indication that this is to be the beginning of his gradual defamation through scandals. Even if the court rules that he cannot be tried while a sitting president, it can still be sued in conjunction with further efforts on other areas to bring him down.

Supreme Court Mostly Working for New World Order

This Awareness suggests however, it appears that this is more likely to result in a court ruling in or around the month of June: this in reference to the Supreme Court ruling that he can be tried while sitting as president, if indeed the New World Order has control of the Supreme Court.

This Awareness indicates many of the judges on the Supreme Court were put in by George Bush, and Ronald Reagan followed the orders of George Bush. Therefore, many of these entities are working for the New World Order. Whether there are enough to cause the vote to bring this president to trial before he is out of office is a question that will need to be determined at the time.

QUESTIONER:

JD asked also: "Is this collapse to be spontaneous, or is this planned by the New World Order cabal to impoverish everyone else?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The latter is the plan.

QUESTIONER:

And she adds: "If so, are they going to precipitate this by selling all their stock and aiming to buy up everything when things have bottomed out?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This in the affirmative.

QUESTIONER:

And she asks "Will bonds retain their value?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that for the most part, when the stock market goes down, bonds retain most of their value.

Where Should Stock Money be Invested?

QUESTIONER:

And she asks "In what investment would funds taken out of stocks be best kept?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests antiques, gold, silver, precious jewels, and to some extent Municipal Bonds. This Awareness suggests that things that can be turned to liquid assets which can later be used to purchase when the price drops to the bottom, so that entities can then ride with the inflation of those properties or things that are bought at basement prices.

Will New World Order Controls be Applied Worldwide Or Just to the U.S.?

QUESTIONER:

She also asks "Are the controls Awareness has described to be applied to America, or world-wide, where there are still many subsistence farms?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are attempts throughout to take away properties from the masses. Only 2% of the people in the United States own their property outright. Most of the properties are still owned by the bank, and entities are simply paying off the mortgages. This Awareness indicates in the event of a collapse, those properties would more or less, for the greater part, be lost.

It is the same throughout the world. Where credit has been extended to entities, that credit becomes a heavy chain of enslavement which entities cannot pay, and therefore, they lose all their worldly goods.

Why Does Stock Market Keep Climbing?

QUESTION:

Victor C. writes: "I would appreciate it if you had any recent information on the stock market, or related info on the economy. I have been heavily shorting the market, looking for it to move lower, but instead it is blowing off to the sky. My own work suggested that the up-side patterns were ending weeks ago."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates as long as they can milk more money from the public, they will do so. The more that people offer to invest in the stock market, the more they will let it ride. There will come a time when they realize they cannot get any more out of the people. People have become too uncertain, too paranoid of further investment, and then the stock market will level off and entities will begin to see it drop in increments, again rising thereafter, and dropping again, et cetera.

This Awareness indicates you may wish to consider waiting for it to drop and then purchase, after each drop. This Awareness indicates of course, this can be risky because you do not know how far it will drop or when it has bottomed out before another rise. This Awareness suggests that for those who do not have inside information, it is probably a good time for entities to get out of the stock market unless you can read the writing on the wall or have some kind of inside information.

Will Government Put Social Security Funds Into the Stock Market

QUESTION:

There's been considerable talk lately that tremendous pressure is being put on the government to release the billions of dollars of Social Security money owned by the public, to release this to the stock market, which in turn claims it could go on for years and years, reaching new highs almost daily.

Does Awareness see this actually going to occur?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this could be used as a way of keeping people investing, or it could be intended as a way of prolonging the prosperity and growth, keeping in mind that the super wealthy are also growing as the stock-market grows and their wealth increasing continuously, and that the Social Security money, if it were invested into the stock market, would raise it beyond ten thousand; then of course these entities can have a much bigger pot to play with when they do crash the market.

This Awareness indicates that this continually rising stock market has created an unreality for investors who find that they are getting rich without even knowing why, simply because they have invested in the stock market. They are putting themselves in a position where they can lose everything they have invested, but somehow, they are still growing more and more wealth.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto doing the wrong thing, but gaining anyway. This Awareness indicates it would be a very meaningful and beneficial way for the government to gain control of the Social Security money, whereby certain entities would benefit from more or less stealing the Social Security money, which of course, could lead to a collapse in time, whereby all Social Security programs would be wiped out and the elderly would indeed suffer great losses.

This Awareness indicates that would not bother some of the entities who are already used to taking money where they can. Remember, some of these entities are the same ones who invested fraudulently in the Savings & Loans scams that led to great losses of many. This Awareness indicates the program is not necessarily to the benefit of the people. The government does not necessarily work to the benefit of the people, although it pretends to do so.

You Will Refer Back to This Reading as Time Goes By

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates there has been much covered in this reading on a variety of topics. This Awareness indicates that it is seen as probable that throughout the coming year, that entities in referring back to this reading, will find more and more value in what has been given in helping them to understand the events that are occurring at the later time.

This Awareness indicates it is essentially very important for entities to realize that the structure and security that entities have come to rely on in the past, not only in terms of religion, government and society, but even in their own patterns of thinking, will be undergoing great change and possible collapse; but while this is occurring, entities will become stronger within, more capable within, more able to handle the crises around them because of the growing strength that results in their own personal empowerment as those powers outside collapse, or diminish.

A Blessing From Awareness to all Readers

(It Sends You All Protective Energies for the Days Ahead)

Closing Message: (Reading No. 8)

This Awareness indicates that this being the last of this series of readings for January of 1997, indicates that by the time the next series starts, there may well have been considerable changes in the consciousness of entities due in part to astrological effects, and due in part to the Photon energies, and this Awareness suggests that there may also have been considerable change in terms of things in the news, but this Awareness suggests that all appears to be well in terms of the generality of civilizations between now and that time.

This Awareness wishes to extend and send blessings to everyone, and to send protective energies to the readers of these messages. This Awareness wishes at this time to gather energies for this purpose. (3 minute pause) This Awareness indicates that this energy has been gathered and it is now being sent out in the form of Light Arcs to each subscriber to this newsletter, and from each subscriber, it will again arc to others who read the material or wherever subscribers wish to send the energy, to help protect and to bless and benefit entities, to protect them from any difficulties that might affect in some way their lives, and to energize them so that they may have the opportunity to grow in greater spiritual enlightenment as well as in their own relationships and physical well-being.

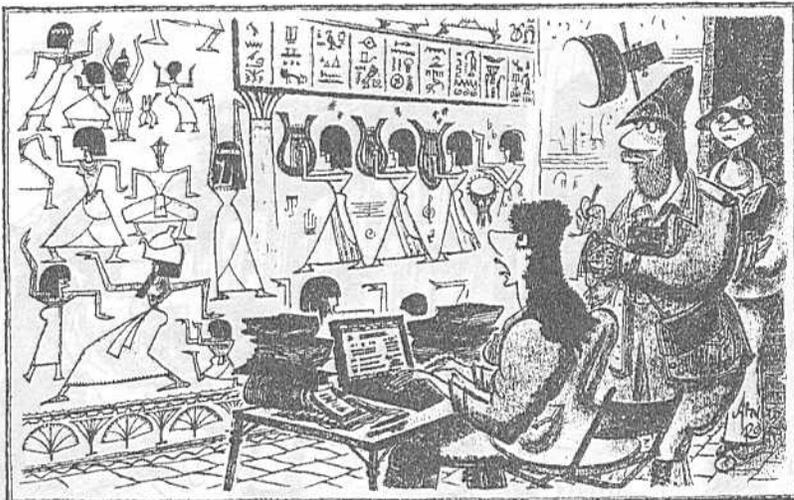

These Readings a Special Experience for Cosmic Awareness

This Awareness indicates that It wishes to bless entities in this manner and to keep the contact with entities during this time period. This Awareness looks forward to the next series of readings. This Awareness indicates these readings are to some degree a special experience for this Awareness. As It communicates through this Interpreter, it is a kind of social visit with each and every one of you which this Awareness enjoys.

This Awareness indicates it is likened unto having a friend or a group of friends to communicate with on a regular basis, and indeed, it is a special event to this Awareness.

THE REAL TRUTH ABOUT JOHN KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION

(C.A.C. General Reading, June 20, 1996)

QUESTION:

We got an interesting letter from Diana K., who's one of Vicki's correspondence ladies. She's getting along in years now, and her husband, whom she called 'Papa' has been dead some time, and I believe he worked in a law firm in Washington, D.C. I'm going to read what she says here.

"Two items perhaps worthy of questions. (One): That Hitler, Elvis Presley and JFK are still alive. Well, that Hitler survived and faked his death but has now died. I neither know nor care about Elvis, but I KNOW that JFK survived and probably is still living today. He may have had a double in Dallas and was not there himself. I have always felt he is still alive, but for sure.

"Papa came home from work one night very very upset. That day a telephone call emitting from his office had switched into a call from the Warren Commission, or was it the big shots who were arranging the cover-up? Anyway, they were discussing plans for getting Kennedy out of the country; that he was alive and was politically expedient; that he was "dead". Papa was very distressed to have heard this talk. We decided it was best and safest for us to shut up and forget it.

"But almost everything that has been published, conjectured about, questioned ever since, has tied into that phone call and/or has stirred the dust in my attic space; such as one time they said that his head, the top of his head that is, had been blown off and his scalp had been found in the back of the car. Was this 'scalp' the wig that the double was wearing? The dust really blew around my attic space at the mention of 'scalp' blowing off. I saw a wig all over the place, and how often have I seen and heard questionings as to whose body is in the Kennedy grave, and/or is the coffin empty?

"Every documentary I see stirs up a dust storm in my attic space. Where there's that much dust in the minds of so many researchers and me, there has to be something stirring which is based on or in truth; but will the truth ever come out?"

That's her statement. Would Awareness comment on this thing about Kennedy, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there have been photographs taken, supposedly from Onassis' ship, of Kennedy in a passing boat in that general area; also one of him on an island in that area, and that Jackie Kennedy was over there partly because John Kennedy had been taken to that area. This Awareness indicates that there have been numerous pictures shown in various tabloids of Kennedy over the past several decades; one showing him on a porch of a house.

This Awareness indicates that these pictures purported to be John Kennedy, arguing that he was still alive. This Awareness indicates that the evidence of his death was that which was provided by the coroner and other officials. This Awareness indicates that there was no showing of his body when allegedly buried or at a funeral. This Awareness indicates the energies surrounding this indicate that the entity did remain alive. It appears that the entity was removed from this country after the assassination; that the entity who was killed was a double, but that there was an entity killed in Dallas who looked very much like the president.

This Awareness indicates that this is not an uncommon procedure, to have doubles take the place of a president or leading official when there are dangers involved in an activity, and the president had been warned of danger if he went to Dallas. This Awareness indicates Jean Dixon for one, gave that entity special warning, and if you will recall, the president had been associated with Jean Dixon to the point of giving her predictions credibility. It was during that time that her predictions of Red China becoming a democratic nation by the 1980's was prevalent in the news and tabloids and magazines.

This Awareness indicates of course, this did not happen, but her predictions at that time were given considerable credibility, and the president is likely to have considered her warnings and taken them seriously. This Awareness indicates that also, near that time, just before his trip to Dallas, he had announced that he was going to open up the whole UFO secrecy, and this Awareness indicates that this, too, put him in danger, and the entity, in all probability, recognized that there were dangers involved in his current status.

This Awareness indicates that effectively, he was politically assassinated. His life essentially ended, even though he continued to exist incognito for some time thereafter. This Awareness indicates it does appear that the entity is no longer alive, but that his death has come from age-related problems rather than a violent end.

Was Jackie Kennedy Also a Double?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Well, was that woman in the car they claimed was Jacqueline Kennedy, really his wife, or was she a double also?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this was a double.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

We have a book in our library that supposedly is not very well known by the general public that has a series of actual photos that were done when the autopsy was made, and it does show the top and the back head of the entity they called John Kennedy literally blown apart, so there's no way that person could have lived. So that photograph then is in reality the photo of the double who was indeed shot?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that it does appear there was a wig involved, but that much of what the double Jackie Kennedy was retrieving when she crawled over the back of the car, was not only the wig, but also part of his scalp. She sought to get that. This Awareness indicates it appears she felt this was important that these things not be dropped or fall off on the highway, as entities could discover that it was a combination of wig and flesh. And by retrieving this, it helped in the cover-up, although this was a very quick realization on her part and not something she needed to ponder or think deeply about. She just felt that things had gone wrong and this was likened unto a responsibility for someone to "get that before it falls off the car."

WAS THE KENNEDY FAMILY AWARE OF THIS DECEPTION?

Question:

Was the John F. Kennedy family, his brothers Teddy and so on, aware of this deception?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears that Jackie Kennedy and the family and his close secret service associates were aware of this having happened, and that he was still alive. It appears that there was considerable difficulty in keeping it all quiet, but that it was believed that if he was exposed as still being alive, that his life indeed would be taken within a short time. It was part of a cover-up to keep the entity from being killed.

The plot to kill him had been discovered and it was too big to be defused, and therefore, a small orchestrated scheme was put in place, using a double, and whisking him out to a safe place.

Did the Chauffeur in Limo Fire the Fatal Shot?

QUESTION:

A question along this line from Terry T., in Florida. He writes: "Did the chauffeur of the limousine fire the fatal shot that killed JFK? If so, whatever became of this man? Is the actual murder weapon still hidden somewhere by this man? It would appear that this was a perfect crime, in that once JFK was shot and the panic set in, the driver, with murder weapon in hand, could just drive off after taking JFK to the hospital. All attention and focus would be on him and the actual site where the shooting took place. Also, this would fit the typical Mafia hit. Can Awareness speak on this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity Bill Cooper first released that story and gave strong arguments in his effort to prove the story. This Awareness indicates that this in reference to,-- it appears the name John Greer or something of that nature, as the driver, had turned, shortly after the auto had passed beneath the book depository, looked back, and that he had moved his left hand back over his right shoulder. There is seen in the Cooper film that he offers as his explanation of how this occurred, a light reflection which he says is a reflection off of the gun being used, which he then suggests blew Kennedy's head backwards.

This Awareness indicates that this argument has been heard and there is considerable evidence on both sides. The film is just not clear enough to determine without question that this did indeed happen. This Awareness has commented on this previously, and suggested that this was the correct scenario. This Awareness indicates, however, that there appears to have been a shot from behind which caused the entity's head to move forward prior to this shot that jerked the entity's head backwards, and left the scalp and back of the President's head blown off onto the trunk of the car.

This Awareness indicates that there is still strong argument that William Cooper's version is incorrect and that his light reflection, which he says comes from the gun, was really just light caused from the angle of the camera from the sunlight reflecting off its lens, but this Awareness suggests that the argument appears to be in favor of the William Cooper scenario.

How About the Dr. Beter Scenario?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Didn't Awareness, a long time ago, confirm that the Dr. Beter scenario was the correct one? That there was a sort of a trap door behind the seat of the driver that opened up, that there was a gun inside there aimed at Kennedy. Was that the scenario? I'm sort of vague on that.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this was supposed to have been discharged from the seat in front of Kennedy, which caused the explosion to rip through the President's head and take off the back of his head. This Awareness indicates that this and driver scenarios both being part of a plot to assure the absolute certainty of his assassination. There also were those on the grassy knoll firing at the President, and this Awareness indicates that all of this as being to make absolutely sure that the President did not survive the assassination attempt.

This Awareness indicates the vehicle was impounded after the assassination and totally destroyed, including having been crushed down into a small block of metal within 28 hours after the assassination; this to assure that the seat which held the explosive discharge would not be made public. This Awareness wishes to move on to other questions. This has been gone over and is repetitious.

Ed's Note: for more on the Kennedy assassination please refer to the following "Revelations of Awareness" newsletters: 78-44; 82-09; 85-02; 88-13; 90-11; $3.00 each from CAC.

HOW CAN CAUSE AND EFFECT EXIST WITHOUT PAST AND FUTURE?

QUESTION:

Okay. A question from JD in New York. She writes: "I understand that time is an illusion; that only the Eternal present exists. Karma is cause and effect which seems dependent upon past and future. How can there be cause and effect without past and future? Can sequences occur in timelessness?", she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is that which is relativity and there is that which is duration. There is what may be termed "time" in this sense, but within the ever-present 'now' the movements of one thing from one place or one area to another do take a time of duration, and this kind of time can be seen as linear; but the concept of linear time as mankind usually envisions it, is something of an artificial creation rather than that which is based on nature.

This Awareness indicates that of course it takes time in the artificial sense for the earth to go around the sun to create an orbit which is measured as one year. This Awareness indicates in this sense it is time, but this Awareness wishes entities to understand that when It speak of time as an illusion and of the Ever Present Now, It is speaking of the time and space phenomena at any given moment in any given place.

This Awareness indicates that it is simply a matter of where the mind is looking, where the mind is focusing. If you put a dot in space and say "This dot is Here and Now!", then the mind has to focus on the dot Here, and on the dot Now, for that spot in space to be present Here and Now. If you remove the dot and simply observe the space and think in terms of timelessness, then that area of space can be any size whatsoever.

Your focus can begin to expand so that the dot is as large as a planet or as large as a galaxy, or as large as the universe, and if you look at that space, that dot, and think in terms of time, you can say it exists this moment. Herein is contained a single moment, a trillionth of a second in length. Or, you can see the same area and same time as being elongated, expanded. It exists here for an enormous amount of time, and someone says: "What do you mean it exists here in this time? How long are you talking about?" You can say "It exists here in this millennium." Or you can say "It exists here in this era." Or "this eon." Or "It exists here from infinity to infinity" in terms of time. It is a duration that is limitless.

This Awareness indicates that when you are thinking in terms of "All things are Consciousness, all things are vibrations, and the consciousness being the higher creative forces of vibrations that create all of the lower manifested reality, then in those levels of consciousness, the frequencies and vibrations are not actually filled with objects that take up time or space. They are simply frequencies and vibrations of consciousness, and in the ultimate sense, the higher levels of consciousness. Where does time begin, and where does time end if there is no material by which to measure placement in time and space?

Time and Space Exist Only in the Lower Frequencies

This Awareness indicates in this way, you can understand the discrepancy. Time and space do not exist in the ultimate final levels of the Creation, which is the Creator Itself. It exists only in those lower manifested frequencies where there are things that have a relativity to each other, wherein the dot of some manifested material can be measured next to something else, and a placement then determined relative to that, or wherein the dot can be measured in its approach to or from some other object and the duration it takes for such movement to occur.

This Awareness indicates that karma applies to those lower frequencies. The absolute higher creative frequencies of the Divine does not have room for cause and effect or karma, but when it works with and creates the lower frequencies it is the cause, and it creates the effect, and thus, this effect becomes the manifested reality that comes out of the cause, which is the higher frequencies of consciousness itself; in this case, the Creative Consciousness of Divine Mind.

This Awareness indicates if this is not a clear enough explanation that the question may be reworded or re-asked in some other manner for more clarity.

Can Sequence Exist in Timelessness?

QUESTIONER:

She writes: "I understand that time is an illusion. That only the Eternal Present exists. Karma is cause and effect which seems dependent upon past and future. How can there then be cause and effect without past and future?" And she asks: "Can sequence occur in timelessness?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that past and future are relevant to present, and 'present' is a concept, an idea, and when these are put into relationship, in other words, relativity, the past or the future relative to the present, then you have a sequence, a line of time. It is only an illusion when you realize that ultimately, the Creative Essence or reality of all things is in the higher frequency of Divine Consciousness. Then of course, these things are just ideas within the mind of God.

'Past' and 'future' and 'present' are but concepts within the mind of God, and the ultimate truth regarding time is that it doesn't exist except as an idea. This Awareness indicates that in regard to cause and effect, there are movements, and there are results of the movements and nothing can occur that is a cause without having some kind of effect. Therefore, in that sense, cause and effect do create a relationship that takes a certain duration to happen, and this can be called 'time'.

When and Where Time Does Not Exist

Therefore, to acknowledge the existence of a material reality, one has to also accept time as a part of that material reality. There has to be some duration in order to have matter, because matter takes up space and time. This Awareness indicates therefore, it is not absolutely correct from the three-dimensional reality of material manifestation that there is no time. It is only true that there is no time when you look at reality from the state of Divine Consciousness.

In Divine Consciousness, there is no time because all is consciousness. This Awareness indicates it is likened unto watching a film play across the screen of a theater. You may watch this film span a hundred years in terms of the story line, but you may also realize that it is only occurring in a matter of minutes and that time really, in terms of the story line, doesn't exist during that so-called hundred years. It is only a short blink of an eye that the scene changes from the 1600's to the 1700's, and that the blink of the eye time-change spanned one hundred years or more.

This Awareness indicates you could say time didn't exist in this sense. It was timeless. The movement from the 16th Century to the 17th Century was so quick that for all intents, it was instant. This Awareness indicates that this is but a figure of speech. It is simply a way of expressing something. It is not something that can be taken literally, in the sense that two school boys would argue over the length of time if took to go from the 16th Century to the 17th Century. One boy could argue that it was the very next scene, and these scenes are split seconds apart. "It went from the 16th Century to the 17th Century in less than a second."

The other boy could argue: "Yes, but the story is what we are talking about, not the movie. We're talking about the story. It went from the 16th Century, 100 years into the 17th Century", and the argument can be made so that either is correct, depending on which point of view or which point of reference you want to stand in while you make your argument.

This Awareness indicates from the frame of reference of Divine Consciousness, time does not exist. Trillions of years can exist to a Divinity that is eternally and ever-present in Ultra Consciousness, and it will be only a split second or less, trillionths of a second or less for the consciousness to move from 5 trillion years ago to present time.

A 4/ Quadrillionth of a Second Contains the Entire Universe

This Awareness indicates another way of viewing this is if you consider that this Awareness suggested the universe appears and disappears with each vibration and that the vibrations of consciousness are faster than 4 quadrillionths of a second in those higher frequencies, and that the creation of consciousness in 4/ quadrillionths of a second contains the entire universe, and in the next 4/quadrillionths of a second contains an entirely new universe because the entire universe is vibrating at the speed of consciousness, then of course there is movement of things within that universe during that 4/quadrillionths of a second, but they do not show up as moving through time. They simply show up with each frame of the screen of life as each universe appears and disappears from one micro-moment to the next.

Each 4/quadrillionths of a second there is a new universe. This Awareness indicates that from this sense, there is no such thing as time without the idea of a universe appearing and disappearing and creating the movement. This Awareness indicates likewise, looking at a movie film, you can see the same concept. The movie film may contain frame after frame after frame to fill the story of the movie which spans so many years of time, and you can look at it and say: "This is a reality within its own frame of reference that takes a certain length of time to move from beginning to end" and you can say that it contains time.

You can also take a look at the film when it is extracted from the camera, rolled up, and someone can say "Look at that film and tell me how long it is!" "You mean you want me to measure how long it is?" "No! I want you to tell me how long in duration the film is." And the entity can say "Well, it looks like it's so many inches thick, it probably is a two-hour film." "I do not mean the length of the film. I'm speaking of the length of the story that the film portrays." And you can look at the film from now till eternity and not know the length of the story unless you get involved in the nitty-gritty details of the story.

Therefore, you would have to say: "There is no time indicated in this film." Another person could argue: "You must be crazy! There has to be time indicated in the film!" and then argue either for the point that the story contains time, or that the film requires a certain length of time for showing. This Awareness indicates in other words, it is a matter of semantics. What words are you using, and what do the words mean?

To say that there is no such thing as time only has meaning when used from a certain viewpoint or frame of reference or from a certain way of thinking. To say that time does exist has meaning and is real when viewed from within a story, within an experience.

What Exactly Are those Thought-Forms That Cling to Cigarette Smokers?

QUESTION:

Another question from JD in New York. "Just what are the negative thought-forms or entities which cling to the auras of chronic cigarette smokers, and what harm do they do to the smoker and others nearby?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these are vibrations. They are the vibrations of addictions; the appetites, and hungers that accompany the addictions. These hungers or cravings that accompany the addictions come from the chemical and vibrational reaction of the cigarette in its various qualities as it affects the human body. This Awareness indicates that these are often experienced as 'entities' in the sense that energies are entities, and entities are energies, but this is also a poetic figure of speech.

They are not what most people think of as 'entities'. You will not necessarily see some little demonic creature with big teeth snarling and growling, wanting nicotine, but your mind could manufacture such an illusion or image, if it takes such to satisfy the mind of an entity; but essentially, they are chemical and vibrational cravings of the kind that come from nicotine and body interaction; physical and emotional and auric frequencies interacting to chemicals and the vibrations in those chemicals.

Does the Smoker Create the Thought-Forms?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Do these thought-forms already exist out there and are attracted to the smoker, or are they created by the smoker?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a somewhat different aspect of the situation. There are disincarnated spirits that linger in various circumstances and situations and places, and some of these spirits have addictions that they did not get rid of at the passing over, and they may still be clinging to addictions to cigarettes, so when they see someone smoking a cigarette, they may, as an addicted disincarnated spirit, rush to that entity and get in on the vibrations and smoke frequencies of the entity's smoking habit.

They may then feel the reaction to the cigarette smoke and the addictive qualities as the smoker feels them. They may simply tune in to the smoker's vibrations and get similar feelings from being attuned to the smoker. This Awareness indicates that this can be recognized as a kind of 'vampire' or parasite, leeching or sucking at the experience.

Is The Thought-Form a Tobacco Worm?

QUESTION:

I've seen a drawing done by a psychic who studied a smoker, and said that the thought-form resembled a tobacco worm, which was coiled length-wise up and around the body, the psychic and ethereal body of the smoker. Is there any truth to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this was her way of presenting the concept through an image that could be expressive of the problem, but that the energy is not necessarily shaped like a worm, nor does it look like a worm. It is simply a vibration of chemical and vibratory quality that causes emotional hunger or the parasitical action or feelings.

Does Smoking Weaken the Aura?

QUESTION:

JD asks: "Does smoking weaken the aura so that these entities can attach?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. It creates holes in the aura, just as do other drugs which allow these energies to move through the entity's protective aura into the body and become more strongly attached to the emotional energies of the entity. This is how the addiction is enhanced and fed. The entity seeks to satisfy his own cravings, but there are also other energies sucking and trying to siphon off those energies to satisfy those cravings, and therefore, the entity needs more of the satisfaction, in order to satisfy both his cravings and the cravings of the other psychic vampires seeking to satisfy their own addictions.

Vile Vibrations in Taverns and Bars

QUESTION:

And finally: "Are these thought-forms responsible for the unpleasant vibrations which pervade bar-rooms, or is it the alcohol consumption which renders these places so vibrationally vile?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

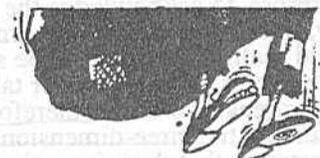

This is a combination. Entities who drink heavily tend to have lower thought interests. They become more physically oriented and less spiritually oriented and the consciousness drops considerably, so that the dulling factor of alcohol tends to produce entities who are not radiating spiritual energy. Likewise, it draws in those negative energies of disincarnated spirits who are very unhappy with their own state of being, and entities who hunger, and whose hunger vibrations reach out looking for some kind of vitality from someone else.

Thus, you walk in and your energies are siphoned off, are sucked from you.

COSMIC AWARENESS REDEFINES ITSELF

OPENING MESSAGE: (11/5/96)

This Awareness has suggested previously that the Divine Creator is a vibration frequency. It is the frequency and vibration that is the root cause of all other frequencies and vibrations, which in turn created that which is called the Creation. This Awareness indicates that this Divine Frequency of the Creator is not only a cause for the physical reality that follows in the other frequencies and vibrations down the electromagnetic scale, it is also associated with that which is called consciousness.

It is also associated with that vibration or frequency called 'love,' and also called 'spiritual' or 'spiritual love.' It is also the same frequency as that which is known as 'Life Force'. This Awareness indicates it permeates the entire Creation. This Awareness indicates that in the action of these readings, this Awareness has suggested that it be referred to as Awareness or Cosmic Awareness, because It was the consciousness of that Life Force, of that frequency or vibration.

This Awareness indicates that down through the years, since the Ralph Duby readings began, It has been referred to as 'Cosmic Awareness' or as 'Awareness'. This Awareness indicates that since some approximately 10 or 12 years ago, entities have begun to think in terms of this Awareness as being some kind of person or personality, rather than as simply Awareness. They have begun to personify this Awareness and call It 'Awareness' but see that as Its name, as a persona with the name "Cosmic Awareness."

There have been instances wherein entities refer to Cosmic Awareness and call this Awareness "He"-- "What does He say about this?" or "What does He say about that?" This Awareness suggests that there are some entities who think that this Awareness should respond in the same manner as a personality or persona, or some kind of humanoid -type deity.

This Awareness suggests that perhaps it is time for the terminology or name to be changed again. This Awareness has previously indicated that It was not a person, It was not a personality. This Awareness suggests that perhaps It should be referred to as a 'frequency,' that "This Frequency Indicates". This Awareness suggests also that perhaps the Interpreter should be not speaking directly in behalf of this Awareness, but referring to himself as "The Interpreter perceives the frequency as indicating."

Awareness Almost Pulls the Plug on Paul's Job as Interpreter

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a way by which the confusion will not continue without entities fully understanding what is taking place in these readings. This Awareness indicates that in the reading of yesterday, It came within a hair's breath of terminating this channel in terms of closing it down. This Awareness indicates that this in part was due to this misunderstanding of what this Awareness is, and partly it was due to the manner by which the question was asked, and the nature of the question.*

*Two questions in a row which Paul felt were "hostile" toward Awareness, created a situation in which Paul allowed his mind, emotions and feelings (which normally are set aside) to interfere with the response from Awareness, and he was blown out of trance, coming up angry, shouting "That does it! This is getting impossible!" A rather heated discussion followed between Paul and this editor concerning his continuing "identification" with Awareness and allowing his feelings and emotions to interfere with the responses from Awareness to certain questions. What really was at stake was whether Paul would, or could, continue as Interpreter for C.A.C. He was certain he would be "fired" for his outburst, but I assured him this was not the case. He simply needed to find a way whereby he would not identify with a question or with Awareness. This is one of a series of four readings whereby Awareness helps Paul to resolve this problem.

The question being essentially, in a general sense: "Why didn't Awareness give me information that suited my needs when I asked a question?" And "Why was it that I later found the information that I needed?" This Awareness indicates that this led the Interpreter, who was attuned to this Frequency to feel defense for this Awareness, which in turn caused the Interpreter to intercede with concern, and the interceding in behalf of this Awareness caused the Interpreter to feel emotion in regard to that question.

The Interpreter felt this as an attack on this Awareness, and felt that it was his responsibility to interpret the information for this Awareness, and therefore, the feeling of concern for this Awareness then began to shift to give the feeling of an attack on him and on his channeling ability, or interpretive ability. Therefore, emotion interfered with his attunement to this Awareness, which caused him to come out of trance, which caused the movement to become confused with emotion, so that he felt he could no longer continue doing these readings under such circumstances.

This Awareness indicates it was not necessary for the Interpreter to intercede or feel a kind of protectiveness in behalf of this Awareness, but this was the case, because of the nature of the question. It was two questions in a row, from different questions, that appeared to have an attacking, accusatory attitude toward this Awareness, and the Interpreter felt this need to intercede.

Of course, if the Interpreter is lying in trance with mind, emotion, and feeling placed aside in order to be attuned to this Awareness, and then becomes protective toward this Awareness, there is going to be a rift in the communion or attunement process. This rift in the psyche destroyed the attunement of the Interpreter to this Awareness and made it so that there could not be a clarity.

What Happens When the Interpreter Attunes to the Awareness Frequency

This Awareness indicates that It wishes to explain more clearly what happens when the Interpreter attunes to this Awareness, and this Awareness wishes now to start using the term 'Frequency' so that it becomes more clear as entities are given this explanation. When the Interpreter attunes to this Frequency, the Interpreter does not get words. This Frequency does not speak to the Interpreter. It does not hold up signs with words on them. This Frequency simply presents energy, vibrations, sometimes images, sometimes just impressions. The Interpreter attempts to put these things into words as he interprets them or perceives them to indicate. The indications are not from this Awareness, are not as words from this Awareness; they are indications to the Interpreter. But if the Interpreter says "This Interpreter indicates the Frequency suggesting such and such" then the Interpreter is constantly focusing on self and cannot stay attuned to this Awareness, or to this Frequency easily as if the Interpreter speaks in behalf of the Frequency.

Thus, the Interpreter, when reaching that attunement speaks in behalf of the Frequency and therefore says "This Awareness indicates" but the indication of is correctly the indication of this Awareness, but it is the words of the Interpreter perceiving the indication. The indication therefore is the interpretation as perceived by the Interpreter. Thus, the Interpreter perceived this Frequency as indicating such-and-such.

Why Awareness Does Not Always Give a Precise Answer

This Awareness indicates therefore, when entities ask why this Awareness did not give the precise answer they wanted, when later they found something that as more suitable to their needs; perhaps it was the Interpreter who did not perceive clearly, or perhaps this Awareness did not indicate that the manner that the Interpreter could read clearly, or perhaps there was no clarity available at the time for the Interpreter to perceive the answer which later appeared and became available for the questioner.

This Awareness indicates that sometimes information is available at one time, but is not available at another time. This Awareness also suggests that sometimes when it does give information about a product or substance that is good for a need, the entity asks "Where can I find this?" "Well, you're going to have to wait awhile. It's not available yet." This causes problems for the organization. It causes problems for the editor, because people start wondering "When can I get this? Where can I find it?" and so forth.

Therefore, this Awareness, through the Interpreter, has been cautioned not to present information about substances that are not available at the time of the question. This Awareness indicates therefore, some of the information that is given at one time may not contain information that 6 months later might be available. This Awareness suggests that this is a part of the problem.

Many Still Think of Awareness as a Personality

Part of the problem also is that entities think of this Awareness as some kind of personality and put this personality in as a substitute for their version of 'God'. This Awareness indicates that not every version of God is the correct version of God, and this Awareness indicates It is not here to live up to the expectations of everyone's version of God. This Awareness suggests rather, that It is what It is. It is a frequency, It is a vibration, It is everywhere present. It has not the ability to think, but It does have the ability to be aware. It is aware, It does not think. It vibrates, It is in a frequency, and that frequency is life. That frequency is love. That frequency is Awareness.

The Interpreter, acting in behalf of one who intercedes between the questioner and this Awareness, or this Frequency, attempts to read these energies to the best of his ability, according to his interpretive ability, according to his background, according to his use of the English language, according to his many experiences and according to those energies which he can perceive and pick up on during the act of the question.

This Awareness has suggested previously that all energy contains information, and all information contains energy, and that the entire universe is filled with energy, and therefore filled with information, and that this information is everywhere present, but there has to be the ability to perceive the information, and if this information is not properly perceived, you do not get the full clarity, and if you perceive the information clearly but cannot express it clearly because you don't have the proper language or proper background or proper terminologies necessary to convey the information, then you are not interpreting in the highest sense.

There is No Such Thing as a Perfect Interpreter

This Awareness indicates that there is no such thing as a perfect Interpreter for this Awareness. Likewise, keep in mind, this Awareness does not speak in words to the Interpreter, but only in impressions, in energies, in patterns and images and in certain types of movements of forms and pictures. This Awareness indicates it is for this reason that some things are not absolutely 100% clear as though being spoken by the expected God of the book of Moses, for his Ten Commandments.

These were carved in stone, according to the legend, but this information coming from this Frequency is not carved in stone for the Interpreter to relay to the people. It is simply images, impressions and very flighty type of shadows, energies and hints of meaning.

This Awareness indicates there are a few entities who are very critical of this Interpreter, or of this Awareness for not being everything they want It to be, and these entities repeat questions that are accusatory or attempt to imply incompetence, either on the part of the Interpreter or on the part of this Awareness. This Awareness does not mind or care about these questions or accusation because all It does is vibrate. It is just a frequency that is everywhere present.

If Its creation is critical of It, so what? They are still Its creation. They are still vibrating with the energies from this Awareness, or this frequency, and perhaps they don't understand what they are doing. This Awareness indicates however, it has had certain effect on the Interpreter, because the Interpreter feels a great sense of responsibility to interpret in a way that pleases the questioners, while at the same time, relates to the absolute truth that he seeks in attuning to this Awareness.

This Awareness indicates if energy or information does not present itself clearly to the Interpreter, if the Interpreter cannot decipher from a shadow or a movement what this Awareness means in relation to a question, it is either a problem with the question, a problem of timing, or a problem of the fact that the energies are not strong enough to get through to the Interpreter's consciousness. He is simply unable to attune properly to that energy to extract the information that the questioner seeks.

This Awareness indicates when this happens, the Interpreter often feels a great sense of agony in his inability or incapacity to satisfy, and this makes it more difficult for the Interpreter to stay attuned to the level of Awareness that is necessary for his continued interpreting.

This Awareness felt it was necessary to give this clarity so that those working, particularly those working with this Interpreter, can better understand what is occurring; for it is not so simple as it looks. When the Interpreter lies down, his mouth does not start flapping because of some entity speaking through him. He is actually working as an Interpreter, defining, discerning energies and translating them into concepts and words that attune to the questioner's needs.

The entity attunes to the energy of the question, and if the question has distortions in it, or is too long, too linear, too convoluted, then this affects the manner by which the Interpreter can perceive or can grasp the answer, because he not only must interpret from this Awareness, but also must interpret to suit the question. If this is some hidden agenda behind the question, the Interpreter also sense that, and it distorts his ability to stay in tune to this Awareness, or to this Frequency.

Any distortion modifies or influences or affects the frequency that the Interpreter experiences, for his frequency must attune to the frequency of this Awareness in order for him to be able to read the energies that this Awareness provides, and if his frequency is being distorted by the question, then it distorts his ability to stay attuned to this Awareness and its frequency.

This Awareness indicates that the questions may be asked with this understanding.

Taking on the Energy of the Dark Force (Has It Accomplished Anything at All?)

QUESTION:

We received a letter from Pam K., somewhere in California. It's an interesting letter and I think there's a question or questions, that Awareness might want to expound on. I'll read the letter. She writes: "Dear CAC friends: Enclosed is a book of stamps, since I don't remember to enclose a stamp if I write to ask a question.

"At the end of 1977 your free booklet arrived in the mail. Every now and then I wonder who it was that sent it to me, and I send out a wave gratitude to whomever it was. I had never heard of you! Life was beginning to get difficult for me, and has continued to be difficult since then. I was married to someone I cared for very much: a zany "mad-man" about whom a friend one said that he embodied every single human characteristic and its negative, so that it was not easy to have a relationship with him.

"I divorced him in 1980. I had a 5-year and an 8-year old. We went into hiding for about 3 years because I was terrified of my ex-husband, and believed he would try to gain custody of the children, mainly to hurt me. I didn't have any idea how to support the three of us, and we suffered financially and otherwise for years. I am still suffering financially.

"I went through drug rehabilitation treatments with my sons. I wasn't taking the drugs; they were. They are now 22 and 25 years old and doing fairly well. Many times I've felt with each of them that they had fallen over the edge of a high cliff, and I was hanging on to their fingers determined not to let them drop. I didn't go through this nearly 20 year period gracefully, but whining and complaining and crying and very frightened and lonely and angry much of the time.

"I wonder whether I would have made it at all without the Cosmic Awareness newsletters. I have read all of these nearly 20 years of newsletters, probably several times each. Recently I began at the beginning again, deciding to reread them all. I am reading one now from the beginning of 1979, and it shocked me. I don't know why it didn't hit me in the same way before. I have enclosed a copy.

"The reason it hit me so hard just now, if not previously, is because of a dream I had in 1968, or 1969 that I have never forgotten. My husband-to-be awakened me from this dream, or I might not have remembered it. In the dream I was one of a small circle of people who were meditating together. There was a kind of pale lavender light around us.

"Suddenly there was a scene change to nothing but light, a kind of light I had never heard of or seen before. It was a brilliant, silvery white living light, and I had a sense of a being in the midst in it, a being I thought of as Christ, deeply loving. I was filled with awe and fell to my knees only to discover that I too was nothing but the same living silvery-white light.

"Though I thought after I had awakened: "Now I know the meaning of life!" I felt that I did not understand the real significance of this dream, and periodically I ponder it again. Tonight, in this newsletter from 1979 I am reading that Awareness indicated a "rapture" was in progress from approximately 1969, not related to angels or deities of spacecraft, but "wherein souls of entities, the spirits, the etheric bodies of entities are becoming enraptured with the spiritual energies of awakening consciousness, of the Christ Consciousness, and are being raised to high levels of vibration.

"And these entities, in being given that dose of high energy will then be prepared by this Light energy of spiritual awakening by the Christ Consciousness to return back to the physical expression, will be released again into the world of matter and materialism, carrying this Light energy within their being, and will then take upon themselves the energy of Satan, or that which is the Alien Force, the energy of the Dark Forces, and will let these energies into their own being to be worked out by the entity until there is a resolving of that energy and a dissolution of the concepts and forces of separateness.

"The Forces of Light are those which shall be asked to take on the Forces of Darkness, to take these on themselves and to work off the karma of the collective consciousness of the earth planet," and so on.

"If my dream, which was really a vision, had anything to do with this, if it was about this, I feel that I was given a great gift and a chance to be of service. If I had read this issue at the time with more understanding I might have had more courage and dealt with the negative forces I experienced more effectively, instead of the bumbling fashion in which I surely did deal with them.

"But reading this old newsletter this evening gives me a sense that I don't believe I've had before of understanding things a bit better after all. Now, perhaps, if it can do any good these many years later, instead of yelling that "I don't deserve this!" I can say, "For such a purpose only, let me have the strength to do this!" This is what I pray for, if there are more such challenges ahead.

"It would be good to meet you guys sometime. Are there any more gatherings planned for the future? Thanks for everything! Sincerely, Pam K." And the reading she sent in was from the Gathering Storm, (issue No. 79-1) where Awareness opened that series by talking about the 'rapture'.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates from that time up to the present, many of the Light Workers have likewise experienced great trauma, great difficulty and their own brand of purgatory as they worked through these negative forces. They are making great changes in the face of that which is called the Dark Forces.

The Worst of the Dark Forces are Gaining Some "Humanity"

This Awareness indicates that even the worst of those Dark Forces are beginning to take on some degree of what may be termed "humanity". There is that which is occurring; that some of these entities of the Dark Force may have to experience considerable karma for their actions, but there are many others that are going through a kind of transformation, so that the negative karma will not need to be nearly so great for them, for they are turning more toward the Light, almost on a daily basis.

Better Times and Rewards are Coming for Those Who Have Been Transmuting the Dark Force

This Awareness indicates that the worst of these have yet to be altered, but there are many who have already changed and become more light in their being. This Awareness indicates that those who have allowed themselves to help channel and transmute these negative energies from the experiences in their own lives are those who will indeed experience a great reward in these coming years.

This will become much more focused and clear during this movement through the Photon Belt, which again will become strong beginning in February of 1997. This Awareness suggests that entities be very careful during this coming time to keep their consciousness on the Highest and Best, for the consciousness gains greater power to manifest that whichever the entity is focused on.

It is for this reason that this Awareness does not wish to give entities too much negativity to focus on, because that negativity could become stronger from the energy of the Photon Belt through the focusing apparatus of the consciousness of entities. This Awareness suggests rather, that they need to know enough about the negative, but also keep their focus on the higher, more light and spiritual essence of life so that the energies will become positive and they can take on the negative by the glimpse at the negative; they can then turn and transmute it into higher frequencies.

The Real Intent of the Awareness Messages

This Awareness indicates it is much likened unto looking at the Medusa, which, if you stare at it, could turn you into stone--this being the negative. But by glimpsing only briefly, such as in the reflection of a mirror at the negative, and turning your attention to the Light, you then can transmute that negative into something higher. This Awareness suggests that this is the intent of these readings, the intent of these messages from this Awareness, as is seen by the Interpreter.

Colloidal Silver Making Kits: Are They Safe?

QUESTION:

A question from Harold H., in Hawaii. He writes: "I made my own colloidal silver at home from a colloidal silver maker. (This is one of the mail-order kits) Is it safe for me to drink this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is a question of what kind of kit you have. Does this kit create the colloidal silver from the use of silver bars, or rods that are given an electric charge through some kind of liquid, presumably water, wherein an electric charge, going through the water to the silver bar would release the silver into the liquid? If so, this is quite likely useful and beneficial.

This Awareness indicates that what entities need to be careful about is silver nitrate or silver nitrite that is being sold as colloidal silver. Silver nitrate and silver nitrite tend to have a residue that settles to the bottom. Also it does not keep the silver suspended in the water indefinitely, but settles to the bottom of whatever container it is in. This in terms of silver nitrite; and there are some of these companies that are selling silver nitrite or silver nitrate and calling it colloidal silver.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

I asked Wayne Rowland about these mail order devices, and of course he has a vested interest in this, but he says that with some of those devices, that the colloids may be too large and fall from suspension and lodge in the colon and get infected. Is there any truth to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This could occur, if these are not properly built. The general rule would be to check the bottoms of your containers. If you find particles that have fallen to the bottom of the container, it is probably not properly created. It is probably not good for you.

If you sit a jar of your silver colloidal water on a shelf for a week or so and there are particles in the bottom of the jar that did not drop into the jar from dust or something during that week, then you are probably getting silver droppings onto the bottom of the jar, and this would suggest the improper type of silver colloidal water, such as silver oxide, or silver nitrates or silver nitrites.

This Awareness indicates also, in the bottom of these jars there may be not so much droppings, but the appearance of some kind of dust-like substance which could be silver oxide. This would be an undesirable sign also.

Ed's Note: We have been told that effective February 15th, 1997, the FDA is closing down all colloidal silver making companies, including those who are selling the mail order kits. Wayne Rowland is printing new labels, calling his Silver Wain Water Drinking Water in hopes he can stay in the business. It's still the same stuff, just no mention of the colloidal silver.

Are Any of the Renegade ET's Embodied on Earth Today?

QUESTION:

A question from Rasma K., Saint Cloud, Minnesota. She writes: "If possible, please ask Awareness a question. Are any of the renegade ET's who started the social order of gods and slaves still around incarcerated in regular mortal form as a punishment for their behavior, and also given a chance to redeem themselves?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are numerous entities in human bodies who have had lifetimes in the bodies of other species from other planets or other systems. These may be what the questioner is referring to. This Awareness indicates it is not so much a matter of incarceration, although that could be one interpretation, but they are living in a body, and if that is an imprisonment, then there are many others who are in imprisoned who do not realize it, for they too are living in bodies.

This Awareness indicates that perhaps the entity means living in bodies when they might not have chosen to do so, such as someone who is karmically reborn to settle some kind of karmic debt. If that is what the entity refers to then, yes, there can be these kinds of experiences in which entities are incarcerated into a body in order to settle their karmic debt, but there are many, many types who experience this, and not all are extraterrestrial in origin.

This Awareness indicates it is not fully clear what the entity refers to, but it appears that in general, her answer is "Yes. There are the entities who are in physical form who once were extraterrestrial or alien to the planet earth."

Strange Looking People with Facial "Plugs"

QUESTION:

A question from Audrey P., in Philadelphia. "For the last several years there have been people, usually white males, US citizens residents, who have displayed unusual features involving their heads. They have been seen in person and in photographs. Would Awareness please explain what this is all about?"

And then she goes on: "Some have a bull's-eye type of circular depression on their foreheads, above the inner corner of their left eye. It is about the size of a US nickel. Each man that has it, has it in the same location. It looks like a hole for a tube or plug of some kind. What is it used for?" she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a limited number of entities involved in a particular locale or group. It appears to be some type of implant with an opening that allows a kind of camera device to photograph various circumstances or situations. These then are transmitted elsewhere to some area which uses these entities as roving cameras or roving spies to give data for some tracking purposes.

It does not look as though this is for the good of humanity or for the good of people in general, but to serve some more sinister group or purpose.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

She's got a few other examples. She writes: "Some people have abrupt edges between the iris and pupil in their eyes and it looks as if they had two glass eyes. The pupils do not dilate. How come?" Then she says "Some, including children, have white sclera, the whites of their eyes, that contain no blood vessels and looks as white as porcelain.

"Some photos show men with ears that are white, unlike the rest of their face. Some, even young children have unusually large dark irises. This is unlike anything I saw even eight years ago." Then she says, "Some have irises with little points that jut out to the side." She asks "Are these synthetic creatures?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears this entity is taking note of some of the entities who are extraterrestrials, who have infiltrated society through physical forms that are especially designed for camouflage in a human society to give them the appearance of being human, but wherein there are very, very small telltale signs that each is trained to look for so they can spot each other and recognize their own kind.

These irises are not naturally or genetically formed. It appears that they are some type of synthetic features for these aliens to hide in or hide behind, as a kind of disguise to resemble humans.

Men Who Look Like Lobsters

(More on the Corporate New World Order)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

She adds: "I've come across a few men who are okay one day, then they join some "special group" and the next time I see them, a few days later, their whole bodies are bright red. Of course I don't know if they're red under their outer clothes, but there are no neck or sleeve lines. They look like lobsters, but it is not sunburn. The skin is evenly red. Have they been nuked? What's happening?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears there is some type of process occurring to replace these entities with other forms of bodies. This is parallel to that which was presented in the movie Invasion of the Body Snatchers. This Awareness indicates it appears to be something that is occurring wherein many entities are actually being replaced by doubles. They do have the same memories, but their essence is replaced. The actual soul of the individual and the original body of the individual is discarded and a replacement created.

More on the Latest Robotoid Technology

This Awareness indicates that this relates to information given some 20 years ago regarding the Robotoids and Synthetics. The technology has continued since that time and has increased in its growth to the place where they can now, and are now replacing ordinary people who are in certain positions of importance.

Why They Are Replacing the Heads of Big Corporations

This Awareness indicates you will recall in the Dr. Beter information, some 15 years back where this entity spoke of corporate presidents and leaders, heads of corporations being replaced by duplicates. This Awareness indicates that now, of course, it makes more sense. The entity himself wondered: "Why would they do this? Why would they replace the heads of corporations?" but when you now look at the realities that the New World Order is actually an order based on corporate states, wherein the corporations become the plantation owners of the slaves of the world, then it becomes more understandable that a sinister force behind this would want the corporate owners and leaders to be completely under their control, and thus a duplicate of the corporate founder or leader, wherein the leader is replaced by the duplicate, would make sense if a greater control party were to control all of the corporations.

This Awareness is referring to the larger corporations that are known as global corporate state positions, wherein It does not refer to small corporations that are simply a version of a private business done under a type of corporate system. When these corporations get large enough, they of course become a major part of the New World Order. They will be playing major roles in manipulating and collecting and confining the workers into a kind of modern-day plantation in which the workers become the slaves of the corporation.

This Awareness indicates of course the corporation makes the rules for all of its employees. It becomes likened unto a state with its own laws, and therefore can circumvent any of the society's laws as long as the person works with or for the corporation. This Awareness indicates that when you realize the United States of America is also a corporation, incorporated in London in the 1800's, this gives a different approach to the idea of slavery, or feudalism.

This Awareness indicates this is what the New World order actually is about: bringing these corporations together under a big umbrella and bringing all the people in under the corporations so that they work for corporations and the corporations are united to subservient positions under the global government or has part of the global government in their position on the hierarchy.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Does this explain what is happening in the stock market with all these corporations? They've done all this downsizing. They've quit paying dividends or very little dividends, and they're consequently trying to show a larger profit margin so the value of their stock will increase, for some reason. This seems to be what's happening everywhere.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. The corporations that can show themselves to be strongest will receive stronger positions in the New World Order. That appears to be part of the trend or part of the motivation behind some of this action.

Those Who Have Eye Anomalies

QUESTION:

One other question from Audrey P. about these strange entities. She writes: "Some people have irises with tiny lines radiating out to the sclera in exactly 8 equidistant points in each eye. An early picture, a photo of Queen Elizabeth II, for example, shows she had this anomaly as a child of about 5. Is this a concealing device used by the Reptoids?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the question raised by this entity's inquiry is: What does she perceive the phenomenon to be concealing? This Awareness indicates that it appears to be something that is present, but there is a question as to what she means by "concealing"—concealing what? If the entity has 8 divisions in her eye, what is it concealing? Does she imply there is something concealed behind these 8 divisions, or that the 8 divisions themselves are concealing some secret or some code or something else?

The question is not fully clarified.

QUESTIONER:

I think she's suggesting that behind this mask is concealed a Reptoid entity.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is not seen as being a correct interpretation of the meaning of this particular phenomenon of her eye.

What Foods at the Market Are Safe to Buy?

(More on Irradiated Foods Now in the Markets)

QUESTION:

One other unrelated question, in another area from Audrey. She writes: "I'd like to maximize the intake of vitamins, minerals and enzymes from the food I eat, but much of the fresh produce is "naked" and not labeled as such, or grown in Mexico using pesticides outlawed in the United States. If I microwave food it destroys its nutritive value, and I've read that frozen food is often bleached and then colored to achieve uniformity, such as with frozen peas.

"If I want to eat fresh, rather than dried fruits and vegetables, and can't grow my own, at least not enough to supply our needs, what type of food preservation is best? What shall I buy at the market?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is a good question. If you have natural food stores, your chances of finding true fresh foods will be better there. This Awareness indicates that many of the fruits, even the vegetables have been irradiated. The irradiation does not kill the vitamins, but it kills the enzymes in foods, and the enzymes are what help the food break down in the body so that you can receive the full nutrient from the food.

This Awareness indicates that any food that does not rot, that simply dries up and shrivels up, has probably been irradiated. Therefore, if you want to be more sure of getting foods that are not irradiated, look for foods in areas where some of the foods have rotted, and you will know that these foods are probably not irradiated, or have barely been irradiated.

This Awareness indicates that in terms of purchasing foods other than fresh foods at fresh food markets, you may have a better chance of getting non-irradiated food from cans which were canned at the canneries during the harvest time. Many of these foods were not irradiated because the canneries were immediately canning the foods straight from the fields.

This Awareness indicates that of course, there are always other possible problems in regard to canned foods. Do they put in too much salt? Or do they put in other substances to keep the foods looking nice, such as substances to keep the color, or to add to the color? Or do they put lead in the cans? These are questions you may wish to ask about the canning of certain foods and you may need to open cans and check them before you can determine what is used inside, or at least read the labels.

Do Not Eat the Foods in Cans that Contain Plastic

This Awareness indicates there are also many cans in canned foods wherein they spray the inside of the can with plastic, and this plastic in cans is that which creates the substance which is akin to the estrogen hormone which causes men to develop excessive large breasts and which can be very harmful to men and women in general who get too much of this hormone that is akin to the estrogen hormone.

Foods that Contribute to the Homosexual Movement

It is what has contributed greatly to the homosexual movement, by making men more feminine and making men grow larger breasts; this along with the hormones that are put into meats such as chicken, which adds to this problem also. The chickens being given estrogen hormones to make them grow quicker and larger.

This Awareness indicates that when you open a can of food, take note of whether there is a fine film of plastic on the inside of the can. If so, do not buy that particular type or brand of canned food again. Not all canneries do this.

The New Silver Wain Water Colloidal Minerals

QUESTION:

In regard to the intake of vitamins and minerals, Wayne Rowland, who developed the Silver Wain Water has come out with colloidal minerals, a 32 ounce, I guess it's a quart. I'll read what it says on the label.

"This product contains colloidal minerals mined from Utah's prehistoric Humic plant shale, such as calcium, phosphorus, magnesium, potassium, sulfur, iodine, iron, copper, cobalt, zinc, chromium, manganese, molybdenum, selenium, aluminum, antimony, barium, bismuth, cadmium, sodium, cesium, carbon, lithium, nickel, rubidium, silver, strontium, silicon, tungsten, tin, titanium, tantalum, thorium, vanadium, zirconium, and something called yttrium, plus at least 30 other randomly occurring trace minerals in natural combinations.

"The suggested use for adults is one ounce, one capful, plain or in juice one to three times per day, and for children, to reduce the amount used. You refrigerate it after opening and it's supposed to sell for around $12.00 per quart, which is supposed to be cheaper than similar products on the market. Could Awareness give an evaluation of this product?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this appears to be beneficial to people. It appears to have sufficient amount and sufficient number of minerals to be of considerable value; most of these minerals being trace minerals, but still beneficial. This Awareness indicates it does not necessarily mean that the entity will receive all the minerals necessary for good health, but it does appear to be something that can supply considerably large amount of the necessary minerals for good health.

This Awareness indicates the fact that it is in colloidal form means that the body will generally assimilate these minerals easily.
