All about SPIRIT GUIDES

WHY AWARENESS WON'T ALWAYS ANSWER A QUESTION

Opening Message: (C.A.C. General Reading, March 4, 1997)

This Awareness indicates there are several topics that need to be addressed. This Awareness indicates one consideration that this Awareness wishes to put forth has to do with the nature of messages from this Awareness. This Awareness indicates that there is a tendency for entities to want messages that are answers to questions. This Awareness indicates this has a certain shortcoming in that some activities or information is not available in answer form.

An answer assumes there is a finish to the quest, and often the question is something that relates to an ongoing movement of energy or a process that is ongoing. This Awareness indicates therefore, rather than focusing on answering questions, It will give information on or relating to the question, and it may not necessarily be a final answer. It can give comments relating to certain questions that can be ongoing in nature without necessarily coming to a conclusion, concerning the information entities seek.

This Awareness indicates there is another reason for this also; this being that entities in their thinking process like to assume a closure on a topic and not have it left open so that they continue to search, and this Awareness has indicated previously that the open mind, the state of "I don't know" is much more healthy than the state of "I know!" and therefore, when entities get an answer, they think they know, and they do not feel it necessary to continue searching any further, and the so-called "knowledge" simply becomes a belief, if they accept it.

This Awareness indicates therefore, by keeping the information from becoming an absolute conclusion, it allows entities' consciousness to remain open, and therefore in a state of continual learning rather than in a state of belief or assumption. This Awareness indicates this is much healthier for individuals, so that they do not rely on this source as a means by which they can stop thinking on their own.

Misinformation in the Patriot Movement

(Neo-Nazis Involved in Government Undercover Activity)

This Awareness indicates there are several other topics this Awareness wishes to discuss. This Awareness indicates that the energies associated with the Patriot movement as that which has considerable energy that is in some ways being distorted and there are some misrepresentations involved as well as misinformation. Much of this comes in part from an infiltration by Neo-Nazi operating through the impersonation of the Patriot movement. Some of these Neo-Nazi groups are actually involved in government undercover activities.

Project Paper Clip and Nazis in the U.S.

This Awareness indicates that the Nazi movement did not end at the end of World War II. These entities, in many cases, simply shifted to work for the 4th Reich which is also known as the New World Order. Many of these entities came to the Western hemisphere, to South America and to the United States, even into Canada. The Project Paper-Clip, which was promoted through the four Rockefeller brothers, brought in many of the Nazis into high positions in government and industry into the United States, where these entities were protected and used by the Rockefeller brothers in some of the key positions of intelligence gathering and in positions of bringing some of the Nazi techniques into the government in the United States.

Hitler's SS Became the Pattern for the CIA

This Awareness indicates essentially, the SS became the pattern for the CIA, and the CIA used many of the techniques of the SS and the Gestapo units in keeping track of and finding information about entities in the United States that were seen as possibly difficult for the plans of the government, and these entities, in setting up the tracking system of individuals and the secret surveillance's, using the Nazi techniques, have, over the years, developed very sophisticated programs, including mind control as described in various books and as more recently described in the book Trance Formation of America.

This Awareness indicates that this latter book being one which exposes much more than many of the earlier books on the subject. This Awareness indicates that the Trance Formation of America speaks of the Monarch Program which was part of the MK-Ultra program in which drugs are used in mind control techniques and for the creation of agents including assassins.

Brain Stem Surgery Creates Photographic Memory Slaves

This Awareness indicates that in addition to the use of drugs, there have been other approaches such as the damage to the brain stem, in which lasers or surgery has been used to cut or damage the brain stem before it enters the spinal column. The action being such that the intent to damage such is to create an injury to the brain stem so that when the brain stem repairs, it overcompensates in the repair, and thus creates for the entity, a memory that is photographic, much more powerful than is natural. The stem tends to grow stronger or larger as a result of damage, and causes the entity to have a much more powerful memory.

"The Submarines"—Stolen Children for Mind Control Programs

This has been used in that which is called "the Submarines;" these being children who are taken and used in mind control programs. Many of these children of course are killed in the process of such damage to the brain stem, but those who do survive, become very powerful agents, because they have the photographic memory in which they can simply glance at a page and simply memorize everything on it.

Zionists and Nazis Working Together Today

This Awareness indicates that these entities being used as slaves to the Nazi movement as it relates to the New World Order programs. This Awareness indicates that there is not simply the Neo-Nazi element of the New World Order; there is also that which is termed the Zionist movement. One would not think that Zionists and Nazis could work together, but this Awareness indicates that these entities do indeed work together.

It was the Zionists who first set up the Nazi movement in Germany in the Twenties and Thirties, and the entity Adolf Hitler was set up by the Zionists; but in his development, he turned against them and believed that they were the cause of the wars in the world, and in this belief, he began to transfer this Zionist hostility to the Jews in general, and this led to the Holocaust, the persecution of the Jews in Europe.

How the Illuminati Began

This Awareness indicates all of this still goes back further. The earliest actions began in Bavaria with the Bavarian Illuminati, and Adam Weishaupt, when he launched a study in which Karl Marx was to start the Communist Manifesto and Karl Ritter was to start what later developed into the Nazi Movement through their respective works and books.

Most Jews are not Zionists

This Awareness indicates that the Communist Manifesto of Karl Marx was complimented by certain Zionist publications which were released in Europe and which pretended to be associated with the Jewish Movement in general. The Jewish people were not actually Zionists any more than the average Caucasian person is a Freemason. These are two different parallels.

If one were to say "You do not criticize Freemasonry because that's a criticism of all Whites!" then indeed it would be parallel to the action of criticizing Zionism as criticism of the Jews in general. There are many Jews who do not promote or back or have any appreciation for Zionism in general, and therefore, when the Zionists say "You are Anti-Semitic if you do not back Zionism!" they are simply misrepresenting reality.

The Jewish people are as much victimized by this as would any Caucasian be victimized if someone were critical of Freemasonry or of the Templars before them. This Awareness indicates that the organizations of Freemasonry and the organization of Zionism have their own individual agendas that are not necessarily representative of the Caucasian Christian or the Jewish people and Judaism.

This Awareness indicates that Communism was an enemy to Adolf Hitler, and he saw that it was not healthy in Germany for the Communists or the homosexuals to be part of the society, and these became recognized or targeted as enemies of Germany, along with the Jews themselves, and therefore, he was promoted by Zionist influences to go against Communism in Russia.

Partly this was because Stalin had become too powerful for the Zionists to control, and going into Russia was seen as a solution for wiping out the Communists in Russia and regaining control through the entity Hitler, and Germany and the vast moneys available from certain Zionist forces in the United States and in Europe allowed Germany to build its war machine very quickly.

This Awareness indicates that when this war machine was eventually crushed, in part, because Hitler turned against his Zionist backers, the scientists and some of the social engineers of Germany were brought to the United States in an effort to continue to set up that which was begun 200 years earlier by Adam Weishaupt in the creation of a new world government.

MOSSAD and Nazis Control the FBI

This Awareness indicates thus, today, you have both a Zionist element of the New World Order, and a Nazi element of the New World Order. The Israeli MOSSAD has controls in the FBI, and the Nazi element has many controls in the CIA, yet these two organizations work closely together.

This Awareness indicates that the FBI does not have a charter, as most government agencies have. It was born without a charter, and exists without a charter, and it runs activities that are not necessarily part of the justice department or of the government itself.

This Awareness indicates this is why you hear in recent news broadcasts about agents within the FBI who are falsifying information from their crime labs, helping prosecution in various cases that are not being done ethically, but are being attended to by FBI agents who have worked for many years to develop a reputation of integrity, but the reputation is not factual because of the rogue activities of the FBI in many areas, just as there are the rogue activities within the CIA.

George Bush and Son Drug Kingpins

This Awareness indicates much of the corruption that occurs in this country actually comes from these higher agencies, such as the importation of drugs coming through agencies of the government and even in the highest elements of government. The entity George Bush was a Kingpin for the drug movement into the United States. Indeed, his son was involved in flying some of the aircraft carrying drugs into the United States, and these of course went in through Mena, Arkansas, under the watchful cooperation and observation of Bill Clinton.

This Awareness indicates that all of this is relatively well known throughout the intelligence circles and among those who are privy to inner information, or what may be called "underground" information. It is all over the Internet through Patriot groups and so forth, but the mainstream media do not report this kind of information, partly because they too are part of the conglomeration known as the New World Order group.

The Council On Foreign Relations and the Bilderbergers (They Take Orders From Nazis and Zionists)

The mainstream media leaders or presidents or top echelon members are part of the Council On Foreign Relations, or the Bilderbergers. This Awareness indicates that the Bilderbergers have their main anchor point in Europe; the CFR is their counterpart in the United States. This Awareness indicates that most of the major newspapers and television and movie companies are part of the Council on Foreign Relations in the United States, and therefore, they follow the instructions that are given from those higher up in the hierarchy of the Zionists or Nazi movements.

Appearance of Internet Kept New World Order at Bay

This Awareness indicates that therefore, the news in the United States is managed to give entities the information they want the people to have. The Internet, as it developed, as a fluke, an accident. If it were not for the Internet having appeared, the masses would probably have already been under siege through a World Government.

This Awareness indicates that the Internet developed essentially out of a military program linking certain computers for military purposes, but others got tied in with these military computers, and because it was not made secure or secretive or exclusive to the military use, other entities began to communicate with others through these computer networks that were set up, and this began to grow into the World Wide Web, in which universities around the world became connected to each other and to the various computers that were being used for this purpose.

This was later called the Internet. It is a connection of computers communicating with each other. Because there was no hierarchy involved, simply a communication of computers, and because it grew so fast that it could not be organized, there is no central control over the Internet. Entities simply log on and communicate.

This Awareness indicates there is an effort at this time in the United States to try to find some way in which all of these interconnected computers can be organized in a hierarchy type system that allows for a control to occur. There are efforts at this time to tie these computers together under the guise of an international tax on the products being sold via the Internet world-wide.

A Second Internet Now Under Construction

This Awareness indicates at this time in fact, there are leaders from various countries, various corporations and various technicians of the Internet, meeting to find a way to gain this kind of control over the Internet. This Awareness indicates that as this is occurring on that level with the presently existing Internet, there are already plans in motion by people around the world, by computer users, to create a second Internet that is not tied in with the one that is being used by these entities for commercial purposes. This second Internet effort is still being constructed, as an alternative, when the first Internet is brought under control by the New World Order.

Late Spring of '97 New World Order Could Strike the Internet

This Awareness indicates there is also another aspect of this scenario that is likewise being considered. It has to do with a further New World Order plan for bringing about the greater controls over the United States especially, because the United States is seen as the center of freedom in the world, and because of its Constitution, there is the desire from the new World order planners and leaders to totally usurp the power of the Constitution, to scrap it and to void it totally, to make it ineffective totally.

This Awareness indicates it appears that the target date for the beginning of this action is sometime around May or June, late Spring of this year, and it appears that the effort is based on the military process of blinding the enemy before the battle. If you will recall the Gulf War battle for example, the blinding of the enemy had to do with destroying their Radar equipment and gradually destroying any other equipment they had to allow them to watch the air attacks, such as those spotlights, Radar and other similar tracking devices.

This Awareness indicates in this case, it is seen as destroying the Internet communications that Patriots might use in their defensive positions during a time of crisis. This Awareness indicates thus, the patriots are aware that their time on the Internet is limited, and although they promote a great amount of sharing of information regarding government activities and the movements of New World Order plans and schemes and their policies as they develop, they know that they are also being generally tacked on the Internet through various surveillance activities.

There is also action on the Internet in which misinformation is being promoted and there are agents on the Internet trying to get someone to stand up and defy the government in more than just sharing information, but in taking some kind of action to overthrow the government. This Awareness indicates the activity of passing information in itself is legal so far, but when information is passed along with plans or urgings for entities to take action, this then becomes sedition. It is illegal and it is punishable through imprisonment.

This Awareness indicates entities who promote the making of bombs, for example, on the Internet, or who show how something is done, how bomb-making is done, or how arms can be built, cannot in that be legally arrested, but if they promote it as information for a purpose, such as to destroy Federal buildings or something of this nature, then indeed they are eligible for being arrested and imprisoned.

Government Agents Trying to Set Up Patriots on Internet

This Awareness indicates thus, the agents of the government who want to get the Patriots in prison will try to promote both actions: activity and information from entities, so that they can say, "This person was planning to do this or that!" This Awareness indicates that essentially, many think that you cannot be arrested for a crime until you have committed the crime, but in this case, the planning of a crime becomes a crime in itself.

Government's "Crime Prevention"—Just Another New Way to Confiscate the Guns of U.S Citizens

This Awareness indicates in other words, the government has gotten into Crime Prevention, by making the planning or the attempt to cause a crime a crime in itself. This Awareness indicates that this is also part of the reasoning behind the anti-gun movement, in which the government sees that anyone having a gun, wherein the Constitution gives entities the right to bear arms, the government is saying: "If we take away the guns, they cannot commit the crime, thus it is Crime Prevention. If we make it a crime to have the guns, then we make it a crime in a way that prevents the crime from occurring." (

Thus, getting into Crime Prevention may go against the Constitution of the United States, but it would be to the benefit of the New World Order to be able to call any kind of potential violence a crime. They could even go further and restrict knives or bows and arrows, but this is not likely to occur. Knives for example, are used more for some other purpose. The ownership of bows and arrows however, might eventually become a crime, because generally bows and arrows would be considered potentially violent in their use.

This Awareness indicates in other words, by creating a set of laws to prevent an entity from having the ability to commit a crime, is making it so that entities do not have to take responsibility for themselves. They only obey and are taken care of by government and its laws. The Constitution put the burden on the individual to be a good citizen, whereas the New World Order is putting the burden on the individual to give up freedoms and to obey the government and its statutes and laws that do not guarantee freedoms.

This Awareness indicates the Constitution was concerned about the judgments and laws of King George and of government itself, and made it such that the people were in charge of the government. The Constitution was there to serve the people against an unruly tyrannical government to ensure that the government would never be able to set up a totalitarian control over the masses.

This has more or less been neutralized, negated, and made obsolete, though they still pretend the Constitution has power. The agencies, particularly the Justice Branch of government and the Executive Branch have total control over the people at this time. If a case is brought to a court house anywhere in the United States, and an entity attempts to use the Constitution as his arguments for protections, they will get nowhere in the effort, because the courts are not operating under the Constitution. They are operating under martial law, as started in 1933 and as continued to the present.

This Awareness indicates you actually began having martial law in the United States during the Lincoln administration. This Awareness indicates that in order to have martial law, they have to have some kind of war occurring every two years to keep martial law in place. Thus, throughout the past years since World War II, when there were peace times, there needed to be wars on poverty, wars on drugs and so forth.

Nixon Planned to Declare Martial Law in Order to Remain in Office

This Awareness indicates that these peacetime wars were simply there for the purpose of keeping martial law intact in this country. This Awareness indicates that as long as there can be other wars, these peacetime wars are not needed, and therefore, the martial law can continue. This Awareness indicates that at the time of the Watergate crisis for President Nixon, he was seriously considering and planning to call martial law in order to maintain his position as president, and would have done so, except that the military interfered and threatened to arrest him if he declared martial law, and thus, he was forced to resign instead.

How an Un-elected Nelson Rockefeller Almost Became President

This Awareness indicates that at this time, President Clinton has come under fire. This Awareness reminds you when Nixon was being threatened by the Watergate crisis, it was a plan to make Ford president. Ford would then invite as his vice president, Nelson Rockefeller, and Ford would then be assassinated. You will recall there were two attempts to assassinate him, which would have put in Nelson Rockefeller as the president, and thus you would have the un-elected president, Nelson Rockefeller, in charge of the United States.

The Plan is to Bring Down Clinton and Bring in Rockefeller

This Awareness indicates at this time the plan was to bring down Clinton, have Al Gore become president, then Al Gore would bring in Jay Rockefeller as president. This Awareness indicates that this Jay Rockefeller, the governor of West Virginia, has for quite some time kept a relatively low profile, doing many good things in Virginia. This Awareness indicates that the plan is still in motion to bring in Jay Rockefeller as president. The plan is still in motion to bring down Clinton. However, Clinton became wise to the plan and began to shift much of the responsibility for mistakes in his administration to put Al Gore on the spot.

Thus, you begin to hear about Al Gore's coffee house meetings at the White House to raise funds. Whereas it originally was focused on Clinton as doing some irresponsible act in fund-raising, now it has shifted to Al Gore. This is because Clinton has focused the attention in that direction. There is that competition between Al Gore and Clinton that is presently occurring, in which Al Gore is anxious to become president, and in which Clinton is doing what is necessary to keep him at bay and trying to serve out his term.

This Awareness indicates now you see the press gradually beginning to focus negativity toward Clinton, even as some of the press is starting to focus negativity toward Al Gore. How far this will go, and how quickly, is the question, but it appears that the plan is still to get Clinton out and get Jay Rockefeller in, even if somehow Al Gore does get bypassed as president.

U.S. Military Taken Over by FEMA

This Awareness indicates that now it becomes a serious game to the people of the United States in that if indeed Clinton finds himself being dismantled, he, like Nixon, will consider and will probably attempt to set up a martial law or national emergency in which he can declare martial law in the United States. Already, the military has been essentially taken over by FEMA, and they have been conducting around the country in various places, night-time urban maneuvers; night-time warfare practice, in various cities and towns and in areas that are not normally targeted for military practice.

This Awareness indicates in some instances, they are in residential areas, usually areas in which there is a large Hispanic group of residents where they can be easily intimidated or persuaded that it is simply a 'practice' maneuver. These entities are not as well informed about the rights of Americans, and therefore they believe this is part of the government activities and that they must go along with it.

1997 to be a Year of Great Significant Change

None of this is reported in the mainstream media, but is available through the Internet, through the various reports that are placed in the computers around the world. This Awareness indicates that because of this potential, entities can well expect that 1997 is a year of change, of great significant changes. This Awareness indicates that along with these governmental changes, conflicts and power struggles among different factions, there are those other potential hazards.

Reptoids in Hale-Bopp Comet are Reconsidering their Agenda

There are potential hazards from outer space, such as comets, asteroids, and space visitors, and these add to the uncertainty of the times. There are some documents suggesting that the Hale-Bopp comet supposedly passes close to the earth this month, coming up from below the orbit, elliptic and going up and down around the sun about the time the earth moves further into its downward cycle, so that there will be two encounters.

This appears to be such that it will not strike the earth, but it could have some kind of effect on the earth in its movement, but the greater concern is that Hale-Bopp is not a comet at all, but a great spaceship or hollowed out comet or hollowed out body that is inhabited. Many see this as being inhabited by unfriendly entities. There is some argument or some potential that these entities have become aware that the earth has evolved beyond what they realized and that an actual invasion of the earth would be costly to them, and therefore, they are in a state of uncertainty as to what should be their agenda in regard to the earth.

This Awareness indicates that all of this is in a state of unsettled, or undefined situation so that it cannot be said what will occur at this time. These are ongoing undecided activities, but they are a potential. This Awareness indicates these things may be clarified later, or there may be some complete abandonment of plans by these intruders.

This Awareness indicates in regard to the potential of rescue, which everyone of course is hoping for, looking for and wondering about, if they are at all interested in this kind of consideration; it is seen as a possibility that some external or extraterrestrial relative to humans might take it on themselves to help if they see the help is absolutely needed or if they feel that humans will progress properly with such help. If they feel that humans need the experience in order to evolve spiritually, they are likely to withhold their help and let humans have the experience that will make them grow more quickly in a spiritual sense.

The Photon Energies are Affecting Earth at This Time

This Awareness indicates in other words, this information is not something that is settled, and therefore, entities must wait still further to see what happens in this regard. This Awareness indicates that in the meantime, the Photon Energies are operating on this plane, and the Photon Energies are making changes in consciousness, enhancing the vibration of humans. This Awareness indicates that it is not following the pattern set out by Nidle in his earlier book, but the energies are having their effect on consciousness in general, and this change in consciousness may actually be that which brings about the freedom and rapture of humanity on this plane.

The consciousness will continue to develop and evolve spiritually until entities enter into that which is the higher dimension. You may call it the 5th dimension, or in some cases, entities refer to these as 'densities'. This Awareness wishes to comment briefly on what all of this actually is speaking of.

Pleiadians From Our Future—What Does That Mean?

This Awareness indicates there are entities of an extra-terrestrial nature, for example, the Pleiadians, who through various channels have indicated that they are from your future. What does this mean, when someone arriving in your present states that they are from your future? and they have an interest in you because their future has been hindered by blocks that have resulted from their past evolution, meaning you on earth.

You, at your present stage have blocked the future development of the Pleiadians, and they have an interest in unlocking your locks, to free you to evolve more quickly so that they too can evolve in their new future time zone. This Awareness indicates that all of this may sound like gobbledygook to persons with a scientific mind. This Awareness wishes you to think along these words and along another line for the moment.

Supposing the entire universe is nothing more, nothing less than varying degrees of vibration. Supposing the future is simply a higher vibration than the present or than the past, and that the denser and lower the vibration, the more dense the matter, and the higher the vibration, the closer to Divine Creator entities become, and that the higher the frequency, the further into the future an entity moves; that the ultimate future is with the Divine Creator, and the ultimate past is with that density that reached farthest from the Creator when the Big Bang occurred at the beginning of the universal cycle.

What the "Big Bang" Really Was

In other words, the Big Bang was not necessarily an explosion in space, but was a movement from high frequencies into lower frequencies that created the most dense forms of matter, and that these dense forms of matter are simply evolving back toward higher frequencies, very slowly, but moving into these higher frequencies.

Imagine that the third dimension is a dimension that has moved quite some distance from the lowest of frequencies, but has not yet reached that which is the 4th, 5th or 6th dimensions, which are of considerably higher frequencies. Imagine that some entities are moving into these higher frequencies faster than others on your plane and that some are already in the 4th dimension while still being on your plane, but that these entities cannot move much further without the rest of consciousness following, or without themselves having to drop their body, leave their body on a permanent basis and move into lighter, higher frequency-type bodies.

This Awareness suggests that you also imagine that the Pleiadians are of a frequency that is much higher, such as that of the 5th dimension, and thus, they are closer to the frequency of the Divine Creator than are those of the 3rd dimensional realm, and they have been held back or hung up because the 3rd dimensional vibration still is pulling at them or holding them back because of the blocks in these levels, and these blocks in the 3rd dimension do not propel them or allow them to go further toward the Divine Creator.

In other words, the 3rd dimension serves as a kind of gravity pulling on the Pleiadian frequencies, holding them back. Thus, they send their representatives or agents, back to the 3rd dimension to try to free up the energies of the 3rd dimension, so that not only do the entities on the 3rd dimension become free, but it also frees those ahead, to become free from their gravity's.

Pleiadians Don't Want War—Only Want to Free Our Frequency

This Awareness indicates essentially, this is what is happening, and why you can expect some kind of help from the Pleiadians and others in the higher frequencies, but do not expect it necessarily as interferences of entities in great space ships that come down and slay your enemies, as may have occurred in the Old Testament. This Awareness indicates essentially, they are interested in the freeing of frequencies and vibrations, rather than in creating a war or conflict on this plane.

What You Can Do to Raise Your Vibration

This Awareness indicates the best thing that entities can do at this time is to raise their own vibrations by focusing their energies on the Divine Creator and letting that pull them and not letting gravity hold them back. Gravity is that which is fearsome, which is materialistic and heavily magnetizing them to the physical world.

This Awareness suggests you give your energies to others to assist them to raise their vibrations and give your heart and soul to the Divine Creator so that your frequencies then move into a warp speed toward the Divine Creator and its frequencies and energies.

This Awareness indicates It has essentially given most of the information that It wished to give in this opening message. This Awareness indicates there is one other message that this Awareness wishes to mention briefly--this having to do with the recent OJ Simpson court ruling in which this entity was perceived as causing a wrongful death of Nicole Simpson and Ron Goldman.

The O.J. Simpson Conviction in His Second Trial

This Awareness indicates that essentially, this was a mistake in terms of the judgment, but it was not because the entities did not try. They tried very hard to find the truth, to seek the truth, and to make a judgment according to their perception of the truth, from the evidence made available. The evidence made available in the court was not complete.

If OJ Told the Truth His Entire Family Would be Killed

In part, they were not allowed to give complete evidence because the judge ruled against certain information being brought in, against certain witnesses being brought in, but there was even more than the judge's biases involved in this action. There was also the fear by OJ Simpson himself that if he told the truth, his entire family: his sister, his children, his mother, would all be killed, because this entity was aware of who killed Nicole and Ron, and he knew that he was dealing with forces that are far too powerful for him and that they operated in such a way as to threaten his entire family, and he knew that they would do so if he gave out information that he was aware of.

This Awareness indicates that the entity having been a major sports figure was approached and controlled by gang underworld leaders in regard to drugs, in regard to even the movie parts he played in the past. They helped him get certain movie parts and then took certain percentages from his work, and these entities continued to follow him and use him in advertisements, in promotions, and also after he was married to Nicole.

They rewarded him well for his service to them. At one point the entity owned some storage houses, invested in these. This was in conjunction with the underground criminals. They also used some of these storage places for the storage of their drugs, and the entity was forced to allow this because essentially, they owned half of the storage operations, and these being likened unto the warehouse or storage units that entities might rent. There was a considerable amount of this tied in with these criminal elements.

The Yakuza—the Japanese Mafia Slit Many Other Throats

This Awareness indicates that in addition, there was this ring of drug promoters tied in with Oriental and Mexican forces. The Yakuza; these entities of the Oriental group were involved in dispensing drugs; mostly on the West Coast, but they also had some activities in other parts of the country, and because of this, there was an entire network nation-wide, wherein people were connected to the Yakuza.

This Awareness indicates that if entities wish to re-search in their newspapers, around the time of June, when the murders took place, and approximately 2 to 3 weeks before, they will find reference to a family in Spokane; it appears also in Seattle, and in Northern California. It appears there was also something in Nevada and San Diego, wherein these entities all had their throats slit, were wiped out, killed, about the same time as Nicole Simpson and Ron Goldman.

This Awareness indicates that this was a time in which the Yakuza went after those people who had not paid their debts to them in terms of drug dealing and drug use and so forth. This Awareness indicates the Yakuza, in the Los Angeles area, supplied drugs to various restaurants where wealthy clients were catered, and these wealthy clients would buy drugs on credit, because it was perceived that they could pay for it at some other time, and this would be paid since they were wealthy individuals.

Ron Goldman and his room-mate, who was murdered shortly after Ron, were the drug dealers at the restaurant where he worked, and Ron was working to get enough money to start his own restaurant in Arizona. He had much of this set aside, but he had not paid his drug bill to the Yakuza cartel.

Ron Goldman Targeted for Death Because of His Father's Refusal to Provide Anymore Dope Money to Yakuza

This Awareness indicates previously this had happened twice before, and because he had not had his bill paid and the Yakuza was there to collect from him, he had to go to his father and borrow money from his father to pay them. Twice this had happened. On this occasion, he could not get the money from his father. His father simply refused to pay it, and thus, he was targeted by the Yakuza to be killed.

Nicole Simpson Dealt Dope to L.A. Police and Others

This Awareness indicates that Nicole Simpson, having divorced, was involved in dope dealing to many of the police in Los Angeles, who often frequented OJ's home and whom she came to know well. She dealt drugs to them and to other friends such as the lesbian girlfriend, and she owed Ron Goldman for these drugs, and many of her friends simply could not pay her for all that they owed, nor did they feel it was necessary, for OJ usually paid the bills for her.

How OJ Simpson Arrived at the Crime Scene

However, now they were divorced, and when these entities followed Ron Goldman to her home, she heard the commotion of the struggle outside and stumbled upon it, and they then killed her also, not wanting a witness to the killing of Ron Goldman. This was essentially what occurred. A detective friend of OJ Simpson who was hired to keep an eye on Nicole, because OJ knew she was involved in dangerous activities, saw the event happen, and reported it to OJ, who could not believe she was dead.

Judge Lance Ito Knew the Truth but Remained Silent

He went over to the crime scene and walked away with blood on his shoes. This presented the problem that convicted him in this second trial. The judge, Lance Ito, knew what really happened, because his wife was in the Los Angeles police force, and the police knew what really happened, but they did not want to bring attention to the Yakuza cartel because it would implicate them, and therefore, all of them, by their silence as to what really happened, and by some slight movement of the evidence, focused on OJ Simpson, and made him the scapegoat for the crime.

OJ Still Can't Reveal Truth or his Children will be Murdered

This Awareness indicates OJ Simpson could not tell the truth for fear that his children, his sister, mother, and those of his family would all be killed. This as a pattern of the Yakuza group, which reflects on the deaths in Seattle, Spokane, San Diego and in Northern California and Nevada. This Awareness indicates even yet, OJ Simpson has to remain quiet. This Awareness indicates that the truth is not likely to surface for some time.

Ron Goldman's Father Must Pay Son's Yakuza Dope Debt or Die

This Awareness indicates that the father of the entity Ron Goldman also was aware of the potential or probability that it was a drug-related death or killing, but did not want this to be part of the situation in the court. This entity now is desperate to get the money from OJ, because he too knows that the Yakuza consider a debt to them as a 'family' debt and he is aware that he may be targeted for his son's debt to them, especially since twice before he had paid it, and thus he has a desperation to get this money from OJ Simpson, and the entity in his recent remark that someone approached him offering a gun that would kill OJ from a great distance with great accuracy was simply planting the seed for a future assassination of OJ Simpson so that it would look as though there are crazy people out there who would be willing to kill OJ Simpson.

OJ Simpson in Great Danger of Assassination

This Awareness indicates the entity also believes that if OJ Simpson were dead, he could then collect his judgment much more quickly, since OJ Simpson would not be appealing the judgment or attempting to avoid payment. This Awareness indicates that in other words, there is a great danger for OJ Simpson at this time, that he will be assassinated by someone, and that Goldman may be involved in that assassination of OJ Simpson.

You will also notice that the press, for some time afterwards continued to demonize OJ Simpson, so that if indeed he is assassinated, people will simply say, "Who cares! Good riddance!" and there will not likely be further investigation. This Awareness indicates that this essentially is the general overview of the situation. There are many details that are not given but this is more or less a dead issue at this time anyway.

WILL HALE-BOPP RELEASE A DEADLY VIRUS ON EARTH?

Question:

In relation to Hale-Bopp, there's been a lot of stuff coming out over the Internet that members are sending in. I'll read a couple of these; that "Major Ed Dames, the former military remote-viewer, was on Art Bell's radio show saying that an ET device was attached to Hale-Bopp that will hit the earth, when it detaches from Hale-Bopp, and it is full of a virus that will kill all plant life on earth."

Another one: Bill C., in California, writes: "The whole Hale-Bopp thing is certainly getting interesting. You may have heard there was a guy on Art Bell the other night who was talking about Hale-Bopp carrying plant pathogens, enough to wipe out all vegetation in a few short years."

And this person in Omaha, Nebraska, called TC, writes that "On Art Bell the other night, a gentleman from Psi-Tech, the organization which trained Courtney Brown, said that his remote viewers had seen that some kind of canister containing lethal bacteria, et cetera, that will be let loose around Equatorial Africa and will kill off green vegetation; everything except vital plankton, which gives us adequate oxygen to breathe, and that 80 to 85 % of the world's population will die of starvation from the horrible famine that will occur in the next two to three years.

And he says, "I'd like to know what Awareness thinks of this!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates It does not see this happening. This Awareness indicates it appears that this is not a reality of the future. It appears that there may be some degree of danger from something that is dispensed from this movement of Hale-Bopp near the earth and its orbit, but that this is not the nature of the danger.

This Awareness indicates this appears to be another of the visions promoted by these entities involved in the remote-viewing group to release disinformation, and that its origin is from CIA sources. "Once a CIA agent, always a CIA agent" is the term describing this kind of action. These entities trained by the CIA are not finished working for them.

It does not appear that this is correct information.

WILL IRAQ ATTACK AMERICA THIS JULY WITH BACTERIAL WARFARE?

(More on Why George Bush Should be Hanged for Treason)

QUESTION:

A question from Clarence R., which came along with a video-tape, I believe, which we have not viewed; he writes... (it's a form-letter)... "Dear Fellow Human Being: I recently had the occasion to hear Mr. Larry Wayne Harris, a registered micro-biologist, present a chilling report about the real possibility of the imminent dangers of bacteriological warfare against America. Mr. Harris relates a riveting presentation of his and others' history of the use of micro-organisms such as anthrax, bubonic plague and Ebola, as agents to be used for the destruction of human population, being developed in laboratories world-wide and in Iraq, particularly.

"I have enclosed either an audio or video tape for your enlightenment concerning this subject. Mr. Harris is unaware of my efforts in this regard. Please, please, please!, share these tapes with your families, friends and neighbors. Contacting you this way is the only way I can deal with Mr. Harris' revelation, that Iraq will attack America, which they describe as the 'Great Satan,' in July, 1997.

"For further information, contact Global Sciences at 1-202-343-6461." Would Awareness comment on that information?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the Gulf War Syndrome is linked or related to this information, in that the entity George Bush assisted Hussein in his build-up of bacteriological warfare, and helped to cover the Gulf War Syndrome that troops suffered, and that this entity essentially is responsible for this. There are some who call for his trial for treason.

This Awareness indicates that the anthrax as part of the problem, whereas in the news it speaks of nerve gas being released when the troops destroyed some nerve gas buildings. This Awareness indicates that the information in this question essentially has a substance of truth in it, although the date of July of this year given as a date in which Iraq will attack the United States, does not appear to be as certain as the questioner indicates.

It is still seen as a possibility. It is part of the New World Order plan to destroy 40% of human life on earth so that the population can be more manageable and the environment improved by less population. However, much of the destruction planned by the New World Order is targeted toward certain groups of entities, particularly Patriots and potential trouble-makers, and those who would inform others of truth, such as the Interpreter and similar assistants, and other channels and other Patriot entities and those who would present publications of the type that exposes much of this.

These are secondary on the list. The first ones being those who actively promote the overthrowing of the government. The ones who promote information are secondary on the list, but would soon be primary targets. This Awareness indicates that the biological warfare could be used as a diversion to not only wipe out the population through sicknesses, but also keep people occupied so that the listed targets could also be found and destroyed without great attention or focus.

This Awareness indicates it does appear that the use of biological warfare will likely be part of the New World Order's agenda. The idea is to bring the population down to a point where there is enough food, enough resources on earth to manage the population that exists, and at the same time weed out those entities that might create disruptions or disturbances to the New World order agenda.

To the Aliens, Earth Appears as the Devil's Playground

This Awareness indicates that entities need not fear the potential of such a happening. This earth is not their true home, nor is it the utopia that many have sought. It has become the devil's playground, and entities are seen as mere objects of his mirth and sadistic humor. So why feel so attached to this place? This Awareness indicates however, entities who have the Light with them, the Light of Divinity, can indeed help to usurp the power of the negative forces and help to bring about changes so that this planet could become a utopia, if somehow, the miracles needed can occur.

Therefore, this Awareness does not wish to write off this planet just because Dark Forces are having a vision of victory over the Light Forces on this planet. You do not have to share in that vision of Dark Force victory. This Awareness indicates there is still room for major changes to occur as entities evolve into higher spiritual frequencies.

If entities can last to the year 2012-2013, they will find themselves in a totally different dimension, and the Dark Forces unable to enter intact. Any Dark Force entering that dimension would have to dissolve negativities and raise vibrations to fit or to have substance in that dimension.

This Awareness indicates any entities on the earth plane at this time who have raised their vibrations to 4th or 5th dimensional frequencies, can find it a safe haven on earth as they enter into the 4th dimension, or near 4th-dimensional existence, even in the physical body. This Awareness indicates one way to raise your vibration into higher frequencies is to become a very compassionate, very loving person in all your relationships and to keep your devotion to the Divine Creator as a primary focus.

Why is Farsight Institute Talking "Reptoids"

(They are Saying Reptoids Plan to Nuke New York City)

QUESTION:

One other question about this paranoia from John S., Pacifica, California. He writes: "Check out the Farsight Institute's website: (www.farsight.org) For the first time ever they have posted information referring to Reptoids. See viewing sessions that indicate Reptoids are planning to set off a nuclear bomb in New York City. The viewers had to first get past blocking energies from Reptoids. This stuff is dynamite" he says, "Check it out!"

Well, I checked it out. I couldn't find that particular information, but is this more disinformation being put out by that Farsight Institute outfit?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is now seen that there are various 'channelers' or people who channel information who refer to 'Reptoids'. This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a relatively recent phenomena for most of these entities. This Awareness indicates that it is possible that some of these entities have been reading messages from this Awareness, or that more entities have simply tuned in to the influence of Reptoids on this plane. This Awareness indicates, however, it is relatively recent, which is why the Farsight Institute only recently mentioned these entities.

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear to this Awareness that the Reptoids have the plan to destroy New York City. It appears that this particular message is further disinformation, to bring about anxiety among the masses. If entities become anxious enough, and confused enough, and things can be made chaotic for an entity, the entity then becomes vulnerable to any suggestion from authorities as to what to do about the cause of the anxiety.

Confusing the Masses is an Old Hypnotic Trick

This Awareness indicates this is an old trick used by manipulators down through the ages. If you can confuse the masses, you can then tell them what to do and sound like an authority and they will do it. If entities become chaotically confused, they will then take your suggestions. One of the tricks of hypnosis that has been proven extremely effective, is to take an entity, for example, walking with an entity into a room; to push the entity off balance at the same time giving the entity a suggestion, a quick suggestion. The entity instantly becomes hypnotized because there is nothing in his thinking to filter the message, and the entity accepts the message subconsciously because of being out of balance.

The same thing can be said for an entity who is anxious, confused or disoriented, other than physical balance. In other words, by disorienting an entity and giving a message or conclusion or order or a thing to do, entities tend to go along.

Much Information Given in this Reading Today

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there has been a great amount of information passed in this reading. Entities need to consider this as likened unto a mere skeleton and may need to use their imagination to put the meat on the bones so they have a better picture of the world as it is today.

This Awareness indicates it is somewhat difficult to keep entities abreast of changes, because changes are occurring so quickly, but much of the information given here, along with entities' own focus and imagination, can feed their own channeling, so that they can read into things that which is left out, and so that they can view activities as they occur in reality with enough basic understanding as to figure out what is happening in their world.

What Exactly are "Spirit Guides"?

QUESTION:

A question from G.K., Gresham, Oregon. She writes: "The Awareness stated in newsletter No. 80-36, page 5: "Your spirit guide is but yourself in another dimension." What puzzles me about this is how then can you and your spirit guide be incarnated the same time in separate bodies? For many spirit guides say they have been your husband or father or brother or mother or sister or wife in past lives. For example, Ramtha and JZ Knight: He was her father."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the spirit guide in its role as a spirit guide is essentially an aspect of oneself, just as one might consider your relationship with another entity in a dream as being an aspect of yourself. It is figuratively speaking, more or less, that when you dream you are with another person; that other person in your dream is actually an aspect of yourself. All of the beings in your dreams are aspects of yourself, your own consciousness.

This Awareness has also said that every face is every other human face. If this isn't confusing, when taken literally, then why is the other so confusing? This Awareness indicates it is simply not to be taken absolutely in a literal sense; that essentially, your spirit guide, in its role as a spirit guide, is an aspect of your spirit self. This Awareness indicates that often it is a quality of yourself that carries from one life into another.

It is not necessarily or always the case that the entity who is acting as a spirit guide for you was always yourself. There are situations in which a child or a close associate in one life may serve as a spirit guide in another.

Your Guardian Could be Your Own Child

This Awareness indicates there have also been situations in which, for example, one who was a guardian angel for an entity might incarnate into that entity's life as a child and offspring of the entity, thus, one could have his or her own guardian angel as a child. This as a possibility, and in some cases it occurs.

This Awareness indicates of course spirit guides, guardian angels and the High Self are terms that are often used interchangeably when in some situations they should be defined more precisely to indicate different types of guides. This Awareness indicates that there are spirit guides and there are guardian angels. In many cases these are synonymous in the conceptual visualization for some entities. In other cases, entities would see a guardian angel as being quite different from a spirit guide.

This Awareness indicates that it is not clear as to how the term was used in the reading referred to, if it was used loosely or in a manner that would have been more precisely intended as a definition for a spirit guide rather than for guardian angel. Generally, guardian angel concepts have to do more with aspects of an entity's higher consciousness. The word 'angel' being likened and akin to the word angle or aspect.

A Guide is Often an Old Friend or Relative

This Awareness indicates that in the case of spirit guides, often a guide can be a friend or a relative who has passed over, who hovers around the entity in an attempt to help direct and guide the entity's life, due to a feeling of further responsibility toward the entity, a feeling that was not satisfied during the entity's life with the person, so that even after passing over, the disincarnated spirit may feel a desire to continue working with or helping and assisting the entity through difficulties.

This Awareness indicates the movie Ghost, for example, would be an example of the entity's husband becoming her spirit guide to protect her from danger.

Spirit Guides: More Definitions

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Various astrologers and psychics and books and so on often refer to spirit guides and guardian entities and so forth, with names like Saint Francis and Archangel Michael, et cetera. Awareness once gave an explanation on life-stream connections. Would this same thing apply to the term spirit guide, or are these interchangeable terms we're talking about?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that spirit guides are not necessarily life-stream connections, wherein entities have evolved as offspring from a life-stream of an individual or being. Occasionally spirit guides, as just previously suggested, are individuals who feel an obligation to continue assisting, even though they have passed on to another dimension. It is often because of a karmic obligation; an example being the movie Ghost, in which this entity's expression in life led to his wife being threatened after his death, and therefore, he remained with her to protect her from the danger that he had brought her way.

This Awareness indicates that this became a feeling of responsibility and obligation for him, to stay with her until the threat and danger had been removed. This in part because it was his own obligation, and not her karma that led to the danger. This Awareness indicates that this as a classic example of a spirit guide staying with a person after passing over to help.

Some Guides Assist Others in Order to Learn Lessons Themselves

This Awareness indicates that there are other spirit guides who more or less enjoy contact with humans, not so much out of obligation, but for certain lessons they too need to learn, and in learning their own lessons by vicariously assisting others in their problems, the spirit guides then find some meaning in their interim experiences prior to going on to other experiences or reincarnating in the physical.

Do Not Rely on Spirit Guides or You Could Fail in Life

This Awareness suggests that entities tend to expect and place too much responsibility on spirit guides and not take responsibility for their own lives, and therefore, this Awareness does not encourage entities to become reliant on spirit guides for help in their personal lives. It tends to lead an entity into failure, or escaping from the demands of living which an entity could do for oneself, and many entities who rely excessively on spirit guides will sit and do nothing, even though they know what to do, but will instead call on their spirit guides to take care of it, and will refuse to think or focus or do anything to solve their own problems, turning them over to the spirit guides instead.

This Awareness indicates they often become frustrated when things do not go right in their lives and may tend then to switch or search for new guides or new spiritual helpers or pray to different saints or whatever, when in actuality, they need to learn to take care of their own needs and appreciate when their spirit guides do something for them.

Some Spirit Guides are Like Vampires to an Entity

This Awareness indicates that another situation occurs for some entities who have incompetent spirit guides, whose spirit guides attach themselves to the entity in order to gain vicarious experiences of emotional joy or fulfill appetite needs and they are more dependent on the living entity and less helpful to the entity; and occasionally an entity will believe that the spirit guide is able to solve problems when in fact the spirit guide is simply sucking energy from the entity, or sucking experiences from the entity.

This Awareness indicates that more often than not there will be at least one spirit guide who causes the entity mischief and difficulty. You may have one or two spirit guides that contribute to good fortune and who assist you in learning important lessons, but do not assume that all spirit guides are beneficial to you. In many cases they are simply disincarnated spirits who want to be near you in order to gain some enjoyment vicariously by trying to live off of your experiences, much like an entity enjoys watching a soap opera, and will gain some kind of emotional pleasure through the vicarious observation and experiences of the entities in the soap opera.

This Awareness indicates that a good number of spirit guides are less competent than those whom they attempt to guide. Do not assume that you are less competent than your spirit guide, for chances are, this assumption is in error. If you have a competent spirit guide, if your good fortune comes to you without excessive effort, then indeed you are fortunate. This Awareness suggests that too often spirit guides simply serve as excuses for entities not to take command of their own responsibilities and to sit back and let the spirit guides direct them in their life and its affairs in a manner that is inept in terms of quality.

Most entities could do better if they did not rely on spirit guides. In some cases entities may have a strong sense of self reliance and may study and work to improve their lives and in such effort, their spirit guides become more competent also and eventually the spirit guides will help take on some of the load for the entity, helping the entity by guiding him or her to meet the right person, or to be in the right place at the right time for good fortune. Those tend to be the main purposes of a good healthy spirit guide.

They do not generally interfere with your activities to make things work for you in spite of your blunders. They may present you with opportunities by which you can learn from your mistakes. They do not simply guide you to make proper choices. The choices you make are more than likely choices that come because of your own intellect and character and sense of ethics, and the mistakes that come from your choices are yours, not your guardian angels' or your spirit guide.

Thus, if you understand this you will not expect too much from your spirit guides. This Awareness indicates there are entities who have a knack for finding or seeing something that is important to them and this knack often is the result of nudging or influence from the spirit guide. Some entities by chance appear at the right place to meet the right person that is necessary at that time, or they may be drawn to a book that is just what they need. This generally is the result of their spirit guide's influence.

Training Your Spirit Guide to Find Things for You

One can train a spirit guide to help in this manner, for as one becomes more magnetized to find certain information or certain goals and desires, the spirit guide begins to assist in that function. This Awareness indicates the Interpreter has often joked about a certain associate of his who loved to wander into second-hand shops and buy old bottles, old dishes, old pictures, and the Interpreter would often joke that the entity had a spirit guide who was highly educated in finding bargains in second-hand stores, and would help this entity in this function.

This Awareness indicates that it was more than a joke to the Interpreter, for the Interpreter saw this entity as training his spirit guide in this manner because this was a habit that the entity was continually developing and perfecting over the years, and the spirit guide was simply offering its help in any way the entity sought and this was an important function to the entity, so the spirit guide was then being relegated to a position of helping the entity find second-hand store bargains, when in fact the spirit guide could have just as easily been trained to do something of a higher quality, given the higher goals or purposes for a different set of actions.

This Awareness indicates that many entities train their spirit guides in accordance with the particular interests they hold. There are many spirit guides who are trained to spot garage sales because that is what is important to the entity whom they are serving. There are others who are trained to spot good books that help the development of one's spiritual growth. There are others who are trained to lead entities into relationships with others or to gather information from unusual sources because those are activities the entities are drawn to and have developed their magnetic center to focus towards and the spirit guides serve in this manner.

This Awareness indicates the spirit guides do not tend to draw entities away from their particular interests, but to assist them in fulfilling their particular interests. This Awareness suggests that if entities understand this they may be more careful as to how they train their spirit guides to get more out of life.

How About Guides that Heal Others?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

How about guides in relation to healing? For example, a number of people who do so-called spiritual type healing, claim that they have spirit guides that assist them. Mary Anne, for example, swears by her spirit guides when she's doing a type of laying on of hands and manipulating the body in some way. Is this her imagination, that it's really her High Self that is doing this, or indeed there are actual spirits or disincarnate entities that assist and actually did the healing?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in many cases, there are disincarnated spirits who are involved in such healings. This Awareness indicates of course, it will depend on the entity whether or not these disincarnated spirits are actually functioning properly or whether they are simply a creation of the entity's imagination or if they are acting incompetently. An entity who is genuinely and sincerely concerned about the healing of a patient, tends to train the spirit guide to that same mentality, and the spirit guide will act accordingly, and will give as much as possible toward the healing of the entity.

This Awareness indicates It is not attempting to imply that spirit guides have no will of their own and are simply reflections of an individual. More the case, a spirit guide would simply work with an individual with whom it was compatible or would leave the individual and go elsewhere if the individual and it were not compatible, thus, a spirit guide on finding an individual who is not truly sincere in the healing of others, but claiming to be, would not serve that entity for any long period of time, unless a change occurred, and the entity who was not really sincere, but pretending to be, would then tend to draw in a spirit guide that reflected his or her same mentality about the healing of others.

Criminals Have Spirit Guides who Assist Them in Crime

Thus, the spirit guide would tend to pretend interest in healing, but not be very effective, in actuality. This Awareness indicates this is what this Awareness means by 'training' your spirit guide. It is a self-discipline action.

As you discipline yourself, your spirit guide either follows suit or leaves and one that matches your mentality comes in to assist you. This Awareness indicates even con artists will have spirit guides that help them in their conning. Criminals have spirit guides that help them in their criminal acts. When they are of extreme criminal nature, entities often refer to these entities, these spirit guides, as demons rather than spirit guides, but it is essentially the same, except that the spirit guide is assisting the entity in his criminal act.

Spirit Guides Not to be Confused with Guardian Angels

This Awareness indicates that these spirit guides should not be confused with guardian angels. Guardian angels do not subject themselves or compromise themselves in a spiritual sense to accommodate one who's values are demented. Guardian angels tend to concern themselves more with the evolution of the entity's spirituality, even if it goes against the wishes of the entity.

A guardian angel, for example, might recognize that this entity wants a certain goal or achievement. The guardian angel might deny this in order that the entity learn lessons or grow from the loss of his or her goals, or a guardian angel might even allow the entity to have that which he or she wants, knowing that the achievement will cause the entity considerable damage; the purpose being to teach the entity that the game is not what is truly valuable to the entity's happiness.

For Your Own Good Guardian Angels Sometimes Deny You Things

This Awareness indicates that the guardian angel can often see into the future to know whether something will benefit or hinder an entity and whether the benefit will be short-lived or long-term, and whether from this it should be given or should be denied. Occasionally a guardian angel will deny you what you seek, but if it does, it is because your greater interest is helped by having that goal denied. Something better may come or something less dangerous or hazardous may result.

Spirit guides do not have the same kind of insight. They simply seek to appease your appetites as your appetites develop as your goals and desires are expressed. The spirit guides seek to assist you in fulfilling your momentary desires, but they lack the overview that guardian angels may have.

Who Warned Editor's Mother Her House Was Going to Burn Down?

QUESTION:

A rather unusual thing occurred when I was a little boy and living in Medford. My mother was always talking about her "spirit guide,". His name was Timothy. I'm not sure whether it was an American native Indian or not. She also spoke of an Indian guide, but she told me one time in the middle of Winter, that she had been awakened from sleep, over, I believe a three week period by her guide, telling her: "They're going to burn you out!", and made me, particularly, rather paranoid, and I would begin checking electric stoves, the wood furnace and outlets and possible things that might cause a fire.

About a week or two later, in the middle of January, in sub-zero temperature around 3:00 AM, the house did erupt in flames and it burned to the ground before our terrified eyes. Myself and my two sisters escaped at the last minute just in our sleeping clothes and pajamas, and that was about it. However, I did bolt back into the house to rescue my Teddy bear from my bed, which at the time was on fire. And I've often wondered as I grew up, when I read about spirits, that I didn't think that they had the ability to forecast something like that, but the High Self could see this and in some way would warn my mother.

Is this the case? Was this what actually happened? Was it her High Self seeing this tragedy coming down the road?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are different levels of disincarnated spirits in terms of their spiritual evolution and their ability to foresee the future, just as there are different levels of prophecy among those living. Some entities have the gift and some don't. This Awareness indicates that in this case, the entity was a highly evolved being, having the ability to see forces and energies at work in the future and to warn your mother in time. This Awareness indicates that she had trained this guide by her own interest and the focus on values which she herself held. Had the mother been more mundane in her interests, the spirit guide would likely have been a more mundane type, focusing on other things of less importance and this might not have occurred.

This Awareness indicates that your spirit guides essentially reflect your own interests and her interests were the family and its welfare and this was a high priority to her and her spirit guide had some commitment in helping the family and its welfare.

HE ASKS: WHY CAN'T "SPIRIT" GIVE CASH TO "NEW AGERS"

QUESTION:

A question from A.N., which may be along this line. He writes: "What is the most common "thing" which blocks "light workers" from achieving a cash flow? And why does it seem that so many of us are in the same boat, while so many of "them" have a large cash flow available to them? It seems to me that spirit would supply us with the tools, so I figure that somehow, I may be causing the cash flow blank.

I feel that I am prepared mentally, physically and spiritually to use the tools correctly. Are you at CAC able to help me? If so, then I ask you please help me in any way you can to remove the block so that I can create a solid cash flow in a good way."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the proper use of spiritual energies to create physical wealth is to understand a proper use of the physical wealth for spiritual purposes and to have faith in the effort and right to acquire financial wealth, and the improper use of spiritual energies for acquiring wealth lies in the action of trying to get spirit to earn the money for you.

This Awareness indicates if you have the faith that it is alright for you to have the wealth, and if you have the proper use of the wealth, then the next step is for you to determine a way to acquire the wealth that is proper and not an affront to spiritual values, a way of earning the wealth. Most entities who get into spiritual manifestation prefer to energize without effort. They do not want to work for their money. They want it to be provided by the universe on a silver platter to them, without their having to put forth effort.

The General Rule of Money: It is Energy Stored

It is generally the rule of money that money is energy stored. If entities do not put forth the means by which the energy can be captured and stored in the form of money, they generally do not acquire any, except occasionally through gifts or doles.

This Awareness suggests there are different ways whereby entities can work for money. Some are more effective than other. To acquire money through private individual services can be a slow process, particularly when the service you have to offer is easily available through others or wherein there is no market for your service, or the market for the service has too many others waiting to fill the service.

In the service market, if you have a skill that is unique or very rare and in demand, your opportunity for earning increases proportionate to that uniqueness and demand, and you can charge whatever the market will bear for your service. This Awareness indicates that there are other actions also that lie somewhat in a different direction of offering service, whereby you hire others to perform services that are needed by third parties, and you skim a little off the top, giving them certain amounts, and keeping a certain amount of their earnings for yourself.

An Example of How to Move Energy

An example of this might be to set up a moving company in which you hire persons to move others and you pay your workers an hourly salary, but you hold back for yourself from the fee you charge the customers, so that you gain something for the work of your employees who do the labor. This Awareness indicates in this manner, you have multiplied the action of service by hiring more than one person to give the service. Instead of you giving the service, you may hire ten or twenty persons more and gain money from each of them for the service.

This Awareness indicates that this may become a method whereby you can gain such by offering the services of others. The service industry can be fruitful, depending on one's training, one's skill, or how many persons you can offer the services of, but it tends to be limited moreso than the industrial ways of earning money. If you go to work, for example, to earn money through laboring for a manufacturer, you are essentially giving a service.

If you are building something for the manufacturer, the manufacturer gains a commodity which he can sell from the service which you offer him. If this entity has a number of workers who are producing this commodity and the entity can sell many of these commodities to customers at a greater price than what you yourself paid to produce the commodity, then the entity is gaining a profit.

How Multiplying Energy Can Create Wealth

This Awareness indicates that the idea of multiplicity of things wherein one thing may cost little, but it can be multiplied so that many of the same thing are sold and bring in large amounts of money, this can be far more fruitful even than services, because there is less limitation on the production of things and it is easier to reproduce and re-multiply the thing that has the market. The reproduction of things and multiplicity of things is far easier than the increasing of services.

This Awareness indicates that this is not to say that one cannot expand services by hiring more people to repeat the service in more and more areas, for this too is often a way of gaining wealth. This Awareness indicates that it is simply that things tend to be easier to manipulate into multiplicity than services are. This Awareness suggests that in the multiplicity of things you can not only repeat the commodity, you can add more commodities, you add more things, and in selling these things, you increase the market to buy more things to increase still further.

This Awareness indicates that the next consideration in the sale of things is the value of the thing. There are some things that are very inexpensive but are very much needed by large numbers of people. Other things are quite expensive, and there are very few who need them or want them, yet if you have an exclusive product, you may find that considerable wealth comes from this, even though only a small percentage of the people are interested in your product.

This Awareness indicates the way whereby a greater earning occurs is when the product is in great demand, and in repeated demand by a great number of people, and whereby you have the ability to supply or find a supply for the commodity and can pass this on at a profit to these great numbers of people repeatedly, over long periods of time, such as in certain food staples; the production of milk or bread or other foods that are repeatedly needed in households throughout the land.

Many Can't Distinguish Between Their Wants and Their Needs

This Awareness indicates that of course there are other ways whereby you create the need for your product. You create the need by generating the desire to the point where entities begin to think that what they desire, they actually need. As one little child explained: "It's not that I want the Ninja Turtle, I need it! This Awareness indicates that many entities cannot distinguish between their wants and their needs, and if you can help them to feel they need it, they will surely purchase your product.

This Awareness indicates that these may be small items, they may be large items, they may be as small or as large as a single toy or as a home, depending on what you can afford to purchase and pass on, or to gain control of and pass on. You do not always have to purchase the items you sell. If you have the right to sell it without purchasing property, then you can go even further in your marketing because you do not even need to invest anything of your own, in order to market something.

How to Market Information to Gain Wealth

This Awareness indicates that there are also benefits in considering the marketing of information; that information can often be better and easier in many ways than consumable products because information does not need refrigeration. Information may sit on a shelf for 6 months or more without growing stale. It depends of course on the information. Yesterday's old newspapers are not necessarily marketable tomorrow and therefore, you must consider whether the information becomes stale or remains timeless.

This Awareness indicates that all of these things can be of value and meaning to you in determining how you wish to proceed in some kind of service or marketable activity that will cause entities to want to give you money. This Awareness indicates of course this could go on indefinitely in discussing and considering things of value because society contains so many things that so many entities want or need. It has not even discussed such things as insurance, stocks, bonds and such which entities may seek and you may wish to consider some of these more tangible products or valuables of society.

Do You Really Expect the Gods to Drop Wealth into Your Lap?

This Awareness wishes especially to emphasize that you don't really expect to sit back and focus on wealth and have the actual expectation that someone or something out there in space or from another dimension is going to come by and drop the wad of money in your lap without your getting up to do something to earn the right to be paid, do you?

This Awareness reminds you, the nature of money is that it stores energy that has value and the energy generally is given in exchange for something received. Therefore, if you are to receive the energy stored in money, you must prepare yourself to give something in exchange, something that is desired. This Awareness indicates there are some instances in which the exchange does not need to be great. For example, the love you have for a parent or a grandmother or a rich uncle might be all you need to give to receive an inheritance from that entity, but these are special circumstances over which you most likely have little control.

Many Benefits in Being a Loving Person

It does, however, suggest that there are benefits in being a loving person, and that in being a loving person, people tend to want to help you out, to give something to you to express their affection in return for the love that you give them. This Awareness indicates that love is an intangible commodity, but it is extremely valuable to many entities, and when these entities are overlaid with excess money, they often tend to give it to those whom they love, or who love them.

This Awareness indicates that this may be the easiest form of energizing the receipt of money. It is not as certain a method. You cannot expect that by loving someone you are going to be paid, for in such action you have distorted the love or are using the love as a manipulation and it may well be recognized in that sense. This Awareness indicates that essentially, to raise money, to earn money, one should be prepared to work for the energy contained in the money and to exchange something of value for that energy.

The Movement of Very Large Chunks of Energy

This Awareness indicates there is one more area that needs to be discussed in this regard: this has to do with the movement of large chunks of energy. This Awareness indicates some entities can do quite well in handling the movement of boxes or of some commodity from one place to another and will receive pay for this. The pay of course will be quite minimal. Another entity may find it important to move technical information in order to secure something for someone.

An attorney, for example, might need to draw up a contract for his client, and is moving a possession from one entity to another in order to protect his client with the law as well as he can, and this entity can charge a greater amount of money for his service than does the one who moves the boxes from one place to another, because the energies involved, the amount of value that is being moved from one entity to another is of considerable value, much more than the value of moving a box from one place to another."

A real estate salesperson, in exchanging the deed or property from one entity to another, may charge a percentage based on the value of the property. This may take a few minutes to do, but the entity may have gone through 20 or 30 clients before finding one who can afford to properly close the deal, and therefore, the entity is moving through much energy in order to move that large amount of energy from one person to another on paper, and this entity then has the right to claim a fee for his or her effort.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, in moving large chunks of energy, such as a building, the sale of property, or some contract between a company and another company or between a company and the government; these are also forms of the moving of energies, and the value for properly moving such energies is worthy of a great amount of payment, so whereas the entity can move a box from one side of the warehouse to another side of the warehouse and perhaps receive but a few dollars per hour for doing so, the entity who can move a warehouse from one company to ownership of another company may receive a vast amount of money in comparison and it may all be done on paper, but it may also require considerable negotiation, considerable knowledge as to what is transpiring and what will satisfy the two parties who are exchanging: the one who sells and the one who buys.

Watch and Study Those Who Know How to Move Energies

This Awareness indicates that these movements are often the prerogative of those who deal in large amounts of money, who earn large amounts of money for their services. This Awareness indicates that the action of getting involved in moving big chunks of energy, such as the warehouse or contracts for huge tracts of land or whatever; these activities may never require that the person moving the energies has enough muscle even to lift the box in the warehouse, but they must have the knowledge to know what they're doing, and this kind of training and knowledge can often only be found by watching and studying one who already knows the way of moving energies.

And thus, an entity may find that by assisting someone who does this kind of work, one can learn something from that entity so that eventually, he or she too can move large amounts of energies and charge a large fee for their service. This Awareness indicates that this action of learning from others who are doing something is of great value and often there are no schools that teach it. It may simply come from being around people who do it.

It Might Even Pay You to Work for Nothing!

In some cases there are schools that teach such ways of earning money. Generally, when this occurs, entities will need to pay good fees for the training and schooling, thus, you may wish to recognize the great value of being around people who already have skills. You may even find it valuable to you to work for nothing, just to be near them, to help them, as long as they don't charge you for teaching you what they know. This Awareness indicates that even that could be of value to you, if you had to pay them; but this Awareness suggests that in many cases entities can, in offering assistance to someone in the know, can become trained or learn the secrets of the millionaires so that they too can begin moving large amounts of energy from place to place, from person to person, or from being to being.

The Real Value of Meditating on the Image of Wealth and Money

This Awareness indicates that these are all things to consider, and it is much more complex than simply meditating on the image of money. The purpose of such a meditation is to build up the desire within an entity so that the entity, having a strong desire for wealth, will make the effort necessary to go out and find a way to earn the wealth he or she desires. It is not that you can simply focus on money and have it dropped in your lap from the spirit world. It does not occur that way.

Forget the Lottery--the Odds are Really Against You

This Awareness indicates that on rare occasions, entities will win a lottery or something through gambling or through prize money. These however, are based almost exclusively and entirely on chance and are out of the control of individuals. Many entities lose or never win, and only rarely, with a few, are there winners, when such chance is involved.

Many "New Agers" Still Expect Free Riches

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

That question Awareness asked: "You don't really expect a large chunk of money to be dumped on you from outer space or the spirit world, do you?" I'm afraid, judging from the letters we've received over the years, that there's an awful lot of entities who would say "yes" to that question. They feel because they've received a sprinkling of knowledge about energies, magic, ritual, higher forces and so on, they naively believe they will be guided to some sort of vast wealth and treasure, or like Awareness suggested, a winning lottery ticket, and their argument is that with this vast wealth they could do so much more in promoting New Age causes and exposing conspiracies and so forth than they could do wandering around from town to town with just a pack on their back, for example.

COSMIC AWARENESS

This Awareness indicates that they have yet to show that they even would consider doing anything worthwhile with the money. They more likely would indulge themselves fully and become so indulgent that they would lose much of the spiritual impetus they have gained. Many times, guardian angels will dangle the hope of money before an entity to get the entity to thinking that: "If I get far enough involved in metaphysics, I can, with my mind, earn my living through meditation or visualization," and this becomes a way of getting the entity involved in further exploration and study so that the soul begins to develop, not so much because the entity wants to develop the soul, but because the entity is greedy and thinks that he has found a shortcut to wealth.

It's OK to Pursue Wealth Through Metaphysical Concepts

This Awareness indicates that this can be a way of getting entities into the search for wealth, and in their search for wealth they may run into treasures of a soul nature or spiritual nature that are far more valuable than any physical wealth they could have hoped for. This Awareness indicates that it is alright for entities to pursue physical wealth through the search of metaphysical concepts; it simply is not an effective approach to acquiring physical wealth. It is more of a hook to catch entities and to drag them into enlightenment along the way. This Awareness indicates that often what hooks them is their own greed and they may end up being devoured by enlightenment and never satisfying the greed, but may eventually discover they have no need for the excessive greed.

By greed this Awareness does not mean that entities should not seek to gain, It is speaking of the effort to gain for nothing or for little given. Wherein energies you have given receive a certain reward, the little energy it takes to visualize money will probably bring back very little reward to match the energy that was given.

If you are actually seeking large amounts of money, you may find it necessary to give large amounts of energy through thought, planning and cooperation or physical labor, or mental skill in order to reap a reward of such magnitude.

She Asked Awareness Where the Lost Dutchman Mine Was Located

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates it is much like the entity who once wrote in stating that if Awareness would tell her where the Lost Dutchman mine was, she would then pay for the reading out of the proceeds. This Awareness indicates that the Interpreter did not do the reading, but simply wrote back: "If I could get Awareness to tell where the Lost Dutchman mine was, why do you think I would tell you in the first place?"

This Awareness indicates it was intended as a joke, to point out to this entity her own greed factors and the way she perceived people as being usable rather than as being individuals themselves. This Awareness indicates that there have been over the years, many efforts by individuals to use this Awareness for gain without any energy expense in the gain. This Awareness indicates It simply does not assist such entities; it would not be healthy for them in a spiritual sense to gain great amounts of wealth without putting forth a reasonable amount of energy in return.

Awareness Asks You to Think in Terms of Energy Exchange
This Awareness advocates that entities think in terms of energy exchange, of a fair energy exchange; that there are, as you have pointed out, many who think they should have great wealth dumped in their lap for doing nothing. This Awareness indicates as long as this attitude prevails in consciousness, humanity is still in great need of spiritual awakening and reality has yet to reign on this plane, for there is no great reward or gain in acquiring something that you do not deserve, or have not earned, for it will simply cater to you if you got it, and spoil you and keep you from developing your true abilities to express yourself in a fair and just manner in a universe that tends to balance the energies so that where there is a need, there is something to fulfill that need.

This Awareness indicates that too many entities perceive money as being the answer to all their needs. Often, understanding or knowledge or principles or rules provide the answer to the need, and when entities understand the nature of the rules or principles or knowledge, they then can solve the other aspects and needs of their life. This Awareness indicates that too often entities have something of value, but rather than use it, they squander it and then wonder why they can't have more.

This Awareness suggests that entities use what they have in an effective and efficient way, and then they will gain more from proper use of what they already have available to them. If you have no money in your pocket, but you have muscles in your arms, you can do physical labor. If you have no money in your pocket, but you have the ability to smile, you can spread happiness, and happiness will be returned to you through gifts and through other generousities of those who are made happy.

Even if You Are Broke You Have Something Valuable to Offer

If you have a head full of knowledge, you have a commodity to sell. This Awareness indicates that even if you are without money, you have something of value to someone, or you have the ability to develop something of value. Work with what you have and from there, more will be added.

The Law of Gratitude is given.

ANGER AND ASTRAL DEMONS

(More on How to Get Along With Women)

QUESTION:

A couple of questions from Steve N., in Ajax, Ontario, Canada, that he sent by FAX. His English is a little difficult, but I think I can get the gist of his question here. He writes: "I have a few questions that I would sure like someone to answer for me. In the area of astral demons that attach themselves and use that person as a host to siphon their energies, does this also apply to anger?"

"My partner has an explosive anger that's triggered by the slightest thing. One has only to mention their disapproval of something that they have done, and they get intensely angry, and when they get that way, it's like talking to a different person, for their sense of reasoning or logic is totally out of synch. Their anger totally dominates and it lasts for a long time before they be normal again, and it's very difficult for me to deal with her when they are like that.

"Most times I just have to back down and not pursue the issue. So, if you have any answers, or if Awareness has any answers, I would be most thankful. Likewise, anyone else that's faced with someone like this."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are certain counseling techniques that are used in helping to relate to entities of this nature. First, you must understand that the anger apparently refers to an entity who is defensive. The entity apparently has some fear of being criticized. Perhaps she was raised in a situation where criticism usually led to punishment, or perhaps being criticized for something wrong meant something was horrible amiss with her.

This Awareness indicates that in other words, the entity has not been allowed to be imperfect. She has been expected to be perfect at all times, and criticism means there is something wrong with her and it becomes a threat to her very welfare and being if there is a criticism of her. This Awareness indicates that this is something to understand as to the cause of her reaction. It is a desperation based on fear.

This Awareness indicates if you can assure her that she is deeply loved and that the criticism is not intended to cause her to feel bad about herself, you are simply asking her if this could be another way of looking at a situation, so that you are not actually criticizing, you are simply offering a different view of something; then perhaps she would not have that extreme reaction to you.

Ask Her If You Have Upset Her With What You Said

This Awareness indicates if, however, in the process of ordinary conversation, you say something that offends her, upsets her, makes her angry, the best thing to do is to ask her: "Did this upset you, what I said? Did this bother you?" and if so, apologize to her, and ask her "Why did it bother you so much?"

This Awareness indicates if you can get her to talk about her feelings, this can be of great benefit in helping her to better understand her own self, her own feelings. This Awareness indicates the normal approach in this counseling technique is to ask the person questions about what they are feeling, and to do so in such a way that they do not feel threatened by your questions.

Do Not Put Her on the Defensive

There has to be a sincerity on your part rather than an argumentative approach to the discussion. If you are trying to put her on the defensive, you are simply going to make her more upset, more angry and more rebellious towards you. This Awareness suggests you not try to put her on the defense; that you try to encourage her to express her feelings about a certain thing and ask her what she would think about this concept, or that concept. Get her opinions to be expressed, rather than attempting to put down her opinions or make her feel that something is wrong with her, or her opinions.

This Awareness indicates when she is angry, simply ask her why she feels upset, what did you say that bothered her the most, and let her know that you do not wish to offend her. This Awareness indicates often you can just walk up to her and give her a hug before she gets too upset and that can inform her that you still love her and that you do not want to cause her a distress.

Don't Try to Solve all her Problems, Just Listen to her Complaints

This Awareness indicates that if you can get her to talk about whatever is bothering her she will feel much better about herself and about you. She will, in talking about her feelings and about herself, she will feel that she is convincing you as to her disturbance, and if she can get you to understand her disturbance, then it is worthwhile talking to you rather than creating some kind of situation for you to have to deal with. This Awareness indicates that often the man in a relationship with a woman feels an obligation to solve whatever the woman complains about and this is something that should not be, because often the woman does not need a solution. She only needs to express her problem, and in expressing her problem, she wants someone who will listen.

Sometimes she will be very upset with anything you say about how to deal with it. Therefore, if this results, you might be better off to ask her: "Do you want to hear what I would do, if I were in your situation?" Sometimes she will say, "No! I don't want to hear your solution or your opinion! I just wanted to tell you how I felt!"

Mostly, what she is doing is feeling that she is justified in complaining, and this Awareness suggests that you let her do so. You do not have to solve every problem that she complains about, but you should be willing to listen to her complaint, and sometimes her complaint will be the kind that makes you look like you are the villain, that you are the cause of her problems.

When this occurs, instead of throwing the blame back on her or accusing her or calling her names or making her feel bad in order to defend yourself, you might instead simply ask her "What would you do if you were me?" and then let her explain what's wrong with you in her eyes, and what you should be doing.

This Awareness indicates it doesn't matter if you agree with her or not, but you can listen to her, and you can explain to her: "That sounds great! I wish I were that kind of person who could be what you want me to be! I don't know if it's possible to do that, because I am so conditioned to be a different type of person."

This Awareness indicates just having listened to her will help to ease the tension and the relationship. This Awareness suggests that most men feel they have to do something. They are action oriented, whereas most women simply want to talk about their problems and get their feelings released so that they can get on with the practicalities of life. They know that these things need to be done and they do not want to get locked into having bottled-up feelings because they can't get their normal chores one if their feelings are bottled up.

Let them release the feelings without necessarily feeling that you have to do something to satisfy them. This Awareness indicates you do have to listen, and it is good if you can do something that gives them a sense of importance to you. If you can show them that they are important to you, then that can go a long ways in satisfying their needs.

Women are long-suffering people. They can stay with you under all kinds of circumstances so long as they feel that you truly love them and care about them, but when you start cutting off their expression or make them feel that there is something wrong with them that you don't approve of, then of course they become more hostile and frustrated.

Most Men do not Want a Woman to Control Them.

This Awareness suggests that often the man is afraid to show affection to the woman for fear that any affection given will lead the woman to feel that she has control over him and can control his movements and actions, and often the woman will start telling the man what to do. This Awareness indicates that some men do not like this, and then, when they don't like it, they get distant and they get cold toward her, and this bothers her and she will do things to irritate the man at that time, and the irritation is designed to get a reaction out of the man so that he will start paying more attention to her.

Unfortunately, usually the attention given is of a negative nature in such a circumstance and the woman then feels even more hurt by his reaction to her. It is much better for both parties when the woman is critical of the man for the man to find an opportunity not to irritate the woman but to show affection to her in a neutral moment when she is not ready to slap him or otherwise dish out hostility to him.

Both Partners Have a Certain Fear of their Mate

This Awareness indicates obviously, if she is extremely angry at a moment, you do not want to walk up and give her a hug, because she might just slap you for it, and this Awareness indicates you also have your vulnerabilities and your fears in relation to her and therefore, it is important for you both to recognize that each entity has certain fears of their mate. Even though they may respect and love their mate dearly, they also have a certain fear.

This Awareness indicates in recognizing each others' fears you may wish to pacify those fears rather than cause something to happen that aggravates or extends or justifies the fears that are being felt.

This Awareness indicates likewise, women should encourage the man to speak. Often they do not want to hear any complaint the man has or anything the man has to say may be simply met with criticism, and this of course is very damaging to the man's self-worth and in his view of his mate, and he feels very hurt that his mate is not more interested in his feelings, in his accomplishments or activities.

Why Men Usually Have Affairs with Other Women

This Awareness indicates that most men who carry on affairs outside of marriage do so only because they find someone who listens to their concerns. A woman who will listen to a man's concern becomes quite valuable to the man, and if it is someone other than his wife, then there is a grave danger that an affair or more intimate relationship will result. As long as the woman is willing to listen to the man's concerns, he is quite likely to stay with her.

This Awareness indicates it is similar for the woman to wish to talk about her difficulties or her complaints and having a husband who doesn't want to hear this leaves her feeling that she must find someone else. Often she will go to her girlfriends or to someone else. If she happens to find a man who listens to her complaints, she may also become more interested in that man.

In other words, it is extremely important in a good relationship for entities to listen to each other, even if it is uncomfortable for them to do so, and in listening, you need not feel it is a situation in which you are forced to comply to another's wishes. You do not have to do everything someone else wants you to do in order to please them. You do not have to be a slave for the other partner, but you do need to hear their complaint or listen to their problems.

This Awareness indicates sometimes entities need to express their frustration. Often this can be done and it may create a kind of temporary schism. Give it enough time for the energies, the emotions to pass. Then come to the person with some fresh new statement or interest: "Would you like a cup of coffee? Would you like to go out with me for some coffee at the espresso shop?" or something of this nature.

"Would you like to go for a walk with me? I feel like walking." Anything of this nature after a quarrel can help to break that pattern of emotional energy that sets up a wall between you. This Awareness indicates otherwise, you can simply walk up to the person and hug the person and say, "I don't like fighting with you! It's so unpleasant to be angry!"

This Awareness suggests that this kind of statement can break down all of the negative energies between entities.

QUESTION:

Awareness, are astral demons attracted to people with explosive anger?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes entities not to think of these energies as being demonic. This Awareness suggests that more than likely, it is either a physical problem such as hypoglycemia, which can trigger an emotional outburst, or perhaps some astrological quality in an entity's chart, or perhaps some astrological action that is occurring at the moment that will trigger an entity to be explosive.

This Awareness indicates otherwise, it might be something that has been building for quite a long time in terms of an issue or a situation. Sometimes it is even an explosive reaction that is not necessarily related to the target of the reaction. In other words, entities might blow up over something being cooked, or over some behavior of a child, but it may be something much more troublesome over a longer period of time.

Perhaps the wife is worried about the bills. The husband has no concern about them, and over and over she concerns herself with these bills and the welfare of the family in the future, and a husband who seems to have no interest at all in dealing with it, or perhaps the husband has been gambling or drinking excessively, and all of a sudden the relationship explodes because a child dropped something which annoyed someone, and the other parent came in, and in an attempt to rescue the child from the wrath of the other, created a gigantic reaction that starts a major fight between them. It may not be the event that is the focus or cause of the fight; it may be a build-up of other concerns.

This Awareness indicates that to attribute this to demons is a way of demonizing the other person. If you can say that, "My partner fights with me because she has a demon hanging around her!" then you have demonized your partner and it makes you feel good, because you don't have a demon, and they do, and in telling others that your partner has a demon that keeps coming out in your relationship with her, then it makes you the 'good guy' and her the 'bad guy,' and your friends side with you over her, and you tell them the events and they have this hostility toward her, and you build up your self-assurance because your friends agree with you and you denigrate her position because she has been demonized.

Not Demons but Probably Low Blood Sugar is the Problem

This Awareness indicates you do not want to do this. You can call these emotions demons, if you want, but it is better not to call them demons at all. Just recognize that these are strong emotions that this person has, and that there is a reason for these emotions. It may be because the blood-sugar in the entity's metabolism has been thrown off, or that the entity has been overly stressed from some other situations, or that the entity has been building up a hostility over a period of time that has not been dealt with properly.

This Awareness indicates to call it a "demon" is a cheap way of dealing with it. It is cheap and it is basically fraudulent.

How to Deal with an Indifferent Sex Partner (When That Intense Feeling of Ejaculation Diminishes)

QUESTION:

Steve had one other question here; well it's actually two questions. He asks, "Also, does love and sex fall into that category, where my partner is so much indifferent to me, that sometimes I wonder what's keeping us together' for in spite of the numerous difficulties, experiences we sometimes encounter, I still find myself drawn to this person. Why?"

"Also, I do not know whether this is normal or not, but I can actually make love to my girlfriend, ejaculate without having that intense sensation of pleasure that I once enjoyed. It's as though those feelings are somehow taken away from me, and I really need to know what is happening so that I can deal with it, so any answers that you or Awareness have would be most appreciated."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that women do not often enjoy sex with someone they do not feel emotionally drawn to, and if the entity does not feel emotionally drawn to you, having sex with you would be to her a kind of violation, or at best a duty. This Awareness indicates if you want her to be more appreciative of you and to want you, it is best for you to let her know how much you care about her, not necessarily just to have sex with her, for she understands that much of your sex drive is just a biological need rather than an emotional attachment to her.

This Awareness indicates that she does not want to simply be a receptacle for your passions. She wants you to care about her, to love her, to care enough to listen to her and to be interested in her feelings, and if you show that kind of concern, listening to her as she expresses herself, then she will feel that you actually care about her.

Let her be the one who invites you to bed. Don't simply try to push her into bed thinking that will cure your relationship with her or solve the problems you are having with her. Show her affection. Give her hugs. Give her physical strokes, but don't force them into a sexual direction.

In other words, you can kiss her or you can hug her to show affection. Show that you care, but if you push it into a sexual nature, she will not believe that your affection was sincere. She will only see it as: "You are having one of those biological needs, to masturbate in me!" This Awareness indicates essentially, that is the subconscious message that she gets when it always goes toward a sexual relationship and she does not necessarily enjoy or want to have that kind of relationship with you.

Why Men Get Overly Focused on Sex: It's Like Constipation!

Take care of the more subtle feelings of your intimate relationship and let the sexual things follow as they might without pushing toward your goal. This Awareness indicates the reason that often men get overly focused on sex is because the build-up of energies in the sexual glands is relatively painful and they want to release that pain. No one wants to be constipated, and it is a similar kind of biological problem for them.

This Awareness indicates that by avoiding that excessive goal-setting of sex release and focusing more on tender caring of the person and going at her pace, rather than yours, she will have a much greater appreciation for you, and be much more willing to enjoy your presence with her, and eventually she will invite you to be intimate with her.

This Awareness indicates of course, when this happens, and you know that she is enjoying your presence, you will have a much more satisfying sex life. It is not the sex life you should concern yourself with; it is the intimacy of your emotions and your feelings for her. The other will follow.

How Can One Draw an Accurate Astrology Chart When We Have All had Lives Under All 12 Signs of the Zodiac?

QUESTION:

A question from Lora G., North Plains, Oregon. She writes "Edgar Cayce channeled the general statement that man has lived under all the astrological signs, many times. Therefore, he or she is accordingly a composite of all signs; that one should not be judgmental of an individual's particular earth sign in as much mankind has been under the influence of all signs."

"So, how can the astrologer get a correct chart of the person themselves under these circumstances? Would not the entire 12 signs within the Cosmic Awareness Spiritual Development Course in degrees apply to all earth people and interdimensionally?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that all of the signs have their influence on everyone, but if you have a sun in a particular sign, the sun's influence on that sign is stronger for your individuality during that lifetime. Likewise, it follows that when the sun is stronger in one sign, it influences all of the other signs so that the division of houses are reflections of the energies that emanate because of the location of the sun.

This Awareness indicates there is no need to be judgmental about someone's sign, but the influences are there, whether Cayce said so or not. It is not a matter of Cayce thinking or saying something; It's a matter of fact. Astrologers can indeed forecast certain energies and activities and events by looking at a chart. It generally is forecast in a general way, but can be better seen after a fact through looking at the chart than before the fact.

The reason for this is because the details of a particular event may not before it happens be clear to an astrologer. In other words, if you see the potential for an explosion at this time, and that it relates to the 4th House or the home, then you can warn the entity to be careful of explosions, but after the explosion occurs, if you have not had a chart done and you ask the astrologer, "What caused this explosion?" The entity can then say, because it has already occurred, "Your gas heater exploded because such and such was in your 4th House."

This Awareness indicates that it is easier to get all of the details once it has occurred because you know the details. Beforehand, there can be many interpretations of that astrological conjunction or pattern. This Awareness indicates in other words, if Uranus, which is associated with explosions, surprises, or sudden events, is in a position, and Neptune is in a Square or conjuncts that; Neptune relates to water, fog, mist, gases and things that are nebulous in nature; and if Mars is also in some kind of conjunction or opposition or Square, and Mars has to do with metal, militia, swords, guns and things of this nature, then adding these together can give you all kinds of potential scenarios when you look at them beforehand.

However, once the event occurs, you can look and see "There was Mars, there was Uranus, and there was Neptune, which accounts for the event that occurred. The Neptunian thing was the gas that caused the explosion, and this was caused by all of the fire or gunshot or whatever Mars did to help bring about the explosion.

This Awareness indicates that Cayce's statement is essentially correct, but it does not limit the fact that entities can have a different chart than each other according to the placements of the planets in their chart; and according to the placement of the planets in the chart, astrological interpretations for each individual will be different.

Entities are not all identical.

WILL HUMANS EVER HAVE THE POWER OF STAR TREK'S "Q"?

QUESTION:

Robert also asks: "Will humans ever have powers like 'Q' on Star Trek: The Next Generation?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity 'Q' simply has a strong imagination that affects the imagination of others to the point where his thoughts override their thoughts and allow them to accept the paradigm he creates in his reality, experience the same paradigm that he creates. In other words, if one's mind is powerful enough to override the minds of others, then an entity could create an illusion for others so that they would witness whatever that entity wished them to witness.

This is something that could be possible. In a sense it has been accomplished by what might be termed 'hypnotic controls' or mass-hypnotism. There have been cases recorded wherein a hypnotist could hypnotize an entire audience into seeing something that was not really there, but everyone in the audience would swear that they saw it.

This Awareness indicates that this would be an example of the kind of power that 'Q' expressed in those Star Trek stories.

HOW WILL PHOTON ENERGIES AFFECT OUR DOUBLES ON VENUS?

QUESTION:

Robert also asks: "How will the solar system's entering of the photon belt affect the doubles every person on earth has living on Venus. Will we get to meet our Venusian counterparts face to face?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is based on an assumption that there are doubles of everyone living on Venus. Based on this assumption, which is a hypothetical situation, such an experience would suggest that the doubles would have similar experiences to those on earth. This Awareness indicates it is all hypothetical. This Awareness does not see this as having any substance in terms of reality as related to your third dimensional collective view of reality, but as having a reality in the realm of imagination.

In the realm of imagination, those doubles on Venus or on the moon, or wherever they may be in your particular imagination, or anyone's particular imagination, would be vibrating similarly, regardless of where they are, as the Photon energies approached. This Awareness indicates if there is a duplicate of yourself on some planet or moon, and the Photon Energies affect you on earth, then when the Photon Energies reach that same duplicate of yourself in its own habitat, it will vibrate and experience a similar situation as you would experience on earth, with the differences being related to the particular environmental energies of its habitat.

HOW MUCH OF THE OLD TESTAMENT IS FACTUAL HISTORY?

(Were Moses, Abraham, Etc. Real People?)

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. She asks: "How much of the Old Testament is factual history? Were Moses, Abraham, et cetera, real people?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that Moses is seen as an entity who was originally called Meses, which was from a different culture other than that of the Hebrews. This entity was from Sumeria. This Awareness indicates that the story of Moses being found in the bed of reeds comes from Sumerian literature. This Awareness indicates that it was handed down to different cultures, incorporated in some of the earlier teachings and wound up in Hebrew literature.

This Awareness indicates that Abraham and many of the other Patriarchs of the Old Testament Bible were also taken from earlier texts and manuscripts prior to the Hebrew formation of the Old Testament. This Awareness indicates there is also an action that occurred wherein these Biblical Patriarchs represented 12 signs of the Zodiac and are descriptions of a symbolic movement of energies around the Zodiac, in which the patriarchs are the rulers of the particular sign.

This Awareness indicates that this is a very complicated symbolism that will require extensive discussion and this Awareness suggests it will not be useful in going into this in great detail in this reading, as it would be too broad and too extensive and too long for this reading, but essentially, the Patriarchs of the Old Testament correspond to the Zodiac, even as the Disciples of the of New Testament correspond likewise to the signs of the Zodiac.

This Awareness indicates that these Patriarchs as given in the Hebrew teachings can be discussed from the paradigm of the Hebrew vision of reality, or from the Sumerian and other early cultures in their view of reality, which essentially was based on the Zodiac, but mixing the two would be a problem of great confusion. This Awareness indicates it is likened unto speaking in terms of Mars and Jupiter and other Greek gods, while trying to describe, at the same time, the astronomy of the planets in the solar system, wherein these gods in Greek mythology behave along certain lines, whereas in astronomy, they behave as planets; mixing the two without making proper distinctions can be extremely confusing to people who want to know about one character or another by those names.

Supposing, for example, someone asks questions about Apollo and a scientist responds that he can answer the question, and the entity wants to know about Apollo's relationship with Venus, and the scientist begins to respond to the sun's relationship with the planet Venus. The questioner could be extremely confused, because the questioner is speaking of Greek mythological beings in the stories of the Greek gods, and the scientist is talking about the planets as he understands them from his study of astronomy.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, in the Old Testament, there are the discussions of the 12 Tribes of Israel. These also correspond to the 12 signs of the Zodiac, but they were actually intended to be historical descriptions of 12 tribes, in which the different tribes had their particular philosophy, their particular family order, yet they were also originally created as representatives of the 12 signs of the Zodiac.

Astrology is the Mother of All Religions

This Awareness wishes to make one thing clear in regard to its repeated reference to astrology. Astrology is the mother of all religions; this in reference to all of the Western religions, and most of the ancient religions. It does not mean that astrology is the mother of some of the modern cult religions, such as those founded by Jim Jones, or Clare Prophet, Ramtha or Rajneesh, or others of that nature. These others were simply founded around personalities, but the earlier cultural religions originally came out of astrology, including the Christian religion, which is the reason why Christians are so adamant in preventing entities from studying or looking at astrology, arguing that it is of the 'devil.'

This Awareness indicates that the fear is that entities may look at astrology and realize that Christianity is based on the astrological paradigm. Likewise, the Old Testament is based largely on the astrological paradigm as was the Egyptian religion also.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Well, I understood that some of those stories in the old Testament occurred later on when the various aliens, Jehovah and so forth, came in to mark the tribes, and had the blood sacrifices. Now did this sort of thing actually occur, or was this a variation of these old stories?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is much in the old Testament that is based on history, but this Awareness indicates that there is also very much that is symbolic in nature and came from earlier writings, earlier teachings, earlier sources of religious foundations, particularly drawing from areas of the Sumerian and Akkadian cultures in the middle East, and also from some of the philosophies and religions of the farther Eastern countries.

This Awareness indicates the Zoroastrian and the Hindu and the stories of Krishna and Egypt, and information coming out of the areas around the Mesopotamia valleys, these were all sources for much of the information and material that the priests of the Hebrew religion drew from in writings their books and chapters in the Old Testament, and also in the New.

This Awareness indicates that it is true that much of the Hebrew history was likewise recorded in the Old Testament by these priests so that they could give the Hebrew people a kind of spiritual identity on which to build their culture and their beliefs. This Awareness indicates that nevertheless, they drew from earlier writings for much of this information. There are references in the Old Testament that can be found, almost word for word, in earlier writings from Sumeria, Akkadia and similar older cultures.

Ed's Note: Awareness just repeated previous information and did not answer my question.

Red Roses Turn White During Meditation

QUESTION:

A question from Lorna J., Willowdale, Ontario, Canada. She writes: "Early this year I experienced two red artificial silk roses turn pure white after meditation. To date, three and one half months later, they are still white. I use a lighted candle, then close my eyes in meditation. As I open my eyes, to my amazement there are two flames. I thanked God as I watched. The two flames touched forming an arch. Perhaps you can tell me the meaning. With heartfelt love and gratitude: Lorna." she writes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the action of the meditation with the two flames as that which can occur because of the eyes getting out of synch during the meditation. Normally the eyes focus in a synchronized manner together, but if you are meditating with your eyes closed, sometimes the eyes will both move in their own individual direction, similar to that which happens if you look at your finger and stare a mile down the road beyond the finger, you will see two fingers, even though you are only holding one finger up.

It is because the eyes have separated and each sees the finger, but from its own separate focus or direction. This Awareness indicates that this could account for the two candles seen, and the two candles coming together could also be a matter of mental effect on the eyes, wherein they begin to move back into synchronization, gradually, so that the flames are in part connected as one.

This Awareness indicates that the red petals of the flower turning white is a totally different matter. It appears that it was strictly what might be termed an unusual or miraculous type of event. It is that which can be said to be unexplainable, having to do with the power of the mind itself, wherein the mind emitted energy that took away the pigments. This Awareness indicates it is akin, but not the same, to the action of staring at clouds and causing them to disappear.
