THE SECRET OF THE DRUIDS

---ALSO, WHAT'S AHEAD IN 1999?

(CAC General Reading # 2-5-94) Paul Shockley, Interpreter

THE CAUSE AND CURE FOR LONELINESS

QUESTION:

Awareness has covered this subject, like so many before, but perhaps there's some new information. There's several questions in this statement from Austin R. in New Zealand. I'll read his statement.

"Awareness, all my life I have felt lonely and an empty feeling. Why is this so, and how can I change the situation? I'm lonely most of the time. I heard a singer say that she was "in love with the melancholy of loneliness." She must have gotten used to it. Also, a psychologist I know said: "It's learned behavior."

Is it the anxious, nervous neurotic personality? Perhaps the misfit make-up. I admit to being fascinated by loneliness as if I'm watching a parade of events but feel helpless to change anything. Is it all really just another form of mental depression, so common today?

A suggestion I read in a book said "Feelings of isolation were because an entity had committed suicide in their last life."

"Would Awareness comment on this subject, please?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the concept of separateness is that which gives an entity a sense of self-importance, and many entities spend many years trying to become isolated and independent from all others so that they do not have any emotional attachment to others, so they have no financial or emotional or other forms of dependency on anyone else.

This Awareness indicates that this helps them to feel that they are taking care of themselves, but it does, at the same time, give them a feeling of separateness and loneliness. Many entities are willing to trade off an excess of the loneliness in exchange for being in a position of not needing anyone else for anything.

This Awareness indicates that this training to be alone, to be self-sufficient, to not need anyone else, is that which many entities think will make them feel more independent and self-secure. This Awareness indicates that in some ways it does, but it is also a way of becoming isolated in too many levels which creates a kind of unpleasantness.

The First Step to End Separateness

This Awareness indicates that usually, persons who have that type of separateness and who pursue that separateness end up feeling very much alone and lonely. The first step for entities to make the change from separateness is to recognize that the most urgent need of the human experience is to be one with his or her own Divine Creator.

To experience a separateness from God is the most difficult of any forms of loneliness, but when entities feel themselves becoming one with God, moving into a surrender to the Highest, the Divine; these entities do not again experience the same kind of misery that comes from that type of loneliness from the separation of self and God.

This Awareness indicates that as entities surrender to God they become more joyous and more complete as individuals. It is the first step in moving back from that long journey away from God to the return to that which is the entity's Creator, and a sense of Oneness with the Divine Forces of the universe.

This Awareness indicates that along the path toward the return, entities generally meet others with whom they can communicate and relate in a manner that is joyous and pleasant for both or for all the entities whom the returnee meets. As the entity returns toward that which is the Divine Creator; (this in reference to moving up in vibratory scale to meet with the Divine Frequencies); the entity also becomes more and more aware of other people, their urgencies and needs, and begins to share certain aspects of self with these entities, and loneliness ceases and is also rewarded by the fact of many friendships in one's social life.

This Awareness indicates that it is this first step: Surrender to the Divine, giving oneself to the Divine, that ends the loneliness and begins the movement back toward unity with the Divine and on that return back, the entity will come in contact with many people and form many loving relationships.

The Pursuit of Power Creates Loneliness

This Awareness indicates that the movement away from the Divine is a movement toward that which entities perceive as power. The more separate an entity becomes, the more an entity assumes oneself to have a certain kind of power. Thus, the pursuit of power creates loneliness. The pursuit of friendship and love brings about a concern for the welfare of others, and it diminishes the power an entity may have in terms of raw physical power and influence, but at the same time, more doors are open for the entity to be loved and the influence the entity holds as a loving being can be even more powerful in terms of assisting others than when the entity was pursuing personal power for himself.

Therefore, you really do not lose by returning and by relating clearly and generously with others. It is simply a different kind of power. It is not the power that boosts the self, but the power that allows the self to serve others with great influence.

Are There Other Causes of Loneliness?

QUESTION:

Is there anything to these secondary reasons the entity suggests, such as anxious, nervous, neurotic personality, that would cause as kind of loneliness?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this would be more of an isolated symptom or group of symptoms of loneliness wherein entities become nervous and neurotic.

QUESTIONER:

That would account for his being fascinated by loneliness, wouldn't it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that fascination is really nothing more than focus and if an entity is isolated or separate in his attitudes about life, about others, the focus will be on such concerns because this is a big part of his life, but as entities begin to focus on relationships, particularly the first step, which is the relationship with one's own Creator, then the feelings of isolation begin to disappear, and relationships become easier to form.

QUESTION:

Is there anything to this notion he puts forth from a book he read that the feelings of isolation were because he had committed suicide in a past life?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is negative. Feelings of isolation are caused by the feeling of one being separate from his or her Creator. That the one thing in human experience that is of a basic nature is that the soul wants to be in touch with God, and without that recognition and without that attunement to God, the soul is in a kind of perpetual misery and all the efforts at gratification will fail until that issue is attended.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CONSCIOUS AND UNCONSCIOUS MEMORY

QUESTION:

A question from Michael C., in Ontario: "What is the difference between conscious memory and unconscious memory. Each operates on a different level. Unconscious memory seems to operate separately. We don't consciously think about breathing or keeping our hearts beating and blood flowing. It just happens!"

"Also, our unconscious memory can be tapped to remember things our consciousness has forgot." And he has several questions which I'll read and then go back to, if Awareness requests: "Is our unconsciousness our Higher Self or soul? Does our unconscious memory blueprint or map all our experiences from the beginning of our existence, and carry these through our journeys in our incarnations and between incarnations?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the unconscious memory is motivated by memory on a cellular and genetic level. It is what is termed as instinct. It attends itself and its duties, its obligations to the physical body without conscious mental attention. The conscious mental attention is that which is related to the cortex of the brain, whereby the conscious mind is aware of certain things. It does the thinking.

It is aware of things that are input from the senses and from concepts that have been noted during the course of an entity's life, formulated because of thoughts that have joined together to make ideas. Conscious reasoning is part of a kind of process similar to that of a calculating machine. It calculates from a premise to a conclusion, whereas the unconscious memory is that which works according to nature in the genetic and cellular movement of energies and concepts.

The breathing pattern, and the instinctive behavior and muscle movements; all of these things are instinctual patterns of living. They are found in animals, even when the animals cannot reason. Animals do not think: "I must breathe to survive!" They simply breathe and survive.

This Awareness indicates that it is often referred to as the subconscious. Some make a distinction between unconscious and subconscious, but there is very little difference in these terms and there has yet to be a good distinction made. This Awareness indicates that the conscious mind is simply a mental part of one's thinking that is aware of itself and it can expand to include those things that go on unconsciously to make them part of consciousness.

How Yogis Control their Breath and Heartbeat

For example, many of the Yogis in their discipline, will learn to control their breath, even to the point of stopping the breath and holding the oxygen in the cells while they appear not to have a heartbeat and not to be breathing, yet without any adverse effect on the body. This Awareness indicates that all of this is done on a physical and conscious level so that the conscious mind has taken over some of the duties of the unconscious or subconscious.

In other words, the conscious mind can expand its consciousness into those areas which heretofore have appeared to be instinctive and can supersede the instinctive behavior. This is a sign of a conscious mind expanding and becoming more aware. This Awareness indicates there have been tests on certain Yogis, wherein the pulse on one hand would be at half the speed of the pulse in the other hand or wrist. This Awareness indicates that this would seem impossible, but somehow, the Yogi has conscious control over those mechanical operations of his body and appears to be able to block off every other beat of pulse from one arm, as opposed to regular beating of the other arm. This Awareness indicates this is simply evidence of a conscious mind being able to reach into that unconscious level and have control or consciously influence those unconscious activities.

Does the Subconscious Carry Memories of All Our previous Lifetimes?

QUESTION:

"Does the unconscious memory, blueprint or map all our experiences from the beginning of our existences and carry these through our journeys in our incarnations and in between incarnations?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears that these are stored in the memory and can be retrieved, much in the way archived material can be retrieved. In the case of the DNA stored memory, it compares somewhat to the way software can be archived. The information on a piece of software in a computer can be condensed and focused down so that it takes only half the space it once took. If you can recall the archived material, you will need a disc that has perhaps twice the room to hold the information and it then expands it onto the expansion disc so that it can then be used in a computer as stored information to run on the computer, having been taken from the archive.

This Awareness indicates that when it is run and is ready to be restored, it can be recondensed back onto another disc and stored in archive form so that it takes less room on the computer storage mechanism. This Awareness indicates that the DNA genetic storage of information works much the same way, only this process can be duplicated repeatedly, so that archived information from one lifetime, an entire lifetime can be condensed into small storage in the DNA/RNA cellular mechanisms.

How the Soul Carries Past Life Information

It can even be transported in the magnetic field known as the soul, so that it is simply a kind of electronic field carrying the information from body to body, and when a lifetime is completed and the information of that lifetime is to be archived, it can be reduced, and when it is reduced, all the archived material the soul carries from a previous lifetime is again reduced equally that much, so that it may only be a fourth as much storage, whereas the archived material of this particular lifetime may be reduced by half, and the lifetime previously being carried by space, using only a fourth as much room as before.

Naturally, in the next lifetime, that archived material from life #1 would only use one eighth of the space and life #2 would use one fourth of the space; life three using half the space. This Awareness indicates that this goes on so that lifetime after lifetime is archived under further archiving process and is reduced in size and space or containment fields repeatedly with each lifetime, so that ten lifetimes back may be archived into an isolated particle, as small as an atom.

Lifetimes a hundred-fold back may be archived into particles or units that are one hundredth in size, or even smaller so that your soul carries in its electronic sense, carries memories of all of these ancient lifetimes, but the size of the soul does not need to keep increasing in order to accommodate the storage. Rather, the memories are packed into smaller and smaller areas, so that the soul carries and holds these multitudes of memories deep within.

Of course, the more it is archived, the more difficult it is to retrieve the information, and memory can only retrieve the information from archived souls, sources, or particles or areas by focusing on the particular area for a long enough period as to allow for the information to be brought forth.

How to Retrieve Information from a Past Lifetime

This Awareness indicates in other words, you may focus on the fourth lifetime back, and seek to find what your career was during that time, and in focusing on your career in the fourth lifetime back, you must hold your consciousness, your focus, on that particular question long enough for it to come forth.

It is much like what would occur in a computer if you had a three-dimensional memory that archived information on top of other information, and each time you added new information on top of the other, the lower information would be reduced further so that it went deeper and deeper under layers of information, and then when this information is sought for retrieval, you must go through many layers of information before reaching that which you seek.

Why it is Difficult to Carry a Memory from One Life to Another

This Awareness indicates that this is essentially how the soul stores memory from all of its other previous accumulations from its many different lifetimes and different stages of existence. It also explains why it is so difficult to carry the memory from one lifetime to another. There is an archiving aspect involved and you have to uncover the archived information to get to it. This Awareness indicates that in a true sense, however, you never forget anything. It simply gets hidden and covered.

Passing Over: Do You Remember this Life?

QUESTION:

Michael has a related question. We've covered this several times, but maybe there is something here. "When we pass through the door of life into another realm of existence, can we choose to do this consciously? Conscious dying? Would we not then carry over all our memories of the previous incarnation, or would we sort out our memories and decide to take with us only the past memories which are of use to us in our new reality of the moment, or for future incarnations?"

Can we choose to do this consciously, or do we carry over only our strong attachments? I know Awareness addressed this in issue #94-2, however, I would appreciate more clarification.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if you are the kind of person who can carry your conscious memory into your dreams at night, know that you are dreaming and know what reality is outside of your dream, you could probably do the same thing when passing over at the time of death, but most people cannot remain conscious in their dream-state, nor can they follow into the passing over into death and remain conscious of their previous life.

It automatically becomes archived and covered in the memory of the soul. This Awareness does not mean it is impossible, for there are some entities who can go to sleep, and keep uppermost in their consciousness the fact that they are dreaming, and in knowing that they are dreaming, that they have some control over their dreams. They can direct the story-line of their dreams to some extent.

This Awareness indicates, of course, such entities are not dreaming or sleeping deeply: they are sleeping in a more shallow state. Likewise, one passing over in death may not fully participate in the dying process in moving toward the White Light. They may simply cling to life and experience vague things as they move in a state of near-death and they may find that when they have actually passed over, they do not remember what happened to them before, in spite of their efforts to hold on to their memories.

Certain Inclinations can Carry Over to Next Lifetime

This Awareness indicates that mostly what is carried over in death is the inclinations that entities have. If an entity is inclined to be social, this inclination will continue. If an entity is inclined to be violent, this inclination may continue into the next incarnation. If an entity is inclined to be friendly, happy, joyous; these inclinations will tend to carry over, though the entity may not know why he is joyous or what made him feel joyous in comparison to other people.

Thus, a child may be born who is naturally happy. Another child is born who is naturally hostile and angry, and entities may wonder why, but the entity may be carrying over some inclination that has developed strongly in his or her own being from that lifetime just left, so that in entering the new lifetime, the entity still has a similar attitude and inclination, and the entity who is inclined to be joyous may select occupations, activities and games and things to do that are nurturing to that inclination of joyousness.

The entity whose attitude and inclination is to be angry and unhappy may enter the next life with an inclination to be drawn toward things that feed that unhappiness, feed that anger and nurture those attitudes. This Awareness indicates in other words, even though you may not carry the same specific memory, you can carry the generic memory from one life to another, and the specific memory may be buried and archived in your subconscious or unconscious memory, while your conscious mind acts on the inclinations that were developed from the previous lifetime.

After Death Going Into a Space-Craft?

QUESTION:

Awareness mentioned that the entity Ron Rummel in passing over went directly to a space-craft and thus avoided going through the White Light. Assuming that the entity passed over holding all his earth memories, how long will he be able to remember this, and will he eventually go into the White Light?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears the entity is in an astral level, approximately one level above this, and is now assimilated into the Vegan society and may live an entire lifetime there with clear memory of his earthly experience and not pass over for many years to come.

This Awareness indicates that there is a possibility of this entity returning to physical form if and when the Vegan group he is with should decide to manifest in physical form on earth, but this does not appear to be a plan at this time for these entities to do so. They do have the capability of manifesting in physical form, however. Thus, it leaves this possibility open.

QUESTIONER:

So he would be coming back probably as a walk-in, would he not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity might come back as a Vegan, who appears to have the same look and appearance and vibration as his earthly body and would be recognized by those who know him, if they were to see him. This Awareness indicates, however, it does detract certain opportunities from the entity, for he cannot, for example, move on and start a new life.

He could not return to earth in a reincarnated body until the Vegan body has played out, but this Awareness indicates it does not appear this would be a desire of his anyway. The entity appears to be happy where he is, and has much the same appearance as he had on earth. The entity simply could, if his group so chose, to manifest with them in physical form on earth, but this does not appear to be in the plans of these entities at this time.

Vega is on the Astral Level Next to Earth?

QUESTIONER:

If I understood Awareness correctly, It said essentially that the next astral; that level next to earth, is basically the same vibratory level as Vega? Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative. It is the same level that these entities with whom Ron Rummel joined are residing. They reside on a dimension or level just one level above that of the frequency of the earth, and if entities move one level, they could see each other and communicate with each other.

In Year 2012 Earth Moves Into a Higher Dimension

This Awareness indicates it is possible that after the year 2012, the earth will move into that level or one of the dividing earths will move into that level, wherein they and Ron Rummel, for example, could communicate with each other. This Awareness indicates that 2012 is the time whereby the earth divides and moves upward into a higher dimension, and lower, into lower frequencies and dimensions, and those who are of a spiritually oriented nature will move into those higher levels or frequencies.

It is a time when the earth shall pass through the photon belt to experience a different frequency. The change in frequency will allow the shift in dimension.

This Awareness indicates that you may recall in the Biblical story of the crucifixion of Jesus, that he appeared after the crucifixion and that his disciples saw him. The entity was capable of moving out of that dimension, beyond this, back into earth form to be witnessed, to be seen, to be recognized, and this is a similar situation in this scenario relating to Ron Rummel.

This Awareness indicates that with proper assistance from entities who have the understanding and technology, the entity could be moved into physical form for a brief period of time. This Awareness indicates in earlier times, these experiences were called apparitions, wherein an entity could see a ghost of someone who had departed. He would actually be seeing the entity in his or her manifested form as it moved into this dimension.

It is much like that of an astral being or of a kind of hologram being that manifests in physical form for a brief time. Since the vibrations are not compatible, the energy could not stay in the earth's vibration for any long period of time. It is likened unto a radio station in which some other neighboring station interferes and gives a message over the wrong channel and the two stations are commingled briefly.

Using Psychedelics to See Into Other Dimensions

This has occasionally happened, and it can happen likewise in a situation between dimensions that are neighbors. This Awareness indicates, for example, an entity on earth, under the influence of certain hallucinogens or drugs, could perhaps see into that next dimension for a brief period of time to make contact. This Awareness does not recommend this. It sees no necessity for it, but It is explaining the principle of how these things can work.

A change in frequency is all that is required to shift from one dimension to another, just as television channels can, by having their frequency interfered with, shift into another channel's frequency for a moment.

THE SECRET OF THE DRUIDS

(What Was Behind all those Human Sacrifices?)

QUESTION:

A question from Rasma K., Saint Cloud, MN. I'll read her letter. "This last month I have been studying ancient cultures and their religions: Egypt, Greece, Rome; also ancient Britain. The ancient Britain's religions, Druidism, really caught my attention and I studied several books from the university library. There are several things I would like to find out which are not written in books.

There is much of what is not known about them and their philosophy, as they didn't believe in written records, only mouth to ear, to commitment in memory. When their priesthood was destroyed after Christianity was established in Britain, the truth about the religion was also lost. There are some records of observations by people of rituals, ceremonies, rules; behavior which was riot meant for the masses to know.

"It appears to me that the priests were manipulating the masses a great deal, keeping them ignorant, displaying "magic powers" to keep people in line. There is no evidence of their sharing any of the great science and philosophy concepts they supposedly taught the noblest priests.

The Druids said they were the only ones who could communicate with "the gods," therefore, all animal or human sacrifices have to be done in their presence. Human sacrifices were done often, occasionally for a lofty purpose, but mostly for divination purposes, to foretell how some events will turn out.

The priest would stab a chosen victim in the back and then observe how he falls, how his body twitches, how the blood gushes, and from that he makes a prediction. Other times the victim was stabbed in the chest area and his facial expressions and gushing blood observed.

"All these descriptions led me to believe that the Druids were involved with the Reptoids. The human sacrifices used for food and extractions of adrenal-chrome. There could have been holographic projections used to capture people's attention so that they don't notice what else happens to the sacrificees, or perhaps there are devices used to affect the minds of the people present.

"It seems to me that all of these ancient religions where humans were sacrificed were invented by the Reptoids, to keep people under control and supply them with food and adrenalchrome. I am startled, shocked even, to see as with X-Ray vision, through the many religions and social structures which appear "good, nice, wonderful, beneficial, even seemingly spiritual," but actually have an internal supporting frame created by Reptoid mind-patterns.

"If you think that it might be of interest to anyone else, please ask Awareness to comment about the Druids and my observations. Also, considering the antiquity of Druidism, could they be descendants of refugees from Atlantis? Thank you," she says.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity has evaluated the situation quite clearly. This Awareness reminds entities of those dragon holes in the landscape of Great Britain.

The dragon holes are thus called in honor of the Reptoids; the Reptoids and dragons being a confusion of the same things. They are now called Reptoids. In those days they were referred to as dragons or dragon people.

This Awareness indicates that these dragon people have had influence on the earth for long periods of time, from at least the time of ancient Sumer. This Awareness indicates that the influence actually goes back beyond that time. These are those entities from the Draco constellation.

This Awareness indicates that the Druids were basically trained as priests from these secret schools set up by the Draco extraterrestrials that are now called Reptoids and were previously called Dragon people. This Awareness indicates that there is more that can be understood from reading the book by Bramley: Gods Of Eden, Gods Of Eden* gets into the secret schools that were set up to train priests which later became the priests which started and founded the various secret societies and religions that exist to the present time in some modified ways.

*"Gods of Eden" is available from CAC. See Book Catalog.

This Awareness indicates, of course, these religions changed and evolved over the years, according to influences that came to act upon them. The Christian religion embraced some of these aspects and threw off and changed some of the aspects of the religions. Many of those things which were thrown off by the founders of the Christian religion have been reinstated by the churches and priests since that time.

This Awareness indicates that most of the religions throughout the world have been influenced by the extraterrestrial beings, and the strongest of these influences came from the Draconians,-- the Reptoids; but there are some influences that countered the work of the Reptoids, including the work of Christ in his efforts to free humanity from the controls and sacrifices that were part of the earlier religions.

Jesus Came to Earth to End the Human and Animal Sacrifices

This Awareness indicates that by the entity's attempt to let himself be the sacrifice and end all previous and further sacrifice of animals and humans; this was intended to counter the worst elements of the Reptoids religion influence.

Extraterrestrials Feed on the Energy from Blood-Letting Wars

This Awareness indicates that in modern times, the sacrifices have moved out of religion and more into politics, and wars become the means by which the masses of entities are sacrificed and the blood-letting from these can be used for energy of the extraterrestrials to feed upon.

Reptoids are Prototypes for the Concept of Satan

This Awareness indicates that essentially the extraterrestrials are prototypes for the concept of Satanic influences and the Satanic influences thrive on war and the deaths and mass-destruction of human life. And therefore, when they can influence a war and bring about mass-destruction of human life, and bring about misery and suffering, then these forces are "happy."

This Awareness indicates that the very tenets of Satanism are that you gain power by the death of others, and even more power by the suffering of others prior to that death. This Awareness indicates that this is taught in the Satanic Scriptures and writings, even today, and therefore, in the rituals they are taught to create suffering for the victim before the sacrifice of the victim's life.

This Awareness indicates that it is much the same that occurs on the political/religious or ritual known as war; these sacrifices of the children in war, of the parents sending their children off to war parallel the activities of Satanic parents sacrificing their child to Satan.

How Did the Druids Create Stonehenge?

QUESTION:

The Stonehenge in England is said to have been used by the Druids. Could Awareness tell us a bit about that? How those heavy rocks were put in place and so forth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this was a combination of alien technology and slavery. The aliens were able to lift some of these rocks with anti-gravity devices, but did not choose to lift all of the rocks in that manner because they also felt it would be good to use humans as slaves, causing them to become more devoted to the purpose, to the job, to the task and to their masters if they had to sweat to make the altar and monument to the extraterrestrial gods.

This Awareness indicates that it was laid out as a kind of calendar so that the priests could use it to create magic for the people, and the priests could regulate the magic and tell entities when to plant or when to prepare for a storm, for Winter or for Summer, according to what they read from the location of the sun in its movement in relation to the stones of Stonehenge.

They could even predict when there would be an eclipse of the sun or the moon, and in their predictions of an eclipse of the sun they could inform the people that if they did not come through with a human sacrifice or some other object that was requested, or if they did not pay enough tribute in terms of gold, grain or something of value, they would block out the sun, and doing so only once would be enough to extort from the masses thereafter, whenever it so suited their needs.

This Awareness indicates the masses knew the sun and wanted the sun to rise and remain bright and they were afraid when it was blocked out, and when darkness covered the earth they saw this as a sign of god's anger. Therefore they were manipulated and used by the priests and the priests used Stonehenge to get a timing for their magic, for their manipulative magic.

The priests could make a good harvest which for that time is the same thing as a good economy in your modern society, or they could make a bad harvest, by telling people when to plant. They could tell people when to plant by using Stonehenge as a calendar.

Where Did the Druid People Come From?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Historians don't know for sure where the Druid people came from. Did they migrate from other parts of our world, or did they come from Atlantis or Lemuria, or elsewhere?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears these entities came from various directions. Some of these entities were from the East. Some of them had Caucasian qualities, which means they came from Caucasus regions. This Awareness indicates that some of these entities came from Atlantis and joined with the others in Britain, and as Atlanteans and the native Britains of the Caucasus region, they intermingled, brought together by the adaptation of the religions of the Druids, and their worship of magic and nature.

This Awareness indicates these entities, in commingling, prior to the time of the coming of influence from the South, which brought Christianity to the region; these entities were a powerful force.

Druids Created a Powerful Mystique to Control Others

This Awareness indicates that the Druids had a powerful mystique about them because of their magic in terms of advanced technology, in terms of the understanding of seasonal change and of ritual and sacrifice. It created a powerful mystique for them and it led many entities to join them, and others to fear them.

When the Templars came from France into England and began to press the concept of Christianity and similar principles, it created a conflict among the people of the British Isles, so that there was a disturbance and the Druids and others became suspicious and wary of each others' presence and it made the islands ripe for further invasion and conquest from the Scandinavian region.

The Dragon Society and the Pendragons

This Awareness indicates that even in further, more recent times, there were the secret organizations in Britain; that which was known as the Dragon, which became the Pendragon family, which led to the myths and stories of Arthur Pendragon, and eventually produced the Madison family, of which your second president had belonged, to the Dragon Society, and brought over certain principles that he had adopted from his interest and understanding of the Dragon Society of England.

James Madison and the Dragon Society Influence

This Awareness indicates that by this time, the entity Madison, and his family, had been influenced also by the Templars, and the Dragon Society had undergone considerable change from the earlier religions of the Druids, but some of the teaching still carried into the Dragon Society and also became part of the early influence in the founding of the United States and its forefathers in their adaptation of certain concepts on which the nation would be based.

Thomas Jefferson and the Influence of the Iroquois Indians

This Awareness indicates that Jefferson also was influenced, not so much from the Dragon influence, but from the Templar and Freemasonry influences, and his influence on the religion of the United States came through certain principles, especially having to do with a recognition of all people having certain rights, regardless of their origin.

The entity had certain sympathies for the blacks, for the Indians, understood certain principles taught by the Indians and especially was attracted to the Iroquois Indians and their counsels and ways of creating treaties. And this had an influence on his writings and on his approach to forming the nation in its early beginnings.

This Awareness indicates that in other words, out of the loathsome origins of the alien influence on the people of England, some of the better qualities were carried on into the United States, wherein greater tolerance for differences of people was made acceptable, and wherein certain principles in terms of treaties, became more clear and defined and passed along rights that might not have even been recognized had it not been for these earlier treaties between the aliens and the Druids, for there had to be a certain civilized relationship between the aliens and the Druid priests in order to keep the peace between these entities.

No Alien Blood Sacrifices but Bloody War Substituted

Fortunately, the sacrificial elements were not passed on to the founding fathers of your United States, but the concept of heroism or nobility in the art of being sacrificed in war did survive and became part of your heritage, wherein you praise the hero and glorify the war, so as to encourage self-sacrifice.

This Awareness indicates that essentially, the Druids were an integral part of history, even though they have not been given much status in terms of their historical influence.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE DRUIDS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

According to historians, they just disappeared off the face of the earth. What happened to them?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that they did not simply "disappear." They simply stopped pushing their human sacrifices and religion when it became evident that the Christian religion was dominating Britain and would not tolerate those pagan rituals and activities.

Many of these entities simply went into secret practice and ceased to practice publicly. This Awareness indicates that some of these entities went into secret societies and influenced secret societies such as the Scottish Freemasonry and some of the other secret societies that exist from that time period, and these entities joined these societies and helped influence certain policies in these societies.

How Druid Rituals Influence Secret Societies Today

Much of the influence of the Druids is revived today in some of the secret schools of England, particularly those associated with the Rothschilds, with WICCA and other secret organizations and societies. The Druid concept as a whole, more or less was broken into different expressions so that the ritual that was once Druid in nature might become part of a new ritual or revised to fit within the Freemasonry or within some other secret society, most of which are based in London, and many of which are associated with the B'ni B'rith or Rothschild influences in London.

These rituals are sent out or given out to many of the secret societies and are often designed to promote obedience and to promote a mind control over the participant in the ritual so that the participant comes to rely more and more on the teacher of the class; the teacher who promotes or teaches the ritual then gains a control over the minds of the participants through the ritual itself.

Druid Influence in Masonry

This Awareness indicates that this is a way whereby many of the principles from the Druids and other secret societies have been preserved and integrated into today's society. If you realize that almost every judge, almost every lawyer in Canada, for example, belongs to Masonry, and to a lesser extent, the same is true in the United States, you will understand how the influence of Masonry, which absorbed much of Druidism and other secret school rituals, still controls governments through the Justice Departments, through the courts of law.

This Awareness indicates that it is an influence that originally came from the Dragon People, but which now is embedded deeply into societies all over the world.

Did Reptoids Have Influence in Atlantis?

QUESTION:

In regard to Atlantis and the various Atlantean epochs, did the Reptoids have a presence at that time there?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a time period that runs from approximately 75,000 B.C. at approximately 10,000 B.C. The Draconians did have some influence in terms of trade. This Awareness indicates that there was space flight in that time period. The Lemurians had some contact also with those who were extraterrestrials. The Atlanteans had greater technology, but the Lemurians had greater use of mental power and that which ruled matter belonged to the Lemurians.

This Awareness indicates that the influence from Orion was greater on Atlantis than the influence from Draco at that time. The Draconians were not as active in trade with the earth as were the Orion extraterrestrials, but also, the Orion influence,--this is in reference to the last 25000 years; the Orion influence began to deliver concepts and principles of greater control so that the Atlanteans turned more toward a study of power and control and developed the concept of mummification.

Atlantis Developed Mummification to Promote Power

This Awareness indicates the mummification was designed to hold an entity's consciousness into a focus that allowed the entity to influence from beyond the grave, certain powers and concepts, to maintain the power of Atlantis. This Awareness indicates the idea was, that if an entity could be made to pass over, and the body made to preserve the soul inside without releasing the soul, so that the entity was basically in a state of suspended animation, while also being mummified, to be stuck subconsciously within the body that is not allowed to deteriorate, which would allow the soul to escape, then, if this body were also focused on a certain concept or symbol that was designed to hold principles or concepts in the collective memory of human-kind, the biosphere or the collective consciousness of humanity, then the future could be assured, according to these principles taught by the Orion influences on Atlantean priests and the Atlantean culture.

Many Entities Stupidly Volunteered to be Mummified

Thus, large numbers of entities were selected and brainwashed into believing their mummification would preserve them, preserve their life, and that it was a great honor to serve humanity in this way as being a mummified conduit and carrier of the principles of Atlantis into the future.

Thus, the priests of Atlantis began mummifying hundreds and even thousands of its citizens and putting them into suspended animation as mummified beings holding consciousness for the collective mind of humanity, holding certain concepts together to assure that Atlantis would go on into the future as a super power, ever gaining more and more power.

How Crystals Led to the Destruction of Atlantis

Meanwhile, as this was occurring, greater and greater technology was developed in association with the Orion influence, whereby crystals became used to create that which is akin to the laser of today, and these crystals were used for agricultural, medical and navigational purposes, but something eventually happened when the technology went beyond the point of serving, into the point of becoming used for power and the technology had a capacity for creating and for destroying, and in an effort to use the technology for greater power, a conflict developed between the priests and the Orion masters, and in that conflict, certain crystal powers were released which caused Atlantis to experience a kind of molecular implosion and the energies turned downward into the soil and led to a break-up of some of the underground foundation of Atlantis, causing the entire continent to begin to break apart, in a series of ever-increasing earthquakes.

This Awareness indicates that these technologies, using light and sound, began to break up Atlantis, and it sank beneath the sea. Many entities had time to escape. Many went to Brazil. These were Mayans, and later into Central America. Many went to Egypt, and their story has been told in the Edgar Cayce readings. This Awareness indicates that some went to Spain.

This Awareness indicates that the descendants of these entities from Atlantis who went to Spain exist to this day. This Awareness indicates the name of these people is not yet seen. It is well-known and recognizable. These are those entities who are noted for their ability to jump, but this Interpreter does not see the name clearly. This should be made available prior to the printing of this message.*

*(The Basques who live in the Pyrenees on the Bay of Biscay) . Ed.)

This Awareness indicates that some of these entities went to England and joined with the Druids, and were influenced from Orion teachings, which were compatible to a great degree with those of the true Druids who were influenced by the Dragon People. This Awareness indicates that a few of those entities went West to the Americas and became influences on the various tribes of red people, and helped in some ways to educate these entities, not so much in technology, but in social forms.

Druid Influence In Building Mounds In U.S.

This Awareness indicates that some of these entities were influential in building the mounds that are found in Eastern United States. And some of these entities were responsible for training some of the Indians, teaching them concepts in regard to religion, in regard to the astronomical and seasonal calendars and devices so that certain tribes were able to understand the seasons, were able to understand certain things relating to the heavenly bodies and their timings.

Dangerous Technology Went Down with Atlantis

Those who went to South America had a good understanding of the heavenly bodies; astrological and astronomical, calendars and seasons, as well as certain social concepts in terms of organizing cities or civilizations. The greater part of the technology of Atlantis sank, which was fortunate for the rest of humanity because it was far in excess of the evolution of humans to handle such a technology in a responsible way.

Don't Confuse Druids and Atlantis

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates, of course, you must understand that the influence of the Druids and the Dragon People of England was long after the sinking of Atlantis; this approximately 6,000 to 10,000 years later. This Awareness indicates that in discussing something of this nature, wherein there is a omission of dating, it can become confusing, and those who are not familiar with dates or time periods, might have thought that because the question relating to the Druids came first, that this Awareness was following a progression of time and that the sinking of Atlantis followed the Druid period, or that they were at approximately the same time,--this is not the case.

Atlantis sank, and energies were destroyed, technologies were destroyed, but entities traveled into other lands from Atlantis and carried some of the technology into those civilizations and then those civilizations adopted what little technology that had come from and survived Atlantis to build certain things.

The influence of the dragons or the Reptoids on the Druids came at a much later period and the Orion influence on the Druids also came after this sinking of Atlantis, wherein the Orion influence on the Reptoids and Draconians occurred after the sinking of Atlantis so that the union of Orion and Draco is relatively recent in historical reference.

This Awareness indicates that It hopes this clarifies any question of secrets.

WHAT'S AHEAD IN 1999? (The Nature of Prophecy and Prediction)

QUESTION:

Can Awareness offer a forecast for 1999?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the passing of another of the final years in the present millennium, offers a time for reflection and analysis using the information offered in the Lessons Of Enlightenment. In years gone by, the predictive focus has often remained within the limitations of mass consciousness, with distorted understandings and misassumptions about the relative power of humanity versus the pre-destiny of the cosmos. Such limitations have left the art of prediction with a poor reputation at best, and with mixed motivations for such a request.

This Awareness suggests that with the first seeds of self-understanding having been planted, that humans can now recognize their role in the creation of individual and mass reality as well as understand why prediction itself cannot be as reliable as once expected. For now that the rightful free will has been restored, that had long been lost to the "truth" of a fixed pre-destiny, such limited concepts have now given way to the enlightenment and empowerment that can belong to each member of the species. With these enlightened understandings, the resolution can be made between spiritual pre-destiny and willfully created events.

This Awareness suggests that entities adopt this enlightened perspective about prediction in general, and far more empowering and rewarding results can occur than from motives to test the power or breadth of This Awareness, or of the accuracy of the Interpreter against events which become actual. For as long as humans believe that they do not effect the realities that emerge, this will, in fact, be part and parcel of the very reality that they create.

This Awareness suggests that prophets since the dawn of humankind have heralded a singular message. This message is the spiritual reality that humans are the architects of their own destiny and can use the free will to live fulfilling and rewarding spiritual existence or they can become mired within the pitfalls of ignorance of the breadth of their free will and the results of their solely self-preservationary applications of power. This spiritual reality and the current abysmal state of humanity's self-understanding and success in purposeful action, relates directly to the level of chaos experienced in individual and mass reality. Until the self knowledge is embraced, the basic, essential message from prophecy cannot be received.

This Awareness suggests that the pattern of predictions and prophecies that have been put forth since even before recorded time, all speak to the spiritual reality of how humans will reap what they sow. There have been multitudinous predictions, many said to occur around the current time period, the turning point into the next millennium, that paint a horrific picture of how a critical mass of negative, misdirected Will Energy can destroy the very Earth. Images of earthquakes, volcanoes, floods, polar shifts, plagues, world wars, nuclear holocaust, asteroid destruction and even alien invasions, have been offered from seers repeatedly. Each accounting of envisioned catastrophic social, ecological or physical event symbolizes, and often specifically states, that this sort of catastrophic cleansing is what can occur if humans do not find the spiritual, purposeful, path.

This Awareness suggests that the purpose of all such prophecy is to urge humans to find the spiritual path before the cleansing becomes necessary. For this type of cleansing is the ultimate spiritual safety-net which will ensure that the species can start over should their own ignorance lead to such unacceptable levels of limitation. The evolutionary process is in place to ensure new beginnings to the degree they are necessary. Chaos, conflict, social discord, and even local physical disasters, serve as a mini small-scale cleanser at all times, designed to elicit corrective expressions (purposeful, cultural human cleanings) from the people themselves.

This Awareness indicates that throughout human history, individual and mass events have occurred due to the accumulation of Will Energy that has been invested in any one direction. Mass events occur due to the ebb and flow of the public consciousness and are greatly affected by the existing information accumulations, the trends of the day, the reporting mediums themselves and the accountings of local and global events. The collective spiritual discontent will be reflected in any number of social, and even geophysical disruptions to the spiritually intended path.

This Awareness suggests that just as there are such negative, cleansing corrective events, there are also positive, encouraging faith-building approach events, although far less newsworthy by modern standards, which have far more spiritual significance often shoved aside for more cynical or adrenaline-pumping headlines. While each action which brings each moment of joyous, loving, emotional feeling adds to the creation of positive purposeful human evolution, each moment of individual emotional pain and frustration contributes to the building pool of restless undirected energy which must express. Such energy often expresses in sudden unexpected and often disruptive events, that can be recognized as such symptoms and used to bring about the needed social changes. For the events in mass reality, the beliefs, the declared and legislated ways to think and act, along with the feelings they elicit, all mirror the patterns within the self. Indeed, mass reality is an entity created by each individual alive, each playing a responsible role to the mass feelings and corrective actions they beg.

The Domino Effect on Physical Reality

This Awareness suggests that the unfolding of mass reality can be likened to a game of dominoes. Wherein a vast and endless pattern of dominoes stands poised for each energy shift, some are left standing as unactualized probabilities while others fall, becoming physical events. Individual life courses fall like dominoes upon one another, intersecting in larger patterns witnessed by many and ultimately influenced by being witnessed by many. Each direction reality will take will be based upon the previous domino physical event which fell before. In this scenario, the individual freely designs the placement of the dominos by choosing a design of mind which best accomplishes the fulfillment of individual spirit and its expression in the world. As spiritual expressions are made in the world which succeed in removing limitations, the dominoes are purposefully and cooperatively placed, the dominoes fall in positive spiritually desirous events, and the cultural world evolves in the desirable directions. If they do not, and the Will Energy continued to be unconsciously or competitively misdirected, it will be expressed in more chaotic ways, and dominoes will fall with events that are fear and anger-inducing.

This Awareness indicates that now entities can begin to apply the rightful free will to aligning the individual dominoes and contributing to the placement of dominoes within their communities that can quite literally create the desirable outcomes, rather than bracing for fearsome effects or feeling powerless to control predicted and ominous scenarios. One individual whose dominoes fall in purposeful and enlightened directions can bring about dramatic changes in the course of the unfolding mass reality.

An Example of a Woman who Changed Mass-Consciousness

This Awareness suggests, for example, how the purposeful expressions of but one woman, have served to alter the mass consciousness of the American people. This woman experienced death of a child, a death caused by a drunken driver. The emotional pain of sadness over her loss and the anger over the injustice of such a violation moved this woman to act within all three purposes. Her spirit, not her mind alone, spoke of the injustice, which she chose not to accept as "something that must be because it always has been." She did not accept the injustice individually or en masse. She knew that the world should not tolerate such violations. She did not seek revenge upon the perpetrator, nor did she escape into inaction. She used the emotional anger toward her highest expressive purposes, assuming the overall goodness and connection between humans, and started an organization known as Mothers Against Drunk Driving, which would ultimately change the mass mind and the laws themselves regarding this type of violation. Without the strategic placement of this domino, there would still be one more accepted condition within the American community wherein humans could violate one another. Without expression, there is no change, without change existing limitations will remain, and chaos will result from human inaction.

Many Awareness Predictions Did Not Occur

This Awareness suggests that even subtle comments and gestures can also alter courses in equally dramatic ways, which interact with others. Humans are accomplishing far more positive change than they are yet credited by those who insist such early predictions shall occur at the passing of the millennium. Entities having followed the ebb and flow of the information offered from this Awareness, can readily see how over the years, many predictions based upon emerging probabilities interpreted at certain moments did not come to pass, and how many others did indeed emerge.

How to Eliminate the Concept of an Evil or Uncontrollable Force

This Awareness suggests the general positive thrust of the universe has been overlooked, and the many such purposeful expressions and liberating movement has not been acknowledged. This is primarily due to the lack of self-understanding and the misconceptions regarding the existence of an evil force. Once the peaceful coexistence between the free will and spiritual pre-destiny is understood, the misdirection of free will accounts for what has been previously thought to be evil or uncontrollable forces. Thus, the entire concept of prediction can now be more clearly understood.

This Awareness indicates that some patterns of domino events which were likely to occur prior to 1998 did indeed take the "unexpected" twists and turn of mass events falling prey to misdirected Will Energy as well as due to strategic actions which prevented many more negative outcomes. Chaos still has its hold, for in any individual mind where there are conflicting beliefs and directives there will be "unexpected" and perhaps undesirable, events. Likewise, in any community where there are conflicting beliefs and directives, there will be "unexpected" and perhaps undesirable events. Given the seething pool of such conflicts within the world and indeed within individual communities, until the seeds of enlightenment and empowerment take root, and humans think and act within the trinity of spiritual purpose, this will continue to be the case.

This Awareness suggests that through the Interpreter Grace, the focus has been on the broader emerging spiritual patterns, rather than the comings and going of mass consciousness, and that this approach will ultimately bring the most understanding. And eventually the state of mass-consciousness, wherein predictions can be made and events controlled by the unified energy and strategies of individuals and communities; such is the desired course for humanity, although the free will and efforts of humans themselves shall determine the pace of this course. Indeed, This Awareness is loathe to return to earlier limiting concepts about prediction which are based upon something less than spiritual validity.*

*Ed's note: this could explain why few, if any of the many predictions by Ralph Doby, David Worcester, and particularly, Paul Shockley, never occurred. On the other hand, who can deny that some of those dark and negative predictions about nuclear wars, secret governments planning the downfall of our country, the power of the "patriot" movement, the many "conspiracies," the alien presence, even the mass landings of UFOs, were not somehow altered or even prevented from occurring because those who believed those predictions were able to change mass-consciousness. It is my personal belief that in many cases this is so.

However, time has proven that most, if not all, of Paul's predictions in the last few years he was Interpreter for CAC, simply did not occur. To name a few, "the million man" march on Washington (less than 50 showed up); the vindication of the Freemen (they are all behind bars); encouraging our readers to invest $300 or more into the various "patriot" promotions that promised they would get millions in return (these guys also are all in federal prisons today), the Photon Belt misinformation, particularly the scary info on the days of darkness, and more recently the predicted landings of extraterrestrials.

In looking back at the works of these various past Interpreters, it appears that when they spoke on spiritual subjects, the information usually had the ring of truth and was of value to the reader. But when they were promoting something, involved in certain activities, and particularly getting information from certain entities or sources and believing the information, that this indeed did influence the readings and, unfortunately, considerably more of the Interpreter than Cosmic Awareness actually was coming through in many cases, and now obvious in retrospect.

As one of the original founders of CAC, I know it was not the intention of this organization to ask questions asking for predictions of any kind, let alone print them and mail them out. CAC was definitely founded as a spiritual organization and what we wanted to print and mail out was spiritual information that would help entities understand who, in fact, they really are, and as spiritual beings how to cope with existence on this plane and still be able to grow spiritually and accomplish their trip and Destiny Path they had set up for themselves.

We did not ask for all that negative information. It just came. And because it came, our readers demanded more information, sent in more questions for us to ask, and before long our organization was up to its ears in exposing all kinds of mischief going on, physically and cosmically. I personally did not like it, but I "bought" it and I did my best to spread the information in the belief that once mass-consciousness was duly informed of the threats that none of the negative predictions would occur. And because I accepted that responsibility, I have to believe that the information was effective, at least on some level, otherwise I would be setting around feeling I was really a gullible person, bilked by Cosmic Awareness for falling for all those negative predictions.

Fortunately, the Interpreter Ralph Doby, and particularly Paul Shockley, did produce much very valuable spiritual information in between the negative material, mainly because our readers sent in questions in that area and we asked the questions, both of us believing that the channeled material was overbalanced by negative material. It was a welcome relief and one of the results was the 144 Spiritual Development Lessons (It took us 10 years but we persisted!). Fortunately, we continued to ask questions in the spiritual area and as a result we have a backlog of over 100 readings we have yet to publish of Paul's because at that time the more urgent current affairs information took precedent. This backlog of readings also puts focus on health, reversing the aging process, relationships, ancient mysteries, Christianity and other religions, etc.

Grace, on the other hand, will not accept questions of a fear-based, conspiratorial nature and Awareness has explained why this present accent on the spiritual is so important at this time, that mass-consciousness must change if our species is to survive. We have some new information recently given on the mind, and how the mind of an Interpreter for Awareness operates, which explains how errors such as predictions that never occur happen to get delivered. Hopefully, CAC will publish those readings sometime this year. (Avaton)

This Awareness indicates that at the present level of understanding, prediction can be useful in allowing individuals to connect the dots and recognize how the individual and mass conflicts cause the unfolding of chaotic events based upon conflicting competitive purposes. For example, the general predictions for 1998 touched upon the overall spiritual patterns of the emerging enlightenment, with the negativities put in their proper perspective. Yet, at the level of mass consciousness, several unexpected twists and turns occurred.

The Clinton Scandal: What to Expect

This Awareness suggests that the overall trend toward a resolution of conflicting perspectives within the U.S. government continues to be played out upon the human stage, although some of the acts and players have changed. The saga of presidential impeachment exposes how this leadership role casts the public eye upon the need for clarity in such concepts of justice, freedom, privacy, and pursuit of happiness, all basic values of the US constitution, and all aligned with the purposes of spirit, yet the details are devoid of the understanding of the self-preservationary impulse. The details being the specific beliefs, values, laws and mores which create the conflicts in the mass mind and in its creative reality.

This Awareness indicates that the focus upon the American president as a human being as it relates to his role as a leader has indeed brought the public consciousness to a point of choice regarding where they stand. The overall emotional tone of the populace is to accept that humans have certain shortcomings (a precursor to understanding and accommodating the self-preservationary impulse), which do not necessarily affect other aspects of their expressions. Yet, those that claim to represent the voice of the populace, continue to play many divisive competitive games.

This Awareness suggests that acceptance and accommodation of the natural "shortcomings" of humans will be the ultimate, historical outcome of this mass event, the most dominant of 1998, although the non recognition of the task at hand might well create further disruptive events before this becomes apparent. For probabilities are still split between a course of removing President Clinton from office, or allowing a new beginning in consciousness and successful movement forward. The battle is still being fueled by many conflicting expressions and will be hard-won indeed. The most spiritually desirous outcome, and that which will most likely occur, is that of censure, rather than removal from office. This is most desirous because it admits that certain rigid judgments and restrictions placed upon human nature can never be effective if legislated. All social systems must accommodate all aspects of human nature or it will work against the system. This message has been offered over and over again throughout human history, and now it must be heeded. For the very same self-preservationary impulse, if misunderstood and devoid of the higher purpose can create a private sexual peccadillo or bring about public nuclear holocaust.

This Awareness suggests that although there were to be seven major headline-grabbing events, some were minimized due to the obsessive focus upon this saga, as well the lack of publicity actually altering the probable course. For example, a leader in public education became a national symbol for many spiritually desirous additions to educational systems through his public battle with leukemia. His spiritual expressions and personal demeanor, offered far more enlightened faith, hope and meaning than the event elicited publicly had not other, more prurient focuses, dominated the media coverage.

This Awareness suggests, however, that other patterns already indicative of a long-term collection of misdirected Will Energy and spiritual frustration were far more likely to come to pass. For example, the seismic activity in China occurred and such geophysical symptoms will continue to express themselves, as well as further social symptoms, as they reconcile themselves to the necessary freedom and power needs which are rightfully to be accommodated within all humans.

Much Volatility in Mass-Consciousness at This Time

This Awareness suggests that the universal energy patterns remain much the same as in the previous year, with the ongoing evolution of consciousness effecting individuals and their expressions altering the mass consciousness, but that within mass consciousness a great deal of volatility is in the air. These energies are fueled by the many conflicting ideas floating about which declare the coming of the next millennium to be a time of chaos, anarchy and even Armageddon. Each and every conflicting belief, prediction and expectation, energized with emotional energy will contribute to the ups and downs, the unexpected and the chaotic events, which will present themselves in symptomatic social, physical, economic and even climactic changes and vacillations---each symptomatic of spiritual frustration within mass reality.

No Supernatural Intervention is in Store for Mankind

This Awareness suggests that this misdirection of Will Energy will result in an amount of positive and negative events commensurate with the amount of positive and negative energy behind the belief and expectation. Misdirected Will Energy into limited thoughts and actions of a self-preservationary nature are the sole root of evil and negative events and lies within the power of humanity to reverse any undesirable trends. There is indeed much work to be done, but it will not be achieved through any sort of supernatural intervention---short of a spiritual cleansing itself, for such would negate the rightful power and will that the universe provides. Humanity is not so far off track as to warrant the cleansing, and the time is now to strategically place the dominoes in purposeful ways. It will only be through individuals chipping away at the cultural limitations through individual expressions that the cultural monster humans have created can become what it is spiritually destined to be.

Awareness Issues a Challenge to all Entities

This Awareness suggests that entities who feel the resonance with the enlightenment and empowerment of the new information are called upon to counteract as much of the negativity as possible during these volatile times, to be like those who have single-handedly altered the course of history. Through offers of envisioned outcomes of world peace, global need-meeting opportunities, stable fair allocation of resources, protection of the Earth, enlightenment with the missing self knowledge, and the faith in spiritual guidance, entities such as yourselves can tremendously influence and help stabilize the outcomes for 1999. Let there be no further misassumptions that any patterns are beyond human control. A simple, even random, gesture of kindness can move mountains, when falling upon other such actions.

This Awareness suggests that to the degree that entities throughout the world put forth that which resonates with joyous validation of spirit, the year shall bring events less catastrophic and bipolar than might otherwise occur. With these higher universal understandings in mind, patterns within mass consciousness can now be offered, addressing general and specific areas of concern.

Q. What is to become of the American President?

CA. This Awareness suggests that the current battle has been hard and long and that this leader will most likely emerge the victor. Yet, energies are still feeding the effort to remove him from office, and the man himself has yet to mine the experience for the wisdom it offers. He remains poised at a crossroads which will quite likely create a repeat of the offenses unless the mind is reborn. He will, however, retain his office.

Q. Are there any significant trends in US politics for 1999?

CA. There will be continued struggles with conflicting value judgments which will impede the necessary progress, but the general centrist course will continue. These struggles will usher a new focus of direction, a youthful yet vigorous party focus will stake a claim as the limited unsuccessful polar perspectives continue to negate each other's progress. The central concerns of the year will turn the eyes upon the foreign economy, as it experiences the recessive pangs of the global instability. The US will take a leadership role in offering recovery and assistance to those who suffer utterly defeating results of limitations that have reached peak levels, in Russian, Asian, European and Eastern communities.

Q. What about the global economy? Are the downturns to continue?

CA. There is a critical choice to be made and until it is made, there will be a continuation of the bleak negativity in many areas. Yet the strongest energy patterns suggest a probability of an offering of new strategy will bring resolution and long-term benefit. This accomplishment will facilitate the emerging global economy wherein certain universal standards will dramatically improve relationships and interactions.

Follow-up Q. Garner Ted Armstrong is saying the European nations now embracing the EU common money is the beginning of the greatest threat to US in that in a few years, the United Europe, led by Germany, will be the dominant power in the world and a direct threat to US. What does Awareness see in this area?

CA. This Awareness suggests that this concern exposes the misassumption that competition will remain the world strategy, when instead, this could more spiritually be cited as a trend toward the intended global cooperative. The mass consciousness of humanity learned from the World Wars that alliance and interdependence was the desirable course. Despite flair-ups and a neophyte state of consensual global policy, and lingering fears of a more sinister "New World Order," the strongest energies are those toward cooperation rather than domination and competition for the next millennium. These steps proceed in this direction and only if there were a powerful reversal of self-understanding would humanity revert to its former self-destructive and competitive course.

Follow-up Q. How about how the US economy will be effected? Will the Asian trend continue downward?

CA. The impact upon the US economy will be contingent upon the forces from two other major economies, the Russian and Asian, whose outcomes can yet be dramatically altered. The Asian energies are being fed quite positively, with a return to stability quite likely, but in the meantime the world will continue to be plagued by recessive pain and fluctuation. This international fluctuation will give the undeniable information that the economic success of each nation is dependent upon the successes of others and should forever remove the ideas of economic or other kinds of isolation. If this is not understood, there will be continuing negativity in the future. There will be a controlling US leader who will adeptly respond to the fluctuations to minimize the impact upon the US economy, but the long-term outcome will be negative if the approaches do not become cooperative.

Follow-up Q. What about Russia? There are reports that the country is controlled by a handful of newly rich billionaires, perhaps mobsters, while the Russian people starve.

CA. There are far more positive energies connected with this community than might be suspected. There is a spirituality among the populace that has arisen despite previous renunciation of organized religion, which contributes to a certain protection and collective pool of Will Energy that will bring them through these crises. Although there are those who are willing to exploit the dramatic transitions that this land has undergone, the faith of the people, in whatever form it takes, provides strength and resistance as they rebuild their very tenets of existence and take a new place in the world community. There are energies which, if they gain sufficient levels, can bring about a major clash, from which the rightful victors will emerge.

Q. What about the effect on the US stock market? World markets? Will gold and silver ever recover?

CA. The US stock market will feel the pain of correction and certain negative associations and dependencies will be exposed as global fluctuations occur. Overall, the global market trends are receiving an influx of positive energies which will help offset the inevitable ups and downs. The value of gold and silver will be related directly to the level of success of the emerging global economy, symbolizing the belief that consensus based upon agreement alone cannot work. As stability grows the values of gold and silver have already begun to stabilize at a rate lower than its value at past more volatile periods.

Q. Is a war in the Middle East inevitable as some seers say?

CA. A certain enlightenment will fall upon Israel which will signify the end to a long-term pattern of limitation and self-destruction. There will be a change in leadership signifying a new beginning, which will be experienced as short-term loss for some, but the beginning of a lasting stability for all. There will be much work to do following this change, and some uprisings, competitions and issues to resolve, but the new leader will be capable and these changes will be a positive spiritual step.

Follow-up Q. What about Iraq? Bosnia? North Korea? China? India?

CA. Saddam will remain an agitator as leader of Iraq, yet there will be successful diplomatic efforts which will restore a certain level of flexibility and choice for the citizenry aside from this leader. The patterns remain conflicting in application of such choice and could be abused in the misconception of isolation, but past mistakes can provide guidance to those formerly not empowered.

There will most likely be an end to certain conflicts in Bosnia, as certain enlightenment takes hold and energy is refocused in more productive directions.

There will be a sudden, negative economic event in North Korea, but leadership will take corrective steps which minimizes the potential impact.

China will experience movement and conflict from within regarding justice and human rights and suffer a series of events which will bring needed forward movement.

India will also suffer inner struggle upon reconciling past limiting beliefs and patterns which have allowed spiritual frustration to erupt in competitive arenas within varying cultural traditions. Such a trend will usher long-term harmony.

Q. How will the Y2K problem be effected in 1999?

CA. There will be a significant negative event that will expose many related, and as yet, hidden, areas where system correction must be affected. At present, there is a condition of complacency, self-deception and an ignorance which has allowed these deficits to go unnoticed to the degree that they can have a quite negative impact. There has also been a rejection of some needed information. This event will bring the situation to light and the overall pattern of resolution can continue, but there must be a rapid and valiant effort to remove these problems immediately following this event.

Q. Will there be severe weather patterns or the apocalyptic earth changes that have been predicted?

CA. There will be more movement and change than would be considered normal, due to the many swirling pools and eddies within mass-consciousness regarding the new millennium. There will also be some notable cosmic events reflecting some of the time honored origins stories of the major religious traditions, with a significant emergence of a star likened to that which heralded the coming of the Christ. This Awareness suggests entities can find faith and strength in such signs for there may also be as many as nine major physical influences upon the Earth resulting from the misdirected Will Energies.

Follow-up Q. What is the significance of the many eclipses due in 1999? Is it as negative as most say? How about the photon belt?

CA. Most significance placed upon such celestial events rests the human belief systems and time-keeping traditions, rather than deep spiritual significance. But the heavenly events do effect the human perception as the energies of enlightenment gather. Any strong emotional energy invested in belief structures which predict negative outcomes will indeed be actualized to some degree for their believers. There will be events ranging from intense negative hostility and upheaval to the welcome influx of economic resources depending upon the local belief attached to the eclipse phenomenon.

The universe and human concepts of it, acts as a mirror for current levels of human self-understanding. The mysteries of the cosmos, are symbolic of the basic spiritual mysteries that have escaped humanity's notice. As inner understandings are attained, all science will take on a corresponding reflection of current levels of self-understanding within mass consciousness. Phenomena such as the photon belt are symbolic to the human species as the course of enlightenment and how energies associated with such landmarks of civilization as the turning of a millennium can gather misdirected Will Energy and place it in positive spiritually desirous outcomes.

Follow-up Q. Will El Nino return?

CA. There is a rebalancing of Earth energies which will bring an opposite trend known as La Nina, which is symbolic of rising "feminine energies" related to the enlightenment movement, which can counter balance some of the more negative energies. This will be experienced predominantly as hurricanes and floods as well as certain temporary reversal of temperature patterns, all the lesser of perhaps more painful probabilities.

Follow-up Q. What about the hole in the ozone layer which is increasing?

CA. This problem, as an early symptom of a possible cleansing, must be taken in hand, for it could potentially bring demise to the species. Solutions will come with the enlightenment. There will emerge an entity who takes a world leadership role in this problem, but who may not receive the recognition or support as soon as would be ideal.

Q. Earth changes? Is it true that Mount Rainier is the most dangerous mountain in North America?

CA. Most notable earth changes will relate to water and climate, with the enlightened energies buffering against some former, more negative, trends. Mount Rainier is effected by the consciousness of the local community and is most receptive to the enlightened energies offered globally at this time, but has the potential to also prove itself an outlet for spiritual frustration should the enlightenment be stymied sufficiently.

Q. Many predict 1999 will see extraterrestrials. What does Awareness see in this area?

CA. The energies of enlightenment have the potential to bring about necessary understanding and the liberation from limiting perspectives regarding extraterrestrials, yet the limiting beliefs surrounding most entities will prevent such progress in the near future. For each spiritual joyous moment of wondering about other life forms, and each fearful moment of enslavement by more powerful species, contributes the exact opposite energy, and positive movement is negated. Such are examples of the many such limitations and conflicting energies surrounding this area of exploration. When the mind is in a much more liberated state, certain contact with what is now considered to be such alternate life forms will be far more likely. The greatest probability of such contact will be the result of inner spiritual journeys through time/space rather than physical visitations occurring before humanity is "ready".

Does Awareness have a closing Message?

CA. This Awareness indicates that entities can now become active, powerful, participants in the necessary cultural evolution, the purposeful, willful, human-directed cleansing of mass consciousness that will ensure the spiritual cleansing need not be feared. The dawn of the new millennium brings the light of spiritual reconnection which shall forever protect humanity from the apocalyptic prophecies which could have been actualized. The rapture, instead, shall be wrought, but by humans, as the self-understanding, long missing from religious traditions, takes its rightful place. The beacon within, the voice of spirit, shall lead each human through inner feeling signals to restore humanity upon its intended path. May each entity study The Lessons and embrace the self and unify the trinity of purpose. And may each enlightened entity go forth into the world each day of 1999 and purposefully place one domino, to ensure the spiritual path shall fall before humanity.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.
