

Revelations

The Cosmic Newsletter

E-MAIL: CosmicComm@aol.com

INTERNET DOMAIN: CosmicAwareness.org

FAX: 360-352-6294

Awareness

COSMIC AWARENESS COMMUNICATIONS

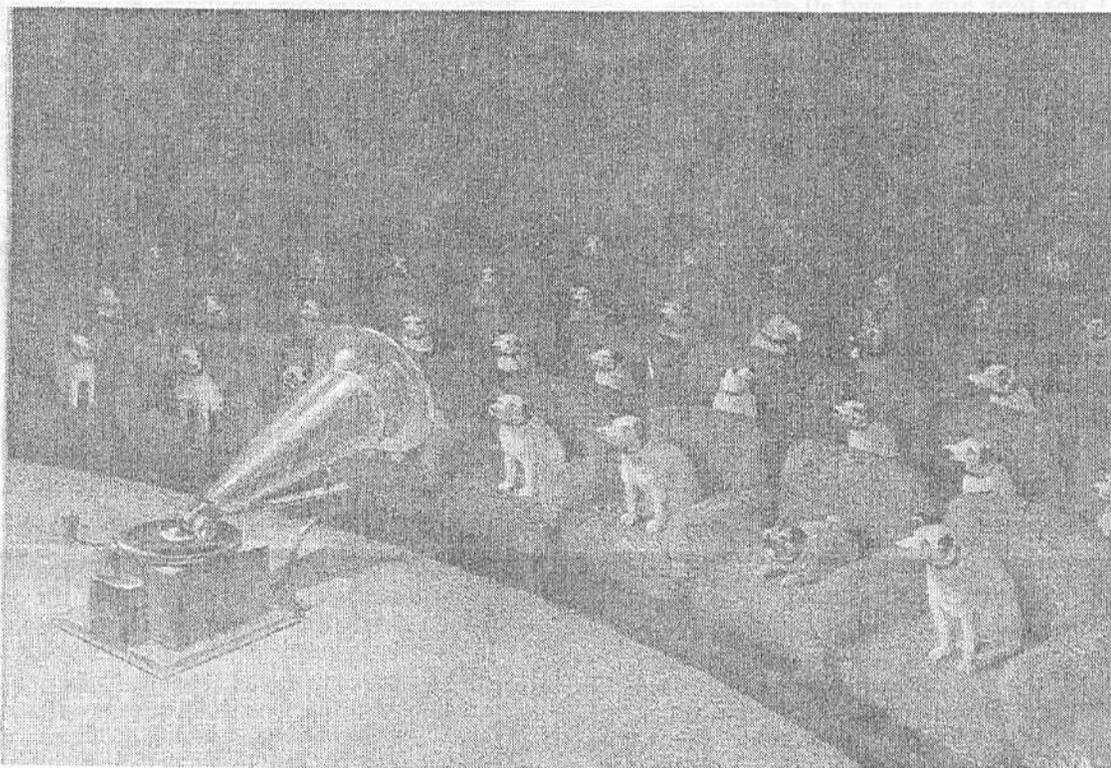

P.O. Box 115, Olympia, Washington 98507

Helping People Become Aware

Celebrating our 29th Year!

2000-5
Issue No. 527

$3.00

The Cosmic Reason Behind the Ilian Gonzalez Saga

--- Masters and God-Realized Gurus
(How can you know for sure?)

--- The Religious Conspiracy that has controlled the Earth Consciousness

The Wisdom of Awareness... On Changing Consciousness...
The road is to be a spiritual leader, a person who leads to a higher level of consciousness, and a person who is not afraid to stand up for his or her beliefs, and to speak the truth.
You can do this by many ways, and the most important is to be a person who is not afraid to stand up for his or her beliefs, and to speak the truth.

INDEX IS ON PAGE 11

Excerpt from CAC Gen. Reading, April 26, 2000. Grace Interpreter

THE SEIZING OF ELIAN GONZALEZ

(Is He A Prophesied Baby Saint Who Will Bring Blessings?)

QUESTION:

There's a lot been going on with this little Cuban boy named Elian Gonzalez, who, 5 months ago was put on this flimsy little craft with his mother to seek asylum in the United States from Cuba and the boat sank and his mother drowned, and Elian was on a little board or something and he said later that dolphin protected him and kept pushing him back up when he would slide into the water, thus saving him from drowning.

Anyway, he reached the United States and some relatives in Cuba took him in, and all of this time, Castro and Cuba made a political issue of this thing, demanding that the little boy be returned to his father. Most people felt the little boy should return to his father, but like the Statue of Liberty says, "It welcomes the tempest tossed and homeless yearning to breathe free..." that sort of thing, and some feel he deserves to stay here. It became a real political issue.

The other day it was resolved more or less by Janet Reno, sending armed storm troopers into the home of the relative, pointing rifles and confiscated a terrified Elian and rushed him to Washington DC, for a reunion with his father. The magazines have him on the covers and to the observant, they will notice that Elian's hair had been trimmed when they took him, and the picture of him sitting smiling in his father's arms showed hair about an inch longer, so obviously, the government had already prepared phony pictures to show that this was a happy situation. But most people do feel the little boy should be returned to his father. My feeling is that he has earned his American citizenship and should be returned to his father and if years later he wishes to return from Cuba, he should be allowed to do so.

Anyway, one thing that was not publicized, which I want to read a little of here to Awareness, is rather strange. In a column written by Norman Lockman, he writes: "Of all the circumstances surrounding Elian, perhaps the least understood is the religious significance placed on the shipwrecked boy by both Cuban exiles in Florida and Cubans at home.

The Babalawos of Miami and Cuba have different takes. The Babalawos are priests, representing various rites of Santeria, the Afro-Cuban religion that liberally mixes Catholic beliefs with the occult. According to this writer, there is a Santero oracle that prophesies a child who conquers death in the year 2000 and who possesses powers against sickness and death. One Santeria rite claims that child saviors always arrive by sea. That makes Elian part of a theological dispute as well as political conflict.

Some practitioners of Santeria in Miami believe that Elian is symbolic of the child-god Eleggua, who opens or shuts the door to success. They believe that Elian's miraculous appearance off the coast of Florida on the day after Thanksgiving, is a sign that Fidel Castro has lost the favor of Eleggua and will fall."

The Cuban practitioners dispute this but concede that Elian may have the power to bring well-being to wherever he is, and therefore belongs in Cuba, which is in considerable need of good vibes."

It's a rather long article, but it also claims "This religious undercurrent is very much at play among the street demonstrators in both Miami and Cuba. To these believers on both sides of the strait, Elian is not merely a little boy caught in an international political dispute, but a religious symbol of great significance to their future. Underlying the political wrangle is a barely submerged belief that Elian is a kind of baby saint who will bring prophesied blessings to those who possess him physically.

Among believers and practitioners of Yoruba culture, that is powerful magic. It explains the potency of feeling in Miami and Cuba, where Santeria priests are important enough to give equal time with high government officials."

Does Awareness have any comment on that situation?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that both the political significance; the struggles and the implications, as well as the religious symbolic implications are both bound together in the energy itself, which like all mass events, is designed to enlighten and move forward the global consciousness of humanity. This Awareness suggests that the pertinent symbolic issues regard cooperative global unity, the strategy of Communism versus the strategy of Capitalism, which essentially is the same struggle between two partial truths which need to unite in a centrist situation, where the freedom which makes America great, and the connection, which makes the ancient communities who have a more modern alliance with what is known as Communism, unite in a global structure where each individual is freely accessible to equitable economic opportunities where governmental focus is upon providing educational and economic opportunities to ensure the cooperative, collective global unity without disenfranchised under-classes, isolated nations, cultures or religions.

This Awareness suggests that indeed, the entity Elian plays a role in a group effort to enlighten humanity by forcing the consciousness to focus on specific issues. In addition to those mentioned of the political nature, the religious undertone is also symbolic of the questions regarding the multidimensional nature of the human self and where body stops, mind starts and spirit unites.

This Awareness suggests that the information now penetrating into mass-consciousness contained in the Lessons of Enlightenment, which provides the conscious understandings for individual self-unification, shall usher the mass self-unification concepts which shall unite divergent religious positions, divergent political positions, so that humanity can get on with the business of creative evolution.

This Awareness suggests that the mystical and magical properties of the voyage of Elian, the participation of other species, the protective dolphins ensuring his successful passage, are symbolic of the unity within nature and entities of the human persuasion should readily recognize their own capacity for empathic understanding, cooperation and honoring one another, if the lowly dolphin can empathize, experience connection and emotionally desire success for a human being.

This Awareness suggests that these basic principles instructed by the human emotional system shall be those that unite the political, the religious, the scientific and all cultural factions who mistakenly perceive differences between and within human beings, rather than the cooperative unifying similarities and universal dynamics underlying all human activity, driving all human creativity and inspiring all evolution.

If we have completion we can continue

The Wisdom of Awareness: -- On Changing Consciousness—
The road is long and difficult for the entity who seeks to change the direction of consciousness; yet it is that which has been trod many times by many entities, alone or with friends, and the direction of consciousness has been changed, often by the voice of one individual crying in the wilderness. (Issue 78-39)

MASTERS AND GOD-REALIZED GURUS (How Can You Tell For Sure He's What He Claims?)

QUESTION:

A question from Mark Perk, Chicago, Ill. Awareness has gone into this several times previously, but there might be some new information on this. He writes: "Dear Awareness, I have been a student of spirituality and metaphysics for most of my teenage and adult life. Just recently, I have begun exploring Eastern spirituality, namely from India.

"I've been going to the Sri Chinmoy Center here in Chicago for meditational and spiritual studies. All teachings are free, and all stress love, bliss and light. Sri Chinmoy's disciples say he is a master of the highest order, same as Jesus, Buddha, Krishna, et cetera. I have no reason to disbelieve them, yet I know that there are false masters around.

"Part of the meditation is concentrating on the third eye of the master in photos and allowing the master's consciousness to enter the mind via "initiation." My question is basically this: "How can I, as an aspiring student of the Eastern path, know who is and who is not a fully "God-realized master"? What criteria do I use to determine who is a "greater or lesser" realized master?"

"I know that it is difficult to discuss or even to grasp such things in the finite mind, yet there must be some way, either in the inner or outer realities to determine the level of a master. Unfortunately, I don't know what it is. Thank you."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is healthy that you have asked this question. It is healthy that you question the nature or definition of a master. This Awareness indicates in the first place, it is also important to consider why you need a master, whether or not it is the master or the information that is most important.

The Purpose of a Master is to Impart Information

This Awareness indicates it appears that the purpose of a master is to impart information, and if that is the purpose of the master, then it would seem the information is the important factor in the relationship. This Awareness indicates therefore, It would suggest that your search for truth is of greater importance than your selection of a master

This Awareness indicates essentially, most masters, or so-called teachers teach much the same thing, but many of them seek followers or seek loyalties or seek devotion from their students, and to a point, under some circumstances, some of this is tolerable. It is likened unto the basketball coach who says, "I will teach you to play basketball well, but you have to do everything I tell you and you have to obey me implicitly, completely, and without any reservation. Complete dedication to me will allow me to teach you better and with greater effectiveness."

Keep in Mind That Loyalty is Akin to Bondage With Masters

This Awareness indicates that to a point, a master should ask, or may ask for a certain amount of commitment and perhaps even some devotion, but when the important factor to the master is your devotion, keep in mind that loyalty is akin to bondage.

This Awareness indicates that when you give yourself to someone else's keeping, you may be giving up something far more precious than the information you seek from that teacher or master, or entity who claims your devotion.

This Awareness indicates that the greatest teacher is that divinity within yourself that yearns for the Divine, that yearns to be at one with God, and if you follow that yearning, it will generally lead you from one master to another, from one guru to another, from one teacher to another, each giving you something you need, and you will not find it necessary to be devoted or to worship a particular individual master for any great length of time.

It will be more as though you are studying to learn everything you can from this entity, and when you have learned almost all that is meaningful from the entity, you are ready to move on and to study something else from the next entity. This Awareness indicates that in this way, you never are trapped by some cult leader who seeks to have devotees, who seeks to be worshiped, who seeks to have followers.

You are always free, because you know in advance you are not going to give your soul to this entity. This Awareness indicates that your soul belongs to yourself and you may share it, you may give it to the Divine, but you do not give it to the Divine messenger, the messenger of the Divine.

This Awareness indicates there are many entities who can say, "I am God-realized. I am next to God. I am the reflection of God in the flesh!" There are many entities who say this. It is not proper or appropriate for an entity to give his soul to such an entity. He is a messenger, a Messiah of God, for the soul can only be given properly to the keeping of God, the highest Divinity in the Creation, and in giving your soul to the highest, it becomes improper to give it to a messenger who claims to have a unity with God.

In this manner, you find your own energy with God, not with a priest, not with a messenger of God, not with a God-realized individual, but with God. Giving over your soul to God is the Highest and Best action. This Awareness indicates you don't need a master to do this. A master can only teach you information that can be of benefit in your understanding of yourself and the Divine spiritual path on which you travel.

This Awareness indicates a God-realized entity is one who indeed places himself or herself in the keeping of God, who identifies and goes into the vibration of the Divine, and with that identification with the Divine, learns to give messages, to share information with others who have not yet reached a oneness with God.

You Have No Right to Collect Followers

When you reach the oneness with God, it will be your task, your duty, your pleasure, to share with others what you have learned, but it is not your right, nor your privilege to collect followers, to get entities to worship you simply because you have merged with the vibration of God.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, no master should be worshiped. Let them be considered as master teachers, master gurus, but not worthy of worship in the sense of being a God. This Awareness indicates therefore, it does not matter whether you follow a real prophet or a false prophet. All you want to do in reality is find out what they teach, what they have to say, and determine for yourself if this carries truth or if it appears to be more of an entrapment of your soul, of your freedom, gathering your devotion at the expense of some bit of wisdom they may give you.

Gather the wisdom they offer, so long as it does not fit into a plot to entrap your soul. This Awareness indicates that you may listen and learn from what they have to say, but when they begin telling you: "You must be obedient! You must follow me! You must forsake all others and come with me," this begins to turn the relationship into that of master/servant. It turns the relationship into that of a devotee, where you are trying to reach heaven by giving yourself to an intermediary between yourself and God.

Skip the Intermediary Between You and God

This Awareness suggests, however, that you give yourself totally to God and skip the mediators, the intermediary beings. Skip the medium, the person who stands between yourself and God. This Awareness indicates in other words, gather information, but make your peace with God, not with His or Her messenger.

When a Guru Says You Can't Get to Heaven Without Him

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

From what I've read about some of these gurus, Eastern gurus particularly, the information they put out isn't the main attraction to entities, but what mainly attracts at least certain entities to these people, is the implied or stated implication that a person after death can never be united with God unless he follows a particular guru and allows the guru to take him.

In other words, if any of these gurus imply such a thing, is this a rule a person should be wary about?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are various paths in yoga, and these different paths have different methods of leading entities towards spiritual enlightenment. This Awareness has advocated Gnani Yoga, which is the Yoga of Knowing, as being that which enlightens an entity so that the entity can become one with the Divine.

This Awareness indicates there are other forms of yoga which this Awareness has discussed previously. The type of yoga this entity questions about, wherein an entity attaches oneself to a master who claims to have a particular passageway to the Divine Source; this particular type of yoga is called Bhakti Yoga, or the Yoga of Devotion. For some entities, this is the most they are capable of. They cannot, they have not developed or evolved high enough to improve their spiritual status through the other forms of yoga such as Gnani Yoga, the Yoga of Knowing nor have they developed themselves enough to rise spiritually through Raja Yoga, which has to do with the realization of one's own Divinity.

Bhakti Yoga is Risky and Not Recommended

This Awareness indicates therefore, what they are left with is the Yoga of Devotion. Therefore, they give themselves over to another's keeping, and trust that other to lead them properly to a higher benefit spiritually. Many times these entities are misled. They are led by false prophets. Therefore, Bhakti Yoga is risky and therefore, this Awareness does not advocate Bhakti Yoga for those who wish to be aware.

Why Cosmic Awareness Does Not Want Servants

The very term "This Awareness" is such that It intends to impart Awareness to those who hear these messages. It does not ask entities to be devoted to this Awareness as once was advocated in that organizations known as Servants Of Awareness.

It was for this reason that this Awareness made it clear It does not want servants, It does not want devotees; It simply wants entities to become aware, and in becoming aware, you develop your own knowingness. You know, from your own inner awareness what it is that is necessary for your growth and fruition spiritually.

This Awareness indicates that by becoming aware, it does not mean you must fear or shun or hide from those teachers who advocate devotion to themselves, but more that you should look at them, watch them, learn from them, study their techniques, study how they gather their power over their followers. It is something that is not commonly done.

Most Masters Want to Trap Students as Followers

Most of these "masters" do not seek to free the student from them, but seek to trap the student as followers. This Awareness indicates that most of them seek devotion. If they do seek devotion from their followers, then you can look at them with your own inner awareness to discover what it is they need from their students, from their following, and ask yourself: "Is this really a God-realized entity? Why do they need followers?"

"Cannot they simply give information to help others to discover their own divinity? Why do they want my devotion to them?" This Awareness indicates that these are questions that entities may ask about the so-called "master." In some cases they will find that the master is not seeking devotion; that others are imparting statements that would imply the entity is to be worshiped, but the entity himself or herself may not ever say this and may even renounce such statements from others who try to influence the followers into being devoted.

This Awareness indicates that if the entity is a true master, in the sense of a Divine Teacher, the entity's only purpose will be to give those who seek whatever information is available to help them improve their spiritual and personal lives. But if the entity gives information in such a way that requires devotion from the listener, it should be viewed with suspicion.

Divine Information is Free: Getting it to You is Costly

This Awareness indicates that many times, the teacher will argue that a true master never charges for information and sometimes these entities will argue that Divine Information is free. This Awareness indicates that it may be true that Divine Information is free, but there is always a cost in imparting that free information to others, and it is sometimes quite expensive to impart Divine Information to thousands of people or hundreds of people.

Either the people must come and be present, which could cost them travel fees and hotel fees, or the people must use commercial courier services such as mail, and if the messages are to be imparted on some kind of carrier between the master and the person, there is usually a cost involved in either cassette tapes, spoken words, fliers that carry the messages or written words that carry the messages, and therefore, there is a cost involved that someone has to pay.

The cost is of course expensive to someone, and therefore, there may be a charge involved. This Awareness indicates that not only is there a cost in distributing information, there is a cost in gathering information. The information from the master must be presented in a way that allows the message to be clear.

You cannot have the master living in poverty on a street corner and still reach large numbers of people. Though there may be masters living on a street corner with very few people recognizing them, they are not effective in the message-bearing. This Awareness indicates therefore, the argument that masters give their information freely is not really apropos in all cases.

Most situations where there are large organizations, large donations from individuals backing an organization which in turn back the messenger or master, the master's expenses are paid for by the organization and by donations from large numbers of people or of large amounts from a few people, and these masters then do not have to ask for donations, do not have to ask for support.

Thus, they may appear not to be seeking monetary benefits for the messages they give. This Awareness indicates nevertheless, there is something paying for, and someone behind the payments for their being able to give their messages to the masses. It is a matter of whether the payments are out in the open or whether they are hidden so that the masses do not see the entity collecting money to pay for his efforts in distributing the messages.

This Awareness indicates that it is a matter of common ordinary practicality that these entities must have some kind of help and support in order to function as a master, but if you were to ask some of these masters they would say that you can only tell a master because he never charges for his information and he never needs anything from anyone.

This Awareness indicates that such teachers always have an organization behind them which pays for everything. This Awareness indicates watch the master who seeks devotion. Watch the master who claims he does not need anything from anyone, for in such a case, it is very likely that such a master making such a claim has a large organization backing him or her, and the organization is collecting money from followers, from wealthy supporters, or from any who give to that organization, who support that master.

This Awareness indicates that very likely it is a very lucrative business operation if the master has advertisement and a large network of staff members, people who help build the organization, and if the master has a place, or numerous places to operate from, particularly when these masters find very luxurious podiums or places from which to give their messages. After all, these hotels cost large amounts of money. To rent a room, to rent a studio, to rent a hall for these messages is expensive.

The master cannot simply wave his hand and have such a place appear. There is an expense involved, and the entity must have ways of bringing in money to pay for those expenses. Therefore, this Awareness suggests that you question whether indeed these masters are operating without support as they might imply, or if the support they receive is simply hidden.

This Awareness indicates that there is nothing wrong with the entity asking for support from the people who come, or from wealthy donors who are devoted to them, or to their program. This Awareness suggests, however, that you not be fooled by some of these implications in their claims that they are above the need for monetary health or material needs.

Listen to the Master's Message and Then Decide

This Awareness indicates that beyond these two things, this Awareness suggests also that you listen to the message, determine whether the message divides entities or unifies entities, whether the message promotes spiritual enhancement, or creates an army of followers to protect the master as occurs with many of the cults.

This Awareness indicates that when a so-called "master" or "teacher" begins to turn his or her followers into armies of soldiers to protect their group, it is usually intended as a shield of people to protect their master or the one who controls the master. This Awareness indicates that when this begins to occur with any organization, it is a sign of spiritual decay, and the organization should be questioned. The master should be questioned. The whole affair becomes questionable. It is time for entities to get out of the organization.

When Paranoia and Spiritual Decay Sets In Abandon the Cult

This Awareness indicates that this is what often occurs with cults, whereby the teacher at first gives good information. The teacher may even be quite sincere, but the teacher may have some kind of human weakness that does not fit with the true spiritual master's image, and the teacher may then begin to find cracks or problems in his or her organization, and may begin rallying protective troops or a protective shield of people around him or her, so that as these entities come together, they spend much of their time finding how they can defend themselves from those external attackers, the external forces that might move against them, and when this happens, the spiritual organization begins to suffer, and the material organization begins to gain greater attention, and the spiritual message becomes less important and the group survival becomes more important and the spiritual decay sets in, while the physical paranoia and need for protection increases and grows.

This Awareness indicates that this would be a sign of times when entities should get out quickly, even if they feel a devotion to the master. This Awareness indicates loyalty and bondage are two signs of the same coin. There is very little difference. The only real difference is that bondage generally implies one wants out of the relationship, and the loyalty generally implies one is willingly devoted to continuing the relationship. In either case, the entity is not free to leave.

Loyalty is a psychological bonding, and bondage is often based on fear of punishment or fear of reprisal if one attempts to leave.

Fear and Desire Lead to Bondage

This Awareness indicates there are two factors that lead to devotion or bondage. One of these is desire. The other is fear. Entities may have both desire and fear as motivators to cause them to remain attached through bondage or through loyalty. Normally, loyalty is based on a desire to be near the other person or to be helpful to the other person, because the entity expects something in return. Perhaps promises are made which make an entity loyal, as a loyal follower who expects something in return for all of his or her devotion and loyalty.

Bondage may also be part of the scenario, whereby the entity is afraid to leave for fear of something stopping him or her, for fear of threat or reprisal if he or she tries to leave, for fear of some kind of punishment or denial of benefits, if he or she attempts to leave. The majority of people are controlled by fear. Fear of being harmed. Therefore they are easily manipulated into bondage from loyalty.

In Some Organizations There are Death Threats

They may enter into a relationship and become loyal and then have it shifted into bondage by the mere threat that if they break off the relationship, there will be hell to pay, or there may even be death threats, and this does occur in not only those minor cults and small groups and organizations that are often seen as fringe-type cults; it also occurs in larger religious organizations wherein an entity might want to break off from the organization but find that in attempting to do so, he or she is threatened with bodily harm, if they do not come back and toe the line.

This Awareness indicates that this of course is not so in all churches, but there are some, and in some of the churches you would not expect, particularly wherein the person wanting to leave knows too much about some activity within that church or group or organization, and could cause great harm in telling what he or she knows about that group. There are those groups that threaten members who seek to leave.

This Awareness indicates It is telling you this so that you not let yourself get too involved in the inner workings of an organization without realizing and discovering whether that organization is truly based on an idealistic philosophy or if it is simply a tool for raising money and power, for many of these organizations begin with ideals, but deteriorate into organizations that seek power, money, and control.

This Awareness could name names of such organizations, but to do so would tend to risk lawsuits and legal repercussions that would be costly, or require proof and these things would simply cause trouble. It is not important to this Awareness to play policeman of the metaphysical world, busting this or that organization. It is important, however, to warn entities to be very careful about getting involved in deep levels of organizations unless you really understand what you are getting into.

This Awareness indicates that most entities, getting into the learning aspects, wherein you get lessons, learn things, get certain information; these kind of involvements are not so dangerous, even in those organizations that may have hidden agendas or purposes. You can usually get out without too much trouble, but those organizations wherein you work your way into the inner workings, the esoteric levels, are those wherein you may find yourself involved in something far deeper than you understood when you entered.

If, for example, you enter an organization and find them wanting to promote you to something that gives you great benefit or great advantage in the organization, you must be very cautious. They may not be giving you this without expecting some kind of repayment down the line. This Awareness indicates that when you are given too much reward for something that requires little of you, you may find yourself indebted to the organization and you may find at some later time that not only are you indebted, but that you must perform for them in a way that is not to your liking in order to repay them for that which you received.

Many Organizations are Like "Hotel California"

This Awareness indicates this is where problems generally occur. This Awareness indicates therefore, It suggests that you may study information from any organization of your interest, but be careful about getting involved with the entities who run the organization, especially if they seek to have you participate in the running of the organization unless you are truly familiar with these entities and know them to be trustworthy.

This Awareness indicates there are some of these organizations that are much like the Hotel California, in the song, wherein you may enter any time, but you never can leave, particularly if you go beyond the lobby.

SEXUAL CONTACT BETWEEN A GURU AND HIS FOLLOWERS

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Some years back, a CAC member in Europe, was very disturbed that his guru or master who preached celibacy among other things, was reportedly using his position to engage in homosexual activities with some of his followers. This was a world-famous guru with many thousands of followers, world-wide. In a question to Awareness, the entity wanted Awareness to deny or confirm the reports. I don't recall the response Awareness gave, but I'm sure It didn't point fingers.

My question is: Well, this man evidently couldn't find anything wrong with the message of the guru, but the fact that there were reports of this sexual activity seemed to sow the seeds of doubt in his mind, was basically what the problem was, and my question is: Is sexual contact between a guru and followers an appropriate point in evaluating the message of the guru?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this would be a factor in evaluating the guru in relation to the organization, or in relation to the followers. The message itself cannot be evaluated by determining the entity's sexual behavior. The message may stand as monumental, but the behavior may not be appropriate.

This Awareness indicates that the message and the messenger need to be separated. However, if the message argues against such behavior, then of course, it indicates misrepresentation on the part of the guru, showing him to be fraudulent of his advocacy of a particular lifestyle, while he himself indulging in that lifestyle.

This Awareness indicates that the entity determining that the guru has a lifestyle that is not to the entity's liking, has nothing to do with the guru's message, if the message does not address the lifestyle, and the follower may decide against following the entity's message or may decide against following the entity or against accepting the entity's message simply because he does not like the entity or his lifestyle, but these things are not necessarily related.

It is likened unto saying, "The man who drilled my well picked his nose all day. This man is not a good well-driller." The well-driller might be an expert, but you don't like the things he does, and therefore you don't like him, and you leap further than is appropriate to proclaim he does not know how to drill wells.

This Awareness indicates that it is much the same. However, if the well-driller tells you that you can't drill a well and pick your nose at the same time, then of course, you have something that links the two together, and shows the man to misrepresent information to you, and you can assume he is fraudulent from his statements and his behavior.

Why Do So Many Teachings Criticize Those Who See Themselves Equal to God?

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. She says: "I have been reading various things lately which consider the "sin" of man to equate himself with "God." Other things say that recognizing your own divinity is the highest realization. I am not confusing this with the issue of equating ego with deity. Why do so many teachings criticize man's seeing himself as equal if not identical to God? Please discuss this issue."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates It has discussed this numerous times, but it appears to be a concept that is not really easily understood. The only way man can identify himself with God in honesty is to give up himself and surrender himself totally to God. When this is done, then the consciousness that is in mankind merges with the consciousness of God.

This Awareness indicates, however, you cannot, as mankind, or womankind, equate yourself with the Divine Consciousness. You cannot, for example, jump into the body and say: "I, by my personal name, am equal to the Divine Consciousness of this universe!" because it simply isn't so. It is likened unto a DNA cell in your big toe trying to proclaim itself as equal to you.

It may have some coded symbolism that could be brought into a state of duplication through a cloning process to create another you, but it is, in its own sense as it is, simply a piece of DNA in your body, and for it to proclaim itself equal to you would be false.

This Awareness indicates that if, however, it surrendered itself totally to you and gave itself to you in its consciousness, it became one with you, giving up its self, then it becomes one with you in consciousness, but as soon as the self returns to it, it divorces itself from you and is again simply a part of the many aspects of God, of you.

This Awareness indicates that you, giving up self to God, become one with God in consciousness, but when you reassert yourself to say, "I am equal to God!" you have taken on a self, separate from the God you were equal to when you surrendered yourself to God. Therefore, your statement, "I am equal to God!" becomes false.

You Can Only Become One With God When There is No "I"

You can only be one with God when there is no "I," no "me," no "self" to proclaim your equality, when there is only the surrender of self, the surrender of "I," the surrender of "me." When that occurs, then your consciousness merges with the Divine, and there is no "me," there is no self to proclaim that oneness. There is simply a realization, a God-realization, and you can come back to self and say, "I experienced God-realization for a moment. There was the moment of experiential witnessing."

But to say "I am equal to God" cannot be correct or true, for there is no self when you merge totally with God-Consciousness.

When Jesus Said: "I and the Father are One"

This Awareness indicates when Jesus spoke as the Christ, not as the Son of man, and said: "I and the Father are one," the entity was speaking as the Christ, or as that consciousness that was identified with God which was one with God. It was that consciousness that was speaking, not the man Jesus.

It would have been more accurate for the entity to say "This consciousness and the Father are One!" for indeed there was no "I," or self-identity involved in the union.

This Awareness indicates that the concept of the yoke, or yoga, as that which hooks two things together, the yoke, yoking cattle together, or the oxen of old, and the concept of yoga, which means hooking things together as one, is that which plays an important part in this concept being discussed, for the consciousness of an entity, when yoked together with the consciousness of God is that which is termed the Christ Consciousness, wherein the Christed Consciousness of the individual brings it into oneness with the Divine so that it can truly say it is One with the Divine, but it cannot speak for the person.

The Christ Consciousness is Defined

It can only speak for the Christ Consciousness as being One with God. It can only speak for the yoked consciousness. To put it in a different way, it can only speak for the unified consciousness, wherein the entity's consciousness is unified with God Consciousness and that unification of these two consciousnesses together is that which is generally referred to as the Christed or Christ Consciousness. It is the christening of the consciousness of the individual with God's Consciousness.

VISIT THE TEMPLE OF LIGHT IN YOUR DAILY MEDITATIONS

Deposit your energy in this cosmic Bank. Withdraw it when needed for healing or personal use. Keep in touch with CAC when you start getting results!

Can the "God-Cell" be Cloned or Expanded?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness has indicated previously that with all entities, each entity is a cell in the body of this Awareness, and It indicated through the channel of Ralph Duby some years back in a meditation to be used, that entities in their meditation can contact this God Cell within. My question is, in this blossoming age of genetic engineering and so forth, where the scientists are able to identify cells and DNA in entities, does It foresee a time when this God Cell can be isolated and perhaps cloned in an entity to expand this God Awareness capability in humans?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it would not be possible to clone the God Cell in the sense of taking that cell and manipulating it genetically, for to attempt to capture that God Cell would probably destroy the individual housing the God Cell. This Awareness indicates, however, there is that substance which is the Life Force in the universe and within the human body that is called the chondrianas, which is a crystal form, and it is life itself, and it permeates all things within the human body and all things containing life, and that chondrianas is that which is known, has been found, and can be enhanced, can be duplicated by certain methods that allow it to reproduce itself.

It is not that man can reproduce it, but that it can reproduce itself, given the right environment, and this can enhance the spiritual and life energies of entities. This Awareness indicates that more can be expressed on this in later readings.

A Technique to Remain Clear and Conscious (How Can Strongbow Spread the News to Others?)

QUESTION:

A question from Jon Strongbow, in Seattle." Awareness has stressed the importance of oxygenating the system. I have found through movement therapy classes that by remembering consciously to breathe, while grounding oneself by dropping one's consciousness into one's legs or slightly bending them at the knee, that one's ability to remain clear and conscious is heightened considerably.

"No one ever taught us simple things like breathing in school, in fact, deadening our perceptions and filling our minds with meaningless data was the general practice of the day, so that as children we became numb inside, perhaps simply from the lack of oxygen hitting the brain. Is there any truth to this notion, as I suspect there is, and what can be done to get people more conscious of this today, especially young people?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that you are correct. That the combination of oxygen and blood-sugar help to enhance the mental capacities. It also increases the ability of physical activities, giving strength to both mental and physical needs. This Awareness indicates that the only way to educate people about these things is to find a way to educate them, to inform them.

This Awareness indicates that you cannot simply wish it. You have to find a way to spread the word, spread the information in a manner that allows it to get through. This Awareness indicates that with the teaching methods as they are, under certain controls, it may be difficult to reach certain types of schools, particularly public schools. It might be easier to reach alternative schools, to share this information with them.

There will of course be some who do not appreciate the information. There will always be those who think you are trying to promote something sinister. This Awareness indicates do not get your hopes too high. The work to produce and promote the information will be challenging and may be very difficult before it becomes acceptable.

This Awareness indicates that each entity can do what can be done to help pass this information along where it is best used. You could write a book, or you could send out messages to schools across the country, or to teachers. This Awareness indicates it is likely to be extremely expensive and difficult to spread this far and wide. You may ask yourself if it is really worth the time to do so.

Obviously it would be worthwhile, but perhaps getting others involved will be the most effective way to help spread such information. For one person it would be nearly impossible, or may take a lifetime of effort.

This Awareness indicates that another possibility would be to write a story on this or write an article on this and send it to the various tabloids, hoping that it will help students get their heads more clear. If enough people read this, it may spread from student to student in the schools so that they gradually learn how to oxygenate their brains, while relaxing and improving their thinking.

This Awareness indicates there are great numbers of people who read tabloids, and those who find this technique beneficial may find it important to share with others.

Oxygenate Your Brain for the Crises Coming

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that entities in enhancing their spiritual energies, enhancing their physical well-being through various means, whether from increasing the life-force within themselves through chondrianas, or through oxygen, or through mental focus, all of these and other techniques will find greater energy, greater purpose and greater meaning in their lives, and this will be most valuable to them, especially in times of crisis, and they can also find more clarity to be able to share themselves and their understanding with others who need help during such times of crisis.

This Awareness indicates that you cannot really help others when you are yourself having trouble, when there are confusions and distortions within your own psyche, within your physical body because of energy disruptions or energy distortions or energy depletions. It is important for entities during these times to remain as healthy as possible, for they will also be much more effective in times of crisis.

This Awareness indicates that times of crisis occur almost on a daily basis for many entities and this may increase and the types of crisis may become more intense in the near future. Therefore, it is important for entities to enhance their health, oxygenate their bodies, breathe deeply, relax, absorb good clean air, clean water, exercises reasonably, and eat healthy foods, and keep your thoughts elevated, to be as positive as possible, while still remaining in touch with reality.

This Awareness indicates it does not benefit entities to live in a glorious fantasy world if they are not also in touch with the real world, but it does help entities who are in touch with reality to have their dreams and fantasies of a better world. This Awareness suggests also that entities not forget to help those others who may be having difficulties from time to time, wherein you can give a hand here, or help one who has stumbled there, or wherein you can share some insight or information with someone who needs to know.

This Awareness indicates that these little acts of respect and compassion become extremely valuable in helping yourself and others, so that the spiritual evolution continues with your attention to the welfare of others.

Thank you.

The Law of Gratitude is given

Ed's note: There is usually a discussion after a reading when Paul comes out of trance. I had forgotten to turn off the tape recorder, so Strongbow, the transcriber tacked it on at the end of the reading just given. Paul felt it should be included whenever the reading got published. I don't particularly agree, but in deference to our hard-working transcriber and Interpreter, I will include it. As usual, we are mulling over concepts brought up in the reading which are often difficult to grasp.

(Avaton): That was a good reading. I liked it.

(Paul): I don't even recall what it was.

(Avaton) It was all about masters and gurus and evaluating them.

(Paul): Oh yes. JD had some pretty good questions. I hope people don't get tired of it, continually having to repeat that kind of answer. It did it a little bit differently this time.

(Avaton): It always does. And It admitted it's a very difficult concept for entities to understand evidently.

(Paul): Yeah. Maybe this one got expressed more clearly.

(Avaton): I think so.

(Vikki): I don't know why people have trouble with that!

(Paul): Yeah, I don't really either. It's real clear to me. I think what it is, is that there are a lot of people who are getting this stuff from metaphysical teachers who say: "You are God!" you know, as Shirley MacLaine teaches: "You are gods!" Awareness even said that in one of the readings but It didn't clarify it. In one of the Laws. I forgot what that law was, but... the Law of... eventually we'll have to speak to each other as if you are addressing gods; something like that.

(Avaton): That was in the Law of Tolerance, I believe.

(Vikki): Which is still just getting back to the Divinity within.

(Avaton): You know, I've seen these buttons that they wear and they sell in these metaphysical shops that say "I am God!" and you're supposed to strut around wearing that button. That drives the fundamentalists crazy!

(Paul): Oh yeah. And it can be accurate. It can be true, you know. You can't say "I" when walking down the street in this physical body, "am God," it just can't be, you know.

(Avaton): You could say "I am a reflector of God" and get away with it.

(Paul): Or "I have seen God" or "I have experienced Godhood," or something like that, you know, and that would be more close to truth.

(Vikki): Or "I have a spark of God within me. I have the Divine!"

(Paul): But there are those people who are teaching people to repeat and meditate and so forth on the statement that they are God, and I think that's disturbing. Maybe JD has gotten a lot of that and has accepted it and she can't quite see why people have trouble not accepting it. That was why the question was: "Why is it so hard for people to accept that they are God?"

(Avaton): Well, she made it clear that "I am not confusing this with the issue of equating ego with deity." So I mean she understands that aspect of it, that you cannot equate the ego, otherwise, that will nullify it.

(Paul): Well, what was her question then?

(Avaton) Something to the effect of why do so many teachings criticize man seeing himself as equal, if not identical to God?

(Paul): Well, I guess Awareness answered that.

(Avaton): I think so.

(Vikki): Yeah.

(Avaton): She says she's been reading various things lately which consider the "sin" of man to equate himself with God.

(Paul): Well, that's a heavy fundamental argument right now, that New Agers equate themselves to God, and they don't like it.

(Vikki): That's the sin of pride, taking it personally.

(Avaton): And then she says that other things she's reading say that recognizing your own divinity is the highest realization.

(Paul): It's not your own divinity that you're recognizing. It's recognizing the divinity to the point where you surrender yourself to it.

(Vikki): Which means you've got to act as though you were as responsible as God would be acting or whatever, so you have to act with all the judiciousness and kindness and responsibility to everybody that has a need around you.

(Avaton): Well, if you recognize your own divinity on a level that doesn't equate with ego, then you can't help but treat people different because you would equally recognize their divinity.

(Paul): There's some confusion here because ego and self are the same thing, I think, aren't they?

(Avaton): I don't think so.

(Paul): What's the difference?

(Avaton): Well, isn't the self equated to aspects, your various aspects. Don't we have 144 aspects or selves that make us up? And once you integrate them, when they're fully integrated, then you have a human being that can perform in different ways in the physical form.

(Paul): Well, I don't know. We're trying to define the self in ways beyond what I think was earlier said there. I think earlier what you were saying, or she was saying, is "I recognize myself as God, but not my ego as God," as if they were two different things. What then is the ego, if it isn't the self? It seems to me that the ego is your idea of yourself.

(Vikki): Well, the ego is your personal self.

(Paul): Right.

(Avaton) Well, I thought that you had to let the ego die, or totally surrender before you could merge with the Divine.

(Paul): Well, I think the surrendering of self is surrendering of ego. That the ego and the self basically Nancy, my sister, used to have a big self, and a little self, and one was capitalized and the other was small letters, and she said she had dreams about this. I think it was on acid, or something, she had visions about her being having a big self and a little self, and she described these two selves, and the little self was her personal self. The big self was her God self or her Divine Self.

The Divine Self she saw as being the thing she wanted to be with all of the time, but the little self was always taking over, and I think that's probably the way I would classify ego, as being the self self, the personal self, and the Divine Self as being the spiritual consciousness. It's not even like a spiritual self.

(Vikki): No. It is what responds. It's that consciousness that responds to people and to situations with that kind of knowingness.

(Paul): And it gets it from being in contact with the Divine Self, and it can only come from the Divine Self.

(Vikki): That's more of a place of action than an identity.

(Paul): Yeah. When you're in contact with the Divine Self, you as a person don't have a place, but as soon as you come back and be your person, you lose contact with the Divine Self. You may still recognize its existence but you're not in tune with it in the same way. And so I think that the little self is the ego.

Ego to me is the same thing as my little self, my personal self. Like me, as Paul, and I can't be as Paul, the same as God. It's absurd to even consider it, as far as I'm concerned, and I think that this is what frustrates people who object to that concept that says "I am God!" because they're seeing: "George thinks he's God," you know, and they see George the person. They remember George farted and George did this, and they can't conceive of God ever doing those kind of things that George did, stumble at the wedding or whatever, you know, and so to them it's just a mockery and they're hostile to that kind of thinking.

Yet, George might find times when he just totally gives up being George. I shouldn't use the word George, because Vikki calls you that sometimes.

(Avaton) That's all right. This George once lit a fart also.

(Paul): Okay, we'll call him John, or whatever. Sometimes he just gives up being John and forgets self altogether, forgets his ego or personal self altogether and he just finds himself drifting into the cosmic or universal consciousness and sees things from that universal viewpoint or that universal experience or experiences it, and he can, while there, say "This is the consciousness of the deity," and he can say it in truth, but he can't say it as a personal self, that "I am that consciousness or deity!"

(Vikki): Right.

(Paul): I know that when I go into trance, I can't be there as a person. My consciousness doesn't switch and something else come in, but my consciousness has to give up me. And when it gives up me, it's no longer my consciousness and it goes into the cosmic consciousness or the deity consciousness and it kind of merges with it, you know, to where I don't know the difference between God and my consciousness, because my consciousness is somewhere else. It's missing. It's absent.

(Vikki): It's like it has taken a couple of steps back.

(Paul): I'd have to come out of trance to find it.

(Vikki): Yeah. Heh heh.

(Avaton): Well, I always thought the ego-self was like HAL the computer in Kubrick's "2001," that it was like a computer, with memory banks and hard-drives, and it has a definite purpose as long as you're in a physical form, for its program allows your body to move and work and do these things, but when you program yourself or you program that computer with too much information its head becomes too large for its body so, to speak, and it begins thinking these high faluting thoughts, that it is indeed God itself.

I thought that this was the part that you have to surrender at the time of passing over, because you no longer have use for it, once you're out of the physical form. And you allow your God-Self to literally override this thing as you go through life.

(Paul): It's not so much that you allow your God-Self, it's that you give up your self and allow God to over-ride.

(Avaton): Yeah. Yeah. And hopefully that's what most people do. But I'm afraid a lot of them don't either, because God doesn't have these animal instincts and war-like tendencies.

(Paul): Yeah. The ego is kind of Okay. If I were to describe my ego-self, my little self, I would have to describe it as Paul with all of Paul's experiences leading up to the present, his body, his attachments, everything from family to car, to the mind, to all his business activities, to his thought processes and his emotions and all of these things that I call myself, or use to describe myself, if I'm talking about myself in any way; but, if I give up all of those things to where they don't play a part of my consciousness, my consciousness lays all of that aside, it has to go into a kind of a blank state, when those things are dropped.

That's why you set aside mind, emotion and feeling. It gets rid of all your attributes. Then what's left is a blank consciousness; it's like a void. And that void then is in tune with the voidness of the Divine Consciousness, and if I were to describe the Divine Consciousness, it would have to be a kind of consciousness that has nothing in it, until something is called for. And then it is aware of anything that is called for.

It can be just a total blank, until a question or information or something is put into it, and then it goes and finds what is being spoken of or asked about, and it's capable. It doesn't think while it's focusing on, say, "Apple seeds" because someone spoke of apple seeds, It doesn't think of stars and galaxies on the other side of the universe, or tennis shoes or anything else. It doesn't think about other things which it's capable of thinking about. It just thinks on whatever is brought up for It to attend to.

So It's like Cosmic Consciousness. Most people think that Cosmic Consciousness means you're aware of everything in the universe at once, you know, and it's not really so.

(Avaton): You have to focus on specific things and then you can see.

(Paul): There may be some entities who have that kind of consciousness, but I don't think it could last for more than a second, because they're bound to focus on something in that universe, you know, where everything is happening at once. Ouspensky spoke of taking hashish and seeing the universe and all kinds of things happening at once, but he also spoke of how he saw everything in triangles, and these triangles intermingled together and worked together, and made things into shapes and forms and so forth, and so he began focusing in and he expressed it and called it Cosmic Consciousness, but he didn't see everything at once. He just saw certain things that his focus was attending.

I think that he was okay in saying that it was Cosmic Consciousness, but it's not instantaneous, every little sparrow, every little ant --because I'm sure that if the universe is totally conscious, the Divine Consciousness throughout the universe must permeates the entire universe, and it probably does permeate it everywhere at once, so that Consciousness is aware of every little ant in any planet anywhere in the universe. That to me would be true Cosmic Consciousness.

But it would be unfocused, and there's no way you could get an answer from that, or any kind of information from it. It would be totally unfocused consciousness. So what we generally call Cosmic Consciousness would be a consciousness that is in a void and in that void, when something is thrown in, whether it be a carrot or tennis shoes or apple seeds or a question about the Creation, or a question about the universe or galaxies, or Aunt Martha's cancer-- anything that is thrown into that void, the energies of the void are so open, they're like a vacuum and they just grab onto whatever is thrown in there, and begin to devour that concept that's been mentioned with a complete focus.

It's like all that void focuses on that substance of the question you know, as a concept. The concept becomes the only thing there is. And all of the void that's waiting for something, because I mean it's really receptive, it's really waiting because there's nothing there, so it has to just glom onto with everything that it is, and then when it does, it devours the question or the substance of the question, and digests it, and then the answer comes out of that.

I don't know if that made any sense or not, but that's kind of the way it seems to me. And there's no room in there for self, and you know that that void is the Divine Mind, and that you can let go of self and be one with it, but as soon as self enters, it's something to be devoured. The self would be devoured or you would just simply come out of the void and back into self, you know.

(Vikki): Do you think that might be the value of what the people are to God? That without the people, without their little personal things to deal with, more or less, it would just be the void part?

(Paul): Oh, you mean that God would just be a void if It didn't have something to "eat"?

(Vikki): Yeah, yeah, interactions and stuff going on.

(Paul): Yeah, maybe so. It may be what the void lives for, to find something of substance to devour. And the something of substance in many ways is just the concepts that people throw out, or material things that are in existence.

(Vikki): Or their personal intensities, the intensities that they go through?

(Paul): Yeah. I think we're trying to attribute personality to the God and the God is probably more like just a receptive consciousness, totally receptive consciousness which is a void, a total void, just empty.

(Avaton): But isn't it a force though?

(Paul): Oh, it's a powerful force. It's like the black hole. But it's spread out throughout the universe, just waiting to grab on to any concept or anything, to discover and digest it and understand it.

(Avaton): Yeah. Well you know that concept that not a sparrow falls that God isn't aware of; it's not that in It's consciousness It focuses in on a particular sparrow, but it's like in Star Wars, remember, when they referred to a "disturbance in the Force?" The falling or killing of the sparrow disturbs the force in some minute way, so God IS aware of it, but It doesn't have to focus in on that particular sparrow.

(Paul): Right.

(Avaton): That book by Bucke called Cosmic Consciousness-- if you haven't read that, it's interesting because it takes out individual people, famous people, writers and so on, and it's full of probably two dozen of them who experienced Cosmic Consciousness at one time or another, and it's true it was only for brief moments. Because Awareness has said that you cannot experience it for more than a few seconds because it would literally burn you up.

(Paul): I never read that book. I had it. John Brecken used to talk about it. And I finally bought a copy, and I had it for a long time, but I just never got round to reading it. I kept wanting to. I don't know if I still have it or not. I might have it still.

(Avaton): We have it. That's one we permanently stock. So if you want another copy, just holler.

(Paul): Yeah I might do that.

(Avaton): It's out in paperback. It used to be just hard-bound, but now it's out in a bigger paperback version. It's cheaper. I forget how much it is. Maybe $12.95. maybe less. But it's a classic book. At least that's the poop they put out about it.

(Paul): It has been considered a classic for a long time. I think it was written in the Twenties, and it's a classic although I don't know how many people know of it or have read it, but I think quite a few people in psychology may have read it in the earlier psychology fields anyway. I don't know about modern-day psychologists, but back in his time, in the Twenties and Thirties it was considered a real phenomenon book, about a phenomenon that a lot of people were curious about.

(Avaton): Well, it should lead them into the whole metaphysical world or the New Age or whatever they want to label it.

(Paul): Yeah. You know, it's funny because I'm very disturbed about a lot of things coming under the name "New Age." To me there's a lot of stuff that's not spiritual. It's just ego, and in some cases it's downright diabolical, like the Nazi movement. It masquerades under the name Aquarian Group, you know, and then a lot of this stuff that is promoted in different groups that...

(Avaton): Well, it's just a marketing hustle.

(Paul): Yeah.

(Avaton) Everything from soups to incense, you know. All these books from Ascended masters, all that bullshit. There's so much of that stuff out, and we hear of folks who actually take it seriously. Like Clare whatshername and her cult in Montana. It all comes under "New Age." I forgot to switch off the recorder, then, when I realized it, I let it continue. I've been taping this interview. I thought Jon would be interested.

(Paul): Yeah, I think that's good. It might be helpful to your members too, because we've discussed some things that may help clarify some of the things in that reading. I think we've sort of discussed it in a way that may be more clear because we're kind of on a beta consciousness level.

(Avaton): I'll make a note to have Jon transcribe this bit after the reading. It probably wouldn't hurt to have it in printed form.

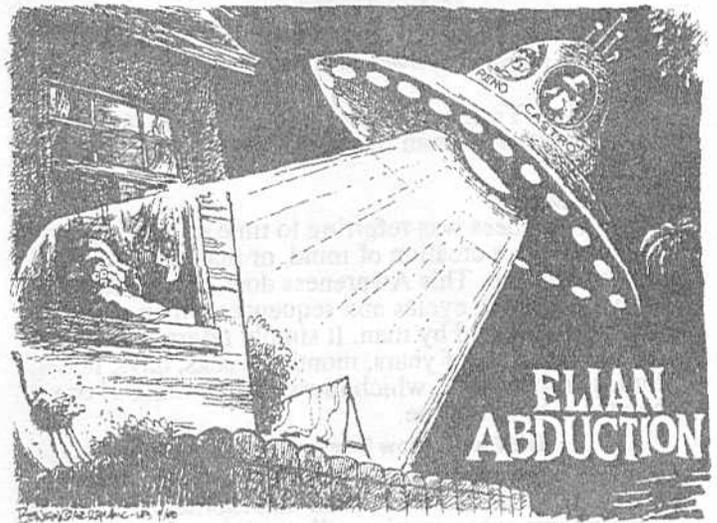

(Paul): Should we have some more watermelon?

(Avaton): Yes, by all means. Vikki, that's your department. And Jon, I think we should transcribe this.

(so be it)

Wisdom of Awareness—On the God-Self Within

"...The God-Self within entities does not demand perfection, it simply gives guidance and assistance so that entities may move toward perfection." (Issue 80-8)

The Seizing of Elian Gonzalez	2
Masters and God-Realized Gurus	3
When a Guru Says You Can't Get to Heaven Without Him	4
Sexual Contact Between a Guru and His Followers	6
Why Do So Many Teachings Criticize Those Who See Themselves Equal to God?	6
Can the God-Cell be Cloned or Expanded?	7
A Technique to Remain Clear and Conscious	7
Oxygenate Your Brain for the Crises Coming	8
An After Trance Conversation With Paul, Avaton & Vikki	8
Time is the Creation of Man (Other Races Lack it?)	12
How Do Chemicals and Light Alter Consciousness?	12
How to Move the Astral Body	13
Transported to the "Highest and Best"	13
The "Name" of Jesus	13
The Real Meaning of Sheep and "The Good Shepherd"	13
The Religious Conspiracy that has Controlled the Earth Consciousness	14
About the Legend of Issa	16
John of Patmos: Who Was He?	17
Was John the Baptist a Real or Fictitious Entity?	17
John the Baptist: Was He Real?	17
The Masons: A Large Part of the Religious Conspiracy?	18
Are Today's Masons Really a Threat?	18
Do 32 nd Degree Masons Renounce God?	18
Why the Homosexuality in Rituals?	18
Dangerous Questions Being Asked...	19
What To Do for Painful Sciatica?	20

(CAC General Reading # 8-3-94) Paul Shockley, Interpreter

"TIME IS THE CREATION OF MAN"

(Does That Mean other Races Lack It?)

QUESTION:

JD in New York asks: "Cosmic Awareness says time was the creation of man. Does that mean that other races lack it?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness was referring to time as used by humanity, was a creation of mind, or man, as an artificial form of time. This Awareness does not mean the situation in which cycles and sequences which are of nature were created by man. It simply refers to the artificial concepts of years, months, weeks, days, hours, minutes and seconds, which most entities think of or use when they think of time.

The Eternal Now Exists at all Moments

This Awareness indicates that there is an Eternal Now which exists at all moments and that Eternal Now can be elongated into what entities call seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, years, centuries, et cetera, but it is still the Eternal Now in the essence of nature.

A mental creation of time as used by most humans has become so commonplace that most entities think minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, years, decades, centuries, et cetera, are real measurements of some abstract concept known as time, and it causes entities to think of time as moving in a straight line.

This Awareness indicates that in reality, there are cycles, and there are durations, and sequences in which one thing follows another, but these are not the same as man-made time. These are activities within the Eternal Now.

HOW DO CHEMICALS AND LIGHTS ALTER CONSCIOUSNESS?

(How Psychedelics Effect the Physical Body)

QUESTION:

Another question from this entity. "If consciousness is primary and the physical generated by it, I could never comprehend how psycho-active chemicals, lights and other radiations, could so profoundly alter consciousness. Could Awareness explain that?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these substances can free consciousness to have more of an impact, or can free the consciousness within an entity in such a way as to allow the entity to experience greater expansion of consciousness or some other expression of consciousness by freeing it through the chemical reaction to certain physical confines or from certain dulling factors of the physical body.

The physical body, in other words, can house or contain consciousness and cause the senses of the physical body to become the primary expression of consciousness so that one only experiences what one senses through the five primary senses and when these primary senses are chemically affected, it allows the consciousness to have other expression or other outlets so that there can be a different form of experience based on something other than the restrictive senses.

Better Sex and ESP and Out-of-Body Experiences

This Awareness indicates it can also enhance the sensual experience in some cases, so that it is experienced more than normal, and have what may be termed extra-sensory perception, or extra-sensory experience, and this becomes still another alteration to consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that entities can also extend their consciousness out of the body. The body is not the creator of consciousness, for entities can leave the body and still be conscious outside of the body. When the consciousness does re-enter the body, it experiences a certain kind of confinement.

How to Experience Being Out of Your Body

This Awareness indicates that entities wishing to experience Out-Of-Body movement may experiment in the following fashion, just for the fun of it. This Awareness suggests that you stand in the middle of a room, or if you wish you may lie on the bed. Then visualize yourself getting up and walking to the corner of the room. Standing in the corner, retrace your movement from lying upon the bed, to getting up and move to the corner of the room. Recall each exact detail and how each exact detail feels or felt.

This Awareness suggests you now go back and lie again on the bed, or stand in the middle of the room, and visualize, but don't actually arise; visualize yourself rising and walking to the corner of the room, as you did before, recalling exactly every detail of your movement, exactly as it was before.

This action, you will notice, becomes very real, and you will perhaps, after several practices, realize that you are actually exiting your body and walking to the corner of the room in your spirit or astral body. You may even turn and look back and see yourself lying on the bed. With continued practice you may find yourself able to step out of the body in such fashion and leave, and move into other areas.

When Out-Of-Body be Careful Where You Go

This Awareness cautions entities to be careful where you go. Do not enter into places where you should not be. There have been instances in which entities, traveling out of body, have entered into locale of entities who were shocked by their presence. Such entities, perhaps in meditation or in some kind of ritual, sensed the presence of an Out-Of-Body intruder and such entities can zap the energy of the intruder.

One entity experienced this. This entity experienced moving into some kind of Tibetan lodge, found himself being zapped by these entities in meditation and the entity, moving back into his body, experienced great pain, and later developed some form of illness that resulted from his being zapped by the entities upon whom he had intruded.

This Awareness indicates therefore, be cautious in traveling Out-Of-Body. You are not totally invulnerable.

Physically Do the Exercise or Just Visualize It?

FOLLOW-UP (VIKKI):

On the exercise, the first time you do it, you physically do it, and then visualize it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is not extremely important whether you physically do it first, or visualize it first, but in physically doing it first, you get the real sense of the feel of walking to the corner of the room. If you mentally, or in your imagination do it first, you may not get it exactly the same as your physical action. Therefore, it is generally better to move physically first, because you have a reference to the exact experience, when you later move in your astral body.

Your imagination, essentially, is what kicks off your movement and gradually, your astral body will begin to take the journey with your imagination. This Awareness suggests that astrally, after some experiences of this nature, your astral body will slowly, gradually begin to leave your physical body and you will feel the sensation as being more real this time than mere imaginative experiences of such movement.

How to Move the Astral Body

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is that the most effective way to do an Out-Of-Body experience?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears to be the easiest, perhaps not the most effective. The most effective would be to simply move the astral body the first time, but this is not something most people can do, and this allows entities to gradually work into the action of moving the astral body. It is not a major effort. It is not something that is difficult. It is simply something that is a mental or meditative exercise, and as it is repeated, entities grow in the ability to loosen the astral body.

The astral body eventually rises slightly out of the physical form, and when you can feel yourself lifting, you will know that your astral body is preparing to disconnect from the physical. Once this occurs, you may begin to move the astral body higher and higher, until it is no longer within the physical body. Then you may move it, following the path you have created through your imaginary movements, based on the memory of your true physical movement from body to corner of the room.

Transported to the "Highest and Best"

(The Meaning of Surrendering to the Divine)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

Once you get to the point where you'll be at the corner of the room with your astral body, would it be appropriate, in regard to where to go with it, to suggest that you be transported to the highest and best place for your being to be?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that to go into the highest and best place to be does not require an astral body. This is simply an exercise in which entities can have an Out-Of-Body experience. To be at the highest and best place possible, one simply surrenders, surrenders to the Divine Self, for the Divine Essences is everywhere present and you don't need to leave your body to do so.

THE "NAME" OF JESUS

This Awareness wishes to comment on a certain principle of the Bible which refers to the "Name" and what the "Name" means. You will recall that in the Bible, particularly the New Testament, there are many references to the Name of Jesus, and entities in the Christian religion understand that the name of Jesus is sacred and when there are prayers given, the entities often end it: "I ask this in Jesus's Name," or "In the Name of Jesus, be gone," when attempting an exorcism, in the name of Christ.

This Awareness indicates that the question has come up with many entities: What is this concept of the sacredness of the Name? Isn't Divinity Divinity? Isn't a rose a rose by any other name? This Awareness indicates that the Bible uses many different code words which many entities do not understand and therefore they misunderstand Biblical expressions.

The Biblical Code Meaning of "The Name"

In Biblical code meaning of the Name, the writers are speaking of the essence of an entity. Thus, when you speak of the Name of Jesus, you are speaking of the essence of Jesus and what he stands for or what he is vibrationally, in terms of his divinity, in terms of his essence. Thus, using the name of Jesus actually refers to his deeper more meaningful character or essence.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, in modern times, when entities have a name given to them, and they consider their name as honorable, and they want to protect their name, essentially what they are doing is protecting their own essence, the essence of who they are. It is symbolized by the name under which they operate.

This Awareness indicates that to surrender yourself to the Divine under whatever name you call Divinity is to put yourself into the vibratory state or rate of that particular essence of Divinity. This Awareness indicates it will be beneficial for the entity under any of many different religions. Therefore, if you worship a deity under one name or another, you are simply surrendering to that Divinity under that particular name or which is symbolized by that name. You are surrendering to the essence of that entity's Divinity.

This Awareness indicates therefore, in surrendering to the essence of God, under the name of God, the essence is that which you perceive God to be in Its highest and most divine nature. You do not need to be in and out of body state to experience this.

THE REAL MEANING OF SHEEP AND "THE GOOD SHEPHERD" IN THE BIBLE

This Awareness wishes to digress further in regard to code words used in the Bible. This Awareness indicates in Biblical code, sheep are your thoughts, and a good shepherd is the mind that is disciplined to herd the thoughts. Thus, in herding the thoughts you round them up, you keep them in their proper place. Your thoughts do not wander here and there. Your thoughts do not scatter. You keep them together in a herd where you are basically in charge of these thoughts.

This Awareness indicates that entities often let their thoughts scatter and their thoughts are scattered all over eternity, all over the world. They do not have focus. They do not have the discipline. They are not good shepherds. Their thoughts go everywhere, and they cannot focus, they cannot keep their sheep, their thoughts, in any kind of order.

Sheep as Thoughts Also Applies to Your Own Life

This Awareness indicates in Biblical symbolism it is important for shepherds to be seen as highly evolved entities who are disciplined and mentally competent and worthy of organizing and attending thoughts and situations so that these things are well-cared for. This Awareness indicates in recognizing sheep as thoughts, you must also see that this can apply to your own life, wherein you keep all the aspects of your life in order, even though you were herding the thoughts, names, essences of the aspects of your life in a way that keeps everything organized, in order, and nothing is scattered and lost.

The Biblical Code Meaning of Animals

This Awareness indicates in Biblical code, animals, particularly animals such as foxes, lions, and various wild beasts, these creatures represent the untamed emotions within an individual, and as entities become more disciplined, and more self-control is administered by the good shepherd, these wild animals no longer become threatening or disruptive to the entity.

The Biblical Code Meaning of the Wife or Mate

This Awareness indicates in Biblical code, the wife or female mate of an entity generally represents his spiritual growth. Whether the entity is male or female, in Biblical terms; male aspect of an entity generally represents the ambitious and seeking aspect of a human being; while the female aspect or his mate, represents the spiritual aspect.

If the mate is slovenly or of low morals, then this implies the entity does not have a well-developed spiritual aspect in his life. This Awareness indicates if the entity's female mate is of high spiritual development, this generally implies that the entity has developed spiritually and is in the process of spiritually evolving.

This Awareness will discuss other codes and terms used in Biblical expressions in future readings.

The Religious Conspiracy That Has Controlled the Earth Consciousness

QUESTION:

Sharon Kane, Roselle, IL, asks: "I would be very interested to hear more about the religious conspiracy that has controlled the earth consciousness. Would you ask Awareness if It could expound on this subject?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the question is either extremely naive or extremely well thought-out, in that it appears to have two different possible interpretations. This Awareness indicates that It will assume that there is a deeper and more well thought-out intent behind the question.

This Awareness indicates that the so-called "religious conspiracy" is that which cannot really be described well by the word "conspiracy." Conspiracy implies a group of people intentionally attempting to defraud the masses, and it is not necessarily true that there is intentional intent (sic) to defraud the masses.

Much of the misrepresentation is unintentional, and is based on entities' devotion and belief in what they promote as religion. There are many different religions in the world. This Awareness cannot comment on all religions. Some are simply designed to control a culture, and some are more for the purpose of helping to mold a culture into a more civilized state.

Joseph Campbell and the Influence of Religious Myths

As the entity Joseph Campbell states in his discussion of myths: Many of the religious myths that have been handed down were actually the greater influences on civilizations to lead them to become more than they otherwise could have been, and the myths have greater influence than armies of weapons, force and power.

This Awareness indicates that these religious myths being created back in ancient times, had great influence on cultures, tribes, nations, to lead them to become greater as an organization, or as a people, than they would have been as scattered individuals without that central myth holding them together.

Is this a conspiracy? If entities are teaching a myth that serves as a glue for a society, is it a conspiracy against the individuals or is it a way of helping to protect individuals by unionizing the nation or society by bringing them together under a common myth, a common concept?

This Awareness indicates that It will not go into details on many of the other great religions such as Buddhism, Hindu and such, but will focus more in regard to the Christian religion as it is promoted in the West, because most of the readers of this information are more familiar with the Christian religion and its influence on society.

Christianity and Its Part in the Religious Conspiracy

This Awareness indicates that this question asks about the conspiracy of religions and this Awareness wishes to discuss Christianity in this response, assuming that this is along the line of what the questioner asked. If entities wish to apply it to other religions, they are able to do so.

This Awareness indicates that the Christian religion drew from many different sources. The Hebrew religion was basically its immediate parent, and yet evolving out of Hebrew teachings, it also embraced other religions that went back even further. There was the time of Sumer, the great ancient culture that existed long before Egypt, or before the Hebrew, even before Chaldea.

Sumer Religion was Handed Down by Extraterrestrials

The Sumer religion was based on stories handed down about extraterrestrials, and these entities coming down from heaven or coming down from the sky, and the rules that were laid out for the creation of mankind, when these extraterrestrials were involved in their genetic experiments, creating the Cro Magnon man.

This Awareness indicates that these writings were preserved down through several subsequent cultures: Babylonian, Chaldean, and Akkadian, and on down, and eventually, many of these ancient writings wound up with the Greeks and the Hebrews, and even the Egyptians, and became part of their ancient legend or mythologies which are now called religions.

Read Bramley's "The Gods of Eden" for Info on Secret Schools

This Awareness indicates that if entities wish to know something about the so-called conspiracies of the Secret Schools, this Awareness refers them to the Bramley book The Gods Of Eden,* for these Secret Societies that were established by the extraterrestrials and filled with priests who were to help mold the thinking and help to guide the cultures of these ancient civilizations is well described in this book, The Gods Of Eden, and there is little point in this Awareness going back over this material, for it can be better understood in reading that book.

*This book is permanently stocked by CAC. Please refer to the Book Price Sheet.

The ET's Set Up Secret Societies and Priesthoods

This Awareness indicates, however, that briefly, the extraterrestrials set up Secret Societies with a secret priesthood designed to help control and manipulate the societies through religion, ritual and concepts which, down through the ages has evolved without great change, in a way that molded entities into the society which the extraterrestrials foresaw and sought to promote on the physical plane.

Jesus Received Teachings from The Path of Saints (Sant Mot)

In the Christian religion, the entities known as Jesus received much of his personal teaching from entities of the Path of Saints, and was initiated as a teacher from the Path of Saints, or that which is currently called the Sant Mot path. This Awareness indicates that this entity took the messages available through this teaching from India and brought it to Jerusalem and began to share these teachings.

He also felt great compassion for those who were sick, those who were weak, and set about doing spiritual healing, and his spiritual healing is that which called many to worship him as a God and think of him as some kind of miracle maker. This Awareness indicates that in the Path of the Saints, or Sant Mot, these entities are taught that a master surrenders to the Divine and becomes one with God, and they refer to these entities as God-Realized Masters.

The entity Jesus was a God-Realized Master, and saw himself as one with God. This Awareness indicates that much of what he said in his teachings was directly related to and paraphrased much of the teaching of Sant Mot, the Path of the Saints. This Awareness indicates that the Western mind, not fully understanding the true essence of the teachings, chose to portray the entity as God in a literal sense.

Most Sant Mot Masters are quite humble, and see themselves merely as devotees or agents of God rather than seeing themselves as God personified, but most of the followers of this organization see the Master as God personified, and so it was with the Christian attitude toward Jesus. They saw him as God personified.

The Roman Version of Jesus was a Composite

This Awareness indicates that this message refers to the entity known as the Nazarene and it should also be recognized that the Roman version of the Christian religion was a composite of not only the entity known as the Nazarene, but also Apollonius and also Krishna of India, and also Indra, and also of the Helios philosophy which was a philosophy based on astrological symbolism: the sun and twelve signs which was incorporated into the Christian religion as the Son of God and the 12 disciples.

The Krishna Religion was Incorporated into Christianity

This Awareness indicates that the Krishna religion was such as to be incorporated in the Roman version of Christianity as an entity who came into the world to save man's souls and was hanged for his efforts. This entity also was born of a virgin. This Awareness indicates this part of the story was incorporated into the Christian story along with the same for Indra, another ancient symbol or teacher from India. (Indra is also their God of Thunder in India: Jon)

The Name "Christ" Came From the Syrian Teacher Chrest

This Awareness indicates that there was also in Syria, an entity known as Chrest who was a great teacher, and from Chrest evolved the name Christ. The concept of the "crest" of a hill is in reference to its highest point. This Awareness indicates that the concept of Christ, however, is that which has been associated with many different cultures, wherein the concept of Christ is the same as that of a title.

One who is "Christed" is one who has become God-realized. One who is Christed is anointed by God and therefore, the entity being known as Jesus the Christed one or Jesus the Christ, which later through the more English approach to language, simply implied it as being his last name; his first name being Jesus and his last name being Christ.

The Meaning of the Hebrew Yod He Shin Vau Heh

This Awareness indicates that the name Jesus in Hebrew is spelled Yod He Shin Vau Heh. The name Jehovah is Yod He Vau Heh. The "Shin" added to Jesus represents the element Akasha. The Yod He, and Vau Heh, the letters on both side of Shin represent Fire, Air, water and earth, and thus, Yod He Shin Vau Heh represents a 5th element or that of Akasha which is the Divine Spirit.

This Awareness indicates that if you wish, equate the Shin or Akasha as representing this Awareness consciousness, the Cosmic Consciousness attribute of the Divine Creator. This Awareness indicates the four pillars of God as Yod He Vau Heh, those being the four pillars of creation: Fire, Air, Water and Earth; or if you wish to define this further, it is radiance, vibration, magnetism and stability or matter.

This Awareness indicates that these of course are symbolized as personified beings and written of in the ancient schools by priests as though they were persons, individuals, so that in the case of the story of Christianity, all of these various entities are drawn together and made to become one character. And the story surrounds this entity's experience and his love of humanity.

This Awareness indicates that the entity has roots in his creation that go into other cultures, that go even into ancient Egypt and into India, Syria, and even that which is currently by today's terms called Iraq. This Awareness indicates it even has origins in the area of Turkey, but these entities who were drawn from these various sources and made into a composite entity known as Jesus the Christ, all created to the modern version of Christianity.

This Awareness indicates that if there is that which you can refer to as a conspiracy, it would be in the way the churches have promoted Christianity for the purpose of raising money for their churches and whereby they, in some cases, have exploited others in the name of Jesus, or have butchered civilizations in the name of Jesus on the grounds that they were heathen, for Jesus would not have participated in or encouraged such butchery.

Deception in Saying the Bible is "God's Word"

This Awareness indicates that there is still the other aspect of what may be termed deception in the Biblical stories. This in relation to the statements by many religious leaders that the Bible is "God's word" and that God wrote the Bible. It is well understood, when reading through Biblical passages and comparing to other earlier writings, that a great portion of the Bible has been lifted from other earlier writings of other cultures.

Hebrew Priests Plagiarized and Changed Names

This Awareness indicates that in other words, the Hebrew priests plagiarized other earlier cultures by taking information from them and putting it in as though it was first-hand knowledge. They even changed some of the names of the characters involved to make it appear that these stories related to Hebrew entities rather than, for example, Akkadian, Babylonian, Chaldean, Sumerian or Indian entities, from whom the stories were lifted.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, many of the stories written about Jesus were taken from other writings, particularly strong were those of India, which were used heavily in the Christian New Testament. This Awareness indicates that there also of course were references in the New Testament to Hebrew writings and entities.

Conspiracy When Justinian Removed Reincarnation References

This Awareness indicates another area of what may be termed conspiracy or deception has to do with the actions of Justinian, who took out references to reincarnation from the New Testament but did not manage to get everything and left certain areas, or certain phrases, that are clearly references to reincarnation. This has been discussed previously.

The Piso Family Who Wrote the Books of the New Testament

This Awareness indicates that still other earlier information on the deception in the New Testament has to do with who really wrote the books of the New Testament. This Awareness indicates that much of this information was written by a family, the Piso family, and there is information about these entities and how they coded their own works so that they received credit for the writing, and you can find these coded references in the New Testament which fits with the code of the various writers of the Piso family. This as having spawned a society, a secret society that down through the ages has passed this information to various people and which can still be found, and information on this is available and has been mentioned previously, with an address given to allow entities to find more information on this family who wrote the New Testament.*

These entities having gone through certain competition with each other at one point, whereby their own family competition regarding who will do what, created between them the need to couch their material in certain codes and certain numerical properties to assure that they always got the credit for the particular book of the New Testament which they wrote.

Books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John Written by Pisos

This Awareness indicates, for example, the books of Matthew, Mark and John were not written by Matthew, Mark and John, but by different Piso family members, all of which is explained in the material that they make available to the public by writing to them. These entities not alive today, but the society preserving this information is still very much alive.

This Awareness indicates that even the Book of Revelation was written by the Piso family. This Awareness indicates that entities who wish to check this further can write to the address, and for five dollars receive a small booklet that explains much more in detail in regard to this family. There is also the opportunity for entities to join in a membership of this organization if they so desire.

This Awareness indicates that the important thing about the Christian religion is that the symbolism of the story has been a great influence on society, has been a glue to hold society together, to make it grow, to make it develop into that which held high ideals.

Bright, Glorious and Beautiful Aspects of Christianity

Even though there have been the dark sides of Christianity down through history, there are also the bright glorious and beautiful aspects of this religion. This Awareness indicates that the majority of Christian adherents are as beautiful as any people on earth. There are some who detract from that beauty who are hostile, judgmental, even unworthy of their claim as Christians, but the majority are very beautiful people and their faith has helped many on this plane, and has served many and served them well.

This Awareness suggests the editor repeat the address for the Piso family information in this reading.

* The True Authorship of the New Testament, by Abelard Reuchlin, is available for $6.00 from the Abelard Reuchlin Foundation, PO Box 5652, Kent, WA. 98064.

ABOUT THE LEGEND OF ISSA

(Many of the Stories in the New Testament Came from India)

QUESTION:

In Bramley's book The Gods Of Eden which Awareness recommends, he speaks of the legend of Issa, a very old Buddhist document, purportedly discovered in the Himi Monastery of India by Russian Travelor Nicolas Notovich in 1887. Notovich published his translation of the Buddhist legend in 1890 in his book The Unknown Life of Jesus, and according to this Buddhist legend uncovered by Notovich, a remarkable young man named Issa had departed for Asia at the age of 13, studied under several religious masters of the East, did some preaching of his own and returned to Palestine 16 years later at the age of 29.

And it goes on to point out the significant parallels between the lives of Issa and Jesus, and this leads to the conclusion that Issa was, in fact, Jesus. Does Awareness see this as true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as in the affirmative; that this entity as being one of the major figures in the composite that made up the "Jesus" of the New Testament. Many of the stories of India and India's great teachers were incorporated in the New Testament. The washing of the feet at the well, the healing of the blind man: these come from earlier Indian teachings or writings.

This Awareness indicates there is a book: The World's Sixteen Crucified Saviors or Christianity Before Christ which lists the parallels of many of these religions with the Christian religion, so that entities can clearly see the earlier religions predated Christianity in many of its precise stories. Even phrases were almost identical from the writings and appeared later in the New Testament.

Much of this is because the Piso family did great research into these earlier religions and created the composite. This Awareness indicates of course the Council of Nicaea was formed along with the Piso family in the creation of the Christian religion, the documents being created, the books of the New Testament being written and created by the Piso family and approved by the Council of Nicaea, this under Constantine's order or dictate.

Constantine's Nicaean Council Forced the Composite

This Awareness has mentioned this previously, but Constantine, seeing that many of the religions of Rome were fighting amongst each other and that it could flare into a kind of civil war in Rome between religious organizations, ordered that all of these religious leaders come together at the Nicaean Council and form a composite religion that would be recognized by Rome and any religion that would not accept or participate in the compiling of this religion or composing of this religion, would not be recognized in Rome as a valid religion.

It is much like that which may happen under the so-called New World Order of today. This Awareness indicates that these entities came together working with the Piso authors or writers, came together and formed the religion and named the entity "Jesus," after the religion had been defined. It was not as though all of this work was done to describe the name and entity known as Jesus.

It was more that a composite of many sacred holy persons was created and stories written and then the name determined, and the Piso family then wrote up the documents, much as a group of attorneys would write up documents after a convention was held and everything was described as the way the representatives wanted it to be.

This Awareness indicates that the Piso family had writing abilities which were strong and clear and poetic and therefore, they were selected to write the script representing the information given at the Council of Nicaea. This Awareness indicates they attributed the writings to the disciples assigned as followers of Jesus in the first several books of the New Testament.

Books on Christianity's Origin Recommended by Awareness

This Awareness indicates if you wish to research this in greater detail, this Awareness suggests the books The World's Sixteen Crucified Saviors Before Christ or Christianity Before Christ, and also the Piso family book information, and also a book by the entity professor Hotema relating to the origins of Christianity. The name is not precisely seen, but the Health Research bookstore is likely to have a listing of his work, and the book in question is one relating to the origins of Christianity and the Nicaean Council, which took place at approximately 300 A.D. perhaps somewhat sooner.

This Awareness indicates that another book called Deceptions and Myths of the Bible by an entity whose last name is Graham is also of interest along these lines.

Ed's Note: CAC permanently stocks most of the books recommended by Awareness. Please refer to the current Book Price List under "Books Relating to the Bible" and "Books Relating to Jesus."

JOHN OF PATMOS: WHO WAS HE?

(FOLLOW-UP QUESTION):

Awareness, if the Pisos wrote the Book of Revelation, where does John of Patmos fit in? He reportedly was the author. Is he legendary and just made up, as far as a myth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as in the affirmative. This was a pen name, what you might call a pen name of the Piso entity who worked on that information.

WAS JOHN THE BAPTIST A REAL OR FICTITIOUS ENTITY?

QUESTION:

Was John the Baptist a real entity as described in the Bible, or was he also fictitious?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears this entity was based on a person who actually existed and that it was one who promoted the Essene Jesus, the entity from Nazareth, and the entity John the Baptist being a forerunner for this entity, what might be in today's terminology, a promoter, one who comes before and announces the other's coming.

When Jesus Speaks of Himself as "The Son of Man"

This Awareness indicates that much of the information about John the Baptist is fictional. It was deliberate, to tie in John the Baptist with earlier prophets, when the writer had Jesus ask his disciple: "Whom do they say I, the Son of Man, am?" When Jesus speaks of himself as the Son of Man, he is referring to himself not as the Son of God, but as a human that channels God, or reflects God, but not as the actual offspring of God.

The Secret Code Word of "Son" or "Daughter"

This Awareness indicates this is another code word in Biblical terminology. The word "son" or "daughter" is a reference to offspring or result. The Creator being the Father and the offspring being the son, or the offspring or son being the result of the Creator. Thus when someone creates another, he is it, the created, would be referred to as the son.

This Awareness indicates in the Old Testament, you will recall, in Genesis, there were "sons" of God referred to in this work. Therefore, when later it is said Jesus was the only begotten Son of God, one must question: What about Genesis when it speaks about the sons of God?

This Awareness indicates that in reference to the question Jesus asked his disciples: "Whom do they say I, the Son of Man, am?" and his disciples answer: "Some say Elias, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." And Jesus answers that, "Elias is come and is John the Baptist!" This is a reference Jesus is making to the reincarnation of this entity as being John the Baptist.

This was of course the work of the writer. It is not an historical statement that was being recorded by some stenographer who was following Jesus around writing down his words. This was not the way it happened. Rather, it was the work of the Piso family writer of that particular book.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Jesus, however, did believe in reincarnation, did he not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That is what this Awareness indicated in accordance with the writing of that particular Scripture, but the question is: What do you mean by Jesus? for this Awareness is referring to the Piso version of the New Testament. When the entity said: "Elias is come and is John the Baptist!" this implies the entity believed in reincarnation.

QUESTIONER:

Okay, I misunderstood Awareness. I thought It said this was not the way it happened. This was the Piso version.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Correction. This was not the way it happened in reality. In reality, the entity who was the symbol or prototype for John the Baptist was an entity who was a forerunner or promoter of the particular entity from Nazareth who was also an Essene, and this entity that was of a different name but became a part of the John the Baptist character in the book, helped to promote the Nazarene, and there was not any stenographer standing by, nor did the Nazarene say to his disciples that John the Baptist was the reincarnation of Elias.

This Awareness indicates that in the story of Christianity it shows the entity referring to reincarnation, when he speaks of the reincarnation of John the Baptist as being the return of Elias. (Transcriber's note: Paul is now saying Elijah, but for continuity's sake I continue with the previous Elias).

This Awareness suggests the Biblical passage be found in this regard and name corrections be named or added as necessary so that the quotation is correctly represented and the place or Scripture is correctly stated as to where it is found before publishing this message.

This Awareness indicates the Interpreter can do this and get the information to you upon his return to McMinnville.

Ed's Note: The Interpreter did not deliver, but the quotation is in Matthew, chapter 11, Verse 11-15:

"Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there has not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

..: "And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

According to Smith's Bible Dictionary, Elijah and Elias were the same entity. (Elias being the Greek name).

JOHN THE BAPTIST: WAS HE REAL?

(The Masonic Story of the "Heart People" and the "Head People")

QUESTION:

Can Awareness discuss John the Baptist a little more? How about the legend of Salome and Herod and Salome taking the head of John the Baptist and kissing his lips, etc? Is there any truth to that legend?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is actually a Masonic story that refers to the 7 chakras. The 7 veils represent the 7 chakras. The Masonic story is that which refers to one out of 8 people is a head person, the other 7 are heart people; they operate from emotions rather than from intellect, and John the Baptist having his head removed by this dancer with 7 veils represents that the heart people eventually will win over the head people in their passion, and this is all a symbolic story presented from Masonry.

The Wisdom of Awareness: -- On Jehovah and Jesus --

It is indicated that the entity Jesus, as changing the religion of the Hebrews from one which was based on a space being who was harvesting and growing human beings for his own purposes, to one which was of a mystical nature, a spiritual nature, whereby the religion of the world (the Western world in particular) would take on a mystical interpretation, dealing with spiritual energies rather than hereditary and behavior types of energies. (Issue 78 - 35)

THE MASONS: A LARGE PART OF THE RELIGIOUS CONSPIRACY?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

So then, Masonry is a large part of the so-called religious conspiracy, is it not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Very much so. This was part of the Secret Schools and priesthood, although it was not referred to during these early times as Masonry. It was to evolve into that which later became Masonry. It went through a stage of the Templars. Prior to that it was part of the underground Secret Schools.

There was that which was a Mithra religion, in which the bull was slain by the soldiers or slain by the hero, and this was part of a earlier version of the underground religion promoted by the alien influence. There was also that underground religious organization which met in caves. The Eleusinians.

(Ed's Note: Although Paul spells it out, I could find no reference to "Elusians" so I figure he meant Eleusinians)

The Underground Religious Organization Called the Eleusinians

These entities would meet and practice certain rituals and these rituals were handed down over many years to the Templars and from the Templars, on to Masonry.

Are Today's Masons Really a Threat?

(In Canada All Lawyers and All Judges Are Masons)

QUESTION:

In regard to Masons, JD in New York asks: "Are Masons of high degree really the threat the fanatic right considers them?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the greater threat these entities hold is in their positions in power in society. In Canada, there are hardly any lawyers at all who are not Masons. In the U.S. approximately three fourths of all lawyers are Masons. This Awareness indicates that in the U.S. most of the judges are Masons. In Canada, practically all judges are Masons.

These entities have the kind of power that can be corrupted if directed from higher echelons of the Masonry movement so that an entity is found guilty or found innocent, according to decrees handed down from higher levels of the judicial departments.

This Awareness indicates that in France, the French Revolution was the result of Masonry, wherein the King and his court were overthrown and guillotined as a result of the influence and actions of Masonry. This Awareness indicates that Masonry tends to direct societies from within and if the religious priests become too strong in a society, generally Masonry overthrows them.

It is that aspect of the head which Masonry represents, which is attempting to overthrow and keep control of the heart people of a society, but whereby they also recognize that they will eventually be overthrown themselves because they are the head, and the heart is destined to win.

This Awareness indicates that there are seven heart people for every head person according to the Masonry philosophy, and therefore, to keep any control they must be very firm and without compassion. They must simply rule by mental and structural control. This Awareness indicates that whether this is dangerous depends on where you stand in relation to this organization and how they view you in your stand.

Do 32nd Degree Masons Denounce God?

(Homosexuality Activity Required in Some Initiations)

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. "Do 32nd degree Masons actually profess the negation of God and the soul?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are strange occurrences in some of the rituals of the Masonic initiations. One of these initiations requires the entities to partake in homosexual activities. This much earlier. The 32nd degree appears to be such that could be interpreted as a denunciation of God, but that it is not necessarily a correct interpretation, for it has to do with a definition of God.

This Awareness indicates that It does not wish to get into the secrets of Masonry. It has already said more than should be said. This Awareness indicates there are books on this subject that entities can read if they are curious.

There is, as with everything, the light side and the dark side of any organization, whether it be the Catholic church, the Protestant church, Masonry, or the U.S. government or any other organization.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There must be many good Christians, and certainly a lot of good Jews in the law field that I would think would refuse to take such an oath.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Such an oath as what?

QUESTIONER:

As renouncing God.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has not indicated that this occurred to entities who are in law. You are compiling several different statements and leaping to a conclusion. This Awareness indicated that 75% of lawyers in this country are Masons, or are partially into Masonry. It does not mean they have all become 32nd degree Masons.

This Awareness indicates that most judges are Masons in this country. Many politicians are Masons. This Awareness indicates that It did not say that all of these entities who have anything to do with Masonry have denounced God.

QUESTIONER:

This was the 32nd degree Mason.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that It simply said that this could be interpreted as such, but that the interpretation has to do with a definition of God more than a renunciation of God as used by most entities. And this Awareness did not define clearly what the Masonic approach to this 32nd degree action is. It does not wish to get into discussing the inner secrets of Masonry because this is not only dangerous, to entities, but is also inappropriate in that members of CAC do not need to pry into an organization's secret activities.

They are no more important to an entity who is not a member than prying into the activities of the CIA when not a member of the CIA.

Why The Homosexuality in Rituals?

QUESTIONER:

Well, would It explain then the purpose of having the homosexuality involved in the rituals?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is negative. (long pause)

This Awareness indicates essentially the action of homosexuality has to do with gaining power through some kind of brotherhood type of activity in which there are secrets that each other holds against the other, whereby the entities participating in such an action have some kind of controlled information over another and whereby this causes a unity that makes these entities feel dependent on one another for keeping quiet and also dependent on one another for further support of each other's devotion.

QUESTIONER:

Didn't Awareness at one time or another describe that as the very thing that held the Satanists together?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as in the affirmative.

DANGEROUS QUESTIONS BEING ASKEDQUESTION:

Does Awareness have a closing message?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness welcomes a closing message at this time.

This Awareness indicates there are too many questions that are extremely dangerous for entities to pursue merely for curiosity purposes. This Awareness indicates that It wishes to avoid putting entities in danger. Therefore, It has certain hesitations and concerns when entities become too demanding in their curiosity and yet this Awareness does have an inclination to provide information to those who question, in hopes or in recognition that with certain satisfaction of information, entities will find some deeper meaning in their pursuit of and development of curiosity for the purpose of greater soul growth.

This Awareness indicates that It does not hope ever to satisfy all the curiosities of the mind, but hopes to answer sufficient questions so that entities can find those things in life that are of great importance to them, so that taboos are diminished and information is available for entities to pursue areas without great fear, without extreme prejudice or without causing others to feel uncomfortable.

This Awareness indicates that this kind of information may someday be lightweight and easily made available. At present it is not so. This Awareness indicates that It realizes that when It does not give information that it causes the mind to become even more demanding, even more curious, even more fixated, and therefore, It attempts to give as much information as is comfortable for the entities involved.

This Awareness indicates that the important information relating to the questions on religious conspiracies has been given. This type of information could not have been given in the past, particularly ten to fifteen or more years ago, without great apprehension for the safety of the Interpreter and the entities at CAC. Even now it is semi-dangerous, but only a few entities would take great anger at such information.

Therefore, the danger is minimal. In a few years it will be passe information. The same cannot be said regarding the secrecies of the CIA or Masonry. These areas are still closed to discussion for the most part.

(The Law of Gratitude is given)

WISDOM OF AWARENESS -On Warnings and Predictions

"...The very purpose of a warning is to rally assistance to change that which is threatening." (Issue 80-8)

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

VISIT THE NEW C.A.C. HOME PAGE AND DOMAIN ON THE INTERNET

Much is happening here and new changes are an ongoing thing. We have combined our 2 sites with Dave Alexander's newest C.A.C. Home Page link. Just type in <http://www.CosmicAwareness.org> or <http://www.CosmicAwareness.com>

This site contains current information which is changed often. On this page you can click on our regular staff Home Site as well as a list of current books and resources, various topics in back-issues of the newsletter and Dave Alexander's terrific revitalized Cosmic Awareness site! Dave's site has a wealth of information on the Awareness Movement, the philosophy, the newsletters, readings on Christianity and many other subjects, plus the famous Dr. Beter transcriptions.

What to do for Painful Sciatica?

(How Overcoming Belief Systems Can Heal Any Problem)

QUESTION:

A question from Dora S., Little Village, New York. She writes: "I got a note from Paul that he is no longer with CAC. Too bad! Just when I had a question about sciatica. I am an old bat. I will be 71 this summer, and have been having sciatica for some months, which is a nuisance. The chiropractor helps some, and so do the Sciatikaid (sp) tablets, a homeopathic preparation" ... but she was wondering if Awareness could give some information on how to get rid of the problem and then avoid getting a relapse.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that there has been previous information given regarding sciatica through the former Interpreter, with an emphasis on medicinal supplementation to provide the balancing of the chemistry just described through this channel.

This Awareness suggests that in addition to the standard nutrients that are recommended to strengthen the nervous system, that this individual could find a high degree of relief through the enlisting of the belief system and the application of a meditative visualization, wherein she enlists some of the Will Energy she has invested toward beliefs that healing must come from external sources and replace that energy with the faith that healing, as does the Light Force, spring from within.

The Distorted Idea that with Age Must Come Infirmity

This Awareness suggests that many physical maladies, symptoms and conditions are the direct result of mass consciousness and the belief in the deterioration of the body as a necessary part of living, and investment in the distorted idea that with age must come infirmity and the acceptance of the idea that illness is inevitable.

This Awareness suggests that vibrant health is the intended condition, but this Awareness also accepts the limitation humankind has placed upon itself with the dense network of energy diverted into the belief systems regarding health.

This Awareness suggests that entities with investments in belief systems regarding nutritive supplements, allopathic medicine, naturopathic medicine, self-healing--whatever is the dominant belief pattern regarding the health; that since the belief system itself cannot be immediately vaporized from the existence, nor from the entire realm of mass-consciousness, (and therefore from the realm of the individual consciousness); that any such belief system be identified and utilized to its maximum capacity to elicit the healing process, which actually does spring from within the energy and ability of the entity.

This Awareness suggests that in addition to enlisting the belief systems, to look to associated belief systems regarding the necessary maintenance of the physical form; nutrition, exercise, et cetera. Also, to eliminate limiting beliefs or escape responses which can all create blockages of energy which eventually will result in physical maladies.

How to Visualize a Healing

This Awareness suggests that the entity experiencing the sciatica can benefit substantially from quieting her mind and directing love energy into the areas affected, to vividly imagine the circuitry, the nerves involved, aglow with this energy, alive with vibrancy, in an unimpeded flow.

This Awareness suggests that she can create this energy through attuning her consciousness to an experience wherein she has experienced joyous pleasure or fulfilling love. She can create a memory which will elicit this feeling within her body, or envision and imagine an event of her choosing to create this feeling. Then to convert this feeling into a visual image of the Light, to outline the network, and to direct it into any areas experiencing blockage or physical symptoms.

Entities can begin to experiment, not only with their healing capacity, but to become acquainted with the inner resources, and the inner realm, which largely goes ignored, due to the habits that are imparted into individuals, due to the limits of mass consciousness.

This Awareness suggests that there are many existing methods, substances and preparations which have already been communicated regarding a wide variety of maladies, including sciatica. But this Awareness wishes to emphasize that any number of items such as these are simply intermediaries through which the belief system applies the energy that would otherwise naturally be maintained and applied directly to the problems.

If we have completion, we can continue.

Mena/ABC/Madrid

—HOW TO GET THIS NEWSLETTER BY MAIL— EVERY 4 WEEKS! (More or Less)

REVELATIONS OF AWARENESS is a cosmic newsletter, published by Cosmic Awareness Communications, P.O. Box 115, Olympia, Washington, 98507, U.S.A. (A not-for-profit organization). Membership fees and donations are deductible from your Federal Income Tax. Try to remember Cosmic Awareness in your will! If you wish to have these messages preserved and available to others in years to come. ("How many have you served, and how well?" is the question we will all be asked at the Passing Over).

MEMBERSHIPS AVAILABLE (Honor System)

INDIVIDUAL: $42 per year or $12 quarterly
 FAMILY: $52 per year or $20 quarterly
 CONTRIBUTING: $77 per year or $25 quarterly
 SPONSORING: $144 per year or $40 per quarter
 BENEFACTOR: $500 per year or $150 per quarter
 PATRON: $1000 per year or $250 per quarter
 ANGEL: $5000 per year or $1500 per quarter
 LIMITED INCOME: $30 PER YEAR OR $9.00 QUARTERLY

E-MAIL: CosmicComm@aol.com

INTERNET DOMAIN: CosmicAwareness.org

FAX: 360-352-6294

Avaton--Editor

Vikki T.--Sec. Treas.