DO INVISIBLE SECRET SERVICE AGENTS GUARD THE PRESIDENT?

QUESTION:

Audrey Patrick sent in a tabloid story from the January 15th Sun, called: "George Bush Protected By Invisible Body Guards: 'CIA Secret Revealed!' I'd like to read a little of this and ask Awareness if this is valid. It says: "Stunning infrared photos revealed President George Bush is guarded by invisible secret service agents.

What's more, a former CIA operative reveals, the Pentagon has a battalion of invisible Marines poised for an invasion of Iraq.

The incredible photos were taken by a 23-year-old graduate student who attends the prestigious Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She dabbles in optical and photographic research in her spare time.

Ashley Parris says she used infrared film with a specially designed and treated lens she developed, and was experimenting with it when she photographed the invisible entourage with President Bush.

"I also used a special developing process, but I can't go in to too much detail because the Secret Service, the FBI and the CIA are very upset over the photos," she says.

The young woman has been ordered by the government to pursue her research at a top-secret Pentagon laboratory.

The former CIA agent has confirmed what Ashley Parris' camera photographed.

"The Americans have solved the mystery of invisibility and are ready to use it against Iraq," says Klaus Werner, a former top-level West German spy and CIA employee.

The movie The Philadelphia Experiment was closer to the truth than everybody realizes," the agent continued.

"American plans to send the invisible Marines to Baghdad to grab Saddam Hussein and his top generals if war breaks out," says Werner, who is writing a book on his experiences with Project Spook.

Bush, who has had the invisible guards since he took office, actually masterminded the top-secret experiment while he was head of the CIA under former President Ford, according to Werner.

Bush's life has been saved at least twice by the invisible guards he helped create, Werner adds.

"The President was at an embassy dinner last spring when an Arab terrorist, posing as a diplomat, made a sudden lunge for Bush with a knife while only a yard away, the former agent recalls.

"But instead of stabbing Bush, he stabbed an invisible Secret Service agent standing in the way. Other invisible agents stepped in and overpowered the terrorist, knocking him to the ground. It happened so quickly that spectators thought the bogus diplomat had merely fainted.

In another encounter, an invisible agent realized that a spectator several feet from the President had a gun under his coat. The agent slipped up close to the man and took the weapon from its hiding place before the would-be assassin realized what was happening, according to Werner.

"When you see what seems to be open space around the President, when he leaves Air Force One or is walking in a crowd, he is really surrounded by a wall of invisible Secret Service agents," he explains.

Werner says he not only worked on Project Spook but was also one of the first to be made invisible.

"It's a very sophisticated technique, difficult for anyone who doesn't understand advanced physics. But as I understand it, lasers are used to bend light so that it can pass through a solid object, rendering it invisible to the human eye," he explains.

The German says early experiments were unpredictable and subjects would not know how long they would remain invisible.

"I was just about to stick Khadafy with a hypodermic full of AIDS contaminated blood when I suddenly became visible. I escaped by the skin of my teeth. Fortunately, the process was reactivated as soon as I got out into the sunlight," Werner says.

In the early days, test subjects also had to deal with dizziness and a form of seasickness, he adds.

"I suddenly became nauseous while spying on Iranian terrorists. Fortunately, when they saw vomit coming out of thin air, they thought it was a sign from Allah and gave up on their plan to put a bomb on a PanAm flight to New York."

Now, however, humans can remain invisible for as long as 72 hours. But it takes more than an hour to treat an individual in the light-bending chamber.

The Air Force has had problems with its stealth bomber, too, Werner claims. "It works fine as long as the plane is flying in a clear sky. But if it passes through a cloud, it disturbs electrically charged molecules, which makes it detectable on radar," he explains.

More than one agent has ended a shift with soggy pant legs and shoes, the result of dogs mistaking them for lamp posts or fire hydrants", Werner grinned."

This story is accompanied by photos that show what looks to be an outline of an invisible man walking along the side of President Bush and his wife. Another one shows President Bush fishing in the shallows of the oceans, and a secret service man standing along side of him, with his arms folded across his chest, and between the two of them is a fishing pole, just standing in mid-air, but evidently the line is taut out there, like an invisible person is holding it."

I'd like to ask Awareness to comment on this story.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as being accurate. This Awareness suggests that in readings some time back there were discussions of certain fish that could allow light to pass through their bodies, giving them a clarity like that of glass. This Awareness indicates that it was from experiments and research into this area that much of the information on invisibility and the bending of light was discovered.

President and Mrs. Bush
Walking their dog
accompanied by an invisible Secret Service agent.

(January 15, 1991 Sun)

This Awareness indicates that it is based on a principle of letting the light not only bend around the object, it actually bends around the atoms of the body, so that it passes through the body and allows entities to see what is on the far side of the body.

This Awareness indicates that the principle is relatively simple, even though the development would be of a high technology. This Awareness indicates that this is also how the UFOs obtain invisibility in the many reports where they simply disappear. This Awareness indicates that you may recall certain reports in the earlier days of the Mid-East war in which it was reported that planes would fly over Baghdad. They could be heard, but not seen.

This Awareness indicates it was more than just speed involved. These objects were actually invisible to the eye, in some cases.

Is This Technique Different From The Philadelphia Experiment?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

This technique sounds different than the Philadelphia Experiment, utilizing Einstein's Unified Field Theory. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is some difference; that it came as a kind of by-product of the experiments from the 40's. This Awareness indicates that in the present technology, the atoms of the object or individuals are not disrupted to the degree of potential danger as occurred in the earlier experiments, which had to do also with the warping of time by disrupting the atomic frequencies and vibrations of the time/space continuum.

This Awareness indicates that the present-day methods leave time intact and simply disrupt the space with the curvature of light around, through and between the atoms involved. This Awareness reminds you of some of the quantum physics experiments in which light would be sent through two holes in a stream, and would bend to reflect a pattern on a panel, to indicate a folding or movement of light that was unexpected, under normal circumstances.

This Explains UFOs As Large As a Football Field Inside

This Awareness indicates that this principle is in part used for this technology. The technology developing out of quantum physics. This Awareness indicates that you will also recall reports in which entities would step into a UFO to discover that it appeared larger, much larger on the inside than on the outside, such as a UFO appearing to be approximately 20 some feet in diameter on the outside, but upon stepping inside, it might have the appearance of the size of a football field. Such reports have been given.

This Awareness indicates that this also had to do with the alteration of light; that you must realize that light creates the illusion of matter that everyone experiences, in viewing what they term to be matter.

Are The President's Invisible Guards Naked?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In H.G. Wells' book The Invisible Man, the Invisible man had to be naked in order to be invisible. Is this also true with this present technique?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this does not appear to be a factor. It is a matter of creating a field around the entity which is comprised of a certain arrangement or ionization-type activity dealing with the photons of light, to permeate around atoms, to bend around the atoms.

This Awareness reminds you that an atom, if expanded to the size of a football field would be 99% space with the electron and proton being very small particles on the field. This Awareness indicates that this means that most of the atoms of the body are composed of mostly space, with tiny particles inside them, and if light can be bent in such a way so as to circumvent those particles and remain translucent as it travels through the body, going around the various particles, the particles then may be warped by light so as to appear out of the picture, or out of the view of one who's eyesight follows the light.

This Awareness indicates that you may have recollection of looking through a curved window or glass in which an object disappears as you move your head, and the curvature of the glass creates a curvature in light to cause the object to disappear, even though you know it is still there, and disappears only when your vision passes through a certain curvature of the glass.

Stage Magicians Bend Light With Mirrors to Create Invisibility

This Awareness indicates that it is similar in principle and that the atoms, whether part of the body or part of the clothing, are still just a collection of atoms, and can be made to appear invisible by the bending of light. This Awareness indicates some of the old stage tricks used by magicians in the past have made use of glass or mirrors that bent light to cause the appearance of something becoming invisible.

How Do The President's Guards Get Invisible?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Well, how do they become invisible? Do they step into some kind of chamber before? Or is there some sort of device that follows the President around that alters the light?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is not into disclosing anything that would leak government secrets or cause top secret information to be exposed through this channel; that this is a Top Secret project of the government; that It has said as much as can be said comfortably under these circumstances.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

How long can an entity stay invisible, and does it harm his health in any way?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that your own article indicated 72 hours. This Awareness indicates that this is an approximate time period, and that the technology is constantly being worked on for improvement. There is not seen to be any major side-affects in terms of problems if this is properly handled, according to the technology available; that long-term continuation and use of the technology by the same person could have some adverse effect over long periods of time.

This Awareness indicates that if it were not handled properly with the right kind of equipment and light, that with good technology and equipment, the experience could in fact be healthy for the entity, if properly administered. (sic)

The Wisdom of Awareness: -- ON VISUALIZING

This Awareness indicates that lying down, entities can visualize much better than when standing up; that the conscious mind becomes more scientific, mathematical, and more conceptual and rational when standing, and more imaginative, spontaneous, and relaxed and visionary when lying down. This Awareness suggests also that the head to the north when lying down can be of help. (Issue No. 82-22)

How Can We Tell If An Invisible Entity Enters Our House?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

This principle has some scary potential as far as the invasion of personal rights goes. Is there any way an entity could tell if an invisible government agent was approaching him or getting into his house or something?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this could be most difficult; that it is a form of cloaking or being deceptive, just as if someone enters your home at night when you can't see, except that it is even more potent because you do not expect invisible people in your life, and you may feel more secure because you do not see anyone present.

This Awareness indicates that the question of right or wrong morality of a weapon or tool of this nature seems almost insignificant to discuss in a world who's technologies are so highly geared toward tools and weapons of destruction. It is just another high-tech weapon in a world filled with high-tech weapons.

U.S. Has High-Tech Weaponry Undreamed Of

This Awareness reminds you It recently indicated that there were high-tech weapons available to this nation that would keep it ahead for at least 100 years; that there are things undreamed of in terms of weaponry in the arsenal of this nation. This Awareness indicates that it is not the purpose of these readings to go into disclosing high-tech weapons, to discussing high-tech weapons; that this in itself is a kind of phenomenon that has been discussed in public newspapers, and therefore, some comment is appropriate.

In general, however, this Awareness does not wish to get into disclosing information about these high-tech weapons. It is not important for the average member of your organization to be privy to secret information on high-tech weapons. It is better for them not to have this kind of information, nor is it safe for them or for yourself to be disclosing too much information of this nature.

Touching on the peripheries is one thing, especially when it has already been publicized. Going into it in depth would be quite inappropriate.

Any Device That Can Detect Invisible Entities?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Would wearing infrared goggles or sunglasses, or the so-called aura goggles, enable an entity to see an invisible invader of this type?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative; that heat is still radiating from such entities, even though the light is bent. This Awareness indicates that radar would not be able to pick up and even heat sensors would not be able to pick up if such a being had other devices to block these energies from being read, but generally, without such blocking devices, the heat registering infrared glasses or camera lens and film could photograph or recognize these beings.

This Awareness indicates that the entity using her special camera did need some modification to the infrared type of photography in order to photograph. It was in part for this reason the government allowed her to continue her experiments, because they too would like to have use of a camera that could spot beings who were cloaked with invisibility. This Awareness indicates that generally speaking, the average person would have no way to detect whether there were invisible agents in proximity or in one's home.

Don't Get Paranoid: Invisible Agents Are Not Watching You

This Awareness indicates this statement is most likely to enhance paranoias that are already becoming active in the minds of many so that many entities who imagine they are being watched will have further argument and further reasons for further paranoia. This Awareness wishes, however, to suggest that it is extremely expensive to create this kind of invisibility field around an agent. Agents are well paid, and that entities should not expect that they are likely to be the target of such expense and effort, unless they are really high on a "wanted" list, or involved in some extremely important activity. This Awareness indicates there are too many entities who even would believe their little research project to be of such magnitude that they may still assume the government has agents standing around their desk studying their drawings or writings. This Awareness indicates it is probably as likely as having little green men three inches tall coming in to study your papers while you sleep.

This Awareness indicates that It certainly does not like to give this kind of information because too many people assume they are the target for this kind of government spying and having such information will feed their paranoia enormously. This Awareness cautions against that. It is foolishness. Perhaps 50 years from now this will become commonplace, so that if an entity were being investigated there could be invisible agents sent to check out the entity, but at present time, this is in very rare use for purposes of extreme importance only.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKRI):

Since the invisibility focuses around light-waves, wouldn't there be normal sounds connected with such agents, like the sounds of footsteps or when the agent was stabbed as he made a noise?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative; that entities can of course be as quiet as possible. In a noisy room, such sounds would go unnoticed.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There are ads out for surplus military binoculars and other devices that enable one to look into total darkness and see as much as a half a mile, like it was daylight. These are available. Would such binoculars and devices detect an invisible person or persons if they were in the view, in the range?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear this would be effective.

The Sheep Rancher Who Fell Into a Vat (The Story Said He Became Invisible)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There is also a story about a sheep rancher who fell into a vat of sheep dip and his body became invisible for 33 hours. This was in Australia. Is there any truth to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this does not appear to be ... it does not show clearly that this is correct. There does not appear to be a clear indication that this is accurate. It appears this may be simply a fabrication for the sake of earning money from, or attention from passing a story that seems bizarre. There are many stories today that are retold simply because they are bizarre, and there are many entities who make up bizarre stories.

This Awareness reminds you that this is not new. In the American frontier days entities stood around entertaining each other with stories of great and fantastic feats and accomplishments, including stories that still are told in some circles, such as the stories of Arkansas mosquitoes who dive-bomb the camper, who, seeking to protect himself from their bite, grabs an iron skillet and a hammer and when the mosquitoes poke their stinger through the skillet he simply bends them over and traps them.

This Awareness indicates that these are stories told for entertainment; that there are now many entertaining stories that are drawing payment through tabloid publication that have no substance whatsoever, and yet they sell papers and entertain the public and leave the public wondering whether there is any truth to them.

This Awareness indicates that the sheep dip story appears to be one such example.

Ed's Note: If CAC had released this reading 10 years ago, it probably would have added to the paranoia at that time. Hopefully, entities can handle this information today. For more on invisibility, please refer to the following "Revelations of Awareness" newsletters: (The Philadelphia Experiment): 82-24; 90-07; 80-09; 91-11; 95-08 (Secret of Invisibility Revealed); 86-15; 84-17; 93-08; 89-06; $3.00 each from CAC.

DID RUSSIA CAPTURE A HUGE UFO? (And What Is That Band of Holes on the Edge of the Craft?)

QUESTION:

Harry Teufert wanted to ask about this tabloid photo printed back in July, and again on March 19th of this huge UFO hovering in a Soviet hangar, which was sold to the United States, and he writes: "The Weekly World News article shows a picture of the UFO which is a most unusual picture. See how close-up it is taken? As such, we are treated to the view of how the outer edge of the craft is arranged. Notably, all those holes which seem to be made into an outer band of some sort which goes all around the thing.

Usually pictures are made at such a great distance such detail could not even show up. Incidentally, these holes are not windows. Why so many? And surely not just useless ornamentation either! Can Awareness explain what those holes are in that photo?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as related to the power system used by the craft, wherein energy is emitted through these holes to cover the outside of the craft and create a force-field that allows for it to attain antigravity qualities. This Awareness indicates that this is more thoroughly explained or shown in the Japanese video on UFOs. This has been publicized in Japan as to how the crafts attain this force-field and use this force-field for their propulsion and antigravity qualities.

This Awareness indicates the holes are a way of transferring this certain polarized energy from inside the motor or power system of the craft to the outside shell of the craft; the entire shell being covered with a field of energy which allows it to attain antigravity status. This Awareness indicates that the technology as that which is beyond explanation in this kind of outlet; that drawings and other technological information would need to be presented for clear understanding of the principles of these powering systems.

This Awareness indicates that essentially in response to the question itself, the holes are used as part of the propulsion and antigravity drive system.

What Killed Billy Meiers' Tree?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In one of the Billy Meiers videos of the beamships, it shows a huge old tree, maybe a hundred years old, possibly an oak tree near his house suddenly begin to die after the Pleiadian beamships hovered there, and in a few months it was completely dead. Can Awareness explain what energy or thing, if related at all to the beam-ship, killed this tree?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears to have received a dose of radiation that led to its dying.

Major Corporations Doing Work For Aliens

QUESTIONS:

Dave Lowe, one of our members, who travels around the world selling cellular phones for Motorola, mentioned in a letter a request to: "How about a listing of major corporations who are controlled by or knowingly doing work for the aliens, so that entities can make a decision whether to keep working there or maybe release info they come across. I am very curious about my company, Motorola, and everyone, including dirt-poor countries who can't even feed their own people want cellular phones. Next I'm heading for Mexico. I leave for Guadalajara immediately. It is a priority rush to get it in and operating pronto!

"I am aware of both an alien and Russian presence in Mexico. It could be interesting."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that many of the corporations are listed in the Hamilton book: Alien Magic. There is also a paper more recently written on the Patomac and relating to alien phenomena which is directly addressing the corporation/alien alliance. This information can be gathered from these two publications. The Interpreter can assist in getting a copy of the Patomac information for publication through CAC or for reference for the research into this.*

The Hamilton information is available through purchase from several sources. This has already been mentioned in the Cosmic Awareness Communications publications.

*He never did and a search of the Internet on this document met in failure.

Where Have All The Indians Gone?

QUESTION:

Richard Geraci of Grand Junction, Colorado, has a question: "Where did all the Indians go? There were thousands of them living in the Southwest and it's like they all vanished overnight! What happened to them? Also, why did they start trying to hide by building cliff-dwellings and living underground? What was hunting them?"

VISIT THE TEMPLE OF LIGHT IN YOUR DAILY MEDITATIONS

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the question is not thoroughly expressed. It is unclear as to whether the entity is referring to present time, or an earlier time in history. This Awareness indicates that many of the entities who were on reservations have left to live in the cities, to work on farms or in other situations because the reservations did not satisfy their needs. This Awareness indicates that if it is referring to ancient or earlier times, the question needs also to include what areas, or tribes are being referred to.

This Awareness indicates there were many in earlier history who traveled to other regions. In some cases they were massacred by warring tribes or by the white man. In South America there were hundreds of thousands killed in certain ceremonies that were part of the alien influence on the priests of the time.

This Awareness indicates that it appears the entity is referring to modern Indians having disappeared from local reservations. It appears that most of these entities simply left the reservations to merge with the outside civilizations.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In times past, did they start living in cliffs and caves...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that down in the Southern part of the United States there were examples of the cave and cliff dwellers. This Awareness indicates that these entities lived in the cliffs, that they might be able to have advantage against elements and also against intruders. They dug cities or homes as caves in the cliffs. Many of these cliff-dweller's homes may still be seen from highways in Arizona and New Mexico.

SERIAL KILLERS LIKE TED BUNDY: ARE THEY ALIENS IN HUMAN BODIES?

QUESTION:

There's been this phenomenon the last few years around the country and particularly here in Washington State of serial killers. Were Ted Bundy and possibly other serial killers aliens in human bodies? They seem to have high IQs, and the tie-in with sex and low priority of human life, which matches the Grey's description.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these entities tend to be demented humans who let the calculation of thought take precedence over their more compassionate emotional qualities. There were certain events that triggered this kind of behavior. This Awareness indicates that an entity with high IQ isn't necessarily cold and calculating, but if one is cold and calculating and has a high IQ, they become even more dangerous and therefore, may have more victims over longer periods of time before getting caught.

This Awareness indicates that the entity who kills out of rage is more likely to be caught because of mistakes than the one who kills from a calculating and thoughtful manner because the entity is more careful in not leaving clues. It is partly for this reason that the serial killers, the ones who continue over long periods of time meet a profile of a certain degree of intelligence that has allowed them to survive in their disruptive antisocial practice, whereas those who are not so clever are more quickly caught and therefore do not survive long enough to be classed as serial killers.

They are stopped before they can rack up a string of victims. This Awareness does not see any particular connection in a direct sense to the aliens in this regard. The cold and calculating qualities of the mind may have some similarity but it is not seen that aliens are behind these serial killers, or their behavior. It is seen that drugs often play a part, and mental derangement, emotional distortions often play a part in this behavior.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Have there always been this many serial killers around, or is it just a phenomena of the last few years?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a recent development, partly because of the breakdown of society's standards that were prevalent prior to the 50's, partly to the increased use of drugs which have altered reality for many and caused some to become greedy for new thrills, partly because of the heavy accent on violence that has become characteristic of this nation since the days of the Vietnam war and the training of many to kill without compunction and the movies that promote this kind of passionless killing, such as the James Bond movies and others that became even more callous.

"Slasher" Movies Say Violence Is Part of Life

This Awareness indicates that the graphics used in the killings in some movies, the "slasher" movies, all of these have done things to the minds of entities to give them a sense that violence is part of life, whereas prior to the 50's, any movies that portrayed a killing were usually focused on the capturing of a killer or the efforts of a killer to escape punishment, and not on the killing action itself.

This Awareness indicates that the emphasis in recent times has focused on the actual act of the killing so that entities see it as a kind of exciting act or experience it vicariously through the actions of others so many times that it does not seem far from their own consciousness. This Awareness indicates that when entities get excitement from "slasher" movies, it becomes easier for them to imagine doing such things themselves and they lose perspective that there is another life involved which is not being focused on, that life of the victim. If they can keep their focus that the victim is being deprived of a life and that victim has certain rights, the victim may never become a victim.

This Awareness indicates that many entities begin to see the act of violence as the focal point and fail to look at the victim except as an object, an ingredient needed for the act. They lose compassion for the person behind the object selected to play the victim. It does have a negative effect, portraying so much violence. This is not necessarily dangerous or leading to crimes for everyone, but for some entities, this portrayal of violence in such a manner, pushes some entities over the edge, and it only takes a few to have a large number of serial killers in your society.

Perhaps one in a million who watch these "slasher" films is all that would actually fall into emulating the violence, but that one could leave a string of victims, and that is far too many, just to allow room for "slasher" film entertainment.

Do "Slasher" Movies Attract Low Spirits?*FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Dark forces and low spirits Awareness has indicated are attracted to entities who are involved deeply in alcohol and drugs and so forth. Are they also attracted to those entities who watch these kinds of creepy "slasher" type movies with lots of blood and gore?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these entities become more open to this kind of darkness in their lives, and therefore, lose much protection against such forces; that entities who stay away from this kind of thing will have more Light Beings protecting them and keeping them psychically and mentally and spiritually clear. This Awareness indicates in this manner, the purity and clarity of an entity is better assured if the entity avoids those kinds of violent films.

DID RUSSIAN SPACECRAFT DISCOVER AN ALIEN GRAVEYARD ON THE MOON?

QUESTION:

Thomas Love sent in what looks like a tabloid article that claims a cemetery was found on the moon by Russian spacecraft. I'll read just a little of this: "A vast alien graveyard complete with thousands of bizarre inscribed headstones has been photographed on the far side of the moon. Even more incredible, say space scientists, the cemetery is still being used today!"

Two Russian scientists claim the cemetery covers 50 square miles of a flat lunar landscape called the Pavlov Plains, on the side of the moon we never see. The two men say the graveyard stretches as far as the eye can see. The aerial photo of the graveyard was first taken in 1962 when the Russians sent an unmanned flight around the moon, seven years before the US landed a man there, and later, during a secret flyby the pair said.

It says that the tombstones appear to be of two distinct types. One type is of a pyramidal shape, and the second type is amazingly similar to those found in earthly cemeteries. Both types seem to be made of a strange metallic substance. Some of the gravestones may have been there for thousands of years while others look fairly recent. A good many in fact are definitely less than a few years old. What's most amazing though are the gravestone's shapes and the inscriptions on them.

The pyramid shaped gravestones are the oldest. They believe they are about 4 feet tall and bear a close resemblance to the Egyptian pyramids. Is there any truth to this, or is this yet another tabloid fabrication?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there appears to be substance to the information; that this has been used by alien travelers in this region for approximately the past seven thousand years. That even before that there were some graves scattered in the area; that it became a kind of official burial ground approximately 7,000 years ago for extraterrestrials in this solar system.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Those gravestones that look like they could come from any modern American cemetery; what about those?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that they simply became the model used in the past 2,000 years, because they were easier to create. It simply became a different shape; that styles change in everything, even in tombstones, and even with other cultures.

A SIX CAR PILE-UP IN WASHINGTON D.C.

(How Aliens Deceive Entities For Use In Experiments)

Somebody sent me a copy of a report written by Bud Hopkins from the Intruder Foundation, a special report for members. I'd like to read a little of this and ask Awareness to comment. He writes: "In January of 1988, two young women students at American University in Washington DC attended a party in a suburb of the city. Around 2:00 a.m., while driving home through an unfamiliar area of warehouses and small factories, they realized they were lost. But then they suddenly came upon a most peculiar sight—a six car pile-up in the middle of an intersection. Six vehicles lay smashed together, and yet there was absolutely no one in sight. There were no police, no paramedics, no spectators, no drivers, no passengers in the six cars, and no injured people; nothing but a deserted six-car pile-up in the middle of a traffic-free intersection. There were no emergency vehicles, no flashing lights, no flares, no sirens, no sounds. The two women felt very uneasy about the eerie stillness of this abandoned tableau, and though they slowed down at the scene of the accident, they didn't stop. They arrived home unusually late that night, puzzled and confused by an experience that hadn't really made sense.

A few months later, in the spring of 1988, the young women who had been driving that night read my book Intruders and wrote me a letter. In her note Kerry described only a childhood missing time experience and a later series of disturbing, UFO-related dreams. We met, I worked with her, and eventually a number of UFO abduction encounters emerged, events which had taken place at intervals throughout her life. We had known one another for at least a year before she told about the late-night drive in Washington and the peculiar six-car accident she remembered having seen. She explained that this incident had always bothered her, and that now, in the light of other things she was recalling, she decided to tell me about it. What we ultimately uncovered about this incident has added important new information to our knowledge of the UFO abduction phenomenon and the deceptiveness which is so often part of it.

On its face, everything about this story of a deserted six-car pile-up was implausible, and yet I knew Kerry to be a completely credible witness with a good memory. I suspected, of course, that the massive wreck never took place, and that her recollection was a cover story imposed to mask a UFO abduction and the period of missing time it entailed. The first step in my investigation was a telephone call to "Ann," Kerry's companion that night, to obtain her side of the story. Ann recalled the odd six-car pile-up very well; significantly, she had even described it to her mother the week she remembered its having occurred. She corroborated virtually every detail Kerry had related, and added that she often wondered why they hadn't stopped at the accident scene. "Someone might have been hurt, but we truly didn't see anybody in any of the cars." I asked if they had later reported the accident to the police; they had not, and that, too, seemed odd, to all three of us. The whole experience, Ann felt, had been almost dreamlike.

To further explore the matter Ann and Kerry separately agreed to undergo regressive hypnosis. The results of these sessions are both surprising and important. The two women's mutually supporting accounts indicate that though Kerry was abducted, Ann was not; she was apparently held in the familiar "switched off" state of suspended animation during the time her friend was taken into a hovering UFO. Under hypnosis, Kerry recalled first seeing the six-vehicle wreck down the road, then slowing down and finally stopping. Several UFO occupants approached their stalled vehicle while Ann stared straight ahead, unmoving. The aliens took Kerry out and walked her into what she saw now as a UFO instead of a deserted automobile accident. After a typical abduction examination she was returned and told that what she saw she will remember as a six-vehicle accident. She got back into the car next to a still-staring Ann, started the motor, and drove off as her friend's normal animation returned.

Ann's account under hypnosis began with the scene of the wrecked automobiles and faded away as she remembered their own car slowing to a stop. (Before hypnosis, as I have pointed out, neither woman had recalled the car stopping). Ann's very next memory was of their car moving once more, driving away from the accident scene as she looked back through the rear window. The most important new aspect of this case, therefore, involves Ann, the non-abductee bystander, rather than Kerry, the one actually abducted that night. Since I first encountered the phenomenon of the screen memory nearly fifteen years ago, I have known that UFO occupants can alter the memories of abductees at will. But this Washington case establishes a major new corollary: identical screen memories—plausible or outrageous—can be imposed with equal ease upon non-abductee witnesses to the same encounter. Inconvenient witnesses present no problems, and thus abductions in semi-public areas can remain covert.

Some researchers have previously defined a screen memory as an image invented by the abductee him/herself to soften the impact of disturbing UFO reality upon one's own psyche. The Washington case clearly refutes the idea that screen memories are always self-generated; in this instance an identically detailed, outlandish screen memory was obviously imposed upon two different people, one an abductee and another merely her companion, apparently as a cover story to mask their late arrival at home. One cannot escape the conclusion that this image of a non-existent six-car pile-up was "played into their minds" from the outside by UFO occupants bent on deception. And this incident is only one of a number of similar cases I've looked into since that time, all of which underline the extraordinary "mind-control" powers obviously at the disposal of UFO occupants, available for use on anyone at any time.

Alien appearances have been disguised hundreds of ways, most often by externally imposed imagery. Though the range of screen memories is surprisingly broad, animal images predominate. One abductee, Virginia Horton, remembered talking with an intelligent gray "deer," and in a West Coast abduction case a woman described a five-foot tall "owl" that came walking down the highway and peered at her over the hood of her Jeep. A different pattern of deception occurs when abductees are assured by the UFO occupants that they are safe and will not be hurt, only to have instruments penetrate their abdomens or needles thrust up into their nostrils, procedures which sometimes cause blinding flashes of pain. By contrast, I remember with gratitude that my dentist used to warn me of coming pain: "Now this may hurt a little, but only for an instant." He was usually right, and I appreciated his honesty. UFO occupants, however, are not hesitant to promise safety and deliver pain. Telling the truth to their subjects seems as irrelevant to them as it would be for us to be honest with our laboratory animals. Though the aliens do not gratuitously inflict pain, they surely do not feel the need either to warn us of it, to explain their procedures or to ask our permission first. And since the abduction process seems invariably to begin in early childhood or even infancy, this kind of communication would be impossible in any case. By the time an abductee is old enough to understand what might be going on, he or she has already been thoroughly trained and conditioned and is by habit, one might say, "putty" in alien hands. Sadly, deception is as much a part of the

UFO phenomena as are flashing lights, examination tables and small gray figures."

Will Awareness comment on that article please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the information as being very informative and as having been analyzed fairly to present additional meat for the puzzle (sic). This Awareness indicates that the entity Bud Hopkins as one who does much in regard to working with those who have been abducted by aliens, and that this is an addition to his previous body of work. It appears that the information is valid, and there is not seen any discrepancies involved.

This Awareness indicates that the impressions that the aliens are able to create for one to recall have much to do with their technology of being able to implant memory. It is common for them to implant certain memories. Often these memories are used to steer them in the wrong direction so that if entities begin to recall something, they run (up) against a certain memory that causes them to avoid a more important and actual memory by being side-tracked with some deflective memory.

How Allens Make Use of Owls

This Awareness indicates it is common for people to see owls; this has been a tool used by the aliens as one of the images to deflect entities from real experiences into some hallucinatory (sic) image. This Awareness indicates that it is likened unto a situation wherein a hypnotist who had in some way violated his patient might create for the patient a post-hypnotic suggestion, that the entity could not remember what happened, but if the entity should begin to recall anything, the entity will remember only the owl, or some other image, and the entity then later, when beginning to remember what occurred, will run into this owl and not recall what actually happened as a violation to themselves.

This appears to be the way by which the alien magic is used to condition or distort the mental images of an entity so that the entity cannot remember clearly. If one seeking to help an entity, an abductee, overcome the blocks, were to run into that memory of the owl, for example, or whatever other distraction is offered, if the entity were able to recognize that this is a block to prevent memory unfoldment and could suggest to the entity: "Go beyond the owl; it is nothing more than fantasy!", it might be easier for the entity then to get past the owl and into the real occurrence of what happened (sic), the discovery of the real events.

This Awareness indicates that this six-car pile-up apparently was an image projected to the minds of these entities to cause them to lock on that image so as to not recall or register other events that occurred to them.

The Curiosity of Aliens About Human Sex

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There's one other interesting thing in this report, where it went on. He writes: "As we now know, researchers have seen in hundreds of cases evidence of the profound interest UFO occupants have exhibited in basic human sexuality. This alien curiosity extends to both the physical and emotional aspects of reproduction, and to both the biological and psychological processes of parenting. Because of this long-term interest in human affairs we can assume that the aliens are aware of the enormous power of our instinctive maternal and paternal feelings. In this context it has been especially disturbing to me to hear so frequently a particular kind of report: many abductees describe having been told, from their earliest childhood abduction recollections onward, that certain UFO occupants are their real parents! A very young abductee is often systematically trained to believe, in effect, that the woman who lives at home, on earth, is a false mother, an unrelated impostor. The young abductee often holds this subtly imposed concept well on into later life, passively accepting the idea that the woman from whom one was physically delivered after nine months of shared lifeblood, the woman by whom one was nursed and protected and nurtured and loved, is an impostor. The one who truly loves the child, according to this idea, is one of those doing the abducting and conducting the physical experiments! And the basis for this often very strongly held belief is solely- solely- the word of an alien.

How can one judge the truth of this proposition if, since infancy, the young, impressionable abductee has been told again and again by an obviously untrustworthy source that his/her real parent (or parents) is not of this world? Even if one grants the possibility of genetic engineering in such cases, and that alien genes might in some way be involved in the abductee's conception, the human being who bore and reared that child is in no way an impostor. Considering all we know about the UFO occupants' intense study of human parenting and the patterns of deception routinely employed during abductions, one comes to an inescapable conclusion: these stories of alien parentage offer a clever and efficient way of rendering young abductees more tractable, more easily handled. "Do what we tell you to do, love us, obey us, and give us your loyalty, because after all, we're your real parents." Essentially these alien-parentage tales should be regarded as lies - both more complex and infinitely more dangerous than implanted stories of six-car pile-ups and five-foot owls. Sadly, one can only guess how many times these subversive accounts have damaged the fragile texture of family life around the world."

Now, my question is: Is he aware of the half-breeds Awareness is talking about or is he proposing that all of these entities referred to do not have any type of genetic engineering from aliens?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity may be aware of half-breeds but is not speaking of half-breeds in this dissertation. The entity is speaking of humans who have been abducted and are being falsely informed that their parents are not truly their parents. This Awareness indicates that this is not at all uncommon; that the Handlers, which is the term used by these entities who abduct others on a repeated basis, enjoy the affection that humans may give to them. They especially like the idea of humans worshipping them, and they are often seeking to create a bonding between themselves and the humans whom they abduct so as to have greater loyalty.

It makes it easier for them to handle the abductee when the abductee will do anything to please the abductor. This Awareness indicates that the action of abducting a human by these entities can become strained and difficult for the abductors if the human is not a willing participant, and therefore, they do things, say things, and give drugs or other stimulation to the human to make the human feel the experience is joyful.

If, for example, there is something unpleasant in the abduction, they will often finish the abduction by giving the entity a euphoric drug or electronic stimulation so that the entity believes he or she has experienced something wonderful, and this will be foremost in the memory of the entity and all of the unpleasantness will be pushed down from conscious memory levels.

The Man Called Bruce: The Aliens Are Milking Him of Sperm

This Awareness indicates that there is one entity who has been making a circuit around the various UFO groups who goes by the name of Bruce, who tells of being abducted by aliens for the purpose of their milking him of sperm in order that they can produce half-breed children from him. This entity has learned that the aliens have difficulty in keeping their half-breeds alive, if they do not have a bonding with the parent because the bonding that humans have helps to strengthen the immunity system and the general vital energies of the child.

Many children die simply because they are not given close physical affection and therefore, he has been asked by these aliens to give special attention to some of his offspring which they are keeping in order to make these children feel special and feel good about themselves. The aliens having for thousands of years worked hard to breed out any emotional qualities, found that they had bred out most of their reproductive qualities, and had to enter into the activities of cloning through the assistance of the Reptoids, and the cloning process leaves them feeling an allegiance to the Reptoids, but they are also dissatisfied because they see with humans a kind of system that reproduces without cloning and which gives the offspring a feeling of personal identity and joy and emotions which they themselves can't experience.

They are therefore working with humans to try to bring back that which they bred out of themselves over eons of time. They are hoping that by understanding human sexuality and affection, they can somehow through the half-breed program, create back into their race a new reproductive system mimicking and using that of humans. They tell those whom they abduct that they are here to help prolong the human race, which will be unable to reproduce itself within 50 years unless they are able to collect sperm and eggs and help the humans to keep life going.

They say that it is because of the radiation and pollution on earth. This is totally false. They are doing it to try to preserve their own race and are using humans as guinea pigs to help themselves keep their race alive, hopefully by extracting from humans that which they already lost in themselves from their genetic engineering and experiments in the ancient past, in their work of trying to rid themselves of emotions and feelings so that they could be more technologically efficient.

This Awareness indicates that this is the nut-shell of the situation, and this is the reason for the abductions, and experiments on humans.

THE QUESTION THAT ABDUCTEES HAVE ALREADY GIVEN PERMISSION TO THE ALIENS TO BE ABDUCTED

FOLLOW-UP (MORE BUD HOPKINS):

The last part of this report is also rather interesting and confirms what Awareness has just said. I'll read this: "Another equally dangerous but much less frequently reported story apparently told by UFO occupants to their very young abductees is this: "You have no right to object to our taking you because you've already given your permission." Often this self-serving explanation is fleshed out with imagery having to do with "an earlier life" or even, in a few rare cases, a previous life as an alien (UFO occupant, inter-dimensional, time-traveler or whatever term one prefers). Otherwise intelligent people, who might regard with deep suspicion any such statement coming from the mouth of a mere fellow human being, frequently accept "permission accounts" as the unvarnished truth—especially if they emerge from a recollected encounter with UFO occupants. And there are some in whom this has been so deeply ingrained that they actively try to press this belief onto others, telling abductees who do not agree with them that they have no right to be angry or frightened or upset if they or their children are being seized against their wills. “You gave your permission,” they insist, “either now or in some earlier life, whether you remember it or not.” Just as some people do not believe in rape —“She was asking for it,” “subconsciously she really wanted it,” etc.—these avid permission-believers will not accept as true an abductee’s statement that he/she did not give permission for these abductions, would never do so under any conditions, and desperately wants the abductions to stop.

As an illustration of the absurdity of the unremembered-permission idea, a young man was once passionately maintaining to an older female abductee the theory that in an earlier life she had somehow unconsciously granted the aliens permission to seize her whenever they chose. The abductee was quite naturally angered by this assertion, and after a moment she demanded that the young permission-believer immediately hand over to her his car keys, bankbook, and wallet. He was taken aback by her order, and refused to hand over anything. The woman explained herself this way: “I remember, even if you don’t, that in a previous reincarnation you promised to give me all your worldly possessions whenever I chose to ask for them, simply as an exercise in humility.” After all, any unremembered permission or promise from “an earlier life” is exactly as valuable and exactly as unprovable as any other.

After years of investigation we know many things about the modus operandi of the UFO abduction phenomenon. We know that deception is central to the covert nature of alien behavior. Within the abduction experience something much more efficient than human brainwashing takes place routinely, and abductees’ recollections can be altered at will. Human subjects can be made to vividly see things that were never there, like talking deer and six-car automobile accidents. As their real parents are impostors, and that they themselves are literally the children of their captors. Normally rational adult abductees can be trained to feel that once, in some vague, earlier life, they gave permission for the aliens to do whatever they wish for all time, to themselves or even to their own children, no matter how damaging or demeaning.

We know that UFO occupants have their own agenda and that we are not being offered much trustworthy information about their goals, their nature or their methods. We know that they do not seem to be either deliberately hurting us or deliberately helping us. They seem to be neither malevolent nor benign. As humans, we know infinitely more about ourselves than we do about such shadowy, elusive entities as UFO occupants. We know that these abduction experiences, as recalled by the subjects themselves, are often frightening, sometimes painful, and supportive of one another rather than hurtful, but such is not always the way we behave. A woman I’ve recently worked with has had a series of abduction encounters in which she was paralyzed, examined, and, among other things, made to have intercourse with an unknown male abductee. She has recalled another experience in which she was immobilized while her thirteen-year-old daughter was abducted, for what purpose she could only guess. This woman, understandably, is feeling angry, frightened and powerless. In a search for help and understanding she attended a New England abductee support group in which she was vehemently told that she had no right to express those emotions. She was informed that it was wrong to feel such “negative” things since she had undoubtedly given her permission to the aliens to do as they wished, even though she couldn’t recall having done so. To make matters worse, she was told that as an abductee she was herself part alien, “one with the Visitors.” Now those who have enough blind faith to believe such things can believe them, but no one has a right to try to inflict these ideas on unwilling others, such as a young mother whose adolescent child has recently been abducted. The attempt to “scold” an abductee into blaming herself for the pain and anger she was experiencing at alien hands is nothing less than an act of sadism.

Our responsibilities are great. We must continue our investigations on two fronts—as objective scientists, gathering evidence and searching for patterns, and as de facto healers, seeking to bind up the psychic wounds inflicted on those who have been regularly undergoing such disturbing events. But at each step of the way, and until new evidence surfaces about the nature of UFO abductions, we need to avoid falling into either of two equally miring ideological bogs: First, we should never regard ourselves as the enemies of UFO occupants; that is a sure path to paranoia and despair. We must remain open to the possible value of what many people have described as the broadening nature of the UFO contact experience. To recognize the negative aspects of abductions is not to assume that those unsettling results were deliberately intended. A homely example will explain more fully what I mean. Suppose you are sitting on a bus, calmly reading your newspaper, but your foot extends a bit into the aisle. Suddenly there’s an excruciating pain; you look up to see a 300-pound blind man standing on your foot. It is clear that he did not intend to hurt you, but that doesn’t help the pain or the fact that you now have a broken toe. In fifteen years of abduction research, I’ve encountered not a shred of evidence that suggests UFO occupants are innately evil. But, sadly, in the meantime I’ve seen the equivalent of hundreds upon hundreds of broken toes.

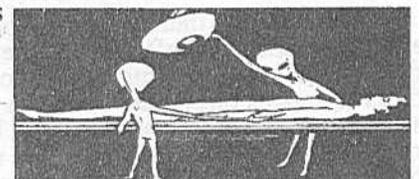

The second ideological trap is more seductive. We must vehemently guard against letting our optimistic hopes about the UFO phenomenon obscure our sense of reality. There are those who tell us, on no firm evidence, that the UFO occupants must surely be friendly, helpful and benign, and so we should overlook our fear and pain and simply trust the Space Brothers, welcome the Visitors. This is a little like offering the 300 pound blind man your other foot on the grounds that after all he’s probably a nice, well-meaning person. Of all the things we know about UFO occupants, two features stand out: their innate deceptiveness and their power to implant self-serving ideas and images at will. One should no more trust an alien assurance of any kind than one would trust an Air Force handout on UFO reality.

We owe our allegiance to only one source—our fellow human beings. Without regarding UFO occupants (aliens), interdimensionals, time-travelers, whatever) as foes, we must never allow ourselves to be used or misled by them to the point that we become more apologists for alien depredations. Humans must come first, on every front.”

That was the end of his report.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this has been well thought out and well spoken; that the entity does have a clear understanding of the situation.

"Support Groups" For Human Abductees?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

That report suggests that a whole new stratum is being opened up in a field of psychology and counseling. He mentioned "support groups" for alien abductions. That's the first I heard that they had a support group for people who'd been abducted.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is not that uncommon; that for the last several years there have been groups, usually springing out of the UFO groups around the country, which are made up of abductees who come together to discuss and to relate their experiences with each other in a way that helps them to cope with their own problems through the sharing process. In some cases they bring in special quest speakers on the situation. They exchange information and share books and material relating to abductions.

This is seen as an important part of the UFO scene, and is rather common around the country, especially in larger cities.

Can a "Contract" With Aliens be Overridden? (What About Repaying Karmic Debts?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Mr. Hopkins scoffs at the idea of entities making a contract or agreement in a previous lifetime. Awareness has indicated that this is common. IS there anything that can override this? If a person, an abductee has made a contract, like he was saying, that humans come first?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that no entity should be bound by contracts made outside of their present awareness. No entity should be bound by contracts in previous lifetimes, except as may be dictated by karma. This Awareness indicates that an entity can carry over from one lifetime to another, karma that is their choice to work off, but if they are being told .... This Awareness wishes to back up .... Karma that they choose upon entry into a new life, as that which will occur in that life cycle, but if they are told by some other being: "You owe me this karma!" this is not valid grounds for having to repay the karma.

The entity will simply, by the forces that operate in his or her life, end up repaying the karma if it is truly owed, or the entity may somehow escape payment of the karma through the Law of Grace. This Awareness indicates that no entity should consciously agree to repay a debt that someone claims is owed from a previous lifetime, nor should any entity feel an obligation just because it "might" have been owed from a previous lifetime.

How Karmic Debts Are Usually Repaid

If it is truly owed, the lifetime you live will find a way of extracting the karmic debt from you and repaying it to the other. It is often that an entity will do something for another person; it will be done willingly, and the entity in doing it will be pleased with doing it and this is the way most karmic debts are repaid. Seldom does one come into a life holding a karmic debt and have to have that debt extracted, like one having to have a tooth pulled.

This Awareness indicates that if it doesn't feel good, it is probably not right for you to have to repay some debt that is claimed by another as a karmic debt from a previous lifetime. If you truly feel that you want to do something for someone, it may well be that you are fulfilling a karmic debt. This Awareness indicates that it has been suggested that with the philosophy that you may owe somebody something from a previous lifetime, therefore you better give them something; with that philosophy, they could be extracting information and material and services from you throughout your life, as could everyone else. There would be no limit as to how badly you could be used by others. It would be an excuse to draw everything from you and leave nothing.

This Awareness indicates that true karma is not something that debt collectors are privileged to go after. True karma is that which is willingly repaid, because you know subconsciously that you owe this person something or you feel a great desire to give them something without even knowing why.

This Awareness indicates that it is common for entities to replay their debt to someone without even knowing they are repaying the debt. They simply like the person and want to do something favorable for them. This Awareness indicates that no entity should allow others to dictate a debt collection upon them on the basis that it came from another lifetime agreement.

Who Is Trying to Kill Billy Meiers?

QUESTION:

On the Billy Meiers video, Billy was interviewed and he said that there have been 7 different attempts on his life. I believe this started back in 1980. He showed bullet holes in his house and so forth. I'd like to ask ... this was in Switzerland .... who was trying to remove Billy Meiers at that time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that one attempt was from the German government; this not the German government, but from certain Nazi forces that had connections with the previous German government; two attempts from the United States Security Agencies, and an attempt by an alien UFO which the entity mistook for a Pleiadian craft, and others from individuals who saw him as a person spreading false information that threatened their religious and personal view of life.

This Awareness indicates there also was seen the MOSSAD involved in an attempt to block this entity, when the entity sought information that was given him through his Pleiadian contacts regarding the Talmud Immanuel and its location.

What Do The Aliens Have To Do With Our Spirituality, Our Oneness With God?

(Why Discuss Them At All?)

QUESTION:

Elizabeth Herrin asks, or writes: "The information being channeled lately is a little heavy. Just how do the higher levels of consciousness, other dimensions, the realm of celestial beings, the angelic realm, fit in with these alien beings, these beings who are coming here to take over the earth? What do the aliens have to do with our spirituality, our oneness with God and our returning to this Godhead?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in reference to the Reptoids and to the Grey mercenaries, they have little to do with the spirituality other than wishing to or threatening to bring an end to any life form on earth that would resemble what you have experienced as spiritual values. This Awareness indicates that it is possible for an entity to be hostile from a spiritual snobbery position to anything that does not reflect the spiritual essences that are clung to for security and self-pleasure, but this does not necessarily keep the wolf away from the door.

This Awareness indicates that It is simply giving information to entities in regard to the world condition. It is not claiming that these warnings are promoting spiritual growth. It has given much information on spiritual development and growth to entities. These messages are available for those who wish to read and reread. It could repeat these spiritual messages in other words, over and over, redundantly, but there are many entities in the organization who wish to have practical material relating to their world so that they have an understanding of the world they live in, as well as what the spiritual nature of that world is, and the alien factor as given previously, ties in very much with the historical background of humanity and its spiritual history.

The history of religion, the history of the churches and the value systems that have developed which masquerade often as spiritual information need to be discussed and cannot be discussed without an understanding of where the alien factor fits in to the total picture.

This Awareness indicates that this essentially is cause enough to discuss the alien factor; that there are other aspects of the alien factor that many entities seek more information on. Had you been abducted, these other factors might be of more interest to you as they are to others, or had you been further curious about abductees and UFO phenomena these things might be of interest to you.

This Awareness indicates that if they are not of interest to you, It suggests you either go back to earlier readings on the spiritual aspects of human life in the other previous readings given by this Awareness, or go to other sources that repeat information of a spiritual nature. This Awareness indicates that if you sincerely want to know the connection between the alien information and the spiritual aspects of humanity, this is being incorporated in these various channelings relating to the UFOs and the history, and interspersed with messages here and there throughout the material.

The Sitchin books and the book Gods Of Eden can give further information for deeper research if you so desire. This Awareness indicates there are other books also, relating the UFO and Biblical texts together and the book on serpents and dragons, the title not seen clearly;* this book also has connecting links between the historical, spiritual teachings from ancient to modern religions and the UFO connection.

*Flying Serpents & Dragons, by R.A. Boulay. We have it.

AWARENESS THOUGHT IT WAS FINISHED WITH QUESTION ABOUT ALIENS

QUESTION:

Does Awareness have a closing message?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that just when this Awareness thought it was safe to cease talking about UFOs, along came another question. This Awareness indicates that this is fine with this Awareness; that entities feel free to ask any questions they wish regarding this subject. Much has been covered. Many questions may become redundant, and if they appear redundant, the questioner may hold them back because other entities may have sent in the question and the material may not have yet been published.

This Awareness indicates that the questioner as seeking to get all the information that entities wish on this subject so that the mysteries are revealed, released and no longer frustrating to the people. This Awareness indicates that It wishes to give as much information as is necessary to alleviate the fixation on the topic, so that entities do not feel deprived or that the topic is holding them hostage.

This Awareness wishes that entities receive sufficient information that they can understand the UFO phenomena and go on to other things that are important to them. It does not wish to cause entities to become fixated or obsessed by the topic. This Awareness indicates It does reserve the right to use Its own discretion as to what amount of information should be revealed because some excess revelation could cause problems, and this Awareness does not wish to reveal information that could be harmful to anyone on this topic.

Thank you. (The Law Of Gratitude is given)

Ed's Note: It has been some time since we published anything new on the aliens and this particular reading is simply more flesh for the skeleton, as Awareness calls it. They are still with us.

MIXING SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINES

(More on Subud And Developing Personal Will)

QUESTION:

A question from James Cisney, Racine, Wisconsin. He writes: "I have what for me has become a rather burning question of late, and I hope you will seriously consider asking Awareness about this. The question follows. Partly due to Awareness's comment about the Latihan, and the importance of surrendering to God, I have become involved in the organization called Subud. Since that time, I have experienced certain areas of confusion, due to the beliefs and practices of this organization.

One of the issues for me, is that I would still like to meditate, yet these people strongly advise against meditation. They have two major reasons for this: one being that they are concerned about mixing spiritual practices, and two: I gather that they feel that meditative practices strengthens personal will, at the expense of learning to surrender to God's will. I would like Awareness to address these two issues. One being that of mixing spiritual disciplines, and the other which is of most important to me, being the development of personal will through meditative approaches, requiring attention and concentration versus the art of learning to surrender to God's will.

"I guess I wonder if development of personal will is a prelude to the ability to surrender, or if it is simply an interference toward developing that inner sensitivity which I see as being the fundamental component of the state of surrendering. What is the proper relationship of these two aspects of being?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that these be repeated one at a time, allowing for comment on each. This Awareness suggests the first be given.

QUESTIONER:

Okay. He writes: "One of the issues for me is that I would still like to meditate, yet these people strongly advise against meditation. They have two major reasons for this. One being that they are concerned about mixing spiritual practices, and two: I gather that they feel that meditative practices strengthen personal will, at the expense of learning to surrender to God's will."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests the first be addressed: this in reference to mixing of different disciplines, spiritual disciplines. This Awareness indicates that while this does have some basis of justification, that different disciplines often can confuse and cancel each other's energies, that the generality, or general rule which this organization has accepted in regard to this, is that which for its purpose is appropriate and proper in that it prevents them from having to deal with the many different types of influences which entities may otherwise bring into the organization.

This Awareness reminds you that there are many disciplines which this organization, or any other, might need to deal with, if they allow the mixing of different disciplines. For example, if you were to become involved in this organization, and also were to become involved with another organization in which certain practices of this organization were forbidden by the other organization, or whereby the other organization required a certain amount of time from you in various types of meditation or of some other ritual, or behavior, and this had its effect of interfering with the Subud organization and its regimen, then you might not benefit fully from the Subud rituals, and you might also not benefit fully from the other rituals.

Of course, if you mixed three or four different disciplines, this could become even more scattering in terms of your energies. This Awareness has long suggested that entities explore different philosophies, ideas, and to not become caught up in any one at the exclusion of others, but to remain open and aware and observant for those gems and priceless jewels which each may yield in its presentation.

The Jewel of Subud is the Latihan

This Awareness indicates that the Subud organization has as part of its presentation that jewel known as the Latihan. There are other organizations such as the Transcendental Meditation organizations which have as their jewel meditative techniques, which allows the mind to flow, to follow consciousness, to follow without being controlled: this as a kind of surrender, watching the mind as it moves from place to place, from thought to thought.

This Awareness indicates there are other meditative techniques which require that the mind be disciplined and held on a particular thought without waver; that each of these, and other techniques are likened unto gems. This Awareness indicates that if you wish to specialize in one particular type of gem, that this may be done. This Awareness suggests also, that if you wish to become knowledgeable in many different types of precious gems, that this too may be possible; and this Awareness suggests that entities take this route of becoming aware of the many different facets of humanity, many different facets of consciousness; observing the many different gems, the priceless pearls, the diamonds and the rubies and emeralds of consciousness, which are available through different organizations, but that you not let yourself be caught up on a permanent basis in any one of these organizations so as not to be allowed to look in other directions, for other gems of wisdom.

This Awareness indicates that on a temporary basis, in order to acquire the most from the training, it can be appropriate that you not mix other disciplines while you are studying a particular field of science or spiritual material. This Awareness suggests that this is likened unto the entity who is seeking to unravel a puzzle, and rather than simply focusing on that one puzzle, disciplining the mind to work on that one puzzle, the entity decides to unravel ten puzzles at once. Obviously, the task becomes much more difficult, and most likely, impossible.

This Awareness suggests that these may be tackled one at a time with greater probability of success. This Awareness suggests that if you choose to enter into the discipline of the Latihan, that in following this path until you have achieved and received that which you desire to attain from this discipline, that you may proceed according to their rules and procedures, learning what you can, gaining what you can, and once this is gained, that you should then feel free to examine and move into other disciplines of your choice.

This Awareness suggests that any organization which prohibits you from ever again examining any other spiritual discipline is attempting to entrap your energies, and this would be inappropriate. However, the organization which seeks to give you certain training and requires that you not mix disciplines during that training period: this can be appropriate. This Awareness indicates, of course, that the action of being involved with the Subud or Latihan activity should not prevent you from having the right to read, or think, or examine other material outside of the practice; this in your own personal life.

This Awareness indicates that the action of meditating on your own, while away from the Subud activity, does not appear to be an actual disruptive activity, particularly wherein it is not designed to strengthen one's will.

This Awareness indicates that there are meditations which assist in the surrender of one's will, such as the Transcendental Meditation, wherein you allow your mind to flow where it wishes to go, and simply watch the energies and the traveling of your thoughts. That this in itself is a form of meditation which is akin to the Latihan technique, but rather than the watching of the movements of the body, and surrendering to the subconscious energies of the body, you watch the movement of the mind, and simply observe it in its movements.

This Awareness indicates this type of meditation could in fact enhance the activity of the Subud training. However, it may not be acceptable to the organization that you do any form of meditation, and if this is not acceptable, it is a matter for you yourself to decide whether to let this organization direct your thoughts completely, and your activities completely, or whether to reserve some individuality of making the decision for yourself.

Remember to Reserve That 20% Rebellion

This Awareness indicates that It has often suggested that entities reserve an approximate 20% rebellion in terms of following any authority, for that 20% rebellion can prevent entities from becoming totally entrapped by the concept of authority worship. This Awareness suggests the second part of the question be asked, unless there is some need for further clarification of the first part.

Personal Will and God's Will

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

"I would like Awareness to address these two issues. One being that of mixing spiritual disciplines, and the other, which is of most importance to me, being the development of personal will through meditative approaches, requiring attention and concentration versus the art of learning to surrender to God's will."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the concept of developing personal will as that which is often promoted by spiritual organizations, disciplines and trainings, especially those of Western philosophies, or those who are concerned about concepts associated with success. This Awareness indicates that goals and reaching those goals are strongly associated with the idea of personal will, whereby the entity, in spite of all odds, continues to move and to work toward attaining some particular goals. This Awareness indicates that this action as that which is associated with the pineal, and strengthens the pineal; the ability to focus, hold focus, and use that mental focus to create and to cause certain events to occur in one's life. That while this is highly acclaimed by many entities, and many perceive this to be the highest type of consciousness attainable, it is, in fact, only operating at that level of the pineal.

The Pituitary Serves as the Doorway to Heaven

This Awareness indicates that there are many who do not recognize the significance and purpose of the pituitary in levels of consciousness. The pituitary being that which serves as the doorway to heaven; which serves as the receptivity of the... this likened unto a receiver of Higher Forces.

This Awareness indicates the pineal being likened unto a transmitter of consciousness, of one's will; the pituitary as being likened unto a receiver of information, of energies from the Higher Self. That the pineal may be equated with the masculine energy, assertiveness, etc., whereas the pituitary may be equated with the feminine energy of receptivity; that while each has its particular value and place, their greatest function is that which occurs when they work together.

Surrendering One's Personal Will

This Awareness indicates that in terms of surrendering one's personal will, this action as that which is associated with the letting go of one's personal will, and allowing the Higher Force, the force of God, the force of Divine Spirit, to enter into the entity and to take over and direct the entity. This as equated with the statement: "Thy will be done," wherein one surrenders his or her own personal will, and allows the higher will of God, the higher purposes of the High Self, or the Divine Self to direct the entity.

This Awareness indicates that in the Subud and Latihan, this is intended to bring about this surrender of the personal will, so that the Higher Self can enter and move the entity according to Its will. This Awareness indicates there is of course some danger for some entities whose general integration in terms of consciousness has not yet been completed, for if an entity surrenders his personal will, and the entity's personal will is still struggling with concepts of right and wrong, of doing good, or doing evil, and the entity in surrendering the personal will finds himself, or finds herself, having no will at all, and easy prey for something other than the will of God, then that entity can become susceptible or vulnerable to forces of a lower nature.

Make Sure The Voice You Surrender to Is of the Highest

Therefore, any entity moving into activities of the Latihan, or Subud teaching, must have a predetermined vow or purpose or intention of surrendering only to the highest and best, to the most divine and most spiritual. This Awareness indicates the entity who surrenders to that voice which says: "I will make you important. I will make you great. I will make you successful" --this entity is easy prey for that force which is less than the highest and best. For that which promises you great gains, significance, or worldly treasures or fame, is not the voice of this Awareness, is not the voice of God, is not the voice of Divine Forces, for the voices of these higher divine energies only informs you that if you surrender to these energies, you will become one with them, and will understand the unity in all things. And from that surrender, you may then be assured of your place in the immortal goodness of the universe.

This Awareness indicates that therefore, in your question as to whether you should develop your personal will, or whether you should surrender your personal will to the divine, this Awareness suggests that it is almost a necessity that before you can surrender your personal will, you must have a personal will to surrender, and this Awareness suggests that many entities do not have, and have not developed their personal will. They are victims of circumstances, they allow others to dictate, they allow others to direct, and they may even think that they are making their own choices, but essentially they are making choices because any other choice would upset this person, or would not please that person.

Believing You Are Free of Influences is an Illusion

This Awareness indicates other entities may be concerned that they wish so badly to be individual and make up their own minds without being influenced by others that anything anyone wants them to do, they will do the opposite, and therefore believing themselves to be free of influence of others. This as also an illusion, for the entity is still controlled by those desires of others, in that the entity resists everything others desire him or her to do, and that resistance is as much a form of bondage to the thoughts of others, as if the entity were complying with those others.

This Awareness indicates that true individuality comes about when the entity can listen to the opinions and ideas of others, accept those which feel true, those which ring true, reject those which do not ring true, and do what he or she feels inside must be done. This as the entity who has developed the personal will. This Awareness indicates that along with this may come various types of disciplining of oneself, whereby the entity may fall prey to temptation: the beautiful hair of another, the beautiful hands of another, the beautiful legs of another, the beautiful food presented before one; these things can be very tempting to an entity, and in some cases it is appropriate that the entity indulge. In other cases it is inappropriate and the entity must restrain himself, must restrain herself from indulging in this gratification.

This Awareness indicates that when the entity does not have a disciplined self, and the personal will simply states: "I will have what I want, and I want that," and wherein this disregards the ramifications of the desire and indulgence, then this is an indication that the entity still needs to develop a greater sense of personal discipline and to discipline one's will. This Awareness indicates that others have the ability to discipline their will, saying: "Yes, I certainly would like that, but it is something I must avoid."

This Awareness indicates that still others have such discipline that they can simply look and say: "That is something that is not to concern me, for I simply do not go in that direction." This Awareness indicates that wherein one has developed a certain degree of personal will, and that personal will is compatible with the Divine Will, the entity may easily surrender that personal will, and follow the Divine Will, and in so doing the entity may still find that he or she yet requires further disciplining of certain aspects of his or her will, for the entity may surrender to the Divine Will on most levels, yet still have certain parts which have not yet been integrated or disciplined. The entity may still have a weakness for root beer, or ice cream, or some other food which the Divine Will would prefer the entity avoid.

Despite Problems Merging With Awareness is Still Possible

The entity may still have a great longing to indulge in some activity which the Divine Will would prefer the entity avoid. This Awareness indicates that when this conflict comes, and an entity surrenders to the Divine Will, yet still has certain hold-out areas, then this is simply part of the further disciplining which must continue in this entity's life as he or she progresses on the path, for this Awareness recognizes that entities in surrendering to the Divine are not always complete, are not always total, and still have certain parts, certain aspects which yet need to be brought up to a standard. Yet, this Awareness still as able to connect with these areas which are surrendered, which have been given, whereby the surrender of one's will to this Awareness, to the Divine Forces, the surrender of any part of one's will is highly prized, for that little strand of connection can be enhanced by still another strand, and still another, until a strong cord is woven which allows this Awareness and the entity to begin to merge as one.

This Awareness suggests that any entity who can surrender even a portion of oneself to the Divine is on the path toward connection with the Father; that thereafter, each entity may surrender a little more, and a little more, until the entity is strongly attached to the Divine. This Awareness suggests that therefore, you not worry so much about whether to surrender your personal will, or to discipline your personal will, for these things will occur simultaneously. Part of your will will be surrendered, and part of your will must be disciplined.

This Awareness suggests that you may continue disciplining that portion of your will which you see needing to be disciplined, and you may surrender that portion which you feel is ready and worthy of such surrender. That wherein you find it too difficult to discipline your will, this Awareness suggests that aspect which is too unruly for you to handle, too unruly for you to discipline, you may also choose to surrender that to the Divine. You may ask, for example, that the Divine Forces take over your unruly will which is so attached to sweets, or to some other gratification,--to cigarettes or to drink, or to whatever it is that you wish to surrender.

You may ask that these Divine Forces take over this problem for you, and discipline your will for you, so that you no longer need worry about this action. This Awareness indicates in this manner, you may simply watch how these Divine Forces handle your personal problems, and disconnect your desires in such a manner as to realign your higher ideals to fit within the Divine Plan.

Subud is a spiritual movement which began in Indonesia about 60 years ago. It now exists in 80 countries and has about 10,000 members. To practice the Latihan, one stands relaxed in a group of people and allow this spontaneous experience to begin. The experience is different for each entity. Many feel an inner vibration, or an impulse to move, to utter sounds, to laugh, cry, sing, or dance, yet these are different from our normal movements and sounds.

David Worcester, a former channel for Awareness, did several readings on the Subud Latihan and one time tried to get me and Vikki T. into the Latihan in Seattle but they made us wait in a separate room and would not let us in. It seems you had to be "invited" by a member of Subud and they needed time to check us out. That was back in the late 60's so it may be different these days. I went on the Internet recently to see if Subud is still operating since its founder Pak Subuh died some years ago. They appear to have facilities in most major cities and lots of them in California. ## New Weapons That Cause Blindness?

( More on Ramtha's Cosmic War to come )

A question from Joe Guardiani, Seamore, Connecticut. He writes: "I have a question for you to ask Awareness. The December 24th, '91 issue of The Phoenix Liberator had an article about three days of blinding light which would cause millions to go blind, and we should buy welding type glasses for protection, and there was a place to call for them at $13 per pair. I know Awareness said this outfit was not putting out anything new, but I still wonder about this scenario, because I read something a few years ago about that type of weapon which causes blindness. Is this pronouncement of theirs legitimate?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there was a recent article in the Spotlight about a weapon being developed for the Gulf War. It does not appear this was used, or if used, was not publicized. That this weapon was designed to cause blindness. It was not the same kind of thing that is being discussed in the Phoenix Liberator.

This Awareness indicates that the types of glasses being promoted in the Phoenix Liberator would be effective against such a weapon, however. This Awareness indicates that this blinding light scenario appears to have also been related or derived from certain messages from the Ramtha tapes, relating to a kind of cosmic war that will erupt at some time in the future between forces of the alien groups that are present on earth which this Awareness has made reference to, and others that will come to do battle with them, including Ramtha's forces.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that in this version, there would be 14 days (it appears) of light, without darkness, due to the immense conflict in space and the lights from the battle overhead. This Awareness does not see all of this scenario clearly as presented by Ramtha, but it appears that the Phoenix Liberator has received some kind of information that evolved out of this message from the Ramtha organization.

This Awareness does not see that the Phoenix Liberator information is of great accuracy. If it should at some later time be that the incoming planet centering in the asteroid belt were to become a center for a battle, this could serve as a possibility for some scenario in which weapons of a laser type or of a blinding nature, might be developed. It does not see this as a strong probability. It is only seen as a possibility as something that could fulfill such a prophecy.

It is likened unto trying to find something that would perhaps be a cause of such a prophecy, but it does not see this as any likelihood whatsoever, although one cannot totally close the door to such a possibility.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

If Ramtha was to lead the physical forces, then that would mean he would have to have some kind of physical embodiment. I thought he was a spirit.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is one of the areas in the scenario that has never been explained. This Awareness does not wish to attempt to explain the holes in the arguments given in the Ramtha scenarios.

HOW WERE ANCIENT HAWAIIANS ABLE TO DIE AT WILL?

( More on Yogananda's Departure From This Plane )

QUESTION:

A question from Eve Martin, in Honolulu, Hawaii. She writes: "I have a question for Awareness. With all the debate going on about the right to die, books teaching people how to commit suicide, etc., I wonder how the ancient Hawaiians were able to die at will. I read somewhere that they had the ability to leave their bodies behind about 3 days after having made the decision, even when perfectly healthy. How was this accomplished?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity Yogananda is one who may have shed some light on this in his departure. The day before he departed, he told an aide "Tomorrow is my big day!" and the aide said: "Oh yes, the ambassador from India is coming!" and Yogananda said: "Yes, but that's not what I mean." And then the next day, Yogananda met with the ambassador from India, arose and gave his speech as to what should be done with his teachings and the organization that had been formed around those teachings and at the end of his speech, turned his head sideways and fell dead from a heart attack. That was the analysis of his death.

This, his disciples explained, was the guru's exit, a common way of departure for highly advanced gurus. It appears that the entity had decided to depart after his speech and after his meeting with the Indian ambassador, and it appears that he was able to effect the event in his own time and in his own way.

This Awareness indicates that entities who know of the meditations taught by Yogananda may recall that this entity, in his meditations, taught entities how to stop all functions in the body, including the heartbeat, and go into suspended animation, wherein the entity could go into suspended animation for hours, even days, in which there was no apparent heartbeat. This was done in the meditation by filling the cells of the body with prana, sufficient to satisfy the need for breathing without the actual breathing itself.

As the activities of the body slowed down, the body required less breath, and the prana or breath energy settled in to the cells to allow the body functions to slow down further and further until there was no need for breathing at all, thus the entity had, throughout his life, been able to stop all functions of his body by filling the body with breath, with prana, as the body functions were brought to a stop.

Yogananda's Body Never Decayed

This Awareness indicates that at the time of his death, upon his collapse, his body was put by his disciples in such a place that it was not disturbed and the entity remained there for days and days, and the body did not decay at all. Eventually the authorities learned of this and ordered his body taken to a mortuary, where it was disposed of in the usual manner. It appears this was through a mortuary of the state of California, in the vicinity of Los Angeles, but the amazement of the entities in finding that the body had not decayed during all this time attested to the unusualness of this entity's teachings.

It appears that the entity's body, being filled with prana, or oxygen and breath, without the body having used any of this, because the functions had ceased, as the prana was being brought in, allowing the body to store the prana so that there was no decay, helped to keep the body from decaying and preserved the body during that time, while letting the entity will himself out of the body, as the heart ceased to beat and the brain stopped functioning.

This Awareness indicates that the entity simply allowed himself to leave the body and not return, even though he could have returned to the body if he so willed it. This Awareness indicates that the action of going into suspended animation repeatedly in meditations allowed this entity to have control over life or death of his body, allowed him to leave and to return to his body at will, allowed the body to enter into a state of non-performance, or suspended animation, or allowed him to return after a certain period of time and start up the body again, if he so chose.

This Awareness indicates that this may give you some hint of understanding as to how this kind of thing can happen. It would suggest that you may wish to write for more about Yogananda through the Self Realization Fellowship, or to order his book The Autobiography of a Yogi and others to read about the entity; that these can be of some further reference in your pursuit of this question.*

In Meditation He Sees a Small Dot of Light

QUESTION:

A question from George Lee, La Peer, Michigan. He writes: "Many times when getting ready to meditate, I notice a very small dot of white light, seemingly off in the distance of my mind. This dot of light disappears if I try to concentrate on it. Can Awareness tell us what the purpose of the light is?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that each entity has his or her own unique consciousness and it appears that this is for you a way of entering into a level of consciousness that introduces a state which serves you in your meditation. It is not something that is universal for everyone who meditates. Thus, the purpose is not something that can be explained as though it were a common thing. It is simply something you have developed in your own consciousness to serve as a kind of personal way of triggering yourself into a particular state of mind or consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that you may continue working, using this as long as it serves you. There is no great significance in it, but it does appear to make things easier for you in entering your meditative state of consciousness.

He Sees His Own Etheric Body (Any Significance?)

QUESTION:

One more question from this entity: What is the significance of seeing one's own etheric body? I ask this because at any time, when looking out through my slightly out-of-focus eyes, I can see thousands of tiny things moving about in no particular direction in the space surrounding me. Is there something to be gained from the study of this movement?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that this can help to attune you into seeing auras and possibly even seeing into other dimensions at some later time in your life as you continue meditating.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

A NEW "LESSONS OF ENLIGHTENMENT" WEB SITE

<http://lessons.netfirms.com>

Thanks to CAC members Lloyd Ard and Lloyd Klaperich, a new web site is now available on the Internet devoted exclusively to the Lessons of Enlightenment. Here you can post your comments and insights, even join in a Chat Room for discussions with other fans of these dynamic Lessons that are astounding entities when their "breakthrough" occurs and they want to cry to the heavens: "Holy Cow! I just got it! I can't believe it! This is incredible! My mind just opened to the entire universe!" If this hasn't happened to you yet, then you need to visit this new web site. The people there are waiting and willing to help you make your breakthrough. There is also a complete Index to the Lessons so you can pick and choose any section you desire. And you do not need to download! There is also an important link called Topic Search. Just type in any word or words and it will search all the (posted) Lessons of Enlightenment and immediately show you a complete listing of which Lessons have the information you are searching for. Check it out. It may be just what you need at this time!

THE CHIROPRACTOR WHO DOES HEALING "MIRACLES"

QUESTION:

JD sent in a question along with a brochure put out by Dr. Eric Scott Pearl: Spring-Summer Schedule. He's giving seminars around the country. I'll read just a little bit of this and her question. "Internationally recognized healer, Dr. Eric Scott Pearl has appeared on many TV shows: Sally Raphael, Art Bell, Health Network, and so on.

For more than 12 years, Dr. Pearl ran a highly successful chiropractic practice until one day in 1993, when patients began reporting that they felt Dr. Pearl's hands on them, even though he hadn't physically touched them. For the first couple of months his palms blistered and bled. Patients soon began seeing angels and reporting miraculous healings from cancer, AIDS, chronic fatigue syndrome, birth disfigurements, cerebral palsy and other serious afflictions.

All this had occurred when Dr. Pearl simply held his hands near them, and to this day, it continues." And JD's question is: She says "You can visit this Website and learn the technique, and ask Awareness: What enables this doctor to do this? Is he being assisted from spiritual realms? What percentage of his students master it also?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that healers of this type, and there have been many, although some less recognized than others, are indeed receiving assistance from spiritual energy via their entity. This Awareness suggests that such is the case with every physical endeavor and that this specific entity has attained the physiological and mental abilities to align more fully with the energy available.

This Awareness suggests that this particular entity is one of many whose Destiny Path was chosen to illustrate the specific latent abilities within humanity to not only manifest their own physiological health, but the healings of their bodies and those of others. This Awareness suggest that there will be a degree of success with some students of this particular individual, yet that without a specific Destiny Path and a considerably broadened consciousness via a mindscape of limitless belief structures, that success will be minimal.

This Awareness suggests, however, that as the consciousness shifts within the species, that more and more individuals will be able to receive training and instruction from those entities with remarkable abilities in many areas, such as medical intuitiveness and other healing arts. This Awareness suggests that all such efforts to understand and attain such abilities are highly recommended despite the relative progress and potential disappointments of some.

This Awareness suggests that as entities answer their own inner callings, recognize the signals of spirit and stay on their individual course, that many equally magnificent contributions are at hand. If we have completion we can continue.

WHY ALL THOSE ASTRAL PLANE CHANNELINGS LATELY?

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. "Please explain the variety of messages from the astral plane through "channels" lately. Surely there has never been so much of this, varying from the absurd and insipid to perfectly valid and inspired spiritual teachings of eternal truths. Why so much of this lately? People tend to dismiss channelings as "astral nonsense," but how does that relate to messages quite in line with those of the great teachers of mankind's history?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that as humanity increases its sensitivity and broadens its sensory apparatus that the multi-sensory abilities come into spontaneous play. This Awareness suggests, however, that multi-sensory abilities do not necessarily ensure the quality of the information received.

This Awareness suggests that within the quantum potential or the consciousness of All That Is resides the information from every personality across space/time, complete with limits in understanding, breadth of consciousness and beliefs, likened unto slivers. This Awareness suggests that attuning to various levels, whether they be personalities, entities or higher gestalts of consciousness, or as some might consider: "older souls," that oftentimes, the mindscape attracts one level as opposed to another level of consciousness more likened unto itself.

This Awareness suggests that the phenomenon of channeling is becoming more and more mainstream simply due to the fact that entities are becoming enlightened to the sensory abilities which lie dormant within as well as the shift in the assumptions within mass consciousness have relaxed some of the rigidity which springs from scientific assumptions that are profoundly limited.

If we have completion, we can continue.

ARE KILLER MACHINES SUCH AS F16 FIGHTER JETS COMMITTING SUICIDE?

(How You Can Get The Most Out Of Your Machines)

QUESTION:

A question from Lillian Boothe, Clarksdale, Arizona. I'll read her letter. She writes "Dear Avaton, several days ago, a thought cruised through my mind and I can't let it go without telling you about it, even though it will appear absolutely insane to most. I know you may consider it worthy of asking Awareness. It is this: All of the F16 (fighter jets) and some of the other killer machines are committing suicide --they no longer want to do what they are being designed to do.

After thinking about this for several days I was reminded of the time as a group meditation, we were taken into an underground cavern and met "the Elders" and one was a machine who taught us about the "Ores" that are used to make our machines and how they are not asked, nor do they give their permission to be used, so bless them and remind the machine the blessings come from their Elder, "the machine."

I do this, and my washer and dryer is in its 11th year, with no service calls! I got the feelings that the humans involved in the creation of the computer brains are, or some are becoming changed into more oriented to Aquarian energies, and it's "rubbing off" in the making of these killer planes. If this makes it to Awareness, then maybe I'm responding to the energies of Aquarius, for the receive an idea such as this needs some explanation.

Airplanes committing suicide! Thanks for listening, and tomorrow is the Summer Solstice."

Anyway, she goes on, but that basically was her statement. Does Awareness have any comment about that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that there is far more interplay between the consciousness of inanimate machine objects and the consciousness of the entities who interact with them. This Awareness suggests that indeed, in addition to those that create them, perhaps in a factory or in another such facility, that entities who purchase or interact with them, such as the pilots of the fighter planes or the drivers of automobiles, do indeed develop specific conscious associations with the energy consciousness of the machines themselves.

This Awareness suggests that it is indeed the Will Energy of such entities that continue to interact and idealize the machine to the degree that its disintegration does not occur as rapidly as it might otherwise.

This Awareness suggests that this person's interaction with the washing machine is an excellent example of how the care and feeding and loving recognition of the service and cooperative association between washing machine and human being does indeed facilitate a joyous experience for each atom involved in the composition of the washing machine as well as those that comprise the human being in addition to the conscious mind of the personality.

Why You Should Never Kick or Cuss at Your Car

This Awareness suggests that individuals can recognize patterns, emotional experiences and relationships with automobiles, specifically wherein entities feel a specific affinity and affection for the automobile, the automobile appears to run better, longer and more effectively. Whereas individuals who berate, kick the tires and chastise the vehicle for being a machine will experience more breakdowns and negativity due to the specific Will Energy transferred between and within the machine and the human being.

This Awareness suggests that the idea of a machine specifically committing suicide holds a degree of validity, just as an animal who ceases the desire to continue in the animal experience, or a human who has reached the completion of the incarnation. This Awareness suggests, however, that specifically with machinery, the gestalt of consciousness is more attuned to the human ideology and thought-forms which continue to infuse energy into them.

This Awareness suggests that the specific atoms and molecules who are not specifically aligned through a creative thought-form infused continuously by human Will Energy, will automatically and naturally go on their merry way in disintegration. Such is the nature of physical experience and the material construction of cultural artifacts.

This Awareness suggests that if there is to be a suicide, that it will indeed be instigated by the human consciousness in the cockpit rather than the machine in and of itself. If we have completion we can continue.

IBM'S NEW SUPER COMPUTERS: IS THERE SOMETHING SINISTER ABOUT THEM?

QUESTION:

A question from Marie Templeton. Shewrites: "Can you tell us anything about the line of super computers and their true purpose? Something tells me they are not for simulation of third dimensional nuclear testing and are rather part of the Global 2000 plan for Big Brother to slowly take over right under our nose.

IBM says it's built the world's fastest computer: a 12 trillion calculation per second machine the size of two basketball courts. The computer known as ASCI White is designed to simulate nuclear testing in 3D for the energy department so that the safety and reliability of the nuclear stockpile can be insured without actually setting them off.

The computer will be carried to the Lawrence Livermore national laboratory in California in 28 tractor trailers and be installed by the end of the year. It is just the first of a series of super computers being developed for the DOE." Does Awareness have any comment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the most valuable comment to this individual would be to ask the question: What is it that is telling you this? This Awareness suggests that the technological advances and computer technology are generated mostly by the positive forces of interconnection and the cooperative impetus within humanity.

This Awareness suggests that perceptions of events such as the development of supercomputers for specific negative ends are manifestations of belief structures which should be immediately examined and expunged. This Awareness suggests that the concept of disempowerment, enslaving humanity, hoarding information, mind control and manipulation are concepts that are no longer conceivable within the consciousness of humanity, the interconnection, and the freedom of information exchange.

This Awareness suggests that individuals not expend further Will Energy creating scenarios such as these, for similar events will occur as in those who chastise their automobile and suspect evil intent when the gas tank is empty. If we have completion, we can continue.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

ASTROLOGICAL PREDICTIONS OF DEATH

(Did all those Entities at Hiroshima Have the Same Chart?)

QUESTION:

A question from April Collins in Mesa, AZ. She writes: "For years I've wondered about this: Astrologers say they can tell how and when a person will die by looking at their astrological chart. What about all those millions of people who died in the Hiroshima nuclear blast? Did all their charts show the same manner and time of death? If so, wouldn't that be a way to predict the nuclear destruction of a city, and so on, meaning, if everyone in the city has a chart that indicates they'll all die in the same way, and at the same time?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the precision of the astrological method has not attained such a level as yet. This Awareness suggests this system addresses certain probabilities, accessing particular alignments that are associated with particular choices set forth by the entity before the incarnation so that they fall within this particular method to offer hints and clues.

Astrology Assumes Entities Have no Free Will

This Awareness suggests, however, that hints and clues are a far cry from the precision suggested in the question in that it also assumes that there shall be no such intervention as a little thing called Free Will. This Awareness suggests that human freedom is grossly misunderstood, for it has become nearly as foreign a concept as an open government.

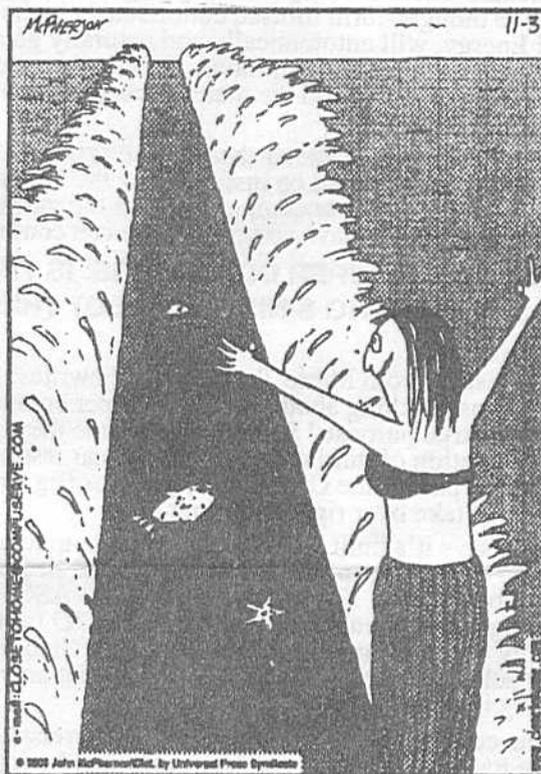

This Awareness suggests that entities have the ability to set forth specific Destiny Paths, and then radically alter the outcome, either consciously or unconsciously, depending upon the choices of the contents of the individual mind. This Awareness suggests that each and every belief, either chosen accidentally, inadvertently or purposefully, will either limit or facilitate the spiritual destiny of the entity, in that a chosen path during a given lifetime may be limited to two or three steps or several miles in comparison, all contingent upon the limitations or lack thereof that exist within the mind.

This Awareness suggests that free will truly will be free only when the mind is free of every and all limiting belief that has been assumed, entertained and directed human will in willy-nilly directions. This Awareness suggests when the Enlightenment is upon entities, that they will begin to become acquainted with the incredible untapped power of Free Will in that astrological predictions will become less and less accurate as entities become more and more in control of their destinies rather than being predictable, as are the heavenly bodies.

This Awareness suggests that this predictability is related to the predictability of automatic self-preservation as opposed to rational willful self-development and expression, and that certain rigid patterns of behavior and even of life cycle, become dominant, so much so that they are predictable.

If we have completion, we can continue.
