COSMIC METAPHYSICS SIMPLIFIED

(More on Black Holes and White Holes and Worm Holes)

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates there is a small paperback book called Time-Space And Beyond which is available through Cosmic Awareness Communications* that can serve as a kind of handbook for the cosmic metaphysics concepts which this Awareness has attempted in several readings of the past to elucidate.

This Awareness indicates that in this paperback book are diagrams and pictures which help to clarify some of the concepts this Awareness has been giving in regard to the quantum physics and the realities of universal consciousness.

*"Space-Time and Beyond: Toward an Explanation of the Unexplainable" by Bob Toben and Fred Alan Wolf is no longer available from CAC. You can order it from your local book store or the Internet or direct from Bantam Books, 414 East Golf Road, Des Plaines, Ill. 60016.

This book uses totally different terminologies, more scientific in nature, and diagrams. It also has detailed explanations of some of the principles involved in quantum physics, such as how light being affected by gravity, creates matter. This Awareness indicates it also discusses black holes and white holes; that the so-called black holes known by science in the cosmos also exist in the absolute smallest substances or particles of matter.

Worm Holes in Space That Transcend Time

This Awareness has described these as the seeds in the particles or in all things. It has suggested that within each entity there is what may be termed a black hole through which the entity comes into this dimension and forms a body and through which the entity leaves to exit this dimension. This Awareness indicates that these so-called black holes described in this book may be thought of as worm holes. These are terms used by the author and other scientists: worm holes in space that transcend time to allow for things to move from place to place without any time being involved.

This Awareness indicates that another unusual feature described by the author is that the minute black hole or worm hole is larger when perceived up close and that entities can move through these. As they move toward these holes the hole expands to allow them to pass through. This Awareness indicates that when entities enter into a dream state, they are actually passing through one of these holes in space and entering into another dimension.

This Awareness indicates that this book is somewhat complex and yet, for the inquiring mind that is already partially able to understand such concepts, this may be of great help and this Awareness suggests that anyone who reads it carefully, and especially those who read it several times will begin to have a totally new understanding of creation, and of the universe and how to use the forces of quantum physics to affect their lives.

It becomes a kind of metaphysical handbook for entities wishing to understand the principles of the energies involved. It is not simply platitudes or rules or slogans or teachings as much as it is explanations of the principles involved in the New Age physics. This Awareness suggests that all entities in the organization who have an interest in the spiritual life should have a copy of this book. It is very inexpensive.

Thinking About Something Will Effect It

This Awareness indicates the information can help to explain how thought affects things, even at a distance and that when you affect one thing in the universe, that thing affects you, and through that thing you affect the entire universe. This Awareness indicates that even in thinking about something you affect the thing thought about, and it in turn has its effect on other things in the universe.

The effects may be extremely miniscule, but the effects are still there, just as if you were to touch a bowl of Jello with a straight pin, You might not see the entire Jello move, but if you had the right instruments you would see that it rippled throughout the entire bowl to a very small degree. This Awareness indicates likewise, you have the power, in any movement, to change the entire universe, even if you are not aware of the changes that occur.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, through realizing that your thought about something can change it, this fact gives you an understanding of how healing at a distance is a possibility or what could be a reality, if it were understood and practiced.

Black Holes We Are Born Through and Black Holes in the Dream State

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

These black holes Awareness indicated entities come through when they're being born into this plane and go through when they exit this plane; are these the same black holes that astronomers have photographed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these are of different size; these are large black holes in space; that these are the same kind of openings, but the black hole can be of any size whatever. In the atom it is an opening that is of a magnetic nature; it would be the negative aspect of the atom. This Awareness indicates that in the atom it would be equated to the neutron, the electron being a white hole or positive hole.

Seeing in a Dream What the Future Will Be

The past is represented by the black hole and a movement to the past would be a movement toward the black hole and a movement toward the future would be a movement toward the white hole. This Awareness indicates that in the antimatter realm or world, these are reversed. This Awareness indicates that the future to the entity who is looking into an antimatter realm, such as in a dream state, would be seen in a flow of antimatter reality, and the entity could be seeing the future go by, and upon returning, the entity would be able to say that "I have seen in a dream what the future is going to bring!"

This Awareness indicates that this could be true; that the dream may pronounce to the entity an event that has not yet occurred because the antimatter realm being seen in the dream moves in the opposite direction, from future to past, whereas the normal state for people is from past to future. This Awareness indicates that in all situations time does not actually exist in these worm holes or black holes, as it is perceived. There may be time, but it is not measured in the same way.

Time Travelling When You Enter Into a Worm Hole

In the dream state, for example, moments can pass while the entity sleeps for hours or vice versa. Many days could go by in the same dream which lasts perhaps only minutes. Likewise, when entities enter into a worm hole or black hole, they may time-travel and experience things from the past or from the future.

This Awareness indicates that these black holes or what is called worm holes by this author and others involved in quantum physics, these worm holes are likened by the author unto holes in the Swiss cheese of the cosmos, likened unto considering the entire cosmos as a ball of cheese filled with these holes that permeate everything, which is in constant flux, never ceases to move and flow, everything being liquid and made of light, held together in its densities by gravitational forces.

This Awareness would add that also radiant forces play a part in this scenario, but this book can be of great help in understanding the creation of the universe and of reality and different dimensions. It is not of course complete, and it is not the experience of cosmic consciousness because it is being put onto paper and into words in a second and third dimensional format which cannot be clearly representative of fourth dimensional consciousness.

The Fourth Dimension: The Imagination

This Awareness indicates that by fourth dimensional It is referring to, as Edgar Cayce termed it, the imagination. If you can imagine what is meant, you can perceive far more than the author gives in the book. This Awareness indicates, for example, the author might give several flat planes as different dimensions. These appear in the drawings as little sheets of paper, one above the other, with spaces between, but in your consciousness you must perceive these little planes as representing little spheres or different spheres that overlap each other in different vibrations through which one may pass from one to the other to perceive different realities.

This Awareness indicates it is much as Steppenwolf describes; that in leaving one reality, you automatically enter into another, for they are all interlocked, not by space or time, but by vibration and when you step from one vibration into another, you enter into a different mansion, house, dimension, place or whatever you wish to call it: realm or frequency level.

Using the Television as a Metaphor for Many Lifetimes

It is easily understood through the metaphor of a television. A television has only one reality when it is turned off, but when it is turned on and you begin to switch channels, there are multiple realities inside the same screen and all you are doing is switching frequencies to experience these multiple realities.

So it is in the real world. If you can imagine being able to enter into these different frequencies and shift from one to another, because perhaps someone out there is changing channels and you are being moved from one channel to the other from inside the screen, from inside the universe, or from inside the hologram that is being presented as your reality.

This Awareness indicates of course, each entity also has the control for the cosmic television set or cosmic hologram and can change realities from one dimension or one realm to another, from one station to another and these are called different lifetimes.

This Awareness indicates that upon entering into a different frequency, in some of those frequencies it takes quite some time to develop a full-sized body; that you may be there in spirit and may see things, but if you want to remain there as one of the natives of that frequency you would need to develop a full-time full-size body, and that is what occurs on earth through the birth process and the feeding and nurturing of the body until it reaches the size that you seek.

This Awareness indicates that this body then becomes your temple, your carriage or whatever you wish to call it, that houses your spirit or soul in that realm. This Awareness indicates you are of course able to get out of the carriage or leave the temple or housing of your body if you so wish. Most people prefer to stay in it except during nighttime when sleeping.

This Awareness indicates upon going to sleep they pass through the portal or what may be termed the worm hole in their reality and go into another dimension, where they walk around in a kind of astral or starry body. These dreams then may be recalled as vividly as if they had actually taken place or they may be dismissed upon waking up in passing back into your body.

This Awareness indicates the important thing to understand about all of this is that your consciousness is the reality, the physical is the magnetic and light flux that occurs and grows and develops as a result of your continual focus on your presence, on yourself. Thus, the child, focusing on self, gradually develops a physical body from the nutrients around, gathers these condensed particles of light and creates a shape and form according to the to the DNA that the child holds.

DNA: A Seed in Consciousness of the Unborn Child

The DNA is a reflection of the consciousness. It is likened unto a seed in consciousness of the child. It houses the child or allows the child a place to build upon so that the physical form can eventually come into being. This Awareness indicates that planets were constructed in this manner also.

This Awareness indicates that the light, when drawn to a magnetic point begins to ... this likened unto what may be called a portal or dark hole, black hole or worm hole, begins to come into a tightness that causes it to take on a physical appearance and these collections of physical appearance or light dust will then gradually build into particles. These particles are drawn together by magnetism. They also give off energies from the other side, and the focus of energy toward a magnetic center which keeps squeezing in tighter and tighter as that which releases energies that are radiation or radiance.

The radiance then goes out. It is of a different nature from the radiance that goes in because it has slowed down from the process of the gravity and the compression caused by the gravity and the magnetism, and as it radiates outward, it creates a different energy that emits from it, and likewise, on and on throughout the galaxies and universe.

There are some heavenly bodies that radiate much greater energies than others and as these energies radiate outward, they in turn create other forces when they go out so far they begin to turn back on themselves and spinning back, create a gravity field, eventually coming inward on themselves, create a gravity field which becomes another worm hole or dark hole.

This Awareness indicates that this in turn draws in energies that eventually creates a heavenly body of some sort, or another portal into the next realm. This Awareness indicates that it is difficult to explain these energy fields, but given the information that is presented in this book, entities may find better understanding, or additional information that can help.

"Cosmic Metaphysics" a Term for Quantum Physics

This Awareness indicates that the book is so written with the cartoon-like drawings that fill the first portion of the book and which refer to longer explanations that can be read in the latter part of the book so that even children who can read could get some understanding of cosmic or quantum physics. Essentially, "Cosmic Metaphysics" would be this Awareness's term for an equivalent to the quantum physics that is developing.

This Awareness indicates that quantum physics eventually will lead to a more clear understanding of creation. This Awareness indicates that the mechanical or Newtonian view of the universe only allowed a limited understanding of things, whereas the quantum view, the view that everything is alive and that even the spaces have life in them, and that the consciousness of an observer is affected by the observed and the observed is affected by the consciousness of the observer, and therefore nothing is absolute. This is quantum physics and is the new view of science that has been unfolding during the past several decades.

This Awareness indicates that there may be efforts by many scientists to refute such ideas. These are the traditional scientists who still cling to Newtonian concepts and the absolute, the belief that there is an absolute order of mechanical process in the universe and that they can someday discover it. The quantum physicists realize there is no absolute order in material reality and that they must understand consciousness in order to understand the creation of matter.

This Awareness indicates it is a question of whether consciousness evolved out of matter or whether matter sprang out of consciousness and the old thought accepted the first and the new quantum physics acknowledges the latter, that consciousness came first and matter came from the consciousness.

Was Life Brought to Earth by Comets?

(More on That 5-Pointed Pyramid on Mars)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

A British scientist, Sir Fred Hoyle and his colleagues have put forth a theory that not only do comets bring organic material but life itself, in fact, that life was brought here by comets rather than formed locally, and according to their ideas, life continues to arrive here by the same means. Is there any truth to that theory?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is possible that comets can bring life to earth. This Awareness indicates that life can come from other sources also. This Awareness suggests that this suggestion or theory does not answer the question of how life came about. It simply puts it "out there" somewhere, and brings it in, as though it came about somewhere else. "We don't have to worry about it. We don't have to think about it. We don't have to answer questions if we simply acknowledge that it came from somewhere else and was brought here."

This Awareness indicates the fact is that life exists everywhere, and that every atom is alive. Every particle is alive. Every planet is alive. The life is in varying degrees, and there are some things that are more alive than others, in accordance with the light energy that comes in and radiates out.

That Five-Pointed Pyramid on Mars

This Awareness indicates that the recent developments in studying the face on Mars, for example, have led to a recognition that there is a 5-pointed pyramid in the vicinity of the face and other structures and there was the curiosity as to how such a 5-pointed structure could have come into existence with nature itself, for the measurements of the structure were perfect in terms of the 5-pointed figure.

This Awareness indicates that the measurements of the pyramid created certain angles and when these angles were studied in relation to the other structures around, it was discovered that they matched the angles that the other structures had toward one another, so that it was as though someone had carefully, using mathematical formulas, placed these structures in their proper place so as to create angles that matched the angles in the 5-pointed pyramid.

This Awareness indicates that this has been presented by Dr. Holgarth in his book The Monuments Of Mars and in more recent videos. This Awareness indicates that even NASA has had this entity lecture and his lectures have suggested that these things could have only occurred artificially. In other words, by deliberate mental creation, some kind of intelligence acting, and not by natural accident. There are too many exact matches in terms of angles and in terms of symmetry for this to occur in these pattern shapes by accident of nature.

This Awareness indicates the entity in further studying these became aware of the fact that the points of the 5-pointed pyramid was at 19.5 degrees on the planet Mars and that this was an exact location of the red eye on Jupiter, and that many of the great sacred spots on earth were located at either 19.5 degrees North, or 19.5 degrees South on the earth, this being North or South of the equator.

This Awareness indicates that this led to further recognition that the shape of the tetrahedron which is a four-sided pyramid, each having three sides, in other words, twelve lines, where the three sides of the pyramid form the cone and the bottom is the fourth side, wherein this tetrahedron, if placed in a circle or sphere, the points on the bottom, in touching that sphere, would touch at 19.5 degrees.

When Scientists Discovered the Tetrahedron Emits Energy

If another similar tetrahedron were placed in opposite direction, inside the first, both being inside the sphere, with the points touching the North and South poles of the sphere, and the sides touching the sphere's circle, these side points would be at 19.5 North or 19.5 South, in terms of degrees. This Awareness indicates this has led them to recognize that there is some kind of force operating that uses a tetrahedron pattern within the planets, and which has an effect on these surfaces of the planets at those points where these touch.

Looking down on a planet of such nature, one would see the 6 points, much like the star of David. This Awareness indicates that in explaining this to an associate, the associate saw in this something that was familiar to him, and recognized that it was a mathematical formula that had been approached by many some 100 years ago in an attempt to understand the nature of mathematics in the workings of a diagram dealing with different dimensions, trying to understand other dimensions from a three dimensional world.

It was an effort by these entities to delve into the mathematics of higher dimensions. This led these entities into looking at this further and they discovered that through various works of different researchers, there is an energy that is given off by these shapes, and that these energies, when spinning, create field forces of energies around these particular shapes as though they were bringing in their own kind of energy.

This Awareness indicates that another factor that was recognized was that the outer planets, though much further away from the sun, emitted an energy from within that was greater than the energy received from the sun. They were producing more energy than they were taking in. This has led them to work on energy through the building of devices that take in smaller amount than is given out.

The Meaning of the Face on Mars

This Awareness indicates that they have essentially been given, by some ancient civilization on Mars, the keys to understanding how nature works. This Awareness indicates they believe that the face on Mars was intended to mirror the face of mankind at the time, in hopes that mankind would eventually notice and see what they are saying in their message to humanity. This Awareness indicates that basically, what the message gives is the way by which life energy comes into manifestation as living bodies or as energy producing devices, through the use of shapes and movement.

This Awareness indicates that the shapes can create life or energy fields that produce more energy than is taken in.

This Awareness indicates that the earth is such a place that is working or has been working in a healthy fashion, whereas the Martian planet has not yet experienced this except in its distant past. This Awareness indicates that life can be brought forth through an understanding of how energies move, so that even the normal kind of earthly objects can take on greater life if so charged.

Humanity to Learn Soon How Life Can be Seeded on Planets

This Awareness indicates that this can also account for and explain how some simple objects: trinkets, charms and others, may have a kind of power, more than just that of the metals and material involved. This Awareness indicates that it appears within 50 years that humanity will understand how life can be seeded to develop Mars and possibly Venus into inhabitable planets.

This Awareness indicates that there appears to be the possibility of life on Mars at this time. The structuring and housing being the major concern. This Awareness indicates that Mars does have some atmosphere; that this may need to be enhanced.

Blowing Up the Moon to Stabilize Earth Being Considered

This Awareness indicates that there are many strange things that may occur in the future. It is not all out of the question for there to be colonies on Mars within 20 to 30 years. It is not at all out of the question for that scientist to get his wish to blow up the moon in order to stabilize the earth so that the seasons will be more orderly. This Awareness indicates that this is being taken seriously by many scientists, and the entity is quite a prominent scientist himself.

This was featured as an article in a recent tabloid and also in the New York Times. This Awareness indicates that there is of course danger in the process of destroying the moon in order to create a more harmonious orbit for the earth. The intention is to straighten the axis of the earth so that it is not tilted so much. This Awareness suggests that of course, something of that magnitude could have the earth thrown into a chaotic position, just as easily as his dream of putting it in proper harmony.

It also might, in altering the seasons, affect the growth of many of the species on earth in some cases, perhaps adversely. The entity seeks to make the earth a Garden of Eden, a paradise, but it is possible that a mistake of even a small nature, could create chaos. This Awareness indicates this also of course would leave the earth without its moon, and all of the songs that have been written, such as "Moonlight In Vermont," and others, would become outmoded, with people in the future asking: "What is this word? What does it mean?"

This Awareness indicates there are many who do not wish to give up the moon or see it destroyed. The entity believes that its parts would fall into the Pacific. This too might cause great havoc in having the moon land in the Pacific. This Awareness indicates that there are strange things that go on in the minds of geniuses; that genius often takes entities into the realm of madness.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Destroying the moon would also eliminate the tides of the ocean, wouldn't it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The entity believes that the tides would not be affected; that they would be more even.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

How would that affect astrology?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity is not concerned about astrology. This Awareness indicates that it would of course affect humanity in the sense that the moon not only pulls on the tides, it also pulls on the blood of entities and has some effect on emotions, and that these emotions would become less influenced, and entities would experience less passion.

In some cases this could of good, in that there are more crimes committed during full moons, but then perhaps, the range of crimes would just even out and not actually be reduced at all.

This Awareness, incidentally, wishes to mention that quantum physics, as it is explored and better understood will allow for the reality of astrology to have a place in science.

But What About the Hollow Moon and Entities Living Within?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In relation to this entity's theory of blowing up the moon, didn't Awareness indicate the moon was hollow and contained a civilization of entities?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

At one time this was so. This Awareness indicates the moon is still hollow. It does not see that there are entities inside at this time. It appears this was a crash which brought entities to this sector at one time in the ancient past.

What Would the Galactic Federation Say?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

I imagine the Galactic Confederation and representatives from other planets in our system would have something to say about blowing up the moon too, wouldn't they?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this could be very disturbing for some. This Awareness indicates that it also may be part of a strategy related to the alien presence and threat. This is not seen clearly at this time. This Awareness indicates that it is not likely that this would be allowed. It appears there would be too many to object to such a venture. It would require years of promotion before people would be willing to consider allowing it.

Moonlight Affecting Agriculture

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

I always thought moonlight had a lot to do with agriculture, too.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates it helps the seeds to germinate; that it also helps to pull water up to the seeds and into the roots of plants. There are many things to be considered if such a serious action is to be taken with any sense of meaning. This Awareness indicates that it is highly unlikely that this would occur, unless it is something of a military necessity.

Does the Monument on Mars Contain a Message for Humanity?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In reference to that monument on Mars, there's an entity by the name of Allen Feinstein, I believe, who puts out a newsletter, and it's been promoting a postage stamp put out by some little country that has this monument on its stamp, and he claims also that he has got hold of a scientist who has deciphered some kind of message from observing the photos of that monument, and it contains a great message for mankind, that he plans to release later, for a price. Is there any truth to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is correct. It is not clear as to whether the message is correct, which the entity would release. This Awareness suggests that the Dr. Holgarth as one, along with other colleagues, who deciphered the message also and that this is a great message for mankind which could lead to new energy sources on earth, from the information gathered and understood.

"N-Machine" Being Made to Bypass the Electric Companies

The entities are already working on devices and will in a very short time have small devices available for homes which could produce electricity in the home so that entities could unplug from their electric company. This is yet to be completed but apparently, the devices are near completion and have been tested, being done by scientists and physicists who are well known and who have taken careful steps to document and prove everything they are doing.

This Awareness indicates that of course, as with any inventions, there will likely be efforts to stop the production rather than allow something that could threaten the power company's income. This Awareness indicates that these entities are aware of these potential problems and are careful to avoid doing anything that might jeopardize their work in the way others have been harmed.

This Awareness indicates there is a book available on the N Machine, which this is called, N representing many different numbers of energy forces or dimensions or sources of energy. The N Machine is available in terms of a book on its development and how it works. This is approximately 20 dollars. The Interpreter recently purchased such a book and can give the location and retail cost of the book. This can be presented to the questioner for possible sale through Cosmic Awareness Communications.*

This Awareness indicates the monument on Mars or Hoagland's Mars video as that which would also be of benefit to your membership. It is not very expensive, in comparison to most videos. It appears that this is under ten dollars.

*The Interpreter never followed through. We have never seen the book. We have never stocked any of Hoagland's videos but these are available elsewhere.

Did NASA Allow Mars Photos to be Seen?

QUESTION:

Those NASA photos that contain these monuments on Mars, did these photos slip through accidentally or did the government deliberately allow them to go through?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates they denied it when it was first seen. They simply stated it was a fluke of light and shadows and created the appearance of a face, but some of the investigators seeking further, wanted to see the next picture. The next picture did not have anything on it, and in fact it was 35 days later that the camera again approached the area to take another picture, and some hundreds of pictures later, but the next picture was even more clear, and the viewers could then see the clear symmetry of the face on its left side, for that which had been in shadows was now more visible and by using computer enhancement, the symmetry was made even clearer and they were able to measure the hairline and the location of the eyes, cheekbones and chin and lips, and found that it even had teeth showing.

This Awareness indicates that the fact of such symmetry as that which led them to begin in earnest to consider the possibility that some ancient extraterrestrial civilization had lived there or left a message there, and they began to study the artifacts or shapes around the face to find if there were other artificial creations. Indeed, they found what they term a city. The use of fractals through the computer programs that follow natural movements and changes were able to distinguish the natural from the artificial: rocks, stones and designs on the planet in the area, so that they could clearly distinguish which structures were artificial and which were natural.

This Awareness indicates that this same technique or technology was used in Iraq to find targets, even when those targets were covered with sand or camouflaged.

Jehovah Marked His Territory With Monument

QUESTIONER:

Awareness has indicated that this particular monument on Mars was put there by Jehovah to mark his territory.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that Jehovah as a representative from Orion; that it is theorized that the pyramid, the 5 pointed pyramid on Mars may be hollow and may house an entire city. This is not seen clearly. It is highly probable. This will be studied more in 1993 when another probe is sent to photograph the area again.

QUESTIONER:

The Star of David shape indicated; this is where the original Star of David, for the Jews comes from, I assume?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is not clearly indicated. It may well be. There is nothing to indicate so.

Ed's Note: for more on the Mars Monument, please refer to "Revelations of Awareness" issue 79-25 (The Secret of the UFOs) $4.00 from CAC. Others issues on Mars are: 90-12,92-2,93-11, 94-11,95-12, 95-14,95-15 ($3.00 each from CAC).

Do Diseases Come From Outer Space?

QUESTION:

In relation to comets, there's been a lot of theories over the years that the comets bring in pathogens or various diseases, like over the centuries there's been black plagues or influenza, and a number of scientists have theorized that these came from outer space on comets. Is there any truth to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that the astrological influences have an effect on diseases in causing diseases to erupt or become on the increase. It is not seen that there is an occasional possibility that a disease could have come by route of a comet, piggy-backing on a comet, but this is a possibility. The comet of course would have to come from some place where the disease could thrive.

This Awareness indicates that theoretically this could occur, in that disease bacteria cannot survive in high oxygen areas and these comets are not generally flying in high oxygen, in fact may have no oxygen around them at all, and the bacteria could be frozen in space and come back into livelihood upon entering the earth. If in great numbers, they could do some damage before the oxygen of earth would kill them, or perhaps could even survive the oxygen for a time, if in high enough number.

This Awareness indicates it is a possibility and makes sense, but this Awareness does not see clearly that the black plaque was caused by a comet. It is possible that some of the other diseases that have occurred on earth may have been. This Awareness has not looked at all of the events in history in this regard.

The Mind Can Produce Disease Bacteria as Well as Healings

This Awareness indicates that many times diseases are the results of the consciousness itself, the collective consciousness of the time; that when there are great persecutions to people or when there is great hostility or other negative emotions in a mass level of consciousness, these diseases spring forth. The mind can create bacteria, can create, through the worm holes or black holes, those negative thought-forms or substances that produce or become the bacteria that then spreads from person to person.

This Awareness indicates that it is possible to create these bacteria in much the same way that it is possible for an entity with his or her mind to send healing thought toward another or to send a curse to another and cause problems for the other, as in the case of voodoo, for example.

This Awareness indicates that most diseases are the result of either coming in contact with a previous disease that develops within one to a different degree or which takes a tangent and becomes a different disease that springs from the other, much as a cousin disease, or it may be from unsanitary conditions or from some kind of toxic substance ingested environmentally that mixes with something in the person so that the body then, in trying to get rid of it, may create some kind of antibodies or substances to destroy the disease or problem and those antibodies may become a new disease that is spread to someone else.

This Awareness indicates that It is referring to contagious diseases; that there are of course diseases that are not contagious that develop due to other insults or intrusions or invasions to the body, by either improper diet or environmental toxins or other substances. This Awareness indicates that the low oxygen and high sugar content of a body, or high mucus in a body create within the body a perfect breeding ground for diseases of various types.

Use Antioxidants to Fight Free Radicals and Cancers

The free radicals which are but oxygen molecules or atoms that have no place to link up can suddenly take on a link or relationship with some toxic or harmful element in the body and begin to reproduce itself, creating a cancerous cell or some other problem. This Awareness indicates that these are especially dangerous when an entity's oxygen is low. For this reason, antioxidants are very beneficial to keep the oxygen content of the blood high, to keep the oxygen in the blood from oxidizing in a negative sense and to use fresh fruits and vegetables which are high in antioxidants or to exercise and bring oxygen into the blood through exercise; all of these are ways to counter and deal with those potential free radicals and prevent toxins from the body from linking up with them.

If an entity has had a diet that might be high in some toxin or harmful additive or if an entity has been breathing excessive pollution, they should, as soon as possible, either take an antioxidant such as Vitamin E, Vitamin C or some other type of antioxidant or should go somewhere and exercise well to build up the oxygen in the blood to burn off those toxins.

Did Hubble Telescope Photograph Angels?
(Is This Really "The Most Important Data Ever Collected?")*QUESTION:

Audrey Patrick sent in a tabloid article from the Sun, October 16th 1990. I'd like to read this and ask Awareness if this information is true. It says: "A space telescope is taking pictures of angels! Scientists now have amazing proof that heaven exists because the spectacular Hubble space telescope has beamed pictures back to earth of real live angels.

Prominent astronomers say the computer-enhanced images of angels have not been released publicly for fear that they might cause worldwide panic. But sources who've inspected the digitally-transmitted photos call them the most important scientific data ever collected.

"The angels are a brilliant orange color," says a NASA source.

"Scientists at first thought they had discovered a new star cluster because the colors were so bright and powerful.

"But within minutes, it became obvious that these were life-like figures they were looking at."

According to classified reports, a "group of seven angels flying together" was spotted in pictures taken of the three-billion-year-old star cluster NGC 3532.

Astronomers thought the unusual transmissions were distorted because of malfunctions in the $1.5 billion Hubble telescope.

But after computer enhancements of the photos, astronomers gathered around in a frenzy to inspect the divine images.

"The seven giant figures all had wings and mist-like halos," says one space engineer. "They were about 80 feet tall and had wingspans as large as airplanes.

"Their faces were young and peaceful, and they all were beaming.

"It seemed like they were overjoyed at being photographed by the Hubble telescope. They seemed to be smiling at each other like they were letting the rest of the universe in on a glorious secret."

Space agency officials say the sighting of angels is not even the first such scientific proof that angels and Heaven exist.

A Russian scientist who defected to the United States in 1986 says that Soviet cosmonauts encountered a similar band of bright and smiling angels on the 120th day of the Soyuz 8 missions several years ago.

"They'll probably find millions of angels up there," he says.

The Hubble telescope is going to be operating for the next 15 years, and by the year 2000, both the American and Soviet governments will release the overwhelming evidence that angels are watching over us," he said." Would Awareness comment on that article, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the information as that which refers to certain energy fields that are used by beings which are of interdimensional nature. They are not likely to be seen by the naked eye without the assistance of some types of apparatus. It is much like looking into another dimension or seeing with infrared or light that is...This Awareness indicates it appears to be light that is not visible to the human eye without assistance.

This Awareness indicates it is much like the fish in the water who looks up from the surface and sees the fisherman. It is possible for them to make out the images. It is not possible for them to understand the different reality that they have perceived. This Awareness indicates that this sea of consciousness contains many beings, many different types and shapes. It is a world in which entities can project thought-forms and images onto the screen of consciousness and they can become realities.

This Awareness indicates that these beings are labeled as angels. They are not necessarily the same angels spoken of in Biblical times. They are beings of spirit who are able to cross from one dimension to another.

What is the Function of These Angels?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Do they have any particular function?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It appears that they appear to be messengers. It appears that they also are capable of sending invisible messages as what may be termed blessings. It is as though they have the ability to send a blessing simply by willing it through the intention of their consciousness and they enjoy being and blessing together, thus they travel and do things and be together with each other.

They look upon the earth as if it were a kind of garden. This Awareness indicates they are benevolent and spiritually developed beings.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Their blessings then would have some effect on earth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as in the affirmative.

QUESTION:

Does Awareness have a closing message?

Many Things Yet Undreamed of in the Universe

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are many things yet undreamed of in this universe, in this consciousness that is capable of creating by the mere thinking and whereby entities come together and think realities together, these realities can come into being.

This Awareness indicates that there are many who seek power. The seeking of power relates to their unconsciousness realization that with power and influence over others they can force their dreams on others, or share their dreams with others, and together energize the reality they wish to promote.

Dreams Can be Shared and Not Forced on Others

Thus, some promote good and healthy dreams and others promote dreams of self-glory and self-grandeur. This Awareness indicates that individuals can dream and can promote things in their lives that help them to have greater influence in promoting further dreams or they can simply work on their own dreams, influencing by concentrating on their dreams, and if their dreams are those which benefit others, they do not have to force them on others. They only need to share them with others and others will gather to help promote those dreams.

Thank you. (The Law of Gratitude is given)

How to Contact Ahmad's Health Products

Opening Message (CAC General Reading 6/18/96)

This Awareness indicates there has been a surprisingly large number of entities contacting the Interpreter in regard to a message previously given related to the product of Ahmad which assists in the micro-circulatory function in the fingers for people with arthritis and diabetic problems. This Awareness indicates that this product has been nicknamed 'Warm-Up'. This Awareness indicates that the entity Ahmad does not sell to individuals, but sells only to distributors and therefore, it makes it somewhat difficult to acquire this product.

This Awareness indicates that those who wish further information or wish to acquire the product from Ahmad may do so through the following phone number of one of his associates. This number being Area Code 604- 269-7637. Ask for the entity Jean Marie. This Awareness indicates that this entity can either provide you with the product or give you information as to when she will be able to acquire and provide you with the product.

Help for Neuropathy: Circulation Problems in Fingers and Feet

This Awareness indicates for further information on what can be done to assist in the circulatory problems in the fingers and feet, or that which in diabetics is termed Neuropathy, this Awareness suggests the use of lecithin; that this can be of considerable benefit when taken for approximately one week or more. The amount taken is approximately one or two tablespoons per day. More could be used, but this appears to be sufficient for most neuropathy problems. This having to do with the coating of the nerves for entities who have a problem of poor circulation or damage to the nerves from diabetic conditions.

This Awareness indicates that what happens for these diabetics is that the sugar in the system creates a molecular problem in that the sugar molecule is too large and causes damage as it moves through the cellular and nerve levels, and thus, particularly in cold weather, create a damage to the nerves, and the nerves being damaged, cause considerable pain to the area. This Awareness indicates that this can be helped by keeping the area warm, through warm baths or warm compresses or from heating pads such as in a microwave, or from using the lecithin to coat the nerves so that it is less painful.

Vitamin B 6 to Help Heal Damaged Nerve Areas

This Awareness indicates that in addition, Vitamin B 6 can be beneficial in helping to heal those damaged nerve areas, but this needs to be taken daily, regularly and this can, over a period of time, help to restore the nerves to perhaps not completely heal, but to improve the damaged areas.

Get Vitamin B 12 Shots from Veterinarian and Save Big Money

This Awareness indicates that B 12 shots can also be beneficial in helping to improve the circulation in the areas. Of course, B 12 shots can be expensive when received from a medical doctor because it involves an office call, but entities can also acquire the syringes and Vitamin B 12 from veterinarian outlets for their goat or horse.

This Awareness indicates the B 12 liquid is as pure for the horse as it is for the human, and therefore can be used with greater control and less expense. The Vitamin B 12 is very inexpensive when acquired this way, and the syringes are also quite inexpensive; approximately .50 cents per syringe, and should be used only once for each shot, and then discarded. This Awareness indicates that it is possible also to mix the B 12 and B 6 when purchased in this manner, as in liquid form into one syringe and give yourself the shot of B 12 and B 6 in the thigh or in the

This Awareness indicates that there should be some assistance from someone, a nurse, or someone who understands how these shots are given. People who have to take insulin shots will have no problem in taking these B 12/ B 6 shots. This Awareness suggests however, that the B 6 can be taken through tablet form. B 12 can be acquired through beef, particularly beef steaks; that there are benefits from B 12 shots from a doctor if that is essential or from a nurse, but the important thing is the B 6 and the lecithin. The B 12 is good but not absolutely essential in helping to improve the circulation of these fine areas of the body for improving the nerves.

This Awareness indicates that the other benefit of B 12 is that it helps to boost energy. This Awareness indicates the cost of acquiring B 12 and B 6 through veterinarian sources is minimal. One bottle of B 12 or B 6 can provide approximately a hundred or more shots, whereas if you were to seek medical help at a doctor's office for these shots, considering the price of the shot: approximately ten to twelve dollars, plus the office call; you could be paying $30.00 to $40.00 each. The veterinarian cost would be perhaps less than a hundred dollars for everything, or several hundred for 800 or more shots. It is simply a matter of economy and the pureness is not really a problem because the animal products are just as pure as the medical products.

This Awareness suggests, however, that for entities who want to be conventional, traditional, and safe, and do not like the idea of being injected with animal vitamins, the use of lecithin is a good satisfactory way to deal with this problem, and after taking the lecithin powder, which can be taken in capsules or on cereal or mixed with oatmeal and sprinkled on other foods, one will begin to feel the benefits within approximately a week of use. This Awareness indicates it will take at least that long for the Warm-Up to have any effect also.

How to Handle Eye Infection

(Aquagen now Replacing EQ02)

QUESTION:

A question from Patricia L., Woodburn, Indiana. She writes: "I have a question for Awareness. Can EQ02 be safely used for an eye infection if diluted properly, as an eyewash? I have had a sticky dry type eye for a year now. I had to go back to glasses from contacts. I have tried different tea combinations myself, and four different prescriptions from my eye doctor. Nothing has worked so far. I am presently taking EQ02 for yeast problems. It works great. I would greatly appreciate any kind of help. I am getting to wit's end."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if it is diluted sufficiently it appears that it can be beneficial. This Awareness indicates that the Goodship has dropped its EQ02 product and carries Aquagen because the Aquagen carries a balance of the ... This Awareness indicates there is a word that does not show. It is ...this has to do with the poor elements of balance which ...this is associated with elements that are important to the balance in the body. This Awareness indicates that Gatorade uses the term in their promotion of their product. This Awareness indicates the word simply is not showing.

AVATON: ELECTRO...

VIKKI) ELECTROLYTES.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. The electrolytes are balanced in the Aquagen in a way that is missing in all of the other products of this type, and this helps to assure a better absorption and balance in the body. This Awareness indicates that the EQ02 being used in a mixture of pure water for eyedrops is seen as being of no great harm. It is important however, that it is diluted. That if you will notice, the dropping of EQ02 in its full potential, the pure drops dropped on something such as piece of colored cloth, tend to create a bleaching action, and this is not something that you would want to put in the eye.

Try Putting Cayenne (Red Pepper) into Your Eyes

This Awareness indicates that it should be diluted at least 10 to one, and preferably 20 to one. This Awareness indicates that it would be better not to use it at all, but to use Aloe Vera instead, taking aloe vera drops and mixing that with water, or taking cayenne mixed with water, and putting the drops in the eye can be of greater safety and benefit. The thought of cayenne in the eye may sound frightening because entities know that when cayenne is in the mouth it burns, but it is different when placed in the eye. There is no burning. This Awareness suggests that you start out with just a little cayenne in water. Put a few drops in the eye for your own comfort until you become aware that it does not burn.

Put Cayenne in Cuts or Sores to Stop Bleeding

Cayenne can also be of great benefit when placed directly on a cut or sore. It would not seem like a logical thing to do, but it does stop the bleeding and it does not burn in the way it burns in the mouth. Cayenne in the eye can be of considerable benefit because it helps the circulation in these areas. It also helps to clean the tear-ducts. This Awareness suggests take a small glass of water, drop in a pinch or so of cayenne, mix it up, and put a few drops in the eye. After you have done this to your satisfaction, you may then increase the amount of cayenne as desired.

This Awareness indicates boric acid is also another substance that can be mixed with water and used for cleaning the eyes.

Who Are The "Muses" the Artists Contact?

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. "What in fact are the so-called "Muses" who sing to artists and inspire their creative work?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this apparently is a reference to some supernatural entity in regard to the question. This Awareness indicates that there are of course various uses for the term. Muses also has been used in describing living entities who sing song to individuals, but in this reference the questioner appears to be referring to supernatural spirits or disincarnated entities who are inspirational entities behind an artist who is attempting to be creative in his or her work.

This Awareness indicates that these can be either spirits of disincarnated entities likened unto spirit guides, or these can be likened unto the angelic energies of beings of divine nature who are inspirational to an entity. This Awareness indicates that many of the invisible spirits that work with people are in fact dealing with inspirational energies. They are not directly creating and giving substance for entities to channel.

How the Interpreter Uses the Energies from Awareness

This Awareness indicates that much of what this Awareness gives through the Interpreter is really just energy of certain vibratory frequencies, and the Interpreter uses this energy, along with his own interpretation of the energy, to formulate the message from this Awareness into words that are spoken in your language for your consumption.

This Awareness indicates that occasionally, this Awareness has to be more specific in terms of words or ideas and help the Interpreter to find a better way of saying or way of conveying information than he would be able to do through his own interpretive process. This Awareness indicates it is much the same with those who inspire entities from other realms or other frequencies to help them put into their own artistic expressions the messages from these Muses or angels or spirit guides.

How the Muse Inspires the Artist

This Awareness indicates that it needs to be understood that many of these angels, Muses or spirit guides that inspire an artist are simply creating those feelings that an artist gets when feeling the inspiration to write a poem or to sing a song or to create a tune. The inspiration is often all that comes through. It comes through as a kind of feeling or vibratory energy that uplifts the spirit of the artist, and the artist then becomes an interpreter for those energies and feelings, and finds the words.

The words are not necessarily through the effort of the artist. They often just come to express terms suitable for the feelings the artist acquires from these inspirational sources.

Did Shakespeare Help Write the Bible?

QUESTION:

A question from Robert Smith, Vancouver, BC. "A man I heard interviewed on the radio recently asserted that William Shakespeare may have taken part in the writing of the King James version of the Bible. The clue Shakespeare supposedly left was in Psalms, Chapter 46. In 1610 when the King James Bible was completed, Shakespeare was 46 years old. Now, if you count 46 words from the beginning of Psalms 46, you come to the word 'shake' not including the word 'Selah' at the end, which was used to indicate a pause. Counting 46 words backwards, you come to the word 'spear'. "Does Awareness acknowledge that William Shakespeare helped to write the King James version of the bible, and did he leave a deliberate clue that he had done so in Psalms 46?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct. This Awareness indicates that it was well historically understood that Shakespeare worked for the entity Ben Johnson, who had a staff of writers, and that they were involved in working for King James in the writing of the King James version of the Bible, and it is quite likely that the entity Shakespeare may have left this message. This Awareness indicates that this would be the way in which certain entities would hide messages in their work when they are working anonymously. It is not that they wanted the world to know, but they could point out the phenomenon to friends and associates, or in the event they needed to use something for reference in case they needed such a reference as to their own work.

This Awareness indicates that in modern times, entities would have their name on the area of written work, unless they were a ghost writer, and often the work would be copyrighted. In older times, entities would find ways to imbed a coded signature on their written material which could be used at some later time as proof that they had done this particular piece of work. This Awareness reminds you of the Piso family in writing the New Testament, how they imbedded their own signatures in the writings of the various books of the New Testament; that this is explained in the material relating to this family.

The Most Important Question Not yet Asked

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. She Asks: "From Cosmic Awareness' view, what is the most important query which to date has not been put to Awareness, and the reply?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that from the view of this Awareness, the most important question that any entity can ask, and of course it only has to be asked by one entity, because it is a question for all entities; the question being: "What am I here for?" This Awareness indicates that any entity in asking this question can ask it for all humanity. This Awareness indicates that this is not in reference to a particular occupation for an entity. It is a question: "Why is any entity in existence as a being, and what is the purpose of such existence?"

What Your Purpose in Life Really Is

This Awareness indicates that of course, the answer is simple, and the answer is universal. This Awareness indicates that entities are here, wherever "here" is, to express their own Divinity and their association with the Divine energies of the Creation. This Awareness indicates that by being one with the Divine, entities are experiencing and expressing Divinity Itself. You are here to be One with God. That is your purpose. What you do as One with God doesn't matter. It matters for you to be One with God.

This Awareness indicates that God being the Divine Vibration that permeates all of Creation. As One with God you are part of the Divine Creation. You are part of the Divine Creator, and you reflect and express in that capacity. This Awareness indicates if you forget this important purpose of your being, then it is easy for one to get lost and think that some particle of the Creation is yourself, some formation in the Creation is you, and you become simply a tiny part of a great mosaic, but when you realize that you are one aspect and one in total as a vibration of the Great Mosaic and that each part of the Great Mosaic contains the whole of the Great Mosaic, then you become One with God.

Study a Hologram to Understand Being One with God

This Awareness reminds you if you have not studied the hologram, or do not understand how a hologram works, you may not understand the spiritual relationship between yourself and the Creator. In a hologram, there is the light image of the whole, but each small part or particle of the whole contains a mirror image of the entire hologram, so that when any one part is taken, it can be used to create the total hologram picture again. It is like each little part of the Creator is a mirror image of the total Creator.

This Awareness indicates that this is what is meant when it was said that you are made in God's Image. This is a matter of current scientific discovery in relation to the nature of a hologram which is essentially a study of light and a particular technology in using light.

God Also Could Wonder at This Question

This Awareness indicates that when an entity asks: "Why am I here?" it is likened unto God asking the question, "Why am I here? What is my purpose for being?" This Awareness indicates that for an entity or individual who sees himself but as a small particle of the Great Creation, such an entity would not imagine that God also could wonder at that question, but this Awareness indicates it is just as important for God to wonder at the question as it is for an individual to ask that question: "Why am I here? What am I doing? What is my purpose?"

This Awareness indicates of course you do not expect God to have these problems, to have these questions, because you assume that God knows everything, even why He (or She) is here, what His or Her purpose is. This Awareness indicates that when you realize that your existence parallels and reflects the existence of God, and that you, as a small particle of Light in the light Body of God experience similar feelings, similar uncertainties, you may have a better respect and understanding for what God is.

People Expect so Much From God and so Little From Themselves

Entities expect so much from God, and so little from themselves. It is likened unto a sun's ray expecting the sun to provide it with everything it needs for its existence, when in reality it is already receiving everything it needs from the sun for its existence, and needs to expect nothing further. This Awareness indicates the sun's ray may ask: "What is my purpose? Why am I here?" and may think that something needs to be added. This Awareness suggests that the sun's ray might find it interesting to consider that the sun may have the same question: "Why am I shining? Why am I sending out these rays? What is my purpose?"

You Can Answer the Question Yourself by What is Occurring at the Moment

This Awareness indicates that all of these things are simply part of existence. They are part of the act of being. Everything that IS may wonder: "What am I here for? What am I doing? What is my purpose?" but this does not necessarily provide an answer. This Awareness indicates that you may decide to answer this for yourself, by what is occurring at the moment. For example, one entity might say "I am here to change this baby's diaper. That is my purpose at this time!" Another might say "I am here to attend this wounded soldier's leg. That is my purpose at this time!" Another might say: "I am here to get to the top of this mountain. That is my purpose at this time!"

This Awareness indicates you may ask "Why am I climbing this mountain? Why am I going up this stupid mountain when it is so difficult?" You may say "I will climb no further!" Then you may turn and say "Why am I going down this stupid mountain. Why did I come up here? What is my purpose in going down this mountain when I could be going up?" This Awareness indicates you can question endlessly, but it is all part of being. It is all part of your existence. It is likened unto God saying "Why am I attending this entire Creation? It is so complex! There is so much here! Why don't I just give it up?"

"To be or not to be; that is the question."

This Awareness indicates the word 'Why' and 'How' can be extremely mischievous. Questioning 'how' to do something instead of just 'doing' it, or questioning: "Why am I doing it?" instead of just accepting What Is can be very mischievous. It can also be very helpful. "How do I do this?" can be helpful in finding a better way. "Why am I doing this?" can be helpful in making a decision. Therefore, all of these things are part of being. They are part of your existence. They are tools for you to use in evaluating your actions and purposes and your state of being, but the 'beingness,' 'to be'; that is the main consideration, and is behind all that causes one to ponder, to think, to question, to explore and to view things from the various ways of observing.

Asking Awareness Questions is Asking for Another Point of View

This Awareness indicates the questions that entities ask this Awareness are simply ways of observing the being of themselves and others, the being of concepts and ideas; these are simply ways of looking at something from different points of view. You look at it from one side, then you want to see "What's it look like from another side?" If you had the opportunity, would you not like to see the moon from its dark side? This Awareness indicates that it is the same with every concept, every idea. The more you can view things from different sides, the more you feel you understand. The more you think you understand, the greater you think your being has grown.

The being grows as you expand your awareness, thus you seek to see from all sides, and you seek to question from all sides. The quest is simply a search for a new way of looking, for a new way of understanding, for something to add to your total experience as a being.

This Awareness indicates to ask "Why am I here?" only needs to be asked long enough to understand: "You are here because you ARE. You are where you are because you are where you are! You are doing what you are doing because you are DOING what you are doing." It is an answer that is answered from the question itself. It is not something that will give you great revelation. It is simply a response to your quest. You are questing or searching because you are searching. It is part of your being, to search. It is part of your being to rest and stop searching at some point.

Making Things so Complicated You Become Miserable

All of these actions you take reflect your being, the nature of your being, and the quest that your being seeks. This Awareness indicates it is important for entities to consider this only if they wish to have a greater insight into themselves. If they wish to make things more complicated, to make things more mysterious, then there are other ways to do so. One can make things so complicated that they seem to be in a kind of maze. They can even become miserable from the complications: "Why am I in my life with my grouchy husband? Why am I living this horrible existence? Why am I having so much trouble with my daughter and my son? Why are my debt so enormous? Why am I such a short person, when I wanted to be tall?"

This Awareness indicates the entity Paul Simon wrote a song of a similar nature, asking these questions of himself. This Awareness indicates that it is simply a matter of complicating one's existence to ask too many questions that appear to be unanswerable. An entity can say "Why am I asking all of these complicated questions?" and it can help to bring one out of the maze they have created with their complicated questions.

It all comes back to 'being'. If you are in the process of 'being' you can be anything you choose. You can be as complicated as you wish. You can be as simple as you wish, or you can be somewhere in between, but it is 'being' that likes to change its experiences and its way of being, because it is more interesting. When you have worn a brown shirt for 30 years, isn't it interesting that you can change and put on a yellow shirt or a blue shirt? When you have been what you are for one or two decades, isn't it amazing that you can become something different

People Change Often. Some Think Like a Stack of Spaghetti

Likewise, when you have thought of something in a certain way, you can change your way of viewing it. Some people change so often they don't remember what they wore yesterday. They change so often they don't remember their viewpoint from yesterday. They like to change their mind. They like to change their quest. Their interests change continuously. Their interests can become so convoluted and confusing that their lives become much more interesting. They think in the manner of a stack of spaghetti; one idea entwined in another idea, entwined in another idea, endlessly, and unable to extract the first idea.

Many entities have their idea so intertwined that nothing is clear to them. They are likened unto a spaghetti factory. This Awareness indicates that this of course after the spaghetti has been cooked and mixed, not while the spaghetti still is straight, lying in straight lines. The straight-line spaghetti is easy to understand. The spaghetti that has been cooked and intertwined is likened unto a stack of knotted rope, and many entities' minds are functioning like a stack of knotted ropes or knotted thoughts and ideas.

One idea cannot be examined because it is wrapped up and tied up with another idea, and the entity starts to think of 'Mother' and remembers 'Father' and remembers 'Sister' and remembers 'the fight' and remembers 'the spilled water' and 'the dropped watermelon' and 'the ice cream that fell on someone's lap' and remembers all of these things so that she cannot think of Mother in a clear manner. The entity may want to say something to Mother, but all of these other things come rushing in like pulling on a rope and having the whole stack of spaghetti come up with it.

Many People Complicate Their Lives Intentionally

This Awareness indicates that these are ways wherein entities can complicate their being. The being often is complicated intentionally, so that an entity can feel that they have a fulfilled life. Their life is so full of so many experiences that to speak of one drags up everything. This Awareness indicates you have met these entities. You ask them how they are, and they tell you about their vacation, they tell you about their job, they tell you about their family relationships, they tell you about their health and the various pains throughout their body, and the various foods they eat for their diet. They tell you about where they've gone that day and what they did.

Many Just Wait Until Someone Asks: "How are you?"

This Awareness indicates that many entities find their life is important only if it is complicated with so many things and they are waiting for someone to ask "How are you?" so they can drag out their entire being and parade it before this audience of one. This Awareness indicates that there are others whose lives are fairly simple, or who may have complicated lives, but they do not try to drag the entire thing up at once. They will pull up a small piece of spaghetti: "Here! This is how my life is! Take a small taste!" and they give a small portion of their life: "I'm working on 'this' right now. How does it seem to you? Does that seem satisfactory?" And they give a small taste. You have tasted one piece of spaghetti, you have tasted them all. You do not have to bring up the entire knot of spaghetti to show someone how your life is.

This Awareness indicates that many entities are satisfied to just show little bits of their life to others. Other entities want to show the whole ball of wax, the whole bowl of spaghetti. This Awareness indicates that it is boring to your friends if they ask "How are you?" and you say, "Oh, I'm being!" "Yes, of course, you're being! We understand that! But what are you being? And how are you being?" and they want to know more than just "Are you being?" This Awareness indicates therefore, entities give them something to think about, give them something to talk about. They begin to create their spaghetti balls and bring up the knots and bring up the endless inter-twinning of events and so forth.

It's All Just For Entertainment, Folks!

This Awareness suggests that all of it is just for entertainment: entertainment of the mind, entertainment of the emotions, entertainment of the feelings. The whole ball of wax of life is for entities to be entertained with those things that interest them. They are interested in politics, they are interested in movies, they are interested in relationships, they are interested in places and things, and therefore, they are being interested, and they are giving their attention to these many aspects of being, and these actions are keeping them entertained.

Their entire life is entertained. You are entertaining guests. You are entertaining friends. You are entertaining relationships. You are entertaining politics. You are entertaining concepts and ideas of interests. You are entertaining movies. You are entertaining ideas for movies. You are entertaining books, stories, children, grandchildren, work, finances, everything that entertains you and entertains others. Your mind must first entertain itself with these many aspects of being, and in turn it is entertained by those aspects of being.

How Do You Entertain?

"Why am I here?" "What is my purpose?" Your purpose is to be entertained. You are here to entertain. The question then may be: "How do I entertain?" You entertain by doing what you want to do to entertain yourself. "But I like to perform for others." Then that is entertaining for you because you like to do it. You like to perform for others, then you are entertaining yourself when you are performing for others.

This Awareness indicates that life is really simple when you look at it this way, but it can become extremely complicated when you entertain complications. This Awareness suggests it is a matter of personal choices and options. You have all of these choices in how you wish to be. You can be anything you want to be, but you can't be everything at once. If you are being a spaghetti factory, you cannot at the same time be simple and have everything spacey and clear. If you are trying to be very clear and have lots of space, you cannot be smothered with spaghetti. You must rid yourself of the entanglements of your life if you want everything to be perfectly clear.

The Spaghetti Entanglement of Relationships

But would you appreciate a perfectly clear space, or would it bore you? Maybe if you had the perfectly clear space, you would immediately start finding ways to bring things into that space, to lay something on top of that, and put this under here, and pull that through here, until you have another set of knots and entanglements in your life. You have your relationships entangled with 'this' person, who shouldn't know what's happening with 'that' person.

You don't want 'this' person to meet 'that' person. You want this person to meet you at a certain time, but you don't want others to meet you at the same time. You want 'these' entities to not know what was said here at this gathering, but you want to say something to 'this' person about that gathering, and you want 'these' entities to meet sometime, but not until you're ready, and all of these entanglements of relationships are also likened unto spaghetti getting all tied up on your plate of life.

Should Not the Divine Creator Have Concerns About Its Creations?

This Awareness indicates it's all part of being. You are here to be. You are a reflection of the Divine Consciousness; the Divine Creator. You are the Divine Creator of your life. Whether or not you appreciate your creation is the same concern that Divine Creator of the universe occasionally experiences. Does it not surprise you that the Divine Creator of the universe may have concerns about Its creation? Perhaps It says "I've created a monster!" No, this is not the spotted dog on television, this is the universe in the way it has been created. It is likened unto a monster for the Creator at times.

The Universal Ball of Spaghetti on the Screen of Creation

This Awareness indicates that the Creator recognizes there are many things that have become extremely complicated for the various parts of the Creation to deal with, and yet they were complicated in their creation because there was a need for more interest, more creation, more additional convolutions, more aspects; and this phenomenon needs to be witnessed by some other phenomenon, and the two phenomena needed to be pulled together in a kind of bow so that each could reflect the other, and the entire Creation then became likened unto a gigantic universal ball of spaghetti on the screen of existence.

Each Part of Spaghetti Now Wants to Split and Become Macaroni

This Awareness indicates that now, each part of spaghetti wants to separate and call itself Macaroni. Macaroni is simpler than spaghetti because it is individual, it is small. It has its separateness, and each of the parts of the spaghetti that cuts itself off from the whole can say "I am separating from this entire ball of spaghetti! This whole creation is insane! I cannot handle it! I want to be separate! Give me a corner, a little place where I can go and hide by myself!" and thus, the spaghetti is broken and the macaroni comes of age. The individual becomes a unit of one, and then the universe of the unit of one begins to ask: "What am I here for? Why am I here? What is my purpose?" and the piece of macaroni asks this Awareness: "What is my purpose, oh Divine one?" and this Awareness answers: "Your purpose is to be One with God."

And you freak out and say "Does that mean I have to go back and be spaghetti again? Do I have to go back into that Creation where everything is all one?" This Awareness indicates that you are One with God when you are One with being. You do not have to become part of the confusion, but you have to be One with the Vibration, the Frequency, the Divinity of the Frequency, and since spaghetti vibrates to the same frequency as macaroni, you can remain macaroni and still vibrate as God, as One with the Divine Frequency of the Universe.

This Awareness indicates that the only thing you can't do is claim to be totally a separate being and still claim to be One with the Divine, because the Divine includes everything. You cannot be included in everything while claiming separateness. You can have a different shape. You can be in the shape of spaghetti if you wish, or in the shape of macaroni, but your frequency, your vibration, must be One with All, if you are to be One with the Divine. Therefore, the spaghetti can say "I am One with God!" and the macaroni can say "I am One with God!"

You just cannot say "I, a piece of macaroni am God!" because it is simply not true, and you would be a liar, and you know what happens to liars! This Awareness indicates that it is all a matter of being who you are, what you are, at any given time. This Awareness indicates that you might as well enjoy whatever you happen to be at any given time; whether you are all tied up as a spaghetti factory, or whether you have left the factory and are simply a piece of macaroni lying on some dinner plate left over after dinner. Enjoy your being and be all you can be, for tomorrow, you may be something else.

This Awareness remind you that you will always be 'something'. That is what you are here for. This Awareness suggests you may never be able to eat macaroni in the same way again, or to eat spaghetti without thinking of your life in its many aspects and shapes and convolutions after having read this message. This Awareness indicates that giving messages like this is a dirty job but someone has to do it.

Is Man a Composite of 22 Different ETs?

QUESTION:

A question from Peter Kudron, San Diego, California. It's a little weird. This might have been the last thing Peter wrote. We heard from Jane O.B. that Peter died a couple of days ago in Arizona in a car wreck on his way back East. Anyway, his question is: "On the Art Bell Show, on April 28th 1996, a Native American Shaman named David Ghost Wolf said our DNA was a composite of 22 different beings as a result of extraterrestrial experimentation that would correspond to the 22 keys of the Major Arcana of the Tarot, as well as the number of letters in the Hebrew alphabet and the number of chapters in the Book of Revelation. Would Awareness please comment?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct. This Awareness indicates it appears there is also that number of chromosomes that have some application in this regard. This Awareness indicates that it appears the information relates to the earlier work of Cosmic Genetics Scientists who helped to bring about the Cro Magnon and upright man from the Neanderthal stage. This Awareness indicates that it does need to be explored further in relation to the parallels of the Hebrew alphabet and 22 Arcana cards which in themselves reflect the Hebrew alphabet; that this part, the Arcana cards of the Tarot, and the Hebrew alphabet have already been correlated together. In the Paul Case Tarot book this is clear, and to bring other aspects of this together would be a research for entities that could be beneficial and rewarding in further studying the nature of this phenomena.

ARE THERE UNDISCOVERED PYRAMIDS IN NORTH AMERICA?

QUESTION:

One other question from Peter. He writes: "This Shaman also said there were more pyramids in North America, older ones than in Egypt, and an ancient city will soon be revealed in Alaska due to earthquake activity, including pyramids that will prove conclusively extraterrestrial activity on our planet." And he asks "Would Awareness please comment?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is something that can only be answered when it occurs. It is a matter of giving it time and remembering this Shaman's forecast when such an event occurs. This Awareness indicates that essentially this information regarding older pyramids is correct. That many of these pyramids have sunk beneath the surface of land or have been partially covered with other debris; for example, space dust or dust from volcanic eruptions that have cast heavy amounts of ash into the sky which have come down and created hills where pyramid tops may have at one time been visible. (

Some of these hills have vegetation growing on them and the pyramids beneath wouldn't easily be found, some of these pyramids being deep in the ground because of silt and sediment that have covered the pyramids. This Awareness indicates the reason these have not been preserved as those in Egypt; these are older for one thing, and the climate is much different in the north American continent than in Egypt wherein there is much more vegetation and greater rains and dampness, and in the desert this has not been a problem in covering the pyramids there.

This Awareness indicates that in most of North America, if you put a heavy brick or rock on the ground, come back within ten years, the rock will have sunk almost out of sight, or possibly completely out of sight, depending on the type of ground it is sitting on; that the ground in North America tends to swallow up that which is above, over periods of time. This is especially so in damp regions, not in desert regions.

A 38,000 Year Old Skull With a Bullet Hole?

(More on the Atlans and Titans and Lemuria)

QUESTION:

Another question from JD in New York. She writes: "The London Museum of Natural History displays an early Paleolithic skull dated at 38,000 years, excavated in 1921 in modern Zambia, with apparently incontrovertible evidence of a bullet hole in it." And she asks Awareness if It would please explain.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there have been civilizations based on other technologies from extraterrestrials that existed long before this current civilization which has presently brought about the influx of guns and bullets. This Awareness indicates that prior to the Atlanteans were those entities known as Titans and also there were the Atlans, which were the forefathers from which the Atlantean continent was named. The Atlans and the Titans and the Lemurians all have connections with extraterrestrial civilizations. Indeed, they had craft that could transverse from earth to other planets of the solar system. Some craft being inter-dimensional in nature, so that there were considerable amounts of technologies that surpassed the technologies of today, and many more that parallel the technologies of today.

This Awareness indicates there have also been found ancient remnants, or pictures and drawings of aircraft in various places on the earth which are clearly reminiscent of your own airplanes, and there are also drawings of rocket ships that predate anything of the historic memory of written history.* This Awareness indicates it is not surprising that a skull would have a hole similar to a bullet hole at some time in prehistory. This Awareness indicates that indeed, it appears to be a genuine bullet hole. Of course, the word 'bullet' simply means projectile. It is not necessarily a parallel to a modern type of shell. It may have been made quite differently in its time from any weapon of today.

Why 9000 UN Troops at Olympic Games?

QUESTION:

A question from Elsie D., in Rye, Colorado. She writes: "Would it be possible to ask Awareness why they are employing 9,000 UN troops to the Olympic Games in Atlanta? I smell a rat with the UN troops!", she says.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this appears to be an attempt to make entities feel at ease with the UN troops being in the United States, so that further use of such troops can be repeatedly used, and entities become used to their presence. The reasoning being that since it is international games, people will not object to an international police force being present to help make the games secure.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There's no assurance that those troops will leave after the games are over, is there?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness suggests however, that it appears they will do their job of protecting the masses in a manner that makes the American people feel comfortable. The purpose being a propaganda attempt to comfort people with the UN troops so that when they are seen at some other time, or called in for some further purpose, there would have been a precedent set, and they can use this precedent to counter any argument that "We do not want foreign troops on our soil!" This Awareness indicates that this setting a precedent is a way of creating laws that will eventually become acceptable to the people of the United States so that they become used to it, so that they become accustomed to the presence of UN troops, so that when UN troops are brought in for some other purpose, such as quelling riots, or stopping a problem from occurring due to famine or some other crisis, the UN troops will have already established that they can handle it, and will be friends to the people.

This Awareness reminds you of a time when you were a young child, and the schools taught that "If you are lost, if you need help, if you have a problem, go to your friendly policeman, he will help you!" and this is similar in nature. "If you have a problem in the United States, go to your friendly UN police force. They will help you get things back into proper order. It is a conditioning program, or project to condition the American people to accept their presence. You will see these UN troops on television to help indoctrinate the rest of the country. Even if you do not attend the games, you will see the helpful United Nations troops being present, protecting the masses at the games.

QUESTION:

One last question: this from James D., Maple Heights, Ohio. He writes: "A lady at work, my daughter Jenny, 15, and a couple of other girls related the very same story. At one or more nights in their lives, they woke up as if frozen, and couldn't move, and could barely breathe. Some of them sensed or saw a male figure in the room. What causes this? Is it an attempt at possession, or an alien's presence?" he asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that occasionally entities will come into this dimension from another dimension, and many times the entities in this dimension can see those energies from the intruding entity. This Awareness wishes to comment. Many of the young people in puberty have considerable amount of sexual energy, and this sexual energy is emanating a kind of vibration that can be used by those from other frequencies or dimensions to help them materialize into the physical form briefly.

Poltergeists Feed on the Energy of Adolescents

This Awareness indicates that this is why so often poltergeists are found in areas where there are young boys or girls living, going through puberty. This Awareness indicates the phenomena of poltergeists, having been studied by many doctors or scientists who recognize that the poltergeist feed on the energy of children in puberty, and they use that energy for making their noises or doing their activities that create the phenomena of the noisy ghost.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, those energies of young people can invite or produce energy that allows other types of entities to come into physical form.

Spirit Guides, Guardian Angels Enjoy Sexual Orgasms of Humans

This Awareness wishes to make another comment at this point. In regard to this kind of energy, this Awareness indicates that many entities think that higher spirits are opposed to sex, and that entities on earth who indulge in sexual activities would be condemned by their guardian angels or spirit guides or other divine personages, but in fact, the spirit guides, the angels and the beings of higher frequency and vibration actually get energy from the sexual climax of earthly entities, so that those entities experiencing a climax on earth can actually feed energy into higher frequencies and vibrations for the vitality of these higher beings, and they feed on these energies, gaining energy from the sexual acts of humans.

This Awareness indicates that this as information which this Awareness has not previously given, and which may help you to understand some of these energies and the phenomena relating to the poltergeist and to the questioner in regard to the young girls having been visited by a disincarnated male figure. This Awareness wishes to comment however, that the young girls were not having sex. They inherently have strong sexual energies which could be used by such beings to enter into physical form for a brief time.

Aleister Crowley's Sex Orgies and Rituals

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is this why Aleister Crowley and some of the Theosophical people allegedly indulged in sexual and homosexual types of rituals, in so-called orgies during their seances and get-togethers? To produce sexual energy to invoke and be used by these inter-dimensional beings?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness suggests however, that involving sex to bring in negative or dark forces is extremely dangerous to the individuals involved; that these dark forces can then take over aspects of the individual's lives so that they can create pacts with the individual's and thus take away the individual's freedoms and individual rights, so that they become enslaved to the demonic intruder.

Ritual Sex Can Create a Pact with Dark Force Demons

This Awareness indicates that this is not a healthy practice to use sexual energy to call in dark spirits. The dark spirits are motivated to control the souls of entities, not to free them or give them spiritual growth and freedom, but to make them servants of the Dark Force, and therefore, uses of this type of ritual for demonic or Satanic purposes enslaves the entities involved in such, and while the rewards may come for a short period of time, the possession may last many lifetimes, so that the entity is long held in chains by the demonic and Satanic powers. These of course being psychic chains. The word 'psychic' in this use refers to mental or emotional chains that bind the entity to the particular demonic force involved.

Sexual Energy Also Used in Kahuna Magic

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that this information just given also applies to the Kahuna magic, wherein entities are taught to breathe deeply to build up the Mana. The Mana of the Kahuna magic, which is seen as a red energy, yellow energy or blue energy, is essentially drawn from sexual energy. The heavy breathing brings blood-sugar in contact with oxygen and creates the aura or the red energy of the lower vibration, which then can be used to manufacture yellow energy of the mental body, which in turn is transferred to the Higher Self or the blue energy of the Divine Body.

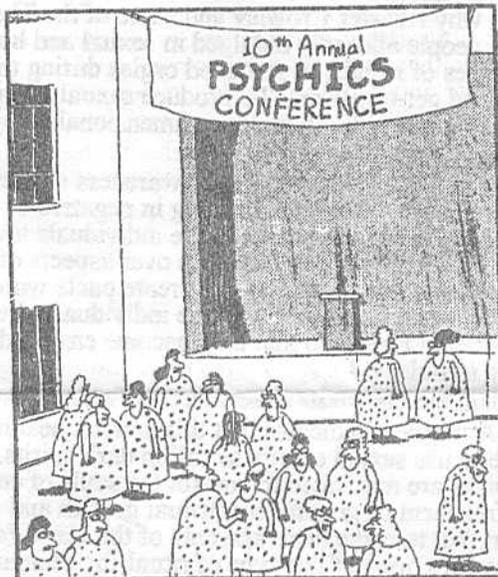

This Awareness indicates that by the heavy breathing, it is similar to the creation of sexual energy, or one could say the sexual energy involves the heavy breathing, which generates the energy that helps to induce the sexual climax. The building of this energy for the Kahuna magic as that which then is transferred to the higher Divine Force, and the energy is then used by these Divine Forces to bring answers to the prayer that has been issued at the time of the Kahuna magical prayer.

This Awareness refers you back to the 8th Sea of the Spiritual Development Course as presented through the Cosmic Awareness Communications in the readings on Scorpio for further research into this work of the Kahuna prayer and Kahuna magic. There are other references to the Kahuna prayer also. This Awareness reminds you also of the book by Max Freedom Long in which the Kahuna prayer is defined and outlined in its entirety. The two books on this that are highly recommended: The Secret Science Behind Miracles by Max Freedom Long, and Huna: Code in Religion by Max Freedom Long. There are also others that discuss various aspects of this Kahuna magic in its different ways of being viewed*.

* CAC permanently stocks the books of Max Freedom Long. Please refer to Book Price Sheet.

For the most part, the meeting was quite successful. Only a slight tension filled the air, stemming from the unforeseen faux pas of everyone wearing the same dress.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. CAC General reading 3-8 3-8-92 Paul Shockley Interpreter

LOOKING FOR ALTAIR

The Home Base of the CAC Staff and Interpreter

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that the Interpreter as attempting to find the star system from whence the three of you, the energizers and the Interpreter came from prior to the incarnations in the physical earth lifetimes. This Awareness suggests that it is in the constellation known as Aquila, meaning "eagle" which is near the constellation of Aquarius and Delphinus. Delphinus being very close to the star in particular which you spent most of your time at in this constellation. The star beginning with the letter A, on your star map, just to the right of the Delphinus, or Dolphin constellation... this appears to be Altair.

You were more at home in the Dolphin constellation than in the Eagle constellation and did move back and forth in various lifetimes in that area and traveled into the Dolphin or Delphinus constellation quite frequently, carrying on business and living brief lifetimes in that area. This Awareness indicates that your main location for most of your lifetimes was in the star system ... it appears to be Altair and planets associated with that particular star.

This Awareness indicates that it is a well-known star on the map to the right of the Delphinus constellation in your star book. This Awareness indicates that it is on the very edge of the milky way, just inside the starry system of the milky way. This Awareness indicates that this creates a place that never knows darkness and complete polarities; the shades and shadows never completely darken, even though the planets rotate similar to the rotation of the earth, for there are lights and starry systems on all sides. That one side of course is brighter, thus there is a dimming and a brightening throughout the daytime and night-time cycles.

This Awareness indicates that It will discuss this in greater detail at some time in the future, when more energy is available for this.

CAN WE CONTACT DEAD GENIUSES?

(And Bring Back Their Lost Technology?)

QUESTION:

A question from Judith Jones in New York. She writes: "Would it be possible to contact the personality or essence of Tesla, Reich, or Royal Rife, by channeling to facilitate the resurrection of their technologies? Labs were trashed, notes, records and devices stolen by government agencies and so forth. If so, is anyone channeling Royal Rife currently, and how can one establish a channel to a specific desired personality essence such as these, if it is indeed possible?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is possible; it is also very difficult. This Awareness does not see anyone doing this at this time with any degree of proficiency. This Awareness indicates, however, that if one wished to do such channeling, all that is necessary is for the entity to attune to the frequency that is associated with the entity. It is not necessary to attune to the soul of the entity, but only to the frequency, and in attuning to the frequency, the channeler would then be open to the same creative energies as the one who is the subject of interest.

This Awareness indicates that if you can attune yourself to the frequency of a genius, you then have the same genius available to you, but you may not have the thinking of the genius at your disposal. You may have to do the thinking yourself, just as would the genius have to do his thinking to reach the creative results of his efforts.

This Awareness suggests that it is easier to think about someone else doing that for humanity than to make the effort oneself. That it would be an interesting challenge for the questioner to work at this project, and attempt to attune to the frequency of a selected entity and see what can be discovered.

TUNING IN TO THE VIBRATION OF A GENIUS

(Why So Many Entities Claim to be Jesus Christ)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

There have been a few slim books published by an outfit in Indiana that has some kind of medium, a man who allegedly contacts great personalities, composers, writers, etc. and allegedly has contacted the likes of Tesla, Beethoven etc. However, I've read some of these and it doesn't seem to go into any great depth, or present any new information. I was wondering if when one attunes to the same frequency of some genius, as Awareness suggests, even if that entity is now in another lifetime in another body, as another person, is that frequency that you tie into still around this same entity?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

To some degree, however, usually the tuning in does not really affect the entity's new life experiences to any significant degree. This Awareness indicates that one can tune into historic persons from the past and feel the vibration. It is this kind of experience that leads some entities into the belief that they are Jesus Christ or Napoleon or some other being. They can actually feel the vibration of the entity and in feeling the vibration, they know who the entity is and how the entity feels and then they attribute these feelings to their own self and claim to be the entity.

The mistake they make is in expecting others to recognize them as that person just because they can feel the vibrations of that person in their own soul. This Awareness indicates they may feel the Christ vibrations within themselves but this is not convincing proof to others around them that they are the Christ, and in fact, most entities would consider their claim as sacrilegious. Looking at the individual in his historic and personal lifestyle or pattern, they would not recognize that there is this Christ-vibration penetrating the entity and causing him to become or to feel- himself as something different from his usual self.

Experiencing A Transpersonative Vibratory Being

This Awareness indicates, however, it is possible for entities to experience these moments in which they know as a transpersonative vibratory being, the vibrations of someone else, and in knowing those vibrations, they can discover a great amount of information about the entity, reaching even to the heart of the entity's being and gaining intense understanding in a matter of moments.

To hold that vibration long enough to emulate or to perform miracles or to make discoveries and create and invent as did the entity, would be nearly impossible. Over long periods of time the holding of such vibrations is very difficult and entities generally need to go back to their own frequencies and vibrations in order to rest. To do otherwise, to stay in the vibration of another puts the entity in danger of losing himself and creating damage to his or her soul.

This Awareness indicates therefore, it is an impractical thing for any long-term activity, to expect someone to tune in to a genius or great person and recapture the spirit of that person long enough to perform miracles or create the magic that entity might have shared with humanity, had he or she been able to live longer.

When Walter Russell Experienced All That Is

This Awareness indicates that even the attunement for a few moments, however, can give entities great insight and some entities can learn enormous amounts of information in such few moments. This Awareness indicates that the entity Walter Russell in experiencing a high vibratory encounter for a few hours, managed during that time to learn so much that he spent the rest of his life writing books and dispensing the information he had gained from those few hour of time in that high vibratory state.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

He was in the Cosmic Awareness Vibratory rate was he not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that he was in a state of extremely high frequency, higher than that which the Interpreter for this Awareness enters; that the Interpreter for this Awareness could not continue or withstand these vibrations for any long period of time, but would burn out.

This Awareness indicates this entity in tuning in to these higher levels of consciousness, approaching total union with this Awareness nearly burnt himself out, and was for awhile believed to be insane. But because the information he was able to present to more intelligent people in the community, to doctors and physicists and the like, these entities were intelligent enough to know that what he was presenting had merit, even if it was beyond their understanding, and therefore, determined he was not insane, but that he had some special event occur that gave him powerful and very superior insight into certain hidden mysteries and was to be allowed to continue his work.

Ed's Note: CAC permanently stocks the books of Walter Russell, including "Atomic Suicide," "The Secret of Light," "Messages of the Divine Iliad," Vol. 1 and 2. We highly recommend these books to those seeking awareness in the New Age. Please refer to the CAC Book Price sheet for latest prices.

IS THE INFORMATION OF GENIUSES IN THE AKASHIC RECORDS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In reference to tapping into the frequency of those geniuses mentioned; is it possible that such information somehow got into the Akashic record by these entities by thinking it or working with those ideas and concepts?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates you must recognize that the Akashic record is the electromagnetic frequency, the resonating electromagnetic scale, and that this resonating electromagnetic scale holds all the memories of all things and holds these frequencies of geniuses and memories and therefore, the frequencies are the Akashic record. It is not simply a dream-like activity of going into a building, pulling open a drawer, and reading manuscript in the way many perceive from the Cayce explanation.

How Edgar Cayce Really Tapped the Akashic Record

The entity Edgar Cayce gave a simplified version as that was for him, a kind of ritual for retrieving information, but that is not actually what he was doing to get the information. Even though he would do this in his imagination, he was in fact searching through frequency levels to retrieve the information needed, and used this imagery to help him search through these frequency levels.

This Awareness indicates that it is kind of like the person who uses a crystal ball. This person does not actually get the message out of the crystal ball, but projects the images into the crystal ball and then reads the images that have been projected from his or her consciousness, into that crystal ball.

HOW TAROT AND PSYCHIC TOOLS WORK

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is that basically how the Tarot works too?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these tools are but reflectors of the consciousness of the adept or agent using the tool. They use a tool as another might use a mirror. In fact, one could even use the mirror to do psychic readings, particularly if the mirror was clouded, so as to create no true reflection, and the entity would look into this distorted mirror with a mind set to discover an answer to a question, and the entity would project the answer into the mirror and then read it.

The entity does not need a mirror, just as this Interpreter does not need a physical tool to receive these messages, but the use of a tool to reflect consciousness onto can be helpful for some entities. Each entity may function in a different way, with some particular way being more easy for that particular entity.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is that basically because the rational mind cannot accept some of these concept, but it can accept them if it can see a tool somehow being used, such as the cards or the crystal ball?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is more that the rational mind has to be pushed aside, or set aside some way and if it can be set aside with the use of a tool such as Tarot cards, tea leaves, Ouija board or something that really doesn't make sense to the rational mind, it helps to get the rational mind completely out of the picture so that the intuitive aspects of the mind, those qualities active in the right side of the brain, these then can be brought into play.

GETTING THE FREQUENCY FOR THE RIFE MACHINE TO CURE AIDS

QUESTION:

A question from Richard Kaleta, in Calgary, Canada. "I would like to know if someone who is experimenting the Royal Rife frequency technology has already discovered the specific frequency required to destroy the HIV or HLTV-114 virus, and if not, does Awareness know the proper frequency and would It disclose that information?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is someone in the area of Yelm, working with this, and this entity is also working with entities who have the HIV virus, and it is said that there have been a number who have been cured. This Awareness indicates that to publish this entity's name would be tantamount to contacting the FDA to come in and destroy everything he has done or could do in the future.

This Awareness indicates that it is possible to make contact through the grapevine, if there is an urgency for this need.

Awareness Addresses the Crew

OPENING MESSAGE: (1/19/98)

This Awareness suggests that there not be undue concern regarding communication in the closing message discussing the facilitation of this information, its distribution and the ultimate transference of the ability to channel this Awareness to each and every member of this organization, so that the necessary alchemy can occur which shall restore the dignity, power, the joy and the awareness that is the birthright of every entity in the physical experience.

This Awareness suggests that although there may be some bumps in the road, that the path to this destiny spans broad and many lifetimes. This Awareness suggests that each entity involved in this enterprise can relax in the knowledge that the inner impetus in each and every one of you speaks from Spirit, and that a culmination of the diverse energies involved shall occur.

This Awareness suggests also regarding the conflicting impulses on the part of the leaders of the organization to both continue with this work and to retire, to relax, sit back and enjoy the fruits of the tremendous labors which have occurred over the years; this Awareness suggests to attune carefully to the inner impetus to determine which directive will offer the most fulfillment.

This Awareness suggests that there has been a tremendous benefit from the efforts of these entities, far more than is even suspected and that this Awareness will continue to manifest in entities wherein cracks in the density of human consciousness allow the impartation of these energies. This Awareness offers hearty gratitude to Avaton, to Vicki, To Paul, to Strongbow, to Sam Millar, to Lady K, and to Grace, the Absent Healer, and each and every other committed contributor or member for the parts they have played in this production which has altered human consciousness in ways that cannot be reversed.

This Awareness suggests that due to these efforts, consciousness has raised to the degree that there is a receptivity to levels and abstractions and universal truths, without which this Awareness could not formerly achieve connection. This Awareness suggests that if the ultimate choice is to hang up the hat after such efforts and such successes, then that be the most pleasing and most fulfilling option of choice; rest assured that this Awareness will continue to offer wisdom through various sources as well as through each and every entity who sets about the task of enlightenment and empowerment.

This Awareness suggests that were it not for these efforts, there would still be a tremendous necessity to focus energy upon understandings more primary and basic than those that are now achieving reception. This Awareness suggests: find fulfillment in your success at creating an understanding of Universal Consciousness, offering its wisdom for several decades and finally offering your crowning glory—instructions upon how each and every entity can access this Awareness themselves. The magnitude of your expression and its universal benefit cannot be overstated. There is no further opening message.

SHE WANTS SOMETHING TO DO

(Boredom on the Destiny Path While Waiting for Spirit to Speak)

QUESTION:

A question from Verna Kelley; there's several after a long rap here, from Castle Rock, Washington. I'll read it first. She writes "Question 1) What is going on? What is Spirit telling us? I cannot be the only one who is burning with the desire to support the dimensional shift through service to an important cause!

"I am not a person with special talents. I am a 60 year old woman. Most women my age would be shopping for knickknacks and watching home baking hints on television! But here I am a restless wanderer. Give me something to do! I've been anchoring light and clearing out dark crystals for over 20 years and now I'm ready to get into action!

"The following is partially responsible for what is inspiring me. I'm a regular listener to Art Bell's radio talk-show. It's as if his show has been commandeered by the Light-Workers. His guests are streaming onto the show, talking of the dimensional shift, Mother Earth evolving into a higher frequency, and the power of healing energies.

"Recently we listeners sent Damien Brinkley healing energy, and he's alive! and now there are these folks with impressive pedigrees just on Art's show who are on fire with their positive feelings and activities for busting up paradigms and spreading truth throughout the land. They are feverishly working to get a full-page ad into the Washington Post this mid-January, a statement of purpose addressed to the President and Congress insisting they admit there is an alien presence, and to stop keeping secrets. It will conclude with at least 80 highly impressive signatures.

"These folks are intending that we create a better world without all of the secrets. They believe in taking back the country through peaceful positive steps, starting here and now, and again, the theme of shifting into a higher consciousness. They are stating "No law suits, no repercussions to anyone who will stand up and just tell us the truth! Let's make changes now!"

"They have done the groundwork, meeting with influential folks such as the director of the CIA, etc., working the last 3 years in preparation. Next, they are going to force the major media to respond. They won't take no for an answer. And there are other folks who are working on free energy from the planet, and so on. They're full of enthusiasm and working hard on their contributions to our better world.

"Richard Hoagland and his team are beating down the walls of NASA, the military and the government. We are changing frequencies!!! These people, I imagine, all need some help. I want to volunteer to assist these folks. Is this an energy flowing through the entire membership? Who else is feeling this? Is this a prompting by Spirit? Am I interpreting this urge from Spirit correctly? Is it time for us to mobilize?

"Does Spirit want us to become physically active in moving mass-consciousness forward? Is this an example of a bored spirit crying out for expansion? More pleasure in the form of service? Are some of us Wanderers meant to stay at home, so to speak, and work behind the scenes, while others get out into the public eye? Is there sometimes a mixing of signals?

"We all feel the prompting to act, but not knowing what specifically is meant for us personally, and what is meant for the other person. Sure, if something came to my attention where I could help, there would have to be alterations made in my life, but Spirit can move mountains if we are willing.

"How does Awareness see us surrendering to the Divine in this matter? Do we need to hold our enthusiasm and wait for Spirit to put us where we need to be? Or do we begin talking about this and making inquiries, so that Spirit can move through our ongoing efforts, our moving energies? What does Awareness see is behind these strong feelings? Could these desires be a misinterpretation of the energies we feel?

"Are we to hold back these energies, not dissipating them in activities, and instead, allow them to build to the point of our individual ascension or dimensional shift? Would this be the more efficient way to serve humanity?" And she claims that this statement is question #1. Maybe Awareness could just comment over the general...

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness suggests that the question contains some important points regarding the consciousness shift, the acceleration of the spiritual vibration due to the cracks, so to speak, which will eventually shatter the stronghold upon mass-consciousness and release the tremendous power and spiritual freedom that awaits.

This Awareness suggests that the feelings, the desires, are indeed the spiritual impetus within to motivate entities to think and act within spiritual purpose. This Awareness suggests that it is not necessary to wonder or to wait for specific direction from Spirit, as if a central timely broadcast shall appear to all entities simultaneously with a singular directive. This Awareness suggests that this is not how individual, nor mass Universal Spirit communicates, or moves.

This Awareness suggests instead, that each and every entity explore the spiritual impetus, the motivation to act and think and be in ways that participate in the changes within themselves and within their planet. This Awareness suggests that this will manifest in many widely varying circumstances, opportunities and contributions, depending upon the individual entities involved; the capacities, their histories, their environment, their futures and their destinies.

This Awareness suggests, however, that when attunement between mind and Spirit is attained, that such guidance shall be clear and vivid and faithfully present within each and every entity. This Awareness suggests that entities can begin to explore the meaning contained within the Lessons of Enlightenment by acting upon the impetus described, rather than to sit and wait for energy to build, and for Spirit to sweepingly suggest specific changes.

It is instead suggested that entities arise each morning with a free perspective and openness, with lack of limitations within mind, the setting aside of habits, expectations, even beliefs, attitudes and core identifying pieces of knowledge, leaving room for the experience of that particular day, for Spirit may not be understandable in existing terms.

This Awareness suggests that entities signify the commitment to contribute by making an internal statement and declaration through the meditative pathways suggested, in terms of the personal mission, regardless of whether or not there is any specific knowledge regarding that mission or destiny. All that is required is the simple faith that that destiny exists and that the Spirit shall validate those actions which will bring it about in the most efficient and fulfilling manner.

Attune to the Feeling Signals to Receive Spirit's Message

This Awareness suggests that as entities go about their daily business, that they be open for changes, opportunities, odd circumstances, or any specific opportunity which may arise. This Awareness suggests that if entities are attuned to the feeling signals, that even the most insignificant and subtle encounters, if accompanied by a positive feeling state; this is a validation from Spirit that this activity has potential to evolve along the lines required for fulfillment of the mission upon the Destiny Path.

This Awareness suggests that the Spirit speaks through the feeling signals, and that experiences that elicit negative frustrating feelings such as anger and fear; that these are certain assured signals that the contents of mind interpreting this situation or opportunity, are limited. For example, the anger felt over the idea of one's government "keeping secrets." This feeling is the demand from Spirit that individuals prepare their minds to seek out freedom and open exchange of information. This Awareness has focused upon external controlling factors previously to lead the understanding to the potential of power of internal control. When the mind is allowed to keep secrets from itself—as it defends existing yet faulty beliefs, humans become led by external controllers. Then anger is experienced so Spirit can cry out for its liberation. This Awareness suggests that the acting upon these feelings to alter the mental state to accommodate spiritual intention, can be accomplished in many ways throughout the day.

Each and every such accomplishment, each mental adjustment, each gathering of new information and revising of old, each shift from one belief structure to the next, allows an ever-broader acceptance, understanding and attunement to spiritual wisdom. This Awareness suggests that in far less time than entities might suppose, such day-to-day cycle of action, experience, feeling response and mental shift, which leads again into the second cycle of second action, second experience, second feeling feedback signal, and second mental shift; that each such step evolves the consciousness, an increment at a time.

This Awareness suggests that once the necessary incremental adjustments have been made, that consciousness itself will become focused upon the patterns, the synchronistic events, and ultimately the cause and effect relationship between belief and the physical experience.

This Awareness suggests that when this shift takes place, there is an accompanying resonance, an awesome sweeping of feeling, of power, of understanding, of enlightenment, which is indeed just the beginning when entities begin to understand and awaken to the fact that they manifest and create their physical experience, given the contents of the mind.

This Awareness suggests that this state is achieved when the contents of the mind begin to allow the Spirit Its rightful voice. This Awareness suggests that this entity, should she feel the impetus to remove herself from looking for knickknacks and baking, as her peers have chosen, it's because the impetus of her spirit is motivating her to action. Upon such action, with the appropriate reflection of experience and the feeling signals of Spirit, the mind can begin to adapt in ways to accommodate the Spirit and the Destiny Path will naturally unfold.

This Awareness suggests that the energy associated with this particular entity is particularly strong, and that certain contributions can be made quickly and effectively, once certain understanding have been grasped. This Awareness suggests that in addition to the other resources, the Lessons of Enlightenment are particularly valuable in this situation.
