THE DEMOCRATIZATION OF THE MIND (WHAT THE NEW AGE REALLY IS)

--- THE OBSERVING YOURSELF OBSERVING MEDITATION

THE DEMOCRATIZATION OF THE MIND

(The Breakdown of the Hierarchy of the Mind)

This Awareness wishes to speak of the democratization of the mind. This Awareness, in order to speak of this, wishes to call attention to the concept of democracy in relation to political systems, in order to understand the distinction and parallel in regard to the democratization of the mind.

This Awareness indicates that in the sense of a political democracy, there is that which distributes the power from the authorities or from the higher authority of a land to that level wherein the individual has a share in the directing of the course of the political fortunes of the land.

This Awareness indicates that this is through vote and through various forms of individual representation and influence on the government, including free speech, etc.

This Awareness indicates that most people in the free world understand this concept of democracy and the freedom that accompanies this as being that which allows the individual to have certain responsibilities that lie outside of the control of the land, while still having certain other restrictions on the individual that are based on laws and influences from others who help to direct the course and direction of the land or nation.

Look at the Mind as a Structured Organism

This Awareness indicates that when such is applied to the mind, it requires that you look at the mind as though it were a structure, much as a political system, and that in looking at the mind as a structured organism, you see that certain concepts, rules, regulations, beliefs, programming, have been implanted on the mind down through the ages by civilization, so that each individual is controlled by the programming, by the structure that has been placed on his or her thinking.

This Awareness indicates that down through the years, this has been the role of the teachers of the society, the thinkers, and the religious programming that has come through the various cultures to influence and to direct and structure the thinking of individuals.

This Awareness indicates that it may be said that so long as an entity's mind is a reflection of the programming, then the entity is essentially a subordinate or subject of the programmer. Thus, one who is subject of a programmer, whether it be the High Priest, the minister, the teacher or parent -- so long as one is a subject of the programmer, the entity is not free to think for himself or herself, particularly in regards to those areas which are programmed into the entity's mental structure.

Religious and Cultural Values are Designed to Prevent Free Thinking, Similar to a Dictator's Rule

This Awareness indicates that, in fact, many of the more traditional religions and cultural values are placed on the individual's mind in order to prevent the entity from thinking freely. They are, in effect, similar to laws of a society, structures of a society, and often reflect in the same way that a dictator's rules affect the people of a society.

This Awareness indicates that in the sense of an individual's consciousness being structured to reflect the programming of one who instills that programming into the mind of the individual, the individual is, to that degree, subject of the master teacher or master programmer.

This Awareness indicates that in such instances, the entity cannot consider himself or herself as having freedom of thought. Although many such entities would claim that they are free to think as they choose, -it's just that they choose to believe what they have been directed to believe, what they have been programmed to believe, and they presume that it is by their own choice; and to a degree, this is so.

This Awareness indicates that to the degree that they have actually had a choice, they may claim a certain amount of free thought; but most entities, being programmed from the time they are first born in physical form, did not have the discerning abilities to actually think about what they were being programmed with before they actually became programmed. Therefore their thinking and their programming pattern was developed from outside, rather than from within their own consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that this has certain advantages; it also has certain disadvantages.

Advantages the Programmer Instills Into a Fresh New Mind

This Awareness indicates the advantages are that the programmer can instill in the fresh, new mind values that have been tested down through time, through civilizations, and have been found as satisfactory to the society, so that the child then, in accepting this programming, can fit well into the society, and can gain from the experience of those who have lived and who have studied the wisdom of the predecessors and ancients.

This Awareness indicates that this may be the collected wisdom of the society that is instilled in the entity, and may have profound and beneficial effects on the individual. This Awareness indicates that to this degree, the programming can be of great value.

There can, of course, be those aberrations in the programming in which the entity also suffers great trauma and distortions, so that the entity begins to develop a perverted and distorted view of things, so that rather than the highest and best that society of the past has to offer, the entity picks up many perverted values that are put upon him or her by entities in the society of adults or peers whose influence causes the entity to take on values and programming that is not of the highest and best, but which causes great trauma or poor value systems. Thus, you have social misfits which may develop through the misuse of programming, or mis-programming.

Today Many Still Feel No Need to Question Authority

This Awareness indicates that many entities lament the changes that are occurring in the world at this time, and long for the days of old when everything was dictated by the priests, by the High Priests of wisdom, by those who knew the answers for everything, by those who had answers for everything, by those who were so sure, so certain that this and this is true, and there is no need for any person to question authority.

This Awareness indicates there are many who still cling to these concepts and the desire that everyone would still worship and adore authority without question. This is particularly true of those who are, or perceive themselves to be, in authority.

This Awareness indicates that this, however, is not the case, and that this worship of authority is beginning to break down more and more with each generation, and that this is accelerating at this time. Many see this as the influence of some kind of Satanic or Luciferian or, they may call it New Age or any other terminology, or they may even call it Communist influence.

The Breakdown of the Hierarchy of the Mind

This Awareness indicates, essentially, it is a breakdown of the hierarchy system of the mind, of the structuring of consciousness that has been in practice for several millennia; that these thousands of years of structuring the mind to accept certain types of hierarchy programming, is that which is gradually coming under a breakdown and change, and this change is that which many fear. They see entities developing a questioning mind, a mind that looks here and there for answers, and looks not to authority, but looks to various experiences, personal experiences, perhaps looking to others who have experimented with personal experiences; and they see this as being of a subjective inquiry, rather than objective, logical approach toward the research from authority and from the hierarchy that has been handed down in terms of information and in terms of traditional value systems of society.

This Awareness indicates that this is seen by many who hold to those structured beliefs of traditional values, even though they may be narrow, (likened unto tunnel vision) and even though they may be in complete opposite and contrary position to those who hold certain hierarchy systems known as science, wherein the scientific and reasoning and logical approach is just as rigid as the religious dogma, and both seeing themselves as absolutely right, without any question: the certitude involved, as that which both demand in their positioning of self. The scientific or the old religious approach, both rely and demand that certainty be part of their positioning. Though their certainty is in opposition to each other, they still have much in common in the way that the mind is structured and relies on tradition and authority, and there is no leniency or flexibility to allow for inquiry outside of those areas of acceptability.

Both Groups are Concerned About New Age Wave

This Awareness indicates that both of these opposing groups are united in their concern and frustration with what is occurring in society with regard to the, "new wave" or what is termed the New Age approach, wherein entities simply don't care that much or don't have any particular loyalty to the old traditions, the logic, or the belief systems. They simply want to discover for themselves, even in their own small, limited way, and their own experiential endeavors, -they wish to discover for themselves what works for them. And they may pursue an area that is subjective, without much basis for reality, and be perfectly happy in the outcome of their endeavor.

And this frightens those who rely on the heavy authority of the past in their particular field, whether it be logic or belief, science or religion. To see so many entities who are out there groping by exploring here, exploring there, looking for answers here and there, and they see these entities dabbling in this and that, and call it nonsense, -a nonsense reality, a meaningless effort, and they can't understand why they don't turn to pure science or pure religion, as they perceive their fields to be.

The Beginning of the Democratizing of the Mind

This Awareness wishes to express at this time, that what you are witnessing is the beginning of that which may be termed the democratization of mind, wherein the mind, like the individual in a society, is free to do what it wishes to do without the encumbrance of authoritative programming. It may grope, just as the individual gropes in society without a permit from the authority to start a business, or without the permit and guidance of some great economic teacher or some schooling that allows the entity to begin business. The entity is simply endeavoring through free enterprise in the society and starts doing something which feels good to the entity, and which the entity is comfortable with, and the entity becomes an entrepreneur - either running in the black or running in the red, but learning in the process. And the entity gradually begins doing something in his or her free enterprise that allows the entity to gain greater and greater understanding, greater and greater knowledge, in regard to the particular field of interest which he or she is dabbling in.

Free Enterprise in the Mental Realm Now Occurring

This Awareness indicates that this society allows democracy in the business place; it allows a certain amount of democracy and free enterprise in the marketplace and in the society, but it is not quite used to seeing this occur in the mental realm. And there are many who are quite frustrated and very disturbed at seeing entities who simply don't accept science or don't accept religion as traditionally presented and they want to start their own science or start their own religion, or to find out for themselves, without asking the authorities. It is because they are entrepreneurs in the mental realm. They are more or less free-enterprising in the realm of thought.

And this is, to many, "kookie" or crazy, or lacking in any sensibilities; and therefore, they condemn the very action of a person trying to think on their own without the authority giving permission or directing the thinking of the individual.

This Awareness wishes entities to understand that what is happening here in this mental realm is much like what has happened in this nation in its business affairs during the past two centuries, wherein gradually through the free enterprise system, new values, new inventions, new creations, genius was given permission to see what it could do, to invent, to create, to come up with something. The fear of many of these authorities and traditionalists is that these new thinkers are coming up with nothing, nothing of substance, and that their nothingness and their substanceless answers are going to catch on.

This Awareness indicates that there is no need to fear this. If an entity comes up with a shallow philosophy, it will be ignored. But if, in a society in which entities are permitted to think freely, with democracy, democratically thinking without the permission and guidance of authority, where they may search for the authority they need, where they may look to the various authorities in all areas, and study from all of these, where they may combine philosophies, combine influences, and combine to find the interests that satisfy their needs, there may be some who develop the genius to become the new teacher, a new mental genius who supplies answers for both science and religion, that embraces both sides or joins them together. And it is this opportunity that is being planted in watching this New Age movement occur, in which entities flounder for answers.

What the New Age Really Is

This Awareness indicates that the New Age is not crystals; it is not channeling. The New Age is also not astrology; it is not any of these things that are so commonly associated with the New Age. The New Age is the democratization of the mind, the opportunity, the presentation of opportunities for entities to explore without encumbrances, those realms of thought, those realms of spiritual and mental mysteries, so that they may search, so that they may experiment, so that they may experience things that have not been touched upon by many, by most entities.

This Awareness indicates that the New Age is that which is a vibration that is occurring in frequency, and which is affecting consciousness to bring about this opportunity. It is not something that someone is causing. It is not something that someone is promoting. It is not promoted by any of these individuals to the degree that they are the cause of the New Age. Shirley MacLaine is not the cause of the New Age, as she well knows. None of the channels are the cause of the New Age, as most should know.

This Awareness indicates it is not Satan that is causing the New Age; it is nature itself. The Universe and all of its planets, all of its heavenly bodies, move in certain cycles. And in those cycling movements, there are vibrational changes; frequencies changes. And in the change of frequencies, inhabitants on planets, such as the earth, undergo certain changes in consciousness to accompany and reflect those vibrational changes, and that is the New Age. And it doesn't matter whether the adherents to the New Age, or the words themselves were to be stripped from the earth, it would still occur.

It is that vibration which is bringing about the harmony, the reconciliation between the two superpowers. It is that vibration which will bring about a democratization of all the nations on earth, which will bring about a reconciliation of entities in all nations. It is that vibration which will allow for China to become a democracy, that will bring about a peace in the Middle East. It is that vibration, not the promotion of New Age, not crystals, not channeling --these are but paraphernalia; but it is the vibration; and there is no scientist, there is no priest, there is no religion, there is nothing that can stop this vibration from its movement. The frequencies are bringing in the New Age.

A Harmonizing of Nations Coming, a New Kind of Earth

This Awareness indicates by whatever other name entities wish to call it, it still will occur. And there will be the harmonizing of nations and people, so that a new kind of earth emerges during the coming years, and this, by any name, -call it the millennium, call it the New Age, it matters not. It will come, when it will come.

When Will the Higher Programming Begin?

QUESTION:

This question is from Thomas Love. It's sort of related. He writes, "I find it interesting that those forces and ideas advanced by Auguste Comte, Madame Helena Blavatsky and her Theosophical Society have had so great an impact for the last 150 years. Perhaps they have served some higher purpose, such as modifying the Roman Catholic Church, yet those concepts such as denial of RIGHT, CAUSE, INDIVIDUALITY and LOVE are the mark of the lost and deceived. Such a dark and ugly future they weave, devoid of divine identifications or any sense of love, particularly those ideas such as the "Great being of Humanity, "the overpopulation myth," and that "All things and all people can be represented by numbers."

Personally, I'm not interested in a future controlled by philosophical/sociological-type mathematicians. Therefore, I ask Awareness, how far will this "Religion of Humanity" and "Positive Philosophy" progress before it is superseded by higher orders of programming?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this higher order of programming is that which is already in the process, as related to the previous message; that this is coming in through the vibration and frequency that is influencing the cells of the individual, influencing the atoms of individuals, influencing in fact the entire fabric of life on earth.

This Awareness indicates that the areas which are somewhat disturbing to you are the outgrowth of mental structure based on the previous vibratory frequencies that have been in effect on this planet for some time.

This Awareness indicates that these will still have some basis and still have their place in the molding of the future, but that their influence will be modified so greatly by the higher influences, by those more subtle energies, which have to do with love and with compassion and with the more refined qualities of humanity, that they will not have the threat and danger which is normally associated with such energies.

This Awareness indicates that as but an example, entities might have a great fear of, for example, the thought of a group of people all in one room packing weapons of destruction.

This Awareness indicates that perhaps, all of these entities, over long evolution, decided that in order for them individually to survive, they had to be as powerful and as clever and have the same destructive tools as everyone else, or something even better than others. So over many years, these entities evolve claws, or perhaps evolve some kind of energy pockets in their form which allows them to shoot out fire, or some other destructive weaponry. And one would say, "I'm not interested in seeing these developments occur in my species. I cannot see how this would enhance the development, even though we became extremely proficient in self-protection and in organizing ourselves so that we were controlled and able to control our environment and each other to assure self-protection.

This Awareness indicates but supposing these entities, nevertheless, whether you liked the idea or not, went ahead and developed these apparatus or appendages or weapons, so that all involved in this big room had these weapons to destroy each other. Now suppose this were all of the story. In such a case, it could be most unpleasant to live in such a place.

This Awareness suggests, however, suppose that there is another force that enters, some kind of beam that enters from outside the room, that makes all of these creatures very loving toward each other, very friendly, very trusting, where they communicate with each other; they rub weapons together, they rub their apparatus together, they find enjoyment in pointing out how each has their own particular weaponry and how big this weapon is compared to that, and they simply begin a dialogue, discussing all of their particular interests in terms of themselves and each other, and what they have developed as individuals. Now, it is a totally different place to live, in spite of all of this development, because this other force has entered, and has an influence.

Entities Have No Use Now for War and Violence

This Awareness indicates so it is with the world. All of these weapons, all of this effort to create by mental structure and by physical structure, the rules, regulations, weaponry, fences, boundaries, armaments, -all of this, which seems so threatening, is being made useless. The B-1, B-2 bombers, all the nuclear weapons, are being made useless by the energy that is coming in on this planet, the influence of the vibrations and frequencies that are causing entities to have no further use for war, for violence. And what is there to stop this energy? Who can prevent it? Who can stop love energy from influencing the masses on this plane?

This Awareness indicates the time is coming when entities' concerns will be for who's in need, and what can we supply you? We have this need, what need do you have? Can we make a change? Can we trade? Well, we don't need that, but they have what we need over there; can you give them something in exchange for what we're giving you, and they can give us, then, something in return.

There will come a time when the great focus will be on supplying each other's needs, rather than seeking ways to destroy the other person before the other person destroys you.

This Awareness indicates that this time is at hand, and is rapidly becoming visible to those who have eyes to see and ears to hear.

Ed's Note: A few months after this reading was given, the Berlin Wall was torn down, representing the official end of the Cold War and the dismantling of the Soviet empire.

Problems With The Unregulated Pursuit Of Profits And Free Enterprise

(An Argument for the Unified States of Awareness)

QUESTION:

Mark Smith sent in a letter that contains a number of questions. I'll read the letter and then I'll re-ask any that Awareness requests. He writes: "A couple of issues back, Awareness gave a discourse on the signs of emerging democracy around the world, and contrasted free enterprise with central government planning. The analysis given could be interpreted as being a ringing endorsement of capitalism. It would be unfortunate if Awareness's audience were to draw the conclusion that Awareness is suggesting that government does not have a legitimate interest in regulating the market, for this interpretation would not only be at odds with democratic prospects, but also contrary to the cumulative wisdom of Awareness teachings on government and economics.

Individual "free-enterprise" is not necessarily the same as "free-market capitalism." In American politics the issue is not whether there shall be a free enterprise system or a centrally planned economy, since there is virtually no constituency for a centrally planned economy. The issue involves the determination of the appropriate role for government in relation to the market. The basic claim of free-market capitalism is that the government should have an exceedingly small roll in regulating the market. It was believed by the classical economists such as Adam Smith and David Ricardo—as well as the later Utilitarians such as Bentham and John Stuart Mill and more recently the Neo-classical economists and those behind Reaganomics—that the mass of individuals, pursuing their self-interest in economic competition, will, through the direction of the "hidden hand," produce the greatest sum of social happiness and well-being. As appealing as this idea is, it is subject to criticism on several grounds.

First of all, there is a great difference in having masses of individuals being enterprising and the modern market where individuals are pitted against behemoth companies, conglomerates, and cartels, and the giant banks which largely control the corporations. And, where individuals are concerned, the distribution of resources is so skewed that ten percent of American families own eighty-seven percent of the financial wealth, and fifty-five percent of families have a zero or negative net financial worth. When financial and economic resources are not equitably distributed, the competition of the marketplace perpetuates and exacerbates the inequities, and these inequities carry over into the political arena, corroding the principle of democracy.

Another problem with the unregulated pursuit of profit is that in the process of being enterprising, economic activities often create what are called "third-party effects," that is, positive or negative effects on individuals or the general public not involved in the activity. An example is the effluent that is released into the river by a company (it would not be in the company's self-interest to dispose of the waste in a safer manner) create negative effects for the residents living downstream. The ethic of capitalism is the unrestrained pursuit of self-interest. Capitalist free-market theory has no conception of public interest except as the aggregate of individual interests. Government is essential in order to regulate the market in the public interest; to establish environmental standards for industry; to protect the weak in the marketplace; to try to prevent monopoly and unfair business practices; to effect redistributive policies to ameliorate the Darwinian effects of the economic struggle on the losers, the debtors, the unemployed, homeless, those without medical care, money, or hope.

I would suggest that that, taken together, the teachings of Awareness (on these subjects) could best be classed as populist rather than as capitalist. The Populists were home-grown radical critics of capitalism who argued for strong representative democracy, the market regulated in the public interest, and the special feature of demanding a publicly owned and controlled money and banking system, much as has been suggested previously by Cosmic Awareness. The Unified States of Awareness blueprint for New Age government—suggested at the York Conference in 1977—is not by any means the "government is the problem" in the Reagan vein, but is a very pervasive and enormously complex governmental structure. But it is not a structure which controls, directs, and coerces, rather it is a structure which responds to the input of each citizen and allows the smooth functioning of social and economic activities in a manner that avoids unnecessary competition and conflict and prevents the interests of the many being overridden by the interests of the few. The marvelous financial plan, in which the money and banking system are owned and controlled by the people, and each citizen is entitled to an equal share of "money" in his or her bank account to begin the "game," is a straightforward expression of the Jeffersonian-Populist view that the creation and regulation of money is a function of government. This same view is hotly denied by the free-market capitalists, who argue that money, banking, and credit creation are properly the domain of the private market forces and government should keep its hand off.

It is suggested that these issues be re-energized for further consideration. Would Awareness please address these issues, discussing the appropriate relationship of government to the market, the market to society, and the appropriate relationship of the financial system to the market, government and society?" End of his letter.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the information as presented in this question as that which as being clear and precise and orderly and accurate in its presentation.

This Awareness indicates that, in effect, the action of the ideal government is that it would guarantee equality for the rights and privileges of all of the citizens.

This Awareness indicates that by rights, this Awareness refers to those rights which are inherent for all humans, and by privileges to those privileges which entities may earn through their endeavors.

This Awareness indicates that in regard to capitalistic giants, such as corporations and so forth, it needs to be understood that corporations legally are classed as entities, and a good way to understand and look at this situation is to think of them in comparison to the small, enterprising individual, as being giants in the land.

This Awareness suggests that a government which allows the giant to walk over the people, the small people, is not being fair in its defense of all people in terms of their rights and privileges. It does, however, need to give certain privileges to those who have earned the privileges, and it does need to protect the rights of all of the individuals. Therefore, it is a question of whether a giant corporation should have privileges, if those privileges infringe on the rights of the individual; and obviously, the rights of individuals are not to be denied in order to preserve someone else's privileges. No one is privileged to the point of denying the rights of others.

Rights and Privileges of Corporations and Individuals

This Awareness indicates so long as the rules and regulations governing an economy are applied equally to protect the rights of all entities, and to give all entities the same rights to privilege, then the government is being fair. It is the role of the government, as a government of the people, to apply its rules and regulations fairly, so that if an individual wishes to start a business which is already monopolized by a corporation, that individual should have the same rights to start the business, but the individual must also have the same right to earn the privileges that the larger corporation has earned.

This Awareness indicates that there are also to be certain privileges that individuals may earn in regard to certain corporations, which may have an obligation and duty to provide those privileges to the individuals. For example, the consumer should have the privilege of a guarantee or some kind of proper standard by which to measure the value of what the individual purchases from the corporation.

This Awareness indicates that there needs to be certain standards by which the car is qualified, and this can be classed as a privilege of the individual, or a right. It can be such that the individual must earn the privilege by paying extra for some kind of insurance, or it can be a right that the individual has in expecting a certain quality of production from the corporation.

This Awareness indicates to this extent, and as applied in other areas, government does have the obligation to regulate business and commerce in behalf of the rights of individuals, and to some extent, in behalf of privileges that individuals and corporations may require.

The very word "government" implies an action of governing, and therefore free enterprise under a governing system implies that the enterprise is not simply free to do what it wishes, it is free to pursue an enterprise, but there can be regulations, as long as these regulations are applied equally, and there can be privileges, so long as these privileges are applied equally to all individuals in the society. But privileges must be earned, and an entity cannot expect privileges without earning the right to that privilege.

This Awareness indicates that all entities having a right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness, and those things which accompany this, all entities having these rights, should have these rights protected by government.

This Awareness indicates this assuming that is the purpose of the government, in which case the government making such claims, claiming to give rights, privileges, and allowing entities the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, should live up to its standards and claims as to its purpose.

This Awareness indicates this is not necessarily the case in other countries wherein the government makes no such claims in regard to its purpose. This Awareness indicates there are still many countries where the government sees its role as controlling the masses, rather than serving the masses.

This Awareness indicates that government can serve the masses by keeping the masses from destroying each other, and in this sense, it may be perceived as control, regulation, or rules and laws, yet it is still a service. Or the government can control the masses for its own benefit, so that it maintains its leaders' dominion over the masses, not for their benefit, but for the benefit of those in power. And it is this kind of government that is to fade from the face of the earth during the coming years.

WHAT IS THE FUTURE OF THE HUGE MULTINATIONAL CORPORATIONS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Will that also include these huge, multinational corporations that are exploiting the world under the name of free enterprise? They seem to flaunt themselves at the government's attempts to control them.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that one may perceive these multi-national corporations as being likened unto countries in themselves. Having spun out of political countries, they become economic monoliths, having their own particular rules; and so long as they operate under the rules that are politically linked from the country in which they do business, there is little that can be done to criticize or to alter the direction of these companies.

This Awareness indicates that if the rules of a country allow a giant to have privileges that are not given to others, and that giant has the privilege of stomping on villages, it is the country that is responsible for the altering of rules to bring that giant under control.

This Awareness indicates that if the people of that country continue to permit the giant to stomp on villages and continue to allow the leaders of the country to do nothing about this, then it is the people who are negligent in their own behalf, and all that is left to do is to complain. If the people do not like the giant stomping on the villages, and if the government is doing nothing about it, the people must complain to the government. If the government still does nothing about it, then the people must change governments and put someone in who will do something about it.

This Awareness indicates otherwise, it is nothing but complaint and continued oppression by the giant, who can stomp on villages and get away with it.

Human and Corporate Greed: Any Changes?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In this type of free enterprise, it seems that the pursuit of money ... basically, it gets down to greed, human greed, whether personal or corporate. Does Awareness see these new energies coming in actually transmuting or changing these energies of greed that seem so rampant in our world today, changing these to a more higher awareness and benefit to the masses?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that what It sees is the energies that are coming in will tend to make the masses become more aware of the realities, so that they no longer sit back, drinking beer, watching television, and letting the world go its merry way, so that they become active and participate in the necessary movements to bring about the changes, so that they vote or speak out in such ways as to bring about the necessary changes to begin to improve the situation on this plane.

Most entities would rather sit in their sofa chairs, drink their beer, watch the sports, and ask Awareness why hasn't It done something about the multinational corporations that are blowing holes in the ozone, or causing this problem or that problem, and then they wish to go back to the next beer and the next sports game.

This Awareness indicates it doesn't work that way. It works through the awakening of the masses.

This Awareness indicates that as the masses become aware of the tropical forests being depleted, the ozone layer depletion causing cancer in multitudes, the AMA making a great business in its cancer treatments, the multinational companies raking in enormous amounts of money with their raping of the people and the land -- as entities become more and more aware of these they then begin to speak out. And the speaking, to those who are elected to represent them, is that which will have its influence. But until these entities begin to become concerned enough to assert their voices, to speak out, to take action, to vote, to write letters, things will continue as they are.

Begging Awareness to Change Things Just Won't Work

This Awareness indicates there are many entities who think that all they need to do is write a letter to the Interpreter to have this Awareness change something here on earth so that everything becomes paradise. It doesn't work that way. You are the arms and legs and mouth; you are the hands and feet; you are the entities who work to express these changes. You are the channels for this Awareness. There are many who can do much. You are not alone.

This Awareness indicates the vibrations that are naturally occurring at this time are those which will have their effect on the masses; that these effects on the masses are those which do take time.

This Awareness reminds you that it was but approximately six years ago that the television movie, The Day After was broadcast in this nation, and there was much criticism of that movie, but it did, in fact, have a great influence in shaking people up, to realize that if, indeed, this nation began a nuclear war it could end up receiving a terrific blow in return.

This Awareness indicates that this is not something the right-wingers would like to have shown or like to hear. They wanted to see our missiles go there, and their missiles be shot down.

This Awareness indicates that this is the thinking of many entities, was the thinking of many entities at that time. The movie caused entities to reflect a little more than usual on the reality of a nuclear war. But from 1983, it was not until approximately a year or so ago that the energies between the two super powers reached a point where communication toward peace became a reality.

This Awareness indicates that what you are seeing now is much like that which occurred in 1983 in regard to the nuclear weapons syndrome in consciousness. No one now wants nuclear war. At that time, there were entities who thought we should do a first strike.

This Awareness indicates that it is at this time a similar situation in regard to the environment, wherein there are many who cannot tolerate the environmentalists, and they see the environmentalists as a threat to their livelihood, but give it another decade. These entities will be happy to see the changes that are occurring whereby certain things are being done to protect, to improve the environment on this plane. For these entities will begin to realize the urgency as greater than they ever imagined, and that the changes necessary were not as disastrous as they believed.

Ed's Note: This reading was given 10 years ago and before the Internet. I think Awareness was pretty prophetic. What do you think?

GEORGE BUSH PURSUING COLD WAR WITH BILLION DOLLAR PROJECTS

(How Come? Isn't the Cold War Over?)

QUESTION:

In reference to the nuclear war plans, there is...I would like to ask Awareness what's the meaning of this new strategy. In relation to that, there's a story put out in the Los Angeles Times somebody sent me. It says:

"Quietly and without public debate, the Bush Administration is preparing drastic changes in the basic strategy for fighting a nuclear war with the Soviet Union, including the creation of new weapons so devastating that they could penetrate the deepest underground bunkers and decapitate the entire Soviet leadership.

According to sources interviewed by the Times, the new strategy, designed to permit the United States to paralyze the Soviets' war making capacity in the opening hours of a conflict, also calls for advanced new Stealth reconnaissance planes capable of flying more than four times the speed of sound to ferret out critical Soviet targets, including mobile missiles.

Remote sensing devices that could detect mobile missiles and command posts would be hidden in the Soviet Union itself in an unprecedented penetration of enemy territory. And the administration hopes to build spy satellites so powerful they could detect objects on Earth 3 inches across.

The new strategy, to be embodied in a revised document called the Strategic Integrated Operations Plan, or SIOP, is being worked out at Strategic Air Command headquarters in Omaha, Neb. It represents a radical and costly departure from past strategy.

Yet awesome as the new weapons would be, many authorities are condemning the new plan as likely to increase the risk of nuclear war.

The new weapons never will live up to their proponents' hopes, these critics say, but an avowed capacity to blitz Soviet leaders at the outset of hostilities—even if technically ineffective—could destabilize the present deterrent balance and impel the Kremlin to put dangerous hair-triggers on its own nuclear weapons.

Most experts believe that even under the most optimistic scenarios, no more than 10 percent—or at best 20 percent—of the Soviets' mobile missiles can be successfully attacked. As for wiping out the Soviet leadership, said Desmond Ball, Director of Defense Studies at Australian National University, and considered one of the foremost experts on nuclear targeting issues, such a strategy would upset the fragile balance of terror between the two super powers."

That was the end of the article. It appears that Mr. Bush is going ahead with things like the Stealth bomber and so forth. Does Awareness see any validity to that report?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are always those elements within the society which seek to continue the Cold War in spite of the efforts that have been made. This is because of the economics involved, wherein they can continue to gain from a frightened people, a greater budget for military purposes, and there are always those whose lives, or their livelihood, believes that the only way they can survive is by creating greater weaponry in order to preserve their freedom, and increase armaments against an enemy. They have been so ingrained in this way of thinking that they are unable to think in any other way, and these entities have great political influence over many of the politicians, not only in Washington, but even the influence comes from the workers in the plants, whose jobs depend on contracts from government sources; and therefore, there is an entire element in society that would suffer if a change occurred, as appears to be occurring, in terms of the warming of relationships between the United States and the Soviet Union. Therefore, many entities will try to continue to do whatever is necessary to prolong the conflict between the United States and the Soviet union.

This Awareness indicates that if, indeed, they could get such information out so that the Russians became paranoid of a plan by the United States to devastate Russia in this manner, it would then trigger the Russians to be more cautious and thus hinder future efforts toward reconciliation. And if, indeed, they can actually begin working on such programs, it will trigger the Russians to be even more cautious, and to begin working on their own defenses, and, thus, the Cold War could be rekindled.

Many in Both Countries Wish to See the cold War Resume

This Awareness indicates that this is the hope of many entities in this country. There are also elements in Russia who would also enjoy and desire to see the Cold War continuing. It is much as though entities prefer that which they are familiar with rather than that which they are not familiar with.

This Awareness indicates there is a saying, "It is better to deal with the devil you know than an angel you've never met." This Awareness indicates the meaning being that what you are familiar with, you can handle. What you don't understand may be hard to deal with. And many entities don't understand peace; their entire life has been dedicated to war and war preparations, therefore, they are frightened at the concept of peace, or its potential for breaking out.

And since many of these entities have great amounts of money from the effects of many years of Cold War investment and production of war materials, these entities also have great influence.

This Awareness indicates that the likelihood of their success diminishes continually, as these new energies approach. This Awareness indicates, however, It is not suggesting that there will be no chance for these entities to regain an influence of great proportion in furthering this kind of Cold War conflict, which could, in turn, erupt in a more heated and devastating situation.

This Awareness indicates, however, at this time it is highly unlikely, unless great changes begin to move in that direction.

CHRISTIANITY NOT THE ARMS RACE WILL CREATE NUCLEAR WAR

QUESTION:

There's a right-wing Christian newsletter out now called The Omega Letter. They claim that they're at war -- that we are at war -- against all these liberal movements that are happening, the thawing out between Russia and so on. It says here, "There's an emerging belief that Christians who refuse to compromise their faith are preventing the unity needed to achieve world peace." They cite examples of TV programs and stuff like Miami Vice which shows a group of Christian conservatives setting an agenda of violence and ultimately nuclear war. And it says, "It is this teaching which is paving the way for a new anti-Christian inquisition." And they quote, "Mortimer J. Adler of the Aspen Institute who argues that Christianity, not the arms race, is most likely to lead to nuclear war." Would Awareness comment on that statement?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is an element in the Christian movement which does indeed desire to see a nuclear war as part of their scenario for the end times.

This Awareness indicates that they believe that there is the end of the world through fire and destruction, or nuclear war, but that they, just prior to this war breaking out, will be carted away by Jesus, so that they will then get the reward for being Christian, and that the rest of the world can literally go to hell.

This Awareness indicates that because this is such a strong belief for them, they have been expecting this and predicting this, and feeling ridiculed by many who do not agree with them. They are emotional about it, to the point of wanting to see it happen, and therefore desirous of this occurring.

This Awareness indicates that the entity Pat Robertson has even made certain remarks prior to his candidacy for President, indicating his desire to see this kind of scenario, and to help participate.

This Awareness indicates that it is an integral part of the thinking of many of these entities, but it is not to suggest that all such entities of this religion desire this kind of outcome.

This Awareness indicates in this sense, the entity Mortimer Adler as being correct in assessing the danger; but the arms race is still a cause for alarm, whether greater or less is that which varies from time to time, and is not clear in terms of which is the greater threat, for without the arms race, the Christian threat would be of no consequence. The arms race itself, without the Christian threat, could be of considerable consequence, but it would be greatly diminished without the Christian threat.

The Weird Paranoia of Elizabeth Claire Prophet

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In reference to nuclear war and all, it seems so ironic with all the Glasnost and friendship between our two countries seemingly to occur in the paper every day, that people even discuss this. But strangely enough, Claire Prophet who claims she represents, or has heralded the New Age or something, made the national TV news on July 6. They interviewed her daughter, who says that Claire has gotten irrational, that what's happening over in Montana is insanity. She's digging huge bunkers over hundreds of acres that she owns there in preparation for a nuclear war that she claims is imminent. She's building this huge concrete underground bunker system; she's burying whole train cars loaded with foods and grains. It's a gigantic project, and the farmers there are afraid of her; they think she's got a cult and they don't understand what she's doing. I'd like to ask Awareness -this is in Paradise Valley, Montana -what's going on with Claire Prophet? It seemed like for a long time some of the information she was putting out paralleled some of the information Awareness gave on the Beast program. Does she know something that the rest of us don't know?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity believes something that the rest of you do not believe.

This Awareness indicates the entity as having received certain information that is lacking in rational levels of acceptance.

This Awareness indicates that there is no reason for entities to become alarmed in regard to this entity's concerns, unless you are living in the vicinity and are somehow affected by the entity's activities.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is this another attempt to gain membership or cult following by the use of threats and fear, or perhaps is she misinterpreting, or perhaps has she gotten information of the possible alien invasion that Awareness has discussed earlier, and is preparing for this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity as having received and misinterpreted certain information; that this effort on her part would be futile, even were there to be the expected outcome, but this Awareness suggests it does help to bring a cohesiveness within her own group, and this provides momentary and temporary benefits.

This Awareness indicates, however, it is not seen as being a path or an example for others to follow.

The Democratizing of the Mind

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that, as the energies continue to move, there will be much speculation and interpretation as to things that are to come, and entities will perceive things in ways that are at odds with others, to the point where there will be very little agreement; or if there is agreement, it will be in groups who are still at odds with others, so that no one can actually feel confident that his or her view of the world is unquestionable.

This Awareness indicates that this is good, For as entities can reach the point of being able to reflect on their own beliefs, and ask themselves, "Is this correct, or am I being unrealistic, am I being subjective, am I being deceived?" These kind of questions help to enhance one's ability to discern. It is part of the training of the mind, so that the mind; itself, grows and develops into greater capacity for learning, for discerning, for comprehending.

This Awareness indicates for too long, the mind has been programmed to think certain thoughts, but it has not been programmed to learn to learn, and it needs to learn how to learn, how to perceive, how to criticize itself, how to discover, to sort out, to discard, how to rediscover and re-examine.

This Awareness indicates that as this occurs, the mind can reach a place wherein perception becomes intuitively accurate, because of the ability to quickly discern, based on experience, from having examined so many things and learned from so many examinations.

This Awareness indicates that this is part of the value of the democratization of the mind, as compared to that in which the mind is simply programmed, and the entity, from then on throughout his life, walks like a robot with that same programming that was given at childhood.

This Awareness suggests the interpreter be brought from trance.

Wisdom of Awareness—

ON CONFUSING THE CHRIST LIGHT WITH THE BODY: (82-23)

"...the Christ Light of Celestria must not be confused with the body, the flesh and bones of the entity who represents the physical Jesus, or the physical Buddha, for it is not the physical body that is of great significance, rather, it is the Christ Light expressing through these entities which is of significance, for the Christ Light as that which can come to any entity who is open to receive this."

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

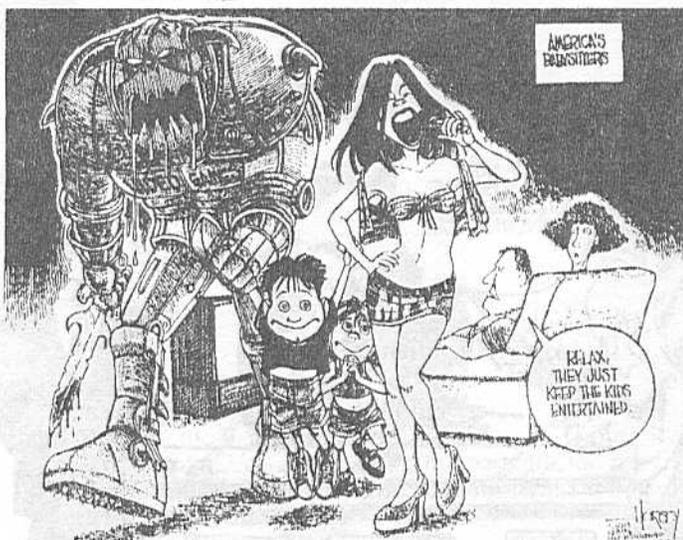

From the Cosmic Laws of Awareness..

THE LAW OF AWARENESS

This Awareness indicates there is that Law of Awareness wherein this Awareness may observe that which is the illusion of separateness, yet not be confused by this illusion; whereby this Awareness may be aware of the illusion of tragedy, yet not be caught in that illusion; whereby this Awareness may be aware of that which is the illusion of death, yet not be caught in that illusion; whereby this Awareness may observe that which is the illusion of free will, yet not be caught in that illusion. There are certain limitations placed upon this Awareness which It cannot break. One of these being It cannot break Its own principles and Laws; It cannot deny or reject those who appear to separate themselves from this Awareness nor the movement and illusion of free will whereby they would do so.

The Wisdom of Awareness: -- ON VISUALIZING

This Awareness indicates that lying down, entities can visualize much better than when standing up; that the conscious mind becomes more scientific, mathematical, and more conceptual and rational when standing, and more imaginative, spontaneous, and relaxed and visionary when lying down. This Awareness suggests also that the head to the north when lying down can be of help. (Issue No. 82-22)

OBSERVING YOURSELF OBSERVING MEDITATION: MORE REASONS TO USE IT

OPENING MESSAGE:

This Awareness has in the past given a certain procedure or meditation for entities to practice; that of observing yourself observing. This Awareness wishes to add some information in the use of this meditation, to give you another reason for using it.

This Awareness indicates that if you have practiced the meditation in which you observe yourself observing, and you reflect back in your memory on that experience and that time or one of the times in which you used this meditation, you will note that it becomes very vivid in your memory what occurred when you observed yourself observing.

This Awareness indicates that there may be a moment in time that you wish to photograph in your memory, one wherein you might comment "I never want to forget this moment!" Perhaps it is a beautiful scene, perhaps you are with someone whom you love deeply, perhaps there is something very wonderful about the moment that you want to memorize or put in your memory forever.

This Awareness indicates the best way to put this into your memory, to lock it in, is to observe yourself observing the experience. Thus, for example, suppose you are sitting on a bench, on a hillside overlooking water, such as an ocean view. The sun is sinking, there are mountains on both sides, and there is a loved one sitting with you, and you think: "This is one of the most beautiful experiences of my life and I want to photograph it!" This Awareness suggests that you observe yourself observing the experience.

How to Observe Yourself Observing

The way to do this is to project yourself out and up from yourself and look back upon yourself sitting on the bench. Take in the entire scene and observe yourself as you sit there observing the beautiful scene and the experience. It will lock it in your memory for as long as you live and beyond, and anytime you wish to recall that experience, all you need to do is observe yourself observing and remember the scene, and it will become vividly alive to you.

This Awareness indicates that this is another purpose for that meditation. This Awareness indicates that the more you use this meditation, beginning with brief moments, extending to full minutes and perhaps eventually experiencing the action of observing yourself observing for a full ten minutes of time, the greater will be your level of consciousness as it expands to take in the essence of your life.

This Awareness indicates that each of the moments in which this is done becomes a lasting and living experience in your memory so that as time passes, as years go by, you will flash back repeatedly, time and again, on those moments in which you observed yourself observing, and they will be extremely vivid and alive.

Use the Meditation to Become More Youthful

This Awareness indicates that it also helps to hold on to those moments of youth when you have gone many years beyond. The experience of observing yourself observing captures the moment of your life so that many decades later, you may flash back on that moment in which you observed yourself observing and you will feel the youth and vitality of that moment in your life. It will help to keep you psychologically young and flashing back in time can also help to rejuvenate your cells and organs of your body, the more it is practiced.

This Awareness suggests that this is something this Awareness cannot overemphasized and It suggests you practice such a meditation frequently. You will gradually begin to recognize the importance and value of such a meditation.

This Awareness indicates that the questions for the reading may begin.

HIS WORLD HAS TURNED DARK

Was He Abducted and Implanted? Did God Desert Him? Was it the herbs and Vitamins? More On the Dark Night of the Soul

QUESTION:

Kriss Roberts, somewhere in Canada, sent a question in over the Internet. I think it's a cry for help of some sort, and I'm going to read it to Awareness, because we didn't have anything to tell this entity. He writes: "What is happening to me and why?"

"Dear CAC, my heart and soul have gone missing. I mean that literally. In a very sudden way, my emotion, my heart, my devotion, my longing for God, my will, my happiness, and even that sense of oneness that I could muster up when I tried, have all been sucked out of me somehow.

"My world has turned dark. My world has turned cold. Insanity. The strength from the heart that usually saves me is gone. That well seems empty now. My chakras have shrunk to the size of pin-holes. I might as well be dead. Perhaps I am dead!

"I can't live like this any longer. If this is the hell I have to live in, then I pray for death. One day I felt like a shining star full of hopes and dreams of self-realization, and the next day I am a zombie. How can this be? Why has God let this happen?

"Was it the pyramid that I built and meditated in? Was it too strong? I eventually had to take it apart because of the powerful energy vortices around it which were making me sick. I have a hunch that the pyramid energy might have done something to my brain or emotional body, since after a long sitting one day I became very, very depressed, and a kind of gloomy feeling haunted me all day.

"Or is it the entities that have been disturbing me for the last 6 months? I found that if my health wanes just a bit, I have to endure a period of psychic attacks and attempted possession by these entities. Lately I have to sleep during the day, because as soon as the sun goes down, these entities come and try to possess me as soon as I start to sleep.

"When this happens, it feels like I am getting shocked, and along with it comes a feeling of darkness and gloom. I think this is their way of torturing me by not letting me sleep, and no matter how tired I am, they keep zapping me awake. God! Somebody shoot me! I can't endure this any longer!

"Could it have been these sadistic entities that have taken my energy and left me in my present state? I think there is a strong possibility of this. Is it emotional shock from my morbid, paranoid and self-destructive thinking patterns? Was it the alien force that is monitoring me and trying to take my life?

"Was I abducted and implanted? Is it the herbs and vitamins I am taking? The day before I entered into this living hell I happened to overdose on Ginsana, a high-potency ginseng extract. Is it the Photon Belt energies that are changing things in my life in a very dramatic and sudden way? What about the Cosmic Awareness promise to protect the membership?

"I don't know what to do. I can't even seem to pray properly. I am left with nothing, without heart and emotions. How can a robot pray? I could never have imagined such a dark boring world! one would have to experience it to understand it. I am hoping you might have insight into my problem.

"Perhaps Cosmic Awareness could say a two second prayer for me or something, but I realize that is a long-shot since you guys are so busy. Namaste, Kriss Roberts." That's his statement. Does Awareness have any comment for this entity?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that you are not alone in this experience. Recall even the entity Jesus once lamented: "My God! Why hast thou forsaken me?" This Awareness indicates that this experience often referred to as the Dark Night of the Soul is not unique to yourself. This Awareness indicates that there is something you do need to understand which will make it easier for you to cope with the situation, which is temporary.

This Awareness indicates that you need to realize that dark forces do not attack dark forces. They attack forces of Light. They attack those forces that they see as being potentially powerful for the Light, and the Dark Forces that have attacked you recognize the potential value you possess in working for the Light, for the Divine.

This Awareness indicates that it is as though they know if they don't get you now, you'll be too strong for them later, and therefore, they seek to bring you down before your Light becomes stronger. This Awareness indicates that for you, you do not see the potential of your own Spiritual Light, and the Spiritual Mission of your purpose on earth, and therefore, you are expecting something to be handed to you in a protective way to protect any Dark Forces from harming you.

This Awareness indicates at some point you must realize that you have the Light within you to ward off any of these Dark Forces, these dark spirits. It is as though you have to experience the attack before you will realize it is within your own being to deal with the dark energies that are present in your world.

First Become Aware of Your Own Inner Light

This Awareness suggests that you begin to take stock of your own strength. Become aware of your own inner light, and how this inner light is everywhere present; that this light is the light of Divinity which permeates the entire universe and is only there when asked for or when called upon, and is available to anyone who seeks to attune to the light; but if you focus entirely on the dark forces, if you give your attention to the dark and dismal aspects of your life, how can the Divine Light be of benefit to you?

It will not take away your will to focus where you choose. If your focus is on the darkness, It will not chastise you and force you to look to the Light. It is a matter of your own choice. Therefore, this Awareness suggests you stop wallowing in the darkness and turn your attention to the Divine Light and just simply observe the Light, the beauty, the spiritual energies that are found wherever they may be in your life, and do not think that, "Oh, poor me, I have no spiritual energy anywhere within sight!" for wherever you look you can find some Spiritual Light and joy if you simply look for it.

This Awareness indicates there are many entities who like to lament about the difficulties of living, because perhaps in their childhood, their lamentations rewarded them. This Awareness indicates that these were manipulations of children. If they cried enough, mother would provide them with some kind of reward for the crying, and now they are older, and they still expect some kind of reward for lamenting about the lack of Divine Intervention.

This Awareness indicates that you are capable of finding the Divine energies that you need to fertilize your life, to make it brighter, to make it more beautiful. Simply surrender self to the Divine and let the Divine take your soul and energies and make them over into a greater fulfillment.

This Awareness indicates that you must realize you will never have total fulfillment except through the surrender of self to God. This Awareness indicates that in your surrendering to the Divine, giving up self, you gain everything. Giving up self does not mean committing suicide, to giving over your life to the dark forces, or to some self-lamentation, or the wailing and gnashing of teeth as an experience of lamenting.

Giving yourself means letting the Divine have guidance over your life to bring you to the fulfillment that you seek through the Divine Intervention. This Awareness indicates that once you give yourself to God, you have no more worry as to what is going to happen to you. You may simply watch, observe, moment to moment, as life goes by, serving the Divine Force from moment to moment as life passes, and you will find your life moving along a path that is much more rewarding.

You will eventually find yourself doing things that are in service to Divine Forces. This Awareness indicates that the Dark Force may seem strong to you now, but once you give yourself to Divinity, to Divine Spirit, to God, those dark forces will have no meaning or value or power of any kind over you. Simply focus on giving yourself to God. Trust in the highest and best in all your imagination, in your experience and understanding, to keep you safe and to keep you moving toward the greater Divine Light and away from those areas of darkness.

These dark areas simply become shadows. In fact, you may even reflect Divine Light onto these dark forces and help drive them further and further away from you. The dark forces do not like Divine Light coming at them. They cannot maintain their power and self-identity. This Awareness suggests you may simply visualize turning the palms of your hand in such a way as to reflect the Divine Light of God toward any of those dark areas that you see in your reality.

How To Cast Divine Light on Dark Shadows

Shining Light on them weakens them. Doing this in a metaphorical sense will have a powerful effect of ridding your life of these dark energies. Take your palms, hold them toward the Light, bend them just enough to create a ricochet of Divine Light onto those dark shadows in your reality, and light up the area where the dark shadows were so that those areas become clear and filled with Divine light.

You will find this ritual or action as that which is extremely beneficial and healing to your self, to your soul, to your entire sense of well-being.

This Awareness indicates that the problem which you seek to remedy is of much less importance than you have been led to believe. You can very easily handle this energy and change your life, with a little help from the Divine, simply by giving yourself to the Divine Light of God.

This Awareness indicates that it first requires this action of self-surrender to the Divine Light of God, then from that position, all else becomes simple, and you will see how simple it is once this first step is taken. If you seek to attend the problems from a power of self, of course your energies will not be nearly so beneficial and it will become difficult. That is the nature of the game.

The Nature of the Game of Living in a Physical Body

The nature of the game of living in a physical body is to learn that in yourself, you can do little, but in giving yourself to God, you have the strength and power of God behind you, and with you.

This Awareness reminds you that the spirit of God is everywhere present in the universe. You do not have to hunt for God or search for God or find God. You simply need to accept God as being present and give yourself to that Divine Energy that resides within you, beside you, in front of you, behind you, above you and below you.

The spirit of God is everywhere present.

Did Pyramid Energy Do Any Damage?

(A Dark Force Has No Power Unless You Give It Some)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Is there anything to the notion presented that the pyramid energy somehow opened him up to these dark forces?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is negative. This Awareness indicates that in some of his activities he may have at one point or another allowed an opening to occur in his aura, and dark spirits may have invaded that opening. This occurs sometimes when entities use alcohol or drugs or are sick in some way from an illness, or if they experience some kind of emotional disturbance, it can blow holes in the aura, and make them susceptible to invasion by dark forces, but these dark forces are puny except for the power that entities give them.

If entities begin to think these dark forces are powerful or strong, then of course they give energy to these forces. Otherwise, these dark forces are no more powerful than an entity's own shadow. If an entity is afraid of his shadow, the shadow becomes a powerful thing, but if an entity has no fear of his shadow, what shadow can hurt the entity?

HOW TO SURRENDER TO THE DIVINE?

(He Says Going Into a Mediumistic Trance Does It For Him)

QUESTION:

In regard to surrendering to the Divine, a question from Alton McCullough, Chillicothe, Ohio. I'm only going to read a little bit of this. He wrote an explanation about five pages here, but he writes: "I have a question in my mind. That is, that Awareness always states 'Surrender to the Divine, and become One with the Divine,' or to the 'Highest and Best, to the Divine Creator.'"

"To my knowledge, Awareness has never stated how this act of surrendering is to be done. All my studies down through the years, I have come close, but not quite to the answer, until I discovered the Metu Neter, the great oracle of Tehuti, and the Egyptian System of Spiritual Cultivation." Evidently it's a book or a system, a course.

And he goes on. "By studying this Light from the East, the realization hit me like a flash. We have to put ourselves in a mediumistic trance state in order to surrender to the Divine and become One with the Divine. We cannot become more highly evolved spiritually until this act is done."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates whatever rules you place on the game you play are the framework in which you operate. If you say you cannot do it except a certain way, then that becomes the only way you can operate.

This Awareness indicates another person may find a different way to surrender self.

Fundamentalist Christians Do It Another Way

This Awareness reminds you that the Fundamentalist Christians have been using a different way for hundreds of years, and have found it works for them without being aware of this book or its procedures; the Egyptian method described.

This Awareness indicates that there is no need to have a method to surrender. The army, when training entities for battle, does not train these entities on how to surrender to the enemy if they are overpowered. The only thing they know is that if a white flag is held up, the enemy is not supposed to shoot them, but to take them prisoner.

This Awareness indicates is this a method of surrender? Is this some kind of system in which they surrender? Or is it not simply a way of communicating that they surrender? If this is what an entity needs in order to surrender, what happens if he or she cannot find a white flag? What happens if they wish to surrender? Can they not simply put their hands up and surrender?

This Awareness indicates that if this is necessary in your surrendering to God, then perhaps you can visualize yourself holding up a white flag and telling God, "I surrender! I give up myself to Thee!" or perhaps you can raise your hands and say, "Lord, take me. I surrender to thee!" This Awareness indicates that many in the churches fall upon their knees and surrender to God in that manner.

There is no prescribed rule as to how an entity must surrender self to God. Any rule of any method you choose will be understood by God. This Awareness indicates there is also no excuse in saying, "I wanted to surrender myself to God, but I didn't know how. I just couldn't figure it out!" This is not a satisfactory excuse.

This Awareness appreciates the fact that the questioner found a way to satisfy his need for a method of surrendering. It is simply suggesting that not everyone needs to have this method that worked for this entity, nor does it require that this Awareness provide a step-by-step method on how to surrender to God.

Krishnamurti Said It All

This Awareness indicates that the entity Krishnamurti was once asked how to do something which he had advised entities to do, and Krishnamurti looked at the questioner with a kind of shock, and said to the entity "How! How! How is the most mischievous word in the universe. Don't ask how! Just do it! Do it! Do it!"

This Awareness cannot find a better way to express the issue than the one expressed by the entity Krishnamurti.

TO GROW SPIRITUALLY MUST WE REMEMBER OUR PAST?

(How Many Have You Eaten in Past Lives?)

QUESTION:

A question from Terry Tolbert, Scottsmeer, FL. He writes: "My understanding is we are all descendants of the alien species in one way or the other. As such, I am reminded that it is vital to our spiritual growth and understanding that we remember our past. I feel I have some idea as to the importance of why, but could Awareness tell us specifically why we must remember, and what we can do to help clear ourselves to remember?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not see any great need for entities to remember the roots of their origin. It is much more important to become aware of who you are and where you are going than where you have come from.

This Awareness indicates that where you are going should be toward a reuniting with the Divine Creator of the Universe. Who you are, is an entity who has been separated from the Divine Creator of the universe and who is now becoming aware of the need to re-unite with the Divine Creator of the universe.

What more is there to know about yourself than those things you already know about who you are and where you are going? This Awareness indicates it is not necessary to know your past: whom you have eaten in some past life, whom you have slain; how many you have eaten or how many you have slain. None of this is really important to you here and now.

It is only important for you to know where you are going, and what you are doing presently to get there.

IS MAN THE ONLY UNNATURAL SPECIES ON OUR PLANET?

(Standing Naked in a Forest Could He Survive?)

QUESTION:

Another question from this entity Terry Tolbert. "It occurred to me the other day that man is the only unnatural species on this planet. What I mean is if you took away man's clothes, money, cars, TV, radios and newspapers and left him to fend for himself on the surface of this planet, he would perish by the millions because he does not appear to be native to earth's environment, so it seems to me.

"Is this possible? I think so. Look at any animal, mammal or bird on earth. They all fit, and they all have inborn natural defenses and instincts. They belong where they are observed. Man, on the other hand, standing stark naked in the middle of a forest, does not belong, seems out of place. This in itself could be the proof that man needs to know it is not alone in the universe.

"Can Awareness comment on this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that man is not naked, is not without tools. Man is very much a different species than most animals, for man has a capacity to fend for himself in the event of being stripped of tools, in the event of being stripped of clothing and protection. He will simply think, and he will extend the tools of sight, of touch, of protection and ways to cover himself to gain comfort.

He will find a way to comfort his naked body if presented with the need. He will find ways to protect himself with clubs, weapons, rocks or whatever, if the need arises. He will find ways of seeing in the darkness if it is essential. He will find ways to extend his tool beyond those which he was given, because man is a thinking being, a step higher in this regard than most animals.

This Awareness indicates that even while some animals have a rudimentary capacity for thinking, man is far beyond them in this regard. This Awareness indicates that one may ask whether man is natural or unnatural because he is capable of thinking and gaining power over his environment through his ability to think, but what does it matter whether it is natural or unnatural. It is still the nature of man to be what he is and to think his way out of critical situations in order to survive.

This Awareness indicates man is a survivor because of his ability to think, not because he was given protection by nature, not because he was given some kind of special tool of a physical quality. He does not have great claws or great fangs or teeth or poison sacks in his jaws, nor does he have great muscles in his legs that allow him to leap great distances.

He is relatively agile, but not agile enough for some circumstances or crises, but he can think, and he can create and build tools that allow him to have abilities that surpass tools of some of the more ferocious animals. He has built automobiles to transport him faster than the Cheetah, and created machinery that allows him to level mountains which he cannot climb.

He can think. Is he natural, or is he artificial? It doesn't matter. He is what he is. It is his nature. He is a natural creature of his own species. His natural qualities may not be the same as those of the animals in the world in which he lives, but he has a certain natural set of characteristics, unique unto himself.

This Awareness does not see what the issue is in terms of the question; whether it is a problem or simply an observation about the nature of man, or a comparison of man with other elements of nature.

THE LIGHT AND SOUND IS WITHIN US ALL

(Why Is This Information Not Being Released to Entities?)

QUESTION:

One other question from this entity Terry Tolbert. He asks: "Awareness, can you tell us why we are kept in the dark as to the importance of realizing that the Light and Sound of All is within each of us? There are reference here and there but almost nothing that clearly says to discover It, what each already possesses, is to be free.

"As with money, we are kept distracted from the very source that will set us free. Is it really that simple? That they know, and don't want us to, so they keep our minds and attentions on trivial nothings, knowing we will never find what we don't make time and room for?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the question appears to center around the concept of the sound current and the vibrations of Light which have a great deal to do with the Life current or flow of Life Energy through the body, and this Awareness indicates the entity sees this as the key to Life Energy as it flows through the body, wherein an entity who can tune to the Sound Current, the vibration of life, as it flows through oneself, can have greater experience of life and spiritual insight, and the question appears to ask, "Why do the teachers of earth, the people who educate the masses, refuse to teach entities about this Sound Current, this vibration that creates the life flow, that gives life to entities?"

Why do they not teach about this life vibration, or frequency? This Awareness indicates it is asked in a manner that questions whether it is some kind of intentional effort to avoid giving the secret of life to the masses, or if it is simply negligence on the part of those who are the so-called "experts," or if perhaps they just don't know about this aspect of life as a Sound Current or frequency or vibration.

This Awareness indicates that if this is the correct interpretation of the question, this Awareness would suggest that it is not actually an intentional purpose of the so-called "leaders" of earth to hide this information from entities. It is more that the information for them is of little importance because their interest is not in educating the masses as to how they may tune in to the Life Force or spiritual vibrations of life.

Their interest is more in how to manage the population on earth, manage and influence the behavior of five billion people on earth so that a semblance of order in society is maintained. They do not have the feeling of urgency in terms of educating the masses to the truth. They are more concerned with educating them into proper behavior so that civilization can continue to thrive in a way that does not become too disruptive at any time.

This Awareness indicates if it were a question of whether they should allow everyone to know the total truth or whether they should keep the truth hidden in order to preserve civilization, they would choose to preserve civilization over giving out total truth, because the main part of their agenda is to keep as much harmony in the world as is essential for their purposes in manipulating mankind as a civilization toward a particular end they have in terms of the ideal civilization.

This Awareness indicates the individuals, however, within that civilization, often have time, often have opportunity, and sometimes even have the discovery of certain truths that are made available to them in their journeys through life so that they discover certain truths about life itself which may surpass much of the value found in other teachings of society, so that an entity such as the questioner may have great insight into the Life Force itself, and how these vibrations and sounds flowing through the entity are reflective of universal sounds and forces and Divine Energies of the universe, and such entities may feel appreciation and great wonder at the importance of such knowledge being presented to them and such entities may wonder, "Why isn't it possible for everyone to be given this information?"

This Awareness indicates that often such people become teachers or in some way begin to share their insight with others to help others also get a better understanding of the Life Force and the way the Life Force operates. This Awareness indicates that this may be something that the questioner will wish to consider as part of his journey through life whereas he becomes one who teaches those who wish to further understand this discovery that he has made, for there have been others also who have made such a discovery and who have passed on their discovery to still others.

Not everyone can teach this information. Some entities much teach math. Some must teach engineering. Some must teach reading, writing, poetry, drama, song-writing, music, playing various instruments; some must teach water controls and civic planning. There are many things that must be taught, but there is still room for those who wish to teach about the Sound Current that flows through everyone which reflects the Divine Vibration of the Creator, and how this can be of great importance to entities in their search for higher truths.

Discussion Groups Springing Up Everywhere

Will They change Consciousness As Alternatives to Adult Education?

QUESTION:

A question from Chris Largent. He writes: "Our small group, "Wisdom Studies" seems to be going well, which actually brings me to a question for Awareness, if you think it merits consideration. We've heard of other groups around the country springing up to discuss all sorts of things, almost as an alternative to an authoritarian adult education system. Are these groups a growing phenomenon? And are they something that will help the consciousness-raising during this crucial time?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that there are many entities who are beginning to think in terms of original thought, and are coming up with new ways of looking at old ideas, or old systems, and in this originality of thought, they are creating groups which are beginning to have an effect in little areas, which gradually are springing up here and there, and which will in due time begin to surface in society to bring about originality and a new society that is based on original ideas, not controlled by the past and not controlled by those powers that have ruled for so long through the secret schools, through the occult mechanisms of the Freemasonry and its various controls or the political controls or the secret societies that have for so long molded the masses.

A New Generation of Leaders Free From Control Is Coming

This Awareness indicates that this spontaneity of original thinking that is springing up everywhere will begin to have its influence on society within a generation and it will help to bring about a new generation of leaders that will be totally free from the controls of others from the old methods and powers.

This Awareness indicates that generally in the past, people thought they were thinking originally when they would find themselves helping to promote some causes against another cause. During the early part of the century there were those who promoted concepts of special change, thinking they were being original in their thinking, in their ideas, but they were simply dancing to the tune of the Communist plan that have been originated from the Illuminati and passed on to certain professors and teachers and eventually to the students within the schools, or they were carrying on the Fascism doctrines; the works of Hegel or Nietzsche and the works of Karl Ritter, as these were passed down from the Illuminati to the intelligentsia of those Fascist teachings of the time, so that these entities also thought they were promoting some new original concepts.

The Illuminati Created Two Opposing Camps In the World

But these were all stemming from the same source: the Illuminati, as two sides of a program that was designed to create great opposing camps in the world, which eventually reflected the cold war concepts of the rest of the century, and there are many similar concepts that are still coming forth from the Illuminati to help promote the concept of a New World order, wherein the Order joins together no opposing camps, but in regard to a pyramid-shape of civilization, in which there are the higher and the lower castes in the system of the New World order.

This Awareness indicates those in the higher polarized levels have greater power over those masses below who may be crushed by the energy from the top. This Awareness indicates that they will be led to believe this is a way of avoiding war, wherein the two opposing camps no longer exist and there is unity among man, but they will also realize that where once they were in opposition horizontally, they are now being crushed under the weight of greater power above them, and that it is not any solution to the polarity of the past, it is simply a different formation and a tyrannical situation that has no external power available to alter the crushing power from above.

This Awareness suggests that the question be restated. (Question is re-read.)

What Is Coming Is a New Creation

This Awareness indicates that this phenomenon of the groups coming simultaneously and spontaneously into being with the purpose of creating new ideas and new discussions and insight, as that which is likened unto a New Creation that is not originated from the Illuminati and the powers that have for so long directed the flow and energy of civilization.

This is a phenomenon that can be of great importance as it develops spontaneously, for it will be more reflective of the Divine Mind, because it is unencumbered by some long-range agenda or purpose, and therefore is more reflective of what is important in the Here and Now and can observe and balance more objectively without a preordained role in mind as an agenda.

It can analyze more clearly what is happening on earth. As these entities develop and grow more intellectually, there will be great leaders that come from these groups, as tomorrow's leaders, and they will not be programmed by the Illuminati and its collective organizations.

He's Gay and Being Abducted by Greys (Is There Any Way He Can Stop These Abductions?)

QUESTION:

One other question from Chris Largent. He writes: "The second question is the main one for me, and it comes from my concern for someone here who is being abducted. I don't want to tediously detail this, but a background may help show you why I'd like some help for this kid. This is a young man in this Twenties named Tracy M. He's very artistic, works in a bank job he dislikes, is Gay, and says, "The problem is that I look Gay, so people are always beating up on me for it."

"He has a good mind, both intellect and intuition. He's been abducted since he can remember, and I discovered under hypnosis that he was abducted in his past life as a woman. In fact, the Greys seem to have killed him or her during one brutal abduction experiment. The spin is that his mind is somehow more powerful than any abductee's I've heard about, and maybe I just haven't heard about enough; that is, he can actually harm the Greys with a mental power somehow, which they don't like.

"As a child he led a kind of minor revolution among the hybrid children on a ship and the Greys killed them all to make him stop. He wanted the children to know that they didn't have to be prisoners, and the Greys didn't appreciate this. He'd like the abductions to stop, which is why he came to see me, and I gave him some Light Meditations to try and suggested that he use anything spiritual to think of.

"This was successful for a time. He hadn't called for a couple of months, and then he got back in touch last week, saying that the Greys were abducting him again. He had the impression that the Greys did not appreciate his attempts to make them stop, and he felt that perhaps he just had to put up with the abductions.

"But this gives a kind of despair to his life that makes me uneasy. Does Awareness see anything that Tracy and perhaps other abductees can do to stop abductions? Now I know it has been suggested before, and we've seen it work, so I'm grateful for what Awareness has given so far. Denise's sister was an abductee, for example, and the program we suggested to her on the basis of earlier Awareness readings has stopped her abductions, but is there anything else that Awareness can recommend, especially for Tracy himself?

"I just have the feeling that there's something unusual about him, and if he can stop his abductions, perhaps he can do things for other abductees."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a very difficult problem for anyone, and for a young person such as this, it can be even more difficult, because the entity is more or less rebelling against a society and culture that has been developed over many, many eons of years and time, and with great experience in manipulating entities.

They also have certain technology which can be used in such manipulation.

This Awareness indicates that the one thing which the entity may wish to focus upon is in discovering a method or way by which the Greys operate and function. Depending on what kind of Greys, what particular society or method of behavior and control these Greys use, the entity may find a way of using that methodology against them in some way.

In the Hierarchy System Greys Tend to Follow Emphatic Orders

This Awareness indicates, for example, many of the Greys have a hierarchy system of command in which they are taught to obey, but they cannot individually think and make determination in how to deal with a situation, but they do tend to follow orders, when the orders are given with authority.

If this is the case with these entities and this entity has the capability of barking orders to them with the appearance of some authority, he might be able to persuade them or intimidate them into doing things or recognizing that he is too much trouble to mess with.

This Awareness indicates, for example, if the entity can give them the impression that something he has, or something is watching over him in such a way that anyone who harms him or denies his freedom will be severely endangered, then he might be able to persuade them to leave him alone.

This Awareness indicates that a lot depends on how seriously he can present himself, and how these entities feel about his personal connections and strengths. This Awareness indicates that there are times when entities can bluff and give cause for fear, or for apprehension. Because this entity is Gay he could argue that he is a potential AIDS carrier and could spread AIDS to their ship.

This Awareness indicates that this may not be effective. It may not be a workable plan because these entities appear to have some way of countering any AIDS contamination. Therefore, this Awareness suggests this is not seen as a likely beneficial approach; they can also check him. But, however, the principle whereby the entity is perceived in some way as a potential problem for these entities if they continue to abduct him, is a principle that is worth pursuing.

The Aliens Do Not Understand the Concept of God

This Awareness indicates that the entity, for example, could inform them that he is remembering their names and gathering information about these aliens to give to his God. The aliens do not understand the concept of God. He could say that he is planning to ask his God to do something about these aliens and their continual abduction of himself and others.

This Awareness indicates that this will very likely confuse them and may be effective in influencing them to quit abducting him. If they see that he is attempting to memorize their names, and feel that he is gathering information, it could intimidate them to some degree, particularly if he explains that he is getting information for his God and that his God will deal with them in his God's Own Way.

This Awareness indicates, of course, the entity will have to decide for himself whether this approach is comfortable to him, or if it is a reasonable approach. This Awareness suggests that it appears to be something that would be meaningful and could be helpful in causing these entities to avoid him. Because these entities do have some confusion as to what God is they tend to take everything literally and factually, and if the entity speaks of God as though God were some authority of a real nature, they are very likely to equate it to their own leaders, of whom they are devoted and will not defy.

Intimidation of Allens Has Worked in Other Cases

This Awareness indicates that it has worked in other cases, such as the case where the entity ordered those who were abducting his son to, "Let him go, or I will have my God destroy your ship!" When this entity shouted this to these abducting aliens, they dropped the boy and flew away in their ship.

This Awareness indicates it is worth a try, and it may be very effective in causing these entities to avoid him in the future, particularly if they believe he is gathering information for some authority named God, whom they have heard about before and cannot understand, do not understand, but recognize it as being a very important part of human culture.

He may even suggest that his God is gathering information and may destroy their ship. It is a not a good idea to threaten them personally, but to threaten their ship would be sufficient to cause them to leave him alone in the future.

DO THE GREYS REALLY WANT THEIR IQ'S LOWERED BY MIXING WITH HUMANS?

(There's More To The Greys Agenda Than Meets the Eye)

QUESTION:

A question from Judy Violet, in Hemet, CA. She writes "If the Zeta Reticuli and Greys want to undo the damage of cloning, couldn't they do that by pairing genes with other families of Greys and Zeta Reticuli, increasing the families that still use sex, if that is what they want increased?"

"Their chromosomes ought to combine easier with each other than our mammalian ones. Don't they cooperate with each other? Do they really want their IQ's lowered by mixing with us humans?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is something further involved in their agenda, however, beyond simply maintaining and promoting their own race. They also want to create a race that is more compatible with earth atmosphere and environment and the human race is well adapted to the earth environment whereas theirs is not. They do not fare well on the surface of the earth.

They need to be underground in certain environmentally adjusted caverns and by combining their own genes with those of humans they have begun to create a race that is more adaptable to the earth and its environment, and therefore, this is part of their agenda, along with the preservation of their species.

They have created the mutants of part-human and part-Grey in such a way that the bodies are more compatible with the earth environment than are they themselves.

THE PHILOSOPHER'S STONE: HE'S MADE POWDER BUT IT'S DARK NOT WHITE

(What Does He Do Next?)

QUESTION:

A question from Stephen Ratanashi, Toronto, Canada. He writes: "I would appreciate it if you could ask Awareness about this, regarding the Philosopher's Stone. I had white powder already visible in my flask, floating on top of liquid and a good portion at the bottom settled down. I let the liquid evaporate as suggested, but now, all of the powder residue that has settled down at the bottom has turned dark brown, red, or almost black in color, just as the color of the liquid was.

"There is little trace of white powder; some grains visible on the sides of the flask. Everything else is dark color. Is this still good? Do I just add liquid now? Will the new powder created also turn this color? Please respond!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

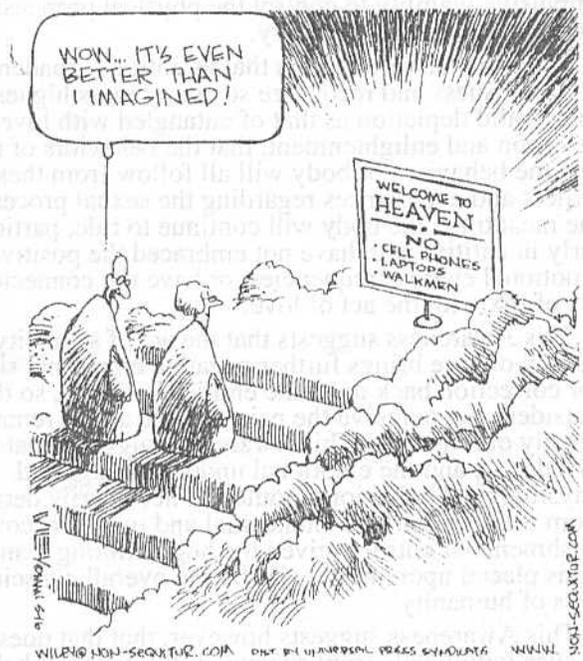

This Awareness indicates there is that in the alchemical books which describes the color of the raven's wing; this being black in color. There is also a reference to the color red. This Awareness indicates that it appears the powder is still valuable, and that additional liquid at the time of the full moon can revitalize that powder so that it remains valuable and workable.

This Awareness indicates that It does not see this as needing to be at the time of the eclipse, although that would be a better time, but that it can also be revitalized at the time of the full moon and simply by adding the further liquid. This Awareness indicates that there is some potential for it to not work properly, but approximately 80% chance it will continue working.

The further action is seen as occurring with the top of the bottle removed during that time period while the matrix is kept warm so that the liquid can go through its evaporation, and the powder should retain a lighter color at the end of the evaporation.

It is seen that continual addition of liquid to the powder with each full moon can be a method of build-up of the powder. This Awareness suggests that this may be capped long enough to shake up the liquid and the powder in the bottle, then the lid may be removed.

Ed's Note: My own personal experiment ended in the same way, all dark powder after the liquid evaporated. I did not try the experiment again due to more pressing projects. For more information on making your own Philosopher's Stone, please refer to "Revelations of Awareness" issues, 94-05, 95-02, 95-11, 95-06; $3.00 each from CAC.

GURUS WHO BUGGER CHILDREN

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. A sensitive question about Si Baba and other highly respected Indian gurus. "After the death of my Sidhu guru who preached the merits of celibacy, I was assured by devotees that the gurus of the lineage have lovers, presumably tantric, and selected from among their disciples.

One woman even told me that her friend was in the room and witnessed an occasion when said guru buggered the young son of one disciple, for what reason I cannot imagine. Currently we have websites publicizing the accusations that Si Baba molests boys and young men, and I use the term "molest" because the victims are not only generally unwilling, but often traumatized by the advances.

I am extremely puzzled by this, as I have justifiably the utmost respect for the spiritual accomplishments of such adepts as these two, yet the reports seem incontrovertibly true. What is going on here? Why would respected gurus, being of high advanced power, love and compassion, behave in such a manner?" she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that behavior is guided by the emotional system; the ultimate evaluative and guiding energy essence which allows humanity to design behaviors of mind and behaviors of action which will facilitate the optimal Destiny Path.

This Awareness suggests that through the misuse and misunderstanding of the system, that the automatic behavioral motivators within the body play a larger role in this ancient system than the human consciousness deserves. This Awareness suggests this is how there can be a profound vacillation between the spiritual understandings, the mental and intellectual accomplishments of entities, and yet the complete compulsive and impulsive inability to control the physical propensities, particularly toward sexuality.

This Awareness suggests that as entities broaden their consciousness and recognize sexuality in its highest most valid depiction as that of entangled with love and devotion and enlightenment, that the behaviors of mind and the behaviors of body will all follow from these beliefs and experiences regarding the sexual process. In the meantime, the body will continue to rule, particularly in entities who have not embraced the positive emotional energy frequencies, or have not connected the act of sex with the act of love.

This Awareness suggests that the act of sexuality devoid of love brings further negative emotional signals for correction back upon the entities involved, so that outsiders can perceive the pain that the actors remain largely oblivious to. This Awareness suggests that this in balance, and the emotional understandings and physiological behaviors should not necessarily detract from the spiritual and intellectual and mental accomplishments of entities, given the huge limiting restrictions placed upon the species by the overall consciousness of humanity.

This Awareness suggests however, that that does not excuse individuals from accountability for their behavior or accountability to the judgments leveled against them by the continuing negative emotions which spiral outward and are observable and experienced by others, such as this entity who finds the behavior aberrant and negative.

This Awareness suggests however, that as the consciousness embraces the emotional sense, creates the changes in the mental behaviors, the physical behaviors will align accordingly, and that such sexual perversions and hypocrisy's will no longer be as prevalent as at present. If we have completion we can continue.

IS GETTING BUGGERED THE DESTINY PATH OF THESE LITTLE BOYS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

Well, in regard to this subject, since we're not supposed to refer to karma anymore, then are we to assume that the Destiny Path of these little boys who are being buggered by these gurus was to manifest in that particular condition? That they had made some kind of agreement with the guru before they came down that it would be all right for them to bugger them in this lifetime, and violate them that way? Is that basically what we're saying here?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that beyond the realm of human judgment, violation is not perceived as such. The Mission Destiny is to manifest biologically within the species the capacity to perceive and convert as much energy as possible. Various missions, various costumes, various roles, various deficiencies, various birth defects, various parental and child relationships, both positive and negative are all adopted as basic scenarios to help perpetuate, to move the consciousness, the cultural awareness, the beliefs of the species in a positive direction.

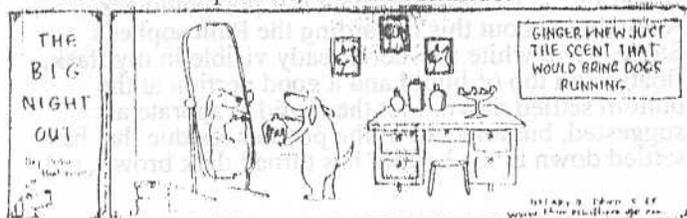

This Awareness suggests also that the degree of choice involved in this individual, depending upon how responsive or repressive that entity is to the emotional system. This Awareness suggests that a huge degree of choice is scattered to the wind due to the fact that entities do not understand the emotional system.

Entities enter the earth system with several strikes against them, given the fact that their parents will raise them within the limitations and the misunderstandings, so that the emotional system is not fully developed. This Awareness suggests that every entity knows this challenge and sets up specific circumstances to minimize the impact and manage the optimal emotional development, so that the wisdom of that experience can then be imparted into the overall community, so that subsequent generations will be less limited and less limited, and less limited.

This Awareness suggests that the concept of karma has to do with these particular choices and the interaction with the creative manifestations in the individual's lifetime. This Awareness suggests that there is no fixed destiny in terms of an entity born specifically to be buggered, any moreso than there is an entity born to be galvanized as a saint.

This Awareness suggests however, that the interactions between the pure value potential as it relates to the manifest destiny and the creative ability to convert that energy into actuality shall continue to exhibit what appear to be victim and perpetrator relationships until the understanding is embraced that acceptance of life as it comes is acceptance of the greater meaning behind it.

If we have completion, we can continue.

Excerpt CAC Gen. Reading # 3-3 3-8-95 Paul Shockley Interpreter

Is Sirius the Home of Freemasonry?

(How Far Back Can We Claim Our Existence?)

QUESTION:

Paul LeBreton, of Burnet, Texas, writes: "Regarding Sirius and their role in regard to "man on earth", years ago I read Masonic literature that said that Sirius was the home of the Grand Blue Lodge of Freemasonry. Can Awareness confirm or deny this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a matter of making claims. This Awareness indicates that you can also say that it is the home of all entities who were descended from the genetic experiments that created the Adam and Eve prototype. It is simply a matter of how far you want to claim your existence.

The Prism of Lyra: The Point All Consciousness Evolved From

It can also be taken back further to the prism of Lyra, which is essentially a reference to the splitting of light in terms of a prism, which creates the various energy fields that became the consciousness types that eventually evolved into humanoid and Reptoid beings.

You can say that this is the source of whatever resulted, and if you wish to get egotistical, you could say this is the source of Cosmic Awareness Communications, or Joe's Plumbing Shop, or the U.S. Post Office, or the Round Lodge of Jack Horner or the Blue Lodge of the Masonic organization, and all of these things would essentially be true, since the prism of Lyra which is symbolic of the splitting of light, is a point from which all consciousness evolved, including Joe's Plumbing Shop.

This Awareness indicates that if you want to put significance to this you may, or you may simply recognize it is a good joke, a humorous statement, and not to be given great significance. This Awareness indicated much of humanity, most of humanity on earth can claim its source as coming from Sirius, or you can go further back to Lyra, or you can even go back further to the Creative Frequency of God and say that Joe's Plumbing Shop was created by God, that God was the source of his plumbing shop, and you would not actually be telling a falsehood.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Does Freemasonry then not exist on any other planet than earth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the concept of Freemasonry began around the time of the 13th Century as a kind of watch-dog organization to make sure that societies were being run properly, but the concept of Masons, the metaphysical Masonry, goes far back into history. These were the Builders, and these entities considered themselves as building civilizations.

The Els were classed also as Builders. Thus, you can trace the concept of Masonry for the Builders, back to the Els, which are representative of Saturn and the planet itself, and Saturn, as a builder of material things, was a symbol for materialism; building out of consciousness, out of ideas, a world of material realities.

The Elois: Gods That Manipulate Consciousness Into Reality

This Awareness indicates that the concept of Els goes back millions of years, and eventually, in terms of symbolism, to the Elois. These are the gods that manipulate consciousness into reality of the material realm. This Awareness indicates that one can claim, and honestly so, that Masonry goes back to the frequencies or vibrations, but one can also claim that Joe's Plumbing Shop goes back to the frequencies and vibrations of the beginning of the universe, the beginning of all material realities and beyond.

This Awareness indicates for all things came out of frequency and vibration. The frequency is the Creator, the Universal Divine Creator. It is of such a high level that It is conscious of Itself, and that frequency, when moving into lower levels of vibration, becomes aware of those lower levels as "matter." The lower the vibrations, the more materialized the vibrations appear to be.

"In my Father's House are Many Mansions"

Thus, the Higher Vibrations create the lower frequencies and recognize the lower frequencies as the realm of matter. There are many steps in between. These are likened unto dimensions or mansions in the sense of the stepping down of vibration to material realms. It is from this that one can say, "In my father's house are many mansions."

There is also an astrological meaning to this Biblical verse, but this Awareness indicates that all of these frequencies, being stepped down in their expressions can be seen as light, as vibrational frequency or as sound or as heat, or as material realities, to the point where there is an entire range of vibration, moving from the most gross particle of matter up through the highest frequency or vibration imaginable, and that highest frequency is Divinity Itself.

You can Truthfully Say: "My Shoes Were Made By God"

It is also God Consciousness, and thus, anyone who wants to make the claim of, "I came from God Consciousness!", or "my shoes were made by God!", can be telling the truth, even as absurd as it may sound. If you understand the total meaning of Divinity and materialism, these things are true.

Thus, you can say that Masonry exists on all levels, because there is a building process that occurs, as you cut across from one frequency, down an octave to the next. This is the "L" movement. Rather than simply vibrating in a spherical or circular sense, you cut across the lines of one vibration into another.

The Masonic square symbolizes that movement across from one frequency to another, or from one dimension to another, as entities move up or down the frequency scales. This Awareness indicates if you go to these other planets, you are not likely to see Masonic lodges or temples in the same sense as they exist on earth.

This does not mean that Masonry, or the concept and principles of Masonry do not exist elsewhere, because Masonry principles are based on the building of material things to reflect the frequencies and vibrations from the higher levels.

This Awareness indicates if anyone can conceive of what this Awareness has indicated, they may well be a Mason of the higher sense. It is not the same as the local Mason who attends certain rituals and participates in a social club. The higher Mason is attuned to the frequencies that build the universe and all of its material and spiritual creations.

Religious Symbols Used in Masonry: The Head People

This Awareness indicates it is for this reason that the Masons are symbolized as Head People, and the non-Masons are symbolized as Heart People, and the story of Salome and the seven veils represents the story of the Head People and Heart People. It is said that for every head person, there are seven Heart People, and when this entity was directed to bring the Head of John the Baptist on a platter, it was symbolic of the Masonry head being decapitated and presented, and the seven veils were symbolic of the seven Heart People who exist for every Head Person.

This Awareness indicates that Heart People tend to be loyal, to follow, and these would be equated to the Bhakti Yoga path. The Bhakti Yoga is a yoga of devotion. Nana Yoga is the yoga of intellect. They would be equated to the Mason, or Head Person.

This Awareness indicates that there are many types of symbolisms throughout the world in various religions. It is far too complex to go into at this point, in this reading, on this question.

SHE FINDS NEEDLE MARKS AND BRUISES ON HER RIGHT ARM UPON AWAKENING

QUESTION:

We got a letter from Marylee Swanson, from Colorado Springs, Colorado, dated February 21, 1995. And she writes: "I so enjoy Awareness explaining aliens and their activities. I know you need questions. I don't know what to ask. I don't know what is "real" anymore. I just want to know it all. Ever since I was a child I wanted to know truth. Thank you for helping."

And then she adds the following statement: "For the last few months I have found needle marks and bruises on my right arm upon awakening. I don't know what to think." Could Awareness explain?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that often entities will have certain things happen that they do not notice. An entity might, for example, be working on a car, only to find an hour or so later, that he has a cut on his hand. He does not remember being cut, but presumes it was cut while it was working on the car. Sometimes this type of thing occurs.

It is possible that so-called needle marks may have come from a rose bush or some thorn, or splinter, or something. If you are sure that this did not happen, then you can consider the possibility that there was no needle mark before you went to sleep, and the needle mark occurred during your sleep. This Awareness indicates that most doctors can tell the difference from a puncture from some other cause, and a needle mark.

If you received a needle mark while you were sleeping, and no entity was able to enter your room to do this, and you are absolutely certain it did not come from some other source, then it is a possibility that this was created by an alien who entered your room, but this should be the least likely conclusion that you reach from such an experience.

Where Aliens Would Normally Place a Needle Mark

This Awareness indicates that most needle marks by aliens are placed on the sides of the finger in the furthest digit from the hand, the joint furthest from the hand, at the sides, below the fingernails, in the widest part of the finger, and usually there is only one needle mark to the finger and seldom do they leave more than one needle mark on the hand at a time.

It is possible that they might leave another needle mark on a finger at a different time. These needle marks, when presented by aliens on a finger, tend to remain and not heal quickly. They tend to remain for weeks, even months, and any doctor looking at such a needle mark recognizes it not as a bite, but as a needle mark.

This Awareness indicates it is seldom that needle marks are placed in the arm of an entity by aliens. It would be highly unlikely. This Awareness indicates that the main reason aliens put a needle mark on one's finger is to intimidate the entity for having been involved in research of aliens, particularly when the research is getting too close for comfort, and they want to steer the entity away from further investigation of aliens.

This occurred for the entity Paul Benowitz in his deeper research into aliens. He received a needle mark on the side of the finger. This Awareness indicates that if the needle mark on your arm does not heal, is not gone within two or three weeks, then you may consider that it could be a needle mark from an alien visitation.

If it is still there within two months or more, you can presume it most likely was from an alien visitation. Otherwise, it is possible it was a bite from some insect, or an accidental poke from something that you touched during the night or were unaware of when it occurred.

QUESTIONER:

"Yes," she continues, "For the last few months I have found needle marks and bruises on my right arm upon awakening." So if it's been a few months, she should investigate the possibility of aliens?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates if the needle mark last for a few months. If they simply appear and are healed within a day or two, then they are not necessarily from aliens.

How to Protect Oneself From Aliens

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that entities who have suspicion of being harassed or having encounters with aliens can help to protect themselves with the wrapping of White Light around themselves prior to going to bed, or they can use religious symbols, such as the cross placed nearby.

This Awareness indicates that religious symbols and prayer does not always help ward off aliens, but it has been known in some cases, to ward off alien violations to entities. It is in part a matter of one's faith and ability to believe the religious symbol or prayer has power over other forces, such as the extraterrestrial, or any negative force of a demonic nature.
