MENTAL HOSPITALS IN THE U.S.

(Are They Being Used For Sinister Purposes?)

QUESTION:

A question from John Snyder, Pacifica, CA. He writes: "Please explain in as much detail as possible the involvement of the Dark Force aliens in the operation of mental hospitals in the United States. Are these institutions used to silence and discredit as insane these entities who psychically become aware of the presence and activity of Dark Force aliens?"

"Are drugs administered to entities for the purpose of causing brain damage and especially to deaden spiritual awareness and psychic perception?"

"Are these hospitals especially the state operated ones, used as dumping grounds for old malfunctioning robotoids and synthetic humans?" There's a number of questions in that question.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there can be that type of abuse in the use of mental institutions and in some cases these things occur. That is not of course a primary function of mental institutions. The majority of entities working in such institutions do not even give credence to the concept of aliens, but if someone came in speaking of alien influences, it would simply suggest to them that the entity was mentally insane.

This Awareness indicates that there are special places where they deal with the more extreme cases; these being military hospitals especially. This Awareness indicates that there are few of the public hospitals that are used for dumping grounds for old robotoids. This would be a very rare situation when these old robotoids are better dumped in military hospitals or laboratories, even where the robotoids were originally created.

This Awareness indicates if the questions were not answered, that any particular question be repeated.

QUESTION:

Are these institutions used to silence and discredit as insane these entities who psychically become aware of the presence and activity of Dark Force aliens?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Ezra Pound Classed as Insane For Political Purposes

This would be one approach for such entities. It also becomes an approach for dealing with other types of entities such as the entity Ezra Pound. This Awareness indicates that this entity as being more of a political nuisance to certain government agencies and the entity was therefore classed as insane and locked away.

This Awareness indicates that it is quite common for psychiatry to be used to silence people who are considered a nuisance or potential threat to certain political agendas or standards of behavior so that a person who is creating problems for society can easily be put into a mental institution when the entity is not really breaking any laws, but when his message is seen as disruptive to the powers that control situations in society.

QUESTION:

"Are drugs administered to entities for the purpose of causing brain damage and especially to deaden spiritual awareness and psychic perception?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so in some cases. This Awareness indicates there is also some experimental research on some mental handicapped people and also on people who are more or less political prisoners in mental institutes. These drugs being administered to experiment with certain types of psychological behavior to see what effect the drugs have on individuals.

This Awareness indicates there is very little real regulation of any ethical standards in these hospitals. It is more a matter of whether the doctor is ethical or is working for some unethical agency or for some project being researched, and many of the handicapped people in these institutions are treated as guinea pigs.

VACCINATIONS: DO YOU REALLY WANT THEM? OR NEED THEM?

Creating a Docile Populace and More on the Evils of AZT

Question:

JD of New York, sent a broadside put out by the American Health Services in Canton, Michigan. It's one of these brochures in another area of the "Did You Know?" series, which as a general rule are pretty good. I'm going to read a little of this on it, and then read her questions:

"Did you know that vaccines and "health-care" are fiendish frauds against all of us? Did you know that vaccines have absolutely nothing to do with the diseases for which they are supposedly administered? Did you know that immunity is a carefully cultivated myth as proven further along? Did you know that vaccines are diabolical designs and made as highly toxic brain-deadening "soups" by a fiendish covert international ruling clique of about 300 super-rich through their pharmaceutical companies?"

"Did you know that their objective is to start a New World Order? A one world dictatorship that is already well along, through our puppet Federal and state governments which the super rich totally control? Did you know that the true purpose of vaccinations are to make mediocre brain-impaired and mind-altered babies?, babies that will grow into adults that will be so mind-controlled as to be obedient, unquestioning and servile peons of the New World Order, which is slated to be almost completely in place by the year 2,000?"

"Did you know that universal health care with its "health security card" and vaccination tracking of babies is an insidious implementation of the monstrous conspiracy to enslave us all? That the health security card is really a people control measure?"

The thing goes on and on and they offer these brochures to the public at wholesale, if they want to distribute them. Now, JD's statement is: "Is it true that vaccinations, DPT in particular, are primarily intended to produce a docile populace and that the children of the ruling class do not take them? Do vaccines like DPT actually contain substances which undermine, rather than support health?"

And another question: "Are AZT, DDI and DDC actually more harmful than beneficial to the HIV Plus patients?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates in a general sense, the above questions all are answered in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that in some rare instances, there can be some different response. The AZT can be beneficial for a short period of time in the AIDS treatment, during the early stages, but its accumulative effect is more harmful than beneficial.

This Awareness indicates that the entities would be better off taking nothing than relying strictly on the AZT treatments. This Awareness indicates that there also have been many serious and quick response effects from some of the vaccinations wherein many people are apprehensive and in some cases, even the doctors do not wish to administer some of these vaccines when they recognize the parent is aware of the dangers and will cooperate in not giving some of the vaccines, even though they are supposedly required of children, that they be vaccinated in this manner.

Question the Intent of "Compulsory" Vaccinations

This Awareness indicates that when any program begins making a vaccination compulsory, you must question its real intent. This Awareness indicates that most of these compulsory vaccines are required if your child is to attend public school. This Awareness indicates in some states entities can choose the alternative and do home schooling, teaching their child at home rather than sending the child to public school, if they so choose, and in many cases this is occurring with parents who do not want their children being vaccinated.

FOLLOW-UP STATEMENT (AVATON):

There's a special notice about that in this brochure, which says: "You can lawfully avoid having your child vaccinated, even if the state statute is mandatory and allows no exemption whatsoever. What is unconstitutional is null and void from the moment of the legislative passage. There is the United States Supreme Court decision stating that vaccination must be totally voluntary after informed consent has been contained and that compulsory vaccinations are unlawful. For ten dollars we'll send you forms and procedural guidelines for invoking your inalienable rights to be free of unlawful imposition."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that this information be provided to your membership and readers to allow them to have the freedom of choice and the information necessary for their free choice. *

*Ed's Note: In 1994 we did pass this info along to the membership but the address given at that time may no longer be valid. It was: American Health Services, 42015 Ford Road, #107. Canton, Michigan 48187.

WHAT ABOUT FLU SHOTS?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

Since we started getting flu vaccination shots every year, we haven't gotten the flu, but we've heard scary things, even about that shot. Is that safe?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that it has been safe for the past several years; that it is conditioning people to accept this. That there can come a time when it will be misused and entities being conditioned to receive the flu shot may find it not to their interest at some date.

This Awareness indicates the negative effect of any such vaccination is that the system is not developing a good natural immune system (this is in reference to the body); that having flu's and fighting off the flu will strengthen your immune systems considerably.

This Awareness indicates however, there are some strains of flu that are very dangerous for some entities, especially those who do not have strong immune systems or have some other problem that the flu could cause to worsen. This Awareness indicates that there is no way to be absolutely sure that the future flu shots will not be tampered with in a way that is not adverse to individuals.

The swine flu shots for example were not of benefit to entities. Most of those entities who accepted the swine flu shot were already elderly. It is difficult to know clearly or to show clearly that the swine flu shot did cause problems for these entities because the entities were old enough that they would develop problems anyway and entities could simply assume that any problems that developed were caused by their normal aging process or weakened immune system.

These Same Forces Are Promoting the New World Order

This Awareness indicates however, that even though the flu shots that have been given in the past several years have been relatively clear of any further pollutants or other substances, it is healthy for entities to be suspicious and paranoid of anything given by your government or promoted by the medical system which is controlled by the same forces that are promoting the New World Order.

This Awareness indicates that these pharmaceutical companies are generally controlled by the same people who control the monetary system of the world, who control the insurance companies, who control the political parties throughout most of the world through their funding programs and their various agencies, and therefore, to receive anything from them in terms of a shot or anything that is passed from them to yourself which could affect your health or mentality is a risky action.

This Awareness indicates that it is getting more risky by the year. This Awareness indicates however, it does not appear that one can ever be totally safe. Even if one avoids all shots, vaccines, there is still the food and water and other substances that are sold to entities which become part of the environment for entities. It is even possible for the television sets to become units that could send out rays or waves that would hinder an entity's health more than normally expected from such instruments.

This Awareness indicates that as time goes on these entities will do more and more to eliminate large portions of the population to bring the rest of the population under control and to make them submissive. This Awareness indicates that It is not trying to create depression or cause entities to feel hopeless; that things do not look good as far as what your leaders are planning for your future, and this Awareness suggests that as long as possible and as much as is reasonably possible, you should hold out against anything that your government offers to you for your own good.

"Beware of Greeks Bearing gifts!"

It is likened unto the Greeks bearing gifts in the old saying, for these gifts may be to subvert, rather than to help. This Awareness indicates that this reference does not in any way mean that Greeks per se cannot be trusted, It is simply referring to an old common phrase that came from the Grecian history, in which Greeks brought a wooden horse to the Trojans as a gift and the gift turned out to be filled with soldiers who attacked as the victims partied and became drunk. It then led to a common statement saying "Beware of Greeks bearing gifts."

This Awareness indicates that this can be applied to your government; that anything your government offers you as a kind of gift or for your protection should be viewed with some suspicion and questions. Even if perhaps you do decide to accept, you should be most cautious and not accept blindly.

ED's Note: At the time of this reading our naturopathic doctor, Dr. George Shahbaz was giving flu shots to his patients but a few years later he stopped doing this as he noticed many of his patients were having definite health problems as a result. Today he provides immunity from the flu with naturopathic pills which you take for 10 days and which cost $10. Vikki and I never get the flu as a result. For more information on this and the services offered to CAC members by Dr. Shahbaz, please refer to the CAC website (www.CosmicAwareness.org) or contact Vikki T.

HAS ENGLAND INVADED AMERICA?

(The Influence of Rothschild Money)

Question:

Harriette Shaw, in Syracuse, NY, asks: "Is England taking over her colonies? It sure looks like we are being invaded by English movies, ads, hosts, actors, et cetera, et cetera. What gives?", she asks.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity Rothschild has the most wealth of anyone in the world, having gotten most of his wealth from the use of the Federal Reserve Bank and from other activities such as promotion of drug running and the taxation of countries, wherein the entity more or less is a representative of England even though officially England is a separate nation from the area owned by Rothschild, but because of his strong influence in world affairs it allows England to have powerful interest in many different countries and some of these interests are well-financed by Rothschild money.

British Petroleum for example, as being a Rothschild project or commodity. This Awareness indicates that there are many influences from England in terms of the arts, in terms of medicine. The American Bar Association is really an extension of the British Bar Association, and thus, the laws used in the United States and promoted by lawyers are British laws.

This Awareness indicates that the influence is extremely strong. Most of the wealth in the United States is tied up in Federal Reserve Notes, and Federal Reserve Notes are Rothschild notes and therefore, this may be classed as an English economy using Federal Reserve Notes for money.

This Awareness indicates that England also, along with other countries, is buying up much of the real estate here in the United States. This Awareness indicates that the English actually own far more real estate than do the Japanese and these two countries are buying real estate at an ever-increasing rate so that much of the real estate in this country is now owned by foreigners: a large percent of the country is owned by England and by Japan especially.

There are some areas owned by other countries but not to the degree of these two and especially, of England. This Awareness indicates that your suspicions in this sense are correct; that something is happening and the British are taking over the United States.

THE SUBLIMINAL ASPECTS OF TELEVISION

QUESTION:

A question from Yves Martin, San Mateo, California. He writes: "I would like to ask whether Cosmic Awareness, as already explained in detail, what form of control over the masses is currently being exercised through television, in what form and by whom and since when. Barbara Marciniak has often indicated in her channelings of the Pleiadians that people should watch TV only on occasion, and in any case, unplug their sets when not in use, for each antenna on the roof of each home transmits subliminals to the TV receptors whether your set is on or off.

"The only way to completely cut off this kind of transmission is to unplug the darn thing. The idea was reinforced by John Carpenter's movie They Live, a very revealing sci-fi video -tape I recently rented, which you no doubt already knew about."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

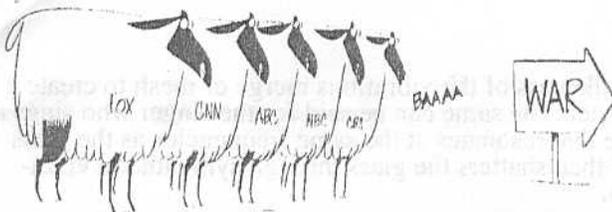

This Awareness indicates that the subliminal aspects of television has been overplayed; that there are uses of subliminal television transmissions, but that these are mostly targeted toward certain individuals who have been trained to pick up on those messages. This Awareness indicates that there are ways by which subliminal messages can be inserted within filmed broadcasts which most entities would totally miss, but which some entities who have been trained and who are deliberately watching the particular film for messages would receive, those subliminal messages.

This Awareness indicates that if there were a desire to broadcast subliminal messages through frequencies alone, these messages could be broadcast from towers or radio stations in the vicinity in a manner that does not need to be broadcast to the ears, but to broadcast by microwave activity. This Awareness indicates that there is actually very little value in trying to broadcast subliminal messages to the masses. It has had some experimentation and effect in the use of commerce to get people to buy certain things, but the complexities of using the subliminal messages to influence political agendas is not as easily done through broadcasts because the political agendas are not easily packaged into one or two words, as are many of the commercialized subliminal messages.

"Vote Bush"—A Possible Subliminal on TV

It is one thing to flash popcorn on the screen in a subliminal message and to have the words "Eat popcorn" appear. It would be quite another thing to have a more elaborate political message flashed on the screen. This Awareness indicates that of course there is the possibility of a very brief message, such as "Vote Bush" or "Vote Reagan". This Awareness indicates however, this is not seen as having been used, and there are those who monitor these broadcasts on television for subliminal messages that would be illegal and it would be quite risky for entities to use subliminal efforts in this manner.

This Awareness indicates that in the idea of having entities not only turn off their television set, but to unplug the television set in order to escape subliminal messages, this is also seen as unproductive or illogical because the very act of breaking the circuit by unhooking the television set is no different from turning off the television set at its switch for the switch too breaks the circuit, stops the flow of electricity into the set. It may be a smaller gap than that of unhooking the television set, but even the current cannot flow through the gap, created by turning off the switch.

This Awareness indicates that insofar as the message coming through the antenna to the television set as a concern, it would not do any good to unplug the set, because the antenna is not being unplugged. The antenna is still intact. This Awareness indicates that the cable connection to the television set or the antenna, remaining intact with the television set, is in no way effected by unplugging the television set anymore than by turning off the television set at its switch.

Networks Controlled by Council On Foreign Relations

This Awareness indicates that the greater effect of television in influencing entities is in the programming itself, and the fact that many of the networks are controlled by and influenced by the agenda laid out from the Council On Foreign Relations. The news media is generally conditioned or influenced to follow the agenda that is set by the Council On Foreign Relations and when stories are aired over television that counter this agenda, the news broadcasters for example may be highly reprimanded and forced to "Get back in line or lose your job!"

This Awareness indicates that in other words, there is a kind of party propaganda that sets guidelines for the networks to follow so that no one truly has free speech except within the limits set by those of the Council On Foreign Relations who have control. This Awareness indicates that this goes back to the decade of the 50's, wherein this control became developed and established. This was with the formation of the Council On Foreign Relations and the Bilderbergers and later the Trilateralists which are also a kind of evolvement out of the Council On Foreign Relations and MJ 12.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

Do aliens use the TV or the TV satellites in any manner to contact or control entities?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there have been some rare cases of alien influence over television; a case in the British Isles some years ago was witnessed and there were those who claimed the alien actually disrupted programming and came on and made a brief speech; that this kind of thing is extremely rare. It is possible for aliens to do so; that it is also possible for them to use subliminal imagery in such a way that entities would not likely consciously recognizes their presence on television in the subliminal state or expressions.

This Awareness indicates however, that this is not given a high priority by the aliens. They could use this as a form of mass-communication on subconscious levels but this has not been exercised as of this time by aliens. This does not mean it could not happen in the future.

CAN POWER LINES TRANSMIT SUBLIMINALS?

QUESTION:

A second question from Eves Martin along the same line. He writes: "In addition to the TV sets, can the regular power lines be used to transmits subliminals carried, let us say, by Scalar waves beamed at the source, a generator for example? That would be a fantastic and powerful way to warp people's minds and wills and consciousness. Since the US government has had intercourse with alien technology for over 40 years, no doubt that gadgets have changed hands, especially the kind that allows a better control of the individuals and masses. Would the same...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there are ways such as this to manipulate frequencies and vibrations to have an influence on individuals in terms of their moods, emotions and thought patterns, but not in terms of thoughts themselves. They cannot transfer thoughts to entities simply by vibration alone without these vibrations being translated into words, and the words being broadcast in a subliminal manner.

This Awareness indicates that it is possible to broadcast words in a subliminal manner, much as is done on tapes, subliminal tapes such as those used in weight loss programs or self-help programs. These could be broadcast over the radio or television without entities even knowing they were being broadcast while other music or other sounds or other speech overshadowed or over-rode these subliminal messages. It is much like putting on a subliminal tape and then playing a radio at the same time. This could be done.

This Awareness indicates there are certain laws against this. The FCC does not allow this, and it does not appear that this is a common practice. It appears that such would be extremely rare though it is a possibility. This Awareness indicates that to use telephone lines or electric power lines in the vicinity of an entity to convey subliminal messages would be extremely difficult. The messages would need to be translated into words, and from words, would need to be broadcast so that they could be picked up subconsciously.

This Awareness indicates that if it is a question of agitating a person by sending frequencies that disrupt the entity's energies and cause agitation or harmony or peace or some mood, this could be effected by using certain vibratory or frequency emissions, but it would be easier to do so using the microwaves and radio waves than using electric power lines to do so.

This Awareness suggests there is very little reason to be concerned about subliminal messages when there are so many suggestions being given aloud that can have more persuasive influence. This Awareness suggests that just because something is subliminal does not mean that you will automatically accept it and act on it, for there are many kinds of messages bombarding an entity every second and the entity has always had this occurring and it does not mean that every subliminal message is going to make the entity react, because the entity would then be reacting at all times in ways that are disjointed and disconnected and inconsistent, since there are so many inconsistent messages hitting an entity at all times.

Passing a Headache to Another Person

This Awareness indicates for example, an entity within the sphere of your aura, being in a negative mood can have an effect on you, even if you do not speak with the entity. An entity in a room next to you with a strong headache may pass that headache to you without your realizing where it is coming from. If you are ever in a crowded room, you might ask entities: "Does anyone here have a headache?" Generally, you will find that several entities have a headache and they are all in the same area, and you may find that one of the entities had the headache when they came into the room, and the others got the headache afterwards. It is a kind of contact headache that most of them picked up from the one who carried the headache in.

Sympathetic Vibrations: Passing On Negative Moods

Likewise, this can occur where entities who are in a negative mood can pass that negative mood to others. This is related to sympathetic vibration. Those who are attuned in frequency to another, and the attunement may come about by entities being aware of someone close to them; When you become sympathetic or empathetic towards someone close to you, just being attentive to someone close to you, even if it is a total stranger, tends to effect you in that you attune to that entity's vibrations.

You can look at a person and with considerable attention, and you will automatically pick up that entity's vibration to some degree. If the entity is carrying negativity, headache or joy, or whatever emotion or mood, that mood also accompanies any vibrations you pick up when observing the entity. This Awareness suggests you not worry about subliminal messages coming from telephone lines; that it is too insignificant to be a problem, when there are so many other more practical and basic and realistic concerns to deal with.

This Awareness indicates also that you not spend too much time worrying about the government influencing your mind; that most entities need to concern themselves with controlling their own mind in a way that keeps it healthy, for they themselves tend to allow the mind to wander into realms that are dangerous or they allow people within their own circle of friends and relatives to affect their mind in ways that are far more dangerous than anything the government is likely to do.

This Awareness indicates that your own mate or your own family members can affect your mind to make you behave in a negative way which can be more damaging than anything the government might do through subliminal efforts, if the government was even interested in doing such thing. In actuality, the government is not relying on subliminal control when it can do so much more with the manipulation of images and words and concepts on television and in newspapers to control the masses sufficiently to have a majority behind them.

The government does not need everyone to be in agreement. They only need enough to have a majority backing whatever agenda is being promoted.

PICKING UP ON A BROKEN WRIST (An Example of How Sympathetic Vibration Works)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

I have a question about this sympathetic vibration Awareness mentioned. Some years back, my then wife Jean and I were having coffee before I went to work, I believe it was, when she suddenly leaped up and grabbed her left wrist and started shaking it, and announcing that there was terrible pain in it, and she couldn't understand what it was, but it was definitely sharp and it hurt, and a few seconds later the phone rings and it's the school where our little daughter Katherine was attending, and they told her that Katherine had just fallen out of a swing and it later proved that she had broken her left wrist at that moment.

Now I always thought that this was a psychic thing as Jean has a very strong psychic ability. My question: Is psychic ability and sympathetic vibration essentially the same?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates sympathetic vibration is an attunement of one vibration to another in a way that allows for a correspondence. It is likened unto the radio attuning to a particular broadcasting station and as the signals begin to come into alignment, the sympathy or the likeness of the vibrations merge or mesh to create a contact. The same can be said for the singer who sings a note that resonates at the same frequencies as the glass and then shatters the glass through sympathetic vibration.

The Key to Understanding Psychic Communication

This Awareness indicates that this is the key to understanding psychic communication. The psychic communication is little more than vibration being sent over a distance by the mind at a frequency that attunes to the frequency of the recipient of the message that may be carried in those vibrations. Thus, the entity, in your case, Katherine, already being very much attuned to her mother in, terms of frequency and vibration, breaks her arm, and as most young children, being conditioned to call for "Mother!" when there is a serious problem of this type, no doubt flashed on wanting her mother or looking for the comfort offered by her mother, sent a vibration on the same frequency level as her mother, and the mother picked it up and felt the pain in her own arm, without knowing what it was.

This Awareness indicates that this essentially is the principle behind such broadcasts known as psychic attunement. This Awareness indicates that a nurse in working with a sick person must in time learn not to sympathize with the person, but to empathize. Empathizing allows the entity to care but not to sympathize to the point of attuning to the entity's illness. You can care for a broken leg without experiencing the broken leg yourself. You can help to heal a pain without trying to share the pain.

When you attempt to share in the suffering with another, you are sympathizing with them. You are tuning in to the same frequency as the pain, and this allows you to take on the entity's karma, or take on some of the pain of the entity. This Awareness indicates that it does not necessarily alleviate the pain; it just spreads it around so that two of you experience it instead of one.

Sharing the Pain of the Delivery Room

The husband who awaits outside the delivery room while the wife is having the baby may suffer sympathetic pain in behalf of the wife. It is because he is sharing in the frequency/vibrations that the wife is experiencing in her delivery of the child. This Awareness indicates this does not relieve her of the experience, but it allows him to suffer with her through the experience so that he too has insight into the pain which she endures. Thus, the pain can be spread around without necessarily diminishing the pain of the one who originally carries it.

This Awareness indicates this is the nature of sympathy, attuning to the vibrations of those who are experiencing pain, is an act of sympathy, but an act of empathy allows you to understand in a mental sense the suffering the entity is enduring, and to take action because you have compassion, to take action that would help to remedy the pain the entity is suffering. If you suffer the pain with them you may become ineffective or may even come down with a similar pain to the point where you cannot function accurately, especially in cases of psychological pain when an entity is suffering a psychological problem. If you become sympathetic and suffer the psychological problem with them you too may have the same psychological problem, and then two of you are sick.

Understanding Empathy and Sympathy

You do not heal the entity through sympathy, but with empathy you can understand the frustration and have compassion for the entity and you can wish to do something to alleviate the entity's suffering and therefore, you are motivated to help. This Awareness indicates that it is important to understand the difference between empathy and sympathy. In terms of vibration and sympathy, sympathy or sympathetic vibration allows entities to attune to each other in a kind of emotional level so that even when at great distances, the entity can be with you emotionally. You can feel the entity's presence. You can feel the entity's suffering. You can feel the entity's vibration, and from that level you can convey messages, sending a message to an entity while experiencing their frequency or vibration within yourself.

This is basically the way entities can contact each other psychically. This Awareness indicates it is also important to recognize that such contacts can be misused, for you can contact an entity with a psychic message to control them, to try to get them to do your bidding or to try to influence them to your way or to your will, and this is a violation. This Awareness indicates that it is important that you not use this kind of sympathetic vibration or psychic contacting to manipulate others, for it will surely backfire on you and cause you to alienate yourself from the entity, for the entity is also able to read your intention and motives, and to know exactly what you are doing when you are doing this kind of thing.

If you break down the walls of privacy and have no respect for that entity's privacy in contacting them and attempt to manipulate them, you must realize that that entity is able to read you as well as you are able to read the entity, and therefore, can see your motives, your manipulative attempts. As long as your contact with such an entity is without attempt to manipulate, the contact is pure and innocent and will be received as such. If you wish to convey a message at that time, you may do so, and the entity will receive that message.

WHEN ALIENS VIOLATE ENTITIES: WHERE'S THE LAW OF KARMA?

QUESTION:

Another question by Yves Martin. Awareness has gone into this somewhat. It may be redundant, but I'll ask it. "My third question is, how come these supposedly intelligent and evolved creatures (he's referring to the aliens) do not seem to take the Law of Karma into account when performing devious and hurtful acts towards humans that are totally without love. Why is it that those geniuses act as though life was going to make an exception for them and not return back into their very own lives what they have given out? It seems to me that it's rather the kindergarten level; the ABC of a dawning awareness. It's moronically simple and readily available in physics in the form of the Pythagorean's theorem or Sir Isaac Newton's Third Law: 'For every action there must be an equal and opposite reaction'."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates these entities have not thought through the spiritual aspects of science. They see only the physical realities that their senses give them. They are much like some of your own earth scientists who do not believe that thoughts and consciousness have a reality of their own, but think that everything came out of matter and that in dealing with reality, matter is what matters.

Orion Aliens Created Religions to Control Entities

This Awareness indicates that these entities have for so long been devoid of spiritual understanding and have lacked any teaching of a spiritual nature. They do not give much credence to it, or even much thought to it. They essentially believe that they manufactured religion, created religion for humans in order to control the human civilization through religions. They see this as part of the programming that they imposed on humans. This Awareness indicates this particularly in regard to those of Orion rather than the Zeta Reticuli. The Orion Empire as having the belief that it created the religions under which humans live as a means of controlling human civilization through the priesthood and through suggestions and conditions and conditioning of the masses via religious and certain philosophical and moral teachings.

This Awareness indicates that they give themselves credit for more than they actually deserve in regard to this, but because they used religion and morality teachings to manipulate humanity they do not put much merit in those things themselves.

This Awareness suggests that you may research this to some degree through the book The Gods of Eden.

DO ALIENS OVERRIDE THE LAW OF CAUSE AND EFFECT?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

Awareness, I always understood that the Law of Karma was an immutable law of Divine Justice in the universe. The fact that these aliens never think about such things or have evolved to that point, does this mean that there is no reaction when they violate entities and so on. In other words, is there no cause and effect working there, and they have overridden that law?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is an effect in any action, and if they ignore that reality, they still cannot escape the fact of the reality, and if they ignore that reality, there is an effect on their ignorance also. This Awareness indicates you cannot wipe out the Law of Cause and Effect simply by being Ignorant of it, and essentially, the Law of Karma is the Law of Cause and Effect.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

Is it possible a violation to humans by these aliens could be balanced out somewhere in the future where these entities either evolve to the point or find themselves in a human body for example, and they themselves are abducted by aliens at that time and violated? Is this possible, and wouldn't such a thing balance out the karma previously created?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as an eye for an eye concept. This Awareness indicates that this is a possibility. This Awareness indicates that it is not necessarily the way things will go. This Awareness indicates that it is not always that simple, that the Law of Karma is not always extracted in the form of an eye for an eye. It may be that an eye is lost and the perpetrator suffers from something other than losing his or her eye also.

This Awareness indicates that if this were the case, that you experience the exact same result that mirrors the cause; if this were the case, entities would still be crucifying each other on crosses, and the action, once set in motion would keep reflecting identically upon the one who causes the actions. It is not that way. The reflections are not always exactly the same, but the suffering of an effect from a cause will invariably be just from the point of view of the cause.

This Awareness indicates that this of course may be modified by the element of grace which has greater power than karma.

KARMA AND SYMPATHETIC VIBRATION

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that the concept of karma also has some relation to the Law of Sympathetic Vibration for when an action is taken that has an effect on something, there is a vibration that results from that action, and that vibration goes out and may be picked up by the perpetrator of the action and carried within the vibration of the perpetrator, to be emitted at a later time so that with the knowledge imbedded in that vibration held, it eventually is released and causes the carrier to re-experience in one way or another the vibrations that were caused in the first instance, and these may result in a re-experiencing or a karmic reaction from the first action.

This Awareness indicates that vibrations from the cause carry into the effect. Vibrations from an act carry over into the response to that act, even if it must pass through lifetimes before being expressed. This Awareness reminds you that all things are vibration; that karma is a result of vibrations being modulated and that grace can be found when remorse is added to the equation, allowing the grace to overcome the vibrations of karma.

Thank you. (The Law-of Gratitude is given)

The Wisdom of Awareness: On the Book of Revelation --

"Much of the unfoldment and the prophecy in the Book of Revelation, being allegorical and symbolic, shall not come about in a literal sense. However, some of this shall be seen to some degree as coming about. This Awareness wishes entities to watch carefully the money-changing system, which is the heart of the Beast. (Issue 77-8)

SOMEWHERE IN AN IRAQI HOSPITAL...

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

The Laws of Cosmic Awareness...

THE LAW OF PROSPERITY

The Law of Prosperity states that one prospers in direct proportion to the enjoyment one receives in seeing the prosperity of oneself and others. And that one's prosperity is denied in direct proportion to one's own feeling of guilt for being prosperous, or at the envy and hostility one feels on witnessing other's prosperity.

This Law states that that when one prospers all may prosper. The Law of Prosperity works for those who hold images, feelings, actions, dialogues, and attitudes associated with beauty, joy, love and prosperity, and works against those who hold images, feelings, actions, dialogues and attitudes associated with ugliness, self-pity, complaints, envy and hostility toward oneself or any other person, group, race or class.

Those who think, feel, act and speak of themselves as being poor and needy must spend three times the energy for the same prosperity received by those who think, feel, act and speak of themselves as being wealthy and prosperous. An attitude that dwells in depression leads the way to physical, spiritual, mental, social and financial depression. Those who maintain prosperous attitudes, even in states of poverty, are foreign to such states and will not be allowed to remain out of place in those poverty situations, but will instead be deported to those prosperous states where such prosperous attitudes belong.

Wisdom of Awareness...

IS AWARENESS A RELIGION?

This Awareness indicates that the Old Testament was written for the age of Aries, the New Testament written for the age of Pisces, that now there is time for a new writing and a new form of understanding to occur; that the old ways are based on form, the new ways are based on understanding and realization, wherein each entity can have the opportunity to become One with God, can become One with the Father, with the Mother, with the Son.

This Awareness indicates that this Awareness brings forth not only a psychology, but a sociology and a way of looking at history, at the mystery of life and does also bring forth deeper understanding of self and of consciousness. This Awareness suggests that this may be called religion, may be called cosmic science, may be called by any name; that the categorization is not necessary, but if you wish to put this Awareness and the messages into a category, that is your own choice.

Spiritual Advisor Tells Her Husband to Open Up His Sexuality to Gain Spirituality

(Will Trading An Affair For An Affair Bring Balance?)

QUESTION:

A question from Layne P. in Costa Rica, who always has interesting stories and interesting questions. It's rather long, and the questions are at the end, so, I'll read her statement.

"I want to explain a weird thing that happened to me because I have a few questions I would like to ask Awareness. If you do not feel it applies to enough people or the questions are not of enough interest, I will understand.

The story began in October of 1988 when my husband and I were considering a separation. We had heard about a spiritual counselor/teacher who lived up the hill from us. We went to see her, individually and together. We immediately liked her and she convinced us that she was very spiritual and knowledgeable. We attended spiritual gatherings at which she lectured about dreams, astrology, meditation, and the road to enlightenment. In exchange for counseling, I edited various papers she had written which she planned to later publish. Her spiritual information was excellent, but I was amazed at how poorly she wrote: everything was jumbled and poorly organized. My husband began working on her car in exchange for counseling.

After a month or two, I began to suspect that some of her advice was not so spiritual or wise. At first she was so great, but then didn't seem so great. I had a dream that I was trying to convince everyone close to me that this woman was lying to us. I told this so-called spiritual woman about my dream and she looked concerned and uncomfortable. Soon after, she informed my husband that she could do spiritual wonders for him in private spiritual counseling. My husband began the private sessions, and soon after he became very hostile toward me, and we began to lose ability to communicate. I did not like what the counselor was telling him, but I blamed myself for my husband's hostility toward me. The summer previous I had had an affair because I thought our marriage was over and I didn't think my husband really loved me. Then I realized how wrong I was and I wanted to stay with my marriage and try to make up for my mistake. That was why we went to her for counseling. We wanted to know how to improve our marriage.

In a past life regression she gave me I was a Viking woman married to my present-day husband. When I cheated on him in that life he pushed me off a cliff and I died. Anyway, the hostility continued and increased.

By December it was serious. My sister was here visiting. She is very psychic and is friends with a woman who channels an entity named Bartholomew. While my sister was here she saw this so-called spiritual woman to make her own evaluation. After a spiritual gathering, she commented that the woman seemed knowledgeable. After a personal counseling session, my sister stated that she was impressed and believed the woman was spiritual. I began trying to convince my sister that this woman couldn't be all that spiritual because she had told my husband that an affair should be traded for an affair in order to recreate balance. She also told him he should leave me if he had hostility or doubts. She also told him that if he opened up his sexuality he would open up his spirituality. The recommendations seemed absurd to me, but by this time she had won my husband's trust and he believed that she was his key to his spirituality.

My sister listened to my complaints throughout the two weeks she was here. My husband moved out of our house, at the counselor's recommendation. She wanted him to join her "spiritual ashram" and live up there with her. (It sounds like sexual involvement, but there wasn't.) My husband said he was leaving to try to figure out what he should do with his family. My sister mediated our discussion, and our conclusion was that he should live at the so-called ashram for one week and decide what his true mission in life was... that ashram or his family.

During that week, I was feeling frantic and it seemed as though a haze was clouding my vision and mind. My sister was edgy, began having nightmares and was sleeping poorly. She attributed that to her emotional involvement with my dilemma. Suddenly, the fifth day, my sister jumped out of bed and said, "I am being psychically attacked. I know it. This is not right. That woman up the hill is attacking me. I just know it." My sister related that the woman had advised her to smoke a little pot before her meditation. She began to piece the week together and all the things I had told her. She told me to stay away from my husband until she found out what was really happening. That day she flew back to the U.S. and contacted her friend who channeled the spiritual entity named Bartholomew. In the reading we were informed that the woman was practicing witchcraft on us. The reading stated that the woman was using my husband's kundalini energy and her goal was to turn awakening spiritual beings, through trickery, to the dark forces. She had summoned underworld entities to help her and was quite powerful.

My sister told me about various rituals to perform in the house: sprinkling salt, lighting candles, making affirmations, calling upon St. Michael, using White Light, etc. I was told the children were in danger, too. It was a scary few days. I consulted with my Christian Science friend, who was a great help. I had some nightmares about the woman, which seemed to be more real experiences than nightmares.

After two days of my rituals, prayers, and counseling with my Christian Science friend, my husband came home and told me about the numerous problems he found living in the so-called ashram. He found the woman was not so spiritual and she had strange things happening at the so-called ashram. He knew that was not the life for him. As time went by, I told him about the spiritual reading I had obtained on the woman, and he has gradually begun to admit that witchcraft was a possibility. (I have not mentioned the woman's name because I have been told never to say her name because a name has power.)

I am leaving out details because this letter would take too long. I am trying to give the general gist of the story so you might understand the questions I have. My questions are:

Why is it that I must perform a ritual to protect myself from dark forces? Christian Science and Sant Mat teaches that a person following God's will is automatically protected from evil forces. The only time an evil force can affect a person is when a person believes that evil force can have power over his/her life. In reality, there is only one Power. No other power can affect your life. Was it truly necessary for me to perform the rituals, or was I automatically protected by the Light because of my faith?

Question 2: Are affairs ever arranged prior to coming to Earth? Or are they always an act of selfish inconsiderate behavior?

I am still curious as to whether this woman up the hill was truly practicing witchcraft, or was I only going through karmic necessities of my husband's rejection. I wonder if a dark force can only have power over someone who karmically deserves the attack.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the protection was there if you were capable of accepting the reality of the protection. But wherein you were convinced either through your own experiences or through the urging of another that you were in great danger, the doubt itself is that which would create the opening of energies that could be of detriment to you. Therefore, in order to erase the doubt and to give yourself the faith in your own protection through the higher spiritual beings, it became necessary that you perform certain rituals.

This Awareness indicates these rituals are not necessary except in the effect it has on your own psyche, and in helping you to accept the belief in your own faith in the protection of your path.

This Awareness indicates the Christian Science and Sant Mat teachings are correct in that one does not need to take protection for oneself against Dark Forces unless one gives power to those Dark Forces, in which the protection then, is more for the psyche of the individual to throw off the fear of the Dark Force and to restore the faith and belief in the Light Forces.

This Awareness suggests the next question may be asked.

Are Affairs Arranged Prior to Coming to Earth?

QUESTION:

She asked: "Are affairs ever arranged prior to coming to earth, or are they always an act of selfish, inconsiderate behavior?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that affairs such as that which occurred for you are not normally arranged prior to entry upon the earth plane, although they can be influenced from past-life experiences in which you run into a person who was at some point in a previous lifetime a mate or other close associate, and in meeting such previous lifetime mate, you may have a strong attraction to that entity, and if your moral code is not so strong as to forbid you from having a disloyalty to your partner, and an attraction toward someone else, one could yield to that temptation.

Most Affairs Are Not Fated to Occur

This Awareness indicates it is not so much that these things are fated to occur, rather it is a question of whether one's own value system is such as to allow affairs to occur, or what kind of situation affecting one's value system would influence the entity so much as to bring about an affair.

This Awareness indicates loyalty is a form of bondage, but loyalty is a willing bondage. You are loyal to someone willingly, and you are bound to that entity, but if, in your loyalty to an entity, you find that the entity in some way is breaking the bonds or trust that you put in the entity, your loyalty to that entity may suffer. This breaking of the bonds and trust may be an illusion on your part, or may come about through an actual violation on the part of your mate, but the effect is the same, in that the loyalty is damaged.

Thus, when your loyalty to your mate is damaged, you are more vulnerable and open to the possibility of an affair with someone who seems to be more caring and trustworthy, or you may be searching, for your own personal needs, for someone who you can trust in the way that you hoped to trust your mate.

This Awareness indicates that it is for this reason that entities often have affairs with other than those of their own mate, whereby they seek to find in someone else that which they hoped to find in their mate, but which they found lacking, and therefore they turn elsewhere.

This Awareness indicates it is not so much an excuse for having an affair, but it is, in part, the reason why entities can develop a broken commitment, or fail to develop a strong loyalty and strong commitment to a mate.

This Awareness indicates that in these times, many entities are unable to have strong loyalties and strong commitments, partly because in their own childhood, they did not have examples as parents. Their parents may have been divorced; their parents may have not respected each other; and therefore the child, in growing in such environment, might grow and enter into relationships with commitments that are half-real, much as they witnessed in their own childhood from the models that were given to them--their parents.

Movies and TV Make Having Affairs Romantic and Enticing

This Awareness indicates that likewise, television, the theater, books, novels -- all of these influences on an individual are commonly presenting entities who have broken commitments and double standards of loyalty, loyalty that means little or nothing, whereby the entities can switch from partner to partner without any apparent consequence. You do not see in the movies, in the booklets, in the stories, how much an entity can suffer from broken loyalties, for this is not part of the story. You only see the part of the story that the author wishes to present, and therefore entities get only part of the reality of broken commitments. And if the authors of these stories present these broken commitments in a way that make the affairs look romantic and intriguing, it can have a coloration for an entity to make the suggestion that affairs are all right; affairs can be beneficial.

This Awareness indicates that wherein an entity is influenced by problems with their mate and cannot find the proper solution to those problems, especially wherein they make the effort to find some solution, but the partner refuses to cooperate in seeking or in trying to find some reconciliation, an entity may in desperation, in weakness, turn to someone else for love or affection, which they failed to get from their mate.

This Awareness indicates this, again, can serve as an excuse for them to have an affair. It does not justify the action of an affair. It simply reflects their own personal weakness and inability to make a strong commitment.

This Awareness indicates that in some cases, they cannot make a strong commitment because they are not given a strong commitment in return. How can you be strongly committed to someone who does not commit to you?

This Awareness indicates that marriage in these times for many cultures and many individuals, is but an arrangement of convenience, and one which entities seek in order to find pleasure and convenient circumstances, so that they may benefit from the arrangement, and when the marriage requires of them some sacrifice, they ask the question: "Hey, do I really want to put myself out to make this work? I thought I was getting something more than I was required to give," and in so doing, they break their commitments.

This Awareness indicates that it is a matter of what entities value in terms of their commitments and loyalties to one another, to the family, to the marriage, to their own value system.

Awareness Doesn't Suggest Marriage Must Work At Any Cost

This Awareness suggests that entities who cannot hold strong dedication and commitments do not generally last well in relationships, and those who are doggedly determined to make things work, generally make things work, even if there are strong relationship conflicts that need to be resolved, for the entity will stay with the partner, putting forth efforts, patience, argument, or putting up with violations in order to make the thing work, so long as they feel the partner has some willingness to also make it work.

This Awareness indicates that It does not suggest that entities must make their marriages work. If an entity hasn't the strength to carry on, if an entity feels that the sacrifice is too much, if an entity cannot accept the violations that have been thrown at the entity from the relationship -- in other words, if the entity doesn't have the strength, then the entity may simply choose to dissolve the relationship.

This Awareness does not see the bondage of a relationship as being so sacred that entities should spend lifetimes suffering in order to preserve a bad relationship, which harms both parties or even harms children that come from such relationship.

This Awareness sees, however, that often the difficulties in a relationship require patience and effort, and in the work to make things better, harmony and improvements to the relationship can come about, and that often the dissolving of a relationship can be much more harmful than staying with difficulties and making the relationship work. It is a matter of personal tolerance and personal ability; and some entities can stick with it, while others cannot, depending on one's maturity and capacity to endure.

Entities Should Not be Ashamed For Breaking Up a Relationship

This Awareness indicates that It does not advocate that entities have any particular guilt in regard to their ability or inability to maintain a relationship. Whereby an entity attempts a relationship and finds himself or herself unable to continue, this Awareness does not suggest the entity should be ashamed for breaking off the relationship; nor does It suggest that entities should be ashamed for seeking another relationship in which he or she can find something of value.

The Lesson That Needs to be Learned in a Relationship

It does suggest, however, that if you are having problems with relationships, and you cannot make a relationship work, you should learn what you can about yourself in regard to your ability to tolerate, your ability to give, your ability to stand up for your rights, your ability to respect the other person properly, according to that other person's rights, your ability to be fair in your dealings with another person and with yourself. This is the lesson that needs to be learned in relationships. The action of feeling guilty or the action of feeling bound because of the commitment, or the action of feeling resentful because another party is incapable of complete commitment to you -- these are all things that test your own capacity to relate.

If Your Partner Has An Affair It's His Problem Not Yours

This Awareness indicates that if your partner has an affair, it is your partner's problem; it does not have to be your problem, unless you wish to make it your problem.

If your partner has an affair which is based upon your partner's perception of a poor relationship with you, or is based upon your partner's inability to have a commitment, a meaningful commitment with you, or your partner's desire to have it all, because your partner cannot simply accept you, but wants more, wants others, -- this is your partner's problem: but because that entity is your partner, you may wish to become involved and concerned, to the point wherein you accept part of this problem as your own, or to the point wherein you ask yourself, "Am I somehow the cause of my partner's disloyalty to me, or is this problem simply a problem of my partner's own psyche, in which he or she cannot be committed in a meaningful relationship, and if this is the case, am I capable of having a partner who is not capable of being totally committed to me?"

This Awareness indicates there are some entities who do not care, who are so strong within themselves that they do not care if their partner has other affairs. If this is the case, why should this Awareness care?

This Awareness indicates it is not so much that morality should dictate behavior, rather it is that individuals' needs should be observed and understood; and in the understanding, the weaknesses that individuals have should be examined and discerned carefully, so that these weaknesses can be overcome; so that entities can say, "Hey, I am not capable of real commitment. Is there something I can do about this problem? Is there some way I can truly become more committed to a deep and meaningful relationship with my partner, or is there something between myself and my partner that prevents such a deep and meaningful relationship; and if so, should I find someone with whom I can have that deep and meaningful relationship?"

Karma Is Involved With Every Sexual Encounter

This Awareness indicates that these are actually concepts and ideas that should be looked at before marriage. It is for this reason that in earlier times, entities would have a period of engagement prior to marriage, prior to coming together, prior to setting up a family, prior to having children. There would be that trial period of getting to know each other before the sexual actions created the karma which entities would then be involved in.

For at every sexual encounter between one entity and another, karma is involved. One cannot have sex with an individual without some degree of karma developing with that individual.

This Awareness indicates the nature of that karma will depend on the attitudes and nature of the individuals involved, and what they expect because of their sexual encounter.

This Awareness indicates that, for some, the karma may be light, may be almost meaningless. For others it can be deep and profound, even to the point of seeming like a lifetime commitment, wherein one party, for example, may feel that because of the sexual encounter, "I own this person," even though the other partner sees it as but a momentary, meaningless experience that can quickly be forgotten.

This Awareness indicates that in earlier times, entities did not jump into bed with each other before asking names, before examining values, before discussing plans, before learning each other's foibles and character trait. And in getting to know each other prior to bedding with each other, entities had greater opportunity for deeper commitments, or for realizing that they could not form a lasting commitment with this person.

Today People Shop For Mates Like Shopping for Clothing

The value systems of today have altered considerably, so that entities often shop for people in the same manner that they might shop for cars or clothing. "I'll try this on for size, and if it doesn't work out, I'll either bring it back or send it to recycling. I'll toss it out. I'll toss out my marriage if it doesn't work out. If you don't work out with me, I'll get someone else." The throw away society, in which entities learn to throw away everything, from paper plates to old clothes, old shoes, to old cars, old mates,--getting a new mate, a new car, a new job, a new house,--"something different to brighten up my life for this week, this month, this year, or for tonight."

This Awareness indicates the value systems today are, in part, creating a sense among individuals, a feeling of being lost and insecure in terms of deep, meaningful relationships.

This Awareness suggests that in the case of the questioner, in which this entity was advised an affair must be balanced by an affair for the other partner....This Awareness indicates that this is not so.

This Awareness indicates that if both parties feel that it is so, if both parties feel a kind of resentment involved in one party having had an affair, in some cases, both parties may feel that a balancing is necessary to remove the resentment, and if so, benefits can come; but it is not a rule, a spiritual rule. It is simply a matter of personal tolerance, personal choice, the ability of entities to accept each other, and whatever it takes for them to feel comfortable about reestablishing a firm and solid commitment to each other.

This Awareness indicates that for some entities, it would be enough to simply see an affair stopped and to reestablish relationships. For others, the entities might feel it is necessary for the one who didn't have an affair to then go out and have an affair, so that the violation can be balanced. The one entity who had the affair would no longer feel guilty. The other entity would no longer feel resentful and jealous, for he or she had also had an affair. These are simply means by which entities deal with their own weaknesses, their own incapacities to handle a firm, meaningful relationship with each other. These are not spiritual rules or karmic laws or formulas.

This Awareness indicates that entities, essentially, in their relationships with one another, must fly by the seat of their pants, in accordance with their own intuitive capacity, their own ability to relate, their own level of development and their own value systems. You cannot impose on entities a formula to enforce happy marriages or happy relationships for that formula which will work for one person or two persons, or thousands of persons, will not work for others.

This Awareness indicates that entities are of such variety, are so different and so unique in their value systems, and in their ability to be patient, tolerant, understanding and loving, that a formula imposed either by religion, culture, or by some formula, will only be beneficial for a certain number of people.

What Makes a Marriage Meaningful

This Awareness indicates that what really counts is whether entities love each other sufficiently to tolerate the extremes of each other's personalities and characters; for in a deep, meaningful relationship, you will discover how far entities' tolerances go. You will discover your limits, and then you will discover that your limits can be pushed even further than you ever expected. You will say, "I have reached my limit; I will not tolerate any more from you; I do not need this in my life," and then you will turn to that entity and say, "Oh, I didn't realize you felt that way. If that is your weakness, then I'll just have to accept you as you are, and I'll have to acknowledge that my limits go further than I expected. I will tolerate even more than I thought I could."

This Awareness indicates that this is what makes marriage meaningful. It is the marriage that becomes the focal point, and it is the marriage that pushes entities into becoming more than they ever imagined they could be, pushes entities into tolerating even more than they ever thought they could tolerate from another entity, pushing entities into expressing feelings that they never imagined they would have, and then letting them turn around and say, "Let's not fight any more. You know how much I care for you. I can't stand these horrible feelings I have."

This Awareness indicates that marriage is that which, much like the kneading of bread, causes entities to become compressed, torn, broken, remolded back together, patched up, comforted, and then torn apart again, only to be repaired again and again, so that entities become resilient and more capable of greater suffering, greater compassion, greater forgiveness, greater understanding, and even greater demands of themselves, in order to make things work.

Why Marriage Should Prevail Against Divorce

This Awareness indicates that it is the resilience of the marriage that develops the deeper commitment as time progresses, and as entities manage somehow to stay together in spite of all of the obstacles and reasons and excuses that would justify a divorce. There are so many reasons why entities could be justified in divorcing their partner,--not just this year, not just this month, but month after month, year after year. Any of these reasons would stand up in court as good reason for divorcing their mate. Yet those who manage to stay together, find every reason, every excuse to remain together in spite of it all, and are happy to do so until the next problem, when they again consider divorce.

This Awareness indicates that marriage is a battle, and it is making up, it is testing each other, and discovering each other. It is a situation in which entities learn more about themselves because they are living in an intimate relationship with a reflective partner than they could ever learn alone, even in multiple lifetime experiences. An entity could live five lifetimes alone, and never discover as much about themselves as they discover in ten years of marriage.

This Awareness suggests that any entity can find an excuse for divorcing their mate, and in some cases, they really should, particularly when the mate violates them repeatedly and without reason, or wherein the mate threatens them or the children, so that their livelihood, their well-being, is endangered. Such entities, indeed, should separate from such a mate, if the mate is not able to resolve the problem through counseling or some other means.

This Awareness does not ask anyone to subject themselves to another, even in marriage, to the point of becoming a victim of another's oppression and violations, or of subjecting their children to such violation.

This Awareness does, however, suggest that entities not simply divorce each other because the entity does not have a nice enough car, gained too many pounds, didn't make enough money, or snores, or otherwise creates inconvenience, and someone else around the corner is much better looking and has a better car and "looks really interested in me." This Awareness indicates that these are not real reasons for divorcing.

This Awareness indicates, however, even such entities, in their weakness, may pursue the greener grass across the field, seeking that which they think would better their lives. It is better that they have the opportunity to make the mistakes, to pursue the flashy and more appealing party at the expense of their own marriage, than to have some outside force, such as a government or religion dictating to them that they must stay married in spite of all, or suffer dire consequences.

This Awareness indicates that it is through having your own right to choose and make your own mistakes that entities learn to discern more clearly, to discover their own capacities, to develop their own soul; whereas those entities who are forced into a mold by religion, by government, by oppressive forces, to behave in a certain social pattern -- such entities are not growing, they are simply conforming to the demands of others, and this does not give them an opportunity for growth, for learning; it simply gives them a pattern of behavior and conditioning.

Is Imposed Conditioning the Measure of Spiritual Development?

This Awareness suggests to entities that externally imposed conditioning is not the same as spiritual development, even if that conditioning creates a perfect model in a society, conforming to the society's concept of perfection. For the entity who is thus conditioned by outside imposition of teaching, of molding, of enforcement, has no choice, and is what he or she is, not by their own ability to discern from what they have learned, but is what he or she is because they were conditioned and molded by outside, oppressive forces. Is that spiritual development, or is that not simply imposed conditioning? And if imposed conditioning is the measure of spiritual development, then robots are the more highly evolved spiritual beings in the universe.

This Awareness indicates that for this reason, it is better that entities be allowed to make their mistakes, to learn from their mistakes, to recover from their mistakes; for they, in so doing, learn to discern and discover greater and greater truths in regard to what is truly valuable in their lives.

Read Maugham's "Of Human Bondage"

QUESTIONER'S COMMENT:

There was a book written by W. Somerset Maugham, a literal classic, called Of Human Bondage that gives a very good example of what Awareness got into during this reading in regard to how an aware entity could keep breaking new boundaries in being tested by maintaining a relationship. It might be a good book for some people to read.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative.

CAN ONE DESERVE ATTACK BY DARK FORCES BECAUSE OF KARMA?

(Was Her Spiritual Advisor Really Practicing Witchcraft?)

QUESTION:

Layne had several other questions in regard to this story. She writes: "I am still curious as to whether this woman up the hill was truly practicing witchcraft, or was I only going through karmic necessities of my husband's rejection. I wonder if a Dark Force can only have power over someone who karmically deserves the attack.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity was not consciously practicing witchcraft. This Awareness indicates this entity as simply having a kind of personality that enjoyed expressing a certain influence on others and sometimes to her own benefit.

This Awareness indicates if this is considered witchcraft, then it might be classed as witchcraft, but this kind of definition would then have to be applied to many entities who also do not consider themselves as practicing witchcraft.

This Awareness indicates that there are many entities who practice influencing others to their own favor; in fact, there are very few who don't and it just happened in this case, that, as with many cases, such influence was not beneficial to you, and fortunately for you, the influence was not acceptable to your husband.

This Awareness indicates that it is common for entities who are being subjected to someone's influence which is, in fact, detrimental to them, to see that influence as emanating from some evil motive or intent. This is not always the case. Generally, each entity feels themselves to be good, and the other entity to have bad qualities. This entity could easily perceive you as being the one who had some kind of negative influence on your husband, and not giving him what he needed for his own growth and fruition, even as you might see this entity as having some evil influence on your husband.

This Awareness indicates it is basically simply a clash of characters having different motives, different intentions, different viewpoints and different relationships with one another and with a mutually admired party, --in this case, your husband.

This Awareness indicates that it is not necessary to classify the entity as being evil or as being involved in witchcraft to understand that her influence was not to your liking. You can simply say, "I didn't like the way this entity was dealing with me or with my husband, and the influence this entity had caused me bad dreams, or I responded to her influence by having bad dreams, and I would just as soon have nothing more to do with her."

This Awareness indicates that is an approach you can use in evaluating your relationship without actually condemning this entity as being evil, for that is not necessary. You can quite properly state that you do not really like this person, and do not care to have anything further to do with this person, without condemning the person as being evil.

This Awareness indicates that, if you have associates or friends who ask about this person, you can simply say, "Well, I don't know what you, yourself, will feel about the person if you meet her, but I, personally, didn't really like her very well, and felt that her influence on my life harmed me more than it helped." In this way, you are expressing your feelings without pointing the finger at her as being evil, or as having evil motives.

IS THIS WOMAN BEARING A CHILD FOR THE DARK FORCES?

(Her Oulja Board Told Her to Have the Baby)

QUESTION:

Her final question: "A friend of mine still trusts this spiritual woman up the hill and takes her advice. I have not told her my story because I was told never to talk about this woman. I was told that if I talked about her, I would be vulnerable to her attacks. Recently, my friend mentioned above has become pregnant. I was told that she became pregnant because the so-called spiritual woman told her she should. I don't know if this is true.

My question is: Is this woman bearing a child in order to provide a body for the soul of a Dark Force entity?

Has she been tricked into doing this? I'm asking this question because about two years ago my husband and I were using a Ouija board to try to communicate with our spirit guides. The entity talking to us told us to have a baby, and even told us on which night to make love. I was frightened by this request and asked Bartholomew, the entity I told you about in the above story, if this was a Dark Force entity trying to trick us. The spiritual reading came back saying that my husband and I were being tested to see if we could recognize trickery.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as that which is a matter of the mind playing its games of justification and rejection.

Why Judgments Should Never Be Made About a Baby

This Awareness indicates that if a child is born from this experience, and entities begin to think of this child as the product of Dark Forces, and project such attributes on the child at the time of birth, that child then has one strike against it, for entities are already sending thought forms to that child that you are the product of a Dark Force.

This Awareness indicates that the child is but a child. The being is but a being. It has the capacity of being anything. Even if it, in its past life, was less than the highest, even if it behaved in a demented manner, it is being given a new opportunity, a new life, a new chance to try again.

Now, if entities wish to project upon this child that it is evil, that projection, that thought form, becomes likened unto a seed planted in the child, so that the child is perceived, first by you, then by your husband, and perhaps by others whom you speak to in regard to this, so that all of these entities are visualizing this demonic child coming from this pregnancy. As the child grows with these images being sent to it, what is the result to be? Is that child going to develop its highest and best qualities, as a result of such projections? or is it going to perhaps take on those projected thought forms and express themselves?

This Awareness asks, if this child is a typical child, it will do things which are erroneous, mischievous, even violative to others, for all children do. If entities are focused on those violations, that mischievous behavior, and point to that as evidence that the child is demonic, what is this to do to the child? What is it to do to the mother of the child, who hears these things? What attitude will she develop toward her child?

This Awareness indicates that a child is a child; it is capable of being anything. It has the capacity to do great and wondrous things, if given the encouragement, the environment, the education; or it has the capacity of being monstrous, if given that kind of identification, encouragement, and education.

This Awareness asks you to refrain from energizing such extremes and from seeing this entity as producing a demonic child, but rather see this entity as producing an angelic child.

Even Krishnamurti Was Once a Brat

This Awareness reminds you that the entity Krishnamurti, who became one of the great teachers of this century, was a brat, by his own definition, until he was twenty-one years of age. This entity was a very difficult person until he reached the age in which he began to mature, and recognize something more meaningful to his life.

So even if this child appears to be bratty, don't be deceived into thinking this is the product of Dark Force.

Dark Force only comes about when an entity is isolated, separated, and made to feel rejected, ostracized, and evil, to the point wherein the entity cannot find acceptance through loving relationships and must turn to selfish demands, manipulation, coercion and tricks to gain the appearance of benefits from his or her relationships.

This Awareness indicates that you not concern yourself so much with the concept of entities giving birth to Dark Force beings, for these things cannot be controlled to the degree that a Dark Force can be conjured up simply by someone wanting to conjure a Dark Force. The conjuring of a low-level being into a birth situation can be easily countered by entities who project light, love, and growth opportunities, spiritual energies around that child, so that the environment in which the child is raised is one of a loving and caring environment in which the child is seen as having angelic, healthy, harmonious qualities, so that even if the entity was, in a previous lifetime, demented in nature, the entity begins to learn proper behavior, acceptable social behavior, through proper environment, training and attitudes of teachers and associates in this lifetime.

This Awareness indicates no one is fated to be a demon, though entities can be influenced in this direction.

QUESTIONER:

This isn't a question. She just had a P.S. to her story. "Incidentally, our marriage is doing fantastic now. I feel we have grown tremendously from the strange experience above." Does Awareness have a closing message?

Having An Affair? Speak Only For Yourself

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that it is not proper that any entity should have the self-righteousness to judge another to the point of saying, "This entity should not have had an affair. This entity was wrong for doing so." Or, "This entity should have an affair in order to balance some energies that have been created in the past. No one outside the entities themselves can say what should or should not occur; they can only speak for themselves. For each entity has different tolerances, different needs, different levels of understanding, different values, different backgrounds, different psychologies.

If entities understand this, they can learn not to judge and condemn, but to discern by seeking understanding of the other's point of view. Not that the other's point of view would be something they could apply to their own life, but rather that the other's point of view can enlighten them as to why the other behaved in a certain manner. And such understanding of each other can lead to greater rapport and tolerance of the differences between entities, so that you can love others even who are quite different from yourself, who have different values, who have different beliefs and different ideas. You need not accept their values or their beliefs, but to be able to love them, even with their differences, makes you a more wholesome person. And this is the value.

This Awareness suggests, therefore, that rather than judging others, condemning others, or labeling others with terms such as good, bad, evil, or witch or Satanic -- unless these entities choose those labels for themselves -- it is not your right to put such labels on others. And therefore, rather than doing so, this Awareness suggests you simply discern, and learn what you can, in order to understand others; and then, in such understanding, discover more about your own values and what is meaningful to you. This Awareness suggests the interpreter be brought from trance.

WAR AND ONE'S PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY (If We Don't Like War Why Try To Do Anything About It?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Would Awareness's response apply to this line of Mrs. Allen here, where she says "Along with this is the "responsibility" for allowing wars to continue. I haven't coquated on how these two possibilities can be best handled."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the question is unclear as to what the entity refers to, in terms of responsibility of allowing wars to continue. Could the questioner clarify what the entity is saying?

QUESTIONER (AVATON):

I think she is applying it in the same context as she applied the first question about energizing creates the reality. So evidently she hasn't reconciled this thing about wars to continue and I believe what she's saying is that she doesn't personally feel this is her responsibility to do anything about the various wars.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity appears to have the attitude that if someone is experiencing a negative existence, she can keep that experience out of her world by ignoring it. This is very common among far-Eastern nations, particularly the Hindu philosophy that "I will take care of my own karma, but I will not express compassion for others or give myself to others in dealing with their karma."

This Awareness indicates that it is inadvertently or directly depending on how the entity applies this kind of thinking related to the two issues which she brings up. She does not want to deal with the alien situation for fear of looking at it as perhaps energizing the reality of it, would therefore prefer to ignore it and deny its existence in her world. She would like also to avoid the reality of war by ignoring it and keeping it out of her world.

Thus, the entity seeks to avoid realities that are present in the word by ignoring them, and hopes thereby that she can create a world of her own that does not include these things. This Awareness indicates this of course is the beginning of creating an unreal situation in which the entity lives in a false world or a world that is not in touch with the reality that others experience.

This Awareness indicates that it does not alter the world which others experience, it simply allows her to live illusion of her own. It is not that different from the entity who believes that she can deny her own reality by believing she is the queen of the planet Venus, or the Queen of Sheba, or some other fantasy. The entity who believes himself to be God or Napoleon is simply denying or substituting what he or she perceives as a positive image for that which is the negative image of themselves which they would like to deny.

Fantasy Denial the First Step Toward Insanity

Thus, by denying their true self, they superimpose a fantasy self and energize that. This Awareness indicates that this kind of denial of reality by creating a different reality may be seen as the first steps of moving toward insanity. It must be done very carefully or entities will go too far and live in delusions, form delusions and have a world based on delusions.

This Awareness suggests that this is comforting for some entities. If they can deny negativity by creating an illusion of a fantasy world that is only full of their chosen delights, they can increase the bliss that comes with ignorance. The ignorance or ignoring of negativities can give some entities bliss, but for those who wish to be effective in the real world, they must first acknowledge the existence of reality and then be willing to do what they can to deal with reality.

It is not necessarily that you control all the negativities, but it is important that you at least acknowledge where negativities are, when negativities are present, by being aware of a negativity. By giving attention to the negativity, not to make it grow, but to heal the negativity and turn it into something positive, entities can have mental effect.

Problems in Ignoring a Troublesome Child

This Awareness indicates that it is much the same as a troublesome child. It can either be ignored or dealt with. If you deal with the child by giving proper attention and learning what is necessary to help alleviate the child's problematic behavior, you can bring the child into a positive and balanced behavior, but if you are faced with a troublesome child and you simply ignore the child, letting it do its mischief while you turn the other way, the child may grow worse and worse in its mischief, creating more and more problems, as you ignore these negative behaviors.

This Awareness indicates that there are many parents who try to ignore their children's negative behavior only to find that eventually society steps in, takes the child away and incarcerates the child somewhere, in prison or in some kind of isolation, or disciplinary situation. Then the parent says, "I never saw him do anything wrong. He was a good boy." This Awareness indicates the parent never saw because the parent was avoiding all sight of negative behavior.

In Dealing With War --"Ignorance Is Bliss"—Or Is It?

This Awareness indicates that in regard to dealing with a war, if you do not feel comfortable in speaking out against a war, and you would prefer to ignore its existence, then that is your way of dealing with reality. The word ignorance comes from ignoring, or the adjective of ignoring. One who is ignorant is ignoring of the thing. It is an adjective to describe the action of ignoring.

This Awareness indicates that it is said that ignorance is bliss, and this is so for many entities. But the entity who wants to have a purpose and who wants to have power over his or her life or culture, cannot plead ignorance, but needs to cultivate knowledge and the responsibility that comes with knowledge. If an entity knows about something, the entity also develops the ability to respond from that knowledge and the response will be a knowledgeable response.

This Awareness indicates if an entity is ignorant, having ignored something, than the entity's response to it will be based on ignorance. It will not be a knowledgeable response but an ignorant response. Entities choose whether to be ignorant or knowledgeable by their attitude of wanting to know or not wanting to know.

If You Don't Want to Know—Then Don't Subscribe

This Awareness indicates that for those who do not want to know, they should avoid information from this Awareness, for this Awareness attempts to inform entities. This Awareness indicates that one cannot be aware and still be ignorant, and if one seeks ignorance and the bliss that comes with ignorance, they can become like the sheep or cattle or entities who go along with whatever they are told to do, even though it may mean they are walking into the slaughterhouse. They will not know it because they are ignorant, and they are blissful, right up until the time they have their throats slit. Then they suddenly find the bliss turning to terror, and they may even wonder: "Why didn't someone tell me this was going to happen?"

This Awareness indicates It is telling you now. It is telling entities "Become Aware". Human beings have the potential to become gods, but you cannot become godlike through ignorance. You cannot become aware by remaining in a stupor. These are incompatible conditions. It must be one way or the other. Either you become aware or you remain ignorant.

If you want to remain ignorant, you must ignore these things that would make you more aware. This Awareness indicates that you may become aware of the nature of war through the experiences of others and through the discussions and philosophies of those who have experienced war, and thus vicariously you understand war without experiencing the war first-hand and this is a much safer approach than becoming involved in war on a fist-hand basis, or you may prefer not to know anything at all about war or care about it, and you may prefer to sit back and let wars go on without your participation or objection. And you may find that the war passes you by and you safely ride out one war after another, simply because you have an address in a place that the war doesn't touch. But how long do you think this will always serve you? How long do you think you can always be in the right neighborhood to avoid the war that you allow to continue without objection?

All Entities Should Speak Out Against War

This Awareness indicates that it is important that all entities speak out against wars when they can do so. If you are brave you may wish to speak out even when it is dangerous to do so. If you are cowardly, you may wish to speak out when it is safe to speak out. This Awareness indicates that it is important that entities speak out against war, when war is the violation of one group of people by another, and especially when it is clearly defined by the events.

This Awareness indicates that too often the reasons for the war are so complex that entities cannot clearly speak out against a war. There will be reasons to support the war effort, even though there are those who suffer innocently from the war. There are too often complexities involved that do not make for clear opinions in regard to the wars, but entities who can speak out against war in general, can have a great effect collectively in discouraging those who would rely more and more heavily on the use of war to obtain their ends and purposes.

If more and more people spoke out against war, fewer and fewer entities would attempt to promote war for their own ends and purposes. Do not think that you are powerless, as long as you have a voice to speak out against war, to add to the other voices that are willing to speak out against war, and do not think that you must get out and march or throw yourself in front of tanks in order to protest a war. Leave that for those who are strongly courageous.

Simply express yourself through the vote or through the voice or through the pocketbook in your objections to the war, and to those who would promote wars. This Awareness indicates, however, that you must understand, no wars have ever been avoided simply because entities ignored them, because there are always forces that promote wars and they are not deterred because people turn their heads the other way.

Does A Rule of Force Dominate This Universe? (The Force Behind the Force)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

In regard, to war, a question from Judith Jones in New York. She writes, asking: "Does a rule of force dominate in the galaxy, this universe, this galactic sector, or is it the exception?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is a force behind the rule of force. It is the force of control. There are entities who feel insecure unless they have control, and that control they seek requires power, and the power they want generally needs to be tested, and thus, they develop power to assure their control and test their power, and spread their control through the use of force.

This Awareness indicates that this is a strong force in this sector of the galaxy. It is built largely on certain cultural aspects, taught and promoted by forces of greed. It is sometimes developed out of a need for security or protection against dangers and threats, but develops beyond the level of necessity, so that wherein the threat is there, the defending force develops beyond the need to defend against the threat and becomes the oppressor, or more threatening than that which they defended against.

Thus, the weaker nation becomes the stronger and then converts to the aggressor and threatens the nation that was previously the threat. Thus, power tends to call for a counterforce and the counterforce tends to call the first force to counter, and escalation of force builds so that opposing forces begin to build in competition to one another.

This Awareness indicates that it becomes a vicious cycle until someone says: "Enough! Let us disarm!" This Awareness indicates that the two great powers on earth building in this manner have led to near bankruptcy due to military build-ups so that both now see the need to stop building more power against each other, to stop the competition so that they can begin to rebuild the economies and structure of their countries.

It was an inevitable outcome that either these countries building in competition powers to counter each other, would either go to war and destroy one or the other or that they would economically reach a point where it became impossible to continue destroying their own economies from the continued build-up. This Awareness indicates that entities are fortunate that it fell into the latter category and that the economies became the concerned issue rather than an outbreak of war between these powers.

This Awareness indicates that It may not have answered the question completely. If not, this Awareness suggests the question be restated.

BILDERBERGERS MEET: DOES THIS MEAN ANOTHER WAR IN FIVE YEARS? (More on Hegel's Philosophy of Thesis/Antithesis/Synthesis)

QUESTION:

No, it appears the question was answered thoroughly. In regard to war, the June 24th issue of the Spotlight came out with a headline story that reads: "The Bilderbergers Meet Secretly; Another War In 5 Years; News Blacked Out In The United States", and it essentially says the Bilderberger groups plans another war within 5 years. This grim news came from a main pipeline, a high-ranking Bilderberger staffer, who secretly cooperated with the Spotlight investigation behind the guarded walls of the Badischer Hof, who was operating inside with colleagues serving as connecting pipeline."

It's a long article, but does Awareness see that this information is valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct. That it appears this will be part of the continued scenario for bringing about and strengthening that which is called the New World Order. The use of war to alter attitudes to bring about announcements of changes which entities can accept as part of the result of wars has long been a way of nudging the masses toward this New "World Order. This Awareness indicates that these wars are part of the Hegel philosophy of thesis/antithesis and synthesis, wherein a force is expressed and a counterforce is created, leading to clashes that develop a synthesis or a movement in a compromise direction, when in reality the synthesis was the original intent and the thesis and antithesis were the two forces used to get to that synthesis.

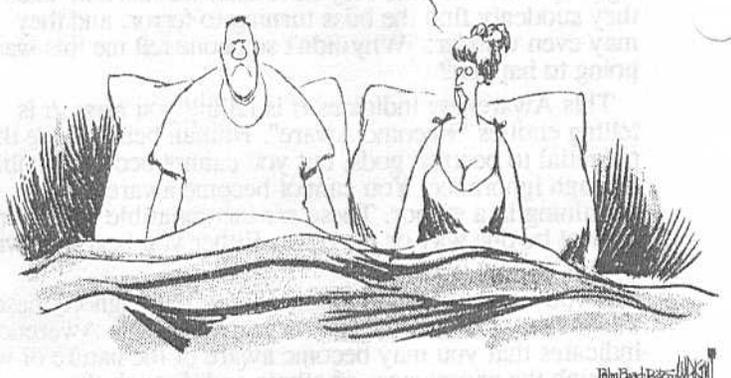

This is the formula for manipulating masses toward certain ends or results. This Awareness indicates that during wartime emergency actions, changes in laws, changes in government are much easier to effect, to impose on the masses. In the recent situation; the cheering and heroism and feeling of victory served to allow much change to occur after the war had ended, as entities basked in their euphoria. Who can feel euphoric and still feel threatened by some bill or law that is being passed? For entities, when basking in euphoria cannot envision anything going wrong or being negative during such times.

A view from Britain

The Daily Mirror newspaper in London has been outspoken in its opposition to war with Iraq. Here's the front page of Friday's newspaper:

LOOK, YOU'RE MY HUSBAND! I'M CERTAINLY NOT OPPOSED TO A SEXUAL RELATIONSHIP BUT, GOOD HEAVENS, ARNOLD, WHAT IF JOHN ASHCROFT IS LISTENING?

Wisdom of Awareness...

WHY AWARENESS MAKE YOU RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR OWN LIFE

This Awareness indicates there is nothing that is true except that which you think. And as you thinketh, this becomes true for you, and as others think along with you, a collective level of truth begins to form and images begin to solidify and form around that truth and give support.

This Awareness indicates that thought is the builder, consciousness is the being. Thought creates the forms and shapes and images and the life for these forms, shapes and beings are in the consciousness. The feelings, the sensitivities give that breath of life; the directed thinking determines the shape.

This Awareness suggests that your life moves from moment to moment and you create your world as you think and you experience your world as you feel. This Awareness suggests that you have the choice of feeling what you wish to feel from moment to moment and the choice of thinking what you wish to think from moment to moment. And being aware that your thoughts and feelings create your world and that you have your choice as to what you wish to create, this Awareness makes you responsible for your life and sets you above the animals who are but the victims of circumstance.

Forgiveness: Breaking the Karmic Chain

QUESTION:

There was a very interesting little story that came out in the paper recently and I'd like to read this to Awareness and ask It for an analysis and comment. "In Miami, Chris Carrier recently went to visit his ailing elderly friend at a nursing home in North Miami Beach. He took along a pound of his favorite fish treats, smoked amberjack, comforted the friend and made sure that he was warm and well taken care of.

It was the last time he saw his friend, who died later that night. The friend, David McAllister, 77, was a blind, frail and lonely man with no one to look after him. He had also recently confessed to abducting, stabbing and shooting Carrier in the head and leaving him in the Everglades, 22 years ago.

The survival of Carrier, who was 10 at the time, stunned Miami in 1974. Last month he shocked people again, by forgiving and befriending the man who had confessed. Now, Carrier has been waiting to learn about funeral arrangements, as McAllister's body remains unclaimed at Columbia Aventura Hospital, where he died on September 26th. The cause of death was not released.

McAllister left no names of family members, and Carrier is about the only person who wants to pay last respects. "This provided closure for him," Carrier said. He wanted to say "I'm sorry," and I wanted to tell him "No harm done."

Carrier was blinded in the left eye as a result of the shooting, but he said he did not feel that he had been permanently traumatized, adding that he bore no ill will toward the man who had kidnapped him and left him to die.

"It wasn't hard for me to show compassion, given the circumstances," said Carrier, who is married, has two daughters and, until recently, worked as a youth minister. "I moved on," he said, "This event did not haunt me all my life."

After McAllister was questioned last month for the first time in 21 years by the original detective on the case, Major Charles Scherer of the Coral Gables Police, he confessed to having abducted Carrier and leaving him on December 20th, 1974.

Carrier, a 5th grader at Westminster Christian School, had arrived home early from school on the last Friday before Christmas vacation. He had left the bus and was walking home along Aledo Avenue in Coral Gables. McAllister tricked him into going into his motor home, stabbed him with an ice pick and drove him to a desolate spot, where he shot the boy in the head from behind.

An extensive search ensued and a $10,000 reward was offered. The boy was unconscious for 6 days. He awoke the day after Christmas and was rescued by a farmer who was driving by. The side of his head was bloody. He had two black eyes, light stab wounds in the chest and cigarette burns. The bullet had entered at the left temple and exited at the right temple, injuring the optic nerve and closing the eye.

Carrier speculated that the burns -- some still scar him -- were meant to test whether he was dead. Carrier remembered little about those 6 days. "It was more traumatic for my parents and my brother," he said. "It was a walk in the park for me, it happened so fast."

From the beginning McAllister was a prime suspect. He had been dismissed 6 months before by Carrier's father, Hugh, from his job taking care of an elderly uncle. McAllister also had a long criminal record, owned a motor home, and bore an uncanny resemblance to a composite sketch made from the boy's recollection.

The problem was that there was no physical evidence linking McAllister to the crime, but Scherer was sure that McAllister was the assailant. When the police went to question him in 1975, he behaved as though he were expecting the police to find him and charge him with the crime, Scherer said, adding: "He said to the investigators 'What took you all so long! I've been expecting you!' Everything was there--the motive, the motor home, and the composite picture, almost identical. But we couldn't get Chris to identify him."

Scherer received word in August that McAllister was a patient in the Greynolds Park Manor Nursing Home, and went to interview him. "He was defensive at first," Scherer recounted. "He eventually confessed to picking up Chris and driving him out there, but not to stabbing or shooting him."

The first time that Carrier visited McAllister at the home after Scherer had been in contact with him, he began to cry, when he realized that the young man before him was the boy whom he had hurt and abandoned.

"When he was asked what he did," Carrier said: "He sort of gasped and said: 'I left him there' and began to cry. He said he was sorry and I told him I forgave him and that from now on there would be nothing like anger or revenge between us, nothing except a new friendship."

Carrier visited McAllister frequently. They often prayed together and read. They knew each other three weeks. "I'm glad he was able to put the past behind him" Carrier said. "I tried to let him know he had a friend."

That was the article.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the action as that which resulted in a kind of reconciliation and closure to any karma that the two entities might have had otherwise, or might have continued into a future lifetime experience. This Awareness indicates that this action of this young man in going to meet the person who violated him so tragically, with the result of forgiving and letting the past go, indicates a very highly developed spiritual entity, who was ready to release any karma that was owed to him, or which he himself may have possibly owed or felt a right to extract from the violator.

This Awareness indicates that by letting go of this and letting the old man know that he was not holding any resentment or grudge for what had been done, the entity indeed released any karma connected and it did allow the old man to have a sense of resolution to the heavy karma which he had carried from that incident on.

This Awareness indicates how much of the karma the old man released is of course not stated in the story, but it is probable that the old man let go of any of his karma and had great compassion for the young man whom he had violated so heavily earlier.

This Awareness indicates it is a very touching story, and serves as an example for others who may also have the excuse to hold resentment, but who might want to try something different.

QUESTIONER:

So that could be an example of the chain of karma, where it goes on and on, lifetime after lifetime, that somebody just said "Enough is enough!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. It is the breaking of the chain of karma. Generally karma creates more karma. It is a debt owed by one to another, and when it is paid there is often the reverse, wherein the one who was owed a karmic debt, now becomes a violator, and the other is now recipient of karmic violation by the first, and it can go back and forth, life after life, wherein one perpetrates violence against the other, and in the next life it is reversed.

That is one pattern that can occur. This Awareness indicates it is possible that at some level, at any point, the victim ceases to carry on the karma or energize it further and simply says "Enough! I want nothing more to do with this karmic chain." This Awareness indicates in some cases, the victim of a karmic incident will say "Enough! I don't want anything from you. I just want to be free of you. I just want you to leave me alone, stay out of my life. I want to be free of you."

That is one way to end a karmic chain. This incident as described in this story is another way to end the karmic chain wherein the one owing the karmic debt has the debt forgiven, and the other receives an enormous amount of grace in his or her account for having been ready and willing to forgive the karmic debt owed to him.

This Awareness indicates of course, the fact that the entity was not seeking an amount of grace adds to the greater grace for it. This Awareness indicates if the purpose had been to receive some kind of spiritual grace by forgiving the violator, it would not have been nearly such a magnanimous gesture.

RYAN OWENS, AGE 8 SEES THE FUTURE

QUESTIONER:

Sharon Kane sent in a little story. It's not a particular question; it's just something that is probably worth sharing. It was written in 1983 and it's called The World in 1984. "In 1984 a very strange thing happened. All the buildings started falling and a new world grows up from the old. Strange creatures live there, and the city of New York shrank to fit inside a crystal pyramid. The people inside were terrified to look outside the crystal walls and see dinosaurs. People looked in another direction and saw huge modernistic buildings spurting out of the ground. They saw huge spaceships carrying big movie screens with Japanese commercials on them.

"People looked at their watches and some of them were speeding ahead clockwise and some were unwinding counterclockwise. Suddenly the pyramid began to rise onto a stone altar. It seemed to the people inside that they were being worshipped. They felt like they were being watched. They tried to get out of the pyramid by pushing, banging and even shooting at the walls, but it was hopeless. They couldn't get out. Suddenly, all their TVs and radios turned on and, a voice came forth saying: "You have the power inside to go where you want to go and be where you want to be. You have seen the past, the present and the future before you."

"Suddenly, everyone closed their eyes and thought about where they needed to go. They thought about a world of peace. The bombs and guns turned into food and solar industries and geothermal plants and lots of jobs. All the junk was salvaged and recycled. Russians were working with Americans in medicine. Africans were learning computer technology from the Japanese. Arabs and Israelis were building roads together. People saw what they had in common versus their differences. All at once, everything they were thinking appeared on their TV screens. Suddenly, the pyramid walls fell and the TVs broke and their thoughts became real."

This was written by Ryan Owens, age 8, in the Montessori Elementary School in Santa Rosa, California. I thought that was sort of a charming little insight by a youngster that probably was actually seeing the future."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative; that this entity has glimpsed into the future; that the concept of 1984 for this entity was not limited to the year, but represented for him, an idea of the future. This Awareness indicates that this is a very clear scenario of the way things shall eventually move, but this will reach up into the next century; that during the period from approximately 2010 through 2050 these things will be in effect; that there will be a massive cleanup of weapons, weaponry and environmental pollution that will begin during the next century and will be amassed around the time of 2020 with such great coordination as to be similar to war-time mobilization, but the purpose to be the action of cleaning up the planet, to make it livable again. This will include cleaning the pollution and garbage from the oceans, from space and from the land.

This Awareness indicates that there will come a time wherein all nations will send representatives to each of the other nations, to sit in on all of the decision-making actions of the governments of those other nations so that every nation has a representative from every other nation present in its decision-making bodies, so that no nation can unilaterally decide to take action against any other nation without all nations being aware of what is being plotted. This will assure an eternal peace for these nations. This Awareness indicates that for those nations which are slow to become involved in this kind of network, there may be the internal dictatorial situation in which a people may be subjugated by leaders in a nation, or a neighboring nation may be attacked and harmed by one nation.

Those nations violating others, or their own people will be seen as renegade or criminal nations by the global community and rather than being arrested and carted off to prison, which would be impossible for a nation to experience, they are isolated and quarantined, and that becomes their prison, this following world court hearings and determination, along with opportunities for that nation to straighten up its act, or face sentencing of being quarantined and isolated from the rest of the world. In this manner, war against such nations would not be necessary. The quarantine, the economic isolation as that which would create sufficient punishment to bring the nation around, to recognize its best approach and greatest benefit is through proper behavior, according to world opinion and civilization.

This Awareness indicates all these things shall come about as humanity progresses in its evolution to join those higher vibrations of the New Age.
