SHE GETS TRANSMISSIONS FROM UFO'S

QUESTION:

A question from Sandy Medine, White Castle, Louisiana. She writes: "I would like Awareness to please tell me what is going on! I live 5 miles outside a small town between Baton Rouge, Louisiana and New Orleans. The community is mainly farmers and simple people, fisherman that live off the land. There is a waterway that passes in front of my house, for about 5 city blocks, to the White Castle boat landing. For a couple of months now, each night the sky is full of UFOs. They look like stars, but are not. I get a transmission in my head that is not words, more like energy directed. When people are in my home, they feel it also, and remark they can feel their heartbeats in their ears.

We have a small bar (tavern) near the boat landing. As people come and go in front of my house I can feel energy directed through my body toward the passing vehicle. Also, if someone gets out the box at the bar, my whole head vibrates with energy and I can feel between my eyes on my forehead, energy pushing out as if a small signal were coming through me, aimed at the bar. "I went outside with friends and daughter and I used a hunting scope to look at the UFOs and they put on a show for us. Are these "good ETs?" she asks. "The colors from the ships vary. Some look blue, red and white. Others emit blue light and others, white light. Since I am not the only one who is seeing them, I know my reality is backed up by others, but only I feel the energy like I do. Will Awareness please comment on this situation?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the energy on this in accordance with what you have given, while not truly clear, this Awareness suggests that there may be an implant within yourself which is being used to monitor things in your environment. The monitoring and also the sending of energies may be involved. This Awareness suggests that the entity Bud Hopkins as one who could give you suggestions or refer you to someone to speak with in regard to this situation, which may be of value to you. This Awareness suggests that the entity Bud Hopkins can be contacted through the address on his book; that this may be provided by the editor of CAC.

How to Recognize Trustworthy UFO Contacts

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that these UFO contacts in the area should be trusted, unless there is strong indication of their trustworthiness. This Awareness wishes to give entities the way by which they can discern for themselves whether a UFO should be trusted. Generally the ones who are trustworthy will contact you telepathically ahead of time before making any contacts, and the feelings regarding the contact will be of such a nature that there will not be any doubt in your mind as to whether they are benefactors or whether they are malevolent in nature. If there is any question or feeling of dread or apprehension, it is best to avoid the contact, if possible.

Awareness Describes What a Pleiadian Looks Like

This Awareness indicates that enough information has been given on appearance. The appearance of the beam ships shown in the video tapes of Billy Meiers indicates Pleiadian type ships, and these generally are of a friendly nature, unless the ship has been captured which is unlikely. The Pleiadians generally appear as humans, very human-like with a kind of widow's peak where the hairline comes down in the center of the forehead, or wherein there are heavy earlobes on the ears; these are common among Pleiadians.

Allens You Need to Avoid

This Awareness indicates the ones to avoid are the Greys, the insect-reptilian types; those with big eyes, the small mouth and the life body that looks like a preying mantis type, and also the large-nose Greys from Orion, and the Reptoid or Reptilian type aliens. Also there are certain of the Nordic blonde types that are sometimes working for these Greys and Orion types, and are not to be trusted either. This Awareness indicates that as long as they are in the sky, if you do not make an effort to contact them, you are better off, and it is best to keep a distance if possible. If they do attempt to make contact, it is best, upon identifying them, to be very cautious, especially if they fit into the categories described, the little short Grey or the tall Greys with the large nose or the Reptilian types: these are the more dangerous ones.

The little short Greys, generally give implants and control entities through the implants. This Awareness indicates that there are also certain experiments that may be effected if entities are abducted. These may be quite extreme, especially if the Reptilian types are involved. This Awareness indicates that it is best not to have any contact whatsoever, unless you are very much assured that these are Pleiadians or represent entities from a friendly system. The Arcturians and some of the Sirius types are also friendly, but not in every case. In other words, don't look for contact. You are better off to avoid it.

If the Pleiadians want to contact you, they will do it in a manner that allows you to feel complete harmony in making contact with them. They will gradually contact you telepathically as they did Billy Meiers. This Awareness suggests you read the works relating to Billy Meiers and his contacts and you will see that these entities did not simply appear in his life unannounced or intrude in his life in any manner that would have caused him apprehension.

This Awareness indicates there was an incident in which a negative type of alien attempted to assassinate the entity Billy Meiers through his own mistake, thinking that he was in contact with a Pleiadian ship, only to discover that it was not a Pleiadian ship but was a hostile craft and the craft almost caused his death. This Awareness suggests great caution in regard to contacts with aliens.

State Department Rules About Alien Contacts

Also there are certain State Department rules regarding contacts with aliens. If you do have a contact with aliens, you are to report it to the State Department. You are not allowed to defend yourself with any weapon or threat to the alien. You are not supposed to communicate with the alien, if it is possible to avoid such communication and you are not supposed to talk to others about your contact.

There is an entire set of rules or laws issued by the State Department on how to respond if you confront or are confronted by an alien. This Awareness indicates that if such occurs, it might be to your advantage to either remain quiet about the event, or to look up these rules, and comply.

VAL VALERIAN SAYS SIRIANS ARE NOT OUR FRIENDS

(CAC Material Being Used In Leading Edge Publications)

QUESTION:

Valdemar Valerian, the UFO researcher and publisher of The Leading Edge, a UFO newsletter, has been reproducing some of the information from Awareness on the aliens, and reproduced our issue 371 recently which concerned the fake invasion and the fake rapture. In his January, 1991 Leading Edge issue, he brings up a couple of questions. I'll read what he says here.

"Commentary on Cosmic Awareness treatise on the fake invasion and the fake rapture. The people at Cosmic Awareness have stated that the issue about the alien agenda is one of the more important issues they have done. In reading it, several points (I'm sure there are more) and comments arose:

1. There was a comment on page 1 that referred to an increase of reference to Reptilian species in the mass media. I recall that car commercial and also something in the November issue of OMNI magazine on page 56. Another interesting comment was about the "large sums of money given towards the research on reptilians." I have not generally been aware of that. Maybe someone out there could substantiate that.
2. On page 2 of the CAC article, a scenario is presented that seems to be:
  - a. An invasion will be staged by the "powers that be" in order to deceive the mass populace. The invasion will give the impression that the aliens are here to protect humans against another invasion by other aliens (Reptilian humanoids).
  - b. The aliens that "come to save the humans" will in fact be working hand in hand with the Reptilian based species, which will remain (for the moment) out of sight.
  - c. The entity called This Awareness then makes the statement that:
    1. The true invasion that these entities (the Reptilian-backed aliens of the staged invasion) are protecting humans from is that of the Sirians and those from the Pleiades and "those that are in fact true friends of humanity."
    2. Humans will be prepared for war (by the Reptilian-based system) against these forces which "plan to come and rescue Earth from the Reptilian forces in the mid-part of this decade."

First of all, there is more data that indicates that the Sirians are not friends of humans. There is evidence that the Sirians have been giving Earth allies advanced technology which is used to manipulate humans. In Oct. 90 Missing Link there is reference to people in Washington who have knowledge of the underground complexes and caverns in the area as being involved with the Sirians. Other data indicates that the Sirians view Earth as belonging to them, so there is little evidence so far to indicate that the Sirians are friends of humanity. Their whole technology and society appears to be geared toward manipulation and control. As far as the Pleiadians are concerned, there is evidence that they are also playing a higher-level Master/Slave and Domination/Control game with humans. Foremost in data about the Pleiadians is the Semjase material attributed to Semjase, and I am still not convinced that the Pleiadians have humans best interests at heart. For one thing, Semjase referred to humans who were Grey abductees as basically "not worth thinking about." There's something that doesn't ring true about that. In addition, there are some references to entities in history with names similar in sound and spelling to Semjase. None of these references were positive. After years of research I'm still not convinced.

There is little doubt that there will be one or more staged scenario set in motion by the "secret government" connected with several alien groups. Area 51 is a possible site. So is anywhere else. After all the publicity and media acclimation, "the element of CONTROL might be lost", so they'd have to do it. Recent data seems to indicate that elements of the government are working with as many as five races (including the resident Reptilian humanoids) to repel the incursion of the Draconians (who the resident Reptilian humanoids really don't want around—they've become pseudo-autonomous in their 2000 year absence). The Draconians, the source race for the Reptilian species have elite members who look physically different than other Reptilians. They have winged appendages on their backs. Seen a good gargoyle lately? It is in the interest of the human species to have the Draconian incursion (if any) repelled, since humans are part of the Reptilian food chain. No human feels like having family members or friends consumed by "some bug-faced bastard from Altair 4." Draconians live up to their name: Totalitarian domination and control with Earth and its inhabitants as "natural resources" on a trading route. The Sirians would have an interest in repelling a Draconian incursion—"it's not THEIR planet". The Greys, who comprise several reasonably autonomous groupings left in charge of dealings with humans, do not want Reptilian rule again. The Reptilians are enemies of the Greys and about everyone else, from what we can determine.

Draconian plans for humanity include "harvesting" scenarios, which will be interpreted by some humans as:

- a. The Christian Rapture.
- b. Aliens "saving" humans.

"Seeing as the Greys refer to humans as "containers" for entities, the whole situation ends up as that which is discussed in Matrix II. For those who haven't read the book, it would be advised."

Would Awareness comment on this report with particular stress put on Valerian's statement that he feels that the Sirians are not our friends at all?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Role of Enki From Sirius in the Creation of Humans

This Awareness indicates that it must be recalled that it was Enki, from Sirius, who was the one who freed mankind from the Enlil forces at the -beginning of the Cro-magnon creation. This Awareness indicates that this goes back to the so-called Garden of Eden; that Enki essentially assisted in giving humanity the power of choice, rather than the mere option of obedience. It is this story that took shape as the story of the Garden of Eden; that the Tree of Knowledge and the fruit by which mankind was to be made as gods, by eating of that fruit of the Tree of Knowledge; the fruit that was given by Enki was the power of choice, the ability to choose.

Prior to this, the Adam model of the cloned creation of the Cro-Magnon type or sapien type was simply a slave created to serve for the mines owned by the Reptoids or those from Draco, and the Adam type model of Cro-Magnon development was cloned to be a robot-like living being, a genetic creation, genetically created to serve without question and without thinking, without the power of choice.

The Bible Represents Enki as the Serpent In the Garden of Eden

The story was created and told in the Book of Genesis, representing Enki, from Sirius, as a serpent, tempting Adam to eat of the Tree of Knowledge, to give him, and to give Eve, the power of the gods: in other words, the right of choice, the right to choose, to think, to make choices, and in so giving, gave humanity the first option of disobeying the Reptoid creators.

This Awareness indicates that this was done through Enki's genetic implant of mammalian genes into the previously created reptilian Cro-Magnon synthesis, and genetic creation, which would have given Adam a longer lifespan, but the Enki action of giving the Cro-Magnon models the influx of mammal genes, caused these entities to gradually over generations, grow towards shorter life-spans, while, simultaneously developing the more spiritual aspects of sides of their being.

The Reason Why Sirians Lay Claim to Our Earth

This Awareness indicates that the genes which were implanted allowed the human race to evolve spiritually, in a manner that would not have been available to the Cro-Magnon models that were based strictly on the Neanderthal/Reptilian synthesis created by Enlil, the Reptoid beings from Draco. This Awareness indicates it is for this reason that the Sirius types lay claim to the planet, because Enki was a dominating influence on the planet approximately at the time of the creation of the Cro-Magnon genetic creation known as Adam and Eve.

This Awareness indicates that much of this has been covered previously and there is also much available through the Sitchin books, The Twelfth Planet, especially. This Awareness indicates that it is true that there are many in the Sirius area that are not trustworthy; that Sirius is very closely aligned with the Orion Empire, but there are also many in this area that are benevolent toward the human race, and this Awareness has mentioned these mostly so as not to imply that they are any less friendly to the human race than are the Pleiadians.

The Explanation of Semjase's Name

This Awareness has also covered the objection that entities have on occasion expressed in regard to Semjase's name; that this entity's name has been associated with the mythical name of a Zoroastrian deity or demon of ancient time in Zoroastrian philosophy; that there are also entities who have names such as Adolph, for example, Adolph Menjou; and there are also entities who have, for example, the young boy in school in the United States who was on the news for having the name Saddam Hussein. Even his classmates thought it was funny because he was a truly nice person, and they all liked him in spite of his name.

You cannot condemn an entity because the entity's name was once the same handle or name of someone thousands of years ago who was recorded in history as being a bad person. This Awareness indicates that it is illogical reasoning do so. It is to reason Semjase's name in the Zoroastrian philosophy symbolized an evil goddess; this entity from the Pleiades calls herself Semjase, therefore, she must be an evil person. The reasoning is not valid or logical. It would be based on an assumption that all entities using a common name would be identical or have the same qualities.

The Suspicions Against the Pleiadians: Cosmic Cousins to Humans

This Awareness indicates that in regard to the suspicions against the Pleiadians, these entities have long been at war with the Orion Empire, and the Draconians and these entities have been under extreme duress because of the Orion Empire and Draconians and their attacks on the Pleiadian planets, and also those entities from Vega have been assisting the efforts by these Pleiadians to keep the Draconians and the Orion Empire from spreading and gaining greater control in the galaxy. This has been ongoing for eons of time.

The Pleiadians are what may be termed "cousins" to humans, cosmic cousins to humans. They are not particularly required nor do they feel a great kinship with humans because humans have essentially shunned their earlier warnings about the Orion types, and humans went ahead and made pacts and agreements with the Orion types in spite of the warning given by the Pleiadians, but the Pleiadians have what they feel is a certain debt to humans, a feeling that they owe humans something, partly because they planted many of the early humans on earth, helped to populate the earth with their own people in the early history of civilization, and then abandoned them.

They also recognize a kind of cosmic family kinship and vibratory connection with humans, and this is more of the reason why they have an interest in preventing the earth from being captured by the Reptilian forces, but there is still another reason. The earth is in a place in the galaxy that has special qualities, special commodities which they prefer not to fall into the hands of the Orion Empire or the Draconians.

Earth's Most Important Commodity to Aliens is Water

The one quantity or commodity most important in this sector is water. Other concerns are the minerals, for these things can help any power in the region to maintain a strong base in the region that could affect the commerce or travel in this region of the galaxy, by having supplies of this nature available to them, and it would give a great advantage to any power in the region of the galaxy to have stockpiled this kind of mineral and water supply in the area, for it would allow them to have a place by which they can easily launch attacks on other planets nearby, without having to carry supplies from great distances.

There are also humans on the planet which can be easily manipulated and used in gathering the minerals which they will need. This Awareness indicates that the Pleiadians prefer not to let the earth fall into the hands of the Draconians or the Orion Empire, but they are not so determined as to be suicidal or as to deplete all of their own resources to prevent it. They are in fact having considerable trouble in waging their war, and may not make an effort to return to the earth in order to assist in its liberation from the controls of these entities.

This Awareness indicates that it appears the Orion Empire as having some kind of advantage and control over the Draconians; that the Draconians appear to be their assistants in the conquest of planets in the galaxy. It is not that they are mercenaries, as the Greys are mercenaries to the Draconian Reptoids; it is more that the Draconian Reptoids rely on the Orion Empire for directions, planning and information and technology and therefore, are subjugated to some degree under the Orion Forces.

Reptoids Searching the Galaxy for the Giza Group

This Awareness indicates that the mention of the Giza Group sometime back as having been taken from earth by the Pleiadians to another more primitive planet, as that which refers to a group of entities who had considerable influence over the Draconian Reptoids; that the Giza Group received its directions or orders from the Orion Empire. This Awareness indicates the Draconian Reptoids are searching for the Giza Group, and if found, will attempt to return them to the earth. This Awareness indicates that up to this time, they have not been successful in finding them.

This Awareness indicates that it appears that not all of the entity's topics have been discussed, or questions may still remain; that if so, these may be reiterated, or put into further questions.

AWARENESS ASSESSES THE WORKS OF VAL VALERIAN

QUESTIONER (AVATON):

I think that was the basic question Valerian had -- about the Sirians.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this entity, Valerian, as one who gathers much information from many sources. This Awareness indicates that the gathering of such information requires great skill in sorting out the various details and facts. It also requires great skill in being discerning about what information is based on reasonable fact or whether it is in error. The entity does a remarkable job in sorting out this kind of information, compiling and combining of the various materials from the different sources, and presenting it in a manner that is organized and readable. Entities can find a great wealth of information in his work and save many hours and much expense because of the work he does for you.

If you were to research all of the information this entity goes through and attempt to organize that information into an orderly pattern, as he does, you would find yourself involved in a full-time job, spending vast amounts of money for subscriptions to a great number of publications. Therefore, this Awareness suggests that those who want further information on the UFO and alien situation at a price that is affordable and a real bargain at the same time for the amount of information made available and the good insight of an editor who knows how to research and find such gems of knowledge on the subject; that you look at this material carefully and consider it as being one of the best sources on the marketplace, if not the best, for this type of information.*

The entity has deep insight. This Awareness indicates the entity has the ability to reason and question and think original thoughts and to discern very carefully between fact and fiction. This Awareness indicates that there are certain areas in regard to material sources, or sources of material in which information is given which the entity researches as part of the compilation, and on occasion, some of this information will be questionable.

This Awareness suggests the Missing Link as having some areas that have been based on misinformation provided through this entity, which in turn is passed on to other publications. It is important that entities in reading any information on the UFO field, never close their mind completely toward an assumption of knowing something to be so just because they have read it somewhere, or even in two or more places, for sometimes those two or more places may receive the information from the same source, which could be erroneous to begin with.

This Awareness indicates that It does not wish to say that the Pleiadians are 100% honest and open to humans or to Billy Meiers, who has been their contact. They have avoided giving the entity much information that he has asked them. He has in fact asked them questions about other alien groups on earth and the Pleiadians have been very closed-mouthed and secretive about other groups on earth. One may wonder whether they are simply too spiritual to talk about their enemies, or whether they just don't want him to know about this, for fear it would endanger his life, or whether they are covering up for the other aliens by not disclosing any information about them. This has caused a number of people to question: "Why is Semjase not being more straight-forward with Billy Meiers about the fact that there are these abductions occurring and these other aliens on earth causing problems?"

This Awareness indicates that it may be that Semjase herself just does not want to discuss these negativities for polite reasons, or because it could cause trouble for entities to be made aware of the information. This Awareness reminds you that questions were asked in 1976 of this Awareness in regard to UFOs and this Awareness did not give much information, and this Awareness reminds you that the interviews between Semjase and Billy Meiers took place in 1976 even though the books are just now coming out. Therefore, she may have, like this Awareness, sensed that it was not timely for this kind of negative information to be released, and that if anything were given, it could open a bag of worms.

HAVE COOPER AND VALERIAN BEEN WARNED AND INTIMIDATED?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIRKI):

I have a question along this line. Avaton and I recently attended a lecture by William Cooper and Avaton also saw a presentation by Val Valerian recently at Evergreen College, and he sensed that they have toned down their material, possibly after a visit warning them, that if they didn't, some dire consequences would follow. Is there any comment on his suspicions in this regard? "

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to have some validity; that it appears the entity was giving away much information that for a time was threatening, or was as perceived as threatening to release more than seemed appropriate. This Awareness indicates there was a time in 1990 when UFO information came pouring out, followed by a brief period in which there was an effort to clamp the lid on the openings of such information, but then it was decided or realized that there was no way to put the lid back on, and the best thing was to allow the information to be released, but in a kind of guided way. Thus, the government has allowed some of the outlets and spokespersons who were giving UFO information, has allowed them to continue to release and to talk on the subject, with certain areas being restricted, namely, anything that would suggest government agencies or individuals being negligent or treasonous in their jobs, or in connection with the UFO situation.

In other words, discussions of MJ-12 in detail or discussions regarding individuals and drug connections as related to the alien phenomena; these things are essentially taboo. Speculation, and other information already made public may be repeated without great concern. This Awareness indicates that you will find that most of what is given by this Awareness is in some form or another public knowledge already released or available from other sources; that It is not giving away any secret government information.

This Awareness indicates that It does sometimes give information perceived in regard to metaphysical or psychic phenomena, but It does not delve into government secrecy or release government secret information. This Awareness indicates that it appears the information in the United States is being allowed out because it is clear that there is only a certain limited number of people who are interested in UFOs. These entities attend conventions, listen and learn, and then go home and do nothing, and cause no social disturbance, and therefore, they are seen as harmless.

If there were great uprisings in society, these UFO conventions and seminars and discussions would probably be stopped. This Awareness indicates that even yet, television is not allowed the same freedoms as are allowed in Japan, where the entities Cooper and Lazar and Lear and others have given on the news networks, complete expose of MJ-12 connections with aliens, and information showing the conspiracy surrounding the Kennedy assassination and how it ties in with the alien information, and even showing how the alien spacecraft is powered.

Much More UFO Information is Released in Japan Than U.S.

This Awareness indicates that the Japanese films would not be allowed on US television at this time, but in general, there is much greater freedom in the United States to discuss and to show and reveal UFO information than has been allowed prior to 1988, when gradual release of information began.

This Awareness indicates that if the question was not answered completely, that it may be reasked.

IS THE WINDOW ON UFO INFO REOPENING?

AVATON:

It appears to be answered sufficiently. A related question is: "As the editor, as a general rule, I've been putting out alien information as Awareness delivered it, with some exceptions on more urgent stuff. We're at the point now of releasing the information given last August, I believe, where Awareness indicated the window was beginning to close, and It went into the reasons: the attack on Cooper and Lazar and trying to attempt to prevent The Gulf Breeze Sightings from appearing on television. I'd like to ask specifically if there is an addendum to that information or is the window still in the process of being closed, or as Awareness seems to be indicating tonight, it has been reopened?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears there has been a reopening. There is in fact, an incident in which one entity was approached by a government agent, and informed, directed, that there would be someone coming to him for a story in regard to some event that occurred some 20 years before, and when this reporter/researcher appeared, he should tell the entire story, exactly as he remembered it.

This Awareness indicates that the entity not only told the entire story, he also told of the agent's visit instructing him to tell the entire story. This Awareness indicates that this indicates the government wanted the story to be released, though it had been covered up for some 20 years. This Awareness indicates that this, and other indications suggest that the government now is allowing the information to seep out into consciousness with a kind of understanding or realization that it is not panicking the public.

The people attend these seminars, receive the information and do not panic and do not create hysteria, and therefore, the information is seen as being relatively harmless. This Awareness indicates that a gradual release of the information may in fact be assisting the government in solving a problem that it has long pondered over, namely, how to uncover something that has been covered up for so long.

This Awareness indicates that by allowing the information to be released without the official announcement by the government allows for entities to begin getting the information from sources that are not necessarily authoritative, and this prevents them from having the entire story go out to 250 million or more people at once in a manner that would be shocking if delivered by a government source, an authority of government, which would leave the source attempting to calm the masses after the announcement were made.

This Awareness indicates that if it is released gradually by people such as Cooper and Lazar and others, no one is going to panic, because if they are shocked by the information, they will simply tell themselves: "I don't believe it, until I hear it from the government." This Awareness indicates that this allows heavy and serious information to be released in a manner that entities don't have to accept, and therefore, they do not have to deal with it at all, if they don't want to, and if, over a period of time, enough people hear the information and it is spread throughout society, then when it does in fact become common knowledge, and the government announces: "Yeah, sure, we had to cover it up. It's true, but we had to cover it up because there was no way we could risk panicking the masses!", then everyone will say: "Oh, sure, that makes sense. I understand why they covered up the information."

This Awareness indicates that this may even allow them to avoid having to create a false landing scenario if it is spread enough so that the masses begin to hear the information over a period of time; it may not be necessary for them to play up the landing of a spacecraft, to announce the presence of aliens. This Awareness indicates however, that it still appears likely that this will occur in some time between now and 1992 or some time in the year of 1992.

This Awareness indicates that the year 1997 appears to be a kind of deadline, that if the world is not yet cohesive enough such as might occur with a One World Government, and if this One World Government is not organized in such a way as to be worthy of the loyalty of the masses, then it appears the Reptoid forces will be able to take control of this planet with very little difficulty. If, on the other hand, humanity has pulled together and is prepared to ward off any invading forces from that planet outside of Pluto called Nemesis, or the small moon-sized control or command center that would be used for transporting these entities to earth; if this organization of humanity is not yet prepared to fight against this invasion, then it would seem the earth will be held captive.

Otherwise, there is a good chance that it will continue being run by humans. This Awareness indicates that this of course is not even taking into account the potential for Pleiadians to interfere, for at this time, this is quite a questionable scenario. They have their hands full with other problems.

THE ATTACK ON BILL COOPER

QUESTION:

Ana Roman, of Sun lakes, Arizona (this may be redundant) says there's an article in the UFO Controversy, the UFO magazine where the editor of that magazine has come out stating Bill Cooper is causing disinformation as far as UFOs go. Also that Bo Gritz who always was for truth, wrote a letter to that magazine criticizing Bill Cooper. This is something that is difficult to comprehend, so in fact, Awareness has stated there is a plot to discredit Mr. Cooper. Is this just the beginning?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as in the affirmative; that essentially this information is relatively old. That the UFO magazine, that run by Vickey Cooper as being used for this purpose. The entity does have certain connections with government agencies or government agents and has been influenced to print articles that could be called "Cooper Bashing".

This Awareness indicates that the entity Cooper does have certain ways of relating to others that leave much to be desired. He has a way of making enemies unnecessarily, but most of the entity's information has been accurate. There are other sources of similar or same information, so that one does not have to take Cooper's word for everything. It is just that Cooper has a way of organizing information from these different sources so that an entity can see the overall picture and grasp the full significance of the information.

AVATON:

I believe in Cooper's book Behold a Pale Horse, he responds to the UFO editor's Cooper-bashing statements.

DID U.S. FIGHT ALIENS IN VIETNAM?

QUESTION:

Ana Roman has a question. She writes: "Enclosed is xeroxed copy of an article that appeared in a local New Age paper for February, published here in Phoenix. I wonder if we could ask Awareness to comment if this is true. I'll read the article. It says: "French author claims U.S. fought aliens in Vietnam and won! The U.S. army killed 7 aliens and seized their spacecraft in a secret battle near the end of the war in Vietnam. This is a claim made by author Phillip Didier, in a forthcoming book The War Behind The War: Extraterrestrials In Vietnam."

"It's an incredible story, but it's true, every word of it!", says Didier. "I have a top-secret eyes only, CIA file that describes the battle and its outcome." Portions of the document have been blacked out, the basic information is there for anyone to see. The United States army had a violent encounter with extraterrestrials in Vietnam in 1973. The author, who lives in France, refuses to reveal how he obtained the CIA documents, but insists that they came from an "unimpeachable high-ranking U.S. intelligence source."

"In his new book, which is set for publication within a year, Didier quotes extensively from these documents. The book is also supposed to have actual photos of the events he talks about. According to Didier, a battle group consisting of two infantry battalions and a tank regiment were directed to an unspecified site in South Vietnam in April, 1973. After they arrived, he claims they evacuated a 14 square mile area of all civilians, engaged the aliens in a two-hour battle, and emerged victorious.

"After the battle", says Didier, "seven rail-thin large-eyed extraterrestrials and 650 American soldiers were buried in a mass grave. They then dismantled a bullet-shaped alien spacecraft and eventually shipped it back to the United States piece by piece. I go into much more detail in my book, but the conclusion is inescapable. The United States military had a close encounter with space aliens in Vietnam," says Didier.

"To the best of my knowledge, the Americans still have the spaceship and possibly even a few weapons that were recovered. Didier has appealed to the CIA and the U.S. army to release additional information. "The only official who bothered to take my telephone calls denied that a battle with extraterrestrials ever took place", the author said, "but I know better, and my book will prove it."

Would Awareness comment on that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this information is that which is based on reality. This Awareness indicates also that there is further information in regard to alien presence during the Vietnam war through information released by Bill English. This Awareness indicates that this was not uncommon or extremely secretive information at the time. In fact, there were many entities who knew of the alien presence during the war, but the information received little press coverage and little publication was given in this regard until recent times.

QUESTIONER (AVATON):

What kind of aliens were these and what was the purpose of the battles?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these were the Greys. It appears that there were the big-nose Greys and some of the short Greys; that it was an effort by the military to capture the craft, and to destroy the inhabitants. This Awareness indicates that these entities were seen as hostile because they responded to armed combatants in a certain way, and therefore, they were attacked and destroyed. The entities in charge of the battle did not have higher authority or knowledge as to how to proceed, nor did they know who to contact for such instruction, and therefore acted autonomously in regard to this situation.

WHITLEY STRIEBER'S BOOK COMMUNION (It's Now a Controversial Movie)

QUESTION:

Vickey Babayco writes: "Have you seen the movie Communion? Has Awareness commented on it yet? It was excellent as far as conditioning us to the Greys and so forth, but at the end the wife was saying they were "gods", and they gave her husband a gift, and the Zeta face at the end was like we are supposed to worship these beings. Not too positive as to warning us not to worship them! Strange movie. Did the Zetas have something to do with promoting them as the "good guys"? Is this movie made from that book Communion that CAC offers?"

"My friend who saw the movie with me caught the 'conditioning' right away-- Others will probably want to be abducted after seeing this movie if they had no previous information as to how nasty these beings are. What a complicated mess! Has anybody else sent you comments on this movie? The world is enfolding (sic) to the alien situation and now I can see how most will be tricked."

Would Awareness comment, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the entity's book Communion as that which was written by the entity after he had received implants by the aliens, and it is common for entities who have been abducted and given implants to worship their abductors, partly because they are given certain kind of stimulation that creates a feeling of euphoria prior to their release, thus, they recall mostly the euphoric feeling from the drug or electronic simulation that gives them the sense of euphoria and they perceive it as a spiritual experience.

This Awareness indicates that the aliens, these small Greys, like to be worshipped. They like humans to see them as gods. It is for them much like having pets and the feeling they get from lap-dog humans, is much like the feelings humans get from having a loving pet or dog that worships them. This Awareness indicates that in fact, it can be used to one's advantage in that if one is ever abducted by these Greys and they seek to have you obey them, and instead you express great hostility toward them and great anger, they may let you go, because they do not like having angry humans aboard their ship, for fear of what they might do, when they can just as easily go get a more friendly and worshipping human to take aboard their ship.

Get Angry If Abducted and Aliens May Release You

This Awareness indicates essentially, they do not know how to deal with angry humans. There have been a number of cases wherein they simply turn them loose rather than trying to deal with them. It is much like the saying among some of the street gang people: "Don't mess with crazies." They are afraid of entities who appear to be crazy for fear that they cannot really control them, and a crazy person may react in a way that is totally spontaneous and unexpected, and if you are dealing with a crazy person, you could get hurt. The aliens feel that way about humans who are angry, because they do not understand the emotion, and consider them as volatile and unpredictable.

YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF ALIENS AS TIME GOES BY MAY BE NEEDED

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that there are many facets of the alien scenario which can lead to more and more questions, many of these are of idle curiosity at this point. This Awareness indicates that some questions may, over a period of time, be formed in regard to significant concerns, actions and interest in regard to events or potentialities. This Awareness indicates that as time passes and the information begins to set in to consciousness as something that is there and entities become more familiar with the concepts of alien presence, the intensity of the issue will diminish, and when or if it begins to arise in mass consciousness levels, those who have thus far been given information, those who have researched and studied the phenomena will look about in society at all those who are just discovering the presence of aliens, and will ask: "What is all the fuss about?"

This Awareness indicates that you will be the calm ones during the great time of nervousness and fear that others experience, and if they ask you: "Aren't you afraid?", you may answer that: "No", you are not afraid because you already went through the fear, and went through the concern and apprehension and it is essentially old news to you, and in your calmness you will be able to calm others, and you will be able to deal with the situations that occur in your environment or circle of friends in such a manner as to be able to inform them and answer the many questions that may be thrown at you about aliens, and you will find yourself a leader in a community of agitated and concerned people.

This Awareness indicates that this can be of great value, not only to yourself and your own peace of mind at such a time, but also may be of great value to others.

Thank you) The Law of Gratitude is given.

ALIENS FROM THE "LIGHT SIDE"

( Interdimensional Beings: Lots of "hot air" but Can't Interfere)

QUESTION:

A question from Gaetane Vallee who lives in Quebec; she writes:

"Speaking of UFO's, I have read some comments by Awareness about the Dark Side: those who do harm around here and who seem to plan to invade earth, but I would really like to know full details about those of the Light Side: those "angels," elder brothers, or whatever names who were here to help us in the beginning and who may have left, but they must not have vanished. Are they not ready to come back where there are some to be saved in this end time, or this evil time?"

There is a series of names that are mentioned, like Commander Ashtar by Tuella, the Countess Di Oulmont in Belgium, and so forth. Also, a long list of high beings like Lord Sananda, Kuthimi, Moira, Morya, Michael, Gabriel, Jophiel, Raphael, Chamuel, Zadkiel, Uriel, Serapis Bey, Hilarion, Andromeda, Soltec, Korton, etc, Would Awareness comment on this topic and on the sources of this writing?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are energies associated with that which is what may be termed the Intergalactic Confederation, This Awareness indicates that these referring to the association of beings whose agreement to abide by certain standards of behavior as that which has been long-standing. This Awareness indicates that these entities as those whose non-intervention policy prevents them from entering into a relationship with entities on the earth plane without the special invitation. This Awareness indicates that they also have the policy of preventing alien invasion into the earth plane in large numbers by any of those of the lesser developed beings.

This Awareness indicates, however, they tend to have a hands off policy in regards to the minor intrusions by such entities and particularly wherein the humans allow or invite these aliens to remain or allow them to enter in without objection. This Awareness indicates that the nature of these entities as that which relates not so much, in most cases, to the physical realm; these entities being more assigned to interdimensional realms in consciousness. This Awareness reminds you, of course, that even the physical realm is a realm of consciousness, but it is a realm of consciousness that is particularly susceptible to the perceptions of the senses. This Awareness indicates that just because the senses cannot perceive the interdimensional or other realms does not mean they are any less real. It is more that your senses, being especially adapted to reading or perceiving certain frequencies and vibrations, causes the physical realm to appear to be more solid in that which you refer to as matter, the so-called 'real world,' to you.

This Awareness indicates this does not mean that these entities cannot traverse into your so-called 'real world' or enter into that frequency level. It is possible. It is not, however, the natural or comfortable position for these entities. It takes great energy for them to materialize. This Awareness indicates that these entities can and do prefer remaining in other dimensional levels and simply giving messages and guidance information to those in this so-called 'real world.' This Awareness does not see the need to comment, on the individuals named as individual commentaries, since this has been published in great detail in other works of other individuals and channels.

The Greys: What Are "The Rules of the Game?"

QUESTION:

Sheila Parker sent about 6 pages of questions related to all of this, I'll ask one of them here. "As mentioned in the book The Matrix, what are the "rules of the game" concerning Greys and all their densities.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that much of this has been given, that even there in The Matrix has been given information in regard to the Greys in their particular behavioral pattern. This Awareness indicates that essentially, these beings have certain obligations and responsibilities to the rules which they themselves adopt for their own behavior, while also having certain obligations to the rules or laws pertaining to materialization and the involvement in terms of the frequencies and their ability to maintain a stability in this or that frequency. This Awareness indicates that it is not what may be termed 'rules of the game' so much as laws of physics that govern different types of vibratory beings in their displacement or placement in other frequency levels.

The Frequency Level Can Have a Profound Effect

Wherein, for example, one enters into an alien frequency level, the frequency level may have a profound effect upon the frequency of the individual to the point where the entity may not be able to sustain a long endurance in that frequency level. It would be much likened unto one in your physical plane attempting to live a prolonged experience in the astral plane, for example, or in the etheric plane. This Awareness indicates that one can only tolerate certain vibrations and frequencies for so long without having some damage done to the vibrations that are inhabiting the other levels or planes for that being.

This Awareness indicates that there are beings whose energy levels are such that to participate in one frequency lower than where they normally participate is possible, but they cannot penetrate into these frequency levels that reach into higher dimensions. This Awareness indicates that, for example, those beings which are referred to as the Dark Forces have a certain amount of intelligence that may surpass and allow them to see and understand things that surpass your own perception of the future. For example, they may see certain things in your future and be able to give information that proves to be accurate, or they may see information associated with something at a distance and give the information which may prove to be accurate, or they may have a certain kind of influence on one's energy so that the entity becomes possessed or responds accordingly to that influence; and they may, in so doing, influence the entity to participate in some kind of behavior that is not in the best interest of the entity or those around the entity, and in this manner, they may perpetrate some kind of negative influence on an individual and may cause future events to occur to that individual that are of a negative nature and they may appear to be supernatural in that they may appear to have some special insight or knowledge of a greater resource or greater understanding than the individual might perceive from his or her limited view of reality. But the one thing that these lower beings do not have, even in spite of their alleged, or their apparent higher intelligence, they are unable to see the more broad and more general long-term scenario which is available to those Light Beings, the ones who have risen above self-interest and are representative of the more cosmic and spiritual energies.

This Awareness indicates thus, those reflectors of Ahriman may appear to have certain powers which entities may consider as being great or powerful, but they are also limited, and where they may look to be supernatural or superpowerful, their superiority is only in certain degree to a certain level, whereas the truly spiritual beings have the insight and the higher vision, and ability to see the final results of these manipulations of the lower beings, so that they can actually foresee and foretell the outcome of the mischief caused by the lower beings. These may be considered as part of the rules of the game; that the lower beings have only a limited power as compared to those higher beings who can see beyond the limitations.

This Awareness indicates that the term 'Greys' as defined in the Matrix book as those which relate to different frequency vibratory rates of aliens, and these terms as being somewhat arbitrarily chosen to represent these beings. They do not think of themselves as various shades of gray or call themselves Greys; they think of themselves by other names. This Awareness indicates that much of this is given in the book itself. This Awareness suggests that in general 'the rules of the game, if that is a correct term, have to do with the abilities according to the frequency levels and the physics that are involved in those frequency levels and their manipulations in regard to the dimensions or octaves from which these manipulations may be active.

Like Humans Under Water?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VICKI):

Could a parallel to the frequency problems be analogous to human beings trying to survive underwater for long periods of time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as likened unto an appropriate metaphor, as the term "a fish out of water;" that certain of these beings are out of their environment, their normal environment, when entering into the particular environment that is most suitable for humans. This Awareness indicates it is possible for them to move into that environment briefly. It may not be possible to remain there for any long duration of time. This Awareness indicates in other instances they may only be able to move into that other frequency partially, wherein part of their being remains in another environment or another frequency or dimension, but they can project their mind or their influence or an astral shell or body or image into this frequency which is comfortable to you, and therefore, they do not fully enter into your dimension.

This Awareness indicates still others may be able to fully enter into your dimension for a long enough period of time that you would look at them and say: "These beings are from another planet or from another place, and have physical substance." In fact, their bodies might be quite tangible. This Awareness indicates that in other words, they can materialize into your realm, even though they may have originated in another realm, and they may in some instances, be able to hold that materialization. This Awareness indicates that it all depends on the types of beings and their capacity to transmute their energies from one frequency level to another.

The Universe is Filled With Frequencies

This Awareness indicates that the universe is filled with frequencies. Your senses perceive a very limited number of these frequencies. Because of that limited perception, you only see a very small fraction of a percent of the beings and realms that inhabit the universe. That small percent you may call Terrestria or the material world. There are many other creations that lie beyond your sense perception, and in these other creations there are beings who inhabit them and some of these beings also have limited perception and cannot see you or your realm of Terrestria.

This Awareness indicates that as beings evolve into higher more complex creatures, they take on the ability to traverse the frequencies much in the manner that a higher quality radio, for example, might be able to pick up a number of stations broadcasting on different frequencies, as compared to a cheap radio that can only pick up one station broadcasting on one particular frequency. This Awareness indicates that as entities become more perceptive to pick up on these many frequencies, they also become more capable of seeing, attuning, contacting the various beings from different frequencies, and there can, in time, become what may be termed interdimensional trade, just as you can have international trade.

Certain Holy Men Can Manifest Objects Out of Nothing

This Awareness indicates this is not something that the earthiens generally perceive as being practical application material, but the time will come when this kind of interdimensional travel and trade and exchange of information will be developed. This Awareness indicates, for example, there are some rare entities, certain holy men, for example, as described in Yogananda's book, Autobiography of A Yogi, who have exhibited the power of manifestation, creating for example, perfume out of nothing, so that the air is filled with perfume by the wave of their hand, or whereby they may create oranges or other objects out of thin air, so that these entities are in actuality bringing in from other dimensions, into this dimension, manifestations of those things which they visualize.

The New Physics Recognize the Universe as a Mind

This Awareness indicates it takes quite some skill in comparison to that which is considered normal on your plane, to do these things. It also takes a new and different understanding of physics, wherein such entities recognize the entire universe is a mind, and they are simply creating an image in that mind by manifesting an orange, for example, or some other object.

ALL ABOUT THE DIMENSIONS

(What are the First and Second Dimensions?)

QUESTION:

A question from Judith Jones along this line. Awareness may have answered it but I'm going to ask: "What are first and second dimensions? How do they relate to our concept of three dimensions, i.e., height, width, depth. We are third, Can we also perceive first and second? If not, why can fourth dimensional beings perceive all four, while we cannot perceive those lesser to us?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in the classic definition of dimensions, as has been given by your scientists and thinkers, the first dimension would be a dot. It would have no width, and no height, and no depth. In fact, if there were such a dot, with no width, no height, and no depth, it would not have any real substance. It would only be a hypothetical idea, because even the smallest dot, the smallest dot imaginable would have to have some height, some depth, some width, but hypothetically, the first dimension would be a focal point. This focal point can be made into a line, hypothetically, that has width, but has no height and no depth, and therefore, again, even that having width but no height or depth, could not in actuality exist except hypothetically, because even a line drawn on a piece of paper having no height or depth could not exist, for if lead is spread across the paper, the lead has a certain depth. It is piled up on the paper. It would be measurable with the right instruments, and it has a certain width,

This Awareness indicates therefore, even the line is but hypothetical and does not exist, This Awareness indicates that likewise, if this line is moved into such that from both ends you take and draw another line outward, and form a sheet (this being seen as having width and depth); that sheet cannot yet exist until you acknowledge that it has height. It may be ever so thin, but it must have height before it can exist as a reality. When it has height, width and depth, then it is perceived as being in the third dimension, as being a three dimensional object. This Awareness indicates that many of your thinkers consider a flat sheet as being two dimensional, but in actuality, a flat sheet has to have a thickness, The thickness may be ever so thin, but that thickness is height, and therefore, it becomes a tangible three-dimensional object.

A Three Dimensional Object Must Exist Somewhere In Time

This Awareness indicates that such an object has to exist somewhere in time, a time being a certain duration. Now if that duration is not present again, it cannot exist, but if the duration is present, that third or three dimensional object can exist and this third dimensional object being placed in time, having a moment of existence or an eternity of existence, is said to have a substance of reality. It would be tangible. This Awareness indicates that you will notice at this point, that until it reaches that fourth dimension, which includes height, width and depth and time, it doesn't exist. It can't exist, but once it has height, width, depth and time, it exists.

Edgar Cayce Said Imagination Is the Fourth Dimension

This Awareness indicates that in the Edgar Cayce material, this entity channeled that imagination was the fourth dimension. This Awareness indicates that this is perhaps the most accurate definition, for once the thing comes into existence in time with height, width, and depth, then it can be imaged, then it has its own image in reality. It becomes a substance in the image of the perceiver, whoever can perceive such a thing. This Awareness indicates that the theoretical concept of two dimensions, a second dimension, for example, that of a flat sheet or perhaps just a line, is only a concept, hypothetical and without substance, but theoretically, if such a thing could exist, the concept of many is that the beings who live there would all be flat. In fact, the beings would be so flat they would have no height at all, therefore, they would be nonexistent. They would only have width and length.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, with one dimension, they would only be a focal point and that focal point would have no height, width, or depth and therefore, would hold nothing. This Awareness indicates that in actuality, the first, second, and third dimensions don't actually exist. They are only possible in the imagination of the mind and reflect from the fourth dimension, that which holds time and duration as part of its expression. This Awareness indicates that It has in previous messages suggested that to be more factual, only the fourth dimension exists in terms of the first four. The first four dimensions exist only because duration allows the other three, and the first three depend on each other and on the fourth, to have any substance.

The Other Dimension After the Fourth Is Place

After the fourth dimension is created, there must be another, and some attribute this not to time, some attribute this to place. A place is a relative thing. Is it to the right of a focal point, or is it at the focal point? What is place? If there is only one thing in existence in the universe, its placement is where it is, but it cannot be compared, because there is no other place to compare it with, so time, space, place, and the so-called third dimensional quality of a thing, all are interdependent and cannot really exist without each other.

Beyond the Fifth Dimension is "Possibilities"

This Awareness indicates that beyond the fifth dimension there is that which some call possibilities; in other words, the options that a thing may have. Is it possible for the thing to exist for a longer period of time, a shorter period of time, to have a greater width, a greater height, a greater depth, or to be of a different kind of texture? All these possibilities can enter in, and some consider dimension as being possibilities. This the fifth or sixth dimension, depending on who is thinking and how they arrange their thoughts to define these things.

There are those who speak also of other dimensions beyond the possibilities, one being the impossible. It is impossible for the thing to exist and not exist simultaneously, according to this theory, and therefore, the impossibility becomes part of the equation of dimension. This Awareness indicates there are also some who say there are dimensions beyond this, such as the possible impossibilities and the impossible possibilities. This Awareness indicates it is all arbitrary as to how entities wish to arrange these different concepts in regard to dimensions.

When this Awareness generally speaks of dimensions It is referring to frequency levels or vibrations, wherein an entity is in existence in a frequency or vibratory rate that allows it to perceive certain things on that frequency or vibratory rate in such a manner as to give it a sense of reality, a perception of reality, and anything that it cannot perceive within its reality is theoretically classed as something from another dimension. This Awareness indicates that the term 'dimension' has so many applications as to what it refers to; there is really no way to properly define it. There is very little understanding of the Universal Physics, it relates mostly to psychics or the art of conscious maneuverings.

The universe being a conscious being, and the mind being that which creates through conceptual visualization, creates different appearances and images which it terms real in one sense or a dream in another sense or an hallucination in still another sense, and yet all of these are creations of the mind. They also can be seen as different dimensions. This Awareness indicates that just as the brain operates on alpha waves, beta, theta, delta, these different wave frequencies or vibrations allow a different perception in that mind, for that mind, which is reflective of reality.

The Beta Wave Consciousness

Most entities think that the beta wave consciousness reflects reality. They think that because it is the most common experience in the day-to-day working state. This Awareness indicates that it is all a matter of how an entity wishes to define or to describe their reality. The reality of the dreamer is different from the reality of the one who has awakened from the dream. The reality of the one who is in an alpha state is different from the one who is in the beta state of consciousness. This Awareness indicates those in the theta state may be accused by those in the beta state of seeing hallucinations, but to the one in the theta state, these are not hallucinations; these are realities. They are seeing something in a dimension that the beta state consciousness cannot perceive.

This Awareness indicates that to answer a question such as: What are the dimensions? would be to answer for one in the beta state of consciousness and it would be inaccurate without considering that the beta state of consciousness is limited to a narrow band of reality which perceives something from a particular level which does not apply on other levels at all. This Awareness indicates that therefore, the question is unanswerable in the higher sense, in the cosmic sense, for an answer would only apply in a narrow band of truth and on other bands, the answer would be false. This Awareness suggests, however, that just for the sake of convenience, this Awareness suggests you think of dimensions as bands or frequencies, each being different from the other on a scale that follows musical vibrations.

For example, the electromagnetic scale, or some kind of harmonic frequencies that allow entities to switch their consciousness from one frequency band to another, from one reality to another; and when in a particular reality, they are, so to speak, in that dimension, and when in another band of reality, they are in a different dimension.

Asleep and Awake are Different Dimensions of Reality

For example, when asleep, are you in the same dimension as you are when you awaken from that Sleep? This Awareness suggests that you consider these as different dimensions of reality, this for convenience sake, not as a kind of scientific argument, for there can be no real scientific argument in regard to such discussions of reality which is altered every time an entity changes frequency.

Frequencies the same as "The Inner Planes?"

( Using the Television Set as the Analogy )

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

These frequencies are essentially the same as when Awareness refers to the inner planes, are they not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates it is likened unto changing channels on your television set. An entity who is somehow, for example, born in a room in which the entire wall is a television screen, who does not have the knowledge or understanding that he can change the picture or program on the screen, and if placed there from childhood up, watching a certain channel, and knows all the people that come on the screen day after day, and know these were family; this entity would gradually develop the sense that this is reality, this is the reality, this is the only reality. Yet, suppose that someone in a control room somewhere also, were to take this television screen which had played these images and these programs of these individuals for, say twenty years for this entity, establishing for this entity his ultimate reality; suppose someone changed the channel on this entity, suddenly.

The entity's entire reality would change. Supposing that rather than changing the reality, someone were to come into the room where the TV was playing and simply tell the entity that this is not the only reality. There is another reality. There are many other realities on different frequencies, and it is possible to change the channel, to channel other frequencies, to channel other realities. Do you think that the entity would believe it, until he had it demonstrated to him? If this entity had only seen the one channel, and only the one program, repeatedly, for twenty years from birth, the entity would not believe that there was any other possible reality. This Awareness indicates that even if you tell the entity: "These realities can be changed. I have stepped into other dimensions. I have seen other things. I have experienced other programs, other realities from other channels," would you be believed, or would you be seen as one of the lunatic fringe?

"In My Father's House Are Many Mansions"

This Awareness indicates that only those who understand the makeup of the vibrations being used in the creation of the screen or those who have experienced the other dimensions, other channels, other images, would believe the possibility of these other mansions or dimensions. Thus, the statements: 'In my Father's house are many mansions,' is but a reference to the multiple octaves or frequency channels available for entities to experience in this universal house, in this screen in which you have grown up in for this sojourn on earth. You are locked into and viewing the same screen, day after day, year after year. The story changes slightly, but the characters come in and out and the situation tends to be the same, so that you're watching the same program throughout your life. You see the same dimension, the same reality. Only if you slip into another dimension, another channel, flip the tuning knob, enter another reality, only then do you realize how many worlds there are out there.

This Awareness does not intend to propel you into these many worlds that you might see all these things, but does wish you to understand how such can be, that the realities of one channel can be quite different from those of another, and that which you see as your reality is but a small band in the overall frequency scale of all of the electromagnetic spectrum. This Awareness indicates there is an entire spectrum of frequencies permeating the universe, and entities can attune to any frequency in the universe. Once you attune to a frequency, it is easy to become hypnotized by it, just as one can get sucked into any program and not want to turn the channel, and essentially, this is what one's life is.

One enters into a lifetime and experiences a drama known as one's life, and when that time comes in which the play is over for that entity, for that character, the entity shifts into another experience, another channel, another drama, another lifetime, another dimension, and thus entities traverse the resonating magnetic spectrum eternally, moving higher or lower on the frequency scale. In moving higher it is seen as evolution. In moving lower it is seen as involution, or becoming involved in the more gross, dense matters or frequencies.

This Awareness indicates that you visualize this entity who has never seen anything other than this particular channel on his television screen in the room in which he was born, and you visualize some voice coming out over the speaker saying to this entity: "Well, it's getting late now, and it's time to go to sleep again, so I'm going to put you into another dimension called sleep," and this entity flips the dial and turns the entity, the television, to a channel that has more subdued tones, more relaxing tones, and the entity then is in a different dimension called sleep. Is this that much different from your reality? Do you not enter into sleep daily by shifting into a different mental frequency?

The Different Dimensions are Also Called Bardos

There is a certain movement of consciousness that shifts you out of your so-called reality, into your sleep state. This Awareness indicates these different dimensions have also been called bardos. The sleep state is referred to as a bardo. This Awareness indicates there are also those bardos or states of consciousness known as meditation. This essentially locks into the alpha state. This Awareness indicates that the alpha state normally is that which is a higher consciousness than the beta state. The sleep state is that which is still different. The theta and delta state are often touched during a sleep state,

This Awareness indicates that in essence, these may be thought of as the different dimensions. This idea of labeling things from points to lines to planes to tangible objects as dimensions is not quite accurate. These may be considered as dimensions of matter or image, but dimensions of reality have to do with vibratory rates, frequencies, and the realities that are perceived while experiencing those frequencies and vibratory rates. This Awareness suggests you may call these 'dimensions of consciousness,' if that is convenient, as compared to 'dimensions of matter' or 'image,' in regard to the usual scientific gropings for understanding of dimension, of the concept of dimensions.

Is There a Divine Overseer?

QUESTION:

Sheila Parker has a question related to earlier information. She writes: "In the book UFO Contact From Andromeda, it is mentioned that this planet has no Overseer. Could this be explained more? Would a Divine Overseer prevent the negative space aliens from intruding upon this planet and its people?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this concept or statement from this book as that which is creating a perception that does not necessarily have a basis. This Awareness indicates that there is the Overseer of the planet for some entities, referred to as Kal; the entity being perceived as the Lord of the Planet; this by the Hindus, as being one which was less than perfect, which has dominion over the planet and the people, and in the Christian doctrine, the entity who is perceived as the Overseer in Judeo-Christian doctrines is referred to as God. In the Moslem religion this entity is referred to as Allah. This Awareness indicates it is questionable as to why this entity says there is no Overseer and what the entity who wrote this information has in mind, other than that it implies there is no Overseer suitable to the entity who authored the book. You would find many entities disagreeing with this author from the various religions mentioned.

The Concept of Kal the Destructive God

This Awareness indicates that in regard to the Overseer having an effect on the Dark or Alien Forces, these entities would also argue that their God, their Allah, their Kal, has certain powers and has certain effects. This Awareness indicates the concept of Kal as that which is a destructive deity, not the highest, which rules this planet, and one whom entities must get beyond in order to find salvation or eternal rest. This Awareness indicates the reference in this book as that which cannot be answered satisfactorily because of the premise on which it is based. If one presumes the premise that there is no deity or Overseer of the planet, and then attempts to answer why there is no Overseer, it simply comes back to the acceptance of the author's assumption that there is no Overseer.

The Psychic Who Wins Many Lotteries

(16 Lottery Jackpots In a Row: How Does He Do It?)

QUESTION:

Awareness has given much information on gambling in the lottery. There is recently a story in one of the tabloids about a psychic who wins lotteries, and I'd like to read this and ask Awareness if this is a valid story or one of those that they make up. It says:

"A little known psychic has quickly earned an international reputation, along with a sizable fortune, after demonstrating his mind-blowing ability to predict the future by winning 16 lottery jackpots in a row. Paolo Costa, the flamboyant 27 year old psychic who lives in Rio De Janeiro, has already won over a hundred and thirty millions dollars and vowed to keep playing and winning Brazil's national lottery.

To win Brazil's lottery, the winner must pick 6 out of 54 numbers, plus a bonus number, making it one of the hardest lotteries in the world to win.

"I am out to prove a point, and the point is that I am the most accurate psychic in the world," Costa told reporters at a news conference following his latest lottery win of $1.5 million.

Lottery Officials, meanwhile, have moved to bar Costa from playing the Brazilian lottery ever again. "We are seeking a court order that would prohibit Paolo Costa from participating in the lottery," said Jeraido Bastos, a spokesman for the National Lottery. "We have also proposed new legislation that would change the rules, so that people who win the lottery cannot play again," he said.

Costa has become a celebrity over the course of his amazing 16 week winning streak, but few people paid any attention four months ago, when the psychic announced on a radio talk show that he would win the lottery.

"Even after I won the first time there was skeptics who said it was just a lucky guess for me to pick the winning lottery numbers," Costa said. "The only way to convince them that my powers are for real, was to win again." Costa won the lottery again and again; his popularity and his bank account grow week after week. The psychic has donated several million dollars to several Brazilian charities and earmarked a large chunk of his winnings for a psychic research center he wants to establish in Rio De Janeiro.

If officials succeed in banning Costa from the Brazilian National Lottery, he says he will launch a world tour to play the lottery in every country that has one. There are about 60 countries, including China and the Soviet Union that have lotteries and I will win each and every one of them," Costa said. "But this is not about money. I have more than I'll ever need. This is about the power of knowing the future and I want everyone to know the power is real."

Lottery spokesman Bastos said an exhaustive investigation has been conducted into Costa's winning streak and no wrong-doing was found. "Either there is something to this psychic stuff, or Paolo Costa is the luckiest man who ever lived," Bastos said.

That was the end of the article. I'd like to ask Awareness is this story true? And if so, how does he do it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it is an accurate account of the entity's winnings. This Awareness indicates that essentially the story is true, but this Awareness suggests that in regard to the question: How does he do it?, that is not so easy to answer. This Awareness indicates that there are certain principles in consciousness that occur on occasion for entities, and which, if better understood by those entities could be developed. It would require considerable effort. This Awareness indicates that to a large degree it would require that entities be educated along different lines, or that they forego certain experiences in normal life, in order to have those special powers or qualities of consciousness.

This Awareness indicates the question might be as well asked of you, the questioner: How did you perceive two days ago, four hours before it happened, that your dog Sigfried was dead? This Awareness indicates that if you can understand how this occurred, you can also understand how this entity is able to pick certain numbers ahead of time. This Awareness indicates that how is it that when an entity is asleep, they will often have some dream or something in which they lead up to a point or event whereby, for example, a bell begins to ring? For example, one may be dreaming that he or she has entered a building. They are walking along in this building. They know they should not be there. Suddenly, the burglar alarm starts ringing. It shocks them. They awaken to discover that the alarm clock is ringing. The questions is: Did the alarm clock trigger the dream of entering a forbidden place which triggered the burglar alarm, or did the dreamer perceive that the alarm clock was about to ring and therefore, create the dream leading up to its ringing?

This Awareness indicates there is such a thing as the mind going backward from future into present, just as there is the thing of the mind going backward from present into the past, or from past into the present. It is possible for entities to project into the future and come back to the present, in mental states, just as did you in regard to your dog and the accident which had not yet happened but which you perceived prior to its happening. This Awareness indicates it is the same principle. It is not something that this Awareness can simply explain to the satisfaction so that everyone can rush out and do it.

This Awareness indicates that there is a certain state of consciousness in which the mind is capable of leaping ahead in time, and coming back with information. It is a frequency. It is an attunement to a certain frequency. It involves emotions. It involves a certain kind of relaxation. It involves a certain way of emptying the mind of everything else, and it involves generally a kind of trauma or intense situation. These energies and frequencies combine, to allow the entity to project into the future, or to see something at a distance, or to know something is going to happen, just prior to its happening or some time before its happening.

This Awareness indicates that generally, this kind of perception and mental activity is educated out of entities, because they are taught to think linearly, and not to trust these impressions, but to think in terms of words and lines and logic, and words and lines and logic tend to hinder these perceptions of a psychic nature. It is for this reason that many entities who live in more primitive societies have more of this faculty available to them, but it is not imperative that an entity have an empty and unlearned mind in order for the entity to have such experiences.

These experiences can happen if the entity even has moments in which the mind is free and open to this possibility, but it is something that most entities cannot trigger at will. This entity, Paolo, is an exceptional being in this regard, not necessarily in other regards, but in this regard, the entity is exceptional.

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

He's a living example of what the Wall Street trader has been saying for years, that if I could read tomorrow's paper today, I would be a millionaire.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This in the affirmative.

Would Deep Hypnosis Help See the Future?

QUESTIONER:

Would it be possible through deep hypnosis in which entities can be taken down to see the past, could they also be taken down to see the future?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this would be one method or tool for developing such. It would depend on the skill and the understanding of the hypnotist and the openness of the individual involved, and any mental faculties that are available to the entity involved would also play a part of this.

READ THIS READING OVER AND OVER

CLOSING MESSAGE

This Awareness indicates there have been many things discussed in this message which can give entities much food for thought. It is suggested that these messages be read once and then read again at a later time, for there will be deeper understanding with subsequent readings; that there are certain areas discussed in some of these questions and answers that have certain level of meaning which would be understood at a first readings but which, upon subsequent readings, would yield even more in-depth information for entities who wish to have deeper understanding of dimensions or frequencies and vibrations and the nature of the universe surrounding them and their perception of it. This Awareness suggests therefore, that you consider this particular reading as a special reading, to be reviewed subsequently at another time, once or twice further.

Thank you.

HOW IS THE INNER PLANE GOVERNED?

(Awareness Defines the 144 Aspects In Consciousness)

QUESTION:

Some questions from Jim Karvoski, Manchester, CT. I'll read his statement cause there's a whole lot of questions in it, but I'll have to read it so it'll make some sense. Then I'll go back and ask specifics if Awareness so desires.

He writes: "Awareness has indicated previously that there is a council of 144 on the inner plane; that recently they came into agreement. What were the questions they decided on?"

"How did these decisions affect us on earth? If they have disputes, would this indicate they are also victims of an ego to some extent? Are they subject to political squabbles and disputes? Are there, or have there ever been factions? How is the inner plane governed? It has been said that a council is also in charge of Hades. Also, that there is a Council of Andromeda, et cetera.

"If the universe is gradually cosmologically switching over to the feminine side as Awareness indicated in the mid 1970's, would this show more of the Unified States of Awareness energy, the Cosmic Democracy energy accelerating throughout the universe? At first glance it seems all of these councils must be pretty wise and do not trust those that the decisions are intended for with the authority and responsibility and ability to manage chaos."

That's his statement.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the question refers to a lot of scattered messages given over a period of some thirty years. This Awareness indicates that by pulling them all together into one single concept, it would imply that they are all part of a message that needs to be clarified somewhat.

The Energies Created by the Organization of Awareness

This Awareness reminds entities that the 144 on the inner plane was a reference to energies that came about from meditation in the time of the Organization of Awareness through the channelship surrounding Ralph Duby. This Awareness indicates that this 144 aspects in consciousness was not so much a council of entities sitting around a table, but was rather a focal point for Universal Consciousness itself on that inner dimension or inner plane that may be referred to as pure consciousness as opposed to materialism.

This Awareness indicates that it more or less aligned the crystalline structure in consciousness so that Universal Consciousness was not being shattered by separateness and egotism of the 144 entities who had in historic time over long periods of time created a kind of schism in consciousness, exemplified by the concept of Rhyee and Isis for that which has also been termed the fall of Lucifer and his archangels.

This Awareness indicates that all of this of course is symbolic more than actual, but symbolism on the inner plane is much of a reality in a kind of arrangement in consciousness so that the symbolism of 144 facets of consciousness creates the image or concept of a diamond with 144 facets, to give the symbolic imagery of a consciousness that is now harmonic and structurally clear and pure and balanced.

This Awareness indicates that this message at that time was intended to inform the listeners to the message that the inner plane consciousness or that which is the consciousness of the collective biosphere, or human biosphere and its combined or collective consciousness, was now in a harmony that would allow the filtering of cosmic energy to pour forth onto this plane.

This Awareness indicates that it had nothing to do with the implication that there was 144 separate egos on the inner plane who could not get together until some kind of council was called that put them together, but this too could be perceived, if entities want to think of these facets in consciousness as individuals or beings who could not get together and act harmoniously.

This Awareness indicates rather, if you wish to think of it in this way, recognize that the discussion was in reference to the distortions of certain forces being carried by separative actions from the fall of Lucifer, and that the reorganizing on the inner plane was an action in consciousness that brought these forces back into harmony.

What the Council of Andromeda Is And What It Does

This Awareness indicates in regard to the Andromeda Council, these references suggest groups of entities from various aspects of the Andromeda galaxy that give their time and focus and attention to the schisms across the galaxy and into other galaxies for the purpose of making a kind of policy in regard to the disputes that occur elsewhere in an effort to bring harmony throughout the galaxies, so that the harmonies can be used to work out differences in various locales.

It is not that they themselves have to have control or have to create rules or are egotistical in their positions and policy making. It is more that they are attempting to find ways to help bring about suggested policies for these various polarized situations through the galaxies, and therefore, with their suggestions, with the policies or rules that they come up with, these are passed on to others who are in agreement for them to use as suggestions or to implement in their area if they so desire.

It is not that they are dictating policy on a cosmic sense, but that they are trying to work out policies that benefit if entities choose to use those policies. This Awareness indicates that the concept of councils in higher vibratory situations was quite different from that of councils on earth in this regard, wherein councils on earth often are organized for the purpose of creating laws and rules that are finalized and fixed and enforced, but these entities do not consider the results of their meetings and communications as necessarily something to be enforced on others.

This Awareness indicates that if this has not completely clarified or answered the question that other aspects of the question may now be repeated.

How Is The Inner Plane Governed?

QUESTIONER:

I suppose the basic question was: How is the inner plane governed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in this which the entity refers to as the inner plane, it is a reference to the aspects of consciousness, and consciousness essentially is governed by realization whereby some aspect of consciousness has an understanding and realization of something and another aspect of consciousness misses out or does not understand or does not perceive things in the same way and may be brought back into contact with the aspect of consciousness and does have such understanding, and when this occurs there is a transference of consciousness that allows the other that moves into attunement to perceive things in a similar manner so that it is not a matter of governing or enforcing, but it is a matter of making those aspects aware by sharing the awareness of one aspect of consciousness with another.

The Illusion on Earth That All Bodies Are Separate

This Awareness indicates that the confusion on this may occur because the illusion entities on the earth plane tend to have in regard to the belief that bodies are separate from each other in accordance with the senses and their way of perceiving information. They see different individuals and feel separation between individuals and hear different individuals speaking with different personalities and it becomes apparent to the sensual researcher that these entities are indeed separate entities and that they can either agree with each other or be in disharmony and that there needs to be common rules or laws for them to follow in order to allow them to have some kind of harmony in their relationships.

How the Forces on the Inner Plane Perceive Entities

This Awareness indicates that in the inner plane and higher levels of consciousness, the forces do not recognize physical bodies as being the basis for the individuals, and see instead aspects of consciousness that are formed out of concepts and out of different experiences, and in seeing these aspects of consciousness, they recognize that all of these aspects are ultimately connected as one body, with varying distortions as they move out of that unified field of consciousness so that what they really seek is to expand the consciousness to reach to these aspects, and to invite the aspects of consciousness to enter into the unity of the rest of consciousness so that communication and understanding becomes universal among the various parts of consciousness, wherein it is shared with the many facets of consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that this is quite different from thinking of each facet of consciousness as a separate unit, totally apart from each other facet of consciousness.

Is There a Council in Charge of Hades?

QUESTION:

Jim writes that: "It has been said that there is a council also in charge of Hades." Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this again is a kind of metaphorical presentation; that entities like to describe everything in other realms in the way they perceive them in their own realm. This Awareness indicates there are forces operating within the universe; often these forces are nothing other than concepts. Often these forces are likened unto consciousness that holds or glues various facets of a certain type of consciousness together.

The energies of Hades are generally a lower and what may be termed painful kind of consciousness and one could perceive this as having certain central core energy fields holding it together, and if one wanted to, they could call these energy facets entities, and think of it as a council of entities.

Some Entities Like to Classify and Attribute Names to Demons

This Awareness indicates it would be more proper, however, to think of it as a council of energies in a certain level of consciousness; that the energies are not necessarily beings, even though earthlings tend to attribute names or want to attribute names, or would like to have names attributed to these facets of energy so that they could name this facet a certain demon, this facet a different name for a different demon, et cetera, and have all the demons named in a way that personifies these energies as if they were demonic personalities.

No Demons Sitting Around a Table in Hades

It makes it more fun for the human mind to think everything in the cosmology is governed by human shaped beings, either demonic, angelic, or earthling in appearance. But this is not necessarily accurate. That is more of a metaphorical approach. If you wish to be more factual, you do not think of God as a being that is shaped like a human, anthropomorphic in appearance, but you recognize God is a force, an energy that permeates the entire creation, and that the so-called council of Hades is not a group of demons sitting around a table, but is an energy field that holds certain influence on that realm of consciousness that is known as Hades. It in itself is a kind of consciousness expression and it attunes to and influences the realm of Hades in its consciousness level.

This Awareness indicates this is somewhat difficult to explain, but if entities keep their minds open and attempt to look beyond the words at what is being expressed, it becomes easier to understand what this Awareness is saying. It is essentially saying: Don't think of the Hades energies as necessarily being a reference to some secondary world as you know your world to be, and don't think of a council in Hades as being a group of demons sitting around a table plotting and conniving together, for the Hades and council of Hades are more energy form than physical in appearance.

They are in actuality, expressions and pockets of consciousness of certain vibratory that attunes to the frequency of Hades.

Is the Universe Switching to the Unified States of Awareness Energies?

QUESTION:

Jim's last question, as I see it in this statement: "If the universe is gradually, cosmologically switching over to the feminine side as Awareness indicated in the mid-1970's, would this show more of the Unified States of Awareness energy, the cosmic Democracy energy accelerating throughout the universe?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative; that this energy as that which has been placed into consciousness. It has not manifested on the earth plane in the way it may have been perceived by many, but it is in consciousness and it is having an effect, even on earth itself, through consciousness rather than through material appearance.

This Awareness indicates that this will become much more clear to entities when they have moved beyond matter into the consciousness levels, into the Bodies of Light.

AERODYNAMICS BOOK EXPLAINS THE WORKING OF THE UNIVERSE?

(Will Vibrating a Certain Sound cure Autism?)

QUESTION:

A couple of questions from James Swanson, Kent, Ohio. He writes: "In your newsletter you say God is alive and magic is afoot. This is definitely the truth. A Moslem gentleman, Marco Rodin, of San Ysidro, California, (P.O. Box 432623) has written a huge book called Aerodynamics, which mathematically explains the entire workings of the universe. It appears quite fascinating, and he calls this principle the Dandelion Puff Principle (Point Energy Creation Physics).

"He claims to have received this information from several ancient books. One book, in particular, which was helpful was Surat ul Hykl. (Apparently some of the ancient texts are written in code, and he broke the code.)

Among other things (free energy) Rodin says that by knowing the most high name of God, Baha, and vocally pronouncing it, children with autism and other diseases can be cured by "centering".

"The long word of God is Baha 'el Abha. This does have some validity. T. Lobsang Rampa, author of The Third Eye mentioned that certain words and intonations can raise consciousness and help toward enlightenment. Rodin's claim also has face validity in that sounds from nature like waterfalls, whales, et cetera, seem to have a calming effect on people with autism."

Would Awareness comment on that please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct, and that though no serious work has been done in researching the effects on these entities, it would be of great benefit for entities to begin working with autistic children, using these various sounds.

This Awareness indicates that it is well-known among those in inner circles that certain sounds, when chanted as mantras or when repeated frequently, do have effects in regard to external events and situations.

There are some who use certain sounds for increasing their monetary and financial gains. There are certain entities who use various sounds for enhancing their health or their well-being and so forth. This Awareness indicates that entities in studying this man's material, his book, could gain much value from such reading.

This Awareness suggests that there are also other books, other works by other authors relating to mantras and chants and the use of words which entities may wish to research if interested in this line of discovery.

DOES VIBRATING "BAHA" REALLY INVOKE DIVINE ENERGIES?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

When entities vibrate this Baha, the High Name of God, or any other mantra for that matter, is this really attracting Divine Energies, or is it a type of placebo for the mind that thinks it is, and thus creates the effect it wants?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that much of this comes from genetic memory. In some of the ancient times, certain words were spoken in that ancient language or tongue which had a special meaning to those entities, and as it was developed over long periods of time, the sounds of such words became more embedded in the genetics of the entity.

Just as an entity throughout his or her own lifetime might have a deep dedication to God, using the word God, revering the word God, and then on passing over reincarnate in another culture or another lifetime, in which the word God does not exist, but wherein if someone tells the entity to chant the word God in regard to certain focus or meditation or prayer, and the entity does so, his or her genes may resonate in harmony to that word God in a way that recalls the meaning of the word, and calls for the reverence the entity had developed and carried genetically from his or her previous lifetime.

In this manner, the entity tunes in to the lifetime of dedication and devotion and attunement to God through the chanting of that term. This Awareness indicates the same may be said for this particular pronunciation of God; that it was a term used in ancient times which most entities have had some experience with. And therefore, it can have a powerful effect on them when they chant the term, and allow the genetic resonance of the term to vibrate throughout their body.

Using Music to Enhance Brain Power

(Beethoven and Bela Bartok Used the Method)

QUESTION:

James adds one other thing. He writes: "One final note which Aerodynamics touches on is the use of the Golden Section (Sectio Aurea) to enhance brain power. This explains one method of liberating the other untapped 90% of our brain. One composer who used this Golden Section in his work was the modern Hungarian pianist Bela Bartok. Along similar lines, musical studies were conducted on students who were listening to Beethoven. IQ tests immediately followed which indicated an increase in IQ scores by about 7 points. (Unfortunately, this effect did wear off over time).

"Apparently the principle behind this phenomenon is resonance, or as Rodin says, the 'unimpeded liberation of phased-array Quasi-mass energy'."

Could Awareness comment on that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a correct evaluation of these energies and that there is indeed a result in relation to the IQ of entities, in regard to such frequencies and vibrations. This Awareness indicates that it is an area that needs to be researched and practiced for the benefits that can come from the study. It appears that over long periods of time, the effects can become permanent and very favorable to entities.

Why Japanese Men Are Committing Suicide

(What Advice Can Awareness Give These Would-Be Suicides?)

QUESTION:

A couple of questions from Chris Locke in Japan. He writes: "Following a question put to Awareness on suicide in the last newsletter, here's a question about a common suicide scenario in Japan, and other places too, I guess. See the enclosed newspaper article.

The article briefly, is dated Yokohama, and reads: "The partially burned body of a 48 year old local restaurant manager was found an apparent victim of suicide. He was said to have been in despair over his inability to pay back massive bank loans he had taken out to purchase a number of insurance policies."

And Chris says: "The inability to pay back loans is usually the reason for the suicide, who feels his debt is too great to ever pay back. He (it's usually men) finds his family saddled with the debt too, and the lives of all in the family seem ruined. The suicide usually takes his life so that the family may receive the insurance on his life and pay off the debt, thus freeing the family from the responsibility or shackles of their lifetime debt.

"This was exactly the case with a good friend of a good friend here who suicided. I think he hanged himself. The methods vary. The newspapers don't usually report that the suicide's family receives insurance benefits.

Obviously people should never take out such loans in the first place, but if they already have and are saddled with the debt, (and here's his first question) what advice can we give these would-be suicides? Does Awareness have any advice for us and them?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it does not appear that any advice given would be of much good in terms of dissuading their actions, because the entities cannot solve their problems easily by following such advice. This Awareness indicates that it appears most suicide types or suicide-prone entities can be best dissuaded by offering them some kind of hope in the future, presenting a goal or focus which will satisfy their deeper needs so that they will want to stay alive to work out the fulfillment of that need.

This Awareness indicates that if this future cannot be shown to produce or to have a possibility of producing a satisfactory outcome, the potential suicide generally is not persuaded by such or by any statements or arguments an entity may have. This Awareness indicates it comes to a question within the entity's own mind as to whether he is worth more to his loved ones dead or alive, and if you can somehow persuade the entity that he is worth more being alive than dead, the entity may drop thoughts of suicide and approach his life in a way that helps to show he is worth more alive than dead.

This Awareness indicates the entity would prefer to accept life if he felt there was a chance to come out better in life than in death or even come out pretty well in life. This Awareness indicates that few entities really want to commit suicide, but most suicide victims became suicidal because they saw little hope in any other option.

Is There Karma for A Suicide Done for Others?

QUESTION:

Chris also asks: "Also in the case of someone who takes out a loan for a business venture he feels is sure to succeed, only to see it fail, and this unpayable debt in a lifetime remains, what's the karma for that one who takes his life for his family's sake?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that of course it is mitigated somewhat because he has done this in behalf of someone else. He has given his life to give higher quality of life to others. It is akin to the entity who throws himself on a hand-grenade to keep his companions from suffering the explosion of the hand-grenade.

This Awareness indicates that he was not, however, that heroic or that forgivable in terms of suicide, for the entity really needs to have more faith in his ability to survive and in his family's ability to survive, and the entity needs to be able to put forth the effort to try to overcome the situation.

It is not so much that the entity has shown a good heroic sense in committing suicide, it is more of a way of cheating the insurance company and failing to meet one's obligation, getting the insurance company to pay off the obligation one failed to do, even though he had agreed to such.

This Awareness indicates in other words, it is a form of escaping responsibility and still coming out ahead. This Awareness indicates that it is not something that should be thought of as admirable, and there is a certain degree of negative karma that comes from it, even though there is also some positive karma for those who gain from the action.

The family may appreciate and love the person all the more for what he has done, but in all likelihood, the family would prefer to keep the entity alive and suffer the hardship of the debt, rather than to have the entity commit suicide to gain an insurance pay-off.

This Awareness indicates that essentially there is some karma involved in that kind of behavior. It is not something that is excusable, just because the entity has helped to assure the monetary security for his survivors.

Any Way to Prevent Repetition of Suicides?

QUESTION:

This last question from Chris, I think Awareness just answered, but I'll read it anyway. He writes: "Many Japanese do not marry for love and find themselves unable to talk deeply with their wives and children, who no doubt would be the best ones to give advice and encouragement if only they knew of the husband's or father's plan to suicide.

"Could Awareness clarify the lessons these Japanese suicides need to learn in order to prevent repetition of the tragic error of suicide in future incarnations?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is more than "lessons" that need to be learned. It is a matter of cultural values that are often very difficult to change. The cultural value of these entities which places money above the life of an entity, even where the entity himself places money above the value of his own life is something that needs to be focused on in terms of cultural value in terms of human dignity and worth.

This Awareness indicates that as long as monetary value takes precedence over the spiritual and physical livelihood of entities, the cultural value will not likely change. This Awareness indicates it is a sad note when a society embraces values that would promote entities toward suicide in order to save face and save security in a monetary sense.

This Awareness indicates it is in some countries the reason why bankruptcy is allowed, so that an entity can start over with a clean slate on a financial level. It is as though one can die financially without killing the body and still start again in the game of finances.

This Awareness indicates perhaps this is not yet possible in Japan. Perhaps there would be benefits for entities to work toward creating this kind of bankruptcy ruling in order to prevent entities from having the choice between total financial ruin and suicide. The third choice of bankruptcy with the ability to start again, might be the choice of the entities who do not want suicide, but who cannot handle the financial responsibility they have been burdened with.

The Guardian Videotapes

(Do They Contain Photos of Real Aliens and Crafts?)

In one of the current UFO magazines, there's a notice which I'd like to read to Awareness. It reads: "The Guardian video tape is now available. Keep abreast of the continuing Guardian investigation. We have prepared a 68-minute video presentation of the analysis and field investigation into the Guardian case. It includes the entire Guardian video footage with the craft and aliens.

"These are the first authenticated alien images in UFO research." Does Awareness see that as being true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that there is some basis of truth in that these tapes have been based on photographs of true extraterrestrials. This Awareness indicates, however, what these entities do or imply from the tapes may be questionable.

QUESTIONER:

Is Awareness agreeing that these are the first authenticated alien images in UFO research?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that they are not the first in all of UFO history and research for the government has also had certain tapes, but these may be considered the first ones that have been publicly released in which a genuine extraterrestrial entity is shown.

There have been other pictures of extraterrestrials shown in the past. This may be the first extraterrestrial video tape that has been made public. What this Awareness is more concerned about is the implications and claims the entities who promote these tapes may make in regard to the alien on the tapes.

Did the Admiral Reveal UFO Information?

QUESTIONER:

The last part of the statement: "Also available is our two hour and 40 minute presentation of the indoctrination of America, presented by Bob Oechsler on location in Gulf Breeze, Florida, the UFO capitol of the world. This is the most extraordinary presentation of its kind and includes excerpts from a tape-recorded telephone conversation with the new Defense Secretary Admiral Bobby Ray Inman, wherein the Admiral reveals U.S. government possession of non-human made UFO craft."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this would be of considerable value for entities wishing to research the UFO phenomena further. This Awareness indicates it appears to be of considerable validity, with very little distortion of facts, even though there may be some unintentional misunderstanding in certain areas of conversation or discussion in the video.

QUESTIONER:

I believe since this was published, the Defense Secretary Admiral Bobby Ray Inman, inexplicably resigned. Could the fact that he released UFO information have anything to do with it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be one of several reasons for his resignation.

Ed's Note: To order a VHS copy of either videotape, send $35 to Bob Oechsler, 136 Oakwood Road, Edgewater, MD 21037. All proceeds are used to support continuing research efforts.

IS A CATASTROPHE IN THE MAKING?

(Our Domestic Animals and Plants are Disappearing)

There's an article in a recent Acres USA called "A Catastrophe In The making" and I'd like to read this to Awareness and ask It to comment.

"The United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO) called it a "catastrophe in the making." All of the ingredients are present to guarantee widespread starvation in the early decades of the next century.

Why? Because in the global frenzy to boost yield for bigger crops, 75% of the genetic diversity of the world's agricultural output has been lost. In Europe, almost 50% of all breeds of domestic animals that existed in 1900 are extinct. A third of the remaining breeds could be gone in 20 years.

Within the U.S., about 6,000 apple varieties that grew on the farms a century ago are gone. Globally, domesticated animals are vanishing at the rate of one breed per week. This is, said the FAO, a rapidly accelerating and potentially apocalyptic chronicle of human destruction. The cause is laid at the feet of farmers, their suppliers, and the markets they must serve. It should be charged to the farmer's intellectual advisers.

Farmers cultivate for maximum efficiency and yield, gradually discarding all but the most productive strains. Because of this almost universal concentration, more and more plants and animals fall into disuse, obscurity—and eventually extinction. Soon, they are forgotten.

"Evolution has always led to extinction or mutation and man can't stop that," said Hartwig de Haen, FAO assistant director general in charge of agriculture. "But, we are seeing a dramatic decline in the number of useful plant and animal species. It is provoked by human action, not evolution. Our promise for the future is being destroyed!"

A new FAO study shows that of about 4,000 breeds of farm animals, 1,000 are threatened with extinction. Among these are California's San Clemente goat and Santa Cruz sheep; Florida Cracker cattle and Iowa's Cream Draft horse.

Within the U.S., one-third of American prairies today are planted under one variety of wheat. Globally, just ten varieties of rice will soon cover three-quarters of the areas where 30,000 varieties once were harvested. Globally, three crops—rice, corn and wheat—account for 60% of the proteins and calories derived from plants. This, says the FAO, has laid the world open to catastrophic outbreaks of disease and pests.

"If a new disease strikes, we are wide open to global disaster," the FAO warns. "Civilization as we know it could not survive."

Could Awareness comment on that please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the information appears to be based on careful research and facts and the evaluation of this information as to its implications appears to be well expressed and documented.

This Awareness indicates it is a situation that does need great attention and foretells or forewarns of great catastrophic results if entities do not heed the warnings given in this information.

This Awareness indicates that for too long, the bottom line being money, entities have failed to promote natural growth and promote those products that are less than the most promising money-makers. This Awareness indicates there are many fruits that have had great flavor and good nutrition that have been lost because they did not produce as much for the right cost. They took too much time or took too much attention to be productive under certain expense levels and were simply dismissed on the grounds of not being financially productive enough.

Therefore, some of these plants are no longer seen as being of any potential value to agriculturalists and in many ways are extinct. There may be few varieties here and there, but no one is interested in revitalizing or regrowing such plants in a commercial sense.

This Awareness indicates that it is too bad because some of these have unique properties that could be critical to humanity, particularly those herbs and plants that have medicinal use or potential medicinal purposes.

Any Danger in Using Cassette Tapes?

QUESTION:

A question from Mario Matas, New York City. He writes: "Connecting Link magazine is advertising a cassette with sounds that stimulate pleasure centers in the brain and meditation and out-of-body experiences.

Does Awareness give Its okay to this? Is there any dangers involved? In the ads, not everything that tastes good is good."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these things if used within reason, not overindulged in for too much or too long a period of time, can be enjoyable and helpful. Excessive use and obsessive attachment could lead to a misuse of the vibrations and to the detriment of an individual, but generally, entities will use the tapes for a period and take a break, and this kind of use would not be seen as harmful.

If entities begin experiencing any problems from the use of the tapes, it is likely to be caused by too obsessive a use or excessive listening in hopes of getting some kind of magic from the tapes. This Awareness indicates that anything used in excess can be harmful. Even drinking too much water can be harmful. Likewise with these tapes.

Appreciate the Great Supermarket Available

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that the opportunities that come to entities in these 1990's are very great. The changes of entities having so much information at their fingertips would be extremely tempting and cause great envy from your ancestors, were they to recognize how much you have available for spiritual, financial, social, and personal growth, or your potential education.

This Awareness only wishes and hopes that entities fully appreciate the great supermarket in which they find themselves, whereby they have so many things available to them. This Awareness indicates that even those who have little opportunity to buy much of that which is on the market, still have greater opportunities of discovery than did your ancestors, even if you only sample or take the free samples available, you still get more than did your ancestors, in terms of having things that open up your opportunities for greater understanding and greater levels of awareness.

Thank you. (The Law of Gratitude is given)

Wisdom of Awareness—THE MOST SPIRITUAL ACTION

The most spiritual action is surrendering to the Will of the Divine. This Awareness indicates the entity Christ in his prayer, asked that the cup be taken from him, but acknowledged a willingness to accept the cup if it turned out to be the Will of the Divine: "Thy Will be done." This Awareness indicates therefore, the entity gave a prayer, then surrendered his own will to the Will of the Divine, allowing it to determine, and accepting whatever judgment would be rendered in that determination.

Prayer for Balance

Start your day and end your day by saying the following aloud:

I AM ONE WITH ALL THAT IS!
Thank you God

Let us be grateful to people who make us happy; they are the charming gardeners who make our souls blossom.
