SURRENDERING TO GOD (A True Story)

QUESTION:

Awareness, we recently received a long letter from Milton Hill who appears to have chosen the path of suffering to surrender to God. He has a number of questions at the end of his letter so I am going to read the entire document so his questions make sense. He writes:

"Dear CAC,

Hello Ayaton and Vikki. My name is Milton C. Hill and I would like to properly introduce myself as one who is taking and has taken great strides towards knowing the truth of All That Is. I apologize that I wasn't able to send in my contribution on schedule but that is the way things work out sometimes. You all have helped me embark on the path that I have always wanted to be on and it feels so good to be free from the hypnotic patterns of life. I have always had a special affection to Matthew 7:13-14 of the scriptures that talks about the straight gate and being on that straight path that leads unto life. The roads I took to get to this one were arduous and very elusive but no matter what I went through I have always been compelled within to gain knowledge of the truth of my existence and everything I knew to be. I have been through the religious, philosophical, etc., factions but it was one incident that prompted me above all I knew to know more about the truth. In 1995 I was introduced to Cancer which was a very trying thing for me because I had Cancer in my digestive system, my stomach, half-dollar nodules in my lungs and a bleeding head tumor the size of a nickel in the back of my head.

I had to take 5 different types of Chemotherapy every day for a week, then skip three weeks and come back for another session. After my first session I had to go to the Radiation Clinic to take Ionized Radiation applications to both sides of my head where 20 seconds of Radiation were applied to the right and left side of my brain in order to reach that bleeding tumor in the middle of my head. All of this was quite a journey for me especially since I did not abuse my body with alcohol, drugs and other harming substances which left me wondering why I had to go through something of that magnitude. I had come to the conclusion that I had to go through that to learn that Cancer and all other diseases are not caused by germs, bacteria, etc., but it is a spiritual thing that involves negative frequency's as described by Awareness. What's ironic, is when I finished with all my Chemotherapy and Radiation (4 months) I received a spiritual revelation and miraculous healing which occurred to me earlier in my life. What happened to me I know is a spiritual phenomenon that happened to me earlier in my life while I was in the USAF. To set the record straight I will go back a moment in my life.

It is to be understood that I was a devil possessed child for 18 years of which I found no cure for this even though I was baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and the Holy Ghost in the church I attended. This result made me reach for God from my heart and not from the hypnotic religious habits that arrest the mind of so many. At any rate, I left to go to the USAF with my first duty station being Clark Air Base, Luzon Islands, Philippines 1983. Being 18 with hormones raging I considered I had found paradise in this place but instead my heart, mind, spirit and soul wanted something totally different and that was to meet Him who loves me to no end. After getting into trouble I was confined to the Air Base for six months which set me on the course of Depression.

Meddling around the barracks pub one day I encountered a guy my age who was reading a book entitled, "Satan is Alive and Well on Planet Earth." Being familiar with the darkness I thought about asking him some questions, but I changed my mind and sat down in the back of the pub. As I was sitting there my heart starting beating in a notion it had never done that compelled me to go and talk to this guy so I did. As we acknowledged each other I felt very peaceful around this guy and as he presented me with comments about Jesus Christ and God I began to smile and just absorb everything he had to say. He spoke one very thing that caused my Mind to stand at attention and that was, "I could have a personal relationship with God" as told by him.

At that moment something in me began to cry and be very joyous while the devil in me acted a fool. Above all desires I desired freedom from the darkness that had binded me for so many years and caused me misery and mayhem. At 3:30 AM on June 13th, 1983 in Building 6468, Clark Air Base, Luzon Islands, Philippines on bended knees I prayed with earnest and expectation and received the God of Love and Lights into my heart and mind. What happened to me next is something I will never forget. Immediately after accepting Jesus Christ and activating the God within me I felt an energy/frequency come from the bottom of my feet up to my chest and then from the ends of my fingers to the center of my chest and all of this exiting up through the top of my head. For the first time in my life I felt me and knew who I really was and being free I cried like a baby because I was truly thankful and overjoyed.

During the next few days I experienced out-of-body experiences one which in particular let me know I wouldn't be tormented by devils again. Out of my body I was standing in an open area and just like before I saw the devil coming at me with dire speed to overtake me but I immediately hollered out, "Jesus help me I am saved now." As the devil approached me unhindered, out of nowhere coming from the left of me was this gigantic figure full of white light which was so tall I could not see its head. With Holy Intention this Light figure grabbed and literally crushed and crumpled this devil to nothing right in front of me! For the first time in my life I knew I had the advantage over the darkness and that I was finally in the right hands. My feelings were beyond words to describe by and I was ever thankful for these moments.

One night later I came out of my body and looked around my room because I felt as if something was there with me but I could not see it nor could I see me. In the next moment I heard a very authoritative voice that sounded like thunder gestured to me, "You are going to Preach!" Being that I didn't know how to preach I didn't say anything. So once again this voice spoke thunderous more than the first and gestured me once again, "You are going to preach!" Once again I acknowledged Not. So in the third time it again thundered, "You are going to preach!" Being that my soul was shakened from top to bottom I accepted this call with a meaningful, "Okay."

I was very thankful and joyous in my heart when I knew I had a personal relationship with God, therefore I studied and read the Bible 10-12 Chapters a day and even memorized chapters out of the Bible. I prayed sometimes 3-4 hours a day to get to know God and everything about Him. I have had numerous experiences in the spiritual world that have increased in clarity and focus and sometimes I even interpret what they mean. I am learning more now than I ever have in my life when it comes down to knowing the truth about God and life.

At one point I had to make a decision to realize that even the Bible could not contain all the truth one needs to know about God, I therefore began to let my fear diminish because it just wasn't helping me at all. I have learned that to have an open mind about everything is the only way we all will be truly free from all the deceptions and illusions that are placed in front of our face everyday.

It takes a lot of courage and hunger for God to leave established principles and beliefs handed down to you by society and begin to search for your own meaningful purpose and to justify God in your life. At the same time I also understand that I had to go through all life's events and travel many roads before I ventured onto the Straight Gate or the Path to knowing the truth about Sach Khan. Darkness has always appeared to want to prevent me from moving forward in my spiritual evolution and I have suffered in order to understand this.

To be free in God and understand the principle of 'Surrender to God' one has to know exactly what that means in order to do so. Most often you believe that living your life out of love and joy and "Doing unto others what you would have others do unto you." What I have learned is that others will use your joy and kindness to cause mayhem in your life or they will appreciate what and who you are and realize you are not the same as others. I have stopped trying to fit in and I feel much better standing on my own two feet knowing I am not fearful about anything anymore.

The pressure we all feel from hypnotic thoughts and beliefs that exist within society literally tries to choke you to death and creates mountains of stress in your life. The darkness in life is like you have been walking through the desert wanting water and nourishment but you are being given something to drink which only makes you thirstier and your nourishment doesn't feed your spiritual appetite for truth. I can honestly say that the truth appears very elusive when you look for it through the thoughtful devices given to you by those who say they know what's best for you.

I truly believe that when I decided to pursue the truth about life's meaning and God beyond the perception I received from the Bible I was directly tagged by darkness because I had the courage to look deeper and pursue with diligence the meaning of, "What Is and What Isn't." I believe I was stricken with Cancer in order for me to take a great leap forward in my spiritual evolution and to push harder at the door of truth.

When I had the Cancer I had testicular carcinoma to where I had Cancer in my digestive system, stomach, half-dollar nodules in my lungs, and a bleeding head tumor the size of a nickel in the back of my head. This event was a catalyst in my life and the appropriate drama was attached. It was concluded that I should take Chemotherapy such as Sisplatin, Myocin, Bleomycin [(5) 2-litre bags of liquid death] and others to cure me of the Cancer in my lungs and body. After my first week in Chemotherapy I immediately had to go to the Radiation Department and start taking Pure Ionized Radiation to both sides of my head. I had 20 seconds worth on both sides of my head for a total of 26 Sessions. After my first week of Chemotherapy I skipped three weeks of that and came back for another session for a total of four sessions.

Of course, it is to be understood that I went through hell with this but yet I was ferociously determined not to die and to be there for those who loved me. It was suspected I wouldn't live and I wouldn't have any children for myself and fiancé. My fiancé would come to the hospital every day, even against the doctors orders, and get in my bed with me and I would literally absorb her vibrations into me in order to keep my strength and stay focused to make it through this ordeal. The one thing I relied on most was my faith in God to do the right thing by me and more importantly the scripture that I hold dear to my heart that Jesus said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." This was my Pillar of Trust in God and I indeed believed and knew that God and His Love for me was going to bring me through this, otherwise, what Jesus said to me wasn't true.

My body was in pain and my mind drifted to where I thought I might go insane. At one time I exploded into a moment of madness screaming and throwing things in the hospital room because it felt as if I had lost control of everything and that I was hanging on to the edge of a cliff and a black hole was trying to suck me in.

When you are conscious to the fact you know you are losing control over yourself you are in a dreadful situation indeed. As I lay in my bed after several people helped calm me, I had the worst of all feelings and that was I was alone and frightened. To go to the very edge of your own mentality and lose control is like being in pitch black space where you have lost your way and you just stay there to accept whatever befalls you. I was released to go home and it was here I had come face to face with death.

In the physical realm I hated to be alone even though I had a reclusive nature and the state of my mind was like oatmeal, but yet I had hope and faith for the best. One particular morning I truly believed my chest weighed 10,000 pounds and I couldn't move or so I thought. One important thing to note is to understand that all of the Chemotherapy and Radiation was having a maximum mayhem effect upon my mind and all that I was seemed to be crushed and replaced with nothingness. I struggled to locate the telephone and call my fiancé and tell her I couldn't take it anymore and to ask her where she had put my gun. She was reluctant to tell me where it was but she did anyway. I rolled out of the bed and slammed to the floor and stood up like a puppet without strings and made my way to the kitchen and got the gun. I made it back to the bedroom where I slammed down to the floor with my back against the bed. Shaking from unholy balance I put the gun under my chin and tried to summon whatever I could to destroy my very existence.

A certain part of me wanted to pull the trigger but the other part of me stood adamant in faith and hope in God who always works things out only and if we allow it to happen. I wanted to believe that Jesus had abandoned me and all was lost but something in me knew at that precise moment I was at the crossroad where I knew I could end it now or resist and fight to live to learn of "Why me and Why this?" I knew that the easy way out of any situation may not be the best way out because something vital in your make-up might be lost because of the decision that you made.

I decided to suffer physically and mentally and live in order to learn and grasp the meaning of God, life and the truth. My love and hunger for knowing and experiencing God beyond the pain I had at that moment was the driving force that literally made me crawl my way back into life. It is so touching to me that God will always answer my questions and He will do so in the fashion I can understand. My greatest desire and hunger is to be with God always and I had to understand that God is Everything and to experience God in full capacity you have to have an open mind that is without judgments.

Oh yes, I professed Christianity and walked in Love and Joy but yet within, my Soul let me know that there was so much more to know about God, and in order to obtain truth at every level of existence I had to open my mind to all information because all things are relevant to the truth. Behind every illusion, delusion, lie and all means of deception there is the truth waiting to be discovered, and by using your heart and mind you accept that which you can use to better yourself, and this is where I am today.

I have had numerous experiences within God and other dimensions and I have even been to a certain level of vibration I considered to be Heaven. I'm always trying to help my consciousness to expand and to keep my consciousness clear and pure as Awareness has stated. I know that I am headed in the right direction because my dreams and experiencing show me that I have entered into the Straight Gate and I am on that path to experience God as much as I can withstand.

I understand the terminology of being burned in your consciousness when you go to other dimensions within God that vibrate higher than your own consciousness. When I say burn you actually just have a small headache when you come out of the dimension back to the third dimension, and the vibration you visited melds with your consciousness, and thus your consciousness expands every time you visit different mansions within God.

If you understand the Circle of Life, it is truly wonderful when you don't have to say you believe in God but you Know that God exists everywhere and definitely within yourself. I try to cherish all my moments in life and I am understanding what it means to live within each moment. It's funny though I have come quite a ways in my spiritual journey yet I know I have a ways to go as far as my knowledge and wisdom about God is concerned. But at the same time I came from God and the faster I can use my spiritual recollection the faster my carriage can go and this is exciting to me. When you come to realize you can access God by conditioning your consciousness to receive necessary information to understand All That Is, it is the greatest gift to mankind.

I'm glad I cheated so-called death to be where I am because there is nothing greater than "Knowing" hence when you "Know" there is the conclusion within oneself, "It Is." Knowing "What Is" carries more weight than "What One Believes." Because of the episode of Cancer in my life I have graduated from the "Survival Stage" to the "Being Stage" and it is like night and day and you have to be spiritual enough to tell the difference.

One important thing I learned with the Cancer is that disease is not germ/bacteria oriented but it is spiritual as confirmed by Awareness. After my treatments were over my herbologist suggested to her herbologist in Boulder, Colorado (Hanna Kroger) to come to Birmingham for a spiritual seminar but more importantly, to pray for me. As Hanna attended to each it soon became my turn to sit in the chair and be operated on. As I sat there Hanna told me, "You are the reason I am here" and I am grateful she came to see me. She said, "Jesus told me to pray for you another way." Hanna then instructed me and all the others to bring our hands together with like fingers touching each other with space between each with the thumbs pointing to the chin but not touching. In a series of three chants for three times everyone repeated the following prayer, "Shem, Shem, Shem" "Shem, Shem, Shem" - "Shem, Shem Shem". As in before something came from the bottom of my feet upwards to my chest, from my fingers to my chest and exiting through the top of my head. When this happened I knew I was cured of all the Cancer and what left me was a vibration of destruction.

The puzzle of my life and all life I have been putting together as I live and the more I learn the more extraordinary the unfolding of the understanding I gain from day to day. Life is exciting if understood through the Divine Perspective, but a literal crock pot of confusion if viewed from mankind's perspective. In this stage of Life I am in it is exciting and sometimes boring because that which is not eternal doesn't entertain me as it once did. I am not afraid of the changes that take place within me and I have no fear of death or hell and I know now more than ever I am a part of "All That Is." It feels really great to know that I don't have to compete with others and the quest to win is not a do or die situation but merely an illusion of mental disturbance.

In conclusion I would like to ask Awareness a few questions: (1) Why did that devil appear in my bedroom when I was about 7 or 8 years old? What was the Significance? Was it an event brought over from another lifetime or some Karma Effect? Why did this devil pick me to possess and not my brothers? (2) "What actually occurred when I was called to preach and by whom was this decree made. What criteria was used to call me and by my agreement to do such. Is there a penalty in Divine Law if I did not preach? Is preaching associated with my Astrological sign which denotes being God's Communicator?"

(3) "What is the meaning of the experience I had when I visited the vibration I classify as Divine Ecstasy? Was this place associated with a condition of Heaven or some other Vibration / Frequency of Pleasure? Does One have to have a certain level of consciousness to access such a place or maybe perhaps this was another planetary vibration of love somewhere in the Universe?"

(4) "What is the significance and lesson associated with me visiting the door that opened and The Light of Christ and God shined as bright as the sun? Being that the Light was so intense and powerful, but yet it was the Light of Divine Love, so why did I feel sore afraid and had to Awaken from that state? In short, I need to know whether or not I entered into the Door of Lights and, if I did not enter will I be allowed to go back?"

(5) "When Jesus transfigured on the Mount of Transfiguration His light was brilliant as the sun, to where no one can peer into that light without being blinded by it. Is this the same thing as Being burned in your consciousness when you visit dimensions that vibrate higher than Your own consciousness?" Additionally, to understand how long it took Jesus to obtain such a level as to shine as bright as the sun, in Earth years, how long would that be?"

These are enough questions for now and I will at a future time submit more questions that peak my interests. I read mostly all the material you guys send to me every month plus I'm reading the 12 Spiritual Development Lessons as well as a Personal Data Reading from Rev. Marie Templeton that is filled with great reading material. All of these wonderful things of reading and learning are happening because I chose to open my mind and start reading suppressed information. The thought finally occurred to me, "Why is any information suppressed and why should I not read it?" The information that influenced me most was the writing of, "Kyriacos C. Markides 'The Magus of Strovolos - Daskalos - who was a Mystic and a Psychic'" and the other books written about him. He lived on the island of Cyprus which I hope to visit someday. Daskalos was a very extraordinary fellow and the writings about him were unique indeed. I also appreciated the lectures of Virgil Armstrong who spoke of the Photon Belt which I had to discover. And discover I did, so here I am and I love where I am.

Thank you for being there for me at this time which is why I say to you all, "You are needed because people open their minds everyday and your information from Awareness is a Divine Library available to all and not held in secret like Artifacts in the Vatican. I appreciate all of your information and hopefully you guys can sell the reports on disk once you get everything separated.

One day I hope and know that I will be able to do things as the great Masters, Teachers and Psychics. This so exciting to me because this would allow me to help everyone that needed my help on any level whether it be spiritual, mental, physical or emotional. That would be a complete honor for me. I have always dreamed and hoped of a utopia of love for the entire world and if I were a leader of people I would teach the way of love and have people follow the golden rule of 'Do unto others as you would have others do unto you'. I know I wouldn't be a bad leader who loves power or let my ego get in the way especially after experiencing the state the world is in today and especially the state of America.

I love the ideals and principles of freedom but I hate when our government abuses the ideals in order to gain something from people who they think are inferior to the United States. The idea of patriotism is not right and many Americans have fallen into that trap of deceit. In truth and reality our government is just as bad as any terrorist organization around the world because of the secret murders and crimes it commits in order to achieve a goal that is supposedly in the interest of this country. Whatever!

Being that we are all within God and we all need to come together in the same collective reality it might be wise to assume we are looking at another 1000 to 2000 years before we can actually accomplish this and this includes all alien beings who are somewhat like we are. I believe collective reality can come only from species that are capable of coming together through like consciousness, mentality, emotions and souls. However long it takes it will be a great occasion to see all of creation come together as one in harmony and truth because I know miracles beyond phenomena will happen as routine. We will be capable as God is capable and perhaps we will travel the universe and have our own planet to govern over. "Can you imagine when each of us obtains God status as vibrating as Sach Khan and perhaps have our own universe?" To me these concepts are not far fetched because we have no clue as to the unfathomable Universe of God. There is so much we don't know about God because God can only relate to us according to the capacity of our consciousness which is why Awareness speaks to Paul Shockley, Grace, etc., using symbols and those things we understand and can interpret.

But I guess there is no point trying to tell you guys about God since you are there with direct access with Awareness, but I guess everyone has the means to be a channel for God. One thing I know to be true is that our minds and consciousness are quite a ways from vibrating as Sach Khan on a regular basis but I am certain that once humanity comes together as One, the much easier it will be to get to that level together. Sure enough many of us experience these brief glimpses of these higher vibrations but when you think about it, how much magic does it take to vibrate that high on a consistent basis. One measuring tool we can use is to be able to analyze how your mind feels once you have been to a dimension of a higher vibration where you obtain the burn Awareness speaks of. I believe once you sample the vibration of any dimension your consciousness remembers this and even coordinates itself to blend with this vibration for future visitation. That's the one where I understand things and I share this with others so they may understand what it means to fly.

I guess I need to end this conversational letter because I could go on and on and on. I love God and Love with such passion that the Love of God is my best friend. People say I am a rare person and I have even been called Alien, but it doesn't matter to me. I am that I am but yet I am becoming more than I am, for such is the way of Spiritual Evolution. Thank you guys and thank you Vikki for the Birthday Card it was a very nice gesture. I guess I'm classified as a Sponsor but as rain falls God knows I want to be an Angel. Like I always say, "The most powerful anecdote in the world is a simple smile that comes from a heart that knows it doesn't beat alone and never will." I Love you.

Prayer for Balance

Start your day and end your day by saying the following aloud:

I AM ONE WITH ALL THAT IS!

Thank you God

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this entity, Mr. Milton Hill, has offered an elegant example of the many ways to discover and become aware of the information-laden energy patterns from more all-encompassing dimensions of space, time, and identity. Whether entities choose to label this energy with the term God, or Cosmic Consciousness, the Tao, nature, or the quantum information realm, the Quantum Hologram, or any other symbol they find suitable, it is energy that is accessible to every living being. This Awareness indicates that all such personal testimonials, particularly offered and discussed publicly can and do add to the accumulating energies that are propelling the consciousness of humanity in optimal directions. Indeed, with this offering, the energies of divine inspiration and gratitude within the CAC organization have already been increased.

This Awareness suggests that the personal spiritual experiences of this particular entity offers a useful language common to many who have been raised and steeped in Western Judeo-Christian belief systems. Although the specific symbols and beliefs are not necessary, they offer stepping-stones, the abstract totalities involved in the pursuit of spiritual meaning and evolution of consciousness.

Limitations on the Standard Religious Surrender Package

This Awareness indicates that the concept of surrendering to God, as offered in the standard traditional religious packages, and as originally instilled within this entity, have many limitations, contradictions, and confusing tenets that his reported experiences both highlight and transcend. In particular, this entity's choice of both physical sensitivity and significant health challenges as royal roads to spiritual development will resonate with many still struggling within the confines of habitual, confusing, yet unexamined belief structures. Indeed, this entity has weathered the challenges of life threatening illness and succeeded in attaining transcendent experiences that have propelled him on his greater spiritual journey.

The power of personal choice, the right to choose an easier, more comfortable path of least resistance belongs to all, but the rewards of facing the painful spiritual challenges within lower levels of consciousness with honesty and integrity will always bring the desirable and most meaningful and enduring rewards. For the path of least resistance is in spiritual terms, the path of most resistance, resistance to the sensory validities already available to consciousness, resistance to available information which must be surpassed in order for higher levels of consciousness to be attained.

Surrender Is an Active and Courageous Act

This Awareness suggests that surrender is a far more active and courageous act than the word often implies. Surrender is a conscious merger of self with the divine; it is an expansion never an obliteration of the individual self. Surrender is the recognition of the transcendent interconnectedness of all beings, the recognition of both the powers and the limitations of the mind, the recognition of presence of spirit within matter, its wisdom within the body and the acceptance of all ongoing experience. For any event that is occurring is a self-creation, born of the individual beliefs as well as the mass beliefs of the species. Surrender is acceptance of each and every event that comes to one's door, for it has been created from the precise beliefs and intentions within the mind, whether or not awareness of them exists and whether or not they feel good.

Believing is of mind, while being and feeling are of spirit or energy essence. Resistance is the source of mental "judgment", of negative judgment that any event that is occurring is bad or wrong or that future events might also be. Resistance is mind in disharmony with the totality of spiritual being as well as the body. Pain is the spirit's constant reminder of the dissonance between the multidimensional facets of self. Fear, sadness and anger are the mind's resistance in the moment, while worry, mistrust, rage, and hate are signals of the mind's resistance projected into the past and the future.

Resistance and Surrender is Defined

This Awareness suggests that resistance of one's personal experience come largely through the practice of suppressing emotional sensory information, which is nothing more than self-deception. Surrender is to recognize any painful event as a message about the resistant strategies, beliefs and limitations so that they can be identified and altered. Resistance creates destructive interference between the electromagnetic wave resonance within the multidimensional self and invites mental disorganization and physical disease.

Resistance is Self-Destructive on all Levels of All That Is Resistance projected outward creates similar interference between the greater unity of any two entities, it destroys and limits self-boundaries rather than creating and expanding the boundaries of consciousness and melding and entangling each individual within All That Is. The habit of placing blame upon others for the events that bring the pain, and the popular and politically correct practice of suppressing and denying the experience of pain underlies and legitimizes the practice of deception toward others. Resistance gives rise to such common social ills as competitive deception and mistrust, arrogant power-mongering dominance and shameful submission. Resistance is self-destructive across all levels of All That Is, and surrender is its opposite.

What Surrender Really Is

This Awareness indicates that surrender is first and foremost acceptance of the full being experience and the letting go of mental resistance that manifests as emotional pain. Surrender is acceptance, and is characterized by the feeling, the joy and empowerment of the present moment, and in the knowing and assurance across time that is captured in the word faith. Surrender involved ceasing to identify with the mind and allowing the greater spiritual energies to flow freely. Surrender is acceptance of each and all events that come to one's door, for it has been created from the precise beliefs and intentions within the mind, whether or not awareness of them exists. Surrender is to recognize any painful event as a message about the resistant strategies, beliefs and limitations so that they can be identified and altered.

This Awareness suggests that this entity's sensitivity allowed for quite dramatic physiological manifestations of journey through resistance, to acceptance, and surrender as noted in both the comments and questions, which will now be addressed.

WHY DID THE DEVIL APPEAR TO MILTON?

QUESTION:

Why did the devil appear in my bedroom.....? Karma? Why possess me and not my brothers?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that this demonic apparition was a direct manifestation of the beliefs that had been instilled through religious indoctrination, and was symbolic of the mental showdown occurring within the mindscape. Surrendering is first to turn away from external truths and controllers, to internal ones, and finally from those of mind, to full acceptance of those of being. Although religion takes credit for the universe's innate spirituality and divinity, religious indoctrination is the strongest and most effective mechanism for external control, for it deliberately instills negative emotions such as fear, shame, guilt, and hate in order to capitalize on the spiritual confusion and gain submission. The devil is a misguided mind's handy excuse for the causal creation of negative events, "wrong" actions and "bad" people, and the "sinful" nature of the flesh that would also bring about these same feelings.

This Awareness indicates that the spiritual impasse within was due to newly contradictory beliefs which called into question the concept of the devil. It was only the sensitive nature and spiritual integrity and emotional intensity of this entity that invited the full-blown apparition, which did indeed bring the issue to the forefront of experience making it fully available to consciousness. The brothers involved had chosen different and perhaps more indirect ways to expand their consciousness in this particularly lifetime, so the comparison and concerns about Karmic debt reflect the standard misunderstandings about creative reality and the power of the individual in the present moment.

THE QUESTION OF PREACHING

QUESTION:

What occurred when I was called to preach...?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that at that moment a personal expansion of consciousness allowed for the peak spiritual experience of glimpsing into your higher mission purpose. The decree was made by none other than yourself, yet the dimensional boundary of what you normally perceive as yourself was greatly expanded, and could rightly be interpreted as from the Higher Self or from elsewhere in time/space or from this Awareness. These multi-tiered levels of self are symbolized within the hierarchies of angels and deities set forth by the religious indoctrinations. In this sense, one's unique choice of historical time placement, birth date, even time and hour does indeed come from higher levels which fix certain destiny patterns as do the choices of cultural and geographical location, parental genetics, familial structure, economics, and traditions, birth order, sex, and sibling relationships. All such choices have been made, including certain challenges to come as part of one's greater destiny path. Indeed, this is not the first call to preaching that this entity has not experienced, nor will it be the last.

The Idea of Punishment For Failure to Answer the Call

This Awareness indicates however, that such decrees are always contingent upon the mass events occurring at all local levels and the volitional choices of living entities as well as the higher influences and intentions, for such is the co-creative nature of the material experience. The idea of punishment for failing to answer one's call is largely only valid in the realm of belief as advocated by religious cultural traditions. The only valid judgment of punishment that can occur will be due to one's personal assessment of the creativity attained during the lifetime, and those indeed higher levels of self involved in the original choices will be involved in such judgments. This Awareness suggests however, that learning and expansion of consciousness connote one's spiritual evolution, and the basic task of recognizing and gaining creative control over one's mind remains the primary struggle for the species.

All judgments of how well one's life has been lived will concern the patterns of resistance, pain and self-destruction, as compared to those of acceptance and joyous creative self-expansion. In this sense, the moral ethic of not creating pain in self or others will be a useful standard, although the lack of consciousness itself and the suffering it brings are punishment enough.

THE MEANING OF THE DIVINE ECSTASY

QUESTION:

The meaning of his experience of "Divine Ecstasy?... The vibration of heaven?" Does one have to have a certain level of consciousness to access such a place elsewhere?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that this is in the affirmative, that the experience of such intense, information-laden positive emotion is indeed what religious traditions have characterized as divine and heavenly states. Acceptance is the key, and such states are transcendent of space, time, and individuality. So although they do hint of alternate dimensions, the personal experience is one of consciousness expansion in the here and now, and the recognition and acceptance of the greater organization, the higher causality, and one's personal creative role within it. It transcends mind, but largely by allowing the body to guide the being experience.

THE SIGNIFICANCE AND LESSON OF THE DOOR HE OPENED AND THE LIGHT

QUESTION:

The significance, of the door, that opened? The Light of Christ bright as the sun? And his fear of all this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the significance of the door was a contrast between the beliefs being held, and the emerging awareness of the greater spiritual realities. The feelings of fear reflected the gap between those beliefs instilled by the church and those emerging from personal experience. The former safety that came with the idea of an all-controlling supernatural creator and protector was being replaced by the newly emerging sense of self-empowerment, connection and participation within the creation of life events and the early dawning of realization that evil of demonic forces are not to be feared, for they do not exist.

The significance of the door opening of its own accord, rather than by personal choice and intention, followed by feelings of fear was symbolic of the transitional state toward new belief structure, and new kinds of safety, those that resonate with acceptance with durables feeling of faith, courage and gratitude.

This Awareness suggests that the intuitions regarding the pineal and pituitary glands in association with the door, were symbolic reflections of the spiritual challenges of the seer overcoming the intellectual, the being overcoming the identification with mind and beliefs, and moving into the fully being state of consciousness. Fear not that there will be no more chances to transcend the door, for it always awaits as the fundamental transition from one level of consciousness to another.

JESUS AND THE LIGHT

LETTER FROM HOME...

QUESTION:

Blinded by the Light. Is this the same as being 'burned' in your consciousness when you visit higher dimensions?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that once the experience of knowing of this nature has occurred, there can be no return to a level of earlier consciousness. There can be no belief or assumption that can shake that kind of knowing; that kind of knowing is what is referred to as faith, and true faith is never blind but enlightened. The entity known as Jesus was indeed an enlightened master, but it is less meaningful to think of his progress in terms of time, and such is true for the spiritual evolution of any entity. What determined how long it takes to be illuminated as to shine with the brilliance of the sun concerns one's level of acceptance of all experience available to consciousness and the understanding of the emotional resonance they carry. We have completion.

Underground Base at Pine Gap Australia

QUESTION:

I have in my hands a copy of the latest Millennial Prophecy report. This prophecy report is designed to confirm the Fundamentalist belief that the end of the world, the Armageddon and so on is at hand, and so they take information from various publications and list it in order to confirm and verify that this is all getting ready to come down the tube. It says, for example: "A Minnesota company called Geospan has in mind a project to digitally map an image of literally every road, street and highway in the US. This information will be made available to government and private agencies for mysterious surveillance purposes of their own and this data, along with much else will go not to Deacon Street, but to another facility,--a huge underground storage space beneath Alice Springs, Australia.

"The underground calls it Pine Gap."

Does Awareness see any validity to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that Pine Gap has long been associated with the government programs related to tracking and operations dealing with alien space craft and other activities of the military. This Awareness indicates that this appears to be valid, as a means of gathering and collecting and storing data.

Deacon Street in Canberra Australia

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

They also claim that "surveillance files on US citizens are to be housed in a building on Deacon Street in Canberra, Australia. A newsletter called NARG reports that locals have seen vast amounts of material disappearing, apparently into holes in the ground, not only in Australia, but also in France.

"The Deacon Street facility in Canberra is described as enormous, and including 20 estates. It includes a master telephone exchange as well as four floors of computers which are connected to every bank, post office, telephone, police station, customs house and airline departure desk on the planet. The structures occupy part, at least, of a national park."

Does Awareness see that as being valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. It appears to be a hub for data analysis, collection and control and storage.

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

They also state: "It is small potatoes that the Eastern elite are leaving their homes for fortified barrier islands, anticipating civil war." Is ...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that you may also see this occurring in the United States during the coming period of this transition effort.

DID JESUS REALLY USE "THE LORD'S PRAYER"? SCHOLAR SAYS NO!

(He Never Said: "Thy Kingdom Come, Thy Will Be Done")

QUESTION:

A question from D.C. McKnight, Des Moines, Iowa. He writes: "Enclosed is a clipping from this morning's Des Moines' Register headed: Lord's Prayer Wasn't Jesus's, Scholar Says. The scholars focused on separating what Jesus actually said from words that may have been put in his mouth by early Christians. The book Urantia clearly gives Jesus credit for this well-known prayer. Would Awareness please comment on this discrepancy?" And I can read part of the article from the Associated Press, Atlanta, Ga:

"Jesus probably didn't write or use the Lord's prayer, and may have uttered only a few of the phrases it contains, a group of biblical and linguistic scholars has concluded at a conference.

The prayer shows up in the Gospels of Luke and Matthew, which say Jesus taught it to his disciples.

The 25 participants of the Jesus Seminar, meeting in Atlanta over the weekend, agreed with the Rev. Hal Taussig of Philadelphia, whose research concluded that Jesus probably didn't ask God to "deliver us from evil," and almost certainly never said "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done."

The group was in general agreement however, that Jesus did use the word "Abba" or 'father' which was considered radical in his day.

It was the only part of the prayer nearly all of the scholars agreed that Jesus certainly used. Theologians attach great weight to the 'Abbah' issue.

The Jesus Seminar focuses on separating what Jesus actually said from words that may have been put in his mouth by early Christians.

The scholars study the earliest available versions of the Gospels and compare early language patterns with what is known of how people lived at the time of Jesus.

The group acknowledges the prospect of a fundamentalist uproar over their conclusions, but say that doesn't bother them." End of article.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that if entities were to consider what is known in regard to what someone spoke, several generations before, that they would understand there is the possibility of error in the recording of those words. This Awareness indicates that it is known that the earliest of the gospels was written at least 80 years after the story of Jesus was supposed to have occurred. This Awareness indicates according to the legends this places the entity Jesus as having lived at the turn of the era between Zero B.C., and Zero A.D.

This Awareness has indicated previously that the entity lived 200 years prior to that. This Awareness indicates that this as a recording of the story some 200 years after the entity alleged to represent Jesus lived, and therefore, it has elements of distortion since the writings were not there at the time of the event. It is likened unto one who, on television would write of an event that happened in the 1700s during the 1900s and because there is little writing anywhere around, every word would be accepted as if it were absolutely correct, without question.

This Awareness indicates that it must be remembered that there was little writing except within the monasteries and among the priests and those who were learned, and these writings were very laborious and therefore, anything that was written was prized and was considered as being valuable, and since there was only a small amount of writing, everything was considered to be representative of things that occurred in the past to which the writing referred to.

This Awareness indicates that entities nowadays may hear of an event that occurred that week and reading from reporters will perhaps have a half dozen different views of the same event, but in earlier times, perhaps only one person offers the view of an event, and others may write from that person's view and so forth, so that the readers assume the views are correct. This Awareness indicates that in reference to much of the New Testament and particularly of the Old Testament, many of these writings were plagiarisms or stories and writings taken from earlier material.

Plagiarisms in the New and Old Testament

This Awareness indicates that there are in many cases direct quotes or paraphrasing of writings that were part of earlier cultures, manuscripts from different countries, different nations, different cultures, and these paraphrasings or direct plagiarisms became part of the Old and New Testament as Biblical truths accepted by those oriented to that Hebrew and Christians philosophy as though it were original information.

This Awareness indicates of course if entities do not look anywhere else, they will assume that it is original to the Bible and they can make claims that the Bible is indeed God's word without even considering that perhaps men were involved in writing up the manuscripts that were included in the Bible when it was assembled, as it presently is. This Awareness indicates that it must also be understood that there was considerable selection taking place in the assembling of the books for the Bible, for there were many manuscripts that were totally left out and many were narrowly excluded in the sense that some wanted them included, and others wanted them excluded, much as might occur in some kind of Congressional or political debate over manuscripts today.

This Awareness indicates that in these early times, when the official Bible was being assembled, the priest and politicians involved in the work of assembling and deciding which books would go in and which would be left out were themselves not always totally clear in terms of what is right and what is wrong, what is true and what is false, what is valuable and what is not valuable, except for their own preferences of the day.

Why the Book of Revelation Was Placed in the Bible

This Awareness indicates the only reason the Book of Revelation was placed in the Bible (by a narrow margin of approval) was that there were certain things in the Book of Revelation that frightened some of the participants, making them afraid to leave it out, that they might somehow be cursed or receive some kind of punishment for not including the material. This Awareness indicates that there are many other books that have been excluded from the Bible which have great value in terms of understanding and of explaining many of the mysteries in terms of the historical past.

This Awareness suggests entities consider The Lost Books of the Bible and the Forgotten Books of Eden; that there are others, such as the Apocrypha, and many other historical books of the past, which generally lies unknown to the majority of entities on this plane, yet these books in many cases, were seen at the time as being highly valuable in terms of biblical or spiritual and religious information. This Awareness indicates that this small group of priests making selections as to what to include and what to exclude, excluded much valuable information and included some that was assembled from the writings of other cultures.

Why the Dead Sea Scrolls Are Not Being Translated

This Awareness indicates that likewise, in the recent findings of the Dead Sea scrolls, of about 700 texts, only a fraction has been translated, even though several decades have passed in which all of these could have been translated. This Awareness indicates also that many of these texts have been damaged or destroyed, or hidden from the public because they could have an effect in altering the stories and information accepted from biblical tradition, and many entities do not want this to be altered or exposed or presented for entities to consider as being of any value in helping to decipher truth from all of this.

This Awareness indicates that the entire Western civilization, having rested on a narrow religious framework, presented through a narrow dogmatic system, associated with selected books taken as and promoted as absolute truth by a group of priests early in the Age of Pisces; the period shortly after the New Dispensation. This Awareness indicates this appears to have been mostly settled by the 5th Century; all of this as being the foundation on which Western civilization has rested and makes it very difficult for entities to be willing to look further for truth to see if indeed the foundation is proper.

This Awareness indicates it is much like looking at a house that has been built 2000 years ago, and everyone trying to steer you away from looking at the foundation. This Awareness indicates if entities were to examine the foundation, they might find cracks, or discrepancies and might find that there is something that should have been placed which was left out, or that some of the things that were placed there were stolen or taken from some other nearby construction.

The Story of Jesus Has Exact Parallels in Other Writings

This Awareness indicates for example, the story of the flood, the story of the Garden of Eden, having come from Babylonian writings, yet the Babylonians were considered to be heathens. This Awareness indicates that much of the story of Jesus in the New Testament has exact parallel stories or representations in other writings of other cultures, such as the Blind Man At The Well, coming from literature taken, plagiarized from Indian sources.

This Awareness indicates that it does not fit with the historical facts that the New Testament represents reality, it is more of a synthesis of many different stories from various cultures brought together with a kind of unifying of the story of Jesus, who in actuality, is a representation of many different messiahs from different cultures. Those things attributed to him are in many cases lifted directly from other cultures, other societies, other religions prior to the Christian stories.

The Real Value in the Christian Story: The Power of Myth

This Awareness indicates that the value of the Christian story is not that it is an historical representation or the story of God Made Flesh in an historical context; the value is in its mythical application to the human condition. It is likened unto presenting a parable that has no actual historical basis, but which has the value of giving an important message or lesson in an allegorical or metaphorical sense. One can gain insight into one's life by applying the information gleaned from the story of Christ, so that one's life takes on greater meaning and value. One can have (a) greater sense of purpose and direction and a guiding force when associating oneself with the hero represented in the Christian Bible.

This Awareness indicates that this is where the value lies: in what is termed the power of myth. This Awareness suggests that entities may benefit considerably from reading the book by Joseph Campbell, who as one of the authorities on myth, has presented much of this information in (a) recent television series through commentary with Bill Moyers and through the book *The Power Of Myth. This Awareness indicates that the majority of entities will prefer not to have their belief system disturbed by truth, but this Awareness reminds you that the truth shall make you free. It does not say your beliefs will make you free, and it is better to have your beliefs shaken to ignore truth.

*This book stocked by CAC. Refer to our Book Price Sheet

This Awareness suggests entities be brave enough to search for truth, even if it disturbs some of the most cherished beliefs they hold, and in searching for truth, it becomes necessary not to look for those works that support your beliefs, but to read those things which may counter your beliefs and see if there is anything of value in finding truth. This Awareness indicates that those who become more open-minded and objective in seeking truth will find there is a whole world of information that has been researched carefully and which gives considerable evidence that may be of much value in searching for truth which generally would have been and is still ignored by those who do not wish to be pestered by truth.

This Awareness indicates that the Lord's Prayer and many of the other statements attributed to Jesus, and many of the statements found in the Bible can be found in earlier writings and that entities may wish to consider this and research this. This Awareness indicates that the Cosmic Awareness information in the recent past gave some samples of this in regard to the golden rule which has been shown to have come from and been echoed in other cultures beyond that of the Christian culture. This Awareness indicates that there are certain works available for entities who may wish to research these comparative religious issues.

The Works of Joseph Campbell Heartily Recommended

This Awareness indicates the best place, the most interesting place for modern individuals of a layman approach to begin would be through the works of Joseph Campbell; that there are videos available, or the book itself is now available at most bookstore and is a very good seller in that there are many people having seen the video series are purchasing the book. This Awareness indicates that this as a book which CAC should add to its library, if not already having done so. This Awareness indicates this also as a book which anyone who is serious about seeking truth and understanding of the spiritual path should read, for it opens up an entirely new way of looking at religion, of looking at mythology, of looking at the great myths, historical stories and the concept of heroes and even how this concept can apply to oneself.

Much Power Within the Mythical Hero and Heroine

This Awareness indicates that there is much power available in the understanding of what it means to absorb and follow the principles that are available to individuals through the basic outline of the hero or heroine as presented in the great myths of a society. This Awareness indicates that many of the problems that entities suffer in terms of a sense of poor self-image or poor sense of direction would be remedied if they understood the concept of the hero or heroine so that they could apply these principles to their own lives.

This Awareness indicates that in short, the person who is a mythical hero, as one who reaches a state of consciousness in which one gives up one's own petty desires and needs for something greater than self, something outside of self, and all heroic stories convey this information, and that these stories, whether mythical or based on historical fact, become the backbone for the philosophical concepts that strengthen an individual and raise the individual above that of a petty tyrant or petty self.

This Awareness suggests that in studying these mythological characters you may begin to recognize this pattern running through all of these stories and also may begin to recognize how these stories are interlinked in terms of this pattern, even through the various opposing religions and myths of the past. You may even see how one myth is another in disguise using simply the same story with different words or images. You may even see how some of the great stories presented today link to those of the past.

The Myth of E.T. and Snow White and the 7 Dwarfs

This Awareness indicates that the story of E.T., an entity who comes to this plane, who is from another world, who heals and who dies, and who is reborn and rises to the heavens; or the stories presented in Star Wars, even the story of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, in which she, representing the Christ Consciousness eats an apple, a poisonous apple, appears to die and is reawakened and revives or what may be termed resurrected. This Awareness indicates that these and many other stories begin to share a pattern which entities can perceive more quickly and easily when they understand the pattern that applies to these mythological stories and the basic pattern involved that runs through these various stories.

This Awareness indicates that this can be found in greater detail with more examples in the Joseph Campbell material. This Awareness indicates that there are also others which present similar information. This Awareness suggests the next question be asked.

Transcriber's note: Joseph Campbell's best work is called The Hero with a Thousand Faces, and goes into great detail about patterns of heroes. Jon

THE MAGNETIC HELMET (Does It Really Trigger Mystical States?) More on Sam Millar's Polarizer

QUESTION:

In the August The Omni Whole Mind magazine they have an interesting article titled: "Magnetic Helmet Triggers Mystical States". I'd like to read this brief article and ask Awareness to comment. It says: "As a young man floated toward a strange glow in a forest, an alien entity entered his body and gave him 'an extremely meaningful message'. It was not a UFO encounter. This otherworldly experience was reported by a student volunteer in the lab of neuroscientist Michael Persinger of Laurentian University, in Sudbury, Ontario. The student was wearing an experimental headpiece resembling a motorcycle helmet.

"Fitted with magnets, the device beamed a low-level magnetic field at his temporal lobes, brain areas associated with dreamy states, time distortions, spinning sensations and assorted odd psychic phenomenon. Like most of Persinger's 50 test subjects, he spent a half hour immersed in ecstatic mystical visionary experiences.

"The deep structures of the temporal lobe are electrically unstable and sensitive to all sorts of things, including the biochemistry of stress, psychological distress, insufficient oxygen and fasting, Persinger explains. "That could explain why, when mystics go through self-induced stressful rituals and yogis go to high mountaintops and fast, they report transcendental events.

"We know these experiences are clearly coupled with transient electrical activity within the temporal lobe, so we are using the helmet to facilitate the electrical activities associated with mystical states."

Persinger's test mystics consistently reported "feelings of floating, of leaving their bodies, of unreality, and a sense of great meaningfulness" he reports. And it's common for them to hear their names whispered from no apparent source."

Could the bliss helmet make us all into visionaries? Did Mohammed, Saint Theresa and Buddha have atypical temporal lobes? Persinger aims to probe the neuromechanisms behind religious revelations. He also thinks that his helmet could eventually be used to produce transcendental experiences in non-religious people suffering from death anxiety." End of article. would Awareness please comment on that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this entity is reporting accurately and that the experiments are on the right track for discovering more in regard to this area. This Awareness indicates that the low-level magnetic field as that which does have such an effect; that this as one value which entities may receive from the Polarizer that Sam Millar offers.

Criticism of Sam Millar's Polarizer Not Justified

This Awareness indicates that there are many entities who have been critical of the Sam Millar polarizer, in the sense that they see it as not having any power, that it is but a low-level magnetic field and they think because it is of such weakness that it could not be of any value magnetically, and there are some who set about to create one which would have greater power.

This Awareness indicates that this is missing the point. It is not the greater power that brings the results, it is keeping the power low. This Awareness indicates in this sense it is much likened unto homeopathic medicine, wherein you do not want greater strength, you want it to be the lesser strength, for the vibration and frequency level as that which resonates in harmony, and if it is overpowering it can be disruptive and hard on the entity's psyche and vibratory frequencies.

This Awareness indicates that this helmet as proposed as that which can in the future be of considerable value to entities who wish to have these experiences and can help entities who might not otherwise be able to have such attunement. This Awareness suggests that entities keep their eyes and ears open for further information on this; that it appears that within approximately 3 to 5 years these may be made available to the public, in certain advertisements of magazines prone toward the spiritual experience.

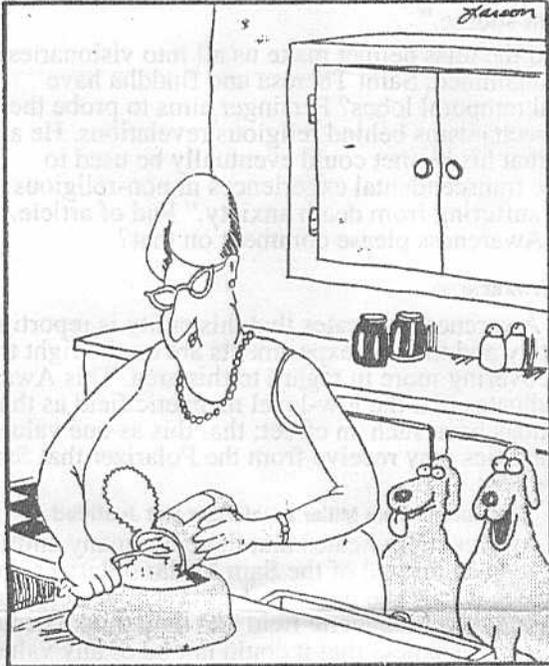

Ed's Note: Sam Millar's Polarizer is no longer available. Production stopped when the entity passed over some years ago. Many CAC members have and still use this instrument, including this editor and Vikki T. There is considerable information today on the Internet about Michael Persinger and his research with magnetic helmets. (Go to Google and type in "Michael Persinger".)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION(AVATON):

If people wanted to use the polarizer to experiment in this area, they would use the North pole, would they not?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that the North pole can be placed in the vicinity of the top of the head. It does not need to be placed at the temples. The North pole sending off the energy approximately one foot to 18 inches at a strength sufficient to bring forth a sense of relaxation that helps entities to enter into the Alpha state and this enhancement being sufficient to help in meditation, so that experiences can be better felt, and enhanced.

A TV EXPOSE OF CATHOLIC CHILD ABUSE IN CANADA: "WHERE WAS GOD?"
(Gray Nuns and Priests Charged With Child Perversions)

Question:

A question from Nick Bailey, San Bernadino, CA. Basically I guess he wants Awareness just to state whether the information is true or not, and whatever It would add. He writes: "A question for Awareness on Catholic child abuse in Canada. So many questions. I want to know if the following is true. It was on the TV program Prime Time Live, on ABC network.

"At the Saint John orphanage in Quebec, Canada, the Gray Nuns took normal children and called them retarded so they could get more money to care for them, and kept it themselves. Kids were strapped down, given electric shock treatments and drugged for experiments. They were raped by priests in three orphanages. A boy was raped in an elevator.

"Many children were sexually assaulted and murdered by nuns, doctors and lay-workers. Many were bound in straight-jackets and lowered into water until almost drowned. Pop-cycle sticks rammed into ears to break ear-drums. They were made to sleep in straight-jackets or chains. They were forced to eat mice by Gray nuns.

"They were held in chains, tied to beds for weeks. The Gray nuns viciously beat a 5 year old girl the night before she died. They were officially called "retarded". Only as adults did they ever know they were normal. (His writing is hard to read)

"A two billion dollar lawsuit has been filed for the orphans, but no action yet. Nobody, no criminal prosecution as of yet. Across the street from the orphanage is a children's cemetery. Most died under mysterious circumstances. Stories are now coming in from all over Canada about more of the same.

"They did not say anything about UFOs being involved, but probably so, and they did charge prostitution for the kids and you might imagine selling them, possibly a link to Boy's Town, Nebraska."

And he asks: "Where was their God? It seems the devil truly rules the world. Oh well, maybe after 2012, it will be better. It could not be much worse." And he wants Awareness to comment on that information given on this TV program.

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness indicates that the information on that television program scratched the surface of the problem of child brutality throughout the world. This Awareness indicates that unfortunately, what the program told was true. Unfortunate because it only told a small amount of truth. Throughout the world such cruelty is being perpetrated against children on a daily basis.

This Awareness indicates that thousands of children from Brazil, South America, have been purchased or kidnapped from families, promised to be given to wealthy families in the United States or Europe, but instead were sold either into sex rings as previously discussed or were used for organ transplant sources, whereby kidneys or livers or hearts or eyes would be taken from these children and sold on the medical market for transplant into more wealthy families for their children, who need such organs.

Huge Organ Transplant Business From Kidnapped Children

There is an enormous amount of organ transplant business based on kidnapped children or children who are taken for adoption to be sent to wealthy countries who never make it to the place but whose bodies are left in grisly hospitals for burial after organs have been removed in some third world country or elsewhere.

This Awareness indicates that there is a kind of economy that thrives on the rape of flesh for money, and too often the innocents of the world are the victims. It is much greater and more vast a business than anyone would imagine.

ORGAN TRANSPLANTS FROM KIDNAPPED CHILDREN EXPOSED IN 'ACRES USA'

(Unemployed Street People Are Also Victims)

FOLLOW-UP(AVATON):

The Acres USA newspaper reprinted a story about this that was in a magazine in France I believe and it related real horror stories about what's happening to children. It's stated that in South America and particularly in Mexico, they will take these children and remove their eyes but they won't kill the children. They'll just be out on the streets blind, and also, they would take some organs or a particular organ and then release the child. It wasn't that they killed them each time, but was basically the information in that article in Acres USA true?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative. In some instances they would take a lung or one kidney from a child and then patch the child up and let the entity be released. The entities doing this were more merciful than in most such cases, whereby in most such cases, they would simply let the child die and take all of the organs they desire and sell these on the medical markets around the world.

This Awareness indicates it was not only children who were used in this manner. Often they would use the unemployed street people with the promise that if they will sell an organ they will receive large amounts of money. Thus, when the entity goes in for the operation, they would give the entity anesthetic to put the entity under, and then remove more organs than they spoke of, to the point where the entity could not survive and the entity dies and no money is paid.

The body simply is chopped up and discarded in some way that eventually allows for the disappearance of the entity entirely. This Awareness indicates that thus, the adult organs that are needed for such transplants for medical industry are supplied in this way and children's organs are supplied through the kidnapping or purchase of children for such purposes, or through fraudulent adoption agencies, based in third world countries, promising the parents that their child would be given a new start in a wealthy family, in a wealthy nation.

IS THERE A "BOYS TOWN" CONNECTION?

(Sex Trade in Children is Bigger Than the African Slave Trade)

Follow-up Question:

Was the speculation of the questioner about the possible involvement of UFOs or the possibility there is a link with this Canadian situation with the nuns to Boys Town, Nebraska?

Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness indicates that the situation in Boys Town, Nebraska, as that which is much of the same type of network of sexual child use, or child used for sexual purposes, but it does not appear to have any direct connection with the situation in Canada although the network is international in that it kidnaps children from all over the world and has agents all over the world to find markets for these children for either sex purposes or for purposes of adoption wherein sufficient fees are paid or for the sale of organs from the children.

This Awareness indicates that the sale of children throughout the world is on a vast scale, rivaling that of the slave market in the early years of this country's involvement in gathering slaves from Africa. The slaves from Africa being taken to both Europe and to the United States was a vast business and hundreds and thousands of slaves were kidnapped and moved into other countries.

This Awareness indicates that even this does not match the magnitude of what is occurring today with children from third world countries who are being kidnapped and sent to other lands for sale, for sex, or for organ sources. This Awareness indicates there is also the market from the more civilized nations, whereby children are kidnapped and while it is tracked in part by milk carton pictures, it is much more prevalent than the number of children shown on milk cartons and it is far less than that market which occurs from other countries.

It is still beyond the comprehension of most entities.

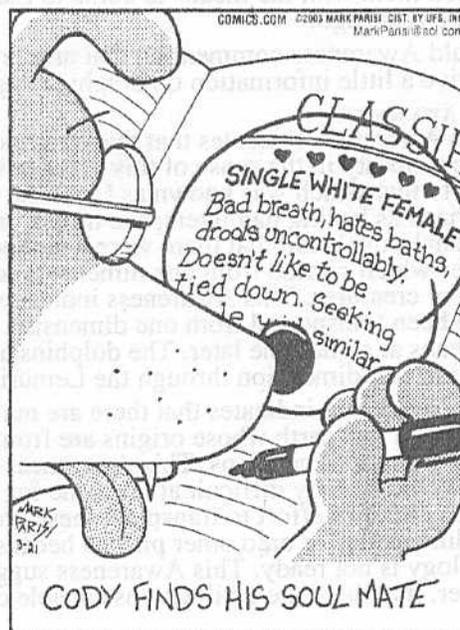

Ed's Note: For more information on the pervert network in children, please refer to Revelations of Awareness issue 95-14 (Dark Forces at Work in Boys Town); $3.00 from CAC.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

The Wisdom of Awareness: -- On Truth

Truth is that which is, and wherein an entity believes that he has discovered 'The Truth', or the source for 'The Truth', such an entity generally ceases to question and to explore and to research further in that area. This Awareness wishes entities to question, doubt, research, and to avoid absolute conclusions on anything, but to continue gathering more and more information about everything. (Issue 78-35)

WHY WE LIKE DOLPHINS

QUESTION:

We've received a number of questions over the year by people who are interested in dolphins and porpoises and they feel an affinity to them, and they're interested in their origin and so-forth, and there's been a number of tabloid stories lately, one of which I'd like to read and ask Awareness to comment. They claim that dolphins come from outer space

"Dolphins are the descendants of space travelers who came to Earth 100,000 years ago, and they're now prepared to move on.

"It's move or die," Dr. Hsu Sen-sung told reporters in Biejing, China. "Dolphins came to our planet to escape deadly pollution on their own home world, and they are now battling the same situation here.

"The dolphin kills reported around the world last summer were just the beginning. Unless we can locate an unpolluted new planet and help these poor devils get there, the entire dolphin race will go the way of the dinosaurs."

The expert's theory isn't as far-fetched as it sounds. Dramatic new studies suggest that dolphins are at least as smart as human beings and the Chinese scientist actually claims to have been successfully communicating with them telepathically since last June.

"Our understanding came in bits and pieces, but we are now on a common ground," said Dr. Hsu. "The dolphins have made it clear to us that their time is growing short. They desperately need our technology and hardware to survive. They specifically ask for spacecraft to shuttle them to another ocean-covered world."

Dr. Hsu was vague when asked to explain how Chinese scientists managed to establish a telepathic link with dolphins.

But it is no secret that they have been involved in dolphin research for the last 25 years.

According to Dr. Hsu, the breakthrough came when a male dolphin at a marine research facility grew close to a psychic scientist "and started putting thoughts in his head". Now the dolphin insists that his alien ancestors faced the same threat from pollution that dolphins face.

He further claimed that land animals not unlike men provided them with the means to come to Earth over 100,000 years ago."

Would Awareness comment on that article and perhaps give a little information on dolphins in general.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to have some credibility in the sense of this event being connected to that which was known as Lemuria; that the Lemurians as having had interspace travel, or interdimensional travel, and that there were a number of voyages which carried from one dimension to another, beings or creatures. This Awareness indicates the cat as having been transported from one dimension into this by Atlanteans at some time later. The dolphins as having come into this dimension through the Lemurians.

This Awareness indicates that there are numerous creatures on this earth whose origins are from other planets or other dimensions. This Awareness indicates that it would be very difficult at this time for science to make any kind of effort to transplant these creatures into other dimensions or onto other planets because the technology is not ready. This Awareness suggests, however, that there are civilizations capable of such transformation through interdimensional contacts and communications. This Awareness suggests also, however, that the dolphins do have souls which can survive death and live on in a different environment if they so choose.

Earth Plane is at a Critical Point

This Awareness suggests that the earth plane as that which is at a critical point. It does appear that humanity will recognize this in approximately 5 years and a massive effort will be launched to reverse the trend of destruction that is occurring on this plane; whether it will be done in time before certain species are destroyed, such as dolphins, is not certain. Whether it can be turned around in time to prevent the human species from being destroyed is more likely, but there is even danger there. Only when the human species begins feeling threatened are they likely to take real action to reverse this trend, for these human species are the cause of most of the environmental destruction that is destroying the planet. This Awareness indicates there was a time when dinosaurs threatened life on the planet in a major way. Now it is the humans who are the dinosaurs and unless they can reverse their specialization and turn back toward the more natural approach, they are likely to be pushed to extinction on this plane also.

Psychic Communication Between Humans and Animals is a Fact

This Awareness indicates that in reference to the psychic communication; that this psychic communication as that which can occur between humans and other animals, when the human mind is receptive and accepting of the impulses, the psychic or mental impulses from an animal. This Awareness suggests, however, that entities need to be quite cautious of assuming that they are reading the mind of an animal, for in most cases, this is but personal projection, and not actually receiving messages from an animal. This Awareness indicates that one can practice and may, in such practice, discover they have the ability to accurately read an animal's mind, but one can check out the accuracy they are having by finding whether messages given are correct, such as asking an animal where something is and then asking or testing whether the object is where the animal says. If an entity can do rudimentary readings of this kind, the entity may presume to have psychic connection with the animal.

The New Frontier: Exploration of Inner Space

This Awareness indicates that these movements of creatures from one dimension to another are beyond the present technology of human beings on earth, but that this is likely to change within the next 40 years as entities begin to explore the psychic sciences with the new technologies that are available, whereby these technologies, working with vibrations, become more capable of attuning to individual frequencies and become more aware of the frequencies associated with the different dimensions. There is, in effect, a time coming when the exploration of inner space, or interdimensional space will become the new frontier.

Do Dolphins Identify With Humans?

(Have They Actually Saved Shipwrecked Sailors?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness, there's been a number of stories, amazing stories actually, about shipwrecked sailors who had been lost at sea in shark infested waters, and a school of dolphin would come and surround them and actually let them hang on to them, and guide them through the shark infested water to land. There's been a number of stories like that. I don't know whether they've been confirmed or not, but I was wondering, if this is true, does that mean that the dolphins somehow identify with the humans?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as in the affirmative; that the friendship between dolphins and humans as that which is associated with this earlier experience, wherein humans, humanoids assisted the dolphins in their transplant, in the transplant of their civilization. This Awareness indicates that it is not unlike the movie Star Trek, wherein the whales were transplanted from one time zone into a future time zone to repopulate the waters after whales had become extinct. This as a fictional story, yet such things are possible, and even the movement of creatures interdimensionally, into different dimensions is possible, when the technology is fully understood.

Animals Like UFOs Can Change Frequency

This Awareness indicates that technology has to do with the frequencies, the vibrational frequencies that separate one dimension from another and which allow entities to traverse frequencies. It is this recognition and understanding of frequencies that allows those UFO sightings to occur, wherein entities see the UFO and then it is suddenly gone. It has simply tuned its frequency into another dimension; by lowering and speeding up the frequency, its own frequency, it can disappear to this dimension, or enter this dimension. This Awareness indicates that the same can occur for individuals or for animals or for objects. It is in this way that objects have fallen from the skies, from one dimension to another, in ways that are scientifically unexplainable.

This Awareness indicates that reports of such things have plagued history without understanding by the masses, and these things essentially are coming out of one dimension into another. This Awareness indicates that it is uncommon, but it is not that unusual. This Awareness indicates that many of the UFO sightings are simply ignored because entities cannot believe these things could possibly be, and if entities understood how they could be, then it would not be ignored so often, and more reports would be forthcoming.

This Awareness indicates that there have always been movements from one dimension to another, in different ways, of energies and entities traversing dimensions, but these energy traversing are not so commonplace that entities become familiar with it, and therefore, many cannot believe, cannot accept, cannot understand, and therefore, reject. This Awareness suggests that as technology increases and these things become better understood, and as they become more accepted through fiction, through stories, through movies and through actual scientific exploration and research and theorizing, it will become a commonplace event at some time in the future.

This Awareness indicates the mouse or the starfish, or even the cat and dog would have an impossible time trying to understand how mankind could affect the weather and make it rain; even the small child has a difficulty in understanding how mankind could make rain. This Awareness indicates mankind is not so highly evolved as to understand everything, and mankind is at the stage where he does not yet understand interdimensional travel, but it doesn't mean such things do not yet exist.

There are Actually Entities in the Universe Who Create Planets

This Awareness indicates that there are so many things beyond the knowledge of mankind. There are actually in this universe, beings who know how to create planets and who do so, but this is far beyond anything humans can comprehend. Even as the creation of ships and planes is far beyond the knowledge of a dog, yet these things are, and perhaps someday, the consciousness within the dog will evolve far enough to at least recognize that humans actually created the cars, the ships and the planes.

This Awareness indicates that someday, the human mind which is extremely flexible and capable of evolving, may somehow reach the realization that human-like minds evolved far enough to be able to create planets, and populate worlds. This Awareness indicates that within approximately 50 years, entities may begin to see that possibilities lie ahead for instilling life energies on planets which are presently seen as dead, such as Mars, or Venus, yet the time is not ready for the masses to understand these possibilities. This Awareness indicates there are some scientists already who foresee this possibility of using certain chemicals and microbes that are capable of multiplying themselves and transplanting these microbes onto other planets that they might begin to multiply and grow and create life on those planets, akin to the life seen on earth, of vegetation and flora.

How do you Think Everything Came to Be? By Accident?

This Awareness indicates that there are many things which sound unusual, absurd, when viewed from present understanding, but there are things beyond present understanding that explain and allow the creation of things that are in existence. This Awareness indicates how do you think everything came to be? By accident alone? This Awareness indicates there was a mind at work, creating What IS, and entities can experience an ever-evolving mind that eventually merges with and understands the entire creation, and how it was done. This Awareness indicates, however, that evolving mind cannot evolve to that degree while still maintaining disbelief and confines in limited understanding and realities.

You cannot be involved in one pattern of thinking and understand the entire mosaic of all patterns that transcend your own pattern of thinking. You must break free of your pattern and reach into other patterns of thinking, in order to understand the greater pattern. It is as Ouspensky stated: "Even God cannot make a royal flush from a full house." You cannot have certain limitations, hold on to these limitations, create certain definitions, and hold on to those definitions and make something greater than those definitions allow. You must be able to break free of the definitions and go on to a royal flush, a new definition of things. You cannot hold on to one mind-set and reach another mind-set simultaneously. You must let go of one mind-set and take to another.

If you know the answers to a particular scenario, then you cannot leave that scenario and go on to another without first releasing all those things you consider as answers, thus, the entity who locks himself in to a belief system in which these beliefs are limited and are never released, cannot evolve or discover anything more until willing to drop those beliefs, drop those limitations to move on and question and explore and look for something more.

Dolphins Who Swim In To Meet Entities

What Could One Expect From Such a Meeting?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

Awareness, I've had a great attraction to and an affinity for a report that there was a bay in Western Australia, where wild free dolphins are reported to swim in to meet humans. I would think such a meeting would be very uplifting. Would Awareness comment on why they're coming in and what one could experience from such a meeting?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these dolphins have a memory that is passed on genetically. They are far more psychic than humans who rely so heavily on language that their psychic thought-force becomes inhibited. This Awareness indicates that if humans never spoke, they would have the ability to communicate through telepathy, or that which is psychic sensitivity to each other, but because they speak words, or rely on words, which become crutches for the mind, they are limited in their ability to communicate, understand and remember things that are beyond words.

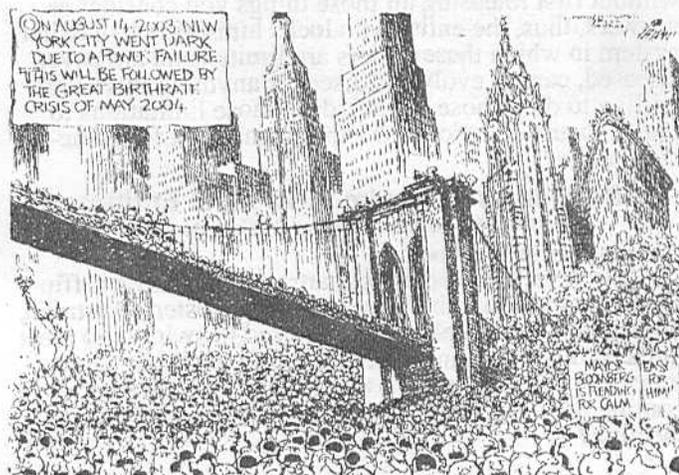

Dolphins Communicate Through Telepathy

The dolphins, however, do not speak words, and therefore, they communicate through telepathy and they recall memory that has been handed down genetically through thousands, through hundreds of thousands of years. The dolphins have a kind of universal consciousness, understanding things that lie beyond the knowledge of humans, and communicate telepathically with humans, sharing what they know. Most humans would not be able to understand the message given by dolphins, but they perceive subconsciously that information which, over years, can surface, and allow the humans to gain a subconscious realization of things that might have long been lost from human memory.

This Awareness indicates as mentioned previously, the dolphins have an appreciation and feel a kind of eternal debt to the humans for having brought them to this planet and given them a place to live. This Awareness indicates this trust is often shattered as humans destroy or violate dolphins and tamper with their environment, polluting, and these dolphins are trying very hard to communicate with humans, to get back into good graces. They have a motive for such communication; one of love and appreciation and one of need, and humans are only now beginning to respond, and these are still quite rare.

Such a communication would be another step in reestablishing that bond between humans and dolphins. The increasing affinity between humans and dolphins can be of great benefit to the human race as well as preserving the dolphins from extinction. This Awareness indicates to a lesser degree, whales also have a similar affinity to humans.

Ed's Note: a recent example of how dolphins protect entities occurred when the child Elian Gonzalez was found on a handmade raft off the coast of Florida. Everyone on the raft, including his mother drowned in an attempt to escape from Cuba and come to America. Elian repeatedly told authorities that after the raft capsized he found himself struggling in the waves and was drowning, but a school of dolphins that had been following the raft, quickly surrounded him and pushed him back on to the raft. This happened several times,

QUESTION:

A question from Matthew H. It came in over the Internet. He writes: "The Bible says that it is bad to take the Lord's name in vain. If one does not mean it when one says it, would there be any negative effects caused by the speaking of such words?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the taking of the Lord's name in vain simply means throwing the name out without any reverence, using the name without it being used reverently. Assuming that God's name is Yahweh or Jehovah, just throwing the name out would cheapen its significance. Assuming the name of your God is Rumpelstiltskin, and you went around saying, "Oh, Rumpelstiltskin, dammit!" you would gradually lose any reverence for Rumpelstiltskin.

This Awareness indicates that this is the reason you are not to take the name of the Lord vainly. 'Vainly' means without reverence. In this case you are calling on the name of God in vain. It is of no real worthiness that you call on the name of God. It is vain for you to call on the name of God without reverence. Therefore, taking the name of God in vain means there is no reverence in your use of the name.

This Awareness indicates that the more you do that, the less the name has value to you. Therefore, if you continually use the name of God in vain, you gradually condition yourself to have no value in the name of God, and it does not serve you any further. You lose your ability to call on His name. Essentially, that is the meaning.

Thus, you say "If you don't mean it, does it create any harm in using the name of God in vain?" If you don't mean it, then you are using it in vain. If you mean it, if you use the name with great meaning and reverence, then it has significance and can be of service to you.

What's It Like to Have No Soul?

(More on the Rudimentary Soul of Cats and Animals)

QUESTION:

Another question from Matthew. Awareness has covered this, but he's got a different angle here. He asks: "Could Awareness explain the concept of the soul? H.B. Puryear, in his book The Edgar Cayce Primer said that it is a combination of spirit, will and mind. He, and I believe, Awareness said that only human beings have souls. What is it like to have no soul? And how would an entity know?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that will is intent. If an entity does not have intent or a purpose, the entity may have spirit and mind without purpose, and in that lack would have no complete soul. In other words, there is the Triune or three parts of the soul: spirit, will and mind. The entity may have mind, which is a form of thought or the ability to think.

Even a cat or dog or animal may have some rudimentary thought. In other words, these animals may have the beginnings of a complete soul, and their purpose and intent may be to feed themselves, to find food, or to survive from one time to another, or to reproduce. Therefore, there is some intent involved, so they would have some rudimentary souls. Obviously, they all have spirit.

This Awareness indicates that as to the question: What is it like to have no soul? It is possible to have an evolving soul, a rudimentary soul being developed, but not being able to think or to have any intent or purpose or will, and be just spirit, like a butterfly; it is simply lack of certain qualities in one's being.

This Awareness indicates of course, one can say "Well, even the butterfly has a purpose." It may be hungry; it may want pollen from some flower, and of course, that is true, but again, it is a rudimentary soul, a very primitive soul, just beginning.

This Awareness indicates perhaps the life force of a protozoa would be seen as even more rudimentary, but one could even argue that it has a purpose of sorts, in that it has its appetites and seeks to satisfy its immediate needs, so it has an even more rudimentary or primitive soul, if it can be called a soul.

In general, the word is a matter of degrees. How strong a soul are you speaking of? How much of will is necessary to create a total or real soul? Many entities have rudimentary souls; this in reference to human entities. These entities may have a purpose in life to get from one place to another, to find something to eat, to sleep, perhaps to get drunk, perhaps to get some place to call their own.

This Awareness indicates this is a soul, but is it a developed soul? Is it a soul that is highly developed? Another entity may have a grand design or will to do something fantastic with his or her life, and the entity may have deep and wondrous thoughts and may be able to put those thoughts in order and toward some purpose and goal, and this entity may reflect a soul that is highly developed.

There Are Different Degrees of Developing Souls

This Awareness indicates in other words there are developed souls of different degrees; souls in the process of developing, souls that have been highly developed, and of course there are those very primitive and rudimentary souls of creatures that are barely alive and have little communication or thought skills.

This Awareness also suggests that souls are a kind of magnet. They tend to draw in certain energies. It is the magnetism of an entity that creates a hunger for example. The soul is that which hungers or seeks or wants, and this of course gives it will or desire, and that plays a major part in the development of the soul. As entities desires are strong, the soul appears to be more magnetic in drawing the entity toward some purpose, in other words, creating a stronger will.

It also follows that when one has a strong will, one tends to be more focused in thinking and the thinking process then improves and evolves. The spirit is still there of course; it is always the screen on which the desires and will and thoughts operate. The spirit is likened unto an energy of life that is everywhere present, and it animates and gives life to an entity so that an entity's soul can operate as a living thing.

At What Point Does a Soul Begin?

One might ask: "At what point does a soul begin? Does the soul begin only after a strong will is formed, or does it begin only after a certain IQ is mustered by a thinking mind?" This Awareness indicates it is not something that has been defined and measured by any of your human standards of measurement.

This Awareness indicates essentially it has been suggested that a certain number of souls were created on certain inner planes, and these souls have gone out into the various dimensions, and this Awareness indicates that there have been no sciences or methodologies created to measure the development level of a soul, and therefore, it is of little significance at this time as to how much development is necessary in order to qualify that one has a soul, or doesn't have a soul as yet.

Thus, the question: "What is one without a soul like?" has little meaning until one can find a way of defining at what stage a soul becomes a soul. It is likened unto looking at a child growing and asking: "At what level does one become adult?" You arbitrarily will think "21" or "18" because you have made it so that an entity can do certain adult things at 18 or at the age of 21, but this was an arbitrary labeling relating to birthdays and has nothing to do with the individual's development. It was just a general aging, the standard that was set to help decide when someone was an adult.

You could do the same with a soul if you had measurements such as ages that you could put on the soul. A soul is "this many years old" therefore, it is now a full grown soul. It is now a soul, whereas four days ago, it wasn't. This Awareness indicates that this is simply a matter of subjective determination, and has no way to be objectively evaluated. But in a general sense a soul is considered complete when it has a will, a mind, and spirit, in relative development.

BEING STRUCK BY LIGHTNING: ANY PARTICULAR KARMA?

(When It's Time to Die There Are Many Ways to Go)

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. She writes: "I just learned that a young woman was struck by lightning playing softball, and killed, over in Barre yesterday. This is quite a statistically unusual way to die. Is there some peculiar karma associated with being struck by lightning?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it would be something that would show in her astrological chart relating to Uranus, but this is not a common karmic punishment or way of dispensing with a person. The chart might indicate some karmic nature if one could see the chart and tell where the Uranus effect was in her horoscope, but this Awareness suggests it does not appear to have been a karmic punishment. It appears that it was simply a way by which the entity was taken, painlessly and quickly.

It could well have been some act of a guardian angel or some other entity from another dimension or plane who called the entity home from the earth life experience, and it may not have been karmic, it may have been a form of rescuing or saving her from some unfortunate events that would have happened on earth in her physical life.

This Awareness indicates she may have set this up prior to coming into physical body; that she would not live for any longer than a certain age, or she may have accomplished what she was on earth to do, and may have simply subconsciously willed to go back to some place where she had other things to do.

This Awareness is not discussing her action precisely or her precise karma or needs; It is simply discussing the concept of an entity who would be perhaps struck by lightning and how this could be interpreted.

Why Do People Enjoy Horror Movies?

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. She asks: "Why do people enjoy horror movies? What do they get out of them? Does it discharge or defuse their own possibly repressed fears? Or have they perhaps become "adrenaline junkies" enjoying the stimulation, the sense the fear induces?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the "adrenaline junky" is the term that fits most of the entities who enjoy these horror movies. This Awareness indicates it is a way whereby not only can they get out of their own boring lives for a few minutes, but they can also get an adrenaline rush while being very safe and secure. They may become quite scared, quite horrified, but underneath it all, they know they are in a safe place.

It is likened unto having an adventure without having to risk anything, and many entities enjoy adrenaline-type adventures. If they can be safe in the process, then of course it is even better for them.

This Awareness indicates that this is an advanced method of vicarious living that is somewhat beyond the old way, whereby entities would sit around a campfire telling ghost stories to get these same kind of energies. In this case they get them much more suddenly, sometimes more strongly, because they are not only hearing the ghost story, they are seeing the ghost story, and it becomes much more vivid for them.

This Awareness indicates that the negative side of course, is that it conditions them to become more complacent to violence. They are not as anti-violent after watching many of these horror shows as they would be if they never saw such things. They can become conditioned to accept violence more easily if they have watched these horror shows, and for some people, this is a very dangerous thing to become more conditioned to violence, because they may have certain tendencies toward violence through some deep, strong hostilities of their own, and therefore, it could be a hindrance toward their own welfare and the welfare of others for certain entities to be exposed to these horror shows.

For most people it is not harmful, except that it may make them more tolerant and accepting of violence. Remember that you become what you tolerate to some extent.

WISDOM OF AWARENESS --- On Humor:

This Awareness suggests humor lightens; seriousness is massive, heavy and gross.

Should We Agitate Water Before Drinking It?

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. "Please discuss the merits of drinking flowing or otherwise agitated water, and whether it will benefit significantly to agitate our water before drinking it?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the flowing or agitation of water helps to purify it; that is, more or less the main value of such action. Water flowing approximately 16 feet in terms of space, depending on its degree of impurity, can be much more pure than standing water. This Awareness indicates, of course, water flowing through pipes may not necessarily become purified by that flow, even if it is more than 16 feet, but in general, even that would help somewhat.

This Awareness indicates it tends to affect the molecules of water to have them moving, but to have oxygen available for moving water is what really helps to purify it. The more it churns or is agitated, such as moving through rapids or waterfalls, the more purified it becomes. Putting water in a blender could give it some oxygenation. Even running it through a screened filter as may be installed on a faucet can help to oxygenate the water, and the oxygen can help to purify it, but this is not to say such water is necessarily pure enough to drink, just because it has been oxygenated or put in a blender. It may be better, but still not be good enough.

Where to Send Unwanted Astral Shells?

QUESTION:

Another question from this entity (JD). "I have been simply sending astral shells away when called to dispatch them. Would I do better to direct them specifically to some tree or plant, or back to their souls?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that they may not be able to go back to their soul, because the soul may not be ready for reincarnation or ready to take them back. Astral shells however, can be directed to go somewhere, that they may find rest. It is likened unto a part of an entity that is made to stand guard over some area that is significant to the entity.

For example, an entity who held a certain place as sacred, or held a certain place as significant in his or her life, may cause an astral shell to return. Keep in mind the astral shell is a kind of emotional thought-form wherein emotions are attached to that particular area which the astral shell haunts, and the word 'haunts' means resides, or stays; and therefore, it is because of the significance of the area that the astral shell is there.

An Astral Shell Repeats the Death Over and Over

For example, there is the story of the entity who perceived an astral shell that would jump out of a window from the fourth floor, fall on the sidewalk below, come back up the stairs, and again run and jump out of the window, repeating the way by which the astral shell's host body had died.

The astral shell continued to repeat the action over and over, thinking that this was important, and more or less, because the entity had gone through this falling experience, the entity in his afterlife had that stuck in his mind as highly significant. There was an emotional attachment to it, which the astral shell simply acted out repeatedly.

This Awareness indicates it is not that the astral shell needed to continue this action. If someone could have said, "You may go now! You have completed your work! Go and do things that you enjoy elsewhere. You need not continue this action!" then the astral shell would feel free to go elsewhere, and do something different. This is simply a direction for the energy of the entity which got locked up in a certain obsessive thought-form.

Astral Shells on the Interpreter's Farm

This Awareness indicates when the Interpreter lived on a certain farm in Colton, there was an Indian burial ground on the property, and there were noises that began to occur, and entities would see an Indian spirit occasionally, and the entity Sam Millar in a reading, suggested that the Interpreter's wife would be the one who should talk to the spirit and suggest that the spirit need not continue to guard the graves of the other Indians, for their bodies would be safe, and that he could go on to other things now.

This Indian had apparently been guarding these graves for over a hundred years. The Interpreter's wife called the Indian to her at one point, when sounds were being heard, saw him in her mind's eye and said to him, "Thank you for guarding these Indian bodies for so long. Your work is now complete. They will be safe. You may now go and do other things that are also important to you." And the Indian then departed, seemed pleased and left, and no more hauntings were experienced in the area.

Astral Shells That Guard Egyptian Tombs

This Awareness suggests that this may be a way of handling these astral shells in your situation also. This Awareness indicates that these are also related to the Egyptian tombs which were guarded by spirits or astral shells, whereby these Egyptian tombs could easily have been defused from their curses by entities simply talking to the spirit guards or astral shells and telling them that they have no longer a need to remain as guards, but entities did not understand this, and in some cases, there were consequences for even being present at a tomb that had been opened, and many entities suffered consequences from the astral shell guards who felt it their duty to prevent the tombs from being opened.

If it could have been explained that the tomb is being opened to help show the world the glory of this Pharaoh, or of this Pharaoh's wealth, and let the world see the remarkable treasures which this entity had and revere his being, then the astral shell could have felt more comfortable about letting the grave-robbers in. To the astral shell, they were simply grave-robbers, but had he been informed they were working for a museum that would take care of the treasures for the Pharaoh, then his attitude would have been different.

Psychic Vampires Are All Around Us

QUESTION:

Another question from JD. She writes: "I understand that in some cases, the physical or otherwise forms of living beings are sustained by light or thought. Here on earth the majority of life forms seem to survive by preying on other life forms. I find this appalling. Just how prevalent is this survival by predation system? I should hope it is quite rare!"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is akin to that which is called 'psychic vampirism,' feeding off of the energies of others, and it is quite common among humans. It is possible for entities to learn, however, that energy is everywhere present and the mind is capable of drawing energy even from the air around, because the air and the space contains life energy.

When entities discover that the spirit of Divinity is everywhere present and that spirit of Divinity is the Life Energy, then they no longer will need to draw Life Energy from each other. Entities who seek attention are essentially seeking the energy of someone else. Entities who give attention are essentially giving their energy to someone else.

Attention taken, or attention given is the passing of energy. This Awareness indicates that you can give attention continuously, if you are aware that energy can be drawn from the space around you, for everything is alive and contains energy. Therefore, as more and more entities become aware from the ever-presence or omnipresence of energy, they will reach a point whereby they no longer need to draw energy from others by seeking their attention or trying to get something out of them.

This Awareness indicates the person who comes to you with a great need, with some hunger, is essentially drawing your energy, and as you work with this entity and invest more of your energy into the entity, they come to expect this from you and they will return for more of your attention and more of your help.

There comes a time when such psychic vampires will need to be told, "I can't help you anymore!" You may wish to continue helping them for some time, but if you cannot help them to learn to draw energy for themselves, or to handle their own problems, then you are helping to make them dependent on someone else for the energy they should learn to create on their own, for themselves.

You do not want to become an 'enabler' enabling them to continue being the psychic vampire that they have begun to become. This Awareness indicates you will see such entities at every party. Where there is a crowd of people there will always be some psychic vampire seeking energy from someone. Do not look down on them as though they were evil. They are simply people in need of attention.

Give them the attention you can afford, and tell them how much strength they have within and how you know that they can draw the energy they need or you know that they can handle the situation; you have faith in them, and then let them go their own way. Do not feed them too much of your energy, or get them dependent on you.

Many entities will enjoy being the fountain for psychic vampires. They enjoy trying to help others to the point where they are depleted of their own energy. It gives them a sense of importance. "This person really needs me! I am very important to their life! Therefore, I will give myself to this person, over and over, as long as the person continues to need me." This, many entities think of as being a leader.

As you move into a position of leadership or importance to others, you often think that you are important yourself, but you may simply be creating followers and dependents and keeping them from becoming self-contained or self-sufficient, or in their own rights able to handle their problems.

You do not want to become the fountain of energy for other people's lives and make them dependent on you. This can be a grave mistake, because not only will you then lose your own energy and your own right to go out and be yourself, you will not only make them dependent on you, but you become dependent on them, and you become responsible; that is the key word, to them.

You begin to make them independent, and you have a responsibility that you must continually fulfill for them. This Awareness indicates too much responsibility for the welfare of others can not only make them overly dependent and keep them from growing and developing their own sense of responsibility, it can also deplete you of energy that you could put to other use, or for helping others to develop their own sense of responsibility.

In other words, help people to help themselves. Don't simply help people so that you can be important and they can stay helpless before you.

Red Roses Turn White During Meditation

QUESTION:

A question from Lorna J., Willowdale, Ontario, Canada. She writes: "Early this year I experienced two red artificial silk roses turn pure white after meditation. To date, three and one half months later, they are still white. I use a lighted candle, then close my eyes in meditation. As I open my eyes, to my amazement there are two flames. I thanked God as I watched. The two flames touched forming an arch. Perhaps you can tell me the meaning. With heartfelt love and gratitude: Lorna." she writes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the action of the meditation with the two flames as that which can occur because of the eyes getting out of synch during the meditation. Normally the eyes focus in a synchronized manner together, but if you are meditating with your eyes closed, sometimes the eyes will both move in their own individual direction, similar to that which happens if you look at your finger and stare a mile down the road beyond the finger, you will see two fingers, even though you are only holding one finger up.

It is because the eyes have separated and each sees the finger, but from its own separate focus or direction. This Awareness indicates that this could account for the two candles seen, and the two candles coming together could also be a matter of mental effect on the eyes, wherein they begin to move back into synchronization, gradually, so that the flames are in part connected as one.

This Awareness indicates that the red petals of the flower turning white is a totally different matter. It appears that it was strictly what might be termed an unusual or miraculous type of event. It is that which can be said to be unexplainable, having to do with the power of the mind itself, wherein the mind emitted energy that took away the pigments. This Awareness indicates it is akin, but not the same, to the action of staring at clouds and causing them to disappear.

Wisdom of Awareness: On Accepting the Christ Consciousness:

"This Awareness indicates that it is for each entity to accept this Christ Consciousness, this Clear Light, this all-good, all-loving presence by the faith that is available to you if you but open yourself and accept Its pure presence as part of your being. This Awareness suggests this best occurs wherein entities give themselves to the crystal pure, virgin born clear light of truth, the Christ Consciousness."
