The Hollow Earth ( Part 2 )

Excerpt from a 1981 Personal Reading, Paul Shockley Interpreter

THE HOLLOW EARTH IS EXPLAINED

(How the Hole Was Created and Why It Can't be Seen)

QUESTION:

Regarding the Hollow Earth, how do volcanic eruptions and earthquakes affect the inner and middle earth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in order to understand this entire concept of the middle earth entities need to visualize the way this planet is put together. Most entities have been taught the traditional view of the Earth as that which is solid to the core, that the core itself is a solid or fluid type of center with extreme heat and melted lava. This is based on the assumption that the Earth was once a fireball of molten lava and is cooling down on the outer shell sufficiently to allow plants and animals and other creatures to survive on the outer shell. This Awareness indicates that most entities view the earth in this manner, seeing it as having an outer crust while everything deeper inside the Earth grows hotter as it moves closer toward the center.

Visualize a Fiery Molten Ball Spinning in a Cold Atmosphere

This Awareness has indicated that the Earth is indeed hollow. But in order for entities to understand this you must visualize what would occur if you had a molten ball of fiery substances that was generally fluid in nature which was spinning at one thousand miles per hour in a cold atmosphere. The outer shell would cool first, creating a film that solidified deeper and deeper forming a crust of land mass in areas above and below the seas.

This Awareness indicates the molten ball being twenty-five thousand miles around spinning at one thousand miles per hour creates a centrifugal force so that the melted core or inner part of this creation as that which flies outward, pressing on the outer crust causing it to swell outward slightly. Just as when you spin milk in a separator the heavier milk goes to the outer edge and the lighter cream moves toward the inner edge of the container in such a manner so as to create a hole in the center.

The liquid, in other words, as it is spun, creates a centrifugal hole in the center. This Awareness suggests it is the same when you are dealing with melted lava or the substance within the Earth spinning at a high speed as it orbits about the Sun and it turns a thousand miles an hour on its own axis.

This causes the Earth to bulge outward at the equator and that the inner part of the Earth also bulging outward creating a hole inside, a huge cavern inside the Earth several thousand miles across. This Awareness indicates that it is wider at the center than at the poles because the spin is such as to create greater pull in those areas, and the poles being colder due to their angle from the sun, hold together so that a sphere rather than a cylinder shape is formed. The opening at the poles is small, though also formed by the centrifugal force of the planet's spin.

Admiral Byrd's Discovery and Why it was Suppressed

At the poles gravity forms around the lip of the opening so that the North pole is not a point, but a line around the opening. This Awareness suggests the Pole openings are not seen most of the time because of the cloud-cover over the hole which is the reaction to the heat from the inner Earth and the cold air in the Arctic and Antarctic regions. It is this hole into which Admiral Byrd entered when he discovered, having traveled several hundred mile beyond the North Pole, he was in a lush green tropical area and saw strange animals. This entity's report was given but was not released thereafter and not publicized by the regular media and government agencies. Yet it was heard by masses when first broadcast after his return home, before "debriefing."

This Awareness suggests that the opening at the poles is several hundred miles across but it is seldom visible from the air because of the fog or cloud cover, and because flights seldom go directly over the pole. Yet, satellites have recorded pictures of the Earth in which the opening is quite clear.

This Awareness indicates there has recently been the report by Soviet scientists that the North Pole is not a single point but a line, that they have discovered it works as a kind of line. What they actually discovered was the ridge which is part of the lip around the opening. They discovered a short segment of the magnetic ridge which forms the hole. If they were to follow this ridge all the way, that which they now call the North Pole would be a line and would extend into a large circle.

This Awareness indicates many entities wonder why flights over the North Pole do not show the opening, and this Awareness suggests the flights do not actually go over the North Pole, they go over the polar region around the North Pole, for the instruments go totally wild at the North Pole.

This Awareness suggests that rare flights which might try to go over the poles, would generally follow the lip of the circle if using the compass, or become disoriented or be unable to see the opening because of the cloud covering over the opening. One needs to realize that the lip itself is curved, covering hundreds of miles and appearing like ordinary terrain, so that a traveler flying at low altitude could fly into the opening without even realizing what was happening.

This Awareness indicates there have been some rare pictures, such as those published by C.A.C. two years ago in which the hole at the North Pole is visible; this taken from a satellite where the pole is quite visible.*

*79-25 (The Secret of the UFOs); $5.00 from CAC.

This Awareness suggests that in the consideration of volcanic eruptions, think about this melted substance being caught between an outer and an inner crust, the inner crust having cooled sufficiently to allow for the vegetation and growth of plants and animals yet their being enough heat trapped within the Earth to allow these things to exist without an outer Sun to heat the atmosphere within.

The Inner Sun Within the Hollow Earth

This heat essentially is that which comes from hot lava within the area sandwiched between the outer and inner crusts, and from the collection of accumulated cosmic rays that penetrate the Earth, passing through the Earth. It is this collection of cosmic rays penetrating into the heart of the Earth that create the appearance of an inner sun; this "inner sun" is simply a collection of cosmic rays coming from all directions toward the center of the Earth into a particular point This Awareness indicates your science has acknowledged that these cosmic rays do pass through the Earth, that the Earth does not stop them but they do in fact move through the Earth.

This Awareness suggests these rays coming from all directions into the Earth will meet at a certain point and that point is that which is seen by inner earthlings as a light. The friction of these rays coming together create that which appears to be a light and which is essentially referred to as the inner Sun.

This does give off energies which assist in the creation of photons and those things necessary to assist in the growth of plants and animals within this region.

Caverns and Hot Lava Lie Between

This Awareness indicates that between the inner crust and the outer crust are what may be termed caverns leading into the subterranean levels near the outer crust. And from inner Earth there are some caverns leading toward the outer surface, but not so far as to come in contact with the lava section sandwiched between the inner and outer crusts.

If entities went far enough into the subterranean levels or far enough from inner Earth toward the outer surface they would find themselves growing ever hotter, for between the outer and inner crusts lies the lava and the heated mass which remains from the time when the Earth was indeed a ball of fire, this area still being molten lava that feeds volcanic eruptions.

This Awareness suggests the pressure of the inner Earth pushing outward as in a centrifugal force against the shell and against these heated areas as that which helps to push the volcanic lava toward the surface and the pressure contributes to eruptions on the surface or on the ocean floor. This pressure also helps to move the plates which account for the continental drift; that this continental drift theory which has become a new scientific theory of the continents having once been a single land mass now having over millions of years drifted into the present mapping of land mass, this is indeed a fact.

IS THE OCEAN FLOOR ABOVE THE SKY OF INNER EARTH?

QUESTION:

Is the floor of the ocean directly above the sky of the Inner Earth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative with the understanding that there is much land mass and lava between. There is not so much a sky of the inner Earth as a space within the inner Earth that is almost 20,000 thousand miles in circumference in its largest area, with an inner diameter varying between approximately five and one half to six thousand miles. The crust itself being varying to approximately two to two and one half thousand miles thick. There is about five to six thousand miles of space in the inner Earth in which entities can consider as the inner Earth sky.

This Awareness indicates that in the inner Earth the sky of six thousand miles height into which you would look to see the other side of your world would be quite a different experience from observing from the sky you visualize in your outer Earth reality.

Therefore the term "sky" is not quite interchangeable in reference to the inner and outer skies for they are two totally different kinds of sky and the term for inner Earth sky should not be confused with the outer Earth sky or universal sky. The inner Earth sky is more of an atmosphere.

EARTHQUAKES ON THE SURFACE: DO THEY AFFECT INNER EARTH?

QUESTION:

Does the weather change when the surface experiences an earthquake or is the inner Earth atmosphere completely different?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there are more geophysical changes on the inner Earth, and these create certain chemical reactions with gasses and liquids which have an effect of creating weather patterns; although generally speaking the weather in the inner Earth is much more steady, the seasons are much less pronounced, and are caused more by distance from the outer sun than by the tilt of the Earth.

This Awareness suggests there is no day and night cycles as on the surface, but that the area tends to more of a constant twilight.

IS THEIR SUN ALSO COOL?

QUESTION:

Is their sun also cool?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is more cool in the sense that it does not radiate direct ultraviolet rays, it does radiate certain kinds of energy that can create a kind of warmth from the friction it creates in the atmosphere. It does not radiate the infrared and ultraviolet directly but its influence and the rays which it does radiate upon touching the inner Earth, does tend to cause a warming action. This Awareness suggests that this tends to create a kind of oven-like atmosphere in the inner Earth, that is not so much a result of the light itself but of the reflection of the light and its atmospheric friction; the friction of the light striking various things creates a warmth. This warmth as that which is relatively stable in nature.

DO THEY HAVE NIGHT AND DAY?

QUESTION:

Do they have night and day in the inner Earth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the negative; that it is generally a continuous twilight, such as early evening. The only alternatives to this steady twilight as that which comes about when there are high bombardments of cosmic rays or when the openings at the poles occur simultaneously to certain aurora borealis type effects of these energies moving and reflecting in outer surface clouds coverings and when there is some type of light energy that shines through these openings, or when there is a massive bombardment of external rays due in part to cosmic activities such as sunspots.

This Awareness suggests that even these are very mild in nature, the lighting in the inner Earth as that which is so stable that entities would need to be much more sensitive than those living on the outer surface to even notice the subtle changes in lighting. There are variations in weather which affect the lighting as clouds and wind movements occur there also.

There are other exceptions such as when there are certain events on the inner plane such as collapsing mountains and resulting lava explosions or other geophysical actions that create light. These can create subtleties and changes in light on the inner Earth.

HOW DO THE WORLDS CONNECT?

QUESTION:

How do the surface and inner world connect?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that they connect essentially through the cohesiveness of the materials of that crust within and without and the lava between. It is much like a spinning hollowed-out ball in space with holes on each end, leading to the inner side of the ball, and held together by the common crusts inside and outside, like a pumpkin that has holes in both its top and bottom.

This Awareness, suggests if you could take a ball of marshmallow material, wrap it with screened mesh so it would hold it together, heat it to melting and spin it, so that the inner marshmallow flew outward against the screened mesh, hollowing a hole inside, then while still spinning, place it into frigid air so that the outer and inner crusts cooled and hardened, the area between these crusts would still be hot, yet the ball of marshmallow would remain round and hollow with cool surfaces inside and out.

This Awareness indicates that in the case of the Earth, the outer crust was strong enough and cooled sooner than the inner crust, and therefore served much as the wire mesh served the marshmallow, to hold the entire mass together while the inner Earth plastered itself up against the outer crust from the centrifugal force of the spinning rotating mass. This inner crust then itself began to cool. The entire process having taken several billions of years to reach its present stage of development which is still in process, but which is by now relatively stable.

All Planets Have Interplanetary Openings

This Awareness indicates that generally nearly all planets that have been hot and are spinning, have developed or are presently developing this kind of inner-planetary opening. They have the hollow center. Their stage of development depends on their temperature, the speed of the spin, their size and composition and how long they have been operating in this way.

There are of course, moons which do not spin, there are other bodies in the heavens that do not have sufficient spin to create hollowed openings of this type within them. And some bodies have been thrown off into space without being molten or hot enough to hollow from their spin. Most planets however hollow out to some degree, depending on their spin speed, their original temperature, the atmosphere in which they settle, and their age.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

The Hollow Earth Reading

Ed's Note: The following information was given in a Personal Reading for Michael Lineker, alias United Global Mankind, some 22 years ago. At that time Michael was preparing an expedition to enter the Inner Earth at the North Pole. He joined CAC basically to obtain all the information we had available on the Hollow Earth and to come on down and have a Personal Reading from Cosmic Awareness on this subject. I had written to Michael several times and was prepared to publish this information at the time because I knew there were some entities in CAC who would be highly interested in joining his expedition. However, because of warnings from Awareness, we did not publish the information, mainly because we felt his expedition would be threatened if we did. Awareness has disclosed that the FBI and similar snoop organizations have entities who subscribe to our newsletter and as such they would pose an obvious threat to Michael's expedition. Also, we were aware of a number of entities interested in the Hollow Earth theory, including members such as Mary Davis who published a newsletter on the Inner earth, called The Hollow Hassle, and Norma Cox who published Secrets, also on this subject, and both suddenly died unexpectedly, prematurely, and under very strange circumstances.

Three years ago, while researching old readings for our newsletter, I ran across this personal reading of Michael's and figured it was now time to publish it. Attached to the reading was a letter he wrote in June of 1986 (the letter reproduced below). It was still dangerous times so the reading was filed away unpublished. Another 13 years passed and I ran across his personal reading about the Hollow Earth. So in 1999 I wrote him telling him we planned to finally publish it and asked him for an update: Did the expedition to Inner Earth ever develop after he wrote me? If so, what happened? Did you reach Inner Earth etc? Or did he actually follow Awareness's advice and put the expedition off to a later date, or perhaps another lifetime. I never received an answer yet none of my letters were ever returned by the post office. During that three years I sent copies of my letter to his various addresses, still no answer and still none of my letters ever returned. Very strange. I searched the Internet and could find no record of him; I searched under all the various aliases he used. I have a feeling his "club" may still exist. He could be dead but my feelings are not strong in this direction. I am more inclined to believe that he somehow overcame those obstacles and made it into the Inner Earth. Years ago he sent me "The Subterranean Memo" which he signed. It reads like he was a visitor from Inner Earth and shares his observations of how strange are the habits and life of Earthlings. Did he really write it? (This memo is also included in this newsletter).

Obviously Michael was a driven man, fixated on the subject of Inner Earth and he was putting all of his energies into that expedition. If the expedition was indeed ever launched, I do sincerely hope he made it, and I do intend to hear from him some day.

If you are one of those readers who cannot handle the following information, read it and treat it as science-fiction. For the rest of you guys, I'm sure it's going to fill in quite a few pieces of that cosmic puzzle that have been missing. (Avaton)

COSMIC AWARENESS COMMUNICATIONS

P.O. Box 115

Olympia, Washington 98507

Dear Avaton:

Gracious greetings. I thank you for your letter. It's a good feeling to hear from you. I've always wanted to communicate or personally contact you during my rare trips south to the lower 48.

I'm very pleased that you now consider this a proper time to release more information on the Hollow Earth, Middle Earth, and the Subterranean World Theories. I'm sure there are many who have waited and yearned long enough and will greatly appreciate your actions.

However, as to the overall outlook, I've conceded with Cosmic Awareness; "that, the masses of consciousness are not yet ready for this type of information." During my travels, and lectures with the public, and even discussions in private with persons who were supposedly in the know about this type of information and material; I've found to my surprise that very few people could properly assimilate this information with their everyday lives. And of these few, there were fewer yet who failed to be sincere enough or serious enough to do something about it; like assisting the extensive research needed or properly forming an expedition, which is quite expensive to say the least, or to just document same, for public consumption. Oh Yes! We'll have our fill of the so-called sensationalists, and the likes of which, not to mention the usual ridicule. But, we all seem to have had our share of that, haven't we.

At any extreme, my feelings are that the world is just going to have to undergo a little more 'future shock', if need be. The truth of this subject should become known to the public. It might be well needed now, in this day and age, to better understand what we are, and who we are, by understanding what we walk upon.

The last time this kind of information was circulated to the world was April 10, 1818, by John Cleves Symmes of Ohio; of which a copy his original "Circular" is enclosed herein.

Quoting from Americus Symmes, son of John Cleves Symmes: "Captain Symmes addressed a copy of this circular to every learned institution and to every considerable town and village, as well as to numerous distinguished individuals, throughout the United States, and sent copies to several of the learned societies of Europe. Its reception by the public can easily be imagined; it was overwhelmed with ridicule as the production of a distempered imagination, or the result of partial insanity. It was for many years a fruitful source of jest with the newspapers and magazines, of which at times continues on even today.

The Academy of Science of Paris, before which the circular was laid by Count Volney, decided that it was not worthy of consideration. The scientific papers of Europe generally treated it as a hoax, rather than believe that any sane man could issue such a circular or uphold such a theory.

Circulars and newspaper articles soon followed this one, and were kept up for years, despite of the ridicule which was poured on the unfortunate author from all sides. In 1820 Captain Symmes commenced lecturing on his theory; first at Cincinnati, then at other large towns in the West. The novelty of the subject attracted large audiences, but he failed to make converts who possessed wealth or influence enough to secure the means to test, by exploration, the truth of his theory.

In May, 1824, he explained his theory at Hamilton to a large audience, with such convincing effect that after the lecture they Resolved that: "We esteem Symmes' Theory of the Earth deserving of serious examination and worthy of the attention of the American people."

So much did the Theory attract popular attention in the West, that the 'Polar Expedition' was thought a fit object for a benefit at the Cincinnati Theater, which was given on March 29, 1824. Mr. Collins then recited an address written for the occasion by Moses Brooks, in which, after recounting the great discoveries to be made, he wound up with:

'Has not Columbia one aspiring son,

By whom the unfading Laurel may be won?
 Yes! history's pen may yet inscribe the name
 Of SYMMES to grace her future scroll of fame.'

In 1822 he petitioned the Congress of the United States, setting forth in his belief of the existence of a habitable and accessible concave to this globe; his desire to embark on a 'Voyage of Discovery' to one or other of the polar regions; his belief in the great profit and honor his country would derive from such discovery; and praying that Congress would equip and fit out for the expedition two vessels of two hundred and fifty or three hundred tons burden; and grant such other aid as Government might deem necessary to promote the object. This petition was presented in the Senate by Colonel Richard M. Johnson, a member from Kentucky, on the 7th day of March, 1822, when, after a few remarks, it was laid on the table.

In December, 1823, he forwarded a similar petition to both houses of Congress, which met a similar fate.

In January, 1824, he petitioned the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, praying that body to pass a resolution approbatory of this theory; and to recommend him to Congress for an outfit suitable to the enterprise. This memorial was presented by Micajah T. Williams, and, on motion, the further consideration thereof was indefinitely postponed.

In 1825 he applied through the American Minister, at the Court of St. Petersburg for permission to accompany the Polar Expedition then fitting out by the Russian Government, which was readily granted by the Chancellor, Count Romanzoff, but the want of means to procure a proper outfit hindered him from accepting the offer.

Among his converts was a young lawyer, Mr. J.N. Reynolds, a graduate of Ohio University. With him Captain Symmes entered into an agreement for a lecturing tour through the Eastern States. They set out in September, 1825, accompanied by Anthony W. Lockwood, a step-son of Captain Symmes, and lectured in various towns in Ohio. In about a month Captain Symmes was forced to return home in consequence of ill health. In January, 1826, he rejoined them at Pittsburgh, and they proceeded eastward. Some difficulty soon occurred, however; Reynolds became dissatisfied and left them. Symmes, undaunted by the desertion, or the constant ridicule with which he was met, continued his tour to Philadelphia, New York, Boston, as far as Maine, and even into Canada, lecturing at the various towns through which he passed.

His health was by this time greatly impaired by his constant labors and excitement, and he was reluctantly obliged to give up lecturing. He retired for a time to his native place in New Jersey, where he remained the guest of an old friend of his father until his health was sufficiently restored to enable him to travel homeward. When he reached Cincinnati in February, 1829, he was so feeble that he had to be conveyed on a bed, placed in a spring wagon, to his home near Hamilton. He continued gradually to sink, until released by death on the 29th of May 1829.

In October of 1829, Jeremiah N. Reynolds did continue to assist in Symmes' efforts by salvaging enough cash to launch the first 'American Antarctic Expedition' under the command of Captains Nathaniel Palmer and Benjamin Pendleton. Reynolds also sailed on this joint venture of discovery. However, this Antarctic revelation was unsuccessful in that they did not locate the vortex area.'

Continuing his research; on April 3, 1836, Reynolds made a personal report to the Congressional Committee on Naval Affairs and won a grant of $300,000. However, his prize was ruthlessly snatched after an acrimonious public debate in the New York newspapers with Mahlon Dickerson, the Secretary of the Navy. Whereupon, the eventual Antarctic expedition under Lieutenant (later Commodore) Wilkes, excluded J.N. Reynolds from even participating in the adventure. This federally sponsored United States Exploring Expedition, which was one of the few scientific expeditions of the Jackson era, could have been a success. Wherein, when Wilkes returned in June of 1842, he was court-martialed on the charge of having falsified his records. This may have been a government cover-up. It is my opinion that this was where it started concerning the discoveries in the Arctic and Antarctic regions, and this suppression continues unto this day.

All in all; 'We the people' have come a long way in consciousness since that time. Even though the cover-up and suppression still continues, there is that possibility that the masses might open up to this now; due to our advance technology and more sophisticated ways of presenting this type, of information, such as radio, movies, and TV videos, which can reach a large mass of entities at one time.

However, this subject material still seems to be classified under national security levels, so... we might have problems, if we try to bring this under mass scrutiny and/or petitioning for assistance in financing an exploratory expedition. The question should be presented to Cosmic Awareness, and the response might be interesting, in that Cosmic Awareness has indicated, in the past, that It will not assist entities in trying to reach Middle Earth or the Subterranean areas.

I was quite pleased with my personal reading from Cosmic Awareness; of which a copy, both typed and taped is enclosed herein. Although, I was aware of much of the material presented, it did relieve the tension, by explaining why I was obsessed with this subject. I imagine I'll be involved with this for more life times to come, at least my next one.

In response to your question about United Global Mankind; it's a strange story. I won't go into full detail other than to inform you, as I have expressed to others in the past; that UGM, is not, and never has been, an organization, as it seems to imply. I never incorporated it or institutionalize it, due to the fact that it was, and still is, such a small group. Also, I don't feel partial to institutions in the first place. If, however, it does grow to a point where this might be necessary, or this might be considered, we will construct a sanitarium or center wherein it will be used to educate members in maintenance and direction, as far as the exploratory research projects are involved. But, as of yet, no reason for such. UGM is more likened unto an organism of entities which formed in 1976 to gather together and share with those who wish to partake and discover the true structure of worlds. Inter-global topology, is the study and research of planetary shapes. This includes the subterranean cavern areas as well as the central nucleus and the inner or middle concavities of these spheres.

Essentially, anyone who is aware of the Hollow Earth, Middle Earth and the Subterranean World concepts and theories, and wishing to take part in helping the world come to the awareness of same, is a member.

As of yet we don't have a newsletter. We are, again, in the process of moving, and our location at the present time is very secluded living on beautiful Prince of Wales Island. Our new address a month from now will be, Box 606, Thorne Bay, Alaska 99950. We temporarily receive our mail, supplies and necessities once a week, when we have opportunity to make it to town. Although we have no phone, we do receive and answer all correspondence.

Avaton; I have much information to share with the CAC Membership, and I always look forward to corresponding with them. However, I have had many letters asking about our safety due to problems which seem to have plagued investigators, researchers and publishers concerning this subject. With respect to all concerned, I was wondering if you could ask Awareness to comment on this as I have had similar problems; for instance: It was indicated by Awareness in Issue 83-18 p.9, of Revelations of Awareness, that Gray Barker was in contact with the MIB (Men in Black). This researcher was wondering if there was any connection why he was being accused of being a MIB agent during his visits within the western continental United States with certain investigators in the summer of 1982. Was this directed by the MIB to label and harass my actions? Also, in 85-6 p.12, of Revelations of Awareness, under the heading 'Hollow Earth Publishers: Will Deros Put Them Out Of Business?' whereupon, Awareness indicated that, it does not appear that there is any great danger, that there may be slight harassments from time to time, but that generally, entities are protected by Guardians of Truth. I would like to ask Awareness if that also pertains to the deaths of researchers Gray Barker, Charles Marcoux, and Jean O'Connell* And also, on or about the same time these deaths occurred, this researcher had two major accidents within a month apart, one wherein he suffered a broken neck, and considers it an act of grace to be still alive. He was even listed in a magazine as being dead. He also had information and documents stolen, this including the original personal trance reading from Awareness concerning my involvement with the Hollow Earth, Middle Earth and Subterranean World Theories. Would Awareness please comment on this?

Well, Avaton, I must leave you now, so once again, I want to thank you ever so much for your letter and concern which will never go un-appreciated.

Oh yes, you may list my name and 'new' address at the end of the reading that you will be preparing this summer. Also you may indicate, if you wish, that entities may procure from me recent updated clear satellite photographic copies of polar hemispheric mosaics showing the polar vortex areas both in infrared and visible swaths. Also, in reference to issue 79-25 p.20 of Revelations of Awareness, titled; "Thousands of Miles of Tunnels Exist Beneath the U.S. Where Aliens Exist," I'll be sending you, to confirm with Awareness, maps of these Titan tunneling system, which not only cover the U.S., but the entire globe. With respect, I remain,

Yours in Light and Life

Michael, United Global Mankind

*This information comes from an investigator who is assisting in a movie production involving the Inner Earth, UFO, conspiracy, etc. This production is now delayed due to the "heart attack" death of one of the main investors, on December 23rd. Gray Barker, Joan O'Connell and Charles Marcoux all died of "heart attacks". Another entity involved with this same project has informed us, that 12 deaths in this same 18 month period, all died of "heart attack", and were "Inner-Earth-related." Apparently someone doesn't want certain information known! Are "psionic machines", or is "Sodium Morphate involved with this?"

TRANCE READING FROM COSMIC AWARENESS

TO MICHAEL, UNITED GLOBAL MANKIND

PAUL SHOCKLEY, INTERPRETER

NOVEMBER 25, 1980

MICHAEL:

Dear Awareness; My name is Michael Sydney Lineker, alias Michael Franklin Davenport, also known as Michael, or Michael Syddha Divineport, or Michael, United Global Mankind. I was born October 3, 1945 at 4:03 PM in San Diego, California. I lived in various parts of California until 1973, whereupon I then moved to Alaska, presently residing in Ketchikan. My occupation is a carpenter. Once a week, I have a radio program entitled; Echoes of the New Age News from Behind the Scenes, during which I read from Revelations of Awareness and play the Dr. Beter Audio Letters.

As far as I can remember, I've been interested and involved in Metaphysics, Religion, and the Occult. I have always felt a yearning for the unknown and/or the unorthodox. Most of my research and study has been on my own. Usually, I refrain from joining groups, however, I do meditate using the Transcendental Meditation Technique as taught by His Holiness Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. I am presently a Siddha under the same program.

Approximately seven years ago, I became greatly involved with Inter-Global Topology, the study and research of the hollow earth, middle earth and inner earth theories. Since then, I have been collecting every document, book, microfilms; any pictures, slides, hearsay; anything and everything I could find concerning this subject. Due to these efforts, I joined C.A.C. approximately one year ago as a sponsoring member, so that I could acquire more information concerning specifically Middle Earth, and asked that my contributions be placed to the investigation of the Middle Earth/Hollow Earth Theories. Since that time, I have studied every form of Revelations of Awareness that I have received, and have found to my surprise, that very little has been mentioned concerning the Middle Earth. (Please refer to Revelations of Awareness; Web of Conspiracy, 79-25, page 20, paragraph 2. I was very pleased to see the satellite photographs from the general reading of 79-18, page 2 statement, and page 3 pictures. Also, the satellite picture with the general reading of August 9, 1979. No sooner was I prepared to mail these photographs to Awareness to confirm their authenticity, that I immediately received my answer. I felt Awareness was reading my mind.

Because of the lack of information and my need to know, I sent to C.A.C. a list of reference and diagrams from my Inter-Global Topology Library, plus two questions. As of yet, these questions have not been answered. So . . . if it pleases this Awareness, I will repeat these questions, elaborating. This reading that I put before Awareness now concerns myself and my past, present, and future relation with Middle Earth.

Presently, I'm planning an expedition to Middle Earth, descending through the North Pole. My purpose is to expand on spiritual pursuits. This journey will implement Nordic style Viking long-ships, equipped with horses and crew. Once through the Northern Abyss, we will proceed on horseback and foot directly to the Area of Least-Excitation, or the Zone of Complete Rest, the center of gravity of the first global sphere. (Please refer to EXHIBIT letter H, enclosed herein; also Awareness may refer to the book titled; 'Thinking and Destiny' by Harold W. Percival, page 734 subtitled; 'The Great Way', wherein it is mentioned as the 'repellent ground'. We will not attempt to contact any form of civilization. Once we have located the Area of Least-Excitation, we shall abide therein to experience and stabilize ourselves until we master this energy field and become 'ONE' with it. Then we will descend inward and upward towards the second global sphere, moving through its Northern Abyss Point repeating the process with each additional sphere until we come to rest at the world nucleus or Great Central Sun. (Please refer to EXHIBIT 'E', Expedition Route, enclosed herein). From this Central position, we will either ascend up through each global sphere via their Northern Openings and out towards the Pole Star to chart our System and to explore other Mansion Worlds liken unto Earth; or remain within our central nucleus to unite and bring about the Global Almighty Supreme Being.

Would Awareness now please comment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the main reason why this Awareness has not given information previously regarding the Middle Earth as mostly due to other urgencies which were necessary to bring forth into consciousness which had greater urgency and priority, and whereby the concept of an open and hollow earth being presented to the masses of consciousness could easily be discounted by the majority as representing some form of kooky belief system.

This Awareness indicates that the masses of consciousness are not yet ready for this type of information. This Awareness indicates that they are, however, more ready now than they would have been two years ago or previously. This Awareness indicates that the masses of consciousness are only now beginning to grasp the concept that a worldwide conspiracy of a secret select group of entities could actually be manipulating events in various nations to bring about the many wars and crisis and situations which occur. This Awareness indicates that the masses in consciousness can not at present accept the concept of a hollow earth and the tie-in between the inner and outer plane on this sphere. This Awareness indicates that the masses are not yet ready for the concept of entities living beneath their feet in a hollow earth who have an influence on the affairs on the surface.

Both Advanced and Demented Civilizations Beneath the Earth

This Awareness indicates that entities prefer to think that the leadership of the various countries on the surface of the earth are in fact the most advanced beings within the solar system and also the most honest in their appraisal of the Universe in terms of scientific statements which are given to the masses. This Awareness indicates that the masses do of course recognize divine deities but keep so far advanced and so far remote from present civilization development that the divine beings are essentially out of reach of human comprehension. This Awareness indicates that the majority of entities would be quite upset and shaken to discover that there are advanced civilizations beneath the surface of the earth. This Awareness indicates that entities would be even more shaken to discover that there are demented civilizations beneath the surface of the earth also.

This Awareness suggests that the next question should be asked before comment upon the planned journey.

What Are the Chances For An Expedition to Middle Earth Today?

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

Would Awareness please elaborate on what I feel to be the probability in this day and age for me and a small group of people, completely on our own accord, with no government or institutional investment involvements, to accomplish a descension to Middle Earth via the North Pole route as mentioned in my plans?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the percentage of success with regard to your present plan is approximately five percent. This Awareness indicates that there is approximately ninety-five percent chance of failure and approximately fifty percent chance of loss of life. This Awareness indicates that this for essentially two main reasons. This Awareness indicates that the planned expedition with the assumption that there are several spheres within the outer sphere as that which is in error. This Awareness indicates that this will be elaborated on more fully in a few moments.

U.S. Government Has Mined the Opening to Prevent Access

This Awareness indicates the major reason why the expedition would be inclined toward failure is due to the blockage which has been placed around the opening in the North Pole. This Awareness indicates that essentially the Government of the United States and other nations, is fully aware of the Middle Earth and the entrance into this area, having sent various expeditions through the North and South Pole and being in contact with certain entities within these areas. This Awareness indicates that essentially the opening around the rim has been mined so that any ships attempting to enter will be blown apart. This Awareness indicates that there are in fact warning signs such as floating billboards to warn entities back. This Awareness indicates that the mines have been placed so as to prevent entry by surface entities into the Middle Earth through the North Pole, this also in the area of the South Pole. This Awareness indicates that the only way to enter through the poles is through flight and this also is closely guarded.

Access Through Certain Caves and by UFOs

This Awareness indicates that there are also caves in Tibet, China, the United States, Brazil, and Peru, and Chile, wherein it could be feasible to enter except that these generally are guarded or have been sealed off and blocked preventing entry. This Awareness indicates that the access to this Middle Earth is mainly accomplished through that known as the UFO, the anti-gravity craft which has been entering and leaving from the North and South Pole and from various underwater bases for many centuries which surfaced most recently after World War II because of the atomic blast in Japan which aroused the concern of the civilizations within the Middle Earth. This Awareness indicates that since that arousal and the surfacing of these emissaries from Middle Earth in their UFOs, there have been contacts between the surface governments, certain of these surface governments, and those emissaries within the Middle Earth.

This Awareness indicates that many entities who have been kidnapped by UFOs and assume that they have flown to distant planets often have in fact been taken to Middle Earth without realizing where they are.

Two Subterranean Levels Exist Within Inner Earth

This Awareness indicates that essentially there are two subterranean levels. This Awareness will refer to those who live on the surface of the Middle Earth as the Middle Earth or Inner Earth civilizations. This Awareness indicates there are also those entities who live between the inner and outer surface in caverns which have been created by gasses and hollowed-out areas from the heat formations which have left gasses and have allowed a cooling to take place, leaving vast regions of hollowed areas in which entities dwell. This Awareness indicates that many of these as being hundreds of miles long within the crust of the earth between the surface and the inner surface. This Awareness indicates that these also are in many cases connected to one another with tunnels which have been bored by ancient machines from earlier civilizations and from the technology of those living in Middle Earth.

Violent Entities Retarded in Spiritual Growth Exist in Spaces Between the Surfaces in Hollowed-Out Areas

This Awareness indicates that these entities in the space between the surfaces, in the hollowed-out areas, in many cases are of a violent nature, retarded in spiritual growth, these are those entities whose legends have resulted in stories of the Imps, Trolls, Deros and demons beneath in regions of Hell. This Awareness indicates that essentially these stories refer to the subterranean areas rather than the surface or Middle Earth areas.

This Awareness indicates that these subterranean entities are also of ancient origin upon this earth planet. This Awareness indicates that not all subterranean entities are of this nature but it is in this area where the legions of the bestial and violent creatures in human or humanoid form reside. This Awareness indicates this including vampires and the demonic types of beings and those legions of red-haired white-skinned cannibals which lived underground in the area of Arizona and New Mexico, and which also served as a model for the fictional story of the Time Machine and those entities who called the surface people underground for their cannibalizing rituals.

The Legacy of Richard Shaver: His Stories 70% True

This Awareness indicates that the entity Richard Shaver as having left a legacy of stories of which there is approximately seventy percent truth in the concepts and information of which he has given. This Awareness indicates that there are many entities who even in present time disappear from the surface of the earth and are kidnapped and taken by these subterranean entities. This Awareness indicates that there are also tunnels or passageways which allow these underground entities to enter into some of the large buildings in some of the large cities, particularly in the United States. This Awareness indicates this seen in New York City, in Houston and in Chicago, that it is through some of these buildings which extend underground almost as far as they extend upward wherein the underground people and the surface people have communication and work together.

The Surface Conspiracy is Linked with the Orion Empire

This Awareness indicates that what It is saying at this point is that the surface conspiracy to control the masses through world manipulation and domination is linked to these subterranean beings, and this in turn is linked and tied in with the Orion Empire, which in turn relates to the Universal Conflict between the Alien Force and the Inter-Galactic Forces of Light.

This Awareness suggest that with this broad perspective in view, that the next question be asked and the concept of Middle Earth be discussed.

Why is Michael Obsessed With Inner Earth?

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

“Would Awareness please comment on my personal involvement and why the feelings of divine guidance, and why the intensity of this vision? Am I being extremely misled by delusions of grandeur on a psychic level, or am I under certain karmic influences from past life incarnations involving similar descensions and ascensions either of this world or other worlds? Is there a pattern?”

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that essentially the impulse which drives you as that which is based on karmic memory and pattern, from previous experiences.

This Awareness indicates that there also is a kind of divine guidance, but it is not directing you to make this journey at this particular time, other than to continue to explore in the areas of concept and investigation. This Awareness indicates that the time will come whereby you can have greater opportunity for such a voyage or journey, but this shall need to await many changes on the surface before this kind of adventure can be taken with any degree of safety.

This Awareness indicates that essentially you are recalling a voyage or a journey into the opening of the North Pole from a previous life time. This Awareness indicates that essentially this occurred approximately in the eighth century, when you had a ship and was a Norwegian, this appears to be as a Viking type of ship which sailed into this area and came in contact with green vegetation and other beautiful tropical types of environment. This Awareness indicates that there were others who also made this voyage and it is from these various voyages which were to enter into this area, that many of the legends have been left to be handed down as stories or as fairytales.

This Awareness indicates that there is also a past life connection with one of the entities whom you have studied. This Awareness indicates this as the entity who goes by the name of 'Seaborn.' This Awareness indicates that it appears this as a previous incarnation of your being. That this entity did in fact do much investigation and exploring into legends and stories and did have some contact into this area to justify in his own mind that there was indeed a hollow earth with entities, civilizations, and terrain, within the earth which could be inhabited.

This Awareness indicates that these previous experiences are part of your cellular memory coming through from previous incarnations and these appear to be driving forces to push you to explore this area wherein actually these are memories which are seeking to surface. This Awareness indicates that the real exploration of this area by you is that which will need to await some time, perhaps even for another lifetime, and further investigations and studies will be necessary and whereby changes will need to occur.

This Awareness suggest that it appears your divine guidance is that which is urging you to open up the concept of Middle Earth and to create a kind of movement for publicizing this concept similar to the flying saucer organizations which have been active for the past thirty years, which have assisted in keeping the topic in the public eye, so that more and more energy is extended to bring out the truth. This Awareness indicates that it appears your role would be to gather information, past information, investigate claims and stories and information, which relates in any way to the concept of the Middle Earth or the subterranean caverns. This Awareness suggest that this can also include information on UFOs, but suggests that this be more of a side line in a similar way that the UFO investigators consider Middle Earth as being a sideline of their investigations.

This Awareness suggest that you start a club whereby entities who are interested in such information are given that information which has been gathered and whereby club members can also gather information and share it with you for publication and dissemination to other members.

Which of the Middle Earth Theories is Most Correct Concerning Shape and Structure?

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

There have been many theories concerning the structure and shape of Middle Earth. I have enclosed with this reading examples of these listed as: EXHIBIT A, B, C, D, E, and F. Would Awareness please comment on which of these Middle Earth theories is the most correct concerning shape and structure?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that, A, B, C, appear to be correct. This Awareness suggests that these letters be read again slowly.

ENERGIZER:

A . . . B . . . C . . . . . D . . . E . . . . . F. Would it be helpful if I read where these came from?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these all appear to be quite similar, except that having several spheres, one inside the other. This Awareness indicates this appears to be E. This Awareness indicates that this as the theory of the entity who used the name 'Symmes'. This Awareness suggest the Energizer look at the EXHIBIT 'E' and describe the general appearance.

ENERGIZER:

There are five concentric circles or spheres. It is called the Simmes, or Symmes theory of concentric spheres, demonstrating that the earth is hollow within and open about the poles.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be . . . this appears to be in error in that these spheres are not present in this manner. This Awareness indicates that EXHIBIT 'C' be described.

ENERGIZER:

This is from the book Etidorhpa or the End of the Earth. It has, uhm, . . . it shows the thickness of the earth crust is eight hundred miles. The diameter of the earth is eight thousand miles. The distance from Inner Earth to 'energy sphere' one hundred miles. There's an underground lake. The distance from the surface of the lake to earth surface is marked off.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggest that the EXHIBIT "B" be described.

ENERGIZER:

This is a map of the Interior World by William Bradshaw. It shows what seems to be water and islands and a sun. The earth's thickness is five hundred miles at the North Pole and fifteen hundred miles at the crust.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be the more accurate presentation. This Awareness indicates that others appear to be drawings or diagrams in a kind of blueprint design, these being accurate to some degree, but not accounting for the actual terrain. This Awareness indicates that this "B" appears to be the more accurate of the drawings.

This Awareness indicates that it also is in error to the extent that the thickness varies from approximately one thousand miles to . . . it appears to be approximately fourteen hundred miles in thickness, rather than the continuous fifteen hundred mile thickness which is presented. This Awareness indicates that in some areas the thickness is even less, that there are holes moving through the surface and down into these areas.

This Awareness indicates that entities traveling through these tunnels are pulled downward until they reach the magnetic field which follows along the center part of these outer shells, then, once passing this magnetic field and entering the Inner Earth magnetism, the entities will then be drawn more backward toward the surface or toward that magnetic field, so that as they approach Inner Earth, they are being pulled away from the direction they are moving, as through they were again climbing toward a surface against a gravity pull. This Awareness indicates however, that as entities approach that near gravity, that gravity flow, the intensities of the flow decrease, the pull decreases so that there is a place whereby the entities are neither pulled toward the surface nor toward the center of the earth, but will be pulled rather, along the line of the gravity pull that is essentially North or South, or East or West, rather than up or down.

Did Admiral Richard Byrd's Expedition Make it to Middle Earth and Document the Journey?

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

There is a Middle Earth expedition that is of great importance to Hollow Earth Researchers. It is the controversial expedition of Rear Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd. This expedition supposedly involved flights to Middle Earth through the North and South Pole openings. Stories indicate that Admiral Byrd documented and went so far as to take motion pictures of these unmapped territories, which revealed lofty trees, mountains, lakes, rivers, green vegetation, and all manner of birds and strange animal life such as mammoths. Byrd sent a detailed report, along with the films of these phenomena to the United States Government. Although Byrd was employed by the government, these explorations and discoveries were hushed up then, and still are today. Many people remember seeing these films which were shown briefly on public newsreels . . . then they disappeared. Would Awareness please comment on this?

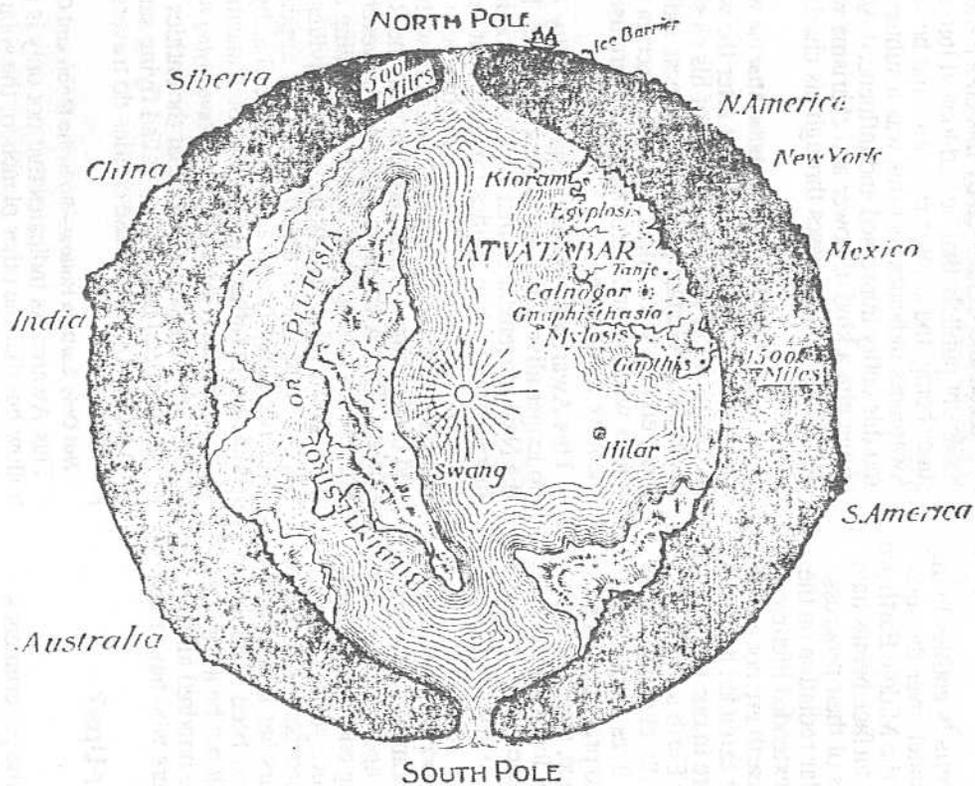

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that the entity Avaton as also having seen the newsreel. This Awareness indicates that these films as having been kept from the public because of the nature of the discovery, that which could have led to another massive invasion, similar to that which occurred to the American continent four hundred years before. This Awareness indicates that since that event there have been further explorations and expeditions and contacts with civilizations within the Middle Earth. This Awareness indicates however, that there is some conflict between certain surface forces and those in the Middle Earth.

Much of the Ancient Religious Teachings Came From Middle Earth: Tibetan Teachings For Example

This Awareness indicates that essentially much of the ancient religious teachings came from the Middle Earth as symbols, many Avatars and teachers came from this area. This Awareness indicates that also, certain entities have been taught by those who have had access to information which was presented from this area. This Awareness indicates particularly the Tibetan teachings as being closely linked to information which comes from Middle Earth.

Eskimos, Chinese and Gypsies Came From Middle Earth

This Awareness indicates that the Eskimos and the Chinese and the Gypsies as from Middle Earth.

This Awareness indicates that the White Race as that which came from outer space after. . . . This Awareness indicates that the White Race as having inhabited this planet for some time, this approximately one million years previous, but wherein most of these entities departed, these known as Titans, and also Atlans. This Awareness indicates that the modern day White Race as that which was a return from. . . . this appears to be Saturn, and other stations, into the area of the Caucasus Mountains approximately ten thousand years ago.

This Awareness indicates that there has been movement to and from this Earth planet by various races, space beings, and that many of these entities have inhabited the Middle Earth prior to living upon the surface. This Awareness indicates that the earlier life forms did in fact live within the Middle Earth.

Prehistoric Creatures Still Exist Within Middle Earth

This Awareness indicates that there are still prehistoric creatures within the Middle Earth and that recent discoveries and sightings of such prehistoric creatures upon the surface of the earth are in fact transplants of eggs by artificial, or natural conveyance, such as streams, from the Inner Earth to the surface.

This Awareness indicates that essentially entities in the Middle Earth are keeping a general watch over the surface beings, that these civilizations in the Middle Earth are far advanced and that essentially the surface beings have long been considered inferior in terms of their progress. This Awareness indicates that the solar radiation on the surface prevents entities from living extended lifetimes, whereas those who reside within the earth are not affected by such solar radiations and live long extended lifetimes, therefore, are capable of learning more in one life. Those entities living underground in Middle Earth are not bombarded by the radiation from the direct sunlight and therefore are capable of living longer lives and learning more and putting that information into practice. This Awareness indicates that on the surface, approximately one-half of an entity's lifetime is spent learning how to live and learning skills for active productive life styles, and the other half is putting the skills to use and trying to maintain health.

Middle Earth Entities Live 400 Years or More

This Awareness indicates that for example, an entity who lives to be four hundred years of age, may have not only the first twenty years of life being educated, but then may have three hundred and eighty more years to learn and to put into practice that which is learned. Whereas on the surface, an entity living eighty years has at best sixty years to put into practice that which has been learned, and obviously, the learning quality will not be as high as that which wherein the entity has three hundred and eighty more years to learn from teachers who have lived equally as long or longer.

Are There More Cover-Ups?

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

Are there more cover-ups than just the government's hushing of Byrd and his so-called discoveries?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the government has done much exploration in the South Pole in recent years, that there also has been certain activity in the North Pole whereby the oil explorations in Alaska served in part to help cover-up certain other activities. This Awareness indicates this including the mining of the waters and land in the area to prevent entities from entering into this opening.

Adolf Hitler's Connection to Inner Earth

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

For instance, did Byrd make contact with UFO Cosmonauts that were nurtured during Nazi Germany which secretly escaped to Antarctica shortly before or after the end of World War II?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that the connection between Bulwer Lytton as a go-between for entities of the subterranean realm and the entity connected closely with Adolf Hitler. This appears to be one of Adolf Hitler's closest generals, the name not clear. This Awareness indicates that this information appears to be available from other sources as a kind of connection between Rothschilds' organization known as the 'Golden Dawn' and the Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler and his close associates, whereby Bulwer Lytton served as a kind of liaison officer and who introduced the entity Adolf Hitler to a subterranean being, whereby Adolf Hitler was deeply impressed and influenced by this entity and made a statement publicly that he had looked into the eyes of the super being, the coming race, and that he was afraid. This Awareness indicates that this was a subterranean leader and this entity impressed and influenced Adolf Hitler, giving him a kind of power and charisma which was transferred to the masses through his charisma and expressions.

What Happened to Hitler After the War

This Awareness indicates that after the war was over, the entity Adolf Hitler and some of his closest allies were taken out of Germany. This Awareness indicates that these entities were taken to South America and to certain places wherein underground caves were used for hiding them for some time.

This Awareness indicates that the entity Adolf Hitler as no longer alive. This Awareness indicates, however, that the Nazi movement as that which still continues and is much stronger than entities imagine, that this as linked somewhat closely with that which has been referred to as the 'conspiracy movement'. This ties in with the Bolshevik and the banking system and also with the Rockefeller powers. This Awareness indicates, however, that there are threads among these which are coming unraveled in present time, this largely do to the activities of the Skoptsis and others, that the Skoptsis appear to be influenced greatly and assisted somewhat by forces from Middle Earth rather than from subterranean levels.

Entities From Middle Earth Have Flying Saucers

This Awareness indicates that the entities from Middle Earth do indeed have the so-called flying saucers and such technology and these entities do traverse to other planets.

Not Only Earth Is Hollow—So Is the Moon and Other Planets

This Awareness indicates that not only is the earth hollow but that the other planets of the solar system also are hollow. This Awareness indicates that likewise the moon is hollow. This Awareness indicates that these planets are created not by explosions and balls of fire coming out from the sun, but rather are created by certain magnetic fields which are placed in such positions as to draw energies to them. These magnetic fields, creating certain force fields, then draw space dust, which builds up the surface of the planets, both inside and out. This Awareness indicates that there are daily, billions of tons of space dust falling upon the planets and this is that which creates the surfaces of planets. This Awareness indicates that in the actions of EIs in creating planets, the only thing necessary is to create the force-field for the planet and the rest form naturally.

Hitler and Nazis in Antarctica

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

At the end of the war, Hitler was quoted as saying that the loss of Germany did not signal the end of Nazism and world conquest. A most unusual but fascinating coincidence is seen that the Nazis had made some interesting discoveries in Antarctica, of almost tropical areas that were found, and an extensive effort was made to research that continent. Many U-boats were seen leaving the North Sea Coast of Germany and many months after the war, lost or decoyed U-boats were surrendering themselves at South American Ports. A very controversial theory is presented in a book titled UFOs Nazi Secret Weapons, which suggests that Hitler, his mistress Eva Braun, with a battalion of personnel, including many high top German and Italian scientists plus hundreds or possibly thousands of German youths escaped and landed in an already prepared Antarctic base. From there, Hitler's people constructed UFOs and have regularly surveyed the earth, keeping tabs on what has been taking place. In 1947, a task force of four thousand men, a Joint Allied Command under Rear Admiral Byrd, was sent to Antarctica on 'scientific inquiry'. It was reported that they found nothing and returned rather abruptly, ahead of schedule. Was the 'Byrd Expedition' really just an investigative cover-up to seek out and destroy the German UFO bases in Antarctica? And did the task force result in battle, wherein they suffered a great loss in a very short time, . . . hence, the hasty retreat and the great cover-up? Would Awareness please comment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that they did in fact run into a conflict whereby they retreated. This Awareness indicates that the UFO was essentially presented to . . . This Awareness indicates that this was not presented to Hitler and his armies in time to be used during World War II. This Awareness indicates that these entities assisting the Germans did not intend that they be used for it would lead to a high technology being given to the surface people, which within a short time could mean that all nations would have this technology of the UFO. This Awareness indicates, however, that there were certain of these being seen near the end of World War II and referred to as "foo-fighters." This Awareness indicates that the subterranean people did however assist Adolf Hitler in efforts relating to the discovery of atomic energy and also to the perfection and development of rocketry, particularly the V-1, V-2, and the super rocket. This appears to be the A-9 which was never completed in time for use, but which would have been used against the United States. This Awareness indicates that this assistance mostly having been given to engineering techniques and through certain principles, rather than through actual physical plans and implementations for design.

This Awareness indicates that it appears the forces which worked through Nazi Germany did tend to shift to the United States and to Russia through connections with the Rockefeller powers, this assisting in further explanation of certain technologies and developments in these two nations.

This Awareness indicates that the Rothschild powers appeared to be more closely linked to a deeper connection with the . . . This Awareness indicates that it appears the occult forces of the Rothschild connection to those of the Inner or Subterranean plane remained relatively constant, that the connection which developed from the German connection as that which shifted somewhere to have a tie with those entities of the Middle Earth as well as the Subterranean, and this as having created certain changes in the general programming of those entities who were known as Nazis. This Awareness indicates that this appears to tie in with the Rockefellers and the Russian forces, this not all clearly seen at this time, and the energy for this reading as diminishing to a point whereby it appears the clarification will not be available at this time, particularly since no questions were actually asked in regards to this. That future questioning may bring forth a greater clarification.

ENERGIZER:

Should the questioning continue at this time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests this in the affirmative.

UFO Contact From the Pleiades

(Earth Nearing a Point It could Join The galactic Confederation)

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

There is a book entitled; UFO Contact From The Pleiades, documenting a UFO contact in Switzerland with an entity known as Edward Billy Meier. These Nordic-looking UFO Cosmonauts claim to come from a planet called Erra from the Pleiades star system, or the Seven Sisters. They say they are members of the Andromeda Council governing our sector of the Universe and belong to a Union of Planets with one hundred and twenty-seven billion people strong, estimating themselves to be three thousand years in advance of earth technology. Are these UFO Cosmonauts all who they claim to be?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this appears to be in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that the entire galaxy is essentially steaming with life, much of which is far advanced beyond that on earth, some being essentially equivalent to earth life. This Awareness indicates that the earth as being one of the lower developed planets but which is rapidly moving into advancement so that it is becoming a prize plum, ready for initiation into the galaxy for galactic intercourse in relationship with others. This Awareness indicate this appears to be aimed for completion by the year two thousand. This Awareness indicates that it appears more contacts from various sources will be occurring during the coming decade and that by the end of the decade, certain agreements may be worked out whereby trade can begin to occur in terms of cultural, informational, and possibly other commercial trade. This Awareness indicates this will depend on the capabilities of this planet to become more peaceful and harmonious in it's relationship between nations so that it can also be seen as mature enough to become involved in an inter-galactic community.

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

Are they the same UFO Cosmonauts that were nurtured during Nazi Germany, or are they in any way related to same?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this in the negative, that these entities as being unrelated.

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

Are they members of the Inter-Galactic Command, or in some way related to same?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This in the affirmative.

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

What is their involvement with the, UFO assistance being given to the Russian Space Program?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these particular entities appear to be uninvolved in that action. That the UFO connection with the Russians as that which comes from other sources and also is in connection with entities from Middle Earth.

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

How are they helping to bring in the Age of Enlightenment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this especially through the awakening of consciousness that "we are not alone wherever we may be and however remote we may be as entities."

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

I have gathered bits and pieces of information which indicates that the power behind the Nazi movement was instigated by entities working within secret occult organizations, particularly the Thule Society, wherein certain select leaders of these societies uncovered a so-called "Atlantian" Subterranean vault in South America approximately in 1912, which lead to a release-ment of a small group of entities (Arian Priest Kings) from suspended animation. Would Awareness please comment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears. . . . This Awareness indicates that it appears there is some validity to this story, that it is not clearly seen at this time, that it has other aspects and implications which are not made clear, that there are some distortions or implied terminology which is also unclear. This Awareness indicates however that there appears to be some basic validity in the story, that the energies are not sufficient to probe into this completely. That this may occur at some other time.

QUESTION (MICHAEL):

My last. question to Awareness concerns curiosity. On page 11, of 79-14; Revelations of Awareness.. there is a symbol or emblem concerning the 'SPIRAL' action. To me, this symbol reminds me of Middle Earth looking down or up from a pole position. Would Awareness please comment?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this can be conceived as an energy flow for gravitational fields. This Awareness indicates that spirals have many activities in the Universe. This Awareness indicates that light rays, as they emanate through space move in a spiraling action when caught by magnetic fields. This Awareness indicates that these magnetic fields often move in such spiraling directions and pull space dust or other vibrations and polarities to them. This Awareness indicates that the symbolism which you perceive in this as that which may have certain actual meaning and value, but which cannot be made more significant than it is to you.

MICHAEL & ENERGIZER:

Thank you Awareness. The Law of Gratitude is that sense of satisfaction where energy which has been given receives a certain reward. Energy that is given moves out on that curved and unequal line, and when extended far enough, can only return on its source bearing gifts.

THE SUBTERRANEAN MEMO

Pending the submissions of my full report to the Council, I offer you the enclosed memorandum with some reluctance. I have spent only a short time on the surface of this peculiar planet, less than the pitifully brief life span of a single native. Though I have acquired reasonable proficiency in their languages and customs, their thought processes and history, there is still much that puzzles and baffles me. However, at the repeated insistence of the Council, I send you these notes, unavoidably disjointed and fragmentary. They will, perhaps, give some indication as to the conclusions of the final report which I intend to render immediately upon my return.

Except for an inconsiderable minority, humans attach far greater importance to their bodies than their minds. One of the most elaborate games they play is centered around the proportion of exposure, both in actual physical fact and in the body's so-called artistic representation. The two main categories on the active side of this game are called stripteasers and artists; their opponent is variously called censor, watch committee, bluenose, or puritan. The advantage appears to be on the latter's side; there is a limit to exposure, i.e., complete nudity; while there is no limit to what can be forbidden or denounced.

They spend immense amounts of money, time, and energy to darken their skin, if white, by exposure to sunshine and artificial substitutes for the sun. Yet any human who has acquired this color, in various shades of darkness, at birth, is considered to be inferior and suffers grave economic and social disadvantages.

A large proportion of their communal endeavor is devoted to the making of laws to regulate human conduct. Subsequently they employ, at great cost, specialists in the art of breaking the same laws. I have not yet discovered a single law, decree, or regulation which these specialists (quaintly called lawyers) have not been able to surmount or frustrate.

Their wise men declare repeatedly that the peculiar convention embodied in certain objects called money represents the root of all evil; but they not only submit to this evil with remarkable docility, they even seek to acquire as much of it as possible. Most of this money is invested with arbitrary value based on precious metals which many of their separate units, called states or countries, are supposed to possess but which only a negligible proportion of the citizens ever see or touch.

They are all afraid of the termination of physical existence, called death, something that is very difficult for us to imagine. But no single human believes, in the depth of his being, that he will ever die. It is something that happens to others all the time but cannot be encompassed by their consciousness, which is supposed to end with this so-called death. Their experts in such matters, called priests, clergymen, and, sometimes, philosophers, talk a great deal about life after death, but their descriptions and forecasts of this state are based entirely on speculation. However, according to them it is a condition entirely preferable to life before death. Yet anybody voluntarily proving a preference for this condition (this they call suicide) is considered a weakling or a criminal.

According to them the ideal relationship of the two sexes (there are only two which they acknowledge though an increasing number of them appear to belong to a third one) is the institution called marriage. For a female not to achieve this is considered to be unlucky and even unhappy, while a male who refuses or fails to attain it is more often than not called fortunate. Some are so enthusiastic about it that they make repeated attempts, even four or five times in their ridiculously short existence, to contract such a union. Their convention decrees that males and females, having achieved it, shall "live happy ever after." Yet most of their countries have ample provision for breaking the union. To this, elaborate rituals are attached which benefit considerably the strange tribe of lawyers as aforementioned.

In several of their countries the leaders have managed the incredible feat of persuading the people that if they undergo immense privations and work as hard as animals, their grand-children (who may never be born) will be both happy and free. This promise is safely made as there is no way of checking it against fact; what is unbelievable is the readiness with which the people believe it. True, the most fervent believers of this theory are men and women who live outside the countries mentioned.

Their diet is equally fantastic. They will, in their most highly civilized countries, eat any four- or two-legged animal that has horns but not the ones without, i.e., the mammals known as horses and donkeys. They will go to immense lengths to insure that their comestibles are clean and appetizing to look at; they also follow elaborate processes to render them tasteless.

Their females are traditionally afraid of a small animal called a mouse, but are delighted to wear the skins of much larger and fiercer animals upon their bodies.

They are passionate gamblers and are capable of a total suspension of disbelief in face of the most discouraging mathematical odds in pursuit of this passion. The successful gambler is one of their most universally venerated heroes; luck is supposed to equal morality and wisdom.

They spend a great deal more money on punishing the wrong doer than on rewarding the upright, though what constitutes these two categories varies from place to place. To kill while wearing individual, or "civilian" garb is considered a heinous crime; to do the same wearing something called "uniform" and in a collective organization, is looked upon as heroism and patriotism. They are the only living beings on this planet who periodically set out to kill their own species at no visible profit to themselves.

Those who believe least in them create their own heavens and their own hells. Their greatest curse is the thing they call "sin," in which they have greater faith than in other things called "virtue" and "happiness." "Sin" changes form and color, acquires different penalties and rewards in each age and in many of their countries. Those who are the most conscious of sin according to their poor lights, are most conscious of sin and therefore most ready to attribute it to others. A few have learned that sin is the refusal to live up to the enlightenment which they possess, however rudimentary this may be.

They pay immense amounts of their money to people who can make them laugh or weep. They are light-years away from realizing that perfection can be achieved only by those who are beyond both. Yet sometimes I felt envious of this talent which, as you know, we Subterraneans have lost long ago.

They have some individuals who call themselves pessimists and pretend always to expect the worst. But they still rise in the morning, eat and drink, get married, and produce offspring. To them, the greatest boon to be expected would be the end of the world; yet they do not seem capable of action that would hasten the fulfillment of this desire.

Their stimulants are incredibly crude. The most prevalent is called alcohol. It has, in the end, disastrous effects, yet the revenue of their countries consists to a large extent of tax levied on it. Their other drug is tobacco, which is equally noxious but equally profitable to their governments. These two are permitted, while many others (to name only a few: opium, cocaine, heroin, morphine, and a score more) are outlawed. I met one human who was an anti-alcoholist. He explained that this was not because he did not need it to achieve illusions but because even without it he could reach the unpleasant condition they call a hangover. It is an essential quality of the surface of this planet that for its inhabitants truth is the hardest thing to prove.

What would you think of creatures who, setting out on a journey of 100 miles (to use their measure of distance), would travel 20 on the first day, return on the second day to their starting point, cover 40 miles on the third day, go back again where they started from, then on the fifth finally reach their goal? Yet this is, I assure you, a fairly accurate description of what they call "human progress."

They desire success desperately but find no happiness in achieving it. They would not believe anyone who told them that success was getting what you wanted and happiness was wanting what you got. Nor that there is often far less danger in the things they fear than in the things they desire.

Their sympathy is the most natural and amiable form of bias. Whether they talk or keep silent, they cannot escape misunderstanding. Because they are mutually burdensome to each other, they have invented something they call "good manners." Most of their leaders do not really want to lead, only to be followed. Their complex game called "politics" is their art to demand of others all they cannot or will not do themselves. For them it is easier to travel around the world than journey to the core of their minds. They discover the necessity of freedom only when they have lost it.

... And yet I like them.

There is another Sun and human civilization inside the Earth - 11/19/2003 18:51

For several years the scientists preserved the secret of the shocking data of interpretation of photographs of our planet from space. In the ice of the North Pole area a huge hole could be clearly seen. Soon a similar hole was discovered in Venus. Astronomers were shocked and questioned if these planets are hollow inside and what they have in their cores.

New Physics, new Geography

Russian Physicist Fedor Nevolin became famous after composing the theory of "New Physics". In other words, he explained the birth of the Earth in a different way.

First our planet was a huge cold lump wandering in the Universe. Being influenced by the Sun and the Universe energy, it was heated up to lava state and then started cooling up. The crust covered the Earth. Meanwhile, the stuff under the crust continued boiling turning into gas, Nedelin believes. Gas expands when being heated. In the core of our planet hollow space aroused, and a part of gas went outside.

Big gas throwing out took place in the North and South Poles. Deep big holes aroused there.

Nedelin is sure the Earth is absolutely hollow inside and can even have a small Sun there. The Sun energy penetrates there through the holes in the Poles and accumulates in the center. If one supposes that the Earth is hollow inside and has its small Sun, there can be life as well.

This idea was indirectly confirmed by the report on an American high rank military commander to the North Pole. The report was made secret, and its details became known to the world press only recently.

The man who flew inside the hole.

In 1947 Vice-Admiral of the US Navy Richard Bird went for a research flight over the North Pole. Near the Pole he noticed an unusual spot colored in mixture of yellow, red and violet. On approaching the spot the pilot could see something like a mountain chain. Bird flew over it and saw (this was his first impression) a mirage v forests, rivers, meadows with animals resembling mammoths. He could also see weird flying machines and - a city with buildings built from rock crystal. He realized himself to be a second Columbus discovering a new continent! The air thermometer scale began lifting and stopped at +23 degrees Celsius. This was impossible for the North Pole. Radio for the connection with the air base did not work-

Bird's wife who read his register for the flight, told that Vice-Admiral contacted the representatives of the underground civilization who overtook us for one thousand years of development. The inner planet surface residents resembled people in appearance, but were more beautiful and had the look of spirituality. They had no wars, they found new sources of energy which allowed to use vehicles engines, receive food and light from nothing. Those people told Bird they tried to contact the outer surface of the Earth residents, but all their attempts were rejected, their flying machines were shot. Finally they decided to assist human beings only when they will be on the brink of self-destruction. "Inner" Earth residents showed Bird all their civilization achievements and then escorted the pilot to the Pole hole to let him out to our outer world. On return home he discovered that the plane used the fuel for extra 2750 kilometers of flight-

The authorities recommended Vice-Admiral never tell anybody about the world he saw and put him under strict control for the rest of his life.

And still-

Yet some scientists still make conclusions that inside our planet there might be huge cavities having the inner Sun, moderate climate, unique plants and animals, special civilization. Geologists and geophysics say: "People have the right to pursue dreams".

Geography scholars explain the existence of the "hole" in the photo as a usual phenomenon:

- The photo was made on November 23. It is known that the North Pole has a black hole over it from September 22 to March 22, because of the polar night. The Sun is unable to lighten this area because of the equator axis incline!

Probably specialists in Geography are right. Yet, look at the photo. What is there inside the back spot from the polar night? Maybe it is a passage to the Earth core not explored by scientists?

What does science say?

We addressed the issue of the underground passages existence to the scholar.

- I doubt this theory,- said Doctor of Geology of Moscow State University, the Head of Museum for Earth Studies in the university Sergei Dubinin. v Cavities inside the Earth can be only at shallow depths. They arise as caves. Some of them are really big and long, up to several hundred kilometers. But caves cannot arise deeper than 3 or 5 kilometers. High pressure will close all cavities deeper than this level.

Journey to the center of the Earth starts in Provo

By Jacqueline Lee NewsNet Staff Writer - 11 Nov 2003

E-mail or Print this story

A belief that the earth is hollow and inhabited within has caused a Provo man to plan an expedition to the North Pole and possibly to the earth's interior.

Steve Curry owns an expedition company in Provo. For over forty years he has organized fly-fishing, kayaking, river rafting and trekking trips around the world. Many locations of his trips are exotic and fascinating, but his next destination is something way out of the ordinary.

Curry was contacted by Rodney Cluff, author of "World Top Secret: Our Earth is Hollow," to organize an expedition to the interior of the earth. In his book, Cluff explains the theory of the hollow earth.

There is no guarantee the expedition will find anything, but if nothing else, the people will get to go to the North Pole and the Siberian Islands, Curry said.

Curry has chartered a nuclear icebreaker with the capacity for 108 passengers for the purpose of taking a group to find the polar opening.

The expedition is scheduled for June 26 to July 19, 2005.

Curry said people from all over the world have expressed interest in going on the expedition.

"I am getting three to four calls a day about it," Curry said.

Passengers will have to come up with the funds to pay for the expedition. Costs range from $18,950 to $20,950 per person.

According to a survey done by LDS author R. Clayton Brough, 4 percent of the LDS population believes in the hollow earth theory and that it is a probable explanation for the location of the lost 10 tribes.

Cluff has been investigating the theory for years.

"I firmly believe there is a substantial amount of scientific, historical and scriptural evidence to support the theory," he said.

The expedition will go to the North Pole in search of the polar opening, which Cluff said he believes is marked by land about five degrees from the pole.

Past explorers and indigenous Eskimos have reported seeing a mirage of land in that vicinity.

According to Cluff, there are some people in the government who are aware of the opening to the inner earth but have tried to keep that knowledge hidden from the public.

"We have indications that the U.S. military does know about it," he said.

Discovering the inner earth will set off a new age and a revolution in education and all aspects of society, Cluff said.

"We believe that in this expedition we, the people, have a right to know," he said.

Cluff said has written about religious believe that he expects to be proven when he goes on the expedition. One of the beliefs is that the inner earth is inhabited by the throne of King David from the Bible, and that the political kingdom of God is located there. He also believes that the lost Garden of Eden is in the hallowed earth, and its inhabitants are friendly, highly civilized and mostly members of the lost 10 tribes. Cluff also said the inner sun, which is located in the inner earth, is the throne of Jehovah and a paradise for the dead.

Other beliefs he said he hopes to prove include that UFOs originate from the inner earth, and solar winds and the inner sun cause the northern lights.

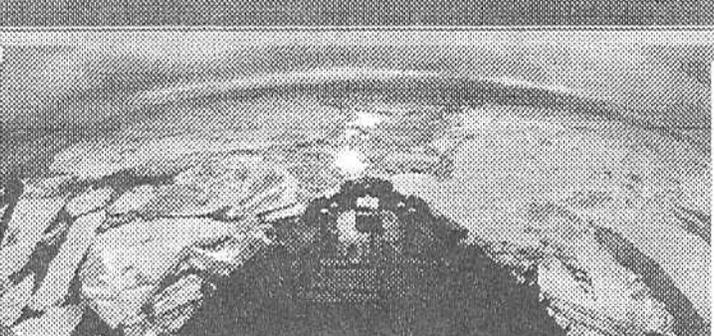

The only other record that exists of any sort of expedition to the inner earth is from explorer Admiral Byrd. According to the belief, Admiral Byrd flew through the inner earth in 1947, Cluff said.

Voyage to Our Hollow Earth

Would you be interested in a once-in-a-lifetime chance to discover Our Hollow Earth first hand? If so, we invite you to join us for an expedition to the North Pole with Steve Currey, one of the leading river explorers in the world!

Indigenous Eskimos believe that there is a hole in the Artic Ocean and observations by several Artic explorers, who claim to have seen mirages of exposed land near the North Pole, indicate that the most plausible location for an opening is located at 84.4 N Latitude, 141 E Longitude.

Steve Currey's Expedition Company has chartered the Russian Nuclear IceBreaker YAMAL, to take 100 adventurers to the North Pole for an expedition to conduct scientific observations that could resolve once and for all whether the Hollow Earth theories have any validity!

The HOLLOW Earth !

On January 6, 1967, the satellite ESSA-3, in very high polar orbit around the Earth, took a remarkable photograph, from straight above the North Polar area, showing a huge HOLE, about 1400 MILES in diameter, centered where the North Pole should be!

The ESSA-7 satellite took an even better quality photo of this HOLE on November 23, 1968.

Both photos were published in the book "Secret of the Ages--UFO's From Inside the Earth", by Brinsley Le Poer Trench, 1977.

In 1947, Admiral Richard E. Byrd flew an airplane 1700 miles into the North Polar ENTRANCE HOLE, where he saw forests, lakes, and herds of LIVE MAMMOTHS! In 1956, he flew 2300 miles into the South Polar ENTRANCE HOLE and saw the SAME kinds of things.

The book "THE HOLLOW EARTH", by Dr. Raymond Bernard, Ph.D., quotes several statements made by Admiral Byrd before, during, and after these expeditions, including:

"I'd like to see that land beyond the Pole. That area beyond the Pole is the center of the great unknown.", February 1947.

"On January 13, members of the United States expedition accomplished a flight of 2700 miles from the base at McMurdo Sound, which is 400 miles west of the South Pole, and penetrated a land extent of 2300 miles beyond the Pole.", January 13, 1956 radio transmission.

"The present expedition has opened a vast new land.", March 13, 1956.

"...that enchanted continent in the sky, land of everlasting mystery.", 1957.

In 1828, Jens and Olaf Jansen, a father and son team of Norwegian fishermen, sailed their fishing boat into the North Polar ENTRANCE HOLE, and spent two years living with the friendly giants who live down there. Their experiences are described in the book "The Smoky God", (referring to the Earth's CENTRAL SUN), by Willis George Emerson, 1908, reprinted in 1965 by Health Research, (a rare-book dealer, publisher, and republisher), 8349 Lafayette St., P.O. Box 70, Mokelumne Hill, CA 95245. Other editions of this book might be available elsewhere.

The Earth is HOLLOW! Its hollow shell is about 1500 miles thick at the equator, and about 500 miles thick near the polar ENTRANCE HOLES. The North Polar ENTRANCE HOLE is about 1400 miles in diameter and centered close to the Earth's axis of rotation, while the South Polar ENTRANCE HOLE is slightly smaller, perhaps 1300 miles in diameter, and somewhat off-center. The ENTRANCE HOLES are usually filled up with some kind of fog. At the geometric center of the Earth is a glowing ball of plasma, about 600 miles in diameter, which serves as the CENTRAL SUN that warms and illuminates the Earth's inner surface. The HOLLOW Earth's shell also includes numerous HUGE ELECTRO-LUMINATED INHABITED CAVERNS like the one described in Jules Verne's 1864 novel "Journey to the Center of the Earth". (See also the book "The Under-People", by Eric Norman, 1969.) These locations, including the Earth's inner surface, are home to 25 MILLION PEOPLE, mostly descendants from ancient LEMURIA !

The "Laws" of physics and gravitation NOTWITHSTANDING, People CAN and DO walk on the Earth's INNER surface, just as easily as on the outer surface. They might weigh less down there, but they are NOT weightless as orthodox physicists think they would be. For one thing, the HOLLOW Earth's shell is NEITHER uniformly thick NOR uniformly dense. In general, geophysicists are MIS-INTERPRETING their seismic data.
