A DOCTORATE PROGRAM FOR THE 21ST CENTURY FROM AWARENESS?

What New Thinking For the New Age Would be Included?

QUESTION:

We received a letter from Judith Wilson, in Snow Camp, North Carolina. She's a new subscriber. And she ordered some back issues, but she writes something sort of interesting. "I am in the process of pursuing my doctorate and would like permission to use information from your publication. Would you please let me know how you would like to be referenced in the dissertation which I intend to have published upon completion.

"If the Awareness could create a doctorate program for the 21st Century, what advice would It have for new thinking, for the New Age, and a new philosophy for the 21st Century?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would suggest starting with the premise that the universe is alive; that it is living with vibrations and frequencies from top to bottom, and everything in between, and that the highest frequencies within the universe make up that which is called consciousness, particularly the extremely highest represent the consciousness of the Divine and also equate to Divine Love.

This Awareness indicates that from there, down to the lowest frequencies which compose the most gross matter, everything in between is matter of degree, in terms of the frequency and in terms of the consciousness level. This Awareness indicates there are also pockets of consciousness within the universe that are more notable than other areas, so that certain areas or certain composites of energy or entities may hold higher consciousness than another form of material close by.

The Divine Frequency Allows Entities to Become One With God

Thus, there are different levels of consciousness with different entities, some being more loving, some being more cosmically aware, and some being more encompassing in terms of their understanding of things, but that all, regardless of their capabilities, all are part of the total gestalt or creative life of the universe, and that entities can surrender themselves, their personal selves, their personal identification to that Divine Frequency to become One with God.

This Awareness indicates that God being the Life Force, the Love Force, the Highest Frequencies in the universe, and that these Highest Frequencies correspond to those concepts of Divinity and Intelligence, Cosmic Consciousness. This Awareness indicates that when entities understand this, they will be able to apply it to all facets of life and come up with new paradigm of studies and sciences that embrace and encompass the quantum physics, and allow entities to have better understanding of the parapsychologies, the supernatural and the science of natural physics in such a way that they all join together in a new understanding, a new paradigm of a new science.

New Unlimited Reality Rules Must be Created

This Awareness indicates that you cannot set the rules of the game to be limited and still encompass the unlimited reality of the game, so you must scrap the old rules and create new unlimited realities or new rules that embrace and allow for the total realities that occur. In the old rules, certain realities had to be ignored in order to stay within the rules of the game.

Thus, science discredited psychic abilities, even though countless numbers of entities were having psychic experiences. At the same time, someone would wake up and realize that this person is no longer alive. There is no scientific explanation by the old rules, but by the new understanding and new rules of reality, the entity can say "Cosmic mind is everywhere present, and when I was asleep, the mind links me to the entity who died, and I could sense the death, and it woke me up."

It is a simple and clear explanation of how such things happen. The vibrations were attuned, just as radio receivers can attune to the radio stations and a message crosses countless hundreds of miles, so that the entity hears the message from the broadcast through his or her receiver, and likewise, telepathy is a possibility when you recognize the new reality, or new way of understanding reality; that throughout the universe, all is vibration.

This Awareness indicates that there are many other rules of the new way of seeing the universe. These are rather lengthy to go into, but there are other rules and there is time in the future to research and provide more information on these universal rules that allow an explanation for all the phenomena of life and the phenomena of the unexplained experiences that entities often encounter.

A Few More Universal Rules to Apply to the Research

This Awareness indicates that a brief listing of rules to consider that may be applied in your research and discovery: All things vibrate. All things tend to have gender. All things have cause and effect. All things are alive to some degree. Everything is a matter of degree; from one extreme to the other there are degrees in between.

The Old Concept of Elements as Things is Still Valid

The old concept of elements as things does not conflict with the fact that ancients classified elements as qualities and had four major quality elements, actually five, but four that made up the material world. These four elements of the ancients were descriptions of qualities: radiation, often called fire; vibration, often called air; water, representing magnetism; earth, representing stability or that which modern science and engineering would call grounding.

You have the positive, negative, neutral and the grounding in your modern electronics systems. The ancients had fire, earth, air and water representing radiation and stability, vibration and magnetism. The ancients' elements were as real and as true then as they are today, even though science talks of 110 or more elements, there is no conflict because they are speaking of differences as varied as apples and oranges. They are using a word "element" in two different contexts.

Yet, your science scoffs at the ancients as only having four elements, while they have 110 or more. This Awareness indicates the modern tables of elements describe everything from an entire range of minerals up and down the scale from the most base mineral up into the atomic elements and beyond.

It is rumored that there are at least 115 elements; that element 115 is that which applies to fuel used by alien spacecraft, which is much more powerful than plutonium or any of the nuclear elements used on earth by mankind.

This Awareness indicates that regardless of these various classifications under the name "element", the ancient quality elements: fire, air, earth and water, or radiation, vibration, stability and magnetism; these are still elements in the make-up of material things, but they are the quality elements rather than the quantity elements of modern-day science.

The Higher Levels of Vibration Allow for Mind Over Matter

This Awareness indicates that in the higher levels of reality, vibration is connected to consciousness or mind, and these higher connections allow for the operation of mind over matter. Of course it is possible for matter to affect mind also.

Thus, a bullet through the brain wipes out the mind of an entity in the sense of a conscious mind or a physical brain, the soul may go on beyond without the brain, but the details of the mind of the entity may be to a great degree lost, with only certain rudimentary memories carried from one lifetime to another.

Staring at a Cloud An Exercise to Prove Mind Over Matter

Thus, you have matter over mind, wherein the destructive weapon destroys the housing for the mind and thus destroys much of the collective information from the entity's lifetime of mental efforts. This Awareness indicates that mind over matter can be demonstrated by entities who have good concentration, simply by staring at a small cloud on a sunny day, whereby the staring at the cloud can dissolve it, and this can be tested, because surrounding clouds are not thus dissolved.

This Awareness indicates and also there are other methods of demonstrating mind over matter which may be more difficult for some than for others. This Awareness indicates that this kind of realization however is the important thing, even if not everyone can demonstrate or can do the act. If even one or two people are capable of unexplainable feats of mind over matter, it is proof that there is some law functioning in the universe that can be studied and developed to help others practice that application of the law, and it becomes a matter of fact rather than mere theory.

This Awareness indicates that the staring at a cloud to dissolve it can be accomplished by a good percentage of the people. They need a certain strength of concentration. They need to stare through the cloud for as long as five or six minutes, and the cloud will begin to shrink in size and disappear. This Awareness indicates that this in itself, if it can be repeated by others, and it can, is proof of some kind of energy emanating from the mind of an entity upon the reality of matter in a way that affects that reality.

This Awareness indicates it requires a revision of scientific understanding and a new paradigm to explain how this can occur.

You Can't Rely Any Longer On the Five Senses

This Awareness indicates that as the new science begins to emerge, the quantum physics become acceptable, then the old solid world based on the five senses may begin to fade away. The five senses being the tree of knowledge which does not bear the fruit of truth, the fruit of life. It breeds the concept of the lie, wherein these five senses are known by science to be limited, to be inaccurate descriptions of reality, yet because it is so easy to rely on the five senses for your knowledge, you perceive a world that is subject to sensual evaluation and the evaluation of reality by the senses produces maya or deception.

This Awareness suggests that once entities can get beyond that deception, beyond the lies produced by the five senses, to discover the new paradigm of reality, stepping into the quantum physics in which the mind contributes to the creation of the universe, contributes to the reality of the world around.

This Awareness indicates as the masses of people awaken to this new reality in which their mind is contributing to the creation of that reality, it then can easily be a further project to encourage and influence mass-consciousness to work together to create a new more healthy environment in the new reality so that all can benefit, all can gain, all can receive the blessings of the new reality by directing their consciousness toward co-creative activities.

Co-Creating Can Alleviate the Concepts of Separateness

By creating together, all may share the rewards of that creation. The cause and effect can work in harmony to benefit humanity and to alleviate the concepts of separateness which are the causes of most suffering. When entities begin to realize they are all one, and can work together as one in the creation of a better reality for all; when there is no separateness that needs to be given special attention or special blessings at the expense of others; when entities no longer see themselves as separate and therefore special, but see themselves as being part of the whole, and that the part is equal in value to all other parts, even if unique and different in appearance or quality or shape.

When all parts are equally valued, not that they are equal in activities, but of some special value to the whole; when all parts are recognized for their place in making up the whole and therefore, are seen as precious to the whole creation, then an ideal society will be present. It will be the culmination of the evolutionary process.

This Awareness indicates that in other words, as entities embrace all the various new understanding of a new reality, the world begins to move toward a oneness, a unity, a reality that embraces everyone with the love of the Divine and brings all entities into that higher frequency of Universal Love and Universal Consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that this could go on and on, describing more and more within these laws, within these principles, but this is sufficient as a start.

How Entities Can Attune to Cosmic Awareness

This Awareness indicates that entities wishing to attune to this Awareness need only to set aside their own mind, emotion and feeling and this Awareness enters. The entity must then, if wishing to convey information from this Awareness, must be able to put those feelings into proper words without disturbing the balance of the Universal Consciousness or bringing back mind, emotion, feeling into that space in which this Awareness is found.

It is much like entering into a catatonic state in which high consciousness is present, but your personal mind, your personal emotions, your personal feelings are not part of the state, and in order to express from that state, you must learn to speak without disturbing the state of Universal Consciousness that you are surrendered into.

You will not disturb this state if you can avoid bringing back mind, emotion, and feeling while you are speaking. It may take practice. It may take time to do so, to speak while still remaining in a state of Universal Consciousness. This Awareness has given certain Development Class rituals and messages to help entities in this process, to help them open certain mental vibratory centers in their bodies referred to in common terms as chakras.

The opening of these chakras is very helpful in allowing entities to attune to this Awareness without disturbance from emotions, feelings and mental energies that may pass through the field of consciousness. This Awareness indicates that entities in a state of Awareness may sometimes find thoughts coming from elsewhere, passing through their fields of consciousness, and must be able to set these thoughts aside, not collect them or repeat them as coming from this Awareness.

They must be discerning enough to know when something is a message from this Awareness or when it is from some other source, and going through the Development Classes this Awareness has given can help entities to make those discernments. This Awareness has given several precepts in helping entities to learn how to become more aware. One of these precepts is "Judge Not."

The Cosmic Awareness Precept of "Judge Not"

This Awareness indicates that some entities would find it very difficult not to judge. They will ask, "How can you ever reach a decision if you don't judge?" This Awareness suggests there is a difference between judgment and discernment. You can discern by looking at something very deeply without judgment, very deeply, without coming to a conclusion. You simply look at it and in the looking, you get deeper into it.

You may want to come to a conclusion so you can go onto something else. Thus, many entities form conclusions based on shallow thinking because they want to go onto other things. The mind is always searching for something else to observe and to consider, but this Awareness suggests discerning, looking at What Is, not projecting what is indicated into being a fact, but simply continuing to look at what is indicated, because it IS, and as you continue looking at What Is without leaping to a conclusion about it, you discern deeper and deeper.

You absorb more and more information. Eventually the discerning will become so strong that you will know something, even without mentally concluding. You simply have been fed information you cannot get away from, and you do not make a decision. You do not judge, you simply understand it because you have been so discerning.

The Concept of Insecurity Is a Big Problem to Entities

This Awareness indicates that It also has suggested that entities have a great problem with the concept of insecurity. This being one of the greatest problems humanity experiences, along with rapid and undiscerned judgment, but the insecurity affects entities in ways that hurt their relationships with others and with themselves.

It motivates them to behave in ways that are not the Highest and Best, and this Awareness wishes entities to recognize the importance of dealing with insecurity. Those who have tried to overcome insecurity often have built great castles and walls, accumulated huge numbers of weapons to protect themselves against those things that are threats or which may be feared as imaginary threats.

This Awareness indicates the actions of building great walls and shields and shells to keep out the feared enemies of oneself, to keep away the threats of harm to oneself have not brought about security for the entity. If you look at the concept of security, "maximum security" is not that which entities would really want anyway. There are entities placed in maximum security within prisons; it protects them, but it is not to their pleasure that they are so protected.

Another Way to Deal With Insecurity

This Awareness indicates there is another way to deal with insecurity, and that is to accept it as part of life, be aware of where your insecurities are, watch them and keep them at arm's length. It is likened to imagining some kind of monster in your home. Rather than fleeing your home or trying to rid yourself of the monster, you simply accept that it's there and will never go away and you must work around it and learn to relate to it as if you were attending some wild animal that you had to domesticate in your home, because there is no way to get it out.

This Awareness indicates that if you can accept insecurity as a part of your life, it is no longer a great problem. If there is a threat and the threat is real, deal with the threat, but don't let insecurity about the threat destroy your life and make you feel terrorized about life itself.

If you need to have some kind of wall or protection, a big truck instead of a small car; if you need a tank instead of a jeep; if you must have huge guns, then if this is absolutely essential because of the role or importance of your activities or operations of your activities or operations, then let this be, but don't let the concept of insecurity destroy your experiences in life, or cause you to feel emotionally fragile, because you cannot take some kind of feeling of insecurity and deal with it reasonably in your living experience.

This Awareness suggests you embrace the emotions of insecurity until these things are no longer frightening. If you feel more comfortable having physical barriers protecting you, then do it in order to get more emotional peace.

This Awareness indicates that It does not wish entities to go through life energizing and strengthening their feelings of insecurity, for that is what many entities do. The more they work to become more secure, the more demanding they are of even greater security, to the point where they may lose all of their other ambitions and focus only on increasing, developing, enhancing and exaggerating more and more security.

Examples of How Insecurity Can Ruin One's Life

An entity may begin life wanting to be an actor, an artist, a writer, a doctor, or some other occupation, but because the entity is insecure, perhaps resulting from some traumatic experience, the entity's focus changes from that which he or she wanted to pursue; it changes to seeking more and more security, and the entity spends his or her entire life trying to build security and missing out on the reason for his or her life.

This Awareness suggests rather than allowing this to happen, you embrace security and recognize that it is part of life and there is nothing you can do about it except work around it, and let it have its space in your life and focus on other things that are of equal or of greater importance and the emotions of insecurity will gradually fade.

Those Entities Who Seek "Eternal Fulfillment"

This Awareness indicates there are also entities who seek what they term "eternal fulfillment", and this Awareness suggests that if you really had eternal fulfillment, there would be nothing more to live for and you would surely die. Therefore, this Awareness suggests that you accept the "eternal unfulfillment" and allow each moment that is unfulfilled to lead you into the next moment, and each unfulfillment in each moment opens the way to another moment, so that your unfulfillment begins to move you from moment to moment through the path of life, giving you something to pursue eternally.

This Awareness indicates you really don't want total fulfillment for there would be nothing left for you to do further in life. It is the unfulfillment that motivates you to move, to be, to do.

This Awareness indicates that this question by this entity is a very open question that requires much information to answer. It allows for continuous response, almost unlimited, as it allows for the creation of a new reality.

This Awareness suggests however, that there is a limit to time in these readings and that this is sufficient for the present time. That more can be given later.

The Cosmic Laws and The Kybalion

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

The booklet of Cosmic Laws would probably be recommended also for her, wouldn't it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness suggests the small book printed under the name The Kybalion which lists seven laws of the Universal Creation: All is One; All is Vibration; All is Gender; All is Polarity; Everything is Mind there are others this Awareness does not see at the moment, but are listed in the book. Cause and Effect ... This Awareness indicates that these are principles that are of such broad and general value, that an entire philosophy can be derived from exploring each of these areas. This Awareness suggests the questions continue.

Free Will VS The Dark Force?

QUESTION:

A question from A.O. Baker, Jacksonville, Florida. He asks: "The Dark Forces can enter our lives whenever they choose, but isn't there a Universal Law that prevents the Divine or Angelic Forces from interfering in our lives because of our free will, unless we ask the Divine or Angelic Force to come into our lives and help us?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates there is the need to examine the premise as stated, for this Awareness does not see the Dark Forces as able to enter into your world or into your life at will unless they are likewise embraced or accepted by you. This Awareness indicates that this is an area in which you do have the choice or free will of allowing negative forces in to be an influence upon your life, or calling forth the Light Forces to influence your life.

If you align yourself by choice with the Light Forces or Divine Forces, you have made a choice and the Divine Forces will enter your life and assist you. If you choose the Dark Path, rather than choosing the Highest and Best in any moment; if you choose something less than the Highest, you may get something that is disturbing or dark in its nature, as part of your life experience.

This Awareness indicates that it is a matter of what you allow into your life, whether you get a Dark Force or a Light Force, a Divine Force.

Any Need to Ask Divine Forces to Enter?

FOLLOW-UP:

He also asks: "Would it be necessary to call for Divine or Angelic Forces to come into our lives on a daily basis, such as a morning prayer before starting our day? Would they have to be asked or called on daily?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that an open attitude to receive the Divine, a faith that the Divine is with you is much the same thing as calling for the Divine. It is not necessary to say words to the Divine Force, but it can be helpful. If you have a strong faith that the Divine is with you, it is much the same as if you pray for Divine Intervention in your life.

Why You Should Never Tell a Child "You're Bad!"

This Awareness wishes to point out something else related to this. If a child or an entity has a belief that he or she is a bad person, it is the same as instilling in that entity a faith that Dark Forces are operating in that entity's life. Therefore, a mother should never tell a child "You are a bad child! You are a bad boy!" or "You are a bad girl!", because if the child begins to accept that as a reality, then the child essentially has faith or the belief that he or she is connected with bad forces, and that anything they hear about bad forces applies to them, and therefore, their alignment becomes one with "bad" rather than one with "good."

Most parents who tell a child "You are bad!", think that it is going to convince them to be good, and that children should know that they are not supposed to be bad, or should know that being bad is something they should change from, but for the child, they are simply informed that they are bad, and once so informed, they try to find out what it means to be bad.

It is likened unto being told, "You are George!" They accept the name George and they do not question. They simply want to know "What is George? How do I be George?" "What is bad? How do I be bad? How can I show my bad side?" This Awareness indicates that it is much better if the parent says, "You are a good boy! Why did you do this? Good boys don't do things like that!"

This Awareness indicates it is extremely important to get your language correct, otherwise you are simply hypnotizing your child to be bad if you tell the child "You are a bad boy!"

The Book "Embraced By The Light"

(The Author's Catholic Programming is Demeaning)

More On the Near-Death Experience)

QUESTION:

One other question from A.O. Baker. I'm not sure if we've covered this. We might have covered this. "I recently read the book Embraced By The Light by Betty J. Eadie. The only point I disagreed with in the book was the author's statement that we only live once, and any memories of past lives are genetic cellular memories from our ancestor's lives.

"Apparently the author doesn't believe in reincarnation and blocked that part of her spiritual experience on the other side from her memory, when she returned back to her body. But anyway, would Cosmic Awareness recommend this book to the readership as a realistic view of the death experience and the soul leaving the body to return to spirit?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this book is being sold by the millions throughout the world. It is having a profound influence on entities. This entity as having a strong Catholic background, and therefore bringing much of her Catholic background into her belief system. If she was not programmed while experiencing the near-death experience to understand every aspect that she wrote about in her book, she may have simply allowed some of her Catholic beliefs to come through.

This Awareness indicates that entities who read this will gain some very good insight into the near-death experience, but they will also get some personal Catholic indoctrination coming from her Catholic beliefs, and therefore, there is some distortion in regard to reality that entities will receive. This Awareness indicates it is not that this will necessarily be harmful, but it may not all be accurate and truthful.

This Awareness indicates It does not see the entity as having received any special information while in her near-death experience regarding the concept of reincarnation. This was not something of a realization that came with her experience, but was rather part of her Catholic interpretation of reality, and therefore brought into the book because of her strong belief in this.

This can be, for some entities, a problem. This Awareness suggests there are other books that also are beneficial in discussing the near-death experience. The book by Elizabeth Kubler-Ross and Elizabeth Montgomery. This Awareness indicates there is also a current book called Past-Lives, Future Lives that is of great importance to those seeking more understanding about reincarnation.

This Awareness indicates the entity Sorenson wrote books on his deep research into reincarnation. The first name of this entity not seen clearly. But these and other books cover the concept of reincarnation thoroughly. You cannot expect every good book to be 100% correct on all things. If a book is 90% correct, it is rather amazing.

This Awareness indicates the entity did describe the near-death experience, however; of course, it was described some 15 or 20 years after the event, and therefore, there could be some distortions from her memory and the mixture of her Catholic beliefs into the experience.

Hovering Ghosts Over Site of Tragedy?

QUESTION (AVATON):

There was a tabloid article recently. I'll read it here. "Turku, Finland. Witnesses report sighting hundreds of hovering ghosts over the site where the tragic ferry Estonia sank in the Baltic Sea.

A number of sailors and ship passengers have told authorities of mysterious lights, voices and shapes flitting over the icy waters since the September 28 disaster that killed more than 900 people.

"One man said the sound of women's screams nearly drove him mad as his fishing boat passed over the area", a Lieutenant in the Finnish Coastal Defense Corps said. "He had to get psychological help, it was so upsetting for him."

Is that information basically true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it appears to be a strong exaggeration. This Awareness indicates if you have ever been on the coast, especially when things are semi-dark and misty, you can imagine all kinds of sounds and shapes from the ocean and water churning, which make many different tones, and it is possible for an entity to be in a state of mind wherein they hear certain things.

It is also possible that entities having suffered the drowning experience could attempt, through these ocean sounds, to lament their passing, and that an entity can be in a state of mind receptive to picking up those sounds. This Awareness suggests in this sense, it is true that entities can pick up on the sounds of departed spirits under certain circumstances.

This Awareness indicates that this particular account appears to be based more on one person's story and the receipt of the story being greatly exaggerated and elaborated on. This Awareness indicates It sees two entities sitting in the restaurant and one entity talking about having heard of someone on the beach who heard voices from the sea, and believed they were sounds of the ghosts of the sunken vessel, and the entity hearing this story from the customer in the restaurant took that information, elaborated on it, and wrote the report with its embellishments.

This Awareness indicates everyone likes a good story and many people like to tell good stories, and there are many people who have learned to embellish simple messages and turn them into good stories. This Awareness indicates with that explanation, It can say that "Yes. The story is true."

Do Bands of Spirit Helpers Assist Entities Pass Over in Such Tragedies?

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

I have read in certain old books on spiritualism that in the spirit world there are cadres of specially trained spirit helpers or guides whose job is to go out en masse when such a tragedy of that magnitude occurs, where entities unexpectedly find themselves no longer alive and having passed over, in conditions such as this ship where 900 people within minutes found themselves dead.

Is it true that these cadres come out to assist these entities in their bewilderment and instruct them and guide them to the other side during such instances?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct in the sense of helping entities orient themselves to their new reality, but the term "cadre" may be a selective term by the particular author of the concept, and the entities may be a group of entities who do not think of themselves as part of a cadre, in the normal sense of a military type cadre.

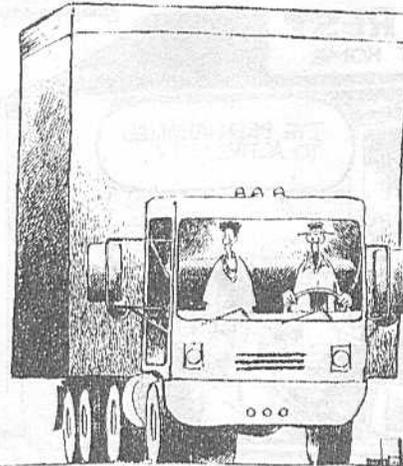

This Awareness indicates they see themselves more as perhaps nurses or assistants in helping entities to orient themselves. This Awareness indicates the concept of cadre is all right as a description of these entities, but the word cadre often carries a military connotation that is not fully applicable to these entities from their point of view.

Thanks to Carol, Glen has only a near-death experience.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Cosmic Laws of Cosmic Awareness...

The Law of Change

This Awareness indicates there is a Law which governs all things, and allows no thing to remain unchecked, and allows no checks to remain unchanged. That in anything seen, done, experienced or known, you may look at it and say with absolute certainty: "This too will pass." This Awareness indicates this as the Law of Change.

Do Greys Love Music and Like to be Read To?

QUESTION:

Gloria Kilby, of Gresham Oregon, in a letter, makes a comment. She wasn't asking a question, but I am. She says: "You may find it interesting. I know someone who is working with some of these aliens. I hesitate to call them creatures, but the entities, there, that sounds better, are from Nightmare Hall and places like it, here in Oregon, during her sleep-times.

"She says they love music and like to be read to. That they can be very vicious. She too is from Sirius."

I'd like to ask Awareness, is this valid? That these Greys love music and like to be read to?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be correct. That the entity appears to have some contacts with these entities and does understand them well enough to make such a statement. This Awareness indicates that they are seeking to understand the emotional qualities of humans because, they see this as the key to their future survival, and thus, they are interested in things such as music and fantasy, because these things tend to give them something of a kind of vicarious emotion, which they do not get from their science and technology.

They do not actually feel emotion, but vicariously, they can imagine what emotion is through music and through fantasy. This Awareness indicates a good understanding of this problem is expressed in the Star Trek Generation Two series, through the entity Data, who is an android and non-human. This entity constantly is struggling to understand humans, especially their emotions.

WHO KILLED JOHN LENNON AND WHY

QUESTION:

A question from Ted Helinski, in another area here, He writes: "I recently finished the just published book: Who Killed John Lennon?, by Fenton Bressler. The book is published by Saint Martin's Press, New York, and can be purchased at Walden's Books for $17.95. Fenton Bressler spent 8 years researching police reports, court testimony and the psychological makeup of Mark David Chapman. It is Bressler's contention that Lennon's killer, Mark David Chapman, was programmed by the CIA to commit this murder. The following is a quote from the book:

"...that Lennon, the politically most active rock star of his generation, and militantly left-wing politically active at that, was shot dead outside his home by a killer who was merely a tool, a human gun used and controlled by others to destroy a uniquely powerful radical figure who was likely to prove a rallying point for mass opposition to the policies soon to be implemented, both at home and abroad, by the new United States government headed by Ronald Reagan. There is no evidence whatsoever that Mr. Reagan knew or had anything to do with such a deadly scheme; but it is an undoubted fact that, only one month earlier, the ex-actor had been elected for his first term as president and everyone knew he had the most determinedly reactionary program of an American leader for many years".

Bressler details how the government had Lennon under close surveillance for years and was doing everything in their power to have him deported back to England. According to the book, Lennon became involved with radicals such as Jerry Rubin and Abby Hoffman and they were supposedly planning to turn out one million demonstrators at the Republican National Convention. According to the author, the U.S. government knew that only Lennon could generate that much interest in the Peace Movement and for that reason he was killed.

Bressler also make the claim that many other assassins of recent times were programmed to commit their crimes through the use of mind control techniques developed by the CIA. Apparently, at least two of Bressler's sources for his information were Mae Brussels and Daniel Sheehan of the Christic Institute.

Does Awareness see the information contained in this book as being valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be in the affirmative; that the technique for creating and forming these assassins, setting up the mind for this kind of activity is done in a kind of layer of one personality over another, wherein the entity is influenced through the use of hypnosis, drugs and electronics, whereby the entity can be programmed in different levels, so that if one level is uncovered, it will appear that the entity is not in any way associated with the level that was trained for this job; that the entity may need to be uncovered through several levels, before one could discover that the entity was programmed as an agent. The entity himself may not even remember or realize that he is an agent because of the hypnotic and drug influences covering up that fact.

This Awareness indicates that this is seen as a tool that has been used many times for different individuals who have been used for purposes of assassination.

The Preemptive Strike....

Albert Goldman's Sleazy Book on Lennon (A CIA Attempt to Discredit Bressler's Book?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Ted has a follow-up question. "Albert Goldman wrote an unauthorized sleazy biography of John Lennon titled The Lives of John Lennon. This book was released a short time before Mr Bressler's book, Who Killed John Lennon? Goldman's book portrayed Lennon in the worst possible light, and many felt that even if what he wrote about Lennon were true, it was in very poor taste to make it public after his death. Because of the timing of the release of Goldman's book, just a short time before Bressler's book dealing with the investigation of Lennon's murder, I'm wondering if Goldman's book was a deliberate attempt by the CIA to downplay Bressler's allegations by so badly slandering Lennon that many people would no longer be interested in Lennon's murder.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative. It is referred to as a preemptive strike; that it is the action of taking away the impact before the thing can be fired. This Awareness indicates that before the one book is launched, the other book strikes and destroys the reputation, thus, John Lennon has, in effect, been destroyed physically, but then following that, the book slandering him assassinates his character as well. This Awareness indicates that it was intended as a book which would in destroying his character, draw away any impact or concern for the entity, so that when this second book is released, there would be little interest or concern for the entity.

This Awareness indicates there is a good likelihood that it will prevent and will in fact have considerable damage in regard to the effectiveness of the second book, Who Killed John Lennon? It has in fact weakened the impact of the second book. This Awareness indicates however, that for those who are aware, there is considerable value in the second book, and though it will probably receive very little publicity as did the first, it still will reach many entities.

Conspiracy: The Assassination of Abraham Lincoln an Example

This Awareness indicates that much as with the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, the information released in regard to such assassinations, coming years after the fact, generally does little to help bring about justice. Generally, such information just creates mystery, controversy, and some continuation of the legend surrounding the individual, but the masses generally let the matter continue to lie in the field of history, to sit there in history, allowing people to write about it, to talk about it, but little is ever done.

What, for example, can be done in regard to the assassination of Lincoln? All those who were involved have passed on. The only value in realizing who killed Lincoln is to discover perhaps that there was someone else besides Booth who was involved in the conspiracy to kill this entity, and if entities become aware of that, that value is only in regard to whether such a conspiracy or group is still in operation, for if that conspiracy also has passed on, then it has little or no value other than to solve a mystery relating to some historical event of the past.

This Awareness indicates that those who understand the nature of the long conspiracy relating to a certain movement of energies by certain people down through the history of Western Civilization, who recognize that there are entities who belong to an organization that has been in existence longer than the lifetime of (the) entities who belong to that organization, and that the organization continues to have effect and control on society and on government, and continues as an organization, using tools of assassination, and it is at one time using a tool to assassinate a president, at another time, assassinating a public figure; then, the entire recognition of the event becomes more meaningful to the individual, and it is in this manner that entities become aware and concerned at discovering that the lone idiot who appears to have been the one who killed this person, was not acting alone, but was used as a tool, an agent, by some conspiratorial group, to do so.

This Awareness indicates that when this is realized, and very few take the time to study and understand or research and realize, but when it is realized, then these things have meaning. This Awareness indicates in general, however, the masses couldn't really care less, other than to satisfy their mental curiosity as to whether the entity was in fact killed by this person, or by someone else. There is always that element of curiosity that some entities have, but it has little relevance to their lives in general if they do not fully understand the big picture.

This Awareness has discussed these elements of the long-term conspiracy in previous readings, and does not wish to enter into further discussions at this time in regard to this. There is no need for repeating what has already been given.

Is Something Incomplete in Consciousness Until the Truth Comes Out?

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

There isn't anything that would concern entities of long ago, like the Lincoln conspiracy, the entities having long passed over; there isn't anything that would concern them, like you read about sometimes, the ghost of somebody returns because he was murdered and the murderer was never brought to justice. On a more far reaching scale, there isn't something in consciousness that is incomplete until the total truth of a situation comes out, is there?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is to some degree, that feeling of violation that many entities experience when someone whom they hold in high esteem is taken from them through such an act of assassination; thus, those who live during the time of Lincoln, or those who live during the time of Kennedy, who experienced the feeling of loss, were essentially robbed. They were violated. The masses were violated by the assassination that took place, particularly they were violated if they held this person in high esteem. If they did not like the person, they may have felt joy at his assassination, but in general, those who had a right to their President, who had elected or who had accepted this person as the President, had the right to continue having that President serve them until his term was over, and therefore they were violated by the action of assassination of that President.

Therefore, being violated, there is a karmic duty owed to those people; the assassin owes them something in order to balance the books. Whoever assassinated Kennedy, whoever was behind that; whoever was behind the assassination of Lennon, whoever was behind the assassination of Lincoln, owes those who cared about these entities something. Therefore, these entities as symbols, standing for something of value to the masses, in being assassinated, still remain important to the masses and will not experience a reconciliation in terms of harmonious balance to where these things can be let go of in consciousness, until the mysteries are cleared, and the truth is revealed.

This Awareness indicates that still, even with the revelation of truth, only those who care will benefit from hearing the truth, and they will be able to let go of much of the great concern that they may have held in regard to this. This Awareness indicates that as far as the individual who was assassinated, as far as this goes, these individuals have moved on and will probably in all cases adjust quickly, and move on to other actions and not feel there is any karma owed to them at having been cut short, for they will move into other actions and continue their mission in other realms, in other bodies, in other lives.

Consciousness Wants Things Cleared Up

This Awareness indicates that in terms of consciousness, consciousness wants things cleared up. There are still, in fact, in consciousness, frustrations over injustices that have been done only in historical writings; that when entities hear something in a historical writing, they may still feel there is injustice in that and may wish that it were balanced and harmonized.

This Awareness indicates that essentially, there has been down through the ages, a conspiracy that has violated groups and masses of individuals in order that the conspirators might hold power over the groups and masses, and none of this will be reconciled until the time when this entire conspiracy is laid open for the masses to see, for the masses to recognize, and this may not occur until consciousness reaches such a level as to allow every entity to have the ability to tap into clarity and awareness and to see these things from the Higher Consciousness.

This Awareness indicates that this may be centuries away, before entities can know all things in consciousness, before entities can tap into consciousness and become aware. It may be centuries before all of this can be exposed, wherein every entity can tap the Akashic Records and see the truth, but until that happens, humanity will suffer under a karmic imbalance. This Awareness indicates that there is nothing that entities can do to speed this time; that each entity can become aware at his or her own pace. You cannot force others to become aware.

This Awareness indicates that when this occurs, many of those who have been involved in the conspiracies down through the ages, will also be shocked to discover that they are but ordinary people who have suddenly become aware that there were conspiracies down through the ages, and that at some point here or there in time, they too were part of that conspiracy. This Awareness indicates that in the awakening of humanity, entities awaken at different times to realities, but none will be fully awake until all are awake, at which time, all entities will be sparks of light reflecting as energies of this Awareness.

All entities will be reflectors and aspects of the body of Universal Consciousness. This Awareness indicates that until that time, there will always be those who will not hear, will not see, will not care, and there will be those who see, who hear, who care, and who try to awaken others. This Awareness indicates that there will also be those who try to keep others from hearing, try to keep others from seeing and try to keep others from caring, that they may continue their mischief.

She Sees Two Men Standing in Her Bedroom While her Husband Sleeps
(More on the Men In Black)

QUESTION:

A question from Gerta Cunha, Port St Lucie, Florida. She writes: "My daughter says this is what's happening. She sees two men in black cloaks. All she sees is the outline. She assumes they are men. They stand in the doorway to her bedroom. They never come in, nor do they speak. The dog sees them also and barks. Only she and the dog see them. Her husband continues to sleep. This happens frequently. She is awake at the time. Please, could Awareness comment? Who are they and what do they want? And have other readers had experience like this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that these images are those which are from other dimensions and are able to move into her dimension so that she can witness them. These are those who have been referred to as MIBs or Men In Black. There are several books and quite a number of magazine articles relating to these Men In Black.

It appears that they have some interest in this entity and keep the husband asleep. They apparently have not yet implanted her or done any abduction. It would be valuable for this entity to do something to force these entities to leave her alone.

If she could rig a strong light where she could easily reach the switch and flick it on when they appear; this might be sufficient to frighten them away. They appear to be preparing for a further encounter with her. They appear to be working with the Zeta Greys.

This Awareness indicates it does not appear to be something good to encourage. It appears to be something she should discourage as quickly as possible, and the presence of the dog is helpful in discouraging these entities from their purpose. This Awareness indicates that it appears their purpose is to abduct her and to take eggs from her on a regular basis.

This would not be to her benefit. It would psychologically disturb her greatly and violate her privacy and self-esteem enormously. This Awareness indicates these entities would also falsify information to her to make it appear she was doing some great service for humanity, when in fact she would be doing nothing other than helping the Greys to gather eggs with which to cross-breed and make an army of half-breeds with which they might in the future use as a military force against humanity, as they have been doing with other breeders. They refer to these women whom they abduct in this manner as "breeders." This Awareness indicates this is a kind of classic case of pre-abduction preparation, except that it has gone on longer than in most other cases, and except that normally, the Men In Black are not the ones sent in the first place, but it is a classic case in that the husband generally sleeps through it, or if the husband is being abducted, the wife sleeps through it.

These entities have certain devices to create a vibratory field which causes the unwanted spouse to remain fast asleep and which wakes up the other spouse sufficiently to allow them to abduct them by taking them generally through the ceiling and up to the ship.

This Awareness indicates that sometimes, the experiments are done in the home, but usually the abductees are taken up into the ship where the operations are performed.

Cosmic Awareness Damns the American Medical Association

ROYAL RIFE AND HIS CANCER CURE THAT REALLY WORKED

(The Amazing Microscope He Invented Destroyed by the FDA)

QUESTION:

I'd like to read a little bit of information called The Rife-Report: The Cancer Cure That Worked; it's in a book by that title, written by Barry Lines and John Crane. "In 1934 Mr. Royal Rife and his associates opened a small clinic in California and cured 16 cases of cancer. Sworn affidavits and medical experts testified to the complete remission of 'hopeless' cases within 4 to 6 weeks. Virtually every patient treated by Rife's frequency instrument as he called it, was cured with no adverse side-effects. Since that time, millions of people have died from viruses that Mr. Rife convincingly destroyed over 50 years ago. Who was this man? What can his work teach us today as we face the world-wide spread of AIDS, and why is this information being suppressed?"

A detailed account of Rife's inventions and discoveries is the subject of the book: The Cancer Cure That Worked. This startling book documents events from 1913 to the time of Rife's death in 1972. Rife was an optical engineer and technician of great skill. His first success was the building of the universal microscope in the late 1920's. With it, he was able to view the living cancer virus, a feat our modern high-powered electron microscopes still cannot do. His microscope used many quartz prisms and lenses placed to compensate for losses of refraction due to error. This enabled him to view far tinier particles than had ever been seen before.

Although the biologists of his day were impressed with the power of this invention, both the medical community and the optical physicists would have little to do with Rife; that there were no principles and physics to explain how the Universal Microscope worked, was enough reason for them to reject Rife's idea. What Rife saw, as did the other microbiologists who later used his instrument, was astounding and shook the established theories to the roots. The medical community at large however, did its best to suppress the work of Rife and his co-workers and to harass them personally.

Acceptance, however, was not what interested Rife. He could see what others would not. Using the Universal Microscope, he observed cancer viruses as they changed their size and form. He discovered that by exposing a virus to certain frequency radio waves killed it quickly. Years of experimentation led to Rife's invention of the frequency instrument, a device that produced the exact frequencies needed to destroy various viruses.

In 1934, at the clinic in California, diseased people were exposed to the exact same frequencies that had been seen through the microscope to destroy the viruses causing their illness. Treatments lasted only 3 minutes. The person would wait 3 days before another exposure, giving the lymph system time to cleanse the dead virus from their body. Unlike the chemotherapy treatments currently in use, Rife's therapy was 100% effective and generated no adverse symptoms. Unfortunately, the American Medical Association opposed the use of this incredible device.

Physicians who defied this official stance and continued to use the Frequency Instrument had their licenses to practice medicine revoked. Individuals known to make use of the Universal Microscope had their equipment confiscated or destroyed. One is reminded of the island natives encountered by Magellan on his trip to the New World. Because the natives could not comprehend the idea of a huge sailing vessel, they were literally blind and unable to see Magellan's ship, hence, because no theory existed, and because exposure to another reality proved incomprehensible, they, the ships, the microscopes and the cure did not exist.

With time, the natives were able to see Magellan's ships on the horizon, yet, 53 years after the arrival of Rife's frequency instruments, hundreds of thousands of people still die each year of diseases he cured. What keeps us blinded? The onset of AIDS now threatens virtually the entire human lifestream. Perhaps the time has come for individuals to look for new answers on the horizon and to temper our dependence on the authority of medicals and professionals. Reading The Cancer-Cure That Worked is a good start. Its contents will profoundly affect you, and as you turn the final page you will see your world anew. The book's 3 page bibliography and numerous reproductions add punch to this already Powerful story.

It is not too technical, nor is it philosophical. Facts are well presented in a manner that intends to educate, not overwhelm the reader. The chapter on AIDS ties together Rife's ideas and today's theories, especially the provocative relationship between cancer and AIDS. The ideas of Allen Cantwell MD, one of the leading scientists in the forefront of AIDS research are included here, supporting and updating Rife's work. To see Rife's work recreated with today's sophisticated technology is the author's vision. What modern integrated circuits and computer analysis could do to streamline and further improve the Frequency Instrument is a thrilling possibility.

It is time to explore the horizon upon which Mr. Rife's culture for cancer floats like an illusion."

That was the end of the review. I'd like to ask Awareness if the information in this book and this microscope by Mr. Rife is valid?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that as has been repeated again and again, the American Medical Association as that which works for the pharmaceutical companies and its bottom-line purpose is for the promotion of its own, and its client's personal greed and profit. This Awareness indicates that this is sad, but true, and that it is an atrocity, and hypocrisy in respect to calling itself a medical association. This Awareness indicates that the most harmful of the diseases are seen as the most lucrative and it protects that lucrative quality of those diseases so that the diseases and any cures which might be developed are being protected and controlled so that the earning power for treating those diseases ineffectively can be preserved.

Wild Bill Rockefeller Created the AMA and the FDA

This Awareness indicates they do not wish these diseases to be cured, for a cure of the diseases would simply end much of the industry of medicine, and the earning power of ineffective medical treatment. This Awareness reminds entities that the AMA, the FDA, and the pharmaceutical companies were all creations of the Rockefeller family, and that the entity who was father to John D. Rockefeller, the oil tycoon, was known as Wild Bill Rockefeller, who traveled the country over, selling petroleum as a snake-oil cure-all for whatever ails you. This entity, taking bottles of petroleum from town to town, having people drink the stuff as a cure for cancer and all kinds of other diseases. This entity as a charlatan, driving and selling his snake oil cures, was the father of John D. Rockefeller, who later used the petroleum for fuel for automobile purposes and built a fortune around this action.

Rockefeller Starts Using Petroleum for Medical Purposes

This Awareness indicates these entities continued on with the use of petroleum as a base for medical purposes, creating the various pills and substances for healing from the petroleum based products which later founded the pharmaceutical companies which they controlled and which then required a medical association and drug association to assure the marketing and exclusive territorial rights of the pharmaceutical companies; the medical association to train allopathic doctors to use the pharmaceutical creations, the FDA to harass any medical system that was not part of this promotion of the pharmaceutical companies.

Rife Machines Are Now Available

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

The outfit that sent me in this information hand-wrote on the sides: These machines are currently available in the United States for research purposes at an incredibly low cost. Enquire: and they give the name of a Portland organization. Is this true that these machines are now in existence and are available?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates there are also other systems which have healing abilities; that the entity Gadiali Denseau, an inventor from India, as one who created a healing system based on using light and color and was able to cure the many different so-called incurable diseases using colored filters of light. This Awareness indicates that this is a very scientific action, as is the Rife material. This Awareness indicates that he too, (the Indian) was harassed to the point of being forced into oblivion and his system destroyed.

This Awareness indicates that there are still in existence some of his machines too; that these will eventually come out and be used; that eventually this system of the allopathic medicine and the conspiracies of these AMA and FDA and pharmaceutical companies will come to an end, or will be modified to allow other healing systems to coexist, but it is not yet so. This Awareness indicates that entities do need to become more aware until the public demands these other alternative systems and the right to choose.

A Constitutional Amendment For Health Care?

This Awareness indicates that there is seen on the horizon, in the future, a movement and an amendment, perhaps to the Constitution, wherein entities are given the right to choose medical and health care systems. This Awareness indicates however, this will not come about until the public demands this, and the public will not make this demand until it becomes aware of the alternatives to what is being offered.

Statues Found With 12 Fingers & 12 Toes (More on the Atlans and the Titans of Old)

QUESTION:

We got a letter from Will Berlinghof, a member who lives in England. It's not exactly a question, it's a confirmation of information Awareness put out, but there are some questions in it. He says: "I have another confirmation for you. You'll find this one interesting.

About a month ago I was watching a science technology program entitled Tomorrow's World on the BBC. There was a special article on the world's oldest statues found in Damascus a little over a year ago. The problem was, that once the statues, which were over 5000 years old, were exposed to the air, they started to crumble. Further compounding the problem, over the ages, the statues had fused together and therefore, needed to be separated. But how to do this without destroying the statues?

They could not do it on the site, so they resealed the chamber box they were in and shipped the whole thing to London where they hope to come up with some procedure for reinforcing the statues and thus, separating them, without too much damage, hence interest of the science program. The long and short of it is that they were successful and have now separated the statues, and guess what? Even though primitive in nature, all the statues, the oldest in the world, had twelve fingers and twelve toes. This was explained by the network channel Four.

Also, the program for me represented yet further confirmation of Cosmic Awareness's validity and accuracy. As Cosmic Awareness says: Never accept blindly what It gives forth, but rather, always be open and questioning. I have always found confirmations for what CAC presents in its newsletters, and sometimes from the most unusual sources. This appears to be but the latest, but it didn't end there. About three days later, again on channel four, there was further information regarding the Christic Institute. This particular program dealt with how the Christic people got out information to the masses through the use of comics. I think that this is a particularly brilliant approach and I applaud their effort. It's only a shame there isn't a similar organization in this country committed to like goals. Heaven knows it's certainly needed here also.

Anyway, just thought you might like to hear about it. Now since I have touched upon how Cosmic Awareness information is confirmed through the most..the programs".. anyway, he went to his back issues of the newsletters, 88-1; "what I was looking for. It was an article on these entities with 12 fingers and toes. 'The Coming of the Titans and Their Tunnels! Could this be the beginning of now discoveries, new understandings? Only time can tell, but I am interested to see how this thing works out.'"

(His letter got a little confusing here but essentially): Were these statues a confirmation of the information that Awareness gave sometime back, and could It expand a little more on those Titans?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as representing these earlier people. This Awareness indicates that the information as having been given previously in reference to this group or culture of entities from outside this planet. This Awareness indicates that these entities as having lived in pre-Atlantean and mid-Atlantean time periods and prior to the sinking of Atlantis. This Awareness indicates that these as being entities who from time to time would revisit the earth and leave representatives or what may be termed envoys on the planet.

How Today's Numbering System Originated

This Awareness suggests that it was from this concept of 12 fingers, the 12 digits and the 12 toes that led to the measuring system which uses the number of 12 in its configuration, the 12 inches for example, as that which remains with you today and as having come from this kind of measuring system. This Awareness indicates that the 12 months and 12 signs as also related to this source.

This Awareness indicates that entities having ten fingers in their culture as that which relied on the numerical system which is based on ten. This Awareness indicates that these were derived, these numerical systems were derived because of the manner by which entities would develop their system for counting. (sic)

This Awareness indicates that there have been certain genetic carry-overs, even unto the present day, wherein some entities have 12 digits or fingers and toes, but this is quite rare today.

How Scrying or Crystal-Ball Gazing Works

QUESTION:

There's a little article in the current OMNI magazine on crystal balls or scrying. I'd like to read this and ask Awareness about this subject. It says: "The psychiatrist who made the near-death experience a respectable subject of scientific investigation is now exploring the mental landscape with a tool made popular by fortune-tellers: the crystal ball. Dr. Raymond Moody, a professor of psychology at West Georgia College is using an ancient method of divination called scrying to explore the unconscious mind.

Scrying, which comes from the word 'descri,' meaning to reveal, involves staring intently into anything, from a clear mountain lake, to a polished mirror or a crystal ball. "Cultures all over the world have made the discovery that people gazing into a clear depth will have remarkable visual experiences," says Moody. These visions may contain faces of people, known and unknown, childhood memories, or even mini-dramas involving the characters in one's life.

While scrying has long been associated with the occult, Moody doesn't think there is anything paranormal about the practice. "The images reported by my patients seem indistinguishable from hypnogogic imagery," he says, referring to the images that people commonly report as they drift off to sleep. "The only thing remotely uncanny about these images from the unconscious," adds Moody, "is that people report the imagery as arising from within the crystal ball, mirror or whatever they are using."

Of the 100-plus people he has worked with, Moody, says more than half have reported seeing images in a crystal ball. For this reason, Moody believes that scrying can be a useful psychotherapeutic technique, Scrying, he adds, may be more effective than the traditional Rorschach test, which involves interpreting a series of ink blots. Because a person is gazing into a clear depth, he says, you know that what the person sees is plainly coming from within.

Psychiatrists and psychologists are generally unfamiliar with scrying.

"I've never heard of it," says psychiatrist Steven Barret of Allentown, Pennsylvania, "and haven't the slightest idea if it's valid."

I'd like to ask Awareness if what Dr. Moody is saying about scrying is valid, and if there's more to this than is indicated?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is a very clear and modern understanding of the principles involved in the crystal-ball gazing or that which is called scrying. This Awareness indicates that the entity who indulges or involves himself into this kind of action is essentially projecting images from the subconscious into the crystal ball. It is the same with those who read the crystal ball through crystal-gazing. They are tapping into their own subconscious through a certain alteration of the brain frequencies. It is likened unto moving into alpha states wherein they may perceive things from a different level than that of beta consciousness, or the normal consciousness levels.

The Subconscious Minds of All Entities are Connected

This Awareness indicates that this allows the entity to foresee things that are known on the unconscious level, which may not be obvious to the conscious mind. This Awareness indicates that this does not simply mean or imply that it is coming from and exclusive to one's subconscious because this Awareness indicates that the subconscious minds of individuals have a connection with each other which is not clearly part of the teaching of psychology, and therefore to fully understand this, one must look to that philosophy of Huna which goes beyond to deeper levels of psychology.

The subconscious, or low self of Huna, is connected to all other low selves, much as Jung's collective unconsciousness, in such a manner that it can have contact with those other low selves or subconscious minds of other individuals. It is because of this connection or interconnection of the subconscious minds that one who is crystal-gazing is able to tap into and read the future or circumstances or answer questions for another.

This Awareness indicates that in other words, the crystal gazing is not limited strictly to one's own subconscious, because the subconscious of an individual who is adept at this kind of thing can also perceive or read into the subconscious of others to gain answers for them, or have insight for them. This Awareness indicates it is this part which is not made clear in this entity's analysis, or in the comparison of the Rorschach test.

This Awareness indicates that generally, the Rorschach test is seen as simply reading one's own subconscious projections on paper in the ink blots. This Awareness suggests that with the crystal gazing, this can be much the same, but with those who are adept at crystal-gazing and reading for others, it goes beyond that level, as the entity, through subconscious levels, tap into the subconscious of others to read future events, or distant events. This is known in metaphysical levels as clairvoyance, or seeing clearly that which is at a distance, or outside the realm of physical vision.

Whose Consciousness are Crystal Gazers Contacting When No One is Present?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

These psychics who gaze into crystal balls and see future events, and there's nobody present whose consciousness they are tapping into; is this the mass-consciousness Awareness is referring to?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that these entities can tap into a collective unconscious or they may be tapping into their own subconscious in its own interpretation of the future. This will effect the outcome of their vision, if their own subconscious strongly believes that something of a certain nature is coming to pass, this may be that which is projected. If the subconscious is neutral and the entity is querying as to what will occur in the future, the chances of getting a more accurate reading increases.

This Awareness indicates if the masses of entities having a belief in an event as occurring in the near future so that their subconsciences project this event to come about, the entity, even if neutral, may pick up on the mass-subconscious levels or the mass unconsciousness, and read those energies as being projections of the future. This Awareness indicates that in no situation can one who reads the future be guaranteed that his or her interpretation will come about without fail, for the future is not fixed. The future comes into being because of decisions that are made along the way by individuals or groups who are in a position to effect changes that may occur.

A Single Entity Can Alter an Event Scheduled to Occur

If the greater masses of individuals expect something to occur, that is a powerful influence creating a likelihood for that occurrence, but if one individual holds the power to deny or make that occurrence, that individual may deny the occurrence in spite of all of the expectations of everyone involved, thus, even when masses energize a particular event to occur in the future, one individual in a key place could alter that entire event or circumstance to prevent or to cause the event to happen.

This Awareness indicates it is for this reason that the future is not fixed. There are tendencies, likelihood's, percentages, in regard to probabilities.

When One Goes Into Alpha What do You See?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION: VIKKI

When a person goes into alpha, and focuses out across the room or into space, what are the nature of the negative energies you start to see? Are you seeing into other dimensions?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that generally, these are projections that come out of energy levels of the mind which are projected on your reality as though the reality were but a screen in another dimension. It is likened unto shining a movie projector from a helicopter, down upon a swimming pool, and having the film project a picture on the surface of the swimming pool, so that the swimming pool appears to be a screen on which the picture is shown. This Awareness indicates that you have altered your perception of reality. You are not seeing the swimming pool, although the swimming pool is the reality. You are seeing something totally different, because of your projection.

Likewise, when you enter into an alpha state, you are projecting your mind onto the reality that you consider the third dimensional world to be, but that reality loses its significance as a reality and becomes likened unto a screen for your projections just as did the swimming pool, in the example before. This Awareness indicates that in this manner, you may become aware of certain visions or images or feelings or concepts that reflect from the projection of your alpha state. You may even see scenes as you would if you were viewing a movie, and from that you may derive certain information.

This Awareness indicates it is, however, essentially coming from your consciousness as a projection, using the third dimensional reality as a screen to receive that projection. If you close your eyes, then the reality becomes the darkness and the reality of the darkness becomes the screen on which you project the darkness. This is then seen more vividly with the eyes closed in the alpha state, much as a dream or visionary experiences.

What Did the Editor See Just Before Sleep?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

Awareness, one time when I was trying to fall asleep, I suddenly saw a scene that looked like it was out of 18th Century France. It was a street lined with hundreds of people, and there was an army of people on horses coming up the street. It looked like it could have been Napoleon, I could see the colors of their clothes and so forth. Now I was not thinking at all about anything remotely to that at the time, it was just a thing that came to me. Now how would that be a reflection of my subconscious?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this was a release from your subconscious of an experience, a flashback into a previous lifetime. This Awareness indicates that this as having been triggered not by any conscious thought, but by earlier, by some earlier reflections, related to experiences or realizations or memories that were triggered some time before. It could even have been prior to that day, several days in fact, but this began to surface as a result of some experience, some inquiry in your psyche, and it simply took some time before there was the calm vibration that allowed it to be projected in your psyche on your screen.

This Awareness indicates that this was essentially a memory that had significance enough to be easily recalled, even through different lifetime circumstances because it was such an unusual event at the time for you to see all of the horsemen and soldiers coming up the street. This Awareness indicates that by focusing on that scene repeatedly in meditation, you can gradually begin to unravel other memories of that lifetime; for example, you may begin to recall what you were wearing, your approximate age, where you were going, what your occupation was, and information relating to the general area where you were located.

How to Get More Information on Such Flashbacks

This Awareness indicates that entities who do have those momentary flashbacks into previous scenes, or previous lifetime experiences can benefit greatly by recalling and holding that scene clearly in their mind's eye, and from such visualization, filling in or waiting for further information to come to them. The best approach is to request or inquire, not so much in words but in desire, desire to know what you are wearing, why those clothes were being worn, what occupation they symbolized, where you were going and so forth.

This Awareness indicates it is best when doing this kind of research to avoid using words in your mind to ask a question. Simply desire the information and hold that image as well as the desire for more information.

Tapping Into the Akashic Record?

(What Exactly is the Akashic Record Anyway?)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

I thought at the time I must be somehow tapping into the Akashic record or something, but this was actually a memory kernel from a previous lifetime that I brought in from a previous incarnation, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is correct, but this Awareness asks you: What do you think the Akashic record is? It IS the memories.

QUESTIONER:

Sort of like a great video tape of everything that ever happened?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This as in the affirmative. It is likened unto a recording of all events, being recorded on the consciousness of Akasha. This Awareness indicates that the entity Edgar Cayce, for his own personal convenience, in order to make it easier for himself, developed a mental ritual whereby he saw himself moving into a large building and going through the Akashic record as if it were a book. This is but a form of convenient ritualizing of a process, much as many entities conveniently visualize God as a man in order that they can understand or have a more personal relationship with God; the same in regard to the Christ Light. Many entities want this to be personified in a human shape, a friendship with something or someone, of the same skin color, same nationality, same language, and generally same value system, or something more inspiring.

This Awareness indicates that for some entities, it is difficult for them to imagine a relationship with a frequency or vibration in the universe that is referred to as the Christ Light or Christ Consciousness, for if they cannot put it in human shape they cannot easily relate to it, therefore, because their consciousness is incapable or lacks the ability to accept a Christ Consciousness frequency or vibration, they prefer to visualize flesh and bones and gentle, tender eyes and long hair as a representative of that Christ Consciousness.

Any Difference Between a Memory Kernel and The Akashic Record?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (VIKKI):

So there is no distinction between one's personal memory carry-over kernels and the general Akashic record?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the distinction might be in how well you remember or how well you perceive that which is the reflection of the memory. You may misinterpret or misperceive something and think that you were in France when in actuality you were in Italy, or you might think that these were soldiers of Napoleon, when in fact they were Russian soldiers. There is always that chance of misperceiving something, but in the Akashic record, the information is clear. It is What Was; that every event is encapsulated in time, in the vibrations and frequencies of that moment, and those vibrations and frequencies ever and always record eternally, in the essences that are the vibrations of the universe, and when you tap into these vibrations, they can release the information either through vision, through sound, through words, through memory, but it is how you perceive this information that might create an alteration in your interpretational memory, from that which is the actual Akashic recording of the event.

A lifelong practical joker, Wade's last request was to have a pressure-activated voice message installed at his grave site.

MESMER'S MAGNETIC HEALING WATER

(Did It Really Heal? And How Did It Work?)

QUESTION:

In a book on strange cures, health cures, used in the past, I ran across a bit about Frederich Anton Mesmer, the originator of Mesmerism. I'd like to read this little excerpt and ask Awareness about this method. It says that: "In Paris, he opened a lavish and luxurious clinic, and soon the fashionable pre-revolution world of Versailles was flocking to him. In his book De Medicina Magnetica, published 100 years earlier, William Maxwell had written: "Material rays flow from all bodies in which the soul operates by its presence. By these rays, energies and the power of working are diffused. The vital spirit which descends from the sky, pure, unchanged and whole, is the parent of the vital spirit which exists in all things. If you make use of the universal spirit by means of instruments impregnated by this spirit, you will thereby call to your aid, the great secret, of the Magus. The universal medicine is nothing but the vital spirit repeated in the proper subject".

The instrument Frederich Anton Mesmer used was a large tub. In it were laid a number of bottles filled with magnetized water, with their necks towards a larger central bottle. The tub was partly filled with water, to which were added iron filings and powdered glass. Attached to the tub were cords which the patients, sitting around the tub, tied around themselves. There were also cords with iron bars, these either the patients or one of Mesmer's assistants, of whom there were over a hundred, held to their stomachs, livers, spleens, or other afflicted parts. To hasten the effect of the cords and irons, from time to time an attendant would rub the patient in the place where the pain was seated, or Mesmer himself point to it with a wand he carried.

'In an antechamber, a band played gay music, and every other day, a tub was provided free of charge for the poor. Many of the patients became hysterical, but great numbers were said to be cured of a variety of ailments."

Would Awareness comment or elaborate on this system of Mesmer, and whether such a thing would be practical today?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that much of the power of this healing technique had to do with the suggestion and the elaborate mechanisms involved to add to the suggestive properties of the system. The very fact that all of this equipment were put together; that all of this were established in a certain way, and it was beyond comprehension, as that which added to the mystique or mystery, so that the mind could not analyze, could not evaluate, could not reject the possibility of healing, and therefore, the entities might accept that they were being healed; thus, it formed a suggestive effect on the minds of entities, much as a placebo might for those who believe in pills.

This Awareness indicates that as far as the effects of the magnetism and all of the bottles, this Awareness does not see that this had any great significance although it could have effected to some degree the ionizing of the water, but it would be quite negligible. This Awareness indicates that if an entity can confuse the mind and input a suggestion at the same time, the suggestion tends to take; thus, for example, a hypnotist who tips an entity off balance and makes a suggestion at the same time the entity is off balance; that suggestion generally takes.

This Awareness indicates that in this instance, the entities became hysterical, there was much confusion, uncertainty, inability to evaluate what was going on; they were going strictly by faith. They entered into this, looked at it, saw certain elaborate mechanisms, were told it would heal them, had no way of determining whether or not it had any validity, but especially when others who were perhaps more suggestible were healed, then they themselves began to believe and expect healings, and thus, the healings came, so that many were healed.

This Awareness indicates that this essentially is the power of suggestion, and the elaborate works of this entity elaborated on that power to make it work. This Awareness indicates that Mesmer also had other ways of healing; the use of the hands; passing the hands over an entity. This action, dealing with the entity's aura, also had an effect that worked with suggestion, but this as being on a very subtle nature, because the suggestion was working on the etheric and astral body as well as on the physical body and mind. The astral body being touched as the aura was manipulated by the passing of the hands over and through the aura, along with the implied or spoken suggestion that healings would occur from this action.

This Awareness indicates that this as being part of the power that Mesmer used which went beyond the ordinary levels of suggestion, wherein the entity also manipulated through hand-movements, suggestions that would bring on healings to the etheric levels or astral levels, as well as the mental suggestions.

The Beast Computer in Belgium: An Update (Is The Internet a Tool of the Beast?)

Question: (CAC General Reading, May 3, 1996)

A question from Wendy L., Sonoma, California. I'll read her statement. "In the 1970's I received a piece of literature about the interpretation of the "666" literature that spoke of a ten story high computer in Brussels, Belgium, being built to become the 'mother computer' of the entire world-wide computer system. Its nickname was or is 'The Beast.' Its key code numbers are 6-6-6. The plan was or is to so construct it that at the right time a signal can be sent out to connect all computers to it.

"There was described an agenda to require businesses, schools and even homes to own, rent or lease computers for the sake of "convenience." The agenda's format was to eventually have implants in people's brows or hands that were programmed to connect to that 'Beast.' The literature stated that those who resisted this plan would be punished by law. I later learned that the World Wide Web, the Internet, and the On Line America are cooperating with, and are a part of this ultimate plan: a plan to stop people from thinking and from drawing upon their own minds and Higher Selves and letting the computer think for them, thus creating robots that are unaware of being misled and are gullible to anything presented to them.

"It would be a form of hypnosis. Eventually the computer junkie would no longer draw upon the ethics, morals and intelligence of the untampered mind, but be wholly subject to and trusting of the computer as a god of infinite wisdom. All of that is a basic preparation to overthrow our nation and the world and take control of it for the forces of evil. Personally, I am antsy about computers because of this. I suspect that they may be "two ways." They are able to eavesdrop on us as in the book 1984, and that our privacy will be invaded even if they are unplugged because perhaps there may be computer chips in the computers implanted, activated by other energies, and we will never be alone.

"I suspect such devices in TV's and telephones as well. After all, doesn't Dan Rather say "See you tomorrow!"? I would like your perspective of this. PS: I learned that 666 is also the mathematical vibratory rate of the scientific mind."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the entity's observation is correct in most of her presumptions. This Awareness indicates there is however much that is misunderstood also. This Awareness indicates for example, the World Wide Web is not something that was part of a global plan; it was simply something that sprung up because of computer users, mostly students, communicating with each other. This Awareness indicates that this communication led to a networking that eventually spread to more networking, so that the network began to grow and it was called the World Wide Web, which is really but a small part of the Internet.

How the Internet Came About

This Awareness indicates the Internet also came about on a kind of spontaneous level. There were certain groups working together with computers that made connections through their telephone and modems communicating with each other, beginning in Switzerland, but extending into other countries through modem/telephone-type contacts between one computer and another until it became large enough that it was nicknamed 'Internet'.

This Awareness indicates that the interesting thing about the Internet and World-Wide Web is that there is no central control. It is not something that the Beast controls. The Beast, in fact, is very concerned because the Internet and World-Wide Web are being used democratically by the masses with the freedom of speech that cannot be controlled like most media is controlled in the various countries.

People using the Internet and World-Wide Web can speak about anything they desire. There are efforts now to try to gain some kind of control over the Internet and World-Wide Web on the grounds that there is pornography being promoted over the Internet, and with certain controls they could then begin to infringe more and more on the various carriers of the Internet such as America On Line, and in some cases, some of the carriers have agreed to prevent certain types of information from being allowed on the Internet.

If Pornography is Censored Other Topics Will Follow

It begins with the censoring of pornography, but it could soon very easily spread to censoring any other kind of discussions such as the Patriots, the Militia, or various political positions that entities might espouse over the Internet or World-Wide Web. This Awareness indicates that if it is possible for some kind of controls to be put on the Internet, there will be of course entities who break off from the mainstream and start their own bulletin boards that are separated from the mainstream of the Internet, so that even in the extreme of a Beast control, people would still have ways of communicating with each other in their own jargon and their own special field.

This Awareness indicates that it can no more be controlled by a central system than can the telephone conversations that entities have with one another. This Awareness indicates of course, telephone calls can all be monitored, and it is possible that they could be recorded and there has been an attempt to have all telephone calls recorded and monitored, but there is not sufficient personnel to listen to these telephone conversations.

This Awareness indicates if there is some reason to investigate a particular individual, then that individual's telephone number could be tracked, and telephone calls from that number might be recorded so that someone could listen to it to find out if there is something that has been said of importance to the investigation.

This Awareness indicates in other words, the same thing could happen with the Internet with the World-Wide Web where eventually, perhaps 50 years from now, the technology for recording information that goes from one computer to another might be monitored, if enough money was put into the monitoring system so that people could intercept other people's E-mail or their communications, or they could perhaps find out which computers contacted a certain Web site, but this Awareness indicates it is an enormous amount of expense and effort to do such a thing, and the cost of controlling the information or surveillance of all of the information would be so costly and so great that it would be almost insurmountable as a cost to merit the effort involved for what little would be gained from such action.

The Beast Would Love to Control the Internet

This Awareness indicates rather than being a Beast technology, the Internet is more of a curse to the Beast than a help. Even though the Beast would like to gain some kind of control, it appears that it will be more or less impossible, and that the Beast could very well lose its control because of the Internet and the World-Wide Web.

This Awareness indicates that if you think of this computer as a tool of the Beast, this is also correct, just as a knife and fork are tools of the Beast, as well as tools for everyone else when they want to sit down to a meal. This Awareness indicates tools in themselves are not necessarily evil. The telephone is not necessarily evil, nor is the television necessarily evil. It is a question of: For what purpose is it used? What is the purpose or use of a knife or fork? These things could be used for good or ill. The television could be used for good or ill, and likewise the computer could be used for good or ill.

This Awareness indicates that tools in themselves are not necessarily good or evil, but their use may be that which determines whether the good or evil comes from them. This Awareness indicates that a door and a lock are neither good nor evil in themselves, but if the door is used to capture people and the lock is used to imprison them, it could be considered evil as far as those people are concerned.

This Awareness indicates in other words, tools are neutral. The question is: Who is using them, and for what purpose? You can then determine whether evil is involved or whether good is involved in the tool and its use. This Awareness indicates that computers can be used for many good purposes: keeping track of someone's health, keeping track of a certain kind of program that is beneficial to an entity's workload, to make the workload easier; this can be seen as something very good for entities. If it takes much of the strain and work off of a person, then it is a good thing, but if the work the person is doing is for evil purposes, then of course the computer's use as a tool could be argued as being that which is evil.

This Awareness indicates it is important to keep things in proper perspective. Think of the tool as just something that extends the ability of the mind. The mind can only go so far, and does have certain abilities that go beyond the computer, but the computer also has a certain kind of exactness that can perform functions that the mind cannot be expected to perform without some clear assistance.

This Awareness indicates the mathematics that can be done by a computer often exceed anything imaginable by the human mind. This Awareness indicates that word-processing, printing and certain bookkeeping programs of a computer can be very helpful to an individual, to save them much difficulty. Being able to shift a paragraph from one place on a document to another is much easier on a computer than on a typewriter.

This Awareness indicates on the typewriter you would have to type the entire document over. On the computer you only need to strike a couple of keys and move the paragraph from one place to another. This Awareness indicates that in other words, there are good reasons and good purposes for the computer as well as those which are negative or so-called 'evil'.

This Awareness indicates it is important to realize that the Internet is nothing more than a means by which entities can communicate at great distances through printed words and through pictures and through images and share information with one another around the world whereby material can be printed. It is an extension of what occurred with the telephone, except that the telephone does not have words that are printed. The words are simply sound vibrations. On the Internet they are visible in terms of printed words or pictures or other forms of images.

This Awareness indicates that if one looks at this properly, you will see that it is a question of whether communication is good or evil, because that is all the Internet is designed for. Of course, communication being controlled by some outside force could be a problem, but it is not communication that is the problem, it is the control that might create a problem. Who is controlling and for what reason? Who wants to control or cut off the communication or alter or misstate communications? This is the concern in regard to the Internet and the use of computers for this purpose.

WHAT IS THE STATUS OF THE BEAST COMPUTER TODAY?

QUESTION:

When we released that information in 1978-79 in regard to the Beast computer in Brussels and the Electronic Funds Transfer System, at that time there weren't too many people aware of that. Now that many publications have exposed that system, what is the status and function of that Beast computer in Belgium today?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates it is still operating for its intended purpose. There are, however, other similar computers in other parts of the world. In Thailand there is a great computer that essentially is designed to keep track of peoples' financial dealings and personal data for the Asian area. This Awareness indicates that the computer in Brussels is designed to keep track most of people in the Western world. This Awareness indicates there are also other sub-computer groupings tied to these larger computers.

These computers are designed to take control of information based around information associated with Social Security numbers or identification numbers of some type, including such things as driver's licenses or whatever number is assigned to entities in his or her national tracking systems.

This Awareness indicates there are records tied with these numbers dealing with medical information, financial information and work and career-type information as well as telephone numbers and addresses and relatives of the person, so that upon discovery of an entity to be investigated, it only takes a small amount of information to tap into an exposure of many, many different facts about that individual.

Credit card, and other financial dealings of the individual can all be brought up from the use of the entity's Social Security number. This Awareness indicates that even health and medical problems that the entity has experienced can be brought up. An agency wishing to cause harm to an individual can use these bits of information according to whatever their intent and purpose might be.

Big Brother Can Find Out All About You

It is for this reason that many people feel their privacy is being lost, their privacy is no longer sacred. This Awareness indicates in future times, when entities are using the debit system and go to a check-out counter at a store and the items are rung up through the scanner and the scanner prints out the names of the books, magazines or foods you eat, all of this information can be sent directly to the file in the master computer so that if someone wishes to check on you, they can not only find out which foods you order, which foods you eat, but also whether you read this or that type of literature and what kind of ideas are planted in your head from the literature you tend to read.

Even library books can be tied to the computer so that when you check out a book from the library it will show what you read. If you buy a book at a bookstore and it is tied to your credit card or your debit card, they will know what you purchased to read. This Awareness indicates this can give them a profile of what you are like, whether you are dangerous to their interests or whether you are simply another average person. If they are concerned about your health and can assess the kind of foods you cat, they can even see if you are properly dealing with your medical condition.

If you have, for example, some kind of imbalance that needs special dietary treatment or you might become dangerous, then they can check on the foods you purchase and see that you are eating too much of this, or drinking too much of that kind of drink, or that you are buying the wrong kinds of medication or taking something that might not be good for your general mental state or health condition.

It is simply designed to give them more control over every individual so that they can determine with a few key strokes whether that individual might be dangerous or might just be an average person, easily controlled in the system. It also will allow them to have data from which to research.

For example, if someone develops a certain kind of problem, and they find that this entity eats a particular type of food or indulges in some unusual kind of medicinal substance and that other people who have used these foods or medicinal substances also develop that kind of problem, then they can also surmise from their research that this food or this medicinal substance leads to this kind of problem, and they can then take that food or substance off the market.

Likewise, if they find that people who read this particular information, or this kind of material, become more violent, then they can take that material off the market on the grounds that research has shown it leads to violent behavior.

Big Brother is Already in Your Television Set—On or Off

This Awareness indicates as far as television is concerned, it is true that they have developed a way by which the television can also serve as a camera to observe people in the room watching the television. This is not yet commonly used but it will take very little cost to add this kind of camera to each new television sold so that in time, when everyone has bought the new television sets, the camera would be in every household and they could easily pick up either the audio or visual activities within a home so that Big Brother or the Beast and its many eyes would be watching everyone.

This Awareness indicates the entity is also correct in that with certain types of batteries and recording devices these television monitors and scanners could even be functional when unplugged, so that even unplugged, they could watch or hear what you are saying. They might not be able to broadcast the information back to whomever is seeking the information until the television is plugged in again.

This Awareness indicates that this will become more likely once the television becomes an interactive device, as is planned, whereby entities can order things over the television through the cable network, whereby without using a telephone, you will have an interactive device to allow you to type or register your interest or opinion or order some product advertised on your television set, and when this becomes interactive so that you can give back information as well as simply receive, then your television will become a two-way monitor system that can indeed become the eye of Big Brother in your home.

This Awareness indicates for some entities this might be acceptable. If you have nothing to hide, then what difference does it make? And many people will feel that way, and therefore, many will accept the interactive television system in their homes, and those who do not, will be looked upon with suspicion in time. The Big Brother will wonder: "Why don't you have an interactive television? What are you hiding?" And they may have special interest in finding another way to bug you through your telephone or some other spying device.

Spying Device Can Hear Your Conversations From Half a Mile

This Awareness indicates they already have a means by which they can set up a spying device from half a mile away and listen to whatever is going on in your home with their monitors beamed at your bedroom or at your home, without concern for the walls in between themselves and you. They can hear what is going on in your home by simply turning their equipment in your direction.

This Awareness indicates that with all the new technology, your privacy is essentially gone. This Awareness indicates that it is not simply the loss of privacy in the sense of having your intimate activities spied upon or having your nakedness viewed by some television viewer, or a secret camera being used to see you. This is not what they are concerned with. They are not particularly interested in seeing your nakedness or hearing your intimate moments of love-making.

What the Electronic Spies Are Really Concerned About

What they are concerned with is whether or not they are in control of you, and these are the things they want this control for. They want the power over you and everyone else, so that they know you are not planning or plotting or scheming to do anything that they cannot control you for, or to stop you if they decide.

They do not want people threatening their control or power over them, and the best way for them to do so is to know all of the most intimate details of your thinking: your speech, your activities, even in your own home. In this way, if they know everything about you, how can you possibly do anything that they don't already have monitored and which they have not already prepared for?

This Awareness indicates it has been said that happiness depends on having a certain amount of control. These entities are excessive in seeking control. They are obsessed with control to the point where they want to take control from everyone else's lives in order to have ultimate control over everyone and everything. In this way they might find their happiness, or at least they seek to find happiness.

Happiness Includes a Certain Amount of Control

This Awareness indicates that in reality, happiness can only come if entities allow each other a certain amount of control and do not seek to take all of the control from others, and if entities can find a way of controlling things by being more friendly to each other, by having friends, by being liked and liking others; this is the best kind of control and the happiness that follows is more stable than that of the tyrannical control, for when one becomes tyrannical and makes others miserable in order to have the control he or she wants, then of course the entity is always fearful that someone might have some kind of control or do something to gain control at his expense, and therefore the entity lives in fear of losing control and can never find happiness.

"Absolute Power Corrupts Absolutely"

This Awareness indicates that when entities have absolute power, they think they have absolute control, and this is where the statement "Absolute power corrupts", for when entities have this absolute power and think they have absolute control, they believe they can do whatever they want and nothing can stop them, and they have no consideration or little consideration for others. All they want to do is continue to prop up their power and control and it becomes the number one obsession for them, and of course, that leads to further and further corruption at the expense of others.

This Awareness indicates that this is why the ultra-wealthy who are so much empowered by the monetary system can never find happiness and can never let go of their drive to have more and more control over the masses. This Awareness indicates by the very nature of power, these entities must conspire against the masses.

The question of whether the masses believe in a conspiracy theory is absurd. If they don't believe in a conspiracy theory, they don't understand the nature of power and the pursuit of power, and if they understand the nature of power and the pursuit of power, how can they not realize that these powerful people are conspiring against them?

This Awareness indicates when you see these people of power letting go of some of their control, some of their power, and sharing some of their enormous amounts of wealth or doing something for the good of humanity, then you can begin to relax and say: "Maybe they are finished with their need for further power. Maybe they are beginning to recognize the need for good human relationships."

Montana Freemen Situation Could be Easily Settled

This Awareness indicates that you are not likely to see the powerful people let go of their control at any time in the near future. The situation in Jordan, Montana, for example, could be defused very easily, but those holding the enormous power over the masses are not going to let some upstart group take control or have the control they think they have, and it will come to a showdown between these two forces.

The FBI is controlled by the government, and the government is controlled by the international managing powers, and therefore, they are not going to let the Freemen speak their peace or give their side of the argument in any way that could reach the ears of the public.

Media Lets Slip News that U.S. is an English Corporation

It is rather surprising that the statement was allowed in yesterday's news that the Freemen claim the United States Federal Government is a corporation incorporated in England. It appears that this was released in the news because it seemed so absurd that no one could possibly believe it. This Awareness indicates, of course, it is the truth, but who would believe it? Even the news media in stating this claim by the Freemen probably did not believe it themselves and therefore thought it was safe to release the information, but in all probability, the global managers would not have liked that information being released and it may have only been by accident that the information was presented over the local news network.

Wisdom of Awareness...

You Were Intended to be Godlike

This Awareness indicates as the third dimension melts and the fourth dimension materializes or emerges, you also discover that the mind which you possess has the capability of manifesting in this new reality. You can manifest food. Even though the old three dimensional world may have left starving entities, you now have the ability to manifest the food you need right out of thin air, just as the yogi's of Tibet and India have been known to do for many, many ages.

This Awareness indicates that as entities reach within themselves, find the essence of their own God-like being within, they can manifest in this new reality, this new creation, to satisfy the needs of each moment. This Awareness indicates that it is important for entities to keep in mind those things that this Awareness has told you: The universe appears and disappears every four quadrillionths of a second, and because each four quadrillionths of a second is a totally new universe, you can create in that next moment those things that are necessary for your new universe to sustain life, to sustain those things you need.

This will be the great security that entities seek: You become the rainbow's end. You become the pot of gold, rather than pursuing the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. You become the one who manifests the reality you seek. This Awareness indicates that as you learn to create your world with each step, as you learn to move from moment to moment creating your new reality, you will then realize you are indeed a multidimensional being with God-like abilities.

This Awareness indicates that many will think this is a sacrilegious statement: that humans cannot, should not, and would not rightfully ever consider themselves as God-like, but this Awareness suggests that the Ultimate Divinity, the Ultimate Creator intended for His or Hers or Its creation to become likened unto Itself, to have similar powers of creation.

This Awareness indicates you cannot, as a third dimensional lesser being equate yourself with the Divine Being, but as you move into such Divinity yourself, then you become One with the Creator, One with the Divine Father, and thus have similar abilities, similar empowerment.
