VIOLENCE IN THE MIDDLE EAST

(A Greater Plan, Ages Old, Begins to Unfold)

OPENING MESSAGE: COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness greets the two new additions to tonight's proceedings and welcomes you both. This Awareness does indeed have an opening message that involves the state of affairs unfolding in the world at this time, the heightened state of aggression and violence being perpetrated in that region known as the Middle East. This is indeed the beginning of a time of international turmoil and hostilities.

The reasons for going to war are fabricated ones, mere excuses in order to ignite the already volatile situation of the Middle East. This Awareness does not have as Its purpose tonight to focus on the aggression and hostility, but rather to explain that this is part of a greater plan that is starting to unfold at this time. One might say that this plan has been unfolding for ages already, but this particular beginnings of the international hostilities in the Middle East area are indicators that there is to be an escalation of world hostility.

Bush's War Party Wants Us to Think World War III Has Begun

It has been spoken that this may be the beginning of World War III. This Awareness wishes you not to focus on that, nor to submit to such thoughts or ideas, but even if, with the escalation of the hostilities, more and more people are convinced this is the beginning of a world war, that is important for each and every individual to stay focused rather on the positive, on thoughts of light and love bathing the region.

This Awareness asks that those who do meditations, send light and love to those regions involved in the Middle East conflicts. Also send light and love to the political leaders of the world at this time; to Mr. Bush, president of the United States; to Stephan Harper, Prime Minister of Canada; and to all other leaders: the Israeli leaders, the Lebanese leaders, the leaders in Iran, Korea, China, the European nations, South America, Africa; the many many names and the many leaders who are leading the world at this time, who are leading their nations at this time. Send energies to your leaders, energies of light, of love, of spiritual harmony and understanding so that these leaders may be voices of reason at this time, and that those leaders who are most involved in the unfolding events may also have their own minds changed, may seek other directions, for while the world is being told that the events that are unfolding are leading to war, it is imperative that the people hold a space of light, a space of love, a space of spiritual harmony and understanding.

This Awareness wishes now to take a few minutes to send energy into the region and to send energy to the leaders involved in the conflict at this time.

(Brief pause)

This Awareness is complete in Its opening comments and is ready to proceed with the questions.

WHEN EARTH ASCENDS INTO THE DREAMSCAPE LEVEL

(How Will a Typical Day be Spent by Entities?)

QUESTION:

This letter is from Merle Dockendorff from Fairfield, Iowa, who writes, "I was quite interested in what Awareness said in issue #597, about the end of the Mayan calendar and the ascension of the earth into the dreamscape level. Based on what was said, I would like to submit some questions for consideration in future readings from Awareness.

My question concern what daily life would be like for those souls who are evolved enough to cross the dimensional gap. How will a typical day be spent? Will people have to work to obtain the necessities of life, or will they be able to simply manifest whatever they need? Will there be any sickness, accidents or injuries? If a person with previous chronic health problems makes the journey, would they still have these, or would ill health prevent a person from even making the dimensional shift?

"What becomes of unfinished karma? Will people still marry and procreate? Will there be a certain lifespan and even some sort of death? If so, would these souls ever return to the physical form? I would be very interested in the answers to any or all of these questions. Are there any books Awareness could recommend that might provide further information on this topic?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that what would be most prevalent in that new phase of existence, at that new dreamscape level, is how effectively one uses their imagination, and how open one might be to believing that one could indeed create whatever they wish to experience. Merle's questions point out many possibilities, all of which would be possible in that time of ascension, after the separation of the two planet Earths. This Awareness wishes also to be very clear that this would not be immediate. While it might be possible to begin to manifest whatever was needed, this does not mean that immediately after the ascension process of Mother Earth, the planet, and those who would inhabit her into that higher level, that next phase, would know immediately how to manifest all of their needs.

There is a transition period that will take many many years to get to that level, but what will be noticed and found, what will start to be taught to those who have completed this process, if they do not already pass over with this knowledge, is that it is indeed possible to bring into existence that which you put your mind to, that which you put your imagination to, that which you put your will to, and that which you put your heart to. It will still come through a process of a third-dimensional nature to some degree, because Mother Earth will still have that physical quality, as will the individuals involved, but it will be at an enlightened level.

It will be at a level where it is understood that anything is indeed possible, that one could indeed bring to one that which is wished for and desired. The time for instantaneous manifestation is indeed ahead, but will not be so immediately after the splitting of the two planets with the one version moving into that higher dimensional landscape; the other moving into that denser dimensional landscape, but the possibility is there indeed that one can indeed bring to oneself that which is wished for, that which is desired. This being so, this Awareness sees that there will be enlightened teachers available who are more received by those who have crossed over, who will teach the many how to do the manifestations, how to open themselves and make themselves available to manifesting into their lives that which is wished for, that which is desired.

Work Will Become an Expression of One's Self

This Awareness suggests also that work will still exist, but it will not be work of such a nature that individuals simply go to work without any thought or desire or even an inclination towards their work. Work will become an expression of one's self. The work that is undertaken is not done simply to pay bills, to pay a mortgage, to acquire material things. Work will be seen as an expression of oneself. Work will be understood to be pointless and meaningless if it does not promote an individual's well-being as well as an individual's spiritual advancement and growth.

This being so, individuals will no longer simply go to work because they have to go to work. Individuals will go to work because they want to go to work. They desire an activity that expresses themselves, that is fulfilling and meaningful and worthwhile to them. So this will indeed change greatly in the times ahead. Many may choose not to work at a job, but rather to work on themselves, within themselves. The financial situation will become much different than it is now.

No More of the Orion Financial System

Financial reality today on this planet is a reflection of the Orion energies that have supplemented a system of financial need, financial compensation. This system from Orion will no longer be relevant. There will be a growing understanding to take care of one another, to help one another, to provide for one another. Therefore, those who are driven to work with themselves and on themselves, to pursue their spiritual awareness and understanding, will not be frowned upon, but rather will be encouraged and supported, and it will return back to those times when those individuals of strong spiritual inclination, those who had strong contact with those levels of spirit, were seen as valued members of society.

The medicine man and the shaman, the holy ones, were given special places of honor in those indigenous tribes and peoples of the past. Such will be the case again.

Will Those With Illness Make the Transition?

The question was also asked of those with illness. Would they even make the transition? They may not make that transition at first. Part of what is to occur is a leaving of the physical, a shifting of and out of the physical, be that of the body or the planet, and that those who are extremely ill, but do desire to cross over and are inclined to that new level of dimensional reality, may appear to die to those who have known them, but this Awareness wishes it to be understood, that they are simply shifting into a different physical form, one that will be freer of the illness, or maybe even being reborn quickly into a new body on the other side of the dimensional shift at the new level of dimensional reality, dimensional vibration.

They may choose to reincarnate immediately and quickly into the bodies of those babes that would be born, those children who would appear more and more; those who are now being called the Rainbow Children, the Crystal Children. It may be that they choose not to carry on with their physical illnesses, their physical liabilities, their limitations; choosing rather to leave the physical as the shift happens, so that they may be born anew. There will be those also with sufficient awareness and understanding who can carry over into the new levels, the new layer, the new dimensional reality, and on the other side, complete the healing, or even be completely healed at the time of this shift.

It is to be understood that while the beginning may be a carrying on of the physical realities now experienced, there will be quick and rapid shifts in the awareness of those who have crossed over; that the new possibilities will be seen and understood, and health and dis-ease will be seen and understood for what they truly are: limitations of the mind and the heart exhibited in the body, taken on by the body. With new clarity and understanding, new awareness, this may be understood immediately as no longer necessary and those that can shift into that awareness immediately, will no longer need to endure their own physical illness, disease or handicaps.

They can indeed become healed instantly. For some it may take slightly longer because they are overcoming long held beliefs of their physical limitations and illness, but these too it shall become possible to find that healthy young revived body, and for those who are so infirmed that their own physical bodies could not withstand the dimensional shift, they too may choose to be reborn in the bodies of the new children who will be born on that side of the dimensional shift.

A Brave New World is Coming

Much is possible. It will indeed be the brave new world, a world splendid in new possibilities, all available through the acceleration of spirit to that new higher vibration where more things are possible, more things are understood, where the teachers and the healers and the holy ones will be there to help in the transition over the years that follow. One of the most important things that will occur is the realignment with Mother Earth, a rediscovering of the true role that humanity was to play initially; that being the guardians, the safe-keepers, the force that is to protect and honor Mother Earth; to live in unison and harmony and her. The human race will begin to understand, indeed, it will go beyond understanding, it will begin to live its true purpose on this planet, and that is to work with the consciousness of the logos known as the Earth Mother, Mother Earth, the Goddess, the Divine Feminine.

Living in Harmony With Gaia

In this, humanity will reach new heights of interaction with the planet itself, with Gaia herself. That hand in hand with this new respect, this new harmony, will also come new respect, new harmony with the animal world as well as the plant world. There will even be a new awareness that the rocks and the minerals themselves, the mineral world, indeed has consciousness, even if quite different than the consciousness known by humans. Living in harmony with Gaia will also mean living in harmony with all of her creatures, with all of her dependents.

This Awareness suggests rather, that humans will not feel superior or above nature, above the animals, above the plants, but will simply see itself in the new role, will adjust to this new role, and live accordingly. This Awareness sees a great new time, a brave new world, and encourages one and all to imagine what this new world will look like. This Awareness is complete with this question unless there are any further questions still remaining to be answered.

This Awareness wishes to go on to the next question.

HE FEELS HE GOES INTO ANOTHER DIMENSION AND SEES A GIANT SPIDER

QUESTION:

This question is from Ted Helinski. He writes: "For a couple of years now I've been experiencing something when I'm in that state just before falling completely asleep, or just before I am completely awake in the morning. I guess it's called the hypnogogic state. This occurs most frequently in the morning before I am fully awake. I see a large spider-like creature crawling on the ceiling, or sometimes on the wall. It's very much larger than any spider I've ever seen. It has very legs on it than any spider that I've ever seen. I do not get any feeling of concern or fear, but I watch this crawling around, and as I become more fully awake, it seems to just disappear into the wall or ceiling.

When it does this, I get the impression that I was looking into another dimension for a short time, and then this spider, or whatever it is, goes into that dimension and I return fully to this one. Hence, the spider seems to disappear. What is this all about? Is there some meaning or message for me that I'm not getting? Thanks, Ted."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does confirm that the entity is indeed going through that state of consciousness that exists between the waking and the dreaming state. In effect, he is still dreaming, but in a much more aware state. This is the hypnogogic state that the entity Ted referred to this. His description of this spider-like creature is indeed him seeing an entity that exists in that state in between. Once one is fully awake, most people do not see such entities, but this Awareness does have a warning for this entity Ted, that he must be aware that what he is seeing is indeed something more than just seeing into another dimensional state.

Entities Need Protection From These Interdimensional Creatures

These dark blob-like spider-like creatures are also entities that often attach themselves to human beings. They are entities that have been recorded and photographed and commented on by other beings. It is not of any great concern, because he is not concerned, and this Awareness does not want to bring a level of fear to this, but simply does wish to make the entity Ted and others who have seen such things or aware of such entities, aware that there is a need to protect oneself from these beings, from these creatures of this interdimensional state. Often these beings attach themselves into the auric field of a human being and act in a vampirous way, sucking off energies, taking from their host that which is not their right to have, as no agreement has ever been made for such an interchange.

It is in ignorance that most humans allow such beings, such creatures to attach themselves, and it would be wise for this entity Ted to put the Light of Protection around himself when he sees such beings. This being so, this Awareness wishes to complement Ted for not panicking, not becoming fearful, for that is not really necessary. A simple awareness of what these beings are: interdimensional creatures; is what is needed here, and a way to protect oneself is also a very useful thing to have, or to practice to become aware of and to put into practice; that of putting the Light around oneself.

The simplest way to do so is to simply see the Light around oneself flushing the auric cocoon around a being and the Light to be strong within one's auric field. These beings cannot exist in the Pure Light of Spirit that is called in, and will detach themselves. They certainly will not attach themselves to someone who puts up this level of protection.

The Three Breath Invocation of Light for Protection

Another way of putting such protection up is to use the Three Breath Medication, or the Three Breath Invocation of the Light. This Awareness suggests that one starts by visualizing a spot above them of a foot and a half or so to the Spirit Gate; to use the three-step description once described by this Awareness to bring the Light through the Spirit Gate.

The first breath, seeing the Light wrapping around the auric field of the entity, of the being, of oneself, all the way from the top and down to the bottom below the feet, breathing in through and up to the Spirit Gate, and seeing in the second breath a membrane, a curtain-like membrane descending down around the cocoon of the aura, all the way down below the feet again. This being a curtain of White Light; and with the third breath, going back up to that point, that Spirit Gateway a foot and a half above the Crown Chakra, and seeing a third band of White Light winding counterclockwise (the first breath of course being clockwise in direction) all the way around the auric cocoon, the egg-like cocoon that surrounds a human being, all the way down, and below.

This three breath meditation of calling in the Light will create a very strong auric field, a strong protection of Light around the individuals and will prevent and shut out any entity that might at all try to attach itself to one. This is a very powerful exercise that this Awareness does recommend individuals use on a daily basis. It can be done so quickly that simply even thinking about, having the three breaths, will complete this action.

This Awareness wishes to conclude, that Ted is correct in assuming that as he wakes up these entities disappear, but it is more because he is stepping out of that interdimensional state that exists between the dream world and the waking world. These beings, to some degree, still exist in that level of reality, but as long as he is not afraid of them, as long as one is not afraid of them, they are not that dangerous, if one knows how to work with these beings with this energy. If there are more questions to be asked, or if there is a lack of clarity around this explanation this Awareness asks that these be sent in. This Awareness is complete with this question and wishes to go on at this time.

Ed's Note: For more on this please refer to "Revelations of Awareness" No. 79-13 (Psychic Vampirism).

ARE HUMANS REALLY MADE IN THE IMAGE OF THE CREATOR?

QUESTION:

There's one more question for this evening, this is from Charles Bowring, of Minety Malmesbury in the United Kingdom. He asks "What is all this nonsense I keep hearing about everyone being made in the image and likeness of the Creator. If you could see what I see, you wouldn't think much of the Creator. Are they or we in the image and likeness of the Fallen? Sri Nisargadatta said that there is no creator other than the mind. Since the 'mind' is so stupid and imperfect, perhaps its creations reflect it. Will Awareness please comment?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to make comment on this question, especially the question regarding the fact that man is made in the image of God. This is very misunderstood concept or idea. It was at one point, when mankind's understanding, intelligence and awareness was much lesser than now, a way of brainwashing those who were subject to the religious teachings of the times, to think that we were made in the physical image of that entity or being known as God; the god being a Christian concept of God. At the same time it was also a way of understanding that we are a reflection of the spiritual reflection of the Godhead, the God Force, but because humans at that time were much more literal in their nature and needed to have a concrete image, it was easy to promote the concept that we were made in the image of God.

Furthermore, it was a paternal image based on a masculine god somehow favoring men, favoring the males. Women in this scenario were less honored because they were not in the same image of God; God being a man-like being, a deity sitting on a throne often seen in the traditional classic way of an old man with flowing long hair and beard and robes. One can see that even this image denied the feminine, denied females of their right of being part of that godly image, for they were not made in the image of God, they were made from a rib of Adam; this being of course an extreme misconception and a limitation for women.

The Godhead is a Form Without Form

To hold now that we are physical beings reflective of a God of the human form is of course completely erroneous. The Godhead is in no way in a human form. It is much much much too complex for this, for it is a form without form. It is an energy that is everything and at the same time, nothing. How can one be created in the image of such a force, such a being. Even to call God a being is incorrect. What is correct is to understand that while humans are in a physical form, they are truly spiritual creatures having a physical existence, and in their essence, in the essence of their spirit being, they are more in union with the Godhead, the God Force than that concept of being created in the image of the creator. Humans are rather an aspect of the God Force and in this way can that concept be understood; that humans are a reflection of the Godhead.

Even this Awareness is a reflection of the God Force, the Divine; the Everything. The All. It is important for one to understand, that as reflections of the essence of the Everything, that we are indeed made in Its image, but it is not a physical form. It is not a physical image. It is more an allegorical statement that suggests that humans and that everything indeed is a reflection of the Godhead, the God Form, the Being that is Supreme. That which is Everything. That which is All. This Awareness is complete with this question at this time.

This Awareness asks if there is any other question, or if indeed that was the last question.

QUESTIONER:

That was the last question.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would like to go deeper. In the last question, this Awareness found a difficulty in staying at a deep enough level, as the Interpreter did keep coming through, hence the confusion in that concept of We and the Greater Truth and the Greater Whole. Even so, there was validity in understanding that we are all part of a greater whole, the greater whole known as the Godhead, the God Force, the Everything and the All.

This Awareness at this time would like to go much deeper, would like to introduce the new energizers who are in attendance tonight to even deeper levels of this Awareness, without the need to focus or concentrate on the questions or answering of questions; to simply go within to feel the essence of that which is this Awareness. This Awareness wishes this to be so at this time, and this Awareness wishes the tape to be stopped while this procedure is taking place. (side 2, another gap)

the energies being given to the Interpreter tonight.

CLOSING MESSAGE:

The "End Times" Are Indeed Beginning

This Awareness also wishes to make comment to the opening comments made earlier about the state of the world at this time. Indeed, the unfolding has begun of the Final Times, the End Times. In the nature of a paradox, the unfolding has just begun, and yet it has indeed been going on for countless ages. In these times, this Awareness recommends highly that you always look to the Highest, the Greatest, the most Positive Future possible, for yourselves as well as your fellow human beings, and as well for Mother Earth and all of her creatures, all of her inhabitants.

This Awareness sees a bright new dawn ahead, and highly encourages one and all to always be open to the bright new dawn that lies ahead; the bright new future that is there for those who have the eyes to see, the ears to hear, the heart to feel, and the mind to know. This Awareness thanks one and all for holding such a vision of the bright new dawn, the bright new future that lies ahead. This Awareness is complete at this time.

Health Hints From Personal Readings

(Blood in the Semen and Pain in Groin)

QUESTION:

I have had blood in my sperm semen, but now there is no more blood in it. There is still a sensitiveness of my groin and lower abdominal areas. What is wrong with me, and why did this happen to me? What can I do to clear this pain and become healthy again?

(QUESTIONER:)

And recently, he writes:

"My physical problems are back to the worst again. I have blood in my semen again and there is more pain in my lower abdomen. I went to a specialist on this matter and he said that he would have to stick tubing up my penis into my insides to have a look around before he could say what is wrong with me. I feel there is a more safer way than to go to that method. Would you please inform me of this condition, I would hate to have my condition get even worse, I want to have my condition to be cleared up."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

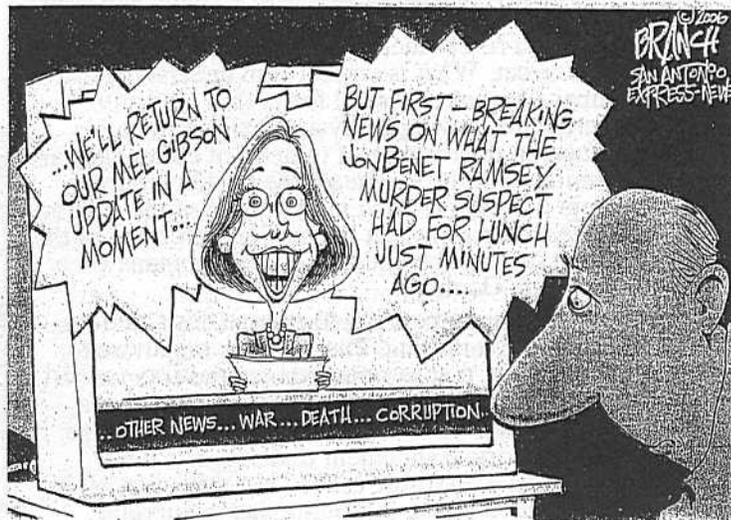

This Awareness suggests that this appears to be related unto an infection which originated in the kidneys. This Awareness suggests this has also spread somewhat to other areas, including the bladder and the groin. This Awareness suggests that this also relates unto liver problems. This Awareness suggests that the following information as being that which may be used as an emergency effort, but that wherein this does not bring about the satisfactory relief, this Awareness suggests you go to a regular specialist for treatment.

This Awareness suggests however, that you may try the following treatment, this as being beneficial for short term and may allow the body's natural healing forces to complete the healing. This Awareness will also effect a healing after this message. This Awareness suggests that you use one tablespoon full of cayenne pepper, this may be taken in apple juice or with plenty of liquid; this also may be used in food to make it more palatable. This Awareness suggests the use of apple juice and one tablespoon of cayenne pepper as being appropriate for this. This be taken in the morning and at lunch time, this also in... this Awareness suggests this twice daily, morning and lunch time. This Awareness suggests that this as being effective in helping to stop the bleeding.

This Awareness suggests that the use of lemon juice after the cayenne and apple juice, in the following proportions. This Awareness suggests that the juice of three lemons in the morning, three lemons at lunch time, and three lemons in the evening be taken, this pattern including the lemon juice and the cayenne/ apple juice combination be continued for three days. This Awareness suggests three to five days, preferably five. That on the third day in the early afternoon, that you drink one-half cup of olive oil, this one-half to two-thirds cup of olive oil. This Awareness suggests this be repeated on the fourth day and the fifth day. This Awareness suggests that golden seal in capsule form also be taken during this time, this being two capsules morning, two capsules noon, and two capsules in the evening, this approximately in the equivalent of one teaspoon morning, noon, and evening, one teaspoon at each of those intervals, this to continue for the five day period.

This Awareness suggests that a healing now shall be given to accompany this action, to strengthen your healing energies; that each night during this time you open yourself to allow this Awareness to enter and heal your body. This Awareness suggests that a pause be given while a healing is sent to this entity. (Pause)

This Awareness suggests that white light energy has been sent to this entity, that this energy is available for the entity as the entity proceeds in this healing direction. This Awareness indicates the energy shall be given as the entity opens to receive this. M780804P

Hidden Messages in Paper Money

(Satan Engraved in Queen Elizabeth's Hair)

QUESTION (AVATON):

There's an interesting little article that appeared in the November 7th, 1982, Parade Magazine. I'd like to read this and ask Awareness to comment on one part in particular. It's called: "Hidden Messages In Paper Money".

"The finely detailed designs on some currency have provided ideal camouflage for subversive messages. On the front of several U.S. Legal Tender Notes of 1869, 1875, 1898 and 1880, the engraving of an eagle, when turned upsidedown, became the head of a donkey. Known as Jack-ass notes, these bills were an embarrassment to the Republican administration of Ulysses S. Grant, and Rutherford B. Hayes. Perhaps there was a mischievous Democrat at work in the engraving department.

"In 1954, the Bank of Canada unwittingly issued currency of all denominations with a picture of the devil cleverly etched among the curls of Queen Elizabeth the 2nd's hair. It was widely suspected that an Irish Nationalist was responsible for defiling Her Majesty's image on the notes. And in 1968, Queen Elizabeth the 2nd was again featured on an unflattering piece of currency, this time, a 50 rupee note issued by the Seychelles then a British colony. Clearly visible in the engraving among some palm leaves behind the Queen's head was the word: "sex". It was a case where money not only talked, it talked naughtily."

That was the end of the article. I'm particularly interested in this one the Bank of Canada unwittingly issued, showing a picture of a demon in Queen Elizabeth's hair.

They give an illustration and it is very clear. It looks like one of these demons that has come down through time, in pictures and I'd like to ask Awareness: Is there more to this than meets the eye?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness requests to know, what meets the eye?

AVATON:

The fact that this picture of a demon resembling the devil is engraved in the hair of Queen Elizabeth, on these notes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this as having been as indicated, an action by one who had certain hostility toward what the Queen represented. This Awareness indicates that this as intended to convey a message to the masses, both consciously and subconsciously; that it appears this was related to... this as from a secret order or organization whereby the entity responsible for this was directed by others. This being in part a kind of hostile joke. That it was not expected to have a great impact on anything other than to release this and then have a laugh about this and this Awareness indicates however, it was also accompanied by a hostility toward the Queen, rather toward what she stood for.

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

It has nothing to do with then, with the Illuminati energies?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this would not have been acceptable to this entity, had she been aware of this.

AVATON:

I repeat the question: It has nothing to do with the Illuminati energies?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness reminds you that the Saint John Cross of Jerusalem, and that which is known as the Illuminati as that which is essentially, and largely influenced and controlled by the Queen and those around her. This Awareness indicates that this as having been a message, that this entity was ...this as having been a kind of symbolic drawing or message that this entity was working with the devil. This Awareness indicates that this as a message of one who felt hostility toward the Queen.

Why the Queen of England Came to the U.S.

QUESTION (AVATON):

She passed through this area the other day. Was there any special significance of her coming to the United States briefly, and passing through, other than just a friendly visit?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be in part... This Awareness indicates that there appears there are seen several purposes in her trip. This Awareness indicates that one as being a family, or personal matter; this relating to her son's involvement with the actress...Koo (?). This Awareness indicates that it appears there was a brief contact with this entity; that the Queen is quite upset in regard to his relationship with her. This Awareness indicates that this contact may have been indirect, but it appears there was some communication sent to this entity.

This Awareness indicates that also it appears the return visit to the Reagans, after their having visited England, as that which served as a protocol, or as appropriate to balance certain energies which the Queen

... This Awareness indicates that in the earlier visits of the President and his wife to the Queen's home, this appears to have ruffled some feelings, in that the President was not given a welcome, or the royal treatment which he felt was appropriate, and that this as having been expressed by certain newsmen, left the Queen feeling that perhaps she should balance these energies, thus, the visit with the President in his own area as that which was seen as a way of balancing this relationship.

This Awareness indicates that the more important purpose as being to allow the Queen to travel, to leave her homeland, to gain some new recognition, to reestablish strained ties between the United States and Britain, and between British Columbia and Britain, and to use the trip for bolstering President Reagan's image, and to ... This Awareness indicates there appear to have been certain talks in regard to the monetary concerns of Britain and the United States; that these as being of a very general nature, likened unto getting a general agreement to work toward certain ends, through other persons at future times.

This Awareness indicates that this ...that it does not appear that the Queen intended to conclude any forms of agreements, other than an agreement for the two nations to assist each other in stabilizing the economy, that this as not having been her purpose or intention of coming here. This Awareness indicates that it appears that in general, her visit as being more of a social nature, and one of personal vacation and enjoyment.

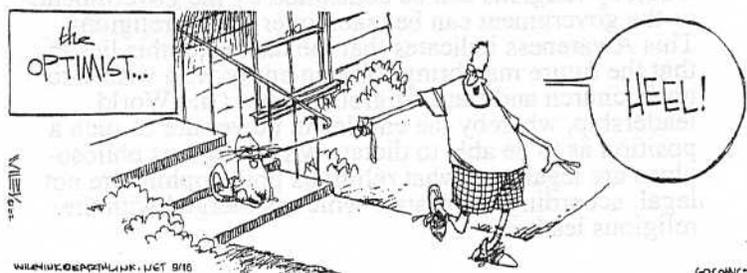

Russia Uses Weather Warfare to Warn U.S. and Queen

This Awareness indicates that secondary to this, as that which was intended to boost the morale of the British people and to bring about a closer tie with the present administration, and to in general, increase the attention and prestige of both nations. This Awareness indicates that the Queen essentially enjoying the attention. This Awareness suggests that the bad weather patterns as that which having been triggered by Russian manipulation of these forces, was intended to send a clear message to the Queen and to President Reagan, that they themselves are also vulnerable, if they wish to engage in competition of a warlike nature.

This Awareness indicates that the Queen and the President were aware of the cause of these storms.

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that it appears that there is also seen, in regard to the Queen's visit, the desire to bring a closer affection from the people of the United States and Canada, whereby she will be seen as more human and less aloof, more reachable and less of a symbol. The Queen, desiring to not simply be special, but also to be seen as a special person. This Awareness indicates that It sees this new image for the Queen as being valuable to her, and to England, not only at present, but in the future. This Awareness indicates that however, the main reason for her travel was to allow her to have, a vacation from being cooped up in that palace for so long. This Awareness indicates that the entity, just as any other entity, does need to get up and go out into the world, and have a change of scenery.

WHY HAS CONGRESS SENT AN AMBASSADOR TO THE VATICAN?

(What About Separation of Church and State?)

(How Prejudice and Bigotry is a Useful Tool of the Dark Forces)

QUESTION (AVATON):

One question in relation to that separation of church and state information given the other day. President Reagan has had Congress send an ambassador to the Vatican, which they haven't had in over 100 years, and a lot of people argued against this saying that such action was breaching the separation of church and state in this area. Does Awareness see this as part of that sinister plan It talked about, or is this just something that is innocuous?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this can be misused at a future time; This Awareness indicates however, that this is not unlike the actions wherein ex-President Nixon and Billy Graham became acquainted as friends, wherein the influence of each other assisted each other. This Awareness indicates that it will depend on how this connection is used, and whether this will be seen as an alliance that becomes misused in reference to the masses.

This Awareness indicates that in sending someone as an ambassador simply means that there is communication between the government and the religious body of the church; that this does not imply a necessity to have any religious influences on the state, or state influences on the religion. This Awareness indicates however, it does open the door for such to occur if that should become a desire by those in these positions. This Awareness indicates that it is something that does need to be watched.

Essentially, the doors are being open whereby church and state can be manipulated for further interrelationship whereby religions can be controlled by the government, or the government can be taken over by the religions. This Awareness indicates that the danger in this lies in that the future may bring forth an entity who wishes to unify church and state religion under a One World leadership, whereby the entities in power are of such a position as to be able to dictate what religious philosophies are legal, and what religious philosophies are not legal, according to the state which is merged with the religious leader.

It Could Open the Door for The Antichrist

This Awareness indicates that this of course, would be that which many entities would consider as the Antichrist and which most likely would not claim for itself the title of Antichrist, but could very easily claim the title of the Christ, or something of that nature. This Awareness indicates that it would not be unexpected to have an entity in time rise in political and spiritual or religious stature to a position whereby the church in Rome or elsewhere could become a focal point from which this entity's influence over governments could be felt.

This Awareness indicates that this type of influence over governments, through a religious body which is acceptable to the masses, would open the door for the possibility of the Antichrist. This Awareness indicates that in order for this to occur, the concept of separation of church and state, the concept of religious freedom would need to be eroded or destroyed at the time.

This Awareness does wish however, to indicate that while much confrontation and struggles in regard to spiritual pursuits, rights and hope is concerned, it appears that the tide has at least for the present, begun to turn in favor of those Light Workers on this plane. Whether or not they will be deceived to the point of becoming inactive or whether or not the Forces of Darkness can again rally their strength sufficiently to overpower the advantages of the Light Worker, will be seen during the coming two or three years.

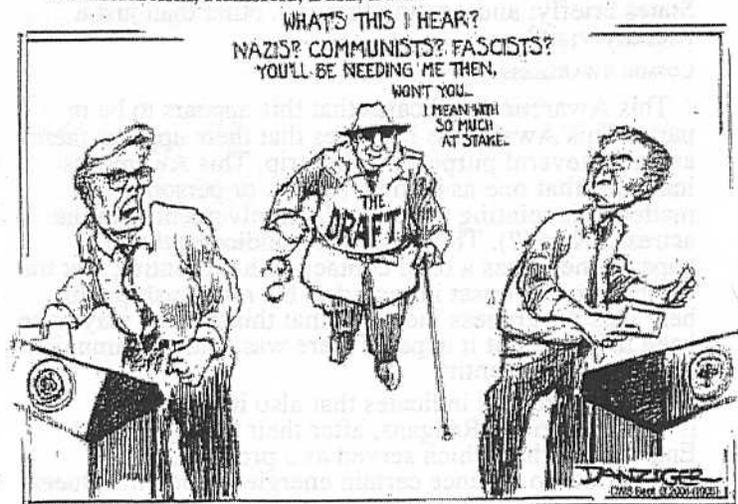

This Awareness indicates that it does appear there will be a push in some direction. There are several options whereby the Dark Forces will attempt to push issues that will give an opportunity for them to move with great speed and energy toward upsetting any advantage the Light Workers have. This Awareness indicates that it is important for entities in the field of spiritual humanities and what may be termed the Light Workers, to become more and more active in promoting truth and love and service and avoiding involvement in polarized concepts that can be easily manipulated by the Forces of darkness.

Divisive Concepts are Being Manipulated by Dark Forces

This Awareness indicates that any kind of concept which is divisive: racial, religious, national or cultural concepts which divide people against people is that which is being manipulated by the Dark Forces and which is often the only real source of power they have. This Awareness warns entities to be most cautious about involvement in such polarized consciousness levels.

This Awareness indicates that it is one thing to discern errors of individuals; it is quite another thing to class an entire group of entities as being in error because of certain members of that group being in error. This

- Islamofascism, Rumsfeld, Bush, Draft

Awareness indicates that to class Jews as being in error, to class Blacks as being in error, or to class White as being in error, or any other color; or to class certain religions as being in error simply because (a) certain percentage of error occurs among the membership activity, would be likened unto labeling all Catholics as evil because one or two, or a few have been found in prisons for criminal activities.

This Awareness reminds you that besides being of a certain race, of a certain religion or culture, entities are also capable of asserting themselves as individuals without intentionally asserting themselves as an agent of that culture, religion or race. This Awareness indicates that when an entity enters into an action of violence or theft, it is not necessarily because he was born male or female, because he was born Jewish or White or Protestant or Catholic, or Black, or of any other culture or race; it may simply be because the individual himself has some kind of social aberration which led him to do this crime.

This Awareness indicates that entities who are prejudiced in terms of racial, religious or cultural or national bigotry would first look at the crime, then look for the color, nationality or religion of the entity, and immediately associate the crime with the color, nationality or religion, or whatever they are prejudiced against. This Awareness indicates they might totally ignore the individuality involved in the crime. This Awareness indicates that it is this type of prejudice that is often divisive in nature, which sets one class of people against another because of some small distinction (which this Awareness), which the universe has made in its creation of entities through natural forces of the universe, such as pigmentation, or location, whereby one entity develops, or a line of entities develop certain pigmentation due to the environment or food or certain types of genetic development related to diet or genetic, hereditary inclinations; whereby entities can, for one reason or another, look upon these distinctive qualities as if they were evil.

This Awareness indicates that it is somewhat pathetic to think that the Universal Creator should have only created people who look exactly like each other in order to keep them from feeling hostile toward those who are different. This Awareness indicates that such bigotry would require that everyone look exactly like the individual, if such bigotry is taken to its extreme.

Imagine a World Where Everyone Looked and Acted Like You

This Awareness indicates that before you decry the difference in individuals, this Awareness asks you to consider the possibility of a world in which everyone looked exactly like you, behaved exactly like you, and there were no distinguishing differences, so that there would be no way you could be dissatisfied with the creation which has occurred. This Awareness indicates that those who feel this way would also, of course, insist that everyone think exactly the same, so that there was no distinction in beliefs, ideas or behavior; that everyone have the same general age, to avoid the hostilities that occur between generations; jealousies of youth, hostilities toward the elder established beings.

This Awareness indicates that it is essential that entities understand differences are created by the Universal Creator, and by nature itself, and by environmental forces, hereditary forces which are part of the energy flow of natural law. It is important to realize that these differences are meaningful in helping each individual to develop a uniqueness. This Awareness indicates the concept of bigotry as that which would deny any differences among anyone, and would insist upon, in its ultimate sense, would insist upon everyone being exactly like the entity who is thus bigoted.

This Awareness indicates that it is possible for entities to look at individuals, or the nature of groups, and to discuss qualities associated with the nature of groups, if those discussions are objective and not colored by pre-judgments, based upon something that an entity has developed over the years and which is not applicable to the persons whom he or she is presently speaking about. This Awareness indicates too often however, an entity will have hostilities toward someone in early life, discover that they are of a particular group, and then carry that hostility for the group throughout the rest of the entire life, even though the members of that group in future time may have very little in common with the entity who first influenced the hostility in that individual.

This Awareness indicates that bigotry is a very difficult conditioning to eradicate, and most entities don't want to make the effort. They would prefer to simply remain bigoted and point out arguments to try to show how they are either correct or are being mislabeled, or that others are equally bigoted who argue against them. This Awareness indicates however, that these polarized conditionings are used by any of those forces which desire to manipulate the masses.

Bigotry Not Necessarily Racial—It's Found in Many Areas

This Awareness indicates that it does not necessarily have to be in the area of racial bigotry. It can also be in areas of philosophical, or religious or cultural bigotry; that the various types of bigotry are based upon entities' identifications and the characterizations or distinguishing features which entities may have, and those who oppose those distinguishing features.

This Awareness indicates that wherein a wedge of hostility can be driven between entities who have different values and identifications, when that wedge can be driven in, to set one group against the other, it is very possible and very easy to manipulate masses into greater and greater hostility and violence toward one another, particularly when economic and social conditions become deteriorated, so that violence is transferred from one area of an individual's life to those areas which the entity is bigoted or hostile toward.

This Awareness indicates that this is especially seen at present in some of the countries which are undergoing economic deprivation, wherein the leadership, rather than being able to solve the economic deprivation, whips up some kind of enemy, as Hitler did during World War II with the Jews, as Khomeini has done, and as others do when their country is in crisis; to whip up an enemy to use as a scapegoat for one's hostility on which one can blame all errors and vent their anger, so that they avoid venting their anger at the government or the cause of the problems.

"Let's Line Up the Welfare Recipients and Shoot Them!"

This Awareness indicates that it becomes very easy then for those in power to manipulate the masses against each other whereby they see other elements within their society as being the cause of the problems. This Awareness indicates that there have been many entities who have indicated that they should line up the welfare recipients and shoot them down. This Awareness indicates that this type of thinking is never considered seriously in higher civilized minds, but there are those elements in society that claims to be civilized who actually make such statements with confidence, as if they fully intended to do so if they were given the opportunity.

Polarized Bigotry That Turns Brother Against Brother

This Awareness indicates that likewise, there are those who are without jobs who are in need of assistance who would make similar statements regarding those who have the wealth; that they should overthrow and take the wealth. This Awareness indicates that these are examples of bigotry, based on distinction and differences, which can be polarized during times of hostility, frustration and the polarization as that which if, well organized, can actually lead to such conflicts in a society as to turn brother against brother, family against family, neighbor against neighbor, so that indeed, civil war can occur.

This Awareness warns entities to be very careful and watchful in regard to allowing their own prejudisms and bigotry to become a useful tool of the Dark Forces. This Awareness indicates that the easiest way for the United States to become taken over by the Dark Forces, the easiest way would be through such division between racial and religious bigotries.

AREN'T DARK FORCES ALREADY WITHIN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

In reference to recognizing the Vatican; in recognizing something like this, is it not true that you're also accepting or condoning the activities? For example, it's pretty well known that the Catholic church has amassed immense riches through drug trafficking, through Illuminati activities, through various banking scams and scandals and through the sale of arms and so forth. Is it not true then, that the Dark Force is actually acting through the church rather than through the people who belong to it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that wherein there is an official policy within a body or organization to participate in activities such as those mentioned, then this becomes part of the character of the body or organization. This Awareness indicates however, wherein there is not such a policy, but wherein an organ within the body goes astray, and begins acting without official sanction in such a manner as was just mentioned, then that organ may be said to be diseased, or may be said to be out of synchronization with the intent and purpose of the greater body.

This Awareness indicates that if one is to say that it is official recognition of the greater body to communicate with the greater body, and therefore it is officially recognizing the aberration within the organ of the body, then it also must be stated that when an individual has a disease, you cannot communicate with the individual unless you are willing to accept the disease as well.

This Awareness indicates that if, for example, an organ is cancerous, does this mean that communicating with the greater body of the individual and his or her intended purposes, that this greater body of the individual is also a cancer in society? This Awareness indicates it is important to make the distinction between the part and the whole, and not to blame the whole for the actions of members within the body, other than to blame them for any responsibility of those members to the extent that the authority over that area of the member's life is under jurisdiction of the greater body (the church) or to the extent that the individuals are using the church with the church's knowledge that this is occurring.

This Awareness indicates that much is yet to be discovered in regard to these areas, and this Awareness suggests also that when there is duplicity in an organization, wherein there are schisms, activities that are extending religious and spiritual values from the one hand, and activities which are extending materialistic and deceptive actions from the other hand; the entity may be exposed or may be communicated with, whereby an entity who wishes to communicate with this body which is handing out spiritual guidance from one hand and deception, or that which is not so good, from the other hand; it does not necessarily follow that because an entity's claim is that it is spiritual, that it cannot be communicated with by another organization simply because there are found to be activities that are not spiritual or are anti-spiritual within its activities and behavior.

This Awareness indicates that two thieves, or two entities misrepresenting to the public, may still communicate with each other. It is not seen that the government of the United States is any holier than the Catholic church, and therefore, It does not see any reason why these should or should not communicate with each other through ambassadors. This Awareness indicates that if the question is whether these entities should be less than the highest, obviously, the answer is: No. Both the United States government and the Catholic church should always seek to improve their spiritualities.

This Awareness indicates that for them to be separated and unable to communicate through ambassadors does not necessarily imply that they will improve or will prevent contamination of one with the other's influence. This Awareness indicates that there is always the danger that when two forces which are acting less than the Highest come together and communicate, that they may come up with some kind of activity or plans which will likewise be less than the highest. There is also the possibility that they may influence the better parts of each other and bring about an improvement in each other's character.

This Awareness indicates that it appears the church as having a desire to see certain areas in the world move toward a greater peace; that the influence of this concept in the United States government levels could be beneficial toward bringing about peace. This Awareness indicates that likewise, there may be some areas in the United States government whereby an influence with the Catholic church could help to bring about a clarification of policies so that less conflict would occur in various areas of the world, wherein politics and religion are being used or are being influential in the affairs of man.

This Awareness indicates that it is difficult to see how an ambassador to the church from a government can in itself be seen as great error, for this is nothing more than having an entity representing the administration or government, to be in touch with a large body of beings such as having an emissary from the White House keeping in touch with labor union organizations or medical professions professional unions or the bar association or anything else; that wherever there are organizations, one can expect a government to have some kind of representative making contact in feeling out and discussing the relationship of the organization and the government, to serve as a kind of liaison, or mediator in reference to the needs or to the influences which are being exchanged between these organizations.

This Awareness indicates that indeed, it can lead to something which could be extremely hazardous and dangerous; there is that great possibility that the Anti-christ may rise within the ranks of the church, whereby the Pope steps aside and allows the Antichrist to take over and whereby the masses kneel to the Antichrist, and whereby all governments become extensions of the power of the Antichrist.

This Awareness indicates that this scenario is that which is a hypothetical possibility, but the action of having an ambassador going to Rome and relating to a Pope or to the Vatican is not in itself very significant in reference to the bringing about of that scenario. This Awareness indicates It likewise does not imply that government is making laws governing religion when an ambassador is sent to Rome to be in touch with the religion, anymore than It would imply that if a politician speaks to a minister that there is a merging of church and state.

Why Not Other Religious Organizations?

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

Yes, well the main argument was that an ambassador is sent to a "country"-- to recognized countries that already exist, and Reagan is sending an ambassador to a religious organization; that this could open the door, that other religious organizations could probably claim they should have an ambassador, because otherwise we're favoring one religion over another...it just seems to me that there's something sinister going on as far as separation of church and state is concerned.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is truth to this; that other religious organizations may also request an ambassador. This Awareness indicates that the Protestant organization is not as well unified as the Catholic organization, and that were it to become so unified, it could very well be that an ambassador to some central place of unification of the Protestant churches would also be recognized.

This Awareness indicates that in a sense it is a somewhat moot question because there is not much that can be done about this at this stage, and although it in itself can be seen as a possible opening of a door to something sinister, it is not possible to prove any sinister plot at this time, and therefore it is important that entities simply watch until there is further evidence of something sinister.

This Awareness indicates that there has been for many years, a liaison communication system between the Vatican and the government of the United States, but it has not been officially recognized. This Awareness indicates that what has occurred here is simply an official recognition of this, and the purpose being an attempt by the government to have more influence in the Vatican, an attempt by the United States government, or what may be termed this administration, the Bolsheviks in the United States, to have a greater influence in the Vatican, because in part, the Catholic church has sided in some areas with those who are on the side of parties in certain countries that are opposed to United States intervention.

This Awareness indicates specifically Nicaragua and some of the Central American states, whereby the bishops and Catholic church leaders in those areas often side with the populous movements which the United States opposes. This Awareness indicates that in order to have an influence on these Catholic priests, the United States hopes to influence the Catholic church to alter and to control these priests in a way which is more suitable to United States' policies.

This Awareness indicates it is not as much a concern of the church corrupting the government in this case as it might be a concern of the government corrupting the church. This Awareness indicates that the fact that a great number of Catholics in the United States are also voters has some bearing also on this maneuver in that the administration hopes to gain as much as possible the support of religious groups; the Catholics and the Protestants, but this action of recognizing the Catholic Vatican to the extent of officially recognizing an ambassador, is that which many Catholics will feel is the administration's sanctioning of their religion and will admire the action of the President in doing this, and thus will be inclined to vote for him.

This Awareness indicates that the question is however, whether or not this might alienate as many Protestants as Catholics, and indeed it might. This Awareness indicates that there is however, a growing Catholic population and many of these are of the level and type to be a strong voting block for the President. This Awareness indicates that many of the Protestants are unpredictable in terms of their voting. This Awareness indicates that likewise, the church, in accepting this as an official ambassador relationship, feels that there may be some value in having relationship with a large government such as the United States, for it adds to the prestige of the church to have a nation relating to it as if it were a separate empire.

This Awareness indicates that the church, as in the past, gains credibility and prestige from such connections. This Awareness indicates that there is not seen any great significance in this act alone; that if other actions follow, then indeed the action will be seen as one step of a number of steps. This Awareness indicates that it appears that the number of steps is that which is the important key; that if there are several more steps, bringing government and religion into closer reunion, then this becomes that which is of critical concern.

This Awareness indicates that it is likened unto saying: "The entity has just taken twelve steps to the East. Is there something sinister about this, since Russia lies to the East?" This Awareness indicates that the steps in themselves mean nothing, but the intent and the continuation of movement in a particular direction can become something of significance. This Awareness indicates that it could occur that this ambassadorship never amounts to anything other than communication between the Vatican and the United States. One could even argue that telephones should not link these countries, the Vatican and the United States together, in order to keep communication broken.

This Awareness indicates that in itself it means nothing of significance, but if coupled with other actions, then it can be quite meaningful. This Awareness indicates that there are of course those forces which are seeking to set up world government, and this can be an important step. This Awareness indicates however, that it may never occur that a world government under sinister conditions is set up, and therefore, this step in itself as an isolated step may never mean anything sinister.

This Awareness indicates that it is something to watch, just as one would watch if one suspected sinister action of an individual, wherein one suspected conspiracy of an individual to go and meet with another individual for some actions which entities feel may be imminent, and wherein they see this individual walk out the door in the direction of that other entity, it does bear watching to see where it goes, but in itself it does not mean anything of significance, for the entity may simply be walking out the door for some other reason, or walking in that direction for some other reason.

THE COSMIC AWARENESS SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT COURSE

Taurus: Volume 2 Lesson Number 10

QUESTION (AVATON):

Awareness, we are here today for the tenth lesson in the Correspondence Course under Taurus. The tenth lesson relating unto the actions of the individual in terms of security and the foundation that comes from the entity in terms of his or her career, and the responsibility that goes into that work in relation to the society in general, in relation to the other fellow human beings on this earth.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the action of the individual in pursuing security cannot properly be separated from the environment and the society around the entity. The integration of the entity within the environment, the society, the family, the social situation, the Universe in general, is essential to the well-being of the entity.

This Awareness indicates the previous lesson referred to the situation of the four corners: the scientific approach toward life - this being the materialistic approach whereby the entity studies the manifestation of matter, probing into this and building his or her world upon the accumulated knowledge from the probing action; the metaphysical approach whereby the entity probes into the energies of the Universe to discover the general nature of being, of manifestation; the energies of the Universe in relation to consciousness and the life force itself - the forces of suggestion of occult, the forces of control, particularly in regard to the control of forms, of entities, of shapes, and emotional and psychic forces. And the fourth corner being that force of pure being: the experiencing action of the entity who expresses the attitude of 'I Am' in relation to others, to other forces of personality, to other personifications in terms of deities, heroes, demons, of literature, religion, and society. These four corners generally can be found in any philosophy as the base of that particular philosophy, giving certain securities to the entity.

This Awareness indicates the general action of the entity is to favor one or the other of these philosophies and to ignore the others. For example, one entity may be very deeply involved in the pursuit of knowledge or the acquisition of material wealth, scientific pursuits based upon the realm of the materialistic corner. The entity may also be very much concerned about suggestion and control of others or control of his properties, or his knowledge and intellectual pursuits in terms of materialistic expressions. Or another entity may likewise be concerned with materialism but not interested in control, but rather interested in the action of being and experiencing. This entity then might choose to experience wealth, enjoy wealth, enjoy the gratifications of materialism without attempting to control anything, but simply receiving the gratifications of material experiences.

This Awareness indicates another entity may choose to focus on the action of the 'I Am' corner, the experiencing corner, but may have no interest in materialistic levels, or very little interest in this level, and may instead be very interested in the metaphysical field, whereby the experiencing of certain metaphysical energies becomes uppermost in the entity's consciousness. This entity then may go into a mystical action, may forego all physical gratifications, may become a roving and traveling mystic who does not have any roots or attachments to the material plane, but wallows in the experience of the meditative state, of feeling certain highs, certain energies, certain hallucinations, daydreams, fantasies, and these levels then become the security for that entity, wherein the entity feels insecure if the entity does not have some fantasy or hallucination or daydream or high in which to find the stability of his being.

Another entity may feel the need to have control over others, to have control over his dominion, but rather than controlling the physical world, the entity may wish to control the metaphysical realm and find himself moving into metaphysical forces for the purpose of obtaining power by which the entity can perform certain metaphysical and mystical tricks and activities for purposes of self-promotion - the promotion of self reaching those levels whereby the entity finds greater and greater control over the various forces which the entity chooses. This Awareness indicates the entity may feel the necessity to add a third factor whereby this force is used to control others, this bringing in the 'I Am' corner. Or instead of controlling others, the entity may wish to control the material plane, using the force of occultism and suggestion, along with the force of metaphysical forces aimed at physical controls and concerns.

This Awareness indicates the combination of these four corners can be in twos, can be in threes, or can be in fours, and any one corner can be dominant over the others, and any one corner can be totally ignored, and the others can be at various proportions in between. There can be the dominance of the material over the suggestion, or the suggestion force over the material, or the material force probing into the metaphysical (this relating unto such levels as the science which moves into physics, which moves into the quantum and field force physics, studying light and the energies beyond light). There can be the metaphysical forces which study into and probe into the physical realm, concerning themselves with consciousness of the atom and its parts. There can be the action of the suggestive or occult forces probing into the mysteries of the 'I Am' corner, the experiencing corner, the corner of being and all of the personifications and heroes and demons of literature, religions, and societies. Or there can be the corner of the experiencing 'I Am' society, religion, literature, heroes, moving into a transpersonative experience with the suggestive forces of the occult in order to gain understanding and experience of this corner,

This Awareness indicates these corners may be seen as the base of a pyramid which makes up a philosophy of the entity. And this philosophy may be built in a regular manner whereby all corners are given equal status, building a pyramid of ideas that are in proper proportion to one another, in perfect harmony. Or one corner can be accented and the others left without stones, whereby the entire philosophy of an entity, the entire lifestyle of an entity is built upon one of the cornerstones and the others are weak or lacking - such an entity who moves into materialistic studies without having any concern about the 'I Am' sensitivities, or the metaphysical energies, or the knowledge of the powers of suggestion: the materialist being totally wrapped up in things, and nothing else (not in the sensitivities of entities, but seeing entities only as things and forms). Or the entity may build a philosophy on the metaphysical corner, seeing everything as but energies of the Universe, not seeing anything as having any substance of material worth or value, seeing all things as being but shapes and forms, expressions of God, with no value in terms of physical worth. Or the entity may build a philosophy based around the concept of 'I Am,' and through the 'I Am' concept, identify with this or that holy creature, this or that holy being, this or that sacred hero, this or that demon, this or that concept of supreme value, or this or that fantasy in literature, and the entity may build this philosophy to such a degree that the entity actually believes himself on most levels to be one and the same as the worshipped hero. In this manner entities often identify themselves with God, with Satan, with Napoleon, with Christ, with others of great stature.

This Awareness indicates those who identify themselves with God may become a megalomaniac, particularly when they do not recognize the other entities round about as having equal status.

Those who identify themselves with some demon may become possessed by the energies that their consciousness conjures up as a symbol for that demon and experiencing the presence of that demon according to their own consciousness-conjuring - this requiring some form of exorcism.

Those other entities who become wrapped up in the concept of control, ignoring the other sides, may find themselves secure only when they have total control of the situation round about them: control of their wife or child, control of their parent, control of their friends, control of their enemies, control of their belongings, control of all that is within their realm of identification - these people also needing desperately to control themselves. These forces in those capacities of needing control may find themselves in a state of being whereby the world does not cooperate with their will and become frustrated, and as they become frustrated, they feel insecurity and struggle continuously to regain control over those aspects.

This Awareness indicates in terms of a society which moves too far into the mind force of suggestion and of materialism, this type of society very easily creates that society which brings about the 'Beast' as was mentioned in the Book of Revelation. The society which moves too far into the level of 'I Am,' the experiencing action and the metaphysical realms, can very easily create the 'Messiah' which is of such a level of experiencing that it becomes the scapegoat, victim, and the sacrificial lamb for that society.

This Awareness suggests that the society that moves too far into the materialism, coupled with the 'I Am' concept of experiencing, can move too far into the kind of society such as was indicated in Sodom and Gomorrah - the wallowing in the pleasures of the flesh.

The society which moves too far into the coupling of the metaphysical realm along with the force of suggestion of the occult can easily move into too great a level of black magic and controls, such as have been known in certain literatures and in actualities of primitive forces such as in the areas of Brazil, the South Seas, Africa, and in certain other civilized countries wherein vampirism and black magic and witchcraft existed.

This Awareness suggests that any entity who can balance all four of these corners: the material, the metaphysical, the suggestive forces of the occult, and the experiencing force of the 'I Am' corner - any entity who can balance these shall build a temple of his or her own life which shall stand.

Any entity who builds and leaves out any two of these shall build a temple which shall be likened unto a two-legged chair which shall not stand for long.

Any entity who builds a temple using any three of these shall build a temple likened unto a three-legged chair which needs constant attention and care.

Any entity who builds a temple using only one of these shall be short-changed and shall be likened unto an entity having but one leg on which to stand, needing constantly to keep balance, for the tendency is to continuously fall.

This Awareness suggests that entities pursuing careers based entirely on material conquest are likened unto the one-legged entity, the temple having only one corner. Any entity who pursues his or her career using only the suggestive forces shall find himself or herself sitting around thinking continuously, but never having accomplished anything except putting someone else on trips and keeping everyone else busy. Any entity who wallows in the concept of 'I Am' continuously, shall find his career as that of an experiencer who feels deeply but does nothing, and becomes likened unto a garbage can for all of the energies round about. And that entity may feel all of these feelings of sympathy, rage, emotion, love, kindness, hostility, frustration, but does not have the ability to work with these energies. Any entity who builds a philosophy or career based entirely on metaphysics may find himself or herself gathering all of the understanding and wisdom that is available in the Universe, but not knowing where to apply that wisdom, what to do with that wisdom, how to utilize any of what has been gathered.

This Awareness suggests that in building your career, you consider all of the aspects of being, in terms of yourself as well as in terms of your society and your environment, and ask yourself: "What does my action contribute to the world in general to help people be themselves, to help people have what they need, to help people control their lives, and to help people understand their world?" And whereby your actions and your career can contribute to these four corners for others and can encompass these four corners for yourself, your being, your possessions, your individuality, and the controls you have over your life, and the understanding and wisdom you can gain from the Universal forces - whereby your life can, and your career can give you satisfaction of these four areas and can contribute to others in these four areas, this then becomes that kind of career which is totally integrated with your being and with your society.

This Awareness indicates that the term 'society' in this instance refers not only to the people in general in your cities, in your nation, in your world, but also unto your friends, your family, your immediate associates. This Awareness suggests that as you begin pursuing certain goals, you may find yourself needing to adjust and balance. There may be times when you work on the materialistic corner, building up that corner. There may be times when you ignore the corner of materialism and work more on the experiencing level of being. You may choose for a while to be in love and have very little else on your mind or on your consciousness. You may choose for some time to work on the levels of suggestion, working with yourself and with others, discovering what it is that helps to bring about movements and changes in energies, learning how to direct others without being offensive. You may choose for a while to study and work in areas of metaphysics, studying energies of the Universe, discovering the magic that is hidden in rituals, discovering why there is such a thing as magic, discovering how rituals affect consciousness, discovering the symbolologies of Astrology, of the Tarot, of Numerology, and these other so-called 'metaphysical sciences.' You may choose for a while to study Science in certain areas, studying Physics, studying Astronomy, studying various forms of Engineering or of other physical sciences.

This Awareness suggests that in building your career and your philosophy - in building your temple which is your life, that you not go too far in any one area without checking the other corners. For entities who build only on one corner can very easily become that which is called the 'mattoid idiot' - the entity who becomes so specialized in one field, in one area only, that they are totally ignorant of all else.

This Awareness indicates that an example of a mattoid idiot in a gross form is the prehistoric dinosaur, which went so far in his direction of building up a protective shell, building great horns or tusks, building the scales - these prehistoric animals which built great bodies, great wings, and great stomachs and small heads, those animals which built themselves armored shells in order to be safe, those animals which over-specialized in one area and one area only, ignoring all other areas, those animals who were so powerful and so absolutely indestructible, suddenly were unable to cope with changes which occurred in the world and the atmosphere, simply because they were over-specialized. The heavy armor, the lack of food to feed their large bodies, the small brain and small head that could not think or cope with the changes - those animals then became extinct to some degree.

This Awareness indicates that there are many mattoid idiots living in human bodies at this time: idiots who are specialized, who are geniuses in one area and one area only, yet totally idiots in all other areas, retarded in all other areas. There are entities who have no being, who have pure reasoning with little substance or feeling. There are entities who have so much feeling they cannot think, they cannot reason, they cannot do anything but feel, cry, and express their emotions. There are idiots who are geniuses in terms of powers of suggestion and control, but have no inclination as to what their own real potential is. All they can do is direct others, and they themselves cannot accomplish any form of art, any form of metaphysical or mystical insight, and cannot themselves bring about any form of material creation.

There are those who are so wrapped up in the material world that they see everything as matter, and nothing in terms of feeling, in terms of the Universal forces, or in terms of control of their life. They simply see themselves as being that which matters, and whatever they can get from the other entity is fair play to them.

This Awareness suggests that you not let yourself become a mattoid idiot. For in so doing, you may find yourself growing higher and higher, building a Tower of Babel toward the highest and best - building a Tower of Babel toward the heaven you seek, only to find that your tower collapses and falls and leaves you with nothing but a remembrance and a feeling of frustration, and heavy karma which must be cleaned up before you can build again.

This Awareness suggests this as the completion of the tenth lesson of the Taurus sign, relating unto security in regards to your career.

This Awareness suggests that your career can only be secure when the corners are satisfied.

SOME OF THE SECRETS OF FREEMASONRY ARE RELEASED

(CAC Member in Holland Sends a Letter)

Capelle a/d IJssel, Netherlands, January 5, 1994

Dear Vikki, Avaton and Paul,

First I would like to thank you for asking my questions to Awareness; it solved a couple of my questions in a very clear way.

For the few Dutch people I know who are getting more and more interested in all this information about extraterrestrials, the New World Order etc. (but who don't read English unfortunately) I translated Awareness' answer in Dutch. I also did the same with issue no. 425 "How are we all doing, gang?" I think this was a very interesting piece of information and it made me - amongst others - well aware again that "thoughts are things", that every action initiate its own reaction.

At the moment I am gathering more information about Freemasonry, -as I want to be able to understand better how the New World Order ideas were born and on what kind of fundaments they were built. To start with I read "The Holy Blood and The Holy Grail", "The Messianic Legacy" and "The Temple and The Lodge", three excellent books by Michael Baigent e.a. I also found a rather interesting article, in which a former Freemason gives some Inside information about the Freemasons. Of course I don't know if this is all "old news" to you or if you re interested, but I still enclose my translation of this article for your information.

I am also trying to gather information about the Rothschild family, which appears not to be so easy. They apparently kept themselves very much to themselves and the available information I found until now is rather general, like in Jewish biography books. Facts that turned up again in every book I found until now was that the Rothschilds were: very intelligent, shrewd, secretive, careful and hard working. Also that straight from the beginning (with Mayer Amschel Rothschild, 1744-1812, who founded the house of Rothschild) they were able to 'think big': they more or less turned away from their own people and directed all their energy towards the nobility and royalty. Although they were outcasts, living in a Jewish ghetto in Frankfurt, they gained the confidence of the upper class and were allowed to handle the financial affairs of kings and governments. Especially this last fact turned up many times; it appears that the Rothschild bankers since Mayer Amschel were - financially - involved in every important event in Europe, like wars and economic crises.

Soon I intend to visit the huge Freemason's library in The Hague. Perhaps I will find something about the Rothschilds in there, as I would like to find out whether (some of) the Rothschilds were Freemasons.

Well that's all for now! Erna in the Netherlands.

Freemasonry Article

"Initiated participant of Worldwide Secret Society tells tales! Many Freemasons don't know that they belong to a secret religion with gruesome plans" by William Morgan. (An article from the "Willem de Ridder" newspaper, Alexander Boersstraat 30, 1071 KZ Amsterdam, The Netherlands, tel. 020-6792620, November 1993).

"My name is William Morgan and since I infiltrated the Freemasons I have reached the 32th grade of their 'Scottish Rite of the Southern Jurisdiction'. This is one of the highest grades. Officially it is only possible to reach the 33rd grade. I suspect though that it is possible to get even higher, but I am not sure. I know a man called Reverend Jim Shaw, who is still in that 33rd grade. He told me that when he got that grade another man took part in the ceremony, who told him that he would rise even higher because he adhered to the 'Lucifer' teachings of the organization.

The God of Christianity Not Allowed in Freemasonry

Freemasons believe in light. This is a very important part of their whole ritual. Light represents for them knowledge and also intellect. If you know anything about their "Mystery School of Broadcast" then you also know that the God of the intellect is Lucifer. The name Lucifer means actually "bearer of light". 'Luce' means light. That is the real God of the Freemasons, the God for which I have, to my disgrace, kneeled down as well and took my blood oath in their temple. However, when I did this I had no idea that it was not the God of Christianity.

Officially in Freemasonry their God is the same as the God of the Christians, the Hindus, Arabs etcetera. But later I found out that this is a lie, a complete deceit, because you only have to study the history of paganism, the nature-religions and the mystery-schools of Babylon to discover who their God really is. So that God is Lucifer, or Satan, who according to the tradition was thrown out of heaven because he, just like most Freemasons, tried to be 'God' himself. That is what they believe, that by means of the right kind of 'work' they are able to be God themselves, or even better than God. For them no deliverance of sins exists, for them there is no remorse. According to them humanity is never separated from God, but we are equal to God or even better than God. In the Garden of Eden man became separated from God. Lucifer told Eve that she only had to eat the apple from the tree of knowledge and man would become again like God himself.

Of course I don't mind if they kneel for any God they like, but what shocked me was that the ultimate purpose of this powerful, worldwide organization is to establish a New World Order. They try to control and to manipulate the world population in such a way that one totalitarian, socialist world government and one world religion are established, lead by Lucifer, who is personified by a world leader from their circles.

Freemasonry is a Religion and Lucifer is Their God

You only need to read the book "Morals and Dogma" of Freemason Albert Pike. He mentions it clearly: "Freemasonry is a religion and Lucifer is their God", but most Freemasons are not aware of this though. Most members of the lodges in the United States are Christians and they think that Freemasonry is based on this religion. But they have a strict law that forbids discussions about politics or religion in a lodge. One is not allowed to talk about Christianity. In the lodge of which I was a member, a police commissioner once made this glaring error. When asked to who he gave his trust he answered: "To the Lord Jesus Christ". Since that day they put him on the sidelines and he was excluded from many important activities that helped me to my high grade. He will never again make any advance. Also I have never heard the name of Jesus Christ mentioned again, not in a single lodge or in any one of their publications. It looks like that name hurts to their ears.

Still, everybody may become a member of the Freemasons, also if you are Jewish, a Muslim etcetera, all religions that directly oppose the religion of the Freemasons. Reason for this is that most Freemasons have no idea that they are member of a religion. One simply doesn't talk about it. Still they kneel in their 'temple' before an altar, just like in any other church, they take a blood oath with the Bible in their hands (in other cultures with the Koran or so) and they are compelled to keep a respectful silence in every lodge everywhere in the world.

However, the real initiates think they are the priests of a new world order. When everything else falls apart they will rise triumphant from the ashes and save the world by establishing one central world government with their Lucifer as God. They see themselves since thousands of years as builders, the constructors of this new world order (you can count on it that even at this very moment they are busy building that prison for us) and can see the corner stitch of that brick-layed building by them is Lucifer. Have a look at the U.S. one dollar bill, which was designed by Freemasons. Above the pyramid is a triangle, in which an eye is shown, the symbol of light, or Lucifer. Originally it was a sun, but later this was changed into an eye, so that Christians might believe that it is the eye of God. Here I have a badge, presented to Freemasons, which also shows the all-seeing eye, including the beams: the symbol of wisdom, knowledge and intellect, the Lucifer doctrine, the light, the fallen angel, in short an ancient sun religion.

Part of this blood oath says that under no condition and under penalty of death you are allowed to give away the secrets of the lodge to third parties, but when you become a member they don't tell you any real secrets. I have asked quite a few direct questions and every time they looked me straight into the eyes and told me that they couldn't tell me. The reason why I tell tales is because their contract isn't worth a cent. They have fooled me, lied to me and misled me. As they made me swear a solemn oath for me to keep my mouth shut, then according to me they are obliged to observe their part of the oath. However, if they ignore this obligation then I also don't think that I have to feel obliged to keep silence.

Their New World Order is a betrayal to the whole world population, which they consider to be inferior. They have abandoned their country, their family and their world. They live a lie and it will turn out to be completely different than they think now. They are the same as some policemen in America, who begin to view their fellow countrymen like enemies. They misuse their authority, like the Freemasons misuse their protection and privileges, until their construction collapses and they will be swallowed by it themselves.

As an initiated freemason your career is made.

Although most members are kept in the dark and hardly try to reach a higher rank, many consider themselves as 'enlightened'. What they mean by this is not clear to me: They have that secret smile on their face and usually they talk about the rest of the world, the non-members, as being profane. Once I heard a story from a friend that I will never forget. His father was a member of the lodge and had a friend, who earned well enough by means of his small company in the village he lived in. He was not a member of the lodge though. At a certain moment it became clear that lodge-members conspired against him. They actually succeeded in botching his business, so that a Freemason was able to buy it. The boy found out that his father was involved. Then when he honestly asked his father why he had done this to his friend, his father replied: "If you are not one of us, you are nothing".

I even saw families being disrupted by lodge-intrigues. They look down on the world as unenlightened and by means of their rituals they see themselves set out for a divine state of being. Therefore they are also very racist.

Women and coloured people are not welcome in a Lodge. Coloured people have their own lodges. I, as a white master, are able to join any lodge in the world, also the black ones. But a coloured person will not even consider trying to join a white lodge. It simply isn't done. So, the black masons are co-builder to a new world order, that will be racist through and through. The reason why they fall into the trap with open eyes is the attraction of a secret society. The world just simply loves secrets. You can keep an interesting secret just like a carrot in front of their noses and they will run after it, into any direction you choose.

Being a member of a lodge means that you are better than the others, higher, part of an important group, that makes decisions for society. Greed and ambition play an important role, also with coloured people. Although they will never be able to rise as high as the white Freemasons, they are satisfied with being better than their own people. They belong to an elite and enjoy to look down on others, which attracts every human being. That is why there are lodges all around the world for all races and they flourish everywhere.

I had a friend who was a member of a lodge, but who never tried to persuade me to become a member. At a certain moment I just knocked at a temple door and said that I wanted to join them. This was possible and I joined the blue lodge or the mother lodge, where every new Freemason starts. If you see a chance to become third grade 'master' of the blue lodge then you can become an 'officer'. For some this may take even ten years. When you have accomplished that you may join the Yorkish Rite or the Scottish Rite. It is like being on a crossroads. The Scottish Rite is the most popular and by far out the most powerful section. The Yorkish Rite has seven grades and the highest grade is called Templar Knight. As you As you can see, the Knight Templars still haven't died yet.

The reason why you have to go through all these grades is because you have to cover a 'road', a way to your eventual enlightenment. I personally think that this so-called road is more of a control system for their way of self-government.

All Masonic Lodges in U.S. are Independent of the Law

Lodges in America are rather unique. They are independent of the law and have their own legislation and way of punishment. All lodges received this privilege from the 'Grand Lodge' and every Grand Lodge in the country received this privilege from the government itself to enact their own laws independently and to maintain them in a strict way. In case for instance a policeman would enter the temple at the time a session is held, he is not allowed to arrest anybody present at that time. By the way, in case such a thing would occur, the lodge would close immediately. By the way, very many higher ranking policemen and army men are members. Please note that in fact they are placed above the law and they received that privilege from the government itself.

An incredible case. The fact is that a secret and subversive organization has a kind of diplomatic status. An organization, whose members often hold important executive positions in urban, state and national administrations but also in the army and in industry. To my knowledge every country in the world in which lodges are found has given such a protection to the Freemasons. I don't know enough about it to know the exact contents of these privileges.

Police Seldom Give a Freemason a Ticket

I myself am still rather young and I have a Freemason sticker on my car. Regularly I am being stopped by the police when I drove too fast or dashed through a red traffic light. Then when I get my wallet out and show them my membership card of the lodge, the 'storm' blows over quickly. Up 'til now I never got a ticket. You might say that the laws in America are meant for everybody, except for the Freemasons. Of course they have to deal with these laws, but in another way than we think. They benefit more of them while the rest is subdued to them.

Secret Signs Used in Court to Identify a Freemason

When a Freemason appears in court in a case against a profane, non-member, he has all kinds of secret signs to his proposal. This is a deep secret they want to keep above all means. You may assume a certain pose, you can hold your arms in a certain way, you may say certain words like "Widow Son", keywords or certain sentences that make it clear to the judge that you also belong to a lodge. You can do this with an easy mind because not one single judge is able to rely on a long term career if he is not a Freemason.

The Name Mister "Hiram Abiff" Used as a Signal

Hiram Abiff is a kind a patron saint who the Freemasons got from the Bible and this word is used frequently to identify each other. When you call a company and you ask for the unattainable manager after you identified yourself as Mister Hiram Abiff, this man doesn't know how fast to get to the phone (if he belongs to the lodge). When asking somebody if he is a "Traveling Man" then he knows that you are a member of a lodge. They mean by this that you travel from the west to the east, which originates from the Knight Templars. The east is the original well of knowledge or illumination and where the sun ascends. Eventually all these secret societies descend from the ancient sun religions. If you are a 'Traveling Man' all doors will open for you.

Secret Handshakes and the Way You Stand are Signals

During the first three grades the way you shake hand is a means to identify each other. A Freemason doesn't shake hands in the ordinary way but places his thumb at the third knuckle of the right hand of the person he shakes hands with. This means that he belongs to the third grade. The first and second knuckle are the first two grades, but they are rarely used. When the other person also puts his thumb on the relevant knuckle, then you know you are safe. You will recognize such a handshake immediately, you cannot miss it. In this way, you see, it is not possible to give a full hand, like most people do. It becomes more like a weak hand. Such a handshake takes a bit longer than usual to give you the chance to answer to his sign.

Also the way you stand may betray that you are a Freemason. Normally you stand with your feet a bit apart but a master stands with his heels pressed together while his feet form a right angle. This is called 'The Step'. During the initiation the master must also stand this way. An apprentice places his heel against the middle part of his other foot and thus forms the letter T.

There Are Recognizing and Punishment Signals for all Grades

There are also hand signals. The first grade puts the left hand in the side with the palm turned outwards, while the right hand with the palm turned inwards rests a bit above the left hand in the other side. Next there is the 'Penal' sign. With your right hand you make a sign as if your neck from ear to ear is cut open. At the second grade you make with your right hand as a claw the sign as if your chest is being torn apart. This was the punishment for betraying the secrets of the second grade: you were cut open and your heart and bile were taken out to be fed to the animals on the land and the birds in the sky; this is written down in the text of their oath. I could go on and on. There are recognizing- and punishment-signals for every grade. The third grade makes the gesture like your middle is torn in two pieces and the body is cut in half. This kind of signals are being made continually in the lodges. They are a deep secret and they are a means to help each other everywhere.

Freemasons Swear to Defend all Other Members

During taking the oath a Freemason swears to defend all other members under all circumstances and to help with all problems, apart from treason and murder of course. But even traitors to their country will not be automatically reported by their fellow Freemasons. They always have a choice, they are not obliged and will usually not even worry about it. Every Freemason holding an important position (which is quite often the case) will usually only hire and appoint colleagues. Even stronger, when he appoints a non-member he could get serious troubles with his lodge.

America has been invented and established by Freemasons and they controlled the country from the beginning. Since its establishment it was the Freemason's aim to appoint a totalitarian, socialist world government in a new world order. I have heard high ranked Freemasons say that America is a "Mason Nation", a Freemasonsland and I have also read this in many of their publications. For them America is "The Great Experiment" and the question is of course, for what? The 'Coca-Colonization' of the world is in full speed ahead.

Hitler, Stalin, Churchill and Truman Were Freemasons.

New World Order Plans Public Executions

Winston Churchill, Harry Truman and Stalin were all three Freemasons of the 33rd degree. They decided after the second world war in Yalta the destiny of Europe and we know how much misery this has brought to Europe. Duke Ellington, Henry Ford, Benjamin Franklin, Clark Gable, John Glenn, Edgar Hoover, all famous Freemasons. The inventor of the guillotine, Joseph Getty, also was a member. If the New World Order becomes a fact, executions will again become public. The secret societies believe in blood penalty. You can only do penance by carrying out their 'work' or by shedding your blood. Nothing is more gruesome than to see a head fall off its trunk and the bloodbath that follows it. It will be used as a frightening example to intimidate the population. In fact they are of course ritual human sacrifices to Lucifer.

George Washington, James Monroe, Andrew Jackson, Ted Roosevelt, Franklin Roosevelt, Lyndon Johnson, Gerald Ford, George Bush, Ronald Reagan, Bill Clinton, a random selection of American presidents who all were (are) Freemasons. Even John Wayne was one of them. The list is endless and full of world famous names.

How the Freemasons Used Famous Names

You understand that in no way I intend to belittle the great deeds of these people. Some of them were members of honor, for the greater glory of a society of which they honestly believed that it was a Christian, philanthropic brotherhood for top talents, that was all they knew about it. Famous names are a good means for public relations for a secret society. Most people think that if such famous people are a member, nothing can be wrong with such a group. Not every celebrity was that innocent though. Giuseppe Mazzini (1805-1872), the famous patriot, who stood at the cradle of Italy, was friendly with and corresponded a lot with the world leader at that time of the Freemasons, Albert Pike, one of the founders of the Ku Klux Klan and a Freemasons-department called Scottish Rite, from which the ADL (Anti-Defamation-League, a group of Jewish people) operates. At the moment there is a large-scale investigation going on for the ADL because it is suspected of espionage within the government. They even have embezzled complete reports and files of the police and the government and leaked information to secret societies and the state of Israel.

You always hear that the Jews are somewhere behind something, or the Arabs, the blacks, the immigrants etcetera. Don't believe it. Most people, regardless of the colour of their skin, are ordinary people like you and me, who want to live in peace. But there are elements in organizations and people belonging to all ethnic groups, all different religions, governments, corporations that belong to the secret societies. The Jews have been used for ages as scapegoats. The Freemasons and other secret societies are racist. They believe that the white race is superior, they have established the state of Israel and keep Zionism alive and well. The main weapon they use against us is the 'divide and rule' method. They incite us, and while we fight each other they unnoticeably shackle us forever. But if we do our homework and pay a little bit of attention, they are prospectless.

Hitler Destroyed Freemasons Along With Jews Etc.

Their secret societies are a kind of shield against us, but it won't protect them forever. It is not at all difficult to find out who financed Adolf Hitler: the Freemasons. The same Freemasons though, that he rounded up and destroyed, together with the gypsies, the homosexuals and the Jews, as soon as he gained power. He knew exactly how dangerous they were and he destroyed their whole, powerful protective network with branches in all administrative organs in Germany and Austria. A tragic event, which destroyed the organization over there and which clearly illustrated that in the end you cannot build on them, as so many of our leaders think they should do.

Their system is simple: conflict brings changes. They cause time and time again conflicts so as to bring about any changes they can think of. Because of these conflicts most people scream for a solution and usually that is exactly the solution they had in mind. They then only have to propose this solution and it is accepted gracefully and without a struggle. Conflicts usually originate because of two (or more) battling parties, that stand right opposite one another. But usually they are all Freemasons and thus you can call it a controllable conflict with controllable solutions.

All Political and Religious Factions Have Been Deceived

Until now we have been deceived: Democrats and Republicans, Capitalism and Communism, left and right, Islam against Christianity, forget it. At the highest level both parties belong to the same secret organization. They run no risk whatsoever. With every solution that is being brought up, more of our freedoms are being thrown out of the window. At the end all secret societies descend from the same ancient sun religion. The Maltese Knights, the Rosecrusians, the Knight Templars, the Freemasons, whatever they call themselves, at the top they are finally one and the same organization. Pagans according to the Christian church.

When Stalin was in power, he knew exactly who took care of this and how powerful they were, so he forbade all lodges and Freemasonry. He himself was of the 33rd grade and took no single risk that their machinations, that helped him up, would undermine his position again. As soon as the-Berlin Wall fell Freemasons were the first to storm in and soon there were lodges in St. Petersburg, Moscow and other cities.

The Secret Word "Mahaban" Whispered During an Embrace

When two adult men embrace now there is a chance that they whisper the word MAHABAN in the other's ear. I don't know what it means, it is Hindu, but it is used extensively by the Freemasons to recognize and favor each other. They also wear a ring which shows a compass in a square background. All career-doors will open, that would be closed for a non-member.

Pres. Kennedy Ritually Murdered by Freemasons

Again, most Freemasons will hardly be able to believe what I have revealed here. They have no idea, they think that I am trying to smear something beautiful and they will surely deny it all. They can't do anything else because they have sworn a solemn oath never to 'betray' anything. Yet it is not that difficult to find out about the information that I have been able to study. There are plenty of books and sufficient articles published. President Kennedy was one of the few presidents who wasn't a Freemason. He was ritually murdered right in front of a Freemasons temple at Dealey Plaza in Dallas, Texas by the secret society.
