OPENING MESSAGE:

MORE ON THE ANGELIC REALM

COSMIC AWARENESS:

At this time, this Awareness has an opening statement, comments in relation to a matter discussed the day before in the last session that was held. This is in relation to the question concerning the angelic realm, presented by Mary Joyce Skinner, from Louisiana. The angelic realm was defined by this Awareness as of two natures; that being the original angelic beings, the energy beings that were the prototype for angels and the angelic realm that became understood to be so, that is currently held in such high esteem, and in high respect, and is playing such a significant role for so many as they are shifting their consciousness and awareness and opening up to the multidimensional levels of reality.

This realm of the angelic is very much part of the upper echelons of consciousness and that those original energy beings that were the prototype of the creation of the angelic realm, in a Christianized version, are very much of that higher dimensional reality, that have chosen, over the countless eons, to participate in the workings and affairs of mankind. Many cultures have had stories of these angelic beings, these stories of course preceding and predating the modern understanding of the angelic realm.

This Awareness has spoken of this previously. What It wishes to re-emphasize at this point is that the angelic realm that is held now, that is the derivation of the original energies, is indeed a very real realm. Originally, when this Awareness began answering this question, It chose to present the information in such a way as to shock, to shake up, to create thought on this matter, so that those who would hold simply to the truth of the angelic realm as it is held at this time, would think deeper on this matter. This Awareness feels that It has achieved that purpose and goal. At this point however, It does wish to confirm that the angelic form, as it is held at this time by most who would hold to such a concept and belief, is entirely valid.

An Update on Saint Twinkle

The beliefs, and the energizing of those beliefs over the countless centuries and the thousands of years that this hierarchical order has been around and has been presented to humanity, has created a real realm of the angelic that does embody the Archangels, the Seraphim, and the levels of the common ranks: the angels themselves. At the time when It spoke earlier, this Awareness wished to mention the concept of Saint Twinkle, that force this Awareness presented many years ago, with the explanation that if Saint Twinkle was energized, it would indeed become a real force, a real energy, that it would hold validity and be valid.

The members did energize that energy known as Saint Twinkle, and there is indeed a true Saint Twinkle out there now, even though it has not been spoken of in recent times. Still, there is an energy stream of consciousness that does now exist, and this only through the limited qualification that was given to it by the energizing of the concept of Saint Twinkle. Imagine if you will, how the angelic realm, as it is now held, which has been subject to the energizing beliefs that have been held for so long is at this time, how it is a true level of consciousness, a true angelic realm that has validity, that does intercede into the affairs of humanity.

It is now possible to call upon Archangel Michael or Raphael, Gabriel, and all of the other archangels: the Seraphim, and the angels themselves. Often, that concept of the angels was also something that would address that which this Awareness calls the High Self, so that each person would seem to have a guardian angel, which of course express the High Self. This again shows the validity of the concept of angels. If each and every one understands that their High Self is the same as their guardian angel, or vice versa: their guardian angel is their High Self, then it is possible for each and every person to have a personal experiencing of an angel, and thus tie in to the angelic realm.

This Awareness simply wished to make it clear that even though the second understanding of the angelic realm is a byproduct of the original energies of the prototype of the beings that this Awareness described as the original angels, it is nonetheless a very real realm of consciousness, and is accessible to those who would work with angels and choose to connect to the angelic realm. This Awareness simply wished to make this clear at this time, and It is now prepared to move forward with today's question.

How Can We Deal With Terrorist Fanatics?

QUESTIONER:

Excellent. This new multitude of questions (I couldn't tell you how many!) are from Larry Kell in Indiana. He writes: "This seems rather extreme. When terrorists openly command anyone believing a different religion to convert to theirs or be destroyed, are we to let them just take over? Are we to look the other way when parents are making their children walking bombs. Are we to make for more children to be turned into fanatics, believing they will get virgins in heaven after exploding themselves and all other people nearby? How are we to deal with terrorists who have been setting off bombs in many places over the past years?"

I have heard from several sources that Saddam H. used to deal with his political adversaries by running them through industrial shredding machines while they were alive. How do you protect yourself from fanatics who believe from soon after birth that they are the only holy people on the planet, and everyone else needs to convert and be ruled by them or be killed? How can you reason with fanatics who believe they are following orders from their god? Look at all the battles between our political parties where the future existence of our country and our freedoms take a second place to the greed and hunger for power some of our elected representatives have?

The uncontrolled influx of illegal immigrants is one example. The apparent permanent dependence on foreign oil is another. We can't even deal with our own fellow citizens diplomatically for our own protection in Washington DC, so how are we going to talk terrorists out of trying to kill us? Does the Awareness have any answers to these questions?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does indeed have answers to those questions presented, but It does not wish to answer the specific questions, for this Awareness holds that the questions themselves allude to a belief system that allows such to be so, that sees that there is conflict and that these terrorists could inflict upon those who are innocent, their own beliefs and force those who do not believe to either switch to those beliefs or be punished for being heathens, for being those who are non-believers.

This is a template that has been held throughout mankind's history, of one group or faction holding sway over another, forcing others to believe as they do, and not to do so would be punishable by torture and by death. This is simply a modern-day version of that which has been a strong reality in human consciousness for so long. This Awareness does not wish to talk further on that matter in that regard. It wishes rather, to suggest that one needs to believe beyond the box of that set of beliefs that would hold this so.

Learn to Think Beyond the Belief System Box

In other words, do not believe that one would necessarily encounter a terrorist at any time in one's life, or that even hearing the reports of terrorist activities necessarily has a personal application. Instead, begin to create a new reality, a new belief in a higher order, one that does not support such actions. One can be aware of what is happening in the world. One does not necessarily need to energize it, support it, or believe in it. It is necessary to see that these are fabrications of those who would control the beliefs of humanity, of the different countries and nations of the world, and the peoples of those nations and countries for their own benefit.

This of course is in reference to those Elites who have power, who control. This Awareness suggests that it is necessary to go beyond that belief system, that box that would capture one as a prisoner to that system, that would keep one in that system. While it is true that these terrorists have these erroneous beliefs, this Awareness points out that holding that there is such a system, that this exists, is in itself a belief system that it is so, and it is this belief system that must be broken and severed, and disconnected from. It must be broken through so that entities, although aware that many hold such beliefs, does not ensure that they themselves are subject to it, or prisoner to those beliefs.

That is why this Awareness suggests that the entity Larry Kell starts thinking beyond the box. He has presented brilliantly the old paradigms, the old beliefs, the old proofs that this does exist, but has he freed himself from that energy that supports such beliefs, that supports such apparent actions that are out there? Can he see beyond the box? Can he envision a world that he himself will experience free from those levels of antagonism an terrorism, where he sees the possibility of a world freed from the old paradigms, the old thoughts, the old patterns of belief and behavior, that sees the terrorists themselves turning in the weapons, that sees those government terrorists, those agencies, that instead of strapping bombs onto the chests of those who would martyr themselves, sends their sons and daughters into conflict where they will be maimed? This too is a form of terrorism; but can this entity Larry Kell see beyond that, and understand that those who participate are in agreement to that belief system which is why they choose to participate, why they choose to experience this?

This applies to all who hold that this is the reality, that this is how it is. While it is unfashionable to say that it is necessary to believe that which is beyond the thoughts, still this is true. To break free and to break through of the old beliefs, one must by necessity hold new beliefs, alternative beliefs that will eventually replace those old beliefs and systems, those old paradigms.

Awareness Offers Larry Kell a Challenge

This Awareness offers up a challenge to the entity Larry Kell to go beyond the box, to see that those questions he asks are only valid if he holds to that belief system that supports such a reality, and it is perhaps time for him to truly work hard at letting go those beliefs and attitudes that support the old paradigms and the old beliefs.

This Awareness feels complete with the question, even though It chose not to answer the specifics of this individual.

Is Sherlock Holmes as We Imagine Him Accessible to Us in a Physical Way?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) This one is three questions, and it comes from Millie Pineiro, from Tucson, Arizona. "The channeled entity Bashar, channeled through Darryl Anka and others, once said that we can't imagine anything unless it exists somewhere. He also said that his interdimensional spaceship was attuned to his mind and enabled him to imagine or attune to where he wanted to go, and then to be there. So, question #1: If we've invented or imagined someone or something, such as "Sherlock Holmes" for example, it must mean that we are "close" to them in vibration, since we've invented them into our ideas and thoughts. Since each person would think of "Holmes" and his home in a slightly different way, there must be many versions of him in existence. Does our imagining him mean that his dimension (or actual place of existence, if any) can naturally be easily accessible to us in a physical way?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes the name of the entity presenting the question to be repeated at this time.

Q) Millie Pineiro.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the entity Millie Pineiro has indeed struck an interesting chord; the chord of probable realities based on beliefs, and imaginations. This is a theme for this day that this Awareness started on in Its original discussion of the beliefs that have created the angelic realm known by so many, that which this Awareness chooses to call the Christian Angelic Realm or that Christianized version. This entity has suggested that there is a validity or a reality that exists because one holds the belief in a person, a concept, a thing, such as the belief that Sherlock Holmes truly exists.

For Sherlock Holmes even to have been created in the first place suggests that he or that concept of the super sleuth, the super detective, must have been held at a vibrational level that was close to human understanding and awareness. What is also true is that the original author, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, in his imagination of the character Sherlock Holmes, was able to paint a picture through his books, through his words, that others could energize by the reading of those words, and in energizing it, (not that they believed the reality of Sherlock Holmes) simply were putting energy into this fictional character, thus creating this fictional character on some level.

To read the words would be to put one into the energies that consciousness holds of that fictional character known as Sherlock Holmes, that mass consciousness now holds to be so, but in an unusual and curious way, because it has always been seen and understood that Sherlock Holmes is a fictional character, so that while his reality and the reality of the constructed landscape that would have been Sherlock Holmes and his environment and background at the time is fictional, it does indeed exist on one level of consciousness, in one of the many many planes of consciousness that exist.

Had the suggestion been made that the writings of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle were based on a real character, a real personality known as Sherlock Holmes, that this would have created a slightly different belief in those who read the novels and the books, who read the words of the author, and this would have created a more tangible reality for many, versus a fictionalized reality that many hold. It is very possible for humans to be vastly entertained by a fictional reality that is as real in the mind as the reality viewed first hand, a reality of personal experience.

Often for some, there is very little to distinguish imagined reality versus experienced personal reality, and many would escape into fantasy and into fiction as a way of relieving themselves from a harsh reality that they would rather not be part of. Television and movies are also part of this escape process. The truth of the reality as being real is an interesting concept and does indeed have validity. It is simply a different validity than the validity created around, let us say, an angelic realm that is believed to intercede on behalf of humanity, that many are now starting to experience more and more.

If enough people came together and believed Sherlock Holmes' reality was accessible, and was interceding and interacting with every day humans and their lives, then this could start to occur, but because it is held as a fictional creation, it is unlikely that this will be experienced. This Awareness asks if the question and questions have been answered sufficiently, or if there is more that needs to be elaborated on.

QUESTIONER:

There's two more questions that go into this same theme, from Millie.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Please proceed.

ARE THERE PORTALS IN THE UNIVERSE?

(More on how Jesus Ascended and Descended)

QUESTION:

Are there portals in the universe where people can physically enter any dimension they imagine and retain their physical form, for return to this one? Or, will we simply attain the ability or the technology of the ship referred to above?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes first to talk of the first part of the question; of portals or gateways being available; that one could physically pass through to go to any other dimensional reality or strata. This Awareness says that this is in the affirmative. Such portals do exist, and there are enough human stories of events and circumstances where people literally disappear, or planes or boats or other transports disappear. The Bermuda Triangle is of course the most famous of the interdimensional portals, but the suggestion is that this is simply an open doorway, through which individuals and these modes of transports may inadvertently pass through and be swallowed up by.

Jesus Used a Portal for His Resurrection

This does not infer a conscious choice of where one would wish to go, but that these do exist is in the affirmative. To the question presented however, the conscious opening of such portals, with a conscious direction to other dimensional realities is one that would require a much higher degree of spiritual evolution and consciousness to attain. It is indeed possible that there are those who have achieved this, who can do this. Often those who are known as the Ascended Masters, those who were Avatars, such as the Buddha, Krishna, even Jesus himself, were able to do this. It is seen at this point that the entity known as Jesus Christ did exactly this when he left the dimensional reality, when his transmutation happened, that process rather, where after the crucifixion, he returned to heaven.

He did so in full physical form, because it was understood how this could happen, how he could do this, and thus he was an Ascended Master, who, understanding the rules and laws of such processes, was able to employ those rules and laws and understanding so that he could step from one dimensional reality back into another. This is, in light of what the entity has asked, what happened. He did have conscious understanding and awareness of how to step through a portal and re-enter another dimensional zone. Most people have not yet quite reached that level of competence and that place of spiritual understanding and awareness, so it is unlikely that most humans at this time will be able to do so, to step through a dimensional portal consciously, with full awareness of what they are doing and where they are directing themselves.

Such an activity and event could happen accidentally, is indeed very possible, as this Awareness has already spoken to, but that level of conscious manipulation of such portals is still in a place of evolution towards such an event being much more common than it is now. That it is a precedent that is held by humanity as a possibility, does make it something that humanity is striving towards and will one day reach, but at this point, this Awareness sees that this is very limited indeed.

This Awareness wishes to be told the second part of the question.

QUESTION:

Or will we simply attain the ability or the technology of the ship referred to above?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness again affirms this will be so. Humanity will attain this ability. It may use technical methods to achieve this, but the basic principle is that it now understands how to access those portals and to make use of them.

QUESTION:

What would some of the benefits be of visiting, if possible, such a dimension physically, and interacting with one of the actual entities who is imagined by one of us. (Possibly the ultimate in future entertainment?) (Come to think of it, I heard once that many ladies had a Darth Vader fantasy (understandably) after his character came out, and I personally know of a Shrek fantasy (no names).

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests there is much humor in the questions presented as the energizer herself found them highly amusing and entertaining, and this Awareness applauds this, for this is a humorous understanding and concept of the vast potential held by mankind, by men and women, who could, once it is understood that they are truly creator beings, create many opportunities, many fantasies, many imaginations that have reality, that are valid in a "real" sense.

Indeed, life itself, and all that is on the physical plane of things is but a fantasy, a fantasization of a reality that is there. It is forgotten that it is imagined. There is a Sanskrit word, the word being Maya, which is the word for illusion, and reality is illusion, but we give ourselves to the illusion, and when individuals give themselves to that illusion, then they become lost in that illusion. It becomes real.

It's Possible to Create Many Forms of Reality

What this entity is presenting to this Awareness and to the membership, is the possibility that we could, for the benefit of our own entertainment and our enjoyment, create realities that are commonly held as fictional fantasies, but nonetheless valid. It is indeed possible to create many many many forms of realities. There are as many realities available as there are individuals to imagine those realities. It is mass consciousness holding multiple agreements that creates the mass conscious reality that many experience at this time. What the entity is suggesting is that perhaps it would be possible to create those realms based on one's desire, that could also be so, and this Awareness holds this to be so. There is no limitation on what can be imagined, and thus, experienced.

Consciousness is the key here. That which is defined as reality has a physical component to it, but consciousness is not confined itself to merely the physical, even if this is one of the illusional fantasies or beliefs that are held. Indeed, it is possible to travel into the realms of Victorian England and to experience the environment that the sleuth Sherlock Holmes experienced in his adventures. It is possible to travel back to ancient Roman times and to be part of the Roman centurions, or to be a gladiator in the arenas, or to be a slave to a Roman senator. Those would be realities that once envisioned and energized could be experienced.

Many levels, many realities could be experienced if and when an individual puts the energy forward to imagine such and to experience such. This indeed opens a great cauldron of possibilities. This pot of possibilities is always shimmering and simmering and can be dipped into at any time. It is highly humorous to take the journey so seriously, when, as suggested by the questioner himself, it does not have to be a serious journey. To remember this will help lighten the load as many experience the realities of today and step beyond the box that would define the present gruesome situation and introduce light-heartedness and humor again.

This would indeed be a very recommendable thing to do, and to remember to lighten things up, to know that the reality one experiences is the reality one chooses to experience and it is possible to switch the focus and energize other levels of truth, other realities. This Awareness feels complete in Its answering of this question, although It does certainly understand there is much more to this concept that It will speak on at other times.

A WARNING OF BAD TIMES TO COME

QUESTION:

(Thank you) This next question is from Avaton. It's an Internet article posted by Socrate on the Surfacing the Apocalypse Network. "Bad Time To Come. Severe Warning." A severe warning to all. I am very serious about this. As many of you know, I have spent many years analyzing Earth's planetary climate and the real causes of climatic change and severe weather. I put much of my research in my book "Bouleversements Climatiques" which many of you may not have read or understood because it is written in French. I have taken much ridicule over the years because of my research and findings, but I have stood firm in my convictions, because I have also taken the time using the scientific method of proving my findings.

For those who have listened to me and understood what I have had to say, even though there may be a language barrier: thank you. However, whether you have understood or not, listened or not, or may even be aware or not, you are all in great danger!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to intercede at this moment, by asking a question of the energizer. Is the entity Avaton the one who has written this book, or is he making comment or asking.

QUESTIONER:

No. This is an article that he is sending you, and his question at the end is: "How accurate is this information?" This is from the website, the surfing the Apocalypse network.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to make comment at this time. There is a danger indeed. The full article does not need to be presented. There is a danger in holding an apocalyptic point of view. This is what will be energized. This is what will be created; that this individual who admonishes people to take him seriously, who suggests that there is great danger out there, is doing a great disservice to those who would believe him. His suggestion that it is so: "Wake up folks! Things are about to become worse!", if believed, will create such a situation, will create the very things that he is suggesting. The world itself stands at a very tenuous point at this time, as the warning has now gone out for global warming, and the events that are being predicted, if energized to their fullest degree, will create that very situation that is being warned of at this time.

The individual went on to say he has proved this with scientific techniques. All he has proved is that those techniques that are based on the belief of a scientific, and thus non-refutable system, are accurate and correct. But this is only so if you hold this to be so, as he does. This is only so if others hold this to be so. The belief that the scientific evidence is the only valid evidence and is correct in and of itself because it is scientific is erroneous. It is simply another belief system that bases itself on a third-dimensional reality system, and concepts held in the mass mind. In this way it is true and valid because it supports a true and valid system held by many, but it is only true and valid as long as one holds to that belief system, to the paradigms of the belief system.

When one starts to dismiss the system, dismantle it, go beyond it, step into other frameworks of reality, other consciousness, other beliefs, then one can sidestep the very dire consequences that this man is warning against. They are no longer valid. Thus, even though he fully believes that the warnings he is putting out need to be listened to an responded to, they are not entirely valid if one does not believe them, if one does not participate in that belief system. They are only valid to those who believe as he does, those who would support his beliefs, or to be at the effect of those beliefs. That is why this Awareness says that there is danger in these predictions that he is making, even though on one level, there is validity.

This Awareness once again asks the readers to step beyond such confining beliefs, such levels of fear, to look beyond the box, and seek out new beliefs that will define their own realities, those realities they personally wish to experience. The times are changing, and as those times change, the energies made available to creating these realities become stronger and stronger, so that it is imperative that one and all start to question old beliefs and old attitudes and indeed question why one would hold them, and even more important, to entertain beliefs that there are other ways of believing, other experiences to be had.

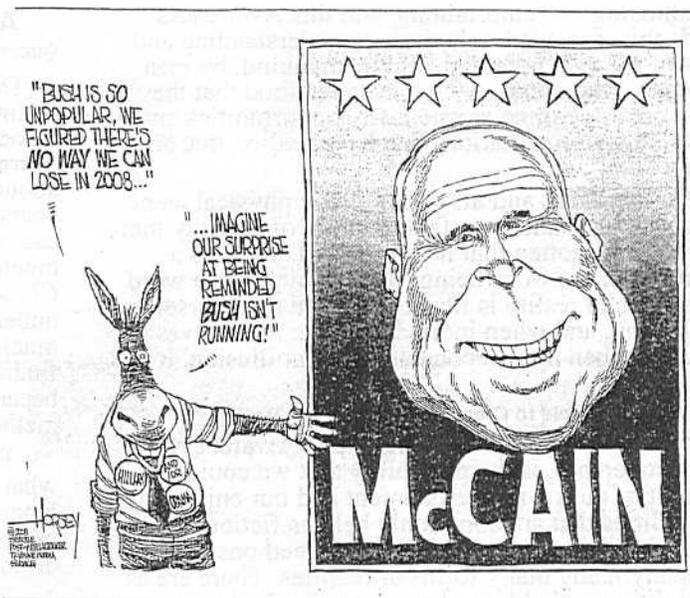

This Awareness feels that this individual, although he is serious and his intent is pure, must be seen to be someone who is simply holding a set of beliefs, and while the conclusions he draws are valid, it must be questioned and looked beyond. This Awareness wishes to continue if needs be.

Ed's Note: It's regretful the questioner Tami did not read the next two statements in the article containing my question before or after she was interrupted by Awareness for the response might have been more revealing and interesting. Here was the rest of the statement:

"First, let me preface to say that there are NO Galactic Waves, Planet X, Global warming due to carbon burning, etc. To worry about all these things are non-sense to take your eye off the ball of the true nature of the workings of our solar system and the true nature of its function: including the real causes of the destructive cycles."

WHAT MELTED POLICE CARS AND BUSES 7 BLOCKS AWAY FROM WORLD TRADE CENTER ON 9-11?

QUESTION:

A question from Avaton who writes, "A reported 1400 vehicles were damaged on 9/11. These vehicles had peculiar patterns of damage and some were as far away as FDR Drive (about 7 blocks away from the World Trade Center, along the East River.) Vehicles had missing door handles, for example, windows blown out, window frames deformed, melted engine blocks, steel-belted tires with only steel belts left, and vehicle front ends destroyed with little or no effect on the back end of the vehicles. Police cars and buses 7 blocks away were melted and there were no fires at all in that area. What could have caused such extraordinary damage? Portions of cars burned while paper nearby on the sidewalks did not."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to state implicitly that the official reason for the collapse of the World Trade buildings is fallacy, is bogus and is but a cover-up. This is seen at this time as something that must be spoken directly to. It was not the jet plane's fuel that melted the girders that caused the collapse of the buildings. The government would have one believe that the laws of physics themselves were defiled and dismissed on the occasion. It was not the burning fuel that melted the girders of the building and caused the building to collapse down on itself, but rather, other technologies were used at the time.

The crashing of the planes into the buildings was simply a blind, a ruse to take attention away from the real cause of the collapse of the buildings. It was noted that the way the buildings collapsed downwards onto themselves indicated some form of demolition where the structure itself at a lower level was taken out, thus allowing the building to start collapsing downwards. Had the planes that crashed into the corner of the building or the middle part of the first building been the true source of the collapse of the building, then the building would have fallen differently. It would not have necessarily collapsed the full length and breadth of both the buildings themselves, plus the third smaller building that collapsed later on.

Tesla ELF Particle Beam Technology Was Used

This was indeed a demolition job that was done with full intent and design, and that Tesla technology was indeed used, especially that which this Awareness sees as the ELF particle beam, that being the ultra low frequency that literally vaporized and disintegrated the girders, thus creating a situation that the girders themselves melted, and when they melted, this being done uniformly and at the same time, created the situation where the buildings collapsed down onto themselves in a very controlled manner, not in an uncontrolled manner such as would have occurred if it was truly the planes and the burning fuel that had caused the melting of the girders at much higher levels of the building.

It is seen that a beam was sent to the building, but there were also explosive devices set up in strategic places in the buildings involved that also ensured that certain key girders were taken out, and as they were taken out at the ELF technology employed, the situation was created where a rapid collapse of the buildings could occur. As for the melted police cars, this Awareness sees that as these beams were directed at the building, several were deflected off of the buildings and went randomly astray. Striking the police vehicles and melting them, just as the steel girders in the building itself were being melted. This was simply a random occurrence of stray ELF beams that went astray, hitting the vehicles.

Those Pools of Melted Metals 70 Feet Below the WTC

In the general chaos of the times this was not recognized as significant, and yet, it in itself was an indicator that something more was occurring than simply the planes that crashed into the buildings, bringing those buildings down. This Awareness also wishes to point out that there were, on the Internet, stories released that spoke of pools of molten metals at depths deep into the earth, 70 feet below the structure itself, in the sub-basement that could not have possibly been the melted girders from high up in the structure for that was far too far removed from where these pools of molten metals were found.

The suggestion therefore being that something caused the melting of these beams at the sub-strata levels, and that once those lower levels were removed, the building had no choice but to pancake down on itself, to collapse down on itself in the manner that was seen by the world, but this was part of a controlled demolition with the intent of destroying the buildings in the way they were destroyed. Everything else is a cover-up. Everything else is simply a ruse to take attention away from the real reason the buildings collapsed, so that one would not seek further. It is as the magician, the illusionist who takes attention to the left hand while the right hand slides the coin down into the palm of the hand. The attention being taken away from the real area where focus should have been will mislead the individual and they will believe what the illusionist wishes them to believe, rather than what is the truth of the situation.

This Awareness suggests that it is the use of Tesla technology, the use of that which is known as the ELF particle beam that was the true destroyer of the buildings, as well as certain devices that were used to explode out girders, to ensure the total collapse and destruction of the three buildings involved.

WHAT WAS THE PURPOSE AND INTENT OF DESTROYING THE WORLD TRADE CENTER?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (TAMI):

What was the purpose of that deed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The purpose is simple enough. The intent was to create a situation where the American people could be led astray. They could be led by the nose, to so speak, convinced that there were terrorists out there who were seeking to destroy the United States. There was already a plan of action drawn up that suggested that there was a need to invade the countries of Afghanistan and Iraq. This was already planned out, but there was need for a reason to do so, and that one of the best ways to make something like this happen, to create a situation where there would be mass-support for basically a hostile invasion of another country, would be to make it look like the country itself, the United States of America was under attack by terrorists who had their home bases in those countries mentioned, in Afghanistan and Iraq, as well as other Middle Eastern countries that may still be attacked, or at least they may still try to create further illusion that these countries are threatening to the United States of America and thus be justified in attacking them.

The Conspirators Now Focus on Iran

This Awareness is specific now, in that It sees that this is being proposed at this time for the invasion of Iran, and this Awareness does suggest that if an event occurs that again puts focus on these Middle East terrorists, in particular in Iran, that the readers be very aware that this is a manufactured event, just as the destruction of the World Trade Center, and the crashing of the plane into the Pentagon were manufactured events to focus American anger at the countries that were then presented as responsible for those actions, that were the breeding grounds of the very terrorists who came and struck the American heartland, and this Awareness simply asks that clarity around these events be attained, and that open-mindedness be also maintained.

This Awareness feels that It is complete at this time, unless any further questions remain. This Awareness will simply say that all is not as it seems to be, and there is always a need to question, to look deeper and dig deeper before one accepts that which is presented as a truth, especially in these times.

Ed's Note: The controlled press was not allowed to show or mention those melted cars and busses. However, there are many photos of these melted cars on the Internet and an interesting story by Judy Woods and Morgan Reynolds who are convinced some Star Wars technology had to be used. Awareness has just explained how right they are. Go to Google and type in "Star Wars Beam Weapon 5" Or type in "What melted cars 7 blocks from WTC". Many mind-blowing photos and data are presented there.

A REPORT SHOWS THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION MADE 935 FALSE STATEMENTS LEADING UP TO THE IRAQ WAR

SECRETS OF THE EGYPTIAN ANKH

QUESTION:

(Thank you) This letter is from Nick Klaver, from Edmondhoef, Holland. "Dear Avaton, I wrote you before that the spiritual organization that I belong to stopped, but there has been a rebirthing. The Interpreter is on pension in Spain, retired, but the people that took the lessons on spiritual development are making a list of all the readings and all the information that was given by the Interpreter. There are more than 2000 tapes and the intentions are to make the info available to the people. It is in Dutch, which should be translated into English.

Much info was given over the Ankh. We did rituals with the Ankh. When you see things about Egypt, you always see the Ankh. There are many Ankhs around, and people use them as jewelry around their neck. It is usually a one-legged Ankh. It was always stressed an Ankh must have two legs, the human form. The Pharaohs had a two-legged Ankh of gold and could do many things with it. Spies saw this and told their king and they made the one-legged Ankh, which is nothing but jewelry, but people don't know the difference.

Apparently there was a large Ankh in the top of the pyramid of Giza, which was used to pick up the energy of thunderstorms, also as an antenna to the cosmos, which cosmonauts used for landings close to the pyramid. I've never read anything about the Ankh in all of the Cosmic Awareness material. I would like you to ask Cosmic Awareness about the Ankh, where it is from and how it should be used. Thanks. Nick K."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Ankh, which became a symbol for Egyptian religion, for beliefs of the Egyptian peoples, was seen to be a symbol of eternal life. It is very close to that which is the Christian symbol for eternal life, that being the crucifix; with the exception that instead of a straight-on piece at the top, there is the loop that is found on the Ankh. This is of course in reference to the one-legged Ankh that this individual is referring to. This symbol was a highly potent one for the Egyptian people and did hold a promise to them of redemption and promise that there was more after the physical life, just as the crucifix holds to many Christians who hold it as a promise to eternal life, to a greater life that is to come.

In the nature of the symbolism involved in the Christian cross, this is the center part of the infinity symbol. The infinity symbol is the figure-eight on its side, and the cross itself is that crossing over of the two lines of the infinity symbol. The infinity symbol itself is the circle twisted. This Awareness suggests that if one were to take an elastic band, a circular shape, and to twist it into the figure-eight, one would understand that the figure-eight, the symbol of infinity, is the circle of life, the circle of the everything and the all. The cross part of that symbol represents the coming into the physical of the Divine, and the sacrifice of the Divine to become physical is what the crucifix is really all about.

The Son of God being put onto the cross of life, represents the Divine being sacrificed for that which is the greater purpose and the greater truth. This is all in the form of the symbolism, and for the Egyptians, the top loop represented part of the infinity concept held by that symbol of the figure-eight. In later times this became the straight extension and the longer bottom piece was part of the extended cross at the center of the infinity symbol. Basically, both symbols are one and the same.

The Powers of the Two-Legged Ankh

This is this Awareness' rap on the symbolic nature of both the cross and the Ankh. It now wishes to make comment on the second part of the question. The two-legged Ankh that the entity has talked about in his letter was indeed originally an instrument, a tool of great power stemming from earlier times, those times known as the Atlantean times. This was a power instrument and it worked with vibrational energies. The loop in the back was a coiled loop that could hold and store energy and then project it down the split end where the energy would come out and be used for many purposes, even levitation, and what this Awareness wishes to call a death ray.

This was a very powerful tool, a powerful weapon sometimes. It was originally designed to be a tool, but it could be used for more destructive purposes. It was originally deemed that only those of a high enough level of awareness, those who had been taught by the proper ones, would be privy to this tool, this weapon, and thus it became a symbol for the Pharaohs themselves, but theirs was the tool version, with the two legs or the two strands at the bottom. There was seen also a middle part that could be inserted into that split between the two, that could focus the ray of this very powerful weapon and this very powerful tool, but this could be removed, and often was removed, for it was considered too dangerous to leave this part inside of the instrument. It could be too easily triggered if it was whole and complete.

The Large Ankh Still Remains Undiscovered in Pyramid

It is also that which led back to the conversion of the two-legged apparatus, the two-legged Ankh tool, to that version that was a symbol later on: the one-legged Ankh symbol. This original tool was used in the construction of the pyramids themselves, as well as other sites and places. The larger Ankh that is referred to in the pyramid is indeed valid, and still exists inside of the pyramid although it has not been rediscovered at this point.

Originally, at the very top of the pyramid itself was a great crystal. This being that apex point where the rays were sent forward; a sort of beacon to those extraterrestrial crafts that were landing in the fields beyond, as well as being a receptacle of those energies of the lightning storms that were also referred to. This was one way that this was charged up. It can be seen that in some ways it drew those energies into it to be used at a later date, and they would be held in reserve in that coiled or looped area at the bottom end of the Ankh.

This is all advanced technology that the Atlanteans brought into their original Egyptian colonies, for the lands of Egypt were originally the colonies of that land known as Atlantis, but these connections were lost over the ages, as were many of the tools and weapons themselves that the Atlanteans brought to ancient Egypt. This Awareness feels complete with its discussion of the Ankh and its various applications and meanings.

Energizing Paul Shockley's Passing Over

(More on What Paul's Up To These Days)

These two questions are from David Alexandrenko from Pineville, LA. Who wrote: "Avaton, after receiving Revelations of Awareness newsletter 2006-07, issue #601, and I found out about Paul Shockley passing over into spirit, I have been trying to send energy or manna as recommended in the newsletter. I would like to ask Awareness if I have been of any help in energizing Paul Shockley, and if other members have been of help in energizing Paul Shockley after his passing over."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness expresses that this is definitely so. The entity David was successful in the energizing of Paul Shockley after his departure from the physical plane. The efforts of the other members to assist him in his transition were also successful. This Awareness at this time wishes to congratulate and thank those who heeded the request of this Awareness in helping that entity Paul Shockley cross over completely and totally so that no connections were left to the earthly plane, and thus he was freed to reintegrate into the fabric of spirit, and he does very much work from the other side now. He is involved in these channelings at this time as an energizer on the other side; having himself been an Interpreter and he assists the present Interpreter in the channeling of this Awareness.

The efforts by the membership to assist in the transitional phase were indeed, very successful. This Awareness is complete.

He Traveled to the White Light and Back

QUESTION:

David's second question: "I would also like to ask Awareness about something that happened to me on September 14th 1997, at around 3:00 AM. I could not fall asleep at that time so I tried to meditate. After awhile it seemed as if I was moving or traveling inward down a tunnel, and I heard sounds coming from all directions, like I have never heard before. I then came into a place of bright White Light, and the sounds had stopped. It was like being in a cloud of light, with no place for shadows, and there was complete silence. After being there a short time I heard someone say my name: "David" in a quiet voice. I said silently "Yes, Lord, Thy Will Be Done!"

As I thought that, I was out of the light and back to my normal consciousness level. I would like Awareness to explain to me what I was experiencing. I would like to know who it was that called my name. Was it the Christ Consciousness, my Higher Self, or someone else? I would also like to know why I was able to travel to the White Light at that time, and how to travel there again, and if there's some way to stay in the White or Clear Light for a longer period of time?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes the entity David to understand that he experienced the death experience, the crossing over into the White Light. This does not mean that he died. He simply experienced that transition, that moving into the fog and the White Light and experiencing the energies that exceed the physical experience. It was his to experience at that time, and he can indeed re-experience it if it is his wish and desire, but this Awareness does give a slight warning to this. In his statement he expressed the desire to be there fully and completely for a longer period of time.

This Awareness does wish to warn that this will be so, when the time is right, but to experience it for long extended periods may require leaving the physical body permanently, not just temporarily. While it is very possible to experience this White Light in a temporary way, that as long as one is still required to have the physical experience, because the purpose of their life is not done, they will return back into physical reality. When the need to move beyond the physical is so, and the physical life is complete, then one will move back into that level of consciousness that is expressed by the experience of the White Light.

This Awareness does not see a problem here, It simply suggests that all entities who wish to experience it understand that it will be of a temporary nature until it is their time to move back into that level of consciousness and that level of experience, and It wishes all to know this is so. This Awareness has not put this warning out to frighten anyone, for in truth, the truest understanding of the completion of one's life will be such that there is no accident of leaving the body because one is in the Light. It is akin to that theory that was presented of the Akacord being severed when one was doing astral projection and that it was put out that if the silver cord was severed, then the consciousness could not return back into the human body.

Severing the Akacord is Never an Accident

This Awareness wishes to explain this further; that this could not/will not happen accidentally. It is only when it is the right time, the crossing time, that such an event might happen, the severing of the cord would happen and the release of consciousness would occur. Equally, visiting the White Light does not mean that one will accidentally die in the physical for they have spent too long in the White Light. The individual can only return into the energy of Spirit when it is truly their time. This Awareness simply brought this forward because it was necessary to understand that all visits into that level of spiritual consciousness are temporary in nature, as long as there is still life purpose left, but when that is complete, then the return back to spirit can occur.

This Awareness hopes that It has explained this difference sufficiently at this time.

EVEDROPPING ON PEOPLE'S THOUGHTS

(Has Neuroscience Gone Too Far?)

QUESTION:

This is another question from Avaton. It's another article: "New Mind Probe Technology Could Be Used to Interrogate the Public." A new technology that scans the brain to read people's minds, giving details of what actions a person is thinking about, makes some critics wonder if neuroscience has gone too far. The prescient technology raises ethical questions whether it can be used to eavesdrop on people's thoughts, or incriminate them for actions they have simply thought about. Primarily of interest is the medical prefrontal cortex, an area of the brain that changes in activity while a person is thinking, which, if scanned, can give an indication of what a person might do.

The ground-breaking technology was developed by leading world neuroscientists who utilized high-resolution brain scans to take image patterns of brain activity. For the trial they showed a set of numbers to participants and asked them to decide whether to add or subtract them. The scientists were able to predict the participants' decision with 70% accuracy. "What's frightening about this technology is how easily it could be used against the citizens of countries like the UK, and US," said consumer technologists Mike Adams.

"History has proven that all such technologies find their way into the hands of dangerous individuals or governments who will use them to actually suppress freedom rather than defend it. A serious ethical debate is needed on such technologies." One possible positive with the technology is brain controlled computing, a science that is useful for those with disabilities such as artificial limbs. Another function could be working with machinery that responds telepathically to thoughts, such as computers that assist wheelchair-bound people, by predicting their thoughts and putting them into words.

A fictional example of brain-scanning technology used to trample on privacy rights, is the Steven Spielberg film, "The Minority Report," where people are criminalized for thinking about actions before they actually do the crime." Would Awareness please comment on this technique?.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is much that this Awareness could say on the article. It is thankful that the movie "Minority Report" was cited at the end of the article, for it indeed is a way that such technology eventually could be used if such technology was released to the public, and the presumption that a person's thoughts needed to be sanctioned and controlled, even punished; this is all part of that which this Awareness has spoken of in terms of the separation of the two planets; of the A planet and the B planet.

As the B planet descends into tighter control, such forms of control over the populace would be engaged in, creating situations where mind control is the norm and the thought police would be out there punishing those who did not think the right way. This could easily be taken to the next step, not simply to control criminals who possibly, through their thoughts, show their intent to commit crime, but even to those dissenters who think against the government, who think against the controllers; that they could also be rounded up and resocialized, reconditioned, mind controlled. All of this is possible in a planet where those who are in control would control even the very thoughts of their people. This would be a true level of enslavement.

This is one possibility for such technologies, but this is not necessarily what will occur, especially if it is not held as something that is needed or wished to be experienced by an individual, or the individuals who understand the deeper truth behind this. This Awareness wishes to also state that this technology is already available, and is already being used by those secret agencies. Often, that which is released into the consciousness of the people, that is published, is ten years behind the fact. The agencies that have used the extraterrestrial technologies have developed such tools and techniques already and these are being used by those secret agencies, but this is only as a way of identifying certain dissidence, of understanding those who have such thoughts as being potential threats to they might be observed.

Rather than worry about this, understand that there is also at the same time that course that is unfolding that will put many beyond such control, such manipulation, that will ensure that such things never happen to those who are following the spiritual destiny, who are opening up to those higher levels of awareness and consciousness as the way for them, thus removing themselves from that possible track of such technologies being used against them, or a future that would embody such a way.

How to Deal With Thought Control

While such instruments do exist, this does mean that they are effective 100%. In fact, it is seen at this time their effectiveness is very limited, which is why they are not seen as a strong threat at this time. Of course, they could be developed to be more effective in the future, but if this is not a future one wishes to energize or experience, then there really is nothing to fear from such technology or such tools. This is what this Awareness would ask one and all to focus on rather than living in a science fiction reality such as The Minority reports presented. One does not have to experience this, and this Awareness simply asks that alternative ways and possibilities be energized and created in the mind and in the beliefs of the individuals themselves.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

Editor's Note: The following reading is one of several where a new energizer (Tami) for the Interpreter Will Berlinghof engages in a dialog with Cosmic Awareness during the course of asking questions sent in by the CAC membership. This is rather unusual and does not follow the usual protocol of a Cosmic Awareness reading. However, the questions do eventually get answered, and in the process the reader is treated to some rather enlightening information and insight into the personality of that energy we know as Cosmic Awareness. (Avaton)

A Spiritual Journey for Will and Tami (How an Alien Force is Liberated)

QUESTION(TAMI):

(Thank you) I have a question.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is available to the energizer's question.

Question(Tami):

Yesterday, Will and I embarked on a spiritual journey to seek the resistance that wasn't readily available for release, and in our journey came upon a trinity or a trio as I called them, that were affecting thought and thought processes. Anyway, it was a phenomenal journey. Do you have any insight or comments to add to our discovery?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indeed has much comment for the journey taken yesterday. This was a very valid journey, a very real journey, a very powerful journey. What was experienced in the journey itself was the new perceptions of some of the controls that are put on mankind as seen yesterday; mankind in the sense of mass-consciousness, but it also has a very individual application. It was seen that there were a trinity of beings, a trio that was directly connected through a cord to the entity Tami, and this trinity was in opposition of the High Self, low self, middle self. As an oppositional force, its purpose is to distract and to disengage the positive actions of what this Awareness wishes to call at this point to call "the Holy Trinity."

Its purpose, this "Unholy Trinity" if you will, was to ensure that even though the entity Tami was aware of her power as a Creator Being, still she could not bring into fruition her own beliefs, especially beliefs around personal abundance and prosperity. Even though she knew and knows that it is possible for her to create this personal abundance and prosperity, still it was not happening in her life, so the purpose was to go deep, deeper than ever before, and to find the deepest reasons of why the sabotage occurred, why there was not the energizing of the very beliefs that she held for her own personal prosperity.

The Unholy Trio From Orion Was Discovered Tapped in to Tami

In the journey, this Trio was discovered, this being a trio of entity aspects from the Orion system, tapped in to the entity Tami, because it is seen that this entity is a very powerful entity, indeed, a pioneering entity or soul, who has come onto the planet at this time to create the new paradigm of beliefs, to personally experience it, create it and thus teach it to others; this paradigm being that she as a Creator Being, can create all levels of her reality, including those levels of personal abundance and prosperity, and yet, despite such beliefs, she was being blocked from doing exactly this, which led to deep levels of personal frustration.

In the work done yesterday, the regression work that was led by Will, it was seen that tapped into her was this Unholy Trio that effectively blocked many of the possibilities manifesting that she held to be so. In the work done yesterday, this Trio was.....

QUESTIONER:

We have to pause and change the tape (tape change)
...Cosmic Awareness:

This Awareness wishes to continue on Its talk of the experience held and had by the energizer Tami and the Interpreter Will, relating to the experience of going deeply within and seeing the extraterrestrial/ extradi-dimensional connection held by that which this Awareness has called the Unholy Trio, to the entity Tami. This event, this tapping in, this cording to the energizer Tami occurred in the fetal state, when that being was still very vulnerable, very exposed. A connection on that subspace level was created, where these beings, this Trio hooked into the fetus that would grow into the human Tami, so that this programming and this tapping in was always present in her physical experience, and could not be seen because it had always been there. How does one see that has always been part of the whole picture, or that which is perceived as normal?

It was only through that journey taken yesterday where she was directed by the Interpreter and facilitator to the regression experience to look for such a thing, not that it was understood what was being looked for, for she was directed to simply face her deepest fear that prevents her from manifesting the truth of her beliefs: that she IS a Creator Being. When this gate was opened, it led to this discovery.

The Alien Cord is Seen in the Womb Space

The immediate place she went was into the womb space and it was from that place that the cord was seen that connected her to that vision of a Trio of beings that were hooked into her; that Trio of course being opposition to the Trinity of the High Self, middle self and low self, and that the purpose of this Trio at this subspace level, at this other dimensional level, was to diminish the effectiveness of the High Self in Tami's life, and to create a sabotaging agent in the low self that would counteract the power of the low self to create for her that which she envisioned, that which she chose to create, so that even though her beliefs were such that she could create prosperity and abundance in her life, still it would not appear. Still it would be denied her.

By confronting these beings she was able to disengage from their influence, she was able to cut the cord that the three fused together and hooked into her at that very very vulnerable place and level, that being her fetal being when she was but a babe in the womb. Because it had happened at such a preliminary state, she never saw it or recognized it until yesterday, but she did take effective action through the directions of the facilitator, Will, to help her disengage from this Trinity that was operating at that subspace level. While this all sounds highly imaginative, it does indeed have a strong basis in fact and truth that applies not only to the energizer Tami, but to many Light Workers who cannot understand why it is that despite their thoughts and beliefs, still they do not experience that which they know can be and should be so.

The energizer saw, when she first went in and saw this Trio, a field filled with many similar Trios, many similar groups. She felt this more than saw this at the beginning. She felt a vast field where many groups such as the Trio she was seeing existed, and this represents many groupings with the intent to distract the many Light Workers who are here at this time on the physical plane from being effective, and yet, it is time for this to end. The work yesterday was preliminary to this being so, and this Awareness participated in the work yesterday. When it was time to disengage, the energizer was instructed to send energies of light and love along the cords, back to the Trio; they being such that they did not operate from the Light, were shocked by this action, and immediately disengaged. They were captured then in a ball of Light, not with the intent to destroy, but rather with the intent to give the possibility of stepping into those higher levels of consciousness, those higher levels of awareness, and this was achieved.

The entity Tami did indeed sever that connection to that Trio and will not tolerate any further intrusion into her life, or into the creation of her life, and that which she wishes to create. After this, there was seen to be yet another cord, another connection to something beyond, but this Awareness expresses that that was a connection to a level of the Orion mentality that seeks to control the masses, the mass beliefs at this time, that governs the mass-thinking at this time, especially the thinking around the physical, and all of the rules and laws that would govern the physical reality and create physical reality; beliefs and attitudes that would not hold that events of this nature are possible, and that only physical reality has any validity.

A Computer-like Chip Had Been Inserted Into Tami

This was perceived by the entity Tami as a huge being, similar somewhat, but completely different to the Trio: spiny and ridges seen, and yet also globule... it was more an impression of something huge that had this cord. It was also seen that at the end there was a template or chip, an image of a computer chip that was also inserted into the entity Tami at that very preliminary fetal stage. Again, work was done that disconnected this chip, this template, that energies of spirit were sent back to this creature and there was a moment when the entity Tami felt that presence overwhelming her, and it was at this time that this Awareness interceded and sent energies through the Interpreter who was acting as facilitator to Tami that helped her dislodge and break free of that energy.

Cosmic Awareness Introduces a New Level Into Human Consciousness that will Dislodge Alien Implants

This was a very real and powerful experience that the Interpreter himself felt very strongly as did the energizer, and that energy that was seeking to overwhelm her was split and dislodged from her. This work at such deep levels has a very deep ramification and it is seen by this Awareness that It has introduced a new level into human consciousness that will allow such disconnecting now from those Orion energies, such as the mass conscious belief perpetrated by the Orion Empire, as well as those groupings, those Trios that seemed to be personally connected to the entity Tami, and now such action having been taken will introduce this on a greater level.

This Awareness has before introduced into human consciousness thoughts and ideas that have helped turn the tide of the storm, and this is again one of those events. While this happened on a very individual and personal level, energies have now been released into human consciousness that will start to be seen more and more as individuals realize how deeply infected they have been and that it is possible to disconnect and rebuke those energies that have been present all of their lives, all of the lives of those individuals who are hooked in on that level.

A Huge Field Equivalent to the Movie The Matrix

This Awareness reminds you that what was seen was a huge field with many such groupings. This is equivalent to the movie 'The Matrix' where many capsules with many hooked-in individuals existed, and that when one individual, in this case Neo, started to realize who he really was, that he could disconnect, and yet even he had to go to the ultimate level to actually understand the personal nature of belief, before he stopped believing in the power held by the machines over him, and it was then and only then that he finally truly disconnected, and stepped beyond the box of beliefs that he had. Even if those were elevated beliefs, they still were beliefs that confined him and the others to a point where they could still be brought down by those machine entities.

It was when Neo finally understood the truth, and stepped beyond the box, that he removed himself from that reality. That is what happened yesterday. The entity Tami saw this in a way that could help her disengage, disconnect, and step into her own freedom. This is now a freedom that is available to many, and this Awareness simply asks many to start seeing themselves disengaging from the Trios of groups that would connect on individual levels, as well as the disconnection from the mass-beliefs that have been presented by the Orion being or entity.

This Awareness pauses at this point to ask if there are any questions from the energizer.

Are There Specific Steps to Disconnect?

QUESTION(TAMI):

For me, the Trio was connected to my aura with a fine net system, which is why I didn't personally find the cord long before this, because I always checked my body and not my aura. For those that are ready to disconnect, are there any specific steps that would help them, that would leaving them feeling reassured that they had actually accomplished a complete disconnect?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness affirms there are techniques. It is indeed connecting through the auric field that creates such a situation for the many. It is seen as a kind of encapsulation of the individuals, as seen in the movie 'The Matrix' where many were connected into that capsule. It is a spider-like web around the auric fields, with many points of contact from the cord itself sent by the Trio, and it cannot be necessarily seen in a body scan. The best way to counteract this is to build up the light of spirit, to supercharge oneself, if you will, and then release that back into the auric fields, extending it to the edges of the luminosity of the egg cocoon that is the aura, and see it entering into these fibrous connections as a strong and powerful force that is sent back into the cord.

"What the? ... This is lemonade! Where's my culture of amoebic dysentery?"

It is seen the three who are composite of the Trio, the three who create the Trio, each individually send out a cord from their solar plexus, and this cord intertwines into the one single cord descending down through the strata and then, as it approaches the auric field of the individual, it fans out into this complex system of miniscule fibers attaching to the aura, completely encasing it and engulfing it. When one builds up this charge of unconditional love and light and releases it into one's individual aura, it will hit this wall. It is to be seen this light then progressing into the many strands, back into the main core, returning back to the Trio that has been assigned to each and every Light Worker.

This Awareness suggests that if such a technique is used, it will have a profound effect for individuals who sense the need to use this technique. This Awareness is complete with its description of how to combat and disengage those corded energies from that which It calls the Unholy Trio.

More on the Releasing Technique

TAMI:

The other cording of the program that is ideological that was linked to mass consciousness; that cord was as well invisible, and seemed to enter through my left side, so it did come through my aura and into my body. Do you have a technique for anyone who chooses to release from mass consciousness and its beliefs so that they may follow their own truth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness sees that which It described earlier as the computer chip was that which was implanted into the cellular level of the body and that this then had a cord-like substance that went away from it, back into that creation that was and is the Orion body that would manipulate and control mass belief. This Awareness again suggests that a short-circuiting is in order here, but that this short-circuiting does need to call upon the energies of the High Self as well as that which the Interpreter calls the High Spiritual Counsel of each and every individual, that which Jane Roberts calls the Oversoul, and the committee or the Council of Oversouls that oversaw the individual Oversoul or High Self connected to each individual.

Therefore, it is not simply an individual on his or her own that would send the energy to that template, that chip, and along the cord, but that a request is made of the high spiritual energies that each and every individual is connected to, and this request be that the highest energy, the highest light and love be funneled through the individual to that which is this chip, this template this Awareness is speaking of, to see it super-energized with this light and unconditional love to the point that it fries the circuits, and this charge then moves up and along the cord and back to the source, burning out the connection and freeing the individual from a connection to enslavement to beliefs that truly are no longer believed in.

Can This Technique Be Done Alone?

QUESTION(TAMI):

I need to ask, when we did that yesterday, I had an immediate reaction of an energy that was starting to settle over me and was causing me almost like a stroke effect to the left side, and actually, we had to call in you to have Cosmic Awareness come in and assist, so is this something that can be done alone, at that level?, because that is what seemed to draw the attention of that consciousness when I fried the chip, and I was unable to remove that energy from me without assistance from you.

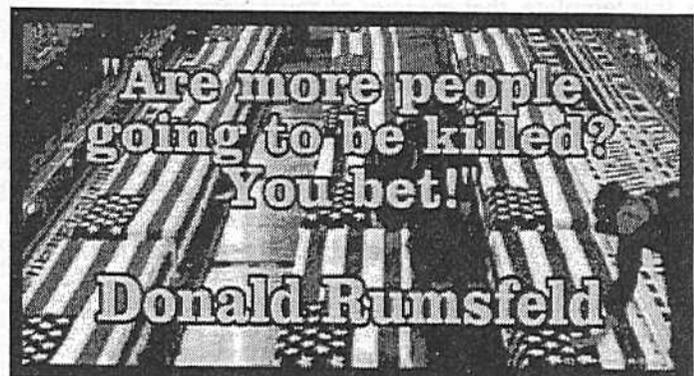

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness understands and appreciates the concern of the energizer; that it is a justifiable concern. This Awareness wishes to point out that the work done yesterday was pivotal, a first time that such a charge went out to this creature being, this precept that is the Orion creation that has enslaved many through this template connection, and that when this was enacted yesterday, danger was perceived by it, and that was why energy was sent that would absorb you. This Awareness was present in that engagement and was able to help free you at that time.

Something Altered, Something Changed

This Awareness is simply considering this question at this moment. Because this work and this went out, something altered, something changed. The question being now: Would it not be dangerous for others to do this work without someone there to assist them, to direct the energies of this Awareness. This Awareness by having this work in the first place is now fully available to those who would seek to remove their own connection, and by invoking this Awareness's energy, this would be beneficial and would prevent a similar experience to that which the energizer experienced. The act of freeing up from that connection has created a new template, a new possibility that this Awareness has now introduced into the scope of awareness of the planet, into mass consciousness.

This being so, it is not that each individual need experience what the energizer experienced yesterday. A message, if you will, has been sent out, that it will no longer be tolerated; that those who seek to break away from this control and enslavement have the right to do so, and it will be supported by this Awareness and the energy of this Awareness. Those who would invoke such freedom will have the full cooperation and strength of this Awareness in doing so and will have the protection of this Awareness in doing so. As this Awareness spoke of invoking the High Self and the Council of High Spiritual Selves, or the High Spiritual Elders, that it is also important to invoke the protection and cooperation of this Awareness, and It will be available to those who asks for It.

That is why the work done yesterday was seminal in creating a new template, a new paradigm of consciousness and freedom for those who would work with this concept, this paradigm, this template. If one feels hesitant of doing so, or fearful of doing so, then this Awareness would recommend that they do not do so on their own, and they seek out qualified individuals who work at such a level. There are others who work at such a level of awareness, and even the Interpreter is available to those who would use his abilities as a facilitator of such journeys. He does this work over the phone, and as such it is a highly effective way to work, but there are others who are also available to do this work, so if anyone feels any trepidation about doing such release, that they seek out those who can assist in the process.

This would give assurance to the individual that they can do such release safely, and this is in itself of great importance and of great merit.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) Are you complete?

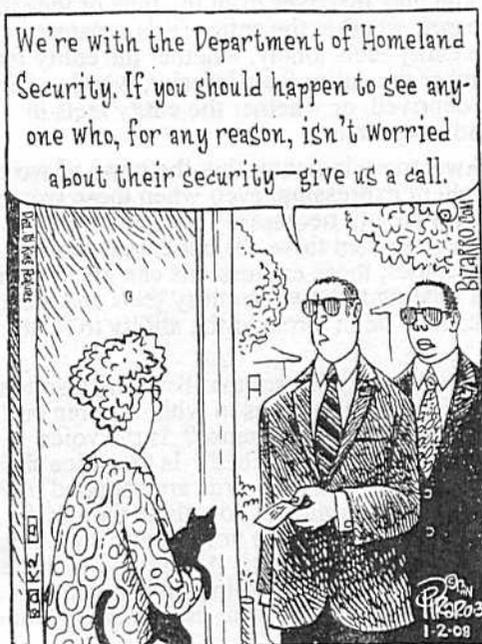

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness feels complete, but if other questions do arise because of what was presented here, this Awareness invites those questions to be asked, not only here today, but of the members who read this information and have further questions. This Awareness wishes to make closing comment before completing the session.

Paradigm Busting Must Now Begin

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness started this session speaking of beliefs; the beliefs in the angelic realms, the beliefs held by many who then create what they believe in. Even the beliefs spoken of just now are powerful beliefs that define the third dimensional reality. Why this Awareness has given this information at this time, is that paradigm busting must now occur: the breaking up of old beliefs and attitudes that come from such a deep level that they have never ever been questioned or looked at.

When this Awareness speaks that It has now introduced energy into human consciousness that is starting to create this paradigm busting, this breaking of the beliefs, it must be understood that it is the time for this, and it is the time for individuals to truly comprehend and understand how powerful they are as Creator Beings. Recently, the DVD "The Secret", and the book "The Secret" that went out, spoke of the power of intent, and this Awareness spoke earlier that there were other laws below this and beyond this.

It is important now to understand and to recognize how even though one puts out the intent to draw into one's life certain things, that if those underlying beliefs exist, then such efforts to create will be stymied and blocked. It is important to understand that this is a period of time to truly start investigating and questioning where the beliefs come from that one holds in life, and to recognize those that are created through choice and experience, versus those that have simply been passed on to the individual from the beginnings of their lifetimes, and the time is now afoot to start breaking up those beliefs and patterns of beliefs that have simply been passed on through generations upon generations, and that are no longer truly valid at this time.

This is seen by this Awareness as a time period in the evolution of mankind's history, his and her spiritual history, where such questions need to be asked, and such old belief systems, old patterns of beliefs be broken up. Paradigm busting now must occur. This Awareness is happy to help bust the paradigms by introducing such radical material and understandings. This Awareness is now complete.

THE COSMIC AWARENESS SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT COURSE

GEMINI: VOLUME 3 LESSON NUMBER 11

Question:

Awareness, we are gathered here today for the eleventh course in the Correspondence Lessons in the Sea of Gemini. The eleventh lesson concerns communication through giving service, and service through the use of communication.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that this relating unto the action of yielding the floor. This Awareness indicates that in serving others, one can serve best by being aware of the needs of others. The action of yielding and of giving oneself, whereby one can respond to that which is out there - this action as that which exemplifies the Law of Love and the Law of Mercy.

This Awareness indicates that in terms of communication, wherein one wishes to serve others, the approach toward communicating with another is expressed most clearly by being able to listen. This Awareness indicates that listening and being receptive is 67% of the action of communicating, that talking and being expressive is the other 33%.

This Awareness suggests that you not concern yourself with being understood, so much as with understanding. That entities who spend their time wishing they were better understood, seeking ways to make others understand them, trying to find the proper way of expressing themselves in order to have the understanding which they desire - these entities are wasting much of their life, much of their time.

This Awareness suggests that in the same proportion, entities may find that 33% of their communication may be spent in seeking to be clear in order to be understood, that 67% of their communication may be spent in listening and being receptive in order to understand the other. This Awareness suggests that in listening and seeking to understand the other entity, you have won two-thirds of the battle of communicating, and the two-thirds of this energy spent in communicating shall bring forth great benefits to you and the other, even if you cannot express yourself at all. This Awareness suggests that in terms of being able to listen, that entities may find there are certain blocks to listening. This Awareness suggests that one cannot listen well when one has his consciousness and body filled with distractions. This Awareness indicates that the setting for listening, as important to any form of communication. This Awareness suggests that one cannot listen well when one has pains which need attention, when one has obligations, responsibilities which are calling, when one has certain ideas or feelings of inadequacy in the relationship between the communicating parties, when one has emotions which seek to be relieved but are not being given the opportunity. That one can only communicate well when one can be totally receptive and able to listen without distractions within.

This Awareness suggests that in setting the scene, in making the space for communication, that this action shall assist in determining the outcome of the communication. The preparation brings forth the magic that results.

This Awareness suggests that in terms of listening after the scene has been set, after your being is in order, wherein you allow yourself the space to listen, the listening action contains several levels whereby you may listen to the words being expressed. That in listening to words, you may follow these words back to the source and experience the feelings being expressed by that entity. That ideas may also be expressed by that entity, and you may follow through and look at those ideas, listening both to the words being used, to the ideas being expressed, and may discover from the type of idea the entity expresses, whether the entity feels separate, whether the entity feels lonely, whether the entity feels hostile, whether the entity feels inferior, whether the entity feels deprived, or whether the entity feels in harmony and integrated.

This Awareness indicates that the types of words and ideas used in expressing, even when these words and these ideas are not necessarily part of the point being made, even when these are but casual remarks thrown in as asides, these expressions can give much information relating to how the entity feels and what his or her blocks may be in terms of the ability to relate clearly.

This Awareness indicates that listening also to the tone of the voice can give clues to what is going on within the entity. Is the voice tense? Is the voice relaxed? Is the voice high-pitched? Is the voice sharp? Is the voice choppy, wherein words are chopped off? Does the voice have elongated vowels as though the words were being sung? Is the voice warm sounding, or does the voice sound cold? This Awareness indicates all of these various ways of expressing give indications as to what the entity is like and what the entity is feeling.

OBAMA JUST INSPIRES ME TO BELIEVE IN AMERICA AGAIN!

Obama Inspires the Young!

ME, TOO. I JUST FEEL SO MUCH MORE CONFIDENT WHEN I HEAR HIM SPEAK!

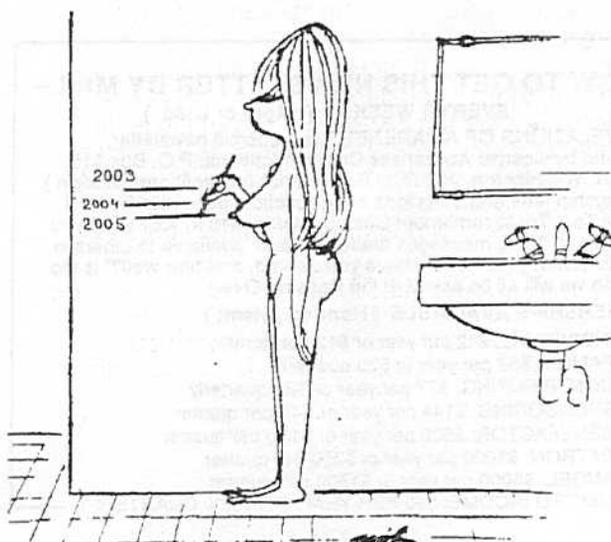

ME, TOO! I JUST FEEL LIKE GOING OUT AND BUYING SOMETHING.

This Awareness indicates that not only the words, ideas, the sound of the voice, but the gestures, the movements, the posture of the entity - these too give away certain attitudes, and those who can listen to these muscle movements, these tones, these sounds, these vibrations, this allows those entities who are receptive to this, the ability to hear more than others might possibly hear.

This Awareness indicates that not only do you listen to words, ideas, tones, and the movements of entities with whom you communicate, that you also may listen to what their desires are, and by looking deeply, you may see the motivation behind the communication. Why are they speaking to you? What do they really want from you? Do they want attention? Do they want reassurance? Do they want security? Do they want some gift? Do they want simply to relieve themselves of something which they have bottled up and find you a receptive ear? Are they using you as a garbage can to dump their frustrations onto? This Awareness suggests that you listen carefully to their motivation, to their purposes in communicating with you - that you be receptive, that you listen until you fully understand what they are saying behind their words, behind the outer appearances.

This Awareness indicates that you also listen to the patterns which repeat themselves like broken records in the expressions of these entities. That entities often have certain patterns, and they return again and again to these patterns of speech, these patterns of ideas, the same communication with different circumstances. The entity may be re-experiencing the same experience that happened two years ago, five years ago, ten years ago, with almost the same words of description, possibly a different circumstance, a different set of names, a different set of faces. This Awareness suggests that you look at the patterns which are being created by this entity through those karmic patterns within the consciousness of the entity, through those crystallized ways of relating, through those tapes which play again and again within the psyche of the entity, in different circumstances.

This Awareness suggests that you listen also to those needs which are being expressed which are of a universal nature, the spiritual needs, the needs for deeper wisdom, for deeper understanding, for assistance. That within the voice of many entities, there are the cries for help, even though the words come out in angry tones of rejection and hostility. The cries for help lie hidden behind these loud and distorted sounds.

US Casualties Continue

This Awareness suggests that many entities attempt to communicate with you and tell you exactly what they want. This Awareness suggests you listen not only to their wants and their desires, that you also listen to their fears, to their frustrations, to their inhibitions.

This Awareness suggests that in order to listen carefully, you must not feel threatened. You must be able to listen without feeling that you are the one who must fulfill this entity's expectations. This Awareness suggests that you must not feel that you are required to rescue this entity, to be this entity's savior or messiah. This Awareness suggests that you simply listen, and that in listening alone, there comes about a certain relief for the entity, a certain healing; the listening creates two-thirds of the communication which is necessary for bringing about the harmony in the relationship.

This Awareness suggests also that when you are listening to another's needs, listening to their desires, that you not be too concerned about what they say they need, but that you look very deeply at what they actually need, for what they say they need is not always that which they truly need.

This Awareness suggests that it is not necessary for you to express yourself to tell them what you see. It is necessary that you see this, for in seeing this within your own consciousness, you are actually sending the message to them on higher planes above and beyond the verbal level. This Awareness indicates that wherein you put this into verbal levels, this may communicate to them more quickly if they are receptive to such communication, if they are open to receiving that information. This Awareness suggests that wherein you pick up information through this kind of receptivity and feel that they would not accept your observations, or would not use that information to better themselves, it is better for you to remain silent and to simply observe, and let this information arrive into their consciousness on higher levels, rather than to verbally tell them what you see, wherein you feel they would be offended by such information. For if they are offended, they will filter out that information and find all kinds of objections.

This Awareness suggests this as that which you must learn to be sensitive to, for in some cases, the entity may reject the information at one time, yet later begin to realize the truth in what you have said, and absorb and accept the information you give. This Awareness suggests that the verbal communication affects the entity more quickly if the entity will accept the information. That sensitivity, love, concern, care in the way it is given will allow the entity to accept this. This may be given likened unto spoon-feeding a baby with gentle, tender care, and the entity may accept the information given on a verbal level. This Awareness suggests that wherein you attempt to cram the information which you see as being needed by that entity, down the entity's throat, saying, "this is good for you," you may find yourself in a situation wherein you have lost a friend, and the friend vomits up everything you gave him.

This Awareness suggests that sometimes it is better simply to allow the information to be available, whereby the entity can discover this for himself, and thinking this to be his or her own discovery. This Awareness suggests that this, too, can only be determined by your own sensitivity. That the way this may happen can be through leaving a book lying around, making a casual suggestion that this or that book is very interesting, or maybe by giving this or that book as a present. This Awareness suggests that you must be sensitive - that wherein you give a present and the entity is not interested and feels that you are pushing a trip onto him, this can inhibit the communication even more greatly than if you had given nothing.

This Awareness suggests that you be very careful not to create resentment in your efforts to force another to accept your thoughts and your ideas, and those things which you observe and feel would be good for him.

This Awareness suggests that true communication comes about by being sensitive and discovering where the other entity is, and moving into that level to communicate at that level where the other entity already is. Then, from that level, gradually, carefully, and sensitively moving the entity into that path, that new train of thought where you would like him or her to look, to wonder with you, to explore with you, without forcing the entity, or entrapping the entity, or tricking the entity, or enticing the entity to explore this level with you.

This Awareness suggests that in moving into the level where the entity is, observing where the entity is, appreciating where the entity is, understanding the entity, where he or she is, you then become friends, and from that level as friends, may wander into the path and invite the entity over into your domain, into your area of thought, into your area of philosophy, into your area of idealism, whereby the entity can explore you, and you can explore the other entity, and in this way, both of you can enlarge your lives.

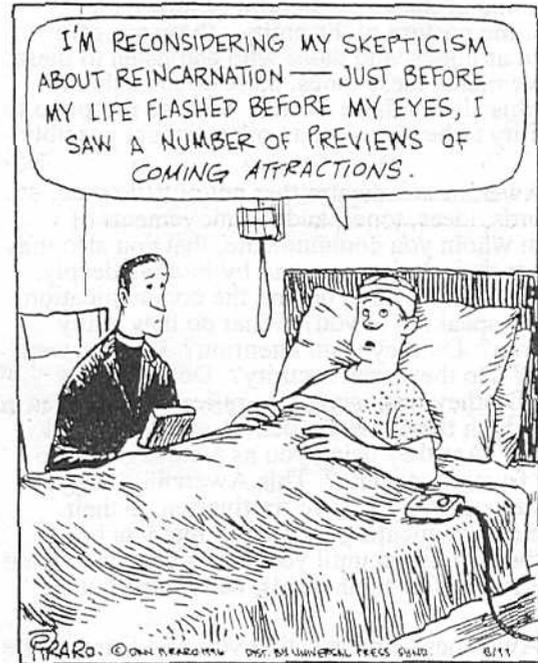

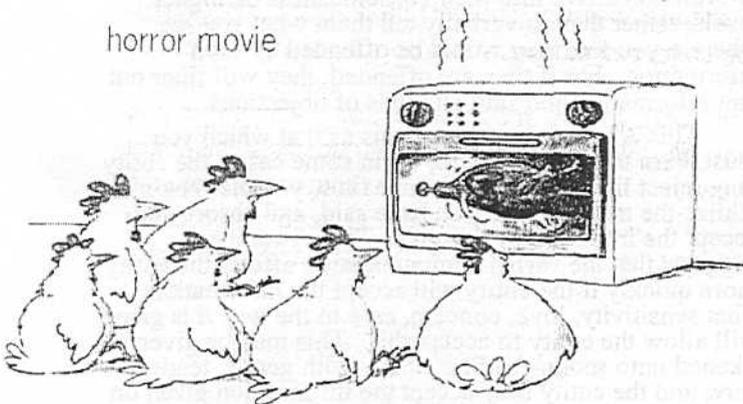

This Awareness suggests that the greatest step in learning to communicate is to discover other people, rather than to attempt to express yourself and be discovered by them.

This Awareness indicates that as you discover others, they then will want to discover more about you.

This is the completion of the eleventh lesson in the Sea of Gemini.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed Itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said.
