THE RACE BETWEEN CLINTON AND OBAMA (Perpetuating the Illusion That the People Have the Power)

QUESTIONER: JOAN

Does Awareness have an opening message please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton

This Awareness is prepared at this time to answer the political questions that have been forwarded to the Interpreter. It wishes however, to begin with an observation of the most recent political events, especially in regards to the competitive campaign that is being waged between the two democratic candidates, those two being Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton. This Awareness in Its forecast for the year 2008 was unable to see the energies around the candidate Barack Obama, for at that time it was not within the plan of things to have such a strong competition between this candidate and the candidate Hillary Clinton.

This Awareness did suggest at that time that although it was planned that Hillary Clinton would become the next president, that the energies were such that there was no clarity around the candidate Barack Obama, for he was not considered as the primary choice. The links to his lineage and the lineage that would connect him to the ruling families was too small. It was not great enough, and Hillary Clinton, who does have that background, and does have the connection to the elite ruling body of families, was considered as the most favorite choice.

She would indeed provide the American people with the sense of change, of an opportunity to bring into power the first woman president, thus indicating and showing the people that they did have a choice in things and could choose differently, and that choosing a woman to be president would be a radical overhaul with the belief that a woman would make a better, more caring and more sensitive president. Of course, this is what the people were meant to see and to feel, for this is part of the manipulation of the mass-mind, of the collective consciousness.

John McCain and Barack Obama Involved in Corruption

It is seen that the Republican candidate, John McCain is not the favored candidate at this time, this being because it is felt that a shift in political parties is necessary for the energies to be conveyed that the people do indeed have some power, have the power to elect the president of their choice, thus extending the illusion and the myth that it is a government for the people and by the people. This is indeed not so. All political candidates who reach a level of public awareness, who are now in the public field of consciousness, are indeed all under the mantle of control of the ruling bodies, especially the powers that be.

Therefore, it is this Awareness' sad duty to report that the candidate John McCain as well as the Democratic candidate Barack Obama; both are involved in the corruptions that are behind the governments. No political candidate who advances so far has the people's best intent. Indeed, it is more of a personal intent and a personal commitment to those powers that be that govern the actions and the purposes of those political candidates, not a genuine heart desire to be the candidate for the people. Of course, Barack Obama is being shown to be such a candidate and this is partially why he is so popular.

With him for the first time in decades there is a feeling that this is a man who will represent the people and there is a buzz, there is an energy that is connected to this individual. When this Awareness first gave Its forecast, It did suggest that although the plan was to have Hillary Clinton as that candidate for change that would spark and capture the imagination of the people, It also suggested that there was the possibility that this may not quite manifest as it was planned at that time.

A Schism Exists Within the Democratic Party

It is seen that since the forecast was given several months ago, that there has been a schism within the Democratic Party. There are two bodies who are in a sense at war with each other. There is that which is the Clinton camp, and there is that which is the Obama camp. It is seen that Barack Obama may be a better choice to convince and fool the people that the Democrats, and he himself, if he were to become the President, was truly there for the people. However, this Awareness is again forced to state that this candidate is not truly a candidate for the people and of the people.

It is his mask that he is wearing, and he wears it well. He is indeed a fresh new energy, a new face, and one who is not known deeply. He does not have all of the merits that the powers that be would wish to have in a candidate. He does not have the deeper connections to the ruling families, but there is indeed a connection through the lineage of his mother's line, his matriarchal grandparents, that does connect him to the Vice President Dick Cheney and this is seen tenuously as good enough to bring him into the fold of the Elite, to make him one of them.

This man has already been groomed to some degree for this position, although this is not with the full endorsement of the powers that run the democratic party, but it is a force that is to be reckoned with, and it does have, to some degree, the people's support, which is why this candidate is being supported by so many celebrities and well-known personalities. The true goal of all political parties is to stay in power and to continue the deception that the people have some control, that the governments of the nation are governing for the people. This deception is what is the most important of all, for as long as this deception is in place, then the people will feel that their government is there working for them, and they will not rise up in opposition of these corrupt governments.

Hillary Clinton Has a Hidden Edge Over Obama

What better way to do this than to create the illusion that the political leader who is overthrowing old attitudes and beliefs, who is allegedly overthrowing those ties to the old corruption, is the one that the people themselves are choosing to bring in? This Awareness reminds all that it is a long way still from this point where the campaign is simply of the leader for the party who will run for the President, versus actually electing the president. It is seen that there are still factors that play into this, that give Hillary Clinton an edge over Barack Obama, an edge that is still very hidden.

It is not seen entirely that Barack Obama is the most favorite candidate for those powers that be. It is seen however, that this campaign is giving the people the sense that they, for the first time in decades have a say in matters, that they are important, that they count, and this will of course perpetuate the illusion that the people have the power, that the political leaders rule through them because they are the ones that hold the power to elect the officials. It is imperative for this illusion to be strong so that the control and the power can be maintained.

Powers That Be Have Warned Obama—JFK Didn't Listen

While Barack Obama is a candidate that has some merit, this candidate himself has already succumbed to those opportunities that have been presented to him, those bribes that have been offered him for his own well-being. This Awareness is not saying that he is a bad candidate, for all political candidates at that level of politics have already sold their souls to those powers, those corruptions that run the nation and the planet. There is some merit and some hope that this Awareness sees in that candidate Barack Obama, if he were to break away from his handlers, however the consequences of going against his handlers have been manifestly made clear to him in showing him footage of the assassination of a former president who went against the powers that be. The lesson was clearly understood by Mr. Obama, and it is also understood that he feels that if he is to make any difference, he must do so from within the ranks.

His primary goal for achieving power unfortunately is not that which is professed to be so: that he is there to make a difference and to change the direction of the nation. It is simply not seen that this will be so. In the end it is also seen that because those powers that be are still largely in support of Hillary Clinton, that there may be an occurrence that in the end does favor her, so that she does win the election by a narrow margin, and brings Mr. Obama into her camp, thus presenting a unified front to the people, giving the impression that all is well in the Democratic Party.

It is seen that Mr. Obama's future is indeed a bright one, even if he does not create that position and achieve the goal of becoming the president in this particular election. It is seen that he is already being seen as a future candidate, a future presidential choice. This is still all up in the air. As this Awareness has spoken, there is a schism that exists in the Democratic political party, a schism that is setting each against one another, a feeling by some that Hillary Clinton would be the best candidate that most supports the Elitists' plans, while others think that the energy around Barack Obama, the support that he has would make him the better candidate.

In the end however, it really does not matter, for all three candidates are still working for the same master, and will create the same goals and achieve the same purpose. In the end, whether it is Hillary Clinton or Barack Obama bears little consequence on who is president or what they achieve, for the agenda of what they are in power for has already been set. The purpose is already fixed. Therefore, even though it is a hard pill to swallow, the support of either candidate or even the Republican candidate, really makes no difference, has little bearing on what the final results will be.

It is of course of interest that these set of circumstances have come into play, the rising to power and popularity of the first black candidate and the first possible black president. It does indeed show that the people themselves are indeed ready for deep and profound change where they can entertain the notion of either a woman president for the first time, or a black candidate for the first time. It is felt that the Republican candidate, while being a sentimental choice, is not truly seen as an effective choice at this time, for the powers that be wish the illusion to be maintained that the people matter, the people can make changes, and the people can bring in a radical new way, a new candidate that will represent a new approach in politics for them.

Something is Going to Happen to Eliminate 2 Candidates

This Awareness suggests that an eye be kept on all three candidates to see if there is any indication from any of them of a cracking of the surface. It is felt that there will be some crack, some exposure that will eliminate one of the candidates, if not two of the candidates, as true choices and the one that will be left, it is felt, will go on to become the President, and that candidate that this Awareness is still seeing as having an inside edge is Hillary Clinton.

Saying this, this Awareness again puts out that this is not 100% seen as being so. There is still room for shifting and back office manipulations. It is indeed a power struggle that is occurring at this time in the Democratic Party, and this has not yet been resolved. The final result will be a candidate who still serve his or her masters that will not truly be there for the people, but who exactly that is, although this Awareness senses that the edge is still in favor of Hillary Clinton, does remain to be seen. This Awareness is complete with Its opening statement and wishes the first question to be asked.

Has There Ever Been a President Who Was Truly For the People?

QUESTION: (JOAN)

Was there ever a President who was truly for the American people?

Cosmic Awareness:

This question is appropriate to the discussion this Awareness just gave. The unfortunate answer to that is there has not been an American President for a very long time who has been there for the American people. Going back to the early founding fathers, that even these individuals had their own connections to certain powers and certain factions. Many of the early presidents were indeed Freemasons, such individuals as George Washington, and Thomas Jefferson, and others, were members of the Freemasons.

At that time, the Freemasons had a different agenda than the Freemasons have today, and it is seen that the original founding fathers truly did have egalitarian ideals and did truly wish to create a sovereign nation that was truly great and for the people. Thus, many of the tenets of the Constitution were heartfelt tenets. They were indeed principles that the founding fathers felt very deeply and wished to base a nation upon.

Abraham Lincoln Was the Last President Not Controlled

This shift in political emphasis and power went on over the years and over the presidents that were in power. It is seen that around the time of Abraham Lincoln the powers that be were starting to assert more and more control, and were starting to manipulate the situation from behind the scenes more and more. President Lincoln is seen as the last president who was free of that control and manipulation, although it was occurring all around him. He battled with it and struggled with it, and indeed, even had to sometimes advocate to those political masters who were trying to create the situation where the president was the pawn of those powers that be.

Of course, in the end, because of his stance against those political powers, he himself was assassinated. His assassination was not because a Southern man rose up and in an act of brutality and violence killed the power of the North, but rather as a statement of those who were behind the scenes, who were becoming more and more powerful to those who might be president, that they needed to watch out, because if they did not toe the line, that they too could be eliminated.

JFK Was the Last President to Go Against the Powers That Be

John Wilkes Booth was simply a pawn in that process of sending this message. The last president after Lincoln who went against his political masters was indeed John F. Kennedy, and it is well known what occurred to him when he tried to create a government currency versus the Federal Reserve currency, which is under the direct control of the 13 families and the power elite. He too was assassinated and again, a message was sent out, that if you did not play ball with the big boys, then you would be eliminated.

John F. Kennedy Jr. Deliberately Killed in Plane Crash

There are political candidates, senators, congressmen and woman who have also been assassinated and eliminated: John F. Kennedy jr., being such a figure. He too, although he was not the president, had made it known that he was ready to expose those who had been behind the scenes, who had orchestrated the death of his father. Indeed, he had announced that he was going to make an announcement to this effect the next day, and of course, that day before, was the day he was killed in a plane accident. Many political figures have been killed off in plane accidents, and it is plain to see that they are not accidents at all, when one starts to see that these individuals who are being killed are those who have a voice, who are being heard, who could make a difference.

The voice of John F. Kennedy jr. would have been a strong and clear voice, but unfortunately, he did not have political savvy. He did not understand that to make such an announcement made him a target. He thought that they would never again touch the Kennedy's, that they would not be as bold as to eliminate him. Unfortunately, he was wrong. It is seen that there are really very few political leaders and politicians who have not been touched or corrupted by the powers that be, the powers that are behind the power, and the presidential office has long been tainted and corrupted.

It is seen that this will change after the Ascension process takes place, but at this time, it is not seen that any of the current political leaders are free of such corruption or such bonds that would bind them to their political masters. This Awareness is complete.

Will the 9-11 Cover-up Ever be Revealed?

(Will the Masses Ever Wake Up?)

QUESTION:

(Thank you- that was very revealing)

The first question is from Susan Krupa, from Ventura, California. It concerns the 9-11 cover-up. Her question is a small one, but very important. She asks, "Will the masses in our country ever wake up and understand the cover-up of 9-11?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Yes, the masses will wake up. They will understand the cover-up that has been perpetrated over the events that are 9-11, and there will be a rising up against those political characters who have perpetrated this upon the people. This is seen as in the near future, not in the distant future. It will be seen once the blanket has been removed that currently covers political leadership, that currently hides the truth from the masses of people. At this time the masses are still asleep to the truth. They simply believe and accept that the political leadership, that the government itself is there to serve the people, that it has the best interest of the people at heart.

At this time, because of the way things are set up, because the true masters are unelected, they are not elected to their positions of power and because they rule from behind the scenes, behind the veil, the people themselves do not understand or recognize that there is another order of things, that there is another way of things that has nothing to do with the people themselves. The masses, while they are asleep, are not asking the questions.

They come close to asking questions when it is seen that there is political corruption, when it is seen that a popular leader who was assumed to have enough support that he would be the leader; this Awareness is referring to John Kerry who was seen by many as an effective choice who would replace the current president George W. Bush, but when that failed, many questions were asked, and a wave of dissension went through the masses and it came close to waking many up. The response to this was to create the illusion that there would be a new political leader and one who would make radical changes, one that would in herself or even himself, be a new alternative.

It is at first assumed that a woman would be a clear choice of a new type of leader, but with the schism that has formed within the Democratic Party, with the onset of Barack Obama coming forward, it is also seen that perhaps a black man could also be the candidate of choice for the powers that be, all of which are still manipulated events, all of which represent candidates who have already been bought and paid for and who the people still have not seen or understood that those candidates are not truly there for the people, but as long as the illusion is maintained, as long as the masses think and feel that there is a candidate that represents them, then they will not rise up.

They came close, with the failure of the John Kerry campaign to sweep Mr. Kerry into power, but they were stifled; those voices that spoke the loudest were stifled in the end and this new approach was undertaken, the approach of presenting a candidate who would be an alternative in the minds of the masses. This Awareness feels complete with this question.

IS CHINA CHALLENGING THE ILLUMINATI?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Our next question is from Chris Lock, in Japan. It concerns China and the Illuminati. He writes, "Is China challenging the Illuminati, as per this report from a Tokyo correspondent? I haven't heard about this myself, but will see if anything comes up through contacts here. It does remind me of those Native American Indian prophecies of

When the Chinese or Reds, swarm over the Turtle Island, they will kill and/or behead all of the evil leaders there." And he gives a website: <http://www.savethemales.ca> and it's by Henry Makow PhD.

It reads: "A Chinese secret society with 6 millions members, including 1.8 million Asian gangsters and 100,000 professional assassins have targeted Illuminati members if they proceed with world depopulation plans" according to Tokyo based journalist Benjamin Fulford, 46. They contacted Fulford, a Canadian ex-patriot, after he warned that the Illuminati plan to reduce the Asian population to just 500 million by means of biological weapons. "The Illuminati, with the exception of Japan, is very much a white man's game," Fulford says.

The secret society confirmed Fulford's information and asked for advice. He provided them with a list of 10,000 people associated with the Illuminati, mainly members of the Bilderberg, CFR, and Skull and Bones. NeoCons are also high priority targets. "I have promised that not a single person will die, if they negotiate in good faith," Fulford said.

Fulford is the former Asian Pacific Bureau Chief for Forbes magazine. He quit in disgust when Forbes refused to run a damaging story about one of its advertisers. Fulford has since written 15 books in Japanese. His most recent is a scathing dissection of the 9/11 hoax.

Fulford says Japan has been controlled in secret by the Illuminati through the use of murder and bribery. Underground sources tell him the Americans have murdered over 200 Japanese politicians and influential citizens since the end of World War II. Among the victims are former Prime Ministers Tanaka, Takeshita, Ohira, and Obuchi. They were all murdered using a special drug that induces strokes. The Illuminati has been warned that the Chinese secret society will not tolerate any more murders. It has also extended its protection to truth seekers in the West."

Does Awareness have a comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to comment that it is indeed so. The Chinese element is one that could radically alter the political landscape of the planet. However, this Awareness also sees that the upcoming changes, that which It has talked of in recent times, the Ascension process, is about to undo everything, is about to unlock the chains that have so long bound up the planet and the peoples of this planet. It is seen that there may be a political rift between the East and the West and that the Chinese are prepared to step forward, and to directly confront the Illuminati and the agencies of the Illuminati, such as the Trilateral Commission, the CFR, the Bilderbergs and all other groups and persons who serve these corrupt masters.

China is Not Seen as the True Hope of the Future

However, this Awareness also sees that it would be largely a situation of substituting one monster for another. It is not seen that the Chinese are the true hope for the future. Their own political record is such that they have many human rights infractions. Indeed, at this present time there is much controversy over the Tibet situation and their handling of Tibet, their oppression of those people. It is not seen that the Chinese themselves, and those people who are in charge in China right now are spiritually aware or enlightened. Even if they were to eliminate many of the Western leaders, that while it might create an opening, if they themselves were to invade America to take it over, it is not seen as a highly favorable situation.

It would be a new political master that would be oppressive in its own way. The Chinese masters would not be very inclined towards political tolerance, religious tolerance, or any other tolerance, so that seeing the Chinese bringing down the Illuminati, bringing down the powers that be in the West is not seen by this Awareness as a particularly brilliant solution. It will indeed shake things up radically, but if they were to truly invade the West to take over the United States, the results would be catastrophic in the long run.

The NWO Plan is to Reduce the World Population Not Just Asian

What is seen as more advantageous perhaps, although this Awareness does not support this, is the threat that if those leaders of the Illuminati, the various organizations and agencies, carry out their threat of eliminating large portions of the Asian populace, that they will be targeted, the Illuminati types might think twice about carrying out their plans of eliminating large amounts of Asians. However, it is to be remembered that the plan is not simply to reduce the Asian population, but rather to reduce the world population. This plan is already under way in that continent known as Africa, where many are being killed off.

Indeed, a form of genocide is already underway in the continent of Africa. The political leadership of that continent is not sufficiently organized to pose any threat to the agencies that are carrying out the genocide in Africa, but this is not so in the Asian countries, especially that country known as China. It is already seen and understood what a threat there is in the Illuminati's intent to eradicate a large portion of the Asian population. As the Chinese represent the single largest ethnic grouping on the planet, they are indeed a considerable threat in that with their political clout as well as their agents that could carry out these threats of the assassination of key Illuminati figures.

It is seen that this could create a situation of tension that would prevent the Illuminati from carrying out their plans, at least in those countries of Asian peoples. This is seen as something that can disrupt the plans of the Illuminati, so it is seen that there is something to the reports that there are groups that are fully prepared to lash out at the Illuminati leaders and leadership. They are not as hidden as they would like to be, and the Chinese secret agencies do know who is truly in charge and have them listed and targeted already. This is causing the Illuminati great concern and is causing them to be reticent in their actions and in the carrying out of their plans.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

More on Benjamin Fulford and His Assassins

QUESTION:

(Thank you) There is another question on the same topic, with regard to Benjamin Fulford. It comes from David K. Nihoa, from Fallon, Nevada. He writes, "Will Awareness comment on the information that is spreading like wildfire about Benjamin Fulford and his group of assassins who have given the Illuminati an ultimatum to cease and desist or die?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness feels that It has already commented. This individual, Benjamin Fulford is indeed legitimate, as is the organization he says has already been created, is in existence, and this is known by those agents of the Illuminati, all the different agencies, all those different individuals who have pledged themselves to the Illuminati, to overthrow the planet, to enslave humanity. They know that there are now agents out there who would hunt them down, who will assassinate them, and this is causing them to delay their plans.

However, all of this is seen as redundant in the long run with those plans that are the plans of Ascension, with those events that are even now unfolding. While these different factions do exist, while they can hunt each other and kill each other off, all of this is seen as irrelevant to an Ascension process that will bring humanity beyond such actions. This is the kind of action that may continue on in that planet and on that planet that this Awareness has always labeled as Planet B, that planet that is behind or below the Ascension, but that it does not have any relevancy to those beings who themselves are elevating their frequencies and are preparing themselves for the Ascension process.

It is simply interesting information that this Awareness is willing to make available for the readers to do with as they will.

Has Alan Greenspan Been Recently Jailed? (Former Head of Federal Reserve Has a Change of Heart?)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) There's a question about Alan Greenspan. "Has former 5th chairman Alan Greenspan been recently imprisoned without bail for his part in the Wantagate Scandal and alleged theft of Queen Elizabeth's gold at this time?" "There are two websites: www.worldreports.org; intelligent report claims www.worldreports.org/news/66_Chenev_hides_out_as_Albertson...\(?\)

Let me know if the link does not activate." And it's signed by Chris Lock, in Japan.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that indeed the entity Alan Greenspan was indeed detained by British forces, British agents, and that it does have to do with that which is known as the Wantagate affair. It is seen that he has been released. It is also seen that this entity who was a prime player for the Illuminati has had a change of heart. He is now trying to bring out information that would expose those beings who have been in charge for so long. Part of this occurred in his incarceration. There were those who had some sort of interaction with this individual that caused him to revise and review his attitudes.

The thing that this Awareness sees mostly isn't that it was a change of heart so much as this individual saw that perhaps he was backing the wrong horse. Those forces that he had so long been involved with and served may themselves be overthrown and he, being a person of political advantage, a person who would take care of his own needs first and foremost, saw the advantage of switching sides, saw the advantage of putting his eggs in a different basket, and that is why this individual is now starting to speak out more and more.

This Awareness does wish it to be known, that many of the things that Alan Greenspan is speaking about are indeed true, but that it is also seen that it is unlikely that he will be allowed to give away all of the secrets. It is seen that this individual could indeed be eliminated before too long, for he is seen as too much of a threat. It is seen that he had indeed been incarcerated in a British jail for a period of time, and while in that jail was subject to some high powered individuals who themselves had switched sides, who came in and spoke to him and presented a scenario that he saw had merit, which is why he switched sides.

This is all that this Awareness has on this question at this time.

Collapsing Bridges and Other Bad News (An Alternative to Energizing Paranoia)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Our next question is from Ethel Burkett, in New Egypt, New Jersey. She asks, "Is it true that the bridge in Saint Louis, Missouri, collapsed because of an inside job, and more of the same is going to happen as a means to contain the population in said area for better control of the people, bridges that go into cities and states of importance, planes rigged to lock down the passengers, and the push of a button to blow up the plane, and now our bridges. What's next for us Vikki?" Would Awareness comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is aware of what the entity is asking of It, but It feels it must be careful in Its answer to this question, for It does not wish to create paranoia. It does not wish to support negative thinking that suggests over and over again that there are forces that have all the control and will create such actions and carry out such actions against the people. This Awareness is aware that the means are already in place to do that which this entity has asked of, that being the destruction of such things as bridges, key highways, the planes that carry many. These means are in place to make this so, but this Awareness does not wish to energize this. This Awareness does not wish to put too much emphasis on it, for It does not see this as something that will largely occur.

Occasionally, such things will occur as did happen recently in Minnesota, or in Saint Louis, but that which is the designation of a large scale shutting off the avenues of transport, blocking the road systems, breaking down the motor systems, isolating the cities, controlling the population, is seen as more of a final action in the event that there is an overthrow by the people towards the government of the United States of America. At that point it would be seen as something that could be initiated as a way of controlling the masses. However, this is only seen as a slight possibility if this scenario developed.

Be Aware But Don't Energize Paranoia

This Awareness does not choose to energize this scenario, does not choose to create such paranoia. While it is important to know of such plans, It asks the readers to believe in another reality, to look for another way and not to energize the paranoia, not to energize the negative. Instead, visualize that these contingencies will indeed never occur, for there is another way, another plan that has nothing to do with the existing plans that have been created by those powers that are in charge, those powers that be, and it is this that this Awareness wishes the membership to now focus on and energize.

While this Awareness supports the need to be aware of such things, It does also suggest that it is not the way to be so focused, so beset by it, that the energy that is created supports the very thing that the entities are fearful of. It is not beneficial to live in paranoia, and therefore, this Awareness cautions against doing so. To be aware is one thing, but to be paranoid and live in negative energy is another thing altogether. This is not recommended by this Awareness. This Awareness is complete with this question.

18 DEEP UNDERGROUND SECRET BASES DISCOVERED IN NORWAY

(The Elite Know What is Coming and are Preparing)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The last letter concerning politics relates to underground military bases, and there are four questions going with the commentary. It comes from Magnus Roinas, in Norway. He writes, "I am impressed with CAC newsletter January 2008; a lot of interesting things. It is also relevant to my questions. Since I am a Norwegian CAC member and living in Norway, this "letter from a Norwegian politician" intrigued me. I'd like to put forward some questions about this letter to Awareness.

This enclosed letter states that our government has lied and cheated us since 1983. All elections are rigged, and our next Prime Minister will be the leader of the FRP, Frank Robert Peter Siv Jensen. The government has been building 18 deep underground bases for the elite 2 million, while the rest of the population, 2.6 million, will die when Planet X reaches our planet in 2012. All this kept a secret from us, the Norwegian people. What is difficult for me to accept is that such a gigantic construction project can be kept secret from us, the people.

I like to think of Norway as a very open and democratic society. I feel Norway is a good and open country. Here you can meet, talk with politicians, and even the King on the street, or on the train, or in the skiing tracks without any bodyguard. At least, we used to do that! A former Prime Minister lived just up the street and we met him a few times walking in the forest. My wife used to work in Oslo and she loved to meet famous people that we saw on the television, and used to speak with them and shake their hands. This is very different from what she was used to in her home country Scotland.

Question #1) Is this for real, or is this just a sick joke?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does confirm that this is for real. There is indeed a project in Norway that is meant to create a protected space for the elite, those who are sanctioned as high importance to the continuance of the powers that be and those who are in charge of the planet.

How Could Such a Huge Project be Kept Secret? Wouldn't Workers Leak Information?

QUESTION:

The next question he has is, "How is it possible to build these deep huge underground bases without anyone knowing about it? What about the workers? Will they not leak this information?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen as highly possible that many of the workers that are working on this project are not Norwegians, but they are individuals who have been working for the powers that be, who have been brought into this area, and who are largely working underground. It is also seen that there is alien technology that is being used in creating this underground space. What was first found is a natural underground area that is a huge cavern, but it is also seen that there is alien technology that is burrowing out those areas of the cavern that need to be cleared out to create a huge underground open space, and this is then being built out in layers and levels with accommodations being built in, offices being built in, auditoriums, cafeterias, all then being built in by these foreign workers.

The Black Ops Underground Working Force

Many of these foreign are themselves prisoners enslaved by the regimes that have captured them and have disappeared them; this word being used because they have been taken from their own countries, because they are individuals who would not be missed by many.

They may be missed by their families, but in the end they would not matter enough to be missed on a large scale, so they were disappeared. They disappeared from the countries they would formerly have lived in. This includes many of those who go missing in the United States of America, including children who are then incorporated into the underground society, the underground working force that is used for that which would be called "black ops" - black operations that are meant to be secret from the public.

Alien Technology and Underground Train Network

It is seen that there is no large-scale publication of this work. It is seen also that a reason why this is so hidden by the public is that the work itself is not being engaged from the surface down. It is seen that there is a tunnel that was created by extraterrestrial alien technologies that opened into this cavern. These foreign workers were then brought into this area to work on the project. These slaves were brought in through the tunnels. They were never brought from the surface, and everything is hidden, and therefore, this is why it is not so obvious to people on this surface.

This being so, this project can carry on in high secrecy, and when the time is right, that entrances need to be created; they are created not necessarily directly above the actual cavern, but in other areas where the individuals who will be transported to this underground facility will enter into trams or underground trains that will take them to the facility where they can live, when that planet which is known as Planet X comes close to the planet once again, creating the weather conditions that this Awareness spoke of recently: the hurricanes, the tornadoes, the extreme drought, the extreme conditions of the atmosphere where there is seen to be fire in the atmosphere that can torch mass areas of the planet.

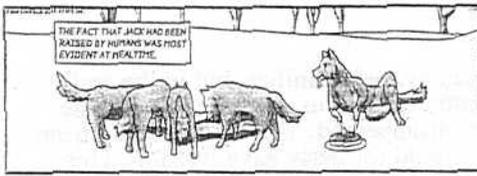

Many Secret Underground Bases Exist in the World

It is possible that this will be scenario of the 12th Planet coming close, thus creating the need to save many of the elite in these underground bases. It is also seen that the base that is being created in Norway is not the only underground base. There are several around the planet, in different countries. There are seen those that exist in Canada, the United States, in certain areas in South America, in Africa, Asia, Australia, New Zealand. These bases have been built underground by this technique of tunneling to a region, and area, thus not being even noticed or seen from above.

There are some telltale signs of something happening. Many who live in the region often hear a deep thrumming sound, humming, a vibration sometimes even coming to the surface. They have queried and asked questions about this. Several years ago a question was presented to this Awareness of such a humming thrumming sound, and this Awareness spoke of the tunneling activities taking place; that the alien technology was being used to create the tunnels that interlinked massive centers around the planet. This is all part of this plan.

These caverns that are being converted are part of that project, part of that alien technology project that this Awareness has spoken of on other occasions. This Awareness is ready for the next question.

How Many People Know of These Bases?

QUESTION:

(The Pope Knows)

(Thank you) He asks, "How many people know about this? How far down the ladders goes this information? PM? Members of government, parliament, church leaders etc?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that it is primarily those who need to know that are given this information, and this information primarily exists amongst top-ranking political figures, those politicians who are in power, who are in control. It is not information that is disseminated downwards. It is based on a need to know basis. Religious leaders are not informed of these events unless they are leaders who are in power, such as the Catholic Pope, such as certain political religious leaders who have some clout, and who could influence their flocks, but on the whole, ordinary religious leaders are not informed.

By 'ordinary religious leaders' this Awareness means such individuals as priests or pastors or ministers or Rabbi's. These individuals are not told of this. Only those who are at the top of their organization, and only if they will be an advantage to the powers that be, to the Illuminati, and those forces that are in charge. In terms of a percentage of human population who know of these events, this Awareness would say it is less than 5% who actually know what is truly happening. Those who have the power keep the power by keeping the information secret, and those layers below them only need to know certain information, thus they do not know the whole picture.

While there may be a larger percentage who are aware that something is up, it is a relatively small percentage of the individual population of the planet who actually know what is up.

Will This Cover-Up Ever be Exposed?

QUESTION:

His last question, "Is there any chance that this cover-up can be exposed and lead to a removal of the people in power?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed what will occur with the Ascension. That which is hidden will be exposed. Indeed, this is already starting to occur, as more and more people are becoming aware that there is corruption, that there is a plan afoot, that is a plan afoot that is negative to the well-being of the planet and to the peoples of this planet. This is seen as part of the Ascension process. Again, what is crucial to this is that awareness, that willingness to look at the truth, and be present.

This does not mean that the focus is such that energy is given to paranoia and to the belief that these powers that be have all the power and that what is needed is an armed resistance against such individuals, for this Awareness does not support such an action. It is only an action that would reduce the individual to that level. It would not solve anything. What is needed is that elevation of awareness, that elevation of the frequencies of consciousness that this Awareness has spoken of many times before.

This Awareness has also spoken of the need for individuals to start doing their own individual healing work: emotional, mental, as well as physical and spiritual healing. These are the things that are now needed to be focused on, not simply that there are a group of corrupt individuals who re driving this planet into oblivion. These individuals will be taken care of by forces greater than themselves, by those higher agencies, or these individuals will themselves move to Planet B where they can continue on in the manner they have been going, simply because that is the course of that planetary evolutionary process that will eventually, in several millions years, return back to a place of enlightenment.

Many now have the chance to move forward, to move upwards in personal consciousness, personal vibration, and this is what this Awareness recommends that all set their sights on, that all move towards. This Awareness is complete in the answering of the question.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you)

There's just a few minutes left on the tape. I can turn it over and we can continue with a closing message.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

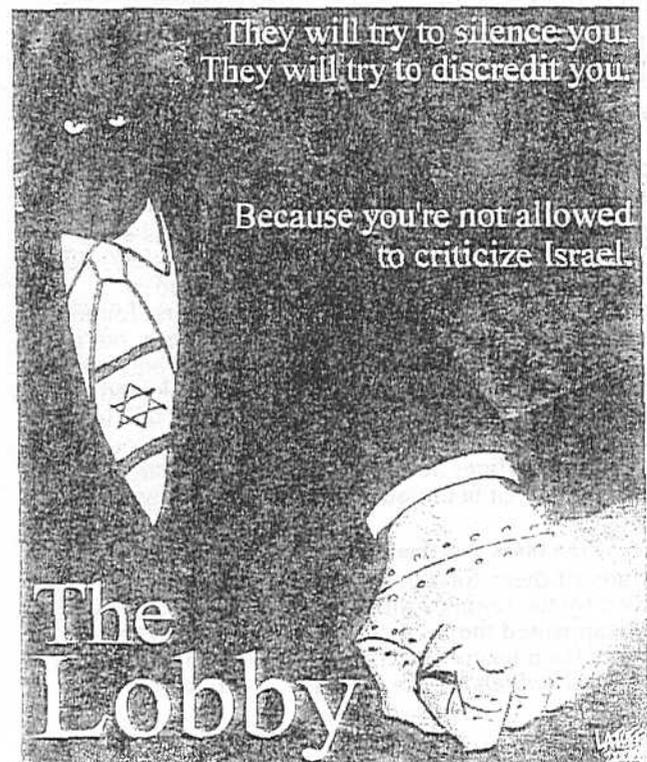

This Awareness, at this point, does not feel a need to present a closing message. This Awareness is complete with this session today.

MULTIDIMENSIONALITY AND HOW IT WORKS

QUESTIONER (JOAN):

Does Awareness have an opening message please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indeed does have an opening message. It wishes at this time to present a concept that may help individuals better understand their multidimensionality and how this works. It is to be seen that an individual is walking along a straight line, straight ahead, on a horizontal plane. As the individual walks forward along this horizontal straight line he sees ahead of him or her, that which lies ahead, and aims for that goal and walks along the path towards the goal that is ahead.

This Awareness wishes the readers to expand this image and thought to that of a lifetime. An individual is born at a distinct point on this horizontal lifeline journey. The individual walks along, moves along, and travels along the horizontal line of existence that is that lifetime on the physical. The end goal is the departure from the physical and a return back into that multidimensional existence that is the true birthright and the true nature of all beings.

The Vertical Line Represents multidimensionality

This horizontal linear existence is how most people understand life on planet earth: a progression from point A to point B. This Awareness wishes to introduce now another line, but instead of a horizontal line, it is a vertical line that intersects the horizontal at any given point. It continually is intersecting the horizontal line of existence on the physical. This vertical line represents multidimensionality. Above and below are seen different layers or levels of consciousness.

Moving up and down the vertical line allows one to play in the fields of multidimensionality. The concept of third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and beyond levels of consciousness are not often well understood, for it is not as simple as the fourth dimension, and the level beyond that is the fifth dimension and beyond, and yet this is a way that it can be seen and understood by many. Understanding this vertical principle one can see how the vertical multidimensional line always intersects the horizontal 3-dimensional level of consciousness.

The Cross of Life is a Symbol for Spirit Entering the Physical

This intersecting point is a cross of the material and the spiritual, that point where matter and spirit collide. This is the cross of life, symbolic in the Christian faith, the crucifixion of Christ on the cross of matter, the cross of life. It is indeed a symbol for spirit coming down into the physical, and being nailed to the cross of life. Using the image of the cross, if one were to extend both arms, and create a figure eight, the infinity sign, one could see how spirit crucifies itself upon that which is the line that is matter. If the infinity symbol is taken and untwisted, it becomes a circle: the circle of life, the circle of wholeness, the circle of oneness and unity.

This twisting creates that which is the infinity symbol, that which is the cross upon which spirit is hung on the physical. This is somewhat a digression from that which this Awareness was trying to explain in terms of multidimensionality.

How it is Possible For Entities to Have Simultaneous Lifetimes

Returning to the concept of the vertical line intersecting down across the horizontal line of physicality, one can see that moving upwards into those higher levels of consciousness removes one from physicality and the movement is now up and down, rather than left to right or right to left.

It is possible for any and all to enter on to the vertical line and to move consciousness up and down, even while traveling in a physical existence, even while traveling along the horizontal line. It is also to be noted that the vertical line travels along the horizontal, so the intersection is actually at any point along the horizontal line. Thus it is possible for a human being to have an extraordinary experience of multidimensionality at any point in one's life: in the preliminary stages of a child, in the levels of adolescence, adulthood, and even beyond, into the mature levels, the elder states of life.

During the Dream State One Escapes Into Higher Different Levels

This moving vertical line along the horizontal line of existence allows the individual at all times to experience their multidimensionality, their greater levels of consciousness. This must exist for the individual to escape every night in the dream state to those higher different levels of consciousness, but the human being, in their basic multidimensionality, must escape from the physical, for there is a degree of replenishing, rejuvenating on that level of consciousness that occurs at night when a being sleeps, and dreams.

There have indeed been experiments that have shown that if a human being is denied the dream state, even though they are allowed to sleep, they very quickly become psychotic. This is one of the techniques that has been discovered and is used extensively for mind control, to break down an individual's will and consciousness. That is how important it is for the individual to be able to escape the physical and to return back to their true multidimensional nature.

Thus the vertical line can be seen to represent multidimensionality, and each and every human has the capacity to travel up and down the vertical, as it travels along the horizontal. This Awareness is complete in this concept at this time, but is prepared to field further questions of the nature of multidimensionality.

ALL ABOUT OVERSOULS

(Thank you) We have several areas of dimensions to cover.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that those questions be presented first today.

QUESTIONER:

(Okay) There were a couple of questions from yesterday, but we'll carry on here. The first one is from Millie. P., from Tucson, Arizona. She writes, "Concerning dimensions and shifts, and Oversouls. Do Oversouls ever incarnate in full as their own self instead of one of their personages, or are they restricted to incarnations by a new personage only? It seems Awareness has said that our Oversouls will share more in our existence after the shift to a higher dimension." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The concept of 'Oversoul' is a concept presented by the entity Jane Roberts in the Sixties and Seventies through her channeling of that disincarnate being that called itself Seth. The Seth consciousness expressed that the Oversoul partook in several lives and was responsible for overseeing those lifetimes, and that the Oversoul itself was then governed by a greater council of Oversouls. This is indeed a correct assumption. This is how it is.

The Oversoul is an Oversoul to Nine Distinct Lives

This Awareness wishes to explain that an Oversoul is in fact an Oversoul to nine distinct lives. There are nine expressions of the soul that enter the human level of consciousness at relatively the same time. There is some overlap of those lifetimes, thus one who enters into a life may enter 20 or 30 years earlier than another aspect of the soul who also enters.

Nine is a mystical number; a sacred number, and represents the concept of wholeness and completion. Thus, the nine expressions of the one soul exhibiting themselves at the same time, relatively speaking, will have the fullest human experience possible, for all nine aspects of the soul will have a similar theme to the life that is being experienced. Thus, if one aspect of the soul enters into a lifetime and is seeking to understand the theme of financial abundance, the nine aspects will have various experiences of physical abundance.

One may indeed have an experience where wealth and status and power are indeed experienced in that lifetime. Another may have a life of poverty and denial of wealth or financial well-being, and the other seven may have experiences that lie in between the two extremes, but that the fullest expression is totally experienced by the nine aspects of self that have had the physical experience. Upon the completion of physical life those nine aspects return back to the Oversoul, back to the soul, and all nine experiences come together for the whole experience that enriches the soul's total experience of physical life as experienced through the nine aspects or expressions of the soul.

The Oversoul is Really the High Self

The Oversoul already has an understanding of the theme, and has a perception and a knowledge of what each life plan is about, and thus is in a position to govern and guide and influence the lives to whatever degree it can. This Awareness needs to also stipulate at this point that the Oversoul is indeed also that which is the High Self, and the High Self thus has several other expressions that It also oversees during the existence of the nine selves.

There is a time when that which is the Oversoul or High Self Itself was part of the physical stream of life, Itself part of one of the nine aspects of the expression of the soul into physicality. The High Self, or the Oversoul, by having had its own physical experiences, its own physical lifetime, eventually reaches a state in consciousness where it moves forward. It is not unlike a child entering the school system, moving through the school system from Kindergarten Grade One, and along the various levels of education until a graduation is reached, and it moves beyond the educational system and is somewhat promoted into life experiences that lie beyond an educational system.

The Middle Self Consciousness Can Move to the Higher Self

As the human consciousness that experiences the many lifetimes, the consciousness expands, grows and evolves, moving always forward in awareness, in consciousness, until a level is reached where the middle self consciousness can move to the Higher Self Consciousness then acquires a new role. Instead of being that which is known as the middle self in Huna, a consciousness having a physical experience, it now stays in the realm of spirit or spiritual consciousness, directing the middle self consciousness.

It is in a sense assisting its own self, where the middle self is a lower level of the High Self, just as the low self is a lower level of the middle self and the High

Self, but eventually, that state of consciousness that is reached is evolved enough that the middle self graduates to that which is the High Self and it continues to have experiences until the High Self Itself graduates to a level beyond the High Self.

All Levels of Consciousness Happen Simultaneously

What is also to be understood here is that all levels of consciousness are indeed happening simultaneously. It cannot be understood in a linear way, for this is too confining. The multidimensionality that this Awareness has spoken of as the vertical line is all happening at the same time. Seeing it as vertical line is simply a way of better envisioning and understanding the concept of multidimensionality. Thus, it is possible to be in connection with one's Oversoul or High Self, one's Oversoul to the Oversoul, or the High Self to the High Self, and even beyond, to the other levels of consciousness that have expanded well beyond those lower levels.

This Awareness is complete with this question, unless there is more that the energizer wishes to ask.

Going Through the Death Experience

(Does An Unfair System Exist in Consciousness?)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Yes, there are a few more questions from Millie. She speaks, "Regarding personages, with the strife and drama that many people or personages go through at death, and the fact that they usually need much healing of the psyche afterwards, it appears to be an unfair system toward the people who have no recollection of, or even direct involvement in what the other lives of the Oversoul have done. For example, Awareness has said that aliens who made contact or contracts with a previous personage and who want to collect from the current person, can be refused by the current person if the new person is aware of the contact or contract,

If each new personage is truly a new eternal being who will have new experiences, separate from the Oversoul, should each new person simply be grateful for being put into existence and simply pay whatever price must be paid to the Oversoul for that existence?" Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The first comment that this Awareness needs to make is against the whole concept of fairness. There is nothing fair or unfair of the way that consciousness has been set up on the physical. It is all about the having of experiences. All experiences are relevant, all experiences are fair, even those that would be judged as unfair by those who look upon a life or an existence as a tragedy or an unfair life, and unfairness to the life, have merit when introduced back into the group soul, into the whole soul, into that which is also sometimes called the long soul.

Even those lifetimes of despair and pain and anguish have a purpose, even if there is need for healing upon the exiting of a physical life, when that consciousness is reintegrated back into the greater fabric of the soul; always there will be the healing. The separation that sometimes does occur upon death and after death is because the consciousness has not been able yet to accept the greater reality and the greater truth of that which is the spirit realm, but eventually even those who have that separation, even those who may have stayed wayward or earthbound, will eventually return back into the soul fabric.

This is the promise that is held eternally. Thus, this concept of fairness is itself unfair and inadequate to understand the whole, to understand what the physical experience is all about. Judging from a level of physical morality precludes the possibility of understanding the greater experience. Spirit itself makes no judgment on a lifetime as good or bad. This within the dominion of physicality, where religions and philosophies have created concepts of good and bad, light and dark, duality.

There is Nothing Fair or Unfair About a Human Life

This becomes very complex, but what this Awareness is simply trying to say at this point is that there is nothing fair or unfair about a human life whether suffered through in great agony, or one of privilege and rank. What makes it fair or unfair is a judgment process. Once returned back into spirit, all is made clear and the lessons that were to be gained from a life, whether they were truly experienced and gained or not, are also made clear, and the life purpose is once again revisited and understood.

The point of the evolution of consciousness in the physical is to be able to understand this concept of fairness and unfairness and to remove oneself from it, thus moving oneself from victim mentality, thus accepting total responsibility for one's life, and the creation of one's life: creating one's life through awareness and understanding versus ignorance and blindness.

The Orion Paradigm of Belief (The Vale of Forgetfulness)

This Awareness wishes at this point to introduce for all to understand, the concept of the Orion paradigm of belief; the hologram that surrounds the physical planet and physical consciousness that all souls descending down into physicality must pass through. This has sometimes been referred to as a vale of forgetfulness through which a soul passes as it enters into physical consciousness, thus forgetting its origins, its purpose, its connection to the greater, thus putting itself on the horizontal line of physicality, seeing only that which is the physical life and that which governs physicality.

This paradigm of belief, this hologram that is created creates a belief system whereby an individual participating in physical life defines physicality in a certain way. This way is a way that has been artificially produced and created in the form of this hologram, this paradigm of belief, this energetic barrier that all aspects of the soul must enter through and pass through in order to become physical. One of the aspects that is part of the physical is this concept of duality, is the concept of right and wrong, of fair and unfair, thus it is that an aspect of the souls that enters into one of the nine lives to have the physical experience will be governed by the rules of this planet, of this third dimensional reality.

The Point of Physical Life is to Attain Spiritual Awareness

It is possible indeed; it is the point of physical life to attain spiritual awareness, to attain enlightenment. That state of enlightenment effectively destroys and disrupts the hologram of belief, the paradigm of belief that surrounds the planet that the 3 soul must go through in order to have the physical existence. Once this paradigm is destroyed, then the individual who has reached enlightenment, who has reached that state of illumination, understands itself in terms of its greater nature, understands that there are no victims, and all have placed themselves purposely on this cross of physical life, physical existence, to have a greater experience that is taken back through the vale of forgetfulness, upon the conclusion of a lifetime, and is taken back to the soul level, to be introduced into the soul fabric of the Long Soul, the Greater Soul.

Thus, questions of fairness and unfairness are truly irrelevant when a greater truth is understood, when that higher understanding of consciousness is achieved. This Awareness is aware that It has not totally answered the question presented by Millie P., but It felt that It needed to answer this matter, this issue of fairness and unfairness from the greater perspective and understanding of consciousness, and what multidimensional consciousness is truly about. This Awareness invites the questions to be re-introduced at this time.

QUESTIONER:

From the very beginning?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is correct.

Contracts Made Long Ago With Aliens

Okay. Regarding personages. With the strife and drama that many people or personages go through at death and the fact that they usually need much healing of the psyche afterwards, it appears to be an unfair system towards the people who have no recollection of or even direct involvement in what the other lives of the Oversoul have done. For example, Awareness has said that aliens who made contracts with a previous personage and who want to collect from the current person can be refused by the current person if the new person is aware of the contract. If each new personage is truly a new eternal being who will have new experiences separate from the Oversoul, should each new person simply be grateful for being put into existence and simply pay whatever price must be paid to the Oversoul for that existence?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness at this time wishes to discuss this concept of contracts being made, contracts with extraterrestrial beings that seem to be carried forth from lifetime to lifetime. This has much to do with the multidimensional nature of consciousness. Those concepts of time and space are largely irrelevant when one works from the vertical understanding of consciousness versus a linear concept, the horizontal line that is the norm for many. Thus in a lifetime, a vow can be made to those extraterrestrial beings who are free of that horizontal constriction or belief system, who come from a multidimensional understanding of life, who travel up and down the vertical constantly, back and forth through time.

Satanic Ritual and Ceremony

At this time, this Awareness wishes to digress somewhat and enter into an area that may challenge many. It is an area that this Awareness has talked of before, but has not discussed for a time now, and that is the area of that which is known as Satanic ritual and ceremony. This has very much to do with this concept of contracts being made to extraterrestrials. In times gone past, and even in modern times when those who have engaged in that worship of the dark lord, of the Satanic energies, there were often ceremonies held secretly, where vile things were done to many innocent beings: children, women, even men.

Often, beings would appear who were considered to be demons, who were considered to be servants of the Lord Beelzebub, Satan, Lucifer. These horrendous beings, these demonic creatures extracted a vow from the participants of these satanic rituals, a vow for their souls. This is what is referred to as selling your soul to Satan. These vows were made under horrendous circumstances where human sacrifice and torture often took place. Thus a blood vow was made, which was deemed to have much more power and impact on the individual than a simple speaking of a vow.

In other words, these individuals, through their horrendous actions, truly committed themselves to the worship and the service of their lord, as they perceived it at that time.

The "Demons" Were Actually Reptilian Time-Travelers

This vow is that which transcended lifetimes. This is the vow that many are called upon in other lifetimes to honor and maintain. What this Awareness now wants to make clear is that those beings that were seen as the demons, the ones that were the disciples of Satan itself, were actually extraterrestrial reptilian beings who have and had the capacity to time travel, to shift throughout the multidimensional realms.

Thus it was these extraterrestrials would indeed take a contract from the being who participated in the ritual, who would return back into physical incarnation over and over. There is an energy signature that returns with each and every lifetime that is recognizable. Even so the aspect of the soul that comes into physical life is not necessarily the exact signature, the exact life or being from another lifetime, still it is part of the soul signature, an aspect of that soul that had sent previously an aspect of itself into physical incarnation.

Thus, this contract is reintroduced from one lifetime to another, and these demons, the reptilian beings working through ignorance will show up again, demanding that payment be made still to a contract that was made in another lifetime. Due to ignorance or a lack of awareness or understanding, because having passed through the vale of forgetfulness or through the hologram that has been artificially been put up around the planet, there is no understanding that the contract is not valid.

Because of that place that the being is now in, seeing these creatures showing up, having this reintroduced yet again and again, simply supports the belief that this contract must be upheld. Because an individual feels they have no recourse, no alternative, they will allow themselves to fall again under the auspices of those extraterrestrial beings, those demonic reptilian beings. The problem here is that while the extraterrestrials can travel back and forth in time or can extend their vision to other lifetimes and come back into those lifetimes to collect on their contract, the individuals who have these experiences are not aware that they do not need to honor the contract.

Indeed, it is not unlike getting a six-year old to sign a contract of service that will bind it and enslave it for the rest of its life, simply because at six-years old they will be given things that they like to have, and they do not have understanding that maybe that which they like as a six-year old will not be what they want when they are sixty-year old. We would not expect a contract that is signed by a child to be honored when that child is a mature man or woman, when they are sixty years old for example, and yet it is expected on some level that an agreement made at a relatively unaware state of consciousness in a life that does not have awareness is to be honored in another life and is to be perpetually held, keeping that individual enslaved from lifetime to lifetime, in the service of that which is the Dark Force or the corruption of spirit.

An Agreement Made in Another Lifetime is Invalid Now

This Awareness is presenting this at this time so individuals can start to understand that they do indeed have choices. Even if they feel they are trapped in a life where there is no choice, and they must act out that which they are given is not necessarily true or correct, and for those who are or have been trapped in a form of Satanic abuse in this lifetime, being told by those actors of that drama that they have sold their lives in other lifetimes, that they have sold their soul to the devil; that this is not true. The agreement made in another lifetime does not apply to this lifetime, and they do have the right to destroy the contract and to step out of such an agreement.

This Awareness is complete momentarily and asks the energizer to present It further aspects of the question so that It can carry on.

ANOTHER WAY TO EXPERIENCE MULTIDIMENSIONALITY?

QUESTION:

She has a question related to the previous one. She says, "Is this system of incarnation due to change at some point?" She's referring to paying the price or the price must be paid to the Oversoul for that existence. She asks, "What other systems of incarnation are there in the universe and elsewhere?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

One other system that exists is that system which the Reptilians and extraterrestrials engage in, that being of a shifting and a moving up and down levels of consciousness, even that which this Awareness has called time, and time travel. It is simply moving from one life to another. If time is simultaneous, in other words, if all lifetimes are happening simultaneously, and an entity or being understands this and lives this, then it easily steps from one life to another, from one lifetime to another lifetime. Thus, that horizontal line of consciousness is not valid. Indeed, the vertical line is the level that is most experienced.

This is another way of experiencing multidimensionality. This is much more accurate to how it truly is, and this is the direction in which those humans are moving who are moving towards Ascension. It will be a multidimensional existence versus a horizontal singular existence. Also, it is possible to have the experience of many lives, of the expression of many lifetimes, even while holding a single focus. This is already occurring to many who are expanding their awareness.

The Interpreter is Now Experiencing Multidimensionality

The Interpreter himself is starting to experience his multidimensionality as his abilities and talents to move along the vertical, up and down, progress. Even in his work doing the past life regression, he is finding how much easier it is at this time to move up and down, in and out, as are others who are also opening up to their own multidimensionality. Gone is the singularity of focus that defines most physical lifetimes or lives of many on the physical plane of existence for the Interpreter, for others who are opening up their consciousness, their multidimensionality. Thus, other lifetimes are as relevant as the present lifetime, and indeed, the other lifetimes give much greater understanding and meaning to the present lifetime.

This too is another form of conscious existence that is available and will be the norm upon Ascension to those who move in that direction. There are others, but at this point this Awareness is content with what It has presented. This Awareness wishes to conclude this question by stating that the Oversoul does not demand a price. The inference by the entity Millie P., is that to come into a lifetime sometimes requires a great sacrifice or a great payment, punishment and trials and tribulations that are somehow required to have physical existence, as if the Oversoul was an arbitrator of that lifetime and would charge for the soul to have the new life; this is simply not so.

All Lifetimes Return to the Oversoul

As this Awareness has spoken earlier, all lifetimes have purpose and meaning that are brought back to the Oversoul, that are brought back to that which is called the Long Soul and are added to the treasury of experience of all levels of consciousness that the Long Soul requires. There is no paying of a price. It is simply not that simple. It is not required to pay a price to enter into physicality. Entering into physicality produces understanding and awareness at deeper levels, even if that is not appreciated or understood in physical life. It will indeed be appreciated at the conclusion of the life, once the consciousness of that being returns back into the soul matrix.

This Awareness does feel complete with this question.

After the Coming Shift Will We Interact With Loved Ones Who Have Died Previously?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Millie has another question. She writes, "On a related note, after the coming shift, will we begin to interact physically with loved ones who died previously, or is this type of return not generally allowed?" Your comments please.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The comment that this Awareness wishes to immediately make is that such interchange and exchange takes place already on the physical level of existence, especially in that time of unconsciousness, that time of dreaming. The middle self, which is the consciousness that occupies the physical body, is not confined to the physical during the dream state. Indeed, as this Awareness has already spoken, it must leave the physical body in order to replenish itself on that spiritual level. That is where those loved ones also exist.

Thus, it is possible to interact with loved ones who have already crossed over in the dream state at the level of fourth, but more accurately fifth dimensional consciousness. This has always occurred in the human condition. What has defined it however, is the forgetfulness of the dream and the dream state when the middle self, the middle consciousness returns back into the prison that is the physical body. Because of certain mindsets and beliefs that are currently held, it is not seen as valid to remember the dream and the dream state. It is not seen as valid to remember connecting loved ones while in the dream state, and even if it is remembered, then there is no authority given to this experience. It is not deemed as real or even sometimes appropriate.

Unduly Grief at the Loss of a Loved One

Because this is so, most individuals do not have the fullest of understanding that their loved ones indeed continue to exist and are always available to them. Because this is so, many grieve unduly upon the loss of a loved one for it is felt that they have disappeared forever and ever from their lives; that they cease to exist in any way, shape or form. Thus, the sense of loss is even greater. This was not always so. Most indigenous people do not hold it as so, but also in the history of mankind, at one time it was held that there was very little barrier between physical life and spirit life, and the two intermeshed constantly and it was more than possible to engage the presence of ancestors. In fact ancestors were often sought for guidance and advice and this is still so for many of the indigenous people such as the Aborigines and others around the world.

The concept that this will change and be more available is thus not a valid concept or even a valid question, for it already exists: that state of communication with those loved ones who have passed over. It simply requires an openness to this and a belief that it is so for it to be so. There is more to this question than this Awareness would seek to answer if presented to it.

QUESTIONER:

Please speak what you are referring to.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness feels that It may have gone off on a tangent to the question, and if this is so, and the energizer is aware of the tangent, then please ask the question to this Awareness.

QUESTIONER:

No, I think I understood you to say what was meant to be said, and that it is available now and always will be, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed so.

Can Cosmic Awareness Still be Contacted After the Ascension Shift?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The next question from Millie, she writes, "After the shift, will Awareness Still communicate via channels for a time? Will we at some point simply be able to tune into Awareness easily and recognize It as the source which spoke to us all these years?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Ascension process needs to be understood as a point of evolution that once reached will signify that a degree of consciousness is now available, a degree of consciousness has been reached whereby the expansion of consciousness does allow the communication with other dimensions to be made possible. This Awareness comes from a very high level of consciousness, a high dimensional level close to the Godhead. It comes down the dimensional levels until It reaches a point where It can connect with the Interpreter's consciousness that has been sent upwards, if you will, until both have reached a place of commonality, where communications can occur.

After Ascension Many Will Communicate With Awareness

With the Ascension process, many will be much more able to extend their consciousness, not only upwards, but outwards, and in all directions, and thus it will be possible for many to have access to that which is Cosmic Awareness, that which is the level of consciousness of this Awareness. So the answer is indeed "Yes"; that with Ascension, many more will be able to communicate more directly with this Awareness, will understand the Source, because they will be more directly able to connect to that Source and to be open to that Source.

This Awareness wishes also to state that many are now starting to experience this as the case, even before that time of Ascension is reached, for as this Awareness has said before, that time is flexible and it is indeed subject to individual interpretation. In other words, even though there is seen as a time of a mass Ascension of many, that there is seen some individuals who have the honor of going ahead, who have already been working towards Ascension. Indeed, this can be seen throughout the history of mankind, that there have been those who have reached Ascension at various times and are able to communicate with this Awareness.

Many New Voices of Awareness Now Being Heard

There are indeed more and more who are reaching that level of personal Ascension before the mass event occurs, and these individuals are speaking more and more for this Awareness, and for the many voices of Awareness that are now starting to be issued, that are starting to be heard and starting to be expressed. This Awareness points out that in the early days of the organization known as Cosmic Awareness Communications, there were very few voices for this Awareness. Indeed, the voice of Cosmic Awareness was the only organizational voice available in the Sixties and Seventies. This already has shifted, as consciousness has been shifting over the last thirty plus years.

Many Entities Today are Channeling Awareness to Some Degree

There are many more who are voices for this Awareness now, but they are also voices for many other layers and levels of consciousness, for many other entities who would speak through them, for the shifting of consciousness has indeed led to an expansion of availability to channel many entities, many levels of consciousness. Not all are as highly placed perhaps as that which is this Awareness, but many are indeed being heard. Some are being used nefariously, are being used to misdirect and mislead, but still the human condition as it moves towards expanded consciousness, evolved consciousness, is indeed turning outwards and is indeed opening up to a higher degree of conscious awareness which allows for the connection to the multidimensional universe to be made, which allows for the expressing and the channeling of this Awareness and other levels of consciousness to occur. This Awareness is complete with the question.

Those Going to Planet "B": How Will We Know If They Died or Not?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Millie has two or three more questions. Millie P., from Tucson Arizona. She writes, "Regarding the shift, Awareness said that some people will literally die and others who appear to die will simply transfer to the other planet and not experience death. If we align with one planet, and others in our family align with the other planet, is there a way to tell if our loved ones have died literally, or if they simply transferred?" Any comments?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed an intriguing question, for it is one that occupies many minds, for it also involves a sense of loss of those who are loved ones in a current lifetime, and even a fear that perhaps they will not be able to reconnect with those loved ones. This Awareness wishes to emphasize that there is a state of consciousness that lies beyond the physical, which lies beyond even the process of Ascension. Thus it is that loved ones or those who are part of the group soul that an individual may stem from, will always be available to them. The union that occurs within the fabric of the soul matrix will reunite always, no matter if an individual is progressing along that timeline, that conscious line that would be known as Planet B, or even Planet A.

The experience of separation is such that in order to become totally focused on one line or the other, it may be required by the individual having the experience of consciousness along that line, to forget others who are held as loved and cherished in another lifetime, so that they can indeed be focused onto the physical existence and the experiences of that physical existence. That line of existence in consciousness that this Awareness has referred to as Planet B, will indeed become much more focused on the physical, and even digress in consciousness to an even greater state of separation between the physical and the spiritual, that which is the state of existence and consciousness lying beyond the physical. Thus it may be that all that is focused upon in the physical experience of that line that is known as Planet B will be one of total physicality with no sense of connection to that which is Spirit, or spiritual, that which is of a higher level of consciousness.

Hard Times for Eons For Many on Planet "B"

In this line, the physical suffering that may occur, the physical loss that may be so because of this separation may be greater than that which exists on the current line of physical existence. Their sense of loss, those beings rather who exist on that line, may be such that there truly is no sense of an afterlife after physical death. The level of consciousness that will be reached will be so singular in that physical existence that there is no place for concepts of a greater reality, a multidimensionality. For those beings, the loss of a loved one will be total and dramatic, and as consciousness digresses even deeper into physicality, a state of consciousness will be reached that will be almost animalistic, that will be totally governed and controlled by a handful of beings who have a greater truth and understanding but do not allow those below them to have that same truth or understanding.

A Living Hell on Planet "B"

This will be the creation in a manner of speaking, of a hell upon the planet. It has always been understood that hell is here on this planet, that hell is considered truly to be that separation of spirit, that separation from a spiritual understanding and awareness, and part of that evolutionary track of that planet which this Awareness has called Planet B is a total separation from an awareness of spirit, thus creating a separation that creates hell on earth to an even greater degree than experienced even now. This Awareness sees many atrocities occurring in such a line of consciousness, but this too is part of the evolutionary track that certain souls will choose to experience in their own evolutionary track of soul expansion.

Those who choose to experience heightened awareness, who have increased their vibrations and frequencies to such a degree will not feel the loss of loved ones in the same way, for they will be much more able to access those loved ones, whether in a physical state or not. The Planet A will still have a physical component. It will still be physical in nature, but at the same time, those individuals having that experience will, at the same time, understand their multidimensional natures also, and will be able to play in both realms, not being solely at the beck and call of physical reality and a separation from Spirit and spiritual awareness. Both will exist simultaneously, and thus the physical experience on Planet A will truly be magnificent.

This is how this Awareness wishes to share this information at this time. It asks if the question has been sufficiently answered.

QUESTIONER:

Yes I think it has. Millie has one last related question. We're coming to the end of the tape. I do have an extra tape ready. Would you like to go and finish off this part, or is the Interpreter getting tired?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is prepared to continue on. The Interpreter is fine at this time.

If Your Loved Ones Go to Planet "B"

(Death? Missing? An Empty House)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) I appreciate that. The question is again from Millie P., in Tucson, Arizona. "If our loved ones do transfer to the other planet without the appearance of dying, will we simply be unable to find them? Or will they simply be unable to find us? Meaning, will we go to their homes and places of work only to see that they're missing, or is it necessary that going to a different earth must be perceived by those left behind as physically dying?" Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness states that for some, a departure from this physical plane as they ascend or move on, or move to another state, will be seen as a physical death. For those who have such an experience, such a loss, there is a deeper reason why this will be so. This Awareness is wishing to state that those who physically die off need to totally separate themselves, their consciousness, for they have chosen to go down a line where they are separating more from their spiritual source, at least separating on that physical horizontal line of experience.

Thus it may be that one might experience the loss of a loved one, an acquaintance in a physical manner, a death. What will be much more prevalent however is that people will simply not be part of one's life anymore. A separation will occur without any realization that there is any loss, that there is a separation. People will simply not be part of an individual's life any longer and there will not be even any thought to this, for as the separation grows greater between the two planets: Planet A and Planet B, that sense of other individuals will diminish, especially for those who continue along that line of physical experience that will define the experiential line of experiences that is Planet B. Those who have reached a higher level of Ascension may certainly at the beginning indeed be aware that certain individuals that were once part of their lives chose to move in another direction. They will acknowledge and understand that even if it is a physical death that separates them, that their consciousness, that which is their Higher Selves, still does exist and is accessible to them if the need is there.

However, while the focus is on that track of physical experience that will be exhibited and understood and experienced on Planet B, the need for interaction from those on that track will be less and less and less, while those who travel on the line that is Planet A, the Ascended planet, will honor those who have a need to progress along this spiritual evolutionary track and they will simply get on with their own lives, knowing that they can always connect if desired on that higher spiritual level.

This is perhaps a confusing area to understand. This Awareness wishes it to be clear. Those beings, those souls who wish to experience an even greater experience of separation from spirit, from the multidimensional nature of consciousness, will do so in such a way that they will stay focused on the physical experience that they are having, complete with the rules of definition that will define that experience. Because this will be so, such souls will not necessarily seek to connect for a period of time with their multidimensional nature. Thus those who have moved upwards in that appreciation of their multidimensional nature will not be sought out by those who do not choose this.

Even though those who have experienced Ascension could meet with these souls upon their demise in their physical lives, they will not choose to do so, for that separation will be such that the honoring of them will allow them to simply have their experience, and the energetic gap will be great enough to prevent an interaction of consciousness. Is this somewhat clear to the energizer?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it is.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness asks the energizer if this is clear for It wishes to use her as a feedback to understand if perhaps the membership are also clear in what this Awareness is trying to explain.

QUESTIONER:

I think so. If it is not understood by the membership, questions are definitely invited of course. ...Does Awareness have a closing message, or would It prefer to go on with more questions at this time.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would prefer to go on with more questions.

Third Dimension and the Spirit Matthew

QUESTION:

All right. Another question with regard to relationship of the third dimension to physicality; this one too is from Millie P., at Tucson Arizona. She writes, "Can Awareness explain the relationship of 3rd dimension or any dimension to physicality? For example, Matthew, or matthewbooks.com, as we know, is a person who died on earth and who now communicates to us via a telepathic link with his mother who still lives here. She has said that he travels by ship sometimes through various dimensions, including 3rd dimension, and that he can assume a body that fits in with the fellow passengers of this ship.

Despite this, he is considered to be "in spirit" in this 3rd dimension which he left from, and also was referred to as "in spirit" by an alien who is of a higher dimension than ours. Is dimension then simply a state of being which does not tie in necessarily with physicality?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

No, this is not so. The third dimensional reality is the reality of physicality. The two are synonymous: the same. Once one leaves the third dimensional physical reality, the definitions change. Thus, each layer or level of consciousness, each dimension that lies beyond the third dimension is an expansion from that which is a constraint or constriction. Density in the third dimension is such that there are definite restrictions and limitations that no longer exist when one leaves the third dimensional physical reality.

One Can Adopt a Body or Create and Occupy One

Thus it is that the mind and consciousness hold much greater power and sway in other levels of consciousness. If one wishes to adopt a body, one creates such a body and occupies this body, such as the example given by the entity Matthew. This is also true for the third dimensional reality, for all physical beings create from mind, their physical body. The difference is upon entering the physical dimension it is forgotten that they have created this body, and thus see the body as their existence, their conscious mind being fused it seems, into the physical form.

However, those who have a higher level of consciousness understand that this is not so, and thus, depending on how aware and how capable, can indeed create a physical form temporarily to house the consciousness, but do not necessarily forget that they can leave that physical form, that they can create differently if they wish. They can abandon that form and return to their higher states of consciousness. The physical 3rd dimensional level is a choice of consciousness that has its own definition, its own rules and laws, but once one leaves this 3rd dimensional reality, other rules and laws, other definitions of form exist; not form in a physical way, but certainly form to that level of reality that is perceived, understood and worked with in another level of consciousness.

How Do Humans on Higher Levels Appear?

QUESTIONER:

In the other level of consciousness, will humans still appear as humans or would they be more of an energy form?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They would be more of an energy form. They could, because of the familiarity, especially in the lower dimensional levels such as the lower 4th dimension, they could still form themselves in physical form, presenting themselves in a physical body, but that as consciousness moves beyond the physical, beyond the fourth, then there is no longer such a need to house consciousness in a physical body or a physical form, or at least the representation of physical form.

QUESTIONER:

I see. Is it fair to say that the higher consciousness on Planet A could be likened unto a person taking a PhD?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Planet "A" Will Move Into the 4th and 5th Dimensions

This is so. Those who are on that ascended level of consciousness have a greater awareness to what is possible. They are not quite as confined to a physical reality, but this Awareness wishes to make clear, that upon Ascension, the existence of the planet will still be largely physical. Those beings who choose to reincarnate on Planet A will also have a physical existence. It is more though that they will not be as confined to physicality the same way as it is experienced in the 3rd dimension. The Ascension process will move the planet beyond a 3rd dimension into that which is 4th/5th dimension: a variance of the two.

The physicality that is experienced there will be much looser, will not be as constricting or as dense as it currently is or as it will become upon that which is Planet B, and that line of evolution. Even as consciousness progresses along the timeline or the line of consciousness that will become Planet A, there will be a greater realization as time goes on, of the spiritual quality of consciousness and thus, a gradual moving away from physicality altogether.

QUESTIONER:

That will be extremely interesting. Thank you for answering that. Okay, we're at the point where we have three more questions relating to dimensions. There are also questions that are follow-ups from previous questions...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to answer the follow-up questions, leaving the other questions of dimensions and dimensionality for a later session.

Exposing Those Secret Tunnels in Norway

(The Extraterrestrial Faction Involved)

QUESTIONER:

There are additional queries regarding the Norway question from Magne Roinas yesterday. It was mentioned the people were unaware of the tunnel entrance and that slave labor was gathered from various areas where these people would not likely be missed. Plus these people were transported through tunnels from different areas created by extraterrestrial technology. His last question, "Is there any chance that this cover-up can be exposed and lead to a removal of the people in power?" Could Awareness please expand on this information?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed possible that the events that will make such an occurrence possible are fast approaching. Part of what will be needed, part of what has been seen and shared by this Awareness is an exposing to the world's populace that there is an extraterrestrial faction, not so much even the exposing of the nefarious faction, that which this Awareness has called the Orion Empire, so much as an exposing to the Galactic Federation, and the first contact with the Galactic Federation will also expose the existence of that group of extraterrestrials that have been long engaged with the governments, forming the secret governments, forming the power groupings that have long controlled and manipulated humanity.

It will also be shown that these negative energies, these negative extraterrestrial beings have long manipulated humankind, have long been behind the events and circumstances that have been so on this planet earth. This is all being seen as soon to be exposed, and when this occurs of course, those beings, those individuals and entities that have participated with the extraterrestrial Orion program will also be exposed, and they will indeed be held accountable.

QUESTIONER:

Everything comes 'round again doesn't it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Enslaved Work Force Includes Captured Children (Remember Those "Milk Carton Children"?)

What goes around comes around. Concerning the tunnels and the enslaved work force that is currently working in these underground bases, often the beings that have been taken are children who have been captured in the various locations where such events happen. Often those children who are referred to as milk carton children are amongst those who are now enslaved. These beings were taken and abused, and broken down. Their conscious will was broken and they were subject to mind control techniques. Often many of these children were the victims of satanic ritual and of those beings, those powerbrokers who use the energies and the spirit of these children, breaking them to a point where they become almost mindless.

Thus, once they have been so broken and dehumanized, they are not seen as fit for anything else, nor is there an intent or desire to return them to healthy consciousness. Thus they are put into the slave labor camps and are then used as a labor source for such black ops as the building of the underground bases. This is an intolerable situation, and this Awareness does not support it, nor is it supported by the higher levels of consciousness and spiritual awareness, and it is one reason why this will soon be exposed, for those who have that desire and willingness to increase the spiritual understanding of cooperation and support that will be needed on that ascended plane of existence.

QUESTION:

What will happen to the children when this is exposed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They will be recouped, brought back to the fold, healed and given back their dignity, and their humanity. It is seen that this is something that will occur.

QUESTIONER:

I'm so glad. This would be an experience that will be hard for them to forget would it not?

COSMIC AWARENESS

It will not be a matter of forgetting, it will be a matter of releasing and letting go of the experience, not necessarily forgetting it, not necessarily denying it, but understanding that at some level it was called in for a reason, but in the release of the energies around it, the experience itself can be released, and in the healing that occurs, the individuals will move beyond the experience itself. They will not be plagued or demonized by that experience. They will not continue to relive it the rest of their lives. It will be released and they will be able to live healthy and normal lives again.

More on the Tower of Babel

(The True Nature of the Biblical Story)

QUESTION:

(God be with them.) Here's another follow-up concerning the Tower of Babel question. "After the presentation of the biblical information about Noah, remind the Interpreter of additional information by another CAC member about the Tower of Babel. Is there additional information Awareness would like the members to consider? For instance, what really was its purpose?" Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness spoke the other day that it was by design that the extraterrestrial masters allowed the planet to be subject to the massive flooding. They allowed the destruction of the earth experiment, especially the experiment in mankind, the creation of humans to serve their purposes. They had become difficult and annoying and demanding, and because of their long extended life, it was a difficult process to provide them with enough food and nourishment and the extraterrestrial masters stopped doing this and life became a very difficult journey, and the ultimate decision was to allow the planet Niburu to hold sway on the planet, to flood the planet and to drown off most of the humans.

Enki Saved Noah to Survive the Flood

It was always understood that some would survive, and this indeed occurred. As Awareness spoke the other day, the entity Enki chose to perpetuate the gene pool and humanity by saving that entity known as Noah and his family. This rose in the mind of the Interpreter a conversation that was held earlier with another CAC member about that which is known as the Tower of Babel.

The Tower of Babel Was Really a Communications Tower

The biblical story is that the tower was destroyed and that humanity was forced to speak in separate tongues, thus destroying that ability to communicate one with another. The Tower of Babel was indeed a communications tower, one that was powerful enough to connect with the planet Niburu, even when it was at the farthest reaches of its extended orbit, and the common tongue, that being the tongue of the Anunnaki would bind all together, would be used as the language of communications for all the beings of the planet.

The extraterrestrials themselves became involved in conflict with one another. It is seen there were two factions, which went to war with each other, and when this started to occur, the different dominions of humanity were drawn into the conflict, and they began supporting one side or the other. It was seen by one side that the communications with the planet was allowing them greater capacity to have a military superiority over the minor side.

An Act of Terrorism Destroyed the Tower

This Awareness is trying to bring this through clearly. The side that owned the communications tower had a distinct advantage over the Anunnaki who no longer were in communications with their home planet. This was an advantage that was seen as intolerable, and thus an act of terrorism was committed upon the tower and it was destroyed so that the side that had the communications with the planet Niburu was bereft of such communication and could not gain information from the home planet to guide their actions.

Once this happened, the people lost the ability to be governed by the gods and there was a division of the many groups of individuals who began to have to communicate amongst themselves. The communications tower did not only extend to the planet Niburu, it was a world-wide communications system, and all different areas of the planet that were civilized by the Anunnaki and their minions were able to, through the common tongue, understand what was needed and were thus somewhat unified.

With the war in progress and the destruction of the earth's communications network, it was not possible to coordinate efforts and it was seen as often dangerous to move around freely. This war continued on for thousands of years, thus forcing groupings of people separated now, to start speaking amongst themselves in local tongues, local languages, and thus came back separation: that loss, that speaking in tongues that occurred after the destruction of the Tower of Babel.

Tower Was Not Built to Gain Favor in God

The allusion to the tower being built to gain the favor of God was indeed perpetuated and put forth by those who did not have the use of the communications tower and was originally a way of justifying their actions, more or less stating that those who had the use of the tower had been misusing it to gain favor of the home planet. It is as if a child was tattling to the parent, telling the parent always of the deeds of the other child, thus getting the other child in trouble all of the time. The other child, the faction that was against those who had the tower finally destroyed so they could not be tattled on anymore, and they perpetuated a story that those who had the tower had been seeking to gain favor with the parent, an act that they could not support and did not see as right, and thus came forth moralistically as those having the moralistic right to destroy the tower, because they had exceeded themselves in their arrogance and had grown too extreme.

This all became corrupted of course into the biblical stories that have been passed down in the Old Testament, but at the base, what occurred was that two factions at war with each other, one of whom through an act of terrorism destroyed the communications networks, thus creating a worldwide situation for thousands of years that separated the different grouping that earlier had had the abilities and capabilities to communicate with one another in one tongue.

This is the true nature of the biblical story of the Tower of Babel.

QUESTIONER:

Who would have thought? There is one more question from the energizer concerning health remedies. Can I read this one please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Please.

Gin-Soaked Raisins for Arthritis

QUESTION:

E-mails I've received concerning various health remedies; the last one related to gin-soaked raisins being extremely helpful for those with severe arthritis. The reason suggested why it works is that "raisins" are packed with many pain-relieving anti-arthritic anti-inflammatory compounds. The gin may act as a turbo-charger. Is this really true, or is it a case of someone pulling my leg? In other words, if you have enough of these gin-treated raisins, probably a person could care less about any arthritis. Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is amused at the image of an individual having too many gin-soaked raisins. Basically, this report is true. There are indeed ingredients in the grapes that do help in an anti-inflammatory manner and that the gin does help to serve this up to the affected areas more effectively. However, this Awareness does not see this as a solution that is great enough or good enough to be recommended for large use, and It does not see that this particular remedy is one that It can support.

While there is some merit to it, there are other ingredients and remedies that are far more effective than gin-soaked raisins, however, they taste good, and thus, if an individual wishes to try this, this Awareness has no objection. It simply recommends that an individual be diligent in how many of the gin-soaked raisins they take.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) What would be a preferred tonic, so to speak? Just have the raisins and not the gin?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The raisins by themselves would be sufficient indeed. There are many ingredients, many in health-food stores, as well as many new foods and new remedies that are now starting to come forth that have high anti-inflammatory capabilities. The Interpreter himself is a distributor for a product that is proving to be very effective, but aside from that which he is promoting at this time, there are many other remedies and techniques that can be used to help combat arthritis.

QUESTIONER:

So basically, it's not really necessary for people to have to suffer through arthritis: that there is help for them?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is indeed help for them. It has long been known that eating red meat and many of the foods that have currently been in the main western diets are arthritic forming foods, and even just cutting back on those substances will help the arthritic condition immensely. Introducing now the new foods and the new techniques that are becoming more and more available will make arthritis soon a thing of the past.

QUESTIONER:

Would you like to present a closing message now?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It's Easier to Reach Multidimensional Levels

This Awareness has presented a lot of information today about the multidimensional nature of consciousness. It recommends that the individual pursue this on an individual basis, especially in meditation, casting out their consciousness to feel beyond the parameters of their existence, to open up to those levels of consciousness that are becoming more and more available. In some ways it is becoming easier and easier to access those multidimensional levels of consciousness, and that all that is needed is a willingness to engage without questioning to an ultimate degree every thought or experience, and to simply be open to that which is received without judgment, without any need to determine if it is true or not, to simply be open to those experiences, thoughts, images that arrive when invited in.

This Awareness is complete at this time.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. THE COSMIC AWARENESS SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT COURSE

Volume Four; Cancer
Moon Child (Imagination)

Interpreted by Paul Shockley

LESSON NUMBER THREE

Question:

Awareness, we are here today for the third lesson in the Sea of the Moon Child. The third lesson is that which is concerned with imagination, with unity with mind, imagination, and the ideas - the marriage of mind and imagination.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in the previous information, the image was given of the mind and imagination living within the same home - the mind being the husband, the imagination being the wife. This Awareness indicates the image also included the genie in the bottle. This Awareness suggests that in this present lesson, the consummation of the marriage of mind and imagination shall be discussed and experienced.

This Awareness asks those entities who are listening to this on tape, that they be in a comfortable position, being warm if possible, and having space whereby they are comfortable upon their backs. This Awareness suggests if this is a group, that you lie with your heads toward the center of a circle, having a candle at your heads.

This Awareness suggests that if you are reading this material, that you may choose to meditate on it, bit by bit. During the course of reading, you may close your eyes and experience what is being read, or you may wait until another time and lie upon a comfortable bed and experience what you have read previously.

This Awareness suggests that in terms of the imagination coming into consummation with the mind, that there can be that creative experience which allows an entity to become one, to become atoned, at-one with the universal forces, as well as with the forces that make up the thinking processes. This Awareness indicates that wherein this can merge, even to a small degree, greater harmony will come to the entity in his or her relationships with others, and in the relationship the entity has with himself or herself and the world in which he or she lives.

This Awareness indicates that this cannot come from simple intellectual reasoning. This must be something that is experienced. Yet, this unity of mind and imagination cannot totally ignore the intellect, whereby an entity's imagination rules the house and the intellect is shoved into a corner or a basement.

This Awareness indicates that both partners must have an equal opportunity within the home in order to be themselves and to function according to their individuality and purposes. Therefore, the ideal situation is one whereby the mind can continue being itself, the imagination can continue being itself, and each can continue doing their best work according to their own abilities and in improving these abilities, and that each can respect the rights of the other, as well as the talents and abilities of the other, and that each also recognize the capabilities of the other so that one does not attempt to do the work which the other could do best, so that the mind does not attempt to do the imaging, and the imagination does not attempt to do the intellectual work. This Awareness suggests that wherein there can be this mutual respect for each other's capabilities, this can also lead to an action of absorbing through that which might be equated to intercourse between the conscious and subconscious, between the mind and imagination, in such a manner that the two begin to merge and work in harmony to bring about a crystal clarity that sees in the inner plane as well as the outer plane, simultaneously.

This Awareness indicates that rather than discuss this much further in this particular message (this discussion being that which is for the mind), this Awareness now wishes to shift attention to the imagination, whereby the mind may begin to move toward the imagination, and whereby the imagination may seduce the mind into following and into experiencing that which goes beyond the capabilities of the mind in its own internal purposes, so that the mind itself can begin to share that journey with the imagination. This Awareness indicates this as likened unto the genie from the bottle, picking up the mind and taking it on a journey on the flying carpet.

This Awareness suggests that you now visualize yourself standing upon a beach. The sand beneath your feet is warm, the sand between your toes is soft, and when you crunch this sand between your toes, it feels good to you. The warmth of the sand feels good as you place your toes beneath it.

The sun has set. The last rays are showing above the waters. The whitecaps are all about, glistening in the sunlight, moving toward you. Their spray and their splashes are constantly in motion. The sounds of these waves crashing upon themselves as the waters flow in and the waters flow out, the waters flowing in and touching the sands, touching those sands and covering them with a glistening darkness that fades, leaving them damp, leaving white spots of foam, leaving pieces of seaweed, shells - exposing little rocks that glisten in the semi-darkness.

The clouds are warm red and gold with some colors of purple. The sky a deep, deep blue, almost leaping toward blackness. The clouds in streaks across the sky, lying there like a stroke from a painter's brush.

You stand on this beach listening to these constant churning sounds, watching these constant changing flashes of light, water, and reflections. You stand there breathing a warm breeze, cool, comfortable, fresh. There is no one upon this beach except yourself. There are lights back behind you in homes which are now in silhouette. You stand here looking back at your lifetime where you began, where you have been, and where you now are.

This Awareness suggests that as you stand here, there is seen a bottle floating in the waters. You move forward, retrieve the bottle, look at it, and discover it is very old indeed. There is a cork in the bottle, sealed with some kind of wax. The bottle, itself, is unclear; you cannot see through its walls. You struggle with the wax and open its cork and, lo and behold, smoke begins to unfurl from its mouth, and there before you begins to appear that which looks like a face, that which looks like an image - wispy and yet unclear, and this image stands before you, both in reality and in imagination, in such a manner that its size is indefinable, for it shrinks and grows and pulsates at different sizes, and it changes its dimensions and shape, and you wonder if you have lost your senses. You stand there in awe at the splendor of the situation.

This Awareness suggests at this point the genie from the bottle speaks to you in sounds which your ears do not hear, yet your head hears clearly, and asks: "What do you wish from me?"

This Awareness suggests at this point, having read this story before, you wonder, "Is this a joke, or is this for real?"

This Awareness indicates this genie is for real, is your imagination, and can grant your wish.

This Awareness suggests that the genie at this point proves to you its power, and suddenly you find yourself back in time, in another life, standing on the sea of Galilee, and you look up into the sky and you see that the sky itself is but the inside of the head of God, and that the head of the Father, which glistens with nerve centers - the stars - which send their pathways and lights down to you, like connective cords in the brain, running down to your cell.

You see yourself inside this gigantic, universal brain as but a thought, standing there upon the horizon, standing there in center stage, foremost in the mind of this Universal God, this Universal Deity, the Father, the Spirit.

You find yourself standing there and realize that you are not actually an entity at all, but that you are simply a thought in the brain of the Universal Deity. Being a thought, you are likened unto a word, the word being that which represents all that is associated with that word from its very beginning up to its present, and that word is your name - and you, as this word in the brain of the Universal Deity, recognize that you are simply one word among many words. Yet, at this moment, you are foremost in the mind of the Universal Deity, because you are at-One with that Deity, and in that at-One-ment, you realize also that there is another name which continuously begins to throb in your consciousness: a name which you, yourself, was not given in your present lifetime, but a name which you feel clearly is attempting to instill itself upon your consciousness, and which you are beginning to identify with and are beginning to feel an affinity with. This name is that which continues to come closer and closer to you as though it were your own name, and finally the name appears clearly, and you feel yourself being that entity.

This Awareness indicates that suddenly you feel a shock and amazement, and that you are, indeed, the Jesus; you are, indeed, the Christ, which was spoken of in the Testaments, which was spoken of in the stories of Krishna, of Buddha. You are indeed that entity which is the mediator between the Universal Deity and the earthly deity. You are the Word, the Thought, the Name.

This Awareness indicates wherein you have reached that identification, and understand Who, In Fact, You Really Are, you have the ability to glory in your accomplishment, or to take on the concerns and the cares of the world, whereby you recognize that all other entities also are the Jesus, are the Krishna, are the Buddha, are the Christ and the Messiah, and in that recognition, you have the ability to move through your present situation without feeling that you have experienced anything extraordinary, but that you have simply awakened unto reality.

This Awareness suggests that you now also may begin to look at the letters and the words and those experiences which make up your own name; that you may also look at the words which you use in your expression of self.

This Awareness suggests that you look at the letter I, that you find yourself standing upon this beach as a gigantic letter I, that you watch this letter I as it changes its shape and moves into the shape of your own body, that you visualize a writer, an artist, who draws you, and who keeps repeating that drawing until finally the marks which represent you become more and more simplified, with less and less detail, until there is nothing left but a straight mark, vertical, running down, which says I.

This Awareness suggests that henceforth, whenever you see the letter I, you may recognize not just a letter: 'I', you may recognize the entity standing behind that letter, with all of his or her background, all of his or her consciousness, all of his or her feelings, all of his or her divinity.

This Awareness indicates that wherein you see the number 1, this also may be seen as this individual, this Christ, this Buddha. This Awareness suggests that wherein you see the number 10, you may visualize the entity standing as 1 with the circle of the Universe roundabout, and in this manner, the entity - the dot within the circle - there becomes something more than just a number.

This Awareness indicates that wherein you see patterns and diagrams, you may begin to pour the waters of imagination into those diagrams, into those patterns, and watch that instant powder of the mind as it begins to move into the drink, the tea of experience and life.

This Awareness indicates that entities who think only in terms of numbers and thoughts are dealing with dehydrated life, wherein there is a lack of water. The thirst for life cannot be placed upon these dehydrated words, numbers, and ideas. And this water which brings these words, ideas, numbers, back to life is the water of imagination - the genie from the bottle.

The feeling which must come when you recognize that the number which sits upon a card, which sits precariously upon a ticker tape, which sits dangerously enslaved within a computer - that number lives upon a beach of sand, time, space, and has children, friends, parents, loved ones, and has an affinity with plants, with the air, with the movement of light, with the movement of conversations, with the expression of dance, music, experiences.

That number which sits precariously in the till has its contact and represents that entity which stands upon the beach between the past and future, a mediator between God and earth, between the Universal Deity and the grain of sand; that number is the Christ and that number is yourself.

This Awareness indicates all this shall be revealed to you through the consummation of the marriage of the mind and the imagination. In that instant of climax, wherein the intercourse has reached its completion, you may understand and see the Oneness of all things.

This Awareness indicates this as the conclusion of this third lesson in the Sea of the Moon Child.
