That "First Contact" for October 14th (A Negative Energy Has Been Released) To Countermand the Event

QUESTION:

The first question concerns the First Contact for October 14. Is there an up-date please? And I have some questions on it. Would Awareness please offer an update concerning the scheduled First Contact? Is it still a goal, or will there be unforeseen events, which may defer this timing? Will the contact be made by a hologram or an actual physical showing of a vessel? It was mentioned that this sighting would be global. Would this be in highly populated areas, or more countryside areas? Any additional information is appreciated. You comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen at this time that there is a likelihood that the proposed first appearance of an alien extraterrestrial saucer may be somewhat deferred. There has been a high degree of attention to this matter, and many have become aware of the proposed date of October 14, but it is also seen that there has been a negative energy released that is to countermand the proposed first appearance. This Awareness chooses to call it now a First Appearance, for First Contact is actually more appropriate to the first connection or contact to actual extraterrestrial beings, to the beings of the Galactic Federation.

The "First Appearance" is Delayed but It and "First Contact" Still is Coming

In fact, there has already been First Contact, if one remembers that the Orion Empire, the Reptilian forces, have already presented themselves, as have the Zeta Reticuli and this contact has occurred many years ago, but this First Contact with the Galactic Federation is yet to be. The plans are still afoot for a first appearance followed by a First Contact, but at this time, this event may somewhat be delayed for the fact that there has been negative attentions given.

However, at the same time, what this Awareness would say is that there has been an exceptional degree of attention given to the proposed First Appearance, and this attention has triggered in the minds of many, an awareness, and even an expectation to and a looking forward to this planner First Appearance, and this has set in motion stronger energies of support, of welcome to the Galactic Federation. This was somewhat triggered and started several months earlier through the petition that was launched to proclaim a desire of mankind, of humankind to meet with the Galactic Federation and to invite them to appear.

This energy has been escalating since that time and is continuing to escalate. Even if the event does not occur on the 14th of October, it is seen that the forces that have been set in motion will bring in the near future the First Contact that has been spoken of by this Awareness and has been recently predicted through the form of the prediction made by the woman in Colorado. Blossom is her first name.

QUESTIONER:

She is from Australia.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This may be so, that she is from Australia, but it is seen that she is connected to the United States in some way, shape or form. That is all this Awareness has to say on this matter at this time.

QUESTIONER:

The contact, would that be by holograms or actual vessels.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is seen as irrelevant, for the use of holograms will still give the appearance that a vessel is floating in the sky, however, it is seen that a hologram would be used by the negative government forces, whereas the First Appearance and then First Contact, will be with an actual Galactic Federation Vessel.

How a Hologram Would Work

QUESTIONER:

If it is a hologram, what happens if it's raining or snowing or fog? The people would not be able to see.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They might not see it in the dark also. This is not a hologram that is like the holograms that are known by the majority of people that are affected by the angle of the light hitting the hologram. This is a hologram that to all intents and purposes will seem solid. Thus it is that there will be lights on this vessel so that it could be seen in the night or in the fog or in misty or rainy conditions. The actual inclement weather will not affect the appearance of this holographic projection, if that is what is used.

Again, the technologies that are available to the governments and the powers that be are very advanced technologies and this will appear as a real vessel, a real ship. The holographic projection will not be affected by lighting conditions or weather conditions. Again, this is seen as a holographic projection by those powers that be versus an actual appearance in the sky of a vessel from the Galactic Federation of Light.

QUESTIONER:

It was mentioned this sighting would be global. Would this be in highly populated areas or in more countryside areas?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

If this questions is in reference to other sightings that this Awareness mentioned in a previous reading, then this Awareness suggests that at the beginning, the sightings will be more rural areas, such as the rural area over the skies of Alabama, but eventually these sightings will be seen closer and closer to larger cities, especially capital cities of various countries. This is simply a way of conditioning all to be prepared for an eventual First Contact. There will be several dozen appearances that are long-term appearances that are undeniable appearance. There will be no doubt at all that these vessels are in existence, these UFO's, and humanity will be awaiting an actual First Contact, for it will be understood that this will occur next.

It is seen that the First Contact will proceed first with a first voice message from the Galactic Federation, a message of greeting, a message of peace, preparing mankind for the monumental First Contact that will take place.

"A Strong Possibility" the Event is Postponed

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) It was mentioned that the first scheduled contact could be deferred. Is that a strong possibility or just a possibility?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

At this time it is seen as a strong possibility. There are forces that are presently working against this First Contact. These forces have some power behind them, and there is a fear from the Galactic Federation that going through with this First Appearance may be somewhat detrimental at this time. It is almost as if they tipped their hand a little too soon. Perhaps it might be better understood that the reason it was announced that it would occur on the 14th was to create the attention, a type of promotional intent if you will, to get the focus on a First Appearance and possible First Contact.

It was understood also that proclaiming an actual time for this appearance could create a situation of backlash by the powers that be who are trying very hard to prevent such an occurrence. Not only do they want to prevent it, but to stage their own event as being one where the extraterrestrial beings will be presented as hostile, as a threat, as another form of terrorism being sent against the United States of America, creating yet another reason for an escalation of military martial law, another reason to clamp down on the country in order to protect it.

The Hostile Plan the Powers That Be Had Ready

It is seen that to some degree this action was already perceived by the Galactic Federation, this action by the powers that be, especially the powers that be who control the United States of America. One of the reasons that the Galactic Federation proclaimed October 14th as the day of First Contact/First Appearance, was to eclipse the action of the powers that be, to short-circuit their plans. The plan was a hostile appearance, which would demand actions from the government, and justify the government's proclamation of further controls, further measures against the freedoms of the people of the United States of America.

This is one of the reasons that the Galactic Federation decided to go ahead and make an announcement that there would be a First Appearance of such a scale that no one could deny it. This has eclipsed the actions of those powers that be and they are now trembling to figure out a new response to this, and a new action where they can yet accomplish their goal. It is seen that this will not take place, however, it is seen that those powers that be do have some measure of power or control, which is why the actual proposed date of October 14th may not take place as originally put forth.

QUESTIONER:

I might be somewhat naïve, but what if the event took place in a country that did not have the powers that be as are in the states. England is quite receptive to UFOs, as is Japan, Australia...could this event not take place in those countries?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It indeed could take place in those countries and there are plans for major sightings in all of the countries mentioned. What is important to realize is that the United States of America, to some degree, is a kingpin. It must be shown to the people of the United States of America that there are indeed the extraterrestrials out there that they have long been viewing in their movies and on their TV screens in the form of the various UFO programs that have been shown over the last number of years.

The Event Will Blow the Lid Off in America

It is seen that it is essential to start with the United States, for many of the other countries mentioned have already shown pictures and footage of UFO sightings and filming that have taken place, but in the United States of America there are still dampening forces that will prevent the showing of such events on the Nine O'clock News. This event will blow the lid off in America; a lid that is needing to be blown off, a lid that is already starting to wobble as the pressures build underneath it that will blow the lid off, not only over the matter of UFO's and extraterrestrial beings, but about the whole elitist structure, about the whole control, and who is really in control, what the plan is for the domination and enslavement of not only the United States, but the entire world.

It is seen this is primarily why the United States must first of all be the initial point of contact. It is not that this cannot be shown in other countries. It is more that if there was First Appearance, First Contact in another country, many Americans would believe their governments when they proclaimed it as false, or that the American controlled press would simply not show the pictures, and would not cover the events, just as they do now to the many sightings that are filmed in other countries and on other continents. There are many sightings, but how often are these sightings seen on the Nine O'clock News? This would again be a problem if the First Appearance of a major sort of this nature were to occur outside the United States of America.

Why News Networks Will Eventually Broadcast the Event

Seeing is believing, goes the saying. And it is many in the United States must see for themselves this event. That is why it was proposed to happen in the United States of America. While the powers that be might try to control the event from being publicized, there will be so many who personally see it, who then phone friends and relatives who come rushing to see the event, that eventually there will be no denying that this craft is in the skies above the United States, and eventually this will force even the major news networks to show the pictures of this extraterrestrial vessel.

They would be under no such compulsion should the First Sighting come in a country outside of the United States of America. They have not shown such footage in the past, and they would not show such footage in the future. This again was why it was decided that this event would occur over the skies of America.

The Two Scenarios Planned Are Explained

(US Government and Reptilians Both Planned to Foil the Event)

QUESTIONER:

I see. I understand. I don't mean to belabor the point, but if the powers that be have their own scenario where they show a craft and they give a lot of negative press, that this is terrorism, you know, the whole bit, wouldn't that prelude, dampen or detract from the actual event itself, when it was presented to the American people? You follow what I'm trying to say?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

No. This Awareness however does wish to speak. If It understands what the energizer is trying to say, there is a confusion here that this Awareness would like to try to clear up. There were two scenario's planned. The first was a planned appearance that would have been false, that would have been a projected hologram by the powers that be for the purpose of frightening the people of the United States of America, for making them think that there was now a new threat from the skies above: the extraterrestrial threat.

The Plan was to Make the Extraterrestrials Appear as Terrorists

This has been planned, not only by the actual governments of the United States of America, but also by the Orion Reptilian forces for they understood and know that the Galactic Federation has now a green light to appear, for humanity has reached a place of understanding and acceptance of the extraterrestrials, that they have to a large degree put out the intent and desire to have them appear, to make First Contact. Humanity has put this out, and thus the Reptilian Orion connection understand that it is now a short time before this were to occur, and they were hoping to create a situation that would present these extraterrestrials as hostile to the government of the United States and to humanity in general.

The Galactic Federation Discovered the Plot in Time

This way, when and if the Galactic Federation did appear, the majority of people, being believers of their government would state this as a hostile action, for they would have been presented as hostile aliens and thus the need to present the attack scenario where they would be presented as this terrorist threat from the skies themselves, from the extraterrestrial beings. This was the proposed plan, and the Galactic Federation found out about this. Thus it was decided that they would eclipse this, and take action before the event could occur. Thus they announced their own plan to appear in the skies on the 14th of October. This action would then occur before the planned holographic presentation that the powers that be had planned.

Does this make it clearer?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does, but does that mean that they plan to show this all prior to October 14?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

No. It was seen that they plan to do this after the date of October 14th. It was the Galactic Federation decision to present their own vessel before the powers that be and the Orion/Reptilian plan could be initiated and carried out.

QUESTIONER:

So this possibility is prior to October 14th?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

No.

Awareness Explains Once Again

(The Plan Was to Cancel the November Elections)

QUESTIONER:

I'm getting confused. I'm sorry.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness will explain once again. The Orion/Reptilian plan was to present this hostile extraterrestrial vessel in the latter part of October, before the national elections. It would have been a reason for canceling the elections. There are other plans afoot also to cancel the elections, but this was seen as one that would be so earth-shattering in its consequence, that the thought of an election would be abandoned, especially if there was a hostile action on the part of the extraterrestrial beings, for it was planned to show aggression on their behalf, and that would have introduced a new element of fear and panic into the minds and hearts of the American people, one so great that they would have stormed their government and demanded that they be protected from this extraterrestrial threat, thus allowing the American government and the powers that be to initiate even more Draconian measures of suppression and control and enslavement.

The Galactic Federation received information that informed them of this planned event and it was decided they would act first. This Awareness has used the word "eclipse" several times this is not exactly the word this Awareness is seeking. It seeks to explain that they took measures to forego the possibility of the event that the powers that be planned, to launch a preemptive strike. They would present themselves first. This being said, there has been a response to this by the powers that be. What is important here is that there was a plan by the powers that be that would be detrimental to the Galactic Federation and its presenting itself at a later time. Thus it chose to act before they were fully ready and prepared, and yet it has indeed initiated a response that the Galactic Federation were hoping for, that response being that more and more people are now aware of their proposed date for First Contact, or that they at least are aware that there are those forces, those extraterrestrial forces out there that are seeking to connect with humanity and are prepared and ready to do so.

The plan is still to make the First Appearance on October 14th, however this Awareness sees that there are some opposing energies that may not favor this happening, but if it does not happen on the 14th, it is seen that it will still occur shortly. The most important point here is that the powers that be, especially the forces behind the American government who would cancel the elections in November have been sabotaged. They will not be able to carry out this plan.

That Atom Smasher Collider in Switzerland

(What is Its Effect on Humanity and Mother Earth?)

Is Atlantis About to be Repeated?

QUESTION:

(Thank you)

The next question concerns the scientists and their atom smasher, or Big Bang day. "There was considerable press and other coverage concerning the Large Hadron Collider underground near Geneva Switzerland, on September 10, 2008. The experiment was launched to fire beams of protons around a 27-km tunnel to test the controlling strength of the world's largest superconducting magnets, and to test various scenarios, including the big bang theory, where the antimatter goes, the creation of black holes, hidden dimensions of space and time, etc. This experiment went off as scheduled and deemed an overwhelming success by the scientific community. Coincidentally, a 6.1 earthquake struck southern Iran, Sept 10th.

Questions: What harm if any resulted from this experiment, plus what is its effect on humanity and Mother Earth? Is the southern Iran earthquake related in any way, or that the area opposite on the other side of the globe? (Coordinates for Geneva are 46N12 6E09) As this experiment concerns regarding scientific experiments conducted on Atlantis just prior to its sinking, does such a similar possibility in the sense of underground destruction for the area or surrounding areas of Switzerland and opposite locations exist? Your perspective on this situation is respectfully requested. Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would start with the fact that there was an earthquake in Iran on the same day and that It wishes to state that the two events, the use of the new technology, the collider, has nothing to do with the earthquake that occurred in Iran on that day. It was a coincidental occurrence. There is indeed some concern here for the research that is being done by colliding atoms together in this manner, but this Awareness must state that there does not seem to be at present a strong danger from doing this research.

The technology is simply too small, even with the amounts of tunneling and tubing that the beams are shot around, the ring being 27 kilometers. The actual event is so minuscule and so fractional that it is not large enough to cause a huge chain reaction. Mankind's technology is not yet advanced enough. The danger that is seen is if there is an expansion of this technology for the sake of research. Science has proven itself in the past to often engage in research where the scientists do not have a clear conscience on what the technology may provide and create.

In Atlantis the Use of Crystals to Focus and Amplify

This technology and research is at its fledgling stages, whereas in the Atlantean times they were well advanced, and had used much more alien technology to create huge chambers where such reactions were created. The use of the crystals was used at that time to amplify and focus these experiments, and eventually it destabilized the actual ground rock beneath the continent. These chambers were built deep underground, and the crystals were harnessed in such a way that they amplified the reactions a thousand fold and even more. As the reactions escaped they began to be amplified even more extremely by the same crystals that were meant to catalyze the reaction in the first place, using solar energies directed down deep into the chambers where these experiments with fusion and fission were taking place.

They were not experiments like that in Geneva where a particle beam was sent around a tunnel one way, and another the other, until they hit each other, creating minuscule microscopic reactions. This chamber would have to be a thousand times bigger to create the kind of reactions that could truly be disastrous. In the times of Atlantis, they create such huge chambers and they powers this through the amplifying effects of the crystals, and created a reaction that went out of control and literally destroyed the whole sub-region of the continent to such a degree that the continent simply collapsed down into the whole that was created through the explosions that had been generated at that time.

How the Collider Could Be Dangerous in the Future

While there is a need for concern about the experiments, the concern should be more to where they would escalate to should the proposal be to build bigger chambers, and create bigger explosions, bigger events. This is the area where this Awareness sees the need for such concern, and the powers that are behind these experiments that were behind the experiments in the continent of Atlantis as well as on the planet Maldek, which was ultimately destroyed through similar experiments, again on a much more massive scale. Thus it is that while this Awareness can say that this particular set of experiments with the collider apparatus in Geneva is not that dangerous at this point, It does see that this could escalate into something much more dangerous, much more horrendous.

This Awareness is open to further questions.

Will the Collider Open Wormholes?

QUESTION:

There is one. It was mentioned that they were hoping to have what are called wormholes that would give access to other dimensions. Is that a possibility?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Not on the scale that they are working at. These wormholes would be infinitesimal and will create nothing that is valid or useable. The theory is there, the principle is there, but to create wormholes, it would require a different set of technology other than that which is being used at this time. The principles are valid, but that which is created is inconsequential.

No Connection to the Iran Earthquake

There was another question that was related earlier to the article, that being with an area on the other side of the world being affected. This is not seen to be so. This is in relation to the event in Iran where an earthquake took place. This was not a result of using the collider technology, nor would there be an event that would occur on the other side of the world because somehow the vibrations passed through the planet itself affecting the region on the other side of the planet. This is not seen as valid.

QUESTIONER:

Okay, I think I had in mind something where an earthquake appears on one side of the world, and sometime later there would be one on the other side.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This would be a different manner.

The Financial Meltdown....The Lehman Brothers Bankruptcy

(The Question Opens a Big Kettle of Worms)

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. The next topic concerns finances and the Lehman Bros bankruptcy. On September 16, 2008, there was an article concerning this bankruptcy. Including in this article was a picture of one of the managing directors. He was holding up a sign with the word "Lehman" with his left hand, and his right hand displayed the V for Victory symbol, plus he was smiling. The observation was this picture was quite disturbing in the sense that he, as a managing director, was not sensitive to the position and/or challenges his underlings or staff will likely experience due to this bankruptcy. Will you please offer comments on this bankruptcy scenario? Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This of course opens up a huge kettle of worms, regarding the present financial meltdown that is occurring presently in the United States of America. At first, in regards to the picture of the director, the CEO of Lehman's, he is showing the V for Victory symbol not because of the strength of that company, for it was known and planned that Lehman would collapse. His victory was in initiating and carrying out this action. It is known that the CEO's of many of the collapsed companies received huge payouts, sometimes in the billions of dollars. This seems crazy, and ridiculous, when these companies fail and cost so many both their own jobs and welfare as well as financial destitution and despair, but this is all part of the larger plan of creating economic enslavement in this world.

If it is thought about to some degree, these entities were being rewarded for carrying the actions that they had been told to carry out. It must be remembered that all of the individuals involved are part of the elite network, and these beings are part of the overall plan, and can be seen over and over again on the boards of many different companies that are part of the cabal that know what is planned, because they are the planners. They are the ones who have come up with the plan of how to create situations that will create economic enslavement.

Thus it is that they are being rewarded for successful efforts, for it was given to them to drive these companies to the ground, to destroy them. There has been much speculation about the bad investments that these companies made in the mortgage field, but this was already seen and understood. It was known what would occur through such bad financial investments, speculation and actions, and yet it was done anyway. This was not done by a group of stupid individuals who did not know what would occur, but rather informed individuals who knew exactly what would occur, and that the situation had been planned out many years in advance of the actual sequence of events that are now unfolding.

The Golden Handshake For the Executives

Thus it is that when these individuals create this situation where their institutes fail, it is in accordance to the plan. It is seen that they did their job well, and it is for this reason that they are rewarded. The golden handshake that they get is an abomination indeed, when it is considered is that their reward comes from destroying the lives of so many, and destroying the economic future of the United States, thus leading to a world-wide crisis. These individuals will appear again and again in future companies and in future scenarios, or they will simply go off and live off of the spoils of those actions that brought them such great financial reward.

They have no concern for the individuals who worked under them, or the effect that their actions occurred to the investors is obvious for they are part of that elite mentality that has divided them from an understanding or a compassion to the needs and dreams and hopes of the masses, of ordinary individuals. That is why the picture is so disturbing, for on some levels it is understood that his grin is because this individual is pleased with himself for having accomplished what his masters asked of him, and he is rewarded for doing so. There is no concern for the welfare of others because of his actions and the actions of his cohorts and colleagues.

QUESTIONER:

There's plans, I believe the president is going to Congress, or has already concerning a bailout for the housing problems, and finances. Do you see anything on that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is correct. The president has already approached the Congress to create an action that will bail some of the financial institutes. Some were designated to fail. As it has been said, this was part of the plan, and their collapse has sent ripples through the economic world. The bailout is also part of the plan of creating economic enslavement, not only for the present generation, but for generations to come. This has been spoken of on many occasions, by this Awareness and by other sources.

It must be understood and seen that the actions that are occurring at this time are planned actions. They are not accidental occurrences. That being said, the proposal for the bailout is to reward the cronies who have initiated the plans, who have carried out their duties for their masters. The saving of the financial institute is not so much for the welfare of the nation as it is being proposed. It is simply another way of getting more money into the hands of the greedy Reptilian/Orion backed flunkies.

They do not see this as particularly notorious or evil on their part, they just see it as another way of completing the plans of the economic enslavement of humanity. They are creating another level of fear in the minds and hearts of the American people, so much so that they will run to their Congressman and demand that Congress and the Senate help the bailout, that they support the bailout. Even though at this time there is objection in Congress, this is seen as token objection, for it will be brought to their attention that the salvation of the nation is in their hands, and if they do not agree to bail out the financial institutes that are being most affected, that they will be responsible for the destruction of the American economy, and there are no Congressmen seen at this time who will stand up and call this an untruth and defy their political masters.

Why Didn't US Government Help Bail Out Home Owners?

Saying this, it is still interesting that there are some who are objecting, for they know that the people do see that this is not a true action, who see that this is a con. If they had wanted to truly help the situation and prevent the economic collapse, why did the American government not come forward earlier and suggest that they would bail out the individuals who were being foreclosed, the individuals who were losing their homes and their livelihoods?

Had they done this at an earlier stage it would have prevented some of the economic fallout that has occurred since. The foreclosures started several months ago. They did not do this, for their concern is not with the simple man, the ordinary folk. It is for their own kind. It is for their plan. It is to feather their own nest and to provide for themselves even more money and power, and this must be seen and understood as a planned action, and not the actions of random nature.

What the Powers That Be Do Not Understand

(There Are Other Powers That Be That Exceed These Evil Ones)

QUESTIONER:

Is there anything else that would be appropriate?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would like to conclude on this matter by saying that even though these are planned actions and even though this program of economic collapse is intentional, what is not understood or seen by the powers that be, is that there are other forces that are also in play now, and in some ways, that even with their planned action of saving the collapse, the economic meltdown from happening, from saving those agencies that are part of the problem, that there will eventually be a solution to the problem, even with the collapse, for it is seen that even injecting 78 billion dollars will not prevent this from occurring, for the powers that be are ignorant and arrogant to such a degree that they do not understand anymore that there are other powers that be that exceed them, that are part of that which is of higher consciousness, that sees the need to destroy finally and forever, the greedy merchants who have held the purse strings for so long, who held power for so long, and that their actions which they think they can control, which they think that they will benefit from will eventually escape them and not work for them.

Immense Changes Are Coming Down the Tube

There will be a redefining on all levels, economic, political, as well as even the physical landscape of the nation, and with the immense changes that are coming down the tube, the economic collapse will be seen in hindsight as something that needed to occur because the oppressors, those who were in charge, who held the power, needed to be brought down. It is their own arrogance that will lead to their downfall, for their arrogance is such that they truly believe that nobody and nothing will ever oppose them, will ever see through the plans that they have made and that they are currently enacting. There are agencies and forces that do see through them that are connected to the higher levels of awareness and consciousness, and there is a greater force, a greater action that is taking place now that will take that which is occurring and accelerate it beyond anything that they, the powers that be thought that they were initiating and creating.

This is where the salvation and the restoration of the United States of America as a true democracy really lies, where the hope really lies.

Before the Elite Came to Earth Did They Include This Scenario?

QUESTION:

Interesting. One thought comes to mind. Did the powers that be, when they were choosing their life path, did it include all of this scenario?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This can be answered several ways, but the way that this Awareness will say is that yes, it did include this scenario, it did include an understanding, for it must be remembered that many of the elite were born to families of the elite, and many of these families have been in charge, in control, in the game for many years, in fact, this Awareness would even say hundreds, and thousands of years. These powers have been in the hand of certain families, and this energy, this power has been handed down from father to son over countless centuries.

This is also connected to the extraterrestrial influence of the Orions, the Greys, the Reptilians, the Vulturians (sp), the Draconians, and those who have been part of that which has been called the Orion Empire. It is also to be understood that the same beings who have been in charge and in power, the elite, are also part of a greater conspiracy, a greater plan to create ultimate freedom, to help the division of consciousness to the Ascension into higher states of consciousness, or the Descension, into the lower states of consciousness that this Awareness has talked about in the past.

This Awareness is complete at this time on this topic, but understands that many questions will come forward as a result of what has been stated today.

Would John McCain Make a Good President?

QUESTION:

Going to politics now, a lot has been said about Obama, but nothing that I recall about the Republican John McCain. Did you wish to discuss him? If it happens that he becomes president, would he make a good president, in comparison to say, Obama?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Given that all the presidential candidates of the major parties are all part of the power structure, are all part of the elite structure, the cabal, he would make as good a president as any. However, it is not seen that John McCain is destined to be president. He is seen more as a token candidate to give the impression that the Democratic system is being served. There are two candidates that are running: a Democratic candidate in Obama, and a Republican candidate in McCain. There is no talk any more of the independent candidate. Ron Paul, for he simply does not receive attention, even if many people are aware of him and support him. The support is not translated into public acknowledgement for he is simply a nonbeing as far as the political contest goes.

McCain is seen as the only alternative to Obama, however it is seen that the power shift is to go to Obama, to the Democratic Party, to give the impression that the people still have control and can still effect the politics by their vote. This is simply not so. That is simply an illusion to appease the populace, to make them think and feel that they are still free when that is no longer the case.

Is McCain Aware of What is Going On?

(John Kerry Understood Too)

QUESTIONER:

That would explain then why John McCain did not hold press conferences for 40 days, that he realized what was going on, or was he already aware of what is going on?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

He is already aware of what is going on, as the entity John Kerry in the previous election understood what the true score was. He was given a deal, that he would stand against the current president, offer the token candidacy so that the people would think in that election too that they were freely choosing the next President of the United States of America by casting votes to John Kerry, however he had already signed a deal with the powers that be that would give him a deal that would be highly beneficial for him, so that he withdrew from the race relatively early and made no objections to the strange results that were coming from certain polling stations. Many wondered why he had not objected or spoken out against some of the results that were coming forward.

The reason was because he had made a deal not to do so for that had happened in the election before when Al Gore and George Bush Jr. had the struggle, the contest that caused so much speculation, so much revelation, and it was simply decided that this would no longer happen. It would not happen in that election, even though the votes were somewhat rigged. Thus it was that John Kerry, because he had already made his agreement, did not protest too loudly and let the results stand.

John McCain Has Also Made a Deal

At this time, in the present election, it is seen that John McCain has also made a deal: that he too will be the token candidate, and he too will not protest too loudly. Indeed, he is not showing himself too much at this time even though he has brought on board a woman, a candidate who has great appeal, and this Awareness sees that in some strange way, the two of them would have perhaps made a good duo for the president and the vice president. Again, this is an attempt to make the American people feel that there is progress happening in the political field, that there is for the first time ever a black man running for president and a woman who has a legitimate chance of becoming the vice president.

How Illusions Work

This all has to do with appearance. This is all to do with illusion, and as the illusionist knows, you create the effect by misdirection. You create the effect by having everyone look at one hand, while the other is doing something else. Thus it is that the misdirection in the American political machine at this time is towards a black candidate who is in some strange way the Great White Hope, who is there to present himself as the future of the nation, the new direction, the new spirit of the people, and yet, as this Awareness has spoken, this is misdirection. This is so the people themselves fall under the illusion and in some way, under the false hope that there will be a change, that they truly matter, that the voice of the people will be heard and that the people themselves still have power.

Unfortunately, at this time, this is not the case, but the scenario: this way of things will soon change. That is where the true hope lies.

A Message to the Light Network

(In Celebration of Their 9th Year)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) That was very informative. Here is another topic altogether. Jan from Holland sends: (Our sincerest apologies are offered to Jan and the crew concerning the delay in submitting this request to Awareness due to the unavailability of both the Interpreter and the energizer. Jan's message reads as follows:) "A question for Cosmic Awareness as another year has passed by. Last year we received such an inspiring message to the crew from our First Cause Captain. In this message it mentioned that a new message will be issued. On the 9th of September 2008, we are celebrating our 9th year and it would be very nice and inspiring for the crew to have a new message if possible. Would Awareness please speak to this request?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in reference to the Light Network.

QUESTIONER:

It's called Lightnet. And the message to the crew from our First Cause Captain. I think that's you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has never been referred to as the First Cause Captain.

QUESTIONER:

I think it's very complimentary.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is pleased.

QUESTIONER:

They will be pleased you are pleased.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does have a message for the Lightnet workers. They are indeed Lightnet workers, those who have become engaged with Jan, who are part of that network. They are indeed Lightnet workers, workers of the Light, people and individuals who have dedicated their lives to restore the planet back to sanity, to bring back the Light of Spirit into the realm of darkness that currently surrounds this planet. Their work has been subtle indeed, and yet it has had deep and powerful effects.

The Times Have Changed—Consciousness Has Shifted (Bringing Light Into the Darkness has Been Accomplished)

The new message that this Awareness has, for It does recall Its message to Jan and to the Lightnet workers last year, is that the times have changed. There has been a shift in consciousness, and it is now important and to begin to visualize and to hold as true a new vision of the world as it unfolds. It is seen now that the original purpose of bringing Light into the Darkness has been accomplished. The new order of things is to see the new world, to believe this new world with heart and soul, to visualize it everyday, whether in meditation, whether in contemplation, whether in a group of individuals coming together to discuss and to visualize and to project the new image of a completed planet that lives in the Light, that is of the Light.

This is important now as a new vision, for it is no longer focusing even secondarily on restoring Light into the Dark world, but rather, that the world is a world of Light, a world of Love, a world of spiritual comprehension, spiritual awareness. To begin to see this, and to believe this and to live this is the new task, the new plan. The reason why this is so important at this time is because many scenarios will be presented that focus on the negative, focus on a world of trouble and toil and disturbance. This is a natural occurrence, for many scenarios will be presented at this time, and the natural occurrence is to believe in the scenarios for they sound so real, so plausible, that it is easy to be swept up into them. Thus it is that many will be predicting and speaking of the possibility of the Third World War.

The Recent Conflict Between Georgia and Russia

This has already been presented to this Awareness as plausible through the events that occurred recently in the former Russian country of Georgia, which is a separate independent country now, and the conflict that occurred between Georgia and its former master Russia. There was much behind the scenes manipulation that drove the Georgian government to attack Russia, to spit in the eye of the giant and then proclaim innocence when the giant responded and clobbered the smaller country. Much speculation rose at that time that this was a precipitous event to a Third World War, and that other events would then happen that would cause the escalation between Russia and the United States and that this would lead to a world-wide conflict, a Third World War.

Planned Actions Must Not Be Energized

This is a projected scenario that was being presented, that many were feeling was entirely plausible and entirely possible, and that much attention and focus was given to the events at that time. Many started to believe and visualize the result occurring of a worldwide conflict, a Third World War. That is why this Awareness spoke at that time, and speaks again to Jan and to the Lightnet workers, that it is important to always question when such reports come out, when such planned actions occur, for these are planned actions, and to deny them. To suggest that they could happen is to participate in the energizing of these events, and that it must be clear that they are not to be energized. They can be viewed, they can be seen, they can be understood, but they cannot be energized, for to do so will give power to this scenario and it could then be an occurrence that you would participate in.

Each and every individual who believes that such could be would perhaps then be taken up into that scenario, into that planned action.

Now Needed is Visualization of the Ascension Planet "A"

As a new way of things, that what is now needed, is the visualization of the Ascension Planet A, of the Garden of Eden, of the New World. With the visualization of this being so, and the deliberate non-attention to the proposed scenarios that are being presented, there is a stronger possibility of the creation of Planet A, of the Ascension Planet. At the very least, all those who hold that it will be so, that they see it, visualize it, know it and believe, will experience it. Their realities will not be a reality of a Third World War, of universal mass-destruction and mayhem, but rather the escalation to the New Planet and to the New Order of things, a new order that is the true new order as planned by the higher states of consciousness that are participating also in the affairs of humanity and in the evolutionary leap of the planet herself.

That is the new way to focus the attentions and the energies of the Lightnet and of the Lightnet Workers. This Awareness again congratulates all who have been involved in this effort and asks for your continued support in this new plan, this new way of visualizing the future, of seeing the brightest future, of visualizing oneself and one's loved ones in such an existence, in such a scenario, to believe it, to energize it, to believe that this is the way it will be, and one chooses to experience this truth and this reality. When this is done and engaged in, then it will be so, and all who participate will experience this as their reality.

This is the new insight that this Awareness offers Jan and his followers. This Awareness congratulates and thanks all for their participation. This Awareness sends Its blessings.

The Internet Petition to the Star Nations

QUESTION:

(Thank you) There was another question that was written from the Lightnet Workers, in February 28, 2008. Last month, Cosmic Awareness suggested that a petition be made on the Internet to the Star Nations. The petition was drawn up by CAC members and posted on <http://Lightworkers.org>. About a week later a couple named Lia Ameil, and Amerith White Eagle, who are members of Lightworkers.org, came forth with the statement that they are incarnated members of the "Away Team" of the Ashtar Command, and this knowledge was returned to them upon their union again as twin souls, here for purpose of helping humanity ascend into the 5th dimension at this time, in the shifting of the ages. They confirmed that they Are First Contact... Can Awareness please confirm and comment on this for all, please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness first wishes to comment on the effectiveness of the petition that was drafted and released at that time. It has already explained that this petition has been successful. It had gone out, and there was a desire of many who wished for the Galactic Federation, for Ashtar Command, if you wish to use that term, to be welcomed onto this planet, to welcome aboard the Galactic Federation. The act of creating and releasing this petition had a deep and profound effect and the two that have been mentioned are part of that effect. It was possible for them to come forward to receive the information and awareness that they were part of the "Away Team" and that they unofficially represent a First Contact, a First Contact of a deeper awareness within oneself of their true nature.

They became aware with the release of the energy of the invitation to the Galactic Federation, to the Ashtar Command, to wake up within themselves. Thus it was understood and recognized who they truly were, and thus, in a manner of speaking, First Contact was achieved. First Contact within oneself, within those who have come onto this plane of existence to help in this transition process. The First Contact was the awakening within themselves, of themselves, and to themselves. Does this make the matter more understandable?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness will proceed then. This Awareness spoke earlier that when the first appearance in the skies of the mother ship happens, it will be a trigger for many to awaken within themselves to their true nature, such as has occurred and has been mentioned in this question, and this was an example of how it will happen. Many will suddenly become aware that they are indeed more than they ever thought they were, that they were sent here with a mission, and this awakening will allow them to access dormant knowledge, dormant memories, dormant powers, and they will be able to better effect the changes that are to come, for this awakening will help in the First Contact scenario, as many will appear who are suddenly aware of who they truly are.

The First Contact, as this Awareness just said, will happen from within. This Awareness is now complete.

How the Ascension Process Will Work

QUESTION:

(Thank you) When reading this, the 5th dimension was referred to. Is Planet A's Ascension to the 4th or 5th dimension, to clarify a point?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Ascension process will remove the present planet from 3rd dimensional reality, bypassing 4th and intersecting 5th dimensional reality. At the same time, a curious condition will exist. The beings on this new planet at the 5th dimension will be able to experience physical sensations. They will no longer be in the denser physical world of 3rd dimension, and yet they will be able to embody themselves in a physical structure, to have physical experiences, although they will know at all times that they are 5th dimensional and that this is simply a form that they are putting on to have such experiences.

There will be to some degree a duality of a physical, as well as a spiritual nature. Body form will express itself both ways and there will be no paradox, for it will be understood that the physical form is but a manifestation, an expression of a spiritual state, a spiritual consciousness. Thus it will be that Planet A; the Ascension Planet will be a transcended planet. It will be more than a physical form, a physical expression. It will be the embodiment of spirit actively within that form. At this time this is confusing, for most understand it only in terms of a physical body or a spiritual body, not a body that incorporates both.

This will change as the Ascension occurs and individuals move into that exulted state.

ARE LIGHT WORKERS CONSIDERED "FIRST CONTACT"?

((Thank you) For our next session there are many questions concerning the Ascension. One thought comes to mind. Are the majority or some of the Light Workers also considered First Contact?

When did my wild oats...
turn to prunes and bran?

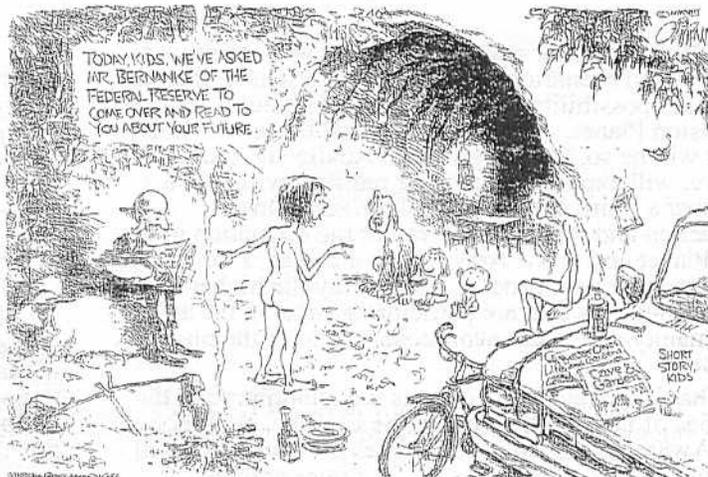

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Many are indeed First Contact. This does extend beyond just the realms of the Galactic Federation, the Star Nations people, Ashtar Command. This is also an awakening to the multidimensionality of the soul, and that the extraterrestrial expression is simply one of the expressions of that multidimensional nature, so that many of the Light Workers who may not have that strong affinity with extraterrestrial source, are indeed still part of the multidimensional nature of consciousness, and indeed will have an expression on the extraterrestrial level of the Galactic Federation, or Ashtar Command, or Star Nation people.

THE ECONOMIC COLLAPSE

QUESTION:

The first three questions concern finances. In this morning's paper, the headline was "Bailout Plan passes Senate", and it gives a blurb on it. "Bush Urges US House to follow lead concerning the $700-billion financial bailout package which was approved by the US Senate 74-25 last night." Does Awareness have a comment on this particular event?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has a comment, not only on this event, but also on the failure for the bill to pass originally through the Senate and the various Houses. It is seen that this Awareness spoke last week that the plan would be passed. It is still so. This Awareness wishes to remind all that often the way that those powers that be create a situation where they will be supported in their actions is to provoke fear and anguish and confusion into a situation. Thus, their proposed measures will then receive support.

Creating Events to Pass Bills in Congress

For example, in times gone, often there would be a bill in the House of Representatives or in the Senate that would involve losing personal freedoms to some degree or another. It was often known that the bill would not be passed if it was simply introduced to the House or to Congress, and thus it was that an event would precipitate the vote on the bill. For example, there was a bill waiting to be passed when President Reagan was shot. In that instant, the man was not killed, but the bill passed instantly when introduced onto the floor of the House, for no one would stand up and say no to such a ludicrous bill when the president was lying in the hospital, gravely wounded from the assassination attempt on his life.

Often this is how it works. The Federal building that was bombed in Omaha also corresponded to a bill that was waiting to be passed, and the bill easily went through after the bombing of the Federal building in Omaha city. The plan was not so much this time of passing the initial 700 billion dollar bailout bill, as creating an even deeper level of fear and anxiety in the minds of the people. It is also to be remembered that the elections ahead of the president, are also the time of election for various congressmen, representatives, senators, and many of them understood that if they were seen to just endorse this bill, they may have faced great opposition in their own constituencies, in their own backyard, and thus it was seen that if they were at least shown to stand up for the people in opposing the bill, that they could, with clear conscience it would appear, go to their people and say, "I was against this, but when we saw the results of that original bill failing, when it was seen how the country was on the verge of teetering into oblivion, I understood that the people's rights would be better served if I voted for this bill."

The people themselves, having had a taste of what may come if the bill failed, would also then more likely endorse the passing of the bill, for they had seen that they may be drastically effected. This has not proven to be 100% effective. There are many people who would still hold that this bailout bill should not be passed, and the corrupt institutes based on greed and avarice should be allowed to collapse, but a majority have succumbed to the fear, have succumbed yet again to the manipulation. Thus it is that the passing of this second bill has gone through more favorably and smoothly, even though in the long run it will actually cost more than the 700 billion dollars, for 100 billion is also being touted as tax incentive to assist those who need the assistance, but this is not the ordinary folk, the ordinary man or woman.

Thus, it is seen that this bill, if passed, will actually cost more than the original 700 billion dollar packet, and yet, through the time-honored system of manipulation, of creating a problem so the people will rise up and ask to be saved, and thus presenting the solution to the problem, a solution that was already determined and known in advance, has again proven tactic. However, that which is the true problem is so great that this measure, even involving such a huge amount of money will not truly solve the problem, for the corruption and the rot is from within.

Shoring Up a Decaying Foundation

Shoring up a decaying structure where the foundation itself has already been eaten away will only temporarily hold that structure up, and it is seen that in addition to other events that are also ready to occur in the next few years, that eventually the whole financial economic system in the United States, and to a degree, throughout the world, will totally collapse and fail. This Awareness does not see ultimately that even the introduction of a 700 billion dollar packet to save the stock market, to save the financial institutes of economy in the United States of America will be successful. In fact, they will not be successful, for it is the overall plan that a new world is ready to emerge, and that which has controlled and governed the old world will die of necessity for the new world to be born.

The Collapse of the Economic Structure is No Accident

Those who hold to the New World Order are seeing this because they are the ones that are planning this. They are the ones that are forcing this. Therefore, do not think for one moment that the collapse of the economic system is accidental or random. Those captains of industry who piloted the ship onto the rocky shores did so with intent and purpose and were duly rewarded for their successful actions. This is not a random set of events and occurrences, for it is seen that this is to take one and all to the next level as it is seen by those powers that be.

This Awareness reminds one and all that there is also a higher plan, a holier plan, a whole plan that overshadows even that which is the machinations of those who have power at this time, that will eclipse ultimately, even the plans of those who hold power, who have planned this out and who have directed the progress of events to reach this point. Once again they feel that they have succeeded, but they cannot see or understand that there is a current that is now flowing that is oppositional to them. A grass roots movement is beginning to grow stronger and stronger now, and a level of consciousness is starting to appear that sees through the con, that sees through the fabrication that is being presented to the world and to the people of the United States of America.

These are indeed times of great hope, as to the ultimate results finally being achieved, even if the world around one falls apart. One must hold to the hope and not be swayed by events, must not fall into fear or anxiety, for when this occurs, then one is at the control of those who manipulate, those who have control. This Awareness is complete at this moment, but will proceed with further questions.

When the Stock Market Falls

QUESTION:

(Thank you) As I was driving over, there was something on the radio saying that the stocks are continuing to fall. Is this for the benefit of the vote tomorrow by the House of Representatives?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed so. This is to ensure that the tide is turned, and by continuing the fear tactics of falling stock, it will ensure the vote goes in favor of those who wish this monetary grab, who are those who control the events.

Is a Global Financial Depression Ahead?

(Is it Time to Start Stocking Survival Food?)

(Thank you) There is a question from Zoe Zen, in California. It concerns global financial depression. She asks, "Does Awareness see an upcoming global financial depression, within a timeframe of the next year? Is it time to start putting in dehydrated survival foods?" Does Awareness have an update on this topic?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would say that everything is going according to plan. Next year will simply be another stage, another step on the process of the destruction of the world system as it now is held. It is also part of the plan of the power elite to destroy the economy, to destroy the fabric of government, creating a situation of anarchy, where only a few are in charge, they being the few. Thus it is seen that they will also create a huge police presence, because a police state under martial law is what they are seeking to create next, and it would require a series of catastrophes for them to declare complete and total martial law.

That is part of the plan. That is part of what the current events are all about. This has been spoken about many times. This is simply the tip of the iceberg. Thus it is seen that next year will bring even more radical events and more radical solutions will be offered. The question regarding the use of dehydrated foods: this Awareness would support preparation to events where in the preparation one ensures that they have a degree of foods and other items available to them that will help in their survival. It is not a bad idea to always have an emergency stock of food, candles, and other items for events that would cause a destruction and breakdown of the social fabric of one's society, whether that happens on a local scale, or on a national scale or even an international scale.

A One Year Supply of Food is Recommended

The entity herself lives in an area that is prone to major earthquakes and if a big event were to occur that knocks out the power and gas, that being prepared in advance would at least see her and others through to a time when the emergency forces and troops could be of assistance, even if this took a prolonged period of time. Thus it is that this Awareness would recommend that each and every household have a one-year supply of food and supplies available to them that could be used in the time of the emergencies.

It is seen that there is a religious group known as the Latter Day Saints, the Mormons, who make it part of their practice to be prepared in this manner, to have a one year's worth of food and supplies available, which are constantly located and changed so that they are always within their expiring dates. While this Awareness is not totally supporting the Mormon's philosophical beliefs or teachings, It can indeed point out that such a measure is a wise one indeed for these troubled and uncertain times.

Not everyone lives in a safe area. There are very few geologically safe areas available. This has been seen with the world events over the few years, where weather conditions and weather events have destroyed many people's homes and businesses, forcing them into a situation of dependency on the emergency groups that are available such as FEMA, although FEMA is not what it seems to be. Still, they are reliant on others assisting them in times of emergency. While this may be so, no matter how prepared one is, it is still a good idea to have a degree of preparedness, to be ready in the event, whether from a natural catastrophe in a local area, or a large-scale event; that one be prepared for such an event so that one can hold on and survive.

How One's Belief Defines His Reality

This is by way of common sense. This Awareness is also aware that the beliefs held by individuals are very important to this scenario and that if it is held by an individual that these events will unfold dramatically and drastically, and that they themselves and their family will be totally affected by whatever events occur and that they feel and believe they must survive at all costs, and that survivalism and preparedness are the way for them, then this is something that this Awareness would say to be prepared for. It has spoken many times of how one's belief will define one's reality, and this will become more and more the case, and yet this Awareness understands that at this time there are strong beliefs still that there will be a need to experience some turmoil and upheaval in the times to come.

This Awareness is not saying there will not be upheaval. It is saying that one's belief will determine exactly how much turmoil one then experiences with the upheaval that will come in the times ahead, in the days ahead. This Awareness is finished with the answering of this question, unless the energizer has anything further to ask of It.

QUESTION:

Is the expected time frame within the next year?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness was simply saying it's an ongoing timeframe. By next year certain events will unfold that will bring the next layer/level of action/reaction onto the world scene, but there are ongoing plans that will unfold the following year and the year after. In the next four years, all of this will play itself out. It will be complete by the time of Ascension. Some will already start to tune out and tune away from these kind of catastrophic events for they have managed to raise their consciousness and their beliefs to such a degree, that they simply do not need to experience these events, for their belief systems are such that they have a different set of beliefs as to what they themselves and their families may experience.

There is a gradation of results, if you will, to the experiences that will be had by those experiencing the times ahead.

Our Money: "In God We Trust". Huh!

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Our next topic is from Larry Kell, in Indiana. It concerns finances, and on the coins "In God We Trust" appears. He asks, "Has anyone reported this working for them? "In God We Trust" is already printed on all our money. We have the money in exchange for doing some kind of work that has a real value to someone else. Why would passing around a drawing of an angel and a photo of money, neither having any tangible value as a gift, have some magical affect on the flow of money in the world? What if it was put on every news program and billboard and every computer screen and was seen by billions of people? Would each of them receive a sum of money that they would have received otherwise? If everyone on the planet sees it, where will the money come from? These would be good questions for the Awareness." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is such a complex question, with so many facets, that is hard for this Awareness to pick a starting point. It chooses to start with the first part of the question, where the entity spoke of the words, "In God We Trust" being printed on the money, be it on coin or paper. The phrase is meaningless to those who have printed the money, those who control the money, those who control the banks and the financial institutes, for they are not Christian in their beliefs. For them, God is not the same spiritual entity that It may be to many common people who believe in a Supreme Deity, who believe in God Above, who believe in a Christian concept of God.

Indeed, it is to be seen that there are many religious beliefs, many concepts of God, but this phrase is particularly relevant to a Christian consciousness, to Christian concept of a Supreme God somehow being above the people, and by putting one's trust in God Above, the Supreme God, the Supreme Deity, that all will somehow be well, all will be good. Those who control, who have the power, who have the bills printed with these words on it do not believe in such a God. They believe in a god of power. They believe in that which is the god of money. "In God We Trust" printed on money is a statement that they believe in the economic situation that is created when money is the energy used to purchase services, goods, products, even people, even countries.

"In God We Trust" is their boldface statement that the god they believe in is the god represented by the bill itself, by all it stands for, all it represents, all that it gives them.

It represents to them that they are the gods that they believe in. They are the power. They are the control. For them, these are words of enslavement, the people unwittingly, and in blind ignorance accept on each and every bill. They accept, as yet another link in the chain that enslaves them. Thus it is seen that there is a very big different between what one group believes in when reading those words, and what another group holds to be the truth. This is the first point that this Awareness wishes to make on this matter.

The Use of Money in a General Way

Now It wishes to speak on money in a more general manner. The use of money, in a way, came up as a convenient way to ensure an exchange of energy. In the old times, their money was not available as it is now, there was a system in place that one would call a barter system, and two individuals who had a need to exchange what the other had, would barter with the other, would promise to do something in exchange for something else, would promise to give this product of theirs to the other person for that product of theirs. Thus, a farmer who raised pigs might go to a farmer who raised corn, offering a pig for so much corn. This is how it once worked.

The New Orion System Eliminated Barter

Money developed as the Orion way of starting to change direct bartering to something that was much more controllable. Thus it was that a system finally came about that was supported by the state that created a monetary system that ensured that when a bill was produced that had so much value, that it would be able to produce an exchange for services or products that were required or desired by the individual without the need for bartering. Now the pig farmer could simply go to the market and buy corn, versus having to go to the corn-growing farmer and barter his product for their product.

It was developed as a reasonable and easier system, especially for individuals who did not raise pigs or corn, or anything else, but who could still purchase those products and other products. Of course now, in the modern world, one does not purchase a pig any longer, one buys a pork chop at the supermarket, a can of corn at the grocery store, a Lamborghini at the car dealership, and a house from a real estate agent, using money to pay for their items.

At the same time, by tying in to this system, they have tied in to the control of those powers who have initiated the system and who control the system, all the while not realizing that they have to some degree sold themselves out by supporting such a system. It is, after all, the only system that they know, and therefore, there is no objection to using this system, for they have never questioned the system, they have never thought about the system, they have never understood and entrapped and enslaved they are by this monetary system, and thus it is that with each greenback that is passed to another, that is used by one, they are participants in an enslavement system of the Orion empire, completely ignorant that this is so.

What Money Really is: Energy

Finally, this Awareness wishes to talk about the matter of what money really is. Money is in actuality, energy. As It has just spoken, it is a convenient and easy way to exchange energy packets, thus it is that when an individual works "X" number of hours, he will receive "X" number of dollars that represent an exchange for his work, for his service. Thus it is that if an individual for example, worked 5 hours and is paid $100, the hundred dollars represents the hours of energy spent by that individual on behalf of the employer. This then gives the individual an opportunity to now take the intermediary device, or bill, and exchange it somewhere else for product, the result again of service rendered by those who produced the product.

Thus it is that the individual who earned the hundred dollars could then go to the supermarket and exchange his effort, his energy in the form of the hundred dollars for one hundred dollars worth of product and supplies. This system does work to a degree, but tremendous imbalances are created in such a system. There are those who do not get the money for their services to the degree that allows them to buy the amount of goods that they think they want and need. This disparity often leads to people who want more, and who turn to criminal activities to get what they think they want, because everyone else has such items.

It also leads to poverty, where those who do not have the training in skills that are deemed as high level or high priority in a society are forced to work at low-paying jobs where the reward for their energy output is considerably less than someone working in a high-priority field. As it is set up at this time, individuals working at low menial jobs are never acknowledged or recognized to the degree that someone is recognized who works at a high-level job such as a banker or the CEO of Fanny Mae, or any of the other high institutes that have failed. Are those who work in such lofty positions more worthy than that individual working at McDonalds? By the standards of society it is seen that it is so. By the standards of this Awareness there is no difference.

Thus it is seen again that the monetary system introduced and created by those who are the servants of the Orion Empire, has created a system of enslavement, where the having of money is the most crucial thing of all, and many will do almost anything to have money, and to be able to use it to buy what they want and to support lifestyles that they feel are important to be supported. At the same time, many do not have such benefits for they do not have those amounts of money and they live in a continual system of want and need, where they continually strive for more money.

That is why the whole monetary system as it now is understood will soon collapse, and will soon be replaced, and certainly for a time at least, the old bartering system may likely come back once again, leveling the playing field and creating equality once again. As this Awareness said originally, this question is multifaceted and It has spoken on three and only three areas of this topic, but It feels that It has spoken sufficiently for now.

The Whole Economic System Will Collapse (Even all those tax collection systems)

QUESTIONER: (SHE IS CANADIAN)

(Thank you) For the tax departments, the IRS and the CRA, and government services and department of finances and that type of thing, are these also going to be affected, in the sense that the CRA would not be collecting the taxes or the government would not be issuing pension funds?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The whole economic system will collapse. Everything will be gone. This Awareness understands that this is a radical statement. Many will suffer from such a collapse, especially those who were reliant on their pensions from the government and other revenues that come to them from various agencies such as RSP's or other deposits. It must be understood that the world as it is now known will soon disappear, will no longer exist as you know it, and while it is difficult to get one's mind and head around this concept, it will nonetheless transpire, creating the various gradients that this Awareness has spoken of as what may be experienced by the individuals when they go through this upheaval, this change.

We Have to Start Changing Our Minds and Beliefs

To hold that one will suffer miserably if they no longer gain their pension will cast one in fear. This Awareness has spoken and It will speak this again and again and again in the times to come. It is imperative that individuals start changing their mind on how they will be affected. They must start to understand how thoroughly their belief system governs the realities they experience, and how necessary it will be to step away from the collapsing system, but in true faith and understanding that they and their loved ones will be okay, for there are measures held from the highest level of consciousness that are ready to be implemented. It is not to be that they will simply experience the destruction of their worlds with no rescue, no salvation, and no prospects of how to continue.

This is how many see it, that when everything collapses that they will suffer horribly. How will they continue to survive? How will they make it? How will they step from day to day to day? This is proof of how insidious and how complete the Orion system is in the minds of the masses, in the collective consciousness. It simply cannot be seen how one would survive such a calamity, such a collapse. This Awareness says that there will be measures in place to help those who can step outside of the fear and panic, to exist from day to day, indeed, to move forward and expand to that bright new future that this Awareness also sees ahead of mankind.

Thus, it is imperative that individuals truly start to shift their consciousness, shift their perspective, shift their beliefs, for if they do not do so, it is more than likely they will experience a set of consequences based on the beliefs that they will be harmed or destroyed in the collapses that are coming. Does this help the energizer?

QUESTIONER:

(Yes it does, thank you so much)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness fully expects many more questions of this nature. It is prepared to speak this over and over again until it becomes a living legacy, a living truth for those who comprehend it and can share it with others.

Other Ways to Get a Grip On This

QUESTIONER:

Apart from using the thought process, are there other ways to get a grip on this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Prayer is a good way to get a grip on this, not simply Christian prayers, but the prayers to one's own inner self, to one's High Self, to the Divine Creator, to those agents who are listening, those agents of one's higher multidimensional consciousness who are there to assist. The world may be heading to the collapse of the world that is known, but it is also heading to a golden time, a miraculous world indeed, where it will be possible to perform acts of high magic, where instantaneous manifestation will be possible, where healing will be the order of the day, healing through the work of the High Self and beyond.

The world that is seen as that which this Awareness has often labeled as Planet A, is indeed a truly astounding and amazing one, one that holds the promise that so many have always felt within themselves of what is possible, but have not truly been able to experience in every day reality, for every day reality is still largely controlled by those powers, not only just the powers that be, but those powers of thought and belief that are in existence at this time and that hold sway and hold power.

The beliefs that hold sway and hold power at this time are such that most who live on this planet swim in a sea of consciousness that fully supports these thoughts, beliefs and realities. It is almost inconceivable that it would be any other way, and many are very reluctant to let go of such a reality, for those who live in the advantage of these realities are indeed favored. Many many more do not have such favor; do not live such glorious wonderful lives of material prosperity and abundance. In truth, the majority of the world's population is at starvation level or below.

Many of the world's population do not have the benefits that those in the western world have. Part of the problem that is now occurring is that many of the third world countries that are starting to emerge as major players in the game, countries such as India and China are starting to make demands on the natural resources of the planet, are starting to create markets where their own people wish the advantage that materialism has brought to the western world. This is already seen as a conflict to those who have had the power and the advantage for so long.

These ideas, these truths, these beliefs create the sea of consciousness that humanity is still swimming in at this time. There are many who are starting to get out of the water, who are starting to raise themselves above that which is held as the consciousness of humanity, but it is still difficult to feel complete and whole with the new beliefs, the new truths, the new realities that are emerging, for they are minor to the majority concepts/beliefs, minor to the mass-consciousness and the mass reality that is currently held.

While it is still a struggle, the events that are to unfold in the times coming will help shift more and more, will help raise many out of the sea of consciousness they currently swim in and within a few years, the exponential growth of the higher level, the deeper level of consciousness that is starting to emerge on a massive scale now will make a tremendous difference and the truth of a new reality, a new world will not be some vague set of ideals held by the lunatic fringe but will be seen to be the only viable way forward. Indeed, many will not even consider it viable, but essential, and they will simply live that new truth as they emerge into that new reality.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you. As you have often said, "Interesting times!")

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed so.

THE CONSPIRACY IN CANADA (Not Only Just a Conspiracy of Silence)

QUESTION:

Our next topic concerns the war on politics. This concerns Canadian politics in the sense of the upcoming elections. "A few questions concerning background information related to an article Jan from Holland recently sent to the Interpreter which is an extract from the Canadian National newspaper. A Website search link to its "About Us" indicates it is an editorially independent and not-for-profit national newspaper, inspired by "Le Canadien" founded in 1806; are committed to affirming a sovereign Canada by defending the national public interest, have inspired journalists, plus politicians Tommy Douglas of the National Democratic Party (NDP), former PM Trudeau (Liberal Party) and others towards pursuit of the Canadian Dream. Mr. Trudeau specifically referred to this Canadian Dream as the pursuit of a socially progressive "Just Society." Their blog page invites feedback comments on their various editorial contributions.

Some questions: Is this particular group sincere in some or more of its efforts to inform the public, or is it a case of being a vehicle for misinformation by those who are less than honorable?"

There are four or five more questions after that. Should I take them one at a time?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Yes, one at a time. In relation to the first question regarding the sincerity of the individuals who are running this publication, it is seen that on the whole that these are very sincere individuals whose intent is exactly that: to help ensure a sovereign nation free from outside influence, or at least to allow those individuals who are reading the paper to make better more informed choices based on an understanding of what may really be occurring.

Unfortunately, many times such organizations can be infiltrated and then be used as sources of disinformation, and it is seen that while the sincerity is there, that occasionally it has also been used for the purpose of disinformation. The one saving grace here is that the organization is now considered so small, as to be insignificant. In this there is a level and degree of protection, for these individuals can still share their insights, their attitudes and opinions and their information safely enough without being picked on, without being used, and thus it is this Awareness would say that on the whole, at this time, the information presented by this organization and these individuals is accurate and their intent sincere.

QUESTION:

(Thank you) "The article by Dr. John Singh who has several comments previously alluded to by Awareness involving the powers that be, and likely referred to in this article as the North American Union, whose agenda included secretly negotiated matters in relation to the Security & Prosperity Partnership (SPP) agreement. The latter originally endorsed by the Form PM Paul Martin (Liberal) in 2005 without consulting with Canadians. Would it be correct to assume recent and future events suggest the ramifications of these agreements are not entirely favorable to Canadians?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It would indeed be reasonable to make such an assumption.

The Conspiracy of Silence

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) Dr. Singh's article makes reference to a "conspiracy of silence taking place on vital issues in the Canadian Federal Election" scheduled for October 14, 2008 "armed at the mass deception of the Canadian public." Some Canadians may already be aware of this. Is more information available regarding this statement than meets the eye, or does this capture its essence?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First of all, more information is available to those who seek this information. These are or course measures that are being passed by the leaders of the three countries: Mexico, the United States, and Canada, that are in support, not of the people of those nations, but rather in support of the power elite, supporting the Cabal, whose intention it is to create one social economic political region, that being the North American Concord. Much of that which has been agreed has been done in secrecy, thus it is that those power elites work in a way that denies their citizens the right to make informed choices.

In this case, there is no choice involved at all, for these agreements are being made, not with the people's knowledge and approval, but rather on their behalf. Of course it is not on behalf of the people at all. It is in support of the power elite that has the hidden agenda of moving the whole world, the global economy/ the global system into that of total enslavement.

QUESTIONER:

Is this global, in other words, does such exist in other countries as well?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is most definitely the case. It is seen that there will eventually be five social/economic/political regions. One has already been formed, that being the European Union. It is seen that the North American Union is the next proposed, followed by the South American, the Asian and then the Austro/Asian regions. Australia would fit into the Asian community. There is also seen a region around Africa/the Middle East, in that region.

Eventually, even these five regions would fall under the One World Government, the New World Order as proposed by the elite cabal, those who are in charge. They already have divided up the world. They have already planned its future. They are continually moving towards this future. Events such as the collapse of the American economic system is actually designed towards creating a situation that will eventually lead to the proposal of a union of the three nations in North America, for it is seen that the Canadian economy and the Mexican economy will also be affected by the collapse, but not to the same degree, and the bailout will eventually require being bailed out through the unification of the three nations, the proposal stating that the three together will be stronger and more stable once again than three who are separately struggling to endure the storms that are raging at the moment.

QUESTIONER:

Will this come about prior to 2012?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen as that which is desired. 2010 is seen as a proposed date for such a union to occur.

Archons: Demonic Inorganic Beings?

(More on the origin of vampires)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) "Mention is made to "exopolitic researcher Dr. Michael Salla, historian Dr. Jon Lamb Lash, and maverick David Icke concerning alleged infiltration of regressive alien mimics. Dr. Lash specifically refers to Gnostic accounts of demonic inorganic beings that lack the "divine spark" of creativity possessed by human beings, but as technologically sophisticated artificial life forms, could simulate human form" and whom "the Gnostics refer to ...as Archons." Are the Archons referred to in this article actually in fact the Orion nation?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

They are not in fact the Orion nation. These Archons are in actuality that which Dr. Baker spoke of in his exposes a number of years ago. These are the androids that were spoken of at that time. The inorganic creations that are not human in nature. They can be made to look like human beings, but they do indeed lack that human spark, that essence of spirit that actually defines a human being. There is a real force, a real energy that occupies the human body. It has been noted that upon death, there is a loss of seven grams that occurs when that which is the soul essence leaves the body. It could be pounds, it could be grams, it could be ounces; this is not the issue. There is a weight loss upon the departure of that which is the spiritual component of a human being, the consciousness of that human being.

This is what defines a human being: that spiritual understanding and awareness, that higher level of consciousness. These inorganic beings, these androids, the Archons have been around for a very long time. They actually already existed in the Middle Ages for they are the product of advanced technologies of the Orion Empire which was already around at this time, and they often were portrayed in the folklore of the times as being these soulless beings, beings who were not truly human. It was from these beings that some of the legends that are now very popular first started. The vampiric legend, of these entities without a human soul were part and parcel a result of these beings that were around even then, however the legends of the vampire are more than that, for a vampire is that which takes the life force, the energies from another being. The blending of the two saw that these inorganic's needed to literally suck the life force from the neck of their victim to survive, and without that, they would cease to exist in short order.

It is interesting that the mythology of the vampire also placed it as a creature of the night, of the shadow realm, of the dark world, and that exposure to the light would destroy it. This is of course an analogy to the power of the Light of Spirit. When the Light of Spirit is shown into the darkness, when it lights these beings, they cannot withstand it, and unless they choose to merge into the light, they will be destroyed. But this Awareness drifts. It returns back to this matter of inorganic beings.

Zombies are Inorganic Beings: the Walking Dead

The most recent portrayal of these inorganic type beings in the literatures civilization would be that being that is known as the zombies, individuals who have had their soul essence taken from that or destroyed, and they become the walking dead. Indeed, one could consider these beings as the walking dead, although they are not organic in nature. These particular creatures have spawned many myths, many fables, and many stories. Dr. Baker did indeed speak of them in great detail. He also spoke of the clones that were also created at that time.

Clones often have a component of that which is the spiritual quality that this Awareness spoke of a moment ago, although it is not often exactly the same as the spirit being who chooses to be born into physical reality. This is a different matter altogether, which gives those who chose to be born into the physical reality of the 3rd dimension, a different role altogether than those who were cloned from those who already exist in the physical reality.

Why Reptilians Are Called Cold-Hearted Non-Humans

The last matter that this Awareness would speak to of the lack of a human component to these beings is the matter of those, which are known as the Reptilians. While these Archons do exist, these inorganics, these androids, there are also those reptilian agents that have been on this planet for thousands of years also, and these beings also lack that essential spark that defines the human character. They do not lack a spark of that which is the spiritual nature. In that they are animated. In that they are alive. What this Awareness is actually referring to is that they lack human compassion, human spirit, and heart, human qualities that would allow them to be much more giving and loving and nurturing in their nature.

Thus it is that often that the Reptilians who are encountered are seen as cold-hearted, mean, cruel and vicious, for they are indeed reptilian in nature, not human in nature. There is a very big difference. While the Reptilians do have that seed of soul consciousness within them, it is not expressed in the same way as it is expressed in the human condition. Thus it is that the Reptilians are often able to do things that are so totally bereft of social character or compassion or heart. Thus it is that Reptilians will often engage in cruel practices, demonic practices even, in order to retrieve from their human victims that energy that that they feed off of, the adrenaline that gives them their rush.

This too is somewhat mixed up in the whole concept of the inorganic beings, the Archons, that this Awareness wished to make a distinction between the two.

How Misinformation and Fear Tactics Work

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The balance of his article refers to the Archons or the Orion agenda, which is already in force, thereby activating an assessment on this entire article being geared to "fear tactics" which ultimately in turn could or would be transferred and misconstrued or misused by those in power to suggest, inform, or portray the Galactic Federation of Light and its agenda of peace, good will and assistance to mankind as representing an act of terrorism, threatening and evil to human interests?

Is that possible, or am I making this up?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is exactly what this Awareness presented in Its discussions over the last few days regarding that which is the alleged First Contact that is to happen on the 14th of October. One of the things that this Awareness presented was that false scenario of an alien invasion, an alien attack, the purpose of which was to create the fear and the anxiety that the article addresses. That would allow the forces to attack the invading alien ship. It is remembered that this would be in the form of a hologram that would be projected into the sky. The technology is available to the powers that be, and by presenting the Galactic Federation as evil and violent and destructive with the intent of injuring humans at the very least, and possible destroying the planet, it would create an ultimate scenario that individuals would capitulate to, handing over their power totally and completely to the powers that be, asking again to be saved from this alien problem.

How These Secret Agents Work

It was David Icke who suggested that the way these agents work is to have a planned outcome that they wish to achieve, "they" being the powers that be, creating a problem that the people will respond to, that they will clamor for a solution to, and then present the solution to the people who are clamoring for the solution. Indeed, it was planned all along to lead the masses in a certain direction. It is seen that America for example, was led into the 2nd World War by the attack on Pearl Harbor. It was always the intent of FDR and his people to bring America into the war, but he was faced with a problem for he had run a campaign where he vowed that America would not enter the war, yet it was seen that this was something that was desired. Thus it was that the invasion of Japan, although known about in advance, was allowed to happen, for it was understood that the attack on American ground would challenge the American people, and they would rise up and demand that something be done, and that the nation go to war, which is exactly what happened. The nation did indeed go to war.

The Bombing of the World Trade Center Another Example

This also was what happened with the bombing of the World Trade buildings. This is a well-known plan of action. The latest manifestation of this way of creating situations that lead to the planned solution is that presentation of an alien force, an alien craft that proved hostile to humanity, that proved hostile to the United States of America, to then introduce the Star Wars technology to defeat this craft, thus allowing the government to finally come forward, admitting that they had known about the aliens for a long time, had known that they were dangerous and hostile, but sought to protect their people by not admitting to them, by protecting the people from the knowledge of them until such an event would occur. It was their hope that they would have developed sufficient technology by then so that they would defend the people. With the use of the Star Wars technology they could prove that they had accomplished what they set out to do, thus presenting themselves as the saviors, as the good-guys, and yet, it is all illusion, all slight of hand, with the one express purpose of guiding the alleged desires of the people in a certain direction that they then would be able to provide, that they then would rise up and be the saviors they had claimed to be, always safe in the illusion that they had created, the deception they had passed, that they themselves were the true threat, just as they had always been, "they" of course being the shadow government, the elite, the cabal, the powers that be.

More on October 14 First Contact

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Is the October 14th First Contact still on schedule?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is still seen to be questionable as to whether this event will occur or not. There has been, as this Awareness has said before, a struggle to make it so. The Galactic Federation had not planned to come quite at that time. They are not quite ready, for the true purpose of the First Contact is to initiate a process within those many star beings who are on this planet to begin their own First Contact process, First Contact with their inner being, with their Star Being, and the awakening process. They were not entirely ready to come on the 14th, but events precipitated this and forced their hand somewhat. Their choice would be to come at a later time, but at the same time, they could not allow the presentation of the hostile scenario of the attacking ship that was the Galactic Federation, by the reportage of the powers that be.

They saw this as a bigger threat than their not quite being ready, and thus it was that they put out the report that First Contact would happen on the 14th of October. Their plan is to honor this date if they are able to do so, if they would be able to awaken those many who are ready to wake up to their deeper truer nature, their fuller nature. If this can be achieved, then the 14th of October may still come to be, but the energies around this are seen as erratic and not seen as complete. They are not seen as 100% in place at this time to ensure that this event will occur on the alleged day.

QUESTIONER:

There are many people hoping that it will occur on that date.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The importance here, and this is something that the Galactic Federation did realize, is that many more millions are now aware of a plan for First Contact, and yearn for such an event. This is an escalation of that which this Awareness spoke of over a year ago of the invitation being presented to the Galactic Federation for intervention, for involvement in the affairs of mankind/womankind, and this latest escalation has brought this desire to an even higher pitch, thus making the appearance of the Galactic Federation one that has an even stronger support basis behind it, an even stronger reason for the Galactic Federation to actually appear in the skies above.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you. Is there any specific meaning to Prime Minister Harper calling an election on October 14th, which is or could be the date of the Galactic Federation vessel being shown? Is there any significance there?)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is indeed a significance. It was not a random date that was chosen. Part of the reason that it was chosen is because it was understood that there would be distracting elements that might take the minds of the voters off the election. It is not seen 100% that the present Prime Minister of Canada, Steven Harper, will win the majority government that he is planning. It is seen that it is more likely that he will once again have a minority government, but it is hoped that he will be able to present himself as the strongest choice to bring the nation forward, and in this presentation of a man who has fortitude, determination, strength to lead the nation in troubled times, that the majority of Canadians would feel that he would be the man to vote for.

Again, it is not seen that his plans will be pulled off, but it is also felt that he had certain information about the alleged First Contact, about the plans of the Americans to create the hologram and the fake invasion, and he realized that it might work to his advantage to have the election on the day before the Americans created this fake invasion scenario. He also felt that if such an occurrence did actually take place, and it is seen that he does not fully believe it will take place, that it would still work to his advantage; the distraction being that those people who did come may still vote for him, because his is after all the standing parliament, the standing government, and in these times where there are such radical events, many wish to go for that which is still already in place, than to replace it with a new government that they do not feel would be up to the task.

Prime Minister Harper feels he has already proven himself as an effective wartime leader because of his nation's involvement in Afghanistan and that he has proven himself as a man of action and determination. He feels, and indeed his party cohorts feel he will be supported in the election and he will then be swept to a majority government/majority rule. As this Awareness has spoken however, it is not seen that he will have the majority he is seeking. He will still have a minority government, although it is seen that it will be in better shape than the previous government that he led.

QUESTIONER:

Is there anyone out there more suited to be Prime Minister than Steven Harper?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

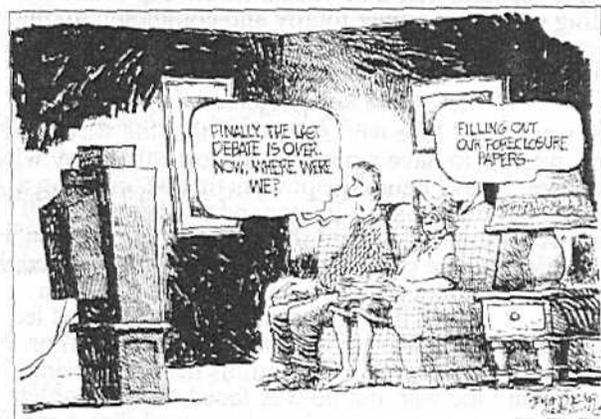

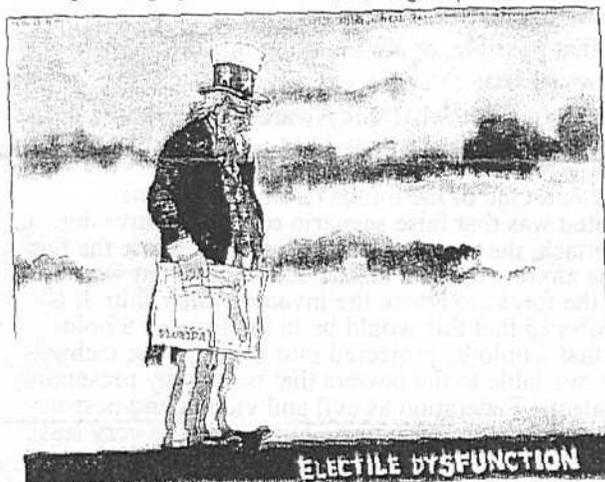

Of course there is. Steven Harper is indeed that agent of those elitists, that best represents their concerns and interests, and as such, the deception that is being played on the Canadian people is one that portrays him in another light, but in truth, if looked at and examined, would be shown to be deceptive in nature. There are better men out there, but the better men out there are not one's necessarily in political power, or who are presently running against this man Steven Harper.

It is seen that the oppositional leader, that being Stephan Dion of the Liberal Party is actually a much better man for the job. What his drawback is unfortunately, is the party that he represents. The party has very heavy connections to the elitists also. It is almost impossible to escape any party being linked at some level with the powers that be, for such is the nature of politics at this time, that the leading political powers are connected to those powers that hold the true power. The man himself, Stephan Dion, is a man of high principles and high ideals. It is not seen that this man has completely sold out to the powers that be, however he is compromised to a great deal, and is seen by the majority of people as an idealist who would not really do the country much good, and thus it is not seen that he would necessarily win this forthcoming election.

It is even seen that he may be in jeopardy of losing his party's place as the official oppositional parliamentary power. This situation at this time is simply the situation that exists.
