COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is prepared to move directly into the first question presented.

THE URGENT BILL DEAGLE REPORT
(Going to Hell in a Hand Cart!)

QUESTION:

The first question concerns the Bill Deagle Report. "An e-mail was received from Avaton concerning an oral report by Bill Deagle that was sent to him. During the course of this report, the following topics were discussed: the financial bailout by the Bush administration. It was noted that other financial bailouts have also taken place in Iceland, Europe, etc. However, Canada's Prime Minister and Finance Minister insist Canada's system is strong."

Another part concerns "a planned nuclear explosion, possible in Los Angeles; then the pestilence/pandemic scenario, lack of food, etc; all of which will result in the loss of number lives. This will begin on Tuesday, October 7, 2008." Does Awareness have any comments concerning Bill Deagle's report? And, is there anything humanity can do at this stage of the game so that such scenarios do not take place? Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is much that this Awareness wishes to comment on. The first comment that this Awareness wishes to make is of the importance of not submitting to the fear and the panic that is associated with comments and reports of this nature, and to also not believe these reports, in the sense that to believe them is to participate in them. This Awareness has spoken of this many times already, and It will continue to speak on this issue at this time for it is so imperative that those who have the awareness and the understanding deviate from the course that has been laid down for them by the powers that be, and they become strong and resilient and aware and alert to the con that is occurring around them.

The Con is the Manipulation of Belief

The con is the manipulation of belief. The con is presenting evidence that appears to support this report and others like it. This Awareness cannot deny that events designed to shake up this planet, to destroy the corrupt systems that are currently in place, will indeed take place. However, this Awareness wishes to state that simply because the planet is going to hell in a hand-cart does not mean that one and all have to sit in the hand-cart as it goes to hell. This Awareness uses this strong image and strong language to impress one and all that there is indeed a choice here.

For too long, many have been party to the reports given over the news services: the papers, the presses, of the negative events of this world. It has created a system of belief in those negative events, has fostered an attitude that the world is a dangerous place and the evidence on the 9 O'clock news every night supports this, but the truth is, that which is supported is that which the powers that be have been putting out for years. They have been constantly experimenting and delivering systems of death and destruction, of manipulation of world events, local events and region events on a massive scale, for years and years and years.

SARS and Creating Fear With Pandemic Viruses

The report for example, mentioned a pandemic that would destroy masses of people. This pandemic has been planned for a such a long time, and the release of various viruses over the last decade have been the process the powers that be have been using to figure out the best delivery system, the best way of manipulating consciousness, the best way of taking this illness, this pandemic virus to the peoples of the world. Several years ago, the virus known as SARS was released on the planet. It originated in China, and within a few short days had migrated to various points on the planet. The country of Canada was one of the target countries, and many in the city of Toronto came down with this illness, and it received great coverage, both nationally and internationally.

In the end, less than 100 people died of this disease in the entire country, and yet it was reported as if it was the next pandemic. It shut down the borders to the United States effectively. It shut down the city of Toronto, and other cities in Canada, when tourists would not come to visit for the fear of being infected by this horrendous virus, or so it was portrayed, and yet the truth is that in a single year, several thousand individuals will die of the common flu virus, and sometimes the vaccinations that are used to protect the very people who are most subject to the virus. This was not reported however, for what was being experimented with, what was being tweaked is how to affect the consciousness of the people to think of a threat in greater terms than it really truly was.

An Experiment in Manipulating Consciousness By Creating Unreasonable and Unquestioning Fear

Much was learned in this experiment of how to introduce a viral agent, the virus in this case known as SARS, how to manipulate mass-consciousness to create unreasonable fear, unquestioning fear, how to close down a city, a nation, a continent. These were all things that were learned when that minor virus SARS was released. Since then there have been other manipulated events of a viral nature, of introducing viruses. The Avian bird flu virus is an interesting example of this; how the mass-presses of the planet have been coordinated to report this virus in such a way that it is seen as a threat of major dimensions, and yet again, only a few humans have been alleged to have died from this virus.

Still, millions upon millions of birds have been destroyed, again, all in preparation for the pandemic virus that is to be released by the powers that be. What was discovered in these examples: the Blue Nile Mosquito virus being yet another experiment of recent times- is that it is easy to fool masses of people and have them believe outright the dangers that they are being told are coming their way, of destroying large amounts of food stock, of quarantining many people, of forcing almost martial law conditions on the people, when the actual threat of the viruses are very very minimal.

This has been part of a social experiment of how to control the mass mind and manipulate it in such a way as to create mass-fear and panic, to remove resistance and questions to the authenticity and accuracy of the reports or of the viruses themselves. It is an experiment in controlling the beliefs of the masses so that they will believe exactly what you want them to believe. The powers that be have learned these lessons well through these social manipulations of mass-consciousness.

Very few would ever stop to ask how serious the problems really were, or whether or not there was a true clear and present danger. The fact that they have been told this danger existed seems to have been enough for most individuals. This Awareness has gone on about this for the fact of the matter is that this is again being done through such reports as the Deagle Report. While the information provided may be from well-meaning individuals, its truest impact is in creating mass-fear and mass-panic, creating a fear situation that is so great that when the powers that be connect these events, many will unquestionably follow the dictates of those authorities as they deal with these events.

Those Who Believe Events Will Occur Will Experience Them

They have already discovered the most effective ways of controlling mass-consciousness, of manipulating the mass-mind, the collective mind. This is one reason this Awareness speaks again on this report. The other is because it must be apparent to one and all that simply speaking these things does not make them truth, but believing that these events will occur will indeed guarantee that the individual who has these beliefs will experience them, will experience the results of these predicted events.

This Awareness is not asking one and all to bury their head into the sand and deny and ignore the events that are unfolding. This Awareness Itself has many times spoken of the events that are ready to unfold and have started to unfold, yet It is still saying to one and all that one and all must be vigilant in simply accepting such reports, in simply believing that this will become the reality. It is part of the plan of the powers that be to destroy 4/5th of the world's population. It is indeed their plan to destroy, through nuclear events, through pestilence and pandemic, through riots and anarchy, through mass-suicide, mass self-destruction, to bring the human population down considerably to a point where those who are left can become the true servants of the Elite, those who would take the planet over and have it all for themselves.

Force-Feeding the Masses With the Belief System of the Elite

While this may be the plan, it does not mean that one and all must subject themselves to this plan. It is as if the belief system of the Elite is being force-fed to the world and to the citizens of the world. There is a certain degree of naivety of those who receive the news, so that they cannot discriminate properly; there is no teaching available to explain how important it is to be wary of the beliefs one holds, especially those negative beliefs of mass-destruction, mass-death, mass-catastrophe. The power of the Creator Being in ignorance is truly awesome, for the Creator Being in ignorance, that Creator Being who does not have awareness, is easily manipulated and controlled by those powers that have the understanding and the awareness of how to control, how to manipulate the mind of each and every Creator Being on this planet.

This is why they have engaged in such experimentation in recent times, including restricting food supplies, claiming shortages in rice and wheat and other commodities, creating again this level of fear and panic, to see how easy it is to control the masses through their fear. They have achieved a great understanding of this, and as it is now their belief, and has been for some time, that eventually a large portion of the world will be cleared away, they are moving forward now in their plans, but what is also moving forward is the Ascension process.

People Are Now Capable of Rising Above These Planned Scenarios of The Powers That Be

What is also moving forward is the capability of individuals to start rising above these planned scenarios, to simply not engage them, not believe in them. What is essential to this is that when one sees the reports that are being given out, when one watches the news at night and sees these events unfolding, or when one watches the news during the daytime and it appears that the current events confirm the negative reports, that one does not simply believe them, that one understands them as manipulations of the truth, with the intent and design to funnel mass-consciousness in a certain direction, a direction that the powers that be have already ordained and planned.

Learn to Live The View From the Eye of the Hurricane

The Ascension process is one of expanding consciousness, and this expanding consciousness must be exercised, it must be used. As one becomes competent at understanding the greater truth and how to live in that greater truth, then there is available to the individual the opportunity to step outside of the shrinking box that the powers that be are creating, to step outside of the belief structure, the reality that they are painting, to understand that a hurricane can be churning all around one, but while one is in the eye of the hurricane, one is not subject to the violence of the churning winds of the hurricane. What must be learned is how to live in the eye of the hurricane and not in the peripheral chaos that surrounds the eye, to hold as more than possible, as totally necessary to understand how to live in chaotic turbulent times, to always be in the center of the hurricane, the eye of the hurricane, to live one's life unaffected by the churning reality that throws itself around the center.

Don't Abdicate Your Right As a Creator Being

It is imperative that those who choose and know they are here to move forward, to Ascend, realize their creative nature. Abdicating this creative nature by accepting that which is reported on the evening news, that is written in the local papers, national papers and magazines as the truth and reality, is an abdication of their right as a Creator Being to experience the reality that they choose, that they create. These times are indeed troubled times. This Awareness is not stating that they are not. This Awareness is simply stating that each and every being on this planet is a Creator being who has the capacity to rise above the troubled times, to see it around them, but to personally not be at the effect of those troubles, trials and tribulations, not to be at the effect of the mass-conning by the powers that be on mass consciousness, a conning that is very deadly in its nature and intent.

If You Can't Rise Above It, Don't Watch the Evening News

This Awareness therefore states that a report such as the Deagle Report, while apparently providing information to enlighten one and all of the impending events, can therefore be seen as a dangerous report if one cannot see through it, or if one cannot rise above it. It is for this reason that that Awareness will make this statement at this time: that if one cannot rise above the evening news, if one cannot rise above the reports of imminent death and destruction on a grand scale on all levels of society, if one cannot rise above the fear and panic of believing that the world is going to hell in a handcart, then it would be better for one not to watch the evening news, not to read the newspapers and magazines, and not to engage in negative discussions or to read negative reports such as the Deagle Report, for this would subject the individual who is not able to rise above or cut through such erroneous reports, and keep them from understanding how they affect the individual, how they affect that person.

If one is unable, due to a sensitive fragile nature, one that is just too subject to taking on board those reports, those beliefs, then as this Awareness says, it would be better that those individuals simply choose not to pay attention to the reports, and go about living their normal everyday life in as steady a manner as possible, in their own creative energies where all is well. This Awareness is aware that It could be accused of presenting a very dangerous way of living one's life. This Awareness suggests that the greater danger is to buy into those reports, those realities that are being manipulated and presented in such a way as being inevitable.

The Creator Being who lives in ignorance is dangerous mostly unto himself/herself/ themselves, and this is why this Awareness suggests that those who are of such a fragile nature who have not harnessed in themselves the capacity to understand the truth behind the lies and the deceptions, are better served by simply living their lives in their own reality. Those who can see through and understand will still have to work at not letting themselves be swayed too much by the negative reports, by the folding of reality into a nice little package that the powers that be choose to present, but it can be done.

Question Those Pandemics, Food Shortages, Acts of Terrorism

Indeed, once this is learned, then every time the news is viewed, the truth of that news is readily apparent to those who have attained the level of awareness of the truth of this planet and how that truth is manipulated, twisted and tied in knots. They can see right through the deception and the con. The events that would be presented as acts of terrorism would immediately be questioned. The pandemics that are being predicted year after year are setting up the mass-mind to accept such an event when it is finally released. The shortage of foods are all controlled and manipulated by the corporations and the governments and the powers that be, and one can simply dispel these reports for the truth and awareness of what they are about is almost self-evident.

How to Handle the Deagle Report and Other "News"

This is what this Awareness would most recommend to one and all: to be able to simply be at no effect when the news is reported, to be able to see through the news reports and the machinations and manipulations of the truth. This is the way to be able to live in this world, completely and totally aware of the reports being presented, and yet not being at the effect of those reports. It is for this reason why this Awareness is against this Deagle Report, not because it is not reporting events that may unfold, but because it is a manipulation of the truth that is designed to take many into a fear mode, a panic mode. It even create situations whereby such a fear state could be created, and certain individuals who are subject to such fear may even consider killing themselves before any of this happens to them. These individuals who live in such fear may also choose to take out their own families rather than see them suffer through such events. This is how dangerous such wild reporting can be to those who have a mind-set that is so subject to the fear and the terror of unfolding events and prophesized events, that the reports themselves can become dangerous.

Yet, is it a mistake to not report? Is it right to shut down those who think that they are serving the public by exposing these plans? No, it is not right. These reports need to come out. It is simple enough. Those who read the reports must be mature and aware of what they are reading, must understand why this information is being released by the powers that be in such a way as to create a negative mind-set where such events are going to happen. To understand that they do not need to happen, one does not need to experience them, is part of the Ascension process.

That is the part that this Awareness recommends one and all move towards, work towards, practices on a daily basis to live in a reality where they create their own understanding, their own reality based on the Light, based on Spirit, based on the inner instruction and guidance that is readily available to one and all. While this Awareness has been talking in the most negative terms, and has been trying to explain why it is so important to be vigilant of one's beliefs, to check them out, to cross-examine them, to always maintain the highest positive possibilities and beliefs. It has not truly spoken of that which is also available at the same time; that being the assistance and guidance of those forces, those levels of multiple dimensional realities, those highly evolved levels of consciousness that are available to those who move forward, who attain awareness and enlightenment, who will become beacons to others who are also searching for such enlightenment.

You Will Have Assistance to Achieve This Goal

It is not only that there is a negative energy out there, but also there is much positive energy. There is much that is of Spirit that is helping to guide many into those higher levels of perception and understanding. Thus it is that there is help and there is assistance. It is not that the individual will have to do it all on their own and be totally vigilant in every act, every thought, to avoid contamination by the negative beliefs. This is imperative and important, but this Awareness wishes to state outright, that there will be assistance to achieve this, and as one moves into a higher understanding of such matters, the assistance will be more and more apparent in all of the acts of synchronicity and magic and miracles that begin to happen in the person's life and in the lives of his or her loved ones.

This is another story. This is a story that this Awareness will continue at another time. It simply wishes at this time to state that great assistance from higher levels of consciousness from within the individual as well as on collective consciousness is also available. There are plans that are already being engaged that will help elevate consciousness to a point beyond the mass manipulations, the fear mongering that is occurring on this planet at this time. This is a message of hope and not despair, that this Awareness will present at a later date.

In fact, this Awareness will end by saying to remember to be hopeful, remember to live as if every day matters, for every day does matter. Every day is a new creation. Every day is a new moment. There are energies afoot that are here now to help make it so. This Awareness is complete with this question.

A Young Man Disappears in Canada

(What Families Need to Know About Crystal Meth)

QUESTION:

The next question concerns an e-mail Vikki had received. The subject is "Urgent prayers and healing needed for missing family member. Vikki writes, "I just got this one from one of our members and am requesting all prayer connections I know of." The message reads, "Urgently, I ask if you all can say prayers and send healing energy. Ask Awareness to send Healing Light energies to help us find my nephew Nicholas H., my sister's son who has gone missing, and all family members. They live at 1066 -----Street, Pickering, Ontario, Canada. Please help Nicholas go home to his mother and my sister."

Is there any comments, healing possibilities or prayers that Awareness could offer this family please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness will first start by sending energies to the individual Nicholas, to help him at this desperate time in his life. Then this Awareness will have some personal information that is to be sent to the family, to Martin. This Awareness is sending the energies to Nicholas at this time. (long pause) The energy has been sent. This Awareness suggests that this is a personal reading at this point, not necessarily a reading for a Cosmic Awareness Communication membership, although there may be pertinent information involved, but that which is of an extreme personal nature be not included in any newsletter.

This Awareness sees that the individual involved chose to leave his family due to drug related issues. It is seen that this individual has been a user of drugs for some time and has escalated into a higher level of drug use. He chose to go to Toronto, Ontario and pursue his drug addiction there to a higher degree. This information may be difficult for the family to receive for they want to believe and understand their son to not be of that nature. They have not seen certain indications of his drug use; or rather have chosen not to recognize certain clues to his drug use including his personality shifts, his changes in character. They have felt there has been some mental dilemma or problem, attributing his problems to this, rather than seeing that the symptoms presenting themselves in this young man are indicative of drug use.

It is not seen that this young man has intentionally tried to hurt or devastate his family. It is seen that he is simply not even thinking about them, as he has become so absorbed in the drug world and his use of drugs, that he is only thinking of himself and his next fix, and the availability for the drugs of his choice are greater in the major city of Toronto than they are in Pickering, which is a small town in which he was standing out in too much. Therefore, he chose to lose himself in the anonymity of a large city. He had certain drug-friends who painted a glorious picture to him of how much easier and better it would be living in Toronto: anonymous and faceless, and close to the large amounts of drugs that are currently available on the streets of Toronto.

While the drugs were available in Pickering, it was and is a small town, and word of his drug purchases might have gotten to his parents and he did not want them to interfere in his new lifestyle. This lifestyle came quickly and while his parents are fearful for their son's welfare, it is with regret that this Awareness needs to say that he is already in the worst situation possible. This situation was already occurring while he was living at home but was not fully recognized. It was known that he was using drugs, but again it was not fully recognized for their young son could not possibly be so badly involved with these drugs. Unfortunately, as this Awareness has said, he was and he is, and it is seen that he is now living on the streets, living in what was traditionally known as a flophouse, a place where he simply can crash while he pursues his drug life.

If the family wishes to find their son, they need to go to Toronto, but it would be very difficult to find him there, for it is a large city and he is on the move. The police do not have any record of him or necessarily any way to find him. Unless he comes in confrontation with the law it is unlikely that the police will send anyone out looking for him, but it is possible that he may be picked up by the police sooner or later because of his erratic behavior. Unfortunately, it is seen that this young man is using crystal meth, as the drug of his choice. He did not think it would affect him as radically as it did, and yet it is such a dangerous drug that it affected him very quickly. He became addicted very quickly, and he was starting to show physical signs of the use of this particular drug, which again is one of the reasons he chose to abandon the family and to run away, to go and pursue a drug life in Toronto.

This Awareness has sent energies to this young man, but It must express that it was difficult to send these energies to him for there is a haze, a dark cloud around him. This Awareness attempted to send him light, and a sense of his family and their great concern for him, but it was difficult to penetrate through this drug haze, this dark cloud. Still, a seed has been planted, and with luck there is a possibility that the family will find this young man or that he will find his way home, for he will find that he is in such a dire situation with no money for his drugs, that he may simply decide to come home and try to find money there.

If this happens, the journey will be a difficult one on the family. It is not seen that this young man is desirous of giving up his drugs. He is not desirous of ending his relationship with crystal meth. While it may be possible, this Awareness unfortunately sees a very hard and difficult road ahead for the family. They must be prepared for this. There may be several months that pass before there is news of their son. Even if he did come home or even if they found him, this is by no means a guarantee that he would choose to come with them or be influenced by them to give up the drugs.

This Awareness simply sees that this is a hard road for all concerned. It asks the family to understand that this young man made a choice to have this experience, and while this is very difficult to understand, for why would one apparently choose such a horrendous life journey experience? Still, it is the prerogative of each and every human on the planet to have the life experience that they have chosen. It was his choice to experience this degree of degradation and loss, not because he wanted to hurt others, but because at a deep level of his being, he knew that such an experience would be useful to his soul in the long run.

These concepts, these words may not be easily received by the family who wish only to find their beloved son again, to save him from himself, to put him back on the path of normality, good health and well being. With love, dedication and that which this Awareness would call "tough love", they will not abandon the son, and they will continue to fight until he realizes in himself, a new way, where he realizes that his dependency on drugs will not save him, but love and his family support may do that.

This Awareness suggests that the road ahead, while it may be difficult, while it may be hard, while it may be long, is not a road without hope at the end. This Awareness is complete with this question.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) Our prayers are with the boy and his family.

Why Drug Addiction is a Choice of So Many

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness now adds as an aside, not to the question itself or the family, but as a statement to the readers, that drug addiction is a choice of many in these times, a choice that allows individuals to escape from the oppressive reality that many find themselves in, from the fear and anxiety and terror that many find themselves in. Many wish to escape. There are many ways to escape and drug addiction is but one of many ways. Alcoholism is another, working to the point that one becomes a workaholic. Extreme addiction to sports or to hobbies or other things that take one's attention away are also ways of escaping, although addiction to sports or to a hobby is far less destructive than such things as alcoholism or drug addiction.

The point this Awareness is making is that there are many lost souls who will use destructive ways to escape the corruption of the planet at this time. This Awareness cannot follow each and every lost soul. It is always available to help in any way It can, but there are millions upon millions who will walk such dangerous paths in the years to come. There are already millions out there who walk such destructive paths. This is simply part of the way that the powers that be have designed it so that many are without hope. Many turn to substance abuse or excessive behaviors to take themselves out of the corrupted energies: the tensions, the anxieties and the fears that mark this world.

This Awareness is complete.

Alex Collier and the Andromedans

(Has He Been Telling the Truth?)

QUESTION:

We have a question from Iris Schuberth, of Junction City, Kansas. Her question concerns Alex Collier and the Andromedans. Her question: "Is Alex Collier speaking the truth about the Andromedans? Would Awareness please offer comments regarding this man and his connection with these beings?" Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

In regards to the first part of the question, "Is this man speaking the truth about the Andromedans?" this Awareness would say that in his consciousness, in his interpretation of the truth, he is speaking the truth that he has been presented. Saying this, this Awareness also states that this individual is being manipulated somewhat. Not all that which is reported is the truth, even if the individual himself believes it to be so. This individual is relatively sincere in the reports that he presents, in the truth that he presents, but he is also being used as a means of disinformation.

Alex Collier Being Used as a Means of Disinformation

Not all that he reports is absolutely the truth, or absolutely accurate. To read the reports and the information that is provided by this individual, one must always question and be aware that it may not be the full truth, the complete truth, the whole truth. This Awareness is complete with the first part of the question and asks that the second part be repeated.

Was Collier on an Andromedan SpaceShip For Three Years, Etc.?

QUESTION:

It concerns his connections with the Andromedans. He mentions he was on their ship for several years, three years I believe it was, and he had been seen attending a UFO conference in Hawaii 2 months ago. Is there any other additional information concerning him?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that he is again, telling the complete truth in this matter. It is seen that he was presented information, that he was implanted with the memory of a 3-year journey, but it is not seen that he actually took a 3-year journey. It is not seen that he is entirely accurate in the descriptions he has given of the Andromedans and their race and their crafts and their culture. It is to some degree attention-seeking behavior on his part, to gain an audience, to present them with the fantastic, in this case, a personal journey as the guest of the Andromedans.

This individual does have some character flaws, some deviance in his psyche that is useable by those who would present such information to mislead and misguide, to dis-inform. "They" being individuals who are trying to discredit the whole extraterrestrial movement and those who would believe in it. Thus it is seen that with the personality disorders this individual actually suffers from, that he was gullible to those manipulations of his psyche that presented him as the chosen one, whom the Andromedans chose to take with them on their space voyage and to present to him certain information that would qualify him as superior or special in some way, and would gain attention for him in some way.

Many wish to truly believe that which he has reported, and told of, for the stories are so wonderful, so fantastic, so incredible, that those who would wish to simply believe these stories can do so quite easily. While this Awareness does support certain elements that the entity reports of the Andromedans, of their culture and ways, there are other elements that he has reported on that this Awareness cannot support. It asks one and all who would read this individual's reports of his travels with the Andromedans to always question and to always hold at arm's length that which is stated, to look at it closely and thoroughly, to accept if one can, that which one feels from within as accurate, but not to accept all as totally truthful.

Beware! The CIA Has Infiltrated Many UFO Channelers

This is so with many reports from many individuals who claim to have had these experiences, who claim to channel this being or that entity. Many of them are individuals who have a twist in their character, a twist that is seeking attention, a twist that is of extreme nature, extreme gullibility, and would draw attention to them, for they do often seek attention. This is how the agencies such as CIA infiltrate the sub-culture; infiltrate the alternative culture of individuals who do not totally believe that which is given to them in the news reports and the press reports. These individuals are on the whole seekers who are seeking to know the higher truth, who are open to higher realities than those reported on the 9 o'clock news.

Many of these individuals are undiscerning, many are gullible, many would simply believe that which is given to them, for it sounds right or sounds good or supports some fantasy that is better than the reality that they live in every day. It is a curious region indeed, to know that such fantastical events and beings and entities and possibilities and realities do exist, and yet to hold discernment, to be strong and question, and not be willing to simply be led by the nose, so that one does not fall prey to those very agents who would mislead and misguide those who have the vision, those who have the sight, those who have the capacity to raise their awareness.

This is a serious matter indeed, and this Awareness does invite further questions on this matter, on this issue.

Skin Color, Life Span & School in Andromeda

QUESTIONER:

One question that comes to mind, are the Andromedans part of the Galactic Federation?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed seen that the Andromedans are part of the eleven planets that host human life, and of course planet earth is the 12th planet.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) In his commentary, on Utube.com, the information that he gave was that the Andromedans were a blue-skinned type of people, humanoid type of people. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is correct.

QUESTIONER:

And that they lived for a very long time, and many of those years, 150 years perhaps, the children go to school.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Their understanding of schooling is much different than the understanding held on this planet. For them, schooling is not schooling in a rigid regimented way as it is often so on this planet. For them, schooling is education. It is learning. It is an expansion of their awareness, and it is a joyful event. It is one that gives them meaning and purpose. It is not seen as a drudgery. It is not seen as an entrapment. It is not seen as something that must be endured until one can get out of the school system. It is so different that it cannot be conceived or understood in the human term of 'schooling.'

It is more a thirst for knowledge, a drive to educate themselves in all ways, shapes and forms possible to them. It also includes emotional training as well as the development of psychic abilities and spiritual awareness. Thus it is a system that is supportive in the whole of one's lifetime as Andromedans. They see their whole life as an educational learning process, not simply as a schooling system or a system of long-term school.

Many humans would be abhorrent at the thought of going to school for 100 or 200 years. Twelve years is more than enough for most humans.

QUESTIONER:

That's true, but then you have the career student and for those who are able to do that it can be very envious.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Those who would be career students are those who are of an Andromedan type mentality. For them, education, and learning and growing is of extreme importance, more than working for a living. For them, studying for a living, research and education are their livings, and it is so of Andromedans too.

Humans Are a Composite From 22 Planets

(Star Beings Are Among Us Waiting to Awaken)

QUESTIONER:

It was also mentioned that the human being is a composite of 22 various beings from various constellations or planets, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed true. There are many humans who have life on this planet at this time who are indeed from other star systems of the Galactic Federation. There are those who would be known and called Terrans, souls who have started their soul evolutionary process on that planet Terra or earth. These beings who have started their journey here are often those that are referred to as 'young souls', souls who have an evolutionary process yet ahead of them.

There are many Star Beings who have chosen incarnation on this planet at this time, especially to help the Ascension process, to help that journey through difficult times that humanity is engaged in. These beings from the different layers and levels of consciousness as well as from the various star systems, such as the Pleiades, such as Arcturius, such as Sirius, or Venusian, or other systems are here at this critical time, choosing to be born in physical form so that they would have the right to participate in the events of humanity, for once born in physical form, many are indeed human, even if their soul origin is from a different star system.

"First Contact" a Signal to Awaken the Star Beings

It gives those humans with their origins from other star systems the full right to participate in human events. It was the way that was chosen by the Galactic Federation to implant and embed their agents, so that when the time was right for these sleeper agents to be awoken, that this could indeed occur. This Awareness has recently spoken of this in relation to that which is to be the First Contact. October 14th was a date that was postulated as the day of First Contact when the Galactic Federation would show itself. In effect, this Awareness would say that First Contact was not in the showing of the vessel, but rather when the vessel arrived it would be a signal to awaken the cellular memory of those Star Beings who are on the planet at this time.

The First Contact will be with themselves and their true nature. It will then be remembered by many why they chose to incarnate on this planet at this time. They will understand the roles that they are meant to fill. It has been spoken many times that individuals are asleep to their true nature. One way they are asleep is by being asleep to their Star Being nature, that they are Star Beings. The switching on of the cellular memory will allow many to awaken to their true nature, to their true purpose. It is for this reason that the comment is correct; that there are many variations on this planet at this time that compose human consciousness, the human collective.

Other Subjects Alex Collier Mentions

QUESTION:

(Thank you) He mentioned Sirius A and Sirius B. I realize one is friendly, and the other is not? What happened? Or should that be for another time? What happened to make them split? was basically the question. This question is from Alex Collier, and he mentioned that Sirius B was unfriendly to humans.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

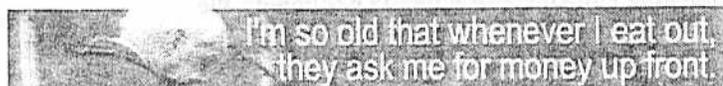

This Awareness does not see that as being the case. This Awareness would state that this is a piece of disinformation that this individual has brought out at this time. The purpose of this bit of disinformation is to cause a fracture in the minds of individuals who know of the Sirians, a fracture that would oppose one against the other, thus nullifying their importance on some levels, by introducing that one of them could be corrupted. It is simply not seen that Sirian B types are a corruption of any sort whatsoever. This is seen as misinformation.

The Four Races that Comprise Humanity

(Not All Came From Lyra)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) He also mentioned that all humanity, or all species came from Lyra. Is that correct?

I'm so old that whenever I eat out, they ask me for money up front.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This also is not entirely correct. Many have indeed come from that system of Lyra, but there are those who have originated now on this planet, having used genetic stock from the Lyrans. There were however, others who came from other systems in the Galactic Empire including Orion stock. It is simply seen that a majority of humans came from that planet Lyra. It is seen that of the four races that compose mankind, it is mostly the white race that are from the planet Lyra. The yellow race, the red race, and the black race have other origins.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) I believe you have discussed this already, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so.

An Update on October 14th

QUESTION:

That's all of the questions I have right now on this topic, and I'm wondering if there is an update on the sighting of the vessel for October 14th?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

By the time the information is printed, it will already be known whether or not the First Contact did indeed occur on the 14th of October, an event but a week away. It is simple enough. One of the major reasons for the event in the first place was to announce the possibility of First Contact, an event that has taken fire in the minds of millions and millions of individuals because of that information being communicated by the Internet. This has opened up a new level of the invitation to the Galactic Federation to appear to humanity at this time.

The event itself is still seen at this point, but a week away, as one that is not guaranteed at this time. There has been a struggle between the Galactic Federation and the Orion Empire to prevent this from occurring. There has also been held as ransom humanity itself against this event occurring. It still is not seen, it is felt that this event is now being held off for the purpose of distracting the attention so that if it were to occur, it is as if it will appear suddenly. By this, this Awareness is saying that there is not sufficient energy at this time to guarantee that the event will occur as it has been predicted, as so many hope it will, but that the energies that have been put forward on this matter are indeed positive and powerful and will lead to the eventual First Appearance and First Contact of the Galactic Federation, that which the entity in Colorado has called the Federation of Light.

This Awareness wishes to make a comment at this point, of a further statement that the Interpreter was told of recently, that was also stated by the entity in Colorado, that after the First Appearance, that the Galactic Federation would not reappear for a long time. This Awareness sees this as erroneous. Once the First Appearance occurs, the First Contact occurs, that more and more sightings, more and more major validations of the Galactic Federation will occur, with an actual First Contact occurring within several months of the initial appearance of the Mother Craft.

It is not seen that these individuals will simply then disappear, for it is senseless for this to occur. What would be the point of appearing in the first place if they are to retreat for several years afterwards? This would be too frustrating for those many who are desperately waiting for First Contact, and it would not benefit the planet, for major parts of the hope of this planet are indeed connected to the Galactic Federation and to their interaction on the human plane with humanity.

QUESTIONER:

Agreed, totally. There are many looking forward to the October 14 date. I do hope it will be around that time or shortly before or after.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is still seen that the plan is to appear on the 14th but there are oppositional energies against this occurring. These oppositional energies seem at this moment to have the upper hand in preventing this occurring, however it is felt by this Awareness almost as if the Galactic Federation is choosing to appear as if they are being driven away, that their planned appearance cannot occur at that time, so that they can be free to appear either at that moment or sometime shortly thereafter. It is simply part of the strategies that are being played out on other levels than on that which is the conscious level, that which is apparent, even to this Awareness at this time.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you very much for that information. Is there a closing message please?

A Closing Message of Hope

(Miracles Are Soon to Be the Norm!)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The closing message that this Awareness wishes to present at this time after such negative information has been presented in the earlier part of this session tonight, is that these are indeed also hopeful times, times of great wonder and great excitement and great magic. These are miraculous times, where miracles will begin to be the norm, and those who have expanded their consciousness and their awareness will see this to be so. Indeed, many are already experiencing the miracles that are unfolding, that are presenting themselves on even a daily basis.

This will continue to expand to the human populace and many will begin to understand reality in a different way than the way that the powers that be have presented it for thousands of years. This may not occur overnight, but this is a process that is well underway. This Awareness spoke of a hopeful message and It would like to conclude tonight on a hopeful note. There are indeed many layers and levels of the multidimensional universe that have earth in their sights, that are coming to assist in this process of Ascension and evolution, that are cooperating to expand consciousness in an exponential manner and not a linear manner.

Enlightenment to Occur Within a Very Short Period

This Awareness is saying that the rapid growth will be such that it will not take 20, 30 or 40 years to reach enlightenment, but it can occur within a very short period of time for many many people. At first, maybe a few years for some, but accelerating to a point where many will reach expanded awareness and consciousness within a few months for the shift will already have taken place, and consciousness can expand exponentially because that is how it is also planned. Therefore, entities are not to simply look at the dark side of everything at this time, but to be aware that the Light is growing daily, and even nightly, and with each passing day, more and more are achieving a conscious awareness and understanding that will help reach that which this Awareness has explained before as the Hundredth Monkey level.

The 100th Monkey Level is Approaching
(Angry Americans at the Bail-outs is a Good Sign)

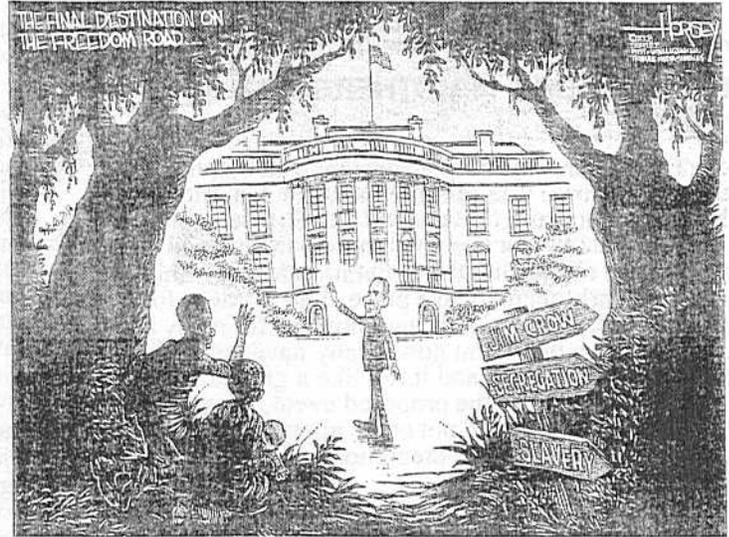

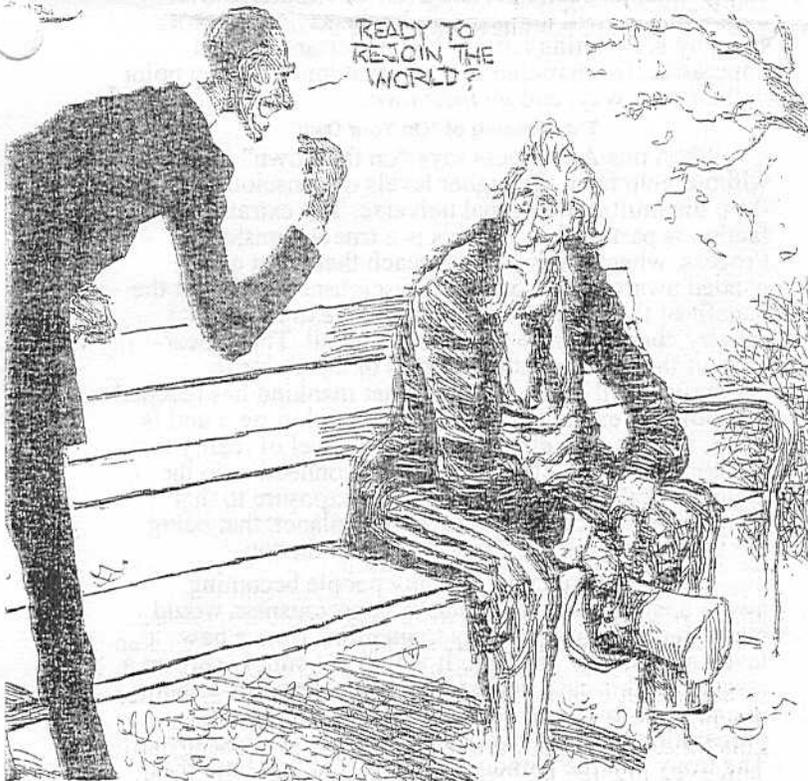

When the hundredth or the millionth or the billionth human being reaches conscious awareness, that consciousness will rapidly disseminate amongst the masses also. Thus it is that the powers that be do not even understand the danger that they are in of losing control, of not being able to manipulate human consciousness in the way they have been used to doing for so many thousands of years. Indeed, even the response of many to the bail-out of the financial institutes and banks is indicative of how many Americans are not buying into the plan that has been offered to them, the con that has been offered to them, and many are angry, many object to this bail-out plan because they no longer buy into that which is presented to them as the only way of saving the system.

They see now that the system is totally and truly corrupted and that band-aid service will not change a thing. It will only perpetuate the problem. Many are now screaming for other solutions because they are unwilling to go along with the common line any longer. This will expand in all areas, in many many ways, and this expansion will help that expansion in consciousness that will move humanity forward. Therefore, there is great hope, there is great Light in the times to come, and it is this that this Awareness would ask one and alls to focus on, to concentrate on and to believe in. This is what will lead mankind/womankind forward. This is the great hope that is evolving and that is opening at this time.

This Awareness leaves one and all with this message of hope. This Awareness is complete.

THE OCTOBER 14 MOTHERSHIP NON-EVENT

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does indeed have an opening message at this time. The opening message is in regard to the event that was to have taken place yesterday, October the 14th. As it is now known, the alleged appearance of the Galactic Federation Mother Ship did not apparently seem to take place. This is cause for many people of a great disappointment, for many are truly awaiting this event now. Many have awaited this event for a long time, and it felt like a great disappointment, that yet again, the proposed event, the appearance of this Mother Ship did not come about, as has so often been the case with other predictions of events occurring at a certain time.

This Awareness would state however, that there has never been before an actual target date given for an actual First Contact event. This was the first time an actual date was given. There have been other prophesized events such as the impeachment of George Bush and crew, his imminent resignation on certain dates that had been given in the past, only to see those events not occur. He and his crew remained in power, carrying on their nefarious activities, but this was the first time an actual concrete date was given for an actual First Contact.

The Galactic Federation's Battle With the Orion Empire

This Awareness had already picked up beforehand that there were struggles in actualizing this event. There was a battle that was raging between that which is the Galactic Federation and that which is the Orion Empire, and in the end it was deemed by the Galactic Federation that it was not in the highest nature to manifest the appearance of the Mother Ship on this date. The plan does still exist, for an appearance in the foreseeable future, but the energies around the event occurring yesterday were not strong enough to support this event. What was achieved however, was of significance nonetheless. For the first time ever, millions and millions of individuals were of clear mind that such an event could take place.

This is not in reference only to that which has often been referred to as the "lunatic fringe", but even individuals who have never before heard of such things, who were informed by various individuals, that this event was being predicted, and they looked to the skies to see if indeed such an event would take place. From this point of view, there was a shift in consciousness away from that which has been the norm and the tradition of years preceding, that such a thing was still in the realm of science fiction and fantasy, to a point where many now believe that this is an inevitable occurrence that is destined to take place sooner or later.

A Significant Event Did Take Place

Many of course hoped it would be sooner, and it would have happened yesterday, but this does not mean that a significant event did not take place. The significant event, as this Awareness has just spoken, as being that for the first time ever, millions and millions had it in their mind, and now have it in their mind, that a First Contact will take place. This Awareness would also speak to the disappointment felt by so many, for it is seen that the appearance of an alien vessel would finally prove to the world that what has been denied for so long, that which has been covered up for long, has a basis in fact. The truth is these beings do exist.

The extraterrestrial faction is a reality. Given this evidence, there would be a possibility to dispute many other allegations put forward by those controlling factions of society, those who would manipulate, those who would dictate what reality truly is. So much would open up if the extraterrestrial presence manifested itself, and was truly visible for all to see. Maybe, just maybe then, the many other lies and cover-ups that have dominated for so long could also be exposed and also be questioned, and could also prove to be a hoax and invalid.

Ask Yourself Why You Are Waiting for the Event?

The great disappointment is that by not appearing in the skies, this could not occur. Those powers that be, the Shadow Government, the Illuminati, the Elites, are yet again left unexposed. They are still in that position of power and control, and reality is still defined by the reality imposed upon one and all by these controlling forces. The disappointment that has been felt by the many who awaited the First Appearance is indeed tangible to this Awareness. It suggests that one and all who awaited this event look deeply within themselves now and ask themselves why it is that they themselves are awaiting this event.

What would such an event truly represent to them? Many would see this as a turning point where consciousness could finally be freed up to move in new directions of thought and awareness, and while this indeed would be so to a degree, this Awareness would still suggest that first and foremost one must find this turning point within themselves and must understand that an alien appearance, and even an extraterrestrial First Contact, will not prove to be the saving grace that so many are waiting for, for it is important, indeed imperative, for mankind to reach that inner turning point in their own way, and on their own.

The Meaning of "On Your Own"

When this Awareness says "on their own" it is not without help from the higher levels of consciousness, from the multidimensional universe. The extraterrestrial faction is part of that, but this is a true Ascension Process, where many have to reach that point of expanded awareness/expanded consciousness, without the benefit of the cavalry, in this case the extraterrestrial cavalry charging in to rescue one and all. The appearance of the extraterrestrial beings of the Galactic Federation will indeed indicate that mankind has reached that point of expanded awareness/consciousness and is ready for this new element, this new level of reality that would then come into play with the connection to the Galactic Federation, and then, even exposure to that which is now more in charge on this planet, that being the Orion Empire: the Orion/Reptilian faction.

The significance of so many people becoming aware and reaching this point of consciousness would mean that mankind is ready to manifest from a new level, a new state of being. It would not simply rely on a rescuer, in this case the extraterrestrial rescuers to come in and do it for them, but rather would indicate the preparation of many to do it themselves, on their own. The irony and the paradox is that it is at that time that the Galactic Federation would be able to appear because much of the work and the preparation for this event would be complete. It would be an indicator that mankind generally is ready for the new card to be played, for the new level of reality to be experienced.

The Secondary Event That Occurred Yesterday

There was also an event that took place yesterday that needs to be looked at also. This is an event that was not tangible, not observable, was not concrete such as an extraterrestrial Mother Ship appearing in the skies, but was an event that touched many at a very deep level. Many, in their striving for the viewing of the Mother Ship had prepared themselves at a level of their own consciousness that allowed them to be activated. It was a very powerful day in consciousness and in the expansion of consciousness. Many have become aware of new facets of themselves, a new understanding of their own inner processes, their own inner realities.

This Awareness spoke of this before the event occurred. This was what this Awareness spoke of as the true First Contact. Many experienced such a First Contact. Many have a new level of awareness now, and this will work well towards an actual tangible experience in the skies of extraterrestrial vessels, especially those vessels of Galactic Federation origin. This Awareness would ask many now to go through the disappointment of not actually seeing a vessel appear on the date given, to a point of the inner realization that they have within themselves a new awareness, a new level of consciousness, and they recognize that they have begun the process of opening to that higher level of awareness, higher level of consciousness that will be required for the Ascension Process to occur.

They will have reached a new level of awareness and consciousness that will allow in the foreseeable future, the true First Appearance of a Federation Mother Ship. This Awareness indicates that this is an event that is still planned, especially if it is deemed that more are ready for this event than was the case, even at such a short time ago as yesterday. The disappointment that so many have felt, the frustration with this event not happening, needs to be put behind, and the realization that there were many factors that contributed to this event occurring or not occurring.

A Quantum Point Was Reached Yesterday

In this case, it did not occur in the physical but still, contact was made on the inner plane. Many had dreams, many had meditations, and many had unique and wonderful personal experiences of an extraterrestrial nature. This will continue to expand now. A ball has been set in motion that is rolling down the hill, and it is gaining momentum. A quantum point was reached yesterday that will make it possible for the actual appearance now that had been promised yesterday. The responsibility is now squarely on the shoulders of all those who would have wished for the appearance of the vessel, to understand that they are very much part of the process, and that they still give their support, they still believe and know that this event will still unfold in the not too distant future.

This Awareness is complete with Its opening message.

Sending Energy to Mother Earth

(Does It Go To Planet A or Planet B?)

QUESTION:

Our questions concern Planet A and Planet B. The first one is from Kathy K. She asks, "When we send energy to Mother Earth each day at 11:11, does it go to Planet A, Planet B, or both?" Your comment

please? COSMIC AWARENESS:

Neither, however this Awareness will qualify. What this Awareness sees and what this Awareness suggests, is that act of sending energy is indeed received on a higher level and prepares one, that individual who is sending this energy, to partake of the reality of the ascended planet that is being visualized, being thought of, to which the energy is being projected. When this Awareness says "Neither", It does not mean that there is no effect in the sending of this energy, but that it must be understood that it is providing the individual who is sending that energy access to the expansion in consciousness surrounding that which would be Planet A.

In effect, it is as if one is allowing this energy to take the individual to this destination, this destiny. Planet B is following a different course of energization that is not acted upon when the energies are sent, as the individual has mentioned, thus it is not affected by the energization process. It is imperative to understand that when one puts forth such energy that they are affecting their own reality and the choice of energizing Planet A while not actually energizing Planet A, is providing an expansion of consciousness that allows for a Planet A, and that they will then be drawn to the experiencing of Planet A.

This Awareness is complete, but welcomes further questions.

MORE ON PLANET A AND PLANET B

(Is Humanity Affected by These Upcoming Events?)

QUESTION:

Thank you) I was wondering, Planet A and Planet B: what about the people or humanity or others within the planet? Are they affected at all by the upcoming events?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Most definitely they are. With the upcoming events there are two directions to be traveled. One is that which is created through the fear, and through the anxiety and stress of a planet falling apart, of systems collapsing. The energy around this will trap many souls, for they will not know how to rise above such a fearful state. They will believe completely and totally the realities being painted for them by those who have a controlling interest and a vested interest in creating such realities. This is one direction, and there are variations on this theme.

The other direction is a direction this Awareness has spoken of often in recent times, that being the creation of the eye in the hurricane, the bubble of protection around an individual primarily effected by the individual's belief that all will be well. This is not based on ignorance. This is not based on the sticking of the head into the sand: the ostrich principle. Rather, this is a clear understanding that as one focuses their attention and energy, there goes the individual; there goes the attention and focus creating that reality for the individual.

Always Focus on the Positive and It Will Happen

If one in ignorance remains in a state of oblivion and remains in that fearful anxious disbelieving state that all will be well, then that focus of attention will take the individual in that direction. If in awareness, one understands that it is imperative to focus one's attention on the positive, with an understanding that all will be well and guidance will be provided, energy will be provided to help one through those situations of difficulty, then one will amazingly find that their situations always are tolerable, are always working out for them.

Even with chaos all around, somehow they are not touched by the chaos to the same degree. This is a way of understanding that the beliefs held will indeed create the reality experience. This is why this Awareness speaks always of maintaining the bubble, of understanding that while the forces of chaos swirl desperately around the bubble, that one, by remaining inside the bubble will be safe and sound.

This is the answer for this question at this time.

What Percent of People Will Ascend?

(An Exponential Expansion is Occurring)

QUESTION:

Thank you, that explains a lot. The next question is also from Kathy, in Silver Springs, Maryland. She asks, "Is the Ascension far enough along to tell about what percentage of people will ascend?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The problem with this question is that it is quantitative in its answer in a linear respect that suggests that there is a progress along that linear line that can be traced, and marked. Thus, the answer would need to be along the line that 30, or 40, or 50% have reached that place of heightened consciousness, where Ascension can occur. Unfortunately it is not that simple. In effect, what is occurring is exponential expansion. A larger amount are now much more aware of the process, much more aware of what is occurring on this planet. From that point, if comparison were made, to where humankind was 20 years ago, then this Awareness would say approximately 30 to 35% are now aware to a degree that places them in the Ascension mode, versus the 20% that were so aware twenty years ago.

It Is Not a Matter of Numbers

However, it is not a linear progression, but rather exponential. There are certain events that are still slated to occur in the next months and years that will explode those amounts of individuals who have conscious understanding and awareness to a much higher degree of the populace and in the end, 50 to 70% of those ready to expand and Ascend will have reached a point of conscious awareness that will enable the process to happen. In the end it is not a matter of numbers so much as those who have reached a point of higher consciousness, a quantum level of consciousness that will facilitate the Ascension Process, and those who have reached it will simply Ascend. Thus, it is not of significance to say that 30%, 50%, 100% have reached Ascension levels.

All that is really important is to know that those who have reached Ascension levels of consciousness will Ascend, and that one focus upon themselves and those around them that they can relate to and share with in moving this process forward. When this is achieved, then those who are ready to Ascend will ascend, whether it is the 20%, the 40%, the 60% of the population of the planet. This Awareness is complete.

Will Illness Disappear Upon Ascension?

(Can an 87 Year Old Choose to Become 40?)

QUESTION:

Thank you. That makes sense. Another one from Vera; she writes, "If people who are ill will also be ascending, will their ailments disappear upon Ascension, since it has been stated, "bodies will become lighter and younger"? If their afflictions will disappear, does it mean that doctors and dentists will not be necessary? Or will they be required if it is that the ailments will be taken into Earth A with the Light Body until they are somehow healed? Or must the Ascended be healthy? If the body becomes younger, can one choose their age, and if they can, would this not automatically erase existing afflictions? Could an 87-year old person choose to become 40 again? Or must that person remain 85 and continue to become older in the Light Body? Regarding children, would there be an exception in that they will mature with time as is presently the case, or is it that children will not be ascending since they cannot make such a decision?" You comments please.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Before this Awareness begins, this Awareness needs clarification of who it is that is asking this question. Is this Kathy K., or Vera K.?

QUESTIONER:

Vera K.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Thank you. This is an interesting area, and one that needs to be better understood. In some ways, most of the question was the projection of the existing state of physical reality into that which is an Ascended state of consciousness. This is actually an erroneous assumption. In point of fact, as one prepares for Ascension, as one's consciousness expands to a point of fuller comprehension and understanding of the true nature of one's multidimensional being, that a point will be reached where "health" must be reviewed and understood, "health and wellness."

Thus, it is not seen that ailments will be transferred to the other side. The Ascension process will not be one for those who have physical or mental ailments to take with them to be worked on, on the other side of consciousness, but rather that as the expansion of consciousness occurs on this side of conscious awareness in the physical dimension, that at a point, a decision will be reached where those ailments will simply be dropped. The Light Body that the entity spoke of will be exactly that: a Body of Light, a Body of Higher Consciousness, one that will not have the experience of the physical dilemmas, ailments, illnesses and diseases known on the physical plane of existence.

To Ascend One Must Overcome the Belief System

While the Ascension Planet will be a blending of physical and higher dimensional reality, the choice of illness versus non-illness will no longer be relevant. These matters will be worked with and worked out before the Ascension Process. In effect, for one to Ascend, they must have overcome the belief system that dictates the experiencing of illness in the first place. This is not to say that an individual who is ill or disabled will be denied access to that which this Awareness has called Planet A. This is not what this Awareness is speaking of.

This Awareness is saying that as the consciousness progresses before the actual Ascension Process, it will reach such a heightened state of awareness that many will be able to see through their physical ailments and problems and choose to walk beyond them, choose to release them, choose to let them go. Others may indeed die in a physical sense only to be reborn in their Light Bodies, in that state of consciousness that defines the Ascension State of awareness, of consciousness. Thus it is seen that there will be no carrying over of physical illness or disease or ailments to that level of expanded consciousness that will mark the Ascension Planet A.

The answers will be found, the healing will be received, and the situations will be altered before Ascension occurs. This Awareness is complete with the answer.

QUESTION:

With regard to her question about an 85-year old person choosing to become 40 again, or must the person remain 85 and continue to become older in the Light Body?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This again is an extension of the principles of 3rd dimensional reality. This Awareness would state that most individuals, when they close their eyes, do not feel themselves as 85-year olds, or 60-year olds, or 30-year olds, but feel themselves much younger often. Thus it is that when the process of Ascension occurs, it would be as if one closes their eyes and simply allows that level of consciousness to appear that would dictate the actual age they choose to be. If there was a need for an individual to stay at a level of an 85-year old on the other side, this would not make sense, for this level of consciousness is beyond physical consciousness and has no need to be shackled by physical infirmity or physical age.

The Consciousness is Ageless

The consciousness is ageless. The individual will experience this and will not see themselves as an 85-year old who has now to still age in that place of expanded consciousness. It would be a contradiction in terms, so to speak. That 85-year old is ageless, and thus, it is from an ageless point of view that consciousness would experience itself on that which is the Ascension side of things. This Awareness is complete.

Do People on Planet A Experience Death?

QUESTION:

One additional question on this: When, say an 85-year old chooses to see themselves as an 85-year old, would they experience the final years and in particular death, or do people and beings on Planet A not experience that which we know as death?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

If an individual chose to have an experience where they saw themselves as an 85-year old, even on that level of consciousness that will mark Ascension, then they are perfectly free to have such an experience, until they wake up to the illusion once again that it is but that, an illusion. This is what even occurs at this time in the 3rd dimension, that when the individual dies to the physical reality, to their 3rd dimensional bodies, they wake up in that heightened level of consciousness where they can see that the body and physicality was but an illusion.

It may take some longer than others to wake up to this understanding, but once done, they are once again free to experience their ageless nature. Thus it simply makes no sense to think that one must continue to have the same physical experience that one is having on this side of the Ascension process when one crosses over. This is seen by this Awareness as a resistance to that understanding of the concept of expanded consciousness, expanded awareness. It is simply seeing things from a 3rd dimensional reality without the expansion of awareness or understanding of how it might look or feel on the other side.

In some ways it is very difficult to project such thinking into a free state, where such existing conditions simply do not have to be experienced as they are being experienced in physical reality.

Will Children Be Able To Grow Up?

QUESTION:

(Thank you, that explains her question). The other part of her question regarding children: Would there be any exceptions, as they will not mature with time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness again speaks to the fact that all are ageless. Time is illusionary. The child this entity speaks of may be an old soul, is definitely eternal in its beings, thus when the experience is granted of release from 3rd dimensional reality, whether it is through the death process in physical terms, or through the Ascension process as is coming forward, there is no need to go with the concept that one is stuck in an age, must experience that age. One will be free. All will be free to step back into their ageless consciousness. They will be free of that time-frame reference that many see life in at this time. Thus, children will not be affected in a way that captures them at an immature level, for they are ageless souls in the first place, and will step back into this consciousness when this Ascension Process occurs. It is so at this time of physical death. It will be also so with the Ascension process.

Is "Unconditional Love" Really a Requirement to Make it to Planet A?

(Are Those Without It Stuck on Planet B?)

QUESTION:

(Thank you very much) Another question from Vera: She writes, "Ascension is said to be available to everyone if they desire it, but what if a person wishes to ascend and because of being a stuck creature of habit, is unable to exercise unconditional love? Another way to phrase this question is: "Will everyone desiring to ascend, positively be required to exercise unconditional love or will this lack be a deterrent and whether they like it or not, will have to remain on Earth B? They are not bad people; they simply cannot change, and have an open loving heart toward everyone. Some people are very open, while others are so-called "reserved" or overly sensitive to what they consider negative behavior from others that is not easy to tolerate.

Some people are shy, others depressed and unable to express themselves openly in a positive way. For example, it is difficult, if not impossible, for some entities to love the Illuminati who have harmed so many people for long. I have asked a question about unconditional love previously by the word "intent" was not correct. My apologies for not making myself clear. I personally see anyone capable of exercising unconditional love as a saint because with such a feeling and attitude they can do no wrong. They will reflect love, tolerance, forgiveness etc., toward everyone, which is an incredible achievement. Such high spiritual vibrations would automatically match and qualify an entity for Earth A. Under "stuck" circumstances, is it a reliable determination to assume that if they cannot change to reflect unconditional love, that they will remain on Earth B whether they like it or not, as unfortunate as that will be." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There are many levels to this question. It appears that one of those levels that this Awareness would like to talk on at this moment is that of unconditional love being the qualification to receive the ticket to go to Planet A. Unconditional love is not a state that everyone achieves full-time, all the time, 24-7, but rather something that is worked towards, so that as one works towards it and has greater and greater experiences of the state of unconditional love, of being able to give and receive unconditional love, that there is a stronger affinity to this practice, to this state of being.

Jesus Christ Didn't Always Express Unconditional Love

This Awareness wishes to remind all that the entity known as Jesus Christ did not always exhibit unconditional love, and yet many would state that he was a saint. Indeed, he was the Messiah, the Chosen One, that being who was thought to be of the Highest Consciousness, yet there were stories of his anger and his rage in the temple complex where he drove the moneylenders out of this sacred area. Was he exhibiting unconditional love when he did so? One would be very clear in stating he did not, for had he, he would simply have allowed all to remain where they were.

He showed anger towards the disciples on various occasions. For example, the reactions to Mary Magdalene irritated him and irked him, yet again, he is considered to be one of the Highest Consciousness. Finally, on the cross itself, he found that place of doubt and insecurity where he even questioned his own Father about: "Father! Why have you forsaken me?" Would this be an example of unconditional love at a very crucial and critical moment? It would not be.

For true understanding of what this Awareness is talking about It suggests that one understand that unconditional love is also that state of acceptance that one may not always have unconditional love. There will be moments in physical form, physical reality, where there is a provocation of anger, irritation, irritability. In unconditional love, one would accept oneself even in those moments when one is not perfect. The suggestion by the entity Vera K. is that one must be perfect in their exhibiting of unconditional love, and this Awareness states that this is not so. This is a process.

As the individual moves forward in their understanding and awareness, and in their achievement of higher consciousness, this will create greater and greater conditions of Being which will allow the individual to live more completely in that state of unconditional love. Once the entity Jesus Christ was released from physical incarnation, he stepped back into that perfect state of consciousness, back into the fullest realization of Christ Consciousness, and it could then be said that he had achieved a state of perfect bliss where he was in a state of unconditional love, but in the physical realm he was not always perfect in his expression of unconditional love.

To qualify all to be in a state of unconditional love in this physical reality would qualify extremely so those who could ascend. This Awareness will state that in the process of expanding consciousness, many will begin to be able to experience longer and long periods of that condition known as unconditional love and will reflect it, but all may not have reached this by the time the Ascension Process occurs. This Awareness has spoken of gradient levels, where individuals will still move towards Ascension or towards those highest level of Ascension Consciousness, of Expanded Consciousness, even if they have not reached that high level, even if they are not living in perfect unconditional love for all and everything.

You Don't Have to be a Saint to Ascend

This is also seen as part of the Ascension Process. Therefore this Awareness hopes that It is able to convey to one and all that it is not necessary to confine oneself to that most perfect divine saintly state of being for one to qualify as a being moving towards Ascension. To assume that one must be a saint in the physical before one is entitled to progress is an unfortunate understanding of the process of Ascension. Indeed, the Ascension Process will assist an individual to attain that place of awareness, that expansion of consciousness that will also mandate that unconditional love and the expression of it be part of one's character, but the intent and desire to expand one's consciousness is what is most important at these times as one and all move towards Ascension.

The level of unconditional love that would be experienced and expressed by the individual will, of its own accord, increase and expand as one moves towards Ascension and indeed, as one reaches Ascension. This Awareness is complete with the first part of the question. It welcomes further questions.

(Another Erroneous Assumption From Vera)

QUESTIONER:

She apologized for not making herself clear in the other question. She sees people capable of exercising unconditional love as being a saint, which I believe you have addressed, and she mentions people under "stuck" circumstances. Is it a reliable determination to assume that they cannot change to reflect unconditional love, and that they will remain on Earth B whether they like it or not, as unfortunate as that will be.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is an erroneous assumption. Again, it is the intent, the desire to experience that level of awareness and consciousness that is governed by the Ascension Process. The suggestion by the entity herself is that it is as if there will be punishment for those who cannot somehow free themselves to be these saint-like beings of unconditional love. It is of course required that one works towards this situation, this condition, but it is not required that one must attain it in order to be qualified to ascend.

It is an unfolding process. It is also a process that cannot be fully comprehended at this time for consciousness is still somewhat stuck at a certain level. With the exponential factor this Awareness has spoken of previously, there will be an explosion in that level of awareness and consciousness that will allow the final stages of Ascension. In these final stages of Ascension, many who at this time may not consider themselves able to be unconditional in their expression of love towards one and all will finally come to understand this process.

Some Still Evolving Entities Need to Experience Planet B

Equally, it must be understood that there are those who still have a process of evolution where it is essential that they come to a deeper more profound understanding of unconditional love. Thus it is that their soul may not be ready for Ascension in the first place. It may be that they have to experience that which this Awareness has called Planet B in order to gain the full measure of this understanding, of this awareness. Some who cannot achieve unconditional love will need to move along that de-evolving line of consciousness in order to have the experiences that they will need in the full spectrum of time in order to fully understand and comprehend all facets and levels of that concept known as unconditional love.

Will the Door to Ascension

Be Closed in 2012 When the Planets Divide?

QUESTION:

Another question from Vera K: She writes: "Since the door to Ascension will be closed in 2012, no other entities will be able to enter thereafter. Was Ascension Earth A intended strictly for Earth B entities or will there be souls arriving from higher dimensions as well, if they wish? Since the Ascended bodies will be Light Bodies, and will be populating Earth A with those populating Earth B cease with a Light Body?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The problem that this Awareness has primarily with the questions presented by Vera K., is their assumption that there is some sort of tie-in to the physical state of being that will continue on in that which is Planet A, the ascended level of consciousness. There will be a continuance of Ascension. The Ascension process does not cease simply because the two planets have divided and they represent two distinct and separate pathways. There will be many who continue to ascend, especially from those gradient levels this Awareness has talked of in the past. They will continue to ascend. There will be beings who start off their journeys on that which is the Ascension level of consciousness.

Those who choose to go another way, who choose to go down that route that this Awareness has defined as Planet B, do so for the purpose of eventually returning back to a place where they can again ascend, be that in ten thousand years, or ten million years. The timing is inconsequential. The whole process of the soul is to always expand, to seek out higher levels of awareness, higher levels of consciousness, thus the Ascension Process is always available to one and all. It is not an "everything or nothing" proposition.

Is the Ascension Realm the Same Place We All Go at Physical Death?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) that explains it very much. Another one from Vera K: "An entity on the other side recently advised Lady Isis that he was in a realm that will be the same as Ascension Earth B and that he found that his body was larger than the one he left behind. It is not clear whether he ascended or went there after an accident, having died. Does Awareness see that the Ascension realm is the same as the realm entities go to when they pass from the earth plane via what is called death?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is somewhat confused by the reference to Isis as "he." Please repeat the question.

(Question is repeated)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There are two distinct aspects to this question, the latter part not relating to the first part, that being of the experience the soul had who had recently passed over, where he described that his body was bigger. This Awareness would state first and foremost to that, that the individual who had passed over chose to have a certain expansion of experience, seeing his body as bigger, however It does not see that he was on that which this Awareness is referring to as Planet B. It would seem though that he has somewhat remained in a context that would define his consciousness in a physical manner still. This is simply the case to how this individual is reported to experience that which he has experienced upon his passing from the physical. It is not seen that he is on the Ascension level, nor is it seen that he is understanding of his physical situation, or his non-physical situation, as the case may be.

The Level Entities Experience Upon Physical Death

The latter part of the question is whether or not Ascension A is the same level of consciousness that is achieved upon physical death. To some it may be exactly that. To others it may be an experience of the alignment of their being and of their consciousness with the Logos and the Consciousness of Gaia, of Mother Earth. They see themselves willingly living on the planet so that they can be of service to Mother Earth herself and to others, so that there is group consciousness, group awareness, and this is working in unison, one with another, one with each other, and this may be experienced by some as what occurs when they die and they reach that level of consciousness that defines a state beyond the physical. The two are one and the same in some ways.

WILL PLANET "A" HAVE CHURCHES, SCHOOLS, LIBRARIES ETC.?

(How About "Entertainment"?)

QUESTION:

Another from Vera K: "Will there be places of entertainment on Earth A and if so, what would they entail? Will there be churches for prayer and meditation, as they would like to do here on earth? It has been stated that spiritual power is greater with many participating at one time even though, of course, physical presence is not a requirement. If people concentrate together at distances at a given time. Will there be libraries for reading books? What about schools and universities? Will these be necessary and desired?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Again, this entity sees that which this Awareness has been calling Ascension Planet A as an extension of the physical state of being. It simply will not be so. It will be a place of unity, of union. It is not a place of dualism. It is not a place of separation. Thus it is that when a question is asked such as: "Will there be entertainment?" that there is no understanding of what this would mean on that level of consciousness. Is it entertaining to fall asleep and to dream? One could say it is extremely entertaining, often more entertaining than the physical state of life itself. This is the level of entertainment that would be available to entities who are in that level of consciousness defined by this Awareness as Ascension

No Comparison With What is On Earth Today

There would be no need for churches, for unity is already the existing state of consciousness. One would be in union with one and all, with Great Spirit, with the Creator, as well as a sense of union with other individuals. Thus, it is not seen that there would be a need for a sense of separation created through religion, through churches. This would also apply to such concepts of school and the need to go to school. Education will not be delivered as it is on this planet at this time. It is imperative for all to remember that the state of consciousness that will be so upon Ascension, cannot be compared to the state of consciousness that exists on the earthly plane at this time.

Any day above ground is a good one.

The 2012 Experience Is Ongoing?

QUESTION:

Thank you. Part of this may have been covered. Vera K writes again: "Why must the door to Ascension be closed in 2012 instead of remaining open? Is it seen as the Creator's will and is it possible the reason is due to entities after 2012 developing poorly spiritually with low vibrations, thus the vibes cannot match Earth A, so there is no reason to keep the door open? Or is it that everyone who wishes to ascend has done so and those remaining are not interested, so why keep the door open in vain? Thank you."

My question to that is: I believe you have already answered that the 2012 will always be open. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Ascension Process is an ongoing one, thus the doors would always be open. This Awareness wishes to express at this time what the nature of the 2012 occurrence will be, in the sense that the two planets that mark Gaia, that mark Mother Earth, will separate, going in two different directions, seeking out two different sets of experiences. This is what is mostly referred to as the 2012 division. The expansion of consciousness that will take place is an ongoing expansion of consciousness. There will be gradient levels between that which this Awareness has called Planet A and that which is called Planet B and there will be room for many many different experiences yet.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you). I believe the "2012" is coming from the end of the Mayan calendar.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

In this case it is so, but this is a concept that is held by many cultures and many teachings.

"Waves of Departure" to Planet "A"?

(Creatures, Bees and Beings Have Already Ascended)

QUESTION:

Her last question: "Is it true that there are "waves" of departure to Ascension Planet A and that some entities are already there? If so, it would be wonderful to communicate with them. Is that possible?" Your comments please.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First and foremost, the waves asked of are indeed so. Waves of consciousness, waves of beings have already ascended, as have many of the different creatures and beings on this planet. The bees for example, as this Awareness has already given, many of the bee colonies and hives have already ascended and are preparing the Eden Planet for a more complete level of Ascension by many other beings. It is indeed possible to communicate with those who have ascended by simply going within, by meditating, by attuning oneself, one's consciousness to those who have ascended.

You Can Already Communicate With Those Ascended

This is not unlike the process that occurs in mediumship where one attunes to those who have crossed over, who are communicating from the other side. The process is a very similar one, and those who wish to have such an experience can focus on this event, can sharpen their sensitivity to communicate with those who have ascended already. This may happen in dreams as well as in meditation, where one receives certain messages or images from those that they connect to and contact.

Will the People Wake-Up About the Illuminati Deceptions and controls by 2012?

(Ascension is Available Even to the George Bush's of this World)

QUESTION:

Thank you. We have a question from James Cisney, who writes: "Awareness has long talked about the forces that have dominated this planet and that the Ascension will change this in time. How will this come about? Will the people just become more clear about what is going on? Will their conditioning be unraveled? Will they be able to see through the deception? Will they be able to read the Akashic Record, or will those forces who have dominated the planet simply yield and begin to undergo their own transformation using their power and wealth for the betterment of all?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The process involves one of individual expansion in awareness and consciousness. For some, they will simply achieve that which the entity has asked of. There is indeed possibility for those who are moving into that level of conscious awareness, to see through the plots, the machinations of the powers that be, of the Elite, and in the seeing of this, there may be also that understanding that these beings themselves are serving a greater cause, a greater purpose.

How President George W. Bush Raised Consciousness

Thus it is that the individual George W. Bush, even though he has created much difficulty and despair, has shifted consciousness in a major way, perhaps not through conscious intent, but the actions he has precipitated, he and those he is working with and who work above him, have created a situation where many have been forced to move forward, have been forced in a way to step beyond that which is dualism, that which is a separated consciousness, thus achieving unified consciousness, unified awareness. This is seen as the greater picture.

It is not seen that all of the Illuminati types will suddenly themselves be converted and use their wealth and their power to assist the Ascension process. This does not mean that some may not achieve this. Ascension is available even to the George Bushes of this world. It is simply seen that their route is one where they will still continue to play the power games they already are playing. Thus it is that their consciousness and their conscious development does need to move on some before they themselves awaken to their greater purpose, their greater beings.

Again, it is not that those who have achieved some level of Ascension, even if they are from the power ranking and cannot achieve Ascension; it is indeed that which is open to one and all. It is simply much easier to squeeze a camel through the eye of a needle than to see many who have devoted their lives to domination and power achieving this level of Ascension at this time.

More on the Akashic Records

QUESTIONER:

The reference, "Will they be able to read the Akashic Record?"...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, some will be able to, if that is their desire and their intent.

Birthdays are good for you. 100
The more you have, the longer you live.

QUESTIONER:

(Very good) I have another question on the Akashic Record. Is it possible the Akashic Record is within, or part of each person's aura and this is carried by the soul from lifetime to lifetime? Is there any reality to that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not so that the Akashic Records are part of an individual's aura so much as they are a part of an individual being. They can always be accessed, whether one goes through the stages and states of the auric fields to achieve that connection or simply goes within and finds the key and opens the door and enters into the library that contains the Akashic Records, if that is an image that works for one, is inconsequential. The importance in this matter is that the Akashic Records are indeed within, and they are accessible to one and all if they so desire.

How to Work With Your Emotional Issues

(Awareness Will Address This Question Later On)

QUESTION:

Thank you. One last question, this too is from James. He writes: "Awareness has spoken of how things will change due to the coming Ascension. I would be interested in how this change will occur. Awareness has already spoken about the division of the planet into different dimensions, but I was wondering if this could be explained on other levels. For example, we know that much of the misery on this planet is due to subconscious, or lower minds in the Huna tradition, being filled with contradictions and fears and just bad programming in general. Will the Ascension alluded to help people to clear out these psychic weeds that hold them back? Not all people have access to psychotherapists and healers or can afford this kind of aid.

Will people have a greater ability to access their own healing abilities as a result of this change? Will some other latent organ or capacity in the human being become activated that helps to harmonize the will, the intellect, the emotions and the physical being so that each person can access deeper spiritual connections? Perhaps another way of asking this is how will the new energies impact people and what will be the qualities or manifestations of that energy on a psychic level?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is a far more complex question than the time remaining allows to be answered. This Awareness however would like to state that while It has spoken in the past of the need to address deep issues of belief, deep emotional issues contained within the individual, and that one way to do this is to work with others who have gifts and powers to help in this process, it is also to be understood that an individual, even if they do not have money to be paid for such therapies, has the capacity within themselves to highlight those areas within themselves, that must be looked at and worked on and healed and released.

What is important in this matter is the intent to do so. With that intent put out to the universe, if you will, then the means by which to do it will be presented to the individual. A healer will present themselves, either the Healer From Within, or an individual who can work with that individual in the physical world itself, or in that mental/emotional realm where such healing must take place. This is what is to be understood and remembered. This Awareness will look at this question again at a later date, to provide a more thorough understanding to the questions asked by the individual.

How to Gain Inner Understanding of Yourself

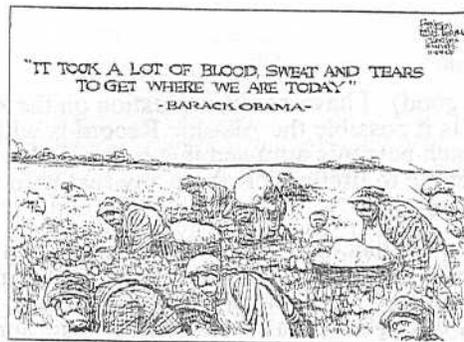

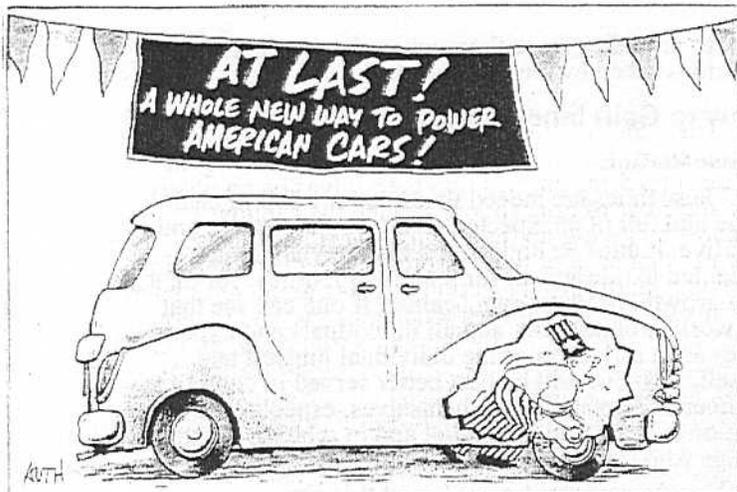

CLOSING MESSAGE:

These times are indeed times that are full of challenge and full of unexpected results, both positive and negative. It must be understood that they are being presented to one and all for their own journey, for their own growth, for their own healing. If one can see that the world around them, and all individuals and experiences are a reflection of the individual himself and herself, then one will be best better served in coming to an inner understanding of themselves, especially in relation to the world in general and in relation to other beings who travel with them.

This Awareness is complete at this time.

THE COSMIC AWARENESS SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT COURSE

Volume Four: Cancer
(Moon Child (Imagination))

LESSON NUMBER SIX

QUESTION:

Awareness, we are here today for the sixth lesson of the Correspondence Course in the Sea of the Moon Child. The sixth lesson being that which is concerned about imagination being used in an orderly manner which allows clarity, centering, growth based on solid foundations, moving from priority to priority. This as a setting of priorities on which to build, or from which to derive information and conclusions, or from which to solicit nourishment or the reaping of the rewards.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests entities again become comfortable in their meditative manner. That you recall the last episode wherein you sat beside this Awareness, wherein you now found yourself sitting upon the throne of God within the Kingdom of Heaven.

This Awareness indicates that the Kingdom of Heaven is within. The throne of God is within. The angels are within. The stairway which you ascended is within. The movement upward toward that throne is your choice, pushed by this Awareness, but not forced.

This Awareness indicates that having ascended the throne within, having witnessed the angels within, having sat next to this Awareness within, you are now yourself an angel of God, ready to experience the universe within yourself, which is your Kingdom, and of which you are the creator.

This Awareness indicates that as you become acquainted with the Kingdom of Heaven which is within, and you explore the many mansions which are within that Kingdom, you may discover entities within some of these rooms who are lost. For this Kingdom which is within, this Kingdom of Heaven, has doors which open out into the universe, has doors which open into tunnels and which lead into dark areas, for this Kingdom of Heaven is not closed off to any, yet there are many who do not know their way.

This Awareness indicates that as you begin exploring and opening various doors in the Kingdom of Heaven, there may be those instances wherein you see a skeleton or a monster from the Bardo, or some shape or demon which for but an instant might make you wish to close the door. This Awareness suggests that you understand this Kingdom of Heaven, which is within, is your own domain and there is nothing within it that needs to frighten you, and as a ruler of that domain, it is your duty and your responsibility to face all that is seen without flinching or fear.

This Awareness indicates that as the god of your universe, you cannot afford to be frightened of the devils which may exist within your universe. This Awareness suggests that you need not fear nor fight these devils, for all that is necessary is that you look at them and show them the way whereby they too may ascend the throne and sit next to you.

This Awareness indicates that as you move through these various doorways, you may find yourself unrecognized by many who are within your kingdom... the king who dressed like a beggar, the king who dressed like a common worker, the king who dressed in an average suit for business purposes. This Awareness indicates that if you are female moving through this kingdom, you may find yourself unrecognized as the queen. The garb and clothing which you wear may somehow not be fitting for your status, yet it is appropriate for where you are in your movement of discovering your kingdom, or queendom, and as you move through this discovery and exploration, you become more and more aware of entities round about and recognize that they do not know who you are.

This Awareness indicates that many of them may spit upon you. Many may feel hostility toward you, for you have a certain type of poise and grace which is resented. This Awareness indicates that you have the power and the ability to cast them out from your kingdom, or your queendom, and you know you have this ability and the right; yet, because you know who you are, you can also have the mercy not to do this, and because you know who these entities are, you would not consider doing it anyway. Therefore, you allow these entities to remain in your kingdom, in your queendom, without judgment, without the final execution or termination of their existence. You allow these entities to continue being.

This Awareness indicates that these entities within yourself, being looked at within this queendom, within this Kingdom of Heaven, these entities are at your mercy. These entities are often in the form of fellow travelers, or are in the form of small children, or are in the form of animals, or some may take on the shapes of enemies and may carry clubs and sticks which threaten you.

This Awareness indicates that these entities within your Kingdom of Heaven may appear to be dangerous and may demand payments from you. These entities may appear threatening in terms of their emotional demands. This Awareness indicates these entities may be grabbing at your robes, asking for your assistance, asking for that which you cannot give except in a look, or in a touch of compassion. This Awareness indicates that these entities may not have human faces, may have faces masked with devil shapes, may have faces masked with monster eyes, may have no faces at all. These entities may be but concepts within your kingdom, may be but words, dehydrated, waiting to come to life. Those entities may be mummified remains of some ancient memory, some ancient existence that can be revived by a little attention and love. These entities may be covered with sores, scabs, wounds, pains, may be bloated, may be hungry, may be lonely and afraid.

This Awareness indicates that in your movement through your kingdom, it is possible for you to become caught in all of that: expectation, desire, fear, frustration, pain, agony, suffering, and loneliness. This Awareness indicates that it is also possible for you to move through that and not feel anything. This Awareness suggests that there are some who can move through those sufferings, moving through those Bardo states, the lands of Limbo, and feel no compassion. There are some who can remain their own being without sacrifice, without suffering for the errors of others, and there are some who enter and take on the agonies of others.

There are some who enter and take on the sins of the followers, the sins of the masses, and in taking on these errors, these entities find themselves being placed upon the cross of crucifixion, serving their fellow creatures by giving up their rights. This Awareness indicates that each of these approaches, either the action of being a martyr, or the action of being aloof, does have certain value in terms of personal concerns and in terms of service to others. This Awareness suggests that there was a time when the sacrifice was necessary for its effect, that the payment was made by one entity to symbolize the agreement which would pay that debt for others. This Awareness indicates that this action, being repeated again and again within your kingdom, can become ridiculous. That one crucifixion is enough. That one sacrifice of the Christ Consciousness for all others is sufficient. That this needs not be repeated again and again in mockery by imitators. Therefore, this Awareness suggests that you no longer sacrifice yourself as a martyr for those needy within your kingdom - that you not walk through your kingdom untouched by compassion for those who suffer, but that you walk through with empathy, serving where you can, doing what you can, being what you are, living as you do, changing as you choose, caring as you care, sharing as you share. And that you not feel an obligation to others, but that you not feel an aloofness from others, but that you feel a kinship with others, so that you may share your grace, joy, peace, harmony, and your Kingdom of Heaven in a manner that is joyous and brings you feelings of happiness at seeing others.

This Awareness indicates that wherein you can move in levels of imagination, using your imagination with a poise that is not fearful, with poise and grace that does not violate others, wherein the priorities can be that you give service without sacrifice, that you share, that you experience kinship, that you put that which comes first, first, and that which comes second, second - that you not attempt to avoid any issue which is placed before you, that you not seek to escape through imagination's doors, that you face what is, clearly and unflinchingly, that you move through your kingdom as though it were your own creation, and that you respond according to that which requires your response, and that you judge not - for within this kingdom there is no room for judgment.

This Awareness indicates that this movement through these levels, these doors, these caverns of your soul, exist within, for the Kingdom of Heaven is within. This Awareness suggests also that whatever is within is projected outwardly in the world around you, and the images which are being carried within yourself can create 'out there' those images which shall appear for you to face in your reality levels.

This Awareness indicates the imagination brings forth the reality. Therefore be very much aware of what forces and attitudes you express toward those images which are within that are reflections of entities who are without.

This Awareness indicates that wherein you confront entities within yourself but fail to confront them without, you are creating a division and closing doors, and surely your kingdom shall have certain problems in keeping its walls secured. And as you build more and more walls to keep your security, you shall find your Kingdom of Heaven becoming a fort, a fortress, or moving even unto a tower in which you are a prisoner.

This Awareness suggests that you watch the images which are spoken, which are experienced, which flow through your consciousness. That you not condemn these images, but simply look and fill those images with love and compassion and understanding, and you shall see those hideous creatures within, those devils and monsters, changing before your eyes into glorious angels, shining spirits, beautiful entities, and lovely concepts.

This Awareness suggests that as this Kingdom of Heaven enlarges, and the temple, the throne, the number of angelic creatures and concepts spread in the multitude within your kingdom, you shall also discover that it is spilling out from your inner world. From the world within, it is spilling out into the world without, and that Kingdom of Heaven is beginning to manifest on the outer plane upon your world. This Awareness indicates this as that which is the harvesting from the seed which is planted within, the seed which grows and brings forth its fruit for you to harvest and to reap the reward from the Law of Gratitude.

This Awareness suggests this as the completion of the sixth lesson in the Sea of the Moon Child.

(The Law of Gratitude is given.)

Unadvertently, Roy dooms the entire earth to annihilation when, in an attempt to be friendly, he seizes their leader by the head and shakes vigorously.

Truth does not fear investigation

'I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around the banks will deprive the people of all property until their children wake-up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered.'
 Thomas Jefferson 1802
