A Message of Hope for Light Workers

(How You Can Bring a Miraculous Event Into Your Life Daily)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does indeed have an opening message at this time. This Awareness wishes to convey a message of hope, a message of practical application on how to create hope in one's life, especially in these times where the emphasis and focus is so much on the negative and the hopeless. The hopelessness of these times is so strong for so many that they are drawn into that dark pit of despair that is steadily being created day by day by those who have knowledge of how to control mass consciousness, how to create an atmosphere of hopelessness and despair through the unfolding events of these times.

The Worldwide Economic Collapse

This is especially focused at this time on the economic collapse that is occurring, both in the nation of the United States of America as well as worldwide. This manufactured event has created such stress and anxiety, such fear and hopelessness that many are daily being drawn deeper and deeper into that deep dark pit. The problem surrounding this is that the many who do not understand or recognize that by giving in to such fear and angst, they create an energetic in their lives that they then put out, which of course attracts further the negative energies.

If the beliefs that are held are of continual decline, continual dismantling and failure of the economic systems, especially those that provide one's livelihood and one's financial securities, then what is created on a practical level is a high degree of fear, a high level of negativity, a high portion of hopelessness that becomes the daily bread of one's diet. This increases day by day, and thus it is that one begins to live the hopelessness, one becomes the negativity. When this happens, it is very difficult for one to reverse their direction and to suddenly become positive and lighthearted.

This Awareness recognizes how difficult this is, not only for the masses, but also for each and every individual. This Awareness has often spoken of the importance of recognizing one's beliefs, of understanding how the beliefs that are put out are what create the reality that one experiences, how important it is not to become too negative, too despairing in one's beliefs, for when one holds such negative energy, the consequences are that one experiences negative events. This of course perpetuates that circle of decline into even greater degrees of hopelessness and despair.

As Creator Beings You Create Your Reality
(The Way of the Miracle Approach)

This Awareness has often suggested that the readers of this Awareness start seeing themselves as Creator Beings, understanding that they create their reality through their beliefs and that they start focusing more on putting out positive beliefs, positive energies. This is still that which this Awareness most recommends, but at this time, this Awareness wishes to introduce a practical approach by which this can be accomplished. That approach is that which this Awareness wishes to call the Way of the Miracle.

"What Miracle Will This Day Bring Me?"

This Awareness suggests that upon awakening each day, one of the first thoughts that one has is, "What will this day hold for me? What miracle will this day bring?" This automatically sends out an energy that the day can indeed hold great promise, that the day can hold a miracle and present a miracle to the individual having this thought. As the day progresses, the individual, whenever they think on it, might put out a thought again, "What miracle will come my way today?" By having such thoughts, one begins to create a positive attitude that allows for a miraculous event to enter into one's day.

How the "Way of the Miracle" Works

While this uses the Law of Attraction that many are aware of, strictly speaking this is not the Law of Attraction that this Awareness is speaking of. What it is doing is creating a positive atmosphere or environment around the individual, a positive energy that attracts to the individual positivity, as well as miracles. The difference between the Law of Attraction where one has an intent or focus that one puts out and asks that this be brought to them, whether it be a new car, a house, a relationship, or whatever; the way of the miracle puts out an energy that allows Spirit to bring forth the miracle, allows the High Self to be the conduit of energies that will manifest in the individual's life in the most miraculous ways.

There is a heightened anticipation that is created that something good will come to the individual today, not only good, but indeed, miraculous. When the individual begins to create such strong positive feelings and energies around themselves, the ultimate result is that they will experience strong positive events and the miracle can indeed come to one, and life becomes miraculous. This is a way forward in these times when there is such strong opposition to the Light, such strong barriers in creating a positive hope-filled life. As one starts the day right from the beginning with the thought and the question: "What miracle will come to me today?" the energies go out to those higher levels of consciousness, to one's multidimensional aspects of being that can bring to the individual in this physical state, a miracle.

This is in high preference to an energetic of doom and gloom: an energy where one wakes up in the morning anticipating how badly the day will go. If individuals truly give their heart to this positive way of beginning a day, they will find that their day does take a positive edge, does indeed open the doors to miracles. The miracles that would come are miracles that are individual to each and every being who chooses to open to the miraculous, to the higher levels of Spirit and consciousness. This Awareness means that for one individual, the miracle that they may experience may be quite different than the miracle another experiences.

For one, the miracle will be that at a certain given moment they may happen to hear a song that has the word "miracle" in it. They may happen to drive along and look at a billboard and again see the word "miracle" or they may find that someone they are discussing a topic with, having a chat with, will suddenly bring up the matter of miracles. This could be one expression of how one would experience a miracle, but this does not limit it. One could have a miraculous event happen that truly is a miracle, and this Awareness does not wish at this time to confine the broadest spectrum of possibilities by defining what kind of miracles one will experience.

The miracles will be as abundant as those having thoughts, putting out the positive energies that they can indeed experience a miracle, and they are giving the matter over to that which is their High Self, the spiritual being, to bring the miracle to them, to bring the event and experience to them that will align them to a higher degree, both with their own deeper positive nature, as well as with their deeper selves. This can be a miraculous way to live one's life, a joyful way, and a fun-filled way. This Awareness thus leaves it to one and to all to create their own miracles, to allow their High Self to create their miracles and to simply be recipients to the miracles that are presented to them, no matter if they are mini-miracles, or absolute major miracles.

When a Miracle Occurs Always Acknowledge It!

Part of the magic of believing in miracles and expecting miracles, is that one takes oneself out of the equation of what the miracle must be. Thus, there is always the element of surprise when a miraculous event happens to one. When a miracle does happen, one must acknowledge immediately the miracle. One can even say to the High Self, "Thank you for this miracle! Thank you for this wondrous event!" This incorporates the Law of Gratitude and acknowledges that there is something much deeper happening, much more magical happening than a single random event that is nice. This goes well beyond nice. This is that which will link each and every individual as they establish this power within them to that which is their greater being, that which is their Great Soul, and it will be in this way that many will start to truly comprehend that each and everyone is indeed part of a greater whole.

Your Thanks Begins the Move Out of the Toxic Consciousness

Thus, a deeper sense of connection will begin to develop that will begin to move the individual more and more out of that toxic consciousness that is pervasive on the planet at this time, for they are moving themselves into a more rarefied and refined atmosphere that supports miracles and the greater truth, the greater reality that is Spirit. This Awareness offers this information as a practical way to begin to turn around the influence of the pervasive negative energies that exist on the planet at this time. So many people have been asking, "How do I do this?" that this Awareness felt bound to offer this as a way to begin to do this. The Way of the Miracle is the way to higher perception, higher truth and higher consciousness.

Write to Vikki and Share Your Miracle With C.A.C.

This Awareness asks also that those who have their experience of the miraculous, who called a miracle into their life through using this procedural way, to please share this with others, with friends and family. This Awareness asks that those who feel inclined to do so, also share with the membership. Write in to Cosmic Awareness Communications and share with Vikki and Avaton the information of their miracle. Put this out to be shared so that others can be encouraged by their stories, by their experiences. This will also create the recognition that others are doing it as well. This provides for the individual who reads of another's experience: hope, the very thing that this Awareness is trying to help to create through the Way of the Miracle. By sharing with one another, this creates a tighter network that will create an even stronger organization, an even stronger consciousness that begins to touch many more as this simple procedure is shared from one person to another.

Cosmic Awareness Puts Out a Challenge to You

This Awareness puts out the challenge at this time to believe in a miracle, to call forth a miracle in your life, day by day, each day. As one begins to do that, one begins to understand that they live in a miraculous world, a miraculous reality, and as part of that miracle, they themselves will finally come to recognize that the greatest miracle of all is themselves. As each sees within themselves their own being, their own connection to that which is Spirit, even to their own soul, then each will understand, each will live the Way of the Miracle, for they indeed are the miracle. This Awareness is complete at this time with this opening message. It does however invite questions on this matter from those who would ask those questions, who would need further insight and understanding on the Way of the Miracle, the Path of the Miraculous. This Awareness is complete at this time.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you. This is indeed a message of hope for the membership and much appreciated. Thank you.) The next question that we have concerns Wormwood, Niburu, Planet X. Are you prepared to discuss this manner with a few questions?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is prepared to clarify the confusion around this matter.

What Really is "Wormwood"?

QUESTION:

"Is Wormwood a comet, a meteorite, an ET space vessel or a Battle Star?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This answer to this question is that which is known as Wormwood is that which would be called a comet. It is a body that enters into the space of this solar system with a regularity that has been noted in the past and that has been connected to certain events in the history of this planet.

QUESTIONER:

Would that be approximately every 12,000 years in our time?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is affirmative.

QUESTIONER:

Okay, it's not a battle star. Are the Anunnaki or Draconian races or the Jehovah Anunnaki...are they involved with this comet in any way, in the sense of have they the means to direct or control it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This answer has two parts. The first is that they are not involved in the creation of this comet. It is a comet that has entered the solar system many times in the past. They do not directly control it. It is seen however, that they have some limited ability to manipulate slightly the course of the comet, not to a great degree, for if they altered the course too much the comet Wormwood would not return on a regular basis. It is more that the manipulation that they use is to amplify by degree the power of the comet itself, especially on the planet.

The comet was involved in that which is now known in the Bible as the flood, and that was manipulated to a degree by the Jehovah Anunnaki.

QUESTION:

It would be earliest to say that Wormwood is a relay station for the planet Niburu?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that it is a relay station for the planet Niburu.

THE VARIOUS ANUNNAKI ARE DEFINED

(More on Planet X and Niburu)

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) Niburu is in fact, still a hollowed out planet for the Anunnaki vessel. Would that be the Jehovah, or Draconian, or are these one and the same?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness first wishes to deal with the first part of this comment. The hollowed out planet, Planet X, or Niburu, are one and the same. The Anunnaki that live within the sphere itself, are that which this Awareness would call the Original Anunnaki, the Orion Anunnaki, who have been piloting this vessel for hundreds of thousands of years. Across the dimensions of time and space there have been factions that have split off from that which was the original Orion Anunnaki.

When War Leader Jehovah Destroyed Maldek

There were alliances formed with the Draconians, creating that order of the Draconian Anunnaki. There was also that faction that broke off and became oppositional to the Orion Anunnaki on that which is the hollow sphere, planet Niburu. They inhabited the planet Maldek. (Will says Marduk) There was a rebellion against the fathers. They became that which united under a leader in opposition to En, the Father King on the sphere planet. Those who followed the leadership in opposition to En were those who followed the leader that was known Biblically as Jehovah. As a war leader he fought against his own people and in one of the battles, the planet Maldek was destroyed.

When Jehovah Became the Dark Force on Earth

(He Creates the "Chosen People" Who Control Earth Today)

By this time, those who had been the followers of Jehovah had already left, including Jehovah, and had gone to that which was the planet Mars. This battle continued and carried forth and came to that which is this planet earth, and the followers of Jehovah came to this planet and dominated this planet, taking control from En, from the Anunnaki. They are those who became the Dark Forces. They are those who created the chosen peoples. They are those who still have influence to this day, and there is still a battle that rages between the factions and the original people that are the Anunnaki.

ARE JEHOVAH'S PEOPLE REPTILIAN OR HUMANOID?

QUESTION:

Are the Jehovah people, are they humanoid or are they Reptilian?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Draconian Anunnaki are reptilian. The Jehovah are more that which would be humanoid, but the two are in alliance. This is that which this Awareness often calls the Orion/Reptilian faction.

DID THE COMET WORMWOOD PLANT A NIBIRUAN DIODIC CRYSTAL BENEATH STONEHENGE?

QUESTION:

Did the Nibiruan Anunnaki commandeer Wormwood to relay energies to a region on Earth below Stonehenge in England where a Nibiruan Diodic Crystal (NDC) was installed about 25,000 years ago?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed so. The comet Wormwood has been used by both sides of the Anunnaki equation. It has been used to create the flooding of the Bible by the Jehovah Anunnaki to destroy Enki, Enlil, and those of the Nibiruan Anunnaki who were on the planet at this time, but it has also been used by the Nibiruan Anunnaki for their own purposes. There is an energy force that radiates from the comet that is utilized by both sides to create certain situations and events. The harnessing to release the energies of the Lemurian crystals under that which is Stonehenge is well within the potential of the Nibiruan Anunnaki in that which is Niburu or Planet X.

THE CODED SCALER WAVE PROGRAM

(When Wormwood and Planet X Arrive Simultaneously)

QUESTION:

I see. Would this coded scaler-wave program be directed vertically above the earth's surface where it intentionally intersects a main artery of the planet, for example a energy line or ley line from a coordination portal or energy center in Ireland to one in France, or is location irrelevant?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The energizer is talking of that which is the grid-line network of the planet, or that which is the ley lines of the planet. Both can be triggered via direct or indirect means. A specific site can be chosen and a focusing of the energy sent to that site, or a generalized procedure can affect all areas simultaneously. This requires a great technology that is still not quite within the grasp of humanity. This Awareness also wishes to state that the maximum events are facilitated when there is a coordination of that which is Wormwood with that arrival of Planet X.

The Technique Could Flood Our Planet Once Again

This does not occur each and every time that the planet Niburu reenters the space of this planet. This is approximately every 12 thousand years when there is such an intersection of the two planetary bodies within the energetic body of the planet earth. Saying this, the planet Niburu can indeed still affect the planetary grid-line network on its own, it is simply that this Awareness is saying to create such drastic results as the flooding of the planet requires that the two bodies work in unison to create such upheaval in the energetic matrix of the planet that would create the flooding situation that was reported and experienced in those times.

CAN THE NIBIRUAN DIODIC CRYSTAL REVERSE OUR DNA CODES?

(When Jehovah Dummied Down our DNA to Two Strands)

QUESTION:

The next question is, can this Nibiruan Diodic Crystal matrix through resonance reverse some of our DNA codes and also the main central electromagnetic vortex virtually located in the human body and hooked into the planetary core on earth?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this is in the affirmative. It can affect the human DNA. It is well reported through many sources that human DNA has been reduced down to those two strands that are used at this time prevalent to the human experience. There are indeed 12 strands. This dummied down of the DNA code occurred at that time when the Jehovah forces took control of this planet and have been involved in the manipulation of human consciousness since that time.

These Orions created this situation so that they could create a slave race, a dummy race that was largely asleep to the truth of their own being, to the truth of what they are able to accomplish. This is starting to break down. There is that which can be called the creation of the Light Body in humans. This is being created through the activation of the DNA structure. More and more of the strands are being turned on, creating a more energetic being, a Light Body being. The Light Body is about the acquisition of more of the strains of DNA that complete the total human being.

QUESTIONER:

There are just 12 strands of DNA? There are no more than 12 strands?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The New Being That is Now Being Created

This too is part of that which is moving forward, but this Awareness at this time is simply speaking of the advancement towards that which will become the new human being, the new Homo sapiens. It is to be understood that the being that is to be created will be as different as night and day to the being that exists in human form at this time. Imagine if you will a being who can occupy a physical form when desired, or a completely energetic form if desired.

This occurs presently but not in a way that is understood or recognized by most individuals. It occurs in a way that there is seemingly no control over its occurrence. It occurs now when that which is the middle self departs the body during the sleep stage so that it is free of the physical body and is in its light form. But this Awareness is speaking of the New Being, that being who can be consciously aware of choosing to be in physical form, or popping out, changing that physical form into the energy body, the Light Body. This is also part of the process of the reintroduction, the re-initialization of the strands of DNA that have been inactive for hundreds of thousands of years.

This Awareness spoke "hundreds of thousands of years" for the truth is that the being that once existed was before the modern times, even before the Lemurian times.

Biblical "Revelations" Written by a Woman? (More on the Piso Family)

QUESTIONER:

Amazing! That was quite a while ago! Okay, we have just three questions left. Could you please confirm the Biblical revelations were not written by Saint John but rather were written by a woman, astrally tagged to receive the information, whereby she was given an implant in her astral field to relay inspiration and channeling from invader ET's who had set this up? Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that there is some truth in this statement. Indeed there was a woman involved in the writing of those documents. She was used by those extraterrestrial beings that this Awareness has called the Jehovah Orions, the Jehovah Anunnaki. She was part of a group of individuals that were used to write that which is the New Testament of the Bible. This Awareness has spoken of that group before, centered on that emperor known as Constantine. The family that was used at that time was a powerful family in Roman culture who had ulterior motives, and who were Jehovah in nature. This was the Piso brothers that this Awareness is seeing.

This was a sister to the brothers, part of the family, and it was to her that the task was given to create a possible scenario, however she was/is seen as simply a tool that was used by those Jehovah beings who wished to create a template of belief that would be used in future times to map out the events of a future event, that being the ending of these times. Thus it is that much that is revealed to her is in actuality that which the Jehovah Orions wished the people in the future to believe would be the way of things at the end of time; that being the end of time that would define the end of the world. Thus it is that the woman was used to be the instrument of the information that the Jehovah wished to be popularized and to be believed in.

They would then at the appropriate time, which are these times, come forward and start creating that which they themselves had planned in the Bible as events that signified the ending of things, the end of the world. These are indeed the End Times, but not exactly as those who had planted this information are prophesizing. Of course, what is the danger here is that if one believes that these events will occur, one will energize them and one will indeed experience them. But this is indeed a different matter.

ASTRALLY TAGGED INDIVIDUALS AND CHANNELS: (CONTRACTS WITH LUCIFER)

QUESTION:

I think you've spoken of that once before, or twice. To carry on, was this same astral tagging also activated for the so-called Chosen Ones today in many fields of religion, politics, etc., and possibly some channelers other than those receiving the Awareness source of course, to further the ET agenda, and can those others astrally tagged or implanted tune into this Nibiruan Diodic Crystal matrix and channel Archangel Michael and many others who are receiving information which can actually be misinformation from the invader ET's? Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to break this down. This Awareness wishes to start with the first part, the question being if certain individuals can be astrally tagged. This Awareness indeed affirms that this is so. This Awareness has spoken of this manner in previous sessions where this Awareness presented the information that a soul contract was often made with those who worshiped those beings that were labeled as demons, who gave their lives and soul to that who called himself Lucifer, or Satan.

These contracts are that which identify to these beings, those who they felt they would have claims on in future times, for these individuals had signed their souls away to the devil. What indeed occurred was the astral tagging that the question is referring to, a tagging that connected the individual through time and space to the original expression of that individual in a previous lifetime. Thus it is that a politician, who perhaps in another lifetime had been part of a cult, who had proclaimed his faith and loyalty to his master Satan would have an astral tag that would allow these beings to track the individual as he or she reincarnated in a different body at a different time and place.

This Awareness has spoken how that contract is in truth null and void to each individual, for each individual would have to reconfirm their commitment to the original contract and yet, this is not what occurs by those handlers who obtained the original agreement from those individuals. Instead, they appear in the lives of these individuals in whatever form they choose, be it extraterrestrial, reptilian form, or even demonic form, and they assert that they have the right to claim their contract. Often those individuals who agreed previously will allow themselves again to be used and manipulated, for they do not seem to understand that the contract that they once made is now void in this lifetime, especially when these powerful beings who seem to be omnipotent stand in front of them, claiming to have control and power over them, and that if they cooperate they will benefit through such cooperation.

Thus, they themselves indirectly recommit themselves to that contract, even though the contract does not actually exist any longer nor does it have weight or power over the individual. That is what this Awareness refers to when It says the astral tagging is still in place, that the extraterrestrial beings reappear in one way or another and reclaim their victim and delude them further into believing that they still owe them or that they will gain further from cooperating with them.

This Awareness asks for the second part to be read again.

PERVERSION OF CHanneLED INFORMATION BY EXTRATERRESTRIALS (Is the Cosmic Awareness Information Tainted?)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Can those others astrally tagged or implanted tune into this Nibiruan Diodic Crystal matrix and channel Archangel Michael and many others, to receive information which is actually misinformation from invader ET's and if so, how can a person discern which is which?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Again, there are two parts to this question. The first part is whether they can tune into the Nibiruan Diodic Crystals. This Awareness states they cannot; at least they cannot without the proper assistance from the Nibiruans themselves. This would not necessarily be forthcoming to those who are accomplices of the Jehovah Anunnaki or Orions. The matter of disbursing disinformation by channeling those sources that claim to be Michael or others is indeed possible, for the perversion of information by the extraterrestrial beings often is one way of dispersing such disinformation.

How Entities Get Hooked on Channeled Information

They would use those sensitive beings to their own cause to become the channels of this information. The classic formula would thus be used, that certain truthful statements and information would be released through these channels, and many who read of this become enthralled with this information, hooked into it and become followers of the source of the information. By source, this Awareness means rather the channeler who has channeled this information. Thus it is that these channelers may not even understand themselves that they are being used in this way to provide disinformation.

They continue to channel the information and the followers of this information and of these channels, continue to lap this information up and hold it to be true. Thus it is that a group is waylaid because they are following an individual who is being used by those Jehovian forces, to provide misinformation and to mislead. There is also seen a situation where there are those who are above or beyond this level who are in touch with an authentic source. The Interpreter is one of those who does so, but there are several others. This Awareness suggests always that the information that is received must always be weighed by the individual receiving the information, and never should one simply totally and blindly believe anything and everything that is being channeled.

This Awareness states that this applies even to the channelings of this Awareness. It is only by the weighing of the information and comparing that information to other information, but even more importantly, weighing it within oneself, one's own internal sense of truth, that one will come to a deeper truth, a deeper perception of the truth. When one questions always and is willing to seek out other answers, never becoming totally enwrapped in only one source or one thought, this will allow the individual to always seek out the truth, and it is, after all, the truth that shall set one free.

QUESTIONER:

Would it be fair to say not only read or listen, but also think about it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed this is so, to discuss this with others, to meditate on this matter, to go deep within, to call to one's inner self, one's Higher Self to be protected from those who would mislead and disinform, to have the Light of Truth always appear to show the way forward; this is indeed also important to this matter, for the inner source is always the primary source for each individual, and it is this inner source that the individual must truly learn to connect to and feel comfortable with and to be led by. It is this source, beyond all other external sources that will hold the truth that will set one free.

HAS ATLANTIS BEEN DISCOVERED YET?

(Awareness Predicted the Lost Continent Will Be Found Soon)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Our next topic is proof that Atlantis will be found this year. This comes from Ted Helinski. I don't have a location for him.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness knows that the entity Ted Helinski is in Wisconsin.

QUESTIONER:

He writes, "In the last newsletter, CA said proof of Atlantis would be found this year, and I'm wondering if you've been following the story about what has been found using the Google Ocean search feature? Photos show an almost perfect rectangle on the ocean floor about the size of Wales. It is located in an area that Plato said Atlantis was located. According to the aeronautical engineer who found it using the Google search feature, "It looks like an aerial map of a city." I'll show you the picture.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness picks up the energies of the photo.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) What do you think? Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indeed thinks and indeed has comment to make on this matter.

QUESTIONER:

(Laughter)- Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is indeed thinking that the observations and photos are accurate. There are several underwater regions that were connected to that lost continent, Atlantis, this being one of those regions, but not the only region. The original continent of course was in that deep trench area of the Atlantic Ocean, that at this time cannot be photographed from the high heavens, for the trench is so deep that it will not successfully be able to reach to those depths where there would be evidence found of the center of that original continent.

However, those areas that are not as deep, such as the area that is photographed here will start to be found more and more, as this Awareness has already promised, and there will be expeditions sent down to those areas that will confirm that there were indeed structures in those areas of the photograph, just as the photograph does indicate, and there will be relics and remnants that will be brought to the surface to show that there were people who lived there at some time before recorded modern history. Thus it will be that the evidence will finally be released that proves the existence of that continent of Atlantis.

The Atlantis Information Will be Released Soon

There are certain powers that already know this to be true and have suppressed this information for their own reasons, for many years, but it is seen that the individuals who will bring forth this information do not work for these powers and are independent to them and will not be stopped in releasing the information. This is seen to be relatively soon its occurrence. By "soon" this Awareness is suggesting in the next year.

QUESTIONER:

Really? Wow! That's fantastic. I'm expecting a flood of books on Atlantis about to be printed!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Controlled Press Won't Release the Info but Internet Will

One thing this Awareness will add however, is that there is an unlikelihood that the controlled press would be willing to release that information. It will be released through the Internet primarily and through word-of-mouth until a point is reached that it will be undeniable that there was indeed a continent once before that existed and this is the lost continent of Atlantis. It will take approximately a year, to a year and a half for this official confirmation to finally be acknowledged.

QUESTIONER:

The main thing is that it is for sure.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed already underway. The information is, as this photo shows, already beginning to be released.

HAS THE "MISSING LINK" FINALLY BEEN DISCOVERED?

QUESTION:

A Question from Kathy Kevany in Maryland. She writes: "Awareness has spoken of the missing link and how it will never be found because that was when the Sirian geneticists tinkered with the DNA and created modern man. But it's my understanding that in 2006 new fossils were found in Ethiopia that they say fill in that gap. How, then, can this be so?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The skeletal remains that were found were of a being, this is true, and this being is seen as that which is the missing link. This is simply the skeletal remains of an earlier prototype of that which is modern man. There were a few hundred of these beings. They were not continued, so to speak. They were not found as completely satisfactory to the needs and the requirements of their Anunnaki masters and they were allowed to die out. Most died in captivity, but a few did escape into the hinterland and died off in that area.

They were not able to procreate in an effective way. It was never felt that these particular experimental beings posed any threat, and there never was an effort made to really recover those who had escaped, for it was just simply thought they would die out naturally in the harsh environment that they escaped into. This is indeed what eventually happened. The skeletal remains are of that prototype being that some would call the missing link. However, this Awareness suggests that these beings themselves were genetically engineered at an earlier time but were not successful in accomplishing and satisfying the needs of those who wished the beings to be created in the first place.

WHY DID THE MAYAN CALENDAR COME TO AN ABRUPT HALT IN THE YEAR 2012?

QUESTION:

Thank you) That was most interesting. We have another question from Michael Basvic. He's in Hawaii, Kaunakakai. He asks: "Will Awareness explain why the Mayan calendar comes to an abrupt halt in the year 2012?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness did explain this recently, but will again explain why it is seen that it will come to an abrupt halt at that time. It is already seen and known that there will be an alignment of planetary bodies that will form an energetic corridor to that which is the Central Sun. They will open that which is often called a 'wormhole' to the Central Sun, and they will also align and open the seven vortices through which spirit passes both in entering into this physical existence as well as exiting back into spiritual form.

The Alignment of Planetary Bodies Will Create an Event Where Time and Recorded History of Mankind Will End

Once this occurs, this alignment of planetary bodies and the opening of the 7 vortices, and the opening of that wormhole, on that date the alignment will create an event. That event is that which this Awareness has called a cosmic energy flux or a light flux, a photon flux. The energies of the Central Sun will pass through the corridor, creating a tsunami of light that will hit the planet at that time and create great havoc and upheaval. In that event, time and the recorded history of mankind will end and a new time will begin. That is the moment and the point that this Awareness has often called the Ascension point.

Those who have successfully created their own Light Bodies, as many are doing now, may indeed surf that incredible tsunami of light to those levels of higher consciousness, apparently instantaneously. Those who have not prepared their consciousness, who have not worked at elevating their being and creating their Light Body to any great degree may simply be swept away as the chaos of the event hits, and there will be others, who in their choice, will seek to go with that which is the planet that will continually carry forth the material experiment, the experiment of physicality and separation from spirit. That will be what is known as Planet B.

Those beings who have elevated their consciousness and created their Light Body will be on Planet A, the Planet of Ascension. Those many who choose to leave at that time will then later have a choice of which dimensional reality to play in afterwards, be it Planet A, Planet B, or any other planet of consciousness that the soul is free to incarnate in or take part of. This is the event that will happen on that date, or near to that date, for there is still speculation because of adjusting calendars over the course of history that will qualify that time somewhat, but still, the event itself is that which will precipitate the Ascension process. This is that which will occur around the date December 21st, 2012.

This is simply a point of reference for that which is to occur, and it can be predicted fairly accurately because there is the ability to track the planetary bodies to see where certain alignments will occur, and those who have chosen to look forward have seen this event, and it is why it is marked as that termination date so clearly in the annals of history, both in the Mayan calendar as well as other sources.

QUESTIONER:

How did the Mayans come to realize this knowledge way back when?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The Mayans themselves worked with their multidimensional being and there were extraterrestrials who walked amongst them who became great teachers. These were not the Jehovahian extraterrestrials. These were members of the Galactic Federation who taught these Mayans and helped them formulate their science and their ability to understand time in a much more accurate manner than that which is the modern case. These teachers were there to help them understand that a time would come when the present consciousness and the present experiment in consciousness that was being experienced would come to an end and a new phase would begin.

THE "PHYSICAL EXPERIMENT" NOW COMING TO AN END IS EXPLAINED

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) You have spoken of the physical experiment several times. Could you please elaborate on that?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The purpose of spirit, of the soul, was to have an experience of separation from itself, from Spirit. Thus, it was understood that one way to do this was to downsize, so to speak, into that which was a physical body. What occurs is that as the soul comes into an individual expression, it comes through that which is the Central Sun, Halcyon, through the 7 gateways or portals. Each time it passes through, that which is the individual soul that is seeking expression is condensed. Thus, by the time it has passed through the 7th Gateway and is ready to enter into human form, that spiritual body is compressed and condensed to such a degree that it can actually enter physicality, enter into a physical existence.

The Soul Goes Through The Vale of Forgetfulness

Part of the experiment was that the soul would go through that which has been called by many names, but mostly known as the vale of forgetfulness, so that it would not remember its truest nature. It would simply associate itself with physicality, with a physical material experience. Part of the experiment is that there would be access to the teachings of Spirit. This was expressed mostly through the teachings of religious orders and sects. Thus it is that many understand spirituality in religious terms versus individual terms, but the experiment was such that it was wondered if there would be a return to the deeper understanding and connection to the deeper spiritual soul, the multidimensional nature of the being.

Even though one had gone through the vales of forgetfulness, even though one may have been shackled by religious dogma into structured religious belief, could the soul find its way back into its spiritual understanding of self, even with the hindrances of materialism and dogmatic beliefs as well as a physical focus versus a spiritual focus. To ensure this through the vale of forgetfulness, the experiment became one that the goal was to find enlightenment, but in truth this is more a remembering of one's truth and one's truer being.

Does this help explain?

QUESTIONER:

Yes. I had visions in my mind of somebody holding puppet strings on each individual, allowing them to have part of a physical experiment...that probably cracks you up!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It does crack this Awareness up, but there is in some way a truth to this. The truth is that the strings are not held at the higher levels of consciousness, but rather at the lower levels, by those who hold power, those who hold sway, who already understand and know the truth and have sought to enslave humanity. It is they who hold the strings for they are the ones who shape consciousness as held on the physical realm. It is they who have created religion, who have created politics, who have created a materialistic concept of life, one that has enslaved, one that has captured, one that has put strings upon those who live in this physical reality.

Thus, even though the concept presented by the energizer was humorous, still there was and is a degree of truth to this.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you for explaining that. I think you have explained that before, but I really appreciate it, as I'm sure the membership will as well. That was most interesting. May we have a closing message please?

A GIFT TO HUMANITY BY AWARENESS

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness started today's session discussing the Way of the Miracle, the Way of the Miraculous. It suggested that it is time now in this practical way to start to create in one's own life that sense of positive expectation, that belief that miracles can and will happen for the individual. This is a gift that this Awareness is giving to the membership, but also to humanity at this time, for it is necessary to begin a process that countermands that negative process that is also unfolding, that process that is dragging one and all down into a deep pit of hopelessness and despair.

As one begins to truly anticipate each day upon awakening, one goes through the day in anticipation. The positivity that they put out, that energy of the positive will have positive effects and will begin to become the reality that one experiences. Thus it is that even though they may still exist within a reality that is in decline, that is falling apart, still they will begin to understand more and more how they create their own reality and how their own personal experiencing of that reality is not as destructive or as hopeless as that which many others will experience. This will become their norm.

As this becomes the norm, those that were miraculous events one day will become ordinary events the next. More and more extraordinary events will begin to unfold for the individual and this will be indeed very much part of that Ascension process that this Awareness has so long talked of, that creation of a different reality other than that which the Powers That Be would put out to one and all as reality, and that which Is is being experienced by all. All do not experience the same reality, and this new way of being and thinking will help one and all realize this fully and completely.

This Awareness invites all to partake in this new experiment and to see how it unfolds for them, but the most important thing of all is to have fun with it, to enjoy the unfolding and to trust that this is a new way of being, and being this new way will bring the New Being into play.

(Thank you). The Law of Gratitude is given)

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Laws of Cosmic Awareness...

THE LAW OF PROSPERITY

The Law of Prosperity states that one prospers in direct proportion to the enjoyment one receives in seeing the prosperity of oneself and others. And that one's prosperity is denied in direct proportion to one's own feeling of guilt for being prosperous, or at the envy and hostility one feels on witnessing other's prosperity.

This Law states that that when one prospers all may prosper. The Law of Prosperity works for those who hold images, feelings, actions, dialogues, and attitudes associated with beauty, joy, love and prosperity, and works against those who hold images, feelings, actions, dialogues and attitudes associated with ugliness, self-pity, complaints, envy and hostility toward oneself or any other person, group, race or class.

Those who think, feel, act and speak of themselves as being poor and needy must spend three times the energy for the same prosperity received by those who think, feel, act and speak of themselves as being wealthy and prosperous. An attitude that dwells in depression leads the way to physical, spiritual, mental, social and financial depression. Those who maintain prosperous attitudes, even in states of poverty, are foreign to such states and will not be allowed to remain out of place in those poverty situations, but will instead be deported to those prosperous states where such prosperous attitudes belong.

A Message to the Light Workers

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has an opening message. Many of the Light Workers are experiencing difficulty in being focused in these times. Many are experiencing a withdrawal of their energies at this time, for they find the energies of the third dimensional plane of reality difficult upon them and wearisome for them. This is a problem for some, or at least it is perceived as a problem, a question as to why this is so. This is so because the energies are accelerating now, and the separation is becoming more pronounced between the two frequencies that will define Planet A and Planet B.

This means that it is more difficult for those of a higher consciousness or a higher frequency to engage in the lower dimensional frequencies, the third dimensional frequencies, and often there is a reluctance to be party to this. This Awareness is prepared at this time to answer questions on this matter. It simply wanted to open this subject up for deeper examination at this time. This Awareness is complete with Its opening message.

He Feels He Just Needs to Sleep, to Dream and Never Wake Up

(The Dilemma Created on the Physical Plane)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) That leads into our first questions. These are sent in by Adrian Alexander, of Agoura Hills, California. He writes, "Why do I feel as though I need to just go to sleep, to dream and never wake up?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed exactly what this Awareness was speaking of a moment ago. As a being of higher frequencies than are prevalent in the physical reality that exists on the planet at this time, the third dimensional reality, there is a difficulty in being in these lower frequencies. At that time of sleep there is a separation of that which is known as the middle self from the physical form, from the body and from the plane of existence that defines physical reality. It leaves the physical in the dream state. It goes to a different plane of frequency and experience.

That Plane of Higher Consciousness—A Sense of Coming Home

It is at that plane, a higher plane of consciousness, a higher frequency, that there is that sense of coming home, that feeling of being in the right place once again. To come back into the physical creates a dilemma for many of the Light Workers, for they have been enjoying, in that state of sleep and dreaming, their reconnection to their essence, to their being, to their more natural state of consciousness. To return back into the physical is indeed difficult for many of the Light Workers. Thus it is that upon waking, many of the Light Workers find it difficult to get going, to get motivated enough to get up and commence the day.

Those who have the opportunity to stay longer in bed linger in that state between full wakefulness and full sleep. They are clinging to that state of experience, that frequency state where they feel much better, for they know that once they return back into the physical they must endure the energies of the physical. It is like being in a toxic environment, being forced to breathe in the toxic air, and yet every several hours being able to return into a chamber where pure air is available, where it is easier to breathe, easier to be, knowing that one must go out once again into the toxic atmosphere, for there is work still to be done that is not yet complete.

In light of the question presented there is also an awareness by Light Workers that they will be turning back to that dream state where they are free of the physical body, free to be in their own element, their own frequency, in that refined and purified atmosphere. This is that which the entity looks forward to, and why so many of the Light Workers look forward to going to sleep at night, because they are able to return home for a short while. Even if they will return back into the physical plane of existence when they awaken again, it is still a joy to leave the toxic atmosphere and to breathe the pure air, the pure air being the higher frequency of consciousness.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

Saturated With the Earth Experience?

(No Chance to Empty the Toxic Cup)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) His second question reads, "Have I been saturated with this earthly experience?" Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

In a manner of speaking there is a certain saturation that has occurred to this individual Light Worker, as well as to the many other Light Workers. It is as if the cup has been filled up and there does not seem to be any more room to put any more liquid into this cup, and yet more liquid is still being put in. There is an overflow action perhaps, but there is not a chance to empty the cup, and if that which is being put into the cup is toxic in nature and there is not a chance to clear the vessel which holds the toxic fluid, then the vessel, the Light Worker feels saturated by that toxic element, that toxic mixture it must hold.

Another way of understanding it is it must be immersed into this toxic concoction of energies in which each and every Light Worker must exist during that state of wakefulness, and it does indeed feel as if a saturation point has been reached and one cannot contain any more of the toxic element, the toxic frequency, the dense low energy frequency that the Light Workers must exist in while in a state of wakefulness. As a result, it most definitely feels, as the entity has described, as if a saturation point has been reached, but this Awareness suggests that the saturation point has not truly been reached, for when it is reached and all is in order, and all has advanced to that point of separation, then Ascension will occur, then those individuals who are still here for they have some work yet to do, will no longer need to be here in the physical plane of existence.

There will be those along the way, especially over the next three years who will complete their portion of their assignment before the full Ascension experience occurs. They may leave at that time through whatever means is at their disposal to ascend to that higher plane of existence and to remain there without having to return back into the physical. Many are the Light Workers who at this time are asking for this to be so. Many are the Light Workers who do not wish to be on the physical plane of existence any more, who are saturated with the density and the toxicity of this lower plane of existence and who desire nothing more than to return once and for all to their higher state of consciousness, where they can stay in the rarified, purified atmosphere of higher consciousness.

Have Patience—You Are Here For A Reason

This Awareness asks the Light Workers to have patience, to look deep within themselves, to understand that they are here for a reason, and when the reason is complete, they will be welcomed home as the heroes they truly are for having come into this dangerous atmosphere, this toxic environment in order to help the many who are ready to shift their consciousness, to move forward in consciousness and to find that opportunity of Ascension that awaits the many who are here at this time to pass through Ascension and to emerge on the far side of the Ascension Gateway.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

Did He Make a Difference?

(If So How Does He Know?)

(Thank you) His next question reads, "Is there a way for me do more in the grand scheme of things? How do I know if I did make a difference?" Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is a difficult question to answer, for each and every individual has a different purpose. The easiest information this Awareness can offer on this matter is that each will do to the degree they can do, that which they are here to do. It is not really a matter of worrying if you have done your job or not. What it is a matter of doing is always having as one's intent to complete that which they are here to do, with the full understanding that when they are done or complete or cannot complete that which they are here to do for other factors, that they will shift and they will move on.

Spiritual Help Will Always Come Through

So rather than worrying about if one has done enough, one simply does to the best of one's ability, always with the intent and the desire to be available to the Divine Creator, All That Is, to be available to those spiritual guides and guardians who would help and assist in these times, for there is indeed help. The most direct form of spiritual help will always come through that which is the High Self. Thus, to avail oneself to the High Self, to offer one's service in a conscious matter will always bring forth the situation and the opportunity to be of service.

It is not so much what is accomplished as the fact that when one avails oneself to be of service and a situation comes forward, then that individual can be of service, and can step into the opportunity, whatever it may be. It may be as simple as offering a homeless person a small bit of solace and support and comfort. It may be as grand as writing a book or developing a therapy that will help others understand these times or heal the deep wounds that many of the Light Workers must heal at this time, that will help them move forward, to help others understand why these times are essential, to be a role model in these troubled times so that many can see that panic and fear and angst are not necessarily the ways forward.

Be Open to Guidance for the Many Ways to be of Service

There are indeed many ways to be of service, and to think of the way that you must be of service may preclude you from being of service in the most immediate way that is needed and is necessary. Therefore, this Awareness simply says again: Be open to the guidance from all levels of Spirit, especially that level of the High Self, and allow oneself to be the Spirit of Service, and in service to Spirit. This Awareness is complete with this question.

What is the Grand Plan Anyway?

(And How Can One Be of Greater Service Today?)

QUESTION:

His question #4 & 5 were answered in the previous question, but just to read, in case there is additional comment, he asks, "Have I done enough to help the Grand Plan?" and, "What is the Grand Plan anyway? To just get back to blissful Source?" Are there any additional comments?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has indeed answered these questions. It simply would ask that rather than to worry about this so much, to be in bliss, to live in bliss to the degree one can be in bliss would serve the Light Worker to a great degree. To understand that this is not available each and every moment at this time, but to hold as principle that the state of bliss and joy are those states that this Awareness has talked of before as the New Way, the New Order, will help create an energetic field around the individual that will bring more enjoyable situations, lighter situations to the individual.

This is what the individual begins to understand at the deepest level and begins to manifest as the everyday course of events, and as the individual Light Worker begins to do this, others will see this to be so. Others will ask: "Why is it with all of the events at this time that are so negative and dark, why is it that you are happy? It doesn't seem that those events are touching you to the degree they touch everyone else." One does not need to stand on a soapbox and preach this to those who stand below them, one simply lives it, and as one lives bliss and enjoyment, as one lives in the Light of the Creator in the deepest belief that all will work out and manifest as is needed, it will be so.

An Enjoyable Situation Now is The Reality of the New World

It must be seen and understood that there is also at the same time a shifting of the energies of consciousness that will allow more and more to participate in this experiment of the expansion of consciousness toward that point of Ascension. The manifestation of a pleasurable situation, an enjoyable situation, will become more and more the reality, until through the Ascension process, one has already passed through and has that scope, that capacity to live that reality every day, for this is the reality of the new world, the new order.

In this new order, this new level of conscious awareness, one simply is that state of bliss and joy. One shares this with others. One shares this with the planet. One shares this with Spirit, and other gifts, other skills and realization will also come forward that will exceed that which has been known, that which has always been so, and in this new world, there will not be the need to be reluctant to participate in the every day workings of the world. One will rise up each and every morning, fresh, invigorated and alive, knowing that they are of that new order of energy and consciousness that is available to one and all.

The New Order is Quite Different From the New World Order

This new order is quite different from the concept of the New World Order that is promulgated at this time by those Dark Forces and energies. It is a new order of consciousness, a new level of awareness that will allow one and all to live in a different world, that will allow one and all to have a different experience of reality than what has been so. This is why it is important at this stage before the Ascension process is complete, that the individual Light Workers begin to remember how important it really is to stay positive, to stay focused, and to remember that each day, even if there is a necessity during these times to be reclusive to some degree, to pull away from the negative toxic energies of the planet at this time, that it is still important to hold that a state of enjoyment, joy, pleasure, even bliss, are what are the truth, and not to be distracted from the truth, but to start engaging it more and more each and every day, to create moments where one experiences the deep enjoyment and pleasure, even if that moment is in a moment of quiet solitude, even if that moment is at a time where one is having a simple meal or enjoying simple pleasures, that one remembers that this is the point of it all.

When You Focus on Pleasure, Enjoyment, Joy and Bliss
You are Giving Even Greater Service

This moment of pleasure, this moment of enjoyment, this moment of expanded consciousness is what will be available soon to all who choose it, on a permanent basis versus a momentary basis. When one begins to focus on pleasure, enjoyment, joy, and bliss, they introduce a new energy both in their own individual lives as well as the lives of others, as well as in the environment itself that will begin to spread more and more, touch more and more as the energies accelerate towards the manifestation of this versus that, which has been so dark, so oppressive and so toxic for so long.

This is how one can be of even greater service. It is not simply in the acts that one performs; it is in the holding of a space, of an energy, of a new consciousness, a new order that shifts the focus, which shifts the reality. Thus if one wishes to be of greater service, this Awareness asks one to enjoy life to a greater degree, to find those moments of enjoyment and happiness and to start stringing these moments together as pearls on a strand, until one has a complete necklace of pearls, or moments of beauty and happiness and bliss.

This is how one can also be of service to the Divine, in implementing the purpose of these times, as all move forward towards that which is Ascension, to the divisional point that will take one either into the higher levels of consciousness and the manifestation of that consciousness, or into the lower expression of consciousness, which is a shifting away from that higher consciousness of self. This is how one can be of greater service at this time. This Awareness is complete with this answer.

Messages in a Bottle Thrown Into the Ocean
(Would This Energize the Message?)

QUESTION:

(Thank you. Very meaningful) Our next question is from Larry Kell, in Indiana. It refers to Almine, the healer's teacher. It also falls in line with Dr. Emoto's work with water, which was referred to in the march 23rd reading. It's basically a "What If" series of questions. The first part is, "What do you think would happen if people living on lakes and along the oceans wrote a positive phrase on both sides of something, sealed it from water damage and threw them into the lakes and oceans? If this was coordinated so that the same phrase was energizing all the major bodies of water on the planet, this might influence the entire world. Even the rain would carry this energy." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness visualizes the concept presented to It by this entity, that proposal of sealing within a waterproof vessel or bottle, the message that is wished to be energized and then flipping the bottle or the waterproof pouch into the water, to energize the water. This Awareness sees it as a humorous concept, for the simple reason that it would create a lot of additional pollution to the world's waterways, and it is also unnecessary. Thus it is that this Awareness does not support the idea as presented by the entity Larry Kell, however It does support in principle, what this entity is trying to present and what he holds as a relevant concept, that being the energizing of the waters so that they hold a new energy that would be available to the masses and to the planet itself.

It is not necessary to do it in the way this individual has presented. There is nothing wrong with writing on a piece of paper the word that is wished to be energized, for example the word "peace" could be written in water-based inks on a piece of paper. One side or both sides, it doesn't matter. This piece of paper can be then thrown into the water, for the water and the ink will break down. There is no biological harm in throwing a piece of paper into the water with the word "peace" written on it, and it will to some degree energize the water it is in.

How to Energize a Glass of Water

What would be even more effective is to take up a glass of water from the lake or the whatever body of water, to hold it in one's hands, and at the same time energize this glass of water with the concept and energies of peace, and then in a ceremonial and sacred way, one could pour back the water that has been energized with the energies of peace back into the body of water. It would dissipate into the water and affect the water to a greater degree than merely putting a message into a bottle and throwing the bottle into the water. This is the procedure that this Awareness would suggest.

What is of greatest importance here is that one acknowledges that there is a fluid consciousness that makes up the liquid state. In other words, this fluid consciousness can take that energy of peace and transmit it throughout the body of water. One drop can indeed begin to affect the many drops of water, and as more and more individuals do such, each time it is done it will serve to energize the water and this fluid consciousness that is also part of Mother Earth's consciousness. This is indeed a planet of water, of the element of water. It composes a large percentage of the body of Mother Earth as well as the body of each and every being on this planet.

The Ancient Practice of Blessing

When the water is energized by the force of intent and desire, it will be transmitted throughout the body, be it the body of the planet or the body of each and every individual. Further to this, an individual can take drinkable clean water and hold the glass in one's hand and bless the water with the frequency of peace or love or joy or beauty, or whatever one wishes. One does not have to write a word on a piece of paper to do this. One simply needs to hold the glass or the bottle in one's hand, then the water will be energized with the frequencies of peace or love or beauty, and then be swallowed by the individual.

This will of course touch the fluid within the body, and be transmitted throughout the body, bringing that level of peace or beauty or love that is being energized, to the body. This too would be of great value as one begins to understand how one can affect one's environment around them through such an action of blessing. This was once known and practiced to a great degree, but with civilization came a loss of this understanding and thus, a separation from this ancient practice. This was the actual practice and purpose behind prayer originally, and that to bless one's water and to bless one's food will be to put a higher vibratory energy into one's body, and it will have a strong effect.

To return to the original premise of the question, it is not necessary to put many bottles containing a message into the lakes and rivers and oceans of the world. It is simple enough that all is needed is that one puts the focus and the energy of focus into the bodies of water, either through the process this Awareness has just described, or in any other way that would put that intent, desire and prayer into the energetic fields of the waters of the world, be they the bodies of waters that exist on the planet, or that level of fluids that exist within each and every human body, each and every being on this planet.

This Awareness is finished with the first part of this question.

Working With Crystals and Water

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Larry carries on, "Has anyone experimented with engraving words on crystals and putting them in water? Or forming letters with crystals? It is easier for me to understand something more solid and three-dimensional having an effect on water. This may magnify the strength of the end result. If written words affect water, what else can they affect?" Comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The first thing this Awareness wishes to express is that it is not written words that affect water. The written word is a symbolic representation of the principle of the word. In other words, it is not the word "peace" written on that piece of paper that affects waters. It is the intention of peace; it is the focusing of the energy of peace, symbolized through the word written on the piece of paper that affects the water. This Awareness wishes this to be clearly understood.

It is for this reason that this Awareness spoke a moment ago that there is not the need to put the message on a piece of paper and in a bottle which is then deposited into the body of water, but the same can be accomplished by simply writing and fusing the energy of peace into a piece of paper through the word written on the piece of paper, and then putting this in the water, or holding a glass, infusing the glass with the energy of peace, and pouring the water symbolically back into the lake. In the matter of engraving a word on a crystal, this is seen as being a possibility for those who are so adventurous and enterprising that they would like to acquire the equipment by which such an action can be done.

It is however, not seen by this Awareness as an action that necessarily is of great worth or benefit. One could indeed write on a piece of paper which is then taped onto the crystal, the energetic word that one wishes to be energized, but again, this also is not seen as entirely necessary. However, if an individual is of the nature as Larry Kell, who has stated that this works better for him, then this Awareness would say to go forward and do it this way, if this is the way one feels most comfortable with. This Awareness is not abolishing this as a possibility. It is simply saying it is not entirely necessarily.

How to Work With and Infuse Crystals

Working with crystals, one needs only to infuse the crystal with the energy that one wishes to infuse the crystal with. They hold the matrix that will hold the energy that will then contain the frequency of that which is being infused into the crystal. Again, one could hold a crystal, one could sit in meditation listening to peaceful meditative music, could feel that sense of peace that they purposefully, with intent and focus, put into the crystal. One could put into the crystal 'joy', 'happiness', 'abundance', any concept, any energies that were wished for. The crystal would hold these energies.

That crystal could then be used to further infuse water for example: placing a crystal that has been infused itself with the energy of joy and happiness, placing that crystal in a glass of pure water, placing that water on a window sill to allow the sunlight or the moonlight into it, will create an energized water of joy and happiness that the individual can drink. In addition, the individual blessing this water and opening oneself to receive the bounty of this energized water will have a most powerful effect on the individual drinking this energized water.

This would be the more simple way of working with crystals, of infusing them and energizing them with the energies that are wished for, be they energies of peace, joy, happiness, abundance, or a broad range of many positive energies that one could work with. This Awareness encourages this action and encourages a sharing of these practices with others, so that they too might begin such a practice. As more and more begin in earnest to infuse their drinks, their crystals, as well as the objects around them, there will be a greater energizing in the most positive way of the world itself and all aspects of it. This Awareness is complete with the question.

Writing Positive Phrases on Electronics?

(Like TV Cables and Cell Phones)

QUESTION:

Larry carries on. What if you wrote a positive phrase on the outside of an electric cord, or a cable TV cable, satellite TV cable, or computer cable or phone cable? Could the energy of the message be carried by electrons through the entire network of power and communication cables all over the world? How about writing a phrase on cell phones? Would this energy get carried by satellite TV and cell phone signals? Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is a different matter indeed. First of all this Awareness wishes to state it would not harm anything to write the word on the cable, but it is seen that the energies involved here are quite different than the fluidic consciousness that is involved in liquid, in water. It is not seen that this would be highly beneficial in the same way; it is simply seen that it will help the entity who does so to feel better about the energies entering into their space by putting the word on the cable.

Again, as this Awareness has already spoken, it is not so much the piece of paper with the word written on it that is magical, it is the Creator Being's intent who has written the word on the piece of paper that is to be conveyed to the water that is being infused by that energy. The living energy or force of electricity is a different medium, and needs a different way, a different handling. There is also in the energy of electricity a certain danger that is involved. Thus one cannot just handle electricity as one would handle water. One cannot immerse oneself in electricity as one can immerse oneself in water. One could not drink in electricity or electrical charges without harming oneself as one could drink a glass of infused water.

This does qualify this energy source and makes it a different procedure. Still, it is the intent and desire of the individual Creator Being who is working with this that is of greatest importance, and therefore, this Awareness does suggest that individuals who are so inclined experiment with this and see if there is any difference in the energies, perhaps of the house through which the electric cables run. See if there is any difference when one has infused the cell phone, the mobile phone, with a positive concept or a positive energy.

This Won't Solve the Problems Cell Phones Create

There is one further thing this Awareness wishes to add to that which is the matter of cell phones. The energies of the cell phone are highly toxic and dangerous. This Awareness has spoken of this matter on previous occasions. Creating a positive energy does not mean that the harmful microwave energies that are employed by the cell phone would not harm an individual. Thus, this Awareness would suggest that one be careful in overusing a cell phone, even if that cell phone has pasted on it somewhere a positive word; this by way of warning.

This Awareness feels that this matter is complete unless the energizer has a question of this Awareness.

Photos of Water Crystals Sent by E-Mail?

(Would They Influence People Looking At Them?)

QUESTION:

No, not really. He carries on about if a specific e-mail title was sent around by a large number of people, that it would then get into communication cables, or if photos of water crystals made under the influence of the phrase are sent around in e-mails, would they influence people looking at them? That concludes his questions.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is an interesting concept. It is not a photo of water that has been charged in a certain way with a certain energy that would affect the consciousness of those who see the photo. It is not the title, it is again the energy or intent of the individual who sends this message. To open an e-mail and see as the subject heading the word "peace" that has been focused on by the individual sending the word, as the subject heading, will have a positive effect. It will affect consciousness and touch others.

Thus, in a manner of speaking, the word will have a positive effect, especially if there is an intention behind the purpose of the word and why it was sent, or the photo which holds to the individual sending the picture or the photo, an intent, but this is not as strong as drinking the energized water, or pouring the energized water into a larger vessel or even into a body of water. Again, this Awareness suggests that this energizing of the subject of a message be practiced, but it is the sharing of that message with one another that truly will bring this into consciousness, and will create an energetic force, versus just the word itself being written.

Does this explain this matter sufficiently?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does, and we thank you for that.

Discrepancies in Sitchin's Work?

QUESTION:

The next question comes from Dennis Chase, in Oregon. He writes, "I have been reading Zechariah Sitchin's Earth Chronicles and even though Awareness states that the info is highly accurate, I'm wondering if Awareness could explain some discrepancies please? On page 6, of Issue 623, Awareness states that the orbit of Tiamat (Wormwood, Planet X, and other names) is ten thousand years, while Zechariah Sitchin states on page 247 of The 12th Planet that it is every 3,600 years. According to Zechariah Sitchin the planet did collide with Maldek, but Awareness says that it was destroyed to prevent damaging Tiamat." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness at this time is not prepared to answer this question. There are confusing energies at this time that this Awareness is not able to work through.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. We'll put it forward to another session? Is that satisfactory?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This would be satisfactory.

Discrepancies Between Channels

(Choosing One Source, One Truth Over Another)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) We have another one from Dennis who writes, "There are also some differences with Messages From Michael, which seems to say that the Space Brotherhood will protect us and not allow the manipulated and intense weather anomalies to cause as much damage as they are intended to, nor will a nuclear device be allowed to discharge. I'd like Awareness to address these discrepancies or expound on these subjects. I realize that we are to look to many sources, especially within ourselves, to determine for ourselves what the truth is, but I feel correct when I read either Awareness or Michael, and wish for some clarity please." Your comments?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is a worthy question at this time, for it brings to light a very important matter, that matter being choosing one source over another, choosing one truth over another. In this case, the choice seems to be between the writings of Michael versus perhaps the information provided by this Awareness: Which is right? Which is wrong? The truth of the matter is that both are right, but both must always be questioned. The writings of Michael come from a slightly different level of consciousness. They represent for many a desire to be saved, to have that which is the Galactic Brotherhood come in and save humanity.

As Creator Beings You Can Affect Your Own Reality
(Don't Wait For a Galactic Cavalry to Save Your Day)

The resonance behind this is that there are indeed protective forces that are working with mankind, especially at this time, when many are awakening, and starting to advance their consciousness. But at the same time, there is also a need to understand, as the entity himself has done, that the answer also comes from within. The truest responsibility for the changes that are coming are held by the individual, and as Creator Beings, it is important to wake up to this even deeper truth: that as a Creator Being, one can affect one's reality to the highest degree.

To begin to see that the reality one experiences is the result of one's beliefs and one's actions will help each and every individual begin to understand that it is not simply the Galactic Cavalry charging in at the 11th Hour that will save the day, but it is the individual energizing a different truth, a different reality for oneself, as well as for humanity that will allow energies that are conducive to the protective bodies available to assist mankind, assist the planet at this time, to shift consciousness. To believe that there is no need for action on one's part, to simply give this over to the Galactic Federation or to Ascended Beings or to whatever force is there without participating oneself in this process would be erroneous.

It is a requirement to the expansion of consciousness and awareness to understand the truth of the concept of being a Creator Being, to understand that responsibility lies on each Creator Being to be a participant in the process of shifting consciousness. One begins this process by focusing on oneself, healing oneself, releasing oneself from old paradigms of thought and belief that would limit one, including those beliefs that someone else will do it for them, be that someone a current president or a Galactic Federation or a body of Ascended Beings who are here to help at this time.

It must always start from within, projecting outwards, creating a new truth, a new reality that each individual will discover, and each individual will experience, each individual will energize. This then works in combination with those very energies that Michael has spoken of, who are here to assist and teach and guide humanity on the journey, but they are here only by invitation. They are here only when it is seen that those who have an understanding of this matter begin to accept the responsibility of that understanding and start to act on it, start to visualize and create in the mind and in the heart, the new world, the new reality.

A Door Cannot be Opened Unless You Insert the Key

This will then allow those participating forces that are here to assist mankind in the process itself, and there will be an acceleration, both of the individual moving forward into an even stronger consciousness of awareness, of how one as a Creator Being truly creates, as well as the co-creative action with others who are here at this time to assist in the process. A door cannot be opened if one does not insert the key into the lock that will open the door, thus allowing those who are on the other side of the door, who would wish to help one, to enter into the house and to render assistance.

This is exactly the same as this Awareness is saying, that as beings begin to understand themselves as true Creator Beings, as they take responsibility for their creations, as they question that which has been provided to them, then they will take the appropriate actions. If however, they choose one over another, choose not to define themselves or investigate their deeper energies and their deeper possibilities, they constrict themselves. This is the other part of the question that this Awareness started to speak of, that being the choice of one being correct and another being false.

This is the old way, the old paradigm. This is the conflict that still exists in humanity, where many have chosen a force, a principle, a god, a religion, over other forces, gods or religions, where one suggests that only that which they believe in is the Right Way and there is no recognition or acknowledgement that there are other ways or that one must be open to other thoughts, other beliefs. This is at a much lower level than this Awareness was talking about a moment ago, but this Awareness is still stating that in a choice of that which this Awareness presents or that which Michael presents that it is not truly an answer to choose one over the other, one teacher over another, one religion over another, but rather, an opening to all, to let that which resonates with one, resonate with that individual.

In other words, the individual asking the question resonated with both Michael and this Awareness and this is fine, for he needs to find his own inner truth ultimately and not simply choose one over the other, but rather to allow both to resonate his inner being, his inner truth, so that he may discover that truth that he is the Creator Being and that which he creates is that which he will experience, that which he will share, that which he will call in. Does this explain the matter?

QUESTIONER:

I think very well, and it is much appreciated. Thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The minor issue that this Awareness was trying to address also is that matter of what exists on the earthly plane at this time where so many believe one source or another, one authority or another, but do not open themselves to that which is the blending of all truth to find the inner truth, that which will always lead one forward. This Awareness is complete with the question.

What to Expect On Dec. 21, 2012 – The Moment of Ascension

(More on Earth's Rotation and the Days of Darkness)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) We have a question from Jan in Holland. He writes, "I would like to know if it would be possible for Cosmic Awareness to comment on the following question, if our planet will experience a reversal of its directions as to its rotation in the coming years. Will we experience as a result several days of darkness? There are some people writing on this subject. As I understand it, in case this happens, before reversing its direction, its rotation stops. When the rotation stops there will be no electromagnetic energy field caused from the spinning. There will be no friction with the solar winds and rays. This will result in darkness. This could explain the three days of darkness as foretold by various sources."

Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is prepared to introduce a new understanding of what will occur during the time of Ascension, especially around the forecast date of December 21st, 2012. This Awareness will go completely away from what was presented in the question for a short while in order to present Its information. On that date which will be the moment of Ascension, for this Awareness has already presented in the past that the actual date, 2012, December 21st, may not be the correct date due to certain shifts and changes in the calendar. Irregardless of this, even if this happens sooner, the same principle applies.

The Alignment of the 7 Planetary Gateways

From that which is the central sun of the galaxy, that which is Halcyon in the Pleiadian system, at that moment of the alignment of the 7 planetary gateways represented by the planets, the stars; there will be an alignment, a corridor directly from that which is the central planet to the planet earth. Earth is already moving forward towards this moment of alignment by adjusting and advancing many levels of consciousness, both in its own planetary consciousness as well as many of those Light Workers, and Wanderers and beings who exist on the earthly plane at this time, and who have chosen to come onto the planet at this time to assist this process.

When the Portals Open a Tsunami of Energy Will Hit Our Planet

At that actual moment of complete alignment where the 7 gateways are opened, there will be an energetic force that will travel from the central sun to the planet earth, but the 7 gateways are the same gateways that the human soul either passes through as it descends into human form, or upon release of human form, passed through on the way to Its greater expression of Its being. With the opening of these energy portals, these gateways, when the alignment occurs with the central sun, the force that will go through will be that force which will carry the planet to Its higher frequencies. It will be as a tsunami of energies that hit the planet at that time.

It is for this reason that it is necessary for those who will ascend to have raised their consciousness to a point so that when the energies hit, they will simply ride the wave and come to the new shoreline. In this time, events can occur as described by the entity Jan, such as the time of darkness, the shifting of the North/South poles, the shifting of the planet, the turning over of the planet. Those who are of that higher level of consciousness, that higher frequency, will not be destroyed by the tsunami of cosmic energies and consciousness that will overwhelm the planet. They will be carried upwards or forwards to that new state of consciousness, that new level of vibration and frequency.

Long Predicted Catastrophic Consequences Await the Masses

Those who do not achieve that higher level of consciousness that will allow them to surf this energy wave, will be affected most negatively by it. It is at this time that the catastrophic consequences that have for so long been predicted by so many will indeed impact a majority of the beings on the planet. Many will at that time leave physical existence, through the death experience. This will become their way of removing themselves for there is no wish on their part to experience that which will come, as those who survive this period of time experience the reality of a new physical world, that being the energies of that planet which this Awareness has called Planet B in the past.

Those who choose to simply leave will reenter spirit form and it will be their choice whether to continue existence on that which is Planet A or Planet B or any other dimension that they choose, for it is the choice on the spirit level that is relevant to what experience one would have in whatever dimension of consciousness one would choose. They would thus be free to make whatever choice they would wish to make. Those who survive the catastrophic consequence of a planet stopping its rotation, of its poles shifting, of even the planet tipping over on its axis, will find that they truly do live in another reality than that which was the norm such a short time before.

The Coming Cosmic Tsunami and the Elite on Earth

All that was will have been swept away, and they will be reduced to a most basic and primitive state. There will be those who will anticipate this event, who will have prepared for this event, and those are the ones this Awareness has called the Elite in the past. They will have with them those who would serve them, those who would be party to that experience, but there will be many who survive at the most primitive level on a planet that no longer is as it once was. This too could be a consequence for those who wish to experience this form of reality of a cosmic tsunami that would hit and will hit the planet at that time, but it is only one of the consequences, for there are other ways that one will pass through this experience, either by leaving the physical or by ascending on the crest of the wave to that which is Planet A, the ascended higher level of consciousness.

This energy will be the purest energy of consciousness as it sweeps over the planet, but it will have at the same time, a direct physical result that if one is not fully prepared for, could have devastating consequences. This Awareness understands It has opened a new door at this time and It invites any and all further questions from those who would seek to understand this matter to an even higher degree, but at this time, this Awareness feels It has completed Its answer to the questions of the entity Jan.

QUESTION:

Will There Be A Buildup to December 21?

Just one quick question: Would there be a buildup prior to the proposed date of December 21, or would it be a "Bang! Game Over"-type thing?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There will be a buildup to this. This Awareness has discussed this in the past. Many entities will not necessarily wait until this final event. Many will either pass through the natural death cycle or will find a vortex or another way of ascending, and then those who are left will ascend in this manner, if that is their choice.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you. That was excellent information to be aware of.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There is more, but this Awareness is leaving this for a future time.

QUESTION:

All right. I appreciate that. Is there a closing message please?

It's Time For Light Workers to Pull Back

(Time to Relax, Have Fun and Find the Voice Within)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Much has been spoken of today about the role of the Light Workers, about the energetics that they are experiencing in this plane of consciousness that permeates the physical planet at this time. It is indeed the time to realize that for many of the Light Workers, the only way forward to some degree is to pull back, to withdraw their energies somewhat from the third dimensional reality, to engage it at a minimal level so that they can survive, for it is for many almost a case of survival at this time, and the only way for them to survive is to pull back and to become more reclusive at this time.

This is certainly the case for the Interpreter, but it is also the case for many of the Light Workers, the Wanderers who talk to him often, who speak to him and connect with him. He has seen how many of those Light Workers have pulled back. This is the requirement for those who have this requirement. There are other Light Workers who are not so affected and can still participate more actively in the physical reality. Neither is correct or wrong. It is simply the way that it is for those who experience it that way, either way, or any other way for that matter.

Today the Energies are so Toxic It's OK to Withdraw (Even From Close Friends and Family)

For those Light Workers who do feel at this time a disinclination to participate in physical reality, this Awareness suggests that one does not feel guilt over this, but rather that one recognizes it and understands that it is because the energies are so toxic at this time, so demanding at this time, that if it is the desire to pull away from this, then one would benefit to a major degree by the following of this inner dictate that one pulls back somewhat energetically from their involvement in 3rd dimensional reality. This would even include pulling back from certain individuals that one has been involved with in past times, be they friends, be they family, be they work colleagues or acquaintances.

This is part of that which is needed at this time, as one begins to define themselves at that core level of their being. It is part of the process of pulling back into the center of one's own circle, of becoming the center of one's own circle, with a distinct perimeter around them, a border around them. By becoming self-centered one will stay in their power to a larger degree than what will be experienced when they go outside of their boundary and are partaking in a level of reality where they are not centered. It is at that time that they will lose their power and feel drained by the 3rd dimensional reality.

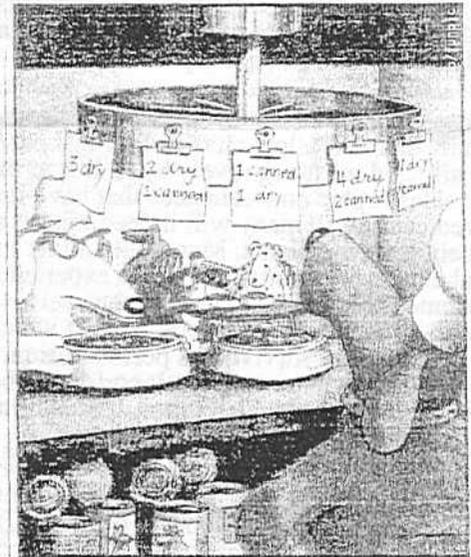

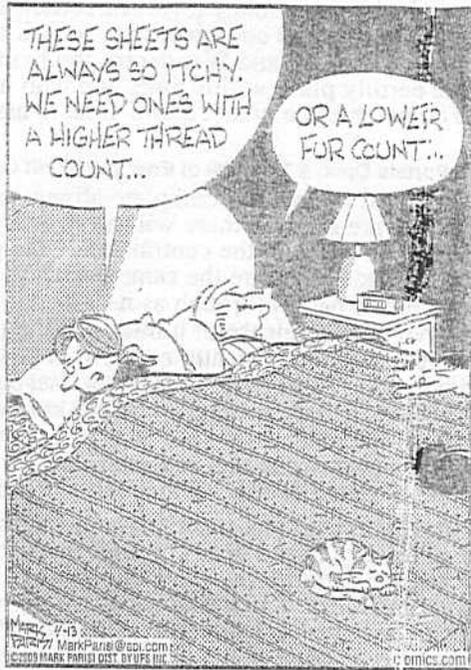

All Light Workers Must Now Take Time For Themselves

For this reason, this Awareness is suggesting that all Light Workers do take time for themselves to meditate, to listen to music, to go for walks, to do whatever it is that would rejuvenate them and regenerate for them their life-force energy. By staying in the center of their own circle of being, even if this is through being reclusive, this is indeed what is needed by the individual at that time. This Awareness does support this as an action that will assist and help all Light Workers to hold their space, to stay at the center of their own circle, and to be self-centered.

When the time is once again such that they need to become more extravert in their activities, then this will occur, for the timing for this will be right, but not to force this, not to feel guilty over it if the opposite exists that one is pulling back from such activities, but rather to find the voice within, to find the resonance that is within oneself and to follow that voice, to listen to it and to respond to the resonance that comes from within, for that is the resonance of Spirit Itself that seeks to guide and support all Light Workers at this very crucial and critical time.

This Awareness is complete at this time.

(Thank you) (The Law of Gratitude is given)
