HOW MEDIA MANIPULATION WORKS

(Looking Behind the Scene at Controlled Events)

QUESTIONER:

Does Awareness have any comments for the readership concerning any of the current news events presently active or previously discussed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes it to be understood that even though the news that is reported is manipulated and controlled, more and more evidence will begin to filter through of the plans of those who have dominion and charge on this planet, those who this Awareness has in the past called the Elite, the Powers That Be, that which is the Orion Empire, the Orion/Reptilian Faction. Not only will more evidence begin to filter through, that which is the controlled information must also be viewed with open eyes, with the fullest awareness that often that which is being presented is manipulated and controlled and the information and the news that is being shown is often far from the truth.

President Obama In Bozeman Montana Town Meeting

Recently, there was shown on the news services a visit that the President made to Bozeman, Montana. The reporting showed a very agreeable crowd that was at the town hall meeting, all well disposed toward the president, giving the general impression that President Obama was still very highly respected and adored by the masses. While his popularity is relatively high still, there certainly has been a tarnishing of the star in recent months with much protest starting to appear towards this individual and his presidency.

This controlled event did not wish to give the impression of derision or divisiveness or challenge. Therefore, the alleged town hall was set up to be a reflection of that which those who manipulate these events wish to show to the public, a very friendly town hall, while the truth of the matter was that outside of the building that was being used, at a distance, were those who had come to protest, those who were in disagreement to that which the president and his cabinet, his government are formulating and putting together.

This must also be understood as part of the news that is now being presented that it is a misrepresentation of true events, a created event, designed to show a certain way of things, and in these times it must be understood, as one views the news or reads the trade papers, that often the stories that are contained therein or are shown on the television channels are controlled events that have been manipulated.

First Always Ask: Who Does This Serve? What is Represented?

One must begin to learn how to read between the lines, and one must be able to see behind the scenes being presented that these are fabrications and are not entirely true. Even when extraordinary events, cataclysmic terrorist events are shown, one must first and foremost ask: "Who does this serve? What does this represent?" One must become very educated in how one views and interprets the news that is shown on the media and controlled press. One must learn to be discerning and ask immediate questions when viewing the news.

There will be, as this Awareness has just spoken, more and more evidence of the changes filtering through the news despite efforts to control and manipulate, but still, much of that which is on the evening news will still be of a formula that seeks to control and manipulate and those who watch the news must truly understand the purpose of the news: that it is to create a scenario, a belief that presents events in such a way that they support the government and the president, while at the same time fostering fear and negativity. This too is part of the purpose of the controlled media, not only to control what is being shown and manipulating public opinion, but also to create mass fear and paranoia, to create a negative atmosphere, where individuals because of their negativity and fear are easier to manipulate and control, are easier to take down the garden path.

The Swine Flu 'Pandemic' Being Reported

A point of fact and an example to this is that which is currently occurring with that which is the H1N1 virus that is being much publicized at this time. It is being presented that vaccinations need to be taken to prevent the ill effect of this virus. It is being touted as a pandemic and the World Health Organization has raised its status to such, and yet the truth is that fewer people have died worldwide of this particular strain of viral infection than those who have died from that which is the common and seasonal flu. The numbers are significantly higher for those who have died of the flu, and yet this is not reported in the least.

A fear Factor Being Created that Many Will Die

What is being reported continuously, driving all to despair, breeding the negativity and fear, is how dangerous this flu "will" be. This is very refined for this creates not only a tension and negative atmosphere, it also is creating the belief that this impending pandemic will be so disastrous that many will die, and in the belief that this will be so, working on that which is the fear factor, those who are in charge, those who have control and dominion over this matter, are creating a mindset for the sheeple, the masses, the peoples who are being led by the nose to seek the vaccination to prevent their getting this particular virus.

The vaccination is not what it appears, and there is a deeper and ulterior motive behind first and foremost the creation of this particular viral infection, and second of all the vaccination and what it wishes to achieve. This Awareness will not at this time go into a deeper expose of the vaccination and what is contained therein. It will however, suggest that the members be highly suspicious of this solution and despite what they hear through the media, what they read in the papers and what they hear from others who have bought into this scenario, that they be diligent in their opposition to this vaccination, and that they truly investigate at deeper levels why this vaccination is being pushed so hard on the masses, and in the end, if it is within the individual's frame of reference that they do not wish to take this vaccination, that they do not do so, if that is their own choice and desire.

It's All Part of an Overall Shift and Change Toward Ascension

This Awareness cannot outright state that this vaccination must not be taken. It can only suggest that consideration be given to taking this vaccination, and that this vaccination is, as this Awareness has said, not all that it seems. Having given this warning, this Awareness further states that in these very difficult times that the membership understands that this is all part of the overall agenda, not only that agenda that comes from those who are the controllers and the manipulators of society, but also that which is the highest spiritual agenda, that which is the agenda that moves this planet and humanity towards change, towards that which is Ascension, a shift in consciousness; much of that which is starting to occur on the planet is part of the overall shift, and change, and even those events that seem to be highly negative in nature such as the H1N1 viral infection that is being released on the planet at this time, are all part of the overall scenario of change and the shift of consciousness.

One would be better served to understand and know this, and while being objective and open to see what is being shown in the news as manipulation of the news, to remember that these reports are indicative of the change and shifts that are starting to accelerate at this time. Even those most negative events of all, those that are creating the worst fear and uncertainty must also be seen in their greater light as events that are truly part of the shifting consciousness, the part of the End Times that are indicative of things changing and the world as it is known coming to an end.

Always Read Between the Lines or Stop Reading Completely

This of course does not mean that those who are aware of it must suffer through and receive the short end of the stick, must suffer the negative events, for it is imperative that one, while being aware of such things, has the ability to move beyond what they are reading about in the papers and viewing on the television or hearing over the radio. One must be able to know and yet be separate to the events that are being reported. If one chooses to watch the news, then one must do it with this focus and this ability to read between the lines and to read behind that which is being presented as the news.

If one is unable to do this and is negatively affected by that which the controlled media is presenting, then this Awareness would suggest that one does not view the news, does not read the papers, and stays away from such negativity, if it has a very negative effect on one and all. It is possible to view the events of the world even as reported through the media, but one must be discerning and aware of the truth behind that which is being presented. Then and only then can one view the news, and see the events that are unfolding in front of one and understand the greater implication of what is being seen and what is being reported.

This Awareness is complete in Its opening message.

IS FORCED INOCULATION COMING?

QUESTIONER:

A question please... with so much information concerning the H1N1 on the Internet, is it possible because of the reluctance of people who are aware of it, is it possible it will come to where forced inoculations are given?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed possible. This Awareness would of course suggest that this is not contemplated or dwelt upon at this time, because the framework of control is not as complete as the organizers would wish it to be. There is still a certain degree of freedom that prevails upon this planet and it is this illusion of freedom that is a protection against enforced inoculation. It is seen that the plan is to control the earth's population through introduction of agents within the vaccination itself that will be highly detrimental to those who are inoculated.

It is seen that the plan is to force inoculation at a stage where the virus becomes so extreme that many are fearful of any and all who are not inoculated, and cry out to those whose plan it is to force all to have the inoculations, to do something against those who refuse to take the vaccination. In other words; the publicity will be such that it will be presented that those who do not have themselves inoculated, who do not take the vaccination are a threat to one and all and must be dealt with, so that those who receive this message will become the voice of this message and will clamor to those in charge to enforce vaccination, at which time the plan is to pass legislation that would indeed take away the freedom to object to this vaccination, the freedom to deny it and to refuse it.

It is seen by this Awareness however, that the virus will never truly reach the proportion that is being predicted by those who have power in these matters. It is seen that there is intervention on higher levels that will defuse the virus to the point that those who are in charge cannot truly justify forcing all to take the vaccination. It will be seen by those many who suffer from taking the vaccination that there is something amiss, that there is something wrong with the vaccination, and this will cause many others to refuse to take their shot. Once this occurs, it will spread quickly. The knowledge will spread quickly that the vaccination is more deadly than the pandemic which is not seen by this Awareness as reaching the full potency that it is designed to reach.

There will be agencies that will intervene to prevent the full effect as planned by those in charge, and this will most definitely affect the outcome of mass forced inoculation. This is that which this Awareness asks the members and the readers to remember and to focus on and to create as their reality.

THE PUSH FOR HEALTH REFORM

(It's Part of the NWO Plan to Cull Humanity)

QUESTION:

Thank you) This is much appreciated and very helpful. While we're talking about health, there's a lot of information in the news about health reforms and President Obama. Is there any comment on that please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The health reform is but a blind for deeper measures that not only President Obama, but his government, his handlers would have happen at this time. It is all part of the New World Order's agenda to enslave and control humanity. It is part of the agenda towards the elimination of many who are seen as peripheral to the true needs of those who have dominion, and it is part of the culling of humanity that is now being moved towards. There are very ominous aspects to the plans that are being presented. It is not simply about creating a universal health system, but rather it is about starting to create a mind-set, a consciousness in the United States of America that has no tolerance to those who are infirmed, those who are seen to be a blight upon the public resources of the nation, those who are defined as no longer having the capacity to serve the nation in a meaningful and purposeful manner.

Thus, it is seen that built into the health reforms are plans that will allow the elimination of those who are infirm, those who are physically disabled, those who are elderly, those who are mentality incompetent. This form of euthanasia that is written into the health reform is dangerous, for it sets a precedent that there are many who are not qualified for life for they are a drain on the economy, they are a drain on the nation.

It is because this president has such great popularity; it is because his charisma was so great that many find it hard to believe that this self-same man and his government might dare ever suggest such things. Those who have supported him, especially from the middle classes and the lower economic classes are those who will be most affected negatively by the proposals of this particular government, and yet it is all part of the establishment of the New World Order's regime, part of their plans for the control not only of the nation, but of the planet, and it is seen that the United States of America is deemed as the most progressed and advanced of all nations, and therefore, these measures must first of all happen in this country.

The True Protest is Against the Government Imposing These Reforms. A Grassroots Uprising has Begun

In other countries the same measures are being put forward, but much more quietly, much more subtly without the fanfare that is attending the publicity that the amendments are creating. The true protest is not simply against the dangerous implications of the health reform, but also against the government that is imposing these reforms. It is being seen by more and more ordinary citizens of the United States that something is happening here that was not what was voted for, not that which they felt would come of this presidency. While it is being reported that many of those who protest at the town hall meetings are being paid off by the insurance companies, this Awareness states that this is not the truth. While there may be a few agent provocateurs who were employed by various agencies, the government included, it is seen that this is a genuine uprising of the people and by the people, a realization that those who are in charge, those who they have elected, are not doing what they are supposed to do, and they are doing the opposite, they are indeed creating a stronger centralized government with more and more power over the people, and people's freedoms are being eroded and taken away.

A Genuine Grassroots Uprising Against Obama is Beginning

They are seeing that this house reform is dangerous in the powers it holds over people's very lives and existences and would put the state in the position of being the prime judge as to whether or not the people themselves have the right to live or to die. There is a genuine grass roots upsurge in the people who are seeing and understanding what is starting to go down; that which is already in full motion, for this is not the start. This is a continuation and an escalation of the plans of those who have been behind the New World Order's regime and plan for so long. This is what is starting to occur more and more and it is seen by this Awareness that the protest will continue to build, the opposition will continue to rise up against Obama and his government.

It is seen that the presses and media of the world will continue to try to place Obama as the leader who cares, the leader who was chosen by the people for the hope he gave for the people, but it will become increasingly difficult as this individual and his government becomes more transparent, to hide the fact that more and more personal liberties and freedoms are being eroded and stolen from the people. It will be harder and harder to paint this man as a hero and a savior when what his actions are showing is that more and more people are being imprisoned, both physically as well as mentally and emotionally.

The great nation of the United States of America will be shown to become more a tyrannical dictatorship with people's rights being eroded and corrupted to the point where eventually they will no longer have rights. They will have been squandered away, taken away, stolen away by those very individuals that they have elected into office. The grass roots process that is now beginning is important in bringing to the ordinary individual the understanding and awareness that things are not as they seem to be.

At this point, this grass roots movement is still very virginal in its potency. In other words, it is not potent. It is so new that those who are part of it are largely unorganized and are not an effective voice and can easily be portrayed as so many crazies who are coming together because they feel their American way of life is being corrupted and that they are being delusional in their reaction that this man, this government is not doing it the way they suggest. It is easy to present those who have a legitimate voice who are speaking the truth, as those who are crazy, those who are delusional, especially if the controlled media of the world wishes to present it this way, but soon it will be seen in the mass uprising of ordinary individuals.

For the End Times, the Ascension, All This Must Occur

Many are starting to see in their own individual lives through their own individual eyes the consequences of the actions of this government and the Powers That Be. This Awareness indicates this is all part of that which is part of the shift in consciousness and that it must occur for many to start to see the truth behind those who hold power, those who lead and are elected as leaders of the people. Very few are leaders of the people or have the people's concern at heart, and it is now time to become more and more aware and more and more active in the protest against those who have charge and dominion of the people.

This is seen by this Awareness as part of that which is the Ascension, part of that which is also known as the End Times. This Awareness is complete.

WHERE DOES SARAH PALIN FIT IN?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Is this issue part of the reason that Sarah Palin from Alaska resigned?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that this is why the ex-governor of Alaska resigned. It is seen that she is part of the New World Order. She has been groomed by those who have power as a potential candidate in times to come. It is seen that Sarah Palin is being groomed to appear in four years time as a savior from the savior. The individual Sarah Palin would come in as a straight-talking shoot-from-the-hip individual who will promise to bring back to the American people their rights, their dignity, and their power, but it must be understood that she is only part of an overwhelming conspiracy to mislead and misguide.

Part of the way it has been done is to present individuals who represent a new way, a new hope, and then bring them in as the answer, just as it was done with President Obama. While this Awareness has often spoken that there is in the man the potential to do great good and to be of great service, it must also be viewed in terms of his actual actions, and what is occurring under his watch, to show and indicate where his alliance and allegiance lie. If, over the course of the four years that he is president, or an extended presidency to a second term, it is shown that he is not the man that everyone thought he would be, then Sarah Palin will be the next presented choice, the next presented hope.

End Times Will Make All This Irrelevant

Saying this, this Awareness would first and foremost say that all of this is somewhat irrelevant due to the tremendous change and shift that is about to occur, and that will occur before the end of President Obama's presidency. While Sarah Palin is being groomed to be the hopeful choice of the people in the future, it is not seen by this Awareness that she will ever assume office, or that she will ever become the first female President of the United States of America. It is more an insurance policy by the Powers That Be to have when their need is such, a candidate that they can run who they will present as the people's choice, but who again will simply be a puppet of the regime of power.

QUESTIONER:

(I see.) Is there anything additional on this topic?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

At this time this Awareness feels complete with this topic. It is relevant to this time, and this Awareness wishes that this information be released very quickly so that many can understand and see that what they are already suspecting and questioning is indeed true and valid, and that individuals start to trust their own instincts. This Awareness has for years been pointing out who and what is behind power. It is time for many to start seeing this in their own way so that they can always suspect immediately that what is being presented is not the truth of the situation, and this way they will not always become embroiled in the negativity of events, but rather will be able to assume a detached nature where they can view the events that are presenting themselves that are indicative of the change that is coming, and they can choose also to stay more focused in the creation of their own reality that will allow their own expansion of consciousness and awareness that will allow them to move forward in the Ascension process and beyond the reach of the manipulators of consciousness, the controllers of humanity.

That is why this Awareness has been as extensive as It has been today in the information It is releasing.

SURVEILLANCE IS EVERYWHERE NOW

Secret Chips Hidden in Michelin Tires, Gillette Blades, Even in Huggies Diapers to Trace You Anywhere

(Thank you. This is much appreciated.) We have a short question now. It concerns politics and surveillance chips. The question is from Iris Schuberth. There is no location here.

(Cosmic Awareness sees and states her location)

QUESTIONER:

(Okay. Thank you) She writes, "The total surveillance of everybody, like the movie "Enemy of The State" ... Wal-Mart uses it already. Do not buy Michelin tires. They have chips, and can trace you everywhere. Also, Gillette razor blades. I think also about the radiation that comes from these chips. They even have it in Huggies diapers for babies! I know. I work for Wal-Mart. Please ask Cosmic Awareness about these chips and what they can do to us. Oh, I forgot! Wal-Mart has them in shoes too!" Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does support that which is presented by the entity Iris Schuberth. Chip technology has evolved to a stage where they are being inserted in many objects. They are being inserted in apparel and clothing. They are being inserted in television and computers. They are being inserted in the tires and parts of automobiles, in the electronic system. This Awareness would even say it is now at a stage where it is truly impossible to avoid all chips that are designed to track individuals for they are located in too many places.

You Can Microwave Chips Out—But NOT Recommended!

One way to deal with these chips is to place the object in a microwave, if the object is small enough to do so.

For example, one could place a shirt that is suspected of having microchip technology in the microwave and fry the circuitry, but there is a danger in this, as portrayed by one individual the Interpreter knows who did exactly this, as he set the apparel on fire and destroyed the shirt completely, and almost burned the kitchen down. Therefore, this is not highly recommended by this Awareness. It is simply presented as one way that can be used to destroy the microchips that are being inserted in clothing and shoes.

However, this Awareness would also say that in a matter of speaking, it does not matter any more. Everything has chips in it, and individuals can be traced and followed, for this is reaching a point of absurdity. This is reaching an extremity that cannot be supported even by the technology that is presently available, for it will become overused and impossible to track. It is for this reason that the experts and those who have charge on this are moving towards a more extreme solution, and that is the *microchipping of the individual**, rather than the hundreds of items that an individual might use.

* An extension of the "The Mark of the Beast" Awareness indicated in the 'Gathering Storm'? Ed.

There are proponents as it is known who support this option in the governments of the world, especially the governments of the Western world. The argument is already being presented that such microchip technology would be most beneficial in tracing children who are kidnapped and taken. While this seems to be a most logical argument and one that makes sense in a world gone mad with sexual deviance, pedophiles and the like, where children are at risk and in danger, it must be understood that this is being presented to play on the fear of mothers and parents, play on the negative effect of presenting such scenarios to those individuals who could be affected thusly through the loss of their children for example.

It feeds on fear, it feeds on the irrational and it feeds on the gullibility of humanity that does not question so much as to react to fear-inducing stimulation. Thus the arguments that using microchip technology to keep children safe is not truly valid, especially when it is seen that the rise in sexual crimes, deviant crimes, is also part of the overall agenda by the same people who are offering the solution. Therefore, the fact that many items are being chipped while on one level of concern needs to somewhat be defused and not taken seriously, for in truth the government does not need to nor wish to follow each and every individual for the majority of individuals are so captive within the box of normality that defines a society that they will never be a threat to the Powers That Be.

It's Time to Lay Low and be Cool

It is those who are free thinkers, those who are spiritually conscious and aware, those who would speak out and object that would pose the difficulty and the danger. This Awareness at this time is not recommending that individuals do so, for it is seen by this Awareness and has been predicted by this Awareness that the Ascension process is accelerating, that extreme profound changes are coming closer and closer. At this time, this Awareness would recommend that individuals who are aware of such things simply stay low key and do not involve themselves in such radical activities that could have them imprisoned.

This Awareness is saying this as a protective lifestyle at this time that will keep those individuals out of trouble in uncertain times. At the same time, this Awareness also must add that those who feel that they must speak out, that they must protest, that they must stand up, can and should follow their conscience, but to be aware that there are consequences following one's conscience. In the end, it may be one's highest calling to stand up and protest. The Interpreter also often feels the need to stand up and protest, but recognizes that at this time there is a reason why he is being kept low key and reclusive, and even though he understands the need for protest, he also recognizes and understands the need to remain safe in these times.

How to Expose the Controllers Without Endangering Yourself

Therefore, this Awareness leaves it to each and every individual to follow their heart and their conscience, but not to become upset if they do not feel they are speaking out loud enough or protesting strongly enough. Protest can happen at many levels, including the inner level, and it is at this level that this Awareness would recommend that those who seek higher consciousness and wish the events of the planet, the proponents of the New World Order plans to be exposed, to imagine and visualize this happening, to understand that as they create it within their mind they create a possible scenario that can be manifested on the planet itself, and that they will then partake in such a truth and reality without endangering themselves by politically standing up to their controllers, those who are seeking to take greater power all of the time.

This is what this Awareness would suggest and recommend as the most effective way to protest those who have power and dominion and who seek to increase their power and dominion all of the time, and seek to take even further charge over those lives of the many that they wish to control and manipulate, to simply begin to imagine and believe a different world, a world where such beings can not do their activities in the broad light of day and in the broad light of consciousness, and to see these individuals as being exposed for the beings they truly are and the purposes they are truly serving.

This type of participation in the shifting of consciousness will exceed all attempts on the parts of those who have power that are seeking to control and manipulate at this time. It is seen by this Awareness that this too is part of the Ascension process, part of the shifting consciousness of those individuals who are starting to see themselves more and more, understand themselves more and more as creator beings in alignment with the great divine Creator Being, with the Almighty God Source and Creator of All. With this alignment and this view of their own reality, much will shift and change and the concern over such matters as the chipping of clothing and the chipping of objects and the chipping of their lives, will simply chip away.

This Awareness is complete with this answer.

UPDATES ON THE FORECAST FOR 2009

QUESTION:

The next question we have comes from Indy Freeman. There is no location. He writes: "I was wondering if there have been any comments or updates regarding the forecast for 2009, especially in economic areas. Now that we are in the period of spring into the early summer months, (this was written June 19th) when the collapse of the economic market, especially first and foremost in the United States of America was predicted to occur, will there be an associated event or trigger that we could watch for? Will it be in the markets themselves or seem to be from an external event? Was the June 11-12 high in the stock market the final high, or is that still to come? Will the US dollar or interest rates be key in the collapse? How will food and other commodities be affected? Any insight would be appreciated. Thank you and love to all." Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The events this Awareness originally predicted in 2008 as factors and events for 2009 have largely been seen to have occurred, but often to a lesser degree than what was seen when this Awareness originally put Its attention to the matter. It is seen that there was upheaval in the summer period, especially upheaval in the economic markets as this Awareness had forecast, however it is also seen that there were mitigating factors that lessened the blow, for it is seen by this Awareness that part of the original plan was to have a collapse of a greater proportion creating a world economic meltdown that was greater than that which had happened before, and thus promote the introduction in North America of that which is known as the Amero, the American unit of currency that is being planned to be introduced in a relatively short time.

The New Money, the Amero, to be Introduced

Because the meltdown was not quite as extreme as had been told, because there were mitigating factors, the Amero was delayed in being introduced for the latter part of the summer, yet the plans are still current. There is still the intent and desire of introducing this unit of currency to replace the North American currencies held by the three countries of the North American Federation, those three countries of course being the United States of America, Mexico and Canada. There have been meetings of the leaders of those three countries of late that have been setting up the Amero and the introduction of this currency, but there is also seen further protests that will occur and certain other factors occurring that will qualify the complete and total introduction of this unit of currency.

The initial plan, the original plan was to simply shut down the banks of the three countries, creating a new currency that would be introduced upon the opening of these banks. This is still seen as on the books, but it is also seen by this Awareness, that while this may still occur, there are other factors afoot that may qualify this from happening exactly how it was planned. It may well be that there is enough protest by certain individuals in the countries involved that will not see their country go fully and totally into the Amero as the only currency available, but rather a split situation system where the country may have two currencies, such as is so in the United Kingdoms, where the people insisted on keeping the pound note, but also have the Euro as an alternative currency that is available in their country.

It is seen that this lesser plan may actually be introduced in the fall period of this current year, 2009. This will be a lesser accomplishment than the original plans that sought to destroy the economy to such a degree that the introduction of the Amero was to be presented as the only way to save the North American federation of the three nations. This is seen by this Awareness as a possible event that may still occur in this present year. The timing that this Awareness sees at this time is in the later part of October and the earlier part of November, but other factors must fall into place first for this to occur. The original plan of the cessation of present currencies of the three lands and the introduction of the Amero is not seen any longer by this Awareness as something that will occur. It is seen as a qualified event that in and of itself may or may not happen.

The economic situation which has been vacillating has been unsteady and wavering for many months, and is seen by this Awareness as still carrying on in the same manner with the possibility that in the time period already spoken of by this Awareness: October-November, that there will be a new attack upon the world's economic resources, their financial institutes, all for the purpose of collapsing the world economy and introducing a single world economy. This would be that which has been long known as the New World Order economy. These are still the plans that the controllers have, that those who have charge and dominion have for this planet, but it is also seen that there are oppositional forces, both on the planet itself: those who would oppose these plans of those who have this control as well as opposition from the higher levels of consciousness: those who are beyond the third dimensional reality, those who are also associated with the Galactic Federation.

There are those who are active in their opposition who are behind the mitigating factors that have held back the initiation of some of the plans that the New World Order regime has had in store for humanity for many years now. Everything is in a state of flux and it is seen by this Awareness that this is challenging those who are in charge, for they have been used to plans going their way and that there is no opposition, and that the ignorance of the masses will always prevail, and they will always feed upon this ignorance, using it to their advantage. It is not quite so any longer, and for the first time in eons, the plans and the formulations of these elitists are not quite going according to plan. This is what this Awareness sees from an economic point of view.

The Consciousness of the Mummies of Ra-Ta to be Released

It also sees that there are other factors coming together for that period of time this Awareness has spoken of; factors such as the pandemic virus that is being released, factors such as the food supplies of the planet, factors such as the rising consciousness of the planet, and the next wave of consciousness that is to be released, with the releasing of the consciousness of the mummies from the mummies of the Ra-Ta period that this Awareness has spoken of in the past. The second wave, the penultimate wave of consciousness that will help elevate human consciousness, and elevate the higher perception and understanding of reality is also scheduled by the Divine Forces and the Galactic Federation to be released around this time.

Be Prepared for Much Chaos and Upheaval

It will be seen as many factors coming together at a point of convergence where the coming together of these forces will create much chaos and upheaval. This must be understood and prepared for with that energy of belief that would suggest to each and every individual that while chaos may reign around them, that each of them is on an island of stability and tranquility, and that while the oceans may rage around the island, that they on their island are safe, balanced and secure. This will help each and every individual who is aware of the rising situation, the calamity that is about to be released, the chaos that will be experienced, to weather the storms of chaos and to ride them out in relative serenity and stability.

WHEN ARGENTINA DEVALUED IN 1983

QUESTION:

(Thank you.) On a related note, in South America, Buenos Aires, Argentina, on June 2nd, 1983, it talked about "Many Argentines have enjoyed their last days as millionaires and today the military government is scheduled to lop four zeros off the country's currency in a fight against inflation. In dollar terms, one dollar worth 80,000 pesos when banks and exchange houses closed on Monday, will be worth 8 of the new pesos when financial institutions open their doors again on Thursday." Is that a similar story as to what can be expected?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not a similar situation, for the country of Argentina in that timeframe was heavily beset by national debt, debt owed to the World Bank, debt owed to the international bankers who had gone into the country and exploited their economic situation, enslaving the country, driving the prices up to a ridiculous level. The military regime at that time sought various solutions to this problem. One of the solutions was to declare war on the Malvinas Islands, that which was the Falkland conflict, and it was felt that by claiming these islands, it would help their economic situation. They were also sending a clear message to one of the international bankers that controlled their national debt, that they were willing to fight them: this of course being the United Kingdom.

Another solution was to arbitrarily simply change the ratio of the currencies, thus one dollar, which previously would purchase 80,000 pesos was now a ratio of one dollar to 8 pesos, making their own peso more valuable in paying off the international debts that allegedly were owed, this by a factor of one hundred thousand times. In other words, if the debt was 8 hundred thousand pesos at one time, suddenly with this act overnight, they would only owe 8 thousand pesos, a much easier sum to pay off. It must be kept in mind that at that time the debt that Argentina owed to the international bankers to the World Bank, was in the billions of pesos and dollars and it was an attempt to seriously eradicate the debt that was owed, by a stroke of a pen.

What Your Money Will Be Worth When Ameros Arrive

The situation that is seen as the Amero is different. It is seen that what will occur is those holding American dollars, Canadian dollars or Mexican Pesos will suddenly have their dollars worth X-amount of Amero's. At this time the ratio is seen as 1 to 6, thus for example, 6 American dollars would suddenly be worth 1 Amero, and that the other two nations would have their own ratio, perhaps in Canada, 7 Canadian dollars being worth 1 Amero, or in Mexico 500 Pesos being worth 1 Amero. The point is that at the same time, the values of objects and services would also be readjusted. Thus, if an individual in the United States paid 600 dollars a month for rent, in new Amero currency that individual's rent would be 100 Amero's. It is an equivalent of value.

The point really being that it is not that there will be a loss of currency, but rather a redefining of their currencies. The psychological factor however will be a much greater one, and it will create a mentality of financial defeat for individuals who strive so hard to save their money only to have it reduced overnight. The biggest problem this Awareness sees is if there is not a proper adjustment of the cost of live to the new adjustment of the currencies. In other words, if there is not an adjustment to the Amero values but they leave them at the old values, this will create much hardship. In the example this Awareness gave, if the individual who paid 600 American dollars suddenly had to pay 600 Amero's for their apartment or their dwelling, that this would be an increase 6-fold to what once was paid by them for their rent or on their mortgage.

This would indeed create massive problems, but it is not seen that this is what is on the books. It is seen that there will be an adjustment of the currencies. There may be an inequity in that perhaps the adjustments will not be a true reflection of the new exchange rate. There might be those who would take advantage of the new exchange rate, keeping their prices higher than had it been a clear swap or one ratio to the other, but this level of greed is already participant in the societies of North America and the world, and therefore, it is simply part of the unfortunate expression of human nature, that as greed is a part of it, that would be a reflection of this happening. It is not seen that this in and of itself is the intent.

It is seen that creating a common currency of three nations is part of the World Bank's overall plan of eventually creating one world currency and it is but a step forward to the creation of this One World Currency. The America's would be the second to do this. The Europeans were first, and it is seen that similar plans are also afoot in the Asian and African nations as well.

QUESTIONER:

(I see. Thank you) There was a blurb that Avaton had put in back in 1983. He mentioned that for loose change, the value of each coin, a dime will literally buy a loaf of bread, and if you still have coins stashed away, you can use them at your local store or gas station etc. Will this be the case?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that this would indeed be the case.

QUESTIONER:

Good advice way back then!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

And it continues to be good advice at this time. It should be remembered that the coins will be given a period of time to be used up. Eventually, it is seen that there is new coinage, new bills that will be made prevalent and available, but there is seen a space of time where old coins can be used.

Also, this Awareness would add that this does not affect gold. Gold will continue to hold its own value, as will other precious metals and precious gems.

CLOSING MESSAGE:

There Are Always Upheavals Before Endings

Right. I understand. Thank you. We're getting close to the end of the tape. Would you like to do a closing message please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to close by stating these are starting to become more and more challenging times for many on this planet. Those who have an awareness and understanding know that this is indicative of the upheaval that is coming, but it is also indicative of that which this Awareness calls the Ascension process. It must always be remembered that there are always upheavals before endings, so that the ending can initiate a new beginning, a new dawn. While one must go through upheaval to reach the end, to reach the threshold that one must walk through in order to be reborn into that which lies beyond, one must not simply be caught up in the upheaval. One must always look forward. One must always see that the end goal is that which must be participated in and perceived, that which must be held as the objective so that one moves forward instead of becoming caught up in the standing events of the time.

Being caught up in the standing events, of believing them, of energizing them, of endorsing them will simply entrap one in those difficult times. The journey itself may be difficult enough without becoming entrapped in the energies that are flowing in the world at this time, the negative flow, the upheaval. One needs to use these energies in a new way as indicators of the change and movement that is happening and to feel the hope behind these events versus the despair, the doom and the gloom, for these are what will be most promoted by those who have charge of the publication and sanctioning of these events.

It is hoped by those who are in charge that many will fall victim to the doom and gloom, will fall victim to the negativity and the fear and in the end will be much more easily controlled and manipulated. Those who have a greater understanding of the actual events on the planet at this time, who can see through them and beyond them will be able to navigate their way in these troubled times and will reach that threshold, pass through it, and emerge on the other side, the other side where this Awareness awaits to welcome them.

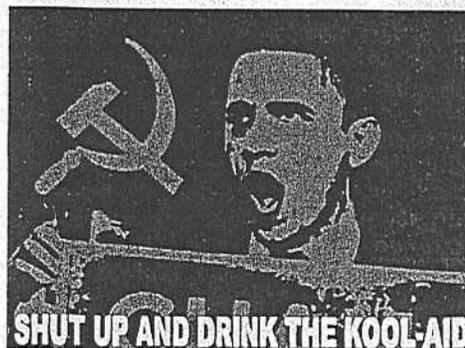

This Awareness is complete at this time.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you, that was very informative and helpful to all of the members and we appreciate it. (The Law of Gratitude is given)

DON'T DENY OR "RUN AWAY" FROM UNFOLDING EVENTS NOW BEGINNING

(More on the Ascension Process)

QUESTION:

Does Awareness have any additional comments for the readership concerning any of the current news events presently active or previously discussed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to indicate how important it is now to not run away from the events that are beginning to unfold at an accelerated rate. By "run away" this Awareness is suggesting that a common way of dealing with unfavorable and unsavory events is to deny them, and to pretend they are not happening, and to run away from them, while still holding a view that in denying events, there is nothing bad that can occur. This is a delicate area for this Awareness has often spoken of the need to make one's beliefs in a way that will be favorable to a positive outcome. This Awareness is not speaking against this, nor is this Awareness suggesting that the creation of one's beliefs cannot happen while one is not paying attention to the events that are unfolding in the world around them.

A Delicate Tightrope That Needs to be Walked

It is a delicate tightrope that needs to be walked, where one can perceive and understand the unfolding events around one and see the situation for what it is, and yet still choose to energize a positive outcome to events that are unfolding. One could watch the news, even the negative and slanted reporting of the news and still not be totally at the effect of the news if one learns how to embrace that which is unfolding as part of the scenario that is indicative of that which is the Ascension process unfolding. The Ascension process has not only that powerful and positive effect on many souls who are already ascending to a higher reality and higher dimensional consciousness, it also has as part of the scenario of events, the unfolding of the negative events, of those controlled events that one must be able to read in order to truly be aware of what is going down.

The Unfolding Negative Events NEED to Unfold

By being aware that those events that are unfolding are exactly the events that need to unfold, that are also part of the Ascension process, one is given a way by which to gauge the progress, both on the worldly level as well as the personal level. As long as one engages in a negative fearful manner to those unfolding events, it is an indicator that one is not totally separated from those events, and does not truly and deeply believe that even while those events are unfolding that they will not affect and impair the individual who is viewing the unfolding events, nor those close to that individual, for in the construction of one's truth and reality one can include loved ones as well, but this must be done with the complete and total understanding that each individual expression of the soul, each aspect of the soul in an individual form or body has the right to bring their own reality, so that even though you might create that image that will include loved ones in your Ascension process, there must be a willingness to accept, if and when those loved ones, those friends and families choose a different route than your own.

The Needless Fear of Losing Your Loved Ones

This is also part of being able to look on the events that are occurring without being wrapped up and entrapped by them. Many are fearful that they will lose their loved ones, forgetting that even if there is a physical demise, those loved ones will not disappear, they will simply carry on in spirit form, returning back to their spiritual source and essence, and that all are ready to shift in such a manner, aside from those who may wish to endure the physical hardships and extremes that will exist at that shifting point where the planet itself also experiences a physical event.

Don't Wrap Yourself in New-Age Fluff: A Very Real Shift in Consciousness is Occurring

Thus it is that this Awareness is trying to say that it is imperative now not to cocoon oneself in illusionary New Age fluff, but to be down to earth and aware and understanding that there is a transition happening: A very real shift in consciousness is occurring. To hold to one's higher views and values, even those New Age views and values which are very deep and profound and spiritual in nature, but to also accept that in the shift of consciousness that there are going to perhaps be events that you cannot totally control, for in the sense of total control, one must have the highest level of consciousness and awareness.

Many will not reach this extremely high level of consciousness, but they will have reached a high enough state of consciousness that on the whole, they will Ascend and their journey of continuing to expand their consciousness will continue on the Other Side of the Ascension veil, the point of Ascension. This Awareness welcomes more questions on this matter, for it may be a difficult concept to truly embrace and embody: how it is that one can be cognitive and aware of those events that are unfolding, even those negative events, and yet still hold a powerful and positive belief that one will pass through these events relatively unscathed and will participate in the Ascension process.

Awareness Welcomes Questions on This Subject

This Awareness welcomes further questions. This Awareness is complete with Its opening statement and wishes to continue with the questions at this time.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you). There are two letters from two different individuals concerning the Ascension process. The first one is from Wilson Wheatcroft, of Holbrook, Arizona. He has seven questions. I can present these one at a time, or present them all for an overview, whichever you prefer.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness prefers the questions separately.

HAS PLANET "A" ALREADY ASCENDED?

(How the Law of Attraction Is Needed At This Time)

QUESTION:

(Very good.) The first one, he writes, "Concerning the coming Ascension of the consciousness of the Planetary Deity to Planet A, is this coming Fourth and Fifth Density Earth Planet already completed or "made", only awaiting the arrival in consciousness of ascending humans from our world, and other worlds when the time is right, or is this Risen Earth, or Eden still being created and perfected at this time?" Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That which must be understood, to understand the answer this Awareness is prepared to give at this time, is that both conditions exist. There already is a planet that exists on the 5th plane that is the Ascended Planet. It exists in form and thought, but at the same time, there is the evolving of the planet towards this higher stage of consciousness that the planet is ascending to. In a manner of perception and understanding, it must be understood that there needs to be a form or a template that exists on some level that will attract to it the evolving form, that which is the planet in Ascension. It is the basis of the Law of Attraction that for something to be attracted there must be something that attracts that which is being attracted.

Creating With the Treasure Map or Vision Board

This is the nature of the vision board that is spoken of in the book and DVD The Secret. This is the nature of the Treasure Map that this Awareness has presented to the membership in past times, and the process of making a wish. To create the form, the thought and to hold it will attract to that form thought, the object of attraction. In this case, the form thought is large indeed: the evolution of an entire planet, the logos and consciousness of an entire planet ascending to its own higher state of consciousness. It is not dependent on human beings reaching a level of consciousness for this to occur, for the planet will ascend, whether or not any of the beings of human consciousness ascend with her.

She is fully aware that there are many that are gauging her progress, that are evolving themselves and that will be part of the Ascension process. There is an energetic that is being created on the planet that will assist those who are moving in this direction, will help them and accelerate them as the actual date of the completion of Ascension draws nearer and nearer. She is aware of this factor, but she is also aware that there are many who will not reach that level that is needed for those who will ascend to ascend, so she will not limit herself only to those who ascend. She will not hold back because not enough have reached such a level. In other words, she is also aware that there will be those humans who have not reached a higher enough level of consciousness.

A Majority of the Human Population is Not Ready to Ascend

She is aware that this will represent a majority of the human population. Her journey, Mother Earth's journey, Gaia's journey is separate to the evolutionary process of the human race, and yet it also embraces it. It is part of the journey, her journey, as well as the journey of the spiritual evolution of humanity. Therefore, she does not hold back her spiritual evolution, waiting for all of humanity to reach that level of consciousness that would be the marking point that would allow the individual to ascend, but in fact, realizes that not all will complete the journey at this time. Still, she emanates through the Ascension process the energies that will assist many to break through the barriers that limit them and hold them back, thus in her own way she is also assisting those many who will ascend with her to whatever degree that they will participate and ascend.

A Perfect Day

THE OPTIONS FOR THOSE WHO CHOOSE NOT TO ASCEND

QUESTION:

(Thank you.). Wilson writes, "My understanding is that the vast majority of humanity, whether incarnated or in spirit, are choosing not to Ascend, but to experience more third-density "Planet B"-type density in their incarnations instead. My understanding is that most all such entities will be shifted in spirit, to other physical planets in our galaxy to continue their evolution and karma, and they will not just "stay with the earth". Is this correct?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

To a degree, this is indeed correct. It is the honoring of the eternal soul and its need to have multiple experiences on all levels and dimensions. This is occurring at this very time and has always occurred. Thus it is that an individual aspect of the soul that seeks a physical experience chooses a time frame in which to have that experience, chooses the fellow participants in that experience who will be mother, father, sister, brother, uncle, teacher, or whatever else will be required in that physical sojourn, and even will choose the peoples they are born into, the society, the country and the economic factors as well as a thousand other factors that will define the physical journey.

Thus it is that the billions of human beings that are on this planet, all aspects of the soul, have chosen this time, and this experience. They have come onto the planet knowing that they enter an extremely delicate time, an important time, the time of Ascension, and that they wish to absorb the energies that are available to them during this time. Some will choose to have the experience that they can ascend with the planet at this time. Some will choose to have a separated experience that will not include Ascension, but will at least be open to the energies of Ascension so that in another incarnation they will be more prepared for their own Ascension process.

Those Who Are Completely Ignorant of the Ascension Energies

Others will choose to be completely ignorant of even the Ascension energies that will be developing on this plane more and more as Ascension draws nearer, and instead will have a purely physical experience separate to the Ascension experience, and yet others will choose to have a declining experience, one where they are drawn further and further away, even from a spiritual understanding, for their choice is to experience only physical reality with no connection to a spiritual understanding or a spiritual awareness. These are the ones that may choose to weather the cataclysms that are to come so that they go into a more primal and primitive experience of the physical that will exist after the completion of the Ascension event.

Many Will Reincarnate in Other Times Past or Future

There are many realities that are chosen and experienced. Thus it is that even those who will not ascend, those who will not progress and instead will die and return back to the fabric of their soul will have the opportunity, as has always been the case, to pick another physical reality or dimension or planet to have another physical life or experience. Included in the choices they would have would be a return to this very planet at another time frame, another time point, and thus they might have a physical experience in Egyptian times. They might choose to have an experience in ancient China, or in the Himalayas. They might choose to come back on the island of Tahiti in the middle ages and have a unique experience of that culture at that time. There is no limitation in terms of time and space. They can choose to incarnate anywhere.

Once again, this is the choice of the soul and each choice is unique and individual. Does this answer the question?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does, and it raises several other questions that will be prepared for another time.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness always appreciates when the information that It presents raises further questions.

DOES HUMAN, ANIMAL AND PLANT LIFE CONTINUE HERE AFTER ASCENSION?

(Will the Present Reincarnational Cycle End?)

QUESTION:

(Indeed. Thank you) His third question, he writes:

"Are third density human, animal, and plant life going to continue here after the Ascension? If so, for how long? I ask this because I do not see our planet's vast life systems as continuing the present reincarnational cycles as "Planet B" on this literal earth planet." Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The literal earth planet, that which this Awareness has labeled Planet B is only one of an infinite amount of possibilities. In one way of speaking to this issue, it could be understood that there will be a continuance on this planet in a way that allows for a logical progression of the planet without it being destroyed and without those who wish to ascend having such an experience. It would then become a parallel planet earth that had another choice and another direction. There are as many different choices as there are human beings. In other words, each individual is free to experience a different reality.

Each Creator Being HAS THE POWER to Dream Their Own Dream

Each creator being has the ability and power to dream their own dream. What occurs often is that many will share a particular dream and thus many will have a common experience. Thus it is because the events will be very profound and powerful in and of themselves, many will experience these profound times and have a common experience that is such that they will share with others a reality that is defined on this experience. Thus, many may have the experience of those solar energies sweeping through the planet creating cataclysm and chaos, and many will choose to check out, to leave the planet at that time, experiencing that which would be understood to be a physical death. Others may not choose to have such an experience and will choose a parallel life, a parallel experience on a planet that may not experience such an event.

This Awareness has spoken of the power of choice in the past and how for every choice made there is a parallel line of focus and consciousness that will carry on with that opposite choice that was made. For many, it is an unconscious choice and they are being driven by their own destiny and choices made in spirit form to have a particular experience of the chaos of this time, or the Ascension of this time, or the destruction of this time. This is a very complex area to understand, and yet this Awareness feels that this must be presented for it is important for all creator beings to understand how powerful they are and how they can choose alternate realities to experience, if that is their wish.

These alternate realities will indeed occur, for such is the power of choice, such is the nature of consciousness that there are many variations on the theme, all of which will be experienced by one or more aspects of consciousness. Does this sufficiently confuse the issue?

QUESTIONER:

(No. When you spoke of parallels, it all fell into place. Thank you.)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The truth is that there are two major themes that are developing which will guide the individual soul aspect towards one theme or another. The primary theme this Awareness has spoken of is that which is called the Ascension theme, the ascending of consciousness through a physical journey to regain its conscious awareness of its true self. Thus, each aspect of the soul, each individualization of the soul that is having a human experience ultimately will seek to understand itself as more than just a physical human being, but as a transcendent being that has chosen to have a physical experience, and Ascension is simply remembering this and waking up to this, and returning back to their higher level of conscious awareness where they will continue their journey.

That which is not the theme of Ascension, that which is the theme of physicality and the separateness of the physical from spirit will seek even the most extreme experience on this theme, that of total separation and remembrance of any spiritual aspect. They will not remember that they are transcendental beings transcending physicality to discover their spirituality. They will see and know themselves only as primal physical beings who must struggle in a world that is devoid of any spiritual understanding or awareness. They too will eventually die in such a life and awaken to the truth of their spiritual being and remember that it was their choice to separate themselves from their own spiritual source and to have this extreme physical experience, but in the end, this too is but a theme among an infinite amount of themes that are available to the soul to experience and to bring back to that which is the Almighty Godhead, the Source and Creator of All.

WHY MOST SOULS CHOSE THIS RESTRICTED PLANET?

QUESTION:

(Thank you. That was very well understood. Thank you.) His next question: "Is it correct that the vast majority of souls assigned to our planet have chosen this type of restricted-consciousness world (in its present non-ascended form) because they/we failed to ascend in the normal cycle of planetary evolution on their original home worlds, and thus needed extra third-density experience earth offered?" your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would agree to this individual's first half of his statement. This is indeed a choice to be experienced and to have as a foundation of further experiences, but this Awareness would not agree to the latter part of the statement that seems to indicate that coming onto this planet is more the result of a failure to achieve a result on a home planet. This is not how it works. It is true that each and every individualized soul that would choose to have a physical experience, indeed any experience on any level of consciousness, does so for the choice of having the experience and the experience of having a physical life where there is no remembrance of one's spiritual nature is simply one of many choices.

Even though one may have a purpose in life, often this purpose is not achieved, and therefore, when the individual soul returns to its greater soul fabric, it sees and recognizes that it did not quite achieve the goals. That individual soul may determine it wishes to return to another physical experience carrying on that theme so that it might have a new chance to achieve the goals that it had set the first time but had not quite managed to achieve. This is not a punishment. This is simply a choice. It is as if the theme that was wished to experience was not fully realized, and therefore, there is a desire of the soul to continue on and have another experience and hopefully to achieve the understanding of the purpose of that life.

Living a "Cluster" Life is Explained (Abandoning Children for Example)

Again, if it fails once more, it can re-choose another theme. Thus there is that which this Awareness would call cluster lives, lives that have a theme and are lived in a cluster around that theme so that one may experience various aspects and elements of the theme. Thus it is that if in one life one wishes to experience abandonment, one might experience a life of being abandoned as a child. Another life might be a life where the person is the one who abandons the children and the wife. Another life might be that of a wife who has had her husband abandon her. These are all the cluster lives around the theme of abandonment and this also has an effect when one is discussing the successful resolution of a theme or a life.

When one has not quite understood the theme, one will come back in another aspect of that theme to experience from another angle until that understanding of abandonment is truly achieved on all levels, from all angles and all perspectives. There is no punishment. The souls who live on this planet are not here because they failed on another planet to achieve some goal. It is simple enough that if they did not achieve it they have the choice to visit another form of that experience, another level of that experience, and to have further experiences.

Why Many Souls Have Entered Knowing They Can't Ascend

Further to this, this is a very unique time in human consciousness. Many souls have chosen to enter at this time, even though they have realized they will not achieve enlightenment and Ascension in this life, but they will experience even in a secondary manner the energies of Ascension, of a planet ascending, of a mass-amount of individuals ascending, and this knowing will then be held in the soul and provide perhaps a new theme to strive for: the theme of Ascension. This completes this answer from this Awareness.

WHAT THE PLANETARY DEITY PLANNED?

(Mother Earth Will Not Abandon Supporting Life)

QUESTION:

(Thank you. That was very good.) His next question: "Is the planetary Deity merely adding full consciousness 4th and 5th Density Life to her 3rd Density karma, or is she shifting Her Support to the new Densities, and withdrawing from support of 3rd dimensional life as we have known it here?" Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would suggest it is the former rather than the latter. She is simply shifting her own consciousness, but that which remains, that which would be an alternative Mother Earth, Gaia, will continue to support life in one way or another. Even that which is Planet B will continue to support life at subterranean levels, even though apparently most of the life on the surface will have been destroyed. It is not that there is going to be an abandonment of Gaia's capacity to support life, but rather simply a changing of that role to those who need to have a different experience.

This Awareness is complete with Its answer.

WILL ZETA RETICULAR SUB-HUMAN HYBRIDS INHABIT EARTH AFTERWARDS?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The next question: "Some Zeta Reticular entities who and have as a species, created a hybrid Zeta-human race by extensive genetic engineering, say that their hybrids will inhabit the 3rd Density earth after the ascension, along with some other humans. This presumably will be a Planet "B" experience. Is this statement correct?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This statement is neither correct nor incorrect. Some will experience this and carry on an existence on that which is Planet B. More will simply die and return back into the soul fabric, for even though they may be hybrid beings; they are still part of the spiritual order of things. They have a spiritual background, a soul group and are aspects of the soul, so they too may return back into the cauldron of Spirit and re-enter physical life again in any way, shape or form they may wish. Then there are those, a handful perhaps, who have reached a very high level of consciousness and will participate in the Ascension process themselves.

It is again a matter of choice.

PLANET 'A': WILL IT BECOME HOME FOR SPECIES FROM OTHER GALAXIES?

QUESTION:

(I see! Thank you). His last question: "Is it true that the Ascended Eden-like Earth, "Planet A", will, upon ascension, become the home and galaxy-exploration and spiritual-education center for many lighted species from all over the galaxy, and inner earth, along with those of humanity who are ascending at that time, all to join together in Unity for Galactic Federation purposes?" Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This too is a variation on the theme. This too can be part of that which is the product of the Ascension process and there will be many who will be attracted to this new level of consciousness and awareness where there will be a combination and a combining of the physical and the spiritual, but in full and total consciousness and awareness, and there may be many who come from other strata of consciousness, other planets, even that which is the Galactic Federation, who will rejoice in that new status of consciousness that exists on Terra, Gaia, Planet Earth, and they will come and participate in this new experiment in consciousness.

This is a viable variation on the theme. This Awareness is complete.

DOES ASCENSION MEAN NOT GOING THROUGH A PHYSICAL DEATH?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) That concludes Wilson's questions. We carry on to Michael Roberts, in Ohio. There are several questions. He writes: "Dear Avaton. I am a long-time CAC member enjoying our nice spring weather here. I wanted to send in some new questions for Awareness about preparation for the coming Ascension. Awareness has already given much about Planet A and Planet B, as our Earth pivots and turns like a ballet dancer in the new energies in preparation for the great change in consciousness coming. Regarding humanity's preparation for the Ascension, my questions are:

1) Does Awareness mean by the Ascension an uplifting into higher spiritual dimensions without the necessity of going through physical death? Does this mean a process that happens individually when entities are spiritually ready, or imply the possibility of large numbers of qualified people in Group Ascension? Or perhaps both? For some others who do die before 2012, will they be able to ascend from inner levels?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would indicate that there will be an uplifting of consciousness, but equally, it could be perceived as an explosion of consciousness into a higher state, a higher awareness. In this higher state, a duality of form will be achieved. By 'form' this Awareness is indicating that it will be possible to have earthly physical experiences while remembering one is totally a Creator Being, a spiritual being having this physical experience.

When one has had enough of a physical experience, one can choose to blink out, to return into their more ethereal state and have their more spiritual experience and be in a higher level of bliss. This conscious choice to either experience a physical form and have physical experiences or reside in spiritual form and have those higher spiritual experiences will entirely depend on that individual aspect of soul's choice in the moment and needs in that moment. It will be a truly liberating form of experience that will see the blending of the concepts of heaven and earth being united and being one.

There will be no need for that process of physical death any longer for each soul and each individual aspect of the soul will have the total understanding that it can choose one form or the other whenever it wishes. At this time, due to the parameters of belief that exist on this planet, those rules and cosmic laws that were formulated to dictate life on the physical third dimensional planet, there was no room for actual choice to move in between both states or forms of consciousness. It was agreed that the parameters of existence on this physical planet that at this time exists would not allow the jumping back and forth between physical form and spirit form unless one had reached a level of high consciousness and high awareness.

A Collective Ascension for Jesus, Buddha, Krishna etc.

Thus it is that the Ascension process on an individual basis has always been available throughout the long history of this planet. Very few have obtained it, but occasionally great avatars such as the historical figures known as Jesus or Buddha or Krishna or others who are lost in the dull annals of time have achieved individual Ascension, but this has all been party to a Group Ascension, a Collective Ascension, where many have reached a high enough level through many incarnations and many experiences to proceed in a group manner through that higher expanded consciousness.

This is part of the difference in this Ascension process to that which is individual Ascension. Others will spur those who are close or ready to this Ascension and it will expand even more as the time grows closer to the completion of the Ascension process, at that time that is commonly held as December 21, 2012. This completes the answer at this moment, but this Awareness asks the energizer if there are any further questions she sees fit to present to this Awareness.

QUESTIONER:

Not on this part, but he has two pages of questions.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Then please proceed.

DECEMBER 21, 2012 MARKS THE COMPLETION OF THE ASCENSION PROCESS, NOT THE BEGINNING

QUESTION:

(Thank you) He writes, "The coming group Ascension process on Earth around 2012 and thereafter may involve two kinds of portal workers: inside and outside.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to answer this first part, for there is a very important aspect that must be present here. In the preceding question this Awareness said and It now repeats that December 21, 2012 will mark the completion of the Ascension process, not the beginning. There will be further work done afterwards, but this will be somewhat separate to the Ascension process that is currently underway. This is the time of Ascension, yet these times are more commonly known as the End Times. This Awareness is very much asserting here that the End Times are also the Ascension Times, and that December 21, 2012 marks the completion of this journey. That which will continue afterwards will be different than that which precedes that Ascension. Please continue.

JOBS OF THE PORTAL WORKERS

(Can You Take Your Dogs and Cats With You?)

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you. That was important information for the membership to be aware of. I'll just read the question again, to keep the train of thought.

"The coming group Ascension process on Earth around 2012 and thereafter may involve two kinds of portal workers: inside and outside. After everyone goes through the opened portals to ascend, some will come back to 3-D Earth to help escort others through the portals. These are the outside portal workers. The 3rd dimension will still exist outside of the portals. The journey and job of the outside portal workers is basically communicating and coordinating with those who must come through the portals with those already in the 4th dimension or the 4th light." Is this correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness agrees. There will be those who will help from the other side, those who are already in the higher-aspect levels of the 4th dimension and lower 5th dimension have agreed to do this work of guiding those through the portal that will make itself available and the variations of portals, for it is not seen that there is only one portal. It is as if there are many portals that altogether will allow the individual to transit through that portal to the higher dimensional levels. They will comprise together that higher-level portal which already is at a higher level of consciousness.

There are also the inside workers, those Light Workers that are on the planet at this time, who have held the line for humanity, who have taken on much at this time to allow the Ascension process to proceed from this side, from this angle of reality. Please carry on. This Awareness will have more to say on the inside workers in a moment.

QUESTIONER:

Okay, he does carry on talking about the inside portal workers.

"The inside portal workers who enter the portals will stay inside and will not return through the portals. Their main role will be to act as teachers and set up various councils. Everyone will be telepathic, but at different levels, some better than others at first until their understanding and awareness grows. People who enter the portals to ascend may be taking their willing families, children, dogs and cats, etc. in this group ascension process to the 4th dimension." Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness will speak to the latter part of this comment first. It spoke earlier that it must be recognized that not all those who are close to an enlightened being will themselves ascend, so while the suggestion is made that while those individuals transiting through the portals will be able to take their family with them, this is only to the degree that each individual member of the family, or even the household pet, the dog or the cat, may wish to go through. If they do not wish to do so for they have another agenda, another purpose, then even though the individual who is ascending would love to see his family, friends and significant others pass through with them, they will not always do so.

One must be prepared for this and truly understand that they are honoring the highest spiritual essence of the being for they allow that which is the individual right of the being to say yes or no to this experience. In a manner of speaking they do not actually allow it, they acknowledge it, for it is not theirs to allow an individual to have a certain experience, however it is imperative that those who have developed those higher levels of consciousness acknowledge the right of each aspect of individualization, each individual to choose their own destiny, even if it is not one that the individual would see as a particularly enlightened choice. It is simple enough. Each individual will choose for himself or herself what it is that they wish to experience.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you). Would it be correct to say the inside portal workers who enter the portals will stay inside and will not return through the portals?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is not correct. This may apply to many who finely enter the portal and feel their work is complete and done. There will however be others who will enter the portal bringing many with them, and yet feel obligated to return back into physical incarnation to help others who are still struggling to reach this level of consciousness that will allow them to ascend themselves.

Some Guides Will Simply Die by Example to Help Others

Also, it is not so that all those who are inside workers will necessarily be involved in creating councils or other activities of this nature. Some will, others will simply be guides to those who are in the process of ascending. They may guide through being a teacher and teaching these individuals what is happening, but more often than not, they will simply die by example, and thus it is that they will help individuals who are ready to Ascend, make the choice to do so.

There are very many different roles that the inside workers will fulfill. There are many inside workers who at this time are very frustrated with their roles for they do not see much happening at this particular moment, and yet they are still doing work at the deeper levels of consciousness, even if they are not fully aware on a conscious waking level what actions and activities they are involved in, in that which is the unconscious level of activity, that which occurs while the Light Worker is asleep and free of the physical body and physical incarnation.

Many Lightworkers Now Bored With Their Lives Are Much Involved in Unconscious Levels of Activity

Many of the Light Workers who are bored with their lives, frustrated with their lives, uncomprehending of their role or purpose are very much involved in such hidden unconscious work, and these too are inside workers, Light Workers who are active at this time without their full understanding of what they truly are doing. This is added to help many who are in this role to understand that even though it may appear that they are not doing anything and nothing seems to be happening, it does not mean that nothing is happening. It simply means that they have not yet reached that timing where they will become more cognizant of their own activities and move into a more conscious choosing of their activities with a perception of the work they are doing, an understanding and a viewing of that work and a seeing that it is indeed all happening just as they felt and dreamt it would.

ONE THIRD OF THE PLANET WILL HAVE AN ASCENSION EXPERIENCE

(IS IT GOD'S PLAN THAT ENTITIES ASCEND?)

QUESTION:

(Amazing). His next question: "Not all on Earth will choose to make the Ascension to the 4th dimension during these times of great change. Kahu Fred Stirling suggests that approximately 2 billion will ascend, about 4 billion will not. Choices are honored without judgment and all are loved and other opportunities will be provided in God's plan for humanity." Is this so?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

There are elements that are correct, and elements that are slightly off the mark. It is not God's Plan as to who will be dealt with and taken care of if they choose not to ascend at this time, but rather each individualized soul's choice. They all will eventually return back into the Essence of the Godhead, bringing their gifts, their presence, their experiences on the many levels of consciousness that exist, back to that which is the God Force, the Godhead, All Mighty God, Creator and Source of All, but it is not God who will make these choices and then reward them if they did not choose to ascend at this time, nor will It punish them either.

This is again the individual choice of each individualized soul aspect. The first part is correct that not all will ascend to the 4th and lower 5th dimensional levels. However, this Awareness would not be bold enough to state in such temporal terms exactly how many will ascend and how many will not. It seems to be a human predisposition to have a numerical amount so that it can be better understood and envisioned. This Awareness simply wishes to say, a larger amount will not choose to ascend in that which is the Group Ascension at this time, for they have not completed their rounds of experiences on physical levels and other levels that they wish to have before they are ready to ascend.

It is correct enough to say that approximately one third of the planet's population will have an Ascension experience and that less than one third will continue to have an extreme physical experience on that which is Planet B and that those who are left will in all likelihood die in a physical manner so that they are returned back into the essence of their being. The percentage of those who will have the physical experience is much less than a third, it is perhaps one eighth of the planet's remaining population. This Awareness will not bother citing actual amounts of people this will apply to. It leaves it at this ratio and is now complete with this answer.

THE EXPLOSION OF THE ASCENSION

(No Sickness to appear in the 4th Dimension)

QUESTION:

Michael's next question: "As people who ascend go through the portals, their physical body is cleansed, their electrons and metabolism is adjusted, their heart realigned and their brainpower is expanded into 4th dimensional levels. As the physical body in-lightens itself, cells of the body go through some drastic positive changes. The cell mitochondria become four times as big as they are now in 3-D. Although some will bring their existing 3-D illnesses with them when they go through the portals, once inside there will be no sickness in the 4th dimension. New understandings and 4th dimensional healing like Signature Cell Healing will bring balance and new peace as awareness of the Christ within grows on different levels." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness largely agrees with that which has been stated. It would put it perhaps in slightly different terms. The entire body, the cellular structure of the body, indeed each and every cell will also experience the explosion of Ascension, and will indeed ascend themselves. There is a collective nature to that which is the physical body that is based on the various organs, cells and systems working together to create and sustain life. As the Ascension process happens and the being advances into a higher state of consciousness, 4th and even 5th dimensional awareness, this will radically affect the body in a way described by the questioner.

This Awareness therefore agrees that basically this individual is correct in the description of the process that will occur to the human body, however this Awareness will also add that many are already experiencing physical shift and changes. Many are already experiencing their bodies in a state of flux. Many are already experiencing a body that has an understanding of Ascension and is responding to it in physical ways.

The Reason Some Put On Excessive Physical Weight

The Interpreter recently received an e-mail from a colleague and friend that was put out by an ascending being who expressed her dissatisfaction with her weight and she was unhappy that part of the Ascension process seemed to be the putting on of weight beyond that which she was used to. This too is part of the Ascension process and is something that has happened to certain of the Light Workers who have agreed to carry a heavier weight of the world's consciousness in these very difficult times, and in order to transmute some of the negative energies of consciousness that are in existence these particular Light Workers had to have a heavier denser body that was more grounded that would allow them to transmute some of those negative energies.

Those of the membership who have experienced their own weight issues of late, will fully understand and recognize what this Awareness is speaking of. Part of the transformational process for these individuals will be the loss of this weight when that task of transmuting and transforming the negative energies on the planet are done and complete. Their bodies will restore themselves and find their most perfect weight and their most perfect equilibrium of health and wellness for they will be going through that accelerated process of self-healing and self-adjustment. This too is part of the Ascension process and the shifting of the physical body into its purer form, its more perfect form.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

A DANGER OF BEING TRAPPED IN THE 4TH DIMENSION SO GO FOR THE FIFTH INSTEAD

QUESTION:

(Okay. He continues): "There are other sources like the Arcturians who suggest that people should be careful about ascending to the 4th dimension, because there is a danger of being trapped on that level, and ultimately some may have to reincarnate back to the 3rd dimension in new bodies to finish the wheel of karma necessary before making their Ascension. The Arcturians suggest people should ascend to the 5th dimension and avoid the 4th dimensional traps entirely." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would agree to this, and It has always stated the upper 4th dimension and the lower 5th dimension. It is in the 4th dimension that what are known as the bardo levels exist, and it has always been understood by those arcane mystery schools that the 4th dimension can entrap the soul. It is also the 4th dimension that contains that which is the Christian concept of purgatory, a place where the soul is held in order to cleanse the soul sufficiently so that it might go on and achieve heaven or Celestria. Therefore, there is some truth in this warning, however this Awareness would add that most of those who are involved in the Ascension process are deeply aware of this and the workers who will guide them, both the inside workers as well as the outside workers as defined in the questions just presented will carry those ascending beings past those levels of entrapment of the lower and middle 4th dimensional levels to the freer levels of the higher 4th dimension as well as those who are even more advanced, through that which is the 5th dimension and particularly the lower strata or bubbles of the 5th dimension.

Therefore, this Awareness does not totally agree that there is danger to simply go into the 4th dimension, for it is seen that the Ascension process and the assurances that are also placed on this process of those ascending at this time is such that the ascending ones will go straight through to those places of safety in the higher 4th dimension and lower 5th. Is this clear?

Awareness Says So Long to the Membership

QUESTIONER:

Yes. Thank you, and I do appreciate it. We've finished off his questions and would you like to just say so long to the membership?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness says so long, as long as all continue on the journey and put their goal ahead of them, that they are seeking the highest expression of themselves, seeking a true understanding and awareness, so long that this is so, that they will continue in the Ascension process. It is also to be understood that those who are in the Ascension process have been involved in many lifetimes to get here. It is not simply the result of being born at this time, living only this life, and deciding that this thing called the Ascension process would be rather neat to do, and thus one will become ascended.

The Ascension process is the result of many life-times of intense experiences and the seeking of one's spiritual self, and the expansion in one's spiritual consciousness. At this time on this plane of existence, more enlightened beings and old souls are available to this, and have worked to come here at this time. Those who are what are commonly called new souls have not the background yet for them to ascend although many have come onto the planet at this time to have a secondary experience of the energies of Ascension as it prepares them on their journey of many incarnations to reach their own final Ascension when it is their time.

Therefore, so long as all understand that to be aware of Ascension and the possibility of Ascension is also to understand that those who have this Awareness have worked hard to get here and that they will also ascend to the level and the degree that they are prepared to ascend to and that has been their choice and their purpose. This Awareness says so long, for now.

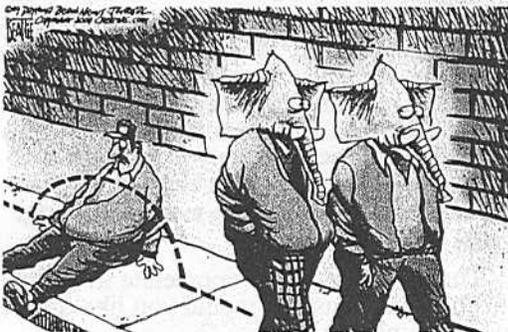

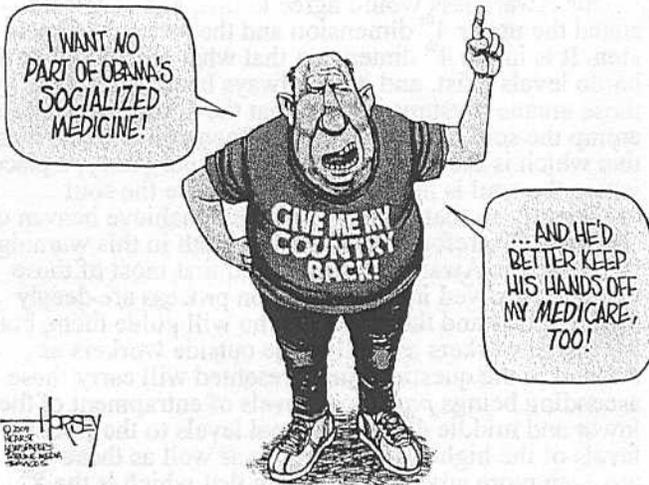

Thank you. (The Law of Gratitude is given)
