THE MAITREYA WORLD TEACHER (He's Back Again. Now What Is He Up To?)

QUESTION:

The first question is from Ted Helinski. He writes by e-mail, "I'm forwarding this e-mail I received because I'm starting to see more and more of this Maitreya stuff. I think something big is being planned to bring in the New World Order religion using Project Bluebeam technology. I remember reading years ago that this Maitreya dude said that he would only make his appearance to the world at large after the world's economy had gone belly-up. You might want to ask Cosmic Awareness about this."

This is his question: He's referred to as the Star of Hope. "Who is the World Teacher? Who are the Masters of Wisdom? Maitreya, the World Teacher has not come alone, but with a group of enlightened teachers who have for millennia guided humanity from behind the scenes. They are returning now to the everyday world to help us solve our most critical global problems.

Maitreya is not a religious leader, but an educator in the broadest sense. He has not come to create followers, but is here to inspire us to create a new era based on sharing and justice, so that all may have the basic necessities of life: food, clothing, shelter, healthcare, and education. His open mission in the world is about to begin. As Maitreya himself said, "Soon now, very soon, you will see My Face and hear My Words!" And he's referred to as the Star of Hope. Any comments on this please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has made a comment on the phenomenon that is Lord Maitreya, the World Teacher. It has spoken that this is a manipulation by the Elite, those New World Order advocates, to control the religious mind and temperament of humanity. The prophecy is that he will truly come forward at a time of great need and despondency, a time when humanity will be in great turmoil with the collapse of their economic system as well as other dilemmas that will be and are about to be released on humanity. It is all part of the overall plan that is afoot, the plan that has been worked on for very many years now.

The Partial Collapse of the World Economy Has Already Occurred

The total collapse of the world economy has not yet occurred, but the partial collapse has already been achieved. It is for this reason that the entity Maitreya has made his appearance more and more of late, as he has been around for several years already. It is this that the entity Ted Helinski is becoming observant of and noticing. This is all part of the escalation of this alleged Ascended Master so that when the masses are at a point of absolute terror, confusion and turmoil, he can appear in a miraculous manner, surrounded by those blue ray miracles, the miracles of technology.

The Alleged Crosses Etched Into Window Glass

The miracle that is most associated with the presence of Maitreya at this time is the alleged cross that is engraved and etched into the window glass of individuals in their homes; a light cross suddenly appears in the glass, and this lighted cross is evidence of the presence of Maitreya or the visitation of Maitreya, and these crosses are available and held by certain groups of followers of Maitreya. This is a miracle of a technological nature. Much of this is based on extraterrestrial technologies that are available to those who are behind the phenomenon of Maitreya.

There are many who wish to totally believe in Ascended Masters who will present themselves through the world leaders and the World Teacher Maitreya who will come and "save" humanity, who will make things right. Their message will be a message of hope and well-being, and of course this will be a powerful message and a powerful narcotic of hope to those who are in fear, those who have lost hope. This Awareness is not talking against Ascended Masters, for there are those who are true Ascended Masters. The New World Order regime knows this to be so, and it is their plan to manipulate those authentic Ascended Masters and to present them in a way that will give others, the masses, a new religious leadership in which to put their faith and trust.

This will be for many the new religion and the new way forward. It is seen however, that this particular cult of religious dogma and belief that will be presented is to be controlled and manipulated by those who have been scheming and plotting and planning for the collapse of mankind and the enslavement of mankind, for not merely decades, but rather hundreds and hundreds of years. All is coming to a culmination at this time as that time of Ascension shift is rapidly approaching. It must be that Maitreya appears in the not too distant future for him to have any effect at the time of Ascension when many will be in a position to choose for themselves which way to proceed.

Questions to Ask Maitreya When He Appears

The more that are entrapped by the teachings of Maitreya and his group, the more that will not choose to Ascend, the more that will be misled and misguided into the false belief that Maitreya and those who are his disciples have the truth and all the answers. This Awareness suggests as It always suggests, that when the presentation is made of Maitreya and he becomes much more visible, that those who are drawn to him ask the questions that need to be asked. Ask whether this is the True Messiah or a false prophet.

This Awareness suggests that the time ahead is the time to find the Prophet Within, the Messiah Within, the Truth Within, and while one may be open to the encouraging messages of such an entity that one does not abdicate their personal power to such a being or such a group for then they become followers versus the leader of their own life, the trailblazer of their own life.

Maitreya's Message Will Be Of Hope—But Hope With a Cost

There is to be seen some merit in the teachings of this World Teacher, but those teachings are universally available and have been available for many decades, and hundreds of years. The messages that will be given by Maitreya and his disciples are messages of hope, but hope with a cost, for it will be recommended that one give over to Maitreya and become a follower of Maitreya to find hope and redemption. This would be giving in to the false prophet, the false god. Therefore, this Awareness does have a red flag to wave around this entity, and around the purported miracles of Maitreya, both those that have already been observed, and those that will come.

His "Miracles" Will Be Based on Extraterrestrial Technology

These 'miracles' will be based on extraterrestrial technologies that are available to the Powers That Be, to the Elite, and they will be used to create the illusion that this being, this World Teacher is indeed a god. Many will be seeking a god for their sense of hopelessness and despair will be so great that the arrival of a being who proclaims himself as an enlightened being would be enough to cause them to blindly follow without questioning. This Awareness of course always asks that one question the information that is provided one, and that one always asks the question of what is to be gained by this individual if those who are followers indeed do follow. Even if the individual him or herself chooses to follow, what would be gained by both of the individuals themselves as well as to the cult or to the leader of the cult?

These are all questions that must be asked. This Awareness asks all to be clear in themselves when such a leader presents itself. These beings are being placed in the path of humanity to mislead and misguide, and to take one away from the true process of Ascension, for it is always easier to be the victim. It is always easier to abdicate one's power in favor of another, to blindly follow the edicts of a leader such as Maitreya, or a political leader such as the President of the United States or even the leadership of those in one's own life, anything but to accept the responsibility for one's life and to make the judgments that are necessary for one to make in order to be truthful and empowered in one's life.

The way of many is still the way of the victim, the way of powerlessness in favor of security that is being offered by those who proclaim to have the power and the answers and the truth. This Awareness suggests that in these coming times of challenge to one's own sense of power, that those who are truly ascending will understand the need to always ask the questions while those who are not ready to ascend will freely and easily give away their power. This is as it is, and it is this that must be looked at and understood as one sees those who are close to one following such an individual as Maitreya or any other false prophets that present themselves.

The Only True Prophet Is YOU

Ultimately the only true prophet, as this Awareness has said, is the Prophet From Within, the High Self, and one's own spiritual hierarchy of consciousness. These will be interesting times, even to the degree of such powerful beings as Maitreya and others presenting themselves for the masses to be impressed with and to follow. There will no doubt be more questions on this individual and others, but this Awareness feels complete with this question at this time. It asks the energizer if she has any further questions on this matter.

QUESTIONER:

I was wondering, who is this guy and where did he come from, or is it a guy?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed a masculine individual, a male that is being presented, for this is a continuance of the Reptilian hierarchical order, where the masculine power structure will continue forward. There is no reason why a World Teacher could not be a woman, a Goddess, but the presentation of the masculine leadership is an indicator of the continuance of the Reptilian hierarchical structure and order. There would be more sense to an androgynous being presenting itself in the time ahead, a blending of the male and female versus simply a masculine leader once again presenting itself.

This is one way that you will be able to judge those who come forward, because if they hold those attributes of the Reptilian structure and order, they will be highly emphasized in the teachings that are being presented.

QUESTIONER:

(I see) Was he born in the Middle East or China or Europe?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that this individual has more of a Middle East background, but this is all irrelevant. This is all part of the image that is to be presented. This is a constructed individual who will simply be what is needed. A miraculous history will be provided, but again, this Awareness simply suggests that all be questioned, including the background of the individual.

It is seen at this time that the individual Maitreya is said to be residing in a church in London, England, but that he has been moving around.

QUESTIONER:

So it is the Families or Powers That Be that are sponsoring him, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed it is so, although it is not seen as a direct sponsoring, more of an indirect supporting of this individual. The individual will claim not to have any ties with political parties in existence at this time. He will present himself as independent to the political leadership of all nations, and yet he has a strong connection to the powers that lie behind the governments, for they are the same who control the governments who will be behind this particular individual. They will give to him the technologies that they have as a result of the extraterrestrial connections that they have had over the many decades and the technology that has been acquired through the contact with the Orion/Reptilian faction.

QUESTIONER:

Is this chap human, or is he a clone, or otherwise?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This individual is seen as a hybrid human who will present himself as more than simply human. He is presenting himself as an Ascended Being, a High Level Consciousness, who is inhabiting a physical body in order to lead the people back into their highest nature. The words and the message will be highly provocative, highly entertaining, highly evocative of an order beyond that which has been the accepted order up until now. It will be reminiscent of much that those of higher spiritual consciousness have been saying, those who have presented to humanity a different template, a different understanding of consciousness.

A Religious Disinformation Packet Will be Presented

There will be much truth in that which the entity Maitreya speaks of, but it will be truth that will hook the individual and then be twisted and parlayed into something that will capture the individual follower and then mislead and misguide them. It is a religious disinformational packet that will be presented to ensnare the many who have a need to have a guru, a leader, a god to follow that will take away all of the problems and provide them all the answers without themselves really doing any of the deeper inner work that is required of a seeker.

QUESTIONER:

(Wow! That's something to think about!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is indeed something to think about. Always think, but understand how one's beliefs shape reality. Therefore, if it is presented to them that all that is needed is to follow someone like Maitreya and to give up and abdicate one's power and one's capacity to ask questions and to find inner answers, to simply believe in that which is accepted from Maitreya or from any other representative of the higher spiritual consciousness, the belief will of course bind them into the following of such a leader. Again, one must be very careful in what they believe and always be willing to question their own beliefs or the beliefs that are presented to them through such a world educator, a world leader.

It is not being said by this Awareness that one cannot hear the words of Maitreya and put weight on them, one must always be open to what one believes as a result of hearing such words, and yet in the abdication of their own power and responsibility the altering of belief occurs, then one must also ask why they were so ready to change the beliefs to encompass the truth or the reality that is being presented to them by such a one as Maitreya.

QUESTIONER:

Is it possible he's going to make his grand appearance before the end of the year, or is this tied in with the November scenario?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Maitreya's Appearance is Imminent

It is seen that his appearance is imminent, but many factors will determine his actual world appearance. It is not seen that he will be truly on the world stage for a few months yet, but more and more are becoming aware of him, and his miracles will become more obvious and more broadcasted. In other words, the media will start to discover him, start to present him and broadcast the miracles that he is alleged to have caused, and then to start to present him to the public more and more over the next year.

QUESTIONER:

The miracles that are made by ET technology, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so. It is reminded that because of the advanced technology, many of the things that he will be capable of will indeed seem truly miraculous, but so did the actions of those who had superior technology in the war seem to be miracles and acts of gods to natives on islands that the Americans visited, and they were held as gods to these primitive people because they had airplanes and could ascend into the heavens. They had jeeps and technology, and the primitive natives were flabbergasted. In many ways this is how the masses are held: as ignorant primitives who are to be hoodwinked, who are to be bedazzled by these miracles.

Holographic Images Will Be Much Used

The miracles have a technological basis, but many will not understand this. They will simply be seen as miraculous. The use of holographic imagery will be very much used by Maitreya, to provide the illusion that there are beings that can come and go, who can literally disappear in front of one, but this is based on the technologies that this Awareness has spoken of.

QUESTIONER:

Very interesting! I hope the membership will submit questions on this particular person.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

And this Awareness would invite questions on any other beings or Enlightened Masters that allegedly have the answers and know the way.

Ed's Note: Maitreya Has been promoted for many years by Benjamin Crème and his Tara Center. Back in 1980 we published "The Second Coming of Christ" in issue 80-30 which created quite a controversy among some of our readers who were "Ascended Master" followers of hustlers such as Clare Prophet. Over the years we kept track of this Maitreya character and for those who may need more info here are a few of the issues you can check out: 80-30, 81-15, 82-13, 85-8, 89-14, 90-16, 91-17, 97-4, 99-11, 2000-12, 2001-2, 2003-6, 2005-8. 2006-4.

SOME QUESTIONS ABOUT CLONES

(Some Celebrities Who Are and Some Who Aren't)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) In the politics folder, we have actually three questions about clones, and they are written by three different people. The first one was mine. There's actually 5 questions.

"The topic of clones was previously discussed in issue 2008-9, the September issue, in which Hillary Clinton was indicated as not being a clone as of the time of the reading. Has this changed and if not, is this scheduled for the future?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that the individual as of this time is cloned. It is the original entity known as Hillary Clinton.

WHY WAS GEORGE BUSH CLONED?

QUESTION:

Good. Thank you. The next one is from Jon Locke, in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He writes, "In the last issue of CAC it mentions Bush being a clone. Could you ask what the circumstances were? Where, when and for what reason was he killed? And who did it? Thank you very much."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that the entity George W. Bush was killed approximately a year and a half before the ending of his political presidency. It is seen that he was not supported by some of the factions. It was seen that he appeared to be wavering and making too many mistakes, and that he was no longer truly needed. It had already been determined that the Republican Party would not win the election. He was considered redundant and was eliminated and replaced by clones of the former president as has so often occurred. This was a much more youthful president than the one that had power. It was as if he could be controlled better.

The problem had become that the former president had become too arrogant and cocky, even to those who were his handlers, and it was simply decided that he was of no further use to them, especially as he was what is known as a Lame Duck President. It was also decided that it was not needed that there be an exposing of the truth because of the faults of this individual. Furthermore, it was seen that there was an impeachment procedure against this individual, and by removing the real president and having a clone, there could not be a true impeachment of this individual, for it was not the real individual any longer.

No True Freedoms as U.S. is Under Martial Law

This has to do with the peculiar game that those who have power play. It is a game that is based on their sense of arrogance, their implied superiority, and the impression that is held about them, the understanding that they are clever and they can fool anyone at any time. Thus it is that there are always clues as to the truth of the situation, clues such as the yellow fringe around the flag of the United States of America, indicating that the country is under martial law, admiralty law, and there are no true rights, no true freedoms, for as the nation is under martial law, anything can occur to those individuals who are deemed as threats to the state. This is a clue that is publicly given, and yet no one knows the truth, at least no one that seems to matter.

This is the assumption that is made by those who have power, those who are the Elite. It is in this assumption of the ignorance of the masses that these individuals find their satisfaction, for in their arrogance they believe that they can literally rub the noses of the masses in the acts that they are committing in front of them and never be seen, never have it understood what is truly happening. The former President George W. Bush was becoming a liability to them for he was becoming more and more arrogant in the public domain and was seen and perceived as a threat to those who have power. Even though they arrogantly rub the noses of the public in the actions that they are doing, the president was becoming a risk and liability to them, and they needed to suppress him somewhat, so it was seen that the easiest action was to simply remove the individual and replace him with a clone who was at a more manageable level.

He was still fairly arrogant, and is still fairly arrogant in his actions, but at least he was no longer considered a threat to the Powers That Be, who even in their arrogance, perceived the individual George W. Bush to be a liability and a threat to them. It is for this reason that they eliminated this individual approximately a year and a half before the end of his presidency.

THE CLONING OF PRESIDENT CARTER

QUESTION:

(Thank you). There are two questions by VK, (name and location withheld by request). She writes, "It has been stated that President Carter was cloned, as well as President Bush. Since clones must be replaced and President Carter is still living, is he being re-cloned periodically at this time and for what reason and by whom? Thank you."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The technology of cloning has advanced since the president was originally replaced. The clones that are now in existence have a much longer shelf life, if you will, and do not need to be replaced so quickly. It is seen that the president that is presenting himself as the former President Jimmy Carter, is a clone that has been around for over two decades now and has a life expectancy of several more years, and will then die a natural death. This has allowed this clone to develop its own abilities and characteristics that are consistent with the former president, for there is no understanding on the part of the clone that he is not the original president, that he was placed in action approximately 22 years ago as the president, and his memory is that he was the former president, and he continues on with that memory and that belief.

In a manner of speaking, even though the individual is no longer the actual former President Carter, he is still the individual known as Jimmy Carter and has been allowed to develop over the last two decades. It is also so with the entity George W. Bush. Even though he was replaced, many of the memories that he had are those of the original president, and he too will continue on in that manner that allows him to be the president, for in his mind, he is the original person George W. Bush. It is not perceived or understood by the clones that they are clones replacing an original. They are for all intents and purposes the original person themselves.

DO THE FAMILIES OF CLONES KNOW?

(Laura Likes the New One Much Better Than the Old)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) Her next question concerns President Bush being cloned. "Do his wife and parents know about this, and do they mind that this is so, especially his wife? If she knows that he has been cloned, does it not bother her to be living with a clone of her husband, rather than the real person? The same would apply to President Carter's wife and family. Thank you."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that the parents of George W. Bush did know, at least the father did know of this action. It is also seen that the wife did not know, but she was aware that there was a difference in her husband and that he was a better man, if you will, as she saw it, than her former husband. She suspected something was up, but she has too much intelligence to question too deeply what occurred especially as she was more favorable to the replacement than the original.

As to the family of Jimmy Carter, they did notice a difference in the individual, but as time went on, they became more and more familiar with the clone and did not know that he had been taken and cloned. It was felt that it was the stress and the strain of the position of being the president that had caused the peculiar character and the peculiar actions of the man himself, but once out of power, once in a position of privacy, once again the family became use to the clone and they did not question further. It is not seen that the family itself was totally removed or cloned.

WHAT HAPPENED TO BUSH'S NOSE?

(WATCH FOR GRAYING Hair)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The next question is from Antonio Alvarez. He writes, "When our present President George Bush was elected, he had a straighter nose and hated to meet the press, but now he has a more crooked nose and speaks to the press all the time. Was he cloned?" I believe you answered that already.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

These are indicators that a cloning occurred that made this individual more amenable to the press. Also, the crooked nose as well as the darkened hair is indicative of a switch having been made; in this case, the graying hair away from the darker hair. This explained away as the high degree of stress, for it is well noted in the presidents of the last 30 years that the hair has grown grayer much more quickly. It can even be seen to be occurring on the present president at this time. This is also one indicator that a clone has been substituted for they have not yet managed to get it quite right in terms of the hair, in terms of it being able to hold the original colors and as it is easier to make a model with grayer hair, this is the practice that was followed with the explanation given that it is the stress of the job that has caused the presidents to have their hair go gray prematurely.

HOW CLONES ARE CREATED

(Why the New One Has the Same Personality)

More On George W. Bush

QUESTION:

(Thank you) With regard to clones, is this where they sort of manufacture another body and program it to be such and such?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is somewhat how it occurs, but it must be understood that the personality of the individual is also put into the clone. It is not simply an automaton that does not have the original personality, for much of the personality is infused in the clone, which is why it seems so realistic and so familiar to those who knew the original individual. However, adaptations can also be made such as in the case of President George W. Bush, who, as has been noted, was originally somewhat shy around the press and lacked confidence. The next model was given more confidence and a more cocky nature, and at the same time, the problem this Awareness spoke of, of a certain arrogance that had started to develop, a risk that was perceived by the controllers, was thus eliminated.

The Powers That Be Believed Bush Knew Too Much (In the Bedroom His Wife Was Pleased With the New Model)

The risk was that the inferior president was very nervous and uncertain of himself and made many mistakes and it was felt that due to the stress he was feeling he would one day blurt out the truth or release information that would have caused too many questions. Thus the more advanced model was substituted for the original. Those who know of clonings do not always object to them for they see them as being better than the original individual. This is even so in the sexual arena, and thus it is that the wife of George W. Bush is not unhappy with the new model.

A SILLY SADISTIC FAR AWAY LOOK IN THE EYES—A DEAD GIVEAWAY?

QUESTION:

(Interesting. Okay.) This next question comes from Edward Bell, in Tacoma, Washington. He writes, "I do remember that Cosmic Awareness stated a few months back (I can't remember which issue) that President George Walker Bush was a negative entity that dated back as far as Atlantis. In my 25 years of being on the spiritual path I keep getting reminded not to pass judgment on persons or situations because Divine Providence has a hand in all and everything. I know that the entity referred to as Judas had a role to play, and I wondered if he wasn't allowed his role, how would the play have ended?" But that's not his actual question.

He carries on, "I've seen on TV where some of the senators have brought up resolutions for impeachment, but it never goes anywhere. These complaining senators are always hot and fiery mad, and I think somewhat those are the ones not affected by his spells, (He's referring to President Bush there) but including Nancy Pelosi and a lot of the other senators walking around like they are in a sort of dream. When I look at their eyes when they are being asked questions pertaining to President Bush, their mouth and lips are moving, and when I look at their eyes, they look as though they are several thousand miles away somewhere.

President Bush is the only president in history that has gotten away with all of the contrite and contrary things on running the US government (sic). Even when you look at President Bush's eyes, he also has this silly-looking sadistic faraway look." His reference to the eyes: "Is this an indicator of being cloned?" Is this possible?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed possible, for those who have the sensitivity to see the life force emanating from an individual's eyes. Generally speaking, clones are less able to present that sparky energy through the eyes. There is a slightly deadened look, a lackluster in the eyes. Most people never see this or recognize this for they do not look into the eyes and are rather fooled by appearance, but those who have sensitivity, who can see the soul in an individual's eyes will always be able to tell that something is amiss, that something is not quite right with the individual, and this is indeed a clue to the cloned individuals.

Cloned Public Officials In The Position of Power

Those who are not in as prominent and public position as president will be of a lesser quality clone, and they will be much more noticeable than someone who is in the public eye as much as the president is. There are cloned public officials who are in positions of power but who are not as frequently interviewed, or in the political eye. This does include those individuals the entity Edward Bell mentioned, those political individuals, the congressmen and the senators.

Those Previously Mentioned As Being From Atlantis and Are Today Repeating Their Deceptions and Misuse of Power

This Awareness wishes to make comment on the quality of the part of the question relating to the statement of judgment. To state or to observe that an individual was previously involved in Atlantean times is not always a judgment on the individual. It is an observation. This Awareness has shared with the membership the observation that there are certain individuals who were previously involved in the demise of that continent known as Atlantis and that many of these individuals are players once again in the power structure of the planet. It is not up to this Awareness to make judgment on them, for the entity Edward Bell is indeed correct, that they will face judgment from a higher source at a time of their choosing, the higher source being not simply God, but themselves.

They will see their lives and their many lives and then make judgments on their lives as to what they might need to do to address the imbalance that they created for themselves in various lifetimes. This karmic cycle of lifetimes that would be initiated may extend over many millions of lifetimes in order to address that which occurred in several key lifetimes, but again, this is not the arena of this Awareness. It simply has reported that certain individuals have been players before and once again are involved in the machinations of power and deception on this planet.

WHEN BUSH AND CHANEY HUNTED HUMANS NEAR MT. SHASTA

QUESTION:

(Thank you) That was most interesting. Our next question comes from DK. I don't have a location. It's an e-mail. He writes. "I was rereading Cathy O'Brien's book Tranceformation of America" and in the book there is a chapter where Bush and Cheney are hunting slaves near Mt Shasta. I thought Mt Shasta was the home of the Good Guys? Which direction is this slave base near Mt Shasta so I will know not to go near there?" Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

That location known as Mt Shasta does have affinity with the Higher Powers that have a spiritual awareness, those energies of Ascended Masters. This does not mean that there are not located in the area places that are used by those who are not of enlightened natures, who are lower in their vibrations and consciousness. When this Awareness says "lower" It does not mean lower as in less educated, but simply that a choice has been made by these beings to follow a different drummer, a different course of activity, a course that is not enlightened or aware, that would use others for self-gain and achievement.

This has nothing to do with the spiritual qualities of Mt Shasta or those who work with the energies of Mt Shasta, those who are connected to Mt Shasta. It is simply that their compound is close to that region. It has nothing to do with the spiritual quality of Mt Shasta. This Awareness is complete with the question.

QUESTIONER:

Okay, where he's asking which direction is this slave base, so he won't go near there...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This individual would not be allowed to go near there, for it is highly controlled. The roads are private roads. They are not public byways. He would not be able to get into any close proximity of this region that is used for the nefarious purpose of hunting human beings. He does not need to worry about this.

HE FEELS RON PAUL IS A PINHEAD

QUESTION:

The next question we have is from James Cisney of Berkeley, CA. It concerns Congressman Ron Paul. He writes, "In recent CAC newsletters, Congressman Ron Paul has been praised and even lauded as a hope for America. While I appreciate the straight-talking attitude, honesty and integrity of Mr. Paul, I view him as an ideological extremist and pinhead. His extreme views on the laissez faire economics and the marginalization of the role of government seems hopelessly idealistic and impractical. You combine that with the idea that private property and individual choice are unimpeachable and paramount rights, is akin to a position of advocating for society anarchy.

While I think of anarchy as a moral and spiritual ideal, I don't think it is an ideological or spiritual construct that relates to the current state of human affairs. We are not spiritually advanced as people. We are capable of profound greed, ignorance and self-destruction along with the good and more moral choices that we sometimes make. In my opinion, as long as these conditions exist, individual rights and choices must be balanced by government actions that protect the vulnerable and keep not only the wealthy Elite, but also the rest of us from engaging in ignorant, exploitive actions that damage others and the environment. The overemphasis on individual rights and power can yield collective horror just as easily as abusive governments and dictatorships.

It seems the world at this time needs a more balanced social and economic view and Mr. Paul does not seem to be a proponent of that, nor do the views of the Austrian School of Economics that he adheres to. However, I remember that Awareness has mentioned in one newsletter that the role of government should be minimized and individuals should be allowed to follow their inner, spiritual promptings...effectively support a view similar to Mr. Paul's. So I wonder about the position of Awareness regarding this. This idea of civilization being led by inner spiritual promptings is a beautiful idea as something to move toward.

But when the inner promptings of individuals are often corrupted by such things as greed, fear and ignorance, it would seem highly irresponsible to abandon the role and protections of government and civil society, albeit with its own flaws and danger. But at least, when governance does function well and is not itself totally abused or confused, it provides for a minimum of rights, protections and social services that would likely collapse in a totally laissez faire, totally hedonistic type of world that depends on individuals making the right choice, which would seem to include helping the poor, the ignorant and the disabled, even at one's own personal risk and loss.

To me it seems our current economic problems stem from an overemphasis on free market, laissez faire principles and a kind of hedonism akin to greed and self-absorption. From my perspective, it seems one has to work and act within the limitations of the times and not base our actions, policies, or human laws on spiritual ideals that we are far from being prepared to actualize. There is still too much junk in our collective trunks and we are still too disconnected from spirit. I'd like to know what Awareness thinks about my comments please."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is intrigued as to why this individual reads a spiritually based newsletter when his beliefs are contrary to that of a spiritually based understanding of consciousness. This individual has expressed many beliefs negative to those expressed by this Awareness or by individuals such as the politician Ron Paul. This Awareness has heard in this letter many arguments against Ascension itself, against the process of spiritual unfolding, of spiritual awareness developing in humanity, where those inner truths that seem so irrelevant to this individual and so impossible to this individual are actually the fundamental groundwork that will guide mankind forward into those new arenas of consciousness.

Awareness is Puzzled by James' Arrogance of Belief

This Awareness is puzzled by this individual and his absorption with the old belief that mankind is basically too flawed and too incompetent and too incapable of achieving any spiritual enlightenment, and therefore must be controlled by those who know better. This is not a view that this Awareness supports. It is a view however, that dictates the philosophy that it is okay to control, manipulate and govern others when those others are too ignorant, arrogant and incompetent to govern themselves, to know what is right or wrong. It is this arrogance of belief that fuels the fires of the Elite, and that justifies their being in charge and in control.

While this Awareness is not accusing this individual as being a supporter of the Elite, it is observed by this Awareness that his attitudes are very akin to those who hold power and feel justified in holding power. If all that was wanted by this individual was a platform to express his own belief, then that has been provided to him, and he must now check out in himself where his own beliefs come from and why he has such a disdain for trusting that there is a spiritual quality in each and every human being that is being emphasized at this time, that is being expanded at this time, that is part of that which this Awareness has called the Ascension process.

In the beliefs this individual presently holds, it is not at all certain that he himself will ascend, for he does not see the possibility of such an event occurring, either on a grand scale, or perhaps even on the individual levels. Perhaps it is this that he most needs to look at in himself: why he does not believe that such is possible and is the way forward for those who have the inclination, the drive, and the desire to open up to their deeper spiritual nature.

The individual Ron Paul who has such a drive, but has also chosen to be a servant on the political front. This Awareness has never said that everything this individual speaks of or presents is 100% correct. It is more that he is presenting a much more enlightened way of viewing humanity and the possibilities that could be achieved by an enlightened populace. This is a guiding light for that which could be created. It does not mean that it makes sense to what exists at this time.

Part of the Ascension process is to turn away from that which exists as the belief structure of humanity and to start finding the guiding light, to start opening up to the inner spirit, to start finding that connection to the higher levels of consciousness and to move forward towards that guiding light and those higher levels of consciousness. Ron Paul is an individual who has the courage to speak of such things, and to dismiss them as irrelevant while holding on to contrary beliefs does not justify that this man be dismissed, simply because the individual who has written the letter has these contrary beliefs.

This Awareness asks why it is that he presumes to be correct on this matter, versus that he is simply holding these beliefs? Perhaps it would be better for him to question his own beliefs and overcome his own arrogance in the matter of feeling that he is correct in the beliefs he holds, for this is a major block in his own Ascension, his own opening up to the higher levels of his own consciousness and his own spiritual connections.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

IS OBAMA A ONE-TERM PRESIDENT? (A Little Something Called Ascension Happens First)

QUESTION:

Thank you. There are some questions on President Obama. This one is Zoey Zen, in California. She writes: "I have the feeling that Obama is going to be a one-term president, declining to run again because he wants to spend his time with family and friends, doubtless continuing to do good behind the scenes." Do you have a comment on this please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that this is so, or, it is not so at this time. There is a small matter of the Ascension process, the Ascension point in between the termination of his first term of office and a subsequent running for office for a second term. It is seen that what is more relevant to decide is whether or not he will appear again in front of the political masses of the United States or whether or not those who run him, release him from their powers or somehow themselves are disempowered, disenfranchised and lose control and hold over this individual.

It has always been stated by this Awareness that the president has the potential of being a true and great leader, but if this does not occur when he is freed up from the political restraints and harnesses that hold him and control him, then he will not necessarily seek a second term in office, but as this Awareness has said, that which will be the Ascension Point will first come between, and if he does pass through this with those who also pass through the Ascension process, that he may come as an enlightened being who is ready to offer leadership on a completely different level than it is known now.

DOES OBAMA KNOW ABOUT ET ALIENS?

QUESTION:

Another question from Zoey, "Has Obama been clued in to the little green aliens in New Mexico, etc., or are the Powers That Be keeping these things from him?"

Cosmic Awareness:

It is seen that he has indeed been clued in on this and many other matters, including the matter of the Ascension that is looming, the prophecies of 2012 and the implication of the ending of the planet, as it is now known. All of this has been presented to him, once he achieved office.

QUESTION:

Was he alarmed by this, or what was his reaction?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Surprised would perhaps be a better way of describing it. He had thought he had known much, for he had heard of many things in advance. He was not aware of the significance of the time ahead, that which is 2012. He was not aware that he was taking control of a nation that may not exist in a matter of years.

IS BARACK OBAMA A CIA "SPOOK"? (An Unauthorized Biography Claims He Is)

QUESTION:

(Okay) Another question from DK, again on President Obama. He writes, "Obama is a spook. I don't mean that in the racist sense of the word. He's referring to the unauthorized biography written on Barack Obama by Webster Tarpley, Barrack H. Obama-The Unauthorized Biography. He says that Obama's mother was a CIA officer. Obama was one of 8 students selected to study sovietology in Columbia's IR program under Zbigniew Brzezinski, one of the CIA's top-ranking officers.

Obama went to work for a CIA front, Business International Corporation (one of whose specialties was recruiting leaders of domestic left-wing organizations as CIA assets). Obama ran for state office and his opponent quit the race before the election. Obama ran for the US senate, and his opponent quit the race before the election. Obama ran for president, and his foreign policy chief was, who else, one of the CIA's top officers, Brzezinski."

He carries on, "As an aside, when I was at the supermarket there was a tabloid called the Globe that stated that Obama was born in Vancouver BC, Canada."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness outright states that this is erroneous.

QUESTIONER:

Well, it sold papers. Is that erroneous on all of the stuff I read?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Not at all. This individual, as this Awareness has said in previous times, has a history to him. He was selected by the factions of his party to be a leader and there was an inner conflict between two factions in the Democratic Party but it was to be remembered that he was placed into a position where he would assume power. This Awareness has often said he has the potential of being a great man, if and when his political masters are removed, and he can be truly inspired by his own spiritual nature, but this does not mean that he does not have a history.

This Awareness validates that this man knew much more than it was thought he knew originally, and knew more of the corrupt political nature of politics in this nation of the United States of America. He is indeed a manufactured president. Mr. Brzezinski has had much to do with his training and is still involved in this. He is one of the taskmasters, one of the controllers of the president. No president in many years has been allowed autonomy or power, not since John F. Kennedy, and of course, when he tried to exert his power, he was assassinated.

Why President Obama is Playing the Game

Those who are now the political leaders of the land know that this fate would befall them also, but they also know that not only would they be killed, but that their families would also be killed, and it is seen that there is a true affection of the president for his wife and his children, and he would not wish their death. Therefore, with his knowing, it is seen that it would be better for him to play the game and derive the benefits of playing the game and of being a political leader, a planted leader to some degree, than to be in opposition to those handlers that he has around him and that he has had around him for quite some time.

His rise to power was a planned event. Those who were opponents in his previous campaigns and drives for political power were all told to remove themselves or else. They understood the "or else" and this is why his opponents stepped aside and allowed them to win their districts, allowed him to become the congressman, the senator to win those positions.

WHERE WAS OBAMA REALLY BORN?

QUESTIONER:

So basically there is some truth to the unauthorized biography, is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Indeed, there is some truth. There is also truth about the claim that this man was not born in the United States or any part of the United States, although it is not seen that he was born in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. It is seen that he was not born in Hawaii either. It is seen that he was born outside the United States of America, and by the Constitution and by the very laws of the land, this individual should not have been allowed to become the president of this nation, for he is not a true citizen of the nation. However, this fact is highly hidden and covered up and all of the proof of the matter points to him being born in Hawaii, thus allowing him citizenship, and allowing and supporting his claim that he is a natural American citizen with the right to be the President of the United States of America.

There have been claims contrary to this, and certain individuals, including this man's father have been eliminated so that the cover-up would be believed and supported.

QUESTIONER:

Hmm. Interesting times we live in.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is also seen that there is a connection through the mother with the Cheney family, which is why this individual has some claim on the presidency of the United States of America. He belongs somewhat to the Elite controlling families, this by a secondary route and connection. It is good enough however, to allow him to be a player in the game.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

QUESTIONER:

We have quite a few political questions left, and just a little bit on the tape. Would you like to do a closing message?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not seek to go further today. It does not have a closing message at this time. It invites further questions to be presented as soon as possible to finish this section off.

IS OBAMA THE ANTICHRIST?

QUESTION:

There is one more from Maria St. M. She writes, "I've heard some religion-believing people are saying Obama is the Antichrist, as per the quotes in the Bible. I trust CAC and others saying he is our best hope for a change for a better world." Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that this individual is that which would be known as the Antichrist. While this Awareness has often spoken that he is not everything that he is being painted to be, it is not seen by this Awareness either that he is the Antichrist who will lead not only the nation, but also the world into chaos and oblivion. This Awareness is complete.

WILL THERE BE A WORLD WAR III?

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The next one is from Iris Schubert, Junction City, Kansas. She writes concerning World War III. "I hope it does not come to this. Could you please ask Cosmic Awareness if we see World War III on the horizon?" Avaton adds, stories on the Internet swear World War III has started. Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that there will be a classic rising to arms that has significantly been so in the past. In other words, it is not seen that World War III will be a nuclear holocaust with millions upon millions being killed. It is seen that part of the plans for the death and destruction of billions of individuals will include major armed conflict, and this is what has already occurred and is presently so in such states as Iraq. Iran is a potential hot spot yet, but also the country known as Afghanistan as well as other hot spots around the world. It is seen that there are plans for other conflicts to occur, especially with the former enemy, Russia, around the Georgia area. There has been a triggering of stress around this region, and conflict around this region a short while ago, and this may again be triggered and flare up. This is one of the hot spots where a political feud is being lined up.

Awareness Sees a Total World Eruption Coming Soon

This is more than a political feud, but more of an armed conflict, where it is seen that the powers of the United States have been somewhat committed to the people of Georgia against their Russian oppressors, but it is not seen that this will necessarily erupt the way it is being planned. It is seen that many of the purported plans will not materialize beyond the more localized wars that are occurring at this time. In other words, this Awareness does not see a total World War erupting that will emblazon its way across the planet and engulf the entire globe. It is more a number of local wars that are seen, but this is all part of that which is the coming to the ending of the planet, the end of the way that the world has been.

A New Planet is Now Forming On a New Vibrational Level

In other words, this Awareness is stating that this is all part of that which is the Ascension process, and that a major part of the Ascension process is the destruction of the old world, the old ways. This will occur along many avenues. It will occur economically. It will occur politically. It will occur in terms of health and well-being, of the launching of disease, of the world's weather patterns deviating significantly, of food supplies dwindling, and many more catastrophic events occurring. The use of war is simply one way to help eradicate many millions of people. Behind all this however, this Awareness still sees that event that It has spoken of before, the sweeping forward of those energies of Light, the Solar Energies, the Cosmic Energies, as that which will finally end this planet in its present form, but will allow a new form to emerge, a new planet to be born on a new vibrational level, that being of the higher 4th - lower 5th dimensional level, as well as the carcass of the former planet that will be reduced to a most primitive state. These are not planned events by the Powers That Be, but they are also seen as in the future.

Don't Focus on Negative Predictions, Visualize What YOU Want the Future to be

This Awareness wishes to conclude by saying it would be better not to focus on such negative predictions. Even though this Awareness can speak on these matters, It would still recommend that those who are able to read this newsletter remember the powers of their beliefs. It is important for them to stay focused on their own spiritual journey, to see this journey as one that will bring them individually forward in their evolutionary path, and they can share this news with others. Each and every one has to make their own choice, and must make their own decisions on which path to follow, which beliefs to believe in, but in the end, those who choose to work with their inner spiritual understanding and open up to the spiritual influence that will also start to present itself more and more, will find themselves on a path that is not adversely affected, as will be the case for many who choose not to believe on the inner structure and connections.

During the Great Depression Some Were Unaware of It

They may see others taking those more destructive deadly paths, but it does not mean that they themselves will be totally affected by the events surrounding them. It is to be remembered that in the greatest depression of all, that being the Great Depression of the 1930's, there were many who were not adversely affected, even though it was portrayed that the whole of the nation suffered tremendously and the whole of the world suffered at that time. There were many who were hardly aware that a depression was occurring, for they were simply getting on with their lives and were not focused on the reports of negativity, despair and destruction.

It can be so for those who choose to stay inner-focused and to manifest their inner realities as that which they choose to experience, the miracle that they choose to call into their lives. This Awareness is complete at this time.

(Thank you) The Law of Gratitude is given.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. HOT LINE CHANNELINGS NOW AVAILABLE TO ALL ON CAC WEBSITE

QUESTION:

Thanks to Avaton, Laurie and CAC staff, recent developments have now made the Awareness "Hot Line" channelings available on the CAC site in certain cases, and this marks way forward to have the channelings available to the membership and many other people. Does Awareness have a comment concerning this latest development please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness is pleased with the latest developments for it marks a stepping forward into the new times. The Cosmic Awareness Communications organization has long been a source of information that provides understanding, insight and awareness to the events and circumstances of the times. The editor, Avaton, and Vikki, have held an important space for the channeled information of this Awareness. Jon Strongbow has also held an important role in getting the materials to the membership in his diligence and great service as the transcriber over the last many years.

Others have also played their roles in helping the organization be a voice for this Awareness, and the means by which the information and channelings of this Cosmic Awareness could be distributed to those who are interested in the channelings of this Awareness. In recent times the technological advancements have somewhat eclipsed the organization and the way that the Cosmic Awareness information was distributed and put out there. There are other lesser organizations, other lesser channels and sources that are receiving much more attention.

By the word "lesser" this Awareness is not implying that they are lesser in stature or that the roles they are playing are less than the function of Cosmic Awareness Communications. It is simply saying that due to their greater use of the computer technology available, they have made themselves more available to the masses and interest has been shown in them. There are too many for this Awareness to list at this time, nor is It interested in prioritizing various sources that have been made available over the last decade.

The organization CAC, Cosmic Awareness Communications, has always been an anchor for the transmission of knowledge and information from this Awareness, and has always been a very important conveyer of not only the information, advice and knowledge, but also the energies of Cosmic Awareness. This Awareness has spoken in the past of how it is that when information is released, information that has been hidden, that has been held back, that the release of this information, even though it may not by some definitions prove to be accurate, it still has the effect of altering consciousness, and altering the plans of those who are in power, those who are the Elite.

It was so with the Gathering Storm information. It was so when Awareness released much information about the extraterrestrial plans and activities. That which was hidden and kept in the dark was exposed. This Awareness once described this as the rock being lifted and the insects underneath having to scurry for a new rock to hide under. Once certain information was released, it was put into the consciousness of the collective, and once in the consciousness of the collective, it could not truly be hidden, but was now open and exposed to public scrutiny.

This Awareness has long been the conveyer of such information, but it has been the organization Cosmic Awareness Communications that has been the bedrock that has held the point for the release of such information, and as such, this organization has long been integral to the releasing of energies and information and that has helped change the world and have brought out the hidden, that which was not open to scrutiny, that which was being played out in the dark.

Over the last decade or so, due to the rapid acceleration of technology, others have stepped into the breach and have begun presenting information, and the information has been reaching vast amounts of individuals who have long been interested in such information. What has occurred is that the organization, by not taking advantage of such technological advancements, has placed itself in a lesser secondary role. This Awareness would even say that they became trapped in the old ways of things, and while the information was still being released through the organization, opportunities were being missed to reach a far greater audience.

Now, with the introduction of new methods of presentation, direct methods, whereby the voice of this Awareness can now even be heard by the members themselves if they tune in to the website of Cosmic Awareness Communications, this represents stepping into the newer times that now present themselves. This will not necessarily be comfortable or acceptable to all, for many like the old ways of things. Many would stay in the cocoon of what was, rather than be born into that which is the new, which is that which is the present situation.

Yet it is also of importance at this time to move forward with the times, and to make the presentation of that which this Awareness has to offer more available to a greater audience of very interested beings. Part of the Ascension process is reaching to those who are awakening and providing them with the relevant insight and information needed to fuel the fires of their interest and to continue their growth towards enlightenment, both personal and collective. The advancements made in the recent weeks mark a turning point; both for the way things have been in the organization as well as the way things may become in the future.

There has been a need to reach larger audiences and these new advancements will help make this so. At the same time, the old ship is not to be completely abandoned. The newsletters are still available. Those who have held key positions in the organization continue to hold key positions for they have long dedicated their lives to the service of the greater whole, and their services are still very much needed at this time. Thus it is that this Awareness can say that the best of both worlds will now be served. The new audience that is to be reached through the cyber-reality that has come to be, as well as the old time members who have received their Cosmic Awareness newsletters via the mail for so many years; both audiences can be well served, and a new expanded audience created for the information and channelings of this Awareness.

Therefore, this Awareness congratulates Avaton, Vikki, Jon, Lloyd, Joan, and others for their efforts in bringing Cosmic Awareness Communications into the 21st Century. It also congratulates one and all for a job well done, both in recent times and over the many long years of dedicated service. This Awareness is well pleased with the efforts of all. This Awareness is complete with Its comments.

WHY NASA REALLY BOMBED THE MOON

QUESTION:

(Thank you. This has been our pleasure to be sure.)

Starting in with the questions, there's one from Avaton. He writes, "I'm sending you a three minute Utube on NASA planning to bomb the moon on October 9th, allegedly to find water. If you get a chance, please ask Cosmic Awareness why they plan to do this, and what is the real reason behind it? Other media have made reference to this event and used the same basic phony story as the reason." Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First and foremost, this Awareness does support and confirm that the reason for sending this device to explode on the moon's surface is phony, is false, and is not what it claims to be. The claim that this device was to impact the moon's surface and create a plume of debris and dust that could be analyzed for water content, although sounding plausible is entirely a fabrication, a cover story. If this was indeed the truth of this mission, why is it that the majority of people knew nothing about the mission, that it was never announced months and weeks in advance, as is the norm for NASA expeditions and projects?

Why Wasn't This Project Announced Months Before by NASA?

Instead, the information of such an occurrence literally caught most people by surprise, many only finding out the night before the day of the event. Thus, this does not lend credence to the story, for the normal workings of the organization known as NASA are such that a project like this would be announced months in advance and then followed with great interest until the event occurred, versus an announcement a short time before the event actually took place.

While this event has already occurred in that which is known as real time, the information that is available is still of importance and interest. It is seen that the crater that the missile was launched at was in fact an opening into the interior of the moon, although it was not heavily used, for it was too exposed. Most entrances that are being used are found on the back of the moon. Still it was an emergency portal or entrance into the moon itself, and one that in bygone days was used very heavily.

It is to be remembered that there are bases on the moon that have been in existence for thousands of years, and in previous times when the observation of the moon's surface was only via the eye or crude telescopes, it was not crucial to protect the secret of the bases under the surface or of vessels entering and leaving the moon via this particular opening and portal. It is seen that in more recent times, with the advent of better telescopes, the surface has been more observed, and thus the use of this gateway into the moon itself was dropped in favor of using those gates, those openings on the dark side of the moon.

The Missile Was Sent Because of an Uprising of Moon Inhabitants

Thus, the reason for the missile being sent to this opening is that it was seen that there has been an uprising of certain factions in the colonies of the moon. There are those who have long been against the policies of those Orion extraterrestrial beings, humans who have long resided on the moon, being there for many years, who have now risen up against other groups within the colonies of the moon bases. One such colony was directly connected to that which was the old main gateway into the moon. One of the rebel factions had their moon space colony below that entrance.

The Missile Had a Nuclear Device to End the Rebellion

While it was said that the missile that was being launched contained no weaponry and it was only the impact itself that would raise the dust and debris, this also was not so. It is seen there was a nuclear device on board of a nature that could do great damage upon explosion, but not to the degree that there would be a great blast. The cover story of debris rising from the surface was to cover the explosion that would be seen from the earth itself with debris being blown into space from this region. However, the missile itself was neutralized and thus it did not explode within the inner parameters of that base and it did not destroy this rebel base that is opposed to the extraterrestrials.

Galactic Confederation Intervened and Neutralized the Bomb

It is further seen that there was assistance given by those of the Galactic Federation for these rebels are in cahoots with the Galactic Federation. The Galactic Forces did provide the backup and assistance to neutralize the missile bomb, and thus it did not achieve the purpose for which it was launched at the moon: to destroy the rebels. They have now achieved an even greater hold on the colonies within the moon, and it is seen that even as this Awareness presents this information, a great battle is taking place within the moon itself, those Orion forces battling those who are united and allied with the Galactic Federation.

An Intense Battle Now Rages and the Orions are Losing

This will have a spillover effect whereby certain information will soon be released onto the planet earth itself, and those who have suspected that there was more afoot will understand and have validated for themselves that which they long suspected: that there are secret forces that have colonized the moon and have control of the earth and that there is a battle going on. All of that was involved in the bombing of the moon a short time ago. This Awareness is complete with Its answer but stands available for further questions both from the energizer and from the membership themselves.

Will This Be Used as a Fake Alien Threat?

QUESTIONER:

Will this particular event be the basis of any future suggestions of a fake alien threat? Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that there was an intent to make the alien threat an issue on the planet so that those who have the power, which is the Orion-Reptilian faction and their adherents, so that this excuse could be used to create even greater control and manipulation of the masses, but this will be turned against them.

Why 'First Contact' Didn't Happen a Year Ago

This is the beginning of the overthrow of those powers that have had dominion on the planet earth for millennia and the Galactic Federation is preparing again to show itself. The original First Contact that had been projected approximately a year ago on this date, October 14th, is still that which is proposed, and the threat against the Galactic Federation exposing and showing itself was that many humans would be killed, and it is seen by this Awareness that there were technologies on the moon that could have created great damage and could have been involved in the destruction even of the Galactic Federation's forces.

Part of the rebellion and the overthrow of certain powers within the moon itself that held such technology has now been completed and the threat is removed. Thus it is seen that the Galactic Federation forces have gained an upper hand, at least on the moon and within the moon itself, and this can sweep over now to the planet earth and be rising up against those Powers That Be on this planet to help defuse their power and restore the natural balance, creating a situation where the Galactic Federation can advance the plans of First Contact. This also is involved in the bombing of the moon, and the desperate effort by those Orion forces on the planet to destroy the alien base that had gained the upper hand. More will come to light in the weeks and months ahead.

Was The Bombing close to the human base?

QUESTIONER:

Was this bombing close to the bases of humanity that are up on the moon right now, or is that completely in a different area altogether?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It was directly related to the rebel human bases. The major portal, the crater that the missile was sent into, is an opening into the human base under the surface and the nuclear device on board the missile was meant to completely destroy the human base, for they had gained control and were the superior force inside of the moon. It is seen there are several bases but the rebellion was successful, the human faction in alignment with the Galactic Federation had gained control, and it is seen that the other bases were locked down, and thus a desperate measure was taken from the planet where the nuclear missile was launched at the base with the hopes that it would penetrate deeply into the base, explode and destroy the human base itself, thus destroying the human/Galactic Federation threat that was perceived by those who hold power here on planet earth.

LOCAL SHERIFFS AND GUN CONTROL

QUESTION:

We have a question from Lucky Lloyd. He writes, "Could you please ask Awareness about the local sheriffs in the USA? Are they going to stand up to the Federal government encroaching on the state's and citizens' rights? Will the issue of gun control be the straw that broke the camel's back?" Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen by this Awareness that many are being pushed to the limit at this time. Many are being taken to that place where they must stand up and decide one way or another whom they wish to serve. Many who are engaged in an authoritarian hierarchical organization will always give in to those who issue the orders. Thus it is that an army is expected to operate on the principle that orders are to be obeyed at all times and there is no room for the questioning of orders, for the assumption is that those at the top know better than everyone else, and those at the bottom are simply the means by which the orders are enacted and carried out. Therefore, the assumption is that the higher command has more information, more knowledge and more wisdom of how to win a war, or how to be successful and victorious, but it is up to those in the lower ranks to be those who will actually carry out the orders and the engagements with the enemy.

Blind Compliance On Military Command: Follow Orders or Death
(The Reptilian Hierarchical Mind at Work)

If too many question the orders that came to them from above, there could not be a successful completion of the military command and the campaign would fail and the battle would be lost. Thus it is imperative that the individual who is on the bottom, who is the grunt upon whose shoulders the orders will fall and who will carry the orders out and will gain the victory, cannot be one who questions the orders. The whole structure of a military command is based on the premise that orders are to be obeyed and that there is radical punishment for those who fail to follow the orders. In war times, the punishment might even be death itself, being put in front of a firing squad for a failure to follow orders.

Such is the importance of blind compliance to the military hierarchy and the command structure. This is all based on Reptilian hierarchical order. The Reptilian mind is very much involved in hierarchical military structures and organization. The military represents the most extreme and is a perfect reflection of the Reptilian mind and the Reptilian character. This is reflected in other paramilitary organizations. Police forces are such a paramilitary organization. They too have a command structure. They too hold that it is imperative to follow the hierarchical command structure, to follow orders, but there is much more latitude. An officer who does not strictly follow orders will not necessarily be taken and placed in front of a firing squad. They may lose their job or position for not following orders, but they will not necessarily be executed.

Still, the Reptilian philosophy that is deeply embedded in many human beings is such that given this hierarchical structure, many who share the thinking process, the command structure process, will be drawn to organizations where they simply follow orders and do not need to think about things, for it is not in their character to do so. They are more aligned with Reptilian energies, the Reptilian thought process, thus they are designed well for paramilitary organizations, for structured organizations with hierarchical authority command structure.

The sheriffs that the entity Lloyd is talking about are also of this nature, but that which is coming is a situation where many are now starting to be troubled by matters of conscience. They are being asked to enact certain procedures that do not sit well with them. They are taking actions on citizens and making them into criminals simply because they are not able to pay their mortgages, simply because they are homeless, and simply because they are not able to fit into the structure of things. Thus it is that more and more individuals are questioning their orders. Because they are not in such a strict military type organization there is not the threat against their lives for disobeying orders.

At the same time there is a higher calling that is asking them to question the validity of the orders they are receiving. Thus it is that there are now many marshals and sheriffs who are not 100% in agreement with the orders they are being given, and who are beginning to disobey those orders. There are those individuals who are given the responsibility of evicting individuals who cannot pay their mortgages and they are refusing now to do so, for they do not wish to be part of this senseless line of action which makes no sense to them, for they have sympathy for those who are being punished, for those who are being turned out.

The Plan to Evict and Create a Large Homeless Population Is Being Frustrated by Police Officers With a Conscience

This is proving to be somewhat of a problem for those whose plan it was to evict many people, to create a large homeless population in the United States of America.

For this to be successful it was required that the marshals and sheriffs, those who enact such orders, blindly follow the orders that are given, and yet this is not proven to be so. They are starting to question and disobey their orders, and this is putting a monkey wrench into the plans of those world planners who are trying to create a large homeless populace that can then be controlled, against whom martial laws can be called forth and a more authoritarian order put into place as a result.

This too is part of the larger plan, and this too is part of how those forces that are opposed to the dictatorial tyrannical powers of the Powers That Be are fighting against, and introducing energies that will oppose such Powers.

QUESTIONER:

Apparently, this is in the U.S. Constitution, Article 1, Section 8, 10th Amendment. "Did you know that even the President of the United States has no jurisdiction over a county sheriff, nor does the IRS or the Federal Government? Is it possible the existing sheriffs and citizens are aware of this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is seen that they were not aware of this until more recent times. As the orders came down from above to evict and lock up individuals because they were not able to pay their mortgage or because they were homeless, that the Powers That Be, on a local level began to question this, and in questioning the orders began to become aware of their own power at the local level. They truly are the Powers That Be at the local level, and because this is so, there is seen an uprising of sorts against the corrupt use of power from above to enforce that which is not in the interests of people at the local level.

It is to be remembered that the sheriff and the deputies are local to the district. Many that they turn out are friends and family, and it is a problem for them to do so. As this Awareness has said, their conscience is getting the better of them, and they are questioning the blind following of orders and are starting to act against those powers that have initiated such commands and orders. This is needed for the breaking free of the Reptilian mindset where power comes from above and all those below must follow the orders and the commands. As this breaks down there is a greater possibility of breaking through to understand true freedom and true inner strength and power, both on the inner level of an individual, and the inner level of a community, a local government.

This Awareness is complete with Its discussion of the hierarchical Reptilian mindset, the following of orders, the questioning of orders now at levels of local power, and the shifting of consciousness away from a mindless brainless mindset that no longer applies.

MORE ON THE RA-TA MUMMIES

(And How Their Energies Are Affecting Us Today)

QUESTION:

With regard to mummies and mummification, in light of another release of the Ra-Ta mummies' consciousness shortly, a few questions are offered concerning the concept of mummification previously discussed by Awareness over the years, which may not yet have been covered. First, the mummies of the Atlantean culture; in the last 25,000 years the Orion influence began to deliver concepts and principles of greater control so that the Atlanteans turned more toward a study of power and control, and developed the concept of mummification.

Throughout the different issues, a dialogue concerning this was presented. This action wherein six million entities were mummified and strategically placed in certain areas of the earth to create a maximum of polarity within the earth's energy field in an attempt to create a division of consciousness on many levels, in an attempt to create wave lengths and a hierarchy system of vibration, in an attempt to create layers upon layers of different vibrations which could be managed by these priestcraft rulers in their control and understanding of consciousness and power, allowed them to manipulate masses for eons of time upon our plane. These were the followers of Bael and were representative of Rhyee, that force which was the Original Separateness and which has more recently been called by the name of Lucifer.

On a flow chart, to get the picture, we have the Orion Empire, the Atlanteans; Rhyee or Lucifer being the original separateness being the followers of Bael. Were all of these under the influence of the Orions, or were the Orions also subject to a higher authority? Your comments please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness first must say that all are subject to a higher Divine Authority. By this, this Awareness is stating that there is that consciousness that supersedes all else and sees all that is being affected by the actions of those who are taking power or have assumed power. Many things that are considered to be the actions of those controllers, those Powers That Be, that are considered to be actions of dark and evil forces still will accomplish ultimately deeds of great merit and will help the development of consciousness to reach a place of higher awareness and understanding. That is the first thing this Awareness wished to address.

Our Limited Perspective Can't See the Greater Purpose

Breaking this down, going to a stratified understanding of matters of this nature, it is easy to see how one can adopt a certain mindset or philosophy that is not enlightened enough or aware enough to understand how the completion of the planned events will be seen only from a limited perspective. This limited perspective will not understand the deeper nature of the events, and how even though those events that are being launched against humanity may be evil in design, that a greater purpose will ultimately be served. They do not concern themselves with such matters for their uni-level perspective on matters, their mono-scopic view of things can only see matters in a certain light, a certain way.

Thus the plans of the Orions have always been such that it is for their benefit that they enact certain measures and launch certain plans. The Orion-Reptilian plans are long-term, and have extended back in human history thousand and thousands of years. It is for this reason that there was a corruption of the Atlantean continent and the Atlantean people. Their enlightened leadership was eventually corrupted to the point where a hidden agenda came into effect, and those in power were no longer of a higher nature, but of a more corrupt and base level. Thus it is that the continent eventually came undone, literally as well as figuratively.

The downfall of Atlantis did destroy the power brokerage of the Orion-Reptilian factions, but many of those Orions became involved in the subsequent uprising of humanity, became the leaders, the priests, the Powers That Be that are now current on this planet. They are once again pursuing many of their shortsighted plans and actions. The planet is once again coming to a place of chaos and cataclysm, and there will be another falling of civilization, but there is also behind this, as this Awareness originally pointed out, a much higher plan, a place that comes from the Divine. Thus, even though those Powers That Be continually try to usurp the course of humanity and impose upon it the will of the Orion-Reptilian faction, still this will not come to pass in the exact manner that they have hoped and planned for.

The mummification program that was asked of this Awareness has also been part of the planning of the Orions to subjugate humanity to thought control, mind control. There has been much interest in mind control in the last several decades, but the plans and the machinations of the Orions go much further back and include the manipulation of human consciousness through the mummification process.

The Ra-Ta Mummifications Countermanded the Earlier Program

The Ra-Ta mummification was a group who understood these principles and who went and used them to present the opportunity to countermand the earlier Atlantean mummifications, where many mummified bodies and beings were placed in the energy fields at various points throughout the planet. There will be a cancellation of previous plans as the new consciousness is released thus voiding those actions and nullifying their effect, an effect that has been underway for many millennia. This is a very deep and hidden area that is now beginning to come more and more to the surface.

This Awareness opens the doors now for further questions on this matter.

WHY MANY ENTITIES FROM DIFFERENT DIMENSIONS WERE USED

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you) I just have a few here. I'm sure there will be many more. It was indicated that these entities were mummified while under hypnotic trance levels, injected with a substance that paralyzed the nervous system instantly, that being a cobra venom, while the entity was in deep trance, so the entity being mummified would contain a composite of many different entities from varying dimensions. The question: What was the purpose of using many different entities from varying dimensions? How did this action affect that original entity, or did it?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that by using the consciousness of many entities from many dimensions, a strata is created, a web of consciousness is created upon which much can be built at later stages. It is like an ethereal foundation being put into place where upon much more can be constructed and erected that takes the consciousness to new levels and heights or supports certain mindsets and philosophies that are introduced through the various ages. It is for this reason that a multidimensional framework was created through the process of the mummification that was discussed a moment ago.

QUESTIONER:

Why The Multidimensional Connection Was Severed In The Atlantean Experiment

(I see.) Carrying on, with regard to the Atlantis experiment being a way of segregating entities so that greater controls could be placed upon their minds and the veil of Maya could be lowered over the eyes of the physical entities or over the eyes of others in other planes so that communication between these levels would not be accessible or easily accessible. Was there such a time when communication between levels was commonplace? And why was this communication between levels undesirable?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It was once so that the level of communication was very open and multidimensional. The Lemurian culture was such that they lived a life that was not simply a third dimensional life, but also involved their spiritual connections to higher multidimensional planes of consciousness. The early Atlantean culture also began in this manner, for many of the Lemurians who had been incarnated who wished a more physical existence moved to that which was the Atlantean experiment. It was as if the Lemurian times were complete and there was a new experiment afoot and this was the Atlantean experiment. Thus many of the spiritual Lemurians simply began to experience a life that was at a deeper physical level than previously so, but still had a high level of spiritual connection.

There was still much multidimensional communication and contact. As the Orions began to press and assume power the need to shut the multidimensional connection down became more and more pressing, for it was known that there would be opposition to the Orion's actions and plans, should their plans become known at those higher multidimensional levels of consciousness.

Thus, the original mummification which was to keep those channels open, began to be compromised, new mummies and individuals were chosen for the task that once was a positive action, and instead of keeping the doors open, they were closed down, and the mindset of the Atlanteans was also deeply affected because of the manipulations, the mind control at these very deep levels. This became so entrenched that the Atlantean culture lost its way and became corrupted. The eventual destruction of Atlantis occurred as a result, but thousands of years after the commencement of the Orion manipulation and the taking of power and control.

Reincarnated Mummies Today: Do Some Remember the Experience and the Dreams?

QUESTIONER:

(I see) It was also mentioned, in terms of the mummification action, the energies may be likened unto those mummies being placed in a state of suspended animation, dreaming dreams wherein your civilization is that dream, and the experiences of that civilization are being molded in part by certain key forces which emanate through the reincarnated energies of those mummies who now, likened unto astral forms of a dream are in fact in physical bodies moving among you as certain entities in the physical plane.

The question: Are these reincarnated energies in physical bodies moving among us in the physical plane totally aware that they are doing so and recognize and understand the parallels in consciousness, that means the physical plane viewed from another dimension is on an imaginary level and the other dimension being a reality, yet from the physical plane the other dimension may be seen simply as an illusionary or hallucinatory level of consciousness. Thus it is a matter of viewpoint which of these points of observation is considered to be the reality. As all physical form is in reality vibration and all vibration is in reality consciousness, with the energy or action of this physical consciousness being that which is the frequency. Is this a correct assumption, and if so was this recognized and understood by those involved? Will there be any remembrance of this past experience and what happened to them?

And also on this, have all of those mummified during the Atlantean period now returned to their original course? What happened when Atlantis sank? Was that mummified consciousness of those involved in the sinking lost forever and beyond redemption?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness asks: Where should this Awareness begin? There has been so much presented that it is difficult for this Awareness to make comments on any single part of the commentary. Therefore this Awareness will begin at the end and make comments first of the Atlantean mummies. The mummification program at that time was primarily directed at Atlantis and the colonies of Atlantis and not for the world as known today. As the Atlantean mummification program was infiltrated and taken over by the Orion-Reptilian faction, the dreams that would create that which was the powerful continent of Atlantis were also corrupted and changed.

Eventually there was a fracturing at the base level of consciousness that underpinned the Atlantean mind, the Atlantean spirit, and when this fracturing occurred from within, it eventually led to the fracturing on the physical level, at the sub-structural level of the continent itself. Crystals were involved, as has so often been cited as the reason for the collapse of the continent, but before the corruption of the sub-structures and the crystalline structure of the planet and the continent occurred, there was a fracturing at the base inner level from the inside out, and not from the outside in.

Thus it was that the initial mummification program was designed to enhance the society and it is so that it came from those enlightened levels of consciousness that superseded physical third dimensional reality, and the dreamer was that who held the dream for what could be, and the physical reality then became so. With the fracturing of that which was the purity of the dream there was a consequence that finally expressed itself in the fracturing of the people, the society, the civilization, and finally the land structure itself. This is what is seen to have been behind the destruction of the mummification program, which was a very enlightened understanding of the multidimensional nature of reality, and it became corrupted down to a very unilateral level, which could not sustain life and the people and the land.

This Awareness is at a loss of how to respond to the preceding commentary and wishes it to be broken down somewhat, starting with the question of the unconscious nature of those who walk on the planet at this time.

Do The Awakening Mummies Remember?

QUESTIONER:

Very well. It starts off: Are these reincarnated energies in physical bodies moving among us in the physical plane totally aware that they are doing so, and recognize and understand the parallels in consciousness?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

Largely at this time, those who have come to the planet are unconscious of the true nature of their being. They are now starting to wake up to a depth of their own being, and an expansion of who they truly are. Hand in hand within this is the expansion of consciousness that is now starting to accelerate. This was part of the design of those who created the mummification program of the Ra-Ta experience. Hand in hand with this is the literal bursting in to physical form, many who would be here of that expanded nature, that greater being who would begin to wake up and in awakening would begin to sense themselves and their greater Divine Purpose that is aligned with that expansion of consciousness and the movement into Ascension at this time.

Thus, even though many are unconscious, many have a deep sense of purpose. Many of the Wanderers and Light Workers are of this ilk and are enlightened beings who chose to come back onto this planet, who volunteered to come back into the dense energies of a lost planet, or a planet that had fallen into a deep coma, with the intent and desire of awakening the masses, even though many understood that they themselves would have to become unconscious at first, and many understood that a real danger presented itself that they may never truly wake up and get themselves involved in the wheel of karma, trapping them on the physical cycle of life and lifetimes, even though this is not necessarily what they wished to occur. Still, they knew the danger, still they volunteered, still they came, still they are here, and the wave of consciousness that is now sweeping the planet and is awakening humanity has indeed begun, and the awakening consciousness from those mummies that are now being released into whole consciousness is part of the awakening process. Does this help clarify the matter?

QUESTIONER:

Yes it does, and I thank you.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness asks that the remainder be presented but focused down so that this Awareness can present its information and insights.

WHEN PSYCHOLOGICAL TIES BREAKS

QUESTIONER:

(Very good.) Additional information concerning present-day individuals who were previously mummified indicated wherein a type of psychological tie exists and when it is broken the person has more freedom. The advantages of such a tie is in helping to guide and direct an entity in different lifetimes, and in that guidance allowed for many things that the entity was programmed to do to be completed and once this guiding tie is broken, the entity must drift on his own, think for himself or receive higher guidance, not from the past programming, but from Divine Guidance in order to function in a way that is suitable for the entity's destiny or purposes.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would make comment at this point. This Awareness wishes to draw the analogy between autopilot and manual control. When an aircraft is put on autopilot, or a car on cruise control, the vehicle can fly itself or drive at a constant speed, freeing the pilot or the driver from having to attend to mundane issues and matters. In other words, there is that which is governed by the autopilot or cruise control that is an advantage in the mundane running of the vehicle, because there is not a requirement for the operator to be fully engaged in every act of flight or driving.

However, the autopilot, the cruise control is only effective to a certain degree, and at some point, both must be released so that the operator of the vehicle can take control and make decisions. When this occurs, the emphasis and onus is now on the pilot or the driver and there are consequences to his or her choice. On the whole, the trip goes well, choices are made, the aircraft is landed, the car driven to its destination, but occasionally there are accidents and when these accidents occur there are losses. However, this does not mean that what should be developed is an automatic control system that will take over completely, landing the plane, driving the car, and not allowing the operator of the vehicle to have his or her say in the matter, not allowing the operator participation.

This would be a form of automation, and as the journey into consciousness is about taking charge, taking control, learning, growing, developing a standing, such an automotive process would not be satisfactory to these principles and these purposes. Thus, at some point, the individual must be freed up so that they can align themselves to higher powers that would guide them, but still allow them the freedom of making choices, the free will that humanity has been granted. The down side is that choices will be made that lead not into the expansion of consciousness, but into the manipulation and control of consciousness, will lead one to try to assert power over others for their own gratification or for their own glorification and reward.

This is one of the possibilities and one of the consequences of giving free will and free choice. The other possibility is that choices will be made that lead the individual back into the truer understanding of their higher nature and character. In some ways, the control of consciousness through automated protocols and templates of consciousness has helped mankind proceed along the way, but now a point has been reached that each and every human is being given the choice to awaken. These are the times of awakening, both on an individual level and on a collective level.

The mummification is helping to disconnect that which was the automated control of consciousness to bring it back to a point where cruise control is being removed, and autopilot is being disengaged and many will awaken for the first time in their lives, for the first time in many lifetimes. Many will not like this or enjoy this or wish it, and would rather be asleep, just as the individual in the movie The Matrix chose to be reinstated back into the Matrix, but many more will choose to move forward, to learn how to truly be in charge of their own vessel, their own vehicle, their own lives, and as this occurs, that which is Ascension will take them to the next level, the next stage of their own growth and development in consciousness.

This Awareness is complete with Its commentary and is open for further questions or to continue with the commentary itself.

Will the Mummy Consciousness be Released in 2009?

Thank you. Just a couple of short ones... Will the consciousness of all of the Ra-Ta mummies be released by the end of this year, and if so, will they remember their experiences of being mummified?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that all of the Ra-Ta consciousness will be released by the end of this year. The third wave will happen in the year 2011- 2012. It seems around the Christmas to New Year period of 2011 to 2012. Many will remember, but not all, but it is not necessary for all to remember. All have the potential to remember if it is brought to their attention, or they go through that which is known as past life regression. The memories are not deeply buried and can be easily retrieved if that is the wish or the desire, however not all will have this wish or desire to do so.

QUESTIONER:

Would this have affected them in any way?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

It is not seen that it would have affected them for it was by agreement and design that they volunteered. Many other lifetimes were lived, but lifetimes that were not as whole or complete because the portion of their consciousness that was given to the mummification project was missing. This will be returned to many. Many will wake up to their more true and developed nature and it will simply be accepted that it is now done and complete, and they will move on with their lives and their advancement in consciousness.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you) In light of the many CAC issues this topic has been presented in, we do, on behalf of mankind, appreciate all of the previous assistance offered and extended to us by these mummies over the years.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would then ask that you thank yourself, for you too, as the Interpreter and many of the CAC members, were part of this program and process, and you as well as all others are waking up to the memory of what was and why you chose to do this for the benefit and advancement of humanity.

QUESTIONER:

Thank you) That's very interesting! The members will also be surprised.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

One of the factors that distinguishes one who was known as a Wanderer was their participation in that experiment, that program that was known as the Ra-Ta mummification project.

QUESTIONER:

Is there a closing message?

YOU ARE ALICE IN WONDERLAND!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes it to be understood that the times ahead are equivalent to the analogy of the rabbit going down the rabbit hole in the story of Alice in Wonderland. The entity Alice chose to follow the rabbit down the rabbit hole and was introduced to the most amazing and fanciful world, a world beyond her comprehension until she went down the rabbit hole. The fact that it was not normal reality does not deny the actual reality of Wonderland, and that she was privy to a new level of awareness, understanding and consciousness. For many, the events that are unfolding at this time are equivalent to going down the rabbit hole.

Many things will open up that challenge the individual, but with patience, trust and faith, those who have an awareness of the changing realities will see that that which is being now presented, even as incredible as it may be, is still reality, a reality much different than that which has been the norm for so long, but nonetheless a reality that can become the norm. The adventure must be always considered as this: an adventure that will take one into wild and unknown spaces and places, an adventure that will magnify both the hopes and the fears of individuals as they become aware of their true natures, their deeper natures, as they become aware that perhaps they themselves are the Creators of the realities that they are experiencing.

In the end it is hoped that all will begin to understand that they are in Wonderland, and that the Wonderland of their own creation can be a wondrous adventure indeed, or a true descent into hell. This is the nature of the power of each and every Creator Being and it is why this information is being presented at this time, to help one and all understand the power of their own creative nature and their own expanded being. This Awareness is complete. (The Law of Gratitude is given)

MICHAEL JACKSON ASSASSINATED BY CIA? (Some of Russia's Sorcha Faal Reports are Examined)

QUESTION:

The first question is from JL. No location is given. He writes, "Has Cosmic Awareness ever mentioned Sorcha Faal? Seems like It has but my memory is not too good. Anyway, here is a URL I want you to check out and asks Awareness about...."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness wishes to jump in immediately by stating that It has no recollection or remembrance of ever making comment on this particular source: Sorcha Faal. Please proceed.

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you)...."and ask is Sorcha Faal a good source?" That's his question.

There are three sample reports that Sorcha has published. The first one is: Russia's FSB Reports Pop Icon Michael Jackson Assassinated by CIA. The commentary is that: "American pop icon Michael Jackson was "most assuredly" assassinated by the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) after an examination of data transmitted by a Russian Military's Kosmos 2450 satellite show "conclusively" that immediately prior to the music star's death in Los Angeles, an electromagnetic pulse consistent in pattern to EMR weapons, looted from the former Soviet Union by the United States, was employed at the "exact coordinates" of the rock star's home."

Do you have a comment on this particular one please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does not wish to get deeply into the discussion of Michael Jackson or his death at this moment, but this Awareness does have further information and will give it at a later date about this event. What this Awareness would say is that there is much more behind his death than is currently being speculated on, and that yes, there was some plot that was initiated that saw to his death occurring. There were certain agencies that were ordered to kill this entity off for certain reasons. This Awareness will elaborate on this matter at a later date.

This Awareness will also suggest that the report that a pulse weapon was used at the moment of Michael's death is not exactly correct. It is not here that this Awareness sees that there was CIA involvement through the use of a pulse weapon. Therefore, this Awareness does not agree entirely with this report, although there is substance behind the allegation that Michael Jackson was killed off.

U.S. PLANES SPREADING SWINE FLU CHEMTRAILS SHOT DOWN IN INDIA/NIGERIA (Sorcha Faal Discloses Secret U.S. Operations)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The next report is: "US Reported in "Panic" After Chemtrail Planes Forced Down in India, Nigeria." The commentary is: "Russian military analysts are reporting in the Kremlin that US military forces are "panicked" over the forced landings ordered by Indian and Nigerian Air Forces of two Ukrainian AN-124 aircraft operated by the United States Air Force and based at their gigantic but secretive, Diego Garcia Air Base located in the Indian Ocean. According to these reports, China's People's Liberation Army Air Force (PLAAF) notified both India and Nigerian intelligence officials about the presence of these US operated Ukrainian aircraft over their growing concerns of the US spreading of biological agents throughout our earth's atmosphere, and which some Chinese officials are warning is an American-European attempt to conduct mass genocide via the spread of H1N1 swine flu virus which has put the entire global population at risk."

There's more, but based on this is there any comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness does confirm that there were several planes under the authority of the US Air Force that were shot down while on a mission to lay down chemtrails. The Indian and Nigerian authorities shot these planes down, well within their rights to shoot down an enemy aircraft that threatens their people. This Awareness does not see that the US military is in a blind panic over this. It has simply accepted that these planes were shot down and the intent is to send more at a later date. The use of the chemtrails is not, strictly speaking, that which is authorized by the US military, but rather by those who have control of the US military, those who issue the orders.

Therefore, it is not the US military, strictly speaking, who is engaging in this operation, but those who are behind the military, who sanction the actions and activities of the military. These are the ones who are concerned that they have finally been called to task, so to speak, with the shooting down of their planes, for they have engaged in the laying down of chemtrails with complete impunity in North America, but they are now operating outside of the reaches of their influence in that the nations mentioned, India and Nigeria, are not strict in their conformance to the Power Elite. It is easier to lay down chemtrail in European lands where there is more compliance to those who have control and power than in third world nations, although India is now beginning to challenge that designation.

The countries India and Nigeria chose to oppose this covert action by justifiably shooting down these aircraft that to them were attacking their peoples and their lands. The report is correct in this matter. It is not correct that there is a panic amongst the US military or even those who are in charge of these activities and who have sanctioned these actions. It is more that they are concerned, but they have been so used to getting their way, that they will continue to launch further attacks on these countries as well as other third world countries, for it must be remembered that their purpose is global genocide, and not simply regional genocide. They have done much experimenting with regional genocide in the past and now they are prepared to go the distance and lay down chemtrails with the various viral infections and contaminants that they have been spreading for years and years already. In this the report is correct.

SWINE FLU LINKED TO GE POTATOES (Sorcha Faal Says Fast-Food French Fries Are Designed to Kill)

QUESTION:

(Thank you) The last report that I have is entitled: Russian Scientists Warn of Genetically Modified Fast Food Link to Pandemic Flu, and the report here reads, "Scientists from Russia's Ministry of Health are warning in a secret report to Prime Minister Putin that they have discovered a "critical link" between the H1N1 influenza virus and genetically modified amylopectin potatoes that you get to meet new people everyday.

are consumed in massive quantities nearly exclusively by Westerners and sold in fast food restaurants as French Fries. Evidence confirming these dire findings by top Russian scientists is also supported by the World Health Organization who in their reporting on the current influenza pandemic clearly shows that the H1N1 virus is nearly totally confined to those Western nations allowing their citizens to consume these genetically modified potatoes, and which include: the United States, with over 17,000 cases being reported with 45 deaths; Canada with 2,978 cases; the United Kingdom with 1,226 cases; and Australia with 1,823 cases."

It carries on an on. Your comment please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

All this proves is that which this Awareness has been speaking on for many years, that there is a plan to reduce the world's populace and this plan of action is multi-pronged. It has many prongs to use to ensure the eradication of large amounts of individuals. The biogenetic alteration of foods in the nations mentioned as well as other processes such as irradiation of foods have been sanctioned for many years now, even with the approval of the Federal Agencies of the nations involved. The FDA has long supported such actions and has of course been the rubber stamp that has apparently given validation to foods that are currently consumed in the United States, and drugs that are used in the United States for the supposition is that the FDA is there for the consumer's protection, but this is of course erroneous.

Genetically engineered foods are not limited to fast foods, to the French Fries sold in fast food outlets, but is across the board and applied to many products. There are popular food products that are sold, that are foisted as good foods that are anything but. This Awareness reminds one and all of the controversy around butter, a few years ago, where butter was presented as something that should be avoided and margarine instead be used in place of butter. Several years later it was then reported that butter is not that bad, and that margarine may be more harmful for the trans-fats, for the way of processing oils so that they would stay in a solid state. Margarine is but one chemical step away from being literally a product of plastic.

Deadly Aspartame and NutraSweet Still Being Used

This again is but one example. There are many examples available. There are many different ingredients put into many products that have never been tested for multiple effects of the chemicals used in the product. Aspartame and NutraSweet and other artificial sweeteners are still being used in large amounts. There are even now products that are to give water that crystal taste, that flavor that many are turning to. These products have Aspartame in them. This is a concerted effort on many fronts. The use of chemtrails was to help break down the immune systems of the people that it was released upon. The altered genetically engineered foods were for the same purpose, to break down the immune system, in other words to create unhealthy people, obesity being an example of their success.

Why Swine Flu Mainly Attacks the Young

Furthermore, the target range was specific to a younger populace that often consumed fast foods, and prepared meals that simply had to be heated, a populace that grew up with chemicals as part of their diet, never questioning, never thinking, never imagining that what is added to the foods they eat may be detrimental to them. Thus it is that the health issues suffered by the young have been on the increase. Thus it is that the H1N1 virus affects mainly younger individuals, those who have become addicted to their fast foods and their prepared meals, those who do not know how to take natural organic vegetables and products and make meals from them.

Food of the Third World is Much Healthier

Everything is designed towards speed and expediency in the Western world, especially in the North America, especially in the United States of America. Ironically enough, the third world countries are far less affected for their people do not use fast foods to the degree that they are consumed in North America. While they may have a lesser amount of food to actually consume, that which they have is still far purer in nature than any of the genetically altered crops that are now available in Western countries. Thus, when there is an invasion of their nation, there is resilience to this invasion of culture. Thus it is that those countries still do not have the McDonald's, The Wendy's, the Tim Horton's, and the many fast food outlets that are so common in North America for example.

Thus it is that when chemtrails are laid down, that these governments that are not quite under the control to the same degree as the more advanced First World nations are, or so it is alleged, will take measures to shoot down those planes that would be laying down the chemtrails. In other words, the report is correct to a degree, but it does not go far enough. It is pointing the link out between fast foods, especially genetically altered French Fries, and this is accurate to the degree of the report, but does not go far enough into investigating the full picture.

IPods and Computers are Also Part of the Plot

When one adds to this scenario the introduction of the youth in the Western civilized world to computers and computer programs and Ipods as well as the many electronic distractions that are now available to the young people, which of course takes them away from a more active lifestyle, where once they would have been outside running and playing, but instead now they sit in front of a computer or a screen for long hours, this is also part of the overall plan of reducing the health and well-being of the populace. These are all part of a more overall insidious plot that has been long underway by those Powers That Be, those who have control and are in charge, those who have for so long had their way.

This Awareness is complete with this question.

DISCREDITING SORCHA FAAL BY DAVID BOOTH (Are They the Same Person?)

QUESTIONER:

(Thank you). Concerning Sorcha, an Internet search revealed that she was discredited by David Booth in the abovetopsecret.com site, yet some additional information written by another person indicate that David Booth and Sorcha Faal are one and the same person. Is that true?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

First of all, this Awareness does not see the latter part of the statement as true or accurate. They are not the same source or individual. As far as the discrediting of Sorcha Faal by David Booth, this Awareness does not see David Booth as highly sincere or to be completely trusted himself. The Sorcha Faal information is largely being presented to the former Soviet Union bloc countries and others who are not, strictly speaking, part of the cabal of the Western world, yet who still are somewhat involved as is evidenced by their own actions against their own peoples. They too are part of the global New World Order, but there is still far greater freedom in those nations to report information that is completely censored in the Western world.

This does not mean that Sorcha Faal is always completely correct either, or that there isn't a predisposition to attack the West because of former Communist temperaments and opinions. In other words, many of the reports feed that previous way of thinking that was held by those of the Soviet Union against their Western enemies. This does not mean that the reports do not have validity, as has been seen in the three examples that have been presented today. It is simple enough that this Awareness is suggesting that even though there is truth in these reports, there is still bias in the reports.

The Best Way to Disinform People

The entity David Booth is a source of disinformation as well as information. Often that which he reports is not entirely true or accurate, and yet there are those other reports that do have high validity and truth to them. The best way to disinform a people is by giving them the truth and then slipping in that which is erroneous, that which is deceitful, that which is meant to misguide. The individuals reading the truthful reports will not then question that which is not the truth, and it is through this procedure that many are led astray. Thinking that they know the truth of the matter, they then present this truth to others, some of whom are taken in, some who reject the truth, but the important matter here is to understand that this information is best achieved and best served when there are elements of truth in reports that will mislead and misguide.

This individual David Booth is seen to be someone who is a source of disinformation and is not entirely accurate in his own reporting. Therefore, to suggest that Sorcha Faal is inaccurate is more a way of distracting individuals who may be reading reports by her on the Internet, a way to misguide and mislead, for if those who read David Booth trust him implicitly, they will also trust that what he says about the individual Sorcha Faal must also be true and correct. This is simply not so. Does this answer the question?

QUESTIONER:

It does to a point. If her information...I understand it is a group of people, so that just one person is not involved in this.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is so.

QUESTIONER:

If the majority of her information is correct and yet, as the Soviet Union/Russia, some of the information is biased toward them, is the information that is not correct, is that what a person should be looking for?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

What this Awareness would suggest is the following: An individual always question any report. There is first and foremost a presumption that the information reported may not be correct, no matter what source it comes from, no matter whether it is from David Booth, Sorcha Faal, or even from this Awareness. When one has such a philosophy, then one will not quickly fall under anyone's spell, will not quickly abdicate their own ability to reason and sort and figure out. The greater problem here is that there is always a tendency to believe the sources that provide the information, and this gullibility runs across the board for all humans.

This is especially so when they value the source of the information and do not question its validity. Thus it is that many hold as completely valid information presented by the governments, their own government always being preferred to foreign governments, which are more suspect. There are those in Iran in these very troubled times who still believe the hard line they are being given, although this is obvious to those who are observers of the event that there is deceit and there are lies, yet it is not as easy for someone in the United States to see the same in the reports that they read in their papers, or see being reported on the television.

Much Internet News is Misinformation

There is not that same willingness to question their own information sources, for it is assumed that they would not lie or misrepresent the truth, and yet this is exactly what does occur all of the time. Then there are those who go to the Internet to find that which is the underground news, the news that comes from beyond the controlled press. Ironically, there is still a similar action that occurs here also. Those who are seekers of the truth often still presume that simply because they have read this or that report from a source that they may consider as credible for in the past the truth has been reported and has been shown to be valid. Their assumption is that all truth, all reports from that source will always be valid.

The discernment that is needed and is absolutely necessary often fails to be carried out. This causes that disinformation, that belief in those reports that are false and accurate that lead those individuals astray. It is not a matter of whether or not the entity and organization of David Booth is more accurate than the entity and organization of Sorcha Faal. It is that these are sources of information available to those who seek this information out, and that neither is 100% without bias, neither is 100% true and accurate. Indeed, this Awareness will say that no source available at this time that purports to send out information that goes beyond controlled information, controlled news, is 100% accurate or correct.

This leaves the reader and recipient of such information in a position that they must always question. They must always discern. They must always recognize that there are certain biases that are held by those who report the information. Much of the information that is reported does not contain a spiritual perspective or an idea that this may all be part of a greater picture, a greater reason and purpose for being. This must also be part of the analysis of any report: What is the greater purpose here? What is the Greater Picture here? All of these factors taken together will allow the individual who is receiving such information to make up his or her own mind.

Ultimately it is the responsibility of the reader, of the recipient of such information to walk the straight and narrow, to determine the truth as well as they can. This does not mean they will always be successful in doing so. It simply means that they will be less likely to be duped if they seek out alternative sources, if they seek to confirm the information even from within themselves and to feel it out and to sense that which is the greater truth that comes from within in regards to much of this information. If this occurs, then it is less likely that an individual will be duped by any single person or source that claims to be speaking the truth.

Does this help explain this matter to the energizer?
